
<sup>1</sup>Live under the protection of God Most High and stay in the shadow of God All-Powerful.

<sup>2</sup>Then you will say to the LORD, “You are my fortress, my place of safety; you are my God, and I trust you.”

<sup>3</sup>The Lord will keep you safe from secret traps and deadly diseases.

<sup>4</sup>He will spread his wings over you and keep you secure. His faithfulness is like a shield or a city wall.

<sup>5</sup>You won't need to worry about dangers at night or arrows during the day.

<sup>6</sup>And you won't fear diseases that strike in the dark or sudden disaster at midday.

<sup>7</sup>You will not be harmed, though thousands fall all around you.

<sup>8</sup>And with your own eyes you will see the punishment of the wicked.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD Most High is your fortress. Run to him for safety, <sup>10</sup>and no terrible disasters will strike you or your home.

<sup>11</sup>God will command his angels to protect you wherever you go.

<sup>12</sup>They will carry you in their arms, and you won't hurt your feet on the stones.

<sup>13</sup>You will overpower the strongest lions and the most deadly snakes.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord says, “If you love me and truly know who I am, I will rescue you and keep you safe.

<sup>15</sup>When you are in trouble, call out to me. I will answer and be there to protect and honour you.

<sup>16</sup>You will live a long life and see my saving power.”

Psalm 92

(A psalm and a song for the Sabbath.)

Sing praises to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>It is wonderful to be grateful and to sing your praises, LORD Most High!

<sup>2</sup>It is wonderful each morning to tell about your love and at night to announce how faithful you are.

<sup>3</sup>I enjoy praising your name to the music of harps,

<sup>4</sup>because everything you do makes me happy, and I sing joyful songs.

<sup>5</sup>You do great things, LORD. Your thoughts are too deep

<sup>6</sup>for an ignorant fool to know or understand.

<sup>7</sup>Though the wicked sprout and spread like grass, they will be pulled up by their roots.

<sup>8</sup>But you will rule over all of us for ever,

<sup>9</sup>and your hateful enemies will be scattered and then destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>You have given me the strength of a wild ox, and you have chosen me to be your very own.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes have seen, and my ears have heard the doom and destruction of my terrible enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Good people will prosper like palm trees, and they will grow strong like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>13</sup>They will take root in your house, LORD God, and they will do well.

<sup>14</sup>They will be like trees that stay healthy and fruitful, even when they are old.

<sup>15</sup>And they will say about you, “The LORD always does right! God is our mighty rock.”

Psalm 93

The LORD is king

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD, you are King! Majesty and power are your royal robes. You put the world in place, and it will never be moved.

<sup>2</sup>You have always ruled, and you are eternal.

<sup>3</sup>The ocean is roaring, LORD! The sea is pounding hard.

<sup>4</sup>Its mighty waves are majestic, but you are more majestic, and you rule over all.

<sup>5</sup>Your decisions are firm, and your temple will always be beautiful and holy.

Psalm 94

The LORD punishes the guilty

<sup>1</sup>LORD God, you punish the guilty. Show what you are like and punish them now.

<sup>2</sup>You judge the earth. Come and help us! Pay back those proud people for what they have done.

<sup>3</sup>How long will the wicked celebrate and be glad?

<sup>4</sup>All those cruel people strut and boast,

<sup>5</sup>and they crush and wound your chosen nation, LORD.

<sup>6</sup>They murder widows, foreigners, and orphans.

<sup>7</sup>Then they say, “The LORD God of Jacob doesn't see or know.”

<sup>8</sup>Can't you fools see? Won't you ever learn?

<sup>9</sup>God gave us ears and eyes! Can't he hear and see?

<sup>10</sup>God instructs the nations and gives knowledge to us all. Won't he also correct us?

<sup>11</sup>The LORD knows how useless our plans really are.

<sup>12</sup>Our LORD, you bless everyone whom you instruct and teach by using your Law.

<sup>13</sup>You give them rest from their troubles, until a pit can be dug for the wicked.

<sup>14</sup>You won't turn your back on your chosen nation.

<sup>15</sup>Justice and fairness will go hand in hand, and all who do right will follow along.

<sup>16</sup>Who will stand up for me against those cruel people?

<sup>17</sup>If you had not helped me, LORD, I would soon have gone to the land of silence.

<sup>18</sup>When I felt my feet slipping, you came with your love and kept me steady.

<sup>19</sup>And when I was burdened with worries, you comforted me and made me feel secure.

<sup>20</sup>But you are opposed to dishonest lawmakers

<sup>21</sup>who gang up to murder innocent victims.

<sup>22</sup>You, LORD God, are my fortress, that mighty rock where I am safe.

<sup>23</sup>You will pay back my enemies, and you will wipe them out for the evil they did.

Psalm 95

Worship and obey the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Sing joyful songs to the LORD! Praise the mighty rock where we are safe.

<sup>2</sup>Come to worship him with thankful hearts and songs of praise.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is the greatest God, king over all other gods.

<sup>4</sup>He holds the deepest part of the earth in his hands, and the mountain peaks belong to him.

<sup>5</sup>The ocean is the Lord's because he made it, and with his own hands he formed the dry land.

<sup>6</sup>Bow down and worship the LORD our Creator!

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is our God, and we are his people, the sheep he takes care of in his own pasture. Listen to God's voice today!

<sup>8</sup>Don't be stubborn and rebel as your ancestors did at Meribah and Massah out in the desert.

<sup>9</sup>For forty years they tested God and saw the things he did.

<sup>10</sup>Then God got tired of them and said, "You never show good sense, and you don't understand what I want you to do."

<sup>11</sup>In his anger, God told them, "You people will never enter my place of rest."

Psalm 96

Sing a new song to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Sing a new song to the LORD! Everyone on this earth, sing praises to the LORD,

<sup>2</sup>sing and praise his name. Day after day announce, "The LORD has saved us!"

<sup>3</sup>Tell every nation on earth, "The LORD is wonderful and does marvellous things!

<sup>4</sup>The LORD is great and deserves our greatest praise! He is the only God worthy of our worship.

<sup>5</sup>Other nations worship idols, but the LORD created the heavens.

<sup>6</sup>Give honour and praise to the LORD, whose power and beauty fill his holy temple."

<sup>7</sup>Tell everyone of every nation, "Praise the glorious power of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>He is wonderful! Praise him and bring an offering into his temple.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone on earth, now tremble and worship the LORD, majestic and holy.”

<sup>10</sup>Announce to the nations, “The LORD is King! The world stands firm, never to be shaken, and he will judge its people with fairness.”

<sup>11</sup>Tell the heavens and the earth to be glad and celebrate! Command the ocean to roar with all its creatures

<sup>12</sup>and the fields to rejoice with all their crops. Then every tree in the forest will sing joyful songs

<sup>13</sup>to the LORD. He is coming to judge all people on earth with fairness and truth.

Psalm 97

The LORD brings justice

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is King! Tell the earth to celebrate and all islands to shout.

<sup>2</sup>Dark clouds surround him, and his throne is supported by justice and fairness.

<sup>3</sup>Fire leaps from his throne, destroying his enemies,

<sup>4</sup>and his lightning is so bright that the earth sees it and trembles.

<sup>5</sup>Mountains melt away like wax in the presence of the LORD of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The heavens announce, “The LORD brings justice!” Everyone sees God’s glory.

<sup>7</sup>Those who boast about the useless idols they worship are terribly ashamed, and all the false gods bow down to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>When the people of Zion and of the towns of Judah hear that God brings justice, they will celebrate.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD rules the whole earth, and he is more glorious than all the false gods.

<sup>10</sup>Love the LORD and hate evil! God protects his loyal people and rescues them from violence.

<sup>11</sup>If you obey and do right, a light will show you the way and fill you with happiness.

<sup>12</sup>You are the LORD's people! So celebrate and praise the only God.

Psalm 98

The LORD works miracles

<sup>1</sup>Sing a new song to the LORD! He has worked miracles, and with his own powerful arm, he has won the victory.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD has shown the nations that he has the power to save and to bring justice.

<sup>3</sup>God has been faithful in his love for Israel, and his saving power is seen everywhere on earth.

<sup>4</sup>Tell everyone on this earth to sing happy songs in praise of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Make music for him on harps. Play beautiful melodies!

<sup>6</sup>Sound the trumpets and horns and celebrate with joyful songs for our LORD and King!

<sup>7</sup>Command the ocean to roar with all its creatures, and the earth to shout with all its people.

<sup>8</sup>Order the rivers to clap their hands, and all the hills to sing together.

<sup>9</sup>Let them worship the LORD! He is coming to judge everyone on the earth, and he will be honest and fair.

Psalm 99

Our LORD is king

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD, you are King! You rule from your throne above the winged creatures, as people tremble and the earth shakes.

<sup>2</sup>You are praised in Zion, and you control all nations.

<sup>3</sup>Only you are God! And your power alone, so great and fearsome, is worthy of praise.

<sup>4</sup>You are our mighty King, a lover of fairness, who sees that justice is done everywhere in Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Our LORD and our God, we praise you and kneel down to worship you, the God of holiness!

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were two of your priests. Samuel was also one of those who prayed in your name, and you, our LORD, answered their prayers.

<sup>7</sup>You spoke to them from a thick cloud, and they obeyed your laws.

<sup>8</sup>Our LORD and our God, you answered their prayers and forgave their sins, but when they did wrong, you punished them.

<sup>9</sup>We praise you, LORD God, and we worship you at your sacred mountain. Only you are God!

Psalm 100

(A psalm of praise.)

The LORD is God

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD, everyone on this earth.

<sup>2</sup>Be joyful and sing as you come in to worship the LORD!

<sup>3</sup>You know the LORD is God! He created us, and we belong to him; we are his people, the sheep in his pasture.

<sup>4</sup>Be thankful and praise the LORD as you enter his temple.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is good! His love and faithfulness will last for ever.

Psalm 101

(A psalm by David.)

A king and his promises

<sup>1</sup>I will sing to you, LORD! I will celebrate your kindness and your justice.

<sup>2</sup>Please help me learn to do the right thing, and I will be honest and fair in my own kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>I refuse to be corrupt or to take part in anything crooked,

<sup>4</sup>and I won't be dishonest or deceitful.

<sup>5</sup>Anyone who spreads gossip will be silenced, and no one who is conceited will be my friend.

<sup>6</sup>I will find trustworthy people to serve as my advisers, and only an honest person will serve as an official.

<sup>7</sup>No one who cheats or lies will have a position in my royal court.

<sup>8</sup>Each morning I will silence any lawbreakers I find in the countryside or in the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102

(A prayer for someone who suffers and needs to ask the LORD for help.)

A prayer in time of trouble

<sup>1</sup>I pray to you, LORD! Please listen.

<sup>2</sup>Don't hide from me in my time of trouble. Pay attention to my prayer and quickly give an answer.

<sup>3</sup>My days disappear like smoke, and my bones are burning as though in a furnace.

<sup>4</sup>I am wasting away like grass, and my appetite is gone.

<sup>5</sup>My groaning never stops, and my bones can be seen through my skin.

<sup>6</sup>I am like a lonely owl in the desert

<sup>7</sup>or a restless sparrow alone on a roof.

<sup>8</sup>My enemies insult me all day, and they use my name for a curse word.

<sup>9</sup>Instead of food, I have ashes to eat and tears to drink,

<sup>10</sup>because you are furious and have thrown me aside.

<sup>11</sup>My life fades like a shadow at the end of day and withers like grass.

<sup>12</sup>Our LORD, you are King for ever and will always be famous.

- <sup>13</sup>You will show pity to Zion because the time has come.
- <sup>14</sup>We, your servants, love each stone in the city, and we are sad to see them lying in the dust.
- <sup>15</sup>Our LORD, the nations will honour you, and all kings on earth will praise your glory.
- <sup>16</sup>You will rebuild the city of Zion. Your glory will be seen,
- <sup>17</sup>and the prayers of the homeless will be answered.
- <sup>18</sup>Future generations must also praise the LORD, so write this for them:
- <sup>19</sup>“From his holy temple, the LORD looked down at the earth.
- <sup>20</sup>He listened to the groans of prisoners, and he rescued everyone who was doomed to die.”
- <sup>21</sup>All Jerusalem should praise you, our LORD,
- <sup>22</sup>when people from every nation meet to worship you.
- <sup>23</sup>I should still be strong, but you, LORD, have made an old person of me.
- <sup>24</sup>You will live for ever! Years mean nothing to you. Don't cut my life in half!
- <sup>25</sup>In the beginning, LORD, you laid the earth's foundation and created the heavens.
- <sup>26</sup>They will all disappear and wear out like clothes. You change them, as you would a coat, but you last for ever.
- <sup>27</sup>You are always the same. Years cannot change you.
- <sup>28</sup>Every generation of those who serve you will live in your presence.

Psalm 103

(By David.)

The LORD's wonderful love

- <sup>1</sup>With all my heart I praise the LORD, and with all that I am I praise his holy name!

<sup>2</sup>With all my heart I praise the LORD! I will never forget how kind he has been.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD forgives our sins, heals us when we are sick,

<sup>4</sup>and protects us from death. His kindness and love are a crown on our heads.

<sup>5</sup>Each day that we live, he provides for our needs and gives us the strength of a young eagle.

<sup>6</sup>For all who are ill-treated, the LORD brings justice.

<sup>7</sup>He taught his Law to Moses and showed all Israel what he could do.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is merciful! He is kind and patient, and his love never fails.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD won't always be angry and point out our sins;

<sup>10</sup>he doesn't punish us as our sins deserve.

<sup>11</sup>How great is God's love for all who worship him? Greater than the distance between heaven and earth!

<sup>12</sup>How far has the LORD taken our sins from us? Further than the distance from east to west!

<sup>13</sup>Just as parents are kind to their children, the LORD is kind to all who worship him, <sup>14</sup>because he knows we are made of dust.

<sup>15</sup>We humans are like grass or wild flowers that quickly bloom.

<sup>16</sup>But a scorching wind blows, and they quickly wither to be for ever forgotten.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD is always kind to those who worship him, and he keeps his promises to their descendants

<sup>18</sup>who faithfully obey him.

<sup>19</sup>God has set up his kingdom in heaven, and he rules the whole creation.

<sup>20</sup>All you mighty angels, who obey God's commands, come and praise your LORD!

<sup>21</sup>All you thousands who serve and obey God, come and praise your LORD!

<sup>22</sup>All God's creation and all that he rules, come and praise your LORD! With all my heart I praise the LORD!

Psalm 104

The LORD takes care of his creation

<sup>1</sup>I praise you, LORD God, with all my heart. You are glorious and majestic, dressed in royal robes

<sup>2</sup>and surrounded by light. You spread out the sky like a tent,

<sup>3</sup>and you built your home over the mighty ocean. The clouds are your chariot with the wind as its wings.

<sup>4</sup>The winds are your messengers, and flames of fire are your servants.

<sup>5</sup>You built foundations for the earth, and it will never be shaken.

<sup>6</sup>You covered the earth with the ocean that rose above the mountains.

<sup>7</sup>Then your voice thundered! And the water flowed

<sup>8</sup>down the mountains and through the valleys to the place you prepared.

<sup>9</sup>Now you have set boundaries, so that the water will never flood the earth again.

<sup>10</sup>You provide streams of water in the hills and valleys,

<sup>11</sup>so that the donkeys and other wild animals can satisfy their thirst.

<sup>12</sup>Birds build their nests nearby and sing in the trees.

<sup>13</sup>From your home above you send rain on the hills and water the earth.

<sup>14</sup>You let the earth produce grass for cattle, plants for our food,

<sup>15</sup>wine to cheer us up, olive oil for our skin, and grain for our health.

<sup>16</sup>Our LORD, your trees always have water, and so do the cedars you planted in Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup>Birds nest in those trees, and storks make their home in the fir trees.

<sup>18</sup>Wild goats find a home in the tall mountains, and small animals can hide between the rocks.

<sup>19</sup>You created the moon to tell us the seasons. The sun knows when to set,

<sup>20</sup>and you made the darkness, so the animals in the forest could come out at night.

<sup>21</sup>Lions roar as they hunt for the food you provide.

<sup>22</sup>But when morning comes, they return to their dens,

<sup>23</sup>then we go out to work until the end of day.

<sup>24</sup>Our LORD, by your wisdom you made so many things; the whole earth is covered with your living creatures.

<sup>25</sup>But what about the ocean so big and wide? It is alive with creatures, large and small.

<sup>26</sup>And there are the ships, as well as Leviathan, the monster you created to splash in the sea.

<sup>27</sup>All of these depend on you to provide them with food,

<sup>28</sup>and you feed each one with your own hand, until they are full.

<sup>29</sup>But when you turn away, they are terrified; when you end their life, they die and rot.

<sup>30</sup>You created all of them by your Spirit, and you give new life to the earth.

<sup>31</sup>Our LORD, we pray that your glory will last for ever and that you will be pleased with what you have done.

<sup>32</sup>You look at the earth, and it trembles. You touch the mountains, and smoke goes up.

<sup>33</sup>As long as I live, I will sing and praise you, the LORD God.

<sup>34</sup>I hope my thoughts will please you, because you are the one who makes me glad.

<sup>35</sup>Destroy all wicked sinners from the earth once and for all. With all my heart I praise you, LORD! I praise you!

Psalm 105

The LORD can be trusted

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD and pray in his name! Tell everyone what he has done.

<sup>2</sup>Sing praises to the LORD! Tell about his miracles.

<sup>3</sup>Celebrate and worship his holy name with all your heart.

<sup>4</sup>Trust the LORD and his mighty power.

<sup>5</sup>Remember his miracles and all his wonders and his fair decisions.

<sup>6</sup>You belong to the family of Abraham, his servant; you are his chosen ones, the descendants of Jacob.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is our God, bringing justice everywhere on earth.

<sup>8</sup>He will never forget his agreement or his promises, not in thousands of years.

<sup>9-10</sup> God made an eternal promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,

<sup>11</sup>when he said, "I'll give you the land of Canaan."

<sup>12</sup>At the time there were only a few of us, and we were homeless.

<sup>13</sup>We wandered from nation to nation, from one country to another.

<sup>14</sup>God did not let anyone ill-treat our people. Instead he protected us by punishing rulers

<sup>15</sup>and telling them, "Don't touch my chosen leaders or harm my prophets!"

<sup>16</sup>God kept crops from growing until food was scarce everywhere in the land.

<sup>17</sup>But he had already sent Joseph, sold as a slave into Egypt,

- <sup>18</sup> with chains of iron around his legs and neck.
- <sup>19</sup> Joseph remained a slave until his own words had come true, and the LORD had finished testing him.
- <sup>20</sup> Then the king of Egypt set Joseph free
- <sup>21</sup> and put him in charge of everything he owned.
- <sup>22</sup> Joseph was in command of the officials, and he taught the leaders how to use wisdom.
- <sup>23</sup> Jacob and his family came and settled in Egypt as foreigners.
- <sup>24</sup> They were the LORD's people, so he let them grow stronger than their enemies.
- <sup>25</sup> They served the LORD, and he made the Egyptians plan hateful things against them.
- <sup>26</sup> God sent his servant Moses. He also chose and sent Aaron
- <sup>27</sup> to his people in Egypt, and they worked miracles and wonders there.
- <sup>28</sup> Moses and Aaron obeyed God, and he sent darkness to cover Egypt.
- <sup>29</sup> God turned their rivers into streams of blood, and the fish all died.
- <sup>30</sup> Frogs were everywhere, even in the royal palace.
- <sup>31</sup> When God gave the command, flies and gnats swarmed all around.
- <sup>32</sup> In place of rain, God sent hailstones and flashes of lightning.
- <sup>33</sup> He destroyed their grapevines and their fig trees, and he made splinters of all the other trees.
- <sup>34</sup> God gave the command, and more grasshoppers came than could be counted.
- <sup>35</sup> They ate every green plant and all the crops that grew in the land of Egypt.
- <sup>36</sup> Then God took the life of every firstborn son.

<sup>37</sup>When God led Israel from Egypt, they took silver and gold, and no one was left behind.

<sup>38</sup>The Egyptians were afraid and gladly let them go.

<sup>39</sup>God hid them under a cloud and guided them by fire during the night.

<sup>40</sup>When they asked for food, he sent more birds than they could eat.

<sup>41</sup>God even split open a rock, and streams of water gushed into the desert.

<sup>42</sup>God never forgot his sacred promise to his servant Abraham.

<sup>43</sup>When the Lord rescued his chosen people from Egypt, they celebrated with songs.

<sup>44</sup>The Lord gave them the land and everything else the nations had worked for.

<sup>45</sup>He did this so that his people would obey all his laws. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 106

A nation asks for forgiveness

<sup>1</sup>We will celebrate and praise you, LORD! You are good to us, and your love never fails.

<sup>2</sup>No one can praise you enough for all the mighty things you have done.

<sup>3</sup>You bless those people who are honest and fair in everything they do.

<sup>4</sup>Remember me, LORD, when you show kindness by saving your people.

<sup>5</sup>Let me prosper with the rest of your chosen ones, as they celebrate with pride because they belong to you.

<sup>6</sup>We and our ancestors have sinned terribly.

<sup>7</sup>When they were in Egypt, they paid no attention to your marvellous deeds or your wonderful love. And they turned against you at the Red Sea.

- <sup>8</sup>But you were true to your name, and you rescued them to prove how mighty you are.
- <sup>9</sup>You said to the Red Sea, “Dry up!” Then you led your people across on land as dry as a desert.
- <sup>10</sup>You saved all of them
- <sup>11</sup>and drowned every one of their enemies.
- <sup>12</sup>Then your people trusted you and sang your praises.
- <sup>13</sup>But they soon forgot what you had done and rejected your advice.
- <sup>14</sup>They became greedy for food and tested you there in the desert.
- <sup>15</sup>So you gave them what they wanted, but later you destroyed them with a horrible disease.
- <sup>16</sup>Everyone in camp was jealous of Moses and of Aaron, your chosen priest.
- <sup>17</sup>Dathan and Abiram rebelled, and the earth opened up and swallowed them.
- <sup>18</sup>Then fire broke out and destroyed all of their followers.
- <sup>19</sup>At Horeb your people made and worshipped the statue
- <sup>20</sup>of a bull, instead of you, their glorious God.
- <sup>21</sup>You worked powerful miracles to save them from Egypt, but they forgot about you
- <sup>22</sup>and the fearsome things you did at the Red Sea.
- <sup>23</sup>You were angry and started to destroy them, but Moses, your chosen leader, begged you not to do it.
- <sup>24</sup>They would not trust you, LORD, and they did not like the promised land.
- <sup>25</sup>They would not obey you, and they grumbled in their tents.
- <sup>26</sup>So you threatened them by saying, “I’ll kill you out here in the desert!
- <sup>27</sup>I’ll scatter your children everywhere in the world.”

- <sup>28</sup>Your people became followers of a god named Baal-Peor, and they ate sacrifices offered to the dead.
- <sup>29</sup>They did such terrible things that you punished them with a deadly disease.
- <sup>30</sup>But Phinehas helped them, and the sickness stopped.
- <sup>31</sup>Now he will always be highly honoured.
- <sup>32</sup>At Meribah Spring they turned against you and made you furious.
- <sup>33</sup>Then Moses got into trouble for speaking in anger.
- <sup>34</sup>Our LORD, they disobeyed you by refusing to destroy the nations.
- <sup>35</sup>Instead they were friendly with those foreigners and followed their customs.
- <sup>36</sup>Then they fell into the trap of worshipping idols.
- <sup>37</sup>They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons
- <sup>38</sup>and to the gods of Canaan. Then they poured out the blood of these innocent children and made the land filthy.
- <sup>39</sup>By doing such gruesome things, they also became filthy.
- <sup>40</sup>Finally, LORD, you were angry and terribly disgusted with your people.
- <sup>41</sup>So you put them in the power of nations that hated them.
- <sup>42</sup>They were ill-treated and abused by their enemies,
- <sup>43</sup>but you saved them time after time. They were determined to rebel, and their sins caused their downfall.
- <sup>44</sup>You answered their prayers when they were in trouble.
- <sup>45</sup>You kept your agreement and were so merciful
- <sup>46</sup>that their enemies had pity on them.
- <sup>47</sup>Save us, LORD God! Bring us back from among the nations. Let us celebrate and shout in praise of your holy name.

<sup>48</sup>LORD God of Israel, you deserve to be praised for ever and ever. Let everyone say, “Amen! Shout praises to the LORD!”

Psalm 107

Book 5

(Psalms 107—150)

The LORD is good to his people

<sup>1</sup> Shout praises to the LORD! He is good to us, and his love never fails.

<sup>2</sup> Everyone the LORD has rescued from trouble should praise him,

<sup>3</sup> everyone he has brought from the east and the west, the north and the south.

<sup>4</sup> Some of you were lost in the scorching desert, far from a town.

<sup>5</sup> You were hungry and thirsty and about to give up.

<sup>6</sup> You were in serious trouble, but you prayed to the LORD, and he rescued you.

<sup>7</sup> Straight away he brought you to a town.

<sup>8</sup> You should praise the LORD for his love and for the wonderful things he does for all of us.

<sup>9</sup> To everyone who is thirsty, he gives something to drink; to everyone who is hungry, he gives good things to eat.

<sup>10</sup> Some of you were prisoners suffering in deepest darkness and bound by chains,

<sup>11</sup> because you had rebelled against God Most High and refused his advice.

<sup>12</sup> You were worn out from working like slaves, and no one came to help.

<sup>13</sup> You were in serious trouble, but you prayed to the LORD, and he rescued you.

<sup>14</sup> He brought you out of the deepest darkness and broke your chains.

<sup>15</sup>You should praise the LORD for his love and for the wonderful things he does for all of us.

<sup>16</sup>He breaks down bronze gates and shatters iron locks.

<sup>17</sup>Some of you had foolishly committed a lot of sins and were in terrible pain.

<sup>18</sup>The very thought of food was disgusting to you, and you were almost dead.

<sup>19</sup>You were in serious trouble, but you prayed to the LORD, and he rescued you.

<sup>20</sup>By the power of his own word, he healed you and saved you from destruction.

<sup>21</sup>You should praise the LORD for his love and for the wonderful things he does for all of us.

<sup>22</sup>You should celebrate by offering sacrifices and singing joyful songs to tell what he has done.

<sup>23</sup>Some of you made a living by sailing the mighty sea,

<sup>24</sup>and you saw the miracles the LORD performed there.

<sup>25</sup>At his command a storm arose, and waves covered the sea.

<sup>26</sup>You were tossed to the sky and to the ocean depths, until things looked so bad that you lost your courage.

<sup>27</sup>You staggered like drunkards and gave up all hope.

<sup>28</sup>You were in serious trouble, but you prayed to the LORD, and he rescued you.

<sup>29</sup>He made the storm stop and the sea be quiet.

<sup>30</sup>You were happy because of this, and he brought you to the port where you wanted to go.

<sup>31</sup>You should praise the LORD for his love and for the wonderful things he does for all of us.

- <sup>32</sup>Honour the LORD when you and your leaders meet to worship.
- <sup>33</sup>If you start doing wrong, the LORD will turn rivers into deserts, <sup>34</sup>flowing streams into scorched land, and fruitful fields into beds of salt.
- <sup>35</sup>But the LORD can also turn deserts into lakes and scorched land into flowing streams.
- <sup>36</sup>If you are hungry, you can settle there and build a town.
- <sup>37</sup>You can plant fields and vineyards that produce a good harvest.
- <sup>38</sup>The LORD will bless you with many children and with herds of cattle.
- <sup>39</sup>Sometimes you may be crushed by troubles and sorrows, until only a few of you are left to survive.
- <sup>40</sup>But the LORD will take revenge on those who conquer you, and he will make them wander across desert sands.
- <sup>41</sup>When you are suffering and in need, he will come to your rescue, and your families will grow as fast as a herd of sheep.
- <sup>42</sup>You will see this because you obey the LORD, but everyone who is wicked will be silenced.
- <sup>43</sup>Be wise! Remember this and think about the kindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

(A song and a psalm by David.)

With God on our side

- <sup>1</sup>Our God, I am faithful to you with all my heart, and you can trust me. I will sing and play music for you with all that I am.
- <sup>2</sup>I will start playing my harps before the sun rises.
- <sup>3</sup>I will praise you, LORD, for everyone to hear; I will sing hymns to you in every nation.
- <sup>4</sup>Your love reaches higher than the heavens, and your loyalty extends beyond the clouds.

<sup>5</sup>Our God, may you be honoured above the heavens; may your glory be seen everywhere on earth.

<sup>6</sup>Answer my prayers and use your powerful arm to give us victory. Then the people you love will be safe.

<sup>7</sup>Our God, from your holy place you made this promise: “I will gladly divide up the city of Shechem and give away Succoth Valley piece by piece.

<sup>8</sup>The lands of Gilead and Manasseh are mine. Ephraim is my war helmet, and Judah is my symbol of royal power.

<sup>9</sup>Moab is merely my washbasin, and Edom belongs to me. I shout with victory over the Philistines.”

<sup>10</sup>Our God, who will bring me to the fortress or lead me to Edom?

<sup>11</sup>Have you rejected us? You don't lead our armies.

<sup>12</sup>Help us defeat our enemies! No one else can rescue us.

<sup>13</sup>You are the one who gives us victory and crushes our enemies.

Psalm 109

(A psalm by David for the music leader.)

A prayer for the LORD's help

<sup>1</sup>I praise you, God! Don't keep silent.

<sup>2</sup>Destructive and deceitful lies are told about me,

<sup>3</sup>and hateful things are said for no reason.

<sup>4</sup>I had pity and prayed for my enemies, but their words to me were harsh and cruel.

<sup>5</sup>For being friendly and kind, they paid me back with meanness and hatred.

<sup>6</sup>My enemies said, “Find some worthless fools to accuse him of a crime.

<sup>7</sup>Try him and find him guilty! Consider his prayers a lie.

<sup>8</sup>Cut his life short and let someone else have his job.

- <sup>9</sup>Make orphans of his children and a widow of his wife;
- <sup>10</sup>make his children beg for food and live in the slums.
- <sup>11</sup>“Let the people he owes take everything he owns. Give it all to strangers.
- <sup>12</sup>Don't let anyone be kind to him or have pity on the children he leaves behind.
- <sup>13</sup>Bring an end to his family, and from now on let him be a forgotten man.
- <sup>14</sup>“Don't let the LORD forgive the sins of his parents and his ancestors.
- <sup>15</sup>Don't let the LORD forget the sins of his family, or let anyone remember his family ever lived.
- <sup>16</sup>He was so cruel to the poor, homeless, and discouraged that they died young.
- <sup>17</sup>“He cursed others. Now place a curse on him! He never wished others well. Wish only trouble for him!
- <sup>18</sup>He cursed others more often than he dressed himself. Let his curses strike him deep, just as water and olive oil soak through to our bones.
- <sup>19</sup>Let his curses surround him, just like the clothes he wears each day.”
- <sup>20</sup>Those are the cruel things my enemies wish for me. Let it all happen to them!
- <sup>21</sup>Be true to your name, LORD God! Show your great kindness and rescue me.
- <sup>22</sup>I am poor and helpless, and I have lost all hope.
- <sup>23</sup>I am fading away like an evening shadow; I am tossed aside like a crawling insect.
- <sup>24</sup>I have gone without eating, until my knees are weak, and my body is bony.
- <sup>25</sup>When my enemies see me, they say cruel things and shake their heads.
- <sup>26</sup>Please help me, LORD God! Come and save me because of your love.
- <sup>27</sup>Let others know that you alone have saved me.

<sup>28</sup>I don't care if they curse me, as long as you bless me. You will make my enemies fail when they attack, and you will make me glad to be your servant.

<sup>29</sup>You will cover them with shame, just as their bodies are covered with clothes.

<sup>30</sup>I will sing your praises and thank you, LORD, when your people meet.

<sup>31</sup>You help everyone in need, and you defend them when they are on trial.

Psalm 110

(A psalm by David.)

The LORD gives victory

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at my right side, until I make your enemies into a footstool for you."

<sup>2</sup>The LORD will let your power reach out from Zion, and you will rule over your enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Your glorious power will be seen on the day you begin to rule. You will wear the sacred robes and shine like the morning sun in all your strength.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has made a promise that will never be broken: "You will be a priest for ever, just like Melchizedek."

<sup>5</sup>My Lord is at your right side, and when he gets angry he will crush the other kings.

<sup>6</sup>He will judge the nations and crack their skulls, leaving piles of dead bodies all over the earth.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink from any stream that he chooses, while winning victory after victory.

Psalm 111

Praise the LORD for all he has done

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! With all my heart I will thank the LORD when his people meet.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD has done many wonderful things! Everyone who is pleased with God's marvellous deeds will keep them in mind.

<sup>3</sup>Everything the LORD does is glorious and majestic, and his power to bring justice will never end.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD God is famous for his wonderful deeds, and he is kind and merciful.

<sup>5</sup>He gives food to his worshippers and always keeps his agreement with them.

<sup>6</sup>He has shown his mighty power to his people and has given them the lands of other nations.

<sup>7</sup>God is always honest and fair, and his laws can be trusted.

<sup>8</sup>They are true and right and will stand for ever.

<sup>9</sup>God rescued his people, and he will never break his agreement with them. He is fearsome and holy.

<sup>10</sup>Respect and obey the LORD! This is the first step to wisdom and good sense. God will always be respected.

Psalm 112

God blesses his worshippers

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! The LORD blesses everyone who worships him and gladly obeys his teachings.

<sup>2</sup>Their descendants will have great power in the land, because the LORD blesses all who do right.

<sup>3</sup>They will get rich and prosper and will always be remembered for their fairness.

<sup>4</sup>They will be so kind and merciful and good, that they will be a light in the dark for others who do the right thing.

<sup>5</sup>Life will go well for those who freely lend and are honest in business.

<sup>6</sup>They won't ever be troubled, and the kind things they do will never be forgotten.

<sup>7</sup>Bad news won't bother them; they have decided to trust the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>They are dependable and not afraid, and they will live to see their enemies defeated.

<sup>9</sup>They will always be remembered and greatly praised, because they were kind and freely gave to the poor.

<sup>10</sup>When evil people see this, they angrily bite their tongues and disappear. They will never get what they really want.

Psalm 113

The LORD helps people in need

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! Everyone who serves him, come and praise his name.

<sup>2</sup>Let the name of the LORD be praised now and for ever.

<sup>3</sup>From dawn until sunset the name of the LORD deserves to be praised.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD is far above all the nations; he is more glorious than the heavens.

<sup>5</sup>No one can compare with the LORD our God. His throne is high above, <sup>6</sup>and he looks down to see the heavens and the earth.

<sup>7</sup>God lifts the poor and needy from dust and ashes,

<sup>8</sup>and he lets them take part in ruling his people.

<sup>9</sup>When a wife has no children, he blesses her with some, and she is happy. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 114

The LORD works wonders

<sup>1</sup>God brought his people out of Egypt, that land with a strange language.

<sup>2</sup>He made Judah his holy place and ruled over Israel.

<sup>3</sup>When the sea looked at God, it ran away, and the River Jordan flowed upstream.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains and the hills skipped around like goats.

<sup>5</sup>Ask the sea why it ran away or ask the Jordan why it flowed upstream.

<sup>6</sup>Ask the mountains and the hills why they skipped like goats!

<sup>7</sup>Earth, you will tremble, when the Lord God of Jacob comes near,

<sup>8</sup>because he turns solid rock into flowing streams and pools of water.

Psalm 115

The LORD deserves to be praised

<sup>1</sup>We don't deserve praise! The LORD alone deserves all the praise, because of his love and faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>Why should the nations ask, "Where is your God?"

<sup>3</sup>Our God is in the heavens, doing as he chooses.

<sup>4</sup>The idols of the nations are made of silver and gold.

<sup>5</sup>They have a mouth and eyes, but they can't speak or see.

<sup>6</sup>Their ears can't hear, and their noses can't smell.

<sup>7</sup>Their hands have no feeling, their legs don't move, and they can't make a sound.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone who made the idols and all who trust them are just as helpless as those useless gods.

<sup>9</sup>People of Israel, you must trust the LORD to help and protect you.

<sup>10</sup>Family of Aaron the priest, you must trust the LORD to help and protect you.

<sup>11</sup>All of you worship the LORD, so you must trust him to help and protect you.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD will not forget to give us his blessing; he will bless all Israel and the family of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup>All who worship the LORD, no matter who they are, will receive his blessing.

<sup>14</sup>I pray that the LORD will let your family and your descendants always grow strong.

<sup>15</sup>May the LORD who created the heavens and the earth give you his blessing.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD has kept the heavens for himself, but he has given the earth to us humans.

<sup>17</sup>The dead are silent and cannot praise the LORD,

<sup>18</sup>but we will praise him now and for evermore. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 116

When the LORD saves you from death

<sup>1</sup>I love you, LORD! You answered my prayers.

<sup>2</sup>You paid attention to me, and so I will pray to you as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>Death attacked from all sides, and I was captured by its painful chains. But when I was really suffering,

<sup>4</sup>I prayed and said, "LORD, please don't let me die!"

<sup>5</sup>You are kind, LORD, so good and merciful.

<sup>6</sup>You protect ordinary people, and when I was helpless, you saved me

<sup>7</sup>and treated me so kindly that I don't need to worry any more.

<sup>8</sup>You, LORD, have saved my life from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup>Now I will walk at your side in this land of the living.

<sup>10</sup>I was faithful to you when I was suffering,

<sup>11</sup>though in my confusion I said, "I can't trust anyone!"

<sup>12</sup>What must I give you, LORD, for being so good to me?

<sup>13</sup>I will pour out an offering of wine to you, and I will pray in your name because you have saved me.

<sup>14</sup>I will keep my promise to you when your people meet.

<sup>15</sup>You are deeply concerned when one of your loyal people faces death.

<sup>16</sup>I worship you, LORD, just as my mother did, and you have rescued me from the chains of death.

<sup>17</sup>I will offer you a sacrifice to show how grateful I am, and I will pray.

<sup>18</sup>I will keep my promise to you when your people

<sup>19</sup>gather at your temple in Jerusalem. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 117

Come, praise the LORD

<sup>1</sup>All you nations, come, praise the LORD! Let everyone praise him.

<sup>2</sup>His love for us is wonderful; his faithfulness never ends. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 118

The LORD is always merciful

<sup>1</sup>Tell the LORD how thankful you are, because he is kind and always merciful.

<sup>2</sup>Let Israel shout, “God is always merciful!”

<sup>3</sup>Let the family of Aaron the priest shout, “God is always merciful!”

<sup>4</sup>Let every true worshipper of the LORD shout, “God is always merciful!”

<sup>5</sup>When I was really suffering, I prayed to the LORD. He answered my prayer, and took my worries away.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD is on my side, and I am not afraid of what others can do to me.

<sup>7</sup>With the LORD on my side, I will defeat all of my hateful enemies.

- <sup>8</sup>It is better to trust the LORD for protection than to trust anyone else,
<sup>9</sup>including strong leaders.
- <sup>10</sup>Nations surrounded me, but I got rid of them by the power of the LORD.
- <sup>11</sup>They attacked from all sides, but I got rid of them by the power of the LORD.
- <sup>12</sup>They swarmed around like bees, but by the power of the LORD, I got rid of them and their fiery sting.
- <sup>13</sup>Their attacks were so fierce that I nearly fell, but the LORD helped me.
- <sup>14</sup>My power and my strength come from the LORD, and he has saved me.
- <sup>15</sup>From the tents of God's people come shouts of victory: "The LORD is powerful!"
- <sup>16</sup>With his mighty arm the LORD wins victories! The LORD is powerful!"
- <sup>17</sup>And so my life is safe, and I will live to tell what the LORD has done.
- <sup>18</sup>He punished me terribly, but he did not let death lay its hands on me.
- <sup>19</sup>Open the gates of justice! I will enter and tell the LORD how thankful I am.
- <sup>20</sup>Here is the gate of the LORD! Everyone who does right may enter this gate.
- <sup>21</sup>I praise the LORD for answering my prayers and saving me.
- <sup>22</sup> The stone that the builders tossed aside has now become the most important stone.
- <sup>23</sup>The LORD has done this, and it is amazing to us.
- <sup>24</sup>This day belongs to the LORD! Let's celebrate and be glad today.
- <sup>25</sup>We'll ask the LORD to save us! We'll sincerely ask the LORD to let us win.
- <sup>26</sup>God bless the one who comes in the name of the LORD! We praise you from here in the house of the LORD.
- <sup>27</sup>The LORD is our God, and he has given us light! Start the celebration! March with palm branches all the way to the altar.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD is my God! I will praise him and tell him how thankful I am.

<sup>29</sup>Tell the LORD how thankful you are, because he is kind and always merciful.

Psalm 119

In praise of the Law of the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD, you bless everyone who lives right and obeys your Law.

<sup>2</sup>You bless all those who follow your commands from deep in their hearts

<sup>3</sup>and who never do wrong or turn from you.

<sup>4</sup>You have ordered us always to obey your teachings;

<sup>5</sup>I don't ever want to stray from your laws.

<sup>6</sup>Thinking about your commands will keep me from doing some foolish thing.

<sup>7</sup>I will do right and praise you by learning to respect your perfect laws.

<sup>8</sup>I will obey all of them! Don't turn your back on me.

<sup>9</sup>Young people can live a clean life by obeying your word.

<sup>10</sup>I worship you with all my heart. Don't let me walk away from your commands.

<sup>11</sup>I treasure your word above all else; it keeps me from sinning against you.

<sup>12</sup>I praise you, LORD! Teach me your laws.

<sup>13</sup>With my own mouth, I tell others the laws that you have spoken.

<sup>14</sup>Obedying your instructions brings as much happiness as being rich.

<sup>15</sup>I will study your teachings and follow your footsteps.

<sup>16</sup>I will take pleasure in your laws and remember your words.

<sup>17</sup>Treat me with kindness, LORD, so that I may live and do what you say.

<sup>18</sup>Open my mind and let me discover the wonders of your Law.

<sup>19</sup>I live here as a stranger. Don't keep me from knowing your commands.

- <sup>20</sup>What I want most of all and at all times is to honour your laws.
- <sup>21</sup>You punish those boastful, worthless nobodies who turn from your commands.
- <sup>22</sup>Don't let them sneer and insult me for following you.
- <sup>23</sup>I keep thinking about your teachings, LORD, even if rulers plot against me.
- <sup>24</sup>Your laws are my greatest joy! I follow their advice.
- <sup>25</sup>I am at the point of death. Let your teachings breathe new life into me.
- <sup>26</sup>When I told you my troubles, you answered my prayers. Now teach me your laws.
- <sup>27</sup>Help me to understand your teachings, and I will think about your marvellous deeds.
- <sup>28</sup>I am overcome with sorrow. Encourage me, as you have promised to do.
- <sup>29</sup>Keep me from being deceitful, and be kind enough to teach me your Law.
- <sup>30</sup>I am determined to be faithful and to respect your laws.
- <sup>31</sup>I follow your rules, LORD. Don't let me be ashamed.
- <sup>32</sup>I am eager to learn all that you want me to do; help me to understand more and more.
- <sup>33</sup>Point out your rules to me, and I won't disobey even one of them.
- <sup>34</sup>Help me to understand your Law; I promise to obey it with all my heart.
- <sup>35</sup>Direct me by your commands! I love to do what you say.
- <sup>36</sup>Make me want to obey you, rather than to be rich.
- <sup>37</sup>Take away my foolish desires, and let me find life by walking with you.
- <sup>38</sup>I am your servant! Do for me what you promised to those who worship you.
- <sup>39</sup>Your wonderful teachings protect me from the insults that I hate so much.
- <sup>40</sup>I long for your teachings. Be true to yourself and let me live.

- <sup>41</sup>Show me your love and save me, LORD, as you have promised.
- <sup>42</sup>Then I will have an answer for everyone who insults me for trusting your word.
- <sup>43</sup>I rely on your laws! Don't take away my chance to speak your truth.
- <sup>44</sup>I will keep obeying your Law for ever and ever.
- <sup>45</sup>I have gained perfect freedom by following your teachings,
- <sup>46</sup>and I trust them so much that I tell them to kings.
- <sup>47</sup>I love your commands! They bring me happiness.
- <sup>48</sup>I love and respect them and will keep them in mind.
- <sup>49</sup>Don't forget your promise to me, your servant. I depend on it.
- <sup>50</sup>When I am suffering, I find comfort in your promise that leads to life.
- <sup>51</sup>Conceited people sneer at me, but I obey your Law.
- <sup>52</sup>I find true comfort, LORD, because your laws have stood the test of time.
- <sup>53</sup>I get furious when evil people turn against your Law.
- <sup>54</sup>No matter where I am, your teachings fill me with songs.
- <sup>55</sup>Even in the night I think about you, LORD, and I obey your Law.
- <sup>56</sup>You have blessed me because I have always followed your teachings.
- <sup>57</sup>You, LORD, are my choice, and I will obey you.
- <sup>58</sup>With all my heart I beg you to be kind to me, just as you have promised.
- <sup>59</sup>I pay careful attention as you lead me, and I follow closely.
- <sup>60</sup>As soon as you command, I do what you say.
- <sup>61</sup>Evil people may set a trap, but I obey your Law.
- <sup>62</sup>Your laws are so fair that I wake up and praise you in the middle of the night.

- <sup>63</sup>I choose as my friends everyone who worships you and follows your teachings.
- <sup>64</sup>Our LORD, your love is seen all over the world. Teach me your laws.
- <sup>65</sup>I am your servant, LORD, and you have kept your promise to treat me with kindness.
- <sup>66</sup>Give me wisdom and good sense. I trust your commands.
- <sup>67</sup>Once you corrected me for not obeying you, but now I obey.
- <sup>68</sup>You are kindhearted, and you do good things, so teach me your laws.
- <sup>69</sup>My reputation is being ruined by conceited liars, but with all my heart I follow your teachings.
- <sup>70</sup>Those liars have no sense, but I find happiness in your Law.
- <sup>71</sup>When you corrected me, it did me good because it taught me to study your laws.
- <sup>72</sup>I would rather obey you than have a thousand pieces of silver and gold.
- <sup>73</sup>You created me and put me together. Make me wise enough to learn what you have commanded.
- <sup>74</sup>Your worshippers will see me, and they will be glad that I trust your word.
- <sup>75</sup>Your decisions are correct, and you were right to punish me.
- <sup>76</sup>I serve you, LORD. Comfort me with your love, just as you have promised.
- <sup>77</sup>I love to obey your Law! Have mercy and let me live.
- <sup>78</sup>Put down those proud people who hurt me with their lies, because I have chosen to study your teachings.
- <sup>79</sup>Let your worshippers come to me, so they will learn to obey your rules.
- <sup>80</sup>Let me truly respect your laws, so I won't be ashamed.
- <sup>81</sup>I long for you to rescue me! Your word is my only hope.

<sup>82</sup>I am worn out from waiting for you to keep your word. When will you have mercy?

<sup>83</sup>My life is wasting away like a dried up wineskin, but I have not forgotten your teachings.

<sup>84</sup>I am your servant! How long must I suffer? When will you punish those troublemakers?

<sup>85</sup>Those proud people reject your teachings, and they dig pits for me to fall in.

<sup>86</sup>Your laws can be trusted! Protect me from cruel liars.

<sup>87</sup>They have almost killed me, but I have been faithful to your teachings.

<sup>88</sup>Show that you love me and let me live, so that I may obey all of your commands.

<sup>89</sup>Our LORD, you are eternal! Your word will last as long as the heavens.

<sup>90</sup>You remain faithful in every generation, and the earth you created will keep standing firm.

<sup>91</sup>All things are your servants, and the laws you made are still in effect today.

<sup>92</sup>If I had not found happiness in obeying your Law, I would have died in misery.

<sup>93</sup>I won't ever forget your teachings, because you give me new life by following them.

<sup>94</sup>I belong to you, and I have respected your laws, so keep me safe.

<sup>95</sup>Brutal enemies are waiting to ambush and destroy me, but I obey your rules.

<sup>96</sup>Nothing is completely perfect, except your teachings.

<sup>97</sup>I deeply love your Law! I think about it all day.

<sup>98</sup>Your laws never leave my mind, and they make me much wiser than my enemies.

- <sup>99</sup>Thinking about your teachings gives me better understanding than my teachers,
- <sup>100</sup>and obeying your laws makes me wiser than those who have lived a long time.
- <sup>101</sup>I obey your word instead of following a way that leads to trouble.
- <sup>102</sup>You have been my teacher, and I won't reject your instructions.
- <sup>103</sup>Your teachings are sweeter than honey.
- <sup>104</sup>They give me understanding and make me hate all lies.
- <sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp that gives light wherever I walk.
- <sup>106</sup>Your laws are fair, and I have given my word to respect them all.
- <sup>107</sup>I am in terrible pain! Save me, LORD, as you said you would.
- <sup>108</sup>Accept my offerings of praise and teach me your laws.
- <sup>109</sup>I never forget your teachings, although my life is always in danger.
- <sup>110</sup>Some merciless people are trying to trap me, but I never turn my back on your teachings.
- <sup>111</sup>They will always be my most prized possession and my source of joy.
- <sup>112</sup>I have made up my mind to obey your laws for ever, no matter what.
- <sup>113</sup>I hate anyone whose loyalty is divided, but I love your Law.
- <sup>114</sup>You are my place of safety and my shield. Your word is my only hope.
- <sup>115</sup>All you worthless people, get away from me! I am determined to obey the commands of my God.
- <sup>116</sup>Be true to your word, LORD. Keep me alive and strong; don't let me be ashamed because of my hope.
- <sup>117</sup>Keep me safe and secure, so that I will always respect your laws.
- <sup>118</sup>You reject all deceitful liars because they refuse your teachings.

119 As far as you are concerned, all evil people are rubbish, and so I follow your rules.

120 I tremble all over when I think of you and the way you judge.

121 I did what was fair and right! Don't hand me over to those who want to ill-treat me.

122 Take good care of me, your servant, and don't let me be harmed by those conceited people.

123 My eyes are weary from waiting to see you keep your promise to come and save me.

124 Show your love for me, your servant, and teach me your laws.

125 I serve you, so let me understand your teachings.

126 Do something, LORD! They have broken your Law.

127 Your laws mean more to me than the finest gold.

128 I follow all your commands, but I hate anyone who leads me astray.

129 Your teachings are wonderful, and I respect them all.

130 Understanding your word brings light to the minds of ordinary people.

131 I honestly want to know everything you teach.

132 Think about me and be kind, just as you are to everyone who loves your name.

133 Keep your promise and don't let me stumble or let sin control my life.

134 Protect me from abuse, so I can obey your laws.

135 Smile on me, your servant, and teach me your laws.

136 When anyone disobeys you, my eyes overflow with tears.

137 Our LORD, you always do right, and your decisions are fair.

138 All your teachings are true and trustworthy.

139 It upsets me greatly when my enemies neglect your teachings.

- 140 Your word to me, your servant, is like pure gold; I treasure what you say.
- 141 Everyone calls me a nobody, but I remember your laws.
- 142 You will always do right, and your teachings are true.
- 143 I am in deep distress, but I love your teachings.
- 144 Your rules are always fair. Help me to understand them and live.
- 145 I pray to you, LORD! Please answer me. I promise to obey your laws.
- 146 I beg you to save me, so I can follow your rules.
- 147 Even before sunrise, I pray for your help, and I put my hope in what you have said.
- 148 I lie awake at night, thinking of your promises.
- 149 Show that you love me, LORD, and answer my prayer. Please do the right thing and save my life.
- 150 People who disobey your Law have made evil plans and want to hurt me,
- 151 but you are with me, and all your commands can be trusted.
- 152 From studying your laws, I found out long ago that you made them to last for ever.
- 153 I have not forgotten your Law! Look at the trouble I am in, and rescue me.
- 154 Be my defender and protector! Keep your promise and save my life.
- 155 Evil people won't obey you, and so they have no hope of being saved.
- 156 You are merciful, LORD! Please do the right thing and save my life.
- 157 I have a lot of brutal enemies, but still I never turn from your laws.
- 158 All those unfaithful people who refuse to obey you are disgusting to me.
- 159 Remember how I love your laws, and show your love for me by keeping me safe.
- 160 All you say can be trusted; your teachings are true and will last for ever.

161Rulers are cruel to me for no reason. But with all my heart I respect your words,

162because they bring happiness like treasures taken in war.

163I can't stand liars, but I love your Law.

164I praise you seven times a day because your laws are fair.

165You give peace of mind to all who love your Law. Nothing can make them fall.

166You are my only hope for being saved, LORD, and I do all you command.

167I love and obey your laws with all my heart.

168You know everything I do. You know I respect every law you have given.

169Please, LORD, hear my prayer and give me the understanding that comes from your word.

170Listen to my concerns and keep me safe, just as you have promised.

171If you will teach me your laws, I will praise you

172and sing about your promise, because all your teachings are what they ought to be.

173Be ready to protect me because I have chosen to obey your laws.

174I am waiting for you to save me, LORD. Your Law makes me happy.

175Keep me alive, so I can praise you, and let me find help in your teachings.

176I am your servant, but I have wandered away like a lost sheep. Please come after me, because I have not forgotten your teachings.

Psalm 120

(A song for worship.)

A prayer for the LORD's help

1When I am in trouble, I pray,

2“Come and save me, LORD, from deceitful liars!”

<sup>3</sup>What punishment is fitting for you deceitful liars?

<sup>4</sup>Your reward should be sharp and flaming arrows!

<sup>5</sup>But I must live as a foreigner among the people of Meshech and in the tents of Kedar.

<sup>6</sup>I have spent too much time living among people who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup>I am in favour of peace, but when I speak of it, all they want is war.

Psalm 121

(A song for worship.)

The LORD will protect his people

<sup>1</sup>I look to the hills! Where will I find help?

<sup>2</sup>It will come from the LORD, who created the heavens and the earth.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is your protector, and he won't go to sleep or let you stumble.

<sup>4</sup>The protector of Israel doesn't doze or ever get drowsy.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is your protector, there at your right side to shade you from the sun.

<sup>6</sup>You won't be harmed by the sun during the day or by the moon at night.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD will protect you and keep you safe from all dangers.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will protect you now and always wherever you go.

Psalm 122

(A song by David for worship.)

A song of praise

<sup>1</sup>It made me glad to hear them say, "Let's go to the house of the LORD!"

<sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, we are standing inside your gates.

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem, what a strong and beautiful city you are!

<sup>4</sup>Every tribe of the LORD obeys him and comes to you to praise his name.

<sup>5</sup>David's royal throne is here where justice rules.

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, we pray that you will have peace, and that all will go well for those who love you.

<sup>7</sup>May there be peace inside your city walls and in your palaces.

<sup>8</sup>Because of my friends and my relatives, I will pray for peace.

<sup>9</sup>And because of the house of the LORD our God, I will work for your good.

Psalm 123

(A song for worship.)

A prayer for mercy

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD and our God, I turn my eyes to you, on your throne in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Servants look to their master, but we will look to you, until you have mercy on us.

<sup>3</sup>Please have mercy, LORD! We have been insulted more than we can stand, <sup>4</sup>and we can't take more abuse from those proud, conceited people.

Psalm 124

(A song by David for worship.)

Thanking the LORD for victory

<sup>1</sup>The LORD was on our side! Let everyone in Israel say:

<sup>2</sup>“The LORD was on our side! Otherwise, the enemy attack

<sup>3</sup>would have killed us all, because it was furious.

<sup>4</sup>We would have been swept away in a violent flood

<sup>5</sup>of high and roaring waves.”

<sup>6</sup>Let's praise the LORD! He protected us from enemies who were like wild animals,

<sup>7</sup>and we escaped like birds from a hunter's torn net.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD made heaven and earth, and he is the one who sends us help.

Psalm 125

(A song for worship.)

The LORD's people are safe

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who trusts the LORD is like Mount Zion that cannot be shaken and will stand for ever.

<sup>2</sup>Just as Jerusalem is protected by mountains on every side, the LORD protects his people by holding them in his arms now and for ever.

<sup>3</sup>He won't let the wicked rule his people or lead them to do wrong.

<sup>4</sup>Let's ask the LORD to be kind to everyone who is good and completely obeys him.

<sup>5</sup>When the LORD punishes the wicked, he will punish everyone else who lives a crooked life. Pray for peace in Israel!

Psalm 126

(A song for worship.)
Celebrating the harvest

<sup>1</sup>It seemed like a dream when the LORD brought us back to the city of Zion.

<sup>2</sup>We celebrated with laughter and joyful songs. In foreign nations it was said, "The LORD has worked miracles for his people."

<sup>3</sup>And so we celebrated because the LORD had indeed worked miracles for us.

<sup>4</sup>Our LORD, we ask you to bless our people again, and let us be like streams in the Southern Desert.

<sup>5</sup>We cried as we went out to plant our seeds. Now let us celebrate as we bring in the crops.

<sup>6</sup>We cried on the way to plant our seeds, but we will celebrate and shout as we bring in the crops.

Psalm 127

(A song by Solomon for worship.)
Only the LORD can bless a home

<sup>1</sup>Without the help of the LORD it is useless to build a home or to guard a city.

<sup>2</sup>It is useless to get up early and stay up late in order to earn a living. God takes care of his own, even while they sleep.

<sup>3</sup>Children are a blessing and a gift from the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Having a lot of children to take care of you in your old age is like a warrior with a lot of arrows.

<sup>5</sup>The more you have, the better off you will be, because they will protect you when your enemies attack with arguments.

Psalm 128

(A song for worship.)

The LORD rewards his faithful people

<sup>1</sup>The LORD will bless you if you respect him and obey his laws.

<sup>2</sup>Your fields will produce, and you will be happy and all will go well.

<sup>3</sup>Your wife will be as fruitful as a grapevine, and just as an olive tree is rich with olives, your home will be rich with healthy children.

<sup>4</sup>That is how the LORD will bless everyone who respects him.

<sup>5</sup>I pray that the LORD will bless you from Zion and let Jerusalem prosper as long as you live.

<sup>6</sup>May you live long enough to see your grandchildren. Let's pray for peace in Israel!

Psalm 129

(A song for worship.)

A prayer for protection

<sup>1</sup>Since the time I was young, enemies have often attacked! Let everyone in Israel say:

<sup>2</sup>“Since the time I was young, enemies have often attacked! But they have not defeated me, <sup>3</sup>though my back is like a field that has just been ploughed.”

<sup>4</sup>The LORD always does right, and he has set me free from the ropes of those cruel people.

<sup>5</sup>I pray that all who hate the city of Zion will be made ashamed and forced to turn and run.

<sup>6</sup>May they be like grass on the flat roof of a house, grass that dries up as soon as it sprouts.

<sup>7</sup>Don't let them be like wheat gathered in bundles.

<sup>8</sup>And don't let anyone who passes by say to them, "The LORD bless you! I give you my blessing in the name of the LORD."

Psalm 130

(A song for worship.)

Trusting the LORD in times of trouble

<sup>1</sup>From a sea of troubles I call out to you, LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Won't you please listen as I beg for mercy?

<sup>3</sup>If you kept record of our sins, no one could last long.

<sup>4</sup>But you forgive us, and so we will worship you.

<sup>5</sup>With all my heart, I am waiting, LORD, for you! I trust your promises.

<sup>6</sup>I wait for you more eagerly than a soldier on guard duty waits for the dawn. Yes, I wait more eagerly than a soldier on guard duty waits for the dawn.

<sup>7</sup>Israel, trust the LORD! He is always merciful, and he has the power to save you.

<sup>8</sup>Israel, the LORD will save you from all your sins.

Psalm 131

(A song by David for worship.)

Trust the LORD!

<sup>1</sup>I am not conceited, LORD, and I don't waste my time on impossible schemes.

<sup>2</sup>But I have learnt to feel safe and satisfied, just like a young child on its mother's lap.

<sup>3</sup>People of Israel, you must trust the LORD now and for ever.

Psalm 132

(A song for worship.)

The LORD is always with his people

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD, don't forget David and how he suffered.

<sup>2</sup>Mighty God of Jacob, remember how he promised:

<sup>3</sup>“I won't go home or crawl into bed

<sup>4</sup>or close my eyelids,

<sup>5</sup>until I find a home for you, the mighty LORD God of Jacob.”

<sup>6</sup>When we were in Ephrath, we heard that the sacred chest was somewhere near Jaar.

<sup>7</sup>Then we said, “Let's go to the throne of the LORD and worship at his feet.”

<sup>8</sup>Come to your new home, LORD, you and the sacred chest with all its power.

<sup>9</sup>Let victory be like robes for the priests; let your faithful people celebrate and shout.

<sup>10</sup>David is your chosen one, so don't reject him.

<sup>11</sup>You made a solemn promise to David, when you said, “I, the LORD, promise that someone in your family will always be king.

<sup>12</sup>If they keep our agreement and follow my teachings, then someone in your family will rule for ever.”

<sup>13</sup>You have gladly chosen Zion as your home, our LORD.

<sup>14</sup>You said, “This is my home! I will live here for ever.

<sup>15</sup>I will bless Zion with food, and even the poor will eat until they are full.

<sup>16</sup>Victory will be like robes for the priests, and its faithful people will celebrate and shout.

<sup>17</sup>I will give mighty power to the kingdom of David. Each one of my chosen kings will shine like a lamp

<sup>18</sup>and wear a sparkling crown. But I will disgrace their enemies.”

Psalm 133

(A song for worship.)
Living together in peace

<sup>1</sup>It is truly wonderful when relatives live together in peace.

<sup>2</sup>It is as beautiful as olive oil poured on Aaron's head and running down his beard and the collar of his robe.

<sup>3</sup>It is like the dew from Mount Hermon, falling on Zion's mountains, where the LORD has promised to bless his people with life for evermore.

Psalm 134

(A song for worship.)
Praising the LORD at night

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who serves the LORD, come and offer praises. Everyone who has gathered in his temple tonight,

<sup>2</sup>lift your hands in prayer towards his holy place and praise the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is the Creator of heaven and earth, and I pray that the LORD will bless you from Zion.

Psalm 135

In praise of the LORD's kindness

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! You are his servants, so praise his name.

<sup>2</sup>All who serve in the temple of the LORD our God,

<sup>3</sup>come and shout praises. Praise the name of the LORD! He is kind and good.

<sup>4</sup>He chose the family of Jacob and the people of Israel for his very own.

- <sup>5</sup>The LORD is much greater than any other god.
- <sup>6</sup>He does as he chooses in heaven and on earth and deep in the sea.
- <sup>7</sup>The LORD makes the clouds rise from far across the earth, and he makes lightning to go with the rain. Then from his secret place he sends out the wind.
- <sup>8</sup>The LORD killed the firstborn of people and animals in the land of Egypt.
- <sup>9</sup>God used miracles and wonders to fight the king of Egypt and all his officials.
- <sup>10</sup>He destroyed many nations and killed powerful kings,
- <sup>11</sup>including King Sihon of the Amorites and King Og of Bashan. He conquered every kingdom in the land of Canaan
- <sup>12</sup>and gave their property to his people Israel.
- <sup>13</sup>The name of the LORD will be remembered for ever, and he will be famous for all time to come.
- <sup>14</sup>The LORD will bring justice and show mercy to all who serve him.
- <sup>15</sup>Idols of silver and gold are made and worshipped in other nations.
- <sup>16</sup>They have a mouth and eyes, but they can't speak or see.
- <sup>17</sup>They are completely deaf, and they can't breathe.
- <sup>18</sup>Everyone who makes idols and all who trust them will end up as helpless as their idols.
- <sup>19</sup>Everyone in Israel, come, praise the LORD! All the family of Aaron
- <sup>20</sup>and all the tribe of Levi, come, praise the LORD! All of his worshippers, come, praise the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup>Praise the LORD from Zion! He lives here in Jerusalem. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 136

God's love never fails

- <sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD! He is good. God's love never fails.
- <sup>2</sup> Praise the God of all gods. God's love never fails.
- <sup>3</sup> Praise the Lord of lords. God's love never fails.
- <sup>4</sup> Only God works great miracles. God's love never fails.
- <sup>5</sup> With wisdom he made the sky. God's love never fails.
- <sup>6</sup> The Lord stretched the earth over the ocean. God's love never fails.
- <sup>7</sup> He made the bright lights in the sky. God's love never fails.
- <sup>8</sup> He lets the sun rule each day. God's love never fails.
- <sup>9</sup> He lets the moon and the stars rule each night. God's love never fails.
- <sup>10</sup> God struck down the firstborn in every Egyptian family. God's love never fails.
- <sup>11</sup> He rescued Israel from Egypt. God's love never fails.
- <sup>12</sup> God used his great strength and his powerful arm. God's love never fails.
- <sup>13</sup> He split the Red Sea apart. God's love never fails.
- <sup>14</sup> The Lord brought Israel safely through the sea. God's love never fails.
- <sup>15</sup> He destroyed the Egyptian king and his army there. God's love never fails.
- <sup>16</sup> The Lord led his people through the desert. God's love never fails.
- <sup>17</sup> Our God defeated mighty kings. God's love never fails.
- <sup>18</sup> And he killed famous kings. God's love never fails.
- <sup>19</sup> One of them was Sihon, king of the Amorites. God's love never fails.
- <sup>20</sup> Another was King Og of Bashan. God's love never fails.
- <sup>21</sup> God took away their land. God's love never fails.
- <sup>22</sup> He gave their land to Israel, the people who serve him. God's love never fails.

<sup>23</sup>God saw the trouble we were in. God's love never fails.

<sup>24</sup>He rescued us from our enemies. God's love never fails.

<sup>25</sup>He gives food to all who live. God's love never fails.

<sup>26</sup>Praise God in heaven! God's love never fails.

Psalm 137

A prayer for revenge

<sup>1</sup>Beside the rivers of Babylon we thought about Jerusalem, and we sat down and cried.

<sup>2</sup>We hung our small harps on the willow trees.

<sup>3</sup>Our enemies had brought us here as their prisoners, and now they wanted us to sing and entertain them. They insulted us and shouted, "Sing about Zion!"

<sup>4</sup>Here in a foreign land, how can we sing about the LORD?

<sup>5</sup>Jerusalem, if I forget you, let my right hand go limp.

<sup>6</sup>Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth, if I don't think about you above all else.

<sup>7</sup>Our LORD, punish the Edomites! Because the day Jerusalem fell, they shouted, "Completely destroy the city! Tear down every building!"

<sup>8</sup>Babylon, you are doomed! I pray the Lord's blessings on anyone who punishes you for what you did to us.

<sup>9</sup>May the Lord bless everyone who beats your children against the rocks!

Psalm 138

(By David.)

Praise the LORD with all your heart

<sup>1</sup>With all my heart I praise you, LORD. In the presence of angels I sing your praises.

<sup>2</sup>I worship at your holy temple and praise you for your love and your faithfulness. You were true to your word and made yourself more famous than ever before.

<sup>3</sup>When I asked for your help, you answered my prayer and gave me courage.

<sup>4</sup>All kings on this earth have heard your promises, LORD, and they will praise you.

<sup>5</sup>You are so famous that they will sing about the things you have done.

<sup>6</sup>Though you are above us all, you care for humble people, and you keep a close watch on everyone who is proud.

<sup>7</sup>I am surrounded by trouble, but you protect me against my angry enemies. With your own powerful arm you keep me safe.

<sup>8</sup>You, LORD, will always treat me with kindness. Your love never fails. You have made us what we are. Don't give up on us now!

Psalm 139

(A psalm by David for the music leader.)

The LORD is always near

<sup>1</sup>You have looked deep into my heart, LORD, and you know all about me.

<sup>2</sup>You know when I am resting or when I am working, and from heaven you discover my thoughts.

<sup>3</sup>You notice everything I do and everywhere I go.

<sup>4</sup>Before I even speak a word, you know what I will say,

<sup>5</sup>and with your powerful arm you protect me from every side.

<sup>6</sup>I can't understand all this! Such wonderful knowledge is far above me.

<sup>7</sup>Where could I go to escape from your Spirit or from your sight?

<sup>8</sup>If I were to climb up to the highest heavens, you would be there. If I were to dig down to the world of the dead you would also be there.

<sup>9</sup>Suppose I had wings like the dawning day and flew across the ocean.

- <sup>10</sup>Even then your powerful arm would guide and protect me.
- <sup>11</sup>Or suppose I said, “I’ll hide in the dark until night comes to cover me over.”
- <sup>12</sup>But you see in the dark because daylight and dark are all the same to you.
- <sup>13</sup>You are the one who put me together inside my mother's body,
- <sup>14</sup>and I praise you because of the wonderful way you created me. Everything you do is marvellous! Of this I have no doubt.
- <sup>15</sup>Nothing about me is hidden from you! I was secretly woven together deep in the earth below,
- <sup>16</sup>but with your own eyes you saw my body being formed. Even before I was born, you had written in your book everything I would do.
- <sup>17</sup>Your thoughts are far beyond my understanding, much more than I could ever imagine.
- <sup>18</sup>I try to count your thoughts, but they outnumber the grains of sand on the beach. And when I awake, I will find you nearby.
- <sup>19</sup>How I wish that you would kill all cruel and heartless people and protect me from them!
- <sup>20</sup>They are always rebelling and speaking evil of you.
- <sup>21</sup>You know I hate anyone who hates you, LORD, and refuses to obey.
- <sup>22</sup>They are my enemies too, and I truly hate them.
- <sup>23</sup>Look deep into my heart, God, and find out everything I am thinking.
- <sup>24</sup>Don't let me follow evil ways, but lead me in the way that time has proved true.

Psalm 140

(A psalm by David for the music leader.)

A prayer for the LORD's help

- <sup>1</sup>Rescue me from cruel and violent enemies, LORD!
- <sup>2</sup>They think up evil plans and always cause trouble.

- <sup>3</sup>Their words bite deep like the poisonous fangs of a snake.
- <sup>4</sup>Protect me, LORD, from cruel and brutal enemies, who want to destroy me.
- <sup>5</sup>Those proud people have hidden traps and nets to catch me as I walk.
- <sup>6</sup>You, LORD, are my God! Please listen to my prayer.
- <sup>7</sup>You have the power to save me, and you keep me safe in every battle.
- <sup>8</sup>Don't let the wicked succeed in doing what they want, or else they might never stop planning evil.
- <sup>9</sup>They have me surrounded, but make them the victims of their own vicious lies.
- <sup>10</sup>Tip flaming coals on them and throw them into pits where they can't climb out.
- <sup>11</sup>Chase those cruel liars away! Let trouble hunt them down.
- <sup>12</sup>Our LORD, I know that you defend the homeless and see that the poor are given justice.
- <sup>13</sup>Your people will praise you and will live with you because they do right.

Psalm 141

(A psalm by David.)

A prayer for the LORD's protection

- <sup>1</sup>I pray to you, LORD! Please listen when I pray and hurry to help me.
- <sup>2</sup>Think of my prayer as sweet-smelling incense, and think of my lifted hands as an evening sacrifice.
- <sup>3</sup>Help me to guard my words whenever I say something.
- <sup>4</sup>Don't let me want to do evil or waste my time doing wrong with wicked people. Don't let me even taste the good things they offer.
- <sup>5</sup>Let your faithful people correct and punish me. My prayers condemn the deeds of those who do wrong, so don't let me be friends with any of them.

<sup>6</sup>Everyone will admit that I was right when their rulers are thrown down a rocky cliff,

<sup>7</sup>and their bones lie scattered like broken rocks on top of a grave.

<sup>8</sup>You are my LORD and God, and I look to you for safety. Don't let me be harmed.

<sup>9</sup>Protect me from the traps of those violent people,

<sup>10</sup>and make them fall into their own traps while you help me escape.

Psalm 142

(A special psalm and a prayer by David when he was in the cave.)

A prayer for help

<sup>1</sup>I pray to you, LORD. I beg for mercy.

<sup>2</sup>I tell you all my worries and my troubles,

<sup>3</sup>and whenever I feel low, you are there to guide me. A trap has been hidden along my pathway.

<sup>4</sup>Even if you look, you won't see anyone who cares enough to walk beside me. There is no place to hide, and no one who really cares.

<sup>5</sup>I pray to you, LORD! You are my place of safety, and you are my choice in the land of the living. Please answer my prayer. I am completely helpless.

<sup>6</sup>Help! They are chasing me, and they are too strong.

<sup>7</sup>Rescue me from this prison, so I can praise your name. And when your people notice your wonderful kindness to me, they will rush to my side.

Psalm 143

(A psalm by David.)

A prayer in time of danger

<sup>1</sup>Listen, LORD, as I pray! You are faithful and honest and will answer my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>I am your servant. Don't try me in your court, because no one is innocent by your standards.

<sup>3</sup>My enemies are chasing me, crushing me in the ground. I am in total darkness, like someone long dead.

<sup>4</sup>I have given up all hope, and I feel numb all over.

<sup>5</sup>I remember to think about the many things you did in years gone by.

<sup>6</sup>Then I lift my hands in prayer, because my soul is a desert, thirsty for water from you.

<sup>7</sup>Please hurry, LORD, and answer my prayer. I feel hopeless. Don't turn away and leave me here to die.

<sup>8</sup>Each morning let me learn more about your love because I trust you. I come to you in prayer, asking for your guidance.

<sup>9</sup>Please rescue me from my enemies, LORD! I come to you for safety.

<sup>10</sup>You are my God. Show me what you want me to do, and let your gentle Spirit lead me in the right path.

<sup>11</sup>Be true to your name, LORD, and keep my life safe. Use your saving power to protect me from trouble.

<sup>12</sup>I am your servant. Show how much you love me by destroying my enemies.

Psalm 144

(By David.)

A prayer for the nation

<sup>1</sup>I praise you, LORD! You are my mighty rock, and you teach me how to fight my battles.

<sup>2</sup>You are my friend, and you are my fortress where I am safe. You are my shield, and you made me the ruler of our people.

<sup>3</sup>Why do we humans mean anything to you, our LORD? Why do you care about us?

<sup>4</sup>We disappear like a breath; we last no longer than a faint shadow.

<sup>5</sup>Open the heavens like a curtain and come down, LORD. Touch the mountains and make them send up smoke.

<sup>6</sup>Use your lightning as arrows to scatter my enemies and make them run away.

<sup>7</sup>Reach down from heaven and set me free. Save me from the mighty flood

<sup>8</sup>of those lying foreigners who can't tell the truth.

<sup>9</sup>In praise of you, our God, I will sing a new song, while playing my harp.

<sup>10</sup>By your power, kings win wars, and your servant David is saved from deadly swords.

<sup>11</sup>Won't you keep me safe from those lying foreigners who can't tell the truth?

<sup>12</sup>Let's pray that our young sons will grow like strong plants and that our daughters will be as lovely as columns in the corner of a palace.

<sup>13</sup>May our barns be filled with all kinds of crops. May our fields be covered with sheep by the thousands,

<sup>14</sup>and every cow have calves. Don't let our city be captured or any of us be taken away, and don't let cries of sorrow be heard in our streets.

<sup>15</sup>Our LORD and our God, you give these blessings to all who worship you.

Psalm 145

(By David for praise.)

The LORD is kind and merciful

<sup>1</sup>I will praise you, my God and King, and always honour your name.

<sup>2</sup>I will praise you each day and always honour your name.

<sup>3</sup>You are wonderful, LORD, and you deserve all praise, because you are much greater than anyone can understand.

<sup>4</sup>Each generation will announce to the next your wonderful and powerful deeds.

<sup>5</sup>I will keep thinking about your marvellous glory and your mighty miracles.

<sup>6</sup>Everyone will talk about your fearsome deeds, and I will tell all nations how great you are.

<sup>7</sup>They will celebrate and sing about your matchless mercy and your power to save.

<sup>8</sup>You are merciful, LORD! You are kind and patient and always loving.

<sup>9</sup>You are good to everyone, and you take care of all your creation.

<sup>10</sup>All creation will thank you, and your loyal people will praise you.

<sup>11</sup>They will tell about your marvellous kingdom and your power.

<sup>12</sup>Then everyone will know about the mighty things you do and your glorious kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>Your kingdom will never end, and you will rule for ever. Our LORD, you keep your word and do everything you say.

<sup>14</sup>When someone stumbles or falls, you give a helping hand.

<sup>15</sup>Everyone depends on you, and when the time is right, you provide them with food.

<sup>16</sup>By your own hand you satisfy the desires of all who live.

<sup>17</sup>Our LORD, everything you do is kind and thoughtful,

<sup>18</sup>and you are near to everyone whose prayers are sincere.

<sup>19</sup>You satisfy the desires of all your worshippers, and you come to save them when they ask for help.

<sup>20</sup>You take care of everyone who loves you, but you destroy the wicked.

<sup>21</sup>I will praise you, LORD, and everyone will respect your holy name for ever.

Psalm 146

Shout praises to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! With all that I am, I will shout his praises.

<sup>2</sup>I will sing and praise the LORD God for as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>You can't depend on anyone, not even a great leader.

<sup>4</sup>Once they die and are buried, that will be the end of all their plans.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD God of Jacob blesses everyone who trusts him and depends on him.

<sup>6</sup>God made heaven and earth; he created the sea and everything else. God always keeps his word.

<sup>7</sup>He gives justice to the poor and food to the hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free

<sup>8</sup>and heals blind eyes. He gives a helping hand to everyone who falls. The LORD loves good people

<sup>9</sup>and looks after strangers. He defends the rights of orphans and widows, but destroys the wicked.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD God of Zion will rule for ever! Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 147

Sing and praise the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! Our God is kind, and it is right and good to sing praises to him.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem and brings the people of Israel back home again.

<sup>3</sup>He renews our hopes and heals our bodies.

<sup>4</sup>He decided how many stars there would be in the sky and gave each one a name.

<sup>5</sup>Our LORD is great and powerful! He understands everything.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD helps the poor, but he pulls the wicked to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Celebrate and sing! Play your harps for the LORD our God.

<sup>8</sup>He fills the sky with clouds and sends rain to the earth, so that the hills will be green with grass.

- <sup>9</sup>He provides food for cattle and for the young ravens, when they cry out.
- <sup>10</sup>The LORD doesn't care about the strength of horses or powerful armies.
- <sup>11</sup>The LORD is pleased only with those who worship him and trust his love.
- <sup>12</sup>Everyone in Jerusalem, come and praise the LORD your God!
- <sup>13</sup>He makes your city gates strong and blesses your people by giving them children.
- <sup>14</sup>God lets you live in peace, and he gives you the very best wheat.
- <sup>15</sup>As soon as God speaks, the earth obeys.
- <sup>16</sup>He covers the ground with snow like a blanket of wool, and he scatters frost like ashes on the ground.
- <sup>17</sup>God sends down hailstones like chips of rocks. Who can stand the cold?
- <sup>18</sup>At his command the ice melts, the wind blows, and streams begin to flow.
- <sup>19</sup>God gave his laws and teachings to the descendants of Jacob, the nation of Israel.
- <sup>20</sup>But he has not given his laws to any other nation. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 148

Come, praise the LORD

- <sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! Shout the LORD's praises in the highest heavens.
- <sup>2</sup>All you angels, and all who serve him above, come and offer praise.
- <sup>3</sup>Sun and moon, and all you bright stars, come and offer praise.
- <sup>4</sup>Highest heavens, and the water above the highest heavens, come and offer praise.
- <sup>5</sup>Let all things praise the name of the LORD, because they were created at his command.
- <sup>6</sup>He made them to last for ever, and nothing can change what he has done.

- <sup>7</sup>All creatures on earth, you obey his commands, so come, praise the LORD!
- <sup>8</sup>Sea monsters and the deep sea, fire and hail, snow and frost, and every stormy wind, come, praise the LORD!
- <sup>9</sup>All mountains and hills, fruit trees and cedars,
- <sup>10</sup>every wild and tame animal, all reptiles and birds, come, praise the LORD!
- <sup>11</sup>Every king and every ruler, all nations on earth,
- <sup>12</sup>every man and every woman, young people and old, come, praise the LORD!
- <sup>13</sup>All creation, come and praise the name of the LORD. Praise his name alone. The glory of God is greater than heaven and earth.
- <sup>14</sup>Like a bull with mighty horns, the LORD protects his faithful nation Israel, because they belong to him. Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 149

A new song of praise

- <sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! Sing him a new song of praise when his loyal people meet.
- <sup>2</sup>People of Israel, rejoice because of your Creator. People of Zion, celebrate because of your King.
- <sup>3</sup>Praise his name by dancing and playing music on harps and tambourines.
- <sup>4</sup>The LORD is pleased with his people, and he gives victory to those who are humble.
- <sup>5</sup>All you faithful people, praise our glorious Lord! Celebrate and worship.
- <sup>6</sup>Praise God with songs on your lips and a sword in your hand.
- <sup>7</sup>Take revenge and punish the nations.
- <sup>8</sup>Put chains of iron on their kings and rulers.

<sup>9</sup>Punish them as they deserve; this is the privilege of God's faithful people.
Shout praises to the LORD!

Psalm 150

The LORD is good to his people

<sup>1</sup>Shout praises to the LORD! Praise God in his temple. Praise him in heaven, his mighty fortress.

<sup>2</sup>Praise our God! His deeds are wonderful, too marvellous to describe.

<sup>3</sup>Praise God with trumpets and all kinds of harps.

<sup>4</sup>Praise him with tambourines and dancing, with stringed instruments and woodwinds.

<sup>5</sup>Praise God with cymbals, with clashing cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>Let every living creature praise the LORD. Shout praises to the LORD!

Proverbs

Proverbs 1

Introduction: how proverbs can be used

- <sup>1</sup> These are the proverbs of King Solomon of Israel, the son of David.
- <sup>2</sup> Proverbs will teach you wisdom and self-control and how to understand sayings with deep meanings.
- <sup>3</sup> You will learn what is right and honest and fair.
- <sup>4</sup> From these, an ordinary person can learn to be clever, and young people can gain knowledge and good sense.
- <sup>5</sup> If you are already wise, you will become even wiser. And if you are clever, you will learn to understand
- <sup>6</sup> proverbs and sayings, as well as words of wisdom and all kinds of riddles.
- <sup>7</sup> Respect and obey the LORD! This is the beginning of knowledge. Only a fool rejects wisdom and good advice.

Parental advice on the importance of seeking wisdom and not being foolish

Warnings against bad friends

- <sup>8</sup> My child, obey the teachings of your parents,
- <sup>9</sup> and wear their teachings as you would a lovely hat or a pretty necklace.
- <sup>10</sup> Don't be tempted by sinners or listen
- <sup>11</sup> when they say, "Come on! Let's gang up and kill somebody, just for the fun of it!
- <sup>12</sup> They're well and healthy now, but we'll finish them off once and for all.
- <sup>13</sup> We'll take their valuables and fill our homes with stolen goods.
- <sup>14</sup> If you join our gang, you'll get your share."
- <sup>15</sup> Don't follow anyone like that or do what they do.
- <sup>16</sup> They are in a big hurry to commit some crime, perhaps even murder.

<sup>17</sup>They are like a bird that sees the bait, but ignores the trap.

<sup>18</sup>They gang up to murder someone, but they are the victims.

<sup>19</sup>The wealth you get from crime robs you of your life.

Wisdom speaks

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom shouts in the streets wherever crowds gather.

<sup>21</sup>She shouts in the market places and near the city gates as she says to the people,

<sup>22</sup>“How much longer will you enjoy being stupid fools? Won't you ever stop sneering and laughing at knowledge?”

<sup>23</sup>Listen as I correct you and tell you what I think.

<sup>24</sup>You completely ignored me and refused to listen;

<sup>25</sup>you rejected my advice and paid no attention when I warned you.

<sup>26</sup>“So when you are struck by some terrible disaster,

<sup>27</sup>or when trouble and distress surround you like a whirlwind, I will laugh and make fun of you.

<sup>28</sup>You will ask for my help, but I won't listen; you will search, but you won't find me.

<sup>29</sup>No, you would not learn, and you refused to respect the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>You rejected my advice and paid no attention when I warned you.

<sup>31</sup>“Now you will eat the fruit of what you have done, until you are stuffed full with your own schemes.

<sup>32</sup>Sin and self-satisfaction bring destruction and death to stupid fools.

<sup>33</sup>But if you listen to me, you will be safe and secure without fear of disaster.”

Proverbs 2

Wisdom and bad friends

<sup>1</sup>My child, you must follow and treasure my teachings and my instructions.

- <sup>2</sup>Keep in tune with wisdom and think what it means to have common sense.
- <sup>3</sup>Beg as loud as you can for good common sense.
- <sup>4</sup>Search for wisdom as you would search for silver or hidden treasure.
- <sup>5</sup>Then you will understand what it means to respect and to know the LORD God.
- <sup>6</sup>All wisdom comes from the LORD, and so do common sense and understanding.
- <sup>7</sup>God gives helpful advice to everyone who obeys him and protects all those who live as they should.
- <sup>8</sup>God sees that justice is done, and he watches over everyone who is faithful to him.
- <sup>9</sup>With wisdom you will learn what is right and honest and fair.
- <sup>10</sup>Wisdom will control your mind, and you will be pleased with knowledge.
- <sup>11</sup>Sound judgment and good sense will watch over you.
- <sup>12</sup>Wisdom will protect you from evil schemes and from those liars
- <sup>13</sup>who turned from doing good to live in the darkness.
- <sup>14</sup>Most of all they enjoy being mean and deceitful.
- <sup>15</sup>They are dishonest themselves, and all they do is crooked.

Wisdom and sexual purity

- <sup>16</sup>Wisdom will protect you from the smooth talk of a sinful woman,
- <sup>17</sup>who breaks her wedding vows and leaves the man she married when she was young.
- <sup>18</sup>The road to her house leads down to the dark world of the dead.
- <sup>19</sup>Visit her, and you will never find the road to life again.
- <sup>20</sup>Follow the example of good people and live an honest life.
- <sup>21</sup>If you are honest and innocent, you will keep your land;

<sup>22</sup>if you do wrong and can never be trusted, you will be rooted out.

Proverbs 3

Trust God

<sup>1</sup>My child, remember my teachings and instructions and obey them completely.

<sup>2</sup>They will help you live a long and prosperous life.

<sup>3</sup>Let love and loyalty always show like a necklace, and write them in your mind.

<sup>4</sup>God and people will like you and consider you a success.

<sup>5</sup>With all your heart you must trust the LORD and not your own judgment.

<sup>6</sup>Always let him lead you, and he will clear the road for you to follow.

<sup>7</sup>Don't ever think that you are wise enough, but respect the LORD and stay away from evil.

<sup>8</sup>This will make you healthy, and you will feel strong.

<sup>9</sup>Honour the LORD by giving him your money and the first part of all your crops.

<sup>10</sup>Then you will have more grain and grapes than you will ever need.

<sup>11</sup> My child, don't turn away or become bitter when the LORD corrects you.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD corrects everyone he loves, just as parents correct their favourite child.

The value of wisdom

<sup>13</sup>God blesses everyone who has wisdom and common sense.

<sup>14</sup>Wisdom is worth more than silver; it makes you much richer than gold.

<sup>15</sup>Wisdom is more valuable than precious jewels; nothing you want compares with her.

<sup>16</sup>In her right hand Wisdom holds a long life, and in her left hand are wealth and honour.

- <sup>17</sup>Wisdom makes life pleasant and leads us safely along.
- <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is a life-giving tree, the source of happiness for all who hold on to her.
- <sup>19</sup>By his wisdom and knowledge the LORD created heaven and earth.
- <sup>20</sup>By his understanding he let the ocean break loose and clouds release the rain.
- <sup>21</sup>My child, use common sense and sound judgment! Always keep them in mind.
- <sup>22</sup>They will help you to live a long and beautiful life.
- <sup>23</sup>You will walk safely and never stumble;
- <sup>24</sup>you will rest without a worry and sleep soundly.
- <sup>25</sup>So don't be afraid of sudden disasters or storms that strike those who are evil.
- <sup>26</sup>You can be sure that the LORD will protect you from harm.
- <sup>27</sup>Do all you can for everyone who deserves your help.
- <sup>28</sup>Don't tell your neighbour to come back tomorrow, if you can help today.
- <sup>29</sup>Don't try to be mean to neighbours who trust you.
- <sup>30</sup>Don't argue just to be arguing, when you haven't been hurt.
- <sup>31</sup>Don't be jealous of cruel people or follow their example.
- <sup>32</sup>The LORD doesn't like anyone who is dishonest, but he lets good people be his friends.
- <sup>33</sup>He places a curse on the home of everyone who is evil, but he blesses the home of every good person.
- <sup>34</sup>The LORD sneers at those who sneer at him, but he is kind to everyone who is humble.

<sup>35</sup>You will be praised if you are wise, but you will be disgraced if you are a stubborn fool.

Proverbs 4

Advice to young people

<sup>1</sup>My child, listen closely to my teachings and learn common sense.

<sup>2</sup>My advice is useful, so don't turn away.

<sup>3</sup>When I was still very young and my mother's favourite child, my father

<sup>4</sup>said to me: "If you follow my teachings and keep them in mind, you will live.

<sup>5</sup>Be wise and learn good sense; remember my teachings and do what I say.

<sup>6</sup>"If you love Wisdom and don't reject her, she will watch over you.

<sup>7</sup>The best thing about Wisdom is Wisdom herself; good sense is more important than anything else.

<sup>8</sup>If you value Wisdom and hold tightly to her, great honours will be yours.

<sup>9</sup>It will be like wearing a glorious crown of beautiful flowers."

The right way and the wrong way

<sup>10</sup>My child, if you listen and obey my teachings, you will live a long time.

<sup>11</sup>I have shown you the way that makes sense; I have guided you along the right path.

<sup>12</sup>Your road won't be blocked, and you won't stumble when you run.

<sup>13</sup>Hold firmly to my teaching and never let go. It will mean life for you.

<sup>14</sup>Don't follow the bad example of cruel and evil people.

<sup>15</sup>Turn aside and keep going. Stay away from them.

<sup>16</sup>They can't sleep or rest until they do wrong or harm some innocent victim.

<sup>17</sup>Their food and drink are violence and cruelty.

<sup>18</sup>The lifestyle of good people is like sunlight at dawn that keeps getting brighter until broad daylight.

<sup>19</sup>The lifestyle of the wicked is like total darkness, and they will never know what makes them stumble.

<sup>20</sup>My child, listen carefully to everything I say.

<sup>21</sup>Don't forget a single word, but think about it all.

<sup>22</sup>Knowing these teachings will mean true life and good health for you.

<sup>23</sup>Carefully guard your thoughts because they are the source of true life.

<sup>24</sup>Never tell lies or be deceitful in what you say.

<sup>25</sup>Keep looking straight ahead, without turning aside.

<sup>26</sup>Know where you are headed, and you will stay on solid ground.

<sup>27</sup>Don't make a mistake by turning to the right or the left.

Proverbs 5

Be faithful to your wife

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you listen closely to my wisdom and good sense,

<sup>2</sup>you will have sound judgment, and you will always know the right thing to say.

<sup>3</sup>The words of an immoral woman may be as sweet as honey and as smooth as olive oil.

<sup>4</sup>But all that you really get from being with her is bitter poison and pain.

<sup>5</sup>If you follow her, she will lead you down to the world of the dead.

<sup>6</sup>She has missed the path that leads to life and doesn't even know it.

<sup>7</sup>My son, listen to me and do everything I say.

<sup>8</sup>Stay away from a bad woman! Don't even go near the door of her house.

<sup>9</sup>You will lose your self-respect and end up in debt to some cruel person for the rest of your life.

- <sup>10</sup>Strangers will get your money and everything else you have worked for.
- <sup>11</sup>When it's all over, your body will waste away, as you groan
- <sup>12</sup>and shout, "I hated advice and correction!
- <sup>13</sup>I paid no attention to my teachers,
- <sup>14</sup>and now I am disgraced in front of everyone."
- <sup>15</sup>You should be faithful to your wife, just as you take water from your own well.
- <sup>16</sup>And don't be like a stream from which just any woman may take a drink.
- <sup>17</sup>Save yourself for your wife and don't have sex with other women.
- <sup>18</sup>Be happy with the wife you married when you were young.
- <sup>19</sup>She is beautiful and graceful, just like a deer; you should be attracted to her and stay deeply in love.
- <sup>20</sup>Don't go mad over a woman who is unfaithful to her own husband!
- <sup>21</sup>The LORD sees everything, and he watches us closely.
- <sup>22</sup>Sinners are trapped and caught by their own evil deeds.
- <sup>23</sup>They get lost and die because of their foolishness and lack of self-control.

Proverbs 6

Don't be foolish

- <sup>1</sup>My child, suppose you agree to pay the debt of someone, who cannot repay a loan.
- <sup>2</sup>Then you are trapped by your own words,
- <sup>3</sup>and you are now in the power of someone else. Here is what you should do: go and beg for permission to call off the agreement.
- <sup>4</sup>Do this before you fall asleep or even get sleepy.
- <sup>5</sup>Save yourself, just as a deer or a bird tries to escape from a hunter.
- <sup>6</sup>You lazy people can learn by watching an anthill.

- <sup>7</sup>Ants don't have leaders,
<sup>8</sup>but they store up food during harvest season.
<sup>9</sup>How long will you lie there doing nothing at all? When are you going to get up and stop sleeping?
<sup>10</sup> Sleep a little. Doze a little. Fold your hands and twiddle your thumbs.
<sup>11</sup>Suddenly, everything is gone, as though it had been taken by an armed robber.
<sup>12</sup>Worthless liars go around
<sup>13</sup>winking and giving signals to deceive others.
<sup>14</sup>They are always thinking up something cruel and evil, and they stir up trouble.
<sup>15</sup>But they will be struck by sudden disaster and left without a hope.
<sup>16</sup>There are six or seven kinds of people the LORD doesn't like:
<sup>17</sup>Those who are too proud or tell lies or murder,
<sup>18</sup>those who make evil plans or are quick to do wrong,
<sup>19</sup>those who tell lies in court or stir up trouble in a family.
<sup>20</sup>Obey the teaching of your parents—
<sup>21</sup>always keep it in mind and never forget it.
<sup>22</sup>Their teaching will guide you when you walk, protect you when you sleep, and talk to you when you are awake.
<sup>23</sup>The Law of the Lord is a lamp, and its teachings shine brightly. Correction and self-control will lead you through life.
<sup>24</sup>They will protect you from the flattering words of someone else's wife.
<sup>25</sup>Don't let yourself be attracted by the charm and lovely eyes of someone like that.

<sup>26</sup>A woman who sells her love can be bought for as little as the price of a meal. But making love to another man's wife will cost you everything.

<sup>27</sup>If you carry burning coals, you burn your clothes;

<sup>28</sup>if you step on hot coals, you burn your feet.

<sup>29</sup>And if you go to bed with another man's wife, you pay the price.

<sup>30</sup>We don't put up with thieves, not even with one who steals for something to eat.

<sup>31</sup>And thieves who get caught must pay back seven times what was stolen and lose everything.

<sup>32</sup>But if you go to bed with another man's wife, you will destroy yourself by your own stupidity.

<sup>33</sup>You will be beaten and for ever disgraced,

<sup>34</sup>because a jealous husband can be furious and merciless when he takes revenge.

<sup>35</sup>He won't let you pay him off, no matter what you offer.

Proverbs 7

The foolishness of unfaithfulness

<sup>1</sup>My son, pay close attention and don't forget what I tell you to do.

<sup>2</sup>Obey me, and you will live! Let my instructions be your greatest treasure.

<sup>3</sup>Keep them at your fingertips and write them in your mind.

<sup>4</sup>Let wisdom be your sister and make common sense your closest friend.

<sup>5</sup>They will protect you from the flattering words of someone else's wife.

<sup>6</sup>From the window of my house, I once happened to see

<sup>7</sup>some foolish young men.

<sup>8</sup>It was late in the evening, some time after dark.

<sup>9</sup>One of these young men turned the corner and was walking by the house of an unfaithful wife.

<sup>10</sup>She was dressed up like a woman of the street with only one thing in mind.

<sup>11</sup>She was one of those women who are loud and restless and never stay at home,

<sup>12</sup>who walk street after street, waiting to trap a man.

<sup>13</sup>She grabbed him and kissed him, and with no sense of shame, she said:

<sup>14</sup>“I had to offer a sacrifice, and there is enough meat left over for a feast.

<sup>15</sup>So I came looking for you, and here you are!

<sup>16</sup>The sheets on my bed are bright-coloured cloth from Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>And I have covered it with perfume made of myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

<sup>18</sup>“Let's go there and make love all night.

<sup>19</sup>My husband is travelling, and he's far away.

<sup>20</sup>He took a lot of money along, and he won't be back home before the middle of the month.”

<sup>21</sup>And so, she tricked him with all her sweet talk and her flattery.

<sup>22</sup>Straight away he followed her like an ox on the way to be slaughtered, or like a fool on the way to be punished

<sup>23</sup>and killed with arrows. He was no more than a bird rushing into a trap, without knowing it would cost him his life.

<sup>24</sup>My son, pay close attention to what I have said.

<sup>25</sup>Don't even think about that kind of woman or let yourself be misled by someone like her.

<sup>26</sup>Such a woman has caused the downfall and destruction of a lot of men.

<sup>27</sup>Her house is a one-way street leading straight down to the world of the dead.

Proverbs 8

In praise of wisdom

- <sup>1</sup>With great understanding, Wisdom is calling out
<sup>2</sup>as she stands at the crossroads and on every hill.
<sup>3</sup>She stands by the city gate where everyone enters the city, and she shouts:
<sup>4</sup>“I am calling out to each one of you!
<sup>5</sup>Good sense and sound judgment can be yours.
<sup>6</sup>Listen, because what I say is worthwhile and right.
<sup>7</sup>I always speak the truth and refuse to tell a lie.
<sup>8</sup>Every word I speak is honest, not one is misleading or deceptive.
<sup>9</sup>“If you have understanding, you will see that my words are just what you need.
<sup>10</sup>Let instruction and knowledge mean more to you than silver or the finest gold.
<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is worth much more than precious jewels or anything else you desire.”

Wisdom speaks

- <sup>12</sup>I am Wisdom —Common Sense is my closest friend; I possess knowledge and sound judgment.
<sup>13</sup>If you respect the LORD, you will hate evil. I hate pride and conceit and deceitful lies.
<sup>14</sup>I am strong, and I offer sensible advice and sound judgment.
<sup>15</sup>By my power kings govern, and rulers make laws that are fair.
<sup>16</sup>Every honest leader rules with help from me.
<sup>17</sup>I love everyone who loves me, and I will be found by all who honestly search.

- <sup>18</sup>I can make you rich and famous, important and successful.
- <sup>19</sup>What you receive from me is more valuable than even the finest gold or the purest silver.
- <sup>20</sup>I always do what is right,
- <sup>21</sup>and I give great riches to everyone who loves me.
- <sup>22</sup>From the beginning, I was with the LORD. I was there before he began
- <sup>23</sup>to create the earth. At the very first, the LORD gave life to me.
- <sup>24</sup>When I was born, there were no oceans or springs of water.
- <sup>25</sup>My birth was before mountains were formed or hills were put in place.
- <sup>26</sup>It happened long before God had made the earth or any of its fields or even the dust.
- <sup>27</sup>I was there when the LORD put the heavens in place and stretched the sky over the surface of the sea.
- <sup>28</sup>I was with him when he placed the clouds in the sky and created the springs that fill the ocean.
- <sup>29</sup>I was there when he set boundaries for the sea to make it obey him, and when he laid foundations to support the earth.
- <sup>30</sup>I was right beside the LORD, helping him plan and build. I made him happy each day, and I was happy at his side.
- <sup>31</sup>I was pleased with his world and pleased with its people.
- <sup>32</sup>Pay attention, my children! Follow my advice, and you will be happy.
- <sup>33</sup>Listen carefully to my instructions, and you will be wise.
- <sup>34</sup>Come to my home each day and listen to me. You will find happiness.
- <sup>35</sup>By finding me, you find life, and the LORD will be pleased with you.
- <sup>36</sup>But if you don't find me, you hurt only yourself, and if you hate me, you are in love with death.

Proverbs 9

Wisdom's feast

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house with its seven columns.

<sup>2</sup>She has prepared the meat and set out the wine. Her feast is ready.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent her servant women to announce her invitation from the highest hills:

<sup>4</sup>“Everyone who is ignorant or foolish is invited!

<sup>5</sup>All of you are welcome to my meat and wine.

<sup>6</sup>If you want to live, give up your foolishness and let understanding guide your steps.”

True wisdom

<sup>7</sup>Correct a worthless boaster, and all you will get are insults and injuries.

<sup>8</sup>Any boaster you correct will only hate you. But if you correct someone who has common sense, you will be loved.

<sup>9</sup>If you have good sense, instruction will help you to have even better sense. And if you live right, education will help you to know even more.

<sup>10</sup>Respect and obey the LORD! This is the beginning of wisdom. To have understanding, you must know the Holy God.

<sup>11</sup>I am Wisdom. If you follow me, you will live a long time.

<sup>12</sup>Good sense is good for you, but if you boast, you hurt yourself.

A foolish invitation

<sup>13</sup>Stupidity is reckless, senseless, and foolish.

<sup>14</sup>She sits in front of her house and on the highest hills in the town.

<sup>15</sup>She shouts to everyone who passes by,

<sup>16</sup>“If you are stupid, come on inside!” And to every fool she says,

<sup>17</sup>“Stolen water tastes best, and the food you eat in secret tastes best of all.”

<sup>18</sup>None who listen to Stupidity understand that her guests are as good as dead.

Proverbs 10

Solomon's wise sayings

<sup>1</sup>Here are some proverbs of Solomon: Children with good sense make their parents happy, but foolish children make them sad.

<sup>2</sup>What you gain by doing evil won't help you at all, but being good can save you from death.

<sup>3</sup>If you obey the LORD, you won't go hungry; if you are wicked, God won't let you have what you want.

<sup>4</sup>Laziness leads to poverty; hard work makes you rich.

<sup>5</sup>At harvest season it's clever to work hard, but stupid to sleep.

<sup>6</sup>Everyone praises good people, but evil hides behind the words of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup>Good people are remembered long after they are gone, but the wicked are soon forgotten.

<sup>8</sup>If you have good sense, you will listen and obey; if all you do is talk, you will destroy yourself.

<sup>9</sup>You will be safe, if you always do right, but you will get caught, if you are dishonest.

<sup>10</sup>Deceit causes trouble, and foolish talk will bring you to ruin.

<sup>11</sup>The words of good people are a source of life, but evil hides behind the words of the wicked.

<sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up trouble; love overlooks the wrongs that others do.

<sup>13</sup>If you have good sense, it will show when you speak. But if you are stupid, you will be beaten with a stick.

<sup>14</sup>If you have good sense, you will learn all you can, but foolish talk will soon destroy you.

<sup>15</sup>Great wealth can be a fortress, but poverty is no protection at all.

<sup>16</sup>If you live right, the reward is a good life; if you are evil, all you have is sin.

<sup>17</sup>Accept correction, and you will find life; reject correction, and you will miss the road.

<sup>18</sup>You can hide your hatred by telling lies, but you are a fool to spread lies.

<sup>19</sup>You will say the wrong thing if you talk too much— so be sensible and watch what you say.

<sup>20</sup>The words of a good person are like pure silver, but the thoughts of an evil person are almost worthless.

<sup>21</sup>Many are helped by useful instruction, but fools are killed by their own stupidity.

<sup>22</sup>When the LORD blesses you with riches, you have nothing to regret.

<sup>23</sup>Fools enjoy doing wrong, but anyone with good sense enjoys acting wisely.

<sup>24</sup>What evil people dread most will happen to them, but good people will get what they want most.

<sup>25</sup>Those crooks will disappear when a storm strikes, but God will keep safe all who obey him.

<sup>26</sup>Having a lazy person on the job is like a mouth full of vinegar or smoke in your eyes.

<sup>27</sup>If you respect the LORD, you will live longer; if you keep doing wrong, your life will be cut short.

<sup>28</sup>If you obey the Lord, you will be happy, but there is no future for the wicked.

<sup>29</sup>The LORD protects everyone who lives right, but he destroys anyone who does wrong.

<sup>30</sup>Good people will stand firm, but the wicked will lose their land.

<sup>31</sup>Honest people speak sensibly, but deceitful liars will be silenced.

<sup>32</sup>If you obey the Lord, you will always know the right thing to say. But no one will trust you if you tell lies.

Proverbs 11

Watch what you say and do

<sup>1</sup>The LORD hates anyone who cheats, but he likes everyone who is honest.

<sup>2</sup>Too much pride can put you to shame. It's wiser to be humble.

<sup>3</sup>If you do the right thing, honesty will be your guide. But if you are crooked, you will be trapped by your own dishonesty.

<sup>4</sup>When God is angry, money won't help you. Obeying God is the only way to be saved from death.

<sup>5</sup>If you are truly good, you will do right; if you are wicked, you will be destroyed by your own sin.

<sup>6</sup>Honesty can keep you safe, but if you can't be trusted, you trap yourself.

<sup>7</sup>When the wicked die, their hopes die with them.

<sup>8</sup>Trouble goes right past the LORD's people and strikes the wicked.

<sup>9</sup>Dishonest people use gossip to destroy their neighbours; good people are protected by their own good sense.

<sup>10</sup>When honest people prosper and the wicked disappear, the whole city celebrates.

<sup>11</sup>When God blesses his people, their city prospers, but deceitful liars can destroy a city.

<sup>12</sup>It's stupid to say bad things about your neighbours. If you are sensible, you will keep quiet.

- <sup>13</sup>A gossip tells everything, but a true friend will keep a secret.
- <sup>14</sup>A city without wise leaders will end up in ruin; a city with many wise leaders will be kept safe.
- <sup>15</sup>It's a dangerous thing to guarantee payment for someone's debts. Don't do it!
- <sup>16</sup>A gracious woman will be respected, but a man must work hard to get rich.
- <sup>17</sup>Kindness is rewarded— but if you are cruel, you hurt yourself.
- <sup>18</sup>Meanness gets you nowhere, but goodness is rewarded.
- <sup>19</sup>Always do the right thing, and you will live; keep on doing wrong, and you will die.
- <sup>20</sup>The LORD hates cunning people, but he likes everyone who lives right.
- <sup>21</sup>You can be sure of this: all crooks will be punished, but God's people won't.
- <sup>22</sup>A beautiful woman who acts foolishly is like a gold ring on the snout of a pig.
- <sup>23</sup>Good people want what is best, but troublemakers hope to stir up trouble.
- <sup>24</sup>Sometimes you can become rich by being generous or poor by being greedy.
- <sup>25</sup>Generosity will be rewarded: give a cup of water, and you will receive a cup of water in return.
- <sup>26</sup>Charge too much for grain, and you will be cursed; sell it at a fair price, and you will be praised.
- <sup>27</sup>Try hard to do right, and you will win friends; go looking for trouble, and you will find it.
- <sup>28</sup>Trust in your wealth, and you will be a failure, but God's people will prosper like healthy plants.
- <sup>29</sup>Fools who cause trouble in the family won't inherit a thing. They will end up as slaves of someone with good sense.

<sup>30</sup>Live right, and you will eat from the life-giving tree. And if you act wisely, others will follow.

<sup>31</sup>If good people are rewarded here on this earth, all who are cruel and mean will surely be punished.

Proverbs 12

You can't hide behind evil

<sup>1</sup>To accept correction is wise, to reject it is stupid.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD likes everyone who lives right, but he punishes everyone who makes evil plans.

<sup>3</sup>Sin cannot offer security! But if you live right, you will be as secure as a tree with deep roots.

<sup>4</sup>A helpful wife is a jewel for her husband, but a shameless wife will make his bones rot.

<sup>5</sup>Good people have kind thoughts, but you should never trust the advice of someone evil.

<sup>6</sup>Bad advice is a deadly trap, but good advice is like a shield.

<sup>7</sup>Once the wicked are defeated, they are gone for ever, but no one who obeys God will ever be thrown down.

<sup>8</sup>Good sense is worthy of praise, but stupidity is a curse.

<sup>9</sup>It's better to be ordinary and have only one servant than to think you are somebody and starve to death.

<sup>10</sup>Good people are kind to their animals, but a mean person is cruel.

<sup>11</sup>Hard working farmers have more than enough food; daydreamers are nothing more than stupid fools.

<sup>12</sup>An evil person tries to hide behind evil; good people are like trees with deep roots.

<sup>13</sup>We trap ourselves by telling lies, but we stay out of trouble by living right.

- <sup>14</sup>We are rewarded or punished for what we say and do.
- <sup>15</sup>Fools think they know what is best, but a sensible person listens to advice.
- <sup>16</sup>Losing your temper is foolish; ignoring an insult is sensible.
- <sup>17</sup>An honest person tells the truth in court, but a dishonest person tells nothing but lies.
- <sup>18</sup>Sharp words cut like a sword, but words of wisdom heal.
- <sup>19</sup>Truth will last for ever; lies are soon found out.
- <sup>20</sup>An evil mind is deceitful, but gentle thoughts bring happiness.
- <sup>21</sup>Good people never have trouble, but troublemakers have more than enough.
- <sup>22</sup>The LORD hates every liar, but he is the friend of all who can be trusted.
- <sup>23</sup>Be sensible and don't tell everything you know— only fools spread foolishness everywhere.
- <sup>24</sup>Work hard, and you will be a leader; be lazy, and you will end up a slave.
- <sup>25</sup>Worry is a heavy burden, but a kind word always brings cheer.
- <sup>26</sup>You are better off doing right, than losing your way by doing wrong.
- <sup>27</sup>Anyone too lazy to cook will starve, but a hard worker is a valuable treasure.
- <sup>28</sup>Follow the road to life, and you won't be bothered by death.

Proverbs 13

Wise friends make you wise

- <sup>1</sup>Children with good sense accept correction from their parents, but stubborn children ignore it completely.
- <sup>2</sup>You will be well rewarded for saying something kind, but all some people think about is how to be cruel and mean.

<sup>3</sup>Keep what you know to yourself, and you will be safe; talk too much, and you are done for.

<sup>4</sup>No matter how much you want, laziness won't help a bit, but hard work will reward you with more than enough.

<sup>5</sup>A good person hates deceit, but those who are evil cause shame and disgrace.

<sup>6</sup>Live right, and you are safe! But sin will destroy you.

<sup>7</sup>Some who have nothing may pretend to be rich, and some who have everything may pretend to be poor.

<sup>8</sup>The rich may have to pay a ransom, but the poor don't have that problem.

<sup>9</sup>The lamp of a good person keeps on shining; the lamp of an evil person soon goes out.

<sup>10</sup>Too much pride causes trouble. Be sensible and take advice.

<sup>11</sup>Money wrongly got will disappear bit by bit; money earned little by little will grow and grow.

<sup>12</sup>Not getting what you want can make you feel sick, but a wish that comes true is a life-giving tree.

<sup>13</sup>If you reject God's teaching, you will pay the price; if you obey his commands, you will be rewarded.

<sup>14</sup>Sensible instruction is a life-giving fountain that helps you escape all deadly traps.

<sup>15</sup>Sound judgment is praised, but people without good sense are on the way to disaster.

<sup>16</sup>If you have good sense, you will act sensibly, but fools act like fools.

<sup>17</sup>Whoever delivers your message can make things better or worse for you.

<sup>18</sup>All who refuse correction will be poor and disgraced; all who accept correction will be praised.

<sup>19</sup>It's a good feeling to get what you want, but only a stupid fool hates to turn from evil.

<sup>20</sup>Wise friends make you wise, but you hurt yourself by going around with fools.

<sup>21</sup>You are in for trouble if you sin, but you will be rewarded if you live right.

<sup>22</sup>If you obey God, you will have something to leave your grandchildren. If you don't obey God, those who live right will get what you leave.

<sup>23</sup>Even when the land of the poor produces good crops, they get cheated out of what they grow.

<sup>24</sup>If you love your children, you will correct them; if you don't love them, you won't correct them.

<sup>25</sup>If you live right, you will have plenty to eat; if you don't live right, you will go away empty.

Proverbs 14

Wisdom makes good sense

<sup>1</sup>A woman's family is held together by her wisdom, but it can be destroyed by her foolishness.

<sup>2</sup>By living right, you show that you respect the LORD; by being deceitful, you show that you despise him.

<sup>3</sup>Proud fools are punished for their stupid talk, but sensible talk can save your life.

<sup>4</sup>Without the help of an ox there can be no crop, but with a strong ox a big crop is possible.

<sup>5</sup>An honest witness tells the truth; a dishonest witness tells nothing but lies.

<sup>6</sup>Make fun of wisdom, and you will never find it. But if you have understanding, knowledge comes easily.

<sup>7</sup>Stay away from fools, or you won't learn a thing.

- <sup>8</sup>Wise people have enough sense to find their way, but stupid fools get lost.
- <sup>9</sup>Fools don't care if they are wrong, but God is pleased when people do right.
- <sup>10</sup>No one else can really know how sad or happy you are.
- <sup>11</sup>The tent of a good person stands longer than the house of someone evil.
- <sup>12</sup>You may think you are on the right road and still end up dead.
- <sup>13</sup>Sorrow may hide behind laughter, and happiness may end in sorrow.
- <sup>14</sup>You harvest what you plant, whether good or bad.
- <sup>15</sup>Don't be stupid and believe all you hear; be clever and know where you are headed.
- <sup>16</sup>Only a stupid fool is never cautious— so be extra careful and stay out of trouble.
- <sup>17</sup>Fools have quick tempers, and no one likes you if you can't be trusted.
- <sup>18</sup>Stupidity leads to foolishness; be clever and learn.
- <sup>19</sup>The wicked will come crawling to those who obey God.
- <sup>20</sup>You have no friends if you are poor, but you have lots of friends if you are rich.
- <sup>21</sup>It's wrong to hate others, but God blesses everyone who is kind to the poor.
- <sup>22</sup>It's a mistake to make evil plans, but you will have loyal friends if you want to do right.
- <sup>23</sup>Hard work is worthwhile, but empty talk will make you poor.
- <sup>24</sup>Wisdom can make you rich, but foolishness leads to more foolishness.
- <sup>25</sup>An honest witness can save your life, but liars can't be trusted.
- <sup>26</sup>If you respect the LORD, you and your children have a strong fortress
- <sup>27</sup>and a life-giving fountain that keeps you safe from deadly traps.
- <sup>28</sup>Rulers of powerful nations are held in honour; rulers of weak nations are nothing at all.

<sup>29</sup>It's clever to be patient, but it's stupid to lose your temper.

<sup>30</sup>It's healthy to be content, but envy can eat you up.

<sup>31</sup>If you ill-treat the poor, you insult your Creator; if you are kind to them, you show him respect.

<sup>32</sup>In times of trouble the wicked are destroyed, but even at death the innocent have faith.

<sup>33</sup>Wisdom is found in the minds of people with good sense, but fools don't know it.

<sup>34</sup>Doing right brings honour to a nation, but sin brings disgrace.

<sup>35</sup>Kings reward servants who act wisely, but they punish those who act foolishly.

Proverbs 15

The LORD sees everything

<sup>1</sup>A kind answer soothes angry feelings, but harsh words stir them up.

<sup>2</sup>Words of wisdom come from the wise, but fools speak foolishness.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD sees everything, whether good or bad.

<sup>4</sup>Kind words are good medicine, but deceitful words can really hurt.

<sup>5</sup>Don't be a fool and disobey your parents. Be clever! Accept correction.

<sup>6</sup>Good people become wealthy, but those who are evil will lose what they have.

<sup>7</sup>Words of wisdom make good sense; the thoughts of a fool make no sense at all.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD is disgusted by gifts from the wicked, but it makes him happy when his people pray.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD is disgusted with all who do wrong, but he loves everyone who does right.

- <sup>10</sup>If you turn from the right way, you will be punished; if you refuse correction, you will die.
- <sup>11</sup>If the LORD can see everything in the world of the dead, he can see in our hearts.
- <sup>12</sup>Those who sneer at others don't like to be corrected, and they won't ask help from someone with sense.
- <sup>13</sup>Happiness makes you smile; sorrow can crush you.
- <sup>14</sup>Anyone with good sense is eager to learn more, but fools are hungry for foolishness.
- <sup>15</sup>The poor have a hard life, but being content is as good as an endless feast.
- <sup>16</sup>It's better to obey the LORD and have only a little, than to be very rich and terribly confused.
- <sup>17</sup>A simple meal with love is better than a feast where there is hatred.
- <sup>18</sup>Losing your temper causes a lot of trouble, but staying calm settles arguments.
- <sup>19</sup>Being lazy is like walking in a thorn patch, but everyone who does right walks on a smooth road.
- <sup>20</sup>Children with good sense make their parents happy, but foolish children are hateful to them.
- <sup>21</sup>Stupidity brings happiness to senseless fools, but everyone with good sense follows the straight path.
- <sup>22</sup>Without good advice everything goes wrong— it takes careful planning for things to go right.
- <sup>23</sup>Giving the right answer at the right time makes everyone happy.
- <sup>24</sup>All who are wise follow a road that leads upward to life and away from death.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD destroys the homes of those who are proud, but he protects the property of widows.

<sup>26</sup>The LORD hates evil thoughts, but kind words please him.

<sup>27</sup>Being greedy causes trouble for your family, but you protect yourself by refusing bribes.

<sup>28</sup>Good people think before they answer, but the wicked speak evil without ever thinking.

<sup>29</sup>The LORD never even hears the prayers of the wicked, but he answers the prayers of all who obey him.

<sup>30</sup>A friendly smile makes you happy, and good news makes you feel strong.

<sup>31</sup>Healthy correction is good, and if you accept it, you will be wise.

<sup>32</sup>You hurt only yourself by rejecting instruction, but it makes good sense to accept it.

<sup>33</sup>Showing respect to the LORD will make you wise, and being humble will bring honour to you.

Proverbs 16

The LORD has the final word

<sup>1</sup>We humans make plans, but the LORD has the final word.

<sup>2</sup>We may think we know what is right, but the LORD is the judge of our motives.

<sup>3</sup>Share your plans with the LORD, and you will succeed.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has a reason for everything he does, and he lets evil people live only to be punished.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD doesn't like anyone who is conceited— you can be sure they will be punished.

<sup>6</sup>If we truly love God, our sins will be forgiven; if we show him respect, we will keep away from sin.

- <sup>7</sup>When we please the LORD, even our enemies make friends with us.
- <sup>8</sup>It's better to be honest and poor than to be dishonest and rich.
- <sup>9</sup>We make our own plans, but the LORD decides where we will go.
- <sup>10</sup>Rulers speak with authority and are never wrong.
- <sup>11</sup>The LORD doesn't like it when we cheat in business.
- <sup>12</sup>Justice makes rulers powerful. They should hate evil
- <sup>13</sup>and like honesty and truth.
- <sup>14</sup>An angry ruler can put you to death. So be wise! Don't make one angry.
- <sup>15</sup>When a ruler is happy and pleased with you, it's like refreshing rain, and you will live.
- <sup>16</sup>It's much better to be wise and sensible than to be rich.
- <sup>17</sup>God's people avoid evil ways, and they protect themselves by watching where they go.
- <sup>18</sup>Too much pride will destroy you.
- <sup>19</sup>You are better off being humble and poor than getting rich from what you take by force.
- <sup>20</sup>If you know what you're doing, you will prosper. God blesses everyone who trusts him.
- <sup>21</sup>Good judgment proves that you are wise, and if you speak kindly, you can teach others.
- <sup>22</sup>Good sense is a fountain that gives life, but fools are punished by their foolishness.
- <sup>23</sup>You can persuade others if you are wise and speak sensibly.
- <sup>24</sup>Kind words are like honey— they cheer you up and make you feel strong.
- <sup>25</sup>Sometimes what seems right is really a road to death.
- <sup>26</sup>The hungrier you are, the harder you work.

- <sup>27</sup>Worthless people plan trouble. Even their words burn like a flaming fire.
- <sup>28</sup>Gossip is no good! It causes hard feelings and comes between friends.
- <sup>29</sup>Don't trust violent people. They will mislead you to do the wrong thing.
- <sup>30</sup>When someone winks or grins behind your back, trouble is on the way.
- <sup>31</sup>Grey hair is a glorious crown worn by those who have lived right.
- <sup>32</sup>Controlling your temper is better than being a hero who captures a city.
- <sup>33</sup>We make our own decisions, but the LORD alone determines what happens.

Proverbs 17

Our thoughts are tested by the LORD

- <sup>1</sup>A dry crust of bread eaten in peace and quiet is better than a feast eaten where everyone argues.
- <sup>2</sup>A hard-working slave will be placed in charge of a no-good child, and that slave will be given the same inheritance that each child receives.
- <sup>3</sup>Silver and gold are tested by flames of fire; our thoughts are tested by the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup>Troublemakers listen to troublemakers, and liars listen to liars.
- <sup>5</sup>By insulting the poor, you insult your Creator. You will be punished if you make fun of someone in trouble.
- <sup>6</sup>Grandparents are proud of their grandchildren, and children should be proud of their parents.
- <sup>7</sup>It sounds strange for a fool to talk sensibly, but it's even worse for a ruler to tell lies.
- <sup>8</sup>A bribe works miracles like a magic charm that brings good luck.
- <sup>9</sup>You will keep your friends if you forgive them, but you will lose your friends if you keep talking about what they did wrong.
- <sup>10</sup>A sensible person accepts correction, but you can't beat sense into a fool.

- <sup>11</sup>Cruel people want to rebel, and so vicious attackers will be sent against them.
- <sup>12</sup>A bear robbed of her cubs is far less dangerous than a stubborn fool.
- <sup>13</sup>You will always have trouble if you are mean to those who are good to you.
- <sup>14</sup>The start of an argument is like a water leak— so stop it before real trouble breaks out.
- <sup>15</sup>The LORD doesn't like those who defend the guilty or condemn the innocent.
- <sup>16</sup>Why should fools have money for an education when they refuse to learn?
- <sup>17</sup>A friend is always a friend, and relatives are born to share our troubles.
- <sup>18</sup>It's stupid to guarantee someone else's loan.
- <sup>19</sup>The wicked and the proud love trouble and keep begging to be hurt.
- <sup>20</sup>Dishonesty does you no good, and telling lies will get you in trouble.
- <sup>21</sup>It's never pleasant to be the parent of a fool and have nothing but pain.
- <sup>22</sup>If you are cheerful, you feel good; if you are sad, you hurt all over.
- <sup>23</sup>Crooks accept secret bribes to keep justice from being done.
- <sup>24</sup>Anyone with wisdom knows what makes good sense, but fools can never make up their minds.
- <sup>25</sup>Foolish children bring sorrow to their father and pain to their mother.
- <sup>26</sup>It isn't fair to punish the innocent and those who do right.
- <sup>27</sup>It makes a lot of sense to be a person of few words and to stay calm.
- <sup>28</sup>Even fools seem clever when they are quiet.

Proverbs 18

It's wrong to favour the guilty

- <sup>1</sup>It's selfish and stupid to think only of yourself and to sneer at people who have sense.

- <sup>2</sup>Fools have no desire to learn; they would much rather give their own opinion.
- <sup>3</sup>Wrongdoing leads to shame and disgrace.
- <sup>4</sup>Words of wisdom are a stream that flows from a deep fountain.
- <sup>5</sup>It's wrong to favour the guilty and keep the innocent from getting justice.
- <sup>6</sup>Foolish talk will get you into a lot of trouble.
- <sup>7</sup>Saying foolish things is like setting a trap to destroy yourself.
- <sup>8</sup>There's nothing so delicious as the taste of gossip! It melts in your mouth.
- <sup>9</sup>Being lazy is no different from being a troublemaker.
- <sup>10</sup>The LORD is a mighty tower where his people can run for safety—
- <sup>11</sup>the rich think their money is a wall of protection.
- <sup>12</sup>Pride leads to destruction; humility leads to honour.
- <sup>13</sup>It's stupid and embarrassing to give an answer before you listen.
- <sup>14</sup>Being cheerful helps when we are sick, but nothing helps when we give up.
- <sup>15</sup>Everyone with good sense wants to learn.
- <sup>16</sup>A gift will get you in to see anyone.
- <sup>17</sup>You may think you have won your case in court, until your opponent speaks.
- <sup>18</sup>Drawing straws is one way to settle a difficult case.
- <sup>19</sup>Making up with a friend you have offended is harder than breaking through a city wall.
- <sup>20</sup>Make your words good— you will be glad you did.
- <sup>21</sup>Words can bring death or life! Talk too much, and you will eat everything you say.
- <sup>22</sup>A man's greatest treasure is his wife— she is a gift from the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>The poor must beg for help, but the rich can give a harsh reply.

<sup>24</sup>Some friends don't help, but a true friend is closer than your own family.

Proverbs 19

It's wise to be patient

<sup>1</sup>It's better to be poor and live right than to be a stupid liar.

<sup>2</sup>Willingness and stupidity don't go well together. If you are too eager, you will miss the road.

<sup>3</sup>We are ruined by our own stupidity, though we blame the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>The rich have many friends; the poor have none.

<sup>5</sup>Dishonest witnesses and liars won't escape punishment.

<sup>6</sup>Everyone tries to be friends of those who can help them.

<sup>7</sup>If you are poor, your own relatives reject you, and your friends are worse. When you really need them, they are not there.

<sup>8</sup>Do yourself a favour by having good sense— you will be glad you did.

<sup>9</sup>Dishonest witnesses and liars will be destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>It isn't right for a fool to live in luxury or for a slave to rule in place of a king.

<sup>11</sup>It's wise to be patient and show what you are like by forgiving others.

<sup>12</sup>An angry king roars like a lion, but when a king is pleased, it's like dew on the crops.

<sup>13</sup>A foolish son brings disgrace to his father. A nagging wife goes on and on like the drip, drip, drip of the rain.

<sup>14</sup>You may inherit all you own from your parents, but a sensible wife is a gift from the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>If you are lazy and sleep your time away, you will starve.

<sup>16</sup>Obey the Lord's teachings and you will live— disobey and you will die.

- <sup>17</sup>Caring for the poor is lending to the LORD, and you will be well repaid.
- <sup>18</sup>Correct your children before it's too late; if you don't punish them, you are destroying them.
- <sup>19</sup>People with bad tempers are always in trouble, and they need help over and over again.
- <sup>20</sup>Pay attention to advice and accept correction, so you can live sensibly.
- <sup>21</sup>We may make a lot of plans, but the LORD will do what he has decided.
- <sup>22</sup>What matters most is loyalty. It's better to be poor than to be a liar.
- <sup>23</sup>Showing respect to the LORD brings true life— if you do it, you can relax without fear of danger.
- <sup>24</sup>Some people are too lazy to lift a hand to feed themselves.
- <sup>25</sup>Stupid fools learn good sense by seeing others punished; a sensible person learns by being corrected.
- <sup>26</sup>Children who bring disgrace rob their father and chase their mother away.
- <sup>27</sup>If you stop learning, you will forget what you already know.
- <sup>28</sup>A lying witness makes fun of the court system, and criminals think crime is really delicious.
- <sup>29</sup>Every stupid fool is just waiting to be punished.

Proverbs 20

Words of wisdom are better than gold

- <sup>1</sup>It isn't clever to get drunk! Drinking makes a fool of you and leads to fights.
- <sup>2</sup>An angry ruler is like a roaring lion— make either one angry, and you are dead.
- <sup>3</sup>It makes you look good when you avoid a fight— only fools love to quarrel.
- <sup>4</sup>If you are too lazy to plough, don't expect a harvest.

- <sup>5</sup>Someone's thoughts may be as deep as the ocean, but if you are clever, you will discover them.
- <sup>6</sup>There are many who say, "You can trust me!" But can they be trusted?
- <sup>7</sup>Good people live right, and God blesses the children who follow their example.
- <sup>8</sup>When rulers decide cases, they weigh the evidence.
- <sup>9</sup>Can any of us really say, "My thoughts are pure, and my sins are gone"?
- <sup>10</sup>Two things the LORD hates are dishonest scales and dishonest measures.
- <sup>11</sup>The good or bad that children do shows what they are like.
- <sup>12</sup>Hearing and seeing are gifts from the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup>If you sleep all the time, you will starve; if you get up and work, you will have enough food.
- <sup>14</sup>Everyone likes to boast about getting a bargain.
- <sup>15</sup>Sensible words are better than gold or jewels.
- <sup>16</sup>You deserve to lose your coat if you loan it to someone to guarantee payment for the debt of a stranger.
- <sup>17</sup>The food you get by cheating may taste delicious, but it turns to gravel.
- <sup>18</sup>Be sure you have sound advice before making plans or starting a war.
- <sup>19</sup>Stay away from gossips— they tell everything.
- <sup>20</sup>Children who curse their parents will go to the land of darkness long before their time.
- <sup>21</sup>Getting rich quick may turn out to be a curse.
- <sup>22</sup>Don't try to get even. Trust the LORD, and he will help you.
- <sup>23</sup>The LORD hates dishonest scales and dishonest weights. So don't cheat!
- <sup>24</sup>How can we know what will happen to us when the LORD alone decides?
- <sup>25</sup>Don't fall into the trap of making promises to God before you think!

<sup>26</sup>A wise ruler severely punishes every criminal.

<sup>27</sup>Our inner thoughts are a lamp from the LORD, and they search our hearts.

<sup>28</sup>Rulers are protected by God's mercy and loyalty, but they must be merciful for their kingdoms to last.

<sup>29</sup>Young people take pride in their strength, but the grey hairs of wisdom are even more beautiful.

<sup>30</sup>A severe beating can knock all of the evil out of you!

Proverbs 21

The LORD is in charge

<sup>1</sup>The LORD controls rulers, just as he determines the course of rivers.

<sup>2</sup>We may think we are doing the right thing, but the LORD always knows what is in our hearts.

<sup>3</sup>Doing what is right and fair pleases the LORD more than an offering.

<sup>4</sup>Evil people are proud and arrogant, but sin is the only crop they produce.

<sup>5</sup>If you plan and work hard, you will have plenty; if you get in a hurry, you will end up poor.

<sup>6</sup>Cheating to get rich is a foolish dream and no less than suicide.

<sup>7</sup>You destroy yourself by being cruel and violent and refusing to live right.

<sup>8</sup>All crooks are liars, but anyone who is innocent will do right.

<sup>9</sup>It's better to stay outside on the roof of your house than to live inside with a nagging wife.

<sup>10</sup>Evil people want to do wrong, even to their friends.

<sup>11</sup>An ignorant fool learns by seeing others punished; a sensible person learns by being instructed.

<sup>12</sup>God is always fair! He knows what the wicked do and will punish them.

- <sup>13</sup>If you won't help the poor, don't expect to be heard when you cry out for help.
- <sup>14</sup>A secret bribe will save you from someone's fierce anger.
- <sup>15</sup>When justice is done, good citizens are glad and crooks are terrified.
- <sup>16</sup>If you stop using good sense, you will find yourself in the grave.
- <sup>17</sup>Heavy drinkers and others who live only for pleasure will lose all they have.
- <sup>18</sup>God's people will escape, but all who are wicked will pay the price.
- <sup>19</sup>It's better out in the desert than at home with a nagging, complaining wife.
- <sup>20</sup>Be sensible and store up precious treasures— don't waste them like a fool.
- <sup>21</sup>If you try to be kind and good, you will be blessed with life and goodness and honour.
- <sup>22</sup>One wise person can defeat a city full of soldiers and capture their fortress.
- <sup>23</sup>Watching what you say can save you a lot of trouble.
- <sup>24</sup>If you are proud and conceited, everyone will say, “You're a snob!”
- <sup>25</sup>If you want too much and are too lazy to work, it could be fatal.
- <sup>26</sup>But people who obey God are always generous.
- <sup>27</sup>The Lord despises the offerings of wicked people with evil motives.
- <sup>28</sup>If you tell lies in court, you are done for; only a reliable witness can do the job.
- <sup>29</sup>Wicked people bluff their way, but God's people think before they take a step.
- <sup>30</sup>No matter how much you know or what plans you make, you can't defeat the LORD.
- <sup>31</sup>Even if your army has horses ready for battle, the LORD will always win.

Proverbs 22

The value of a good reputation

- <sup>1</sup>A good reputation and respect are worth much more than silver and gold.
- <sup>2</sup>The rich and the poor are all created by the LORD.
- <sup>3</sup>When you see trouble coming, don't be stupid and walk right into it— be clever and hide.
- <sup>4</sup>Respect and serve the LORD! Your reward will be wealth, a long life, and honour.
- <sup>5</sup>Crooks walk down a road full of thorny traps. Stay away from there!
- <sup>6</sup>Teach your children right from wrong, and when they are grown they will still do right.
- <sup>7</sup>The poor are ruled by the rich, and those who borrow are slaves of moneylenders.
- <sup>8</sup>Troublemakers get in trouble, and their terrible anger will get them nowhere.
- <sup>9</sup>The LORD blesses everyone who freely gives food to the poor.
- <sup>10</sup>Arguments and fights will come to an end, if you chase away those who insult others.
- <sup>11</sup>The king is the friend of all who are sincere and speak with kindness.
- <sup>12</sup>The LORD watches over everyone who shows good sense, but he frustrates the plans of deceitful liars.
- <sup>13</sup>Don't be so lazy that you say, “If I go to work, a lion will eat me!”
- <sup>14</sup>The words of a bad woman are like a deep pit; if you make the LORD angry, you will fall right in.
- <sup>15</sup>All children are foolish, but firm correction will make them change.
- <sup>16</sup>Cheat the poor to make profit or give gifts to the rich— either way you lose.

Thirty wise sayings

- <sup>17</sup>Here are some sayings of people with wisdom, so listen carefully as I teach.

<sup>18</sup>You will be glad that you know these sayings and can recite them.

<sup>19</sup>I am teaching them today, so that you may trust the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>I have written thirty sayings filled with sound advice.

<sup>21</sup>You can trust them completely to give you the right words for those in charge of you.

—1—

<sup>22</sup>Don't take advantage of the poor or cheat them in court.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD is their defender, and what you do to them, he will do to you.

—2—

<sup>24</sup>Don't make friends with anyone who has a bad temper.

<sup>25</sup>You might turn out like them and get caught in a trap.

—3—

<sup>26</sup>Don't guarantee to pay someone else's debt.

<sup>27</sup>If you don't have the money, you might lose your bed.

—4—

<sup>28</sup>Don't move a boundary marker set up by your ancestors.

—5—

<sup>29</sup>If you do your job well, you will work for a ruler and never be a slave.

Proverbs 23

—6—

<sup>1</sup>When you are invited to eat with a king, use your best manners.

<sup>2</sup>Don't go and stuff yourself! That would be just the same as cutting your throat.

<sup>3</sup>Don't be greedy for all that fancy food! It may not be so tasty.

—7—

<sup>4</sup>Give up trying so hard to get rich.

<sup>5</sup>Your money flies away before you know it, just like an eagle suddenly taking off.

—8—

<sup>6</sup>Don't accept an invitation to eat a selfish person's food, no matter how good it is.

<sup>7</sup>People like that take note of how much you eat. They say, "Take all you want!" But they don't mean it.

<sup>8</sup>Each bite will come back up, and all your kind words will be wasted.

—9—

<sup>9</sup>Don't talk to fools— they will just make fun of you.

—10—

<sup>10</sup>Don't move a boundary marker or take the land that belongs to orphans.

<sup>11</sup>God All-Powerful is there to defend them against you.

—11—

<sup>12</sup>Listen to instruction and do your best to learn.

—12—

<sup>13</sup>Don't fail to correct your children. You won't kill them by being firm, <sup>14</sup>and it may even save their lives.

—13—

<sup>15</sup>My children, if you show good sense, I will be happy,

<sup>16</sup>and if you are truthful, I will really be glad.

—14—

<sup>17</sup>Don't be jealous of sinners, but always honour the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Then you will truly have hope for the future.

—15—

<sup>19</sup>Listen to me, my children! Be wise and have enough sense to follow the right path.

<sup>20</sup>Don't be a heavy drinker or stuff yourself with food.

<sup>21</sup>It will make you feel drowsy, and you will end up poor with only rags to wear.

—16—

<sup>22</sup>Pay attention to your father, and don't neglect your mother when she grows old.

<sup>23</sup>Invest in truth and wisdom, discipline and good sense, and don't part with them.

<sup>24</sup>Make your father truly happy by living right and showing sound judgment.

<sup>25</sup>Make your parents proud, especially your mother.

—17—

<sup>26</sup>My son, pay close attention, and gladly follow my example.

<sup>27</sup>Bad women and unfaithful wives are like a deep pit—

<sup>28</sup>they are waiting to attack you like a gang of robbers with victim after victim.

—18—

<sup>29</sup>Who is always in trouble? Who argues and fights? Who has cuts and bruises? Whose eyes are red?

<sup>30</sup>Everyone who stays up late, having just one more drink.

<sup>31</sup>Don't even look at that colourful stuff bubbling up in the glass! It goes down so easily, <sup>32</sup>but later it bites like a poisonous snake.

<sup>33</sup>You will see weird things, and your mind will play tricks on you.

<sup>34</sup>You will feel tossed about like someone trying to sleep on a ship in a storm.

<sup>35</sup>You will be bruised all over, without even remembering how it all happened. And you will lie awake asking, “When will morning come, so I can drink some more?”

Proverbs 24

—19—

<sup>1</sup>Don't be jealous of crooks or want to be their friends.

<sup>2</sup>All they think about and talk about is violence and cruelty.

—20—

<sup>3</sup>Use wisdom and understanding to establish your home;

<sup>4</sup>let good sense fill the rooms with priceless treasures.

—21—

<sup>5</sup>Wisdom brings strength, and knowledge gives power.

<sup>6</sup>Battles are won by listening to advice and making a lot of plans.

—22—

<sup>7</sup>Wisdom is too much for fools! Their advice is no good.

—23—

<sup>8</sup>No one but troublemakers think up trouble.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone hates senseless fools who think up ways to sin.

—24—

<sup>10</sup>Don't give up and be helpless in times of trouble.

—25—

<sup>11</sup>Don't fail to rescue those who are doomed to die.

<sup>12</sup>Don't say, "I didn't know it!" God can read your mind. He watches each of us and knows our thoughts. And God will pay us back for what we do.

—26—

<sup>13</sup>Honey is good for you, my children, and it tastes sweet.

<sup>14</sup>Wisdom is like honey for your life— if you find it, your future is bright.

—27—

<sup>15</sup>Don't be a cruel person who attacks good people and hurts their families.

<sup>16</sup>Even if good people fall seven times, they will get back up. But when trouble strikes the wicked, that's the end of them.

—28—

<sup>17</sup>Don't be happy to see your enemies trip and fall down.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD will find out and be unhappy. Then he will stop being angry with them.

—29—

<sup>19</sup>Don't let evil people worry you or make you jealous.

<sup>20</sup>They will soon be gone like the flame of a lamp that burns out.

—30—

<sup>21</sup>My children, you must respect the LORD and the king, and you must not make friends with anyone who rebels against either of them.

<sup>22</sup>Who knows what sudden disaster the LORD or a ruler might bring?

More sayings that make good sense

<sup>23</sup>Here are some more sayings that make good sense: When you judge, you must be fair.

<sup>24</sup>If you let the guilty go free, people of all nations will hate and curse you.

<sup>25</sup>But if you punish the guilty, things will go well for you, and you will prosper.

<sup>26</sup>Giving an honest answer is a sign of true friendship.

<sup>27</sup>Get your fields ready and plant your crops before setting up home.

<sup>28</sup>Don't accuse anyone who isn't guilty. Don't ever tell a lie

<sup>29</sup>or say to someone, "I'll get even with you!"

<sup>30</sup>I once walked by the field and the vineyard of a lazy fool.

<sup>31</sup>Thorns and weeds were everywhere, and the stone wall had fallen down.

<sup>32</sup>When I saw this, it taught me a lesson:

<sup>33</sup>Sleep a little. Doze a little. Fold your hands and twiddle your thumbs.

<sup>34</sup>Suddenly poverty hits you and everything is gone!

Proverbs 25

More of Solomon's wise sayings

- <sup>1</sup>Here are more of Solomon's proverbs. They were copied by the officials of King Hezekiah of Judah.
- <sup>2</sup>God is praised for being mysterious; rulers are praised for explaining mysteries.
- <sup>3</sup>Who can fully understand the thoughts of a ruler? They reach beyond the sky and go deep in the earth.
- <sup>4</sup>Silver must be purified before it can be used to make something of value.
- <sup>5</sup>Evil people must be removed before anyone can rule with justice.
- <sup>6</sup>Don't try to seem important in the court of a ruler.
- <sup>7</sup>It's better for the ruler to give you a high position than for you to be embarrassed in front of royal officials. Be sure you are right
- <sup>8</sup>before you sue someone, or you might lose your case and be embarrassed.
- <sup>9</sup>When you and someone else can't get along, don't gossip about it.
- <sup>10</sup>Others will find out, and your reputation will then be ruined.
- <sup>11</sup>The right word at the right time is like precious gold set in silver.
- <sup>12</sup>Listening to good advice is worth much more than jewellery made of gold.
- <sup>13</sup>A messenger you can trust is just as refreshing as cool water in summer.
- <sup>14</sup>Broken promises are worse than rain clouds that don't bring rain.
- <sup>15</sup>Patience and gentle talk can convince a ruler and overcome any problem.
- <sup>16</sup>Eating too much honey can make you sick.
- <sup>17</sup>Don't visit friends too often, or they will get tired of it and start hating you.
- <sup>18</sup>Telling lies about friends is like attacking them with clubs and swords and sharp arrows.
- <sup>19</sup>A friend you can't trust in times of trouble is like having a toothache or a sore foot.

- <sup>20</sup>Singing to someone in deep sorrow is like pouring vinegar in an open cut.
- <sup>21</sup>If your enemies are hungry, give them something to eat. And if they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
- <sup>22</sup>This will be the same as piling burning coals on their heads. And the LORD will reward you.
- <sup>23</sup>As surely as rain blows in from the north, anger is caused by cruel words.
- <sup>24</sup>It's better to stay outside on the roof of your house than to live inside with a nagging wife.
- <sup>25</sup>Good news from far away refreshes like cold water when you are thirsty.
- <sup>26</sup>When a good person gives in to the wicked, it's like dumping rubbish in a stream of clear water.
- <sup>27</sup>Don't eat too much honey or always want praise.
- <sup>28</sup>Losing self-control leaves you as helpless as a city without a wall.

Proverbs 26

Don't be a fool

- <sup>1</sup>Expecting snow in summer and rain in the dry season makes more sense than honouring a fool.
- <sup>2</sup>A curse you don't deserve will take wings and fly away like a sparrow or a swallow.
- <sup>3</sup>Horses and donkeys must be beaten and bridled— and so must fools.
- <sup>4</sup>Don't make a fool of yourself by answering a fool.
- <sup>5</sup>But if you answer any fools, show how foolish they are, so they won't feel clever.
- <sup>6</sup>Sending a message by a fool is like chopping off your foot and drinking poison.
- <sup>7</sup>A fool with words of wisdom is like an athlete with legs that can't move.

<sup>8</sup>Are you going to honour a fool? Why not shoot a slingshot with the stone tied tight?

<sup>9</sup>A thorn bush waved around in the hand of a drunkard is no worse than a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

<sup>10</sup>It's no cleverer to shoot arrows at every passer-by than it is to hire a bunch of worthless nobodies.

<sup>11</sup>Dogs return to eat their vomit, just as fools repeat their foolishness.

<sup>12</sup>There is more hope for a fool than for someone who says, "I'm really clever!"

<sup>13</sup>Don't be lazy and keep saying, "There's a lion outside!"

<sup>14</sup>A door turns on its hinges, but a lazy person just turns over in bed.

<sup>15</sup>Some of us are so lazy that we won't lift a hand to feed ourselves.

<sup>16</sup>A lazy person says, "I am cleverer than everyone else."

<sup>17</sup>It's better to take hold of a mad dog by the ears than to take part in someone else's argument.

<sup>18</sup>It's no crazier to shoot sharp and flaming arrows

<sup>19</sup>than to cheat someone and say, "I was only fooling!"

<sup>20</sup>Where there is no fuel a fire goes out; where there is no gossip arguments come to an end.

<sup>21</sup>Troublemakers start trouble, just as sparks and fuel start a fire.

<sup>22</sup>There is nothing so delicious as the taste of gossip! It melts in your mouth.

<sup>23</sup>Hiding hateful thoughts behind smooth talk is like coating a clay pot with a cheap glaze.

<sup>24</sup>The pleasant talk of an enemy hides more evil plans

<sup>25</sup>than can be counted— so don't believe a word!

<sup>26</sup>Everyone will see through those evil plans.

<sup>27</sup>If you dig a pit, you will fall in; if you start a stone rolling, it will roll back on you.

<sup>28</sup>Watch out for anyone who tells lies and flatters— they are out to get you.

Proverbs 27

Don't boast about tomorrow

<sup>1</sup> Don't boast about tomorrow! Each day brings its own surprises.

<sup>2</sup> Don't boast about yourself— let others praise you.

<sup>3</sup> Stones and sand are heavy, but trouble caused by a fool is a much heavier load.

<sup>4</sup> An angry person is dangerous, but a jealous person is even worse.

<sup>5</sup> A truly good friend will openly correct you.

<sup>6</sup> You can trust a friend who corrects you, but kisses from an enemy are nothing but lies.

<sup>7</sup> If you have had enough to eat, honey doesn't taste good, but if you are really hungry, you will eat anything.

<sup>8</sup> When you are far from home, you feel like a bird without a nest.

<sup>9</sup> The sweet smell of incense can make you feel good, but true friendship is better still.

<sup>10</sup> Don't desert an old friend of your family or visit your relatives when you are in trouble. A friend nearby is better than relatives far away.

<sup>11</sup> My child, show good sense! Then I will be happy and able to answer anyone who criticizes me.

<sup>12</sup> Be cautious and hide when you see danger— don't be stupid and walk right into trouble.

<sup>13</sup> Don't loan money to a stranger unless you are given something to guarantee payment.

<sup>14</sup> A loud greeting early in the morning is the same as a curse.

- <sup>15</sup>The steady dripping of rain and the nagging of a wife are one and the same.
- <sup>16</sup>It's easier to catch the wind or hold olive oil in your hand than to stop a nagging wife.
- <sup>17</sup>Just as iron sharpens iron, friends sharpen the minds of each other.
- <sup>18</sup>Take care of a tree, and you will eat its fruit; look after your master, and you will be praised.
- <sup>19</sup>You see your face in a mirror and your thoughts in the minds of others.
- <sup>20</sup>Death and the grave are never satisfied, and neither are we.
- <sup>21</sup>Gold and silver are tested in a red-hot furnace, but we are tested by praise.
- <sup>22</sup>No matter how hard you beat a fool, you can't pound out the foolishness.
- <sup>23</sup>You should take good care of your sheep and goats,
- <sup>24</sup>because wealth and honour don't last for ever.
- <sup>25</sup>After the hay is cut and the new growth appears and the harvest is over,
- <sup>26</sup>you can sell lambs and goats to buy clothes and land.
- <sup>27</sup>From the milk of the goats, you can make enough cheese to feed your family and all your servants.

Proverbs 28

The Law of God makes sense

- <sup>1</sup>Wicked people run away when no one chases them, but those who live right are as brave as lions.
- <sup>2</sup>In time of civil war there are many leaders, but a sensible leader restores law and order.
- <sup>3</sup>When someone poor takes over and ill-treats the poor, it's like a heavy rain destroying the crops.
- <sup>4</sup>Lawbreakers praise criminals, but law-abiding citizens always oppose them.

- <sup>5</sup>Criminals don't know what justice means, but all who respect the LORD understand it completely.
- <sup>6</sup>It's better to be poor and live right, than to be rich and dishonest.
- <sup>7</sup>It makes good sense to obey the Law of God, but you disgrace your parents if you make friends with worthless nobodies.
- <sup>8</sup>If you make money by charging high interest rates, you will lose it all to someone who cares for the poor.
- <sup>9</sup>God cannot stand the prayers of anyone who disobeys his Law.
- <sup>10</sup>By leading good people to sin, you dig a pit for yourself, but all who live right will have a bright future.
- <sup>11</sup>The rich think highly of themselves, but anyone poor and sensible sees right through them.
- <sup>12</sup>When an honest person wins, it's time to celebrate; when crooks are in control, it's best to hide.
- <sup>13</sup>If you don't confess your sins, you will be a failure. But God will be merciful if you confess your sins and give them up.
- <sup>14</sup>The LORD blesses everyone who is afraid to do evil, but if you are cruel, you will end up in trouble.
- <sup>15</sup>A ruler who ill-treats the poor is like a roaring lion or a bear hunting for food.
- <sup>16</sup>A heartless leader is a fool, but anyone who refuses to get rich by cheating others will live a long time.
- <sup>17</sup>Don't give help to murderers! Make them stay on the run for as long as they live.
- <sup>18</sup>Honesty will keep you safe, but everyone who is crooked will suddenly fall.
- <sup>19</sup>Work hard, and you will have a lot of food; waste time, and you will have a lot of trouble.

- <sup>20</sup>God blesses his loyal people, but punishes all who want to get rich quick.
- <sup>21</sup>It isn't right to be unfair, but some people can be bribed with only a piece of bread.
- <sup>22</sup>Don't be selfish and eager to get rich— you will end up worse off than you can imagine.
- <sup>23</sup>Honest correction is appreciated more than flattery.
- <sup>24</sup>If you cheat your parents and don't think it's wrong, you are a common thief.
- <sup>25</sup>Selfish people cause trouble, but you will live a full life if you trust the LORD.
- <sup>26</sup>Only fools would trust what they alone think, but if you live by wisdom, you will do all right.
- <sup>27</sup>Giving to the poor will keep you from poverty, but if you close your eyes to their needs, everyone will curse you.
- <sup>28</sup>When crooks are in control, everyone tries to hide, but when they lose power, good people are everywhere.

Proverbs 29

Use good sense

- <sup>1</sup>If you keep being stubborn after many warnings, you will suddenly discover you have gone too far.
- <sup>2</sup>When justice rules a nation, everyone is glad; when injustice rules, everyone groans.
- <sup>3</sup>If you love wisdom your parents will be glad, but chasing after bad women will cost you everything.
- <sup>4</sup>An honest ruler makes the nation strong; a ruler who takes bribes will bring it to ruin.
- <sup>5</sup>Flattery is nothing less than setting a trap.

<sup>6</sup>Your sins will catch you, but everyone who lives right will sing and celebrate.

<sup>7</sup>The wicked don't care about the rights of the poor, but good people do.

<sup>8</sup>Sneering at others is a spark that sets a city on fire; using good sense can put out the flames of anger.

<sup>9</sup>Be wise and don't sue a fool. You won't get satisfaction, because all the fool will do is sneer and shout.

<sup>10</sup>A murderer hates everyone who is honest and lives right.

<sup>11</sup>Don't be a fool and quickly lose your temper— be sensible and patient.

<sup>12</sup>A ruler who listens to lies will have corrupt officials.

<sup>13</sup>The poor and all who abuse them must each depend on God for light.

<sup>14</sup>Kings who are fair to the poor will rule for ever.

<sup>15</sup>Correct your children, and they will be wise; children out of control disgrace their mothers.

<sup>16</sup>Crime increases when crooks are in power, but law-abiding citizens will see them fall.

<sup>17</sup>If you correct your children, they will bring you peace and happiness.

<sup>18</sup>Without guidance from God law and order disappear, but God blesses everyone who obeys his Law.

<sup>19</sup>Even when servants are clever, it takes more than words to make them obey.

<sup>20</sup>There is more hope for a fool than for someone who speaks without thinking.

<sup>21</sup>Slaves you treat kindly from their childhood will cause you sorrow.

<sup>22</sup>A person with a quick temper stirs up arguments and commits a lot of sins.

<sup>23</sup>Too much pride brings disgrace; humility leads to honour.

<sup>24</sup>If you take part in a crime you are your worst enemy, because even under oath you can't tell the truth.

<sup>25</sup>Don't fall into the trap of being a coward— trust the LORD, and you will be safe.

<sup>26</sup>Many try to make friends with a ruler, but justice comes from the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>Good people and criminals can't stand each other.

Proverbs 30

The sayings of Agur

<sup>1</sup>These are the sayings and the message of Agur son of Jakeh. Someone cries out to God, “I am completely worn out! How can I last?”

<sup>2</sup>I am far too stupid to be considered human.

<sup>3</sup>I never was wise, and I don't understand what God is like.”

<sup>4</sup>Has anyone gone up to heaven and come back down? Has anyone grabbed hold of the wind? Has anyone wrapped up the sea or marked out boundaries for the earth? If you know of any who have done such things, then tell me their names and their children's names.

<sup>5</sup>Everything God says is true— and it's a shield for all who come to him for safety.

<sup>6</sup>Don't change what God has said! He will correct you and show that you are a liar.

<sup>7</sup>There are two things, Lord, I want you to do for me before I die:

<sup>8</sup>make me absolutely honest and don't let me be too poor or too rich. Give me just what I need.

<sup>9</sup>If I have too much to eat, I might forget about you; if I don't have enough, I might steal and disgrace your name.

<sup>10</sup>Don't tell a slave owner something bad about one of the slaves. That slave will curse you, and you will be in trouble.

- <sup>11</sup>Some people curse their father and even their mother;
- <sup>12</sup>others think they are perfect, but they are stained by sin.
- <sup>13</sup>Some people are stuck-up and act like snobs;
- <sup>14</sup>others are so greedy that they gobble up the poor and homeless.
- <sup>15</sup>Greed has twins, each named “Give me!” There are three or four things that are never satisfied:
- <sup>16</sup>the world of the dead and a childless wife, the thirsty earth and a flaming fire.
- <sup>17</sup>Don't make fun of your father or disobey your mother— crows will peck out your eyes, and vultures will eat the rest of you.
- <sup>18</sup>There are three or four things I cannot understand:
- <sup>19</sup>how eagles fly so high or snakes crawl on rocks, how ships sail the ocean or people fall in love.
- <sup>20</sup>An unfaithful wife says, “Sleeping with another man is as natural as eating.”
- <sup>21</sup>There are three or four things that make the earth tremble and are unbearable:
- <sup>22</sup>a slave who becomes king, a fool who eats too much,
- <sup>23</sup>a hateful woman who finds a husband, and a slave who takes the place of the woman who owns her.
- <sup>24</sup>On this earth four things are small but very wise:
- <sup>25</sup>ants, who seem to be feeble, but store up food all summer long;
- <sup>26</sup>badgers, who seem to be weak, but live among the rocks;
- <sup>27</sup>locusts, who have no king, but march like an army;
- <sup>28</sup>lizards, which can be caught in your hand, but sneak into palaces.
- <sup>29</sup>Three or four creatures really strut around:
- <sup>30</sup>those fearless lions who rule the jungle,

<sup>31</sup>those proud cocks, those mountain goats, and those rulers who have no enemies.

<sup>32</sup>If you are foolishly boasting or planning something evil, then stop it now!

<sup>33</sup>If you churn milk you get butter; if you hit your nose, you get blood— and if you stay angry, you get in trouble.

Proverbs 31

What King Lemuel's mother taught him

<sup>1</sup>These are the sayings that King Lemuel of Massa was taught by his mother.

<sup>2</sup>My son Lemuel, you were born in answer to my prayers, so listen carefully.

<sup>3</sup>Don't waste your life chasing after women! This has ruined many kings.

<sup>4</sup>Kings and leaders should not get drunk or even want to drink.

<sup>5</sup>Drinking makes you forget your responsibilities, and you ill-treat the poor.

<sup>6</sup>Beer and wine are only for the dying or for those who have lost all hope.

<sup>7</sup>Let them drink and forget how poor and miserable they feel.

<sup>8</sup>But you must defend those who are helpless and have no hope.

<sup>9</sup>Be fair and give justice to the poor and homeless.

In praise of a good wife

<sup>10</sup>A truly good wife is the most precious treasure a man can find!

<sup>11</sup>Her husband depends on her, and she never lets him down.

<sup>12</sup>She is good to him every day of her life,

<sup>13</sup>and with her own hands she gladly makes clothes.

<sup>14</sup>She is like a sailing ship that brings food from across the sea.

<sup>15</sup>She gets up before daylight to prepare food for her family and for her servants.

<sup>16</sup>She knows how to buy land and how to plant a vineyard,

<sup>17</sup>and she always works hard.

- <sup>18</sup>She knows when to buy or sell, and she stays busy until late at night.
- <sup>19</sup>She spins her own cloth,
- <sup>20</sup>and she helps the poor and the needy.
- <sup>21</sup>Her family has warm clothing, and so she doesn't worry when it snows.
- <sup>22</sup>She does her own sewing, and everything she wears is beautiful.
- <sup>23</sup>Her husband is a well-known and respected leader in the city.
- <sup>24</sup>She makes clothes to sell to the shop owners.
- <sup>25</sup>She is strong and graceful, as well as cheerful about the future.
- <sup>26</sup>Her words are sensible, and her advice is thoughtful.
- <sup>27</sup>She takes good care of her family and is never lazy.
- <sup>28</sup>Her children praise her, and with great pride her husband says,
- <sup>29</sup>“There are many good women, but you are the best!”
- <sup>30</sup>Charm can be deceiving, and beauty fades away, but a woman who honours the LORD deserves to be praised.
- <sup>31</sup>Show her respect— praise her in public for what she has done.

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes 1

The search for meaning in life Nothing makes sense

<sup>1</sup>When the son of David was king in Jerusalem, he was known to be very wise, and he said:

<sup>2</sup>Nothing makes sense! Everything is nonsense. I have seen it all— nothing makes sense!

<sup>3</sup>What is there to show for all our hard work here on this earth?

<sup>4</sup>People come, and people go, but still the world never changes.

<sup>5</sup>The sun comes up, the sun goes down; it hurries right back to where it started from.

<sup>6</sup>The wind blows south, the wind blows north; round and round it blows over and over again.

<sup>7</sup>All rivers empty into the sea, but it never spills over; one by one the rivers return to their source.

<sup>8</sup>All of life is far more boring than words could ever say. Our eyes and our ears are never satisfied with what we see and hear.

<sup>9</sup>Everything that happens has happened before; nothing is new, nothing under the sun.

<sup>10</sup>Someone might say, “Here is something new!” But it happened before, long before we were born.

<sup>11</sup>No one who lived in the past is remembered any more, and everyone yet to be born will be forgotten too.

It is senseless to be wise

<sup>12</sup>I said these things when I lived in Jerusalem as king of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>With all my wisdom I tried to understand everything that happens here on earth. And God has made this so hard for us humans to do.

<sup>14</sup>I have seen it all, and everything is just as senseless as chasing the wind.

<sup>15</sup>If something is crooked, it can't be made straight; if something isn't there, it can't be counted.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, "You are by far the wisest person who has ever lived in Jerusalem. You are eager to learn, and you have learnt a lot."

<sup>17</sup>Then I decided to find out all I could about wisdom and foolishness. Soon I realized that this too was as senseless as chasing the wind.

<sup>18</sup>The more you know, the more it hurts; the more you understand, the more you suffer.

Ecclesiastes 2

It is senseless to be selfish

<sup>1</sup>I said to myself, "Have fun and enjoy yourself!" But this didn't make sense.

<sup>2</sup>Laughing and having fun is mad. What good does it do?

<sup>3</sup>I wanted to find out what was best for us during the short time we have on this earth. So I decided to make myself happy with wine and find out what it means to be foolish, without really being foolish myself.

<sup>4</sup>I did some great things. I built houses and planted vineyards.

<sup>5</sup>I had flower gardens and orchards full of fruit trees.

<sup>6</sup>And I had pools where I could get water for the trees.

<sup>7</sup>I owned slaves, and their sons and daughters became my slaves. I had more sheep and goats than anyone who had ever lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>Foreign rulers brought me silver, gold, and precious treasures. Men and women sang for me, and I had many wives who gave me great pleasure.

<sup>9</sup>I was the most famous person who had ever lived in Jerusalem, and I was very wise.

<sup>10</sup>I got whatever I wanted and did whatever made me happy. But most of all, I enjoyed my work.

<sup>11</sup>Then I thought about everything I had done, including the hard work, and it was simply chasing the wind. Nothing on earth is worth the trouble.

Wisdom makes sense

<sup>12</sup>I asked myself, “What can the next king do that I haven't done?” Then I decided to compare wisdom with foolishness and stupidity.

<sup>13</sup>And I discovered that wisdom is better than foolishness, just as light is better than darkness.

<sup>14</sup>Wisdom is like having two good eyes; foolishness leaves you in the dark. But wise or foolish, we all end up the same.

<sup>15</sup>Finally, I said to myself, “Being wise got me nowhere! The same thing will happen to me that happens to fools. Nothing makes sense.

<sup>16</sup>Wise or foolish, we all die and are soon forgotten.”

<sup>17</sup>This made me hate life. Everything we do is painful; it's just as senseless as chasing the wind.

<sup>18</sup>Suddenly I realized that others would some day get everything I had worked so hard for, then I started hating it all.

<sup>19</sup>Who knows if those people will be sensible or stupid? Either way, they will own everything I have earned by hard work and wisdom. It doesn't make sense.

<sup>20</sup>I thought about all my hard work, and I felt depressed.

<sup>21</sup>When we use our wisdom, knowledge, and skill to get what we own, why do we have to leave it to someone who didn't work for it? This is senseless and wrong.

<sup>22</sup>What do we really gain from all our hard work?

<sup>23</sup>Our bodies ache during the day, and work is torture. Then at night our thoughts are troubled. It just doesn't make sense.

<sup>24</sup>The best thing we can do is to enjoy eating, drinking, and working. I believe these are God's gifts to us,

<sup>25</sup>and no one enjoys eating and living more than I do.

<sup>26</sup>If we please God, he will make us wise, understanding, and happy. But if we sin, God will make us struggle for a living, then he will give all we own to someone who pleases him. This makes no more sense than chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

Everything has its time

<sup>1</sup>Everything on earth has its own time and its own season.

<sup>2</sup>There is a time for birth and death, planting and reaping,

<sup>3</sup>for killing and healing, destroying and building,

<sup>4</sup>for crying and laughing, weeping and dancing,

<sup>5</sup>for throwing stones and gathering stones, embracing and parting.

<sup>6</sup>There is a time for finding and losing, keeping and giving,

<sup>7</sup>for tearing and sewing, listening and speaking.

<sup>8</sup>There is also a time for love and hate, for war and peace.

Life isn't always fair, so live wisely What God has given us to do

<sup>9</sup>What do we gain by all our hard work?

<sup>10</sup>I have seen what difficult things God demands of us.

<sup>11</sup>God makes everything happen at the right time. Yet none of us can ever fully understand all he has done, and he puts questions in our minds about the past and the future.

<sup>12</sup>I know the best thing we can do is always to enjoy life,

<sup>13</sup>because God's gift to us is the happiness we get from our food and drink and from the work we do.

<sup>14</sup>Everything God has done will last for ever; nothing he does can ever be changed. God has done all this, so that we will worship him.

<sup>15</sup>Everything that happens has happened before, and all that will be has already been— God does everything over and over again.

The future is known only to God

<sup>16</sup>Everywhere on earth I saw violence and injustice instead of fairness and justice.

<sup>17</sup>So I told myself that God has set a time and a place for everything. He will judge everyone, both the wicked and the good.

<sup>18</sup>I know that God is testing us to show us that we are merely animals.

<sup>19</sup>Like animals we breathe and die, and we are no better off than they are. It just doesn't make sense.

<sup>20</sup>All living creatures go to the same place. We are made from earth, and we return to the earth.

<sup>21</sup>Who really knows if our spirits go up and the spirits of animals go down into the earth?

<sup>22</sup>We were meant to enjoy our work, and that's the best thing we can do. We can never know the future.

Ecclesiastes 4

<sup>1</sup>I looked again and saw people being ill-treated everywhere on earth. They were crying, but no one was there to offer comfort, and those who ill-treated them were powerful.

<sup>2</sup>I said to myself, “The dead are better off than the living.

<sup>3</sup>But those who have never been born are better off than anyone else, because they have never seen the terrible things that happen on this earth.”

<sup>4</sup>Then I realized that we work and do wonderful things just because we are jealous of others. This makes no more sense than chasing the wind.

<sup>5</sup>Fools will fold their hands and starve to death.

<sup>6</sup>Yet a very little food eaten in peace is better than twice as much earned from overwork and chasing the wind.

<sup>7</sup>Once again I saw that nothing on earth makes sense.

<sup>8</sup>For example, some people don't have friends or family. But they are never satisfied with what they own, and they never stop working to get more. They should ask themselves, “Why am I always working to have more? Who will get what I leave behind?” What a senseless and miserable life!

It is better to have a friend

<sup>9</sup>You are better off having a friend than being all alone, because then you will get more enjoyment out of what you earn.

<sup>10</sup>If you fall, your friend can help you up. But if you fall without having a friend nearby, you are really in trouble.

<sup>11</sup>If you sleep alone, you won't have anyone to keep you warm on a cold night.

<sup>12</sup>Someone might be able to beat up one of you, but not both of you. As the saying goes, “A rope made from three strands of cord is hard to break.”

<sup>13</sup>You may be poor and young. But if you are wise, you are better off than a foolish old king who won't listen to advice.

<sup>14</sup>Even if you were not born into the royal family and have been a prisoner and poor, you can still be king.

<sup>15</sup>I once saw everyone in the world follow a young leader who came to power after the king was gone.

<sup>16</sup>His followers could not even be counted. But years from now, no one will praise him—this makes no more sense than chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

Be careful how you worship

<sup>1</sup>Be careful what you do when you enter the house of God. Some fools go there to offer sacrifices, even though they haven't sinned. But it's best just to listen when you go to worship.

<sup>2</sup>Don't talk before you think or make promises to God without thinking them through. God is in heaven, and you are on earth, so don't talk too much.

<sup>3</sup>If you keep thinking about something, you will dream about it. If you talk too much, you will say the wrong thing.

<sup>4</sup>God doesn't like fools. So don't be slow to keep your promises to God.

<sup>5</sup>It's better not to make a promise at all than to make one and not keep it.

<sup>6</sup>Don't let your mouth get you in trouble! And don't say to the worship leader, "I didn't mean what I said." God can destroy everything you have worked for, so don't say something that makes God angry.

<sup>7</sup>Respect and obey God! Daydreaming leads to a lot of senseless talk.

<sup>8</sup>Don't be surprised if the poor of your country are abused, and injustice takes the place of justice. After all, the lower officials must do what the higher ones order them to do.

<sup>9</sup>And since the king is the highest official, he benefits most from the taxes paid on the land.

<sup>10</sup>If you love money and wealth, you will never be satisfied with what you have. This doesn't make sense either.

<sup>11</sup>The more you have, the more everyone expects from you. Your money won't do you any good—others will just spend it for you.

<sup>12</sup>If you have to work hard for a living, you can rest well at night, even if you don't have much to eat. But if you are rich, you can't even sleep.

<sup>13</sup>I have seen something terribly unfair. People get rich, but it does them no good.

<sup>14</sup>Suddenly they lose everything in a bad business deal, then have nothing to leave for their children.

<sup>15</sup>They came into this world naked, and when they die, they will be just as naked. They can't take anything with them, and they won't have anything to show for all their work.

<sup>16</sup>That's terribly unfair. They leave the world just as they came into it. They gained nothing from running after the wind.

<sup>17</sup>Besides all this, they are always gloomy at mealtimes, and they are troubled, sick, and bitter.

<sup>18</sup>What is the best thing to do in the short life that God has given us? I think we should enjoy eating, drinking, and working hard. This is what God intends us to do.

<sup>19</sup>Suppose you are very rich and able to enjoy everything you own. Then go ahead and enjoy working hard—this is God's gift to you.

<sup>20</sup>God will keep you so happy that you won't have time to worry about each day.

Ecclesiastes 6

Don't depend on wealth

<sup>1</sup>There is something else terribly unfair, and it troubles everyone on earth.

<sup>2</sup>God may give you everything you want—money, property, and wealth. Then God doesn't let you enjoy it, and someone you don't even know gets it all. That's senseless and terribly unfair!

<sup>3</sup>You may live a long time and have a hundred children. But a child born dead is better off than you, unless you enjoy life and have a decent burial.

<sup>4-5</sup>That child will never live to see the sun or to have a name, and it will go straight to the world of darkness. But it will still find more rest than you,

<sup>6</sup>even if you live two thousand years and don't enjoy life. As you know, we all end up in the same place.

- <sup>7</sup>We struggle just to have enough to eat, but we are never satisfied.
- <sup>8</sup>We may be sensible, yet we are no better off than a fool. And if we are poor, it still doesn't do us any good to try to live right.
- <sup>9</sup>It's better to enjoy what we have than always to want something else, because that makes no more sense than chasing the wind.
- <sup>10</sup>Everything that happens was decided long ago. We humans know what we are like, and we can't argue with God, because he is too strong for us.
- <sup>11</sup>The more we talk, the less sense we make, so what good does it do to talk?
- <sup>12</sup>Life is short and meaningless, and it fades away like a shadow. Who knows what is best for us? Who knows what will happen after we are gone?

Ecclesiastes 7

No one knows what the future will bring The best in life

- <sup>1</sup>A good reputation at the time of death is better than loving care at the time of birth.
- <sup>2</sup>It's better to go to a funeral than to attend a feast; funerals remind us that we all must die.
- <sup>3</sup>Choose sorrow over laughter because a sad face may hide a happy heart.
- <sup>4</sup>A sensible person mourns, but fools always laugh.
- <sup>5</sup>Harsh correction is better than the songs of a fool.
- <sup>6</sup>Foolish laughter is stupid. It sounds like thorns crackling in a fire.
- <sup>7</sup>Corruption makes fools of sensible people, and bribes can ruin you.
- <sup>8</sup>Something completed is better than something just begun; patience is better than too much pride.
- <sup>9</sup>Only fools get angry quickly and hold a grudge.
- <sup>10</sup>It isn't wise to ask, "Why is everything worse than it used to be?"
- <sup>11</sup>Having wisdom is better than an inheritance.

<sup>12</sup>Wisdom will protect you just like money; knowledge with good sense will lead you to life.

<sup>13</sup>Think of what God has done! If God makes something crooked, can you make it straight?

<sup>14</sup>When times are good, you should be cheerful; when times are bad, think what it means. God makes them both to keep us from knowing what will happen next.

Some of life's questions

<sup>15</sup>I have seen everything during this senseless life of mine. I have seen good citizens die for doing the right thing, and I have seen criminals live to a ripe old age.

<sup>16</sup>So don't destroy yourself by being too good or acting too clever!

<sup>17</sup>Don't die before your time by being too evil or acting like a fool.

<sup>18</sup>Keep to the middle of the road. You can do this if you truly respect God.

<sup>19</sup>Wisdom will make you stronger than the ten most powerful leaders in your city.

<sup>20</sup>No one in this world always does right.

<sup>21</sup>Don't listen to everything that everyone says, or you might hear your servant cursing you.

<sup>22</sup>Haven't you cursed many others?

<sup>23</sup>I told myself that I would be clever and try to understand all of this, but it was too much for me.

<sup>24</sup>The truth is beyond us. It's far too deep.

<sup>25</sup>So I decided to learn everything I could and become wise enough to discover what life is all about. At the same time, I wanted to understand why it's stupid and senseless to be an evil fool.

<sup>26</sup>Here is what I discovered: a bad woman is worse than death. She is a trap, reaching out with body and soul to catch you. But if you obey God, you can escape. If you don't obey, you are done for.

<sup>27</sup>With all my wisdom I have tried to find out how everything fits together,

<sup>28</sup>but so far I have not been able to. I do know there is one good man in a thousand, but never have I found a good woman.

<sup>29</sup>I did learn one thing: we were completely honest when God created us, but now we have twisted minds.

Ecclesiastes 8

<sup>1</sup>Who is clever enough to explain everything? Wisdom makes you cheerful and gives you a smile.

Obey the king

<sup>2</sup>If you promised God that you would be loyal to the king, I advise you to keep that promise.

<sup>3</sup>Don't quickly oppose the king or argue when he has already made up his mind.

<sup>4</sup>The king's word is law. No one can ask him, "Why are you doing this?"

<sup>5</sup>If you obey the king, you will stay out of trouble. So be clever and learn what to do and when to do it.

<sup>6</sup>Life is hard, but there is a time and a place for everything,

<sup>7</sup>though no one can tell the future.

<sup>8</sup>We cannot control the wind or determine the day of our death. There is no escape in time of war, and no one can hide behind evil.

<sup>9</sup>I noticed all this and thought seriously about what goes on in the world. Why does one person have the power to hurt another?

Who can understand the ways of God?

<sup>10</sup>I saw the wicked buried with honour, but God's people had to leave the holy city and were forgotten. None of this makes sense.

<sup>11</sup>When we see criminals commit crime after crime without being punished, it makes us want to start a life of crime.

<sup>12</sup>They commit hundreds of crimes and live to a ripe old age, in spite of the saying: Everyone who lives right and respects God will prosper, <sup>13</sup>but no one who sins and rejects God will prosper or live very long.

<sup>14</sup>There is something else that doesn't make sense to me. Good citizens are treated as criminals, while criminals are honoured as though they were good citizens.

<sup>15</sup>So I think we should get as much out of life as we possibly can. There is nothing better than to enjoy our food and drink and to have a good time. Then we can make it through this troublesome life that God has given us here on earth.

<sup>16</sup>Day and night I went without sleep, trying to understand what goes on in this world.

<sup>17</sup>I saw everything God does, and I realized that no one can really understand what happens. We may be very wise, but no matter how much we try or how much we claim to know, we cannot understand it all.

Ecclesiastes 9

One day at a time

<sup>1</sup>I thought about these things. Then I understood that God has power over everyone, even those of us who are wise and live right. Anything can happen to any of us, and so we never know if life will be good or bad.

<sup>2</sup>But exactly the same thing will finally happen to all of us, whether we live right and respect God or sin and don't respect God. Yes, the same thing will happen if we offer sacrifices to God or if we don't, if we keep our promises or break them.

<sup>3</sup>It's terribly unfair for the same thing to happen to each of us. We are mean and foolish while we live, and then we die.

<sup>4</sup>As long as we are alive, we still have hope, just as a live dog is better off than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup>We know that we will die, but the dead don't know a thing. Nothing good will happen to them—they are gone and forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>Their loves, their hates, and their jealous feelings have all disappeared with them. They will never again take part in anything that happens on this earth.

<sup>7</sup>Be happy and enjoy eating and drinking! God decided long ago that this is what you should do.

<sup>8</sup>Dress up, comb your hair, and look your best.

<sup>9</sup>Life is short, and you love your wife, so enjoy being with her. This is what you are supposed to do as you struggle through life on this earth.

<sup>10</sup>Work hard at whatever you do. You will soon go to the world of the dead, where no one works or thinks or reasons or knows anything.

<sup>11</sup>Here is something else I have learnt: The fastest runners and the greatest heroes don't always win races and battles. Wisdom, intelligence, and skill don't always make you healthy, rich, or popular. We each have our share of bad luck.

<sup>12</sup>None of us know when we might fall victim to a sudden disaster and find ourselves like fish in a net or birds in a trap.

Better to be wise than foolish

<sup>13</sup>Once I saw what people really think of wisdom.

<sup>14</sup>It happened when a powerful ruler surrounded and attacked a small city where only a few people lived. The enemy army was getting ready to break through the city walls.

<sup>15</sup>But the city was saved by the wisdom of a poor person who was soon forgotten.

<sup>16</sup>So I decided that wisdom is better than strength. Yet if you are poor, no one pays any attention to you, no matter how clever you are.

<sup>17</sup>Words of wisdom spoken softly make much more sense than the shouts of a ruler to a crowd of fools.

<sup>18</sup>Wisdom is more powerful than weapons, yet one mistake can destroy all the good you have done.

Ecclesiastes 10

<sup>1</sup>A few dead flies in perfume make all of it stink, and a little foolishness outweighs a lot of wisdom.

<sup>2</sup>Sensible thoughts lead you to do right; foolish thoughts lead you to do wrong.

<sup>3</sup>Fools show their stupidity by the way they live; it's easy to see they have no sense.

<sup>4</sup>Don't give up your job when your boss gets angry. If you stay calm, you'll be forgiven.

<sup>5</sup>Some things rulers do are terribly unfair:

<sup>6</sup>they honour fools, but dishonour the rich;

<sup>7</sup>they let slaves ride on horses, but force slave owners to walk.

<sup>8</sup>If you dig a pit, you might fall in; if you break down a wall, a snake might bite you.

<sup>9</sup>You could even get hurt by chiselling a stone or chopping a log.

<sup>10</sup>If you don't sharpen your axe, it will be harder to use; if you are clever, you'll know what to do.

<sup>11</sup>The power to charm a snake does you no good if it bites you anyway.

<sup>12</sup>If you talk sensibly, you will have friends; if you talk foolishly, you will destroy yourself.

<sup>13</sup>Fools begin with nonsense, and their stupid chatter ends with disaster.

<sup>14</sup>They never tire of talking, but none of us really know what the future will bring.

<sup>15</sup>Fools wear themselves out— they don't know enough to find their way home.

<sup>16</sup>A country is in for trouble when its ruler is childish, and its leaders feast all day long.

<sup>17</sup>But a nation will prosper when its ruler is mature, and its leaders don't feast too much.

<sup>18</sup>Some people are too lazy to fix a leaky roof— then the house falls in.

<sup>19</sup>Eating and drinking make you feel happy, and bribes can buy everything you need.

<sup>20</sup>Don't even think about cursing the king; don't curse the rich, not even in secret. A little bird might hear and tell everything.

Ecclesiastes 11

It pays to work hard

<sup>1</sup>Be generous, and some day you will be rewarded.

<sup>2</sup>Share what you have with seven or eight others, because you never know when disaster may strike.

<sup>3</sup>Rain clouds always bring rain; trees always stay wherever they fall.

<sup>4</sup>If you worry about the weather and don't plant seeds, you won't harvest a crop.

<sup>5</sup>No one can explain how a baby breathes before it is born. So how can anyone explain what God does? After all, he created everything.

<sup>6</sup>Plant your seeds early in the morning and keep working in the field until dark. Who knows? Your work might pay off, and your seeds might produce.

Respect and obey God Youth and old age

<sup>7</sup>Nothing on earth is more beautiful than the morning sun.

<sup>8</sup>Even if you live to a ripe old age, you should try to enjoy each day, because darkness will come and will last a long time. Nothing makes sense.

<sup>9</sup>Be cheerful and enjoy life while you are young! Do what you want and find pleasure in what you see. But don't forget that God will judge you for everything you do.

<sup>10</sup>Rid yourself of all worry and pain, because the wonderful moments of youth quickly disappear.

Ecclesiastes 12

<sup>1</sup>Keep your Creator in mind while you are young! In years to come, you will be burdened down with troubles and say, “I don't enjoy life any more.”

<sup>2</sup>Some day the light of the sun and the moon and the stars will all seem dim to you. Rain clouds will remain over your head.

<sup>3</sup>Your body will grow feeble, your teeth will decay, and your eyesight fail.

<sup>4</sup>The noisy grinding of grain will be shut out by your deaf ears, but even the song of a bird will keep you awake.

<sup>5</sup>You will be afraid to climb up a hill or walk down a road. Your hair will turn as white as almond blossoms. You will feel lifeless and drag along like an old grasshopper. We each go to our eternal home, and the streets are filled with those who mourn.

<sup>6</sup>The silver cord snaps, the golden bowl breaks; the water pitcher is smashed, and the pulley at the well is shattered.

<sup>7</sup>So our bodies return to the earth, and the life-giving breath returns to God.

<sup>8</sup>Nothing makes sense. I have seen it all— nothing makes sense.

Respect and obey God

<sup>9</sup>I was a wise teacher with much understanding, and I collected a number of proverbs that I had carefully studied.

<sup>10</sup>Then I tried to explain these things in the best and most accurate way.

<sup>11</sup>Words of wisdom are like the stick a farmer uses to make animals move. These sayings come from God, our only shepherd, and they are like nails that fasten things together.

<sup>12</sup>My child, I warn you to stay away from any teachings except these. There is no end to books, and too much study will wear you out.

<sup>13</sup>Everything you were taught can be put into a few words: Respect and obey God! This is what life is all about.

<sup>14</sup>God will judge everything we do, even what is done in secret, whether good or bad.

Song of Songs

Song of Songs 1

Love is better than wine

<sup>1</sup>This is Solomon's most beautiful song.

She speaks:

<sup>2</sup>Kiss me tenderly! Your love is better than wine,

<sup>3</sup>and you smell so sweet. All the young women adore you; the very mention of your name is like spreading perfume.

<sup>4-5</sup>Hurry, my king! Let's hurry. Take me to your home.

The young women speak:

We are happy for you! And we praise your love even more than wine.

She speaks:

Young women of Jerusalem, it is only right that you should adore him. My skin is dark and beautiful, like a tent in the desert or like Solomon's curtains.

<sup>6</sup>Don't stare at me just because the sun has darkened my skin. My brothers were angry with me; they made me work in the vineyard, and so I neglected my complexion. Don't let the other shepherds think badly of me.

<sup>7</sup>I'm not one of those women who shamelessly follow after shepherds. My darling, I love you! Where do you feed your sheep and let them rest at midday?

He speaks:

<sup>8</sup>My dearest, if you don't know, just follow the path of the sheep. Then feed your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

<sup>9</sup>You move as gracefully as the pony that leads the chariot of the king.

<sup>10</sup>Earrings add to your beauty, and you wear a necklace of precious stones.

<sup>11</sup>Let's make you some jewellery of gold, woven with silver.

She speaks:

<sup>12</sup>My king, while you were on your couch, my love was a magic charm.

<sup>13</sup>My darling, you are perfume between my breasts;

<sup>14</sup>you are flower blossoms from the gardens of En-Gedi.

He speaks:

<sup>15</sup>My darling, you are lovely, so very lovely— your eyes are those of a dove.

She speaks:

<sup>16</sup>My love, you are handsome, truly handsome— the fresh green grass will be our wedding bed

<sup>17</sup>in the shade of cedar and cypress trees.

Song of Songs 2

Love makes everything beautiful

She speaks:

<sup>1</sup>I am merely a rose from the land of Sharon, a lily from the valley.

He speaks:

<sup>2</sup>My darling, when compared with other young women, you are a lily among thorns.

She speaks:

<sup>3</sup>And you, my love, are an apple tree among trees of the forest. Your shade brought me pleasure; your fruit was sweet.

<sup>4</sup>You led me to your banquet room and showered me with love.

<sup>5</sup>Refresh and strengthen me with raisins and apples. I am hungry for love!

<sup>6</sup>Put your left hand under my head and embrace me with your right arm.

<sup>7</sup>Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the power of deer and gazelles never to awaken love before it is ready.

Winter is past

She speaks:

<sup>8</sup>I hear the voice of the one I love, as he comes leaping over mountains and hills

<sup>9</sup>like a deer or a gazelle. Now he stands outside our wall, looking through the window

<sup>10</sup>and speaking to me.

He speaks:

My darling, I love you! Let's go away together.

<sup>11</sup>Winter is past, the rain has stopped;

<sup>12</sup>flowers cover the earth, it's time to sing. The cooing of doves is heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup>Fig trees are bearing fruit, while blossoms on grapevines fill the air with perfume. My darling, I love you! Let's go away together.

<sup>14</sup>You are my dove hiding among the rocks on the side of a cliff. Let me see how lovely you are! Let me hear the sound of your melodious voice.

<sup>15</sup>Our vineyards are in blossom; we must catch the little foxes that destroy the vineyards.

She speaks:

<sup>16</sup>My darling, I am yours, and you are mine, as you feed your sheep among the lilies.

<sup>17</sup>Pretend to be a young deer dancing on mountain slopes until daylight comes and shadows fade away.

Song of Songs 3

Beautiful dreams

She speaks:

<sup>1</sup>While in bed at night, I reached for the one I love with heart and soul. I looked for him, but he wasn't there.

<sup>2</sup>So I searched through the town for the one I love. I looked in every street, but he wasn't there.

<sup>3</sup>I even asked the guards patrolling the town, “Have you seen the one I love so much?”

<sup>4</sup>Straight after that, I found him. I held him and would not let go until I had taken him to the home of my mother.

<sup>5</sup>Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the power of deer and gazelles, never to awaken love before it is ready.

The wedding
The groom and the wedding party
Their friends speak:

<sup>6</sup>What do we see approaching from the desert like a cloud of smoke? With it comes the sweet smell of spices, including myrrh and frankincense.

<sup>7</sup>It is King Solomon carried on a throne, surrounded by sixty of Israel's best soldiers.

<sup>8</sup>Each of them wears a sword. They are experts at fighting, even in the dark.

<sup>9</sup>The throne is made of trees from Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup>Its posts are silver, the back is gold, and the seat is covered with purple cloth. You women of Jerusalem have taken great care to furnish the inside.

<sup>11</sup>Now come and see the crown given to Solomon by his mother on his happy wedding day.

Song of Songs 4

What a beautiful bride
He speaks:

<sup>1</sup>My darling, you are lovely, so very lovely— as you look through your veil, your eyes are those of a dove. Your hair tosses about as gracefully as goats coming down from Gilead.

<sup>2</sup>Your teeth are whiter than sheep freshly washed; they match perfectly, not one is missing.

<sup>3</sup>Your lips are crimson cords, your mouth is shapely; behind your veil are hidden beautiful rosy cheeks.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck is more graceful than the tower of David, decorated with thousands of warriors' shields.

<sup>5</sup>Your breasts are perfect; they are twin deer feeding among lilies.

<sup>6</sup>I will hasten to those hills sprinkled with sweet perfume and stay there till sunrise.

<sup>7</sup>My darling, you are lovely in every way.

<sup>8</sup>My bride, together we will leave Lebanon! We will say goodbye to the peaks of Mount Amana, Senir, and Hermon, where lions and leopards live in the caves.

<sup>9</sup>My bride, my very own, you have stolen my heart! With one glance from your eyes and the glow of your necklace, you have stolen my heart.

<sup>10</sup>Your love is sweeter than wine; the smell of your perfume is more fragrant than spices.

<sup>11</sup>Your lips are a honeycomb; milk and honey flow from your tongue. Your dress has the aroma of cedar trees from Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup>My bride, my very own, you are a garden, a fountain closed off to all others.

<sup>13</sup>Your arms are vines, covered with delicious fruits and all sorts of spices—henna, nard,

<sup>14</sup>saffron, calamus, cinnamon, frankincense, myrrh, and aloes— all the finest spices.

<sup>15</sup>You are a spring in the garden, a fountain of pure water, and a refreshing stream from Mount Lebanon.

She speaks:

<sup>16</sup>Let the north wind blow, the south wind too! Let them spread the aroma of my garden, so the one I love may enter and taste its delicious fruits.

Song of Songs 5

He speaks:

<sup>1</sup>My bride, my very own, I come to my garden and enjoy its spices. I eat my honeycomb and honey; I drink my wine and milk.

Their friends speak:

Eat and drink until you are drunk with love.

Why is the one you love more special than others?

Another dream

She speaks:

<sup>2</sup>I was asleep, but dreaming: the one I love was at the door, knocking and saying, “My darling, my very own, my flawless dove, open the door for me! My head is drenched with evening dew.”

<sup>3</sup>But I had already undressed and bathed my feet. Should I dress again and get my feet dirty?

<sup>4</sup>Then my darling's hand reached to open the latch, and my heart stood still.

<sup>5</sup>When I rose to open the door, my hands and my fingers dripped with perfume.

<sup>6</sup>My heart stood still while he spoke to me, but when I opened the door, my darling had disappeared. I searched and shouted, but I could not find him—there was no answer.

<sup>7</sup>Then I was found by the guards patrolling the town and guarding the wall. They beat me up and stripped off my robe.

<sup>8</sup>Young women of Jerusalem, if you find the one I love, please say to him, “She is weak with desire.”

Their friends speak:

<sup>9</sup>Most beautiful of women, why is the one you love more special than others? Why do you ask us to tell him how you feel?

She speaks:

<sup>10</sup>He is handsome and healthy, the most outstanding among ten thousand.

<sup>11</sup>His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy, black as a raven.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes are a pair of doves bathing in a stream flowing with milk.

<sup>13</sup>His face is a garden of sweet-smelling spices; his lips are lilies dripping with perfume.

<sup>14</sup>His arms are branches of gold covered with jewels; his body is ivory decorated with sapphires.

<sup>15</sup>His legs are columns of marble on feet of gold. He stands there majestic like Mount Lebanon and its choice cedar trees.

<sup>16</sup>His kisses are sweet. I desire him so much! Young women of Jerusalem, he is my lover and friend.

Song of Songs 6

Their friends speak:

<sup>1</sup>Most beautiful of women, tell us where he has gone. Let us help you find him.

She speaks:

<sup>2</sup>My darling has gone down to his garden of spices, where he will feed his sheep and gather lilies.

<sup>3</sup>I am his, and he is mine, as he feeds his sheep among the lilies.

He speaks:

<sup>4</sup>My dearest, the cities of Tirzah and Jerusalem are not as lovely as you. Your charms are more powerful than all the stars in the heavens.

<sup>5</sup>Turn away your eyes— they make me melt. Your hair tosses about as gracefully as goats coming down from Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>Your teeth are whiter than sheep freshly washed; they match perfectly, not one is missing.

<sup>7</sup>Behind your veil are hidden beautiful rosy cheeks.

<sup>8</sup>What if I could have sixty queens, eighty wives, and thousands of others!

<sup>9</sup>You would be my only choice, my flawless dove, the favourite child of your mother. The young women, the queens, and all the others tell how excited you are as they sing your praises:

<sup>10</sup>“You are as majestic as the morning sky— glorious as the moon— blinding as the sun! Your charms are more powerful than all the stars above.”

She speaks:

<sup>11</sup>I went down to see if blossoms were on the walnut trees, grapevines, and fruit trees.

<sup>12</sup>But in my imagination I was suddenly riding on a glorious chariot.

Their friends speak:

<sup>13</sup>Dance! Dance! Beautiful woman from Shulam, let us see you dance!

She speaks:

Why do you want to see this woman from Shulam dancing with the others?

Song of Songs 7

The wedding dance

He speaks:

<sup>1</sup>You are a princess, and your feet are graceful in their sandals. Your thighs are works of art, each one a jewel;

<sup>2</sup>your navel is a wine glass filled to overflowing. Your body is full and slender like a bundle of wheat bound together by lilies.

<sup>3</sup>Your breasts are like twins of a deer.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck is like ivory, and your eyes sparkle like the pools of Heshbon by the gate of Bath-Rabbim. Your nose is beautiful like Mount Lebanon above the city of Damascus.

<sup>5</sup>Your head is held high like Mount Carmel; your hair is so lovely it holds a king prisoner.

<sup>6</sup>You are beautiful, so very desirable!

<sup>7</sup>You are tall and slender like a palm tree, and your breasts are full.

<sup>8</sup>I will climb that tree and cling to its branches. I will discover that your breasts are clusters of grapes, and that your breath is the aroma of apples.

<sup>9</sup>Kissing you is more delicious than drinking the finest wine. How wonderful and tasty!

She speaks:

<sup>10</sup>My darling, I am yours, and you desire me.

<sup>11</sup>Let's stroll through the fields and sleep in the villages.

<sup>12</sup>At dawn let's slip out and see if grapevines and fruit trees are covered with blossoms. When we are there, I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup>Perfume from the magic flower fills the air, my darling. Right at our doorstep I have stored up for you all kinds of tasty fruits.

Song of Songs 8

If only you and I ...

She speaks:

<sup>1</sup>If you were my brother, I could kiss you whenever we happen to meet, and no one would say I did wrong.

<sup>2</sup>I could take you to the home of my mother, who taught me all I know. I would give you delicious wine and fruit juice as well.

<sup>3</sup>Put your left hand under my head and embrace me with your right arm.

<sup>4</sup>Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the power of deer and gazelles never to awaken love before it is ready.

Their friends speak:

<sup>5</sup>Who is this young woman coming in from the desert and leaning on the shoulder of the one she loves?

She speaks:

I stirred up your passions under the apple tree where you were born.

<sup>6</sup>Always keep me in your heart and wear this bracelet to remember me by. The passion of love bursting into flame is more powerful than death, stronger than the grave.

<sup>7</sup>Love cannot be drowned by oceans or floods; it cannot be bought, no matter what is offered.

Their friends speak:

<sup>8</sup>We have a little sister whose breasts are not yet formed. If someone asks to marry her, what should we do?

<sup>9</sup>She isn't a wall that we can defend behind a silver shield. Neither is she a room that we can protect behind a wooden door.

She speaks:

<sup>10</sup>I am a wall around a city, my breasts are towers, and just looking at me brings him great pleasure.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon has a vineyard at Baal-Hamon, which he rents to others for a thousand pieces of silver each.

<sup>12</sup>My vineyard is mine alone! Solomon can keep his silver and the others can keep their share of the profits.

He speaks:

<sup>13</sup>You are in the garden with friends all around. Let me hear your voice!

She speaks:

<sup>14</sup>Hurry to me, my darling! Run faster than a deer to mountains of spices.

Isaiah

Isaiah 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>I am Isaiah, the son of Amoz. And this is the message that I was given about Judah and Jerusalem when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were the kings of Judah:

A guilty nation

<sup>2</sup>The LORD has said, “Listen, heaven and earth! The children I raised have turned against me.

<sup>3</sup>Oxen and donkeys know who owns and feeds them, but my people won't ever learn.”

<sup>4</sup>Israel, you are a sinful nation loaded down with guilt. You are wicked and corrupt and have turned from the LORD, the holy God of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Why be punished more? Why not give up your sin? Your head is badly bruised, and you are weak all over.

<sup>6</sup>From your head to your toes there isn't a healthy spot. Bruises, cuts, and open sores go without care or oil to ease the pain.

A country in ruins

<sup>7</sup>Your country lies in ruins; your towns are in ashes. Foreigners and strangers take and destroy your land while you watch.

<sup>8</sup>Enemies surround Jerusalem, alone like a hut in a vineyard or in a cucumber field.

<sup>9</sup>Zion would have disappeared like Sodom and Gomorrah, if the LORD All-Powerful had not let a few of its people survive.

Justice, not sacrifices

<sup>10</sup>You are no better than the leaders and people of Sodom and Gomorrah! So listen to the LORD God:

11 “Your sacrifices mean nothing to me. I am sick of your offerings of rams and choice cattle; I don't like the blood of bulls or lambs or goats.

12 “Who asked you to bring all this when you come to worship me? Stay out of my temple!

13 Your sacrifices are worthless, and incense is disgusting. I can't stand the evil you do on your New Moon Festivals or on your Sabbaths and other times of worship.

14 I hate your New Moon Festivals and all others as well. They are a heavy burden I am tired of carrying.

15 “No matter how much you pray, I won't listen. You are too violent.

16 Wash yourselves clean! I am disgusted with your filthy deeds. Stop doing wrong

17 and learn to live right. See that justice is done. Defend widows and orphans and help those in need.”

An invitation from the LORD

18 I, the LORD, invite you to come and talk it over. Your sins are scarlet red, but they will be whiter than snow or wool.

19 If you willingly obey me, the best crops in the land will be yours.

20 But if you turn against me, your enemies will kill you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD condemns Jerusalem

21 Jerusalem, you are like an unfaithful wife. Once your judges were honest and your people lived right; now you are a city full of murderers.

22 Your silver is fake, and your wine is watered down.

23 Your leaders have rejected me to become friends of crooks; your rulers are looking for gifts and bribes. Widows and orphans never get a fair trial.

<sup>24</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the mighty ruler of Israel, and I make you a promise: you are now my enemy, and I will show my anger by taking revenge on you.

<sup>25</sup>I will punish you terribly and burn away everything that makes you unfit to worship me.

<sup>26</sup>Jerusalem, I will choose judges and advisers like those you had before. Your new name will be “Justice and Faithfulness”.

The LORD will save Jerusalem

<sup>27</sup>Jerusalem, you will be saved by showing justice; Zion's people who turn to me will be saved by doing right.

<sup>28</sup>But those rebellious sinners who turn against me, the LORD, will all disappear.

<sup>29</sup>You will be made ashamed of those groves of trees where you worshipped idols.

<sup>30</sup>You will be like a grove of trees dying in a drought.

<sup>31</sup>Your strongest leaders will be like dry wood set on fire by their idols. No one will be able to help, as they all go up in flames.

Isaiah 2

Messages about Judah and Israel Peace that lasts for ever

<sup>1</sup>This is the message that I was given about Judah and Jerusalem:

<sup>2</sup>In the future, the mountain with the LORD's temple will be the highest of all. It will reach above the hills; every nation will rush to it.

<sup>3</sup>Many people will come and say, “Let's go to the mountain of the LORD God of Jacob and worship in his temple.” The LORD will teach us his Law from Jerusalem, and we will obey him.

<sup>4</sup>He will settle arguments between nations. They will beat their swords and their spears into rakes and shovels; they will never make war or attack one another.

<sup>5</sup>People of Israel, let's live by the light of the LORD.

Following sinful customs

<sup>6</sup>Our LORD, you have deserted your people, Israel, because they follow customs of nations from the east. They worship Philistine gods and are close friends of foreigners.

<sup>7</sup>They have endless treasures of silver and gold; they have countless horses and war chariots.

<sup>8</sup>Everywhere in the country they worship the idols they have made.

<sup>9</sup>And so, all of them will be ashamed and disgraced. Don't help them!

A day of judgment

<sup>10</sup>Every one of you, hide among the rocks and in the ground, because the LORD is fearsome, marvellous, and glorious.

<sup>11</sup>When the LORD comes, everyone who is proud will be made humble, and the LORD alone will be honoured.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has chosen a day when those who are proud and conceited will be put down.

<sup>13</sup>The tall and towering cedars of Lebanon will be destroyed. So will the oak trees of Bashan,

<sup>14</sup>all high mountains and hills,

<sup>15</sup>every strong fortress,

<sup>16</sup>all the seagoing ships, and every beautiful boat.

<sup>17</sup>When that day comes, everyone who is proud will be put down. Only the LORD will be honoured.

<sup>18</sup>Idols will be gone for good.

<sup>19</sup>You had better hide in caves and holes— the LORD will be fearsome, marvellous, and glorious when he comes to terrify people on earth.

<sup>20</sup>On that day everyone will throw to the rats and bats their idols of silver and gold they made to worship.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will be fearsome, marvellous, and glorious when he comes to terrify people on earth— they will hide in caves and in the hills.

<sup>22</sup>Stop trusting the power of humans. They are all going to die, so how can they help?

Isaiah 3

Judgment on Jerusalem and Judah

<sup>1</sup>The mighty LORD All-Powerful is going to take away from Jerusalem and Judah everything you need— your bread and water,

<sup>2-3</sup>soldiers and heroes, judges and prophets, leaders and army officers, officials and advisers, fortune-tellers and others who tell the future.

<sup>4</sup>He will let children and babies become your rulers.

<sup>5</sup>You will each be cruel to friends and neighbours. Young people will insult their elders; no one will show respect to those who deserve it.

<sup>6</sup>Some of you will grab hold of a relative and say, “You still have a coat. Be our leader and rule this pile of ruins.”

<sup>7</sup>But the answer will be, “I can't do you any good. Don't make me your leader. There's no food or clothing left in my house.”

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem and Judah, you rebelled against your glorious LORD— your words and your actions, made you stumble and fall.

<sup>9</sup>The look on your faces shows that you are sinful as Sodom, and you don't try to hide it. You are in for trouble, and you have brought it all on yourselves.

The wrong kind of leaders

<sup>10</sup>Tell those who obey God, “You're very fortunate— you will be rewarded for what you have done.”

11Tell those who disobey, “You’re in big trouble— what you did to others will come back to you.”

12Though you are God’s people, you are ruled and abused by women and children. You are confused by leaders who guide you down the wrong path.

13The LORD is ready to accuse and judge all nations.

14He will even judge you rulers and leaders of his own nation. You destroyed his vineyard and filled your houses by robbing the poor.

15The LORD All-Powerful says, “You have crushed my people and rubbed in the dust the faces of the poor.”

The women of Jerusalem

16The LORD says: The women of Jerusalem are proud and strut around, winking shamelessly. They wear anklets that jingle and call attention to the way they walk.

17But I, the LORD, will cover their heads with sores, and I will uncover their private parts.

18-23When that day comes, I will take away from those women all the fine jewellery they wear on their ankles, heads, necks, ears, arms, noses, fingers, and on their clothes. I will remove their veils, their belts, their perfume, their magic charms, their royal robes, and all their fine dresses, hats, and purses.

24In place of perfume, there will be a stink; in place of belts, there will be ropes; in place of fancy hair styles, they will have bald heads. Instead of expensive clothes, they will wear sackcloth; instead of beauty, they will have ugly scars.

25The fighting men of Jerusalem will be killed in battle.

26The city will mourn and sit in the dust, emptied of its people.

Isaiah 4

<sup>1</sup>When this happens, seven women will grab the same man, and each of them will say, “I’ll buy my own food and clothes! Just marry me and take away my disgrace.”

The LORD will bless his people who survive

<sup>2</sup>The time is coming when the LORD will make his land fruitful and glorious again, and the people of Israel who survive will take great pride in what the land produces.

<sup>3</sup>Everyone who is left alive in Jerusalem will be called special,

<sup>4</sup>after the LORD sends a fiery judgment to clean the city and its people of their violent deeds.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD will cover the whole city and its meeting places with a thick cloud each day and with a flaming fire each night. God’s own glory will be like a huge tent that covers everything.

<sup>6</sup>It will provide shade from the heat of the sun and a place of shelter and protection from storms and rain.

Isaiah 5

A song about a vineyard

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>I will sing a song about my friend’s vineyard that was on the side of a fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup>My friend dug the ground, removed the stones, and planted the best vines. He built a watchtower and dug a pit in rocky ground for pressing the grapes. He hoped they would be sweet, but bitter grapes were all it produced.

<sup>3</sup>Listen, people of Jerusalem and of Judah! You be the judge of me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What more could I have done for my vineyard? I hoped for sweet grapes, but bitter grapes were all that grew.

<sup>5</sup>Now I will let you know what I am going to do. I will cut down the hedge and tear down the wall. My vineyard will be trampled and left in ruins.

<sup>6</sup>It will turn into a desert, neither pruned nor hoed; it will be covered with thorns and briars. I will command the clouds not to send rain.

<sup>7</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful! Israel is the vineyard, and Judah is the garden I tended with care. I had hoped for honesty and for justice, but dishonesty and cries for mercy were all I found.

Isaiah condemns social injustice

<sup>8</sup>You are in for trouble! You take over house after house and field after field, until there is no room left for anyone else in all the land.

<sup>9</sup>But the LORD All-Powerful has made this promise to me: Those large and beautiful homes will be left empty, with no one to take care of them.

<sup>10</sup>Four hectares of grapevines will produce only twenty-seven litres of juice, and a hundred and eighty litres of seed will produce merely eighteen litres of grain.

<sup>11</sup>You are in for trouble! You get up early to start drinking, and you keep it up late into the night.

<sup>12</sup>At your drinking parties you have the music of stringed instruments, tambourines, and flutes. But you never even think about all the LORD has done,

<sup>13</sup>and so his people know nothing about him. That's why many of you will be dragged off to foreign lands. Your leaders will starve to death, and everyone else will suffer from thirst.

<sup>14</sup>The world of the dead has opened its mouth wide and is eagerly waiting for the leaders of Jerusalem and for its noisy crowds, especially for those who take pride in that city.

<sup>15</sup>Its citizens have been put down, and its proud people have been brought to shame.

<sup>16</sup>But the holy LORD God All-Powerful is praised, because he has shown who he is by bringing justice.

<sup>17</sup>His people will be like sheep grazing in their own pasture, and they will take off what was left by others.

<sup>18</sup>You are in for trouble! The lies you tell are like ropes by which you drag along sin and evil.

<sup>19</sup>And you say, "Let the holy God of Israel hurry up and do what he has promised, so we can see it for ourselves."

<sup>20</sup>You are headed for trouble! You say wrong is right, darkness is light, and bitter is sweet.

<sup>21</sup>You think you are clever and wise.

<sup>22</sup>And you are great at drinking and mixing drinks. But you are in for trouble.

<sup>23</sup>You accept bribes to let the guilty go free, and you cheat the innocent out of a fair trial.

<sup>24</sup>You will go up in flames like straw and hay! You have rejected the teaching of the holy LORD God All-Powerful of Israel. Now your roots will rot, and your blossoms will turn to dust.

<sup>25</sup>You are the LORD's people, but you made him terribly angry, and he struck you with his mighty arm. Mountains shook, and dead bodies covered the streets like rubbish. The LORD is still angry, and he is ready to strike you again.

Foreign nations will attack

<sup>26</sup>The LORD has signalled for the foreign nations to come and attack you. He has already whistled, and they are coming as fast as they can.

<sup>27</sup>None of them are tired. They don't sleep or get drowsy, and they run without stumbling. Their belts don't come loose; their sandal straps don't break.

<sup>28</sup>Their arrows are sharp, and their bows are ready. The hoofs of their horses are hard as flint; the wheels of their war chariots turn as fast as a whirlwind.

<sup>29</sup>They roar and growl like fierce young lions as they grab their victims and drag them off where no one can rescue them.

<sup>30</sup>On the day they attack, they will roar like the sea. And across the land you will see nothing but darkness and trouble, because the light of day will be covered by thick clouds.

Isaiah 6

Events from Isaiah's ministry A vision of the LORD in the temple

<sup>1</sup>In the year that King Uzziah died, I had a vision of the LORD. He was on his throne high above, and his robe filled the temple.

<sup>2</sup>Flaming creatures with six wings each were flying over him. They covered their faces with two of their wings and their bodies with two more. They used the other two wings for flying,

<sup>3</sup>as they shouted, “Holy, holy, holy, LORD All-Powerful! The earth is filled with your glory.”

<sup>4</sup>As they shouted, the doorposts of the temple shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup>Then I cried out, “I'm doomed! Everything I say is sinful, and so are the words of everyone around me. Yet I have seen the King, the LORD All-Powerful.”

<sup>6</sup>One of the flaming creatures flew over to me with a burning coal that it had taken from the altar with a pair of metal tongs.

<sup>7</sup>It touched my lips with the hot coal and said, “This has touched your lips. Your sins are forgiven, and you are no longer guilty.”

<sup>8</sup>After this, I heard the LORD ask, “Is there anyone I can send? Will someone go for us?” “I'll go,” I answered. “Send me!”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD told me to go and speak this message to the people: “You will listen and listen, but never understand. You will look and look, but never see.” The LORD also said,

<sup>10</sup>“Make these people stubborn! Make them stop up their ears, cover their eyes, and fail to understand. Don't let them turn to me and be healed.”

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked the LORD, “How long will this last?” The LORD answered: Until their towns are destroyed and their houses are deserted, until their fields are empty, <sup>12</sup>and I have sent them far away, leaving their land in ruins.

<sup>13</sup>If only a tenth of the people are left, even they will be destroyed. But just as stumps remain after trees have been cut down, some of my chosen ones will be left.

Isaiah 7

Isaiah offers hope to King Ahaz

<sup>1</sup>Ahaz, the son of Jotham and the grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah when King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel went to attack Jerusalem. But they were not able to do what they had planned.

<sup>2</sup>When news reached the royal palace that Syria had joined forces with Israel, King Ahaz and everyone in Judah were so terrified that they shook like trees in a storm.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to me: Take your son Shearjashub and go and see King Ahaz. You will find him on the road near the cloth makers' shops at the end of the canal that brings water from the upper pool.

<sup>4</sup>Tell Ahaz to stop worrying. There's no need for him to be afraid of King Rezin and King Pekah. They are very angry, but they are nothing more than a dying fire. Ahaz doesn't need to fear

<sup>5</sup>their evil threats

<sup>6</sup>to invade and defeat Judah and Jerusalem and to let the son of Tabeel be king in his place.

<sup>7</sup>I, the LORD, promise that this will never happen.

<sup>8-9</sup>Damascus is just the capital of Syria, and King Rezin rules only in Damascus. Samaria is just the capital of Israel, and King Pekah rules only in Samaria. But in less than sixty-five years, Israel will be destroyed. And if Ahaz and his officials don't trust me, they will be defeated.

A son named Immanuel

<sup>10</sup>Once again the LORD God spoke to King Ahaz. This time he said,

<sup>11</sup>“Ask me for proof that my promise will come true. Ask for something to happen deep in the world of the dead or high in the heavens above.”

<sup>12</sup>“No, LORD,” Ahaz answered. “I won't test you!”

<sup>13</sup>Then I said: Listen, every one of you in the royal family of David. You have already tried my patience. Now you are trying God's patience by refusing to ask for proof.

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD will still give you proof. A virgin is pregnant; she will have a son and will name him Immanuel.

<sup>15-16</sup>Even before the boy is old enough to know how to choose between right and wrong, he will eat yoghurt and honey, and the countries of the two kings you fear will be destroyed.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD will make more trouble for your people and your kingdom than any of you have known since Israel broke away from Judah. He will even bring the king of Assyria to attack you.

The threat of an invasion

<sup>18</sup>When that time comes, the LORD will whistle, and armies will come from Egypt like flies and from Assyria like bees.

<sup>19</sup>They will settle everywhere—in the deep valleys and between the rocks, on every bush and all over the pasture land.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord will pay the king of Assyria to bring a razor from across the River Euphrates and shave your head and every hair on your body, including your beard.

<sup>21</sup>No one will have more than one young cow and two sheep,

<sup>22</sup>but those who do will have enough milk to make yoghurt. In fact, everyone left in the land will eat yoghurt and honey.

<sup>23</sup>Vineyards that had a thousand vines and were worth a thousand pieces of silver will turn into thorn patches.

<sup>24</sup>You will go there to hunt with your bow and arrows, because the whole country will be covered with thorn bushes.

<sup>25</sup>The hills where you once planted crops will be overgrown with thorns and thistles. You will be afraid to go there, and your cattle, sheep, and goats will be turned loose on those hills.

Isaiah 8

A warning and a hope

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said, “Isaiah, get something to write on. Then write in big clear letters the name, MAHER-SHALAL-HASH-BAZ.

<sup>2</sup>I will tell Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah to serve as witnesses to this.”

<sup>3</sup>Some time later, my wife and I had a son, and the LORD said, “Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.

<sup>4</sup>Because before he can say ‘Mummy’ or ‘Daddy’, the king of Assyria will attack and take everything of value from Damascus and Samaria.”

<sup>5</sup>The LORD spoke to me again and said:

<sup>6</sup>These people have refused the gentle waters of Shiloah and have gladly gone over to the side of King Rezin and King Pekah.

<sup>7</sup>Now I will send the king of Assyria against them with his powerful army, which will attack like the mighty River Euphrates overflowing its banks.

<sup>8</sup>Enemy soldiers will cover Judah like a flood reaching up to your neck. But God is with us. He will spread his wings and protect our land.

<sup>9</sup>All you foreign nations, go ahead and prepare for war, but you will be crushed.

<sup>10</sup>Get together and make plans, but you will fail because God is with us.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD took hold of me with his powerful hand and said: I'm warning you! Don't act like these people.

<sup>12</sup>Don't call something a rebellious plot, just because they do, and don't be afraid of something, just because they are.

<sup>13</sup>I am the one you should fear and respect. I am the holy God, the LORD All-Powerful!

<sup>14-15</sup>Run to me for protection. I am a rock that will make both Judah and Israel stumble and break their bones. I am a trap that will catch the people of Jerusalem—they will be captured and dragged away.

Isaiah and his followers

<sup>16</sup>My message and my teachings are to be sealed and given to my followers.

<sup>17</sup>Meanwhile, I patiently trust the LORD, even though he is no longer pleased with Israel.

<sup>18</sup>My children and I are warning signs to Israel from the LORD All-Powerful, who lives on Mount Zion.

<sup>19</sup>Someone may say to you, “Go to the fortune-tellers who make soft chirping sounds or ask the spirits of the dead. After all, a nation ought to be able to ask its own gods <sup>20</sup>what it should do.” None of those who talk like that will live to see the light of day!

<sup>21</sup>They will go around in great pain and will become so hungry that they will angrily curse their king and their gods. And when they try to find help in heaven

<sup>22</sup>and on earth, they will find only trouble and darkness, terrible trouble and deepest darkness.

Isaiah 9

<sup>1</sup>But those who have suffered will no longer be in pain. The territories of Zebulun and Naphtali in Galilee were once hated. But this land of the Gentiles across the River Jordan and along the Mediterranean Sea will be greatly respected.

War is over

<sup>2</sup>Those who walked in the dark have seen a bright light. And it shines upon everyone who lives in the land of darkest shadows.

<sup>3</sup>Our LORD, you have made your nation stronger. Because of you, its people are glad and celebrate like workers at harvest time or like soldiers dividing up what they have taken.

<sup>4</sup>You have broken the power of those who abused and enslaved your people. You have rescued them just as you saved your people from Midian.

<sup>5</sup>The boots of marching warriors and the blood-stained uniforms have been fed to flames and eaten by fire.

A child has been born

<sup>6</sup>A child has been born for us. We have been given a son who will be our ruler. His names will be Wonderful Adviser and Mighty God, Eternal Father and Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>His power will never end; peace will last for ever. He will rule David's kingdom and make it grow strong. He will always rule with honesty and justice. The LORD All-Powerful will make certain that all of this is done.

More messages about Judah and Israel God will punish Israel

<sup>8</sup>The Lord had warned the people of Israel,

<sup>9</sup>and all of them knew it, including everyone in the capital city of Samaria. But they were proud and stubborn and said,

<sup>10</sup>“Houses of brick and sycamore have fallen to the ground, but we will build houses with stones and cedar.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD made their enemies attack them.

<sup>12</sup>He sent the Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west, and they swallowed up Israel. But even this did not stop him from being angry, so he kept on punishing them.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Israel still did not turn back to the LORD All-Powerful and worship him.

<sup>14</sup>In one day he cut off their head and tail, their leaves and branches.

<sup>15</sup>Their rulers and leaders were the head, and the lying prophets were the tail.

<sup>16</sup>They had led the nation down the wrong path, and the people were confused.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord was angry with his people and kept punishing them, because they had turned against him. They were evil and spoke foolishly. That's why he did not have pity on their young people or on their widows and orphans.

<sup>18</sup>Evil had spread like a raging forest fire sending thorn bushes up in smoke.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD All-Powerful was angry and used the people as fuel for a fire that scorched the land. They turned against each other <sup>20</sup>like wild animals attacking and eating everyone around them, even their own relatives. But still they were not satisfied.

<sup>21</sup>The tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh turned against each other, then joined forces to attack Judah. But the LORD was still angry and ready to punish the nation even more.

Isaiah 10

<sup>1</sup>You people are in for trouble! You have made cruel and unfair laws

<sup>2</sup>that let you cheat the poor and needy and rob widows and orphans.

<sup>3</sup>But what will you do when you are fiercely attacked and punished by foreigners? Where will you run for help? Where will you hide your valuables?

<sup>4</sup>How will you escape being captured or killed? The Lord is still angry, and he isn't through with you yet!

The Lord's purpose and the king of Assyria

<sup>5</sup>The Lord says: I am furious! And I will use the king of Assyria as a club

<sup>6</sup>to beat down you godless people. I am angry with you, and I will send him to attack you. He will take what he wants and walk on you like mud in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>He has even bigger plans in mind, because he wants to destroy many nations.

<sup>8</sup>The king of Assyria says: My army commanders are kings!

<sup>9</sup>They have already captured the cities of Calno, Carchemish, Hamath, Arpad, Samaria, and Damascus.

<sup>10-11</sup>The gods of Jerusalem and Samaria are weaker than the gods of those powerful nations. And I will destroy Jerusalem, together with its gods and idols, just as I did Samaria.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord will do what he has planned against Jerusalem and Mount Zion. Then he will punish the proud and boastful king of Assyria, <sup>13</sup>who says: I did these things by my own power because I am clever and wise. I attacked kings like a wild bull, and I took the land and the treasures of their nations.

<sup>14</sup>I have conquered the whole world! And it was easier than taking eggs from an unguarded nest. No one even flapped a wing or made a cheep.

