Genesis

Genesis 1

The Creation

<sup>2</sup>And the earth was a formless and desolate emptiness, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

<sup>5</sup>God called the light “day,” and the darkness He called “night.” And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

<sup>7</sup>God made the expanse, and separated the waters that were below the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse; and it was so.

<sup>8</sup>God called the expanse “heaven.” And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, “Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear”; and it was so.

<sup>10</sup>And God called the dry land “earth,” and the gathering of the waters He called “seas”; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, “Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit according to their kind with seed in them”; and it was so.

<sup>12</sup>The earth produced vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their kind, and trees bearing fruit with seed in them, according to their kind; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>13</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and they shall serve as signs and for seasons, and for days and years;

<sup>15</sup>and they shall serve as lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so.

<sup>16</sup>God made the two great lights, the greater light to govern the day, and the lesser light to govern the night; He made the stars also.

<sup>17</sup>God placed them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth,

<sup>18</sup>and to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>19</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

<sup>21</sup>And God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>23</sup>And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, “Let the earth produce living creatures according to their kind: livestock and crawling things and animals of the earth according to their kind”; and it was so.

<sup>25</sup>God made the animals of the earth according to their kind, and the livestock according to their kind, and everything that crawls on the ground according to its kind; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said, “Let Us make mankind in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the livestock and over all the earth, and over every crawling thing that crawls on the earth.”

<sup>28</sup>God blessed them; and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

<sup>29</sup>Then God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be food for you;

<sup>30</sup>and to every animal of the earth and to every bird of the sky and to everything that moves on the earth which has life, I have given every green plant for food”; and it was so.

<sup>31</sup>And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Genesis 2

<sup>1</sup>And so the heavens and the earth were completed, and all their heavenly lights.

<sup>2</sup>By the seventh day God completed His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

<sup>3</sup>Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

The Creation of Man and Woman

<sup>4</sup> This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made earth and heaven.

<sup>5</sup> Now no shrub of the field was yet on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD God formed the man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living person.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD God planted a garden toward the east, in Eden; and there He placed the man whom He had formed.

<sup>9</sup> Out of the ground the LORD God caused every tree to grow that is pleasing to the sight and good for food; the tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup> Now a river flowed out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four rivers.

<sup>12</sup> The gold of that land is good; the bdellium and the onyx stone are there as well.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD God commanded the man, saying, “From any tree of the garden you may freely eat;

<sup>17</sup>but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for on the day that you eat from it you will certainly die.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.”

<sup>19</sup>And out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name.

<sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all the livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field, but for Adam there was not found a helper suitable for him.

<sup>21</sup>So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh at that place.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD God fashioned into a woman the rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man.

<sup>23</sup>Then the man said, “At last this is bone of my bones, And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called ‘woman,’ Because she was taken out of man.”

<sup>24</sup>For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife; and they shall become one flesh.

<sup>25</sup>And the man and his wife were both naked, but they were not ashamed.

Genesis 3

The Fall of Mankind

<sup>1</sup>Now the serpent was more cunning than any animal of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Has God really said, ‘You shall not eat from any tree of the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup>The woman said to the serpent, “From the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat;

<sup>3</sup>but from the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat from it or touch it, or you will die.’”

<sup>4</sup>The serpent said to the woman, “You certainly will not die!

<sup>5</sup>For God knows that on the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will become like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup>When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate.

<sup>7</sup>Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves waist coverings.

<sup>8</sup>Now they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “I heard the sound of You in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself.”

<sup>11</sup>And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat?”

<sup>12</sup>The man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me some of the fruit of the tree, and I ate.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” And the woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, Cursed are you more than all the livestock, And more than any animal of the field; On your belly you shall go, And dust you shall eat All the days of your life;

<sup>15</sup>And I will make enemies Of you and the woman, And of your offspring and her Descendant; He shall bruise you on the head, And you shall bruise Him on the heel.”

<sup>16</sup>To the woman He said, “I will greatly multiply Your pain in childbirth, In pain you shall deliver children; Yet your desire will be for your husband, And he shall rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then to Adam He said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat from it’; Cursed is the ground because of you; With hard labor you shall eat from it All the days of your life.

<sup>18</sup>“Both thorns and thistles it shall grow for you; Yet you shall eat the plants of the field;

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might reach out with his hand, and take fruit also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”—

<sup>23</sup>therefore the LORD God sent him out of the Garden of Eden, to cultivate the ground from which he was taken.

<sup>24</sup>So He drove the man out; and at the east of the Garden of Eden He stationed the cherubim and the flaming sword which turned every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4

Cain and Abel

<sup>3</sup>So it came about in the course of time that Cain brought an offering to the LORD from the fruit of the ground.

<sup>5</sup>but for Cain and his offering He had no regard. So Cain became very angry and his face was gloomy.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why is your face gloomy?”

<sup>8</sup>Cain talked to his brother Abel; and it happened that when they were in the field Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” And he said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

<sup>10</sup>Then He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying out to Me from the ground.

<sup>11</sup>Now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

<sup>12</sup>When you cultivate the ground, it will no longer yield its strength to you; you will be a wanderer and a drifter on the earth."

<sup>13</sup>Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is too great to endure!

<sup>14</sup>Behold, You have driven me this day from the face of the ground; and I will be hidden from Your face, and I will be a wanderer and a drifter on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me."

<sup>15</sup>So the LORD said to him, "Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance will be taken on him seven times as much." And the LORD placed a mark on Cain, so that no one finding him would kill him.

<sup>19</sup>Lamech took two wives for himself: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other, Zillah.

<sup>20</sup>Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and have livestock.

<sup>21</sup>His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and flute.

<sup>22</sup>As for Zillah, she also gave birth to Tubal-cain, the forger of all implements of bronze and iron; and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

<sup>23</sup>Lamech said to his wives, “Adah and Zillah, Listen to my voice, You wives of Lamech, Pay attention to my words, For I have killed a man for wounding me; And a boy for striking me!

<sup>25</sup>Adam had relations with his wife again; and she gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, for, she said, “God has appointed me another child in place of Abel, because Cain killed him.”

<sup>26</sup>To Seth also a son was born; and he named him Enosh. Then people began to call upon the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5

Descendants of Adam

<sup>1</sup>This is the book of the generations of Adam. On the day when God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

<sup>4</sup>Then the days of Adam after he fathered Seth were eight hundred years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

- <sup>11</sup>So all the days of Enosh were 905 years, and he died.
- <sup>12</sup>Now Kenan lived seventy years, and fathered Mahalalel.
- <sup>13</sup>Then Kenan lived 840 years after he fathered Mahalalel, and he fathered other sons and daughters.
- <sup>14</sup>So all the days of Kenan were 910 years, and he died.
- <sup>15</sup>Now Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and fathered Jared.
- <sup>16</sup>Then Mahalalel lived 830 years after he fathered Jared, and he fathered other sons and daughters.
- <sup>17</sup>So all the days of Mahalalel were 895 years, and he died.
- <sup>18</sup>Now Jared lived 162 years, and fathered Enoch.
- <sup>19</sup>Then Jared lived eight hundred years after he fathered Enoch, and he fathered other sons and daughters.
- <sup>20</sup>So all the days of Jared were 962 years, and he died.
- <sup>21</sup>Now Enoch lived sixty-five years, and fathered Methuselah.
- <sup>22</sup>Then Enoch walked with God three hundred years after he fathered Methuselah, and he fathered other sons and daughters.
- <sup>23</sup>So all the days of Enoch were 365 years.
- <sup>24</sup>Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.
- <sup>25</sup>Now Methuselah lived 187 years, and fathered Lamech.
- <sup>26</sup>Then Methuselah lived 782 years after he fathered Lamech, and he fathered other sons and daughters.
- <sup>27</sup>So all the days of Methuselah were 969 years, and he died.
- <sup>28</sup>Now Lamech lived 182 years, and fathered a son.
- <sup>29</sup>And he named him Noah, saying, "This one will give us comfort from our work and from the hard labor of our hands caused by the ground which the LORD has cursed."

<sup>30</sup>Then Lamech lived 595 years after he fathered Noah, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

<sup>31</sup>So all the days of Lamech were 777 years, and he died.

The Corruption of Mankind

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about, when mankind began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them,

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, “My Spirit will not remain with man forever, because he is also flesh; nevertheless his days shall be 120 years.”

<sup>4</sup>The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of mankind, and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of mankind was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually.

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD was sorry that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD said, “I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the land; mankind, and animals as well, and crawling things, and the birds of the sky. For I am sorry that I have made them.”

<sup>12</sup>And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for humanity had corrupted its way upon the earth.

<sup>13</sup>Then God said to Noah, “The end of humanity has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of people; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth.

<sup>14</sup>Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with compartments, and cover it inside and out with pitch.

<sup>16</sup>You shall make a window for the ark, and finish it to a cubit from the top; and put the door of the ark on the side; you shall make it with lower, second, and third decks.

<sup>17</sup>Now behold, I Myself am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which there is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish.

<sup>18</sup>But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives with you.

<sup>19</sup>And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

<sup>20</sup>Of the birds according to their kind, and of the animals according to their kind, of every crawling thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive.

<sup>21</sup>As for you, take for yourself some of every food that is edible, and gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and them.”

<sup>22</sup>So Noah did these things; according to everything that God had commanded him, so he did.

Genesis 7

The Flood

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Noah, “Enter the ark, you and all your household, for you alone I have seen to be righteous before Me in this generation.

<sup>3</sup>also of the birds of the sky, seven pairs, male and female, to keep their offspring alive on the face of all the earth.

<sup>4</sup>For after seven more days, I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and I will wipe out from the face of the land every living thing that I have made.”

<sup>8</sup>Of clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and everything that crawls on the ground,

<sup>9</sup>they all went into the ark to Noah by twos, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

<sup>10</sup>Now it came about after the seven days, that the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

<sup>11</sup>In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst open, and the floodgates of the sky were opened.

<sup>13</sup>On this very same day Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, <sup>14</sup>they and every animal according to its kind, and all the livestock according to their kind, and every crawling thing that crawls on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, all sorts of birds.

<sup>15</sup>So they went into the ark to Noah, by twos of all flesh in which there was the breath of life.

<sup>16</sup>Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered as God had commanded him; and the LORD closed the door behind him.

<sup>17</sup>Then the flood came upon the earth for forty days, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose above the earth.

<sup>21</sup>So all creatures that moved on the earth perished: birds, livestock, animals, and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind;

<sup>22</sup>of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died.

<sup>23</sup>So He wiped out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from mankind to animals, to crawling things, and the birds of the sky, and they were wiped out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark.

Genesis 8

The Flood Subsides

<sup>1</sup>But God remembered Noah and all the animals and all the livestock that were with him in the ark; and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water subsided.

<sup>2</sup>Also the fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained;

<sup>3</sup>and the water receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of 150 days the water decreased.

<sup>4</sup>Then in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat.

<sup>5</sup>And the water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

<sup>6</sup>Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made;

<sup>7</sup>and he sent out a raven, and it flew here and there until the water was dried up from the earth.

<sup>8</sup>Then he sent out a dove, to see if the water was low on the surface of the land;

<sup>9</sup>but the dove found no resting place for the sole of its foot, so it returned to him in the ark, for the water was on the surface of all the earth. Then he put out his hand and took it, and brought it into the ark to himself.

<sup>11</sup>And the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, in its beak was a fresh olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water was low on the earth.

<sup>12</sup>Then he waited another seven days longer, and sent out the dove; but it did not return to him again.

<sup>13</sup>Now it came about in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first of the month, that the water was dried up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the ground had dried up.

<sup>14</sup>And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

<sup>16</sup>“Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons’ wives with you.

<sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every crawling thing that crawls on the earth, that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took some of every kind of clean animal and some of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD smelled the soothing aroma, and the LORD said to Himself, “I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the intent of man’s heart is evil from his youth; and I will never again destroy every living thing, as I have done.

<sup>22</sup>“While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, Cold and heat, Summer and winter, And day and night Shall not cease.”

Genesis 9

Covenant of the Rainbow

<sup>1</sup>Then God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

<sup>2</sup>The fear of you and the terror of you will be on every animal of the earth and on every bird of the sky; on everything that crawls on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea. They are handed over to you.

<sup>3</sup>Every moving thing that is alive shall be food for you; I have given everything to you, as I gave the green plant.

<sup>5</sup>I certainly will require your lifeblood; from every animal I will require it. And from every person, from every man as his brother I will require the life of a person.

<sup>9</sup>“Now behold, I Myself am establishing My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you;

<sup>10</sup>and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the livestock, and every animal of the earth with you; of all that comes out of the ark, every animal of the earth.

<sup>11</sup>I establish My covenant with you; and all flesh shall never again be eliminated by the waters of a flood, nor shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations;

<sup>13</sup>I have set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall serve as a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.

<sup>14</sup>It shall come about, when I make a cloud appear over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud, <sup>15</sup>and I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again shall the water become a flood to destroy all flesh.

<sup>16</sup>When the rainbow is in the cloud, then I will look at it, to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

<sup>18</sup>Now the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and Ham was the father of Canaan.

<sup>23</sup>But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it on both their shoulders and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were turned away, so that they did not see their father’s nakedness.

<sup>26</sup>He also said, “Blessed be the LORD, The God of Shem; And may Canaan be his servant.

<sup>29</sup>So all the days of Noah were 950 years, and he died.

Descendants of Noah

<sup>9</sup>He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD."

<sup>20</sup>These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, and by their nations.

<sup>25</sup>Two sons were born to Eber; the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

<sup>31</sup>These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, and according to their nations.

<sup>32</sup>These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their descendants, by their nations; and out of these the nations were separated on the earth after the flood.

The Tower of Babel

<sup>1</sup>Now all the earth used the same language and the same words.

<sup>3</sup>Then they said to one another, “Come, let’s make bricks and fire them thoroughly.” And they used brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar.

<sup>4</sup>And they said, “Come, let’s build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top will reach into heaven, and let’s make a name for ourselves; otherwise we will be scattered abroad over the face of all the earth.”

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD said, “Behold, they are one people, and they all have the same language. And this is what they have started to do, and now nothing which they plan to do will be impossible for them.

<sup>8</sup>So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth; and they stopped building the city.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore it was named Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Descendants of Shem

<sup>10</sup>These are the records of the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old when he fathered Arpachshad, two years after the flood;

<sup>11</sup>and Shem lived five hundred years after he fathered Arpachshad, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

<sup>31</sup>Now Terah took his son Abram, and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they departed together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan; and they went as far as Haran and settled there.

Genesis 12

Abram Journeys to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country, And from your relatives And from your father's house, To the land which I will show you;

<sup>2</sup>And I will make you into a great nation, And I will bless you, And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing;

<sup>3</sup>And I will bless those who bless you, And the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed."

<sup>4</sup>So Abram went away as the LORD had spoken to him; and Lot went with him. Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

<sup>5</sup>Abram took his wife Sarai and his nephew Lot, and all their possessions which they had accumulated, and the people which they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan; so they came to the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup>Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanites were in the land at that time.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him.

<sup>8</sup>Then he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and called upon the name of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a time, because the famine was severe in the land.

<sup>11</sup>It came about, when he was approaching Egypt, that he said to his wife Sarai, “See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman;

<sup>12</sup>and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

<sup>13</sup>Please say that you are my sister so that it may go well for me because of you, and that I may live on account of you.”

<sup>14</sup>Now it came about, when Abram entered Egypt, that the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

<sup>15</sup>Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house.

<sup>18</sup>Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this that you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

<sup>19</sup>Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her for myself as a wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her and go!”

<sup>20</sup>And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they escorted him away, with his wife and all that belonged to him.

Genesis 13

Abram and Lot

<sup>1</sup>So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and all that belonged to him, and Lot with him.

<sup>3</sup>And he went on his journeys from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar which he had made there previously; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And the land could not support both of them while living together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to remain together.

<sup>7</sup>And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. Now the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at that time.

<sup>8</sup>So Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, nor between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are relatives!

<sup>10</sup>Lot raised his eyes and saw all the vicinity of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere—this was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt going toward Zoar.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, “Now raise your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward, and eastward and westward;

<sup>15</sup>for all the land which you see I will give to you and to your descendants forever.

<sup>16</sup>I will make your descendants as plentiful as the dust of the earth, so that if anyone can count the dust of the earth, then your descendants could also be counted.

<sup>17</sup>Arise, walk about in the land through its length and width; for I will give it to you.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Abram moved his tent and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

Genesis 14

War of the Kings

<sup>1</sup>And it came about in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim,

<sup>5</sup>And in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim,

<sup>7</sup>Then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and conquered all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

<sup>8</sup>And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) came out; and they lined up for battle against them in the Valley of Siddim,

<sup>10</sup>Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell into them. But those who survived fled to the hill country.

<sup>11</sup>Then they took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food supply, and departed.

<sup>12</sup>They also took Lot, Abram's nephew, and his possessions and departed, for he was living in Sodom.

<sup>13</sup>Then a survivor came and told Abram the Hebrew. Now he was residing by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner, and they were allies with Abram.

<sup>14</sup>When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he led out his trained men, born in his house, numbering 318, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

<sup>15</sup>Then he divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

<sup>16</sup>He brought back all the possessions, and also brought back his relative Lot with his possessions, and also the women, and the other people.

God's Promise to Abram

<sup>17</sup>Then after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

<sup>18</sup>And Melchizedek the king of Salem brought out bread and wine; now he was a priest of God Most High.

<sup>19</sup>And he blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth; <sup>20</sup>And blessed be God Most High, Who has handed over your enemies to you." And he gave him a tenth of everything.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give the people to me and take the possessions for yourself."

<sup>22</sup>But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have sworn to the LORD God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth,

<sup>23</sup>that I will not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, so that you do not say, 'I have made Abram rich.'

<sup>24</sup>I will take nothing except what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their share."

Genesis 15

Abram Promised a Son

<sup>1</sup>After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not fear, Abram, I am a shield to you; Your reward shall be very great."

<sup>2</sup>But Abram said, “Lord GOD, what will You give me, since I am childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?”

<sup>3</sup>Abram also said, “Since You have given me no son, one who has been born in my house is my heir.”

<sup>4</sup>Then behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, “This man will not be your heir; but one who will come from your own body shall be your heir.”

<sup>5</sup>And He took him outside and said, “Now look toward the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he believed in the LORD; and He credited it to him as righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>And He said to him, “I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess it.”

<sup>8</sup>But he said, “Lord GOD, how may I know that I will possess it?”

<sup>9</sup>So He said to him, “Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he brought all these to Him and cut them in two, and laid each half opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds.

<sup>12</sup>Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, terror and great darkness fell upon him.

<sup>13</sup>Then God said to Abram, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, where they will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.

<sup>14</sup>But I will also judge the nation whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out with many possessions.

<sup>15</sup>As for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age.

<sup>17</sup>Now it came about, when the sun had set, that it was very dark, and behold, a smoking oven and a flaming torch appeared which passed between these pieces.

<sup>18</sup>On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I have given this land, From the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates:

Sarai and Hagar

<sup>2</sup>So Sarai said to Abram, “See now, the LORD has prevented me from bearing children. Please have relations with my slave woman; perhaps I will obtain children through her.” And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

<sup>4</sup>Then he had relations with Hagar, and she conceived; and when Hagar became aware that she had conceived, her mistress was insignificant in her sight.

<sup>5</sup>So Sarai said to Abram, “May the wrong done to me be upon you! I put my slave woman into your arms, but when she saw that she had conceived, I was insignificant in her sight. May the LORD judge between you and me.”

<sup>8</sup>He said, “Hagar, Sarai’s slave woman, from where have you come, and where are you going?” And she said, “I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.”

<sup>9</sup>So the angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit to her authority.”

<sup>10</sup>The angel of the LORD also said to her, “I will greatly multiply your descendants so that they will be too many to count.”

<sup>11</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her further, “Behold, you are pregnant, And you will give birth to a son; And you shall name him Ishmael, Because the LORD has heard your affliction.

<sup>12</sup>“But he will be a wild donkey of a man; His hand will be against everyone, And everyone’s hand will be against him; And he will live in defiance of all his brothers.”

<sup>13</sup>Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, “You are a God who sees me”; for she said, “Have I even seen Him here and lived after He saw me?”

<sup>15</sup>So Hagar bore a son to Abram; and Abram named his son, to whom Hagar gave birth, Ishmael.

Genesis 17

Abraham and the Covenant of Circumcision

<sup>1</sup>Now when Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; Walk before Me, and be blameless.

<sup>2</sup>“I will make My covenant between Me and you, And I will multiply you exceedingly.”

<sup>4</sup>“As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, And you will be the father of a multitude of nations.

<sup>5</sup>“No longer shall you be named Abram, But your name shall be Abraham; For I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.

<sup>6</sup>I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.

<sup>7</sup>I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations as an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you.

<sup>8</sup>And I will give to you and to your descendants after you the land where you live as a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup>God said further to Abraham, “Now as for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

<sup>10</sup>This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: every male among you shall be circumcised.

<sup>11</sup>And you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you.

<sup>12</sup>And every male among you who is eight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, including a slave who is born in the house or who is bought with money from any foreigner, who is not of your descendants.

<sup>13</sup>A slave who is born in your house or who is bought with your money shall certainly be circumcised; so My covenant shall be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant.

<sup>14</sup>But as for an uncircumcised male, one who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Abraham, “As for your wife Sarai, you shall not call her by the name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

<sup>16</sup>I will bless her, and indeed I will give you a son by her. Then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Will a child be born to a man a hundred years old? And will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth to a child?”

<sup>18</sup>And Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live before You!”

<sup>19</sup>But God said, “No, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you shall name him Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

<sup>20</sup>As for Ishmael, I have heard you; behold, I will bless him, and make him fruitful and multiply him exceedingly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him into a great nation.

<sup>21</sup>But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this season next year.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Abraham took his son Ishmael, and all the slaves who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on this very same day, as God had said to him.

<sup>27</sup>And all the men of his household, those who were born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18

Birth of Isaac Promised

<sup>2</sup>When he raised his eyes and looked, behold, three men were standing opposite him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed down to the ground,

<sup>3</sup>and said, "My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass Your servant by.

<sup>4</sup>Please let a little water be brought and wash your feet, and make yourselves comfortable under the tree;

<sup>5</sup>and I will bring a piece of bread, so that you may refresh yourselves; after that you may go on, since you have visited your servant." And they said, "So do as you have said."

<sup>6</sup>So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly, prepare three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make bread cakes."

<sup>7</sup>Abraham also ran to the herd, and took a tender and choice calf and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it.

<sup>8</sup>He took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he was standing by them under the tree as they ate.

<sup>9</sup>Then they said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “I will certainly return to you at this time next year; and behold, your wife Sarah will have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him.

<sup>13</sup>But the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I actually give birth to a child, when I am so old?’

<sup>14</sup>Is anything too difficult for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, at this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”

<sup>15</sup>Sarah denied it, however, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. And He said, “No, but you did laugh.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, <sup>18</sup>since Abraham will certainly become a great and mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed?

<sup>19</sup>For I have chosen him, so that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken about him.”

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, “The outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is indeed great, and their sin is exceedingly grave.

<sup>21</sup>I will go down now and see whether they have done entirely as the outcry, which has come to Me indicates; and if not, I will know.”

Abraham Appeals for Sodom

<sup>22</sup>Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham was still standing before the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>Abraham approached and said, “Will You indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?

<sup>24</sup>Suppose there are fifty righteous people within the city; will You indeed sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it?

<sup>25</sup>Far be it from You to do such a thing, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are treated alike. Far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth deal justly?”

<sup>26</sup>So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the entire place on their account.”

<sup>27</sup>And Abraham replied, “Now behold, I have ventured to speak to the Lord, although I am only dust and ashes.

<sup>28</sup>Suppose the fifty righteous are lacking five, will You destroy the entire city because of five?” And He said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.”

<sup>29</sup>And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose forty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it on account of the forty.”

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak; suppose thirty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Now behold, I have ventured to speak to the Lord; suppose twenty are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy it on account of the twenty.”

<sup>32</sup>Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak only this once: suppose ten are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy it on account of the ten.”

<sup>33</sup>As soon as He had finished speaking to Abraham the LORD departed, and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19

The Doom of Sodom

<sup>1</sup>Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he stood up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.

<sup>2</sup>And he said, “Now behold, my lords, please turn aside into your servant’s house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way.” They said, “No, but we shall spend the night in the public square.”

<sup>3</sup>Yet he strongly urged them, so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he prepared a feast for them and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

<sup>4</sup>Before they lay down, the men of the city—the men of Sodom—surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter;

<sup>5</sup>and they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have relations with them.”

<sup>8</sup>Now look, I have two daughters who have not had relations with any man; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them whatever you like; only do not do anything to these men, because they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

<sup>9</sup>But they said, “Get out of the way!” They also said, “This one came in as a foreigner, and already he is acting like a judge; now we will treat you worse than them!” So they pressed hard against Lot and moved forward to break the door.

<sup>10</sup>But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

<sup>11</sup>Then they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, from the small to the great, so that they became weary of trying to find the doorway.

<sup>12</sup>Then the two men said to Lot, “Whom else do you have here? A son-in-law and your sons and daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring them out of the place;

<sup>13</sup>for we are about to destroy this place, because their outcry has become so great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

<sup>14</sup>So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, and said, “Up, get out of this place, for the LORD is destroying the city.” But he appeared to his sons-in-law to be joking.

<sup>15</sup>When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.”

<sup>16</sup>But he hesitated. So the men grasped his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, because the compassion of the LORD was upon him; and they brought him out and put him outside the city.

<sup>17</sup>When they had brought them outside, one said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stay anywhere in the surrounding area; escape to the mountains, or you will be swept away.”

<sup>19</sup>Now behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your compassion, which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, for the disaster will overtake me and I will die;

<sup>20</sup>now behold, this town is near enough to flee to, and it is small. Please, let me escape there (is it not small?) so that my life may be saved.”

<sup>21</sup>And he said to him, “Behold, I grant you this request also, not to overthrow the town of which you have spoken.

<sup>22</sup>Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” Therefore the town was named Zoar.

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah from the LORD out of heaven,

<sup>27</sup>Now Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before the LORD;

<sup>28</sup>and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the surrounding area; and behold, he saw the smoke of the land ascended like the smoke of a furnace.

<sup>29</sup>So it came about, when God destroyed the cities of the surrounding area, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the destruction, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had lived.

Lot and His Daughters

<sup>30</sup>Now Lot went up from Zoar with his two daughters and stayed in the mountains, because he was afraid to stay in Zoar; and he stayed in a cave, he and his two daughters.

<sup>31</sup>Then the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to have relations with us according to the custom of all the earth.

<sup>32</sup>Come, let’s make our father drink wine, and let’s sleep with him so that we may keep our family alive through our father.”

<sup>33</sup>So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn went in and slept with her father; and he did not know when she lay down or got up.

<sup>34</sup>On the following day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Look, I slept last night with my father; let’s make him drink wine tonight too, then you go in and sleep with him, so that we may keep our family alive through our father.”

<sup>35</sup>So they had their father drink wine that night too, and the younger got up and slept with him; and he did not know when she lay down or got up.

<sup>37</sup>The firstborn gave birth to a son, and named him Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

<sup>38</sup>As for the younger, she also gave birth to a son, and named him Ben-ammi; he is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

Genesis 20

Abraham’s Treachery

<sup>3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, “Behold, you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is married.”

<sup>4</sup>Now Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, “Lord, will You kill a nation, even though blameless?

<sup>5</sup>Did he himself not say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this.”

<sup>6</sup>Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will certainly die, you and all who are yours.”

<sup>8</sup>So Abimelech got up early in the morning and called all his servants, and told all these things in their presence; and the people were greatly frightened.

<sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done.”

<sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What have you encountered, that you have done this thing?”

<sup>11</sup>Abraham said, “Because I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.

<sup>12</sup>Besides, she actually is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife;

<sup>13</sup>and it came about, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is the kindness which you will show to me: everywhere we go, say of me, "He is my brother." ' ' "

<sup>14</sup>Abimelech then took sheep and oxen and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him.

<sup>15</sup>Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you; settle wherever you please."

<sup>16</sup>To Sarah he said, "Look, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. It is your vindication before all who are with you, and before everyone you are cleared."

<sup>18</sup>For the LORD had completely closed all the wombs of the household of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

Genesis 21

Isaac Is Born

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD took note of Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had promised.

<sup>2</sup>So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him.

<sup>3</sup>Abraham named his son who was born to him, the son whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.

<sup>4</sup>Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

<sup>5</sup>Now Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

<sup>6</sup>Sarah said, "God has made laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me."

<sup>8</sup>And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham held a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Sarah Turns against Hagar

<sup>9</sup>Now Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking Isaac.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore she said to Abraham, “Drive out this slave woman and her son, for the son of this slave woman shall not be an heir with my son Isaac!”

<sup>12</sup>But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the boy and your slave woman; whatever Sarah tells you, listen to her, for through Isaac your descendants shall be named.

<sup>13</sup>And of the son of the slave woman I will make a nation also, because he is your descendant.”

<sup>14</sup>So Abraham got up early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water, and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and gave her the boy, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered about in the wilderness of Beersheba.

<sup>16</sup>Then she went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away, for she said, “May I not see the boy die!” And she sat opposite him, and raised her voice and wept.

<sup>17</sup>God heard the boy crying; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What is the matter with you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

<sup>18</sup>Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him by the hand, for I will make a great nation of him.”

<sup>20</sup>And God was with the boy, and he grew; and he lived in the wilderness and became an archer.

<sup>21</sup>He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>Now it came about at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do;

<sup>23</sup>so now, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my descendants, but according to the kindness that I have shown to you, you shall show to me and to the land in which you have resided.”

<sup>26</sup>And Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor did I hear of it until today.”

<sup>27</sup>So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.

<sup>30</sup>He said, “You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand so that it may be a witness for me, that I dug this well.”

<sup>32</sup>So they made a covenant at Beersheba; and Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, got up and returned to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 22

The Offering of Isaac

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after these things, that God tested Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>Then He said, “Take now your son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and his son Isaac; and he split wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place of which God had told him.

<sup>5</sup>Then Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey, and I and the boy will go over there; and we will worship and return to you.”

<sup>6</sup>And Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.

<sup>7</sup>Isaac spoke to his father Abraham and said, “My father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” And he said, “Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

<sup>8</sup>Abraham said, “God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

<sup>9</sup>Then they came to the place of which God had told him; and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

<sup>11</sup>But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>12</sup>He said, “Do not reach out your hand against the boy, and do not do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham raised his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him was a ram caught in the thicket by its horns; and Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in the place of his son.

<sup>14</sup>And Abraham named that place The LORD Will Provide, as it is said to this day, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven,

<sup>16</sup>and said, “By Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son,

<sup>17</sup>indeed I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and as the sand, which is on the seashore; and your seed shall possess the gate of their enemies.

<sup>18</sup>And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.”

Genesis 23

Death and Burial of Sarah

<sup>4</sup>“I am a stranger and a foreign resident among you; give me a burial site among you so that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”

<sup>8</sup>And he spoke with them, saying, “If you are willing to let me bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me, and plead with Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he owns, which is at the end of his field; for the full price let him give it to me in your presence for a burial site.”

<sup>10</sup>Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham so that the sons of Heth heard, that is, all who entered the gate of his city, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“No, my lord, listen to me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead.”

<sup>13</sup>But he spoke to Ephron so that the people of the land heard, saying, “If you will only please listen to me; I will give the price of the field, accept it from me so that I may bury my dead there.”

<sup>15</sup>“My lord, listen to me: a plot of land worth four hundred shekels of silver—what is that between me and you? So bury your dead.”

<sup>17</sup>So Ephron’s field, which was in Machpelah, which faced Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees which were in the field, that were within all the confines of its border, were deeded over

<sup>20</sup>So the field and the cave that was in it were deeded over to Abraham for a burial site by the sons of Heth.

Genesis 24

A Bride for Isaac

<sup>1</sup>Now Abraham was old, advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in every way.

<sup>2</sup>Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household who was in charge of all that he owned, “Please place your hand under my thigh,

<sup>3</sup>and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live;

<sup>4</sup>but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac.”

<sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, “Suppose the woman is not willing to follow me to this land; should I take your son back to the land from where you came?”

<sup>6</sup>Then Abraham said to him, “Beware that you do not take my son back there!

<sup>7</sup>The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and who swore to me, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give this land’—He will send His angel ahead of you, and you will take a wife for my son from there.

<sup>8</sup>But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free of this oath of mine; only do not take my son back there.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master, and went out with a variety of good things of his master’s in his hand; so he set out and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

<sup>11</sup>He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water when it was evening, the time when women go out to draw water.

<sup>12</sup>And he said, “LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

<sup>14</sup>now may it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your jar so that I may drink,’ and who answers, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels also’—may she be the one whom You have appointed for Your servant Isaac; and by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.”

Rebekah Is Chosen

<sup>15</sup>And it came about, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor, came out with her jar on her shoulder.

<sup>17</sup>Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar.”

<sup>19</sup>Now when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will also draw water for your camels until they have finished drinking.”

<sup>22</sup>When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing a half-shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels in gold,

<sup>23</sup>and he said, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room for us to stay overnight at your father’s house?”

<sup>24</sup>She said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah’s son, whom she bore to Nahor.”

<sup>25</sup>Again she said to him, “We have plenty of both straw and feed, and room to stay overnight.”

<sup>27</sup>And he said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned His kindness and His trustworthiness toward my master; as for me, the LORD has guided me in the way to the house of my master’s brothers.”

<sup>29</sup>Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring.

<sup>30</sup>When he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister’s wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, “This is what the man said to me,” he went to the man; and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Come in, blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside, since I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels?”

<sup>32</sup>So the man entered the house. Then Laban unloaded the camels, and he gave straw and feed to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

<sup>33</sup>But when food was set before him to eat, he said, “I will not eat until I have stated my business.” And he said, “Speak on.”

<sup>35</sup>The LORD has greatly blessed my master, so that he has become rich; and He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and servants and slave women, and camels and donkeys.

<sup>36</sup>Now my master's wife Sarah bore a son to my master in her old age, and he has given him all that he has.

<sup>37</sup>My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live;

<sup>38</sup>but you shall go to my father's house and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.'

<sup>39</sup>Then I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman does not follow me.'

<sup>40</sup>And he said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send His angel with you to make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house;

<sup>41</sup>then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my relatives; and if they do not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.'

<sup>42</sup>"So I came today to the spring, and said, 'LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now You will make my journey on which I have been going successful;

<sup>43</sup>behold, I am standing by the spring, and may it be that the young unmarried woman who comes out to draw water, and to whom I say, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar";

<sup>44</sup>and she says to me, "You drink, and I will draw for your camels also"—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup>"Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder, and went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'

<sup>46</sup>She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will water your camels also'; so I drank, and she watered the camels also.

<sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him'; and I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her wrists.

<sup>48</sup>And I bowed low and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

<sup>49</sup>So now if you are going to deal kindly and truthfully with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me now, so that I may turn to the right or the left."

<sup>50</sup>Then Laban and Bethuel replied, "The matter has come from the LORD; so we cannot speak to you bad or good.

<sup>53</sup>And the servant brought out articles of silver and articles of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

<sup>54</sup>Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they got up in the morning, he said, "Send me away to my master."

<sup>55</sup>But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, say ten; afterward she may go."

<sup>56</sup>However, he said to them, "Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away so that I may go to my master."

<sup>58</sup>Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, "I will go."

<sup>60</sup>And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, “May you, our sister, Become thousands of ten thousands, And may your descendants possess The gate of those who hate them.”

Isaac Marries Rebekah

<sup>62</sup>Now Isaac had come back from a journey to Beer-lahai-roi; for he was living in the Negev.

<sup>65</sup>She said to the servant, “Who is that man walking in the field to meet us?” And the servant said, “He is my master.” Then she took her veil and covered herself.

<sup>67</sup>Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent, and he took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her; so Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Genesis 25

Abraham’s Death

<sup>4</sup>The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoah, Abida, and Eldaah. All of these were the sons of Keturah.

- <sup>5</sup>Now Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac;
- <sup>6</sup>but to the sons of his concubines, Abraham gave gifts while he was still living, and sent them away from his son Isaac eastward, to the land of the east.
- <sup>7</sup>These are all the years of Abraham's life that he lived, 175 years.
- <sup>8</sup>Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, an old man and satisfied with life; and he was gathered to his people.
- <sup>9</sup>Then his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, facing Mamre,
- <sup>10</sup>the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth; there Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.
- <sup>11</sup>It came about after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac lived by Beer-lahai-roi.

Descendants of Ishmael

- <sup>12</sup>Now these are the records of the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's slave woman, bore to Abraham;
- <sup>13</sup>and these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
- <sup>14</sup>Mishma, Dumah, Massa,
- <sup>15</sup>Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
- <sup>16</sup>These are the sons of Ishmael and these are their names, by their villages, and by their camps; twelve princes according to their tribes.
- <sup>17</sup>These are the years of the life of Ishmael, 137 years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.
- <sup>18</sup>They settled from Havilah to Shur which is east of Egypt going toward Assyria; he settled in defiance of all his relatives.

Isaac's Sons

<sup>21</sup>Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was unable to have children; and the LORD answered him, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

<sup>22</sup>But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is so, why am I in this condition?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb; And two peoples will be separated from your body; And one people will be stronger than the other; And the older will serve the younger."

<sup>24</sup>When her days leading to the delivery were at an end, behold, there were twins in her womb.

<sup>27</sup>When the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a civilized man, living in tents.

<sup>28</sup>Now Isaac loved Esau because he had a taste for game; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

<sup>29</sup>When Jacob had cooked a stew one day, Esau came in from the field and he was exhausted;

<sup>30</sup>and Esau said to Jacob, "Please let me have a mouthful of that red stuff there, for I am exhausted." Therefore he was called Edom by name.

<sup>32</sup>Esau said, “Look, I am about to die; so of what use then is the birthright to me?”

<sup>33</sup>And Jacob said, “First swear to me”; so he swore an oath to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew; and he ate and drank, and got up and went on his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26

Isaac Settles in Gerar

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a famine in the land, besides the previous famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Gerar, to Abimelech king of the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; stay in the land of which I shall tell you.

<sup>3</sup>Live for a time in this land and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to your father Abraham.

<sup>4</sup>I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and will give your descendants all these lands; and by your descendants all the nations of the earth shall be blessed,

<sup>7</sup>When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, “She is my sister,” for he was afraid to say, “my wife,” thinking, “the men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah, since she is beautiful.”

<sup>8</sup>Now it came about, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down through a window, and saw them, and behold, Isaac was caressing his wife Rebekah.

<sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, “Behold, she certainly is your wife! So how is it that you said, ‘She is my sister’?” And Isaac said to him, “Because I thought, ‘otherwise I might be killed on account of her.’”

<sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said, “What is this that you have done to us? One of the people might easily have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”

<sup>12</sup>Now Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundred times as much. And the LORD blessed him,

<sup>13</sup>and the man became rich, and continued to grow richer until he became very wealthy;

<sup>14</sup>for he had possessions of flocks and herds, and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.

Argument over the Wells

<sup>18</sup>Then Isaac dug again the wells of water which had been dug in the days of his father Abraham, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham; and he gave them the same names which his father had given them.

<sup>19</sup>But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of flowing water,

<sup>22</sup>Then he moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he named it Rehoboth, for he said, "At last the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

<sup>24</sup>And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham; Do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants, For the sake of My servant Abraham."

<sup>25</sup>So he built an altar there and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

Covenant with Abimelech

<sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with his adviser Ahuzzath, and Phicol the commander of his army.

<sup>27</sup>Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?"

<sup>28</sup>They said, "We have seen plainly that the LORD has been with you; so we said, 'An oath must now be taken by us,' that is, by you and us. So let us make a covenant with you,

<sup>29</sup>that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD."

<sup>30</sup>Then he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

<sup>32</sup>Now it came about on the same day, that Isaac's servants came in and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water."

<sup>34</sup>When Esau was forty years old he married Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite;

Genesis 27

Jacob's Deception

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called his older son Esau and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup>Then Isaac said, "Behold now, I am old and I do not know the day of my death.

<sup>3</sup>Now then, please take your gear, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me;

<sup>4</sup>and prepare a delicious meal for me such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die."

<sup>5</sup>Now Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game to bring home,

<sup>6</sup>Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying,

<sup>7</sup>'Bring me some game and prepare a delicious meal for me, so that I may eat, and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.'

<sup>8</sup>So now, my son, listen to me as I command you.

<sup>9</sup>Go now to the flock and bring me two choice young goats from there, so that I may prepare them as a delicious meal for your father, such as he loves.

<sup>10</sup>Then you shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death.”

<sup>12</sup>Perhaps my father will touch me, then I will be like a deceiver in his sight, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing.”

<sup>13</sup>But his mother said to him, “Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get the goats for me.”

<sup>17</sup>She also gave the delicious meal and the bread which she had made to her son Jacob.

<sup>18</sup>Then he came to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup>Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done as you told me. Come now, sit and eat of my game, so that you may bless me.”

<sup>20</sup>Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God made it come to me.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come close, so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.”

<sup>22</sup>So Jacob came close to his father Isaac, and he touched him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

<sup>23</sup>And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

<sup>24</sup>And he said, “Are you really my son Esau?” And he said, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup>So he said, “Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, that I may bless you.” And he brought it to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine and he drank.

<sup>26</sup>Then his father Isaac said to him, “Please come close and kiss me, my son.”

<sup>27</sup>So he came close and kissed him; and when he smelled the smell of his garments, he blessed him and said, “See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed;

<sup>28</sup>Now may God give you of the dew of heaven, And of the fatness of the earth, And an abundance of grain and new wine;

<sup>29</sup>May peoples serve you, And nations bow down to you; Be master of your brothers, And may your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, And blessed be those who bless you.”

The Stolen Blessing

<sup>30</sup>Now it came about, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had hardly gone out from the presence of his father Isaac, that his brother Esau came in from his hunting.

<sup>31</sup>Then he also made a delicious meal, and brought it to his father; and he said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s game, that you may bless me.”

<sup>32</sup>His father Isaac said to him, “Who are you?” And he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”

<sup>33</sup>Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, “Who then was he who hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate from all of it before you came, and blessed him? Yes, and he shall be blessed.”

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, me as well, my father!”

<sup>36</sup>Then Esau said, “Is he not rightly named Jacob, for he has betrayed me these two times? He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing.” And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

<sup>37</sup>But Isaac replied to Esau, “Behold, I have made him your master, and I have given to him all his relatives as servants; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?”

<sup>38</sup>Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, me as well, my father.” So Esau raised his voice and wept.

<sup>39</sup>Then his father Isaac answered and said to him, “Behold, away from the fertility of the earth shall be your dwelling, And away from the dew of heaven from above.

<sup>40</sup>“And by your sword you shall live, And you shall serve your brother; But it shall come about when you become restless, That you will break his yoke from your neck.”

<sup>41</sup>So Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said to himself, “The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

<sup>42</sup>Now when the words of her elder son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she sent word and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, “Behold your brother Esau is consoling himself concerning you by planning to kill you.

<sup>45</sup>until your brother's anger against you subsides and he forgets what you did to him. Then I will send word and get you from there. Why should I lose you both in one day?"

<sup>46</sup>And Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am tired of living because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

Genesis 28

Jacob Is Sent Away

<sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and from there take to yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.

<sup>3</sup>May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, so that you may become a multitude of peoples.

<sup>4</sup>May He also give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your descendants with you, so that you may possess the land where you live as a stranger, which God gave to Abraham."

<sup>5</sup>Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>6</sup>Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take to himself a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, saying, "You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,"

<sup>9</sup>and Esau went to Ishmael, and married, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth.

Jacob's Dream

<sup>10</sup>Then Jacob departed from Beersheba and went toward Haran.