<sup>15</sup>King of Assyria, can an axe or a saw overpower the one who uses it? Can a wooden pole lift whoever holds it?

<sup>16</sup>The mighty LORD All-Powerful will send a terrible disease to strike down your army, and you will burn with fever under your royal robes.

<sup>17</sup>The holy God, who is the light of Israel, will turn into a fire, and in one day you will go up in flames, just like a thorn bush.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord will make your beautiful forests and fertile fields slowly rot.

<sup>19</sup>There will be so few trees that even a young child can count them.

Only a few will come back

<sup>20</sup>A time is coming when the survivors from Israel and Judah will completely depend on the holy LORD of Israel, instead of the nation that defeated them.

<sup>21-22</sup> There were as many people as there are grains of sand along the seashore, but only a few will survive to come back to Israel's mighty God. This is because he has threatened to destroy their nation, just as they deserve.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has promised that everyone on this earth will be punished.

<sup>24</sup>Now the LORD God All-Powerful says to his people in Jerusalem: The Assyrians will beat you with sticks and abuse you, just as the Egyptians did. But don't be afraid of them.

<sup>25</sup>Soon I will stop being angry with you, and I will punish them for their crimes.

<sup>26</sup>I will beat the Assyrians with a whip, as I did the people of Midian near the rock at Oreb. And I will show the same mighty power that I used when I made a path through the sea in Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>Then they will no longer rule your nation. All will go well for you, and your burden will be lifted.

<sup>28</sup>Enemy troops have reached the town of Aiath. They have gone through Migron, and they stored their supplies at Michmash, <sup>29</sup>before crossing the valley and spending the night at Geba. The people of Ramah are terrified; everyone in Gibeah, the home town of Saul, has run away.

<sup>30</sup>Loud crying can be heard in the towns of Gallim, Laishah, and sorrowful Anathoth.

<sup>31</sup>No one is left in Madmenah or Gebim.

<sup>32</sup>Today the enemy will camp at Nob and shake a threatening fist at Mount Zion in Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup>But the LORD All-Powerful will use his fearsome might to bring down the tallest trees and chop off every branch.

<sup>34</sup>With an axe, the glorious Lord will destroy every tree in the forests of Lebanon.

Isaiah 11

Peace at last

<sup>1</sup>Like a branch that sprouts from a stump, someone from David's family will some day be king.

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit of the LORD will be with him to give him understanding, wisdom, and insight. He will be powerful, and he will know and honour the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>His greatest joy will be to obey the LORD. This king won't judge by appearances or listen to rumours.

<sup>4</sup>The poor and the needy will be treated with fairness and with justice. His word will be law everywhere in the land, and criminals will be put to death.

<sup>5</sup>Honesty and fairness will be his royal robes.

<sup>6</sup>Leopards will lie down with young goats, and wolves will rest with lambs. Calves and lions will eat together and be cared for by little children.

<sup>7</sup>Cows and bears will share the same pasture; their young will rest side by side. Lions and oxen will both eat straw.

<sup>8</sup>Little children will play near snake holes. They will stick their hands into dens of poisonous snakes and never be hurt.

<sup>9</sup> Nothing harmful will take place on the LORD's holy mountain. Just as water fills the sea, the land will be filled with people who know and honour the LORD.

God's people will come back home

<sup>10</sup> The time is coming when one of David's descendants will be the signal for the people of all nations to come together. They will follow his advice, and his own nation will become famous.

<sup>11</sup> When that day comes, the Lord will again reach out his mighty arm and bring home his people who have survived in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Ethiopia, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the land along the coast.

<sup>12</sup> He will give a signal to the nations, and he will bring together the refugees from Judah and Israel, who have been scattered all over the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Israel will stop being jealous of Judah, and Judah will no longer be the enemy of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Instead, they will get together and attack the Philistines in the west. Then they will defeat the Edomites, the Moabites, and the Ammonites in the east. They will rule those people and take from them whatever they want.

<sup>15</sup> The Lord will dry up the arm of the Red Sea near Egypt, and he will send a scorching wind to divide the River Euphrates into seven streams that anyone can step across.

<sup>16</sup> Then for his people who survive, there will be a good road from Assyria, just as there was a good road for their ancestors when they left Egypt.

Isaiah 12

A song of praise

<sup>1</sup> At that time you will say, "I thank you, LORD! You were angry with me, but you stopped being angry and gave me comfort.

<sup>2</sup> I trust you to save me, LORD God, and I won't be afraid. My power and my strength come from you, and you have saved me."

<sup>3</sup>With great joy, you people will get water from the well of victory.

<sup>4</sup>At that time you will say, “Our LORD, we are thankful, and we worship only you. We will tell the nations how glorious you are and what you have done.

<sup>5</sup>Because of your wonderful deeds we will sing your praises everywhere on earth.”

<sup>6</sup>Sing, people of Zion! Celebrate the greatness of the holy LORD of Israel. God is here to help you.

Isaiah 13

God will punish other nations Babylon will be punished

<sup>1</sup>This is the message that I was given about Babylon:

<sup>2</sup>From high on a barren hill give a signal, shout the orders, and point the way to enter the gates of Babylon's proud rulers.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD has commanded his very best warriors and his proud heroes to show how angry he is.

<sup>4</sup>Listen to the noisy crowds on the mountains! Kingdoms and nations are joining forces. The LORD All-Powerful is bringing together an army for battle.

<sup>5</sup>From a distant land the LORD is coming fierce and furious— he brings his weapons to destroy the earth.

<sup>6</sup>Cry and weep! The day is coming when the mighty LORD will bring destruction.

<sup>7-8</sup>All people will be terrified. Hands will grow limp; courage will melt away. Everyone will tremble with pain like a woman giving birth; they will stare at each other with horror on their faces.

There will be no mercy

<sup>9</sup>I, the LORD, will show no mercy or pity when that time comes. In my anger I will destroy the earth and every sinner who lives on it.

<sup>10</sup>Light will disappear from the stars in the sky; the dawning sun will turn dark, and the moon will lose its glow.

<sup>11</sup>I will punish this evil world and its people because of their sins. I will crush the horrible pride of those who are cruel.

<sup>12</sup>Survivors will be harder to find than the purest gold.

<sup>13</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, am terribly angry— I will make the sky tremble and the earth shake loose.

<sup>14</sup>Everyone will run to their homelands, just as hunted deer run, and sheep scatter when they have no shepherd.

<sup>15</sup>Those who are captured will be killed by a sword.

<sup>16</sup>They will see their children beaten against rocks, their homes robbed, and their wives abused.

<sup>17</sup>The Medes can't be bought off with silver or gold, and I'm sending them to attack Babylonia.

<sup>18</sup>Their arrows will slaughter the young men; no pity will be shown to babies and children.

The LORD will destroy Babylon

<sup>19</sup>The city of Babylon is glorious and powerful, the pride of the nation. But it will be like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah after I, the Lord, destroyed them.

<sup>20</sup>No one will live in Babylon. Even nomads won't camp nearby, and shepherds won't let their sheep rest there.

<sup>21</sup>Only desert creatures, owls, and ostriches will live in its ruins, and goats will leap about.

<sup>22</sup>Hyenas and wolves will howl from Babylon's fortresses and beautiful palaces. Its time is almost up!

Isaiah 14

The LORD's people will come home

<sup>1</sup>The LORD will have mercy on Israel and will let them be his chosen people once again. He will bring them back to their own land, and foreigners will join them as part of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Other nations will lead them home, and Israel will make slaves of them in the land that belongs to the Lord. Israel will rule over those who once governed and ill-treated them.

Death to the king of Babylonia!

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will set you free from your sorrow, suffering, and slavery.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will make fun of the king of Babylonia by singing this song: That cruel monster is done for! He won't attack us again.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD has crushed the power of those evil kings,

<sup>6</sup>who were furious and never stopped abusing the people of other nations.

<sup>7</sup>Now all the world is at peace; its people are celebrating with joyful songs.

<sup>8</sup>King of Babylonia, even the cypress trees and the cedars of Lebanon celebrate and say, "Since you were put down, no one comes along to chop us down."

<sup>9</sup>The world of the dead eagerly waits for you. With great excitement, the spirits of ancient rulers hear about your coming.

<sup>10</sup>Each one of them will say, "Now you are just as weak as any of us!"

<sup>11</sup>Your pride and your music have ended here in the world of the dead. Worms are your blanket, maggots are your bed."

<sup>12</sup>You, the bright morning star, have fallen from the sky! You brought down other nations; now you are brought down.

<sup>13</sup>You said to yourself, "I'll climb to heaven and place my throne above the highest stars. I'll sit there with the gods far away in the north.

<sup>14</sup>I'll be above the clouds, just like God Most High."

<sup>15</sup>But now you are deep in the world of the dead.

<sup>16</sup>Those who see you will stare and wonder, “Is this the man who made the world tremble and shook up kingdoms?”

<sup>17</sup>Did he capture every city and make earth a desert? Is he the one who refused to let prisoners go home?”

<sup>18</sup>When kings die, they are buried in glorious tombs.

<sup>19</sup>But you will be left unburied, just another dead body lying underfoot like a broken branch. You will be one of many killed in battle and gone down to the deep rocky pit.

<sup>20</sup>You won't be buried with kings; you ruined your country and murdered your people. You evil monster! We hope that your family will be forgotten for ever.

<sup>21</sup>We will slaughter your sons to make them pay for the crimes of their ancestors. They won't take over the world or build cities anywhere on this earth.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has promised to attack Babylonia and destroy everyone there, so that none of them will ever be remembered again.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD will sweep out the people, and the land will become a swamp for wild animals.

Assyria will be punished

<sup>24</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has made this promise: Everything I have planned will happen just as I said.

<sup>25</sup>I will wipe out every Assyrian in my country, and I will crush those on my mountains. I will free my people from slavery to the Assyrians.

<sup>26</sup>I have planned this for the whole world, and my mighty arm controls every nation.

<sup>27</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, have made these plans. No one can stop me now!

The Philistines will be punished

<sup>28</sup>This message came from the LORD in the year King Ahaz died:

<sup>29</sup>Philistines, don't be happy just because the rod that punished you is broken. That rod will become a poisonous snake, and then a flying fiery dragon.

<sup>30</sup>The poor and needy will find pastures for their sheep and will live in safety. But I will starve some of you, and others will be killed.

<sup>31</sup>Cry and weep in the gates of your towns, you Philistines! Smoke blows in from the north, and every soldier is ready.

<sup>32</sup>If a messenger comes from a distant nation, you must say: "The LORD built Zion. Even the poorest of his people will find safety there."

Isaiah 15

Moab will be punished

<sup>1</sup>This is a message about Moab: The towns of Ar and Kir were destroyed in a night. Moab is left in ruins!

<sup>2</sup>Everyone in Dibon has gone up to the temple and the shrines to cry and weep. All of Moab is crying. Heads and beards are shaved because of what happened at Nebo and Medeba.

<sup>3</sup>In the towns and at home, everyone wears sackcloth and cries loud and long.

<sup>4</sup>From Heshbon and Elealeh, weeping is heard in Jahaz; Moab's warriors scream while trembling with fear.

Pity Moab

<sup>5</sup>I pity Moab! Its people are running to Zoar and to Eglath-Shelishiyah. They cry on their way up to the town of Luhith; on the road to Horonaim they tell of disasters.

<sup>6</sup>The streams of Nimrim and the grasslands have dried up. Every plant is parched.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Moab are leaving, crossing over Willow Brook, taking everything they own and have worked for.

<sup>8</sup>In the towns of Eglaim and of Beerelim and everywhere else in Moab mournful cries are heard.

<sup>9</sup>The streams near Dimon are flowing with blood. But the Lord will bring even worse trouble to Dimon, because all in Moab who escape will be attacked by lions.

Isaiah 16

More troubles for Moab

<sup>1</sup>Send lambs as gifts to the ruler of the land. Send them across the desert from Sela to Mount Zion.

<sup>2</sup>The women of Moab crossing the River Arnon are like a flock of birds scattered from their nests.

<sup>3</sup>Moab's messengers say to the people of Judah, "Be kind and help us! Shade us from the heat of the noonday sun. Hide our refugees! Don't turn them away.

<sup>4</sup>Let our people live in your country and find safety here." Moab, your cruel enemies will disappear; they will no longer attack and destroy your land.

<sup>5</sup>Then a kingdom of love will be set up, and someone from David's family will rule with fairness. He will do what is right and quickly bring justice.

Moab's pride is destroyed

<sup>6</sup>We have heard of Moab's pride. Its people strut and boast, but without reason.

<sup>7</sup>Tell everyone in Moab to mourn for their nation. Tell them to cry and weep for those fine raisins of Kir-Hareseth.

<sup>8</sup>Vineyards near Heshbon and Sibmah have turned brown. The rulers of nations used to get drunk on wine from those vineyards that spread to Jazer, then across the desert and beyond the sea.

<sup>9</sup>Now I mourn like Jazer for the vineyards of Sibmah. I shed tears for Heshbon and for Elealeh. There will be no more harvest celebrations

<sup>10</sup>or joyful and happy times, while bringing in the crops. Singing and shouting are gone from the vineyards. There are no joyful shouts where grapes were pressed. God has silenced them all.

<sup>11</sup>Deep in my heart I suffer for Moab and Kir-Heres.

<sup>12</sup>It's useless for Moab's people to wear themselves out by going to their altars to worship and pray.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD has already said all this about Moab.

<sup>14</sup>Now he says, "The contract of a hired worker is good for three years, but Moab's glory and greatness won't last any longer than that. Only a few of its people will survive, and they will be left helpless."

Isaiah 17

Damascus will be punished

<sup>1</sup>This is a message about Damascus: Damascus is doomed! It will end up in ruins.

<sup>2</sup>The villages around Aroer will be deserted, with only sheep living there and no one to bother them.

<sup>3</sup>Israel will lose its fortresses. The kingdom of Damascus will be destroyed; its survivors will suffer the same fate as Israel. The LORD All-Powerful has promised this.

Sin and suffering

<sup>4</sup>When that time comes, the glorious nation of Israel will be brought down; its prosperous people will be skin and bones.

<sup>5</sup>Israel will be like wheat fields in Rephaim Valley picked clean of grain.

<sup>6</sup>It will be like an olive tree beaten with a stick, leaving two or three olives or perhaps four or five on the highest or most fruitful branches. The LORD God of Israel has promised this.

<sup>7</sup>At that time the people will turn and trust their Creator, the holy God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>They have built altars and places for burning incense to their goddess Asherah, and they have set up sacred poles for her. But they will stop worshipping at these places.

<sup>9</sup>Israel captured powerful cities and chased out the people who lived there. But these cities will lie in ruins, covered over with weeds and undergrowth.

<sup>10</sup>Israel, you have forgotten the God who saves you, the one who is the mighty rock where you find protection. You plant the finest flowers to honour a foreign god.

<sup>11</sup>The plants may sprout and blossom that very same morning, but it will do you no good, because you will suffer endless agony.

God defends his people

<sup>12</sup>The nations are a noisy, thunderous sea.

<sup>13</sup>But even if they roar like a fearsome flood, God will give the command to turn them back. They will be like dust, or like straw blowing across the hills in a storm.

<sup>14</sup>In the evening their attack is fierce, but by morning they are destroyed. This is what happens to those who raid and rob us.

Isaiah 18

Ethiopia will be punished

<sup>1</sup>Downstream from Ethiopia lies the country of Egypt, swarming with insects.

<sup>2</sup>Egypt sends messengers up the River Nile on ships made of reeds. Send them fast to Ethiopia, whose people are tall and have smooth skin. Their land is divided by rivers; they are strong and brutal, feared all over the world.

<sup>3</sup>Everyone on this earth, listen with care! A signal will be given on the mountains, and you will hear a trumpet.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said to me, “I will calmly look down from my home above— as calmly as the sun at midday or clouds in the heat of harvest season.”

<sup>5</sup>Before the blossoms can turn into grapes, God will cut off the shoots and hack off the branches.

<sup>6</sup>Ethiopians will be food for mountain eagles during the summer and for wild animals during the winter.

<sup>7</sup>Those Ethiopians are tall and their skin is smooth. They are feared all over the world, because they are strong and brutal. But at that time they will come from their land divided by rivers, and they will bring gifts to the LORD All-Powerful, who is worshipped on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19

Egypt will be punished

<sup>1</sup>This is a message about Egypt: The LORD comes to Egypt, riding swiftly on a cloud. The people are weak from fear. Their idols tremble as he approaches and says, <sup>2</sup>“I will punish Egypt with civil war— neighbours, cities, and kingdoms will fight each other.

<sup>3</sup>“Egypt will be discouraged when I confuse their plans. They will try to get advice from their idols, from the spirits of the dead, and from fortune-tellers.

<sup>4</sup>I will put the Egyptians under the power of a cruel, heartless king. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have promised this.”

Trouble along the Nile

<sup>5</sup>The River Nile will dry up and become parched land.

<sup>6</sup>Its streams will stink, Egypt will have no water, and the reeds and tall grass will dry up.

<sup>7</sup>Fields along the Nile will be completely barren; every plant will disappear.

<sup>8</sup>Those who fish in the Nile will be discouraged and mourn.

<sup>9</sup>None of the cloth makers will know what to do, and they will turn pale.

<sup>10</sup>Weavers will be confused; paid workers will cry and mourn.

Egypt's helpless leaders

<sup>11</sup>The king's officials in Zoan are foolish themselves and give stupid advice. How can they say to him, “We are very wise, and our families go back to kings of long ago”?

<sup>12</sup>Where are those wise men now? If they can, let them say what the LORD All-Powerful intends for Egypt.

<sup>13</sup>The royal officials in Zoan and in Memphis are foolish and deceived. The leaders in every state have given bad advice to the nation.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD has confused Egypt; its leaders have made it stagger and vomit like a drunkard.

<sup>15</sup>No one in Egypt can do a thing, no matter who they are.

<sup>16</sup>When the LORD All-Powerful punishes Egypt with his mighty arm, the Egyptians will become terribly weak and will tremble with fear.

<sup>17</sup>They will be so terrified of Judah that they will be frightened by the very mention of its name. This will happen because of what the LORD All-Powerful is planning against Egypt.

The LORD will bless Egypt, Assyria, and Israel

<sup>18</sup>The time is coming when Hebrew will be spoken in five Egyptian cities, and their people will become followers of the LORD. One of these cities will be called City of the Sun.

<sup>19</sup>In the heart of Egypt an altar will be set up for the LORD; at its border a shrine will be built to honour him.

<sup>20</sup>These will remind the Egyptians that the LORD All-Powerful is with them. And when they are in trouble and ask for help, he will send someone to rescue them from their enemies.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will show the Egyptians who he is, and they will know and worship the LORD. They will bring him sacrifices and offerings, and they will keep their promises to him.

<sup>22</sup>After the LORD has punished Egypt, the people will turn to him. Then he will answer their prayers, and the Egyptians will be healed.

<sup>23</sup>At that time a good road will run from Egypt to Assyria. The Egyptians and the Assyrians will travel back and forth from Egypt to Assyria, and they will worship together.

<sup>24</sup>Israel will join with these two countries. They will be a blessing to everyone on earth,

<sup>25</sup>then the LORD All-Powerful will bless them by saying, “The Egyptians are my people. I created the Assyrians and chose the Israelites.”

Isaiah 20

Isaiah acts out the defeat of Egypt and Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup>King Sargon of Assyria gave orders for his army commander to capture the city of Ashdod.

<sup>2</sup>About this same time the LORD had told me, “Isaiah, take off everything, including your sandals!” I did this and went around naked and barefoot

<sup>3</sup>for three years. Then the LORD said: What Isaiah has done is a warning to Egypt and Ethiopia.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone in these two countries will be led away naked and barefoot by the king of Assyria. Young or old, they will be taken prisoner, and Egypt will be disgraced.

<sup>5</sup>They will be confused and frustrated, because they depended on Ethiopia and boasted about Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>When this happens, the people who live along the coast will say, “Look what happened to them! We ran to them for safety, hoping they would protect us from the king of Assyria. But now, there is no escape for us.”

Isaiah 21

The fall of Babylonia

<sup>1</sup>This is a message about a desert beside the sea: Enemies from a hostile nation attack like a whirlwind from the Southern Desert.

<sup>2</sup>What a horrible vision was shown to me— a vision of betrayal and destruction. Tell Elam and Media to surround and attack the Babylonians. The LORD has sworn to end the suffering they caused.

<sup>3</sup>I'm in terrible pain like a woman giving birth. I'm shocked and hurt so much that I can't hear or see.

<sup>4</sup>My head spins; I'm horrified! Early evening, my favourite time, has become a nightmare.

<sup>5</sup>In Babylon the high officials were having a feast. They were eating and drinking, when someone shouted, “Officers, take your places! Grab your shields.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said to me, “Send guards to find out what's going on.

<sup>7</sup>When they see cavalry troops and columns of soldiers on donkeys and camels, tell them to be ready!”

<sup>8</sup>Then a guard said, “I have stood day and night on this watchtower, Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Now I see column after column of cavalry troops.” Straight away someone shouted, “Babylon has fallen! Every idol in the city lies broken on the ground.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I said, “My people, you have suffered terribly, but I have a message for you from the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel.”

How much longer?

<sup>11</sup>This is a message about Dumah: From the country of Seir, someone shouts to me, “Guard, how much longer before daylight?”

<sup>12</sup>From my guard post, I answered, “Morning will soon be here, but night will return. If you want to know more, come back later.”

<sup>13</sup>This is a message for Arabs who live in the barren desert in the region of Dedan: You must order your caravans

<sup>14</sup>to bring water for those who are thirsty. You people of Tema must bring food for the hungry refugees.

<sup>15</sup>They are worn out and weary from being chased by enemies with swords and arrows.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to me: A year from now the glory of the people of Kedar will all come to an end, just as a worker's contract ends after a year.

<sup>17</sup>Only a few of their warriors will be left with bows and arrows. This is a promise that I, the LORD God of Israel, have made.

Isaiah 22

Trouble in Vision Valley

<sup>1</sup>This is a message about Vision Valley: Why are you celebrating on the flat roofs of your houses?

<sup>2</sup>Your city is filled with noisy shouts. Those who lie drunk in your streets were not killed in battle.

<sup>3</sup>Your leaders ran away, but they were captured without a fight. No matter how far they ran, they were found and caught.

<sup>4</sup>Then I said, "Leave me alone! Let me cry bitter tears. My people have been destroyed, so don't try to comfort me."

<sup>5</sup>The LORD All-Powerful had chosen a time for noisy shouts and confusion to fill Vision Valley, and for everyone to beg the mountains for help.

<sup>6</sup>The people of Elam and Kir attacked with chariots and carried shields.

<sup>7</sup>Your most beautiful valleys were covered with chariots; your cities were surrounded by cavalry troops.

<sup>8</sup>Judah was left defenceless. At that time you trusted in the weapons you had stored in Forest Palace.

<sup>9</sup>You saw the holes in the outer wall of Jerusalem, and you brought water from the lower pool.

<sup>10</sup>You counted the houses in Jerusalem and tore down some of them, so you could get stones to repair the city wall.

<sup>11</sup>Then you built a large tank between the walls to store the water. But you refused to trust the God who planned this long ago and made it happen.

A time to weep

<sup>12</sup>When all this happened, the LORD All-Powerful told you to weep and mourn, to shave your heads, and wear sackcloth.

<sup>13</sup>But instead, you celebrated by feasting on beef and lamb and by drinking wine, because you said, "Let's eat and drink! Tomorrow we may die."

<sup>14</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has spoken to me this solemn promise: "I won't forgive them for this, not as long as they live."

Selfish officials are doomed

<sup>15</sup>The LORD All-Powerful is sending you with this message for Shebna, the prime minister:

<sup>16</sup>Shebna, what gives you the right to have a tomb carved out of rock in this burial place of royalty? None of your relatives are buried here.

<sup>17</sup>You may be powerful, but the LORD is about to snatch you up and throw you away.

<sup>18</sup>He will roll you into a ball and throw you into a wide open country, where you will die and your chariots will be destroyed. You're a disgrace to those you serve.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD is going to take away your job!

<sup>20-21</sup>He will give your official robes and your authority to his servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah. Eliakim will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and to the royal family of Judah.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD will put him in charge of the key that belongs to King David's family. No one will be able to unlock what he locks, and no one will be able to lock what he unlocks.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD will make him as firm in his position as a tent peg hammered in the ground, and Eliakim will bring honour to his family.

<sup>24</sup>His children and relatives will be supported by him, like pans hanging from a peg on the wall.

<sup>25</sup>That peg is fastened firmly now, but some day it will be shaken loose and fall down. Then everything that was hanging on it will be destroyed. This is what the LORD All-Powerful has promised.

Isaiah 23

The city of Tyre will be punished

<sup>1</sup>This is a message from distant islands about the city of Tyre: Cry, you seagoing ships! Tyre and its houses lie in ruins.

<sup>2</sup>Mourn in silence, you shop owners of Sidon, you people on the coast. Your sailors crossed oceans, making your city rich.

<sup>3</sup>Your merchants sailed the seas, making you wealthy by trading with nation after nation. They brought back grain that grew along the Nile.

<sup>4</sup>Sidon, you are a mighty fortress built along the sea. But you will be disgraced like a married woman who never had children.

<sup>5</sup>When Egypt hears about Tyre, it will tremble.

<sup>6</sup>All of you along the coast had better cry and sail far across the ocean.

<sup>7</sup>Can this be the happy city that has stood for centuries? Its people have spread to distant lands;

<sup>8</sup>its merchants were kings honoured all over the world. Who planned to destroy Tyre?

<sup>9</sup>The LORD All-Powerful planned it to bring shame and disgrace to those who are honoured by everyone on earth.

<sup>10</sup>People of Tyre, your harbour is destroyed! You will have to become farmers just like the Egyptians.

Tyre will be forgotten

- <sup>11</sup>The LORD's hand has reached across the sea, upsetting the nations. He has given a command to destroy fortresses in the land of Canaan.
- <sup>12</sup>The LORD has said to the people of Sidon, “Your celebrating is over— you are crushed. Even if you escape to Cyprus, you won't find peace.”
- <sup>13</sup>Look what the Assyrians have done to Babylonia! They have attacked, destroying every palace in the land. Now wild animals live among the ruins.
- <sup>14</sup>Not a fortress will be left standing, so tell all the seagoing ships to mourn.
- <sup>15</sup>The city of Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, which is the lifetime of a king. Then Tyre will be like that evil woman in the song:
- <sup>16</sup>You're gone and forgotten, you evil woman! So strut through the town, singing and playing your favourite tune to be remembered again.
- <sup>17</sup>At the end of those seventy years, the LORD will let Tyre get back into business. The city will be like a woman who sells her body to everyone of every nation on earth,
- <sup>18</sup>but none of what is earned will be kept in the city. That money will belong to the LORD, and it will be used to buy more than enough food and good clothes for those who worship the LORD.

Isaiah 24

Messages of hope for the Lord's people who are suffering The earth will be punished

- <sup>1</sup>The LORD is going to twist the earth out of shape and turn it into a desert. Everyone will be scattered,
- <sup>2</sup>including ordinary people and priests, slaves and slave owners, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, the rich and the poor.
- <sup>3</sup>The earth will be stripped bare and left that way. This is what the LORD has promised.
- <sup>4</sup>The earth wilts away; its mighty leaders melt to nothing.

<sup>5</sup>The earth is polluted because its people disobeyed the laws of God, breaking their agreement that was to last for ever.

<sup>6</sup>The earth is under a curse; its people are dying out because of their sins.

<sup>7</sup>Grapevines have dried up: wine is almost gone— mournful sounds are heard instead of joyful shouts.

<sup>8</sup>No one plays tambourines or stringed instruments; all noisy celebrating has come to an end.

<sup>9</sup>They no longer sing as they drink their wine, and it tastes sour.

<sup>10</sup>Towns are crushed and in chaos; houses are locked tight.

<sup>11</sup>Happy times have disappeared from the earth, and people shout in the streets, “We're out of wine!”

<sup>12</sup>Cities are destroyed; their gates are torn down.

<sup>13</sup>Nations will be stripped bare, like olive trees or vineyards after the harvest season.

Praise the God of justice

<sup>14</sup>People in the west shout; they joyfully praise the majesty of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And so, everyone in the east and those on the islands should praise the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>From all over the world songs of praise are heard for the God of justice. But I feel awful, terribly miserable. Can anyone be trusted? So many are treacherous!

There's no escape

<sup>17</sup>Terror, traps, and pits are waiting for everyone.

<sup>18</sup>If you are terrified and run, you will fall into a pit; if you crawl out of the pit, you will get caught in a trap. The sky has split apart like a window thrown open. The foundations of the earth have been shaken;

<sup>19</sup>the earth is shattered, ripped to pieces.

<sup>20</sup>It staggers and shakes like a drunkard or a hut in a storm. It is burdened down with sin; the earth will fall, never again to get up.

<sup>21</sup>On that day the LORD will punish the powers in the heavens and the kings of the earth.

<sup>22</sup>He will put them in a pit and keep them prisoner. Then later on, he will punish them.

<sup>23</sup>The moon and sun will both be embarrassed and ashamed. The LORD All-Powerful will rule on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, where he will show its rulers his wonderful glory.

Isaiah 25

A prayer of thanks to God

<sup>1</sup>You, LORD, are my God! I will praise you for doing the wonderful things you had planned and promised since ancient times.

<sup>2</sup>You have destroyed the fortress of our enemies, leaving their city in ruins. Nothing in that foreign city will ever be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup>Now strong and cruel nations will fear and honour you.

<sup>4</sup>You have been a place of safety for the poor and needy in times of trouble. Brutal enemies pounded us like a heavy rain or the heat of the sun at midday, but you were our shelter.

<sup>5</sup>Those wild foreigners struck like scorching desert heat. But you were like a cloud, protecting us from the sun. You kept our enemies from singing songs of victory.

The LORD has saved us

<sup>6</sup>On this mountain the LORD All-Powerful will prepare for all nations a feast of the finest foods. Choice wines and the best meats will be served.

<sup>7</sup>Here the LORD will strip away the burial clothes that cover the nations.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD All-Powerful will destroy the power of death and wipe away all tears. No longer will his people be insulted everywhere. The LORD has spoken!

<sup>9</sup>At that time, people will say, “The LORD has saved us! Let’s celebrate. We waited and hoped— now our God is here.”

<sup>10</sup>The powerful arm of the LORD will protect this mountain. The Moabites will be put down and trampled on like straw in a pit of manure.

<sup>11</sup>They will struggle to get out, but God will humiliate them no matter how hard they try.

<sup>12</sup>The walls of their fortresses will be knocked down and scattered in the dust.

Isaiah 26

A song of victory

<sup>1</sup>The time is coming when the people of Judah will sing this song: “Our city is protected. The LORD is our fortress, and he gives us victory.

<sup>2</sup>Open the city gates for a law-abiding nation that is faithful to God.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD gives perfect peace to those whose faith is firm.

<sup>4</sup>So always trust the LORD because he is for ever our mighty rock.

<sup>5</sup>God has put down our enemies in their mountain city and rubbed it in the dust.

<sup>6</sup>Now the poor and abused trample all over that city.”

The LORD can be trusted

<sup>7</sup>Our LORD, you always do right, and you make the path smooth for those who obey you.

<sup>8</sup>You are the one we trust to bring about justice; above all else we want your name to be honoured.

<sup>9</sup>Throughout the night, my heart searches for you, because your decisions show everyone on this earth how to live right.

<sup>10</sup>Even when the wicked are treated with mercy in this land of justice, they do wrong and are blind to your glory, our LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Your hand is raised and ready to punish them, but they don't see it. Put them to shame! Show how much you care for us and throw them into the fire intended for your enemies.

<sup>12</sup>You will give us peace, LORD, because everything we have done was by your power.

<sup>13</sup>Others have ruled over us besides you, our LORD God, but we obey only you.

<sup>14</sup>Those enemies are now dead and can never live again. You have punished them— they are destroyed, completely forgotten.

<sup>15</sup>Our nation has grown because of you, our LORD. We have more land than before, and you are honoured.

The LORD gives life to the dead

<sup>16</sup>When you punished our people, they turned and prayed to you, our LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Because of what you did to us, we suffered like a woman about to give birth.

<sup>18</sup>But instead of having a child, our terrible pain produced only wind. We have won no victories, and we have no descendants to take over the earth.

<sup>19</sup>Your people will rise to life! Tell them to leave their graves and celebrate with shouts. You refresh the earth like morning dew; you give life to the dead.

<sup>20</sup>Go inside and lock the doors, my people. Hide there for a little while, until the LORD is no longer angry.

The earth and the sea will be punished

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will come out to punish everyone on earth for their sins. And when he does, those who did violent crimes will be known and punished.

Isaiah 27

<sup>1</sup> On that day, Leviathan, the sea monster, will squirm and try to escape, but the LORD will kill him with a cruel, sharp sword.

Protection and forgiveness

The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup> At that time you must sing about a fruitful vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> I, the LORD, will protect it and always keep it watered. I will guard it day and night to keep it from harm.

<sup>4</sup> I am no longer angry. But if it produces thorns, I will go to war against it and burn it to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Yet if the vineyard depends on me for protection, it will become my friend and be at peace with me.

<sup>6</sup> Some day Israel will take root like a vine. It will blossom and bear fruit that covers the earth.

<sup>7</sup> I, the LORD, didn't punish and kill the people of Israel as fiercely as I punished and killed their enemies.

<sup>8</sup> I carefully measured out Israel's punishment and sent the scorching heat to chase them far away.

<sup>9</sup> There's only one way that Israel's sin and guilt can be completely forgiven: they must crush the stones of every pagan altar and place of worship.

The LORD will bring his people together

<sup>10</sup> Fortress cities are left like a desert where no one lives. Cattle walk through the ruins, stripping the trees bare.

<sup>11</sup> When broken branches fall to the ground, women pick them up to feed the fire. But these people are so stupid that the God who created them will show them no mercy.

<sup>12</sup> The time is coming when the LORD will shake the land between the River Euphrates and the border of Egypt, and one by one he will bring all his people together.

<sup>13</sup>A loud trumpet will be heard. Then the people of Israel who were dragged away to Assyria and Egypt will return to worship the LORD on his holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

The Lord will punish his rebellious people Samaria will be punished

<sup>1</sup>The city of Samaria above a fertile valley is in for trouble! Its leaders are drunkards, who stuff themselves with food and wine. But they will be like flowers that dry up and wilt.

<sup>2</sup>Only the Lord is strong and powerful! His mighty hand will strike them down with the force of a hailstorm or a mighty whirlwind or an overwhelming flood.

<sup>3</sup>Every drunkard in Ephraim takes pride in Samaria, but it will be crushed.

<sup>4</sup>Samaria above a fertile valley will quickly lose its glory. It will be gobbled up like the first ripe fig at harvest season.

<sup>5</sup>When this time comes, the LORD All-Powerful will be a glorious crown for his people who survive.

<sup>6</sup>He will see that justice rules and that his people are able to defend their cities.

Corrupt leaders will be punished

<sup>7</sup>Priests and prophets stumble because they are drunk. Their minds are too confused to receive God's messages or give honest decisions.

<sup>8</sup>Their tables are covered, completely covered, with their stinking vomit.

<sup>9</sup>You drunken leaders are like babies! How can you possibly understand or teach the LORD's message?

<sup>10</sup>You don't even listen— all you hear is senseless sound after senseless sound.

<sup>11</sup>So, the Lord will speak to his people in strange sounds and foreign languages.

<sup>12</sup>He promised you perfect peace and rest, but you refused to listen.

<sup>13</sup>Now his message to you will be senseless sound after senseless sound. Then you will fall backwards, injured and trapped.

False security is fatal

<sup>14</sup>You rulers of Jerusalem do nothing but sneer; now you must listen to what the LORD says.

<sup>15</sup>Do you think you have an agreement with death and the world of the dead? Why do you trust in your lies to keep you safe from danger and the mighty flood?

<sup>16</sup>And so the LORD says, “I’m laying a firm foundation for the city of Zion. It’s a valuable cornerstone proved to be trustworthy; no one who trusts it will ever be disappointed.

<sup>17</sup>Justice and fairness will be the measuring lines that help me build.” Hailstones and floods will destroy and wash away your shelter of lies.

<sup>18</sup>Your agreement with death and the world of the dead will be broken. Then angry, roaring waves will sweep over you.

<sup>19</sup>Morning, noon, and night an overwhelming flood will wash you away. The terrible things that happen will teach you this lesson:

<sup>20</sup>your bed is too short, your blanket too skimpy.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will fiercely attack as he did at Mount Perazim and in Gibeon Valley. But this time the LORD will do something surprising, not what you expect.

<sup>22</sup>So you had better stop sneering or you will be in worse shape than ever before. I heard the LORD All-Powerful threaten the whole country with destruction.

All wisdom comes from the LORD

<sup>23</sup>Pay close attention to what I am saying.

<sup>24</sup>Farmers don't just plough and break up the ground.

<sup>25</sup>When a field is ready, they scatter the seeds of dill and cumin; they plant the seeds of wheat and barley in the proper places.

<sup>26</sup>They learn this from their God.

<sup>27</sup>After dill and cumin have been harvested, the stalks are beaten, not run over with a wagon.

<sup>28</sup>Wheat and barley are pounded, but not beaten to pulp; they are run over with a wagon, but not ground to dust.

<sup>29</sup>This wonderful knowledge comes from the LORD All-Powerful, who has such great wisdom.

Isaiah 29

Jerusalem will suffer

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, city of David, the place of my altar, you are in for trouble! Celebrate your festivals year after year.

<sup>2</sup>I will still make you suffer, and your people will cry when I make an altar of you.

<sup>3</sup>I will surround you and prepare to attack from all sides.

<sup>4</sup>From deep in the earth, you will call out for help with only a faint whisper.

<sup>5</sup>Then your cruel enemies will suddenly be swept away like dust in a storm.

<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, will come to your rescue with a thundering earthquake and a fiery whirlwind.

<sup>7</sup>Every brutal nation that attacks Jerusalem and makes it suffer will disappear like a dream when night is over.

<sup>8</sup>Those nations that attack Mount Zion will suffer from hunger and thirst. They will dream of food and drink but wake up weary and hungry and thirsty as ever.

Prophets who fool themselves

<sup>9</sup>Be shocked and stunned, you prophets! Refuse to see. Get drunk and stagger, but not from wine.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has made you drowsy; he put you into a deep sleep and covered your head.

<sup>11</sup>Now his message is like a sealed letter to you. Some of you say, “We can't read it, because it's sealed.”

<sup>12</sup>Others say, “We can't read it, because we don't know how to read.”

<sup>13</sup>The Lord has said: “These people praise me with their words, but they never really think about me. They worship me by repeating rules made up by humans.

<sup>14</sup>So once again I will do things that shock and amaze them, and I will destroy the wisdom of those who claim to know and understand.”

<sup>15</sup>You are in for trouble, if you try to hide your plans from the LORD! Or if you think what you do in the dark can't be seen.

<sup>16</sup>You have it all backwards. A clay dish doesn't say to the potter, “You didn't make me. You don't even know how.”

Hope for the future

<sup>17</sup>Soon the forest of Lebanon will become a field with crops, thick as a forest.

<sup>18</sup>The deaf will be able to hear whatever is read to them; the blind will be freed from a life of darkness.

<sup>19</sup>The poor and the needy will celebrate and shout because of the LORD, the holy God of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>All who are cruel and arrogant will be gone for ever. Those who live by crime will disappear,

<sup>21</sup>together with everyone who tells lies in court and keeps innocent people from getting a fair trial.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD who rescued Abraham has this to say about Jacob's descendants: “They will no longer be ashamed and disgraced.

<sup>23</sup>When they see how great I have made their nation, they will praise and honour me, the holy God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Everyone who is confused will understand, and all who have complained will obey my teaching.”

Isaiah 30

Don't expect help from Egypt

<sup>1</sup>This is the LORD's message for his rebellious people: “You follow your own plans instead of mine; you make treaties without asking me, and you keep on sinning.

<sup>2</sup>You trust Egypt for protection. So you refuse my advice and send messengers to Egypt to beg their king for help.

<sup>3</sup>“You will be disappointed, completely disgraced for trusting Egypt.

<sup>4</sup>The king's power reaches from the city of Zoan as far south as Hanes.

<sup>5</sup>But Egypt can't protect you, and to trust that nation is useless and foolish.”

<sup>6</sup>This is a message about the animals of the Southern Desert: you people carry treasures on donkeys and camels. You travel to a feeble nation through a troublesome desert filled with lions and flying fiery dragons.

<sup>7</sup>Egypt can't help you! That's why I call that nation a helpless monster.

Israel refuses to listen

<sup>8</sup>The LORD told me to write down his message for his people, so that it would be there for ever.

<sup>9</sup>They have turned against the LORD and can't be trusted. They have refused his teaching

<sup>10</sup>and have said to his messengers and prophets: Don't tell us what God has shown you and don't preach the truth. Just say what we want to hear, even if it's false.

<sup>11</sup>Stop telling us what God has said! We don't want to hear any more about the holy God of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>Now this is the answer of the holy God of Israel: “You rejected my message, and you trust in violence and lies.

<sup>13</sup>This sin is like a crack that makes a high wall quickly crumble

<sup>14</sup>and shatter like a crushed bowl. There's not a piece left big enough to carry hot coals or to scoop up water.”

Trust the LORD

<sup>15</sup>The holy LORD God of Israel had told all of you, “I will keep you safe if you turn back to me and calm down. I will make you strong if you quietly trust me.” Then you stubbornly

<sup>16</sup>said, “No! We will safely escape on speedy horses.” But those who chase you will be even faster.

<sup>17</sup>As few as five of them, or even one, will be enough to chase a thousand of you. Finally, all that will be left will be a few survivors as lonely as a flag pole on a barren hill.

The LORD will show mercy

<sup>18</sup>The LORD God is waiting to show how kind he is and to have pity on you. The LORD always does right; he blesses those who trust him.

<sup>19</sup>People of Jerusalem, you don't need to cry any more. The Lord is kind, and as soon as he hears your cries for help, he will come.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord has given you trouble and sorrow as your food and drink. But now you will again see the Lord, your teacher, and he will guide you.

<sup>21</sup>Whether you turn to the right or to the left, you will hear a voice saying, “This is the road! Now follow it.”

<sup>22</sup>Then you will treat your idols of silver and gold like rubbish; you will throw them away like filthy rags.

<sup>23</sup>The Lord will send rain to water the seeds you have planted—your fields will produce more crops than you need, and your cattle will graze in open pastures.

<sup>24</sup>Even the oxen and donkeys that plough your fields will be fed the finest grain.

<sup>25</sup>On that day people will be slaughtered and towers destroyed, but streams of water will flow from high hills and towering mountains.

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD will bandage his people's injuries and heal the wounds he has caused. The moon will shine as bright as the sun, and the sun will shine seven times brighter than usual. It will be like the light of seven days all at once.

Assyria will be punished

<sup>27</sup>The LORD is coming from far away with his fiery anger and thick clouds of smoke. His angry words flame up like a destructive fire;

<sup>28</sup>he breathes out a flood that comes up to the neck. He sifts the nations and destroys them. Then he puts a bridle in every foreigner's mouth and leads them to doom.

<sup>29</sup>The LORD's people will sing as they do when they celebrate a religious festival at night. The LORD is Israel's mighty rock, and his people will be as happy as they are when they follow the sound of flutes to the mountain where he is worshipped.

<sup>30</sup>The LORD will get furious. His fearsome voice will be heard, his arm will be seen ready to strike, and his anger will be like a destructive fire, followed by thunderstorms and hailstones.

<sup>31</sup>When the Assyrians hear the LORD's voice and see him striking with his iron rod, they will be terrified.

<sup>32</sup>He will attack them in battle, and each time he strikes them, it will be to the music of tambourines and harps.

<sup>33</sup>Long ago the LORD got a place ready for burning the body of the dead king. The place for the fire is deep and wide, the wood is piled high, and the LORD will start the fire by breathing out flaming sulphur.

Isaiah 31

Don't trust the power of Egypt

<sup>1</sup>You are in for trouble if you go to Egypt for help, or if you depend on an army of chariots or a powerful cavalry. Instead you should depend on and trust the holy LORD God of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD isn't stupid! He does what he promises, and he can bring doom. If you are cruel yourself, or help those who are evil, you will be destroyed.

<sup>3</sup>The Egyptians are mere humans. They aren't God. Their horses are made of flesh; they can't live for ever. When the LORD shows his power, he will destroy the Egyptians and all who depend on them. Together they will fall.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said to me, "I will roar and attack like a fearless lion not frightened by the shouts of shepherds trying to protect their sheep. That's how I will come down and fight on Mount Zion.

<sup>5</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, will protect Jerusalem like a mother bird circling over her nest."

Come back to the LORD

<sup>6</sup>People of Israel, come back! You have completely turned from the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>The time is coming when you will throw away your idols of silver and gold, made by your sinful hands.

<sup>8</sup>The Assyrians will be killed, but not by the swords of humans. Their young men will try to escape, but they will be captured and forced into slavery.

<sup>9</sup>Their fortress will fall when terror strikes; their army officers will be frightened and run from the battle. This is what the LORD has said, the LORD whose fiery furnace is built on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 32

The Lord will punish Edom and bless Jerusalem Justice will rule

<sup>1</sup>A king and his leaders will rule with justice.

<sup>2</sup>They will be a place of safety from stormy winds, a stream in the desert, and a rock that gives shade from the heat of the sun.

<sup>3</sup>Then everyone who has eyes will open them and see, and those who have ears will pay attention.

<sup>4</sup>All who are impatient will take time to think; everyone who stutters will talk clearly.

<sup>5</sup>Fools will no longer be highly respected, and crooks won't be given positions of honour.

<sup>6</sup>Fools talk foolishness. They always make plans to do sinful things, to lie about the LORD, to let the hungry starve, and to keep water from those who are thirsty.

<sup>7</sup>Cruel people tell lies— they do evil things, and make cruel plans to destroy the poor and needy, even when they beg for justice.

<sup>8</sup>But helpful people can always be trusted to make helpful plans.

Punishment for the women of Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>Listen to what I say, you women who are carefree and careless!

<sup>10</sup>You may not have worries now, but in about a year, the grape harvest will fail, and you will tremble.

<sup>11</sup>Shake and shudder, you women without a care! Strip off your clothes— put on sackcloth.

<sup>12</sup>Slap your breasts in sorrow because of what happened to the fruitful fields and vineyards,

<sup>13</sup>and to the happy homes in Jerusalem. The land of my people is covered with thorns.

<sup>14</sup>The palace will be deserted, the crowded city empty. Fortresses and towers will for ever become playgrounds for wild donkeys and pastures for sheep.

God's Spirit makes the difference

<sup>15</sup>When the Spirit is given to us from heaven, deserts will become orchards thick as fertile forests.

<sup>16</sup>Honesty and justice will prosper there,

<sup>17</sup>and justice will produce lasting peace and security.

<sup>18</sup>You, the LORD's people, will live in peace, calm and secure,

<sup>19</sup>even if hailstones flatten forests and cities.

<sup>20</sup>You will have God's blessing, as you plant your crops beside streams, while your donkeys and cattle roam freely about.

Isaiah 33

Jerusalem will be safe

<sup>1</sup>You defeated my people. Now you're in for trouble! You've never been destroyed, but you will be destroyed; you've never been betrayed, but you will be betrayed. When you have finished destroying and betraying, you will be destroyed and betrayed in return.

<sup>2</sup>Please, LORD, be kind to us! We depend on you. Make us strong each morning, and come to save us when we are in trouble.

<sup>3</sup>Nations scatter when you roar and show your greatness.

<sup>4</sup>We attack our enemies like swarms of locusts; we take everything that belongs to them.

<sup>5</sup>You, LORD, are above all others, and you live in the heavens. You have brought justice and fairness to Jerusalem;

<sup>6</sup>you are the foundation on which we stand today. You always save us and give true wisdom and knowledge. Nothing means more to us than obeying you.

The LORD will do something

<sup>7</sup>Listen! Our bravest soldiers are running through the streets, screaming for help. Our messengers hoped for peace, but came home crying.

<sup>8</sup>No one travels any more; every road is empty. Treaties are broken, and no respect is shown to any who keep promises.

<sup>9</sup>Fields are dry and barren; Mount Lebanon wilts with shame. Sharon Valley is a desert; the forests of Bashan and Carmel have lost their leaves.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD says, “Now I will do something and be greatly praised.

<sup>11</sup>Your deeds are straw that will be set on fire by your very own breath.

<sup>12</sup>You will be burnt to ashes like thorns in a fire.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone, both far and near, come, look at what I have done. See my mighty power!”

Punishment and rewards

<sup>14</sup>Those terrible sinners on Mount Zion tremble as they ask in fear, “How can we possibly live where a raging fire never stops burning?”

<sup>15</sup>But there will be rewards for those who live right and tell the truth, for those who refuse to take money by force or accept bribes, for all who hate murder and violent crimes.

<sup>16</sup>They will live in a fortress high on a rocky cliff, where they will have food and plenty of water.

The LORD is our King

<sup>17</sup>With your own eyes you will see the glorious King; you will see his kingdom reaching far and wide.

<sup>18</sup>Then you will ask yourself, “Where are those officials who terrified us and forced us to pay such heavy taxes?”

<sup>19</sup>You will never again have to see the proud people who spoke a strange and foreign language you could not understand.

<sup>20</sup>Look to Mount Zion where we celebrate our religious festivals. You will see Jerusalem, secure as a tent with pegs that cannot be pulled up and fastened with ropes that can never be broken.

<sup>21</sup>Our wonderful LORD will be with us! There will be deep rivers and wide streams safe from enemy ships.

The LORD is our judge

<sup>22</sup>The LORD is our judge and our ruler; the LORD is our king and will keep us safe.

<sup>23</sup>But your nation is a ship with its rigging loose, its mast shaky, and its sail not spread. Some day even you who are lame will take everything you want from your enemies.

<sup>24</sup>The LORD will forgive your sins, and none of you will say, “I feel ill.”

Isaiah 34

The nations will be judged

<sup>1</sup>Everyone of every nation, the entire earth, and all its creatures, come here and listen!

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is terribly angry with the nations; he has condemned them to be slaughtered.

<sup>3</sup>Their dead bodies will be left to rot and stink; their blood will flow down the mountains.

<sup>4</sup>Each star will disappear— the sky will roll up like a scroll. Everything in the sky will dry up and wilt like leaves on a vine or fruit on a tree.

Trouble for Edom

<sup>5</sup>After the sword of the LORD has done what it wants to the skies above, it will come down on Edom, the nation that the LORD has doomed for destruction.

<sup>6</sup>The sword of the LORD is covered with blood from lambs and goats, together with fat from kidneys of rams. This is because the LORD will slaughter many people and make a sacrifice of them in the city of Bozrah and everywhere else in Edom.

<sup>7</sup>Edom's leaders are wild oxen. They are powerful bulls, but they will die with the others. Their country will be soaked with their blood, and its soil made fertile with their fat.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has chosen the year and the day, when he will take revenge and come to Zion's defence.

<sup>9</sup>Edom's streams will turn into tar and its soil into sulphur— then the whole country will go up in flames.

<sup>10</sup>It will burn night and day and never stop smoking. Edom will be a desert, generation after generation; no one will ever travel through that land.

<sup>11</sup>Owls, hawks, and wild animals will make it their home. God will leave it in ruins, merely a pile of rocks.

The end of Edom

<sup>12</sup>Edom will be called “Kingdom of Nothing”. Its rulers will also be nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Its palaces and fortresses will be covered with thorns; only wolves and ostriches will make their home there.

<sup>14</sup>Wildcats and hyenas will hunt together, demons will scream to demons, and creatures of the night will live among the ruins.

<sup>15</sup>Owls will nest there to raise their young among its shadows, while families of vultures circle around.

<sup>16</sup>In The Book of the LORD you can search and find where it is written, “The LORD brought together all his creatures by the power of his Spirit. Not one is missing.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD has decided where they each should live; they will be there for ever, generation after generation.

Isaiah 35

God's splendour will be seen

<sup>1</sup>Thirsty deserts will be glad; barren lands will celebrate and blossom with flowers.

<sup>2</sup>Deserts will bloom everywhere and sing joyful songs. They will be as majestic as Mount Lebanon, as glorious as Mount Carmel or Sharon Valley. Everyone will see the wonderful splendour of the LORD our God.

God changes everything

<sup>3-4</sup> Here is a message for all who are weak, trembling, and worried: “Cheer up! Don't be afraid. Your God is coming to punish your enemies. God will take revenge on them and rescue you.”

<sup>5</sup> The blind will see, and the ears of the deaf will be healed.

<sup>6</sup> Those who were lame will leap around like deer; tongues once silent will begin to shout. Water will rush through the desert.

<sup>7</sup> Scorching sand will turn into a lake, and thirsty ground will flow with fountains. Grass will grow in wetlands, where packs of wild dogs once made their home.

God's sacred highway

<sup>8</sup> A good road will be there, and it will be named “God's Sacred Highway”. It will be for God's people; no one unfit to worship God will walk on that road. And no fools can travel on that highway.

<sup>9</sup> No lions or other wild animals will come near that road; only those the LORD has saved will travel there.

<sup>10</sup> The people the LORD has rescued will come back singing as they enter Zion. Happiness will be a crown they will always wear. They will celebrate and shout because all sorrows and worries will be gone far away.

Isaiah 36

Assyria, Babylonia, King Hezekiah, and Isaiah

The Assyrians surround Jerusalem

(2 Kings 18.13–27; 2 Chronicles 32.1–19)

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah had been king of Judah for fourteen years when King Sennacherib of Assyria invaded the country and captured every walled city

<sup>2</sup>except Jerusalem. The Assyrian king ordered his army commander to leave the city of Lachish and to take a large army to Jerusalem. The commander went there and stood on the road near the cloth makers' shops along the canal from the upper pool.

<sup>3</sup>Three of the king's highest officials came out of Jerusalem to meet him. One of them was Hilkiyah's son Eliakim, who was the prime minister. The other two were Shebna, assistant to the prime minister, and Joah son of Asaph, keeper of the government records.

<sup>4</sup>The Assyrian commander told them: I have a message for Hezekiah from the great king of Assyria. Ask Hezekiah why he feels so sure of himself.

<sup>5</sup>Does he think he can plan and win a war with nothing but words? Who is going to help him, now that he has turned against the king of Assyria?

<sup>6</sup>Is he depending on Egypt and its king? That's the same as leaning on a broken stick, and it will go right through his hand.

<sup>7</sup>Is Hezekiah now depending on the LORD, your God? Didn't Hezekiah tear down all except one of the LORD's altars and places of worship? Didn't he tell the people of Jerusalem and Judah to worship at that one place?

<sup>8</sup>The king of Assyria wants to make a bet with you people! He will give you two thousand horses, if you have enough troops to ride them.

<sup>9</sup>How could you defeat even our lowest ranking officer, when you have to depend on Egypt for chariots and cavalry?

<sup>10</sup>Don't forget that it was the LORD who sent me here with orders to destroy your nation!

<sup>11</sup>Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said, "Sir, we don't want the people listening from the city wall to understand what you are saying. So please speak to us in Aramaic instead of Hebrew."

<sup>12</sup>The Assyrian army commander answered, “My king sent me to speak to everyone, not just to you leaders. These people will soon have to eat their own body waste and drink their own urine! And so will the three of you!”

<sup>13</sup>Then, in a voice loud enough for everyone to hear, he shouted out in Hebrew: Listen to what the great king of Assyria says!

<sup>14</sup>Don't be fooled by Hezekiah. He can't save you.

<sup>15</sup>Don't trust him when he tells you that the LORD will protect you from the king of Assyria.

<sup>16</sup>Stop listening to Hezekiah. Pay attention to my king. Surrender to him. He will let you keep your own vineyards, fig trees, and cisterns

<sup>17</sup>for a while. Then he will come and take you away to a country just like yours, where you can plant vineyards and raise your own grain.

<sup>18</sup>Hezekiah claims the LORD will save you. But don't be fooled by him. Were any other gods able to defend their land against the king of Assyria?

<sup>19</sup>What happened to the gods of Hamath, Arpad, and Sepharvaim? Were the gods of Samaria able to protect their land against the Assyrian forces?

<sup>20</sup>None of these gods kept their people safe from the king of Assyria. Do you think the LORD, your God, can do any better?

<sup>21-22</sup>Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah had been warned by King Hezekiah not to answer the Assyrian commander. So they tore their clothes in sorrow and reported to Hezekiah everything the commander had said.

Isaiah 37

Hezekiah asks Isaiah for advice

(2 Kings 19.1–13)

<sup>1</sup>As soon as Hezekiah heard the news, he tore off his clothes in sorrow and put on sackcloth. Then he went into the temple of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>He told Prime Minister Eliakim, Assistant Prime Minister Shebna, and the senior priests to dress in sackcloth and tell me:

<sup>3</sup>Isaiah, these are difficult and disgraceful times. Our nation is like a woman too weak to give birth, when it's time for her baby to be born.

<sup>4</sup>Please pray for those of us who are left alive. The king of Assyria sent his army commander to insult the living God. Perhaps the LORD heard what he said and will do something, if you will pray.

<sup>5</sup>When these leaders came to me,

<sup>6</sup>I told them that the LORD had this message for Hezekiah: I am the LORD. Don't worry about the insulting things that have been said about me by these messengers from the king of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup>I will upset him with rumours about what's happening in his own country. He will go back, and there I will make him die a violent death.

<sup>8</sup>Meanwhile the commander of the Assyrian forces heard that his king had left the town of Lachish and was now attacking Libnah. So he went there.

<sup>9</sup>About this same time, the king of Assyria learnt that King Tirhakah of Ethiopia was on his way to attack him. Then the king of Assyria sent some messengers with this note for Hezekiah:

<sup>10</sup>Don't trust your God or be fooled by his promise to defend Jerusalem against me.

<sup>11</sup>You have heard how we Assyrian kings have completely wiped out other nations. What makes you feel so safe?

<sup>12</sup>The Assyrian kings before me destroyed the towns of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and everyone from Eden who lived in Telassar. What good did their gods do them?

<sup>13</sup>The kings of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah have all disappeared.

Hezekiah prays

(2 Kings 19.14–19)

<sup>14</sup>After Hezekiah had read the note from the king of Assyria, he took it to the temple and spread it out for the LORD to see.

<sup>15</sup>Then he prayed:

<sup>16</sup>LORD God All-Powerful of Israel, your throne is above the winged creatures. You created the heavens and the earth, and you alone rule the kingdoms of this world.

<sup>17</sup>Just look and see how Sennacherib has insulted you, the living God.

<sup>18</sup>It is true, our LORD, that Assyrian kings have turned nations into deserts.

<sup>19</sup>They destroyed the idols of wood and stone that the people of those nations had made and worshipped.

<sup>20</sup>But you are our LORD and our God! We ask you to keep us safe from the Assyrian king. Then everyone in every kingdom on earth will know that you are the only LORD.

Isaiah gives the LORD's answer to Hezekiah

(2 Kings 19.20–34)

<sup>21-22</sup>I went to Hezekiah and told him that the LORD God of Israel had said: Hezekiah, you prayed to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria. Now this is what I say to that king: The people of Jerusalem hate and make fun of you; they laugh behind your back.

<sup>23</sup>Sennacherib, you cursed, shouted, and sneered at me, the holy God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>You let your officials insult me, the Lord. And here is what you have said about yourself, “I led my chariots to the highest heights of Lebanon's mountains. I went deep into its forest, cutting down the best cedar and cypress trees.

<sup>25</sup>I dried up every stream in the land of Egypt, and I drank water from wells I had dug.”

<sup>26</sup>Sennacherib, now listen to me, the LORD. I planned all this long ago. And you don't even know that I alone am the one who decided that you would do these things. I let you make ruins of fortified cities.

<sup>27</sup>Their people became weak, terribly confused. They were like wild flowers or like tender young grass growing on a flat roof or like a field of grain before it matures.

<sup>28</sup>I know all about you, even how fiercely angry you are with me.

<sup>29</sup>I have seen your pride and the tremendous hatred you have for me. Now I will put a hook in your nose, a bit in your mouth, then I will send you back to where you came from.

<sup>30</sup>Hezekiah, I will tell you what's going to happen. This year you will eat crops that grow on their own, and the next year you will eat whatever springs up where those crops grew. But the third year, you will plant grain and vineyards, and you will eat what you harvest.

<sup>31</sup>Those who survive in Judah will be like a vine that puts down deep roots and bears fruit.

<sup>32</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, will see to it that some who live in Jerusalem will survive.

<sup>33</sup>I promise that the king of Assyria won't get into Jerusalem, or shoot an arrow into the city, or even surround it and prepare to attack.

<sup>34</sup>As surely as I am the LORD, he will return by the way he came and will never enter Jerusalem.

<sup>35</sup>I will protect it for the sake of my own honour and because of the promise I made to my servant David.

The death of King Sennacherib

(2 Kings 19.35–37)

<sup>36</sup>The LORD sent an angel to the camp of the Assyrians, and he killed one hundred and eighty-five thousand of them all in one night. The next morning, the camp was full of dead bodies.

<sup>37</sup>After this, King Sennacherib went back to Assyria and lived in the city of Nineveh.

<sup>38</sup>One day he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, when his sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with their swords. They escaped to the land of Ararat, and his son Esarhaddon became king.

Isaiah 38

Hezekiah gets sick and almost dies

(2 Kings 20.1–11; 2 Chronicles 32.24–26)

<sup>1</sup>About this time, Hezekiah got sick and was almost dead. So I went in and told him, “The LORD says you won't ever get well. You are going to die, and so you had better start doing what needs to be done.”

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah turned towards the wall and prayed,

<sup>3</sup>“Don't forget that I have been faithful to you, LORD. I have obeyed you with all my heart, and I do whatever you say is right.” After this, he cried hard.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD sent me

<sup>5</sup>with this message for Hezekiah: I am the LORD God, who was worshipped by your ancestor David. I heard you pray, and I saw you cry. I will let you live fifteen years more,

<sup>6</sup>while I protect you and your city from the king of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup>Now I will prove to you that I will keep my promise.

<sup>8</sup>Do you see the shadow made by the setting sun on the stairway built for King Ahaz? I will make the shadow go back ten steps. Then the shadow went back ten steps.

King Hezekiah's song of praise

<sup>9</sup>This is what Hezekiah wrote after he got well:

<sup>10</sup>I thought I would die during my best years and stay as a prisoner for ever in the world of the dead.

<sup>11</sup>I thought I would never again see you, my LORD, or any of the people who live on this earth.

<sup>12</sup>My life was taken from me like the tent that a shepherd pulls up and moves. You cut me off like thread from a weaver's loom; you make a wreck of me day and night.

<sup>13</sup>Until morning came, I thought you would crush my bones just like a hungry lion; both night and day you make a wreck of me.

<sup>14</sup>I cry like a swallow; I mourn like a dove. My eyes are red from looking to you, LORD. I am terribly abused. Please come and help me.

<sup>15</sup>There's nothing I can say in answer to you, since you are the one who has done this to me. My life has turned sour; I will limp until I die.

<sup>16</sup>Your words and your deeds bring life to everyone, including me. Please make me healthy and strong again.

<sup>17</sup>It was for my own good that I had such hard times. But your love protected me from doom in the deep pit, and you turned your eyes away from my sins.

<sup>18</sup>No one in the world of the dead can thank you or praise you; none of those in the deep pit can hope for you to show them how faithful you are.

<sup>19</sup>Only the living can thank you, as I am doing today. Each generation tells the next about your faithfulness.

<sup>20</sup>You, LORD, will save me, and every day that we live we will sing in your temple to the music of stringed instruments.

Isaiah's advice to Hezekiah

<sup>21</sup>I had told King Hezekiah's servants to put some mashed figs on the king's open sore, and he would get well.

<sup>22</sup>Then Hezekiah asked for proof that he would again worship in the LORD's temple.

Isaiah 39

Isaiah speaks the LORD's message to Hezekiah

(2 Kings 20.12–19)

<sup>1</sup>Merodach Baladan, the son of Baladan, was now king of Babylonia. And when he learnt that Hezekiah was well, he sent messengers with letters and a gift for him.

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah welcomed the messengers and showed them all the silver, the gold, the spices, and the fine oils that were in his storehouse. He even showed them where he kept his weapons. Nothing in his palace or in his entire kingdom was kept hidden from them.

<sup>3</sup>I asked Hezekiah, “Where did these men come from? What did they want?” “They came all the way from Babylonia,” Hezekiah answered.

<sup>4</sup>“What did you show them?” I asked. Hezekiah answered, “I showed them everything in my kingdom.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I told Hezekiah: I have a message for you from the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>6</sup>One day everything you and your ancestors have stored up will be taken to Babylonia. The LORD has promised that nothing will be left.

<sup>7</sup>Some of your own sons will be taken to Babylonia, where they will be disgraced and made to serve in the king's palace.

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah thought, “At least our nation will be at peace for a while.” So he told me, “The message you brought from the LORD is good.”

Isaiah 40

The Lord will rescue his people Encourage God's people

<sup>1</sup>Our God has said: “Encourage my people! Give them comfort.

<sup>2</sup>Speak kindly to Jerusalem and announce: Your slavery is past; your punishment is over. I, the LORD, made you pay double for your sins.”

<sup>3</sup>Someone is shouting: “Clear a path in the desert! Make a straight road for the LORD our God.

<sup>4</sup>Fill in the valleys; flatten every hill and mountain. Level the rough and rugged ground.

<sup>5</sup>Then the glory of the LORD will appear for all to see. The LORD has promised this!”

<sup>6</sup>Someone told me to shout, and I asked, “What should I shout?” We humans are merely grass, and we last no longer than wild flowers.

<sup>7</sup>At the LORD's command, flowers and grass disappear, and so do we.

<sup>8</sup>Flowers and grass fade away, but what our God has said will never change.

Your God is here!

<sup>9</sup>There is good news for the city of Zion. Shout it as loud as you can from the highest mountain. Don't be afraid to shout to the towns of Judah, “Your God is here!”

<sup>10</sup>Look! The powerful LORD God is coming to rule with his mighty arm. He brings with him what he has taken in war, and he rewards his people.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD cares for his nation, just as shepherds care for their flocks. He carries the lambs in his arms, while gently leading the mother sheep.

Who compares with God?

<sup>12</sup>Did any of you measure the ocean by yourself or stretch out the sky with your own hands? Did you put the soil of the earth in a bucket or weigh the hills and mountains on balance scales?

<sup>13</sup>Has anyone told the LORD what he must do or given him advice?

<sup>14</sup>Did the LORD ask anyone to teach him wisdom and justice? Who gave him knowledge and understanding?

<sup>15</sup>To the LORD, all nations are merely a drop in a bucket or dust on balance scales; all the islands are but a handful of sand.

<sup>16</sup>The cattle on Lebanon's mountains would not be enough to offer as a sacrifice to God, and the trees would not be enough for the fire.

<sup>17</sup>God thinks of the nations as far less than nothing.

<sup>18</sup>Who compares with God? Is anything like him?

<sup>19</sup>Is an idol at all like God? It is made of bronze with a thin layer of gold, and decorated with silver.

<sup>20</sup>Or special wood may be chosen because it doesn't rot— then skilled hands take care to make an idol that won't fall on its face.

God rules the whole earth

<sup>21</sup>Don't you know? Haven't you heard? Isn't it clear that God created the world?

<sup>22</sup>God is the one who rules the whole earth, and we who live here are merely insects. He spread out the heavens like a curtain or an open tent.

<sup>23</sup>God brings down rulers and turns them into nothing.

<sup>24</sup>They are like flowers freshly sprung up and starting to grow. But when God blows on them, they wilt and are carried off like straw in a storm.

<sup>25</sup>The holy God asks, “Who compares with me? Is anyone my equal?”

<sup>26</sup>Look at the evening sky! Who created the stars? Who gave them each a name? Who leads them like an army? The LORD is so powerful that none of the stars are ever missing.

The LORD gives strength

<sup>27</sup>You people of Israel, say, “God pays no attention to us! He doesn't care if we are treated unjustly.” But how can you say that?

<sup>28</sup>Don't you know? Haven't you heard? The LORD is the eternal God, Creator of the earth. He never gets weary or tired; his wisdom cannot be measured.

<sup>29</sup>The LORD gives strength to those who are weary.

<sup>30</sup>Even young people get tired, then stumble and fall.

<sup>31</sup>But those who trust the LORD will find new strength. They will be strong like eagles soaring upward on wings; they will walk and run without getting tired.

Isaiah 41

The LORD controls human events

<sup>1</sup>Be silent and listen, every island in the sea. Have courage and come near, every one of you nations. Let's settle this matter!

<sup>2</sup>Who appointed this ruler from the east? Who puts nations and kings in his power? His sword and his arrows turn them to dust blown by the wind.

<sup>3</sup>He goes after them so quickly that his feet barely touch the ground— he doesn't even get hurt.

<sup>4</sup>Who makes these things happen? Who controls human events? I do! I am the LORD. I was there at the beginning; I will be there at the end.

<sup>5</sup>Islands and foreign nations saw what I did and trembled as they came near.

What can idols do?

<sup>6</sup>Worshippers of idols comfort each other, saying, “Don't worry!”

<sup>7</sup>Woodcarvers, goldsmiths, and other workers encourage one another and say, “We've done a great job!” Then they nail the idol down, so it won't fall over.

The LORD's chosen servant

<sup>8</sup>Israel, you are my servant. I chose you, the family of my friend Abraham.

<sup>9</sup>From far across the earth I brought you here and said, “You are my chosen servant. I haven't forgotten you.”

<sup>10</sup>Don't be afraid. I am with you. Don't tremble with fear. I am your God. I will make you strong, as I protect you with my arm and give you victories.

<sup>11</sup>Everyone who hates you will be terribly disgraced; those who attack will vanish into thin air.

<sup>12</sup>You will look around for those brutal enemies, but you won't find them because they will be gone.

<sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God. I am holding your hand, so don't be afraid. I am here to help you.

<sup>14</sup>People of Israel, don't worry, though others may say, "Israel is only a worm!" I am the holy God of Israel, who saves and protects you.

<sup>15</sup>I will let you be like a log covered with sharp spikes. You will grind and crush every mountain and hill until they turn to dust.

<sup>16</sup>A strong wind will scatter them in all directions. Then you will celebrate and praise me, your LORD, the holy God of Israel.

The LORD helps the poor

<sup>17</sup>When the poor and needy are dying of thirst and cannot find water, I, the LORD God of Israel, will come to their rescue. I won't forget them.

<sup>18</sup>I will make rivers flow on mountain peaks. I will send streams to fill the valleys. Dry and barren land will flow with springs and become a lake.

<sup>19</sup>I will fill the desert with all kinds of trees— cedars, acacias, and myrtles; olive and cypress trees; fir trees and pines.

<sup>20</sup>Everyone will see this and know that I, the holy LORD God of Israel, created it all.

Idols are useless

<sup>21</sup>I am the LORD, the King of Israel! Come, argue your case with me. Present your evidence.

<sup>22</sup>Come near me, you idols. Tell us about the past, and we will think about it. Tell us about the future, so we will know what is going to happen.

<sup>23</sup>Prove that you are gods by making your predictions come true. Do something good or evil, so we can be amazed and terrified.

<sup>24</sup>You idols are nothing, and you are powerless. To worship you would be disgusting.

<sup>25</sup>I, the LORD, appointed a ruler in the north; now he comes from the east to honour my name. He tramples kings like mud, as potters trample clay.

<sup>26</sup>Did any of you idols predict what would happen? Did any of you get it right? None of you told about this or even spoke a word.

<sup>27</sup>I was the first to tell the people of Jerusalem, “Look, it's happening!” I was the one who announced this good news to Zion.

<sup>28</sup>None of these idols are able to give advice or answer questions.

<sup>29</sup>They are nothing, and they can do nothing— they are less than a passing breeze.

Isaiah 42

The LORD's servant

<sup>1</sup> Here is my servant! I have made him strong. He is my chosen one; I am pleased with him. I have given him my Spirit, and he will bring justice to the nations.

<sup>2</sup>He won't shout or yell or call out in the streets.

<sup>3</sup>He won't break off a bent reed or put out a dying flame, but he will make sure that justice is done.

<sup>4</sup>He won't stop or give up until he brings justice everywhere on earth, and people in foreign nations long for his teaching.

<sup>5</sup> I am the LORD God. I created the heavens like an open tent above. I made the earth and everything that grows on it. I am the source of life for all who live on this earth, so listen to what I say.

<sup>6</sup> I chose you to bring justice, and I am here at your side. I selected and sent you to bring light and my promise of hope to the nations.

<sup>7</sup> You will give sight to the blind; you will set prisoners free from dark dungeons.

<sup>8</sup> My name is the LORD! I won't let idols or humans share my glory and praise.

<sup>9</sup> Everything has happened just as I said it would; now I will announce what will happen next.

Sing praises to the LORD

<sup>10</sup> Tell the whole world to sing a new song to the LORD! Tell those who sail the ocean and those who live far away to join in the praise.

<sup>11</sup>Tell the tribes of the desert and everyone in the mountains to celebrate and sing.

<sup>12</sup>Let them announce his praises everywhere.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD is marching out like an angry soldier, shouting with all his might while attacking his enemies.

The LORD will help his people

<sup>14</sup>For a long time, I, the LORD, have held my temper; now I will scream and groan like a woman giving birth.

<sup>15</sup>I will destroy the mountains and what grows on them; I will dry up rivers and ponds.

<sup>16</sup>I will lead the blind on roads they have never known; I will guide them on paths they have never travelled. Their road is dark and rough, but I will give light to keep them from stumbling. This is my solemn promise.

<sup>17</sup>Everyone who worships idols as though they were gods will be terribly ashamed.

God's people won't obey

<sup>18</sup>You people are deaf and blind, but the LORD commands you to listen and to see.

<sup>19</sup>No one is as blind or deaf as his messenger, his chosen servant,

<sup>20</sup>who sees and hears so much, but pays no attention.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD always does right, and so he wanted his Law to be greatly praised.

<sup>22</sup>But his people were trapped and imprisoned in holes with no one to rescue them. All they owned had been taken, and no one was willing to give it back.

<sup>23</sup>Why won't his people ever learn to listen?

<sup>24</sup>Israel sinned and refused to obey the LORD or follow his instructions. So the LORD let them be robbed of everything they owned.

<sup>25</sup>He was furious with them and punished their nation with the fires of war. Still they paid no attention. They didn't even care when they were surrounded and scorched by flames.

Isaiah 43

The LORD has rescued his people

<sup>1</sup>Descendants of Jacob, I, the LORD, created you and formed your nation. Israel, don't be afraid. I have rescued you. I have called you by name; now you belong to me.

<sup>2</sup>When you cross deep rivers, I will be with you, and you won't drown. When you walk through fire, you won't be burnt or scorched by the flames.

<sup>3</sup>I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, the God who saves you. I gave up Egypt, Ethiopia, and the region of Seba in exchange for you.

<sup>4</sup>To me, you are very dear, and I love you. That's why I gave up nations and people to rescue you.

<sup>5</sup>Don't be afraid! I am with you. From both east and west I will bring you together.

<sup>6</sup>I will say to the north and to the south, "Free my sons and daughters! Let them return from distant lands.

<sup>7</sup>They are my people— I created each of them to bring honour to me."

The LORD alone is God

The LORD said:

<sup>8</sup>Bring my people together. They have eyes and ears, but they can't see or hear.

<sup>9</sup>Tell everyone of every nation to gather around. None of them can honestly say, "We told you so!" If someone heard them say this, then tell us about it now.

<sup>10</sup>My people, you are my witnesses and my chosen servant. I want you to know me, to trust me, and understand that I alone am God. I have always been God; there can be no others.

<sup>11</sup>I alone am the LORD; only I can rescue you.

<sup>12</sup>I promised to save you, and I kept my promise. You are my witnesses that no other god did this. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>13</sup>I am God now and for ever. No one can snatch you from me or stand in my way.

The LORD will prepare the way

<sup>14</sup>I, the LORD, will rescue you! I am Israel's holy God, and this is my promise: For your sake, I will send an army against Babylon to drag its people away, crying as they go.

<sup>15</sup>I am the LORD, your holy God, Israel's Creator and King.

<sup>16</sup>I am the one who cut a path through the mighty ocean.

<sup>17</sup>I sent an army to chase you with chariots and horses; now they lie dead, unable to move. They are like an oil lamp with the flame snuffed out.

Forget the past

The LORD said:

<sup>18</sup>Forget what happened long ago! Don't think about the past.

<sup>19</sup>I am creating something new. There it is! Do you see it? I have put roads in deserts, streams in thirsty lands.

<sup>20</sup>Every wild animal honours me, even jackals and owls. I provide water in deserts— streams in thirsty lands for my chosen people.

<sup>21</sup>I made them my own nation, so they would praise me.

<sup>22</sup>I, the LORD, said to Israel: You have become weary, but not from worshipping me.

<sup>23</sup>You have not honoured me by sacrificing sheep or other animals. And I have not burdened you with demands for sacrifices or sweet-smelling incense.

<sup>24</sup>You have not brought delicious spices for me or given me the best part of your sacrificed animals. Instead, you burden me down with your terrible sins.

<sup>25</sup>But I wipe away your sins because of who I am. And so, I will forget the wrongs you have done.

<sup>26</sup>Meet me in court! State your case and prove that you are right.

<sup>27</sup>Your earliest ancestor and all your leaders rebelled against me.

<sup>28</sup>That's why I don't allow your priests to serve me; I let Israel be destroyed and your people disgraced.

Isaiah 44

The LORD's promise to Israel

<sup>1</sup>People of Israel, I have chosen you as my servant.

<sup>2</sup>I am your Creator. You were in my care even before you were born. Israel, don't be terrified! You are my chosen servant, my very favourite.

<sup>3</sup>I will bless the thirsty land by sending streams of water; I will bless your descendants by giving them my Spirit.

<sup>4</sup>They will spring up like grass or like willow trees near flowing streams.

<sup>5</sup>They will worship me and become my people. They will write my name on the back of their hands.

<sup>6</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the first and the last, the one and only God. Israel, I have rescued you! I am your King.

<sup>7</sup>Can anyone compare with me? If so, let them speak up and tell me now. Let them say what has happened since I made my nation long ago, and let them tell what is going to happen.

<sup>8</sup>Don't tremble with fear! Didn't I tell you long ago? Didn't you hear me? I alone am God— no one else is a mighty rock.

Idols can't do a thing

The LORD said:

<sup>9</sup>Those people who make idols are nothing themselves, and the idols they treasure are just as worthless. Worshippers of idols are blind, stupid, and foolish.

<sup>10</sup>Why make an idol or an image that can't do a thing?

<sup>11</sup>Everyone who makes idols and all who worship them are mere humans, who will end up sadly disappointed. Let them face me in court and be terrified.

Idols and firewood

<sup>12</sup>A metalworker shapes an idol by using a hammer and heat from the fire. In his powerful hand he holds a hammer, as he pounds the metal into the proper shape. But he gets hungry and thirsty and loses his strength.

<sup>13</sup>Some woodcarver measures a piece of wood, then draws an outline. The idol is carefully carved with each detail exact. At last it looks like a person and is placed in a temple.

<sup>14</sup>Cedar, cypress, oak, or any tree from the forest may be chosen. Or even a pine tree planted by the woodcarver and watered by the rain.

<sup>15</sup>Some of the wood is used to make a fire for heating or for cooking. One piece is made into an idol, then the woodcarver bows down and worships it.

<sup>16</sup>He enjoys the warm fire and the meat that was roasted over the burning coals.

<sup>17</sup>Afterwards, he bows down to worship the wooden idol. "Protect me!" he says. "You are my god."

<sup>18</sup>Those who worship idols are stupid and blind!

<sup>19</sup>They don't have enough sense to say to themselves, "I made a fire with half of the wood and cooked my bread and meat on it. Then I made something worthless with the other half. Why worship a block of wood?"

<sup>20</sup>How can anyone be stupid enough to trust something that can be burnt to ashes? No one can save themselves like that. Don't they realize that the idols they hold in their hands are not really gods?

The LORD won't forget his people

<sup>21</sup>People of Israel, you are my servant, so remember all of this. Israel, I created you, and you are my servant. I won't forget you.

<sup>22</sup>Turn back to me! I have rescued you and swept away your sins as though they were clouds.

Sing praises to the LORD

<sup>23</sup>Tell the heavens and the earth to start singing! Tell the mountains and every tree in the forest to join in the song! The LORD has rescued his people; now they will worship him.

The LORD created everything

<sup>24</sup>Israel, I am your LORD. I am your source of life, and I have rescued you. I created everything from the sky above to the earth below.

<sup>25</sup>I make liars of false prophets and fools of fortune-tellers. I take human wisdom and turn it into nonsense.

<sup>26</sup>I will make the message of my prophets come true. They are saying, "Jerusalem will be filled with people, and the LORD will rebuild the towns of Judah."

<sup>27</sup>I am the one who commands the sea and its streams to run dry.

<sup>28</sup>I am also the one who says, "Cyrus will lead my people and obey my orders. Jerusalem and the temple will be rebuilt."

Isaiah 45

Cyrus obeys the LORD's commands

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to Cyrus, his chosen one: I have taken hold of your right hand to help you capture nations and remove kings from power. City gates will open for you; not one will stay closed.

<sup>2</sup>As I lead you, I will level mountains and break the iron bars on bronze gates of cities.

<sup>3</sup>I will give you treasures hidden in dark and secret places. Then you will know that I, the LORD God of Israel, have called you by name.

<sup>4</sup>Cyrus, you don't even know me! But I have called you by name and highly honoured you because of Israel, my chosen servant.

<sup>5</sup>Only I am the LORD! There are no other gods. I have made you strong, though you don't know me.

<sup>6</sup>Now everyone from east to west will learn that I am the LORD. No other gods are real.

<sup>7</sup>I create light and darkness, happiness and sorrow. I, the LORD, do all of this.

<sup>8</sup>Tell the heavens to send down justice like showers of rain. Prepare the earth for my saving power to sprout and produce justice that I, the LORD, create.

The LORD's mighty power

The LORD said:

<sup>9</sup>Israel, you have no right to argue with your Creator. You are merely a clay pot shaped by a potter. The clay doesn't ask, "Why did you make me this way? Where are the handles?"

<sup>10</sup>Children don't have the right to demand of their parents, "What have you done to make us what we are?"

<sup>11</sup>I am the LORD, the Creator, the holy God of Israel. Do you dare question me about my own nation or about what I have done?

<sup>12</sup>I created the world and covered it with people; I stretched out the sky and filled it with stars.

<sup>13</sup>I have done the right thing by placing Cyrus in power, and I will make the roads easy for him to follow. I am the LORD All-Powerful! Cyrus will rebuild my city and set my people free without being paid a thing. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD alone can save

<sup>14</sup>My people, I, the LORD, promise that the riches of Egypt and the treasures of Ethiopia will belong to you. You will force into slavery those tall people of Seba. They will bow down and say, “The only true God is with you; there are no other gods.”

<sup>15</sup>People of Israel, your God is a mystery, though he alone can save.

<sup>16</sup>Anyone who makes idols will be confused and terribly disgraced.

<sup>17</sup>But Israel, I, the LORD, will always keep you safe and free from shame.

Everyone is invited

<sup>18</sup>The LORD alone is God! He created the heavens and made a world where people can live, instead of creating an empty desert. The LORD alone is God; there are no others.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD did not speak in a dark secret place or command Jacob's descendants to search for him in vain. The LORD speaks the truth, and this is what he says

<sup>20</sup>to every survivor from every nation: “Gather around me! Learn how senseless it is to worship wooden idols or pray to helpless gods.

<sup>21</sup>“Why don't you get together and meet me in court? Didn't I tell you long ago what would happen? I am the only God! There are no others. I bring about justice, and have the power to save.

<sup>22</sup>“I invite the whole world to turn to me and be saved. I alone am God! No others are real.

<sup>23</sup>I have made a solemn promise, one that won't be broken: everyone will bow down and worship me.

<sup>24</sup>They will admit that I alone can bring about justice. Everyone who is angry with me will be terribly ashamed and will turn to me.

<sup>25</sup>I, the LORD, will give victory and great honour to the people of Israel.”

Isaiah 46

Babylonia's gods are helpless

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>The gods Bel and Nebo are down on their knees, as wooden images of them are carried away on weary animals.

<sup>2</sup>They are down on their knees to rescue the heavy load, but the images are still taken to a foreign country.

<sup>3</sup>You survivors in Israel, listen to me, the LORD. Since the day you were born, I have carried you along.

<sup>4</sup>I will still be the same when you are old and grey, and I will take care of you. I created you. I will carry you and always keep you safe.

<sup>5</sup>Can anyone compare with me? Is anyone my equal?

<sup>6</sup>Some people hire a goldsmith and give silver and gold to be formed into an idol for them to worship.

<sup>7</sup>They carry the idol on their shoulders, then put it on a stand, but it cannot move. They call out to the idol when they are in trouble, but it doesn't answer, and it cannot help.

<sup>8</sup>Now keep this in mind, you sinful people. And don't ever forget it.

The LORD alone is God

<sup>9</sup>I alone am God! There are no other gods; no one is like me. Think about what happened many years ago.

<sup>10</sup>From the very beginning, I told what would happen long before it took place. I kept my word

<sup>11</sup>and brought someone from a distant land to do what I wanted. He attacked from the east, like a hawk swooping down. Now I will keep my promise and do what I planned.

<sup>12</sup>You people are stubborn and far from being safe, so listen to me.

<sup>13</sup>I will soon come to save you. I am not far away and will waste no time; I take pride in Israel and will save Jerusalem.

Isaiah 47

Babylon will fall

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>City of Babylon, you are delicate and untouched, but that will change. Surrender your royal power and sit in the dust.

<sup>2</sup>Start grinding grain! Take off your veil. Strip off your fine clothes and cross over rivers.

<sup>3</sup>You will suffer the shame of going naked, because I will take revenge, and no one can escape.

<sup>4</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the holy God of Israel. I am their Saviour.

<sup>5</sup>Babylon, be silent! Sit in the dark. No longer will nations accept you as their queen.

<sup>6</sup>I was angry with my people. So I let you take their land and bring disgrace on them. You showed them no mercy, but were especially cruel to those who were old.

<sup>7</sup>You thought that you would be queen for ever. You didn't care what you did; it never entered your mind that you might get caught.

<sup>8</sup>You think that you alone are all-powerful, that you won't be a widow or lose your children. All you care about is pleasure, but listen to what I say.

<sup>9</sup>Your magic powers and charms will suddenly fail, then you will be a widow and lose your children.

<sup>10</sup>You hid behind evil like a shield and said, "No one can see me!" You were fooled by your wisdom and your knowledge; you felt sure that you alone were in full control.

<sup>11</sup>But without warning, disaster will strike— and your magic charms won't help at all.

<sup>12</sup>Keep using your magic powers and your charms as you have always done. Perhaps—just perhaps— you will frighten somebody!

<sup>13</sup>You have worn yourself out, asking for advice from those who study the stars and tell the future month after month. Go and ask them how to be saved from what will happen.

<sup>14</sup>People who trust the stars are as helpless as straw in a flaming fire. No one can even keep warm, sitting by a fire that feeds only on straw.

<sup>15</sup>These are the fortune-tellers you have done business with all your life. But they don't know where they are going, and they can't save you.

Isaiah 48

The LORD corrects his people

<sup>1</sup>People of Israel, you come from Jacob's family and the tribe of Judah. You claim to worship me, the LORD God of Israel, but you are lying.

<sup>2</sup>You call Jerusalem your home and say you depend on me, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Long ago I announced what was going to be, then without warning, I made it happen.

<sup>4</sup>I knew you were stubborn and hard-headed.

<sup>5</sup>And I told you these things, so that when they happened you would not say, "The idols we worship did this."

<sup>6</sup>You heard what I said, and you have seen it happen. Now admit that it's true! I will show you secrets you have never known.

<sup>7</sup>Today I am doing something new, something you cannot say you have heard before.

<sup>8</sup>You have never been willing to listen to what I say; from the moment of your birth, I knew you would rebel.

The LORD warns Israel

<sup>9</sup>I, the LORD, am true to myself; I will be praised for not punishing and destroying you.

<sup>10</sup>I tested you in hard times just as silver is refined in a heated furnace.

<sup>11</sup>I did this because of who I am. I refuse to be dishonoured or share my praise with any other god.

<sup>12</sup>Israel, my chosen people, listen to me. I alone am the LORD, the first and the last.

<sup>13</sup>With my own hand I created the earth and stretched out the sky. They obey my every command.

The LORD speaks to the nations

<sup>14</sup>Gather around me, all of you! Listen to what I say. Did any of your idols predict this would happen? Did they say that my friend would do what I want done to Babylonia?

<sup>15</sup>I was the one who chose him. I have brought him this far, and he will be successful.

<sup>16</sup>Come closer and listen! I have never kept secret the things I have said, and I was here before time began.

It is best to obey the LORD

By the power of his Spirit the LORD God has sent me

<sup>17</sup>with this message: People of Israel, I am the holy LORD God, the one who rescues you. For your own good, I teach you, and I lead you along the right path.

<sup>18</sup>How I wish that you had obeyed my commands! Your success and good fortune would then have overflowed like a flooding river.

<sup>19</sup>Your nation would be blessed with more people than there are grains of sand along the seashore. And I would never have let your country be destroyed.

<sup>20</sup>Now leave Babylon! Celebrate as you go. Be happy and shout for everyone to hear, "The LORD has rescued his servant Israel!"

<sup>21</sup>He led us through the desert and made water flow from a rock to satisfy our thirst.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD has promised that none who are evil will live in peace.”

Isaiah 49

The Lord's servant The work of the LORD's servant

<sup>1</sup> Everyone, listen, even you foreign nations across the sea. The LORD chose me and gave me a name before I was born.

<sup>2</sup> He made my words pierce like a sharp sword or a pointed arrow; he kept me safely hidden in the palm of his hand.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said to me, “Israel, you are my servant; and because of you I will be highly honoured.”

<sup>4</sup> I said to myself, “I'm completely worn out; my time has been wasted. But I did it for the LORD God, and he will reward me.”

<sup>5</sup> Even before I was born, the LORD God chose me to serve him and to lead back the people of Israel. So the LORD has honoured me and made me strong.

<sup>6</sup> Now the LORD says to me, “It isn't enough for you to be merely my servant. You must do more than lead back survivors from the tribes of Israel. I have placed you here as a light for other nations; you must take my saving power to everyone on earth.”

The LORD will rescue his people

<sup>7</sup> Israel, I am the holy LORD God, the one who rescues you. You are slaves of rulers and of a nation who despises you. Now this is what I promise: kings and rulers will honour you by kneeling at your feet. You can trust me! I am your LORD, the holy God of Israel, and you are my chosen ones.

The LORD will lead his people home

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says: I will answer your prayers because I have set a time when I will help by coming to save you. I have chosen you to take my promise of hope to other nations. You will rebuild the country from its ruins, then people will come and settle there.

<sup>9</sup>You will set prisoners free from dark dungeons to see the light of day. On their way home, they will find plenty to eat, even on barren hills.

<sup>10</sup>They won't go hungry or get thirsty; they won't be bothered by the scorching sun or hot desert winds. I will be merciful while leading them along to streams of water.

<sup>11</sup>I will level the mountains and make roads.

<sup>12</sup>Then my people will return from distant lands in the north and the west and from the city of Syene.

The LORD's mercy

<sup>13</sup>Tell the heavens and the earth to celebrate and sing; command every mountain to join in the song. The LORD's people have suffered, but he has shown mercy and given them comfort.

<sup>14</sup>The people of Zion said, “The LORD has turned away and forgotten us.”

<sup>15</sup>The LORD answered, “Could a mother forget a child who nurses at her breast? Could she fail to love an infant who came from her own body? Even if a mother could forget, I will never forget you.

<sup>16</sup>A picture of your city is drawn on my hand. You are always in my thoughts!

<sup>17</sup>“Your city will be built faster than it was destroyed— those who attacked it will retreat and leave.

<sup>18</sup>Look around! You will see your people coming home. As surely as I live, I, the LORD, promise that your city with its people will be as lovely as a bride wearing her jewellery.”

Jerusalem's bright future

<sup>19</sup>Jerusalem is now in ruins! Nothing is left of the city. But it will be rebuilt and soon overcrowded; its cruel enemies will be gone far away.

<sup>20</sup>Jerusalem is a woman whose children were born while she was in deep sorrow over the loss of her husband. Now those children will come and seek room in the crowded city,

<sup>21</sup>and Jerusalem will ask, “Am I really their mother? How could I have given birth when I was still mourning in a foreign land? Who raised these children? Where have they come from?”

<sup>22</sup>The LORD God says: “I will soon give a signal for the nations to return your sons and your daughters to the arms of Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>The kings and queens of those nations where they were raised will come and bow down. They will take care of you just like a slave taking care of a child. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You won't be disappointed if you trust me.”

The LORD is on our side

<sup>24</sup>Is it possible to rescue victims from someone strong and cruel?

<sup>25</sup>But the LORD has promised to fight on our side and to rescue our children from those strong and violent enemies.

<sup>26</sup>He will make those cruel people dine on their own flesh and get drunk from drinking their own blood. Then everyone will know that the LORD is our Saviour; the powerful God of Israel has rescued his people.

Isaiah 50

The LORD's power to punish

<sup>1</sup>The LORD says, “Children, I didn't divorce your mother or sell you to pay debts; I divorced her and sold you because of your sins.

<sup>2</sup>I came and called out, but you didn't answer. Have I lost my power to rescue and save? At my command oceans and rivers turn into deserts; fish rot and stink for lack of water.

<sup>3</sup>I make the sky turn dark like the sackcloth you wear at funerals.”

God's servant must suffer

<sup>4</sup>The LORD God gives me the right words to encourage the weary. Each morning he awakens me eager to learn his teaching;

<sup>5</sup>he made me willing to listen and not rebel or run away.

<sup>6</sup>I let them beat my back and pull out my beard. I didn't turn aside when they insulted me and spat in my face.

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD God keeps me from being disgraced. So I refuse to give up, because I know God will never let me down.

<sup>8</sup>My protector is nearby; no one can stand here to accuse me of wrong.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD God will help me and prove I am innocent. My accusers will wear out like moth-eaten clothes.

<sup>10</sup>None of you respect the LORD or obey his servant. You walk in the dark instead of the light; you don't trust the name of the LORD your God.

<sup>11</sup>Go ahead and walk in the light of the fires you have lit. But with his own hand, the LORD will punish you and make you suffer.

Isaiah 51

The LORD will bring comfort

<sup>1</sup>If you want to do right and obey the LORD, follow Abraham's example. He was the rock from which you were chipped.

<sup>2</sup>God chose Abraham and Sarah to be your ancestors. The LORD blessed Abraham, and from that one man came many descendants.

<sup>3</sup>Though Zion is in ruins, the LORD will bring comfort, and the city will be as lovely as the garden of Eden that he provided. Then Zion will celebrate; it will be thankful and sing joyful songs.

The LORD's victory will last

<sup>4</sup>The LORD says: You are my people and nation! So pay attention to me. My teaching will cause justice to shine like a light for every nation.

<sup>5</sup>Those who live across the sea are eagerly waiting for me to rescue them. I am strong and ready; soon I will come to save and to rule all nations.

<sup>6</sup>Look closely at the sky! Stare at the earth. The sky will vanish like smoke; the earth will wear out like clothes. Everyone on this earth will die like flies. But my victory will last; my saving power never ends.

<sup>7</sup>If you want to do right and to obey my teaching with all your heart, then pay close attention. Don't be discouraged when others insult you and say hurtful things.

<sup>8</sup>They will be eaten away like a moth-eaten coat. But my victory will last; my saving power will never end.

A prayer for the LORD's help

<sup>9</sup>Wake up! Do something, LORD. Be strong and ready. Wake up! Do what you did for our people long ago. Didn't you chop up Rahab the monster?

<sup>10</sup>Didn't you dry up the deep sea and make a road for your people to follow safely across?

<sup>11</sup>Now those you have rescued will return to Jerusalem, singing on their way. They will be crowned with great happiness, never again to be burdened with sadness and sorrow.

The LORD gives hope

<sup>12</sup>I am the LORD, the one who encourages you. Why are you afraid of mere humans? They dry up and die like grass.

<sup>13</sup>I spread out the heavens and laid foundations for the earth. But you have forgotten me, your LORD and Creator. All day long you were afraid of those who were angry and hoped to abuse you. Where are they now?

<sup>14</sup>Everyone crying out in pain will be quickly set free; they will be rescued from the power of death and never go hungry.

<sup>15</sup>I will help them because I am your God, the LORD All-Powerful, who makes the ocean roar.

<sup>16</sup>I have told you what to say, and I will keep you safe in the palm of my hand. I spread out the heavens and laid foundations for the earth. Now I say, "Jerusalem, your people are mine."

A warning to Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup> Jerusalem, wake up! Stand up! You've drunk too much from the cup filled with the LORD's anger. You have swallowed every drop, and you can't walk straight.

<sup>18</sup> Not one of your many children is there to guide you or to offer a helping hand.

<sup>19</sup> You have been destroyed by war and by famine; I cannot comfort you.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD your God is angry, and on every street corner your children lie helpless, like deer trapped in nets.

<sup>21</sup> You are in trouble and drunk, but not from wine. So pay close attention

<sup>22</sup> to the LORD your God, who defends you and says, "I have taken from your hands the cup filled with my anger that made you drunk. You will never be forced to drink it again.

<sup>23</sup> Instead I will give it to your brutal enemies, who treated you like dirt and walked all over you."

Isaiah 52

Jerusalem can celebrate

<sup>1</sup> Jerusalem, wake up! Stand up and be strong. Holy city of Zion, dress in your best clothes. Those foreigners who ruined your sacred city won't bother you again.

<sup>2</sup> Zion, rise from the dust! Free yourself from the rope around your neck.

Suffering will end

<sup>3</sup> The LORD says: My people, you were sold, but not for money; now you will be set free, but not for a payment.

<sup>4</sup> Long ago you went to Egypt where you lived as foreigners. Then Assyria was cruel to you,

<sup>5</sup> and now another nation has taken you prisoner for no reason at all. Your leaders groan with pain, and day after day my own name is cursed.

<sup>6</sup> My people, you will learn who I am and who is speaking because I am here.

A message of hope for Jerusalem

<sup>7</sup>What a beautiful sight! On the mountains a messenger announces to Jerusalem, “Good news! You're saved. There will be peace. Your God is now King.”

<sup>8</sup>Everyone on guard duty, sing and celebrate! Look! You can see the LORD returning to Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem, rise from the ruins! Join in the singing. The LORD has given comfort to his people; he comes to your rescue.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has shown all nations his mighty strength; now everyone will see the saving power of our God.

A command to leave Babylon

<sup>11</sup>Leave the city of Babylon! Don't touch anything filthy. Wash yourselves. Be ready to carry back everything sacred that belongs to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>You won't need to run. No one is chasing you. The LORD God of Israel will lead and protect you from enemy attacks.

The suffering servant

<sup>13</sup>The LORD says: My servant will succeed! He will be given great praise and the highest honours.

<sup>14</sup>Many were horrified at what happened to him. But everyone who saw him was even more horrified because he suffered until he no longer looked human.

<sup>15</sup>My servant will make nations worthy to worship me; kings will be silent as they bow in wonder. They will see and think about things they have never seen or thought about before.

Isaiah 53

What God's servant did for us

<sup>1</sup>Has anyone believed us or seen the mighty power of the LORD in action?

<sup>2</sup>Like a young plant or a root that sprouts in dry ground, the servant grew up obeying the LORD. He wasn't some handsome king. Nothing about the way he looked made him attractive to us.

<sup>3</sup>He was hated and rejected; his life was filled with sorrow and terrible suffering. No one wanted to look at him. We despised him and said, "He is a nobody!"

<sup>4</sup>He suffered and endured great pain for us, but we thought his suffering was punishment from God.

<sup>5</sup>He was wounded and crushed because of our sins; by taking our punishment, he made us completely well.

<sup>6</sup>All of us were like sheep that had wandered off. We had each gone our own way, but the LORD gave him the punishment we deserved.

<sup>7</sup>He was painfully abused, but he did not complain. He was silent like a lamb being led to the butcher, as quiet as a sheep having its wool cut off.

<sup>8</sup>He was condemned to death without a fair trial. Who could have imagined what would happen to him? His life was taken away because of the sinful things my people had done.

<sup>9</sup>He wasn't dishonest or violent, but he was buried in a tomb of cruel and rich people.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD decided his servant would suffer as a sacrifice to take away the sin and guilt of others. Now the servant will live to see his own descendants. He did everything the LORD had planned.

<sup>11</sup>By suffering, the servant will learn the true meaning of obeying the LORD. Although he is innocent, he will take the punishment for the sins of others, so that many of them will no longer be guilty.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD will reward him with honour and power for sacrificing his life. Others thought he was a sinner, but he suffered for our sins and asked God to forgive us.

Isaiah 54

The Lord will keep all his promises A promise of the LORD's protection

<sup>1</sup> Sing and shout, even though you have never had children! The LORD has promised that you will have more children than someone married for a long time.

<sup>2</sup> Make your tents larger! Spread out the tent pegs; fasten them firmly.

<sup>3</sup> You and your descendants will take over the land of other nations. You will settle in towns that are now in ruins.

<sup>4</sup> Don't be afraid or ashamed and don't be discouraged. You won't be disappointed. Forget how sinful you were when you were young; stop feeling ashamed for being left a widow.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD All-Powerful, the Holy God of Israel, rules all the earth. He is your Creator and husband, and he will rescue you.

<sup>6</sup> You were like a young wife, brokenhearted and crying because her husband had divorced her. But the LORD your God says, "I am taking you back!

<sup>7</sup> I rejected you for a while, but with love and tenderness I will embrace you again.

<sup>8</sup> For a while, I turned away in furious anger. Now I will have mercy and love you for ever! I, your protector and LORD, make this promise."

The LORD promises lasting peace

<sup>9</sup> I once promised Noah that I would never again destroy the earth by a flood. Now I have promised that I will never again get angry and punish you.

<sup>10</sup> Every mountain and hill may disappear. But I will always be kind and merciful to you; I won't break my agreement to give your nation peace.

The new Jerusalem

<sup>11</sup> Jerusalem, you are sad and discouraged, tossed around in a storm. But I, the LORD, will rebuild your city with precious stones; for your foundation I will use blue sapphires.

<sup>12</sup>Your fortresses will be built of rubies, your gates of jewels, and your walls of gems.

<sup>13</sup>I will teach your children and make them successful.

<sup>14</sup>You will be built on fairness with no fears of injustice; every one of your worries will be taken far from you.

<sup>15</sup>I will never send anyone to attack your city, and you will make prisoners of those who do attack.

<sup>16</sup>Don't forget that I created metalworkers who make weapons over burning coals. I also created armies that can bring destruction.

<sup>17</sup>Weapons made to attack you won't be successful; words spoken against you won't hurt at all. My servants, Jerusalem is yours! I, the LORD, promise to bless you with victory.

Isaiah 55

The LORD's invitation

<sup>1</sup>If you are thirsty, come and drink water! If you don't have any money, come, eat what you want! Drink wine and milk without paying a penny.

<sup>2</sup>Why waste your money on what isn't really food? Why work hard for something that doesn't satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and you will enjoy the very best foods.

<sup>3</sup>Pay close attention! Come to me and live. I will promise you the eternal love and loyalty that I promised David.

<sup>4</sup>I made him the leader and ruler of the nations; he was my witness to them.

<sup>5</sup>You will call out to nations you have never known. And they have never known you, but they will come running because I am the LORD, the holy God of Israel, and I have honoured you.

God's words are powerful

<sup>6</sup>Turn to the LORD! He can still be found. Call out to God! He is near.

<sup>7</sup>Give up your crooked ways and your evil thoughts. Return to the LORD our God. He will be merciful and forgive your sins.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD says: “My thoughts and my ways are not like yours.

<sup>9</sup>Just as the heavens are higher than the earth, my thoughts and my ways are higher than yours.

<sup>10</sup>“Rain and snow fall from the sky. But they don't return without watering the earth that produces seeds to plant and grain to eat.

<sup>11</sup>That's how it is with my words. They don't return to me without doing everything I send them to do.”

God's people will celebrate

<sup>12</sup>When you are set free, you will celebrate and travel home in peace. Mountains and hills will sing as you pass by, and trees will clap.

<sup>13</sup>Cypress and myrtle trees will grow in fields once covered by thorns. And then those trees will stand as a lasting witness to the glory of the LORD.

Isaiah 56

All nations will be part of God's people

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Be honest and fair! Soon I will come to save you; my saving power will be seen everywhere on earth.

<sup>2</sup>I will bless everyone who respects the Sabbath and refuses to do wrong.

<sup>3</sup>Foreigners who worship me must not say, “The LORD won't let us be part of his people.” Men who are unable to become fathers must no longer say, “We are dried up trees.”

<sup>4</sup>To them, I, the LORD, say: Respect the Sabbath, obey me completely, and keep our agreement.

<sup>5</sup>Then I will set up monuments in my temple with your names written on them. This will be much better than having children, because these monuments will stand there for ever.

<sup>6</sup>Foreigners will follow me. They will love me and worship in my name; they will respect the Sabbath and keep our agreement.

<sup>7</sup>I will bring them to my holy mountain, where they will celebrate in my house of worship. Their sacrifices and offerings will always be welcome on my altar. Then my house will be known as a house of worship for all nations.

<sup>8</sup>I, the LORD, promise to bring together my people who were taken away, and let them join the others.

Leaders unfaithful to God will be punished
God promises to punish Israel's leaders

<sup>9</sup>Come from the forest, you wild animals! Attack and gobble up your victims.

<sup>10</sup>You leaders of Israel should be watchdogs, protecting my people. But you can't see a thing, and you never warn them. Dozing and daydreaming are all you ever do.

<sup>11</sup>You stupid leaders are a pack of hungry and greedy dogs that never get enough. You are shepherds who ill-treat your own sheep for selfish gain.

<sup>12</sup>You say to each other, "Let's drink till we're drunk! Tomorrow we'll do it again. We'll really enjoy ourselves."

Isaiah 57

God's faithful people suffer

<sup>1</sup>God's faithful people are dragged off and killed, and no one even cares. Evil sweeps them away,

<sup>2</sup>but in death they find peace for obeying God.

The LORD condemns idolatry

<sup>3</sup>You people are unfaithful! You go to fortune-tellers, and you worship idols. Now pay close attention!

<sup>4</sup>Who are you making fun of? Who are you sneering at? Look how your sins have made fools of you.

<sup>5</sup>All you think about is sex under those green trees where idols are worshipped. You sacrifice your children on altars built in valleys under rocky slopes.

<sup>6</sup>You have chosen to worship idols made of stone; you have given them offerings of wine and grain. Should I be pleased?

<sup>7</sup>You have spread out your beds on the tops of high mountains, where you sacrifice to idols.

<sup>8</sup>Even in your homes you have placed pagan symbols all around your huge beds. Yes, you have rejected me, sold yourselves to your lovers, and gone to bed with them.

<sup>9</sup>You smear on olive oil and all kinds of perfume to worship the god Molech. You even seek advice from spirits of the dead.

<sup>10</sup>Though you tired yourself out by running after idols, you refused to stop. Your desires were so strong that they kept you going.

<sup>11</sup>Did you forget about me and become unfaithful because you were more afraid of someone else? Have I been silent so long that you no longer fear me?

<sup>12</sup>You think you're so good, but I'll point out the truth.

<sup>13</sup>Ask your idols to save you when you are in trouble. Be careful though— it takes only a faint breath to blow them over. But if you come to me for protection, this land and my holy mountain will always belong to you.

The LORD helps the helpless

<sup>14</sup>The LORD says, “Clear the road! Get it ready for my people.”

<sup>15</sup>Our holy God lives for ever in the highest heavens, and this is what he says: Though I live high above in the holy place, I am here to help those who are humble and depend only on me.

<sup>16</sup>My people, I won't stay angry and keep on accusing you. After all, I am your Creator. I don't want you to give up in complete despair.

<sup>17</sup>Your greed made me furious. That's why I punished you and refused to be found, while you kept returning to your old sinful ways.

<sup>18</sup>I know what you are like! But I will heal you, lead you, and give you comfort, until those who are mourning

<sup>19</sup>start singing my praises. No matter where you are, I, the LORD, will heal you and give you peace.

<sup>20</sup>The wicked are a restless sea tossing up mud.

<sup>21</sup>But I, the LORD, have promised that none who are evil will live in peace.

Isaiah 58

True religion

<sup>1</sup>Shout the message! Don't hold back. Say to my people Israel: You've sinned! You've turned against the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Day after day, you worship him and seem eager to learn his teachings. You act like a nation that wants to do right by obeying his laws. You ask him about justice, and say you enjoy worshipping the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>You wonder why the LORD pays no attention when you go without eating and act humble. But on those same days that you give up eating, you think only of yourselves and abuse your workers.

<sup>4</sup>You even get angry and ready to fight. No wonder God won't listen to your prayers!

<sup>5</sup>Do you think the LORD wants you to give up eating and to act as humble as a bent over bush? Or to dress in sackcloth and sit in ashes? Is this really what he wants on a day of worship?

<sup>6</sup>I'll tell you what it really means to worship the LORD. Remove the chains of prisoners who are chained unjustly. Free those who are abused!

<sup>7</sup>Share your food with everyone who is hungry; share your home with the poor and homeless. Give clothes to those in need; don't turn away your relatives.

<sup>8</sup>Then your light will shine like the dawning sun, and you will quickly be healed. Your honesty will protect you as you advance, and the glory of the LORD will defend you from behind.

<sup>9</sup>When you beg the LORD for help, he will answer, “Here I am!” Don't ill-treat others or falsely accuse them or say something cruel.

<sup>10</sup>Give your food to the hungry and care for the homeless. Then your light will shine in the dark; your darkest hour will be like the noonday sun.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will always guide you and provide good things to eat when you are in the desert. He will make you healthy. You will be like a garden that has plenty of water or like a stream that never runs dry.

<sup>12</sup>You will rebuild those houses left in ruins for years; you will be known as a builder and repairer of city walls and streets.

<sup>13</sup>But first, you must start respecting the Sabbath as a joyful day of worship. You must stop doing and saying whatever you please on this special day.

<sup>14</sup>Then you will truly enjoy knowing the LORD. He will let you rule from the highest mountains and bless you with the land of your ancestor Jacob. The LORD has spoken!

Isaiah 59

Social injustice is condemned

<sup>1</sup>The LORD hasn't lost his powerful strength; he can still hear and answer prayers.

<sup>2</sup>Your sins are the roadblock between you and your God. That's why he doesn't answer your prayers or let you see his face.

<sup>3</sup>Your talk is filled with lies and plans for violence; every finger on your hands is covered with blood.

<sup>4</sup>You falsely accuse others and tell lies in court; sin and trouble are the names of your children.

<sup>5</sup>You eat the deadly eggs of poisonous snakes, and more snakes crawl out from the eggs left to hatch. You weave spider's webs,

<sup>6</sup>but you can't make clothes with those webs or hide behind them. You're sinful and brutal.

<sup>7</sup>You hurry off to do wrong or murder innocent victims. All you think about is sin; you leave ruin and destruction wherever you go.

<sup>8</sup>You don't know how to live in peace or to be fair with others. The roads you make are crooked; your followers cannot find peace.

The people confess their sins

<sup>9</sup>No one has come to defend us or to bring about justice. We hoped for a day of sunshine, but all we found was a dark, gloomy night.

<sup>10</sup>We feel our way along, as if we were blind; we stumble at midday, as if it were night. We can see no better than someone dead.

<sup>11</sup>We growl like bears and mourn like doves. We hope for justice and victory, but they escape us.

<sup>12</sup>How often have we sinned and turned against you, the LORD God? Our sins condemn us! We have done wrong.

<sup>13</sup>We have rebelled and refused to follow you. Our hearts were deceitful, and so we lied; we planned to abuse others and turn our backs on you.

<sup>14</sup>Injustice is everywhere; justice seems far away. Truth is chased out of court; honesty is shoved aside.

<sup>15</sup>Everyone tells lies; those who turn from crime end up ruined.

The LORD will rescue his people

When the LORD noticed that justice had disappeared, he became very displeased.

<sup>16</sup>It disgusted him even more to learn that no one would do a thing about it. So with his own powerful arm, he won victories for truth.

<sup>17</sup>Justice was the LORD's armour; saving power was his helmet; anger and revenge were his clothes.

<sup>18</sup>Now the LORD will get furious and do to his enemies, both near and far, what they did to his people.

<sup>19</sup>He will attack like a flood in a mighty storm. Nations in the west and the east will then honour and praise his wonderful name.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD has promised to rescue the city of Zion and Jacob's descendants who turn from sin.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD says: "My people, I promise to give you my Spirit and my message. These will be my gifts to you and your families for ever. I, the LORD, have spoken."

Isaiah 60

The future glory of Jerusalem A new day for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, stand up! Shine! Your new day is dawning. The glory of the LORD shines brightly on you.

<sup>2</sup>The earth and its people are covered with darkness, but the glory of the LORD is shining upon you.

<sup>3</sup>Nations and kings will come to the light of your dawning day.

Crowds are coming to Jerusalem

The LORD said:

<sup>4</sup>Open your eyes! Look around! Crowds are coming. Your sons are on their way from distant lands; your daughters are being carried like little children.

<sup>5</sup>When you see this, your faces will glow; your hearts will pound and swell with pride. Treasures from across the sea and the wealth of nations will be brought to you.

<sup>6</sup>Your country will be covered with caravans of young camels from Midian and Ephah. The people of Sheba will bring gold and spices in praise of me, the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Every sheep of Kedar will come to you; rams from Nebaioth will be yours as well. I will accept them as offerings and bring honour to my temple.

<sup>8</sup>What is that sailing by like clouds or like doves flying home?

<sup>9</sup>On those distant islands your people are waiting for me, the LORD. Seagoing ships lead the way to bring them home with their silver and gold. I, the holy LORD God of Israel, do this to honour your people, so they will honour me.

Jerusalem will be rebuilt

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup>Jerusalem, your city walls will be rebuilt by foreigners; their rulers will become your slaves. I punished you in my anger; now I will be kind and treat you with mercy.

<sup>11</sup>Your gates will be open day and night to let the rulers of nations lead their people to you with all their treasures.

<sup>12</sup>Any nation or kingdom that refuses to serve you will be wiped out.

<sup>13</sup>Wood from Lebanon's best trees will be brought to you— the pines, the firs, and the cypress trees. It will be used in my temple to make beautiful the place where I rest my feet.

<sup>14</sup>The descendants of enemies who hated and ill-treated you will kneel at your feet. They will say, “You are Zion, the city of the LORD, the holy God of Israel.”

<sup>15</sup>You were hated and deserted, rejected by everyone. But I will make you beautiful, a city to be proud of for all time to come.

<sup>16</sup>You will drain the wealth of kings and foreign nations. You will know that I, the mighty LORD God of Israel, have saved and rescued you.

<sup>17</sup>I will bring bronze and iron in place of wood and stone; in place of bronze and iron, I will bring gold and silver. I will appoint peace and justice as your rulers and leaders.

<sup>18</sup>Violence, destruction, and ruin will never again be heard of within your borders. “Victory” will be the name you give to your walls; “Praise” will be the name you give to your gates.

<sup>19</sup>You won't need the light of the sun or the moon. I, the LORD your God, will be your eternal light and bring you honour.

<sup>20</sup>Your sun will never set or your moon go down. I, the LORD, will be your everlasting light, and your days of sorrow will come to an end.

<sup>21</sup>Your people will live right and always own the land; they are the trees I planted to bring praise to me.

<sup>22</sup>Even the smallest family will be a powerful nation. I am the LORD, and when the time comes, I will quickly do all this.

Isaiah 61

The good news of victory

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of the LORD God has taken control of me! The LORD has chosen and sent me to tell the oppressed the good news, to heal the brokenhearted, and to announce freedom for prisoners and captives.

<sup>2</sup> This is the year when the LORD God will show kindness to us and punish our enemies. The LORD has sent me to comfort those who mourn, <sup>3</sup> especially in Jerusalem. He sent me to give them flowers in place of their sorrow, olive oil in place of tears, and joyous praise in place of broken hearts. They will be called “Trees of Justice”, planted by the LORD to honour his name.

<sup>4</sup> Then they will rebuild cities that have been in ruins for many generations.

<sup>5</sup> They will hire foreigners to take care of their sheep and their vineyards.

<sup>6</sup>But they themselves will be priests and servants of the LORD our God. The treasures of the nations will belong to them, and they will be famous.

<sup>7</sup>They were terribly insulted and horribly ill-treated; now they will be greatly blessed and joyful for ever.

The LORD loves justice

<sup>8</sup>I, the LORD, love justice! But I hate robbery and injustice. My people, I solemnly promise to reward you with an eternal agreement.

<sup>9</sup>Your descendants will be known in every nation. All who see them will realize that they have been blessed, by me, the LORD.

Celebrate and shout

<sup>10</sup>I celebrate and shout because of my LORD God. His saving power and justice are the very clothes I wear. They are more beautiful than the jewellery worn by a bride or a groom.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will bring about justice and praise in every nation on earth, like flowers blooming in a garden.

Isaiah 62

Jerusalem will be saved

<sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, I will speak up for your good. I will never be silent till you are safe and secure, sparkling like a flame.

<sup>2</sup>Your great victory will be seen by every nation and king; the LORD will even give you a new name.

<sup>3</sup>You will be a glorious crown, a royal headband, for the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup>Your name will no longer be “Deserted and Childless”, but “Happily Married”. You will please the LORD; your country will be his bride.

<sup>5</sup>Your people will take the land, just as a young man takes a bride. The LORD will be pleased because of you, just as a husband is pleased with his bride.

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, on your walls I have stationed guards, whose duty it is to speak out day and night, without resting. They must remind the LORD

<sup>7</sup>and not let him rest till he makes Jerusalem strong and famous everywhere.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has given his word and made this promise: “Never again will I give to your enemies the grain and grapes for which you struggled.

<sup>9</sup>As surely as you harvest your grain and grapes, you will eat your bread with thankful hearts, and you will drink your wine in my temple.”

<sup>10</sup>People of Jerusalem, open your gates! Repair the road to the city and clear it of stones; raise a banner to help the nations find their way.

<sup>11</sup>Here is what the LORD has said for all the earth to hear: “Soon I will come to save the city of Zion, and to reward you.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will be called, ‘The LORD's Own People, The Ones He Rescued!’ Your city will be known as a good place to live and a city full of people.”

Isaiah 63

God's wonderful new creation The LORD's victory over the nations

<sup>1</sup>Who is this coming from Bozrah in Edom with clothes stained red? Who is this hero marching in his glorious uniform? “It's me, the LORD! I have won the battle, and I can save you!”

<sup>2</sup>What are those red spots? Your clothes look stained from trampling on grapes.

<sup>3</sup>“I alone trampled the grapes! None of the nations helped. I trampled nations in my anger and stained my clothes with their blood.

<sup>4</sup>I did this because I wanted to take revenge—the time had come to rescue my people.

<sup>5</sup>No one was there to help me or to give support; my mighty arm won the battle, strengthened by my anger.

<sup>6</sup>In my fury I trampled on nations and made them drunk; their blood poured out everywhere on earth.”

The LORD's goodness to his people

<sup>7</sup>I will tell about the kind deeds the LORD has done. They deserve praise! The LORD has shown mercy to the people of Israel; he has been kind and good.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD rescued his people, and said, “They are mine. They won't betray me.”

<sup>9</sup>It troubled the LORD to see them in trouble, and his angel saved them. The LORD was truly merciful, so he rescued his people. He took them in his arms and carried them all those years.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD's people turned against him and made his Holy Spirit sad. So he became their enemy and attacked them.

<sup>11</sup>But his people remembered what had happened during the time of Moses. Didn't the LORD bring them and their leaders safely through the sea? Didn't he give them his Holy Spirit?

<sup>12</sup>The glorious power of the LORD marched beside Moses. The LORD will be praised for ever for dividing the sea.

<sup>13</sup>He led his people across like horses running wild without stumbling.

<sup>14</sup>His Spirit gave them rest, just as cattle find rest when led into a valley. The name of the LORD was praised for doing these things.

A prayer for mercy and help

<sup>15</sup>Please, LORD, look down from your holy and glorious home in the heavens and see what's going on. Have you lost interest? Where is your power? Show that you care about us and have mercy!

<sup>16</sup>Our ancestors Abraham and Jacob have both rejected us. But you are still our Father; you have been our protector since ancient times.

<sup>17</sup>Why did you make us turn away from you, our LORD? Why did you make us want to disobey you? Please change your mind! We are your servants, your very own people.

<sup>18</sup>For a little while, your temple belonged to us; and now our enemies have torn it down.

<sup>19</sup>We act as though you had never ruled us or called us your people.

Isaiah 64

<sup>1</sup>Rip the heavens apart! Come down, LORD; make the mountains tremble.

<sup>2</sup>Be a spark that starts a fire causing water to boil. Then your enemies will know who you are; all nations will tremble because you are nearby.

<sup>3</sup>Your fearsome deeds have completely amazed us; even the mountains shake when you come down.

<sup>4</sup>You are the only God ever seen or heard of who works miracles for his followers.

<sup>5</sup>You help all who gladly obey and do what you want, but sin makes you angry. Only by your help can we ever be saved.

<sup>6</sup>We are unfit to worship you; each of our good deeds is merely a filthy rag. We dry up like leaves; our sins are storm winds sweeping us away.

<sup>7</sup>No one worships in your name or remains faithful. You have turned your back on us and let our sins melt us away.

<sup>8</sup>You, LORD, are our Father. We are nothing but clay, but you are the potter who moulded us.

<sup>9</sup>Don't be so furious or keep our sins in your thoughts for ever! Remember that all of us are your people.

<sup>10</sup>Every one of your towns has turned into a desert, especially Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Zion's glorious and holy temple where our ancestors praised you has been destroyed by fire. Our beautiful buildings are now a pile of ruins.

<sup>12</sup>When you see these things, how can you just sit there and make us suffer more?

Isaiah 65

The LORD will punish the guilty

<sup>1</sup>I, the LORD, was ready to answer even those who were not asking and to be found by those who were not searching. To a nation that refused to worship me, I said, “Here I am!”

<sup>2</sup>All day long I have reached out to stubborn and sinful people going their own way.

<sup>3</sup>They keep making me angry by sneering at me, while offering sacrifices to idols in gardens and burning incense to them on bricks.

<sup>4</sup>They spend their nights hiding in burial caves; they eat the meat of pigs, cooked in sauces made of stuff unfit to eat.

<sup>5</sup>And then they say to others, “Don't come near us! We're dedicated to God.” Such people are like smoke, irritating my nose all day.

<sup>6</sup>I have written this down; I won't keep silent. I'll pay them back just as their sins deserve.

<sup>7</sup>I, the LORD, will make them pay for their sins and for those of their ancestors— they have disgraced me by burning incense on mountains.

<sup>8</sup>Here is what the LORD says: A cluster of grapes that produces wine is worth keeping! So, because of my servants, I won't destroy everyone.

<sup>9</sup>I have chosen the people of Israel and Judah, and I will bless them with many descendants. They will settle here in this land of mountains, and it will be theirs.

<sup>10</sup>My people will worship me. Then the coastlands of Sharon and the land as far as Achor Valley will turn into pasture land where cattle and sheep will feed and rest.

<sup>11</sup>What will I, the LORD, do if any of you reject me and my holy mountain? What will happen to you for offering food and wine to the gods you call “Good Luck” and “Fate”?

<sup>12</sup>Your luck will end! I will see to it that you are slaughtered with swords. You refused to answer when I called out; you paid no attention to my instructions. Instead, you did what I hated, knowing it was wrong.

<sup>13</sup>I, the LORD God, will give food and drink to my servants, and they will celebrate. But all of you sinners will go hungry and thirsty, overcome with disgrace.

<sup>14</sup>My servants will laugh and sing, but you will be sad and cry out in pain.

<sup>15</sup>I, the LORD God, promise to see that you are killed and that my chosen servants use your names as curse words. But I will give new names to my servants.

<sup>16</sup>I am God! I can be trusted. Your past troubles are gone; I no longer think of them. When you pray for someone to receive a blessing, or when you make a promise, you must do it in my name. I alone am the God who can be trusted.

The LORD's new creation

<sup>17</sup>I am creating new heavens and a new earth; everything of the past will be forgotten.

<sup>18</sup>Celebrate and be glad for ever! I am creating a Jerusalem, full of happy people.

<sup>19</sup>I will celebrate with Jerusalem and all its people; there will be no more crying or sorrow in that city.

<sup>20</sup>No child will die in infancy; everyone will live to a ripe old age. Anyone a hundred years old will be considered young, and to die younger than that will be considered a curse.

<sup>21</sup>My people will live in the houses they build; they will enjoy grapes from their own vineyards.

<sup>22</sup>No one will take away their homes or vineyards. My chosen people will live to be as old as trees, and they will enjoy what they have earned.

<sup>23</sup>Their work won't be wasted, and their children won't die of dreadful diseases. I will bless their children and their grandchildren.

<sup>24</sup>I will answer their prayers before they finish praying.

<sup>25</sup>Wolves and lambs will graze together; lions and oxen will feed on straw. Snakes will eat only dust! They won't bite or harm anyone on my holy mountain. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Isaiah 66

True worship

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Heaven is my throne; the earth is my footstool. What kind of house could you build for me? In what place will I rest?

<sup>2</sup>I have made everything; that's how it all came to be. I, the LORD, have spoken. The people I treasure most are the humble— they depend only on me and tremble when I speak.

<sup>3</sup>You sacrifice oxen to me, and you commit murder; you sacrifice lambs to me and dogs to other gods; you offer grain to me and pigs' blood to idols; you burn incense to me and praise your idols. You have made your own choice to do these disgusting things that you enjoy so much.

<sup>4</sup>You refused to answer when I called out; you paid no attention to my instructions. Instead, you did what I hated, knowing it was wrong. Now I will punish you in a way you dread the most.

The LORD will help Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup>If you tremble when the LORD speaks, listen to what he says: “Some of your own people hate and reject you because of me. They make fun and say, ‘Let the LORD show his power! Let us see him make you truly happy.’ But those who say these things will be terribly ashamed.”

<sup>6</sup>Do you hear that noise in the city and those shouts coming from the temple? It is the LORD shouting as he punishes his enemies.

<sup>7</sup>Have you ever heard of a woman who gave birth to a child before having labour pains?

<sup>8</sup>Who ever heard of such a thing or imagined it could happen? Can a nation be born in a day or come to life in a second? Jerusalem is like a mother who gave birth to her children as soon as she was in labour.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD is the one who makes birth possible. And he will see that Zion has many more children. The LORD has spoken.

<sup>10</sup>If you love Jerusalem, celebrate and shout! If you were in sorrow because of the city, you can now be glad.

<sup>11</sup>She will nurse and comfort you, just like your own mother, until you are satisfied. You will fully enjoy her wonderful glory.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD has promised: “I will flood Jerusalem with the wealth of nations and make the city prosper. Zion will nurse you at her breast, carry you in her arms, and hold you in her lap.

<sup>13</sup>I will comfort you there like a mother comforting her child.”

<sup>14</sup>When you see this happen, you will celebrate; your strength will return faster than grass can sprout. Then everyone will know that the LORD is present with his servants, but he is angry with his enemies.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD will come down like a whirlwind with his flaming chariots. He will be terribly furious and punish his enemies with fire.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD's fiery sword will bring justice everywhere on this earth and execute many people.

A threat and a promise

<sup>17</sup>Some of you get yourselves ready and go to a garden to worship a foreign goddess. You eat the meat of pigs, lizards, and mice. But I, the LORD, will destroy you for this.

<sup>18</sup>I know everything you do and think! The time has now come to bring together the people of every language and nation and to show them my glory

<sup>19</sup>by proving what I can do. I will send the survivors to Tarshish, Pul, Lud, Meshech, Tubal, Javan, and to the distant islands. I will send them to announce my wonderful glory to nations that have never heard about me.

<sup>20</sup>They will bring your relatives from the nations as an offering to me, the LORD. They will come on horses, chariots, wagons, mules, and camels to Jerusalem, my holy mountain. It will be like the people of Israel bringing the right offering to my temple.

<sup>21</sup>I promise that some of them will be priests and others will be helpers in my temple. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>22</sup>I also promise that you will always have descendants and will never be forgotten, just as the new heavens and the new earth that I create will last for ever.

<sup>23</sup>On the first day of each month and on each Sabbath, everyone will worship me. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>24</sup>My people will go out and look at the dead bodies of those who turned against me. The worms there never die, the fire never stops burning, and the sight of those bodies will be disgusting to everyone.

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

God chooses Jeremiah to speak for him

<sup>1</sup>My name is Jeremiah. I am a priest, and my father Hilkiyah and everyone else in my family are from Anathoth in the territory of the Benjamin tribe. This book contains the things that the LORD told me to say.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD first spoke to me in the thirteenth year that Josiah was king of Judah, <sup>3</sup>and he continued to speak to me during the rule of Josiah's son Jehoiakim. The last time the LORD spoke to me was in the fifth month of the eleventh year that Josiah's son Zedekiah was king. That was also when the people of Jerusalem were taken away as prisoners.

The LORD chooses Jeremiah

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>5</sup>“Jeremiah, I am your Creator, and before you were born, I chose you to speak for me to the nations.”

<sup>6</sup>I replied, “I'm not a good speaker, LORD, and I'm too young.”

<sup>7</sup>“Don't say you're too young,” the LORD answered. “If I tell you to go and speak to someone, then go! And when I tell you what to say, don't leave out a word!

<sup>8</sup>I promise to be with you and keep you safe, so don't be afraid.”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD reached out his hand, then he touched my mouth and said, “I am giving you the words to say,

<sup>10</sup>and I am sending you with authority to speak to the nations for me. You will tell them of doom and destruction, and of rising and rebuilding again.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD showed me something in a vision. Then he asked, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I answered, “A branch of almonds that ripen early.”

<sup>12</sup>“That’s right,” the LORD replied, “and I always rise early to keep a promise.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD showed me something else and asked, “What do you see now?” I answered, “I see a pot of boiling water in the north, and it’s about to spill out towards us.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said: I will pour out destruction all over the land.

<sup>15</sup>Just watch while I send for the kings of the north. They will attack and capture Jerusalem and other towns, then set up their thrones at the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>I will punish my people, because they are guilty of turning from me to worship idols.

<sup>17</sup>Jeremiah, get ready! Go and tell the people what I command you to say. Don’t be frightened by them, or I will make you terrified while they watch.

<sup>18</sup>My power will make you strong like a fortress or a column of iron or a wall of bronze. You will oppose all of Judah, including its kings and leaders, its priests and people.

<sup>19</sup>They will fight back, but they won’t win. I, the LORD, give my word— I won’t let them harm you.

Jeremiah 2

God will punish the people of Judah and Jerusalem Israel’s unfaithfulness

<sup>1</sup>The LORD told me

<sup>2</sup>to go to Jerusalem and tell everyone that he had said: When you were my young bride, you loved me and followed me through the barren desert.

<sup>3</sup>You belonged to me alone, like the first part of the harvest, and I severely punished those who ill-treated you.

<sup>4</sup>Listen, people of Israel,

<sup>5</sup>and I, the LORD, will speak. I was never unfair to your ancestors, but they left me and became worthless by following worthless idols.

<sup>6</sup>Your ancestors refused to ask for my help, though I had rescued them from Egypt and led them through a treacherous, barren desert, where no one lives or dares to travel.

<sup>7</sup>I brought you here to my land, where food is abundant, but you made my land filthy with your sins.

<sup>8</sup>The priests who teach my laws don't care to know me. Your leaders rebel against me; your prophets give messages from Baal and worship false gods.

The LORD accuses his people

<sup>9</sup>I will take you to court and accuse you and your descendants

<sup>10-11</sup>of a crime that no nation has ever committed before. Just ask anyone, anywhere, from the eastern deserts to the islands in the west. You will find that no nation has ever abandoned its gods even though they were false. I am the true and glorious God, but you have rejected me to worship idols.

<sup>12</sup>Tell the heavens to tremble with fear!

<sup>13</sup>You, my people, have sinned in two ways— you have rejected me, the source of life-giving water, and you've tried to collect water in cracked and leaking pits dug in the ground.

<sup>14</sup>People of Israel, you weren't born slaves; you were captured in war.

<sup>15</sup>Enemies roared like lions and destroyed your land; towns lie burnt and empty.

<sup>16</sup>Soldiers from the Egyptian towns of Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked your skulls.

<sup>17</sup>It's all your own fault! You stopped following me, the LORD your God,

<sup>18</sup>and you trusted the power of Egypt and Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>Your own sins will punish you, because it was a bitter mistake for you to reject me without fear of punishment. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken.

<sup>20</sup>Long ago you left me and broke all ties between us, refusing to be my servant. Now you worship other gods by having sex on hilltops or in the shade of large trees.

<sup>21</sup>You were a choice grapevine, but now you produce nothing but small, rotten grapes.

Israel is stained with guilt

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said: People of Israel, you are stained with guilt, and no soap or bleach can wash it away.

<sup>23</sup>You deny your sins and say, “We aren't unclean. We haven't worshipped Baal.” But think about what you do in Hinnom Valley. And you run back and forth like young camels, as you rush to worship one idol after another.

<sup>24</sup>You are a female donkey sniffing the desert air, wanting to mate with just anyone. You are an easy catch!

<sup>25</sup>Your shoes are worn out, and your throat is parched from running here and there to worship foreign gods. “Stop!” I shouted, but you replied, “No! I love those gods too much.”

<sup>26</sup>You and your leaders are more disgraceful than thieves— you and your kings, your priests and prophets

<sup>27</sup>worship stone idols and sacred poles as if they had created you and had given you life. You have rejected me, but when you're in trouble, you cry to me for help.

<sup>28</sup>Go and cry to the gods you made! There should be enough of them to save you, because Judah has as many gods as it has towns.

Israel rebels against the LORD

<sup>29</sup>The LORD said to Israel: You accuse me of not saving you, but I say you have rebelled.

<sup>30</sup>I tried punishing you, but you refused to come back to me, and like fierce lions you killed my prophets.

<sup>31</sup>Now listen to what I say! Did I abandon you in the desert or surround you with darkness? You are my people, yet you have told me, “We'll do what we want, and we refuse to worship you!”

<sup>32</sup>A bride could not forget to wear her jewellery to her wedding, but you have forgotten me day after day.

<sup>33</sup>You are so clever at finding lovers that you could give lessons to a prostitute.

<sup>34</sup>You killed innocent people for no reason at all. And even though their blood can be seen on your clothes, <sup>35</sup>you claim to be innocent, and you want me to stop being angry with you. So I'll take you to court, and we'll see who is right.

<sup>36</sup>When Assyria let you down, you ran to Egypt, but you'll find no help there,

<sup>37</sup>and you will leave in great sadness. I won't let you find help from those you trust.

Jeremiah 3

Sin and shame

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to the people of Israel: If a divorced woman marries, can her first husband ever marry her again? No, because this would pollute the land. But you have more gods than a prostitute has lovers. Why should I take you back?

<sup>2</sup>Just try to find one hilltop where you haven't gone to worship other gods by having sex. You sat beside the road like a robber in ambush, except you offered yourself to every passer-by. Your sins of unfaithfulness have polluted the land.

<sup>3</sup>So I, the LORD, refused to let the spring rains fall. But just like a prostitute, you still have no shame for what you have done.

<sup>4</sup>You call me your father or your long-lost friend;

<sup>5</sup>you beg me to stop being angry, but you won't stop sinning.

The LORD asks Israel to come back to him

<sup>6</sup>When Josiah was king, the LORD said: Jeremiah, the kingdom of Israel was like an unfaithful wife who became a prostitute on the hilltops and in the shade of large trees.

<sup>7-8</sup>I knew that the kingdom of Israel had been unfaithful and committed many sins, yet I still hoped she might come back to me. But she didn't, so I divorced her and sent her away. Her sister, the kingdom of Judah, saw what happened, but she wasn't worried in the least, and I watched her become unfaithful like her sister.

<sup>9</sup>The kingdom of Judah wasn't sorry for being a prostitute, and she didn't care that she had made both herself and the land unclean by worshipping idols of stone and wood.

<sup>10</sup>And worst of all, the people of Judah pretended to come back to me.

<sup>11</sup>Even the people of Israel were honest enough not to pretend.

<sup>12</sup>Jeremiah, shout towards the north: Israel, I am your LORD— come back to me! You were unfaithful and made me furious, but I am merciful, and so I will forgive you.

<sup>13</sup>Just admit that you rebelled and worshipped foreign gods under large trees everywhere.

<sup>14</sup>You are unfaithful children, but you belong to me. Come home! I'll take one or two of you from each town and clan and bring you to Zion.

<sup>15</sup>Then I'll appoint wise rulers who will obey me, and they will care for you like shepherds.

<sup>16</sup>You will increase in numbers, and there will be no need to remember the sacred chest or to make a new one.

<sup>17</sup>The whole city of Jerusalem will be my throne. All nations will come here to worship me, and they will no longer follow their stubborn, evil hearts.

<sup>18</sup>Then, in countries to the north, you people of Judah and Israel will be reunited, and you will return to the land I gave your ancestors.

<sup>19</sup>I have always wanted to treat you as my children and give you the best land, the most beautiful on earth. I wanted you to call me “Father” and not turn from me.

<sup>20</sup>But instead, you are like a wife who broke her wedding vows. You have been unfaithful to me. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The people confess their sins

The LORD said:

<sup>21</sup>Listen to the noise on the hilltops! It's the people of Israel, weeping and begging me to answer their prayers. They forgot about me and chose the wrong path.

<sup>22</sup>I will tell them, “Come back, and I will cure you of your unfaithfulness.” They will answer, “We will come back, because you are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup>On hilltops, we worshipped idols and made loud noises, but it was all for nothing— only you can save us.

<sup>24</sup>Since the days of our ancestors when our nation was young, that shameful god Baal has taken our crops and livestock, our sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup>We have rebelled against you just like our ancestors, and we are ashamed of our sins.”

Jeremiah 4

How Israel can return to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Israel, if you really want to come back to me, get rid of those disgusting idols.

<sup>2</sup>Make promises only in my name, and do what you promise! Then all nations will praise me, and I will bless them.

<sup>3</sup>People of Jerusalem and Judah, don't be so stubborn! Your hearts have become hard, like unploughed ground where thorn bushes grow.

<sup>4</sup>With all your hearts, keep the agreement I made with you. But if you are stubborn and keep on sinning, my anger will burn like a fire that cannot be put out.

Disaster is coming

The LORD said:

<sup>5-6</sup>“Sound the trumpets, my people. Warn the people of Judah, ‘Run for your lives! Head for Jerusalem or another walled town!’ “Jeremiah, tell them I’m sending disaster from the north.

<sup>7</sup>An army will come out, like a lion from its den. It will destroy nations and leave your towns empty and in ruins.”

<sup>8</sup>Then I said to the people of Israel, “Put on sackcloth! Mourn and cry out, ‘The LORD is still angry with us.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said, “When all this happens, the king and his officials, the prophets and the priests will be shocked and terrified.”

<sup>10</sup>I said, “You are the LORD God. So why have you fooled everyone, especially the people of Jerusalem? Why did you promise peace, when a knife is at our throats?”

The coming disaster

<sup>11-12</sup>When disaster comes, the LORD will tell you people of Jerusalem, “I am sending a storm from the desert— not a welcome breeze. And it will sweep you away as punishment for your sins.

<sup>13</sup>Look! The enemy army swoops down like an eagle; their cavalry and chariots race faster than storm clouds blown by the wind.” Then you will answer, “We are doomed!”

<sup>14</sup>But Jerusalem, there is still time for you to be saved. Wash the evil from your hearts and stop making sinful plans,

<sup>15</sup>before a message of disaster arrives from the hills of Ephraim and the town of Dan.

16-17 The LORD said, “Tell the nations that my people have rebelled against me. And so an army will come from far away to surround Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. I, the LORD, have spoken.

18 “People of Judah, your hearts will be in pain, but it's your own fault that you will be punished.”

Jeremiah's vision of the coming punishment

19 I can't stand the pain! My heart pounds, as I twist and turn in agony. I hear the signal trumpet and the battle cry of the enemy, and I cannot be silent.

20 I see the enemy defeating us time after time, leaving everything in ruins. Even my own home is destroyed in a moment.

21 How long will I see enemy flags and hear their trumpets?

22 I heard the LORD say, “My people ignore me. They are foolish children who do not understand that they will be punished. All they know is how to sin.”

23 After this, I looked around. The earth was barren, with no form of life. The sun, moon, and stars had disappeared.

24 The mountains were shaking;

25 no people could be seen, and all the birds had flown away.

26 Farmland had become a desert, and towns were in ruins. The LORD's fierce anger had done all of this.

The death of Jerusalem

27-28 The LORD said: I have made my decision, and I won't change my mind. This land will be destroyed, although not completely. The sky will turn dark, and the earth will mourn.

29 Enemy cavalry and archers shout their battle cry. People run for their lives and try to find safety among trees and rocks. Every town is empty.

30 Jerusalem, your land has been wiped out. But you act like a prostitute and try to win back your lovers, who now hate you. You can put on a red dress, gold jewellery, and eye shadow, but it's no use— your lovers are out to kill you!

<sup>31</sup>I heard groaning and crying. Was it a woman giving birth to her first child? No, it was Jerusalem. She was gasping for breath and begging for help. “I’m dying!” she said. “They have murdered me.”

Jeremiah 5

Is anyone honest and faithful?

The LORD said to me:

<sup>1</sup>“Search Jerusalem for honest people who try to be faithful. If you can find even one, I’ll forgive the whole city.

<sup>2</sup>Everyone breaks promises made in my name.”

<sup>3</sup>I answered, “I know that you look for truth. You punished your people for their lies, but in spite of the pain, they became more stubborn and refused to turn back to you.”

<sup>4</sup>Then I thought to myself, “These common people act like fools, and they have never learnt what the LORD their God demands of them.

<sup>5</sup>I’ll go and talk to the leaders. They know what God demands.” But even they had decided not to obey the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>The people have rebelled and rejected the LORD too many times. So enemies will attack like lions from the forest or wolves from the desert. Those enemies will watch the towns of Judah, and like leopards they will tear to pieces whoever goes outside.

Enemies will punish Judah

The LORD said:

<sup>7</sup>People of Judah, how can I forgive you? I gave you everything, but you abandoned me and worshipped idols. You men go to prostitutes and are unfaithful to your wives.

<sup>8</sup>You are no better than animals, and you always want sex with someone else's wife.

<sup>9</sup>Why shouldn't I punish the people of Judah?

<sup>10</sup>I will tell their enemies, "Go through my vineyard. Don't destroy the vines, but cut off the branches, because they are the people who don't belong to me."

<sup>11</sup>In every way, Judah and Israel have been unfaithful to me.

<sup>12-13</sup>Their prophets lie and say, "The LORD won't punish us. We will have peace and plenty of food." They tell these lies in my name, so now they will be killed in war or starve to death.

<sup>14</sup>I am the LORD God All-Powerful. Jeremiah, I will tell you exactly what to say. Your words will be a fire; Israel and Judah will be the fuel.

<sup>15</sup>People of Israel, I have made my decision. An army from a distant country will attack you. I've chosen an ancient nation, and you won't understand their language.

<sup>16</sup>All of them are warriors, and their arrows bring death.

<sup>17</sup>This nation will eat your crops and livestock; they will leave no fruit on your vines or trees. And although you feel safe behind thick walls, your towns will be destroyed and your children killed.

Israel refused to worship the LORD

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said: Jeremiah, the enemy army won't kill everyone in Judah.

<sup>19</sup>And the people who survive will ask, "Why did the LORD our God do such terrible things to us?" Then tell them: I am the LORD, but you abandoned me and worshipped other gods in your own land. Now you will be slaves in a foreign country.

<sup>20</sup>Tell these things to each other, you people of Judah, you descendants of Jacob.

<sup>21</sup>You fools! Why don't you listen when I speak? Why can't you understand

<sup>22</sup>that you should worship me with fear and trembling? I'm the one who made the shore to hold back the ocean. Waves may crash on the beach, but they can come no further.

<sup>23</sup>You stubborn people have rebelled and turned your backs on me.

<sup>24</sup>You refuse to say, "Let's worship the LORD! He's the one who sends rain in spring and autumn and gives us a good harvest."

<sup>25</sup>That's why I cannot bless you!

<sup>26-27</sup>A hunter traps birds and puts them in a cage, but some of you trap humans and make them your slaves. You are evil, and you lie and cheat to make yourselves rich. You are powerful

<sup>28</sup>and prosperous, but you refuse to help the poor get the justice they deserve.

<sup>29</sup>You need to be punished, and so I will take revenge.

<sup>30</sup>Look at the terrible things going on in this country. I am shocked!

<sup>31</sup>Prophets give their messages in the name of a false god, my priests don't want to serve me, and you—my own people— like it this way! But on the day of disaster, where will you turn for help?

Jeremiah 6

A warning for the people of Jerusalem

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Run for your lives, people of Benjamin. Get out of Jerusalem. Sound a trumpet in Tekoa and light a signal fire in Beth-Haccherem. Soon you will be struck by disaster from the north.

<sup>2-3</sup>Jerusalem is a lovely pasture, but shepherds will surround it and divide it up, then let their flocks eat all the grass.

<sup>4</sup>Kings will tell their troops, "If we reach Jerusalem in the morning, we'll attack at midday. But if we arrive later, <sup>5</sup>we'll attack after dark and destroy its fortresses."

<sup>6</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, and I will command these armies to chop down trees and build a ramp up to the walls of Jerusalem. People of Jerusalem, I must punish you for your injustice.

<sup>7</sup>Evil pours from your city like water from a spring. Sounds of violent crimes echo within your walls; victims are everywhere, wounded and dying.

<sup>8</sup>Listen to me, you people of Jerusalem and Judah. I will abandon you, and your land will become an empty desert.

<sup>9</sup>I will tell your enemies to leave your nation bare like a vine stripped of grapes. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken.

Jeremiah's anger

<sup>10</sup>I have told the people that you, LORD, will punish them, but they just laugh and refuse to listen.

<sup>11</sup>Your anger against Judah flames up inside me, and I can't hold it in much longer.

The LORD's anger will sweep everyone away

The LORD answered:

Don't hold back my anger! Let it sweep away everyone—the children at play and all adults, young and old alike.

<sup>12</sup>I'll punish the people of Judah and give to others their houses and fields, as well as their wives. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone is greedy and dishonest, whether poor or rich. Even the prophets and priests cannot be trusted.

<sup>14</sup>All they ever offer to my deeply wounded people are empty hopes for peace.

<sup>15</sup>They should be ashamed of their disgusting sins, but they don't even blush. And so, when I punish Judah, they will end up on the ground, dead like everyone else. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The people of Judah rejected God's way of life

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said: My people, when you stood at the crossroads, I told you, “Follow the road your ancestors took, and you will find peace.” But you refused.

<sup>17</sup>I also sent prophets to warn you of danger, but when they sounded the alarm, you paid no attention.

<sup>18-19</sup>So I tell all nations on earth, “Watch what I will do! My people ignored me and rejected my laws. They planned to do evil, and now the evil they planned will happen to them.”

<sup>20</sup>People of Judah, you bring me incense from Sheba and spices from distant lands. You offer sacrifices of all kinds. But why bother? I hate these gifts of yours!

<sup>21</sup>So I will put stumbling blocks in your path, and everyone will die, including parents and children, neighbours and friends.

An army from the north

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said, “Look towards the north, where a powerful nation has prepared for war.

<sup>23</sup>Its well armed troops are cruel and never show mercy. Their galloping horses sound like ocean waves pounding on the shore. This army will attack you, lovely Jerusalem.”

<sup>24</sup>Then the people said, “Just hearing about them makes us tremble with fear, and we twist and turn in pain like a woman giving birth.”

<sup>25</sup>The LORD said, “Don't work in your fields or walk along the roads. It's too dangerous. The enemy is well armed <sup>26</sup>and attacks without warning. So mourn, my people, as though your only child had died. Wear clothes made of sackcloth and roll in the ash heap.”

The LORD's people must be tested

The LORD said:

<sup>27</sup>Jeremiah, test my people as though they were metal.

<sup>28</sup>And you'll find they are hard like bronze and iron. They are stubborn rebels, always spreading lies.

<sup>29-30</sup>Silver can be purified in a fiery furnace, but my people are too wicked to be made pure, and so I have rejected them.

Jeremiah 7

Jeremiah speaks in the temple

(Jeremiah 26.1–6)

<sup>1-3</sup>The LORD told me to stand by the gate of the temple and to tell the people who were going in that the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, had said: Pay attention, people of Judah! Change your ways and start living right, then I will let you keep on living in your own country.

<sup>4</sup>Don't fool yourselves! My temple is here in Jerusalem, but that doesn't mean I will protect you.

<sup>5</sup>I will keep you safe only if you change your ways. Be fair and honest with each other.

<sup>6</sup>Stop taking advantage of foreigners, orphans, and widows. Don't kill innocent people. And stop worshipping other gods.

<sup>7</sup>Then I will let you enjoy a long life in this land I gave your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup>But just look at what is happening! You put your trust in worthless lies.

<sup>9</sup>You steal and murder; you lie in court and are unfaithful in marriage. You worship idols and offer incense to Baal, when these gods have never done anything for you.

<sup>10</sup>And then you come into my temple and worship me! Do you think I will protect you so that you can go on sinning?

<sup>11</sup>You are thieves, and you have made my temple your hideout. But I've seen everything you have done.

<sup>12</sup>Go to Shiloh, where my sacred tent once stood. Take a look at what I did there. My people Israel sinned, and so I destroyed Shiloh!

<sup>13</sup>While you have been sinning, I have been trying to talk to you, but you refuse to listen.

<sup>14</sup>Don't think this temple will protect you. Long ago I told your ancestors to build it and worship me here, but now I have decided to tear it down, just as I destroyed Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup>And as for you, people of Judah, I'm going to send you away from my land, just as I sent away the people of Ephraim and the other northern tribes.

Punishment for worshipping other gods

The LORD said:

<sup>16</sup>Jeremiah, don't pray for these people! I, the LORD, would refuse to listen.

<sup>17</sup>Do you see what the people of Judah are doing in their towns and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>18</sup>Children gather firewood, their fathers build fires, and their mothers mix dough to bake bread for the goddess they call the Queen of Heaven. They even offer wine sacrifices to other gods, just to insult me.

<sup>19</sup>But they are not only insulting me; they are also insulting themselves by doing these shameful things.

<sup>20</sup>And now, I, the LORD All-Powerful, will flood Judah with my fiery anger until nothing is left—no people or animals, no trees or crops.

It is useless to offer sacrifices

<sup>21</sup>The LORD told me to say to the people of Judah: I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, but I won't accept sacrifices from you. So don't even bother bringing them to me. You might as well just cook the meat for yourselves.

<sup>22</sup>At the time I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I didn't command them to offer sacrifices to me.

<sup>23</sup>Instead, I told them, “If you listen to me and do what I tell you, I will be your God, you will be my people, and all will go well for you.”

<sup>24</sup>But your ancestors refused to listen. They were stubborn, and whenever I wanted them to go one-way, they always went the other.

<sup>25</sup>Ever since your ancestors left Egypt, I have been sending my servants the prophets to speak for me.

<sup>26</sup>But you have ignored me and become even more stubborn and sinful than your ancestors ever were!

Slaughter Valley

The LORD said:

<sup>27</sup>Jeremiah, no matter what you do, the people won't listen.

<sup>28</sup>So you must say to them: People of Judah, I am the LORD your God, but you have refused to obey me, and you didn't change when I punished you. And now, you no longer even pretend to be faithful to me.

<sup>29</sup>Shave your head bald and throw away the hair. Sing a funeral song on top of a barren hill. You people have made me angry, and I have abandoned you.

<sup>30</sup>You have disobeyed me by putting your disgusting idols in my temple, and now the temple itself is disgusting to me.

<sup>31</sup>At Topheth in Hinnom Valley you have built altars where you kill your children and burn them as sacrifices to other gods. I would never think of telling you to do this.

<sup>32</sup>So watch out! Some day that place will no longer be called Topheth or Hinnom Valley. It will be called Slaughter Valley, because you will bury your dead there until you run out of room, <sup>33</sup>and then bodies will lie scattered on the ground. Birds and wild animals will come and eat, and no one will be around to scare them off.

<sup>34</sup>When I have finished with your land, there will be deathly silence in the empty ruins of Jerusalem and the towns of Judah—no happy voices, no sounds of parties or wedding celebrations.

Jeremiah 8

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Then the bones of the dead kings of Judah and their officials will be dug up, along with the bones of the priests, the prophets, and everyone else in Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup>who loved and worshipped the sun, moon, and stars. These bones will be scattered and left lying on the ground like rubbish, where the sun and moon and stars can shine on them.

<sup>3</sup>Some of you people of Judah will be left alive, but I will force you to go to foreign countries, and you will wish you were dead. I, the LORD God All-Powerful, have spoken.

The people took the wrong road

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said: People of Jerusalem, when you stumble and fall, you get back up, and if you take a wrong road, you turn round and go back.

<sup>5</sup>So why do you refuse to come back to me? Why do you hold so tightly to your false gods?

<sup>6</sup>I listen carefully, but none of you admit that you've done wrong. Without a second thought, you run down the wrong road like cavalry troops charging into battle.

<sup>7</sup>Storks, doves, swallows, and thrushes all know when it's time to fly away for the winter and when to come back. But you, my people, don't know what I demand.

<sup>8</sup>You say, "We are wise because we have the teachings and laws of the LORD." But I say that your teachers have turned my words into lies!

<sup>9</sup>Your wise men have rejected what I say, and so they have no wisdom. Now they will be trapped and put to shame; they won't know what to do.

<sup>10</sup>I'll give their wives and fields to strangers. Everyone is greedy and dishonest, whether poor or rich. Even the prophets and priests cannot be trusted.

<sup>11</sup>All they ever offer to my deeply wounded people are empty hopes for peace.

<sup>12</sup>They should be ashamed of their disgusting sins, but they don't even blush. And so, when I punish Judah, they will end up on the ground, dead like everyone else.

<sup>13</sup>I will wipe them out. They are vines without grapes; fig trees without figs or leaves. They have not done a thing that I told them! I, the LORD, have spoken.

The people and their punishment

<sup>14</sup>The people of Judah say to each other, "What are we waiting for? Let's run to a town with walls and die there. We rebelled against the LORD, and we were sentenced to die by drinking poison.

<sup>15</sup>We had hoped for peace and a time of healing, but all we got was terror.

<sup>16</sup>Our enemies have reached the town of Dan in the north, and the snorting of their horses makes us tremble with fear. The enemy will destroy Jerusalem and our entire nation. No one will survive."

<sup>17</sup>"Watch out!" the LORD says. "I'm sending poisonous snakes to attack you, and no one can stop them."

Jeremiah mourns for his people

<sup>18</sup>I'm burdened with sorrow and feel like giving up.

<sup>19</sup>In a foreign land my people are crying. Listen! You'll hear them say, "Has the LORD deserted Zion? Is he no longer its king?" I hear the LORD reply, "Why did you make me angry by worshipping useless idols?"

<sup>20</sup>The people complain, “Spring and summer have come and gone, but still the LORD hasn't rescued us.”

<sup>21</sup>My people are crushed, and so is my heart. I am horrified and mourn.

<sup>22</sup>If medicine and doctors may be found in Gilead, why aren't my people healed?

Jeremiah 9

<sup>1</sup>I wish that my eyes were fountains of tears, so I could cry day and night for my people who were killed.

<sup>2</sup>I wish I could go into the desert and find a hiding place from all who are treacherous and unfaithful to God.

The LORD answers Jeremiah

<sup>3</sup>The LORD replied: Lies come from the mouths of my people, like arrows from a bow. With each dishonest deed their power increases, and not one of them will admit that I am God.

<sup>4</sup>Jeremiah, all your friends and relatives tell lies about you, so don't trust them.

<sup>5</sup>They wear themselves out, always looking for a new way to cheat their friends.

<sup>6</sup>Everyone takes advantage of everyone else, and no one will admit that I am God.

<sup>7</sup>And so I will purify the hearts of my people just as gold is purified in a furnace. I have no other choice.

<sup>8</sup>They say they want peace, but this lie is deadly, like an arrow that strikes when you least expect it.

<sup>9</sup>Give me one good reason not to punish them as they deserve. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken.

Jeremiah weeps for his people

<sup>10</sup>I weep for the pasture land in the hill country. It's so barren and scorched that no one travels there. No cattle can be found there, and birds and wild animals have all disappeared.

<sup>11</sup>I heard the LORD reply, "When I have finished, Jerusalem and the towns of Judah will be piles of ruins where only jackals live."

Why the land was destroyed

<sup>12</sup>I said to the LORD, "None of us can understand why the land has become like an uncrossable desert. Won't you explain why?"

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said: I destroyed the land because the people disobeyed me and rejected my laws and teachings.

<sup>14</sup>They were stubborn and worshipped Baal, just as their ancestors did.

<sup>15</sup>So I, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, promise them poison to eat and drink.

<sup>16</sup>I'll scatter them in foreign countries that they and their ancestors have never even heard of. Finally, I will send enemy soldiers to kill every last one of them.

The women who are paid to weep

<sup>17</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said, "Send for the women who are paid to weep at funerals, especially the women who can cry the loudest."

<sup>18</sup>The people answered, "Let them come quickly and cry for us, until our own eyes are flooded with tears.

<sup>19</sup>Now those of us on Zion cry, 'We are ruined! We can't stand the shame. Our homes have been destroyed, and we must leave our land. '

<sup>20</sup>"We ask you women to pay attention to what the LORD says. We will teach you a funeral song that you can teach your daughters and friends:

<sup>21</sup>'We were in our fortress, but death sneaked in through our windows. It even struck down children at play and our strongest young men. '

<sup>22</sup>“The LORD has told us the ground will be covered with dead bodies, like stalks of ungathered grain or like manure.”

What the LORD likes best

<sup>23</sup>The LORD says: Don't boast about your wisdom or strength or wealth.

<sup>24</sup>If you feel you must boast, then have enough sense to boast about worshipping me, the LORD. What I like best is showing kindness, justice, and mercy to everyone on earth.

<sup>25-26</sup>Some day I will punish the nations of Egypt, Edom, Ammon, and Moab, and the tribes of the desert. The men of these nations are circumcised, but they don't worship me. And it's the same with you people of Judah. Your bodies are circumcised, but your hearts are unchanged.

Jeremiah 10

The LORD talks about idols

<sup>1-2</sup>The LORD said: Listen to me, you people of Israel. Don't follow the customs of those nations who become frightened when they see something strange happen in the sky.

<sup>3</sup>Their religion is worthless! They chop down a tree, carve the wood into an idol, <sup>4</sup>cover it with silver and gold, and then nail it down so it won't fall over.

<sup>5</sup>An idol is no better than a scarecrow. It can't speak, and it has to be carried, because it can't walk. Why worship an idol that can't help or harm you?

Jeremiah praises the LORD

<sup>6</sup>Our LORD, great and powerful, you alone are God.

<sup>7</sup>You are King of the nations. Everyone should worship you. No human anywhere on earth is wiser than you.

<sup>8</sup>Idols are worthless, and anyone who worships them is a fool!

<sup>9</sup>Idols are made by humans. A carver shapes the wood. A metalworker hammers out a covering of gold from Uphaz or of silver from Tarshish. Then the idol is dressed in blue and purple clothes.

<sup>10</sup>You, LORD, are the only true and living God. You will rule for all time. When you are angry the earth shakes, and nations are destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>You told me to say that idols did not create the heavens and the earth, and that you, the LORD, will destroy every idol.

<sup>12</sup>With your wisdom and power you created the earth and spread out the heavens.

<sup>13</sup>The waters in the heavens roar at your command. You make clouds appear— you send the winds from your storehouse and make lightning flash in the rain.

<sup>14</sup>People who make idols are so stupid! They will be disappointed, because their false gods are not alive.

<sup>15</sup>Idols are merely a joke, and when the time is right, they will be destroyed.

<sup>16</sup>But you, Israel's God, created all things, and you chose Israel to be your very own. Your name is the LORD All-Powerful.

Judah will be thrown from its land

<sup>17</sup>I said to the people of Judah, “Gather your things; you are surrounded.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said these troubles will lead to your capture, and he will throw you from this land like a stone from a sling.”

<sup>19</sup>The people answered, “We are wounded and doomed to die. Why did we say we could stand the pain?

<sup>20</sup>Our homes are destroyed; our children are dead. No one is left to help us find shelter.”

<sup>21</sup>But I told them, “Our leaders were stupid failures, because they refused to listen to the LORD. And so we've been scattered like sheep.

<sup>22</sup>“Sounds of destruction rumble from the north like distant thunder. Soon our towns will be ruins where jackals live.”

Jeremiah prays

<sup>23</sup>I know, LORD, that we humans are not in control of our own lives.

<sup>24</sup>Correct me, as I deserve, but not in your anger, or I will be dead.

<sup>25</sup>Our enemies refuse to admit that you are God or to worship you. They have wiped out our people and left our nation lying in ruins. So get angry and sweep them away!

Jeremiah 11

Judah has broken the LORD's agreement

<sup>1-3</sup>The LORD God told me to say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: I, the LORD, am warning you that I will put a curse on anyone who doesn't keep the agreement I made with Israel. So pay attention to what it says.

<sup>4</sup>My commands haven't changed since I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, a nation that seemed like a blazing furnace where iron ore is melted. I told your ancestors that if they obeyed my commands, I would be their God, and they would be my people.

<sup>5</sup>Then I did what I had promised and gave them this wonderful land, where you now live. “Yes, LORD,” I replied, “that's true.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD told me to say to everyone in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah: Pay attention to the commands in my agreement with you.

<sup>7</sup>Ever since I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I have been telling your people to obey me. But you and your ancestors

<sup>8</sup>have always been stubborn. You have refused to listen, and instead you have done whatever your sinful hearts have desired. You have not kept the agreement we made, so I will make you suffer every curse that goes with it.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to me: Jeremiah, the people of Judah and Jerusalem are plotting against me.

<sup>10</sup>They have sinned in the same way their ancestors did, by turning from me and worshipping other gods. The northern kingdom of Israel broke the agreement I made with your ancestors, and now the southern kingdom of Judah has done the same.

<sup>11</sup>Here is what I've decided to do. I will bring suffering on the people of Judah and Jerusalem, and no one will escape. They will beg me to help, but I won't listen to their prayers.

<sup>12-13</sup>Then they will offer sacrifices to their other gods and ask them for help. After all, the people of Judah have more gods than towns, and more altars for Baal than there are streets in Jerusalem. But those gods won't be able to rescue the people of Judah from disaster.

<sup>14</sup>Jeremiah, don't pray for these people or beg me to rescue them. If you do, I won't listen, and I certainly won't listen if they pray!

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD told me to say to the people of Judah: You are my chosen people, but you have no right to be here in my temple, doing such terrible things. The sacrifices you offer me won't protect you from disaster, so stop celebrating.

<sup>16</sup>Once you were like an olive tree covered with fruit. But soon I will send a noisy mob to break off your branches and set you on fire.

<sup>17</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful. You people of Judah were like a tree that I had planted, but you have made me angry by offering sacrifices to Baal, just as the northern kingdom did. And now I'm going to pull you up by the roots.

The plot to kill Jeremiah

<sup>18-19</sup>Some people plotted to kill me. And like a lamb being led to the butcher, I knew nothing about their plans. But then the LORD told me that they had planned to chop me down like a tree— fruit and all— so that no one would ever remember me again.

<sup>20</sup>I prayed, “LORD All-Powerful, you always do what is right, and you know every thought. So I trust you to help me and to take revenge.”

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD said: Jeremiah, some men from Anathoth say they will kill you, if you keep on speaking for me.

<sup>22</sup>But I will punish them. Their young men will die in battle, and their children will starve to death.

<sup>23</sup>And when I have finished, no one from their families will be left alive.

Jeremiah 12

Jeremiah complains to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Whenever I complain to you, LORD, you are always fair. But now I have questions about your justice. Why is life easy for sinners? Why are they successful?

<sup>2</sup>You plant them like trees; you let them prosper and produce fruit. Yet even when they praise you, they don't mean it.

<sup>3</sup>But you know, LORD, how faithful I've always been, even in my thoughts. So drag my enemies away and butcher them like sheep!

<sup>4</sup>How long will the ground be dry and the pasture lands parched? The birds and animals are dead and gone. And all this happened because the people are so sinful. They even boast, “God can't see the sins we commit.”

The LORD answers Jeremiah

The LORD said:

<sup>5</sup>Jeremiah, if you get tired in a race against people, how can you possibly run against horses? If you fall in open fields, what will happen in the forest along the River Jordan?

<sup>6</sup>Even your own family has turned against you. They act friendly, but don't trust them. They're out to get you, and so is everyone else.

The LORD is furious with his people

The LORD said:

<sup>7</sup>I loved my people and chose them as my very own. But now I will reject them and hand them over to their enemies.

<sup>8</sup>My people have turned against me and roar at me like lions. That's why I hate them.

<sup>9</sup>My people are like a hawk surrounded and attacked by other hawks. Tell the wild animals to come and eat their fill.

<sup>10</sup>My beautiful land is ruined like a field or a vineyard trampled by shepherds and stripped bare by their flocks.

<sup>11</sup>Every field I see lies barren, and no one cares.

<sup>12</sup>A destroying army marches along desert roads and attacks everywhere. They are my deadly sword; no one is safe from them.

<sup>13</sup>My people, you planted wheat, but because I was furious, I let only weeds grow. You wore yourselves out for nothing!

The LORD will have pity on other nations

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said: I gave this land to my people Israel, but enemies around it have attacked and robbed it. So I will uproot them from their own countries just as I will uproot Judah from its land.

<sup>15</sup>But later, I will have pity on these nations and bring them back to their own lands.

<sup>16</sup>They once taught my people to worship Baal. But if they admit I am the only true God, and if they let my people teach them how to worship me, these nations will also become my people.

<sup>17</sup>However, if they don't listen to me, I will uproot them from their lands and completely destroy them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 13

Jeremiah's linen shorts

<sup>1</sup>The LORD told me, "Go and buy a pair of linen shorts. Wear them for a while, but don't wash them."

<sup>2</sup>So I bought a pair of shorts and put them on.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said,

<sup>4</sup>“Take off the shorts. Go to Parah and hide the shorts in a crack between some large rocks.”

<sup>5</sup>And that's what I did.

<sup>6</sup>Some time later the LORD said, “Go back and get the shorts.”

<sup>7</sup>I went back and dug the shorts out of their hiding place, but the cloth had rotted, and the shorts were ruined.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said:

<sup>9</sup>Jeremiah, I will use Babylonia to destroy the pride of the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Judah are evil and stubborn. So instead of listening to me, they do whatever they want and even worship other gods. When I have finished with these people, they will be good for nothing, just like this pair of shorts.

<sup>11</sup>These shorts were tight around your waist, and that's how tightly I held on to the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. I wanted them to be my people. I wanted to make them famous, so that other nations would praise and honour me, but they refused to obey me.

Wine jars

The LORD said:

<sup>12</sup>Jeremiah, tell the people of Judah, “The LORD God of Israel orders you to fill your wine jars with wine.” They will answer, “Of course we fill our wine jars with wine! Why are you telling us something we already know?”

<sup>13</sup>Then say to them: I am the LORD, and what I'm going to do will make everyone in Judah and Jerusalem appear to be full of wine. And the worst ones will be the kings of David's family and the priests and the prophets.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will smash them against each other like jars. I will have no pity on the young or the old, and they will all be destroyed. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The people of Judah will be taken away

<sup>15</sup>People of Judah, don't be too proud to listen to what the LORD has said.

<sup>16</sup>You hope for light, but God is sending darkness. Evening shadows already deepen in the hills. So return to God and confess your sins to him before you trip and fall.

<sup>17</sup>If you are too proud to listen, I will weep alone. Tears will stream from my eyes when the LORD's people are taken away as prisoners.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD told me to tell you that your king and his mother must surrender their thrones and remove their crowns.

<sup>19</sup>The cities in the Southern Desert are surrounded; no one can get in or out. Everyone in Judah will be taken away.

<sup>20</sup>Jerusalem, you were so proud of ruling the people of Judah. But where are they now? Look north, and you will see your enemies approaching.

<sup>21</sup>You once trusted them to help, but now I'll let them rule you. What do you say about that? You will be in pain like a woman giving birth.

<sup>22</sup>Do you know why your clothes were torn off and you were abused? It was because of your terrible sins.

<sup>23</sup>Can you ever change and do what's right? Can people change the colour of their skin, or can a leopard remove its spots? If so, then perhaps you can change and learn to do right.

<sup>24</sup>I will scatter you, just as the desert wind blows husks from grain tossed in the air.

<sup>25</sup>I won't change my mind. I, the LORD, have spoken. You rejected me and worshipped false gods.

26-27 You were married to me, but you were unfaithful. You even became a prostitute by worshipping disgusting gods on hilltops and in fields. So I'll rip off your clothes and leave you naked and ashamed for everyone to see. You are doomed! Will you ever be worthy to worship me again?

Jeremiah 14

The land dries up

1 When there had been no rain for a long time, the LORD told me to say to the people:

2 Judah and Jerusalem weep as the land dries up.

3 Rulers send their servants to the storage pits for water. But there's none to be found; they return in despair with their jars still empty.

4 There has been no rain, and farmers feel sick as they watch cracks appear in the dry ground.

5 A deer gives birth in a field, then abandons her newborn fawn and leaves in search of grass.

6 Wild donkeys go blind from starvation. So they stand on barren hilltops and sniff the air, hoping to smell green grass.

The LORD's people pray

7 Our terrible sins may demand that we be punished. But if you rescue us, LORD, everyone will see how great you are.

8 You're our only hope; you alone can save us now. You help us one day, but you're gone the next.

9 Did this disaster take you by surprise? Are you a warrior with your hands tied? You have chosen us, and your temple is here. Don't abandon us!

The LORD's answer

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup>My people, you love to wander away; you don't even try to stay close to me. So now I will reject you and punish you for your sins. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Lying prophets

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said, “Jeremiah, don't ask me to help these people.

<sup>12</sup>They may even go without eating and offer sacrifices to please me and to give thanks. But when they cry out for my help, I won't listen, and I won't accept their sacrifices. Instead, I'll send war, starvation, and disease to wipe them out.”

<sup>13</sup>I replied, “The other prophets keep telling everyone that you won't send starvation or war, and that you're going to give us peace.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD answered: They claim to speak for me, but they're lying! I didn't even speak to them, much less choose them to be my prophets. Their messages come from worthless dreams, useless fortune-telling, and their own imaginations.

<sup>15</sup>Those lying prophets say there will be peace and plenty of food. But I say that those same prophets will die from war and hunger.

<sup>16</sup>And everyone who listens to them will be killed, just as they deserve. Their dead bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, because their families will also be dead, and no one will be left to bury them.

<sup>17</sup>Jeremiah, go and tell the people how you feel about all this. So I told them: “Tears will flood my eyes both day and night, because my nation suffers from a deadly wound.

<sup>18</sup>In the fields I see the bodies of those killed in battle. And in the towns I see crowds dying of hunger. But the prophets and priests go about their business, without understanding what has happened.”

Jeremiah prays to the LORD

<sup>19</sup>Have you rejected Judah, LORD? Do you hate Jerusalem? Why did you strike down Judah with a fatal wound? We had hoped for peace and a time of healing, but all we got was terror.

<sup>20</sup>We and our ancestors are guilty of rebelling against you.

<sup>21</sup>If you save us, it will show how great you are. Don't let our enemies disgrace your temple, your beautiful throne. Don't forget that you promised to rescue us.

<sup>22</sup>Idols can't send rain, and showers don't fall by themselves. Only you control the rain, so we put our trust in you, the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 15

The people of Judah will die

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to me: Even if Moses and Samuel were here, praying with you, I wouldn't change my mind. So send the people of Judah away.

<sup>2</sup>And when they ask where they are going, tell them that I, the LORD, have said: Some of you are going to die of horrible diseases. Others are going to die in war or from starvation. The rest will be led away to a foreign country.

<sup>3</sup>I will punish you in four different ways: You will be killed in war and your bodies dragged off by dogs, your flesh will be eaten by birds, and your bones will be chewed on by wild animals.

<sup>4</sup>This punishment will happen because of the horrible things your King Manasseh did. And you will be disgusting to all nations on earth.

<sup>5</sup>People of Jerusalem, who will feel sorry for you? Will anyone bother to ask if you are well?

<sup>6</sup>My people, you abandoned me and walked away. I am tired of showing mercy; that's why I'll destroy you

<sup>7</sup>by scattering you like straw blown by the wind. I will punish you with sorrow and death, because you refuse to change your ways.

<sup>8</sup>There will be more widows in Judah than grains of sand on a beach. A surprise attack at midday! And the mothers in Jerusalem mourn for their children.

<sup>9</sup>A mother is in deep despair and struggles for breath. Her daylight has turned to darkness— she has suffered the loss of her seven sons. I will kill anyone who survives. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah complains

<sup>10</sup>I wish I had never been born! I'm always in trouble with everyone in Judah. I never lend or borrow money, but everyone curses me just the same.

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD replied, “I promise to protect you, and when disaster comes, even your enemies will beg you for help.”

The enemy cannot be defeated

The LORD told me to say:

<sup>12</sup>People of Judah, just as you can't break iron mixed with bronze, you can't defeat the enemies who will attack from the north.

<sup>13</sup>I will give them everything you own, because you have sinned everywhere in your country.

<sup>14</sup>My anger is a fire that cannot be put out, so I will make you slaves of your enemies in a foreign land.

Jeremiah complains again

<sup>15</sup>You can see how I suffer insult after insult, all because of you, LORD. Don't be so patient with my enemies; take revenge on them before they kill me.

<sup>16</sup>When you spoke to me, I was glad to obey, because I belong to you, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>17</sup>I don't go to parties and have a good time. Instead, I keep to myself, because you have filled me with your anger.

<sup>18</sup>I am badly injured and in constant pain. Are you going to disappoint me, like a stream that goes dry in the heat of summer?

The LORD replies

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD told me: Stop talking like a fool! If you turn back to me and speak my message, I will let you be my prophet once again. I hope the people of Judah will accept what you say. But you can ignore their threats, <sup>20-21</sup>because I am making you strong, like a bronze wall. They are evil and violent, but when they attack, I will be there to rescue you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 16

Jeremiah must live his message

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said to me:

<sup>2</sup>Jeremiah, don't get married and have children—Judah is no place to raise a family.

<sup>3</sup>I'll tell you what's going to happen to children and their parents here.

<sup>4</sup>They will die of horrible diseases and of war and starvation. No one will give them a funeral or bury them, and their bodies will be food for the birds and wild animals. And what's left will lie on the ground like manure.

<sup>5</sup>When someone dies, don't visit the family or show any sorrow. I will no longer love or bless or have any pity on the people of Judah.

<sup>6</sup>Rich and poor alike will die and be left unburied. No one will mourn and show their sorrow by cutting themselves or shaving their heads.

<sup>7</sup>No one will bring food and wine to help comfort those who are mourning the death of their father or mother.

<sup>8</sup>Don't even set foot in a house where there is eating and drinking and celebrating.

<sup>9</sup>Warn the people of Judah that I, the LORD All-Powerful, will put an end to all their parties and wedding celebrations.

<sup>10</sup>They will ask, “Why has the LORD our God threatened us with so many disasters? Have we done something wrong or sinned against him?”

<sup>11</sup>Then tell them I have said: People of Judah, your ancestors turned away from me; they rejected my laws and teachings and started worshipping other gods.

<sup>12</sup>And you have done even worse! You are stubborn, and instead of obeying me, you do whatever evil comes to your mind.

<sup>13</sup>So I will throw you into a land that you and your ancestors know nothing about, a place where you will have to worship other gods both day and night. And I won't feel the least bit sorry for you.

<sup>14</sup>A time will come when you will again worship me. But you will no longer call me the Living God who rescued Israel from Egypt.

<sup>15</sup>Instead, you will call me the Living God who rescued you from that country in the north and from the other countries where I had forced you to go. Some day I will bring you back to this land that I gave your ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>But for now, I am sending enemies who will catch you like fish and hunt you down like wild animals in the hills and the caves.

<sup>17</sup>I can see everything you are doing, even if you try to hide your sins from me.

<sup>18</sup>I will punish you double for your sins, because you have made my own land disgusting. You have filled it with lifeless idols that remind me of dead bodies.

The LORD gives strength

I prayed to the LORD:

<sup>19</sup>Our LORD, you are the one who gives me strength and protects me like a fortress when I am in trouble. People will come to you from distant nations and say, "Our ancestors worshipped false and useless gods, <sup>20</sup>worthless idols made by human hands."

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD replied, “That's why I will teach them about my power, and they will know that I am the true God.”

Jeremiah 17

The LORD will punish Judah

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>People of Judah, your sins cannot be erased. They are written on your hearts like words chiselled in stone or carved on the corners of your altars.

<sup>2-3</sup>One generation after another has set up pagan altars and worshipped the goddess Asherah everywhere in your country— on hills and mountains, and under large trees. So I'll take everything you own, including your altars, and give it all to your enemies.

<sup>4</sup>You will lose the land that I gave you, and I will make you slaves in a foreign country, because you have made my anger blaze up like a fire that won't stop burning.

Trust the LORD

The LORD said:

<sup>5</sup>I, the LORD, have put a curse on those who turn from me and trust in human strength.

<sup>6</sup>They will dry up like a bush in salty desert soil, where nothing can grow.

<sup>7</sup>But I will bless those who trust me.

<sup>8</sup>They will be like trees growing beside a stream— trees with roots that reach down to the water, and with leaves that are always green. They bear fruit every year and are never worried by a lack of rain.

<sup>9</sup>You people of Judah are so deceitful that you even fool yourselves, and you can't change.

<sup>10</sup>But I know your deeds and your thoughts, and I will make sure you get what you deserve.

<sup>11</sup>You cheated others, but everything you gained will fly away, like birds hatched from stolen eggs. Then you will discover what fools you are.

Jeremiah prays to the LORD

<sup>12</sup>Our LORD, your temple is a glorious throne that has stood on a mountain from the beginning.

<sup>13</sup>You are a spring of water giving Israel life and hope. But if the people reject what you have told me, they will be swept away like words written in dust.

<sup>14</sup>You, LORD, are the one I praise. So heal me and rescue me! Then I will be completely well and perfectly safe.

<sup>15</sup>The people of Judah say to me, “Jeremiah, you claimed to tell us what the LORD has said. So why hasn't it come true?”

<sup>16</sup>Our LORD, you chose me to care for your people, and that's what I have done. You know everything I have said, and I have never once asked you to punish them.

<sup>17</sup>I trust you for protection in times of trouble, so don't frighten me.

<sup>18</sup>Keep me from failure and disgrace, but make my enemies fail and be disgraced. Send destruction to make their worst fears come true.

Resting on the Sabbath

<sup>19-20</sup>The LORD said: Jeremiah, stand at each city gate in Jerusalem, including the one the king uses, and speak to him and everyone else. Tell them I have said: I am the LORD, so pay attention.

<sup>21-24</sup> If you value your lives, don't do any work on the Sabbath. Don't carry anything through the city gates or through the door of your house, or anywhere else. Keep the Sabbath day sacred! I gave this command to your ancestors, but they were stubborn and refused to obey or to be corrected. But if you obey,

<sup>25</sup>then Judah and Jerusalem will always be ruled by kings from David's family. The king and his officials will ride through these gates on horses or in chariots, and the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be with them. There will always be people living in Jerusalem,

<sup>26</sup>and others will come here from the nearby villages, from the towns of Judah and Benjamin, from the hill country and the foothills to the west, and from the Southern Desert. They will bring sacrifices to please me and to give me thanks, as well as offerings of grain and incense.

<sup>27</sup>But if you keep on carrying things through the city gates on the Sabbath and keep treating it as any other day, I will set fire to these gates and burn down the whole city, including the fortresses.

Jeremiah 18

Jeremiah goes to the pottery shop

<sup>1</sup>The LORD told me,

<sup>2</sup>“Go to the pottery shop, and when you get there, I will tell you what to say to the people.”

<sup>3</sup>I went there and saw the potter making clay pots on his pottery wheel.

<sup>4</sup>And whenever the clay would not take the shape he wanted, he would change his mind and form it into some other shape.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD told me to say:

<sup>6</sup>People of Israel, I, the LORD, have power over you, just as a potter has power over clay.

<sup>7</sup>If I threaten to uproot and shatter an evil nation

<sup>8</sup>and that nation turns from its evil, I will change my mind.

<sup>9</sup>If I promise to make a nation strong,

<sup>10</sup>but its people start disobeying me and doing evil, then I will change my mind and not help them at all.

<sup>11</sup>So listen to me, people of Judah and Jerusalem! I have decided to strike you with disaster, and I won't change my mind unless you stop sinning and start living right.

<sup>12</sup>But I know you won't listen. You might as well answer, “We don't care what you say. We have made plans to sin, and we are going to be stubborn and do what we want!”

<sup>13</sup>So I, the LORD, command you to ask the nations, and find out if they have ever heard of such a horrible sin as what you have done.

<sup>14</sup>The snow on Lebanon's mountains never melts away, and the streams there never run dry.

<sup>15</sup>But you, my people, have turned from me to burn incense to worthless idols. You have left the ancient road to follow an unknown path where you stumble over idols.

<sup>16</sup>Your land will be ruined, and every passer-by will look at it with horror and make insulting remarks.

<sup>17</sup>When your enemies attack, I will scatter you like dust blown by an eastern wind. Then, on that day of disaster, I will turn my back on you.

The plot against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>Some of the people said, “Let's get rid of Jeremiah! We will always have priests to teach us God's laws, as well as wise people to give us advice, and prophets to speak the LORD's messages. So, instead of listening to Jeremiah any longer, let's accuse him of a crime.”

Jeremiah prays about his enemies

<sup>19</sup>Please, LORD, answer my prayer. Make my enemies stop accusing me of evil.

<sup>20</sup>I tried to help them, but they are paying me back by digging a pit to trap me. I even begged you not to punish them.

<sup>21</sup>But now I am asking you to let their children starve or be killed in war. Let women lose their husbands and sons to disease and violence.

<sup>22</sup>These people have dug pits and set traps for me, LORD. Make them scream in fear when you send enemy troops to attack their homes.

<sup>23</sup>You know they plan to kill me. So get angry and punish them! Don't ever forgive their terrible crimes.

Jeremiah 19

Jeremiah and the clay jar

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Jeremiah, go to the pottery shop and buy a clay jar. Then take along some of the city officials and leading priests

<sup>2</sup>and go to Hinnom Valley, just outside Potsherd Gate. Tell the people that I have said:

<sup>3</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and you kings of Judah and you people of Jerusalem had better pay attention. I am going to bring so much trouble on this valley that everyone who hears about it will be shocked.

<sup>4-5</sup> The people of Judah stopped worshipping me and made this valley into a place of worship for Baal and other gods that have never helped them or their ancestors or their kings. And they have committed murder here, burning their young, innocent children as sacrifices to Baal. I have never even thought of telling you to do that.

<sup>6</sup>So watch out! Some day this place will no longer be called Topheth or Hinnom Valley. It will be called Slaughter Valley!

<sup>7</sup>You people of Judah and Jerusalem may have big plans, but here in this valley I'll ruin those plans. I'll let your enemies kill you, and I'll tell the birds and wild animals to eat your dead bodies.

<sup>8</sup>I will turn Jerusalem into a pile of rubble, and every passer-by will be shocked and horrified and will make insulting remarks.

<sup>9</sup>And while your enemies are trying to break through your city walls to kill you, the food supply will run out. You will become so hungry that you will eat the flesh of your friends and even of your own children.

<sup>10</sup>Jeremiah, as soon as you have said this, smash the jar while the people are watching.

<sup>11</sup>Then tell them that I have also said: I am the LORD All-Powerful, and I warn you that I will shatter Judah and Jerusalem just like this jar that is broken beyond repair. You will bury your dead here in Topheth, but so many of you will die that there won't be enough room.

<sup>12-13</sup>I will make Jerusalem as unclean as Topheth, by filling the city with your dead bodies. I will do this because you and your kings have gone up to the roofs of your houses and burnt incense to the stars in the sky, as though they were gods. And you have given sacrifices of wine to foreign gods.

Jeremiah speaks in the temple courtyard

<sup>14</sup>I went to Topheth, where I told the people what the LORD had said. Then I went to the temple courtyard and shouted to the people,

<sup>15</sup>“Listen, everyone! Some time ago, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, warned you that he would bring disaster on Jerusalem and all nearby villages. But you were stubborn and refused to listen. Now the LORD is going to bring the disaster he promised.”

Jeremiah 20

Pashhur arrests Jeremiah

<sup>1</sup>Pashhur son of Immer was a priest and the chief of temple security. He heard what I had said,

<sup>2</sup>and so he hit me. Then he had me arrested and put in chains at the Benjamin Gate in the LORD's temple.

<sup>3</sup>The next day, when Pashhur let me go free, I told him that the LORD had said: No longer will I call you Pashhur. Instead, I will call you Afraid-of-Everything.

<sup>4</sup>You will be afraid, and you will bring fear to your friends as well. You will see enemies kill them in battle. Then I will make the king of Babylonia take everyone in Judah prisoner, killing some and dragging the rest away to Babylonia.

<sup>5</sup>He will clean out the royal treasury and take everything else of value from Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Pashhur, you are guilty of telling lies and claiming they were messages from me. That's why I will make the Babylonians take you, your family, and your friends as prisoners to Babylonia, where you will all die and be buried.

Jeremiah complains to the LORD

<sup>7</sup>You tricked me, LORD, and I was really fooled. You are stronger than I am, and you have defeated me. People never stop sneering and insulting me.

<sup>8</sup>You have let me announce only destruction and death. Your message has brought me nothing but insults and trouble.

<sup>9</sup>Sometimes I tell myself not to think about you, LORD, or even mention your name. But your message burns in my heart and bones, and I cannot keep silent.

<sup>10</sup>I heard the crowds whisper, "Everyone is afraid. Now's our chance to accuse Jeremiah!" All of my so called friends are just waiting for me to make a mistake. They say, "Perhaps Jeremiah can be tricked. Then we can overpower him and get even at last."

<sup>11</sup>But you, LORD, are a mighty soldier, standing at my side. Those troublemakers will fall down and fail— terribly embarrassed, for ever ashamed.

<sup>12</sup>LORD All-Powerful, you test those who do right, and you know every heart and mind. I have told you my complaints, so let me watch you take revenge on my enemies.

<sup>13</sup>I sing praises to you, LORD. You rescue the oppressed from the wicked.

<sup>14</sup>Put a curse on the day I was born! Don't bless my mother.

<sup>15</sup>Put a curse on the man who told my father, "Good news! You have a son."

<sup>16</sup>May that man be like the towns you destroyed without pity. Let him hear shouts of alarm in the morning and battle cries at midday.

<sup>17</sup>He deserves to die for not killing me before I was born. Then my mother's body would have been my grave.

<sup>18</sup>Why did I have to be born? Was it just to suffer and die in shame?

Jeremiah 21

The LORD will fight against Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>King Zedekiah of Judah sent for Pashhur son of Malchiah and for a priest named Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. Then he told them, "Talk with Jeremiah for me." So they came to me and said,

<sup>2</sup>"King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia has attacked Judah. Please ask the LORD to work miracles for our people, as he has done in the past, so that Nebuchadnezzar will leave us alone."

<sup>3-7</sup>I told them that the LORD God of Israel had told me to say to King Zedekiah: The Babylonians have surrounded Jerusalem and want to kill you and your people. You are asking me to save you, but you have made me furious. So I will stretch out my mighty arm and fight against you myself. Your army is using spears and swords to fight the Babylonians, but I will make your own weapons turn and attack you. I will send a horrible disease to kill many of the people and animals in Jerusalem, and there will be nothing left to eat. Finally, I will let King Nebuchadnezzar and his army fight their way to the centre of Jerusalem and capture everyone who is left alive, including you and your officials. But Nebuchadnezzar won't be kind or show any mercy—he will have you killed! I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>8</sup>Then I told them that the LORD had said: People of Jerusalem, I, the LORD, give you the choice of life or death.

<sup>9</sup>The Babylonian army has surrounded Jerusalem, so if you want to live, you must go out and surrender to them. But if you want to die because of hunger, disease, or war, then stay here in the city.

<sup>10</sup>I have decided not to rescue Jerusalem. Instead, I am going to let the king of Babylonia burn it to the ground. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD warns the king of Judah

The LORD said:

<sup>11-12</sup>Pay attention, you who belong to the royal family. Each new day, make sure that justice is done, and rescue those who are being robbed. Or else my anger will flame up like a fire that never goes out.

<sup>13</sup>Jerusalem, from your mountaintop you look out over the valleys and think you are safe. But I, the LORD, am angry, <sup>14</sup>and I will punish you as you deserve. I'll set your palace on fire, and everything around you will go up in smoke.

Jeremiah 22

The LORD will punish the king of Judah

<sup>1-3</sup>The LORD sent me to the palace of the king of Judah to speak to the king, his officials, and everyone else who was there. The LORD told me to say: I am the LORD, so pay attention! You have been allowing people to cheat, rob, and take advantage of widows, orphans, and foreigners who live here. Innocent people have become victims of violence, and some of them have even been killed. But now I command you to do what is right and see that justice is done. Rescue everyone who has suffered from injustice.

<sup>4</sup>If you obey me, the kings from David's family will continue to rule Judah from this palace. They and their officials will ride in and out on their horses or in their chariots.

<sup>5</sup>But if you ignore me, I promise in my own name that this palace will lie in ruins.

<sup>6</sup>Listen to what I think about it: the palace of Judah's king is as glorious as Gilead or Lebanon's highest peaks. But it will be as empty as a ghost town when I'm through with it.

<sup>7</sup>I'll send troops to tear it apart, and its beautiful cedar beams will be used for firewood.

<sup>8</sup>People from different nations will pass by and ask, "Why did the LORD do this to such a great city as Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup>Others will answer, "It's because the people worshipped foreign gods and broke the agreement that the LORD their God had made with them."

King Jehoahaz

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup>King Josiah is dead, so don't cry for him. Instead, cry for his son King Jehoahaz, dragged off to another country, never to return.

<sup>11-12</sup>Jehoahaz became king of Judah after his father King Josiah died. But Jehoahaz was taken as a prisoner to a foreign country. Now I, the LORD, promise that he will die there without ever seeing his own land again.

King Jehoiakim

The LORD told me to say:

<sup>13-14</sup>King Jehoiakim, you are doomed! You built a palace with large rooms upstairs. You put in big windows and used cedar panelling and red paint. But you were unfair and forced the builders to work without pay.

<sup>15-16</sup>More cedar in your palace doesn't make you a better king than your father Josiah. He always did right— he gave justice to the poor and was honest. That's what it means to truly know me. So he lived a comfortable life and always had enough to eat and drink.

<sup>17</sup>But all you think about is how to cheat or abuse or murder some innocent victim.

<sup>18</sup>Jehoiakim, no one will cry at your funeral. They won't turn to each other and ask, "Why did our great king have to die?"

<sup>19</sup>You will be given a burial fit for a donkey; your body will be dragged outside the city gates and tossed in the dust. I, the LORD, have spoken.

King Jehoiachin and the people of Jerusalem

The LORD told me to say:

<sup>20</sup>People of Jerusalem, the nations you trusted have been crushed. Go to Lebanon and weep; cry in the land of Bashan and in Moab.

<sup>21</sup>When times were good, I warned you. But you ignored me, just as you have done since Israel was young.

<sup>22</sup>Now you will be disgraced because of your sins. Your leaders will be swept away by the wind, and the nations you trusted will be captured and dragged to a foreign country.

<sup>23</sup>Those who live in the palace panelled with cedar will groan with pain like women giving birth.

<sup>24</sup>King Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim, even if you were the ring I wear as the sign of my royal power, I would still pull you from my finger.

<sup>25</sup>I would hand you over to the enemy you fear, to King Nebuchadnezzar and his army, who want to kill you.

<sup>26</sup>You and your mother were born in Judah, but I will throw both of you into a foreign country, where you will die,

<sup>27</sup>longing to return home.

<sup>28</sup>Jehoiachin, you are unwanted like a broken clay pot. So you and your children will be thrown into a country you know nothing about.

<sup>29</sup>Land of Judah, I am the LORD. Now listen to what I say!

<sup>30</sup>Erase the names of Jehoiachin's children from the royal records. He is a complete failure, and so none of them will ever be king. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 23

A message of hope

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>You leaders of my people are like shepherds that kill and scatter the sheep.

<sup>2</sup>You were supposed to take care of my people, but instead you chased them away. So now I'll really take care of you, and believe me, you will pay for your crimes!

<sup>3</sup>I will bring the rest of my people home from the lands where I have scattered them, and they will grow into a mighty nation.

<sup>4</sup>I promise to choose leaders who will care for them like real shepherds. All my people will be there, and they will never again be frightened.

<sup>5</sup>Some day I will appoint an honest king from the family of David, a king who will be wise and rule with justice.

<sup>6</sup>As long as he is king, Israel will have peace, and Judah will be safe. The name of this king will be "The LORD Gives Justice".

<sup>7</sup>A time will come when you will again worship me. But you will no longer call me the Living God who rescued Israel from Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Instead, you will call me the Living God who rescued you from the land in the north and from all the other countries where I had forced you to go. And you will once again live in your own land.

Jeremiah thinks about unfaithful prophets

<sup>9</sup>When I think of the prophets, I am shocked, and I tremble like someone drunk, because of the LORD and his sacred words.

<sup>10</sup>Those unfaithful prophets misuse their power all over the country. So God turned the pasture lands into scorching deserts.

The LORD will punish unfaithful prophets

<sup>11</sup>The LORD told me to say: You prophets and priests think so little of me, the LORD, that you even sin in my own temple!

<sup>12</sup>Now I will punish you with disaster, and you will slip and fall in the darkness. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>13</sup>The prophets in Samaria were disgusting to me, because they preached in the name of Baal and led my people astray.

<sup>14</sup>And you prophets in Jerusalem are even worse. You're unfaithful in marriage and never tell the truth. You even lead others to sin instead of helping them turn back to me. You and the people of Jerusalem are evil like Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>15</sup>You prophets in Jerusalem have spread evil everywhere. That's why I, the LORD, promise to give you bitter poison to eat and drink.

The LORD gives a warning

The LORD said:

<sup>16</sup>Don't listen to the lies of these false prophets, you people of Judah! The message they preach is something they imagined; it did not come from me, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>17</sup>These prophets go to people who refuse to respect me and who are stubborn and do whatever they want. The prophets tell them, "The LORD has promised everything will be fine."

<sup>18</sup>But I, the LORD, tell you that these prophets have never attended a meeting of my council in heaven or heard me speak.

<sup>19</sup>They are evil! So in my anger I will strike them like a violent storm.

<sup>20</sup>I won't calm down, until I have finished what I have decided to do. Some day you will understand exactly what I mean.

<sup>21</sup>I did not send these prophets or speak to them, but they ran to find you and to preach their message.

<sup>22</sup>If they had been in a meeting of my council in heaven, they would have told you people of Judah to give up your sins and come back to me.

<sup>23</sup>I am everywhere— both near and far,

<sup>24</sup>in heaven and on earth. There are no secret places where you can hide from me.

<sup>25</sup>These unfaithful prophets claim that I have given them a dream or a vision, and then they tell lies in my name.

<sup>26</sup>But everything they say comes from their own twisted minds. How long can this go on?

<sup>27</sup>They tell each other their dreams and try to get my people to reject me, just as their ancestors left me and worshipped Baal.

<sup>28</sup>Their dreams and my truth are as different as straw and wheat. But when prophets speak for me, they must say only what I have told them.

<sup>29</sup>My words are a powerful fire; they are a hammer that shatters rocks.

<sup>30-32</sup>These unfaithful prophets claim I give them their dreams, but it isn't true. I didn't choose them to be my prophets, and yet they babble on and on, speaking in my name, while stealing words from each other. And when my people hear these liars, they are led astray instead of being helped. So I warn you that I am now the enemy of these prophets. I, the LORD, have spoken.

News and nuisance

The LORD said to me:

<sup>33</sup>Jeremiah, when a prophet or a priest or anyone else comes to you and asks, “Does the LORD have news for us?” tell them, “You people are a nuisance to the LORD, and he will get rid of you.”

<sup>34</sup>If any of you say, “Here is news from the LORD,” I will punish you and your families, even if you are a prophet or a priest.

<sup>35</sup>Instead, you must ask your friends and relatives, “What answer did the LORD give?” or “What has the LORD said?”

<sup>36</sup>It seems that you each have your own news! So if you say, “Here is news from the LORD,” you are twisting my words into a lie. Remember that I am your God, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>37</sup>If you go to a prophet, it's all right to ask, “What answer did the LORD give to my question?” or “What has the LORD said?”

<sup>38</sup>But if you disobey me and say, “Here is news from the LORD,”

<sup>39</sup>I will pick you up and throw you far away. And I will abandon this city of Jerusalem that I gave to your ancestors.

<sup>40</sup>You will never be free from your shame and disgrace.

Jeremiah 24

Jeremiah has a vision of two baskets of figs

<sup>1</sup>The LORD spoke to me in a vision after King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia had come to Judah and taken King Jehoiachin, his officials, and all the skilled workers back to Babylonia. In this vision I saw two baskets of figs in front of the LORD's temple.

<sup>2</sup>One basket was full of very good figs that ripened early, and the other was full of rotten figs that were not fit to eat.

<sup>3</sup>“Jeremiah,” the LORD asked, “what do you see?” “Figs,” I said. “Some are very good, but the others are too rotten to eat.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD told me to say:

<sup>5</sup>People of Judah, the good figs stand for those of you I sent away as exiles to Babylonia,

<sup>6</sup>where I am watching over them. Then some day I will bring them back to this land. I will plant them, instead of uprooting them, and I will build them up, rather than tearing them down.

<sup>7</sup>I will give them a desire to know me and to be my people. They will want me to be their God, and they will turn back to me with all their heart.

<sup>8</sup>The rotten figs stand for King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, and all the others who were not taken away to Babylonia, whether they stayed here in Judah or went to live in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>I will punish them with a terrible disaster, and everyone on earth will tremble when they hear about it. I will force the people of Judah to go to foreign countries, where they will be cursed and insulted.

<sup>10</sup>War and hunger and disease will strike them, until they finally disappear from the land that I gave them and their ancestors.

Jeremiah 25

Seventy years of exile

<sup>1-2</sup> In the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, which was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylonia, the LORD told me to speak to the people of Judah and Jerusalem. So I told them:

<sup>3</sup>For twenty-three years now, ever since the thirteenth year that Josiah was king, I have been telling you what the LORD has told me. But you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has sent prophets to you time after time, but you refused to listen.

<sup>5</sup>They told you that the LORD had said: Change your ways! If you stop doing evil, I will let you stay for ever in this land that I gave your ancestors.

<sup>6</sup>I don't want to harm you. So don't make me angry by worshipping idols and other gods.

<sup>7</sup>But you refused to listen to my prophets. So I, the LORD, say that you have made me angry by worshipping idols, and you are the ones who were hurt by what you did.

<sup>8</sup>You refused to listen to me,

<sup>9</sup>and now I will let you be attacked by nations from the north, and especially by my servant, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia. You and other nearby nations will be destroyed and left in ruins for ever. Everyone who sees what has happened will be shocked, but they will still make fun of you.

<sup>10</sup>I will put an end to your parties and wedding celebrations; no one will grind grain or be here to light the lamps at night.

<sup>11</sup>This country will be as empty as a desert, because I will make all of you the slaves of the king of Babylonia for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup>When that time is up, I will punish the king of Babylonia and his people for everything they have done wrong, and I will turn that country into a wasteland for ever.

<sup>13</sup>My servant Jeremiah has told you what I said I will do to Babylonia and to the other nations, and he wrote it all down in this book. I will do everything I threatened.

<sup>14</sup>I will pay back the Babylonians for every wrong they have done. Great kings from many other nations will conquer the Babylonians and force them to be slaves.

The cup full of God's anger

<sup>15</sup>The LORD God of Israel showed me a vision in which he said, “Jeremiah, here is a cup filled with the wine of my anger. Take it and make every nation drink some.

<sup>16</sup>They will vomit and act mad, because of the war this cup of anger will bring to them.”

<sup>17</sup>I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and I went to the kings of the nations and made each of them drink some.

<sup>18</sup>I started with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, and the king and his officials were removed from power in disgrace. Everyone still makes insulting jokes about them and uses their names as curse words.

<sup>19</sup>The second place I went was Egypt, where everyone had to drink from the cup, including the king and his officials, the other government workers, the rest of the Egyptians,

<sup>20</sup>and all the foreigners who lived in the country. Next I went to the king of Uz, and then to the four kings of Philistia, who ruled from Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what was left of Ashdod.

<sup>21</sup>Then I went to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon,

<sup>22</sup>and to the kings of Tyre, Sidon, and their colonies across the sea.

<sup>23-24</sup>After this, I went to the kings of Dedan, Tema, Buz, the tribes of the Arabian Desert,

<sup>25</sup>Zimri, Elam, Media,

<sup>26</sup>and the countries in the north, both near and far. I went to all the countries on earth, one after another, and finally to Babylonia.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD had said I must tell each king, "The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, commands you to drink from this cup that is full of the wine of his anger. It will make you so drunk that you will vomit. And when the LORD sends war against the nations, you will be completely defeated."

<sup>28</sup>The LORD told me that if any of them refused to drink from the cup, I must tell them that he had said, "I, the LORD All-Powerful, command you to drink.

<sup>29</sup>Starting with my own city of Jerusalem, everyone on earth will suffer from war. So there is no way I will let you escape unharmed."

<sup>30</sup>The LORD told me to say: From my sacred temple I will roar like thunder, while I trample my people and everyone else as though they were grapes.

<sup>31</sup>My voice will be heard everywhere on earth, accusing nations of their crimes and sentencing the guilty to death.

Disaster is coming

<sup>32</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says: You can see disaster spreading from far across the earth, from nation to nation like a horrible storm.

<sup>33</sup>When it strikes, I will kill so many people that their bodies will cover the ground like manure. No one will be left to bury them or to mourn.

The leaders of Judah will be punished

<sup>34</sup>The LORD's people are his flock, and you leaders were the shepherds. But now it's your turn to be butchered like sheep. You'll shatter like fine pottery dropped on the floor. So roll on the ground, crying and mourning.

<sup>35</sup>You have nowhere to run, nowhere to hide.

<sup>36-38</sup>Listen to the cries of the shepherds, as the LORD's burning anger turns peaceful meadows into barren deserts. The LORD has abandoned his people like a lion leaving its den.

Jeremiah 26

Jeremiah's message in the temple

(Jeremiah 7.1–15)

<sup>1</sup> Soon after Jehoiakim became king of Judah, the LORD said:

<sup>2</sup> Jeremiah, I have a message for everyone who comes from the towns of Judah to worship in my temple. Go to the temple courtyard and speak every word that I tell you.

<sup>3</sup> Perhaps the people will listen this time. And if they stop doing wrong, I will change my mind and not punish them for their sins.

<sup>4</sup> Tell them that I have said: You have refused to listen to me and to obey my laws and teachings.

<sup>5</sup> Again and again I have sent my servants the prophets to preach to you, but you ignored them as well. Now I am warning you that if you don't start obeying me straight away,

<sup>6</sup>I will destroy this temple, just as I destroyed the town of Shiloh. Then everyone on earth will use the name “Jerusalem” as a curse word.

Jeremiah on trial

<sup>7</sup>The prophets, the priests, and everyone else in the temple heard what I said, <sup>8-9</sup>and as soon as I finished, they all crowded around me and started shouting, “Why did you preach that the LORD will destroy this temple, just as he destroyed Shiloh? Why did you say that Jerusalem will be empty and lie in ruins? You ought to be put to death for saying such things in the LORD's name!” Then they had me arrested.

<sup>10</sup>The royal officers heard what had happened, and they came from the palace to the new gate of the temple to be the judges at my trial.

<sup>11</sup>While they listened, the priests and the prophets said to the crowd, “All of you have heard Jeremiah prophesy that Jerusalem will be destroyed. He deserves the death penalty.”

<sup>12-13</sup>Then I told the judges and everyone else: The LORD himself sent me to tell you about the terrible things he will do to you, to Jerusalem, and to the temple. But if you change your ways and start obeying the LORD, he will change his mind.

<sup>14</sup>You must decide what to do with me. Just do whatever you think is right.

<sup>15</sup>But if you put me to death, you and everyone else in Jerusalem will be guilty of murdering an innocent man, because everything I preached came from the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>The judges and the other people told the priests and prophets, “Since Jeremiah only told us what the LORD our God had said, we don't think he deserves to die.”

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the leaders from other towns stepped forward. They told the crowd that

<sup>18</sup> years ago when Hezekiah was king of Judah, a prophet named Micah from the town of Moresheth had said: “I, the LORD All-Powerful, say Jerusalem will be ploughed under and left in ruins. Thorns will cover the mountain where the temple now stands.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the leaders continued: No one put Micah to death for saying that. Instead, King Hezekiah prayed to the LORD with fear and trembling and asked him to have mercy. Then the LORD decided not to destroy Jerusalem, even though he had already said he would. People of Judah, if Jeremiah is killed, we will bring a terrible disaster on ourselves.

<sup>20-24</sup> After these leaders finished speaking, an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan spoke up for me as well. And so, I wasn't handed over to the crowd to be killed.

Uriah the prophet

While Jehoiakim was still king of Judah, a man named Uriah son of Shemaiah left his home town of Kiriath-Jearim and came to Jerusalem. Uriah was one of the LORD's prophets, and he was saying the same things about Judah and Jerusalem that I had been saying. And when Jehoiakim and his officials and military officers heard what Uriah said, they tried to arrest him, but he escaped to Egypt. So Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Achbor and some other men after Uriah, and they brought him back. Then Jehoiakim had Uriah killed and his body dumped in a common burial pit.

Jeremiah 27

Jeremiah against the lying prophets Slaves of Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>1-2</sup> Not long after Zedekiah became king of Judah, the LORD told me: Jeremiah, make a wooden yoke with leather straps, and place it on your neck.

<sup>3</sup> Then send a message to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon. Some officials from these countries are in Jerusalem, meeting with Zedekiah.

<sup>4</sup>So order them to tell their kings that I have said: I am the All-Powerful LORD God of Israel,

<sup>5</sup>and with my power I created the earth, its people, and all animals. I decide who will rule the earth,

<sup>6-7</sup>and I have chosen my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia to rule all nations, including yours. I will even let him rule the wild animals. All nations will be slaves of Nebuchadnezzar, his son, and his grandson. Then many nations will join together, and their kings will be powerful enough to make slaves of the Babylonians.

<sup>8</sup>This yoke stands for the power of King Nebuchadnezzar, and I will destroy any nation that refuses to obey him. Nebuchadnezzar will attack, and many will die in battle or from hunger and disease.

<sup>9</sup>You might have people in your kingdom who claim they can tell the future by magic or by talking with the dead or by dreams or messages from a god. But don't pay attention if any of them tell you not to obey Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>10</sup>If you listen to such lies, I will have you dragged far from your country and killed.

<sup>11</sup>But if you and your nation are willing to obey Nebuchadnezzar, I will let you stay in your country, and your people will continue to live and work on their farms.

<sup>12</sup>After I had spoken to the officials from the nearby kingdoms, I went to King Zedekiah and told him the same thing. Then I said: Zedekiah, if you and the people of Judah want to stay alive, you must obey Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians.

<sup>13</sup>But if you refuse, then you and your people will die from war, hunger, and disease, just as the LORD has warned.

<sup>14</sup>Your prophets have told you that you don't need to obey Nebuchadnezzar, but don't listen to their lies.

<sup>15</sup>Those prophets claim to be speaking for the LORD, but he didn't send them. They are lying! If you do what they say, he will have both you and them dragged off to another country and killed. The LORD has spoken.

<sup>16</sup>When I finished talking to the king, I went to the priests and told them that the LORD had said: Don't listen to the prophets when they say that very soon the Babylonians will return the things they took from my temple. Those prophets are lying!

<sup>17</sup>If you choose to obey the king of Babylonia, you will live. But if you listen to those prophets, this whole city will be nothing but a pile of rubble.

<sup>18</sup>If I really had spoken to those prophets, they would know what I am going to do. Then they would be begging me not to let everything else be taken from the temple and the king's palace and the rest of Jerusalem.

<sup>19-21</sup>After all, when Nebuchadnezzar took King Jehoiachin to Babylonia as a prisoner, he didn't take everything of value from Jerusalem. He left the bronze pillars, the huge bronze bowl called the Sea, and the moveable bronze stands in the temple, and he left a lot of other valuable things in the palace and in the rest of Jerusalem. But now I, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, say that all these things

<sup>22</sup>will be taken to Babylonia, where they will remain until I decide to bring them back to Jerusalem. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 28

Jeremiah accuses Hananiah of being a false prophet

<sup>1</sup>Later that same year, in the fifth month of the fourth year that Zedekiah was king, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur from Gibeon came up to me in the temple. And while the priests and others in the temple were listening,

<sup>2</sup>he told me that the LORD had said: I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I will smash the yoke that Nebuchadnezzar put on the necks of the nations to make them his slaves.

<sup>3</sup>And within two years, I will bring back to Jerusalem everything that he took from my temple and carried off to Babylonia.

<sup>4</sup>King Jehoiachin and the other people who were taken from Judah to Babylonia will be allowed to come back here as well. All this will happen because I will smash the power of the king of Babylonia!

<sup>5</sup>The priests and the others were still standing there, so I said:

<sup>6</sup>Hananiah, I hope the LORD will do exactly what you said. I hope he does bring back everything the Babylonians took from the temple, and that our people who were taken to Babylonia will be allowed to return home.

<sup>7</sup>But let me remind you and everyone else

<sup>8</sup>that long before we were born, prophets were saying powerful kingdoms would be struck by war, disaster, and disease.

<sup>9</sup>Now you are saying we will have peace. We will just have to wait and see if that is really what the LORD has said.

<sup>10</sup>Hananiah grabbed the wooden yoke from my neck and smashed it.

<sup>11</sup>Then he said, “The LORD says this is the way he will smash the power Nebuchadnezzar has over the nations, and it will happen in less than two years.” I left the temple,

<sup>12</sup>and a little while later, the LORD told me

<sup>13-14</sup>to go back and say to Hananiah: I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel. You smashed a wooden yoke, but I will replace it with one made of iron. I will put iron yokes on all the nations, and they will have to do what King Nebuchadnezzar commands. I will even let him rule the wild animals.

15-16 Hananiah, I have never sent you to speak for me. And yet you have talked my people into believing your lies and rebelling against me. So now I will send you—I'll send you right off the face of the earth! You will die before this year is over.

17 Two months later, Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29

Jeremiah's letter to the people of Judah in Babylonia

1-2 I had been left in Jerusalem when King Nebuchadnezzar took many of the people of Jerusalem and Judah to Babylonia as prisoners, including King Jehoiachin, his mother, his officials, and the metal workers and others in Jerusalem who were skilled in making things. So I wrote a letter to the prophets, the priests, the leaders, and the rest of our people in Babylonia.

3 I gave the letter to Elasah and Gemariah, two men that King Zedekiah of Judah was sending to Babylon to talk with Nebuchadnezzar. In the letter, I wrote

4 that the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, had said: I had you taken from Jerusalem to Babylonia. Now I tell you

5 to settle there and build houses. Plant gardens and eat what you grow in them.

6 Get married and have children, then help your sons find wives and help your daughters find husbands, so they can have children as well. I want your numbers to grow, not to get smaller.

7 Pray for peace in Babylonia and work hard to make it prosperous. The more successful that nation is, the better off you will be.

8-9 Some of your people there in Babylonia are fortune-tellers, and you have asked them to tell you what will happen in the future. But they will only lead you astray. And don't let the prophets fool you, either. They speak in my name, but they are liars. I have not spoken to them.

10 After Babylonias been the strongest nation for seventy years, I will be kind and bring you back to Jerusalem, just as I have promised.

11 I will bless you with a future filled with hope—a future of success, not of suffering.

12 You will turn back to me and ask for help, and I will answer your prayers.

13 You will worship me with all your heart, and I will be with you

14 and accept your worship. Then I will gather you from all the nations where I scattered you, and you will return to Jerusalem.

15 You feel secure, because you think I have sent prophets to speak for me in Babylonias.

16-19 But I have been sending prophets to the people of Judah for a long time, and the king from David's family and the people who are left in Jerusalem and Judah still don't obey me. So I, the LORD All-Powerful, will keep attacking them with war and hunger and disease, until they are as useless as rotten figs. I will force them to leave the land, and all nations will be disgusted and shocked at what happens to them. The nations will sneer and make fun of them and use the names "Judah" and "Jerusalem" as curse words. And you have not obeyed me, even though

20 I had you taken from Jerusalem to Babylonias. But you had better listen to me now.

21-23 You think Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah are prophets because they claim to speak for me. But they are lying! I haven't told them anything. They are also committing other horrible sins in your community, such as sleeping with the wives of their friends. So I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar, who will put them to death while the rest of you watch. And in the future, when you want to put a curse on someone, you will say, "I pray that the LORD will kill you in the same way the king of Babylonias burnt Zedekiah and Ahab to death!"

A message for Shemaiah

24-25 The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, told me what would happen to Shemaiah, who was one of our people in Babylonia. After my letter reached Babylonia, Shemaiah wrote letters to the people of Jerusalem, including the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and the other priests. The letter to Zephaniah said:

26 After the death of Jehoiada the priest, the LORD chose you to be the priest in charge of the temple security force. You know that anyone who acts mad and pretends to be a prophet should be arrested and put in chains and iron collars.

27 Jeremiah from the town of Anathoth is pretending to be a prophet there in Jerusalem, so why haven't you punished him?

28 He even wrote a letter to the people here in Babylonia, saying we would be here a long time. He told us to build homes and to plant gardens and grow our own food.

29 When Zephaniah received Shemaiah's letter, he read it to me.

30 Then the LORD told me what to write in a second letter

31 to the people of Judah who had been taken to Babylonia. In this letter, I wrote that the LORD had said: I, the LORD, have not chosen Shemaiah to be one of my prophets, and he has misled you by telling lies in my name.

32 He has even talked you into disobeying me. So I will punish Shemaiah. He and his descendants won't live to see the good things I will do for my people. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 30

God will some day bring his people back to their land
The LORD will rescue Israel and Judah

1-2 The LORD God of Israel said, "Jeremiah, get a scroll and write down everything I have told you.

<sup>3</sup>Some day I will let my people from both Israel and Judah return to the land I gave their ancestors.”

<sup>4-5</sup>Then the LORD told me to say to Israel and Judah: I, the LORD, hear screams of terror, and there is no peace.

<sup>6</sup>Can men give birth? Then why do I see them looking so pale and clutching their stomachs like women in labour?

<sup>7</sup>My people, soon you will suffer worse than ever before, but I will save you.

<sup>8</sup>Now you are slaves of other nations, but I will break the chains and smash the yokes that keep you in slavery.

<sup>9</sup>Then you will be my servants, and I will choose a king for you from the family of David.

<sup>10-11</sup> Israel, you belong to me, so don't be afraid. You deserved to be punished; that's why I scattered you in distant nations. But I am with you, and some day I will destroy those nations. Then I will bring you and your descendants back to your land, where I will protect you and give you peace. Then your fears will be gone. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD will heal Israel and Judah

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said: My people, you are wounded and near death.