<sup>11</sup>And he happened upon a particular place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and made it a support for his head, and lay down in that place.

<sup>12</sup>And he had a dream, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth with its top reaching to heaven; and behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

<sup>13</sup>Then behold, the LORD was standing above it and said, "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your descendants.

<sup>14</sup>Your descendants will also be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, and to the north and to the south; and in you and in your descendants shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

<sup>15</sup>Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "The LORD is certainly in this place, and I did not know it!"

<sup>17</sup>And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"

<sup>18</sup>So Jacob got up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had placed as a support for his head, and set it up as a memorial stone, and poured oil on its top.

<sup>19</sup>Then he named that place Bethel; but previously the name of the city had been Luz.

<sup>20</sup>Jacob also made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me on this journey that I take, and give me food to eat and garments to wear, <sup>21</sup>and I return to my father’s house in safety, then the LORD will be my God.

<sup>22</sup>And this stone, which I have set up as a memorial stone, will be God’s house, and of everything that You give me I will assuredly give a tenth to You.”

Genesis 29

Jacob Meets Rachel

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob set out on his journey, and went to the land of the people of the east.

<sup>2</sup>He looked, and saw a well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it, because they watered the flocks from that well. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was large.

<sup>3</sup>When all the flocks were gathered there, they would roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

<sup>4</sup>Jacob said to them, “My brothers, where are you from?” And they said, “We are from Haran.”

<sup>5</sup>So he said to them, “Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?” And they said, “We know him.”

<sup>6</sup>And he said to them, “Is it well with him?” And they said, “It is well, and here is his daughter Rachel coming with the sheep.”

<sup>8</sup>But they said, “We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered, and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep.”

<sup>12</sup>Jacob told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and that he was Rebekah’s son, and she ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup>So when Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister’s son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things.

<sup>14</sup>And Laban said to him, “You certainly are my bone and my flesh.” And he stayed with him a month.

<sup>15</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?”

<sup>18</sup>Now Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, “I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.”

<sup>20</sup>So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him like only a few days because of his love for her.

Laban's Treachery

<sup>21</sup>Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my time is completed, that I may have relations with her."

<sup>25</sup>So it came about in the morning that, behold, it was Leah! And he said to Laban, "What is this that you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? Why then have you deceived me?"

<sup>26</sup>But Laban said, "It is not the practice in our place to marry off the younger before the firstborn.

<sup>27</sup>Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you shall serve with me, for another seven years."

<sup>30</sup>So Jacob had relations with Rachel also, and indeed he loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served with Laban for another seven years.

<sup>31</sup>Now the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, and He opened her womb, but Rachel was unable to have children.

<sup>32</sup>Leah conceived and gave birth to a son, and named him Reuben, for she said, "Because the LORD has seen my affliction; surely now my husband will love me."

<sup>33</sup>Then she conceived again and gave birth to a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am unloved, He has therefore given me this son also.” So she named him Simeon.

<sup>34</sup>And she conceived again and gave birth to a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore he was named Levi.

<sup>35</sup>And she conceived again and gave birth to a son, and said, “This time I will praise the LORD.” Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30

The Sons of Jacob

<sup>1</sup>Now when Rachel saw that she had not borne Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister; and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I am going to die.”

<sup>2</sup>Then Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

<sup>3</sup>Then she said, “Here is my female slave Bilhah: have relations with her that she may give birth on my knees, so that by her I too may obtain a child.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Rachel said, “God has vindicated me, and has indeed heard my voice and has given me a son.” Therefore she named him Dan.

<sup>13</sup>Then Leah said, "Happy am I! For women will call me happy." So she named him Asher.

<sup>14</sup>Now in the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrake fruits in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

<sup>15</sup>But she said to her, "Is it a small matter for you to take my husband? And would you take my son's mandrakes also?" So Rachel said, "Therefore he may sleep with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes."

<sup>16</sup>When Jacob came in from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must have relations with me, for I have indeed hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he slept with her that night.

<sup>18</sup>Then Leah said, "God has given me my reward, because I gave my slave to my husband." So she named him Issachar.

<sup>20</sup>Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good gift; finally my husband will acknowledge me as his wife, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.

<sup>23</sup>So she conceived and gave birth to a son, and said, “God has taken away my disgrace.”

<sup>24</sup>And she named him Joseph, saying, “May the LORD give me another son.”

Jacob Prospers

<sup>25</sup>Now it came about, when Rachel had given birth to Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, so that I may go to my own place and to my own country.

<sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you yourself know my service which I have rendered you.”

<sup>27</sup>But Laban said to him, “If it pleases you at all, stay with me; I have determined by divination that the LORD has blessed me on your account.”

<sup>29</sup>But Jacob said to him, “You yourself know how I have served you and how your livestock have fared with me.

<sup>30</sup>For you had little before I came, and it has increased to a multitude, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household also?”

<sup>31</sup>So he said, “What shall I give you?” And Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will again pasture and keep your flock:

<sup>32</sup>let me pass through your entire flock today, removing from there every speckled or spotted sheep and every black sheep among the lambs, and the spotted or speckled among the goats; and those shall be my wages.

<sup>33</sup>So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come concerning my wages. Every one that is not speckled or spotted among the goats, or black among the lambs, if found with me, will be considered stolen.”

<sup>35</sup>So he removed on that day the striped or spotted male goats, and all the speckled or spotted female goats, every one with white on it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and put them in the care of his sons.

<sup>38</sup>He set the rods which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the drinking troughs, that is, in the watering channels where the flocks came to drink; and they mated when they came to drink.

<sup>41</sup>Moreover, whenever the stronger of the flock were mating, Jacob would place the rods in the sight of the flock in the drinking troughs, so that they would mate by the rods;

<sup>42</sup>but when the flock was sickly, he did not put them in; so the sickly were Laban's, and the stronger were Jacob's.

<sup>43</sup>So the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks, and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31

Jacob Leaves Secretly for Canaan

<sup>1</sup>Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what belonged to our father he has made all this wealth."

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Jacob, “Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob sent word and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field,

<sup>5</sup>and said to them, “I see your father’s attitude, that it is not friendly toward me as it was before, but the God of my father has been with me.

<sup>7</sup>Yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times; however, God did not allow him to do me harm.

<sup>8</sup>If he said this: ‘The speckled shall be your wages,’ then all the flock delivered speckled; and if he said this: ‘The striped shall be your wages,’ then all the flock delivered striped.

<sup>9</sup>So God has taken away your father’s livestock and given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>And it came about at the time when the flock was breeding that I raised my eyes and saw in a dream—and behold—the male goats that were mating were striped, speckled, or mottled.

<sup>11</sup>Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, ‘Jacob’; and I said, ‘Here I am.’

<sup>12</sup>He said, ‘Now raise your eyes and see that all the male goats that are mating are striped, speckled, or mottled; for I have seen everything that Laban has been doing to you.

<sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a memorial stone, where you made a vow to Me; now arise, leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Rachel and Leah said to him, “Do we still have any share or inheritance in our father’s house?

<sup>15</sup>Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also entirely consumed our purchase price.

<sup>16</sup>Surely all the wealth which God has taken away from our father belongs to us and our children; now then, do whatever God has told you.”

<sup>18</sup>and he drove away all his livestock and all his property which he had acquired, the livestock he possessed which he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to the land of Canaan to his father Isaac.

<sup>21</sup>So he fled with all that he had; and he got up and crossed the Euphrates River, and set out for the hill country of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob

<sup>22</sup>When Laban was informed on the third day that Jacob had fled,

<sup>23</sup>he took his kinsmen with him and pursued him a distance of seven days’ journey, and he overtook him in the hill country of Gilead.

<sup>24</sup>However, God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream of the night and said to him, “Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done by deceiving me and carrying away my daughters like captives of the sword?

<sup>27</sup>Why did you flee secretly and deceive me, and did not tell me, so that I might have sent you away with joy and with songs, with tambourine and with lyre;

<sup>28</sup>and did not allow me to kiss my grandchildren and my daughters? Now you have done foolishly.

<sup>29</sup>It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, ‘Be careful not to speak either good or bad to Jacob.’

<sup>30</sup>Now you have indeed gone away because you longed greatly for your father’s house; but why did you steal my gods?”

<sup>31</sup>Then Jacob replied to Laban, “Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.

<sup>32</sup>The one with whom you find your gods shall not live; in the presence of our relatives point out what is yours among my belongings and take it for yourself.” Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>33</sup>So Laban went into Jacob’s tent, and into Leah’s tent, and into the tent of the two slave women, but he did not find them. Then he went out of Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s tent.

<sup>34</sup>Now Rachel had taken the household idols and put them in the camel’s saddlebag, and she sat on them. So Laban searched through all the tent, but did not find them.

<sup>35</sup>And she said to her father, “May my lord not be angry that I cannot stand in your presence, because the way of women is upon me.” So he searched but did not find the household idols.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob became angry and argued with Laban; and Jacob said to Laban, “What is my offense? What is my sin that you have hotly pursued me?

<sup>37</sup>Though you have searched through all my property, what have you found of all your household property? Set it here in front of my relatives and your relatives, so that they may decide between the two of us.

<sup>38</sup>For these twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten the rams of your flocks.

<sup>39</sup>I did not even bring to you that which was torn by wild animals; I took the loss myself. You demanded it of my hand whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

<sup>40</sup>This is how I was: by day the heat consumed me and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

<sup>41</sup>For these twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you changed my wages ten times.

<sup>42</sup>If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the fear of Isaac, had not been for me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, so He rendered judgment last night.”

The Covenant of Mizpah

<sup>43</sup>Then Laban replied to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, the children are my grandchildren, the flocks are my flocks, and everything that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these daughters of mine or to their children to whom they have given birth?

<sup>44</sup>So now come, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and it shall be a witness between you and me.”

<sup>48</sup>Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me this day.” Therefore it was named Galeed, <sup>49</sup>and Mizpah, for he said, “May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are absent one from the other.

<sup>50</sup>If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, although no one is with us, see, God is witness between you and me.”

<sup>51</sup>Laban also said to Jacob, “Behold this heap and behold the memorial stone which I have set between you and me.

<sup>52</sup>This heap is a witness, and the memorial stone is a witness, that I will not pass by this heap to you for harm, and you will not pass by this heap and this memorial stone to me, for harm.

<sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us.” So Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac.

<sup>54</sup>Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his relatives to the meal; and they ate the meal and spent the night on the mountain.

<sup>55</sup>Then early in the morning Laban got up, and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Genesis 32

Jacob's Fear of Esau

<sup>4</sup>He commanded them, saying, “This is what you shall say to my lord Esau: ‘Your servant Jacob says the following: “I have resided with Laban, and stayed until now;

<sup>5</sup>and I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent messengers to tell my lord, so that I may find favor in your sight.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>6</sup>And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and furthermore he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks, the herds, and the camels, into two companies;

<sup>8</sup>for he said, “If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the company which is left will escape.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Jacob said, “God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, LORD, who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your relatives, and I will make you prosper,’ <sup>10</sup>I am unworthy of all the favor and of all the faithfulness, which You have shown to Your servant; for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two companies.

<sup>11</sup>Save me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children.

<sup>12</sup>For You said, ‘I will assuredly make you prosper and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which is too great to be counted.’ ”

<sup>13</sup>So he spent the night there. Then he selected from what he had with him a gift for his brother Esau:

<sup>14</sup>two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

<sup>15</sup>thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

<sup>16</sup>Then he placed them in the care of his servants, every flock by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass on ahead of me, and put a space between flocks.”

<sup>17</sup>And he commanded the one in front, saying, “When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these animals in front of you belong?’

<sup>18</sup>then you shall say, ‘These belong to your servant Jacob; it is a gift sent to my lord Esau. And behold, he also is behind us.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Then he commanded also the second and the third, and all those who followed the flocks, saying, “In this way you shall speak to Esau when you find him;

<sup>20</sup>and you shall say, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob also is behind us.’ ” For he said, “I will appease him with the gift that goes ahead of me. Then afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”

<sup>21</sup>So the gift passed on ahead of him, while he himself spent that night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles

<sup>25</sup>When the man saw that he had not prevailed against him, he touched the socket of Jacob’s hip; and the socket of Jacob’s hip was dislocated while he wrestled with him.

<sup>26</sup>Then he said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” But he said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”

<sup>28</sup>Then he said, “Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel; for you have contended with God and with men, and have prevailed.”

<sup>29</sup>And Jacob asked him and said, “Please tell me your name.” But he said, “Why is it that you ask my name?” And he blessed him there.

<sup>30</sup>So Jacob named the place Peniel, for he said, “I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been spared.”

Genesis 33

Jacob Meets Esau

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob raised his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel, and the two slave women.

<sup>3</sup>But he himself passed on ahead of them and bowed down to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

<sup>4</sup>Then Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

<sup>5</sup>He raised his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said, “Who are these with you?” So he said, “The children whom God has graciously given your servant.”

<sup>8</sup>And he said, “What do you mean by all this company which I have met?”
And he said, “To find favor in the sight of my lord.”

<sup>10</sup>Jacob said, “No, please, if now I have found favor in your sight, then accept my gift from my hand, for I see your face as one sees the face of God, and you have received me favorably.

<sup>11</sup>Please accept my gift which has been brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and because I have plenty.” So he urged him, and he accepted it.

<sup>13</sup>But he said to him, “My lord knows that the children are frail and that the flocks and herds that are nursing are a matter of concern to me. And if they are driven hard just one day, all the flocks will die.

<sup>14</sup>Please let my lord pass on ahead of his servant, and I will proceed at my leisure, at the pace of the cattle that are ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Esau said, “Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But he said, “What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

<sup>17</sup>But Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built for himself a house and made booths for his livestock; therefore the place is named Succoth.

Jacob Settles in Shechem

<sup>18</sup>Now Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram, and camped before the city.

<sup>19</sup>He bought the plot of land where he had pitched his tent from the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for a hundred pieces of money.

<sup>20</sup>Then he erected there an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

Genesis 34

The Treachery of Jacob's Sons

<sup>1</sup>Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the daughters of the land.

<sup>5</sup>Now Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah; but his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob said nothing until they came in.

<sup>7</sup>Now the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard about it; and the men were grieved, and they were very angry because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by sleeping with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

<sup>8</sup>But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him in marriage.

<sup>9</sup>And intermarry with us; give your daughters to us and take our daughters for yourselves.

<sup>10</sup>So you will live with us, and the land shall be open to you; live and trade in it and acquire property in it."

<sup>11</sup>Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your sight, and I will give whatever you tell me.

<sup>12</sup>Demand of me ever so much bridal payment and gift, and I will give whatever you tell me; but give me the girl in marriage."

<sup>14</sup>They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, that is, give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.

<sup>15</sup>Only on this condition will we consent to you: if you will become like us, in that every male of you will be circumcised,

<sup>16</sup>then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will live with you and become one people.

<sup>17</sup>But if you do not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

<sup>20</sup>So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the people of their city, saying,

<sup>21</sup>"These men are friendly to us; therefore let them live in the land and trade in it, for behold, the land is large enough for them. We will take their daughters in marriage, and give our daughters to them.

<sup>22</sup>Only on this condition will the men consent to us to live with us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised just as they are circumcised.

<sup>24</sup>All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

<sup>25</sup>Now it came about on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of Jacob's sons—Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers—each took his sword and came upon the city undetected, and killed every male.

<sup>28</sup>They took their flocks, their herds, and their donkeys, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field;

<sup>29</sup>and they captured and looted all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives, even everything that was in the houses.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me repulsive among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and since my men are few in number, they will band together against me and attack me, and I will be destroyed, I and my household!"

Genesis 35

Jacob Moves to Bethel

<sup>1</sup>Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel and live there, and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

<sup>2</sup>So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Remove the foreign gods which are among you, and purify yourselves and change your garments;

<sup>3</sup>and let's arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there to God, who answered me on the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone."

<sup>4</sup>So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which they had and the rings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem.

<sup>5</sup>As they journeyed, there was a great terror upon the cities which were around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

<sup>6</sup>So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.

<sup>7</sup>Then he built an altar there, and called the place El-bethel, because there God had revealed Himself to him when he fled from his brother.

<sup>8</sup>Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and it was named Allon-bacuth.

Jacob Is Named Israel

<sup>9</sup>Then God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him.

<sup>10</sup>God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; You shall no longer be called Jacob, But Israel shall be your name." So He called him Israel.

<sup>11</sup>God also said to him, "I am God Almighty; Be fruitful and multiply; A nation and a multitude of nations shall come from you, And kings shall come from you.

<sup>12</sup>"And the land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you, And I will give the land to your descendants after you."

<sup>13</sup>Then God went up from him at the place where He had spoken with him.

<sup>14</sup>So Jacob set up a memorial stone in the place where He had spoken with him, a memorial of stone, and he poured out a drink offering on it; he also poured oil on it.

<sup>16</sup>Then they journeyed on from Bethel; but when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth and she suffered severe difficulties in her labor.

<sup>17</sup>And when she was suffering severe difficulties in her labor, the midwife said to her, “Do not fear, for you have another son!”

<sup>18</sup>And it came about, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she named him Ben-oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

The Sons of Israel

<sup>22</sup>And it came about, while Israel was living in that land, that Reuben went and slept with his father’s concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard about it. Now there were twelve sons of Jacob—

<sup>26</sup>and the sons of Zilpah, Leah’s female slave, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

<sup>29</sup>Then Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, an old man of ripe age; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36

Esau Moves

<sup>7</sup>For their possessions had become too great for them to live together, and the land where they resided could not support them because of their livestock.

Descendants of Esau

<sup>35</sup>Then Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the field of Moab, became king in his place; and the name of his city was Avith.

<sup>39</sup>Then Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar became king in his place; and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, daughter of Mezahab.

Genesis 37

Joseph's Dreams

<sup>2</sup>These are the records of the generations of Jacob. Joseph, when he was seventeen years of age, was pasturing the flock with his brothers, while he was still a youth, along with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

<sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a multicolored tunic.

<sup>4</sup>And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers; and so they hated him and could not speak to him on friendly terms.

<sup>5</sup>Then Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

<sup>6</sup>He said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have had;

<sup>7</sup>for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and behold, my sheaf stood up and also remained standing; and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf."

<sup>8</sup>Then his brothers said to him, "Are you actually going to reign over us? Or are you really going to rule over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

<sup>9</sup>Then he had yet another dream, and informed his brothers of it, and said, “Behold, I have had yet another dream; and behold, the sun and the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me.”

<sup>10</sup>He also told it to his father as well as to his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, “What is this dream that you have had? Am I and your mother and your brothers actually going to come to bow down to the ground before you?”

<sup>13</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, “Are your brothers not pasturing the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them.” And he said to him, “I will go.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to him, “Go now and see about the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock, and bring word back to me.” So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

<sup>15</sup>A man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, “What are you looking for?”

<sup>16</sup>He said, “I am looking for my brothers; please tell me where they are pasturing the flock.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the man said, “They have moved from here; for I heard them say, ‘Let’s go to Dothan.’” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

The Plot against Joseph

<sup>18</sup>When they saw him from a distance, and before he came closer to them, they plotted against him to put him to death.

<sup>20</sup>Now then, come and let's kill him, and throw him into one of the pits; and we will say, 'A vicious animal devoured him.' Then we will see what will become of his dreams!"

<sup>21</sup>But Reuben heard this and rescued him out of their hands by saying, "Let's not take his life."

<sup>22</sup>Then Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him"—so that later he might rescue him out of their hands, to return him to his father.

<sup>23</sup>So it came about, when Joseph reached his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the multicolored tunic that was on him;

<sup>24</sup>and they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty, without any water in it.

<sup>26</sup>And Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it for us to kill our brother and cover up his blood?

<sup>27</sup>Come, and let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers listened to him.

<sup>28</sup>Then some Midianite traders passed by, so they pulled him out and lifted Joseph out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. So they brought Joseph into Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>Now Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit; so he tore his garments.

<sup>30</sup>He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is not there; as for me, where am I to go?"

<sup>31</sup>So they took Joseph's tunic, and slaughtered a male goat, and dipped the tunic in the blood;

<sup>32</sup>and they sent the multicolored tunic and brought it to their father and said, "We found this; please examine it to see whether it is your son's tunic or not."

<sup>33</sup>Then he examined it and said, "It is my son's tunic. A vicious animal has devoured him; Joseph has surely been torn to pieces!"

<sup>35</sup>Then all his sons and all his daughters got up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, "Surely I will go down to Sheol in mourning for my son." So his father wept for him.

Genesis 38

Judah and Tamar

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Onan, “Have relations with your brother’s wife and perform your duty as a brother-in-law to her, and raise up a child for your brother.”

<sup>9</sup>Now Onan knew that the child would not be his; so when he had relations with his brother’s wife, he wasted his seed on the ground so that he would not give a child to his brother.

<sup>10</sup>But what he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD; so He took his life also.

<sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up”; for he thought, “I am afraid that he too may die like his brothers.” So Tamar went and lived in her father’s house.

<sup>13</sup>And Tamar was told, “Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

<sup>14</sup>So she removed her widow’s garments and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the gateway of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah had grown up, and she had not been given to him as a wife.

<sup>16</sup>So he turned aside to her by the road, and said, “Here now, let me have relations with you”; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, “What will you give me, that you may have relations with me?”

<sup>17</sup>He said, therefore, “I will send you a young goat from the flock.” She then said, “Will you give a pledge until you send it?”

<sup>18</sup>He said, “What pledge shall I give you?” And she said, “Your seal and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand.” So he gave them to her and had relations with her, and she conceived by him.

<sup>21</sup>He asked the people of her place, saying, “Where is the temple prostitute who was by the road at Enaim?” But they said, “There has been no temple prostitute here.”

<sup>22</sup>So he returned to Judah, and said, “I did not find her; and furthermore, the people of the place said, ‘There has been no temple prostitute here.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>Then Judah said, “Let her keep them, otherwise we will become a laughingstock. After all, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”

<sup>24</sup>Now it was about three months later that Judah was informed, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar has prostituted herself, and behold, she is also pregnant by prostitution.” Then Judah said, “Bring her out and have her burned!”

<sup>25</sup>It was while she was being brought out that she sent word to her father-in-law, saying, “I am pregnant by the man to whom these things belong.” She also said, “Please examine and see, whose signet ring and cords and staff are these?”

<sup>26</sup>And Judah recognized them, and said, “She is more righteous than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not have relations with her again.

<sup>27</sup>It came about at the time she was giving birth, that behold, there were twins in her womb.

<sup>29</sup>But it came about as he drew back his hand that behold, his brother came out. Then she said, “What a breach you have made for yourself!” So he was named Perez.

<sup>30</sup>Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand; and he was named Zerah.

Genesis 39

Joseph’s Success in Egypt

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD was with Joseph, so he became a successful man. And he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian.

<sup>3</sup>Now his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made all that he did prosper in his hand.

<sup>4</sup>So Joseph found favor in his sight and became his personal servant; and he made him overseer over his house, and put him in charge of all that he owned.

<sup>5</sup>It came about that from the time he made him overseer in his house and over all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house on account of Joseph; so the LORD’S blessing was upon all that he owned, in the house and in the field.

<sup>6</sup>So he left Joseph in charge of everything that he owned; and with him there he did not concern himself with anything except the food which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.

<sup>7</sup>And it came about after these events that his master's wife had her eyes on Joseph, and she said, "Sleep with me."

<sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, with me here, my master does not concern himself with anything in the house, and he has put me in charge of all that he owns.

<sup>9</sup>There is no one greater in this house than I, and he has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great evil, and sin against God?"

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened one day that he went into the house to do his work, and none of the people of the household was there inside.

<sup>14</sup>she called to the men of her household and said to them, "See, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to make fun of us; he came in to me to sleep with me, and I screamed.

<sup>17</sup>Then she spoke to him with these words: "The Hebrew slave, whom you brought to us, came in to me to make fun of me;

Joseph Imprisoned

<sup>19</sup>Now when his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, "This is what your slave did to me," his anger burned.

<sup>20</sup>So Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined; and he was there in the prison.

<sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the warden of the prison.

<sup>22</sup>And the warden of the prison put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners who were in the prison; so that whatever was done there, he was responsible for it.

<sup>23</sup>The warden of the prison did not supervise anything under Joseph's authority, because the LORD was with him; and, the LORD made whatever he did prosper.

Genesis 40

Joseph Interprets Dreams

<sup>1</sup>Then it came about after these things, that the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

<sup>4</sup>And the captain of the bodyguard put Joseph in charge of them, and he took care of them; and they were in confinement for some time.

<sup>5</sup>Then the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, both had a dream the same night, each man with his own dream and each dream with its own interpretation.

<sup>7</sup>So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in confinement in his master's house, "Why are your faces so sad today?"

<sup>8</sup>And they said to him, “We have had a dream, and there is no one to interpret it.” Then Joseph said to them, “Do interpretations not belong to God? Tell it to me, please.”

<sup>9</sup>So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, saying to him, “In my dream, behold, there was a vine in front of me;

<sup>10</sup>and on the vine were three branches. And as it was budding, its blossoms came out, and its clusters produced ripe grapes.

<sup>11</sup>Now Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; so I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said to him, “This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days;

<sup>13</sup>within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office; and you will put Pharaoh’s cup into his hand as in your former practice when you were his cupbearer.

<sup>14</sup>Only keep me in mind when it goes well for you, and please do me a kindness by mentioning me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this prison.

<sup>15</sup>For I was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should have put me into the dungeon.”

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that he had interpreted favorably, he said to Joseph, “I also saw in my dream, and behold, there were three baskets of white bread on my head;

<sup>17</sup>and in the top basket there were some of all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

<sup>19</sup>within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a wooden post, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.”

<sup>20</sup>So it came about on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he held a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

Genesis 41

Pharaoh's Dream

<sup>2</sup>And behold, from the Nile seven cows came up, fine-looking and fat; and they grazed in the marsh grass.

<sup>3</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them from the Nile, ugly and thin, and they stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

<sup>8</sup>Now in the morning his spirit was troubled, so he sent messengers and called for all the soothsayer priests of Egypt, and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, “I would make mention today of my own offenses.

<sup>10</sup>Pharaoh was furious with his servants, and he put me in confinement in the house of the captain of the bodyguard, both me and the chief baker.

<sup>11</sup>Then we had a dream one night, he and I; each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.

<sup>12</sup>Now a Hebrew youth was there with us, a servant of the captain of the bodyguard, and we told him the dreams, and he interpreted our dreams for us. For each man he interpreted according to his own dream.

<sup>13</sup>And just as he interpreted for us, so it happened; Pharaoh restored me in my office, but he hanged the chief baker.”

Joseph Interprets

<sup>14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent word and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon; and when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came to Pharaoh.

<sup>15</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it; and I have heard it said about you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

<sup>16</sup>Joseph then answered Pharaoh, saying, “It has nothing to do with me; God will give Pharaoh an answer for his own good.”

<sup>17</sup>So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream, there I was, standing on the bank of the Nile;

<sup>18</sup>and behold, seven cows, fat and fine-looking came up out of the Nile, and they grazed in the marsh grass.

<sup>19</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and thin, such as I had never seen for ugliness in all the land of Egypt;

<sup>20</sup>and the thin and ugly cows ate the first seven fat cows.

<sup>21</sup>Yet when they had devoured them, it could not be detected that they had devoured them, for they were just as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

<sup>23</sup>and behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind sprouted up after them;

<sup>24</sup>and the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. Then I told it to the soothsayer priests, but there was no one who could explain it to me.”

<sup>25</sup>And Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Pharaoh’s dreams are one and the same; God has told to Pharaoh what He is about to do.

<sup>26</sup>The seven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one and the same.

<sup>27</sup>The seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven thin ears scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine.

<sup>29</sup>Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt;

<sup>30</sup>and after them seven years of famine will come, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will ravage the land.

<sup>31</sup>So the abundance will be unknown in the land because of that subsequent famine; for it will be very severe.

<sup>32</sup>Now as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, it means that the matter is confirmed by God, and God will quickly bring it about.

<sup>33</sup>So now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and appoint him over the land of Egypt.

<sup>34</sup>Let Pharaoh take action to appoint overseers in charge of the land, and let him take a fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt as a tax in the seven years of abundance.

<sup>35</sup>Then have them collect all the food of these good years that are coming, and store up the grain for food in the cities under Pharaoh's authority, and have them guard it.

<sup>36</sup>Let the food be used as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish during the famine."

Joseph Is Made a Ruler of Egypt

<sup>38</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this, in whom there is a divine spirit?"

<sup>39</sup>So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has informed you of all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you are.

<sup>40</sup>You shall be in charge of my house, and all my people shall be obedient to you; only regarding the throne will I be greater than you."

<sup>41</sup>Pharaoh also said to Joseph, "See, I have placed you over all the land of Egypt."

<sup>43</sup>And he had him ride in his second chariot; and they proclaimed ahead of him, "Bow the knee!" And he placed him over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup>Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Though I am Pharaoh, yet without your permission no one shall raise his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."

<sup>45</sup>Then Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup>Now Joseph was thirty years old when he stood in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.

<sup>48</sup>So he collected all the food of these seven years which occurred in the land of Egypt and put the food in the cities; he put in every city the food from its own surrounding fields.

<sup>49</sup>Joseph stored up grain in great abundance like the sand of the sea, until he stopped measuring it, for it was beyond measure.

The Sons of Joseph

<sup>50</sup>Now before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.

<sup>51</sup>Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh; “For,” he said, “God has made me forget all my trouble and all of my father’s household.”

<sup>52</sup>And he named the second Ephraim; “For,” he said, “God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

<sup>53</sup>When the seven years of plenty which had taken place in the land of Egypt came to an end,

<sup>54</sup>and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said, then there was famine in all the lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

<sup>55</sup>So when all the land of Egypt suffered famine, the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, you shall do.”

<sup>56</sup>When the famine was spread over the entire face of the earth, then Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians; and the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

<sup>57</sup>Then the people of all the earth came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Sent to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you staring at one another?"

<sup>2</sup>Then he said, "Look, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy some for us from that place, so that we may live and not die."

<sup>4</sup>But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, "I am afraid that harm may happen to him."

<sup>5</sup>So the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who were coming, because the famine was also in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup>Now Joseph was the ruler over the land; he was the one who sold grain to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke to them harshly. He said to them, "Where have you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

<sup>9</sup>And Joseph remembered the dreams which he had about them, and he said to them, "You are spies; you have come to look at the undefended parts of our land."

<sup>10</sup>And they said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.

<sup>13</sup>But they said, “Your servants are twelve brothers in all, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no longer alive.”

<sup>14</sup>Yet Joseph said to them, “It is as I said to you, you are spies;

<sup>15</sup>by this you will be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here!

<sup>16</sup>Send one of you and have him get your brother, while you remain confined, so that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. But if not, by the life of Pharaoh, you are certainly spies!”

<sup>18</sup>Now Joseph said to them on the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear God:

<sup>19</sup>if you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in your prison; but as for the rest of you, go, carry grain for the famine of your households,

<sup>20</sup>and bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified, and you will not die.” And they did so.

<sup>21</sup>Then they said to one another, “Truly we are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen; for that reason this distress has happened to us.”

<sup>24</sup>Then he turned away from them and wept. But when he returned to them and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, but also to return every man's money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. And that is what was done for them.

<sup>28</sup>So he said to his brothers, "My money has been returned, and look, it is right in my sack!" Then their hearts sank, and they turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"

Simeon Is Held Hostage

<sup>29</sup>When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him everything that had happened to them, saying,

<sup>30</sup>"The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us, and took us for spies of the country.

<sup>31</sup>But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.

<sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no longer alive, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

<sup>33</sup>But the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me and take grain for the famine of your households, and go.

<sup>34</sup>But bring your youngest brother to me so that I may know that you are not spies, but honest men. I will give your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.'

<sup>35</sup>Now it came about, as they were emptying their sacks, that behold, every man's bag of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw their bags of money, they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup>And their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my sons: Joseph is gone, and Simeon is gone, and now you would take Benjamin; all these things are against me."

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my care, and I will return him to you."

<sup>38</sup>But Jacob said, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should happen to him on the journey you are taking, then you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow."

Genesis 43

The Return to Egypt

<sup>2</sup>So it came about, when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go back, buy us a little food."

<sup>4</sup>If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

<sup>5</sup>But if you do not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

<sup>6</sup>Then Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly, by telling the man whether you still had another brother?"

<sup>7</sup>But they said, "The man specifically asked about us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' So we answered his questions. Could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?”

<sup>8</sup>So Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy with me and we will arise and go, so that we may live and not die, we as well as you and our little ones.

<sup>9</sup>I myself will take responsibility for him! You may demand him back from me. If I do not bring him back to you and present him to you, then you can let me take the blame forever.

<sup>10</sup>For if we had not delayed, surely by now we could have returned twice.”

<sup>11</sup>Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man as a gift, a little balsam and a little honey, labdanum resin and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

<sup>14</sup>and may God Almighty grant you compassion in the sight of the man, so that he will release to you your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my sons, I am bereaved!”

<sup>15</sup>So the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand, and Benjamin; then they set out and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

Joseph Sees Benjamin

<sup>16</sup>When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his house steward, “Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make preparations; for the men are to dine with me at noon.”

<sup>17</sup>So the man did as Joseph said, and brought the men to Joseph’s house.

<sup>18</sup>Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, so that he may attack us and overpower us, and take us as slaves with our donkeys."

<sup>19</sup>So they approached Joseph's house steward, and spoke to him at the entrance of the house,

<sup>20</sup>and said, "Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food,

<sup>21</sup>and it happened when we came to the campsite, that we opened our sacks, and behold, each man's money was in the opening of his sack, our money in full. So we have brought it back in our hand.

<sup>22</sup>We have also brought down other money in our hand to buy food; we do not know who put our money in our sacks."

<sup>23</sup>But he said, "Peace be to you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; your money was in my possession." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup>Then the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.

<sup>25</sup>So they prepared the gift for Joseph's arrival at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat a meal there.

<sup>26</sup>When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the gift which was in their hand, and they bowed down to the ground before him.

<sup>27</sup>Then he asked them about their welfare, and said, "Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

<sup>28</sup>And they said, "Your servant our father is well; he is still alive." Then they bowed down again in homage.

<sup>29</sup>And as he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son."

<sup>30</sup>Joseph then hurried out, for he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he looked for a place to weep; so he entered his chamber and wept there.

<sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face and came out; and he controlled himself and said, “Serve the meal.”

<sup>32</sup>Then they served him by himself, and Joseph’s brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

<sup>33</sup>Now they were seated before him, from the firstborn according to his birthright to the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment.

<sup>34</sup>Then he took portions to them from his own table, but Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank freely with him.

Genesis 44

The Brothers Are Brought Back

<sup>1</sup>Then he commanded his house steward, saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the opening of his sack.

<sup>4</sup>They had just left the city, and were not far away, when Joseph said to his house steward, “Up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good?

<sup>7</sup>And they said to him, “Why does my lord say such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing!

<sup>8</sup>Behold, the money which we found in the opening of our sacks we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house?

<sup>9</sup>With whomever of your servants it is found, he shall die, and we also shall be my lord’s slaves.”

<sup>10</sup>So he said, “Now let it indeed be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, but the rest of you shall be considered innocent.”

<sup>13</sup>Then they tore their clothes in grief, and when each man had loaded his donkey, they returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup>When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph’s house, he was still there, and they fell down to the ground before him.

<sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, “What is this thing that you have done? Do you not know that a man who is like me can indeed practice divination?”

<sup>16</sup>So Judah said, “What can we say to my lord? What words can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the guilt of your servants; behold, we are my lord’s slaves, both we and the one in whose possession the cup has been found.”

<sup>17</sup>But he said, “Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose possession the cup has been found, he shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Judah approached him and said, “Oh my lord, may your servant please speak a word in my lord’s ears, and do not be angry with your servant; for you are equal to Pharaoh.

<sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘Have you a father or a brother?’

<sup>20</sup>And we said to my lord, ‘We have an old father and a little boy born in our father’s old age. Now his brother is dead, so he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.’

<sup>21</sup>Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me so that I may set my eyes on him.’

<sup>22</sup>But we said to my lord, ‘The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’

<sup>23</sup>You said to your servants, however, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.’

<sup>24</sup>So it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

<sup>26</sup>But we said, ‘We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

<sup>27</sup>Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons;

<sup>28</sup>and the one left me, and I said, “Surely he is torn to pieces,” and I have not seen him since.

<sup>29</sup>If you also take this one from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.’

<sup>30</sup>So now, when I come to your servant, my father, and the boy is not with us—since our father’s life is so attached to the boy’s life—

<sup>31</sup>when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. So your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant, our father, down to Sheol in sorrow.

<sup>32</sup>For your servant accepted responsibility for the boy from my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then my father can let me take the blame forever.’

<sup>33</sup>So now, please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers.

<sup>34</sup>For how shall I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear that I may see the evil that would overtake my father.”

Genesis 45

Joseph Deals Kindly with His Brothers

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph could not control himself in front of everyone standing before him, and he shouted, “Have everyone leave me!” So there was no one with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

<sup>2</sup>Then he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard about it.

<sup>3</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” But his brothers could not answer him, for they were terrified in his presence.

<sup>4</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Please come closer to me.” And they came closer. And he said, “I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me ahead of you to save lives.

<sup>6</sup>For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.

<sup>7</sup>So God sent me ahead of you to ensure for you a remnant on the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance.

<sup>8</sup>Now, therefore, it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay.

<sup>10</sup>For you shall live in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your grandchildren, and your flocks and your herds and all that you have.

<sup>11</sup>There I will also provide for you, for there are still five years of famine to come, and you and your household and all that you have would be impoverished.”’

<sup>12</sup>Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that it is my mouth which is speaking to you.

<sup>13</sup>Now you must tell my father of all my splendor in Egypt, and all that you have seen; and you must hurry and bring my father down here.”

<sup>15</sup>And he kissed all his brothers and wept on them, and afterward his brothers talked with him.

<sup>17</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: load your livestock and go to the land of Canaan,

<sup>18</sup>and take your father and your households and come to me; and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.’

<sup>19</sup>Now you are ordered, ‘Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father and come.

<sup>20</sup>And do not concern yourselves with your property, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’ ”

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them wagons according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.

<sup>22</sup>To each of them he gave changes of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.

<sup>24</sup>So he sent his brothers away, and as they departed, he said to them, “Do not quarrel on the journey.”

<sup>26</sup>And they told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and indeed he is ruler over all the land of Egypt.” But he was stunned, for he did not believe them.

<sup>27</sup>When they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, then the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

<sup>28</sup>Then Israel said, “It is enough; my son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

Jacob Moves to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>So Israel set out with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, “Jacob, Jacob.” And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup>Then He said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.

<sup>4</sup>I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also assuredly bring you up again; and Joseph will close your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jacob left Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob and their little ones and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

<sup>6</sup>They also took their livestock and their possessions, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him:

<sup>7</sup>his sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

Those Who Came to Egypt

<sup>12</sup>And the sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). And the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>22</sup>These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; there were fourteen persons in all.

<sup>25</sup>These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, and she bore these to Jacob; there were seven persons in all.

<sup>26</sup>All the people belonging to Jacob, who came to Egypt, his direct descendants, not including the wives of Jacob's sons, were sixty-six persons in all,

<sup>27</sup>and the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two; all the people of the house of Jacob, who came to Egypt, were seventy.

<sup>28</sup>Now Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph, to guide him to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

<sup>29</sup>And Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; as soon as he appeared to him, Joseph threw himself on his neck and wept on his neck a long time.

<sup>30</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>But Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me;

<sup>32</sup>and the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.'

<sup>34</sup>you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock since our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' so that you may live in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

Genesis 47

Jacob's Family Settles in Goshen

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen."

<sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" So they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers."

<sup>4</sup>They also said to Pharaoh, "We have come to reside in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, therefore, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

<sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt is at your disposal; settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land, let them live in the land of Goshen; and if you know any capable men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock."

<sup>7</sup>Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and presented him to Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many years have you lived?”

<sup>9</sup>So Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The years of my living abroad are 130; few and unpleasant have been the years of my life, nor have they attained the years that my fathers lived during the days of their living abroad.”

<sup>11</sup>Now Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had ordered.

<sup>12</sup>Joseph also provided his father and his brothers and all his father’s household with food, according to the number of their little ones.

<sup>13</sup>Now there was no food in all the land, because the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

<sup>14</sup>And Joseph collected all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan in payment for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house.

<sup>15</sup>When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph saying, “Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money is gone.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Joseph said, “Give up your livestock, and I will give you food for your livestock, since your money is gone.”

<sup>17</sup>So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses and the flocks and the herds and the donkeys; and he fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

<sup>18</sup>But when that year ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord the fact that our money is all spent, and the livestock are my lord’s. There is nothing left for my lord except our bodies and our lands.

<sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be slaves to Pharaoh. So give us seed, so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate.”

Result of the Famine

<sup>20</sup>So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh’s.

<sup>21</sup>As for the people, he relocated them to the cities from one end of Egypt’s border to the other.

<sup>22</sup>Only the land of the priests he did not buy, because the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived off the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.

<sup>23</sup>Then Joseph said to the people, “Behold, today I have purchased you and your land for Pharaoh; now, here is seed for you, and you may sow the land.

<sup>24</sup>At the harvest you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own for seed of the field and for your food, and for those of your households and as food for your little ones.”

<sup>25</sup>So they said, “You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.”

<sup>26</sup>Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt, valid to this day, that Pharaoh was to have the fifth; only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.

<sup>27</sup>Now Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in Goshen, and they acquired property in it and were fruitful and became very numerous.

<sup>28</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt for seventeen years; so the length of Jacob’s life was 147 years.

<sup>29</sup>When the time for Israel to die drew near, he called his son Joseph and said to him, “Please, if I have found favor in your sight, place your hand under my thigh now and deal with me in kindness and faithfulness: please do not bury me in Egypt,

<sup>30</sup>but when I lie down with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” And he said, “I will do as you have said.”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Swear to me.” So he swore to him. Then Israel bowed in worship at the head of the bed.

Genesis 48

Israel's Last Days

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after these things that Joseph was told, “Behold, your father is sick.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him.

<sup>2</sup>When it was told to Jacob, “Behold, your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel collected his strength and sat up in the bed.

<sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me,

<sup>4</sup>and He said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and numerous, and I will make you a multitude of peoples, and will give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession.’

<sup>5</sup>Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are.

<sup>6</sup>But your children that you have fathered after them shall be yours; they shall be called by the names of their brothers in their inheritance.

<sup>7</sup>Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died, to my sorrow, in the land of Canaan on the journey, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).”

<sup>9</sup>And Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” So he said, “Bring them to me, please, so that I may bless them.”

<sup>10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were so dim from age that he could not see. And Joseph brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

<sup>11</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face, and behold, God has let me see your children as well!”

<sup>15</sup>And he blessed Joseph, and said, “The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, The God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day,

<sup>16</sup>The angel who has redeemed me from all evil, Bless the boys; And may my name live on in them, And the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; And may they grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know; he also will become a people and he also will be great. However, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations.”

<sup>20</sup>So he blessed them that day, saying, “By you Israel will pronounce blessing, saying, ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!’” And so he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and bring you back to the land of your fathers.

<sup>22</sup>And I give you one portion more than your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow.”

Genesis 49

Jacob’s Prophecy concerning His Sons

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob summoned his sons and said, “Assemble yourselves, so that I may tell you what will happen to you in the days to come.

<sup>4</sup>“Uncontrollable as water, you shall not have preeminence, Because you went up to your father’s bed; Then you defiled it—he went up to my couch.

<sup>6</sup>“May my soul not enter into their council; May my glory not be united with their assembly; For in their anger they killed men, And in their self-will they lamed oxen.

<sup>7</sup>“Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce; And their wrath, for it is cruel. I will scatter them in Jacob, And disperse them among Israel.

<sup>8</sup>“As for you, Judah, your brothers shall praise you; Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; Your father’s sons shall bow down to you.

<sup>9</sup>“Judah is a lion’s cub; From the prey, my son, you have gone up. He crouches, he lies down as a lion, And as a lion, who dares to stir him up?

<sup>15</sup>“When he saw that a resting place was good And that the land was pleasant, He bowed his shoulder to carry burdens, And became a slave at forced labor.

<sup>25</sup>From the God of your father who helps you, And by the Almighty who blesses you With blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that lies beneath, Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.

<sup>26</sup>“The blessings of your father Have surpassed the blessings of my ancestors Up to the furthest boundary of the everlasting hills; May they be on the head of Joseph, And on the top of the head of the one distinguished among his brothers.

<sup>27</sup>“Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; In the morning he devours the prey, And in the evening he divides the spoils.”

<sup>28</sup>All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them. He blessed them, every one with the blessing appropriate to him.

Jacob Dies

<sup>29</sup>Then he commanded them and said to them, “I am about to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

<sup>32</sup>the field and the cave that is in it, purchased from the sons of Heth.”

<sup>33</sup>When Jacob finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50

Jacob Is Buried

<sup>3</sup>Now forty days were required for it, for such is the period required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

<sup>4</sup>When the days of mourning for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak to Pharaoh, saying,

<sup>5</sup>‘My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am about to die; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.” Now then, please let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

<sup>9</sup>Chariots with teams of horses also went up with him; and it was a very great company.

<sup>10</sup>When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they mourned there with a very great and sorrowful lamentation; and he observed seven days of mourning for his father.

<sup>11</sup>Now when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians.” Therefore it was named Abel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

Burial at Machpelah

<sup>12</sup>And so his sons did for him as he had commanded them;

<sup>13</sup>for his sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah opposite Mamre, which Abraham had bought along with the field as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

<sup>14</sup>And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

<sup>15</sup>When Joseph's brothers had seen that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong which we did to him!"

<sup>16</sup>So they sent instructions to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded us before he died, saying,

<sup>17</sup>"This is what you shall say to Joseph: "Please forgive, I beg you, the offense of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong." ' And now, please forgive the offense of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

<sup>18</sup>Then his brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants."

<sup>20</sup>As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about this present result, to keep many people alive.

<sup>21</sup>So therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones." So he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Death of Joseph

<sup>22</sup>Now Joseph stayed in Egypt, he and his father's household, and Joseph lived 110 years.

<sup>23</sup>Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim's sons; also the sons of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees.

<sup>24</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die, but God will assuredly take care of you and bring you up from this land to the land which He promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, “God will assuredly take care of you, and you shall carry my bones up from here.”

<sup>26</sup>So Joseph died at the age of 110 years; and they embalmed him and placed him in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Exodus 1

Israel Multiplies in Egypt

<sup>7</sup>But the sons of Israel were fruitful and increased greatly, and multiplied, and became exceedingly mighty, so that the land was filled with them.

<sup>9</sup>And he said to his people, “Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are too many and too mighty for us.

<sup>10</sup>Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, otherwise they will multiply, and in the event of war, they will also join those who hate us, and fight against us and depart from the land.”

<sup>11</sup>So they appointed taskmasters over them to oppress them with hard labor. And they built for Pharaoh storage cities, Pithom and Raamses.

<sup>12</sup>But the more they oppressed them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out, so that they dreaded the sons of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>and they made their lives bitter with hard labor in mortar and bricks and at all kinds of labor in the field, all their labors which they violently had them perform as slaves.

<sup>15</sup>Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah, and the other was named Puah;

<sup>16</sup>and he said, “When you are helping the Hebrew women to give birth and see them upon the birthstool, if it is a son, then you shall put him to death; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.”

<sup>17</sup>But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt had commanded them, but let the boys live.

<sup>18</sup>So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and let the boys live?”

<sup>22</sup>Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “Every son who is born, you are to throw into the Nile, but every daughter, you are to keep alive.”

Exodus 2

The Birth of Moses

<sup>2</sup>And the woman conceived and gave birth to a son; and when she saw that he was beautiful, she hid him for three months.

<sup>3</sup>But when she could no longer hide him, she got him a papyrus basket and covered it with tar and pitch. Then she put the child in it and set it among the reeds by the bank of the Nile.

<sup>6</sup>When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the boy was crying. And she had pity on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”

<sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call a woman for you who is nursing from the Hebrew women, so that she may nurse the child for you?”

<sup>8</sup>Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go ahead.” So the girl went and called the child’s mother.

<sup>9</sup>Then Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.

<sup>10</sup>And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter and he became her son. And she named him Moses, and said, “Because I drew him out of the water.”

<sup>11</sup>Now it came about in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his fellow Hebrews and looked at their hard labors; and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his fellow Hebrews.

<sup>12</sup>So he looked this way and that, and when he saw that there was no one around, he struck and killed the Egyptian, and hid his body in the sand.

<sup>13</sup>Now he went out the next day, and behold, two Hebrews were fighting with each other; and he said to the offender, “Why are you striking your companion?”

<sup>14</sup>But he said, “Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and said, “Surely the matter has become known!”

Moses Escapes to Midian

<sup>15</sup>When Pharaoh heard about this matter, he tried to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the presence of Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

<sup>16</sup>Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came to draw water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

<sup>17</sup>Then the shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and helped them and watered their flock.

<sup>18</sup>When they came to their father Reuel, he said, "Why have you come back so soon today?"

<sup>19</sup>They said, "An Egyptian saved us from the shepherds, and what is more, he even drew water for us and watered the flock."

<sup>20</sup>So he said to his daughters, "Where is he then? Why is it that you have left the man behind? Invite him to have something to eat."

<sup>22</sup>Then she gave birth to a son, and he named him Gershom, for he said, "I have been a stranger in a foreign land."

<sup>23</sup>Now it came about in the course of those many days that the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and their cry for help because of their bondage ascended to God.

Exodus 3

The Burning Bush

<sup>1</sup>Now Moses was pasturing the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

<sup>2</sup>Then the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, yet the bush was not being consumed.

<sup>3</sup>So Moses said, “I must turn aside and see this marvelous sight, why the bush is not burning up!”

<sup>4</sup>When the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>5</sup>Then He said, “Do not come near here; remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.”

<sup>6</sup>And He said, “I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Then Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said, “I have certainly seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their outcry because of their taskmasters, for I am aware of their sufferings.

<sup>8</sup>So I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>9</sup>And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me; furthermore, I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them.

The Mission of Moses

<sup>10</sup>And now come, and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people, the sons of Israel, out of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup>And He said, “Assuredly I will be with you, and this shall be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God at this mountain.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses said to God, “Behold, I am going to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you.’ Now they may say to me, ‘What is His name?’ What shall I say to them?”

<sup>14</sup>And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM”; and He said, “This is what you shall say to the sons of Israel: ‘I AM has sent me to you.’ ”

<sup>15</sup>God furthermore said to Moses, “This is what you shall say to the sons of Israel: ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.’ This is My name forever, and this is the name for all generations to use to call upon Me.

<sup>16</sup>Go and gather the elders of Israel together and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob has appeared to me, saying, “I am indeed concerned about you and what has been done to you in Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>So I said, I will bring you up out of the oppression of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’

<sup>18</sup>Then they will pay attention to what you say; and you with the elders of Israel will come to the king of Egypt, and you will say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. So now, please let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’

<sup>20</sup>So I will reach out with My hand and strike Egypt with all My miracles which I shall do in the midst of it; and after that he will let you go.

<sup>21</sup>I will grant this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.

<sup>22</sup>But every woman shall ask her neighbor and the woman who lives in her house for articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; and you will put them on your sons and daughters. So you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4

Moses Given Signs

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses said, “What if they will not believe me or listen to what I say? For they may say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’ ”

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A staff.”

<sup>3</sup>Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So he threw it on the ground, and it turned into a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand and grasp it by its tail”—so he reached out with his hand and caught it, and it turned into a staff in his hand—

<sup>5</sup>“so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD furthermore said to him, “Now put your hand inside the fold of your robe.” So he put his hand inside the fold, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow.

<sup>7</sup>Then He said, “Put your hand inside the fold of your robe again.” So he put his hand into the fold again, and when he took it out of the fold, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh.

<sup>8</sup>“So if they will not believe you nor pay attention to the evidence of the first sign, they may believe the evidence of the last sign.

<sup>9</sup>But if they will not believe even these two signs nor pay attention to what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will turn into blood on the dry ground.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither recently nor in time past, nor since You have spoken to Your servant; for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

<sup>11</sup>But the LORD said to him, “Who has made the human mouth? Or who makes anyone unable to speak or deaf, or able to see or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

<sup>12</sup>Now then go, and I Myself will be with your mouth, and instruct you in what you are to say.”

<sup>13</sup>But he said, “Please, Lord, now send the message by whomever You will.”

Aaron to Be Moses’ Mouthpiece

<sup>14</sup>Then the anger of the LORD burned against Moses, and He said, “Is there not your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that he speaks fluently. And moreover, behold, he is coming out to meet you; when he sees you, he will be overjoyed.

<sup>15</sup>So you are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I Myself will be with your mouth and his mouth, and I will instruct you in what you are to do.

<sup>16</sup>He shall speak for you to the people; and he will be as a mouth for you and you will be as God to him.

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses departed and returned to his father-in-law Jethro, and said to him, “Please, let me go, that I may return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see if they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and his sons and mounted them on a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took the staff of God in his hand.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

<sup>22</sup>Then you shall say to Pharaoh, “This is what the LORD says: “Israel is My son, My firstborn.

<sup>23</sup>So I said to you, ‘Let My son go so that he may serve Me’; but you have refused to let him go. Behold, I am going to kill your son, your firstborn.” ’ ’

<sup>27</sup>Now the LORD said to Aaron, “Go to meet Moses in the wilderness.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

<sup>28</sup>Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which He had sent him, and all the signs that He had commanded him to do.

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the sons of Israel;

<sup>30</sup>and Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. He then performed the signs in the sight of the people.

<sup>31</sup>So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD was concerned about the sons of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, they bowed low and worshiped.

Exodus 5

Israel's Labor Increased

<sup>1</sup>And afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Let My people go so that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness.’ ”

<sup>2</sup>But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and besides, I will not let Israel go.”

<sup>3</sup>Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, otherwise He will strike us with plague or with the sword.”

<sup>7</sup>“You are no longer to give the people straw to make bricks as previously; have them go and gather straw for themselves.

<sup>8</sup>But you shall impose on them the quota of bricks which they were making before; you are not to reduce any of it. Because they are lazy, for that reason they cry out, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’

<sup>9</sup>Let the labor be heavier on the men, and have them work at it so that they will pay no attention to false words.”

<sup>10</sup>So the taskmasters of the people and their foremen went out and spoke to the people, saying, “This is what Pharaoh says: ‘I am not going to give you any straw.

<sup>11</sup>You go, get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it; but none of your labor will be reduced.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, the foremen of the sons of Israel, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and asked, “Why have you not completed your required task of making bricks either yesterday or today, as before?”

<sup>15</sup>Then the foremen of the sons of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, “Why do you deal this way with your servants?”

<sup>16</sup>There is no straw given to your servants, yet they keep saying to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And behold, your servants are being beaten; but it is the fault of your own people.”

<sup>17</sup>But he said, “You are lazy, very lazy; for that reason you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’

<sup>18</sup>So go now and work; for you will be given no straw, but you must deliver the quota of bricks.”

<sup>19</sup>The foremen of the sons of Israel saw that they were in trouble, since they were told, “You must not reduce your daily amount of bricks.”

<sup>21</sup>And they said to them, “May the LORD look upon you and judge you, because you have made us repulsive in Pharaoh’s sight and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us!”

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Lord, why have You brought harm to this people? Why did You ever send me?

<sup>23</sup>Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done harm to this people, and You have not rescued Your people at all.”

Exodus 6

God Promises Action

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for under compulsion he will let them go, and under compulsion he will drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup>God spoke further to Moses and said to him, “I am the LORD;

<sup>3</sup>and I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name, LORD, I did not make Myself known to them.

<sup>4</sup>I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they lived as strangers.

<sup>5</sup>Furthermore I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, because the Egyptians are holding them in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant.

<sup>6</sup>Say, therefore, to the sons of Israel, ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the labors of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you from their bondage. I will also redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments.

<sup>7</sup>Then I will take you as My people, and I will be your God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the labors of the Egyptians.

<sup>8</sup>I will bring you to the land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you as a possession; I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses said this to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses on account of their despondency and cruel bondage.

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup>But Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, “Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me; how then will Pharaoh listen to me, as I am unskilled in speech?”

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron and gave them a command concerning the sons of Israel and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

The Heads of Israel

<sup>14</sup>These are the heads of their fathers’ households. The sons of Reuben, Israel’s firstborn: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.

<sup>26</sup>It was the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their multitudes."

<sup>27</sup>They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing out the sons of Israel from Egypt; it was the same Moses and Aaron.

<sup>28</sup>Now it came about on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

<sup>29</sup>that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD; say to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you."

<sup>30</sup>But Moses said before the LORD, "Behold, I am unskilled in speech; how then will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus 7

I Will Extend My Hand

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you as God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.

<sup>2</sup>As for you, you shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh that he let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

<sup>3</sup>But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so that I may multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.

<sup>4</sup>When Pharaoh does not listen to you, I will lay My hand on Egypt and bring out My armies, My people the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt by great judgments.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I extend My hand over Egypt and bring out the sons of Israel from their midst."

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron did this; as the LORD commanded them, so they did.

Aaron's Staff Turns into a Serpent

<sup>8</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Work a miracle,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, so that it may turn into a serpent.’”

<sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and so they did, just as the LORD had commanded; and Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and his servants, and it turned into a serpent.

<sup>11</sup>Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers, and they too, the soothsayer priests of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts.

<sup>12</sup>For each one threw down his staff, and they turned into serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs.

<sup>13</sup>Yet Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Water Turned into Blood

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh's heart is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go.

<sup>15</sup>Go to Pharaoh in the morning just as he is going out to the water, and position yourself to meet him on the bank of the Nile; and you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a serpent.

<sup>16</sup>And you shall say to him, “The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you, saying, “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. But behold, you have not listened up to now.”

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD says: “By this you shall know that I am the LORD: behold, I am going to strike the water that is in the Nile with the staff that is in my hand, and it will be turned into blood.

<sup>18</sup>Then the fish that are in the Nile will die, the Nile will stink, and the Egyptians will no longer be able to drink water from the Nile.” ’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and extend your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, over their pools, and over all their reservoirs of water, so that they may become blood; and there will be blood through all the land of Egypt, both in containers of wood and in containers of stone.’ ”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded. And he lifted up the staff and struck the water that was in the Nile in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants; and all the water that was in the Nile was turned into blood.

<sup>21</sup>Then the fish that were in the Nile died, and the Nile stank, so that the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile. And the blood was through all the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>But the soothsayer priests of Egypt did the same with their secret arts; and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8

Frogs over the Land

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

<sup>2</sup>But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I am going to strike your entire territory with frogs.

<sup>3</sup>The Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your house, and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens and kneading bowls.

<sup>4</sup>So the frogs will come up on you, your people, and on all your servants.” ’ ”

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Extend your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>So Aaron extended his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>However, the soothsayer priests did the same with their secret arts, making frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Plead with the LORD to remove the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, so that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Pharaoh, “The honor is yours to tell me: when shall I plead for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, that they be left only in the Nile?”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, “Tomorrow.” So he said, “May it be according to your word, so that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had inflicted upon Pharaoh.

<sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Plague of Insects

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Extend your staff and strike the dust of the earth, so that it may turn into gnats through all the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>17</sup>They did so; and Aaron extended his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and there were gnats on every person and animal. All the dust of the earth turned into gnats through all the land of Egypt.

<sup>18</sup>The soothsayer priests tried with their secret arts to produce gnats, but they could not; so there were gnats on every person and animal.

<sup>19</sup>Then the soothsayer priests said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he comes out to the water; and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

<sup>21</sup>For if you are not going to let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and on your servants and on your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they live.

<sup>22</sup>But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are living, so that no swarms of flies will be there, in order that you may know that I, the LORD, am in the midst of the land.

<sup>23</sup>I will put a division between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign will occur.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD did so. And thick swarms of flies entered the house of Pharaoh and the houses of his servants, and the land was laid waste because of the swarms of flies in all the land of Egypt.

<sup>25</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God within the land.”

<sup>26</sup>But Moses said, “It is not permissible for us to do so, because we will sacrifice to the LORD our God that which is an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice that which is an abomination to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?”

<sup>27</sup>We must go a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God, just as He commands us.”

<sup>28</sup>Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Plead for me.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said, “Behold, I am going to leave you, and I will plead with the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully again in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>32</sup>But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.

Exodus 9

Egyptian Livestock Die

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and speak to him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews says: “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

<sup>2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them,

<sup>3</sup>behold, the hand of the LORD will come with a very severe plague on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks.

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing will die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD set a definite time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but not one of the livestock of the sons of Israel died.

<sup>7</sup>And Pharaoh sent men, and they learned that, behold, not even one of the livestock of Israel was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

The Plague of Boils

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of soot from a kiln, and Moses shall toss it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>Then it will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will turn into boils breaking out with sores on every person and animal through all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>12</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews says: “Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

<sup>14</sup>For this time I am going to send all My plagues on you and your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup>For had I now put out My hand and struck you and your people with plague, you would then have been eliminated from the earth.

<sup>16</sup>But indeed, for this reason I have allowed you to remain, in order to show you My power and in order to proclaim My name throughout the earth.

The Plague of Hail

<sup>18</sup>Behold, about this time tomorrow, I will send a very heavy hail, such as has not been seen in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

<sup>19</sup>So now, send word, bring your livestock and whatever you have in the field to safety. Every person and animal that is found in the field and is not brought home, when the hail comes down on them, will die.” ’ ’

<sup>22</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand toward the sky, so that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt, on every person and animal, and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup>So Moses reached out with his staff toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

<sup>24</sup>So there was hail, and fire flashing intermittently in the midst of the hail, which was very heavy, such as had not occurred in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

<sup>25</sup>The hail struck everything that was in the field through all the land of Egypt, from people to animals; the hail also struck every plant of the field, and shattered every tree of the field.

<sup>27</sup>Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time; the LORD is the righteous one, and I and my people are the wicked ones.

<sup>28</sup>Plead with the LORD, for there has been enough of God’s thunder and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said to him, “As soon as I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease and there will no longer be hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s.

<sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup>(Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud.

<sup>34</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had stopped, he sinned again and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

<sup>35</sup>So Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Exodus 10

The Plague of Locusts

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, so that I may perform these signs of Mine among them,

<sup>2</sup>and that you may tell in the presence of your son, and of your grandson, how I made a mockery of the Egyptians and how I performed My signs among them, so that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews says: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

<sup>4</sup>For if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.

<sup>5</sup>And they will cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They will also eat the rest of what has survived—what is left to you from the hail—and they will eat every tree of yours which grows in the field.

<sup>6</sup>Then your houses will be filled with them, together with the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, something which neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day that they came upon the earth until this day.’” And he turned and left Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup>Then Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is destroyed?”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God! Who specifically are the ones who are going?”

<sup>9</sup>Moses said, “We shall go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we shall go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “So may the LORD be with you, when I let you and your little ones go! Watch out, for evil is on your mind!

<sup>11</sup>Not so! Go now, but only the men among you, and serve the LORD, since that is what you desire.” So they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat every plant of the land, everything that the hail has left.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses reached out with his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD directed an east wind on the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

<sup>14</sup>The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt; they were very numerous. There had never been so many locusts, nor would there be so many again.

<sup>15</sup>For they covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Therefore nothing green was left on tree or plant of the field throughout the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron, and he said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

<sup>17</sup>So now, please forgive my sin only this once, and plead with the LORD your God, that He would only remove this death from me.”

<sup>20</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

Darkness over the Land

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand toward the sky, so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even a darkness which may be felt.”

<sup>22</sup>So Moses reached out with his hand toward the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.

<sup>24</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses, and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be left behind. Even your little ones may go with you.”

<sup>25</sup>But Moses said, “You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice them to the LORD our God.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore, our livestock too shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we shall take some of them to serve the LORD our God. And until we arrive there, we ourselves do not know with what we shall serve the LORD.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Be careful, do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you shall die!”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, “You have spoken correctly; I shall never see your face again!”

Exodus 11

The Last Plague

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses, “One more plague I will bring on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will assuredly drive you out from here completely.

<sup>2</sup>Speak now so that the people hear, that each man is to ask of his neighbor, and each woman of her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD says: 'About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,

<sup>6</sup>So there shall be a great cry in all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been before and such as shall never be again.

<sup>7</sup>But not even a dog will threaten any of the sons of Israel, nor anything from person to animal, so that you may learn how the LORD distinguishes between Egypt and Israel.'

<sup>8</sup>And all these servants of yours will come down to me and bow themselves before me, saying, 'Go out, you and all the people who follow you,' and after that I will go out." And he left Pharaoh in the heat of anger.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders will be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

<sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; yet the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12

The Passover Lamb

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,

<sup>2</sup>"This month shall be the beginning of months for you; it is to be the first month of the year for you.

<sup>3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, ‘On the tenth of this month they are, each one, to take a lamb for themselves, according to the fathers’ households, a lamb for each household.

<sup>4</sup>Now if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his neighbor nearest to his house are to take one according to the number of persons in them; in proportion to what each one should eat, you are to divide the lamb.

<sup>5</sup>Your lamb shall be an unblemished male a year old; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

<sup>6</sup>You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month, then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel is to slaughter it at twilight.

<sup>8</sup>They shall eat the flesh that same night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

<sup>9</sup>Do not eat any of it raw or boiled at all with water, but rather roasted with fire, both its head and its legs along with its entrails.

<sup>12</sup>For I will go through the land of Egypt on that night, and fatally strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the human firstborn to animals; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments—I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live; and when I see the blood I will pass over you, and no plague will come upon you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

Feast of Unleavened Bread

<sup>14</sup>“Now this day shall be a memorial to you, and you shall celebrate it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations you are to celebrate it as a permanent ordinance.

<sup>15</sup>For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, but on the first day you shall remove dough with yeast from your houses; for whoever eats anything with yeast from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

<sup>16</sup>And on the first day you shall have a holy assembly, and another holy assembly on the seventh day; no work at all shall be done on them, except for what must be eaten by every person—that alone may be prepared by you.

<sup>17</sup>You shall also keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your multitudes out of the land of Egypt; therefore you shall keep this day throughout your generations as a permanent ordinance.

<sup>18</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go and take for yourselves lambs according to your families, and slaughter the Passover lamb.

<sup>22</sup>And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood which is in the basin, and apply some of the blood that is in the basin to the lintel and the two doorposts; and none of you shall go outside the door of his house until morning.

A Memorial of Redemption

<sup>23</sup>For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; but when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall keep this event as an ordinance for you and your children forever.

<sup>25</sup>When you enter the land which the LORD will give you, as He has promised, you shall keep this rite.

<sup>27</sup>then you shall say, ‘It is a Passover sacrifice to the LORD because He passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians, but spared our homes.’” And the people bowed low and worshiped.

<sup>28</sup>Then the sons of Israel went and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

<sup>29</sup>Now it came about at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle.

<sup>30</sup>And Pharaoh got up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no home where there was not someone dead.

<sup>31</sup>Then he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, “Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the sons of Israel; and go, worship the LORD, as you have said.

<sup>32</sup>Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and bless me also.”

Exodus of Israel

<sup>33</sup>The Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in a hurry, for they said, “We will all be dead.”

<sup>35</sup>Now the sons of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, for they had requested from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing;

<sup>36</sup>and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have their request. Therefore they plundered the Egyptians.

<sup>38</sup>A mixed multitude also went up with them, along with flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock.

<sup>39</sup>And they baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into cakes of unleavened bread. For it had no yeast, since they were driven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.

<sup>40</sup>Now the time that the sons of Israel had lived in Egypt was 430 years.

<sup>41</sup>And at the end of 430 years, on this very day, all the multitudes of the LORD departed from the land of Egypt.

Ordinance of the Passover

<sup>42</sup>It is a night to be observed for the LORD, for having brought them out of the land of Egypt; this night is for the LORD, to be observed by all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.

<sup>43</sup>And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover: no foreigner is to eat it;

<sup>44</sup>but as for every slave that someone has purchased with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat it.

<sup>48</sup>But if a stranger resides with you and celebrates the Passover to the LORD, all of his males are to be circumcised, and then he shall come near to celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised male may eat it.

<sup>50</sup>Then all the sons of Israel did so; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

<sup>51</sup>And on that very day the LORD brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their multitudes.

Exodus 13

<sup>2</sup>“Sanctify to Me every firstborn, the firstborn of every womb among the sons of Israel, among people and animals alike; it belongs to Me.”

<sup>3</sup>And Moses said to the people, “Remember this day in which you departed from Egypt, from the house of slavery; for by a powerful hand the LORD brought you out from this place. And nothing with yeast shall be eaten.

<sup>5</sup>And it shall be when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall perform this rite in this month.

<sup>6</sup>For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and nothing with yeast shall be seen among you, nor shall any dough with yeast be seen among you in all your borders.

<sup>8</sup>And you shall tell your son on that day, saying, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

<sup>9</sup>And it shall serve as a sign to you on your hand, and as a reminder on your forehead, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a powerful hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>“Now when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you,

<sup>12</sup>you shall devote to the LORD every firstborn of a womb, and every firstborn offspring of an animal that you own; the males belong to the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>But every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and every firstborn among your sons you shall redeem.

<sup>14</sup>And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ then you shall say to him, ‘With a powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.

<sup>15</sup>And it came about, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD put to death every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human firstborns to animal firstborns. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD the males, every firstborn of a womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’

<sup>16</sup>So it shall serve as a sign on your hand and as phylacteries on your forehead, for with a powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

God Leads the People

<sup>17</sup>Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was near; for God said, “The people might change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore God led the people around by way of the wilderness to the Red Sea; and the sons of Israel went up in battle formation from the land of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying, “God will certainly take care of you, and you shall carry my bones from here with you.”

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD was going before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night.

<sup>22</sup>He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from the presence of the people.

Exodus 14

Pharaoh in Pursuit

<sup>2</sup>“Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you shall camp in front of Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea.

<sup>3</sup>For Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.’

<sup>4</sup>And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” And they did so.

<sup>5</sup>When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, “What is this that we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?”

<sup>6</sup>So he had horses harnessed to his chariot and took his people with him;

<sup>7</sup>and he took six hundred select chariots, and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

<sup>8</sup>So the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he chased after the sons of Israel as the sons of Israel were going out boldly.

<sup>10</sup>As Pharaoh approached, the sons of Israel looked, and behold, the Egyptians were coming after them, and they became very frightened; so the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Then they said to Moses, “Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this way, bringing us out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup>Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, ‘Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians’? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness!”

The Sea Is Divided

<sup>13</sup>But Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! Stand by and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will perform for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again, ever.

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward.

<sup>16</sup>As for you, lift up your staff and reach out with your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall go through the midst of the sea on dry land.

<sup>17</sup>And as for Me, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD, when I am honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots, and through his horsemen.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

<sup>20</sup>So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Therefore the one did not approach the other all night.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses reached out with his hand over the sea; and the LORD swept the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided.

<sup>25</sup>He caused their chariot wheels to swerve, and He made them drive with difficulty; so the Egyptians each said, “Let me flee from Israel, for the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Reach out with your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen.”

<sup>31</sup>When Israel saw the great power which the LORD had used against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

Exodus 15

The Song of Moses and Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to the LORD, saying: “I will sing to the LORD, for He is highly exalted; The horse and its rider He has hurled into the sea.

<sup>2</sup>“The LORD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation; This is my God, and I will praise Him; My father’s God, and I will exalt Him.

<sup>9</sup>“The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoils; I shall be satisfied against them; I will draw my sword, my hand will destroy them.’

<sup>10</sup>“You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>13</sup>“In Your faithfulness You have led the people whom You have redeemed; In Your strength You have guided them to Your holy habitation.

<sup>15</sup>“Then the chiefs of Edom were terrified; The leaders of Moab, trembling grips them; All the inhabitants of Canaan have despaired.

<sup>16</sup>“Terror and dread fall upon them; By the greatness of Your arm they are motionless as stone, Until Your people pass over, LORD, Until the people pass over whom You have purchased.

<sup>17</sup>“You will bring them and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, The place, LORD, which You have made as Your dwelling, The sanctuary, Lord, which Your hands have established.

<sup>21</sup>And Miriam answered them, "Sing to the LORD, for He is highly exalted; The horse and his rider He has hurled into the sea."

The LORD Provides Water

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

<sup>23</sup>When they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, because they were bitter; for that reason it was named Marah.

<sup>25</sup>Then he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree; and he threw it into the waters, and the waters became sweet. There He made for them a statute and regulation, and there He tested them.

<sup>26</sup>And He said, "If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His sight, and listen to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have put on the Egyptians; for I, the LORD, am your healer."

<sup>27</sup>Then they came to Elim where there were twelve springs of water and seventy date palms, and they camped there beside the waters.

Exodus 16

The LORD Provides Manna

<sup>1</sup>Then they set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure from the land of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Israel said to them, “If only we had died by the LORD’s hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat, when we ate bread until we were full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this entire assembly with hunger!”

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, so that I may test them, whether or not they will walk in My instruction.

<sup>5</sup>On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, “At evening you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt;

<sup>7</sup>and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, for He hears your grumblings against the LORD; and what are we, that you grumble against us?”

The LORD Provides Meat

<sup>8</sup>And Moses said, “This will happen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and bread to the full in the morning; for the LORD hears your grumblings which you grumble against Him. And what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, ‘Come forward before the LORD, for He has heard your grumblings.’”

<sup>10</sup>And it came about, as Aaron spoke to the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“I have heard the grumblings of the sons of Israel; speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

<sup>13</sup>So it came about at evening that the quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

<sup>14</sup>When the layer of dew evaporated, behold, on the surface of the wilderness there was a fine flake-like thing, fine as the frost on the ground.

<sup>15</sup>When the sons of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.

<sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Everyone gather as much as he will eat; you shall take an omer apiece according to the number of people each of you has in his tent.’”

<sup>18</sup>When they measured it by the omer, the one who had gathered much did not have too much, and the one who had gathered little did not have too little; everyone gathered as much as he would eat.

<sup>21</sup>They gathered it morning by morning, everyone as much as he would eat; but when the sun became hot, it would melt.

The Sabbath

<sup>22</sup>Now on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,

<sup>23</sup>then he said to them, “This is what the LORD meant: Tomorrow is a Sabbath observance, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning.”

<sup>24</sup>So they put it aside until morning, as Moses had ordered, and it did not stink nor was there a maggot in it.

<sup>25</sup>Then Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

<sup>26</sup>Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none.”

<sup>27</sup>Yet it came about on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather, but they found none.

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My instructions?

<sup>29</sup>See, the LORD has given you the Sabbath; for that reason He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Remain, everyone, in his place; no one is to leave his place on the seventh day.”

<sup>31</sup>And the house of Israel named the bread manna, and it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey.

<sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘A full omer of it is to be kept safe throughout your generations, so that they may see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’”

<sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel ate the manna for forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

Exodus 17

Water in the Rock

<sup>1</sup>Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed by stages from the wilderness of Sin, according to the command of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink.

<sup>2</sup>So the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water so that we may drink!” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

<sup>3</sup>But the people were thirsty for water there; and they grumbled against Moses and said, “Why is it that you have brought us up from Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?”

<sup>4</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “What am I to do with this people? A little more and they will stone me!”

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pass before the people and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

<sup>6</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Then he named the place Massah and Meribah because of the quarrel of the sons of Israel, and because they tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us, or not?”

Miraculous Battle against Amalek

<sup>8</sup>Then Amalek came and fought against Israel at Rephidim.

<sup>9</sup>So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us and go out, fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will station myself on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”

<sup>11</sup>So it came about, when Moses held his hand up, that Israel prevailed; but when he let his hand down, Amalek prevailed.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses’ hands were heavy. So they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other. So his hands were steady until the sun set.

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this in a book as a memorial and recite it to Joshua, that I will utterly wipe out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.”

<sup>15</sup>And Moses built an altar and named it The LORD is My Banner;

<sup>16</sup>and he said, “Because the LORD has sworn, the LORD will have war against Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18

Jethro, Moses’ Father-in-law

<sup>1</sup>Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses’ father-in-law, heard about everything that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>And Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took in Moses’ wife Zipporah, after he had sent her away,

<sup>4</sup>And the other was named Eliezer, for he said, “The God of my father was my help, and saved me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him; and they asked each other about their welfare, and went into the tent.

<sup>8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law everything that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, all the hardship that had confronted them on the journey, and how the LORD had rescued them.

<sup>9</sup>And Jethro rejoiced over all the goodness which the LORD had done for Israel, in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians.

<sup>10</sup>So Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

<sup>11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods; indeed, it was proven when they acted insolently against the people.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses’ father-in-law before God.

Jethro Counsels Moses

<sup>13</sup>And it came about the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood before Moses from the morning until the evening.

<sup>14</sup>Now when Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, “What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?”

<sup>15</sup>Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

<sup>16</sup>When they have a dispute, it comes to me, and I judge between someone and his neighbor and make known the statutes of God and His laws.”

<sup>17</sup>Moses’ father-in-law then said to him, “The thing that you are doing is not good.

<sup>18</sup>You will surely wear out, both yourself and these people who are with you, because the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone.

<sup>19</sup>Now listen to me: I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You be the people’s representative before God, and you bring the disputes to God, <sup>20</sup>then admonish them about the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they are to walk and the work they are to do.

<sup>21</sup>Furthermore, you shall select out of all the people able men who fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain; and you shall place these over them as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

<sup>22</sup>Let them judge the people at all times; and let it be that they will bring to you every major matter, but they will judge every minor matter themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will carry the burden with you.

<sup>23</sup>If you do this thing and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people also will go to their places in peace.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything that he had said.

<sup>25</sup>Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

<sup>26</sup>Then they judged the people at all times; they would bring the difficult matter to Moses, but they would judge every minor matter themselves.

<sup>27</sup>Then Moses said goodbye to his father-in-law, and Jethro went his way to his own land.

Exodus 19

Moses on Sinai

<sup>1</sup>In the third month after the sons of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>2</sup>When they set out from Rephidim, they came to the wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped in front of the mountain.

<sup>3</sup>And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “This is what you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the sons of Israel:

<sup>4</sup>“You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to Myself.

<sup>5</sup>Now then, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My own possession among all the peoples, for all the earth is Mine;

<sup>6</sup>and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>So Moses came and called the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>8</sup>Then all the people answered together and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do!” And Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also trust in you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD also said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and have them wash their garments;

<sup>11</sup>and have them ready for the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

<sup>12</sup>But you shall set boundaries for the people all around, saying, ‘Beware that you do not go up on the mountain or touch the border of it; whoever touches the mountain shall certainly be put to death.

<sup>15</sup>He also said to the people, “Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman.”

<sup>16</sup>So it came about on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunder and lightning flashes and a thick cloud over the mountain and a very loud trumpet sound, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled.

<sup>17</sup>And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

The LORD Visits Sinai

<sup>18</sup>Now Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the entire mountain quaked violently.

<sup>19</sup>When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him with thunder.

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses: “Go down, warn the people, so that they do not break through to the LORD to stare, and many of them perish.

<sup>22</sup>Also have the priests who approach the LORD consecrate themselves, or else the LORD will break out against them.”

<sup>23</sup>And Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You warned us, saying, ‘Set boundaries around the mountain and consecrate it.’”

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “Go down and come up again, you and Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, or He will break out against them.”

<sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20

The Ten Commandments

<sup>4</sup>“You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth.

<sup>5</sup>You shall not worship them nor serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, inflicting the punishment of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me,

<sup>6</sup>but showing favor to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

<sup>7</sup>“You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain.

<sup>9</sup>For six days you shall labor and do all your work,

<sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath of the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male slave or your female slave, or your cattle, or your resident who stays with you.

<sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and everything that is in them, and He rested on the seventh day; for that reason the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

<sup>12</sup>“Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be prolonged on the land which the LORD your God gives you.

<sup>17</sup>“You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his male slave, or his female slave, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

<sup>18</sup>And all the people were watching and hearing the thunder and the lightning flashes, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it all, they trembled and stood at a distance.

<sup>19</sup>Then they said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen; but do not have God speak to us, or we will die!”

<sup>20</sup>However, Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him may remain with you, so that you will not sin.”

<sup>21</sup>So the people stood at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “This is what you shall say to the sons of Israel: ‘You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven.

<sup>23</sup>You shall not make other gods besides Me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make for yourselves.

<sup>24</sup>You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

<sup>25</sup>And if you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build it of cut stones, for if you wield your chisel on it, you will profane it.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, so that your nakedness will not be exposed on it.'

Exodus 21

Ordinances for the People

<sup>2</sup>"If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve for six years; but on the seventh he shall leave as a free man without a payment to you.

<sup>3</sup>If he comes alone, he shall leave alone; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall leave with him.

<sup>5</sup>But if the slave plainly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not leave as a free man,'

<sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to God, then he shall bring him to the door or the doorpost. And his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him permanently.

<sup>7</sup>"Now if a man sells his daughter as a female slave, she is not to go free as the male slaves do.

<sup>8</sup>If she is displeasing in the eyes of her master who designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He does not have authority to sell her to a foreign people, because of his unfairness to her.

<sup>9</sup>And if he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.

<sup>10</sup>If he takes to himself another woman, he may not reduce her food, her clothing, or her conjugal rights.

<sup>11</sup>But if he will not do these three things for her, then she shall go free for nothing, without payment of money.

Personal Injuries

<sup>12</sup>“He who strikes someone so that he dies shall certainly be put to death.

<sup>13</sup>Yet if he did not lie in wait for him, but God caused him to fall into his hand, then I will appoint you a place to which he may flee.

<sup>14</sup>If, however, someone is enraged against his neighbor, so as to kill him in a cunning way, you are to take him even from My altar, to be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>“Now if people have a quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or with a fist, and he does not die but is confined to bed,

<sup>19</sup>if he gets up and walks around outside on his staff, then he who struck him shall go unpunished; he shall only pay for his loss of time, and shall pay for his care until he is completely healed.

<sup>21</sup>If, however, the slave survives a day or two, no vengeance shall be taken; for the slave is his property.

<sup>22</sup>“Now if people struggle with each other and strike a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, but there is no injury, the guilty person shall certainly be fined as the woman’s husband may demand of him, and he shall pay as the judges decide.

<sup>23</sup>But if there is any further injury, then you shall appoint as a penalty life for life,

<sup>27</sup>And if he knocks out a tooth of his male or female slave, he shall let the slave go free on account of the tooth.

<sup>28</sup>“Now if an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall certainly be stoned and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall go unpunished.

<sup>29</sup>If, however, an ox was previously in the habit of goring and its owner has been warned, yet he does not confine it and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.

<sup>30</sup>If a ransom is demanded of him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is demanded of him.

<sup>31</sup>Whether it gores a son or a daughter, it shall be done to him according to the same rule.

<sup>32</sup>If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner shall give his or her master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

Property Rights

<sup>33</sup>“Now if someone opens a pit, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

<sup>34</sup>the owner of the pit shall make restitution; he shall give money to its owner, and the dead animal shall become his.

<sup>35</sup>“And if someone’s ox injures another’s ox so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its proceeds equally; and they shall also divide the dead ox.

<sup>36</sup>Or if it is known that the ox was previously in the habit of goring, yet its owner has not confined it, he must make restitution of ox for ox, and the dead animal shall become his.

Exodus 22

Property Rights

<sup>1</sup>“If someone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall pay five oxen for the ox and four sheep for the sheep—

<sup>2</sup>If the thief is caught while breaking in and is struck so that he dies, there will be no guilt for bloodshed on his account.

<sup>3</sup>If the sun has risen on him, there will be guilt for bloodshed on his account—A thief shall certainly make restitution; if he owns nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

<sup>4</sup>If what he stole is actually found alive in his possession, whether an ox or a donkey or a sheep, he shall pay double.

<sup>5</sup>“If someone lets a field or vineyard be grazed bare and lets his animal loose so that it grazes in another person’s field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

<sup>6</sup>“If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, and stacked grain or the standing grain or the field itself is consumed, the one who started the fire must make restitution.

<sup>7</sup>“If someone gives his neighbor money or goods to keep for him and it is stolen from the neighbor’s house, if the thief is caught, then the thief shall pay double.

<sup>9</sup>For every breach of trust, whether it is for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any lost thing about which one says, ‘This is it,’ the case of both parties shall come before the judges; he whom the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.

<sup>10</sup>“If someone gives his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep for him, and it dies or is injured or is driven away while no one is looking,

<sup>11</sup>an oath before the LORD shall be taken by the two of them that he has not laid a hand on his neighbor’s property; and its owner shall accept it, and he shall not be compelled to make restitution.

<sup>12</sup>But if it is actually stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner.

<sup>13</sup>If it is all torn to pieces, have him bring it as evidence; he shall not be compelled to make restitution for what has been torn to pieces.

<sup>14</sup>“And if someone borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not with it, he shall make full restitution.

<sup>15</sup>If its owner is with it, the borrower shall not be compelled to make restitution. If it is hired, it came by its hire.

Various Laws

<sup>16</sup>“If a man seduces a virgin who is not betrothed and sleeps with her, he must pay a dowry for her to be his wife.

<sup>21</sup>“You shall not oppress a stranger nor torment him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

<sup>23</sup>If you oppress him at all, and if he does cry out to Me, I will assuredly hear his cry;

<sup>24</sup>and My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

<sup>25</sup>“If you lend money to My people, to the poor among you, you are not to act as a creditor to him; you shall not charge him interest.

<sup>26</sup>If you ever seize your neighbor’s cloak as a pledge, you are to return it to him before the sun sets,

<sup>27</sup>for that is his only covering; it is his cloak for his body. What else is he to sleep in? And it will come about that when he cries out to Me, I will listen to him, for I am gracious.

<sup>29</sup>“You shall not hold back the offering from your entire harvest and your wine. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

<sup>30</sup>You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep. It shall be with its mother for seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

<sup>31</sup>“You shall be holy people to Me, therefore you shall not eat any flesh torn to pieces in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23

Various Laws

<sup>1</sup>“You shall not give a false report; do not join your hand with a wicked person to be a malicious witness.

<sup>2</sup>You shall not follow the crowd in doing evil, nor shall you testify in a dispute so as to join together with a crowd in order to pervert justice;

<sup>8</sup>“You shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and subverts the cause of the just.

<sup>9</sup>“You shall not oppress a stranger, since you yourselves know the feelings of a stranger, for you also were strangers in the land of Egypt.

The Sabbath and the Land

<sup>10</sup>“Now you shall sow your land for six years and gather in its yield,

<sup>11</sup>but in the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie uncultivated, so that the needy of your people may eat; and whatever they leave the animal of the field may eat. You are to do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

<sup>12</sup>“For six days you are to do your work, but on the seventh day you shall cease from labor so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave, as well as the stranger residing with you, may refresh themselves.

<sup>13</sup>Now concerning everything which I have said to you, be careful; and do not mention the name of other gods, nor let them be heard from your mouth.

Three National Feasts

<sup>14</sup>“Three times a year you shall celebrate a feast to Me.

<sup>15</sup>You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt. And no one is to appear before Me empty-handed.

<sup>16</sup>Also you shall keep the Feast of the Harvest of the first fruits of your labors from what you sow in the field; also the Feast of the Ingathering at the end of the year when you gather in the fruit of your labors from the field.

<sup>18</sup>“You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor is the fat of My feast to remain overnight until morning.