<sup>13</sup>You are accused of a crime with no one to defend you, and you are covered with sores that no medicine can cure.

<sup>14-15</sup>Your friends have forgotten you; they don't care any more. Even I have acted like an enemy. And because your sins are horrible and countless, I will be cruel as I punish you. So don't bother to cry out for relief from your pain.

<sup>16</sup>But if your enemies try to rob or destroy you, I will rob and destroy them, and they will be led as captives to foreign lands.

<sup>17</sup>No one wants you as a friend or cares what happens to you. But I will heal your injuries, and you will get well.

The LORD will rescue Israel and Judah

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said: Israel, I will be kind to you and let you come home. Jerusalem now lies in ruins, but you will rebuild it, complete with a new palace.

<sup>19</sup>Other nations will respect and honour you. Your homes will be filled with children, and you will celebrate, singing praises to me.

<sup>20</sup>It will be just like old times. Your nation will worship me, and I will punish anyone who abuses you.

<sup>21</sup>One of your own people will become your ruler. And when I invite him to come near me at the place of worship, he will do so. No one would dare to come near without being invited.

<sup>22</sup>You will be my people, and I will be your God. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>23</sup>I am furious! And like a violent storm I will strike those who do wrong.

<sup>24</sup>I won't calm down until I have finished what I have decided to do. Some day, you will understand what I mean.

Jeremiah 31

Israel will return to God

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Israel, I promise that some day all your tribes will again be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>2</sup>In the desert I was kind to those who escaped death. I gave them peace, and when the time is right, I'll do the same for you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD will rebuild Israel

<sup>3</sup>Some time ago, the LORD appeared to me and told me to say: Israel, I will always love you; that's why I've been so patient and kind.

<sup>4</sup>You are precious to me, and so I will rebuild your nation. Once again you will dance for joy and play your tambourines.

<sup>5</sup>You will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria and enjoy the grapes.

<sup>6</sup>Some day those who guard the hill country of Ephraim will shout, "Let's go to Zion and worship the LORD our God."

Israel will return to its own land

<sup>7</sup>The LORD says: Celebrate and sing for Israel, the greatest of nations. Offer praises and shout, “Come and rescue your people, LORD! Save what's left of Israel.”

<sup>8</sup>I, the LORD, will bring my people back from Babylonia and everywhere else on earth. The blind and the lame will be there. Expectant mothers and women about to give birth will come and be part of that great crowd.

<sup>9</sup>They will weep and pray as I bring them home. I will lead them to streams of water. They will walk on a level road and not stumble. I am a father to Israel, my favourite children.

<sup>10</sup>Listen to me, you nations nearby or across the sea. I scattered the people of Israel, but I will gather them again. I will protect them like a shepherd guarding a flock;

<sup>11</sup>I will rescue them from enemies who could overpower them.

<sup>12</sup>My people will come to Mount Zion and celebrate; their faces will glow because of my blessings. I'll give them grain, grapes, and olive oil, as well as sheep and cattle. Israel will be prosperous and grow like a garden with plenty of water.

<sup>13</sup>Young women and young men, together with the elderly, will celebrate and dance, because I will comfort them and turn their sorrow into happiness.

<sup>14</sup>I will bless my people with more food than they need, and the priests will enjoy the choice cuts of meat. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD offers hope

The LORD said:

<sup>15</sup>In Ramah a voice is heard, crying and weeping loudly. Rachel mourns for her children and refuses to be comforted, because they are dead.

<sup>16-17</sup>But I, the LORD, tell you to dry your tears. Some day your children will come home from the enemy's land. Then all you have done for them will be greatly rewarded. So don't lose hope. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>18</sup>The people of Israel moan and say to me, “We were like wild bulls, but you, LORD, broke us, and we learnt to obey. You are our God— please let us come home.

<sup>19</sup>When we were young, we strayed and sinned, but then we realized what we had done. We are ashamed and disgraced and want to return to you.”

<sup>20</sup>People of Israel, you are my own dear children. Don't I love you best of all? Though I often make threats, I want you to be near me, so I will have mercy on you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>21</sup>With rock piles and signposts, mark the way home, my dear people. It is the same road by which you left.

<sup>22</sup>Will you ever decide to be faithful? I will make sure that some day things will be different, as different as a woman protecting a man.

The LORD will bring Judah home

<sup>23</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, said: I promise to set the people of Judah free and to lead them back to their home towns. And when I do, they will once again say, “We pray that the LORD will bless his home, the sacred hill in Jerusalem where his temple stands.”

<sup>24</sup>The people will live in Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. Some will be farmers, and others will be shepherds.

<sup>25</sup>Those who feel tired and worn out will find new life and energy, <sup>26</sup>and when they sleep, they will wake up refreshed.

<sup>27</sup>Some day, Israel and Judah will be my field where my people and their livestock will grow.

<sup>28</sup>In the past, I took care to uproot them, to tear them down, and to destroy them. But when that day comes, I will take care to plant them and help them grow.

<sup>29</sup>No longer will anyone go around saying, “Sour grapes eaten by parents leave a sour taste in the mouths of their children.”

<sup>30</sup>When that day comes, only those who eat sour grapes will get the sour taste, and only those who sin will be put to death.

The new agreement with Israel and Judah

<sup>31</sup>The LORD said: The time will surely come when I will make a new agreement with the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>32</sup>It will be different from the agreement I made with their ancestors when I led them out of Egypt. Although I was their God, they broke that agreement.

<sup>33</sup>Here is the new agreement that I, the LORD, will make with the people of Israel: “I will write my laws on their hearts and minds. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup>“No longer will they have to teach one another to obey me. I, the LORD, promise that all of them will obey me, ordinary people and rulers alike. I will forgive their sins and forget the evil things they have done.”

<sup>35</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful. I command the sun to give light each day, the moon and stars to shine at night, and ocean waves to roar.

<sup>36</sup>I will never forget to give those commands, and I will never let Israel stop being a nation. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>37</sup>Can you measure the heavens? Can you explore the depths of the earth? That's how hard it would be for me to reject Israel for ever, even though they have sinned. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jerusalem will be rebuilt

<sup>38</sup>The LORD said: Some day, Jerusalem will truly belong to me. It will be rebuilt with a boundary line running from Hananel Tower to Corner Gate.

<sup>39</sup>From there, the boundary will go in a straight line to Gareb Hill, then turn towards Goah.

<sup>40</sup>Even that disgusting Hinnom Valley will be sacred to me, and so will the eastern slopes that go down from Horse Gate into Kidron Valley. Jerusalem will never again be destroyed.

Jeremiah 32

Jeremiah buys a field

<sup>1</sup>The LORD spoke to me in the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylonia.

<sup>2</sup>At that time, the Babylonian army had surrounded Jerusalem, and I was in the prison at the courtyard of the palace guards.

<sup>3</sup>Zedekiah had ordered me to be held there because I told everyone that the LORD had said: I am the LORD, and I am about to let the king of Babylonia conquer Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>King Zedekiah will be captured and taken to King Nebuchadnezzar, who will speak with him face to face.

<sup>5</sup>Then Zedekiah will be led away to Babylonia, where he will stay until I have finished with him. So, if you people of Judah fight against the Babylonians, you will lose. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>6</sup>Later, when I was in prison, the LORD said:

<sup>7</sup>Jeremiah, your cousin Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shallum, will visit you. He must sell his field near the town of Anathoth, and because you are his nearest relative, you have the right and the responsibility to buy it and keep it in the family.

<sup>8</sup>Hanamel came, just as the LORD had promised. And he said, "Please buy my field near Anathoth in the territory of the Benjamin tribe. You have the right to buy it, and if you do, it will stay in our family." The LORD had told me to buy it

<sup>9</sup>from Hanamel, and so I did. The price was seventeen pieces of silver, and I weighed out the full amount on a scale.

<sup>10-11</sup>I had two copies of the bill of sale written out, each containing all the details of our agreement. Some witnesses and I signed the official copy, which was folded and tied, before being sealed shut with hot wax. Then I gave Hanamel the silver.

12And while he, the witnesses, and all the other Jews sitting in the courtyard were still watching, I gave both copies to Baruch son of Neriah.

13-14I told Baruch that the LORD had said: Take both copies of this bill of sale, one sealed shut and the other open, and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time.

15I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I promise you that people will once again buy and sell houses, farms, and vineyards in this country.

Jeremiah questions the LORD

16Then I prayed:

17LORD God, you stretched out your mighty arm and made the sky and the earth. You can do anything.

18You show kindness for a thousand generations, but you also punish people for the sins of their parents. You are the LORD All-Powerful.

19With great wisdom you make plans, and with your great power you do all the mighty things you planned. Nothing we do is hidden from your eyes, and you reward or punish us as we deserve.

20You are famous because you worked miracles in Egypt, and you are still working them in Israel and in the rest of the world as well.

21You terrified the Egyptians with your miracles, and you reached out your mighty arm and rescued your people Israel from Egypt.

22Then you gave Israel this land rich with milk and honey, just as you had promised our ancestors.

23But when our ancestors took over the land, they did not obey you. And now you have punished Israel with disaster.

<sup>24</sup>Jerusalem is under attack, and we suffer from hunger and disease. The Babylonians have already built earth ramps up to the city walls, and you can see that Jerusalem will be captured just as you said.

<sup>25</sup>So why did you tell me to get some witnesses and buy a field with my silver, when Jerusalem is about to be captured by the Babylonians?

The LORD explains about the field

<sup>26</sup>The LORD explained:

<sup>27</sup>Jeremiah, I am the LORD God. I rule the world, and I can do anything!

<sup>28</sup>It is true that I am going to let King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia capture Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>The Babylonian army is already attacking, and they will capture the city and set it on fire. The people of Jerusalem have made me angry by going up to the flat roofs of their houses and burning incense to Baal and offering wine sacrifices to other gods. Now these houses will be burnt to the ground!

<sup>30-33</sup>The kings and the officials, the priests and the prophets, and everyone else in Israel and Judah have turned from me and made me angry by worshipping idols. Again and again I have tried to teach my people to obey me, but they refuse to be corrected. I am going to get rid of Jerusalem, because its people have done nothing but evil.

<sup>34</sup>They have set up disgusting idols in my temple, and now it isn't a fit place to worship me.

<sup>35</sup>And they led Judah into sin by building places to worship Baal in Hinnom Valley, where they also sacrificed their sons and daughters to the god Molech. I have never even thought of telling them to commit such disgusting sins.

<sup>36</sup>Jeremiah, what you said is true. The people of Jerusalem are suffering from hunger and disease, and so the king of Babylonia will be able to capture Jerusalem.

<sup>37</sup>I am angry with the people of Jerusalem, and I will scatter them in foreign countries. But some day I will bring them back here and let them live in safety.

<sup>38</sup>They will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>39-41</sup>I will make their thoughts and desires pure. Then they will realize that, for their own good and the good of their children, they must worship only me. They will even be afraid to turn away from me. I will make an agreement with them that will never end, and I won't ever stop doing good things for them. With all my heart I promise that they will be planted in this land once again.

<sup>42</sup>Even though I have brought disaster on the people, I will some day do all these good things for them.

<sup>43</sup>Jeremiah, when you bought the field, you showed that fields will some day be bought and sold again. You say that this land has been conquered by the Babylonians and has become a desert, emptied of people and animals.

<sup>44</sup>But some day, people will again spend their silver to buy fields everywhere—in the territory of Benjamin, the region around Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, and in the hill country, the foothills to the west, and the Southern Desert. Buyers and sellers and witnesses will sign and seal the bills of sale for the fields. It will happen, because I will give this land back to my people. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 33

The LORD promises to give the land back to his people

<sup>1-2</sup>I was still being held prisoner in the courtyard of the palace guards when the LORD told me: I am the LORD, and I created the whole world.

<sup>3</sup>Ask me, and I will tell you things that you don't know and can't find out.

<sup>4-5</sup>Many of the houses in Jerusalem and some of the buildings at the royal palace have been torn down to be used in repairing the walls to keep out the Babylonian attackers. Now there are empty spaces where the buildings once stood. But I am furious, and these spaces will be filled with the bodies of the people I kill. The people of Jerusalem will cry out to me for help, but they are evil, and I will ignore their prayers.

<sup>6</sup>Then some day, I will heal this place and my people as well, and let them enjoy unending peace.

<sup>7</sup>I will give this land to Israel and Judah once again, and I will make them as strong as they were before.

<sup>8</sup>They sinned and rebelled against me, but I will forgive them and take away their guilt.

<sup>9</sup>When that happens, all nations on earth will see the good things I have done for Jerusalem, and how I have given it complete peace. The nations will celebrate and praise and honour me, but they will also tremble with fear.

<sup>10</sup>Jeremiah, you say that this land is a desert without people or animals, and for now, you are right. The towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem are deserted, and people and animals are nowhere to be seen. But some day you will hear

<sup>11</sup>happy voices and the sounds of parties and wedding celebrations. And when people come to my temple to offer sacrifices to thank me, you will hear them say: “We praise you, LORD All-Powerful! You are good to us, and your love never fails.” The land will once again be productive.

<sup>12-13</sup>Now it is empty, without people or animals. But when that time comes, shepherds will take care of their flocks in pastures near every town in the hill country, in the foothills to the west, in the Southern Desert, in the land of the Benjamin tribe, and around Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD's wonderful promise

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said: I made a wonderful promise to Israel and Judah, and the days are coming when I will keep it.

<sup>15</sup>I promise that the time will come when I will appoint a king from the family of David, a king who will be honest and rule with justice.

<sup>16</sup>In those days, Judah will be safe; Jerusalem will have peace and will be named, “The LORD Gives Justice”.

<sup>17</sup>The king of Israel will be one of David's descendants,

<sup>18</sup>and there will always be priests from the Levi tribe serving at my altar and offering sacrifices to please me and to give thanks.

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD told me:

<sup>20</sup>I, the LORD, have an agreement with day and night, so they always come at the right time. You can't break the agreement I made with them,

<sup>21</sup>and you can't break the agreements I have made with David's family and with the priests from the Levi tribe who serve at my altar. A descendant of David will always rule as king of Israel,

<sup>22</sup>and there will be more descendants of David and of the priests from the Levi tribe than stars in the sky or grains of sand on the beach.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD also said:

<sup>24</sup>You've heard foreigners insult my people by saying, “The LORD chose Israel and Judah, but now he has rejected them, and they are no longer a nation.”

<sup>25</sup>Jeremiah, I will never break my agreement with the day and the night or let the sky and the earth stop obeying my commands.

<sup>26</sup>In the same way, I will never reject the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob or break my promise that they will always have a descendant of David as their king. I will be kind to my people Israel, and they will be successful again.

Jeremiah 34

Scenes from Jeremiah's ministry Jeremiah warns Zedekiah

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar had a large army made up of people from every kingdom in his empire. He and his army were attacking Jerusalem and all the nearby towns, when the LORD told me

<sup>2</sup> to say to King Zedekiah: I am the LORD, and I am going to let Nebuchadnezzar capture this city and burn it down.

<sup>3</sup> You will be taken prisoner and brought to Nebuchadnezzar, and he will speak with you face to face. Then you will be led away to Babylonia.

<sup>4</sup> Zedekiah, I promise that you won't die in battle.

<sup>5</sup> You will die a peaceful death. People will mourn when you die, and they will light bonfires in your honour, just as they did for your ancestors, the kings who ruled before you.

<sup>6</sup> I went to Zedekiah and told him what the LORD had said.

<sup>7</sup> Meanwhile, the king of Babylonia was trying to break through the walls of Lachish, Azekah, and Jerusalem, the only three towns of Judah that had not been captured.

The people break a promise

<sup>8-10</sup> King Zedekiah, his officials, and everyone else in Jerusalem made an agreement to free all Hebrew men and women who were slaves. No Jew would keep another as a slave. And so, all the Jewish slaves were given their freedom.

<sup>11</sup> But those slave owners changed their minds and forced their former slaves back into slavery.

<sup>12</sup> That's when the LORD told me to say to the people:

<sup>13</sup> I am the LORD God of Israel, and I made an agreement with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, where they had been slaves.

14 As part of this agreement, you must let a Hebrew slave go free after six years of service. Your ancestors did not obey me,

15-16 but you decided to obey me and do the right thing by setting your Hebrew slaves completely free. You even went to my temple, and in my name you made an agreement to set them free. But you have abused my name, because you broke your agreement and forced your former slaves back into slavery.

17 You have disobeyed me by not giving your slaves their freedom. So I will give you freedom—the freedom to die in battle or from disease or hunger. I will make you disgusting to all other nations on earth.

18 You asked me to be a witness when you made the agreement to set your slaves free. And as part of the ceremony you cut a calf into two parts, then walked between the parts. But you people of Jerusalem have broken that agreement as well as my agreement with Israel. So I will do to you what you did to that calf.

19-20 I will let your enemies take all of you prisoner, including the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the royal officials, the priests, and everyone else who walked between the two parts of the calf. These enemies will kill you and leave your bodies lying on the ground as food for birds and wild animals.

21-22 These enemies are King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia and his army. They have stopped attacking Jerusalem, but they want to kill King Zedekiah and his high officials. So I will command them to return and attack again. This time they will conquer the city and burn it down, and they will capture Zedekiah and his officials. I will also let them destroy the towns of Judah, so that no one can live there any longer.

Jeremiah 35

Learn a lesson from the Rechabites

1 When Jehoiakim was king of Judah, the LORD told me,

<sup>2</sup>“Go to the Rechabite clan and invite them to meet you in one of the side rooms of the temple. When they arrive, offer them a drink of wine.”

<sup>3</sup>So I went to Jaazaniah, the leader of the clan, and I invited him and all the men of his clan.

<sup>4</sup>I brought them into the temple courtyard and took them upstairs to a room belonging to the prophets who were followers of Hanan son of Igdaliah. It was next to a room belonging to some of the officials, and that room was over the one belonging to Maaseiah, a priest who was one of the high officials in the temple.

<sup>5</sup>I set out some large bowls full of wine together with some cups, and then I said to the Rechabites, “Have some wine!”

<sup>6</sup>But they answered: No! The ancestor of our clan, Jonadab son of Rechab, made a rule that we must obey. He said, “Don't ever drink wine

<sup>7</sup>or build houses or plant crops and vineyards. Instead, you must always live in tents and move from place to place. If you obey this command, you will live a long time.”

<sup>8-10</sup>Our clan has always obeyed Jonadab's command. To this very day, we and our wives and sons and daughters don't drink wine or build houses or plant vineyards or crops. And we have lived in tents,

<sup>11</sup>except now we have to live inside Jerusalem because Nebuchadnezzar has taken over the countryside with his army from Babylonia and Syria.

<sup>12-13</sup>Then the LORD told me to say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: I, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, want you to learn a lesson

<sup>14</sup>from the Rechabite clan. Their ancestor Jonadab told his descendants never to drink wine, and to this very day they have obeyed him. But I have spoken to you over and over, and you haven't obeyed me!

<sup>15</sup>You refused to listen to my prophets, who kept telling you, “Stop doing evil and worshipping other gods! Start obeying the LORD, and he will let you live in this land he gave your ancestors.”

<sup>16</sup>The Rechabites have obeyed the command of their ancestor Jonadab, but you have not obeyed me,

<sup>17</sup>your God. I am the LORD All-Powerful, and I warned you about the terrible things that would happen to you if you did not listen to me. You have ignored me, so now disaster will strike you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD makes a promise to the Rechabites

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD told me to say to the Rechabite clan: I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel. You have obeyed your ancestor Jonadab, <sup>19</sup>so I promise that your clan will be my servants and will never die out.

Jeremiah 36

King Jehoiakim burns Jeremiah's first scroll

<sup>1</sup>During the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD said to me, “Jeremiah,

<sup>2</sup>since the time Josiah was king, I have been speaking to you about Israel, Judah, and the other nations. Now, get a scroll and write down everything I have told you,

<sup>3</sup>then read it to the people of Judah. Perhaps they will stop sinning when they hear what terrible things I plan for them. And if they turn to me, I will forgive them.”

<sup>4</sup>I sent for Baruch son of Neriah and asked him to help me. I repeated everything the LORD had told me, and Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, Baruch, the officials refuse to let me go into the LORD's temple,

<sup>6</sup>so you must go instead. Wait for the next holy day when the people of Judah come to the temple to pray and to go without eating. Then take this scroll to the temple and read it aloud.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is furious, and if the people hear how he is going to punish them, perhaps they will ask to be forgiven.

<sup>8-10</sup>In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king, the leaders set a day when everyone who lived in Jerusalem or who was visiting here had to pray and go without eating. So Baruch took the scroll to the upper courtyard of the temple. He went over to the side of the courtyard and stood in a covered area near New Gate, where he read the scroll aloud. This covered area belonged to Gemariah, one of the king's highest officials.

<sup>11</sup>Gemariah's son Micaiah was there and heard Baruch read what the LORD had said.

<sup>12</sup>When Baruch finished reading, Micaiah went down to the palace. His father Gemariah was in the officials' room, meeting with the rest of the king's officials, including Elishama, Delaiah, Elnathan, and Zedekiah.

<sup>13</sup>Micaiah told them what he had heard Baruch reading to the people.

<sup>14</sup>Then the officials sent Jehudi and Shelemiah to tell Baruch, "Bring us that scroll." When Baruch arrived with the scroll, <sup>15</sup>the officials said, "Please sit down and read it to us," which he did.

<sup>16</sup>After they heard what was written on the scroll, they were worried and said to each other, "The king needs to hear this!" Turning to Baruch, they asked,

<sup>17</sup>"Did someone tell you what to write on this scroll?"

<sup>18</sup>"Yes, Jeremiah did," Baruch replied. "I wrote down just what he told me."

<sup>19</sup>The officials said, "You and Jeremiah must go into hiding, and don't tell anyone where you are."

<sup>20-22</sup>The officials put the scroll in Elishama's room and went to see the king, who was in one of the rooms where he lived and worked during the winter. It was the ninth month of the year, so there was a fire burning in the fireplace, and the king was sitting nearby. After the officials told the king about the scroll, he sent Jehudi to get it. Then Jehudi started reading the scroll to the king and his officials.

23-25 But every time Jehudi finished reading three or four columns, the king would tell him to cut them off with his penknife and throw them in the fire. Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah begged the king not to burn the scroll, but he ignored them, and soon there was nothing left of it. The king and his servants listened to what was written on the scroll, but they were not afraid, and they did not tear their clothes in sorrow.

26 The king told his son Jerahmeel to take Seraiah and Shelemiah and to go and arrest Baruch and me. But the LORD kept them from finding us.

Jeremiah's second scroll

27 I had told Baruch what to write on that first scroll, but King Jehoiakim had burnt it. So the LORD told me

28 to get another scroll and write down everything that had been on the first one.

29 Then he told me to say to King Jehoiakim: Not only did you burn Jeremiah's scroll, you had the nerve to ask why he had written that the king of Babylonia would attack and ruin the land, killing all the people and even the animals.

30 So I, the LORD, promise that you will be killed and your body thrown out on the ground. The sun will beat down on it during the day, and the frost will settle on it at night. And none of your descendants will ever be king of Judah.

31 You, your children, and your servants are evil, and I will punish all of you. I warned you and the people of Judah and Jerusalem that I would bring disaster, but none of you have listened. So now you are doomed!

<sup>32</sup>After the LORD finished speaking to me, I got another scroll and gave it to Baruch. Then I told him what to write, so this second scroll would contain even more than was on the scroll Jehoiakim had burnt.

Jeremiah 37

King Zedekiah asks Jeremiah to pray

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia had removed Jehoiachin of Jehoiakim from being the king of Judah and had made Josiah's son Zedekiah king instead.

<sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah, his officials, and everyone else in Judah ignored everything the LORD had told me.

<sup>3-5</sup>Later, the Babylonian army attacked Jerusalem, but they left after learning that the Egyptian army was headed in this direction. One day, Zedekiah sent Jehucal and the priest Zephaniah to talk with me. At that time, I was free to go wherever I wanted, because I had not yet been put in prison. Jehucal and Zephaniah said, “Jeremiah, please pray to the LORD our God for us.”

<sup>6-7</sup>Then the LORD told me to send them back to Zedekiah with this message: Zedekiah, you wanted Jeremiah to ask me, the LORD God of Israel, what is going to happen. So I will tell you. The king of Egypt and his army came to your rescue, but soon they will go back to Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Babylonians will return and attack Jerusalem, and this time they will capture the city and set it on fire.

<sup>9</sup>Don't fool yourselves into thinking that the Babylonians will leave as they did before.

<sup>10</sup>Even if you could defeat their entire army, their wounded survivors would still be able to leave their tents and set Jerusalem on fire.

Jeremiah is put in prison

<sup>11</sup>The Babylonian army had left because the Egyptian army was on its way to help us.

<sup>12</sup>So I decided to leave Jerusalem and go to the territory of the Benjamin tribe to claim my share of my family's land.

<sup>13</sup>I was leaving Jerusalem through Benjamin Gate, when I was stopped by Irijah, the officer in charge of the soldiers at the gate. He said, "Jeremiah, you're under arrest for trying to join the Babylonians."

<sup>14</sup>"I'm not trying to join them!" I answered. But Irijah wouldn't listen, and he took me to the king's officials.

<sup>15-16</sup>They were angry and ordered the soldiers to beat me. Then I was taken to the house that belonged to Jonathan, one of the king's officials. It had been turned into a prison, and I was kept in a basement room. After I had spent a long time there,

<sup>17</sup>King Zedekiah secretly had me brought to his palace, where he asked, "Is there any message for us from the LORD?" "Yes, there is, Your Majesty," I replied. "The LORD is going to let the king of Babylonia capture you."

<sup>18</sup>Then I continued, "Your Majesty, why have you put me in prison? Have I committed a crime against you or your officials or the nation?"

<sup>19</sup>Have you locked up the prophets who lied to you and said that the king of Babylonia would never attack Jerusalem?

<sup>20</sup>Please, don't send me back to that prison at Jonathan's house. If you do, I will die."

<sup>21</sup>King Zedekiah had me taken to the prison cells in the courtyard of the palace guards. He told the soldiers to give me a loaf of bread from one of the bakeries every day until the city ran out of grain.

Jeremiah 38

Jeremiah is held prisoner in a dry well

<sup>1</sup>One day, Shephatiah, Gedaliah, Jehucal, and Pashhur heard me tell the people of Judah

<sup>2-3</sup>that the LORD had said, “If you stay here in Jerusalem, you will die in battle or from disease or hunger, and the Babylonian army will capture the city anyway. But if you surrender to the Babylonians, they will let you live.”

<sup>4</sup>So the four of them went to the king and said, “You should put Jeremiah to death, because he is making the soldiers and everyone else lose hope. He isn't trying to help our people; he's trying to harm them.”

<sup>5</sup>Zedekiah replied, “Do what you want with him. I can't stop you.”

<sup>6</sup>Then they took me back to the courtyard of the palace guards and let me down with ropes into the well that belonged to Malchiah, the king's son. There was no water in the well, and I sank down in the mud.

<sup>7-8</sup>Ebedmelech from Ethiopia was an official at the palace, and he heard what they had done to me. So he went to speak with King Zedekiah, who was holding court at Benjamin Gate.

<sup>9</sup>Ebedmelech said, “Your Majesty, Jeremiah is a prophet, and those men were wrong to throw him into a well. And when Jerusalem runs out of food, Jeremiah will starve to death down there.”

<sup>10</sup>Zedekiah answered, “Take thirty of my soldiers and pull Jeremiah out before he dies.”

<sup>11</sup>Ebedmelech and the soldiers went to the palace and got some rags from the room under the treasury. He used ropes to lower them into the well.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said, “Put these rags under your arms so the ropes won't hurt you.” After I had done that,

<sup>13</sup>the men pulled me out. And from then on, I was kept in the courtyard of the palace guards.

King Zedekiah questions Jeremiah

<sup>14</sup>King Zedekiah had me brought to his private entrance to the temple, and he said, “I'm going to ask you something, and I want to know the truth.”

<sup>15</sup>“Why?” I replied. “You won't listen, and you might even have me killed!”

<sup>16</sup>He said, “I swear in the name of the living LORD our Creator that I won't have you killed. No one else can hear what we say, and I won't let anyone kill you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then I told him that the LORD had said: “Zedekiah, I am the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel. I promise that if you surrender to King Nebuchadnezzar's officers, you and your family won't be killed, and Jerusalem won't be burnt down.

<sup>18</sup>But if you don't surrender, I will let the Babylonian army capture Jerusalem and burn it down, and you will be taken prisoner.”

<sup>19</sup>Zedekiah answered, “I can't surrender to the Babylonians. I'm too afraid of the Jews who have already joined them. The Babylonians might hand me over to those Jews, and they would torture me.”

<sup>20</sup>I said, “If you will just obey the LORD, the Babylonians won't hand you over to those Jews. You will be allowed to live, and all will go well for you.

<sup>21</sup>But the LORD has shown me that if you refuse to obey,

<sup>22</sup>then the women of your palace will be taken prisoner by Nebuchadnezzar's officials. And those women will say to you: “Friends you trusted led you astray. Now you're trapped in mud, and those friends you trusted have all turned away.

<sup>23</sup>The Babylonian army will take your wives and children captive, you will be taken as a prisoner to the King of Babylonia, and Jerusalem will be burnt down.”

<sup>24</sup>Zedekiah said, “Jeremiah, if you tell anyone what we have talked about, you might lose your life.

<sup>25</sup>And I'm sure that if my officials hear about our meeting, they will ask you what we said to each other. They might even threaten to kill you if you don't tell them.

<sup>26</sup>So if they question you, tell them you were begging me not to send you back to the prison at Jonathan's house, because going back there would kill you.”

<sup>27</sup>The officials did come and question me about my meeting with the king, and I told them exactly what he had ordered me to say. They never spoke to me about the meeting again, since no one had heard us talking.

<sup>28</sup>I was held in the courtyard of the palace guards until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39

The fall of Jerusalem and later events in Judah

Jerusalem is captured by the Babylonians

(Jeremiah 52.4–16; 2 Kings 25.1–12)

<sup>1-3</sup>In the tenth month of the ninth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonian army began their attack on Jerusalem. They kept the city surrounded for a year and a half. Then, on the ninth day of the fourth month of the eleventh year that Zedekiah was king, they broke through the city walls. After Jerusalem was captured, Nebuchadnezzar's highest officials, including Nebo Sarsechim and Nergal Sharezer from Simmagir, took their places at Middle Gate to show they were in control of the city.

<sup>4</sup>When King Zedekiah and his troops saw that Jerusalem had been captured, they tried to escape from the city that same night. They went to the king's garden, where they slipped through the gate between the two city walls and headed towards the valley of the River Jordan.

<sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian troops caught up with them near Jericho. They arrested Zedekiah and took him to the town of Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Nebuchadnezzar put him on trial, then found him guilty

<sup>6</sup>and gave orders for him to be punished. Zedekiah's sons were killed there in front of him, and so were the leaders of Judah's ruling families.

<sup>7</sup>His eyes were put out, and he was put in chains, so he could be dragged off to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>Meanwhile, the Babylonian army had burnt the houses in Jerusalem, including the royal palace, and they had broken down the city walls.

<sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan, the Babylonian officer in charge of the guards, led away everyone from the city as prisoners, even those who had deserted to Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>10</sup>Only the poorest people who owned no land were left behind in Judah, and Nebuzaradan gave them fields and vineyards.

<sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar had given the following orders to Nebuzaradan:

<sup>12</sup>“Find Jeremiah and keep him safe. Take good care of him and do whatever he asks.”

<sup>13</sup>Nebuzaradan, Nebushazban, Nergal Sharezer, and the other officers of King Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>14</sup>sent some of their troops to bring me from the courtyard of the royal palace guards. They put me in the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam and told him to take me to my home. And so I was allowed to stay with the people who remained in Judah.

The LORD promises to protect Ebedmelech

<sup>15</sup>While I was a prisoner in the courtyard of the palace guard, the LORD told me to say

<sup>16</sup>to Ebedmelech from Ethiopia: I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel. I warned everyone that I would bring disaster, not prosperity, to this city. Now very soon I will do what I said, and you will see it happen.

<sup>17-18</sup>But because you trusted me, I will protect you from the officials of Judah, and when Judah is struck by disaster, I will rescue you and keep you alive. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 40

Jeremiah is set free

<sup>1</sup>I was led away in chains along with the people of Judah and Jerusalem who were being taken to Babylonia. Nebuzaradan was the officer in charge of the guard, and when we stopped at Ramah, the LORD made him set me free.

<sup>2</sup>Nebuzaradan said: Jeremiah, the LORD your God warned your people that he would bring disaster on this land.

<sup>3</sup>But they continued to rebel against him, and now he has punished them just as he threatened.

<sup>4</sup>Today I am taking the chains off your wrists and setting you free! If you want to, you can come with me to Babylonia, and I will see that you are taken care of. Or if you decide to stay here, you can go wherever you wish.

<sup>5</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar has chosen Gedaliah to rule Judah. You can live near Gedaliah, and he will provide for you, or you can live anywhere else you want. Nebuzaradan gave me a supply of food, then let me leave.

<sup>6</sup>I decided to stay with the people of Judah, and I went to live near Gedaliah in Mizpah.

The harvest is brought in

<sup>7-8</sup> Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, together with Johanan and Jonathan, the two sons of Kareah, had been officers in Judah's army. And so had Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah from Maacah. They and their troops had been stationed outside Jerusalem and had not been captured. They heard that Gedaliah had been chosen to rule Judah, and that the poorest men, women, and children had not been taken away to Babylonia. So they went to Mizpah and met with their new ruler.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah told them, "There's no need to be afraid of the Babylonians. Everything will be fine, if we live peacefully and obey King Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>10</sup>I will stay here at Mizpah and meet with the Babylonian officials on each of their visits. But you must go back to your towns and bring in the harvest, then store the wine, olive oil, and dried fruit.”

<sup>11-12</sup>Earlier, when the Babylonians had invaded Judah, many of the Jews escaped to Moab, Ammon, Edom, and several other countries. But these Jews heard that the king of Babylonia had appointed Gedaliah as ruler of Judah, and that only a few people were left there. So the Jews in these other countries came back to Judah and helped with the grape and fruit harvest, which was especially large that year.

Gedaliah is murdered

<sup>13</sup>One day, Johanan got together with some of the other men who had been army officers, and they came to Mizpah and met with Gedaliah.

<sup>14</sup>They said, “Gedaliah, we came to warn you that King Baalis of Ammon hired Ishmael to murder you!” Gedaliah refused to believe them,

<sup>15</sup>so Johanan went to Gedaliah privately and said, “Let me kill Ishmael. No one will find out who did it. There are only a few people left in Judah, but they are depending on you. And if you are murdered, they will be scattered or killed.”

<sup>16</sup>Gedaliah answered, “Don't kill Ishmael! What you've said about him can't be true.”

Jeremiah 41

<sup>1</sup> But in the seventh month, Ishmael came to Mizpah with ten of his soldiers. He had been one of the king's officials and was a member of the royal family. Ishmael and his men were invited to eat with Gedaliah.

<sup>2</sup> During the meal, Ishmael and his soldiers killed Gedaliah, the man chosen as ruler of Judah by the king of Babylonia.

<sup>3</sup> Then they killed the Jews who were with Gedaliah, and they also killed the Babylonian soldiers who were there.

- <sup>4</sup>The next day, the murders had still not been discovered,
- <sup>5</sup>when eighty men came down the road towards Mizpah from the towns of Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. They were on their way to the temple to offer gifts of grain and incense to the LORD. They had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves, because they were mourning.
- <sup>6</sup>Ishmael went out of the town gate to meet them. He pretended to be weeping, and he asked them to come into Mizpah to meet with Gedaliah, the ruler of Judah.
- <sup>7</sup>But after they were inside the town, Ishmael ordered his soldiers to kill them and throw their bodies into a well.
- <sup>8</sup>He let ten of the men live, because they offered to give him supplies of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey they had hidden in a field.
- <sup>9</sup>The well that he filled with bodies had been dug by King Asa of Judah to store rainwater, because he was afraid that King Baasha of Israel might surround Mizpah and keep the people from getting to their water supply.
- <sup>10</sup>Nebuzaradan, King Nebuchadnezzar's officer in charge of the guard, had left King Zedekiah's daughters and many other people at Mizpah, and he had put Gedaliah in charge of them. But now Ishmael took them all prisoner and led them towards Ammon, on the other side of the River Jordan.
- <sup>11</sup>Johanan and the other army officers heard what Ishmael had done.
- <sup>12</sup>So they and their troops chased Ishmael and caught up with him at the large pit at Gibeon.
- <sup>13</sup>When Ishmael's prisoners saw Johanan and the officers, they were happy
- <sup>14</sup>and turned round and ran towards Johanan.
- <sup>15</sup>But Ishmael and eight of his men escaped and went to Ammon.

Johanan decides to take the people to Egypt

<sup>16</sup>Johanan and the officers had rescued the women, children, and royal officials whom Ishmael had taken prisoner after killing Gedaliah. Johanan led the people from Gibeon

<sup>17-18</sup>towards Egypt. They wanted to go there, because they were afraid of what the Babylonians would do when they found out that Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, the ruler appointed by King Nebuchadnezzar.

The people ask Jeremiah to pray for them

On the way to Egypt, we stopped at the town of Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem.

Jeremiah 42

<sup>1</sup>Johanan, Jezaniah, the other army officers, and everyone else in the group, came to me

<sup>2</sup>and said, “Please pray to the LORD your God for us. Judah used to have many people, but as you can see, only a few of us are left.

<sup>3</sup>Ask the LORD to tell us where he wants us to go and what he wants us to do.”

<sup>4</sup>“All right,” I answered, “I will pray to the LORD your God, and I will tell you everything he says.”

<sup>5</sup>They answered, “The LORD himself will be our witness that we promise to do whatever he says, <sup>6</sup>even if it isn't what we want to do. We will obey the LORD so that all will go well for us.”

<sup>7</sup>Ten days later, the LORD gave me an answer for

<sup>8</sup>Johanan, the officers, and the other people. So I called them together

<sup>9</sup>and told them that the LORD God of Israel had said: You asked Jeremiah to pray and find out what you should do.

<sup>10</sup>I am sorry that I had to punish you, and so I now tell you to stay here in Judah, where I will plant you and build you up, instead of tearing you down and uprooting you.

<sup>11</sup>Don't be afraid of the King of Babylonia. I will protect you from him, <sup>12</sup>and I will even force him to have mercy on you and give back your farms.

<sup>13</sup>But you might keep on saying, “We won't stay here in Judah, and we won't obey the LORD our God.

<sup>14</sup>We are going to Egypt, where there is plenty of food and no danger of war.”

<sup>15</sup>People of Judah, you survived when the Babylonian army attacked. Now you are planning to move to Egypt, and if you do go, this is what will happen.

<sup>16-17</sup>You are afraid of war, starvation, and disease here in Judah, but they will follow you to Egypt and kill you there. None of you will survive the disasters I will send.

<sup>18</sup>I, the LORD, was angry with the people of Jerusalem and punished them. And if you go to Egypt, I will be angry and punish you the same way. You will never again see your homeland. People will be horrified at what I do to you, and they will use the name of your city as a curse word.

Jeremiah gives a warning

<sup>19</sup>I told the people: You escaped the disaster that struck Judah, but now the LORD warns you to stay away from Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>You asked me to pray and find out what the LORD our God wants you to do, and you promised to obey him. But that was a terrible mistake, <sup>21</sup>because now that I have given you the LORD's answer, you refuse to obey him.

<sup>22</sup>And so, you will die in Egypt from war, hunger, and disease.

Jeremiah 43

Jeremiah in Egypt The people go to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>I told the people everything the LORD had told me.

<sup>2</sup>But Azariah, Johanan and some other arrogant men said to me, “You're lying! The LORD didn't tell you to say that we shouldn't go to Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Baruch son of Neriah must have told you to say that. He wants the Babylonians to capture us, so they can take us away to Babylonia or even kill us.”

<sup>4</sup>Johanan, the other army officers, and everyone else refused to stay in Judah in spite of the LORD's command.

<sup>5</sup>So Johanan and the officers led us away towards Egypt. The group that left Judah included those who had been scattered in other countries and who had then come back to live in Judah.

<sup>6</sup>Baruch and I and others in the group had been staying with Gedaliah, because Nebuzaradan, the Babylonian officer in charge of the guard, had ordered him to take care of the king's daughters and quite a few men, women, and children.

<sup>7</sup>The people disobeyed the LORD and went to Egypt. The group had settled in Tahpanhes,

<sup>8</sup>when the LORD told me:

<sup>9</sup>Jeremiah, carry some large stones to the entrance of the government building in Tahpanhes. Bury the stones underneath the brick pavement and be sure the Jews are watching.

<sup>10</sup>Then tell them that I, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, have sent for my servant, Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia. I will bring him here and make him set up his throne and his royal tent over these stones that I told you to bury.

<sup>11</sup>He will attack Egypt and kill many of its people; others will die of disease or be dragged away as prisoners.

<sup>12-13</sup>I will let him set Egypt's temples on fire, and he will either burn or carry off their idols. He will destroy the sacred monuments at the temple of the sun-god. Then Nebuchadnezzar will pick the land clean, just like a shepherd picking the lice off his clothes. And he will return safely home.

Jeremiah 44

The LORD will destroy the people of Judah

<sup>1</sup>The LORD told me to speak with the Jews who were living in the towns of Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis in northern Egypt, and also to those living in southern Egypt. He told me to tell them:

<sup>2</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel. You saw how I destroyed Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. They lie empty and in ruins today, <sup>3</sup>because the people of Judah made me angry by worshipping gods that had never helped them or their ancestors.

<sup>4</sup>Time after time I sent my servants the prophets to tell the people of Judah how much I hated their disgusting sins. The prophets warned them to stop sinning, <sup>5</sup>but they refused to listen and would not stop worshipping other gods.

<sup>6</sup>Finally, my anger struck like a raging flood, and today Jerusalem and the towns of Judah are nothing but empty ruins.

<sup>7</sup>Why do you now insist on heading for another disaster? A disaster that will destroy not only you, but also your children and babies.

<sup>8</sup>You have made me angry by worshipping idols and burning incense to other gods after you came here to Egypt. You will die such a disgusting death, that other nations will use the name of Judah as a curse word.

<sup>9</sup>When you were living in Jerusalem and Judah, you followed the example of your ancestors in doing evil things, just like your kings and queens.

<sup>10</sup>Even now, your pride keeps you from respecting me and obeying the laws and teachings I gave you and your ancestors.

<sup>11</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, have decided to wipe you out with disasters.

<sup>12</sup>There were only a few of you left in Judah, and you decided to go to Egypt. But you will die such horrible deaths in war or from starvation, that people of other countries will use the name of Judah as a curse word.

<sup>13</sup>I punished Jerusalem with war, hunger, and disease, and that's how I will punish you.

<sup>14</sup>None of you will survive. You may hope to return to Judah some day, but only a very few of you will escape death and be able to go back.

The people refuse to worship the LORD

<sup>15</sup>A large number of Jews from both northern and southern Egypt listened to me as I told them what the LORD had said. Most of the men in the crowd knew that their wives often burnt incense to other gods. So they and their wives shouted:

<sup>16</sup>Jeremiah, what do we care if you speak in the LORD's name? We refuse to listen!

<sup>17</sup>We have promised to worship the goddess Astarte, the Queen of Heaven, and that is exactly what we are going to do. We will burn incense and offer sacrifices of wine to her, just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did when we lived in Jerusalem and the other towns of Judah. We had plenty of food back then. We were well off, and nothing bad ever happened to us.

<sup>18</sup>But since the time we stopped burning incense and offering wine sacrifices to her, we have been dying from war and hunger.

<sup>19</sup>Then the women said, "When we lived in Judah, we worshipped the Queen of Heaven and offered sacrifices of wine and special loaves of bread shaped like her. Our husbands knew what we were doing, and they approved of it."

<sup>20</sup>Then I told the crowd:

<sup>21</sup>Don't you think the LORD knew that you and your ancestors, your leaders and kings, and the rest of the people were burning incense to other gods in Jerusalem and everywhere else in Judah?

<sup>22</sup>And when he could no longer put up with your disgusting sins, he placed a curse on your land and turned it into a desert, as it is today.

<sup>23</sup>This disaster happened because you worshipped other gods and rebelled against the LORD by refusing to obey him or follow his laws and teachings.

<sup>24-25</sup>Then I told the men and their wives, that the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, had said: Here in Egypt you still keep your promises to burn incense and offer sacrifices of wine to the so called Queen of Heaven.

<sup>26</sup>Keep these promises! But let me tell you what will happen. As surely as I am the LORD God, I swear that I will never again accept any promises you make in my name.

<sup>27</sup>Instead of watching over you, I will watch for chances to harm you. Some of you will die in war, and others will starve to death.

<sup>28</sup>Only a few will escape and return to Judah. Then everyone who went to live in Egypt will know that when I say something will happen, it will—no matter what you say.

<sup>29</sup>And here is how you will know that I will keep my threats to punish you in Egypt.

<sup>30</sup>I will hand over King Hophra of Egypt to those who want to kill him, just as I handed Zedekiah over to Nebuchadnezzar, who wanted to kill him.

Jeremiah 45

A message for Baruch
The LORD will not let Baruch be killed

<sup>1</sup>In the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, Baruch wrote down everything I had told him.

<sup>2</sup>Then later, the LORD God of Israel told me to say to Baruch:

<sup>3</sup>You are moaning and blaming me, the LORD, for your troubles and sorrow, and for being so tired that you can't even rest.

<sup>4</sup>But all over the earth I am tearing down what I built and pulling up what I planted.

<sup>5</sup>I am bringing disaster everywhere, so don't even think about making any big plans for yourself. However, I promise that wherever you go, I will at least protect you from death. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 46

The Lord speaks about the nations

<sup>1</sup>The LORD often told me what to say about the different nations of the world.

What the LORD says about Egypt

<sup>2</sup>In the fourth year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia defeated King Neco of Egypt in a battle at the city of Carchemish near the River Euphrates. And here is what the LORD told me to say about the Egyptian army:

<sup>3</sup>It's time to go into battle! So grab your shields,

<sup>4</sup>saddle your horses, and polish your spears. Put on your helmets and armour, then take your positions.

<sup>5</sup>I can see the battle now— you are defeated and running away, never once looking back. Terror is all around.

<sup>6</sup>You are strong and run fast, but you can't escape. You fall in battle near the River Euphrates.

<sup>7</sup>What nation is this, that rises like the River Nile overflowing its banks?

<sup>8</sup>It is Egypt, rising with a roar like a raging river and saying, “I’ll flood the earth, destroying cities, and killing everyone in them.”

<sup>9</sup>Go ahead, Egypt. Tell your chariots and cavalry to attack and fight hard. Order your troops to march out, with Ethiopians and Libyans carrying shields, and the Lydians armed with bows and arrows.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD All-Powerful will win this battle and take revenge on his enemies. His sword will eat them and drink their blood until it is full. They will be killed in the north near the River Euphrates, as a sacrifice to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Egypt, no medicine can heal you, not even the soothing lotion from Gilead.

<sup>12</sup>All nations have heard you weep; you are disgraced, and they know it. Your troops fall to the ground, stumbling over each other.

A warning for Egypt

<sup>13-14</sup>When King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia was on his way to attack Egypt, the LORD sent me with a warning for every Egyptian town, but especially for Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes. He said I must tell them: Prepare to defend yourselves! Everywhere in your nation, people are dying in war.

<sup>15</sup>I have struck down your mighty god Apis and chased him away.

<sup>16</sup>Your soldiers stumble over each other and say, “Get up! The enemy will kill us, unless we can escape to our own land.”

<sup>17</sup>Give the king of Egypt this new name, “Talks-Big-Does-Nothing”.

<sup>18</sup>Egypt, I am the true king, the LORD All-Powerful, and as surely as I live, those enemies who attack will tower over you like Mount Tabor among the hills or Mount Carmel by the sea.

<sup>19</sup>You will be led away captive, so pack a few things to bring with you. Your capital, Memphis, will lie empty and in ruins.

<sup>20</sup>An enemy from the north will attack you, beautiful Egypt, like a fly biting a cow.

<sup>21</sup>The foreign soldiers you hired will turn and run. But they are doomed, like well-fed calves being led to the butcher.

<sup>22-23</sup>The enemy army will go forward like a swarm of locusts. Your troops will feel helpless, like a snake in a forest when men with axes start chopping down trees. It can only hiss and try to escape.

<sup>24</sup>Your people will be disgraced and captured by the enemy from the north.

<sup>25</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel. Soon I will punish the god Amon of Thebes and the other Egyptian gods, the Egyptian kings, the people of Egypt, and everyone who trusts in the Egyptian power.

<sup>26</sup>I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar and his army. But I also promise that Egypt will some day have people living here again, just as it had before. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD will bring Israel home

The LORD said:

<sup>27</sup>Israel, don't be afraid. Some day I will bring you home from foreign lands. You and your descendants will live in peace and safety, with nothing to fear.

<sup>28</sup>So don't be afraid, even though now you deserve to be punished and have been scattered among other nations. But when I destroy them, I will protect you. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 47

What the LORD says about the Philistines

<sup>1</sup>Before the king of Egypt attacked the town of Gaza, the LORD told me to say to the Philistines:

<sup>2</sup>I, the LORD, tell you that your land will be flooded with an army from the north. It will destroy your towns and sweep you away, moaning and screaming.

<sup>3</sup>When you hear the thunder of horses and chariots, your courage will vanish, and parents will abandon their own children.

<sup>4</sup>You refugees from Crete, your time has now come, and I will destroy you. None of you will be left to help the cities of Tyre and Sidon.

<sup>5-6</sup>The Anakim who survive in Gaza and Ashkelon will mourn for you by shaving their heads and sitting in silence. You ask how long will I continue to attack you with my sword, then you tell me to put it away and leave you alone.

<sup>7</sup>But how can my sword rest, when I have commanded it to attack Ashkelon and the coast?

Jeremiah 48

What the LORD says about Moab

<sup>1</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, told me to say to the nation of Moab: The town of Nebo is doomed; Kiriathaim will be captured and disgraced, and even its fortress will be left in ruins.

<sup>2</sup>No one honours you, Moab. In Heshbon, enemies make plans to end your life. My sword will leave only silence in your town named “Quiet”.

<sup>3</sup>The people of Horonaim will cry for help, as their town is attacked and destroyed.

<sup>4</sup>Moab will be shattered! Your children will sob

<sup>5</sup>and cry on their way up to the town of Luhith; on the road to Horonaim they will tell of disasters.

<sup>6</sup>Run for your lives! Head into the desert like a wild donkey.

<sup>7</sup>You thought you could be saved by your power and wealth, but you will be captured along with your god Chemosh, his priests, and officials.

<sup>8</sup>Not one of your towns will escape destruction. I have told your enemies, “Wipe out the valley and the flat lands of Moab.

<sup>9</sup>Spread salt on the ground to kill the crops. Leave its towns in ruins, with no one living there.

<sup>10</sup>I want you to kill the Moabites, and if you let them escape, I will put a curse on you.”

<sup>11</sup>Moab, you are like wine left to settle undisturbed, never poured from jar to jar. And so, your nation continues to prosper and improve.

<sup>12</sup>But now, I will send enemies to pour out the wine and smash the jars!

<sup>13</sup>Then you will be ashamed, because your god Chemosh cannot save you, just as Bethel could not help the Israelites.

<sup>14</sup>You claim that your soldiers are strong and brave.

<sup>15</sup>But I am the LORD, the all-powerful King, and I promise that enemies will overpower your towns. Even your best warriors will die in the battle.

<sup>16</sup>It won't be long now— disaster will hit Moab!

<sup>17</sup>I will order the nearby nations to mourn for you and say, “Isn't it sad? Moab ruled others, but now its glorious power has been shattered.”

<sup>18</sup>People in the town of Dibon, you will be honoured no more, so have a seat in the dust. Your walls will be torn down when the enemies attack.

<sup>19</sup>You people of Aroer, wait beside the road, and when refugees run by, ask them, “What happened?”

<sup>20</sup>They will answer, “Moab has been defeated! Weep with us in shame. Tell everyone at the River Arnon that Moab is destroyed.”

<sup>21-24</sup>I will punish every town that belongs to Moab, but especially Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, Dibon, Nebo, Beth-Diblathaim, Kiriathaim, Beth-Gamul, Beth-Meon, Kerioth, and Bozrah.

<sup>25</sup>My decision is final— your army will be crushed, and your power broken.

<sup>26</sup>People of Moab, you claim to be stronger than I am. Now I will tell other nations to make you drunk and to laugh while you collapse in your own vomit.

<sup>27</sup>You made fun of my people and treated them like criminals caught in the act.

<sup>28</sup>Now you must leave your towns and live like doves in the shelter of cliffs and canyons.

<sup>29</sup>I know about your pride, and how you strut and boast.

<sup>30</sup>But I also know boasting will never save you.

<sup>31</sup>So I will cry and mourn for Moab and its town of Kir-Heres.

<sup>32</sup>People of Sibmah, you were like a vineyard heavy with grapes, and with branches reaching north to the town of Jazer and west to the Dead Sea. But you have been destroyed, and so I will weep for you, as the people of Jazer weep for the vineyards.

<sup>33</sup>Harvest celebrations are gone from the orchards and farms of Moab. There are no happy shouts from people making wine.

<sup>34</sup>Weeping from Heshbon can be heard as far as Elealeh and Jahaz; cries from Zoar are heard in Horonaim and Eglath-Shelishiyah. And Nimrim Brook has run dry.

<sup>35</sup>I will get rid of anyone who burns incense to the gods of Moab or offers sacrifices at their shrines. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>36</sup>In my heart I moan for Moab, like a funeral song played on a flute. I mourn for the people of the town of Kir-Heres, because their wealth is gone.

<sup>37-38</sup>The people of Moab mourn on the rooftops and in the streets. Men cut off their beards, people shave their heads; they make cuts on their hands and wear sackcloth. And it's all because I, the LORD, have shattered Moab like a jar that no one wants.

<sup>39</sup>Moab lies broken! Listen to its people cry as they turn away in shame. Other nations are horrified at what happened, but still they laugh.

<sup>40</sup>Moab, an enemy swoops down like an eagle spreading its wings over your land.

<sup>41</sup>Your cities and fortresses will be captured, and your warriors gripped by fear.

<sup>42</sup>You are finished as a nation, because you dared oppose me, the LORD.

<sup>43</sup>Terror, pits, and traps are waiting for you.

<sup>44</sup>If you are terrified and run, you will fall into a pit; and if you crawl out of the pit, you'll get caught in a trap. The time has come for you to be punished.

<sup>45</sup>Near the city of Heshbon, where Sihon once ruled, tired refugees stand in shadows cast by the flames of their burning city. Soon, the towns on other hilltops, where those warlike people live, will also go up in smoke.

<sup>46</sup>People of Moab, you worshipped Chemosh, your god, but now you are done for, and your children are prisoners in a foreign country.

<sup>47</sup>Yet some day, I will bring your people back home. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Jeremiah 49

What the LORD says about Ammon

<sup>1</sup>The LORD has this to say about the nation of Ammon: The people of Israel have plenty of children to inherit their lands. So why have you worshippers of the god Milcom taken over towns and land belonging to the Gad tribe?

<sup>2</sup>Some day I will send an army to attack you in Rabbah, your capital city. It will be left in ruins, and the surrounding villages will lie in ashes. You took some of Israel's land, but on that day Israel will take yours!

<sup>3</sup>Cry, people of Heshbon; your town will become a pile of rubble. You will turn here and there, but your path will be blocked. Put on sackcloth and mourn, you citizens of Rabbah, because the idol you worship will be taken to a foreign country, along with its priests and temple officials.

<sup>4</sup>You rebellious Ammonites trust your wealth and ask, “Who could attack us?” But I warn you not to boast when your strength is fading.

<sup>5</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, will send neighbouring nations to strike you with terror. You will be scattered, with no one to care for your refugees.

<sup>6</sup>Yet some day, I will bring your people back home. I, the LORD, have spoken.

What the LORD says about Edom

<sup>7-8</sup> The LORD All-Powerful says about Edom: Wisdom and common sense have vanished from Teman. I will send disaster to punish you descendants of Esau, so anyone from Dedan had better turn round and run back home.

<sup>9</sup>People who harvest grapes leave some for the poor. Thieves who break in at night take only what they want.

<sup>10</sup>But I will take everything that belongs to you, people of Edom, and I will uncover every place where you try to hide. Then you will die, and so will your children, relatives, and neighbours.

<sup>11</sup>But I can be trusted to care for your orphans and widows.

<sup>12</sup>Even those nations that don't deserve to be punished will have to drink from the cup of my anger. So how can you possibly hope to escape?

<sup>13</sup>I, the LORD, swear in my own name that your city of Bozrah and all your towns will suffer a horrible fate. They will lie in ruins for ever, and people will use the name “Bozrah” as a curse word.

<sup>14</sup>I have sent a messenger to command the nations to prepare for war against you people of Edom.

<sup>15</sup>Your nation will be small, yet hated by other nations.

<sup>16</sup>Pride tricks you into thinking that other nations look at you with fear. You live along the cliffs and high in the mountains like the eagles, but I am the LORD, and I will bring you down.

<sup>17</sup>People passing by your country will be shocked and horrified to see a disaster

<sup>18</sup>as bad as the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and towns nearby. The towns of Edom will be empty.

<sup>19</sup>I will attack you like a lion from the forest, attacking sheep in a meadow along the Jordan. In a moment the flock runs, and the land is empty. Who will I choose to attack you? I will do it myself! No one can force me to fight or chase me away.

<sup>20</sup>Listen to my plans for you, people of Edom. Your children will be dragged off and your country destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>The sounds of your destruction will reach the Red Sea and cause the earth to shake.

<sup>22</sup>An enemy will swoop down to attack you, like an eagle spreading its wings and circling over Bozrah. Your warriors will be gripped by fear.

What the LORD says about Damascus

<sup>23</sup>The LORD says about Damascus: The towns of Hamath and Arpad have heard your bad news. They have lost hope, and worries roll over them like ocean waves.

<sup>24</sup>You people of Damascus have lost your courage, and in panic you turn to run, gripped by fear and pain.

<sup>25</sup>I once was pleased with your famous city. But now I warn you, “Escape while you still can!”

<sup>26</sup>Soon, even your best soldiers will lie dead in your streets. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken.

<sup>27</sup>I will set fire to your city walls and burn down the fortresses King Benhadad built.

Nebuchadnezzar and the people of the desert

<sup>28</sup>Here is what the LORD says about the Kedar tribe and the desert villages that were conquered by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia: Listen, you people of Kedar and the other tribes of the eastern desert. I have told Nebuchadnezzar to attack and destroy you.

<sup>29</sup>His fearsome army will surround you, taking your tents and possessions, your sheep and camels.

<sup>30</sup>Run and hide, you people of the desert who live in villages! Nebuchadnezzar has big plans for you.

<sup>31</sup>You have no city walls and no neighbours to help, yet you think you're safe— so I told him to attack.

<sup>32</sup>Then your camels and large herds will be yours no longer. People of the Arabian Desert, disaster will strike you from every side, and you will be scattered everywhere on earth.

<sup>33</sup>Only jackals will live where your villages once stood. I, the LORD, have spoken.

What the LORD says about Elam

<sup>34-35</sup>Not long after Zedekiah became king of Judah, the LORD told me to say: People of Elam, I, the LORD All-Powerful, will kill the archers who make your army strong.

<sup>36</sup>Enemies will attack from all directions, and you will be led captive to every nation on earth.

<sup>37</sup>Their armies will crush and kill you, and you will face the disaster that my anger brings.

<sup>38</sup>Your king and his officials will die, and I will rule in their place. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>39</sup>But I promise that some day I will bring your people back to their land.

Jeremiah 50

Babylon will be captured

<sup>1-2</sup> The LORD told me to say: Announce what will happen and don't leave anything out. Raise the signal flags; shout so all nations can hear— Babylon will be captured! Marduk, Babylon's god, will be ashamed and terrified, and his idols broken.

<sup>3</sup> The attack on the Babylonians will come from the north; they and their animals will run, leaving the land empty.

Israel and Judah will return to their land

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said: People of Israel and Judah, when these things happen you will weep, and together you will return to your land and worship me, the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup> You will ask the way to Zion and then come and join with me in making an agreement you won't break or forget.

<sup>6</sup> My people, you are lost sheep abandoned by their shepherds in the mountains. You don't even remember your resting place.

<sup>7</sup> I am your true pasture land, the one who gave hope to your ancestors. But you abandoned me, so when your enemies found you, they felt no guilt as they gobbled you up.

<sup>8</sup> Escape from Babylonia, my people. Get out of that country! Don't wait for anyone else.

<sup>9</sup> In the north I am bringing great nations together. They will attack Babylon and capture it. The arrows they shoot are like the best soldiers, always finding their target.

<sup>10</sup> Babylonia will be conquered, and its enemies will carry off everything they want.

Babylon will be disgraced

The LORD said:

<sup>11</sup> People of Babylonia, you were glad to rob my people. You had a good time, making more noise than horses and jumping around like calves threshing grain.

<sup>12</sup>The city of Babylon was like a mother to you. But it will be disgraced and become nothing but a barren desert.

<sup>13</sup>My anger will destroy Babylon, and no one will live there. Everyone who passes by will be shocked to see what has happened.

<sup>14</sup>Babylon has rebelled against me. Archers, take your places. Shoot all your arrows at Babylon.

<sup>15</sup>Attack from every side! Babylon surrenders! The enemy tears down its walls and towers. I am taking my revenge by doing to Babylon what it did to other cities.

<sup>16</sup>There is no one in Babylonia to plant or harvest crops. Even foreigners who lived there have left for their homelands, afraid of the enemy armies.

<sup>17</sup>Israel is a flock of sheep scattered by hungry lions. The king of Assyria first gobbled Israel up. Then Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylonia, crunched on Israel's bones.

<sup>18</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, punished the king of Assyria, and I will also punish the king of Babylonia.

<sup>19</sup>But I will bring Israel back to its own land. The people will be like sheep eating their fill on Mount Carmel and in Bashan, in the hill country of Ephraim and in Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>I will rescue a few people from Israel and Judah. I will forgive them so completely that their sin and guilt will disappear, never to be found.

The LORD's commands to the enemies of Babylonia

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said: I have told the enemies of Babylonia, "Attack the people of Merathaim and Pekod. Kill them all! Destroy their possessions!"

<sup>22</sup>Sounds of war and the noise of destruction can be heard.

<sup>23</sup>Babylonia was a hammer pounding every country, but now it lies broken. What a shock to the nations of the world!

<sup>24</sup>Babylonia challenged me, the LORD God All-Powerful, but that nation doesn't know it is caught in a trap that I set.

<sup>25</sup>I've brought out my weapons, and with them I will put a curse on Babylonia.

<sup>26</sup>Come from far away, you enemies of Babylon! Pile up the grain from its storehouses, and destroy it completely, along with everything else.

<sup>27</sup>Kill the soldiers of Babylonia, because the time has come for them to be punished.

<sup>28</sup>The Babylonian army destroyed my temple, but soon I will take revenge. Then refugees from Babylon will tell about it in Zion.

<sup>29</sup>Attack Babylon, enemy archers; set up camp around the city, and don't let anyone escape. It challenged me, the holy God, so do to it what it did to other cities.

Proud Babylon will fall

The LORD said:

<sup>30</sup>People of Babylon, I, the LORD, promise that even your best soldiers will lie dead in the streets.

<sup>31</sup>Babylon, you should be named, "The Proud One". But the time has come when I, the LORD All-Powerful, will punish you.

<sup>32</sup>You are proud, but you will stumble and fall, and no one will help you up. I will set your villages on fire, and everything around you will go up in flames.

<sup>33</sup>You Babylonians were cruel to Israel and Judah. You took them captive, and now you refuse to let them go.

<sup>34</sup>But I, the LORD All-Powerful, will rescue and protect them. I will bring peace to their land and trouble to yours.

<sup>35</sup>I have declared war on you, your officials, and advisers.

<sup>36</sup>This war will prove that your prophets are liars and fools. And it will frighten your warriors.

<sup>37</sup>Then your chariot horses and the foreigners in your army will refuse to go into battle, and the enemy will carry away everything you treasure.

<sup>38</sup>Your rivers and canals will dry up. All this will happen, because your land is full of idols, and they have made fools of you.

<sup>39</sup>Never again will people live in your land— only desert animals, jackals, and unclean birds.

<sup>40</sup>I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and the nearby towns, and I will destroy Babylon just as completely. No one will live there again.

Babylonia is invaded

The LORD said:

<sup>41</sup>Far to the north, a nation and its allies have been awakened. They are powerful and ready for war.

<sup>42</sup>Bows and arrows and swords are in their hands. The soldiers are cruel and show no pity. The hoofbeats of their horses echo like ocean waves crashing against the shore. The army has lined up for battle and is coming to attack you, people of Babylonia!

<sup>43</sup>Ever since your king heard about this army, he has been weak with fear; he twists and turns in pain like a woman giving birth.

<sup>44</sup>Babylonia, I will attack you like a lion from the forest, attacking sheep in a meadow along the Jordan. In a moment the flock runs, and the land is empty. Who will I choose to attack you? I will do it myself! No one can force me to fight or chase me away.

<sup>45</sup>Listen to my plans for you, people of Babylonia. Your children will be dragged off, and your country destroyed.

<sup>46</sup>The sounds of your destruction will be heard among the nations, and the earth will shake.

Jeremiah 51

Babylon will be destroyed

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>I, the LORD, am sending a wind to destroy the people of Babylonia and Babylon, its capital.

<sup>2</sup>Foreign soldiers will come from every direction, and when the disaster is over, Babylonia will be empty and worthless.

<sup>3</sup>I will tell these soldiers, “Attack quickly, before the Babylonians can string their bows or put on their armour. Kill their best soldiers and destroy their army!”

<sup>4</sup>Their troops will fall wounded in the streets of Babylon.

<sup>5</sup>Everyone in Israel and Judah is guilty. But I, the LORD All-Powerful, their holy God, have not abandoned them.

<sup>6</sup>Get out of Babylon! Run for your lives! If you stay, you will be killed when I take revenge on the city and punish it for its sins.

<sup>7</sup>Babylon was my golden cup, filled with the wine of my anger. The nations of the world got drunk on this wine and went insane.

<sup>8</sup>But suddenly, Babylon will fall and be destroyed. I, the LORD, told the foreigners who lived there, “Weep for the city! Get medicine for its wounds; perhaps they will heal.”

<sup>9</sup>The foreigners answered, “We have already tried to treat Babylon's wounds, but they would not heal. Come on, let's all go home to our own countries. Nothing is left in Babylonia; everything is destroyed.”

<sup>10</sup>The people of Israel said, “Tell everyone in Zion! The LORD has taken revenge for what Babylon did to us.”

The LORD wants Babylon destroyed

The LORD said:

<sup>11</sup>I, the LORD, want Babylon destroyed, because its army destroyed my temple. So, you kings of Media, sharpen your arrows and pick up your shields.

<sup>12</sup>Raise the signal flag and attack the city walls. Post more guards. Command soldiers to watch the city and set up ambushes. I have made plans to destroy Babylon, and nothing will stop me.

<sup>13</sup>People of Babylon, you live along the River Euphrates and are surrounded by canals. You are rich, but now the time has come for you to die.

<sup>14</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, swear by my own life that enemy soldiers will fill your streets like a swarm of locusts. They will shout and celebrate their victory.

A hymn of praise

(Jeremiah 10.12–16)

<sup>15</sup>God used his wisdom and power to create the earth and spread out the heavens.

<sup>16</sup>The waters in the heavens roar at his command. He makes clouds appear; he sends the wind from his storehouse and makes lightning flash in the rain.

<sup>17</sup>People who make idols are stupid! They will be disappointed, because their false gods cannot breathe.

<sup>18</sup>Idols are merely a joke, and when the time is right, they will be destroyed.

<sup>19</sup>But the LORD, Israel's God, is all-powerful. He created everything, and he chose Israel to be his very own.

God's hammer

The LORD said:

<sup>20</sup>Babylonia, you were my hammer; I used you to pound nations and break kingdoms,

<sup>21</sup>to shatter cavalry and chariots,

<sup>22</sup>as well as men and women, young and old,

<sup>23</sup>shepherds and their flocks, farmers and their oxen, and governors and leaders.

<sup>24</sup>But now, my people will watch, while I repay you for what you did to Zion.

<sup>25</sup>You destroyed the nations and seem strong as a mountain, but I am your enemy. I might even grab you and roll you off a cliff. When I have finished, you'll only be a pile of scorched bricks.

<sup>26</sup>Your stone blocks won't be reused for cornerstones or foundations, and I promise that for ever you will be a desert. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The nations will attack Babylon

The LORD said:

<sup>27</sup>Signal the nations to get ready to attack. Raise a flag and blow a trumpet. Send for the armies of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Choose a commander; let the cavalry attack like a swarm of locusts.

<sup>28</sup>Tell the kings and governors, the leaders and the people of the kingdoms of the Medes to prepare for war!

<sup>29</sup>The earth twists and turns in torment, because I have decided to make Babylonia a desert where no one can live, and I won't change my mind.

<sup>30</sup>The Babylonian soldiers have lost their strength and courage. They stay in their fortresses, unable to fight, while the enemy breaks through the city gates, then sets their homes on fire.

<sup>31</sup>One messenger after another announces to the king, "Babylon has been captured!"

<sup>32</sup>The enemy now controls the river crossings! The marshes are on fire! Your army has panicked!"

<sup>33</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I make this promise—"Soon Babylon will be levelled and packed down like a threshing place at harvest time."

Babylonia will pay!

<sup>34</sup>The people of Jerusalem say, "King Nebuchadnezzar made us panic. That monster stuffed himself with us and our treasures, leaving us empty— he gobbled up what he wanted and spat out the rest.

<sup>35</sup>The people of Babylonia harmed some of us and killed others. Now, LORD, make them pay!”

The LORD will take revenge on Babylon

The LORD said:

<sup>36</sup>My people, I am on your side, and I will take revenge on Babylon. I will cut off its water supply, and its stream will dry up.

<sup>37</sup>Babylon will be a pile of rubble where only jackals live. People will laugh, but they will be afraid to walk among the ruins.

<sup>38</sup>The Babylonians roar and growl like young lions.

<sup>39</sup>And since they are hungry, I will give them a banquet. They will celebrate, get drunk, then fall asleep, never to wake up!

<sup>40</sup>I will lead them away to die, like sheep, lambs, and goats being led to the butcher.

<sup>41</sup>All nations now praise Babylon, but when it is captured, those same nations will be horrified.

<sup>42</sup>Babylon's enemies will rise like ocean waves and flood the city.

<sup>43</sup>Horrible destruction will strike the nearby towns. The land will become a barren desert, where no one can live or even travel.

<sup>44</sup>I will punish Marduk, the god of Babylon, and make him vomit everything he gobbled up. Then nations will no longer bring him gifts, and Babylon's walls will crumble.

The LORD offers hope to his people

The LORD said:

<sup>45</sup>Get out of Babylon, my people, and run for your lives, before I strike the city in my anger!

<sup>46</sup>Don't be afraid or lose hope, though year after year there are rumours of leaders fighting for control in the city of Babylon.

<sup>47</sup>The time will come when I will punish Babylon's false gods. Everyone there will die, and the whole nation will be disgraced,

<sup>48</sup>when an army attacks from the north and brings destruction. Then the earth and the heavens and everything in them will celebrate.

<sup>49</sup>Babylon must be overthrown, because it slaughtered the people of Israel and of many other nations.

<sup>50</sup>My people, you escaped death when Jerusalem fell. Now you live far from home, but you should trust me and think about Jerusalem. Leave Babylon! Don't stay!

<sup>51</sup>You feel ashamed and disgraced, because foreigners have entered my sacred temple.

<sup>52</sup>Soon I will send a war to punish Babylon's idols and leave its wounded people moaning everywhere.

<sup>53</sup>Although Babylon's walls reach to the sky, the army I send will destroy that city. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Babylon will be destroyed

The LORD said:

<sup>54</sup>Listen to the cries for help coming from Babylon. Everywhere in the country the sounds of destruction can be heard.

<sup>55</sup>The shouts of the enemy, like crashing ocean waves, will drown out Babylon's cries as I level the city.

<sup>56</sup>An enemy will attack and destroy Babylon. Its soldiers will be captured and their weapons broken, because I am a God who takes revenge against nations for what they do.

<sup>57</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, the true King, promise that the officials and advisers, the governors and leaders and the soldiers of Babylon will get drunk, fall asleep, and never wake up.

<sup>58</sup>The thick walls of that city will be torn down, and its huge gates burnt. Everything that nation worked so hard to gain will go up in smoke.

Jeremiah gives Seraiah a scroll

<sup>59</sup>During Zedekiah's fourth year as king of Judah, he went to Babylon. And Baruch's brother Seraiah went along as the officer in charge of arranging for places to stay overnight.

<sup>60</sup>Before they left, I wrote on a scroll all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon.

<sup>61</sup>I gave the scroll to Seraiah and said: When you get to Babylon, read this scroll aloud,

<sup>62</sup>then pray, “Our LORD, you promised to destroy this place and make it into a desert where no people or animals will ever live.”

<sup>63</sup>When you finish praying, tie the scroll to a rock and throw it in the River Euphrates. Then say,

<sup>64</sup>“This is how Babylon will sink when the LORD destroys it. Everyone in the city will die, and it won't have the strength to rise again.”

The end of Jeremiah's writing

Jeremiah's writing ends here.

Jeremiah 52

Another account of the fall of Jerusalem

Jerusalem is captured

(2 Kings 24.18—25.30; 2 Chronicles 36.11–21)

<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he was appointed king of Judah, and he ruled from Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother Hamutal was the daughter of Jeremiah from the town of Libnah.

<sup>2</sup>Zedekiah disobeyed the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done,

<sup>3</sup>and it was Zedekiah who finally rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar. The people of Judah and Jerusalem had made the LORD so angry that he finally turned his back on them. That's why horrible things were happening.

<sup>4</sup>In Zedekiah's ninth year as king, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia led his entire army to attack Jerusalem. The troops set up camp outside the city and built ramps up to the city walls.

<sup>5-6</sup>After a year and a half, all the food in Jerusalem was gone. Then on the ninth day of the fourth month,

<sup>7</sup>the Babylonian troops broke through the city wall. That same night, Zedekiah and his soldiers tried to escape through the gate near the royal garden, even though they knew the enemy had the city surrounded. They headed towards the Jordan valley,

<sup>8</sup>but the Babylonian troops caught up with them near Jericho. The Babylonians arrested Zedekiah, but his soldiers scattered in every direction.

<sup>9</sup>Zedekiah was taken to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Nebuchadnezzar put him on trial and found him guilty.

<sup>10</sup>Zedekiah's sons and the officials of Judah were killed while he watched,

<sup>11</sup>then his eyes were put out. He was put in chains, then dragged off to Babylon and kept in prison until he died.

<sup>12</sup>Jerusalem was captured during Nebuchadnezzar's nineteenth year as king of Babylonia. About a month later, Nebuchadnezzar's officer in charge of the guards arrived in Jerusalem. His name was Nebuzaradan, <sup>13</sup>and he burnt down the LORD's temple, the king's palace, and every important building in the city, as well as all the houses.

<sup>14</sup>Then he ordered the Babylonian soldiers to break down the walls around Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>He led away the people left in the city, including everyone who had become loyal to Nebuchadnezzar, the rest of the skilled workers, and even some of the poor people of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>Only the very poorest were left behind to work the vineyards and the fields.

17-20 Nebuzaradan ordered his soldiers to go to the temple and take everything made of gold or silver, including bowls, fire pans, sprinkling bowls, pans, lampstands, dishes for incense, and the cups for wine offerings. The Babylonian soldiers took all the bronze things used for worship at the temple, including the pans for hot ashes, and the shovels, lamp snuffers, sprinkling bowls, and dishes for incense. The soldiers also took everything else made of bronze, including the two columns that stood in front of the temple, the large bowl called the Sea, the twelve bulls that held it up, and the moveable stands. The soldiers broke these things into pieces so they could take them to Babylonia. There was so much bronze that it could not be weighed.

21For example, the columns were about eight metres high and five metres around. They were hollow, but the bronze was about seventy-five millimetres thick.

22Each column had a bronze cap over two metres high that was decorated with bronze designs. Some of these designs were like chains and others were like pomegranates.

23There were ninety-six pomegranates evenly spaced around each column, and a total of one hundred pomegranates were above the chains.

24Next, Nebuzaradan arrested Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah his assistant, and three temple officials.

25Then he arrested one of the army commanders, seven of King Zedekiah's personal advisers, and the officer in charge of gathering the troops for battle. He also found sixty more soldiers who were still in Jerusalem.

26-27Nebuzaradan led them to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Nebuchadnezzar had them killed. The people of Judah no longer lived in their own country.

People of Judah taken prisoner

28-30Here is a list of the number of the people of Judah that Nebuchadnezzar took to Babylonia as prisoners: In his seventh year as king, he took 3, 023 people. In his eighteenth year as king, he took 832 from Jerusalem. In his twenty-third year as king, his officer Nebuzaradan took 745 people. So, Nebuchadnezzar took a total of 4, 600 people from Judah to Babylonia.

Jehoiachin is set free

(2 Kings 25.27–30)

<sup>31</sup>Jehoiachin was a prisoner in Babylon for thirty-seven years. Then Evil-Merodach became king of Babylonia, and in the first year of his rule, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, he let Jehoiachin out of prison.

<sup>32</sup>Evil-Merodach was kind to Jehoiachin and honoured him more than any of the other kings held prisoner there.

<sup>33</sup>Jehoiachin was allowed to wear ordinary clothes instead of a prison uniform, and he even ate at the king's table every day.

<sup>34</sup>As long as Jehoiachin lived, he was paid a daily allowance to buy whatever he needed.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1

First lament
Lonely Jerusalem
The prophet speaks:

<sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, once so crowded, lies deserted and lonely. This city that was known all over the world is now like a widow. This queen of the nations has been made a slave.

<sup>2</sup>Each night, bitter tears flood her cheeks. None of her former lovers are there to offer comfort; her friends have betrayed her and are now her enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The people of Judah are slaves, suffering in a foreign land, with no rest from sorrow. Their enemies captured them and were terribly cruel.

<sup>4</sup>The roads to Zion mourn because no one travels there to celebrate the festivals. The city gates are deserted; priests are weeping. Young women are raped; Zion is in sorrow!

<sup>5</sup>Enemies now rule the city and live as they please. The LORD has punished Jerusalem because of her awful sins; he has let her people be dragged away.

<sup>6</sup>Zion's glory has disappeared. Her leaders are like deer that cannot find pasture; they are hunted down till their strength is gone.

<sup>7</sup>Her people recall the good life that once was theirs; now they suffer and are scattered. No one was there to protect them from their enemies who sneered when their city was taken.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem's horrible sins have made the city a joke. Those who once admired her now hate her instead— she has been disgraced; she groans and turns away.

<sup>9</sup>Her sins had made her filthy, but she wasn't worried about what could happen. And when Jerusalem fell, it was so tragic. No one gave her comfort when she cried out, "Help! I'm in trouble, LORD! The enemy has won."

<sup>10</sup>Zion's treasures were stolen. Jerusalem saw foreigners enter her place of worship, though the LORD had forbidden them to belong to his people.

<sup>11</sup>Everyone in the city groans while searching for food; they trade their valuables for barely enough scraps to stay alive.

Jerusalem speaks:

Jerusalem shouts to the LORD, “Please look and see how miserable I am!”

<sup>12</sup>No passer-by even cares. Why doesn't someone notice my terrible sufferings? You were fiercely angry, LORD, and you punished me worst of all.

<sup>13</sup>From heaven you sent a fire that burnt in my bones; you set a trap for my feet and made me turn back. All day long you leave me in shock from constant pain.

<sup>14</sup>You have tied my sins around my neck, and they weigh so heavily that my strength is gone. You have put me in the power of enemies too strong for me.

<sup>15</sup>You, LORD, have turned back my warriors and crushed my young heroes. Judah was a woman untouched, but you let her be trampled like grapes in a wine-pit.

<sup>16</sup>Because of this, I mourn, and tears flood my eyes. No one is here to comfort or to encourage me; we have lost the war— my people are suffering.

The prophet speaks:

<sup>17</sup>Zion reaches out her hands, but no one offers comfort. The LORD has turned the neighbouring nations against Jacob's descendants. Jerusalem is merely a filthy rag to her neighbours.

Jerusalem speaks:

<sup>18</sup>The LORD was right, but I refused to obey him. Now I ask all of you to look at my sufferings— even my young people have been dragged away.

<sup>19</sup>I called out to my lovers, but they betrayed me. My priests and my leaders died while searching the city for scraps of food.

<sup>20</sup>Won't you look and see how upset I am, our LORD? My stomach is in knots, and my heart is broken because I betrayed you. In the streets and at home, my people are slaughtered.

<sup>21</sup>Everyone heard my groaning, but no one offered comfort. My enemies know of the trouble that you have brought on me, and it makes them glad. Hurry and punish them, as you have promised.

<sup>22</sup>Don't let their evil deeds escape your sight. Punish them as much as you have punished me because of my sins. I never stop groaning— I've lost all hope!

Lamentations 2

Second lament The LORD was like an enemy The prophet speaks:

<sup>1</sup>The Lord was angry! So he disgraced Zion though it was Israel's pride and his own place of rest. In his anger he threw Zion down from heaven to earth.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD had no mercy! He destroyed the homes of Jacob's descendants. In his anger he tore down every walled city in Judah; he toppled the nation together with its leaders, leaving them in shame.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord was so furiously angry that he wiped out the whole army of Israel by not supporting them when the enemy attacked. He was like a raging fire that swallowed up the descendants of Jacob.

<sup>4</sup>He attacked like an enemy with a bow and arrows, killing our loved ones. He has burnt to the ground the homes on Mount Zion.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord was like an enemy! He left Israel in ruins with its palaces and fortresses destroyed, and with everyone in Judah moaning and weeping.

<sup>6</sup>He shattered his temple like a hut in a garden; he completely wiped out his meeting place, and did away with festivals and Sabbaths in the city of Zion. In his fierce anger he rejected our king and priests.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord abandoned his altar and his temple; he let Zion's enemies capture her fortresses. Noisy shouts were heard from the temple, as if it were a time of celebration.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD had decided to tear down the walls of Zion stone by stone. So he started destroying and did not stop until walls and fortresses mourned and trembled.

<sup>9</sup>Zion's gates have fallen face down on the ground; the bars that locked the gates are smashed to pieces. Her king and royal family are prisoners in foreign lands. Her priests don't teach, and her prophets don't have a message from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Zion's leaders are silent. They just sit on the ground, tossing dust on their heads and wearing sackcloth. Her young women can do nothing but stare at the ground.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes are red from crying, my stomach is in knots, and I feel sick all over. My people are being wiped out, and children lie helpless in the streets of the city.

<sup>12</sup>A child begs its mother for food and drink, then blacks out like a wounded soldier lying in the street. The child slowly dies in its mother's arms.

<sup>13</sup>Zion, how can I comfort you? How great is your pain? Lovely city of Jerusalem, how can I heal your wounds, gaping as wide as the sea?

<sup>14</sup>Your prophets deceived you with false visions and lying messages— they should have warned you to leave your sins and be saved from disaster.

<sup>15</sup>Those who pass by shake their heads and sneer as they make fun and shout, “What a lovely city you were, the happiest on earth, but look at you now!”

<sup>16</sup>Zion, your enemies curse you and snarl like wild animals, while shouting, “This is the day we've waited for! At last, we've got you!”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD has done everything that he had planned and threatened long ago. He destroyed you without mercy and let your enemies boast about their powerful forces.

<sup>18</sup>Zion, deep in your heart you cried out to the Lord. Now let your tears overflow your walls day and night. Don't ever lose hope or let your tears stop.

<sup>19</sup>Get up and pray for help all through the night. Pour out your feelings to the Lord, as you would pour water out of a jug. Beg him to save your people, who are starving to death at every street crossing.

Jerusalem speaks:

<sup>20</sup>Think about it, LORD! Have you ever been this cruel to anyone before? Is it right for mothers to eat their children, or for priests and prophets to be killed in your temple?

<sup>21</sup>My people, both young and old, lie dead in the streets. Because you were angry, my young men and women were brutally slaughtered.

<sup>22</sup>When you were angry, LORD, you invited my enemies like guests for a party. No one survived that day; enemies killed my children, my own little ones.

Lamentations 3

Third lament
There is still hope
The prophet speaks:

<sup>1</sup>I have suffered much because God was angry.

<sup>2</sup>He chased me into a dark place, where no light could enter.

<sup>3</sup>I am the only one he punishes over and over again, without ever stopping.

<sup>4</sup>God caused my skin and flesh to waste away, and he crushed my bones.

<sup>5</sup>He attacked and surrounded me with hardships and trouble;

<sup>6</sup>he forced me to sit in the dark like someone long dead.

- <sup>7</sup>God built a fence around me that I cannot climb over, and he chained me down.
- <sup>8</sup>Even when I shouted and prayed for help, he refused to listen.
- <sup>9</sup>God put big rocks in my way and made me follow a crooked path.
- <sup>10</sup>God was like a bear or a lion waiting in ambush for me;
- <sup>11</sup>he dragged me from the road, then tore me to shreds.
- <sup>12</sup>God took careful aim and shot his arrows
- <sup>13</sup>straight through my heart.
- <sup>14</sup>I am a joke to everyone— no one ever stops making fun of me.
- <sup>15</sup>God has turned my life sour.
- <sup>16</sup>He made me eat gravel and rubbed me in the earth.
- <sup>17</sup>I cannot find peace or remember happiness.
- <sup>18</sup>I tell myself, “I am finished! I can't count on the LORD to do anything for me.”
- <sup>19</sup>Just thinking of my troubles and my lonely wandering makes me miserable.
- <sup>20</sup>That's all I ever think about, and I am depressed.
- <sup>21</sup>Then I remember something that fills me with hope.
- <sup>22</sup>The LORD's kindness never fails! If he had not been merciful, we would have been destroyed.
- <sup>23</sup>The LORD can always be trusted to show mercy each morning.
- <sup>24</sup>Deep in my heart I say, “The LORD is all I need; I can depend on him!”
- <sup>25</sup>The LORD is kind to everyone who trusts and obeys him.
- <sup>26</sup>It is good to wait patiently for the LORD to save us.
- <sup>27</sup>When we are young, it is good to struggle hard
- <sup>28</sup>and to sit silently alone, if this is what the LORD intends.

- <sup>29</sup>Being rubbed in the earth can teach us a lesson;
<sup>30</sup>we can also learn from insults and hard knocks.
<sup>31</sup>The Lord won't always reject us!
<sup>32</sup>He causes a lot of suffering, but he also has pity because of his great love.
<sup>33</sup>The Lord doesn't enjoy sending grief or pain.
<sup>34</sup>Don't trample prisoners under your feet
<sup>35</sup>or cheat anyone out of what is rightfully theirs. God Most High sees everything, <sup>36</sup>and he knows when you refuse to give someone a fair trial.
<sup>37</sup>No one can do anything without the Lord's approval.
<sup>38</sup>Good and bad each happen at the command of God Most High.
<sup>39</sup>We're still alive! We shouldn't complain when we are being punished for our sins.
<sup>40</sup>Instead, we should think about the way we are living, and turn back to the LORD.
<sup>41</sup>When we lift our hands in prayer to God in heaven, we should offer him our hearts and say,
<sup>42</sup>“We've sinned! We've rebelled against you, and you haven't forgiven us!
<sup>43</sup>Anger is written all over you, as you pursue and slaughter us without showing pity.
<sup>44</sup>You are behind a wall of clouds that blocks out our prayers.
<sup>45</sup>You allowed nations to treat us like rubbish;
<sup>46</sup>our enemies curse us.
<sup>47</sup>We are terrified and trapped, caught and crushed.”
<sup>48</sup>My people are destroyed! Tears flood my eyes,
<sup>49</sup>and they won't stop

- <sup>50</sup>until the LORD looks down from heaven and helps.
- <sup>51</sup>I am horrified when I see what enemies have done to the young women of our city.
- <sup>52</sup>No one had reason to hate me, but I was hunted down like a bird.
- <sup>53</sup>Then they tried to kill me by tossing me into a pit and throwing stones at me.
- <sup>54</sup>Water covered my head— I thought I was gone.
- <sup>55</sup>From the bottom of the pit, I prayed to you, LORD.
- <sup>56</sup>I begged you to listen. “Help!” I shouted. “Save me!” You answered my prayer
- <sup>57</sup>and came when I was in need. You told me, “Don't worry!”
- <sup>58</sup>You rescued me and saved my life.
- <sup>59</sup>You saw them abuse me, LORD, so make things right.
- <sup>60</sup>You know every plot they have made against me.
- <sup>61</sup>Yes, you know their insults and their evil plans.
- <sup>62</sup>All day long they attack with words and whispers.
- <sup>63</sup>No matter what they are doing, they keep on mocking me.
- <sup>64</sup>Pay them back for everything they have done, LORD!
- <sup>65</sup>Put your curse on them and make them suffer.
- <sup>66</sup>Get angry and go after them until not a trace is left under the heavens.

Lamentations 4

Fourth lament The punishment of Jerusalem The prophet speaks:

- <sup>1</sup>The purest gold is ruined and has lost its shine; jewels from the temple lie scattered in the streets.

<sup>2</sup>These are Zion's people, worth more than purest gold; yet they are counted worthless like dishes of clay.

<sup>3</sup>Even jackals nurse their young, but my people are like ostriches that abandon their own.

<sup>4</sup>Babies are so thirsty that their tongues are stuck to the roof of the mouth. Children go begging for food, but no one gives them any.

<sup>5</sup>All who ate expensive foods lie starving in the streets; those who grew up in luxury now sit on rubbish heaps.

<sup>6</sup>My nation was punished worse than the people of Sodom, whose city was destroyed in a flash without the help of human hands.

<sup>7</sup>The leaders of Jerusalem were purer than snow and whiter than milk; their bodies were healthy and glowed like jewels.

<sup>8</sup>Now they are blacker than tar, and no one recognizes them; their skin clings to their bones and is drier than firewood.

<sup>9</sup>Being killed with a sword is better than slowly starving to death.

<sup>10</sup>Life in the city is so bad that loving mothers have boiled and eaten their own children.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD was so fiercely angry that he burnt the city of Zion to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>Not a king on this earth or the people of any nation believed enemies could break through her gates.

<sup>13</sup>Jerusalem was punished because her prophets and her priests had sinned and caused the death of innocent victims.

<sup>14</sup>Yes, her prophets and priests were covered with blood; no one would come near them, as they wandered from street to street.

<sup>15</sup>Instead, everyone shouted, “Go away! Don't touch us! You're filthy and unfit to belong to God's people!” So they had to leave and become refugees. But foreign nations told them, “You can't stay here!”

<sup>16</sup>The LORD is the one who sent them scattering, and he has forgotten them. No respect or kindness will be shown to the priests or leaders.

<sup>17</sup>Our eyes became weary, hopelessly looking for help from a nation that could not save us.

<sup>18</sup>Enemies hunted us down on every public street. Our time was up; our doom was near.

<sup>19</sup>They swooped down faster than eagles from the sky. They hunted for us in the hills and set traps to catch us out in the desert.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD's chosen leader was our hope for survival! We thought he would keep us safe somewhere among the nations, but even he was caught in one of their traps.

<sup>21</sup>You people of Edom can celebrate now! But your time will come to suffer and stagger around naked.

<sup>22</sup>The people of Zion have paid for their sins, and the Lord will soon let them return home. But, people of Edom, you will be punished, and your sins exposed.

Lamentations 5

Fifth lament

A prayer for mercy

The people of Jerusalem pray:

<sup>1</sup>Our LORD, don't forget how we have suffered and been disgraced.

<sup>2</sup>Foreigners and strangers have taken our land and our homes.

<sup>3</sup>We are like children whose mothers are widows.

<sup>4</sup>The water we drink and the wood we burn cost far too much.

<sup>5</sup>We are terribly ill-treated; we are worn out and can find no rest.

- <sup>6</sup>We had to surrender to Egypt and Assyria because we were hungry.
- <sup>7</sup>Our ancestors sinned, but they are dead, and we are left to pay for their sins.
- <sup>8</sup>Slaves are now our rulers, and there is no one to set us free.
- <sup>9</sup>We are in danger from brutal desert tribes; we must risk our lives just to bring in our crops.
- <sup>10</sup>Our skin is scorched from fever and hunger.
- <sup>11</sup>On Zion and everywhere in Judah our wives and daughters are being raped.
- <sup>12</sup>Our rulers are strung up by their arms, and our nation's advisers are treated shamefully.
- <sup>13</sup>Young men are forced to do the work of slaves; boys must carry heavy loads of wood.
- <sup>14</sup>Our leaders are not allowed to decide cases in court, and young people no longer play music.
- <sup>15</sup>Our hearts are sad; instead of dancing, we mourn.
- <sup>16</sup>Zion's glory has disappeared! And we are doomed because of our sins.
- <sup>17</sup>We feel sick all over and can't even see straight;
- <sup>18</sup>our city is in ruins, overrun by wild dogs.
- <sup>19</sup>You will rule for ever, LORD! You are King for all time.
- <sup>20</sup>Why have you forgotten us for so long?
- <sup>21</sup>Bring us back to you! Give us a fresh start.
- <sup>22</sup>Or do you despise us so much that you don't want us?

Ezekiel

Ezekiel 1

Ezekiel sees the Lord's glory and is chosen to be his prophet

1-3 I am Ezekiel—a priest and the son of Buzi. Five years after King Jehoiachin of Judah had been led away as a prisoner to Babylonia, I was living near the River Chebar among those who had been taken there with him. Then on the fifth day of the fourth month of the thirtieth year, the heavens suddenly opened. The LORD placed his hand upon me and showed me some visions.

4I saw a storm blowing in from the north. Lightning flashed from a huge cloud and lit up the whole sky with a dazzling brightness. The fiery centre of the cloud was as shiny as polished metal,

5 and in that centre I saw what looked like four living creatures. They were somewhat like humans,

6except that each one had four faces and four wings.

7Their legs were straight, but their feet looked like the hoofs of calves and sparkled like bronze.

8Under each of their wings, these creatures had a human hand.

9The four creatures were standing back-to-back with the tips of their wings touching. They moved together in every direction, without turning their bodies.

10Each creature had the face of a human in front, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of a bull on the left, and the face of an eagle at the back.

11Two wings of each creature were spread out and touched the wings of the creatures on either side. The other two wings of each creature were folded against its body.

12Wherever the four living creatures went, they moved together without turning their bodies, because each creature faced straight ahead.

<sup>13</sup>The creatures were glowing like hot coals, and I saw something like a flaming torch moving back and forth among them. Lightning flashed from the torch every time its flame blazed up.

<sup>14</sup>The creatures themselves moved as quickly as sparks jumping from a fire.

<sup>15</sup>I then noticed that on the ground beside each of the four living creatures was a wheel,

<sup>16</sup>shining like chrysolite. Each wheel was exactly the same and had a second wheel that cut through the middle of it,

<sup>17</sup>so that they could move in any direction without turning.

<sup>18</sup>The rims of the wheels were large and had eyes all the way around them.

<sup>19-21</sup>The creatures controlled when and where the wheels moved—the wheels went wherever the four creatures went and stopped whenever they stopped. Even when the creatures flew in the air, the wheels were beside them.

<sup>22-23</sup>Above the living creatures, I saw something that was sparkling like ice, and it reminded me of a dome. Each creature had two of its wings stretched out towards the creatures on either side, with the other two wings folded against its body.

<sup>24</sup>Whenever the creatures flew, their wings roared like an ocean or a large army or even the voice of God All-Powerful. And whenever the creatures stopped, they folded their wings against their bodies.

<sup>25</sup>When the creatures stopped flapping their wings, I heard a sound coming from above the dome.

<sup>26</sup>I then saw what looked like a throne made of sapphire, and sitting on the throne was a figure in the shape of a human.

<sup>27</sup>From the waist up, it was glowing like metal in a hot furnace, and from the waist down it looked like the flames of a fire. The figure was surrounded by a bright light, <sup>28</sup>as colourful as a rainbow that appears after a storm. I realized I was seeing the brightness of the LORD's glory! So I bowed with my face to the ground, and just then I heard a voice speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2

The LORD chooses Ezekiel

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said, “Ezekiel, son of man, I want you to stand up and listen.”

<sup>2</sup>After he said this, his Spirit took control of me and lifted me to my feet. Then the LORD said:

<sup>3</sup>Ezekiel, I am sending you to the people of Israel. They are just like their ancestors who rebelled against me and refused to stop.

<sup>4</sup>They are stubborn and hard-headed. But I, the LORD God, have chosen you to tell them what I say.

<sup>5</sup>Those rebels may not even listen, but at least they will know that a prophet has come to them.

<sup>6</sup>Don't be afraid of them or of anything they say. You may think you're in the middle of thorn bushes or scorpions. But be brave

<sup>7</sup>and preach my message to them, whether they choose to listen or not.

<sup>8</sup>Ezekiel, don't rebel against me, as they have done. Instead, listen to everything I tell you. And now, Ezekiel, open your mouth and eat what I am going to give you.

<sup>9</sup>Just then, I saw a hand stretched out towards me. And in it was a scroll.

<sup>10</sup>The hand opened the scroll, and both sides of it were filled with words of sadness, mourning, and grief.

Ezekiel 3

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said, “Ezekiel, son of man, after you eat this scroll, go and speak to the people of Israel.”

<sup>2-3</sup>He handed me the scroll and said, “Eat this and fill your stomach with it.” So I ate the scroll, and it tasted sweet as honey.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, I am sending you to your own people.

<sup>5-6</sup>They are Israelites, not strangers who speak a foreign language you can't understand. If I were to send you to foreign nations, they would listen to you.

<sup>7</sup>But the people of Israel will refuse to listen, because they have refused to listen to me. All of them are stubborn and hard-headed,

<sup>8</sup>so I will make you as stubborn as they are.

<sup>9</sup>You will be so determined to speak my message that nothing will stop you. I will make you hard like a diamond, and you'll have no reason to be afraid of those arrogant rebels.

<sup>10</sup>Listen carefully to everything I say and then think about it.

<sup>11</sup>Then go to the people who were brought here to Babylonia with you and tell them you have a message from me, the LORD God. Do this, whether they listen to you or not.

<sup>12</sup>The Spirit lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD started to leave, I heard a loud, thundering noise behind me.

<sup>13</sup>It was the sound made by the creatures' wings as they brushed against each other, and by the rumble of the wheels beside them.

<sup>14</sup>Then the Spirit carried me away. The LORD's power had taken complete control of me, and I was both annoyed and angry.

<sup>15</sup>When I was back with the others living at Abib Hill near the River Chebar, I sat among them for seven days, shocked at what had happened to me.

The LORD appoints Ezekiel to stand watch

(Ezekiel 33.1–9)

<sup>16</sup>Seven days after I had seen the brightness of the LORD's glory, the LORD said:

<sup>17</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, I have appointed you to stand watch for the people of Israel. So listen to what I say, then warn them for me.

<sup>18</sup>When I tell wicked people they will die because of their sins, you must warn them to turn from their sinful ways so they won't be punished. If you refuse, you are responsible for their death.

<sup>19</sup>However, if you do warn them, and they keep on sinning, they will die because of their sins, and you will be innocent.

<sup>20</sup>Now suppose faithful people start sinning, and I decide to put stumbling blocks in their paths to make them fall. They deserve to die because of their sins. So if you refuse to warn them, I will forget about the times they were faithful, and I will hold you responsible for their death.

<sup>21</sup>But if you do warn them, and they listen to you and stop sinning, I will let them live. And you will be innocent.

Ezekiel cannot talk

<sup>22</sup>The LORD took control of me and said, "Stand up! Go into the valley, and I will talk with you there."

<sup>23</sup>I immediately went to the valley, where I saw the brightness of the LORD's glory, just as I had seen near the River Chebar, and I bowed with my face to the ground.

<sup>24</sup>His Spirit took control of me and lifted me to my feet. Then the LORD said: Go back and lock yourself in your house!

<sup>25</sup>You will be tied up to keep you inside,

<sup>26</sup>and I will make you unable to talk or to warn those who have rebelled against me.

<sup>27</sup>But the time will come, when I will tell you what to say, and you will again be able to speak my message. Some of them will listen; others will be stubborn and refuse to listen.

Ezekiel 4

Ezekiel acts out the coming destruction of Judah and Jerusalem

The LORD said:

- <sup>1</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, find a brick and sketch a picture of Jerusalem on it.
- <sup>2</sup>Then prepare to attack the brick as if it were a real city. Build an earth mound and a ramp up to the top and surround the brick with enemy camps. On every side put large wooden poles as though you were going to break down the gate to the city.
- <sup>3</sup>Set up an iron pan like a wall between you and the brick. All this will be a warning for the people of Israel.
- <sup>4-5</sup>After that, lie down on your left side and stay there for three hundred and ninety days as a sign of Israel's punishment—one day for each year of its suffering.
- <sup>6</sup>Then turn over and lie on your right side forty more days. That will be a sign of Judah's punishment—one day for each year of its suffering.
- <sup>7</sup>The brick stands for Jerusalem, so attack it! Stare at it and shout angry warnings.
- <sup>8</sup>I will tie you up, so you can't leave until your attack has ended.
- <sup>9</sup>Get a large bowl. Then mix together wheat, barley, beans, lentils, and millet, and make some bread. This is what you will eat for the three hundred and ninety days you are lying down.
- <sup>10</sup>Eat only a small loaf of bread each day
- <sup>11</sup>and drink only two large cups of water.
- <sup>12</sup>Use dried human waste to start a fire, then bake the bread on the coals where everyone can watch you.
- <sup>13</sup>When I scatter the people of Israel among the nations, they will also have to eat food that is unclean, just as you must do.
- <sup>14</sup>I said, “LORD God, please don't make me do that! Never in my life have I eaten food that would make me unacceptable to you. I've never eaten anything that died a natural death or was killed by a wild animal or that you said was unclean.”

<sup>15</sup>The LORD replied, “Instead of human waste, I will let you bake your bread on a fire made from cow manure.

<sup>16</sup>Ezekiel, the people of Jerusalem will starve. They will have so little food and water that they will be afraid and hopeless.

<sup>17</sup>Everyone will be shocked at what is happening, and, because of their sins, they will die a slow death.”

Ezekiel 5

Jerusalem's coming destruction

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, get a sharp sword and use it to cut off your hair and beard. Weigh the hair and divide it into three equal piles.

<sup>2</sup>After you attack the brick that stands for Jerusalem, burn one pile of your hair on the brick. Chop up the second pile and let the small pieces of hair fall around the brick. Throw the third pile into the wind, and I will strike it with my own sword.

<sup>3</sup>Keep a few of the hairs and wrap them in the hem of your clothes.

<sup>4</sup>Then pull out a few of those hairs and throw them in the fire, so they will also burn. This fire will spread, destroying everyone in Israel.

<sup>5</sup>I am the LORD God, and I have made Jerusalem the most important place in the world, and all other nations admire it.

<sup>6</sup>But the people of Jerusalem rebelled and refuse to obey me. They ignored my laws and have become even more sinful than the nations around them.

<sup>7</sup>So tell the people of Jerusalem: I am the LORD God! You have refused to obey my laws and teachings, and instead you have obeyed the laws of the surrounding nations. You have become more rebellious than any of them!

<sup>8</sup>Now all those nations will watch as I turn against you and punish you

<sup>9</sup>for your sins. Your punishment will be more horrible than anything I've ever done or will ever do again.

<sup>10</sup>Parents will be so desperate for food that they will eat their own children, and children will eat their parents. Those who survive this horror will be scattered in every direction.

<sup>11</sup>Your disgusting sins have made my temple unfit as a place to worship me. So I swear by my own life that I will turn my back on you and show you no pity.

<sup>12</sup>A third of you will die here in Jerusalem from disease or starvation. Another third will be killed in war. And I will scatter the last third of you in every direction, then track you down and kill you.

<sup>13</sup>You will feel my fierce anger until I have finished taking revenge. Then you will know that I, the LORD, was furious because of your disobedience.

<sup>14</sup>Every passer-by will laugh at your destruction. Foreign nations

<sup>15</sup>will insult you and make fun of you, but they will also be shocked and terrified at what I did in my anger.

<sup>16</sup>I will destroy your crops until you starve to death, and disasters will strike you like arrows.

<sup>17</sup>Starvation and wild animals will kill your children. I'll punish you with horrible diseases, and your enemies will strike you down with their swords. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 6

Disaster is near Israel is doomed

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, face the hills of Israel and tell them:

<sup>3</sup>Listen, you mountains and hills, and every valley and gorge! I, the LORD, am about to turn against you and crush all the places where foreign gods are worshipped.

<sup>4</sup>Every altar will be smashed, and in front of the idols I will put to death the people who worship them.

<sup>5</sup>Dead bodies and bones will be lying around the idols and the altars.

<sup>6</sup>Every town in Israel will be destroyed to make sure that each shrine, idol, and altar is smashed—everything the Israelites made will be a pile of ruins.

<sup>7</sup>All over the country, your people will die. And those who survive will know that I, the LORD, did these things.

<sup>8</sup>I will let some of the people live through this punishment, but I will scatter them among the nations,

<sup>9</sup>where they will be prisoners. And when they think of me, they will realize that they disgraced me by rebelling and by worshipping idols. They will hate themselves for the evil things they did,

<sup>10</sup>and they will know that I am the LORD and that my warnings must be taken seriously.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD God then said: Ezekiel, beat your fists together and stamp your feet in despair! Moan in sorrow, because the people of Israel have done disgusting things and now will be killed by enemy troops, or they will die from starvation and disease.

<sup>12</sup>Those who live far away will be struck with deadly diseases. Those who live nearby will be killed in war. And the ones who are left will starve to death. I will let loose my anger on them!

<sup>13</sup>These people used to offer incense to idols at altars built on hills and mountaintops and in the shade of large oak trees. But when they see dead bodies lying around those altars, they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>I will make their country a barren wasteland, from the Southern Desert to the town of Diblah in the north. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have done these things.

Ezekiel 7

Disaster is near

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the people of Israel that I am saying: Israel will soon come to an end! Your whole country is about to be destroyed

<sup>3</sup>as punishment for your disgusting sins. I, the LORD, am so angry

<sup>4</sup>that I will show no pity. I will punish you for the evil you've done, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>There's never been anything like the coming disaster.

<sup>6</sup>And when it comes, your life will be over.

<sup>7</sup>You people of Israel are doomed! Soon there will be panic on the mountaintops instead of celebration.

<sup>8</sup>I will let loose my anger and punish you for the evil things you've done. You'll get what you deserve.

<sup>9</sup>Your sins are so terrible, that you'll get no mercy from me. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have punished you.

<sup>10</sup>Disaster is near! Injustice and arrogance are everywhere, <sup>11</sup>and violent criminals run free. None of you will survive the disaster, and everything you own and value will be shattered.

<sup>12</sup>The time is coming when everyone will be ruined. Buying and selling will stop,

<sup>13</sup>and people who sell property will never get it back, because all of you must be punished for your sins. And I won't change my mind!

<sup>14</sup>A signal has been blown on the trumpet, and weapons are prepared for battle. But no one goes to war, because in my anger I will strike down everyone in Israel.

Israel is surrounded

The LORD said to the people of Israel:

<sup>15</sup>War, disease, and starvation are everywhere! People who live in the countryside will be killed in battle, and those who live in towns will die from starvation or deadly diseases.

<sup>16</sup>Anyone who survives will escape into the hills, like doves who leave the valleys to find safety. All of you will moan because of your sins.

<sup>17</sup>Your hands will tremble, and your knees will go limp.

<sup>18</sup>You will put on sackcloth to show your sorrow, but terror will overpower you. Shame will be written all over your faces, and you will shave your heads in despair.

<sup>19</sup>Your silver and gold will be thrown into the streets like rubbish, because those are the two things that led you into sin, and now they cannot save you from my anger. They are not even worth enough to buy food.

<sup>20</sup>You took great pride in using your beautiful jewellery to make disgusting idols of foreign gods. So I will make your jewellery worthless.

<sup>21</sup>Wicked foreigners will rob and disgrace you.

<sup>22</sup>They will break into my temple and leave it unfit as a place to worship me, but I will look away and let it happen.

<sup>23</sup>Your whole country is in confusion! Murder and violence are everywhere in Israel,

<sup>24</sup>so I will tell the most wicked nations to come and take over your homes. They will put an end to the pride you have in your strong army, and they will make your places of worship unfit to use.

<sup>25</sup>You will be terrified and will desperately look for peace—but there will be no peace.

<sup>26</sup>One tragedy will follow another, and you'll hear only bad news. People will beg prophets to give them a message from me. Priests will stop teaching my Law, and wise leaders won't be able to give advice.

<sup>27</sup>Even your king and his officials will lose hope and cry in despair. Your hands will tremble with fear. I will punish you for your sins and treat you the same way you have treated others. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 8

The Lord's glory leaves sinful Jerusalem Ezekiel sees the terrible sins of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Six years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the leaders of Judah were meeting with me in my house. On the fifth day of the sixth month, the LORD God suddenly took control of me,

<sup>2</sup>and I saw something in the shape of a human. This figure was like fire from the waist down, and it was bright as polished metal from the waist up.

<sup>3</sup>It reached out what seemed to be a hand and grabbed my hair. Then in my vision the LORD's Spirit lifted me into the sky and carried me to Jerusalem. The Spirit took me to the north gate of the temple's inner courtyard, where there was an idol that disgusted the LORD and made him furious.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw the brightness of the glory of the God of Israel, just as I had seen it near the River Chebar.

<sup>5</sup>God said to me, “Ezekiel, son of man, look north.” And when I did, I saw that disgusting idol by the altar near the gate.

<sup>6</sup>God then said, “Do you see the terrible sins of the people of Israel? Their sins are making my holy temple unfit as a place to worship me. Yet you will see even worse things than this.”

<sup>7</sup>Next, I was taken to the entrance of the courtyard, where I saw a hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup>God said, “Make this hole bigger.” And when I did, I realized it was a doorway.

<sup>9</sup>“Go in,” God said, “and see what horrible and evil things the people are doing.”

<sup>10</sup>Inside, I saw that the walls were covered with pictures of reptiles and disgusting, unclean animals, as well as with idols that the Israelites were worshipping.

<sup>11</sup>Seventy Israelite leaders were standing there, including Jaazaniah son of Shaphan. Each of these leaders was holding an incense burner, and the smell of incense filled the room.

<sup>12</sup>God said, “Ezekiel, do you see what horrible things Israel's leaders are doing in secret? They have filled their rooms with idols. And they say I can't see them, because they think I have already deserted Israel.

<sup>13</sup>But I will show you something even worse than this.”

<sup>14</sup>He took me to the north gate of the temple, where I saw women mourning for the god Tammuz.

<sup>15</sup>God asked me, “Can you believe what these women are doing? But now I want to show you something worse.”

<sup>16</sup>I was then led into the temple's inner courtyard, where I saw about twenty-five men standing near the entrance, between the porch and the altar. Their backs were to the LORD's temple, and they were bowing down to the rising sun.

<sup>17</sup>God said, “Ezekiel, it's bad enough that the people of Judah are doing these disgusting things. But they have also spread violence and injustice everywhere in Israel and have made me very angry. They have disgraced and insulted me in the worst possible way.

<sup>18</sup>So in my fierce anger, I will punish them without mercy and refuse to help them when they cry out to me.”

Ezekiel 9

The LORD gives the command to punish Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>After that, I heard the LORD shout, “Come to Jerusalem, you men chosen to destroy the city. And bring your weapons!”

<sup>2</sup>I saw six men come through the north gate of the temple, each one holding a deadly weapon. A seventh man dressed in a linen robe was with them, and he was carrying things to write with. The men went into the temple and stood by the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup>The brightness of God's glory then left its place above the statues of the winged creatures inside the temple and moved to the entrance. The LORD said to the man in the linen robe,

<sup>4</sup>“Walk through the city of Jerusalem and mark the forehead of anyone who is truly upset and sad about the disgusting things that are being done here.”

<sup>5-6</sup>He turned to the other six men and said, “Follow him and put to death everyone who doesn't have a mark on their forehead. Show no mercy or pity! Kill men and women, parents and children. Begin here at my temple and be sure not to harm those who are marked.” The men immediately killed the leaders who were standing there.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD said, “Pollute the temple by piling the dead bodies in the courtyards. Now get busy!” They left and started killing the people of Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>I was then alone, so I bowed down and cried out to the LORD, “Why are you doing this? Are you so angry at the people of Jerusalem that everyone must die?”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD answered, “The people of Israel and Judah have done horrible things. Their country is filled with murderers, and Jerusalem itself is filled with violence. They think that I have deserted them, and that I can't see what they are doing.

<sup>10</sup>And so I will not have pity on them or forgive them. They will be punished for what they have done.”

<sup>11</sup>Just then, the man in the linen robe returned and said, “I have done what you commanded.”

Ezekiel 10

The LORD's glory leaves the temple

<sup>1</sup>I saw the dome that was above the four winged creatures, and on it was the sapphire throne.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to the man in the linen robe, “Walk among the four wheels beside the creatures and pick up as many hot coals as you can carry. Then scatter them over the city of Jerusalem.” I watched him as he followed the LORD's instructions.

<sup>3</sup>The winged creatures were standing south of the temple when the man walked among them. A cloud filled the inner courtyard,

<sup>4</sup>and the brightness of the LORD's glory moved from above the creatures and stopped at the entrance of the temple. The entire temple was filled with his glory, and the courtyard was dazzling bright.

<sup>5</sup>The sound of the creatures' wings was as loud as the voice of God All-Powerful and could even be heard in the outer courtyard.

<sup>6</sup>The man in the robe was now standing beside a wheel.

<sup>7</sup>One of the four creatures reached its hand into the fire among them and gave him some of the hot coals. The man took the coals and left.

<sup>8</sup>I noticed again that each of the four winged creatures had what looked like human hands under their wings,

<sup>9</sup>and I saw the four wheels near the creatures. These wheels were shining like chrysolite.

<sup>10</sup>Each wheel was exactly the same and had a second wheel that cut through the middle of it,

<sup>11</sup>so that they could move in any direction without turning. The wheels moved together whenever the creatures moved.

<sup>12</sup>I also noticed that the wheels and the creatures' bodies, including their backs, their hands, and their wings, were covered with eyes.

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice calling these “the wheels that spin”.

<sup>14</sup>Each of the winged creatures had four faces: the face of a bull, the face of a human, the face of a lion, and the face of an eagle.

<sup>15-17</sup>These were the same creatures I had seen near the River Chebar. They controlled when and where the wheels moved—the wheels went wherever the creatures went and stopped whenever they stopped. Even when the creatures flew in the air, the wheels stayed beside them.

<sup>18</sup>Then I watched the brightness of the LORD's glory move from the entrance of the temple and stop above the winged creatures.

<sup>19</sup>They spread their wings and flew into the air with the wheels at their side. They stopped at the east gate of the temple, and the LORD's glory was above them.

<sup>20</sup>I knew for certain that these were the same creatures I had seen beneath the LORD's glory near the River Chebar.

<sup>21-22</sup>They had four wings with hands beneath them, and they had the same four faces as those near the River. Each creature moved straight ahead without turning.

Ezekiel 11

Ezekiel condemns Jerusalem's wicked leaders

<sup>1</sup>The LORD's Spirit lifted me up and took me to the east gate of the temple, where I saw twenty-five men, including the two leaders, Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said, “Ezekiel, son of man, these men are making evil plans and giving dangerous advice to the people of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>They say things like, ‘Let's build more houses. This city is like a cooking pot over a fire, and we are the meat, but at least the pot keeps us from being burnt in the fire. ’

<sup>4</sup>So, Ezekiel, condemn them!”

<sup>5</sup>The LORD's Spirit took control of me and told me to tell these leaders: I, the LORD God, know what you leaders are saying.

<sup>6</sup>You have murdered so many people that the city is filled with dead bodies!

<sup>7</sup>This city is indeed a cooking pot, but the bodies of those you killed are the meat. And so I will force you to leave Jerusalem, <sup>8</sup>and I'll send armies to attack you, just as you fear.

<sup>9</sup>Then you will be captured and punished by foreign enemies.

<sup>10</sup>You will be killed in your own country, but not before you realize that I, the LORD, have done these things.

<sup>11</sup>You leaders claim to be meat in a cooking pot, but you won't be protected by this city. No, you will die at the border of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>You will realize that while you were following the laws of nearby nations, you were disobeying my laws and teachings. And I am the LORD!

<sup>13</sup>Before I finished speaking, Pelatiah dropped dead. I bowed down and cried out, “Please, LORD God, don't kill everyone left in Israel.”

A promise of hope

<sup>14</sup>The LORD replied:

<sup>15</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, the people living in Jerusalem claim that you and the other Israelites who were taken to Babylonia are too far away to worship me. They also claim that the land of Israel now belongs only to them.

<sup>16</sup>But here is what I want you to tell the Israelites in Babylonia: It's true that I, the LORD God, have forced you out of your own country and made you live among foreign nations. But for now, I will be with you wherever you are, so that you can worship me.

<sup>17</sup>And some day, I will gather you from the nations where you are scattered and let you live in Israel again.

<sup>18</sup>When that happens, I want you to clear the land of all disgusting idols.

<sup>19</sup>Then I will take away your stubbornness and make you eager to be completely faithful to me. You will want to obey me

<sup>20</sup>and all my laws and teachings. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>21</sup>But those who worship idols will be punished and get what they deserve. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

The LORD's glory leaves Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup>After the LORD had finished speaking, the winged creatures spread their wings and flew into the air, and the wheels were beside them. The brightness of the LORD's glory above them

<sup>23</sup>left Jerusalem and stopped at a hill east of the city.

<sup>24</sup>Then in my vision, the LORD's Spirit lifted me up and carried me back to the other exiles in Babylonia. The vision faded away, <sup>25</sup>and I told them everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

Messages of doom for Judah and Jerusalem Ezekiel acts out Israel's captivity

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, you are living among rebellious people. They have eyes, but refuse to see; they have ears, but refuse to listen.

<sup>3</sup>So before it gets dark, here is what I want you to do. Pack a few things as though you were going to be taken away as a prisoner. Then go outside where everyone can see you and walk around from place to place. Perhaps as they watch, they will realize what rebels they are.

<sup>4</sup>After you have done this, return to your house. Later that evening leave your house as if you were going into exile.

<sup>5</sup>Dig through the wall of your house and crawl out, carrying the bag with you. Make sure everyone is watching.

<sup>6</sup>Lift the bag to your shoulders, and with your face covered, take it into the darkness, so that you cannot see the land you are leaving. All this will be a warning for the people of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>I did everything the LORD had said. I packed a few things. Then as the sun was going down, and while everyone was watching, I dug a hole through one of the walls of my house. I pulled out my bag, then lifted it to my shoulders and left in the darkness.

<sup>8</sup>The next morning, the LORD

<sup>9</sup>reminded me that those rebellious people didn't even ask what I was doing.

<sup>10</sup>So he sent me back to tell them: The LORD God has a message for the leader of Jerusalem and everyone living there!

<sup>11</sup>I have done these things to show them what will happen when they are taken away as prisoners.

<sup>12</sup>The leader of Jerusalem will lift his own bag to his shoulders at sunset and leave through a hole that the others have dug in the wall of his house. He will cover his face, so he can't see the land he is leaving.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD will spread out a net and trap him as he leaves Jerusalem. He will then be led away to the city of Babylon, but will never see that place, even though he will die there.

<sup>14</sup>His own officials and troops will scatter in every direction, and the LORD will track them down and put them to death.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD will force the rest of the people in Jerusalem to live in foreign nations, where they will realize that he has done all these things.

<sup>16</sup>Some of them will survive the war, the starvation, and the deadly diseases. That way, they will be able to tell foreigners how disgusting their sins were, and that it was the LORD who punished them in this way.

A sign of fear

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>18</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, shake with fear when you eat, and tremble when you drink.

<sup>19</sup>Tell the people of Israel that I, the LORD, say that some day everyone in Jerusalem will shake when they eat and tremble when they drink. Their country will be destroyed and left empty, because they have been cruel and violent.

<sup>20</sup>Every town will lie in ruins, and the land will be a barren desert. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The words of the LORD will come true

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>22</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, you've heard people in Israel use the saying, "Time passes, and prophets are proved wrong."

<sup>23</sup>Now tell the people that I, the LORD, am going to prove that saying wrong. No one will ever be able to use it again in Israel, because very soon everything I have said will come true!

<sup>24</sup>The people will hear no more useless warnings and false messages.

<sup>25</sup>I will give them my message, and what I say will certainly happen. Warn those rebels that the time has come for them to be punished. I, the LORD, make this promise.

<sup>26-27</sup>Ezekiel, the people of Israel are also saying that your visions and messages are only about things in the future.

<sup>28</sup>So tell them that my words will soon come true, just as I have warned. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 13

Lying prophets

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the prophets of Israel who say they speak in my name, but who preach messages that come from their own imagination. Tell them it's time to hear my message.

<sup>3</sup>I, the LORD God, say those lying prophets are doomed! They don't see visions—they make up their own messages!

<sup>4</sup>Israel's prophets are no better than jackals that hunt for food among the ruins of a city.

<sup>5</sup>They don't warn the people about coming trouble or tell them how dangerous it is to sin against me.

<sup>6</sup>Those prophets lie by claiming they speak for me, but I have not even chosen them to be my prophets. And they still think their words will come true.

<sup>7</sup>They say they're preaching my messages, but they are full of lies—I did not speak to them!

<sup>8</sup>So I am going to punish those lying prophets for deceiving the people of Israel with false messages.

<sup>9</sup>I will turn against them and no longer let them belong to my people. They will not be allowed to call themselves Israelites or even to set foot in Israel. Then they will realize that I am the LORD God.

<sup>10</sup> Those prophets refuse to be honest. They tell my people there will be peace, even though there's no peace to be found. They are like workers who think they can fix a shaky wall by covering it with paint.

<sup>11</sup> But when I send rainstorms, hailstones, and strong winds, the wall will surely collapse.

<sup>12</sup> People will then ask the workers why the paint didn't hold it up.

<sup>13</sup> That wall is the city of Jerusalem. And I, the LORD God, am so angry that I will send strong winds, rainstorms, and hailstones to destroy it.

<sup>14</sup> The lying prophets have tried to cover up the evil in Jerusalem, but I will tear down the city, all the way to its foundations. And when it collapses, those prophets will be killed, and everyone will know that I have done these things.

<sup>15</sup> The city of Jerusalem and its lying prophets will feel my fierce anger. Then I will announce that the city has fallen and that the lying prophets are dead, <sup>16</sup> because they promised my people peace, when there was no peace. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Women who wear magic charms

The LORD said:

<sup>17</sup> Ezekiel, son of man, now condemn the women of Israel who preach messages that come from their own imagination.

<sup>18</sup> Tell them they're doomed! They wear magic charms on their wrists and scarves on their heads, then trick others into believing they can predict the future. They won't get away with telling those lies.

<sup>19</sup> They charge my people a few handfuls of barley and a couple of pieces of bread, and then give messages that are insulting to me. They use lies to sentence the innocent to death and to help the guilty go free. And my people believe them!

<sup>20</sup>I hate the magic charms they use to trick people into believing their lies. I will rip those charms from their wrists and set free the people they have trapped like birds.

<sup>21</sup>I will tear the scarves from their heads and rescue my people from their power once and for all. Then they will know that I am the LORD God.

<sup>22</sup>They do things I would never do. They lie to good people and encourage them to do wrong, and they convince the wicked to keep sinning and ruin their lives.

<sup>23</sup>I will no longer let these women give false messages and use magic, and I will free my people from their control. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have done these things.

Ezekiel 14

Ezekiel encourages the people to turn back to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>One day, some of Israel's leaders came to me and asked for a message from the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>While they were there, the LORD said:

<sup>3</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, these men have started worshipping idols, though they know it will cause them to sin even more. So I refuse to give them a message!

<sup>4</sup>Tell the people of Israel that if they sin by worshipping idols and then go to a prophet to find out what I say, I will give them the answer their sins deserve.

<sup>5</sup>When they hear my message, perhaps they will see that they need to turn back to me and stop worshipping those idols.

<sup>6</sup>Now, Ezekiel, tell everyone in Israel: I am the LORD God. Stop worshipping your disgusting idols and come back to me.

<sup>7</sup>Suppose one of you Israelites or a foreigner living in Israel rejects me and starts worshipping idols. If you then go to a prophet to find out what I say, I will answer

<sup>8</sup>by turning against you. I will make you a warning to anyone who might think of doing the same thing, and you will no longer belong to my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that you have sinned against me.

<sup>9</sup>If a prophet gives a false message, I am the one who caused that prophet to lie. But I will still reject him and cut him off from my people, <sup>10</sup>and anyone who goes to that prophet for a message will be punished in the same way.

<sup>11</sup>I will do this, so that you will come back to me and stop destroying yourselves with these disgusting sins. So turn back to me! Then I will be your God, and you will be my people. I, the LORD God, make this promise.

Judgment on a sinful nation

<sup>12</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>13</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, suppose an entire nation sins against me, and I punish it by destroying the crops and letting its people and livestock starve to death.

<sup>14</sup>Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were living in that nation, their faithfulness would not save anyone but themselves.

<sup>15</sup>Or suppose I punish a nation by sending wild animals to eat people and scare away every passer-by, so that the land becomes a barren desert.

<sup>16</sup>As surely as I live, I promise that even if these three men lived in that nation, their own children would not be spared. The three men would live, but the land would be an empty desert.

<sup>17</sup>Or suppose I send an enemy to attack a sinful nation and kill its people and livestock.

<sup>18</sup>If these three men were in that nation when I punished it, not even their children would be spared. Only the three men would live.

<sup>19</sup>And suppose I am so angry that I send a deadly disease to wipe out the people and livestock of a sinful nation.

<sup>20</sup>Again, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were living there, I, the LORD, promise that the children of these faithful men would also die. Only the three of them would be spared.

<sup>21</sup>I am the LORD God, and I promise to punish Jerusalem severely. I will send war, starvation, wild animals, and deadly disease to slaughter its people and livestock.

<sup>22</sup>And those who survive will be taken from their country and led here to Babylonia. Ezekiel, when you see how sinful they are, you will know why I did all these things to Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>You will be convinced that I, the LORD God, was right in doing what I did.

Ezekiel 15

Jerusalem is a useless vine

<sup>1</sup>Some time later, the LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, what happens to the wood of a grapevine after the grapes have been picked? It isn't like other trees in the forest,

<sup>3</sup>because the wood of a grapevine can't be used to make anything, not even a small peg to hang things on.

<sup>4</sup>It can only be used as firewood. But after its ends are burnt and its middle is charred, it can't be used for anything.

<sup>5</sup>The wood is useless before it is burnt, and afterwards, it is completely worthless.

<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD God, promise that just as the wood of a grapevine is burnt as firewood,

<sup>7</sup>I will punish the people of Jerusalem with fire. Some of them have escaped one destruction, but soon they will be completely burnt. And when that happens, you, Ezekiel, will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>I will make their country an empty wasteland, because they have not been loyal to me. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 16

Jerusalem is unfaithful

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, remind the people of Jerusalem of their disgusting sins

<sup>3</sup>and tell them that I, the LORD God, am saying: Jerusalem, you were born in the country where Canaanites lived. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup>When you were born, no one cut you loose from your mother or washed your body. No one rubbed your skin with salt and olive oil, and wrapped you in warm blankets.

<sup>5</sup>Not one person loved you enough to do any of these things, and no one even felt sorry for you. You were despised, thrown into a field, and forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>I saw you lying there, rolling around in your own blood, and I couldn't let you die.

<sup>7</sup>I took care of you, like someone caring for a tender, young plant. You grew up to be a beautiful young woman with perfect breasts and long hair, but you were still naked.

<sup>8</sup>When I saw you again, you were old enough to have sex. So I covered your naked body with my own robe. Then I solemnly promised that you would belong to me and that I, the LORD God, would take care of you.

<sup>9</sup>I washed the blood off you and rubbed your skin with olive oil.

<sup>10</sup>I gave you the finest clothes and the most expensive robes, as well as sandals made from the best leather.

<sup>11</sup>I gave you bracelets, a necklace,

<sup>12</sup>a ring for your nose, some earrings, and a beautiful crown.

<sup>13</sup>Your jewellery was gold and silver, and your clothes were made of only the finest material and embroidered linen. Your bread was baked from fine flour, and you ate honey and olive oil. You were as beautiful as a queen, <sup>14</sup>and everyone on earth knew it. I, the LORD God, had helped you become a lovely young woman.

<sup>15</sup>You learnt that you were attractive enough to have any man you wanted, so you offered yourself to every passer-by.

<sup>16</sup>You made shrines for yourself and decorated them with some of your clothes. That's where you took your visitors to have sex with them. These things should never have happened!

<sup>17</sup>You made idols out of the gold and silver jewellery I gave you, then you sinned by worshipping those idols.

<sup>18</sup>You dressed them in the clothes you got from me, and you offered them the olive oil and incense I gave you.

<sup>19</sup>I supplied you with fine flour, olive oil, and honey, but you sacrificed it all as offerings to please those idols. I, the LORD God, watched this happen.

<sup>20</sup>But you did something even worse than that—you sacrificed your own children to those idols!

- <sup>21</sup>You slaughtered my children, so you could offer them as sacrifices.
- <sup>22</sup>You were so busy sinning and being a prostitute that you refused to think about the days when you were young and were rolling around naked in your own blood.
- <sup>23</sup>Now I, the LORD God, say you are doomed! Not only did you do these evil things,
- <sup>24</sup>but you also built places on every street corner
- <sup>25</sup>where you disgraced yourself by having sex with anyone who walked by. And you did that more and more every day!
- <sup>26</sup>To make me angry, you even offered yourself to Egyptians, who were always ready to sleep with you.
- <sup>27</sup>So I punished you by letting those greedy Philistine enemies take over some of your territory. But even they were offended by your disgusting behaviour.
- <sup>28</sup>You couldn't get enough sex, so you chased after Assyrians and slept with them. You still weren't satisfied,
- <sup>29</sup>so you went after Babylonians. But those merchants could not satisfy you either.
- <sup>30</sup>I, the LORD God, say that you were so disgusting that you would have done anything to get what you wanted.
- <sup>31</sup>You had sex on every street corner, and when you finished, you refused to accept money. That's worse than being a prostitute!
- <sup>32</sup>You are nothing but an unfaithful wife who would rather have sex with strangers than with your own husband.
- <sup>33</sup>Prostitutes accept money for having sex, but you bribe men from everywhere to have sex with you.

<sup>34</sup>You're not like other prostitutes. Men don't ask you for sex—you offer to pay them!

Jerusalem must be punished

The LORD said:

<sup>35</sup>Jerusalem, you prostitute, listen to me.

<sup>36</sup>You chased after lovers, then took off your clothes and had sex. You even worshipped disgusting idols and sacrificed your own children as offerings to them.

<sup>37</sup>So I, the LORD God, will gather every one of your lovers, those you liked and those you hated. They will stand around you, and I will rip off your clothes and let all those lovers stare at your nakedness.

<sup>38</sup>I will find you guilty of being an unfaithful wife and a murderer, and in my fierce anger I will sentence you to death!

<sup>39</sup>Then I will hand you over to your lovers, who will tear down the places where you had sex. They will take your clothes and jewellery, leaving you naked and empty-handed.

<sup>40</sup>Your lovers and an angry mob will stone you to death; they will cut your dead body into pieces

<sup>41</sup>and burn down your houses. Other women will watch these terrible things happen to you. I promise to stop you from being a prostitute and paying your lovers for sex.

<sup>42</sup>Only then will I calm down and stop being angry and jealous.

<sup>43</sup>You made me furious by doing all these disgusting things and by forgetting how I took care of you when you were young. Then you made things worse by acting like a prostitute. You must be punished! I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Jerusalem's two sisters

The LORD said:

<sup>44</sup>People will use this saying about you, Jerusalem: “If the mother is bad, so is her daughter.”

<sup>45</sup>You are just like your mother, who hated her husband and her own children. You are also like your sisters, who hated their husbands and children. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

<sup>46</sup>Your elder sister was Samaria, that city to your north with her nearby villages. Your younger sister was Sodom, that city to your south with her nearby villages.

<sup>47</sup>You followed their way of life and their wicked customs, and soon you were more disgusting than they were.

<sup>48</sup>As surely as I am the living LORD God, the people of Sodom and its nearby villages were never as sinful as you.

<sup>49</sup>They were arrogant and spoilt; they had everything they needed and still refused to help the poor and needy.

<sup>50</sup>They thought they were better than everyone else, and they did things I hate. And so I destroyed them.

<sup>51</sup>You people of Jerusalem have sinned twice as much as the people of Samaria. In fact, your evil ways have made both Sodom and Samaria look innocent.

<sup>52</sup>So their punishment will seem light compared to yours. You will be disgraced and put to shame because of your disgusting sins.

Jerusalem will be ashamed

The LORD said to Jerusalem:

<sup>53</sup>Some day I will bless Sodom and Samaria and their nearby villages. I will also bless you, Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup>Then you will be ashamed of how you've acted, and Sodom and Samaria will be relieved that they weren't as sinful as you.

<sup>55</sup>When that day comes, you and Sodom and Samaria will once again be well off, and all nearby villages will be restored.

<sup>56</sup>Jerusalem, you were so arrogant that you sneered at Sodom.

<sup>57</sup>But now everyone has learnt how wicked you really are. The countries of Syria and Philistia, as well as your other neighbours, hate you and make insulting remarks.

<sup>58</sup>You must pay for all the vulgar and disgusting things you have done. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD makes a promise to Jerusalem

The LORD said:

<sup>59</sup>Jerusalem, you deserve to be punished, because you broke your promises and ignored our agreement.

<sup>60</sup>But I remember the agreement I made with you when you were young, and so I will make you a promise that will last for ever.

<sup>61</sup>When you think about how you acted, you will be ashamed, especially when I return your sisters to you as daughters, even though this was not part of our agreement.

<sup>62</sup>I will keep this solemn promise, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>63</sup>I will forgive you, but you will think about your sins and be too ashamed to say a word. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 17

A story about two eagles and a vine

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the people of Israel the following story,

<sup>3</sup>so they will understand what I am saying to them: A large eagle with strong wings and beautiful feathers once flew to Lebanon. It broke the top branch off a cedar tree,

<sup>4</sup>then carried it to a nation of merchants and left it in one of their cities.

<sup>5</sup>The eagle also took seed from Israel and planted it in a fertile field with plenty of water, like a willow tree beside a stream.

<sup>6</sup>The seed sprouted and grew into a grapevine that spread over the ground. It had lots of leaves and strong, deep roots, and its branches grew upward towards the eagle.

<sup>7</sup>There was another eagle with strong wings and thick feathers. The roots and branches of the grapevine soon turned towards this eagle, hoping it would bring water for the soil.

<sup>8</sup>But the vine was already growing in fertile soil, where there was plenty of water to produce healthy leaves and large grapes.

<sup>9</sup>Now tell me, Ezekiel, do you think this grapevine will live? Or will the first eagle pull it up by its roots and pluck off the grapes and let its new leaves die? The eagle could easily kill it without the help of a large and powerful army.

<sup>10</sup>The grapevine is strong and healthy, but as soon as the scorching desert wind blows, it will quickly wither.

The LORD explains the story

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>12</sup>Ezekiel, ask the rebellious people of Israel if they know what this story means. Tell them that the king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem, then he captured the king of Judah and his officials, and took them back to Babylon as prisoners.

<sup>13</sup>He chose someone from the family of Judah's king and signed a treaty with him, then made him swear to be loyal. He also led away other important citizens, <sup>14</sup>so that the rest of the people of Judah would obey only him and never gain control of their own country again.

<sup>15</sup>But this new king of Judah later rebelled against Babylonia and sent officials to Egypt to get horses and troops. Will this king be successful in breaking the treaty with Babylonia? Or will he be punished for what he's done?

<sup>16</sup>As surely as I am the living LORD God, I swear that the king of Judah will die in Babylon, because he broke the treaty with the king of Babylonia, who appointed him king.

<sup>17</sup>Even the king of Egypt and his powerful army will be useless to Judah when the Babylonians attack and build earth ramps to invade the cities of Judah and kill its people.

<sup>18</sup>The king of Judah broke his own promises and ignored the treaty with Babylonia. And so he will be punished!

<sup>19</sup>He made a promise in my name and swore to honour the treaty. And now that he has broken that promise, my name is disgraced. He must pay for what he's done.

<sup>20</sup>I will spread out a net to trap him. Then I will drag him to Babylon and see that he is punished for his unfaithfulness to me.

<sup>21</sup>His best troops will be killed in battle, and the survivors will be scattered in every direction. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>22-23</sup>Some day, I, the LORD, will cut a tender twig from the top of a cedar tree, then plant it on the peak of Israel's tallest mountain, where it will grow strong branches and produce large fruit. All kinds of birds will find shelter under the tree, and they will rest in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup>Every tree in the forest will know that I, the LORD, can bring down tall trees and help short ones grow. I dry up green trees and make dry ones green. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will keep my word.

Ezekiel 18

Those who sin will die

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, I hear the people of Israel using the old saying, “Sour grapes eaten by parents leave a sour taste in the mouths of their children.”

<sup>3</sup>Now tell them that I am the LORD God, and as surely as I live, that saying will no longer be used in Israel.

<sup>4</sup>The lives of all people belong to me—parents as well as children. Only those who sin will be put to death.

<sup>5</sup>Suppose there is a truly good man who always does what is fair and right.

<sup>6</sup>He refuses to eat meat sacrificed to foreign gods at local shrines or to worship Israel's idols. He doesn't have sex with someone else's wife or with a woman having her monthly period.

<sup>7</sup>He never cheats or robs anyone and always returns anything taken as security for a loan; he gives food and clothes to the poor

<sup>8</sup>and doesn't charge interest when lending money. He refuses to do anything evil; he is fair to everyone

<sup>9</sup>and faithfully obeys my laws and teachings. This man is good, and I promise he will live.

<sup>10</sup>But suppose this good man has an evil son who is violent and commits sins

<sup>11</sup>his father never did. He eats meat at local shrines, has sex with someone else's wife,

<sup>12</sup>cheats the poor, and robs people. He keeps what is given to him as security for a loan. He worships idols, does disgusting things,

<sup>13</sup>and charges high interest when lending money. An evil man like that will certainly not live. He is the one who has done these horrible sins, so it's his own fault that he will be put to death.

<sup>14</sup>But suppose this evil man has a son who sees his father do these things and refuses to act like him.

<sup>15</sup>He doesn't eat meat at local shrines or worship Israel's idols, and he doesn't have sex with someone else's wife.

<sup>16</sup>He never cheats or robs anyone and doesn't even demand security for a loan. He gives food and clothes to the poor

<sup>17</sup>and refuses to do anything evil or to charge interest. And he obeys all my laws and teachings. Such a man will live. His own father sinned, but this good man will not be put to death for the sins of his father.

<sup>18</sup>It is his father who will die for cheating and robbing and doing evil.

<sup>19</sup>You may wonder why a son isn't punished for the sins of his father. It is because the son does what is right and obeys my laws.

<sup>20</sup>Only those who sin will be put to death. Children won't suffer for the sins of their parents, and parents won't suffer for the sins of their children. Good people will be rewarded for what they do, and evil people will be punished for what they do.

<sup>21</sup>Suppose wicked people stop sinning and start obeying my laws and doing right. They won't be put to death.

<sup>22</sup>All their sins will be forgiven, and they will live because they did right.

<sup>23</sup>I, the LORD God, don't like to see wicked people die. I enjoy seeing them turn from their sins and live.

<sup>24</sup>But when good people start sinning and doing disgusting things, will they live? No! All their good deeds will be forgotten, and they will be put to death because of their sins.

<sup>25</sup>You people of Israel accuse me of being unfair! But listen—I'm not unfair; you are!

<sup>26</sup>If good people start doing evil, they must be put to death, because they have sinned.

<sup>27</sup>And if wicked people start doing right, they will save themselves from punishment.

<sup>28</sup>They will think about what they've done and stop sinning, and so they won't be put to death.

<sup>29</sup>But you still say that I am unfair. You are the ones who have done wrong and are unfair!

<sup>30</sup>I will judge each of you for what you've done. So stop sinning, or else you will certainly be punished.

<sup>31</sup>Give up your evil ways and start thinking pure thoughts. And be faithful to me! Do you really want to be put to death for your sins?

<sup>32</sup>I, the LORD God, don't want to see that happen to anyone. So stop sinning and live!

Ezekiel 19

A funeral song for Israel's leaders

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Ezekiel, sing a funeral song for two of Israel's leaders:

<sup>2</sup>Your mother was a brave lioness who raised her cubs among lions.

<sup>3</sup>She taught one of them to hunt, and he learnt to eat people.

<sup>4</sup>When the nations heard of him, they trapped him in a pit, then they used hooks to drag him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>His mother waited for him to return. But soon she lost all hope and raised another cub, who also became fierce.

<sup>6</sup>He hunted with other lions and learnt to eat people.

<sup>7</sup>He destroyed fortresses and ruined towns; his mighty roar terrified everyone.

<sup>8</sup>Nations plotted to kill him, and people came from everywhere to spread out a net and catch him in a trap.

<sup>9</sup>They put him in a cage and took him to Babylonia. The lion was locked away, so that his mighty roar would never again be heard on Israel's hills.

<sup>10</sup>Your mother was a vine growing near a stream. There was plenty of water, so she was filled with branches and with lots of fruit.

<sup>11</sup>Her strong branches became symbols of authority, and she was taller than all other trees— everyone could see how strong and healthy she was.

<sup>12</sup>But in anger, I pulled her up by the roots and threw her to the ground, where the scorching desert wind dried out her fruit. Her strong branches wilted and burnt up.

<sup>13</sup>Then she was planted in a hot, dry desert,

<sup>14</sup>where her stem caught fire, and flames burnt her branches and fruit. Not one strong branch is left; she is stripped bare. This funeral song must be sung with sorrow.

Ezekiel 20

Israel keeps on rebelling

<sup>1</sup>Seven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, some of Israel's leaders came to me on the tenth day of the fifth month. They sat down and asked for a message from the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Just then, the LORD God said:

<sup>3</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, these leaders have come to find out what I want them to do. As surely as I live, I will not give them an answer of any kind.

<sup>4</sup>Are you willing to warn them, Ezekiel? Then remind them of the disgusting sins of their ancestors.

<sup>5</sup>Tell them that long ago I, the LORD God, chose Israel to be my own. I appeared to their ancestors in Egypt and made a solemn promise that I would be their God and the God of their descendants.

<sup>6</sup>I swore that I would rescue them from Egypt and lead them to a land I had already chosen. This land was rich with milk and honey and was the most splendid land of all.

<sup>7</sup>I told them to get rid of their disgusting idols and not to sin by worshipping the gods of Egypt. I reminded them that I was the LORD their God, <sup>8</sup>but they still rebelled against me. They refused to listen and kept on worshipping their idols and foreign gods. In my anger, I decided to punish the Israelites in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>But that would have made me look like a liar, because I had already promised in front of everyone that I would lead them out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>So I brought them out and led them into the desert.

<sup>11</sup>I gave them my laws and teachings, so they would know how to live right.

<sup>12</sup>And I commanded them to respect the Sabbath as a way of showing that they were holy and belonged to me.

<sup>13</sup>But the Israelites rebelled against me in the desert. They refused to obey my laws and teachings, and they treated the Sabbath like any other day. Then in my anger, I decided to destroy the Israelites in the desert once and for all.

<sup>14</sup>But that would have disgraced me, because many other nations had seen me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

<sup>15</sup>Instead, I told them in the desert that I would not lead them into the beautiful, fertile land I had promised.

<sup>16</sup>I said this because they had not only ignored my laws and teachings, but had disgraced my Sabbath and worshipped idols.

<sup>17</sup>Yet, I felt sorry for them and could not let them die in the desert.

<sup>18</sup>So I warned the children not to act like their parents or follow their evil ways or worship their idols.

<sup>19</sup>I reminded them that I was the LORD their God and that they should obey my laws and teachings.

<sup>20</sup>I told them to respect my Sabbath to show that they were my people and that I was the LORD their God.

<sup>21</sup>But the children also rebelled against me. They refused to obey my laws and teachings, and they treated the Sabbath as any other day. I became angry and decided to punish them in the desert.

<sup>22</sup>But I did not. That would have disgraced me in front of the nations that had seen me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

<sup>23</sup>So I solemnly swore that I would scatter the people of Israel across the nations, <sup>24</sup>because they had disobeyed my laws and ignored my teachings; they had disgraced my Sabbath and worshipped the idols their ancestors had made.

<sup>25</sup>I gave them laws that bring punishment instead of life,

<sup>26</sup>and I let them offer me unacceptable sacrifices, including their firstborn sons. I did this to horrify them and to let them know that I, the LORD, was punishing them.

<sup>27</sup>Ezekiel, tell the people of Israel that their ancestors also rejected and insulted me

<sup>28</sup>by offering sacrifices, incense, and wine to gods on every hill and under every large tree. I was very angry, because they did these things in the land I had given them!

<sup>29</sup>I asked them where they went to worship those gods, and they answered, "At the local shrines." And those places of worship are still called shrines.

<sup>30</sup>Then ask the Israelites why they are following the example of their wicked ancestors

<sup>31</sup>by worshipping idols and by sacrificing their own children as offerings. They commit these sins and still think they can ask me for a message. As surely as I am the living LORD God, I will give them no answer.

<sup>32</sup>They may think they can be like other nations and get away with worshipping idols made of wood and stone. But that will never happen!

The LORD promises to restore Israel

The LORD said to the people of Israel:

<sup>33</sup>As surely as I am the living LORD God, I will rule over you with my powerful arm. You will feel my fierce anger

<sup>34</sup>and my power, when I gather you from the places where you are scattered

<sup>35</sup>and lead you into a desert surrounded by nations. I will meet you there face to face. Then I will pass judgment on you

<sup>36</sup>and punish you, just as I punished your ancestors in the desert near Egypt.

<sup>37</sup>I will force each of you to obey the regulations of our solemn agreement.

<sup>38</sup>I will separate the sinful rebels from the rest of you, and even though I will bring them from the nations where they live in exile, they won't be allowed to return to Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>Go ahead and worship your idols for now, you Israelites, because soon I will no longer let you dishonour me by offering gifts to them. You will have no choice but to obey me!

<sup>40</sup>When that day comes, everyone in Israel will worship me on Mount Zion, my holy mountain in Jerusalem. I will once again call you my own, and I will accept your sacred offerings and sacrifices.

<sup>41</sup>When I bring you home from the places where you are now scattered, I will be pleased with you, just as I am pleased with the smell of the smoke from your sacrifices. Every nation on earth will see that I am holy,

<sup>42</sup>and you will know that I, the LORD, am the one who brought you back to Israel, the land I promised your ancestors.

<sup>43</sup>Then you will remember your wicked sins, and you will hate yourselves for doing such horrible things. They have made you unacceptable to me,

<sup>44</sup>so you deserve to be punished. But I will treat you in a way that will bring honour to my name, and you will know that I am the LORD God.

Fire from the south

<sup>45</sup>The LORD said,

<sup>46</sup>“Ezekiel, son of man, turn towards the south and warn the forests

<sup>47</sup>that I, the LORD God, will start a fire that will burn up every tree, whether green or dry. Nothing will be able to put out the blaze of that fire as it spreads to the north and burns everything in its path.

<sup>48</sup>Everyone will know that I started it, and that it cannot be stopped.”

<sup>49</sup>But I complained, “LORD God, I don't want to do that! People already say I confuse them with my messages.”

Ezekiel 21

The LORD will punish Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the places in Jerusalem where people worship. Warn everyone in Israel

<sup>3</sup>that I am about to punish them. I will pull out my sword and have it ready to kill everyone, whether good or evil.

<sup>4</sup>From south to north, people will die,

<sup>5</sup>knowing that my sword will never be put away.

<sup>6</sup>Ezekiel, groan in sorrow and despair so that everyone can hear you.

<sup>7</sup>When they ask why you are groaning, tell them you have terrifying news that will make them faint and tremble in fear and lose all courage. These things will happen soon. I, the LORD God, make this promise!

A sword is ready to attack Israel

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>9-10</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the people of Jerusalem: I have sharpened my sword to slaughter you; it is shiny and will flash like lightning! Don't celebrate— punishment is coming, because everyone has ignored my warnings.

<sup>11</sup>My sword has been polished; it's sharp and ready to kill.

<sup>12</sup>Groan in sorrow, Ezekiel; the sword is drawn against my people and their leaders. They will die! So give up all hope.

<sup>13</sup>I am testing my people, and they can do nothing to stop me. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>14</sup>Ezekiel, warn my people, then celebrate my victory by clapping your hands. My vicious sword will attack again and again, killing my people with every stroke.

<sup>15</sup>They will lose all courage and stumble with fear. My slaughtering sword is waiting at every gate, flashing and ready to kill.

<sup>16</sup>It will slash right and left, wherever the blade is pointed.

<sup>17</sup>Then I will stop being angry, and I will clap my hands in victory. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The king of Babylonia and his sword

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>19</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, mark two roads for the king of Babylonia to follow when he comes with his sword. The roads will begin at the same place, but be sure to put up a signpost where the two roads separate and go in different directions.

<sup>20</sup>Clearly mark where the two roads lead. One goes to Rabbah, the capital of Ammon, and the other goes to Jerusalem, the fortified capital of Judah.

<sup>21</sup>When the Babylonian king stands at that signpost, he will decide which way to go by shaking his arrows, by asking his idols, and by carefully looking at the liver of a sacrificed animal.

<sup>22</sup>His right hand will pull out the arrow marked “Jerusalem”. Then he will immediately give the signal to shout the battle cry, to build earth ramps to the top of the city walls, to break down its walls and gates with large wooden poles, and to kill the people.

<sup>23</sup>Everyone in Jerusalem had promised to be loyal to Babylonia, and so none of them will believe that this could happen to them. But Babylonia's king will remind them of their sinful ways and warn them of their coming captivity.

<sup>24</sup>Ezekiel, tell the people of Jerusalem and their ruler that I, the LORD God, am saying: Everything you do is wicked and shows how sinful you are. You are guilty and will be taken away as prisoners.

<sup>25</sup>And now, you evil and wicked ruler of Israel, your day of final punishment is almost here.

<sup>26</sup>I, the LORD God, command you to take off your royal turban and your crown, because everything will be different. Those who had no power will be put in charge, and those who now rule will become nobodies.

<sup>27</sup>I will leave Jerusalem in ruins when my chosen one comes to punish this city.

Judgment against Ammon

<sup>28</sup>The LORD God said: Ezekiel, son of man, the Ammonites have insulted Israel, so condemn them and tell them I am saying: A sword is drawn, ready to slaughter; it is polished and prepared to kill as fast as lightning.

<sup>29</sup>You wicked Ammonites see false visions and believe untrue messages. But your day of punishment is coming soon, and my sword will slaughter you!

<sup>30</sup>Your days of punishing others are over, so put your swords away. You will be punished in the land of your birth.

<sup>31</sup>My furious anger will scorch you like fire, and I will hand you over to cruel men who are experts in killing.

<sup>32</sup>You will be burnt and will die in your own land. Then you will be forgotten for ever. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 22

Jerusalem is condemned

<sup>1</sup>Some time later, the LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, are you ready to condemn Jerusalem? That city is filled with murderers, so remind the people of their sins

<sup>3</sup>and tell them I am saying: Jerusalem, you have murdered many of your own people and have worshipped idols. You will soon be punished!

<sup>4</sup>Those crimes have made you guilty, and the idols have made you unacceptable to me. So your final punishment is near. Other nations will laugh at you and make insulting remarks, <sup>5</sup>and people far and near will make fun of your misery.

<sup>6</sup>Your own leaders use their power to murder.

<sup>7</sup>None of you honour your parents, and you cheat foreigners, orphans, and widows.

<sup>8</sup>You show no respect for my sacred places and treat the Sabbath just like any other day.

<sup>9</sup>Some of your own people tell lies, so that others will be put to death. Some of you eat meat sacrificed to idols at local shrines, and others never stop doing vulgar things.

<sup>10</sup>Men have sex with their father's wife or with women who are having their monthly period

<sup>11</sup>or with someone else's wife. Some men even sleep with their own daughter-in-law or half-sister.

<sup>12</sup>Others of you accept money to murder someone. Your own people charge high interest when making a loan to other Israelites, and they get rich by cheating. Worst of all, you have forgotten me, the LORD God.

<sup>13</sup>I will shake my fist in anger at your violent crimes.

<sup>14</sup>When I've finished with you, your courage will disappear, and you will be so weak that you won't be able to lift your hands. I, the LORD, have spoken and will not change my mind.

<sup>15</sup>I will scatter you throughout every nation on earth and put a stop to your sinful ways.

<sup>16</sup>You will be humiliated in the eyes of other nations. Then you will know that I, the LORD God, have done these things.

Jerusalem must be purified

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>18</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, I consider the people of Israel as worthless as the leftover metal in a furnace after silver has been purified.

<sup>19</sup>So I am going to bring them together in Jerusalem.

<sup>20-21</sup>I will be like a metalworker who collects that metal from the furnace and melts it down. I will collect the Israelites and blow on them with my fiery anger. They will melt inside the city of Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup>like silver in a furnace. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have punished them in my anger.

Everyone in Jerusalem is guilty

<sup>23</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>24</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the people of Israel that their country is full of sin, and that I, the LORD, am furious!

<sup>25</sup>Their leaders are like roaring lions, tearing apart their victims. They put people to death, then steal everything of value. Husbands are killed, and many women are left as widows.

<sup>26</sup>The priests of Israel ignore my Law! Not only do they refuse to respect any of my sacred things, but they don't even teach the difference between what is sacred and what is ordinary, or between what is clean and what is unclean. They treat my Sabbath like any other day, and so my own people no longer honour me.

<sup>27</sup>Israel's officials are like ferocious wolves, ripping their victims apart. They make a dishonest living by injuring and killing people.

<sup>28</sup>And then the prophets in Israel cover up these sins by giving false visions. I have never spoken to them, but they lie and say they have a message from me.

<sup>29</sup>The people themselves cheat and rob; they abuse the poor and take advantage of foreigners.

<sup>30</sup>I looked for someone to defend the city and to protect it from my anger, as well as to stop me from destroying it. But I found no one.

<sup>31</sup>So in my fierce anger, I will punish the Israelites for what they have done, and they will know that I am furious. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 23

Two sinful sisters

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, listen to this story about two sisters.

<sup>3</sup>While they were young and living in Egypt, they became prostitutes.

<sup>4</sup>The elder one was named Oholah, which stands for Samaria; the younger one was Oholibah, which stands for Jerusalem. They became my wives and gave birth to my children.

<sup>5</sup>Even though Oholah was my wife, she continued to be a prostitute and chased after Assyrian lovers.

<sup>6</sup>She offered herself to soldiers in purple uniforms, to every handsome, high-ranking officer, and to cavalry troops.

<sup>7</sup>She had sex with all the important Assyrian officials and even worshipped their disgusting idols.

<sup>8</sup>Once she started doing these things in Egypt, she never stopped. Men slept with her, and she was always ready for sex.

<sup>9</sup>So I gave Oholah to the Assyrian lovers she wanted so badly.

<sup>10</sup>They ripped off her clothes, then captured her children and killed her. Women everywhere talked about what had happened to Oholah.

<sup>11</sup>Oholibah saw all this, but she was more sinful and wanted sex more than her sister Oholah ever did.

<sup>12</sup>Oholibah also chased after good-looking Assyrian officers, uniformed soldiers, and cavalry troops.

<sup>13</sup>Just like her sister, she did vulgar things.

<sup>14</sup>But Oholibah behaved worse than her sister. Oholibah saw images of Babylonian men carved into walls and painted red.

<sup>15</sup>They had belts around their waists and large turbans on their heads, and they reminded her of Babylonian cavalry officers.

<sup>16</sup>As soon as she looked at them, she wanted to have sex with them. And so, she sent messengers to bring them to her.

<sup>17</sup>Men from Babylonia came and had sex with her so many times that she got disgusted with them.

<sup>18</sup>She let everyone see her naked body and didn't care if they knew she was a prostitute. That's why I turned my back on her, just as I had done with her elder sister.

<sup>19</sup>Oholibah didn't stop there, but became even more immoral and acted as she had back in Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>She eagerly wanted to go to bed with Egyptian men, who were famous for their sexual powers.

<sup>21</sup>And she longed for the days when she was a young prostitute, when men enjoyed having sex with her.

The LORD will punish Oholibah

<sup>22</sup>The LORD God said: Oholibah, though you no longer want to be with your lovers, they will surround you like enemies, when I turn them against you.

<sup>23</sup>I will gather all the handsome young officials and the high-ranking cavalry officers from Babylonia and Assyria, as well as from the Chaldean tribes of Pekod, Shoa, and Koa.

<sup>24</sup>Their large armies will come from the north with chariots and wagons carrying weapons. They will wear shields and helmets and will surround you, and I will let them judge and sentence you according to their own laws.

<sup>25</sup>I am angry with you, so I will let them be very cruel. They will cut off your nose and ears; they will kill your children and put to death anyone in your family who is still alive.

<sup>26</sup>Your clothes and jewellery will be torn off.

<sup>27</sup>I will stop your wickedness and the prostitution you started back in Egypt. You will never want to think about those days again.

<sup>28</sup>I, the LORD God, am ready to hand you over to those hateful enemies that you find so disgusting.

<sup>29</sup>They will cruelly take away everything you have worked for and strip you naked. Then everyone will see you for the prostitute you really are. Your own vulgar sins

<sup>30</sup>have led to this. You were the one determined to have sex with men from other nations and to worship their idols.

<sup>31</sup>You have turned out no better than your elder sister, and now you must drink from the cup filled with my anger.

<sup>32</sup>I, the LORD God, gave your sister a large, deep cup filled with my anger. And when you drink from that cup, you will be mocked and insulted.

<sup>33</sup>You will end up drunk and devastated, because that cup is filled with horror and ruin.

<sup>34</sup>But you must drink every drop! Then smash the cup to pieces and use them to cut your breasts in sorrow. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

<sup>35</sup>You have completely rejected me, and so I promise that you will be punished for the disgusting things you did as a prostitute.

The two sisters are condemned

<sup>36</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, son of man, it's time for you to tell Oholah and Oholibah that they are guilty. Remind them of their evil ways!

<sup>37</sup>They have been unfaithful by worshipping idols, and they have committed murder by sacrificing my own children as offerings to idols.

<sup>38-39</sup>They came into my temple that same day, and that made it unfit as a place to worship me. They have even stopped respecting the Sabbath.

<sup>40</sup>They sent messengers to attract men from far away. When those men arrived, the two sisters took baths and put on eye shadow and jewellery.

<sup>41</sup>They sat on a fine couch, and in front of them was a table for the olive oil and incense that had belonged to me.

<sup>42</sup>Their room was always filled with a noisy crowd of drunkards brought in from the desert. These men gave the women bracelets and beautiful crowns,

<sup>43</sup>and I noticed that the men were eager to have sex with these women, though they were exhausted from being prostitutes.

<sup>44</sup>In fact, the men had sex over and over with Oholah and Oholibah, the two sinful sisters.

<sup>45</sup>But good men will some day accuse those two of murder and of being unfaithful, because they are certainly guilty.

<sup>46</sup>So I, the LORD God, now say to these sisters: I will call together an angry mob that will abuse and rob you.

<sup>47</sup>They will stone you to death and cut you to pieces; they will kill your children and burn down your houses.

<sup>48</sup>I will get rid of sinful prostitution in this country, so that women everywhere will be warned not to act as you have.

<sup>49</sup>You will be punished for becoming prostitutes and for worshipping idols, and you will know that I am the LORD God.

Ezekiel 24

A cooking pot

<sup>1</sup>Nine years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the tenth day of the tenth month. He said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, write down today's date, because the king of Babylonia has just begun attacking the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Then tell my rebellious people: "Pour water in a cooking pot and set it over a fire.

<sup>4-5</sup>Throw in the legs and shoulders of your finest sheep and put in the juicy bones. Pile wood underneath the pot, and let the meat and bones boil until they are done.”

<sup>6</sup>These words mean that Jerusalem is doomed! The city is filled with murderers and is like an old, rusty pot. The meat is taken out piece by piece, and no one cares what happens to it.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Jerusalem murdered innocent people in the city and didn't even try to cover up the blood that flowed out on the hard ground.

<sup>8</sup>But I have seen that blood, and it cries out for me to take revenge.

<sup>9</sup>I, the LORD God, will punish that city of violence! I will make a huge pile of firewood, <sup>10</sup>so bring more wood and light it. Cook the meat and boil away the broth to let the bones scorch.

<sup>11</sup>Then set the empty pot over the hot coals until it is red-hot. That will clean the pot and burn off the rust.

<sup>12</sup>I've tried everything else. Now the rust must be burnt away.

<sup>13</sup>Jerusalem is so full of sin and evil that I can't get it clean, even though I have tried. It will stay filthy until I let loose my fierce anger against it.

<sup>14</sup>That time will certainly come! And when it does, I won't show the people of Jerusalem any pity or change my mind. They must be punished for the evil they have done. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel's wife dies

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said,

<sup>16</sup>“Ezekiel, son of man, I will suddenly take the life of the person you love most. But I don't want you to complain or cry.

<sup>17</sup>Mourn in silence and don't show that you are grieving. Don't remove your turban or take off your sandals; don't cover your face to show your sorrow, or eat the food that mourners eat.”

<sup>18</sup>One morning, I was talking with the people as usual, and by sunset my wife was dead. The next day I did what the LORD told me,

<sup>19</sup>and when people saw me, they asked, “Why aren't you mourning for your wife?”

<sup>20</sup>I answered: The LORD God says

<sup>21</sup>he is ready to destroy the temple in which you take such pride and which makes you feel so safe. Your children who now live in Jerusalem will be killed.

<sup>22</sup>Then you will do the same things I have done. You will leave your face uncovered and refuse to eat the food that mourners usually eat.

<sup>23</sup>You won't take off your turbans and your sandals. You won't cry or mourn, but all day long you will go around groaning because of your sins.

<sup>24</sup>I am a warning sign—everything I have done, you will also do. And then you will know the LORD God has made these things happen.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD said, “Ezekiel, I will soon destroy the temple that makes everyone feel proud and safe, and I will take away their children as well.

<sup>26</sup>On that same day, someone will escape from the city and come to tell you what has happened.

<sup>27</sup>Then you will be able to speak again, and the two of you will talk. You will be a warning sign to the people, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25

Judgment on foreign nations Judgment on Ammon

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the people of Ammon

<sup>3</sup>and tell them: You celebrated when my temple was destroyed, when Israel was defeated, and when my people were taken away as prisoners.

<sup>4</sup>Now I am going to let you be conquered by tribes from the eastern desert. They will set up their camps in your land and eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup>Your capital city of Rabbah will be nothing but pasture land for camels, and the rest of the country will be pastures for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD God.

<sup>6</sup>You hated Israel so much that you clapped and shouted and celebrated.

<sup>7</sup>And so I will hand you over to enemies who will rob you. I will completely destroy you. There won't be enough of your people left to be a nation ever again, and you will know that I, the LORD, have done these things.

Judgment on Moab

<sup>8</sup>The LORD God said, "The people of Moab thought Judah was no different from any other nation.

<sup>9</sup>So I will let Moab's fortress towns along its border be attacked, including Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon, and Kiriathaim.

<sup>10</sup>The same eastern desert tribes that invade Ammon will invade Moab, and just as Ammon will be forgotten for ever,

<sup>11</sup>Moab will be punished. Then the people there will know that I am the LORD."

Judgment on Edom

<sup>12</sup>The LORD God then said, "The people of Edom are guilty of taking revenge on Judah.

<sup>13</sup>So I will punish Edom by killing all its people and livestock. It will be an empty wasteland all the way from Teman to Dedan.

<sup>14</sup>I will send my own people to take revenge on the Edomites by making them feel my fierce anger. And when I punish them, they will know that I am the LORD God."

Judgment on Philistia

<sup>15</sup>The LORD God said, “The cruel Philistines have taken revenge on their enemies over and over and have tried to destroy them.

<sup>16</sup>Now it's my turn to treat the Philistines as my enemies and to kill everyone living in their towns along the coast.

<sup>17</sup>In my fierce anger, I will take revenge on them. And when I punish them, they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 26

Judgment on the city of Tyre

<sup>1</sup>Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the first day of the month. He said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, the people of the city of Tyre have celebrated Jerusalem's defeat by singing, “Jerusalem has fallen! It used to be powerful, a centre of trade. Now the city is shattered, and we will take its place.”

<sup>3</sup>Because the people of Tyre have sung that song, I have the following warning for them: I am the LORD God, and I am now your enemy! I will send nations to attack you, like waves crashing against the shore.

<sup>4</sup>They will tear down your city walls and defence towers. I will sweep away the ruins until all that's left of you is a bare rock,

<sup>5</sup>where fishermen can dry their nets along the coast. I promise that you will be robbed

<sup>6</sup>and that the people who live in your towns along the coast will be killed. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia is the world's most powerful king, and I will send him to attack you. He will march from the north with a powerful army, including horses and chariots and cavalry troops.

<sup>8</sup>First, he will attack your towns along the coast and kill the people who live there. Then he will build earth ramps up to the top of your city walls and set up rows of shields around you.

<sup>9</sup>He will command some of his troops to use large wooden poles to beat down your walls, while others use iron rods to knock down your watchtowers.

<sup>10</sup>He will have so many horses that the dust they stir up will seem like a thick fog. And as his chariots and cavalry approach, even the walls will shake, especially when he proudly enters your ruined city.

<sup>11</sup>His troops will ride through your streets, killing people left and right, and your strong columns will crumble to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>The troops will steal your valuable possessions; they will break down your walls, and crush your expensive houses. Then the stones and wood and all the remains will be dumped into the sea.

<sup>13</sup>You will have no reason to sing or play music on harps,

<sup>14</sup>because I will turn you into a bare rock where fishermen can dry their nets. And you will never rebuild your city. I, the LORD God, make this promise.

<sup>15</sup>The people of the nations up and down the coast will shudder when they hear your screams and moans of death.

<sup>16</sup>The kings will step down from their thrones, then take off their royal robes and fine clothes, and sit on the ground, trembling. They will be so shocked at the news of your defeat that they will shake in fear

<sup>17</sup>and sing this funeral song: “The great city beside the sea is destroyed! Its people once ruled the coast and terrified everyone there.

<sup>18</sup>But now Tyre is in ruins, and the people on the coast stare at it in horror and tremble in fear.”

<sup>19</sup>I, the LORD God, will turn you into a ghost town. The ocean depths will rise over you

<sup>20</sup>and carry you down to the world of the dead, where you will join people of ancient times and towns ruined long ago. You will stay there and never again be a city filled with people.

<sup>21</sup>You will die a horrible death! People will come looking for your city, but it will never be found. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 27

A funeral song for Tyre

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, sing a funeral song for Tyre,

<sup>3</sup>the city that is built along the sea and that trades with nations along the coast. Tell the people of Tyre that the following message is from me: Tyre, you boast about your perfect beauty,

<sup>4</sup>and your control of the sea. You are a ship built to perfection.

<sup>5</sup>Builders used cypress trees from Mount Hermon to make your planks and a cedar tree from Lebanon for your tall mast.

<sup>6</sup>Oak trees from Bashan were shaped into oars; pine trees from Cyprus were cut for your deck, which was then decorated with strips of ivory.

<sup>7</sup>The builders used fine linen from Egypt for your sails, so everyone could see you. Blue and purple cloth from Cyprus was used to shade your deck.

<sup>8</sup>Men from Sidon and Arvad did the rowing, and your own skilled workers were the captains.

<sup>9</sup>Experienced men from Byblos repaired any damages. Sailors from all over shopped at the stores in your port.

<sup>10</sup>Brave soldiers from Persia, Lydia, and Libya served in your navy, protecting you with shields and helmets, and making you famous.

<sup>11</sup>Your guards came from Arvad and Cilicia, and men from Gamad stood watch in your towers. With their weapons hung on your walls, your beauty was complete.

<sup>12</sup>Merchants from southern Spain traded silver, iron, tin, and lead for your products.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Greece, Tubal, and Meshech traded slaves and things made of bronze, <sup>14</sup>and those from Beth-Togarmah traded work horses, war horses, and mules.

<sup>15</sup>You also did business with people from Rhodes, and people from nations along the coast gave you ivory and ebony in exchange for your goods.

<sup>16</sup>Edom traded emeralds, purple cloth, embroidery, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

<sup>17</sup>Judah and Israel gave you their finest wheat, best figs, honey, olive oil, and spices in exchange for your merchandise.

<sup>18</sup>The people of Damascus saw what you had to offer and brought you wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.

<sup>19</sup>Vedan and Javan near Uzal traded you iron and spices.

<sup>20</sup>The people of Dedan supplied you with saddle blankets,

<sup>21</sup>while people from Arabia and the rulers of Kedar traded lambs, sheep, and goats.

<sup>22</sup>Merchants from Sheba and Raamah gave you excellent spices, precious stones, and gold in exchange for your products.

<sup>23</sup>You also did business with merchants from the cities of Haran, Canneh, Eden, Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, <sup>24</sup>and they gave you expensive clothing, purple and embroidered cloth, brightly-coloured rugs, and strong rope.

<sup>25</sup>Large, seagoing ships carried your goods wherever they needed to go. You were like a ship loaded with heavy cargo

<sup>26</sup>and sailing across the sea, but you were wrecked by strong eastern winds.

<sup>27</sup>Everything on board was lost— your valuable cargo, your sailors and carpenters, merchants and soldiers.

<sup>28</sup>The shouts of your drowning crew were heard on the shore.

<sup>29</sup>Every ship is deserted; rowers and sailors and captains all stand on shore,

<sup>30</sup>mourning for you. They show their sorrow by putting dust on their heads and rolling in ashes;

<sup>31</sup>they shave their heads and dress in sackcloth as they cry in despair.

<sup>32</sup>In their grief they sing a funeral song for you: “Tyre, you were greater than all other cities. But now you lie in silence at the bottom of the sea.

<sup>33</sup>“Nations that received your merchandise were always pleased; kings everywhere got rich from your costly goods.

<sup>34</sup>But now you are wrecked in the deep sea, with your cargo and crew scattered everywhere.

<sup>35</sup>People living along the coast are shocked at the news. Their rulers are horrified, and terror is written across their faces.

<sup>36</sup>The merchants of the world can't believe what happened. Your death was gruesome, and you are gone for ever.”

Ezekiel 28

Judgment on the king of Tyre

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the king of Tyre that I am saying: You are so arrogant that you think you're a god and that the city of Tyre is your throne. You may claim to be a god, though you're nothing but a mere human.

<sup>3</sup>You think you're wiser than Daniel and know everything.

<sup>4</sup>Your wisdom has certainly made you rich, because you have storehouses filled with gold and silver.

<sup>5</sup>You're a clever businessman and are extremely wealthy, but your wealth has led to arrogance!

<sup>6</sup>You compared yourself to a god, so now I, the LORD God, <sup>7</sup>will make you the victim of cruel enemies. They will destroy all the possessions you've worked so hard to get.

<sup>8</sup>Your enemies will brutally kill you, and the sea will be your only grave.

<sup>9</sup>When you face your enemies, will you still claim to be a god? They will attack, and you will suffer like any other human.

<sup>10</sup>Foreigners will kill you, and you will die the death of those who don't worship me. I, the LORD, have spoken.

A funeral song for the king of Tyre

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>12</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, sing a funeral song for the king of Tyre and tell him I am saying: At one time, you were perfect, intelligent, and good-looking.

<sup>13</sup>You lived in the garden of Eden and wore jewellery made of brightly-coloured gems and precious stones. They were all set in gold and were ready for you on the day you were born.

<sup>14</sup>I appointed a winged creature to guard your home on my holy mountain, where you walked among gems that dazzled like fire.

<sup>15</sup>You were truly good from the time of your birth, but later you started doing wicked things.

<sup>16</sup>You traded with other nations and became more and more cruel and evil. So I forced you to leave my mountain, and the creature that had been your protector now chased you away from the gems.

<sup>17</sup>It was your good looks that made you arrogant, and you were so famous that you started acting like a fool. That's why I threw you to the ground and let other kings sneer at you.

<sup>18</sup>You have cheated so many other merchants that your places of worship are corrupt. So I set your city on fire and burnt it down. Now everyone sees only ashes where your city once stood,

<sup>19</sup>and the people of other nations are shocked. Your punishment was horrible, and you are gone for ever.

Judgment on Sidon and peace for Israel

<sup>20</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>21</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the city of Sidon

<sup>22</sup>and tell its people: I, the LORD God, am your enemy! People will praise me when I punish you, and they will see that I am holy.

<sup>23</sup>I will send deadly diseases to wipe you out, and I will send enemies to invade and surround you. Your people will be killed, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>When that happens, the people of Israel will no longer have cruel neighbours that abuse them and make them feel as though they are in a field of thorns and briers. And the Israelites will know that I, the LORD God, have done these things.

A blessing for Israel

<sup>25</sup>The LORD God said: Some day I will gather the people of Israel from the nations where they are now scattered, and every nation will see that I am holy. The Israelites will once again live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob.

<sup>26</sup>They will be safe and will build houses and plant vineyards. They will no longer be in danger, because I will punish their hateful neighbours. Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.

Ezekiel 29

Judgment on the king of Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Ten years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the twelfth day of the tenth month. He said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the king of Egypt. Tell him and his people

<sup>3</sup>that I am saying: King of Egypt, you were like a giant crocodile lying in a river. You acted as though you owned the Nile and made it for yourself. But now I, the LORD God, am your enemy!

<sup>4</sup>I will put a hook in your jaw and pull you out of the water, and all the fish in your river will stick to your scaly body.

<sup>5</sup>I'll throw you and the fish into the desert, and your body will fall on the hard ground. You will be left unburied, and wild animals and birds will eat your flesh.

<sup>6</sup>Then everyone in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. You and your nation refused to help the people of Israel and were nothing more than a broken stick.

<sup>7</sup>When they reached out to you for support, you broke in half, cutting their arms and making them fall.

<sup>8</sup>So I, the LORD God, will send troops to attack you, king of Egypt. They will kill your people and livestock, <sup>9</sup>until your land is a barren desert. Then you will know that I have done these things. You claimed that you made the River Nile and control it.

<sup>10</sup>Now I am turning against you and your river. Your nation will be nothing but an empty wasteland all the way from the town of Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south, and as far as the border of Ethiopia.

<sup>11</sup>No human or animal will even dare travel through Egypt, because no sign of life will be found there for forty years.

<sup>12</sup>It will be the most barren place on earth. Every city in Egypt will lie in ruins during those forty years, and I will scatter your people throughout the nations of the world.

<sup>13</sup>Then after those forty years have passed, I will bring your people back from the places where I scattered them.

<sup>14</sup>They will once again live in their homeland in southern Egypt. But they will be a weak kingdom

<sup>15</sup>and won't ever be strong enough to rule nations, as they did in the past.

<sup>16</sup>My own people Israel will never again depend on your nation. In fact, when the Israelites remember what happened to you Egyptians, they will realize how wrong they were to turn to you for help. Then the Israelites will know that I, the LORD God, did these things.

King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia will conquer Egypt

<sup>17</sup>Twenty-seven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the first day of the first month. He said:

<sup>18</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia has attacked the city of Tyre. He forced his soldiers to carry so many heavy loads that their heads were rubbed bald, and their shoulders were red and sore. Nebuchadnezzar and his army still could not capture the city.

<sup>19</sup>So now I will hand over the nation of Egypt to him. He will take Egypt's valuable treasures and give them to his own troops.

<sup>20</sup>Egypt will be his reward, because he and his army have been following my orders. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

<sup>21</sup>Ezekiel, when Egypt is defeated, I will make the people of Israel strong, and I will give you the power to speak to them. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have done these things.

Ezekiel 30

Egypt will be a barren desert

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the people of Egypt that I am saying: Cry out in despair,

<sup>3</sup>because you will soon be punished! That will be a time of darkness and doom for all nations.

<sup>4</sup>Your own nation of Egypt will be attacked, and Ethiopia will suffer. You will be killed in battle, and your land will be robbed and left in ruins.

<sup>5</sup>Soldiers hired from Ethiopia, Libya, Lydia, Arabia, Kub, as well as from Israel, will die in that battle.

<sup>6</sup>All your allies will be killed, and your proud strength will crumble. People will die from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>7</sup>Your nation of Egypt will be the most deserted place on earth, and its cities will lie in complete ruin.

<sup>8</sup>I will set fire to your land, and anyone who defended your nation will die. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>On the same day I destroy Egypt, I will send messengers to the Ethiopians to announce their coming destruction. They think they are safe, but they will be terrified.

<sup>10</sup>Your Egyptian army is very strong, but I will send King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia to completely defeat that army.

<sup>11</sup>He and his cruel troops will invade and destroy your land and leave your dead bodies piled everywhere.

<sup>12</sup>I will dry up the River Nile, then sell the land to evil buyers. I will send foreigners to turn your entire nation into a barren desert. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Egypt's proud cities will lie in ruins

The LORD said to the people of Egypt:

<sup>13</sup>All the idols and images you Egyptians worship in the city of Memphis will be smashed. No one will be left to rule your nation, and terror will fill the land.

<sup>14</sup>The city of Pathros will be left in ruins, and Zoan will be burnt to the ground. Thebes, your capital city, will also be destroyed!

<sup>15</sup>The fortress city of Pelusium will feel my fierce anger, and all the troops stationed at Thebes will be slaughtered.

<sup>16</sup>I will set fire to your nation of Egypt! The city of Pelusium will be in anguish. Thebes will fall, and the people of Memphis will live in constant fear.

<sup>17</sup>The young soldiers in the cities of Heliopolis and Bubastis will die in battle, and the rest of the people will be taken prisoner.

<sup>18</sup>You were so proud of your nation's power, but when I crush that power and kill that pride, darkness will fall over the city of Tahpanhes. A dark, gloomy cloud will cover the land as you are being led away into captivity.

<sup>19</sup>When I've finished punishing Egypt, you will know that I am the LORD.

Egypt's king is powerless

<sup>20</sup>Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the seventh day of the first month. He said:

<sup>21</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, I, the LORD, have defeated the king of Egypt! I broke his arm, and no one has wrapped it or put it in a sling, so that it could heal and get strong enough to hold a sword.

<sup>22</sup>So tell him that I am now his worst enemy. I will break both his arms—the good one and the broken one! His sword will drop from his hand for ever,

<sup>23</sup>and I will scatter the Egyptians all over the world.

<sup>24-25</sup>I will strengthen the power of Babylonia's king and give him my sword to use against Egypt. I will also make the wounded king of Egypt powerless, and he will moan in pain and die in front of the Babylonian king. Then everyone on earth will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>I will force the Egyptians to live as prisoners in foreign nations, and they will know that I, the LORD, have punished them.

Ezekiel 31

Egypt's king will be chopped down like a cedar tree

<sup>1</sup>Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the first day of the third month. He said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, tell the king of Egypt and his people that I am saying: You are more powerful than anyone on earth. Now listen to this.

<sup>3</sup>There was once a cedar tree in Lebanon with large, strong branches reaching to the sky.

<sup>4</sup>This tree had plenty of water to help it grow tall, and nearby streams watered the other trees in the forest.

<sup>5</sup>But this tree towered over those other trees, and its branches grew long and thick.

<sup>6</sup>Birds built nests in its branches, and animals were born beneath it. People from all nations lived in the shade of this strong tree.

<sup>7</sup>It had beautiful, long branches, and its roots found water deep in the soil.

<sup>8</sup>None of the cedar trees in my garden of Eden were as beautiful as this tree; no tree of any kind had such long branches.

<sup>9</sup>I, the LORD, gave this tree its beauty, and I helped the branches grow strong. All other trees in Eden wanted to be just like it.

<sup>10</sup>King of Egypt, now listen to what I, the LORD God, am saying about that tree: The tree grew so tall that it reached the sky and became very proud and arrogant.

<sup>11</sup>So I, the LORD God, will reject the tree and hand it over to a foreign ruler, who will punish it for its wickedness.

<sup>12</sup>Cruel foreigners will chop it down and leave it wherever it falls. Branches and broken limbs will be scattered over the mountains and in the valleys. The people living in the shade of those branches will go somewhere else.

<sup>13</sup>Birds will then nest on the stump of the fallen tree, and wild animals will trample its branches.

<sup>14</sup>Never again will any tree dare to grow as tall as this tree, no matter how much water it has. Every tree must die, just as humans die and go down to the world of the dead.

<sup>15</sup>On the day this tree dies and goes to the world below, I, the LORD God, will command rivers and streams to mourn its death. Every underground spring of water and every river will stop flowing. The mountains in Lebanon will be covered with darkness as a sign of their sorrow, and all the trees in the forest will wither.

<sup>16</sup>This tree will crash to the ground, and I will send it to the world below. Then the nations of the earth will tremble. The trees from Eden and the choice trees from Lebanon are now in the world of the dead, and they will be comforted when this tree falls.

<sup>17</sup>Those people who found protection in its shade will also be sent to the world below, where they will join the dead.

<sup>18</sup>King of Egypt, all these things will happen to you and your people! You were like this tree at one time—taller and stronger than anyone on earth. But now you will be chopped down, just as every tree in the garden of Eden must die. You will be sent down to the world of the dead, where you will join the godless and the other victims of violent death. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 32

A funeral song for the king of Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Twelve years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me on the first day of the twelfth month. He said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the king of Egypt and tell him I am saying: You act like a lion roaming the earth; but you are nothing more than a crocodile in a river, churning up muddy water with your feet.

<sup>3</sup>King of Egypt, listen to me. I, the LORD God, will catch you in my net and let a crowd of foreigners drag you to shore.

<sup>4</sup>I will throw you into an open field, where birds and animals will come to feed on your body.

<sup>5</sup>I will spread your rotting flesh over the mountains and in the valleys, <sup>6</sup>and your blood will flow throughout the land and fill up the streams.

<sup>7</sup>I will cover the whole sky and every star with thick clouds, so that the sun and moon will stop shining.

<sup>8</sup>The heavens will become black, leaving your country in total darkness. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>9</sup>Foreign nations you have never heard of will be shocked when I tell them how I destroyed you.

<sup>10</sup>They will be horrified, and when I flash my sword in victory on the day of your death, their kings will tremble in the fear of what could happen to them.

<sup>11</sup>The king of Babylonia is coming to attack you, king of Egypt!

<sup>12</sup>Your soldiers will be killed by the cruellest army in the world, and everything you take pride in will be crushed.

<sup>13</sup>I will slaughter your cattle that graze by the river, and no people or livestock will be left to muddy its water.

<sup>14</sup>The water will be clear, and streams will be calm. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

<sup>15</sup>Egypt will become a barren wasteland, and no living thing will ever survive there. Then you and your people will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>This is your warning, and it will be used as a funeral song by foreign women to mourn the death of your people. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

A sad ending for Egypt

<sup>17</sup>On the fifteenth day of that same month, the LORD said:

<sup>18</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, mourn for the Egyptians and condemn them to the world of the dead, where they will be buried beside the people of other powerful nations.

<sup>19</sup>Say to them: You may be more beautiful than the people of other nations, but you will also die and join the godless in the world below.

<sup>20</sup>You cannot escape! The enemy's sword is ready to slaughter every one of you.

<sup>21</sup>Brave military leaders killed in battle will gladly welcome you and your allies into the world of the dead.

<sup>22-23</sup>The graves of soldiers from Assyria are there. They once terrified people, but they were killed in battle and now lie deep in the world of the dead.

<sup>24-25</sup>The graves of soldiers from Elam are there. The very sight of those godless soldiers once terrified their enemies and made them panic. But now they are disgraced and ashamed as they lie in the world of the dead, beside others who were killed in battle.

<sup>26</sup>The graves of soldiers from Meshech and Tubal are there. These godless soldiers who terrified people were all killed in battle.

<sup>27</sup>They were not given a proper burial like the heroes of long ago, who were buried with their swords under their heads and with their shields over their bodies. These were the heroes who made their enemies panic.

<sup>28</sup>You Egyptians will be cruelly defeated, and you will be buried beside these other godless soldiers who died in battle.

<sup>29</sup>The graves of kings and leaders from Edom are there. They were powerful at one time. Now they are buried in the world of the dead with other godless soldiers killed in battle.

<sup>30</sup>The graves of the rulers of the north are there, as well as those of the Sidonians. Their powerful armies once terrified enemies. Now they lie buried in the world of the dead, where they are disgraced like other soldiers killed in battle.

<sup>31</sup>The LORD God says: When your king of Egypt sees all these graves, he and his soldiers will be glad they are not the only ones suffering.

<sup>32</sup>I sent him to terrify people all over the earth. But he and his army will be killed and buried beside other godless soldiers in the world of the dead. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 33

Ezekiel must warn the people to turn from their sinful ways

The LORD appoints Ezekiel to stand watch

(Ezekiel 3.16–21)

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, warn your people by saying: Some day, I, the LORD, may send an enemy to invade a country. And suppose its people choose someone to stand watch

<sup>3</sup>and to sound a warning signal when the enemy is seen coming.

<sup>4-5</sup>If any of these people hear the signal and ignore it, they will be killed in battle. But it will be their own fault, because they could have escaped if they had paid attention.

<sup>6</sup>But suppose the person watching fails to sound the warning signal. The enemy will attack and kill some of the sinful people in that country, and I, the LORD, will hold that person responsible for their death.

<sup>7</sup>Ezekiel, I have appointed you to stand watch for the people of Israel. So listen to what I say, then warn them for me.

<sup>8</sup>When I tell wicked people they will die because of their sins, you must warn them to turn from their sinful ways. But if you refuse to warn them, you are responsible for their death.

<sup>9</sup>If you do warn them, and they keep sinning, they will die because of their sins, and you will be innocent.

The LORD is always fair

(Ezekiel 18.21–30)

<sup>10</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, son of man, the people of Israel are complaining that the punishment for their sins is more than they can stand. They have lost all hope for survival, and they blame me.

<sup>11</sup>Tell them that as surely as I am the living LORD God, I don't like to see wicked people die. I enjoy seeing them turn from their sins and live. So if the Israelites want to live, they must stop sinning and turn back to me.

<sup>12</sup>Tell them that when good people start sinning, all the good they did in the past cannot save them from being punished. And remind them that when wicked people stop sinning, their past sins will be completely forgiven, and they won't be punished.

<sup>13</sup>Suppose I promise good people that they will live, then later they start sinning and believe they will be saved by the good they did in the past. These people will certainly be put to death because of their sins. Their good deeds will be forgotten.

<sup>14</sup>Suppose I warn wicked people that they will die because of their sins, and they stop sinning and start doing right.

<sup>15</sup>For example, they need to return anything they have taken as security for a loan and anything they have stolen. Then if they stop doing evil and start obeying my Law, they will live.

<sup>16</sup>Their past sins will be forgiven, and they will live because they have done right.

<sup>17</sup>Ezekiel, your people accuse me of being unfair. But they are the ones who are unfair.

<sup>18</sup>If good people start doing evil, they will be put to death, because they have sinned.

<sup>19</sup>And if wicked people stop sinning and start doing right, they will save themselves from punishment.

<sup>20</sup>But the Israelites still think I am unfair. So warn them that they will be punished for what they have done.

The news of Jerusalem's fall

<sup>21</sup>Twelve years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, a refugee who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me on the fifth day of the tenth month. He told me that the city had fallen.

<sup>22</sup>The evening before this man arrived at my house, the LORD had taken control of me. So when the man came to me the next morning, I could once again speak.

What will happen to those left in Israel?

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD said:

<sup>24</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, the people living in the ruined cities of Israel are saying, "Abraham was just one man, and the LORD gave him this whole land of Israel. There are many of us, and so this land must be ours."

<sup>25</sup>So, Ezekiel, tell them I am saying: How can you think the land is still yours? You eat meat with blood in it and worship idols. You commit murder

<sup>26</sup>and spread violence throughout the land. Everything you do is wicked; you are even unfaithful in marriage. And you claim the land is yours!

<sup>27</sup>As surely as I am the living LORD God, you people in the ruined cities will be killed in battle. Those of you living in the countryside will be eaten by wild animals, and those hiding in caves and on rocky cliffs will die from deadly diseases.

<sup>28</sup>I will make the whole country an empty wasteland and crush the power in which you take such pride. Even the mountains will be bare, and no one will try to cross them.

<sup>29</sup>I will punish you because of your sins, and I will turn your nation into a barren desert. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

The people listen, but don't change

The LORD said:

<sup>30</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, the people with you in Babylonia talk about you when they meet by the city walls or in the doorways of their houses. They say, "Let's ask Ezekiel what the LORD has said today."

<sup>31</sup>So they all come and listen to you, but they refuse to do what you tell them. They claim to be faithful, but they are for ever trying to cheat others out of their money.

<sup>32</sup>They treat you as though you were merely singing love songs or playing music. They listen, but don't do anything you say.

<sup>33</sup>Soon they will be punished, just as you warned, and they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Ezekiel 34

The Lord promises to bring the people home and to restore Judah
Israel's leaders are worthless shepherds

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, Israel's leaders are like shepherds taking care of my sheep, the people of Israel. But I want you to condemn these leaders and tell them: I, the LORD God, say you shepherds of Israel are doomed! You take care of yourselves while ignoring my sheep.

<sup>3</sup>You drink their milk and use their wool to make your clothes. Then you butcher the best ones for food. But you don't take care of the flock!

<sup>4</sup>You have never protected the weak ones or healed the sick ones or bandaged those that get hurt. You let them wander off and never look for those that get lost. You are cruel and mean to my sheep.

<sup>5</sup>They strayed in every direction, and because there was no shepherd to watch them, they were attacked and eaten by wild animals.

<sup>6</sup>So my sheep were scattered across the earth. They roamed on hills and mountains, without anyone even bothering to look for them.

<sup>7-8</sup>Now listen to what I, the living LORD God, am saying to you shepherds. My sheep have been attacked and eaten by wild animals, because you refused to watch them. You never went looking for the lost ones, and you fed yourselves without feeding my sheep.

<sup>9-10</sup>So I, the LORD, will punish you! I will rescue my sheep from you and never let you be their shepherd again or butcher them for food. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The LORD is the good shepherd

<sup>11</sup>The LORD God then said: I will look for my sheep and take care of them myself,

<sup>12</sup>just as a shepherd looks for lost sheep. My sheep have been lost since that dark and miserable day when they were scattered throughout the nations. But I will rescue them

<sup>13</sup>and bring them back from the foreign nations where they now live. I will be their shepherd and will let them graze on Israel's mountains and in the valleys and fertile fields.

<sup>14</sup>They will be safe as they feed on grassy meadows and green hills.

<sup>15</sup>I promise to take care of them and keep them safe,

<sup>16</sup>to look for those that are lost and bring back the ones that wander off, to bandage those that are hurt and protect the ones that are weak. I will also slaughter those that are fat and strong, because I always do right.

Judgment on the strong sheep

<sup>17</sup>The LORD God said to his sheep, the people of Israel: I will carefully watch each one of you to decide which ones are the strong sheep and which ones are weak.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you eat the greenest grass, then trample down what's left when you finish. Others drink clean water, then step in the water to make the rest of it muddy.

<sup>19</sup>That means my other sheep have nothing fit to eat or drink.

<sup>20</sup>So I, the LORD God, will separate you strong sheep from the weak.

<sup>21</sup>You strong ones have used your powerful horns to chase off those that are weak,

<sup>22</sup>but I will rescue them and no longer let them be ill-treated. I will separate the good from the bad.

<sup>23</sup>After that, I will give you a shepherd from the family of my servant King David. All of you, both strong and weak, will have the same shepherd, and he will take good care of you.

<sup>24</sup>He will be your leader, and I will be your God. I, the LORD, have spoken.

A bright future for the LORD's sheep

The LORD God said:

<sup>25</sup>The people of Israel are my sheep, and I solemnly promise that they will live in peace. I will chase away every wild animal from the desert and the forest, so my sheep will not be afraid.

<sup>26</sup>They will live around my holy mountain, and I will bless them by sending more than enough rain

<sup>27</sup>to make their trees produce fruit and their crops grow. I will set them free from slavery and let them live safely in their own land. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>Foreign nations will never again rob them, and wild animals will no longer kill and eat them. They will have nothing to fear.

<sup>29</sup>I will make their fields produce large amounts of crops, so they will never again go hungry or be laughed at by foreigners.

<sup>30</sup>Then everyone will know that I protect my people Israel. I, the LORD, make this promise.

<sup>31</sup>They are my sheep; I am their God, and I take care of them.

Ezekiel 35

Edom will be a wasteland

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn the people of Edom

<sup>3</sup>and say to them: I, the LORD God, am now your enemy! And I will turn your nation into an empty wasteland,

<sup>4</sup>leaving your towns in ruins. Your land will be a desert, and then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>People of Edom, not only have you been Israel's longtime enemy, you simply watched when disaster wiped out its people as punishment for their sins.

<sup>6</sup>And so, as surely as I am the living LORD God, you are guilty of murder and must be put to death.

<sup>7</sup>I will destroy your nation and kill anyone who travels through it.

<sup>8</sup>Dead bodies will cover your mountains and fill up your valleys,

<sup>9</sup>and your land will lie in ruins for ever. No one will live in your towns ever again. You will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>You thought the nations of Judah and Israel belonged to you, and that you could take over their territory. But I am their God, <sup>11</sup>and as surely as I live, I will punish you for treating my people with anger and hatred. Then they will know that I, the LORD, am punishing you!

<sup>12</sup>And you will finally realize that I heard you laugh at their destruction and say their land was yours to take.

<sup>13</sup>You even insulted me, but I heard it all.

<sup>14</sup>Everyone on earth will celebrate when I destroy you,

<sup>15</sup>just as you celebrated when Israel was destroyed. Your nation of Edom will be nothing but a wasteland. Then everyone will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36

A message for Israel's mountains

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, son of man, tell the mountains of Israel

<sup>2</sup>that I, the LORD God, am saying: Your enemies sneered and said that you mountains belonged to them.

<sup>3</sup>They ruined and crushed you from every side, and foreign nations captured and made fun of you.

<sup>4</sup>So all you mountains and hills, streams and valleys, listen to what I will do. Your towns may now lie in ruins, and nations may laugh and insult you.

<sup>5</sup>But in my fierce anger, I will turn against those nations, and especially the Edomites, because they laughed at you the loudest and took over your pasture lands.

<sup>6</sup>You have suffered long enough, and, I, the LORD God, am very angry! Nations have insulted you,

<sup>7</sup>so I will now insult and disgrace them. That is my solemn promise.

<sup>8</sup>Trees will grow on you mountains of Israel and produce fruit for my people, because they will soon come home.

<sup>9</sup>I will take care of you by ploughing your soil and planting crops on your fertile slopes.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Israel will return and rebuild your ruined towns and live in them.

<sup>11</sup>Children will be born, and animals will give birth to their young. You will no longer be deserted as you are now, but you will be covered with people and treated better than ever. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>I will bring my people Israel home, and they will live on you mountains, because you belong to them, and your fertile slopes will never again let them starve.

<sup>13</sup>It's true that you have been accused of not producing enough food and of letting your people starve.

<sup>14-15</sup>But I, the LORD, promise that you won't hear other nations laugh and sneer at you ever again. From now on, you will always produce plenty of food for your people. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

The LORD will be honoured

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>17</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own country, they made the land unclean by the way they behaved, just as a woman's monthly period makes her unclean.

<sup>18</sup>They committed murders and worshipped idols, which made the land even worse. So in my anger, I punished my people

<sup>19</sup>and scattered them throughout the nations, just as they deserved.

<sup>20</sup>Wherever they went, my name was disgraced, because foreigners insulted my people by saying I had forced them out of their own land.

<sup>21</sup>I care what those foreigners think of me,

<sup>22</sup>so tell the Israelites that I am saying: You have disgraced my holy name among the nations where you now live. So you don't deserve what I'm going to do for you. I will lead you home to bring honour to my name

<sup>23</sup>and to show foreign nations that I am holy. Then they will know that I am the LORD God. I have spoken.

<sup>24</sup>I will gather you from the foreign nations and bring you home.

<sup>25</sup>I will sprinkle you with clean water, and you will be clean and acceptable to me. I will wash away everything that makes you unclean, and I will remove your disgusting idols.

<sup>26</sup>I will take away your stubborn heart and give you a new heart and a desire to be faithful. You will have only pure thoughts,

<sup>27</sup>because I will put my Spirit in you and make you eager to obey my laws and teachings.

<sup>28</sup>You will once again live in the land I gave your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>29</sup>I will protect you from anything that makes you unclean. Your fields will overflow with grain, and no one will starve.

30Your trees will be filled with fruit, and crops will grow in your fields, so that you will never again feel ashamed for not having enough food.

31You will remember your evil ways and hate yourselves for what you've done.

32People of Israel, I'm not doing these things for your sake. You sinned against me, and you must suffer shame and disgrace for what you have done. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

33After I have made you clean, I will let you rebuild your ruined towns and let you live in them.

34Your land will be ploughed again, and nobody will be able to see that it was once barren.

35Instead, they will say that it looks as beautiful as the garden of Eden. They won't see towns lying in ruins, but they will see your strong cities filled with people.

36Then the nearby nations that survive will know that I am the one who rebuilt the ruined places and replanted the barren fields. I, the LORD, make this promise.

37I will once again answer your prayers, and I will let your nation grow until you are like a large flock of sheep.

38The towns that now lie in ruins will be filled with people, just as Jerusalem was once filled with sheep to be offered as sacrifices during a festival. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 37

Dry bones live again

1Some time later, I felt the LORD's power take control of me, and his Spirit carried me to a valley full of bones.

2The LORD showed me all around, and everywhere I looked I saw bones that were dried out.

<sup>3</sup>He said, “Ezekiel, son of man, can these bones come back to life?” I replied, “LORD God, only you can answer that.”

<sup>4</sup>He then told me to say: Dry bones, listen to what the LORD is saying to you,

<sup>5</sup>“I, the LORD God, will put breath in you, and once again you will live.

<sup>6</sup>I will wrap you with muscles and skin and breathe life into you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>7</sup>I did what the LORD said, but before I finished speaking, I heard a rattling noise. The bones were coming together!

<sup>8</sup>I saw muscles and skin cover the bones, but they had no life in them.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, now say to the wind, “The LORD God commands you to blow from every direction and to breathe life into these dead bodies, so they can live again.”

<sup>10</sup>As soon as I said this, the wind blew among the bodies, and they came back to life! They all stood up, and there were enough to make a large army.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, the people of Israel are like dead bones. They complain that they are dried up and that they have no hope for the future.

<sup>12</sup>So tell them, “I, the LORD God, promise to open your graves and set you free. I will bring you back to Israel, <sup>13</sup>and when that happens, you will realize that I am the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>My Spirit will give you breath, and you will live again. I will bring you home, and you will know that I have kept my promise. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Judah and Israel together again

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>16</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, get a stick and write on it, “The kingdom of Judah”. Then get another stick and write on it, “The kingdom of Israel”.

<sup>17</sup>Hold these two sticks end to end, so they look like one stick.

<sup>18</sup>And when your people ask you what this means,

<sup>19</sup>tell them that I, the LORD, will join together the stick of Israel and the stick of Judah. I will hold them in my hand, and they will become one.

<sup>20</sup>Hold these two sticks where they can be seen by everyone

<sup>21</sup>and then say: I, the LORD God, will gather the people of Israel and bring them home from the foreign nations where they now live.

<sup>22</sup>I will make them into one nation and let them once again live in the land of Israel. Only one king will rule them, and they will never again be divided into two nations.

<sup>23</sup>They will no longer worship idols and do things that make them unacceptable to me. I will wash away their sin and make them clean, and I will protect them from everything that makes them unclean. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24-25</sup> Their king will always come from the family of my servant King David and will care for them like a shepherd. The people of Israel will faithfully obey my laws. They and their descendants will live in the land I gave my servant Jacob, just as their ancestors did.

<sup>26</sup>I solemnly promise to bless the people of Israel with unending peace. I will protect them and let them become a powerful nation. My temple will stand in Israel for all time,

<sup>27</sup> and I will live among my people and be their God.

<sup>28</sup>Every nation on earth will know that my temple is in Israel and that I have chosen the Israelites to be my people.

Ezekiel 38

Gog will be defeated and Israel will be restored Gog invades Israel

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup> Ezekiel, son of man, condemn Gog, that wicked ruler of the kingdoms of Meshech and Tubal in the land of Magog. Tell him:

<sup>3</sup> I, the LORD God, am your enemy,

<sup>4</sup> and I will make you powerless! I will put a hook in your jaw and drag away both you and your large army. You command cavalry troops that wear heavy armour and carry shields and swords.

<sup>5</sup> Your army includes soldiers from Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya,

<sup>6</sup> as well as from Gomer and Beth-Togarmah in the north. Your army is enormous!

<sup>7</sup> So keep your troops prepared to fight,

<sup>8</sup> because in a few years, I will command you to invade Israel, a country that was ruined by war. It was deserted for a long time, but its people have returned from the foreign nations where they once lived. The Israelites now live in peace in the mountains of their own land.

<sup>9</sup> But you and your army will attack them like a fierce thunderstorm and surround them like a cloud.

<sup>10</sup> When that day comes, I know that you will have an evil plan

<sup>11</sup> to take advantage of Israel, that weak and peaceful country where people live safely inside towns that have no walls or gates or locks.

<sup>12</sup> You will rob the people in towns that were once a pile of rubble. These people lived as prisoners in foreign nations, but they have returned to Israel, the most important place in the world, and they own livestock and property.

<sup>13</sup> The people of Sheba and Dedan, along with merchants from villages in southern Spain, will be your allies. They will want some of the silver and gold, as well as the livestock and property that your army takes from Israel.

<sup>14</sup>I, the LORD God, know that when you see my people Israel living in peace, <sup>15</sup>you will lead your powerful cavalry from your kingdom in the north.

<sup>16</sup>You will attack my people like a storm cloud that covers their land. I will let you invade my country Israel, so that every nation on earth will know that I, the LORD, am holy.

Judgment on Gog

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Gog: Long ago, I made my prophets warn the people of Israel that some day I would send an enemy to attack them. You, Gog, are that enemy, and that day is coming.

<sup>18</sup>When you invade Israel, I will become furious,

<sup>19</sup>and in my anger I will send a terrible earthquake to shake Israel.

<sup>20</sup>Every living thing on earth will tremble in fear of me—every fish and bird, every wild animal and reptile, and every human. Mountains will crumble, cliffs will fall, and cities will collapse.

<sup>21</sup>I, the LORD, will make the mountains of Israel turn against you. Your troops will be so terrified that they will attack each other.

<sup>22</sup>I will strike you with diseases and punish you with death. You and your army will be pounded with rainstorms, hailstones, and burning sulphur.

<sup>23</sup>I will do these things to show the world that I, the LORD, am holy.

Ezekiel 39

Gog is defeated

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, condemn Gog and tell him: You are the ruler of Meshech and Tubal, but I, the LORD, am your enemy!

<sup>2</sup>I will turn you around and drag you from the north until you reach the mountains of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>I will knock the bow out of your left hand and the arrows out of your right hand,

<sup>4</sup>and you and your army will die on those mountains. Then birds and wild animals will eat the flesh

<sup>5</sup>of your dead bodies left lying in open fields. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>6</sup>I will set fire to the land of Magog and to those nations along the coast that think they are so secure, and they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>My people Israel will know me, and they will no longer disgrace my holy name. Everyone on earth will know that I am the holy LORD God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>The day is coming when these things will happen, just as I have promised.

<sup>9</sup>When that day comes, the people in the towns of Israel will collect the weapons of their dead enemies. They will use these shields, bows and arrows, spears, and clubs as firewood, and there will be enough to last for seven years.

<sup>10</sup>They will burn these weapons instead of gathering sticks or chopping down trees. That's how the Israelites will take revenge on those who robbed and abused them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The burial of Gog

The LORD said:

<sup>11</sup>After Gog has been destroyed, I will bury him and his army in Israel, in Travellers' Valley, east of the Dead Sea. That graveyard will be so large that it will block the way of anyone who tries to walk through the valley, which will then be known as "The Valley of Gog's Army".

<sup>12</sup>The Israelites will spend seven months burying dead bodies and cleaning up their land.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone will help with the burial, and they will be honoured for this on the day the brightness of my glory is seen.

<sup>14</sup>After those seven months, the people will appoint a group of men to look for any dead bodies left unburied. This must be done for seven months to make sure that the land is no longer unclean.

<sup>15</sup>Whenever they find a human bone, they will set up a marker next to it. Then the gravediggers will bury it in “The Valley of Gog's Army”

<sup>16</sup>near the town of “Gog's Army”. After that, the land will be pure again.

<sup>17</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, I am going to hold a feast on Israel's mountains and offer sacrifices there. So invite all the birds and wild animals to come from every direction and eat the meat of sacrifices and drink the blood. The birds and animals

<sup>18</sup>will feast on the bodies of warriors and foreign rulers that I will sacrifice like sheep, goats, and bulls.

<sup>19</sup>I want the birds and animals to eat until they are full and drink until they are drunk.

<sup>20</sup>They will come to my table and stuff themselves with the flesh of horses and warriors of every kind. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Israel will be restored

The LORD said:

<sup>21</sup>When I punish the nations of the earth, they will see the brightness of my glory.

<sup>22</sup>The people of Israel will know from then on that I am the LORD their God.

<sup>23</sup>Foreign nations will realize that the Israelites were forced to leave their own land because they sinned against me. I turned my back on my people and let enemies attack and kill them.

<sup>24</sup>Their lives were wicked and corrupt, and they deserved to be punished.

<sup>25</sup>Now I will show mercy to the people of Israel and bring them back from the nations where they are living. They are Jacob's descendants, so I will bless them and show that I am holy.

<sup>26</sup>They will live safely in their own land, but will be ashamed when they remember their evil ways and how they disgraced me.

<sup>27</sup>Foreign nations will watch as I take the Israelites from enemy lands and bring them back home, and those nations will see that I am holy.

<sup>28</sup>My people will realize that I, the LORD their God, sent them away as prisoners and now will bring them back to their own land.

<sup>29</sup>Never again will I turn my back on the people of Israel, and my Spirit will live in them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Ezekiel 40

Ezekiel sees the future temple in Jerusalem

<sup>1-2</sup> Twenty-five years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been led away as prisoners to Babylonia, and fourteen years after the Babylonians had captured Jerusalem, the LORD's power took control of me on the tenth day of the first month. The LORD showed me some visions in which I was carried to the top of a high mountain in Jerusalem. I looked to the south and saw what looked like a city full of buildings.

<sup>3</sup> In my vision the LORD took me closer, and I saw a man who was sparkling like polished bronze. He was standing near one of the gates and was holding a tape measure in one hand and a measuring stick in the other.

<sup>4</sup> The man said, "Ezekiel, son of man, pay close attention to everything I'm going to show you—that's why you've been brought here. Listen carefully, because you must tell the people of Israel what you see."

The east gate

<sup>5</sup> The first thing I saw was an outer wall that completely surrounded the temple area. The man took his measuring stick, which was three metres long, and measured the wall; it was three metres high and three metres thick.

<sup>6-7</sup>Then he went to the east gate, where he walked up steps that led to a long passageway. On each side of this passageway were three guardrooms, which were three metres square, and they were separated by walls two and a half metres thick. The man measured the distance between the opening of the gate and the first guardroom, and it was three metres, the thickness of the outer wall. At the far end of this passageway, I saw an entrance room that faced the courtyard of the temple itself. There was also a distance of three metres between the last guardroom and the entrance room

<sup>8-9</sup>at the end of the passageway. The man measured this room: it was four metres from the doorway to the opposite wall, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was one metre.

<sup>10</sup>The three guardrooms on each side of the passageway were the same size, and the walls that separated them were the same thickness.

<sup>11</sup>Next, the man measured the width of the passageway, and it was six and a half metres, but the two doors of the gate were only five metres wide.

<sup>12</sup>In front of the guardrooms, which were three metres square, was a railing about fifty centimetres high and fifty centimetres thick.

<sup>13</sup>The man measured the distance from the back wall of one of these rooms to the same spot in the room directly across the passageway, and it was twelve and a half metres.

<sup>14</sup>He measured the entrance room at the far end of the passageway, and it was ten metres wide.

<sup>15</sup>Finally, he measured the total length of the passageway, from the outer wall to the entrance room, and it was twenty-five metres.

<sup>16</sup>The three walls in the guardrooms had small windows in them, just like the ones in the entrance room. The walls along the passageway were decorated with carvings of palm trees.

The outer courtyard

<sup>17</sup>The man then led me through the passageway and into the outer courtyard of the temple, where I saw thirty rooms built around the outside of the courtyard. These side rooms were built against the outer wall, and in front of them was a pavement that circled the courtyard.

<sup>18</sup>This was known as the lower pavement, and it was twenty-five metres wide.

<sup>19</sup>I saw the gates that led to the inner courtyard of the temple and noticed that they were higher than those leading to the outer courtyard. The man measured the distance between the outer and inner gates, and it was fifty metres.

The north gate

<sup>20</sup>Next, the man measured the north gate that led to the outer courtyard.

<sup>21</sup>This gate also had three guardrooms on each side of a passageway. The measurements of these rooms, the walls between them, and the entrance room at the far end of the passageway were exactly the same as those of the east gate. The north gate was also twenty-five metres long and twelve and a half metres wide,

<sup>22</sup>and the windows, the entrance room, and the carvings of palm trees were just like those in the east gate. The entrance room also faced the courtyard of the temple and had seven steps leading up to it.

<sup>23</sup>Directly across the outer courtyard was a gate that led to the inner courtyard, just as there was for the east gate. The man measured the distance between the outer and inner gate, and it was fifty metres.

The south gate

<sup>24</sup>The man then took me to the south gate. He measured the walls and the entrance room of this gate, and the measurements were exactly the same as those of the other two gates.

<sup>25</sup>There were windows in the guardrooms of this gate and in the entrance room, just like the others, and this gate was also twenty-five metres long and twelve and a half metres wide.

<sup>26</sup>Seven steps led up to the gate; the entrance room was at the far end of the passageway and faced the courtyard of the temple. Carvings of palm trees decorated the walls along the passageway.

<sup>27</sup>And directly across the outer courtyard was a gate on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured the distance between the outer and inner gate, and it was also fifty metres.

The gates leading to the inner courtyard

<sup>28</sup>We then went into the inner courtyard, through the gate on the south side of the temple. The man measured the gate, and it was the same size as the gates in the outer wall.

<sup>29-30</sup>In fact, everything along the passageway was also the same size, including the guardrooms, the walls separating them, the entrance room at the far end, and the windows. This gate, like the others, was twenty-five metres long and twelve and a half metres wide.

<sup>31</sup>The entrance room of this gate faced the outer courtyard, and carvings of palm trees decorated the walls of the passageway. Eight steps led up to this gate.

<sup>32</sup>Next, we went through the east gate to the inner courtyard. The man measured this gate, and it was the same size as the others.

<sup>33</sup>The guardrooms, the walls separating them, and its entrance room had the same measurements as the other gates. The guardrooms and the entrance room had windows, and the gate was twenty-five metres long and twelve and a half metres wide.

<sup>34</sup>The entrance room faced the outer courtyard, and the walls in the passageway were decorated with carvings of palm trees. Eight steps also led up to this gate.

<sup>35</sup>Then the man took me to the north gate. He measured it, and it was the same size as the others,

<sup>36</sup>including the guardrooms, the walls separating them, and the entrance room. There were also windows in this gate. It was twenty-five metres long and twelve and a half metres wide, <sup>37</sup>and like the other inner gates, its entrance room faced the outer courtyard, and its walls were decorated with carvings of palm trees. Eight steps also led up to this gate.

The rooms for sacrificing animals

<sup>38-39</sup>Inside the entrance room of the north gate, I saw four tables, two on each side of the room, where the animals to be sacrificed were killed. Just outside this room was a small building used for washing the animals before they were offered as sacrifices to please the LORD or sacrifices for sin or sacrifices to make things right.

<sup>40</sup>Four more tables were in the outer courtyard, two on each side of the steps leading into the entrance room.

<sup>41</sup>So there was a total of eight tables, four inside and four outside, where the animals were killed,

<sup>42-43</sup>and where the meat was placed until it was sacrificed on the altar. Next to the tables in the entrance room were four stone tables fifty centimetres high and seventy-five centimetres square; the equipment used for killing the animals was kept on top of these tables. All around the walls of this room was a seventy-five-millimetre shelf.

The rooms belonging to the priests

<sup>44</sup>The man then took me to the inner courtyard, where I saw two buildings, one beside the inner gate on the north and the other beside the inner gate on the south.

<sup>45</sup>He said, “The building beside the north gate belongs to the priests who serve in the temple, <sup>46</sup>and the building beside the south gate belongs to those who serve at the altar. All of them are descendants of Zadok and are the only Levites allowed to serve as the LORD's priests.”

The inner courtyard and the temple

<sup>47</sup>Now the man measured the inner courtyard; it was fifty metres square. I also saw an altar in front of the temple.

<sup>48</sup>We walked to the porch of the temple, and the man measured the doorway of the porch: it was seven metres long, two and a half metres wide, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was one and a half metres.

<sup>49</sup>The porch itself was ten metres by six metres, with steps leading up to it. There was a column on each side of these steps.

Ezekiel 41

<sup>1</sup>Next we went into the main room of the temple. The man measured the doorway of this room: it was three metres wide,

<sup>2</sup>five metres long, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was two and a half metres. The main room itself was twenty metres by ten metres.

<sup>3-4</sup>Then the man walked to the far end of the temple's main room and said, “Beyond this doorway is the most holy place.” He first measured the doorway: it was one metre wide, three metres long, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was three and a half metres. Then he measured the most holy place, and it was ten metres square.

The storage rooms of the temple

<sup>5</sup>The man measured the wall of the temple, and it was three metres thick. Storage rooms two metres wide were built against the outside of the wall.

<sup>6</sup>There were three levels of rooms, with thirty rooms on each level, and they rested on ledges that were attached to the temple walls, so that nothing was built into the walls.

<sup>7</sup>The walls of the temple were thicker at the bottom than at the top, which meant that the storage rooms on the top level were wider than those on the bottom level. Steps led from the bottom level, through the middle level, and into the top level.

<sup>8</sup>The temple rested on a stone base three metres high, which also served as the foundation for the storage rooms.

<sup>9</sup>The outside walls of the storage rooms were two and a half metres thick; there was nothing between these walls

<sup>10</sup>and the nearest buildings ten metres away.

<sup>11</sup>One door led into the storage rooms on the north side of the temple, and another door led to those on the south side. The stone base extended two and a half metres beyond the outside wall of the storage rooms.

The west building and the measurements of the temple

<sup>12</sup>I noticed another building: it faced the west end of the temple and was thirty-five metres wide, forty-five metres long, and had walls over two and a half metres thick.

<sup>13</sup>The man measured the length of the temple, and it was fifty metres. He then measured from the back wall of the temple, across the open space behind the temple, to the back wall of the west building; it was fifty metres.

<sup>14</sup>The distance across the front of the temple, including the open space on either side, was also fifty metres.

<sup>15</sup>Finally, the man measured the length of the west building, including the side rooms on each end, and it was also fifty metres.

The inside of the temple

The inside walls of the temple's porch and main room

<sup>16</sup>were panelled with wood all the way from the floor to the windows, while the doorways, the small windows, and the three side rooms were trimmed in wood.

<sup>17</sup>The panelling stopped just above the doorway. These walls were decorated <sup>18-20</sup>with carvings of winged creatures and had a carving of a palm tree between the creatures. Each winged creature had two faces: a human face looking at the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face looking at the palm tree on the other side. These designs were carved into the panelling all the way around the two rooms.

<sup>21</sup>The doorframe to the temple's main room was in the shape of a rectangle.

The wooden altar

In front of the doorway to the most holy place was something that looked like <sup>22</sup>a wooden altar. It was one and a half metres high and one metre square, and its corners, its base, and its sides were made of wood. The man said, "This is a reminder that the LORD is constantly watching over his temple."

The doors in the temple

<sup>23</sup>Both the doorway to the main room of the temple and the doorway to the most holy place had two doors,

<sup>24</sup>and each door had two sections that could fold open.

<sup>25</sup>The doors to the main room were decorated with carvings of winged creatures and palm trees just like those on the walls, and there was a wooden covering over the porch just outside these doors.

<sup>26</sup>The walls on each side of this porch had small windows and were also decorated with carvings of palm trees.

Ezekiel 42

The sacred rooms for the priests

<sup>1-2</sup>After the man and I left the temple and walked back to the outer courtyard, he showed me a set of rooms on the north side of the west building. This set of rooms was fifty metres long and twenty-five metres wide.

<sup>3</sup>On one side of them was the ten metres of open space that ran beside the temple, and on the other side was the pavement that circled the outer courtyard. The rooms were arranged in three levels

<sup>4</sup>with doors that opened towards the north, and in front of them was a passage five metres wide and fifty metres long.

<sup>5</sup>The rooms on the top level were narrower than those on the middle level, and the rooms on the middle level were narrower than those on the bottom level.

<sup>6</sup>The rooms on the bottom level supported those on the two upper levels, and so these rooms did not have columns like other buildings in the courtyard.

<sup>7-8</sup>To the north was a screening wall twenty-five metres long,

<sup>9-10</sup>and at the east end of this wall was the door leading from the courtyard to these rooms. There was also a set of rooms on the south side of the west building.

<sup>11</sup>These rooms were exactly like those on the north side, and they also had a passage in front of them.

<sup>12</sup>The door to these rooms was at the east end of the wall that stood in front of them.

<sup>13</sup>The man then said to me: These rooms on the north and south sides of the temple are the sacred rooms where the LORD's priests will eat the most holy offerings. These offerings include the grain sacrifices, the sacrifices for sin, and the sacrifices to make things right.

<sup>14</sup>When the priests are ready to leave the temple, they must go through these rooms before they return to the outer courtyard. They must leave their sacred clothes in these rooms and put on ordinary clothes before going anywhere near other people.

The size of the temple area

<sup>15</sup>After the man had finished measuring the buildings inside the temple area, he took me back through the east gate and measured the wall around this area.

<sup>16</sup>He used his measuring stick to measure the east side of this wall; it was two hundred and fifty-five metres long.

<sup>17-19</sup>Then he measured the north side, the south side, and the west side of the wall, and they were each two hundred and fifty-five metres long,

<sup>20</sup>and so the temple area was a perfect square. The wall around this area separated what was sacred from what was ordinary.

Ezekiel 43

The LORD's glory returns to the temple

<sup>1</sup>The man took me back to the east gate of the temple,

<sup>2</sup>where I saw the brightness of the glory of Israel's God coming from the east. The sound I heard was as loud as ocean waves, and everything around was shining with the dazzling brightness of his glory.

<sup>3</sup>This vision was like the one I had seen when God came to destroy Jerusalem and like the one I had seen near the River Chebar. I immediately bowed with my face to the ground, <sup>4</sup>and the LORD's glory came through the east gate and into the temple.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD's Spirit lifted me to my feet and carried me to the inner courtyard, where I saw that the LORD's glory had filled the temple.

<sup>6</sup>The man was standing beside me, and I heard the LORD say from inside the temple:

<sup>7</sup>Ezekiel, son of man, this temple is my throne on earth. I will live here among the people of Israel for ever. They and their kings will never again disgrace me by worshipping idols at local shrines or by setting up memorials to their dead kings.

<sup>8</sup>Israel's kings built their palaces so close to my holy temple that only a wall separated them from me. Then these kings disgraced me with their evil ways, and in my fierce anger I destroyed them.

<sup>9</sup>But if the people and their kings stop worshipping other gods and tear down those memorials, I will live among them for ever.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Israel must suffer shame for sinning against me, so tell them about my holy temple. Let them think about it,

<sup>11</sup>then if they are truly sorry, describe for them the design and shape of the temple, the gates, the measurements, and how the buildings are arranged. Explain the regulations about worshipping there, then write down these things, so they can study and obey them.

<sup>12</sup>The temple area on my holy mountain must be kept sacred! This is the most important law about the temple.

The altar

<sup>13</sup>According to the official standards, the altar in the temple had the following measurements: around the bottom of the altar was a gutter fifty centimetres wide and fifty centimetres deep, with a twenty-five-centimetre ledge on the outer rim.

<sup>14-17</sup>The altar rested on a base and had three sections, each one of them square. The bottom section was eight metres on each side and one metre high. The middle section was seven metres on each side and two metres high, and it had a twenty-five-centimetre rim around its outer edge. The top section, which was six metres on each side and two metres high, was the place where sacrifices were burnt, and the four corners of the top section looked like the horns of a bull. The steps leading up to the altar were on the east side.

The dedication of the altar

<sup>18</sup>The LORD God said: Ezekiel, son of man, after the altar is built, it must be dedicated by offering sacrifices on it and by splattering it with blood. Here is what you must do:

<sup>19</sup>the priests of the Levi tribe from the family of Zadok the priest are the only ones who may serve in my temple—this is my law. So give them a young bull to slaughter as a sacrifice for sin.

<sup>20</sup>Take some of the animal's blood and smear it on the four corners of the altar, some on the corners of the middle section, and some more on the rim around its edge. That will purify the altar and make it fit for offering sacrifices to me.

<sup>21</sup>Then take the body of the bull outside the temple area and burn it at the special place.

<sup>22</sup>The next day, a goat that has nothing wrong with it must be offered as a sacrifice for sin. Purify the altar with its blood, just as you did with the blood of the bull.

<sup>23</sup>Then choose a young bull and a young ram that have nothing wrong with them,

<sup>24</sup>and bring them to my temple. The priests will sprinkle salt on them and offer them as sacrifices to please me.

<sup>25</sup>Each day for the next seven days, you must offer a goat and a bull and a ram as sacrifices for sin. These animals must have nothing wrong with them.

<sup>26</sup>The priests will purify the altar during those days, so that it will be acceptable to me and ready to use.

<sup>27</sup>From then on, the priests will use this altar to offer sacrifices to please me and sacrifices to ask my blessing. Then I will be pleased with the people of Israel. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 44

The east gate must remain closed

<sup>1</sup>The man took me back to the outer courtyard, near the east gate of the temple area. I saw that the doors to this gate were closed.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said: I, the LORD God of Israel, came through this gate, so it must remain closed for ever! No one must ever use it.

<sup>3</sup>The ruler of Israel may come here to eat a sacrificial meal that has been offered to me, but he must use only the entrance room of this gate.

People who are not allowed in the temple

<sup>4</sup>Then the man took me through the north gate to the front of the temple. I saw that the brightness of the LORD's glory had filled the temple, and I immediately bowed with my face to the ground.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD said: Ezekiel, son of man, I am going to give you the laws for my temple. So pay attention and listen carefully to what kind of people are allowed to come in the temple, and what kind are not.

<sup>6</sup>Tell those rebellious people of Israel: I, the LORD God, command you to stop your evil ways!

<sup>7</sup>My temple has been disgraced, because you have let godless, stubborn foreigners come here when sacrifices are being offered to me. You have sinned and have broken our solemn agreement.

<sup>8</sup>Instead of following the proper ways to worship me, you have put foreigners in charge of worship at my temple.

<sup>9</sup>And so I, the LORD God, say that no godless foreigner who disobeys me will be allowed in my temple. This includes any foreigner living in Israel.

The Levites are punished

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup>Some of the Levites turned their backs on me and joined the other people of Israel in worshipping idols. So these Levites must be punished!

<sup>11</sup>They will still be allowed to serve me as temple workers by guarding the gates and by killing the animals to be sacrificed and by helping the worshippers.

<sup>12</sup>But because these Levites served the people of Israel when they worshipped idols, I, the LORD God, promise that the Levites will be punished. They did not stop the Israelites from sinning, <sup>13</sup>and now I will no longer let the Levites serve as my priests or come near anything sacred to me. They must suffer shame and disgrace for their disgusting sins.

<sup>14</sup>They will be responsible for all the hard work that must be done in the temple.

Rules for priests

The LORD said:

<sup>15</sup>The priests of the Levi tribe who are descendants of Zadok the priest were faithful to me, even when the rest of the Israelites turned away. And so, these priests will continue to serve as my priests and to offer the fat and the blood of sacrifices.

<sup>16</sup>They will come into my temple, where they will offer sacrifices at my altar and lead others in worship.

<sup>17</sup>When they come to the inner courtyard, they must wear their linen priestly clothes. My priests must never wear anything made of wool when they are on duty in this courtyard or in the temple.

<sup>18</sup>Even their turbans and underwear must be made of linen to keep my priests from sweating when they work.

<sup>19</sup>And before they leave to join the other people in the outer courtyard, they must take off their priestly clothes, then place them in the sacred rooms and put on their ordinary clothes. That way, no one will touch their sacred clothes and be harmed.

<sup>20</sup> Priests must never shave their heads when they are mourning. But they must keep their hair properly trimmed and not let it grow too long.

<sup>21</sup> They must not drink wine before going to the inner courtyard.

<sup>22</sup> A priest must not marry a divorced woman; he can marry only a virgin from Israel or the widow of another priest.

<sup>23</sup> Priests must teach my people the difference between what is sacred and what is ordinary, and between what is clean and what is unclean.

<sup>24</sup> They will make decisions in difficult legal cases, according to my own laws. They must also observe the religious festivals my Law requires and must always respect the Sabbath.

<sup>25</sup> Touching a dead body will make a person unclean. So a priest must not go near a dead body, unless it is one of his parents or children, or his brother or unmarried sister.

<sup>26</sup> If a priest touches a dead body, he is unclean and must go through a ceremony to make himself clean. Then seven days later, <sup>27</sup> he must go to the inner courtyard of the temple and offer a sacrifice for sin. After that, he may once again serve as my priest. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

<sup>28</sup> I myself will provide for my priests, and so they won't receive any land of their own.

<sup>29</sup> Instead, they will receive part of the grain sacrifices, as well as part of the sacrifices for sin and sacrifices to make things right. They will also be given everything in Israel that has been completely dedicated to me.

<sup>30</sup> The first part of every harvest will belong to the priests. They will also receive part of all special gifts and offerings the Israelites bring to me. And whenever any of my people bake bread, they will give their first loaf as an offering to the priests, and I will bless the homes of the people when they do this.

<sup>31</sup> Priests must not eat any bird or animal that dies a natural death or that has been killed by a wild animal.

Ezekiel 45

The LORD's sacred land

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>When the land of Israel is divided among the twelve tribes, you must set aside an area that will belong to me. This sacred area will be twelve and a half kilometres long and ten kilometres wide.

<sup>2</sup>The temple will be on a piece of land two hundred and fifty-five metres square, and the temple will be completely surrounded by an open space twenty-five metres wide.

<sup>3-4</sup>I will give half of my sacred land, a section twelve and a half kilometres long and five kilometres wide, to the priests who serve in the temple. Their houses will be in this half, as well as my temple, which is the most sacred place of all.

<sup>5</sup>I will give the other half of my land to the Levites who work in my temple, and the towns where they will live will be there.

<sup>6</sup>Next to my sacred land will be an area twelve and a half kilometres long and three kilometres wide. This will belong to the people of Israel and will include the city of Jerusalem.

Land for Israel's ruler

The LORD said:

<sup>7-8</sup>The regions west and east of my sacred land and the city of Jerusalem will belong to the ruler of Israel. He will be given the region between the western edge of my land and the Mediterranean Sea, and between the eastern edge of my land and the River Jordan. This will mean that the length of his property will be the same as the sections of land given to the tribes. This property will belong to every ruler of Israel, so they will always be fair to my people and will let them live peacefully in the land given to their tribes.

Israel's rulers must be honest

<sup>9</sup>The LORD God said: You leaders of Israel have robbed and cheated my people long enough! I want you to stop sinning and start doing what is right and fair. You must never again force my people off their own land. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>10</sup>So from now on, you must use honest weights and measures.

<sup>11</sup>The ephah will be the standard dry measure, and the bath will be the standard liquid measure. Their size will be based on the homer, which will equal ten ephahs or ten baths.

<sup>12</sup>The standard unit of weight will be the shekel. One shekel will equal twenty gerahs, and sixty shekels will equal one mina.

<sup>13</sup>Leaders of Israel, the people must bring you one sixtieth of their grain harvests as offerings to me.

<sup>14</sup>They will also bring one per cent of their olive oil. These things will be measured according to the bath, and ten baths is the same as one homer or one cor.

<sup>15</sup>Finally, they must bring one sheep out of every two hundred from their flocks. These offerings will be used as grain sacrifices, as well as sacrifices to please me and those to ask my blessing. I, the LORD, will be pleased with these sacrifices and will forgive the sins of my people.

<sup>16</sup>The people of Israel will bring you these offerings.

<sup>17</sup>But during New Moon Festivals, Sabbath celebrations, and other religious feasts, you leaders will be responsible for providing animals for the sacrifices, as well as the grain and wine. All these will be used for the sacrifices for sin, the grain sacrifices, the sacrifices to please me, and those to ask my blessing. I will be pleased and will forgive the sins of my people.

The festivals

(Exodus 12.1–20; Leviticus 23.33–43)

18The LORD God said: On the first day of the first month, a young bull that has nothing wrong with it must be offered as a sacrifice to purify the temple.

19The priest will take some blood from this sacrifice and smear it on the doorposts of the temple, as well as on the four corners of the altar and on the doorposts of the gates that lead into the inner courtyard.

20The same ceremony must also be done on the seventh day of the month, so that anyone who sins accidentally or without knowing it will be forgiven, and so that my temple will remain holy.

21Beginning on the fourteenth day of the first month, and continuing for seven days, everyone will celebrate Passover and eat bread made without yeast.

22On the first day, the ruler will bring a bull to offer as a sacrifice for his sins and for the sins of the people.

23Each day of the festival he is to bring seven bulls and seven rams as sacrifices to please me, and he must bring a goat as a sacrifice for sin. These animals must have nothing wrong with them.

24He will also provide nine kilogrammes of grain and three litres of olive oil to be offered with each bull and each ram.

25The Festival of Shelters will begin on the fifteenth day of the seventh month and will continue for seven days. On each day of this festival, the ruler will provide the same number of animals that he did each day during Passover, as well as the same amount of grain and olive oil for the sacrifices.

Ezekiel 46

Various laws for the ruler and the people

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: The east gate of the inner courtyard must remain closed during the six working days of each week. But on the Sabbath and on the first day of the month, this gate will be opened.

<sup>2</sup>Israel's ruler will go from the outer courtyard into the entrance room of this gate and stand in the doorway while the priest offers sacrifices to ask my blessing and sacrifices to please me. The ruler will bow with his face to the ground to show that he has worshipped me. Then he will leave, and the gate will remain open until evening.

<sup>3</sup>Each Sabbath and on the first day of each month, the people of Israel must also come to the east gate and worship me.

<sup>4</sup>On the Sabbath, the ruler will bring six lambs and one ram to be offered as sacrifices to please me. There must be nothing wrong with any of these animals.

<sup>5</sup>With the ram, he is to offer nine kilogrammes of grain, and with each of the lambs, he can offer as much as he wants. He must also offer three litres of olive oil with every nine kilogrammes of grain.

<sup>6</sup>The ruler is to bring six lambs, a bull, and a ram to be offered as sacrifices at the New Moon Festival. There must be nothing wrong with any of these animals.

<sup>7</sup>With the bull and the ram, he is to offer nine kilogrammes of grain, and with each of the lambs, he can offer as much as he wants. He must also offer three litres of olive oil with every nine kilogrammes of grain.

<sup>8</sup>The ruler must come through the entrance room of the east gate and leave the same way.

<sup>9</sup>When my people come to worship me during any festival, they must always leave by the opposite gate from which they came: those who come in the north gate must leave by the south gate, and those who come in the south gate must leave by the north gate.

<sup>10</sup>Their ruler will come in at the same time they do and leave at the same time they leave.

<sup>11</sup>At all other festivals and celebrations, nine kilogrammes of grain will be offered with a bull, and nine kilogrammes will be offered with a ram. The worshippers can offer as much grain as they want with each lamb. Three litres of olive oil must be offered with every nine kilogrammes of grain.

<sup>12</sup>If the ruler voluntarily offers a sacrifice to please me or to ask my blessing, the east gate of the inner courtyard will be opened for him. He will offer his sacrifices just as he does on each Sabbath; then he will leave, and the gate will be closed.

<sup>13</sup>Each morning a year-old lamb that has nothing wrong with it must be offered as a sacrifice to please me.

<sup>14</sup>Along with it, two kilogrammes of fine flour mixed with a litre of olive oil must be offered as a grain sacrifice. This law will never change—

<sup>15</sup>the lamb, the flour, and the olive oil will be offered to me every morning for all time.

Laws about the ruler's land

<sup>16</sup>The LORD God said: If the ruler of Israel gives some of his land to one of his children, it will belong to the ruler's child as part of the family property.

<sup>17</sup>But if the ruler gives some of his land to one of his servants, the land will belong to the servant until the Year of Celebration, when it will be returned to the ruler. Only the ruler's children can keep what is given to them.

<sup>18</sup>The ruler must never abuse my people by taking land from them. Any land he gives his children must already belong to him.

The sacred kitchens

<sup>19</sup>The man who was showing me the temple then took me back to the inner courtyard. We walked to the south side of the courtyard and stopped at the door to the sacred rooms that belonged to the priests. He showed me more rooms at the western edge of the courtyard

<sup>20</sup>and said, “These are the kitchens where the priests must boil the meat to be offered as sacrifices to make things right and as sacrifices for sin. They will also bake the grain for sacrifices in these kitchens. That way, these sacred offerings won't have to be carried through the outer courtyard, where someone could accidentally touch them and be harmed.”

<sup>21</sup>We went back to the outer courtyard and walked past the four corners.

<sup>22</sup>At each corner I saw a smaller courtyard, twenty metres long and fifteen metres wide.

<sup>23</sup>Around the inside of these smaller courtyards was a low wall of stones, and against the wall were places to build fires.

<sup>24</sup>The man said, “These are the kitchens where the temple workers will boil the meat that worshippers offer as sacrifices.”

Ezekiel 47

The stream flowing from the temple

<sup>1</sup>The man took me back to the temple, where I saw a stream flowing from under the entrance. It began in the south part of the temple, where it ran past the altar and continued east through the courtyard.

<sup>2</sup>We walked out of the temple area through the north gate and went around to the east gate. I saw the small stream of water flowing east from the south side of the gate.

<sup>3</sup>The man walked east, then took out his measuring stick and measured five hundred metres downstream. He told me to wade through the stream there, and the water came up to my ankles.

<sup>4</sup>Then he measured another five hundred metres downstream, and told me to wade through it there. The water came up to my knees. Another five hundred metres downstream the water came up to my waist.

<sup>5</sup>Another five hundred metres downstream, the stream had become a river that could be crossed only by swimming.

<sup>6</sup>The man said, “Ezekiel, son of man, pay attention to what you've seen.” We walked to the river bank,

<sup>7</sup>where I saw dozens of trees on each side.

<sup>8</sup>The man said: This water flows eastwards to the valley of the River Jordan and empties into the Dead Sea, where it turns the salt water into fresh water.

<sup>9</sup>Wherever this water flows, there will be all kinds of animals and fish, because it will bring life and fresh water to the Dead Sea.

<sup>10</sup>From En-Gedi to Eneglaim, people will fish in the sea and dry their nets along the coast. There will be as many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea as there are in the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>11</sup>But the marshes along the shore will remain salty, so that people can use the salt from them.

<sup>12</sup>Fruit trees will grow all along this river and produce fresh fruit every month. The leaves will never dry out, because they will always have water from the stream that flows from the temple, and they will be used for healing people.

The borders of the restored land and its division among the tribes
The borders of the land

<sup>13-14</sup>The LORD God said to the people of Israel: When the land is divided among the twelve tribes of Israel, the Joseph tribe will receive two shares. Divide the land equally, because I promised your ancestors that this land would some day belong to their descendants. These are the borders of the land:

<sup>15</sup>The northern border will begin at the Mediterranean Sea, then continue eastward to Hethlon, to Lebo-Hamath, then across to Zedad,

<sup>16</sup>Berothah, and Sibram, which is on the border between the two kingdoms of Damascus and Hamath. The border will end at Hazer-Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

<sup>17</sup>So the northern border will run between the Mediterranean Sea and Hazar-Enon, which is on the border between Damascus and Hamath.

<sup>18</sup>The eastern border will begin on the border between the two kingdoms of Hauran and Damascus. It will run south along the River Jordan, which separates the territories of Gilead and Israel, and it will end at the Dead Sea near the town of Tamar.

<sup>19</sup>The southern border will begin at Tamar, then run south-west to the springs near Meribath-Kadesh. It will continue along the Egyptian Gorge and will end at the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>20</sup>The western border will run north along the Mediterranean Sea to a point just west of Lebo-Hamath.

<sup>21</sup>That is the land to be divided among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>It will belong to the Israelites and to any foreigners living among them whose children were born in Israel. These foreigners must be treated like any other Israelite citizen, and they will receive <sup>23</sup>a share of the land given to the tribe where they live. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

Ezekiel 48

The division of land among tribes in the north

The LORD said:

<sup>1-7</sup>Each tribe will receive a section of land that runs from the eastern border of Israel west to the Mediterranean Sea. The northern border of Israel will run along the towns of Hethlon and Lebo-Hamath, and will end at Hazar-Enon, which is on the border between the kingdoms of Damascus and Hamath. The tribes will receive their share of land in the following order, from north to south: Dan, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Ephraim, Reuben, and Judah.

The special section of land

The LORD said:

<sup>8</sup>South of Judah's territory will be a special section of land. Its length will be twelve and a half kilometres, and its width will run from the eastern border of Israel west to the Mediterranean Sea. My temple will be in this section of land.

<sup>9</sup>An area in the centre of this land will belong to me. It will be twelve and a half kilometres long and ten kilometres wide.

<sup>10</sup>I, the LORD, will give half of my sacred land to the priests. Their share will be twelve and a half kilometres long and five kilometres wide, and my temple will be right in the middle.

<sup>11</sup>Only priests who are descendants of Zadok will receive a share of this sacred land, because they remained faithful to me when the Levites and the rest of the Israelites started sinning.

<sup>12</sup>The land belonging to the priests will be the most sacred area and will lie south of the area that belongs to the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>I will give the other half of my sacred land to the Levites. Their share will also be twelve and a half kilometres long and five kilometres wide, <sup>14</sup>and they must never sell or trade any of this land—it is the best land and belongs to me.

<sup>15</sup>South of my sacred land will be a section twelve and a half kilometres long and three kilometres wide. It will not be sacred, but will belong to the people of Israel and will include the city of Jerusalem, together with its houses and pasture land.

<sup>16</sup>The city will be a square: each side will be two kilometres long,

<sup>17</sup>and an open area one hundred and twenty-five metres wide will surround the city.

<sup>18</sup>The land on the east and west sides of the city boundaries will be farmland for the people of Jerusalem; both sections will be five kilometres long and three kilometres wide.

<sup>19</sup>People from the city will farm the land, no matter which tribe they belong to.

<sup>20</sup>And so the centre of this special section of land will be for my sacred land, as well as for the city and its property. The land will be a square, twelve and a half kilometres on each side.

<sup>21</sup>The regions east and west of this square of land will belong to the ruler of Israel. His property will run east to the River Jordan and west to the Mediterranean Sea. In the very centre of his property will be my sacred land, as well as the temple,

<sup>22</sup>together with the share belonging to the Levites and the city of Jerusalem. The northern border of the ruler's property will be the land that belongs to Judah, and the southern border will be the land that belongs to Benjamin.

The division of land among tribes in the south

The LORD God said:

<sup>23-27</sup>South of this special section will be the land that belongs to the rest of Israel's tribes. Each tribe will receive a section of land that runs from the eastern border of Israel west to the Mediterranean Sea. The tribes will receive their share of land in the following order, from north to south: Benjamin, Simeon, Issachar, Zebulun, and Gad.

<sup>28</sup>Gad's southern border is also the southern border of Israel. It will begin at the town of Tamar, then run south-west to the springs near Meribath-Kadesh. It will continue along the Egyptian Gorge and end at the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>29</sup>That's how the land of Israel will be divided among the twelve tribes. I, the LORD God, have spoken.

The gates of Jerusalem

The LORD said:

<sup>30-34</sup>The city of Jerusalem will have twelve gates, three on each of the four sides of the city wall. These gates will be named after the twelve tribes of Israel. The gates of Reuben, Judah, and Levi will be in the north; Joseph, Benjamin, and Dan will be in the east; Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun will be in the south; Gad, Asher, and Naphtali will be in the west. Each side of the city wall will be two kilometres long,

<sup>35</sup>and so the total length of the wall will be ten kilometres. The new name of the city will be “The-LORD-Is-Here!”

Daniel

Daniel 1

Daniel and his three friends

<sup>1</sup>In the third year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia attacked Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord let Nebuchadnezzar capture Jehoiakim and take away some of the things used in God's temple. And when the king returned to Babylonia, he put these things in the temple of his own god.

<sup>3</sup>One day the king ordered Ashpenaz, his highest palace official, to choose some young men from the royal family of Judah and from other leading Jewish families.

<sup>4</sup>The king said, "They must be healthy, handsome, clever, wise, educated, and fit to serve in the royal palace. Teach them how to speak and write our language

<sup>5</sup>and give them the same food and wine that I am served. Train them for three years, and then they can become court officials."

<sup>6</sup>Four of the young Jews chosen were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, all from the tribe of Judah.

<sup>7</sup>But the king's chief official gave them Babylonian names: Daniel became Belteshazzar, Hananiah became Shadrach, Mishael became Meshach, and Azariah became Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>Daniel made up his mind to eat and drink only what God had approved for his people to eat. And he asked the king's chief official for permission not to eat the food and wine served in the royal palace.

<sup>9</sup>God had made the official friendly and kind to Daniel.

<sup>10</sup>But the man still told him, "The king has decided what you must eat and drink. And I am afraid he will kill me, if you eat something else and end up looking worse than the other young men."

<sup>11</sup>The king's official had put a guard in charge of Daniel and his three friends. So Daniel said to the guard, <sup>12</sup>“For the next ten days, let us have only vegetables and water at mealtimes.

<sup>13</sup>When the ten days are up, compare how we look with the other young men, and decide what to do with us.”

<sup>14</sup>The guard agreed to do what Daniel had asked.

<sup>15</sup>Ten days later, Daniel and his friends looked healthier and better than the young men who had been served food from the royal palace.

<sup>16</sup>After this, the guard let them eat vegetables instead of the rich food and wine.

<sup>17</sup>God made the four young men clever and wise. They read a lot of books and became well educated. Daniel could also tell the meaning of dreams and visions.

<sup>18</sup>At the end of the three-year period set by King Nebuchadnezzar, his chief palace official brought all the young men to him.

<sup>19</sup>The king interviewed them and discovered that none of the others were as outstanding as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they were given positions in the royal court.

<sup>20</sup>From then on, whenever the king asked for advice, he found their wisdom was ten times better than that of any of his other advisers and magicians.

<sup>21</sup>Daniel served there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2

King Nebuchadnezzar's dream

<sup>1</sup>During the second year that Nebuchadnezzar was king, he had such horrible nightmares that he could not sleep.

<sup>2</sup>So he called in his counsellors, advisers, magicians, and wise men,

<sup>3</sup>and said, “I am disturbed by a dream that I don't understand, and I want you to explain it.”

<sup>4</sup>They answered in Aramaic, “Your Majesty, we hope you live for ever! We are your servants. Please tell us your dream, and we will explain what it means.”

<sup>5</sup>But the king replied, “No! I have made up my mind. If you don't tell me both the dream and its meaning, you will be chopped to pieces and your houses will be torn down.

<sup>6</sup>However, if you do tell me both the dream and its meaning, you will be greatly rewarded and highly honoured. Now tell me the dream and explain what it means.”

<sup>7</sup>“Your Majesty,” they said, “if you will only tell us your dream, we will interpret it for you.”

<sup>8</sup>The king replied, “You're just stalling for time,

<sup>9</sup>because you know what's going to happen if you don't come up with the answer. You've decided to make up a pack of lies, hoping I might change my mind. Now tell me the dream, and that will prove that you can interpret it.”

<sup>10</sup>His advisers explained, “Your Majesty, you are demanding the impossible! No king, not even the most famous and powerful, has ever ordered his advisers, magicians, or wise men to do such a thing.

<sup>11</sup>It can't be done, except by the gods, and they don't live here on earth.”

<sup>12-13</sup>This made the king so angry that he gave orders for every wise man in Babylonia to be put to death, including Daniel and his three friends.

God tells Nebuchadnezzar's dream to Daniel

<sup>14</sup>Arioch was the king's official in charge of putting the wise men to death. He was on his way to have it done, when Daniel very wisely went to him

<sup>15</sup>and asked, “Why did the king give such cruel orders?” After Arioch explained what had happened,

<sup>16</sup>Daniel rushed off and said to the king, “If you will just give me some time, I’ll explain your dream.”

<sup>17</sup>Daniel returned home and told his three friends.

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, “Pray that the God who rules from heaven will be merciful and explain this mystery, so that we and the others won’t be put to death.”

<sup>19</sup>In a vision one night, Daniel was shown the dream and its meaning. Then he praised the God who rules from heaven:

<sup>20</sup>“Our God, your name will be praised for ever and for ever. You are all-powerful, and you know everything.

<sup>21</sup>You control human events— you give rulers their power and take it away, and you are the source of wisdom and knowledge.

<sup>22</sup>“You explain deep mysteries, because even the dark is light to you.

<sup>23</sup>You are the God who was worshipped by my ancestors. Now I thank you and praise you for making me wise and telling me the king’s dream, together with its meaning.”

Daniel interprets the dream

<sup>24</sup>Daniel went back to Arioch, the official in charge of executing the wise men. Daniel said, “Don’t kill those men! Take me to the king, and I will explain the meaning of his dream.”

<sup>25</sup>Arioch rushed Daniel to the king and announced, “Your Majesty, I have found out that one of the men brought here from Judah can explain your dream.”

<sup>26</sup>The king asked Daniel, “Can you tell me my dream and what it means?”

<sup>27</sup>Daniel answered: Your Majesty, not even the cleverest person in all the world can do what you are demanding.

<sup>28-29</sup>But the God who rules from heaven can explain mysteries. And while you were sleeping, he showed you what will happen in the future.

<sup>30</sup>However, you must realize that these mysteries weren't explained to me because I am cleverer than everyone else. Instead, it was done so that you would understand what you have seen.

<sup>31</sup>Your Majesty, what you saw standing in front of you was a huge and terrifying statue, shining brightly.

<sup>32</sup>Its head was made of gold, its chest and arms were silver, and from its waist down to its knees, it was bronze.

<sup>33</sup>From there to its ankles it was iron, and its feet were a mixture of iron and clay.

<sup>34</sup>As you watched, a stone was cut from a mountain—but not by human hands. The stone struck the feet, completely shattering the iron and clay.

<sup>35</sup>Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed and blown away without a trace, like husks of wheat at threshing time. But the stone became a tremendous mountain that covered the entire earth.

<sup>36</sup>That was the dream, and now I'll tell you what it means.

<sup>37</sup>Your Majesty, you are the greatest of kings, and God has highly honoured you with power

<sup>38</sup>over all humans, animals, and birds. You are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup>After you are gone, another kingdom will rule, but it won't be as strong. Then it will be followed by a kingdom of bronze that will rule the whole world.

<sup>40</sup>Next, a kingdom of iron will come to power, crushing and shattering everything.

<sup>41-42</sup>This fourth kingdom will be divided—it will be both strong and brittle, just as you saw that the feet and toes were a mixture of iron and clay.

<sup>43</sup>This kingdom will be the result of a marriage between kingdoms, but it will crumble, just as iron and clay don't stick together.

<sup>44-45</sup>During the time of those kings, the God who rules from heaven will set up an eternal kingdom that will never fall. It will be like the stone that was cut from the mountain, but not by human hands—the stone that crushed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. Your Majesty, in your dream the great God has told you what is going to happen, and you can trust this interpretation.

Daniel is promoted

<sup>46</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar bowed low to the ground and worshipped Daniel. Then he gave orders for incense to be burnt and a sacrifice of grain to be offered in honour of Daniel.

<sup>47</sup>The king said, “Now I know that your God is above all other gods and kings, because he gave you the power to explain this mystery.”

<sup>48</sup>The king then presented Daniel with a lot of gifts; he promoted him to governor of Babylon Province and put him in charge of the other wise men.

<sup>49</sup>At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to high positions in Babylon Province, and he let Daniel stay on as a palace official.

Daniel 3

God rescues Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego King Nebuchadnezzar's gold statue

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar ordered a gold statue to be built twenty-seven metres high and nearly three metres wide. He had it set up in Dura Valley near the city of Babylon, <sup>2</sup>and he commanded his governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, and his other officials to come from everywhere in his kingdom to the dedication of the statue.

<sup>3</sup>So all of them came and stood in front of it.

- <sup>4</sup>Then an official stood up and announced: People of every nation and race, now listen to the king's command!
- <sup>5</sup>Trumpets, flutes, harps, and all other kinds of musical instruments will soon start playing. When you hear the music, you must bow down and worship the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.
- <sup>6</sup>Anyone who refuses will at once be thrown into a flaming furnace.
- <sup>7</sup>As soon as the people heard the music, they bowed down and worshipped the gold statue that the king had set up.
- <sup>8</sup>Some Babylonians used this as a chance to accuse the Jews to King Nebuchadnezzar.
- <sup>9</sup>They said, “Your Majesty, we hope you live for ever!
- <sup>10</sup>You commanded everyone to bow down and worship the gold statue when the music played.
- <sup>11</sup>And you said that anyone who did not bow down and worship it would be thrown into a flaming furnace.
- <sup>12</sup>Sir, you appointed three men to high positions in Babylon Province, but they have disobeyed you. Those Jews, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, refuse to worship your gods and the statue you have set up.”
- <sup>13</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar was furious. So he sent for the three young men and said,
- <sup>14</sup>“I hear that you refuse to worship my gods and the gold statue I have set up.
- <sup>15</sup>Now I am going to give you one more chance. If you bow down and worship the statue when you hear the music, everything will be all right. But if you don't, you will at once be thrown into a flaming furnace. No god can save you from me.”
- <sup>16</sup>The three men replied, “Your Majesty, we don't need to defend ourselves.

<sup>17</sup>The God we worship can save us from you and your flaming furnace.

<sup>18</sup>But even if he doesn't, we still won't worship your gods and the gold statue you have set up.”

<sup>19</sup>Nebuchadnezzar's face twisted with anger at the three men. And he ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than usual.

<sup>20</sup>Next, he commanded some of his strongest soldiers to tie up the men and throw them into the flaming furnace.

<sup>21-23</sup>The king wanted it done at that very moment. So the soldiers tied up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and threw them into the flaming furnace with all their clothes still on, including their turbans. The fire was so hot that flames leaped out and killed the soldiers.

<sup>24</sup>Suddenly the king jumped up and shouted, “Weren't only three men tied up and thrown into the fire?” “Yes, Your Majesty,” the people answered.

<sup>25</sup>“But I see four men walking around in the fire,” the king replied. “None of them is tied up or harmed, and the fourth one looks like a god.”

<sup>26</sup>Nebuchadnezzar went closer to the flaming furnace and said to the three young men, “You servants of the Most High God, come out at once!” They came out,

<sup>27</sup>and the king's high officials, governors, and advisers all crowded around them. The men were not burnt, their hair wasn't scorched, and their clothes didn't even smell like smoke.

<sup>28</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar said: Praise their God for sending an angel to rescue his servants! They trusted their God and refused to obey my commands. Yes, they chose to die rather than to worship or serve any god except their own.

<sup>29</sup>And I won't allow people of any nation or race to say anything against their God. Anyone who does will be chopped up and their houses will be torn down, because no other god has such great power to save.

<sup>30</sup>After this happened, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to even higher positions in Babylon Province.

Daniel 4

Nebuchadnezzar loses his kingdom for seven years King Nebuchadnezzar's letter about his second dream

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar sent the following letter to the people of all nations and races on the earth: Greetings to all of you!

<sup>2</sup>I am glad to tell about the wonderful miracles God Most High has done for me.

<sup>3</sup>His miracles are mighty and marvellous. He will rule for ever, and his kingdom will never end.

<sup>4</sup>I was enjoying a time of peace and prosperity,

<sup>5</sup>when suddenly I had some horrifying dreams and visions.

<sup>6</sup>Then I commanded every wise man in Babylonia to appear in my court, so they could explain the meaning of my dream.

<sup>7</sup>After they arrived, I told them my dream, but they were not able to say what it meant.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, a young man named Daniel came in, and I told him the dream. The holy gods had given him special powers, and I had renamed him Belteshazzar after my own god.

<sup>9</sup>I said, "Belteshazzar, not only are you the wisest of all advisers and counsellors, but the holy gods have given you special powers to solve the most difficult mysteries. So listen to what I dreamed and tell me what it means:

<sup>10</sup>"In my sleep I saw a very tall tree in the centre of the world.

<sup>11</sup>It grew stronger and higher, until it reached to heaven and could be seen from anywhere on earth.

<sup>12</sup>It was covered with leaves and heavy with fruit— enough for all nations. Wild animals enjoyed its shade, birds nested in its branches, and all creatures on earth lived on its fruit.

<sup>13</sup>“While I was in bed, having this vision, a holy angel came down from heaven

<sup>14</sup>and shouted: ‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Make the animals leave its shade and send the birds flying from its branches.

<sup>15</sup>But leave its stump and roots in the ground, surrounded by grass and held by chains of iron and bronze. ‘Make sure that this ruler lives like the animals out in the open fields, unprotected from the dew.

<sup>16</sup>Give him the mind of a wild animal for seven long years.

<sup>17</sup>This punishment is given at the command of the holy angels. It will show to all who live that God Most High controls all kingdoms and chooses for their rulers persons of humble birth. ’

<sup>18</sup>“Daniel, that was the dream that none of the wise men in my kingdom were able to understand. But I am sure that you will understand what it means, because the holy gods have given you some special powers.”

<sup>19</sup>For a while, Daniel was terribly confused and worried by what he was thinking. But I said, “Don't be bothered either by the dream or by what it means.” Daniel replied: Your Majesty, I wish the dream had been against your enemies.

<sup>20</sup>You saw a tree that grew so big and strong that it reached up to heaven and could be seen from anywhere on earth.

<sup>21</sup>Its leaves were beautiful, and it produced enough fruit for all living creatures; animals lived in its shade, and birds nested in its branches.

<sup>22</sup>Your Majesty, that tree is you. Your glorious reputation has reached heaven, and your kingdom covers the earth.

<sup>23</sup>Then you saw a holy angel come down from heaven and say, “Chop down the tree and destroy it! But leave its stump and roots in the ground, fastened there by a chain of iron and bronze. Let it stay for seven years out in the field with the wild animals, unprotected from the dew.”

<sup>24</sup>Your Majesty, God Most High has sent you this message, and it means

<sup>25</sup>that you will be forced to live with the wild animals, far away from humans. You will eat grass like a wild animal and live outdoors for seven years, until you learn that God Most High controls all earthly kingdoms and chooses their rulers.

<sup>26</sup>But he gave orders not to disturb the stump and roots. This is to show that you will be king once again, after you learn that the God who rules from heaven is in control.

<sup>27</sup>Your Majesty, please be willing to do what I say. Turn from your sins and start living right; have mercy on those who are ill-treated. Then all will go well with you for a long time.

The rest of Nebuchadnezzar's letter about his second dream

<sup>28-30</sup>About twelve months later, I was walking on the flat roof of my royal palace and admiring the beautiful city of Babylon, when these things started happening to me. I was saying to myself, “Just look at this wonderful capital city that I have built by my own power and for my own glory!”

<sup>31</sup>But before I could finish speaking, a voice from heaven interrupted: King Nebuchadnezzar, this kingdom is no longer yours.

<sup>32</sup>You will be forced to live with the wild animals, away from people. For seven years you will eat grass, as though you were an ox, until you learn that God Most High is in control of all earthly kingdoms and that he is the one who chooses their rulers.

<sup>33</sup>This was no sooner said than done—I was forced to live like a wild animal; I ate grass and was unprotected from the dew. As time went by, my hair grew longer than eagle feathers, and my fingernails looked like the claws of a bird.

<sup>34</sup>Finally, I prayed to God in heaven, and my mind was healed. Then I said: “I praise and honour God Most High. He lives for ever, and his kingdom will never end.

<sup>35</sup>To him the nations are far less than nothing; God controls the stars in the sky and everyone on this earth. When God does something, we cannot change it or even ask why.”

<sup>36</sup>At that time my mind was healed, and once again I became the ruler of my glorious kingdom. My advisers and officials returned to me, and I had greater power than ever before.

<sup>37</sup>That's why I say: “Praise and honour the King who rules from heaven! Everything he does is honest and fair, and he can shatter the power of those who are proud.”

Daniel 5

King Belshazzar and the writing on the wall King Belshazzar's banquet

<sup>1</sup>One evening, King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for a thousand of his highest officials, and he drank wine with them.

<sup>2</sup>He got drunk and ordered his servants to bring in the gold and silver cups his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem. Belshazzar wanted the cups, so that he and all his wives and officials could drink from them.

<sup>3-4</sup>When the gold cups were brought in, everyone at the banquet drank from them and praised their idols made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>5</sup>Suddenly a human hand was seen writing on the plaster wall of the palace. The hand was just behind the lampstand, and the king could see it writing.

<sup>6</sup>He was so frightened that his face turned pale, his knees started shaking, and his legs became weak.

<sup>7</sup>The king called in his advisers, who claimed they could talk with the spirits of the dead and understand the meanings found in the stars. He told them, “The man who can read this writing and tell me what it means will become the third most powerful man in my kingdom. He will wear robes of royal purple and a gold chain around his neck.”

<sup>8</sup>All of King Belshazzar's highest officials came in, but not one of them could read the writing or tell what it meant,

<sup>9</sup>and they were completely puzzled. Now the king was more afraid than ever before, and his face turned white as a ghost.

<sup>10</sup>When the queen heard the king and his officials talking, she came in and said: Your Majesty, I hope you live for ever! Don't be afraid or look so pale.

<sup>11</sup>In your kingdom there is a man who has been given special powers by the holy gods. When your father Nebuchadnezzar was king, this man was known to be as clever, intelligent, and wise as the gods themselves. Your father put him in charge of all who claimed they could talk with the spirits or understand the meanings in the stars or tell about the future.

<sup>12</sup>He also changed the man's name from Daniel to Belteshazzar. Not only is he wise and intelligent, but he can explain dreams and riddles and solve difficult problems. Send for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.

<sup>13</sup>When Daniel was brought in, the king said: So you are Daniel, one of the captives my father brought back from Judah!

<sup>14</sup>I was told that the gods have given you special powers and that you are intelligent and very wise.

<sup>15</sup>Neither my advisers nor the men who talk with the spirits of the dead could read this writing or tell me what it means.

<sup>16</sup>But I have been told that you understand everything and that you can solve difficult problems. Now then, if you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will become the third most powerful man in my kingdom. You will wear royal purple robes and have a gold chain around your neck.

<sup>17</sup>Daniel answered: Your Majesty, I will read the writing and tell you what it means. But you may keep your gifts or give them to someone else.

<sup>18</sup>Sir, the Most High God made your father a great and powerful man and brought him much honour and glory.

<sup>19</sup>God did such great things for him that people of all nations and races shook with fear. Your father had the power of life or death over everyone, and he could honour or ruin anyone he chose.

<sup>20</sup>But when he became proud and stubborn, his glorious kingdom was taken from him.

<sup>21</sup>His mind became like that of an animal, and he was forced to stay away from people and live with wild donkeys. Your father ate grass like an ox, and he slept outside where his body was soaked with dew. He was forced to do this until he learnt that the Most High God rules all kingdoms on earth and chooses their kings.

<sup>22</sup>King Belshazzar, you knew all this, but you still refused to honour the Lord who rules from heaven.

<sup>23</sup>Instead, you turned against him and ordered the cups from his temple to be brought here, so that you and your wives and officials could drink wine from them. You praised idols made of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, even though they cannot see or hear or think. You refused to worship the God who gives you breath and controls everything you do.

<sup>24</sup>That's why he sent the hand to write this message on the wall.

<sup>25-28</sup>The words written there are mene, which means “numbered”, tekel, which means “weighed”, and parsin, which means “divided”. God has numbered the days of your kingdom and has brought it to an end. He has weighed you on his balance scales, and you fall short of what it takes to be king. So God has divided your kingdom between the Medes and the Persians.

<sup>29</sup>Belshazzar gave a command for Daniel to be made the third most powerful man in his kingdom and to be given a purple robe and a gold chain.

<sup>30</sup>That same night, the king was killed.

<sup>31</sup>Then Darius the Mede, who was sixty-two years old, took over his kingdom.

Daniel 6

God rescues Daniel from the pit of lions

<sup>1</sup>Darius divided his kingdom into a hundred and twenty states and placed a governor in charge of each one.

<sup>2</sup>In order to make sure that his government was run properly, Darius put three other officials in charge of the governors. One of these officials was Daniel.

<sup>3</sup>And he did his work so much better than the other governors and officials that the king decided to let him govern the whole kingdom.

<sup>4</sup>The other men tried to find something wrong with the way Daniel did his work for the king. But they could not accuse him of anything wrong, because he was honest and faithful and did everything he was supposed to do.

<sup>5</sup>Finally, they said to one another, “We will never be able to bring any charge against Daniel, unless it has to do with his religion.”

<sup>6</sup>They all went to the king and said: “Your Majesty, we hope you live for ever!

<sup>7</sup>All of your officials, leaders, advisers, and governors agree that you should make a law forbidding anyone to pray to any god or human except you for the next thirty days. Everyone who disobeys this law must be thrown into a pit of lions.

<sup>8</sup>Order this to be written and then sign it, so it cannot be changed, just as no written law of the Medes and Persians can be changed.”

<sup>9</sup>So King Darius made the law and had it written down.

<sup>10</sup>Daniel heard about the law, but when he returned home, he went upstairs and prayed in front of the window that faced Jerusalem. In the same way that he had always done, he knelt down in prayer three times a day, giving thanks to God.

<sup>11</sup>The men who had spoken to the king watched Daniel and saw him praying to his God for help.

<sup>12</sup>They went back to the king and said, “Didn't you make a law that forbids anyone to pray to any god or human except you for the next thirty days? And doesn't the law say that everyone who disobeys it will be thrown into a pit of lions?” “Yes, that's the law I made,” the king agreed. “And just like all written laws of the Medes and Persians, it cannot be changed.”

<sup>13</sup>The men then told the king, “That Jew named Daniel, who was brought here as a captive, refuses to obey you or the law that you ordered to be written. And he still prays to his god three times a day.”

<sup>14</sup>The king was really upset to hear about this, and for the rest of the day he tried to think how he could save Daniel.

<sup>15</sup>At sunset the men returned and said, “Your Majesty, remember that no written law of the Medes and Persians can be changed, not even by the king.”

<sup>16</sup>So Darius ordered Daniel to be brought out and thrown into a pit of lions. But he said to Daniel, “You have been faithful to your God, and I pray that he will rescue you.”

<sup>17</sup>A stone was rolled over the pit, and it was sealed. Then Darius and his officials stamped the seal to show that no one should let Daniel out.

<sup>18</sup>All night long the king could not sleep. He did not eat anything, and he would not let anyone come in to entertain him.

<sup>19</sup>At daybreak the king got up and ran to the pit.

<sup>20</sup>He was anxious and shouted, “Daniel, you were faithful and served your God. Was he able to save you from the lions?”

<sup>21</sup>Daniel answered, “Your Majesty, I hope you live for ever!

<sup>22</sup>My God knew that I was innocent, and he sent an angel to keep the lions from eating me. Your Majesty, I have never done anything to hurt you.”

<sup>23</sup>The king was relieved to hear Daniel's voice, and he gave orders for him to be taken out of the pit. Daniel's faith in his God had kept him from being harmed.

<sup>24</sup>And the king ordered the men who had brought charges against Daniel to be thrown into the pit, together with their wives and children. But before they even reached the bottom, the lions ripped them to pieces.

<sup>25</sup>King Darius then sent this message to all people of every nation and race in the world: “Greetings to all of you!

<sup>26</sup>I command everyone in my kingdom to worship and honour the God of Daniel. He is the living God, the one who lives for ever. His power and his kingdom will never end.

<sup>27</sup>He rescues people and sets them free by working great miracles. Daniel's God has rescued him from the power of the lions.”

<sup>28</sup>All went well for Daniel while Darius was king, and even when Cyrus the Persian ruled.

Daniel 7

Daniel's vision of four beasts

<sup>1-2</sup>Daniel wrote: In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylonia, I had some dreams and visions while I was asleep one night, and I wrote them down. The four winds were stirring up the mighty sea, <sup>3</sup>when suddenly four powerful beasts came out of the sea. Each beast was different.

<sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion with the wings of an eagle. As I watched, its wings were pulled off. Then it was lifted to an upright position and made to stand on two feet, just like a human, and it was given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup>The second beast looked like a bear standing on its hind legs. It held three ribs in its teeth, and it was told, “Attack! Eat all the flesh you want.”

<sup>6</sup>The third beast was like a leopard—except that it had four wings and four heads. It was given authority to rule.

<sup>7</sup>The fourth beast was stronger and more terrifying than the others. Its huge teeth were made of iron, and what it didn't grind with its teeth, it smashed with its feet. It was different from the others, and it had horns on its head—ten of them.

<sup>8</sup>Just as I was thinking about these horns, a smaller horn appeared, and three of the other horns were pulled up by the roots to make room for it. This horn had the eyes of a human and a mouth that spoke with great pride.

Judgment

Daniel wrote:

<sup>9</sup>Thrones were set up while I was watching, and the Eternal God took his place. His clothing and his hair were white as snow. His throne was a blazing fire with fiery wheels, <sup>10</sup>and flames were dashing out from all around him. Countless thousands were standing there to serve him. The time of judgment began, and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>I watched closely to see what would happen to this smaller horn because of the arrogant things it was saying. Then before my very eyes, the fourth beast was killed and its body destroyed by fire.

<sup>12</sup>The other three beasts had their authority taken from them, but they were allowed to live a while longer.

<sup>13</sup> As I continued to watch the vision that night, I saw what looked like a son of man coming with the clouds of heaven, and he was presented to the Eternal God.

<sup>14</sup> He was crowned king and given power and glory, so that all people of every nation and race would serve him. He will rule for ever, and his kingdom is eternal, never to be destroyed.

The meaning of Daniel's vision

<sup>15</sup> Daniel wrote: I was terrified by these visions, and I didn't know what to think.

<sup>16</sup> So I asked one of those standing there, and he explained,

<sup>17</sup> “The four beasts are four earthly kingdoms.

<sup>18</sup> But God Most High will give his kingdom to his chosen ones, and it will be theirs for ever and ever.”

<sup>19</sup> I wanted to know more about the fourth beast, because it was so different and much more terrifying than the others. What was the meaning of its iron teeth and bronze claws and of its feet that smashed what the teeth and claws had not ground and crushed?

<sup>20</sup> I also wanted to know more about all ten of those horns on its head. I especially wanted to know more about the one that took the place of three of the others—the horn that had eyes and spoke with arrogance and seemed greater than the others.

<sup>21</sup> While I was looking, this horn attacked God's chosen ones and was winning the battle.

<sup>22</sup> Then God Most High, the Eternal God, came and judged in favour of his chosen ones, because the time had arrived for them to be given the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>Then I was told by the one standing there: “The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom to appear on earth. It will be different from all the others— it will trample the earth and crush it to pieces.

<sup>24</sup>All ten of those horns are kings who will come from this kingdom, and one more will follow. This horn will be different from the others, and it will conquer three other kings.

<sup>25</sup>“This king will speak evil of God Most High, and he will be cruel to God's chosen ones. He will try to change God's Law and the sacred seasons. And he will be able to do this for a time, two times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup>But he will finally be judged, and his kingdom completely destroyed.

<sup>27</sup>“Then the greatest kingdom of all will be given to the chosen ones of God Most High. His kingdom will be eternal, and all others will serve and obey him.”

<sup>28</sup>That was what I saw and heard. I turned pale with fear and kept it all to myself.

Daniel 8

Daniel's vision of a ram and a goat

<sup>1</sup>Daniel wrote: In the third year of King Belshazzar of Babylonia, I had a second vision

<sup>2</sup>in which I was in Susa, the chief city of Babylonia's Elam Province. I was beside the River Ulai, <sup>3</sup>when I looked up and saw a ram standing there with two horns on its head—both of them were long, but the second one was longer than the first.

<sup>4</sup>The ram went charging towards the west, the north, and the south. No other animals were strong enough to oppose him, and nothing could save them from his power. So he did as he pleased and became even more powerful.

<sup>5</sup>I kept on watching and saw a goat come from the west and charge across the entire earth, without even touching the ground. Between his eyes was a powerful horn, <sup>6</sup>and with tremendous anger the goat started towards the ram that I had seen beside the river.

<sup>7</sup>The goat was so fierce that its attack broke both horns of the ram, leaving him powerless. Then the goat trampled on the ram, and no one could do anything to help.

<sup>8</sup>After this, the goat became even more powerful. But at the peak of his power, his mighty horn was broken, and four other mighty horns took its place—one pointing to the north and one to the east, one to the south and one to the west.

<sup>9</sup>A little horn came from one of these, and its power reached to the south, the east, and even to the holy land.

<sup>10</sup>It became so strong that it attacked the stars in the sky, which were heaven's army. Then it threw some of them down to the earth and trampled on them.

<sup>11-12</sup>It humiliated heaven's army and dishonoured its leader by keeping him from offering the daily sacrifices. In fact, it was so terrible that it even disgraced the temple and wiped out true worship. It also did everything else it wanted to do.

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the holy angels asked another, “When will the daily sacrifices be offered again? What about this horrible rebellion? When will the temple and heaven's army no longer be trampled in the dust?”

<sup>14</sup>The other answered, “It will be two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings before the temple is dedicated and in use again.”

Gabriel interprets the vision

<sup>15</sup>Daniel wrote: I was trying to understand the meaning of the vision, when someone suddenly appeared there beside me.

<sup>16</sup>And from beside the River Ulai, a voice like that of a human said, “Gabriel, help him understand the vision.”

<sup>17</sup>Gabriel came over, and I fell to the ground in fear. Then he said, “You are merely a human, but you need to understand that this vision is about the end of time.”

<sup>18</sup>While he was speaking, I fell face down in a deep sleep. But he lifted me to my feet

<sup>19</sup>and said: Listen, and I will tell you what will happen at the end of time, when God has chosen to show his anger.

<sup>20</sup>The two horns of the ram are the kings of Media and Persia, <sup>21</sup>the goat is the kingdom of Greece, and the powerful horn between his eyes is the first of its kings.

<sup>22</sup>After this horn is broken, four other kingdoms will appear, but they won't be as strong.

<sup>23</sup>When these rulers have become as evil as possible, their power will end, and then a king who is dangerous and cannot be trusted will appear.

<sup>24</sup>He will gain strength, but not on his own, and he will cause terrible destruction. He will wipe out powerful leaders and God's people as well.

<sup>25</sup>His deceitful lies will make him so successful, that he will think he is really great. Suddenly he will kill many people, and he will even attack God, the Supreme Ruler. But God will crush him!

<sup>26</sup>This vision about the evenings and mornings is true, but these things won't happen for a long time, so don't tell it to others.

<sup>27</sup>After this, I was so worn out and weak that it was several days before I could get out of bed and go about my duties for the king. I was disturbed by this vision that made no sense to me.

Daniel 9

Daniel prays for his people

<sup>1-2</sup> Daniel wrote: Some years later, Darius the Mede, who was the son of Xerxes, had become king of Babylonia. And during his first year as king, I found out from studying the writings of the prophets that the LORD had said to Jeremiah, “Jerusalem will lie in ruins for seventy years.”

<sup>3-4</sup> Then, to show my sorrow, I went without eating and dressed in sackcloth and sat in ashes. I confessed my sins and earnestly prayed to the LORD my God: Our Lord, you are a great and fearsome God, and you faithfully keep your agreement with those who love and obey you.

<sup>5</sup> But we have sinned terribly by rebelling against you and rejecting your laws and teachings.

<sup>6</sup> We have ignored the message your servants the prophets spoke to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors, and everyone else.

<sup>7</sup> Everything you do is right, our Lord. But still we suffer public disgrace because we have been unfaithful and have sinned against you. This includes all of us, both far and near—the people of Judah, Jerusalem, and Israel, as well as those you dragged away to foreign lands, <sup>8</sup> and even our kings, our officials, and our ancestors.

<sup>9</sup> LORD God, you are merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against you

<sup>10</sup> and rejected your teachings that came to us from your servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> Everyone in Israel has stubbornly refused to obey your laws, and so those curses written by your servant Moses have fallen upon us.

<sup>12</sup> You warned us and our leaders that Jerusalem would suffer the worst disaster in human history, and you did exactly as you had threatened.

<sup>13</sup> We have not escaped any of the terrible curses written by Moses, and yet we have refused to beg you for mercy and to remind ourselves of how faithful you have always been.

<sup>14</sup>And when you finally punished us with this horrible disaster, that was also the right thing to do, because we deserved it so much.

<sup>15</sup>Our Lord God, with your own mighty arm you rescued us from Egypt and made yourself famous to this very day, but we have sinned terribly.

<sup>16</sup>In the past, you treated us with such kindness, that we now beg you to stop being so terribly angry with Jerusalem. After all, it is your chosen city built on your holy mountain, even though it has suffered public disgrace because of our sins and those of our ancestors.

<sup>17</sup>I am your servant, Lord God, and I beg you to answer my prayers and bring honour to yourself by having pity on your temple that lies in ruins.

<sup>18</sup>Please show mercy to your chosen city, not because we deserve it, but because of your great kindness.

<sup>19</sup>Forgive us! Hurry and do something, not only for your city and your chosen people, but to bring honour to yourself.

The seventy weeks

Daniel wrote:

<sup>20</sup>I was still confessing my sins and those of all Israel to the LORD my God, and I was praying for the good of his holy mountain,

<sup>21</sup>when Gabriel suddenly came flying in at the time of the evening sacrifice. This was the same Gabriel I had seen in my vision, <sup>22</sup>and he explained: Daniel, I am here to help you understand the vision.

<sup>23</sup>God thinks highly of you, and at the very moment you started praying, I was sent to give you the answer.

<sup>24</sup>God has decided that for seventy weeks, your people and your holy city must suffer as the price of their sins. Then evil will disappear, and justice will rule for ever; the visions and words of the prophets will come true, and a most holy place will be dedicated.

<sup>25</sup>You need to realize that from the command to rebuild Jerusalem until the coming of the Chosen Leader, it will be seven weeks and another sixty-two weeks. Streets will be built in Jerusalem, and a trench will be dug around the city for protection, but these will be difficult times.

<sup>26</sup>At the end of the sixty-two weeks, the Chosen Leader will be killed and left with nothing. A foreign ruler and his army will sweep down like a mighty flood, leaving both the city and the temple in ruins, and war and destruction will continue until the end, just as God has decided.

<sup>27</sup>For one week this foreigner will make a firm agreement with many people, and halfway through this week, he will end all sacrifices and offerings. Then the “Horrible Thing” that causes destruction will be put there. And it will stay there until the time God has decided to destroy this one who destroys.

Daniel 10

Daniel has a vision beside the River Tigris

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus the king of Persia, a message came to Daniel from God, and it was explained in a vision. The message was about a horrible war, and it was true.

<sup>2</sup>Daniel wrote: For three weeks I was in sorrow.

<sup>3</sup>I ate no fine food or meat, I drank no wine, and I put no olive oil on my face or hair.

<sup>4</sup>Then, on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was standing on the banks of the great River Tigris, <sup>5</sup> when I looked up and saw someone dressed in linen and wearing a solid gold belt.

<sup>6</sup>His body was like a precious stone, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming fires, his arms and legs like polished bronze, and his voice like the roar of a crowd.

<sup>7</sup>Although the people who were with me did not see the vision, they became so frightened that they scattered and hid.

<sup>8</sup>Only I saw this great vision. I became weak and pale,

<sup>9</sup>and at the sound of his voice, I fell face down in a deep sleep.

<sup>10</sup>He raised me to my hands and knees

<sup>11</sup>and then said, “Daniel, your God thinks highly of you, and he has sent me. So stand up and pay close attention.” I stood trembling, while the angel said:

<sup>12</sup>Daniel, don't be afraid! God has listened to your prayers since the first day you humbly asked for understanding, and he has sent me here.

<sup>13</sup>But the guardian angel of Persia opposed me for twenty-one days. Then Michael, who is one of the strongest guardian angels, came to rescue me from the kings of Persia.

<sup>14</sup>Now I have come here to give you another vision about what will happen to your people in the future.

<sup>15</sup>While this angel was speaking to me, I stared at the ground, speechless.

<sup>16</sup>Then he appeared in human form and touched my lips. I said, “Sir, this vision has brought me great pain and has drained my strength.

<sup>17</sup>I am merely your servant. How can I possibly speak with someone so powerful, when I am almost too weak to get my breath?”

<sup>18-19</sup>The angel touched me a second time and said, “Don't be frightened! God thinks highly of you, and he intends this for your good, so be brave and strong.” At this, I regained my strength and replied, “Please speak! You have already made me feel much better.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the angel said: Now do you understand why I have come? Soon I must leave to fight against the guardian angel of Persia. Then after I have defeated him, the guardian angel of Greece will attack me.

<sup>21</sup>I will tell you what is written in The Book of Truth. But first, you must realize that no one except Michael, the guardian angel of Israel, is on my side.

Daniel 11

<sup>1</sup>You also need to know that I protected and helped Darius the Mede in his first year as king.

The angel's message to Daniel Part one: the four kings and their successors

<sup>2</sup>What I am going to tell you is certain to happen. Four kings will rule Persia, one after the other, but the fourth one will become much richer than the others. In fact, his wealth will make him so powerful that he will turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup>Then a mighty king will come to power and will be able to do whatever he pleases.

<sup>4</sup>But suddenly his kingdom will be crushed and scattered to the four corners of the earth, where four more kingdoms will rise. But these won't be ruled by his descendants or be as powerful as his kingdom.

<sup>5</sup>The king of the south will grow powerful. Then one of his generals will rebel and take over most of the kingdom.

<sup>6</sup>Years later the southern kingdom and the northern kingdom will make a treaty, and the daughter of the king of the south will marry the king of the north. But she will lose her power. Then she, her husband, their child, and the servants who came with her will all be killed. After this,

<sup>7</sup>one of her relatives will become the ruler of the southern kingdom. He will attack the army of the northern kingdom and capture its fortresses.

<sup>8</sup>Then he will carry their idols to Egypt, together with their precious treasures of silver and gold, but it will be a long time before he attacks the northern kingdom again. Some years later

<sup>9</sup>the king of the north will invade the southern kingdom, but he will be forced back to his own country.

<sup>10</sup>The sons of the king of the north will gather a huge army that will sweep down like a roaring flood, reaching all the way to the fortress of the southern kingdom.

<sup>11</sup>But this will make the king of the south angry, and he will defeat this large army from the north.

<sup>12</sup>The king of the south will feel proud because of the many thousands he has killed. But his victories won't last long,

<sup>13</sup>because the king of the north will gather a larger and more powerful army than ever before. Then in a few years, he will start invading other countries.

<sup>14</sup>At this time many of your own people will try to make this vision come true by rebelling against the king of the south, but their rebellion will fail.

<sup>15</sup>Then the army from the north will surround and capture a fortress in the south, and not even the most experienced troops of the southern kingdom will be able to make them retreat.

<sup>16</sup>The king who invaded from the north will do as he pleases, and he will even capture and destroy the holy land.

<sup>17</sup>In fact, he will decide to invade the south with his entire army. Then he will attempt to make peace by giving the king of the south a bride from the northern kingdom, but this won't be successful.

<sup>18</sup>Afterwards, this proud king of the north will invade and conquer many of the nations along the coast, but a military leader will defeat him and make him lose his pride.

<sup>19</sup>He will retreat to his fortresses in his own country, but on the way he will be defeated and never again be seen.

<sup>20</sup>The next king of the north will try to collect taxes for the glory of his kingdom. However, he will come to a sudden end in some mysterious way, instead of in battle or because of someone's anger.

Part two: the evil king from the north

<sup>21</sup>The successor of this king of the north will be a worthless nobody, who doesn't come from a royal family. He will suddenly appear and gain control of the kingdom by treachery.

<sup>22</sup>Then he will destroy armies and remove God's chosen high priest.

<sup>23</sup>He will make a treaty, but he will be deceitful and break it, even though he has only a few followers.

<sup>24</sup>Without warning, he will successfully invade a wealthy province, which is something his ancestors never did. Then he will divide among his followers all of its treasures and property. But none of this will last very long.

<sup>25</sup>He will gather a large and powerful army, and with great courage he will attack the king of the south. The king of the south will meet him with a much stronger army, but he will lose the battle, because he will be betrayed

<sup>26</sup>by members of the royal court. He will be ruined, and most of his army will be slaughtered.

<sup>27</sup>The two kings will meet around a table and tell evil lies to each other. But their plans will fail, because God has already decided what will happen.

<sup>28</sup>Then the king of the north will return to his country with great treasures. But on the way, he will attack the religion of God's people and do whatever else he pleases.

<sup>29</sup>At the time God has decided, the king of the north will invade the southern kingdom again, but this time, things will be different.

<sup>30</sup>Ships from the west will come to attack him, and he will be discouraged. Then he will start back to his own country and take out his anger on the religion of God's faithful people, while showing kindness to those who are unfaithful.

<sup>31</sup>He will send troops to pollute the temple and the fortress, and he will stop the daily sacrifices. Then he will set up that "Horrible Thing" that causes destruction.

<sup>32</sup>The king will use deceit to win followers from those who are unfaithful to God, but those who remain faithful will do everything possible to oppose him.

<sup>33</sup>Wise leaders will instruct many of the people. But for a while, some of these leaders will either be killed with swords or burnt alive, or else robbed of their possessions and thrown into prison.

<sup>34</sup>They will receive only a little help in their time of trouble, and many of their followers will be treacherous.

<sup>35</sup>Some of those who are wise will suffer, so that God will make them pure and acceptable until the end, which will still come at the time he has decided.

<sup>36</sup>This king will do as he pleases. He will proudly claim to be greater than any god and will insult the only true God. Indeed, he will be successful until God is no longer angry with his people.

<sup>37</sup>This king will reject the gods his ancestors worshipped and the god preferred by women. In fact, he will put himself above all gods

<sup>38</sup>and worship only the so called god of fortresses, who was unknown to his ancestors. And he will honour it with gold, silver, precious stones, and other costly gifts.

<sup>39</sup>With the help of this foreign god, he will capture the strongest fortresses. Everyone who worships this god will be put in a position of power and rewarded with wealth and land.

Part three: the time of the end

<sup>40</sup>At the time of the end, the king of the south will attack the kingdom of the north. But its king will rush out like a storm with war chariots, cavalry, and many ships. Indeed, his forces will flood one country after another,

<sup>41</sup>and when they reach the holy land, tens of thousands will be killed. But the countries of Edom and Moab and the ruler of Ammon will escape.

<sup>42</sup>The king of the north will invade many countries, including Egypt,

<sup>43</sup>and he will take its rich treasures of gold and silver. He will also conquer Libya and Ethiopia.

<sup>44</sup>But he will be alarmed by news from the east and the north, and he will become furious and cause great destruction.

<sup>45</sup>After this, he will set up camp between the Mediterranean Sea and Mount Zion. Then he will be destroyed, and no one will be able to save him.

Daniel 12

Part four: the dead will rise to life

<sup>1</sup>Michael, the chief of the angels, is the protector of your people, and he will come at a time of terrible suffering, the worst in all of history. And your people who have their names written in The Book will be protected.

<sup>2</sup>Many of those who lie dead in the ground will rise from death. Some of them will be given eternal life, and others will receive nothing but eternal shame and disgrace.

<sup>3</sup>Everyone who has been wise will shine as bright as the sky above, and everyone who has led others to please God will shine like the stars.

<sup>4</sup>Daniel, I now command you to keep the message of this book secret until the end of time, even though many people will go everywhere, searching for the knowledge to be found in it.

The end of time

<sup>5</sup>Daniel wrote: I looked around and saw two other people—one on this side of the river and one on the other side.

<sup>6</sup>The angel who had spoken to me was dressed in linen and was standing upstream from them. So one of the two beside the river asked him, “How long before these amazing things happen?”

<sup>7</sup>The angel then raised both hands towards heaven and said, “In the name of the God who lives for ever, I solemnly promise that it will be a time, two times, and half a time. Everything will be over, when the suffering of God's holy people comes to an end.”

<sup>8</sup>I heard what the angel said, but I didn't understand. So I asked, “Sir, how will it all end?” The angel in my vision then replied:

<sup>9</sup>Daniel, go about your business, because the meaning of this message will remain secret until the end of time.

<sup>10</sup>Many people will have their hearts and lives made pure and clean, but those who are evil will keep on being evil and never understand. Only the wise will understand.

<sup>11</sup>There will be one thousand two hundred and ninety days from the time that the daily sacrifices are stopped, until someone sets up the “Horrible Thing” that causes destruction.

<sup>12</sup>God will bless everyone who patiently waits until one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days have gone by.

<sup>13</sup>So, Daniel, be faithful until the end! You will rest, and at the end of time, you will rise from death to receive your reward.

Hosea

Hosea 1

Hosea's family is a picture of the Lord's unfaithful people

<sup>1</sup> I am Hosea son of Beerī. When Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were the kings of Judah, and when Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel, the LORD spoke this message to me.

Hosea's family

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said, “Hosea, Israel has betrayed me like an unfaithful wife. Marry such a woman and have children by her.”

<sup>3</sup> So I married Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and we had a son.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said, “Hosea, name your son Jezreel, because I will soon punish the descendants of King Jehu of Israel for the murders he committed in Jezreel Valley. I will destroy his kingdom, <sup>5</sup> and in Jezreel Valley I will break the power of Israel.”

<sup>6</sup> Later, Gomer had a daughter, and the LORD said, “Name her Lo-Ruhamah, because I will no longer have mercy and forgive Israel.

<sup>7</sup> But I am the LORD God of Judah, and I will have mercy and save Judah by my own power—not by wars and arrows or swords and cavalry.”

<sup>8</sup> After Gomer had stopped nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she had another son.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said, “Name him Lo-Ammi, because these people are not mine, and I am not their God.”

Hope for Israel

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup> Some day it will be impossible to count the people of Israel, because there will be as many of them as there are grains of sand along the seashore. They are now called “Not My People”, but in the future they will be called “Children of the Living God”.

<sup>11</sup>Israel and Judah will unite and choose one leader. Then they will take back their land, and this will be a great day for Jezreel.

Hosea 2

<sup>1</sup>So let your brothers be called “My People” and your sisters be called “Shown Mercy”.

The LORD promises to punish Israel

<sup>2</sup>Accuse! Accuse your mother! She is no longer my wife, and now I, the LORD, am not her husband. Beg her to give up prostitution and stop being unfaithful, <sup>3</sup>or I will strip her naked like the day she was born. I will make her barren like a desert, and she will die of thirst.

<sup>4</sup>You children are the result of her unfaithfulness, and I'll show you no pity.

<sup>5</sup>Your mother was unfaithful. She was disgraceful and said, “I'll run after my lovers. Everything comes from them— my food and drink, my linen and wool, my olive oil and wine.”

<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD, will build a fence of thorns to block her path.

<sup>7</sup>She will run after her lovers, but not catch them; she will search, but not find them. Then she will say, “I'll return to my first husband. Life was better then.”

<sup>8</sup>She didn't know that her grain, wine, and olive oil were gifts from me, as were the gold and silver she used in worshipping Baal.

<sup>9</sup>So I'll hold back the harvest of grain and grapes. I'll take back my wool and my linen that cover her body.

<sup>10</sup>Then I'll strip her naked in the sight of her lovers. No one can rescue her.

<sup>11</sup>I'll stop Israel's celebrations— no more New Moon Festivals, Sabbaths, or other feasts.

<sup>12</sup>She said, “My lovers gave me vineyards and fig trees as payment for sex.” Now I, the LORD, will ruin her vineyards and fig trees; they will become clumps of weeds eaten by wild animals.

<sup>13</sup>I’ll punish her for the days she worshipped Baal and burnt incense to him. I’ll punish her for the times she forgot about me and wore jewellery and rings to attract her lovers. I, the LORD, have spoken!

The LORD will help Israel

<sup>14</sup>Israel, I, the LORD, will lure you into the desert and speak gently to you.

<sup>15</sup>I will return your vineyards, and then Trouble Valley will become Hopeful Valley. You will say “Yes” to me as you did in your youth, when leaving Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>I promise that from that day on, you will call me your husband instead of your master.

<sup>17</sup>I will no longer even let you mention the names of those pagan gods that you called “Master”.

<sup>18</sup>And I will agree to let you live in peace—you will no longer be attacked by wild animals and birds or by weapons of war.

<sup>19</sup>I will accept you as my wife for ever, and instead of a bride price I will give you justice, fairness, love, kindness,

<sup>20</sup>and faithfulness. Then you will truly know who I am.

<sup>21</sup>I will command the sky to send rain on the earth,

<sup>22</sup>and it will produce grain, grapes, and olives in Jezreel Valley.

<sup>23</sup>I will scatter the seeds and show mercy to Lo-Ruhamah. I will say to Lo-Ammi, “You are my people,” and they will answer, “You are our God.”

Hosea 3

God's love offers hope

<sup>1</sup>Once again the LORD spoke to me. And this time he said, “Hosea, fall in love with an unfaithful woman who has a lover. Do this to show that I love the people of Israel, even though they worship idols and enjoy the offering cakes made with fruit.”

<sup>2</sup>So I paid fifteen pieces of silver and about a hundred and fifty kilogrammes of grain for such a woman.

<sup>3</sup>Then I said, “Now you are mine! You will have to remain faithful to me, though it will be a long time before we sleep together.”

<sup>4</sup>It will also be a long time before Israel has a king or before sacrifices are offered at the temple or before there is any way to get guidance from God.

<sup>5</sup>But later, Israel will turn back to the LORD their God and to David their king. At that time they will come to the LORD with fear and trembling, and he will be good to them.

Hosea 4

The Lord accuses Israel, Judah, and their leaders Israel is unfaithful

<sup>1</sup>Israel, listen as the LORD accuses everyone in the land! No one is faithful or loyal or truly cares about God.

<sup>2</sup>Cursing, dishonesty, murder, robbery, unfaithfulness— these happen all the time. Violence is everywhere.

<sup>3</sup>And so your land is a desert. Every living creature is dying— people and wild animals, birds and fish.

The LORD warns the priests

<sup>4</sup>Don't accuse just anyone! Not everyone is at fault. My case is against you, the priests.

<sup>5</sup>You and the prophets will stumble day and night; I'll silence your mothers.

<sup>6</sup>You priests have rejected me, and my people are destroyed by refusing to obey. Now I'll reject you and forget your children, because you have forgotten my Law.

<sup>7</sup>By adding more of you priests, you multiply the number of people who sin. Now I'll change your pride into shame.

<sup>8</sup>You encourage others to sin, so you can stuff yourselves on their sin offerings.

<sup>9</sup>That's why I will punish the people for their deeds, just as I will punish you priests.

<sup>10</sup>Their food won't satisfy, and having sex at pagan shrines won't produce children. My people have rebelled

<sup>11</sup>and have been unfaithful to me, their LORD.

God condemns Israel's idolatry

My people, you are foolish because of too much pleasure and too much wine.

<sup>12</sup>You expect wooden idols and other objects of wood to give you advice. Lusting for sex at pagan shrines has made you unfaithful to me, your God.

<sup>13</sup>You offer sacrifices on mountaintops and hills, under oak trees, and wherever good shade is found. Your own daughters and daughters-in-law sell themselves for sex.

<sup>14</sup>But I won't punish them. You men are to blame, because you go to prostitutes and offer sacrifices with them at pagan shrines. Your own foolishness will lead to your ruin.

<sup>15</sup>Israel, you are unfaithful, but don't lead Judah to sin. Stop worshipping at Gilgal or at sinful Bethel. And stop making promises in my name— the name of the living LORD.

<sup>16</sup>You are nothing more than a stubborn cow— so stubborn that I, the LORD, cannot feed you like lambs in an open pasture.

<sup>17</sup>You people of Israel are charmed by idols. Leave them alone!

<sup>18</sup>You get drunk, then sleep with prostitutes; you would rather be vulgar than lead a decent life.

<sup>19</sup>And so you will be swept away in a whirlwind for sacrificing to idols.

Hosea 5

Israel and Judah will be judged

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Listen, you priests! Pay attention, Israel! Listen, you members of the royal family. Justice was your duty. But at Mizpah and Mount Tabor you trapped the people.

<sup>2</sup>At the place of worship you were a treacherous pit, and I will punish you.

<sup>3</sup>Israel, I know all about you, and because of your unfaithfulness, I find you unacceptable.

<sup>4</sup>Your evil deeds are the reason you won't return to me, your LORD God. And your constant craving for sex keeps you from knowing me.

<sup>5</sup>Israel, your pride testifies to your guilt; it makes you stumble, and Judah stumbles too.

<sup>6</sup>You offer sheep and cattle as sacrifices to me, but I have turned away and refuse to be found.

<sup>7</sup>You have been unfaithful to me, your LORD; you have had children by prostitutes. So at the New Moon Festival, you and your crops will be destroyed.

The LORD warns Israel and Judah

<sup>8</sup>Give a warning on the trumpet! Let it be heard in Gibeah, Ramah, and sinful Bethel. Benjamin, watch out!

<sup>9</sup>I, the LORD, will punish and wipe out Israel. This is my solemn promise to every tribe of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Judah's leaders are like crooks who move boundary markers; that's why I will flood them with my anger.

<sup>11</sup>Israel was brutally crushed. They got what they deserved for worshipping useless idols.

<sup>12</sup>Now I, the LORD, will fill Israel with maggots and make Judah rot.

<sup>13</sup>When Israel and Judah saw their sickness and wounds, Israel asked help from Assyria and its mighty king. But the king cannot cure them or heal their wounds.

<sup>14</sup>So I'll become a fierce lion attacking Israel and Judah. I'll snatch and carry off what I want, and no one can stop me.

<sup>15</sup>Then I'll return to my temple until they confess their guilt and worship me, until they are desperate and beg for my help.

Hosea 6

The people pretend to turn to the Lord The LORD's people speak

<sup>1</sup>Let's return to the LORD. He has torn us to shreds, but he will bandage our wounds and make us well.

<sup>2</sup>In two or three days he will heal us and restore our strength that we may live with him.

<sup>3</sup>Let's do our best to know the LORD. His coming is as certain as the morning sun; he will refresh us like rain renewing the earth in the springtime.

The LORD speaks to Israel and Judah

<sup>4</sup>People of Israel and Judah, what can I do with you? Your love for me disappears more quickly than mist or dew at sunrise.

<sup>5</sup>That's why I slaughtered you with the words of my prophets. That's why my judgments blazed like the dawning sun.

<sup>6</sup>I'd rather you were faithful and knew me than offered sacrifices.

<sup>7</sup>At a place named Adam, you betrayed me by breaking our agreement.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone in Gilead is evil; your hands are stained with the blood of victims.

<sup>9</sup>You priests are like a gang of robbers in ambush. On the road to Shechem you murder and commit other horrible crimes.

<sup>10</sup>I have seen a terrible thing in Israel— you are unfaithful and unfit to worship me.

<sup>11</sup>People of Judah, your time is coming too.

The LORD wants to help Israel

I, the LORD, would like to make my nation prosper again

Hosea 7

<sup>1</sup>and to heal its wounds. But then I see the crimes in Israel and Samaria. Everyone is deceitful; robbers roam the streets.

<sup>2</sup>No one realizes that I have seen their sins surround them like a flood.

<sup>3</sup>The king and his officials take great pleasure in their sin and deceit.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone burns with desire— they are like coals in an oven, ready to burst into flames.

<sup>5</sup>On the day their king was crowned, his officials got him drunk, and he joined in their foolishness.

<sup>6</sup>Their anger is a fire that smoulders all night, then flares up at dawn.

<sup>7</sup>They are flames destroying their leaders. And their kings are powerless; none of them trust me.

<sup>8</sup>The people of Israel have mixed with foreigners; they are a thin piece of bread scorched on one side.

<sup>9</sup>They don't seem to realize how weak and feeble they are; their hair has turned grey, while foreigners rule.

<sup>10</sup>I am the LORD, their God, but in all their troubles their pride keeps them from returning to me.

Israel refused to trust the Lord
No help from foreign nations

The LORD said:

<sup>11</sup>Israel is a senseless bird, fluttering back and forth between Egypt and Assyria.

<sup>12</sup>But I will catch them in a net as hunters trap birds; I threatened to punish them, and indeed I will.

<sup>13</sup>Trouble and destruction will be their reward for rejecting me. I would have rescued them, but they told me lies.

<sup>14</sup>They don't really pray to me; they just howl in their beds. They have rejected me for Baal and slashed themselves, in the hope that Baal will bless their crops.

<sup>15</sup>I taught them what they know, and I made them strong. Now they plot against me

<sup>16</sup>and refuse to obey. They are more useless than a crooked arrow. Their leaders will die in war for saying foolish things. Egyptians will laugh at them.

Hosea 8

Israel rejects the LORD

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Sound a warning! Israel, you broke our agreement and ignored my teaching. Now an eagle is swooping down to attack my land.

<sup>2</sup>Israel, you say, "We claim you, the LORD, as our God."

<sup>3</sup>But your enemies will chase you for rejecting our good agreement.

<sup>4</sup>You chose kings and leaders without consulting me; you made silver and gold idols that led to your downfall.

<sup>5</sup>City of Samaria, I'm angry because of your idol in the shape of a calf. When will you ever be innocent again?

<sup>6</sup>Someone from Israel built that idol for you, but only I am God. And so it will be smashed to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>If you scatter wind instead of wheat, you will harvest a whirlwind and have no wheat. Even if you harvest grain, enemies will steal it all.

<sup>8</sup>Israel, you are ruined, and now the nations consider you worthless.

<sup>9</sup>You are like a wild donkey that goes its own way. You've run off to Assyria and hired them as allies.

<sup>10</sup>You can bargain with nations, but I'll catch you anyway. Soon you will suffer abuse by kings and rulers.

<sup>11</sup>Israel, you have built many altars where you offer sacrifices for sin. But these altars have become places for sin.

<sup>12</sup>My instructions for sacrifices were written in detail, but you ignored them.

<sup>13</sup>You sacrifice your best animals and eat the sacrificial meals, but I, the LORD, refuse your offerings. I will remember your sins and punish you. Then you will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>Israel, I created you, but you forgot me. You and Judah built palaces and many strong cities. Now I will send fire to destroy your towns and fortresses.

Hosea 9

Israel will get the punishment it deserves

<sup>1</sup>Israel, don't celebrate or make noisy shouts like other nations. You have been unfaithful to your God. Wherever grain is threshed, you behave like prostitutes because you enjoy the money you receive.

<sup>2</sup>But you will run short of grain and wine,

<sup>3</sup>and you will have to leave the land of the LORD. Some of you will go to Egypt; others will go to Assyria and eat unclean food.

<sup>4</sup>You won't be able to offer sacrifices of wine to the LORD. None of your sacrifices will please him— they will be unclean like food offered to the dead. Your food will only be used to satisfy your hunger; none of it will be brought to the LORD's temple.

<sup>5</sup>You will no longer be able to celebrate the festival of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Even if you escape alive, you will end up in Egypt and be buried in Memphis. Your silver treasures will be lost among weeds; thorns will sprout in your tents.

<sup>7</sup> Israel, the time has come. You will get what you deserve, and you will know it. “Prophets are fools,” you say. “And God's messengers are mad.” Your terrible guilt has filled you with hatred.

<sup>8</sup> Israel, the LORD sent me to look after you. But you trap his prophets and flood his temple with your hatred.

<sup>9</sup> You are brutal and corrupt, as were the men of Gibeah. But God remembers your sin, and you will be punished.

Sin's terrible results

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup> Israel, when I, the LORD, found you long ago it was like finding grapes in a barren desert or tender young figs. Then you worshipped Baal-Peor, that disgusting idol, and you became as disgusting as the idol you loved.

<sup>11</sup> And so, Israel, your glory will fly away like birds— your women will no longer be able to give birth.

<sup>12</sup> Even if you do have children, I will take them all and leave you to mourn. I will turn away, and you will sink down in deep trouble.

<sup>13</sup> Israel, when I first met you, I thought of you as palm trees growing in fertile ground. Now you lead your people out, only to be slaughtered.

Hosea's advice

<sup>14</sup> Our LORD, do just one thing for your people— make their women unable to have children or to nurse their babies.

The LORD's judgment on Israel

<sup>15</sup> Israel, I first began to hate you because you did evil at Gilgal. Now I will chase you out of my house. No longer will I love you; your leaders betrayed me.

<sup>16</sup> Israel, you are a vine with dried up roots and fruitless branches. Even if you had more children and loved them dearly, I would slaughter them all.

Warnings for Israel

<sup>17</sup>Israel, you disobeyed my God. Now he will force you to roam from nation to nation.

Hosea 10

<sup>1</sup>You were a healthy vine covered with grapes. But the more grapes you grew, the more altars you built; the better off you became, the better shrines you set up for pagan gods.

<sup>2</sup>You are deceitful and disloyal. So you will pay for your sins, because the LORD will destroy your altars and images.

<sup>3</sup>“We don't have a king,” you will say. “We don't fear the LORD. And what good are kings?”

<sup>4</sup>Israel, you break treaties and don't keep promises; you turn justice into poisonous weeds where healthy plants should grow.

<sup>5</sup>All who live in Samaria tremble with concern for the idols at sinful Bethel. The idol there was the pride of the priests, but it has been put to shame; now everyone will cry.

<sup>6</sup>It will be taken to Assyria and given to the great king. Then Israel will be disgraced for worshipping that idol.

<sup>7</sup>Like a twig in a stream, the king of Samaria will be swept away.

<sup>8</sup>The altars at sinful Bethel will be destroyed for causing Israel to sin; they will be overgrown with thorns and thistles. Then everyone will beg the mountains and hills to cover and protect them.

The LORD promises to punish Israel

<sup>9</sup>Israel, you have never stopped sinning since that time at Gibeah. That's why you will be attacked at Gibeah.

<sup>10</sup>Your sins have doubled, and you are rebellious. Now I have decided to send nations to attack and put you in chains.

<sup>11</sup>Once you were obedient like a calf that loved to thresh grain. But I will put a harness on your powerful neck; you and Judah must plough and cultivate the ground.

<sup>12</sup>Plough your fields, scatter seeds of justice, and harvest faithfulness. Worship me, the LORD, and I will send my saving power down like rain.

<sup>13</sup>You have planted evil, harvested injustice, and eaten the fruit of your lies. You trusted your own strength and your powerful forces.

<sup>14</sup>So war will break out, and your fortresses will be destroyed. Your enemies will do to you what Shalman did to the people of Beth-Arbel— mothers and their children will be beaten to death against rocks.

<sup>15</sup>Bethel, this will be your fate because of your evil. Israel, at dawn your king will be killed.

Hosea 11

God's love for his people

<sup>1</sup>When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>But as the saying goes, “The more they were called, the more they rebelled.” They never stopped offering incense and sacrifices to the idols of Baal.

<sup>3</sup>I took Israel by the arm and taught them to walk. But they would not admit that I was the one who had healed them.

<sup>4</sup>I led them with kindness and with love, not with ropes. I held them close to me; I bent down to feed them.

<sup>5</sup>But they trusted Egypt instead of returning to me; now Assyria will rule them.

<sup>6</sup>War will visit their cities, and their plans will fail.

<sup>7</sup>My people are determined to reject me for a god they think is stronger, but he can't help.

<sup>8</sup>Israel, I can't let you go. I can't give you up. How could I possibly destroy you as I did the towns of Admah and Zeboiim? I just can't do it. My feelings for you are much too strong.

<sup>9</sup>Israel, I won't lose my temper and destroy you again. I am the Holy God—not merely a human being, and I won't stay angry.

<sup>10</sup>I, the LORD, will roar like a lion, and my children will return, trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup>They will come back, fluttering like birds from Egypt or like doves from Assyria. Then I will bring them back to their homes. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Israel and Judah are doomed Israel and Judah compared <sup>12</sup>Israel is deceitful to me, their loyal and holy God; they surround me with lies, and Judah worships other gods.

Hosea 12

<sup>1</sup>All day long Israel chases wind from the desert; deceit and violence are found everywhere. Treaties are made with Assyria; olive oil is taken to Egypt.

Israel and Judah condemned

<sup>2</sup>The LORD also brings charges against the people of Judah, the descendants of Jacob. He will punish them for what they have done.

<sup>3</sup> Even before Jacob was born, he cheated his brother, and when he grew up, he fought against God.

<sup>4</sup> At Bethel, Jacob wrestled with an angel and won; then with tears in his eyes, he asked for a blessing, and God spoke to us there.

<sup>5</sup>God's name is the LORD, the LORD God All-Powerful.

<sup>6</sup>So return to your God. Patiently trust him, and show love and justice.

<sup>7</sup>Israel, you enjoy cheating and taking advantage of others.

<sup>8</sup>You say to yourself, “I’m rich! I earned it all on my own, without committing a sin.”

The LORD is still the God of Israel

<sup>9</sup>Israel, I, the LORD, am still your God, just as I have been since the time you were in Egypt. Now I will force you to live in tents once again, as you did in the desert.

<sup>10</sup>I spoke to the prophets— often I spoke in visions. And so, I will send my prophets with messages of doom.

<sup>11</sup>Gilead is terribly sinful and will end up ruined. Bulls are sacrificed in Gilgal on altars made of stones, but those stones will be scattered in every field.

<sup>12</sup>Jacob escaped to Syria where he tended sheep to earn himself a wife.

<sup>13</sup>I sent the prophet Moses to lead Israel from Egypt and to keep them safe.

<sup>14</sup>Israel, I will make you pay for your terrible sins and for insulting me.

Hosea 13

Israel is doomed

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>When your leaders spoke, everyone in Israel trembled and showed great respect. But you sinned by worshipping Baal, and you were destroyed.

<sup>2</sup>Now you continue to sin by designing and making idols of silver in the shape of calves. You are told to sacrifice to these idols— yes, even to kiss them.

<sup>3</sup>And so, all of you will vanish like the mist or the dew of early morning, or husks of grain in the wind or smoke from a chimney.

<sup>4</sup>I, the LORD, have been your God since the time you were in Egypt. I am the only God you know, the only one who can save.

<sup>5</sup>I took care of you in a thirsty desert.

<sup>6</sup>I fed you till you were satisfied, then you became proud and forgot about me.

- <sup>7</sup>Now I will attack like a lion, ambush you like a leopard,
<sup>8</sup>and rip you apart like a bear robbed of her cubs. I will gnaw on your bones, as though I were a lion or some other wild animal.
<sup>9</sup>Israel, you are done for. Don't expect help from me.
<sup>10</sup>You wanted a king and rulers. Where is your king now? What cities have rulers?
<sup>11</sup>In my anger, I gave you a king; in my fury, I took him away.

Israel's terrible fate

The LORD said:

- <sup>12</sup>Israel, your terrible sins are written down and stored away.
<sup>13</sup>You are like a senseless child who refuses to be born at the proper time.
<sup>14</sup>Should I, the LORD, rescue you from death and the grave? No! I call death and the grave to strike you like a plague. I refuse to show mercy.
<sup>15</sup>No matter how much you prosper more than the other tribes, I, the LORD, will wipe you out, just as a scorching desert wind dries up streams of water. I will take away your precious treasures.
<sup>16</sup>Samaria will be punished for turning against me. It will be destroyed in war— children will be beaten against rocks, and pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea 14

Future forgiveness and blessings Turn back to the LORD

- <sup>1</sup>Israel, return! Come back to the LORD, your God. Sin has made you fall.
<sup>2</sup>Return to the LORD and say, "Please forgive our sins. Accept our good sacrifices of praise instead of bulls.
<sup>3</sup>Assyria can't save us, and chariots can't help. So we will no longer worship the idols we have made. Our LORD, you show mercy to orphans."

The LORD promises to forgive

<sup>4</sup>Israel, you have rejected me, but my anger is gone; I will heal you and love you without limit.

<sup>5</sup>I will be like the dew— then you will blossom like lilies and have roots like a tree.

<sup>6</sup>Your branches will spread with the beauty of an olive tree and with the aroma of Lebanon Forest.

<sup>7</sup>You will rest in my shade, and your grain will grow. You will blossom like a vineyard and be famous as the wine from Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup>Israel, give up your idols! I will answer your prayers and take care of you. I am that glorious tree, the source of your fruit.

<sup>9</sup>If you are wise, you will know and understand what I mean. I am the LORD, and I lead you along the right path. If you obey me, we will walk together, but if you are wicked, you will stumble.

Joel

Joel 1

Locusts and an enemy army

<sup>1</sup>I am Joel the son of Pethuel. And this is the message the LORD gave to me.

Locusts cover the land

<sup>2</sup>Listen, you leaders and everyone else in the land. Has anything like this ever happened before?

<sup>3</sup>Tell our children! Let it be told to our grandchildren and their children too.

<sup>4</sup>Swarm after swarm of locusts has attacked our crops, eating everything in sight.

<sup>5</sup>Sober up, you drunkards! Cry long and loud; your wine supply is gone.

<sup>6</sup>A powerful nation with countless troops has invaded our land. They have the teeth and jaws of powerful lions.

<sup>7</sup>Our grapevines and fig trees are stripped bare; only naked branches remain.

<sup>8</sup>Grieve like a young woman mourning for the man she was to marry.

<sup>9</sup>Offerings of grain and wine are no longer brought to the LORD's temple. His servants, the priests, are deep in sorrow.

<sup>10</sup>Barren fields mourn; grain, grapes, and olives are scorched and shrivelled.

<sup>11</sup>Mourn for our farms and our vineyards! There's no wheat or barley growing in our fields.

<sup>12</sup>Grapevines have dried up and so has every tree— figs and pomegranates, date palms and apples. All happiness has faded away.

Return to God

<sup>13</sup>Mourn, you priests who serve at the altar of my God. Spend your days and nights wearing sackcloth. Offerings of grain and wine are no longer brought to the LORD's temple.

<sup>14</sup>Tell the leaders and people to come together at the temple. Order them to go without eating and to pray sincerely.

<sup>15</sup>We are in for trouble! Soon the LORD All-Powerful will bring disaster.

<sup>16</sup>Our food is already gone; there's no more celebrating at the temple of our God.

<sup>17</sup>Seeds dry up in the ground; no harvest is possible. Our barns are in bad shape, with no grain to store in them.

<sup>18</sup>Our cattle wander aimlessly, moaning for lack of pasture, and sheep are suffering.

<sup>19</sup>I cry out to you, LORD. Grasslands and forests are eaten by the scorching heat.

<sup>20</sup>Wild animals have no water because of you; rivers and streams are dry, and pastures are parched.

Joel 2

Locusts and an enemy army

<sup>1</sup>Sound the trumpet on Zion, the LORD's sacred hill. Warn everyone to tremble! The judgment day of the LORD is coming soon.

<sup>2</sup>It will be dark and gloomy with storm clouds overhead. Troops will cover the mountains like thunderclouds. No army this powerful has ever been gathered before or will ever be again.

<sup>3</sup>Fiery flames surround them; no one escapes. Before they invaded, the land was like Eden; now only a desert remains.

<sup>4</sup>They look like horses and charge like cavalry.

<sup>5</sup>They roar over mountains like noisy chariots, or a mighty army ready for battle. They are a forest fire that feasts on straw.

<sup>6</sup>The very sight of them is frightening.

<sup>7</sup>They climb over walls like warriors; they march in columns and never turn aside.

<sup>8</sup>They charge straight ahead, without pushing each other; even arrows and spears cannot make them retreat.

<sup>9</sup>They swarm over city walls and enter our homes; they crawl in through windows, just like thieves.

<sup>10</sup>They make the earth tremble and the heavens shake; the sun and moon turn dark, and stars stop shining.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD God leads this army of countless troops, and they obey his commands. The day of his judgment is so terrible that no one can stand it.

The LORD's invitation

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said: It isn't too late. You can still return to me with all your heart. Start crying and mourning! Go without eating.

<sup>13</sup>Don't rip your clothes to show your sorrow. Instead, turn back to me with broken hearts. I am merciful, kind, and caring. I don't easily lose my temper, and I don't like to punish.

<sup>14</sup>I am the LORD your God. Perhaps I will change my mind and treat you with mercy. Then you will be blessed with enough grain and wine for offering sacrifices to me.

<sup>15</sup>Sound the trumpet on Zion! Call the people together. Show your sorrow by going without food.

<sup>16</sup>Make sure that everyone is fit to worship me. Bring adults, children, babies, and even bring newlyweds from their festivities.

<sup>17</sup>Tell my servants, the priests, to cry inside the temple and to offer this prayer near the altar: "Save your people, LORD God! Don't let foreign nations make jokes about us. Don't let them laugh and ask, 'Where is your God?' "

The Lord will bless his people
The LORD will bless the land

<sup>18</sup>The LORD was deeply concerned about his land and had pity on his people.

<sup>19</sup>In answer to their prayers he said, “I will give you enough grain, wine, and olive oil to satisfy your needs. No longer will I let you be insulted by the nations.

<sup>20</sup>An army attacked from the north, but I will chase it into a scorching desert. There it will rot and stink from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean.”
The LORD works wonders

<sup>21</sup>and does great things. So tell the soil to celebrate

<sup>22</sup>and wild animals to stop being afraid. Grasslands are green again; fruit trees and fig trees are loaded with fruit. Grapevines are covered with grapes.

<sup>23</sup>People of Zion, celebrate in honour of the LORD your God! He is generous and has sent the autumn and spring rains in the proper seasons.

<sup>24</sup>Grain will cover your threshing places; jars will overflow with wine and olive oil.

The LORD will rescue his people

<sup>25</sup>I, the LORD your God, will make up for the losses caused by those swarms and swarms of locusts I sent to attack you.

<sup>26</sup>My people, you will eat until you are satisfied. Then you will praise me for the wonderful things I have done. Never again will you be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup>Israel, you will know that I stand at your side. I am the LORD your God—there are no other gods. Never again will you be put to shame.

The LORD will work wonders

The LORD said:

<sup>28</sup>Later, I will give my Spirit to everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will have dreams, and your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>In those days I will even give my Spirit to my servants, both men and women.

<sup>30</sup>I will work wonders in the sky above and on the earth below. There will be blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>31</sup>The sun will turn dark, and the moon will be as red as blood before that great and terrible day when I appear.

<sup>32</sup>Then the LORD will save everyone who faithfully worships him. He has promised there will be survivors on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and among them will be his chosen ones.

Joel 3

The Lord will punish the nations

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>At that time I, the LORD, will make Judah and Jerusalem prosperous again.

<sup>2</sup>Then in Judgment Valley I will bring together the nations that scattered my people Israel everywhere in the world, and I will bring charges against those nations. They divided up my land

<sup>3</sup>and gambled to see who would get my people; they sold boys and girls to pay for prostitutes and wine.

<sup>4</sup>You people of Tyre and Sidon and you Philistines, why are you doing this? Are you trying to get even with me? I'll strike back before you know what's happened.

<sup>5</sup>You've taken my prized possessions, including my silver and gold, and carried them off to your temples.

<sup>6</sup>You have dragged the people of Judah and Jerusalem from their land and sold them to the Greeks.

<sup>7</sup>But I'll make the people of Judah determined to come home, and what happened to them will happen to you.

<sup>8</sup>I'll hand over your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, who live far away. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Judgment in Judgment Valley

The LORD said:

<sup>9</sup>Say to the nations: "Get ready for war! Be eager to fight. Line up for battle and prepare to attack.

<sup>10</sup>Make swords out of ploughs and spears out of garden tools. Strengthen every weakling."

<sup>11</sup>Hurry, all you nations! Come quickly. Ask the LORD to bring his warriors along.

<sup>12</sup>You must come now to Judgment Valley, where the LORD will judge the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup>They are a field of ripe crops. Bring in the harvest! They are grapes piled high. Start trampling them now! If our enemy's sins were wine, every jar would overflow.

<sup>14</sup>Crowds fill Decision Valley. The judgment day of the LORD will soon be here—

<sup>15</sup>no light from the sun or moon, and stars no longer shine.

<sup>16</sup>From the heart of Jerusalem the LORD roars like a lion, shaking the earth and sky. But the LORD is a fortress, a place of safety for his people Israel.

God will bless his people

<sup>17</sup>I am the LORD your God. And you will know I live on Zion, my sacred hill, because Jerusalem will be sacred, untouched by foreign troops.

<sup>18</sup>On that day, fruitful vineyards will cover the mountains. And your cattle and goats that graze on the hills will produce a lot of milk. Streams in Judah will never run dry; a stream from my house will flow in Acacia Valley.

<sup>19</sup>Egypt and Edom were cruel and brutal to Judah, without a reason. Now their countries will become a barren desert, <sup>20</sup>but Judah and Jerusalem will always have people.

<sup>21</sup>I, the LORD, live on Mount Zion. I will punish the guilty and defend the innocent.

Amos

Amos 1

Crimes of the nations will be punished

<sup>1</sup> I am Amos. And I raised sheep near the town of Tekoa when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel. Two years before the earthquake, the LORD gave me several messages about Israel, <sup>2</sup> and I said: When the LORD roars from Jerusalem, pasture lands and Mount Carmel dry up and turn brown.

Judgment on Syria

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said: I will punish Syria for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They dragged logs with spikes over the people of Gilead.

<sup>4</sup> Now I will burn down the palaces and fortresses of King Hazael and of King Benhadad.

<sup>5</sup> I will break through the gates of Damascus. I will destroy the people of Wicked Valley and the ruler of Beth-Eden. Then the Syrians will be dragged as prisoners to Kir. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Judgment on Philistia

<sup>6</sup> The LORD said: I will punish Philistia for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They dragged off my people from town after town to sell them as slaves to the Edomites.

<sup>7</sup> That's why I will burn down the walls and fortresses of the city of Gaza.

<sup>8</sup> I will destroy the king of Ashdod and the ruler of Ashkelon. I will strike down Ekron, and that will be the end of the Philistines. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Judgment on Phoenicia

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said: I will punish Phoenicia for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They broke their treaty and dragged off my people from town after town to sell them as slaves to the Edomites.

<sup>10</sup>That's why I will send flames to burn down the city of Tyre along with its fortresses.

Judgment on Edom

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said: I will punish Edom for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They killed their own relatives and were so terribly furious that they showed no mercy.

<sup>12</sup>Now I will send fire to wipe out the fortresses of Teman and Bozrah.

Judgment on Ammon

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said: I will punish Ammon for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. In Gilead they ripped open pregnant women, just to take the land.

<sup>14</sup>Now I will send fire to destroy the walls and fortresses of Rabbah. Enemies will shout and attack like a whirlwind.

<sup>15</sup>Ammon's king and leaders will be dragged away. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Amos 2

Judgment on Moab

<sup>1</sup>The LORD said: I will punish Moab for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They made lime from the bones of the king of Edom.

<sup>2</sup>Now I will send fire to destroy the fortresses of Kerioth. Battle shouts and trumpet blasts will be heard as I destroy Moab <sup>3</sup>with its king and leaders. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Judgment on Judah

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said: I will punish Judah for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They have rejected my teachings and refused to obey me. They were led astray by the same false gods their ancestors worshipped.

<sup>5</sup>Now I will send fire on Judah and destroy the fortresses of Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said: I will punish Israel for countless crimes, and I won't change my mind. They sell honest people for money, and the needy are sold for the price of sandals.

<sup>7</sup>They throw the poor to the ground and push aside those who are helpless. My holy name is dishonoured, because fathers and sons sleep with the same young women.

<sup>8</sup>They lie down beside altars on clothes taken as security for loans. And they drink wine in my temple, wine bought with the money they received from fines.

<sup>9</sup>Israel, the Amorites were there when you entered Canaan. They were tall as cedars and strong as oaks. But I wiped them out— I destroyed their branches and their roots.

<sup>10</sup>I had rescued you from Egypt, and for forty years I had led you through the desert. Then I gave you the land of the Amorites.

<sup>11</sup>I chose some of you to be prophets and others to be Nazirites. People of Israel, you know this is true. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>12</sup>But you commanded the prophets not to speak their message, and you pressured the Nazirites into drinking wine.

<sup>13</sup>And so I will crush you, just as a wagon full of grain crushes the ground.

<sup>14</sup>No matter how fast you run, you won't escape. No matter how strong you are, you will lose your strength and your life.

<sup>15</sup>Even if you are an expert with a bow and arrow, you will retreat. And you won't get away alive, not even if you run fast or ride a horse.

<sup>16</sup>You may be brave and strong, but you will run away, stripped naked. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Amos 3

<sup>1</sup>People of Israel, I rescued you from Egypt. Now listen to my judgment against you.

<sup>2</sup>Of all nations on earth, you are the only one I have chosen. That's why I will punish you because of your sins.

Israel and Samaria will be destroyed
The work of a prophet

<sup>3</sup>Can two people walk together without agreeing to meet?

<sup>4</sup>Does a lion roar in the forest unless it has caught a victim? Does it growl in its den unless it is eating?

<sup>5</sup>How can anyone catch a bird without using a net? Does a trap spring shut unless something is caught?

<sup>6</sup>Isn't the whole city frightened when the trumpet signals an attack? Isn't it the LORD who brings disaster on a city?

<sup>7</sup>Whatever the LORD God plans to do, he tells his servants, the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone is terrified when a lion roars— and ordinary people become prophets when the LORD God speaks.

Samaria is doomed

<sup>9</sup>Here is a message for the leaders of Philistia and Egypt— tell everyone to come together on the hills of Samaria. Let them see the injustice and the lawlessness in that city.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has said that they don't even know how to do right. They have become rich from violence and robbery.

<sup>11</sup>And so the LORD God has sworn that they will be surrounded. Enemies will break through their defences and steal their treasures.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD has promised that only a few from Samaria will escape with their lives and with some broken pieces of their beds and couches. It will be like when a shepherd rescues two leg bones and part of a sheep's ear from the jaws of a lion.

The altars at Bethel

<sup>13</sup>The LORD God All-Powerful told me to speak this message against Jacob's descendants:

<sup>14</sup>When I, the LORD, punish Israel for their sins, I will destroy the altars at Bethel. Even the corners of the altar will be left in the dust.

<sup>15</sup>I will tear down winter homes and summer homes. Houses decorated with ivory and all other mansions will be gone for ever. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Amos 4

The women of Samaria

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>You women of Samaria are fat cows! You ill-treat and abuse the poor and needy, then you say to your husbands, “Bring us more drinks!”

<sup>2</sup>I, the LORD God, have sworn by my own name that your time is coming. Not one of you will be left—you will be taken away by sharp hooks.

<sup>3</sup>You will be dragged through holes in your city walls, and you will be thrown towards Harmon. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Israel refuses to obey

The LORD said:

<sup>4</sup>Come to Bethel and Gilgal. Sin all you want! Offer sacrifices the next morning and bring a tenth of your crops on the third day.

<sup>5</sup>Bring offerings to show me how thankful you are. Gladly bring more offerings than I have demanded. You really love to do this. I, the LORD God, have spoken!

How the LORD warned Israel

<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD, took away the food from every town and village, but still you rejected me.

<sup>7</sup>Three months before harvest, I kept back the rain. Sometimes I would let it fall on one town or field but not on another, and pastures dried up.

<sup>8</sup>People from two or three towns would go to a town that still had water, but it wasn't enough. Even then you rejected me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>9</sup>I dried up your grain fields; your gardens and vineyards turned brown. Locusts ate your fig trees and olive orchards, but even then you rejected me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>10</sup>I did terrible things to you, just as I did to Egypt— I killed your young men in war; I let your horses be stolen, and I made your camp stink with dead bodies. Even then you rejected me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>11</sup>I destroyed many of you, just as I did the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. You were a burning stick I rescued from the fire. Even then you rejected me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>12</sup>Now, Israel, I myself will deal with you. Get ready to face your God!

<sup>13</sup>I created the mountains and the wind. I let humans know what I am thinking. I bring darkness at dawn and step over hills. I am the LORD God All-Powerful!

Amos 5

Turn back to the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Listen, nation of Israel, to my mournful message:

<sup>2</sup>you, dearest Israel, have fallen, never to rise again— you lie deserted in your own land, with no one to help you up.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD God has warned, “From every ten soldiers only one will be left; from a thousand troops, only a hundred will survive.”

<sup>4</sup>The LORD keeps saying, “Israel, turn back to me and you will live!

<sup>5</sup>Don't go to Gilgal or Bethel or even to Beersheba. Gilgal will be dragged away, and Bethel will end up as nothing.”

<sup>6</sup>Turn back to the LORD, you descendants of Joseph, and you will live. If you don't, the LORD will attack like fire. Bethel will burn to the ground, and no one can save it.

<sup>7</sup>You people are doomed! You twist the truth and trample on justice.

<sup>8</sup>But the LORD created the stars and put them in place. He turns darkness to dawn and daylight to darkness; he scoops up the ocean and empties it on the earth.

<sup>9</sup>God destroys mighty soldiers and strong fortresses.

Choose good instead of evil!

The LORD said:

<sup>10</sup>You people hate judges and honest witnesses;

<sup>11</sup>you abuse the poor and demand heavy taxes from them. You have built expensive homes, but you won't enjoy them; you have planted vineyards, but you will get no wine.

<sup>12</sup>I am the LORD, and I know your terrible sins. You cheat honest people and take bribes; you rob the poor of justice.

<sup>13</sup>Times are so evil that anyone with good sense will keep quiet.

<sup>14</sup>If you really want to live, you must stop doing wrong and start doing right. I, the LORD God All-Powerful, will then be on your side, just as you claim I am.

<sup>15</sup>Choose good instead of evil! See that justice is done. Perhaps I, the LORD All-Powerful, will be kind to what's left of your people.

Judgment is coming

<sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD has sworn: Noisy crying will be heard in every town and street. Even farmers will be told to mourn for the dead, together with those who are paid to mourn.

<sup>17</sup>Your vineyards will be filled with crying and weeping, because I will punish you. I, the LORD, have spoken!

When the LORD judges

<sup>18</sup>You look forward to the day when the LORD comes to judge. But you are in for trouble! It won't be a time of sunshine; all will be darkness.

<sup>19</sup>You will run from a lion, only to meet a bear. You will escape to your house, rest your hand on the wall, and be bitten by a snake.

<sup>20</sup>The day when the LORD judges will be dark, very dark, without a ray of light.

What the LORD demands

The LORD said:

<sup>21</sup>I, the LORD, hate and despise your religious celebrations and your times of worship.

<sup>22</sup>I won't accept your offerings or animal sacrifices— not even your very best.

<sup>23</sup>No more of your noisy songs! I won't listen when you play your harps.

<sup>24</sup>But let justice and fairness flow like a river that never runs dry.

<sup>25</sup>Israel, for forty years you wandered in the desert, without bringing offerings or sacrifices to me.

<sup>26</sup>Now you will have to carry the two idols you made— Sakkuth, the one you call king, and Kaiwan, the one you built in the shape of a star.

<sup>27</sup>I will force you to march as captives beyond Damascus. I, the LORD God All-Powerful, have spoken!

Amos 6

Israel will be punished

<sup>1</sup>Do you rulers in Jerusalem and in the city of Samaria feel safe and at ease? Everyone bows down to you, and you think you are better than any other nation. But you are in for trouble!

<sup>2</sup>Look what happened to the cities of Calneh, powerful Hamath, and Gath in Philistia. Are you greater than any of those kingdoms?

<sup>3</sup>You are cruel, and you forget the coming day of judgment.

<sup>4</sup>You rich people lounge around on beds with ivory posts, while dining on the meat of your lambs and calves.

<sup>5</sup>You sing foolish songs to the music of harps, and you make up new tunes, just as David used to do.

<sup>6</sup>You drink all the wine you want and wear expensive perfume, but you don't care about the ruin of your nation.

<sup>7</sup>So you will be the first to be dragged off as captives; your good times will end.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD God All-Powerful has sworn by his own name: "You descendants of Jacob make me angry by your pride, and I hate your fortresses. And so I will surrender your city and possessions to your enemies."

<sup>9</sup>If only ten of you survive by hiding in a house you will still die.

<sup>10</sup>As you carry out a corpse to prepare it for burial, your relative in the house will ask, "Are there others?" You will answer, "No!" Then your relative will reply, "Be quiet! Don't dare mention the name of the LORD."

<sup>11</sup>At the LORD's command, houses great and small will be smashed to pieces.

<sup>12</sup>Horses can't gallop on rocks; oceans can't be ploughed. But you have turned justice and fairness into bitter poison.

<sup>13</sup>You celebrate the defeat of Lo-Debar and Karnaim, and you boast by saying, "We did it on our own."

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD God All-Powerful will send a nation to attack you people of Israel. They will capture Lebo-Hamath in the north, Arabah Brook in the south, and everything in between.

Amos 7

Five visions of Israel's punishment A vision of locusts

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God showed me that he is going to send locusts to attack your crops. It will happen after the king has already been given his share of the grain and before the rest of the grain has been harvested.

<sup>2</sup>In my vision the locusts ate every crop in the land, and I said to the LORD, “Forgive me for asking, but how can the nation survive? It's so weak.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD felt sorry and answered, “I won't let it be destroyed.”

A vision of fire

<sup>4</sup>The LORD showed me that he is going to send a ball of fire to burn up everything on earth, including the sea.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, “Won't you please stop? How can our weak nation survive?”

<sup>6</sup>Again the LORD felt sorry and answered, “I won't let it be destroyed.”

A vision of a measuring line

<sup>7</sup>The LORD showed me a vision of himself standing beside a wall and holding a string with a weight tied to the end of it. The string and weight had been used to measure the straightness of the wall.

<sup>8</sup>Then he asked, “Amos, what do you see?” “A measuring line,” I answered. The LORD said, “I'm using this measuring line to show that my people Israel don't measure up, and I won't forgive them any more.

<sup>9</sup>Their sacred places will be destroyed, and I will send war against the nation of King Jeroboam.”

Amos and Amaziah

<sup>10</sup>Amaziah the priest at Bethel sent this message to King Jeroboam of Israel, “Amos is plotting against you in the very heart of Israel. Our nation cannot put up with his message for very long.

<sup>11</sup>Here is what he is saying: ‘Jeroboam will be put to death, and the people will be taken to a foreign country. ’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Then Amaziah told me, “Amos, take your visions and get out! Go back to Judah and earn your living there as a prophet.

<sup>13</sup>Don't do any more preaching at Bethel. The king worships here at our national temple.”

<sup>14</sup>I answered: I'm not a prophet! And I wasn't trained to be a prophet. I am a shepherd, and I take care of fig trees.

<sup>15</sup>But the LORD told me to leave my herds and preach to the people of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>And here you are, telling me not to preach!

<sup>17</sup>Now, listen to what the LORD says about you: Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, your sons and daughters will be killed in war, and your land will be divided among others. You will die in a country of foreigners, and the people of Israel will be dragged from their homeland.

Amos 8

A basket of fruit

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God showed me a basket of ripe fruit

<sup>2</sup>and asked, "Amos, what do you see?" "A basket of ripe fruit," I replied. Then he said, "This is the end for my people Israel. I won't forgive them again.

<sup>3</sup>Instead of singing in the temple, they will cry and weep. Dead bodies will be everywhere. So keep silent! I, the LORD, have spoken!"

Israel is doomed

The LORD said:

<sup>4</sup>You people crush those in need and wipe out the poor.

<sup>5</sup>You say to yourselves, "How much longer before the end of the New Moon Festival? When will the Sabbath be over? Our wheat is ready, and we want to sell it now. We can't wait to cheat and charge high prices for the grain we sell. We will use dishonest scales

<sup>6</sup>and mix dust in the grain. Those who are needy and poor don't have any money. We will make them our slaves for the price of a pair of sandals."

<sup>7</sup>I, the LORD, won't forget any of this, though you take great pride in your ancestor Jacob.

<sup>8</sup>Your country will tremble, and you will mourn. It will be like the River Nile that rises and overflows, then sinks back down.

<sup>9</sup>On that day, I, the LORD God, will make the sun go down at midday, and I will turn daylight into darkness.

<sup>10</sup>Your festivals and joyful singing will turn into sorrow. You will wear sackcloth and shave your heads, as you would at the death of your only son. It will be a horrible day.

<sup>11</sup>I, the LORD, also promise you a terrible shortage, but not of food and water. You will hunger and thirst to hear my message.

<sup>12</sup>You will search everywhere— from north to south, from east to west. You will go all over the earth, seeking a message from me, the LORD. But you won't find one.

<sup>13</sup>Your beautiful young women and your young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup>You made promises in the name of Ashimah, the goddess of Samaria. And you made vows in my name at the shrines of Dan and Beersheba. But you will fall and never get up.

Amos 9

Judgment on Israel

<sup>1</sup>I saw a vision of the LORD standing by the temple altar, and he said, “Shake the columns until the tops fall loose, and the doorposts crumble. Then make the pieces fall on the people below. I will take a sword and kill anyone who escapes.

<sup>2</sup>“If they dig deep into the earth or climb to the sky, I'll reach out and get them.

<sup>3</sup>If they escape to the peaks of Mount Carmel, I'll search and find them. And if they hide from me at the bottom of the ocean, I'll command a sea monster to bite them.

<sup>4</sup>I'll send a sword to kill them, wherever their enemies drag them off as captives. I'm determined to hurt them, not to help them.”

His name is the LORD

<sup>5</sup>When the LORD God All-Powerful touches the earth, it melts, and its people mourn. God makes the earth rise and then fall, just like the River Nile.

<sup>6</sup>He built his palace in the heavens and let its foundations rest on the earth. He scoops up the ocean and empties it on the earth. His name is the LORD.

The LORD is God

<sup>7</sup>Israel, I am the LORD God, and the Ethiopians are no less important to me than you are. I brought you out of Egypt, but I also brought the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir.

<sup>8</sup>My eyes have seen what a sinful nation you are, and I'll wipe you out. But I will leave a few of Jacob's descendants. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>9</sup>At my command, all of you will be sifted like grain. Israelites who remain faithful will be scattered among the nations. And the others will be trapped like rubbish in a sieve.

<sup>10</sup>Some of you are evil, and you deny that you will ever get caught. But you will be killed.

Israel's bright future The LORD's promise to Israel

<sup>11</sup>In the future, I will rebuild David's fallen kingdom. I will build it from its ruins and set it up again, just as it used to be.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will capture Edom and the other nations that are mine. I, the LORD, have spoken, and my words will come true.

<sup>13</sup>You will have such a harvest that you won't be able to bring in all your wheat before ploughing time. You will have grapes left over from season to season; your fruitful vineyards will cover the mountains.

<sup>14</sup>I'll make Israel prosper again. You will rebuild your towns and live in them. You will drink wine from your own vineyards and eat the fruit you grow.

<sup>15</sup>I'll plant your roots deep in the land I have given you, and you won't ever be uprooted again. I, the LORD God, have spoken!

Obadiah

Obadiah 1

Edom's pride and punishment

<sup>1</sup>The LORD God gave Obadiah a message about Edom, and this is what we heard: “I, the LORD, have sent a messenger with orders for the nations to attack Edom.”

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Edom: I will make you the weakest and most despised nation.

<sup>3</sup>You live in a mountain fortress, because your pride makes you feel safe from attack, but you are mistaken.

<sup>4</sup>I will still bring you down, even if you fly higher than an eagle or nest among the stars. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>5</sup>If thieves break in at night, they steal only what they want. And people who harvest grapes always leave some unpicked. But, Edom, you are doomed!

<sup>6</sup>Everything you treasure most will be taken from you.

<sup>7</sup>Your allies can't be trusted. They will force you out of your own country. Your best friends will trick and trap you, even before you know it.

<sup>8</sup>Edom, when this happens, I, the LORD, will destroy all your marvellous wisdom.

<sup>9</sup>Warriors from the city of Teman will be terrified, and you descendants of Esau will be wiped out.

Edom's cruelty

The LORD condemns Edom's cruelty

<sup>10</sup>You were cruel to your relatives, the descendants of Jacob. Now you will be destroyed, disgraced for ever.

<sup>11</sup>You stood there and watched as foreigners entered Jerusalem and took what they wanted. In fact, you were no better than those foreigners.

<sup>12</sup>Why did you celebrate when such a dreadful disaster struck your relatives? Why were you so pleased when everyone in Judah was suffering?

<sup>13</sup>They are my people, and you were cruel to them. You went through their towns, sneering and stealing whatever was left.

<sup>14</sup>In their time of torment, you ambushed refugees and handed them over to their attackers.

Victory for Israel The LORD will judge the nations

<sup>15</sup>The day is coming when I, the LORD, will judge the nations. And, Edom, you will pay in full for what you have done.

<sup>16</sup>I forced the people of Judah to drink the wine of my anger on my sacred mountain. Soon the neighbouring nations must drink their fill— then vanish without a trace.

Victory for Israel

<sup>17</sup>The LORD's people who escape will go to Mount Zion, and it will be holy. Then Jacob's descendants will capture the land of those who took their land.

<sup>18</sup>Israel will be a fire, and Edom will be straw going up in flames. The LORD has spoken!

<sup>19</sup>The people of Israel who live in the Southern Desert will take the land of Edom. Those who live in the hills will capture Philistia, Ephraim, and Samaria. And the tribe of Benjamin will conquer Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>Those who return from captivity will control Phoenicia as far as Zarephath. Captives from Jerusalem who were taken to Sepharad will capture the towns of the Southern Desert.

<sup>21</sup>Those the LORD has saved will live on Mount Zion and rule over Edom. Then the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

Jonah

Jonah 1

Jonah runs from the Lord

<sup>1</sup> One day the LORD told Jonah, the son of Amittai,

<sup>2</sup> to go to the great city of Nineveh and say to the people, “The LORD has seen your terrible sins. You are doomed!”

<sup>3</sup> Instead, Jonah ran from the LORD. He went to the seaport of Joppa and bought a ticket on a ship that was going to Spain. Then he got on the ship and sailed away to escape.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD made a strong wind blow, and such a bad storm came up that the ship was about to be broken to pieces.

<sup>5</sup> The sailors were frightened, and they all started praying to their gods. They even threw the ship's cargo overboard to make the ship lighter. All this time, Jonah was down below deck, sound asleep.

<sup>6</sup> The ship's captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep at a time like this? Get up and pray to your God! Perhaps he will have pity on us and keep us from drowning.”

<sup>7</sup> Finally, the sailors got together and said, “Let's ask our gods to show us who caused all this trouble.” It turned out to be Jonah.

<sup>8</sup> They started asking him, “Are you the one who brought all this trouble on us? What business are you in? Where do you come from? What is your country? Who are your people?”

<sup>9</sup> Jonah answered, “I'm a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup> When the sailors heard this, they were frightened, because Jonah had already told them he was running from the LORD. Then they said, “Do you know what you have done?”

<sup>11</sup>The storm kept getting worse, until finally the sailors asked him, “What should we do with you to make the sea calm down?”

<sup>12</sup>Jonah told them, “Throw me into the sea, and it will calm down. I'm the cause of this terrible storm.”

<sup>13</sup>The sailors tried their best to row to the shore. But they could not do it, and the storm kept getting worse every minute.

<sup>14</sup>So they prayed to the LORD, “Please don't let us drown for taking this man's life. Don't hold us guilty for killing an innocent man. All this happened because you wanted it to.”

<sup>15</sup>Then they threw Jonah overboard, and the sea calmed down.

<sup>16</sup>The sailors were so terrified that they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made all kinds of promises.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD sent a big fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

Jonah prays to the Lord

<sup>1</sup>From inside the fish, Jonah prayed to the LORD his God:

<sup>2</sup>When I was in trouble, LORD, I prayed to you, and you listened to me. From deep in the world of the dead, I begged for your help, and you answered my prayer.

<sup>3</sup>You threw me down to the bottom of the sea. The water was churning all around; I was completely covered by your mighty waves.

<sup>4</sup>I thought I was swept away from your sight, never again to see your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup>I was almost drowned by the swirling waters that surrounded me. Seaweed had wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I had sunk down below the underwater mountains; I knew that for ever, I would be a prisoner there. But, you, LORD God, rescued me from that pit.

<sup>7</sup>When my life was slipping away, I remembered you— and in your holy temple you heard my prayer.

<sup>8</sup>All who worship worthless idols turn from the God who offers them mercy.

<sup>9</sup>But with shouts of praise, I will offer a sacrifice to you, my LORD. I will keep my promise, because you are the one with power to save.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD commanded the fish to vomit up Jonah on the shore. And it did.

Jonah 3

Jonah goes to Nineveh, and its people believe God's message

<sup>1</sup>Once again the LORD told Jonah

<sup>2</sup>to go to that great city of Nineveh and preach his message of doom.

<sup>3</sup>Jonah obeyed the LORD and went to Nineveh. The city was so big that it took three days just to walk through it.

<sup>4</sup>After walking for a day, Jonah warned the people, “Forty days from now, Nineveh will be destroyed!”

<sup>5</sup>They believed God's message and set a time when they would go without eating to show their sorrow. Then everyone in the city, no matter who they were, dressed in sackcloth.

<sup>6</sup>When the king of Nineveh heard what was happening, he also dressed in sackcloth; he left the royal palace and sat in dust.

<sup>7-9</sup>Then he and his officials sent out an order for everyone in the city to obey. It said: None of you or your animals may eat or drink a thing. Each of you must wear sackcloth, and you must even put sackcloth on your animals. You must also pray to the LORD God with all your heart and stop being sinful and cruel. Perhaps God will change his mind and have mercy on us, so we won't be destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>When God saw that the people had stopped doing evil things, he had pity and did not destroy them as he had planned.

Jonah 4

Jonah is angry because the Lord showed mercy

<sup>1</sup>Jonah was really upset and angry.

<sup>2</sup>So he prayed: Our LORD, I knew from the very beginning that you wouldn't destroy Nineveh. That's why I left my own country and headed for Spain. You are a kind and merciful God, and you are very patient. You always show love, and you don't like to punish anyone, not even foreigners.

<sup>3</sup>Now let me die! I'd be better off dead.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD replied, "What right do you have to be angry?"

<sup>5</sup>Jonah then left through the east gate of the city and made a shelter to protect himself from the sun. He sat under the shelter, waiting to see what would happen to Nineveh.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD made a vine grow up to shade Jonah's head and protect him from the sun. Jonah was very happy to have the vine, <sup>7</sup>but early the next morning the LORD sent a worm to chew on the vine, and the vine dried up.

<sup>8</sup>During the day the LORD sent a scorching wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head, making him feel faint. Jonah was ready to die, and he shouted, "I wish I were dead!"

<sup>9</sup>But the LORD asked, "Jonah, do you have the right to be angry about the vine?" "Yes, I do," he answered, "and I'm angry enough to die."

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD said: You are concerned about a vine that you did not plant or take care of, a vine that grew up in one night and died the next.

<sup>11</sup>In that city of Nineveh there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell right from wrong, and many cattle are also there. Don't you think I should be concerned about that big city?

Micah

Micah 1

The Lord will punish his people

<sup>1</sup>I am Micah from Moresheth. And this is the message about Samaria and Jerusalem that the LORD gave to me when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were the kings of Judah.

Judgment on Samaria

<sup>2</sup>Listen, all of you! Earth and everything on it, pay close attention. The LORD God accuses you from his holy temple.

<sup>3</sup>And he will come down to crush underfoot every pagan altar.

<sup>4</sup>Mountains will melt beneath his feet like wax beside a fire. Valleys will vanish like water rushing down a ravine.

<sup>5</sup>This will happen because of the terrible sins of Israel, the descendants of Jacob. Samaria has led Israel to sin, and pagan altars at Jerusalem have made Judah sin.

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD will leave Samaria in ruins— merely an empty field where vineyards are planted. He will scatter its stones and destroy its foundations.

<sup>7</sup>Samaria's idols will be smashed, and the wages of temple prostitutes will be destroyed by fire. Silver and gold from those idols will then be used by foreigners as payment for prostitutes.

Judah is doomed

<sup>8</sup>Because of this tragedy, I go barefoot and naked. My crying and weeping sound like howling wolves or ostriches.

<sup>9</sup>The nation is fatally wounded. Judah is doomed. Jerusalem will fall.

<sup>10</sup>Don't tell it in Gath! Don't even cry. Instead, roll in the dust at Beth-Leaphrah.

<sup>11</sup>Depart naked and ashamed, you people of Shaphir. The town of Bethazel mourns because no one from Zaanan went out to help.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone in Maroth hoped for the best, but the LORD sent disaster down on Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Get the war chariots ready, you people of Lachish. You led Jerusalem into sin, just as Israel did.

<sup>14</sup>Now you will have to give a going-away gift to Moresheth. Israel's kings will discover that they cannot trust the town of Achzib.

<sup>15</sup>People of Mareshah, the LORD will send someone to capture your town. Then Israel's glorious king will be forced to hide in Adullam Cave.

<sup>16</sup>Judah, shave your head as bald as a vulture and start mourning. Your precious children will be dragged off to a foreign country.

Micah 2

Punishment for those who abuse their power

<sup>1</sup>Doomed! You're doomed! At night you lie in bed, making evil plans. And when morning comes, you do what you've planned because you have the power.

<sup>2</sup>You grab any field or house that you want; you cheat families out of homes and land.

<sup>3</sup>But here is what the LORD says: "I am planning trouble for you. Your necks will be caught in a noose, and you will be disgraced in this time of disaster."

<sup>4</sup>When that happens, this sorrowful song will be sung about you: "Ruined! Completely ruined! The LORD has taken our land and given it to traitors."

<sup>5</sup>And so you will never again own property among the LORD's people.

<sup>6</sup>"Enough of your preaching!" That's what you tell me. "We won't be disgraced, so stop preaching!"

<sup>7</sup>Descendants of Jacob, is it right for you to claim that the LORD did what he did because he was angry? Doesn't he always bless those who do right?

<sup>8</sup>My people, you have even stolen clothes right off the backs of your unsuspecting soldiers returning home from battle.

<sup>9</sup>You take over lovely homes that belong to the women of my nation. Then you cheat their children out of the inheritance that comes from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Get out of here, you crooks! You'll find no rest here. You're not fit to belong to the LORD's people, and you will be destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>The only prophet you want is a liar who will say, "Drink and get drunk!"

A promise of hope

The LORD said:

<sup>12</sup>I, the LORD, promise to bring together the people of Israel who have survived. I will gather them, just as a shepherd brings sheep together, and there will be many.

<sup>13</sup>I will break down the gate and lead them out— then I will be their king.

Micah 3

The Lord will punish evil rulers and lying prophets

<sup>1</sup>Listen to me, you rulers of Israel! You know right from wrong,

<sup>2</sup>but you prefer to do evil instead of what is right. You skin my people alive. You strip off their flesh,

<sup>3</sup>break their bones, cook it all in a pot, and gulp it down.

<sup>4</sup>Some day you will beg the LORD to help you, but he will turn away because of your sins.

<sup>5</sup>You lying prophets promise security for anyone who gives you food, but disaster for anyone who refuses to feed you. Here is what the LORD says to you prophets:

<sup>6</sup>"You will live in the dark, far from the sight of the sun, with no message from me.

<sup>7</sup>You prophets and fortune-tellers will all be disgraced, with no message from me."

<sup>8</sup>But the LORD has filled me with power and his Spirit. I have been given the courage to speak about justice and to tell you people of Israel that you have sinned.

<sup>9</sup>So listen to my message, you rulers of Israel! You hate justice and twist the truth.

<sup>10</sup>You make cruelty and murder a way of life in Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>You leaders accept bribes for dishonest decisions. You priests and prophets teach and preach, but only for money. Then you say, “The LORD is on our side. No harm will come to us.”

<sup>12</sup>And so, because of you, Jerusalem will be ploughed under and left in ruins. Thorns will cover the mountain where the temple now stands.

Micah 4

A new temple in a new Israel Peace and prosperity

<sup>1</sup>In the future, the mountain with the LORD's temple will be the highest of all. It will reach above the hills, and every nation will rush to it.

<sup>2</sup>People of many nations will come and say, “Let's go up to the mountain of the LORD God of Jacob and worship in his temple.” The LORD will teach us his Law from Jerusalem, and we will obey him.

<sup>3</sup>He will settle arguments between distant and powerful nations. They will beat their swords and their spears into rakes and shovels; they will never again make war or attack one another.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone will find rest beneath their own fig trees or grapevines, and they will live in peace. This is a solemn promise of the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>5</sup>Others may follow their gods, but we will always follow the LORD our God.

The LORD will lead his people home

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said: At that time I will gather my people— the lame and the outcasts, and all into whose lives I have brought sorrow.

<sup>7</sup>Then the lame and the outcasts will belong to my people and become a strong nation. I, the LORD, will rule them from Mount Zion for ever.

<sup>8</sup>Mount Zion in Jerusalem, guardian of my people, you will rule again.

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem, why are you crying? Don't you have a king? Have your advisers gone? Are you suffering like a woman in childbirth?

<sup>10</sup>Keep on groaning with pain, you people of Jerusalem! If you escape from your city to the countryside, you will still be taken as prisoners to Babylonia. But later I will rescue you from your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Zion, because of your sins you are surrounded by many nations who say, "We can hardly wait to see you disgraced."

<sup>12</sup>But they don't know that I, the LORD, have gathered them here to grind them like grain.

<sup>13</sup>Smash them to pieces, Zion! I'll let you be like a bull with iron horns and bronze hoofs. Crush those nations and bring their wealth to me, the LORD of the earth.

Micah 5

A promised ruler

<sup>1</sup>Jerusalem, enemy troops have surrounded you; they have struck Israel's ruler in the face with a stick.

<sup>2</sup>Bethlehem Ephrath, you are one of the smallest towns in the nation of Judah. But the LORD will choose one of your people to rule the nation—someone whose family goes back to ancient times.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will abandon Israel only until this ruler is born, and the rest of his family returns to Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Like a shepherd taking care of his sheep, this ruler will lead and care for his people by the power and glorious name of the LORD his God. His people will live securely, and the whole earth will know his true greatness, <sup>5</sup>because he will bring peace.

Assyria will be defeated

Let Assyria attack our country and our palaces. We will counter-attack, led by a number of rulers

<sup>6</sup> whose strong army will defeat the nation of Assyria. Yes, our leaders will rescue us, if those Assyrians dare to invade our land.

The survivors will be safe

<sup>7</sup> A few of Jacob's descendants survived and are scattered among the nations. But the LORD will let them cover the earth like dew and rain that refreshes the soil.

<sup>8</sup> At present they are scattered, but later they will attack, as though they were fierce lions pouncing on sheep. Their enemies will be torn to shreds, with no one to save them;

<sup>9</sup> they will be helpless, completely destroyed.

Idols will be destroyed in Israel

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said: At that time I will wipe out your cavalry and chariots, <sup>11</sup> as well as your cities and your fortresses.

<sup>12</sup> I will stop you from telling fortunes and practising witchcraft.

<sup>13</sup> You will no longer worship the idols or stone images you have made— I will destroy them, <sup>14</sup> together with the sacred poles and even your towns.

<sup>15</sup> I will become furious and take revenge on the nations that refuse to obey me.

Micah 6

Israel is declared guilty The LORD's challenge to his people

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to his people: Come and present your case to the hills and mountains.

<sup>2</sup>Israel, I am bringing charges against you— I call upon the mountains and the earth's firm foundation to be my witnesses.

<sup>3</sup>My people, have I wronged you in any way at all? Please tell me.

<sup>4</sup>I rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves. I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to be your leaders.

<sup>5</sup>Don't forget the evil plans of King Balak of Moab or what Balaam son of Beor said to him. Remember how I, the LORD, saved you many times on your way from Acacia to Gilgal.

True obedience

<sup>6</sup>What offering should I bring when I bow down to worship the LORD God Most High? Should I try to please him by sacrificing calves a year old?

<sup>7</sup>Will thousands of sheep or rivers of olive oil make God satisfied with me? Should I sacrifice to the LORD my firstborn child as payment for my terrible sins?

<sup>8</sup>The LORD God has told us what is right and what he demands: “See that justice is done, let mercy be your first concern, and humbly obey your God.”

Cheating and violence

The LORD said:

<sup>9</sup>I am the LORD, and it makes sense to respect my power to punish. So listen to my message for the city of Jerusalem:

<sup>10</sup>You store up stolen treasures and use dishonest scales.

<sup>11</sup>But I, the LORD, will punish you for cheating with weights and with measures.

<sup>12</sup>You rich people are violent, and everyone tells lies.

<sup>13</sup>Because of your sins, I will wound you and leave you ruined and defenceless.

<sup>14</sup>You will eat, but still be hungry; you will store up goods, but lose everything— I, the LORD, will let it all be captured in war.

<sup>15</sup>You won't harvest what you plant or use the oil from your olive trees or drink the wine from grapes you grow.

<sup>16</sup>Jerusalem, this will happen because you followed the sinful example of kings Omri and Ahab. Now I will destroy you and your property. Then the people of every nation will make fun and insult you.

Micah 7

Israel is corrupt

<sup>1</sup>I feel so empty inside— like someone starving for grapes or figs, after the vines and trees have all been picked clean.

<sup>2</sup>No one is loyal to God; no one does right. Everyone is brutal and eager to deceive everyone else.

<sup>3</sup>People cooperate to commit crime. Judges and leaders demand bribes, and rulers cheat in court.

<sup>4</sup>The most honest of them is worse than a thorn patch. Your doom has come! Lookouts sound the warning, and everyone panics.

<sup>5</sup>Don't trust anyone, not even your best friend, and be careful what you say to the one you love.

<sup>6</sup>Sons refuse to respect their own fathers, daughters rebel against their own mothers, and daughters-in-law despise their mothers-in-law. Your family is now your enemy.

<sup>7</sup>But I trust the LORD God to save me, and I will wait for him to answer my prayer.

The nation turns to God

<sup>8</sup>My enemies, don't be glad because of my troubles! I may have fallen, but I will get up; I may be sitting in the dark, but the LORD is my light.

<sup>9</sup>I have sinned against the LORD. And so I must endure his anger, until he comes to my defence. But I know that I will see him making things right for me and leading me to the light.

<sup>10</sup>You, my enemies, said, “The LORD God is helpless.” Now each of you will be disgraced and put to shame. I will see you trampled like mud in the street.

A bright future

<sup>11</sup>Towns of Judah, the day is coming when your walls will be rebuilt, and your boundaries enlarged.

<sup>12</sup>People will flock to you from Assyria and Egypt, from Babylonia and everywhere else.

<sup>13</sup>Those nations will suffer disaster because of what they did.

Micah's prayer and the LORD's answer

<sup>14</sup>Lead your people, LORD! Come and be our shepherd. Grasslands surround us, but we live in a forest. So lead us to Bashan and Gilead, and let us find pasture as we did long ago.

The LORD said:

<sup>15</sup>I, the LORD, will work miracles just as I did when I led you out of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>Nations will see this and be ashamed because of their helpless armies. They will be in shock, unable to speak or hear, <sup>17</sup>because of their fear of me, your LORD and God. Then they will come trembling, crawling out of their fortresses like insects or snakes, lapping up the dust.

No one is like God

The people said:

<sup>18</sup>Our God, no one is like you. We are all that is left of your chosen people, and you freely forgive our sin and guilt. You don't stay angry for ever; you're glad to have pity

<sup>19</sup>and pleased to be merciful. You will trample on our sins and throw them in the sea.

<sup>20</sup>You will keep your word and be faithful to Jacob and to Abraham, as you promised our ancestors many years ago.

Nahum

Nahum 1

The fierce anger of the Lord

<sup>1</sup>I am Nahum from Elkosh. And this is the message that I wrote down about Nineveh.

The fierce anger of the LORD

<sup>2</sup>The LORD God demands loyalty. In his anger, he takes revenge on his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is powerful, yet patient; he makes sure that the guilty are always punished. He can be seen in storms and in whirlwinds; clouds are the dust from his feet.

<sup>4</sup>At the LORD's command, oceans and rivers dry up. Bashan, Mount Carmel, and Lebanon wither, and their flowers fade.

<sup>5</sup>At the sight of the LORD, mountains and hills tremble and melt; the earth and its people shudder and shake.

<sup>6</sup>Who can stand the heat of his furious anger? It flashes out like fire and shatters stones.

Assyria's doom brings hope for the Lord's people The power of Assyria will be broken

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is good. He protects those who trust him in times of trouble.

<sup>8</sup>But like a roaring flood, the LORD chases his enemies into dark places and destroys them.

<sup>9</sup>So don't plot against the LORD! He wipes out his enemies, and they never revive.

<sup>10</sup>They are like drunkards overcome by wine, or like dry thorn bushes burning in a fire.

<sup>11</sup>Assyria, one of your rulers has made evil plans against the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>But the LORD says, “Assyria, no matter how strong you are, you are doomed! My people Judah, I have troubled you before, but I won't do it again.

<sup>13</sup>I'll snap your chains and set you free from the Assyrians.”

<sup>14</sup>Assyria, this is what else the LORD says to you: “Your name will be forgotten. I will destroy every idol in your temple, and I will send you to the grave, because you are worthless.”

<sup>15</sup>Look towards the mountains, people of Judah! Here comes a messenger with good news of peace. Celebrate your festivals. Keep your promises to God. Your evil enemies are destroyed and will never again invade your country.

Nahum 2

Nineveh, the capital of Assyria, will be destroyed

<sup>1</sup>Nineveh, someone is coming to attack and scatter you. Guard your fortresses! Watch the road! Be brave! Prepare for battle!

<sup>2</sup>Judah and Israel are like trees with branches broken by their enemies. But the LORD is going to restore their power and glory.

<sup>3-4</sup>Nineveh, on this day of attack, your enemies' shields are red; their uniforms are crimson. Their horses prance, and their armoured chariots dart around like lightning or flaming torches.

<sup>5</sup>An officer gives a command. But his soldiers stumble, as they hasten to build a shelter to protect themselves against rocks thrown down from the city wall.

<sup>6</sup>The river gates fly open, and panic floods the palace.

<sup>7</sup>Nineveh is disgraced. The queen is dragged off. Her servant women mourn; they sound like doves, and they beat their breasts in sorrow.

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh is like a pond with leaking water. Shouts of “Stop! Don't go!” can be heard everywhere. But everyone is leaving.

<sup>9</sup>Enemy soldiers shout, “The city is full of treasure and all kinds of wealth. Steal her silver! Grab her gold!”

<sup>10</sup>Nineveh is doomed! Destroyed! Her people tremble with fear; their faces turn pale.

<sup>11</sup>What happened to this city? They were safer there than powerful lions in a den, with no one to disturb them.

<sup>12</sup>These are the same lions that ferociously attacked their victims, then dragged away the flesh to feed their young.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD All-Powerful, is against you, Nineveh. God will burn your chariots and send an army to kill those young lions of yours. You will never again make victims of others or send messengers to threaten everyone on this earth.

Nahum 3

Punishment for Nineveh

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>Doom to the crime capital! Nineveh, city of murder and treachery,

<sup>2</sup>here is your fate— cracking whips, churning wheels; galloping horses, roaring chariots;

<sup>3</sup>cavalry attacking, swords and spears flashing; soldiers stumbling over piles of dead bodies.

<sup>4</sup>You were nothing more than a prostitute using your magical charms and witchcraft to attract and trap nations.

<sup>5</sup>But I, the LORD All-Powerful, am now your enemy. I will pull up your skirt and let nations and kingdoms stare at your nakedness.

<sup>6</sup>I will cover you with rubbish, treat you like trash, and rub you in the dirt.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone who sees you will turn away and shout, “Nineveh is done for! Is anyone willing to mourn or to give her comfort?”

Nineveh's fate is sealed

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh, do you feel safer than the city of Thebes? The River Nile was its wall of defence.

<sup>9</sup>Thebes trusted the mighty power of Ethiopia and Egypt; the nations of Put and Libya were her allies.

<sup>10</sup>But she was captured and taken to a foreign country. Her children were murdered at every street corner. The members of her royal family were auctioned off, and her high officials were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup>Nineveh, now it's your turn! You will get drunk and try to hide from your enemy.

<sup>12</sup>Your fortresses are fig trees with ripe figs. Merely shake the trees, and fruit will fall into every open mouth.

<sup>13</sup>Your army is weak. Fire has destroyed the crossbars on your city gates; now they stand wide open to your enemy.

<sup>14</sup>Your city is under attack. Haul in extra water! Strengthen your defences! Start making bricks! Stir the mortar!

<sup>15</sup>You will still go up in flames and be cut down by swords that will wipe you out like wheat attacked by grasshoppers. So, go ahead and increase like a swarm of locusts!

<sup>16</sup>More merchants are in your city than there are stars in the sky— but they are like locusts that eat everything, then fly away.

<sup>17</sup>Your guards and your officials are swarms of locusts. On a chilly day they settle on a fence, but when the sun comes out, they take off to who-knows-where.

<sup>18</sup>King of Assyria, your officials and leaders sleep the eternal sleep, while your people are scattered in the mountains. Yes, your people are sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>19</sup>You're fatally wounded. There's no hope for you. But everyone claps when they hear this news, because your constant cruelty has caused them pain.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk 1

Habakkuk complains, and the Lord answers

<sup>1</sup>I am Habakkuk the prophet. And this is the message that the LORD gave me.

Habakkuk complains to the LORD

<sup>2</sup>Our LORD, how long must I beg for your help before you listen? How long before you save us from all this violence?

<sup>3</sup>Why do you make me watch such terrible injustice? Why do you allow violence, lawlessness, crime, and cruelty to spread everywhere?

<sup>4</sup>Laws cannot be enforced; justice is always the loser; criminals crowd out honest people and twist the laws around.

The LORD answers Habakkuk

<sup>5</sup>Look and be amazed at what's happening among the nations! Even if you were told, you would never believe what's taking place now.

<sup>6</sup>I am sending the Babylonians. They are fierce and cruel— marching across the land, conquering cities and towns.

<sup>7</sup>How fearsome and frightening. Their only laws and rules are the ones they make up.

<sup>8</sup>Their cavalry troops are faster than leopards, more ferocious than wolves hunting at sunset, and swifter than hungry eagles suddenly swooping down.

<sup>9</sup>They are eager to destroy, and they gather captives like handfuls of sand.

<sup>10</sup>They make fun of rulers and laugh at fortresses, while building earth mounds so they can capture cities.

<sup>11</sup>Then suddenly they disappear like a gust of wind— those sinful people who worship their own strength.

Habakkuk complains again

<sup>12</sup>Holy LORD God, mighty rock, you are eternal, and we are safe from death. You are using those Babylonians to judge and punish others.

<sup>13</sup>But you can't stand sin or wrong. So don't sit by in silence while they gobble up people who are better than they are.

<sup>14</sup>The people you put on this earth are like fish or reptiles without a leader.

<sup>15</sup>Then an enemy comes along and takes them captive with hooks and nets. It makes him so happy

<sup>16</sup>that he offers sacrifices to his fishing nets, because they make him rich and provide choice foods.

<sup>17</sup>Will he keep hauling in his nets and destroying nations without showing mercy?

Habakkuk 2

The LORD answers Habakkuk again

<sup>1</sup>While standing guard on the watchtower, I waited for the LORD's answer, before explaining the reason for my complaint.

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD told me: "I will give you my message in the form of a vision. Write it clearly enough to be read at a glance.

<sup>3</sup>At the time I have decided, my words will come true. You can trust what I say about the future. It may take a long time, but keep on waiting— it will happen!

<sup>4</sup>"I, the LORD, refuse to accept anyone who is proud. Only those who live by faith are acceptable to me."

Trouble for evil people

<sup>5</sup>Wine is treacherous, and arrogant people are never satisfied. They are no less greedy than death itself— they open their mouths as wide as the world of the dead and swallow everyone.

<sup>6</sup>But they will be mocked with these words: You're doomed! You stored up stolen goods and cheated others of what belonged to them.

<sup>7</sup>But without warning, those you owe will demand payment. Then you will become a frightened victim.

<sup>8</sup>You robbed cities and nations everywhere on earth and murdered their people. Now those who survived will be as cruel to you.

<sup>9</sup>You're doomed! You made your family rich at the expense of others. You even said to yourself, "I'm above the law."

<sup>10</sup>But you will bring shame on your family and ruin to yourself for what you did to others.

<sup>11</sup>The very stones and wood in your home will testify against you.

<sup>12</sup>You're doomed! You built a city on crime and violence.

<sup>13</sup>But the LORD All-Powerful sends up in flames what nations and people work so hard to gain.

<sup>14</sup>Just as water fills the sea, the land will be filled with people who know and honour the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>You're doomed! You get your friends drunk, just to see them naked.

<sup>16</sup>Now you will be disgraced instead of praised. The LORD will make you drunk, and when others see you naked, you will lose their respect.

<sup>17</sup>You destroyed trees and animals on Mount Lebanon; you were ruthless to towns and people everywhere. Now you will be terrorized.

Idolatry is foolish

<sup>18</sup>What is an idol worth? It's merely a false god. Why trust a speechless image made from wood or metal by human hands?

<sup>19</sup>What can you learn from idols covered with silver or gold? They can't even breathe. Pity anyone who says to an idol of wood or stone, "Get up and do something!"

<sup>20</sup>Let all the world be silent— the LORD is present in his holy temple.

Habakkuk 3

Habakkuk gives praise to the Lord Habakkuk's prayer

<sup>1</sup>This is my prayer:

<sup>2</sup>I know your reputation, LORD, and I am amazed at what you have done. Please turn from your anger and be merciful; do for us what you did for our ancestors.

<sup>3</sup>You are the same Holy God who came from Teman and Paran to help us. The brightness of your glory covered the heavens, and your praises were heard everywhere on earth.

<sup>4</sup>Your glory shone like the sun, and light flashed from your hands, hiding your mighty power.

<sup>5</sup>Dreadful diseases and plagues marched in front and followed behind.

<sup>6</sup>When you stopped, the earth shook; when you stared, nations trembled; when you walked along your ancient paths, eternal mountains and hills crumbled and collapsed.

<sup>7</sup>The tents of desert tribes in Cushan and Midian were ripped apart.

<sup>8</sup>Our LORD, were you angry with the monsters of the deep? You attacked in your chariot and wiped them out.

<sup>9</sup>Your arrows were ready and obeyed your commands. You split the earth apart with rivers and streams;

<sup>10</sup>mountains trembled at the sight of you; rain poured from the clouds; ocean waves roared and rose.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still, while your arrows and spears flashed like lightning.

<sup>12</sup>In your furious anger, you trampled on nations

<sup>13</sup>to rescue your people and save your chosen one. You crushed a nation's ruler and stripped his evil kingdom of its power.

<sup>14</sup>His troops had come like a storm, hoping to scatter us and glad to gobble us up. To them we were refugees in hiding— but you smashed their heads with their own weapons.

<sup>15</sup>Then your chariots churned the waters of the sea.

Habakkuk's response to God's message

<sup>16</sup>When I heard this message, I felt weak from fear, and my lips quivered. My bones seemed to melt, and I stumbled around. But I will patiently wait. Some day those vicious enemies will be struck by disaster.

Trust in a time of trouble

<sup>17</sup>Fig trees may no longer bloom, or vineyards produce grapes; olive trees may be fruitless, and harvest time a failure; sheep pens may be empty, and cattle stalls vacant—

<sup>18</sup>but I will still celebrate because the LORD God saves me.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD gives me strength. He makes my feet as sure as those of a deer, and he helps me stand on the mountains. To the music director: Use stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah 1

Judah and Jerusalem will be punished on the day of the Lord

<sup>1</sup>I am Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, the great-grandson of Amariah, and the great-great-grandson of Hezekiah. When Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah, the LORD gave me this message.

Judgment on Judah

<sup>2</sup>I, the LORD, now promise to destroy everything on this earth—

<sup>3</sup>people and animals, birds and fish. Everyone who is evil will crash to the ground, and I will wipe out the entire human race.

<sup>4</sup>I will reach out to punish Judah and Jerusalem— nothing will remain of the god Baal; nothing will be remembered of his pagan priests.

<sup>5</sup>Not a trace will be found of those who worship stars from their rooftops, or bow down to the god Milcom, while claiming loyalty to me, the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Nothing will remain of anyone who has turned away and rejected me.

<sup>7</sup>Be silent! I am the LORD God, and the time is near. I am preparing to sacrifice my people and to invite my guests.

<sup>8</sup>On that day I will punish national leaders and sons of the king, along with all who follow foreign customs.

<sup>9</sup>I will punish worshippers of pagan gods and cruel palace officials who abuse their power.

<sup>10</sup>I, the LORD, promise that on that day noisy crying will be heard from Fish Gate, New Town, and Upper Hills.

<sup>11</sup>Everyone in Lower Hollow will mourn loudly, because merchants and money changers will be wiped out.

<sup>12</sup>I'll search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those people who sit there unworried while thinking, "The LORD won't do anything, good or bad."

<sup>13</sup>Their possessions will be taken, their homes left in ruins. They won't get to live in the houses they build, or drink wine from the grapes in their own vineyards.

A terrible day

<sup>14</sup>The great day of the LORD is coming soon, very soon. On that terrible day, fearsome shouts of warriors will be heard everywhere.

<sup>15</sup>It will be a time of anger— of trouble and torment, of disaster and destruction, of darkness and despair, of storm clouds and shadows,

<sup>16</sup>of trumpet calls and battle cries against fortified cities and mighty fortresses.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD warns everyone who has sinned against him, “I'll strike you blind! Then your blood and your insides will gush out like vomit.

<sup>18</sup>Not even your silver or gold can save you on that day when I, the LORD, am angry. My anger will flare up like a furious fire scorching the earth and everyone on it.”

Zephaniah 2

Turn to the Lord

<sup>1</sup>You disgraceful nation, gather around,

<sup>2</sup>before it's too late. The LORD has set a time when his fierce anger will strike like a storm and sweep you away.

<sup>3</sup>If you humbly obey the LORD, then come and worship him. If you do right and are humble, perhaps you will be safe on that day when the LORD turns loose his anger.

The nations will be punished Judgment on Philistia

<sup>4</sup>Gaza and Ashkelon will be deserted and left in ruins. Ashdod will be emptied in broad daylight, and Ekron uprooted.

<sup>5</sup>To you people of Philistia who live along the coast, the LORD has this to say: “I am now your enemy, and I’ll wipe you out!”

<sup>6</sup>Your coast will be changed into pasture land and sheep pens.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD God hasn't forgotten those survivors in Judah, and he will help them— his people will take your land to use for pasture. And when evening comes, they will rest in houses at Ashkelon.

Judgment on Moab and Ammon

<sup>8-9</sup> The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, said: I've heard Moab and Ammon insult my people and threaten their nation. And so, I swear by my very life that Moab and Ammon will end up like Sodom and Gomorrah— covered with thorn bushes and salt pits for ever. Then my people who survive will take their land.

<sup>10</sup>This is how Moab and Ammon will at last be repaid for their pride— and for sneering at the nation that belongs to me, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>11</sup>I will fiercely attack. Then every god on this earth will shrink to nothing, and everyone of every nation will bow down to me, right where they are.

Judgment on Ethiopia

<sup>12</sup> People of Ethiopia, the sword of the LORD will slaughter you!

Judgment on Assyria

<sup>13</sup> The LORD will reach to the north to crush Assyria and overthrow Nineveh.

<sup>14</sup> Herds of wild animals will live in its rubble; all kinds of desert owls will perch on its stones and hoot in the windows. Noisy ravens will be heard inside its buildings, stripped bare of cedar.

<sup>15</sup>This is the glorious city that felt secure and said, “I am the only one!” Now it's merely ruins, a home for wild animals. Every passer-by simply sneers and makes vulgar signs.

Zephaniah 3

Judah and other nations will turn to the Lord Sinful Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Too bad for that disgusting, corrupt, and lawless city!

<sup>2</sup>For ever rebellious and rejecting correction, Jerusalem refuses to trust or obey the LORD God.

<sup>3</sup>Its officials are roaring lions, its judges are wolves; in the evening they attack, by morning nothing is left.

<sup>4</sup>Jerusalem's prophets are proud and not to be trusted. The priests have disgraced the place of worship and abused God's Law.

<sup>5</sup>All who do evil are shameless, but the LORD does right and is always fair. With the dawn of each day, God brings about justice.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD wiped out nations and left fortresses crumbling in the dust. Their streets and towns were reduced to ruins and emptied of people.

<sup>7</sup>God felt certain that Jerusalem would learn to respect and obey him. Then he would hold back from punishing the city and not wipe it out. But everyone there was eager to start sinning again.

Nations will turn to the LORD

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said: Just wait for the day when I accuse you nations. I have decided on a day, when I will bring together every nation and kingdom and punish them all in my fiery anger. I will become furious and destroy the earth.

<sup>9</sup>I will purify each language and make those languages acceptable for praising me. Then, with hearts united, everyone will serve only me, the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>From across the rivers of Ethiopia, my scattered people, my true worshippers, will bring offerings to me.

<sup>11</sup>When that time comes, you won't rebel against me and be put to shame. I'll do away with those who are proud and arrogant. Never will any of them strut around on my holy mountain.

<sup>12</sup>But I, the LORD, won't destroy any of your people who are truly humble and turn to me for safety.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Israel who survive will live right and refuse to tell lies. They will eat and rest with nothing to fear.

A song of celebration

<sup>14</sup>Everyone in Jerusalem and Judah, celebrate and shout with all your heart!

<sup>15</sup>Zion, your punishment is over. The LORD has forced your enemies to turn and retreat. Your LORD is King of Israel and stands at your side; you don't have to worry about any more troubles.

<sup>16</sup>Jerusalem, the time is coming, when it will be said to you: "Don't be discouraged or grow weak from fear!

<sup>17</sup>The LORD your God wins victory after victory and is always with you. He celebrates and sings because of you, and he will refresh your life with his love."

The LORD's promise to his people

<sup>18</sup>The LORD has promised: Your sorrow has ended, and you can celebrate.

<sup>19</sup>I will punish those who ill-treat you. I will bring together the lame and the outcasts, then they will be praised, instead of despised, in every country on earth.

<sup>20</sup>I will lead you home, and with your own eyes you will see me bless you with all you once owned. Then you will be famous everywhere on this earth. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Haggai

Haggai 1

The Lord says the temple must be rebuilt

<sup>1</sup>On the first day of the sixth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia, the LORD told Haggai the prophet to speak his message to the governor of Judah and to the high priest. So Haggai told Governor Zerubbabel and High Priest Joshua

<sup>2-5</sup>that the LORD All-Powerful had said to them and to the people: You say this isn't the right time to build a temple for me. But is it right for you to live in expensive houses, while my temple is a pile of ruins? Just look at what's happening.

<sup>6</sup>You harvest less than you plant, you never have enough to eat or drink, your clothes don't keep you warm, and your wages are stored in bags full of holes.

<sup>7</sup>Think about what I have said!

<sup>8</sup>But first, go to the hills and get wood for my temple, so I can take pride in it and be worshipped there.

<sup>9</sup>You expected much, but received only a little. And when you brought it home, I made that little disappear. Why have I done this? It's because you hurry off to build your own houses, while my temple is still in ruins.

<sup>10</sup>That's also why the dew doesn't fall and your harvest fails.

<sup>11</sup>And so, at my command everything will become barren—your farmland and pastures, your vineyards and olive trees, your animals and you yourselves. All your hard work will be for nothing.

<sup>12</sup>Zerubbabel and Joshua, together with the others who had returned from exile in Babylonia, obeyed the LORD's message spoken by his prophet Haggai, and they started showing proper respect for the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Haggai then told them that the LORD had promised to be with them.

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD God All-Powerful made everyone eager to work on his temple, especially Zerubbabel and Joshua.

<sup>15</sup>And the work began on the twenty-fourth day of that same month.

Haggai 2

The Lord promises to bless his people The glorious new temple

<sup>1-2</sup>On the twenty-first day of the next month, the LORD told Haggai the prophet to speak this message to Governor Zerubbabel, High Priest Joshua, and everyone else:

<sup>3</sup>Does anyone remember how glorious this temple used to be? Now it looks like nothing.

<sup>4</sup>But cheer up! Because I, the LORD All-Powerful, will be here to help you with the work, <sup>5</sup>just as I promised your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt. Don't worry. My Spirit is here with you.

<sup>6</sup>Soon I will again shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

<sup>7</sup>I will shake the nations, and their treasures will be brought here. Then the brightness of my glory will fill this temple.

<sup>8</sup>All silver and gold belong to me,

<sup>9</sup>and I promise that this new temple will be more glorious than the first one. I will also bless this city with peace.

The past and the future

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, the LORD God All-Powerful told the prophet Haggai

<sup>11</sup>to ask the priests for their opinion on the following matter:

<sup>12</sup>Suppose meat ready to be sacrificed to God is being carried in the folds of someone's clothing, and the clothing rubs against some bread or stew or wine or olive oil or any other food. Would those foods that were touched then become acceptable for sacrifice? “Of course not,” the priests answered.

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, “Suppose someone has touched a dead body and is considered unacceptable to worship God. If that person touches these foods, would they become unclean?” “Of course they would,” the priests answered.

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD told Haggai to say: That's how it is with this entire nation. Everything you do and every sacrifice you offer is unacceptable to me.

<sup>15</sup>But from now on, things will get better. Before you started laying the foundation for the temple,

<sup>16</sup>you recalled what life was like in the past. When you wanted two hundred kilogrammes of wheat, there were only a hundred, and when you wanted fifty jars of wine, there were only twenty.

<sup>17</sup>I made all your hard work useless by sending mildew, mould, and hail—but you still did not return to me, your LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Today you have completed the foundation for my temple, so listen to what your future will be like.

<sup>19</sup>Although you have not yet harvested any grain, grapes, figs, pomegranates, or olives, I will richly bless you in the days ahead.

The Lord promises to be with Zerubbabel

<sup>20</sup>That same day the LORD spoke to Haggai again and said:

<sup>21</sup>Tell Governor Zerubbabel of Judah that I am going to shake the heavens and the earth

<sup>22</sup>and wipe out kings and their kingdoms. I will overturn war chariots, and then cavalry troops will start slaughtering each other.

<sup>23</sup>But tell my servant Zerubbabel that I, the LORD All-Powerful, have chosen him, and he will rule in my name.

Zechariah

Zechariah 1

Turn to the LORD

<sup>1</sup> I am the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo. In the eighth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia, the LORD told me to say:

<sup>2-3</sup> Israel, I, the LORD All-Powerful, was very angry with your ancestors. But if you people will return to me, I will turn and help you.

<sup>4</sup> Don't be stubborn like your ancestors. They were warned by the earlier prophets to give up their evil and turn back to me, but they paid no attention.

<sup>5</sup> Where are your ancestors now? Not even prophets live for ever.

<sup>6</sup> But my warnings and my words spoken by the prophets caught up with your ancestors. So they turned back to me and said, "LORD All-Powerful, you have punished us for our sins, just as you had planned."

First vision: horses and riders

<sup>7-8</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of Shebat, which was the eleventh month of that same year, the LORD spoke to me in a vision during the night: in a valley among myrtle trees, I saw someone on a red horse, with riders on red, brown, and white horses behind him.

<sup>9</sup> An angel was there to explain things to me, and I asked, "Sir, who are these riders?" "I'll tell you," the angel answered.

<sup>10</sup> Straight away, the man standing among the myrtle trees said, "These are the ones the LORD has sent to find out what's happening on earth."

<sup>11</sup> Then the riders spoke to the LORD's angel, who was standing among the myrtle trees, and they said, "We have gone everywhere and have discovered that the whole world is at peace."

<sup>12</sup>At this, the angel said, “LORD All-Powerful, for seventy years you have been angry with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. When are you ever going to have mercy on them?”

<sup>13</sup>The LORD's answer was kind and comforting.

<sup>14</sup>So the angel told me to announce: I, the LORD All-Powerful, am very protective of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>For a while I was angry with the nations, but now I am furious, because they have made things worse for Jerusalem and are not the least bit concerned.

<sup>16</sup>And so, I will have pity on Jerusalem. The city will be completely rebuilt, and my temple will stand again.

<sup>17</sup>I also promise that my towns will prosper—Jerusalem will once again be my chosen city, and I will comfort the people of Zion.

Second vision: animal horns

<sup>18</sup>Next, I saw four animal horns.

<sup>19-21</sup>The angel who was sent to explain was there, and so I asked, “What do these mean?” His answer was, “These horns are the nations that scattered the people of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem, and took away their freedom.” Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths, and I asked, “What are they going to do?” He replied, “They are going to terrify and crush those horns.”

Zechariah 2

Third vision: a measuring line

<sup>1</sup>This time I saw someone holding a measuring line,

<sup>2</sup>and I asked, “Where are you going?” “To measure Jerusalem,” was the answer. “To find out how wide and long it is.”

<sup>3</sup>The angel who had spoken to me was leaving, when another angel came up to him

<sup>4</sup>and said, “Hurry! Tell that man with the measuring line that Jerusalem won't have any boundaries. It will be too full of people and animals even to have a wall.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD himself has promised to be a protective wall of fire surrounding Jerusalem, and he will be its shining glory in the heart of the city.”

A call to action

<sup>6</sup>The LORD says to his people, “Run! Escape from the land in the north, where I scattered you to the four winds.

<sup>7</sup>Leave Babylonia and hurry back to Zion.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the glorious LORD All-Powerful ordered me to say to the nations that had raided and robbed Zion: Zion is as precious to the LORD as are his eyes. Whatever you do to Zion, you do to him.

<sup>9</sup>And so, he will put you in the power of your slaves, and they will raid and rob you. Then you will know that I am a prophet of the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>10</sup>City of Zion, sing and celebrate! The LORD has promised to come and live with you.

<sup>11</sup>When he does, many nations will turn to him and become his people. At that time you will know that I am a prophet of the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>12</sup>Then Judah will be his part of the holy land, and Jerusalem will again be his chosen city.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone, be silent! The LORD is present and moving about in his holy place.

Zechariah 3

Fourth vision: Joshua and Satan

<sup>1</sup>I was given another vision. This time Joshua the high priest was standing in front of the LORD's angel. And there was Satan, standing at Joshua's right side, ready to accuse him.

<sup>2</sup> But the LORD said, “Satan, you are wrong. Jerusalem is my chosen city, and this man was rescued like a stick from a flaming fire.”

<sup>3</sup> Joshua's clothes were filthy.

<sup>4</sup> So the angel told some of the people to remove Joshua's filthy clothes. Then he said to Joshua, “This means you are forgiven. Now I will dress you in priestly clothes.”

<sup>5</sup> I spoke up and said, “Also put a clean priestly turban on his head.” Then they dressed him in priestly clothes and put the turban on him, while the LORD's angel stood there watching.

<sup>6</sup> After this, the angel encouraged Joshua by telling him that the LORD All-Powerful had promised:

<sup>7</sup> If you truly obey me, I will put you in charge of my temple, including the courtyard around it, and you will be allowed to speak at any time with the angels standing beside me.

<sup>8</sup> Listen carefully, High Priest Joshua and all you other priests. You are a sign of things to come, because I am going to bring back my servant, the Chosen King.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua, I have placed in front of you a stone with seven sides. I will engrave something on that stone, and in a single day I will forgive this guilty country.

<sup>10</sup> Then each of you will live at peace and entertain your friends in your own vineyard and under your own fig trees.

Zechariah 4

Fifth vision: a lampstand and olive trees

<sup>1</sup> The angel who explained the visions woke me from what seemed like sleep.

<sup>2</sup> Then he asked, “What do you see?” “A solid gold lampstand with an oil container above it,” I answered. “On the stand are seven lamps, each with seven flames.”

<sup>3</sup>One olive tree is on the right side and another on the left of the oil container.

<sup>4</sup>But, sir, what do these mean?”

<sup>5</sup>Then he asked, “Don't you know?” “No sir,” I replied.

<sup>6</sup>So the angel explained that it was the following message of the LORD to Zerubbabel: I am the LORD All-Powerful. So don't depend on your own power or strength, but on my Spirit.

<sup>7</sup>Zerubbabel, that mountain in front of you will be levelled to the ground. Then you will bring out the temple's most important stone and shout, “God has been very kind.”

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to me again and said:

<sup>9</sup>Zerubbabel laid the foundation for the temple, and he will complete it. Then everyone will know that you were sent by me, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>10</sup>Those who have made fun of this day of small beginnings will celebrate when they see Zerubbabel holding this important stone. Those seven lamps represent my eyes—the eyes of the LORD—and they see everything on this earth.

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked the angel, “What about the olive trees on each side of the lampstand? What do they represent?”

<sup>12</sup>And what is the meaning of the two branches from which golden olive oil flows through the two gold pipes?”

<sup>13</sup>“Don't you know?” he asked. “No sir, I don't,” was my answer.

<sup>14</sup>Then he told me, “These branches are the two chosen leaders who stand beside the Lord of all the earth.”

Zechariah 5

Sixth vision: a flying scroll

- <sup>1</sup>When I looked the next time, I saw a flying scroll,
- <sup>2</sup>and the angel asked, “What do you see?” “A flying scroll,” I answered. “About nine metres long and four and a half metres wide.”
- <sup>3</sup>Then he told me: This scroll puts a curse on everyone in the land who steals or tells lies. The writing on one side tells about the destruction of those who steal, while the writing on the other side tells about the destruction of those who lie.
- <sup>4</sup>The LORD All-Powerful has said, “I am sending this scroll into the house of everyone who is a robber or tells lies in my name, and it will remain there until every piece of wood and stone in that house crumbles.”

Seventh vision: a woman in a basket

- <sup>5</sup>Now the angel who was there to explain the visions came over and said, “Look up and tell me what you see coming.”
- <sup>6</sup>“I don't know what it is,” was my reply. “It's a big basket,” he said. “And it shows what everyone in the land has in mind.”
- <sup>7</sup>The lead cover of the basket was opened, and in the basket was a woman.
- <sup>8</sup>“This woman represents evil,” the angel explained. Then he threw her back into the basket and slammed the heavy cover down tight.
- <sup>9</sup>Straight after this I saw two women coming through the sky like storks with wings outstretched in the wind. Suddenly they lifted the basket into the air,
- <sup>10</sup>and I asked the angel, “Where are they taking the basket?”
- <sup>11</sup>“To Babylonia,” he answered, “where they will build a house for the basket and set it down inside.”

Zechariah 6

Eighth vision: four chariots

- <sup>1</sup>Finally, I looked up and saw four chariots coming from between two bronze mountains.

<sup>2</sup>The first chariot was pulled by red horses, and the second by black horses;
<sup>3</sup>the third chariot was pulled by white horses, and the fourth by spotted grey horses.

<sup>4</sup>“Sir,” I asked the angel. “What do these stand for?”

<sup>5</sup>Then he explained, “These are the four winds of heaven, and now they are going out, after presenting themselves to the Lord of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The chariot with black horses goes towards the north, the chariot with white horses goes towards the west, and the one with spotted horses goes towards the south.”

<sup>7</sup>The horses came out eager to patrol the earth, and the angel told them, “Start patrolling the earth.” When they had gone on their way,

<sup>8</sup>he shouted to me, “Those that have gone to the country in the north will do what the LORD's Spirit wants them to do there.”

Mourning and celebrating The chosen leader

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to me:

<sup>10-11</sup>Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah have returned from Babylonia. Collect enough silver and gold from them to make a crown. Then go with them to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah and put the crown on the head of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak.

<sup>12-13</sup>Tell him that I, the LORD All-Powerful, say, “Someone will reach out from here like a branch and build a temple for me. I will name him ‘Branch’, and he will rule with royal honours. A priest will stand beside his throne, and the two of them will be good friends.

<sup>14</sup>This crown will be kept in my temple as a reminder and will be taken care of by Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah.”

<sup>15</sup>When people from distant lands come and help build the temple of the LORD All-Powerful, you will know that the LORD is the one who sent me. And this will happen, if you truly obey the LORD your God.

Zechariah 7

A question about going without eating

<sup>1</sup>On the fourth day of Chislev, the ninth month of the fourth year that Darius was king of Persia, the LORD again spoke to me.

<sup>2-3</sup>It happened after the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer with Regem-Melech and his men to ask the priests in the LORD's temple and the prophets to pray for them. So they prayed, "Should we mourn and go without eating during the fifth month, as we have done for many years?"

<sup>4-5</sup>It was then that the LORD All-Powerful told me to say to everyone in the country, including the priests: For seventy years you have gone without eating during the fifth and seventh months of the year. But did you really do it for me?

<sup>6</sup>And when you eat and drink, isn't it for your own enjoyment?

<sup>7</sup>My message today is the same one I commanded the earlier prophets to speak to Jerusalem and its villages when they were prosperous, and when all of Judah, including the Southern Desert and the hill country, was filled with people.

<sup>8-9</sup>So once again, I, the LORD All-Powerful, tell you, "See that justice is done and be kind and merciful to one another!

<sup>10</sup>Don't ill-treat widows or orphans or foreigners or anyone who is poor, and stop making plans to hurt each other."

<sup>11-12</sup>But everyone who heard those prophets, stubbornly refused to obey. Instead, they turned their backs on everything my Spirit had commanded the earlier prophets to preach. So I, the LORD, became angry

<sup>13</sup>and said, “You people paid no attention when I called out to you, and now I'll pay no attention when you call out to me.”

<sup>14</sup>That's why I came with a whirlwind and scattered them among foreign nations, leaving their lovely country empty of people and in ruins.

Zechariah 8

The LORD's promises to Zion

<sup>1</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said to me:

<sup>2</sup>I love Zion so much that her enemies make me angry.

<sup>3</sup>I will return to Jerusalem and live there on Mount Zion. Then Jerusalem will be known as my faithful city, and Zion will be known as my holy mountain.

<sup>4</sup>Very old people with walking sticks will once again sit around in Jerusalem,

<sup>5</sup>while boys and girls play in the streets.

<sup>6</sup>This may seem impossible for my people who are left, but it isn't impossible for me, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>7</sup>I will save those who were taken to lands in the east and the west,

<sup>8</sup>and I will bring them to live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, faithful to bring about justice.

<sup>9</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful! So don't give up. Think about the message my prophets spoke when the foundation of my temple was laid.

<sup>10</sup>Before that time, neither people nor animals were rewarded for their work, and no one was safe anywhere, because I had turned them against each other.

<sup>11</sup>My people, only a few of you are left, and I promise not to punish you as I did before.

<sup>12</sup>Instead, I will make sure that your crops are planted in peace and your vineyards are fruitful, that your fields are fertile and the dew falls from the sky.

<sup>13</sup>People of Judah and Israel, you have been a curse to the nations, but I will save you and make you a blessing to them. So don't be afraid or lose courage.

<sup>14</sup>When your ancestors made me angry, I decided to punish you with disasters, and I didn't hold back.

<sup>15</sup>Now you no longer need to be afraid. I have decided to treat Jerusalem and Judah with kindness.

<sup>16</sup>But you must be truthful with each other, and in court you must give fair decisions that lead to peace.

<sup>17</sup>Don't ever plan evil things against others or tell lies under oath. I, the LORD, hate such things.

A time of celebration

<sup>18</sup>The LORD All-Powerful told me to say:

<sup>19</sup>People of Judah, I, the LORD, demand that whenever you go without food as a way of worshipping me, it should become a time of celebration. No matter if it's the fourth month, the fifth month, the seventh month, or the tenth month, you should have a joyful festival. So love truth and live at peace.

<sup>20</sup>I tell you that people will come here from cities everywhere.

<sup>21</sup>Those of one town will go to another and say, "We're going to ask the LORD All-Powerful to treat us with kindness. Come and join us."

<sup>22</sup>Many people from strong nations will come to Jerusalem to worship me and to ask me to treat them with kindness.

<sup>23</sup>When this happens, ten people from nations with different languages will grab a Jew by his clothes and say, “Let us go with you. We've heard that God is on your side.” I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken!

Zechariah 9

The Lord will rescue his people and punish their enemies Israel's enemies will be punished

<sup>1</sup> This is a message from the LORD: His eyes are on everyone, especially the tribes of Israel. So he pronounces judgment against the cities of Hadrach and Damascus.

<sup>2</sup> Judgment will also fall on the nearby city of Hamath, as well as on Tyre and Sidon, whose people are clever.

<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built a fortress and piled up silver and gold, as though they were dust or mud from the streets.

<sup>4</sup> Now the Lord will punish Tyre with poverty; he will sink its ships and send it up in flames.

<sup>5</sup> Both Ashkelon and Gaza will tremble with fear; Ekron will lose all hope. Gaza's king will be killed, and Ashkelon emptied of its people.

<sup>6</sup> A mob of half-breeds will settle in Ashdod, and the Lord himself will rob Philistia of pride.

<sup>7</sup> No longer will the Philistines eat meat with blood in it or any unclean food. They will become part of the people of our God from the tribe of Judah. And God will accept the people of Ekron, as he did the Jebusites.

<sup>8</sup> God says, “I will stand guard to protect my temple from those who come to attack. I know what's happening, and no one will ill-treat my people ever again.”

The LORD tells about the coming king

<sup>9</sup> Everyone in Jerusalem, celebrate and shout! Your king has won a victory, and he is coming to you. He is humble and rides on a donkey; he comes on the colt of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup>I, the LORD, will take away war chariots and horses from Israel and Jerusalem. Bows that were made for battle will be broken. I will bring peace to nations, and your king will rule from sea to sea. His kingdom will reach from the River Euphrates across the earth.

The LORD promises to rescue captives

<sup>11</sup>When I made a sacred agreement with you, my people, we sealed it with blood. Now some of you are captives in waterless pits, but I will come to your rescue

<sup>12</sup>and offer you hope. Return to your fortress, because today I will reward you with twice what you had.

<sup>13</sup>I will use Judah as my bow and Israel as my arrow. I will take the people of Zion as my sword and attack the Greeks.

The LORD will protect his people

<sup>14</sup>Like a cloud, the LORD God will appear over his people, and his arrows will flash like lightning. God will sound his trumpet and attack in a whirlwind from the south.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD All-Powerful will protect his people, and they will trample down the sharpshooters and their slingshots. They will drink and get rowdy; they will be as full as a bowl at the time of sacrifice.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD God will save them on that day, because they are his people, and they will shine on his land like jewels in a crown.

<sup>17</sup>How lovely they will be. Young people will grow there like grain in a field or grapes in a vineyard.

Zechariah 10

A bright future for Judah and Israel

<sup>1</sup>I, the LORD, am the one who sends storm clouds and showers of rain to make fields produce. So when the crops need rain, you should pray to me.

<sup>2</sup>You can't believe idols and fortune-tellers, or depend on the hope you receive from witchcraft and interpreters of dreams. But you have tried all of these, and now you are like sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, am fiercely angry with you leaders, and I will punish you. I care for my people, the nation of Judah, and I will change this flock of sheep into charging war horses.

<sup>4</sup>From this flock will come leaders who will be strong like cornerstones and tent pegs and weapons of war.

<sup>5</sup>They will join in the fighting, and together they will trample their enemies like mud. They will fight, because I, the LORD, will be on their side. And they will crush the enemy cavalry.

<sup>6</sup>I will strengthen the kingdoms of Judah and Israel. And I will show mercy because I am the LORD, their God. I will answer their prayers and bring them home. Then it will seem as though I had never rejected them.

<sup>7</sup>Israel will be like a tribe of warriors celebrating with wine. When their children see this, they will also be happy because of me, the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>I will give a signal for them to come together because I have rescued them. And there will be as many as ever before.

<sup>9</sup>Although I scattered my people in distant countries, they won't forget me. Once their children are raised, they will return—

<sup>10</sup>I will bring them home from Egypt and Assyria, then let them settle as far as Gilead and Lebanon, until the land overflows with them.

<sup>11</sup>My people will go through an ocean of troubles, but I will overcome the waves and dry up the deepest part of the Nile. Assyria's great pride will be put down, and the power of Egypt will disappear.

<sup>12</sup>I'll strengthen my people because of who I am, and they will follow me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Zechariah 11

Trouble for Israel's enemies

<sup>1</sup>Lebanon, open your gates! Let the fire come in to destroy your cedar trees.

<sup>2</sup>Cry, you cypress trees! The glorious cedars have fallen and are rotting. Cry, you oak trees of Bashan! The dense forest has been chopped down.

<sup>3</sup>Listen! Shepherds are crying. Their glorious pastures have been ruined. Listen! Lions are roaring. The forests of the Jordan Valley are no more to be found.

Israel's leaders are worthless shepherds

<sup>4</sup>The LORD my God said to me: Tend those sheep doomed for slaughter!

<sup>5</sup>The people who buy and butcher them go unpunished, while everyone who sells them says, "Praise the LORD! I'm rich." Not even their shepherds have pity on them.

<sup>6</sup>Tend those sheep because I, the LORD, will no longer have pity on the people of this earth. I'll turn neighbour against neighbour and make them slaves of a king. They will bring disaster on the earth, and I'll do nothing to rescue any of them.

<sup>7</sup>So I became a shepherd of those sheep doomed to be slaughtered by the sheep dealers. And I gave names to the two sticks I used for tending the sheep: one of them was named "Mercy" and the other "Unity".

<sup>8</sup>In less than a month, I became impatient with three shepherds who didn't like me, and I got rid of them.

<sup>9</sup>Then I said, "I refuse to be your shepherd. Let the sheep that are going to die, go on and die, and those that are going to be destroyed, go on and be destroyed. Then let the others eat one another alive."

<sup>10</sup>On that same day, I broke the stick named "Mercy" to show that the LORD had cancelled his agreement with all people.

<sup>11</sup>The sheep dealers who saw me knew straight away that this was a message from the LORD.

12-13 I told them, “Pay me my wages, if you think you should; otherwise, forget it.” So they handed me my wages, a measly thirty pieces of silver. Then the LORD said, “Throw the money into the treasury.” So I threw the money into the treasury at the LORD's temple.

14 Then I broke the stick named “Unity” and cancelled the ties between Judah and Israel.

15 Next, the LORD said to me, “Act like a shepherd again—this time a worthless shepherd.

16 Once more I am going to let a worthless nobody rule the land—one who won't care for the strays or search for the young or heal the sick or feed the healthy. He will just dine on the fattest sheep, leaving nothing but a few bones.”

17 You worthless shepherd, deserting the sheep! I hope a sword will cripple your arm and blind your right eye.

Zechariah 12

Victory for Jerusalem

1 This is a message from the LORD about Israel: I am the LORD! I stretched out the heavens; I put the earth on its foundations and gave breath to humans.

2 I have decided that Jerusalem will become a bowl of wine that makes the neighbouring nations drunk. And when Jerusalem is attacked, Judah will also be attacked.

3 But I will turn Jerusalem into a heavy stone that crushes anyone who tries to lift it. When all nations on earth surround Jerusalem,

4 I will make every horse panic and every rider confused. But at the same time, I will watch over Judah.

5 Then every clan in Judah will realize that I, the LORD All-Powerful, am their God, and that I am the source of their strength.

<sup>6</sup>At that time I will let the clans of Judah be like a ball of fire in a wood pile or a fiery torch in a hay stack. Then Judah will send the surrounding nations up in smoke. And once again the city of Jerusalem will be filled with people.

<sup>7</sup>But I will first give victory to Judah, so the kingdom of David and the city of Jerusalem in all their glory won't be thought of more highly than Judah itself.

<sup>8</sup>I, the LORD God, will protect Jerusalem. Even the weakest person there will be as strong as David, and David's kingdom will rule as though my very own angel were its leader.

<sup>9</sup>I am determined to wipe out every nation that attacks Jerusalem.

The people will mourn and return to the Lord
Mourning for the one pierced with a spear

<sup>10</sup> I, the LORD, will make the descendants of David and the people of Jerusalem feel deep sorrow and pray when they see the one they pierced with a spear. They will mourn and weep for him, as parents weep over the death of their only child or their firstborn.

<sup>11</sup>On that day the people of Jerusalem will mourn as much as everyone did for Hadad Rimmon on the flat lands near Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone of each family in the land will mourn, and the men will mourn separately from the women. This includes those from the family of David, and the families of Nathan,

<sup>13</sup>Levi, Shimei,

<sup>14</sup>and all other families as well.

Zechariah 13

Getting rid of idols and false prophets

<sup>1</sup>In the future there will be a fountain, where David's descendants and the people of Jerusalem can wash away their sin and guilt.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD All-Powerful says: When that time comes, I will get rid of every idol in the country, and they will be forgotten for ever. I will also do away with their prophets and those evil spirits that control them.

<sup>3</sup>If any such prophets ever appear again, their own parents must warn them that they will die for telling lies in my name—the name of the LORD. If those prophets don't stop speaking, their parents must then kill them with a sword.

<sup>4</sup>Those prophets will be ashamed of their so-called visions, and they won't deceive anyone by dressing like a true prophet.

<sup>5</sup>Instead, they will say, "I'm no prophet. I've been a farmer all my life."

<sup>6</sup>And if any of them are asked why they are wounded, they will answer, "It happened at the house of some friends."

A wounded shepherd and scattered sheep

<sup>7</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said: My sword, wake up! Attack my shepherd and friend. Strike down the shepherd! Scatter the little sheep, and I will destroy them.

<sup>8</sup>Nowhere in the land will more than a third of them be left alive.

<sup>9</sup>Then I will purify them and put them to the test, just as gold and silver are purified and tested. They will pray in my name, and I will answer them. I will say, "You are my people," and they will reply, "You, LORD, are our God!"

Zechariah 14

The final war and the Lord's victory

<sup>1</sup>The LORD will have his day. And when it comes, everything that was ever taken from Jerusalem will be returned and divided among its people.

<sup>2</sup>But first, he will bring many nations to attack Jerusalem—homes will be robbed, women raped, and half of the population dragged off, though the others will be allowed to remain.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will attack those nations like a warrior fighting in battle.

<sup>4</sup>He will take his stand on the Mount of Olives east of Jerusalem, and the mountain will split in half, forming a wide valley that runs from east to west.

<sup>5</sup>Then you people will escape from the LORD's mountain, through this valley, which reaches to Azal. You will run in all directions, just as everyone did when the earthquake struck in the time of King Uzziah of Judah. Afterwards, the LORD my God will appear with his holy angels.

<sup>6</sup>It will be a bright day that won't turn cloudy.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD has decided when it will happen—this time of unending day.

<sup>8</sup>In both summer and winter, life-giving streams will flow from Jerusalem, half of them to the Dead Sea in the east and half to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

<sup>9</sup>Then there will be only one LORD who rules as King and whose name is worshipped everywhere on earth.

<sup>10-11</sup> From Geba down to Rimmon south of Jerusalem, the entire country will be turned into flat lands, with Jerusalem still towering above. Then the city will be full of people, from Benjamin Gate, Old Gate Place, and Hananel Tower in the north-east part of the city over to Corner Gate in the north-west and down to King's Wine Press in the south. Jerusalem will always be secure and will never again be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>Here is what the LORD will do to those who attack Jerusalem: while they are standing there, he will make their flesh rot and their eyes fall from their sockets and their tongues drop out.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD will make them go into a frenzy and start attacking each other,

<sup>14-15</sup> until even the people of Judah turn against those in Jerusalem. This same terrible disaster will also strike every animal nearby, including horses, mules, camels, and donkeys. Finally, everything of value in the surrounding nations will be collected and brought to Jerusalem—gold, silver, and piles of clothing.

<sup>16</sup>Afterwards, the survivors from those nations that attacked Jerusalem will go there each year to worship the King, the LORD All-Powerful, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>17</sup>No rain will fall on the land of anyone in any country who refuses to go to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>18-19</sup>This horrible disaster will strike the Egyptians and everyone else who refuses to go there for the celebration.

<sup>20-21</sup>At that time the words “Dedicated to the LORD” will be engraved on the bells worn by horses. In fact, every ordinary cooking pot in Jerusalem will be just as sacred to the LORD All-Powerful as the bowls used at the altar. Any one of them will be acceptable for boiling the meat of sacrificed animals, and there will no longer be a need to sell special pots and bowls.

Malachi

Malachi 1

The Lord's love for Israel

<sup>1</sup>I am Malachi. And this is the message that the LORD gave me for Israel.

The LORD's love for Israel

The LORD said:

<sup>2</sup> Israel, I, the LORD, have loved you. And yet you ask in what way have I loved you. Don't forget that Esau was the brother of your ancestor Jacob, but I chose Jacob

<sup>3</sup>instead of Esau. And I turned Esau's hill country into a barren desert where jackals roam.

<sup>4</sup>Esau's descendants may say, "Although our nation Edom is in ruins, we will rebuild." But I, the LORD All-Powerful, promise to tear down whatever they build. Then everyone will know that I will never stop being angry with them as long as they are so sinful.

<sup>5</sup>Israel, when you see this, you will shout, "The LORD's great reputation reaches beyond our borders."

Against the priests

<sup>6</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, have something to say to you priests. Children respect their fathers, and servants respect their masters. I am your father and your master, so why don't you respect me? You priests have insulted me, and now you ask, "How did we insult you?"

<sup>7</sup>You embarrass me by offering worthless food on my altar. Then you ask, "How have we embarrassed you?" You have done it by saying, "What's so great about the LORD's altar?"

<sup>8</sup>But isn't it wrong to offer animals that are blind, crippled, or sick? Just try giving those animals to your governor. That certainly wouldn't please him or make him want to help you.

<sup>9</sup>I am the LORD God All-Powerful, and you had better try to please me. You have sinned. Now see if I will have mercy on any of you.

<sup>10</sup>I wish someone would lock the doors of my temple, so you would stop wasting time building fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you priests, and I refuse to accept any more of your offerings.

<sup>11</sup>From dawn until dusk my name is praised by every nation on this earth, as they burn incense and offer the proper sacrifices to me.

<sup>12</sup>But even you priests insult me by saying, “There's nothing special about the LORD's altar, and these sacrifices are worthless.”

<sup>13</sup>You get so disgusted that you even make vulgar signs at me. And for an offering, you bring stolen animals or those that are crippled or sick. Should I accept these?

<sup>14</sup>Instead of offering the acceptable animals you have promised, you bring me those that are unhealthy. I will punish you for this, because I am the great King, the LORD All-Powerful, and I am worshipped by nations everywhere.

Malachi 2

True and false priests

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, have something else to say to you priests.

<sup>2</sup>You had better take seriously the need to honour my name. Otherwise, when you give a blessing, I will turn it into a curse. In fact, I have already done this, because you haven't taken to heart your duties as priests.

<sup>3</sup>I will punish your descendants and rub your faces in the manure from your animal sacrifices, and then be done with you.

<sup>4</sup>I am telling you this, so I can continue to keep my agreement with your ancestor Levi.

<sup>5</sup>I blessed him with a full life, as I had promised, and he kept his part of the agreement by honouring me and respecting my name.

<sup>6</sup>He taught the truth and never told lies, and he led a lot of people to turn from sin, because he obeyed me and lived right.

<sup>7</sup>You priests should be eager to spread knowledge, and everyone should come to you for instruction, because you speak for me, the LORD All-Powerful.

<sup>8</sup>But you have turned your backs on me. Your teachings have led others to do sinful things, and you have broken the agreement I made with your ancestor Levi.

<sup>9</sup>So I caused everyone to hate and despise you, because you disobeyed me and failed to treat all people alike.

Broken agreements

<sup>10</sup>Don't you know that we all have God as our Father? Didn't the one God create each of us? Then why do you cheat each other by breaking the agreement God made with your ancestors?

<sup>11</sup>You people in Judah and Jerusalem have been unfaithful to the LORD. You have disgraced the temple that he loves, and you have committed the disgusting sin of worshipping other gods.

<sup>12</sup>I pray that the LORD will no longer let those who are guilty belong to his people, even if they eagerly decide to offer the LORD a gift.

<sup>13</sup>And what else are you doing? You cry noisily and flood the LORD's altar with your tears, because he isn't pleased with your offerings and refuses to accept them.

<sup>14</sup>And why isn't God pleased? It's because he knows that each of you men has been unfaithful to the wife you married when you were young. You promised that she would be your partner, but now you have broken that promise.

<sup>15</sup>Didn't God create you to become like one person with your wife? And why did he do this? It was so you would have children, and then lead them to become God's people. Don't ever be unfaithful to your wife.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD God All-Powerful of Israel hates anyone who is cruel enough to divorce his wife. So take care never to be unfaithful!

<sup>17</sup>You have worn out the LORD with your words. And yet, you ask, "How did we do that?" You did it by saying, "The LORD is pleased with evil and doesn't care about justice."

Malachi 3

The Lord will come The promised messenger

<sup>1</sup>I, the LORD All-Powerful, will send my messenger to prepare the way for me. Then suddenly the Lord you are looking for will appear in his temple. The messenger you desire is coming with my promise, and he is on his way.

A day of change

<sup>2</sup>On the day the Lord comes, he will be like a furnace that purifies silver or like strong soap in a washbasin. No one will be able to stand up to him.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will purify the descendants of Levi, as though they were gold or silver. Then they will bring the proper offerings to the LORD, <sup>4</sup>and the offerings of the people of Judah and Jerusalem will please him, just as they did in the past.

Don't cheat God

<sup>5</sup>The LORD All-Powerful said: I'm now on my way to judge you. And I will quickly condemn all who practise witchcraft or cheat in marriage or tell lies in court or rob workers of their pay or ill-treat widows and orphans or steal the property of foreigners or refuse to respect me.

<sup>6</sup>Descendants of Jacob, I am the LORD All-Powerful, and I never change. That's why you haven't been wiped out,

<sup>7</sup>even though you have ignored and disobeyed my laws ever since the time of your ancestors. But if you return to me, I will return to you. And yet you ask, “How can we return?”

<sup>8</sup>You people are robbing me, your God. And, here you are, asking, “How are we robbing you?” You are robbing me of the offerings and of the ten per cent that belongs to me.

<sup>9</sup>That's why your whole nation is under a curse.

<sup>10</sup>I am the LORD All-Powerful, and I challenge you to put me to the test. Bring the entire ten per cent into the storehouse, so there will be food in my house. Then I will open the windows of heaven and flood you with blessing after blessing.

<sup>11</sup>I will also stop locusts from destroying your crops and keeping your vineyards from producing.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone of every nation will talk about how I have blessed you and about your wonderful land. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken!

<sup>13</sup>You have said horrible things about me, and yet you ask, “What have we said?”

<sup>14</sup>Here is what you have said: “It's foolish to serve the LORD God All-Powerful. What do we get for obeying him and from going around looking sad?”

<sup>15</sup>See how happy those arrogant people are. Everyone who does wrong is successful, and when they put God to the test, they always get away with it.”

The Lord will reward faithful people and punish those who are evil
Faithfulness is rewarded

<sup>16</sup>All those who truly respected the LORD and honoured his name started discussing these things, and when God saw what was happening, he had their names written as a reminder in his book.

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD All-Powerful said: You people are precious to me, and when I come to bring justice, I will protect you, just as parents protect an obedient child.

<sup>18</sup>Then everyone will once again see the difference between those who obey me by doing right and those who reject me by doing wrong.

Malachi 4

The day of judgment

The LORD said:

<sup>1</sup>The day of judgment is certain to come. And it will be like a red-hot furnace with flames that burn up proud and sinful people, as though they were straw. Not a branch or a root will be left. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken!

<sup>2</sup>But for you who honour my name, victory will shine like the sun with healing in its rays, and you will jump around like calves at play.

<sup>3</sup>When I come to bring justice, you will trample those who are evil, as though they were ashes under your feet. I, the LORD All-Powerful, have spoken!

<sup>4</sup>Don't ever forget the laws and teachings I gave my servant Moses on Mount Sinai.

<sup>5</sup>I, the LORD, promise to send the prophet Elijah before that great and terrible day comes.

<sup>6</sup>He will lead children and parents to love each other more, so that when I come, I won't bring doom to the land.

English - All Bible

Contemporary English Version (Anglicised Version)

Matthew

Matthew 1

The ancestors and birth of Jesus

The ancestors of Jesus

(Luke 3.23–38)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus Christ came from the family of King David and also from the family of Abraham. And this is a list of his ancestors.

<sup>2-6a</sup>From Abraham to King David, his ancestors were: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Judah and his brothers (Judah's sons were Perez and Zerah, and their mother was Tamar), Hezron; Ram, Amminadab, Nahshon, Salmon, Boaz (his mother was Rahab), Obed (his mother was Ruth), Jesse, and King David.

<sup>6b-11</sup>From David to the time of the exile in Babylonia, the ancestors of Jesus were: David, Solomon (his mother had been Uriah's wife), Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, Jehoram; Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, Amon, Josiah, and Jehoiachin and his brothers.

<sup>12-16</sup>From the exile to the birth of Jesus, his ancestors were: Jehoiachin, Shealtiel, Zerubbabel, Abiud, Eliakim, Azor, Zadok, Achim; Eliud, Eleazar, Matthan, Jacob, and Joseph, the husband of Mary, the mother of Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

<sup>17</sup>There were fourteen generations from Abraham to David. There were also fourteen from David to the exile in Babylonia and fourteen more to the birth of the Messiah.

The birth of Jesus

(Luke 2.1–7)

<sup>18</sup>This is how Jesus Christ was born. A young woman named Mary was engaged to Joseph from King David's family. But before they were married, she learnt that she was going to have a baby by God's Holy Spirit.

<sup>19</sup>Joseph was a good man and did not want to embarrass Mary in front of everyone. So he decided to call off the wedding quietly.

<sup>20</sup>While Joseph was thinking about this, an angel from the Lord came to him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, the baby that Mary will have is from the Holy Spirit. Go ahead and marry her.

<sup>21</sup>Then after her baby is born, name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup>So the Lord's promise came true, just as the prophet had said,

<sup>23</sup>"A virgin will have a baby boy, and he will be called Immanuel," which means "God is with us."

<sup>24</sup>After Joseph woke up, he and Mary were soon married, just as the Lord's angel had told him to do.

<sup>25</sup>But they did not sleep together before her baby was born. Then Joseph named him Jesus.

Matthew 2

The wise men

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus was born in the village of Bethlehem in Judea, Herod was king. During this time some wise men from the east came to Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup>and said, "Where is the child born to be king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him."

<sup>3</sup>When King Herod heard about this, he was worried, and so was everyone else in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>Herod brought together the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses and asked them, "Where will the Messiah be born?"

<sup>5</sup>They told him, "He will be born in Bethlehem, just as the prophet wrote,

<sup>6</sup>‘Bethlehem in the land of Judea, you are very important among the towns of Judea. From your town will come a leader, who will be like a shepherd for my people Israel.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Herod secretly called in the wise men and asked them when they had first seen the star.

<sup>8</sup>He told them, “Go to Bethlehem and search carefully for the child. As soon as you find him, let me know. I want to go and worship him too.”

<sup>9</sup>The wise men listened to what the king said and then left. And the star they had seen in the east went on ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was.

<sup>10</sup>They were thrilled and excited to see the star.

<sup>11</sup>When the men went into the house and saw the child with Mary, his mother, they knelt down and worshipped him. They took out their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh and gave them to him.

<sup>12</sup>Later they were warned in a dream not to return to Herod, and they went back home by another road.

The escape to Egypt

<sup>13</sup>After the wise men had gone, an angel from the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up! Hurry and take the child and his mother to Egypt! Stay there until I tell you to return, because Herod is looking for the child and wants to kill him.”

<sup>14</sup>That night, Joseph got up and took his wife and the child to Egypt,

<sup>15</sup>where they stayed until Herod died. So the Lord's promise came true, just as the prophet had said, “I called my son out of Egypt.”

The killing of the children

<sup>16</sup>When Herod found out that the wise men from the east had tricked him, he was very angry. He gave orders for his men to kill all the boys who lived in or near Bethlehem and were two years old and younger. This was based on what he had learnt from the wise men.

<sup>17</sup>So the Lord's promise came true, just as the prophet Jeremiah had said,

<sup>18</sup>“In Ramah a voice was heard crying and weeping loudly. Rachel was mourning for her children, and she refused to be comforted, because they were dead.”

The return from Egypt

<sup>19</sup>After King Herod died, an angel from the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph while he was still in Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>The angel said, “Get up and take the child and his mother back to Israel. The people who wanted to kill him are now dead.”

<sup>21</sup>Joseph got up and left with them for Israel.

<sup>22</sup>But when he heard that Herod's son Archelaus was now ruler of Judea, he was afraid to go there. Then in a dream he was told to go to Galilee,

<sup>23</sup>and they went to live there in the town of Nazareth. So the Lord's promise came true, just as the prophet had said, “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3

The message of John the Baptist

The preaching of John the Baptist

(Mark 1.1–8; Luke 3.1–18; John 1.19–28)

<sup>1</sup>Years later, John the Baptist started preaching in the desert of Judea.

<sup>2</sup>He said, “Turn back to God! The kingdom of heaven will soon be here.”

<sup>3</sup>John was the one the prophet Isaiah was talking about, when he said, “In the desert someone is shouting, ‘Get the road ready for the Lord! Make a straight path for him.’”

<sup>4</sup>John wore clothes made of camel's hair. He had a leather strap around his waist and ate grasshoppers and wild honey.

<sup>5</sup>From Jerusalem and all Judea and from the River Jordan Valley crowds of people went to John.

<sup>6</sup>They told how sorry they were for their sins, and he baptized them in the river.

<sup>7</sup>Many Pharisees and Sadducees also came to be baptized. But John said to them: You snakes! Who warned you to run from the coming judgment?

<sup>8</sup>Do something to show that you have really given up your sins.

<sup>9</sup>And don't start telling yourselves that you belong to Abraham's family. I tell you that God can turn these stones into children for Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>An axe is ready to cut the trees down at their roots. Any tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into a fire.

<sup>11</sup>I baptize you with water so that you will give up your sins. But someone more powerful is going to come, and I am not good enough even to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

<sup>12</sup>His threshing fork is in his hand, and he is ready to separate the wheat from the husks. He will store the wheat in a barn and burn the husks in a fire that never goes out.

The baptism and temptation of Jesus

The baptism of Jesus

(Mark 1.9–11; Luke 3.21,22)

<sup>13</sup>Jesus left Galilee and went to the River Jordan to be baptized by John.

<sup>14</sup>But John kept objecting and said, “I ought to be baptized by you. Why have you come to me?”

<sup>15</sup>Jesus answered, “For now this is how it should be, because we must do all that God wants us to do.” Then John agreed.

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus was baptized. And as soon as he came out of the water, the sky opened, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down on him like a dove.

<sup>17</sup>Then a voice from heaven said, “This is my own dear Son, and I am pleased with him.”

Matthew 4

Jesus and the devil

(Mark 1.12,13; Luke 4.1–13)

- <sup>1</sup>The Holy Spirit led Jesus into the desert, so that the devil could test him.
- <sup>2</sup>After Jesus had gone without eating for forty days and nights, he was very hungry.
- <sup>3</sup>Then the devil came to him and said, “If you are God's Son, tell these stones to turn into bread.”
- <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, “The Scriptures say: ‘No one can live only on food. People need every word that God has spoken. ’ ”
- <sup>5</sup>Next, the devil took Jesus to the holy city and made him stand on the highest part of the temple.
- <sup>6</sup>The devil said, “If you are God's Son, jump off. The Scriptures say: ‘God will give his angels orders about you. They will catch you in their arms, and you won't hurt your feet on the stones. ’ ”
- <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered, “The Scriptures also say, ‘Don't try to test the Lord your God! ’ ”
- <sup>8</sup>Finally, the devil took Jesus up on a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms on earth and their power.
- <sup>9</sup>The devil said to him, “I will give all this to you, if you will bow down and worship me.”
- <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered, “Go away Satan! The Scriptures say: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve only him. ’ ”
- <sup>11</sup>Then the devil left Jesus, and angels came to help him.

Jesus in Galilee

Jesus begins his work

(Mark 1.14,15; Luke 4.14,15)

- <sup>12</sup>When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he went to Galilee.

<sup>13</sup> But instead of staying in Nazareth, Jesus moved to Capernaum. This town was beside Lake Galilee in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali.

<sup>14</sup> So God's promise came true, just as the prophet Isaiah had said,

<sup>15</sup> “Listen, lands of Zebulun and Naphtali, lands along the road to the sea and east of the Jordan! Listen Galilee, land of the Gentiles!

<sup>16</sup> Although your people live in darkness, they will see a bright light. Although they live in the shadow of death, a light will shine on them.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus started preaching, “Turn back to God! The kingdom of heaven will soon be here.”

Jesus chooses four fishermen

(Mark 1.16–20; Luke 5.1–11)

<sup>18</sup> While Jesus was walking along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw two brothers. One was Simon, also known as Peter, and the other was Andrew. They were fishermen, and they were casting their net into the lake.

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, “Come with me! I will teach you how to bring in people instead of fish.”

<sup>20</sup> At once the two brothers dropped their nets and went with him.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus walked on until he saw James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father, mending their nets. Jesus asked them to come with him too.

<sup>22</sup> Straight away they left the boat and their father and went with Jesus.

Jesus teaches, preaches, and heals

(Luke 6.17–19)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went all over Galilee, teaching in the Jewish meeting places and preaching the good news about God's kingdom. He also healed every kind of disease and sickness.

<sup>24</sup> News about him spread all over Syria, and people with every kind of sickness or disease were brought to him. Some of them had a lot of demons in them, others were thought to be mad, and still others could not walk. But Jesus healed them all.

<sup>25</sup>Large crowds followed Jesus from Galilee and the region around the ten cities known as Decapolis. They also came from Jerusalem, Judea, and from across the River Jordan.

Matthew 5

The sermon on the mount

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on the side of a mountain and sat down.

Blessings (Luke 6.20–23)

Jesus' disciples gathered around him,

<sup>2</sup>and he taught them:

<sup>3</sup>God blesses those people who depend only on him. They belong to the kingdom of heaven!

<sup>4</sup>God blesses those people who grieve. They will find comfort!

<sup>5</sup>God blesses those people who are humble. The earth will belong to them!

<sup>6</sup>God blesses those people who want to obey him more than to eat or drink. They will be given what they want!

<sup>7</sup>God blesses those people who are merciful. They will be treated with mercy!

<sup>8</sup>God blesses those people whose hearts are pure. They will see him!

<sup>9</sup>God blesses those people who make peace. They will be called his children!

<sup>10</sup>God blesses those people who are treated badly for doing right. They belong to the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup>God will bless you when people insult you, ill-treat you, and tell all kinds of evil lies about you because of me.

<sup>12</sup>Be happy and excited! You will have a great reward in heaven. People did these same things to the prophets who lived long ago.

Salt and light

(Mark 9.50; Luke 14.34,35)

Jesus continued:

13 You are like salt for everyone on earth. But if salt no longer tastes like salt, how can it make food salty? All it is good for is to be thrown out and walked on.

14 You are like light for the whole world. A city built on top of a hill cannot be hidden,

15 and no one would light a lamp and put it under a clay pot. A lamp is placed on a lampstand, where it can give light to everyone in the house.

16 Make your light shine, so that others will see the good that you do and will praise your Father in heaven.

The Law of Moses

Jesus continued:

17 Don't suppose that I came to do away with the Law and the Prophets. I did not come to do away with them, but to give them their full meaning.

18 Heaven and earth may disappear. But I promise you that not even a full stop or comma will ever disappear from the Law. Everything written in it must happen.

19 If you reject even the least important command in the Law and teach others to do the same, you will be the least important person in the kingdom of heaven. But if you obey and teach others its commands, you will have an important place in the kingdom.

20 You must obey God's commands better than the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law obey them. If you don't, I promise you that you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

Anger

Jesus continued:

21 You know that our ancestors were told, “Do not murder” and “A murderer must be brought to trial.”

<sup>22</sup>But I promise you that if you are angry with someone, you will have to stand trial. If you call someone a fool, you will be taken to court. And if you say that someone is worthless, you will be in danger of the fires of hell.

<sup>23</sup>So if you are about to place your gift on the altar and remember that someone is angry with you,

<sup>24</sup>leave your gift there in front of the altar. Make peace with that person, then come back and offer your gift to God.

<sup>25</sup>Before you are dragged into court, make friends with the person who has accused you of doing wrong. If you don't, you will be handed over to the judge and then to the officer who will put you in jail.

<sup>26</sup>I promise you that you will not get out until you have paid the last penny you owe.

Marriage

Jesus continued:

<sup>27</sup>You know the commandment which says, "Be faithful in marriage."

<sup>28</sup>But I tell you that if you look at another woman and want her, you are already unfaithful in your thoughts.

<sup>29</sup>If your right eye causes you to sin, poke it out and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body, than for your whole body to end up in hell.

<sup>30</sup>If your right hand causes you to sin, chop it off and throw it away! It is better to lose one part of your body, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

Divorce

(Matthew 19.9; Mark 10.11,12; Luke 16.18)

Jesus continued:

<sup>31</sup>You have been taught that a man who divorces his wife must write out divorce papers for her.

<sup>32</sup> But I tell you not to divorce your wife unless she has committed some terrible sexual sin. If you divorce her, you will cause her to be unfaithful, just as any man who marries her is guilty of taking another man's wife.

Promises

Jesus continued:

<sup>33</sup> You know that our ancestors were told, “Don't use the Lord's name to make a promise unless you are going to keep it.”

<sup>34</sup> But I tell you not to swear by anything when you make a promise! Heaven is God's throne, so don't swear by heaven.

<sup>35</sup> The earth is God's footstool, so don't swear by the earth. Jerusalem is the city of the great king, so don't swear by it.

<sup>36</sup> Don't swear by your own head. You cannot make one hair white or black.

<sup>37</sup> When you make a promise, say only “Yes” or “No”. Anything else comes from the devil.

Revenge

(Luke 6.29,30)

Jesus continued:

<sup>38</sup> You know that you have been taught, “An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.”

<sup>39</sup> But I tell you not to try to get even with a person who has done something to you. When someone slaps your right cheek, turn and let that person slap your other cheek.

<sup>40</sup> If someone sues you for your shirt, give up your coat as well.

<sup>41</sup> If a soldier forces you to carry his pack one kilometre, carry it two kilometres.

<sup>42</sup> When people ask you for something, give it to them. When they want to borrow money, lend it to them.

Love

(Luke 6.27,28,32–36)

Jesus continued:

<sup>43</sup>You have heard people say, “Love your neighbours and hate your enemies.”

<sup>44</sup>But I tell you to love your enemies and pray for anyone who ill-treats you.

<sup>45</sup>Then you will be acting like your Father in heaven. He makes the sun rise on both good and bad people. And he sends rain for the ones who do right and for the ones who do wrong.

<sup>46</sup>If you love only those people who love you, will God reward you for that? Even tax collectors love their friends.

<sup>47</sup>If you greet only your friends, what's so great about that? Don't even unbelievers do that?

<sup>48</sup>But you must always act like your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6

Giving

Jesus said:

<sup>1</sup>When you do good deeds, don't try to show off. If you do, you won't get a reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>When you give to the poor, don't blow a loud horn. That's what show-offs do in the meeting places and on the street corners, because they are always looking for praise. I can assure you that they already have their reward.

<sup>3</sup>When you give to the poor, don't let anyone know about it.

<sup>4</sup>Then your gift will be given in secret. Your Father knows what is done in secret, and he will reward you.

Prayer

(Luke 11.2–4)

Jesus continued:

<sup>5</sup>When you pray, don't be like those show-offs who love to stand up and pray in the meeting places and on the street corners. They do this just to look good. I can assure you that they already have their reward.

<sup>6</sup>When you pray, go into a room alone and close the door. Pray to your Father in private. He knows what is done in private, and he will reward you.

<sup>7</sup>When you pray, don't talk on and on as people do who don't know God. They think God likes to hear long prayers.

<sup>8</sup>Don't be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask.

<sup>9</sup>You should pray like this: Our Father in heaven, help us to honour your name.

<sup>10</sup>Come and set up your kingdom, so that everyone on earth will obey you, as you are obeyed in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us our food for today.

<sup>12</sup>Forgive us for doing wrong, as we forgive others.

<sup>13</sup>Keep us from being tempted and protect us from evil.

<sup>14</sup>If you forgive others for the wrongs they do to you, your Father in heaven will forgive you.

<sup>15</sup>But if you don't forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Worshipping God by going without eating

Jesus continued:

<sup>16</sup>When you go without eating, don't try to look gloomy as those show-offs do when they go without eating. I can assure you that they already have their reward.

<sup>17</sup>Instead, comb your hair and wash your face.

<sup>18</sup>Then others won't know that you are going without eating. But your Father sees what is done in private, and he will reward you.

Treasures in heaven

(Luke 12.33,34)

Jesus continued:

<sup>19</sup> Don't store up treasures on earth! Moths and rust can destroy them, and thieves can break in and steal them.

<sup>20</sup> Instead, store up your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy them, and thieves cannot break in and steal them.

<sup>21</sup> Your heart will always be where your treasure is.

Light

(Luke 11.34–36)

Jesus continued:

<sup>22</sup> Your eyes are like a window for your body. When they are good, you have all the light you need.

<sup>23</sup> But when your eyes are bad, everything is dark. If the light inside you is dark, you are in the dark.

Money

(Luke 16.13)

Jesus continued:

<sup>24</sup> You cannot be the slave of two masters! You will love one more than the other or be more loyal to one than the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

Worry

(Luke 12.22–31)

Jesus continued:

<sup>25</sup> I tell you not to worry about your life. Don't worry about having something to eat, drink, or wear. Isn't life more than food or clothing?

<sup>26</sup> Look at the birds in the sky! They don't plant or harvest. They don't even store grain in barns. Yet your Father in heaven takes care of them. Aren't you worth more than birds?

<sup>27</sup> Can worry make you live longer?

<sup>28</sup>Why worry about clothes? Look how the wild flowers grow. They don't work hard to make their clothes.

<sup>29</sup>But I tell you that Solomon with all his wealth wasn't as well clothed as one of them.

<sup>30</sup>God gives such beauty to everything that grows in the fields, even though it is here today and thrown into a fire tomorrow. He will surely do even more for you! Why do you have such little faith?

<sup>31</sup>Don't worry and ask yourselves, "Will we have anything to eat? Will we have anything to drink? Will we have any clothes to wear?"

<sup>32</sup>Only people who don't know God are always worrying about such things. Your Father in heaven knows that you need all these.

<sup>33</sup>But more than anything else, put God's work first and do what he wants. Then the other things will be yours as well.

<sup>34</sup>Don't worry about tomorrow. It will take care of itself. You have enough to worry about today.

Matthew 7

Judging others

(Luke 6.37,38,41,42)

Jesus said:

<sup>1</sup>Don't condemn others, and God won't condemn you.

<sup>2</sup>God will be as hard on you as you are on others! He will treat you exactly as you treat them.

<sup>3</sup>You can see the speck in your friend's eye, but you don't notice the log in your own eye.

<sup>4</sup>How can you say, "My friend, let me take the speck out of your eye," when you don't see the log in your own eye?

<sup>5</sup>You're nothing but show-offs! First, take the log out of your own eye. Then you can see how to take the speck out of your friend's eye.

<sup>6</sup>Don't give to dogs what belongs to God. They will only turn and attack you. Don't throw pearls down in front of pigs. They will trample all over them.