<sup>19</sup>“You shall bring the choice first fruits of your soil into the house of the LORD your God. “You are not to boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.

Conquest of the Land

<sup>20</sup>“Behold, I am going to send an angel before you to guard you along the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

<sup>21</sup>Be attentive to him and obey his voice; do not be rebellious toward him, for he will not pardon your rebellion, since My name is in him.

<sup>22</sup>But if you truly obey his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

<sup>23</sup>For My angel will go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I will completely destroy them.

<sup>25</sup>And you shall serve the LORD your God, and He will bless your bread and your water; and I will remove sickness from your midst.

<sup>26</sup>There will be no one miscarrying or unable to have children in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

<sup>27</sup>I will send My terror ahead of you, and throw into confusion all the people among whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

<sup>28</sup>And I will send hornets ahead of you so that they will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from you.

<sup>29</sup>I will not drive them out from you in a single year, so that the land will not become desolate and the animals of the field become too numerous for you.

<sup>30</sup>I will drive them out from you little by little, until you become fruitful and take possession of the land.

<sup>31</sup>I will set your boundary from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates River; for I will hand over the inhabitants of the land to you, and you will drive them out from you.

<sup>33</sup>They shall not live in your land, otherwise they will make you sin against Me; for if you serve their gods, it is certain to be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24

People Affirm Their Covenant with God

<sup>1</sup>Then He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship at a distance.

<sup>2</sup>Moses alone, however, shall approach the LORD, but they shall not approach, nor shall the people come up with him.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses came and reported to the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do!”

<sup>4</sup>And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Then he got up early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain with twelve memorial stones for the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and the other half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

<sup>7</sup>Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it as the people listened; and they said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient!”

<sup>8</sup>So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, “Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,

<sup>10</sup>and they saw the God of Israel; and under His feet there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself.

<sup>11</sup>Yet He did not reach out with His hand against the nobles of the sons of Israel; and they saw God, and they ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and stay there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the Law and the commandments which I have written for their instruction.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses got up along with Joshua his servant, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.

<sup>14</sup>But to the elders he said, “Wait here for us until we return to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a legal matter, have him approach them.”

<sup>16</sup>The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; and on the seventh day He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud.

<sup>17</sup>And to the eyes of the sons of Israel, the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top.

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses entered the midst of the cloud as he went up to the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25

Offerings for the Sanctuary

<sup>2</sup>“Tell the sons of Israel to take a contribution for Me; from everyone whose heart moves him you shall take My contribution.

<sup>9</sup>According to all that I am going to show you as the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furniture, so you shall construct it.

Ark of the Covenant

10“Now they shall construct an ark of acacia wood two and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide, and one and a half cubits high.

11You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and you shall make a gold molding around it.

12You shall also cast four gold rings for it and fasten them on its four feet; two rings shall be on one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

13And you shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

14You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark with them.

15The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed from it.

16You shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

17“And you shall make an atoning cover of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.

18You shall make two cherubim of gold; make them of hammered work at the two ends of the atoning cover.

19Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim of one piece with the atoning cover at its two ends.

20And the cherubim shall have their wings spread upward, covering the atoning cover with their wings and facing one another; the faces of the cherubim are to be turned toward the atoning cover.

21Then you shall put the atoning cover on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony which I will give to you.

22There I will meet with you; and from above the atoning cover, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, I will speak to you about every commandment that I will give you for the sons of Israel.

Bread of the Presence

<sup>23</sup>“You shall also make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long and one cubit wide, and one and a half cubits high.

<sup>27</sup>The rings shall be close to the rim, as holders for the poles to carry the table.

<sup>28</sup>And you shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that with them the table may be carried.

<sup>29</sup>You shall also make its dishes, its pans, its jars, and its libation bowls with which to pour drink offerings; you shall make them of pure gold.

<sup>30</sup>And you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before Me continually.

The Golden Lampstand

<sup>31</sup>“Then you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand, its base and its shaft, are to be made of hammered work; its cups, its bulbs, and its flowers shall be of one piece with it.

<sup>32</sup>Six branches shall go out from its sides; three branches of the lampstand from its one side and three branches of the lampstand from its other side.

<sup>33</sup>Three cups shall be shaped like almond blossoms on the one branch, a bulb and a flower, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms on the other branch, a bulb and a flower—the same for six branches going out from the lampstand;

<sup>34</sup>and on the lampstand four cups shaped like almond blossoms, its bulbs and its flowers.

Curtains of Linen

<sup>3</sup>Five curtains shall be joined to one another, and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another.

<sup>5</sup>You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite each other.

<sup>6</sup>You shall also make fifty clasps of gold, and join the curtains to one another with the clasps so that the tabernacle will be a unit.

Curtains of Goats' Hair

<sup>7</sup>“Then you shall make curtains of goats' hair as a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains in all.

<sup>8</sup>The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall have the same measurements.

<sup>9</sup>You shall join five curtains by themselves and the other six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the front of the tent.

<sup>11</sup>“You shall also make fifty clasps of bronze, and you shall put the clasps into the loops and join the tent together so that it will be a unit.

Boards and Bases

<sup>15</sup>“Then you shall make the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing upright.

<sup>16</sup>Ten cubits shall be the length of each board and one and a half cubits the width of each board.

<sup>19</sup>You shall make forty bases of silver under the twenty boards, two bases under one board for its two tenons and two bases under another board for its two tenons;

<sup>20</sup>and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, twenty boards,

<sup>21</sup>and their forty bases of silver; two bases under one board and two bases under another board.

<sup>24</sup>They shall be double beneath, and together they shall be complete to its top to the first ring; this is how it shall be with both of them: they shall form the two corners.

<sup>25</sup>And there shall be eight boards with their bases of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under one board and two bases under another board.

<sup>26</sup>“Then you shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,

<sup>27</sup>and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle for the back side to the west.

<sup>30</sup>Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to its plan which you have been shown on the mountain.

The Veil and Curtain

<sup>31</sup>“You shall also make a veil of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim, the work of a skilled embroiderer.

<sup>32</sup>Then you shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, their hooks also of gold, on four bases of silver.

<sup>33</sup>You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, and bring in the ark of the testimony there within the veil; and the veil shall serve as a partition for you between the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.

<sup>36</sup>“You shall also make a curtain for the doorway of the tent of violet, purple, and scarlet material and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver.

<sup>37</sup>And you shall make five pillars of acacia for the curtain and overlay them with gold, their hooks also of gold; and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.

Exodus 27

The Bronze Altar

<sup>1</sup>“Now you shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square, and its height shall be three cubits.

<sup>2</sup>You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup>And you shall make its pails for removing its ashes, and its shovels, its basins, its forks, and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.

<sup>4</sup>You shall also make for it a grating, a netting of bronze, and on the netting you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

<sup>5</sup>And you shall put it under the ledge of the altar, so that the netting will reach halfway up the altar.

<sup>6</sup>You shall also make carrying poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood and overlay them with bronze.

<sup>7</sup>Its poles shall be inserted into the rings, so that the poles will be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried.

<sup>8</sup>You shall make it hollow with planks; as it was shown to you on the mountain, so they shall make it.

Courtyard of the Tabernacle

<sup>9</sup>“Now you shall make the courtyard of the tabernacle. On the south side there shall be hangings for the courtyard of fine twisted linen, a hundred cubits long for one side;

<sup>10</sup>and its pillars shall be twenty, with their twenty bases of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

<sup>20</sup>“And you shall command the sons of Israel that they bring you clear oil of beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually.

<sup>21</sup>In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD; it shall be a permanent statute throughout their generations for the sons of Israel.

Exodus 28

Garments of the Priests

<sup>1</sup>“Then bring forward to yourself your brother Aaron, and his sons with him, from among the sons of Israel, to serve as priest to Me—Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s sons.

<sup>2</sup>And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.

<sup>3</sup>You shall speak to all the skillful people whom I have endowed with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron’s garments to consecrate him, that he may serve as priest to Me.

<sup>4</sup>And these are the garments which they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a tunic of checkered work, a turban, and a sash. They shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that he may serve as priest to Me.

<sup>5</sup>They shall take the gold, the violet, the purple, the scarlet material, and the fine linen.

<sup>6</sup>“They shall also make the ephod of gold, of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, the work of the skilled embroiderer.

<sup>7</sup>It shall have two shoulder pieces joined to its two ends, so that it may be joined.

<sup>8</sup>The skillfully woven band of its overlay, which is on it, shall be like its workmanship, of the same material: of gold, of violet and purple and scarlet material and fine twisted linen.

<sup>9</sup>And you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup>six of their names on the one stone and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, according to their birth.

<sup>11</sup>As a jeweler engraves a signet, you shall engrave the two stones according to the names of the sons of Israel; you shall set them in filigree settings of gold.

<sup>14</sup>and two chains of pure gold; you shall make them of twisted cord work, and you shall put the corded chains on the filigree settings.

<sup>20</sup>and the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree.

<sup>21</sup>The stones shall be engraved according to the names of the sons of Israel: twelve, according to their names; they shall be like the engravings of a signet, each according to his name for the twelve tribes.

<sup>23</sup>And you shall make on the breastpiece two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall put the two cords of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>25</sup>You shall put the other two ends of the two cords on the two filigree settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front of it.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall make two rings of gold and place them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge of it, which is toward the inner side of the ephod.

<sup>28</sup>And they shall bind the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord, so that it will be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece will not come loose from the ephod.

<sup>29</sup>So Aaron shall carry the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment over his heart when he enters the Holy Place, as a memorial before the LORD continually.

<sup>30</sup>And you shall put in the breastpiece of judgment the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be over Aaron's heart when he goes in before the LORD; and Aaron shall carry the judgment of the sons of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

<sup>32</sup>There shall be an opening at its top in the middle of it; around its opening there shall be a binding of woven work, like the opening of a coat of mail, so that it will not be torn.

<sup>33</sup>You shall make on its hem pomegranates of violet, purple, and scarlet material all around on its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:

<sup>35</sup>It shall be on Aaron when he ministers; and its sound shall be heard when he enters and leaves the Holy Place before the LORD, so that he will not die.

<sup>37</sup>You shall fasten it on a violet cord, and it shall be on the turban; it shall be at the front of the turban.

<sup>38</sup>It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall take away the guilt of the holy things which the sons of Israel consecrate, regarding all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be accepted before the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>"And you shall weave the tunic of checkered work of fine linen, and shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of a weaver.

<sup>40</sup>“For Aaron’s sons you shall also make tunics; you shall also make sashes for them, and you shall make caps for them, for glory and for beauty.

<sup>41</sup>Then you shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him; and you shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, so that they may serve Me as priests.

<sup>42</sup>You shall make for them linen undergarments to cover their bare flesh; they shall reach from the waist even to the thighs.

<sup>43</sup>And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they enter the tent of meeting, or when they approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they do not incur guilt and die. It shall be a statute forever to him and to his descendants after him.

Exodus 29

Consecration of the Priests

<sup>1</sup>“Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them to serve as priests to Me: take one bull and two rams without blemish,

<sup>2</sup>and unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour.

<sup>3</sup>And you shall put them in one basket, and present them in the basket along with the bull and the two rams.

<sup>5</sup>And you shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod and the breastpiece, and wrap his waist with the skillfully woven band of the ephod;

<sup>6</sup>and you shall set the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban.

<sup>9</sup>And you shall wrap their waists with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and fit caps on them, and they shall have the priesthood by a permanent statute. So you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

The Sacrifices

<sup>12</sup>Then you shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and offer them up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>But the flesh of the bull and its hide and its refuse, you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

<sup>15</sup>“You shall also take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram;

<sup>16</sup>and you shall slaughter the ram and take its blood and sprinkle it around on the altar.

<sup>17</sup>Then you shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its pieces and its head.

<sup>18</sup>And you shall offer up in smoke the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD: it is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>Then you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons and on his sons' garments with him; so he and his garments shall be consecrated, as well as his sons and his sons' garments with him.

<sup>22</sup>"You shall also take the fat from the ram and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

<sup>24</sup>and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Then you shall take them from their hands, and offer them up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering for a soothing aroma before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>"Then you shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of ordination, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

<sup>27</sup>You shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution which was waved and which was offered from the ram of ordination, from the one which was for Aaron and from the one which was for his sons.

<sup>28</sup>It shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the sons of Israel, for it is a contribution; and it shall be a contribution from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their contribution to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, so that they may be anointed and ordained in them.

<sup>30</sup>For seven days the one of his sons who is priest in his place shall put them on when he enters the tent of meeting to minister in the Holy Place.

Food of the Priests

<sup>31</sup>“Now you shall take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place.

<sup>33</sup>So they shall eat those things by which atonement was made at their ordination and consecration; but a layman shall not eat them, because they are holy.

<sup>34</sup>And if any of the flesh of ordination or any of the bread remains until morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

<sup>35</sup>“So you shall do for Aaron and for his sons, according to all that I have commanded you; you shall ordain them for seven days.

<sup>36</sup>Each day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement, and you shall purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to consecrate it.

<sup>37</sup>For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it; then the altar shall be most holy, and whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

<sup>38</sup>“Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two one-year-old lambs each day, continuously.

<sup>39</sup>The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;

<sup>40</sup>and there shall be a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering with one lamb.

<sup>41</sup>The other lamb you shall offer at twilight, and shall offer with it the same grain offering and the same drink offering as in the morning, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>42</sup>It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the doorway of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.

<sup>43</sup>I will meet there with the sons of Israel, and it shall be consecrated by My glory.

<sup>44</sup>I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; I will also consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve as priests to Me.

<sup>45</sup>And I will dwell among the sons of Israel and will be their God.

<sup>46</sup>And they shall know that I am the LORD their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt, so that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30

The Altar of Incense

<sup>1</sup>“Now you shall make an altar as a place for burning incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

<sup>2</sup>Its length shall be a cubit, and its width a cubit; it shall be square, and its height shall be two cubits; its horns shall be of one piece with it.

<sup>3</sup>You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding all around for it.

<sup>4</sup>You shall also make two gold rings for it under its molding; you shall make them on its two sides—on opposite sides—and they shall be holders for poles with which to carry it.

<sup>6</sup>You shall put this altar in front of the veil that is near the ark of the testimony, in front of the atoning cover that is over the ark of the testimony, where I will meet with you.

<sup>7</sup>Aaron shall burn fragrant incense on it; he shall burn it every morning when he trims the lamps.

<sup>8</sup>And when Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense. There shall be perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup>You shall not offer any strange incense on this altar, or burnt offering, or meal offering; and you shall not pour out a drink offering on it.

<sup>10</sup>However, Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once a year; he shall make atonement on it with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once a year throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“When you take a census of the sons of Israel to count them, then each one of them shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you count them, so that there will be no plague among them when you count them.

<sup>14</sup>Everyone who is counted, from twenty years old and over, shall give the contribution to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>The rich shall not pay more, and the poor shall not pay less, than the half shekel, when you give the contribution to the LORD to make atonement for yourselves.

<sup>16</sup>And you shall take the atonement money from the sons of Israel and give it for the service of the tent of meeting, so that it may be a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“You shall also make a basin of bronze, with its base of bronze, for washing; and you shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.

<sup>20</sup>when they enter the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water, so that they do not die; or when they approach the altar to minister, by offering up in smoke a fire sacrifice to the LORD.

The Anointing Oil

<sup>24</sup>and of cassia 500, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a hin.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall anoint the tent of meeting with it, and the ark of the testimony,

<sup>27</sup>and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup>and the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand.

<sup>29</sup>You shall also consecrate them, so that they may be most holy; whatever touches them shall be holy.

<sup>30</sup>And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, so that they may serve as priests to Me.

<sup>31</sup>Furthermore, you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

<sup>32</sup>It shall not be poured on anyone’s body, nor shall you make any like it in the same proportions; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

<sup>33</sup>Whoever mixes any like it or whoever puts any of it on a layman shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

The Incense

<sup>34</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take for yourself spices—stacte, onycha, and galbanum, spices and pure frankincense; there shall be an equal part of each.

<sup>35</sup>You shall make incense from it all, a skillful mixture, the work of a perfumer, salted, pure, and holy.

<sup>36</sup>And you shall crush some of it very fine, and put part of it in front of the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you; it shall be most holy to you.

<sup>37</sup>And the incense which you shall make, you shall not make in the same proportions for yourselves; it shall be holy to you for the LORD.

<sup>38</sup>Whoever makes any like it, to use as perfume, shall be cut off from his people.”

Exodus 31

The Skilled Craftsmen

<sup>2</sup>“See, I have called by name Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>3</sup>And I have filled him with the Spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of craftsmanship,

- <sup>4</sup>to create artistic designs for work in gold, in silver, and in bronze,
- <sup>5</sup>and in the cutting of stones for settings, and in the carving of wood, so that he may work in all kinds of craftsmanship.
- <sup>6</sup>And behold, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all who are skillful I have put skill, so that they may make everything that I have commanded you:
- <sup>7</sup>the tent of meeting, the ark of testimony, the atoning cover that is on it, and all the furniture of the tent,
- <sup>8</sup>the table and its utensils, the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,
- <sup>9</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its stand,
- <sup>10</sup>the woven garments as well: the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, with which to carry out their priesthood;
- <sup>11</sup>the anointing oil also, and the fragrant incense for the Holy Place, they are to make them according to everything that I have commanded you.”

The Sign of the Sabbath

- <sup>12</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- <sup>13</sup>“Now as for you, speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You must keep My Sabbaths; for this is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, so that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.
- <sup>14</sup>Therefore you are to keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it must be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people.
- <sup>15</sup>For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death.
- <sup>16</sup>So the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to celebrate the Sabbath throughout their generations as a permanent covenant.’

<sup>17</sup>It is a sign between Me and the sons of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day He ceased from labor, and was refreshed.”

<sup>18</sup>When He had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

Exodus 32

The Golden Calf

<sup>1</sup>Now when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people assembled around Aaron and said to him, “Come, make us a god who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt—we do not know what happened to him.”

<sup>2</sup>Aaron said to them, “Tear off the gold rings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup>So all the people tore off the gold rings which were in their ears and brought them to Aaron.

<sup>4</sup>Then he took the gold from their hands, and fashioned it with an engraving tool and made it into a cast metal calf; and they said, “This is your god, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.”

<sup>5</sup>Now when Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of it; and Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup>So the next day they got up early and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and got up to engage in lewd behavior.

<sup>7</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have behaved corruptly.

<sup>8</sup>They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a cast metal calf, and have worshiped it and have sacrificed to it and said, ‘This is your god, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and behold, they are an obstinate people.

<sup>10</sup>So now leave Me alone, that My anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you a great nation.”

Moses’ Plea

<sup>11</sup>Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said, “LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people whom You have brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

<sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians talk, saying, ‘With evil motives He brought them out, to kill them on the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your burning anger and relent of doing harm to Your people.

<sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants to whom You swore by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD relented of the harm which He said He would do to His people.

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets which were written on both sides; they were written on one side and the other.

<sup>17</sup>Now when Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of war in the camp.”

<sup>18</sup>But he said, “It is not the sound of the cry of victory, Nor is it the sound of the cry of defeat; But I hear the sound of singing.”

Moses’ Anger

<sup>19</sup>And it came about, as soon as Moses approached the camp, that he saw the calf and the people dancing; and Moses' anger burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them to pieces at the foot of the mountain.

<sup>20</sup>Then he took the calf which they had made and completely burned it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it over the surface of the water and made the sons of Israel drink it.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought such a great sin upon them?"

<sup>22</sup>And Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil.

<sup>23</sup>For they said to me, 'Make a god for us who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt—we do not know what happened to him.'

<sup>24</sup>So I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them tear it off.' Then they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."

<sup>25</sup>Now when Moses saw that the people were out of control—for Aaron had let them get out of control to the point of being an object of ridicule among their enemies—

<sup>26</sup>Moses then stood at the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me!" And all the sons of Levi gathered together to him.

<sup>27</sup>And he said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: 'Every man of you put his sword on his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor.'"

<sup>28</sup>So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said, “Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for every man has been against his son and against his brother—in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today.”

<sup>30</sup>And on the next day Moses said to the people, “You yourselves have committed a great sin; and now I am going up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, this people has committed a great sin, and they have made a god of gold for themselves!

<sup>32</sup>But now, if You will forgive their sin, very well; but if not, please wipe me out from Your book which You have written!”

<sup>33</sup>However, the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will wipe him out of My book.

<sup>34</sup>But go now, lead the people where I told you. Behold, My angel shall go before you; nevertheless on the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD struck the people with a plague, because of what they did with the calf which Aaron had made.

Exodus 33

The Journey Resumed

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give it.’

<sup>2</sup>And I will send an angel before you and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>4</sup>When the people heard this sad word, they went into mourning, and none of them put on his jewelry.

<sup>5</sup>For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel, ‘You are an obstinate people; if I were to go up in your midst for just one moment, I would destroy you. So now, take off your jewelry that I may know what I shall do to you.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, a good distance from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp.

<sup>8</sup>And it came about, whenever Moses went out to the tent, that all the people would arise and stand, each at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses until he entered the tent.

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses returned to the camp, his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent.

Moses Intercedes

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people!’ But You Yourself have not let me know whom You will send with me. Moreover, You have said, ‘I have known you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.’ ”

<sup>13</sup>Now then, if I have found favor in Your sight in any way, please let me know Your ways so that I may know You, in order that I may find favor in Your sight. Consider too, that this nation is Your people.”

<sup>14</sup>And He said, “My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to Him, “If Your presence does not go with us, do not lead us up from here.

<sup>16</sup>For how then can it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we, I and Your people, may be distinguished from all the other people who are on the face of the earth?”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “I will also do this thing of which you have spoken; for you have found favor in My sight and I have known you by name.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses said, “Please, show me Your glory!”

<sup>19</sup>And He said, “I Myself will make all My goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion to whom I will show compassion.”

<sup>20</sup>He further said, “You cannot see My face, for mankind shall not see Me and live!”

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD said, “Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand there on the rock;

<sup>22</sup>and it will come about, while My glory is passing by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by.

<sup>23</sup>Then I will take My hand away and you shall see My back, but My face shall not be seen.”

Exodus 34

The Two Tablets Replaced

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses, “Cut out for yourself two stone tablets like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you smashed.

<sup>2</sup>So be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain.

<sup>3</sup>And no one is to come up with you, nor let anyone be seen anywhere on the mountain; even the flocks and the herds are not to graze in front of that mountain.”

<sup>4</sup>So he cut out two stone tablets like the former ones, and Moses got up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and he took the two stone tablets in his hand.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with him as he called upon the name of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in faithfulness and truth;

<sup>7</sup>who keeps faithfulness for thousands, who forgives wrongdoing, violation of His Law, and sin; yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, inflicting the punishment of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.”

<sup>9</sup>Then he said, “If in any way I have found favor in Your sight, Lord, please may the Lord go along in our midst, even though the people are so obstinate, and pardon our wrongdoing and our sin, and take us as Your own possession.”

The Covenant Renewed

<sup>10</sup>Then God said, “Behold, I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform miracles which have not been produced in all the earth nor among any of the nations; and all the people among whom you live will see the working of the LORD, for it is a fearful thing that I am going to perform with you.

<sup>11</sup>“Be sure to comply with what I am commanding you this day: behold, I am going to drive out the Amorite from you, and the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>12</sup>Be careful that you do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land into which you are going, or it will become a snare in your midst.

<sup>13</sup>But rather, you are to tear down their altars and smash their memorial stones, and cut down their Asherim

<sup>14</sup>—for you shall not worship any other god, because the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God—

<sup>18</sup>“You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>“The firstborn from every womb belongs to Me, and all your male livestock, the firstborn from cattle and sheep.

<sup>23</sup>Three times a year all your males are to appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>For I will drive out nations from you and enlarge your borders, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>“You shall bring the very first of the first fruits of your soil into the house of the LORD your God. “You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

<sup>28</sup>So he was there with the LORD for forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread or drink water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Moses’ Face Shines

<sup>29</sup>And it came about, when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the testimony were in Moses’ hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him.

<sup>30</sup>So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to approach him.

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers in the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them.

<sup>32</sup>Afterward all the sons of Israel came near, and he commanded them to do everything that the LORD had spoken to him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>34</sup>But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded,

<sup>35</sup>the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

Exodus 35

The Sabbath Emphasized

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and said to them, "These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do:

<sup>2</sup>"For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy day, a Sabbath of complete rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

<sup>3</sup>You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

<sup>4</sup>Moses spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying,

<sup>5</sup>'Take from among you a contribution to the LORD; whoever is of a willing heart is to bring it as the LORD'S contribution: gold, silver, and bronze,

<sup>8</sup>and oil for lighting, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense, <sup>9</sup>and onyx stones and setting stones for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Tabernacle Artisans

<sup>10</sup>'Have every skillful person among you come and make all that the LORD has commanded:

<sup>11</sup>the tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

<sup>12</sup>the ark and its poles, the atoning cover, and the covering curtain;

<sup>14</sup>the lampstand also for the light and its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light;

<sup>15</sup>and the altar of incense and its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the doorway at the entrance of the tabernacle;

<sup>17</sup>the hangings of the courtyard, its pillars and its bases, and the curtain for the gate of the courtyard;

<sup>18</sup>the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the courtyard and their ropes;

<sup>19</sup>the woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to serve as priests.’ ”

Gifts Received

<sup>20</sup>Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from Moses’ presence.

<sup>21</sup>And everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit moved him came and brought the LORD’S contribution for the work of the tent of meeting and for all its service, and for the holy garments.

<sup>22</sup>Then all whose hearts moved them, both men and women, came and brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and bracelets, all articles of gold; so did everyone who presented an offering of gold to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>Everyone who was in possession of violet, purple, or scarlet material or fine linen or goats’ hair, or rams’ skins dyed red or fine leather, brought them.

<sup>24</sup>Everyone who could make a contribution of silver and bronze brought the LORD's contribution; and everyone who was in possession of acacia wood for any work of the service brought it.

<sup>28</sup>and the spice and the oil for the light and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

<sup>29</sup>The Israelites, all the men and women, whose heart moved them to bring material for all the work, which the LORD had commanded through Moses to be done, brought a voluntary offering to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses said to the sons of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>31</sup>And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all craftsmanship;

<sup>32</sup>to create designs for working in gold, in silver, and in bronze,

<sup>33</sup>and in the cutting of stones for settings and in the carving of wood, so as to perform in every inventive work.

<sup>34</sup>He also has put in his heart to teach, both he and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

<sup>35</sup>He has filled them with skill to perform every work of an engraver, of a designer, and of an embroiderer, in violet, purple, and in scarlet material, and in fine linen, and of a weaver, as performers of every work and makers of designs.

Exodus 36

The Tabernacle Underwritten

<sup>1</sup>“Now Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skillful person in whom the LORD has put skill and understanding to know how to perform all the work in the construction of the sanctuary, shall perform in accordance with everything that the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>2</sup>Then Moses called Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skillful person in whom the LORD had put skill, everyone whose heart stirred him, to come to the work to perform it.

<sup>3</sup>They received from Moses every contribution which the sons of Israel had brought to perform the work in the construction of the sanctuary. And they still continued bringing to him voluntary offerings every morning.

<sup>4</sup>And all the skillful people who were performing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work which they were performing,

<sup>5</sup>and they said to Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for the construction work which the LORD commanded us to perform.”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses issued a command, and circulated a proclamation throughout the camp, saying, “No man or woman is to perform work any longer for the contributions of the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing any more.

<sup>7</sup>For the material they had was sufficient and more than enough for all the work, to perform it.

Construction Begins

<sup>8</sup>All the skillful people among those who were performing the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twisted linen and violet, purple, and scarlet material, with cherubim, the work of a skilled embroiderer, Bezalel made them.

<sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains had the same measurements.

<sup>10</sup>He joined five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one another.

<sup>11</sup>And he made loops of violet on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set; he did likewise on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second set.

<sup>12</sup>He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite each other.

<sup>13</sup>He also made fifty clasps of gold, and joined the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle was a unit.

<sup>14</sup>Then he made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains in all.

<sup>15</sup>The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the width of each curtain; the eleven curtains had the same measurements.

<sup>16</sup>He joined five curtains by themselves, and the other six curtains by themselves.

<sup>17</sup>Moreover, he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the first set, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second set.

<sup>18</sup>He also made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together so that it would be a unit.

<sup>23</sup>So he made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side;
<sup>24</sup>and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty boards; two bases under one board for its two tenons, and two bases under another board for its two tenons.

<sup>25</sup>Then for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards,

<sup>26</sup>and their forty bases of silver; two bases under one board, and two bases under another board.

<sup>27</sup>And for the back of the tabernacle, to the west, he made six boards.

<sup>29</sup>They were double beneath, and together they were complete to its top, to the first ring; he did this with both of them for the two corners.

<sup>30</sup>There were eight boards with their bases of silver, sixteen bases, two bases under every board.

<sup>31</sup>Then he made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle,

<sup>32</sup>and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the back side to the west.

<sup>33</sup>And he made the middle bar to pass through in the center of the boards from end to end.

<sup>34</sup>Then he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

<sup>35</sup>Moreover, he made the veil of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen; he made it with cherubim, the work of a skilled embroiderer.

<sup>37</sup>He also made a curtain for the doorway of the tent, of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver;

<sup>38</sup>and he made its five pillars with their hooks, and he overlaid their tops and their bands with gold; but their five bases were of bronze.

Exodus 37

Construction Continues

<sup>1</sup>Now Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; its length was two and a half cubits, its width one and a half cubits, and its height one and a half cubits;

<sup>2</sup>and he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a gold molding for it all around.

<sup>3</sup>He cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet; two rings on one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

<sup>10</sup>Then he made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, a cubit wide, and one and a half cubits high.

<sup>12</sup>And he made a rim for it of a hand width all around, and made a gold molding for its rim all around.

<sup>13</sup>He also cast four gold rings for it and put the rings on the four corners that were on its four legs.

<sup>14</sup>Close by the rim were the rings, the holders for the poles to carry the table.

<sup>16</sup>He also made the utensils which were on the table, its dishes, its pans, its libation bowls, and its jars, with which to pour out drink offerings, of pure gold.

<sup>17</sup>Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work, its base and its shaft; its cups, its bulbs, and its flowers were of one piece with it.

<sup>18</sup>There were six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand from the one side of it and three branches of the lampstand from the other side of it;

<sup>19</sup>three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a bulb and a flower on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a bulb and a flower on the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

<sup>20</sup>And on the lampstand there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, its bulbs and its flowers;

<sup>21</sup>and a bulb was under the first pair of branches coming out of it, and a bulb under the second pair of branches coming out of it, and a bulb under the third pair of branches coming out of it, for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

<sup>25</sup>Then he made the altar of incense of acacia wood: a cubit long and a cubit wide, square, and two cubits high; its horns were of one piece with it.

<sup>26</sup>And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns; and he made a gold molding for it all around.

<sup>27</sup>He also made two golden rings for it under its molding, on its two sides—on opposite sides—as holders for poles with which to carry it.

<sup>28</sup>And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>29</sup>Then he made the holy anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense of spices, the work of a perfumer.

Exodus 38

The Tabernacle Completed

<sup>1</sup>Then he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits wide, square, and three cubits high.

<sup>2</sup>And he made its horns on its four corners, its horns being of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup>He also made all the utensils of the altar, the pails, the shovels, the basins, the meat-forks, and the firepans; he made all its utensils of bronze.

<sup>4</sup>And he made for the altar a grating of bronze netting beneath, under its ledge, reaching halfway up.

<sup>5</sup>He also cast four rings on the four ends of the bronze grating as holders for the poles.

<sup>7</sup>Then he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

<sup>9</sup>Then he made the courtyard: for the south side the hangings of the courtyard were of fine twisted linen, a hundred cubits;

<sup>14</sup>The hangings for the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three bases, <sup>15</sup>and so for the other side. On both sides of the gate of the courtyard were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three bases.

<sup>17</sup>And the bases for the pillars were of bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands, of silver; and the overlaying of their tops, of silver, and all the pillars of the courtyard were furnished with silver bands.

<sup>18</sup>Now the curtain of the gate of the courtyard was the work of the weaver, of violet, purple, and scarlet material and fine twisted linen. And the length was twenty cubits and the height was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the courtyard.

The Cost of the Tabernacle

<sup>21</sup>This is the number of the things for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, as they were counted according to the command of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>22</sup>Now Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>23</sup>With him was Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skilled embroiderer, and a weaver in violet, in purple, and in scarlet material, and fine linen.

<sup>24</sup>All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary, which was the gold of the wave offering, was twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

<sup>25</sup>And the silver of those of the congregation who were counted was a hundred talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;

<sup>26</sup>a beka a head (that is, half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary), assessed to each one who passed over to those who were counted, from twenty years old and upward, for 603,550 men.

<sup>29</sup>And the bronze of the wave offering was seventy talents and 2,400 shekels.

<sup>30</sup>With it he made the bases to the doorway of the tent of meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the utensils of the altar,

<sup>31</sup>and the bases of the courtyard all around and the bases of the gate of the courtyard, and all the pegs of the tabernacle and all the pegs of the courtyard all around.

Exodus 39

The Priestly Garments

<sup>1</sup>Now from the violet, purple, and scarlet material they made finely woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place, as well as the holy garments which were for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>2</sup>He made the ephod of gold and of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen.

<sup>3</sup>Then they hammered out gold sheets and cut them into threads to be woven in with the violet, the purple, and the scarlet material, and the fine linen, the work of a skilled embroiderer.

<sup>5</sup>And the skillfully woven band of its overlay which was on it was like its workmanship, of the same material: of gold and of violet, purple, and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup>They also made the onyx stones, set in gold filigree settings; they were engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And he placed them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup>And he made the breastpiece, the work of a skilled embroiderer, like the workmanship of the ephod: of gold and of violet, purple, and scarlet material and fine twisted linen.

<sup>12</sup>and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

<sup>17</sup>Then they put the two gold cords in the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>18</sup>And they put the other two ends of the two cords on the two filigree settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

<sup>19</sup>They made two gold rings and placed them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inner edge which was next to the ephod.

<sup>21</sup>And they bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord, so that it would be on the woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece would not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup>Then he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of violet;

<sup>24</sup>And they made pomegranates of violet, purple, and scarlet material and twisted linen on the hem of the robe.

<sup>25</sup>They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the hem of the robe,

<sup>27</sup>They also made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aaron and his sons,

<sup>28</sup>and the turban of fine linen, and the decorated caps of fine linen, and the linen undergarments of fine twisted linen,

<sup>29</sup>and the sash of fine twisted linen, and violet, purple, and scarlet material, the work of the weaver, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>They also made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and inscribed it like the engravings of a signet, "Holy to the LORD."

<sup>32</sup>So all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was completed; and the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

<sup>33</sup>Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

<sup>34</sup>and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of fine leather, and the covering curtain;

<sup>35</sup>the ark of the testimony, its poles, and the atoning cover;

<sup>37</sup>the pure gold lampstand, with its arrangement of lamps and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

<sup>38</sup>and the gold altar, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the doorway of the tent;

<sup>39</sup>the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the basin and its stand;

<sup>40</sup>the hangings for the courtyard, its pillars and its bases, and the curtain for the gate of the courtyard, its ropes and its pegs, and all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

<sup>41</sup>the woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to serve as priests.

<sup>42</sup>So the sons of Israel did all the work according to everything that the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>43</sup>And Moses examined all the work, and behold, they had done it; just as the LORD had commanded, this they had done. So Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40

The Tabernacle Erected

<sup>2</sup>“On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

<sup>3</sup>You shall place the ark of the testimony there, and you shall screen off the ark with the veil.

<sup>5</sup>You shall also set the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the testimony, and set up the curtain for the doorway to the tabernacle.

<sup>6</sup>And you shall set the altar of burnt offering in front of the doorway of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

<sup>7</sup>Then you shall set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

<sup>8</sup>You shall also set up the courtyard all around and hang up the curtain for the gate of the courtyard.

<sup>9</sup>Then you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furnishings; and it shall be holy.

<sup>10</sup>You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, and the altar shall be most holy.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall put the holy garments on Aaron and anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may serve as a priest to Me.

<sup>14</sup>You shall also bring his sons and put tunics on them;

<sup>15</sup>and you shall anoint them just as you have anointed their father, so that they may serve as priests to Me; and their anointing will qualify them for a permanent priesthood throughout their generations.”

<sup>16</sup>So Moses did these things; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

<sup>17</sup>Now in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was erected.

<sup>18</sup>Moses erected the tabernacle and laid its bases, and set up its boards, and inserted its bars, and erected its pillars.

<sup>19</sup>And he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>20</sup>Then he took the testimony and put it into the ark, and attached the poles to the ark, and put the atoning cover on top of the ark.

<sup>21</sup>He then brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up a veil for the covering, and screened off the ark of the testimony, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup>He also put the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil.

<sup>23</sup>And he set the arrangement of bread in order on it before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>24</sup>Then he placed the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle.

<sup>29</sup>And he set the altar of burnt offering in front of the doorway of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>He placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing.

<sup>32</sup>When they entered the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>33</sup>And he erected the courtyard all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the curtain for the gate of the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

The Glory of the LORD

<sup>34</sup>Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

<sup>35</sup>And Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup>Throughout their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the sons of Israel would set out;

<sup>37</sup>but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day when it was taken up.

<sup>38</sup>For throughout their journeys, the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel.

Leviticus 1

The Law of Burnt Offerings

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When anyone of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of livestock from the herd or the flock.

<sup>3</sup>If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without defect; he shall offer it at the doorway of the tent of meeting, so that he may be accepted before the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, so that it may be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf.

<sup>7</sup>And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

<sup>8</sup>Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, with the head and the suet, on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

<sup>9</sup>Its entrails, however, and its legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer all of it up in smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>‘But if his offering is from the flock, either from the sheep or from the goats, as a burnt offering, he shall offer a male without defect.

<sup>11</sup>And he shall slaughter it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

<sup>12</sup>He shall then cut it into its pieces with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar.

<sup>13</sup>The entrails, however, and the legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer all of it, and offer it up in smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>But if his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall bring his offering from the turtledoves or from young doves.

<sup>15</sup>The priest shall bring it to the altar, and pinch off its head, and offer it up in smoke on the altar; and its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar.

<sup>16</sup>He shall also remove its craw with its feathers and throw it beside the altar eastward, to the place of the fatty ashes.

<sup>17</sup>Then he shall tear it by its wings, but shall not sever it. And the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Leviticus 2

The Law of Grain Offerings

<sup>1</sup>Now when anyone presents a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it.

<sup>2</sup>He shall then bring it to Aaron's sons the priests; and he shall take from it his handful of its fine flour and of its oil, with all of its frankincense. And the priest shall offer it up in smoke as its memorial portion on the altar, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a most holy part of the offerings to the LORD by fire.

<sup>4</sup>Now when you bring an offering of a grain offering baked in an oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil.

<sup>5</sup>And if your offering is a grain offering made on the griddle, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil;

<sup>6</sup>you shall break it into bits and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup>Now if your offering is a grain offering made in a pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

<sup>8</sup>When you bring in the grain offering which is made of these things to the LORD, it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.

<sup>9</sup>The priest then shall take up from the grain offering its memorial portion, and shall offer it up in smoke on the altar as an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a most holy part of the offerings to the LORD by fire.

<sup>11</sup>No grain offering, which you bring to the LORD, shall be made with leaven, for you shall not offer up in smoke any leaven or any honey as an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>As an offering of first fruits you shall bring them to the LORD, but they shall not ascend as a soothing aroma on the altar.

<sup>13</sup>Every grain offering of yours, moreover, you shall season with salt, so that the salt of the covenant of your God will not be lacking from your grain offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>14</sup>Also if you bring a grain offering of early ripened things to the LORD, you shall bring fresh heads of grain roasted in the fire, crushed grain of new growth, for the grain offering of your early ripened produce.

<sup>15</sup>You shall then put oil on it and place incense on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall offer up in smoke its memorial portion, part of its crushed grain and its oil with all its incense as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3

The Law of Peace Offerings

<sup>3</sup>From the sacrifice of the peace offerings he shall then present an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

<sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>5</sup>Then Aaron's sons shall offer it up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire; it is an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>But if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD is from the flock, he shall offer it, male or female, without defect.

<sup>7</sup>If he is going to offer a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

<sup>8</sup>and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

<sup>9</sup>From the sacrifice of peace offerings he shall then bring as an offering by fire to the LORD, its fat, the entire fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

<sup>10</sup>and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

<sup>11</sup>Then the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar as food, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Now if his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

<sup>14</sup>From it he shall present his offering as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

<sup>16</sup>The priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar as food, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma; all fat is the LORD'S.

<sup>17</sup>It is a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places: you shall not eat any fat or any blood.' ”

Leviticus 4

The Law of Sin Offerings

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a person sins unintentionally in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and commits any of them,

<sup>3</sup>if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then he is to offer to the LORD a bull without defect as a sin offering for his sin which he has committed.

<sup>5</sup>Then the anointed priest is to take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the tent of meeting,

<sup>7</sup>The priest shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense which is before the LORD in the tent of meeting; and all the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

<sup>8</sup>And he shall remove from it all the fat of the bull of the sin offering: the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat which is on the entrails,

<sup>9</sup>and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys

<sup>10</sup>(just as it is removed from the ox of the sacrifice of peace offerings); and the priest is to offer them up in smoke on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>11</sup>But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, along with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its refuse, <sup>12</sup>that is, all the rest of the bull, he is to bring out to a clean place outside the camp where the fatty ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the fatty ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

<sup>13</sup>Now if the entire congregation of Israel does wrong unintentionally and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they commit any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and they become guilty;

<sup>14</sup>when the sin which they have committed becomes known, then the assembly shall offer a bull of the herd as a sin offering and bring it in front of the tent of meeting.

<sup>16</sup>Then the anointed priest is to bring some of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting;

<sup>19</sup>And he shall remove all its fat from it and offer it up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>20</sup>He shall also do with the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering; he shall do the same with it. So the priest shall make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

<sup>21</sup>Then he is to bring the bull out to a place outside the camp and burn it just as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup>When a leader sins and unintentionally does any of the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and he becomes guilty, <sup>23</sup>if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without defect.

<sup>24</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the male goat and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

<sup>26</sup>And he shall offer all its fat up in smoke on the altar as in the case of the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his sin, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>27</sup>Now if anyone of the common people sins unintentionally by doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and becomes guilty, <sup>28</sup>if his sin which he has committed is made known to him, then he shall bring as his offering a goat, a female without defect, for his sin which he has committed.

<sup>29</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

<sup>30</sup>The priest shall then take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

<sup>31</sup>Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat was removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar as a soothing aroma to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>But if he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without defect.

<sup>33</sup>And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it as a sin offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering.

<sup>34</sup>And the priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

<sup>35</sup>Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offerings, and the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, on the offerings by fire to the LORD. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5

The Law of Guilt Offerings

<sup>1</sup>Now if a person sins after he hears a public order to testify when he is a witness, whether he has seen or otherwise known, if he does not tell it, then he will bear his punishment.

<sup>2</sup>Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether a carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean cattle, or a carcass of unclean swarming things, though it is hidden from him and he is unclean, then he will be guilty.

<sup>3</sup>Or if he touches human uncleanness, of whatever sort his uncleanness may be with which he becomes unclean, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know it, he will be guilty.

<sup>4</sup>Or if a person swears thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil or to do good, in whatever matter people speak thoughtlessly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know it, he will be guilty of one of these things.

<sup>5</sup>So it shall be when he becomes guilty of one of these things, that he shall confess that in which he has sinned.

<sup>6</sup>He shall also bring his guilt offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin.

<sup>7</sup>But if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD his guilt offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves or two young doves, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering.