Ask, search, knock

(Luke 11.9–13)

Jesus continued:

<sup>7</sup>Ask, and you will receive. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened for you.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone who asks will receive. Everyone who searches will find. And the door will be opened for everyone who knocks.

<sup>9</sup>Would any of you give your hungry child a stone, if the child asked for some bread?

<sup>10</sup>Would you give your child a snake if the child asked for a fish?

<sup>11</sup>As bad as you are, you still know how to give good gifts to your children. But your heavenly Father is even more ready to give good things to people who ask.

<sup>12</sup>Treat others as you want them to treat you. This is what the Law and the Prophets are all about.

The narrow gate

(Luke 13.24)

Jesus continued:

<sup>13</sup>Go in through the narrow gate. The gate to destruction is wide, and the road that leads there is easy to follow. A lot of people go through that gate.

<sup>14</sup>But the gate to life is very narrow. The road that leads there is so hard to follow that only a few people find it.

A tree and its fruit

(Luke 6.43–45)

Jesus continued:

<sup>15</sup>Watch out for false prophets! They dress up like sheep, but inside they are wolves who have come to attack you.

<sup>16</sup>You can tell what they are by what they do. No one picks grapes or figs from thorn bushes.

<sup>17</sup>A good tree produces good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit.

<sup>18</sup>A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot produce good fruit.

<sup>19</sup>Every tree that produces bad fruit will be chopped down and burnt.

<sup>20</sup>You can tell who the false prophets are by their deeds.

A warning
(Luke 13.26,27)

Jesus continued:

<sup>21</sup>Not everyone who calls me their Lord will get into the kingdom of heaven. Only the ones who obey my Father in heaven will get in.

<sup>22</sup>On the day of judgment many will call me their Lord. They will say, “We preached in your name, and in your name we forced out demons and performed many miracles.”

<sup>23</sup>But I will tell them, “I will have nothing to do with you! Get out of my sight, you evil people!”

Two builders
(Luke 6.47–49)

Jesus continued:

<sup>24</sup>Anyone who hears and obeys these teachings of mine is like a wise person who built a house on solid rock.

<sup>25</sup>Rain poured down, rivers flooded, and winds beat against that house. But it did not fall, because it was built on solid rock.

<sup>26</sup>Anyone who hears my teachings and doesn't obey them is like a foolish person who built a house on sand.

<sup>27</sup>The rain poured down, the rivers flooded, and the winds blew and beat against that house. Finally, it fell with a crash.

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus finished speaking, the crowds were surprised at his teaching.

<sup>29</sup>He taught them like someone with authority, and not like their teachers of the Law of Moses.

Matthew 8

Jesus heals a man

(Mark 1.40–45; Luke 5.12–16)

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus came down the mountain, he was followed by large crowds.

<sup>2</sup>Suddenly a man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus. He said, “Lord, you have the power to make me well, if only you wanted to.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus put his hand on the man and said, “I want to! Now you are well.” At once the man's leprosy disappeared.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus told him, “Don't tell anyone about this, but go and show the priest that you are well. Then take a gift to the temple just as Moses commanded, and everyone will know that you have been healed.”

Jesus heals an army officer's servant

(Luke 7.1–10; John 4.43–54)

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus was going into the town of Capernaum, an army officer came up to him and said,

<sup>6</sup>“Lord, my servant is at home in such terrible pain that he can't even move.”

<sup>7</sup>“I will go and heal him,” Jesus replied.

<sup>8</sup>But the officer said, “Lord, I'm not good enough for you to come into my house. Just give the order, and my servant will get well.

<sup>9</sup>I have officers who give orders to me, and I have soldiers who take orders from me. I can say to one of them, ‘Go! ’ and he goes. I can say to another, ‘Come! ’ and he comes. I can say to my servant, ‘Do this! ’ and he will do it.”

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was so surprised that he turned and said to the crowd following him, “I tell you that in all of Israel I've never found anyone with this much faith!

<sup>11</sup>Many people will come from everywhere to enjoy the feast in the kingdom of heaven with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>12</sup>But the ones who should have been in the kingdom will be thrown out into the dark. They will cry and grit their teeth in pain.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the officer, “You may go home now. Your faith has made it happen.” At once his servant was healed.

Jesus heals many people

(Mark 1.29–34; Luke 4.38–41)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus went to the home of Peter, where he found that Peter's mother-in-law was sick in bed with fever.

<sup>15</sup>He took her by the hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and served Jesus a meal.

<sup>16</sup>That evening many people with demons in them were brought to Jesus. And with only a word he forced out the evil spirits and healed everyone who was sick.

<sup>17</sup>So God's promise came true, just as the prophet Isaiah had said, “He healed our diseases and made us well.”

Some who wanted to go with Jesus

(Luke 9.57–62)

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus saw the crowd, he went across Lake Galilee.

<sup>19</sup>A teacher of the Law of Moses came up to him and said, “Teacher, I'll go anywhere with you!”

<sup>20</sup>Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens, and birds have nests. But the Son of Man doesn't have a place to call his own.”

<sup>21</sup>Another disciple said to Jesus, “Lord, let me wait till I bury my father.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus answered, “Come with me, and let the dead bury their dead.”

A storm

(Mark 4.35–41; Luke 8.22–25)

<sup>23</sup>After Jesus left in a boat with his disciples,

<sup>24</sup>a terrible storm suddenly struck the lake, and waves started splashing into their boat. Jesus was sound asleep,

<sup>25</sup>so the disciples went over to him and woke him up. They said, “Lord, save us! We're going to drown!”

<sup>26</sup>But Jesus replied, “Why are you so afraid? You don't have much faith.” Then he got up and ordered the wind and the waves to calm down. And everything was calm.

<sup>27</sup>The men in the boat were amazed and said, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him.”

Two men with demons in them

(Mark 5.1–20; Luke 8.26–39)

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus had crossed the lake, he came to shore near the town of Gadara and started down the road. Two men with demons in them came to him from the tombs. They were so fierce that no one could travel that way.

<sup>29</sup>Suddenly they shouted, “Jesus, Son of God, what do you want with us? Have you come to punish us before our time?”

<sup>30</sup>Not far from there a large herd of pigs was feeding.

<sup>31</sup>So the demons begged Jesus, “If you force us out, please send us into those pigs!”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus told them to go, and they went out of the men and into the pigs. All at once the pigs rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

<sup>33</sup>The people taking care of the pigs ran to the town and told everything, especially what had happened to the two men.

<sup>34</sup>Everyone in town came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their part of the country.

Matthew 9

Jesus heals a crippled man

(Mark 2.1–12; Luke 5.17–26)

- <sup>1</sup>Jesus got into a boat and crossed back over to the town where he lived.
- <sup>2</sup>Some people soon brought to him a crippled man lying on a mat. When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the crippled man, “My friend, don't worry! Your sins are forgiven.”
- <sup>3</sup>Some teachers of the Law of Moses said to themselves, “Jesus must think he is God!”
- <sup>4</sup>But Jesus knew what was in their minds, and he said, “Why are you thinking such evil things?”
- <sup>5</sup>Is it easier for me to tell this crippled man that his sins are forgiven or to tell him to get up and walk?
- <sup>6</sup>But I will show you that the Son of Man has the right to forgive sins here on earth.” So Jesus said to the man, “Get up! Pick up your mat and go on home.”
- <sup>7</sup>The man got up and went home.
- <sup>8</sup>When the crowds saw this, they were afraid and praised God for giving such authority to people.

Jesus chooses Matthew

(Mark 2.13–17; Luke 5.27–32)

- <sup>9</sup>As Jesus was leaving, he saw a tax collector named Matthew sitting at the place for paying taxes. Jesus said to him, “Come with me.” Matthew got up and went with him.
- <sup>10</sup>Later, Jesus and his disciples were having dinner at Matthew's house. Many tax collectors and other sinners were also there.
- <sup>11</sup>Some Pharisees asked Jesus' disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and other sinners?”
- <sup>12</sup>Jesus heard them and answered, “Healthy people don't need a doctor, but sick people do.”

<sup>13</sup>Go and learn what the Scriptures mean when they say, ‘Instead of offering sacrifices to me, I want you to be merciful to others.’ I didn't come to invite good people to be my followers. I came to invite sinners.”

People ask about going without eating

(Mark 2.18–22; Luke 5.33–39)

<sup>14</sup>One day some followers of John the Baptist came and asked Jesus, “Why do we and the Pharisees often go without eating, while your disciples never do?”

<sup>15</sup>Jesus answered: The friends of a bridegroom don't go without eating while he is still with them. But the time will come when he will be taken from them. Then they will go without eating.

<sup>16</sup>No one uses a new piece of cloth to patch old clothes. The patch would shrink and tear a bigger hole.

<sup>17</sup>No one pours new wine into old wineskins. The wine would swell and burst the old skins. Then the wine would be lost, and the skins would be ruined. New wine must be put into new wineskins. Both the skins and the wine will then be safe.

A dying girl and a sick woman

(Mark 5.21–43; Luke 8.40–56)

<sup>18</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, an official came and knelt in front of him. The man said, “My daughter has just died! Please come and place your hand on her. Then she will live again.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus and his disciples got up and went with the man.

<sup>20</sup>A woman who had been bleeding for twelve years came up behind Jesus and barely touched his clothes.

<sup>21</sup>She had said to herself, “If I can just touch his clothes, I will get well.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus turned. He saw the woman and said, “Don't worry! You are now well because of your faith.” At that moment she was healed.

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus went into the home of the official and saw the musicians and the crowd of mourners,

<sup>24</sup>he said, “Get out of here! The little girl isn't dead. She is just asleep.” Everyone started laughing at Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>But after the crowd had been sent out of the house, Jesus went to the girl's bedside. He took her by the hand and helped her up.

<sup>26</sup>News about this spread all over that part of the country.

Jesus heals two blind men

<sup>27</sup>As Jesus was walking along, two blind men began following him and shouting, “Son of David, have pity on us!”

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus had gone indoors, the two blind men came up to him. He asked them, “Do you believe I can make you well?” “Yes, Lord,” they answered.

<sup>29</sup>Jesus touched their eyes and said, “Because of your faith, you will be healed.”

<sup>30</sup>They were able to see, and Jesus strictly warned them not to tell anyone about him.

<sup>31</sup>But they left and talked about him to everyone in that part of the country.

Jesus heals a man who could not talk

<sup>32</sup>As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, some people brought to him a man who could not talk because a demon was in him.

<sup>33</sup>After Jesus had forced the demon out, the man started talking. The crowds were so amazed that they began saying, “Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel!”

<sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees said, “The leader of the demons gives him the power to force out demons.”

Jesus has pity on people

<sup>35</sup>Jesus went to every town and village. He taught in their meeting places and preached the good news about God's kingdom. Jesus also healed every kind of disease and sickness.

<sup>36</sup>When he saw the crowds, he felt sorry for them. They were confused and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>37</sup>He said to his disciples, “A large crop is in the fields, but there are only a few workers.

<sup>38</sup>Ask the Lord in charge of the harvest to send out workers to bring it in.”

Matthew 10

Jesus chooses his twelve apostles

(Mark 3.13–19; Luke 6.12–16)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus called together his twelve disciples. He gave them the power to force out evil spirits and to heal every kind of disease and sickness.

<sup>2</sup>The first of the twelve apostles was Simon, better known as Peter. His brother Andrew was an apostle, and so were James and John, the two sons of Zebedee.

<sup>3</sup>Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas, Matthew the tax collector, James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus were also apostles.

<sup>4</sup>The others were Simon, known as the Eager One, and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

Instructions for the twelve apostles

(Mark 6.7–13; Luke 9.1–6)

<sup>5</sup>Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions: Stay away from the Gentiles and don't go to any Samaritan town.

<sup>6</sup>Go only to the people of Israel, because they are like a flock of lost sheep.

<sup>7</sup>As you go, announce that the kingdom of heaven will soon be here.

<sup>8</sup>Heal the sick, raise the dead to life, heal people who have leprosy, and force out demons. You received without paying, now give without being paid.

<sup>9</sup>Don't take along any gold, silver, or copper coins.

<sup>10</sup>And don't carry a travelling bag or an extra shirt or sandals or a walking stick. Workers deserve their food.

<sup>11</sup>So when you go to a town or a village, find someone worthy enough to have you as their guest and stay with them until you leave.

<sup>12</sup>When you go to a home, give it your blessing of peace.

<sup>13</sup>If the home is deserving, let your blessing remain with them. But if the home isn't deserving, take back your blessing of peace.

<sup>14</sup>If someone won't welcome you or listen to your message, leave their home or town. And shake the dust from your feet at them.

<sup>15</sup>I promise you that the day of judgment will be easier for the towns of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

Warning about trouble
(Mark 13.9–13; Luke 21.12–17)

Jesus continued:

<sup>16</sup>I am sending you like lambs into a pack of wolves. So be as wise as snakes and as innocent as doves.

<sup>17</sup>Watch out for people who will take you to court and have you beaten in their meeting places.

<sup>18</sup>Because of me, you will be dragged before rulers and kings to tell them and the Gentiles about your faith.

<sup>19</sup>But when someone arrests you, don't worry about what you will say or how you will say it. At that time you will be given the words to say.

<sup>20</sup>But you will not really be the one speaking. The Spirit from your Father will tell you what to say.

<sup>21</sup>Brothers and sisters will betray one another and have each other put to death. Parents will betray their own children, and children will turn against their parents and have them killed.

<sup>22</sup>Everyone will hate you because of me. But if you remain faithful until the end, you will be saved.

<sup>23</sup>When people ill-treat you in one town, hurry to another one. I promise you that before you have gone to all the towns of Israel, the Son of Man will come.

<sup>24</sup>Disciples are not better than their teacher, and slaves are not better than their master.

<sup>25</sup>It is enough for disciples to be like their teacher and for slaves to be like their master. If people call the head of the family Satan, what will they say about the rest of the family?

The one to fear
(Luke 12.2–7)

Jesus continued:

<sup>26</sup>Don't be afraid of anyone! Everything that is hidden will be found out, and every secret will be known.

<sup>27</sup>Whatever I say to you in the dark, you must tell in the light. And you must announce from the housetops whatever I have whispered to you.

<sup>28</sup>Don't be afraid of people. They can kill you, but they cannot harm your soul. Instead, you should fear God who can destroy both your body and your soul in hell.

<sup>29</sup>Aren't two sparrows sold for only a penny? But your Father knows when any one of them falls to the ground.

<sup>30</sup>Even the hairs on your head are counted.

<sup>31</sup>So don't be afraid! You are worth much more than many sparrows.

Telling others about Christ
(Luke 12.8,9)

Jesus continued:

<sup>32</sup>If you tell others that you belong to me, I will tell my Father in heaven that you are my followers.

<sup>33</sup>But if you reject me, I will tell my Father in heaven that you don't belong to me.

Not peace, but trouble

(Luke 12.51–53; 14.26,27)

Jesus continued:

<sup>34</sup>Don't think that I came to bring peace to the earth! I came to bring trouble, not peace.

<sup>35</sup>I came to turn sons against their fathers, daughters against their mothers, and daughters-in-law against their mothers-in-law.

<sup>36</sup>Your worst enemies will be in your own family.

<sup>37</sup>If you love your father or mother or even your sons and daughters more than me, you are not fit to be my disciples.

<sup>38</sup>And unless you are willing to take up your cross and come with me, you are not fit to be my disciples.

<sup>39</sup>If you try to save your life, you will lose it. But if you give it up for me, you will find it.

Rewards

(Mark 9.41)

Jesus continued:

<sup>40</sup>Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me. And anyone who welcomes me also welcomes the one who sent me.

<sup>41</sup>Anyone who welcomes a prophet, just because that person is a prophet, will be given the same reward as a prophet. Anyone who welcomes a good person, just because that person is good, will be given the same reward as a good person.

<sup>42</sup>And anyone who gives one of my most humble followers a cup of cool water, just because that person is my follower, will be rewarded.

Matthew 11

John the Baptist

(Luke 7.18–35)

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he left and began teaching and preaching in the towns.

<sup>2</sup>John was in prison when he heard what Christ was doing. So John sent some of his followers

<sup>3</sup>to ask Jesus, “Are you the one we should be looking for? Or must we wait for someone else?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, “Go and tell John what you have heard and seen.

<sup>5</sup>The blind are now able to see, and the lame can walk. People with leprosy are being healed, and the deaf can hear. The dead are raised to life, and the poor are hearing the good news.

<sup>6</sup>God will bless everyone who doesn't reject me because of what I do.”

<sup>7</sup>As John's followers were going away, Jesus spoke to the crowds about John: What sort of person did you go out into the desert to see? Was he like tall grass blown about by the wind?

<sup>8</sup>What kind of man did you go out to see? Was he someone dressed in fine clothes? People who dress like that live in the king's palace.

<sup>9</sup>What did you really go out to see? Was he a prophet? He certainly was. I tell you that he was more than a prophet.

<sup>10</sup>In the Scriptures God says about him, “I am sending my messenger ahead of you to get things ready for you.”

<sup>11</sup>I tell you that no one ever born on this earth is greater than John the Baptist. But whoever is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than John.

<sup>12</sup>From the time of John the Baptist until now, violent people have been trying to take over the kingdom of heaven by force.

<sup>13</sup>All the Books of the Prophets and the Law of Moses told what was going to happen up to the time of John.

<sup>14</sup>And if you believe them, John is Elijah, the prophet you are waiting for.

<sup>15</sup>If you have ears, pay attention!

<sup>16</sup>You people are like children sitting in the market and shouting to each other,

<sup>17</sup>“We played the flute, but you would not dance! We sang a funeral song, but you would not mourn!”

<sup>18</sup>John the Baptist did not go around eating and drinking, and you said, “That man has a demon in him!”

<sup>19</sup>But the Son of Man goes around eating and drinking, and you say, “That man eats and drinks too much! He is even a friend of tax collectors and sinners.” Yet Wisdom is shown to be right by what it does.

The unbelieving towns

(Luke 10.13–15)

<sup>20</sup>In the towns where Jesus had performed most of his miracles, the people refused to turn to God. So Jesus was upset with them and said:

<sup>21</sup>You people of Chorazin are in for trouble! You people of Bethsaida are in for trouble too! If the miracles that took place in your towns had happened in Tyre and Sidon, the people there would have turned to God long ago. They would have dressed in sackcloth and put ashes on their heads.

<sup>22</sup>I tell you that on the day of judgment the people of Tyre and Sidon will get off easier than you will.

<sup>23</sup>People of Capernaum, do you think you will be honoured in heaven? You will go down to hell! If the miracles that took place in your town had happened in Sodom, that town would still be standing.

<sup>24</sup>So I tell you that on the day of judgment the people of Sodom will get off easier than you.

Come to me and rest

(Luke 10.21,22)

<sup>25</sup>At that moment Jesus said: My Father, Lord of heaven and earth, I am grateful that you hid all this from wise and educated people and showed it to ordinary people.

<sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, that is what pleased you.

<sup>27</sup>My Father has given me everything, and he is the only one who knows the Son. The only one who truly knows the Father is the Son. But the Son wants to tell others about the Father, so that they can know him too.

<sup>28</sup>If you are tired from carrying heavy burdens, come to me and I will give you rest.

<sup>29</sup>Take the yoke I give you. Put it on your shoulders and learn from me. I am gentle and humble, and you will find rest.

<sup>30</sup>This yoke is easy to bear, and this burden is light.

Matthew 12

A question about the Sabbath

(Mark 2.23–28; Luke 6.1–5)

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath, Jesus and his disciples were walking through some wheat fields. His disciples were hungry and began picking and eating grains of wheat.

<sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees noticed this and said to Jesus, “Why are your disciples picking grain on the Sabbath? They are not supposed to do that!”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered: You must have read what David did when he and his followers were hungry.

<sup>4</sup>He went into the house of God, and then they ate the sacred loaves of bread that only priests are supposed to eat.

<sup>5</sup>Haven't you read in the Law of Moses that the priests are allowed to work in the temple on the Sabbath? But no one says that they are guilty of breaking the law of the Sabbath.

<sup>6</sup>I tell you that there is something here greater than the temple.

<sup>7</sup>Don't you know what the Scriptures mean when they say, “Instead of offering sacrifices to me, I want you to be merciful to others”? If you knew what this means, you would not condemn these innocent disciples of mine.

<sup>8</sup>So the Son of Man is Lord over the Sabbath.

A man with a crippled hand

(Mark 3.1–6; Luke 6.6–11)

<sup>9</sup>Jesus left and went into one of the Jewish meeting places,

<sup>10</sup>where there was a man whose hand was crippled. Some Pharisees wanted to accuse Jesus of doing something wrong, and they asked him, “Is it right to heal someone on the Sabbath?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, “If you had a sheep that fell into a ditch on the Sabbath, wouldn't you lift it out?

<sup>12</sup>People are worth much more than sheep, and so it is right to do good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus told the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man did, and it became as healthy as the other one.

<sup>14</sup>The Pharisees left and started making plans to kill Jesus.

God's chosen servant

<sup>15</sup>When Jesus found out what was happening, he left there and large crowds followed him. He healed all their sick, <sup>16</sup>but warned them not to tell anyone about him.

<sup>17</sup>So God's promise came true, just as Isaiah the prophet had said,

<sup>18</sup>“Here is my chosen servant! I love him, and he pleases me. I will give him my Spirit, and he will bring justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup>He won't shout or yell or call out in the streets.

<sup>20</sup>He won't break off a bent reed or put out a dying flame, but he will make sure that justice is done.

<sup>21</sup>All nations will place their hope in him.”

Jesus and the ruler of the demons

(Mark 3.20–30; Luke 11.14–23; 12.10)

<sup>22</sup>Some people brought to Jesus a man who was blind and could not talk because he had a demon in him. Jesus healed the man, and then he was able to talk and see.

<sup>23</sup>The crowds were so amazed that they asked, “Could Jesus be the Son of David?”

<sup>24</sup>When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “He forces out demons by the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons!”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he said to them: Any kingdom where people fight each other will end up ruined. And a town or family that fights will soon destroy itself.

<sup>26</sup>So if Satan fights against himself, how can his kingdom last?

<sup>27</sup>If I use the power of Beelzebul to force out demons, whose power do your own followers use to force them out? Your followers are the ones who will judge you.

<sup>28</sup>But when I force out demons by the power of God's Spirit, it proves that God's kingdom has already come to you.

<sup>29</sup>How can anyone break into a strong man's house and steal his things, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can take everything.

<sup>30</sup> If you are not on my side, you are against me. If you don't gather in the harvest with me, you scatter it.

<sup>31-32</sup> I tell you that any sinful thing you do or say can be forgiven. Even if you speak against the Son of Man, you can be forgiven. But if you speak against the Holy Spirit, you can never be forgiven, either in this life or in the life to come.

A tree and its fruit
(Luke 6.43–45)

Jesus continued:

<sup>33</sup> A good tree produces only good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit. You can tell what a tree is like by the fruit it produces.

<sup>34</sup>You are evil snakes, so how can you say anything good? Your words show what is in your hearts.

<sup>35</sup>Good people bring good things out of their hearts, but evil people bring evil things out of their hearts.

<sup>36</sup>I promise you that on the day of judgment, everyone will have to account for every careless word they have spoken.

<sup>37</sup>On that day they will be told that they are either innocent or guilty because of the things they have said.

A sign from heaven

(Mark 8.11,12; Luke 11.29–32)

<sup>38</sup>Some Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses said, “Teacher, we want you to show us a sign from heaven.”

<sup>39</sup>But Jesus replied: You want a sign because you are evil and won't believe! But the only sign you will get is the sign of the prophet Jonah.

<sup>40</sup>He was in the stomach of a big fish for three days and nights, just as the Son of Man will be deep in the earth for three days and nights.

<sup>41</sup>On the day of judgment the people of Nineveh will stand there with you and condemn you. They turned to God when Jonah preached, and yet here is something far greater than Jonah.

<sup>42</sup>The Queen of the South will also stand there with you and condemn you. She travelled a long way to hear Solomon's wisdom, and yet here is something much greater than Solomon.

Return of an evil spirit

(Luke 11.24–26)

Jesus continued:

<sup>43</sup>When an evil spirit leaves a person, it travels through the desert, looking for a place to rest. But when the demon doesn't find a place,

<sup>44</sup>it says, “I will go back to the home I left.” When it gets there and finds the place empty, clean, and tidy,

<sup>45</sup>it goes off and finds seven other evil spirits even worse than itself. They all come and make their home there, and the person ends up in a worse state than before. That's how it will be with you evil people of today.

Jesus' mother and brothers

(Mark 3.31–35; Luke 8.19–21)

<sup>46</sup>While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers came and stood outside because they wanted to talk with him.

<sup>47</sup>Someone told Jesus, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to talk with you.”

<sup>48</sup>Jesus answered, “Who is my mother and who are my brothers?”

<sup>49</sup>Then he pointed to his disciples and said, “These are my mother and my brothers!

<sup>50</sup>Anyone who obeys my Father in heaven is my brother or sister or mother.”

Matthew 13

A story about a farmer

(Mark 4.1–9; Luke 8.4–8)

<sup>1</sup>That same day Jesus left the house and went out beside Lake Galilee, where he sat down to teach.

<sup>2</sup>Such large crowds gathered around him that he had to sit in a boat, while the people stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup>Then he taught them many things by using stories. He said: A farmer went out to scatter seed in a field.

<sup>4</sup>While the farmer was scattering the seed, some of it fell along the road and was eaten by birds.

<sup>5</sup>Other seeds fell on thin, rocky ground and quickly started growing because the soil wasn't very deep.

<sup>6</sup>But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched and dried up, because they did not have enough roots.

<sup>7</sup>Some other seeds fell where thorn bushes grew up and choked the plants.

<sup>8</sup>But a few seeds did fall on good ground where the plants produced a hundred or sixty or thirty times as much as was scattered.

<sup>9</sup>If you have ears, pay attention!

Why Jesus used stories

(Mark 4.10–12; Luke 8.9,10)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus' disciples came to him and asked, “Why do you use nothing but stories when you speak to the people?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered: I have explained the secrets about the kingdom of heaven to you, but not to others.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone who has something will be given more. But people who don't have anything will lose even what little they have.

<sup>13</sup>I use stories when I speak to them because when they look, they cannot see, and when they listen, they cannot hear or understand.

<sup>14</sup>So God's promise came true, just as the prophet Isaiah had said, “These people will listen and listen, but never understand. They will look and look, but never see.

<sup>15</sup>All of them have stubborn minds! Their ears are stopped up, and their eyes are covered. They cannot see or hear or understand. If they could, they would turn to me, and I would heal them.”

<sup>16</sup>But God has blessed you, because your eyes can see and your ears can hear!

<sup>17</sup>Many prophets and good people were eager to see what you see and to hear what you hear. But I tell you that they did not see or hear.

Jesus explains the story about the farmer

(Mark 4.13–20; Luke 8.11–15)

<sup>18</sup>Now listen to the meaning of the story about the farmer:

<sup>19</sup>The seeds that fell along the road are the people who hear the message about the kingdom, but don't understand it. Then the evil one comes and snatches the message from their hearts.

<sup>20</sup>The seeds that fell on rocky ground are the people who gladly hear the message and accept it straight away.

<sup>21</sup>But they don't have deep roots, and they don't last very long. As soon as life gets hard or the message gets them in trouble, they give up.

<sup>22</sup>The seeds that fell among the thorn bushes are also people who hear the message. But they start worrying about the needs of this life and are fooled by the desire to get rich. So the message gets choked out, and they never produce anything.

<sup>23</sup>The seeds that fell on good ground are the people who hear and understand the message. They produce as much as a hundred or sixty or thirty times what was planted.

Weeds among the wheat

<sup>24</sup>Jesus then told them this story: The kingdom of heaven is like what happened when a farmer scattered good seed in a field.

<sup>25</sup>But while everyone was sleeping, an enemy came and scattered weeds in the field and then left.

<sup>26</sup>When the plants came up and began to ripen, the farmer's servants could see the weeds.

<sup>27</sup>The servants came and asked, "Sir, didn't you scatter good seed in your field? Where did these weeds come from?"

<sup>28</sup>"An enemy did this," he replied. His servants then asked, "Do you want us to go out and pull up the weeds?"

<sup>29</sup>"No!" he answered. "You might also pull up the wheat.

<sup>30</sup>Leave the weeds alone until harvest time. Then I'll tell my workers to gather the weeds and tie them up and burn them. But I'll order them to store the wheat in my barn."

Stories about a mustard seed and yeast

(Mark 4.30–32; Luke 13.18–21)

<sup>31</sup>Jesus told them another story: The kingdom of heaven is like what happens when a farmer plants a mustard seed in a field.

<sup>32</sup>Although it is the smallest of all seeds, it grows larger than any garden plant and becomes a tree. Birds even come and nest on its branches.

<sup>33</sup>Jesus also said: The kingdom of heaven is like what happens when a woman mixes a little yeast into three big batches of flour. Finally, all the dough rises.

The reason for teaching with stories

(Mark 4.33,34)

<sup>34</sup>Jesus used stories when he spoke to the people. In fact, he did not tell them anything without using stories.

<sup>35</sup>So God's promise came true, just as the prophet had said, "I will use stories to speak my message and to explain things that have been hidden since the creation of the world."

Jesus explains the story about the weeds

<sup>36</sup>After Jesus left the crowd and went inside, his disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the story about the weeds in the wheat field."

<sup>37</sup>Jesus answered: The one who scattered the good seed is the Son of Man.

<sup>38</sup>The field is the world, and the good seeds are the people who belong to the kingdom. The weeds are those who belong to the evil one,

<sup>39</sup>and the one who scattered them is the devil. The harvest is the end of time, and angels are the ones who bring in the harvest.

<sup>40</sup>Weeds are gathered and burnt. That's how it will be at the end of time.

<sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather from his kingdom everyone who does wrong or causes others to sin.

<sup>42</sup>Then he will throw them into a flaming furnace, where people will cry and grit their teeth in pain.

<sup>43</sup>But everyone who has done right will shine like the sun in their Father's kingdom. If you have ears, pay attention!

A hidden treasure

Jesus continued:

<sup>44</sup>The kingdom of heaven is like what happens when someone finds treasure hidden in a field and buries it again. A person like that is happy and goes and sells everything in order to buy that field.

A valuable pearl

Jesus continued:

<sup>45</sup>The kingdom of heaven is like what happens when a shop owner is looking for fine pearls.

<sup>46</sup>After finding a very valuable one, the owner goes and sells everything in order to buy that pearl.

A fish net

Jesus continued:

<sup>47</sup>The kingdom of heaven is like what happens when a net is thrown into a lake and catches all kinds of fish.

<sup>48</sup>When the net is full, it is dragged to the shore, and the fishermen sit down to separate the fish. They keep the good ones, but throw the bad ones away.

<sup>49</sup>That's how it will be at the end of time. Angels will come and separate the evil people from the ones who have done right.

<sup>50</sup>Then those evil people will be thrown into a flaming furnace, where they will cry and grit their teeth in pain.

New and old treasures

<sup>51</sup>Jesus asked his disciples if they understood all these things. They said, "Yes, we do."

<sup>52</sup>So he told them, “Every student of the Scriptures who becomes a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like someone who brings out new and old treasures from the storeroom.”

The people of Nazareth turn against Jesus

(Mark 6.1–6; Luke 4.16–30)

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus had finished telling these stories, he left

<sup>54</sup>and went to his home town. He taught in their meeting place, and the people were so amazed that they asked, “Where does he get all this wisdom and the power to perform these miracles?”

<sup>55</sup>Isn't he the son of the carpenter? Isn't Mary his mother, and aren't James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas his brothers?

<sup>56</sup>Don't his sisters still live here in our town? How can he do all this?”

<sup>57</sup>So the people were very unhappy because of what he was doing. But Jesus said, “Prophets are honoured by everyone, except the people of their home town and their own family.”

<sup>58</sup>And because the people did not have any faith, Jesus did not perform many miracles there.

Matthew 14

The death of John the Baptist

(Mark 6.14–29; Luke 9.7–9)

<sup>1</sup>About this time Herod the ruler heard the news about Jesus

<sup>2</sup>and told his officials, “This is John the Baptist! He has come back from death, and that's why he has the power to perform these miracles.”

<sup>3-4</sup> Herod had earlier arrested John and had him chained and put in prison. He did this because John had told him, “It isn't right for you to take Herodias, the wife of your brother Philip.”

<sup>5</sup>Herod wanted to kill John. But the people thought John was a prophet, and Herod was afraid of what they might do.

<sup>6</sup>When Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced for the guests. She pleased Herod

<sup>7</sup>so much that he swore to give her whatever she wanted.

<sup>8</sup>But the girl's mother told her to say, "Here on a dish I want the head of John the Baptist!"

<sup>9</sup>The king was sorry for what he had said. But he did not want to break the promise he had made in front of his guests. So he ordered a guard

<sup>10</sup>to go to the prison and cut off John's head.

<sup>11</sup>It was taken on a dish to the girl, and she gave it to her mother.

<sup>12</sup>John's followers took his body and buried it. Then they told Jesus what had happened.

Jesus feeds five thousand

(Mark 6.30–44; Luke 9.10–17; John 6.1–14)

<sup>13</sup>After Jesus heard about John, he crossed Lake Galilee to go to some place where he could be alone. But the crowds found out and followed him on foot from the towns.

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw the large crowd. He felt sorry for them and healed everyone who was sick.

<sup>15</sup>That evening the disciples came to Jesus and said, "This place is like a desert, and it is already late. Let the crowds leave, so they can go to the villages and buy some food."

<sup>16</sup>Jesus replied, "They don't have to leave. Why don't you give them something to eat?"

<sup>17</sup>But they said, "We have only five small loaves of bread and two fish."

<sup>18</sup>Jesus asked his disciples to bring the food to him,

<sup>19</sup>and he told the crowd to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up towards heaven and blessed the food. Then he broke the bread and handed it to his disciples, and they gave it to the people.

<sup>20</sup>After everyone had eaten all they wanted, Jesus' disciples picked up twelve large baskets of leftovers.

<sup>21</sup>There were about five thousand men who ate, not counting the women and children.

Jesus walks on the water

(Mark 6.45–52; John 6.15–21)

<sup>22</sup>Straight away, Jesus made his disciples get into a boat and start back across the lake. But he stayed until he had sent the crowds away.

<sup>23</sup>Then he went up on a mountain where he could be alone and pray. Later that evening, he was still there.

<sup>24</sup>By this time the boat was a long way from the shore. It was going against the wind and was being tossed around by the waves.

<sup>25</sup>A little while before morning, Jesus came walking on the water towards his disciples.

<sup>26</sup>When they saw him, they thought he was a ghost. They were terrified and started screaming.

<sup>27</sup>At once, Jesus said to them, “Don't worry! I am Jesus. Don't be afraid.”

<sup>28</sup>Peter replied, “Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you on the water.”

<sup>29</sup>“Come on!” Jesus said. Peter then got out of the boat and started walking on the water towards him.

<sup>30</sup>But when Peter saw how strong the wind was, he was afraid and started sinking. “Save me, Lord!” he shouted.

<sup>31</sup>Straight away, Jesus reached out his hand. He helped Peter up and said, “You don't have much faith. Why do you doubt?”

<sup>32</sup>When Jesus and Peter got into the boat, the wind died down.

<sup>33</sup>The men in the boat worshipped Jesus and said, “You really are the Son of God!”

Jesus heals sick people in Gennesaret

(Mark 6.53–56)

<sup>34</sup>Jesus and his disciples crossed the lake and came to shore near the town of Gennesaret.

<sup>35</sup>The people found out that he was there, and they sent word to everyone who lived in that part of the country. So they brought all the sick people to Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>They begged him just to let them touch his clothes, and everyone who did was healed.

Matthew 15

The teaching of the ancestors

(Mark 7.1–13)

<sup>1</sup>About this time some Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses came from Jerusalem. They asked Jesus,

<sup>2</sup>“Why don't your disciples obey what our ancestors taught us to do? They don't even wash their hands before they eat.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered: Why do you disobey God and follow your own teaching?

<sup>4</sup>Didn't God command you to respect your father and mother? Didn't he tell you to put to death all who curse their parents?

<sup>5</sup>But you let people get by without helping their parents when they should. You let them say that what they have has been offered to God.

<sup>6</sup>Is this any way to show respect to your parents? You ignore God's commands in order to follow your own teaching.

<sup>7</sup>And you are nothing but show-offs! Isaiah the prophet was right when he wrote that God had said, <sup>8</sup>“All of you praise me with your words, but you never really think about me.

<sup>9</sup>It is useless for you to worship me, when you teach rules made up by humans.”

What really makes people unclean

(Mark 7.14–23)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus called the crowd together and said, “Pay attention and try to understand what I mean.

<sup>11</sup>The food that you put into your mouth doesn't make you unclean and unfit to worship God. The bad words that come out of your mouth are what make you unclean.”

<sup>12</sup>Then his disciples came over to him and asked, “Do you know that you insulted the Pharisees by what you said?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered, “Every plant that my Father in heaven did not plant will be pulled up by the roots.

<sup>14</sup>Stay away from those Pharisees! They are like blind people leading other blind people, and all of them will fall into a ditch.”

<sup>15</sup>Peter replied, “What did you mean when you talked about the things that make people unclean?”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus then said: Don't any of you know what I am talking about by now?

<sup>17</sup>Don't you know that the food you put into your mouth goes into your stomach and then out of your body?

<sup>18</sup>But the words that come out of your mouth come from your heart. And they are what make you unfit to worship God.

<sup>19</sup>Out of your heart come evil thoughts, murder, unfaithfulness in marriage, vulgar deeds, stealing, telling lies, and insulting others.

<sup>20</sup>These are what make you unclean. Eating without washing your hands will not make you unfit to worship God.

A woman's faith

(Mark 7.24–30)

<sup>21</sup>Jesus left and went to the territory near the cities of Tyre and Sidon.

<sup>22</sup>Suddenly a Canaanite woman from there came out shouting, “Lord and Son of David, have pity on me! My daughter is full of demons.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus did not say a word. But the woman kept following along and shouting, so his disciples came up and asked him to send her away.

<sup>24</sup>Jesus said, “I was sent only to the people of Israel! They are like a flock of lost sheep.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman came closer. Then she knelt down and begged, “Please help me, Lord!”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus replied, “It isn't right to take food away from children and feed it to dogs.”

<sup>27</sup>“Lord, that's true,” the woman said, “but even dogs get the crumbs that fall from their owner's table.”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus answered, “Dear woman, you really do have a lot of faith, and you will be given what you want.” At that moment her daughter was healed.

Jesus heals many people

<sup>29</sup>From there, Jesus went along Lake Galilee. Then he climbed a hill and sat down.

<sup>30</sup>Large crowds came and brought many people who were crippled or blind or lame or unable to talk. They placed them, and many others, in front of Jesus, and he healed them all.

<sup>31</sup>Everyone was amazed at what they saw and heard. People who had never spoken could now speak. The lame were healed, the crippled could walk, and the blind were able to see. Everyone was praising the God of Israel.

Jesus feeds four thousand

(Mark 8.1–10)

<sup>32</sup>Jesus called his disciples together and told them, “I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me for three days, and they don't have anything to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry. They might faint on their way home.”

<sup>33</sup>His disciples said, “This place is like a desert. Where can we find enough food to feed such a crowd?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus asked them how much food they had. They replied, “Seven small loaves of bread and a few little fish.”

<sup>35</sup>After Jesus had told the people to sit down,

<sup>36</sup>he took the seven loaves of bread and the fish and gave thanks. He then broke them and handed them to his disciples, who passed them around to the crowds.

<sup>37</sup>Everyone ate all they wanted, and the leftovers filled seven large baskets.

<sup>38</sup>There were four thousand men who ate, not counting the women and children.

<sup>39</sup>After Jesus had sent the crowds away, he got into a boat and sailed across the lake. He came to shore near the town of Magadan.

Matthew 16

A demand for a sign from heaven

(Mark 8.11–13; Luke 12.54–56)

<sup>1</sup>The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tried to test him by asking for a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup>He told them: If the sky is red in the evening, you say the weather will be good.

<sup>3</sup>But if the sky is red and gloomy in the morning, you say it is going to rain. You can tell what the weather will be like by looking at the sky. But you don't understand what is happening now.

<sup>4</sup>You want a sign because you are evil and won't believe! But the only sign you will be given is what happened to Jonah. Then Jesus left.

The yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

(Mark 8.14–21)

<sup>5</sup>The disciples had forgotten to bring any bread when they crossed the lake.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus then warned them, “Watch out! Guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>7</sup>The disciples talked this over and said to each other, “He must be saying this because we didn't bring along any bread.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking and said: You don't have much faith! Why are you talking about not having any bread?

<sup>9</sup>Don't you understand? Have you forgotten about the five thousand people and all those baskets of leftovers from just five loaves of bread?

<sup>10</sup>And what about the four thousand people and all those baskets of leftovers from only seven loaves of bread?

<sup>11</sup>Don't you know by now that I am not talking to you about bread? Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!

<sup>12</sup>Finally, the disciples understood that Jesus wasn't talking about the yeast used to make bread, but about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Who is Jesus?

(Mark 8.27–30; Luke 9.18–21)

<sup>13</sup>When Jesus and his disciples were near the town of Caesarea Philippi, he asked them, “What do people say about the Son of Man?”

<sup>14</sup>The disciples answered, “Some people say you are John the Baptist or perhaps Elijah or Jeremiah or some other prophet.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

<sup>16</sup>Simon Peter spoke up, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus told him: Simon, son of Jonah, you are blessed! You didn't discover this on your own. It was shown to you by my Father in heaven.

<sup>18</sup>So I will call you Peter, which means “a rock”. On this rock I will build my church, and death itself will not have any power over it.

<sup>19</sup>I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven, and God in heaven will allow whatever you allow on earth. But he will not allow anything that you don't allow.

<sup>20</sup>Jesus told his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Jesus speaks about his suffering and death

(Mark 8.31—9.1; Luke 9.22–27)

<sup>21</sup>From then on, Jesus began telling his disciples what would happen to him. He said, “I must go to Jerusalem. There the nation's leaders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law of Moses will make me suffer terribly. I will be killed, but three days later I will rise to life.”

<sup>22</sup>Peter took Jesus aside and told him to stop talking like that. He said, “God would never let this happen to you, Lord!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus turned to Peter and said, “Satan, get away from me! You're in my way because you think like everyone else and not like God.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples: If any of you want to be my followers, you must forget about yourself. You must take up your cross and follow me.

<sup>25</sup>If you want to save your life, you will destroy it. But if you give up your life for me, you will find it.

<sup>26</sup>What will you gain, if you own the whole world but destroy yourself? What would you give to get back your soul?

<sup>27</sup>The Son of Man will soon come in the glory of his Father and with his angels to reward all people for what they have done.

<sup>28</sup>I promise you that some of those standing here will not die before they see the Son of Man coming with his kingdom.

Matthew 17

The true glory of Jesus

(Mark 9.2–13; Luke 9.28–36)

<sup>1</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter and the brothers James and John with him. They went up on a very high mountain where they could be alone.

<sup>2</sup>There in front of the disciples, Jesus was completely changed. His face was shining like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

<sup>3</sup>All at once Moses and Elijah were there talking with Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>So Peter said to him, “Lord, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup>While Peter was still speaking, the shadow of a bright cloud passed over them. From the cloud a voice said, “This is my own dear Son, and I am pleased with him. Listen to what he says!”

<sup>6</sup>When the disciples heard the voice, they were so afraid that they fell flat on the ground.

<sup>7</sup>But Jesus came over and touched them. He said, “Get up and don't be afraid!”

<sup>8</sup>When they opened their eyes, they saw only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>On their way down from the mountain, Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone what they had seen until after the Son of Man had been raised from death.

<sup>10</sup>The disciples asked Jesus, “Don't the teachers of the Law of Moses say that Elijah must come before the Messiah does?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus told them, “Elijah certainly will come and get everything ready.

<sup>12</sup>In fact, he has already come. But the people did not recognize him and treated him just as they wanted to. They will soon make the Son of Man suffer in the same way.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the disciples understood that Jesus was talking to them about John the Baptist.

Jesus heals a boy

(Mark 9.14–29; Luke 9.37–43a)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus and his disciples returned to the crowd. A man knelt in front of him

<sup>15</sup>and said, “Lord, have pity on my son! He has a bad case of epilepsy and often falls into a fire or into water.

<sup>16</sup>I brought him to your disciples, but none of them could heal him.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said, “You people are too stubborn to have any faith! How much longer must I be with you? Why do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy here.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jesus spoke sternly to the demon. It went out of the boy, and at once he was healed.

<sup>19</sup>Later the disciples went to Jesus in private and asked him, “Why couldn't we force out the demon?”

<sup>20-21</sup> Jesus replied: It is because you don't have enough faith! But I can promise you this. If you had faith no larger than a mustard seed, you could tell this mountain to move from here to there. And it would. Everything would be possible for you.

Jesus again speaks about his death

(Mark 9.30–32; Luke 9.43b–45)

<sup>22</sup>While Jesus and his disciples were going from place to place in Galilee, he told them, “The Son of Man will be handed over to people

<sup>23</sup>who will kill him. But three days later he will rise to life.” All this made the disciples very sad.

Paying the temple tax

<sup>24</sup>When Jesus and the others arrived in Capernaum, the collectors for the temple tax came to Peter and asked, “Does your teacher pay the temple tax?”

<sup>25</sup>“Yes, he does,” Peter answered. After they had returned home, Jesus went up to Peter and asked him, “Simon, what do you think? Do the kings of this earth collect taxes and fees from their own people or from foreigners?”

<sup>26</sup>Peter answered, “From foreigners.” Jesus replied, “Then their own people don't have to pay.

<sup>27</sup>But we don't want to cause trouble. So go and cast a line into the lake and pull out the first fish you hook. Open its mouth, and you will find a coin. Use it to pay your taxes and mine.”

Matthew 18

Who is the greatest?

(Mark 9.33–37; Luke 9.46–48)

<sup>1</sup> About this time the disciples came to Jesus and asked him who would be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus called a child over and made the child stand near him.

<sup>3</sup> Then he said: I promise you this. If you don't change and become like a child, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> But if you are as humble as this child, you are the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>5</sup> And when you welcome one of these children because of me, you welcome me.

Temptations to sin

(Mark 9.42–48; Luke 17.1,2)

Jesus continued:

<sup>6</sup> It will be terrible for people who cause even one of my little followers to sin. Those people would be better off thrown into the deepest part of the sea with a heavy stone tied around their necks!

<sup>7</sup> The world is in for trouble because of the way it causes people to sin. There will always be something to cause people to sin, but anyone who does this will be in for trouble.

<sup>8</sup> If your hand or foot causes you to sin, chop it off and throw it away! You would be better off to go into life crippled or lame than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the fire that never goes out.

<sup>9</sup> If your eye causes you to sin, poke it out and get rid of it. You would be better off to go into life with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fires of hell.

The lost sheep

(Luke 15.3–7)

Jesus continued:

10-11 Don't be cruel to any of these little ones! I promise you that their angels are always with my Father in heaven.

12 Let me ask you this. What would you do if you had a hundred sheep and one of them wandered off? Wouldn't you leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go and look for the one that had wandered away?

13 I am sure that finding it would make you happier than having the ninety-nine that never wandered off.

14 That's how it is with your Father in heaven. He doesn't want any of these little ones to be lost.

When someone sins

(Luke 17.3)

Jesus continued:

15 If one of my followers sins against you, go and point out what was wrong. But do it in private, just between the two of you. If that person listens, you have won back a follower.

16 But if that one refuses to listen, take along one or two others. The Scriptures teach that every complaint must be proved true by two or more witnesses.

17 If the follower refuses to listen to them, report the matter to the church. Anyone who refuses to listen to the church must be treated like an unbeliever or a tax collector.

Allowing and not allowing

Jesus continued:

18 I promise you that God in heaven will allow whatever you allow on earth, but he will not allow anything you don't allow.

19 I promise that when any two of you on earth agree about something you are praying for, my Father in heaven will do it for you.

20 Whenever two or three of you come together in my name, I am there with you.

An official who refused to forgive

21 Peter came up to the Lord and asked, “How many times should I forgive someone who does something wrong to me? Is seven times enough?”

22 Jesus answered: Not just seven times, but seventy-seven times!

23 This story will show you what the kingdom of heaven is like: One day a king decided to call in his officials and ask them to give an account of what they owed him.

24 As he was doing this, one official was brought in who owed him fifty million silver coins.

25 But he didn't have any money to pay what he owed. The king ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all he owned, in order to pay the debt.

26 The official got down on his knees and began begging, “Have pity on me, and I will pay you every penny I owe!”

27 The king felt sorry for him and let him go free. He even told the official that he did not have to pay back the money.

28 As the official was leaving, he happened to meet another official, who owed him a hundred silver coins. So he grabbed the man by the throat. He started choking him and said, “Pay me what you owe!”

29 The man got down on his knees and began begging, “Have pity on me, and I will pay you back.”

30 But the first official refused to have pity. Instead, he went and had the other official put in jail until he could pay what he owed.

31 When some other officials found out what had happened, they felt sorry for the man who had been put in jail. Then they told the king what had happened.

32 The king called the first official back in and said, “You're an evil man! When you begged for mercy, I said you did not have to pay back a penny.

<sup>33</sup>Don't you think you should show pity to someone else, as I did to you?"

<sup>34</sup>The king was so angry that he ordered the official to be tortured until he could pay back everything he owed.

<sup>35</sup>That is how my Father in heaven will treat you, if you don't forgive each of my followers with all your heart.

Matthew 19

Jesus goes from Galilee to Jerusalem

Teaching about divorce

(Mark 10.1–12)

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus finished teaching, he left Galilee and went to the part of Judea that is east of the River Jordan.

<sup>2</sup>Large crowds followed him, and he healed their sick people.

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees wanted to test Jesus. They came up to him and asked, "Is it right for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, "Don't you know that in the beginning the Creator made a man and a woman?"

<sup>5</sup>That's why a man leaves his father and mother and gets married. He becomes like one person with his wife.

<sup>6</sup>Then they are no longer two people, but one. And no one should separate a couple that God has joined together."

<sup>7</sup>The Pharisees asked Jesus, "Why did Moses say that a man could write out divorce papers and send his wife away?"

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, "You are so heartless! That's why Moses allowed you to divorce your wife. But from the beginning God did not intend it to be that way.

<sup>9</sup>I say that if your wife has not committed some terrible sexual sin, you must not divorce her to marry someone else. If you do, you are unfaithful."

<sup>10</sup>The disciples said, “If that's how it is between a man and a woman, it's better not to get married.”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus told them, “Only those people who have been given the gift of staying single can accept this teaching.

<sup>12</sup>Some people are unable to marry because of birth defects or because of what someone has done to their bodies. Others stay single for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Anyone who can accept this teaching should do so.”

Jesus blesses little children

(Mark 10.13–16; Luke 18.15–17)

<sup>13</sup>Some people brought their children to Jesus, so that he could place his hands on them and pray for them. His disciples told the people to stop bothering him.

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and don't try to stop them! People who are like these children belong to God's kingdom.”

<sup>15</sup>After Jesus had placed his hands on the children, he left.

A rich young man

(Mark 10.17–31; Luke 18.18–30)

<sup>16</sup>A man came to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to have eternal life?”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? Only God is good. If you want to have eternal life, you must obey his commandments.”

<sup>18</sup>“Which ones?” the man asked. Jesus answered, “Do not murder. Be faithful in marriage. Do not steal. Do not tell lies about others.

<sup>19</sup>Respect your father and mother. And love others as much as you love yourself.”

<sup>20</sup>The young man said, “I have obeyed all these. What else must I do?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, “If you want to be perfect, go and sell everything you own! Give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come and be my follower.”

<sup>22</sup>When the young man heard this, he was sad, because he was very rich.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to his disciples, “It's terribly hard for rich people to get into the kingdom of heaven!

<sup>24</sup>In fact, it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to get into God's kingdom.”

<sup>25</sup>When the disciples heard this, they were greatly surprised and asked, “How can anyone ever be saved?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus looked straight at them and said, “There are some things that people cannot do, but God can do anything.”

<sup>27</sup>Peter replied, “Remember, we have left everything to be your followers! What will we get?”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus answered: Yes, all of you have become my followers. And so in the future world, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, I promise that you will sit on twelve thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>All who have given up home or brothers and sisters or father and mother or children or land for me will be given a hundred times as much. They will also have eternal life.

<sup>30</sup>But many who are now first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

Matthew 20

Workers in a vineyard

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus was telling what the kingdom of heaven would be like, he said: Early one morning a man went out to hire some workers for his vineyard.

<sup>2</sup>After he had agreed to pay them the usual amount for a day's work, he sent them off to his vineyard.

<sup>3</sup>About nine that morning, the man saw some other people standing in the market with nothing to do.

<sup>4</sup>He said he would pay them what was fair, if they would work in his vineyard.

<sup>5</sup>So they went. At midday and again about three in the afternoon he returned to the market. And each time he made the same agreement with others who were lazing around with nothing to do.

<sup>6</sup>Finally, about five in the afternoon the man went back and found some others standing there. He asked them, “Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?”

<sup>7</sup>“Because no one has hired us,” they answered. Then he told them to go and work in his vineyard.

<sup>8</sup>That evening the owner of the vineyard told the man in charge of the workers to call them in and give them their money. He also told the man to begin with the ones who were hired last.

<sup>9</sup>When the workers arrived, the ones who had been hired at five in the afternoon were given a full day's pay.

<sup>10</sup>The workers who had been hired first thought they would be given more than the others. But when they were given the same,

<sup>11</sup>they began complaining to the owner of the vineyard.

<sup>12</sup>They said, “The ones who were hired last worked for only one hour. But you paid them the same that you did us. And we worked in the hot sun all day long!”

<sup>13</sup>The owner answered one of them, “Friend, I didn't cheat you. I paid you exactly what we agreed on.

<sup>14</sup>Take your money now and go! What business is it of yours if I want to pay them the same that I paid you?

<sup>15</sup>Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Why should you be jealous, if I want to be generous?”

<sup>16</sup> Jesus then said, “So it is. Everyone who is now first will be last, and everyone who is last will be first.”

Jesus again tells about his death

(Mark 10.32–34; Luke 18.31–34)

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he took his twelve disciples aside and told them in private:

<sup>18</sup> We are now on our way to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses. They will sentence him to death,

<sup>19</sup> and then they will hand him over to foreigners who will make fun of him. They will beat him and nail him to a cross. But on the third day he will rise from death.

A mother's request

(Mark 10.35–45)

<sup>20</sup> The mother of James and John came to Jesus with her two sons. She knelt down and started begging him to do something for her.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus asked her what she wanted, and she said, “When you come into your kingdom, please let one of my sons sit at your right side and the other at your left.”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, “Not one of you knows what you are asking. Are you able to drink from the cup that I must soon drink from?” James and John said, “Yes, we are!”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “You certainly will drink from my cup! But it isn't for me to say who will sit at my right side and at my left. That is for my Father to say.”

<sup>24</sup> When the ten other disciples heard this, they were angry with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup> But Jesus called the disciples together and said: You know that foreign rulers like to order their people around. And their great leaders have full power over everyone they rule.

<sup>26</sup>But don't act like them. If you want to be great, you must be the servant of all the others.

<sup>27</sup>And if you want to be first, you must be the slave of the rest.

<sup>28</sup>The Son of Man did not come to be a slave master, but a slave who will give his life to rescue many people.

Jesus heals two blind men

(Mark 10.46–52; Luke 18.35–43)

<sup>29</sup>Jesus was followed by a large crowd as he and his disciples were leaving Jericho.

<sup>30</sup>Two blind men were sitting beside the road. And when they heard that Jesus was coming their way, they shouted, “Lord and Son of David, have pity on us!”

<sup>31</sup>The crowd told them to be quiet, but they shouted even louder, “Lord and Son of David, have pity on us!”

<sup>32</sup>When Jesus heard them, he stopped and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>They answered, “Lord, we want to see!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus felt sorry for them and touched their eyes. Straight away they could see, and they became his followers.

Matthew 21

Jesus' last week: his trial and death

Jesus enters Jerusalem

(Mark 11.1–11; Luke 19.28–38; John 12.12–19)

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus and his disciples came near Jerusalem, he went to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives and sent two of them on ahead.

<sup>2</sup>He told them, “Go into the next village, where you will at once find a donkey and her colt. Untie the two donkeys and bring them to me.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone asks why you are doing that, just say, ‘The Lord needs them.’ Straight away he will let you have the donkeys.”

<sup>4</sup>So God's promise came true, just as the prophet had said,

<sup>5</sup>“Announce to the people of Jerusalem: ‘Your king is coming to you! He is humble and rides on a donkey. He comes on the colt of a donkey.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>The disciples left and did what Jesus had told them to do.

<sup>7</sup>They brought the donkey and its colt and laid some clothes on their backs. Then Jesus got on.

<sup>8</sup>Many people spread clothes in the road, while others put down branches which they had cut from trees.

<sup>9</sup>Some people walked ahead of Jesus and others followed behind. They were all shouting, “Hooray for the Son of David! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hooray for God in heaven above!”

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus came to Jerusalem, everyone in the city was excited and asked, “Who can this be?”

<sup>11</sup>The crowd answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus in the temple

(Mark 11.15–19; Luke 19.45–48; John 2.13–22)

<sup>12</sup>Jesus went into the temple and chased out everyone who was selling or buying. He turned over the tables of the moneychangers and the benches of the ones who were selling doves.

<sup>13</sup>He told them, “The Scriptures say, ‘My house should be called a place of worship.’ But you have turned it into a place where robbers hide.”

<sup>14</sup>Blind and lame people came to Jesus in the temple, and he healed them.

<sup>15</sup>But the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses were angry when they saw his miracles and heard the children shouting praises to the Son of David.

<sup>16</sup>The men said to Jesus, “Don't you hear what those children are saying?” “Yes, I do!” Jesus answered. “Don't you know that the Scriptures say, ‘Children and infants will sing praises?’”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus left the city and went out to the village of Bethany, where he spent the night.

Jesus puts a curse on a fig tree

(Mark 11.12–14,20–24)

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus got up the next morning, he was hungry. He started out for the city,

<sup>19</sup>and along the way he saw a fig tree. But when he came to it, he found only leaves and no figs. So he told the tree, “You will never again grow any fruit!” At once the fig tree dried up.

<sup>20</sup>The disciples were shocked when they saw how quickly the tree had dried up.

<sup>21</sup>But Jesus said to them, “If you have faith and don't doubt, I promise that you can do what I did to this tree. And you will be able to do even more. You can tell this mountain to get up and jump into the sea, and it will.

<sup>22</sup>If you have faith when you pray, you will be given whatever you ask for.”

A question about Jesus' authority

(Mark 11.27–33; Luke 20.1–8)

<sup>23</sup>Jesus had gone into the temple and was teaching when the chief priests and the leaders of the people came up to him. They asked, “What right do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered, “I have just one question to ask you. If you answer it, I will tell you where I got the right to do these things.

<sup>25</sup>Who gave John the right to baptize? Was it God in heaven or merely some human being?” They thought it over and said to each other, “We can't say that God gave John this right. Jesus will ask us why we didn't believe John.

<sup>26</sup>On the other hand, these people think that John was a prophet, and we are afraid of what they might do to us. That's why we can't say that it was merely some human who gave John the right to baptize.”

<sup>27</sup>So they told Jesus, “We don't know.” Jesus said, “Then I won't tell you who gave me the right to do what I do.”

A story about two sons

<sup>28</sup>Jesus said: I will tell you a story about a man who had two sons. Then you can tell me what you think. The father went to the elder son and said, “Go and work in the vineyard today!”

<sup>29</sup>His son told him that he would not do it, but later he changed his mind and went.

<sup>30</sup>The man then told his younger son to go and work in the vineyard. The boy said he would, but he didn't go.

<sup>31</sup>Which one of the sons obeyed his father? “The elder one,” the chief priests and leaders answered. Then Jesus told them: You can be sure that tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you ever will!

<sup>32</sup>When John the Baptist showed you how to do right, you would not believe him. But these evil people did believe. And even when you saw what they did, you still would not change your minds and believe.

Tenants of a vineyard

(Mark 12.1–12; Luke 20.9–19)

<sup>33</sup>Jesus told the chief priests and leaders to listen to this story: A land owner once planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it and dug a pit to crush the grapes in. He also built a lookout tower. Then he let his vineyard and left the country.

<sup>34</sup>When it was harvest time, the owner sent some servants to get his share of the grapes.

<sup>35</sup>But the tenants grabbed those servants. They beat up one, killed one, and stoned one of them to death.

<sup>36</sup>He then sent more servants than he did the first time. But the tenants treated them in the same way.

<sup>37</sup>Finally, the owner sent his own son to the tenants, because he thought they would respect him.

<sup>38</sup>But when they saw the man's son, they said, "Some day he will own the vineyard. Let's kill him! Then we can have it all for ourselves."

<sup>39</sup>So they grabbed him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

<sup>40</sup>Jesus asked, "When the owner of that vineyard comes, what do you suppose he will do to those tenants?"

<sup>41</sup>The chief priests and leaders answered, "He will kill them in some horrible way. Then he will let his vineyard to people who will give him his share of grapes at harvest time."

<sup>42</sup>Jesus replied, "Surely you know that the Scriptures say, 'The stone that the builders tossed aside is now the most important stone of all. This is something the Lord has done, and it is amazing to us.' "

<sup>43</sup>I tell you that God's kingdom will be taken from you and given to people who will do what he demands.

<sup>44</sup>Anyone who stumbles over this stone will be crushed, and anyone it falls on will be smashed to pieces."

<sup>45</sup>When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard these stories, they knew that Jesus was talking about them.

<sup>46</sup>So they looked for a way to arrest Jesus. But they were afraid to, because the people thought he was a prophet.

Matthew 22

The great banquet

(Luke 14.15–24)

<sup>1</sup>Once again Jesus used stories to teach the people:

<sup>2</sup>The kingdom of heaven is like what happened when a king gave a wedding banquet for his son.

<sup>3</sup>The king sent some servants to tell the invited guests to come to the banquet, but the guests refused.

<sup>4</sup>He sent other servants to say to the guests, “The banquet is ready! My cattle and prize calves have all been prepared. Everything is ready. Come to the banquet!”

<sup>5</sup>But the guests did not pay any attention. Some of them left for their farms, and some went to their places of business.

<sup>6</sup>Others grabbed the servants, then beat them up and killed them.

<sup>7</sup>This made the king so furious that he sent an army to kill those murderers and burn down their city.

<sup>8</sup>Then he said to the servants, “It is time for the wedding banquet, and the invited guests don't deserve to come.

<sup>9</sup>Go out to the street corners and tell everyone you meet to come to the banquet.”

<sup>10</sup>They went out into the streets and brought in everyone they could find, good and bad alike. And the banquet room was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup>When the king went in to meet the guests, he found that one of them wasn't wearing the right kind of clothes for the wedding.

<sup>12</sup>The king asked, “Friend, why didn't you wear proper clothes for the wedding?” But the guest had no excuse.

<sup>13</sup>So the king gave orders for that person to be tied hand and foot and to be thrown outside into the dark. That's where people will cry and grit their teeth in pain.

<sup>14</sup>Many are invited, but only a few are chosen.

Paying taxes

(Mark 12.13–17; Luke 20.20–26)

<sup>15</sup>The Pharisees got together and planned how they could trick Jesus into saying something wrong.

<sup>16</sup>They sent some of their followers and some of Herod's followers to say to him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest. You teach the truth about what God wants people to do. And you treat everyone with the same respect, no matter who they are.

<sup>17</sup>Tell us what you think! Should we pay taxes to the Emperor or not?"

<sup>18</sup>Jesus knew their evil thoughts and said, "Why are you trying to test me? You show-offs!

<sup>19</sup>Let me see one of the coins used for paying taxes." They brought him a silver coin,

<sup>20</sup>and he asked, "Whose picture and name are on it?"

<sup>21</sup>"The Emperor's," they answered. Then Jesus told them, "Give the Emperor what belongs to him and give God what belongs to God."

<sup>22</sup>His answer surprised them so much that they walked away.

Life in the future world
(Mark 12.18–27; Luke 20.27–40)

<sup>23</sup>The Sadducees did not believe that people would rise to life after death. So that same day some of the Sadducees came to Jesus and said:

<sup>24</sup>Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry the widow. Their first son would then be thought of as the son of the dead brother.

<sup>25</sup>Once there were seven brothers who lived here. The first one married, but died without having any children. So his wife was left to his brother.

<sup>26</sup>The same thing happened to the second and third brothers and finally to all seven of them.

<sup>27</sup>At last the woman died.

<sup>28</sup>When God raises people from death, whose wife will this woman be? She had been married to all seven brothers.

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered: You are completely wrong! You don't know what the Scriptures teach. And you don't know anything about the power of God.

<sup>30</sup>When God raises people to life, they won't marry. They will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup>And as for people being raised to life, God was speaking to you when he said,

<sup>32</sup>“I am the God worshipped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.” He isn't the God of the dead, but of the living.

<sup>33</sup>The crowds were surprised to hear what Jesus was teaching.

The most important commandment

(Mark 12.28–34; Luke 10.25–28)

<sup>34</sup>After Jesus had made the Sadducees look foolish, the Pharisees heard about it and got together.

<sup>35</sup>One of them was an expert in the Jewish Law. So he tried to test Jesus by asking,

<sup>36</sup>“Teacher, what is the most important commandment in the Law?”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus answered: Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind.

<sup>38</sup>This is the first and most important commandment.

<sup>39</sup>The second most important commandment is like this one. And it is, “Love others as much as you love yourself.”

<sup>40</sup>All the Law of Moses and the Books of the Prophets are based on these two commandments.

About David's son

(Mark 12.35–37; Luke 20.41–44)

<sup>41</sup>While the Pharisees were still there, Jesus asked them,

<sup>42</sup>“What do you think about the Messiah? Whose family will he come from?” They answered, “He will be a son of King David.”

<sup>43</sup>Jesus replied, “How then could the Spirit lead David to call the Messiah his Lord? David said,

<sup>44</sup>“The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at my right side until I make your enemies into a footstool for you. ’

<sup>45</sup>If David called the Messiah his Lord, how can the Messiah be a son of King David?”

<sup>46</sup>No one was able to give Jesus an answer, and from that day on, no one dared ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23

Jesus condemns the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law of Moses

(Mark 12.38–40; Luke 11.37–52; 20.45–47)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples:

<sup>2</sup>The Pharisees and the teachers of the Law are experts in the Law of Moses.

<sup>3</sup>So obey everything they teach you, but don't do as they do. After all, they say one thing and do something else.

<sup>4</sup>They pile heavy burdens on people's shoulders and won't lift a finger to help.

<sup>5</sup>Everything they do is just to show off in front of others. They even make a big show of wearing Scripture verses on their foreheads and arms, and they wear big tassels for everyone to see.

<sup>6</sup>They love the best seats at banquets and the front seats in the meeting places.

<sup>7</sup>And when they are in the market, they like to have people greet them as their teachers.

<sup>8</sup>But none of you should be called a teacher. You have only one teacher, and all of you are like brothers and sisters.

<sup>9</sup>Don't call anyone on earth your father. All of you have the same Father in heaven.

<sup>10</sup>None of you should be called the leader. The Messiah is your only leader.

<sup>11</sup>Whoever is the greatest should be the servant of the others.

<sup>12</sup>If you put yourself above others, you will be put down. But if you humble yourself, you will be honoured.

<sup>13-14</sup>You Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses are in for trouble! You're nothing but show-offs. You lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. You won't go in yourselves, and you keep others from going in.

<sup>15</sup>You Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses are in for trouble! You're nothing but show-offs. You travel over land and sea to win one follower. And when you have done so, you make that person twice as fit for hell as you are.

<sup>16</sup>You are in for trouble! You are supposed to lead others, but you are blind. You teach that it doesn't matter if a person swears by the temple. But you say that it does matter if someone swears by the gold in the temple.

<sup>17</sup>You blind fools! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold sacred?

<sup>18</sup>You also teach that it doesn't matter if a person swears by the altar. But you say that it does matter if someone swears by the gift on the altar.

<sup>19</sup>Are you blind? Which is more important, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

<sup>20</sup>Anyone who swears by the altar also swears by everything on it.

<sup>21</sup>And anyone who swears by the temple also swears by God, who lives there.

<sup>22</sup>To swear by heaven is the same as swearing by God's throne and by the one who sits on that throne.

Jesus continued:

<sup>23</sup>You Pharisees and teachers are show-offs, and you're in for trouble! You give God a tenth of the spices from your garden, such as mint, dill, and cumin. Yet you neglect the more important matters of the Law, such as justice, mercy, and faithfulness. These are the important things you should have done, though you should not have left the others undone either.

<sup>24</sup>You blind leaders! You strain out a small fly but swallow a camel.

<sup>25</sup>You Pharisees and teachers are show-offs, and you're in for trouble! You wash the outside of your cups and dishes, while inside there is nothing but greed and selfishness.

<sup>26</sup>You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of a cup, and then the outside will also be clean.

<sup>27</sup>You Pharisees and teachers are in for trouble! You're nothing but show-offs. You're like tombs that have been whitewashed. On the outside they are beautiful, but inside they are full of bones and filth.

<sup>28</sup>That's what you are like. Outside you look good, but inside you are evil and only pretend to be good.

<sup>29</sup>You Pharisees and teachers are nothing but show-offs, and you're in for trouble! You build monuments for the prophets and decorate the tombs of good people.

<sup>30</sup>And you claim that you would not have taken part with your ancestors in killing the prophets.

<sup>31</sup>But you prove that you really are the relatives of the ones who killed the prophets.

<sup>32</sup>So keep on doing everything they did.

33 You are nothing but snakes and the children of snakes! How can you escape going to hell?

34 I will send prophets and wise people and experts in the Law of Moses to you. But you will kill them or nail them to a cross or beat them in your meeting places or chase them from town to town.

35 That's why you will be held guilty for the murder of every good person, beginning with the good man Abel. This also includes Barachiah's son Zechariah, the man you murdered between the temple and the altar.

36 I can promise that you people living today will be punished for all these things!

Jesus loves Jerusalem

(Luke 13.34,35)

Jesus continued:

37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Your people have killed the prophets and have stoned the messengers who were sent to you. I have often wanted to gather your people, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you wouldn't let me.

38 And now your temple will be deserted.

39 You won't see me again until you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord."

Matthew 24

The temple will be destroyed

(Mark 13.1,2; Luke 21.5,6)

1 After Jesus left the temple, his disciples came over and said, "Look at all these buildings!"

2 Jesus replied, "Do you see these buildings? They will certainly be torn down! Not one stone will be left in place."

Warning about trouble

(Mark 13.3–13; Luke 21.7–19)

<sup>3</sup>Later, as Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came to him in private and asked, “When will this happen? What will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the world?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered: Don't let anyone fool you.

<sup>5</sup>Many will come and claim to be me. They will say that they are the Messiah, and they will fool many people.

<sup>6</sup>You will soon hear about wars and threats of wars, but don't be afraid. These things will have to happen first, but that isn't the end.

<sup>7</sup>Nations and kingdoms will go to war against each other. People will starve to death, and in some places there will be earthquakes.

<sup>8</sup>But this is just the beginning of troubles.

<sup>9</sup>You will be arrested, punished, and even killed. Because of me, you will be hated by people of all nations.

<sup>10</sup>Many will give up and will betray and hate each other.

<sup>11</sup>Many false prophets will come and fool a lot of people.

<sup>12</sup>Evil will spread and cause many people to stop loving others.

<sup>13</sup>But if you keep on being faithful right to the end, you will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>When the good news about the kingdom has been preached all over the world and told to all nations, the end will come.

The Horrible Thing

(Mark 13.14–23; Luke 21.20–24)

Jesus continued:

<sup>15</sup>Some day you will see that “Horrible Thing” in the holy place, just as the prophet Daniel said. Everyone who reads this must try to understand!

<sup>16</sup>If you are living in Judea at that time, run to the mountains.

<sup>17</sup>If you are on the roof of your house, don't go inside to get anything.

<sup>18</sup>If you are out in the field, don't go back for your coat.

<sup>19</sup>It will be a terrible time for women who are expecting babies or nursing young children.

<sup>20</sup>And pray that you won't have to escape in winter or on a Sabbath.

<sup>21</sup>This will be the worst time of suffering since the beginning of the world, and nothing this terrible will ever happen again.

<sup>22</sup>If God doesn't make the time shorter, no one will be left alive. But because of God's chosen ones, he will make the time shorter.

<sup>23</sup>Someone may say, "Here is the Messiah!" or "There he is!" But don't believe it.

<sup>24</sup>False messiahs and false prophets will come and perform great miracles and signs. They will even try to fool God's chosen ones.

<sup>25</sup>But I have warned you beforehand.

<sup>26</sup>If you are told that the Messiah is out in the desert, don't go there! And if you are told that he is in some secret place, don't believe it!

<sup>27</sup>The coming of the Son of Man will be like lightning that can be seen from east to west.

<sup>28</sup>Where there is a corpse, there will always be vultures.

When the Son of Man appears

(Mark 13.24–27; Luke 21.25–28)

Jesus continued:

<sup>29</sup>Straight after those days of suffering, "The sun will become dark, and the moon will no longer shine. The stars will fall, and the powers in the sky will be shaken."

<sup>30</sup>Then a sign will appear in the sky. And there will be the Son of Man. All nations on earth will weep when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

<sup>31</sup>At the sound of a loud trumpet, he will send his angels to bring his chosen ones together from all over the earth.

A lesson from a fig tree
(Mark 13.28–31; Luke 21.29–33)

Jesus continued:

<sup>32</sup>Learn a lesson from a fig tree. When its branches sprout and start putting out leaves, you know that summer is near.

<sup>33</sup>So when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time has almost come.

<sup>34</sup>I can promise you that some of the people of this generation will still be alive when all this happens.

<sup>35</sup>The sky and the earth won't last for ever, but my words will.

No one knows the day or time
(Mark 13.32–37; Luke 17.26–30,34–36)

Jesus continued:

<sup>36</sup>No one knows the day or hour. The angels in heaven don't know, and the Son himself doesn't know. Only the Father knows.

<sup>37</sup>When the Son of Man appears, things will be just as they were when Noah lived.

<sup>38</sup>People were eating, drinking, and getting married right up to the day that the flood came and Noah went into the big boat.

<sup>39</sup>They didn't know anything was happening until the flood came and swept them all away. That is how it will be when the Son of Man appears.

<sup>40</sup>Two men will be in the same field, but only one will be taken. The other will be left.

<sup>41</sup>Two women will be together grinding grain, but only one will be taken. The other will be left.

<sup>42</sup>So be on your guard! You don't know when your Lord will come.

<sup>43</sup>Homeowners never know when a thief is coming, and they are always on guard to keep one from breaking in.

<sup>44</sup>Always be ready! You don't know when the Son of Man will come.

Faithful and unfaithful servants

(Luke 12.35–48)

Jesus continued:

<sup>45</sup>Who are faithful and wise servants? Who are the ones the master will put in charge of giving the other servants their food supplies at the proper time?

<sup>46</sup>Servants are fortunate if their master comes and finds them doing their job.

<sup>47</sup>You may be sure that a servant who is always faithful will be put in charge of everything the master owns.

<sup>48</sup>But suppose one of the servants thinks that the master won't return until late.

<sup>49</sup>Suppose that evil servant starts beating the other servants and eats and drinks with people who are drunk.

<sup>50</sup>If that happens, the master will come on a day and at a time when the servant least expects him.

<sup>51</sup>That servant will then be punished and thrown out with the ones who only pretended to serve their master. There they will cry and grit their teeth in pain.

Matthew 25

A story about ten girls

Jesus said:

<sup>1</sup>The kingdom of heaven is like what happened one night when ten girls took their oil lamps and went to a wedding to meet the groom.

<sup>2</sup>Five of the girls were foolish and five were wise.

<sup>3</sup>The foolish ones took their lamps, but no extra oil.

<sup>4</sup>The ones who were wise took along extra oil for their lamps.

<sup>5</sup>The groom was late arriving, and the girls became drowsy and fell asleep.

<sup>6</sup>Then in the middle of the night someone shouted, “Here's the groom! Come to meet him!”

<sup>7</sup>When the girls got up and started getting their lamps ready,

<sup>8</sup>the foolish ones said to the others, “Let us have some of your oil! Our lamps are going out.”

<sup>9</sup>The girls who were wise answered, “There's not enough oil for all of us! Go and buy some for yourselves.”

<sup>10</sup>While the foolish girls were on their way to get some oil, the groom arrived. The girls who were ready went into the wedding, and the doors were closed.

<sup>11</sup>Later the other girls returned and shouted, “Sir, sir! Open the door for us!”

<sup>12</sup>But the groom replied, “I don't even know you!”

<sup>13</sup>So, my disciples, always be ready! You don't know the day or the time when all this will happen.

A story about three servants

(Luke 19.11–27)

Jesus continued:

<sup>14</sup>The kingdom is also like what happened when a man went away and put his three servants in charge of all he owned.

<sup>15</sup>The man knew what each servant could do. So he handed five thousand coins to the first servant, two thousand to the second, and one thousand to the third. Then he left the country.

<sup>16</sup>As soon as the man had gone, the servant with the five thousand coins used them to earn five thousand more.

<sup>17</sup>The servant who had two thousand coins did the same with his money and earned two thousand more.

<sup>18</sup>But the servant with one thousand coins dug a hole and hid his master's money in the ground.

<sup>19</sup>Some time later the master of those servants returned. He called them in and asked what they had done with his money.

<sup>20</sup>The servant who had been given five thousand coins brought them in with the five thousand that he had earned. He said, "Sir, you gave me five thousand coins, and I have earned five thousand more."

<sup>21</sup>"Wonderful!" his master replied. "You are a good and faithful servant. I left you in charge of only a little, but now I will put you in charge of much more. Come and share in my happiness!"

<sup>22</sup>Next, the servant who had been given two thousand coins came in and said, "Sir, you gave me two thousand coins, and I have earned two thousand more."

<sup>23</sup>"Wonderful!" his master replied. "You are a good and faithful servant. I left you in charge of only a little, but now I will put you in charge of much more. Come and share in my happiness!"

<sup>24</sup>The servant who had been given one thousand coins then came in and said, "Sir, I know that you are hard to get along with. You harvest what you don't plant and gather crops where you haven't scattered seed.

<sup>25</sup>I was frightened and went out and hid your money in the ground. Here is every single coin!"

<sup>26</sup>The master of the servant told him, "You are lazy and good-for-nothing! You know that I harvest what I don't plant and gather crops where I haven't scattered seed.

<sup>27</sup>You could have at least put my money in the bank, so that I could have earned interest on it."

<sup>28</sup>Then the master said, "Now your money will be taken away and given to the servant with ten thousand coins!"

<sup>29</sup>Everyone who has something will be given more, and they will have more than enough. But everything will be taken from those who don't have anything.

<sup>30</sup>You are a worthless servant, and you will be thrown out into the dark where people will cry and grit their teeth in pain.”

The final judgment

Jesus continued:

<sup>31</sup>When the Son of Man comes in his glory with all his angels, he will sit on his royal throne.

<sup>32</sup>The people of all nations will be brought before him, and he will separate them, as shepherds separate their sheep from their goats.

<sup>33</sup>He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

<sup>34</sup>Then the king will say to those on his right, “My father has blessed you! Come and receive the kingdom that was prepared for you before the world was created.

<sup>35</sup>When I was hungry, you gave me something to eat, and when I was thirsty, you gave me something to drink. When I was a stranger, you welcomed me,

<sup>36</sup>and when I was naked, you gave me clothes to wear. When I was sick, you took care of me, and when I was in jail, you visited me.”

<sup>37</sup>Then the ones who pleased the Lord will ask, “When did we give you something to eat or drink?

<sup>38</sup>When did we welcome you as a stranger or give you clothes to wear

<sup>39</sup>or visit you while you were sick or in jail?”

<sup>40</sup>The king will answer, “Whenever you did it for any of my people, no matter how unimportant they seemed, you did it for me.”

<sup>41</sup>Then the king will say to those on his left, “Get away from me! You are under God's curse. Go into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels!

<sup>42</sup>I was hungry, but you did not give me anything to eat, and I was thirsty, but you did not give me anything to drink.

<sup>43</sup>I was a stranger, but you did not welcome me, and I was naked, but you did not give me any clothes to wear. I was sick and in jail, but you did not take care of me.”

<sup>44</sup>Then the people will ask, “Lord, when did we fail to help you when you were hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in jail?”

<sup>45</sup>The king will say to them, “Whenever you failed to help any of my people, no matter how unimportant they seemed, you failed to do it for me.”

<sup>46</sup>Then Jesus said, “Those people will be punished for ever. But the ones who pleased God will have eternal life.”

Matthew 26

The plot to kill Jesus

(Mark 14.1,2; Luke 22.1,2; John 11.45–53)

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished teaching, he told his disciples,

<sup>2</sup>“You know that two days from now will be Passover. That is when the Son of Man will be handed over to his enemies and nailed to a cross.”

<sup>3</sup>At that time the chief priests and the nation's leaders were meeting at the home of Caiaphas the high priest.

<sup>4</sup>They secretly planned to have Jesus arrested and put to death.

<sup>5</sup>But they said, “We must not do it during Passover, because the people will riot.”

At Bethany

(Mark 14.3–9; John 12.1–8)

<sup>6</sup>Jesus was in the town of Bethany, eating at the home of Simon, who had leprosy.

<sup>7</sup>A woman came in with a bottle of expensive perfume and poured it on Jesus' head.

<sup>8</sup>But when his disciples saw this, they became angry and complained, “Why such a waste?

<sup>9</sup>We could have sold this perfume for a lot of money and given it to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he said: Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

<sup>11</sup>You will always have the poor with you, but you won't always have me.

<sup>12</sup>She has poured perfume on my body to prepare it for burial.

<sup>13</sup>You may be sure that wherever the good news is told all over the world, people will remember what she has done. And they will tell others.

Judas and the chief priests

(Mark 14.10,11; Luke 22.3–6)

<sup>14</sup>Judas Iscariot was one of the twelve disciples. He went to the chief priests

<sup>15</sup>and asked, “How much will you give me if I help you arrest Jesus?” They paid Judas thirty silver coins, <sup>16</sup>and from then on he started looking for a good chance to betray Jesus.

Jesus eats the Passover meal with his disciples

(Mark 14.12–21; Luke 22.7–13; John 13.21–30)

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the Festival of Thin Bread, Jesus' disciples came to him and asked, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal?”

<sup>18</sup>Jesus told them to go to a certain man in the city and tell him, “Our teacher says, ‘My time has come! I want to eat the Passover meal with my disciples in your home. ’ ”

<sup>19</sup>They did as Jesus told them and prepared the meal.

20-21 When Jesus was eating with his twelve disciples that evening, he said, “One of you will hand me over to my enemies.”

22 The disciples were very sad, and each one said to Jesus, “Lord, you can't mean me!”

23 He answered, “One of you men who has eaten with me from this dish will betray me.

24 The Son of Man will die, as the Scriptures say. But it's going to be terrible for the one who betrays me! That man would be better off if he had never been born.”

25 Judas said, “Teacher, surely you don't mean me!” “That's what you say!” Jesus replied. But later, Judas did betray him.

The Lord's Supper

(Mark 14.22–26; Luke 22.14–23; 1 Corinthians 11.23–25)

26 During the meal Jesus took some bread in his hands. He blessed the bread and broke it. Then he gave it to his disciples and said, “Take this and eat it. This is my body.”

27 Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God. He then gave it to his disciples and said, “Take this and drink it.

28 This is my blood, and with it God makes his agreement with you. It will be poured out, so that many people will have their sins forgiven.

29 From now on I am not going to drink any wine, until I drink new wine with you in my Father's kingdom.”

30 Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter's promise

(Mark 14.27–31; Luke 22.31–34; John 13.36–38)

31 Jesus said to his disciples, “During this very night, all of you will reject me, as the Scriptures say, ‘I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

32 But after I am raised to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you.”

<sup>33</sup>Peter spoke up, “Even if all the others reject you, I never will!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “I promise you that before a cock crows tonight, you will say three times that you don't know me.”

<sup>35</sup>But Peter said, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never say I don't know you.” All the others said the same thing.

Jesus prays

(Mark 14.32–42; Luke 22.39–46)

<sup>36</sup>Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane. When they got there, he told them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus took along Peter and the two brothers, James and John. He was very sad and troubled,

<sup>38</sup>and he said to them, “I am so sad that I feel as if I am dying. Stay here and keep awake with me.”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus walked on a little way. Then he knelt with his face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, don't make me suffer by making me drink from this cup. But do what you want, and not what I want.”

<sup>40</sup>He came back and found his disciples sleeping. So he said to Peter, “Can't any of you stay awake with me for just one hour?”

<sup>41</sup>Stay awake and pray that you won't be tested. You want to do what is right, but you are weak.”

<sup>42</sup>Again Jesus went to pray and said, “My Father, if there is no other way, and I must suffer, I will still do what you want.”

<sup>43</sup>Jesus came back and found them sleeping again. They simply could not keep their eyes open.

<sup>44</sup>He left them and prayed the same prayer once more.

<sup>45</sup>Finally, Jesus returned to his disciples and said, “Are you still sleeping and resting? The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

<sup>46</sup>Get up! Let's go. The one who will betray me is already here.”

Jesus is arrested

(Mark 14.43–50; Luke 22.47–53; John 18.3–12)

<sup>47</sup>Jesus was still speaking, when Judas the betrayer came up. He was one of the twelve disciples, and a large mob armed with swords and clubs was with him. They had been sent by the chief priests and the nation's leaders.

<sup>48</sup>Judas had told them beforehand, “Arrest the man I greet with a kiss.”

<sup>49</sup>Judas walked right up to Jesus and said, “Hello, teacher.” Then Judas kissed him.

<sup>50</sup>Jesus replied, “My friend, why are you here?” The men grabbed Jesus and arrested him.

<sup>51</sup>One of Jesus' followers pulled out a sword. He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>But Jesus told him, “Put your sword away. Anyone who lives by fighting will die by fighting.

<sup>53</sup>Don't you know that I could ask my Father, and straight away he would send me more than twelve armies of angels?

<sup>54</sup>But then, how could the words of the Scriptures come true, which say that this must happen?”

<sup>55</sup>Jesus said to the mob, “Why do you come with swords and clubs to arrest me like a criminal? Day after day I sat and taught in the temple, and you didn't arrest me.

<sup>56</sup>But all this happened, so that what the prophets wrote would come true.” All Jesus' disciples left him and ran away.

Jesus is questioned by the council

(Mark 14.53–65; Luke 22.54,55,63–71; John 18.13,14,19–24)

<sup>57</sup>After Jesus had been arrested, he was led off to the house of Caiaphas the high priest. The nation's leaders and the teachers of the Law of Moses were meeting there.

<sup>58</sup>But Peter followed along at a distance and came to the courtyard of the high priest's palace. He went in and sat down with the guards to see what was going to happen.

<sup>59</sup>The chief priests and the whole council wanted to put Jesus to death. So they tried to find some people who would tell lies about him in court.

<sup>60</sup>But they could not find any, even though many did come and tell lies. At last, two men came forward

<sup>61</sup>and said, “This man claimed that he would tear down God's temple and build it again in three days.”

<sup>62</sup>The high priest stood up and asked Jesus, “Why don't you say something in your own defence? Don't you hear the charges they are making against you?”

<sup>63</sup>But Jesus did not answer. So the high priest said, “With the living God looking on, you must tell the truth. Tell us, are you the Messiah, the Son of God?”

<sup>64</sup>“That is what you say!” Jesus answered. “But I tell all of you, ‘Soon you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right side of God All-Powerful and coming on the clouds of heaven.’ ”

<sup>65</sup>The high priest then tore his robe and said, “This man claims to be God! We don't need any more witnesses! You have heard what he said.

<sup>66</sup>What do you think?” They answered, “He is guilty and deserves to die!”

<sup>67</sup>Then they spat in his face and hit him with their fists. Others slapped him

<sup>68</sup>and said, “You think you are the Messiah! So tell us who hit you!”

Peter says he doesn't know Jesus

(Mark 14.66–72; Luke 22.56–62; John 18.15–18,25–27)

<sup>69</sup>While Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, a servant girl came up to him and said, “You were with Jesus from Galilee.”

<sup>70</sup>But in front of everyone Peter said, “That isn't so! I don't know what you are talking about!”

<sup>71</sup>When Peter had gone out to the gate, another servant girl saw him and said to some people there, “This man was with Jesus from Nazareth.”

<sup>72</sup>Again Peter denied it, and this time he swore, “I don't even know that man!”

<sup>73</sup>A little while later some people standing there walked over to Peter and said, “We know that you are one of them. We can tell it because you talk like someone from Galilee.”

<sup>74</sup>Peter began to curse and swear, “I don't know that man!” At once a cock crowed, <sup>75</sup>and Peter remembered that Jesus had said, “Before a cock crows, you will say three times that you don't know me.” Then Peter went out and cried hard.

Matthew 27

Jesus is taken to Pilate

(Mark 15.1; Luke 23.1,2; John 18.28–32)

<sup>1</sup>Early the next morning all the chief priests and the nation's leaders met and decided that Jesus should be put to death.

<sup>2</sup>They tied him up and led him away to Pilate the governor.

The death of Judas

(The Acts 1.18,19)

<sup>3</sup>Judas had betrayed Jesus, but when he learnt that Jesus had been sentenced to death, he was sorry for what he had done. He returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and leaders

<sup>4</sup>and said, “I have sinned by betraying a man who has never done anything wrong.” “So what? That's your problem,” they replied.

<sup>5</sup>Judas threw the money into the temple and then went out and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup>The chief priests picked up the money and said, “This money was paid to have a man killed. We can't put it in the temple treasury.”

<sup>7</sup>Then they had a meeting and decided to buy a field that belonged to someone who made clay pots. They wanted to use it as a graveyard for foreigners.

<sup>8</sup>That's why people still call that place "Field of Blood".

<sup>9</sup>So the words of the prophet Jeremiah came true, "They took the thirty silver coins, the price of a person among the people of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>They paid it for a potter's field, as the Lord had commanded me."

Pilate questions Jesus

(Mark 15.2–5; Luke 23.3–5; John 18.33–38)

<sup>11</sup>Jesus was brought before Pilate the governor, who asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Those are your words!" Jesus answered.

<sup>12</sup>And when the chief priests and leaders brought their charges against him, he did not say a thing.

<sup>13</sup>Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear what crimes they say you have done?"

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus did not say anything, and the governor was greatly amazed.

The death sentence

(Mark 15.6–15; Luke 23.13–26; John 18.39–19.16)

<sup>15</sup>During Passover the governor always freed a prisoner chosen by the people.

<sup>16</sup>At that time a well-known terrorist named Jesus Barabbas was in jail.

<sup>17</sup>So when the crowd came together, Pilate asked them, "Which prisoner do you want me to set free? Do you want Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?"

<sup>18</sup>Pilate knew that the leaders had brought Jesus to him because they were jealous.

<sup>19</sup>While Pilate was judging the case, his wife sent him a message. It said, "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man. I have had nightmares because of him."

<sup>20</sup>But the chief priests and the leaders convinced the crowds to ask for Barabbas to be set free and for Jesus to be killed.

<sup>21</sup>Pilate asked the crowd again, “Which of these two men do you want me to set free?” “Barabbas!” they replied.

<sup>22</sup>Pilate asked them, “What am I to do with Jesus, who is called the Messiah?” They all yelled, “Nail him to a cross!”

<sup>23</sup>Pilate answered, “But what crime has he done?” “Nail him to a cross!” they yelled even louder.

<sup>24</sup>Pilate saw that there was nothing he could do and that the people were starting to riot. So he took some water and washed his hands in front of them and said, “I won't have anything to do with killing this man. You are the ones doing it!”

<sup>25</sup>Everyone answered, “We and our own families will take the blame for his death!”

<sup>26</sup>Pilate set Barabbas free. Then he ordered his soldiers to beat Jesus with a whip and nail him to a cross.

Soldiers make fun of Jesus

(Mark 15.16–21; John 19.2,3)

<sup>27</sup>The governor's soldiers led Jesus into the fortress and brought together the rest of the troops.

<sup>28</sup>They stripped off Jesus' clothes and put a scarlet robe on him.

<sup>29</sup>They made a crown out of thorn branches and placed it on his head, and they put a stick in his right hand. The soldiers knelt down and pretended to worship him. They made fun of him and shouted, “Hey, you king of the Jews!”

<sup>30</sup>Then they spat on him. They took the stick from him and beat him on the head with it.

Jesus is nailed to a cross

(Mark 15.22–32; Luke 23.27–43; John 19.17–27)

<sup>31</sup>When the soldiers had finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the robe. They put his own clothes back on him and led him off to be nailed to a cross.

<sup>32</sup>On the way they met a man from Cyrene named Simon, and they forced him to carry Jesus' cross.

<sup>33</sup>They came to a place named Golgotha, which means “Place of a Skull”.

<sup>34</sup>There they gave Jesus some wine mixed with a drug to ease the pain. But when Jesus tasted what it was, he refused to drink it.

<sup>35</sup>The soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross and gambled to see who would get his clothes.

<sup>36</sup>Then they sat down to guard him.

<sup>37</sup>Above his head they put a sign that told why he was nailed there. It read, “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.”

<sup>38</sup>The soldiers also nailed two criminals on crosses, one to the right of Jesus and the other to his left.

<sup>39</sup>People who passed by said terrible things about Jesus. They shook their heads and

<sup>40</sup>shouted, “So you're the one who claimed you could tear down the temple and build it again in three days! If you are God's Son, save yourself and come down from the cross!”

<sup>41</sup>The chief priests, the leaders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses also made fun of Jesus. They said, <sup>42</sup>“He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the king of Israel, he should come down from the cross! Then we will believe him.

<sup>43</sup>He trusted God, so let God save him, if he wants to. He even said he was God's Son.”

<sup>44</sup>The two criminals also said cruel things to Jesus.

The death of Jesus

(Mark 15.33–41; Luke 23.44–49; John 19.28–30)

<sup>45</sup>At midday the sky turned dark and stayed that way until three o'clock.

<sup>46</sup>Then about that time Jesus shouted, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you deserted me?”

<sup>47</sup>Some of the people standing there heard Jesus and said, “He's calling for Elijah.”

<sup>48</sup>One of them at once ran and grabbed a sponge. He soaked it in wine, then put it on a stick and held it up to Jesus.

<sup>49</sup>Others said, “Wait! Let's see if Elijah will come and save him.”

<sup>50</sup>Once again Jesus shouted, and then he died.

<sup>51</sup>At once the curtain in the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and rocks split apart.

<sup>52</sup>Graves opened, and many of God's people were raised to life.

<sup>53</sup>Then after Jesus had risen to life, they came out of their graves and went into the holy city, where they were seen by many people.

<sup>54</sup>The officer and the soldiers guarding Jesus felt the earthquake and saw everything else that happened. They were frightened and said, “This man really was God's Son!”

<sup>55</sup>Many women had come with Jesus from Galilee to be of help to him, and they were there, looking on at a distance.

<sup>56</sup>Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of James and John were some of these women.

Jesus is buried

(Mark 15.42–47; Luke 23.50–56; John 19.38–42)

<sup>57</sup>That evening a rich disciple named Joseph from the town of Arimathea

<sup>58</sup>went and asked for Jesus' body. Pilate gave orders for it to be given to Joseph, <sup>59</sup>who took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

<sup>60</sup>Then Joseph put the body in his own tomb that had been cut into solid rock and had never been used. He rolled a big stone against the entrance to the tomb and went away.

<sup>61</sup>All this time Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting across from the tomb.

<sup>62</sup>On the next day, which was a Sabbath, the chief priests and the Pharisees went together to Pilate.

<sup>63</sup>They said, “Sir, we remember what that liar said while he was still alive. He claimed that in three days he would come back from death.

<sup>64</sup>So please order the tomb to be carefully guarded for three days. If you don't, his disciples may come and steal his body. They will tell the people that he has been raised to life, and this last lie will be worse than the first one.”

<sup>65</sup>Pilate said to them, “All right, take some of your soldiers and guard the tomb as well as you know how.”

<sup>66</sup>So they sealed it tight and placed soldiers there to guard it.

Matthew 28

Jesus is alive

Jesus is alive

(Mark 16.1–8; Luke 24.1–12; John 20.1–10)

<sup>1</sup>The Sabbath was over, and it was almost daybreak on Sunday when Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>Suddenly a strong earthquake struck, and the Lord's angel came down from heaven. He rolled away the stone and sat on it.

<sup>3</sup>The angel looked as bright as lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.

<sup>4</sup>The guards shook from fear and fell down, as though they were dead.

<sup>5</sup>The angel said to the women, “Don't be afraid! I know you are looking for Jesus, who was nailed to a cross.

<sup>6</sup>He isn't here! God has raised him to life, just as Jesus said he would. Come, see the place where his body was lying.

<sup>7</sup>Now hurry! Tell his disciples that he has been raised to life and is on his way to Galilee. Go there, and you will see him. That is what I came to tell you.”

<sup>8</sup>The women were frightened and yet very happy, as they hurried from the tomb and ran to tell his disciples.

<sup>9</sup>Suddenly Jesus met them and greeted them. They went near him, held on to his feet, and worshipped him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said, “Don't be afraid! Tell my followers to go to Galilee. They will see me there.”

Report of the guard

<sup>11</sup>While the women were on their way, some soldiers who had been guarding the tomb went into the city. They told the chief priests everything that had happened.

<sup>12</sup>So the chief priests met with the leaders and decided to bribe the soldiers with a lot of money.

<sup>13</sup>They said to the soldiers, “Tell everyone that Jesus' disciples came during the night and stole his body while you were asleep.

<sup>14</sup>If the governor hears about this, we will talk to him. You won't have anything to worry about.”

<sup>15</sup>The soldiers took the money and did what they were told. Some of the Jewish people still tell each other this story.

What Jesus' followers must do

(Mark 16.14–18; Luke 24.36–49; John 20.19–23; The Acts 1.6–8)

<sup>16</sup>Jesus' eleven disciples went to a mountain in Galilee, where Jesus had told them to meet him.

<sup>17</sup>They saw him and worshipped him, but some of them doubted.

<sup>18</sup>Jesus came to them and said: I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth!

<sup>19</sup>Go to the people of all nations and make them my disciples. Baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup>and teach them to do everything I have told you. I will be with you always, even until the end of the world.

Mark

Mark 1

The message of John the Baptist

The preaching of John the Baptist

(Matthew 3.1–12; Luke 3.1–18; John 1.19–28)

- <sup>1</sup>This is the good news about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
- <sup>2</sup>It began just as God had said in the book written by Isaiah the prophet, “I am sending my messenger to get the way ready for you.
- <sup>3</sup>In the desert someone is shouting, ‘Get the road ready for the Lord! Make a straight path for him.’ ”
- <sup>4</sup>So John the Baptist appeared in the desert and told everyone, “Turn back to God and be baptized! Then your sins will be forgiven.”
- <sup>5</sup>From all Judea and Jerusalem crowds of people went to John. They told how sorry they were for their sins, and he baptized them in the River Jordan.
- <sup>6</sup>John wore clothes made of camel's hair. He had a leather strap around his waist and ate grasshoppers and wild honey.
- <sup>7</sup>John also told the people, “Someone more powerful is going to come. And I am not good enough even to stoop down and untie his sandals.
- <sup>8</sup>I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!”

The baptism and temptation of Jesus

The baptism of Jesus

(Matthew 3.13–17; Luke 3.21,22)

- <sup>9</sup>About that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the River Jordan.
- <sup>10</sup>As soon as Jesus came out of the water, he saw the sky open and the Holy Spirit coming down to him like a dove.
- <sup>11</sup>A voice from heaven said, “You are my own dear Son, and I am pleased with you.”

Jesus and Satan

(Matthew 4.1–11; Luke 4.1–13)

<sup>12</sup>Straight away God's Spirit made Jesus go into the desert.

<sup>13</sup>He stayed there for forty days while Satan tested him. Jesus was with the wild animals, but angels took care of him.

Jesus in Galilee
Jesus begins his work
 (Matthew 4.12–17; Luke 4.14,15)

<sup>14</sup>After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee and told the good news that comes from God.

<sup>15</sup>He said, “The time has come! God's kingdom will soon be here. Turn back to God and believe the good news!”

Jesus chooses four fishermen
 (Matthew 4.18–22; Luke 5.1–11)

<sup>16</sup>As Jesus was walking along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were fishermen and were casting their nets into the lake.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to them, “Come with me! I will teach you how to bring in people instead of fish.”

<sup>18</sup>At once the two brothers dropped their nets and went with him.

<sup>19</sup>Jesus walked on and soon saw James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat, mending their nets.

<sup>20</sup>At once Jesus asked them to come with him. They left their father in the boat with the hired workers and went with him.

A man with an evil spirit
 (Luke 4.31–37)

<sup>21</sup>Jesus and his disciples went to the town of Capernaum. Then on the next Sabbath he went into the Jewish meeting place and started teaching.

<sup>22</sup>Everyone was amazed at his teaching. He taught with authority, and not like the teachers of the Law of Moses.

<sup>23</sup>Suddenly a man with an evil spirit in him entered the meeting place and yelled,

<sup>24</sup>“Jesus from Nazareth, what do you want with us? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are! You are God's Holy One.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus told the evil spirit, “Be quiet and come out of the man!”

<sup>26</sup>The spirit shook him. Then it gave a loud shout and left.

<sup>27</sup>Everyone was completely surprised and kept saying to each other, “What is this? It must be some new kind of powerful teaching! Even the evil spirits obey him.”

<sup>28</sup>News about Jesus quickly spread all over Galilee.

Jesus heals many people
(Matthew 8.14–17; Luke 4.38–41)

<sup>29</sup>As soon as Jesus left the meeting place with James and John, they went home with Simon and Andrew.

<sup>30</sup>When they got there, Jesus was told that Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed with fever.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus went to her. He took hold of her hand and helped her up. The fever left her, and she served them a meal.

<sup>32</sup>That evening after sunset, all who were sick or had demons in them were brought to Jesus.

<sup>33</sup>In fact, the whole town gathered around the door of the house.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus healed all kinds of terrible diseases and forced out a lot of demons. But the demons knew who he was, and he did not let them speak.

<sup>35</sup>Very early the next morning, Jesus got up and went to a place where he could be alone and pray.

<sup>36</sup>Simon and the others started looking for him.

<sup>37</sup>And when they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you!”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus replied, “We must go to the nearby towns, so that I can tell the good news to those people. This is why I have come.”

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus went to Jewish meeting places everywhere in Galilee, where he preached and forced out demons.

Jesus heals a man

(Matthew 8.1–4; Luke 5.12–16)

<sup>40</sup> A man with leprosy came to Jesus and knelt down. He begged, “You have the power to make me well, if only you wanted to.”

<sup>41</sup> Jesus felt sorry for the man. So he put his hand on him and said, “I want to! Now you are well.”

<sup>42</sup> At once the man's leprosy disappeared, and he was well.

<sup>43</sup> After Jesus strictly warned the man, he sent him on his way.

<sup>44</sup> He said, “Don't tell anyone about this. Just go and show the priest that you are well. Then take a gift to the temple as Moses commanded, and everyone will know that you have been healed.”

<sup>45</sup> The man talked about it so much and told so many people, that Jesus could no longer go openly into a town. He had to stay away from the towns, but people still came to him from everywhere.

Mark 2

Jesus heals a crippled man

(Matthew 9.1–8; Luke 5.17–26)

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went back to Capernaum, and a few days later people heard that he was at home.

<sup>2</sup> Then so many of them came to the house that there wasn't even standing room left in front of the door. Jesus was still teaching

<sup>3</sup> when four people came up, carrying a crippled man on a mat.

<sup>4</sup> But because of the crowd, they could not get him to Jesus. So they made a hole in the roof above him and let the man down in front of everyone.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the crippled man, “My friend, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>6</sup>Some of the teachers of the Law of Moses were sitting there. They started wondering,

<sup>7</sup>“Why would he say such a thing? He must think he is God! Only God can forgive sins.”

<sup>8</sup>Straight away, Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he said, “Why are you thinking such things?

<sup>9</sup>Is it easier for me to tell this crippled man that his sins are forgiven or to tell him to get up and pick up his mat and go on home?

<sup>10</sup>I will show you that the Son of Man has the right to forgive sins here on earth.” So Jesus said to the man,

<sup>11</sup>“Get up! Pick up your mat and go on home.”

<sup>12</sup>The man got straight up. He picked up his mat and went out while everyone watched in amazement. They praised God and said, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Jesus chooses Levi

(Matthew 9.9–13; Luke 5.27–32)

<sup>13</sup>Once again, Jesus went to the shore of Lake Galilee. A large crowd gathered around him, and he taught them.

<sup>14</sup>As he walked along, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus. Levi was sitting at the place for paying taxes, and Jesus said to him, “Come with me!” So he got up and went with Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Later, Jesus and his disciples were having dinner at Levi's house. Many tax collectors and other sinners had become followers of Jesus, and they were also guests at the dinner.

<sup>16</sup>Some of the teachers of the Law of Moses were Pharisees, and they saw that Jesus was eating with sinners and tax collectors. So they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus heard them and answered, “Healthy people don't need a doctor, but sick people do. I didn't come to invite good people to be my followers. I came to invite sinners.”

People ask about going without eating

(Matthew 9.14–17; Luke 5.33–39)

<sup>18</sup>The followers of John the Baptist and the Pharisees often went without eating. Some people came and asked Jesus, “Why do the followers of John and those of the Pharisees often go without eating, while your disciples never do?”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus answered: The friends of a bridegroom don't go without eating while he is still with them.

<sup>20</sup>But the time will come when he will be taken from them. Then they will go without eating.

<sup>21</sup>No one patches old clothes by sewing on a piece of new cloth. The new piece would shrink and tear a bigger hole.

<sup>22</sup>No one pours new wine into old wineskins. The wine would swell and burst the old skins. Then the wine would be lost, and the skins would be ruined. New wine must be put into new wineskins.

A question about the Sabbath

(Matthew 12.1–8; Luke 6.1–5)

<sup>23</sup>One Sabbath Jesus and his disciples were walking through some wheat fields. His disciples were picking grains of wheat as they went along.

<sup>24</sup>Some Pharisees asked Jesus, “Why are your disciples picking grain on the Sabbath? They are not supposed to do that!”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered, “Haven't you read what David did when he and his followers were hungry and in need?”

<sup>26</sup>It was during the time of Abiathar the high priest. David went into the house of God and ate the sacred loaves of bread that only priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his followers.”

<sup>27</sup>Jesus finished by saying, “People were not made for the good of the Sabbath. The Sabbath was made for the good of people.

<sup>28</sup>So the Son of Man is Lord over the Sabbath.”

Mark 3

A man with a crippled hand

(Matthew 12.9–14; Luke 6.6–11)

<sup>1</sup>The next time that Jesus went into the meeting place, a man with a crippled hand was there.

<sup>2</sup>The Pharisees wanted to accuse Jesus of doing something wrong, and they kept watching to see if Jesus would heal him on the Sabbath.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus told the man to stand up where everyone could see him.

<sup>4</sup>Then he asked, “On the Sabbath should we do good deeds or evil deeds? Should we save someone's life or destroy it?” But no one said a word.

<sup>5</sup>Jesus was angry as he looked around at the people. Yet he felt sorry for them because they were so stubborn. Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his bad hand was healed.

<sup>6</sup>The Pharisees left. And straight away they started making plans with Herod's followers to kill Jesus.

Large crowds come to Jesus

<sup>7</sup>Jesus led his disciples down to the shore of the lake. Large crowds followed him from Galilee, Judea,

<sup>8</sup>and Jerusalem. People came from Idumea, as well as other places east of the River Jordan. They also came from the region around the cities of Tyre and Sidon. All these crowds came because they had heard what Jesus was doing.

<sup>9</sup>He even had to tell his disciples to get a boat ready to keep him from being crushed by the crowds.

<sup>10</sup>After Jesus had healed many people, the other sick people begged him to let them touch him.

<sup>11</sup>And whenever any evil spirits saw Jesus, they would fall to the ground and shout, “You are the Son of God!”

<sup>12</sup>But Jesus warned the spirits not to tell who he was.

Jesus chooses his twelve apostles

(Matthew 10.1–4; Luke 6.12–16)

<sup>13</sup>Jesus decided to ask some of his disciples to go up on a mountain with him, and they went.

<sup>14</sup>Then he chose twelve of them to be his apostles, so that they could be with him. He also wanted to send them out to preach

<sup>15</sup>and to force out demons.

<sup>16</sup>Simon was one of the twelve, and Jesus named him Peter.

<sup>17</sup>There were also James and John, the two sons of Zebedee. Jesus called them Boanerges, which means “Thunderbolts”.

<sup>18</sup>Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus were also apostles. The others were Simon, known as the Eager One,

<sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

Jesus and the ruler of demons

(Matthew 12.22–32; Luke 11.14–23; 12.10)

<sup>20</sup>Jesus went back home, and once again such a large crowd gathered that there was no chance even to eat.

<sup>21</sup>When Jesus' family heard what he was doing, they thought he was mad and went to get him under control.

<sup>22</sup>Some teachers of the Law of Moses came from Jerusalem and said, “This man is under the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons! He is even forcing out demons with the help of Beelzebul.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus told the people to gather around him. Then he spoke to them in riddles and said: How can Satan force himself out?

<sup>24</sup>A nation whose people fight each other won't last very long.

<sup>25</sup>And a family that fights won't last long either.

<sup>26</sup>So if Satan fights against himself, that will be the end of him.

<sup>27</sup>How can anyone break into the house of a strong man and steal his things, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can take everything.

<sup>28</sup>I promise you that any of the sinful things you say or do can be forgiven, no matter how terrible those things are.

<sup>29</sup>But if you speak against the Holy Spirit, you can never be forgiven. That sin will be held against you for ever.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus said this because the people were saying that he had an evil spirit in him.

Jesus' mother and brothers

(Matthew 12.46–50; Luke 8.19–21)

<sup>31</sup>Jesus' mother and brothers came and stood outside. Then they sent someone with a message for him to come out to them.

<sup>32</sup>The crowd that was sitting around Jesus told him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside and want to see you.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus asked, “Who is my mother and who are my brothers?”

<sup>34</sup>Then he looked at the people sitting around him and said, “Here are my mother and my brothers.

<sup>35</sup>Anyone who obeys God is my brother or sister or mother.”

Mark 4

A story about a farmer

(Matthew 13.1–9; Luke 8.4–8)

<sup>1</sup>The next time Jesus taught beside Lake Galilee, a big crowd gathered. It was so large that he had to sit in a boat out on the lake, while the people stood on the shore.

<sup>2</sup>He used stories to teach them many things, and this is part of what he taught:

<sup>3</sup>Now listen! A farmer went out to scatter seed in a field.

<sup>4</sup>While the farmer was scattering the seed, some of it fell along the road and was eaten by birds.

<sup>5</sup>Other seeds fell on thin, rocky ground and quickly started growing because the soil wasn't very deep.

<sup>6</sup>But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched and dried up, because they did not have enough roots.

<sup>7</sup>Some other seeds fell where thorn bushes grew up and choked out the plants. So they did not produce any grain.

<sup>8</sup>But a few seeds did fall on good ground where the plants grew and produced thirty or sixty or even a hundred times as much as was scattered.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said, "If you have ears, pay attention."

Why Jesus used stories

(Matthew 13.10–17; Luke 8.9,10)

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus was alone with the twelve apostles and some others, they asked him about these stories.

<sup>11</sup>He answered: I have explained the secret about God's kingdom to you, but for others I can use only stories.

<sup>12</sup>The reason is, "These people will look and look, but never see. They will listen and listen, but never understand. If they did, they would turn to God, and he would forgive them."

Jesus explains the story about the farmer

(Matthew 13.18–23; Luke 8.11–15)

<sup>13</sup>Jesus told them: If you don't understand this story, you won't understand any others.

<sup>14</sup>What the farmer is spreading is really the message about the kingdom.

<sup>15</sup>The seeds that fell along the road are the people who hear the message. But Satan soon comes and snatches it away from them.

<sup>16</sup>The seeds that fell on rocky ground are the people who gladly hear the message and accept it straight away.

<sup>17</sup>But they don't have any roots, and they don't last very long. As soon as life gets hard or the message gets them in trouble, they give up.

<sup>18</sup>The seeds that fell among the thorn bushes are also people who hear the message.

<sup>19</sup>But they start worrying about the needs of this life. They are fooled by the desire to get rich and to have all kinds of other things. So the message gets choked out, and they never produce anything.

<sup>20</sup>The seeds that fell on good ground are the people who hear and welcome the message. They produce thirty or sixty or even a hundred times as much as was planted.

Light

(Luke 8.16–18)

<sup>21</sup>Jesus also said: You don't light a lamp and put it under a clay pot or under a bed. Don't you put a lamp on a lampstand?

<sup>22</sup>There is nothing hidden that will not be made public. There is no secret that will not be well known.

<sup>23</sup>If you have ears, pay attention!

<sup>24</sup>Listen carefully to what you hear! The way you treat others will be the way you will be treated—and even worse.

<sup>25</sup>Everyone who has something will be given more. But people who don't have anything will lose what little they have.

Another story about seeds

<sup>26</sup>Again Jesus said: God's kingdom is like what happens when a farmer scatters seed in a field.

<sup>27</sup>The farmer sleeps at night and is up and around during the day. Yet the seeds keep sprouting and growing, and he doesn't understand how.

<sup>28</sup>It is the ground that makes the seeds sprout and grow into plants that produce grain.

<sup>29</sup>Then when harvest season comes and the grain is ripe, the farmer cuts it with a sickle.

A mustard seed

(Matthew 13.31,32; Luke 13.18,19)

<sup>30</sup>Finally, Jesus said: What is God's kingdom like? What story can I use to explain it?

<sup>31</sup>It is like what happens when a mustard seed is planted in the ground. It is the smallest seed in all the world.

<sup>32</sup>But once it is planted, it grows larger than any garden plant. It even puts out branches that are big enough for birds to nest in its shade.

The reason for teaching with stories

(Matthew 13.34,35)

<sup>33</sup>Jesus used many other stories when he spoke to the people, and he taught them as much as they could understand.

<sup>34</sup>He did not tell them anything without using stories. But when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

A storm

(Matthew 8.23–27; Luke 8.22–25)

<sup>35</sup>That evening, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let's cross to the east side.”

<sup>36</sup>So they left the crowd, and his disciples started across the lake with him in the boat. Some other boats followed along.

<sup>37</sup>Suddenly a storm struck the lake. Waves started splashing into the boat, and it was about to sink.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus was in the back of the boat with his head on a pillow, and he was asleep. His disciples woke him and said, “Teacher, don't you care that we're about to drown?”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus got up and ordered the wind and the waves to be quiet. The wind stopped, and everything was calm.

<sup>40</sup>Jesus asked his disciples, “Why were you afraid? Don't you have any faith?”

<sup>41</sup>Now they were more afraid than ever and said to each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

Mark 5

A man with evil spirits

(Matthew 8.28–34; Luke 8.26–39)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus and his disciples crossed Lake Galilee and came to shore near the town of Gerasa.

<sup>2</sup>When he was getting out of the boat, a man with an evil spirit quickly ran to him

<sup>3</sup>from the graveyard where he had been living. No one was able to tie the man up any more, not even with a chain.

<sup>4</sup>He had often been put in chains and leg irons, but he broke the chains and smashed the leg irons. No one could control him.

<sup>5</sup>Night and day he was in the graveyard or on the hills, yelling and cutting himself with stones.

<sup>6</sup>When the man saw Jesus in the distance, he ran up to him and knelt down.

<sup>7</sup>He shouted, “Jesus, Son of God in heaven, what do you want with me? Promise me in God's name that you won't torture me!”

<sup>8</sup>The man said this because Jesus had already told the evil spirit to come out of him.

<sup>9</sup>Jesus asked, “What is your name?” The man answered, “My name is Lots, because I have ‘lots’ of evil spirits.”

<sup>10</sup>He then begged Jesus not to send them away.

<sup>11</sup>Over on the hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding.

<sup>12</sup>So the evil spirits begged Jesus, “Send us into those pigs! Let us go into them.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus let them go, and they went out of the man and into the pigs. The whole herd of about two thousand pigs rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

<sup>14</sup>The men taking care of the pigs ran to the town and the farms to spread the news. Then the people came out to see what had happened.

<sup>15</sup>When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had once been full of demons. He was sitting there with his clothes on and in his right mind, and they were terrified.

<sup>16</sup>Everyone who had seen what had happened told about the man and the pigs.

<sup>17</sup>Then the people started begging Jesus to leave their part of the country.

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus was getting into the boat, the man begged to go with him.

<sup>19</sup>But Jesus would not let him. Instead, he said, “Go home to your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for you and how good he has been to you.”

<sup>20</sup>The man went away into the region near the ten cities known as Decapolis and began telling everyone how much Jesus had done for him. Everyone who heard what had happened was amazed.

A dying girl and a sick woman

(Matthew 9.18–26; Luke 8.40–56)

<sup>21</sup>Once again Jesus got into the boat and crossed Lake Galilee. Then as he stood on the shore, a large crowd gathered around him.

<sup>22</sup>The person in charge of the Jewish meeting place was also there. His name was Jairus, and when he saw Jesus, he went over to him. He knelt at Jesus' feet

<sup>23</sup>and started begging him for help. He said, “My daughter is about to die! Please come and touch her, so she will get well and live.”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus went with Jairus. Many people followed along and kept crowding around.

<sup>25</sup>In the crowd was a woman who had been bleeding for twelve years.

<sup>26</sup>She had gone to many doctors, and they had not done anything except cause her a lot of pain. She had paid them all the money she had. But instead of getting better, she only got worse.

<sup>27</sup>The woman had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him in the crowd and barely touched his clothes.

<sup>28</sup>She had said to herself, “If I can just touch his clothes, I will get well.”

<sup>29</sup>As soon as she touched them, her bleeding stopped, and she knew she was well.

<sup>30</sup>At that moment Jesus felt power go out from him. He turned to the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

<sup>31</sup>His disciples said to him, “Look at all these people crowding around you! How can you ask who touched you?”

<sup>32</sup>But Jesus turned to see who had touched him.

<sup>33</sup>The woman knew what had happened to her. She came shaking with fear and knelt down in front of Jesus. Then she told him the whole story.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to the woman, “You are now well because of your faith. May God give you peace! You are healed, and you will no longer be in pain.”

<sup>35</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, some men came from Jairus' home and said, “Your daughter has died! Why bother the teacher any more?”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus heard what they said, and he said to Jairus, “Don't worry. Just have faith!”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus did not let anyone go with him except Peter and the two brothers, James and John.

<sup>38</sup>They went home with Jairus and saw the people crying and making a lot of noise.

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus went inside and said to them, “Why are you crying and carrying on like this? The child isn't dead. She is just asleep.”

<sup>40</sup>But the people laughed at him. After Jesus had sent them all out of the house, he took the girl's father and mother and his three disciples and went to where she was.

<sup>41-42</sup>He took the twelve-year-old girl by the hand and said, “Talitha, koum!” which means, “Little girl, get up!” The girl got straight up and started walking around. Everyone was greatly surprised.

<sup>43</sup>But Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened. Then he said, “Give her something to eat.”

Mark 6

The people of Nazareth turn against Jesus

(Matthew 13.53–58; Luke 4.16–30)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus left and returned to his home town with his disciples.

<sup>2</sup>The next Sabbath he taught in the Jewish meeting place. Many of the people who heard him were amazed and asked, “How can he do all this? Where did he get such wisdom and the power to perform these miracles?”

<sup>3</sup>Isn't he the carpenter, the son of Mary? Aren't James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon his brothers? Don't his sisters still live here in our town?” The people were very unhappy because of what he was doing.

<sup>4</sup>But Jesus said, “Prophets are honoured by everyone, except the people of their home town and their relatives and their own family.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus could not perform any miracles there, except to heal a few sick people by placing his hands on them.

<sup>6</sup>He was surprised that the people did not have any faith.

Instructions for the twelve apostles

(Matthew 10.5–15; Luke 9.1–6)

Jesus taught in all the neighbouring villages.

<sup>7</sup>Then he called together his twelve apostles and sent them out two by two with power over evil spirits.

<sup>8</sup>He told them, “You may take along a walking stick. But don't carry food or a travelling bag or any money.

<sup>9</sup>It's all right to wear sandals, but don't take along a change of clothes.

<sup>10</sup>When you are welcomed into a home, stay there until you leave that town.

<sup>11</sup>If any place won't welcome you or listen to your message, leave and shake the dust from your feet as a warning to them.”

<sup>12</sup>The apostles left and started telling everyone to turn to God.

<sup>13</sup>They forced out many demons and healed a lot of sick people by putting olive oil on them.

The death of John the Baptist

(Matthew 14.1–12; Luke 9.7–9)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus became so well known that Herod the ruler heard about him. Some people thought he was John the Baptist, who had come back to life with the power to perform miracles.

<sup>15</sup>Others thought he was Elijah or some other prophet who had lived long ago.

<sup>16</sup>But when Herod heard about Jesus, he said, “This must be John! I had his head cut off, and now he has come back to life.”

<sup>17-18</sup>Herod had earlier married Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip. But John had told him, “It isn't right for you to take your brother's wife!” So, in order to please Herodias, Herod arrested John and put him in prison.

<sup>19</sup>Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she could not do it

<sup>20</sup>because Herod was afraid of John and protected him. He knew that John was a good and holy man. Even though Herod was confused by what John said, he was glad to listen to him. And he often did.

<sup>21</sup>Finally, Herodias got her chance when Herod gave a great birthday celebration for himself and invited his officials, his army officers, and the leaders of Galilee.

<sup>22</sup>The daughter of Herodias came in and danced for Herod and his guests. She pleased them so much that Herod said, “Ask for anything, and it's yours!

<sup>23</sup>I swear that I will give you as much as half of my kingdom, if you want it.”

<sup>24</sup>The girl left and asked her mother, “What do you think I should ask for?” Her mother answered, “The head of John the Baptist!”

<sup>25</sup>The girl hurried back and told Herod, “Straight away on a dish I want the head of John the Baptist!”

<sup>26</sup>The king was very sorry for what he had said. But he did not want to break the promise he had made in front of his guests.

<sup>27</sup>At once he ordered a guard to cut off John's head there in prison.

<sup>28</sup>The guard put the head on a dish and took it to the girl. Then she gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup>When John's followers learnt that he had been killed, they took his body and put it in a tomb.

Jesus feeds five thousand

(Matthew 14.13–21; Luke 9.10–17; John 6.1–14)

<sup>30</sup>After the apostles returned to Jesus, they told him everything they had done and taught.

<sup>31</sup>But so many people were coming and going that Jesus and the apostles did not even have a chance to eat. Then Jesus said, “Let's go to a place where we can be alone and get some rest.”

<sup>32</sup>They left in a boat for a place where they could be alone.

<sup>33</sup>But many people saw them leave and worked out where they were going. So people from every town ran on ahead and got there first.

<sup>34</sup>When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw the large crowd that was like sheep without a shepherd. He felt sorry for the people and started teaching them many things.

<sup>35</sup>That evening the disciples came to Jesus and said, “This place is like a desert, and it is already late.

<sup>36</sup>Let the crowds leave, so they can go to the farms and villages near here and buy something to eat.”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus replied, “You give them something to eat.” But they asked him, “Don't you know that it would take almost a year's wages to buy all these people something to eat?”

<sup>38</sup>Then Jesus said, “How much bread do you have? Go and see!” They found out and answered, “We have five small loaves of bread and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus told his disciples to make the people sit down on the green grass.

<sup>40</sup>They sat down in groups of a hundred and groups of fifty.

<sup>41</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up towards heaven and blessed the food. Then he broke the bread and handed it to his disciples to give to the people. He also divided the two fish, so that everyone could have some.

<sup>42</sup>After everyone had eaten all they wanted,

<sup>43</sup>Jesus' disciples picked up twelve large baskets of leftover bread and fish.

<sup>44</sup>There were five thousand men who ate the food.

Jesus walks on the water

(Matthew 14.22–33; John 6.15–21)

<sup>45</sup>Straight away, Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and start back across to Bethsaida. But he stayed until he had sent the crowds away.

<sup>46</sup>Then he said goodbye to them and went up on the side of a mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup>Later that evening he was still there by himself, and the boat was somewhere in the middle of the lake.

<sup>48</sup>He could see that the disciples were struggling hard, because they were rowing against the wind. Not long before morning, Jesus came towards them. He was walking on the water and was about to pass the boat.

<sup>49</sup>When the disciples saw Jesus walking on the water, they thought he was a ghost, and they started screaming.

<sup>50</sup>All of them saw him and were terrified. But at that same time he said, “Don't worry! I am Jesus. Don't be afraid.”

<sup>51</sup>He then got into the boat with them, and the wind died down. The disciples were completely confused.

<sup>52</sup>Their minds were closed, and they could not understand the true meaning of the loaves of bread.

Jesus heals sick people in Gennesaret

(Matthew 14.34–36)

<sup>53</sup>Jesus and his disciples crossed the lake and brought the boat to shore near the town of Gennesaret.

<sup>54</sup>As soon as they got out of the boat, the people recognized Jesus.

<sup>55</sup>So they ran all over that part of the country to bring their sick people to him on mats. They brought them each time they heard where he was.

<sup>56</sup>In every village or farm or market place where Jesus went, the people brought their sick to him. They begged him to let them just touch his clothes, and everyone who did was healed.

Mark 7

The teaching of the ancestors

(Matthew 15.1–9)

<sup>1</sup>Some Pharisees and several teachers of the Law of Moses from Jerusalem came and gathered around Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>They noticed that some of his disciples ate without first washing their hands.

<sup>3</sup>The Pharisees and many other Jewish people obey the teachings of their ancestors. They always wash their hands in the proper way before eating.

<sup>4</sup>None of them will eat anything they buy in the market until it is washed. They also follow a lot of other teachings, such as washing cups, jugs, and bowls.

<sup>5</sup>The Pharisees and teachers asked Jesus, “Why don't your disciples obey what our ancestors taught us to do? Why do they eat without washing their hands?”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied: You are nothing but show-offs! The prophet Isaiah was right when he wrote that God had said, “All of you praise me with your words, but you never really think about me.

<sup>7</sup>It is useless for you to worship me, when you teach rules made up by humans.”

<sup>8</sup>You disobey God's commands in order to obey what humans have taught.

<sup>9</sup>You are good at rejecting God's commands so that you can follow your own teachings!

<sup>10</sup>Didn't Moses command you to respect your father and mother? Didn't he tell you to put to death all who curse their parents?

<sup>11</sup>But you let people get by without helping their parents when they should. You let them say that what they own has been offered to God.

<sup>12</sup>You won't let those people help their parents.

<sup>13</sup>And you ignore God's commands in order to follow your own teaching. You do a lot of other things that are just as bad.

What really makes people unclean

(Matthew 15.10–20)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus called the crowd together again and said, “Pay attention and try to understand what I mean.

15-16 The food that you put into your mouth doesn't make you unclean and unfit to worship God. The bad words that come out of your mouth are what make you unclean.”

17 After Jesus and his disciples had left the crowd and had gone into the house, they asked him what these sayings meant.

18 He answered, “Don't you know what I am talking about by now? Surely you know that the food you put into your mouth cannot make you unclean.

19 It doesn't go into your heart, but into your stomach, and then out of your body.” By saying this, Jesus meant that all foods were fit to eat.

20 Then Jesus said: What comes from your heart is what makes you unclean.

21 Out of your heart come evil thoughts, vulgar deeds, stealing, murder,

22 unfaithfulness in marriage, greed, meanness, deceit, indecency, envy, insults, pride, and foolishness.

23 All these come from your heart, and they are what make you unfit to worship God.

A woman's faith

(Matthew 15.21–28)

24 Jesus left and went to the region near the city of Tyre, where he stayed in someone's home. He did not want people to know he was there, but they found out anyway.

25 A woman whose daughter had an evil spirit in her heard where Jesus was. And straight away she came and knelt down at his feet.

26 The woman was Greek and had been born in the part of Syria known as Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to force the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said, “The children must first be fed! It isn't right to take away their food and feed it to dogs.”

<sup>28</sup>The woman replied, “Lord, even dogs eat the crumbs that children drop from the table.”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “That's true! You may go now. The demon has left your daughter.”

<sup>30</sup>When the woman got back home, she found her child lying on the bed. The demon had gone.

Jesus heals a man who was deaf and could hardly talk

<sup>31</sup>Jesus left the region around Tyre and went by way of Sidon towards Lake Galilee. He went through the land near the ten cities known as Decapolis.

<sup>32</sup>Some people brought to him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk. They begged Jesus just to touch him.

<sup>33</sup>After Jesus had taken him aside from the crowd, he stuck his fingers in the man's ears. Then he spat and put the spit on the man's tongue.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus looked up towards heaven, and with a groan he said, “Effatha!” which means “Open up!”

<sup>35</sup>At once the man could hear, and he had no more trouble talking clearly.

<sup>36</sup>Jesus told the people not to say anything about what he had done. But the more he told them, the more they talked about it.

<sup>37</sup>They were completely amazed and said, “Everything he does is good! He even heals people who cannot hear or talk.”

Mark 8

Jesus feeds four thousand

(Matthew 15.32–39)

<sup>1</sup>One day another large crowd gathered around Jesus. They had not brought along anything to eat. So Jesus called his disciples together and said, <sup>2</sup>“I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me for three days, and they don't have anything to eat.

<sup>3</sup>Some of them live a long way from here. If I send them away hungry, they might faint on their way home.”

<sup>4</sup>The disciples said, “This place is like a desert. Where can we find enough food to feed such a crowd?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus asked them how much food they had. They replied, “Seven small loaves of bread.”

<sup>6</sup>After Jesus told the crowd to sit down, he took the seven loaves and blessed them. He then broke the loaves and handed them to his disciples, who passed them out to the crowd.

<sup>7</sup>They also had a few little fish, and after Jesus had blessed these, he told the disciples to pass them around.

<sup>8-9</sup>The crowd of about four thousand people ate all they wanted, and the leftovers filled seven large baskets. As soon as Jesus had sent the people away,

<sup>10</sup>he got into the boat with the disciples and crossed to the territory near Dalmanutha.

A sign from heaven

(Matthew 16.1–4)

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisees came out and started an argument with Jesus. They wanted to test him by asking for a sign from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus groaned and said, “Why are you always looking for a sign? I can promise you that you will not be given one!”

<sup>13</sup>Then he left them. He again got into a boat and crossed over to the other side of the lake.

The yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod

(Matthew 16.5–12)

<sup>14</sup>The disciples had forgotten to bring any bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus warned them, “Watch out! Guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod.”

<sup>16</sup> The disciples talked this over and said to each other, “He must be saying this because we don't have any bread.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, “Why are you talking about not having any bread? Don't you understand? Are your minds still closed?

<sup>18</sup> Are your eyes blind and your ears deaf? Don't you remember

<sup>19</sup> how many baskets of leftovers you picked up when I fed those five thousand people with only five small loaves of bread?” “Yes,” the disciples answered. “There were twelve baskets.”

<sup>20</sup> Jesus then asked, “And how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up when I broke seven small loaves of bread for those four thousand people?” “Seven,” they answered.

<sup>21</sup> “Don't you know what I am talking about by now?” Jesus asked.

Jesus heals a blind man at Bethsaida

<sup>22</sup> As Jesus and his disciples were going into Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch the man.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus took him by the hand and led him out of the village, where he spat into the man's eyes. He placed his hands on the blind man and asked him if he could see anything.

<sup>24</sup> The man looked up and said, “I see people, but they look like trees walking around.”

<sup>25</sup> Once again Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes, and this time the man stared. His eyes were healed, and he saw everything clearly.

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to him, “You may return home now, but don't go into the village.”

Who is Jesus?

(Matthew 16.13–20; Luke 9.18–21)

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his disciples went to the villages near the town of Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them, “What do people say about me?”

<sup>28</sup>The disciples answered, “Some say you are John the Baptist or perhaps Elijah. Others say you are one of the prophets.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “But who do you say I am?” “You are the Messiah!” Peter replied.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus warned the disciples not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus speaks about his suffering and death

(Matthew 16.21–28; Luke 9.22–27)

<sup>31</sup>Jesus began telling his disciples what would happen to him. He said, “The nation's leaders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law of Moses will make the Son of Man suffer terribly. He will be rejected and killed, but three days later he will rise to life.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus explained clearly what he meant. Peter took Jesus aside and told him to stop talking like that.

<sup>33</sup>But when Jesus turned and saw the disciples, he corrected Peter. He said to him, “Satan, get away from me! You are thinking like everyone else and not like God.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus then told the crowd and the disciples to come closer, and he said: If any of you want to be my followers, you must forget about yourself. You must take up your cross and follow me.

<sup>35</sup>If you want to save your life, you will destroy it. But if you give up your life for me and for the good news, you will save it.

<sup>36</sup>What will you gain, if you own the whole world but destroy yourself?

<sup>37</sup>What could you give to get back your soul?

<sup>38</sup>Don't be ashamed of me and my message among these unfaithful and sinful people! If you are, the Son of Man will be ashamed of you when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Mark 9

Jesus continued:

<sup>1</sup>I can assure you that some of the people standing here will not die before they see God's kingdom come with power.

The true glory of Jesus
(Matthew 17.1–13; Luke 9.28–36)

<sup>2</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him. They went up on a high mountain, where they could be alone. There in front of the disciples, Jesus was completely changed.

<sup>3</sup>And his clothes became much whiter than any bleach on earth could make them.

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses and Elijah were there talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter said to Jesus, “Teacher, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>6</sup>But Peter and the others were terribly frightened, and he did not know what he was talking about.

<sup>7</sup>The shadow of a cloud passed over and covered them. From the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, and I love him. Listen to what he says!”

<sup>8</sup>At once the disciples looked around, but they saw only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus and his disciples were coming down the mountain, he told them not to say a word about what they had seen, until the Son of Man had been raised from death.

<sup>10</sup>So they kept it to themselves. But they wondered what he meant by the words “raised from death”.

<sup>11</sup>The disciples asked Jesus, “Don't the teachers of the Law of Moses say that Elijah must come before the Messiah does?”

<sup>12</sup>Jesus answered: Elijah certainly will come to get everything ready. But don't the Scriptures also say that the Son of Man must suffer terribly and be rejected?

<sup>13</sup>I can assure you that Elijah has already come. And people treated him just as they wanted to, as the Scriptures say they would.

Jesus heals a boy

(Matthew 17.14–20; Luke 9.37–43a)

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus and his three disciples came back down, they saw a large crowd around the other disciples. The teachers of the Law of Moses were arguing with them.

<sup>15</sup>The crowd was really surprised to see Jesus, and everyone hurried over to greet him.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus asked, “What are you arguing about?”

<sup>17</sup>Someone from the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought my son to you. A demon keeps him from talking.

<sup>18</sup>Whenever the demon attacks my son, it throws him to the ground and makes him foam at the mouth and grit his teeth in pain. Then he becomes stiff. I asked your disciples to force out the demon, but they couldn't do it.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said, “You people don't have any faith! How much longer must I be with you? Why do I have to put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

<sup>20</sup>They brought the boy, and as soon as the demon saw Jesus, it made the boy shake all over. He fell down and began rolling on the ground and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus asked the boy's father, “How long has he been like this?” The man answered, “Ever since he was a child.

<sup>22</sup>The demon has often tried to kill him by throwing him into a fire or into water. Please have pity and help us if you can!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “Why do you say ‘if you can’? Anything is possible for someone who has faith!”

<sup>24</sup>Straight away the boy's father shouted, "I do have faith! Please help me to have even more."

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that a crowd was gathering fast, he spoke sternly to the evil spirit that had kept the boy from speaking or hearing. He said, "I order you to come out of the boy! Don't ever bother him again."

<sup>26</sup>The spirit screamed and made the boy shake all over. Then it went out of him. The boy looked dead, and almost everyone said he was.

<sup>27</sup>But Jesus took hold of his hand and helped him stand up.

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus and the disciples had gone back home and were alone, they asked him, "Why couldn't we force out that demon?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "Only prayer can force out that kind of demon."

Jesus again speaks about his death

(Matthew 17.22,23; Luke 9.43b–45)

<sup>30</sup>Jesus left with his disciples and started through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know about it,

<sup>31</sup>because he was teaching the disciples that the Son of Man would be handed over to people who would kill him. But three days later he would rise to life.

<sup>32</sup>The disciples did not understand what Jesus meant, and they were afraid to ask.

Who is the greatest?

(Matthew 18.1–5; Luke 9.46–48)

<sup>33</sup>Jesus and his disciples went to his home in Capernaum. After they were inside the house, Jesus asked them, "What were you arguing about along the way?"

<sup>34</sup>They had been arguing about which one of them was the greatest, and so they did not answer.

<sup>35</sup>After Jesus sat down and told the twelve disciples to gather around him, he said, "If you want the place of honour, you must become a slave and serve others!"

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus made a child stand near him. He put his arm around the child and said,

<sup>37</sup>“When you welcome even a child because of me, you welcome me. And when you welcome me, you welcome the one who sent me.”

For or against Jesus

(Luke 9.49,50)

<sup>38</sup>John said, “Teacher, we saw a man using your name to force demons out of people. But he wasn't one of us, and we told him to stop.”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: Don't stop him! No one who performs miracles in my name is going to say something bad about me the next minute.

<sup>40</sup>Anyone who isn't against us is for us.

<sup>41</sup>And anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name, just because you belong to me, will surely be rewarded.

Temptations to sin

(Matthew 18.6–9; Luke 17.1,2)

Jesus continued:

<sup>42</sup>It will be terrible for people who cause even one of my little followers to sin. Those people would be better off thrown into the sea with a heavy stone tied around their necks.

<sup>43-44</sup>So if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off! You would be better off to go into life crippled than to have two hands and be thrown into the fires of hell that never go out.

<sup>45-46</sup>If your foot causes you to sin, chop it off. You would be better off to go into life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

<sup>47</sup>If your eye causes you to sin, get rid of it. You would be better off to go into God's kingdom with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell.

<sup>48</sup>The worms there never die, and the fire never stops burning.

<sup>49</sup>Everyone must be salted with fire.

<sup>50</sup> Salt is good. But if it no longer tastes like salt, how can it be made salty again? Have salt among you and live at peace with each other.

Mark 10

Jesus goes from Galilee to Jerusalem

Teaching about divorce

(Matthew 19.1–12; Luke 16.18)

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus left, he went to Judea and then on to the other side of the River Jordan. Once again large crowds came to him, and as usual, he taught them.

<sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees wanted to test Jesus. So they came up to him and asked if it was right for a man to divorce his wife.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus asked them, “What does the Law of Moses say about that?”

<sup>4</sup>They answered, “Moses allows a man to write out divorce papers and send his wife away.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus replied, “Moses gave you this law because you are so heartless.

<sup>6</sup>But in the beginning God made a man and a woman.

<sup>7</sup>That's why a man leaves his father and mother and gets married.

<sup>8</sup>He becomes like one person with his wife. Then they are no longer two people, but one.

<sup>9</sup>And no one should separate a couple that God has joined together.”

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus and his disciples were back in the house, they asked him about what he had said.

<sup>11</sup>He told them, “A man who divorces his wife and marries someone else is unfaithful to his wife.

<sup>12</sup>A woman who divorces her husband and marries again is also unfaithful.”

Jesus blesses little children

(Matthew 19.13–15; Luke 18.15–17)

<sup>13</sup>Some people brought their children to Jesus so that he could bless them by placing his hands on them. But his disciples told the people to stop bothering him.

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus saw this, he became angry and said, “Let the children come to me! Don't try to stop them. People who are like these little children belong to the kingdom of God.

<sup>15</sup>I promise you that you cannot get into God's kingdom, unless you accept it the way a child does.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jesus took the children in his arms and blessed them by placing his hands on them.

A rich man

(Matthew 19.16–30; Luke 18.18–30)

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was walking down a road, a man ran up to him. He knelt down, and asked, “Good teacher, what can I do to have eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup>Jesus replied, “Why do you call me good? Only God is good.

<sup>19</sup>You know the commandments. ‘Do not murder. Be faithful in marriage. Do not steal. Do not tell lies about others. Do not cheat. Respect your father and mother.’ ”

<sup>20</sup>The man answered, “Teacher, I have obeyed all these commandments since I was a young man.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus looked closely at the man. He liked him and said, “There's one thing you still need to do. Go and sell everything you own. Give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come with me.”

<sup>22</sup>When the man heard Jesus say this, he went away gloomy and sad because he was very rich.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “It's hard for rich people to get into God's kingdom!”

<sup>24</sup>The disciples were shocked to hear this. So Jesus told them again, “It's terribly hard to get into God's kingdom!

<sup>25</sup>In fact, it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to get into God's kingdom.”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus' disciples were even more amazed. They asked each other, “How can anyone ever be saved?”

<sup>27</sup>Jesus looked at them and said, “There are some things that people cannot do, but God can do anything.”

<sup>28</sup>Peter replied, “Remember, we left everything to be your followers!”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus told him: You can be sure that anyone who gives up home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or land for me and for the good news

<sup>30</sup>will be rewarded. In this world they will be given a hundred times as many houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and pieces of land, though they will also be ill-treated. And in the world to come, they will have eternal life.

<sup>31</sup>But many who are now first will be last, and many who are now last will be first.

Jesus again tells about his death

(Matthew 20.17–19; Luke 18.31–34)

<sup>32</sup>The disciples were confused as Jesus led them towards Jerusalem, and his other followers were afraid. Once again, Jesus took the twelve disciples aside and told them what was going to happen to him. He said:

<sup>33</sup>We are now on our way to Jerusalem where the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses. They will sentence him to death and hand him over to foreigners,

<sup>34</sup>who will make fun of him and spit on him. They will beat him and kill him. But three days later he will rise to life.

The request of James and John

(Matthew 20.20–28)

<sup>35</sup>James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, will you do us a favour?”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus asked them what they wanted,

<sup>37</sup>and they answered, “When you come into your glory, please let one of us sit at your right side and the other at your left.”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus told them, “You don't really know what you're asking! Are you able to drink from the cup that I must soon drink from or be baptized as I must be baptized?”

<sup>39</sup>“Yes, we are!” James and John answered. Then Jesus replied, “You certainly will drink from the cup from which I must drink. And you will be baptized just as I must!

<sup>40</sup>But it isn't for me to say who will sit at my right side and at my left. That is for God to decide.”

<sup>41</sup>When the ten other disciples heard this, they were angry with James and John.

<sup>42</sup>But Jesus called the disciples together and said: You know that those foreigners who call themselves kings like to order their people around. And their great leaders have full power over the people they rule.

<sup>43</sup>But don't act like them. If you want to be great, you must be the servant of all the others.

<sup>44</sup>And if you want to be first, you must be everyone's slave.

<sup>45</sup>The Son of Man did not come to be a slave master, but a slave who will give his life to rescue many people.

Jesus heals blind Bartimaeus

(Matthew 20.29–34; Luke 18.35–43)

<sup>46</sup>Jesus and his disciples went to Jericho. And as they were leaving, they were followed by a large crowd. A blind beggar called Bartimaeus son of Timaeus was sitting beside the road.

<sup>47</sup>When he heard that it was Jesus from Nazareth, he shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!”

<sup>48</sup>Many people told the man to stop, but he shouted even louder, “Son of David, have pity on me!”

<sup>49</sup>Jesus stopped and said, “Call him over!” They called out to the blind man and said, “Don't be afraid! Come on! He is calling for you.”

<sup>50</sup>The man threw off his coat as he jumped up and ran to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus asked, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man answered, “Master, I want to see!”

<sup>52</sup>Jesus told him, “You may go. Your eyes are healed because of your faith.” Straight away the man could see, and he went down the road with Jesus.

Mark 11

Jesus' last week: his trial and death Jesus enters Jerusalem

(Matthew 21.1–11; Luke 19.28–40; John 12.12–19)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus and his disciples reached Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives. When they were getting close to Jerusalem, Jesus sent two of them on ahead.

<sup>2</sup>He told them, “Go into the next village. As soon as you enter it, you will find a young donkey that has never been ridden. Untie the donkey and bring it here.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone asks why you are doing that, say, ‘The Lord needs it and will soon bring it back.’”

<sup>4</sup>The disciples left and found the donkey tied near a door that faced the street. While they were untying it,

<sup>5</sup>some of the people standing there asked, “Why are you untying the donkey?”

<sup>6</sup>They told them what Jesus had said, and the people let them take it.

<sup>7</sup>The disciples led the donkey to Jesus. They put some of their clothes on its back, and Jesus got on.

<sup>8</sup>Many people spread clothes on the road, while others went to cut branches from the fields.

<sup>9</sup>In front of Jesus and behind him, people went along shouting, “Hooray! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

<sup>10</sup>God bless the coming kingdom of our ancestor David. Hooray for God in heaven above!”

<sup>11</sup>After Jesus had gone to Jerusalem, he went into the temple and looked around at everything. But since it was already late in the day, he went back to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

Jesus puts a curse on a fig tree

(Matthew 21.18,19)

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus and his disciples left Bethany the next morning, he was hungry.

<sup>13</sup>From a distance Jesus saw a fig tree covered with leaves, and he went to see if there were any figs on the tree. But there were not any, because it wasn't the season for figs.

<sup>14</sup>So Jesus said to the tree, “Never again will anyone eat fruit from this tree!” The disciples heard him say this.

Jesus in the temple

(Matthew 21.12–17; Luke 19.45–48; John 2.13–22)

<sup>15</sup>After Jesus and his disciples reached Jerusalem, he went into the temple and began chasing out everyone who was selling and buying. He turned over the tables of the moneychangers and the benches of those who were selling doves.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus would not let anyone carry things through the temple.

<sup>17</sup>Then he taught the people and said, “The Scriptures say, ‘My house should be called a place of worship for all nations.’ But you have made it a place where robbers hide!”

<sup>18</sup>The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses heard what Jesus said, and they started looking for a way to kill him. They were afraid of him, because the crowds were completely amazed at his teaching.

<sup>19</sup>That evening, Jesus and the disciples went outside the city.

A lesson from the fig tree

(Matthew 21.20–22)

<sup>20</sup>As the disciples walked past the fig tree the next morning, they noticed that it was completely dried up, roots and all.

<sup>21</sup>Peter remembered what Jesus had said to the tree. Then Peter said, “Teacher, look! The tree you put a curse on has dried up.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus told his disciples: Have faith in God!

<sup>23</sup>If you have faith in God and don't doubt, you can tell this mountain to get up and jump into the sea, and it will.

<sup>24</sup>Everything you ask for in prayer will be yours, if you only have faith.

<sup>25-26</sup>Whenever you stand up to pray, you must forgive what others have done to you. Then your Father in heaven will forgive your sins.

A question about Jesus' authority

(Matthew 21.23–27; Luke 20.1–8)

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his disciples returned to Jerusalem. And as he was walking through the temple, the chief priests, the nation's leaders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses came over to him.

<sup>28</sup>They asked, “What right do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “I have just one question to ask you. If you answer it, I will tell you where I got the right to do these things.

<sup>30</sup>Who gave John the right to baptize? Was it God in heaven or merely some human being?”

<sup>31</sup>They thought it over and said to each other, “We can't say that God gave John this right. Jesus will ask us why we didn't believe John.

<sup>32</sup>On the other hand, these people think that John was a prophet. So we can't say that it was merely some human who gave John the right to baptize.” They were afraid of the crowd

<sup>33</sup>and told Jesus, “We don't know.” Jesus replied, “Then I won't tell you who gave me the right to do what I do.”

Mark 12

Tenants of a vineyard

(Matthew 21.33–46; Luke 20.9–19)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus then told them this story: A farmer once planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it and dug a pit to crush the grapes in. He also built a lookout tower. Then he let his vineyard and left the country.

<sup>2</sup>When it was harvest time, he sent a servant to get his share of the grapes.

<sup>3</sup>The tenants grabbed the servant. They beat him up and sent him away without a thing.

<sup>4</sup>The owner sent another servant, but the tenants beat him on the head and insulted him terribly.

<sup>5</sup>Then the man sent another servant, and they killed him. He kept sending servant after servant. They beat some of them and killed others.

<sup>6</sup>The owner had a son he loved very much. Finally, he sent his son to the tenants because he thought they would respect him.

<sup>7</sup>But they said to themselves, “Some day he will own this vineyard. Let's kill him! That way we can have it all for ourselves.”

<sup>8</sup>So they grabbed the owner's son and killed him. Then they threw his body out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>Jesus asked, “What do you think the owner of the vineyard will do? He will come and kill those tenants and let someone else have his vineyard.

<sup>10</sup>Surely you know that the Scriptures say, ‘The stone that the builders tossed aside is now the most important stone of all.

<sup>11</sup>This is something the Lord has done, and it is amazing to us. ’ ”

<sup>12</sup>The leaders knew that Jesus was really talking about them, and they wanted to arrest him. But because they were afraid of the crowd, they let him alone and left.

Paying taxes

(Matthew 22.15–22; Luke 20.20–26)

<sup>13</sup>The Pharisees got together with Herod's followers. Then they sent some men to trick Jesus into saying something wrong.

<sup>14</sup>They went to him and said, “Teacher, we know that you are honest. You treat everyone with the same respect, no matter who they are. And you teach the truth about what God wants people to do. Tell us, should we pay taxes to the Emperor or not?”

<sup>15</sup>Jesus knew what they were up to, and he said, “Why are you trying to test me? Show me a coin!”

<sup>16</sup>They brought him a silver coin, and he asked, “Whose picture and name are on it?” “The Emperor's,” they answered.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus told them, “Give the Emperor what belongs to him and give God what belongs to God.” The men were amazed at Jesus.

Life in the future world

(Matthew 22.23–33; Luke 20.27–40)

<sup>18</sup>The Sadducees did not believe that people would rise to life after death. So some of them came to Jesus and said:

<sup>19</sup>Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry the widow. Their first son would then be thought of as the son of the dead brother.

<sup>20</sup>There were once seven brothers. The first one married, but died without having any children.

<sup>21</sup>The second brother married his brother's widow, and he also died without having children. The same thing happened to the third brother,

<sup>22</sup>and finally to all seven brothers. At last the woman died.

<sup>23</sup>When God raises people from death, whose wife will this woman be? After all, she had been married to all seven brothers.

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered: You are completely wrong! You don't know what the Scriptures teach. And you don't know anything about the power of God.

<sup>25</sup>When God raises people to life, they won't marry. They will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup>You know about people being raised to life. You know that in the story about Moses and the burning bush, God said, "I am the God worshipped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

<sup>27</sup>He isn't the God of the dead, but of the living. You Sadducees are all wrong.

The most important commandment

(Matthew 22.34–40; Luke 10.25–28)

<sup>28</sup>One of the teachers of the Law of Moses came up while Jesus and the Sadducees were arguing. When he heard Jesus give a good answer, he asked him, "What is the most important commandment?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "The most important one says: 'People of Israel, you have only one Lord and God.

<sup>30</sup>You must love him with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. '

<sup>31</sup>The second most important commandment says: 'Love others as much as you love yourself. ' No other commandment is more important than these."

<sup>32</sup>The man replied, "Teacher, you are certainly right to say there is only one God.

<sup>33</sup>It is also true that we must love God with all our heart, mind, and strength, and that we must love others as much as we love ourselves. These commandments are more important than all the sacrifices and offerings that we could possibly make."

<sup>34</sup>When Jesus saw that the man had given a sensible answer, he told him, “You are not far from God's kingdom.” After this, no one dared ask Jesus any more questions.

About David's son

(Matthew 22.41–46; Luke 20.41–44)

<sup>35</sup>As Jesus was teaching in the temple, he said, “How can the teachers of the Law of Moses say that the Messiah will come from the family of King David?

<sup>36</sup>The Holy Spirit led David to say, “The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at my right side until I make your enemies into a footstool for you. ’

<sup>37</sup>If David called the Messiah his Lord, how can the Messiah be his son?” The large crowd enjoyed listening to Jesus teach.

Jesus condemns the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law of Moses

(Matthew 23.1–36; Luke 20.45–47)

<sup>38</sup>As Jesus was teaching, he said: Guard against the teachers of the Law of Moses! They love to walk around in long robes and be greeted in the market.

<sup>39</sup>They like the front seats in the meeting places and the best seats at banquets.

<sup>40</sup>But they cheat widows out of their homes and pray long prayers just to show off. They will be punished most of all.

A widow's offering

(Luke 21.1–4)

<sup>41</sup>Jesus was sitting in the temple near the offering box and watching people put in their gifts. He noticed that many rich people were giving a lot of money.

<sup>42</sup>Finally, a poor widow came up and put in two coins that were worth only a few pennies.

<sup>43</sup>Jesus told his disciples to gather around him. Then he said: I tell you that this poor widow has put in more than all the others.

<sup>44</sup>Everyone else gave what they didn't need. But she is very poor and gave everything she had. Now she doesn't have a penny to live on.

Mark 13

The temple will be destroyed

(Matthew 24.1,2; Luke 21.5,6)

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Teacher, look at these beautiful stones and wonderful buildings!”

<sup>2</sup>Jesus replied, “Do you see these huge buildings? They will certainly be torn down! Not one stone will be left in place.”

Warning about trouble

(Matthew 24.3–14; Luke 21.7–19)

<sup>3</sup>Later, as Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives across from the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him in private.

<sup>4</sup>They asked, “When will these things happen? What will be the sign that they are about to take place?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus answered: Watch out and don't let anyone fool you!

<sup>6</sup>Many will come and claim to be me. They will use my name and fool many people.

<sup>7</sup>When you hear about wars and threats of wars, don't be afraid. These things will have to happen first, but that isn't the end.

<sup>8</sup>Nations and kingdoms will go to war against each other. There will be earthquakes in many places, and people will starve to death. But this is just the beginning of troubles.

<sup>9</sup>Be on your guard! You will be taken to courts and beaten with whips in their meeting places. And because of me, you will have to stand before rulers and kings to tell about your faith.

<sup>10</sup>But before the end comes, the good news must be preached to all nations.

<sup>11</sup>When you are arrested, don't worry about what you will say. You will be given the right words when the time comes. But you will not really be the ones speaking. Your words will come from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup>Brothers and sisters will betray each other and have each other put to death. Parents will betray their own children, and children will turn against their parents and have them killed.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone will hate you because of me. But if you keep on being faithful right to the end, you will be saved.

The Horrible Thing

(Matthew 24.15–21; Luke 21.20–24)

Jesus continued:

<sup>14</sup>Some day you will see that “Horrible Thing” where it should not be. Everyone who reads this must try to understand! If you are living in Judea at that time, run to the mountains.

<sup>15</sup>If you are on the roof of your house, don't go inside to get anything.

<sup>16</sup>If you are out in the field, don't go back for your coat.

<sup>17</sup>It will be an awful time for women who are expecting babies or nursing young children.

<sup>18</sup>Pray that it won't happen in winter.

<sup>19</sup>This will be the worst time of suffering since God created the world, and nothing this terrible will ever happen again.

<sup>20</sup>If the Lord doesn't make the time shorter, no one will be left alive. But because of his chosen and special ones, he will make the time shorter.

<sup>21</sup>If someone should say, “Here is the Messiah!” or “There he is!” don't believe it.

<sup>22</sup>False messiahs and false prophets will come and perform miracles and signs. They will even try to fool God's chosen ones.

<sup>23</sup>But be on your guard! That's why I am telling you these things now.

When the Son of Man appears

(Matthew 24.29–31; Luke 21.25–28)

Jesus continued:

<sup>24</sup>In those days, straight after that time of suffering, “The sun will become dark, and the moon will no longer shine.

<sup>25</sup>The stars will fall, and the powers in the sky will be shaken.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the Son of Man will be seen coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

<sup>27</sup>He will send his angels to gather his chosen ones from all over the earth.

A lesson from a fig tree

(Matthew 24.32–35; Luke 21.29–33)

Jesus continued:

<sup>28</sup>Learn a lesson from a fig tree. When its branches sprout and start putting out leaves, you know summer is near.

<sup>29</sup>So when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time has almost come.

<sup>30</sup>You can be sure that some of the people of this generation will still be alive when all this happens.

<sup>31</sup>The sky and the earth will not last for ever, but my words will.

No one knows the day or time

(Matthew 24.36–44)

Jesus continued:

<sup>32</sup>No one knows the day or the time. The angels in heaven don't know, and the Son himself doesn't know. Only the Father knows.

<sup>33</sup>So watch out and be ready! You don't know when the time will come.

<sup>34</sup>It is like what happens when a man goes away for a while and places his servants in charge of everything. He tells each of them what to do, and he orders the guard to keep alert.

<sup>35</sup>So be alert! You don't know when the master of the house will come back. It could be in the evening or at midnight or before dawn or in the morning.

<sup>36</sup>But if he comes suddenly, don't let him find you asleep.

<sup>37</sup>I tell everyone just what I have told you. Be alert!

Mark 14

A plot to kill Jesus

(Matthew 26.1–5; Luke 22.1,2; John 11.45–53)

<sup>1</sup>It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Thin Bread. The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses were secretly planning to have Jesus arrested and put to death.

<sup>2</sup>They were saying, “We must not do it during the festival, because the people will riot.”

At Bethany

(Matthew 26.6–13; John 12.1–8)

<sup>3</sup>Jesus was eating in Bethany at the home of Simon, who once had leprosy, when a woman came in with a very expensive bottle of sweet-smelling perfume. After breaking it open, she poured the perfume on Jesus' head.

<sup>4</sup>This made some of the guests angry, and they complained, “Why such a waste?”

<sup>5</sup>We could have sold this perfume for more than three hundred silver coins and given the money to the poor!” So they started saying cruel things to the woman.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus said: Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

<sup>7</sup>You will always have the poor with you. And whenever you want to, you can give to them. But you won't always have me here with you.

<sup>8</sup>She has done all she could by pouring perfume on my body to prepare it for burial.

<sup>9</sup>You may be sure that wherever the good news is told all over the world, people will remember what she has done. And they will tell others.

Judas and the chief priests

(Matthew 26.14–16; Luke 22.3–6)

<sup>10</sup>Judas Iscariot was one of the twelve disciples. He went to the chief priests and offered to help them arrest Jesus.

<sup>11</sup>They were glad to hear this, and they promised to pay him. So Judas started looking for a good chance to betray Jesus.

Jesus eats with his disciples

(Matthew 26.17–25; Luke 22.7–14,21–23; John 13.21–30)

<sup>12</sup>It was the first day of the Festival of Thin Bread, and the Passover lambs were being killed. Jesus' disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus said to two of the disciples, “Go into the city, where you will meet a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him,

<sup>14</sup>and when he goes into a house, say to the owner, ‘Our teacher wants to know if you have a room where he can eat the Passover meal with his disciples.’

<sup>15</sup>The owner will take you upstairs and show you a large room furnished and ready for you to use. Prepare the meal there.”

<sup>16</sup>The two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover meal.

<sup>17-18</sup> While Jesus and the twelve disciples were eating together that evening, he said, “The one who will betray me is now eating with me.”

<sup>19</sup>This made the disciples sad, and one after another they said to Jesus, “Surely you don't mean me!”

<sup>20</sup>He answered, “It is one of you twelve men who is eating from this dish with me.

<sup>21</sup>The Son of Man will die, just as the Scriptures say. But it is going to be terrible for the one who betrays me. That man would be better off if he had never been born.”

The Lord's Supper

(Matthew 26.26–30; Luke 22.14–23; 1 Corinthians 11.23–25)

<sup>22</sup>During the meal Jesus took some bread in his hands. He blessed the bread and broke it. Then he gave it to his disciples and said, “Take this. It is my body.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God. He gave it to his disciples, and said, “Drink it!” So they all drank some.

<sup>24</sup>Then he said, “This is my blood, which is poured out for many people, and with it God makes his agreement.

<sup>25</sup>From now on I will not drink any wine, until I drink new wine in God's kingdom.”

<sup>26</sup>Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter's promise

(Matthew 26.31–35; Luke 22.31–34; John 13.36–38)

<sup>27</sup>Jesus said to his disciples, “All of you will reject me, as the Scriptures say, ‘I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

<sup>28</sup>But after I am raised to life, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

<sup>29</sup>Peter spoke up, “Even if all the others reject you, I never will!”

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied, “This very night before a cock crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me.”

<sup>31</sup>But Peter was so sure of himself that he said, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never say that I don't know you!” All the others said the same thing.

Jesus prays

(Matthew 26.36–46; Luke 22.39–46)

<sup>32</sup>Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he told them, “Sit here while I pray.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus took along Peter, James, and John. He was sad and troubled and <sup>34</sup>told them, “I am so sad that I feel as if I am dying. Stay here and keep awake with me.”

<sup>35-36</sup>Jesus walked on a little way. Then he knelt down on the ground and prayed, “Father, if it is possible, don't let this happen to me! Father, you can do anything. Don't make me suffer by making me drink from this cup. But do what you want, and not what I want.”

<sup>37</sup>When Jesus came back and found the disciples sleeping, he said to Simon Peter, “Are you asleep? Can't you stay awake for just one hour?”

<sup>38</sup>Stay awake and pray that you won't be tested. You want to do what is right, but you are weak.”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus went back and prayed the same prayer.

<sup>40</sup>But when he returned to the disciples, he found them sleeping again. They simply could not keep their eyes open, and they did not know what to say.

<sup>41</sup>When Jesus returned to the disciples the third time, he said, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough of that! The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

<sup>42</sup>Get up! Let's go. The one who will betray me is already here.”

Jesus is arrested

(Matthew 26.47–56; Luke 22.47–53; John 18.3–12)

<sup>43</sup>Jesus was still speaking, when Judas the betrayer came up. He was one of the twelve disciples, and a mob of men armed with swords and clubs were with him. They had been sent by the chief priests, the nation's leaders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses.

<sup>44</sup>Judas had told them beforehand, “Arrest the man I greet with a kiss. Tie him up tight and lead him away.”

<sup>45</sup>Judas walked right up to Jesus and said, “Teacher!” Then Judas kissed him, <sup>46</sup>and the men grabbed Jesus and arrested him.

<sup>47</sup>Someone standing there pulled out a sword. He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus said to the mob, “Why do you come with swords and clubs to arrest me like a criminal?”

<sup>49</sup>Day after day I was with you and taught in the temple, and you didn't arrest me. But what the Scriptures say must come true.”

<sup>50</sup>All Jesus' disciples ran off and left him.

<sup>51</sup>One of them was a young man who was wearing only a linen cloth. And when the men grabbed him, <sup>52</sup>he left the cloth behind and ran away naked.

Jesus is questioned by the council

(Matthew 26.57–68; Luke 22.54,55,63–71; John 18.13,14,19–24)

<sup>53</sup>Jesus was led off to the high priest. Then the chief priests, the nation's leaders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses all met together.

<sup>54</sup>Peter had followed at a distance. And when he reached the courtyard of the high priest's house, he sat down with the guards to warm himself beside a fire.

<sup>55</sup>The chief priests and the whole council tried to find someone to accuse Jesus of a crime, so they could put him to death. But they could not find anyone to accuse him.

<sup>56</sup>Many people did tell lies against Jesus, but they did not agree on what they said.

<sup>57</sup>Finally, some men stood up and lied about him. They said,

<sup>58</sup>“We heard him say he would tear down this temple that we built. He also claimed that in three days he would build another one without any help.”

<sup>59</sup>But even then they did not agree on what they said.

<sup>60</sup>The high priest stood up in the council and asked Jesus, “Why don't you say something in your own defence? Don't you hear the charges they are making against you?”

<sup>61</sup>But Jesus kept quiet and did not say a word. The high priest asked him another question, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the glorious God?”

<sup>62</sup>“Yes, I am!” Jesus answered. “Soon you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right side of God All-Powerful, and coming with the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>63</sup>At once the high priest ripped his robe apart and shouted, “Why do we need more witnesses?”

<sup>64</sup>You heard him claim to be God! What is your decision?” They all agreed that he should be put to death.

<sup>65</sup>Some of the people started spitting on Jesus. They blindfolded him, hit him with their fists, and said, “Tell us who hit you!” Then the guards took charge of Jesus and beat him.

Peter says he doesn't know Jesus

(Matthew 26.69–75; Luke 22.56–62; John 18.15–18,25–27)

<sup>66</sup>While Peter was still in the courtyard, a servant girl of the high priest came up

<sup>67</sup>and saw Peter warming himself by the fire. She stared at him and said, “You were with Jesus from Nazareth!”

<sup>68</sup>Peter replied, “That isn't true! I don't know what you're talking about. I don't have any idea what you mean.” He went out to the gate, and a cock crowed.

<sup>69</sup>The servant girl saw Peter again and said to the people standing there, “This man is one of them!”

<sup>70</sup>“No, I'm not!” Peter replied. A little while later some of the people said to Peter, “You certainly are one of them. You're a Galilean!”

<sup>71</sup>This time Peter began to curse and swear, “I don't even know the man you're talking about!”

<sup>72</sup>Straight away the cock crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered that Jesus had told him, “Before a cock crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me.” So Peter started crying.

Mark 15

Pilate questions Jesus

(Matthew 27.1,2,11–14; Luke 23.1–5; John 18.28–38)

<sup>1</sup>Early the next morning the chief priests, the nation's leaders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses met together with the whole Jewish council. They tied up Jesus and led him off to Pilate.

<sup>2</sup>He asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Those are your words,” Jesus answered.

<sup>3</sup>The chief priests brought many charges against Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>Then Pilate questioned him again, “Don't you have anything to say? Don't you hear what crimes they say you have done?”

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus did not answer, and Pilate was amazed.

The death sentence

(Matthew 27.15–26; Luke 23.13–25; John 18.39—19.16)

<sup>6</sup>During Passover, Pilate always freed one prisoner chosen by the people.

<sup>7</sup>And at that time there was a prisoner named Barabbas. He and some others had been arrested for murder during a riot.

<sup>8</sup>The crowd now came and asked Pilate to set a prisoner free, just as he usually did.

<sup>9</sup>Pilate asked them, “Do you want me to free the king of the Jews?”

<sup>10</sup>Pilate knew that the chief priests had brought Jesus to him because they were jealous.

<sup>11</sup>But the chief priests told the crowd to ask Pilate to free Barabbas.

<sup>12</sup>Then Pilate asked the crowd, “What do you want me to do with this man you say is the king of the Jews?”

<sup>13</sup>They yelled, “Nail him to a cross!”

<sup>14</sup>Pilate asked, “But what crime has he done?” “Nail him to a cross!” they yelled even louder.

<sup>15</sup>Pilate wanted to please the crowd. So he set Barabbas free. Then he ordered his soldiers to beat Jesus with a whip and nail him to a cross.

Soldiers make fun of Jesus

(Matthew 27.27–30; John 19.2,3)

<sup>16</sup>The soldiers led Jesus inside the courtyard of the fortress and called together the rest of the troops.

<sup>17</sup>They put a purple robe on him, and on his head they placed a crown that they had made out of thorn branches.

<sup>18</sup>They made fun of Jesus and shouted, “Hey, you king of the Jews!”

<sup>19</sup>Then they beat him on the head with a stick. They spat on him and knelt down and pretended to worship him.

<sup>20</sup>When the soldiers had finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the purple robe. They put his own clothes back on him and led him off to be nailed to a cross.

<sup>21</sup>Simon from Cyrene happened to be coming in from a farm, and they forced him to carry Jesus' cross. Simon was the father of Alexander and Rufus.

Jesus is nailed to a cross

(Matthew 27.31–44; Luke 23.27–43; John 19.17–27)

<sup>22</sup>The soldiers took Jesus to Golgotha, which means “Place of a Skull”.

<sup>23</sup>There they gave him some wine mixed with a drug to ease the pain, but he refused to drink it.

<sup>24</sup>They nailed Jesus to a cross and gambled to see who would get his clothes.

<sup>25</sup>It was about nine o'clock in the morning when they nailed him to the cross.

<sup>26</sup>On it was a sign that told why he was nailed there. It read, “This is the King of the Jews.”

27-28 The soldiers also nailed two criminals on crosses, one to the right of Jesus and the other to his left.

29 People who passed by said terrible things about Jesus. They shook their heads and shouted, “Ha! So you're the one who claimed you could tear down the temple and build it again in three days.

30 Save yourself and come down from the cross!”

31 The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses also made fun of Jesus. They said to each other, “He saved others, but he can't save himself.

32 If he is the Messiah, the king of Israel, let him come down from the cross! Then we will see and believe.” The two criminals also said cruel things to Jesus.

The death of Jesus

(Matthew 27.45–56; Luke 23.44–49; John 19.28–30)

33 About midday the sky turned dark and stayed that way until around three o'clock.

34 Then about that time Jesus shouted, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you deserted me?”

35 Some of the people standing there heard Jesus and said, “He is calling for Elijah.”

36 One of them ran and grabbed a sponge. After he had soaked it in wine, he put it on a stick and held it up to Jesus. He said, “Let's wait and see if Elijah will come and take him down!”

37 Jesus shouted and then died.

38 At once the curtain in the temple tore in two from top to bottom.

39 A Roman army officer was standing in front of Jesus. When the officer saw how Jesus died, he said, “This man really was the Son of God!”

40-41 Some women were looking on from a distance. They had come with Jesus to Jerusalem. But even before this they had been his followers and had helped him while he was in Galilee. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joseph were two of these women. Salome was also one of them.

Jesus is buried

(Matthew 27.57–61; Luke 23.50–56; John 19.38–42)

<sup>42</sup>It was now the evening before the Sabbath, and the Jewish people were getting ready for that sacred day.

<sup>43</sup>A man named Joseph from Arimathea was brave enough to ask Pilate for the body of Jesus. Joseph was a highly respected member of the Jewish council, and he was also waiting for God's kingdom to come.

<sup>44</sup>Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead, and he called in the army officer to find out if Jesus had been dead very long.

<sup>45</sup>After the officer told him, Pilate let Joseph have Jesus' body.

<sup>46</sup>Joseph bought a linen cloth and took the body down from the cross. He had it wrapped in the cloth, and he put it in a tomb that had been cut into solid rock. Then he rolled a big stone against the entrance to the tomb.

<sup>47</sup>Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph were watching and saw where the body was placed.

Mark 16

Jesus is alive

Jesus is alive

(Matthew 28.1–8; Luke 24.1–12; John 20.1–10)

<sup>1</sup>After the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary the mother of James bought some spices to put on Jesus' body.

<sup>2</sup>Very early on Sunday morning, just as the sun was coming up, they went to the tomb.

<sup>3</sup>On their way, they were asking one another, “Who will roll the stone away from the entrance for us?”

<sup>4</sup>But when they looked, they saw that the stone had already been rolled away. And it was a huge stone!

<sup>5</sup>The women went into the tomb, and on the right side they saw a young man in a white robe sitting there. They were alarmed.

<sup>6</sup>The man said, “Don't be alarmed! You are looking for Jesus from Nazareth, who was nailed to a cross. God has raised him to life, and he isn't here. You can see the place where they put his body.

<sup>7</sup>Now go and tell his disciples, and especially Peter, that he will go ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you.”

<sup>8</sup>When the women ran from the tomb, they were confused and shaking all over. They were too afraid to tell anyone what had happened.

Jesus appears to his followers

One old ending to Mark's Gospel

Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene

(Matthew 28.9,10; John 20.11–18)

<sup>9</sup>Very early on the first day of the week, after Jesus had risen to life, he appeared to Mary Magdalene. Earlier he had forced seven demons out of her.

<sup>10</sup>She left and told his friends, who were crying and mourning.

<sup>11</sup>Even though they heard that Jesus was alive and that Mary had seen him, they would not believe it.

Jesus appears to two disciples

(Luke 24.13–35)

<sup>12</sup>Later, Jesus appeared in another form to two disciples, as they were on their way out of the city.

<sup>13</sup>But when these disciples told what had happened, the others would not believe.

What Jesus' followers must do

(Matthew 28.16–20; Luke 24.36–49; John 20.19–23; The Acts 1.6–8)

<sup>14</sup>Afterwards, Jesus appeared to his eleven disciples as they were eating. He scolded them because they were too stubborn to believe the ones who had seen him after he had been raised to life.

15 Then he told them: Go and preach the good news to everyone in the world.

16 Anyone who believes me and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe me will be condemned.

17 Everyone who believes me will be able to do wonderful things. By using my name they will force out demons, and they will speak new languages.

18 They will handle snakes and will drink poison and not be hurt. They will also heal sick people by placing their hands on them.

Jesus returns to heaven

(Luke 24.50–53; The Acts 1.9–11)

19 After the Lord Jesus had said these things to the disciples, he was taken back up to heaven where he sat down at the right side of God.

20 Then the disciples left and preached everywhere. The Lord was with them, and the miracles they performed proved that their message was true.

Another old ending to Mark's gospel

9-10 The women quickly told Peter and his friends what had happened. Later, Jesus sent the disciples to the east and to the west with his sacred and everlasting message of how people can be saved for ever.

Luke

Luke 1

Why Luke wrote this book

- <sup>1</sup>Many people have tried to tell the story of what God has done among us.
- <sup>2</sup>They wrote what we had been told by the ones who were there in the beginning and saw what happened.
- <sup>3</sup>So I made a careful study of everything and then decided to write and tell you exactly what took place. Honourable Theophilus,
- <sup>4</sup>I have done this to let you know the truth about what you have heard.

The births of John the Baptist and Jesus An angel tells about the birth of John

- <sup>5</sup>When Herod was king of Judea, there was a priest called Zechariah from the priestly group of Abijah. His wife Elizabeth was from the family of Aaron.
- <sup>6</sup>Both of them were good people and pleased the Lord God by obeying all that he had commanded.
- <sup>7</sup>But they did not have children. Elizabeth could not have any, and both Zechariah and Elizabeth were already old.
- <sup>8</sup>One day Zechariah's group of priests were on duty, and he was serving God as a priest.
- <sup>9</sup>According to the custom of the priests, he had been chosen to go into the Lord's temple that day and to burn incense,
- <sup>10</sup>while the people stood outside praying.
- <sup>11</sup>All at once an angel from the Lord appeared to Zechariah at the right side of the altar.
- <sup>12</sup>Zechariah was confused and afraid when he saw the angel.
- <sup>13</sup>But the angel told him: Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayers. Your wife Elizabeth will have a son, and you must name him John.

- <sup>14</sup>His birth will make you very happy, and many people will be glad.
- <sup>15</sup>Your son will be a great servant of the Lord. He must never drink wine or beer, and the power of the Holy Spirit will be with him from the time he is born.
- <sup>16</sup>John will lead many people in Israel to turn back to the Lord their God.
- <sup>17</sup>He will go ahead of the Lord with the same power and spirit that Elijah had. And because of John, parents will be more thoughtful of their children. And people who now disobey God will begin to think as they ought to. That is how John will get people ready for the Lord.
- <sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know this is going to happen? My wife and I are both very old.”
- <sup>19</sup>The angel answered, “I am Gabriel, God's servant, and I was sent to tell you this good news.
- <sup>20</sup>You have not believed what I have said. So you will not be able to say a thing until all this happens. But everything will take place when it is supposed to.”
- <sup>21</sup>The crowd was waiting for Zechariah and kept wondering why he was staying so long in the temple.
- <sup>22</sup>When he did come out, he could not speak, and they knew he had seen a vision. He motioned to them with his hands, but did not say a thing.
- <sup>23</sup>When Zechariah's time of service in the temple was over, he went home.
- <sup>24</sup>Soon after that, his wife was expecting a baby, and for five months she did not leave the house. She said to herself,
- <sup>25</sup>“What the Lord has done for me will keep people from looking down on me.”

An angel tells about the birth of Jesus

- <sup>26</sup>One month later God sent the angel Gabriel to the town of Nazareth in Galilee

<sup>27</sup> with a message for a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to Joseph from the family of King David.

<sup>28</sup> The angel greeted Mary and said, “You are truly blessed! The Lord is with you.”

<sup>29</sup> Mary was confused by the angel's words and wondered what they meant.

<sup>30</sup> Then the angel told Mary, “Don't be afraid! God is pleased with you,

<sup>31</sup> and you will have a son. His name will be Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of God Most High. The Lord God will make him king, as his ancestor David was.

<sup>33</sup> He will rule the people of Israel for ever, and his kingdom will never end.”

<sup>34</sup> Mary asked the angel, “How can this happen? I am not married!”

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come down to you, and God's power will come over you. So your child will be called the holy Son of God.

<sup>36</sup> Your relative Elizabeth is also going to have a son, even though she is old. No one thought she could ever have a baby, but in three months she will have a son.

<sup>37</sup> Nothing is impossible for God!”

<sup>38</sup> Mary said, “I am the Lord's servant! Let it happen as you have said.” And the angel left her.

Mary visits Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup> A short time later Mary hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea.

<sup>40</sup> She went into Zechariah's home, where she greeted Elizabeth.

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, her baby moved within her. The Holy Spirit came upon Elizabeth.

<sup>42</sup> Then in a loud voice she said to Mary: God has blessed you more than any other woman! He has also blessed the child you will have.

<sup>43</sup> Why should the mother of my Lord come to me?

<sup>44</sup>As soon as I heard your greeting, my baby became happy and moved within me.

<sup>45</sup>The Lord has blessed you because you believed that he will keep his promise.

Mary's song of praise

<sup>46</sup>Mary said: With all my heart I praise the Lord,

<sup>47</sup>and I am glad because of God my Saviour.

<sup>48</sup>He cares for me, his humble servant. From now on, all people will say God has blessed me.

<sup>49</sup>God All-Powerful has done great things for me, and his name is holy.

<sup>50</sup>He always shows mercy to everyone who worships him.

<sup>51</sup>The Lord has used his powerful arm to scatter those who are proud.

<sup>52</sup>He drags strong rulers from their thrones and puts humble people in places of power.

<sup>53</sup>God gives the hungry good things to eat, and sends the rich away with nothing.

<sup>54</sup>He helps his servant Israel and is always merciful to his people.

<sup>55</sup>The Lord made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his family for ever!

<sup>56</sup>Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months. Then she went back home.

The birth of John the Baptist

<sup>57</sup>When Elizabeth's son was born,

<sup>58</sup>her neighbours and relatives heard how kind the Lord had been to her, and they too were glad.

<sup>59</sup>Eight days later they did for the child what the Law of Moses commands. They were going to name him Zechariah, after his father.

<sup>60</sup>But Elizabeth said, "No! His name is John."

- <sup>61</sup>The people argued, “No one in your family has ever been named John.”
- <sup>62</sup>So they motioned to Zechariah to find out what he wanted to name his son.
- <sup>63</sup>Zechariah asked for a writing tablet. Then he wrote, “His name is John.” Everyone was amazed.
- <sup>64</sup>Straight away Zechariah started speaking and praising God.
- <sup>65</sup>All the neighbours were frightened because of what had happened, and everywhere in the hill country people kept talking about these things.
- <sup>66</sup>Everyone who heard about this wondered what this child would grow up to be. They knew that the Lord was with him.

Zechariah praises the Lord

- <sup>67</sup>The Holy Spirit came upon Zechariah, and he began to speak:
- <sup>68</sup>Praise the Lord, the God of Israel! He has come to save his people.
- <sup>69</sup>Our God has given us a mighty Saviour from the family of David his servant.
- <sup>70</sup>Long ago the Lord promised by the words of his holy prophets
- <sup>71</sup>to save us from our enemies and from everyone who hates us.
- <sup>72</sup>God said he would be kind to our people and keep his sacred promise.
- <sup>73</sup>He told our ancestor Abraham
- <sup>74</sup>that he would rescue us from our enemies. Then we could serve him without fear,
- <sup>75</sup>by being holy and good as long as we live.
- <sup>76</sup>You, my son, will be called a prophet of God in heaven above. You will go ahead of the Lord to get everything ready for him.
- <sup>77</sup>You will tell his people that they can be saved when their sins are forgiven.
- <sup>78</sup>God's love and kindness will shine upon us like the sun that rises in the sky.

<sup>79</sup> On us who live in the dark shadow of death this light will shine to guide us into a life of peace.

<sup>80</sup> As John grew up, God's Spirit gave him great power. John lived in the desert until the time he was sent to the people of Israel.

Luke 2

The birth of Jesus

(Matthew 1.18–25)

<sup>1</sup> About that time Emperor Augustus gave orders for the names of all the people to be listed in record books.

<sup>2</sup> These first records were made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

<sup>3</sup> Everyone had to go to their own home town to be listed.

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph had to leave Nazareth in Galilee and go to Bethlehem in Judea. Long ago Bethlehem had been King David's home town, and Joseph went there because he was from David's family.

<sup>5</sup> Mary was engaged to Joseph and travelled with him to Bethlehem. She was soon going to have a baby,

<sup>6</sup> and while they were there,

<sup>7</sup> she gave birth to her firstborn son. She dressed him in baby clothes and laid him on a bed of hay, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The shepherds

<sup>8</sup> That night in the fields near Bethlehem some shepherds were guarding their sheep.

<sup>9</sup> All at once an angel came down to them from the Lord, and the brightness of the Lord's glory flashed around them. The shepherds were frightened.

<sup>10</sup> But the angel said, "Don't be afraid! I have good news for you, which will make everyone happy.

<sup>11</sup> This very day in King David's home town a Saviour was born for you. He is Christ the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>You will know who he is, because you will find him dressed in baby clothes and lying on a bed of hay.”

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly many other angels came down from heaven and joined in praising God. They said:

<sup>14</sup>“Praise God in heaven! Peace on earth to everyone who pleases God.”

<sup>15</sup>After the angels had left and gone back to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let's go to Bethlehem and see what the Lord has told us about.”

<sup>16</sup>They hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and they saw the baby lying on a bed of hay.

<sup>17</sup>When the shepherds saw Jesus, they told his parents what the angel had said about him.

<sup>18</sup>Everyone listened and was surprised.

<sup>19</sup>But Mary kept thinking about all this and wondering what it meant.

<sup>20</sup>As the shepherds returned to their sheep, they were praising God and saying wonderful things about him. Everything they had seen and heard was just as the angel had said.

<sup>21</sup>Eight days later Jesus' parents did for him what the Law of Moses commands. And they named him Jesus, just as the angel had told Mary when he promised she would have a baby.

Simeon praises the Lord

<sup>22</sup>The time came for Mary and Joseph to do what the Law of Moses says a mother is supposed to do after her baby is born. They took Jesus to the temple in Jerusalem and presented him to the Lord,

<sup>23</sup>just as the Law of the Lord says, “Each firstborn baby boy belongs to the Lord.”

<sup>24</sup>The Law of the Lord also says that parents have to offer a sacrifice, giving at least a pair of doves or two young pigeons. So that is what Mary and Joseph did.

<sup>25</sup>At this time a man named Simeon was living in Jerusalem. Simeon was a good man. He loved God and was waiting for God to save the people of Israel. God's Spirit came to him

<sup>26</sup>and told him that he would not die until he had seen Christ the Lord.

<sup>27</sup>When Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple to do what the Law of Moses says should be done for a new baby, the Spirit told Simeon to go into the temple.

<sup>28</sup>Simeon took the baby Jesus in his arms and praised God, <sup>29</sup>“Lord, I am your servant, and now I can die in peace, because you have kept your promise to me.

<sup>30</sup>With my own eyes I have seen what you have done to save your people, <sup>31</sup>and foreign nations will also see this.

<sup>32</sup>Your mighty power is a light for all nations, and it will bring honour to your people Israel.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus' parents were surprised at what Simeon had said.

<sup>34</sup>Then he blessed them and told Mary, “This child of yours will cause many people in Israel to fall and others to stand. The child will be like a warning sign. Many people will reject him, <sup>35</sup>and you, Mary, will suffer as though you had been stabbed by a dagger. But all this will show what people are really thinking.”

Anna speaks about the child Jesus

<sup>36</sup>The prophet Anna was also there in the temple. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher, and she was very old. In her youth she had been married for seven years, but her husband had died.

<sup>37</sup>And now she was eighty-four years old. Night and day she served God in the temple by praying and often going without eating.

<sup>38</sup>At that time Anna came in and praised God. She spoke about the child Jesus to everyone who hoped for Jerusalem to be set free.

The return to Nazareth

<sup>39</sup>After Joseph and Mary had done everything that the Law of the Lord commands, they returned home to Nazareth in Galilee.

<sup>40</sup>The child Jesus grew. He became strong and wise, and God blessed him.

The boy Jesus in the temple

<sup>41</sup>Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for Passover.

<sup>42</sup>And when Jesus was twelve years old, they all went there as usual for the celebration.

<sup>43</sup>After Passover his parents left, but they did not know that Jesus had stayed on in the city.

<sup>44</sup>They thought he was travelling with some other people, and they went a whole day before they started looking for him.

<sup>45</sup>When they could not find him with their relatives and friends, they went back to Jerusalem and started looking for him there.

<sup>46</sup>Three days later they found Jesus sitting in the temple, listening to the teachers and asking them questions.

<sup>47</sup>Everyone who heard him was surprised at how much he knew and at the answers he gave.

<sup>48</sup>When his parents found him, they were amazed. His mother said, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been very worried, and we have been searching for you!"

<sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, "Why did you have to look for me? Didn't you know that I would be in my Father's house?"

<sup>50</sup>But they did not understand what he meant.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus went back to Nazareth with his parents and obeyed them. His mother kept on thinking about all that had happened.

<sup>52</sup>Jesus became wise, and he grew strong. God was pleased with him and so were the people.

Luke 3

The message of John the Baptist

The preaching of John the Baptist

(Matthew 3.1–12; Mark 1.1–8; John 1.19–28)

<sup>1</sup>For fifteen years Emperor Tiberius had ruled that part of the world. Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was the ruler of Galilee. Herod's brother, Philip, was the ruler in the countries of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was the ruler of Abilene.

<sup>2</sup>Annas and Caiaphas were the Jewish high priests. At that time God spoke to Zechariah's son John, who was living in the desert.

<sup>3</sup>So John went along the Jordan Valley, telling the people, “Turn back to God and be baptized! Then your sins will be forgiven.”

<sup>4</sup>Isaiah the prophet wrote about John when he said, “In the desert someone is shouting, ‘Get the road ready for the Lord! Make a straight path for him.

<sup>5</sup>Fill up every valley and level every mountain and hill. Straighten the crooked paths and smooth out the rough roads.

<sup>6</sup>Then everyone will see the saving power of God. ’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Crowds of people came out to be baptized, but John said to them, “You snakes! Who warned you to run from the coming judgment?

<sup>8</sup>Do something to show that you really have given up your sins. Don't start saying that you belong to Abraham's family. God can turn these stones into children for Abraham.

<sup>9</sup>An axe is ready to cut the trees down at their roots. Any tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into a fire.”

<sup>10</sup>The crowds asked John, “What should we do?”

<sup>11</sup>John told them, “If you have two coats, give one to someone who doesn't have any. If you have food, share it with someone else.”

<sup>12</sup>When tax collectors came to be baptized, they asked John, “Teacher, what should we do?”

<sup>13</sup>John told them, “Don't make people pay more than they owe.”

<sup>14</sup>Some soldiers asked him, “And what about us? What do we have to do?” John told them, “Don't force people to pay money to make you leave them alone. Be satisfied with your pay.”

<sup>15</sup>Everyone became excited and wondered, “Could John be the Messiah?”

<sup>16</sup>John said, “I am just baptizing with water. But someone more powerful is going to come, and I am not good enough even to untie his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

<sup>17</sup>His threshing fork is in his hand, and he is ready to separate the wheat from the husks. He will store the wheat in his barn and burn the husks with a fire that never goes out.”

<sup>18</sup>In many different ways John preached the good news to the people.

<sup>19</sup>But to Herod the ruler, he said, “It was wrong for you to take Herodias, your brother's wife.” John also said that Herod had done many other bad things.

<sup>20</sup>Finally, Herod put John in jail, and this was the worst thing he had done.

The baptism and temptation of Jesus

The baptism of Jesus

(Matthew 3.13–17; Mark 1.9–11)

<sup>21</sup>While everyone else was being baptized, Jesus himself was baptized. Then as he prayed, the sky opened up,

<sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit came down upon him in the form of a dove. A voice from heaven said, “You are my own dear Son, and I am pleased with you.”

The ancestors of Jesus

(Matthew 1.1–17)

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus began to preach, he was about thirty years old. Everyone thought he was the son of Joseph. But his family went back through Heli,

<sup>24</sup>Matthat, Levi, Melchi, Jannai, Joseph,

<sup>25</sup>Mattathias, Amos, Nahum, Esli, Naggai,

- <sup>26</sup>Maath, Mattathias, Semein, Josech, Joda;
- <sup>27</sup>Joanan, Rhesa, Zerubbabel, Shealtiel, Neri,
- <sup>28</sup>Melchi, Addi, Cosam, Elmadam, Er,
- <sup>29</sup>Joshua, Eliezer, Jorim, Matthat, Levi;
- <sup>30</sup>Simeon, Judah, Joseph, Jonam, Eliakim,
- <sup>31</sup>Melea, Menna, Mattatha, Nathan, David,
- <sup>32</sup>Jesse, Obed, Boaz, Salmon, Nahshon;
- <sup>33</sup>Amminadab, Admin, Arni, Hezron, Perez, Judah,
- <sup>34</sup>Jacob, Isaac, Abraham, Terah, Nahor,
- <sup>35</sup>Serug, Reu, Peleg, Eber, Shelah;
- <sup>36</sup>Cainan, Arphaxad, Shem, Noah, Lamech,
- <sup>37</sup>Methuselah, Enoch, Jared, Mahalaleel, Kenan,
- <sup>38</sup>Enosh, and Seth. The family of Jesus went all the way back to Adam and then to God.

Luke 4

Jesus and the devil

(Matthew 4.1–11; Mark 1.12,13)

- <sup>1</sup>When Jesus returned from the River Jordan, the power of the Holy Spirit was with him, and the Spirit led him into the desert.
- <sup>2</sup>For forty days Jesus was tested by the devil, and during that time he went without eating. When it was all over, he was hungry.
- <sup>3</sup>The devil said to Jesus, “If you are God's Son, tell this stone to turn into bread.”
- <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, “The Scriptures say, ‘No one can live only on food.’ ”
- <sup>5</sup>Then the devil led Jesus up to a high place and quickly showed him all the nations on earth.

<sup>6</sup>The devil said, “I will give all this power and glory to you. It has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to.

<sup>7</sup>Just worship me, and you can have it all.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, “The Scriptures say: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve only him! ’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Finally, the devil took Jesus to Jerusalem and had him stand on top of the temple. The devil said, “If you are God's Son, jump off.

<sup>10-11</sup> The Scriptures say: ‘God will tell his angels to take care of you. They will catch you in their arms, and you will not hurt your feet on the stones. ’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Jesus answered, “The Scriptures also say, ‘Don't try to test the Lord your God! ’ ”

<sup>13</sup>After the devil had finished testing Jesus in every way possible, he left him for a while.

Jesus' ministry in Galilee

Jesus begins his work

(Matthew 4.12–17; Mark 1.14,15)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus returned to Galilee with the power of the Spirit. News about him spread everywhere.

<sup>15</sup>He taught in the Jewish meeting places, and everyone praised him.

The people of Nazareth turn against Jesus

(Matthew 13.53–58; Mark 6.1–6)

<sup>16</sup>Jesus went back to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and as usual he went to the meeting place on the Sabbath. When he stood up to read from the Scriptures,

<sup>17</sup>he was given the book of Isaiah the prophet. He opened it and read,

<sup>18</sup>“The Lord's Spirit has come to me, because he has chosen me to tell the good news to the poor. The Lord has sent me to announce freedom for prisoners, to give sight to the blind, to free everyone who suffers,

<sup>19</sup>and to say, ‘This is the year the Lord has chosen. ’ ”

<sup>20</sup>Jesus closed the book, then handed it back to the man in charge and sat down. Everyone in the meeting place looked straight at Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “What you have just heard me read has come true today.”

<sup>22</sup>All the people started talking about Jesus and were amazed at the wonderful things he said. They kept on asking, “Isn't he Joseph's son?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered: You will certainly want to tell me this saying, “Doctor, first make yourself well.” You will tell me to do the same things here in my own home town that you heard I did in Capernaum.

<sup>24</sup>But you can be sure that no prophets are liked by the people of their own home town.

<sup>25</sup>Once during the time of Elijah there was no rain for three and a half years, and people everywhere were starving. There were many widows in Israel,

<sup>26</sup>but Elijah was sent only to a widow in the town of Zarephath near the city of Sidon.

<sup>27</sup>During the time of the prophet Elisha, many men in Israel had leprosy. But no one was healed, except Naaman who lived in Syria.

<sup>28</sup>When the people in the meeting place heard Jesus say this, they became so angry

<sup>29</sup>that they got up and threw him out of town. They dragged him to the edge of the cliff on which the town was built, because they wanted to throw him down from there.

<sup>30</sup>But Jesus slipped through the crowd and got away.

A man with an evil spirit

(Mark 1.21–28)

<sup>31</sup>Jesus went to the town of Capernaum in Galilee and taught the people on the Sabbath.

<sup>32</sup> His teaching amazed them because he spoke with power.

<sup>33</sup> There in the Jewish meeting place was a man with an evil spirit. He yelled out,

<sup>34</sup> “Hey, Jesus of Nazareth, what do you want with us? Are you here to get rid of us? I know who you are! You are God's Holy One.”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus ordered the evil spirit to be quiet and come out. The demon threw the man to the ground in front of everyone and left without harming him.

<sup>36</sup> They all were amazed and kept saying to each other, “What kind of teaching is this? He has power to order evil spirits out of people!”

<sup>37</sup> News about Jesus spread all over that part of the country.

Jesus heals many people

(Matthew 8.14–17; Mark 1.29–34)

<sup>38</sup> Jesus left the meeting place and went to Simon's home. When Jesus got there, he was told that Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a high fever.

<sup>39</sup> So Jesus went over to her and ordered the fever to go away. At once she was able to get up and serve them a meal.

<sup>40</sup> After the sun had set, people with all kinds of diseases were brought to Jesus. He put his hands on each one of them and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> Demons went out of many people and shouted, “You are the Son of God!” But Jesus ordered the demons not to speak because they knew he was the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup> The next morning Jesus went out to a place where he could be alone, and crowds came looking for him. When they found him, they tried to stop him from leaving.

<sup>43</sup> But Jesus said, “People in other towns must hear the good news about God's kingdom. That's why I was sent.”

<sup>44</sup> So he kept on preaching in the Jewish meeting places in Judea.

Luke 5

Jesus chooses his first disciples

(Matthew 4.18–22; Mark 1.16–20)

- 1 Jesus was standing on the shore of Lake Gennesaret, teaching the people as they crowded around him to hear God's message.
- 2 Near the shore he saw two boats left there by some fishermen who had gone to wash their nets.
- 3 Jesus got into the boat that belonged to Simon and asked him to row it out a little way from the shore. Then Jesus sat down in the boat to teach the crowd.
- 4 When Jesus had finished speaking, he told Simon, “Row the boat out into the deep water and let your nets down to catch some fish.”
- 5 “Master,” Simon answered, “we have worked hard all night long and have not caught a thing. But if you tell me to, I will let the nets down.”
- 6 They did it and caught so many fish that their nets began ripping apart.
- 7 Then they signalled for their partners in the other boat to come and help them. The men came, and together they filled the two boats so full that they both began to sink.
- 8 When Simon Peter saw this happen, he knelt down in front of Jesus and said, “Lord, don't come near me! I am a sinner.”
- 9 Peter and everyone with him were completely surprised at all the fish they had caught.
- 10 His partners James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were surprised too. Jesus told Simon, “Don't be afraid! From now on you will bring in people instead of fish.”
- 11 The men pulled their boats up on the shore. Then they left everything and went with Jesus.

Jesus heals a man

(Matthew 8.1–4; Mark 1.40–45)

<sup>12</sup>Jesus came to a town where there was a man who had leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he knelt down on the ground in front of Jesus and begged, “Lord, you have the power to make me well, if only you wanted to.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus put his hand on him and said, “I want to! Now you are well.” At once the man's leprosy disappeared.

<sup>14</sup>Jesus told him, “Don't tell anyone about this, but go and show yourself to the priest. Offer a gift to the priest, just as Moses commanded, and everyone will know that you have been healed.”

<sup>15</sup>News about Jesus kept spreading. Large crowds came to listen to him teach and to be healed of their diseases.

<sup>16</sup>But Jesus would often go to some place where he could be alone and pray.

Jesus heals a crippled man

(Matthew 9.1–8; Mark 2.1–12)

<sup>17</sup>One day some Pharisees and experts in the Law of Moses sat listening to Jesus teach. They had come from every village in Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. God had given Jesus the power to heal the sick, <sup>18</sup>and some people came carrying a crippled man on a mat. They tried to take him inside the house and put him in front of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>But because of the crowd, they could not get him to Jesus. So they went up on the roof, where they removed some tiles and let the mat down in the middle of the room.

<sup>20</sup>When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the crippled man, “My friend, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>21</sup>The Pharisees and the experts began arguing, “Jesus must think he is God! Only God can forgive sins.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he said, “Why are you thinking that?”

<sup>23</sup>Is it easier for me to tell this crippled man that his sins are forgiven or to tell him to get up and walk?

<sup>24</sup>But now you will see that the Son of Man has the right to forgive sins here on earth.” Jesus then said to the man, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk home.”

<sup>25</sup>At once the man stood up in front of everyone. He picked up his mat and went home, giving thanks to God.

<sup>26</sup>Everyone was amazed and praised God. What they saw surprised them, and they said, “We have seen a great miracle today!”

Jesus chooses Levi

(Matthew 9.9–13; Mark 2.13–17)

<sup>27</sup>Later, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the place for paying taxes. Jesus said to him, “Come with me.”

<sup>28</sup>Levi left everything and went with Jesus.

<sup>29</sup>In his home Levi gave a big dinner for Jesus. Many tax collectors and other guests were also there.

<sup>30</sup>The Pharisees and some of their teachers of the Law of Moses grumbled to Jesus' disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with those tax collectors and other sinners?”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered, “Healthy people don't need a doctor, but sick people do.

<sup>32</sup>I didn't come to invite good people to turn to God. I came to invite sinners.”

People ask about going without eating

(Matthew 9.14–17; Mark 2.18–22)

<sup>33</sup>Some people said to Jesus, “John's followers often pray and go without eating, and so do the followers of the Pharisees. But your disciples never go without eating or drinking.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus told them, “The friends of a bridegroom don't go without eating while he is still with them.

<sup>35</sup>But the time will come when he will be taken from them. Then they will go without eating.”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus then told them these sayings: No one uses a new piece of cloth to patch old clothes. The patch would shrink and make the hole even bigger.

<sup>37</sup>No one pours new wine into old wineskins. The new wine would swell and burst the old skins. Then the wine would be lost, and the skins would be ruined.

<sup>38</sup>New wine must be put only into new wineskins.

<sup>39</sup>No one wants new wine after drinking old wine. They say, “The old wine is better.”

Luke 6

A question about the Sabbath

(Matthew 12.1–8; Mark 2.23–28)

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath when Jesus and his disciples were walking through some wheat fields, the disciples picked some wheat. They rubbed the husks off with their hands and started eating the grain.

<sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees said, “Why are you picking grain on the Sabbath? You're not supposed to do that!”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, “Surely you have read what David did when he and his followers were hungry.

<sup>4</sup>He went into the house of God and took the sacred loaves of bread that only priests were supposed to eat. He not only ate some himself, but even gave some to his followers.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus finished by saying, “The Son of Man is Lord over the Sabbath.”

A man with a crippled hand

(Matthew 12.9–14; Mark 3.1–6)

<sup>6</sup>On another Sabbath Jesus was teaching in a Jewish meeting place, and a man with a crippled right hand was there.

<sup>7</sup>Some Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses kept watching Jesus to see if he would heal the man. They did this because they wanted to accuse Jesus of doing something wrong.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he told the man to stand up where everyone could see him. And the man stood up.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus asked, “On the Sabbath should we do good deeds or evil deeds? Should we save someone's life or destroy it?”

<sup>10</sup>After he had looked around at everyone, he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his bad hand became completely well.

<sup>11</sup>The teachers and the Pharisees were furious and started saying to each other, “What can we do about Jesus?”

Jesus chooses his twelve apostles

(Matthew 10.1–4; Mark 3.13–19)

<sup>12</sup>About that time Jesus went off to a mountain to pray, and he spent the whole night there.

<sup>13</sup>The next morning he called his disciples together and chose twelve of them to be his apostles.

<sup>14</sup>One was Simon, and Jesus named him Peter. Another was Andrew, Peter's brother. There were also James, John, Philip, Bartholomew,

<sup>15</sup>Matthew, Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus. The rest of the apostles were Simon, known as the Eager One,

<sup>16</sup>Jude, who was the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

Jesus teaches, preaches, and heals

(Matthew 4.23–25)

<sup>17</sup>Jesus and his apostles went down from the mountain and came to some flat, level ground. Many other disciples were there to meet him. Large crowds of people from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the coastal cities of Tyre and Sidon were there too.

<sup>18</sup>These people had come to listen to Jesus and to be healed of their diseases. All who were troubled by evil spirits were also healed.

<sup>19</sup>Everyone was trying to touch Jesus, because power was going out from him and healing them all.

Blessings and troubles

(Matthew 5.1–12)

<sup>20</sup>Jesus looked at his disciples and said: God will bless you people who are poor. His kingdom belongs to you!

<sup>21</sup>God will bless you hungry people. You will have plenty to eat! God will bless you people who are crying. You will laugh!

<sup>22</sup>God will bless you when others hate you and won't have anything to do with you. God will bless you when people insult you and say cruel things about you, all because you are a follower of the Son of Man.

<sup>23</sup>Long ago your own people did these same things to the prophets. So when this happens to you, be happy and jump for joy! You will have a great reward in heaven.

<sup>24</sup>But you rich people are in for trouble. You have already had an easy life!

<sup>25</sup>You well-fed people are in for trouble. You will go hungry! You people who are laughing now are in for trouble. You are going to cry and weep!

<sup>26</sup>You are in for trouble when everyone says good things about you. That is what your own people said about those prophets who told lies.

Love for enemies

(Matthew 5.38–48; 7.12a)

Jesus continued:

<sup>27</sup>This is what I say to all who will listen to me: Love your enemies, and be good to everyone who hates you.

<sup>28</sup>Ask God to bless anyone who curses you, and pray for everyone who is cruel to you.

<sup>29</sup>If someone slaps you on one cheek, don't stop that person from slapping you on the other cheek. If someone wants to take your coat, don't try to keep back your shirt.

<sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks and don't ask people to return what they have taken from you.

<sup>31</sup>Treat others just as you want to be treated.

<sup>32</sup>If you love only someone who loves you, will God praise you for that? Even sinners love people who love them.

<sup>33</sup>If you are kind only to someone who is kind to you, will God be pleased with you for that? Even sinners are kind to people who are kind to them.

<sup>34</sup>If you lend money only to someone you think will pay you back, will God be pleased with you for that? Even sinners lend to sinners because they think they will get it all back.

<sup>35</sup>But love your enemies and be good to them. Lend without expecting to be paid back. Then you will get a great reward, and you will be the true children of God in heaven. He is good even to people who are unthankful and cruel.

<sup>36</sup>Have pity on others, just as your Father has pity on you.

Judging others

(Matthew 7.1–5)

<sup>37</sup>Jesus said: Don't judge others, and God won't judge you. Don't be hard on others, and God won't be hard on you. Forgive others, and God will forgive you.

<sup>38</sup>If you give to others, you will be given a full amount in return. It will be packed down, shaken together, and spilling over into your lap. The way you treat others is the way you will be treated.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus also used some sayings as he spoke to the people. He said: Can one blind person lead another blind person? Won't they both fall into a ditch?

<sup>40</sup>Are students better than their teacher? But when they are fully trained, they will be like their teacher.

<sup>41</sup>You can see the speck in your friend's eye. But you don't notice the log in your own eye.

<sup>42</sup>How can you say, “My friend, let me take the speck out of your eye,” when you don't see the log in your own eye? You show-offs! First, get the log out of your own eye. Then you can see how to take the speck out of your friend's eye.

A tree and its fruit

(Matthew 7.17–20; 12.34b,35)

Jesus continued:

<sup>43</sup>A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot produce good fruit.

<sup>44</sup>You can tell what a tree is like by the fruit it produces. You cannot pick figs or grapes from thorn bushes.

<sup>45</sup>Good people do good things because of the good in their hearts. Bad people do bad things because of the evil in their hearts. Your words show what is in your heart.

Two builders

(Matthew 7.24–27)

Jesus continued:

<sup>46</sup>Why do you keep on saying that I am your Lord, when you refuse to do what I say?

<sup>47</sup>Anyone who comes and listens to me and obeys me

<sup>48</sup>is like someone who dug down deep and built a house on solid rock. When the flood came and the river rushed against the house, it was built so well that it didn't even shake.

<sup>49</sup>But anyone who hears what I say and doesn't obey me is like someone whose house wasn't built on solid rock. As soon as the river rushed against that house, it was smashed to pieces!

Luke 7

Jesus heals an army officer's servant

(Matthew 8.5–13; John 4.43–54)

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus had finished teaching the people, he went to Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup>In that town an army officer's servant was sick and about to die. The officer liked this servant very much.

<sup>3</sup>And when he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish leaders to ask him to come and heal the servant.

<sup>4</sup>The leaders went to Jesus and begged him to do something. They said, "This man deserves your help!

<sup>5</sup>He loves our nation and even built us a meeting place."

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus went with them. When Jesus wasn't far from the house, the officer sent some friends to tell him, "Lord, don't go to any trouble for me! I am not good enough for you to come into my house.

<sup>7</sup>And I am certainly not worthy to come to you. Just say the word, and my servant will get well.

<sup>8</sup>I have officers who give orders to me, and I have soldiers who take orders from me. I can say to one of them, 'Go!' and he goes. I can say to another, 'Come!' and he comes. I can say to my servant, 'Do this!' and he will do it."

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was so surprised that he turned and said to the crowd following him, "In all of Israel I've never found anyone with this much faith!"

<sup>10</sup>The officer's friends returned and found the servant well.

A widow's son

<sup>11</sup>Soon Jesus and his disciples were on their way to the town of Nain, and a big crowd was going along with them.

<sup>12</sup>As they came near the gate of the town, they saw people carrying out the body of a widow's only son. Many people from the town were walking along with her.

<sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw the woman, he felt sorry for her and said, "Don't cry!"

<sup>14</sup>Jesus went over and touched the stretcher on which the people were carrying the dead boy. They stopped, and Jesus said, "Young man, get up!"

<sup>15</sup>The boy sat up and began to speak. Jesus then gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Everyone was frightened and praised God. They said, “A great prophet is here with us! God has come to his people.”

<sup>17</sup>News about Jesus spread all over Judea and everywhere else in that part of the country.

John the Baptist

(Matthew 11.1–19)

<sup>18-19</sup>John's followers told John everything that was being said about Jesus. So he sent two of them to ask the Lord, “Are you the one we should be looking for? Or must we wait for someone else?”

<sup>20</sup>When these messengers came to Jesus, they said, “John the Baptist sent us to ask, ‘Are you the one we should be looking for? Or are we supposed to wait for someone else?’ ”

<sup>21</sup>At that time Jesus was healing many people who were sick or in pain or were troubled by evil spirits, and he was giving sight to a lot of blind people.

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to the messengers sent by John, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard. Blind people are now able to see, and the lame can walk. People who have leprosy are being healed, and the deaf can now hear. The dead are raised to life, and the poor are hearing the good news.

<sup>23</sup>God will bless everyone who doesn't reject me because of what I do.”

<sup>24</sup>After John's messengers had gone, Jesus began speaking to the crowds about John: What kind of person did you go out to the desert to see? Was he like tall grass blown about by the wind?

<sup>25</sup>What kind of man did you really go out to see? Was he someone dressed in fine clothes? People who wear expensive clothes and live in luxury are in the king's palace.

<sup>26</sup>What then did you go out to see? Was he a prophet? He certainly was! I tell you that he was more than a prophet.

<sup>27</sup>In the Scriptures, God calls John his messenger and says, “I am sending my messenger ahead of you to get things ready for you.”

<sup>28</sup>No one ever born on this earth is greater than John. But whoever is least important in God's kingdom is greater than John.

<sup>29</sup>Everyone had been listening to John. Even the tax collector had obeyed God and had done what was right by letting John baptize them.

<sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and the experts in the Law of Moses refused to obey God and be baptized by John.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus went on to say: What are you people like? What kind of people are you?

<sup>32</sup>You are like children sitting in the market and shouting to each other, “We played the flute, but you would not dance! We sang a funeral song, but you would not cry!”

<sup>33</sup>John the Baptist did not go around eating and drinking, and you said, “John has a demon in him!”

<sup>34</sup>But because the Son of Man goes around eating and drinking, you say, “Jesus eats and drinks too much! He is even a friend of tax collectors and sinners.”

<sup>35</sup>Yet Wisdom is shown to be right by what its followers do.

Simon the Pharisee

<sup>36</sup>A Pharisee invited Jesus to have dinner with him. So Jesus went to the Pharisee's home and got ready to eat.

<sup>37</sup>When a sinful woman in that town found out that Jesus was there, she bought an expensive bottle of perfume.

<sup>38</sup>Then she came and stood behind Jesus. She cried and started washing his feet with her tears and drying them with her hair. The woman kissed his feet and poured the perfume on them.

<sup>39</sup>The Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this and said to himself, “If this man really were a prophet, he would know what kind of woman is touching him! He would know that she is a sinner.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus said to the Pharisee, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” “Teacher, what is it?” Simon replied.

<sup>41</sup>Jesus told him, “Two people were in debt to a moneylender. One of them owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other owed him fifty.

<sup>42</sup>Since neither of them could pay him back, the moneylender said that they didn't have to pay him anything. Which one of them will like him more?”

<sup>43</sup>Simon answered, “I suppose it would be the one who had owed more and didn't have to pay it back.” “You are right,” Jesus said.

<sup>44</sup>He turned towards the woman and said to Simon, “Have you noticed this woman? When I came into your home, you didn't give me any water so I could wash my feet. But she has washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup>You didn't greet me with a kiss, but from the time I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet.

<sup>46</sup>You didn't even pour olive oil on my head, but she has poured expensive perfume on my feet.

<sup>47</sup>So I tell you that all her sins are forgiven, and that is why she has shown great love. But anyone who has been forgiven for only a little will show only a little love.”

<sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to the woman, “Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>49</sup>Some other guests started saying to one another, “Who is this who dares to forgive sins?”

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus told the woman, “Because of your faith, you are now saved. May God give you peace!”

Luke 8

Women who helped Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Soon after this, Jesus was going through towns and villages, telling the good news about God's kingdom. His twelve apostles were with him,

<sup>2</sup>and so were some women who had been healed of evil spirits and all sorts of diseases. One of the women was Mary Magdalene, who once had seven demons in her.

<sup>3</sup>Joanna, Susanna, and many others had also used what they owned to help Jesus and his disciples. Joanna's husband Chuza was one of Herod's officials.

A story about a farmer

(Matthew 13.1–9; Mark 4.1–9)

<sup>4</sup>When a large crowd from several towns had gathered around Jesus, he told them this story:

<sup>5</sup>A farmer went out to scatter seed in a field. While the farmer was doing it, some of the seeds fell along the road and were stepped on or eaten by birds.

<sup>6</sup>Other seeds fell on rocky ground and started growing. But the plants did not have enough water and soon dried up.

<sup>7</sup>Some other seeds fell where thorn bushes grew up and choked the plants.

<sup>8</sup>The rest of the seeds fell on good ground where they grew and produced a hundred times as many seeds. When Jesus had finished speaking, he said, “If you have ears, pay attention!”

Why Jesus used stories

(Matthew 13.10–17; Mark 4.10–12)

<sup>9</sup>Jesus' disciples asked him what the story meant.

<sup>10</sup>So he answered: I have explained the secrets about God's kingdom to you, but for others I can only use stories. These people look, but they don't see, and they hear, but they don't understand.

Jesus explains the story about a farmer

(Matthew 13.18–23; Mark 4.13–20)

<sup>11</sup>This is what the story means: The seed is God's message,

<sup>12</sup>and the seeds that fell along the road are the people who hear the message. But the devil comes and snatches the message out of their hearts, so that they will not believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup>The seeds that fell on rocky ground are the people who gladly hear the message and accept it. But they don't have deep roots, and they believe only for a little while. As soon as life gets hard, they give up.

<sup>14</sup>The seeds that fell among the thorn bushes are also people who hear the message. But they are so eager for riches and pleasures that they never produce anything.

<sup>15</sup>Those seeds that fell on good ground are the people who listen to the message and keep it in good and honest hearts. They last and produce a harvest.

Light

(Mark 4.21–25)

Jesus continued:

<sup>16</sup>No one lights a lamp and puts it under a bowl or under a bed. A lamp is always put on a lampstand, so that people who come into a house will see the light.

<sup>17</sup>There is nothing hidden that will not be found. There is no secret that will not be well known.

<sup>18</sup>Pay attention to how you listen! Everyone who has something will be given more, but people who have nothing will lose what little they think they have.

Jesus' mother and brothers

(Matthew 12.46–50; Mark 3.31–35)

<sup>19</sup>Jesus' mother and brothers went to see him, but because of the crowd they could not get near him.

<sup>20</sup>Someone told Jesus, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside and want to see you.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered, “My mother and my brothers are those people who hear and obey God's message.”

A storm

(Matthew 8.23–27; Mark 4.35–41)

<sup>22</sup>One day, Jesus and his disciples got into a boat, and he said, “Let's cross the lake.” They started out,

<sup>23</sup>and while they were sailing across, he went to sleep. Suddenly a storm struck the lake, and the boat started sinking. They were in danger.

<sup>24</sup>So they went to Jesus and woke him up, “Master, Master! We are about to drown!” Jesus got up and ordered the wind and waves to stop. They obeyed, and everything was calm.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus asked the disciples, “Don't you have any faith?” But they were frightened and amazed. They said to each other, “Who is this? He can give orders to the wind and the waves, and they obey him!”

A man with demons in him

(Matthew 8.28–34; Mark 5.1–20)

<sup>26</sup>Jesus and his disciples sailed across Lake Galilee and came to shore near the town of Gerasa.

<sup>27</sup>As Jesus was getting out of the boat, he was met by a man from that town. The man had demons in him. He had gone naked for a long time and no longer lived in a house, but in the graveyard.

<sup>28</sup>The man saw Jesus and screamed. He knelt down in front of him and shouted, “Jesus, Son of God in heaven, what do you want with me? I beg you not to torture me!”

<sup>29</sup>He said this because Jesus had already told the evil spirit to go out of him. The man had often been attacked by the demon. And even though he had been bound with chains and leg irons and kept under guard, he smashed whatever bound him. Then the demon would force him out into lonely places.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus asked the man, “What is your name?” He answered, “My name is Lots.” He said this because there were “lots” of demons in him.

<sup>31</sup>They begged Jesus not to send them to the deep pit, where they would be punished.

<sup>32</sup>A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. So the demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and Jesus let them go.

<sup>33</sup>Then the demons left the man and went into the pigs. The whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

<sup>34</sup>When the men taking care of the pigs saw this, they ran to spread the news in the town and on the farms.

<sup>35</sup>The people went out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they also found the man. The demons had gone out of him, and he was sitting there at the feet of Jesus. He had clothes on and was in his right mind. But the people were terrified.

<sup>36</sup>Then all who had seen the man healed told about it.

<sup>37</sup>Everyone from around Gerasa begged Jesus to leave, because they were so frightened. When Jesus got into the boat to start back,

<sup>38</sup>the man who had been healed begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him off and said,

<sup>39</sup>“Go back home and tell everyone how much God has done for you.” The man then went all over town, telling everything that Jesus had done for him.

A dying girl and a sick woman

(Matthew 9.18–26; Mark 5.21–43)

<sup>40</sup>Everyone had been waiting for Jesus, and when he came back, a crowd was there to welcome him.

<sup>41</sup>Just then the man in charge of the Jewish meeting place came and knelt down in front of Jesus. His name was Jairus, and he begged Jesus to come to his home

<sup>42</sup>because his twelve-year-old child was dying. She was his only daughter. While Jesus was on his way, people were crowding all around him.

<sup>43</sup>In the crowd was a woman who had been bleeding for twelve years. She had spent everything she had on doctors, but none of them could make her well.

<sup>44</sup>As soon as she came up behind Jesus and barely touched his clothes, her bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup>“Who touched me?” Jesus asked. While everyone was denying it, Peter said, “Master, people are crowding all around and pushing you from every side.”

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus answered, “Someone touched me, because I felt power going out from me.”

<sup>47</sup>The woman knew that she could not hide, so she came trembling and knelt down in front of Jesus. She told everyone why she had touched him and that she had been healed straight away.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus said to the woman, “You are now well because of your faith. May God give you peace!”

<sup>49</sup>While Jesus was speaking, someone came from Jairus' home and said, “Your daughter has died! Why bother the teacher any more?”

<sup>50</sup>When Jesus heard this, he told Jairus, “Don't worry! Have faith, and your daughter will get well.”

<sup>51</sup>Jesus went into the house, but he did not let anyone else go with him, except Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother.

<sup>52</sup>Everyone was crying and weeping for the girl. But Jesus said, “The child isn't dead. She is just asleep.”

<sup>53</sup>The people laughed at him because they knew she was dead.

<sup>54</sup>Jesus took hold of the girl's hand and said, “Child, get up!”

<sup>55</sup>She came back to life and got straight up. Jesus told them to give her something to eat.

<sup>56</sup>Her parents were surprised, but Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9

Instructions for the twelve apostles

(Matthew 10.5–15; Mark 6.7–13)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus called together his twelve apostles and gave them complete power over all demons and diseases.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent them to tell about God's kingdom and to heal the sick.

<sup>3</sup>He told them, “Don't take anything with you! Don't take a walking stick or a travelling bag or food or money or even a change of clothes.

<sup>4</sup>When you are welcomed into a home, stay there until you leave that town.

<sup>5</sup>If people won't welcome you, leave the town and shake the dust from your feet as a warning to them.”

<sup>6</sup>The apostles left and went from village to village, telling the good news and healing people everywhere.

Herod is worried

(Matthew 14.1–12; Mark 6.14–29)

<sup>7</sup>Herod the ruler heard about all that was happening, and he was worried. Some people were saying that John the Baptist had come back to life.

<sup>8</sup>Others were saying that Elijah had come or that one of the prophets from long ago had come back to life.

<sup>9</sup>But Herod said, “I had John's head cut off! Who is this I hear so much about?” Herod was eager to meet Jesus.

Jesus feeds five thousand

(Matthew 14.13–21; Mark 6.30–44; John 6.1–14)

<sup>10</sup>The apostles came back and told Jesus everything they had done. He then took them with him to the village of Bethsaida, where they could be alone.

<sup>11</sup>But a lot of people found out about this and followed him. Jesus welcomed them. He spoke to them about God's kingdom and healed everyone who was sick.

<sup>12</sup>Late in the afternoon the twelve apostles came to Jesus and said, "Send the crowd to the villages and farms around here. They need to find a place to stay and something to eat. There is nothing in this place. It is like a desert!"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered, "You give them something to eat." But they replied, "We have only five small loaves of bread and two fish. If we are going to feed all these people, we will have to go and buy food."

<sup>14</sup>There were about five thousand men in the crowd. Jesus said to his disciples, "Tell the people to sit in groups of fifty."

<sup>15</sup>They did this, and all the people sat down.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up towards heaven and blessed the food. Then he broke the bread and fish and handed them to his disciples to give to the people.

<sup>17</sup>Everyone ate all they wanted. What was left over filled twelve baskets.

Who is Jesus?

(Matthew 16.13–19; Mark 8.27–29)

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus was alone praying, his disciples came to him, and he asked them, "What do people say about me?"

<sup>19</sup>They answered, "Some say that you are John the Baptist or Elijah or a prophet from long ago who has come back to life."

<sup>20</sup>Jesus then asked them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Messiah sent from God."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus strictly warned his disciples not to tell anyone about this.

Jesus speaks about his suffering and death

(Matthew 16.20–28; Mark 8.30—9.1)

<sup>22</sup>Jesus told his disciples, “The nation's leaders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law of Moses will make the Son of Man suffer terribly. They will reject him and kill him, but three days later he will rise to life.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to all the people: If any of you want to be my followers, you must forget about yourself. You must take up your cross each day and follow me.

<sup>24</sup>If you want to save your life, you will destroy it. But if you give up your life for me, you will save it.

<sup>25</sup>What will you gain, if you own the whole world but destroy yourself or waste your life?

<sup>26</sup>If you are ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of you when he comes in his glory and in the glory of his Father and the holy angels.

<sup>27</sup>You can be sure that some of the people standing here will not die before they see God's kingdom.

The true glory of Jesus

(Matthew 17.1–8; Mark 9.2–8)

<sup>28</sup>About eight days later Jesus took Peter, John, and James with him and went up on a mountain to pray.

<sup>29</sup>While he was praying, his face changed, and his clothes became shining white.

<sup>30</sup>Suddenly Moses and Elijah were there speaking with him.

<sup>31</sup>They appeared in heavenly glory and talked about all that Jesus' death in Jerusalem would mean.

<sup>32</sup>Peter and the other two disciples had been sound asleep. All at once they woke up and saw how glorious Jesus was. They also saw the two men who were with him.

<sup>33</sup>Moses and Elijah were about to leave, when Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” But Peter did not know what he was talking about.

<sup>34</sup>While Peter was still speaking, a shadow from a cloud passed over them, and they were frightened as the cloud covered them.

<sup>35</sup>From the cloud a voice spoke, “This is my chosen Son. Listen to what he says!”

<sup>36</sup>After the voice had spoken, Peter, John, and James saw only Jesus. For some time they kept quiet and did not say anything about what they had seen.

Jesus heals a boy

(Matthew 17.14–18; Mark 9.14–27)

<sup>37</sup>The next day Jesus and his three disciples came down from the mountain and were met by a large crowd.

<sup>38</sup>Just then someone in the crowd shouted, “Teacher, please do something for my son! He is my only child!

<sup>39</sup>A demon often attacks him and makes him scream. It shakes him until he foams at the mouth, and it won't leave him until it has completely worn the boy out.

<sup>40</sup>I begged your disciples to force out the demon, but they couldn't do it.”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, “You people are stubborn and don't have any faith! How much longer must I be with you? Why do I have to put up with you?” Then Jesus said to the man, “Bring your son to me.”

<sup>42</sup>While the boy was being brought, the demon attacked him and made him shake all over. Jesus ordered the demon to stop. Then he healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

<sup>43</sup>Everyone was amazed at God's great power.

Jesus again speaks about his death

(Matthew 17.22,23; Mark 9.30–32)

While everyone was still amazed at what Jesus was doing, he said to his disciples,

<sup>44</sup>“Pay close attention to what I am telling you! The Son of Man will be handed over to his enemies.”

<sup>45</sup>But the disciples did not know what he meant. The meaning was hidden from them. They could not understand it, and they were afraid to ask.

Who is the greatest?

(Matthew 18.1–5; Mark 9.33–37)

<sup>46</sup>Jesus' disciples were arguing about which one of them was the greatest.

<sup>47</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he had a child stand there beside him.

<sup>48</sup>Then he said to his disciples, “When you welcome even a child because of me, you welcome me. And when you welcome me, you welcome the one who sent me. Whichever one of you is the most humble is the greatest.”

For or against Jesus

(Mark 9.38–40)

<sup>49</sup>John said, “Master, we saw a man using your name to force demons out of people. But we told him to stop, because he isn't one of us.”

<sup>50</sup>“Don't stop him!” Jesus said. “Anyone who isn't against you is for you.”

Jesus goes from Galilee to Jerusalem A Samaritan village refuses to receive Jesus

<sup>51</sup>Not long before it was time for Jesus to be taken up to heaven, he made up his mind to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup>He sent some messengers on ahead to a Samaritan village to get things ready for him.

<sup>53</sup>But he was on his way to Jerusalem, so the people there refused to welcome him.

<sup>54</sup>When the disciples James and John saw what was happening, they asked, “Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to destroy these people?”

<sup>55</sup>But Jesus turned and corrected them for what they had said.

<sup>56</sup>Then they all went on to another village.

Three people who wanted to be followers

(Matthew 8.19–22)

<sup>57</sup>Along the way someone said to Jesus, “I’ll go anywhere with you!”

<sup>58</sup>Jesus said, “Foxes have dens, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man doesn't have a place to call his own.”

<sup>59</sup>Jesus told someone else to come with him. But the man said, “Lord, let me wait until I bury my father.”

<sup>60</sup>Jesus answered, “Let the dead take care of the dead, while you go and tell about God's kingdom.”

<sup>61</sup>Then someone said to Jesus, “I want to go with you, Lord, but first let me go back and take care of things at home.”

<sup>62</sup>Jesus answered, “Anyone who starts ploughing and keeps looking back isn't worth a thing to God's kingdom!”

Luke 10

The work of the seventy-two followers

<sup>1</sup>Later the Lord chose seventy-two other followers and sent them out two by two to every town and village where he was about to go.

<sup>2</sup>He said to them: A large crop is in the fields, but there are only a few workers. Ask the Lord in charge of the harvest to send out workers to bring it in.

<sup>3</sup>Now go, but remember, I am sending you like lambs into a pack of wolves.

<sup>4</sup>Don't take along a money bag or a travelling bag or sandals. And don't waste time greeting people on the road.

<sup>5</sup>As soon as you enter a home, say, “God bless this home with peace.”

<sup>6</sup>If the people living there are peace-loving, your prayer for peace will bless them. But if they are not peace-loving, your prayer will return to you.

<sup>7</sup>Stay with the same family, eating and drinking whatever they give you, because workers are worth what they earn. Don't move around from house to house.

<sup>8</sup>If the people of a town welcome you, eat whatever they offer.

<sup>9</sup>Heal their sick and say, "God's kingdom will soon be here!"

<sup>10</sup>But if the people of a town refuse to welcome you, go out into the street and say,

<sup>11</sup>"We are shaking the dust from our feet as a warning to you. And you can be sure that God's kingdom will soon be here!"

<sup>12</sup>I tell you that on the day of judgment the people of Sodom will get off easier than the people of that town!

The unbelieving towns

(Matthew 11.20–24)

Jesus continued:

<sup>13</sup>You people of Chorazin are in for trouble! You people of Bethsaida are also in for trouble! If the miracles that took place in your towns had happened in Tyre and Sidon, the people there would have turned to God long ago. They would have dressed in sackcloth and put ashes on their heads.

<sup>14</sup>On the day of judgment the people of Tyre and Sidon will get off easier than you will.

<sup>15</sup>People of Capernaum, do you think you will be honoured in heaven? Well, you will go down to hell!

<sup>16</sup>My followers, whoever listens to you is listening to me. Anyone who says "No" to you is saying "No" to me. And anyone who says "No" to me is really saying "No" to the one who sent me.

The return of the seventy-two

<sup>17</sup>When the seventy-two followers returned, they were excited and said, “Lord, even the demons obeyed when we spoke in your name!”

<sup>18</sup>Jesus told them: I saw Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.

<sup>19</sup>I have given you the power to trample on snakes and scorpions and to defeat the power of your enemy Satan. Nothing can harm you.

<sup>20</sup>But don't be happy because evil spirits obey you. Be happy that your names are written in heaven!

Jesus thanks his Father

(Matthew 11.25–27; 13.16,17)

<sup>21</sup>At that same time, Jesus felt the joy that comes from the Holy Spirit, and he said: My Father, Lord of heaven and earth, I am grateful that you hid all this from wise and educated people and showed it to ordinary people. Yes, Father, that is what pleased you.

<sup>22</sup>My Father has given me everything, and he is the only one who knows the Son. The only one who really knows the Father is the Son. But the Son wants to tell others about the Father, so that they can know him too.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus then turned to his disciples and said to them in private, “You are really blessed to see what you see!

<sup>24</sup>Many prophets and kings were eager to see what you see and to hear what you hear. But I tell you that they did not see or hear.”

The good Samaritan

<sup>25</sup>An expert in the Law of Moses stood up and asked Jesus a question to see what he would say. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to have eternal life?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, “What is written in the Scriptures? How do you understand them?”

<sup>27</sup>The man replied, “The Scriptures say, ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind. ’ They also say, ‘Love your neighbours as much as you love yourself. ’ ”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus said, “You have given the right answer. If you do this, you will have eternal life.”

<sup>29</sup>But the man wanted to show that he knew what he was talking about. So he asked Jesus, “Who are my neighbours?”

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied: As a man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, robbers attacked him and grabbed everything he had. They beat him up and ran off, leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup>A priest happened to be going down the same road. But when he saw the man, he walked by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup>Later a temple helper came to the same place. But when he saw the man who had been beaten up, he also went by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup>A man from Samaria then came travelling along that road. When he saw the man, he felt sorry for him

<sup>34</sup>and went over to him. He treated his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put him on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning he gave the innkeeper two silver coins and said, “Please take care of the man. If you spend more than this on him, I will pay you when I return.”

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus asked, “Which one of these three people was a real neighbour to the man who was beaten up by robbers?”

<sup>37</sup>The teacher answered, “The one who showed pity.” Jesus said, “Go and do the same!”

Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup>The Lord and his disciples were travelling along and came to a village. When they got there, a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

<sup>39</sup>She had a sister named Mary, who sat down in front of the Lord and was listening to what he said.

<sup>40</sup>Martha was worried about all that had to be done. Finally, she went to Jesus and said, “Lord, doesn't it bother you that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her to come and help me!”

<sup>41</sup>The Lord answered, “Martha, Martha! You are worried and upset about so many things, <sup>42</sup>but only one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen what is best, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11

Prayer

(Matthew 6.9–13; 7.7–11)

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished praying, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his followers to pray.”

<sup>2</sup>So Jesus told them, “Pray in this way: ‘Father, help us to honour your name. Come and set up your kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>Give us each day the food we need.

<sup>4</sup>Forgive our sins, as we forgive everyone who has done wrong to us. And keep us from being tempted. ’ ”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jesus went on to say: Suppose one of you goes to a friend in the middle of the night and says, “Let me borrow three loaves of bread.

<sup>6</sup>A friend of mine has dropped in, and I don't have a thing for him to eat.”

<sup>7</sup>And suppose your friend answers, “Don't bother me! The door is bolted, and my children and I are in bed. I cannot get up to give you something.”

<sup>8</sup>He may not get up and give you the bread, just because you are his friend. But he will get up and give you as much as you need, simply because you are not ashamed to keep on asking.

<sup>9</sup>So I tell you to ask and you will receive, search and you will find, knock and the door will be opened for you.

<sup>10</sup>Everyone who asks will receive, everyone who searches will find, and the door will be opened for everyone who knocks.

<sup>11</sup>Which one of you fathers would give your hungry child a snake if the child asked for a fish?

<sup>12</sup>Which one of you would give your child a scorpion if the child asked for an egg?

<sup>13</sup>As bad as you are, you still know how to give good gifts to your children. But your heavenly Father is even more ready to give the Holy Spirit to anyone who asks.

Jesus and the ruler of demons

(Matthew 12.22–30; Mark 3.20–27)

<sup>14</sup>Jesus forced a demon out of a man who could not talk. And after the demon had gone out, the man started speaking, and the crowds were amazed.

<sup>15</sup>But some people said, “He forces out demons by the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons!”

<sup>16</sup>Others wanted to put Jesus to the test. So they asked him to show them a sign from God.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, and he said: A kingdom where people fight each other will end up in ruin. And a family that fights will break up.

<sup>18</sup>If Satan fights against himself, how can his kingdom last? Yet you say that I force out demons by the power of Beelzebul.

<sup>19</sup>If I use his power to force out demons, whose power do your own followers use to force them out? They are the ones who will judge you.

<sup>20</sup>But if I use God's power to force out demons, it proves that God's kingdom has already come to you.

<sup>21</sup>When a strong man arms himself and guards his home, everything he owns is safe.

<sup>22</sup>But if a stronger man comes and defeats him, he will carry off the weapons in which the strong man trusted. Then he will divide with others what he has taken.

<sup>23</sup>If you are not on my side, you are against me. If you don't gather in the crop with me, you scatter it.

Return of an evil spirit

(Matthew 12.43–45)

Jesus continued:

<sup>24</sup>When an evil spirit leaves a person, it travels through the desert, looking for a place to rest. But when it doesn't find a place, it says, "I will go back to the home I left."

<sup>25</sup>When it gets there and finds the place clean and tidy,

<sup>26</sup>it goes off and finds seven other evil spirits even worse than itself. They all come and make their home there, and that person ends up in a worse state than before.

Being really blessed

<sup>27</sup>While Jesus was still talking, a woman in the crowd spoke up, "The woman who gave birth to you and nursed you is blessed!"

<sup>28</sup>Jesus replied, "That's true, but the people who are really blessed are the ones who hear and obey God's message!"

A sign from God

(Matthew 12.38–42; Mark 8.12)

<sup>29</sup>As crowds were gathering around Jesus, he said: You people of today are evil! You keep looking for a sign from God. But what happened to Jonah is the only sign you will be given.

<sup>30</sup> Just as Jonah was a sign to the people of Nineveh, the Son of Man will be a sign to the people of today.

<sup>31</sup> When the judgment comes, the Queen of the South will stand there with you and condemn you. She travelled a long way to hear Solomon's wisdom, and yet here is something far greater than Solomon.

<sup>32</sup> The people of Nineveh will also stand there with you and condemn you. They turned to God when Jonah preached, and yet here is something far greater than Jonah.

Light

(Matthew 5.15; 6.22,23)

Jesus continued:

<sup>33</sup> No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a clay pot. A lamp is put on a lampstand, so that everyone who comes into the house can see the light.

<sup>34</sup> Your eyes are the lamp for your body. When your eyes are good, you have all the light you need. But when your eyes are bad, everything is dark.

<sup>35</sup> So be sure that your light isn't darkness.

<sup>36</sup> If you have light, and nothing is dark, then light will be everywhere, as when a lamp shines brightly on you.

Jesus condemns the Pharisees and teachers of the Law of Moses

(Matthew 23.1–36; Mark 12.38–40; Luke 20.45–47)

<sup>37</sup> When Jesus finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him home for a meal. Jesus went and sat down to eat.

<sup>38</sup> The Pharisee was surprised that he did not wash his hands before eating.

<sup>39</sup> So the Lord said to him: You Pharisees clean the outside of cups and dishes, but on the inside you are greedy and evil.

<sup>40</sup> You fools! Didn't God make both the outside and the inside?

<sup>41</sup>If you would only give what you have to the poor, everything you do would please God.

<sup>42</sup>You Pharisees are in for trouble! You give God a tenth of the spices from your gardens, such as mint and rue. But you cheat people, and you don't love God. You should be fair and kind to others and still give a tenth to God.

<sup>43</sup>You Pharisees are in for trouble! You love the front seats in the meeting places, and you like to be greeted with honour in the market.

<sup>44</sup>But you are in for trouble! You are like unmarked graves that people walk on without even knowing it.

<sup>45</sup>A teacher of the Law of Moses spoke up, "Teacher, you said cruel things about us."

<sup>46</sup>Jesus replied: You teachers are also in for trouble! You load people down with heavy burdens, but you won't lift a finger to help them carry the loads.

<sup>47</sup>Yes, you are really in for trouble. You build monuments to honour the prophets your own people murdered long ago.

<sup>48</sup>You must think that was the right thing for your people to do, or else you would not have built monuments for the prophets they murdered.

<sup>49</sup>Because of your evil deeds, the Wisdom of God said, "I will send prophets and apostles to you. But you will murder some and ill-treat others."

<sup>50</sup>You people living today will be punished for all the prophets who have been murdered since the beginning of the world.

<sup>51</sup>This includes every prophet from the time of Abel to the time of Zechariah, who was murdered between the altar and the temple. You people will certainly be punished for all this.

<sup>52</sup>You teachers of the Law of Moses are really in for trouble! You carry the keys to the door of knowledge about God. But you never go in, and you keep others from going in.

<sup>53</sup>Jesus was about to leave, but the teachers and the Pharisees wanted to get even with him. They tried to make him say what he thought about other things, <sup>54</sup>so that they could catch him saying something wrong.

Luke 12

Warnings

<sup>1</sup>As thousands of people crowded around Jesus and were stepping on each other, he told his disciples: Be sure to guard against the dishonest teaching of the Pharisees! It is their way of fooling people.

<sup>2</sup>Everything that is hidden will be found out, and every secret will be known.

<sup>3</sup>Whatever you say in the dark will be heard when it is day. Whatever you whisper in a closed room will be shouted from the housetops.

The one to fear (Matthew 10.28–31)

Jesus continued:

<sup>4</sup>My friends, don't be afraid of people. They can kill you, but after that, there is nothing else they can do.

<sup>5</sup>God is the one you must fear. Not only can he take your life, but he can throw you into hell. God is certainly the one you should fear!

<sup>6</sup>Five sparrows are sold for just two pennies, but God doesn't forget a single one of them.

<sup>7</sup>Even the hairs on your head are counted. So don't be afraid! You are worth much more than many sparrows.

Telling others about Christ (Matthew 10.32,33; 12.32; 10.19,20)

Jesus continued:

<sup>8</sup>If you tell others that you belong to me, the Son of Man will tell God's angels that you are my followers.

<sup>9</sup>But if you reject me, you will be rejected in front of them.

<sup>10</sup>If you speak against the Son of Man, you can be forgiven, but if you speak against the Holy Spirit, you cannot be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>When you are brought to trial in the Jewish meeting places or before rulers or officials, don't worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say.

<sup>12</sup>At that time the Holy Spirit will tell you what to say.

A rich fool

<sup>13</sup>A man in a crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to give me my share of what our father left us when he died.”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus answered, “Who gave me the right to settle arguments between you and your brother?”

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to the crowd, “Don't be greedy! Owning a lot of things won't make your life safe.”

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus told them this story: A rich man's farm produced a big crop,

<sup>17</sup>and he said to himself, “What can I do? I don't have a place large enough to store everything.”

<sup>18</sup>Later, he said, “Now I know what I'll do. I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones, where I can store all my grain and other goods.

<sup>19</sup>Then I'll say to myself, ‘You have stored up enough good things to last for years to come. Live it up! Eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.’ ”

<sup>20</sup>But God said to him, “You fool! Tonight you will die. Then who will get what you have stored up?”

<sup>21</sup>“This is what happens to people who store up everything for themselves, but are poor in the sight of God.”

Worry

(Matthew 6.25–34)

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: I tell you not to worry about your life! Don't worry about having something to eat or wear.

<sup>23</sup>Life is more than food or clothing.

<sup>24</sup>Look at the crows! They don't plant or harvest, and they don't have storehouses or barns. But God takes care of them. You are much more important than any birds.

<sup>25</sup>Can worry make you live longer?

<sup>26</sup>If you don't have power over small things, why worry about everything else?

<sup>27</sup>Look how the wild flowers grow! They don't work hard to make their clothes. But I tell you that Solomon with all his wealth wasn't as well clothed as one of these flowers.

<sup>28</sup>God gives such beauty to everything that grows in the fields, even though it is here today and thrown into a fire tomorrow. Won't he do even more for you? You have such little faith!

<sup>29</sup>Don't keep worrying about having something to eat or drink.

<sup>30</sup>Only people who don't know God are always worrying about such things. Your Father knows what you need.

<sup>31</sup>But put God's work first, and these things will be yours as well.

Treasures in heaven

(Matthew 6.19–21)

Jesus continued:

<sup>32</sup>My little group of disciples, don't be afraid! Your Father wants to give you the kingdom.

<sup>33</sup>Sell what you have and give the money to the poor. Make yourselves money bags that never wear out. Make sure your treasure is safe in heaven, where thieves cannot steal it and moths cannot destroy it.

<sup>34</sup>Your heart will always be where your treasure is.

Faithful and unfaithful servants
(Matthew 24.45–51)

Jesus continued:

<sup>35</sup>Be ready and keep your lamps burning

<sup>36</sup>just like those servants who wait up for their master to return from a wedding feast. As soon as he comes and knocks, they open the door for him.

<sup>37</sup>Servants are fortunate if their master finds them awake and ready when he comes! I promise you that he will get ready and make his servants sit down so that he can serve them.

<sup>38</sup>Those servants are really fortunate if their master finds them ready, even though he comes late at night or early in the morning.

<sup>39</sup>You would not let a thief break into your home, if you knew when the thief was coming.

<sup>40</sup>So always be ready! You don't know when the Son of Man will come.

<sup>41</sup>Peter asked Jesus, “Did you say this just for us or for everyone?”

<sup>42</sup>The Lord answered: Who are faithful and wise servants? Who are the ones the master will put in charge of giving the other servants their food supplies at the proper time?

<sup>43</sup>Servants are fortunate if their master comes and finds them doing their job.

<sup>44</sup>A servant who is always faithful will be put in charge of everything the master owns.

<sup>45</sup>But suppose one of the servants thinks that the master won't return until late. Suppose that servant starts beating all the other servants and eats and drinks and gets drunk.

<sup>46</sup>If that happens, the master will come on a day and at a time when the servant least expects him. That servant will then be punished and thrown out with the servants who cannot be trusted.

<sup>47</sup>If servants are not ready or willing to do what their master wants them to do, they will be beaten hard.

<sup>48</sup>But servants who don't know what their master wants them to do will not be beaten so hard for doing wrong. If God has been generous with you, he will expect you to serve him well. But if he has been more than generous, he will expect you to serve him even better.

Not peace, but trouble

(Matthew 10.34–36)

Jesus continued:

<sup>49</sup>I came to set fire to the earth, and I wish it were already on fire!

<sup>50</sup>I am going to be put to a hard test. And I will have to suffer a lot of pain until it is over.

<sup>51</sup>Do you think that I came to bring peace to earth? No indeed! I came to make people choose sides.

<sup>52</sup>A family of five will be divided, with two of them against the other three.

<sup>53</sup>Fathers and sons will turn against one another, and mothers and daughters will do the same. Mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law will also turn against each other.

Knowing what to do

(Matthew 16.2,3; 5.25,26)

<sup>54</sup>Jesus said to all the people: As soon as you see a cloud coming up in the west, you say, "It's going to rain," and it does.

<sup>55</sup>When the south wind blows, you say, “It’s going to get hot,” and it does.

<sup>56</sup>Are you trying to fool someone? You can predict the weather by looking at the earth and sky, but you don’t really know what’s going on right now.

<sup>57</sup>Why don’t you understand the right thing to do?

<sup>58</sup>When someone accuses you of something, try to settle things before you are taken to court. If you don’t, you will be dragged before the judge. Then the judge will hand you over to the jailer, and you will be locked up.

<sup>59</sup>You won’t get out until you have paid the last penny you owe.

Luke 13

Turn back to God

<sup>1</sup>About this same time Jesus was told that Pilate had given orders for some people from Galilee to be killed while they were offering sacrifices.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus replied: Do you think that these people were worse sinners than everyone else in Galilee just because of what happened to them?

<sup>3</sup>Not at all! But you can be sure that if you don’t turn back to God, every one of you will also be killed.

<sup>4</sup>What about those eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Do you think they were worse than everyone else in Jerusalem?

<sup>5</sup>Not at all! But you can be sure that if you don’t turn back to God, every one of you will also die.

A story about a fig tree

<sup>6</sup>Jesus then told them this story: A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard. One day he went out to pick some figs, but he didn’t find any.

<sup>7</sup>So he said to the gardener, “For three years I have come looking for figs on this tree, and I haven’t found any yet. Chop it down! Why should it take up space?”

<sup>8</sup>The gardener answered, “Master, leave it for another year. I’ll dig around it and put some manure on it to make it grow.

<sup>9</sup>Perhaps it will have figs on it next year. If it doesn’t, you can have it cut down.”

Healing a woman on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup>One Sabbath, Jesus was teaching in a Jewish meeting place,

<sup>11</sup>and a woman was there who had been crippled by an evil spirit for eighteen years. She was completely bent over and could not straighten up.

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw the woman, he called her over and said, “You are now well.”

<sup>13</sup>He placed his hands on her, and at once she stood up straight and praised God.

<sup>14</sup>The man in charge of the meeting place was angry because Jesus had healed someone on the Sabbath. So he said to the people, “Each week has six days when we can work. Come and be healed on one of those days, but not on the Sabbath.”

<sup>15</sup>The Lord replied, “Are you trying to fool someone? Won’t any one of you untie your ox or donkey and lead it out to drink on a Sabbath?”

<sup>16</sup>This woman belongs to the family of Abraham, but Satan has kept her bound for eighteen years. Isn’t it right to set her free on the Sabbath?”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus’ words made his enemies ashamed. But everyone else in the crowd was happy about the wonderful things he was doing.

A mustard seed and yeast

(Matthew 13.31–33; Mark 4.30–32)

<sup>18</sup>Jesus said, “What is God’s kingdom like? What can I compare it with?”

<sup>19</sup>It is like what happens when someone plants a mustard seed in a garden. The seed grows as big as a tree, and birds nest in its branches.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus said, “What can I compare God’s kingdom with?”

<sup>21</sup>It is like what happens when a woman mixes yeast into three batches of flour. Finally, all the dough rises.”

The narrow door
(Matthew 7.13,14,21–23)

<sup>22</sup>As Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he taught the people in the towns and villages.

<sup>23</sup>Someone asked him, “Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?” Jesus answered:

<sup>24</sup>Do all you can to go in by the narrow door! A lot of people will try to get in, but will not be able to.

<sup>25</sup>Once the owner of the house gets up and locks the door, you will be left standing outside. You will knock on the door and say, “Sir, open the door for us!” But the owner will answer, “I don't know a thing about you!”

<sup>26</sup>Then you will start saying, “We dined with you, and you taught in our streets.”

<sup>27</sup>But he will say, “I really don't know who you are! Get away from me, you evil people!”

<sup>28</sup> Then when you have been thrown outside, you will weep and grit your teeth because you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in God's kingdom.

<sup>29</sup>People will come from all directions and sit down to feast in God's kingdom.

<sup>30</sup> There the ones who are now least important will be the most important, and those who are now most important will be least important.

Jesus and Herod

<sup>31</sup>At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said, “You had better get away from here! Herod wants to kill you.”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus said to them: Go and tell that fox, “I am going to force out demons and heal people today and tomorrow, and three days later I’ll have finished.”

<sup>33</sup>But I am going on my way today and tomorrow and the next day. After all, Jerusalem is the place where prophets are killed.

Jesus loves Jerusalem

(Matthew 23.37–39)

Jesus continued:

<sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Your people have killed the prophets and have stoned the messengers who were sent to you. I have often wanted to gather your people, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you wouldn't let me.

<sup>35</sup>Now your temple will be deserted. You won't see me again until the time when you say, “Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.”

Luke 14

Jesus heals a sick man

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath, Jesus was having dinner in the home of an important Pharisee, and everyone was carefully watching Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>All of a sudden a man with swollen legs stood up in front of him.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus turned and asked the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law of Moses, “Is it right to heal on the Sabbath?”

<sup>4</sup>But they did not say a word. Jesus took hold of the man. Then he healed him and sent him away.

<sup>5</sup>Afterwards, Jesus asked the people, “If your son or ox falls into a well, wouldn't you pull him out straight away, even on the Sabbath?”

<sup>6</sup>There was nothing they could say.

How to be a guest

<sup>7</sup>Jesus saw how the guests had tried to take the best seats. So he told them:

<sup>8</sup>When you are invited to a wedding feast, don't sit in the best place. Someone more important may have been invited.

<sup>9</sup>Then the one who invited you will come and say, "Give your place to this other guest!" You will be embarrassed and will have to sit in the worst place.

<sup>10</sup>When you are invited to be a guest, go and sit in the worst place. Then the one who invited you may come and say, "My friend, take a better seat!" You will then be honoured in front of all the other guests.

<sup>11</sup>If you put yourself above others, you will be put down. But if you humble yourself, you will be honoured.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus said to the man who had invited him: When you give a dinner or a banquet, don't invite your friends and family and relatives and rich neighbours. If you do, they will invite you in return, and you will be paid back.

<sup>13</sup>When you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

<sup>14</sup>They cannot pay you back. But God will bless you and reward you when his people rise from death.

The great banquet

(Matthew 22.1–10)

<sup>15</sup>After Jesus had finished speaking, one of the guests said, "The greatest blessing of all is to be at the banquet in God's kingdom!"

<sup>16</sup>Jesus told him: A man once gave a great banquet and invited a lot of guests.

<sup>17</sup>When the banquet was ready, he sent a servant to tell the guests, "Everything is ready! Please come."

<sup>18</sup>One guest after another started making excuses. The first one said, "I bought some land, and I've got to look it over. Please excuse me."

<sup>19</sup>Another guest said, “I bought five teams of oxen, and I need to try them out. Please excuse me.”

<sup>20</sup>Still another guest said, “I have just got married, and I can't be there.”

<sup>21</sup>The servant told his master what happened, and the master became so angry that he said, “Go as fast as you can to every street and alley in town! Bring in everyone who is poor or crippled or blind or lame.”

<sup>22</sup>When the servant returned, he said, “Master, I've done what you told me, and there is still plenty of room for more people.”

<sup>23</sup>His master then told him, “Go out along the back roads and lanes and make people come in, so that my house will be full.

<sup>24</sup>Not one of the guests I first invited will get even a bite of my food!”

Being a disciple

(Matthew 10.37,38)

<sup>25</sup>Large crowds were walking along with Jesus, when he turned and said:

<sup>26</sup>You cannot be my disciple, unless you love me more than you love your father and mother, your wife and children, and your brothers and sisters. You cannot come with me unless you love me more than you love your own life.

<sup>27</sup>You cannot be my disciple unless you carry your own cross and come with me.

<sup>28</sup>Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. What is the first thing you will do? Won't you sit down and figure out how much it will cost and if you have enough money to pay for it?

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, you will start building the tower, but not be able to finish. Then everyone who sees what is happening will laugh at you.

<sup>30</sup>They will say, “You started building, but could not finish the job.”

<sup>31</sup>What will a king do if he has only ten thousand soldiers to defend himself against a king who is about to attack him with twenty thousand soldiers? Before he goes out to battle, won't he first sit down and decide if he can win?

<sup>32</sup>If he thinks he won't be able to defend himself, he will send messengers and ask for peace while the other king is still a long way off.

<sup>33</sup>So then, you cannot be my disciple unless you give away everything you own.

Salt

(Matthew 5.13; Mark 9.50)

Jesus continued:

<sup>34</sup>Salt is good, but if it no longer tastes like salt, how can it be made to taste salty again?

<sup>35</sup>It is no longer good for the soil or even for the manure pile. People simply throw it out. If you have ears, pay attention!

Luke 15

One sheep

(Matthew 18.12–14)

<sup>1</sup>Tax collectors and sinners were all crowding around to listen to Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>So the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law of Moses started grumbling, “This man is friendly with sinners. He even eats with them.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Jesus told them this story:

<sup>4</sup>If any of you has a hundred sheep, and one of them gets lost, what will you do? Won't you leave the ninety-nine in the field and go and look for the lost sheep until you find it?

<sup>5</sup>And when you find it, you will be so glad that you will put it on your shoulder

<sup>6</sup>and carry it home. Then you will call in your friends and neighbours and say, “Let's celebrate! I've found my lost sheep.”

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said, “In the same way there is more happiness in heaven because of one sinner who turns to God than over ninety-nine good people who don't need to.”

One coin

<sup>8</sup>Jesus told the people another story: What will a woman do if she has ten silver coins and loses one of them? Won't she light a lamp, sweep the floor, and look carefully until she finds it?

<sup>9</sup>Then she will call in her friends and neighbours and say, “Let's celebrate! I've found the coin I lost.”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, “In the same way God's angels are happy when even one person turns to him.”

Two sons

<sup>11</sup>Jesus also told them another story: Once a man had two sons.

<sup>12</sup>The younger son said to his father, “Give me my share of the property.” So the father divided his property between his two sons.

<sup>13</sup>Not long after that, the younger son packed up everything he owned and left for a foreign country, where he wasted all his money in wild living.

<sup>14</sup>He had spent everything, when a bad famine spread through that whole land. Soon he had nothing to eat.

<sup>15</sup>He went to work for a man in that country, and the man sent him out to take care of his pigs.

<sup>16</sup>He would have been glad to eat what the pigs were eating, but no one gave him a thing.

<sup>17</sup>Finally, he came to his senses and said, “My father's workers have plenty to eat, and here I am, starving to death!

<sup>18</sup>I will go to my father and say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against God in heaven and against you.

<sup>19</sup>I am no longer good enough to be called your son. Treat me like one of your workers. ' ”

<sup>20</sup>The younger son got up and started back to his father. But when he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt sorry for him. He ran to his son and hugged and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup>The son said, “Father, I have sinned against God in heaven and against you. I am no longer good enough to be called your son.”

<sup>22</sup>But his father said to the servants, “Hurry and bring the best clothes and put them on him. Give him a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet.

<sup>23</sup>Get the best calf and prepare it, so we can eat and celebrate.

<sup>24</sup>This son of mine was dead, but has now come back to life. He was lost and has now been found.” And they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup>The elder son had been out in the field. But when he came near the house, he heard the music and dancing.

<sup>26</sup>So he called one of the servants over and asked, “What's going on here?”

<sup>27</sup>The servant answered, “Your brother has come home safe and sound, and your father ordered us to kill the best calf.”

<sup>28</sup>The elder brother got so angry that he would not even go into the house. His father came out and begged him to go in.

<sup>29</sup>But he said to his father, “For years I have worked for you like a slave and have always obeyed you. But you have never even given me a little goat, so that I could give a dinner for my friends.

<sup>30</sup>This other son of yours wasted your money on prostitutes. And now that he has come home, you ordered the best calf to be killed for a feast.”

<sup>31</sup>His father replied, “My son, you are always with me, and everything I have is yours.

<sup>32</sup>But we should be glad and celebrate! Your brother was dead, but he is now alive. He was lost and has now been found.”

Luke 16

A dishonest manager

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: A rich man once had a manager to take care of his business. But he was told that his manager was wasting money.

<sup>2</sup>So the rich man called him in and said, “What is this I hear about you? Tell me what you have done! You are no longer going to work for me.”

<sup>3</sup>The manager said to himself, “What shall I do now that my master is going to fire me? I can't dig ditches, and I'm ashamed to beg.

<sup>4</sup>I know what I'll do, so that people will welcome me into their homes after I've lost my job.”

<sup>5</sup>Then one by one he called in the people who were in debt to his master. He asked the first one, “How much do you owe my master?”

<sup>6</sup>“A hundred barrels of olive oil,” the man answered. So the manager said, “Take your bill and sit down and quickly write ‘fifty’.”

<sup>7</sup>The manager asked someone else who was in debt to his master, “How much do you owe?” “A thousand sacks of wheat,” the man replied. The manager said, “Take your bill and write ‘eight hundred’.”

<sup>8</sup>The master praised his dishonest manager for looking out for himself so well. That's how it is! The people of this world look out for themselves better than the people who belong to the light.

<sup>9</sup>My disciples, I tell you to use wicked wealth to make friends for yourselves. Then when it is gone, you will be welcomed into an eternal home.

<sup>10</sup>Anyone who can be trusted in little matters can also be trusted in important matters. But anyone who is dishonest in little matters will be dishonest in important matters.

11If you cannot be trusted with this wicked wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?

12And if you cannot be trusted with what belongs to someone else, who will give you something that will be your own?

13You cannot be the slave of two masters. You will like one more than the other or be more loyal to one than to the other. You cannot serve God and money.

Some sayings of Jesus

(Matthew 11.12,13; 5.31,32; Mark 10.11,12)

14The Pharisees really loved money. So when they heard what Jesus said, they made fun of him.

15But Jesus told them: You are always making yourselves look good, but God sees what is in your heart. The things that most people think are important are worthless as far as God is concerned.

16Until the time of John the Baptist, people had to obey the Law of Moses and the Books of the Prophets. But since God's kingdom has been preached, everyone is trying hard to get in.

17Heaven and earth will disappear before the smallest letter of the Law does.

18It is a terrible sin for a man to divorce his wife and marry another woman. It is also a terrible sin for a man to marry a divorced woman.

Lazarus and the rich man

Jesus continued:

19There was once a rich man who wore expensive clothes and every day ate the best food.

20But a poor beggar named Lazarus was brought to the gate of the rich man's house.

21He was happy just to eat the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. His body was covered with sores, and dogs kept coming up to lick them.

<sup>22</sup>The poor man died, and angels took him to the place of honour next to Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>23</sup>He went to hell and was suffering terribly. When he looked up and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side,

<sup>24</sup>he said to Abraham, “Have pity on me! Send Lazarus to dip his finger in water and touch my tongue. I'm suffering terribly in this fire.”

<sup>25</sup>Abraham answered, “My friend, remember that while you lived, you had everything good, and Lazarus had everything bad. Now he is happy, and you are in pain.

<sup>26</sup>And besides, there is a deep ditch between us, and no one from either side can cross over.”

<sup>27</sup>But the rich man said, “Abraham, then please send Lazarus to my father's home.

<sup>28</sup>Let him warn my five brothers, so they won't come to this horrible place.”

<sup>29</sup>Abraham answered, “Your brothers can read what Moses and the prophets wrote. They should pay attention to that.”

<sup>30</sup>Then the rich man said, “No, that's not enough! If only someone from the dead would go to them, they would listen and turn to God.”

<sup>31</sup>So Abraham said, “If they won't pay attention to Moses and the prophets, they won't listen even to someone who comes back from the dead.”

Luke 17

Faith and service

(Matthew 18.6,7,21,22; Mark 9.42)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: There will always be something that causes people to sin. But anyone who causes them to sin is in for trouble. A person who causes even one of my little followers to sin

<sup>2</sup>would be better off thrown into the ocean with a heavy stone tied around their neck.

<sup>3</sup>So be careful what you do. Correct any followers of mine who sin, and forgive the ones who say they are sorry.

<sup>4</sup>Even if one of them ill-treats you seven times in one day and says, “I am sorry,” you should still forgive that person.

<sup>5</sup>The apostles said to the Lord, “Make our faith stronger!”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied: If you had faith no bigger than a tiny mustard seed, you could tell this mulberry tree to pull itself up, roots and all, and to plant itself in the ocean. And it would!

<sup>7</sup>If your servant comes in from ploughing or from taking care of the sheep, would you say, “Welcome! Come on in and have something to eat”?

<sup>8</sup>No, you wouldn't say that. You would say, “Prepare me something to eat. Get ready to serve me, so I can have my meal. Then later on you can eat and drink.”

<sup>9</sup>Servants don't deserve special thanks for doing what they are supposed to do.

<sup>10</sup>And that's how it should be with you. When you've done all you should, then say, “We are merely servants, and we have simply done our duty.”

Ten men with leprosy

<sup>11</sup>On his way to Jerusalem, Jesus went along the border between Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup>As he was going into a village, ten men with leprosy came towards him. They stood at a distance

<sup>13</sup>and shouted, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus looked at them and said, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” On their way they were healed.

<sup>15</sup>When one of them discovered that he was healed, he came back, shouting praises to God.

<sup>16</sup>He bowed down at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was from the country of Samaria.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus asked, “Weren't ten men healed? Where are the other nine?”

<sup>18</sup>Why was this foreigner the only one who came back to thank God?”

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus told the man, “You may get up and go. Your faith has made you well.”

God's kingdom

(Matthew 24.23–28,37–41)

<sup>20</sup>Some Pharisees asked Jesus when God's kingdom would come. He answered, “God's kingdom isn't something you can see.

<sup>21</sup>There is no use saying, ‘Look! Here it is’ or ‘Look! There it is.’ God's kingdom is here with you.”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: The time will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not.

<sup>23</sup>When people say to you, “Look there,” or “Look here,” don't go looking for him.

<sup>24</sup>The day of the Son of Man will be like lightning flashing across the sky.

<sup>25</sup>But first he must suffer terribly and be rejected by the people of today.

<sup>26</sup>When the Son of Man comes, things will be just as they were when Noah lived.

<sup>27</sup>People were eating, drinking, and getting married right up to the day when Noah went into the big boat. Then the flood came and drowned everyone on earth.

<sup>28</sup>When Lot lived, people were also eating and drinking. They were buying, selling, planting, and building.

<sup>29</sup>But on the very day Lot left Sodom, fiery flames poured down from the sky and killed everyone.

<sup>30</sup>The same will happen on the day when the Son of Man appears.

<sup>31</sup>At that time no one on a rooftop should go down into the house to get anything. No one in a field should go back to the house for anything.

<sup>32</sup>Remember what happened to Lot's wife.

<sup>33</sup>People who try to save their lives will lose them, and those who lose their lives will save them.

<sup>34</sup>On that night two people will be sleeping in the same bed, but only one will be taken. The other will be left.

<sup>35-36</sup>Two women will be together grinding wheat, but only one will be taken. The other will be left.

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus' disciples spoke up, "But where will this happen, Lord?" Jesus said, "Where there is a corpse, there will always be vultures."

Luke 18

A widow and a judge

<sup>1</sup>Jesus told his disciples a story about how they should keep on praying and never give up:

<sup>2</sup>In a town there was once a judge who didn't fear God or care about people.

<sup>3</sup>In that same town there was a widow who kept going to the judge and saying, "Make sure that I get fair treatment in court."

<sup>4</sup>For a while the judge refused to do anything. Finally, he said to himself, "Even though I don't fear God or care about people,

<sup>5</sup>I will help this widow because she keeps on bothering me. If I don't help her, she will wear me out."

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said: Think about what that crooked judge said.

<sup>7</sup>Won't God protect his chosen ones who pray to him day and night? Won't he be concerned for them?

<sup>8</sup>He will hurry and help them. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find on this earth anyone with faith?

A Pharisee and a tax collector

<sup>9</sup>Jesus told a story to some people who thought they were better than others and who looked down on everyone else:

<sup>10</sup>Two men went into the temple to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood over by himself and prayed, “God, I thank you that I am not greedy, dishonest, and unfaithful in marriage like other people. And I am really glad that I am not like that tax collector over there.

<sup>12</sup>I go without eating for two days a week, and I give you one tenth of all I earn.”

<sup>13</sup>The tax collector stood off at a distance and did not think he was good enough even to look up towards heaven. He was so sorry for what he had done that he pounded his chest and prayed, “God, have pity on me! I am such a sinner.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said, “When the two men went home, it was the tax collector and not the Pharisee who was pleasing to God. If you put yourself above others, you will be put down. But if you humble yourself, you will be honoured.”

Jesus blesses little children

(Matthew 19.13–15; Mark 10.13–16)

<sup>15</sup>Some people brought their little children for Jesus to bless. But when his disciples saw them doing this, they told the people to stop bothering him.

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus called the children over to him and said, “Let the children come to me! Don't try to stop them. People who are like these children belong to God's kingdom.

17You will never get into God's kingdom unless you enter it like a child!"

A rich and important man
(Matthew 19.16–30; Mark 10.17–31)

18An important man asked Jesus, "Good Teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?"

19Jesus said, "Why do you call me good? Only God is good.

20You know the commandments: 'Be faithful in marriage. Do not murder. Do not steal. Do not tell lies about others. Respect your father and mother. ' "

21He told Jesus, "I have obeyed all these commandments since I was a young man."

22When Jesus heard this, he said, "There is one thing you still need to do. Go and sell everything you own! Give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come and be my follower."

23When the man heard this, he was sad, because he was very rich.

24Jesus saw how sad the man was. So he said, "It's terribly hard for rich people to get into God's kingdom!

25In fact, it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to get into God's kingdom."

26When the crowd heard this, they asked, "How can anyone ever be saved?"

27Jesus replied, "There are some things that people cannot do, but God can do anything."

28Peter said, "Remember, we left everything to be your followers!"

29Jesus answered, "You can be sure that anyone who gives up home or wife or brothers or family or children because of God's kingdom

30will be given much more in this life. And in the future world they will have eternal life."

Jesus again tells about his death
(Matthew 20.17–19; Mark 10.32–34)

<sup>31</sup>Jesus took the twelve apostles aside and said: We are now on our way to Jerusalem. Everything that the prophets wrote about the Son of Man will happen there.

<sup>32</sup>He will be handed over to foreigners, who will make fun of him, ill-treat him, and spit on him.

<sup>33</sup>They will beat him and kill him, but three days later he will rise to life.

<sup>34</sup>The apostles did not understand what Jesus was talking about. They could not understand, because the meaning of what he said was hidden from them.

Jesus heals a blind beggar
(Matthew 20.29–34; Mark 10.46–52)

<sup>35</sup>When Jesus was coming close to Jericho, a blind man sat begging beside the road.

<sup>36</sup>The man heard the crowd walking by and asked what was happening.

<sup>37</sup>Some people told him that Jesus from Nazareth was passing by.

<sup>38</sup>So the blind man shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!”

<sup>39</sup>The people who were going along with Jesus told the man to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, “Son of David, have pity on me!”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus stopped and told some people to bring the blind man over to him. When the blind man was getting near, Jesus asked,

<sup>41</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?” “Lord, I want to see!” he answered.

<sup>42</sup>Jesus replied, “Look and you will see! Your eyes are healed because of your faith.”

<sup>43</sup>Straight away the man could see, and he went with Jesus and started thanking God. When the crowds saw what happened, they praised God.

Luke 19

Zacchaeus

<sup>1</sup>Jesus was going through Jericho,

<sup>2</sup>where a man named Zacchaeus lived. He was in charge of collecting taxes and was very rich.

<sup>3-4</sup>Jesus was heading his way, and Zacchaeus wanted to see what he was like. But Zacchaeus was a short man and could not see over the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree.

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus got there, he looked up and said, “Zacchaeus, hurry down! I want to stay with you today.”

<sup>6</sup>Zacchaeus hurried down and gladly welcomed Jesus.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone who saw this started grumbling, “This man Zacchaeus is a sinner! And Jesus is going home to eat with him.”

<sup>8</sup>Later that day Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “I will give half of my property to the poor. And I will now pay back four times as much to everyone I have ever cheated.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said to Zacchaeus, “Today you and your family have been saved, because you are a true son of Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>The Son of Man came to look for and to save people who are lost.”

A story about ten servants

(Matthew 25.14–30)

<sup>11</sup>The crowd was still listening to Jesus as he was getting close to Jerusalem. Many of them thought that God's kingdom would soon appear,

<sup>12</sup>and Jesus told them this story: A prince once went to a foreign country to be crowned king and then to return.

<sup>13</sup>But before leaving, he called in ten servants and gave each of them some money. He told them, “Use this to earn more money until I get back.”

<sup>14</sup>But the people of his country hated him, and they sent messengers to the foreign country to say, “We don't want this man to be our king.”

<sup>15</sup>After the prince had been made king, he returned and called in his servants. He asked them how much they had earned with the money they had been given.

<sup>16</sup>The first servant came and said, “Sir, with the money you gave me I have earned ten times as much.”

<sup>17</sup>“That's fine, my good servant!” the king said. “Since you have shown that you can be trusted with a small amount, you will be given ten cities to rule.”

<sup>18</sup>The second one came and said, “Sir, with the money you gave me, I have earned five times as much.”

<sup>19</sup>The king said, “You will be given five cities.”

<sup>20</sup>Another servant came and said, “Sir, here is your money. I kept it safe in a handkerchief.

<sup>21</sup>You are a hard man, and I was afraid of you. You take what isn't yours, and you harvest crops you didn't plant.”

<sup>22</sup>“You worthless servant!” the king told him. “You have condemned yourself by what you have just said. You knew that I am a hard man, taking what isn't mine and harvesting what I haven't planted.

<sup>23</sup>Why didn't you put my money in the bank? On my return, I could have had the money together with interest.”

<sup>24</sup>Then he said to some other servants standing there, “Take the money away from him and give it to the servant who earned ten times as much.”

<sup>25</sup>But they said, “Sir, he already has ten times as much!”

<sup>26</sup>The king replied, “Those who have something will be given more. But everything will be taken away from those who don't have anything.

<sup>27</sup>Now bring me the enemies who didn't want me to be their king. Kill them while I watch!”

Jesus' last week: his trial and death

Jesus enters Jerusalem

(Matthew 21.1–11; Mark 11.1–11; John 12.12–19)

- <sup>28</sup>When Jesus had finished saying all this, he went on towards Jerusalem.
- <sup>29</sup>As he was getting near Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples on ahead.
- <sup>30</sup>He told them, “Go into the next village, where you will find a young donkey that has never been ridden. Untie the donkey and bring it here.
- <sup>31</sup>If anyone asks why you are doing that, just say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”
- <sup>32</sup>They went off and found everything just as Jesus had said.
- <sup>33</sup>While they were untying the donkey, its owners asked, “Why are you doing that?”
- <sup>34</sup>They answered, “The Lord needs it.”
- <sup>35</sup>Then they led the donkey to Jesus. They put some of their clothes on its back and helped Jesus get on.
- <sup>36</sup>And as he rode along, the people spread clothes on the road in front of him.
- <sup>37</sup>When Jesus was setting off down the Mount of Olives, his large crowd of disciples were happy and praised God because of all the miracles they had seen.
- <sup>38</sup>They shouted, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory to God.”
- <sup>39</sup>Some Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, make your disciples stop shouting!”
- <sup>40</sup>But Jesus answered, “If they keep quiet, these stones will start shouting.”
- <sup>41</sup>When Jesus came closer and could see Jerusalem, he cried
- <sup>42</sup>and said: Today your people don't know what will bring them peace! Now it is hidden from them.

<sup>43</sup>Jerusalem, the time will come when your enemies will build walls around you to attack you. Armies will surround you and close in on you from every side.

<sup>44</sup>They will level you to the ground and kill your people. Not one stone in your buildings will be left on top of another. This will happen because you did not see that God had come to save you.

Jesus in the temple

(Matthew 21.12–17; Mark 11.15–19; John 2.13–22)

<sup>45</sup>When Jesus entered the temple, he started chasing out the people who were selling things.

<sup>46</sup>He told them, “The Scriptures say, ‘My house should be a place of worship. ’ But you have made it a place where robbers hide!”

<sup>47</sup>Each day, Jesus kept on teaching in the temple. So the chief priests, the teachers of the Law of Moses, and some other important people tried to have him killed.

<sup>48</sup>But they could not find a way to do it, because everyone else was eager to listen to him.

Luke 20

A question about Jesus' authority

(Matthew 21.23–27; Mark 11.27–33)

<sup>1</sup>One day, Jesus was teaching in the temple and telling the good news. So the chief priests, the teachers, and the nation's leaders

<sup>2</sup>asked him, “What right do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “I want to ask you a question.

<sup>4</sup>Who gave John the right to baptize? Was it God in heaven or merely some human being?”

<sup>5</sup>They talked this over and said to each other, “We can't say that God gave John this right. Jesus will ask us why we didn't believe John.

<sup>6</sup>And we can't say that it was merely some human who gave John the right to baptize. The crowd will stone us to death, because they think John was a prophet.”

<sup>7</sup>So they told Jesus, “We don't know who gave John the right to baptize.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, “Then I won't tell you who gave me the right to do what I do.”

Tenants of a vineyard

(Matthew 21.33–46; Mark 12.1–12)

<sup>9</sup>Jesus told the people this story: A man once planted a vineyard and let it. Then he left the country for a long time.

<sup>10</sup>When it was time to harvest the crop, he sent a servant to ask the tenants for his share of the grapes. But they beat up the servant and sent him away without anything.

<sup>11</sup>So the owner sent another servant. The tenants also beat him up. They insulted him terribly and sent him away without a thing.

<sup>12</sup>The owner sent a third servant. He was also beaten terribly and thrown out of the vineyard.

<sup>13</sup>The owner then said to himself, “What am I going to do? I know what. I'll send my son, the one I love so much. They will surely respect him!”

<sup>14</sup>When the tenants saw the owner's son, they said to one another, “Some day he will own the vineyard. Let's kill him! Then we can have it all for ourselves.”

<sup>15</sup>So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Jesus asked, “What do you think the owner of the vineyard will do?”

<sup>16</sup>I'll tell you what. He will come and kill those tenants and let someone else have his vineyard.” When the people heard this, they said, “This must never happen!”

<sup>17</sup>But Jesus looked straight at them and said, “Then what do the Scriptures mean when they say, ‘The stone that the builders tossed aside is now the most important stone of all’?”

<sup>18</sup>Anyone who stumbles over this stone will get hurt, and anyone it falls on will be smashed to pieces.”

<sup>19</sup>The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses knew that Jesus was talking about them when he was telling this story. They wanted to arrest him at once, but they were afraid of the people.

Paying taxes

(Matthew 22.15–22; Mark 12.13–17)

<sup>20</sup>Jesus' enemies kept watching him closely, because they wanted to hand him over to the Roman governor. So they sent some men who pretended to be good. But they were really spies trying to catch Jesus saying something wrong.

<sup>21</sup>The spies said to him, “Teacher, we know that you teach the truth about what God wants people to do. And you treat everyone with the same respect, no matter who they are.

<sup>22</sup>Tell us, should we pay taxes to the Emperor or not?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus knew that they were trying to trick him. So he told them,

<sup>24</sup>“Show me a coin.” Then he asked, “Whose picture and name are on it?” “The Emperor's,” they answered.

<sup>25</sup>Then he told them, “Give the Emperor what belongs to him and give God what belongs to God.”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus' enemies could not catch him saying anything wrong there in front of the people. They were amazed at his answer and kept quiet.

Life in the future world

(Matthew 22.23–33; Mark 12.18–27)

<sup>27</sup>The Sadducees did not believe that people would rise to life after death. So some of them came to Jesus

<sup>28</sup>and said: Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry the widow. Their first son would then be thought of as the son of the dead brother.

<sup>29</sup>There were once seven brothers. The first one married, but died without having any children.

<sup>30</sup>The second one married his brother's widow, and he also died without having any children.

<sup>31</sup>The same thing happened to the third one. Finally, all seven brothers married that woman and died without having any children.

<sup>32</sup>At last the woman died.

<sup>33</sup>When God raises people from death, whose wife will this woman be? All seven brothers had married her.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered: The people in this world get married.

<sup>35</sup>But in the future world no one who is worthy to rise from death will either marry

<sup>36</sup>or die. They will be like the angels and will be God's children, because they have been raised to life.

<sup>37</sup>In the story about the burning bush, Moses clearly shows that people will live again. He said, "The Lord is the God worshipped by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

<sup>38</sup>So the Lord isn't the God of the dead, but of the living. This means that everyone is alive as far as God is concerned.

<sup>39</sup>Some of the teachers of the Law of Moses said, "Teacher, you have given a good answer!"

<sup>40</sup>From then on, no one dared to ask Jesus any questions.

About David's son

(Matthew 22.41–46; Mark 12.35–37)

<sup>41</sup>Jesus asked, "Why do people say that the Messiah will be the son of King David?"

<sup>42</sup>In the book of Psalms, David himself says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right side

<sup>43</sup>until I make your enemies into a footstool for you. ’

<sup>44</sup>David spoke of the Messiah as his Lord, so how can the Messiah be his son?”

Jesus and the teachers of the Law of Moses

(Matthew 23.1–36; Mark 12.38–40; Luke 11.37–54)

<sup>45</sup>While everyone was listening to Jesus, he said to his disciples:

<sup>46</sup>Guard against the teachers of the Law of Moses! They love to walk around in long robes, and they like to be greeted in the market. They want the front seats in the meeting places and the best seats at banquets.

<sup>47</sup>But they cheat widows out of their homes and then pray long prayers just to show off. These teachers will be punished most of all.

Luke 21

A widow's offering

(Mark 12.41–44)

<sup>1</sup>Jesus looked up and saw some rich people tossing their gifts into the offering box.

<sup>2</sup>He also saw a poor widow putting in two pennies.

<sup>3</sup>And he said, “I tell you that this poor woman has put in more than all the others.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone else gave what they didn't need. But she is very poor and gave everything she had.”

The temple will be destroyed

(Matthew 24.1,2; Mark 13.1,2)

<sup>5</sup>Some people were talking about the beautiful stones used to build the temple and about the gifts that had been placed in it. Jesus said,

<sup>6</sup>“Do you see these stones? The time is coming when not one of them will be left in place. They will all be knocked down.”

Warning about trouble

(Matthew 24.3–14; Mark 13.3–13)

<sup>7</sup>Some people asked, “Teacher, when will all this happen? How can we know when these things are about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied: Don't be fooled by those who will come and claim to be me. They will say, “I am Christ!” and “Now is the time!” But don't follow them.

<sup>9</sup>When you hear about wars and riots, don't be afraid. These things will have to happen first, but that isn't the end.

<sup>10</sup>Nations will go to war against one another, and kingdoms will attack each other.

<sup>11</sup>There will be great earthquakes, and in many places people will starve to death and suffer terrible diseases. All sorts of frightening things will be seen in the sky.

<sup>12</sup>Before all this happens, you will be arrested and punished. You will be tried in your meeting places and put in jail. Because of me you will be placed on trial before kings and governors.

<sup>13</sup>But this will be your chance to tell about your faith.

<sup>14</sup>Don't worry about what you will say to defend yourselves.

<sup>15</sup>I will give you the wisdom to know what to say. None of your enemies will be able to oppose you or to say that you are wrong.

<sup>16</sup>You will be betrayed by your own parents, brothers, family, and friends. Some of you will even be killed.

<sup>17</sup>Because of me, you will be hated by everyone.

<sup>18</sup>But don't worry!

<sup>19</sup>You will be saved by being faithful to me.

Jerusalem will be destroyed

(Matthew 24.15–21; Mark 13.14–19)

Jesus continued:

<sup>20</sup>When you see Jerusalem surrounded by soldiers, you will know that it will soon be destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>If you are living in Judea at that time, run to the mountains. If you are in the city, leave it. And if you are out in the country, don't go back into the city.

<sup>22</sup>This time of punishment is what is written about in the Scriptures.

<sup>23</sup>It will be an awful time for women who are expecting babies or nursing young children! Everywhere in the land people will suffer horribly and be punished.

<sup>24</sup>Some of them will be killed by swords. Others will be carried off to foreign countries. Jerusalem will be overrun by foreign nations until their time comes to an end.

When the Son of Man appears

(Matthew 24.29–31; Mark 13.24–27)

Jesus continued:

<sup>25</sup>Strange things will happen to the sun, moon, and stars. The nations on earth will be afraid of the roaring sea and tides, and they won't know what to do.

<sup>26</sup>People will be so frightened that they will faint because of what is happening to the world. Every power in the sky will be shaken.

<sup>27</sup>Then the Son of Man will be seen, coming in a cloud with great power and glory.

<sup>28</sup>When all this starts happening, stand up straight and be brave. You will soon be set free.

A lesson from a fig tree

(Matthew 24.32–35; Mark 13.28–31)

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus told them a story: When you see a fig tree or any other tree

<sup>30</sup>putting out leaves, you know that summer will soon come.

<sup>31</sup>So, when you see these things happening, you know that God's kingdom will soon be here.

<sup>32</sup>You can be sure that some of the people of this generation will still be alive when all this takes place.

<sup>33</sup>The sky and the earth won't last for ever, but my words will.

A warning

Jesus continued:

<sup>34</sup>Don't spend all your time thinking about eating or drinking or worrying about life. If you do, the final day will suddenly catch you

<sup>35</sup>like a trap. That day will surprise everyone on earth.

<sup>36</sup>Watch out and keep praying that you can escape all that is going to happen and that the Son of Man will be pleased with you.

<sup>37</sup> Jesus taught in the temple each day, and he spent each night on the Mount of Olives.

<sup>38</sup>Everyone got up early and came to the temple to hear him teach.

Luke 22

A plot to kill Jesus

(Matthew 26.1–5,14,16; Mark 14.1,2,10,11; John 11.45–53)

<sup>1</sup> The Festival of Thin Bread, also called Passover, was near.

<sup>2</sup>The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses were looking for a way to get rid of Jesus, because they were afraid of what the people might do.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered the heart of Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve apostles.

<sup>4</sup>Judas went to talk with the chief priests and the officers of the temple police about how he could help them arrest Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>They were very pleased and offered to pay Judas some money.

<sup>6</sup>He agreed and started looking for a good chance to betray Jesus when the crowds were not around.

Jesus eats with his disciples

(Matthew 26.17–25; Mark 14.12–21; John 13.21–30)

<sup>7</sup>The day had come for the Festival of Thin Bread, and it was time to kill the Passover lambs.

<sup>8</sup>So Jesus said to Peter and John, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us to eat.”

<sup>9</sup>But they asked, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus told them, “As you go into the city, you will meet a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him into the house

<sup>11</sup>and say to the owner, ‘Our teacher wants to know where he can eat the Passover meal with his disciples.’

<sup>12</sup>The owner will take you upstairs and show you a large room ready for you to use. Prepare the meal there.”

<sup>13</sup>Peter and John left. They found everything just as Jesus had told them, and they prepared the Passover meal.

The Lord's Supper

(Matthew 26.26–30; Mark 14.22–26; 1 Corinthians 11.23–25)

<sup>14</sup>When the time came for Jesus and the apostles to eat,

<sup>15</sup>he said to them, “I have very much wanted to eat this Passover meal with you before I suffer.

<sup>16</sup>I tell you that I will not eat another Passover meal until it is finally eaten in God's kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus took a cup of wine in his hands and gave thanks to God. Then he told the apostles, “Take this wine and share it with each other.

<sup>18</sup>I tell you that I will not drink any more wine until God's kingdom comes.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus took some bread in his hands and gave thanks for it. He broke the bread and handed it to his apostles. Then he said, “This is my body, which is given for you. Eat this as a way of remembering me!”

<sup>20</sup> After the meal he took another cup of wine in his hands. Then he said, “This is my blood. It is poured out for you, and with it God makes his new agreement.

<sup>21</sup> The one who will betray me is here at the table with me!

<sup>22</sup> The Son of Man will die in the way that has been decided for him, but it will be terrible for the one who betrays him!”

<sup>23</sup> Then the apostles started arguing about who would ever do such a thing.

An argument about greatness

<sup>24</sup> The apostles got into an argument about which one of them was the greatest.

<sup>25</sup> So Jesus told them: Foreign kings order their people around, and powerful rulers call themselves everyone's friends.

<sup>26</sup> But don't be like them. The most important one of you should be like the least important, and your leader should be like a servant.

<sup>27</sup> Who do people think is the greatest, a person who is served or one who serves? Isn't it the one who is served? But I have been with you as a servant.

<sup>28</sup> You have stayed with me in all my troubles.

<sup>29</sup> So I will give you the right to rule as kings, just as my Father has given me the right to rule as a king.

<sup>30</sup> You will eat and drink with me in my kingdom, and you will each sit on a throne to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus' disciples will be tested

(Matthew 26.31–35; Mark 14.27–31; John 13.36–38)

<sup>31</sup> Jesus said, “Simon, listen to me! Satan has demanded the right to test each one of you, as a farmer does when he separates wheat from the husks.

<sup>32</sup> But Simon, I have prayed that your faith will be strong. And when you have come back to me, help the others.”

<sup>33</sup>Peter said, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to jail and even to die with you.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “Peter, I tell you that before a cock crows tomorrow morning, you will say three times that you don't know me.”

Money bags, travelling bags, and swords

<sup>35</sup>Jesus asked his disciples, “When I sent you out without a money bag or a travelling bag or sandals, did you need anything?” “No!” they answered.

<sup>36</sup>Jesus told them, “But now, if you have a money bag, take it with you. Also take a travelling bag, and if you don't have a sword, sell some of your clothes and buy one.

<sup>37</sup>Do this because the Scriptures say, ‘He was considered a criminal.’ This was written about me, and it will soon come true.”

<sup>38</sup>The disciples said, “Lord, here are two swords!” “Enough of that!” Jesus replied.

Jesus prays

(Matthew 26.36–46; Mark 14.32–42)

<sup>39</sup>Jesus went out to the Mount of Olives, as he often did, and his disciples went with him.

<sup>40</sup>When they got there, he told them, “Pray that you won't be tested.”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus walked on a little way before he knelt down and prayed,

<sup>42</sup>“Father, if you will, please don't make me suffer by making me drink from this cup. But do what you want, and not what I want.”

<sup>43</sup>Then an angel from heaven came to help him.

<sup>44</sup>Jesus was in great pain and prayed so sincerely that his sweat fell to the ground like drops of blood.

<sup>45</sup>Jesus got up from praying and went over to his disciples. They were asleep and worn out from being so sad.

<sup>46</sup>He said to them, “Why are you asleep? Wake up and pray that you won't be tested.”

Jesus is arrested

(Matthew 26.47–56; Mark 14.43–50; John 18.3–11)

<sup>47</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, a crowd came up. It was led by Judas, one of the twelve apostles. He went over to Jesus and greeted him with a kiss.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus asked Judas, “Are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup>When Jesus' disciples saw what was about to happen, they asked, “Lord, should we attack them with a sword?”

<sup>50</sup>One of the disciples even struck at the high priest's servant with his sword and cut off the servant's right ear.

<sup>51</sup>“Enough of that!” Jesus said. Then he touched the servant's ear and healed it.

<sup>52</sup>Jesus spoke to the chief priests, the temple police, and the leaders who had come to arrest him. He said, “Why do you come out with swords and clubs and treat me like a criminal?”

<sup>53</sup>I was with you every day in the temple, and you didn't arrest me. But this is your time, and darkness is in control.”

Peter says he doesn't know Jesus

(Matthew 26.57,58,67–75; Mark 14.53,54,66–72; John 18.12–18,25–27)

<sup>54</sup>Jesus was arrested and led away to the house of the high priest, while Peter followed at a distance.

<sup>55</sup>Some people built a fire in the middle of the courtyard and were sitting around it. Peter sat there with them,

<sup>56</sup>and a servant girl saw him. Then after she had looked at him carefully, she said, “This man was with Jesus!”

<sup>57</sup>Peter said, “Woman, I don't even know that man!”

<sup>58</sup>A little later someone else saw Peter and said, “You are one of them!” “No, I'm not!” Peter replied.

<sup>59</sup>About an hour later another man insisted, “This man must have been with Jesus. They both come from Galilee.”

<sup>60</sup>Peter replied, “I don't know what you are talking about!” At once, while Peter was still speaking, a cock crowed.

<sup>61</sup>The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered that the Lord had said, “Before a cock crows tomorrow morning, you will say three times that you don't know me.”

<sup>62</sup>Then Peter went out and cried hard.

<sup>63</sup>The men who were guarding Jesus made fun of him and beat him.

<sup>64</sup>They put a blindfold on him and said, “Tell us who struck you!”

<sup>65</sup>They kept on insulting Jesus in many other ways.

Jesus is questioned by the council

(Matthew 26.59–66; Mark 14.55–64; John 18.19–24)

<sup>66</sup>At daybreak the nation's leaders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the Law of Moses got together and brought Jesus before their council.

<sup>67</sup>They said, “Tell us! Are you the Messiah?” Jesus replied, “If I said so, you wouldn't believe me.

<sup>68</sup>And if I asked you a question, you wouldn't answer.

<sup>69</sup>But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right side of God All-Powerful.”

<sup>70</sup>Then they asked, “Are you the Son of God?” Jesus answered, “You say I am!”

<sup>71</sup>They replied, “Why do we need more witnesses? He said it himself!”

Luke 23

Pilate questions Jesus

(Matthew 27.1,2,11–14; Mark 15.1–5; John 18.28–38)

<sup>1</sup>Everyone in the council got up and led Jesus off to Pilate.

<sup>2</sup>They started accusing him and said, “We caught this man trying to get our people to riot and to stop paying taxes to the Emperor. He also claims that he is the Messiah, our king.”

<sup>3</sup>Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Those are your words,” Jesus answered.

<sup>4</sup>Pilate told the chief priests and the crowd, “I don't find him guilty of anything.”

<sup>5</sup>But they all kept on saying, “He has been teaching and causing trouble all over Judea. He started in Galilee and has now come all the way here.”

Jesus is brought before Herod

<sup>6</sup>When Pilate heard this, he asked, “Is this man from Galilee?”

<sup>7</sup>After Pilate learnt that Jesus came from the region ruled by Herod, he sent him to Herod, who was in Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup>For a long time Herod had wanted to see Jesus and was very happy because he finally had this chance. He had heard many things about Jesus and hoped to see him perform a miracle.

<sup>9</sup>Herod asked him a lot of questions, but Jesus did not answer.

<sup>10</sup>Then the chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses stood up and accused him of all kinds of bad things.

<sup>11</sup>Herod and his soldiers made fun of Jesus and insulted him. They put a fine robe on him and sent him back to Pilate.

<sup>12</sup>That same day Herod and Pilate became friends, even though they had been enemies before this.

The death sentence

(Matthew 27.15–26; Mark 15.6–15; John 18.39—19.16)

<sup>13</sup>Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people.

<sup>14</sup>He told them, “You brought Jesus to me and said he was a troublemaker. But I have questioned him here in front of you, and I have not found him guilty of anything that you say he has done.

<sup>15</sup>Herod didn't find him guilty either and sent him back. This man doesn't deserve to be put to death!

<sup>16-17</sup>I will just have him beaten with a whip and set free.”

<sup>18</sup>But the whole crowd shouted, “Kill Jesus! Give us Barabbas!”

<sup>19</sup>Now Barabbas was in jail because he had started a riot in the city and had murdered someone.

<sup>20</sup>Pilate wanted to set Jesus free, so he spoke again to the crowds.

<sup>21</sup>But they kept shouting, “Nail him to a cross! Nail him to a cross!”

<sup>22</sup>Pilate spoke to them a third time, “But what crime has he done? I have not found him guilty of anything for which he should be put to death. I will have him beaten with a whip and set free.”

<sup>23</sup>The people kept on shouting as loud as they could for Jesus to be put to death.

<sup>24</sup>Finally, Pilate gave in.

<sup>25</sup>He freed the man who was in jail for rioting and murder, because he was the one the crowd wanted to be set free. Then Pilate handed Jesus over for them to do what they wanted with him.

Jesus is nailed to a cross

(Matthew 27.31–44; Mark 15.21–32; John 19.17–27)

<sup>26</sup>As Jesus was being led away, some soldiers grabbed hold of a man from Cyrene named Simon. He was coming in from the fields, but they put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>A large crowd was following Jesus, and in the crowd a lot of women were crying and weeping for him.

- <sup>28</sup>Jesus turned to the women and said: Women of Jerusalem, don't cry for me! Cry for yourselves and for your children.
- <sup>29</sup>Some day people will say, "Women who never had children are really fortunate!"
- <sup>30</sup>At that time everyone will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" They will say to the hills, "Hide us!"
- <sup>31</sup>If this can happen when the wood is green, what do you think will happen when it is dry?
- <sup>32</sup>Two criminals were led out to be put to death with Jesus.
- <sup>33</sup>When the soldiers came to the place called "The Skull", they nailed Jesus to a cross. They also nailed the two criminals to crosses, one on each side of Jesus.
- <sup>34-35</sup> Jesus said, "Father, forgive these people! They don't know what they're doing." While the crowd stood there watching Jesus, the soldiers gambled for his clothes. The leaders insulted him by saying, "He saved others. Now he should save himself, if he really is God's chosen Messiah!"
- <sup>36</sup> The soldiers made fun of Jesus and brought him some wine.
- <sup>37</sup>They said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself!"
- <sup>38</sup>Above him was a sign that said, "This is the King of the Jews."
- <sup>39</sup>One of the criminals hanging there also insulted Jesus by saying, "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and save us!"
- <sup>40</sup>But the other criminal told the first one off, "Don't you fear God? Aren't you getting the same punishment as this man?"
- <sup>41</sup>We got what was coming to us, but he didn't do anything wrong."
- <sup>42</sup>Then he said to Jesus, "Remember me when you come into power!"
- <sup>43</sup>Jesus replied, "I promise that today you will be with me in paradise."

The death of Jesus

(Matthew 27.45–56; Mark 15.33–41; John 19.28–30)

<sup>44</sup> Around midday the sky turned dark and stayed that way until the middle of the afternoon.

<sup>45</sup> The sun stopped shining, and the curtain in the temple split down the middle.

<sup>46</sup> Jesus shouted, “Father, I put myself in your hands!” Then he died.

<sup>47</sup> When the Roman officer saw what had happened, he praised God and said, “Jesus must really have been a good man!”

<sup>48</sup> A crowd had gathered to see the terrible sight. Then after they had seen it, they felt brokenhearted and went home.

<sup>49</sup> All Jesus' close friends and the women who had come with him from Galilee stood at a distance and watched.

Jesus is buried

(Matthew 27.57–61; Mark 15.42–47; John 19.38–42)

<sup>50-51</sup> There was a man named Joseph, who was from Arimathea in Judea. Joseph was a good and honest man, and he was eager for God's kingdom to come. He was also a member of the Jewish council, but he did not agree with what they had decided.

<sup>52</sup> Joseph went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.

<sup>53</sup> He took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in fine cloth. Then he put it in a tomb that had been cut out of solid rock and had never been used.

<sup>54</sup> It was Friday, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

<sup>55</sup> The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and watched how Jesus' body was placed in the tomb.

<sup>56</sup> Then they went to prepare some sweet-smelling spices for his burial. But on the Sabbath they rested, as the Law of Moses commands.

Luke 24

Jesus is alive

Jesus is alive

(Matthew 28.1–10; Mark 16.1–8; John 20.1–10)

<sup>1</sup>Very early on Sunday morning the women went to the tomb, carrying the spices that they had prepared.

<sup>2</sup>When they found the stone rolled away from the entrance,

<sup>3</sup>they went in. But they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus,

<sup>4</sup>and they did not know what to think. Suddenly two men in shining white clothes stood beside them.

<sup>5</sup>The women were afraid and bowed to the ground. But the men said, “Why are you looking in the place of the dead for someone who is alive?”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus isn't here! He has been raised from death. Remember that while he was still in Galilee, he told you,

<sup>7</sup>“The Son of Man will be handed over to sinners who will nail him to a cross. But three days later he will rise to life. ’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then they remembered what Jesus had said.

<sup>9-10</sup>Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and some other women were the ones who had gone to the tomb. When they returned, they told the eleven apostles and the others what had happened.

<sup>11</sup>The apostles thought it was all nonsense, and they would not believe.

<sup>12</sup>But Peter ran to the tomb. And when he stooped down and looked in, he saw only the burial clothes. Then he returned, wondering what had happened.

Jesus appears. He is taken to heaven

Jesus appears to two disciples

(Mark 16.12,13)

<sup>13</sup>That same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to the village of Emmaus, which was about eleven kilometres from Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>As they were talking and thinking about what had happened,

<sup>15</sup>Jesus came near and started walking along beside them.

<sup>16</sup>But they did not know who he was.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus asked them, “What were you talking about as you walked along?” The two of them stood there looking sad and gloomy.

<sup>18</sup>Then the one named Cleopas asked Jesus, “Are you the only person from Jerusalem who didn't know what was happening there these last few days?”

<sup>19</sup>“What do you mean?” Jesus asked. They answered: Those things that happened to Jesus from Nazareth. By what he did and said he showed that he was a powerful prophet, who pleased God and all the people.

<sup>20</sup>Then the chief priests and our leaders had him arrested and sentenced to die on a cross.

<sup>21</sup>We had hoped that he would be the one to set Israel free! But it has already been three days since all this happened.

<sup>22</sup>Some women in our group surprised us. They had gone to the tomb early in the morning,

<sup>23</sup>but did not find the body of Jesus. They came back, saying that they had seen a vision of angels who told them that he is alive.

<sup>24</sup>Some men from our group went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said. But they didn't see Jesus either.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus asked the two disciples, “Why can't you understand? How can you be so slow to believe all that the prophets said?

<sup>26</sup>Didn't you know that the Messiah would have to suffer before he was given his glory?”

<sup>27</sup>Jesus then explained everything written about himself in the Scriptures, beginning with the Law of Moses and the Books of the Prophets.

<sup>28</sup>When the two of them came near the village where they were going, Jesus seemed to be going further.

<sup>29</sup>They begged him, “Stay with us! It's already late, and the sun is going down.” So Jesus went into the house to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup>After Jesus sat down to eat, he took some bread. He blessed it and broke it. Then he gave it to them.

<sup>31</sup>At once they knew who he was, but he disappeared.

<sup>32</sup>They said to each other, “When he talked with us along the road and explained the Scriptures to us, didn't it warm our hearts?”

<sup>33</sup>So they got up at once and returned to Jerusalem. The two disciples found the eleven apostles and the others gathered together.

<sup>34</sup>And they learnt from the group that the Lord was really alive and had appeared to Peter.

<sup>35</sup>Then the disciples from Emmaus told what happened on the road and how they knew he was the Lord when he broke the bread.

What Jesus' followers must do

(Matthew 28.16–20; Mark 16.14–18; John 20.19–23; The Acts 1.6–8)

<sup>36</sup>While Jesus' disciples were talking about what had happened, Jesus appeared and greeted them.

<sup>37</sup>They were frightened and terrified because they thought they were seeing a ghost.

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus said, “Why are you so frightened? Why do you doubt?”

<sup>39</sup>Look at my hands and my feet and see who I am! Touch me and find out for yourselves. Ghosts don't have flesh and bones as you see I have.”

<sup>40</sup>After Jesus said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

<sup>41</sup>The disciples were so glad and amazed that they could not believe it. Jesus then asked them, “Do you have something to eat?”

<sup>42</sup>They gave him a piece of baked fish.

<sup>43</sup>He took it and ate it as they watched.

<sup>44</sup>Jesus said to them, “While I was still with you, I told you that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the Books of the Prophets, and in the Psalms had to happen.”

<sup>45</sup>Then he helped them understand the Scriptures.

<sup>46</sup>He told them: The Scriptures say that the Messiah must suffer, then three days later he will rise from death.

<sup>47</sup>They also say that all people of every nation must be told in my name to turn to God, in order to be forgiven. So beginning in Jerusalem, <sup>48</sup>you must tell everything that has happened.

<sup>49</sup>I will send you the one my Father has promised, but you must stay in the city until you are given power from heaven.

Jesus returns to heaven
(Mark 16.19,20; The Acts 1.9–11)

<sup>50</sup>Jesus led his disciples out to Bethany, where he raised his hands and blessed them.

<sup>51</sup>As he was doing this, he left and was taken up to heaven.

<sup>52</sup>After his disciples had worshipped him, they returned to Jerusalem and were very happy.

<sup>53</sup>They spent their time in the temple, praising God.

John

John 1

In praise of the Word The Word of life

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the one who is called the Word. The Word was with God and was truly God.

<sup>2</sup>From the very beginning the Word was with God.

<sup>3</sup>And with this Word, God created all things. Nothing was made without the Word. Everything that was created

<sup>4</sup>received its life from him, and his life gave light to everyone.

<sup>5</sup>The light keeps shining in the dark, and darkness has never put it out.

<sup>6</sup>God sent a man named John,

<sup>7</sup>who came to tell about the light and to lead all people to have faith.

<sup>8</sup>John wasn't that light. He came only to tell about the light.

<sup>9</sup>The true light that shines on everyone was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup>The Word was in the world, but no one knew him, though God had made the world with his Word.

<sup>11</sup>He came into his own world, but his own nation did not welcome him.

<sup>12</sup>Yet some people accepted him and put their faith in him. So he gave them the right to be the children of God.

<sup>13</sup>They were not God's children by nature or because of any human desires. God himself was the one who made them his children.

<sup>14</sup>The Word became a human being and lived here with us. We saw his true glory, the glory of the only Son of the Father. From him all the kindness and all the truth of God have come down to us.

<sup>15</sup>John spoke about him and shouted, "This is the one I told you would come! He is greater than I am, because he was alive before I was born."

<sup>16</sup>Because of all that the Son is, we have been given one blessing after another.

<sup>17</sup>The Law was given by Moses, but Jesus Christ brought us undeserved kindness and truth.

<sup>18</sup>No one has ever seen God. The only Son, who is truly God and is closest to the Father, has shown us what God is like.

The message of John the Baptist

John the Baptist tells about Jesus

(Matthew 3.1–12; Mark 1.1–8; Luke 3.15–17)

<sup>19-20</sup>The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and temple helpers to ask John who he was. He told them plainly, “I am not the Messiah.”

<sup>21</sup>Then when they asked him if he were Elijah, he said, “No, I am not!” And when they asked if he were the Prophet, he also said “No!”

<sup>22</sup>Finally, they said, “Who are you then? We have to give an answer to the ones who sent us. Tell us who you are!”

<sup>23</sup>John answered in the words of the prophet Isaiah, “I am only someone shouting in the desert, ‘Get the road ready for the Lord!’ ”

<sup>24</sup>Some Pharisees had also been sent to John.

<sup>25</sup>They asked him, “Why are you baptizing people, if you are not the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet?”

<sup>26</sup>John told them, “I use water to baptize people. But here with you is someone you don't know.

<sup>27</sup>Even though I came first, I am not good enough to untie his sandals.”

<sup>28</sup>John said this as he was baptizing east of the River Jordan in Bethany.

The Lamb of God

<sup>29</sup>The next day, John saw Jesus coming towards him and said: Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

<sup>30</sup>He is the one I told you about when I said, “Someone else will come. He is greater than I am, because he was alive before I was born.”

<sup>31</sup>I didn't know who he was. But I came to baptize you with water, so that everyone in Israel would see him.

<sup>32</sup>I was there and saw the Spirit come down on him like a dove from heaven. And the Spirit stayed on him.

<sup>33</sup>Before this I didn't know who he was. But the one who sent me to baptize with water had told me, “You will see the Spirit come down and stay on someone. Then you will know that he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>34</sup>I saw this happen, and I tell you that he is the Son of God.

Jesus chooses his first disciples

<sup>35</sup>The next day, John was there again, and two of his followers were with him.

<sup>36</sup>When he saw Jesus walking by, he said, “Here is the Lamb of God!”

<sup>37</sup>John's two followers heard him, and they went with Jesus.

<sup>38</sup>When Jesus turned and saw them, he asked, “What do you want?” They answered, “Rabbi, where do you live?” The Hebrew word “Rabbi” means “Teacher”.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus replied, “Come and see!” It was already about four o'clock in the afternoon when they went with him and saw where he lived. So they stayed on for the rest of the day.

<sup>40</sup>One of the two men who had heard John and had gone with Jesus was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter.

<sup>41</sup>The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother and tell him, “We have found the Messiah!” The Hebrew word “Messiah” means the same as the Greek word “Christ”.

<sup>42</sup>Andrew brought his brother to Jesus. And when Jesus saw him, he said, “Simon son of John, you will be called Cephas.” This name can be translated as “Peter”.

Jesus chooses Philip and Nathanael

<sup>43-44</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. There he met Philip, who was from Bethsaida, the home town of Andrew and Peter. Jesus said to Philip, “Come with me.”

<sup>45</sup>Philip then found Nathanael and said, “We have found the one that Moses and the Prophets wrote about. He is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

<sup>46</sup>Nathanael asked, “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” Philip answered, “Come and see.”

<sup>47</sup>When Jesus saw Nathanael coming towards him, he said, “Here is a true descendant of our ancestor Israel. And he isn't deceitful.”

<sup>48</sup>“How do you know me?” Nathanael asked. Jesus answered, “Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree.”

<sup>49</sup>Nathanael said, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God and the King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus answered, “Did you believe me just because I said that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see something even greater.

<sup>51</sup>I tell you for certain that you will see heaven open and God's angels going up and coming down on the Son of Man.”

John 2

Jesus' seven special miracles Jesus at a wedding in Cana

<sup>1</sup>Three days later Mary, the mother of Jesus, was at a wedding feast in the village of Cana in Galilee.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus and his disciples had also been invited and were there.

<sup>3</sup>When the wine was all gone, Mary said to Jesus, “They don't have any more wine.”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus replied, “Mother, my time hasn't yet come! You must not tell me what to do.”

<sup>5</sup>Mary then said to the servants, “Do whatever Jesus tells you to do.”

<sup>6</sup>At the feast there were six stone water jars that were used by the people for washing themselves in the way that their religion said they must. Each jar held about a hundred litres.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus told the servants to fill them to the top with water. Then after the jars had been filled,

<sup>8</sup>he said, “Now take some water and give it to the man in charge of the feast.” The servants did as Jesus told them,

<sup>9</sup>and the man in charge drank some of the water that had now turned into wine. He did not know where the wine had come from, but the servants did. He called the bridegroom over

<sup>10</sup>and said, “The best wine is always served first. Then after the guests have had plenty, the other wine is served. But you have kept the best until last!”

<sup>11</sup>This was Jesus' first miracle, and he did it in the village of Cana in Galilee. There Jesus showed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him.

<sup>12</sup>After this, he went with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples to the town of Capernaum, where they stayed for a few days.

Jesus in the temple

(Matthew 21.12,13; Mark 11.15–17; Luke 19.45,46)

<sup>13</sup>Not long before the Jewish festival of Passover, Jesus went to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>There he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves in the temple. He also saw moneychangers sitting at their tables.

<sup>15</sup>So he took some rope and made a whip. Then he chased everyone out of the temple, together with their sheep and cattle. He turned over the tables of the moneychangers and scattered their coins.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus said to the people who had been selling doves, “Get those doves out of here! Don't make my Father's house a market place.”

<sup>17</sup>The disciples then remembered that the Scriptures say, “My love for your house burns in me like a fire.”

<sup>18</sup>The Jewish leaders asked Jesus, “What miracle will you perform to show us why you have done this?”

<sup>19</sup>“Destroy this temple,” Jesus answered, “and in three days I will build it again!”

<sup>20</sup>The leaders replied, “It took forty-six years to build this temple. What makes you think you can rebuild it in three days?”

<sup>21</sup>But Jesus was talking about his body as a temple.

<sup>22</sup>And when he was raised from death, his disciples remembered what he had told them. Then they believed the Scriptures and the words of Jesus.

Jesus knows what people are like

<sup>23</sup>In Jerusalem during Passover many people put their faith in Jesus, because they saw him perform miracles.

<sup>24</sup>But Jesus knew what was in their hearts, and he would not let them have power over him.

<sup>25</sup>No one had to tell him what people were like. He already knew.

John 3

Jesus and Nicodemus

<sup>1</sup>There was a man named Nicodemus who was a Pharisee and a Jewish leader.

<sup>2</sup>One night he went to Jesus and said, “Sir, we know that God has sent you to teach us. You could not perform these miracles, unless God were with you.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you for certain that you must be born from above before you can see God's kingdom!”

<sup>4</sup>Nicodemus asked, “How can a grown man ever be born a second time?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus answered: I tell you for certain that before you can get into God's kingdom, you must be born not only by water, but by the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>Humans give life to their children. Yet only God's Spirit can change you into a child of God.

<sup>7</sup>Don't be surprised when I say that you must be born from above.

<sup>8</sup>Only God's Spirit gives new life. The Spirit is like the wind that blows wherever it wants to. You can hear the wind, but you don't know where it comes from or where it is going.

<sup>9</sup>“How can this be?” Nicodemus asked.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied: How can you be a teacher of Israel and not know these things?

<sup>11</sup>I tell you for certain that we know what we are talking about because we have seen it ourselves. But none of you will accept what we say.

<sup>12</sup>If you don't believe when I talk to you about things on earth, how can you possibly believe if I talk to you about things in heaven?

<sup>13</sup>No one has gone up to heaven except the Son of Man, who came down from there.

<sup>14</sup>And the Son of Man must be lifted up, just as that metal snake was lifted up by Moses in the desert.

<sup>15</sup>Then everyone who has faith in the Son of Man will have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>God loved the people of this world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who has faith in him will have eternal life and never really die.

<sup>17</sup>God did not send his Son into the world to condemn its people. He sent him to save them!

<sup>18</sup>No one who has faith in God's Son will be condemned. But everyone who doesn't have faith in him has already been condemned for not having faith in God's only Son.

<sup>19</sup>The light has come into the world, and people who do evil things are judged guilty because they love the dark more than the light.

<sup>20</sup>People who do evil hate the light and won't come to the light, because it clearly shows what they have done.

<sup>21</sup>But everyone who lives by the truth will come to the light, because they want others to know that God is really the one doing what they do.

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>22</sup>Later, Jesus and his disciples went to Judea, where he stayed with them for a while and was baptizing people.

<sup>23-24</sup> John had not yet been put in jail. He was at Aenon near Salim, where there was a lot of water, and people were coming there for John to baptize them.

<sup>25</sup>John's followers got into an argument with a Jewish man about a ceremony of washing.

<sup>26</sup>They went to John and said, "Rabbi, you spoke about a man when you were with him east of the Jordan. He is now baptizing people, and everyone is going to him."

<sup>27</sup>John replied: No one can do anything unless God in heaven allows it.

<sup>28</sup>Surely you remember how I told you that I am not the Messiah. I am only the one sent ahead of him.

<sup>29</sup>At a wedding the groom is the one who gets married. The best man is glad just to be there and to hear the groom's voice. That's why I am so glad.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus must become more important, while I become less important.

The one who comes from heaven

John continued:

<sup>31</sup>God's Son comes from heaven and is above all others. Everyone who comes from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is above all others.

<sup>32</sup>He speaks about what he has seen and heard, and yet no one believes him.

<sup>33</sup>But everyone who does believe him has shown that God is truthful.

<sup>34</sup>The Son was sent to speak God's message, and he has been given the full power of God's Spirit.

<sup>35</sup>The Father loves the Son and has given him everything.

<sup>36</sup>Everyone who has faith in the Son has eternal life. But no one who rejects him will ever share in that life, and God will be angry with them for ever.

John 4

<sup>1</sup>Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was winning and baptizing more followers than John was.

<sup>2</sup>But Jesus' disciples were really the ones doing the baptizing, and not Jesus himself.

Jesus and the Samaritan woman

<sup>3</sup>Jesus left Judea and started for Galilee again.

<sup>4</sup>This time he had to go through Samaria,

<sup>5</sup>and on his way he came to the town of Sychar. It was near the field that Jacob had long ago given to his son Joseph.

<sup>6-8</sup>The well that Jacob had dug was still there, and Jesus sat down beside it because he was tired from travelling. It was midday, and after Jesus' disciples had gone into town to buy some food, a Samaritan woman came to draw water from the well. Jesus asked her, "Would you please give me a drink of water?"

<sup>9</sup>“You are a Jew,” she replied, “and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink of water when Jews and Samaritans won't have anything to do with each other?”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered, “You don't know what God wants to give you, and you don't know who is asking you for a drink. If you did, you would ask me for the water that gives life.”

<sup>11</sup>“Sir,” the woman said, “you don't even have a bucket, and the well is deep. Where are you going to get this life-giving water?”

<sup>12</sup>Our ancestor Jacob dug this well for us, and his family and animals got water from it. Are you greater than Jacob?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again.

<sup>14</sup>But no one who drinks the water I give will ever be thirsty again. The water I give is like a flowing fountain that gives eternal life.”

<sup>15</sup>The woman replied, “Sir, please give me a drink of that water! Then I won't get thirsty and have to come to this well again.”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus told her, “Go and bring your husband.”

<sup>17-18</sup>The woman answered, “I don't have a husband.” “That's right,” Jesus replied, “you're telling the truth. You don't have a husband. You have already been married five times, and the man you are now living with isn't your husband.”

<sup>19</sup>The woman said, “Sir, I can see that you are a prophet.

<sup>20</sup>My ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews say Jerusalem is the only place to worship.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said to her: Believe me, the time is coming when you won't worship the Father either on this mountain or in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup>You Samaritans don't really know the one you worship. But we Jews do know the God we worship, and by using us, God will save the world.

<sup>23</sup>But a time is coming, and it is already here! Even now the true worshippers are being led by the Spirit to worship the Father according to the truth. These are the ones the Father is seeking to worship him.

<sup>24</sup>God is Spirit, and those who worship God must be led by the Spirit to worship him according to the truth.

<sup>25</sup>The woman said, “I know that the Messiah will come. He is the one we call Christ. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

<sup>26</sup>“I am that one,” Jesus told her, “and I am speaking to you now.”

<sup>27</sup>The disciples returned about this time and were surprised to find Jesus talking with a woman. But none of them asked him what he wanted or why he was talking with her.

<sup>28</sup>The woman left her water jar and ran back into town. She said to the people,

<sup>29</sup>“Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! Could he be the Messiah?”

<sup>30</sup>Everyone in town went out to see Jesus.

<sup>31</sup>While this was happening, Jesus' disciples were saying to him, “Teacher, please eat something.”

<sup>32</sup>But Jesus told them, “I have food that you don't know anything about.”

<sup>33</sup>His disciples started asking each other, “Has someone brought him something to eat?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said: My food is to do what God wants! He is the one who sent me, and I must finish the work that he gave me to do.

<sup>35</sup>You may say that there are still four months until harvest time. But I tell you to look, and you will see that the fields are ripe and ready to harvest.

<sup>36</sup>Even now the harvest workers are receiving their reward by gathering a harvest that brings eternal life. Then everyone who planted the seed and everyone who harvests the crop will celebrate together.

<sup>37</sup>So the saying proves true, “Some plant the seed, and others harvest the crop.”

<sup>38</sup>I am sending you to harvest crops in fields where others have done all the hard work.

<sup>39</sup>A lot of Samaritans in that town put their faith in Jesus because the woman had said, “This man told me everything I have ever done.”

<sup>40</sup>They came and asked him to stay in their town, and he stayed on for two days.

<sup>41</sup>Many more Samaritans put their faith in Jesus because of what they heard him say.

<sup>42</sup>They told the woman, “We no longer have faith in Jesus just because of what you told us. We have heard him ourselves, and we are certain that he is the Saviour of the world!”

Jesus heals an official's son

(Matthew 8.5–13; Luke 7.1–10)

<sup>43-44</sup> Jesus had said, “Prophets are honoured everywhere, except in their own country.” Then two days later he left

<sup>45</sup> and went to Galilee. The people there welcomed him, because they had gone to the festival in Jerusalem and had seen everything he had done.

<sup>46</sup> While Jesus was in Galilee, he returned to the village of Cana, where he had turned the water into wine. There was an official in Capernaum whose son was sick.

<sup>47</sup> And when the man heard that Jesus had come from Judea, he went and begged him to keep his son from dying.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus told the official, “You won't have faith unless you see miracles and wonders!”

<sup>49</sup>The man replied, “Lord, please come before my son dies!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus then said, “Your son will live. Go on home to him.” The man believed Jesus and set off to return home.

<sup>51</sup>Some of the official's servants met him along the road and told him, “Your son is better!”

<sup>52</sup>He asked them when the boy got better, and they answered, “The fever left him yesterday at one o'clock.”

<sup>53</sup>The boy's father realized that at one o'clock the day before, Jesus had told him, “Your son will live!” So the man and everyone in his family put their faith in Jesus.

<sup>54</sup>This was the second miracle that Jesus performed after he left Judea and went to Galilee.

John 5

Jesus heals a sick man

<sup>1</sup>Later, Jesus went to Jerusalem for another Jewish festival.

<sup>2</sup>In the city near the sheep gate was a pool with five porches, and its name in Hebrew was Bethzatha.

<sup>3-4</sup>Many sick, blind, lame, and crippled people were lying close to the pool.

<sup>5</sup>Beside the pool was a man who had been sick for thirty-eight years.

<sup>6</sup>When Jesus saw the man and realized that he had been crippled for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to be healed?”

<sup>7</sup>The man answered, “Lord, I don't have anyone to put me in the pool when the water is stirred up. I try to get in, but someone else always gets there first.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus told him, “Pick up your mat and walk!”

<sup>9</sup>At once the man was healed. He picked up his mat and started walking around. The day on which this happened was a Sabbath.

<sup>10</sup>When the Jewish leaders saw the man carrying his mat, they said to him, “This is the Sabbath! No one is allowed to carry a mat on the Sabbath.”

<sup>11</sup>But he replied, “The man who healed me told me to pick up my mat and walk.”

<sup>12</sup>They asked him, “Who is this man that told you to pick up your mat and walk?”

<sup>13</sup>But he did not know who Jesus was, and Jesus had left because of the crowd.

<sup>14</sup>Later, Jesus met the man in the temple and told him, “You are now well. But don't sin any more or something worse might happen to you.”

<sup>15</sup>The man left and told the leaders that Jesus was the one who had healed him.

<sup>16</sup>They started making a lot of trouble for Jesus because he did things like this on the Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup>But Jesus said, “My Father has never stopped working, and that is why I keep on working.”

<sup>18</sup>Now the leaders wanted to kill Jesus for two reasons. First, he had broken the law of the Sabbath. But even worse, he had said that God was his Father, which made him equal with God.

The Son's authority

<sup>19</sup>Jesus told the people: I tell you for certain that the Son cannot do anything on his own. He can do only what he sees the Father doing, and he does exactly what he sees the Father do.

<sup>20</sup>The Father loves the Son and has shown him everything he does. The Father will show him even greater things, and you will be amazed.

<sup>21</sup>Just as the Father raises the dead and gives life, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants to.

<sup>22</sup>The Father doesn't judge anyone, but he has made his Son the judge of everyone.

<sup>23</sup>The Father wants all people to honour the Son as much as they honour him. When anyone refuses to honour the Son, that is the same as refusing to honour the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup>I tell you for certain that everyone who hears my message and has faith in the one who sent me has eternal life and will never be condemned. They have already gone from death to life.

<sup>25</sup>I tell you for certain that the time will come, and it is already here, when all the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen to it will live!

<sup>26</sup>The Father has the power to give life, and he has given that same power to the Son.

<sup>27</sup>And he has given his Son the right to judge everyone, because he is the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup>Don't be surprised! The time will come when all the dead will hear the voice of the Son of Man, <sup>29</sup>and they will come out of their graves. Everyone who has done good things will rise to life, but everyone who has done evil things will rise and be condemned.

<sup>30</sup>I cannot do anything on my own. The Father sent me, and he is the one who told me how to judge. I judge with fairness, because I obey him, and I don't just try to please myself.

Witnesses to Jesus

Jesus continued:

<sup>31</sup>If I speak for myself, there is no way to prove I am telling the truth.

<sup>32</sup>But there is someone else who speaks for me, and I know what he says is true.

<sup>33</sup>You sent messengers to John, and he told them the truth.

<sup>34</sup>I don't depend on what people say about me, but I tell you these things so that you may be saved.

<sup>35</sup>John was a lamp that gave a lot of light, and you were glad to enjoy his light for a while.

<sup>36</sup>But something more important than John speaks for me. I mean the things that the Father has given me to do! All of these speak for me and prove that the Father sent me.

<sup>37</sup>The Father who sent me also speaks for me, but you have never heard his voice or seen him face to face.

<sup>38</sup>You have not believed his message, because you refused to have faith in the one he sent.

<sup>39</sup>You search the Scriptures, because you think you will find eternal life in them. The Scriptures tell about me, <sup>40</sup>but you refuse to come to me for eternal life.

<sup>41</sup>I don't care about human praise,

<sup>42</sup>but I do know that none of you love God.

<sup>43</sup>I have come with my Father's authority, and you have not welcomed me. But you will welcome people who come on their own.

<sup>44</sup>How could you possibly believe? You like to have your friends praise you, and you don't care about praise that the only God can give!

<sup>45</sup>Don't think that I will be the one to accuse you to the Father. You have put your hope in Moses, yet he is the very one who will accuse you.

<sup>46</sup>Moses wrote about me, and if you had believed Moses, you would have believed me.

<sup>47</sup>But if you don't believe what Moses wrote, how can you believe what I say?

John 6

Feeding five thousand

(Matthew 14.13–21; Mark 6.30–44; Luke 9.10–17)

- <sup>1</sup>Jesus crossed Lake Galilee, which was also known as Lake Tiberias.
- <sup>2</sup>A large crowd had seen him perform miracles to heal the sick, and those people went with him.
- <sup>3-4</sup>It was almost time for the Jewish festival of Passover, and Jesus went up on a mountain with his disciples and sat down.
- <sup>5</sup>When Jesus saw the large crowd coming towards him, he asked Philip, “Where will we get enough food to feed all these people?”
- <sup>6</sup>He said this to test Philip, since he already knew what he was going to do.
- <sup>7</sup>Philip answered, “Don't you know that it would take almost a year's wages just to buy only a little bread for each of these people?”
- <sup>8</sup>Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the disciples. He spoke up and said,
- <sup>9</sup>“There is a boy here who has five small loaves of barley bread and two fish. But what good is that with all these people?”
- <sup>10</sup>The ground was covered with grass, and Jesus told his disciples to make everyone sit down. About five thousand men were in the crowd.
- <sup>11</sup>Jesus took the bread in his hands and gave thanks to God. Then he passed the bread to the people, and he did the same with the fish, until everyone had plenty to eat.
- <sup>12</sup>The people ate all they wanted, and Jesus told his disciples to gather up the leftovers, so that nothing would be wasted.
- <sup>13</sup>The disciples gathered them up and filled twelve large baskets with what was left over from the five barley loaves.
- <sup>14</sup>After the people had seen Jesus perform this miracle, they began saying, “This must be the Prophet who is to come into the world!”

<sup>15</sup>Jesus realized that they would try to force him to be their king. So he went up on a mountain, where he could be alone.

Jesus walks on the water

(Matthew 14.22–27; Mark 6.45–52)

<sup>16</sup>That evening, Jesus' disciples went down to the lake.

<sup>17</sup>They got into a boat and set off for Capernaum. Later that evening Jesus had still not come to them,

<sup>18</sup>and a strong wind was making the water rough.

<sup>19</sup>When the disciples had rowed for five or six kilometres, they saw Jesus walking on the water. He kept coming closer to the boat, and they were terrified.

<sup>20</sup>But he said, “I am Jesus! Don't be afraid!”

<sup>21</sup>The disciples wanted to take him into the boat, but suddenly the boat reached the shore where they were headed.

The bread that gives life

<sup>22</sup>The people who had stayed on the east side of the lake knew that only one boat had been there. They also knew that Jesus had not left in it with his disciples. But the next day

<sup>23</sup>some boats from Tiberias sailed near the place where the crowd had eaten the bread for which the Lord had given thanks.

<sup>24</sup>They saw that Jesus and his disciples had left. Then they got into the boats and went to Capernaum to look for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>They found him on the west side of the lake and asked, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, “I tell you for certain that you are not looking for me because you saw the miracles, but because you ate all the food you wanted.

<sup>27</sup>Don't work for food that spoils. Work for food that gives eternal life. The Son of Man will give you this food, because God the Father has given him the right to do so.”

<sup>28</sup>“What exactly does God want us to do?” the people asked.

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “God wants you to have faith in the one he sent.”

<sup>30</sup>They replied, “What miracle will you perform, so that we can have faith in you? What will you do?

<sup>31</sup>For example, when our ancestors were in the desert, they were given manna to eat. It happened just as the Scriptures say, ‘God gave them bread from heaven to eat. ’ ”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus then told them, “I tell you for certain that Moses wasn't the one who gave you bread from heaven. My Father is the one who gives you the true bread from heaven.

<sup>33</sup>And the bread that God gives is the one who came down from heaven to give life to the world.”

<sup>34</sup>The people said, “Lord, give us this bread and don't ever stop!”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus replied: I am the bread that gives life! No one who comes to me will ever be hungry. No one who has faith in me will ever be thirsty.

<sup>36</sup>I have told you already that you have seen me and still do not have faith in me.

<sup>37</sup>Everything and everyone that the Father has given me will come to me, and I won't turn any of them away.

<sup>38</sup>I didn't come from heaven to do what I want! I came to do what the Father wants me to do. He sent me, <sup>39</sup>and he wants to make certain that none of the ones he has given me will be lost. Instead, he wants me to raise them to life on the last day.

<sup>40</sup>My Father wants everyone who sees the Son to have faith in him and to have eternal life. Then I will raise them to life on the last day.

<sup>41</sup>The people started grumbling because Jesus had said he was the bread that had come down from heaven.

<sup>42</sup>They were asking each other, “Isn't he Jesus, the son of Joseph? Don't we know his father and mother? How can he say that he has come down from heaven?”

<sup>43</sup>Jesus told them: Stop grumbling!

<sup>44</sup>No one can come to me, unless the Father who sent me makes them want to come. But if they do come, I will raise them to life on the last day.

<sup>45</sup>One of the prophets wrote, “God will teach all of them.” And so everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him will come to me.

<sup>46</sup>The only one who has seen the Father is the one who has come from him. No one else has ever seen the Father.

<sup>47</sup>I tell you for certain that everyone who has faith in me has eternal life.

<sup>48</sup>I am the bread that gives life!

<sup>49</sup>Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, and later they died.

<sup>50</sup>But the bread from heaven has come down, so that no one who eats it will ever die.

<sup>51</sup>I am that bread from heaven! Everyone who eats it will live for ever. My flesh is the life-giving bread that I give to the people of this world.

<sup>52</sup>They started arguing with each other and asked, “How can he give us his flesh to eat?”

<sup>53</sup>Jesus answered: I tell you for certain that you won't live unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man.

<sup>54</sup>But if you do eat my flesh and drink my blood, you will have eternal life, and I will raise you to life on the last day.

<sup>55</sup>My flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink.

<sup>56</sup>If you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you are one with me, and I am one with you.

<sup>57</sup>The living Father sent me, and I have life because of him. Now everyone who eats my flesh will live because of me.

<sup>58</sup>The bread that comes down from heaven isn't like what your ancestors ate. They died, but whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

<sup>59</sup>Jesus was teaching in a Jewish place of worship in Capernaum when he said these things.

The words of eternal life

<sup>60</sup>Many of Jesus' disciples heard him and said, "This is too hard for anyone to understand."

<sup>61</sup>Jesus knew that his disciples were grumbling. So he asked, "Does this bother you?"

<sup>62</sup>What if you should see the Son of Man go up to heaven where he came from?

<sup>63</sup>The Spirit is the one who gives life! Human strength can do nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are from that life-giving Spirit.

<sup>64</sup>But some of you refuse to have faith in me." Jesus said this, because from the beginning he knew who would have faith in him. He also knew which one would betray him.

<sup>65</sup>Then Jesus said, "You cannot come to me, unless the Father makes you want to come. That is why I have told these things to all of you."

<sup>66</sup>Because of what Jesus said, many of his disciples turned their backs on him and stopped following him.

<sup>67</sup>Jesus then asked his twelve disciples if they were going to leave him.

<sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered, "Lord, there is no one else that we can go to! Your words give eternal life.

<sup>69</sup>We have faith in you, and we are sure that you are God's Holy One.”

<sup>70</sup>Jesus told his disciples, “I chose all twelve of you, but one of you is a demon!”

<sup>71</sup>Jesus was talking about Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. He would later betray Jesus, even though he was one of the twelve disciples.

John 7

Jesus' brothers don't have faith in him

<sup>1</sup>Jesus decided to leave Judea and to start going through Galilee because the Jewish leaders wanted to kill him.

<sup>2</sup>It was almost time for the Festival of Shelters,

<sup>3</sup>and Jesus' brothers said to him, “Why don't you go to Judea? Then your disciples can see what you are doing.

<sup>4</sup>No one does anything in secret, if they want others to know about them. So let the world know what you are doing!”

<sup>5</sup>Even Jesus' own brothers had not yet become his followers.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus answered, “My time hasn't yet come, but your time is always here.

<sup>7</sup>The people of this world cannot hate you. They hate me, because I tell them that they do evil things.

<sup>8</sup>Go on to the festival. My time hasn't yet come, and I am not going.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said this and stayed on in Galilee.

Jesus at the Festival of Shelters

<sup>10</sup>After Jesus' brothers had gone to the festival, he went secretly, without telling anyone.

<sup>11</sup>During the festival the Jewish leaders looked for Jesus and asked, “Where is he?”

<sup>12</sup>The crowds even got into an argument about him. Some were saying, “Jesus is a good man,” while others were saying, “He is lying to everyone.”

<sup>13</sup>But the people were afraid of their leaders, and none of them talked in public about him.

<sup>14</sup>When the festival was about half over, Jesus went into the temple and started teaching.

<sup>15</sup>The leaders were surprised and said, “How does this man know so much? He has never been taught!”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus replied: I am not teaching something that I thought up. What I teach comes from the one who sent me.

<sup>17</sup>If you really want to obey God, you will know if what I teach comes from God or from me.

<sup>18</sup>If I wanted to bring honour to myself, I would speak for myself. But I want to honour the one who sent me. That is why I tell the truth and not a lie.

<sup>19</sup>Didn't Moses give you the Law? Yet none of you obey it! So why do you want to kill me?

<sup>20</sup>The crowd replied, “You're mad! What makes you think someone wants to kill you?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered: I performed one miracle, and it amazed you.

<sup>22</sup>Moses commanded you to circumcise your sons. But it wasn't really Moses who gave you this command. It was your ancestors, and even on the Sabbath you circumcise your sons

<sup>23</sup>in order to obey the Law of Moses. Why are you angry with me for making someone completely well on the Sabbath?

<sup>24</sup>Don't judge by appearances. Judge by what is right.

<sup>25</sup>Some of the people from Jerusalem were saying, “Isn't this the man they want to kill?”

<sup>26</sup>Yet here he is, speaking for everyone to hear. And no one is arguing with him. Do you suppose the authorities know that he is the Messiah?

<sup>27</sup>But how could that be? No one knows where the Messiah will come from, but we know where this man comes from.”

<sup>28</sup>As Jesus was teaching in the temple, he shouted, “Do you really think you know me and where I came from? I didn't come on my own! The one who sent me is truthful, and you don't know him.

<sup>29</sup>But I know the one who sent me, because I came from him.”

<sup>30</sup>Some of the people wanted to arrest Jesus there and then. But no one even laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>A lot of people in the crowd put their faith in him and said, “When the Messiah comes, he won't perform more miracles than this man has done!”

Officers sent to arrest Jesus

<sup>32</sup>When the Pharisees heard the crowd arguing about Jesus, they got together with the chief priests and sent some temple police to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup>But Jesus told them, “I will be with you a little while longer, and then I will return to the one who sent me.

<sup>34</sup>You will look for me, but you won't find me. You cannot go where I am going.”

<sup>35</sup>The Jewish leaders asked each other, “Where can he go to keep us from finding him? Is he going to some foreign country where our people live? Is he going there to teach the Greeks?

<sup>36</sup>What did he mean by saying that we will look for him, but won't find him? Why can't we go where he is going?”

Streams of life-giving water

<sup>37</sup>On the last and most important day of the festival, Jesus stood up and shouted, “If you are thirsty, come to me and drink!

<sup>38</sup>Have faith in me, and you will have life-giving water flowing from deep inside you, just as the Scriptures say.”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus was talking about the Holy Spirit, who would be given to everyone that had faith in him. The Spirit had not yet been given to anyone, since Jesus had not yet been given his full glory.

The people take sides

<sup>40</sup>When the crowd heard Jesus say this, some of them said, “He must be the Prophet!”

<sup>41</sup>Others said, “He is the Messiah!” Others even said, “Can the Messiah come from Galilee?”

<sup>42</sup>The Scriptures say that the Messiah will come from the family of King David. Doesn't this mean that he will be born in David's home town of Bethlehem?”

<sup>43</sup>The people started taking sides against each other because of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup>Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him.

The leaders refuse to have faith in Jesus

<sup>45</sup>When the temple police returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, they were asked, “Why didn't you bring Jesus here?”

<sup>46</sup>They answered, “No one has ever spoken like that man!”

<sup>47</sup>The Pharisees said to them, “Have you also been fooled?”

<sup>48</sup>Not one of the chief priests or the Pharisees has faith in him.

<sup>49</sup>And these people who don't know the Law are under God's curse anyway.”

<sup>50</sup>Nicodemus was there at the time. He was a member of the council, and was the same one who had earlier come to see Jesus. He said,

<sup>51</sup>“Our Law doesn't let us condemn people before we hear what they have to say. We cannot judge them before we know what they have done.”

<sup>52</sup>Then they said, “Nicodemus, you must be from Galilee! Read the Scriptures, and you will find that no prophet is to come from Galilee.”

A woman caught in sin

<sup>53</sup>Everyone else went home,

John 8

<sup>1</sup>but Jesus walked out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>2</sup>Then early the next morning he went to the temple. The people came to him, and he sat down and started teaching them.

<sup>3</sup>The Pharisees and the teachers of the Law of Moses brought in a woman who had been caught in bed with a man who wasn't her husband. They made her stand in the middle of the crowd.

<sup>4</sup>Then they said, “Teacher, this woman was caught sleeping with a man who isn't her husband.

<sup>5</sup>The Law of Moses teaches that a woman like this should be stoned to death! What do you say?”

<sup>6</sup>They asked Jesus this question, because they wanted to test him and bring some charge against him. But Jesus simply bent over and started writing on the ground with his finger.

<sup>7</sup>They kept on asking Jesus about the woman. Finally, he stood up and said, “If any of you have never sinned, then go ahead and throw the first stone at her!”

<sup>8</sup>Once again he bent over and began writing on the ground.

<sup>9</sup>The people left one by one, beginning with the oldest. Finally, Jesus and the woman were there alone.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus stood up and asked her, “Where is everyone? Isn't there anyone left to accuse you?”

<sup>11</sup>“No sir,” the woman answered. Then Jesus told her, “I am not going to accuse you either. You may go now, but don't sin any more.”

Jesus is the light for the world

12 Once again Jesus spoke to the people. This time he said, “I am the light for the world! Follow me, and you won't be walking in the dark. You will have the light that gives life.”

13 The Pharisees objected, “You are the only one speaking for yourself, and what you say isn't true!”

14 Jesus replied: Even if I do speak for myself, what I say is true! I know where I came from and where I am going. But you don't know where I am from or where I am going.

15 You judge in the same way that everyone else does, but I don't judge anyone.

16 If I did judge, I would judge fairly, because I would not be doing it alone. The Father who sent me is here with me.

17 Your Law requires two witnesses to prove that something is true.

18 I am one of my witnesses, and the Father who sent me is the other one.

19 “Where is your Father?” they asked. “You don't know me or my Father!” Jesus answered. “If you knew me, you would know my Father.”

20 Jesus said this while he was still teaching in the place where the temple treasures were stored. But no one arrested him, because his time had not yet come.

You cannot go where I am going

21 Jesus also told them, “I am going away, and you will look for me. But you cannot go where I am going, and you will die with your sins unforgiven.”

22 The Jewish leaders asked, “Does he intend to kill himself? Is that what he means by saying we cannot go where he is going?”

23 Jesus answered, “You are from below, but I am from above. You belong to this world, but I don't.

<sup>24</sup>That is why I said you will die with your sins unforgiven. If you don't have faith in me for who I am, you will die, and your sins will not be forgiven.”

<sup>25</sup>“Who are you?” they asked Jesus. Jesus answered, “I am exactly who I told you at the beginning.

<sup>26</sup>There is a lot more I could say to condemn you. But the one who sent me is truthful, and I tell the people of this world only what I have heard from him.”

<sup>27</sup>No one understood that Jesus was talking to them about the Father.

<sup>28</sup>Jesus went on to say, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, you will know who I am. You will also know that I don't do anything on my own. I say only what my Father taught me.

<sup>29</sup>The one who sent me is with me. I always do what pleases him, and he will never leave me.”

<sup>30</sup>After Jesus said this, many of the people put their faith in him.

The truth will set you free

<sup>31</sup>Jesus told the people who had faith in him, “If you keep on obeying what I have said, you truly are my disciples.

<sup>32</sup>You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

<sup>33</sup>They answered, “We are Abraham's children! We have never been anyone's slaves. How can you say we will be set free?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied: I tell you for certain that anyone who sins is a slave of sin!

<sup>35</sup>And slaves don't stay in the family for ever, though the Son will always remain in the family.

<sup>36</sup>If the Son gives you freedom, you are free!

<sup>37</sup>I know that you are from Abraham's family. Yet you want to kill me, because my message isn't really in your hearts.

<sup>38</sup>I am telling you what my Father has shown me, just as you are doing what your father has taught you.

Your father is the devil

<sup>39</sup>The people said to Jesus, “Abraham is our father!” Jesus replied, “If you were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did.

<sup>40</sup>Instead, you want to kill me for telling you the truth that God gave me. Abraham never did anything like that.

<sup>41</sup>But you are doing exactly what your father does.” “Don't accuse us of having someone else as our father!” they said. “We just have one father, and he is God.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus answered: If God were your Father, you would love me, because I came from God and only from him. He sent me. I did not come on my own.

<sup>43</sup>Why can't you understand what I am talking about? Can't you stand to hear what I am saying?

<sup>44</sup>Your father is the devil, and you do exactly what he wants. He has always been a murderer and a liar. There is nothing truthful about him. He speaks on his own, and everything he says is a lie. Not only is he a liar himself, but he is also the father of all lies.

<sup>45</sup>Everything I have told you is true, and you still refuse to have faith in me.

<sup>46</sup>Can any of you accuse me of sin? If you cannot, why won't you have faith in me? After all, I am telling you the truth.

<sup>47</sup>Anyone who belongs to God will listen to his message. But you refuse to listen, because you don't belong to God.

Jesus and Abraham

<sup>48</sup>The people told Jesus, “We were right to say that you are a Samaritan and that you have a demon in you!”

<sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, “I don't have a demon in me. I honour my Father, and you refuse to honour me.

<sup>50</sup>I don't want honour for myself. But there is one who wants me to be honoured, and he is also the one who judges.

<sup>51</sup>I tell you for certain that if you obey my words, you will never die.”

<sup>52</sup>Then the people said, “Now we are sure that you have a demon. Abraham is dead, and so are the prophets. How can you say that no one who obeys your words will ever die?

<sup>53</sup>Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

<sup>54</sup>Jesus replied, “If I honoured myself, it would mean nothing. My Father is the one who honours me. You claim that he is your God, <sup>55</sup>even though you don't really know him. If I said I didn't know him, I would be a liar, just like all of you. But I know him, and I do what he says.

<sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham was really glad to see me.”

<sup>57</sup>“You are not even fifty years old!” they said. “How could you have seen Abraham?”

<sup>58</sup>Jesus answered, “I tell you for certain that even before Abraham was, I was, and I am.”

<sup>59</sup>The people picked up stones to kill Jesus, but he hid and left the temple.

John 9

Jesus heals a man born blind

<sup>1</sup>As Jesus walked along, he saw a man who had been blind since birth.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus' disciples asked, “Teacher, why was this man born blind? Was it because he or his parents sinned?”

<sup>3</sup>“No, it wasn't!” Jesus answered. “But because of his blindness, you will see God perform a miracle for him.

<sup>4</sup>As long as it is day, we must do what the one who sent me wants me to do. When night comes, no one can work.

<sup>5</sup> While I am in the world, I am the light for the world.”

<sup>6</sup> After Jesus said this, he spat on the ground. He made some mud and smeared it on the man's eyes.

<sup>7</sup> Then he said, “Go and wash off the mud in Siloam Pool.” The man went and washed in Siloam, which means “One who is sent”. When he had washed off the mud, he could see.

<sup>8</sup> The man's neighbours and the people who had seen him begging wondered if he really could be the same man.

<sup>9</sup> Some of them said he was the same beggar, while others said he only looked like him. But he told them, “I am that man.”

<sup>10</sup> “Then how can you see?” they asked.

<sup>11</sup> He answered, “Someone named Jesus made some mud and smeared it on my eyes. He told me to go and wash it off in Siloam Pool. When I did, I could see.”

<sup>12</sup> “Where is he now?” they asked. “I don't know,” he answered.

The Pharisees try to find out what happened

<sup>13-14</sup> The day when Jesus made the mud and healed the man was a Sabbath. So the people took the man to the Pharisees.

<sup>15</sup> They asked him how he was able to see, and he answered, “Jesus made some mud and smeared it on my eyes. Then after I washed it off, I could see.”

<sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus doesn't come from God. If he did, he would not break the law of the Sabbath.” Others asked, “How could someone who is a sinner perform such a miracle?” Since the Pharisees could not agree among themselves, <sup>17</sup> they asked the man, “What do you say about this one who healed your eyes?” “He is a prophet!” the man told them.

<sup>18</sup> But the Jewish leaders would not believe that the man had once been blind. They sent for his parents

<sup>19</sup>and asked them, “Is this the son that you said was born blind? How can he now see?”

<sup>20</sup>The man's parents answered, “We are certain that he is our son, and we know that he was born blind.

<sup>21</sup>But we don't know how he got his sight or who gave it to him. Ask him! He is old enough to speak for himself.”

<sup>22-23</sup>The man's parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. The leaders had already agreed that no one was to have anything to do with anyone who said Jesus was the Messiah.

<sup>24</sup>The leaders called the man back and said, “Swear by God to tell the truth! We know that Jesus is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup>The man replied, “I don't know if he is a sinner or not. All I know is that I used to be blind, but now I can see!”

<sup>26</sup>“What did he do to you?” the Jewish leaders asked. “How did he heal your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup>The man answered, “I have already told you once, and you refused to listen. Why do you want me to tell you again? Do you also want to become his disciples?”

<sup>28</sup>The leaders insulted the man and said, “You are his follower! We are followers of Moses.

<sup>29</sup>We are sure that God spoke to Moses, but we don't even know where Jesus comes from.”

<sup>30</sup>“How strange!” the man replied. “He healed my eyes, and yet you don't know where he comes from.

<sup>31</sup>We know that God listens only to people who love and obey him. God doesn't listen to sinners.

<sup>32</sup>And this is the first time in history that anyone has ever given sight to someone born blind.

<sup>33</sup>Jesus could not do anything unless he came from God.”

<sup>34</sup>The leaders told the man, “You have been a sinner since the day you were born! Do you think you can teach us anything?” Then they said, “You can never come back into any of our meeting places!”

<sup>35</sup>When Jesus heard what had happened, he went and found the man. Then Jesus asked, “Do you have faith in the Son of Man?”

<sup>36</sup>He replied, “Sir, if you will tell me who he is, I will put my faith in him.”

<sup>37</sup>“You have already seen him,” Jesus answered, “and right now he is talking with you.”

<sup>38</sup>The man said, “Lord, I put my faith in you!” Then he worshipped Jesus.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus told him, “I came to judge the people of this world. I am here to give sight to the blind and to make blind everyone who can see.”

<sup>40</sup>When the Pharisees heard Jesus say this, they asked, “Are we blind?”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus answered, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty. But now that you claim to see, you will keep on being guilty.”

John 10

A story about sheep

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said: I tell you for certain that only thieves and robbers climb over the fence instead of going in through the gate to the sheep pen.

<sup>2-3</sup>But the gatekeeper opens the gate for the shepherd, and he goes in through it. The sheep know their shepherd's voice. He calls each of them by name and leads them out.

<sup>4</sup>When he has led out all his sheep, he walks in front of them, and they follow, because they know his voice.

<sup>5</sup>The sheep will not follow strangers. They don't recognize a stranger's voice, and they run away.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told the people this story. But they did not understand what he was talking about.

Jesus is the good shepherd

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said: I tell you for certain that I am the gate for the sheep.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone who came before me was a thief or a robber, and the sheep did not listen to any of them.

<sup>9</sup>I am the gate. All who come in through me will be saved. Through me they will come and go and find pasture.

<sup>10</sup>A thief comes only to rob, kill, and destroy. I came so that everyone would have life, and have it fully.

<sup>11</sup>I am the good shepherd, and the good shepherd gives up his life for his sheep.

<sup>12</sup>Hired workers are not like the shepherd. They don't own the sheep, and when they see a wolf coming, they run off and leave the sheep. Then the wolf attacks and scatters the flock.

<sup>13</sup>Hired workers run away because they don't care about the sheep.

<sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, and they know me.

<sup>15</sup>Just as the Father knows me, I know the Father, and I give up my life for my sheep.

<sup>16</sup>I have other sheep that are not in this sheep pen. I must bring them together too, when they hear my voice. Then there will be one flock of sheep and one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>The Father loves me, because I give up my life, so that I may receive it back again.

<sup>18</sup>No one takes my life from me. I give it up willingly! I have the power to give it up and the power to receive it back again, just as my Father commanded me to do.

<sup>19</sup>The people took sides because of what Jesus had told them.

<sup>20</sup>Many of them said, “He has a demon in him! He is mad! Why listen to him?”

<sup>21</sup>But others said, “How could anyone with a demon in him say these things? No one like that could give sight to a blind person!”

Jesus is rejected

<sup>22</sup>That winter, Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Temple Festival.

<sup>23</sup>One day he was walking in that part of the temple known as Solomon's Porch,

<sup>24</sup>and the people gathered all around him. They said, “How long are you going to keep us guessing? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly!”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered: I have told you, and you refused to believe me. The things I do by my Father's authority show who I am.

<sup>26</sup>But since you are not my sheep, you don't believe me.

<sup>27</sup>My sheep know my voice, and I know them. They follow me,

<sup>28</sup>and I give them eternal life, so that they will never be lost. No one can snatch them out of my hand.

<sup>29</sup>My Father gave them to me, and he is greater than all others. No one can snatch them from his hands, <sup>30</sup>and I am one with the Father.

<sup>31</sup>Once again the Jewish leaders picked up stones in order to kill Jesus.

<sup>32</sup>But he said, “I have shown you many good things that my Father sent me to do. Which one are you going to stone me for?”

<sup>33</sup>They answered, “We are not stoning you because of any good thing you did. We are stoning you because you did a terrible thing. You are just a man, and here you are claiming to be God!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied: In your Scriptures doesn't God say, “You are gods”?

<sup>35</sup>You can't argue with the Scriptures, and God spoke to those people and called them gods.

<sup>36</sup>So why do you accuse me of a terrible sin for saying that I am the Son of God? After all, it is the Father who prepared me for this work. He is also the one who sent me into the world.

<sup>37</sup>If I don't do as my Father does, you should not believe me.

<sup>38</sup>But if I do what my Father does, you should believe because of that, even if you don't have faith in me. Then you will know for certain that the Father is one with me, and I am one with the Father.

<sup>39</sup>Again they wanted to arrest Jesus. But he escaped

<sup>40</sup>and crossed the Jordan to the place where John had earlier been baptizing. While Jesus was there,

<sup>41</sup>many people came to him. They were saying, "John didn't perform any miracles, but everything he said about Jesus is true."

<sup>42</sup>A lot of those people also put their faith in Jesus.

John 11

The death of Lazarus

<sup>1-2</sup> A man called Lazarus was sick in the village of Bethany. He had two sisters, Mary and Martha. This was the same Mary who later poured perfume on the Lord's head and wiped his feet with her hair.

<sup>3</sup>The sisters sent a message to the Lord and told him that his good friend Lazarus was sick.

<sup>4</sup>When Jesus heard this, he said, "His sickness won't end in death. It will bring glory to God and his Son."

<sup>5</sup>Jesus loved Martha and her sister and brother.

<sup>6</sup>But he stayed where he was for two more days.

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "Now we will go back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup>“Teacher,” they said, “the people there want to stone you to death! Why do you want to go back?”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, “Aren't there twelve hours in each day? If you walk during the day, you will have light from the sun, and you won't stumble.

<sup>10</sup>But if you walk during the night, you will stumble, because you don't have any light.”

<sup>11</sup>Then he told them, “Our friend Lazarus is asleep, and I am going there to wake him up.”

<sup>12</sup>They replied, “Lord, if he is asleep, he will get better.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus really meant that Lazarus was dead, but they thought he was talking only about sleep.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead!

<sup>15</sup>I am glad that I wasn't there, because now you will have a chance to put your faith in me. Let's go to him.”

<sup>16</sup>Thomas, whose nickname was “Twin”, said to the other disciples, “Come on. Let's go, so we can die with him.”

Jesus brings Lazarus to life

<sup>17</sup>When Jesus got to Bethany, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.

<sup>18</sup>Bethany was less than three kilometres from Jerusalem,

<sup>19</sup>and many people had come from the city to comfort Martha and Mary because their brother had died.

<sup>20</sup>When Martha heard that Jesus had arrived, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house.

<sup>21</sup>Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup>Yet even now I know that God will do anything you ask.”

- <sup>23</sup>Jesus told her, “Your brother will live again!”
- <sup>24</sup>Martha answered, “I know that he will be raised to life on the last day, when all the dead are raised.”
- <sup>25</sup>Jesus then said, “I am the one who raises the dead to life! Everyone who has faith in me will live, even if they die.
- <sup>26</sup>And everyone who lives because of faith in me will never really die. Do you believe this?”
- <sup>27</sup>“Yes, Lord!” she replied. “I believe that you are Christ, the Son of God. You are the one we hoped would come into the world.”
- <sup>28</sup>After Martha said this, she went and privately said to her sister Mary, “The Teacher is here, and he wants to see you.”
- <sup>29</sup>As soon as Mary heard this, she got up and went out to Jesus.
- <sup>30</sup>He was still outside the village where Martha had gone to meet him.
- <sup>31</sup>Many people had come to comfort Mary, and when they saw her quickly leave the house, they thought she was going out to the tomb to cry. So they followed her.
- <sup>32</sup>Mary went to where Jesus was. Then as soon as she saw him, she knelt at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”
- <sup>33</sup>When Jesus saw that Mary and the people with her were crying, he was terribly upset
- <sup>34</sup>and asked, “Where have you put his body?” They replied, “Lord, come and you will see.”
- <sup>35</sup>Jesus started crying,
- <sup>36</sup>and the people said, “See how much he loved Lazarus.”
- <sup>37</sup>Some of them said, “He gives sight to the blind. Why couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus was still terribly upset. So he went to the tomb, which was a cave with a stone rolled against the entrance.

<sup>39</sup>Then he told the people to roll the stone away. But Martha said, “Lord, you know that Lazarus has been dead four days, and there will be a bad smell.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus replied, “Didn't I tell you that if you had faith, you would see the glory of God?”

<sup>41</sup>After the stone had been rolled aside, Jesus looked up towards heaven and prayed, “Father, I thank you for answering my prayer.

<sup>42</sup>I know that you always answer my prayers. But I said this, so that the people here would believe that you sent me.”

<sup>43</sup>When Jesus had finished praying, he shouted, “Lazarus, come out!”

<sup>44</sup>The man who had been dead came out. His hands and feet were wrapped with strips of burial cloth, and a cloth covered his face. Jesus then told the people, “Untie him and let him go.”

The plot to kill Jesus

(Matthew 26.1–5; Mark 14.1,2; Luke 22.1,2)

<sup>45</sup>Many of the people who had come to visit Mary saw the things that Jesus did, and they put their faith in him.

<sup>46</sup>Others went to the Pharisees and told what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup>Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called the council together and said, “What should we do? This man is performing a lot of miracles.

<sup>48</sup>If we don't stop him now, everyone will put their faith in him. Then the Romans will come and destroy our temple and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>One of the council members was Caiaphas, who was also high priest that year. He spoke up and said, “You people don't have any sense at all!

<sup>50</sup>Don't you know it is better for one person to die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed?”

<sup>51</sup>Caiaphas did not say this on his own. As high priest that year, he was prophesying that Jesus would die for the nation.

<sup>52</sup>Yet Jesus would not die just for the Jewish nation. He would die to bring together all God's scattered people.

<sup>53</sup>From that day on, the council started making plans to put Jesus to death.

<sup>54</sup>Because of this plot against him, Jesus stopped going around in public. He went to the town of Ephraim, which was near the desert, and he stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup>It was almost time for Passover. Many of the Jewish people who lived out in the country had come to Jerusalem to get themselves ready for the festival.

<sup>56</sup>They looked around for Jesus. Then when they were in the temple, they asked each other, "You don't think he will come here for Passover, do you?"

<sup>57</sup>The chief priests and the Pharisees told the people to let them know if any of them saw Jesus. That is how they hoped to arrest him.

John 12

At Bethany

(Matthew 26.6–13; Mark 14.3–9)

<sup>1</sup>Six days before Passover Jesus went back to Bethany, where he had raised Lazarus from death.

<sup>2</sup>A meal had been prepared for Jesus. Martha was doing the serving, and Lazarus himself was there.

<sup>3</sup>Mary took a very expensive bottle of perfume and poured it on Jesus' feet. She wiped them with her hair, and the sweet smell of the perfume filled the house.

<sup>4</sup>A disciple named Judas Iscariot was there. He was the one who was going to betray Jesus, and he asked,

<sup>5</sup>"Why wasn't this perfume sold for three hundred silver coins and the money given to the poor?"

<sup>6</sup>Judas did not really care about the poor. He asked this because he carried the money bag and sometimes would steal from it.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus replied, “Leave her alone! She has kept this perfume for the day of my burial.

<sup>8</sup>You will always have the poor with you, but you won't always have me.”

A plot to kill Lazarus

<sup>9</sup>A lot of people came when they heard that Jesus was there. They also wanted to see Lazarus, because Jesus had raised him from death.

<sup>10</sup>So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus.

<sup>11</sup>He was the reason that many of the Jewish people were turning from them and putting their faith in Jesus.

Jesus enters Jerusalem

(Matthew 21.1–11; Mark 11.1–11; Luke 19.28–40)

<sup>12</sup>The next day a large crowd was in Jerusalem for Passover. When they heard that Jesus was coming for the festival,

<sup>13</sup>they took palm branches and went out to greet him. They shouted, “Hooray! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord! God bless the King of Israel!”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus found a donkey and rode on it, just as the Scriptures say,

<sup>15</sup>“People of Jerusalem, don't be afraid! Your King is now coming, and he is riding on a donkey.”

<sup>16</sup>At first, Jesus' disciples did not understand. But after he had been given his glory, they remembered all this. Everything had happened exactly as the Scriptures said it would.

<sup>17-18</sup>A crowd had come to meet Jesus because they had seen him call Lazarus out of the tomb. They kept talking about him and this miracle.

<sup>19</sup>But the Pharisees said to each other, “There is nothing that can be done! Everyone in the world is following Jesus.”

Some Greeks want to meet Jesus

<sup>20</sup>Some Greeks had gone to Jerusalem to worship during Passover.

<sup>21</sup>Philip from Bethsaida in Galilee was there too. So they went to him and said, “Sir, we would like to meet Jesus.”

<sup>22</sup>Philip told Andrew. Then the two of them went to Jesus and told him.

The Son of Man must be lifted up

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said: The time has come for the Son of Man to be given his glory.

<sup>24</sup>I tell you for certain that a grain of wheat that falls on the ground will never be more than one grain unless it dies. But if it dies, it will produce lots of wheat.

<sup>25</sup>If you love your life, you will lose it. If you give it up in this world, you will be given eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>If you serve me, you must go with me. My servants will be with me wherever I am. If you serve me, my Father will honour you.

<sup>27</sup>Now I am deeply troubled, and I don't know what to say. But I must not ask my Father to keep me from this time of suffering. In fact, I came into the world to suffer.

<sup>28</sup>So Father, bring glory to yourself. A voice from heaven then said, “I have already brought glory to myself, and I will do it again!”

<sup>29</sup>When the crowd heard the voice, some of them thought it was thunder. Others thought an angel had spoken to Jesus.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus told the crowd, “That voice spoke to help you, not me.

<sup>31</sup>This world's people are now being judged, and the ruler of this world is already being thrown out!

<sup>32</sup>If I am lifted up above the earth, I will make everyone want to come to me.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus was talking about the way he would be put to death.

<sup>34</sup>The crowd said to Jesus, “The Scriptures teach that the Messiah will live for ever. How can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus answered, “The light will be with you for only a little longer. Walk in the light while you can. Then you won't be caught walking blindly in the dark.

<sup>36</sup>Have faith in the light while it is with you, and you will be children of the light.”

The people refuse to have faith in Jesus

After Jesus had said these things, he left and went into hiding.

<sup>37</sup>He had performed a lot of miracles among the people, but they were still not willing to have faith in him.

<sup>38</sup>This happened so that what the prophet Isaiah had said would come true, “Lord, who has believed our message? And who has seen your mighty strength?”

<sup>39</sup>The people could not have faith in Jesus, because Isaiah had also said,

<sup>40</sup>“The Lord has blinded the eyes of the people, and he has made the people stubborn. He did this so that they could not see or understand, and so that they would not turn to the Lord and be healed.”

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah said this, because he saw the glory of Jesus and spoke about him.

<sup>42</sup>Even then, many of the leaders put their faith in Jesus, but they did not tell anyone about it. The Pharisees had already given orders for the people not to have anything to do with anyone who had faith in Jesus.

<sup>43</sup>And besides, the leaders liked praise from others more than they liked praise from God.

Jesus came to save the world

<sup>44</sup>In a loud voice Jesus said: Everyone who has faith in me also has faith in the one who sent me.

<sup>45</sup>And everyone who has seen me has seen the one who sent me.

<sup>46</sup>I am the light that has come into the world. No one who has faith in me will stay in the dark.

<sup>47</sup>I am not the one who will judge those who refuse to obey my teachings. I came to save the people of this world, not to be their judge.

<sup>48</sup>But everyone who rejects me and my teachings will be judged on the last day by what I have said.

<sup>49</sup>I don't speak on my own. I say only what the Father who sent me has told me to say.

<sup>50</sup>I know that his commands will bring eternal life. That is why I tell you exactly what the Father has told me.

John 13

Jesus' last week: his trial and death Jesus washes the feet of his disciples

<sup>1</sup>It was before Passover, and Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and to return to the Father. He had always loved his followers in this world, and he loved them to the very end.

<sup>2</sup>Even before the evening meal started, the devil had made Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, decide to betray Jesus.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus knew that he had come from God and would go back to God. He also knew that the Father had given him complete power.

<sup>4</sup>So during the meal Jesus got up, removed his outer garment, and wrapped a towel around his waist.

<sup>5</sup>He put some water into a large bowl. Then he began washing his disciples' feet and drying them with the towel he was wearing.

<sup>6</sup>But when he came to Simon Peter, that disciple asked, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered, “You don't really know what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

<sup>8</sup>“You will never wash my feet!” Peter replied. “If I don't wash you,” Jesus told him, “you don't really belong to me.”

<sup>9</sup>Peter said, “Lord, don't wash just my feet. Wash my hands and my head.”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered, “People who have bathed and are clean all over need to wash just their feet. And you, my disciples, are clean, except for one of you.”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus knew who would betray him. That is why he said, “except for one of you.”

<sup>12</sup>After Jesus had washed his disciples' feet and had put his outer garment back on, he sat down again. Then he said: Do you understand what I have done?

<sup>13</sup>You call me your teacher and Lord, and you should, because that is who I am.

<sup>14</sup>And if your Lord and teacher has washed your feet, you should do the same for each other.

<sup>15</sup>I have set the example, and you should do for each other exactly what I have done for you.

<sup>16</sup>I tell you for certain that servants are not greater than their master, and messengers are not greater than the one who sent them.

<sup>17</sup>You know these things, and God will bless you, if you do them.

<sup>18</sup>I am not talking about all of you. I know the ones I have chosen. But what the Scriptures say must come true. And they say, “The man who ate with me has turned against me!”

<sup>19</sup>I am telling you this before it all happens. Then when it does happen, you will believe who I am.

<sup>20</sup>I tell you for certain that anyone who welcomes my messengers also welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Jesus tells what will happen to him

(Matthew 26.20–25; Mark 14.17–21; Luke 22.21–23)

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus had said these things, he was deeply troubled and told his disciples, “I tell you for certain that one of you will betray me.”

<sup>22</sup>They were confused about what he meant. And they just stared at each other.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus' favourite disciple was sitting next to him at the meal,

<sup>24</sup>and Simon motioned for that disciple to find out which one Jesus meant.

<sup>25</sup>So the disciple leaned towards Jesus and asked, “Lord, which one of us are you talking about?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, “I will dip this piece of bread in the sauce and give it to the one I was talking about.” Then Jesus dipped the bread and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup>At once Satan took control of Judas. Jesus said, “Judas, go quickly and do what you have to do.”

<sup>28</sup>No one at the meal understood what Jesus meant.

<sup>29</sup>But because Judas was in charge of the money, some of them thought that Jesus had told him to buy something they needed for the festival. Others thought that Jesus had told him to give some money to the poor.

<sup>30</sup>Judas took the piece of bread and went out. It was already night.

The new command

<sup>31</sup>After Judas had gone, Jesus said: Now the Son of Man will be given glory, and he will bring glory to God.

<sup>32</sup>Then, after God is given glory because of him, God will bring glory to him, and God will do it very soon.

<sup>33</sup>My children, I will be with you for a little while longer. Then you will look for me, but you won't find me. I tell you just as I told the people, "You cannot go where I am going."

<sup>34</sup>But I am giving you a new command. You must love each other, just as I have loved you.

<sup>35</sup>If you love each other, everyone will know that you are my disciples.

Peter's promise

(Matthew 26.31–35; Mark 14.27–31; Luke 22.31–34)

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter asked, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "You can't go with me now, but later on you will."

<sup>37</sup>Peter asked, "Lord, why can't I go with you now? I would die for you!"

<sup>38</sup>"Would you really die for me?" Jesus asked. "I tell you for certain that before a cock crows, you will say three times that you don't even know me."

John 14

Jesus is the way to the Father

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to his disciples, "Don't be worried! Have faith in God and have faith in me.

<sup>2</sup>There are many rooms in my Father's house. I wouldn't tell you this, unless it was true. I am going there to prepare a place for each of you.

<sup>3</sup>After I have done this, I will come back and take you with me. Then we will be together.

<sup>4</sup>You know the way to where I am going."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said, "Lord, we don't even know where you are going! How can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup>"I am the way, the truth, and the life!" Jesus answered. "Without me, no one can go to the Father.

<sup>7</sup>If you had known me, you would have known the Father. But from now on, you do know him, and you have seen him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father. That is all we need.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied: Philip, I have been with you for a long time. Don't you know who I am? If you have seen me, you have seen the Father. How can you ask me to show you the Father?

<sup>10</sup>Don't you believe that I am one with the Father and that the Father is one with me? What I say isn't said on my own. The Father who lives in me does these things.

<sup>11</sup>Have faith in me when I say that the Father is one with me and that I am one with the Father. Or else have faith in me simply because of the things I do.

<sup>12</sup>I tell you for certain that if you have faith in me, you will do the same things that I am doing. You will do even greater things, now that I am going back to the Father.

<sup>13</sup>Ask me, and I will do whatever you ask. This way the Son will bring honour to the Father.

<sup>14</sup>I will do whatever you ask me to do.

The Holy Spirit is promised

<sup>15</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: If you love me, you will do as I command.

<sup>16</sup>Then I will ask the Father to send you the Holy Spirit who will help you and always be with you.

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit will show you what is true. The people of this world cannot accept the Spirit, because they don't see or know him. But you know the Spirit, who is with you and will keep on living in you.

<sup>18</sup>I won't leave you like orphans. I will come back to you.

<sup>19</sup>In a little while the people of this world won't be able to see me, but you will see me. And because I live, you will live.

<sup>20</sup>Then you will know that I am one with the Father. You will know that you are one with me, and I am one with you.

<sup>21</sup>If you love me, you will do what I have said, and my Father will love you. I will also love you and show you what I am like.

<sup>22</sup>The other Judas, not Judas Iscariot, then spoke up and asked, “Lord, what do you mean by saying that you will show us what you are like, but you will not show the people of this world?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied: If anyone loves me, they will obey me. Then my Father will love them, and we will come to them and live in them.

<sup>24</sup>But anyone who doesn't love me, won't obey me. What they have heard me say doesn't really come from me, but from the Father who sent me.

<sup>25</sup>I have told you these things while I am still with you.

<sup>26</sup>But the Holy Spirit will come and help you, because the Father will send the Spirit to take my place. The Spirit will teach you everything and will remind you of what I said while I was with you.

<sup>27</sup>I give you peace, the kind of peace that only I can give. It isn't like the peace that this world can give. So don't be worried or afraid.

<sup>28</sup>You have already heard me say that I am going and that I will also come back to you. If you really love me, you should be glad that I am going back to the Father, because he is greater than I am.

<sup>29</sup>I am telling you this before I leave, so that when it does happen, you will have faith in me.

<sup>30</sup>I cannot speak with you much longer, because the ruler of this world is coming. But he has no power over me.

<sup>31</sup>I obey my Father, so that everyone in the world might know that I love him. It is time for us to go now.

John 15

Jesus is the true vine

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to his disciples: I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener.

<sup>2</sup>He cuts away every branch of mine that doesn't produce fruit. But he trims clean every branch that does produce fruit, so that it will produce even more fruit.

<sup>3</sup>You are already clean because of what I have said to you.

<sup>4</sup>Stay joined to me, and I will stay joined to you. Just as a branch cannot produce fruit unless it stays joined to the vine, you cannot produce fruit unless you stay joined to me.

<sup>5</sup>I am the vine, and you are the branches. If you stay joined to me, and I stay joined to you, then you will produce lots of fruit. But you cannot do anything without me.

<sup>6</sup>If you don't stay joined to me, you will be thrown away. You will be like dry branches that are gathered up and burnt in a fire.

<sup>7</sup>Stay joined to me and let my teachings become part of you. Then you can pray for whatever you want, and your prayer will be answered.

<sup>8</sup>When you become fruitful disciples of mine, my Father will be honoured.

<sup>9</sup>I have loved you, just as my Father has loved me. So remain faithful to my love for you.

<sup>10</sup>If you obey me, I will keep loving you, just as my Father keeps loving me, because I have obeyed him.

<sup>11</sup>I have told you this to make you as completely happy as I am.

<sup>12</sup>Now I tell you to love each other, as I have loved you.

<sup>13</sup>The greatest way to show love for friends is to die for them.

<sup>14</sup>And you are my friends, if you obey me.

<sup>15</sup>Servants don't know what their master is doing, and so I don't speak to you as my servants. I speak to you as my friends, and I have told you everything that my Father has told me.

<sup>16</sup>You did not choose me. I chose you and sent you out to produce fruit, the kind of fruit that will last. Then my Father will give you whatever you ask for in my name.

<sup>17</sup>So I command you to love each other.

The world's hatred

Jesus continued:

<sup>18</sup>If the people of this world hate you, just remember that they hated me first.

<sup>19</sup>If you belonged to the world, its people would love you. But you don't belong to the world. I have chosen you to leave the world behind, and that is why its people hate you.

<sup>20</sup>Remember how I told you that servants are not greater than their master. So if people ill-treat me, they will ill-treat you. If they do what I say, they will do what you say.

<sup>21</sup>People will do to you exactly what they did to me. They will do it because you belong to me, and they don't know the one who sent me.

<sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

<sup>23</sup>Everyone who hates me also hates my Father.

<sup>24</sup>I have done things that no one else has ever done. If they had not seen me do these things, they would not be guilty. But they did see me do these things, and they still hate me and my Father too.

<sup>25</sup>That is why the Scriptures are true when they say, "People hated me for no reason."

<sup>26</sup>I will send you the Spirit who comes from the Father and shows what is true. The Spirit will help you and will tell you about me.

<sup>27</sup>Then you will also tell others about me, because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16

Jesus continued:

<sup>1</sup>I am telling you this to keep you from being afraid.

<sup>2</sup>You will be chased out of the Jewish meeting places. And the time will come when people will kill you and think they are doing God a favour.

<sup>3</sup>They will do these things because they don't know either the Father or me.

<sup>4</sup>I am saying this to you now, so that when the time comes, you will remember what I have said.

The work of the Holy Spirit

Jesus continued:

I was with you at the first, and so I didn't tell you these things.

<sup>5</sup>But now I am going back to the Father who sent me, and none of you asks me where I am going.

<sup>6</sup>You are very sad from hearing all this.

<sup>7</sup>But I tell you that I am going to do what is best for you. That is why I am going away. The Holy Spirit cannot come to help you until I leave. But after I am gone, I will send the Spirit to you.

<sup>8</sup>The Spirit will come and show the people of this world the truth about sin and God's justice and the judgment.

<sup>9</sup>The Spirit will show them that they are wrong about sin, because they didn't have faith in me.

<sup>10</sup>They are wrong about God's justice, because I am going to the Father, and you won't see me again.

<sup>11</sup>And they are wrong about the judgment, because God has already judged the ruler of this world.

<sup>12</sup>I have much more to say to you, but right now it would be more than you could understand.

<sup>13</sup>The Spirit shows what is true and will come and guide you into the full truth. The Spirit doesn't speak on his own. He will tell you only what he has heard from me, and he will let you know what is going to happen.

<sup>14</sup>The Spirit will bring glory to me by taking my message and telling it to you.

<sup>15</sup>Everything that the Father has is mine. That is why I have said that the Spirit takes my message and tells it to you.

Sorrow will turn into joy

<sup>16</sup>Jesus told his disciples, "For a little while you won't see me, but after a while you will see me."

<sup>17</sup>They said to each other, "What does Jesus mean by saying that for a little while we won't see him, but after a while we will see him? What does he mean by saying that he is going to the Father?"

<sup>18</sup>What is this 'little while' that he is talking about? We don't know what he means."

<sup>19</sup>Jesus knew that they had some questions, so he said: You are wondering what I meant when I said that for a little while you won't see me, but after a while you will see me.

<sup>20</sup>I tell you for certain that you will cry and be sad, but the world will be happy. You will be sad, but later you will be happy.

<sup>21</sup>When a woman is about to give birth, she is in great pain. But after it is all over, she forgets the pain and is happy, because she has brought a child into the world.

<sup>22</sup>You are now very sad. But later I will see you, and you will be so happy that no one will be able to change the way you feel.

<sup>23</sup>When that time comes, you won't have to ask me about anything. I tell you for certain that the Father will give you whatever you ask for in my name.

<sup>24</sup>You have not asked for anything in this way before, but now you must ask in my name. Then it will be given to you, so that you will be completely happy.

<sup>25</sup>I have used examples to explain to you what I have been talking about. But the time will come when I will speak to you plainly about the Father and will no longer use examples like these.

<sup>26</sup>You will ask the Father in my name, and I won't have to ask him for you.

<sup>27</sup>God the Father loves you because you love me, and you believe that I have come from him.

<sup>28</sup>I came from the Father into the world, but I am leaving the world and returning to the Father.

<sup>29</sup>The disciples said, "Now you are speaking plainly to us! You are not using examples.

<sup>30</sup>At last we know that you understand everything, and we don't have any more questions. Now we believe that you truly have come from God."

<sup>31</sup>Jesus replied: Do you really believe me?

<sup>32</sup>The time will come and is already here when all of you will be scattered. Each of you will go back home and leave me by myself. But the Father will be with me, and I won't be alone.

<sup>33</sup>I have told you this, so that you might have peace in your hearts because of me. While you are in the world, you will have to suffer. But cheer up! I have defeated the world.

John 17

Jesus prays

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus had finished speaking to his disciples, he looked up towards heaven and prayed: Father, the time has come for you to bring glory to your Son, in order that he may bring glory to you.

<sup>2</sup>And you gave him power over all people, so that he would give eternal life to everyone you give him.

<sup>3</sup>Eternal life is to know you, the only true God, and to know Jesus Christ, the one you sent.

<sup>4</sup>I have brought glory to you here on earth by doing everything you gave me to do.

<sup>5</sup>Now, Father, give me back the glory that I had with you before the world was created.

<sup>6</sup>You have given me some followers from this world, and I have shown them what you are like. They were yours, but you gave them to me, and they have obeyed you.

<sup>7</sup>They know that you gave me everything I have.

<sup>8</sup>I told my followers what you told me, and they accepted it. They know that I came from you, and they believe that you are the one who sent me.

<sup>9</sup>I am praying for them, but not for those who belong to this world. My followers belong to you, and I am praying for them.

<sup>10</sup>All that I have is yours, and all that you have is mine, and they will bring glory to me.

<sup>11</sup>Holy Father, I am no longer in the world. I am coming to you, but my followers are still in the world. So keep them safe by the power of the name that you have given me. Then they will be one with each other, just as you and I are one.

<sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost, except the one who had to be lost. This happened so that what the Scriptures say would come true.

<sup>13</sup>I am on my way to you. But I say these things while I am still in the world, so that my followers will have the same complete joy that I do.

<sup>14</sup>I have told them your message. But the people of this world hate them, because they don't belong to this world, just as I don't.

<sup>15</sup>Father, I don't ask you to take my followers out of the world, but keep them safe from the evil one.

<sup>16</sup>They don't belong to this world, and neither do I.

<sup>17</sup>Your word is the truth. So let this truth make them completely yours.

<sup>18</sup>I am sending them into the world, just as you sent me.

<sup>19</sup>I have given myself completely for their sake, so that they may belong completely to the truth.

<sup>20</sup>I am not praying just for these followers. I am also praying for everyone else who will have faith because of what my followers will say about me.

<sup>21</sup>I want all of them to be one with each other, just as I am one with you and you are one with me. I also want them to be one with us. Then the people of this world will believe that you sent me.

<sup>22</sup>I have honoured my followers in the same way that you honoured me, in order that they may be one with each other, just as we are one.

<sup>23</sup>I am one with them, and you are one with me, so that they may become completely one. Then this world's people will know that you sent me. They will know that you love my followers as much as you love me.

<sup>24</sup>Father, I want everyone you have given me to be with me, wherever I am. Then they will see the glory that you have given me, because you loved me before the world was created.

<sup>25</sup>Good Father, the people of this world don't know you. But I know you, and my followers know that you sent me.

<sup>26</sup>I told them what you are like, and I will tell them even more. Then the love that you have for me will become part of them, and I will be one with them.

John 18

Jesus is betrayed and arrested

(Matthew 26.47–56; Mark 14.43–50; Luke 22.47–53)

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished praying, he and his disciples crossed the Kidron Valley and went into a garden.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus had often met there with his disciples, and Judas knew where the place was.

<sup>3-5</sup>Judas had promised to betray Jesus. So he went to the garden with some Roman soldiers and temple police, who had been sent by the chief priests and the Pharisees. They carried torches, lanterns, and weapons. Jesus already knew everything that was going to happen, but he asked, “Who are you looking for?” They answered, “We are looking for Jesus from Nazareth!” Jesus told them, “I am Jesus!”

<sup>6</sup>At once they all backed away and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus again asked, “Who are you looking for?” “We are looking for Jesus from Nazareth,” they answered.

<sup>8</sup>This time Jesus replied, “I have already told you that I am Jesus. If I am the one you are looking for, let these others go.

<sup>9</sup>Then everything will happen, just as I said, ‘I did not lose anyone you gave me.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>Simon Peter had brought along a sword. He now pulled it out and struck at the servant of the high priest. The servant's name was Malchus, and Peter cut off his right ear.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus told Peter, “Put your sword away. I must drink from the cup that the Father has given me.”

Jesus is brought to Annas

(Matthew 26.57,58; Mark 14.53,54; Luke 22.54)

<sup>12</sup>The Roman officer and his men, together with the temple police, arrested Jesus and tied him up.

<sup>13</sup>They took him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

<sup>14</sup>This was the same Caiaphas who had told the Jewish leaders, “It is better if one person dies for the people.”

Peter says he doesn't know Jesus
(Matthew 26.69,70; Mark 14.66–68; Luke 22.55–57)

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. That disciple knew the high priest, and he followed Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest's house.

<sup>16</sup>Peter stayed outside near the gate. But the other disciple came back out and spoke to the girl at the gate. She let Peter go in,

<sup>17</sup>but asked him, “Aren't you one of that man's followers?” “No, I am not!” Peter answered.

<sup>18</sup>It was cold, and the servants and temple police had made a charcoal fire. They were warming themselves around it, when Peter went over and stood near the fire to warm himself.

Jesus is questioned by the high priest
(Matthew 26.59–66; Mark 14.55–64; Luke 22.66–71)

<sup>19</sup>The high priest questioned Jesus about his followers and his teaching.

<sup>20</sup>But Jesus told him, “I have spoken freely in front of everyone. And I have always taught in our meeting places and in the temple, where all our people come together. I have not said anything in secret.

<sup>21</sup>Why are you questioning me? Why don't you ask the people who heard me? They know what I have said.”

<sup>22</sup>As soon as Jesus said this, one of the temple police hit him and said, “That's no way to talk to the high priest!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered, “If I have done something wrong, say so. But if not, why did you hit me?”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus was still tied up, and Annas sent him to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter again denies that he knows Jesus

(Matthew 26.71–75; Mark 14.69–72; Luke 22.58–62)

<sup>25</sup>While Simon Peter was standing there warming himself, someone asked him, “Aren't you one of Jesus' followers?” Again Peter denied it and said, “No, I am not!”

<sup>26</sup>One of the high priest's servants was there. He was a relative of the servant whose ear Peter had cut off, and he asked, “Didn't I see you in the garden with that man?”

<sup>27</sup>Once more Peter denied it, and at once a cock crowed.

Jesus is tried by Pilate

(Matthew 27.1,2,11–14; Mark 15.1–5; Luke 23.1–5)

<sup>28</sup>It was early in the morning when Jesus was taken from Caiaphas to the building where the Roman governor stayed. But the crowd waited outside. Any of them who had gone inside would have become unclean and would not be allowed to eat the Passover meal.

<sup>29</sup>Pilate came out and asked, “What charges are you bringing against this man?”

<sup>30</sup>They answered, “He is a criminal! That's why we brought him to you.”

<sup>31</sup>Pilate told them, “Take him and judge him by your own laws.” The crowd replied, “We are not allowed to put anyone to death.”

<sup>32</sup>And so what Jesus said about his death would soon come true.

<sup>33</sup>Pilate then went back inside. He called Jesus over and asked, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, “Are you asking this on your own or did someone tell you about me?”

<sup>35</sup>“You know I'm not a Jew!” Pilate said. “Your own people and the chief priests brought you to me. What have you done?”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, “My kingdom doesn't belong to this world. If it did, my followers would have fought to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish leaders. No, my kingdom doesn't belong to this world.”

<sup>37</sup>“So you are a king,” Pilate replied. “You are saying that I am a king,” Jesus told him. “I was born into this world to tell about the truth. And everyone who belongs to the truth knows my voice.”

<sup>38</sup>Pilate asked Jesus, “What is truth?”

Jesus is sentenced to death

(Matthew 27.15–31; Mark 15.6–20; Luke 23.13–25)

Pilate went back out and said, “I don't find this man guilty of anything!

<sup>39</sup>And since I usually set a prisoner free for you at Passover, would you like me to set free the king of the Jews?”

<sup>40</sup>They shouted, “No, not him! We want Barabbas.” Now Barabbas was a terrorist.

John 19

<sup>1</sup>Pilate gave orders for Jesus to be beaten with a whip.

<sup>2</sup>The soldiers made a crown out of thorn branches and put it on Jesus. Then they put a purple robe on him.

<sup>3</sup>They came up to him and said, “Hey, you king of the Jews!” They also hit him with their fists.

<sup>4</sup>Once again Pilate went out. This time he said, “I will have Jesus brought out to you again. Then you can see for yourselves that I have not found him guilty.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said, “Here is the man!”

<sup>6</sup>When the chief priests and the temple police saw him, they yelled, “Nail him to a cross! Nail him to a cross!” Pilate told them, “You take him and nail him to a cross! I don't find him guilty of anything.”

<sup>7</sup>The crowd replied, “He claimed to be the Son of God! Our Jewish Law says that he must be put to death.”

<sup>8</sup>When Pilate heard this, he was terrified.

<sup>9</sup>He went back inside and asked Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus did not answer.

<sup>10</sup>“Why won't you answer my question?” Pilate asked. “Don't you know that I have the power to let you go free or to nail you to a cross?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus replied, “If God had not given you the power, you couldn't do anything at all to me. But the one who handed me over to you did something even worse.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Pilate wanted to set Jesus free. But the crowd again yelled, “If you set this man free, you are no friend of the Emperor! Anyone who claims to be a king is an enemy of the Emperor.”

<sup>13</sup>When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out. Then he sat down on the judge's bench at the place known as “The Stone Pavement”. In Aramaic this pavement is called “Gabbatha”.

<sup>14</sup>It was about midday on the day before Passover, and Pilate said to the crowd, “Look at your king!”

<sup>15</sup>“Kill him! Kill him!” they yelled. “Nail him to a cross!” “So you want me to nail your king to a cross?” Pilate asked. The chief priests replied, “The Emperor is our king!”

<sup>16</sup>Then Pilate handed Jesus over to be nailed to a cross.

Jesus is nailed to a cross

(Matthew 27.32–44; Mark 15.21–32; Luke 23.26–43)

Jesus was taken away,

<sup>17</sup>and he carried his cross to a place known as “The Skull”. In Aramaic this place is called “Golgotha”.

<sup>18</sup>There Jesus was nailed to the cross, and on each side of him a man was also nailed to a cross.

<sup>19</sup>Pilate ordered the charge against Jesus to be written on a board and put above the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews.”

<sup>20</sup>The words were written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. The place where Jesus was taken wasn't far from the city, and many of the Jewish people read the charge against him.

<sup>21</sup>So the chief priests went to Pilate and said, “Why did you write that he is King of the Jews? You should have written, ‘He claimed to be King of the Jews.’ ”

<sup>22</sup>But Pilate told them, “What is written will not be changed!”

<sup>23</sup>After the soldiers had nailed Jesus to the cross, they divided up his clothes into four parts, one for each of them. But his outer garment was made from a single piece of cloth, and it did not have any seams.

<sup>24</sup>The soldiers said to each other, “Let's not rip it apart. We will gamble to see who gets it.” This happened so that the Scriptures would come true, which say, “They divided up my clothes and gambled for my garments.” The soldiers then did what they had decided.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus' mother stood beside his cross with her sister and Mary the wife of Clopas. Mary Magdalene was standing there too.

<sup>26</sup>When Jesus saw his mother and his favourite disciple with her, he said to his mother, “This man is now your son.”

<sup>27</sup>Then he said to the disciple, “She is now your mother.” From then on, that disciple took her into his own home.

The death of Jesus

(Matthew 27.45–56; Mark 15.33–41; Luke 23.44–49)

<sup>28</sup>Jesus knew that he had now finished his work. And in order to make the Scriptures come true, he said, “I am thirsty!”

<sup>29</sup>A jar of cheap wine was there. Someone then soaked a sponge with the wine and held it up to Jesus' mouth on the stem of a hyssop plant.

<sup>30</sup>After Jesus drank the wine, he said, "Everything is done!" He bowed his head and died.

A spear is stuck in Jesus' side

<sup>31</sup>The next day would be both a Sabbath and the Passover. It was a special day for the Jewish people, and they did not want the bodies to stay on the crosses during that day. So they asked Pilate to break the men's legs and take their bodies down.

<sup>32</sup>The soldiers first broke the legs of the other two men who were nailed there.

<sup>33</sup>But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, and they did not break his legs.

<sup>34</sup>One of the soldiers stuck his spear into Jesus' side, and blood and water came out.

<sup>35</sup>We know this is true, because it was told by someone who saw it happen. Now you can have faith too.

<sup>36</sup>All this happened so that the Scriptures would come true, which say, "No bone of his body will be broken"

<sup>37</sup>and, "They will see the one in whose side they stuck a spear."

Jesus is buried

(Matthew 27.57–61; Mark 15.42–47; Luke 23.50–56)

<sup>38</sup>Joseph from Arimathea was one of Jesus' disciples. He had kept it secret though, because he was afraid of the Jewish leaders. But now he asked Pilate to let him have Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission, and Joseph took it down from the cross.

<sup>39</sup>Nicodemus also came with about thirty kilogrammes of spices made from myrrh and aloes. This was the same Nicodemus who had visited Jesus one night.

<sup>40</sup>The two men wrapped the body in a linen cloth, together with the spices, which was how the Jewish people buried their dead.

<sup>41</sup>In the place where Jesus had been nailed to a cross, there was a garden with a tomb that had never been used.

<sup>42</sup>The tomb was nearby, and since it was the time to prepare for the Sabbath, they were in a hurry to put Jesus' body there.

John 20

Jesus is alive

Jesus is alive

(Matthew 28.1–10; Mark 16.1–8; Luke 24.1–12)

<sup>1</sup>On Sunday morning while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance.

<sup>2</sup>She ran to Simon Peter and to Jesus' favourite disciple and said, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb! We don't know where they have put him."

<sup>3</sup>Peter and the other disciple set off for the tomb.

<sup>4</sup>They ran side by side, until the other disciple ran faster than Peter and got there first.

<sup>5</sup>He bent over and saw the strips of linen cloth lying inside the tomb, but he did not go in.

<sup>6</sup>When Simon Peter got there, he went into the tomb and saw the strips of cloth.

<sup>7</sup>He also saw the piece of cloth that had been used to cover Jesus' face. It was rolled up and in a place by itself.

<sup>8</sup>The disciple who got there first then went into the tomb, and when he saw it, he believed.

<sup>9</sup>At that time Peter and the other disciple did not know that the Scriptures said Jesus would rise to life.

<sup>10</sup>So the two of them went back to the other disciples.

Jesus appears to his disciples
Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene
 (Mark 16.9–11)

11Mary Magdalene stood crying outside the tomb. She was still weeping, when she stooped down

12and saw two angels inside. They were dressed in white and were sitting where Jesus' body had been. One was at the head and the other was at the foot.

13The angels asked Mary, “Why are you crying?” She answered, “They have taken away my Lord's body! I don't know where they have put him.”

14As soon as Mary said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. But she did not know who he was.

15Jesus asked her, “Why are you crying? Who are you looking for?” She thought he was the gardener and said, “Sir, if you have taken his body away, please tell me, so I can go and get him.”

16Then Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him, “Rabboni.” The Aramaic word “Rabboni” means “Teacher”.

17Jesus told her, “Don't hold on to me! I have not yet gone to the Father. But tell my disciples that I am going to the one who is my Father and my God, as well as your Father and your God.”

18Mary Magdalene then went and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord. She also told them what he had said to her.

Jesus appears to his disciples
 (Matthew 28.16–20; Mark 16.14–18; Luke 24.36–49)

19The disciples were afraid of the Jewish leaders, and on the evening of that same Sunday they locked themselves in a room. Suddenly, Jesus appeared in the middle of the group. He greeted them

20and showed them his hands and his side. When the disciples saw the Lord, they became very happy.

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus had greeted them again, he said, “I am sending you, just as the Father has sent me.”

<sup>22</sup>Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>23</sup>If you forgive anyone's sins, they will be forgiven. But if you don't forgive their sins, they will not be forgiven.”

Jesus and Thomas

<sup>24</sup>Although Thomas the Twin was one of the twelve disciples, he wasn't with the others when Jesus appeared to them.

<sup>25</sup>So they told him, “We have seen the Lord!” But Thomas said, “First, I must see the nail scars in his hands and touch them with my finger. I must put my hand where the spear went into his side. I won't believe unless I do this!”

<sup>26</sup>A week later the disciples were together again. This time, Thomas was with them. Jesus came in while the doors were still locked and stood in the middle of the group. He greeted his disciples

<sup>27</sup>and said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and look at my hands! Put your hand into my side. Stop doubting and have faith!”

<sup>28</sup>Thomas replied, “You are my Lord and my God!”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said, “Thomas, do you have faith because you have seen me? The people who have faith in me without seeing me are the ones who are really blessed!”

Why John wrote his book

<sup>30</sup>Jesus performed many other miracles for his disciples, and not all of them are written in this book.

<sup>31</sup>But these are written so that you will put your faith in Jesus as the Messiah and the Son of God. If you have faith in him, you will have true life.

John 21

Jesus appears to seven disciples

<sup>1</sup>Jesus later appeared to his disciples along the shore of Lake Tiberias.

<sup>2</sup>Simon Peter, Thomas the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, and the brothers James and John, were there, together with two other disciples.

<sup>3</sup>Simon Peter said, "I'm going fishing!" The others said, "We will go with you." They went out in their boat. But they didn't catch a thing that night.

<sup>4</sup>Early the next morning Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize who he was.

<sup>5</sup>Jesus shouted, "Friends, have you caught anything?" "No!" they answered.

<sup>6</sup>So he told them, "Let your net down on the right side of your boat, and you will catch some fish." They did, and the net was so full of fish that they could not drag it up into the boat.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus' favourite disciple told Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Simon heard that it was the Lord, he put on the clothes that he had taken off while he was working. Then he jumped into the water.

<sup>8</sup>The boat was only about a hundred metres from shore. So the other disciples stayed in the boat and dragged in the net full of fish.

<sup>9</sup>When the disciples got out of the boat, they saw some bread and a charcoal fire with fish on it.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus told his disciples, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

<sup>11</sup>Simon Peter got back into the boat and dragged the net to shore. In it were one hundred and fifty-three large fish, but still the net did not rip.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus said, "Come and eat!" But none of the disciples dared ask who he was. They knew he was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Jesus took the bread in his hands and gave some of it to his disciples. He did the same with the fish.

<sup>14</sup>This was the third time that Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from death.

Jesus and Peter

<sup>15</sup>When Jesus and his disciples had finished eating, he asked, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than the others do?” Simon Peter answered, “Yes, Lord, you know I do!” “Then feed my lambs,” Jesus said.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus asked a second time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter answered, “Yes, Lord, you know I love you!” “Then take care of my sheep,” Jesus told him.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus asked a third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was hurt because Jesus had asked him three times if he loved him. So he told Jesus, “Lord, you know everything. You know I love you.” Jesus replied, “Feed my sheep.

<sup>18</sup>I tell you for certain that when you were a young man, you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will hold out your hands. Then others will tie your belt around you and lead you where you don't want to go.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said this to tell how Peter would die and bring honour to God. Then he said to Peter, “Follow me!”

Jesus and his favourite disciple

<sup>20</sup>Peter turned and saw Jesus' favourite disciple following them. He was the same one who had sat next to Jesus at the meal and had asked, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”

<sup>21</sup>When Peter saw that disciple, he asked Jesus, “Lord, what about him?”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus answered, “What is it to you, if I want him to live until I return? You must follow me.”

<sup>23</sup>So the rumour spread among the other disciples that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say he would not die. He simply said, “What is it to you, if I want him to live until I return?”

<sup>24</sup>This disciple is the one who told all this. He wrote it, and we know he is telling the truth.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus did many other things. If they were all written in books, I don't suppose there would be room enough in the whole world for all the books.

The Acts

The Acts 1

Telling the good news in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Theophilus, I first wrote to you about all that Jesus did and taught from the very first

<sup>2</sup>until he was taken up to heaven. But before he was taken up, he gave orders to the apostles he had chosen with the help of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>3</sup>For forty days after Jesus had suffered and died, he proved in many ways that he had been raised from death. He appeared to his apostles and spoke to them about God's kingdom.

<sup>4</sup>While he was still with them, he said: Don't leave Jerusalem yet. Wait here for the Father to give you the Holy Spirit, just as I told you he has promised to do.

<sup>5</sup>John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.

Jesus is taken to heaven

<sup>6</sup>While the apostles were still with Jesus, they asked him, "Lord, are you now going to give Israel its own king again?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to them, "You don't need to know the time of those events that only the Father controls.

<sup>8</sup>But the Holy Spirit will come upon you and give you power. Then you will tell everyone about me in Jerusalem, in all Judea, in Samaria, and everywhere in the world."

<sup>9</sup>After Jesus had said this and while they were watching, he was taken up into a cloud. They could not see him,

<sup>10</sup>but as he went up, they kept looking up into the sky. Suddenly two men dressed in white clothes were standing there beside them.

<sup>11</sup>They said, “Why are you men from Galilee standing here and looking up into the sky? Jesus has been taken to heaven. But he will come back in the same way that you have seen him go.”

Someone to take the place of Judas

<sup>12-13</sup>The Mount of Olives was about a kilometre from Jerusalem. The apostles who had gone there were Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon, known as the Eager One, and Judas the son of James. After the apostles returned to the city, they went upstairs to the room where they had been staying.

<sup>14</sup>The apostles often met together and prayed with a single purpose in mind. The women and Mary the mother of Jesus would meet with them, and so would his brothers.

<sup>15</sup>One day there were about a hundred and twenty of the Lord's followers meeting together, and Peter stood up to speak to them.

<sup>16-17</sup>He said: My friends, long ago by the power of the Holy Spirit, David said something about Judas, and what he said has now happened. Judas was one of us and had worked with us, but he brought the mob to arrest Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>Then Judas bought some land with the money he was given for doing that evil thing. He fell head-first into the field. His body burst open, and all his insides came out.

<sup>19</sup>When the people of Jerusalem found out about this, they called the place Akeldama, which in the local language means “Field of Blood”.

<sup>20</sup>In the book of Psalms it says, “Leave his house empty, and don't let anyone live there.” It also says, “Let someone else have his job.”

<sup>21-22</sup>So we need someone else to help us tell others that Jesus has been raised from death. He must also be one of the men who was with us from the very beginning. He must have been with us from the time the Lord Jesus was baptized by John until the day he was taken to heaven.

<sup>23</sup>Two men were suggested: one of them was Joseph Barsabbas, known as Justus, and the other was Matthias.

<sup>24</sup>Then they all prayed, “Lord, you know what everyone is like! Show us the one you have chosen <sup>25</sup>to be an apostle and to serve in place of Judas, who got what he deserved.”

<sup>26</sup>They drew names, and Matthias was chosen to join the group of the eleven apostles.

The Acts 2

The coming of the Holy Spirit

<sup>1</sup>On the day of Pentecost all the Lord's followers were together in one place.

<sup>2</sup>Suddenly there was a noise from heaven like the sound of a mighty wind! It filled the house where they were meeting.

<sup>3</sup>Then they saw what looked like fiery tongues moving in all directions, and a tongue came and settled on each person there.

<sup>4</sup>The Holy Spirit took control of everyone, and they began speaking whatever languages the Spirit let them speak.

<sup>5</sup>Many religious Jews from every country in the world were living in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>And when they heard this noise, a crowd gathered. But they were surprised, because they were hearing everything in their own languages.

<sup>7</sup>They were excited and amazed, and said: Don't all these who are speaking come from Galilee?

<sup>8</sup>Then why do we hear them speaking our very own languages?

<sup>9</sup>Some of us are from Parthia, Media, and Elam. Others are from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia,

<sup>10</sup>Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, parts of Libya near Cyrene, Rome,

<sup>11</sup>Crete, and Arabia. Some of us were born Jews, and others of us have chosen to be Jews. Yet we all hear them using our own languages to tell the wonderful things God has done.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone was excited and confused. Some of them even kept asking each other, “What does all this mean?”

<sup>13</sup>Others made fun of the Lord's followers and said, “They are drunk.”

Peter speaks to the crowd

<sup>14</sup>Peter stood with the eleven apostles and spoke in a loud and clear voice to the crowd: Friends and everyone else living in Jerusalem, listen carefully to what I have to say!

<sup>15</sup>You are wrong to think that these people are drunk. After all, it is only nine o'clock in the morning.

<sup>16</sup>But this is what God led the prophet Joel to say,

<sup>17</sup>“When the last days come, I will give my Spirit to everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions, and your old men will have dreams.

<sup>18</sup>In those days I will give my Spirit to my servants, both men and women, and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>“I will perform miracles in the sky above and wonders on the earth below. There will be blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>20</sup>The sun will turn dark, and the moon will be as red as blood before the great and wonderful day of the Lord appears.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Lord will save everyone who asks for his help.”

<sup>22</sup>Now, listen to what I have to say about Jesus from Nazareth. God proved that he sent Jesus to you by having him perform miracles, wonders, and signs. All of you know this.

<sup>23</sup>God had already planned and decided that Jesus would be handed over to you. So you took him and had evil men put him to death on a cross.

<sup>24</sup>But God set him free from death and raised him to life. Death could not hold him in its power.

<sup>25</sup>What David said are really the words of Jesus, “I always see the Lord near me, and I will not be afraid with him at my right side.

<sup>26</sup>Because of this, my heart will be glad, my words will be joyful, and I will live in hope.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord won't leave me in the grave. I am his holy one, and he won't let my body decay.

<sup>28</sup>He has shown me the path to life, and he makes me glad by being near me.”

<sup>29</sup>My friends, it is right for me to speak to you about our ancestor David. He died and was buried, and his tomb is still here.

<sup>30</sup>But David was a prophet, and he knew that God had made a promise he would not break. He had told David that someone from his own family would some day be king.

<sup>31</sup>David knew this would happen, and so he told us that Christ would be raised to life. He said that God would not leave him in the grave or let his body decay.

<sup>32</sup>All of us can tell you that God has raised Jesus to life!

<sup>33</sup>Jesus was taken up to sit at the right side of God, and he was given the Holy Spirit, just as the Father had promised. Jesus is also the one who has given the Spirit to us, and that is what you are now seeing and hearing.

<sup>34</sup>David didn't go up to heaven. So he wasn't talking about himself when he said, “The Lord told my Lord to sit at his right side, <sup>35</sup>until he made my Lord's enemies into a footstool for him.”

<sup>36</sup>Everyone in Israel should then know for certain that God has made Jesus both Lord and Christ, even though you put him to death on a cross.

<sup>37</sup>When the people heard this, they were very upset. They asked Peter and the other apostles, “Friends, what shall we do?”

<sup>38</sup>Peter said, “Turn back to God! Be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins will be forgiven. Then you will be given the Holy Spirit.

<sup>39</sup>This promise is for you and your children. It is for everyone our Lord God will choose, no matter where they live.”

<sup>40</sup>Peter told them many other things as well. Then he said, “I beg you to save yourselves from what will happen to all these evil people.”

<sup>41</sup>On that day about three thousand believed his message and were baptized.

<sup>42</sup>They spent their time learning from the apostles, and they were like family to each other. They also broke bread and prayed together.

Life among the Lord's followers

<sup>43</sup>Everyone was amazed by the many miracles and wonders that the apostles performed.

<sup>44</sup>All the Lord's followers often met together, and they shared everything they had.

<sup>45</sup>They would sell their property and possessions and give the money to whoever needed it.

<sup>46</sup>Day after day they met together in the temple. They broke bread together in different homes and shared their food happily and freely, <sup>47</sup>while praising God. Everyone liked them, and each day the Lord added to their group others who were being saved.

The Acts 3

Peter and John heal a lame man

<sup>1</sup>The time of prayer was about three o'clock in the afternoon, and Peter and John were going into the temple.

<sup>2</sup>A man who had been born lame was being carried to the temple door. Each day he was placed beside this door, known as the Beautiful Gate. He sat there and begged from the people who were going in.

<sup>3</sup>The man saw Peter and John entering the temple, and he asked them for money.

<sup>4</sup>But they looked straight at him and said, “Look up at us!”

<sup>5</sup>The man stared at them and thought he was going to get something.

<sup>6</sup>But Peter said, “I don't have any silver or gold! But I will give you what I do have. In the name of Jesus Christ from Nazareth, get up and start walking.”

<sup>7</sup>Peter then took him by the right hand and helped him up. At once the man's feet and ankles became strong,

<sup>8</sup>and he jumped up and started walking. He went with Peter and John into the temple, walking and jumping and praising God.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone saw him walking around and praising God.

<sup>10</sup>They knew that he was the beggar who had been lying beside the Beautiful Gate, and they were completely surprised. They could not imagine what had happened to the man.

Peter speaks in the temple

<sup>11</sup>While the man kept holding on to Peter and John, the whole crowd ran to them in amazement at the place known as Solomon's Porch.

<sup>12</sup>Peter saw that a crowd had gathered, and he said: Friends, why are you surprised at what has happened? Why are you staring at us? Do you think we have some power of our own? Do you think we were able to make this man walk because we are so religious?

<sup>13</sup>The God that Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and our other ancestors worshipped has brought honour to his Servant Jesus. He is the one you betrayed. You turned against him when he was being tried by Pilate, even though Pilate wanted to set him free.

14 You rejected Jesus, who was holy and good. You asked for a murderer to be set free,

15 and you killed the one who leads people to life. But God raised him from death, and all of us can tell you what he has done.

16 You see this man, and you know him. He put his faith in the name of Jesus and was made strong. Faith in Jesus made this man completely well while everyone was watching.

17 My friends, I am sure that you and your leaders didn't know what you were doing.

18 But God had his prophets tell that his Messiah would suffer, and now he has kept that promise.

19 So turn to God! Give up your sins, and you will be forgiven.

20 Then that time will come when the Lord will give you fresh strength. He will send you Jesus, his chosen Messiah.

21 But Jesus must stay in heaven until God makes all things new, just as his holy prophets promised long ago.

22 Moses said, "The Lord your God will choose one of your own people to be a prophet, just as he chose me. Listen to everything he tells you.

23 No one who disobeys that prophet will be one of God's people any longer."

24 Samuel and all the other prophets who came later also spoke about what is now happening.

25 You are really the ones God told his prophets to speak to. And you were given the promise that God made to your ancestors. He said to Abraham, "All nations on earth will be blessed because of someone from your family."

26 God sent his chosen Son to you first, because God wanted to bless you and make each one of you turn away from your sins.

The Acts 4

Peter and John are brought in front of the council

<sup>1</sup>The apostles were still talking to the people, when some priests, the captain of the temple guard, and some Sadducees arrived.

<sup>2</sup>These men were angry because the apostles were teaching the people that the dead would be raised from death, just as Jesus had been raised from death.

<sup>3</sup>It was already late in the afternoon, and they arrested Peter and John and put them in jail for the night.

<sup>4</sup>But a lot of people who had heard the message believed it. So by now there were about five thousand followers of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>The next morning the leaders, the elders, and the teachers of the Law of Moses met in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>The high priest Annas was there, as well as Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and other members of the high priest's family.

<sup>7</sup>They brought in Peter and John and made them stand in the middle while they questioned them. They asked, "By what power and in whose name have you done this?"

<sup>8</sup>Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit and told the nation's leaders and the elders:

<sup>9</sup>You are questioning us today about a kind deed in which a crippled man was healed.

<sup>10</sup>But there is something we must tell you and everyone else in Israel. This man is standing here completely well because of the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth. You put Jesus to death on a cross, but God raised him to life.

<sup>11</sup>He is the stone that you builders thought was worthless, and now he is the most important stone of all.

<sup>12</sup>Only Jesus has the power to save! His name is the only one in all the world that can save anyone.

<sup>13</sup>The officials were amazed to see how brave Peter and John were, and they knew that these two apostles were only ordinary men and not well educated. The officials were certain that these men had been with Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>But they could not deny what had happened. The man who had been healed was standing there with the apostles.

<sup>15</sup>The officials commanded them to leave the council room. Then the officials said to each other,

<sup>16</sup>“What can we do with these men? Everyone in Jerusalem knows about this miracle, and we cannot say it didn't happen.

<sup>17</sup>But to keep this thing from spreading, we will warn them never again to speak to anyone about the name of Jesus.”

<sup>18</sup>So they called the two apostles back in and told them that they must never, for any reason, teach anything about the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>Peter and John answered, “Do you think God wants us to obey you or to obey him?”

<sup>20</sup>We cannot keep quiet about what we have seen and heard.”

<sup>21-22</sup>The officials could not find any reason to punish Peter and John. So they threatened them and let them go. The man who was healed by this miracle was more than forty years old, and everyone was praising God for what had happened.

Peter and others pray for courage

<sup>23</sup>As soon as Peter and John had been set free, they went back and told the others everything that the chief priests and the leaders had said to them.

<sup>24</sup>When the rest of the Lord's followers heard this, they prayed together and said: Master, you created heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them.

<sup>25</sup>And by the Holy Spirit you spoke to our ancestor David. He was your servant, and you told him to say: “Why are all the Gentiles so furious? Why do people make foolish plans?”

<sup>26</sup>The kings of earth prepare for war, and the rulers join together against the Lord and his Messiah.”

<sup>27</sup>Here in Jerusalem, Herod and Pontius Pilate got together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel. Then they turned against your holy Servant Jesus, your chosen Messiah.

<sup>28</sup>They did what you in your power and wisdom had already decided would happen.

<sup>29</sup>Lord, listen to their threats! We are your servants. So make us brave enough to speak your message.

<sup>30</sup>Show your mighty power, as we heal people and perform miracles and wonders in the name of your holy Servant Jesus.

<sup>31</sup>After they had prayed, the meeting place shook. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and bravely spoke God's message.

Sharing possessions

<sup>32</sup>The group of followers all felt the same way about everything. None of them claimed that their possessions were their own, and they shared everything they had with each other.

<sup>33</sup>In a powerful way the apostles told everyone that the Lord Jesus was now alive. God greatly blessed his followers,

<sup>34</sup>and no one went in need of anything. Everyone who owned land or houses would sell them and bring the money

<sup>35</sup>to the apostles. Then they would give the money to anyone who needed it.

<sup>36-37</sup>Joseph was one of the followers who had sold a piece of property and brought the money to the apostles. He was a Levite from Cyprus, and the apostles called him Barnabas, which means “one who encourages others”.

The Acts 5

Peter condemns Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>1</sup>Ananias and his wife Sapphira also sold a piece of property.

<sup>2</sup>But they agreed to cheat and keep some of the money for themselves. So when Ananias took the rest of the money to the apostles,

<sup>3</sup>Peter said, “Why has Satan made you keep back some of the money from the sale of the property? Why have you lied to the Holy Spirit?”

<sup>4</sup>The property was yours before you sold it, and even after you sold it, the money was still yours. What made you do such a thing? You didn't lie to people. You lied to God!”

<sup>5</sup>As soon as Ananias heard this, he dropped dead, and everyone who heard about it was frightened.

<sup>6</sup>Some young men came in and wrapped up his body. Then they took it out and buried it.

<sup>7</sup>Three hours later Sapphira came in, but she did not know what had happened to her husband.

<sup>8</sup>Peter asked her, “Tell me, did you sell the property for this amount?” “Yes,” she answered, “that's the amount.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Peter said, “Why did the two of you agree to test the Lord's Spirit? The men who buried Ananias are by the door, and they will carry you out!”

<sup>10</sup>At once she fell at Peter's feet and died. When the young men came back in, they found Sapphira lying there dead. So they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

<sup>11</sup>The church members were afraid, and so was everyone else who heard what had happened.

Peter's unusual power

<sup>12</sup>The apostles performed many miracles and wonders among the people. All the Lord's followers often met in the part of the temple known as Solomon's Porch.

<sup>13</sup>No one outside their group dared join them, even though everyone liked them very much.

<sup>14</sup>Many men and women started having faith in the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>Then sick people were brought out to the road and placed on stretchers and mats. It was hoped that Peter would walk by, and his shadow would fall on them and heal them.

<sup>16</sup>A lot of people living in the towns near Jerusalem brought those who were sick or troubled by evil spirits, and they were all healed.

Trouble for the apostles

<sup>17</sup>The high priest and all the other Sadducees who were with him became jealous.

<sup>18</sup>They arrested the apostles and put them in the city jail.

<sup>19</sup>But that night an angel from the Lord opened the doors of the jail and led the apostles out. The angel said,

<sup>20</sup>“Go to the temple and tell the people everything about this new life.”

<sup>21</sup>So they went into the temple before sunrise and started teaching. The high priest and his men called together their council, which included all Israel's leaders. Then they ordered the apostles to be brought to them from the jail.

<sup>22</sup>The temple police who were sent to the jail did not find the apostles. They returned and said,

<sup>23</sup>“We found the jail locked tight and the guards standing at the doors. But when we opened the doors and went in, we didn't find anyone there.”

<sup>24</sup>The captain of the temple police and the chief priests listened to their report, but they did not know what to think about it.

<sup>25</sup>Just then someone came in and said, “Now those men you put in jail are in the temple, teaching the people!”

<sup>26</sup>The captain went with some of the temple police and brought the apostles back. But they did not use force. They were afraid that the people might start throwing stones at them.

<sup>27</sup>When the apostles were brought before the council, the high priest said to them,

<sup>28</sup>“We told you plainly not to teach in the name of Jesus. But look what you have done! You have been teaching all over Jerusalem, and you are trying to blame us for his death.”

<sup>29</sup>Peter and the apostles replied: We don't obey people. We obey God.

<sup>30</sup>You killed Jesus by nailing him to a cross. But the God our ancestors worshipped raised him to life

<sup>31</sup>and made him our Leader and Saviour. Then God gave him a place at his right side, so that the people of Israel would turn back to him and be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>We are here to tell you about all this, and so is the Holy Spirit, who is God's gift to everyone who obeys God.

<sup>33</sup>When the council members heard this, they became so angry that they wanted to kill the apostles.

<sup>34</sup>But one of the members was the Pharisee Gamaliel, a highly respected teacher. He ordered the apostles to be taken out of the room for a little while.

<sup>35</sup>Then he said to the council: People of Israel, be careful what you do with these men.

<sup>36</sup>Not long ago Theudas claimed to be someone important, and about four hundred men joined him. But he was killed. All his followers were scattered, and that was the end of that.

<sup>37</sup>Later, when the people of our nation were being counted, Judas from Galilee appeared. A lot of people followed him, but he was killed, and all his followers were scattered.

<sup>38</sup>So I advise you to stay away from these men. Leave them alone. If what they are planning is something of their own doing, it will fail.

<sup>39</sup>But if God is behind it, you cannot stop it anyway, unless you want to fight against God. The council members agreed with what he said,

<sup>40</sup>and they called the apostles back in. They had them beaten with a whip and warned them not to speak in the name of Jesus. Then they let them go.

<sup>41</sup>The apostles left the council and were happy, because God had considered them worthy to suffer for the sake of Jesus.

<sup>42</sup>Every day they spent time in the temple and in one home after another. They never stopped teaching and telling the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

The Acts 6

Seven leaders for the church

<sup>1</sup>A lot of people were now becoming followers of the Lord. But some of the ones who spoke Greek started complaining about the ones who spoke Aramaic. They complained that the Greek-speaking widows were not given their share when the food supplies were handed out each day.

<sup>2</sup>The twelve apostles called the whole group of followers together and said, “We should not give up preaching God's message in order to serve at tables.

<sup>3</sup>My friends, choose seven men who are respected and wise and filled with God's Spirit. We will put them in charge of these things.

<sup>4</sup>We can spend our time praying and serving God by preaching.”

<sup>5</sup>This suggestion pleased everyone, and they began by choosing Stephen. He had great faith and was filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they chose Philip,

Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and also Nicolaus, who worshipped with the Jewish people in Antioch.

<sup>6</sup>These men were brought to the apostles. Then the apostles prayed and placed their hands on the men to show that they had been chosen to do this work.

<sup>7</sup>God's message spread, and many more people in Jerusalem became followers. Even a large number of priests put their faith in the Lord.

Stephen is arrested

<sup>8</sup>God gave Stephen the power to perform great miracles and wonders among the people.

<sup>9</sup>But some Jews from Cyrene and Alexandria were members of a group who called themselves “Free Men”. They started arguing with Stephen. Some others from Cilicia and Asia also argued with him.

<sup>10</sup>But they were no match for Stephen, who spoke with the great wisdom that the Spirit gave him.

<sup>11</sup>So they talked some men into saying, “We heard Stephen say terrible things against Moses and God!”

<sup>12</sup>They turned the people and their leaders and the teachers of the Law of Moses against Stephen. Then they all grabbed Stephen and dragged him in front of the council.

<sup>13</sup>Some men agreed to tell lies about Stephen, and they said, “This man keeps on saying terrible things about this holy temple and the Law of Moses.

<sup>14</sup>We have heard him claim that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses gave us.”

<sup>15</sup>Then all the council members stared at Stephen. They saw that his face looked like the face of an angel.

The Acts 7

Stephen's speech

- <sup>1</sup>The high priest asked Stephen, “Are they telling the truth about you?”
- <sup>2</sup>Stephen answered: Friends, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he had moved to Haran.
- <sup>3</sup>God told him, “Leave your country and your relatives and go to a land that I will show you.”
- <sup>4</sup>Then Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, Abraham came and settled in this land where you now live.
- <sup>5</sup>God didn't give him any part of it, not even a square metre. But God did promise to give it to him and his family for ever, even though Abraham didn't have any children.
- <sup>6</sup>God said that Abraham's descendants would live for a while in a foreign land. There they would be slaves and would be ill-treated four hundred years.
- <sup>7</sup>But he also said, “I will punish the nation that makes them slaves. Then later they will come and worship me in this place.”
- <sup>8</sup>God said to Abraham, “Every son in each family must be circumcised to show that you have kept your agreement with me.” So when Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him. Later, Isaac circumcised his son Jacob, and Jacob circumcised his twelve sons.
- <sup>9</sup>These men were our ancestors. Joseph was also one of our famous ancestors. His brothers were jealous of him and sold him as a slave to be taken to Egypt. But God was with him
- <sup>10</sup>and rescued him from all his troubles. God made him so wise that the Egyptian king Pharaoh thought highly of him. Pharaoh even made Joseph governor over Egypt and put him in charge of everything he owned.

<sup>11</sup> Everywhere in Egypt and Canaan the grain crops failed. There was terrible suffering, and our ancestors could not find enough to eat.

<sup>12</sup> But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there for the first time.

<sup>13</sup> It was on their second trip that Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learnt about Joseph's family.

<sup>14</sup> Joseph sent for his father and his relatives. In all, there were seventy-five of them.

<sup>15</sup> His father went to Egypt and died there, just as our ancestors did.

<sup>16</sup> Later their bodies were taken back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor.

Stephen continued:

<sup>17</sup> Finally, the time came for God to do what he had promised Abraham. By then the number of our people in Egypt had greatly increased.

<sup>18</sup> Another king was ruling Egypt, and he didn't know anything about Joseph.

<sup>19</sup> He tricked our ancestors and was cruel to them. He even made them leave their babies outside, so they would die.

<sup>20</sup> During this time Moses was born. He was a very beautiful child, and for three months his parents took care of him in their home.

<sup>21</sup> Then when they were forced to leave him outside, the king's daughter found him and raised him as her own son.

<sup>22</sup> Moses was given the best education in Egypt. He was a strong man and a powerful speaker.

<sup>23</sup> When Moses was forty years old, he wanted to help the Israelites because they were his own people.

<sup>24</sup>One day he saw an Egyptian ill-treating one of them. So he rescued the man and killed the Egyptian.

<sup>25</sup>Moses thought the rest of his people would realize that God was going to use him to set them free. But they didn't understand.

<sup>26</sup>The next day Moses saw two of his own people fighting, and he tried to make them stop. He said, "Men, you are both Israelites. Why are you so cruel to each other?"

<sup>27</sup>But the man who had started the fight pushed Moses aside and asked, "Who made you our ruler and judge?"

<sup>28</sup>Are you going to kill me, just as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?"

<sup>29</sup>When Moses heard this, he ran away to live in the country of Midian. His two sons were born there.

Stephen continued:

<sup>30</sup>Forty years later, an angel appeared to Moses from a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai.

<sup>31</sup>Moses was surprised by what he saw. He went closer to get a better look, and the Lord said, <sup>32</sup>"I am the God who was worshipped by your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." Moses started shaking all over and didn't dare to look at the bush.

<sup>33</sup>The Lord said to him, "Take off your sandals. The place where you are standing is holy.

<sup>34</sup>With my own eyes I have seen the suffering of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groans and have come down to rescue them. Now I am sending you back to Egypt."

<sup>35</sup>This was the same Moses that the people rejected by saying, "Who made you our leader and judge?" God's angel had spoken to Moses from the bush. And God had even sent the angel to help Moses rescue the people and be their leader.

<sup>36</sup>In Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the desert, Moses rescued the people by performing miracles and wonders for forty years.

<sup>37</sup>Moses is the one who told the people of Israel, “God will choose one of your people to be a prophet, just as he chose me.”

<sup>38</sup>Moses brought our people together in the desert, and the angel spoke to him on Mount Sinai. There he was given these life-giving words to pass on to us.

<sup>39</sup>But our ancestors refused to obey Moses. They rejected him and wanted to go back to Egypt.

<sup>40</sup>The people said to Aaron, “Make some gods to lead us! Moses led us out of Egypt, but we don't know what's happened to him now.”

<sup>41</sup>Then they made an idol in the shape of a calf. They offered sacrifices to the idol and were pleased with what they had done.

<sup>42</sup>God turned his back on his people and left them. Then they worshipped the stars in the sky, just as it says in the Book of the Prophets, “People of Israel, you didn't offer sacrifices and offerings to me during those forty years in the desert.

<sup>43</sup>Instead, you carried the tent where the god Molech is worshipped, and you took along the star of your god Rephan. You made those idols and worshipped them. So now I will have you carried off beyond Babylonia.”

Stephen continued:

<sup>44</sup>The tent where our ancestors worshipped God was with them in the desert. This was the same tent that God had commanded Moses to make. And it was made like the model that Moses had seen.

<sup>45</sup>Later it was given to our ancestors, and they took it with them when they went with Joshua. They carried the tent along as they took over the land from those people that God had chased out for them. Our ancestors used this tent until the time of King David.

<sup>46</sup>He pleased God and asked him if he could build a house of worship for the people of Israel.

<sup>47</sup>And it was finally King Solomon who built a house for God.

<sup>48</sup>But the Most High God doesn't live in houses made by humans. It is just as the prophet said, when he spoke for the Lord, <sup>49</sup>“Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me? In what place will I rest?

<sup>50</sup>I have made everything.”

<sup>51</sup>You stubborn and hard-headed people! You are always fighting against the Holy Spirit, just as your ancestors did.

<sup>52</sup>Is there one prophet that your ancestors didn't ill-treat? They killed the prophets who told about the coming of the One Who Obeys God. And now you have turned against him and killed him.

<sup>53</sup>Angels gave you God's Law, but you still don't obey it.

Stephen is stoned to death

<sup>54</sup>When the council members heard Stephen's speech, they were angry and furious.

<sup>55</sup>But Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit. He looked towards heaven, where he saw our glorious God and Jesus standing at his right side.

<sup>56</sup>Then Stephen said, “I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right side of God!”

<sup>57</sup>The council members shouted and covered their ears. At once they all attacked Stephen

<sup>58</sup>and dragged him out of the city. Then they started throwing stones at him. The men who had brought charges against him put their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

<sup>59</sup>As Stephen was being stoned to death, he called out, “Lord Jesus, please welcome me!”

<sup>60</sup>He knelt down and shouted, “Lord, don't blame them for what they have done.” Then he died.

The Acts 8

<sup>1-2</sup>Saul approved the stoning of Stephen. Some faithful followers of the Lord buried Stephen and mourned very much for him.

Saul makes trouble for the church

At that time the church in Jerusalem suffered terribly. All the Lord's followers, except the apostles, were scattered everywhere in Judea and Samaria.

<sup>3</sup>Saul started making a lot of trouble for the church. He went from house to house, arresting men and women and putting them in jail.

The good news in Judea and Samaria The good news is preached in Samaria

<sup>4</sup>The Lord's followers who had been scattered went from place to place, telling the good news.

<sup>5</sup>Philip went to the city of Samaria and told the people about Christ.

<sup>6</sup>They crowded around Philip because they were eager to hear what he was saying and to see him perform miracles.

<sup>7</sup>Many people with evil spirits were healed, and the spirits went out of them with a shout. A lot of crippled and lame people were also healed.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone in that city was very glad because of what was happening.

<sup>9</sup>For some time a man named Simon had lived in the city of Samaria and had amazed the people. He practised witchcraft and claimed to be somebody great.

<sup>10</sup>Everyone, rich and poor, crowded around him. They said, “This man is the power of God called ‘The Great Power’.”

<sup>11</sup>For a long time, Simon had used witchcraft to amaze the people, and they kept crowding around him.

<sup>12</sup>But when they believed what Philip was saying about God's kingdom and about the name of Jesus Christ, they were all baptized.

<sup>13</sup>Even Simon believed and was baptized. He stayed close to Philip, because he marvelled at all the miracles and wonders.

<sup>14</sup>The apostles in Jerusalem heard that some people in Samaria had accepted God's message, and they sent Peter and John.

<sup>15</sup>When the two apostles arrived, they prayed that the people would be given the Holy Spirit.

<sup>16</sup>Before this, the Holy Spirit had not been given to anyone in Samaria, though some of them had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>Peter and John then placed their hands on everyone who had faith in the Lord, and they were given the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Simon noticed that the Spirit was given only when the apostles placed their hands on the people. So he brought money

<sup>19</sup>and said to Peter and John, "Let me have this power too! Then anyone I place my hands on will also be given the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup>Peter said to him, "You and your money will both end up in hell if you think you can buy God's gift!

<sup>21</sup>You don't have any part in this, and God sees that your heart isn't right.

<sup>22</sup>Get rid of these evil thoughts and ask God to forgive you.

<sup>23</sup>I can see that you are jealous and bound by your evil ways."

<sup>24</sup>Simon said, "Please pray to the Lord, so that what you said won't happen to me."

<sup>25</sup>After Peter and John had preached about the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem. On their way they told the good news in many villages of Samaria.

Philip and an Ethiopian official

<sup>26</sup>The Lord's angel said to Philip, "Go south along the desert road that leads from Jerusalem to Gaza."

<sup>27</sup>So Philip left. An important Ethiopian official happened to be going along that road in his chariot. He was the chief treasurer for Candace, the Queen of Ethiopia. The official had gone to Jerusalem to worship

<sup>28</sup>and was now on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot, reading the book of the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>29</sup>The Spirit told Philip to catch up with the chariot.

<sup>30</sup>Philip ran up close and heard the man reading aloud from the book of Isaiah. Philip asked him, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

<sup>31</sup>The official answered, "How can I understand unless someone helps me?" He then invited Philip to come up and sit beside him.

<sup>32</sup>The man was reading the passage that said, "He was led like a sheep on its way to be killed. He was silent as a lamb whose wool is being cut off, and he did not say a word.

<sup>33</sup>He was treated like a nobody and did not receive a fair trial. How can he have children, if his life is snatched away?"

<sup>34</sup>The official said to Philip, "Tell me, was the prophet talking about himself or about someone else?"

<sup>35</sup>So Philip began at this place in the Scriptures and explained the good news about Jesus.

<sup>36-37</sup>As they were going along the road, they came to a place where there was some water. The official said, "Look! Here is some water. Why can't I be baptized?"

<sup>38</sup>He ordered the chariot to stop. Then they both went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup>After they had come out of the water, the Lord's Spirit took Philip away. The official never saw him again, but he was very happy as he went on his way.

<sup>40</sup>Philip later appeared in Azotus. He went from town to town, all the way to Caesarea, telling people about Jesus.

The Acts 9

Saul becomes a follower of the Lord

(The Acts 22.6–16; 26.12–18)

<sup>1</sup>Saul kept on threatening to kill the Lord's followers. He even went to the high priest

<sup>2</sup>and asked for letters to the Jewish leaders in Damascus. He did this because he wanted to arrest and take to Jerusalem any man or woman who had accepted the Lord's Way.

<sup>3</sup>When Saul had almost reached Damascus, a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around him.

<sup>4</sup>He fell to the ground and heard a voice that said, "Saul! Saul! Why are you so cruel to me?"

<sup>5</sup>"Who are you?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus," the Lord answered. "I am the one you are so cruel to.

<sup>6</sup>Now get up and go into the city, where you will be told what to do."

<sup>7</sup>The men with Saul stood there speechless. They had heard the voice, but they had not seen anyone.

<sup>8</sup>Saul got up from the ground, and when he opened his eyes, he could not see a thing. Someone then led him by the hand to Damascus, <sup>9</sup>and for three days he was blind and did not eat or drink.

<sup>10</sup>A follower named Ananias lived in Damascus, and the Lord spoke to him in a vision. Ananias answered, “Lord, here I am.”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the house of Judas in Straight Street. When you get there, you will find a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. Saul is praying, <sup>12</sup>and he has seen a vision. He saw a man named Ananias coming to him and putting his hands on him, so that he could see again.”

<sup>13</sup>Ananias replied, “Lord, a lot of people have told me about the terrible things this man has done to your followers in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>Now the chief priests have given him the power to come here and arrest anyone who worships in your name.”

<sup>15</sup>The Lord said to Ananias, “Go! I have chosen him to tell foreigners, kings, and the people of Israel about me.

<sup>16</sup>I will show him how much he must suffer for worshipping in my name.”

<sup>17</sup>Ananias left and went into the house where Saul was staying. Ananias placed his hands on him and said, “Saul, the Lord Jesus has sent me. He is the same one who appeared to you along the road. He wants you to be able to see and to be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>18</sup>Suddenly something like fish scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see. He got up and was baptized.

<sup>19</sup>Then he ate and felt much better.

Saul preaches in Damascus

For several days Saul stayed with the Lord's followers in Damascus.

<sup>20</sup>Soon he went to the Jewish meeting places and started telling people that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>21</sup>Everyone who heard Saul was amazed and said, “Isn't this the man who caused so much trouble for those people in Jerusalem who worship in the name of Jesus? Didn't he come here to arrest them and take them to the chief priests?"

<sup>22</sup>Saul preached with such power that he completely confused the Jewish people in Damascus, as he tried to show them that Jesus is the Messiah.

<sup>23</sup>Later some of them made plans to kill Saul,

<sup>24</sup>but he found out about it. He learnt that they were guarding the gates of the city day and night in order to kill him.

<sup>25</sup>Then one night his followers let him down over the city wall in a large basket.

Saul in Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup>When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the followers. But they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe he was a true follower.

<sup>27</sup>Then Barnabas helped him by taking him to the apostles. He explained how Saul had seen the Lord and how the Lord had spoken to him. Barnabas also said that when Saul was in Damascus, he had spoken bravely in the name of Jesus.

<sup>28</sup>Saul moved about freely with the followers in Jerusalem and told everyone about the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>He was always arguing with the Jews who spoke Greek, and so they tried to kill him.

<sup>30</sup>But the followers found out about this and took Saul to Caesarea. From there they sent him to the city of Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>The church in Judea, Galilee, and Samaria now had a time of peace and kept on worshipping the Lord. The church became stronger, as the Holy Spirit encouraged it and helped it grow.

Peter heals Aeneas

<sup>32</sup>While Peter was travelling from place to place, he visited the Lord's followers who lived in the town of Lydda.

<sup>33</sup>There he met a man named Aeneas, who for eight years had been sick in bed and could not move.

<sup>34</sup>Peter said to Aeneas, “Jesus Christ has healed you! Get up and make up your bed.” Straight away he stood up.

<sup>35</sup>Many people in the towns of Lydda and Sharon saw Aeneas and became followers of the Lord.

Peter brings Dorcas back to life

<sup>36</sup>In Joppa there was a follower named Tabitha. Her Greek name was Dorcas, which means “deer”. She was always doing good things for people and had given much to the poor.

<sup>37</sup>But she became ill and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.

<sup>38</sup>Joppa wasn't far from Lydda, and the followers heard that Peter was there. They sent two men to say to him, “Please come with us as quickly as you can!”

<sup>39</sup>Straight away, Peter went with them. The men took Peter upstairs into the room. Many widows were there crying. They showed him the coats and clothes that Dorcas had made while she was still alive.

<sup>40</sup>After Peter had sent everyone out of the room, he knelt down and prayed. Then he turned to the body of Dorcas and said, “Tabitha, get up!” The woman opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

<sup>41</sup>He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Peter called in the widows and the other followers and showed them that Dorcas had been raised from death.

<sup>42</sup>Everyone in Joppa heard what had happened, and many of them put their faith in the Lord.

<sup>43</sup>Peter stayed on for a while in Joppa in the house of a man named Simon, who made leather.

The Acts 10

Peter and Cornelius

<sup>1</sup>In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, who was the captain of a group of soldiers called “The Italian Unit”.

<sup>2</sup>Cornelius was a very religious man. He worshipped God, and so did everyone else who lived in his house. He had given a lot of money to the poor and was always praying to God.

<sup>3</sup>One afternoon at about three o'clock, Cornelius had a vision. He saw an angel from God coming to him and calling him by name.

<sup>4</sup>Cornelius was surprised and stared at the angel. Then he asked, “What is this all about?” The angel answered, “God has heard your prayers and knows about your gifts to the poor.

<sup>5</sup>Now send some men to Joppa for a man named Simon Peter.

<sup>6</sup>He is staying with Simon the leather maker, who lives in a house near the sea.”

<sup>7</sup>After saying this, the angel left. Cornelius called in two of his servants and one of his soldiers who worshipped God.

<sup>8</sup>He explained everything to them and sent them off to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup>The next day about midday these men were coming near Joppa. Peter went up on the roof of the house to pray

<sup>10</sup>and became very hungry. While the food was being prepared, he fell sound asleep and had a vision.

<sup>11</sup>He saw heaven open, and something came down like a huge sheet held up by its four corners.

<sup>12</sup>In it were all kinds of animals, snakes, and birds.

<sup>13</sup>A voice said to him, “Peter, get up! Kill these and eat them.”

<sup>14</sup>But Peter said, “Lord, I can't do that! I've never eaten anything that is unclean and not fit to eat.”

<sup>15</sup>The voice spoke to him again, “When God says that something can be used for food, don't say it isn't fit to eat.”

<sup>16</sup>This happened three times before the sheet was suddenly taken back to heaven.

<sup>17</sup>Peter was still wondering what all this meant, when the men sent by Cornelius came and stood at the gate. They had found their way to Simon's house

<sup>18</sup>and were asking if Simon Peter was staying there.

<sup>19</sup>While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Holy Spirit said to him, “Three men are here looking for you.

<sup>20</sup>Hurry down and go with them. Don't worry, I sent them.”

<sup>21</sup>Peter went down and said to the men, “I am the one you are looking for. Why have you come?”

<sup>22</sup>They answered, “Captain Cornelius sent us. He is a good man who worships God and is liked by the Jewish people. One of God's holy angels told Cornelius to send for you, so he could hear what you have to say.”

<sup>23</sup>Peter invited them to spend the night. The next morning, Peter and some of the Lord's followers in Joppa left with the men who had come from Cornelius.

<sup>24</sup>The next day they arrived in Caesarea where Cornelius was waiting for them. He had also invited his relatives and close friends.

<sup>25</sup>When Peter arrived, Cornelius greeted him. Then he knelt at Peter's feet and started worshipping him.

<sup>26</sup>But Peter took hold of him and said, “Stand up! I am nothing more than a human.”

<sup>27</sup>As Peter entered the house, he was still talking with Cornelius. Many people were there,

<sup>28</sup>and Peter said to them, “You know that we Jews are not allowed to have anything to do with other people. But God has shown me that he doesn't think anyone is unclean or unfit.

<sup>29</sup>I agreed to come here, but I want to know why you sent for me.”

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius answered: Four days ago at about three o'clock in the afternoon I was praying at home. Suddenly a man in bright clothes stood in front of me.

<sup>31</sup>He said, “Cornelius, God has heard your prayers, and he knows about your gifts to the poor.

<sup>32</sup>Now send to Joppa for Simon Peter. He is staying in the home of Simon the leather maker, who lives near the sea.”

<sup>33</sup>I sent for you straight away, and you have been good enough to come. All of us are here in the presence of the Lord God, so that we can hear what he has to say.

<sup>34</sup>Peter then said: Now I am certain that God treats all people alike.

<sup>35</sup>God is pleased with everyone who worships him and does right, no matter what nation they come from.

<sup>36</sup>This is the same message that God gave to the people of Israel, when he sent Jesus Christ, the Lord of all, to offer peace to them.

<sup>37</sup>You know what happened everywhere in Judea. It all began in Galilee after John had told everyone to be baptized.

<sup>38</sup>God gave the Holy Spirit and power to Jesus from Nazareth. He was with Jesus, as he went around doing good and healing everyone who was under the power of the devil.

<sup>39</sup>We all saw what Jesus did both in Israel and in the city of Jerusalem. Jesus was put to death on a cross.

<sup>40</sup>But three days later, God raised him to life and let him be seen.

<sup>41</sup>Not everyone saw him. He was seen only by us, who ate and drank with him after he was raised from death. We were the ones God chose to tell others about him.

<sup>42</sup>God told us to announce clearly to the people that Jesus is the one he has chosen to judge the living and the dead.

<sup>43</sup>Every one of the prophets has said that all who have faith in Jesus will have their sins forgiven in his name.

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit took control of everyone who was listening.

<sup>45</sup>Some Jewish followers of the Lord had come with Peter, and they were surprised that the Holy Spirit had been given to Gentiles.