<sup>8</sup>He shall bring them to the priest, who shall first offer that which is for the sin offering, and shall pinch off its head at the front of its neck, but he shall not sever it.

<sup>10</sup>The second he shall then prepare as a burnt offering according to the ordinance. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it will be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup>‘But if his means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young doves, then for his offering for that which he has sinned, he shall bring the tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it or place incense on it, for it is a sin offering.

<sup>12</sup>He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as its memorial portion and offer it up in smoke on the altar, with the offerings of the LORD by fire: it is a sin offering.

<sup>13</sup>So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has committed from one of these, and it will be forgiven him; then the rest shall become the priest’s, like the grain offering.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>15</sup>“If a person acts unfaithfully and sins unintentionally against the LORD’s holy things, then he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD: a ram without defect from the flock, according to your assessment in silver by shekels, in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, as a guilt offering.

<sup>16</sup>And he shall make restitution for that which he has sinned against the holy thing, and shall add to it a fifth part of it and give it to the priest. The priest shall then make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it will be forgiven him.

<sup>17</sup>“Now if a person sins and does any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, though he was unaware, he is still guilty and shall bear his punishment.

<sup>18</sup>He is then to bring to the priest a ram without defect from the flock, according to your assessment, as a guilt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he committed unintentionally and did not know it, and it will be forgiven him.

Leviticus 6

Guilt Offering

<sup>2</sup>“When a person sins and acts unfaithfully against the LORD, and disavows the rightful claim of his neighbor regarding a deposit or a security entrusted to him, or regarding robbery, or he has extorted from his neighbor,

<sup>3</sup>or has found what was lost and lied about it and sworn falsely, so that he sins regarding any of the things that people do;

<sup>4</sup>then it shall be, when he sins and becomes guilty, that he shall restore what he took by robbery or acquired by extortion, or the deposit which was entrusted to him, or the lost property which he found,

<sup>5</sup>or anything about which he swore falsely; he shall make restitution for it in full and add to it a fifth more. He shall give it to the one to whom it belongs on the day he presents his guilt offering.

<sup>6</sup>Then he shall bring to the priest his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without defect from the flock, according to your assessment, as a guilt offering,

<sup>7</sup>and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any one of the things which he may have done to incur guilt.”

The Priest's Part in the Offerings

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law for the burnt offering: the burnt offering itself shall remain on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning, and the fire on the altar is to be kept burning on it.

<sup>10</sup>The priest is to put on his linen robe, and he shall put on linen undergarments next to his body; and he shall take up the fatty ashes to which the fire reduces the burnt offering on the altar and place them beside the altar.

<sup>11</sup>Then he shall take off his garments and put on other garments, and carry the fatty ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

<sup>12</sup>The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it. It shall not go out, but the priest shall burn wood on it every morning; and he shall lay out the burnt offering on it, and offer up in smoke the fat portions of the peace offerings on it.

<sup>14</sup>‘Now this is the law of the grain offering: the sons of Aaron shall present it before the LORD in front of the altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then one of them shall lift up from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil and all the incense that is on the grain offering, and he shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, a soothing aroma, as its memorial offering to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>And Aaron and his sons are to eat what is left of it. It shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.

<sup>17</sup>It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their share from My offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

<sup>19</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>20</sup>“This is the offering which Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day when he is anointed; the tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

<sup>21</sup>It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle. When it is well stirred, you shall bring it. You shall present the grain offering in baked pieces as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>So every grain offering of the priest shall be burned entirely. It shall not be eaten.”

<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>25</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, the sin offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD; it is most holy.

<sup>27</sup>Whoever touches its flesh will become consecrated; and when any of its blood spatters on a garment, you shall wash what spattered on it in a holy place.

<sup>28</sup>Also the earthenware vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken; and if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, then it shall be scoured and rinsed in water.

<sup>29</sup>Every male among the priests may eat it; it is most holy.

<sup>30</sup>But no sin offering of which any of the blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place shall be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7

The Priest's Part in the Offerings

<sup>3</sup>Then he shall offer from it all its fat: the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,

<sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins; and he shall remove the lobe on the liver with the kidneys.

<sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

<sup>7</sup>The guilt offering is like the sin offering: there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.

<sup>8</sup>Also the priest who presents anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the hide of the burnt offering which he has presented.

<sup>10</sup>Every grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron, to all alike.

<sup>11</sup>Now this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which shall be presented to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>If he offers it by way of thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of well stirred fine flour mixed with oil.

<sup>13</sup>With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving, he shall present his offering with cakes of leavened bread.

<sup>15</sup>Now as for the flesh of the sacrifice of his thanksgiving peace offerings, it shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it over until morning.

<sup>16</sup>But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day what is left of it may be eaten;

<sup>18</sup>So if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is ever eaten on the third day, he who offers it will not be accepted, and it will not be credited to him. It will be an unclean thing, and the person who eats it shall bear his punishment.

<sup>19</sup>Also the flesh that touches anything unclean shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. As for other flesh, anyone who is clean may eat such flesh.

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>23</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You shall not eat any fat from an ox, a sheep, or a goat.

<sup>24</sup>Also the fat of an animal which dies and the fat of an animal torn by animals may be put to any other use, but you certainly are not to eat it.

<sup>26</sup>And you are not to eat any blood, either of bird or animal, in any of your dwellings.

<sup>27</sup>Any person who eats any blood, that person shall also be cut off from his people.’ ”

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>29</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

<sup>30</sup>His own hands are to bring offerings by fire to the LORD. He shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be presented as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>And you shall give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

<sup>34</sup>For I have taken from the sons of Israel the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as their allotted portion forever from the sons of Israel.

<sup>35</sup>“This is the allotment to Aaron and the allotment to his sons from the offerings by fire to the LORD, on that day when he presented them to serve as priests to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>These the LORD had commanded to be given them from the sons of Israel on the day that He anointed them. It is their allotted portion forever throughout their generations.’ ”

<sup>37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering and the guilt offering, and the ordination offering and the sacrifice of peace offerings,

<sup>38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai on the day that He commanded the sons of Israel to present their offerings to the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8

The Consecration of Aaron and His Sons

<sup>2</sup>“Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread,

<sup>7</sup>Then he put the tunic on Aaron and wrapped his waist with the sash, and clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him; and he wrapped his waist with the artistic band of the ephod, with which he fitted it to him.

<sup>8</sup>He then placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.

<sup>10</sup>Moses then took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything that was in it, and consecrated them.

<sup>11</sup>He also sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, to consecrate them.

<sup>12</sup>Then he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

<sup>14</sup>Then he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.

<sup>16</sup>He also took all the fat that was on the entrails and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat; and Moses offered it up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>17</sup>But the bull and its hide, its flesh, and its refuse he burned in the fire outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>20</sup>When he had cut the ram into its pieces, Moses offered up the head and the pieces and the suet in smoke.

<sup>21</sup>After he had washed the entrails and the legs with water, Moses offered up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>25</sup>He then took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh.

<sup>27</sup>He then put all these on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons, and presented them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>Then Moses took them from their hands and offered them up in smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. They were an ordination offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>Moses also took the breast and presented it as a wave offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>So Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, “Boil the flesh at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and eat it there together with the bread which is in the basket of the ordination offering, just as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’

<sup>32</sup>And the remainder of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn in the fire.

<sup>33</sup>And you shall not go outside the doorway of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day that the period of your ordination is fulfilled; for he will ordain you through seven days.

<sup>34</sup>The LORD has commanded us to do as has been done this day, to make atonement on your behalf.

<sup>35</sup>At the doorway of the tent of meeting, moreover, you shall remain day and night for seven days and fulfill your duty to the LORD, so that you will not die; for so I have been commanded.”

Leviticus 9

Aaron Offers Sacrifices

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

<sup>2</sup>and he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a calf, a bull, as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, both without defect, and offer them before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Take a male goat as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both one year old, without defect, as a burnt offering,

<sup>4</sup>and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.’ ”

<sup>5</sup>So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole congregation came near and stood before the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.”

<sup>7</sup>Moses then said to Aaron, “Come near to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, so that you may make atonement for yourself and for the people; then make the offering for the people, so that you may make atonement for them, just as the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>8</sup>So Aaron came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.

<sup>9</sup>Aaron’s sons then presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put some on the horns of the altar, and poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

<sup>10</sup>The fat and the kidneys and the lobe of the liver of the sin offering he then offered up in smoke on the altar, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>11</sup>The flesh and the hide, however, he burned with fire outside the camp.

<sup>13</sup>They brought the burnt offering to him in pieces, with the head, and he offered them up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>He also washed the entrails and the legs, and offered them up in smoke with the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first.

<sup>16</sup>He also presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.

<sup>17</sup>Next he presented the grain offering, and filled his hand with some of it and offered it up in smoke on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

<sup>18</sup>Then he slaughtered the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons brought the blood to him, and he sprinkled it around on the altar.

<sup>20</sup>they now placed the portions of fat on the breasts; and he offered them up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>22</sup>Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he stepped down after making the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

<sup>23</sup>And Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out and blessed the people, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

<sup>24</sup>Then fire went out from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the portions of fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell face downward.

Leviticus 10

The Sin of Nadab and Abihu

<sup>2</sup>And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, “It is what the LORD spoke, saying, ‘By those who come near Me I will be treated as holy, And before all the people I will be honored.’ ” So Aaron, therefore, kept silent.

<sup>4</sup>Moses called also to Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel, and said to them, “Come forward, carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to an area outside of the camp.”

<sup>5</sup>So they came forward and carried them, still in their tunics, to an area outside the camp, just as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, so that you do not die and He does not become wrathful against all the congregation. But your kinsmen, the entire house of Israel, shall weep for the burning which the LORD has brought about.

<sup>7</sup>You shall not even go out from the doorway of the tent of meeting, or you will die; for the LORD’s anointing oil is upon you.” So they did according to the word of Moses.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD then spoke to Aaron, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Do not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you do not die—it is a permanent statute throughout your generations—

<sup>10</sup>and to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean,

<sup>11</sup>and so as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, “Take the grain offering that is left over from the LORD’s offerings by fire and eat it as unleavened bread beside the altar, for it is most holy.

<sup>13</sup>You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your allotted portion and your sons’ allotted portion from the LORD’s offerings by fire; for so I have been commanded.

<sup>14</sup>The breast of the wave offering, however, and the thigh of the offering you may eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your allotted portion and your sons’ allotted portion from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>They shall bring the thigh offered by lifting up and the breast offered by waving, along with the offerings by fire of the portions of fat, to present as a wave offering before the LORD; so it shall be a thing perpetually due you and your sons with you, just as the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>16</sup>But Moses searched carefully for the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned! So he was angry with Aaron’s surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, saying,

<sup>17</sup>“Why did you not eat the sin offering at the holy place? For it is most holy, and He gave it to you to take away the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Behold, since its blood had not been brought inside, into the sanctuary, you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, just as I commanded!”

<sup>19</sup>But Aaron said to Moses, “Behold, this very day they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. When things like these happened to me, if I had eaten a sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of the LORD?”

Leviticus 11

Laws about Animals for Food

<sup>3</sup>Whatever has a divided hoof, showing split hoofs, and chews the cud, among the animals, that you may eat.

<sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, you are not to eat of these, among those which chew the cud, or among those which have a divided hoof: the camel, for though it chews cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

<sup>5</sup>Likewise, the rock hyrax, for though it chews cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

<sup>6</sup>The rabbit also, for though it chews cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

<sup>7</sup>And the pig, for though it has a divided hoof, and so it shows a split hoof, it does not chew cud; it is unclean to you.

<sup>8</sup>You shall not eat any of their flesh nor touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup>“These you may eat, of whatever is in the water: everything that has fins and scales, in the water, in the seas, or in the rivers, you may eat.

<sup>10</sup>But whatever is in the seas and in the rivers that does not have fins and scales among all the teeming life of the water, and among all the living creatures that are in the water, they are detestable things to you,

<sup>11</sup>and they shall be detestable to you; you may not eat any of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses.

<sup>12</sup>Whatever in the water does not have fins and scales is detestable to you.

Avoid the Unclean

<sup>13</sup>Moreover, these you shall detest among the birds; they are detestable, not to be eaten: the eagle, the vulture, and the buzzard,

<sup>14</sup>the red kite, the falcon in its kind,

<sup>21</sup>Yet these you may eat among all the winged insects that walk on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to jump on the earth.

<sup>24</sup>By these, moreover, you will be made unclean; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening,

<sup>27</sup>Also whatever walks on its paws, among all the creatures that walk on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening,

<sup>28</sup>and the one who picks up their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; they are unclean to you.

<sup>29</sup>Now these are to you the unclean among the swarming things which swarm on the earth: the mole, the mouse, and the great lizard in its kinds,

<sup>32</sup>Also anything on which one of them may fall when they are dead becomes unclean, including any wooden article, or clothing, or a hide, or a sack—any article of which use is made—it shall be put in the water and be unclean until evening, then it becomes clean.

<sup>33</sup>As for any earthenware vessel into which one of them may fall, whatever is in it becomes unclean and you shall break the vessel.

<sup>34</sup>Any of the food which may be eaten, on which water comes, shall become unclean, and any liquid which may be drunk in every vessel shall become unclean.

<sup>35</sup>Moreover, everything on which part of their carcass may fall becomes unclean; an oven or a stove shall be smashed; they are unclean and shall continue as unclean to you.

<sup>36</sup>Nevertheless, a spring or a cistern collecting water shall be clean, though the one who touches their carcass shall be unclean.

<sup>37</sup>Now if a part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing which is to be sown, it is clean.

<sup>38</sup>But if water is put on the seed and a part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

<sup>41</sup>‘Now every swarming thing that swarms on the earth is detestable, not to be eaten.

<sup>42</sup>Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on all fours, whatever has many feet, in regard to every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, because they are detestable.

<sup>43</sup>Do not make yourselves detestable through any of the swarming things that swarm; and you shall not make yourselves unclean with them so that you become unclean.

<sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, because I am holy. And you shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm on the earth.

<sup>45</sup>For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt, to be your God; so you shall be holy, because I am holy.’ ”

<sup>46</sup>This is the law regarding the animal and the bird, and every living thing that moves in the waters and everything that swarms on the earth, <sup>47</sup>to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the edible creature and the creature which is not to be eaten.

Leviticus 12

Laws of Motherhood

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying: ‘When a woman gives birth and delivers a male child, then she shall be unclean for seven days; as she is in the days of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.

<sup>4</sup>And she shall stay at home in her condition of blood purification for thirty-three days; she shall not touch any consecrated thing, nor enter the sanctuary until the days of her purification are completed.

<sup>5</sup>But if she gives birth to a female child, then she shall be unclean for two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall stay at home in her condition of blood purification for sixty-six days.

<sup>7</sup>Then he shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who gives birth to a child, whether a male or a female.

<sup>8</sup>But if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two young doves, the one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.’ ”

Leviticus 13

The Test for Leprosy

<sup>2</sup>“When someone has on the skin of his body a swelling, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes an infection of leprosy on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

<sup>3</sup>The priest shall look at the infected area on the skin of the body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is an infection of leprosy; when the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him unclean.

<sup>4</sup>But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the person who has the infection for seven days.

<sup>5</sup>Then the priest shall look at him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the infection has not changed and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days.

<sup>6</sup>The priest shall then look at him again on the seventh day, and if the infected area has faded and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a rash. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

<sup>7</sup>“But if the rash spreads farther on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again to the priest.

<sup>8</sup>And the priest shall look, and if the rash has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

<sup>9</sup>“When the infection of leprosy is on someone, then he shall be brought to the priest.

<sup>10</sup>The priest shall then look, and if there is a white swelling on the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is new raw flesh in the swelling,

<sup>11</sup>it is a chronic leprosy on the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

<sup>12</sup>If the leprosy breaks out farther on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the person who has the infection from his head even to his feet, as far as the priest can see,

<sup>13</sup>then the priest shall look, and behold, if the leprosy has covered his entire body, he shall pronounce the one who has the infection clean; it has all turned white and he is clean.

<sup>15</sup>The priest shall look at the raw flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.

<sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh turns back and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest, <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall look at him, and behold, if the infected area has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce the one who has the infection clean; he is clean.

<sup>18</sup>“Now when the body has a boil on its skin and it is healed,

<sup>19</sup>and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white, bright spot, then it shall be shown to the priest;

<sup>20</sup>and the priest shall look, and behold, if it appears to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the infection of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.

<sup>21</sup>But if the priest looks at it, and behold, there are no white hairs in it and it is not deeper than the skin and is faded, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days;

<sup>22</sup>and if it spreads farther on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection.

<sup>23</sup>But if the bright spot remains in its place and does not spread, it is only the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup>“Or if the body sustains in its skin a burn by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white,

<sup>25</sup>then the priest shall look at it. And if the hair in the bright spot has turned white and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn. Therefore, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

<sup>26</sup>But if the priest looks at it, and indeed, there is no white hair in the bright spot and it is no deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days;

<sup>27</sup>and the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. If it spreads farther in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

<sup>28</sup>But if the bright spot remains in its place and has not spread in the skin, but is dim, it is the swelling from the burn; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is only the scar of the burn.

<sup>29</sup>“Now if a man or woman has an infection on the head or on the beard,

<sup>30</sup>then the priest shall look at the infection, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and there is thin yellowish hair in it, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scale, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.

<sup>31</sup>But if the priest looks at the infection of the scale, and indeed, it appears to be no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the person with the scaly infection for seven days.

<sup>32</sup>And on the seventh day the priest shall look at the infection, and if the scale has not spread and no yellowish hair has grown in it, and the appearance of the scale is no deeper than the skin,

<sup>33</sup>then he shall shave himself, but he shall not shave the scale; and the priest shall isolate the person with the scale for seven more days.

<sup>34</sup>Then on the seventh day the priest shall look at the scale, and if the scale has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

<sup>36</sup>then the priest shall look at him, and if the scale has spread on the skin, the priest need not look for the yellowish hair; he is unclean.

<sup>37</sup>If in his sight the scale has remained, however, and black hair has grown in it, the scale has healed, and he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>38</sup>“When a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, white bright spots,

<sup>40</sup>“Now if a man loses the hair of his head, he is only bald; he is clean.

<sup>45</sup>“As for the person who has the leprous infection, his clothes shall be torn and the hair of his head shall be uncovered, and he shall cover his mustache and call out, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

<sup>46</sup>He shall remain unclean all the days during which he has the infection; he is unclean. He shall live alone; he shall live outside the camp.

<sup>47</sup>“When a garment has a mark of leprosy in it, whether it is a wool garment or a linen garment,

<sup>48</sup>whether in warp or woof, of linen or of wool, whether in leather or in any article made of leather,

<sup>49</sup>if the mark is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is a leprous mark and it shall be shown to the priest.

<sup>50</sup>Then the priest shall look at the mark and shall quarantine the article with the mark for seven days.

<sup>51</sup>He shall then look at the mark on the seventh day; if the mark has spread in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in the leather, whatever the purpose for which the leather is used, the mark is a leprous malignancy, it is unclean.

<sup>52</sup>So he shall burn the garment, whether it is the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or any article of leather, in which the mark occurs; for it is a leprous malignancy. It shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>53</sup>“But if the priest looks, and indeed the mark has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather,

<sup>54</sup>then the priest shall order them to wash the thing in which the mark occurs, and he shall quarantine it for seven more days.

<sup>55</sup>After the article with the mark has been washed, the priest shall again look, and if the mark has not changed its appearance, even if the mark has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire, whether an eating away has produced bareness on the back or on the front of it.

<sup>56</sup>“But if the priest looks, and indeed the mark has faded after it has been washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment or out of the leather, whether from the warp or from the woof;

<sup>57</sup>yet if it appears again in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is an outbreak; the article with the mark shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>58</sup>But the garment, whether the warp or the woof, or any article of leather from which the mark has disappeared when you washed it, shall then be washed a second time and will be clean.”

<sup>59</sup>This is the law for the mark of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, for pronouncing it clean or unclean.

Leviticus 14

Law of Cleansing a Person with Leprosy

<sup>2</sup>“This shall be the law of the person with leprosy on the day of his cleansing. Now he shall be brought to the priest;

<sup>3</sup>and the priest shall go out to a place outside of the camp. Then the priest shall look, and if the leprous infection has been healed in the person with leprosy,

<sup>4</sup>then the priest shall give orders to take two live clean birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string, and hyssop for the one who is to be cleansed.

<sup>5</sup>The priest shall also give orders to slaughter the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water.

<sup>6</sup>As for the live bird, he shall take it together with the cedar wood, the scarlet string, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the running water.

<sup>7</sup>He shall then sprinkle seven times the one who is to be cleansed from the leprosy and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the live bird go free over the open field.

<sup>8</sup>The one to be cleansed shall then wash his clothes and shave off all his hair, and bathe in water and be clean. And afterward he may enter the camp, but he shall stay outside his tent for seven days.

<sup>9</sup>Then it shall be on the seventh day that he shall shave off all his hair: he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair. He shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and be clean.

<sup>10</sup>“Now on the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without defect, and a yearling ewe lamb without defect, and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil;

<sup>11</sup>and the priest who is going to pronounce him clean shall present the person to be cleansed and the offerings before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

<sup>12</sup>Then the priest shall take the one male lamb and bring it as a guilt offering, with the log of oil, and present them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Next he shall slaughter the male lamb in the place where they slaughter the sin offering and the burnt offering, at the place of the sanctuary—for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

<sup>19</sup>The priest shall next offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Then afterward, he shall slaughter the burnt offering.

<sup>20</sup>The priest shall offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

<sup>21</sup>“But if he is poor and his means are insufficient, then he is to take one male lamb for a guilt offering as a wave offering to make atonement for him, and a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and a log of oil,

<sup>22</sup>and two turtledoves or two young doves, which are within his means. The one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

<sup>24</sup>The priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall offer them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>He shall then offer one of the turtledoves or young doves, which are within his means.

<sup>31</sup>He shall offer what he can afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.

<sup>32</sup>This is the law for him in whom there is an infection of leprosy, whose means are limited for his cleansing."

Cleansing a Leprous House

<sup>33</sup>The LORD further spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

<sup>34</sup>“When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as a possession, and I put a spot of leprosy on a house in the land of your possession,

<sup>35</sup>then the one who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘Something like a spot of leprosy has become visible to me in the house.’

<sup>36</sup>The priest shall then command that they empty the house before the priest goes in to look at the spot, so that everything in the house need not become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to look at the house.

<sup>37</sup>So he shall look at the spot, and if the spot on the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions and appears deeper than the surface,

<sup>38</sup>the priest shall come out of the house, to the doorway, and quarantine the house for seven days.

<sup>39</sup>Then the priest shall return on the seventh day and make an inspection. If the spot has indeed spread on the walls of the house,

<sup>40</sup>the priest shall order them to pull out the stones with the spot on them and throw them away at an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>41</sup>And he shall have the house scraped all around inside, and they shall dump the plaster that they scrape off at an unclean place outside the city.

<sup>42</sup>Then they shall take other stones and replace the discarded stones, and he shall take other plaster and replaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>“If, however, the spot breaks out again in the house after he has pulled out the stones and scraped the house, and after it has been replastered,

<sup>44</sup>then the priest shall come in and make an inspection. If he sees that the spot has indeed spread in the house, it is a malignant spot in the house; it is unclean.

<sup>45</sup>The owner shall therefore tear down the house, its stones, its timbers, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall take them outside the city to an unclean place.

<sup>48</sup>“If, on the other hand, the priest comes in and makes an inspection and the spot has not indeed spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the spot has not reappeared.

<sup>49</sup>To cleanse the house then, he shall take two birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string, and hyssop, <sup>50</sup>and he shall slaughter the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water.

<sup>51</sup>Then he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet string, with the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird as well as in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

<sup>52</sup>So he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the running water, along with the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet string.

<sup>53</sup>However, he shall let the live bird go free outside the city into the open field. So he shall make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.”

<sup>54</sup>This is the law for any spot of leprosy—even for a scale,

<sup>55</sup>and for the leprous garment or house,

<sup>57</sup>to teach when they are unclean and when they are clean. This is the law of leprosy.

Leviticus 15

Cleansing Unhealthiness

<sup>4</sup>Every bed on which the man with the discharge lies becomes unclean, and everything on which he sits becomes unclean.

<sup>6</sup>and whoever sits on the thing on which the man with the discharge has been sitting, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>7</sup>Also whoever touches the man with the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup>Or if the man with the discharge spits on one who is clean, he too shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>10</sup>Whoever then touches any of the things which were under him shall be unclean until evening, and the one who carries them shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>12</sup>However, an earthenware vessel which the man with the discharge touches shall be broken, and every wooden vessel shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup>‘Now when the man with the discharge becomes cleansed from his discharge, then he shall count off for himself seven days for his cleansing; he shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water and will become clean.

<sup>14</sup>Then on the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young doves, and come before the LORD to the doorway of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest;

<sup>15</sup>and the priest shall offer them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD because of his discharge.

<sup>16</sup>Now if a man has a seminal emission, he shall bathe all his body in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>17</sup>As for any garment or any leather on which there is a seminal emission, it shall be washed with water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>18</sup>If a man sleeps with a woman so that there is a seminal emission, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>19</sup>When a woman has a discharge, if her discharge in her body is blood, she shall continue in her menstrual impurity for seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening.

<sup>21</sup>Anyone who touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>22</sup>Whoever touches any object on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>23</sup>Whether it be on the bed or on the thing on which she is sitting, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until evening.

<sup>24</sup>If a man actually sleeps with her so that her menstrual impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

<sup>25</sup>‘Now if a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days, not at the period of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond that period, for all the days of her impure discharge she shall continue as though in her menstrual impurity; she is unclean.

<sup>27</sup>Likewise, whoever touches them shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup>When she becomes clean from her discharge, she shall count off for herself seven days; and afterward she will be clean.

<sup>29</sup>Then on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young doves, and bring them to the priest, to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

<sup>30</sup>And the priest shall offer the one as a sin offering, and the other as a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement on her behalf before the LORD because of her impure discharge.’

<sup>31</sup>“And so you shall keep the sons of Israel separated from their uncleanness, so that they will not die in their uncleanness by their defiling My tabernacle that is among them.”

<sup>32</sup>This is the law for the one with a discharge, and for the man who has a seminal emission so that he is unclean by it,

<sup>33</sup>and for the woman who is ill because of menstrual impurity, and for the one who has a discharge, whether a male or a female, or a man who sleeps with an unclean woman.

Leviticus 16

Law of Atonement

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they had approached the presence of the LORD and died.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Moses: “Tell your brother Aaron that he shall not enter at any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the atoning cover which is on the ark, or he will die; for I will appear in the cloud over the atoning cover.

<sup>3</sup>Aaron shall enter the Holy Place with this: with a bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering.

<sup>4</sup>He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments shall be next to his body, and he shall be wrapped about the waist with the linen sash and the linen turban wound around his forehead (these are holy garments). He shall bathe his body in water and put them on.

<sup>5</sup>And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two male goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.

<sup>6</sup>Then Aaron shall offer the bull as the sin offering, which is for himself, so that he may make atonement for himself and for his household.

<sup>7</sup>He shall then take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

<sup>8</sup>Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.

<sup>9</sup>Then Aaron shall offer the goat on which the lot for the LORD fell, and make it a sin offering.

<sup>10</sup>But the goat on which the lot for the scapegoat fell shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, to send it into the wilderness as the scapegoat.

<sup>11</sup>“Then Aaron shall offer the bull of the sin offering which is for himself and make atonement for himself and for his household, and he shall slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself.

<sup>12</sup>He shall take a firepan full of coals of fire from upon the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground sweet incense, and bring it inside the veil.

<sup>13</sup>He shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, so that the cloud of incense may cover the atoning cover that is on the ark of the testimony, otherwise he will die.

<sup>15</sup>“Then he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the atoning cover and in front of the atoning cover.

<sup>16</sup>He shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the impurities of the sons of Israel and because of their unlawful acts regarding all their sins; and he shall do so for the tent of meeting which remains with them in the midst of their impurities.

<sup>17</sup>When he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, no one shall be in the tent of meeting until he comes out, so that he may make atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it; he shall take some of the blood from the bull and some of the blood from the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides.

<sup>20</sup>“When he finishes atoning for the Holy Place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall offer the live goat.

<sup>21</sup>Then Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the wrongdoings of the sons of Israel and all their unlawful acts regarding all their sins; and he shall place them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who stands ready.

<sup>22</sup>Then the goat shall carry on itself all their wrongdoings to an isolated territory; he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup>“Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there.

<sup>24</sup>And he shall bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes, and come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

<sup>25</sup>Then he shall offer up in smoke the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

<sup>26</sup>The one who released the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; then afterward he shall come into the camp.

<sup>27</sup>But the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be taken outside the camp, and they shall burn their hides, their flesh, and their refuse in the fire.

<sup>28</sup>Then the one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; and afterward he shall come into the camp.

An Annual Atonement

<sup>29</sup>“This shall be a permanent statute for you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble yourselves and not do any work, whether the native, or the stranger who resides among you;

<sup>30</sup>for it is on this day that atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you; you will be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>It is to be a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, so that you may humble yourselves; it is a permanent statute.

<sup>32</sup>So the priest who is anointed and ordained to serve as priest in his father's place shall make atonement: he shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments,

<sup>33</sup>and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar. He shall also make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

<sup>34</sup>Now you shall have this as a permanent statute, to make atonement for the sons of Israel for all their sins once every year.” And just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so he did.

Leviticus 17

Blood for Atonement

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD has commanded, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“Anyone from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox, a lamb, or a goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup>and has not brought it to the doorway of the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD, bloodshed is to be counted against that person. He has shed blood, and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

<sup>5</sup>This shall be done so that the sons of Israel will bring their sacrifices which they were sacrificing in the open field—so that they will bring them to the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting to the priest, and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And they shall no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat demons with which they play the prostitute. This shall be a permanent statute to them throughout their generations.”’

<sup>8</sup>“Then you shall say to them, ‘Anyone from the house of Israel, or from the strangers who reside among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>9</sup>and does not bring it to the doorway of the tent of meeting to offer it to the LORD, that person also shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>10</sup>‘And anyone from the house of Israel, or from the strangers who reside among them, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats the blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

<sup>11</sup>For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood by reason of the life that makes atonement.’

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, ‘No person among you may eat blood, nor may any stranger who resides among you eat blood.’

<sup>13</sup>So when anyone from the sons of Israel, or from the strangers who reside among them, while hunting catches an animal or a bird which may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood and cover it with dirt.

<sup>14</sup>“For as for the life of all flesh, its blood is identified with its life. Therefore I said to the sons of Israel, ‘You are not to eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.’

<sup>15</sup>And any person who eats an animal which dies or is torn by animals, whether he is a native or a stranger, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and remain unclean until evening; then he will become clean.

<sup>16</sup>But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe his body, then he shall bear the responsibility for his guilt.”

Leviticus 18

Laws on Immoral Relations

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘I am the LORD your God.

<sup>3</sup>You shall not do what is done in the land of Egypt where you lived, nor are you to do what is done in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you; you shall not walk in their statutes.

<sup>4</sup>You are to perform My judgments and keep My statutes, to live in accord with them; I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>So you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, which, if a person follows them, then he will live by them; I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>None of you shall approach any blood relative of his to uncover nakedness; I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; you are not to uncover her nakedness.

<sup>8</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife; it is your father’s nakedness.

<sup>9</sup>As for the nakedness of your sister, either your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter, whether born in the household or born outside the household, you shall not uncover their nakedness.

<sup>10</sup>The nakedness of your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for their nakedness is yours.

<sup>11</sup>The nakedness of your father’s wife’s daughter, born to your father, she is your sister; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

<sup>16</sup>You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness.

<sup>21</sup>You shall not give any of your children to offer them to Molech, nor shall you profane the name of your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>You shall not sleep with a male as one sleeps with a female; it is an abomination.

<sup>23</sup>Also you shall not have sexual intercourse with any animal to be defiled with it, nor shall any woman stand before an animal to mate with it; it is a perversion.

<sup>24</sup>Do not defile yourselves by any of these things; for by all these things the nations which I am driving out from you have become defiled.

<sup>25</sup>For the land has become defiled, therefore I have brought its punishment upon it, so the land has vomited out its inhabitants.

<sup>26</sup>But as for you, you are to keep My statutes and My judgments, and you shall not do any of these abominations, neither the native, nor the stranger who resides among you

<sup>27</sup>(for the people of the land who were there before you did all these abominations, and the land has become defiled),

<sup>28</sup>so that the land will not vomit you out should you defile it, as it has vomited out the nation which was there before you.

<sup>29</sup>For whoever does any of these abominations, those persons who do so shall be cut off from among their people.

<sup>30</sup>So you are to keep your commitment to Me not to practice any of the abominable customs which have been practiced before you, so that you do not defile yourselves with them; I am the LORD your God.’ ”

Leviticus 19

Idolatry Forbidden

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

<sup>3</sup>Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and you shall keep My Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup>Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves cast metal gods; I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>Now when you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted.

<sup>6</sup>It shall be eaten on the same day you offer it, and on the next day; but what remains until the third day shall be burned with fire.

<sup>7</sup>So if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is unclean; it will not be accepted.

<sup>8</sup>And everyone who eats it will bear the consequences for his guilt, because he has profaned the holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

Various Laws

<sup>9</sup>Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

<sup>10</sup>And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the needy and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>12</sup>And you shall not swear falsely by My name, so as to profane the name of your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>You shall not oppress your neighbor, nor rob him. The wages of a hired worker are not to remain with you all night until morning.

<sup>14</sup>You shall not curse a person who is deaf, nor put a stumbling block before a person who is blind, but you shall revere your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>You shall not do injustice in judgment; you shall not show partiality to the poor nor give preference to the great, but you are to judge your neighbor fairly.

<sup>16</sup>You shall not go about as a slanderer among your people; and you are not to jeopardize the life of your neighbor. I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>You shall not hate your fellow countryman in your heart; you may certainly rebuke your neighbor, but you are not to incur sin because of him.

<sup>18</sup>You shall not take vengeance, nor hold any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>You are to keep My statutes. You shall not cross-breed two kinds of your cattle; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed, nor wear a garment of two kinds of material mixed together.

<sup>20</sup>Now if a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave acquired for another man, but who has in no way been redeemed nor given her freedom, there shall be punishment; they shall not, however, be put to death, because she was not free.

<sup>21</sup>He shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD to the doorway of the tent of meeting, a ram as a guilt offering.

<sup>22</sup>The priest shall also make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed, and the sin which he has committed will be forgiven him.

<sup>23</sup>Now when you enter the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden. For three years it shall be forbidden to you; it shall not be eaten.

<sup>24</sup>And in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>But in the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, so that its yield may increase for you; I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>You shall not eat any meat with the blood. You shall not practice divination nor soothsaying.

<sup>28</sup>You shall not make any cuts in your body for the dead, nor make any tattoo marks on yourselves: I am the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, so that the land does not fall into prostitution, and the land does not become full of outrageous sin.

<sup>30</sup>You shall keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>Do not turn to mediums or spiritists; do not seek them out to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>32</sup>‘You shall stand up in the presence of the grayheaded and honor elders, and you shall fear your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>‘When a stranger resides with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

<sup>34</sup>The stranger who resides with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.

<sup>36</sup>You shall have accurate balances, accurate weights, an accurate ephah, and an accurate hin; I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup>So you shall keep all My statutes and all My ordinances, and do them; I am the LORD.’ ”

Leviticus 20

On Human Sacrifice and Immoralities

<sup>2</sup>“You shall also say to the sons of Israel: ‘Anyone from the sons of Israel or from the strangers residing in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech, shall certainly be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

<sup>3</sup>I will also set My face against that man and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given some of his children to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary and to profane My holy name.

<sup>4</sup>If the people of the land, however, should ever disregard that man when he gives any of his children to Molech, so as not to put him to death,

<sup>5</sup>then I Myself will set My face against that man and against his family, and I will cut off from among their people both him and all those who play the prostitute with him, by playing the prostitute with Molech.

<sup>6</sup>‘As for the person who turns to mediums and to spiritists, to play the prostitute with them, I will also set My face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.

<sup>7</sup>You shall consecrate yourselves therefore and be holy, for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>8</sup>So you shall keep My statutes and practice them; I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

<sup>9</sup>‘If there is anyone who curses his father or his mother, he shall certainly be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, and has brought his own death upon himself.

<sup>10</sup>‘If there is a man who commits adultery with another man’s wife, one who commits adultery with his friend’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

<sup>11</sup>If there is a man who sleeps with his father’s wife, he has uncovered his father’s nakedness. Both of them must be put to death, they have brought their own deaths upon themselves.

<sup>12</sup>If there is a man who sleeps with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have committed incest, and have brought their own deaths upon themselves.

<sup>13</sup>If there is a man who sleeps with a male as those who sleep with a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act; they must be put to death. They have brought their own deaths upon themselves.

<sup>14</sup>If there is a man who marries a woman and her mother, it is an outrageous sin; both he and they shall be burned with fire, so that there will be no such outrageous sin in your midst.

<sup>15</sup>If there is a man who has sexual intercourse with an animal, he must be put to death; you shall also kill the animal.

<sup>16</sup>If there is a woman who approaches any animal to mate with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they must be put to death. They have brought their own deaths upon themselves.

<sup>17</sup>If there is a man who takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, so that he sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the sons of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he bears his guilt.

<sup>18</sup>If there is a man who sleeps with a menstruous woman and uncovers her nakedness, he has exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood; so both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

<sup>19</sup>You shall also not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for such a one has uncovered his blood relative; they will bear their guilt.

<sup>20</sup>If there is a man who sleeps with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they will bear their sin. They will die childless.

<sup>21</sup>If there is a man who takes his brother's wife, it is detestable; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They will be childless.

<sup>22</sup>You are therefore to keep all My statutes and all My ordinances, and do them, so that the land to which I am bringing you to live will not vomit you out.

<sup>23</sup>Furthermore, you shall not follow the customs of the nation which I am going to drive out before you, because they did all these things; therefore I have felt disgust for them.

<sup>24</sup>So I have said to you, "You are to take possession of their land, and I Myself will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, who has singled you out from the peoples.

<sup>25</sup>You are therefore to make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; and you shall not make yourselves detestable by animal or by bird, or by anything that crawls on the ground, which I have distinguished for you as unclean.

<sup>26</sup>So you are to be holy to Me, for I the LORD am holy; and I have singled you out from the peoples to be Mine.

<sup>27</sup>‘Now a man or a woman who is a medium or a spiritist must be put to death. They shall be stoned with stones; they have brought their own deaths upon themselves.’ ”

Leviticus 21

Regulations concerning Priests

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: ‘No one shall defile himself for a dead person among his people,

<sup>3</sup>also for his virgin sister who is near to him because she has not had a husband; for her, he may defile himself.

<sup>4</sup>He shall not defile himself as a relative by marriage among his people, so as to profane himself.

<sup>5</sup>They shall not shave any area on their heads bald, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuts in their flesh.

<sup>6</sup>They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, because they present the offerings by fire to the LORD, the food of their God; so they shall be holy.

<sup>7</sup>They shall not take a woman who is a prostitute and profaned, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for he is holy to his God.

<sup>8</sup>You shall consecrate him, therefore, because he offers the food of your God. He shall be holy to you; for I the LORD, who sanctifies you, am holy.

<sup>9</sup>Also the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by prostitution, she profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.

<sup>11</sup>nor shall he approach any dead person, nor defile himself even for his father or his mother;

<sup>12</sup>nor shall he leave the sanctuary nor profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him; I am the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>A widow, or a divorced woman, or one who is profaned by prostitution, these he shall not take; but rather he is to marry a virgin of his own people,

<sup>15</sup>so that he will not profane his children among his people; for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>17</sup>“Speak to Aaron, saying, ‘None of your descendants throughout their generations who has an impairment shall approach to offer the food of his God.

<sup>18</sup>For no one who has an impairment shall approach: a man who is blind, or one who limps, or one who has a slit nose, or one with any conspicuous feature,

<sup>19</sup>or someone who has a broken foot or broken hand,

<sup>20</sup>or a contorted back, or one who is a dwarf, or has a spot in his eye, or a festering rash or scabs, or crushed testicles.

<sup>21</sup>No man among the descendants of Aaron the priest who has an impairment is to come forward to offer the LORD’s offerings by fire; since he has an impairment, he shall not come forward to offer the food of his God.

<sup>22</sup>He may eat the food of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy,

<sup>23</sup>only he shall not come up to the veil or approach the altar, since he has an impairment, so that he does not profane My sanctuaries. For I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

Leviticus 22

Various Rules for Priests

<sup>2</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons to be careful with the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, which they dedicate to Me, so as not to profane My holy name; I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Say to them, ‘Any man among all your descendants throughout your generations who approaches the holy gifts which the sons of Israel consecrate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from My presence; I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>No man of the descendants of Aaron, who has leprosy or has a discharge, may eat of the holy gifts until he is clean. And one who touches anything made unclean by a corpse, or a man who has a seminal emission,

<sup>5</sup>or a man who touches any swarming things by which he is made unclean, or touches any person by whom he is made unclean, whatever his uncleanness;

<sup>6</sup>a person who touches any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy gifts unless he has bathed his body in water.

<sup>7</sup>But when the sun sets, he will be clean, and afterward he may eat of the holy gifts, for it is his food.

<sup>8</sup>He shall not eat an animal which dies or is torn by animals, becoming unclean by it; I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>They shall therefore perform their duty to Me, so that they do not bear sin because of it and die by it because they profane it; I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>10</sup>‘No layman, however, is to eat the holy gift; a foreign resident with the priest or a hired worker shall not eat the holy gift.

<sup>12</sup>If a priest’s daughter is married to a layman, she shall not eat of the offering of the holy gifts.

<sup>13</sup>But if a priest’s daughter becomes a widow or divorced, and has no child and returns to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat of her father’s food; but no layman shall eat of it.

<sup>14</sup>If, however, someone eats a holy food unintentionally, then he shall add to it a fifth of it and shall give the holy food to the priest.

<sup>15</sup>And they shall not profane the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,

<sup>16</sup>and thereby bring upon them punishment for guilt by eating their holy gifts; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ”

Flawless Animals for Sacrifice

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘Anyone of the house of Israel or of the strangers in Israel who presents his offering, whether it is any of their vows or any of their voluntary offerings, which they present to the LORD as a burnt offering—

<sup>19</sup>for you to be accepted—it must be a male without defect from the cattle, the sheep, or the goats.

<sup>20</sup>Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it will not be accepted for you.

<sup>21</sup>When someone offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill a special vow or for a voluntary offering, of the herd or of the flock, it must be without defect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it.

<sup>22</sup>Those that are blind, fractured, maimed, or have a wart, a festering rash, or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make of them an offering by fire on the altar to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>Now as for an ox or a lamb which has an overgrown or stunted member, you may present it as a voluntary offering, but for a vow it will not be accepted.

<sup>24</sup>Also anything with its testicles squashed, crushed, torn off, or cut off, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor sacrifice in your land,

<sup>25</sup>nor shall you offer any of these animals taken from the hand of a foreigner as the food of your God; for their deformity is in them, they have an impairment. They will not be accepted for you.’ ”

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>27</sup>“When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it will be considered acceptable as a sacrifice of an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>But, whether it is an ox or a sheep, you shall not slaughter both it and its young in one day.

<sup>29</sup>When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.

<sup>30</sup>It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>So you shall keep My commandments, and do them; I am the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>“And you shall not profane My holy name, but I will be sanctified among the sons of Israel; I am the LORD who sanctifies you,

<sup>33</sup>who brought you out from the land of Egypt, to be your God; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 23

Laws of Holy Days

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘The LORD’s appointed times which you shall proclaim as holy convocations—My appointed times are these:

<sup>3</sup>‘For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation. You shall not do any work; it is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

<sup>4</sup>‘These are the appointed times of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at the times appointed for them.