<sup>46</sup>Now they were hearing Gentiles speaking unknown languages and praising God. Peter said,

<sup>47</sup>“These Gentiles have been given the Holy Spirit, just as we have! I am certain that no one would dare stop us from baptizing them.”

<sup>48</sup>Peter ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, and they asked him to stay on for a few days.

The Acts 11

Peter reports to the church in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>The apostles and the followers in Judea heard that Gentiles had accepted God's message.

<sup>2</sup>So when Peter came to Jerusalem, some of the Jewish followers started arguing with him. They wanted Gentile followers to be circumcised, and

<sup>3</sup>they said, “You stayed in the homes of Gentiles, and you even ate with them!”

<sup>4</sup>Then Peter told them exactly what had happened:

<sup>5</sup>I was in the town of Joppa and was praying when I fell sound asleep and had a vision. I saw heaven open, and something like a huge sheet held by its four corners came down to me.

<sup>6</sup>When I looked in it, I saw animals, wild beasts, snakes, and birds.

<sup>7</sup>I heard a voice saying to me, “Peter, get up! Kill these and eat them.”

<sup>8</sup>But I said, “Lord, I can't do that! I've never taken a bite of anything that is unclean and not fit to eat.”

<sup>9</sup>The voice from heaven spoke to me again, “When God says that something can be used for food, don't say it isn't fit to eat.”

<sup>10</sup>This happened three times before it was all taken back into heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Suddenly three men from Caesarea stood in front of the house where I was staying.

<sup>12</sup>The Holy Spirit told me to go with them and not to worry. Then six of the Lord's followers went with me to the home of a man

<sup>13</sup>who told us that an angel had appeared to him. The angel had ordered him to send to Joppa for someone named Simon Peter.

<sup>14</sup>Then Peter would tell him how he and everyone in his house could be saved.

<sup>15</sup>After I started speaking, the Holy Spirit was given to them, just as the Spirit had been given to us at the beginning.

<sup>16</sup>I remembered that the Lord had said, “John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>17</sup>God gave those Gentiles the same gift that he gave us when we put our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. So how could I have gone against God?

<sup>18</sup>When they heard Peter say this, they stopped arguing and started praising God. They said, “God has now let Gentiles turn to him, and he has given life to them!”

The church in Antioch

<sup>19</sup>Some of the Lord's followers had been scattered because of the terrible trouble that started when Stephen was killed. They went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, but they told the message only to the Jews.

<sup>20</sup>Some of the followers from Cyprus and Cyrene went to Antioch and started telling Gentiles the good news about the Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord's power was with them, and many people turned to the Lord and put their faith in him.

<sup>22</sup>News of what was happening reached the church in Jerusalem. Then they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup>When Barnabas got there and saw what God had been kind enough to do for them, he was very glad. So he begged them to remain faithful to the Lord with all their hearts.

<sup>24</sup>Barnabas was a good man of great faith, and he was filled with the Holy Spirit. Many more people turned to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul.

<sup>26</sup>He found Saul and brought him to Antioch, where they met with the church for a whole year and taught many of its people. There in Antioch the Lord's followers were first called Christians.

<sup>27</sup>During this time some prophets from Jerusalem came to Antioch.

<sup>28</sup>One of them was Agabus. Then with the help of the Spirit, he told that there would be a terrible famine everywhere in the world. And it happened when Claudius was Emperor.

<sup>29</sup>The followers in Antioch decided to send whatever help they could to the followers in Judea.

<sup>30</sup>So they asked Barnabas and Saul to take their gifts to the church leaders in Jerusalem.

The Acts 12

Herod causes trouble for the church

<sup>1</sup>At that time King Herod caused terrible suffering for some members of the church.

<sup>2</sup>He ordered soldiers to cut off the head of James, the brother of John.

<sup>3</sup>When Herod saw that this pleased the Jewish people, he had Peter arrested during the Festival of Thin Bread.

<sup>4</sup>He put Peter in jail and ordered four squads of soldiers to guard him. Herod planned to put him on trial in public after the festival.

<sup>5</sup>While Peter was being kept in jail, the church never stopped praying to God for him.

Peter is rescued

<sup>6</sup>The night before Peter was to be put on trial, he was asleep and bound by two chains. A soldier was guarding him on each side, and two other soldiers were guarding the entrance to the jail.

<sup>7</sup>Suddenly an angel from the Lord appeared, and light flashed around in the cell. The angel poked Peter in the side and woke him up. Then he said, “Quick! Get up!” The chains fell off his hands,

<sup>8</sup>and the angel said, “Get dressed and put on your sandals.” Peter did what he was told. Then the angel said, “Now put on your coat and follow me.”

<sup>9</sup>Peter left with the angel, but he thought everything was only a dream.

<sup>10</sup>They went past the two groups of soldiers, and when they came to the iron gate to the city, it opened by itself. They went out and were going along the street, when all at once the angel disappeared.

<sup>11</sup>Peter now realized what had happened, and he said, “I am certain that the Lord sent his angel to rescue me from Herod and from everything the Jewish leaders planned to do to me.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Peter went to the house of Mary the mother of John whose other name was Mark. Many of the Lord's followers had come together there and were praying.

<sup>13</sup>Peter knocked on the gate, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.

<sup>14</sup>When she heard Peter's voice, she was too excited to open the gate. She ran back into the house and said that Peter was standing there.

<sup>15</sup>“You are mad!” everyone told her. But she kept saying that it was Peter. Then they said, “It must be his angel.”

<sup>16</sup>But Peter kept on knocking, until finally they opened the gate. They saw him and were completely amazed.

<sup>17</sup>Peter motioned for them to keep quiet. Then he told how the Lord had led him out of jail. He also said, “Tell James and the others what has happened.” After that, he left and went somewhere else.

<sup>18</sup>The next morning the soldiers who had been on guard were terribly worried and wondered what had happened to Peter.

<sup>19</sup>Herod ordered his own soldiers to search for him, but they could not find him. Then he questioned the guards and had them put to death. After this, Herod left Judea to stay in Caesarea for a while.

Herod dies

<sup>20</sup>Herod and the people of Tyre and Sidon were very angry with each other. But their country got its food supply from the region that he ruled. So a group of them went to see Blastus, who was one of Herod's high officials. They convinced Blastus that they wanted to make peace between their cities and Herod, <sup>21</sup>and a day was set for them to meet with him. Herod came dressed in his royal robes. He sat down on his throne and made a speech.

<sup>22</sup>The people shouted, “You speak more like a god than a man!”

<sup>23</sup>At once an angel from the Lord struck him down because he took the honour that belonged to God. Later, Herod was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>24</sup>God's message kept spreading.

<sup>25</sup>And after Barnabas and Saul had done the work they were sent to do, they went back to Jerusalem with John, whose other name was Mark.

The Acts 13

Paul's first journey to tell the good news Barnabas and Saul are chosen and sent

<sup>1</sup>The church at Antioch had several prophets and teachers. They were Barnabas, Simeon, also called Niger, Lucius from Cyrene, Manaen, who was Herod's close friend, and Saul.

<sup>2</sup>While they were worshipping the Lord and going without eating, the Holy Spirit told them, "Appoint Barnabas and Saul to do the work for which I have chosen them."

<sup>3</sup>Everyone prayed and went without eating for a while longer. Next, they placed their hands on Barnabas and Saul to show that they had been appointed to do this work. Then everyone sent them on their way.

Barnabas and Saul in Cyprus

<sup>4</sup>After Barnabas and Saul had been sent by the Holy Spirit, they went to Seleucia. From there they sailed to the island of Cyprus.

<sup>5</sup>They arrived at Salamis and began to preach God's message in the Jewish meeting places. They also had John as a helper.

<sup>6</sup>Barnabas and Saul went all the way to the city of Paphos on the other end of the island, where they met a Jewish man named Bar-Jesus. He practised witchcraft and was a false prophet.

<sup>7</sup>He also worked for Sergius Paulus, who was very clever and was the governor of the island. Sergius Paulus wanted to hear God's message, and he sent for Barnabas and Saul.

<sup>8</sup>But Bar-Jesus, whose other name was Elymas, was against them. He even tried to keep the governor from having faith in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Then Saul, better known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit. He looked straight at Elymas

<sup>10</sup>and said, “You son of the devil! You are a liar, a criminal, and an enemy of everything that is right. When will you stop speaking against the true ways of the Lord?”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord is going to punish you by making you completely blind for a while.” Suddenly the man's eyes were covered by a dark mist, and he went around trying to get someone to lead him by the hand.

<sup>12</sup>When the governor saw what had happened, he was amazed at this teaching about the Lord. So he put his faith in the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas in Antioch of Pisidia

<sup>13</sup>Paul and the others left Paphos and sailed to Perga in Pamphylia. But John left them and went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>The rest of them went on from Perga to Antioch in Pisidia. Then on the Sabbath they went to the Jewish meeting place and sat down.

<sup>15</sup>After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the leaders sent someone over to tell Paul and Barnabas, “Friends, if you have anything to say that will help the people, please say it.”

<sup>16</sup>Paul got up. He motioned with his hand and said: People of Israel, and everyone else who worships God, listen!

<sup>17</sup>The God of Israel chose our ancestors, and he let our people prosper while they were living in Egypt. Then with his mighty power he led them out, <sup>18</sup>and for about forty years he took care of them in the desert.

<sup>19</sup>He destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and gave their land to our people.

<sup>20</sup>All this happened in about 450 years. Then God gave our people judges until the time of the prophet Samuel,

<sup>21</sup>but the people demanded a king. So for forty years God gave them King Saul, the son of Kish from the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>22</sup> Later, God removed Saul and let David rule in his place. God said about him, “David the son of Jesse is the kind of person who pleases me most! He does everything I want him to do.”

<sup>23</sup> God promised that someone from David's family would come to save the people of Israel, and that one is Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> But before Jesus came, John was telling everyone in Israel to turn back to God and be baptized.

<sup>25</sup> Then, when John's work was almost done, he said, “Who do you people think I am? Do you think I am the Promised One? He will come later, and I am not good enough to untie his sandals.”

<sup>26</sup> Now listen, you descendants of Abraham! Pay attention, all you Gentiles who are here to worship God! Listen to this message about how to be saved, because it is for everyone.

<sup>27</sup> The people of Jerusalem and their leaders didn't realize who Jesus was. And they didn't understand the words of the prophets that they read each Sabbath. So they condemned Jesus just as the prophets had said.

<sup>28-29</sup> They did exactly what the Scriptures said they would. Even though they couldn't find any reason to put Jesus to death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. After Jesus had been put to death, he was taken down from the cross and placed in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup> But God raised him from death!

<sup>31</sup> Then for many days Jesus appeared to his followers who had gone with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. Now they are telling our people about him.

<sup>32</sup> God made a promise to our ancestors. And we are here to tell you the good news

<sup>33</sup> that he has kept this promise to us. It is just as the second Psalm says about Jesus, “You are my son because today I have become your Father.”

<sup>34</sup> God raised Jesus from death and will never let his body decay. It is just as God said, “I will make to you the same holy promise that I made to David.”

<sup>35</sup> And in another psalm it says, “God will never let the body of his Holy One decay.”

<sup>36</sup> When David was alive, he obeyed God. Then after he died, he was buried in the family grave, and his body decayed.

<sup>37</sup> But God raised Jesus from death, and his body did not decay.

<sup>38</sup> My friends, the message is that Jesus can forgive your sins! The Law of Moses could not set you free from all your sins.

<sup>39</sup> But everyone who has faith in Jesus is set free.

<sup>40</sup> Make sure that what the prophets have said doesn't happen to you. They said,

<sup>41</sup> “Look, you people who make fun of God! Be amazed and disappear. I will do something today that you won't believe, even if someone tells you about it!”

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the meeting, the people begged them to say more about these same things on the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> After the service, many Jews and a lot of Gentiles who worshipped God went with them. Paul and Barnabas begged them all to remain faithful to God, who had been so kind to them.

<sup>44</sup> The next Sabbath almost everyone in town came to hear the message about the Lord.

<sup>45</sup> When the Jewish people saw the crowds, they were very jealous. They insulted Paul and spoke against everything he said.

<sup>46</sup> But Paul and Barnabas bravely said: We had to tell God's message to you before we told it to anyone else. But you rejected the message! This proves that you don't deserve eternal life. Now we are going to the Gentiles.

<sup>47</sup>The Lord has given us this command, “I have placed you here as a light for the Gentiles. You are to take the saving power of God to people everywhere on earth.”

<sup>48</sup>This message made the Gentiles glad, and they praised what they had heard about the Lord. Everyone who had been chosen for eternal life then put their faith in the Lord.

<sup>49</sup>The message about the Lord spread all over that region.

<sup>50</sup>But the Jewish leaders went to some of the important men in the town and to some respected women who were religious. They turned them against Paul and Barnabas and started making trouble for them. They even chased them out of that part of the country.

<sup>51</sup>Paul and Barnabas shook the dust from that place off their feet and went on to the city of Iconium.

<sup>52</sup>But the Lord's followers in Antioch were very happy and were filled with the Holy Spirit.

The Acts 14

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Barnabas spoke in the Jewish meeting place in Iconium, just as they had done at Antioch, and many Jews and Gentiles put their faith in the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>But the Jews who did not have faith in him made the other Gentiles angry and turned them against the Lord's followers.

<sup>3</sup>Paul and Barnabas stayed there for a while, having faith in the Lord and bravely speaking his message. The Lord gave them the power to perform miracles and wonders, and he showed that their message about his great kindness was true.

<sup>4</sup>The people of Iconium did not know what to think. Some of them believed the Jewish group, and others believed the apostles.

<sup>5</sup>Finally, some Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, decided to make trouble for Paul and Barnabas and to stone them to death.

<sup>6-7</sup>But when the two apostles found out what was happening, they escaped to the region of Lycaonia. They preached the good news there in the towns of Lystra and Derbe and in the nearby countryside.

Paul and Barnabas in Lystra

<sup>8</sup>In Lystra there was a man who had been born with crippled feet and had never been able to walk.

<sup>9</sup>The man was listening to Paul speak, when Paul saw that he had faith in Jesus and could be healed. So he looked straight at the man

<sup>10</sup>and shouted, “Stand up!” The man jumped up and started walking around.

<sup>11</sup>When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they yelled out in the language of Lycaonia, “The gods have turned into humans and have come down to us!”

<sup>12</sup>The people then gave Barnabas the name Zeus, and they gave Paul the name Hermes, because he did the talking.

<sup>13</sup>The temple of Zeus was near the entrance to the city. Its priest and the crowds wanted to offer a sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul. So the priest brought some bulls and flowers to the city gates.

<sup>14</sup>When the two apostles found out about this, they tore their clothes in horror and ran to the crowd, shouting:

<sup>15</sup>Why are you doing this? We are humans just like you. Please give up all this foolishness. Turn to the living God, who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in them.

<sup>16</sup>In times past, God let each nation go its own way.

<sup>17</sup>But he showed that he was there by the good things he did. God sends rain from heaven and makes your crops grow. He gives food to you and makes your hearts glad.

<sup>18</sup>Even after Paul and Barnabas had said all this, they could hardly keep the people from offering a sacrifice to them.

<sup>19</sup>Some Jewish leaders from Antioch and Iconium came and turned the crowds against Paul. They hit him with stones and dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead.

<sup>20</sup>But when the Lord's followers gathered around Paul, he stood up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas went to Derbe.

Paul and Barnabas return to Antioch in Syria

<sup>21</sup>Paul and Barnabas preached the good news in Derbe and won some people to the Lord. Then they went back to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch in Pisidia.

<sup>22</sup>They encouraged the followers and begged them to remain faithful. They told them, "We have to suffer a lot before we can get into God's kingdom."

<sup>23</sup>Paul and Barnabas chose some leaders for each of the churches. Then they went without eating and prayed that the Lord would take good care of these leaders.

<sup>24</sup>Paul and Barnabas went on through Pisidia to Pamphylia,

<sup>25</sup>where they preached in the town of Perga. Then they went down to Attalia

<sup>26</sup>and sailed to Antioch in Syria. It was there that they had been placed in God's care for the work they had now completed.

<sup>27</sup>After arriving in Antioch, they called the church together. They told the people what God had helped them do and how he had made it possible for the Gentiles to believe.

<sup>28</sup>Then they stayed there with the followers for a long time.

The Acts 15

An important decision in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Some people came from Judea and started teaching the Lord's followers that they could not be saved, unless they were circumcised as Moses had taught.

<sup>2</sup>This caused trouble, and Paul and Barnabas argued with them about this teaching. So it was decided to send Paul and Barnabas and a few others to Jerusalem to discuss this problem with the apostles and the church leaders.

The church leaders meet in Jerusalem

<sup>3</sup>The men who were sent by the church went through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling how the Gentiles had turned to God. This news made the Lord's followers very happy.

<sup>4</sup>When the men arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, including the apostles and the leaders. They told them everything God had helped them do.

<sup>5</sup>But some Pharisees had become followers of the Lord. They stood up and said, "Gentiles who have faith in the Lord must be circumcised and told to obey the Law of Moses."

<sup>6</sup>The apostles and church leaders met to discuss this problem about Gentiles.

<sup>7</sup>They had talked it over for a long time, when Peter got up and said: My friends, you know that God decided long ago to let me be the one from your group to preach the good news to the Gentiles. God did this so that they would hear and obey him.

<sup>8</sup>He knows what is in everyone's heart. And he showed that he had chosen the Gentiles, when he gave them the Holy Spirit, just as he had given his Spirit to us.

<sup>9</sup>God treated them in the same way that he treated us. They put their faith in him, and he made their hearts pure.

<sup>10</sup>Now why are you trying to make God angry by placing a heavy burden on these followers? This burden was too heavy for us or our ancestors.

<sup>11</sup>But our Lord Jesus was kind to us, and we are saved by faith in him, just as the Gentiles are.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone kept quiet and listened as Barnabas and Paul told how God had given them the power to perform a lot of miracles and wonders for the Gentiles.

<sup>13</sup>After they had finished speaking, James said: My friends, listen to me!

<sup>14</sup>Simon Peter has told how God first came to the Gentiles and made some of them his own people.

<sup>15</sup>This agrees with what the prophets wrote,

<sup>16</sup>“I, the Lord, will return and rebuild David's fallen house. I will build it from its ruins and set it up again.

<sup>17</sup>Then other nations will turn to me and be my chosen ones. I, the Lord, say this.

<sup>18</sup>I promised it long ago.”

<sup>19</sup>And so, my friends, I don't think we should place burdens on the Gentiles who are turning to God.

<sup>20</sup>We should simply write and tell them not to eat anything that has been offered to idols. They should be told not to eat the meat of any animal that has been strangled or that still has blood in it. They must also not commit any terrible sexual sins.

<sup>21</sup>We must remember that the Law of Moses has been preached in city after city for many years, and every Sabbath it is read when we Jews meet.

A letter to Gentiles who had faith in the Lord

<sup>22</sup>The apostles, the leaders, and all the church members decided to send some men to Antioch along with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Silas and Judas Barsabbas, who were two leaders of the Lord's followers.

<sup>23</sup>They wrote a letter that said: We apostles and leaders send friendly greetings to all you Gentiles who are followers of the Lord in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia.

<sup>24</sup>We have heard that some people from here have terribly upset you by what they said. But we did not send them!

<sup>25</sup>So we met together and decided to choose some men and to send them to you along with our good friends Barnabas and Paul.

<sup>26</sup>These men have risked their lives for our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup>We are also sending Judas and Silas, who will tell you in person the same things that we are writing.

<sup>28</sup>The Holy Spirit has shown us that we should not place any extra burden on you.

<sup>29</sup>But you should not eat anything offered to idols. You should not eat any meat that still has the blood in it or any meat of any animal that has been strangled. You must also not commit any terrible sexual sins. If you follow these instructions, you will do well. We send our best wishes.

<sup>30</sup>The four men left Jerusalem and went to Antioch. Then they called the church members together and gave them the letter.

<sup>31</sup>When the letter was read, everyone was pleased and greatly encouraged.

<sup>32</sup>Judas and Silas were prophets, and they spoke a long time, encouraging and helping the Lord's followers.

<sup>33</sup>The men from Jerusalem stayed on in Antioch for a while. And when they left to return to the ones who had sent them, the followers wished them well.

<sup>34-35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas stayed on in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached about the Lord.

Paul's second journey to tell the good news Paul and Barnabas go their separate ways

<sup>36</sup>Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back and visit the Lord's followers in the cities where we preached his message. Then we will know how they are doing."

<sup>37</sup>Barnabas wanted to take along John, whose other name was Mark.

<sup>38</sup>But Paul did not want to, because Mark had left them in Pamphylia and had stopped working with them.

<sup>39</sup>Paul and Barnabas argued, then each of them went his own way. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus,

<sup>40</sup>but Paul took Silas and left after the followers had placed them in God's care.

<sup>41</sup>They travelled through Syria and Cilicia, encouraging the churches.

The Acts 16

Timothy works with Paul and Silas

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silas went back to Derbe and Lystra, where there was a follower named Timothy. His mother was also a follower. She was Jewish, and his father was Greek.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord's followers in Lystra and Iconium said good things about Timothy,
<sup>3</sup>and Paul wanted him to go with them. But Paul first had him circumcised, because all the Jewish people around there knew that Timothy's father was Greek.

<sup>4</sup>As Paul and the others went from city to city, they told the followers what the apostles and leaders in Jerusalem had decided, and they urged them to follow these instructions.

<sup>5</sup>The churches became stronger in their faith, and each day more people put their faith in the Lord.

Paul's vision in Troas

<sup>6</sup>Paul and his friends went through Phrygia and Galatia, but the Holy Spirit would not let them preach in Asia.

<sup>7</sup>After they arrived in Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not let them.

<sup>8</sup>So they went on through Mysia until they came to Troas.

<sup>9</sup>During the night, Paul had a vision of someone from Macedonia who was standing there and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!”

<sup>10</sup>After Paul had seen the vision, we began looking for a way to go to Macedonia. We were sure that God had called us to preach the good news there.

Lydia becomes a follower of the Lord

<sup>11</sup>We sailed straight from Troas to Samothrace, and the next day we arrived in Neapolis.

<sup>12</sup>From there we went to Philippi, which is a Roman colony in the first district of Macedonia. We spent several days in Philippi.

<sup>13</sup>Then on the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to a place by the river, where we thought there would be a Jewish meeting place for prayer. We sat down and talked with the women who came.

<sup>14</sup>One of them was Lydia, who was from the city of Thyatira and sold expensive purple cloth. She was a worshipper of the Lord God, and he made her willing to accept what Paul was saying.

<sup>15</sup>Then after she and her family were baptized, she kept on begging us, “If you think I really do have faith in the Lord, come and stay in my home.” Finally, we accepted her invitation.

Paul and Silas are put in jail

<sup>16</sup>One day on our way to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl. She had a spirit in her that gave her the power to tell the future. By doing this she made a lot of money for her owners.

<sup>17</sup>The girl followed Paul and the rest of us and kept yelling, “These men are servants of the Most High God! They are telling you how to be saved.”

<sup>18</sup>This went on for several days. Finally, Paul got so upset that he turned and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ, I order you to leave this girl alone!” At once the evil spirit left her.

<sup>19</sup>When the girl's owners realized that they had lost all chances for making more money, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them into court.

<sup>20</sup>They told the officials, "These Jews are upsetting our city!

<sup>21</sup>They are telling us to do things we Romans are not allowed to do."

<sup>22</sup>The crowd joined in the attack on Paul and Silas. Then the officials tore the clothes off the two men and ordered them to be beaten with a whip.

<sup>23</sup>After they had been badly beaten, they were put in jail, and the jailer was told to guard them carefully.

<sup>24</sup>The jailer did as he was told. He put them deep inside the jail and chained their feet to heavy blocks of wood.

<sup>25</sup>About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing praises to God, while the other prisoners listened.

<sup>26</sup>Suddenly a strong earthquake shook the jail to its foundations. The doors opened, and the chains fell from all the prisoners.

<sup>27</sup>When the jailer woke up and saw that the doors were open, he thought that the prisoners had escaped. He pulled out his sword and was about to kill himself.

<sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! No one has escaped."

<sup>29</sup>The jailer asked for a torch and went into the jail. He was shaking all over as he knelt down in front of Paul and Silas.

<sup>30</sup>After he had led them out of the jail, he asked, "What must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup>They replied, "Have faith in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved! This is also true for everyone who lives in your home."

<sup>32</sup>Then Paul and Silas told him and everyone else in his house about the Lord.

<sup>33</sup>While it was still night, the jailer took them to a place where he could wash their cuts and bruises. Then he and everyone in his home were baptized.

<sup>34</sup>They were very glad that they had put their faith in God. After this, the jailer took Paul and Silas to his home and gave them something to eat.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning the officials sent some police with orders for the jailer to let Paul and Silas go.

<sup>36</sup>The jailer told Paul, “The officials have ordered me to set you free. Now you can leave in peace.”

<sup>37</sup>But Paul told the police, “We are Roman citizens, and the Roman officials had us beaten in public without giving us a trial. They threw us into jail. Now do they think they can secretly send us away? No, they cannot! They will have to come here themselves and let us out.”

<sup>38</sup>When the police told the officials that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, the officials were afraid.

<sup>39</sup>So they came and apologized. They led them out of the jail and asked them to leave town.

<sup>40</sup>But Paul and Silas went straight to the home of Lydia, where they saw the Lord's followers and encouraged them. Then they left.

The Acts 17

Trouble in Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup>After Paul and his friends had travelled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they went on to Thessalonica. A Jewish meeting place was in that city.

<sup>2</sup>So as usual, Paul went there to worship, and on three Sabbaths he spoke to the people. He used the Scriptures

<sup>3</sup>to show them that the Messiah had to suffer, but that he would rise from death. Paul also told them that Jesus is the Messiah he was preaching about.

<sup>4</sup>Some of them believed what Paul had said, and they became followers with Paul and Silas. Some Gentiles and many important women also believed the message.

<sup>5</sup>The Jewish leaders were jealous and got some worthless louts who hung around the market place to start a riot in the city. They wanted to drag Paul and Silas out to the mob, and so they went straight to Jason's home.

<sup>6</sup>But when they did not find them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the Lord's followers. They took them to the city authorities and shouted, "Paul and Silas have been upsetting things everywhere. Now they have come here, <sup>7</sup>and Jason has welcomed them into his home. All of them break the laws of the Roman Emperor by claiming that someone named Jesus is king."

<sup>8</sup>The officials and the people were upset when they heard this.

<sup>9</sup>So they made Jason and the other followers pay bail before letting them go.

People in Berea welcome the message

<sup>10</sup>That same night the Lord's followers sent Paul and Silas on to Berea, and after they arrived, they went to the Jewish meeting place.

<sup>11</sup>The people in Berea were much nicer than those in Thessalonica, and they gladly accepted the message. Day after day they studied the Scriptures to see if these things were true.

<sup>12</sup>Many of them put their faith in the Lord, including some important Greek women and several men.

<sup>13</sup>When the Jewish leaders in Thessalonica heard that Paul had been preaching God's message in Berea, they went there and caused trouble by turning the crowds against Paul.

<sup>14</sup>Straight away the followers sent Paul down to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea.

<sup>15</sup>Some men went with Paul as far as Athens, and then returned with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

Paul in Athens

<sup>16</sup>While Paul was waiting in Athens, he was upset to see all the idols in the city.

<sup>17</sup>He went to the Jewish meeting place to speak to the Jews and to anyone who worshipped with them. Day after day he also spoke to everyone he met in the market.

<sup>18</sup>Some of them were Epicureans and some were Stoics, and they started arguing with him. People were asking, “What is this know-all trying to say?” Some even said, “Paul must be preaching about foreign gods! That's what he means when he talks about Jesus and about people rising from death.”

<sup>19</sup>They brought Paul before a council called the Areopagus, and said, “Tell us what your new teaching is all about.

<sup>20</sup>We have heard you say some strange things, and we want to know what you mean.”

<sup>21</sup>More than anything else the people of Athens and the foreigners living there loved to hear and to talk about anything new.

<sup>22</sup>So Paul stood up in front of the council and said: People of Athens, I see that you are very religious.

<sup>23</sup>As I was going through your city and looking at the things you worship, I found an altar with the words, “To an Unknown God.” You worship this God, but you don't really know him. So I want to tell you about him.

<sup>24</sup>This God made the world and everything in it. He is Lord of heaven and earth, and he doesn't live in temples built by human hands.

<sup>25</sup>He doesn't need help from anyone. He gives life, breath, and everything else to all people.

<sup>26</sup>From one person God made all nations who live on earth, and he decided when and where every nation would be.

<sup>27</sup>God has done all this, so that we will look for him and reach out and find him. He isn't far from any of us,

<sup>28</sup>and he gives us the power to live, to move, and to be who we are. “We are his children,” just as some of your poets have said.

<sup>29</sup>Since we are God's children, we must not think that he is like an idol made out of gold or silver or stone. He isn't like anything that humans have thought up and made.

<sup>30</sup>In the past, God forgave all this because people did not know what they were doing. But now he says that everyone everywhere must turn to him.

<sup>31</sup>He has set a day when he will judge the world's people with fairness. And he has chosen the man Jesus to do the judging for him. God has given proof of this to all of us by raising Jesus from death.

<sup>32</sup>As soon as the people heard Paul say that a man had been raised from death, some of them started laughing. Others said, “We will hear you talk about this some other time.”

<sup>33</sup>When Paul left the council meeting,

<sup>34</sup>some of the men put their faith in the Lord and went with Paul. One of them was a council member named Dionysius. A woman named Damaris and several others also put their faith in the Lord.

The Acts 18

Paul in Corinth

<sup>1</sup>Paul left Athens and went to Corinth,

<sup>2</sup>where he met Aquila, a Jewish man from Pontus. Not long before this, Aquila had come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Emperor Claudius had ordered the Jewish people to leave Rome. Paul went to see Aquila and Priscilla

<sup>3</sup>and found out that they were tent makers. Paul was a tent maker too. So he stayed with them, and they worked together.

<sup>4</sup>Every Sabbath, Paul went to the Jewish meeting place. He spoke to Jews and Gentiles and tried to win them over.

<sup>5</sup>But after Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, he spent all his time preaching to the Jews about Jesus the Messiah.

<sup>6</sup>Finally, they turned against him and insulted him. So he shook the dust from his clothes and told them, “Whatever happens to you will be your own fault! I am not to blame. From now on I am going to preach to the Gentiles.”

<sup>7</sup>Paul then moved into the house of a man named Titius Justus, who worshipped God and lived next door to the Jewish meeting place.

<sup>8</sup>Crispus was the leader of the meeting place. He and everyone in his family put their faith in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also heard the message, and all the people who had faith in the Lord were baptized.

<sup>9</sup>One night, Paul had a vision, and in it the Lord said, “Don't be afraid to keep on preaching. Don't stop!

<sup>10</sup>I am with you, and you won't be harmed. Many people in this city belong to me.”

<sup>11</sup>Paul stayed on in Corinth for a year and a half, teaching God's message to the people.

<sup>12</sup>While Gallio was governor of Achaia, some of the Jewish leaders got together and grabbed Paul. They brought him into court

<sup>13</sup>and said, “This man is trying to make our people worship God in a way that is against our Law!”

<sup>14</sup>Even before Paul could speak, Gallio said, “If you were charging this man with a crime or some other wrong, I would have to listen to you.

<sup>15</sup>But since this concerns only words, names, and your own law, you will have to take care of it. I refuse to judge such matters.”

<sup>16</sup>Then he sent them out of the court.

<sup>17</sup>The crowd grabbed Sosthenes, the Jewish leader, and beat him up in front of the court. But none of this mattered to Gallio.

Paul returns to Antioch in Syria

<sup>18</sup>After Paul had stayed for a while with the Lord's followers in Corinth, he said goodbye to them and sailed on to Syria with Aquila and Priscilla. But before he left, he had his head shaved at Cenchreae because he had made a promise to God.

<sup>19</sup>The three of them arrived in Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He then went into the Jewish meeting place to talk with the people there.

<sup>20</sup>They asked him to stay longer, but he refused.

<sup>21</sup>He said goodbye to them and told them, "If God lets me, I will come back."

Paul's third journey to tell the good news

<sup>22</sup>Paul sailed to Caesarea, where he greeted the church. Then he went on to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup>After staying there for a while, he left and visited several places in Galatia and Phrygia. He helped the followers there to become stronger in their faith.

Apollos in Ephesus

<sup>24</sup>A Jewish man named Apollos came to Ephesus. Apollos had been born in the city of Alexandria. He was a very good speaker and knew a lot about the Scriptures.

<sup>25</sup>He also knew much about the Lord's Way, and he spoke about it with great excitement. What he taught about Jesus was right, but all he knew was John's message about baptism.

<sup>26</sup>Apollos started speaking bravely in the Jewish meeting place. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him to their home and helped him understand God's Way even better.

<sup>27</sup>Apollos decided to travel through Achaia. So the Lord's followers wrote letters, encouraging the followers there to welcome him. After Apollos arrived in Achaia, he was a great help to everyone who had put their faith in the Lord Jesus because of God's kindness.

<sup>28</sup>He got into fierce arguments with the Jewish people, and in public he used the Scriptures to prove that Jesus is the Messiah.

The Acts 19

Paul in Ephesus

<sup>1</sup>While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul travelled across the hill country to Ephesus, where he met some of the Lord's followers.

<sup>2</sup>He asked them, “When you put your faith in Jesus, were you given the Holy Spirit?” “No!” they answered. “We have never even heard of the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>“Then why were you baptized?” Paul asked. They answered, “Because of what John taught.”

<sup>4</sup>Paul replied, “John baptized people so that they would turn to God. But he also told them that someone else was coming, and that they should put their faith in him. Jesus is the one that John was talking about.”

<sup>5</sup>After the people heard Paul say this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup>Then Paul placed his hands on them. The Holy Spirit was given to them, and they spoke unknown languages and prophesied.

<sup>7</sup>There were about twelve men in this group.

<sup>8</sup>For three months Paul went to the Jewish meeting place and talked bravely with the people about God's kingdom. He tried to win them over,

<sup>9</sup>but some of them were stubborn and refused to believe. In front of everyone they said terrible things about God's Way. Paul left and took the followers with him to the lecture hall of Tyrannus. He spoke there every day

<sup>10</sup>for two years, until every Jew and Gentile in Asia had heard the Lord's message.

The sons of Sceva

<sup>11</sup>God gave Paul the power to perform great miracles.

<sup>12</sup>People even took handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched Paul's body, and they carried them to everyone who was sick. All the sick people were healed, and the evil spirits went out.

<sup>13</sup>Some Jewish men started going around trying to force out evil spirits by using the name of the Lord Jesus. They said to the spirits, "Come out in the name of that same Jesus that Paul preaches about!"

<sup>14</sup>Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this,

<sup>15</sup>when an evil spirit said to them, "I know Jesus! And I have heard about Paul. But who are you?"

<sup>16</sup>Then the man with the evil spirit jumped on them and beat them up. They ran out of the house, naked and bruised.

<sup>17</sup>When the Jews and Gentiles in Ephesus heard about this, they were so frightened that they praised the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>Many who were followers now started telling everyone about the evil things they had been doing.

<sup>19</sup>Some who had been practising witchcraft even brought their books and burnt them in public. These books were worth about fifty thousand silver coins.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord's message spread and became even more powerful.

The riot in Ephesus

<sup>21</sup>After all this had happened, Paul decided to visit Macedonia and Achaia on his way to Jerusalem. Paul had said, "From there I will go on to Rome."

<sup>22</sup>So he sent his two helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia. But he stayed on in Asia for a while.

<sup>23</sup>At that time there was serious trouble because of the Lord's Way.

<sup>24</sup>A silversmith named Demetrius had a business that made silver models of the temple of the goddess Artemis. Those who worked for him earned a lot of money.

<sup>25</sup>Demetrius brought together everyone who was in the same business and said: Friends, you know that we make a good living at this.

<sup>26</sup>But you have seen and heard how this man Paul is upsetting a lot of people, not only in Ephesus, but almost everywhere in Asia. He claims that the gods we humans make are not really gods at all.

<sup>27</sup>Everyone will start saying terrible things about our business. They will stop respecting the temple of the goddess Artemis, who is worshipped in Asia and all over the world. Our great goddess will be forgotten!

<sup>28</sup>When the workers heard this, they got angry and started shouting, “Great is Artemis, the goddess of the Ephesians!”

<sup>29</sup>Soon the whole city was in a riot, and some men grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus, who had come from Macedonia with Paul. Then everyone in the crowd rushed to the place where the town meetings were held.

<sup>30</sup>Paul wanted to go out and speak to the people, but the Lord's followers would not let him.

<sup>31</sup>A few of the local officials were friendly to Paul, and they sent someone to warn him not to go.

<sup>32</sup>Some of the people in the meeting were shouting one thing, and others were shouting something else. Everyone was completely confused, and most of them did not even know why they were there.

<sup>33</sup>Several of the Jewish leaders pushed a man named Alexander to the front of the crowd and started telling him what to say. He motioned with his hand and tried to explain what was going on.

<sup>34</sup>But when the crowd saw that he was Jewish, they all shouted for two hours, “Great is Artemis, the goddess of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup>Finally, a town official made the crowd be quiet. Then he said: People of Ephesus, who in the world doesn't know that our city is the centre for worshipping the great goddess Artemis? Who doesn't know that her image which fell from heaven is here?

<sup>36</sup>No one can deny this, and so you should calm down and not do anything foolish.

<sup>37</sup>You have brought men in here who have not robbed temples or spoken against our goddess.

<sup>38</sup>If Demetrius and his workers have a case against these men, we have courts and judges. Let them take their complaints there.

<sup>39</sup>But if you want to do more than that, the matter will have to be brought before the city council.

<sup>40</sup>We could easily be accused of starting a riot today. There is no excuse for it! We cannot even give a reason for this uproar.

<sup>41</sup>After saying this, he told the people to leave.

The Acts 20

Paul goes through Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup>When the riot was over, Paul sent for the followers and encouraged them. He then said goodbye to them and left for Macedonia.

<sup>2</sup>As he travelled from place to place, he encouraged the followers with many messages. Finally, he went to Greece

<sup>3</sup>and stayed there for three months. Paul was about to sail to Syria. But some of the Jewish leaders plotted against him, so he decided to return by way of Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup>With him were Sopater, son of Pyrrhus from Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica. Gaius from Derbe was also with him, and so were Timothy and the two Asians, Tychicus and Trophimus.

<sup>5</sup>They went on ahead to Troas and waited for us there.

<sup>6</sup>After the Festival of Thin Bread, we sailed from Philippi. Five days later we met them in Troas and stayed there for a week.

Paul's last visit to Troas

<sup>7</sup>On the first day of the week we met to break bread together. Paul spoke to the people until midnight because he was leaving the next morning.

<sup>8</sup>In the upstairs room where we were meeting, there were a lot of lamps.

<sup>9</sup>A young man called Eutychus was sitting on a window sill. While Paul was speaking, the young man got very sleepy. Finally, he went to sleep and fell three floors all the way down to the ground. When they picked him up, he was dead.

<sup>10</sup>Paul went down and bent over Eutychus. He took him in his arms and said, "Don't worry! He's alive."

<sup>11</sup>After Paul had gone back upstairs, he broke bread, and ate with us. He then spoke until dawn and left.

<sup>12</sup>Then the followers took the young man home alive and were very happy.

The voyage from Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup>Paul decided to travel by land to Assos. The rest of us went on ahead by ship, and we were to take him aboard there.

<sup>14</sup>When he met us in Assos, he came aboard, and we sailed on to Mitylene.

<sup>15</sup>The next day we came to a place near Chios, and the following day we reached Samos. The day after that we sailed to Miletus.

<sup>16</sup>Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, because he did not want to spend too much time in Asia. He was in a hurry and wanted to be in Jerusalem in time for Pentecost.

Paul says goodbye to the church leaders of Ephesus

<sup>17</sup>From Miletus, Paul sent a message for the church leaders at Ephesus to come and meet with him.

<sup>18</sup>When they got there, he said: You know everything I did during the time I was with you when I first came to Asia.

<sup>19</sup>Some of the Jews plotted against me and caused me a lot of sorrow and trouble. But I served the Lord and was humble.

<sup>20</sup>When I preached in public or taught in your homes, I didn't hold back from telling anything that would help you.

<sup>21</sup>I told Jews and Gentiles to turn to God and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>I don't know what will happen to me in Jerusalem, but I must obey God's Spirit and go there.

<sup>23</sup>In every city I visit, I am told by the Holy Spirit that I will be put in jail and will be in trouble in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup>But I don't care what happens to me, as long as I finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do. And that work is to tell the good news about God's great kindness.

<sup>25</sup>I have gone from place to place, preaching to you about God's kingdom, but now I know that none of you will ever see me again.

<sup>26</sup>I tell you today that I am no longer responsible for any of you!

<sup>27</sup>I have told you everything God wants you to know.

<sup>28</sup>Look after yourselves and everyone the Holy Spirit has placed in your care. Be like shepherds to God's church. It is the flock that he bought with the blood of his own Son.

<sup>29</sup>I know that after I am gone, others will come like fierce wolves to attack you.

<sup>30</sup>Some of your own people will tell lies to win over the Lord's followers.

<sup>31</sup>Be on your guard! Remember how day and night for three years I kept warning you with tears in my eyes.

<sup>32</sup>I now place you in God's care. Remember the message about his great kindness! This message can help you and give you what belongs to you as God's people.

<sup>33</sup>I have never wanted anyone's money or clothes.

<sup>34</sup>You know how I have worked with my own hands to make a living for myself and my friends.

<sup>35</sup>By everything I did, I showed how you should work to help everyone who is weak. Remember that our Lord Jesus said, "More blessings come from giving than from receiving."

<sup>36</sup>After Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.

<sup>37</sup>Everyone cried and hugged and kissed him.

<sup>38</sup>They were especially sad because Paul had told them, "You will never see me again." Then they went with him to the ship.

The Acts 21

Paul goes to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>After saying goodbye, we sailed straight to Cos. The next day we reached Rhodes and from there sailed on to Patara.

<sup>2</sup>We found a ship going to Phoenicia, so we got on board and sailed off.

<sup>3</sup>We came within sight of Cyprus and then sailed south of it on to the port of Tyre in Syria, where the ship was going to unload its cargo.

<sup>4</sup>We found the Lord's followers and stayed with them for a week. The Holy Spirit had told them to warn Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>But when the week was over, we started on our way again. All the men, together with their wives and children, walked with us from the town to the seashore. We knelt on the beach and prayed.

<sup>6</sup>Then after saying goodbye to each other, we got into the ship, and they went back home.

<sup>7</sup>We sailed from Tyre to Ptolemais, where we greeted the followers and stayed with them for a day.

<sup>8</sup>The next day we went to Caesarea and stayed with Philip, the preacher. He was one of the seven men who helped the apostles, <sup>9</sup>and he had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

<sup>10</sup>We had been in Caesarea for several days, when the prophet Agabus came to us from Judea.

<sup>11</sup>He took Paul's belt, and with it he tied up his own hands and feet. Then he told us, "The Holy Spirit says that some of the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem will tie up the man who owns this belt. They will also hand him over to the Gentiles."

<sup>12</sup>After Agabus said this, we and the followers living there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>But Paul answered, "Why are you crying and breaking my heart? I am not only willing to be put in jail for the Lord Jesus. I am even willing to die for him in Jerusalem!"

<sup>14</sup>Since we could not get Paul to change his mind, we gave up and prayed, "Lord, please make us willing to do what you want."

<sup>15</sup>Then we got ready to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>Some of the followers from Caesarea went with us and took us to stay in the home of Mnason. He was from Cyprus and had been a follower from the beginning.

Paul's arrest in Jerusalem Paul visits James

<sup>17</sup>When we arrived in Jerusalem, the Lord's followers gladly welcomed us.

<sup>18</sup>Paul went with us to see James the next day, and all the church leaders were present.

<sup>19</sup>Paul greeted them and told how God had used him to help the Gentiles.

<sup>20</sup>Everyone who heard this praised God and said to Paul: My friend, you can see how many tens of thousands of the Jewish people have become followers! And all of them are eager to obey the Law of Moses.

<sup>21</sup>But they have been told that you are teaching those who live among the Gentiles to disobey this Law. They claim that you are telling them not to circumcise their sons or to follow Jewish customs.

<sup>22</sup>What should we do now that our people have heard that you are here?

<sup>23</sup>Please do what we ask, because four of our men have made special promises to God.

<sup>24</sup>Join with them and prepare yourself for the ceremony that goes with the promises. Pay the cost for their heads to be shaved. Then everyone will learn that the reports about you are not true. They will know that you do obey the Law of Moses.

<sup>25</sup>Some while ago we told the Gentile followers what we think they should do. We instructed them not to eat anything offered to idols. They were told not to eat any meat with blood still in it or the meat of an animal that has been strangled. They were also told not to commit any terrible sexual sins.

<sup>26</sup>The next day Paul took the four men with him and got himself ready at the same time they did. Then he went into the temple and told when the final ceremony would take place and when an offering would be made for each of them.

Paul is arrested

<sup>27</sup>When the period of seven days for the ceremony was almost over, some of the Jewish people from Asia saw Paul in the temple. They got a large crowd together and started attacking him.

<sup>28</sup>They were shouting, “Friends, help us! This man goes around everywhere, saying bad things about our nation and about the Law of Moses and about this temple. He has even brought shame to this holy temple by bringing in Gentiles.”

<sup>29</sup>Some of them thought that Paul had brought Trophimus from Ephesus into the temple, because they had seen them together in the city.

<sup>30</sup>The whole city was in an uproar, and the people turned into a mob. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Then suddenly the doors were shut.

<sup>31</sup>The people were about to kill Paul when the Roman army commander heard that all Jerusalem was starting to riot.

<sup>32</sup>So he quickly took some soldiers and officers and ran to where the crowd had gathered. As soon as the mob saw the commander and soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup>The army commander went over and arrested him and had him bound with two chains. Then he tried to find out who Paul was and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup>Part of the crowd shouted one thing, and part of them shouted something else. But they were making so much noise that the commander could not find out a thing. Then he ordered Paul to be taken into the fortress.

<sup>35</sup>As they reached the steps, the crowd became so wild that the soldiers had to lift Paul up and carry him.

<sup>36</sup>The crowd followed and kept shouting, “Kill him! Kill him!”

Paul speaks to the crowd

<sup>37</sup>When Paul was about to be taken into the fortress, he asked the commander, “Can I say something to you?” “How do you know Greek?” the commander asked.

<sup>38</sup>“Aren't you that Egyptian who started a riot not long ago and led four thousand terrorists into the desert?”

<sup>39</sup>“No!” Paul replied. “I am a Jew from Tarsus, an important city in Cilicia. Please let me speak to the crowd.”

<sup>40</sup>The commander told him he could speak, so Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people. When they were quiet, he spoke to them in Aramaic:

The Acts 22

<sup>1</sup>“My friends and leaders of our nation, listen as I explain what happened!”

<sup>2</sup>When the crowd heard Paul speak to them in Aramaic, they became even quieter. Then Paul said:

<sup>3</sup>I am a Jew, born and raised in the city of Tarsus in Cilicia. I was a student of Gamaliel and was taught to follow every single law of our ancestors. In fact, I was just as eager to obey God as any of you are today.

<sup>4</sup>I made trouble for everyone who followed the Lord's Way, and I even had some of them killed. I had others arrested and put in jail. I didn't care if they were men or women.

<sup>5</sup>The high priest and all the council members can tell you that this is true. They even gave me letters to the Jewish leaders in Damascus, so that I could arrest people there and bring them to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>One day about midday I was getting close to Damascus, when a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.

<sup>7</sup>I fell to the ground and heard a voice asking me, “Saul, Saul, why are you so cruel to me?”

<sup>8</sup>“Who are you?” I answered. The Lord replied, “I am Jesus from Nazareth! I am the one you are so cruel to.”

<sup>9</sup>The men who were travelling with me saw the light, but did not hear the voice.

<sup>10</sup>I asked, “Lord, what do you want me to do?” Then he told me, “Get up and go to Damascus. When you get there, you will be told what to do.”

<sup>11</sup>The light had been so bright that I couldn't see. And the other men had to lead me by the hand to Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>In that city there was a man named Ananias, who faithfully obeyed the Law of Moses and was well liked by all the Jewish people living there.

<sup>13</sup>He came to me and said, “Saul, my friend, you can now see again!” At once I could see.

<sup>14</sup>Then Ananias told me, “The God that our ancestors worshipped has chosen you to know what he wants done. He has chosen you to see the One Who Obeys God and to hear his voice.

<sup>15</sup>You must tell everyone what you have seen and heard.

<sup>16</sup>What are you waiting for? Get up! Be baptized, and wash away your sins by praying to the Lord.”

<sup>17</sup>After this I returned to Jerusalem and went to the temple to pray. There I had a vision

<sup>18</sup>of the Lord who said to me, “Hurry and leave Jerusalem! The people won't listen to what you say about me.”

<sup>19</sup>I replied, “Lord, they know that in many of our meeting places I arrested and beat people who had faith in you.

<sup>20</sup>Stephen was killed because he spoke for you, and I stood there and cheered them on. I even guarded the clothes of the men who murdered him.”

<sup>21</sup>But the Lord told me to go, and he promised to send me far away to the Gentiles.

<sup>22</sup>The crowd listened until Paul said this. Then they started shouting, “Get rid of this man! He doesn't deserve to live.”

<sup>23</sup>They kept shouting. They waved their clothes around and threw dust into the air.

Paul and the Roman army commander

<sup>24</sup>The Roman commander ordered Paul to be taken into the fortress and beaten with a whip. He did this to find out why the people were screaming at Paul.

<sup>25</sup>While the soldiers were tying Paul up to be beaten, he asked the officer standing there, “Is it legal to beat a Roman citizen before he has been tried in court?”

<sup>26</sup>When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and said, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen!”

<sup>27</sup>The commander went to Paul and asked, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?” “Yes,” Paul answered.

<sup>28</sup>The commander then said, “I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen.” But Paul replied, “I was born a Roman citizen.”

<sup>29</sup>The men who were about to beat and question Paul quickly backed off. And the commander himself was frightened when he realized that he had put a Roman citizen in chains.

Paul is tried by the council

<sup>30</sup>The next day the commander wanted to know the real reason why the Jewish leaders had brought charges against Paul. So he had Paul's chains removed, and he ordered the chief priests and the whole council to meet. Then he had Paul led in and made him stand in front of them.

The Acts 23

<sup>1</sup>Paul looked straight at the council members and said, “My friends, to this day I have served God with a clear conscience!”

<sup>2</sup>Then Ananias the high priest ordered the men standing beside Paul to hit him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup>Paul turned to the high priest and said, “You whitewashed wall! God will hit you. You sit there to judge me by the Law of Moses. But at the same time you order men to break the Law by hitting me.”

<sup>4</sup>The men standing beside Paul asked, “Don't you know you are insulting God's high priest?”

<sup>5</sup>Paul replied, “Oh! I didn't know he was the high priest. The Scriptures do tell us not to speak evil about a leader of our people.”

<sup>6</sup>When Paul saw that some of the council members were Sadducees and others were Pharisees, he shouted, “My friends, I am a Pharisee and the son of a Pharisee. I am on trial simply because I believe that the dead will be raised to life.”

<sup>7</sup>As soon as Paul said this, the Pharisees and the Sadducees got into a big argument, and the council members started taking sides.

<sup>8</sup>The Sadducees do not believe in angels or spirits or that the dead will rise to life. But the Pharisees believe in all these,

<sup>9</sup>and so there was a lot of shouting. Some of the teachers of the Law of Moses were Pharisees. Finally, they became angry and said, “We don't find anything wrong with this man. Perhaps a spirit or an angel really did speak to him.”

<sup>10</sup>The argument became fierce, and the commander was afraid that Paul would be pulled apart. So he ordered the soldiers to go in and rescue Paul. Then they took him back into the fortress.

<sup>11</sup>That night the Lord stood beside Paul and said, “Don't worry! Just as you have told others about me in Jerusalem, you must also tell about me in Rome.”

A plot to kill Paul

<sup>12-13</sup>The next morning more than forty Jewish men got together and vowed that they would not eat or drink anything until they had killed Paul.

<sup>14</sup>Then some of them went to the chief priests and the nation's leaders and said, “We have promised God that we would not eat a thing until we have killed Paul.”

<sup>15</sup>You and everyone in the council must go to the commander and pretend that you want to find out more about the charges against Paul. Ask for him to be brought before your court. Meanwhile, we will be waiting to kill him before he gets there.”

<sup>16</sup>When Paul's nephew heard about the plot, he went to the fortress and told Paul about it.

<sup>17</sup>So Paul said to one of the army officers, “Take this young man to the commander. He has something to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup>The officer took him to the commander and said, “The prisoner named Paul asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup>The commander took the young man aside and asked him in private, “What do you want to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup>He answered, “Some men are planning to ask you to bring Paul down to the Jewish council tomorrow. They will claim that they want to find out more about him.

<sup>21</sup>But please don't do what they say. More than forty men are going to attack Paul. They have made a vow not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him. Even now they are waiting to hear what you decide.”

<sup>22</sup>The commander sent the young man away after saying to him, “Don't let anyone know that you told me this.”

Paul is taken to Caesarea
Paul is sent to Felix the governor

<sup>23</sup>The commander called in two of his officers and told them, “By nine o'clock tonight have two hundred soldiers ready to go to Caesarea. Take along seventy men on horseback and two hundred foot soldiers with spears.

<sup>24</sup>Get a horse ready for Paul and make sure that he gets safely through to Felix the governor.”

<sup>25</sup>The commander wrote a letter that said:

<sup>26</sup>Greetings from Claudius Lysias to the Honourable Governor Felix:

<sup>27</sup>Some Jews grabbed this man and were about to kill him. But when I found out that he was a Roman citizen, I took some soldiers and rescued him.

<sup>28</sup>I wanted to find out what they had against him. So I brought him before their council

<sup>29</sup>and learnt that the charges concern only their religious laws. This man isn't guilty of anything for which he should die or even be put in jail.

<sup>30</sup>As soon as I learnt that there was a plot against him, I sent him to you and told their leaders to bring charges against him in your court.

<sup>31</sup>The soldiers obeyed the commander's orders, and that same night they took Paul to the city of Antipatris.

<sup>32</sup>The next day the foot soldiers returned to the fortress and let the soldiers on horseback take him the rest of the way.

<sup>33</sup>When they came to Caesarea, they gave the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

<sup>34</sup>The governor read the letter. Then he asked Paul and found out that he was from Cilicia.

<sup>35</sup>The governor said, "I will listen to your case as soon as the people come to bring their charges against you." After saying this, he gave orders for Paul to be kept as a prisoner in Herod's palace.

The Acts 24

Paul is accused in the court of Felix

<sup>1</sup>Five days later Ananias the high priest, together with some of their leaders and a lawyer named Tertullus, went to the governor to present their case against Paul.

<sup>2</sup>So Paul was called in, and Tertullus stated the case against him: Honourable Felix, you have brought our people a long period of peace, and because of your concern our nation is much better off.

<sup>3</sup>All of us are always grateful for what you have done.

<sup>4</sup>I don't want to bother you, but please be patient with us and listen to me for just a few minutes.

<sup>5</sup>This man has been found to be a real pest and troublemaker for Jews all over the world. He is also a leader of a group called Nazarenes.

<sup>6-8</sup>When he tried to disgrace the temple, we arrested him. If you question him, you will find out for yourself that our charges are true.

<sup>9</sup>The Jewish crowd spoke up and agreed with what Tertullus had said.

Paul defends himself

<sup>10</sup>The governor motioned for Paul to speak, and he began: I know that you have judged the people of our nation for many years, and I am glad to defend myself in your court.

<sup>11</sup>It was no more than twelve days ago that I went to worship in Jerusalem. You can find this out easily enough.

<sup>12</sup>Never once did the Jews find me arguing with anyone in the temple. I didn't cause trouble in the Jewish meeting places or in the city itself.

<sup>13</sup>There is no way that they can prove these charges that they are now bringing against me.

<sup>14</sup>I admit that their leaders think that the Lord's Way which I follow is based on wrong beliefs. But I still worship the same God that my ancestors worshipped. And I believe everything written in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets.

<sup>15</sup>I am just as sure as these people are that God will raise from death everyone who is good or evil.

<sup>16</sup>And because I am sure, I try my best to have a clear conscience in whatever I do for God or for people.

<sup>17</sup>After being away for several years, I returned here to bring gifts for the poor people of my nation and to offer sacrifices.

<sup>18</sup>This is what I was doing when I was found going through a ceremony in the temple. I wasn't with a crowd, and there was no uproar.

<sup>19</sup>Some Jews from Asia were there at that time, and if they have anything to say against me, they should be here now.

<sup>20</sup>Or ask the ones who are here. They can tell you that they didn't find me guilty of anything when I was tried by their own council.

<sup>21</sup>The only charge they can bring against me is what I shouted out in court, when I said, "I am on trial today because I believe that the dead will be raised to life!"

<sup>22</sup>Felix knew a lot about the Lord's Way. But he brought the trial to an end and said, "I will make my decision after Lysias the commander arrives."

<sup>23</sup>He then ordered the army officer to keep Paul under guard, but not to lock him up or to stop his friends from helping him.

Paul is kept under guard

<sup>24</sup>Several days later Felix and his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, went to the place where Paul was kept under guard. They sent for Paul and listened while he spoke to them about having faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>But Felix was frightened when Paul started talking to them about doing right, about self-control, and about the coming judgment. So he said to Paul, "That's enough for now. You may go. But when I have time I will send for you."

<sup>26</sup>After this, Felix often sent for Paul and talked with him, because he hoped that Paul would offer him a bribe.

<sup>27</sup>Two years later Porcius Festus became governor in place of Felix. But since Felix wanted to do the Jewish leaders a favour, he kept Paul in jail.

The Acts 25

Paul asks to be tried by the Roman Emperor

<sup>1</sup>Three days after Festus had become governor, he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>There the chief priests and some Jewish leaders told him about their charges against Paul. They also asked Festus

<sup>3</sup>if he would be willing to bring Paul to Jerusalem. They begged him to do this because they were planning to attack and kill Paul on the way.

<sup>4</sup>But Festus told them, “Paul will be kept in Caesarea, and I am soon going there myself.

<sup>5</sup>If he has done anything wrong, let your leaders go with me and bring charges against him there.”

<sup>6</sup>Festus stayed in Jerusalem for eight or ten more days before going to Caesarea. Then the next day he took his place as judge and had Paul brought into court.

<sup>7</sup>As soon as Paul came in, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem crowded around him and said he was guilty of many serious crimes. But they could not prove anything.

<sup>8</sup>Then Paul spoke in his own defence, “I have not broken the Law of my people. And I have not done anything against either the temple or the Emperor.”

<sup>9</sup>Festus wanted to please the leaders. So he asked Paul, “Are you willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried by me on these charges?”

<sup>10</sup>Paul replied, “I am on trial in the Emperor's court, and that's where I should be tried. You know very well that I have not done anything to harm the Jewish nation.

<sup>11</sup>If I had done something deserving death, I would not ask to escape the death penalty. But I am not guilty of any of these crimes, and no one has the right to hand me over to these people. I now ask to be tried by the Emperor himself.”

<sup>12</sup>After Festus had talked this over with members of his council, he told Paul, “You have asked to be tried by the Emperor, and to the Emperor you will go!”

Paul speaks to Agrippa and Bernice

<sup>13</sup>A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to visit Festus.

<sup>14</sup>They had been there for several days, when Festus told the king about the charges against Paul. He said: Felix left a man here in jail, <sup>15</sup>and when I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish leaders came and asked me to find him guilty.

<sup>16</sup>I told them that it isn't the Roman custom to hand a man over to people who are bringing charges against him. He must first have the chance to meet them face to face and to defend himself against their charges.

<sup>17</sup>So when they came here with me, I wasted no time. On the very next day I took my place on the judge's bench and ordered him to be brought in.

<sup>18</sup>But when the men stood up to make their charges against him, they did not accuse him of any of the crimes that I thought they would.

<sup>19</sup>Instead, they argued with him about some of their beliefs and about a dead man named Jesus, who Paul said was alive.

<sup>20</sup>Since I did not know how to find out the truth about all this, I asked Paul if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and be put on trial there.

<sup>21</sup>But Paul asked to be kept in jail until the Emperor could decide his case. So I ordered him to be kept here until I could send him to the Emperor.

<sup>22</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would also like to hear what this man has to say.” Festus answered, “You can hear him tomorrow.”

<sup>23</sup>The next day Agrippa and Bernice made a big show as they came into the meeting room. High ranking army officers and leading citizens of the town were also there. Festus then ordered Paul to be brought in <sup>24</sup>and said: King Agrippa and other guests, look at this man! Every Jew from Jerusalem and Caesarea has come to me, demanding for him to be put to death.

<sup>25</sup>I have not found him guilty of any crime deserving death. But because he has asked to be judged by the Emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

<sup>26</sup>I have to write some facts about this man to the Emperor. So I have brought him before all of you, but especially before you, King Agrippa. After we have talked about his case, I will then have something to write.

<sup>27</sup>It makes no sense to send a prisoner to the Emperor without stating the charges against him.

The Acts 26

Paul's defence before Agrippa

<sup>1</sup>Agrippa told Paul, “You may now speak for yourself.” Paul stretched out his hand and said:

<sup>2</sup>King Agrippa, I am glad for this chance to defend myself before you today on all these charges that my own people have brought against me.

<sup>3</sup>You know a lot about our religious customs and the beliefs that divide us. So I ask you to listen patiently to me.

<sup>4-5</sup> All the Jews have known me since I was a child. They know what kind of life I have lived in my own country and in Jerusalem. And if they were willing, they could tell you that I was a Pharisee, a member of a group that is stricter than any other.

<sup>6</sup>Now I am on trial because I believe the promise God made to our people long ago.

<sup>7</sup>Day and night our twelve tribes have earnestly served God, waiting for his promised blessings. King Agrippa, because of this hope, the Jewish leaders have brought charges against me.

<sup>8</sup>Why should any of you doubt that God raises the dead to life?

<sup>9</sup>I once thought that I should do everything I could to oppose Jesus from Nazareth.

<sup>10</sup>I did this first in Jerusalem, and with the authority of the chief priests I put many of God's people in jail. I even voted for them to be killed.

<sup>11</sup>I often had them punished in our meeting places, and I tried to make them give up their faith. In fact, I was so angry with them, that I went looking for them in foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup>King Agrippa, one day I was on my way to Damascus with the authority and permission of the chief priests.

<sup>13</sup>About midday I saw a light brighter than the sun. It flashed from heaven on me and on everyone travelling with me.

<sup>14</sup>We all fell to the ground. Then I heard a voice say to me in Aramaic, "Saul, Saul, why are you so cruel to me? It's foolish to fight against me!"

<sup>15</sup>"Who are you?" I asked. Then the Lord answered, "I am Jesus! I am the one you are so cruel to.

<sup>16</sup>Now stand up. I have appeared to you, because I have chosen you to be my servant. You are to tell others what you have learnt about me and what I will show you later."

<sup>17</sup>The Lord also said, "I will protect you from the Jews and from the Gentiles that I am sending you to.

<sup>18</sup>I want you to open their eyes, so that they will turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then their sins will be forgiven, and by faith in me they will become part of God's holy people.”

<sup>19</sup>King Agrippa, I obeyed this vision from heaven.

<sup>20</sup>First I preached to the people in Damascus, and then I went to Jerusalem and all over Judea. Finally, I went to the Gentiles and said, “Stop sinning and turn to God! Then prove what you have done by the way you live.”

<sup>21</sup>That is why some men grabbed me in the temple and tried to kill me.

<sup>22</sup>But all this time God has helped me, and I have preached both to the rich and to the poor. I have told them only what the prophets and Moses said would happen.

<sup>23</sup>I told them how the Messiah would suffer and be the first to be raised from death, so that he could bring light to his own people and to the Gentiles.

<sup>24</sup>Before Paul finished defending himself, Festus shouted, “Paul, you're mad! Too much learning has driven you out of your mind.”

<sup>25</sup>But Paul replied, “Honourable Festus, I am not mad. What I am saying is true, and it makes sense.

<sup>26</sup>None of these things happened off in a corner somewhere. I am sure that King Agrippa knows what I am talking about. That's why I can speak so plainly to him.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Paul said to Agrippa, “Do you believe what the prophets said? I know you do.”

<sup>28</sup>Agrippa asked Paul, “In such a short time do you think you can talk me into being a Christian?”

<sup>29</sup>Paul answered, “Whether it takes a short time or a long time, I wish you and everyone else who hears me today would become just like me! Except, of course, for these chains.”

<sup>30</sup>Then King Agrippa, Governor Festus, Bernice, and everyone who was with them got up.

<sup>31</sup>But before they left, they said, “This man isn't guilty of anything. He doesn't deserve to die or to be put in jail.”

<sup>32</sup>Agrippa told Festus, “Paul could have been set free, if he had not asked to be tried by the Roman Emperor.”

The Acts 27

Paul is taken to Rome

<sup>1</sup>When it was time for us to sail to Rome, Captain Julius from the Emperor's special troops was put in charge of Paul and the other prisoners.

<sup>2</sup>We went aboard a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to some ports along the coast of Asia. Aristarchus from Thessalonica in Macedonia sailed on the ship with us.

<sup>3</sup>The next day we came to shore at Sidon. Captain Julius was very kind to Paul. He even let him visit his friends, so they could give him whatever he needed.

<sup>4</sup>When we left Sidon, the winds were blowing against us, and we sailed close to the island of Cyprus to be safe from the wind.

<sup>5</sup>Then we sailed south of Cilicia and Pamphylia until we came to the port of Myra in Lycia.

<sup>6</sup>There the army captain found a ship from Alexandria that was going to Italy. So he ordered us to board that ship.

<sup>7</sup>We sailed along slowly for several days and had a hard time reaching Cnidus. The wind would not let us go any further in that direction, so we sailed past Cape Salmone, where the island of Crete would protect us from the wind.

<sup>8</sup>We went slowly along the coast and finally reached a place called Fair Havens, not far from the town of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>By now we had already lost a lot of time, and sailing was no longer safe. In fact, even the Great Day of Forgiveness was past.

<sup>10</sup>Then Paul spoke to the crew of the ship, “Men, listen to me! If we sail now, our ship and its cargo will be badly damaged, and many lives will be lost.”

<sup>11</sup>But Julius listened to the captain of the ship and its owner, rather than to Paul.

<sup>12</sup>The harbour at Fair Havens wasn't a good place to spend the winter. Because of this, almost everyone agreed that we should at least try to sail along the coast of Crete as far as Phoenix. It had a harbour that opened towards the south-west and north-west, and we could spend the winter there.

The storm at sea

<sup>13</sup>When a gentle wind from the south started blowing, the men thought it was a good time to do what they had planned. So they pulled up the anchor, and we sailed along the coast of Crete.

<sup>14</sup>But soon a strong wind called “The North-easter” blew against us from the island.

<sup>15</sup>The wind struck the ship, and we could not sail against it. So we let the wind carry the ship.

<sup>16</sup>We went along the island of Cauda on the side that was protected from the wind. We had a hard time holding the lifeboat in place, <sup>17</sup>but finally we got it where it belonged. Then the sailors tied ropes around the ship to hold it together. They lowered the sail and let the ship drift along, because they were afraid it might hit the sandbanks in the gulf of Syrtis.

<sup>18</sup>The storm was so fierce that the next day they threw some of the ship's cargo overboard.

<sup>19</sup>Then on the third day, with their bare hands they threw overboard some of the ship's gear.

<sup>20</sup>For several days we could not see either the sun or the stars. A strong wind kept blowing, and we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

<sup>21</sup>Since none of us had eaten anything for a long time, Paul stood up and told the men: You should have listened to me! If you had stayed on in Crete, you would not have had this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup>But now I beg you to cheer up, because you will be safe. Only the ship will be lost.

<sup>23</sup>I belong to God, and I worship him. Last night he sent an angel

<sup>24</sup>to tell me, "Paul, don't be afraid! You will stand trial before the Emperor. And because of you, God will save the lives of everyone on the ship."

<sup>25</sup>Cheer up! I am sure that God will do exactly what he promised.

<sup>26</sup>But we will first be shipwrecked on some island.

<sup>27</sup>For fourteen days and nights we had been blown around over the Mediterranean Sea. But about midnight the sailors realized that we were getting near land.

<sup>28</sup>They measured and found that the water was about forty metres deep. A little later they measured again and found it was only about thirty metres.

<sup>29</sup>The sailors were afraid that we might hit some rocks, and they let down four anchors from the back of the ship. Then they prayed for daylight.

<sup>30</sup>The sailors wanted to escape from the ship. So they lowered the lifeboat into the water, pretending that they were letting down an anchor from the front of the ship.

<sup>31</sup>But Paul said to Captain Julius and the soldiers, “If the sailors don't stay on the ship, you won't have any chance to save your lives.”

<sup>32</sup>The soldiers then cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall into the sea.

<sup>33</sup>Just before daylight Paul begged the people to eat something. He told them, “For fourteen days you have been so worried that you haven't eaten a thing.

<sup>34</sup>I beg you to eat something. Your lives depend on it. Do this and not one of you will be hurt.”

<sup>35</sup>After Paul had said this, he took a piece of bread and gave thanks to God. Then in front of everyone, he broke the bread and ate some.

<sup>36</sup>They all felt encouraged, and each of them ate something.

<sup>37</sup>There were 276 people on the ship,

<sup>38</sup>and after everyone had eaten, they threw the cargo of wheat into the sea to make the ship lighter.

The shipwreck

<sup>39</sup>Morning came, and the ship's crew saw a coast that they did not recognize. But they did see a cove with a beach. So they decided to try to run the ship aground on the beach.

<sup>40</sup>They cut the anchors loose and let them sink into the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that were holding the rudders. Next, they raised the sail at the front of the ship and let the wind carry the ship towards the beach.

<sup>41</sup>But it ran aground on a sandbank. The front of the ship stuck firmly in the sand, and the rear was being smashed by the force of the waves.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers decided to kill the prisoners to keep them from swimming away and escaping.

<sup>43</sup>But Captain Julius wanted to save Paul's life, and he did not let the soldiers do what they had planned. Instead, he ordered everyone who could swim to dive into the water and head for shore.

<sup>44</sup>Then he told the others to hold on to planks of wood or parts of the ship. At last, everyone safely reached shore.

The Acts 28

On the island of Malta

<sup>1</sup>When we came ashore, we learnt that the island was called Malta.

<sup>2</sup>The local people were very friendly, and they welcomed us by building a fire, because it was rainy and cold.

<sup>3</sup>After Paul had gathered some wood and had put it on the fire, the heat caused a snake to crawl out, and it bit him on the hand.

<sup>4</sup>When the local people saw the snake hanging from Paul's hand, they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer! He didn't drown in the sea, but the goddess of justice will kill him anyway."

<sup>5</sup>Paul shook the snake off into the fire and wasn't harmed.

<sup>6</sup>The people kept thinking that Paul would either swell up or suddenly drop dead. They watched him for a long time, and when nothing happened to him, they changed their minds and said, "This man is a god."

<sup>7</sup>The governor of the island was named Publius, and he owned some of the land around there. Publius was very friendly and welcomed us into his home for three days.

<sup>8</sup>His father was in bed, sick with fever and stomach trouble, and Paul went to visit him. Paul healed the man by praying and placing his hands on him.

<sup>9</sup>After this happened, everyone on the island brought their sick people to Paul, and they were all healed.

<sup>10</sup>The people were very respectful to us, and when we sailed, they gave us everything we needed.

From Malta to Rome

<sup>11</sup>Three months later we sailed in a ship that had been docked at Malta for the winter. The ship was from Alexandria in Egypt and was known as “The Twin Gods”.

<sup>12</sup>We arrived in Syracuse and stayed for three days.

<sup>13</sup>From there we sailed to Rhegium. The next day a south wind began to blow, and two days later we arrived in Puteoli.

<sup>14</sup>There we found some of the Lord's followers, who begged us to stay with them. A week later we left for the city of Rome.

<sup>15</sup>Some of the followers in Rome heard about us and came to meet us at the Market of Appius and at the Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and was encouraged.

Paul in Rome

<sup>16</sup>We arrived in Rome, and Paul was allowed to live in a house by himself with a soldier to guard him.

<sup>17</sup>Three days after we got there, Paul called together some of the Jewish leaders and said: My friends, I have never done anything to hurt our people, and I have never gone against the customs of our ancestors. But in Jerusalem I was handed over as a prisoner to the Romans.

<sup>18</sup>They looked into the charges against me and wanted to release me. They found that I had not done anything deserving death.

<sup>19</sup>The Jewish leaders disagreed, so I asked to be tried by the Emperor. But I don't have anything to say against my own nation.

<sup>20</sup>I am bound by these chains because of what we people of Israel hope for. That's why I have called you here to talk about this hope of ours.

<sup>21</sup>The leaders replied, “No one from Judea has written us a letter about you. And not one of them has come here to report on you or to say anything against you.

<sup>22</sup>But we would like to hear what you have to say. We understand that people everywhere are against this new group.”

<sup>23</sup>They agreed on a time to meet with Paul, and many of them came to his house. From early morning until late in the afternoon, Paul talked to them about God's kingdom. He used the Law of Moses and the Books of the Prophets to try to win them over to Jesus.

<sup>24</sup>Some of the leaders agreed with what Paul said, but others did not.

<sup>25</sup>Since they could not agree among themselves, they started leaving. But Paul said, “The Holy Spirit said the right thing when he sent Isaiah the prophet

<sup>26</sup>to tell our ancestors, ‘Go to these people and tell them: You will listen and listen, but never understand. You will look and look, but never see.

<sup>27</sup>All of you have stubborn hearts. Your ears are stopped up, and your eyes are covered. You cannot see or hear or understand. If you could, you would turn to me, and I would heal you. ’ ”

<sup>28-29</sup>Paul said, “You may be sure that God wants to save the Gentiles! And they will listen.”

<sup>30</sup>For two years Paul stayed in a rented house and welcomed everyone who came to see him.

<sup>31</sup>He bravely preached about God's kingdom and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ, and no one tried to stop him.

Romans

Romans 1

Paul and his message of good news

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus. God chose me to be an apostle, and he appointed me to preach the good news

<sup>2</sup>that he promised long ago by what his prophets said in the holy Scriptures.

<sup>3-4</sup>This good news is about his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ! As a human, he was from the family of David. But the Holy Spirit proved that Jesus is the powerful Son of God, because he was raised from death.

<sup>5</sup>Jesus was kind to me and chose me to be an apostle, so that people of all nations would obey and have faith.

<sup>6</sup>You are some of those people chosen by Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>This letter is to all of you in Rome. God loves you and has chosen you to be his very own people. I pray that God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

A prayer of thanks

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank God in the name of Jesus Christ for all of you. I do this because people everywhere in the world are talking about your faith.

<sup>9</sup>God has seen how I never stop praying for you, while I serve him with all my heart and tell the good news about his Son.

<sup>10</sup>In all my prayers, I ask God to make it possible for me to visit you.

<sup>11</sup>I want to see you and share with you the same blessings that God's Spirit has given me. Then you will grow stronger in your faith.

<sup>12</sup>What I am saying is that we can encourage each other by the faith that is ours.

<sup>13</sup>My friends, I want you to know that I have often planned to come for a visit. But something has always kept me from doing it. I want to win followers to Christ in Rome, as I have done in many other places.

14-15 It doesn't matter if people are civilized and educated, or if they are uncivilized and uneducated. I must tell the good news to everyone. That's why I am eager to visit all of you in Rome.

The power of the good news

16 I am proud of the good news! It is God's powerful way of saving all people who have faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.

17 The good news tells how God accepts everyone who has faith, but only those who have faith. It is just as the Scriptures say, "The people God accepts because of their faith will live."

Everyone is guilty

18 From heaven God shows how angry he is with all the wicked and evil things that sinful people do to crush the truth.

19 They know everything that can be known about God, because God has shown it all to them.

20 God's eternal power and character cannot be seen. But from the beginning of creation, God has shown what these are like by all he has made. That's why those people don't have any excuse.

21 They know about God, but they don't honour him or even thank him. Their thoughts are useless, and their stupid minds are in the dark.

22 They claim to be wise, but they are fools.

23 They don't worship the glorious and eternal God. Instead, they worship idols that are made to look like humans who cannot live for ever, and like birds, animals, and reptiles.

24 So God let these people go their own way. They did what they wanted to do, and their filthy thoughts made them do shameful things with their bodies.

25 They gave up the truth about God for a lie, and they worshipped God's creation instead of God, who will be praised for ever. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>God let them follow their own evil desires. Women no longer wanted to have sex in a natural way, and they did things with each other that were not natural.

<sup>27</sup>Men behaved in the same way. They stopped wanting to have sex with women and had strong desires for sex with other men. They did shameful things with each other, and what has happened to them is punishment for their foolish deeds.

<sup>28</sup>Since these people refused even to think about God, he let their useless minds rule over them. That's why they do all sorts of indecent things.

<sup>29</sup>They are evil, wicked, and greedy, as well as mean in every possible way. They want what others have, and they murder, argue, cheat, and are hard to get along with. They gossip,

<sup>30</sup>say cruel things about others, and hate God. They are proud, conceited, and boastful, always thinking up new ways to do evil. These people don't respect their parents.

<sup>31</sup>They are stupid, unreliable, and don't have any love or pity for others.

<sup>32</sup>They know God has said that anyone who acts this way deserves to die. But they keep on doing evil things, and they even encourage others to do them.

Romans 2

God's judgment is fair

<sup>1</sup>Some of you accuse others of doing wrong. But there is no excuse for what you do. When you judge others, you condemn yourselves, because you are guilty of doing the very same things.

<sup>2</sup>We know that God is right to judge everyone who behaves in this way.

<sup>3</sup>Do you really think God won't punish you, when you behave exactly like the people you accuse?

<sup>4</sup>You don't think much of God's wonderful goodness or of his patience and willingness to put up with you. Don't you know that the reason God is good to you is because he wants you to turn to him?

<sup>5</sup>But you are stubborn and refuse to turn to God. So you are making things even worse for yourselves on that day when he will show how angry he is and will judge the world with fairness.

<sup>6</sup>God will reward each of us for what we have done.

<sup>7</sup>He will give eternal life to everyone who has patiently done what is good in the hope of receiving glory, honour, and life that lasts for ever.

<sup>8</sup>But he will show how angry and furious he can be with every selfish person who rejects the truth and wants to do evil.

<sup>9</sup>All who are wicked will be punished with trouble and suffering. It doesn't matter if they are Jews or Gentiles.

<sup>10</sup>But all who do right will be rewarded with glory, honour, and peace, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.

<sup>11</sup>God doesn't have any favourites!

<sup>12</sup>Those people who don't know about God's Law will still be punished for what they do wrong. And the Law will be used to judge everyone who knows what it says.

<sup>13</sup>God accepts those who obey his Law, but not those who simply hear it.

<sup>14</sup>Some people naturally obey the Law's commands, even though they don't have the Law.

<sup>15</sup>This proves that the conscience is like a law written in the human heart. And it will show whether we are forgiven or condemned, <sup>16</sup>when God appoints Jesus Christ to judge everyone's secret thoughts, just as my message says.

The Jews and the Law

<sup>17</sup>Some of you call yourselves Jews. You trust in the Law and take pride in God.

<sup>18</sup>By reading the Scriptures you learn how God wants you to behave, and you discover what is right.

<sup>19</sup>You are sure that you are a guide for the blind and a light for all who are in the dark.

<sup>20</sup>And since there is knowledge and truth in God's Law, you think you can instruct fools and teach young people.

<sup>21</sup>But how can you teach others when you refuse to learn? You preach that it is wrong to steal. But do you steal?

<sup>22</sup>You say people should be faithful in marriage. But are you faithful? You hate idols, yet you rob their temples.

<sup>23</sup>You take pride in the Law, but you disobey the Law and bring shame to God.

<sup>24</sup>It is just as the Scriptures tell us, "You have made foreigners say insulting things about God."

<sup>25</sup>Being circumcised is worthwhile, if you obey the Law. But if you don't obey the Law, you are no better off than people who are not circumcised.

<sup>26</sup>In fact, if they obey the Law, they are as good as anyone who is circumcised.

<sup>27</sup>So everyone who obeys the Law, but has never been circumcised, will condemn you. Even though you are circumcised and have the Law, you still don't obey its teachings.

<sup>28</sup>Just because you live like a Jew and are circumcised doesn't make you a real Jew.

<sup>29</sup>To be a real Jew you must obey the Law. True circumcision is something that happens deep in your heart, not something done to your body. And besides, you should want praise from God and not from humans.

Romans 3

<sup>1</sup>What good is it to be a Jew? What good is it to be circumcised?

<sup>2</sup>It is good in a lot of ways! First of all, God's messages were spoken to the Jews.

<sup>3</sup>It is true that some of them did not believe the message. But does this mean that God cannot be trusted, just because they did not have faith?

<sup>4</sup>No, indeed! God tells the truth, even if everyone else is a liar. The Scriptures say about God, "Your words will be proved true, and in court you will win your case."

<sup>5</sup>If our evil deeds show how right God is, then what can we say? Is it wrong for God to become angry and punish us? What a foolish thing to ask.

<sup>6</sup>But the answer is, "No." Otherwise, how could God judge the world?

<sup>7</sup>Since your lies bring great honour to God by showing how truthful he is, you may ask why God still says you are a sinner.

<sup>8</sup>You might as well say, "Let's do something evil, so that something good will come of it!" Some people even claim that we are saying this. But God is fair and will judge them as well.

No one is good

<sup>9</sup>What does all this mean? Does it mean that we Jews are better off than the Gentiles? No, it doesn't! Jews, as well as Gentiles, are ruled by sin, just as I have said.

<sup>10</sup>The Scriptures tell us, "No one is acceptable to God!

<sup>11</sup>Not one of them understands or even searches for God.

<sup>12</sup>They have all turned away and are worthless. There isn't one person who does right.

<sup>13</sup>Their words are like an open pit, and their tongues are good only for telling lies. Each word is as deadly as the fangs of a snake, <sup>14</sup>and they say nothing but bitter curses.

<sup>15</sup> These people quickly become violent.

<sup>16</sup> Wherever they go, they leave ruin and destruction.

<sup>17</sup> They don't know how to live in peace.

<sup>18</sup> They don't even fear God.”

<sup>19</sup> We know that everything in the Law was written for those who are under its power. The Law says these things to stop anyone from making excuses and to let God show that the whole world is guilty.

<sup>20</sup> God doesn't accept people simply because they obey the Law. No, indeed! All the Law does is to point out our sin.

God's way of accepting people

<sup>21</sup> Now we see how God does make us acceptable to him. The Law and the Prophets tell how we become acceptable, and it isn't by obeying the Law of Moses.

<sup>22</sup> God treats everyone alike. He accepts people only because they have faith in Jesus Christ.

<sup>23</sup> All of us have sinned and fallen short of God's glory.

<sup>24</sup> But God treats us much better than we deserve, and because of Christ Jesus, he freely accepts us and sets us free from our sins.

<sup>25-26</sup> God sent Christ to be our sacrifice. Christ offered his life's blood, so that by faith in him we could come to God. And God did this to show that in the past he was right to be patient and forgive sinners. This also shows that God is right when he accepts people who have faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> What is left for us to boast about? Not a thing! Is it because we obeyed some law? No! It is because of faith.

<sup>28</sup> We see that people are acceptable to God because they have faith, and not because they obey the Law.

<sup>29</sup>Does God belong only to the Jews? Isn't he also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, he is!

<sup>30</sup>There is only one God, and he accepts Gentiles as well as Jews, simply because of their faith.

<sup>31</sup>Do we destroy the Law by our faith? Not at all! We make it even more powerful.

Romans 4

The example of Abraham

<sup>1</sup>Well then, what can we say about our ancestor Abraham?

<sup>2</sup>If he became acceptable to God because of what he did, then he would have something to boast about. But he would never be able to boast about it to God.

<sup>3</sup>The Scriptures say, “God accepted Abraham because Abraham had faith in him.”

<sup>4</sup>Money paid to workers isn't a gift. It is something they earn by working.

<sup>5</sup>But you cannot make God accept you because of something you do. God accepts sinners only because they have faith in him.

<sup>6</sup>In the Scriptures David talks about the blessings that come to people who are acceptable to God, even though they don't do anything to deserve these blessings. David says, <sup>7</sup>“God blesses people whose sins are forgiven and whose evil deeds are forgotten.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord blesses people whose sins are erased from his book.”

<sup>9</sup>Are these blessings meant for circumcised people or for those who are not circumcised? Well, the Scriptures say that God accepted Abraham because Abraham had faith in him.

<sup>10</sup>But when did this happen? Was it before or after Abraham was circumcised? Of course, it was before.

<sup>11</sup> Abraham let himself be circumcised to show that he had been accepted because of his faith even before he was circumcised. This makes Abraham the father of all who are acceptable to God because of their faith, even though they are not circumcised.

<sup>12</sup> This also makes Abraham the father of everyone who is circumcised and has faith in God, as Abraham did before he was circumcised.

The promise is for all who have faith

<sup>13</sup> God promised Abraham and his descendants that he would give them the world. This promise wasn't made because Abraham had obeyed a law, but because his faith in God made him acceptable.

<sup>14</sup> If Abraham and his descendants were given this promise because they had obeyed a law, then faith would mean nothing, and the promise would be worthless.

<sup>15</sup> God becomes angry when his Law is broken. But where there isn't a law, it cannot be broken.

<sup>16</sup> Everything depends on having faith in God, so that God's promise is assured by his great kindness. This promise isn't only for Abraham's descendants who have the Law. It is for all who are Abraham's descendants because they have faith, just as he did. Abraham is the ancestor of us all.

<sup>17</sup> The Scriptures say that Abraham would become the ancestor of many nations. This promise was made to Abraham because he had faith in God, who raises the dead to life and creates new things.

<sup>18</sup> God promised Abraham a lot of descendants. And when it all seemed hopeless, Abraham still had faith in God and became the ancestor of many nations.

<sup>19</sup> Abraham's faith never became weak, not even when he was nearly a hundred years old. He knew that he was almost dead and that his wife Sarah could not have children.

<sup>20</sup>But Abraham never doubted or questioned God's promise. His faith made him strong, and he gave all the credit to God.

<sup>21</sup>Abraham was certain that God could do what he had promised.

<sup>22</sup>So God accepted him,

<sup>23</sup>just as we read in the Scriptures. But these words were not written only for Abraham.

<sup>24</sup>They were written for us, since we will also be accepted because of our faith in God, who raised our Lord Jesus to life.

<sup>25</sup>God gave Jesus to die for our sins, and he raised him to life, so that we would be made acceptable to God.

Romans 5

A new life for God's people What it means to be acceptable to God

<sup>1</sup>By faith we have been made acceptable to God. And now, because of our Lord Jesus Christ, we live at peace with God.

<sup>2</sup>Christ has also introduced us to God's undeserved kindness on which we take our stand. So we are happy, as we look forward to sharing in the glory of God.

<sup>3</sup>But that's not all! We gladly suffer, because we know that suffering helps us to endure.

<sup>4</sup>And endurance builds character, which gives us a hope

<sup>5</sup>that will never disappoint us. All this happens because God has given us the Holy Spirit, who fills our hearts with his love.

<sup>6</sup>Christ died for us at a time when we were helpless and sinful.

<sup>7</sup>No one is really willing to die for an honest person, though someone might be willing to die for a truly good person.

<sup>8</sup>But God showed how much he loved us by having Christ die for us, even though we were sinful.

<sup>9</sup>But there is more! Now that God has accepted us because Christ sacrificed his life's blood, we will also be kept safe from God's anger.

<sup>10</sup>Even when we were God's enemies, he made peace with us, because his Son died for us. Yet something even greater than friendship is ours. Now that we are at peace with God, we will be saved by his Son's life.

<sup>11</sup>And in addition to everything else, we are happy because God sent our Lord Jesus Christ to make peace with us.

Adam and Christ

<sup>12</sup>Adam sinned, and that sin brought death into the world. Now everyone has sinned, and so everyone must die.

<sup>13</sup>Sin was in the world before the Law came. But no record of sin was kept, because there was no Law.

<sup>14</sup>Yet death still had power over all who lived from the time of Adam to the time of Moses. This happened, though not everyone disobeyed a direct command from God, as Adam did. In some ways Adam is like Christ who came later.

<sup>15</sup>But the gift that God was kind enough to give was very different from Adam's sin. That one sin brought death to many others. Yet in an even greater way, Jesus Christ alone brought God's gift of kindness to many people.

<sup>16</sup>There is a lot of difference between Adam's sin and God's gift. That one sin led to punishment. But God's gift made it possible for us to be acceptable to him, even though we have sinned many times.

<sup>17</sup>Death ruled like a king because Adam had sinned. But that cannot compare with what Jesus Christ has done. God has been so kind to us, and he has accepted us because of Jesus. And so we will live and rule like kings.

<sup>18</sup>Everyone was going to be punished because Adam sinned. But because of the good thing that Christ has done, God accepts us and gives us the gift of life.

<sup>19</sup>Adam disobeyed God and caused many others to be sinners. But Jesus obeyed him and will make many people acceptable to God.

<sup>20</sup>The Law came, so that the full power of sin could be seen. Yet where sin was powerful, God's kindness was even more powerful.

<sup>21</sup>Sin ruled by means of death. But God's kindness now rules, and God has accepted us because of Jesus Christ our Lord. This means that we will have eternal life.

Romans 6

Dead to sin but alive because of Christ

<sup>1</sup>What should we say? Should we keep on sinning, so that God's wonderful kindness will show up even better?

<sup>2</sup>No, we should not! If we are dead to sin, how can we go on sinning?

<sup>3</sup>Don't you know that all who share in Christ Jesus by being baptized also share in his death?

<sup>4</sup>When we were baptized, we died and were buried with Christ. We were baptized, so that we would live a new life, as Christ was raised to life by the glory of God the Father.

<sup>5</sup>If we shared in Jesus' death by being baptized, we will be raised to life with him.

<sup>6</sup>We know that the persons we used to be were nailed to the cross with Jesus. This was done, so that our sinful bodies would no longer be the slaves of sin.

<sup>7</sup>We know that sin doesn't have power over dead people.

<sup>8</sup>As we died with Christ, we believe we will also live with him.

<sup>9</sup>We know that death no longer has any power over Christ. He died and was raised to life, never again to die.

<sup>10</sup>When Christ died, he died for sin once and for all. But now he is alive, and he lives only for God.

<sup>11</sup>In the same way, you must think of yourselves as dead to the power of sin. But Christ Jesus has given life to you, and you live for God.

<sup>12</sup>Don't let sin rule your body. After all, your body is bound to die, so don't obey its desires

<sup>13</sup>or let any part of it become a slave of evil. Give yourselves to God, as people who have been raised from death to life. Make every part of your body a slave that pleases God.

<sup>14</sup>Don't let sin keep ruling your lives. You are ruled by God's kindness and not by the Law.

Slaves who do what pleases God

<sup>15</sup>What does all this mean? Does it mean we are free to sin, because we are ruled by God's wonderful kindness and not by the Law? Certainly not!

<sup>16</sup>Don't you know that you are slaves of anyone you obey? You can be slaves of sin and die, or you can be obedient slaves of God and be acceptable to him.

<sup>17</sup>You used to be slaves of sin. But I thank God that with all your heart you obeyed the teaching you received from me.

<sup>18</sup>Now you are set free from sin and are slaves who please God.

<sup>19</sup>I am using these everyday examples, because in some ways you are still weak. You used to let the different parts of your body be slaves of your evil thoughts. But now you must make every part of your body serve God, so that you will belong completely to him.

<sup>20</sup>When you were slaves of sin, you didn't have to please God.

<sup>21</sup>But what good did you receive from the things you did? All you have to show for them is your shame, and they lead to death.

<sup>22</sup>Now you have been set free from sin, and you are God's slaves. This will make you holy and will lead you to eternal life.

<sup>23</sup>The reward for sin is death. But God's gift is eternal life given by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 7

An example from marriage

<sup>1</sup>My friends, you understand enough about law to know that laws only have power over people who are alive.

<sup>2</sup>For example, the Law says that a man's wife must remain his wife as long as he lives. But once her husband is dead, she is free

<sup>3</sup>to marry someone else. However, if she goes off with another man while her husband is still alive, she is said to be unfaithful.

<sup>4</sup>That is how it is with you, my friends. You are now part of the body of Christ and are dead to the power of the Law. You are free to belong to Christ, who was raised to life so that we could serve God.

<sup>5</sup>When we thought only of ourselves, the Law made us have sinful desires. It made every part of our bodies into slaves who are doomed to die.

<sup>6</sup>But the Law no longer rules over us. We are like dead people, and it cannot have any power over us. Now we can serve God in a new way by obeying his Spirit, and not in the old way by obeying the written Law.

The battle with sin

<sup>7</sup>Does this mean that the Law is sinful? Certainly not! But if it had not been for the Law, I would not have known what sin is really like. For example, I would not have known what it means to want something that belongs to someone else, unless the Law had told me not to do that.

<sup>8</sup>It was sin that used this command as a way of making me have all kinds of desires. But without the Law, sin is dead.

<sup>9</sup>Before I knew about the Law, I was alive. But as soon as I heard that command, sin came to life, <sup>10</sup>and I died. The very command that was supposed to bring life to me, instead brought death.

<sup>11</sup>Sin used this command to trick me, and because of it I died.

<sup>12</sup>Still, the Law and its commands are holy and correct and good.

<sup>13</sup>Am I saying that something good caused my death? Certainly not! It was sin that killed me by using something good. Now we can see how terrible and evil sin really is.

<sup>14</sup>We know that the Law is spiritual. But I am merely a human, and I have been sold as a slave to sin.

<sup>15</sup>In fact, I don't understand why I act the way I do. I don't do what I know is right. I do the things I hate.

<sup>16</sup>Although I don't do what I know is right, I agree that the Law is good.

<sup>17</sup>So I am not the one doing these evil things. The sin that lives in me is what does them.

<sup>18</sup>I know that my selfish desires won't let me do anything that is good. Even when I want to do right, I cannot.

<sup>19</sup>Instead of doing what I know is right, I do wrong.

<sup>20</sup>And so, if I don't do what I know is right, I am no longer the one doing these evil things. The sin that lives in me is what does them.

<sup>21</sup>The Law has shown me that something in me keeps me from doing what I know is right.

<sup>22</sup>With my whole heart I agree with the Law of God.

<sup>23</sup>But in every part of me I discover something fighting against my mind, and it makes me a prisoner of sin that controls everything I do.

<sup>24</sup>What a miserable person I am. Who will rescue me from this body that is doomed to die?

<sup>25</sup>Thank God! Jesus Christ will rescue me. So with my mind I serve the Law of God, although my selfish desires make me serve the law of sin.

Romans 8

Living by the power of God's Spirit

<sup>1</sup>If you belong to Christ Jesus, you won't be punished.

<sup>2</sup>The Holy Spirit will give you life that comes from Christ Jesus and will set you free from sin and death.

<sup>3</sup>The Law of Moses cannot do this, because our selfish desires make the Law weak. But God set you free when he sent his own Son to be like us sinners and to be a sacrifice for our sin. God used Christ's body to condemn sin.

<sup>4</sup>He did this, so that we would do what the Law commands by obeying the Spirit instead of our own desires.

<sup>5</sup>People who are ruled by their desires think only of themselves. Everyone who is ruled by the Holy Spirit thinks about spiritual things.

<sup>6</sup>If our minds are ruled by our desires, we will die. But if our minds are ruled by the Spirit, we will have life and peace.

<sup>7</sup>Our desires fight against God, because they do not and cannot obey God's laws.

<sup>8</sup>If we follow our desires, we cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>You are no longer ruled by your desires, but by God's Spirit, who lives in you. People who don't have the Spirit of Christ in them don't belong to him.

<sup>10</sup>But Christ lives in you. So you are alive because God has accepted you, even though your bodies must die because of your sins.

<sup>11</sup>Yet God raised Jesus to life! God's Spirit now lives in you, and he will raise you to life by his Spirit.

<sup>12</sup>My dear friends, we must not live to satisfy our desires.

<sup>13</sup>If you do, you will die. But you will live, if by the help of God's Spirit you say "No" to your desires.

<sup>14</sup>Only those people who are led by God's Spirit are his children.

<sup>15</sup> God's Spirit doesn't make us slaves who are afraid of him. Instead, we become his children and call him our Father.

<sup>16</sup>God's Spirit makes us sure that we are his children.

<sup>17</sup>His Spirit lets us know that together with Christ we will be given what God has promised. We will also share in the glory of Christ, because we have suffered with him.

A wonderful future for God's people

<sup>18</sup>I am sure that what we are suffering now cannot compare with the glory that will be shown to us.

<sup>19</sup>In fact, all creation is eagerly waiting for God to show who his children are.

<sup>20</sup>Meanwhile, creation is confused, but not because it wants to be confused. God made it this way in the hope

<sup>21</sup>that creation would be set free from decay and would share in the glorious freedom of his children.

<sup>22</sup>We know that all creation is still groaning and is in pain, like a woman about to give birth.

<sup>23</sup>The Spirit makes us sure about what we will be in the future. But now we groan silently, while we wait for God to show that we are his children. This means that our bodies will also be set free.

<sup>24</sup>And this hope is what saves us. But if we already have what we hope for, there is no need to keep on hoping.

<sup>25</sup>However, we hope for something we have not yet seen, and we patiently wait for it.

<sup>26</sup>In certain ways we are weak, but the Spirit is here to help us. For example, when we don't know what to pray for, the Spirit prays for us in ways that cannot be put into words.

<sup>27</sup>All our thoughts are known to God. He can understand what is in the mind of the Spirit, as the Spirit prays for God's people.

<sup>28</sup>We know that God is always at work for the good of everyone who loves him. They are the ones God has chosen for his purpose,

<sup>29</sup>and he has always known who his chosen ones would be. He had decided to let them become like his own Son, so that his Son would be the first of many children.

<sup>30</sup>God then accepted the people he had already decided to choose, and he has shared his glory with them.

God's love

<sup>31</sup>What can we say about all this? If God is on our side, can anyone be against us?

<sup>32</sup>God did not keep back his own Son, but he gave him for us. If God did this, won't he freely give us everything else?

<sup>33</sup>If God says his chosen ones are acceptable to him, can anyone bring charges against them?

<sup>34</sup>Or can anyone condemn them? No indeed! Christ died and was raised to life, and now he is at God's right side, speaking to him for us.

<sup>35</sup>Can anything separate us from the love of Christ? Can trouble, suffering, and hard times, or hunger and nakedness, or danger and death?

<sup>36</sup>It is exactly as the Scriptures say, "For you we face death all day long. We are like sheep on their way to be butchered."

<sup>37</sup>In everything we have won more than a victory because of Christ who loves us.

<sup>38</sup>I am sure that nothing can separate us from God's love—not life or death, not angels or spirits, not the present or the future,

<sup>39</sup>and not powers above or powers below. Nothing in all creation can separate us from God's love for us in Christ Jesus our Lord!

Romans 9

What about the people of Israel? God's choice of Israel

<sup>1</sup>I am a follower of Christ, and the Holy Spirit is a witness to my conscience. So I tell the truth and I am not lying when I say

<sup>2</sup>my heart is broken and I am in great sorrow.

<sup>3</sup>I would gladly be placed under God's curse and be separated from Christ for the good of my own people.

<sup>4</sup>They are the descendants of Israel, and they are also God's chosen people. God showed them his glory. He made agreements with them and gave them his Law. The temple is theirs and so are the promises that God made to them.

<sup>5</sup>They have those famous ancestors, who were also the ancestors of Jesus Christ. I pray that God, who rules over all, will be praised for ever! Amen.

<sup>6</sup>It cannot be said that God broke his promise. After all, not all the people of Israel are the true people of God.

<sup>7-8</sup> In fact, when God made the promise to Abraham, he meant only Abraham's descendants by his son Isaac. God was talking only about Isaac when he promised

<sup>9</sup> Sarah, “At this time next year I will return, and you will already have a son.”

<sup>10</sup>Don't forget what happened to the twin sons of Isaac and Rebekah.

<sup>11-12</sup> Even before they were born or had done anything good or bad, the Lord told Rebekah that her elder son would serve the younger one. The Lord said this to show that he makes his own choices and that it wasn't because of anything either of them had done.

<sup>13</sup> That's why the Scriptures say that the Lord liked Jacob more than Esau.

<sup>14</sup> Are we saying that God is unfair? Certainly not!

<sup>15</sup> The Lord told Moses that he has pity and mercy on anyone he wants to.

<sup>16</sup> Everything then depends on God's mercy and not on what people want or do.

<sup>17</sup> In the Scriptures the Lord says to Pharaoh of Egypt, "I let you become king, so that I could show you my power and be praised by all people on earth."

<sup>18</sup> Everything depends on what God decides to do, and he can either have pity on people or make them stubborn.

God's anger and mercy

<sup>19</sup> Someone may ask, "How can God blame us, if he makes us behave in the way he wants us to?"

<sup>20</sup> But, my friend, I ask, "Who do you think you are to question God? Does the clay have the right to ask the potter why he shaped it the way he did?"

<sup>21</sup> Doesn't a potter have the right to make a fancy bowl and a plain bowl out of the same lump of clay?"

<sup>22</sup> God wanted to show his anger and reveal his power against everyone who deserved to be destroyed. But instead, he patiently put up with them.

<sup>23</sup> He did this by showing how glorious he is when he has pity on the people he has chosen to share in his glory.

<sup>24</sup> Whether Jews or Gentiles, we are those chosen ones,

<sup>25</sup> just as the Lord says in the book of Hosea, "Although they are not my people, I will make them my people. I will treat with love those nations that have never been loved.

<sup>26</sup>“Once they were told, ‘You are not my people.’ But in that very place they will be called children of the living God.”

<sup>27</sup>And this is what the prophet Isaiah said about the people of Israel, “The people of Israel are as many as the grains of sand along the beach. But only a few who are left will be saved.

<sup>28</sup>The Lord will be quick and sure to do on earth what he has warned he will do.”

<sup>29</sup>Isaiah also said, “If the Lord All-Powerful had not spared some of our descendants, we would have been destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.”

Israel and the good news

<sup>30</sup>What does all this mean? It means that the Gentiles were not trying to be acceptable to God, but they found that he would accept them if they had faith.

<sup>31-32</sup>It also means that the people of Israel were not acceptable to God. And why not? It was because they were trying to be acceptable by obeying the Law instead of by having faith in God. The people of Israel fell over the stone that makes people stumble,

<sup>33</sup>just as God says in the Scriptures, “Look! I am placing in Zion a stone to make people stumble and fall. But those who have faith in that one will never be disappointed.”

Romans 10

<sup>1</sup>Dear friends, my greatest wish and my prayer to God is for the people of Israel to be saved.

<sup>2</sup>I know they love God, but they don't understand

<sup>3</sup>what makes people acceptable to him. So they refuse to trust God, and they try to be acceptable by obeying the Law.

<sup>4</sup>But Christ makes the Law no longer necessary for those who become acceptable to God by faith.

Anyone can be saved

<sup>5</sup>Moses said that a person could become acceptable to God by obeying the Law. He did this when he wrote, “If you want to live, you must do all that the Law commands.”

<sup>6</sup>But people whose faith makes them acceptable to God will never ask, “Who will go up to heaven to bring Christ down?”

<sup>7</sup>Neither will they ask, “Who will go down into the world of the dead to raise him to life?”

<sup>8</sup>All who are acceptable because of their faith simply say, “The message is as near as your mouth or your heart.” And this is the same message we preach about faith.

<sup>9</sup>So you will be saved, if you honestly say, “Jesus is Lord”, and if you believe with all your heart that God raised him from death.

<sup>10</sup>God will accept you and save you, if you truly believe this and tell it to others.

<sup>11</sup>The Scriptures say that no one who has faith will be disappointed,

<sup>12</sup>no matter if that person is a Jew or a Gentile. There is only one Lord, and he is generous to everyone who asks for his help.

<sup>13</sup>All who call out to the Lord will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>How can people have faith in the Lord and ask him to save them, if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear, unless someone tells them?

<sup>15</sup>And how can anyone tell them without being sent by the Lord? The Scriptures say it is a beautiful sight to see even the feet of someone coming to preach the good news.

<sup>16</sup> Yet not everyone has believed the message. For example, the prophet Isaiah asked, “Lord, has anyone believed what we said?”

<sup>17</sup> No one can have faith without hearing the message about Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But am I saying that the people of Israel did not hear? No, I am not! The Scriptures say, “The message was told everywhere on earth. It was announced all over the world.”

<sup>19</sup> Did the people of Israel understand or not? Moses answered this question when he told that the Lord had said, “I will make Israel jealous of people who are a nation of nobodies. I will make them angry with people who don't understand a thing.”

<sup>20</sup> Isaiah was fearless enough to tell that the Lord had said, “I was found by people who were not looking for me. I appeared to the ones who were not asking about me.”

<sup>21</sup> And Isaiah said about the people of Israel, “All day long the Lord has reached out to people who are stubborn and refuse to obey.”

Romans 11

God has not rejected his people

<sup>1</sup> Am I saying that God has turned his back on his people? Certainly not! I am one of the people of Israel, and I myself am a descendant of Abraham from the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup> God did not turn his back on his chosen people. Don't you remember reading in the Scriptures how Elijah complained to God about the people of Israel?

<sup>3</sup> He said, “Lord, they killed your prophets and destroyed your altars. I am the only one left, and now they want to kill me.”

<sup>4</sup> But the Lord told Elijah, “I still have seven thousand followers who have not worshipped Baal.”

<sup>5</sup> It is the same way now. God was kind to the people of Israel, and so a few of them are still his followers.

<sup>6</sup>This happened because of God's undeserved kindness and not because of anything they have done. It could not have happened except for God's kindness.

<sup>7</sup>This means that only a chosen few of the people of Israel found what all of them were searching for. And the rest of them were stubborn,

<sup>8</sup>just as the Scriptures say, "God made them so stupid that their eyes are blind, and their ears are still deaf."

<sup>9</sup>Then David said, "Turn their meals into bait for a trap, so that they will stumble and be given what they deserve.

<sup>10</sup>Blindfold their eyes! Don't let them see. Bend their backs beneath a burden that will never be lifted."

Gentiles will be saved

<sup>11</sup>Do I mean that the people of Israel fell, never to get up again? Certainly not! Their failure made it possible for the Gentiles to be saved, and this will make the people of Israel jealous.

<sup>12</sup>But if the rest of the world's people were helped so much by Israel's sin and loss, they will be helped even more by their full return.

<sup>13</sup>I am now speaking to you Gentiles, and as long as I am an apostle to you, I will take pride in my work.

<sup>14</sup>I hope in this way to make some of my own people jealous enough to be saved.

<sup>15</sup>When Israel rejected God, the rest of the people in the world were able to turn to him. So when God makes friends with Israel, it will be like bringing the dead back to life.

<sup>16</sup>If part of a batch of dough is made holy by being offered to God, then all the dough is holy. If the roots of a tree are holy, the rest of the tree is holy too.

<sup>17</sup>You Gentiles are like branches of a wild olive tree that were made to be part of a cultivated olive tree. You have taken the place of some branches that were cut away from it. And because of this, you enjoy the blessings that come from being part of that cultivated tree.

<sup>18</sup>But don't think you are better than the branches that were cut away. Just remember that you are not supporting the roots of that tree. Its roots are supporting you.

<sup>19</sup>Perhaps you think those branches were cut away, so that you could be put in their place.

<sup>20</sup>That's true enough. But they were cut away because they did not have faith, and you are where you are because you do have faith. So don't be proud, but be afraid.

<sup>21</sup>If God cut away those natural branches, couldn't he do the same to you?

<sup>22</sup>Now you see both how kind and how hard God can be. He was hard on those who fell, but he was kind to you. And he will keep on being kind to you, if you keep on trusting in his kindness. Otherwise, you will be cut away too.

<sup>23</sup>If those other branches will start having faith, they will be made a part of that tree again. God has the power to put them back.

<sup>24</sup>After all, it wasn't natural for branches to be cut from a wild olive tree and to be made part of a cultivated olive tree. So it is much more likely that God will join the natural branches back to the cultivated olive tree.

The people of Israel will be brought back

<sup>25</sup>My friends, I don't want you Gentiles to be too proud of yourselves. So I will explain the mystery of what has happened to the people of Israel. Some of them have become stubborn, and they will stay like that until the complete number of you Gentiles has come in.

<sup>26</sup>In this way all Israel will be saved, as the Scriptures say, “From Zion someone will come to rescue us. Then Jacob's descendants will stop being evil.

<sup>27</sup>This is what the Lord has promised to do when he forgives their sins.”

<sup>28</sup>The people of Israel are treated as God's enemies, so that the good news can come to you Gentiles. But they are still the chosen ones, and God loves them because of their famous ancestors.

<sup>29</sup>God doesn't take back the gifts he has given or forget about the people he has chosen.

<sup>30</sup>At one time you Gentiles rejected God. But now Israel has rejected God, and you have been shown mercy.

<sup>31</sup>And because of the mercy shown to you, they will also be shown mercy.

<sup>32</sup>All people have disobeyed God, and that's why he treats them as prisoners. But he does this, so that he can have mercy on all of them.

<sup>33</sup>Who can measure the wealth and wisdom and knowledge of God? Who can understand his decisions or explain what he does?

<sup>34</sup>“Has anyone known the thoughts of the Lord or given him advice?

<sup>35</sup>Has anyone loaned something to the Lord that must be repaid?”

<sup>36</sup>Everything comes from the Lord. All things were made because of him and will return to him. Praise the Lord for ever! Amen.

Romans 12

How to live the new life of love Christ brings new life

<sup>1</sup>Dear friends, God is good. So I beg you to offer your bodies to him as a living sacrifice, pure and pleasing. That's the most sensible way to serve God.

<sup>2</sup>Don't be like the people of this world, but let God change the way you think. Then you will know how to do everything that is good and pleasing to him.

<sup>3</sup>I realize how kind God has been to me, and so I tell each of you not to think you are better than you really are. Use good sense and measure yourself by the amount of faith that God has given you.

<sup>4</sup>A body is made up of many parts, and each of them has its own use.

<sup>5</sup>That's how it is with us. There are many of us, but we are each part of the body of Christ, as well as part of one another.

<sup>6</sup>God has also given each of us different gifts to use. If we can prophesy, we should do it according to the amount of faith we have.

<sup>7</sup>If we can serve others, we should serve. If we can teach, we should teach.

<sup>8</sup>If we can encourage others, we should encourage them. If we can give, we should be generous. If we are leaders, we should do our best. If we are good to others, we should do it cheerfully.

Rules for Christian living

<sup>9</sup>Be sincere in your love for others. Hate everything that is evil and hold tight to everything that is good.

<sup>10</sup>Love each other as brothers and sisters and honour others more than you do yourself.

<sup>11</sup>Never give up. Eagerly follow the Holy Spirit and serve the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Let your hope make you glad. Be patient in time of trouble and never stop praying.

<sup>13</sup>Take care of God's needy people and welcome strangers into your home.

<sup>14</sup>Ask God to bless everyone who ill-treats you. Ask him to bless them and not to curse them.

<sup>15</sup>When others are happy, be happy with them, and when they are sad, be sad.

<sup>16</sup>Be friendly with everyone. Don't be proud and feel that you are cleverer than others. Make friends with ordinary people.

<sup>17</sup>Don't ill-treat someone who has ill-treated you. But try to earn the respect of others,

<sup>18</sup>and do your best to live at peace with everyone.

<sup>19</sup>Dear friends, don't try to get even. Let God take revenge. In the Scriptures the Lord says, "I am the one to take revenge and pay them back."

<sup>20</sup>The Scriptures also say, "If your enemies are hungry, give them something to eat. And if they are thirsty, give them something to drink. This will be the same as piling burning coals on their heads."

<sup>21</sup>Don't let evil defeat you, but defeat evil with good.

Romans 13

Obey rulers

<sup>1</sup>Obey the rulers who have authority over you. Only God can give authority to anyone, and he puts these rulers in their places of power.

<sup>2</sup>People who oppose the authorities are opposing what God has done, and they will be punished.

<sup>3</sup>Rulers are a threat to evil people, not to good people. There is no need to be afraid of the authorities. Just do right, and they will praise you for it.

<sup>4</sup>After all, they are God's servants, and it is their duty to help you. If you do something wrong, you ought to be afraid, because these rulers have the right to punish you. They are God's servants who punish criminals to show how angry God is.

<sup>5</sup>But you should obey the rulers because you know it is the right thing to do, and not just because of God's anger.

<sup>6</sup>You must also pay your taxes. The authorities are God's servants, and it is their duty to take care of these matters.

<sup>7</sup>Pay all that you owe, whether it is taxes and fees or respect and honour.

Love

<sup>8</sup>Let love be your only debt! If you love others, you have done all that the Law demands.

<sup>9</sup>In the Law there are many commands, such as, “Be faithful in marriage. Do not murder. Do not steal. Do not want what belongs to others.” But all these are summed up in the command that says, “Love others as much as you love yourself.”

<sup>10</sup>No one who loves others will harm them. So love is all that the Law demands.

The day when Christ returns

<sup>11</sup>You know what sort of times we live in, and so you should live properly. It is time to wake up. You know that the day when we will be saved is nearer now than when we first put our faith in the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Night is almost over, and day will soon appear. We must stop behaving as people do in the dark and be ready to live in the light.

<sup>13</sup>So behave properly, as people do in the day. Don't go to wild parties or get drunk or be vulgar or indecent. Don't quarrel or be jealous.

<sup>14</sup>Let the Lord Jesus Christ be as near to you as the clothes you wear. Then you won't try to satisfy your selfish desires.

Romans 14

Don't criticize others

<sup>1</sup>Welcome all the Lord's followers, even those whose faith is weak. Don't criticize them for having beliefs that are different from yours.

<sup>2</sup>Some think it is all right to eat anything, while those whose faith is weak will eat only vegetables.

<sup>3</sup>But you should not criticize others for eating or for not eating. After all, God welcomes everyone.

<sup>4</sup>What right do you have to criticize someone else's servants? Only their Lord can decide if they are doing right, and the Lord will make sure that they do right.

<sup>5</sup>Some of the Lord's followers think one day is more important than another. Others think all days are the same. But each of you should make up your own mind.

<sup>6</sup>Any followers who count one day more important than another day do it to honour their Lord. And any followers who eat meat give thanks to God, just like the ones who don't eat meat.

<sup>7</sup>Whether we live or die, it must be for God, rather than for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup>Whether we live or die, it must be for the Lord. Alive or dead, we still belong to the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>This is because Christ died and rose to life, so that he would be the Lord of the dead and of the living.

<sup>10</sup>Why do you criticize other followers of the Lord? Why do you look down on them? The day is coming when God will judge all of us.

<sup>11</sup>In the Scriptures God says, "I swear by my very life that everyone will kneel down and praise my name!"

<sup>12</sup>And so, each of us must give an account to God for what we do.

Don't cause problems for others

<sup>13</sup>We must stop judging others. We must also make up our minds not to upset anyone's faith.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord Jesus has made it clear to me that God considers all foods fit to eat. But if you think some foods are unfit to eat, then for you they are not fit.

<sup>15</sup>If you are hurting others by the foods you eat, you are not guided by love. Don't let your appetite destroy someone Christ died for.

<sup>16</sup>Don't let your right to eat bring shame to Christ.

<sup>17</sup>God's kingdom isn't about eating and drinking. It is about pleasing God, about living in peace, and about true happiness. All this comes from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>If you serve Christ in this way, you will please God and be respected by people.

<sup>19</sup>We should try to live at peace and help each other have a strong faith.

<sup>20</sup>Don't let your appetite destroy what God has done. All foods are fit to eat, but it is wrong to cause problems for others by what you eat.

<sup>21</sup>It is best not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else that causes problems for other followers of the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>What you believe about these things should be kept between you and God. You are fortunate, if your actions don't make you have doubts.

<sup>23</sup>But if you do have doubts about what you eat, you are going against your beliefs. And you know that is wrong, because anything you do against your beliefs is sin.

Romans 15

Please others and not yourself

<sup>1</sup>If our faith is strong, we should be patient with the Lord's followers whose faith is weak. We should try to please them instead of ourselves.

<sup>2</sup>We should think of their good and try to help them by doing what pleases them.

<sup>3</sup>Even Christ did not try to please himself. But as the Scriptures say, "The people who insulted you also insulted me."

<sup>4</sup>And the Scriptures were written to teach and encourage us by giving us hope.

<sup>5</sup>God is the one who makes us patient and cheerful. I pray that he will help you live at peace with each other, as you follow Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Then all of you together will praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The good news is for Jews and Gentiles

<sup>7</sup>Honour God by accepting each other, as Christ has accepted you.

<sup>8</sup>I tell you that Christ came as a servant of the Jews to show that God has kept the promises he made to their famous ancestors. Christ also came,

<sup>9</sup>so that the Gentiles would praise God for being kind to them. It is just as the Scriptures say, “I will tell the nations about you, and I will sing praises to your name.”

<sup>10</sup>The Scriptures also say to the Gentiles, “Come and celebrate with God's people.”

<sup>11</sup>Again the Scriptures say, “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles. All you nations, come and worship him.”

<sup>12</sup>Isaiah says, “Someone from David's family will come to power. He will rule the nations, and they will put their hope in him.”

<sup>13</sup>I pray that God, who gives hope, will bless you with complete happiness and peace because of your faith. And may the power of the Holy Spirit fill you with hope.

Paul's plans and personal greetings Paul's work as a missionary

<sup>14</sup>My friends, I am sure that you are very good and that you have all the knowledge you need to teach each other.

<sup>15</sup>But I have spoken to you plainly and have tried to remind you of some things. God was so kind to me!

<sup>16</sup>He chose me to be a servant of Christ Jesus for the Gentiles and to do the work of a priest in the service of his good news. God did this so that the Holy Spirit could make the Gentiles into a holy offering, pleasing to him.

<sup>17</sup>Because of Christ Jesus, I can take pride in my service for God.

<sup>18</sup>In fact, all I will talk about is how Christ let me speak and work, so that the Gentiles would obey him.

<sup>19</sup>Indeed, I will tell how Christ performed miracles and wonders by the power of the Holy Spirit. I have preached the good news about him all the way from Jerusalem to Illyricum.

<sup>20</sup>But I have always tried to preach where people have never heard about Christ. I am like a builder who doesn't build on anyone else's foundation.

<sup>21</sup>It is just as the Scriptures say, "All who haven't been told about him will see him, and those who haven't heard about him will understand."

Paul's plan to visit Rome

<sup>22</sup>My work has always kept me from coming to see you.

<sup>23</sup>Now there is nothing left for me to do in this part of the world, and for years I have wanted to visit you.

<sup>24</sup>So I plan to stop off on my way to Spain. Then after a short, but refreshing, stay with you, I hope you will quickly send me on.

<sup>25-26</sup> I am now on my way to Jerusalem to deliver the money that the Lord's followers in Macedonia and Achaia collected for God's needy people.

<sup>27</sup> This is something they really wanted to do. But sharing their money with the Jews was also like paying back a debt, because the Jews had already shared their spiritual blessings with the Gentiles.

<sup>28</sup>After I have safely delivered this money, I will visit you and then go on to Spain.

<sup>29</sup>And when I do arrive in Rome, I know it will be with the full blessings of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>My friends, by the power of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the love that comes from the Holy Spirit, I beg you to pray sincerely with me and for me.

<sup>31</sup>Pray that God will protect me from the unbelievers in Judea, and that his people in Jerusalem will be pleased with what I am doing.

<sup>32</sup>Ask God to let me come to you and have a pleasant and refreshing visit.

<sup>33</sup>I pray that God, who gives peace, will be with all of you. Amen.

Romans 16

Personal greetings

<sup>1</sup>I have good things to say about Phoebe, who is a leader in the church at Cenchreae.

<sup>2</sup>Welcome her in a way that is proper for someone who has faith in the Lord and is one of God's own people. Help her in any way you can. After all, she has proved to be a respected leader for many others, including me.

<sup>3</sup>Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila. They have not only served Christ Jesus together with me, <sup>4</sup>but they have even risked their lives for me. I am grateful for them and so are all the Gentile churches.

<sup>5</sup>Greet the church that meets in their home. Greet my dear friend Epaenetus, who was the first person in Asia to have faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who has worked so hard for you.

<sup>7</sup>Greet my relatives Andronicus and Junias, who were in jail with me. They are highly respected by the apostles and were followers of Christ before I was.

<sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend whose faith is in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, who serves Christ along with us. Greet my dear friend Stachys.

<sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, a faithful servant of Christ. Greet Aristobulus and his family.

<sup>11</sup>Greet Herodion, who is a relative of mine. Greet Narcissus and the others in his family, who have faith in the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who work hard for the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis. She also works hard for the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, that special servant of the Lord, and greet his mother, who has been like a mother to me.

<sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, and Hermas, as well as our friends who are with them.

<sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all God's people who are with them.

<sup>16</sup>Be sure to give each other a warm greeting. All Christ's churches greet you.

<sup>17</sup>My friends, I beg you to watch out for anyone who causes trouble and divides the church by refusing to do what all of you were taught. Stay away from them!

<sup>18</sup>They want to serve themselves and not Christ the Lord. Their flattery and fancy talk fool people who don't know any better.

<sup>19</sup>I am glad that everyone knows how well you obey the Lord. But still, I want you to understand what is good and not have anything to do with evil.

<sup>20</sup>Then God, who gives peace, will soon crush Satan under your feet. I pray that our Lord Jesus will be kind to you.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, who works with me, sends his greetings, and so do my relatives, Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater.

<sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, also send my greetings. I am a follower of the Lord, and I wrote this letter.

<sup>23-24</sup>Gaius welcomes me and the whole church into his home, and he sends his greetings. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our dear friend Quartus send their greetings too.

Paul's closing prayer

<sup>25</sup>Praise God! He can make you strong by means of my good news, which is the message about Jesus Christ. For many ages this message was kept secret, <sup>26</sup>but now at last it has been told. The eternal God commanded his prophets to write about the good news, so that all nations would obey and have faith.

<sup>27</sup>And now, because of Jesus Christ, we can praise the only wise God for ever! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 Corinthians 1

Paul's greeting and prayer

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from Sosthenes, who is also a follower.

<sup>2</sup>To God's church in Corinth. Christ Jesus chose you to be his very own people, and you worship in his name, as we and all others do who call him Lord.

<sup>3</sup>My prayer is that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

<sup>4</sup>I never stop thanking my God for being kind enough to give you Christ Jesus, <sup>5</sup>who helps you speak and understand so well.

<sup>6</sup>Now you are certain that everything we told you about our Lord Christ Jesus is true.

<sup>7</sup>You are not missing out on any blessings, as you wait for him to return.

<sup>8</sup>And until the day Christ does return, he will keep you completely innocent.

<sup>9</sup>God can be trusted, and he chose you to be partners with his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

A call for unity Taking sides

<sup>10</sup>My dear friends, as a follower of our Lord Jesus Christ, I beg you to get along with each other. Don't take sides. Always try to agree in what you think.

<sup>11</sup>Several people from Chloe's family have already reported to me that you keep arguing with each other.

<sup>12</sup>They have said that some of you claim to follow me, while others claim to follow Apollos or Peter or Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided up? Was I nailed to a cross for you? Were you baptized in my name?

<sup>14</sup>I thank God that I didn't baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius.

<sup>15</sup>Not one of you can say that you were baptized in my name.

<sup>16</sup>I did baptize the family of Stephanas, but I don't remember if I baptized anyone else.

<sup>17</sup>Christ did not send me to baptize. He sent me to tell the good news without using big words that would make the cross of Christ lose its power.

Christ is God's power and wisdom

<sup>18</sup>The message about the cross doesn't make any sense to lost people. But for those of us who are being saved, it is God's power at work.

<sup>19</sup>As God says in the Scriptures, "I will destroy the wisdom of all who claim to be wise. I will confuse those who think they know so much."

<sup>20</sup>What happened to those wise people? What happened to those experts in the Scriptures? What happened to the ones who think they have all the answers? Didn't God show that the wisdom of this world is foolish?

<sup>21</sup>God was wise and decided not to let the people of this world use their wisdom to learn about him. Instead, God chose to save only those who believe the foolish message we preach.

<sup>22</sup>Jews ask for miracles, and Greeks want something that sounds wise.

<sup>23</sup>But we preach that Christ was nailed to a cross. Most Jews have problems with this, and most Gentiles think it is foolish.

<sup>24</sup>Our message is God's power and wisdom for the Jews and the Greeks that he has chosen.

<sup>25</sup>Even when God is foolish, he is wiser than everyone else, and even when God is weak, he is stronger than everyone else.

<sup>26</sup>My dear friends, remember what you were when God chose you. The people of this world didn't think that many of you were wise. Only a few of you were in places of power, and not many of you came from important families.

<sup>27</sup>But God chose the foolish things of this world to put the wise to shame. He chose the weak things of this world to put the powerful to shame.

<sup>28</sup>What the world thinks is worthless, useless, and nothing at all is what God has used to destroy what the world considers important.

<sup>29</sup>God did all this to keep anyone from boasting to him.

<sup>30</sup>You are God's children. He sent Christ Jesus to save us and to make us wise, acceptable, and holy.

<sup>31</sup>So if you want to boast, do what the Scriptures say and boast about the Lord.

1 Corinthians 2

Telling about Christ and the cross

<sup>1</sup>Friends, when I came and told you the mystery that God had shared with us, I didn't use big words or try to sound wise.

<sup>2</sup>In fact, while I was with you, I made up my mind to speak only about Jesus Christ, who had been nailed to a cross.

<sup>3</sup>At first, I was weak and trembling with fear.

<sup>4</sup>When I talked with you or preached, I didn't try to prove anything by sounding wise. I simply let God's Spirit show his power.

<sup>5</sup>That way you would have faith because of God's power and not because of human wisdom.

<sup>6</sup>We do use wisdom when speaking to people who are mature in their faith. But it isn't the wisdom of this world or of its rulers, who will soon disappear.

<sup>7</sup>We speak of God's hidden and mysterious wisdom that God decided to use for our glory long before the world began.

<sup>8</sup>The rulers of this world didn't know anything about this wisdom. If they had known about it, they would not have nailed the glorious Lord to a cross.

<sup>9</sup>But it is just as the Scriptures say, “What God has planned for people who love him is more than eyes have seen or ears have heard. It has never even entered our minds!”

<sup>10</sup>God's Spirit has shown you everything. His Spirit finds out everything, even what is deep in the mind of God.

<sup>11</sup>You are the only one who knows what is in your own mind, and God's Spirit is the only one who knows what is in God's mind.

<sup>12</sup>But God has given us his Spirit. That's why we don't think the same way that the people of this world think. That's also why we can recognize the blessings that God has given us.

<sup>13</sup>Every word we speak was taught to us by God's Spirit, not by human wisdom. And this same Spirit helps us teach spiritual things to spiritual people.

<sup>14</sup>That's why only someone who has God's Spirit can understand spiritual blessings. Anyone who doesn't have God's Spirit thinks these blessings are foolish.

<sup>15</sup>People who are guided by the Spirit can make all kinds of judgments, but they cannot be judged by others.

<sup>16</sup>The Scriptures ask, “Has anyone ever known the thoughts of the Lord or given him advice?” But we understand what Christ is thinking.

1 Corinthians 3

Working together for God

<sup>1</sup>My friends, you are acting like the people of this world. That's why I could not speak to you as spiritual people. You are like babies as far as your faith in Christ is concerned.

<sup>2</sup> So I had to treat you like babies and feed you milk. You could not take solid food, and you still cannot,

<sup>3</sup> because you are not yet spiritual. You are jealous and argue with each other. This proves that you are not spiritual and that you are acting like the people of this world.

<sup>4</sup> Some of you say that you follow me, and others claim to follow Apollos. Isn't that how ordinary people behave?

<sup>5</sup> Apollos and I are merely servants who helped you to have faith. It was the Lord who made it all happen.

<sup>6</sup> I planted the seeds, Apollos watered them, but God made them sprout and grow.

<sup>7</sup> What matters isn't those who planted or watered, but God who made the plants grow.

<sup>8</sup> The one who plants is just as important as the one who waters. And each one will be paid for what they do.

<sup>9</sup> Apollos and I work together for God, and you are God's garden and God's building.

Only one foundation

<sup>10</sup> God was kind and let me become an expert builder. I laid a foundation on which others have built. But we must each be careful how we build,

<sup>11</sup> because Christ is the only foundation.

<sup>12-13</sup> Whatever we build on that foundation will be tested by fire on the day of judgment. Then everyone will find out if we have used gold, silver, and precious stones, or wood, hay, and straw.

<sup>14</sup> We will be rewarded if our building is left standing.

<sup>15</sup> But if it is destroyed by the fire, we will lose everything. Yet we ourselves will be saved, like someone escaping from flames.

<sup>16</sup> All of you know that you are God's temple and that his Spirit lives in you.

<sup>17</sup>Together you are God's holy temple, and God will destroy anyone who destroys his temple.

<sup>18</sup>Don't fool yourselves! If any of you think you are wise in the things of this world, you will have to become foolish before you can be truly wise.

<sup>19</sup>This is because God considers the wisdom of this world to be foolish. It is just as the Scriptures say, "God catches the wise when they try to outsmart him."

<sup>20</sup>The Scriptures also say, "The Lord knows that the plans made by wise people are useless."

<sup>21-22</sup>So stop boasting about what anyone has done. Paul and Apollos and Peter all belong to you. In fact, everything is yours, including the world, life, death, the present, and the future. Everything belongs to you,

<sup>23</sup>and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4

The work of the apostles

<sup>1</sup>Think of us as servants of Christ who have been given the work of explaining God's mysterious ways.

<sup>2</sup>And since our first duty is to be faithful to the one we work for,

<sup>3</sup>it doesn't matter to me if I am judged by you or even by a court of law. In fact, I don't judge myself.

<sup>4</sup>I don't know of anything against me, but that doesn't prove that I am right. The Lord is my judge.

<sup>5</sup>So don't judge anyone until the Lord returns. He will show what is hidden in the dark and what is in everyone's heart. Then God will be the one who praises each of us.

<sup>6</sup>Friends, I have used Apollos and myself as examples to teach you the meaning of the saying, "Follow the rules." I want you to stop saying that one of us is better than the other.

<sup>7</sup>What is so special about you? What do you have that you were not given? And if it was given to you, how can you boast?

<sup>8</sup>Are you already satisfied? Are you now rich? Have you become kings while we are still nobodies? I wish you were kings. Then we could have a share in your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>It seems to me that God has put us apostles in the worst possible place. We are like prisoners on their way to death. Angels and the people of this world just laugh at us.

<sup>10</sup>Because of Christ we are thought of as fools, but Christ has made you wise. We are weak and hated, but you are powerful and respected.

<sup>11</sup>Even today we go hungry and thirsty and don't have anything to wear except rags. We are ill-treated and don't have a place to live.

<sup>12</sup>We work hard with our own hands, and when people abuse us, we wish them well. When we suffer, we are patient.

<sup>13</sup>When someone curses us, we answer with kind words. Until now we are thought of as nothing more than the trash and rubbish of this world.

<sup>14</sup>I am not writing to embarrass you. I want to help you, just as parents help their own dear children.

<sup>15</sup>Ten thousand people may teach you about Christ, but I am your only father. You became my children when I told you about Christ Jesus, <sup>16</sup>and I want you to be like me.

<sup>17</sup>That's why I sent Timothy to you. I love him like a son, and he is a faithful servant of the Lord. Timothy will tell you what I do to follow Christ and how it agrees with what I always teach about Christ in every church.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you think I am not coming for a visit, and so you are boasting.

<sup>19</sup>But if the Lord lets me come, I will soon be there. Then I will find out if the ones who are doing all this boasting really have any power.

<sup>20</sup>God's kingdom isn't just a lot of words. It is power.

<sup>21</sup>What do you want me to do when I arrive? Do you want me to be hard on you or to be kind and gentle?

1 Corinthians 5

Problems in relationships Immoral followers

<sup>1</sup>I have heard terrible things about some of you. In fact, you are behaving worse than the Gentiles. A man is even sleeping with his own stepmother.

<sup>2</sup>You are proud, when you ought to feel bad enough to chase away anyone who acts like that.

<sup>3-4</sup>I am with you only in my thoughts. But in the name of our Lord Jesus I have already judged this man, as though I were with you in person. So when you meet together and the power of the Lord Jesus is with you, I will be there too.

<sup>5</sup>You must then hand that man over to Satan. His body will be destroyed, but his spirit will be saved when the Lord Jesus returns.

<sup>6</sup>Stop being proud! Don't you know how a little yeast can spread through the whole batch of dough?

<sup>7</sup>Get rid of the old yeast! Then you will be like fresh bread made without yeast, and that is what you are. Our Passover lamb is Christ, who has already been sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup>So don't celebrate the festival by being evil and sinful, which is like serving bread made with yeast. Be pure and truthful and celebrate by using bread made without yeast.

<sup>9</sup>In my other letter I told you not to have anything to do with immoral people.

<sup>10</sup>But I wasn't talking about the people of this world. You would have to leave this world to get away from everyone who is immoral or greedy or who cheats or worships idols.

<sup>11</sup>I was talking about your own people who are immoral or greedy or worship idols or curse others or get drunk or cheat. Don't even eat with them!

<sup>12</sup>Why should I judge outsiders? Aren't we supposed to judge only church members?

<sup>13</sup>God judges everyone else. The Scriptures say, "Chase away any of your own people who are evil."

1 Corinthians 6

Taking each other to court

<sup>1</sup>When one of you has a complaint against another, do you take your complaint to a court of sinners? Or do you take it to God's people?

<sup>2</sup>Don't you know that God's people will judge the world? And if you are going to judge the world, can't you settle small problems?

<sup>3</sup>Don't you know that we will judge angels? And if that is so, we can surely judge everyday matters.

<sup>4</sup>Why do you take everyday complaints to judges who are not respected by the church?

<sup>5</sup>I say this to your shame. Aren't any of you wise enough to act as a judge between one follower and another?

<sup>6</sup>Why should one of you take another to be tried by unbelievers?

<sup>7</sup>When one of you takes another to court, all of you lose. It would be better to let yourselves be cheated and robbed.

<sup>8</sup>But instead, you cheat and rob other followers.

<sup>9</sup>Don't you know that evil people won't have a share in the blessings of God's kingdom? Don't fool yourselves! No one who is immoral or worships idols or is unfaithful in marriage or is a pervert or behaves like a homosexual

<sup>10</sup>will share in God's kingdom. Neither will any thief or greedy person or drunkard or anyone who curses and cheats others.

<sup>11</sup>Some of you used to be like that. But now the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and the power of God's Spirit have washed you and made you holy and acceptable to God.

Honour God with your body

<sup>12</sup>Some of you say, "We can do anything we want to." But I tell you that not everything is good for us. So I refuse to let anything have power over me.

<sup>13</sup>You also say, "Food is meant for our bodies, and our bodies are meant for food." But I tell you that God will destroy them both. We are not supposed to do indecent things with our bodies. We are to use them for the Lord who is in charge of our bodies.

<sup>14</sup>God will raise us from death by the same power that he used when he raised our Lord to life.

<sup>15</sup>Don't you know that your bodies are part of the body of Christ? Is it right for me to join part of the body of Christ to a prostitute? No, it isn't!

<sup>16</sup>Don't you know that a man who does that becomes part of her body? The Scriptures say, "The two of them will be like one person."

<sup>17</sup>But anyone who is joined to the Lord is one in spirit with him.

<sup>18</sup>Don't be immoral in matters of sex. That is a sin against your own body in a way that no other sin is.

<sup>19</sup>You know that your body is a temple where the Holy Spirit lives. The Spirit is in you and is a gift from God. You are no longer your own.

<sup>20</sup>God paid a great price for you. So use your body to honour God.

1 Corinthians 7

Questions about marriage

<sup>1</sup>Now I will answer the questions that you asked in your letter. You asked, "Is it best for people not to marry?"

<sup>2</sup>Well, having your own husband or wife should keep you from doing something immoral.

<sup>3</sup>Husbands and wives should be fair with each other about having sex.

<sup>4</sup>A wife belongs to her husband instead of to herself, and a husband belongs to his wife instead of to himself.

<sup>5</sup>So don't refuse sex to each other, unless you agree not to have sex for a little while, in order to spend time in prayer. Then Satan won't be able to tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

<sup>6</sup>In my opinion that is what should be done, though I don't know of anything the Lord said about this matter.

<sup>7</sup>I wish that all of you were like me, but God has given different gifts to each of us.

<sup>8</sup>Here is my advice for people who have never been married and for widows. You should stay single, just as I am.

<sup>9</sup>But if you don't have enough self-control, then go ahead and get married. After all, it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

<sup>10</sup>I instruct married couples to stay together, and this is exactly what the Lord himself taught. A wife who leaves her husband

<sup>11</sup>should either stay single or go back to her husband. And a husband should not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup>I don't know of anything else the Lord said about marriage. All I can do is to give you my own advice. If your wife isn't a follower of the Lord, but is willing to stay with you, don't divorce her.

<sup>13</sup>If your husband isn't a follower, but is willing to stay with you, don't divorce him.

<sup>14</sup>Your husband or wife who isn't a follower is made holy by having you as a partner. This also makes your children holy and keeps them from being unclean in God's sight.

<sup>15</sup>If your husband or wife isn't a follower of the Lord and decides to divorce you, then you should agree to it. You are no longer bound to that person. After all, God chose you and wants you to live at peace.

<sup>16</sup>And besides, how do you know if you will be able to save your husband or wife who isn't a follower?

Obedying the Lord at all times

<sup>17</sup>In every church I tell the people to stay as they were when the Lord Jesus chose them and God called them to be his own. Now I say the same thing to you.

<sup>18</sup>If you are already circumcised, don't try to change it. If you are not circumcised, don't get circumcised.

<sup>19</sup>Being circumcised or uncircumcised isn't really what matters. The important thing is to obey God's commands.

<sup>20</sup>So don't try to change what you were when God chose you.

<sup>21</sup>Are you a slave? Don't let that bother you. But if you can win your freedom, you should.

<sup>22</sup>When the Lord chooses slaves, they become his free people. And when he chooses free people, they become slaves of Christ.

<sup>23</sup>God paid a great price for you. So don't become slaves of anyone else.

<sup>24</sup>Stay what you were when God chose you.

Unmarried people

<sup>25</sup>I don't know of anything that the Lord said about people who have never been married. But I will tell you what I think. And you can trust me, because the Lord has treated me with kindness.

<sup>26</sup>We are now going through hard times, and I think it is best for you to stay as you are.

<sup>27</sup>If you are married, stay married. If you are not married, don't try to get married.

<sup>28</sup>It isn't wrong to marry, even if you have never been married before. But those who marry will have a lot of trouble, and I want to protect you from that.

<sup>29</sup>My friends, what I mean is that the Lord will soon come, and it won't matter if you are married or not.

<sup>30</sup>It will be all the same if you are crying or laughing, or if you are buying or are completely broke.

<sup>31</sup>It won't make any difference how much good you are getting from this world or how much you like it. This world as we know it is now passing away.

<sup>32</sup>I want all of you to be free from worry. An unmarried man worries about how to please the Lord.

<sup>33</sup>But a married man has more worries. He must worry about the things of this world, because he wants to please his wife.

<sup>34</sup>So he is pulled in two directions. Unmarried women and women who have never been married worry only about pleasing the Lord, and they keep their bodies and minds pure. But a married woman worries about the things of this world, because she wants to please her husband.

<sup>35</sup>What I am saying is for your own good—it isn't to limit your freedom. I want to help you to live right and to love the Lord above all else.

<sup>36</sup>But suppose you are engaged to someone old enough to be married, and you want her so much that all you can think about is getting married. Then go ahead and marry. There is nothing wrong with that.

<sup>37</sup>But it is better to have self-control and to make up your mind not to marry.

<sup>38</sup>It is perfectly all right to marry, but it is better not to get married at all.

<sup>39</sup>A wife should stay married to her husband until he dies. Then she is free to marry again, but only to a man who is a follower of the Lord.

<sup>40</sup>However, I think I am obeying God's Spirit when I say she would be happier to stay single.

1 Corinthians 8

Honouring God instead of idols Food offered to idols

<sup>1</sup>In your letter you asked me about food offered to idols. All of us know something about this subject. But knowledge makes us proud of ourselves, while love makes us helpful to others.

<sup>2</sup>In fact, people who think they know so much don't know anything at all.

<sup>3</sup>But God has no doubts about who loves him.

<sup>4</sup>Even though food is offered to idols, we know that none of the idols in this world are alive. After all, there is only one God.

<sup>5</sup>Many things in heaven and on earth are called gods and lords, but none of them really are gods or lords.

<sup>6</sup>We have only one God, and he is the Father. He created everything, and we live for him. Jesus Christ is our only Lord. Everything was made by him, and by him life was given to us.

<sup>7</sup>Not everyone knows these things. In fact, many people have grown up with the belief that idols have life in them. So when they eat meat offered to idols, they are bothered by a weak conscience.

<sup>8</sup>But food doesn't bring us any closer to God. We are no worse off if we don't eat, and we are no better off if we do.

<sup>9</sup>Don't cause problems for someone with a weak conscience, just because you have the right to eat anything.

<sup>10</sup>You know all this, and so it doesn't bother you to eat in the temple of an idol. But suppose a person with a weak conscience sees you and decides to eat food that has been offered to idols.

<sup>11</sup>Then what you know has destroyed someone Christ died for.

<sup>12</sup>When you sin by hurting a follower with a weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

<sup>13</sup>So if I hurt one of the Lord's followers by what I eat, I will never eat meat as long as I live.

1 Corinthians 9

The rights of an apostle

<sup>1</sup>I am free. I am an apostle. I have seen the Lord Jesus and have led you to have faith in him.

<sup>2</sup>Others may think that I am not an apostle, but you are proof that I am an apostle to you.

<sup>3</sup>When people question me, I tell them

<sup>4</sup>that Barnabas and I have the right to our food and drink.

<sup>5</sup>We each have the right to marry one of the Lord's followers and to take her along with us, just as the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Peter do.

<sup>6</sup>Are we the only ones who have to support ourselves by working at another job?

<sup>7</sup>Do soldiers pay their own salaries? Don't people who raise grapes eat some of what they grow? Don't shepherds get milk from their own goats?

<sup>8-9</sup> I am not saying this on my own authority. The Law of Moses tells us not to muzzle an ox when it is grinding grain. But was God concerned only about an ox?

<sup>10</sup>No, he wasn't! He was talking about us. This was written in the Scriptures so that all who plough and all who grind the grain will look forward to sharing in the harvest.

<sup>11</sup>When we told the message to you, it was like planting spiritual seed. So we have the right to accept material things as our harvest from you.

<sup>12</sup>If others have the right to do this, we have an even greater right. But we haven't used this right of ours. We are willing to put up with anything to keep from causing trouble for the message about Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Don't you know that people who work in the temple make their living from what is brought to the temple? Don't you know that a person who serves at the altar is given part of what is offered?

<sup>14</sup>In the same way, the Lord wants everyone who preaches the good news to make a living from preaching this message.

<sup>15</sup>But I have never used these privileges of mine, and I am not writing this because I want to start now. I would rather die than let someone rob me of the right to take pride in this.

<sup>16</sup>I don't have any reason to boast about preaching the good news. Preaching is something God told me to do, and if I don't do it, I am doomed.

<sup>17</sup>If I preach because I want to, I will be paid. But even if I don't want to, it is still something God has sent me to do.

<sup>18</sup>What pay am I given? It is the chance to preach the good news free of charge and not to use the privileges that are mine because I am a preacher.

<sup>19</sup>I am not anyone's slave. But I have become a slave to everyone, so that I can win as many people as possible.

<sup>20</sup>When I am with the Jews, I live like a Jew to win Jews. They are ruled by the Law of Moses, and I am not. But I live by the Law to win them.

<sup>21</sup>And when I am with people who are not ruled by the Law, I forget about the Law to win them. Of course, I never really forget about the law of God. In fact, I am ruled by the law of Christ.

<sup>22</sup>When I am with people whose faith is weak, I live as they do to win them. I do everything I can to win everyone I possibly can.

<sup>23</sup>I do all this for the good news, because I want to share in its blessings.

A race and a fight

<sup>24</sup>You know that many runners enter a race, and only one of them wins the prize. So run to win!

<sup>25</sup>Athletes work hard to win a crown that cannot last, but we do it for a crown that will last for ever.

<sup>26</sup>I don't run without a goal. And I don't box by beating my fists in the air.

<sup>27</sup>I keep my body under control and make it my slave, so I won't lose out after telling the good news to others.

1 Corinthians 10

Don't worship idols

<sup>1</sup> Friends, I want to remind you that all our ancestors walked under the cloud and went through the sea.

<sup>2</sup>This was like being baptized and becoming followers of Moses.

<sup>3</sup>All of them also ate the same spiritual food

<sup>4</sup>and drank the same spiritual drink, which flowed from the spiritual rock that followed them. That rock was Christ.

<sup>5</sup>But most of them did not please God. So they died, and their bodies were scattered all over the desert.

<sup>6</sup>What happened to them is a warning to keep us from wanting to do the same evil things.

<sup>7</sup>They worshipped idols, just as the Scriptures say, "The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to dance around." So don't worship idols.

<sup>8</sup>Some of those people did shameful things, and in a single day about twenty-three thousand of them died. Don't do shameful things as they did.

<sup>9</sup>And don't try to test Christ, as some of them did and were later bitten by poisonous snakes.

<sup>10</sup>Don't even grumble, as some of them did and were killed by the destroying angel.

<sup>11</sup>These things happened to them as a warning to us. All this was written in the Scriptures to teach us who live in these last days.

<sup>12</sup>Even if you think you can stand up to temptation, be careful not to fall.

<sup>13</sup>You are tempted in the same way that everyone else is tempted. But God can be trusted not to let you be tempted too much, and he will show you how to escape from your temptations.

<sup>14</sup>My friends, you must keep away from idols.

<sup>15</sup>I am speaking to you as people who have enough sense to know what I am talking about.

<sup>16</sup>When we drink from the cup that we ask God to bless, isn't that sharing in the blood of Christ? When we eat the bread that we break, isn't that sharing in the body of Christ?

<sup>17</sup>By sharing in the same loaf of bread, we become one body, even though there are many of us.

<sup>18</sup>Aren't the people of Israel sharing in the worship when they gather around the altar and eat the sacrifices offered there?

<sup>19</sup>Am I saying that either the idols or the food sacrificed to them is anything at all?

<sup>20</sup>No, I am not! That food is really sacrificed to demons and not to God. I don't want you to have anything to do with demons.

<sup>21</sup>You cannot drink from the cup of demons and still drink from the Lord's cup. You cannot eat at the table of demons and still eat at the Lord's table.

<sup>22</sup>We would make the Lord jealous if we did that. And we are not stronger than the Lord.

Always honour God

<sup>23</sup>Some of you say, "We can do whatever we want to!" But I tell you that not everything may be good or helpful.

<sup>24</sup>We should think about others and not about ourselves.

<sup>25</sup>However, when you buy meat in the market, go ahead and eat it. Keep your conscience clear by not asking where the meat came from.

<sup>26</sup>The Scriptures say, “The earth and everything in it belong to the Lord.”

<sup>27</sup>If an unbeliever invites you to dinner, and you want to go, then go. Eat whatever you are served. Don't cause a problem for someone's conscience by asking where the food came from.

<sup>28-29</sup>But if you are told that it has been sacrificed to idols, don't cause a problem by eating it. I don't mean a problem for yourself, but for the one who told you. Why should my freedom be limited by someone else's conscience?

<sup>30</sup>If I give thanks for what I eat, why should anyone accuse me of doing wrong?

<sup>31</sup>When you eat or drink or do anything else, always do it to honour God.

<sup>32</sup>Don't cause problems for Jews or Greeks or anyone else who belongs to God's church.

<sup>33</sup>I always try to please others instead of myself, in the hope that many of them will be saved.

1 Corinthians 11

<sup>1</sup>You must follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Guidance for worship and church life Rules for worship

<sup>2</sup>I am proud of you, because you always remember me and obey the teachings I gave you.

<sup>3</sup>Now I want you to know that Christ is the head over all men, and a man is the head over a woman. But God is the head over Christ.

<sup>4</sup>This means that any man who prays or prophesies with something on his head brings shame to his head.

<sup>5</sup>But any woman who prays or prophesies without something on her head brings shame to her head. In fact, she may as well shave her head.

<sup>6</sup>A woman should wear something on her head. It is a disgrace for a woman to shave her head or cut her hair. But if she refuses to wear something on her head, let her cut off her hair.

<sup>7</sup>Men were created to be like God and to bring honour to God. This means that a man should not wear anything on his head. Women were created to bring honour to men.

<sup>8</sup>It was the woman who was made from a man, and not the man who was made from a woman.

<sup>9</sup>He wasn't created for her. She was created for him.

<sup>10</sup>And so, because of this, and also because of the angels, a woman ought to wear something on her head, as a sign of her authority.

<sup>11</sup>As far as the Lord is concerned, men and women need each other.

<sup>12</sup>It is true that the first woman came from a man, but all other men have been given birth by women. Yet God is the one who created everything.

<sup>13</sup>Ask yourselves if it is proper for a woman to pray without something on her head.

<sup>14</sup>Isn't it unnatural and disgraceful for men to have long hair?

<sup>15</sup>But long hair is a beautiful way for a woman to cover her head.

<sup>16</sup>This is how things are done in all God's churches, and that's why none of you should argue about what I have said.

Rules for the Lord's Supper

<sup>17</sup>Your worship services do you more harm than good. I am certainly not going to praise you for this.

<sup>18</sup>I am told that you can't get along with each other when you worship, and I am sure that some of what I have heard is true.

<sup>19</sup>You are bound to argue with each other, but it is easy to see which of you have God's approval.

<sup>20</sup>When you meet together, you don't really celebrate the Lord's Supper.

<sup>21</sup>You even start eating before everyone gets to the meeting, and some of you go hungry, while others get drunk.

<sup>22</sup>Don't you have homes where you can eat and drink? Do you hate God's church? Do you want to embarrass people who don't have anything? What can I say to you? I certainly cannot praise you.

The Lord's Supper

(Matthew 26.26–29; Mark 14.22–25; Luke 22.14–20)

<sup>23</sup>I have already told you what the Lord Jesus did on the night he was betrayed. And it came from the Lord himself. He took some bread in his hands.

<sup>24</sup>Then after he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is given for you. Eat this and remember me.”

<sup>25</sup>After the meal, Jesus took a cup of wine in his hands and said, “This is my blood, and with it God makes his new agreement with you. Drink this and remember me.”

<sup>26</sup>The Lord meant that when you eat this bread and drink from this cup, you tell about his death until he comes.

<sup>27</sup>But if you eat the bread and drink the wine in a way that isn't worthy of the Lord, you sin against his body and blood.

<sup>28</sup>That's why you must examine the way you eat and drink.

<sup>29</sup>If you fail to understand that you are the body of the Lord, you will condemn yourselves by the way you eat and drink.

<sup>30</sup>That's why many of you are sick and weak and why a lot of others have died.

<sup>31</sup>If we carefully judge ourselves, we won't be punished.

<sup>32</sup>But when the Lord judges and punishes us, he does it to keep us from being condemned with the rest of the world.

<sup>33</sup>My dear friends, you should wait until everyone gets there before you start eating.

<sup>34</sup>If you really are hungry, you can eat at home. Then you won't condemn yourselves when you meet together. After I arrive, I will instruct you about the other matters.

1 Corinthians 12

Spiritual gifts

<sup>1</sup>My friends, you asked me about spiritual gifts.

<sup>2</sup>I want you to remember that before you became followers of the Lord, you were led in all the wrong ways by idols that cannot even talk.

<sup>3</sup>Now I want you to know that if you are led by God's Spirit, you will say that Jesus is Lord, and you will never curse Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but they all come from the same Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>There are different ways to serve the same Lord,

<sup>6</sup>and we can each do different things. Yet the same God works in all of us and helps us in everything we do.

<sup>7</sup>The Spirit has given each of us a special way of serving others.

<sup>8</sup>Some of us can speak with wisdom, while others can speak with knowledge, but these gifts come from the same Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>To others the Spirit has given great faith or the power to heal the sick

<sup>10</sup>or the power to perform mighty miracles. Some of us are prophets, and some of us recognize when God's Spirit is present. Others can speak different kinds of languages, and still others can tell what these languages mean.

<sup>11</sup>But it is the Spirit who does all this and decides which gifts to give to each of us.

One body with many parts

<sup>12</sup>The body of Christ has many different parts, just as any other body does.

<sup>13</sup>Some of us are Jews, and others are Gentiles. Some of us are slaves, and others are free. But God's Spirit baptized each of us and made us part of the body of Christ. Now we each drink from that same Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>Our bodies don't have just one part. They have many parts.

<sup>15</sup>Suppose a foot says, "I'm not a hand, and so I'm not part of the body." Wouldn't the foot still belong to the body?

<sup>16</sup>Or suppose an ear says, "I'm not an eye, and so I'm not part of the body." Wouldn't the ear still belong to the body?

<sup>17</sup>If our bodies were only an eye, we couldn't hear a thing. And if they were only an ear, we couldn't smell a thing.

<sup>18</sup>But God has put all parts of our body together in the way that he decided is best.

<sup>19</sup>A body isn't really a body, unless there is more than one part.

<sup>20</sup>It takes many parts to make a single body.

<sup>21</sup>That's why the eyes cannot say they don't need the hands. That's also why the head cannot say it doesn't need the feet.

<sup>22</sup>In fact, we cannot get along without the parts of the body that seem to be the weakest.

<sup>23</sup>We take special care to dress up some parts of our bodies. We are modest about our personal parts, <sup>24</sup>but we don't have to be modest about other parts. God put our bodies together in such a way that even the parts that seem the least important are valuable.

<sup>25</sup>He did this to make all parts of the body work together smoothly, with each part caring about the others.

<sup>26</sup>If one part of our body hurts, we hurt all over. If one part of our body is honoured, the whole body will be happy.

<sup>27</sup>Together you are the body of Christ. Each one of you is part of his body.

<sup>28</sup>First, God chose some people to be apostles and prophets and teachers for the church. But he also chose some to perform miracles or heal the sick or help others or be leaders or speak different kinds of languages.

<sup>29</sup>Not everyone is an apostle. Not everyone is a prophet. Not everyone is a teacher. Not everyone can perform miracles.

<sup>30</sup>Not everyone can heal the sick. Not everyone can speak different kinds of languages. Not everyone can tell what these languages mean.

<sup>31</sup>I want you to desire the best gifts. So I will show you a much better way.

1 Corinthians 13

Love

<sup>1</sup>What if I could speak all languages of humans and of angels? If I did not love others, I would be nothing more than a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

<sup>2</sup>What if I could prophesy and understand all secrets and all knowledge? And what if I had faith that moved mountains? I would be nothing, unless I loved others.

<sup>3</sup>What if I gave away all that I owned and let myself be burnt alive? I would gain nothing, unless I loved others.

<sup>4</sup>Love is kind and patient, never jealous, boastful, proud, or

<sup>5</sup>rude. Love isn't selfish or quick-tempered. It doesn't keep a record of wrongs that others do.

<sup>6</sup>Love rejoices in the truth, but not in evil.

<sup>7</sup>Love is always supportive, loyal, hopeful, and trusting.

<sup>8</sup>Love never fails! Everyone who prophesies will stop, and unknown languages will no longer be spoken. All that we know will be forgotten.

<sup>9</sup>We don't know everything, and our prophecies are not complete.

<sup>10</sup>But what is perfect will some day appear, and what isn't perfect will then disappear.

<sup>11</sup>When we were children, we thought and reasoned as children do. But when we grew up, we stopped our childish ways.

<sup>12</sup>Now all we can see of God is like a cloudy picture in a mirror. Later we will see him face to face. We don't know everything, but then we will, just as God completely understands us.

<sup>13</sup>For now there are faith, hope, and love. But of these three, the greatest is love.

1 Corinthians 14

Speaking unknown languages and prophesying

<sup>1</sup>Love should be your guide. Be eager to have the gifts that come from the Holy Spirit, especially the gift of prophecy.

<sup>2</sup>If you speak languages that others don't know, God will understand what you are saying, though no one else will know what you mean. You will be talking about mysteries that only the Spirit understands.

<sup>3</sup>But when you prophesy, you will be understood, and others will be helped. They will be encouraged and made to feel better.

<sup>4</sup>By speaking languages that others don't know, you help only yourself. But by prophesying you help everyone in the church.

<sup>5</sup>I am glad for you to speak unknown languages, although I would rather you prophesied. In fact, prophesying does much more good than speaking unknown languages, unless someone can help the church by explaining what you mean.

<sup>6</sup>My friends, what good would it do, if I came and spoke unknown languages to you and didn't explain what I meant? How would I help you, unless I told you what God had shown me or gave you some knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

<sup>7</sup>If all musical instruments sounded alike, how would you know the difference between a flute and a harp?

<sup>8</sup>If a bugle call isn't clear, how would you know to get ready for battle?

<sup>9</sup>That's how it is when you speak unknown languages. If no one can understand what you are talking about, you will only be talking to the wind.

<sup>10</sup>There are many different languages in this world, and all of them make sense.

<sup>11</sup>But if I don't understand the language that someone is using, we will be like foreigners to each other.

<sup>12</sup>If you really want spiritual gifts, choose the ones that will be most helpful to the church.

<sup>13</sup>When we speak languages that others don't know, we should pray for the power to explain what we mean.

<sup>14</sup>For example, if I use an unknown language in my prayers, my spirit prays but my mind is useless.

<sup>15</sup>Then what should I do? There are times when I should pray with my spirit, and times when I should pray with my mind. Sometimes I should sing with my spirit, and at other times I should sing with my mind.

<sup>16</sup>Suppose some strangers are in your worship service, when you are praising God with your spirit. If they don't understand you, how will they know to say, "Amen"?

<sup>17</sup>You may be worshipping God in a wonderful way, but no one else will be helped.

<sup>18</sup>I thank God that I speak unknown languages more than any of you.

<sup>19</sup>But words that make sense can help the church. That's why in church I had rather speak five words that make sense than to speak ten thousand words in a language that others don't know.

<sup>20</sup>My friends, stop thinking like children. Think like mature people and be as innocent as tiny babies.

<sup>21</sup>In the Scriptures the Lord says, "I will use strangers who speak unknown languages to talk to my people. They will speak to them in foreign languages, but still my people won't listen to me."

<sup>22</sup>Languages that others don't know may mean something to unbelievers, but not to the Lord's followers. Prophecy, on the other hand, is for followers, not for unbelievers.

<sup>23</sup>Suppose everyone in your worship service started speaking unknown languages, and some outsiders or some unbelievers come in. Won't they think you are mad?

<sup>24</sup>But suppose all of you are prophesying when those unbelievers and outsiders come in. They will realize that they are sinners, and they will want to change their ways because of what you are saying.

<sup>25</sup>They will tell what is hidden in their hearts. Then they will kneel down and say to God, "We are certain that you are with these people."

Worship must be orderly

<sup>26</sup>My friends, when you meet to worship, you must do everything for the good of everyone there. That's how it should be when someone sings or teaches or tells what God has said or speaks an unknown language or explains what the language means.

<sup>27</sup>No more than two or three of you should speak unknown languages during the meeting. You must take turns, and someone should always be there to explain what you mean.

<sup>28</sup>If no one can explain, you must keep silent in church and speak only to yourself and to God.

<sup>29</sup>Two or three persons may prophesy, and everyone else must listen carefully.

<sup>30</sup>If someone sitting there receives a message from God, the speaker must stop and let the other person speak.

<sup>31</sup>Let only one person speak at a time, then all of you will learn something and be encouraged.

<sup>32</sup>A prophet should be willing to stop and let someone else speak.

<sup>33</sup>God wants everything to be done peacefully and in order. When God's people meet in church, <sup>34</sup>the women must not be allowed to speak. They must keep quiet and listen, as the Law of Moses teaches.

<sup>35</sup>If there is something they want to know, they can ask their husbands when they get home. It is disgraceful for women to speak in church.

<sup>36</sup>God's message did not start with you people, and you are not the only ones it has reached.

<sup>37</sup>If you think of yourself as a prophet or a spiritual person, you will know that I am writing only what the Lord has commanded.

<sup>38</sup>So don't pay attention to anyone who ignores what I am writing.

<sup>39</sup>My friends, be eager to prophesy and don't stop anyone from speaking languages that others don't know.

<sup>40</sup>But do everything properly and in order.

1 Corinthians 15

Christ's victory over death Christ was raised to life

<sup>1</sup>My friends, I want you to remember the message that I preached and that you believed and trusted.

<sup>2</sup>You will be saved by this message, if you hold firmly to it. But if you don't, your faith was all for nothing.

<sup>3</sup>I told you the most important part of the message exactly as it was told to me. That part is: Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures say.

<sup>4</sup>He was buried, and three days later he was raised to life, as the Scriptures say.

<sup>5</sup>Christ appeared to Peter, then to the twelve.

<sup>6</sup>After this, he appeared to more than five hundred other followers. Most of them are still alive, but some have died.

<sup>7</sup>He also appeared to James, and then to all the apostles.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, he appeared to me, even though I am like someone who was born at the wrong time.

<sup>9</sup>I am the least important of all the apostles. In fact, I caused so much trouble for God's church that I don't even deserve to be called an apostle.

<sup>10</sup>But God was kind! He made me what I am, and his wonderful kindness wasn't wasted. I worked much harder than any of the other apostles, although it was really God's kindness at work and not me.

<sup>11</sup>But it doesn't matter if I preached or if they preached. All of you believed the message just the same.

God's people will be raised to life

<sup>12</sup>If we preach that Christ was raised from death, how can some of you say that the dead will not be raised to life?

<sup>13</sup>If they won't be raised to life, Christ himself wasn't raised to life.

<sup>14</sup>And if Christ wasn't raised to life, our message is worthless, and so is your faith.

<sup>15</sup>If the dead won't be raised to life, we have told lies about God by saying that he raised Christ to life, when he really did not.

<sup>16</sup>So if the dead won't be raised to life, Christ wasn't raised to life.

<sup>17</sup>Unless Christ was raised to life, your faith is useless, and you are still living in your sins.

<sup>18</sup>And those people who died after putting their faith in him are completely lost.

<sup>19</sup>If our hope in Christ is good only for this life, we are worse off than anyone else.

<sup>20</sup>But Christ has been raised to life! And he makes us certain that others will also be raised to life.

<sup>21</sup>Just as we will die because of Adam, we will be raised to life because of Christ.

<sup>22</sup>Adam brought death to all of us, and Christ will bring life to all of us.

<sup>23</sup>But we must each wait our turn. Christ was the first to be raised to life, and his people will be raised to life when he returns.

<sup>24</sup>Then after Christ has destroyed all powers and forces, the end will come, and he will give the kingdom to God the Father.

<sup>25</sup>Christ will rule until he puts all his enemies under his power, <sup>26</sup>and the last enemy he destroys will be death.

<sup>27</sup>When the Scriptures say that he will put everything under his power, they don't include God. It was God who put everything under the power of Christ.

<sup>28</sup>After everything is under the power of God's Son, he will put himself under the power of God, who put everything under his Son's power. Then God will mean everything to everyone.

<sup>29</sup>If the dead are not going to be raised to life, what will people do who are being baptized for them? Why are they being baptized for those dead people?

<sup>30</sup>And why do we always risk our lives

<sup>31</sup>and face death every day? The pride that I have in you because of Christ Jesus our Lord is what makes me say this.

<sup>32</sup>What do you think I gained by fighting wild animals in Ephesus? If the dead are not raised to life, “Let's eat and drink. Tomorrow we die.”

<sup>33</sup>Don't fool yourselves. Bad friends will destroy you.

<sup>34</sup>Be sensible and stop sinning. You should be embarrassed that some people still don't know about God.

What our bodies will be like

<sup>35</sup>Some of you have asked, “How will the dead be raised to life? What kind of bodies will they have?”

<sup>36</sup>Don't be foolish. A seed must die before it can sprout from the ground.

<sup>37</sup>Wheat seeds and all other seeds look different from the sprouts that come up.

<sup>38</sup>This is because God gives everything the kind of body he wants it to have.

<sup>39</sup>People, animals, birds, and fish are each made of flesh, but none of them are alike.

<sup>40</sup>Everything in the heavens has a body, and so does everything on earth. But each one is very different from all the others.

<sup>41</sup>The sun isn't like the moon, the moon isn't like the stars, and each star is different.

<sup>42</sup>That's how it will be when our bodies are raised to life. These bodies will die, but the bodies that are raised will live for ever.

<sup>43</sup>These ugly and weak bodies will become beautiful and strong.

<sup>44</sup>As there are physical bodies, there are spiritual bodies. And our physical bodies will be changed into spiritual bodies.

<sup>45</sup>The first man was named Adam, and the Scriptures tell us that he was a living person. But Jesus, who may be called the last Adam, is a life-giving spirit.

<sup>46</sup>We see that the one with a spiritual body did not come first. He came after the one who had a physical body.

<sup>47</sup>The first man was made from the dust of the earth, but the second man came from heaven.

<sup>48</sup>Everyone on earth has a body like the body of the one who was made from the dust of the earth. And everyone in heaven has a body like the body of the one who came from heaven.

<sup>49</sup>Just as we are like the one who was made out of earth, we will be like the one who came from heaven.

<sup>50</sup>My friends, I want you to know that our bodies of flesh and blood will decay. This means that they cannot share in God's kingdom, which lasts for ever.

<sup>51</sup>I will explain a mystery to you. Not every one of us will die, but we will all be changed.

<sup>52</sup>It will happen suddenly, quicker than the blink of an eye. At the sound of the last trumpet the dead will be raised. We will all be changed, so that we will never die again.

<sup>53</sup>Our dead and decaying bodies will be changed into bodies that won't die or decay.

<sup>54</sup>The bodies we now have are weak and can die. But they will be changed into bodies that are eternal. Then the Scriptures will come true, "Death has lost the battle!

<sup>55</sup>Where is its victory? Where is its sting?"

<sup>56</sup>Sin is what gives death its sting, and the Law is the power behind sin.

<sup>57</sup>But thank God for letting our Lord Jesus Christ give us the victory!

<sup>58</sup>My dear friends, stand firm and don't be shaken. Always keep busy working for the Lord. You know that everything you do for him is worthwhile.

1 Corinthians 16

An offering for the poor A collection for God's people

<sup>1</sup> When you collect money for God's people, I want you to do exactly what I told the churches in Galatia to do.

<sup>2</sup> That is, each Sunday each of you must put aside part of what you have earned. If you do this, you won't have to take up a collection when I come.

<sup>3</sup> Choose some followers to take the money to Jerusalem. I will send them on with the money and with letters which show that you approve of them.

<sup>4</sup> If you think I should go along, they can go with me.

Paul's travel plans

<sup>5</sup> After I have gone through Macedonia, I hope to see you

<sup>6</sup> and stay with you for a while. I may even stay all winter, so that you can help me on my way to wherever I will be going next.

<sup>7</sup> If the Lord lets me, I would rather come later for a longer visit than to stop off now for only a short visit.

<sup>8</sup> I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

<sup>9</sup> because there is a wonderful opportunity for me to do some work here. But there are also many people who are against me.

<sup>10</sup> When Timothy arrives, give him a friendly welcome. He is doing the Lord's work, just as I am.

<sup>11</sup> Don't let anyone ill-treat him. I am looking for him to return to me together with the other followers. So when he leaves, send him off with your blessings.

<sup>12</sup> I have tried hard to get our friend Apollos to visit you with the other followers. He doesn't want to come just now, but he will come when he can.

Personal concerns and greetings

<sup>13</sup> Keep alert. Be firm in your faith. Stay brave and strong.

<sup>14</sup> Show love in everything you do.

<sup>15</sup>You know that Stephanas and his family were the first in Achaia to have faith in the Lord. They have done all they can for God's people. My friends, I ask you

<sup>16</sup>to obey leaders like them and to do the same for all others who work hard with you.

<sup>17</sup>I was glad to see Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus. Having them here was like having you.

<sup>18</sup>They made me feel much better, just as they made you feel better. You should appreciate people like them.

<sup>19</sup>Greetings from the churches in Asia. Aquila and Priscilla, together with the church that meets in their house, send greetings in the name of the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>All the Lord's followers send their greetings. Give each other a warm greeting.

<sup>21</sup>I am signing this letter myself: PAUL.

<sup>22</sup>I pray that God will put a curse on everyone who doesn't love the Lord. And may the Lord come soon.

<sup>23</sup>I pray that the Lord Jesus will be kind to you.

<sup>24</sup>I love everyone who belongs to Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians 1

Paul gives thanks to God

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, and from Timothy, who is also a follower. To God's church in Corinth and to all God's people in Achaia.

<sup>2</sup>I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

Paul gives thanks

<sup>3</sup>Praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! The Father is a merciful God, who always gives us comfort.

<sup>4</sup>He comforts us when we are in trouble, so that we can share that same comfort with others in trouble.

<sup>5</sup>We share in the terrible sufferings of Christ, but also in the wonderful comfort he gives.

<sup>6</sup>We suffer in the hope that you will be comforted and saved. And because we are comforted, you will also be comforted, as you patiently endure suffering like ours.

<sup>7</sup>You never disappoint us. You suffered as much as we did, and we know that you will be comforted as we were.

<sup>8</sup>My friends, I want you to know what a hard time we had in Asia. Our sufferings were so horrible and so unbearable that death seemed certain.

<sup>9</sup>In fact, we felt sure that we were going to die. But this made us stop trusting in ourselves and start trusting God, who raises the dead to life.

<sup>10</sup>God saved us from the threat of death, and we are sure that he will do it again and again.

<sup>11</sup>Please help us by praying for us. Then many people will give thanks for the blessings we receive in answer to all these prayers.

The work of an apostle for God's people

Paul's change of plans

<sup>12</sup>We can be proud of our clear conscience. We have always lived honestly and sincerely, especially when we were with you. And we were guided by God's wonderful kindness instead of by the wisdom of this world.

<sup>13</sup>I am not writing anything you cannot read and understand. I hope you will understand it completely,

<sup>14</sup>just as you already partly understand us. Then when our Lord Jesus returns, you can be as proud of us as we are of you.

<sup>15</sup>I was so sure of your pride in us that I had planned to visit you first of all. In this way you would have the blessing of two visits from me.

<sup>16</sup>Once on my way to Macedonia and again on my return from there. Then you could send me on to Judea.

<sup>17</sup>Do you think I couldn't make up my mind about what to do? Or do I seem like someone who says "Yes" or "No" simply to please others?

<sup>18</sup>God can be trusted, and so can I, when I say that our answer to you has always been "Yes" and never "No".

<sup>19</sup>This is because Jesus Christ the Son of God is always "Yes" and never "No". And he is the one that Silas, Timothy, and I told you about.

<sup>20</sup>Christ says "Yes" to all of God's promises. That's why we have Christ to say "Amen" for us to the glory of God.

<sup>21</sup>And so God makes it possible for you and us to stand firmly together with Christ. God is also the one who chose us

<sup>22</sup>and put his Spirit in our hearts to show that we belong only to him.

<sup>23</sup>God is my witness that I stayed away from Corinth, just to keep from being hard on you.

<sup>24</sup>We are not bosses who tell you what to believe. We are working with you to make you glad, because your faith is strong.

2 Corinthians 2

<sup>1</sup>I have decided not to make my next visit to you so painful.

<sup>2</sup>If I make you feel bad, who would be left to cheer me up, except the people I had made to feel bad?

<sup>3</sup>The reason I want to be happy is to make you happy. I wrote as I did because I didn't want to visit you and be made to feel bad, when you should make me feel happy.

<sup>4</sup>At the time I wrote, I was suffering terribly. My eyes were full of tears, and my heart was broken. But I didn't want to make you feel bad. I only wanted to let you know how much I cared for you.

Forgiveness

<sup>5</sup>I don't want to be hard on you. But if one of you has made someone feel bad, I am not really the one who has been made to feel bad. Some of you are the ones.

<sup>6</sup>Most of you have already pointed out the wrong that person did, and that is punishment enough for what was done.

<sup>7</sup>When people sin, you should forgive and comfort them, so they won't give up in despair.

<sup>8</sup>You should make them sure of your love for them.

<sup>9</sup>I also wrote because I wanted to test you and find out if you would follow my instructions.

<sup>10</sup>I will forgive anyone you forgive. Yes, for your sake and with Christ as my witness, I have forgiven whatever needed to be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>I have done this to keep Satan from getting the better of us. We all know what goes on in his mind.

<sup>12</sup>When I went to Troas to preach the good news about Christ, I found that the Lord had already prepared the way.

<sup>13</sup>But I was worried when I didn't find my friend Titus there. So I left the other followers and went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>I am grateful that God always makes it possible for Christ to lead us to victory. God also helps us spread the knowledge about Christ everywhere, and this knowledge is like the smell of perfume.

<sup>15-16</sup>In fact, God thinks of us as a perfume that brings Christ to everyone. For people who are being saved, this perfume has a sweet smell and leads them to a better life. But for people who are lost, it has a bad smell and leads them to a horrible death. No one really has what it takes to do this work.

<sup>17</sup>A lot of people try to get rich from preaching God's message. But we are God's sincere messengers, and by the power of Christ we speak our message with God as our witness.

2 Corinthians 3

Guided by the love of Christ God's new agreement

<sup>1</sup>Are we once again boasting about ourselves? Do we need letters to you or from you to tell others about us? Some people do need letters that tell about them.

<sup>2</sup>But you are our letter, and you are in our hearts for everyone to read and understand.

<sup>3</sup>You are like a letter written by Christ and delivered by us. But you are not written with pen and ink or on tablets made of stone. You are written in our hearts by the Spirit of the living God.

<sup>4</sup>We are sure about all this. Christ makes us sure in the very presence of God.

<sup>5</sup>We don't have the right to claim that we have done anything on our own. God gives us what it takes to do all that we do.

<sup>6</sup>He makes us worthy to be the servants of his new agreement that comes from the Holy Spirit and not from a written Law. After all, the Law brings death, but the Spirit brings life.

<sup>7</sup>The Law of Moses brought only the promise of death, even though it was carved on stones and given in a wonderful way. Still the Law made Moses' face shine so brightly that the people of Israel could not look at it, even though it was a fading glory.

<sup>8</sup>So won't the agreement that the Spirit brings to us be even more wonderful?

<sup>9</sup>If something that brings the death sentence is glorious, won't something that makes us acceptable to God be even more glorious?

<sup>10</sup>In fact, the new agreement is so wonderful that the Law is no longer glorious at all.

<sup>11</sup>The Law was given with a glory that faded away. But the glory of the new agreement is much greater, because it will never fade away.

<sup>12</sup>This wonderful hope makes us feel like speaking freely.

<sup>13</sup>We are not like Moses. His face was shining, but he covered it to keep the people of Israel from seeing the brightness fade away.

<sup>14</sup>The people were stubborn, and something still keeps them from seeing the truth when the Law is read. Only Christ can take away the covering that keeps them from seeing.

<sup>15</sup>When the Law of Moses is read, they have their minds covered over

<sup>16</sup>with a covering that is removed only for those who turn to the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord and the Spirit are one and the same, and the Lord's Spirit sets us free.

<sup>18</sup>So our faces are not covered. They show the bright glory of the Lord, as the Lord's Spirit makes us more and more like our glorious Lord.

2 Corinthians 4

Treasure in clay jars

<sup>1</sup>God has been kind enough to trust us with this work. That's why we never give up.

<sup>2</sup>We don't do shameful things that must be kept secret. And we don't try to fool anyone or twist God's message around. God is our witness that we speak only the truth, so others will be sure that we can be trusted.

<sup>3</sup>If there is anything hidden about our message, it is hidden only to someone who is lost.

<sup>4</sup>The god who rules this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers. They cannot see the light, which is the good news about our glorious Christ, who shows what God is like.

<sup>5</sup>We are not preaching about ourselves. Our message is that Jesus Christ is Lord. He also sent us to be your servants.

<sup>6</sup>The Scriptures say, "God commanded light to shine in the dark." Now God is shining in our hearts to let you know that his glory is seen in Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>We are like clay jars in which this treasure is stored. The real power comes from God and not from us.

<sup>8</sup>We often suffer, but we are never crushed. Even when we don't know what to do, we never give up.

<sup>9</sup>In times of trouble, God is with us, and when we are knocked down, we get up again.

<sup>10-11</sup>We face death every day because of Jesus. Our bodies show what his death was like, so that his life can also be seen in us.

<sup>12</sup>This means that death is working in us, but life is working in you.

<sup>13</sup>In the Scriptures it says, "I spoke because I had faith." We have that same kind of faith. So we speak

<sup>14</sup>because we know that God raised the Lord Jesus to life. And just as God raised Jesus, he will also raise us to life. Then he will bring us into his presence together with you.

<sup>15</sup>All this has been done for you, so that more and more people will know how kind God is and will praise and honour him.

Faith in the Lord

<sup>16</sup>We never give up. Our bodies are gradually dying, but we ourselves are being made stronger each day.

<sup>17</sup>These little troubles are getting us ready for an eternal glory that will make all our troubles seem like nothing.

<sup>18</sup>Things that are seen don't last for ever, but things that are not seen are eternal. That's why we keep our minds on the things that cannot be seen.

2 Corinthians 5

<sup>1</sup>Our bodies are like tents that we live in here on earth. But when these tents are destroyed, we know that God will give each of us a place to live. These homes will not be buildings that someone has made, but they are in heaven and will last for ever.

<sup>2</sup>While we are here on earth, we sigh because we want to live in that heavenly home.

<sup>3</sup>We want to put it on like clothes and not be naked.

<sup>4</sup>These tents we now live in are like a heavy burden, and we groan. But we don't do this just because we want to leave these bodies that will die. It is because we want to change them for bodies that will never die.

<sup>5</sup>God is the one who makes all this possible. He has given us his Spirit to make us certain that he will do it.

<sup>6</sup>So always be cheerful! As long as we are in these bodies, we are away from the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>But we live by faith, not by what we see.

<sup>8</sup>We should be cheerful, because we would rather leave these bodies and be at home with the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>But whether we are at home with the Lord or away from him, we still try our best to please him.

<sup>10</sup>After all, Christ will judge each of us for the good or the bad that we do while living in these bodies.

Bringing people to God

<sup>11</sup>We know what it means to respect the Lord, and we encourage everyone to turn to him. God himself knows what we are like, and I hope you also know what kind of people we are.

<sup>12</sup>We are not trying once more to boast about ourselves. But we want you to be proud of us, when you are with those who are not sincere and boast about what others think of them.

<sup>13</sup>If we seem out of our minds, it is between God and us. But if we are in our right minds, it is for your good.

<sup>14</sup>We are ruled by Christ's love for us. We are certain that if one person died for everyone else, then all of us have died.

<sup>15</sup>And Christ did die for all of us. He died so we would no longer live for ourselves, but for the one who died and was raised to life for us.

<sup>16</sup>We are careful not to judge people by what they seem to be, though we once judged Christ in that way.

<sup>17</sup>Anyone who belongs to Christ is a new person. The past is forgotten, and everything is new.

<sup>18</sup>God has done it all! He sent Christ to make peace between himself and us, and he has given us the work of making peace between himself and others.

<sup>19</sup>What we mean is that God was in Christ, offering peace and forgiveness to the people of this world. And he has given us the work of sharing his message about peace.

<sup>20</sup>We were sent to speak for Christ, and God is begging you to listen to our message. We speak for Christ and sincerely ask you to make peace with God.

<sup>21</sup>Christ never sinned! But God treated him as a sinner, so that Christ could make us acceptable to God.

2 Corinthians 6

<sup>1</sup>We work together with God, and we beg you to make good use of God's kindness to you.

<sup>2</sup>In the Scriptures God says, "When the time came, I listened to you, and when you needed help, I came to save you." That time has come. This is the day for you to be saved.

<sup>3</sup>We don't want anyone to find fault with our work, and so we try hard not to cause problems.

<sup>4</sup>But in everything and in every way we show that we truly are God's servants. We have always been patient, though we have had a lot of trouble, suffering, and hard times.

<sup>5</sup>We have been beaten, put in jail, and hurt in riots. We have worked hard and have gone without sleep or food.

<sup>6</sup>But we have kept ourselves pure and have been understanding, patient, and kind. The Holy Spirit has been with us, and our love has been real.

<sup>7</sup>We have spoken the truth, and God's power has worked in us. In all our struggles we have said and done only what is right.

<sup>8</sup>Whether we were honoured or dishonoured or praised or cursed, we always told the truth about ourselves. But some people said we did not.

<sup>9</sup>We are unknown to others, but well known to you. We seem to be dying, and yet we are still alive. We have been punished, but never killed,

<sup>10</sup>and we are always happy, even in times of suffering. Although we are poor, we have made many people rich. And though we own nothing, everything is ours.

<sup>11</sup>Friends in Corinth, we are telling the truth when we say that there is room in our hearts for you.

<sup>12</sup>We are not holding back on our love for you, but you are holding back on your love for us.

<sup>13</sup>I speak to you as I would speak to my own children. Please make room in your hearts for us.

The temple of the living God

<sup>14</sup>Stay away from people who are not followers of the Lord! Can someone who is good get along with someone who is evil? Are light and darkness the same?

<sup>15</sup>Is Christ a friend of Satan? Can people who follow the Lord have anything in common with those who don't?

<sup>16</sup>Do idols belong in the temple of God? We are the temple of the living God, as God himself says, "I will live with these people and walk among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people."

<sup>17</sup>The Lord also says, "Leave them and stay away! Don't touch anything that isn't clean. Then I will welcome you

<sup>18</sup>and be your Father. You will be my sons and my daughters, as surely as I am God, the All-Powerful."

2 Corinthians 7

<sup>1</sup>My friends, God has made us these promises. So we should stay away from everything that keeps our bodies and spirits from being clean. We should honour God and try to be completely like him.

The church makes Paul happy

<sup>2</sup>Make a place for us in your hearts! We haven't ill-treated or hurt anyone. We haven't cheated anyone.

<sup>3</sup>I am not saying this to be hard on you. But, as I have said before, you will always be in our thoughts, whether we live or die.

<sup>4</sup>I trust you completely. I am always proud of you, and I am greatly encouraged. In all my trouble I am still very happy.

<sup>5</sup>After we came to Macedonia, we didn't have any chance to rest. We were faced with all kinds of problems. We were troubled by enemies and troubled by fears.

<sup>6</sup>But God cheers up people in need, and that is what he did when he sent Titus to us.

<sup>7</sup>Of course, we were glad to see Titus, but what really made us glad is the way you cheered him up. He told how sorry you were and how concerned you were about me. And this made me even happier.

<sup>8</sup>I don't feel bad any more, even though my letter hurt your feelings. I did feel bad at first, but I don't now. I know that the letter hurt you for a while.

<sup>9</sup>Now I am happy, but not because I hurt your feelings. It is because God used your hurt feelings to make you turn back to him, and none of you were harmed by us.

<sup>10</sup>When God makes you feel sorry enough to turn to him and be saved, you don't have anything to feel bad about. But when this world makes you feel sorry, it can cause your death.

<sup>11</sup>Just look what God has done by making you feel sorry! You sincerely want to prove that you are innocent. You are angry. You are shocked. You are eager to see that justice is done. You have proved that you were completely right in this matter.

<sup>12</sup>When I wrote to you, it wasn't to accuse the one who was wrong or to stand up for the one who was hurt. I wrote, so that God would show you how much you do care for us.

<sup>13</sup>And we were greatly encouraged. Although we were encouraged, we felt even better when we saw how happy Titus was, because you had shown that he had nothing to worry about.

<sup>14</sup>We had told him how much we thought of you, and you did not disappoint us. Just as we have always told you the truth, so everything we told him about you has also proved to be true.

<sup>15</sup>Titus loves all of you very much, especially when he remembers how you obeyed him and how you trembled with fear when you welcomed him.

<sup>16</sup>It makes me really glad to know that I can depend on you.

2 Corinthians 8

Gifts for the poor Generous giving

<sup>1</sup>My friends, we want you to know that the churches in Macedonia have shown others how kind God is.

<sup>2</sup>Although they were going through hard times and were very poor, they were glad to give generously.

<sup>3</sup>They gave as much as they could afford and even more, simply because they wanted to.

<sup>4</sup>They even asked and begged us to let them have the joy of giving their money for God's people.

<sup>5</sup>And they did more than we had hoped. They gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us, just as God wanted them to do.

<sup>6</sup>Titus was the one who got you started doing this good thing, so we begged him to help you finish what you had begun.

<sup>7</sup>You do everything better than anyone else. You have stronger faith. You speak better and know more. You are eager to give, and you love us better. Now you must give more generously than anyone else.

<sup>8</sup>I am not ordering you to do this. I am simply testing how real your love is by comparing it with the concern that others have shown.

<sup>9</sup>You know that our Lord Jesus Christ was kind enough to give up all his riches and become poor, so that you could become rich.

<sup>10</sup>A year ago you were the first ones to give, and you gave because you wanted to. So listen to my advice.

<sup>11</sup>I think you should finish what you started. If you give according to what you have, you will prove that you are as eager to give as you were to think about giving.

<sup>12</sup>It doesn't matter how much you have. What matters is how much you are willing to give from what you have.

<sup>13</sup>I am not trying to make life easier for others by making life harder for you. But it is only fair

<sup>14</sup>for you to share with them when you have so much, and they have so little. Later, when they have more than enough, and you are in need, they can share with you. Then everyone will have a fair share,

<sup>15</sup>just as the Scriptures say, "Those who gathered too much had nothing left. Those who gathered only a little had all they needed."

Titus and his friends

<sup>16</sup>I am grateful that God made Titus care as much about you as we do.

<sup>17</sup>When we begged Titus to visit you, he said he would. He wanted to because he cared so much for you.

<sup>18</sup>With Titus we are also sending one of the Lord's followers who is well known in every church for spreading the good news.

<sup>19</sup>The churches chose this follower to travel with us while we carry this gift that will bring praise to the Lord and show how much we hope to help.

<sup>20</sup>We don't want anyone to find fault with the way we handle your generous gift.

<sup>21</sup>But we want to do what pleases the Lord and what people think is right.

<sup>22</sup>We are also sending someone else with Titus and the other follower. We approve of this man. In fact, he has already shown us many times that he wants to help. And now he wants to help even more than ever, because he trusts you so much.

<sup>23</sup>Titus is my partner, who works with me to serve you. The other two followers are sent by the churches, and they bring honour to Christ.

<sup>24</sup>Treat them in such a way that the churches will see your love and will know why we boasted about you.

2 Corinthians 9

The money for God's people

<sup>1</sup>I don't need to write to you about the money you plan to give for God's people.

<sup>2</sup>I know how eager you are to give. And I have proudly told the Lord's followers in Macedonia that you people in Achaia have been ready for a whole year. Now your desire to give has made them want to give.

<sup>3</sup>That's why I am sending Titus and the two others to you. I want you to be ready, just as I promised. This will prove that we were not wrong to boast about you.

<sup>4</sup>Some followers from Macedonia may come with me, and I want them to find that you have the money ready. If you don't, I would be embarrassed for trusting you to do this. But you would be embarrassed even more.

<sup>5</sup>So I have decided to ask Titus and the others to spend some time with you before I arrive. This way they can arrange to collect the money you have promised. Then you will have the chance to give because you want to, and not because you feel forced to.

<sup>6</sup>Remember this saying, "A few seeds make a small harvest, but a lot of seeds make a big harvest."

<sup>7</sup>Each of you must make up your own mind about how much to give. But don't feel sorry that you must give and don't feel that you are forced to give. God loves people who love to give.

<sup>8</sup>God can bless you with everything you need, and you will always have more than enough to do all kinds of good things for others.

<sup>9</sup>The Scriptures say, “God freely gives his gifts to the poor, and always does right.”

<sup>10</sup>God gives seed to farmers and provides everyone with food. He will increase what you have, so that you can give even more to those in need.

<sup>11</sup>You will be blessed in every way, and you will be able to keep on being generous. Then many people will thank God when we deliver your gift.

<sup>12</sup>What you are doing is much more than a service that supplies God's people with what they need. It is something that will make many others thank God.

<sup>13</sup>The way in which you have proved yourselves by this service will bring honour and praise to God. You believed the message about Christ, and you obeyed it by sharing generously with God's people and with everyone else.

<sup>14</sup>Now they are praying for you and want to see you, because God used you to bless them so very much.

<sup>15</sup>Thank God for his gift that is too wonderful for words!

2 Corinthians 10

Paul is a true apostle Paul defends his work for Christ

<sup>1</sup>Do you think I am a coward when I am with you and brave when I am far away? Well, I ask you to listen, because Christ himself was humble and gentle.

<sup>2</sup>Some people have said that we act like the people of this world. So when I arrive, I expect I will have to be firm and forceful in what I say to them. Please don't make me treat you that way.

<sup>3</sup>We live in this world, but we don't act like its people

<sup>4</sup>or fight our battles with the weapons of this world. Instead, we use God's power that can destroy fortresses. We destroy arguments

<sup>5</sup>and every bit of pride that keeps anyone from knowing God. We capture people's thoughts and make them obey Christ.

<sup>6</sup>And when you completely obey him, we will punish anyone who refuses to obey.

<sup>7</sup>You judge by appearances. If any of you think you are the only ones who belong to Christ, then think again. We belong to Christ as much as you do.

<sup>8</sup>Perhaps I boast a little too much about the authority that the Lord gave me to help you and not to hurt you. Yet I am not embarrassed to boast.

<sup>9</sup>And I am not trying to scare you with my letters.

<sup>10</sup>Some of you are saying, "Paul's letters are harsh and powerful. But in person, he is a weakling and has nothing worth saying."

<sup>11</sup>Those people had better understand that when I am with you, I will do exactly what I say in my letters.

<sup>12</sup>We won't dare compare ourselves with those who think so much of themselves. But they are foolish to compare themselves with themselves.

<sup>13</sup>We won't boast about something we don't have a right to boast about. We will only boast about the work that God has sent us to do, and you are part of that work.

<sup>14</sup>We are not boasting more than we should. After all, we did bring the message about Christ to you.

<sup>15</sup>We don't boast about what others have done, as if we had done those things ourselves. But I hope that as you become stronger in your faith, we will be able to reach many more of the people around you. That has always been our goal.

<sup>16</sup>Then we will be able to preach the good news in other lands where we cannot take credit for work someone else has already done.

<sup>17</sup>The Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, then boast about the Lord."

<sup>18</sup>You may boast about yourself, but the only approval that counts is the Lord's approval.

2 Corinthians 11

Paul and the false apostles

- <sup>1</sup>Please put up with a little of my foolishness.
- <sup>2</sup>I am as concerned about you as God is. You were like a virgin bride I had chosen only for Christ.
- <sup>3</sup>But now I fear that you will be tricked, just as Eve was tricked by that lying snake. I am afraid that you might stop thinking about Christ in an honest and sincere way.
- <sup>4</sup>We told you about Jesus, and you received the Holy Spirit and accepted our message. But you let some people tell you about another Jesus. Now you are ready to receive another spirit and accept a different message.
- <sup>5</sup>I think I am as good as any of those super apostles.
- <sup>6</sup>I may not speak as well as they do, but I know as much. And this has already been made perfectly clear to you.
- <sup>7</sup>Was it wrong for me to lower myself and honour you by preaching God's message free of charge?
- <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches by taking money from them to serve you.
- <sup>9</sup>Even when I was in need, I still didn't bother you. In fact, some of the Lord's followers from Macedonia brought me what I needed. I have not been a burden to you in the past, and I will never be a burden.
- <sup>10</sup>As surely as I speak the truth about Christ, no one in Achaia can stop me from boasting about this.
- <sup>11</sup>And it isn't because I don't love you. God himself knows how much I do love you.
- <sup>12</sup>I plan to go on doing just what I have always done. Then those people won't be able to boast about doing the same things we are doing.
- <sup>13</sup>Anyway, they are no more than false apostles and dishonest workers. They only pretend to be apostles of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>And it is no wonder. Even Satan tries to make himself look like an angel of light.

<sup>15</sup>So why does it seem strange for Satan's servants to pretend to do what is right? Some day they will get exactly what they deserve.

Paul's sufferings for Christ

<sup>16</sup>I don't want any of you to think that I am a fool. But if you do, then let me be a fool and boast a little.

<sup>17</sup>When I do all this boasting, I do it as a fool and not for the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>Yet if others want to boast about what they have done, so will I.

<sup>19</sup>And since you are so clever, you will gladly put up with a fool.

<sup>20</sup>In fact, you let people make slaves of you and cheat you and steal from you. Why, you even let them strut around and slap you in the face.

<sup>21</sup>I am ashamed to say that we are too weak to behave in such a way. If they can boast, so can I, but it is a foolish thing to do.

<sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Jews? So am I. Are they from the family of Abraham? Well, so am I.

<sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ? I am a fool to talk this way, but I serve him better than they do. I have worked harder and have been put in jail more times. I have been beaten with whips more and have been in danger of death more often.

<sup>24</sup>Five times the Jews gave me thirty-nine lashes with a whip.

<sup>25</sup>Three times the Romans beat me with a big stick, and once my enemies stoned me. I have been shipwrecked three times, and I even had to spend a night and a day in the sea.

<sup>26</sup>During my many travels, I have been in danger from rivers, robbers, my own people, and foreigners. My life has been in danger in cities, in deserts, at sea, and with people who only pretended to be the Lord's followers.

<sup>27</sup>I have worked and struggled and spent many sleepless nights. I have gone hungry and thirsty and often had nothing to eat. I have been cold from not having enough clothes to keep me warm.

<sup>28</sup>Besides everything else, each day I am burdened down, worrying about all the churches.

<sup>29</sup>When others are weak, I am weak too. When others are tricked into sin, I get angry.

<sup>30</sup>If I have to boast, I will boast about how weak I am.

<sup>31</sup>God, the Father of our Lord Jesus, knows I am not lying. And God is to be praised for ever!

<sup>32</sup>The governor of Damascus at the time of King Aretas had the city gates guarded, so that he could capture me.

<sup>33</sup>But I escaped by being let down in a basket through a window in the city wall.

2 Corinthians 12

Visions from the Lord

<sup>1</sup>I have to boast. There is nothing to be gained by it, but I must boast about the visions and other things that the Lord has shown me.

<sup>2</sup>I know about one of Christ's followers who was taken up into the third heaven fourteen years ago. I don't know if the man was still in his body when it happened, but God certainly knows.

<sup>3</sup>As I said, only God really knows if this man was in his body at the time.

<sup>4</sup>But he was taken up into paradise, where he heard things that are too wonderful to tell.

<sup>5</sup>I will boast about that man, but not about myself, except to say how weak I am.

<sup>6</sup>Yet even if I did boast, I would not be foolish. I would simply be speaking the truth. But I will try not to say too much. That way, none of you will think more highly of me than you should because of what you have seen me do and say.

<sup>7</sup>Of course, I am now referring to the wonderful things I saw. One of Satan's angels was sent to make me suffer terribly, so that I would not feel too proud.

<sup>8</sup>Three times I begged the Lord to make this suffering go away.

<sup>9</sup>But he replied, "My kindness is all you need. My power is strongest when you are weak." So if Christ keeps giving me his power, I will gladly boast about how weak I am.

<sup>10</sup>Yes, I am glad to be weak or insulted or ill-treated or to have troubles and sufferings, if it is for Christ. Because when I am weak, I am strong.

Paul's concern for the Lord's followers at Corinth

<sup>11</sup>I have been making a fool of myself. But you forced me to do it, when you should have been speaking up for me. I may be nothing at all, but I am as good as those super apostles.

<sup>12</sup>When I was with you, I was patient and worked all the powerful miracles and signs and wonders of a true apostle.

<sup>13</sup>You missed out on only one blessing that the other churches received. That is, you didn't have to support me. Forgive me for doing you wrong.

<sup>14</sup>I am planning to visit you for the third time. But I still won't make a burden of myself. What I really want is you, and not what you have. Children are not supposed to save up for their parents, but parents are supposed to take care of their children.

<sup>15</sup>So I will gladly give all that I have and all that I am. Will you love me less for loving you too much?

<sup>16</sup>You agree that I wasn't a burden to you. Perhaps that's because I was trying to catch you off guard and trick you.

<sup>17</sup>Were you cheated by any of those I sent to you?

<sup>18</sup>I urged Titus to visit you, and I sent another follower with him. But Titus didn't cheat you, and we felt and behaved the same way he did.

<sup>19</sup>Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? Actually, we have been speaking to God as followers of Christ. But, my friends, we did it all for your good.

<sup>20</sup>I am afraid that when I come, we won't be pleased with each other. I fear that some of you may be arguing or jealous or angry or selfish or gossiping or insulting each other. I even fear that you may be proud and acting like a mob.

<sup>21</sup>I am afraid God will make me ashamed when I visit you again. I will feel like crying because many of you have never given up your old sins. You are still doing things that are immoral, indecent, and shameful.

2 Corinthians 13

Final warnings and greetings

<sup>1</sup>I am on my way to visit you for the third time. And as the Scriptures say, "Any charges must be proved true by at least two or three witnesses."

<sup>2</sup>During my second visit I warned you that I would punish you and anyone else who doesn't stop sinning. I am far away from you now, but I give you the same warning.

<sup>3</sup>This should prove to you that I am speaking for Christ. When he corrects you, he won't be weak. He will be powerful!

<sup>4</sup>Although he was weak when he was nailed to the cross, he now lives by the power of God. We are weak, just as Christ was. But you will see that we will live by the power of God, just as Christ does.

<sup>5</sup>Test yourselves and find out if you really are true to your faith. If you pass the test, you will discover that Christ is living in you. But if Christ isn't living in you, you have failed.

<sup>6</sup>I hope you will discover that we have not failed.

<sup>7</sup>We pray that you will stop doing evil things. We don't pray like this to make ourselves look good, but to get you to do right, even if we are failures.

<sup>8</sup>All we can do is to follow the truth and not fight against it.

<sup>9</sup>Even though we are weak, we are glad that you are strong, and we pray that you will do even better.

<sup>10</sup>I am writing these things to you before I arrive. This way I won't have to be hard on you when I use the authority that the Lord has given me. I was given this authority, so that I could help you and not destroy you.

Final greetings

<sup>11</sup>Goodbye, my friends. Do better and pay attention to what I have said. Try to get along and live peacefully with each other. Now I pray that God, who gives love and peace, will be with you.

<sup>12</sup>Give each other a warm greeting. All God's people send their greetings.

<sup>13</sup>I pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will bless you and be kind to you! May God bless you with his love, and may the Holy Spirit join all your hearts together.

Galatians

Galatians 1

A true apostle and the true message

<sup>1-2</sup>From the apostle Paul and from all the Lord's followers with me. I was chosen to be an apostle by Jesus Christ and by God the Father, who raised him from death. No mere human chose or appointed me to this work. To the churches in Galatia.

<sup>3</sup>I pray that God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

<sup>4</sup>Christ obeyed God our Father and gave himself as a sacrifice for our sins to rescue us from this evil world.

<sup>5</sup>God will be given glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The only true message

<sup>6</sup>I am shocked that you have so quickly turned from God, who chose you because of his wonderful kindness. You have believed another message,

<sup>7</sup>when there is really only one true message. But some people are causing you trouble and want to make you turn away from the good news about Christ.

<sup>8</sup>I pray that God will punish anyone who preaches anything different from our message to you! It doesn't matter if that person is one of us or an angel from heaven.

<sup>9</sup>I have said it before, and I will say it again. I hope God will punish anyone who preaches anything different from what you have already believed.

<sup>10</sup>I am not trying to please people. I want to please God. Do you think I am trying to please people? If I were doing that, I would not be a servant of Christ.

God chose Paul to be an apostle How Paul became an apostle

<sup>11</sup>My friends, I want you to know that no one made up the message I preach.

<sup>12</sup>It wasn't given or taught to me by some mere human. My message came directly from Jesus Christ when he appeared to me.

<sup>13</sup>You know how I used to live as a Jew. I was cruel to God's church and even tried to destroy it.

<sup>14</sup>I was a much better Jew than anyone else my own age, and I obeyed every law that our ancestors had given us.

<sup>15</sup>But even before I was born, God had chosen me. He was kind and had decided <sup>16</sup>to show me his Son, so that I would announce his message to the Gentiles. I didn't talk this over with anyone.

<sup>17</sup>I didn't say a word, not even to the men in Jerusalem who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went at once to Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Three years later I went to visit Peter in Jerusalem and stayed with him for fifteen days.

<sup>19</sup>The only other apostle I saw was James, the Lord's brother.

<sup>20</sup>And in the presence of God I swear I am telling the truth.

<sup>21</sup>Later, I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

<sup>22</sup>But no one who belonged to Christ's churches in Judea had ever seen me in person.

<sup>23</sup>They had only heard that the one who had been cruel to them was now preaching the message that he had once tried to destroy.

<sup>24</sup>And because of me, they praised God.

Galatians 2

Paul defends his message

<sup>1</sup>Fourteen years later I went to Jerusalem with Barnabas. I also took along Titus.

<sup>2</sup>But I went there because God had told me to go, and I explained the good news that I had been preaching to the Gentiles. Then I met privately with the ones who seemed to be the most important leaders. I wanted to make sure that my work in the past and my future work would not be for nothing.

<sup>3</sup>Titus went to Jerusalem with me. He was a Greek, but still he wasn't forced to be circumcised.

<sup>4</sup>We went there because of those who pretended to be followers and had sneaked in among us as spies. They had come to take away the freedom that Christ Jesus had given us, and they were trying to make us their slaves.

<sup>5</sup>But we wanted you to have the true message. That's why we didn't give in to them, not even for a second.

<sup>6</sup>Some of them were supposed to be important leaders, but I didn't care who they were. God doesn't have any favourites! None of these so called special leaders added anything to my message.

<sup>7</sup>They realized that God had sent me with the good news for Gentiles, and that he had sent Peter with the same message for Jews.

<sup>8</sup>God, who had sent Peter on a mission to the Jews, was now using me to preach to the Gentiles.

<sup>9</sup>James, Peter, and John realized that God had given me the message about his undeserved kindness. And these men are supposed to be the backbone of the church. They even gave Barnabas and me a friendly handshake. This was to show that we would work with Gentiles and that they would work with Jews.

<sup>10</sup>They only asked us to remember the poor, and that was something I had always been eager to do.

Paul corrects Peter at Antioch

<sup>11</sup>When Peter came to Antioch, I told him face to face that he was wrong.

<sup>12</sup>He used to eat with Gentile followers of the Lord, until James sent some Jewish followers. Peter was afraid of the Jews and soon stopped eating with Gentiles.

<sup>13</sup>He and the other Jews hid their true feelings so well that even Barnabas was fooled.

<sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they were not really obeying the truth that is in the good news, I corrected Peter in front of everyone and said: Peter, you are a Jew, but you live like a Gentile. So how can you force Gentiles to live like Jews?

<sup>15</sup>We are Jews by birth and are not sinners like Gentiles.

<sup>16</sup>But we know that God accepts only those who have faith in Jesus Christ. No one can please God by simply obeying the Law. So we put our faith in Christ Jesus, and God accepted us because of our faith.

<sup>17</sup>When we Jews started looking for a way to please God, we discovered that we are sinners too. Does this mean that Christ is the one who makes us sinners? No, it doesn't!

<sup>18</sup>But if I tear down something and then build it again, I prove that I was wrong at first.

<sup>19</sup>It was the Law itself that killed me and freed me from its power, so that I could live for God. I have been nailed to the cross with Christ.

<sup>20</sup>I have died, but Christ lives in me. And I now live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave his life for me.

<sup>21</sup>I don't turn my back on God's undeserved kindness. If we can be acceptable to God by obeying the Law, it was useless for Christ to die.

Galatians 3

Faith is the only way to be saved

<sup>1</sup>You stupid Galatians! I told you exactly how Jesus Christ was nailed to a cross. Has someone now put an evil spell on you?

<sup>2</sup>I want to know only one thing. How were you given God's Spirit? Was it by obeying the Law of Moses or by hearing about Christ and having faith in him?

<sup>3</sup>How can you be so stupid? Do you think that by yourself you can complete what God's Spirit started in you?

<sup>4</sup>Have you gone through all this for nothing? Is it all really for nothing?

<sup>5</sup>God gives you his Spirit and works miracles in you. But does he do this because you obey the Law of Moses or because you have heard about Christ and have faith in him?

<sup>6</sup>The Scriptures say that God accepted Abraham because Abraham had faith.

<sup>7</sup>And so, you should understand that everyone who has faith is a child of Abraham.

<sup>8</sup>Long ago the Scriptures said that God would accept the Gentiles because of their faith. That's why God told Abraham the good news that all nations would be blessed because of him.

<sup>9</sup>This means that everyone who has faith will share in the blessings that were given to Abraham because of his faith.

<sup>10</sup>Anyone who tries to please God by obeying the Law is under a curse. The Scriptures say, "Everyone who doesn't obey everything in the Law is under a curse."

<sup>11</sup>No one can please God by obeying the Law. The Scriptures also say, "The people God accepts because of their faith will live."

<sup>12</sup>The Law isn't based on faith. It promises life only to people who obey its commands.

<sup>13</sup>But Christ rescued us from the Law's curse, when he became a curse in our place. This is because the Scriptures say that anyone who is nailed to a tree is under a curse.

<sup>14</sup>And because of what Jesus Christ has done, the blessing that was promised to Abraham was taken to the Gentiles. This happened so that by faith we would be given the promised Holy Spirit.

The Law and the promise

<sup>15</sup>My friends, I will use an everyday example to explain what I mean. Once someone agrees to something, no one else can change or cancel the agreement.

<sup>16</sup>That is how it is with the promises God made to Abraham and his descendant. The promises were not made to many descendants, but only to one, and that one is Christ.

<sup>17</sup>What I am saying is that the Law cannot change or cancel God's promise that was made 430 years before the Law was given.

<sup>18</sup>If we have to obey the Law in order to receive God's blessings, those blessings don't really come to us because of God's promise. But God was kind to Abraham and made him a promise.

<sup>19</sup>What is the use of the Law? It was given later to show that we sin. But it was only supposed to last until the coming of that descendant who was given the promise. In fact, angels gave the Law to Moses, and he gave it to the people.

<sup>20</sup>There is only one God, and the Law did not come directly from him.

Slaves and children

<sup>21</sup>Does the Law disagree with God's promises? No, it doesn't! If any law could give life to us, we could become acceptable to God by obeying that law.

<sup>22</sup>But the Scriptures say that sin controls everyone, so that God's promises will be for anyone who has faith in Jesus Christ.

<sup>23</sup>The Law controlled us and kept us under its power until the time came when we would have faith.

<sup>24</sup>In fact, the Law was our teacher. It was supposed to teach us until we had faith and were acceptable to God.

<sup>25</sup>But once a person has learnt to have faith, there is no more need to have the Law as a teacher.

<sup>26</sup>All of you are God's children because of your faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>And when you were baptized, it was as though you had put on Christ in the same way you put on new clothes.

<sup>28</sup>Faith in Christ Jesus is what makes each of you equal with each other, whether you are a Jew or a Greek, a slave or a free person, a man or a woman.

<sup>29</sup>So if you belong to Christ, you are now part of Abraham's family, and you will be given what God has promised.

Galatians 4

<sup>1</sup>Children who are under age are no better off than slaves, even though everything their parents own will some day be theirs.

<sup>2</sup>This is because children are placed in the care of guardians and teachers until the time their parents have set.

<sup>3</sup>That is how it was with us. We were like children ruled by the powers of this world.

<sup>4</sup>But when the time was right, God sent his Son, and a woman gave birth to him. His Son obeyed the Law, <sup>5</sup>so he could set us free from the Law, and we could become God's children.

<sup>6</sup>Now that we are his children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts. And his Spirit tells us that God is our Father.

<sup>7</sup>You are no longer slaves. You are God's children, and you will be given what he has promised.

Paul's concern for the Galatians

<sup>8</sup>Before you knew God, you were slaves of gods that are not real.

<sup>9</sup>But now you know God, or better still, God knows you. How can you turn back and become the slaves of those weak and pitiful powers?

<sup>10</sup>You even celebrate certain days, months, seasons, and years.

<sup>11</sup>I am afraid I have wasted my time working with you.

<sup>12</sup>My friends, I beg you to be like me, just as I once tried to be like you. Did you ill-treat me

<sup>13</sup>when I first preached to you? No you didn't, even though you knew I had come there because I was sick.

<sup>14</sup>My illness must have caused you some trouble, but you didn't hate me or turn me away because of it. You welcomed me as though I were one of God's angels or even Christ Jesus himself.

<sup>15</sup>Where is that good feeling now? I am sure that if it had been possible, you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me.

<sup>16</sup>Am I now your enemy, just because I told you the truth?

<sup>17</sup>Those people may be paying you a lot of attention, but it isn't for your good. They only want to keep you away from me, so you will pay them a lot of attention.

<sup>18</sup>It is always good to give your attention to something worthwhile, even when I am not with you.

<sup>19</sup>My children, I am in terrible pain until Christ may be seen living in you.

<sup>20</sup>I wish I were with you now. Then I would not have to talk this way. You really have me puzzled.

Hagar and Sarah

<sup>21</sup>Some of you would like to be under the rule of the Law of Moses. But do you know what the Law says?

<sup>22</sup>In the Scriptures we learn that Abraham had two sons. The mother of one of them was a slave, while the mother of the other one had always been free.

<sup>23</sup>The son of the slave woman was born in the usual way. But the son of the free woman was born because of God's promise.

<sup>24</sup>All this has another meaning as well. Each of the two women stands for one of the agreements God made with his people. Hagar, the slave woman, stands for the agreement that was made at Mount Sinai. Everyone born into her family is a slave.

<sup>25</sup>Hagar also stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and for the present city of Jerusalem. She and her children are slaves.

<sup>26</sup>But our mother is the city of Jerusalem in heaven above, and she isn't a slave.

<sup>27</sup>The Scriptures say about her, "You have never had children, but now you can be glad. You have never given birth, but now you can shout. Once you had no children, but now you will have more children than a woman who has been married for a long time."

<sup>28</sup>My friends, you were born because of this promise, just as Isaac was.

<sup>29</sup>But the child who was born in the natural way made trouble for the child who was born because of the Spirit. The same thing is happening today.

<sup>30</sup>The Scriptures say, "Get rid of the slave woman and her son! He won't be given anything. The son of the free woman will receive everything."

<sup>31</sup>My friends, we are children of the free woman and not of the slave.

Galatians 5

Guided by the Spirit and love Christ gives freedom

<sup>1</sup>Christ has set us free! This means we are really free. Now hold on to your freedom and don't ever become slaves of the Law again.

<sup>2</sup>I, Paul, promise you that Christ won't do you any good if you get circumcised.

<sup>3</sup>If you do, you must obey the whole Law.

<sup>4</sup>And if you try to please God by obeying the Law, you have cut yourself off from Christ and his wonderful kindness.

<sup>5</sup>But the Spirit makes us sure that God will accept us because of our faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup>If you are a follower of Christ Jesus, it makes no difference whether you are circumcised or not. All that matters is your faith that makes you love others.

<sup>7</sup>You were doing so well until someone made you turn from the truth.

<sup>8</sup>And that person was certainly not sent by the one who chose you.

<sup>9</sup>A little yeast can change a whole batch of dough,

<sup>10</sup>but you belong to the Lord. That makes me certain that you will do what I say, instead of what someone else tells you to do. Whoever is causing trouble for you will be punished.

<sup>11</sup>My friends, if I still preach that people need to be circumcised, why am I in so much trouble? The message about the cross would no longer be a problem, if I told people to be circumcised.

<sup>12</sup>I wish that everyone who is upsetting you would not only get circumcised, but would cut off much more!

<sup>13</sup>My friends, you were chosen to be free. So don't use your freedom as an excuse to do anything you want. Use it as an opportunity to serve each other with love.

<sup>14</sup>All that the Law says can be summed up in the command to love others as much as you love yourself.

<sup>15</sup>But if you keep attacking each other like wild animals, you had better watch out or you will destroy yourselves.

God's Spirit and our own desires

- <sup>16</sup>If you are guided by the Spirit, you won't obey your selfish desires.
- <sup>17</sup>The Spirit and your desires are enemies of each other. They are always fighting each other and keeping you from doing what you feel you should.
- <sup>18</sup>But if you obey the Spirit, the Law of Moses has no control over you.
- <sup>19</sup>People's desires make them give in to immoral ways, filthy thoughts, and shameful deeds.
- <sup>20</sup>They worship idols, practise witchcraft, hate others, and are hard to get along with. People become jealous, angry, and selfish. They not only argue and cause trouble, but they are
- <sup>21</sup>envious. They get drunk, carry on at wild parties, and do other evil things as well. I told you before, and I am telling you again: no one who does these things will share in the blessings of God's kingdom.
- <sup>22</sup>God's Spirit makes us loving, happy, peaceful, patient, kind, good, faithful,
- <sup>23</sup>gentle, and self-controlled. There is no law against behaving in any of these ways.
- <sup>24</sup>And because we belong to Christ Jesus, we have killed our selfish feelings and desires.
- <sup>25</sup>God's Spirit has given us life, and so we should follow the Spirit.
- <sup>26</sup>But don't be conceited or make others jealous by claiming to be better than they are.

Galatians 6

Help each other

- <sup>1</sup>My friends, you are spiritual. So if someone is trapped in sin, you should gently lead that person back to the right path. But watch out, and don't be tempted yourself.
- <sup>2</sup>You obey the law of Christ when you offer each other a helping hand.

<sup>3</sup>If you think you are better than others, when you really aren't, you are wrong.

<sup>4</sup>Do your own work well, and then you will have something to be proud of. But don't compare yourself with others.

<sup>5</sup>We each must carry our own load.

<sup>6</sup>Share every good thing you have with anyone who teaches you what God has said.

<sup>7</sup>You cannot fool God, so don't make a fool of yourself! You will harvest what you plant.

<sup>8</sup>If you follow your selfish desires, you will harvest destruction, but if you follow the Spirit, you will harvest eternal life.

<sup>9</sup>Don't get tired of helping others. You will be rewarded when the time is right, if you don't give up.

<sup>10</sup>We should help people whenever we can, especially if they are followers of the Lord.

Final warnings

<sup>11</sup>You can see what big letters I make when I write with my own hand.

<sup>12</sup>Those people who are telling you to get circumcised are only trying to show how important they are. And they don't want to get into trouble for preaching about the cross of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>They are circumcised, but they don't obey the Law of Moses. All they want is to boast about having you circumcised.

<sup>14</sup>But I will never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of his cross, the world is dead as far as I am concerned, and I am dead as far as the world is concerned.

<sup>15</sup>It doesn't matter if you are circumcised or not. All that matters is that you are a new person.

<sup>16</sup>If you follow this rule, you will belong to God's true people. God will treat you with undeserved kindness and will bless you with peace.

<sup>17</sup>On my own body are scars that prove I belong to Christ Jesus. So I don't want anyone to bother me any more.

<sup>18</sup>My friends, I pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you! Amen.

Ephesians

Ephesians 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. To God's people who live in Ephesus and are faithful followers of Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> I pray that God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

Christ brings spiritual blessings

<sup>3</sup> Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for the spiritual blessings that Christ has brought us from heaven!

<sup>4</sup> Before the world was created, God had Christ choose us to live with him and to be his holy and innocent and loving people.

<sup>5</sup> God was kind and decided that Christ would choose us to be God's own adopted children.

<sup>6</sup> God was very kind to us because of the Son he dearly loves, and so we should praise God.