<sup>5</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight is the LORD’s Passover.

<sup>6</sup>Then on the fifteenth day of the same month there is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

<sup>7</sup>On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work.

<sup>8</sup>But for seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land which I am going to give to you and you gather its harvest, then you shall bring in the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest.

<sup>11</sup>He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD for you to be accepted; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

<sup>13</sup>Its grain offering shall then be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire to the LORD for a soothing aroma, with its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine.

<sup>14</sup>Until this very day, until you have brought in the offering of your God, you shall eat neither bread nor roasted grain nor new produce. It is to be a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

<sup>15</sup>You shall also count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day when you brought in the sheaf of the wave offering; there shall be seven complete Sabbaths.

<sup>16</sup>You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall present a new grain offering to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>You shall bring in from your dwelling places two loaves of bread as a wave offering, made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of a fine flour, baked with leaven as first fruits to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Along with the bread you shall present seven one-year-old male lambs without defect, and a bull of the herd and two rams; they are to be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>You shall also offer one male goat as a sin offering, and two male lambs one year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.

<sup>20</sup>The priest shall then wave them with the bread of the first fruits as a wave offering with two lambs before the LORD; they are to be holy to the LORD for the priest.

<sup>21</sup>On this very day you shall make a proclamation as well; you are to have a holy convocation. You shall do no laborious work. It is to be a permanent statute in all your dwelling places throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup>“When you reap the harvest of your land, moreover, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field nor gather the gleanings of your harvest; you are to leave them for the needy and the stranger. I am the LORD your God.”

<sup>23</sup>Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month on the first of the month you shall have a rest, a reminder by blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.

<sup>25</sup>You shall not do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.’”

The Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>27</sup>“On exactly the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble yourselves and present an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>You shall not do any work on this very day, for it is a Day of Atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.

<sup>29</sup>If there is any person who does not humble himself on this very day, he shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>30</sup>As for any person who does any work on this very day, that person I will eliminate from among his people.

<sup>31</sup>You shall not do any work. It is to be a permanent statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

<sup>32</sup>It is to be a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you shall humble yourselves; on the ninth of the month at evening, from evening until evening, you shall keep your Sabbath.”

<sup>33</sup>Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>34</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘On the fifteenth of this seventh month is the Feast of Booths for seven days to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD; it is an assembly. You shall not do any laborious work.

<sup>37</sup>‘These are the appointed times of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, to present offerings by fire to the LORD—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each day’s matter on its own day—

<sup>38</sup>besides those of the Sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts and besides all your vowed and voluntary offerings, which you give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>‘On exactly the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you shall celebrate the feast of the LORD for seven days, with a rest on the first day and a rest on the eighth day.

<sup>40</sup>Now on the first day you shall take for yourselves the foliage of beautiful trees, palm branches and branches of trees with thick branches and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

<sup>41</sup>So you shall celebrate it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a permanent statute throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

<sup>42</sup>You shall live in booths for seven days; all the native-born in Israel shall live in booths,

<sup>43</sup>so that your generations may know that I had the sons of Israel live in booths when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>44</sup>So Moses declared to the sons of Israel the appointed times of the LORD.

Leviticus 24

The Lamp and the Bread of the Sanctuary

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel that they bring to you clear oil from beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually.

<sup>5</sup>“Then you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

<sup>6</sup>And you shall set them in two rows, six to a row, on the pure gold table before the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>You shall put pure frankincense on each row so that it may be a memorial portion for the bread, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>Every Sabbath day he shall set it in order before the LORD continually; it is an everlasting covenant for the sons of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the LORD’s offerings by fire, his portion forever.”

<sup>10</sup>Now the son of an Israelite woman—his father was an Egyptian—went out among the sons of Israel; and the Israelite woman’s son and an Israelite man had a fight within the camp.

<sup>11</sup>And the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed. So they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

<sup>12</sup>Then they put him in custody, waiting for Moses to give them a clear decision in accordance with the command of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>14</sup>“Bring the one who has cursed outside the camp, and have all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then have all the congregation stone him.

<sup>15</sup>You shall also speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If anyone curses his God, then he will bear the responsibility for his sin.

<sup>16</sup>Moreover, the one who blasphemes the name of the LORD must be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him. The stranger as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

An Eye for an Eye

<sup>17</sup>Now if someone takes any human life, he must be put to death.

<sup>19</sup>If someone injures his neighbor, just as he has done, so shall it be done to him:

<sup>20</sup>fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; just as he has injured a person, so shall it be inflicted on him.

<sup>21</sup>So the one who kills an animal shall make restitution, but the one who kills a person shall be put to death.

<sup>22</sup>There shall be only one standard for you; it shall be for the stranger as well as the native, for I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>Then Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed outside the camp, and stoned him with stones. So the sons of Israel did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25

The Sabbatical Year and Year of Jubilee

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I am going to give you, then the land shall have a Sabbath to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>For six years you shall sow your field, and for six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its produce,

<sup>5</sup>You shall not reap your harvest's aftergrowth, and you shall not gather your grapes of untrimmed vines; the land shall have a sabbatical year.

<sup>6</sup>All of you shall have the Sabbath produce of the land as food; for yourself, your male and female slaves, and your hired worker and your foreign resident, those who live as strangers among you.

<sup>7</sup>Even your cattle and the animals that are in your land shall have all its produce to eat.

<sup>8</sup>'You are also to count off seven Sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of the seven Sabbaths of years, that is, forty-nine years.

<sup>9</sup>You shall then sound a ram's horn abroad on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall sound a horn all through your land.

<sup>10</sup>So you shall consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim a release throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family.

<sup>11</sup>You shall have the fiftieth year as a jubilee; you shall not sow, nor harvest its aftergrowth, nor gather grapes from its untrimmed vines.

<sup>12</sup>For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat its produce from the field.

<sup>13</sup>'On this year of jubilee each of you shall return to his own property.

<sup>14</sup>Furthermore, if you make a sale to your friend, or buy from your friend's hand, you shall not wrong one another.

<sup>15</sup>Corresponding to the number of years after the jubilee, you shall buy from your friend; he is to sell to you according to the number of years of crops.

<sup>16</sup>In proportion to a greater number of years you shall increase its price, and in proportion to fewer years you shall decrease its price, because it is the number of crops that he is selling to you.

<sup>17</sup>So you shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup>'You shall therefore follow My statutes and keep My judgments so as to carry them out, so that you may live securely on the land.

<sup>19</sup>Then the land will yield its produce, so that you can eat your fill and live securely on it.

<sup>20</sup>But if you say, "What are we going to eat in the seventh year if we do not sow nor gather in our produce?"

<sup>21</sup>then I will so order My blessing for you in the sixth year that it will bring forth the produce for three years.

<sup>22</sup>When you are sowing the eighth year, you can still eat old things from the produce, eating the old until the ninth year when its produce comes in.

The Law of Redemption

<sup>23</sup>'The land, moreover, shall not be sold permanently, because the land is Mine; for you are only strangers and residents with Me.

<sup>24</sup>So for every piece of your property, you are to provide for the redemption of the land.

<sup>25</sup>'If a fellow countryman of yours becomes so poor that he sells part of his property, then his closest redeemer is to come and buy back what his relative has sold.

<sup>26</sup>Or in case someone has no redeemer, but recovers to find sufficient means for its redemption, <sup>27</sup>then he shall calculate the years since its sale and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and so return to his property.

<sup>28</sup>But if he has not found sufficient means to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hands of its purchaser until the year of jubilee; but at the jubilee it shall revert, so that he may return to his property.

<sup>30</sup>But if it is not bought back for him within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city passes permanently to its purchaser throughout his generations; it does not revert in the jubilee.

<sup>32</sup>As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites have a permanent right of redemption for the houses of the cities which are their possession.

<sup>33</sup>What, therefore, belongs to the Levites may be redeemed, and a house sale in the city of this possession reverts in the jubilee, because the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the sons of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>But pasture fields of their cities shall not be sold, for that is their permanent possession.

Of Poor Countrymen

<sup>35</sup>Now in case a countryman of yours becomes poor and his means among you falter, then you are to sustain him, like a stranger or a resident, so that he may live with you.

<sup>36</sup>Do not take any kind of interest from him, but fear your God, so that your countryman may live with you.

<sup>37</sup>You shall not give him your silver at interest, nor your food for profit.

<sup>38</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup>Now if a countryman of yours becomes so poor with regard to you that he sells himself to you, you shall not subject him to a slave's service.

<sup>40</sup>He shall be with you as a hired worker, as if he were a foreign resident; he shall serve with you up to the year of jubilee.

<sup>41</sup>He shall then leave you, he and his sons with him, and shall go back to his family, so that he may return to the property of his forefathers.

<sup>42</sup>For they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt; they are not to be sold in a slave sale.

<sup>43</sup>You shall not rule over him with severity, but are to revere your God.

<sup>44</sup>As for your male and female slaves whom you may have—you may acquire male and female slaves from the pagan nations that are around you.

<sup>45</sup>You may also acquire them from the sons of the foreign residents who reside among you, and from their families who are with you, whom they will have produced in your land; they also may become your possession.

<sup>46</sup>You may also pass them on as an inheritance to your sons after you, to receive as a possession; you can use them as permanent slaves. But in respect to your countrymen, the sons of Israel, you shall not rule with severity over one another.

Of Redeeming a Person Who Is Poor

<sup>47</sup>Now if the means of a stranger or of a foreign resident with you becomes sufficient, and a countryman of yours becomes poor in relation to him and sells himself to a stranger who is residing with you, or to the descendants of a stranger's family,

<sup>48</sup>then he shall have redemption right after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him,

<sup>49</sup>or his uncle, or his uncle's son may redeem him, or one of his blood relatives from his family may redeem him; or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

<sup>50</sup>He then, with his purchaser, shall calculate from the year when he sold himself to him up to the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall correspond to the number of years calculated. It is like the days of a hired worker that he will be with him.

<sup>51</sup>If there are still many years remaining, he shall refund part of his purchase price in proportion to them for his own redemption;

<sup>52</sup>but if few years remain until the year of jubilee, he shall so calculate with him. In proportion to his years he is to refund the amount for his redemption.

<sup>54</sup>Even if he is not redeemed by these means, he shall still leave in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him.

<sup>55</sup>For the sons of Israel are My servants; they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

Blessings of Obedience

<sup>1</sup>'You shall not make for yourselves idols, nor shall you set up for yourselves a carved image or a memorial stone, nor shall you place a figured stone in your land to bow down to it; for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>You shall keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments so as to carry them out,

<sup>4</sup>then I shall give you rains in their season, so that the land will yield its produce and the trees of the field will bear their fruit.

<sup>5</sup>Indeed, your threshing season will last for you until grape gathering, and grape gathering will last until sowing time. So you will eat your food to the full and live securely in your land.

<sup>6</sup>I shall also grant peace in the land, so that you may lie down, with no one to make you afraid. I shall also eliminate harmful animals from the land, and no sword will pass through your land.

<sup>7</sup>Instead, you will chase your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword;

<sup>8</sup>five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand; and your enemies will fall before you by the sword.

<sup>9</sup>So I will turn toward you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will confirm My covenant with you.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover, I will make My dwelling among you, and My soul will not reject you.

<sup>12</sup>I will also walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.

<sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you would not be their slaves, and I broke your yoke and made you walk erect.

Penalties of Disobedience

<sup>14</sup>‘But if you do not obey Me and do not carry out all these commandments,

<sup>15</sup>if, instead, you reject My statutes, and if your soul loathes My ordinances so as not to carry out all My commandments, but rather to break My covenant,

<sup>16</sup>I, in turn, will do this to you: I will summon a sudden terror against you, consumption and fever that will make the eyes fail and the soul languish; also, you will sow your seed uselessly, for your enemies will eat it.

<sup>17</sup>And I will set My face against you so that you will be defeated before your enemies; and those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

<sup>18</sup>If also after these things you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

<sup>19</sup>I will also break down your pride of power; and I will make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze.

<sup>20</sup>Your strength will be consumed uselessly, for your land will not yield its produce and the trees of the land will not yield their fruit.

<sup>21</sup>Yet if you show hostility toward Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will increase the plague on you seven times according to your sins.

<sup>22</sup>I will also let loose among you the animals of the field, which will deprive you of your children and eliminate your cattle, and reduce your number so that your roads become deserted.

<sup>23</sup>And if by these things you do not learn your lesson regarding Me, but you show hostility toward Me, <sup>24</sup>then I in turn will show hostility toward you; and I, even I, will strike you seven times for your sins.

<sup>25</sup>I will also bring upon you a sword which will execute vengeance for the covenant; and when you gather together into your cities, I will send a plague among you, so that you will be handed over to the enemy.

<sup>26</sup>When I break your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will bring back your bread in rationed amounts, so that you will eat and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup>Yet if in spite of this you do not obey Me, but act with hostility against Me, <sup>28</sup>then I will act with wrathful hostility against you, and I for My part will punish you seven times for your sins.

<sup>29</sup>Further, you will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters.

<sup>30</sup>I then will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and pile your remains on the remains of your idols, for My soul will loathe you.

<sup>31</sup>I will turn your cities into ruins as well and make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your soothing aromas.

<sup>32</sup>And I will make the land desolate so that your enemies who settle in it will be appalled at it.

<sup>33</sup>You, however, I will scatter among the nations, and I will draw out a sword after you, as your land becomes desolate and your cities become ruins.

<sup>34</sup>Then the land will restore its Sabbaths all the days of the desolation, while you are in your enemies' land; then the land will rest and restore its Sabbaths.

<sup>35</sup>All the days of its desolation it will have the rest which it did not have on your Sabbaths, while you were living on it.

<sup>36</sup>As for those among you who are left, I will also bring despair into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a scattered leaf will chase them, and even when no one is pursuing they will flee as though from the sword, and they will fall.

<sup>37</sup>They will then stumble over each other as if running from the sword, although no one is pursuing; and you will have no strength to stand before your enemies.

<sup>38</sup>Instead, you will perish among the nations, and your enemies' land will consume you.

<sup>39</sup>So those of you who may be left will rot away because of their wrongdoing in the lands of your enemies; and also because of the wrongdoing of their forefathers they will rot away with them.

<sup>40</sup>‘But if they confess their wrongdoing and the wrongdoing of their forefathers, in their unfaithfulness which they committed against Me, and also in their acting with hostility against Me—

<sup>41</sup>I also was acting with hostility against them, to bring them into the land of their enemies—or if their uncircumcised heart is humbled so that they then make amends for their wrongdoing,

<sup>42</sup>then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and I will remember also My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham as well, and I will remember the land.

<sup>43</sup>For the land will be abandoned by them, and will restore its Sabbaths while it is made desolate without them. They, meanwhile, will be making amends for their wrongdoing, because they rejected My ordinances and their soul loathed My statutes.

<sup>44</sup>Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I so loathe them as to destroy them, breaking My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

<sup>45</sup>But I will remember for them the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, so that I might be their God. I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>46</sup>These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which the LORD established between Himself and the sons of Israel through Moses on Mount Sinai.

Leviticus 27

Rules concerning Assessments

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When someone makes an explicit vow, he shall be valued according to your assessment of persons belonging to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>If your assessment is of a male from twenty years even to sixty years old, then your assessment shall be fifty shekels of silver, by the shekel of the sanctuary.

<sup>4</sup>Or if the person is a female, then your assessment shall be thirty shekels.

<sup>5</sup>And if the person is from five years even to twenty years old, then your assessment for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female, ten shekels.

<sup>6</sup>But if the person is from a month even up to five years old, then your assessment shall be five shekels of silver for a male, and for a female your assessment shall be three shekels of silver.

<sup>7</sup>If the person is from sixty years old and upward, if a male, then your assessment shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female, ten shekels.

<sup>8</sup>But if he is poorer than your assessment, then he shall be presented before the priest, and the priest shall assess him; according to the means of the one who vowed, the priest shall assess him.

<sup>9</sup>Now if it is an animal of the kind that one can present as an offering to the LORD, any such animal that one gives to the LORD shall be holy.

<sup>10</sup>He shall not replace it nor exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; yet if he does exchange animal for animal, then both it and its substitute shall become holy.

<sup>11</sup>If, however, it is any unclean animal of the kind which one does not present as an offering to the LORD, then he shall place the animal before the priest.

<sup>12</sup>And the priest shall assess it as either good or bad; as you, the priest, assess it, so shall it be.

<sup>13</sup>But if he should ever want to redeem it, then he shall add a fifth of it to your assessment.

<sup>14</sup>Now if someone consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, then the priest shall assess it as either good or bad; as the priest assesses it, so shall it stand.

<sup>15</sup>Yet if the one who consecrates it should want to redeem his house, then he shall add a fifth of your assessment price to it, so that it may be his.

<sup>17</sup>If he consecrates his field as of the year of jubilee, according to your assessment it shall stand.

<sup>18</sup>If he consecrates his field after the jubilee, however, then the priest shall calculate the price for him proportionate to the years that are left until the year of jubilee; and it shall be deducted from your assessment.

<sup>19</sup>If the one who consecrates it should ever want to redeem the field, then he shall add a fifth of your assessment price to it, so that it may belong to him.

<sup>20</sup>Yet if he does not redeem the field, but has sold the field to another person, it may no longer be redeemed;

<sup>21</sup>and when it reverts in the jubilee, the field shall be holy to the LORD, like a field banned from secular use; it shall be for the priest as his property.

<sup>22</sup>Or if he consecrates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of the field of his own property, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall calculate for him the amount of your assessment up to the year of jubilee; and he shall on that day give your assessment as holy to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Every assessment of yours, moreover, shall be by the shekel of the sanctuary. The shekel shall be twenty gerahs.

<sup>26</sup>However, a firstborn among animals, which as a firstborn belongs to the LORD, no one may consecrate; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.

<sup>27</sup>But if it is among the unclean animals, then he shall redeem it according to your assessment and add to it a fifth of it; and if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your assessment.

<sup>28</sup>Nevertheless, anything which someone sets apart to the LORD for destruction out of all that he has, of man or animal or of the field of his own property, shall not be sold nor redeemed. Anything set apart for destruction is most holy to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>No one who may have been set apart among mankind shall be ransomed; he must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup>Now all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S; it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>If, therefore, someone should ever want to redeem part of his tithe, he shall add to it a fifth of it.

<sup>32</sup>For every tenth part of herd or flock, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>He is not to be concerned whether it is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; yet if he does exchange it, then both it and its substitute shall become holy. It shall not be redeemed.' ”

<sup>34</sup>These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the sons of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Numbers 1

The Census of Israel's Warriors

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

<sup>4</sup>With you, moreover, there shall be a man of each tribe, each one head of his father’s household.

<sup>18</sup>and they assembled all the congregation on the first day of the second month. Then they registered by ancestry in their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, head by head,

<sup>45</sup>So all the numbered men of the sons of Israel by their fathers' households, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go to war in Israel, <sup>46</sup>all the numbered men were 603,550.

Levites Exempted

<sup>47</sup>The Levites, however, were not counted among them by their fathers' tribe.

<sup>48</sup>For the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying,

<sup>49</sup>“Only the tribe of Levi you shall not count, nor shall you take their census among the sons of Israel.

<sup>50</sup>And you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings and over everything that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall take care of it; they shall also camp around the tabernacle.

<sup>51</sup>So when the tabernacle is to move on, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encamps, the Levites shall set it up. But the layman who comes near it shall be put to death.

<sup>52</sup>So the sons of Israel shall camp, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own flag, according to their armies.

<sup>53</sup>But the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that there will be no divine wrath against the congregation of the sons of Israel.

So the Levites shall be responsible for service to the tabernacle of the testimony.”

<sup>54</sup>And the sons of Israel did so; in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so they did.

Numbers 2

Arrangement of the Camps

<sup>2</sup>“The sons of Israel shall camp, each by his own flag, with the banners of their fathers’ households; they shall camp around the tent of meeting at a distance.

<sup>3</sup>Now those who camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the flag of the camp of Judah, by their armies; and the leader of the sons of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab,

<sup>5</sup>Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar; and the leader of the sons of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar,

<sup>7</sup>Then follows the tribe of Zebulun; and the leader of the sons of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon,

<sup>12</sup>And those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon; and the leader of the sons of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai,

<sup>14</sup>Then follows the tribe of Gad; and the leader of the sons of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel,

<sup>16</sup>The total of the numbered men of the camp of Reuben: 151,450 by their armies. And they shall set out second.

<sup>17</sup>“Then the tent of meeting shall set out with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; just as they camp, so they shall set out, every man in his place by their flags.

<sup>22</sup>Then follows the tribe of Benjamin; and the leader of the sons of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideon,

<sup>24</sup>The total of the numbered men of the camp of Ephraim: 108,100, by their armies. And they shall set out third.

<sup>27</sup>Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher; and the leader of the sons of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran,

<sup>29</sup>Then follows the tribe of Naphtali; and the leader of the sons of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan,

<sup>33</sup>The Levites, however, were not counted among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>34</sup>So the sons of Israel did all this; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they camped by their flags, and so they set out, everyone by his family according to his father’s household.

Numbers 3

Levite Priesthood Established

<sup>4</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died in the presence of the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of their father Aaron.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>6</sup>“Bring the tribe of Levi forward and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.

<sup>7</sup>They shall perform the duties for him and for the whole congregation in front of the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle.

<sup>8</sup>They shall also take care of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, along with the duties of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

<sup>9</sup>So you shall assign the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are exclusively assigned to him from the sons of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons that they may keep their priesthood, but the layman who comes near shall be put to death.”

<sup>11</sup>Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“Now, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn, the firstborn of the womb among the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall be Mine.

<sup>13</sup>For all the firstborn are Mine; on the day that I fatally struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, from the human firstborn to animals. They shall be Mine; I am the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

<sup>16</sup>So Moses counted them according to the word of the LORD, just as he had been commanded.

<sup>19</sup>and the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel;

<sup>20</sup>and the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

<sup>21</sup>Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites.

<sup>22</sup>Their numbered men, in the counting of every male from a month old and upward, their numbered men were 7,500.

<sup>23</sup>The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward,

<sup>24</sup>and the leader of the fathers' households of the Gershonites: Eliasaph the son of Lael.

Duties of the Levites

<sup>25</sup>Now the duties of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting included the tabernacle and the tent, its covering, and the curtain for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

<sup>26</sup>and the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain for the entrance of the courtyard which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its ropes, according to all the service concerning them.

<sup>27</sup>Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

<sup>29</sup>The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle, <sup>30</sup>and the leader of the fathers' households of the Kohathite families: Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

<sup>31</sup>Now their duties included the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister, the curtain, and all the service concerning them;

<sup>32</sup>and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was the head of the leaders of Levi, and he had the supervision of those who performed the duties of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup>Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari.

<sup>35</sup>And the leader of the fathers' households of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to camp on the northward side of the tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup>Now the appointment of duties of the sons of Merari included the framework of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its bases, all its equipment, and all the service concerning them,

<sup>38</sup>Now those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle eastward, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for the obligation of the sons of Israel; but the layman coming near was to be put to death.

Firstborn Redeemed

<sup>40</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Count every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and make a list of their names.

<sup>41</sup>And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am the LORD—instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the cattle of the sons of Israel.”

<sup>42</sup>So Moses counted all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded him;

<sup>43</sup>and all the firstborn males, by the number of names from a month old and upward for their numbered men, were 22,273.

<sup>44</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>45</sup>“Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites in place of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am the LORD.

<sup>48</sup>and you shall give the money, the redemption price of those who are in excess among them, to Aaron and to his sons.”

<sup>49</sup>So Moses took the redemption money from those who were in excess of the number of those redeemed by the Levites;

<sup>50</sup>from the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the money in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, 1,365.

<sup>51</sup>Then Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to his sons, at the command of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 4

Duties of the Kohathites

- <sup>2</sup>“Take a census of the descendants of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers’ households,
- <sup>3</sup>from thirty years old and upward, even to fifty years old, everyone who can enter the service of ministry to do work in the tent of meeting.
- <sup>4</sup>This is the work of the descendants of Kohath in the tent of meeting, concerning the most holy things.
- <sup>5</sup>“When the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the veil of the curtain, and cover the ark of the testimony with it;
- <sup>6</sup>and they shall place a covering of fine leather on it, and spread over it a cloth of pure violet, and insert its carrying poles.
- <sup>7</sup>Over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall also spread a cloth of violet and put on it the dishes, the pans, the sacrificial bowls, and the jugs for the drink offering; and the continual bread shall be on it.
- <sup>8</sup>And they shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet material, and cover the same with a covering of fine leather, and they shall insert its carrying poles.
- <sup>9</sup>Then they shall take a violet cloth and cover the lampstand for the light, along with its lamps, its tongs, its trays, and all its oil containers, by which they attend to it;
- <sup>10</sup>and they shall put it and all its utensils in a covering of fine leather, and put it on the carrying bars.
- <sup>11</sup>Over the golden altar they shall spread a violet cloth, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and they shall insert its carrying poles;
- <sup>12</sup>and they shall take all the utensils of service, with which they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a violet cloth and cover them with a covering of fine leather, and put them on the carrying bars.
- <sup>13</sup>Then they shall clean away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

<sup>14</sup>They shall also put on it all its utensils by which they serve in connection with it: the firepans, the forks, shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread a cover of fine leather over it and insert its carrying poles.

<sup>15</sup>When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy objects and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is to set out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them by the poles, so that they will not touch the holy objects and die. These are the things in the tent of meeting that the sons of Kohath are to carry.

<sup>16</sup>“Now the responsibility of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual grain offering, and the anointing oil—the responsibility of all the tabernacle and everything that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Do not let the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be eliminated from among the Levites.

<sup>19</sup>Rather, do this for them so that they will live and not die when they approach the most holy objects: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each of them to his work and to his load;

<sup>20</sup>but they shall not come in to see the holy objects even for a moment, or they will die.”

Duties of the Gershonites

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>22</sup>“Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers’ households, by their families;

<sup>23</sup>from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old you shall count them: all who can enter to perform service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.

<sup>24</sup>This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in carrying:

<sup>25</sup>they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tent of meeting with its covering and the covering of fine leather that is on top of it, and the curtain for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

<sup>26</sup>and the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain for the entrance of the gate of the courtyard that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their ropes and all the equipment for their service; and everything that is to be done by them, they shall perform.

<sup>28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting; and their duties shall be under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Merarites

<sup>29</sup>“As for the sons of Merari, you shall count them by their families, by their fathers’ households;

<sup>30</sup>from thirty years old and upward, even to fifty years old, you shall count them, everyone who can enter the service to do the work of the tent of meeting.

<sup>31</sup>Now this is the duty of their loads, for all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, and its bases,

<sup>32</sup>and the pillars around the courtyard and their bases, their pegs, and their ropes, with all their equipment and with all their service; and you shall assign by names of the men the items that each is to carry.

<sup>33</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.”

<sup>34</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation counted the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers' households,

<sup>35</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter the service for work in the tent of meeting.

<sup>38</sup>And the numbered men of the sons of Gershon by their families and by their fathers' households,

<sup>39</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter the service for work in the tent of meeting—

<sup>41</sup>These were the numbered men of the families of the sons of Gershon, everyone who was serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron counted according to the commandment of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup>And the numbered men of the families of the sons of Merari by their families, by their fathers' households,

<sup>43</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter the service for work in the tent of meeting—

<sup>46</sup>All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel counted, by their families and by their fathers' households,

<sup>47</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter to do the work of service and the work of carrying in the tent of meeting—

<sup>48</sup>their numbered men were 8,580.

<sup>49</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses, they were counted, everyone by his serving or carrying; so these were his numbered men, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

On Defilement

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel that they send away from the camp everyone with leprosy, everyone having a discharge, and everyone who is unclean because of contact with a dead person.

<sup>3</sup>You shall send away both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they do not defile their camp where I dwell in their midst.”

<sup>4</sup>And the sons of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as the LORD had spoken to Moses, that is what the sons of Israel did.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>6</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel: ‘When a man or woman commits any of the sins of mankind, acting unfaithfully against the LORD, and that person is guilty,

<sup>7</sup>then he shall confess his sin which he has committed, and he shall make restitution in full for his wrong and add to it a fifth of it, and give it to him whom he has wronged.

<sup>8</sup>But if the person has no redeemer to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution which is made for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, besides the ram of atonement, by which atonement is made for him.

<sup>9</sup>Also every contribution pertaining to all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the priest, shall be his.

<sup>10</sup>So every person's holy gifts shall be his; whatever anyone gives to the priest, it becomes his.' ”

The Adultery Test

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘If any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him,

<sup>13</sup>and a man has sexual relations with her and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and she remains undiscovered, although she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act,

<sup>14</sup>if an attitude of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has defiled herself, or if an attitude of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has not defiled herself,

<sup>15</sup>the man shall then bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring as an offering for her a tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall not pour oil on it nor put frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of reminder, a reminder of wrongdoing.

<sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall bring her forward and have her stand before the LORD,

<sup>17</sup>and the priest shall take holy water in an earthenware container; and he shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water.

<sup>18</sup>The priest shall then have the woman stand before the LORD and let down the hair of the woman's head, and place the grain offering of reminder in her hands, that is, the grain offering of jealousy; and in the hand of the priest is to be the water of bitterness that brings a curse.

<sup>19</sup>And the priest shall have her take an oath and shall say to the woman, “If no man has had sexual relations with you and if you have not gone astray into uncleanness, as you are under the authority of your husband, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings a curse;

<sup>20</sup>if, however, you have gone astray, though under the authority of your husband, and if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has had sexual intercourse with you”

<sup>21</sup>(then the priest shall have the woman swear with the oath of the curse, and the priest shall say to the woman), “may the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people by the LORD’S making your thigh shriveled and your belly swollen;

<sup>22</sup>and this water that brings a curse shall go into your stomach, to make your belly swell up and your thigh shrivel.” And the woman shall say, “Amen, Amen.”

<sup>23</sup>“The priest shall then write these curses on a scroll, and he shall wash them off into the water of bitterness.

<sup>24</sup>Then he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings a curse, so that the water which brings a curse will go into her and cause bitterness.

<sup>25</sup>And the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, and he shall wave the grain offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar;

<sup>26</sup>and the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering as its reminder offering and offer it up in smoke on the altar, and afterward he shall make the woman drink the water.

<sup>27</sup>When he has made her drink the water, then it will come about, if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, that the water which brings a curse will go into her and cause bitterness, and her belly will swell up and her thigh will shrivel, and the woman will become a curse among her people.

<sup>28</sup>But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, she will be immune and conceive children.

<sup>29</sup>‘This is the law of jealousy: when a wife, who is under the authority of her husband, goes astray and defiles herself,

<sup>30</sup>or when an attitude of jealousy comes over a man and he is jealous of his wife, he shall then have the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest shall apply all of this law to her.

<sup>31</sup>The man, moreover, will be free of guilt, but that woman shall bear the consequences of her guilt.’ ”

Numbers 6

Law of the Nazirites

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man or woman makes a special vow, namely, the vow of a Nazirite, to live as a Nazirite for the LORD,

<sup>4</sup>All the days of his consecration he shall not eat anything that is produced from the grape vine, from the seeds even to the skin.

<sup>6</sup>‘All the days of his life as a Nazirite for the LORD he shall not come up to a dead person.

<sup>8</sup>All the days of his consecration he is holy to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>But if someone dies very suddenly beside him and he defiles his consecrated head of hair, then he shall shave his head on the day when he becomes clean; he shall shave it on the seventh day.

<sup>10</sup>Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young doves to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>11</sup>And the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him regarding his sin because of the dead person. And on that same day he shall consecrate his head,

<sup>12</sup>and shall live his days of consecration as a Nazirite for the LORD, and shall bring a male lamb a year old as a guilt offering; but the preceding days will not count, because his consecration was defiled.

<sup>13</sup>Now this is the law of the Nazirite when the days of his consecration are fulfilled: he shall bring his offering to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>14</sup>And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb a year old without defect as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb a year old without defect as a sin offering, one ram without defect as a peace offering, <sup>15</sup>and a basket of unleavened loaves of fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers spread with oil, along with their grain offering and their drink offering.

<sup>16</sup>Then the priest shall present them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup>He shall also offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>19</sup>And the priest shall take the ram's shoulder when it has been boiled, and one unleavened loaf from the basket and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated hair.

<sup>20</sup>Then the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. It is holy for the priest, together with the breast offered as a wave offering, and the thigh offered as a contribution; and afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.'

<sup>21</sup>"This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD according to his consecration, in addition to what else he can afford; corresponding to his vow which he makes, so he shall do according to the law of his consecration."

Aaron's Benediction

<sup>22</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>23</sup>"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'In this way you shall bless the sons of Israel. You are to say to them:

<sup>24</sup>The LORD bless you, and keep you;

<sup>25</sup>The LORD cause His face to shine on you, And be gracious to you;

<sup>26</sup>The LORD lift up His face to you, And give you peace.'

<sup>27</sup>So they shall invoke My name on the sons of Israel, and then I will bless them."

Numbers 7

Offerings of the Leaders

<sup>1</sup>Now on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it with all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; he anointed them and consecrated them also.

<sup>2</sup>Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households, made an offering (they were the leaders of the tribes; they were the supervisors over the numbered men).

<sup>3</sup>When they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders and an ox for each one, then they presented them in front of the tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Accept these things from them, that they may be used in the service of the tent of meeting, and you shall give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service.”

<sup>6</sup>So Moses took the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

<sup>7</sup>Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service,

<sup>8</sup>and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>9</sup>But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath, because theirs was the service of the holy objects, which they carried on the shoulder.

<sup>10</sup>And the leaders offered the dedication offering for the altar when it was anointed, so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “They shall present their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

<sup>12</sup>Now the one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah;

<sup>13</sup>and his offering was one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>15</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>16</sup>one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>18</sup>On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented an offering;

<sup>19</sup>he presented as his offering one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>21</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>22</sup>one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>24</sup>On the third day it was Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the sons of Zebulun;

<sup>25</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>27</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>30</sup>On the fourth day it was Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader of the sons of Reuben;

<sup>31</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>33</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>36</sup>On the fifth day it was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, leader of the sons of Simeon;

<sup>37</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>39</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>42</sup>On the sixth day it was Eliasaph the son of Deuel, leader of the sons of Gad;

<sup>43</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>45</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>46</sup>one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>48</sup>On the seventh day it was Elishama the son of Ammihud, leader of the sons of Ephraim;

<sup>49</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>51</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>54</sup>On the eighth day it was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, leader of the sons of Manasseh;

<sup>55</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>57</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>58</sup>one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>60</sup>On the ninth day it was Abidan the son of Gideoni, leader of the sons of Benjamin;

<sup>61</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>63</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>66</sup>On the tenth day it was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, leader of the sons of Dan;

<sup>67</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>69</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>70</sup>one male goat as a sin offering;

<sup>72</sup>On the eleventh day it was Pagiel the son of Ochran, leader of the sons of Asher;

<sup>73</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>75</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>78</sup>On the twelfth day it was Ahira the son of Enan, leader of the sons of Naphtali;

<sup>79</sup>his offering was also one silver dish whose weight was 130 shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels in sanctuary shekels, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

<sup>81</sup>one bull, one ram, and one male lamb one year old, as a burnt offering;

<sup>83</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs one year old. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup>This was the dedication offering for the altar from the leaders of Israel when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold pans,

<sup>85</sup>each silver dish weighing 130 shekels and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the utensils totaled 2,400 in sanctuary shekels;

<sup>86</sup>the twelve gold pans full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece in sanctuary shekels, all the gold of the pans totaled 120 shekels.

<sup>88</sup>and all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings totaled twenty-four bulls, all the rams, sixty, the male goats, sixty, and the male lambs one year old, sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup>Now when Moses entered the tent of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the atoning cover that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim; so He spoke to him.

Numbers 8

The Seven Lamps

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron and say to him, ‘When you mount the lamps, the seven lamps will provide light in the front of the lampstand.’”

<sup>3</sup>Therefore Aaron did so; he mounted its lamps at the front of the lampstand, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>4</sup>Now this was the workmanship of the lampstand, hammered work of gold; from its base to its flower ornamentation it was hammered work; according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Cleansing the Levites

<sup>5</sup>Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>6</sup>“Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel and cleanse them.

<sup>7</sup>This is what you shall do to them, for their cleansing: sprinkle purifying water on them, and have them use a razor over their whole body, and they shall wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.

<sup>8</sup>Then have them take a bull with its grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and you shall take a second bull as a sin offering.

<sup>9</sup>So you shall present the Levites in front of the tent of meeting. You shall also assemble the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup>and present the Levites before the LORD; and the sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites.

<sup>11</sup>Aaron then shall present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the sons of Israel, so that they may qualify to perform the service of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Now the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; then you are to offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons so as to present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“So you shall single out the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine.

<sup>15</sup>Then after that the Levites may go in to serve the tent of meeting. But you shall cleanse them and present them as a wave offering;

<sup>16</sup>for they are exclusively given to Me from among the sons of Israel. I have taken them for Myself instead of the firstborn of every womb, the firstborn of all the sons of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is Mine, among the people and among the animals; on the day that I fatally struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for Myself.

<sup>18</sup>But I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to perform the service of the sons of Israel at the tent of meeting and to make atonement on behalf of the sons of Israel, so that there will be no affliction among the sons of Israel due to their approaching the sanctuary.”

<sup>20</sup>So this is what Moses, Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel did to the Levites; according to everything that the LORD had commanded Moses regarding the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them.

<sup>21</sup>The Levites, too, purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; and Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. Aaron also made atonement for them to cleanse them.

<sup>22</sup>Then after that the Levites went in to perform their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons; just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

Retirement for the Levites

<sup>23</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“This is what applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall enter to perform service in the work of the tent of meeting.

<sup>25</sup>But at the age of fifty years they shall retire from service in the work and not work anymore.

<sup>26</sup>They may, however, assist their brothers in the tent of meeting, to fulfill an obligation, but they themselves shall do no work. In this way you shall deal with the Levites in their obligations.”

Numbers 9

The Passover

<sup>2</sup>“Now the sons of Israel are to celebrate the Passover at its appointed time.

<sup>5</sup>And they celebrated the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

<sup>6</sup>But there were some men who were unclean because of contact with a dead person, so that they could not celebrate Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day.

<sup>7</sup>Those men said to him, “Though we are unclean because of a dead person, why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the sons of Israel?”

<sup>8</sup>Moses then said to them, “Wait, and I will listen to what the LORD will command concerning you.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If any one of you or of your generations becomes unclean because of a dead person, or is on a distant journey, he may, however, celebrate the Passover to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>In the second month on the fourteenth day at twilight, they shall celebrate it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

<sup>12</sup>They shall not leave any of it until morning, nor break a bone of it; they shall celebrate it in accordance with the whole statute of the Passover.

<sup>13</sup>But the person who is clean and is not on a journey, yet refrains from celebrating the Passover, that person shall then be cut off from his people, because he did not present the offering of the LORD at its appointed time. That person will bear the responsibility for his sin.

<sup>14</sup>And if a stranger resides among you and celebrates the Passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the Passover and its ordinance, so he shall celebrate it; you shall have the same statute, both for the stranger and for the native of the land.’ ”

The Cloud on the Tabernacle

<sup>15</sup>Now on the day that the tabernacle was erected, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony, and in the evening it was like the appearance of fire over the tabernacle until morning.

<sup>16</sup>That is how it was continuously; the cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

<sup>17</sup>Whenever the cloud was lifted from over the tent, afterward the sons of Israel would set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the sons of Israel would camp.

<sup>18</sup>At the command of the LORD the sons of Israel would set out, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud settled over the tabernacle, they remained camped.

<sup>19</sup>Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, the sons of Israel would comply with the LORD's ordinance and not set out.

<sup>20</sup>If sometimes the cloud remained a few days over the tabernacle, in accordance with the command of the LORD they remained camped. Then in accordance with the command of the LORD they set out.

<sup>21</sup>If sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning, when the cloud was lifted in the morning they would set out; or if it remained in the daytime and at night, whenever the cloud was lifted, they would set out.

<sup>22</sup>Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud lingered over the tabernacle, staying above it, the sons of Israel remained camped and did not set out; but when it was lifted, they did set out.

Numbers 10

The Silver Trumpets

<sup>3</sup>Now when both are blown, all the congregation shall meet you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>4</sup>But if only one is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the divisions of Israel, shall meet you.

<sup>5</sup>And when you blow an alarm, the camps that are pitched on the east side shall set out.

<sup>6</sup>Then when you sound an alarm the second time, the camps that are pitched on the south side shall set out; an alarm is to be sounded for them to break camp.

<sup>7</sup>When convening the assembly, however, you shall blow the trumpets without sounding an alarm.

<sup>8</sup>The sons of Aaron, moreover, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and this shall be a permanent statute for you throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup>And when you go to war in your land against the enemy who attacks you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you will be thought of by the LORD your God, and be saved from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup>Also on the day of your joy and at your appointed feasts, and on the first days of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be as a reminder of you before your God. I am the LORD your God.”

The Tribes Leave Sinai

<sup>11</sup>Now in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, the cloud was lifted from above the tabernacle of the testimony;

<sup>12</sup>and the sons of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai. Then the cloud settled in the wilderness of Paran.

<sup>13</sup>So they moved on for the first time in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

<sup>15</sup>and Nethanel the son of Zuar, over the tribal army of the sons of Issachar;

<sup>16</sup>and Eliab the son of Helon over the tribal army of the sons of Zebulun.

<sup>17</sup>Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who were carrying the tabernacle, set out.

<sup>18</sup>Next the flag of the camp of Reuben, by their armies, set out with Elizur the son of Shedeur, over its army,

<sup>19</sup>and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai over the tribal army of the sons of Simeon,

<sup>20</sup>and Eliasaph the son of Deuel was over the tribal army of the sons of Gad.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy objects; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

<sup>23</sup>and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur over the tribal army of the sons of Manasseh;

<sup>25</sup>Then the flag of the camp of the sons of Dan, by their armies, which formed the rear guard for all the camps, set out, with Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai over its army,

<sup>26</sup>and Pagiel the son of Ochran over the tribal army of the sons of Asher;

<sup>27</sup>and Ahira the son of Enan over the tribal army of the sons of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup>This was the order of marching for the sons of Israel by their armies as they set out.

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.’ Come with us and we will do you good, for the LORD has promised good concerning Israel.”

<sup>30</sup>But he said to him, “I will not come, but rather will go to my own land and relatives.”

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, “Please do not leave us, since you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will be as eyes for us.

<sup>32</sup>So it will be, if you go with us, that whatever good the LORD does for us, we will do for you.”

<sup>33</sup>So they moved on from the mountain of the LORD three days’ journey, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD going on in front of them for the three days, to seek out a resting place for them.

<sup>34</sup>And the cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

<sup>35</sup>Then it came about when the ark set out that Moses said, “Rise up, LORD! And may Your enemies be scattered, And those who hate You flee from Your presence.”

<sup>36</sup>And when it came to rest, he said, “Return, LORD, To the myriad thousands of Israel.”

Numbers 11

The People Complain

<sup>1</sup>Now the people became like those who complain of adversity in the ears of the LORD; and the LORD heard them and His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some at the outskirts of the camp.

<sup>2</sup>The people then cried out to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire died out.

<sup>3</sup>So that place was named Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

<sup>4</sup>Now the rabble who were among them had greedy cravings; and the sons of Israel also wept again and said, “Who will give us meat to eat?”

<sup>5</sup>We remember the fish which we used to eat for free in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

<sup>6</sup>but now our appetite is gone. There is nothing at all to look at except this manna!”

<sup>7</sup>Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium.

<sup>8</sup>The people would roam about and gather it and grind it between two millstones, or pound it in the mortar, and boil it in the pot and make loaves with it; and its taste was like the taste of cake baked with oil.

<sup>9</sup>When the dew came down on the camp at night, the manna would come down with it.

The Complaint of Moses

<sup>10</sup>Now Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, each one at the entrance of his tent; and the anger of the LORD became very hot, and Moses was displeased.

<sup>11</sup>So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You been so hard on Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have put the burden of all this people on me?”

<sup>12</sup>Was it I who conceived all this people? Or did I give birth to them, that You should say to me, ‘Carry them in your arms, as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which You swore to their fathers’?

<sup>13</sup>Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me, saying, ‘Give us meat so that we may eat!’

<sup>14</sup>I am not able to carry all this people by myself, because it is too burdensome for me.

<sup>15</sup>So if You are going to deal with me this way, please kill me now, if I have found favor in Your sight, and do not let me see my misery.”

Seventy Elders to Assist Moses

<sup>16</sup>The LORD therefore said to Moses, “Gather for Me seventy men from the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers, and bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their stand there with you.

<sup>17</sup>Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take away some of the Spirit who is upon you, and put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you will not bear it by yourself.

<sup>18</sup>And you shall say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, “Oh that someone would give us meat to eat! For we were well-off in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat and you shall eat.

<sup>19</sup>You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

<sup>20</sup>but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nose and makes you nauseated; because you have rejected the LORD who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?” ’ ”

<sup>21</sup>But Moses said, “The people, among whom I am included, are six hundred thousand on foot! Yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, so that they may eat for a whole month.’

<sup>22</sup>Are flocks and herds to be slaughtered for them, so that it will be sufficient for them? Or are all the fish of the sea to be caught for them, so that it will be sufficient for them?”

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Is the LORD’s power too little? Now you shall see whether My word will come true for you or not.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. He also gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and positioned them around the tent.

<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him; and He took away some of the Spirit who was upon him and placed Him upon the seventy elders. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. Yet they did not do it again.

<sup>26</sup>But two men had remained in the camp; the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other, Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them (and they were among those who had been registered, but had not gone out to the tent), and they prophesied in the camp.

<sup>27</sup>So a young man ran and informed Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun, the personal servant of Moses from his youth, responded and said, “My lord Moses, restrain them!”

<sup>29</sup>But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? If only all the LORD’S people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!”

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses returned to the camp, both he and the elders of Israel.

The Quail and the Plague

<sup>31</sup>Now a wind burst forth from the LORD and it brought quail from the sea, and dropped them beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and a day’s journey on the other side all around the camp, and about two cubits deep on the surface of the ground.

<sup>32</sup>And the people spent all that day, all night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quail (the one who gathered least gathered ten homers) and spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

<sup>33</sup>While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very severe plague.

<sup>34</sup>So that place was named Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had been greedy.

<sup>35</sup>From Kibroth-hattaavah the people set out for Hazeroth, and they remained at Hazeroth.

Numbers 12

The Murmuring of Miriam and Aaron

<sup>1</sup>Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman);

<sup>2</sup>and they said, “Is it a fact that the LORD has spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?” And the LORD heard this.

<sup>3</sup>(Now the man Moses was very humble, more than any person who was on the face of the earth.)

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD suddenly said to Moses and to Aaron and Miriam, “You three go out to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them went out.

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent; and He called Aaron and Miriam. When they had both come forward, <sup>6</sup>He said, “Now hear My words: If there is a prophet among you, I, the LORD, will make Myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream.

<sup>7</sup>“It is not this way for My servant Moses; He is faithful in all My household;

<sup>8</sup>With him I speak mouth to mouth, That is, openly, and not using mysterious language, And he beholds the form of the LORD. So why were you not afraid To speak against My servant, against Moses?”

<sup>9</sup>And the anger of the LORD burned against them and He departed.

<sup>10</sup>But when the cloud had withdrawn from above the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. As Aaron turned toward Miriam, behold, she was leprous.

<sup>11</sup>Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, I beg you, do not hold us responsible for this sin by which we have turned out to be foolish, and by which we have sinned.

<sup>13</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “God, heal her, please!”

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had only spit in her face, would she not be put to shame for seven days? Have her shut outside the camp for seven days, and afterward she may be received again.”

<sup>15</sup>So Miriam was shut outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was received again.

<sup>16</sup>Afterward, however, the people moved on from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13

Spies View the Land

<sup>2</sup>“Send out men for yourself to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am going to give the sons of Israel; you shall send a man from each of their fathers’ tribes, every one a leader among them.”

<sup>4</sup>These then were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

<sup>16</sup>These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land; but Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

<sup>17</sup>When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them, "Go up there into the Negev; then go up into the hill country.

<sup>18</sup>See what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many.

<sup>19</sup>And how is the land in which they live, is it good or bad? And how are the cities in which they live, are the people in open camps or in fortifications?

<sup>20</sup>And how is the land, is it productive or unproductive? Are there trees in it or not? And show yourselves courageous and get some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, at Lebo-hamath.

<sup>22</sup>When they had gone up into the Negev, they came to Hebron where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak were. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

<sup>23</sup>Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and from there they cut off a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two men, with some of the pomegranates and the figs.

<sup>24</sup>That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut off from there.

The Spies' Reports

<sup>25</sup>When they returned from spying out the land, at the end of forty days,

<sup>26</sup>they went on and came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, in the wilderness of Paran at Kadesh; and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

<sup>27</sup>So they reported to him and said, "We came into the land where you sent us, and it certainly does flow with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

<sup>28</sup>Nevertheless, the people who live in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. And indeed, we saw the descendants of Anak there!

<sup>29</sup>Amalek is living in the land of the Negev, the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites are living in the hill country, and the Canaanites are living by the sea and by the side of the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup>Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, "We should by all means go up and take possession of it, for we will certainly prevail over it."

<sup>31</sup>But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, because they are too strong for us."

<sup>32</sup>So they brought a bad report of the land which they had spied out to the sons of Israel, saying, "The land through which we have gone to spy out is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in it are people of great stature.

<sup>33</sup>We also saw the Nephilim there (the sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight."

Numbers 14

The People Rebel

<sup>1</sup>Then all the congregation raised their voices and cried out, and the people wept that night.

<sup>2</sup>And all the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the entire congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or even if we had died in this wilderness!

<sup>3</sup>So why is the LORD bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder! Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?”

<sup>4</sup>So they said to one another, “Let’s appoint a leader and return to Egypt!”

<sup>6</sup>And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;

<sup>7</sup>and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, “The land which we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land.

<sup>8</sup>If the LORD is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us—a land which flows with milk and honey.

<sup>9</sup>Only do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection is gone from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.”

<sup>10</sup>But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.

Moses Pleads for the People

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people be disrespectful to Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, despite all the signs that I have performed in their midst?

<sup>12</sup>I will strike them with plague and dispossess them, and I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they.”

<sup>13</sup>But Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your strength You brought this people up from their midst,

<sup>14</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, LORD, are in the midst of this people, because You, LORD, are seen eye to eye, while Your cloud stands over them; and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.

<sup>15</sup>Now if You put this people to death all at once, then the nations who have heard of Your fame will say,

<sup>16</sup>‘Since the LORD could not bring this people into the land which He promised them by oath, He slaughtered them in the wilderness.’

<sup>17</sup>So now, please, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have declared, saying,

<sup>18</sup>‘The LORD is slow to anger and abundant in mercy, forgiving wrongdoing and violation of His Law; but He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, inflicting the punishment of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generations.’

<sup>19</sup>Please forgive the guilt of this people in accordance with the greatness of Your mercy, just as You also have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.”

The LORD Pardons and Rebukes

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD said, “I have forgiven them in accordance with your word;

<sup>21</sup>however, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Certainly all the people who have seen My glory and My signs which I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have put Me to the test these ten times and have not listened to My voice,

<sup>23</sup>shall by no means see the land which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who were disrespectful to Me see it.

<sup>24</sup>But as for My servant Caleb, because he has had a different spirit and has followed Me fully, I will bring him into the land which he entered, and his descendants shall take possession of it.

<sup>25</sup>Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys; turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.”

<sup>26</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron again, saying,

<sup>27</sup>“How long shall I put up with this evil congregation who are grumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel which they are voicing against Me.

<sup>28</sup>Say to them, ‘As I live,’ declares the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you;

<sup>29</sup>your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness, all your numbered men according to your complete number from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against Me.

<sup>30</sup>By no means will you come into the land where I swore to settle you, except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>31</sup>Your children, however, whom you said would become plunder—I will bring them in, and they will know the land which you have rejected.

<sup>32</sup>But as for you, your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness.

<sup>33</sup>Also, your sons will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and they will suffer for your unfaithfulness, until your bodies perish in the wilderness.

<sup>34</sup>In accordance with the number of days that you spied out the land, forty days, for every day you shall suffer the punishment for your guilt a year, that is, forty years, and you will know My opposition.

<sup>35</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken, I certainly will do this to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. They shall be worn out in this wilderness, and there they shall die.’ ”

<sup>36</sup>As for the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, and who returned and led all the congregation to grumble against him by bringing a bad report about the land,

<sup>37</sup>those men who brought the bad report of the land also died by a plague in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land.

Israel Repulsed

<sup>39</sup>Now when Moses spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people mourned greatly.

<sup>40</sup>In the morning, however, they got up early and went up to the ridge of the hill country, saying, “Here we are; and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned.”

<sup>41</sup>But Moses said, “Why then are you violating the command of the LORD, when doing so will not succeed?

<sup>42</sup>Do not go up, for the LORD is not among you, to prevent you from being defeated by your enemies.

<sup>43</sup>For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will be there to confront you, and you will fall by the sword, since you have turned back from following the LORD. And the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>44</sup>But they foolishly dared to go up to the ridge of the hill country; neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses left the camp.

<sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down, and struck them and scattered them as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15

Laws for Canaan

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land where you are going to live, which I am giving you,

<sup>3</sup>and you make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow, or as a voluntary offering or at your appointed times, to make a soothing aroma to the LORD from the herd or from the flock,

<sup>5</sup>and you shall prepare wine for the drink offering, a fourth of a hin, with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

<sup>6</sup>Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil;

<sup>7</sup>and for the drink offering you shall offer a third of a hin of wine as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>And when you prepare a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a special vow, or for peace offerings to the LORD,

<sup>9</sup>then you shall offer with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil;

<sup>10</sup>and you shall offer as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>‘This is how it shall be done for each ox, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the goats.

<sup>12</sup>According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do for each one according to their number.

<sup>13</sup>Everyone who is a native shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Law for the Stranger

<sup>14</sup>Now if a stranger resides among you, or one who may be among you throughout your generations, and he wants to make an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD, just as you do so shall he do.

<sup>15</sup>As for the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who resides among you, a permanent statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>There is to be one law and one ordinance for you and for the stranger who resides with you.’ ”

<sup>17</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land where I am bringing you,

<sup>19</sup>then it shall be, that when you eat from the food of the land, you shall lift up an offering to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall lift up a loaf as an offering; as an offering of the threshing floor, so you shall lift it up.

<sup>21</sup>From the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup>‘But when you unintentionally do wrong and fail to comply with all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses,

<sup>23</sup>that is, all that the LORD has commanded you through Moses from the day that the LORD gave commandments and onward, throughout your generations,

<sup>24</sup>then it shall be, if it is done unintentionally, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one bull as a burnt offering, as a soothing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat as a sin offering.

<sup>25</sup>Then the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and they will be forgiven; for it was an unintentional wrong, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintentional wrong.

<sup>26</sup>So all the congregation of the sons of Israel will be forgiven, as well as the stranger who resides among them, for guilt was attributed to all the people through an unintentional wrong.

<sup>27</sup>‘Also, if one person sins unintentionally, then he shall offer a one-year-old female goat as a sin offering.

<sup>28</sup>And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who goes astray by an unintentional sin, making atonement for him so that he may be forgiven.

<sup>29</sup>You shall have one law for the native among the sons of Israel and for the stranger who resides among them, for one who does anything wrong unintentionally.

<sup>30</sup>But the person who does wrong defiantly, whether he is a native or a stranger, that one is blaspheming the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

<sup>31</sup>Since he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his guilt will be on him.’ ”

Sabbath-breaking Punished

<sup>32</sup>Now while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

<sup>33</sup>And those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation;

<sup>34</sup>and they placed him in custody, because it had not been decided what should be done to him.

<sup>35</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “The man must be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.”

<sup>36</sup>So all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death with stones, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>37</sup>The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>38</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and tell them that they shall make for themselves tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and that they shall put on the tassel of each corner a violet thread.

<sup>39</sup>It shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, so that you will do them and not follow your own heart and your own eyes, which led you to prostitute yourselves, <sup>40</sup>so that you will remember and do all My commandments and be holy to your God.

<sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt to be your God; I am the LORD your God.”

Numbers 16

Korah's Rebellion

<sup>1</sup>Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men,

<sup>5</sup>and he spoke to Korah and all his group, saying, “Tomorrow morning the LORD will make known who is His, and who is holy, and will bring that one near to Himself; indeed, the one whom He will choose, He will bring near to Himself.

<sup>6</sup>Do this: take censers for yourselves, Korah and your whole group,

<sup>7</sup>and put fire in them, and place incense upon them in the presence of the LORD tomorrow; and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the one who is holy. You have gone far enough, you sons of Levi!”

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi:

<sup>9</sup>Is it too small an honor for you that the God of Israel has singled you out from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to perform the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

<sup>10</sup>and that He has brought you near, Korah, and all your brothers, sons of Levi, with you? But are you seeking the priesthood as well?

<sup>11</sup>Therefore you and your whole group are the ones gathered together against the LORD; but as for Aaron, who is he, that you grumble against him?”

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses sent a summons to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; but they said, “We will not come up.

<sup>13</sup>Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to have us die in the wilderness, but you would also appoint yourself as master over us?

<sup>14</sup>Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor have you given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Pay no attention to their offering! I have not taken a single donkey from them, nor have I done harm to any of them.”

<sup>16</sup>Moses said to Korah, “You and all your group be present before the LORD tomorrow, you and they along with Aaron.

<sup>17</sup>And each of you take his censer and put incense on it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, 250 censers; also you and Aaron shall each bring his censer.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

<sup>21</sup>“Separate yourselves from among this congregation, so that I may consume them instantly.”

<sup>22</sup>But they fell on their faces and said, “God, the God of the spirits of humanity, when one person sins, will You be angry with the entire congregation?”

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>25</sup>Then Moses arose and went to Dathan and Abiram, with the elders of Israel following him,

<sup>26</sup>and he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Get away now from the tents of these wicked men, and do not touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away in all their sin!”

<sup>28</sup>Then Moses said, “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these deeds; for it is not my doing.

<sup>29</sup>If these men die the death of all mankind, or if they suffer the fate of all mankind, then the LORD has not sent me.

<sup>30</sup>But if the LORD brings about an entirely new thing and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them with everything that is theirs, and they descend alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have been disrespectful to the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup>And as he finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them split open;

<sup>32</sup>and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, and all the people who belonged to Korah with all their possessions.

<sup>33</sup>So they and all that belonged to them went down alive to Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

<sup>34</sup>Then all Israel who were around them fled at their outcry, for they said, “The earth might swallow us!”

<sup>35</sup>Fire also came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>37</sup>“Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, that he shall pick up the censers from the midst of the burned area, because they are holy; and you are to scatter the burning coals farther away.

<sup>38</sup>As for the censers of these men who have sinned at the cost of their own lives, have them made into hammered sheets as plating for the altar, since they did present them before the LORD and they are holy; and they shall serve as a sign to the sons of Israel.”

<sup>39</sup>So the priest Eleazar took the bronze censers which the men who were burned had offered, and they hammered them out as plating for the altar,

<sup>40</sup>as a reminder to the sons of Israel so that no layman, anyone who was not of the descendants of Aaron, would approach to burn incense before the LORD; then he would not become like Korah and his group—just as the LORD had spoken to him through Moses.

Murmuring and Plague

<sup>41</sup>But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You are the ones who have caused the death of the LORD’s people!”

<sup>42</sup>It came about, however, when the congregation had assembled against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

<sup>43</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,

<sup>44</sup>and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>45</sup>“Get away from among this congregation so that I may consume them instantly.” Then they fell on their faces.

<sup>46</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, “Take your censer and put fire in it from the altar, and place incense on it; then bring it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from the LORD, the plague has begun!”

<sup>47</sup>Then Aaron took it just as Moses had spoken, and he ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague had begun among the people. So he put on the incense and made atonement for the people.

<sup>48</sup>And he took his stand between the dead and the living, so that the plague was brought to a halt.

<sup>49</sup>But those who died by the plague were 14,700 in number, besides those who died on account of Korah.

<sup>50</sup>Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, for the plague had been brought to a halt.

Numbers 17

Aaron’s Staff Buds

- <sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the sons of Israel, and obtain from them a staff for each father’s household: twelve staffs, from all their leaders for their fathers’ households. You shall write each man’s name on his staff,
- <sup>3</sup> and write Aaron’s name on the staff of Levi; for there is to be one staff for the head of each of their fathers’ households.
- <sup>4</sup> You shall then leave them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony, where I meet with you.
- <sup>5</sup> And it will come about that the staff of the man whom I choose will sprout. So I will relieve Myself of the grumblings of the sons of Israel, who are grumbling against you.”
- <sup>6</sup> So Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their leaders gave him a staff, one for each leader, for their fathers’ households, twelve staffs in all, with the staff of Aaron among their staffs.
- <sup>7</sup> Then Moses left the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.
- <sup>8</sup> Now on the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, Aaron’s staff for the house of Levi had sprouted and produced buds and bloomed with blossoms, and it yielded ripe almonds.
- <sup>9</sup> Moses then brought out all the staffs from the presence of the LORD to all the sons of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his staff.
- <sup>10</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Put the staff of Aaron back in front of the testimony to be kept as a sign against the rebels, so that you may put an end to their grumblings against Me and they do not die.”
- <sup>11</sup> Moses did so; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.
- <sup>12</sup> Then the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Behold, we are passing away, we are perishing, we are all perishing!”

<sup>13</sup>Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, must die. Are we to perish completely?”

Numbers 18

Duties of Levites

<sup>1</sup>So the LORD said to Aaron, “You, your sons, and your father’s household with you shall bear the guilt in connection with the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the guilt in connection with your priesthood.

<sup>2</sup>But also bring your brothers with you, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, so that they may join you and serve you, while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

<sup>3</sup>And they shall perform duties for you and the duties of the whole tent, but they shall not come near the furnishings of the sanctuary and the altar, or both they and you will die.

<sup>4</sup>They shall join you and perform the duties of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; but an unauthorized person shall not come near you.

<sup>5</sup>So you shall perform the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, so that there will no longer be wrath on the sons of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Behold, I Myself have taken your fellow Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service for the tent of meeting.

<sup>7</sup>But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything that concerns the altar and inside the veil, and you are to perform service. I am giving you the priesthood as a service that is a gift, and the unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death.”

The Priests’ Portion

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, “Now behold, I Myself have put you in charge of My offerings, all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel I have given to you as a portion and to your sons as a permanent allotment.

<sup>9</sup>This shall be yours from the most holy gifts reserved from the fire; every offering of theirs, namely every grain offering, every sin offering, and every guilt offering, with which they shall make restitution to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons.

<sup>10</sup>As the most holy gifts you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup>This also is yours, the offering of their gift, that is, all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel; I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters with you as a permanent allotment. Everyone of your household who is clean may eat it.

<sup>12</sup>All the best of the fresh oil and all the best of the fresh wine and of the grain, the first fruits of what they give to the LORD, I have given them to you.

<sup>13</sup>The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone of your household who is clean may eat it.

<sup>15</sup>Every firstborn of the womb of all flesh, whether human or animal, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; however you must redeem the human firstborn, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.

<sup>16</sup>As to their redemption price, from a month old you shall redeem them, by your assessment, five shekels in silver by the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

<sup>17</sup>But the firstborn of an ox, the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and offer up their fat in smoke as an offering by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>However, their meat shall be yours; it shall be yours like the breast of a wave offering and like the right thigh.

<sup>19</sup>All the offerings of the holy gifts, which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as a permanent allotment. It is a permanent covenant of salt before the LORD to you and your descendants with you.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their land nor own any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>“To the sons of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel as an inheritance, in return for their service which they perform, the service of the tent of meeting.

<sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting again, or they will bring sin on themselves and die.

<sup>23</sup>Only the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their own guilt; it shall be a permanent statute throughout your generations, and among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

<sup>24</sup>For the tithe of the sons of Israel, which they offer as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites as an inheritance; therefore I have said concerning them, ‘They shall have no inheritance among the sons of Israel.’ ”

<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>26</sup>“Moreover, you shall speak to the Levites and say to them, ‘When you take from the sons of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall present an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.

<sup>27</sup>Your offering shall be credited to you like the grain from the threshing floor or the full produce from the wine vat.

<sup>28</sup>So you shall also present an offering to the LORD from all your tithes, which you receive from the sons of Israel; and from it you shall give the LORD’s offering to Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup>Out of all your gifts you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the sacred part from them.'

<sup>30</sup>And you shall say to them, 'When you have offered from it the best of it, then the rest shall be credited to the Levites like the product of the threshing floor, and like the product of the wine vat.

<sup>31</sup>You may eat it anywhere, you and your households, for it is your compensation in return for your service in the tent of meeting.

<sup>32</sup>And you will bring on yourselves no sin by reason of it when you have offered the best of it. But you shall not profane the sacred gifts of the sons of Israel, so that you do not die.' "

Numbers 19

Ordinance of the Red Heifer

<sup>2</sup>"This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel that they bring you an unblemished red heifer in which there is no defect and on which a yoke has never been mounted.

<sup>3</sup>And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and it shall be brought outside the camp and be slaughtered in his presence.

<sup>5</sup>Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its hide, its flesh, and its blood, with its refuse, shall be burned.

<sup>6</sup>And the priest shall take cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet material, and throw it into the midst of the burning heifer.

<sup>7</sup>The priest shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward come into the camp; but the priest will be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup>The one who burns the heifer shall also wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water, and will be unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup>Now a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and put them outside the camp in a clean place, and the congregation of the sons of Israel shall keep them for water to remove impurity; it is purification from sin.

<sup>10</sup>And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and will be unclean until evening; and it shall be a permanent statute for the sons of Israel and for the stranger who resides among them.

<sup>11</sup>'The one who touches the dead body of any person will also be unclean for seven days.

<sup>12</sup>That one shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and then he will be clean; but if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.

<sup>13</sup>Anyone who touches a dead body, the body of a person who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from Israel. Since the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he will be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

<sup>14</sup>'This is the law when a person dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent will be unclean for seven days.

<sup>15</sup>And every open container, which has no cover tied down on it, will be unclean.

<sup>16</sup>Also, anyone who in the open field touches one who has been killed with a sword or one who has died naturally, or touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

<sup>17</sup>Then for the unclean person they shall take some of the ashes of the burnt purification from sin and running water shall be added to them in a container.

<sup>18</sup>And a clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the furnishings, on the persons who were there, and on the one who touched the bone or the one who was killed or the one who died naturally, or the grave.

<sup>19</sup>Then the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify him, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water and will be clean by evening.

<sup>20</sup>‘But the person who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him, so he is unclean.

<sup>21</sup>So it shall be a permanent statute for them. And the one who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and the one who touches the water for impurity will be unclean until evening.

<sup>22</sup>Furthermore, anything that the unclean person touches will be unclean; and the person who touches it will be unclean until evening.’ ”

Numbers 20

Death of Miriam

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people stayed at Kadesh. Now Miriam died there and was buried there.

<sup>3</sup>Then the people argued with Moses and spoke, saying, “If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD!

<sup>4</sup>Why then have you brought the LORD’s assembly into this wilderness, for us and our livestock to die here?

<sup>5</sup>Why did you make us come up from Egypt, to bring us into this wretched place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, nor is there water to drink!”

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came in from the presence of the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them;

<sup>7</sup>then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

The Waters of Meribah

<sup>8</sup>“Take the staff; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it shall yield its water. So you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and have the congregation and their livestock drink.”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses took the staff from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him;

<sup>10</sup>and Moses and Aaron summoned the assembly in front of the rock. And he said to them, “Listen now, you rebels; shall we bring water for you out of this rock?”

<sup>11</sup>Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff; and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

<sup>12</sup>But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Since you did not trust in Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, for that reason you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

<sup>13</sup>Those were called the waters of Meribah, because the sons of Israel argued with the LORD, and He proved Himself holy among them.

<sup>14</sup>From Kadesh Moses then sent messengers to the king of Edom to say, “This is what your brother Israel has said: ‘You know all the hardship that has overtaken us;

<sup>15</sup>that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we stayed in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly.

<sup>16</sup>But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel, and brought us out from Egypt; now behold, we are at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

<sup>17</sup>Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard; we will not even drink water from a well. We will go along the king's road, not turning to the right or left, until we pass through your territory.' ”

<sup>18</sup>Edom, however, said to him, “You shall not pass through us, or I will come out with the sword against you.”

<sup>19</sup>Again, the sons of Israel said to him, “We will go up by the road, and if I and my livestock do drink any of your water, then I will pay its price. Let me only pass through on my feet, nothing more.”

<sup>20</sup>But he said, “You shall not pass through.” And Edom came out against him with a heavy force and a strong hand.

<sup>21</sup>So Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through his territory; then Israel turned away from him.

<sup>22</sup>Now when they set out from Kadesh, the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

Death of Aaron

<sup>23</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“Aaron will be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because you rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>29</sup>When all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, the whole house of Israel wept for Aaron for thirty days.

Numbers 21

Arad Conquered

<sup>1</sup>When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.

<sup>2</sup>So Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, “If You will indeed hand over this people to me, then I will utterly destroy their cities.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD heard the voice of Israel and turned over the Canaanites; then they utterly destroyed them and their cities. And the place was named Hormah.

<sup>4</sup>Then they set out from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient because of the journey.

<sup>5</sup>So the people spoke against God and Moses: “Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we are disgusted with this miserable food.”

The Bronze Serpent

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

<sup>7</sup>So the people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and against you; intercede with the LORD, that He will remove the serpents from us.” And Moses interceded for the people.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent, and put it on a flag pole; and it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, and looks at it, will live.”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses made a bronze serpent and put it on the flag pole; and it came about, that if a serpent bit someone, and he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

<sup>11</sup>Then they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness which is opposite Moab, to the east.

<sup>13</sup>From there they journeyed and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

<sup>14</sup>For that reason it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, “Waheb in Suphah, And the wadis of the Arnon, <sup>15</sup>And the slope of the wadis That extends to the site of Ar, And leans to the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup>From there they continued to Beer, that is the well where the LORD said to Moses, “Assemble the people, that I may give them water.”

<sup>20</sup>and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the land of Moab, at the top of Pisgah, which overlooks the desert.

Two Victories

<sup>22</sup>“Let me pass through your land. We will not turn off into field or vineyard; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the king’s road until we have passed through your border.”

<sup>25</sup>Israel took all these cities, and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all her villages.

<sup>26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

<sup>27</sup>For that reason those who use proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon! Let it be built! So let the city of Sihon be established.

<sup>29</sup>“Woe to you, Moab! You are destroyed, people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives, And his daughters into captivity, To an Amorite king, Sihon.

<sup>30</sup>“But we have shot them down with arrows, Heshbon is destroyed as far as Dibon, Then we have laid waste as far as Nophah, Which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>33</sup>Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan went out against them with all his people, for battle at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you, and all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.”

<sup>35</sup>So they killed him and his sons and all his people, until there was no survivor left; and they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22

Balak Sends for Balaam

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel journeyed on, and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho.

<sup>2</sup>Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

<sup>3</sup>So Moab was in great fear because of the people, for they were numerous; and Moab was in dread of the sons of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this horde will eat up all that is around us, as the ox eats up the grass of the field!” And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

<sup>5</sup>So he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, at Pethor, which is near the Euphrates River, in the land of the sons of his people, to call for him, saying, “Behold, a people came out of Egypt; behold, they have covered the surface of the land, and they are living opposite me.

<sup>6</sup>Now, therefore, please come, curse this people for me since they are too mighty for me; perhaps I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup>So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left with the fees for divination in their hands; and they came to Balaam and repeated Balak's words to him.

<sup>8</sup>And he said to them, "Spend the night here, and I will bring word back to you just as the LORD may speak to me." And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>9</sup>Then God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"

<sup>10</sup>Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent word to me:

<sup>11</sup>'Behold, there is a people who came out of Egypt, and they cover the surface of the land; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I will be able to fight against them and drive them out.' "

<sup>12</sup>But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed."

<sup>13</sup>So Balaam got up in the morning and said to Balak's representatives, "Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

<sup>14</sup>And the representatives from Moab got up and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refused to come with us."

<sup>15</sup>Then Balak sent representatives once again, more numerous and more distinguished than the previous.

<sup>16</sup>They came to Balaam and said to him, "This is what Balak the son of Zippor says: 'I beg you, let nothing keep you from coming to me;

<sup>17</sup>for I will indeed honor you richly, and I will do whatever you tell me. Please come then, curse this people for me.' "

<sup>18</sup>But Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, "Even if Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything, either small or great, contrary to the command of the LORD my God.

<sup>19</sup>Now please, you also stay here tonight, and I will find out what else the LORD will say to me.”

<sup>20</sup>And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, rise and go with them; but you shall do only the thing that I tell you.”

<sup>21</sup>So Balaam arose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the leaders of Moab.

The Angel and Balaam

<sup>22</sup>But God was angry that he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the road as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

<sup>24</sup>Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path of the vineyards, with a stone wall on this side and on that side.

<sup>25</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed herself against the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall, so he struck her again.

<sup>27</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam was angry and struck the donkey with his staff.

<sup>28</sup>Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?”

<sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to the donkey, “It is because you have made a mockery of me! If only there had been a sword in my hand! For I would have killed you by now!”

<sup>30</sup>But the donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been in the habit of doing such a thing to you?” And he said, “No.”

<sup>31</sup>Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed all the way to the ground.

<sup>32</sup>Then the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out as an adversary, because your way was reckless and contrary to me.

<sup>33</sup>But the donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away from me, I certainly would have killed you just now, and let her live.”

<sup>34</sup>So Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the way against me. Now then, if it is displeasing to you, I will turn back.”

<sup>35</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but you shall speak only the word that I tell you.” So Balaam went along with the representatives of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the Arnon border, at the extreme end of the border.

<sup>37</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not urgently send word to you to call for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I really unable to honor you?”

<sup>38</sup>So Balaam said to Balak, “Behold, I have come to you now! Am I really able to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that only shall I speak.”

<sup>40</sup>Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent some to Balaam and the leaders who were with him.

<sup>41</sup>Then it came about in the morning that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the high places of Baal, and he saw from there a portion of the people.

Numbers 23

The Prophecies of Balaam

<sup>2</sup>Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand beside your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a bare hill.

<sup>4</sup>Now God met with Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have set up the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD put a word in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Return to Balak, and this is what you shall speak.”

<sup>6</sup>So he returned to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, he and all the leaders of Moab.

<sup>7</sup>And he took up his discourse and said, “From Aram Balak has brought me, Moab’s king from the mountains of the East, saying, ‘Come, declare Jacob cursed for me, And come, curse Israel!’

<sup>8</sup>“How am I to put a curse on him upon whom God has not put a curse? And how am I to curse him whom the LORD has not cursed?

<sup>9</sup>“For I see him from the top of the rocks, And I look at him from the hills; Behold, a people that lives in isolation, And does not consider itself to be among the nations.

<sup>10</sup>“Who has counted the dust of Jacob, Or the number of the fourth part of Israel? May I die the death of the upright, And may my end be like his!”

<sup>11</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to put a curse on my enemies, but behold, you have actually blessed them!”

<sup>12</sup>He replied, “Must I not be careful to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

<sup>13</sup>Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from where you may see them, although you will only see the extreme end of them and will not see all of them; and put a curse on them for me from there.”

<sup>14</sup>So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offering while I myself meet the LORD over there.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and this is what you shall speak.”

<sup>17</sup>So he came to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

<sup>18</sup>Then he took up his discourse and said, “Arise, Balak, and hear; Listen to me, son of Zippor!

<sup>19</sup>“God is not a man, that He would lie, Nor a son of man, that He would change His mind; Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

<sup>20</sup>“Behold, I have received a command to bless; When He has blessed, I cannot revoke it.

<sup>21</sup>“He has not looked at misfortune in Jacob; Nor has He seen trouble in Israel; The LORD his God is with him, And the joyful shout of a king is among them.

<sup>22</sup>“God brings them out of Egypt, He is for them like the horns of the wild ox.

<sup>23</sup>“For there is no magic curse against Jacob, Nor is there any divination against Israel; At the proper time it shall be said to Jacob And to Israel, what God has done!

<sup>24</sup>“Behold, a people rises like a lioness, And like a lion it raises itself; It will not lie down until it devours the prey, And drinks the blood of those slain.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

<sup>26</sup>But Balaam replied to Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘Whatever the LORD speaks, I must do’?”

<sup>27</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will be agreeable with God that you curse them for me from there.”

<sup>29</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here.”

<sup>30</sup>Balak did just as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

The Prophecy from Peor

<sup>1</sup>When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times to seek omens, rather he turned his attention toward the wilderness.

<sup>2</sup>And Balaam raised his eyes and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

<sup>3</sup>Then he took up his discourse and said, “The declaration of Balaam the son of Beor, And the declaration of the man whose eye is opened;

<sup>4</sup>The declaration of him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, yet having his eyes uncovered,

<sup>7</sup>“Water will flow from his buckets, And his seed will be by many waters, And his king shall be higher than Agag, And his kingdom shall be exalted.

<sup>8</sup>“God brings him out of Egypt, He is for him like the horns of the wild ox. He will devour the nations who are his adversaries, And will crush their bones, And smash them with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup>“He crouches, he lies down like a lion, And like a lioness, who dares to rouse him? Blessed is everyone who blesses you, And cursed is everyone who curses you.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have persisted in blessing them these three times!

<sup>11</sup>So flee to your place now. I said I would honor you greatly, but behold, the LORD has held you back from honor.”

<sup>12</sup>And Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not in fact tell your messengers whom you had sent to me, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything contrary to the command of the LORD, either good or bad, of my own accord. What the LORD speaks, I will speak”?

<sup>14</sup>So now, behold, I am going to my people; come, and I will advise you of what this people will do to your people in the days to come.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he took up his discourse and said, “The declaration of Balaam the son of Beor, And the declaration of the man whose eye is opened,

<sup>16</sup>The declaration of him who hears the words of God, And knows the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, yet having his eyes uncovered:

<sup>17</sup>I see him, but not now; I look at him, but not near; A star shall appear from Jacob, A scepter shall rise from Israel, And shall smash the forehead of Moab, And overcome all the sons of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup>“And Edom shall be a possession, Seir, its enemies, also will be a possession, While Israel performs valiantly.

<sup>21</sup>And he looked at the Kenite, and took up his discourse and said, “Your dwelling place is enduring, And your nest is set in the cliff.

<sup>22</sup>“Nevertheless Kain will suffer devastation; How long will Asshur keep you captive?”

<sup>23</sup>Then he took up his discourse and said, “Oh, who can live unless God has ordained it?

<sup>24</sup>“But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim, And they shall oppress Asshur and oppress Eber; So they also will come to destruction.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Balaam arose, and he departed and returned to his place, and Balak also went on his way.

Numbers 25

The Sin of Peor

<sup>2</sup>For they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

<sup>3</sup>So Israel became followers of Baal of Peor, and the LORD was angry with Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

<sup>5</sup>So Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Each of you kill his men who have become followers of Baal of Peor.”

<sup>7</sup>When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the congregation and took a spear in his hand,

<sup>8</sup>and he went after the man of Israel into the inner room of the tent and pierced both of them, the man of Israel and the woman, through the abdomen. So the plague on the sons of Israel was brought to a halt.

<sup>9</sup>But those who died from the plague were twenty-four thousand in number.

The Zeal of Phinehas

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has averted My wrath from the sons of Israel in that he was jealous with My jealousy among them, so that I did not destroy the sons of Israel in My jealousy.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore say, ‘Behold, I am giving him My covenant of peace;

<sup>13</sup>and it shall be for him and for his descendants after him, a covenant of a permanent priesthood, because he was jealous for his God and made atonement for the sons of Israel.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Now the name of the dead man of Israel who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's household among the Simeonites.

<sup>15</sup>And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head of the people of a father's household in Midian.

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>17</sup>"Be hostile to the Midianites and attack them;

<sup>18</sup>for they have been hostile to you with their tricks, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the leader of Midian, their sister who was killed on the day of the plague because of Peor."

Numbers 26

Census of a New Generation

<sup>1</sup> Then it came about after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

<sup>4</sup>"Take a census of the people from twenty years old and upward, as the LORD has commanded Moses." Now the sons of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt were as follows:

<sup>5</sup>Reuben, Israel's firstborn, the sons of Reuben: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Eliab: Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram who were called by the congregation, who fought against Moses and against Aaron in the group of Korah, when they fought against the LORD, <sup>10</sup>and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up along with Korah, when that group died, when the fire devoured 250 men, so that they became a warning sign.

<sup>18</sup>These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, 40,500.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Judah were Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

<sup>20</sup>The sons of Judah by their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.

<sup>22</sup>These are the families of Judah by those who were numbered of them, 76,500.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Issachar by their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;

<sup>27</sup>These are the families of the Zebulunites by those who were numbered of them, 60,500.

<sup>30</sup>These are the sons of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

<sup>31</sup>and of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

<sup>32</sup>and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites.

<sup>33</sup>Now Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, only daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>34</sup>These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were 52,700.

<sup>37</sup>These are the families of the sons of Ephraim by those who were numbered of them, 32,500. These are the sons of Joseph by their families.

<sup>41</sup>These are the sons of Benjamin by their families; and those who were numbered of them were 45,600.

<sup>42</sup>These are the sons of Dan by their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan by their families.

<sup>43</sup>All the families of the Shuhamites, by those who were numbered of them, were 64,400.

<sup>48</sup>The sons of Naphtali by their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;

<sup>50</sup>These are the families of Naphtali by their families; and those who were numbered of them were 45,400.

<sup>51</sup>These are the ones who were numbered of the sons of Israel, 601,730.

<sup>52</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>53</sup>“Among these the land shall be divided as an inheritance according to the number of names.

<sup>55</sup>But the land shall be divided by lot. They shall receive their inheritance according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

<sup>56</sup>Corresponding to the selection by lot, their inheritance shall be divided between the larger and the smaller groups.”

<sup>57</sup>These are those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

<sup>58</sup>These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, and the family of the Korahites. Kohath fathered Amram.

<sup>59</sup>And the name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and their sister Miriam.

<sup>61</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

<sup>62</sup>Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward, for they were not numbered among the sons of Israel since no inheritance was given to them among the sons of Israel.

<sup>63</sup>These are the ones who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

<sup>64</sup>But among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, “They shall certainly die in the wilderness.” And not a man was left of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers 27

A Law of Inheritance

<sup>1</sup>Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, came forward; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>3</sup>“Our father died in the wilderness, yet he was not among the group of those who gathered together against the LORD, in the group of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons.

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>8</sup>Further, you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a man dies and has no son, then you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter.

<sup>9</sup>And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

<sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

<sup>11</sup>And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his own family, and he shall take possession of it; and it shall be a statutory ordinance to the sons of Israel, just as the LORD has commanded Moses.’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>When you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother was;

Joshua to Succeed Moses

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“May the LORD, the God of the spirits of humanity, appoint a man over the congregation, <sup>17</sup>who will go out and come in before them, and lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD will not be like sheep that have no shepherd.”

<sup>18</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;

<sup>20</sup>And you shall put some of your authority on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel will obey him.

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses did just as the LORD commanded him; he took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation.

<sup>23</sup>Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Numbers 28

Laws for Offerings

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘You shall be careful to present to Me My offering, My food for My offerings by fire, of a soothing aroma to Me, at their appointed time.’

<sup>3</sup>And you shall say to them, ‘This is the offering by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs one year old without defect as a continual burnt offering every day.

<sup>4</sup>You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;

<sup>5</sup>also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin of pure oil.

<sup>6</sup>It is a continual burnt offering which was ordained on Mount Sinai as a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Then the drink offering with it shall be a fourth of a hin for each lamb; in the Holy Place pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>The other lamb you shall offer at twilight; as the grain offering of the morning and as its drink offering, you shall offer it, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then on the Sabbath day two male lambs one year old without defect, and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and its drink offering:

<sup>10</sup>This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

<sup>11</sup>Then at the beginning of each of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls and one ram, seven male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>12</sup>and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, for each bull; and two-tenths of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, for the one ram;

<sup>13</sup>and a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And one male goat as a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered with its drink offering in addition to the continual burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup>On the fifteenth day of this month there shall be a feast; unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days.

<sup>19</sup>But you shall present an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls and one ram, and seven male lambs one year old, that you have without defect.

<sup>21</sup>A tenth of an ephah you shall offer for each of the seven lambs;

<sup>22</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

<sup>23</sup>You shall present these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

<sup>25</sup>On the seventh day you shall have a holy assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

<sup>26</sup>“Also on the day of the first fruits, when you present a new grain offering to the LORD in your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

<sup>28</sup>and as their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

<sup>29</sup>and a tenth for each of the seven lambs;

<sup>30</sup>also one male goat to make atonement for you.

<sup>31</sup>Besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, you shall present them with their drink offerings. They shall be without defect.

Numbers 29

Offerings of the Seventh Month

<sup>1</sup>Now in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy assembly; you shall do no laborious work. It will be to you a day for blowing trumpets.

<sup>2</sup>And you shall offer a burnt offering as a soothing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>3</sup>also their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

<sup>4</sup>and a tenth for each of the seven lambs,

<sup>5</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you,

<sup>6</sup>besides the burnt offering of the new moon and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Then on the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy assembly, and you shall humble yourselves; you shall not do any work.

<sup>8</sup>You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a soothing aroma: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs one year old, that you have without defect;

<sup>9</sup>and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

<sup>11</sup>one male goat as a sin offering, besides the sin offering of atonement and the continual burnt offering, and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

<sup>12</sup>“Then on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy assembly; you shall do no laborious work, and you shall celebrate with a feast to the LORD for seven days.

<sup>13</sup>You shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD: thirteen bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old, which are without defect;

<sup>14</sup>and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

<sup>17</sup>“Then on the second day: twelve bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>18</sup>and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>19</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

<sup>20</sup>“Then on the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>21</sup>and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>22</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>23</sup>“Then on the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>24</sup>their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>26</sup>‘Then on the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>27</sup>and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>28</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>29</sup>‘Then on the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>31</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offerings.

<sup>32</sup>‘Then on the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>33</sup>and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>34</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>35</sup>‘On the eighth day you shall have a sacred assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

<sup>36</sup>But you shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs one year old without defect;

<sup>37</sup>their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

<sup>38</sup>and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

<sup>39</sup>‘You shall present these to the LORD at your appointed times, besides your vowed offerings and your voluntary offerings, for your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.’ ”

<sup>40</sup>And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 30

The Law of Vows

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the word which the LORD has commanded:

<sup>3</sup>“And if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and puts herself under a binding obligation in her father’s house in her youth, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears her vow and her obligation under which she has put herself, and her father says nothing to her, then all her vows shall remain valid and every binding obligation under which she has put herself shall remain valid.

<sup>5</sup>But if her father expresses disapproval to her on the day he hears of it, none of her vows or her obligations under which she has put herself shall remain valid; and the LORD will forgive her because her father has expressed disapproval to her.