<sup>7-8</sup> Christ sacrificed his life's blood to set us free, which means that our sins are now forgiven. Christ did this because God was so kind to us. God has great wisdom and understanding,

<sup>9</sup> and by what Christ has done, God has shown us his own mysterious ways.

<sup>10</sup> Then when the time is right, God will do all that he has planned, and Christ will bring together everything in heaven and on earth.

<sup>11</sup> God always does what he plans, and that's why he appointed Christ to choose us.

<sup>12</sup> He did this so that we Jews would bring honour to him and be the first ones to have hope because of him.

<sup>13</sup>Christ also brought you the truth, which is the good news about how you can be saved. You put your faith in Christ and were given the promised Holy Spirit to show that you belong to God.

<sup>14</sup>The Spirit also makes us sure that we will be given what God has stored up for his people. Then we will be set free, and God will be honoured and praised.

Paul's prayer

<sup>15</sup>I have heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people.

<sup>16</sup>So I never stop being grateful for you, as I mention you in my prayers.

<sup>17</sup>I ask the glorious Father and God of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you his Spirit. The Spirit will make you wise and let you understand what it means to know God.

<sup>18</sup>My prayer is that light will flood your hearts and that you will understand the hope that was given to you when God chose you. Then you will discover the glorious blessings that will be yours together with all God's people.

<sup>19</sup>I want you to know about the great and mighty power that God has for us followers. It is the same wonderful power he used

<sup>20</sup>when he raised Christ from death and let him sit at his right side in heaven.

<sup>21</sup>There Christ rules over all forces, authorities, powers, and rulers. He rules over all beings in this world and will rule in the future world as well.

<sup>22</sup>God has put all things under the power of Christ, and for the good of the church he has made him the head of everything.

<sup>23</sup>The church is Christ's body and is filled with Christ who completely fills everything.

Ephesians 2

From death to life

<sup>1</sup>In the past you were dead because you sinned and fought against God.

<sup>2</sup>You followed the ways of this world and obeyed the devil. He rules the world, and his spirit has power over everyone who doesn't obey God.

<sup>3</sup>Once we were also ruled by the selfish desires of our bodies and minds. We had made God angry, and we were going to be punished like everyone else.

<sup>4-5</sup>But God was merciful! We were dead because of our sins, but God loved us so much that he made us alive with Christ, and God's wonderful kindness is what saves you.

<sup>6</sup>God raised us from death to life with Christ Jesus, and he has given us a place beside Christ in heaven.

<sup>7</sup>God did this so that in the future world he could show how truly good and kind he is to us because of what Christ Jesus has done.

<sup>8</sup>You were saved by faith in God, who treats us much better than we deserve. This is God's gift to you, and not anything you have done on your own.

<sup>9</sup>It isn't something you have earned, so there is nothing you can boast about.

<sup>10</sup>God planned for us to do good things and to live as he has always wanted us to live. That's why he sent Christ to make us what we are.

United by Christ

<sup>11</sup>Don't forget that you are Gentiles. In fact, you used to be called "uncircumcised" by those who take pride in being circumcised.

<sup>12</sup>At that time you did not know about Christ. You were foreigners to the people of Israel, and you had no part in the promises that God had made to them. You were living in this world without hope and without God, <sup>13</sup>and you were far from God. But Christ offered his life's blood as a sacrifice and brought you near God.

<sup>14</sup>Christ has made peace between Jews and Gentiles, and he has united us by breaking down the wall of hatred that separated us. Christ gave his own body

<sup>15</sup>to destroy the Law of Moses with all its rules and commands. He even brought Jews and Gentiles together as though we were only one person, when he united us in peace.

<sup>16</sup>On the cross Christ did away with our hatred for each other. He also made peace between us and God by uniting Jews and Gentiles in one body.

<sup>17</sup>Christ came and preached peace to you Gentiles, who were far from God, and peace to us Jews, who were near God.

<sup>18</sup>And because of Christ, all of us can come to the Father by the same Spirit.

<sup>19</sup>You Gentiles are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are citizens with everyone else who belongs to the family of God.

<sup>20</sup>You are like a building with the apostles and prophets as the foundation and with Christ as the most important stone.

<sup>21</sup>Christ is the one who holds the building together and makes it grow into a holy temple for the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>And you are part of that building Christ has built as a place for God's own Spirit to live.

Ephesians 3

Paul's mission to the Gentiles

<sup>1</sup>Christ Jesus made me his prisoner, so that I could help you Gentiles.

<sup>2</sup>You have heard about God's kindness in choosing me to help you.

<sup>3</sup>In fact, this letter tells you a little about how God has shown me his mysterious ways.

<sup>4</sup>As you read the letter, you will also find out how well I really do understand the mystery about Christ.

<sup>5</sup>No one knew about this mystery until God's Spirit told it to his holy apostles and prophets.

<sup>6</sup>And the mystery is this: Because of Christ Jesus, the good news has given the Gentiles a share in the promises that God gave to the Jews. God has also let the Gentiles be part of the same body.

<sup>7</sup>God treated me with kindness. His power worked in me, and it became my job to spread the good news.

<sup>8</sup>I am the least important of all God's people. But God was kind and chose me to tell the Gentiles that because of Christ there are blessings that cannot be measured.

<sup>9</sup>God, who created everything, wanted me to help everyone understand the mysterious plan that had always been hidden in his mind.

<sup>10</sup>Then God would use the church to show the powers and authorities in the spiritual world that he has many different kinds of wisdom.

<sup>11</sup>God did this according to his eternal plan. And he was able to do what he had planned because of all that Christ Jesus our Lord had done.

<sup>12</sup>Christ now gives us courage and confidence, so that we can come to God by faith.

<sup>13</sup>That's why you should not be discouraged when I suffer for you. After all, it will bring honour to you.

Christ's love for us

<sup>14</sup>I kneel in prayer to the Father.

<sup>15</sup>All beings in heaven and on earth receive their life from him.

<sup>16</sup>God is wonderful and glorious. I pray that his Spirit will make you become strong followers

<sup>17</sup>and that Christ will live in your hearts because of your faith. Stand firm and be deeply rooted in his love.

<sup>18</sup>I pray that you and all God's people will understand what is called wide or long or high or deep.

<sup>19</sup>I want you to know all about Christ's love, although it is too wonderful to be measured. Then your lives will be filled with all that God is.

<sup>20-21</sup>I pray that Christ Jesus and the church will for ever bring praise to God. His power at work in us can do far more than we dare ask or imagine. Amen.

Ephesians 4

A new life in unity with Christ Unity with Christ

<sup>1</sup>As a prisoner of the Lord, I beg you to live in a way that is worthy of the people God has chosen to be his own.

<sup>2</sup>Always be humble and gentle. Patiently put up with each other and love each other.

<sup>3</sup>Try your best to let God's Spirit keep your hearts united. Do this by living at peace.

<sup>4</sup>All of you are part of the same body. There is only one Spirit of God, just as you were given one hope when you were chosen to be God's people.

<sup>5</sup>We have only one Lord, one faith, and one baptism.

<sup>6</sup>There is one God who is the Father of all people. Not only is God above all others, but he works by using all of us, and he lives in all of us.

<sup>7</sup>Christ has generously divided out his gifts to us.

<sup>8</sup>As the Scriptures say, "When he went up to the highest place, he led away many prisoners and gave gifts to people."

<sup>9</sup>When it says, "he went up", it means that Christ had been deep in the earth.

<sup>10</sup>This also means that the one who went deep into the earth is the same one who went into the highest heaven, so that he would fill the whole universe.

<sup>11</sup>Christ chose some of us to be apostles, prophets, missionaries, pastors, and teachers, <sup>12</sup>so that his people would learn to serve and his body would grow strong.

<sup>13</sup>This will continue until we are united by our faith and by our understanding of the Son of God. Then we will be mature, just as Christ is, and we will be completely like him.

<sup>14</sup>We must stop acting like children. We must not let deceitful people trick us by their false teachings, which are like winds that toss us around from place to place.

<sup>15</sup>Love should always make us tell the truth. Then we will grow in every way and be more like Christ, the head

<sup>16</sup>of the body. Christ holds it together and makes all its parts work perfectly, as it grows and becomes strong because of love.

The old life and the new life

<sup>17</sup>As a follower of the Lord, I order you to stop living like stupid, godless people.

<sup>18</sup>Their minds are in the dark, and they are stubborn and ignorant and have missed out on the life that comes from God. They no longer have any feelings about what is right, <sup>19</sup>and they are so greedy that they do all kinds of indecent things.

<sup>20-21</sup>But that isn't what you were taught about Jesus Christ. He is the truth, and you heard about him and learnt about him.

<sup>22</sup>You were told that your foolish desires will destroy you and that you must give up your old way of life with all its bad habits.

<sup>23</sup>Let the Spirit change your way of thinking

<sup>24</sup>and make you into a new person. You were created to be like God, and so you must please him and be truly holy.

Rules for the new life

<sup>25</sup>We are part of the same body. Stop lying and start telling each other the truth.

<sup>26</sup>Don't get so angry that you sin. Don't go to bed angry

<sup>27</sup>and don't give the devil a chance.

<sup>28</sup>If you are a thief, stop stealing. Be honest and work hard, so you will have something to give to people in need.

<sup>29</sup>Stop all your dirty talk. Say the right thing at the right time and help others by what you say.

<sup>30</sup>Don't make God's Spirit sad. The Spirit makes you sure that some day you will be free from your sins.

<sup>31</sup>Stop being bitter and angry with others. Don't yell at one another or curse each other or ever be rude.

<sup>32</sup>Instead, be kind and merciful, and forgive others, just as God forgave you because of Christ.

Ephesians 5

<sup>1</sup>Do as God does. After all, you are his dear children.

<sup>2</sup>Let love be your guide. Christ loved us and offered his life for us as a sacrifice that pleases God.

<sup>3</sup>You are God's people, so don't let it be said that any of you are immoral or indecent or greedy.

<sup>4</sup>Don't use dirty or foolish or filthy words. Instead, say how thankful you are.

<sup>5</sup>Being greedy, indecent, or immoral is just another way of worshipping idols. You can be sure that people who behave in this way will never be part of the kingdom that belongs to Christ and to God.

Living as people of the light

<sup>6</sup>Don't let anyone trick you with foolish talk. God punishes everyone who disobeys him and says foolish things.

<sup>7</sup>So don't have anything to do with anyone like that.

<sup>8</sup>You used to be like people living in the dark, but now you are people of the light because you belong to the Lord. So act like people of the light

- <sup>9</sup>and make your light shine. Be good and honest and truthful, <sup>10</sup>as you try to please the Lord.
- <sup>11</sup>Don't take part in doing those worthless things that are done in the dark. Instead, show how wrong they are.
- <sup>12</sup>It is disgusting even to talk about what is done in the dark.
- <sup>13</sup>But the light will show what these things are really like.
- <sup>14</sup>Light shows up everything, just as the Scriptures say, "Wake up from your sleep and rise from death. Then Christ will shine on you."
- <sup>15</sup>Act like people with good sense and not like fools.
- <sup>16</sup>These are evil times, so make every minute count.
- <sup>17</sup>Don't be stupid. Instead, find out what the Lord wants you to do.
- <sup>18</sup>Don't destroy yourself by getting drunk, but let the Spirit fill your life.
- <sup>19</sup>When you meet together, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, as you praise the Lord with all your heart.
- <sup>20</sup>Always use the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to thank God the Father for everything.

Wives and husbands

- <sup>21</sup>Honour Christ and put others first.
- <sup>22</sup>A wife should put her husband first, as she does the Lord.
- <sup>23</sup>A husband is the head of his wife, as Christ is the head and the Saviour of the church, which is his own body.
- <sup>24</sup>Wives should always put their husbands first, as the church puts Christ first.
- <sup>25</sup>A husband should love his wife as much as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it.
- <sup>26</sup>He made the church holy by the power of his word, and he made it pure by washing it with water.

<sup>27</sup>Christ did this, so that he would have a glorious and holy church, without faults or spots or wrinkles or any other flaws.

<sup>28</sup>In the same way, a husband should love his wife as much as he loves himself. A husband who loves his wife shows that he loves himself.

<sup>29</sup>None of us hate our own bodies. We provide for them and take good care of them, just as Christ does for the church,

<sup>30</sup>because we are each part of his body.

<sup>31</sup>As the Scriptures say, “A man leaves his father and mother to get married, and he becomes like one person with his wife.”

<sup>32</sup>This is a great mystery, but I understand it to mean Christ and his church.

<sup>33</sup>So each husband should love his wife as much as he loves himself, and each wife should respect her husband.

Ephesians 6

Children and parents

<sup>1</sup>Children, you belong to the Lord, and you do the right thing when you obey your parents. The first commandment with a promise says,

<sup>2</sup>“Obey your father and your mother,

<sup>3</sup>and you will have a long and happy life.”

<sup>4</sup>Parents, don't be hard on your children. Raise them properly. Teach them and instruct them about the Lord.

Slaves and masters

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, you must obey your earthly masters. Show them great respect and be as loyal to them as you are to Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Try to please them at all times, and not just when you think they are watching. You are slaves of Christ, so with your whole heart you must do what God wants you to do.

<sup>7</sup>Gladly serve your masters, as though they were the Lord himself, and not simply people.

<sup>8</sup>You know that you will be rewarded for any good things you do, whether you are slaves or free.

<sup>9</sup>Slave owners, you must treat your slaves with this same respect. Don't threaten them. They have the same Master in heaven that you do, and he doesn't have any favourites.

The fight against evil

<sup>10</sup>Finally, let the mighty strength of the Lord make you strong.

<sup>11</sup>Put on all the armour that God gives, so you can defend yourself against the devil's tricks.

<sup>12</sup>We are not fighting against humans. We are fighting against forces and authorities and against rulers of darkness and powers in the spiritual world.

<sup>13</sup>So put on all the armour that God gives. Then when that evil day comes, you will be able to defend yourself. And when the battle is over, you will still be standing firm.

<sup>14</sup>Be ready! Let the truth be like a belt around your waist, and let God's justice protect you like armour.

<sup>15</sup>Your desire to tell the good news about peace should be like shoes on your feet.

<sup>16</sup>Let your faith be like a shield, and you will be able to stop all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

<sup>17</sup>Let God's saving power be like a helmet, and for a sword use God's message that comes from the Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Never stop praying, especially for others. Always pray by the power of the Spirit. Stay alert and keep praying for God's people.

<sup>19</sup>Pray that I will be given the message to speak and that I may fearlessly explain the mystery about the good news.

<sup>20</sup>I was sent to do this work, and that's the reason I am in jail. So pray that I will be brave and will speak as I should.

Final greetings

<sup>21-22</sup> I want you to know how I am getting along and what I am doing. That's why I am sending Tychicus to you. He is a dear friend, as well as a faithful servant of the Lord. He will tell you how I am doing, and he will cheer you up.

<sup>23</sup>I pray that God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will give peace, love, and faith to every follower!

<sup>24</sup>May God be kind to everyone who keeps on loving our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians

Philippians 1

Greetings and a prayer

<sup>1</sup>From Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus. To all God's people who belong to Christ Jesus at Philippi and to all your church officials and officers.

<sup>2</sup>I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

Paul's prayer for the church in Philippi

<sup>3</sup>Every time I think of you, I thank my God.

<sup>4</sup>And whenever I mention you in my prayers, it makes me happy.

<sup>5</sup>This is because you have taken part with me in spreading the good news from the first day you heard about it.

<sup>6</sup>God is the one who began this good work in you, and I am certain that he won't stop before it is complete on the day that Christ Jesus returns.

<sup>7</sup>You have a special place in my heart. So it is only natural for me to feel the way I do. All of you have helped in the work that God has given me, as I defend the good news and tell about it here in jail.

<sup>8</sup>God himself knows how much I want to see you. He knows that I care for you in the same way that Christ Jesus does.

<sup>9</sup>I pray that your love will keep on growing and that you will fully know and understand

<sup>10</sup>how to make the right choices. Then you will still be pure and innocent when Christ returns. And until that day, <sup>11</sup>Jesus Christ will keep you busy doing good deeds that bring glory and praise to God.

What life means to Paul

<sup>12</sup>My dear friends, I want you to know that what has happened to me has helped to spread the good news.

<sup>13</sup>The Roman guards and all the others know that I am here in jail because I serve Christ.

<sup>14</sup>Now most of the Lord's followers have become brave and are fearlessly telling the message.

<sup>15</sup>Some are preaching about Christ because they are jealous and envious of us. Others are preaching because they want to help.

<sup>16</sup>They love Christ and know that I am here to defend the good news about him.

<sup>17</sup>But the ones who are jealous of us are not sincere. They just want to cause trouble for me while I am in jail.

<sup>18</sup>But that doesn't matter. All that matters is that people are telling about Christ, whether they are sincere or not. That is what makes me glad. I will keep on being glad,

<sup>19</sup>because I know that your prayers and the help that comes from the Spirit of Christ Jesus will keep me safe.

<sup>20</sup>I honestly expect and hope that I will never do anything to be ashamed of. Whether I live or die, I always want to be as brave as I am now and bring honour to Christ.

<sup>21</sup>If I live, it will be for Christ, and if I die, I will gain even more.

<sup>22</sup>I don't know what to choose. I could keep on living and doing something useful.

<sup>23</sup>It is a hard choice to make. I want to die and be with Christ, because that would be much better.

<sup>24-25</sup>But I know that all of you still need me. That's why I am sure I will stay on to help you grow and be happy in your faith.

<sup>26</sup>Then, when I visit you again, you will have good reason to take great pride in Christ Jesus because of me.

<sup>27</sup>Above all else, you must live in a way that brings honour to the good news about Christ. Then, whether I visit you or not, I will hear that all of you think alike. I will know that you are working together and that you are struggling side by side to get others to believe the good news.

<sup>28</sup>Be brave when you face your enemies. Your courage will show them that they are going to be destroyed, and it will show you that you will be saved. God will make all this happen,

<sup>29</sup>and he has blessed you. Not only do you have faith in Christ, but you suffer for him.

<sup>30</sup>You saw me suffer, and you still hear about my troubles. Now you must suffer in the same way.

Philippians 2

Christ's example of true humility

<sup>1</sup>Christ encourages you, and his love comforts you. God's Spirit unites you, and you are concerned for others.

<sup>2</sup>Now make me completely happy! Live in harmony by showing love for each other. Be united in what you think, as if you were only one person.

<sup>3</sup>Don't be jealous or proud, but be humble and consider others more important than yourselves.

<sup>4</sup>Care about them as much as you care about yourselves

<sup>5</sup>and think the same way that Christ Jesus thought:

<sup>6</sup>Christ was truly God. But he did not try to remain equal with God.

<sup>7</sup>Instead he gave up everything and became a slave, when he became like one of us.

<sup>8</sup>Christ was humble. He obeyed God and even died on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>Then God gave Christ the highest place and honoured his name above all others.

<sup>10</sup> So at the name of Jesus everyone will bow down, those in heaven, on earth, and under the earth.

<sup>11</sup> And to the glory of God the Father everyone will openly agree, “Jesus Christ is Lord!”

Lights in the world

<sup>12</sup> My dear friends, you always obeyed when I was with you. Now that I am away, you should obey even more. So work with fear and trembling to discover what it really means to be saved.

<sup>13</sup> God is working in you to make you willing and able to obey him.

<sup>14</sup> Do everything without grumbling or arguing.

<sup>15</sup> Then you will be the pure and innocent children of God. You live among people who are crooked and evil, but you must not do anything that they can say is wrong. Try to shine as lights among the people of this world,

<sup>16</sup> as you hold firmly to the message that gives life. Then on the day when Christ returns, I can take pride in you. I can also know that my work and efforts were not useless.

<sup>17</sup> Your faith in the Lord and your service are like a sacrifice offered to him. And my own blood may have to be poured out with the sacrifice. If this happens, I will be glad and rejoice with you.

<sup>18</sup> In the same way, you should be glad and rejoice with me.

News about Paul's friends Timothy and Epaphroditus

<sup>19</sup> I want to be encouraged by news about you. So I hope the Lord Jesus will soon let me send Timothy to you.

<sup>20</sup> I don't have anyone else who cares about you as much as he does.

<sup>21</sup> The others think only about what interests them and not about what concerns Christ Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>But you know what kind of person Timothy is. He has worked with me like a son in spreading the good news.

<sup>23</sup>I hope to send him to you, as soon as I find out what is going to happen to me.

<sup>24</sup>And I feel sure that the Lord will also let me come soon.

<sup>25</sup>I think I ought to send my dear friend Epaphroditus back to you. He is a follower and a worker and a soldier of the Lord, just as I am. You sent him to look after me,

<sup>26</sup>but now he is eager to see you. He is worried, because you heard he was sick.

<sup>27</sup>In fact, he was very sick and almost died. But God was kind to him, and also to me, and he kept me from being burdened down with sorrow.

<sup>28</sup>Now I am more eager than ever to send Epaphroditus back again. You will be glad to see him, and I won't have to worry any longer.

<sup>29</sup>Be sure to give him a cheerful welcome, just as people who serve the Lord deserve.

<sup>30</sup>He almost died working for Christ, and he risked his own life to do for me what you could not.

Philippians 3

Being acceptable to God

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my dear friends, be glad that you belong to the Lord. It doesn't bother me to write the same things to you that I have written before. In fact, it is for your own good.

<sup>2</sup>Watch out for those people who behave like dogs! They are evil and want to do more than just circumcise you.

<sup>3</sup>But we are the ones who are truly circumcised, because we worship by the power of God's Spirit and take pride in Christ Jesus. We don't boast about what we have done, <sup>4</sup>although I could. Others may boast about themselves, but I have more reason to boast than anyone else.

<sup>5</sup>I was circumcised when I was eight days old, and I am from the nation of Israel and the tribe of Benjamin. I am a true Hebrew. As a Pharisee, I strictly obeyed the Law of Moses.

<sup>6</sup>And I was so eager that I even made trouble for the church. I did everything the Law demands in order to please God.

<sup>7</sup>But Christ has shown me that what I once thought was valuable is worthless.

<sup>8</sup>Nothing is as wonderful as knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. I have given up everything else and count it all as rubbish. All I want is Christ

<sup>9</sup>and to know that I belong to him. I could not make myself acceptable to God by obeying the Law of Moses. God accepted me simply because of my faith in Christ.

<sup>10</sup>All I want is to know Christ and the power that raised him to life. I want to suffer and die as he did,

<sup>11</sup>so that somehow I also may be raised to life.

Running towards the goal

<sup>12</sup>I have not yet reached my goal, and I am not perfect. But Christ has taken hold of me. So I keep on running and struggling to take hold of the prize.

<sup>13</sup>My friends, I don't feel that I have already arrived. But I forget what is behind, and I struggle for what is ahead.

<sup>14</sup>I run towards the goal, so that I can win the prize of being called to heaven. This is the prize that God offers because of what Christ Jesus has done.

<sup>15</sup>All of us who are mature should think in this same way. And if any of you think differently, God will make it clear to you.

<sup>16</sup>But we must keep going in the direction that we are now headed.

<sup>17</sup>My friends, I want you to follow my example and learn from others who closely follow the example we set for you.

<sup>18</sup>I often warned you that many people are living as enemies of the cross of Christ. And now with tears in my eyes, I warn you again

<sup>19</sup>that they are headed for hell! They worship their stomachs and boast about the disgusting things they do. All they can think about are the things of this world.

<sup>20</sup>But we are citizens of heaven and are eagerly waiting for our Saviour to come from there. Our Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>21</sup>has power over everything, and he will make these poor bodies of ours like his own glorious body.

Philippians 4

<sup>1</sup>Dear friends, I love you and long to see you. Please keep on being faithful to the Lord. You are my pride and joy.

Paul encourages the Lord's followers

<sup>2</sup>Euodia and Syntyche, you belong to the Lord, so I beg you to stop arguing with each other.

<sup>3</sup>And, my true partner, I ask you to help them. These women have worked together with me and with Clement and with the others in spreading the good news. Their names are now written in the book of life.

<sup>4</sup>Always be glad because of the Lord! I will say it again: be glad.

<sup>5</sup>Always be gentle with others. The Lord will soon be here.

<sup>6</sup>Don't worry about anything, but pray about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God.

<sup>7</sup>Then, because you belong to Christ Jesus, God will bless you with peace that no one can completely understand. And this peace will control the way you think and feel.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, my friends, keep your minds on whatever is true, pure, right, holy, friendly, and proper. Don't ever stop thinking about what is truly worthwhile and worthy of praise.

<sup>9</sup>You know the teachings I gave you, and you know what you heard me say and saw me do. So follow my example. And God, who gives peace, will be with you.

Paul thanks the Philippians

<sup>10</sup>The Lord has made me very grateful that at last you have thought about me once again. Actually, you were thinking about me all along, but you didn't have any chance to show it.

<sup>11</sup>I am not complaining about having too little. I have learnt to be satisfied with whatever I have.

<sup>12</sup>I know what it is to be poor or to have plenty, and I have lived under all kinds of conditions. I know what it means to be full or to be hungry, to have too much or too little.

<sup>13</sup>Christ gives me the strength to face anything.

<sup>14</sup>It was good of you to help me when I was having such a hard time.

<sup>15</sup>My friends at Philippi, you remember what it was like when I started preaching the good news in Macedonia. After I left there, you were the only church that became my partner by giving blessings and by receiving them in return.

<sup>16</sup>Even when I was in Thessalonica, you helped me more than once.

<sup>17</sup>I am not trying to get something from you, but I want you to receive the blessings that come from giving.

<sup>18</sup>I have been paid back everything, and with interest. I am completely satisfied with the gifts that you asked Epaphroditus to bring me. They are like a sweet-smelling offering or like the right kind of sacrifice that pleases God.

<sup>19</sup>I pray that God will take care of all your needs with the wonderful blessings that come from Christ Jesus!

<sup>20</sup>May God our Father be praised for ever and ever. Amen.

Final greetings

<sup>21</sup>Give my greetings to all who are God's people because of Christ Jesus. The Lord's followers here with me send you their greetings.

<sup>22</sup>All God's people send their greetings, especially those in the service of the Emperor.

<sup>23</sup>I pray that our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless your life!

Colossians

Colossians 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from Timothy, who is also a follower.

<sup>2</sup>To God's people who live in Colossae and are faithful followers of Christ. I pray that God our Father will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

A prayer of thanks

<sup>3</sup>Each time we pray for you, we thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>We have heard of your faith in Christ and of your love for all God's people,

<sup>5</sup>because what you hope for is kept safe for you in heaven. You first heard about this hope when you believed the true message, which is the good news.

<sup>6</sup>The good news is spreading all over the world with great success. It has spread in that same way among you, ever since the first day you learnt the truth about God's wonderful kindness

<sup>7</sup>from our good friend Epaphras. He works together with us for Christ and is a faithful worker for you.

<sup>8</sup>He is also the one who told us about the love that God's Spirit has given you.

The person and work of Christ

<sup>9</sup>We have not stopped praying for you since the first day we heard about you. In fact, we always pray that God will show you everything he wants you to do and that you may have all the wisdom and understanding that his Spirit gives.

<sup>10</sup>Then you will live a life that honours the Lord, and you will always please him by doing good deeds. You will come to know God even better.

<sup>11</sup>His glorious power will make you patient and strong enough to endure anything, and you will be truly happy.

<sup>12</sup>I pray that you will be grateful to God for letting you have part in what he has promised his people in the kingdom of light.

<sup>13</sup>God rescued us from the dark power of Satan and brought us into the kingdom of his dear Son, <sup>14</sup>who forgives our sins and sets us free.

<sup>15</sup>Christ is exactly like God, who cannot be seen. He is the firstborn Son, superior to all creation.

<sup>16</sup>Everything was created by him, everything in heaven and on earth, everything seen and unseen, including all forces and powers, and all rulers and authorities. All things were created by God's Son, and everything was made for him.

<sup>17</sup>God's Son was before all else, and by him everything is held together.

<sup>18</sup>He is the head of his body, which is the church. He is the very beginning, the first to be raised from death, so that he would be above all others.

<sup>19</sup>God himself was pleased to live fully in his Son.

<sup>20</sup>And God was pleased for him to make peace by sacrificing his blood on the cross, so that all beings in heaven and on earth would be brought back to God.

<sup>21</sup>You used to be far from God. Your thoughts made you his enemies, and you did evil things.

<sup>22</sup>But his Son became a human and died. So God made peace with you, and now he lets you stand in his presence as people who are holy and faultless and innocent.

<sup>23</sup>But you must stay deeply rooted and firm in your faith. You must not give up the hope you received when you heard the good news. It was preached to everyone on earth, and I myself have become a servant of this message.

Paul's service to the church

<sup>24</sup>I am glad that I can suffer for you. I am pleased also that in my own body I can continue the suffering of Christ for his body, the church.

<sup>25</sup>God's plan was to make me a servant of his church and to send me to preach his complete message to you.

<sup>26</sup>For many ages this message was kept secret from everyone, but now it has been explained to God's people.

<sup>27</sup>God did this because he wanted you Gentiles to understand his wonderful and glorious mystery. And the mystery is that Christ lives in you, and he is your hope of sharing in God's glory.

<sup>28</sup>We announce the message about Christ, and we use all our wisdom to warn and teach everyone, so that all Christ's followers will grow and become mature.

<sup>29</sup>That's why I work so hard and use the mighty power he gives me.

Colossians 2

<sup>1</sup>I want you to know what a struggle I am going through for you, for God's people at Laodicea, and for all those followers who have never met me.

<sup>2</sup>I do it to encourage them. Then as their hearts are joined together in love, they will be wonderfully blessed with complete understanding. And they will truly know Christ. Not only is he the key to God's mystery, <sup>3</sup>but all wisdom and knowledge are hidden away in him.

<sup>4</sup>I tell you these things to keep you from being fooled by fancy talk.

<sup>5</sup>Even though I am not with you, I keep thinking about you. I am glad to know that you are living as you should and that your faith in Christ is strong.

Christ brings real life

<sup>6</sup>You have accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord. Now keep on following him.

<sup>7</sup>Plant your roots in Christ and let him be the foundation for your life. Be strong in your faith, just as you were taught. And be grateful.

<sup>8</sup>Don't let anyone fool you by using senseless arguments. These arguments may sound wise, but they are only human teachings. They come from the powers of this world and not from Christ.

<sup>9</sup>God lives fully in Christ.

<sup>10</sup>And you are fully grown because you belong to Christ, who is over every power and authority.

<sup>11</sup>Christ has also taken away your selfish desires, just as circumcision removes flesh from the body.

<sup>12</sup>And when you were baptized, it was the same as being buried with Christ. Then you were raised to life because you had faith in the power of God, who raised Christ from death.

<sup>13</sup>You were dead, because you were sinful and were not God's people. But God let Christ make you alive, when he forgave all our sins.

<sup>14</sup>God wiped out the charges that were against us for disobeying the Law of Moses. He took them away and nailed them to the cross.

<sup>15</sup>There Christ defeated all powers and forces. He let the whole world see them being led away as prisoners when he celebrated his victory.

<sup>16</sup>Don't let anyone tell you what you must eat or drink. Don't let them say that you must celebrate the New Moon festival, the Sabbath, or any other festival.

<sup>17</sup>These things are only a shadow of what was to come. But Christ is real!

<sup>18</sup>Don't be cheated by people who make a show of acting humble and who worship angels. They boast about seeing visions. But it is all nonsense, because their minds are filled with selfish desires.

<sup>19</sup>They are no longer part of Christ, who is the head of the whole body. Christ gives the body its strength, and he uses its joints and muscles to hold it together, as it grows by the power of God.

New life with Christ

<sup>20</sup>You died with Christ. Now the forces of the universe don't have any power over you. Why do you live as if you had to obey such rules as,

<sup>21</sup>“Don't handle this. Don't taste that. Don't touch this.”?

<sup>22</sup>After these things are used, they are no longer good for anything. So why be bothered with the rules that humans have made up?

<sup>23</sup>Obedying these rules may seem to be the clever thing to do. They appear to make you love God more and to be very humble and to have control over your body. But they don't really have any power over our desires.

Colossians 3

<sup>1</sup>You have been raised to life with Christ. Now set your heart on what is in heaven, where Christ rules at God's right side.

<sup>2</sup>Think about what is up there, not about what is here on earth.

<sup>3</sup>You died, which means that your life is hidden with Christ, who sits beside God.

<sup>4</sup>Christ gives meaning to your life, and when he appears, you will also appear with him in glory.

<sup>5</sup>Don't be controlled by your body. Kill every desire for the wrong kind of sex. Don't be immoral or indecent or have evil thoughts. Don't be greedy, which is the same as worshipping idols.

<sup>6</sup>God is angry with people who disobey him by doing these things.

<sup>7</sup>And that is exactly what you did, when you lived among people who behaved in this way.

<sup>8</sup>But now you must stop doing such things. You must stop being angry, hateful, and evil. You must no longer say insulting or cruel things about others.

<sup>9</sup>And stop lying to each other. You have given up your old way of life with its habits.

<sup>10</sup> Each of you is now a new person. You are becoming more and more like your Creator, and you will understand him better.

<sup>11</sup> It doesn't matter if you are a Greek or a Jew, or if you are circumcised or not. You may even be a barbarian or a Scythian, and you may be a slave or a free person. Yet Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

<sup>12</sup> God loves you and has chosen you as his own special people. So be gentle, kind, humble, meek, and patient.

<sup>13</sup> Put up with each other, and forgive anyone who does you wrong, just as Christ has forgiven you.

<sup>14</sup> Love is more important than anything else. It is what ties everything completely together.

<sup>15</sup> Each one of you is part of the body of Christ, and you were chosen to live together in peace. So let the peace that comes from Christ control your thoughts. And be grateful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the message about Christ completely fill your lives, while you use all your wisdom to teach and instruct each other. With thankful hearts, sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

<sup>17</sup> Whatever you say or do should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, as you give thanks to God the Father because of him.

Some rules for Christian living

<sup>18</sup> A wife must put her husband first. This is her duty as a follower of the Lord.

<sup>19</sup> A husband must love his wife and not abuse her.

<sup>20</sup> Children must always obey their parents. This pleases the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Parents, don't be hard on your children. If you are, they might give up.

<sup>22</sup> Slaves, you must always obey your earthly masters. Try to please them at all times, and not just when you think they are watching. Honour the Lord and serve your masters with your whole heart.

<sup>23</sup>Do your work willingly, as though you were serving the Lord himself, and not just your earthly master.

<sup>24</sup>In fact, the Lord Christ is the one you are really serving, and you know that he will reward you.

<sup>25</sup>But Christ has no favourites! He will punish evil people, just as they deserve.

Colossians 4

<sup>1</sup>Slave owners, be fair and honest with your slaves. Don't forget that you have a Master in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Never give up praying. And when you pray, keep alert and be thankful.

<sup>3</sup>Be sure to pray that God will make a way for us to spread his message and explain the mystery about Christ, even though I am in jail for doing this.

<sup>4</sup>Please pray that I will make the message as clear as possible.

<sup>5</sup>When you are with unbelievers, always make good use of the time.

<sup>6</sup>Be pleasant and hold their interest when you speak the message. Choose your words carefully and be ready to give answers to anyone who asks questions.

Final greetings

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus is the dear friend, who faithfully works and serves the Lord with us, and he will give you the news about me.

<sup>8</sup>I am sending him to cheer you up by telling you how we are getting along.

<sup>9</sup>Onesimus, that dear and faithful follower from your own group, is coming with him. The two of them will tell you everything that has happened here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus is in jail with me. He sends greetings to you, and so does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have already been told to welcome Mark, if he visits you.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus, who is known as Justus, sends his greetings. These three men are the only Jewish followers who have worked with me for the kingdom of God. They have given me much comfort.

<sup>12</sup>Your own Epaphras, who serves Christ Jesus, sends his greetings. He always prays hard that you may fully know what the Lord wants you to do and that you may do it completely.

<sup>13</sup>I have seen how much trouble he has gone through for you and for the followers in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup>Our dear doctor Luke sends you his greetings, and so does Demas.

<sup>15</sup>Give my greetings to the followers at Laodicea, especially to Nympha and the church that meets in her home.

<sup>16</sup>After this letter has been read to your people, be sure to have it read in the church at Laodicea. And you should read the letter that I have sent to them.

<sup>17</sup>Remind Archippus to do the work that the Lord has given him to do.

<sup>18</sup>I am signing this letter myself: PAUL. Don't forget that I am in jail. I pray that God will be kind to you.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church in Thessalonica, the people of God the Father and of the Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that God will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

<sup>2</sup>We thank God for you and always mention you in our prayers. Each time we pray,

<sup>3</sup>we tell God our Father about your faith and loving work and about your firm hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Thessalonians' faith and example

<sup>4</sup>My dear friends, God loves you, and we know he has chosen you to be his people.

<sup>5</sup>When we told you the good news, it was with the power and assurance that come from the Holy Spirit, and not simply with words. You knew what kind of people we were and how we helped you.

<sup>6</sup>So, when you accepted the message, you followed our example and the example of the Lord. You suffered, but the Holy Spirit made you glad.

<sup>7</sup>You became an example for all the Lord's followers in Macedonia and Achaia.

<sup>8</sup>And because of you, the Lord's message has spread everywhere in those regions. Now the news of your faith in God is known all over the world, and we don't have to say a thing about it.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone is talking about how you welcomed us and how you turned away from idols to serve the true and living God.

<sup>10</sup>They also tell how you are waiting for his Son Jesus to come from heaven. God raised him from death, and on the day of judgment Jesus will save us from God's anger.

1 Thessalonians 2

Paul's work in Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup>My friends, you know that our time with you wasn't wasted.

<sup>2</sup>As you remember, we had been ill-treated and insulted at Philippi. But God gave us the courage to tell you the good news about him, even though many people caused us trouble.

<sup>3</sup>We didn't have any hidden motives when we won you over, and we didn't try to fool or trick anyone.

<sup>4</sup>God was pleased to trust us with his message. We didn't speak to please people, but to please God who knows our motives.

<sup>5</sup>You also know that we didn't try to flatter anyone. God himself knows that what we did wasn't a cover-up for greed.

<sup>6</sup>We were not trying to get you or anyone else to praise us.

<sup>7</sup>But as apostles, we could have demanded help from you. After all, Christ is the one who sent us. We chose to be like children or like a mother nursing her baby.

<sup>8</sup>We cared so much for you, and you became so dear to us, that we were willing to give our lives for you when we gave you God's message.

<sup>9</sup>My dear friends, you haven't forgotten our hard work and hardships. You remember how night and day we struggled to make a living, so that we could tell you God's message without being a burden to anyone.

<sup>10</sup>Both you and God are witnesses that we were pure and honest and innocent in our dealings with you followers of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>You also know we did everything for you that parents would do for their own children.

<sup>12</sup>We begged, encouraged, and urged each of you to live in a way that would honour God. He is the one who chose you to share in his own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>We always thank God that you believed the message we preached. It came from him, and it isn't something made up by humans. You accepted it as God's message, and now he is working in you.

<sup>14</sup>My friends, you did just like God's churches in Judea and like the other followers of Christ Jesus there. And so, you were ill-treated by your own people, in the same way they were ill-treated by their people.

<sup>15</sup>Those Jews killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and they even chased us away. God doesn't like what they do and neither does anyone else.

<sup>16</sup>They keep us from speaking his message to the Gentiles and from leading them to be saved. The Jews have always gone too far with their sins. Now God has finally become angry and will punish them.

Paul wants to visit the church again

<sup>17</sup>My friends, we were kept from coming to you for a while, but we never stopped thinking about you. We were eager to see you and tried our best to visit you in person.

<sup>18</sup>We really wanted to come. I myself tried several times, but Satan always stopped us.

<sup>19</sup>After all, when the Lord Jesus appears, who else but you will give us hope and joy and be like a glorious crown for us?

<sup>20</sup>You alone are our glory and joy!

1 Thessalonians 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, we couldn't stand it any longer. We decided to stay in Athens by ourselves

<sup>2</sup>and send our friend Timothy to you. He works with us as God's servant and preaches the good news about Christ. We wanted him to make you strong in your faith and to encourage you.

<sup>3</sup>We didn't want any of you to be discouraged by all these troubles. You knew we would have to suffer, <sup>4</sup>because when we were with you, we told you this would happen. And we did suffer, as you well know.

<sup>5</sup>At last, when I could not wait any longer, I sent Timothy to find out about your faith. I hoped that Satan had not tempted you and made all our work useless.

<sup>6</sup>Timothy has come back from his visit to you and has told us about your faith and love. He also said that you always have happy memories of us and that you want to see us as much as we want to see you.

<sup>7</sup>My friends, even though we have a lot of trouble and suffering, your faith makes us feel better about you.

<sup>8</sup>Your strong faith in the Lord is like a breath of new life.

<sup>9</sup>How can we possibly thank God enough for all the happiness you have brought us?

<sup>10</sup>Day and night we sincerely pray that we will see you again and help you to have an even stronger faith.

<sup>11</sup>We pray that God our Father and our Lord Jesus will let us visit you.

<sup>12</sup>May the Lord make your love for each other and for everyone else grow by leaps and bounds. That's how our love for you has grown.

<sup>13</sup>And when our Lord comes with all his people, I pray that he will make your hearts pure and innocent in the sight of God the Father.

1 Thessalonians 4

A life that pleases God

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my dear friends, since you belong to the Lord Jesus, we beg and urge you to live as we taught you. Then you will please God. You are already living that way, but try even harder.

<sup>2</sup>Remember the instructions we gave you as followers of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup>God wants you to be holy, so don't be immoral in matters of sex.

<sup>4</sup>Respect and honour your wife.

<sup>5</sup>Don't be a slave of your desires or live like people who don't know God.

<sup>6</sup>You must not cheat any of the Lord's followers in matters of sex. Remember, we warned you that he punishes everyone who does such things.

<sup>7</sup>God didn't choose you to be filthy, but to be pure.

<sup>8</sup>So if you don't obey these rules, you are not really disobeying us. You are disobeying God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>We don't have to write to you about the need to love each other. God has taught you to do this,

<sup>10</sup>and you already have shown your love for all his people in Macedonia. But, my dear friends, we ask you to do even more.

<sup>11</sup>Try your best to live quietly, to mind your own business, and to work hard, just as we taught you to do.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will be respected by people who are not followers of the Lord, and you won't have to depend on anyone.

What to expect when the Lord returns

<sup>13</sup>My friends, we want you to understand how it will be for those followers who have already died. Then you won't grieve over them and be like people who don't have any hope.

<sup>14</sup>We believe that Jesus died and was raised to life. We also believe that when God brings Jesus back again, he will bring with him all who had faith in Jesus before they died.

<sup>15</sup>Our Lord Jesus told us that when he comes, we won't go up to meet him ahead of his followers who have already died.

<sup>16</sup>With a loud command and with the shout of the chief angel and a blast of God's trumpet, the Lord will return from heaven. Then those who had faith in Christ before they died will be raised to life.

<sup>17</sup>Next, all of us who are still alive will be taken up into the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the sky. From that time on we will all be with the Lord for ever.

<sup>18</sup>Encourage each other with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5

<sup>1</sup>I don't need to write to you about the time or date when all this will happen.

<sup>2</sup>You know that the Lord's return will be as a thief coming at night.

<sup>3</sup>People will think they are safe and secure. But destruction will suddenly strike them like the pains of a woman about to give birth. And they won't escape.

<sup>4</sup>My dear friends, you don't live in darkness, and so that day won't surprise you like a thief.

<sup>5</sup>You belong to the light and live in the day. We don't live in the night or belong to the dark.

<sup>6</sup>Others may sleep, but we should stay awake and be alert.

<sup>7</sup>People sleep during the night, and some even get drunk.

<sup>8</sup>But we belong to the day. So we must stay sober and let our faith and love be like a suit of armour. Our firm hope that we will be saved is our helmet.

<sup>9</sup>God doesn't intend to punish us, but wants us to be saved by our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>10</sup>Christ died for us, so that we could live with him, whether we are alive or dead when he comes.

<sup>11</sup>That's why you must encourage and help each other, just as you are already doing.

Final instructions and greetings

<sup>12</sup>My friends, we ask you to be thoughtful of your leaders who work hard and tell you how to live for the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Show them great respect and love because of their work. Try to get along with each other.

<sup>14</sup>My friends, we beg you to warn anyone who isn't living right. Encourage anyone who feels left out, help all who are weak, and be patient with everyone.

<sup>15</sup>Don't be hateful to people, just because they are hateful to you. Rather, be good to each other and to everyone else.

<sup>16</sup>Always be joyful

<sup>17</sup>and never stop praying.

<sup>18</sup>Whatever happens, keep thanking God because of Jesus Christ. This is what God wants you to do.

<sup>19</sup>Don't turn away God's Spirit

<sup>20</sup>or ignore prophecies.

<sup>21</sup>Put everything to the test. Accept what is good

<sup>22</sup>and don't have anything to do with evil.

<sup>23</sup>I pray that God, who gives peace, will make you completely holy. And may your spirit, soul, and body be kept healthy and faultless until our Lord Jesus Christ returns.

<sup>24</sup>The one who chose you can be trusted, and he will do this.

<sup>25</sup>Friends, please pray for us.

<sup>26</sup>Give the Lord's followers a warm greeting.

<sup>27</sup>In the name of the Lord I beg you to read this letter to all his followers.

<sup>28</sup>I pray that our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you!

2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church in Thessalonica, the people of God our Father and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

The Lord's return will bring justice

<sup>3</sup>My dear friends, we always have good reason to thank God for you, because your faith in God and your love for each other keep growing all the time.

<sup>4</sup>That's why we boast about you to all God's churches. We tell them how patient you are and how you keep on having faith, even though you are going through a lot of trouble and suffering.

<sup>5</sup>All this shows that God judges fairly and that he is making you fit to share in his kingdom for which you are suffering.

<sup>6</sup>It is only right for God to punish everyone who is causing you trouble,

<sup>7</sup>but he will give you relief from your troubles. He will do the same for us, when the Lord Jesus comes from heaven with his powerful angels

<sup>8</sup>and with a flaming fire. Our Lord Jesus will punish anyone who doesn't know God and won't obey his message.

<sup>9</sup>Their punishment will be eternal destruction, and they will be kept far from the presence of our Lord and his glorious strength.

<sup>10</sup>This will happen on that day when the Lord returns to be praised and honoured by all who have faith in him and belong to him. This includes you, because you believed what we said.

<sup>11</sup>God chose you, and we keep praying that God will make you worthy of being his people. We pray for God's power to help you do all the good things that you hope to do and that your faith makes you want to do.

<sup>12</sup>Then, because God and our Lord Jesus Christ are so kind, you will bring honour to the name of our Lord Jesus, and he will bring honour to you.

2 Thessalonians 2

The Lord has not returned yet The Lord's return

<sup>1</sup>When our Lord Jesus returns, we will be gathered up to meet him. So I ask you, my friends,

<sup>2</sup>not to be easily upset or disturbed by people who claim that the Lord has already come. They may say that they heard this directly from the Holy Spirit, or from someone else, or even that they read it in one of our letters.

<sup>3</sup>But don't be fooled! People will rebel against God. Then before the Lord returns, the wicked one who is doomed to be destroyed will appear.

<sup>4</sup>He will boast and oppose everything that is holy or sacred. He will even sit in God's temple and claim to be God.

<sup>5</sup>Don't you remember that I told you this while I was still with you?

<sup>6</sup>You already know what is holding this wicked one back until it is time for him to come.

<sup>7</sup>His mysterious power is already at work, but someone is holding him back. And the wicked one won't appear until that someone is out of the way.

<sup>8</sup>Then he will appear, but the Lord Jesus will kill him simply by breathing on him. He will be completely destroyed by the Lord's glorious return.

<sup>9</sup>When the wicked one appears, Satan will pretend to perform all kinds of miracles, wonders, and signs.

<sup>10</sup>Lost people will be fooled by his evil deeds. They could be saved, but they will refuse to love the truth and accept it.

<sup>11</sup>So God will make sure that they are fooled into believing a lie.

<sup>12</sup>All of them will be punished, because they would rather do evil than believe the truth.

Be faithful

<sup>13</sup>My friends, the Lord loves you, and it is only natural for us to thank God for you. God chose you to be the first ones to be saved. His Spirit made you holy, and you put your faith in the truth.

<sup>14</sup>God used our preaching as his way of inviting you to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup>My friends, that's why you must remain faithful and follow closely what we taught you in person and by our letters.

<sup>16</sup>God our Father loves us. He is kind and has given us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope. We pray that our Lord Jesus Christ and God our Father <sup>17</sup>will encourage you and help you always to do and say the right thing.

2 Thessalonians 3

Pray and work Pray for us

<sup>1</sup>Finally, our friends, please pray for us. This will help the message about the Lord to spread quickly, and others will respect it, just as you do.

<sup>2</sup>Pray that we may be kept safe from worthless and evil people. After all, not everyone has faith.

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord can be trusted to make you strong and protect you from harm.

<sup>4</sup>He has made us sure that you are obeying what we taught you and that you will keep on obeying.

<sup>5</sup>I pray that the Lord will guide you to be as loving as God and as patient as Christ.

Warnings against laziness

<sup>6</sup>My dear friends, in the name of the Lord Jesus, I beg you not to have anything to do with any of your people who waste their time and refuse to obey the instructions we gave you.

<sup>7</sup>You know that you should follow our example. We didn't waste our time being lazy,

<sup>8</sup>and we didn't accept food from anyone without paying for it. We didn't want to be a burden to any of you, so night and day we worked as hard as we could.

<sup>9</sup>We had the right not to work, but we wanted to set an example for you.

<sup>10</sup>We also gave you the rule that if you don't work, you don't eat.

<sup>11</sup>Now we learn that some of you waste your time and won't do any work, except the work of a busybody.

<sup>12</sup>So, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, we ask and beg these people to settle down and start working for a living.

<sup>13</sup>Dear friends, you must never become tired of doing right.

<sup>14</sup>Be on your guard against any followers who refuse to obey what we have written in this letter. Put them to shame by not having anything to do with them.

<sup>15</sup>Don't consider them your enemies, but speak kindly to them as you would to any other follower.

A final prayer

<sup>16</sup>I pray that the Lord, who gives peace, will always bless you with peace. May the Lord be with all of you.

<sup>17</sup>I always sign my letters as I am now doing: PAUL.

<sup>18</sup>I pray that our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to all of you.

1 Timothy

1 Timothy 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From Paul. God our Saviour and Christ Jesus commanded me to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, who gives us hope.

<sup>2</sup>Timothy, because of our faith, you are like a son to me. I pray that God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind and merciful to you. May they bless you with peace!

Instructions for church life Warning against false teaching

<sup>3</sup>When I was leaving for Macedonia, I asked you to stay on in Ephesus and warn certain people there to stop spreading their false teachings.

<sup>4</sup>You needed to warn them to stop wasting their time on senseless stories and endless lists of ancestors. Such things only cause arguments. They don't help anyone to do God's work that can only be done by faith.

<sup>5</sup>You must teach people to have genuine love, as well as a good conscience and true faith.

<sup>6</sup>There are some who have given up these for nothing but empty talk.

<sup>7</sup>They want to be teachers of the Law of Moses. But they don't know what they are talking about, even though they think they do.

<sup>8</sup>We know that the Law is good, if it is used in the right way.

<sup>9</sup>We also understand that it wasn't given to control people who please God, but to control lawbreakers, criminals, godless people, and sinners. It is for wicked and evil people, and for murderers, who would even kill their own parents.

<sup>10</sup>The Law was written for people who are sexual perverts or who live as homosexuals or are kidnappers or liars or won't tell the truth in court. It is for anything else that opposes the correct teaching

<sup>11</sup>of the good news that the glorious and wonderful God has given me.

Being thankful for God's kindness

<sup>12</sup>I thank Christ Jesus our Lord. He has given me the strength for my work because he knew that he could trust me.

<sup>13</sup>I used to say terrible and insulting things about him, and I was cruel. But he had mercy on me because I didn't know what I was doing, and I had not yet put my faith in him.

<sup>14</sup>Christ Jesus our Lord was very kind to me. He has greatly blessed my life with faith and love just like his own.

<sup>15</sup>“Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.” This saying is true, and it can be trusted. I was the worst sinner of all!

<sup>16</sup>But since I was worse than anyone else, God had mercy on me and let me be an example of the endless patience of Christ Jesus. He did this so that others would put their faith in Christ and have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>I pray that honour and glory will always be given to the only God, who lives for ever and is the invisible and eternal King! Amen.

<sup>18</sup>Timothy, my son, the instructions I am giving you are based on what some prophets once said about you. If you follow these instructions, you will fight like a good soldier.

<sup>19</sup>You will be faithful and have a clear conscience. Some people have made a mess of their faith because they didn't listen to their consciences.

<sup>20</sup>Two of them are Hymenaeus and Alexander. I have given these men over to the power of Satan, so they will learn not to oppose God.

1 Timothy 2

How to pray

<sup>1</sup>First of all, I ask you to pray for everyone. Ask God to help and bless them all, and tell God how thankful you are for each of them.

<sup>2</sup>Pray for kings and others in power, so that we may live quiet and peaceful lives as we worship and honour God.

<sup>3</sup>This kind of prayer is good, and it pleases God our Saviour.

<sup>4</sup>God wants everyone to be saved and to know the whole truth, which is,

<sup>5</sup>There is only one God, and Christ Jesus is the only one who can bring us to God. Jesus was truly human, and he gave himself to rescue all of us.

<sup>6</sup>God showed us this at the right time.

<sup>7</sup>This is why God chose me to be a preacher and an apostle of the good news. I am telling the truth. I am not lying. God sent me to teach the Gentiles about faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>I want everyone everywhere to lift innocent hands towards heaven and pray, without being angry or arguing with each other.

<sup>9</sup>I would like women to wear modest and sensible clothes. They should not have fancy hair styles, or wear expensive clothes, or put on jewellery made of gold or pearls.

<sup>10</sup>Women who claim to love God should do helpful things for others,

<sup>11</sup>and they should learn by being quiet and paying attention.

<sup>12</sup>They should be silent and not be allowed to teach or to tell men what to do.

<sup>13</sup>After all, Adam was created before Eve,

<sup>14</sup>and the man Adam wasn't the one who was fooled. It was the woman Eve who was completely fooled and sinned.

<sup>15</sup>But women will be saved by having children, if they stay faithful, loving, holy, and modest.

1 Timothy 3

Church officials

<sup>1</sup>It is true that anyone who desires to be a church official wants to be something worthwhile.

<sup>2</sup> That's why officials must have a good reputation and be faithful in marriage. They must be self-controlled, sensible, well-behaved, friendly to strangers, and able to teach.

<sup>3</sup> They must not be heavy drinkers or troublemakers. Instead, they must be kind and gentle and not love money.

<sup>4</sup> Church officials must be in control of their own families, and they must see that their children are obedient and always respectful.

<sup>5</sup> If they don't know how to control their own families, how can they look after God's people?

<sup>6</sup> They must not be new followers of the Lord. If they are, they might become proud and be doomed along with the devil.

<sup>7</sup> Finally, they must be well respected by people who are not followers. Then they won't be trapped and disgraced by the devil.

Church officers

<sup>8</sup> Church officers should be serious. They must not be liars, heavy drinkers, or greedy for money.

<sup>9</sup> And they must have a clear conscience and hold firmly to what God has shown us about our faith.

<sup>10</sup> They must first prove themselves. Then if no one has anything against them, they can serve as officers.

<sup>11</sup> Women must also be serious. They must not gossip or be heavy drinkers, and they must be faithful in everything they do.

<sup>12</sup> Church officers must be faithful in marriage. They must be in full control of their children and everyone else in their home.

<sup>13</sup> Those who serve well as officers will earn a good reputation and will be highly respected for their faith in Christ Jesus.

The mystery of our religion

<sup>14</sup> I hope to visit you soon. But I am writing these instructions,

<sup>15</sup>so that if I am delayed, you will know how everyone who belongs to God's family ought to behave. After all, the church of the living God is the strong foundation of truth.

<sup>16</sup>Here is the great mystery of our religion: Christ came as a human. The Spirit proved that he pleased God, and he was seen by angels. Christ was preached to the nations. People in this world put their faith in him, and he was taken up to glory.

1 Timothy 4

People will turn from their faith

<sup>1</sup>God's Spirit clearly says that in the last days many people will turn from their faith. They will be fooled by evil spirits and by teachings that come from demons.

<sup>2</sup>They will also be fooled by the false claims of liars whose consciences have lost all feeling. These liars

<sup>3</sup>will forbid people to marry or to eat certain foods. But God created these foods to be eaten with thankful hearts by his followers who know the truth.

<sup>4</sup>Everything God created is good. And if you give thanks, you may eat anything.

<sup>5</sup>What God has said and your prayer will make it fit to eat.

Paul's advice to Timothy

<sup>6</sup>If you teach these things to other followers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus. You will show that you have grown up on the teachings about our faith and on the good instructions you have obeyed.

<sup>7</sup>Don't have anything to do with worthless, senseless stories. Work hard to be truly religious.

<sup>8-9</sup>As the saying goes, "Exercise is good for your body, but religion helps you in every way. It promises life now and for ever." These words are worthwhile and should not be forgotten.

<sup>10</sup>We have put our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of everyone, but especially of those who have faith. That's why we work and struggle so hard.

<sup>11</sup>Teach these things and tell everyone to do what you say.

<sup>12</sup>Don't let anyone make fun of you, just because you are young. Set an example for other followers by what you say and do, as well as by your love, faith, and purity.

<sup>13</sup>Until I arrive, be sure to keep on reading the Scriptures in worship, and don't stop preaching and teaching.

<sup>14</sup>Use the gift you were given when the prophets spoke and the group of church leaders blessed you by placing their hands on you.

<sup>15</sup>Remember these things and think about them, so everyone can see how well you are doing.

<sup>16</sup>Be careful about the way you live and about what you teach. Keep on doing this, and you will save not only yourself, but the people who hear you.

1 Timothy 5

How to act towards others

<sup>1</sup>Don't correct an older man. Encourage him, as you would your own father. Treat younger men as you would your own brother,

<sup>2</sup>and treat older women as you would your own mother. Show the same respect to younger women that you would to your sister.

<sup>3</sup>Take care of any widow who is really in need.

<sup>4</sup>But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they should learn to serve God by taking care of her, as she once took care of them. This is what God wants them to do.

<sup>5</sup>A widow who is really in need is one who doesn't have any relatives. She has faith in God, and she keeps praying to him night and day, asking for his help.

<sup>6</sup>A widow who thinks only about having a good time is already dead, even though she is still alive.

<sup>7</sup>Tell all this to everyone, so they will do the right thing.

<sup>8</sup>People who don't take care of their relatives, and especially their own families, have given up their faith. They are worse than someone who doesn't have faith in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>For a widow to be put on the list of widows, she must be at least sixty years old, and she must have been faithful in marriage.

<sup>10</sup>She must also be well known for doing all sorts of good things, such as raising children, giving food to strangers, welcoming God's people into her home, helping people in need, and always making herself useful.

<sup>11</sup>Don't put young widows on the list. They may later have a strong desire to get married. Then they will turn away from Christ

<sup>12</sup>and become guilty of breaking their promise to him.

<sup>13</sup>Besides, they will become lazy and get into the habit of going from house to house. Next, they will start gossiping and become busybodies, talking about things that are none of their business.

<sup>14</sup>I would prefer that young widows get married, have children, and look after their families. Then the enemy won't have any reason to say insulting things about us.

<sup>15</sup>Look what's already happened to some of the young widows! They have turned away to follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If a woman who is a follower has any widows in her family, she should help them. This will keep the church from having that burden, and then the church can help widows who are really in need.

Church leaders

<sup>17</sup>Church leaders who do their job well deserve to be paid twice as much, especially if they work hard at preaching and teaching.

<sup>18</sup>It is just as the Scriptures say, “Don't muzzle an ox when you are using it to grind grain.” You also know the saying, “Workers are worth their pay.”

<sup>19</sup>Don't listen to any charge against a church leader, unless at least two or three people bring the same charges.

<sup>20</sup>But if any of the leaders should keep on sinning, they must be corrected in front of the whole group, as a warning to everyone else.

<sup>21</sup>In the presence of God and Christ Jesus and their chosen angels, I order you to follow my instructions! Be fair with everyone, and don't have any favourites.

<sup>22</sup>Don't be too quick to accept people into the service of the Lord by placing your hands on them. Don't sin because others do, but stay close to God.

<sup>23</sup>Stop drinking only water. Take a little wine to help your stomach trouble and the other illnesses you always have.

<sup>24</sup>Some people get caught in their sins straight away, even before the time of judgment. But other people's sins don't show up until later.

<sup>25</sup>It is the same with good deeds. Some are easily seen, but none of them can be hidden.

1 Timothy 6

<sup>1</sup>If you are a slave, you should respect and honour your owner. This will keep people from saying bad things about God and about our teaching.

<sup>2</sup>If any of you slaves have owners who are followers, you should show them respect. After all, they are also followers of Christ, and he loves them. So you should serve and help them the best you can.

False teaching and true wealth

These are the things you must teach and tell the people to do.

<sup>3</sup>Anyone who teaches something different disagrees with the correct and godly teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>Those people who disagree are proud of themselves, but they don't really know a thing. Their minds are sick, and they like to argue over words. They cause jealousy, disagreements, unkind words, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>and nasty quarrels. They have wicked minds and have missed out on the truth. These people think religion is supposed to make you rich.

<sup>6</sup>And religion does make your life rich, by making you content with what you have.

<sup>7</sup>We didn't bring anything into this world, and we won't take anything with us when we leave.

<sup>8</sup>So we should be satisfied just to have food and clothes.

<sup>9</sup>People who want to be rich fall into all sorts of temptations and traps. They are caught by foolish and harmful desires that drag them down and destroy them.

<sup>10</sup>The love of money causes all kinds of trouble. Some people want money so much that they have given up their faith and caused themselves a lot of pain.

Fighting a good fight for the faith

<sup>11</sup>Timothy, you belong to God, so keep away from all these evil things. Try your best to please God and to be like him. Be faithful, loving, dependable, and gentle.

<sup>12</sup>Fight a good fight for the faith and claim eternal life. God offered it to you when you clearly told about your faith, while so many people listened.

<sup>13</sup>Now I ask you to make a promise. Make it in the presence of God, who gives life to all, and in the presence of Jesus Christ, who openly told Pontius Pilate about his faith.

<sup>14</sup>Promise to obey completely and fully all that you have been told until our Lord Jesus Christ returns.

<sup>15</sup>The glorious God is the only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords. At the time that God has already decided, he will send Jesus Christ back again.

<sup>16</sup>Only God lives for ever! And he lives in light that no one can come near. No human has ever seen God or ever can see him. God will be honoured, and his power will last for ever. Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Warn the rich people of this world not to be proud or to trust in wealth that is easily lost. Tell them to have faith in God, who is rich and blesses us with everything we need to enjoy life.

<sup>18</sup>Instruct them to do as many good deeds as they can and to help everyone. Remind the rich to be generous and share what they have.

<sup>19</sup>This will lay a solid foundation for the future, so that they will know what true life is like.

<sup>20</sup>Timothy, guard what God has placed in your care! Don't pay any attention to that godless and stupid talk that sounds clever but really isn't.

<sup>21</sup>Some people have even lost their faith by believing this talk. I pray that the Lord will be kind to all of you!

2 Timothy

2 Timothy 1

Greetings and prayer for Timothy

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus. God himself chose me to be an apostle, and he gave me the promised life that Jesus Christ makes possible.

<sup>2</sup>Timothy, you are like a dear child to me. I pray that God our Father and our Lord Christ Jesus will be kind and merciful to you and will bless you with peace!

Do not be ashamed of the Lord

<sup>3</sup>Night and day I mention you in my prayers. I am always grateful for you, as I pray to the God my ancestors and I have served with a clear conscience.

<sup>4</sup>I remember how you cried, and I want to see you, because that will make me truly happy.

<sup>5</sup>I also remember the genuine faith of your mother Eunice. Your grandmother Lois had the same sort of faith, and I am sure that you have it as well.

<sup>6</sup>So I ask you to make full use of the gift that God gave you when I placed my hands on you. Use it well.

<sup>7</sup>God's Spirit doesn't make cowards out of us. The Spirit gives us power, love, and self-control.

<sup>8</sup>Don't be ashamed to speak for our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, just because I am in jail for serving him. Use the power that comes from God and join with me in suffering for telling the good news.

<sup>9</sup>God saved us and chose us to be his holy people. We did nothing to deserve this, but God planned it because he is so kind. Even before time began God planned for Christ Jesus to show kindness to us.

<sup>10</sup>Now Christ Jesus has come to show us the kindness of God. Christ our Saviour defeated death and brought us the good news. It shines like a light and offers life that never ends.

<sup>11</sup> My work is to be a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher.

<sup>12</sup> That's why I am suffering now. But I am not ashamed! I know the one I have faith in, and I am sure that he can guard until the last day what he has trusted me with.

<sup>13</sup> Now follow the example of the correct teaching I gave you, and let the faith and love of Christ Jesus be your model.

<sup>14</sup> You have been trusted with a wonderful treasure. Guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit, who lives within you.

<sup>15</sup> You know that everyone in Asia has turned against me, especially Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> I pray that the Lord will be kind to the family of Onesiphorus. He often cheered me up and wasn't ashamed of me when I was put in jail.

<sup>17</sup> Then after he arrived in Rome, he searched everywhere until he found me.

<sup>18</sup> I pray that the Lord Jesus will ask God to show mercy to Onesiphorus on the day of judgment. You know how much he helped me in Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2

How to be a good soldier of Christ

<sup>1</sup> Timothy, my child, Christ Jesus is kind, and you must let him make you strong.

<sup>2</sup> You have often heard me teach. Now I want you to tell these same things to followers who can be trusted to tell others.

<sup>3</sup> As a good soldier of Christ Jesus you must endure your share of suffering.

<sup>4</sup> Soldiers on duty don't work at outside jobs. They try only to please their commanding officer.

<sup>5</sup> No one wins an athletic contest without obeying the rules.

<sup>6</sup> And farmers who work hard are the first to eat what grows in their field.

<sup>7</sup>If you keep in mind what I have told you, the Lord will help you understand completely.

<sup>8</sup>Keep your mind on Jesus Christ! He was from the family of David and was raised from death, just as my good news says.

<sup>9</sup>And because of this message, I am locked up in jail and treated like a criminal. But God's good news isn't locked in jail,

<sup>10</sup>and so I am willing to put up with anything. Then God's special people will be saved. They will be given eternal glory because they belong to Christ Jesus.

<sup>11</sup>Here is a true message: "If we died with Christ, we will live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we don't give up, we will rule with him. If we deny that we know him, he will deny that he knows us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are not faithful, he will still be faithful. Christ cannot deny who he is."

An approved worker

<sup>14</sup>Don't let anyone forget these things. And with God as your witness, you must warn them not to argue about words. These arguments don't help anyone. In fact, they ruin everyone who listens to them.

<sup>15</sup>Do your best to win God's approval as a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed and who teaches only the true message.

<sup>16</sup>Keep away from worthless and useless talk. It only leads people further away from God.

<sup>17</sup>That sort of talk is like a sore that won't heal. And Hymenaeus and Philetus have been talking this way

<sup>18</sup>by teaching that the dead have already been raised to life. This is far from the truth, and it is destroying the faith of some people.

<sup>19</sup>But the foundation that God has laid is solid. On it is written, "The Lord knows who his people are. So everyone who worships the Lord must turn away from evil."

<sup>20</sup>In a large house some dishes are made of gold or silver, while others are made of wood or clay. Some of these are special, and others are not.

<sup>21</sup>That's also how it is with people. The ones who stop doing evil and make themselves pure will become special. Their lives will be holy and pleasing to their Master, and they will be able to do all kinds of good deeds.

<sup>22</sup>Run from temptations that capture young people. Always do the right thing. Be faithful, loving, and easy to get along with. Worship with people whose hearts are pure.

<sup>23</sup>Stay away from stupid and senseless arguments. These only lead to trouble, <sup>24</sup>and God's servants must not be troublemakers. They must be kind to everyone, and they must be good teachers and very patient.

<sup>25</sup>Be humble when you correct people who oppose you. Perhaps God will lead them to turn to him and learn the truth.

<sup>26</sup>They have been trapped by the devil, and he makes them obey him, but God may help them escape.

2 Timothy 3

What people will be like in the last days

<sup>1</sup>You can be certain that in the last days there will be some very hard times.

<sup>2</sup>People will love only themselves and money. They will be proud, stuck-up, rude, and disobedient to their parents. They will also be ungrateful, godless, <sup>3</sup>heartless, and hateful. Their words will be cruel, and they will have no self-control or pity. These people will hate everything that is good.

<sup>4</sup>They will be sneaky, reckless, and puffed up with pride. Instead of loving God, they will love pleasure.

<sup>5</sup>Even though they will make a show of being religious, their religion won't be real. Don't have anything to do with such people.

<sup>6</sup>Some men fool whole families, just to get power over those women who are slaves of sin and are controlled by all sorts of desires.

<sup>7</sup>These women always want to learn something new, but they never can discover the truth.

<sup>8</sup>Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, these people are enemies of the truth. Their minds are sick, and their faith isn't real.

<sup>9</sup>But they won't get very far with their foolishness. Soon everyone will know the truth about them, just as Jannes and Jambres were found out.

Keep being faithful
Paul's last instructions to Timothy

<sup>10</sup>Timothy, you know what I teach and how I live. You know what I want to do and what I believe. You have seen how patient and loving I am, and how in the past I put up with <sup>11</sup>trouble and suffering in the cities of Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. Yet the Lord rescued me from all those terrible troubles.

<sup>12</sup>Anyone who belongs to Christ Jesus and wants to live right will have trouble from others.

<sup>13</sup>But evil people who pretend to be what they are not will become worse than ever, as they fool others and are fooled themselves.

<sup>14</sup>Keep on being faithful to what you were taught and to what you believed. After all, you know who taught you these things.

<sup>15</sup>Since childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures that are able to make you wise enough to have faith in Christ Jesus and be saved.

<sup>16</sup>Everything in the Scriptures is God's Word. All of it is useful for teaching and helping people and for correcting them and showing them how to live.

<sup>17</sup>The Scriptures train God's servants to do all kinds of good deeds.

2 Timothy 4

<sup>1</sup>When Christ Jesus comes as king, he will be the judge of everyone, whether they are living or dead. So with God and Christ as witnesses, I command you <sup>2</sup>to preach God's message. Do it willingly, even if it isn't the popular thing to do. You must correct people and point out their sins. But also cheer them up, and when you instruct them, always be patient.

<sup>3</sup>The time is coming when people won't listen to good teaching. Instead, they will look for teachers who will please them by telling them only what they are itching to hear.

<sup>4</sup>They will turn from the truth and eagerly listen to senseless stories.

<sup>5</sup>But you must stay calm and be willing to suffer. You must work hard to tell the good news and to do your job well.

<sup>6</sup>Now the time has come for me to die. My life is like a drink offering being poured out on the altar.

<sup>7</sup>I have fought well. I have finished the race, and I have been faithful.

<sup>8</sup>So a crown will be given to me for pleasing the Lord. He judges fairly, and on the day of judgment he will give a crown to me and to everyone else who wants him to appear with power.

Personal instructions and final greetings

Personal instructions

<sup>9</sup>Come to see me as soon as you can.

<sup>10</sup>Demas loves the things of this world so much that he left me and went to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus has gone to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup>Only Luke has stayed with me. Mark can be very helpful to me, so please find him and bring him with you.

<sup>12</sup>I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

<sup>13</sup>When you come, bring the coat I left at Troas with Carpus. Don't forget to bring the scrolls, especially the ones made of leather.

<sup>14</sup>Alexander, the metalworker, has hurt me in many ways. But the Lord will pay him back for what he has done.

<sup>15</sup>Alexander opposes what we preach. You had better watch out for him.

<sup>16</sup>When I was first put on trial, no one helped me. In fact, everyone deserted me. I hope it won't be held against them.

<sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood beside me. He gave me the strength to tell his full message, so that all Gentiles would hear it. And I was kept safe from hungry lions.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord will always keep me from being harmed by evil, and he will bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. Praise him for ever and ever! Amen.

Final greetings

<sup>19</sup>Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila and to the family of Onesiphorus.

<sup>20</sup>Erastus stayed at Corinth. Trophimus was sick when I left him at Miletus.

<sup>21</sup>Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, and Claudia send you their greetings, and so do the rest of the Lord's followers.

<sup>22</sup>I pray that the Lord will bless your life and will be kind to you.

Titus

Titus 1

Greetings and a prayer for Titus

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I encourage God's own people to have more faith and to understand the truth about religion.

<sup>2</sup>Then they will have the hope of eternal life that God promised long ago. And God never tells a lie!

<sup>3</sup>So, at the proper time, God our Saviour gave this message and told me to announce what he had said.

<sup>4</sup>Titus, because of our faith, you are like a son to me. I pray that God our Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

Instructions for church officials

What Titus was to do in Crete

<sup>5</sup>I left you in Crete to do what had been left undone and to appoint leaders for the churches in each town. As I told you,

<sup>6</sup>they must have a good reputation and be faithful in marriage. Their children must be followers of the Lord and not have a reputation for being wild and disobedient.

<sup>7</sup>Church officials are in charge of God's work, and so they must also have a good reputation. They must not be bossy, quick-tempered, heavy drinkers, bullies, or dishonest in business.

<sup>8</sup>Instead, they must be friendly to strangers and enjoy doing good things. They must also be sensible, fair, pure, and self-controlled.

<sup>9</sup>They must stick to the true message they were taught, so that their good teaching can help others and correct everyone who opposes it.

<sup>10</sup>There are many who don't respect authority, and they fool others by talking nonsense. This is especially true of some Jewish followers.

<sup>11</sup>But you must make them be quiet. They are after money, and they upset whole families by teaching what they should not.

<sup>12</sup>It is like one of their own prophets once said, "The people of Crete always tell lies. They are greedy and lazy like wild animals."

<sup>13</sup>That is a true saying. And you should be hard on such people, so you can help them grow stronger in their faith.

<sup>14</sup>Don't pay any attention to any of those senseless Jewish stories and human commands. These are made up by people who won't obey the truth.

<sup>15</sup>Everything is pure for someone whose heart is pure. But nothing is pure for an unbeliever with a dirty mind. That person's mind and conscience are destroyed.

<sup>16</sup>Such people claim to know God, but their actions prove that they really don't. They are disgusting. They won't obey God, and they are too worthless to do anything good.

Titus 2

Instructions for church people Instructions for different groups of people

<sup>1</sup>Titus, you must teach only what is correct.

<sup>2</sup>Tell the older men to have self-control and to be serious and sensible. Their faith, love, and patience must never fail.

<sup>3</sup>Tell the older women to behave as those who love the Lord should. They must not gossip about others or be slaves of wine. They must teach what is proper, <sup>4</sup>so the younger women will be loving wives and mothers.

<sup>5</sup>Each of the younger women must be sensible and kind, as well as a good homemaker, who puts her own husband first. Then no one can say insulting things about God's message.

<sup>6</sup>Tell the young men to have self-control in everything.

<sup>7</sup>Always set a good example for others. Be sincere and serious when you teach.

<sup>8</sup>Use clean language that no one can criticize. Do this, and your enemies will be too ashamed to say anything against you.

<sup>9</sup>Tell slaves always to please their owners by obeying them in everything. Slaves must not talk back to their owners

<sup>10</sup>or steal from them. They must be completely honest and trustworthy. Then everyone will show great respect for what is taught about God our Saviour.

God's kindness and the new life

<sup>11</sup>God has shown us how kind he is by coming to save all people.

<sup>12</sup>He taught us to give up our wicked ways and our worldly desires and to live decent and honest lives in this world.

<sup>13</sup>We are filled with hope, as we wait for the glorious return of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup>He gave himself to rescue us from everything that is evil and to make our hearts pure. He wanted us to be his own people and to be eager to do right.

<sup>15</sup>Teach these things, as you use your full authority to encourage and correct people. Make sure you earn everyone's respect.

Titus 3

Doing helpful things

<sup>1</sup>Remind your people to obey the rulers and authorities and not to be rebellious. They must always be ready to do something helpful

<sup>2</sup>and not say cruel things or argue. They should be gentle and kind to everyone.

<sup>3</sup>We used to be stupid, disobedient, and foolish, as well as slaves of all sorts of desires and pleasures. We were evil and jealous. Everyone hated us, and we hated everyone.

<sup>4</sup>God our Saviour showed us how good and kind he is.

<sup>5</sup>He saved us because of his mercy, and not because of any good things that we have done. God washed us by the power of the Holy Spirit. He gave us new birth and a fresh beginning.

<sup>6</sup>God sent Jesus Christ our Saviour to give us his Spirit.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus treated us much better than we deserve. He made us acceptable to God and gave us the hope of eternal life.

<sup>8</sup>This message is certainly true. These teachings are useful and helpful for everyone. I want you to insist that the people follow them, so that all who have faith in God will be sure to do good deeds.

<sup>9</sup>But don't have anything to do with stupid arguments about ancestors. And stay away from disagreements and quarrels about the Law of Moses. Such arguments are useless and senseless.

<sup>10</sup>Warn troublemakers once or twice. Then don't have anything else to do with them.

<sup>11</sup>You know that their minds are twisted, and their own sins show how guilty they are.

Personal advice and final greetings

<sup>12</sup>I plan to send Artemas or Tychicus to you. After he arrives, please try your best to meet me at Nicopolis. I have decided to spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup>When Zenas the lawyer and Apollos get ready to leave, help them as much as you can, so they won't have need of anything.

<sup>14</sup>Our people should learn to spend their time doing something useful and worthwhile.

<sup>15</sup>Greetings to you from everyone here. Greet all our friends who share in our faith. I pray that the Lord will be kind to all of you!

Philemon

Philemon 1

Greetings to Philemon

<sup>1</sup>From Paul, who is in jail for serving Christ Jesus, and from Timothy, who is like a brother because of our faith. Philemon, you work with us and are very dear to us. This letter is to you

<sup>2</sup>and to the church that meets in your home. It is also to our dear friend Apphia and to Archippus, who serves the Lord as we do.

<sup>3</sup>I pray that God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you and will bless you with peace!

Philemon's love and faith

<sup>4</sup>Philemon, each time I mention you in my prayers, I thank God.

<sup>5</sup>I hear about your faith in our Lord Jesus and about your love for all God's people.

<sup>6</sup>As you share your faith with others, I pray that they may come to know all the blessings Christ has given us.

<sup>7</sup>My friend, your love has made me happy and has greatly encouraged me. It has also cheered the hearts of God's people.

Paul speaks to Philemon about Onesimus

<sup>8</sup>Christ gives me the courage to tell you what to do.

<sup>9</sup>But I would rather ask you to do it simply because of love. Yes, as someone in jail for Christ,

<sup>10</sup>I beg you to help Onesimus! He is like a son to me because I led him to Christ here in jail.

<sup>11</sup>Before this, he was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup>Sending Onesimus back to you makes me very sad.

<sup>13</sup>I would like to keep him here with me, where he could take your place in helping me while I am here in prison for preaching the good news.

<sup>14</sup>But I won't do anything unless you agree to it first. I want your act of kindness to come from your heart, and not be something you feel forced to do.

<sup>15</sup>Perhaps Onesimus was taken from you for a little while so that you could have him back for good,

<sup>16</sup>but not as a slave. Onesimus is much more than a slave. To me he is a dear friend, but to you he is even more, both as a person and as a follower of the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>If you consider me a friend because of Christ, then welcome Onesimus as you would welcome me.

<sup>18</sup>If he has cheated you or owes you anything, charge it to my account.

<sup>19</sup>With my own hand I write: I, PAUL, WILL PAY YOU BACK. But don't forget that you owe me your life.

<sup>20</sup>My dear friend and follower of Christ our Lord, please cheer me up by doing this for me.

<sup>21</sup>I am sure you will do all I have asked, and even more.

<sup>22</sup>Please get a room ready for me. I hope your prayers will be answered, and I can visit you.

Final greetings and a prayer

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras is also here in jail for being a follower of Christ Jesus. He sends his greetings, <sup>24</sup>and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, who work together with me.

<sup>25</sup>I pray that the Lord Jesus Christ will be kind to you!

Hebrews

Hebrews 1

The greatness of God's Son

<sup>1</sup>Long ago in many ways and at many times God's prophets spoke his message to our ancestors.

<sup>2</sup>But now at last, God sent his Son to bring his message to us. God created the universe by his Son, and everything will some day belong to the Son.

<sup>3</sup>God's Son has all the brightness of God's own glory and is like him in every way. By his own mighty word, he holds the universe together. After the Son had washed away our sins, he sat down at the right side of the glorious God in heaven.

<sup>4</sup>He had become much greater than the angels, and the name he was given is far greater than any of theirs.

Jesus is greater than angels

<sup>5</sup>God has never said to any of the angels, "You are my Son, because today I have become your Father!" Neither has God said to any of them, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son!"

<sup>6</sup>When God brings his firstborn Son into the world, he commands all his angels to worship him.

<sup>7</sup>And when God speaks about the angels, he says, "I change my angels into wind and my servants into flaming fire."

<sup>8</sup>But God says about his Son, "You are God, and you will rule as King for ever! Your royal power brings about justice.

<sup>9</sup>You loved justice and hated evil, and so I, your God, have chosen you. I appointed you and made you happier than any of your friends."

<sup>10</sup>The Scriptures also say, "In the beginning, Lord, you were the one who laid the foundation of the earth and created the heavens.

<sup>11</sup>They will all disappear and wear out like clothes, but you will last for ever.

<sup>12</sup>You will roll them up like a robe and change them like a garment. But you are always the same, and you will live for ever.”

<sup>13</sup>God never said to any of the angels, “Sit at my right side until I make your enemies into a footstool for you!”

<sup>14</sup>Angels are merely spirits sent to serve people who are going to be saved.

Hebrews 2

This great way of being saved

<sup>1</sup>We must give our full attention to what we were told, so that we won't drift away.

<sup>2</sup>The message spoken by angels proved to be true, and all who disobeyed or rejected it were punished as they deserved.

<sup>3</sup>So if we refuse this great way of being saved, how can we hope to escape? The Lord himself was the first to tell about it, and people who heard the message proved to us that it was true.

<sup>4</sup>God himself showed that his message was true by performing all kinds of powerful miracles and wonders. He also gave his Holy Spirit to anyone he chose to.

The one who leads us to be saved

<sup>5</sup>We know that God did not put the future world under the power of angels.

<sup>6</sup>Somewhere in the Scriptures someone says to God, “What makes you care about us humans? Why are you concerned for weaklings such as we?”

<sup>7</sup>You made us lower than the angels for a while. Yet you have crowned us with glory and honour.

<sup>8</sup>And you have put everything under our power!” God has put everything under our power and has not left anything out of our power. But we still don't see it all under our power.

<sup>9</sup>What we do see is Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels. Because of God's wonderful kindness, Jesus died for everyone. And now that Jesus has suffered and died, he is crowned with glory and honour!

<sup>10</sup>Everything belongs to God, and all things were created by his power. So God did the right thing when he made Jesus perfect by suffering, as Jesus led many of God's children to be saved and to share in his glory.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus and the people he makes holy all belong to the same family. That is why he isn't ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters.

<sup>12</sup>He even said to God, "I will tell them your name and sing your praises when they come together to worship."

<sup>13</sup>He also said, "I will trust God." Then he said, "Here I am with the children God has given me."

<sup>14</sup>We are people of flesh and blood. That is why Jesus became one of us. He died to destroy the devil, who had power over death.

<sup>15</sup>But he also died to rescue all of us who live each day in fear of dying.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus clearly did not come to help angels, but he did come to help Abraham's descendants.

<sup>17</sup>He had to be one of us, so that he could serve God as our merciful and faithful high priest and sacrifice himself for the forgiveness of our sins.

<sup>18</sup>And now that Jesus has suffered and was tempted, he can help anyone else who is tempted.

Hebrews 3

Jesus is greater than Moses and Joshua

<sup>1</sup>My friends, God has chosen you to be his holy people. So think about Jesus, the one we call our apostle and high priest!

<sup>2</sup>Jesus was faithful to God, who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in serving all God's people.

<sup>3</sup>But Jesus deserves more honour than Moses, just as the builder of a house deserves more honour than the house.

<sup>4</sup>Of course, every house is built by someone, and God is really the one who built everything.

<sup>5</sup>Moses was a faithful servant and told God's people what would be said in the future.

<sup>6</sup>But Christ is the Son in charge of God's people. And we are those people, if we keep on being brave and don't lose hope.

A rest for God's people

<sup>7</sup>It is just as the Holy Spirit says, “If you hear God's voice today,

<sup>8</sup>don't be stubborn! Don't rebel like those people who were tested in the desert.

<sup>9-10</sup>For forty years your ancestors tested God and saw the things he did. “Then God got tired of them and said, ‘You people never show good sense, and you don't understand what I want you to do.’

<sup>11</sup>God became angry and told the people, ‘You will never enter my place of rest!’ ”

<sup>12</sup>My friends, watch out! Don't let evil thoughts or doubts make any of you turn from the living God.

<sup>13</sup>You must encourage one another each day. And you must keep on while there is still a time that can be called “today”. If you don't, then sin may fool some of you and make you stubborn.

<sup>14</sup>We were sure about Christ when we first became his people. So let's hold tightly to our faith until the end.

<sup>15</sup>The Scriptures say, “If you hear his voice today, don't be stubborn like those who rebelled.”

<sup>16</sup>Who were those people that heard God's voice and rebelled? Weren't they the same ones that came out of Egypt with Moses?

<sup>17</sup>Who were the people that made God angry for forty years? Weren't they the ones that sinned and died in the desert?

<sup>18</sup>And who did God say would never enter his place of rest? Weren't they the ones that disobeyed him?

<sup>19</sup>We see that those people did not enter the place of rest because they did not have faith.

Hebrews 4

<sup>1</sup>The promise to enter the place of rest is still good, and we must take care that none of you miss out.

<sup>2</sup>We have heard the message, just as they did. But they failed to believe what they heard, and the message did not do them any good.

<sup>3</sup>Only people who have faith will enter the place of rest. It is just as the Scriptures say, “God became angry and told the people, ‘You will never enter my place of rest!’ ” God said this, even though everything has been ready from the time of creation.

<sup>4</sup>In fact, somewhere the Scriptures say that by the seventh day, God had finished his work, and so he rested.

<sup>5</sup>We also read that he later said, “You people will never enter my place of rest!”

<sup>6</sup>This means that the promise to enter is still good, because those who first heard about it disobeyed and did not enter.

<sup>7</sup>Much later God told David to make the promise again, just as I have already said, “If you hear his voice today, don't be stubborn!”

<sup>8</sup>If Joshua had really given the people rest, there would not be any need for God to talk about another day of rest.

<sup>9</sup>But God has promised us a Sabbath when we will rest, even though it has not yet come.

<sup>10</sup>On that day God's people will rest from their work, just as God rested from his work.

<sup>11</sup>We should do our best to enter that place of rest, so that none of us will disobey and miss going there, as they did.

<sup>12</sup>What God has said isn't only alive and active! It is sharper than any double-edged sword. His word can cut through our spirits and souls and through our joints and marrow, until it discovers the desires and thoughts of our hearts.

<sup>13</sup>Nothing is hidden from God! He sees through everything, and we will have to tell him the truth.

Jesus is the great high priest

<sup>14</sup>We have a great high priest, who has gone into heaven, and he is Jesus the Son of God. That is why we must hold on to what we have said about him.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus understands every weakness of ours, because he was tempted in every way that we are. But he did not sin!

<sup>16</sup>So whenever we are in need, we should come bravely before the throne of our merciful God. There we will be treated with undeserved kindness, and we will find help.

Hebrews 5

<sup>1</sup>Every high priest is appointed to help others by offering gifts and sacrifices to God because of their sins.

<sup>2</sup>A high priest has weaknesses of his own, and he feels sorry for foolish and sinful people.

<sup>3</sup>That is why he must offer sacrifices for his own sins and for the sins of others.

<sup>4</sup>But no one can have the honour of being a high priest simply by wanting to be one. Only God can choose a priest, and God is the one who chose Aaron.

<sup>5</sup> That is how it was with Christ. He became a high priest, but not just because he wanted the honour of being one. It was God who told him, “You are my Son, because today I have become your Father!”

<sup>6</sup> In another place, God says, “You are a priest for ever just like Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup> God had the power to save Jesus from death. And while Jesus was on earth, he begged God with loud crying and tears to save him. He truly worshipped God, and God listened to his prayers.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus is God's own Son, but still he had to suffer before he could learn what it really means to obey God.

<sup>9</sup> Suffering made Jesus perfect, and now he can save for ever all who obey him.

<sup>10</sup> This is because God chose him to be a high priest like Melchizedek.

Warning against turning away

<sup>11</sup> Much more could be said about this subject. But it is hard to explain, and all of you are slow to understand.

<sup>12</sup> By now you should have been teachers, but once again you need to be taught the simplest things about what God has said. You need milk instead of solid food.

<sup>13</sup> People who live on milk are like babies who don't really know what is right.

<sup>14</sup> Solid food is for mature people who have been trained to know right from wrong.

Hebrews 6

<sup>1</sup> We must try to become mature and start thinking about more than just the basic things we were taught about Christ. We shouldn't need to keep talking about why we ought to turn from deeds that bring death and why we ought to have faith in God.

<sup>2</sup>And we shouldn't need to keep teaching about baptisms or about the laying on of hands or about people being raised from death and the future judgment.

<sup>3</sup>Let's grow up, if God is willing.

<sup>4-6</sup>But what about people who turn away after they have already seen the light and have received the gift from heaven and have shared in the Holy Spirit? What about those who turn away after they have received the good message of God and the powers of the future world? There is no way to bring them back. What they are doing is the same as nailing the Son of God to a cross and insulting him in public!

<sup>7</sup>A field is useful to farmers, if there is enough rain to make good crops grow. In fact, God will bless that field.

<sup>8</sup>But land that produces only thorn bushes is worthless. It is likely to fall under God's curse, and in the end it will be set on fire.

<sup>9</sup>My friends, we are talking this way. But we are sure that you are doing those really good things that people do when they are being saved.

<sup>10</sup>God is always fair. He will remember how you helped his people in the past and how you are still helping them. You belong to God, and he won't forget the love you have shown his people.

<sup>11</sup>We wish that each of you would always be eager to show how strong and lasting your hope really is.

<sup>12</sup>Then you would never be lazy. You would be following the example of those who had faith and were patient until God kept his promise to them.

God's promise is sure

<sup>13</sup>No one is greater than God. So he made a promise in his own name when he said to Abraham,

<sup>14</sup>“I, the Lord, will bless you with many descendants!”

<sup>15</sup>Then after Abraham had been very patient, he was given what God had promised.

<sup>16</sup>When anyone wants to settle an argument, they make a vow by using the name of someone or something greater than themselves.

<sup>17</sup>So when God wanted to prove for certain that his promise to his people could not be broken, he made a vow.

<sup>18</sup>God cannot tell lies! And so his promises and vows are two things that can never be changed. We have run to God for safety. Now his promises should greatly encourage us to take hold of the hope that is right in front of us.

<sup>19</sup>This hope is like a firm and steady anchor for our souls. In fact, hope reaches behind the curtain and into the most holy place.

<sup>20</sup>Jesus has gone there ahead of us, and he is our high priest for ever, just like Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

The priestly family of Melchizedek

<sup>1</sup>Melchizedek was both king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He was the one who went out and gave Abraham his blessing, when Abraham returned from killing the kings.

<sup>2</sup>Then Abraham gave him a tenth of everything he had. The meaning of the name Melchizedek is “King of Justice”. But since Salem means “peace”, he is also “King of Peace”.

<sup>3</sup>We are not told that he had a father or mother or ancestors or beginning or end. He is like the Son of God and will be a priest for ever.

<sup>4</sup>Notice how great Melchizedek is! Our famous ancestor Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had taken from his enemies.

<sup>5</sup>The Law teaches that even Abraham's descendants must give a tenth of what they possess. And they are to give this to their own relatives, who are the descendants of Levi and are priests.

<sup>6</sup>Although Melchizedek wasn't a descendant of Levi, Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had. Then Melchizedek blessed Abraham, who had been given God's promise.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone agrees that a person who gives a blessing is greater than the one who receives the blessing.

<sup>8</sup>Priests are given a tenth of what people earn. But all priests die, except Melchizedek, and the Scriptures teach that he is alive.

<sup>9</sup>Levi's descendants are now the ones who receive a tenth from people. We could even say that when Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth, Levi also gave him a tenth.

<sup>10</sup>This is because Levi was born later into the family of Abraham, who gave a tenth to Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup>Even though the Law of Moses says that the priests must be descendants of Levi, those priests cannot make anyone perfect. So there needs to be a priest like Melchizedek, rather than one from the priestly family of Aaron.

<sup>12</sup>And when the rules for selecting a priest are changed, the Law must also be changed.

<sup>13</sup>The person we are talking about is our Lord, who came from a tribe that had never had anyone to serve as a priest at the altar.

<sup>14</sup>Everyone knows he came from the tribe of Judah, and Moses never said that priests would come from that tribe.

<sup>15</sup>All this becomes clearer, when someone who is like Melchizedek is appointed to be a priest.

<sup>16</sup>That person wasn't appointed because of his ancestors, but because his life can never end.

<sup>17</sup>The Scriptures say about him, "You are a priest for ever, just like Melchizedek."

<sup>18</sup>In this way a weak and useless command was put aside,

<sup>19</sup>because the Law cannot make anything perfect. At the same time, we are given a much better hope, and it can bring us close to God.

<sup>20-21</sup> God himself made a promise when this priest was appointed. But he did not make a promise like this when the other priests were appointed. The promise he made is, “I, the Lord, promise that you will be a priest for ever! And I will never change my mind!”

<sup>22</sup>This means that Jesus guarantees us a better agreement with God.

<sup>23</sup>There have been a lot of other priests, and all of them have died.

<sup>24</sup>But Jesus will never die, and so he will be a priest for ever!

<sup>25</sup>He is for ever able to save the people he leads to God, because he always lives to speak to God for them.

<sup>26</sup>Jesus is the high priest we need. He is holy and innocent and faultless, and not at all like us sinners. Jesus is honoured above all beings in heaven,

<sup>27</sup>and he is better than any other high priest. Jesus doesn't need to offer sacrifices each day for his own sins and then for the sins of the people. He offered a sacrifice once for all, when he gave himself.

<sup>28</sup>The Law appoints priests who have weaknesses. But God's promise, which came later than the Law, appoints his Son. And he is the perfect high priest for ever.

Hebrews 8

Jesus brings a better agreement

<sup>1</sup>What I mean is that we have a high priest who sits at the right side of God's great throne in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>He also serves as the priest in the most holy place inside the real tent there in heaven. This tent of worship was set up by the Lord, not by humans.

<sup>3</sup>Since all priests must offer gifts and sacrifices, Christ also needed to have something to offer.

<sup>4</sup>If he were here on earth, he would not be a priest at all, because here the Law appoints other priests to offer sacrifices.

<sup>5</sup>But the tent where they serve is just a copy and a shadow of the real one in heaven. Before Moses made the tent, he was told, “Be sure to make it exactly like the pattern you were shown on the mountain!”

<sup>6</sup>Now Christ has been appointed to serve as a priest in a much better way, and he has given us much assurance of a better agreement.

<sup>7</sup>If the first agreement with God had been all right, there would not have been any need for another one.

<sup>8</sup>But the Lord found fault with it and said, “I tell you the time will come, when I will make a new agreement with the people of Israel and the people of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>It won't be like the agreement that I made with their ancestors, when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt. They broke their agreement with me, and I stopped caring about them!

<sup>10</sup>“But now I tell the people of Israel this is my new agreement: ‘The time will come when I, the Lord, will write my laws on their minds and hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup>Not one of them will have to teach another to know me, their Lord.’ “All of them will know me, no matter who they are.

<sup>12</sup>I will treat them with kindness, even though they are wicked. I will forget their sins.”

<sup>13</sup>When the Lord talks about a new agreement, he means that the first one is out of date. And anything that is old and useless will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9

The tent in heaven

<sup>1</sup>The first promise that was made included rules for worship and a tent for worship here on earth.

<sup>2</sup>The first part of the tent was called the holy place, and a lampstand, a table, and the sacred loaves of bread were kept there.

<sup>3</sup>Behind the curtain was the most holy place.

<sup>4</sup>The gold altar that was used for burning incense was in this holy place. The gold-covered sacred chest was also there, and inside it were three things. First, there was a gold jar filled with manna. Then there was Aaron's walking stick that sprouted. Finally, there were the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them.

<sup>5</sup>On top of the chest were the glorious creatures with wings opened out above the place of mercy. Now isn't the time to go into detail about these things.

<sup>6</sup>But this is how everything was when the priests went each day into the first part of the tent to do their duties.

<sup>7</sup>However, only the high priest could go into the second part of the tent, and he went in only once a year. Each time he carried blood to offer for his sins and for any sins that the people had committed without meaning to.

<sup>8</sup>All this is the Holy Spirit's way of saying that no one could enter the most holy place while the tent was still the place of worship.

<sup>9</sup>This also has a meaning for today. It shows that we cannot make our consciences clear by offering gifts and sacrifices.

<sup>10</sup>These rules are merely about such things as eating and drinking and ceremonies for washing ourselves. And rules about physical things will last only until the time comes to change them for something better.

<sup>11</sup>Christ came as the high priest of the good things that are now here. He also went into a much better tent that wasn't made by humans and that doesn't belong to this world.

<sup>12</sup>Then Christ went once for all into the most holy place and freed us from sin for ever. He did this by offering his own blood instead of the blood of goats and bulls.

<sup>13</sup>According to the Law of Moses, those people who become unclean are not fit to worship God. Yet they will be considered clean, if they are sprinkled with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a sacrificed calf.

<sup>14</sup>But Christ was sinless, and he offered himself as an eternal and spiritual sacrifice to God. That's why his blood is much more powerful and makes our consciences clear. Now we can serve the living God and no longer do things that lead to death.

<sup>15</sup>Christ died to rescue those who had sinned and broken the old agreement. Now he brings his chosen ones a new agreement with its guarantee of God's eternal blessings!

<sup>16</sup>In fact, making an agreement of this kind is like writing a will. This is because the one who makes the will must die before it is of any use.

<sup>17</sup>In other words, a will doesn't go into effect as long as the one who made it is still alive.

<sup>18</sup>Blood was also used to put the first agreement into effect.

<sup>19</sup>Moses told the people all that the Law said they must do. Then he used red wool and a hyssop plant to sprinkle the people and the book of the Law with the blood of bulls and goats and with water.

<sup>20</sup>He told the people, "With this blood God makes his agreement with you."

<sup>21</sup>Moses also sprinkled blood on the tent and on everything else that was used in worship.

<sup>22</sup>The Law says that almost everything must be sprinkled with blood, and no sins can be forgiven unless blood is offered.

Jesus' sacrifice is once and for all

<sup>23</sup>These things are only copies of what is in heaven, and so they had to be made holy by these ceremonies. But the real things in heaven must be made holy by something better.

<sup>24</sup>This is why Christ did not go into a tent that had been made by humans and was only a copy of the real one. Instead, he went into heaven and is now there with God to help us.

<sup>25</sup>Christ did not have to offer himself many times. He wasn't like a high priest who goes into the most holy place each year to offer the blood of an animal.

<sup>26</sup>If he had offered himself every year, he would have suffered many times since the creation of the world. But instead, near the end of time he offered himself once and for all, so that he could be a sacrifice that does away with sin.

<sup>27</sup>We die only once, and then we are judged.

<sup>28</sup>So Christ died only once to take away the sins of many people. But when he comes again, it will not be to take away sin. He will come to save everyone who is waiting for him.

Hebrews 10

<sup>1</sup>The Law of Moses is like a shadow of the good things to come. This shadow isn't the good things themselves, because it cannot free people from sin by the sacrifices that are offered year after year.

<sup>2</sup>If there were worshippers who already have their sins washed away and their consciences made clear, there would not be any need to go on offering sacrifices.

<sup>3-4</sup>But the blood of bulls and goats cannot take away sins. It only reminds people of their sins from one year to the next.

<sup>5</sup>When Christ came into the world, he said to God, "Sacrifices and offerings are not what you want, but you have given me my body.

<sup>6</sup>No, you are not pleased with animal sacrifices and offerings for sin."

<sup>7</sup>Then Christ said, “And so, my God, I have come to do what you want, as the Scriptures say.”

<sup>8</sup>The Law teaches that offerings and sacrifices must be made because of sin. But why did Christ mention these things and say that God did not want them?

<sup>9</sup>Well, it was to do away with offerings and sacrifices and to replace them. That is what he meant by saying to God, “I have come to do what you want.”

<sup>10</sup>So we are made holy because Christ obeyed God and offered himself once for all.

<sup>11</sup>The priests do their work each day, and they keep on offering sacrifices that can never take away sins.

<sup>12</sup>But Christ offered himself as a sacrifice that is good for ever. Now he is sitting at God's right side, <sup>13</sup>and he will stay there until his enemies are put under his power.

<sup>14</sup>By his one sacrifice he has for ever set free from sin the people he brings to God.

<sup>15</sup>The Holy Spirit also speaks of this by telling us that the Lord said, <sup>16</sup>“When the time comes, I will make an agreement with them. I will write my laws on their minds and hearts.

<sup>17</sup>Then I will forget about their sins and no longer remember their evil deeds.”

<sup>18</sup>When sins are forgiven, there is no more need to offer sacrifices.

Encouragement and warning

<sup>19</sup>My friends, the blood of Jesus gives us courage to enter the most holy place

<sup>20</sup>by a new way that leads to life! And this way takes us through the curtain that is Christ himself.

<sup>21</sup>We have a great high priest who is in charge of God's house.

<sup>22</sup> So let's come near God with pure hearts and a confidence that comes from having faith. Let's keep our hearts pure, our consciences free from evil, and our bodies washed with clean water.

<sup>23</sup> We must hold tightly to the hope that we say is ours. After all, we can trust the one who made the agreement with us.

<sup>24</sup> We should keep on encouraging each other to be thoughtful and to do helpful things.

<sup>25</sup> Some people have got out of the habit of meeting for worship, but we must not do that. We should keep on encouraging each other, especially since you know that the day of the Lord's coming is getting closer.

<sup>26</sup> No sacrifices can be made for people who decide to sin after they find out about the truth.

<sup>27</sup> They are God's enemies, and all they can look forward to is a terrible judgment and a furious fire.

<sup>28</sup> If two or more witnesses accused someone of breaking the Law of Moses, that person could be put to death.

<sup>29</sup> But it is much worse to dishonour God's Son and to disgrace the blood of the promise that made us holy. And it is just as bad to insult the Holy Spirit, who shows us mercy.

<sup>30</sup> We know that God has said he will punish and take revenge. We also know that the Scriptures say the Lord will judge his people.

<sup>31</sup> It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

<sup>32</sup> Don't forget all the hard times you went through when you first received the light.

<sup>33</sup> Sometimes you were abused and ill-treated in public, and at other times you shared in the sufferings of others.

<sup>34</sup>You were kind to people in jail. And you gladly let your possessions be taken away, because you knew you had something better, something that would last for ever.

<sup>35</sup>Keep on being brave! It will bring you great rewards.

<sup>36</sup>Learn to be patient, so that you will please God and be given what he has promised.

<sup>37</sup>As the Scriptures say, “God is coming soon! It won't be very long.

<sup>38</sup>The people God accepts will live because of their faith. But he isn't pleased with anyone who turns back.”

<sup>39</sup>We are not like those people who turn back and get destroyed. We will keep on having faith until we are saved.

Hebrews 11

Some of God's people who had great faith

<sup>1</sup>Faith makes us sure of what we hope for and gives us proof of what we cannot see.

<sup>2</sup>It was their faith that made our ancestors pleasing to God.

<sup>3</sup>Because of our faith, we know that the world was made at God's command. We also know that what can be seen was made out of what cannot be seen.

<sup>4</sup>Because Abel had faith, he offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. God was pleased with him and his gift, and even though Abel is now dead, his faith still speaks for him.

<sup>5</sup>Enoch had faith and did not die. He pleased God, and God took him up to heaven. That's why his body was never found.

<sup>6</sup>But without faith no one can please God. We must believe that God is real and that he rewards everyone who searches for him.

<sup>7</sup>Because Noah had faith, he was warned about something that had not yet happened. He obeyed and built a boat that saved him and his family. In this way the people of the world were judged, and Noah was given the blessings that come to everyone who pleases God.

<sup>8</sup> Abraham had faith and obeyed God. He was told to go to the land that God had said would be his, and he left for a country he had never seen.

<sup>9</sup> Because Abraham had faith, he lived as a stranger in the promised land. He lived there in a tent, and so did Isaac and Jacob, who were later given the same promise.

<sup>10</sup> Abraham did this, because he was waiting for the eternal city that God had planned and built.

<sup>11</sup> Even when Sarah was too old to have children, she had faith that God would do what he had promised, and she had a son.

<sup>12</sup> Her husband Abraham was almost dead, but he became the ancestor of many people. In fact, there are as many of them as there are stars in the sky or grains of sand along the beach.

<sup>13</sup> Every one of those people died. But they still had faith, even though they had not received what they had been promised. They were glad just to see these things from far away, and they agreed that they were only strangers and foreigners on this earth.

<sup>14</sup> When people talk this way, it is clear that they are looking for a place to call their own.

<sup>15</sup> If they had been talking about the land where they had once lived, they could have gone back at any time.

<sup>16</sup> But they were looking forward to a better home in heaven. That's why God wasn't ashamed for them to call him their God. He even built a city for them.

<sup>17-18</sup> Abraham had been promised that Isaac, his only son, would continue his family. But when Abraham was tested, he had faith and was willing to sacrifice Isaac, <sup>19</sup>because he was sure that God could raise people to life. This was just like getting Isaac back from death.

<sup>20</sup>Isaac had faith, and he promised blessings to Jacob and Esau.

<sup>21</sup>Later, when Jacob was about to die, he leaned on his walking stick and worshipped. Then because of his faith he blessed each of Joseph's sons.

<sup>22</sup>And just before Joseph died, he had faith that God would lead the people of Israel out of Egypt. So he told them to take his bones with them.

<sup>23</sup>Because Moses' parents had faith, they kept him hidden until he was three months old. They saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid to disobey the king's orders.

<sup>24</sup>Then after Moses grew up, his faith made him refuse to be called Pharaoh's grandson.

<sup>25</sup>He chose to be ill-treated with God's people instead of having the good time that sin could bring for a little while.

<sup>26</sup>Moses knew that the treasures of Egypt were not as wonderful as what he would receive from suffering for the Messiah, and he looked forward to his reward.

<sup>27</sup>Because of his faith, Moses left Egypt. Moses had seen the invisible God and wasn't afraid of the king's anger.

<sup>28</sup>His faith also made him celebrate Passover. He sprinkled the blood of animals on the doorposts, so that the firstborn sons of the people of Israel would not be killed by the destroying angel.

<sup>29</sup>Because of their faith, the people walked through the Red Sea on dry land. But when the Egyptians tried to do it, they were drowned.

<sup>30</sup>God's people had faith, and when they had walked around the city of Jericho for seven days, its walls fell down.

<sup>31</sup>Rahab had been a prostitute, but she had faith and welcomed the spies. So she wasn't killed with the people who disobeyed.

<sup>32</sup>What else can I say? There isn't enough time to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets.

<sup>33</sup>Their faith helped them conquer kingdoms, and because they did right, God made promises to them. They closed the jaws of lions

<sup>34</sup>and put out raging fires and escaped from the swords of their enemies. Although they were weak, they were given the strength and power to chase foreign armies away.

<sup>35</sup>Some women received their loved ones back from death. Many of these people were tortured, but they refused to be released. They were sure that they would get a better reward when the dead are raised to life.

<sup>36</sup>Others were made fun of and beaten with whips, and some were chained in jail.

<sup>37</sup>Still others were stoned to death or sawn in two or killed with swords. Some had nothing but sheep skins or goat skins to wear. They were poor, ill-treated, and tortured.

<sup>38</sup>The world did not deserve these good people, who had to wander in deserts and on mountains and had to live in caves and holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup>All of them pleased God because of their faith! But still they died without being given what had been promised.

<sup>40</sup>This was because God had something better in store for us. And he did not want them to reach the goal of their faith without us.

Hebrews 12

Follow the example of Jesus A large crowd of witnesses

<sup>1</sup>Such a large crowd of witnesses is all around us! So we must get rid of everything that slows us down, especially the sin that just won't let go. And we must be determined to run the race that is ahead of us.

<sup>2</sup>We must keep our eyes on Jesus, who leads us and makes our faith complete. He endured the shame of being nailed to a cross, because he knew that later on he would be glad he did. Now he is seated at the right side of God's throne!

<sup>3</sup>So keep your mind on Jesus, who put up with many insults from sinners. Then you won't get discouraged and give up.

<sup>4</sup>None of you have yet been hurt in your battle against sin.

<sup>5</sup>But you have forgotten that the Scriptures say to God's children, "When the Lord punishes you, don't make light of it, and when he corrects you, don't be discouraged.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord corrects the people he loves and disciplines those he calls his own."

<sup>7</sup>Be patient when you are being corrected! This is how God treats his children. Don't all parents correct their children?

<sup>8</sup>God corrects all his children, and if he doesn't correct you, then you don't really belong to him.

<sup>9</sup>Our earthly fathers correct us, and we still respect them. Isn't it even better to be given true life by letting our spiritual Father correct us?

<sup>10</sup>Our human fathers correct us for a short time, and they do it as they think best. But God corrects us for our own good, because he wants us to be holy, as he is.

<sup>11</sup>It is never fun to be corrected. In fact, at the time it is always painful. But if we learn to obey by being corrected, we will do right and live at peace.

<sup>12</sup>Now stand up straight! Stop your knees from shaking

<sup>13</sup>and walk a straight path. Then lame people will be healed, instead of getting worse.

Warning against turning from God

<sup>14</sup>Try to live at peace with everyone! Live a clean life. If you don't, you will never see the Lord.

- <sup>15</sup> Make sure that no one misses out on God's wonderful kindness. Don't let anyone become bitter and cause trouble for the rest of you.
- <sup>16</sup> Watch out for immoral and ungodly people like Esau, who sold his future blessing for only one meal.
- <sup>17</sup> You know how he later wanted it back. But there was nothing he could do to change things, even though he begged his father and cried.
- <sup>18</sup> You have not come to a place like Mount Sinai that can be seen and touched. There is no flaming fire or dark cloud or storm
- <sup>19</sup> or trumpet sound. The people of Israel heard a voice speak. But they begged it to stop,
- <sup>20</sup> because they could not obey its commands. They were even told to kill any animal that touched the mountain.
- <sup>21</sup> The sight was so frightening that Moses said he shook with fear.
- <sup>22</sup> You have now come to Mount Zion and to the heavenly Jerusalem. This is the city of the living God, where thousands and thousands of angels have come to celebrate.
- <sup>23</sup> Here you will find all God's dearest children, whose names are written in heaven. And you will find God himself, who judges everyone. Here also are the spirits of those good people who have been made perfect.
- <sup>24</sup> And Jesus is here! He is the one who makes God's new agreement with us, and his sprinkled blood says much better things than the blood of Abel.
- <sup>25</sup> Make sure that you obey the one who speaks to you. The people did not escape, when they refused to obey the one who spoke to them at Mount Sinai. Do you think you can possibly escape, if you refuse to obey the one who speaks to you from heaven?
- <sup>26</sup> When God spoke the first time, his voice shook only the earth. This time he has promised to shake the earth once again, and heaven too.

<sup>27</sup>The words “once again” mean that these created things will some day be shaken and removed. Then what cannot be shaken will last.

<sup>28</sup>We should be grateful that we were given a kingdom that cannot be shaken. And in this kingdom we please God by worshipping him and by showing him great honour and respect.

<sup>29</sup>Our God is like a destructive fire!

Hebrews 13

Service that pleases God

<sup>1</sup>Keep being concerned about each other as the Lord's followers should.

<sup>2</sup>Be sure to welcome strangers into your home. By doing this, some people have welcomed angels as guests, without even knowing it.

<sup>3</sup>Remember the Lord's people who are in jail and be concerned for them. Don't forget those who are suffering, but imagine that you are there with them.

<sup>4</sup>Have respect for marriage. Always be faithful to your partner, because God will punish anyone who is immoral or unfaithful in marriage.

<sup>5</sup>Don't fall in love with money. Be satisfied with what you have. The Lord has promised that he will not leave us or desert us.

<sup>6</sup>That should make you feel like saying, “The Lord helps me! Why should I be afraid of what people can do to me?”

<sup>7</sup>Don't forget about your leaders who taught you God's message. Remember what kind of lives they lived and try to have faith like theirs.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ never changes! He is the same yesterday, today, and for ever.

<sup>9</sup>Don't be fooled by any kind of strange teachings. It is better to receive strength from God's undeserved kindness than to depend on certain foods. After all, these foods don't really help the people who eat them.

<sup>10</sup>But we have an altar where even the priests who serve in the place of worship have no right to eat.

<sup>11</sup> After the high priest offers the blood of animals as a sin offering, the bodies of those animals are burnt outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Jesus himself suffered outside the city gate, so that his blood would make people holy.

<sup>13</sup> That's why we should go outside the camp to Jesus and share in his disgrace.

<sup>14</sup> On this earth we don't have a city that lasts for ever, but we are waiting for such a city.

<sup>15</sup> Our sacrifice is to keep offering praise to God in the name of Jesus.

<sup>16</sup> But don't forget to help others and to share your possessions with them. This too is like offering a sacrifice that pleases God.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and do what they say. They are watching over you, and they must answer to God. So don't make them sad as they do their work. Make them happy. Otherwise, they won't be able to help you at all.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us. Our consciences are clear, and we always try to live right.

<sup>19</sup> I especially want you to pray that I can visit you again soon.

Final prayers and greetings

<sup>20</sup> God gives peace, and he raised our Lord Jesus Christ from death. Now Jesus is like a Great Shepherd whose blood was used to make God's eternal agreement with his flock.

<sup>21</sup> I pray that God will make you ready to obey him and that you will always be eager to do right. May Jesus help you do what pleases God. To Jesus Christ be glory for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>22</sup> My friends, I have written only a short letter to encourage you, and I beg you to pay close attention to what I have said.

<sup>23</sup> By now you must know that our friend Timothy is out of jail. If he gets here in time, I will bring him with me when I come to visit you.

<sup>24</sup>Please give my greetings to your leaders and to the rest of the Lord's people. His followers from Italy send you their greetings.

<sup>25</sup>I pray that God will be kind to all of you!

James

James 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From James, a servant of God and of our Lord Jesus Christ. Greetings to the twelve tribes scattered all over the world.

A life of faith and wisdom

<sup>2</sup>My friends, be glad, even if you have a lot of trouble.

<sup>3</sup>You know that you learn to endure by having your faith tested.

<sup>4</sup>But you must learn to endure everything, so that you will be completely mature and not lacking in anything.

<sup>5</sup>If any of you need wisdom, you should ask God, and it will be given to you. God is generous and won't correct you for asking.

<sup>6</sup>But when you ask for something, you must have faith and not doubt. Anyone who doubts is like an ocean wave tossed around in a storm.

<sup>7-8</sup>If you are that kind of person, you can't make up your mind, and you can't be trusted. So don't expect the Lord to give you anything at all.

Poor people and rich people

<sup>9</sup>Any of God's people who are poor should be glad that he thinks so highly of them.

<sup>10</sup>But any who are rich should be glad when God makes them humble. Rich people will disappear like wild flowers

<sup>11</sup>scorched by the burning heat of the sun. The flowers lose their blossoms, and their beauty is destroyed. That is how the rich will disappear, as they go about their business.

Trials and temptations

<sup>12</sup>God will bless you, if you don't give up when your faith is being tested. He will reward you with a glorious life, just as he rewards everyone who loves him.

<sup>13</sup>Don't blame God when you are tempted! God cannot be tempted by evil, and he doesn't use evil to tempt others.

<sup>14</sup>We are tempted by our own desires that drag us off and trap us.

<sup>15</sup>Our desires make us sin, and when sin is finished with us, it leaves us dead.

<sup>16</sup>Don't be fooled, my dear friends.

<sup>17</sup>Every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father who created all the lights in the heavens. He is always the same and never makes dark shadows by changing.

<sup>18</sup>He wanted us to be his own special people, and so he sent the true message to give us new birth.

Hearing and obeying God's message

<sup>19</sup>My dear friends, you should be quick to listen and slow to speak or to get angry.

<sup>20</sup>If you are angry, you cannot do any of the good things that God wants done.

<sup>21</sup>You must stop doing anything immoral or evil. Instead be humble and accept the message that is planted in you to save you.

<sup>22</sup>Obey God's message! Don't fool yourselves by just listening to it.

<sup>23</sup>If you hear the message and don't obey it, you are like people who stare at themselves in a mirror

<sup>24</sup>and forget what they look like as soon as they leave.

<sup>25</sup>But you must never stop looking at the perfect law that sets you free. God will bless you in everything you do, if you listen and obey, and don't just hear and forget.

<sup>26</sup>If you think you are being religious, but can't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and everything you do is useless.

<sup>27</sup>Religion that pleases God the Father must be pure and spotless. You must help needy orphans and widows and not let this world make you evil.

James 2

Don't favour the rich and powerful Warning against having favourites

<sup>1</sup>My friends, if you have faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, you won't treat some people better than others.

<sup>2</sup>Suppose a rich person wearing fine clothes and a gold ring comes to one of your meetings. And suppose a poor person dressed in worn-out clothes also comes.

<sup>3</sup>You must not give the best seat to the one in fine clothes and tell the one who is poor to stand at the side or sit on the floor.

<sup>4</sup>That is the same as saying that some people are better than others, and you would be acting like a crooked judge.

<sup>5</sup>My dear friends, pay attention. God has given a lot of faith to the poor people in this world. He has also promised them a share in his kingdom that he will give to everyone who loves him.

<sup>6</sup>You ill-treat the poor. But isn't it the rich who boss you around and drag you off to court?

<sup>7</sup>Aren't they the ones who make fun of your Lord?

<sup>8</sup>You will do well, if you obey the most important law in the Scriptures. It is the law that commands us to love others as much as we love ourselves.

<sup>9</sup>But if you treat some people better than others, you have done wrong, and the Scriptures teach that you have sinned.

<sup>10</sup>If you obey every law except one, you are still guilty of breaking them all.

<sup>11</sup>The same God who told us to be faithful in marriage also told us not to murder. So even if you are faithful in marriage, but murder someone, you have still broken God's Law.

<sup>12</sup>Speak and act like people who will be judged by the law that sets us free.

<sup>13</sup>Do this, because on the day of judgment there will be no pity for those who have not had pity on others. But even in judgment, God is merciful!

Faith and works

<sup>14</sup>My friends, what good is it to say you have faith, when you don't do anything to show that you really do have faith? Can that kind of faith save you?

<sup>15</sup>If you know someone who doesn't have any clothes or food,

<sup>16</sup>you shouldn't just say, "I hope all goes well for you. I hope you will be warm and have plenty to eat." What good is it to say this, unless you do something to help?

<sup>17</sup>Faith that doesn't lead us to do good deeds is all alone and dead!

<sup>18</sup>Suppose someone disagrees and says, "It is possible to have faith without doing kind deeds." I would answer, "Prove that you have faith without doing kind deeds, and I will prove that I have faith by doing them."

<sup>19</sup>You believe there is only one God. That's fine. Even demons believe this, and it makes them shake with fear.

<sup>20</sup>Does some stupid person want proof that faith without deeds is useless?

<sup>21</sup>Well, our ancestor Abraham pleased God by putting his son Isaac on the altar to sacrifice him.

<sup>22</sup>Now you see how Abraham's faith and deeds worked together. He proved that his faith was real by what he did.

<sup>23</sup>This is what the Scriptures mean by saying, "Abraham had faith in God, and God was pleased with him." That's how Abraham became God's friend.

<sup>24</sup>You can now see that we please God by what we do and not only by what we believe.

<sup>25</sup>For example, Rahab had been a prostitute. But she pleased God when she welcomed the spies and sent them home by another way.

<sup>26</sup>Anyone who doesn't breathe is dead, and faith that doesn't do anything is just as dead!

James 3

Wisdom and words The tongue

<sup>1</sup>My friends, we should not all try to become teachers. In fact, teachers will be judged more strictly than others.

<sup>2</sup>All of us do many wrong things. But if you can control your tongue, you are mature and able to control your whole body.

<sup>3</sup>By putting a bit into the mouth of a horse, we can turn the horse in different directions.

<sup>4</sup>It takes strong winds to move a large sailing ship, but the captain uses only a small rudder to make it go in any direction.

<sup>5</sup>Our tongues are small too, and yet they boast about big things. It takes only a spark to start a forest fire!

<sup>6</sup>The tongue is like a spark. It is an evil power that dirties the rest of the body and sets a person's entire life on fire with flames that come from hell itself.

<sup>7</sup>All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures can be tamed and have been tamed.

<sup>8</sup>But our tongues get out of control. They are restless and evil, and always spreading deadly poison.

<sup>9-10</sup>My dear friends, with our tongues we speak both praises and curses. We praise our Lord and Father, and we curse people who were created to be like God, and this isn't right.

<sup>11</sup>Can clean water and dirty water both flow from the same spring?

<sup>12</sup>Can a fig tree produce olives or a grapevine produce figs? Does fresh water come from a well full of salt water?

Wisdom from above

<sup>13</sup>Are any of you wise or sensible? Then show it by living right and by being humble and wise in everything you do.

<sup>14</sup>But if your heart is full of bitter jealousy and selfishness, don't boast or lie to cover up the truth.

<sup>15</sup>That kind of wisdom doesn't come from above. It is earthly and selfish and comes from the devil himself.

<sup>16</sup>Whenever people are jealous or selfish, they cause trouble and do all sorts of cruel things.

<sup>17</sup>But the wisdom that comes from above leads us to be pure, friendly, gentle, sensible, kind, helpful, genuine, and sincere.

<sup>18</sup>When peacemakers plant seeds of peace, they will harvest justice.

James 4

Warning against friendship with the world

<sup>1</sup>Why do you fight and argue with each other? Isn't it because you are full of selfish desires that fight to control your body?

<sup>2</sup>You want something you don't have, and you will do anything to get it. You will even kill! But you still cannot get what you want, and you won't get it by fighting and arguing. You should pray for it.

<sup>3</sup>Yet even when you do pray, your prayers are not answered, because you pray just for selfish reasons.

<sup>4</sup>You people aren't faithful to God! Don't you know that if you love the world, you are God's enemies? And if you decide to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God.

<sup>5</sup>Do you doubt the Scriptures that say, "God truly cares about the Spirit he has put in us"?

<sup>6</sup>In fact, God treats us with even greater kindness, just as the Scriptures say, “God opposes everyone who is proud, but he is kind to everyone who is humble.”

<sup>7</sup>Surrender to God! Resist the devil, and he will run from you.

<sup>8</sup>Come near to God, and he will come near to you. Clean up your lives, you sinners. Purify your hearts, you people who can't make up your mind.

<sup>9</sup>Be sad and sorry and weep. Stop laughing and start crying. Be gloomy instead of glad.

<sup>10</sup>Be humble in the Lord's presence, and he will honour you.

Saying cruel things about others

<sup>11</sup>My friends, don't say cruel things about others! If you do, or if you condemn others, you are condemning God's Law. And if you condemn the Law, you put yourself above the Law and refuse to obey either it

<sup>12</sup>or God who gave it. God is our judge, and he can save or destroy us. What right do you have to condemn anyone?

Warning against boasting

<sup>13</sup>You should know better than to say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to the city. We will do business there for a year and make a lot of money!”

<sup>14</sup>What do you know about tomorrow? How can you be so sure about your life? It is nothing more than mist that appears for only a little while before it disappears.

<sup>15</sup>You should say, “If the Lord lets us live, we will do these things.”

<sup>16</sup>Yet you are stupid enough to boast, and it is wrong to be so proud.

<sup>17</sup>If you don't do what you know is right, you have sinned.

James 5

Warning to the rich

<sup>1</sup>You rich people should cry and weep! Terrible things are going to happen to you.

<sup>2</sup>Your treasures have already rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.

<sup>3</sup>Your money has rusted, and the rust will be evidence against you, as it burns your body like fire. Yet you keep on storing up wealth in these last days.

<sup>4</sup>You refused to pay the people who worked in your fields, and now their unpaid wages are shouting out against you. The Lord All-Powerful has heard the cries of the workers who harvested your crops.

<sup>5</sup>While here on earth, you have thought only of filling your own stomachs and having a good time. But now you are like fat cattle on their way to be butchered.

<sup>6</sup>You have condemned and murdered innocent people, who couldn't even fight back.

Patience, kindness, and prayer

<sup>7</sup>My friends, be patient until the Lord returns. Think of farmers who wait patiently for the spring and summer rains to make their valuable crops grow.

<sup>8</sup>Be patient like those farmers and don't give up. The Lord will soon be here!

<sup>9</sup>Don't grumble about each other or you will be judged, and the judge is just outside the door.

<sup>10</sup>My friends, follow the example of the prophets who spoke for the Lord. They were patient, even when they had to suffer.

<sup>11</sup>In fact, we praise the ones who endured the most. You remember how patient Job was and how the Lord finally helped him. The Lord did this because he is so merciful and kind.

<sup>12</sup>My friends, above all else, don't take an oath. You must not swear by heaven or by earth or by anything else. "Yes" or "No" is all you need to say. If you say anything more, you will be condemned.

<sup>13</sup>If you are having trouble, you should pray. And if you are feeling good, you should sing praises.

<sup>14</sup> If you are sick, ask the church leaders to come and pray for you. Ask them to put olive oil on you in the name of the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> If you have faith when you pray for sick people, they will get well. The Lord will heal them, and if they have sinned, he will forgive them.

<sup>16</sup> If you have sinned, you should tell each other what you have done. Then you can pray for one another and be healed. The prayer of an innocent person is powerful, and it can help a lot.

<sup>17</sup> Elijah was just as human as we are, and for three and a half years his prayers kept the rain from falling.

<sup>18</sup> But when he did pray for rain, it fell from the skies and made the crops grow.

<sup>19</sup> My friends, if any followers have wandered away from the truth, you should try to lead them back.

<sup>20</sup> If you turn sinners from the wrong way, you will save them from death, and many of their sins will be forgiven.

1 Peter

1 Peter 1

Greetings and prayer

<sup>1</sup>From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ. To God's people who are scattered like foreigners in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

<sup>2</sup>God the Father decided to choose you as his people, and his Spirit has made you holy. You have obeyed Jesus Christ and are sprinkled with his blood. I pray that God will be kind to you and will keep on giving you peace!

A real reason for hope

<sup>3</sup>Praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is so good, and by raising Jesus from death, he has given us new life and a hope that lives on.

<sup>4</sup>God has something stored up for you in heaven, where it will never decay or be ruined or disappear.

<sup>5</sup>You have faith in God, whose power will protect you until the last day. Then he will save you, just as he has always planned to do.

<sup>6</sup>On that day you will be glad, even if you have to go through many hard trials for a while.

<sup>7</sup>Your faith will be like gold that has been tested in a fire. And these trials will prove that your faith is worth much more than gold that can be destroyed. They will show that you will be given praise and honour and glory when Jesus Christ returns.

<sup>8</sup>You have never seen Jesus, and you don't see him now. But still you love him and have faith in him, and no words can tell how glad and happy

<sup>9</sup>you are to be saved. That's why you have faith.

<sup>10</sup>Some prophets told how kind God would be to you, and they searched hard to find out more about the way you would be saved.

<sup>11</sup>The Spirit of Christ was in them and was telling them how Christ would suffer and would then be given great honour. So they searched to find out exactly who Christ would be and when this would happen.

<sup>12</sup>But they were told that they were serving you and not themselves. They preached to you by the power of the Holy Spirit, who was sent from heaven. And their message was only for you, even though angels would like to know more about it.

Living as God's holy people

<sup>13</sup>Be alert and think straight. Put all your hope in how kind God will be to you when Jesus Christ appears.

<sup>14</sup>Behave like obedient children. Don't let your lives be controlled by your desires, as they used to be.

<sup>15</sup>Always live as God's holy people should, because God is the one who chose you, and he is holy.

<sup>16</sup>That's why the Scriptures say, "I am the holy God, and you must be holy too."

<sup>17</sup>You say that God is your Father, but God doesn't have favourites! He judges all people by what they do. So you must honour God while you live as strangers here on earth.

<sup>18</sup>You were rescued from the useless way of life that you learnt from your ancestors. But you know that you were not rescued by such things as silver or gold that don't last for ever.

<sup>19</sup>You were rescued by the precious blood of Christ, that spotless and innocent lamb.

<sup>20</sup>Christ was chosen even before the world was created, but because of you, he did not come until these last days.

<sup>21</sup>And when he did come, it was to lead you to have faith in God, who raised him from death and honoured him in a glorious way. That's why you have put your faith and hope in God.

<sup>22</sup>You obeyed the truth, and your souls were made pure. Now you sincerely love each other. But you must keep on loving with all your heart.

<sup>23</sup>Do this because God has given you new birth by his message that lives on for ever.

<sup>24</sup>The Scriptures say, "Humans wither like grass, and their glory fades like wild flowers. Grass dries up, and flowers fall to the ground.

<sup>25</sup>But what the Lord has said will stand for ever." Our good news to you is what the Lord has said.

1 Peter 2

A living stone and a holy nation

<sup>1</sup>Stop being hateful! Stop trying to fool people, and start being sincere. Don't be jealous or say cruel things about others.

<sup>2</sup>Be like newborn babies who are thirsty for the pure spiritual milk that will help you grow and be saved.

<sup>3</sup>You have already found out how good the Lord really is.

<sup>4</sup>Come to Jesus Christ. He is the living stone that people have rejected, but which God has chosen and highly honoured.

<sup>5</sup>And now you are living stones that are being used to build a spiritual house. You are also a group of holy priests, and with the help of Jesus Christ you will offer sacrifices that please God.

<sup>6</sup>It is just as God says in the Scriptures, "Look! I am placing in Zion a choice and precious cornerstone. No one who has faith in that one will be disappointed."

<sup>7</sup>You are followers of the Lord, and that stone is precious to you. But it isn't precious to those who refuse to follow him. They are the builders who tossed aside the stone that turned out to be the most important one of all.

<sup>8</sup>They disobeyed the message and stumbled and fell over that stone, because they were doomed.

<sup>9</sup>But you are God's chosen and special people. You are a group of royal priests and a holy nation. God has brought you out of darkness into his marvellous light. Now you must tell all the wonderful things that he has done. The Scriptures say,

<sup>10</sup>“Once you were nobody. Now you are God's people. At one time no one had pity on you. Now God has treated you with kindness.”

Live as God's servants should

<sup>11</sup>Dear friends, you are foreigners and strangers on this earth. So I beg you not to surrender to those desires that fight against you.

<sup>12</sup>Always let others see you behaving properly, even though they may still accuse you of doing wrong. Then on the day of judgment, they will honour God by telling the good things they saw you do.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord wants you to obey all human authorities, especially the Emperor, who rules over everyone.

<sup>14</sup>You must also obey governors, because they are sent by the Emperor to punish criminals and to praise good citizens.

<sup>15</sup>God wants you to silence stupid and ignorant people by doing right.

<sup>16</sup>You are free, but still you are God's servants, and you must not use your freedom as an excuse for doing wrong.

<sup>17</sup>Respect everyone and show special love for God's people. Honour God and respect the Emperor.

The example of Christ's suffering

<sup>18</sup>Servants, you must obey your masters and always show respect to them. Do this, not only to those who are kind and thoughtful, but also to those who are cruel.

<sup>19</sup>God will bless you, even if others treat you unfairly for being loyal to him.

<sup>20</sup>You don't gain anything by being punished for some wrong you have done. But God will bless you, if you have to suffer for doing something good.

<sup>21</sup>After all, God chose you to suffer as you follow in the footsteps of Christ, who set an example by suffering for you.

<sup>22</sup>Christ did not sin or ever tell a lie.

<sup>23</sup>Although he was abused, he never tried to get even. And when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he had faith in God, who judges fairly.

<sup>24</sup>Christ carried the burden of our sins. He was nailed to the cross, so that we would stop sinning and start living right. By his cuts and bruises you are healed.

<sup>25</sup>You had wandered away like sheep. Now you have returned to the one who is your shepherd and protector.

1 Peter 3

Being a Christian and suffering Wives and husbands

<sup>1</sup>If you are a wife, you must put your husband first. Even if he opposes our message, you will win him over by what you do. No one else will have to say anything to him,

<sup>2</sup>because he will see how you honour God and live a pure life.

<sup>3</sup>Don't depend on things like fancy hair styles or gold jewellery or expensive clothes to make you look beautiful.

<sup>4</sup>Be beautiful in your heart by being gentle and quiet. This kind of beauty will last, and God considers it very special.

<sup>5</sup>Long ago those women who worshipped God and put their hope in him made themselves beautiful by putting their husbands first.

<sup>6</sup>For example, Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her true children, if you do right and don't let anything frighten you.

<sup>7</sup>If you are a husband, you should be thoughtful of your wife. Treat her with honour, because she isn't as strong as you are, and she shares with you in the gift of life. Then nothing will stand in the way of your prayers.

Suffering for doing right

<sup>8</sup>Finally, all of you should agree and have concern and love for each other. You should also be kind and humble.

<sup>9</sup>Don't be hateful and insult people just because they are hateful and insult you. Instead, treat everyone with kindness. You are God's chosen ones, and he will bless you. The Scriptures say, <sup>10</sup>“Do you really love life? Do you want to be happy? Then stop saying cruel things and stop telling lies.

<sup>11</sup>Give up your evil ways and do right, as you find and follow the road that leads to peace.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord watches over everyone who obeys him, and he listens to their prayers. But he opposes everyone who does evil.”

<sup>13</sup>Can anyone really harm you for being eager to do good deeds?

<sup>14</sup>Even if you have to suffer for doing good things, God will bless you. So stop being afraid and don't worry about what people might do.

<sup>15</sup>Honour Christ and let him be the Lord of your life. Always be ready to give an answer when someone asks you about your hope.

<sup>16</sup>Give a kind and respectful answer and keep your conscience clear. This way you will make people ashamed for saying bad things about your good conduct as a follower of Christ.

<sup>17</sup>You are better off to obey God and suffer for doing right than to suffer for doing wrong.

<sup>18</sup>Christ died once for our sins. An innocent person died for those who are guilty. Christ did this to bring you to God, when his body was put to death and his spirit was made alive.

<sup>19</sup>Christ then preached to the spirits that were being kept in prison.

<sup>20</sup>They had disobeyed God while Noah was building the boat, but God had been patient with them. Eight people went into that boat and were brought safely through the flood.

<sup>21</sup>Those flood waters were like baptism that now saves you. But baptism is more than just washing your body. It means turning to God with a clear conscience, because Jesus Christ was raised from death.

<sup>22</sup>Christ is now in heaven, where he sits at the right side of God. All angels, authorities, and powers are under his control.

1 Peter 4

Being faithful to God

<sup>1</sup>Christ suffered here on earth. Now you must be ready to suffer as he did, because suffering shows that you have stopped sinning.

<sup>2</sup>It means you have turned from your own desires and want to obey God for the rest of your life.

<sup>3</sup>You have already lived long enough like people who don't know God. You were immoral and followed your evil desires. You went around drinking and feasting and carrying on. In fact, you even worshipped disgusting idols.

<sup>4</sup>Now your former friends wonder why you have stopped running around with them, and they curse you for it.

<sup>5</sup>But they will have to answer to God, who judges the living and the dead.

<sup>6</sup>The good news has even been preached to the dead, so that after they have been judged for what they have done in this life, their spirits will live with God.

<sup>7</sup>Everything will soon come to an end. So be serious and be sensible enough to pray.

<sup>8</sup>Most important of all, you must sincerely love each other, because love wipes away many sins.

<sup>9</sup>Welcome people into your home and don't grumble about it.

<sup>10</sup>Each of you has been blessed with one of God's many wonderful gifts to be used in the service of others. So use your gift well.

<sup>11</sup>If you have the gift of speaking, preach God's message. If you have the gift of helping others, do it with the strength that God supplies. Everything should be done in a way that will bring honour to God because of Jesus Christ, who is glorious and powerful for ever. Amen.

Suffering for being a Christian

<sup>12</sup>Dear friends, don't be surprised or shocked that you are going through testing that is like walking through fire.

<sup>13</sup>Be glad for the chance to suffer as Christ suffered. It will prepare you for even greater happiness when he makes his glorious return.

<sup>14</sup>Count it a blessing when you suffer for being a Christian. This shows that God's glorious Spirit is with you.

<sup>15</sup>But you deserve to suffer if you are a murderer, a thief, a criminal, or a busybody.

<sup>16</sup>Don't be ashamed to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God that you belong to him.

<sup>17</sup>God has already begun judging his own people. And if his judgment begins with us, imagine how terrible it will be for those who refuse to obey his message. The Scriptures say,

<sup>18</sup>“If good people barely escape, what will happen to sinners and to others who don't respect God?”

<sup>19</sup>If you suffer for obeying God, you must have complete faith in your faithful Creator and keep on doing right.

1 Peter 5

Advice for church leaders Helping Christian leaders

<sup>1</sup>Church leaders, I am writing to encourage you. I too am a leader, as well as a witness to Christ's suffering, and I will share in his glory when it is shown to us.

<sup>2</sup>Just as shepherds watch over their sheep, you must watch over everyone God has placed in your care. Do it willingly in order to please God, and not simply because you think you must. Let it be something you want to do, instead of something you do merely to make money.

<sup>3</sup>Don't be bossy to those people who are in your care, but set an example for them.

<sup>4</sup>Then when Christ the Chief Shepherd returns, you will be given a crown that will never lose its glory.

<sup>5</sup>All you young people should obey your elders. In fact, everyone should be humble towards everyone else. The Scriptures say, “God opposes proud people, but he helps everyone who is humble.”

<sup>6</sup>Be humble in the presence of God's mighty power, and he will honour you when the time comes.

<sup>7</sup>God cares for you, so turn all your worries over to him.

<sup>8</sup>Be on your guard and stay awake. Your enemy, the devil, is like a roaring lion, prowling around to find someone to attack.

<sup>9</sup>But you must resist the devil and stay strong in your faith. You know that all over the world the Lord's followers are suffering just as you are.

<sup>10</sup>But God shows undeserved kindness to everyone. That's why he appointed Christ Jesus to choose you to share in his eternal glory. You will suffer for a while, but God will make you complete, steady, strong, and firm.

<sup>11</sup>God will be in control for ever! Amen.

Final greetings

<sup>12</sup>Silvanus helped me write this short letter, and I consider him a faithful follower of the Lord. I wanted to encourage you and tell you how kind God really is, so that you will keep on having faith in him.

<sup>13</sup>Greetings from the Lord's followers in Babylon. They are God's chosen ones. Mark, who is like a son to me, sends his greetings too.

<sup>14</sup>Give each other a warm greeting. I pray that God will give peace to everyone who belongs to Christ.

2 Peter

2 Peter 1

Greetings and prayer

<sup>1</sup>From Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ. To everyone who shares with us in the privilege of believing that our God and Saviour Jesus Christ will do what is just and fair.

<sup>2</sup>I pray that God will be kind to you and will let you live in perfect peace! May you keep learning more and more about God and our Lord Jesus.

How the Lord's followers should live

<sup>3</sup>We have everything we need to live a life that pleases God. It was all given to us by God's own power, when we learnt that he had invited us to share in his wonderful goodness.

<sup>4</sup>God made great and marvellous promises, so that his nature would become part of us. Then we could escape our evil desires and the corrupt influences of this world.

<sup>5</sup>Do your best to improve your faith. You can do this by adding goodness, understanding,

<sup>6</sup>self-control, patience, devotion to God,

<sup>7</sup>concern for others, and love.

<sup>8</sup>If you keep growing in this way, it will show that what you know about our Lord Jesus Christ has made your lives useful and meaningful.

<sup>9</sup>But if you don't grow, you are like someone who is nearsighted or blind, and you have forgotten that your past sins are forgiven.

<sup>10</sup>My friends, you must do all you can to show that God has really chosen and selected you. If you keep on doing this, you won't stumble and fall.

<sup>11</sup>Then our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will give you a glorious welcome into his kingdom that will last for ever.

<sup>12</sup>You are holding firmly to the truth that you were given. But I am still going to remind you of these things.

<sup>13</sup>In fact, I think I should keep on reminding you until I leave this body.

<sup>14</sup>And our Lord Jesus Christ has already told me that I will soon leave it behind.

<sup>15</sup>That is why I am doing my best to make sure that each of you remembers all this after I am gone.

The glory of Christ

<sup>16</sup>When we told you about the power and the return of our Lord Jesus Christ, we were not telling clever stories that someone had made up. But with our own eyes we saw his true greatness.

<sup>17</sup>God, our great and wonderful Father, truly honoured him by saying, “This is my own dear Son, and I am pleased with him.”

<sup>18</sup>We were there with Jesus on the holy mountain and heard this voice speak from heaven.

<sup>19</sup>All this makes us even more certain that what the prophets said is true. So you should pay close attention to their message, as you would to a lamp shining in some dark place. You must keep on paying attention until daylight comes and the morning star rises in your hearts.

<sup>20</sup>But you need to realize that no one alone can understand any of the prophecies in the Scriptures.

<sup>21</sup>The prophets did not think these things up on their own, but they were guided by the Spirit of God.

2 Peter 2

False prophets and teachers

<sup>1</sup>Sometimes false prophets spoke to the people of Israel. False teachers will also sneak in and speak harmful lies to you. But these teachers don't really belong to the Master who paid a great price for them, and they will quickly destroy themselves.

<sup>2</sup>Many people will follow their evil ways and cause others to tell lies about the true way.

<sup>3</sup>They will be greedy and cheat you with smooth talk. But long ago God decided to punish them, and God doesn't sleep.

<sup>4</sup>God did not have pity on the angels that sinned. He had them tied up and thrown into the dark pits of hell until the time of judgment.

<sup>5</sup>And during Noah's time, God did not have pity on the ungodly people of the world. He destroyed them with a flood, though he did save eight people, including Noah, who preached the truth.

<sup>6</sup>God punished the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and this is a warning to anyone else who wants to sin.

<sup>7-8</sup> Lot lived right and was greatly troubled by the terrible way those wicked people were living. He was a good man, and day after day he suffered because of the evil things he saw and heard. So the Lord rescued him.

<sup>9</sup>This shows that the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from their sufferings and to punish evil people while they wait for the day of judgment.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord is especially hard on people who disobey him and don't think of anything except their own filthy desires. They are reckless and proud and are not afraid of cursing the glorious beings in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Although angels are more powerful than these evil beings, even the angels don't dare to accuse them to the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>These people are no better than senseless animals that live by their feelings and are born to be caught and killed. They speak evil of things they don't know anything about. But their own corrupt deeds will destroy them.

<sup>13</sup>They have done evil, and they will be rewarded with evil. They think it is fun to have wild parties during the day. They are immoral, and the meals they eat with you are spoilt by the shameful and selfish way they carry on.

<sup>14</sup>All they think about is having sex with someone else's husband or wife. There is no end to their wicked deeds. They trick people who are easily fooled, and their minds are filled with greedy thoughts. But they are headed for trouble!

<sup>15</sup>They have left the true road and have gone down the wrong path by following the example of the prophet Balaam. He was the son of Beor and loved what he got from being a criminal.

<sup>16</sup>But a donkey corrected him for this evil deed. It spoke to him with a human voice and made him stop his foolishness.

<sup>17</sup>These people are like dried-up water holes and clouds blown by a storm. The darkest part of hell is waiting for them.

<sup>18</sup>They boast out loud about their stupid nonsense. And by being vulgar and crude, they trap people who have barely escaped from living the wrong kind of life.

<sup>19</sup>They promise freedom to everyone. But they are merely slaves of filthy living, because people are slaves of whatever controls them.

<sup>20</sup>When they learnt about our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they escaped from the filthy things of this world. But they are again caught up and controlled by these filthy things, and now they are in a worse state than they were at first.

<sup>21</sup>They would have been better off if they had never known about the right way. Even after they knew what was right, they turned their backs on the holy commandments that they were given.

<sup>22</sup>What happened to them is just like the true saying, "A dog will come back to lick up its own vomit. A pig that has been washed will roll in the mud."

2 Peter 3

The Lord's return is certain

<sup>1</sup>My dear friends, this is the second letter I have written to encourage you to do some honest thinking. I don't want you to forget

<sup>2</sup>what God's prophets said would happen. You must never forget what the holy prophets taught in the past. And you must remember what the apostles told you our Lord and Saviour has commanded us to do.

<sup>3</sup>But first you must realize that in the last days some people won't think about anything except their own selfish desires. They will make fun of you

<sup>4</sup>and say, "Didn't your Lord promise to come back? Yet the first leaders have already died, and the world hasn't changed a bit."

<sup>5</sup>They will say this because they want to forget that long ago the heavens and the earth were made at God's command. The earth came out of water and was made from water.

<sup>6</sup>Later it was destroyed by the waters of a mighty flood.

<sup>7</sup>But God has commanded the present heavens and earth to remain until the day of judgment. Then they will be set on fire, and ungodly people will be destroyed.

<sup>8</sup>Dear friends, don't forget that for the Lord one day is the same as a thousand years, and a thousand years is the same as one day.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord isn't slow about keeping his promises, as some people think he is. In fact, God is patient, because he wants everyone to turn from sin and no one to be lost.

<sup>10</sup>The day of the Lord's return will surprise us like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a loud noise, and the heat will melt the whole universe. Then the earth and everything on it will be seen for what they are.

<sup>11</sup>Everything will be destroyed. So you should serve and honour God by the way you live.

<sup>12</sup>You should look forward to the day when God judges everyone, and you should try to make it come soon. On that day the heavens will be destroyed by fire, and everything else will melt in the heat.

<sup>13</sup>But God has promised us a new heaven and a new earth, where justice will rule. We are really looking forward to that!

<sup>14</sup>My friends, while you are waiting, you should make certain that the Lord finds you pure, spotless, and living at peace.

<sup>15</sup>Don't forget that the Lord is patient because he wants people to be saved. This is also what our dear friend Paul said when he wrote to you with the wisdom that God had given him.

<sup>16</sup>Paul talks about these same things in all his letters, but part of what he says is hard to understand. Some ignorant and unsteady people even destroy themselves by twisting what he said. They do the same thing with other Scriptures too.

<sup>17</sup>My dear friends, you have been warned beforehand! So don't let the errors of evil people lead you down the wrong path and make you lose your balance.

<sup>18</sup>Let the wonderful kindness and the understanding that come from our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ help you to keep on growing. Praise Jesus now and for ever! Amen.

1 John

1 John 1

The Word that gives life

<sup>1</sup>The Word that gives life was from the beginning, and this is the one our message is about. Our ears have heard, our own eyes have seen, and our hands touched this Word.

<sup>2</sup>The one who gives life appeared! We saw it happen, and we are witnesses to what we have seen. Now we are telling you about this eternal life that was with the Father and appeared to us.

<sup>3</sup>We are telling you what we have seen and heard, so that you may share in this life with us. And we share in it with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>We are writing to tell you these things, because this makes us truly happy.

God is light and Christ is our example

<sup>5</sup>Jesus told us that God is light and doesn't have any darkness in him. Now we are telling you.

<sup>6</sup>If we say that we share in life with God and keep on living in the dark, we are lying and are not living by the truth.

<sup>7</sup>But if we live in the light, as God does, we share in life with each other. And the blood of his Son Jesus washes all our sins away.

<sup>8</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we are fooling ourselves, and the truth isn't in our hearts.

<sup>9</sup>But if we confess our sins to God, he can always be trusted to forgive us and take our sins away.

<sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make God a liar, and his message isn't in our hearts.

1 John 2

Christ helps us

<sup>1</sup>My children, I am writing this so that you won't sin. But if you do sin, Jesus Christ always does the right thing, and he will speak to the Father for us.

<sup>2</sup>Christ is the sacrifice that takes away our sins and the sins of all the world's people.

<sup>3</sup>When we obey God, we are sure that we know him.

<sup>4</sup>But if we claim to know him and don't obey him, we are lying and the truth isn't in our hearts.

<sup>5</sup>We truly love God only when we obey him as we should, and then we know that we belong to him.

<sup>6</sup>If we say we are his, we must follow the example of Christ.

The new commandment

<sup>7</sup>My dear friends, I am not writing to give you a new commandment. It is the same one that you were first given, and it is the message you heard.

<sup>8</sup>But it really is a new commandment, and you know its true meaning, just as Christ does. You can see the darkness fading away and the true light already shining.

<sup>9</sup>If we claim to be in the light and hate someone, we are still in the dark.

<sup>10</sup>But if we love others, we are in the light, and we don't cause problems for them.

<sup>11</sup>If we hate others, we are living and walking in the dark. We don't know where we are going, because we can't see in the dark.

<sup>12</sup>Children, I am writing to you, because your sins have been forgiven in the name of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Parents, I am writing to you, because you have known the one who was there from the beginning. Young people, I am writing to you, because you have defeated the evil one.

<sup>14</sup>Children, I am writing to you, because you have known the Father. Parents, I am writing to you, because you have known the one who was there from the beginning. Young people, I am writing to you, because you are strong. God's message is firm in your hearts, and you have defeated the evil one.

<sup>15</sup>Don't love the world or anything that belongs to the world. If you love the world, you cannot love the Father.

<sup>16</sup>Our foolish pride comes from this world, and so do our selfish desires and our desire to have everything we see. None of this comes from the Father.

<sup>17</sup>The world and the desires it causes are disappearing. But if we obey God, we will live for ever.

The enemies of Christ and God's children The enemy of Christ

<sup>18</sup>Children, this is the last hour. You heard that the enemy of Christ would appear at this time, and many of Christ's enemies have already appeared. So we know that the last hour is here.

<sup>19</sup>These people came from our own group, yet they were not part of us. If they had been part of us, they would have stayed with us. But they left, which proves that they did not belong to our group.

<sup>20</sup>Christ, the Holy One, has blessed you, and now all of you understand.

<sup>21</sup>I did not need to write to you about the truth, since you already know it. You also know that liars do not belong to the truth.

<sup>22</sup>And a liar is anyone who says that Jesus isn't truly Christ. Anyone who says this is an enemy of Christ and rejects both the Father and the Son.

<sup>23</sup>If we reject the Son, we reject the Father. But if we say that we accept the Son, we have the Father.

<sup>24</sup>Keep thinking about the message you first heard, and you will always be one in your heart with the Son and with the Father.

<sup>25</sup>The Son has promised us eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>I am writing to warn you about those people who are misleading you.

<sup>27</sup>But Christ has blessed you with the Holy Spirit. Now the Spirit stays in you, and you don't need any teachers. The Spirit is truthful and teaches you everything. So stay united in your heart with Christ, just as the Spirit has taught you to do.

Children of God

<sup>28</sup>Children, stay united in your hearts with Christ. Then when he returns, we will have confidence and won't have to hide in shame.

<sup>29</sup>You know that Christ always does right and that everyone who does right is a child of God.

1 John 3

<sup>1</sup>Think how much the Father loves us. He loves us so much that he lets us be called his children, as we truly are. But since the people of this world did not know who Christ is, they don't know who we are.

<sup>2</sup>My dear friends, we are already God's children, though what we will be hasn't yet been seen. But we do know that when Christ returns, we will be like him, because we will see him as he truly is.

<sup>3</sup>This hope makes us keep ourselves holy, just as Christ is holy.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone who sins breaks God's law, because sin is the same as breaking God's law.

<sup>5</sup>You know that Christ came to take away sins. He isn't sinful, <sup>6</sup>and people who stay united in their hearts with him won't keep on sinning. If they do keep on sinning, they don't know Christ, and they have never seen him.

<sup>7</sup>Children, don't be fooled. Anyone who does right is good, just like Christ himself.

<sup>8</sup>Anyone who keeps on sinning belongs to the devil. He has sinned from the beginning, but the Son of God came to destroy all that he has done.

<sup>9</sup>God's children cannot keep on being sinful. His life-giving power lives in them and makes them his children, so that they cannot keep on sinning.

<sup>10</sup>You can tell God's children from the devil's children, because those who belong to the devil refuse to do right or to love each other.

God's love and our love Love each other

<sup>11</sup>From the beginning you were told that we must love each other.

<sup>12</sup>Don't be like Cain, who belonged to the devil and murdered his own brother. Why did he murder him? He did it because his brother was good, and he was evil.

<sup>13</sup>My friends, don't be surprised if the people of this world hate you.

<sup>14</sup>Our love for each other proves that we have gone from death to life. But if you don't love each other, you are still under the power of death.

<sup>15</sup>If you hate each other, you are murderers, and we know that murderers do not have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>We know what love is because Jesus gave his life for us. That's why we must give our lives for each other.

<sup>17</sup>If we have all we need and see one of our own people in need, we must have pity on that person, or else we cannot say we love God.

<sup>18</sup>Children, you show love for others by truly helping them, and not merely by talking about it.

<sup>19</sup>When we love others, we know that we belong to the truth, and we feel at ease in the presence of God.

<sup>20</sup>But even if we don't feel at ease, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything.

<sup>21</sup>Dear friends, if we feel at ease in the presence of God, we will have the courage to come near him.

<sup>22</sup>He will give us whatever we ask, because we obey him and do what pleases him.

<sup>23</sup>God wants us to have faith in his Son Jesus Christ and to love each other. This is also what Jesus taught us to do.

<sup>24</sup>If we obey God's commandments, we will stay united in our hearts with him, and he will stay united with us. The Spirit that he has given us is proof that we are one with him.

1 John 5

Victory over the world

<sup>1</sup>If we believe that Jesus is truly Christ, we are God's children. Everyone who loves the Father will also love his children.

<sup>2</sup>If we love and obey God, we know that we will love his children.

<sup>3</sup>We show our love for God by obeying his commandments, and they are not hard to follow.

<sup>4</sup>Every child of God can defeat the world, and our faith is what gives us this victory.

<sup>5</sup>No one can defeat the world without having faith in Jesus as the Son of God.

Who Jesus is

<sup>6</sup>Water and blood came out from the side of Jesus Christ. It wasn't just water, but water and blood. The Spirit tells about this, because the Spirit is truthful.

<sup>7</sup>In fact, there are three who tell about it.

<sup>8</sup>They are the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and they all agree.

<sup>9</sup>We believe what people tell us. But we can trust what God says even more, and God is the one who has spoken about his Son.

<sup>10</sup>If we have faith in God's Son, we have believed what God has said. But if we don't believe what God has said about his Son, it is the same as calling God a liar.

<sup>11</sup>God has also said that he gave us eternal life and that this life comes to us from his Son.

<sup>12</sup>And so, if we have God's Son, we have this life. But if we don't have the Son, we don't have this life.

Knowing about eternal life

<sup>13</sup>All of you have faith in the Son of God, and I have written to let you know that you have eternal life.

<sup>14</sup>We are certain that God will hear our prayers when we ask for what pleases him.

<sup>15</sup>And if we know that God listens when we pray, we are sure that our prayers have already been answered.

<sup>16</sup>Suppose you see one of our people commit a sin that isn't a deadly sin. You can pray, and that person will be given eternal life. But the sin must not be one that is deadly.

<sup>17</sup>Everything that is wrong is sin, but not all sins are deadly.

<sup>18</sup>We are sure that God's children do not keep on sinning. God's own Son protects them, and the devil cannot harm them.

<sup>19</sup>We are certain that we come from God and that the rest of the world is under the power of the devil.

<sup>20</sup>We know that Jesus Christ the Son of God has come and has shown us the true God. And because of Jesus, we now belong to the true God who gives eternal life.

<sup>21</sup>Children, you must stay away from idols.

2 John

2 John 1

Greetings and prayer

<sup>1</sup>From the church leader. To a very special woman and her children. I truly love all of you, and so does everyone else who knows the truth.

<sup>2</sup>We love you because the truth is now in our hearts, and it will be there for ever.

<sup>3</sup>I pray that God the Father and Jesus Christ his Son will be kind and merciful to us! May they give us peace and truth and love.

Truth and love

<sup>4</sup>I was very glad to learn that some of your children are obeying the truth, as the Father told us to do.

<sup>5</sup>Dear friend, I am not writing to tell you and your children to do something you have not done before. I am writing to tell you to love each other, which is the first thing you were told to do.

<sup>6</sup>Love means that we do what God tells us. And from the beginning, he told you to love him.

<sup>7</sup>Many liars have gone out into the world. These deceitful liars are saying that Jesus Christ did not have a truly human body. But they are liars and the enemies of Christ.

<sup>8</sup>So be sure not to lose what we have worked for. If you do, you won't be given your full reward.

<sup>9</sup>Don't keep changing what you were taught about Christ, or else God will no longer be with you. But if you hold firmly to what you were taught, both the Father and the Son will be with you.

<sup>10</sup>If people won't agree to this teaching, don't welcome them into your home or even greet them.

<sup>11</sup>Greeting them is the same as taking part in their evil deeds.

Final greetings

<sup>12</sup>I have much more to tell you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink. I want to come and talk to you in person, because that will make us really happy.

<sup>13</sup>Greetings from the children of your very special sister.

3 John

3 John 1

Greetings to Gaius

<sup>1</sup>From the church leader. To my dear friend Gaius. I love you because we follow the truth,

<sup>2</sup>dear friend, and I pray that all goes well for you. I hope that you are as strong in body, as I know you are in spirit.

<sup>3</sup>It makes me very happy when the Lord's followers come by and speak openly of how you obey the truth.

<sup>4</sup>Nothing brings me greater happiness than to hear that my children are obeying the truth.

The importance of working together

<sup>5</sup>Dear friend, you have always been faithful in helping other followers of the Lord, even the ones you didn't know before.

<sup>6</sup>They have told the church about your love. They say you were good enough to welcome them and to send them on their mission in a way that God's servants deserve.

<sup>7</sup>When they left to tell others about the Lord, they decided not to accept help from anyone who wasn't a follower.

<sup>8</sup>We must support people like them, so that we can take part in what they are doing to spread the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the church. But Diotrephes likes to be the number-one leader, and he won't pay any attention to us.

<sup>10</sup>So if I come, I will remind him of how he has been attacking us with gossip. Not only has he been doing this, but he refuses to welcome any of the Lord's followers who come by. And when other church members want to welcome them, he puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Dear friend, don't copy the evil deeds of others! Follow the example of people who do kind deeds. They are God's children, but those who are always doing evil have never seen God.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone speaks well of Demetrius, and so does the true message that he teaches. I also speak well of him, and you know what I say is true.

Final greetings

<sup>13</sup>I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink.

<sup>14</sup>I hope to see you soon, and then we can talk in person.

<sup>15</sup>I pray that God will bless you with peace! Your friends send their greetings. Please give a personal greeting to each of our friends.

Jude

Jude 1

Greetings

<sup>1</sup>From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and the brother of James. To all who are chosen and loved by God the Father and are kept safe by Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>I pray that God will greatly bless you with kindness, peace, and love!

Defending the faith against false teachers

<sup>3</sup>My dear friends, I really wanted to write to you about God's saving power at work in our lives. But instead, I must write and ask you to defend the faith that God has once for all given to his people.

<sup>4</sup>Some godless people have sneaked in among us and are saying, "God treats us much better than we deserve, and so it is all right to be immoral." They even deny that we must obey Jesus Christ as our only Master and Lord. But long ago the Scriptures warned that these godless people were doomed.

<sup>5</sup>Don't forget what happened to those people that the Lord rescued from Egypt. Some of them did not have faith, and he later destroyed them.

<sup>6</sup>You also know about the angels who didn't do their work and left their proper places. God chained them with everlasting chains and is now keeping them in dark pits until the great day of judgment.

<sup>7</sup>We should also be warned by what happened to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and the nearby towns. Their people became immoral and did all sorts of sexual sins. Then God made an example of them and punished them with eternal fire.

<sup>8</sup>The people I am talking about are behaving just like those dreamers who destroyed their own bodies. They reject all authority and insult angels.

<sup>9</sup>Even Michael, the chief angel, didn't dare to insult the devil, when the two of them were arguing about the body of Moses. All Michael said was, "The Lord will punish you!"

<sup>10</sup>But these people insult powers they don't know anything about. They are like senseless animals that end up getting destroyed, because they live only by their feelings.

<sup>11</sup>Now they are in for real trouble. They have followed Cain's example and have made the same mistake that Balaam did by caring only for money. They have also rebelled against God, just as Korah did. Because of all this, they will be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>These people are filthy minded, and by their shameful and selfish actions they spoil the meals you eat together. They are like clouds blown along by the wind, but never bringing any rain. They are like leafless trees, uprooted and dead, and unable to produce fruit.

<sup>13</sup>Their shameful deeds show up like foam on wild ocean waves. They are like wandering stars for ever doomed to the darkest pits of hell.

<sup>14</sup>Enoch was the seventh person after Adam, and he was talking about these people when he said: Look! The Lord is coming with thousands and thousands of holy angels

<sup>15</sup>to judge everyone. He will punish all those ungodly people for all the evil things they have done. The Lord will punish those ungodly sinners for every evil thing they have ever said about him.

<sup>16</sup>These people grumble and complain and live by their own selfish desires. They boast about themselves and flatter others to get what they want.

More warnings

<sup>17</sup>My dear friends, remember the warning you were given by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup>They told you that near the end of time, selfish and godless people would start making fun of God.

<sup>19</sup>And now these people are already making you turn against each other. They think only about this life, and they don't have God's Spirit.

<sup>20</sup>Dear friends, keep building on the foundation of your most holy faith, as the Holy Spirit helps you to pray.

<sup>21</sup>And keep in step with God's love, as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to show how kind he is by giving you eternal life.

<sup>22</sup>Be helpful to all who may have doubts.

<sup>23</sup>Rescue any who need to be saved, as you would rescue someone from a fire. Then with fear in your own hearts, have mercy on everyone who needs it. But hate even the clothes of those who have been made dirty by their filthy deeds.

Final prayer

<sup>24-25</sup>Offer praise to God our Saviour because of our Lord Jesus Christ! Only God can keep you from falling and make you pure and joyful in his glorious presence. Before time began and now and for evermore, God is worthy of glory, honour, power, and authority. Amen.

Revelation

Revelation 1

A prophecy from John

<sup>1</sup>This is what God showed to Jesus Christ, so that he could tell his servants what must happen soon. Christ then sent his angel with the message to his servant John.

<sup>2</sup>And John told everything that he had seen about God's message and about what Jesus Christ had said and done.

<sup>3</sup>God will bless everyone who reads this prophecy to others, and he will bless everyone who hears and obeys it. The time is almost here.

<sup>4</sup>From John to the seven churches in Asia. I pray that you will be blessed with kindness and peace from God, who is and was and is coming. May you receive kindness and peace from the seven spirits before the throne of God.

<sup>5</sup>May kindness and peace be yours from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness. Jesus was the first to conquer death, and he is the ruler of all earthly kings. Christ loves us, and by his blood he set us free from our sins.

<sup>6</sup>He lets us rule as kings and serve God his Father as priests. To him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Look! He is coming with the clouds. Everyone will see him, even the ones who stuck a sword through him. All people on earth will weep because of him. Yes, it will happen! Amen.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord God says, "I am Alpha and Omega, the one who is and was and is coming. I am God All-Powerful!"

A vision of the living Lord A vision of the risen Lord

<sup>9</sup>I am John, a follower together with all of you. We suffer because Jesus is our king, but he gives us the strength to endure. I was sent to Patmos Island, because I had preached God's message and had told about Jesus.

<sup>10</sup>On the Lord's day the Spirit took control of me, and behind me I heard a loud voice that sounded like a trumpet.

<sup>11</sup>The voice said, "Write in a book what you see. Then send it to the seven churches in Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup>When I turned to see who was speaking to me, I saw seven gold lampstands.

<sup>13</sup>There with the lampstands was someone who seemed to be the Son of Man. He was wearing a robe that reached down to his feet, and a gold cloth was wrapped around his chest.

<sup>14</sup> His head and his hair were white as wool or snow, and his eyes looked like flames of fire.

<sup>15</sup>His feet were glowing like bronze being heated in a furnace, and his voice sounded like the roar of a waterfall.

<sup>16</sup>He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp double-edged sword was coming from his mouth. His face was shining as bright as the sun at midday.

<sup>17</sup>When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead person. But he put his right hand on me and said: Don't be afraid! I am the first, the last,

<sup>18</sup>and the living one. I died, but now I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys to death and the world of the dead.

<sup>19</sup>Write what you have seen and what is and what will happen after these things.

<sup>20</sup>I will explain the mystery of the seven stars that you saw at my right side and the seven gold lampstands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2

Letters to the seven churches The letter to Ephesus

The risen Lord said:

<sup>1</sup>This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Ephesus: I am the one who holds the seven stars in my right hand, and I walk among the seven gold lampstands. Listen to what I say.

<sup>2</sup>I know everything you have done, including your hard work and how you have endured. I know you won't put up with anyone who is evil. When some people pretended to be apostles, you tested them and found out that they were liars.

<sup>3</sup>You have endured and gone through hard times because of me, and you have not given up.

<sup>4</sup>But I do have something against you! And it is this: you don't have as much love as you used to.

<sup>5</sup>Think about where you have fallen from, and then turn back and do as you did at first. If you don't turn back, I will come and take away your lampstand.

<sup>6</sup>But there is one thing you are doing right. You hate what the Nicolaitans are doing, and so do I.

<sup>7</sup>If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will let everyone who wins the victory eat from the life-giving tree in God's wonderful garden.

The letter to Smyrna

The risen Lord continued:

<sup>8</sup>This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Smyrna: I am the first and the last. I died, but now I am alive! Listen to what I say.

<sup>9</sup>I know how much you suffer and how poor you are, but you are rich. I also know the cruel things being said about you by people who claim to be Jews. But they are not really Jews. They are a group that belongs to Satan.

<sup>10</sup>Don't worry about what you will suffer. The devil will throw some of you into jail, and you will be tested and made to suffer for ten days. But if you are faithful until you die, I will reward you with a glorious life.

11 If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. Whoever wins the victory will not be hurt by the second death.

The letter to Pergamum

The risen Lord continued:

12 This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Pergamum: I am the one who has the sharp double-edged sword! Listen to what I say.

13 I know that you live where Satan has his throne. But you have kept true to my name. There where Satan lives, my faithful witness Antipas was taken from you and put to death. Even then you did not give up your faith in me.

14 I do have a few things against you. Some of you are following the teaching of Balaam. Long ago he told Balak to teach the people of Israel to eat food that had been offered to idols and to be immoral.

15 Now some of you are following the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

16 Turn back! If you don't, I will come quickly and fight against these people. And my words will cut like a sword.

17 If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To everyone who wins the victory, I will give some of the hidden food. I will also give each one a white stone with a new name written on it. No one will know that name except the one who is given the stone.

The letter to Thyatira

The risen Lord continued:

18 This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Thyatira: I am the Son of God! My eyes are like flames of fire, and my feet are like bronze. Listen to what I say.

19 I know everything about you, including your love, your faith, your service, and how you have endured. I know that you are doing more now than you have ever done before.

<sup>20</sup>But I still have something against you because of that woman Jezebel. She calls herself a prophet, and you let her teach and mislead my servants to do immoral things and to eat food offered to idols.

<sup>21</sup>I gave her a chance to turn from her sins, but she did not want to stop doing these immoral things.

<sup>22</sup>I am going to strike down Jezebel. Everyone who does these immoral things with her will also be punished, if they don't stop.

<sup>23</sup>I will even kill her followers. Then all the churches will see that I know everyone's thoughts and feelings. I will treat each of you as you deserve.

<sup>24</sup>Some of you in Thyatira don't follow Jezebel's teaching. You don't know anything about what her followers call the "deep secrets of Satan". So I won't burden you down with any other commands.

<sup>25</sup>But until I come, you must hold firmly to the teaching you have.

<sup>26</sup>I will give power over the nations to everyone who wins the victory and keeps on obeying me until the end.

<sup>27-28</sup>I will give each of them the same power that my Father has given me. They will rule the nations with an iron rod and smash those nations to pieces like clay pots. I will also give them the morning star.

<sup>29</sup>If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3

The letter to Sardis

The risen Lord said:

<sup>1</sup>This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Sardis: I have the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. Listen to what I say. I know what you are doing. Everyone may think you are alive, but you are dead.

<sup>2</sup>Wake up! You have only a little strength left, and it is almost gone. So try to become stronger. I have found that you are not completely obeying God.

<sup>3</sup>Remember the teaching that you were given and that you heard. Hold firmly to it and turn from your sins. If you don't wake up, I will come when you least expect it, just as a thief does.

<sup>4</sup>A few of you in Sardis have not dirtied your clothes with sin. You will walk with me in white clothes, because you are worthy.

<sup>5</sup>Everyone who wins the victory will wear white clothes. Their names will not be erased from the book of life, and I will tell my Father and his angels that they are my followers.

<sup>6</sup>If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

The letter to Philadelphia

The risen Lord continued:

<sup>7</sup>This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Philadelphia: I am the one who is holy and true, and I have the keys that belonged to David. When I open a door, no one can close it. And when I close a door, no one can open it. Listen to what I say.

<sup>8</sup>I know everything you have done. And I have placed before you an open door that no one can close. You were not very strong, but you obeyed my message and did not deny that you are my followers.

<sup>9</sup>Now you will see what I will do with those people who belong to Satan's group. They claim to be Jews, but they are liars. I will make them come and kneel down at your feet. Then they will know that I love you.

<sup>10</sup>You obeyed my message and endured. So I will protect you from the time of testing that everyone in all the world must go through.

<sup>11</sup>I am coming soon. So hold firmly to what you have, and no one will take away the crown that you will be given as your reward.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone who wins the victory will be made into a pillar in the temple of my God, and they will stay there for ever. I will write on each of them the name of my God and the name of his city. It is the new Jerusalem that my God will send down from heaven. I will also write on them my own new name.

<sup>13</sup>If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

The letter to Laodicea

The risen Lord continued:

<sup>14</sup>This is what you must write to the angel of the church in Laodicea: I am the one called Amen! I am the faithful and true witness and the source of God's creation. Listen to what I say.

<sup>15</sup>I know everything you have done, and you are not cold or hot. I wish you were either one or the other.

<sup>16</sup>But since you are lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spit you out of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>You claim to be rich and successful and to have everything you need. But you don't know how badly off you are. You are pitiful, poor, blind, and naked.

<sup>18</sup>Buy your gold from me. It has been refined in a fire, and it will make you rich. Buy white clothes from me. Wear them and you can cover up your shameful nakedness. Buy medicine for your eyes, so that you will be able to see.

<sup>19</sup>I correct and punish everyone I love. So make up your minds to turn away from your sins.

<sup>20</sup>Listen! I am standing and knocking at your door. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and we will eat together.

<sup>21</sup>Everyone who wins the victory will sit with me on my throne, just as I won the victory and sat with my Father on his throne.

<sup>22</sup>If you have ears, listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 4

A vision of worship in heaven

<sup>1</sup>After this, I looked and saw a door that opened into heaven. Then the voice that had spoken to me at first and that sounded like a trumpet said, “Come up here! I will show you what must happen next.”

<sup>2</sup>At once the Spirit took control of me, and there in heaven I saw a throne and someone sitting on it.

<sup>3</sup>The one who was sitting there sparkled like precious stones of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow that looked like an emerald surrounded the throne.

<sup>4</sup>Twenty-four other thrones were in a circle around that throne. And on each of these thrones there was an elder dressed in white clothes and wearing a gold crown.

<sup>5</sup>Flashes of lightning and roars of thunder came out from the throne in the centre of the circle. Seven torches, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning in front of the throne.

<sup>6</sup>Also in front of the throne was something that looked like a glass sea, clear as crystal. Around the throne in the centre were four living creatures covered front and back with eyes.

<sup>7</sup>The first creature was like a lion, the second one was like a bull, the third one had the face of a human, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.

<sup>8</sup>Each of the four living creatures had six wings, and their bodies were covered with eyes. Day and night they never stopped singing, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, All-powerful Lord God, who was and is and is coming!”

<sup>9</sup>The living creatures kept praising, honouring, and thanking the one who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever.

<sup>10</sup>At the same time the twenty-four elders knelt down before the one sitting on the throne. And as they worshipped the one who lives for ever, they placed their crowns in front of the throne and said,

<sup>11</sup>“Our Lord and God, you are worthy to receive glory, honour, and power. You created all things, and by your decision they are and were created.”

Revelation 5

A scroll with seven seals The scroll and the Lamb

<sup>1</sup>In the right hand of the one sitting on the throne I saw a scroll that had writing on the inside and on the outside. And it was sealed in seven places.

<sup>2</sup>I saw a mighty angel ask with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

<sup>3</sup>No one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or see inside it.

<sup>4</sup>I cried hard because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or see inside it.

<sup>5</sup>Then one of the elders said to me, “Stop crying and look! The one who is called both the ‘Lion from the Tribe of Judah’ and ‘King David’s Great Descendant’ has won the victory. He will open the book and its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup>Then I looked and saw a Lamb standing in the centre of the throne that was surrounded by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb looked as if it had once been killed. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent out to all the earth.

<sup>7</sup>The Lamb went over and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who sat on the throne.

<sup>8</sup>After he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders knelt down before him. Each of them had a harp and a gold bowl full of incense, which are the prayers of God’s people.

<sup>9</sup>Then they sang a new song, “You are worthy to receive the scroll and open its seals, because you were killed. And with your own blood you bought for God people from every tribe, language, nation, and race.

<sup>10</sup>You let them become kings and serve God as priests, and they will rule on earth.”

<sup>11</sup>As I looked, I heard the voices of a lot of angels around the throne and the voices of the living creatures and of the elders. There were millions and millions of them,

<sup>12</sup>and they were saying in a loud voice, “The Lamb who was killed is worthy to receive power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory, and praise.”

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard all beings in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and in the sea offer praise. Together, all of them were saying, “Praise, honour, glory, and strength for ever and ever to the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!”

<sup>14</sup>The four living creatures said “Amen”, while the elders knelt down and worshipped.

Revelation 6

Opening the seven seals

<sup>1</sup>At the same time that I saw the Lamb open the first of the seven seals, I heard one of the four living creatures shout with a voice like thunder. It said, “Come out!”

<sup>2</sup>Then I saw a white horse. Its rider carried a bow and was given a crown. He had already won some victories, and he went out to win more.

<sup>3</sup>When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come out!”

<sup>4</sup>Then another horse came out. It was fiery red. And its rider was given the power to take away all peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. He was also given a big sword.

<sup>5</sup>When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come out!” Then I saw a black horse, and its rider had a balance scale in one hand.

<sup>6</sup>I heard what sounded like a voice from somewhere among the four living creatures. It said, “A litre of wheat will cost you a whole day's wages! Three litres of barley will cost you a day's wages too. But don't ruin the olive oil or the wine.”

<sup>7</sup>When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come out!”

<sup>8</sup>Then I saw a pale green horse. Its rider was named Death, and Death's Kingdom followed behind. They were given power over one fourth of the earth, and they could kill its people with swords, famines, diseases, and wild animals.

<sup>9</sup>When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of everyone who had been killed for speaking God's message and telling about their faith.

<sup>10</sup>They shouted, “Master, you are holy and faithful! How long will it be before you judge and punish the people of this earth who killed us?”

<sup>11</sup>Then each of those who had been killed was given a white robe and told to rest for a little while. They had to wait until the complete number of the Lord's other servants and followers would be killed.

<sup>12</sup>When I saw the Lamb open the sixth seal, I looked and saw a great earthquake. The sun turned as dark as sackcloth, and the moon became as red as blood.

<sup>13</sup>The stars in the sky fell to earth, just like figs shaken loose by a storm.

<sup>14</sup>Then the sky was rolled up like a scroll, and all mountains and islands were moved from their places.

<sup>15</sup>The kings of the earth, its famous people, and its military leaders hid in caves or behind rocks on the mountains. They hid there together with the rich and the powerful and with all the slaves and free people.

<sup>16</sup>Then they shouted to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us! Hide us from the one who sits on the throne and from the anger of the Lamb.

<sup>17</sup> That terrible day has come! God and the Lamb will show their anger, and who can face it?"

Revelation 7

Worship in front of God's throne The 144,000 are marked for God

<sup>1-2</sup> After this I saw four angels. Each one was standing on one of the earth's four corners. The angels held back the four winds, so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. These angels had also been given the power to harm the earth and the sea. Then I saw another angel come up from where the sun rises in the east, and he was ready to put the mark of the living God on people. He shouted to the four angels,

<sup>3</sup> "Don't harm the earth or the sea or any tree! Wait until I have marked the foreheads of the servants of our God."

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard how many people had been marked on the forehead. There were one hundred and forty-four thousand, and they came from every tribe of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> 12, 000 from Judah,
12, 000 from Reuben,
12, 000 from Gad,
<sup>6</sup> 12, 000 from Asher,
12, 000 from Naphtali,
12, 000 from Manasseh,
<sup>7</sup> 12, 000 from Simeon,
12, 000 from Levi,
12, 000 from Issachar,
<sup>8</sup> 12, 000 from Zebulun,
12, 000 from Joseph, and 12, 000 from Benjamin.

People from every nation

<sup>9</sup>After this, I saw a large crowd with more people than could be counted. They were from every race, tribe, nation, and language, and they stood before the throne and before the Lamb. They wore white robes and held palm branches in their hands,

<sup>10</sup>as they shouted, “Our God, who sits upon the throne, has the power to save his people, and so does the Lamb.”

<sup>11</sup>The angels who stood around the throne knelt in front of it with their faces to the ground. The elders and the four living creatures knelt there with them. Then they all worshipped God

<sup>12</sup>and said, “Amen! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honour, power, and strength belong to our God for ever and ever! Amen!”

<sup>13</sup>One of the elders asked me, “Do you know who these people are that are dressed in white robes? Do you know where they come from?”

<sup>14</sup>“Sir,” I answered, “you must know.” Then he told me: “These are the ones who have gone through the great suffering. They have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and have made them white.

<sup>15</sup>And so they stand before the throne of God and worship him in his temple day and night. The one who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

<sup>16</sup>They will never hunger or thirst again, and they won't be troubled by the sun or any scorching heat.

<sup>17</sup>“The Lamb in the centre of the throne will be their shepherd. He will lead them to streams of life-giving water, and God will wipe all tears from their eyes.”

Revelation 8

Seven trumpets The seventh seal is opened

<sup>1</sup>When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

<sup>2</sup>I noticed that the seven angels who stood before God were each given a trumpet.

<sup>3</sup>Another angel, who had a gold container for incense, came and stood at the altar. This one was given a lot of incense to offer with the prayers of God's people on the gold altar in front of the throne.

<sup>4</sup>Then the smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of God's people, went up to God from the hand of the angel.

<sup>5</sup>After this, the angel filled the incense container with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth. Thunder roared, lightning flashed, and the earth shook.

The trumpets

<sup>6</sup>The seven angels now got ready to blow their trumpets.

<sup>7</sup>When the first angel blew his trumpet, hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. A third of the earth, a third of the trees, and a third of all green plants were burnt.

<sup>8</sup>When the second angel blew his trumpet, something like a great fiery mountain was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood, <sup>9</sup>a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>When the third angel blew his trumpet, a great star fell from heaven. It was burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on a third of the springs of water.

<sup>11</sup>The name of the star was Bitter, and a third of the water turned bitter. Many people died because the water was so bitter.

<sup>12</sup>When the fourth angel blew his trumpet, a third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars were struck. They each lost a third of their light. So during a third of the day there was no light, and a third of the night was also without light.

<sup>13</sup>Then I looked and saw a lone eagle flying across the sky. It was shouting, “Trouble, trouble, trouble to everyone who lives on earth! The other three angels are now going to blow their trumpets.”

Revelation 9

<sup>1</sup>When the fifth angel blew his trumpet, I saw a star fall from the sky to earth. It was given the key to the tunnel that leads down to the deep pit.

<sup>2</sup>As it opened the tunnel, smoke poured out like the smoke of a great furnace. The sun and the air turned dark because of the smoke.

<sup>3</sup>Locusts came out of the smoke and covered the earth. They were given the same power that scorpions have.

<sup>4</sup>The locusts were told not to harm the grass on the earth or any plant or any tree. They were to punish only those people who did not have God's mark on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup>The locusts were allowed to make them suffer for five months, but not to kill them. The suffering they caused was like the sting of a scorpion.

<sup>6</sup>In those days people will want to die, but they will not be able to. They will hope for death, but it will escape from them.

<sup>7</sup>These locusts looked like horses ready for battle. On their heads they wore something like gold crowns, and they had human faces.

<sup>8</sup>Their hair was like a woman's long hair, and their teeth were like those of a lion.

<sup>9</sup>On their chests they wore armour made of iron. Their wings roared like an army of horse-drawn chariots rushing into battle.

<sup>10</sup>Their tails were like a scorpion's tail with a sting that had the power to hurt someone for five months.

<sup>11</sup>Their king was the angel in charge of the deep pit. In Hebrew his name was Abaddon, and in Greek it was Apollyon.

<sup>12</sup>The first horrible thing has now happened! But wait. Two more horrible things will happen soon.

<sup>13</sup>Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet. I heard a voice speak from the four corners of the gold altar that stands in the presence of God.

<sup>14</sup>The voice spoke to this angel and said, “Release the four angels who are tied up beside the great River Euphrates.”

<sup>15</sup>The four angels had been prepared for this very hour and day and month and year. Now they were set free to kill a third of all people.

<sup>16</sup>By listening, I could tell there were more than two hundred million of these war horses.

<sup>17</sup>In my vision their riders wore fiery red, dark blue, and yellow armour on their chests. The heads of the horses looked like lions, with fire and smoke and sulphur coming out of their mouths.

<sup>18</sup>One third of all people were killed by the three terrible troubles caused by the fire, the smoke, and the sulphur.

<sup>19</sup>The horses had powerful mouths, and their tails were like poisonous snakes that bite and hurt.

<sup>20</sup>The people who lived through these terrible troubles did not turn away from the idols they had made, and they did not stop worshipping demons. They kept on worshipping idols that were made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood. Not one of these idols could see, hear, or walk.

<sup>21</sup>No one stopped murdering or practising witchcraft or being immoral or stealing.

Revelation 10

The angel and the little scroll

<sup>1</sup>I saw another powerful angel come down from heaven. This one was covered with a cloud, and a rainbow was over his head. His face was like the sun, his legs were like columns of fire,

<sup>2</sup>and with his hand he held a little scroll that had been unrolled. He stood there with his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land.

<sup>3</sup>Then he shouted with a voice that sounded like a growling lion. Thunder roared seven times.

<sup>4</sup>After the thunder stopped, I was about to write what it had said. But a voice from heaven shouted, “Keep it secret! Don't write these things.”

<sup>5</sup>The angel I had seen standing on the sea and the land then held his right hand up towards heaven.

<sup>6</sup>He made a promise in the name of God who lives for ever and who created heaven, earth, the sea, and every living creature. The angel said, “You won't have to wait any longer.

<sup>7</sup>God told his secret plans to his servants the prophets, and it will all happen by the time the seventh angel sounds his trumpet.”

<sup>8</sup>Once again the voice from heaven spoke to me. It said, “Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel standing on the sea and the land.”

<sup>9</sup>When I went over to ask the angel for the little scroll, the angel said, “Take the scroll and eat it! Your stomach will turn sour, but the taste in your mouth will be as sweet as honey.”

<sup>10</sup>I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it. The taste was as sweet as honey, but my stomach turned sour.

<sup>11</sup>Then some voices said, “Keep on telling what will happen to the people of many nations, races, and languages, and also to kings.”

Revelation 11

The two witnesses

- <sup>1</sup>An angel gave me a measuring stick and said: Measure around God's temple. Be sure to include the altar and everyone worshipping there.
- <sup>2</sup>But don't measure the courtyard outside the temple building. Leave it out. It has been given to those people who don't know God, and they will trample all over the holy city for forty-two months.
- <sup>3</sup>My two witnesses will wear sackcloth, while I let them preach for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.
- <sup>4</sup>These two witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand in the presence of the Lord who rules the earth.
- <sup>5</sup>Any enemy who tries to harm them will be destroyed by the fire that comes out of their mouths.
- <sup>6</sup>They have the power to lock up the sky and to keep rain from falling while they are prophesying. And whenever they want to, they can turn water to blood and cause all kinds of terrible troubles on earth.
- <sup>7</sup>After the two witnesses have finished preaching God's message, the beast that lives in the deep pit will come up and fight against them. It will win the battle and kill them.
- <sup>8</sup>Their bodies will be left lying in the streets of the same great city where their Lord was nailed to a cross. And that city is spiritually like the city of Sodom or the country of Egypt.
- <sup>9</sup>For three and a half days the people of every nation, tribe, language, and race will stare at the bodies of these two witnesses and refuse to let them be buried.
- <sup>10</sup>Everyone on earth will celebrate and be happy. They will give gifts to each other, because of what happened to the two prophets who caused them so much trouble.
- <sup>11</sup>But three and a half days later, God will breathe life into their bodies. They will stand up, and everyone who sees them will be terrified.

<sup>12</sup>The witnesses then heard a loud voice from heaven, saying, “Come up here.” And while their enemies were watching, they were taken up to heaven in a cloud.

<sup>13</sup>At that same moment there was a terrible earthquake that destroyed a tenth of the city. Seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were frightened and praised the God who rules in heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second horrible thing has now happened! But the third one will be here soon.

The seventh trumpet

<sup>15</sup>At the sound of the seventh trumpet, loud voices were heard in heaven. They said, “Now the kingdom of this world belongs to our Lord and to his Chosen One! And he will rule for ever and ever!”

<sup>16</sup>Then the twenty-four elders, who were seated on thrones in God's presence, knelt down and worshipped him.

<sup>17</sup>They said, “Lord God All-Powerful, you are and you were, and we thank you. You used your great power and started ruling.

<sup>18</sup>When the nations got angry, you became angry too! Now the time has come for the dead to be judged. It is time for you to reward your servants the prophets and all your people who honour your name, no matter who they are. It is time to destroy everyone who has destroyed the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>The door to God's temple in heaven was then opened, and the sacred chest could be seen inside the temple. I saw lightning and heard roars of thunder. The earth trembled and huge hailstones fell to the ground.

Revelation 12

A dragon and two beasts The woman and the dragon

<sup>1</sup>Something important appeared in the sky. It was a woman whose clothes were the sun. The moon was under her feet, and a crown made of twelve stars was on her head.

<sup>2</sup>She was about to give birth, and she was crying because of the great pain.

<sup>3</sup>Something else appeared in the sky. It was a huge red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and a crown on each of its seven heads.

<sup>4</sup>With its tail, it dragged a third of the stars from the sky and threw them down to the earth. Then the dragon turned towards the woman, because it wanted to eat her child as soon as it was born.

<sup>5</sup>The woman gave birth to a son, who would rule all nations with an iron rod. The boy was snatched away. He was taken to God and placed on his throne.

<sup>6</sup>The woman ran into the desert to a place that God had prepared for her. There she would be taken care of for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Michael fights the dragon

<sup>7</sup>A war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels were fighting against the dragon and its angels.

<sup>8</sup>But the dragon lost the battle. It and its angels were forced out of their places in heaven

<sup>9</sup>and were thrown down to the earth. Yes, that old snake and his angels were thrown out of heaven! That snake, who fools everyone on earth, is known as the devil and Satan.

<sup>10</sup>Then I heard a voice from heaven shout, “Our God has shown his saving power, and his kingdom has come! God's own Chosen One has shown his authority. Satan accused our people in the presence of God day and night. Now he has been thrown out!

<sup>11</sup>“Our people defeated Satan because of the blood of the Lamb and the message of God. They were willing to give up their lives.

<sup>12</sup>“The heavens should rejoice, together with everyone who lives there. But pity the earth and the sea, because the devil was thrown down to the earth. He knows his time is short, and he is very angry.”

<sup>13</sup>When the dragon realized that it had been thrown down to the earth, it tried to make trouble for the woman who had given birth to a son.

<sup>14</sup>But the woman was given two wings like those of a huge eagle, so that she could fly into the desert. There she would escape from the snake and be taken care of for a time, two times, and half a time.

<sup>15</sup>The snake then spewed out water like a river to sweep the woman away.

<sup>16</sup>But the earth helped her and swallowed the water that had come from the dragon's mouth.

<sup>17</sup>This made the dragon terribly angry with the woman. So it started a war against the rest of her children. They are the people who obey God and are faithful to what Jesus did and taught.

<sup>18</sup>The dragon stood on the beach beside the sea.

Revelation 13

The two beasts

<sup>1</sup>I looked and saw a beast coming up from the sea. This one had ten horns and seven heads, and a crown was on each of its ten horns. On each of its heads were names that were an insult to God.

<sup>2</sup>The beast that I saw had the body of a leopard, the feet of a bear, and the mouth of a lion. The dragon handed over its own power and throne and great authority to this beast.

<sup>3</sup>One of its heads seemed to have been fatally wounded, but now it was well. Everyone on earth marvelled at this beast,

<sup>4</sup>and they worshipped the dragon who had given its authority to the beast. They also worshipped the beast and said, "No one is like this beast! No one can fight against it."

<sup>5</sup>The beast was allowed to boast and claim to be God, and for forty-two months it was allowed to rule.

<sup>6</sup>The beast cursed God, and it cursed the name of God. It even cursed the place where God lives, as well as everyone who lives in heaven with God.

<sup>7</sup>It was allowed to fight against God's people and defeat them. It was also given authority over the people of every tribe, nation, language, and race.

<sup>8</sup>The beast was worshipped by everyone whose name wasn't written before the time of creation in the book of the Lamb who was killed.

<sup>9</sup>If you have ears, then listen!

<sup>10</sup>If you are doomed to be captured, you will be captured. If you are doomed to be killed by a sword, you will be killed by a sword. This means that God's people must learn to endure and be faithful!

<sup>11</sup>I now saw another beast. This one came out of the ground. It had two horns like a lamb, but spoke like a dragon.

<sup>12</sup>It worked for the beast whose fatal wound had been healed. And it used all its authority to force the earth and its people to worship that beast.

<sup>13</sup>It performed mighty miracles, and while people watched, it even made fire come down from the sky.

<sup>14</sup>This second beast fooled people on earth by performing miracles for the first one. Then it talked them into making an idol in the form of the beast that did not die after being wounded by a sword.

<sup>15</sup>It was allowed to put breath into the idol, so that it could speak. Everyone who refused to worship the idol of the beast was put to death.

<sup>16</sup>All people were forced to put a mark on their right hand or forehead. Whether they were powerful or weak, rich or poor, free people or slaves,

<sup>17</sup>they all had to have this mark, or else they could not buy or sell anything. This mark stood for the name of the beast and for the number of its name.

<sup>18</sup>You need wisdom to understand the number of the beast! But if you are clever enough, you can work this out. Its number is six hundred and sixty-six, and it stands for a person.

Revelation 14

Visions of God's judgment and protection The Lamb and his 144,000 followers

<sup>1</sup>I looked and saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion! With him were a hundred and forty-four thousand, who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

<sup>2</sup>Then I heard a sound from heaven that was like a roaring flood or loud thunder or even like the music of harps.

<sup>3</sup>And a new song was being sung in front of God's throne and in front of the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn that song, except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been rescued from the earth.

<sup>4</sup>All these are pure virgins, and they follow the Lamb wherever he leads. They have been rescued to be presented to God and the Lamb as the most precious people on earth.

<sup>5</sup>They never tell lies, and they are innocent.

The messages of the three angels

<sup>6</sup>I saw another angel. This one was flying across the sky and had the eternal good news to announce to the people of every race, tribe, language, and nation on earth.

<sup>7</sup>The angel shouted, "Worship and honour God! The time has come for him to judge everyone. Kneel down before the one who created heaven and earth, the oceans, and every stream."

<sup>8</sup>A second angel followed and said, "The great city of Babylon has fallen! This is the city that made all nations drunk and immoral. Now God is angry, and Babylon has fallen."

<sup>9</sup>Finally, a third angel came and shouted: Here is what will happen if you worship the beast and the idol and have the mark of the beast on your hand or forehead.

<sup>10</sup>You will have to drink the wine that God gives to everyone who makes him angry. You will feel his mighty anger, and you will be tortured with fire and burning sulphur, while the holy angels and the Lamb look on.

<sup>11</sup>If you worship the beast and the idol and accept the mark of its name, you will be tortured day and night. The smoke from your torture will go up for ever and ever, and you will never be able to rest.

<sup>12</sup>God's people must learn to endure. They must also obey his commands and have faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Put this in writing. From now on, the Lord will bless everyone who has faith in him when they die." The Spirit answered, "Yes, they will rest from their hard work, and they will be rewarded for what they have done."

The earth is harvested

<sup>14</sup>I looked and saw a bright cloud, and someone who seemed to be the Son of Man was sitting on the cloud. He wore a gold crown on his head and held a sharp sickle in his hand.

<sup>15</sup>An angel came out of the temple and shouted, "Start cutting with your sickle! Harvest season is here, and all crops on earth are ripe."

<sup>16</sup>The one on the cloud swung his sickle and harvested the crops.

<sup>17</sup>Another angel with a sharp sickle then came out of the temple in heaven.

<sup>18</sup>After this, an angel with power over fire came from the altar and shouted to the angel who had the sickle. He said, "All grapes on earth are ripe! Harvest them with your sharp sickle."

<sup>19</sup>The angel swung his sickle on earth and cut off its grapes. He threw them into a pit where they were trampled on as a sign of God's anger.

<sup>20</sup>The pit was outside the city, and when the grapes were squashed, blood flowed out. The blood turned into a river that was about three hundred kilometres long and almost deep enough to cover a horse.

Revelation 15

The last of the terrible troubles

<sup>1</sup>After this, I looked at the sky and saw something else that was strange and important. Seven angels were bringing the last seven terrible troubles. When these are ended, God will no longer be angry.

<sup>2</sup>Then I saw something that looked like a glass sea mixed with fire, and people were standing on it. They were the ones who had defeated the beast and the idol and the number that tells the name of the beast. God had given them harps,

<sup>3</sup>and they were singing the song that his servant Moses and the Lamb had sung. They were singing, “Lord God All-Powerful, you have done great and marvellous things. You are the ruler of all nations, and you do what is right and fair.

<sup>4</sup>Lord, who doesn't honour and praise your name? You alone are holy, and all nations will come and worship you, because you have shown that you judge with fairness.”

<sup>5</sup>After this, I noticed something else in heaven. The sacred tent used for a temple was open.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels who were bringing the terrible troubles were coming out of it. They were dressed in robes of pure white linen and wore belts made of pure gold.

<sup>7</sup>One of the four living creatures gave each of the seven angels a bowl made of gold. These bowls were filled with the anger of God who lives for ever and ever.

<sup>8</sup>The temple quickly filled with smoke from the glory and power of God. No one could enter it until the seven angels had finished pouring out the seven last troubles.

Revelation 16

Seven bowls of God's anger

<sup>1</sup>From the temple I heard a voice shout to the seven angels, “Go and empty the seven bowls of God's anger on the earth.”

<sup>2</sup>The first angel emptied his bowl on the earth. At once ugly and painful sores broke out on everyone who had the mark of the beast and worshipped the idol.

<sup>3</sup>The second angel emptied his bowl on the sea. Straight away the sea turned into blood like that of a dead person, and every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>The third angel emptied his bowl into the rivers and streams. At once they turned to blood.

<sup>5</sup>Then I heard the angel, who has power over water, say, “You have always been, and you always will be the holy God. You had the right to judge in this way.

<sup>6</sup>They poured out the blood of your people and your prophets. So you gave them blood to drink, as they deserve!”

<sup>7</sup>After this, I heard the altar shout, “Yes, Lord God All-Powerful, your judgments are honest and fair.”

<sup>8</sup>The fourth angel emptied his bowl on the sun, and it began to scorch people like fire.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone was scorched by its great heat, and all of them cursed the name of God who had power over these terrible troubles. But no one turned to God and praised him.

<sup>10</sup>The fifth angel emptied his bowl on the throne of the beast. At once darkness covered its kingdom, and its people began biting their tongues in pain.

<sup>11</sup>And because of their painful sores, they cursed the God who rules in heaven. But still they did not stop doing evil things.

<sup>12</sup>The sixth angel emptied his bowl on the great River Euphrates, and it completely dried up to make a road for the kings from the east.

<sup>13</sup>An evil spirit that looked like a frog came out of the mouth of the dragon. One also came out of the mouth of the beast, and another out of the mouth of the false prophet.

<sup>14</sup>These evil spirits had the power to perform miracles. They went to every king on earth, to bring them together for a war against God All-Powerful. But that will be the day of God's great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Remember that Christ says, "When I come, it will surprise you like a thief! But God will bless you, if you are awake and ready. Then you won't have to walk around naked and be ashamed."

<sup>16</sup>Those armies came together in a place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup>As soon as the seventh angel emptied his bowl in the air, a loud voice from the throne in the temple shouted, "It's done!"

<sup>18</sup>There were flashes of lightning, roars of thunder, and the worst earthquake in all history.

<sup>19</sup>The great city of Babylon split into three parts, and the cities of other nations fell. So God made Babylon drink from the wine cup that was filled with his anger.

<sup>20</sup>Every island ran away, and the mountains disappeared.

<sup>21</sup>Hailstones, weighing about fifty kilogrammes each, fell from the sky on people. Finally, the people cursed God, because the hail was so terrible.

Revelation 17

God's enemies are defeated The prostitute and the beast

<sup>1</sup>One of the seven angels who had emptied the bowls came over and said to me, "Come on! I will show you how God will punish that shameless prostitute who sits on many oceans.

<sup>2</sup>Every king on earth has slept with her, and her shameless ways are like wine that has made everyone on earth drunk.”

<sup>3</sup>With the help of the Spirit, the angel took me into the desert, where I saw a woman sitting on a red beast. The beast was covered with names that were an insult to God, and it had seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>4</sup>The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet robes, and she wore jewellery made of gold, precious stones, and pearls. In her hand she held a gold cup filled with the filthy and nasty things she had done.

<sup>5</sup>On her forehead a mysterious name was written: I AM THE GREAT CITY OF BABYLON, THE MOTHER OF EVERY IMMORAL AND FILTHY THING ON EARTH.

<sup>6</sup>I could tell that the woman was drunk on the blood of God's people who had given their lives for Jesus. This surprising sight amazed me,

<sup>7</sup>and the angel said: Why are you so amazed? I will explain the mystery about this woman and about the beast she is sitting on, with its seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>The beast you saw is one that used to be and no longer is. It will come back from the deep pit, but only to be destroyed. Everyone on earth whose names were not written in the book of life before the time of creation will be amazed. They will see this beast that used to be and no longer is, but will be once more.

<sup>9</sup>Anyone with wisdom can work this out. The seven heads that the woman is sitting on stand for seven hills. These heads are also seven kings.

<sup>10</sup>Five of the kings are dead. One is ruling now, and the other one has not yet come. But when he does, he will rule for only a little while.

<sup>11</sup>You also saw a beast that used to be and no longer is. That beast is one of the seven kings who will return as the eighth king, but only to be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>The ten horns that you saw are ten more kings, who have not yet come into power, and they will rule with the beast for only a short time.

<sup>13</sup>They all think alike and will give their power and authority to the beast.

<sup>14</sup>These kings will go to war against the Lamb. But he will defeat them, because he is Lord over all lords and King over all kings. His followers are chosen and special and faithful.

<sup>15</sup>The oceans that you saw the prostitute sitting on are crowds of people from all races and languages.

<sup>16</sup>The ten horns and the beast will start hating the shameless woman. They will strip off her clothes and leave her naked. Then they will eat her flesh and throw the rest of her body into a fire.

<sup>17</sup>God is the one who made these kings all think alike and decide to give their power to the beast. And they will do this until what God has said comes true.

<sup>18</sup>The woman you saw is the great city that rules over all kings on earth.

Revelation 18

The fall of Babylon

<sup>1</sup>I saw another angel come from heaven. This one had great power, and the earth was bright because of his glory.

<sup>2</sup>The angel shouted, “Fallen! Powerful Babylon has fallen and is now the home of demons. It is the den of every filthy spirit and of all unclean birds, and every dirty and hated animal.

<sup>3</sup>Babylon's evil and immoral wine has made all nations drunk. Every king on earth has slept with her, and every merchant on earth is rich because of her evil desires.”

<sup>4</sup>Then I heard another voice from heaven shout, “My people, you must escape from Babylon. Don't take part in her sins and share her punishment.

<sup>5</sup> Her sins are piled as high as heaven. God has remembered the evil she has done.

<sup>6</sup> Treat her as she has treated others. Make her pay double for what she has done. Make her drink twice as much of what she mixed for others.

<sup>7</sup> That woman honoured herself with a life of luxury. Reward her now with suffering and pain. “Deep in her heart Babylon said, ‘I am the queen! Never will I be a widow or know what it means to be sad.’”

<sup>8</sup> And so, in a single day she will suffer the pain of sorrow, hunger, and death. Fire will destroy her dead body, because her judge is the powerful Lord God.”

<sup>9</sup> Every king on earth who slept with her and shared in her luxury will mourn. They will weep, when they see the smoke from that fire.

<sup>10</sup> Her sufferings will frighten them, and they will stand at a distance and say, “Pity that great and powerful city! Pity Babylon! In a single hour her judgment has come.”

<sup>11</sup> Every merchant on earth will mourn, because there is no one to buy their goods.

<sup>12</sup> There won't be anyone to buy their gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, scarlet cloth, sweet-smelling wood, fancy carvings of ivory and wood, as well as things made of bronze, iron, or marble.

<sup>13</sup> No one will buy their cinnamon, spices, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, slaves, and other humans.

<sup>14</sup> Babylon, the things your heart desired have all escaped from you. Every luxury and all your glory will be lost for ever. You will never get them back.

<sup>15</sup> The merchants had become rich because of her. But when they saw her sufferings, they were terrified. They stood at a distance, crying and mourning.

<sup>16</sup>Then they shouted, “Pity the great city of Babylon! She dressed in fine linen and wore purple and scarlet cloth. She had jewellery made of gold and precious stones and pearls.

<sup>17</sup>Yet in a single hour her riches disappeared.” Every ship's captain and passenger and sailor stood at a distance, together with everyone who does business by travelling on the sea.

<sup>18</sup>When they saw the smoke from her fire, they shouted, “This was the greatest city ever!”

<sup>19</sup>They cried loudly, and in their sorrow they threw dust on their heads, as they said, “Pity the great city of Babylon! Everyone who sailed the seas became rich from her treasures. But in a single hour the city was destroyed.

<sup>20</sup>The heavens should be happy with God's people and apostles and prophets. God has punished her for them.”

<sup>21</sup>A powerful angel then picked up a huge stone and threw it into the sea. The angel said, “This is how the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to rise again.

<sup>22</sup>The music of harps and singers and of flutes and trumpets will no longer be heard. No workers will ever set up shop in that city, and the sound of grinding grain will be silenced for ever.

<sup>23</sup>Lamps will no longer shine anywhere in Babylon, and couples will never again say wedding vows there. Her merchants ruled the earth, and by her witchcraft she fooled all nations.

<sup>24</sup>On the streets of Babylon is found the blood of God's people and of his prophets, and everyone else.”

Revelation 19

<sup>1</sup>After this, I heard what sounded like a lot of voices in heaven, and they were shouting, “Praise the Lord! To our God belongs the glorious power to save,

<sup>2</sup>because his judgments are honest and fair. That filthy prostitute ruined the earth with shameful deeds. But God has judged her and made her pay the price for murdering his servants.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the crowd shouted, “Praise the Lord! Smoke will never stop rising from her burning body.”

<sup>4</sup>After this, the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures all knelt before the throne of God and worshipped him. They said, “Amen! Praise the Lord!”

The marriage supper of the Lamb

<sup>5</sup>From the throne a voice said, “If you worship and fear our God, give praise to him, no matter who you are.”

<sup>6</sup>Then I heard what seemed to be a large crowd that sounded like a roaring flood and loud thunder all mixed together. They were saying, “Praise the Lord! Our Lord God All-Powerful now rules as king.

<sup>7</sup>So we will be glad and happy and give him praise. The wedding day of the Lamb is here, and his bride is ready.

<sup>8</sup>She will be given a wedding dress made of pure and shining linen. This linen stands for the good things God's people have done.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the angel told me, “Put this in writing. God will bless everyone who is invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” The angel also said, “These things that God has said are true.”

<sup>10</sup>I knelt at the feet of the angel and began to worship him. But the angel said, “Don't do that! I am a servant, just like you and everyone else who tells about Jesus. Don't worship anyone but God. Everyone who tells about Jesus does it by the power of the Spirit.”

The rider on the white horse

<sup>11</sup>I looked and saw that heaven was open, and a white horse was there. Its rider was called Faithful and True, and he is always fair when he judges or goes to war.

<sup>12</sup>He had eyes like flames of fire, and he was wearing a lot of crowns. His name was written on him, but he was the only one who knew what the name meant.

<sup>13</sup>The rider wore a robe that was covered with blood, and he was known as “The Word of God”.

<sup>14</sup>He was followed by armies from heaven that rode on horses and were dressed in pure white linen.

<sup>15</sup>From his mouth a sharp sword went out to attack the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod and will show the fierce anger of God All-Powerful by trampling on the grapes in the pit where wine is made.

<sup>16</sup>On the part of the robe that covered his thigh was written, “KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS”.

<sup>17</sup>I then saw an angel standing on the sun, and he shouted to all the birds flying in the sky, “Come and join in God's great feast!

<sup>18</sup>You can eat the flesh of kings, rulers, leaders, horses, riders, free people, slaves, important people, and everyone else.”

<sup>19</sup>I also saw the beast and all kings of the earth come together. They fought against the rider on the white horse and against his army.

<sup>20</sup>But the beast was captured and so was the false prophet. This is the same prophet who had performed miracles for the beast, so that he could fool everyone who had the mark of the beast and worshipped the idol. The beast and the false prophet were thrown alive into a lake of burning sulphur.

<sup>21</sup>But the rest of their army was killed by the sword that came from the mouth of the rider on the horse. Then birds stuffed themselves on the dead bodies.

Revelation 20

The thousand years

<sup>1</sup>I saw an angel come down from heaven, carrying the key to the deep pit and a big chain.

<sup>2</sup>He chained the dragon for a thousand years. It is that old snake, who is also known as the devil and Satan.

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel threw the dragon into the pit. He locked and sealed it, so that a thousand years would go by before the dragon could fool the nations again. But after that, it would have to be set free for a little while.

<sup>4</sup>I saw thrones, and sitting on those thrones were the ones who had been given the right to judge. I also saw the souls of the people who had their heads cut off because they had told about Jesus and preached God's message. They were the same ones who had not worshipped the beast or the idol, and they had refused to let its mark be put on their hands or foreheads. They will come to life and rule with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5-6</sup>These people are the first to be raised to life, and they are especially blessed and holy. The second death has no power over them. They will be priests for God and Christ and will rule with them for a thousand years. No other dead people were raised to life until a thousand years later.

Satan is defeated

<sup>7</sup>At the end of the thousand years, Satan will be set free.

<sup>8</sup>He will fool the countries of Gog and Magog, which are at the far ends of the earth, and their people will follow him into battle. They will have as many followers as there are grains of sand along the beach,

<sup>9</sup>and they will march all the way across the earth. They will surround the camp of God's people and the city that his people love. But fire will come down from heaven and destroy the whole army.

<sup>10</sup>Then the devil who fooled them will be thrown into the lake of fire and burning sulphur. He will be there with the beast and the false prophet, and they will be in pain day and night for ever and ever.

The final judgment

The judgment at the great white throne

<sup>11</sup>I saw a great white throne with someone sitting on it. Earth and heaven tried to run away, but there was nowhere for them to go.

<sup>12</sup>I also saw all the dead people standing in front of that throne. Every one of them was there, no matter who they had once been. Several books were opened, and then the book of life was opened. The dead were judged by what those books said they had done.

<sup>13</sup>The sea gave up the dead people who were in it, and death and its kingdom also gave up their dead. Then everyone was judged by what they had done.

<sup>14</sup>Afterwards, death and its kingdom were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

<sup>15</sup>Anyone whose name wasn't written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21

A new heaven and a new earth

<sup>1</sup>I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had disappeared, and so had the sea.

<sup>2</sup>Then I saw New Jerusalem, that holy city, coming down from God in heaven. It was like a bride dressed in her wedding gown and ready to meet her husband.

<sup>3</sup>I heard a loud voice shout from the throne: God's home is now with his people. He will live with them, and they will be his own. Yes, God will make his home among his people.

<sup>4</sup>He will wipe all tears from their eyes, and there will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain. These things of the past are gone for ever.

<sup>5</sup>Then the one sitting on the throne said: I am making everything new. Write down what I have said. My words are true and can be trusted.

<sup>6</sup>Everything is finished! I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will freely give water from the life-giving fountain to everyone who is thirsty.

<sup>7</sup>All who win the victory will be given these blessings. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>8</sup>But I will tell you what will happen to cowards and to everyone who is unfaithful or dirty-minded or who murders or is sexually immoral or uses witchcraft or worships idols or tells lies. They will be thrown into that lake of fire and burning sulphur. This is the second death.

New Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup>I saw one of the seven angels who had the bowls filled with the seven last terrible troubles. The angel came to me and said, "Come on! I will show you the one who will be the bride and wife of the Lamb."

<sup>10</sup>Then with the help of the Spirit, he took me to the top of a very high mountain. There he showed me the holy city of Jerusalem coming down from God in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>The glory of God made the city bright. It was dazzling and crystal clear like a precious jasper stone.

<sup>12</sup>The city had a high and thick wall with twelve gates, and each one of them was guarded by an angel. On each of the gates was written the name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Three of these gates were on the east, three were on the north, three more were on the south, and the other three were on the west.

<sup>14</sup>The city was built on twelve foundation stones. On each of the stones was written the name of one of the Lamb's twelve apostles.

<sup>15</sup>The angel who spoke to me had a gold measuring stick to measure the city and its gates and its walls.

<sup>16</sup>The city was shaped like a cube, because it was just as high as it was wide. When the angel measured the city, it was about two thousand four hundred kilometres high and two thousand four hundred kilometres wide.

<sup>17</sup>Then the angel measured the wall, and by our measurements it was about sixty metres high.

<sup>18</sup>The wall was built of jasper, and the city was made of pure gold, clear as crystal.

<sup>19</sup>Each of the twelve foundations was a precious stone. The first was jasper, the second was sapphire, the third was agate, the fourth was emerald,

<sup>20</sup>the fifth was onyx, the sixth was carnelian, the seventh was chrysolite, the eighth was beryl, the ninth was topaz, the tenth was chrysoprase, the eleventh was jacinth, and the twelfth was amethyst.

<sup>21</sup>Each of the twelve gates was a solid pearl. The streets of the city were made of pure gold, clear as crystal.

<sup>22</sup>I did not see a temple there. The Lord God All-Powerful and the Lamb were its temple.

<sup>23</sup>And the city did not need the sun or the moon. The glory of God was shining on it, and the Lamb was its light.

<sup>24</sup>Nations will walk by the light of that city, and kings will bring their riches there.

<sup>25</sup>Its gates are always open during the day, and night never comes.

<sup>26</sup>The glorious treasures of nations will be brought into the city.

<sup>27</sup>But nothing unworthy will be allowed to enter. No one who is dirty-minded or who tells lies will be there. Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life will be in the city.

Revelation 22

- <sup>1</sup> The angel showed me a river that was crystal clear, and its waters gave life. The river came from the throne where God and the Lamb were seated.
- <sup>2</sup> Then it flowed down the middle of the city's main street. On each side of the river are trees that grow a different kind of fruit each month of the year. The fruit gives life, and the leaves are used as medicine to heal the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> God's curse will no longer be on the people of that city. He and the Lamb will be seated there on their thrones, and its people will worship God
- <sup>4</sup> and will see him face to face. God's name will be written on the foreheads of the people.
- <sup>5</sup> Never again will night appear, and no one who lives there will ever need a lamp or the sun. The Lord God will be their light, and they will rule for ever.

Christ will soon return

- <sup>6</sup> Then I was told: These words are true and can be trusted. The Lord God controls the spirits of his prophets, and he is the one who sent his angel to show his servants what must happen straight away.
- <sup>7</sup> Remember, I am coming soon! God will bless everyone who pays attention to the message of this book.
- <sup>8</sup> My name is John, and I am the one who heard and saw these things. Then after I had heard and seen all this, I knelt down and began to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown it to me.
- <sup>9</sup> But the angel said, Don't do that! I am a servant, just like you. I am the same as a follower or a prophet or anyone else who obeys what is written in this book. God is the one you should worship.
- <sup>10</sup> Don't keep the prophecies in this book a secret. These things will happen soon.
- <sup>11</sup> Evil people will keep on being evil, and everyone who is dirty-minded will still be dirty-minded. But good people will keep on doing right, and God's people will always be holy.

<sup>12</sup> Then I was told: I am coming soon! And when I come, I will reward everyone for what they have done.

<sup>13</sup> I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

<sup>14</sup> God will bless all who have washed their robes. They will each have the right to eat fruit from the tree that gives life, and they can enter the gates of the city.

<sup>15</sup> But outside the city will be dogs, witches, immoral people, murderers, idol worshippers, and everyone who loves to tell lies and do wrong.

<sup>16</sup> I am Jesus! And I am the one who sent my angel to tell all of you these things for the churches. I am David's Great Descendant, and I am also the bright morning star.

<sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" Everyone who hears this should say, "Come!" If you are thirsty, come! If you want life-giving water, come and take it. It's free!

<sup>18</sup> Here is my warning for everyone who hears the prophecies in this book: If you add anything to them, God will make you suffer all the terrible troubles written in this book.

<sup>19</sup> If you take anything away from these prophecies, God will not let you have part in the life-giving tree and in the holy city described in this book.

<sup>20</sup> The one who has spoken these things says, "I am coming soon!" So, Lord Jesus, please come soon!

<sup>21</sup> I pray that the Lord Jesus will be kind to all of you.

Esclarecimento

Trata-se de iniciativa particular, com os seguintes objetivos: (i) colaborar para divulgação dos diversos textos bíblicos disponíveis, e, (ii) facilitar o acesso a esses textos, inclusive por meio de download.

Todo esforço em tornar a Palavra de Deus acessível a todos, em quaisquer localidades e falantes das mais diversas línguas, precisa ser um objetivo de todos os que são guiados pelo Espírito Santo. Ele inspirou o profeta Jeremias a dizer “não ensinará jamais cada um ao seu próximo, nem cada um ao seu irmão, dizendo: Conhece ao SENHOR, porque todos me conhecerão, desde o menor até ao maior deles, diz o SENHOR” (Jer. 31:34).

Jesus, também, falou assim: “e será pregado este evangelho do reino por todo o mundo, para testemunho a todas as nações” (Mat. 24:14).

Muitas organizações foram constituídas com o propósito de fazer a Bíblia disponível nas diversas línguas. Não é uma tarefa simples. Anos de trabalho, dedicação e entrega são necessários para esta tão extraordinária missão.

O texto deste trabalho está disponível na internet, em páginas eletrônicas de organizações que produzem ou divulgam bíblias, sem acréscimos de notas ou comentários. Assim, reconhecendo e respeitando os direitos que possuem sobre seus trabalhos, incumbe a todos os que amam a Palavra de Deus, o esforço em contribuir para amplificar sua divulgação.

Se possível, faça download do texto, para que sejamos, também, guardiões da Bíblia, e, com isso, preservando-a para as futuras gerações.

Divulga a Palavra de Deus, ela mostra o Caminho e permite a todos, que se conheça Sua vontade, em todos os lugares e épocas.

Marcel da Glória Pereira
2021, Vitória/ES - Brasil