<sup>6</sup>“However, if she happens to marry while under her vows or the impulsive statement of her lips by which she has obligated herself,

<sup>7</sup>and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her on the day he hears it, then her vows shall remain valid and her binding obligations under which she has put herself shall remain valid.

<sup>8</sup>But if on the day her husband hears of it, he expresses disapproval to her, then he will annul her vow which she is under and the impulsive statement of her lips by which she has obligated herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

<sup>9</sup>“But as for the vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, every binding obligation under which she has put herself, shall remain valid against her.

<sup>11</sup>and her husband heard it, but said nothing to her and did not express disapproval to her, then all her vows shall remain valid and every binding obligation under which she put herself shall remain valid.

<sup>12</sup>But if her husband actually annuls them on the day he hears them, then no utterance from her lips concerning her vows or the obligation she put on herself shall remain valid; her husband has annulled them, and the LORD will forgive her.

<sup>13</sup>“Every vow and every binding oath to humble herself, her husband may confirm it or her husband may annul it.

<sup>14</sup>But if her husband in fact says nothing to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all her binding obligations which are on her; he has confirmed them, because he said nothing to her on the day he heard them.

<sup>15</sup>However, if he actually annuls them after he has heard them, then he shall bear the responsibility for her guilt.”

<sup>16</sup>These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses concerning matters between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter while she is in her youth in her father’s house.

Numbers 31

The Slaughter of Midian

<sup>2</sup>“Take vengeance on the Midianites for the sons of Israel; afterward you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, so that they may go against Midian to execute the LORD’s vengeance on Midian.

<sup>4</sup>You shall send a thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel to the war.”

<sup>5</sup>So there were selected from the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

<sup>6</sup>And Moses sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war with them, and the holy implements and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

<sup>7</sup>So they made war against Midian, just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed every male.

<sup>8</sup>They killed the kings of Midian along with the rest of those killed: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

<sup>10</sup>Then they burned all their cities where they lived and all their encampments.

<sup>11</sup>And they took all the plunder and all the spoils, both of people and of livestock.

<sup>12</sup>They brought the captives and the spoils and the plunder to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab which are by the Jordan, opposite Jericho.

<sup>13</sup>And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.

<sup>14</sup>But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses said to them, “Have you spared all the women?

<sup>16</sup>Behold, they caused the sons of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to be unfaithful to the LORD in the matter of Peor, so that the plague took place among the congregation of the LORD!

<sup>17</sup>Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man intimately.

<sup>18</sup>However, all the girls who have not known a man intimately, keep alive for yourselves.

<sup>19</sup>And as for you, camp outside the camp for seven days; whoever has killed a person and whoever has touched anyone killed, purify yourselves, you and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day.

<sup>20</sup>And you shall purify for yourselves every garment, every article of leather, every work of goats’ hair, and every article of wood.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle, “This is the statute of the Law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

<sup>22</sup>only the gold and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

<sup>23</sup>everything that can withstand the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it will be clean, only it shall be purified with water for impurity. But whatever cannot withstand the fire you shall pass through the water.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and you will be clean; and afterward you may enter the camp.”

Division of the Plunder

<sup>25</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>26</sup>“You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers’ households of the congregation take a count of the spoils that were captured, both of people and of livestock;

<sup>27</sup>and divide the spoils between the warriors who went to battle and all the congregation.

<sup>28</sup>Also, collect a tribute tax for the LORD from the men of war who went to battle, one in five hundred of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the sheep;

<sup>29</sup>take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest, as an offering to the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>Now the spoils that remained from the plunder which the men of war had plundered was 675,000 sheep,

<sup>35</sup>and of captive people, of the women who had not known a man intimately, in all were thirty-two thousand people.

<sup>36</sup>The half, the share of those who went to war, was as follows: the number of sheep was 337,500,

<sup>38</sup>the cattle were thirty-six thousand, from which the LORD's tribute tax was seventy-two;

<sup>39</sup>the donkeys were 30,500, from which the LORD's tribute tax was sixty-one;

<sup>40</sup>and the captive people were sixteen thousand, from whom the LORD's tribute tax was thirty-two persons.

<sup>41</sup>And Moses gave the tribute tax, which was the LORD's offering, to Eleazar the priest, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>42</sup>As for the sons of Israel's half, which Moses separated from the men who had gone to war—

<sup>43</sup>now the congregation's half was 337,500 sheep,

<sup>46</sup>and the captive people were sixteen thousand—

<sup>47</sup>from the sons of Israel's half Moses took one drawn from every fifty, both of people and of animals, and gave them to the Levites, who performed the duty of the tabernacle of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moses,

<sup>49</sup>and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken a census of the men of war who are under our authority, and no man of us is missing.

<sup>50</sup>So we have brought as an offering to the LORD what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

<sup>51</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all kinds of crafted articles.

<sup>52</sup>All the gold of the offering which they offered up to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was 16,750 shekels.

<sup>54</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it to the tent of meeting as a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

Numbers 32

Reuben and Gad Settle in Gilead

<sup>1</sup>Now the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a very large number of livestock. So when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that it was indeed a place suitable for livestock,

<sup>2</sup>the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

<sup>4</sup>the land which the LORD conquered before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.”

<sup>5</sup>And they said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as our property; do not take us across the Jordan.”

<sup>6</sup>But Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, “Should your brothers go to war while you remain here?

<sup>7</sup>And why are you discouraging the sons of Israel from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them?

<sup>8</sup>This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

<sup>9</sup>For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the sons of Israel so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD's anger burned on that day, and He swore, saying,

<sup>11</sup>'None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; for they did not follow Me fully,

<sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun; for they have followed the LORD fully.'

<sup>13</sup>So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until the entire generation of those who had done evil in the sight of the LORD came to an end.

<sup>14</sup>Now behold, you have risen up in your fathers' place, born of sinful men, to add still more to the burning anger of the LORD against Israel.

<sup>15</sup>For if you turn away from following Him, He will once more leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people."

<sup>16</sup>Then they approached him and said, "We will build sheepfolds for our livestock here and cities for our little ones;

<sup>17</sup>but we ourselves will be armed, hurrying ahead of the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

<sup>18</sup>We will not return to our homes until every one of the sons of Israel has gained possession of his inheritance.

<sup>19</sup>But we will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan toward the east."

<sup>20</sup>So Moses said to them, "If you will do this, if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for the war,

<sup>21</sup>and all of you armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven His enemies out from Him,

<sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you may return and be free of obligation toward the LORD and toward Israel, and this land shall be yours as property before the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>But if you do not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure that your sin will find you out.

<sup>24</sup>Build yourselves cities for your little ones, and sheepfolds for your sheep, and do what you have promised.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, “Your servants will do just as my lord commands.

<sup>26</sup>Our little ones, our wives, our livestock, and all our cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead,

<sup>27</sup>while your servants, that is, everyone who is armed for war, cross over in the presence of the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.”

<sup>28</sup>So Moses gave the command regarding them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers’ households of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, everyone who is armed for battle, cross with you over the Jordan in the presence of the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as their property;

<sup>30</sup>but if they do not cross over with you armed, they shall instead be settled among you in the land of Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup>And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying, “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

<sup>32</sup>We ourselves will cross over armed in the presence of the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the property of our inheritance shall remain with us across the Jordan.”

<sup>33</sup>So Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad, the sons of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Joseph’s son Manasseh, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, the land with its cities with their territories, the cities of the surrounding land.

<sup>39</sup>The sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

<sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it.

<sup>42</sup>Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and named it Nobah, after his own name.

Numbers 33

Review of the Journey from Egypt to Jordan

<sup>2</sup>Moses recorded their starting places according to their journeys by the command of the LORD, and these are their journeys according to their starting places.

<sup>3</sup>Now they journeyed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the sons of Israel started out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians, <sup>4</sup>while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn whom the LORD had fatally struck among them. The LORD had also executed judgments against their gods.

<sup>8</sup>They journeyed from Pi-hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea to the wilderness; and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah.

<sup>9</sup>They journeyed from Marah and came to Elim; and in Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

- <sup>19</sup>They journeyed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-perez.
- <sup>20</sup>They journeyed from Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.
- <sup>21</sup>They journeyed from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
- <sup>22</sup>They journeyed from Rissah and camped in Kehelathah.
- <sup>23</sup>They journeyed from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
- <sup>24</sup>They journeyed from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
- <sup>25</sup>They journeyed from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
- <sup>26</sup>They journeyed from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
- <sup>27</sup>They journeyed from Tahath and camped at Terah.
- <sup>28</sup>They journeyed from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
- <sup>29</sup>They journeyed from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
- <sup>30</sup>They journeyed from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
- <sup>31</sup>They journeyed from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan.
- <sup>32</sup>They journeyed from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad.
- <sup>33</sup>They journeyed from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
- <sup>34</sup>They journeyed from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
- <sup>35</sup>They journeyed from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber.
- <sup>36</sup>They journeyed from Ezion-geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin, that is, Kadesh.
- <sup>37</sup>They journeyed from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.
- <sup>38</sup>Then Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the sons of Israel had come from the land of Egypt, on the first day in the fifth month.
- <sup>39</sup>Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor.

<sup>40</sup>Now the Canaanite, the king of Arad who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard about the coming of the sons of Israel.

Law for Possessing the Land

<sup>50</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying,

<sup>51</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

<sup>52</sup>you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from you, and destroy all their idolatrous sculptures, destroy all their cast metal images, and eliminate all their high places;

<sup>53</sup>and you shall take possession of the land and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.

<sup>54</sup>You shall maintain the land as an inheritance by lot according to your families; to the larger you shall give more inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give less inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to anyone, that shall be his.

You shall pass on land as an inheritance according to the tribes of your fathers.

<sup>55</sup>But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from you, then it will come about that those whom you let remain of them will be like thorns in your eyes and like pricks in your sides, and they will trouble you in the land in which you live.

<sup>56</sup>And just as I plan to do to them, I will do to you.’ ”

Numbers 34

Instruction for Apportioning Canaan

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance, that is, the land of Canaan according to its borders.

<sup>3</sup>Your southern region shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern border shall extend from the end of the Salt Sea eastward.

<sup>4</sup>Then your border shall change direction from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim and continue to Zin, and its termination shall be to the south of Kadesh-barnea; and it shall reach Hazaraddar and continue to Azmon.

<sup>5</sup>Then the border shall change direction from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the sea.

<sup>6</sup>‘As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea, that is, its coastline; this shall be your western border.

<sup>9</sup>and the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and its termination shall be at Hazar-enan. This shall be your northern border.

<sup>10</sup>‘For your eastern border you shall also draw a boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham,

<sup>11</sup>and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and reach to the slope on the east side of the Sea of Chinnereth.

<sup>12</sup>And the border shall go down to the Jordan, and its termination shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders on all sides.’ ”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the land that you are to possess by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.

<sup>14</sup>For the tribe of the sons of Reuben have received theirs according to their fathers’ households, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to their fathers’ households, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their possession.

<sup>15</sup>The two and a half tribes have received their possession across the Jordan opposite Jericho, eastward toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>17</sup>“These are the names of the men who shall assign the land to you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>18</sup>And you shall take one leader of each tribe to assign the land as an inheritance.

<sup>29</sup>These are the ones whom the LORD commanded to apportion the inheritance to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35

Cities for the Levites

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying,

<sup>3</sup>The cities shall be theirs to live in; and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their equipment and for all their other animals.

<sup>4</sup>“The pasture lands of the cities which you are to give to the Levites shall extend from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits around.

<sup>5</sup>You shall also measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, on the south side two thousand cubits, on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the center. This shall become theirs as pasture lands for the cities.

Cities of Refuge

<sup>6</sup>The cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall provide for the one who commits manslaughter to flee to; and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities.

<sup>7</sup>The total number of the cities which you are to give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, together with their pasture lands.

<sup>8</sup>As for the cities which you shall give them from the possession of the sons of Israel, you shall take more from the larger, and you shall take fewer from the smaller; each shall give some of his cities to the Levites in proportion to his inheritance which he possesses.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

<sup>11</sup>then you shall select for yourselves cities to be your cities of refuge, so that the one who commits manslaughter by killing a person unintentionally may flee there.

<sup>12</sup>The cities shall serve you as a refuge from the avenger, so that the one who commits manslaughter does not die until he stands before the congregation for trial.

<sup>13</sup>So the cities which you are to provide shall be six cities of refuge for you.

<sup>14</sup>You shall provide three cities across the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan; they are to be cities of refuge.

<sup>15</sup>These six cities shall be a refuge for the sons of Israel, for the stranger, and for the foreign resident among them; so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

<sup>16</sup>‘But if he struck him with an iron object, so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

<sup>17</sup>And if he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which he would die, and as a result he did die, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>Or if he struck him with a wooden object in the hand, by which he would die, and as a result he did die, he is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.

<sup>19</sup>The blood avenger himself shall put the murderer to death; he himself shall put him to death when he meets him.

<sup>20</sup>Now if he pushed him in hatred, or he threw something at him with malicious intent, and as a result he died,

<sup>21</sup>or if he struck him with his hand with hostility, and as a result he died, the one who struck him must be put to death; he is a murderer. The blood avenger shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

<sup>22</sup>‘But if he pushed him suddenly, without hostility, or threw any object at him without malicious intent,

<sup>23</sup>or had any deadly stone, and without looking he dropped it on him so that he died, while he was not his enemy nor was he seeking to harm him,

<sup>24</sup>then the congregation shall judge between the one who fatally struck the victim and the blood avenger in accordance with these ordinances.

<sup>25</sup>And the congregation shall save the one who committed manslaughter from the hand of the blood avenger, and the congregation shall return him to his city of refuge to which he fled; and he shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

<sup>26</sup>But if at any time he goes beyond the border of his city of refuge to which he flees,

<sup>27</sup>and the blood avenger finds him outside the border of his city of refuge, and the blood avenger kills him, he will not be guilty of bloodshed,

<sup>28</sup>because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the one who committed manslaughter may return to the land of his property.

<sup>29</sup>“These things shall be a statutory ordinance for you throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

<sup>30</sup>“If anyone kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the testimony of witnesses, but no person shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

<sup>31</sup>Moreover, you shall not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer who is condemned to death, but he must be put to death.

<sup>32</sup>And you shall not accept a ransom for one who has fled to his city of refuge, so that he may return to live in the land before the death of the priest.

<sup>33</sup>So you shall not defile the land in which you live; for blood defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

<sup>34</sup>So you shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD am dwelling in the midst of the sons of Israel.’ ”

Numbers 36

Inheritance by Marriage

<sup>1</sup>Now the heads of the fathers’ households of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came forward and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers’ households of the sons of Israel,

<sup>2</sup>and they said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land by lot to the sons of Israel as an inheritance, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

<sup>3</sup>But if they marry one of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so it will be withdrawn from our allotted inheritance.

<sup>4</sup>And when the jubilee of the sons of Israel takes place, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses commanded the sons of Israel in accordance with the word of the LORD, saying, “The tribe of the sons of Joseph is right in its statements.

<sup>7</sup>So no inheritance of the sons of Israel will be transferred from tribe to tribe, for the sons of Israel shall each retain possession of the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

<sup>8</sup>And every daughter who comes into possession of an inheritance of any tribe of the sons of Israel shall marry one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel may each possess the inheritance of his fathers.

<sup>9</sup>So no inheritance will be transferred from one tribe to another tribe, for the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each retain possession of its own inheritance.”

<sup>12</sup>They married those from the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained with the tribe of the family of their father.

<sup>13</sup>These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded to the sons of Israel through Moses in the plains of Moab, by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 1

Israel's History after the Exodus

<sup>3</sup>In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded him to declare to them,

<sup>5</sup>Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this Law, saying, <sup>6</sup>"The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

<sup>7</sup>Turn and set out on your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Negev, by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup>See, I have placed the land before you; go in and take possession of the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and their descendants after them.'

<sup>9</sup>"And I spoke to you at that time, saying, 'I am not able to endure you alone.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven in number.

<sup>11</sup>May the LORD, the God of your fathers increase you a thousand times more than you are, and bless you, just as He has promised you!

<sup>12</sup>How can I alone endure the burden and weight of you and your strife?

<sup>13</sup>Obtain for yourselves men who are wise, discerning, and informed from your tribes, and I will appoint them as your heads.'

<sup>14</sup>And you answered me and said, 'The thing which you have said to do is good.'

<sup>15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and informed men, and appointed them as heads over you, commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens, and officers for your tribes.

<sup>16</sup>"Then I ordered your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear the cases between your fellow countrymen and judge righteously between a person and his fellow countryman, or the stranger who is with him.

<sup>17</sup>You are not to show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You are not to be afraid of any person, for the judgment is God's. The case that is too difficult for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.'

<sup>18</sup>At that time I commanded you all the things that you were to do.

<sup>19</sup>"Then we set out from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

<sup>20</sup>And I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is about to give us.

<sup>21</sup>See, the LORD your God has placed the land before you; go up, take possession, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. Do not fear or be dismayed.'

<sup>22</sup>“Then all of you approached me and said, ‘Let us send men ahead of us, so that they may spy out the land for us, and bring back to us word of the way by which we should go up, and the cities which we should enter.’

<sup>23</sup>The plan pleased me, and I took twelve of your men, one man for each tribe.

<sup>24</sup>Then they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.

<sup>25</sup>And they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us. They also brought us back a report and said, ‘The land that the LORD our God is about to give us is good.’

<sup>26</sup>“Yet you were unwilling to go up; instead you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;

<sup>27</sup>and you grumbled in your tents and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to hand us over to the Amorites to destroy us.

<sup>28</sup>Where can we go up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, by saying, “The people are bigger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified up to heaven. And besides, we saw the sons of the Anakim there.” ’

<sup>29</sup>But I said to you, ‘Do not be terrified, nor fear them.

<sup>30</sup>The LORD your God, who goes before you, will Himself fight for you, just as He did for you in Egypt before your eyes,

<sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as a man carries his son, on all of the road which you have walked until you came to this place.’

<sup>32</sup>Yet in spite of all this, you did not trust the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who goes before you on your way, to seek out a place for you to make camp, in the fire by night to show you the way by which you should go, and in the cloud by day.

<sup>34</sup>“Then the LORD heard the sound of your words, and He was angry and swore an oath, saying,

<sup>35</sup>‘Not one of these men, this evil generation, shall see the good land which I swore to give your fathers,

<sup>36</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him I will give the land on which he has set foot, and to his sons, because he has followed the LORD fully.’

<sup>37</sup>The LORD was angry with me also on your account, saying, ‘Not even you shall enter there.

<sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, shall himself enter there; encourage him, for he will give it to Israel as an inheritance.

<sup>39</sup>Moreover, your little ones who, you said, would become plunder, and your sons, who this day have no knowledge of good and evil, shall enter there, and I will give it to them and they shall take possession of it.

<sup>40</sup>But as for you, turn around and set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.’

<sup>41</sup>“Then you replied to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD; we ourselves will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ And every man of you strapped on his weapons of war, and you viewed it as easy to go up into the hill country.

<sup>42</sup>But the LORD said to me, ‘Say to them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; otherwise you will be defeated by your enemies.”’

<sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead, you rebelled against the command of the LORD, and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country.

<sup>44</sup>And the Amorites who lived in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do, and they scattered you from Seir to Hormah.

<sup>45</sup>Then you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD did not listen to your voice, nor pay attention to you.

<sup>46</sup>So you remained at Kadesh for many days, the days that you spent there.

Deuteronomy 2

Wanderings in the Wilderness

<sup>1</sup>“Then we turned and set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and we circled Mount Seir for many days.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD spoke to me, saying,

<sup>4</sup>and command the people, saying, “You are going to pass through the territory of your brothers the sons of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful;

<sup>5</sup>do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even as much as a footprint, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

<sup>6</sup>You are to buy food from them with money so that you may eat, and you shall also purchase water from them with money so that you may drink.

<sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all that you have done; He has known your wandering through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have not lacked anything.” ’

<sup>8</sup>“So we passed beyond our brothers the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and Ezion-geber. And we turned and passed through by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Do not attack Moab, nor provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the sons of Lot as a possession.’

<sup>10</sup>(The Emim lived there previously, a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim.

<sup>13</sup>‘Now arise and cross over the Wadi Zered yourselves.’ So we crossed over the Wadi Zered.

<sup>14</sup>Now the time that it took for us to come from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the Wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war perished from within the camp, just as the LORD had sworn to them.

<sup>15</sup>Indeed, the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from within the camp until they all perished.

<sup>16</sup>“So it came about, when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people,

<sup>17</sup>that the LORD spoke to me, saying,

<sup>19</sup>When you come opposite the sons of Ammon, do not attack them nor provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the sons of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot as a possession.’

<sup>20</sup>(It is also regarded as the land of the Rephaim, because the Rephaim previously lived in it, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummin,

<sup>21</sup>a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim; but the LORD destroyed them before them. And they dispossessed them and settled in their place,

<sup>22</sup>just as He did for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them; they dispossessed them and settled in their place, where they remain even to this day.

<sup>24</sup>‘Arise, set out, and pass through the Valley of Arnon. Look! I have handed over to you Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; start taking possession and plunge into battle with him.

<sup>25</sup>This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the faces of people everywhere, who, when they hear the news of you, will tremble and be in anguish because of you.’

<sup>26</sup>“So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,

<sup>27</sup>‘Let me pass through your land; I will travel only on the road. I will not turn aside to the right or to the left.

<sup>28</sup>You will sell me food for money so that I may eat, and give me water for money so that I may drink, only let me pass through on foot,

<sup>29</sup>just as the sons of Esau who live in Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did for me, until I cross over the Jordan into the land that the LORD our God is giving us.’

<sup>30</sup>But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing for us to pass through his land; for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, in order to hand him over to you, as he is today.

<sup>31</sup>And the LORD said to me, ‘See, I have begun to turn Sihon and his land over to you. Begin taking possession, so that you may possess his land.’

<sup>32</sup>“Then Sihon came out with all his people to meet us in battle at Jahaz.

<sup>33</sup>And the LORD our God turned him over to us, and we defeated him with his sons and all his people.

<sup>34</sup>So we captured all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed the men, women, and children of every city. We left no survivor.

<sup>35</sup>We took only the animals as our plunder, and the spoils of the cities which we had captured.

<sup>36</sup>From Aroer which is on the edge of the Valley of Arnon and from the city which is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was no city that was too high for us; the LORD our God turned it all over to us.

<sup>37</sup>Only you did not go near the land of the sons of Ammon, all along the river Jabbok and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God had commanded us to avoid.

Deuteronomy 3

Conquests Recounted

<sup>1</sup>“Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og, king of Bashan, came out with all his people to meet us in battle at Edrei.

<sup>2</sup>But the LORD said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have handed him and all his people and his land over to you; and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.’

<sup>3</sup>So the LORD our God also handed over to us Og, king of Bashan, with all his people, and we struck them until no survivor was left.

<sup>4</sup>We captured all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

<sup>5</sup>All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many unwallled towns.

<sup>7</sup>But all the animals and the spoils of the cities we took as our plunder.

<sup>8</sup>“So at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the Valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon

<sup>12</sup>“So we took possession of this land at that time. From Aroer, which is by the Valley of Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead and its cities I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

<sup>13</sup>The rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob. (As to all Bashan, it is called the land of Rephaim.

<sup>14</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, that is, Bashan, and named it after his own name: Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.)

<sup>15</sup>To Machir I gave Gilead.

<sup>16</sup>To the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave from Gilead even as far as the Valley of Arnon, the middle of the valley as a border, and as far as the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

<sup>17</sup>the Arabah also, with the Jordan as a border, from Chinnereth even as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

<sup>18</sup>“Then I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it; all you valiant men shall cross over armed ahead of your brothers, the sons of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>However, your wives, your little ones, and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in your cities which I have given you,

<sup>20</sup>until the LORD gives rest to your fellow countrymen as to you, and they also take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then you may return, each man to his possession which I have given you.'

<sup>21</sup>And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; the LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross.

<sup>22</sup>Do not fear them, for the LORD your God is the One fighting for you.'

<sup>23</sup>"I also pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying,

<sup>24</sup>'Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as Yours?

<sup>25</sup>Please let me cross over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and Lebanon.'

<sup>26</sup>But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me; instead, the LORD said to me, 'Enough! Do not speak to Me any more about this matter.

<sup>27</sup>Go up to the top of Pisgah and raise your eyes to the west, the north, the south, and the east, and see it with your eyes; for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

<sup>28</sup>But commission Joshua and encourage him and strengthen him, for he shall go across leading this people, and he will give to them, as an inheritance, the land which you will see.'

Deuteronomy 4

Israel Urged to Obey God's Law

<sup>1</sup>“Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I am teaching you to perform, so that you will live and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

<sup>2</sup>You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I am commanding you.

<sup>3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD has done in the case of Baal-peor, for all the men who followed Baal-peor, the LORD your God has destroyed them from among you.

<sup>4</sup>But you who clung to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you.

<sup>5</sup>“See, I have taught you statutes and judgments just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you are to do these things in the land where you are entering to take possession of it.

<sup>6</sup>So keep and do them, for that is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’

<sup>7</sup>For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as is the LORD our God whenever we call on Him?

<sup>8</sup>Or what great nation is there that has statutes and judgments as righteous as this whole Law which I am setting before you today?

<sup>9</sup>“Only be careful for yourself and watch over your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your sons and your grandsons.

<sup>10</sup>Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Assemble the people to Me, that I may have them hear My words so that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.’

<sup>11</sup>You came forward and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire to the heart of the heavens: darkness, cloud, and thick gloom.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words, but you saw no form—there was only a voice.

<sup>13</sup>So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, that is, the Ten Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, so that you would perform them in the land where you are going over to take possession of it.

<sup>15</sup>“So be very careful yourselves, since you did not see any form on the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire,

<sup>16</sup>so that you do not act corruptly and make a carved image for yourselves in the form of any figure, a representation of male or female,

<sup>17</sup>a representation of any animal that is on the earth, a representation of any winged bird that flies in the sky,

<sup>18</sup>a representation of anything that crawls on the ground, or a representation of any fish that is in the water below the earth.

<sup>19</sup>And be careful not to raise your eyes to heaven and look at the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the heavenly lights, and allow yourself to be drawn away and worship them and serve them, things which the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven.

<sup>20</sup>But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be a people of His own possession, as today.

<sup>21</sup>“Now the LORD was angry with me on your account, and He swore that I would not cross the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>22</sup>For I am going to die in this land; I am not crossing the Jordan, but you are going to cross, and you will take possession of this good land.

<sup>23</sup>So be careful yourselves, that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything against which the LORD your God has commanded you.

<sup>25</sup>“When you father children and have grandchildren, and you grow old in the land, and you act corruptly, and make an idol in the form of anything, and do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger,

<sup>26</sup>I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today, that you will certainly perish quickly from the land where you are going over the Jordan to take possession of it. You will not live long on it, but will be utterly destroyed.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD drives you.

<sup>28</sup>There you will serve gods, the work of human hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear, nor eat nor smell anything.

<sup>29</sup>But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and all your soul.

<sup>30</sup>When you are in distress and all these things happen to you, in the latter days you will return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice.

<sup>31</sup>For the LORD your God is a compassionate God; He will not abandon you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them.

<sup>32</sup>“Indeed, ask now about the earlier days that were before your time, since the day that God created mankind on the earth, and inquire from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything been done like this great thing, or has anything been heard like it?

<sup>33</sup>Has any people heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard it, and survived?

<sup>34</sup>Or has a god ventured to go to take for himself a nation from within another nation by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand, by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, just as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

<sup>35</sup>You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD, He is God; there is no other besides Him.

<sup>36</sup>Out of the heavens He let you hear His voice to discipline you; and on earth He let you see His great fire, and you heard His words from the midst of the fire.

<sup>37</sup>Because He loved your fathers, He chose their descendants after them. And He personally brought you from Egypt by His great power, <sup>38</sup>driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in and to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is today.

<sup>39</sup>Therefore know today, and take it to your heart, that the LORD, He is God in heaven above and on the earth below; there is no other.

<sup>40</sup>So you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I am giving you today, so that it may go well for you and for your children after you, and that you may live long on the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.”

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan to the east,

<sup>42</sup>for one to flee there who unintentionally killed his neighbor, without having hatred for him in time past; and by fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

<sup>44</sup>Now this is the Law which Moses set before the sons of Israel;

<sup>45</sup>these are the testimonies and the statutes, and the ordinances which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt,

<sup>46</sup>across the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel defeated when they came out of Egypt.

<sup>47</sup>And they took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were across the Jordan to the east,

<sup>48</sup>from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of Arnon, even as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), <sup>49</sup>with all the Arabah across the Jordan to the east, even as far as the sea of the Arabah, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5

The Ten Commandments Repeated

<sup>1</sup>Now Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: “Listen, Israel, to the statutes and ordinances which I am speaking today for you to hear, so that you may learn them and be careful to do them.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, all of us who are alive here today.

<sup>5</sup>while I was standing between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up on the mountain. He said,

<sup>6</sup>‘I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

<sup>7</sup>‘You shall have no other gods besides Me.

<sup>8</sup>‘You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth.

<sup>9</sup>You shall not worship them nor serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, inflicting the punishment of the fathers on the children, even on the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

<sup>10</sup>but showing favor to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

<sup>11</sup>‘You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes His name in vain.

<sup>12</sup>‘Keep the Sabbath day to treat it as holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

<sup>13</sup>For six days you shall labor and do all your work,

<sup>14</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath of the LORD your God; you shall not do any work that day, you or your son or your daughter, or your male slave or your female slave, or your ox, your donkey, or any of your cattle, or your resident who stays with you, so that your male slave and your female slave may rest as well as you.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to celebrate the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup>‘Honor your father and your mother, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that your days may be prolonged and that it may go well for you on the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Moses Interceded

<sup>22</sup>“These words the LORD spoke to your whole assembly at the mountain from the midst of the fire, from the cloud, and from the thick darkness, with a great voice, and He added nothing more. He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup>And when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you approached me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.

<sup>24</sup>You said, ‘Behold, the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire; we have seen today that God speaks with mankind, yet he lives.

<sup>25</sup>Now then, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, then we will die!

<sup>26</sup>For who is there of humanity who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

<sup>27</sup>Go near and listen to everything that the LORD our God says; then speak to us everything that the LORD our God speaks to you, and we will listen and do it.’

<sup>28</sup>“Now the LORD heard the sound of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, ‘I have heard the sound of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken.

<sup>29</sup>If only they had such a heart in them, to fear Me and keep all My commandments always, so that it would go well with them and with their sons forever!

<sup>31</sup>But as for you, stand here by Me, that I may speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, so that they may follow them in the land which I am giving them to possess.’

<sup>32</sup>So you shall be careful to do just as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left.

<sup>33</sup>You shall walk entirely in the way which the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and that it may be well for you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you will possess.

Deuteronomy 6

Obey God and Prosper

<sup>1</sup>“Now this is the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD your God has commanded me to teach you, so that you may do them in the land where you are going over to take possession of it,

<sup>2</sup>so that you, your son, and your grandson will fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

<sup>3</sup>Now Israel, you shall listen and be careful to do them, so that it may go well for you and that you may increase greatly, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>5</sup>And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

<sup>6</sup>These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart.

<sup>7</sup>And you shall repeat them diligently to your sons and speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up.

<sup>8</sup>You shall also tie them as a sign to your hand, and they shall be as frontlets on your forehead.

<sup>9</sup>You shall also write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

<sup>10</sup>“Then it shall come about when the LORD your God brings you into the land that He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you, great and splendid cities which you did not build,

<sup>11</sup>and houses full of all good things which you did not fill, and carved cisterns which you did not carve out, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you eat and are satisfied,

<sup>12</sup>be careful that you do not forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

<sup>13</sup>You shall fear only the LORD your God; and you shall worship Him and swear by His name.

<sup>14</sup>You shall not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who surround you,

<sup>15</sup>for the LORD your God who is in the midst of you is a jealous God; so follow Him, or else the anger of the LORD your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you off the face of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>“You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah.

<sup>17</sup>You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His provisions and His statutes which He has commanded you.

<sup>18</sup>You shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may go well for you and that you may go in and take possession of the good land which the LORD swore to give your fathers, <sup>19</sup>by driving out all your enemies from you, as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>20</sup>“When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What do the provisions and the statutes and the judgments mean which the LORD our God commanded you?’

<sup>21</sup>then you shall say to your son, ‘We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

<sup>22</sup>Moreover, the LORD provided great and terrible signs and wonders before our eyes against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household;

<sup>23</sup>He brought us out of there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.’

<sup>24</sup>So the LORD commanded us to follow all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God for our own good always and for our survival, as it is today.

<sup>25</sup>And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to follow all this commandment before the LORD our God, just as He commanded us.

Deuteronomy 7

Warnings

<sup>1</sup>“When the LORD your God brings you into the land where you are entering to take possession of it, and He drives away many nations from before you, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you,

<sup>2</sup>and when the LORD your God turns them over to you and you defeat them, you shall utterly destroy them. You shall not make a covenant with them nor be gracious to them.

<sup>3</sup>Furthermore, you shall not intermarry with them: you shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor shall you take their daughters for your sons.

<sup>4</sup>For they will turn your sons away from following Me, and they will serve other gods; then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and He will quickly destroy you.

<sup>5</sup>But this is what you shall do to them: you shall tear down their altars, smash their memorial stones, cut their Asherim to pieces, and burn their carved images in the fire.

<sup>6</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for His personal possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD did not make you His beloved nor choose you because you were greater in number than any of the peoples, since you were the fewest of all peoples, <sup>8</sup>but because the LORD loved you and kept the oath which He swore to your forefathers, the LORD brought you out by a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His faithfulness to a thousand generations for those who love Him and keep His commandments;

<sup>10</sup>but He repays those who hate Him to their faces, to eliminate them; He will not hesitate toward him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.

Promises of God

<sup>12</sup>“Then it shall come about, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep His covenant with you and His faithfulness which He swore to your forefathers.

<sup>13</sup>And He will love you, bless you, and make you numerous; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain, your new wine, and your oil, the newborn of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land which He swore to your forefathers to give you.

<sup>14</sup>You shall be blessed above all peoples; there will be no sterile male or infertile female among you or among your cattle.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD will remove from you all sickness; and He will not inflict upon you any of the harmful diseases of Egypt which you have known, but He will give them to all who hate you.

<sup>16</sup>You shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God will turn over to you; your eye shall not pity them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup>“If you say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’

<sup>18</sup>you are not to be afraid of them; you shall remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt:

<sup>19</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw and the signs and the wonders, and the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

<sup>21</sup>You are not to be terrified of them, because the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD your God will drive away these nations from you little by little; you will not be able to put an end to them quickly, otherwise the wild animals would become too numerous for you.

<sup>23</sup>But the LORD your God will turn them over to you, and will throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed.

<sup>24</sup>And He will hand over their kings to you, so that you will eliminate their name from under heaven; no one will be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.

<sup>25</sup>The carved images of their gods you are to burn with fire; you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, or you will be trapped by it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>And you shall not bring an abomination into your house and become designated for destruction, like it; you are to utterly detest it, and you are to utterly loathe it, for it is something designated for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8

God's Gracious Dealings

<sup>1</sup>"All the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, so that you may live and increase, and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD swore to give to your forefathers.

<sup>2</sup>And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you in the wilderness these forty years, in order to humble you, putting you to the test, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

<sup>3</sup>And He humbled you and let you go hungry, and fed you with the manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, in order to make you understand that man shall not live on bread alone, but man shall live on everything that comes out of the mouth of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

<sup>5</sup>So you are to know in your heart that the LORD your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him.

<sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of streams of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out in valleys and hills;

<sup>8</sup>a land of wheat and barley, of vines, fig trees, and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;

<sup>9</sup>a land where you will eat food without shortage, in which you will not lack anything; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper.

<sup>10</sup>When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

<sup>11</sup>“Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God by failing to keep His commandments, His ordinances, and His statutes which I am commanding you today;

<sup>12</sup>otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, and you build good houses and live in them,

<sup>13</sup>and when your herds and your flocks increase, and your silver and gold increase, and everything that you have increases,

<sup>14</sup>then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery;

<sup>15</sup>He who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions, and its thirsty ground where there was no water; He who brought water for you out of the rock of flint.

<sup>16</sup>In the wilderness it was He who fed you manna which your fathers did not know, in order to humble you and in order to put you to the test, to do good for you in the end.

<sup>17</sup>Otherwise, you may say in your heart, ‘My power and the strength of my hand made me this wealth.’

<sup>18</sup>But you are to remember the LORD your God, for it is He who is giving you power to make wealth, in order to confirm His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall come about, if you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and serve and worship them, I testify against you today that you will certainly perish.

<sup>20</sup>Like the nations that the LORD eliminates from you, so you shall perish, because you would not listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9

Israel Provoked God

<sup>1</sup>“Hear, Israel! You are crossing the Jordan today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than you, cities that are great and fortified to heaven,

<sup>2</sup>a people who are great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand against the sons of Anak?’

<sup>3</sup>So be aware today that it is the LORD your God who is crossing over ahead of you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and He will subdue them before you, so that you may drive them out and eliminate them quickly, just as the LORD has spoken to you.

<sup>4</sup>“Do not say in your heart when the LORD your God has driven them away from you, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to take possession of this land.’ Rather, it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is dispossessing them before you.

<sup>5</sup>It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to take possession of their land, but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God is driving them out from before you, and in order to confirm the oath which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>6</sup>“Know, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stubborn people.

<sup>7</sup>Remember, do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to anger in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to anger, and the LORD was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you.

<sup>9</sup>When I went up to the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I remained on the mountain for forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD gave me the two tablets of stone written by the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken with you at the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

<sup>11</sup>It came about at the end of forty days and nights that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down from here quickly, because your people, whom you brought out of Egypt, have behaved corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the way that I commanded them; they have made a cast metal image for themselves.’

<sup>13</sup>The LORD also said to me, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed, it is a stubborn people.

<sup>14</sup>Leave Me alone, that I may destroy them and wipe out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’

<sup>15</sup>“So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

<sup>16</sup>And I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a cast metal image of a calf; you had quickly turned aside from the way that the LORD had commanded you.

<sup>17</sup>So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my two hands, and smashed them to pieces before your eyes!

<sup>18</sup>Then I fell down before the LORD like the first time, for forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you had committed by doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

<sup>19</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and the rage with which the LORD was angry with you so as to destroy you; but the LORD listened to me that time as well.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD was also angry enough with Aaron to destroy him; so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time.

<sup>21</sup>And I took your sinful thing which you had made, the calf, and burned it in the fire and crushed it, grinding it thoroughly until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the stream that came down from the mountain.

<sup>22</sup>“Then at Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah you kept provoking the LORD to anger.

<sup>23</sup>And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, ‘Go up and take possession of the land which I have given you,’ you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God; you neither trusted Him nor listened to His voice.

<sup>24</sup>You have been rebellious toward the LORD since the day I knew you.

<sup>25</sup>“So I fell down before the LORD for the forty days and nights, which I did because the LORD said He would destroy you.

<sup>26</sup>And I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, Your inheritance, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand!

<sup>27</sup>Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not turn Your attention to the stubbornness of this people, or to their wickedness, or their sin.

<sup>28</sup>Otherwise, the people of the land from which You brought us will say, “Since the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He had promised them, and since He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness!”

<sup>29</sup>Yet they are Your people, and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your great power and Your outstretched arm.’

Deuteronomy 10

The Tablets Rewritten

<sup>1</sup>“At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first two, and come up to Me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood for yourself.

<sup>2</sup>Then I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you smashed to pieces, and you shall put them in the ark.’

<sup>3</sup>So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut out two tablets of stone like the first two, and I went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

<sup>4</sup>Then He wrote on the tablets, like the first writing, the Ten Commandments which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

<sup>5</sup>Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and I put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and they are there, just as the LORD commanded me.”

<sup>6</sup>(Now the sons of Israel set out from Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and there he was buried, and his son Eleazar served as priest in his place.

<sup>7</sup>From there they set out to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water.

<sup>8</sup>At that time the LORD singled out the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to serve Him and to bless in His name, until this day.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God spoke to him.)

<sup>10</sup>“I, moreover, stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights like the first time, and the LORD listened to me that time also; the LORD was not willing to destroy you.

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, proceed on your journey ahead of the people, so that they may go in and take possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’

<sup>12</sup>“And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup>and to keep the LORD’S commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good?

<sup>14</sup>Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the highest heavens, the earth and all that is in it.

<sup>15</sup>Yet the LORD set His affection on your fathers, to love them, and He chose their descendants after them, you over all the other peoples, as it is this day.

<sup>16</sup>So circumcise your heart, and do not stiffen your neck any longer.

<sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who does not show partiality, nor take a bribe.

<sup>18</sup>He executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and shows His love for the stranger by giving him food and clothing.

<sup>19</sup>So show your love for the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and cling to Him, and you shall swear by His name.

<sup>21</sup>He is your glory and He is your God, who has done these great and awesome things for you which your eyes have seen.

<sup>22</sup>Your fathers went down to Egypt seventy persons in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of heaven.

Deuteronomy 11

Rewards of Obedience

<sup>2</sup>Know this day that I am not speaking with your sons who have not known and who have not seen the discipline of the LORD your God—His greatness, His mighty hand, His outstretched arm,

<sup>3</sup>and His signs and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land;

<sup>4</sup>and what He did to Egypt’s army, to its horses and its chariots, when He made the water of the Red Sea engulf them while they were pursuing you, and the LORD completely eliminated them;

<sup>5</sup>and what He did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;

<sup>6</sup>and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, among all Israel—

<sup>7</sup>but your own eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD which He did.

<sup>8</sup>“You shall therefore keep every commandment which I am commanding you today, so that you may be strong and go in and take possession of the land into which you are about to cross to possess it;

<sup>9</sup>and so that you may prolong your days on the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>10</sup>For the land, into which you are entering to possess it, is not like the land of Egypt from which you came, where you used to sow your seed and water it by your foot like a vegetable garden.

<sup>11</sup>But the land into which you are about to cross to possess it, a land of hills and valleys, drinks water from the rain of heaven,

<sup>12</sup>a land for which the LORD your God cares; the eyes of the LORD your God are continually on it, from the beginning even to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup>“And it shall come about, if you listen obediently to my commandments which I am commanding you today, to love the LORD your God and to serve Him with all your heart and all your soul,

<sup>14</sup>that He will provide rain for your land in its season, the early and late rain, so that you may gather your grain, your new wine, and your oil.

<sup>15</sup>He will also provide grass in your field for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

<sup>16</sup>Beware that your hearts are not easily deceived, and that you do not turn away and serve other gods, and worship them.

<sup>17</sup>Otherwise, the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and He will shut up the sky so that there will be no rain, and the ground will not yield its produce; then you will quickly perish from the good land which the LORD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup>“You shall therefore take these words of mine to heart and to soul; and you shall tie them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets on your forehead.

<sup>19</sup>You shall also teach them to your sons, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk along the road, when you lie down, and when you get up.

<sup>20</sup>And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, <sup>21</sup>so that your days and the days of your sons may be increased on the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

<sup>22</sup>For if you are careful to keep all of this commandment which I am commanding you to do, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and cling to Him,

<sup>23</sup>then the LORD will dispossess all these nations from you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than you.

<sup>24</sup>Every place on which the sole of your foot steps shall be yours; your border will be from the wilderness to Lebanon, and from the river, the river Euphrates, as far as the western sea.

<sup>25</sup>No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will instill the dread of you and the fear of you in all the land on which you set foot, just as He has spoken to you.

<sup>26</sup>“See, I am placing before you today a blessing and a curse:

<sup>27</sup>the blessing, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today;

<sup>28</sup>and the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, by following other gods which you have not known.

<sup>29</sup>“And it shall come about, when the LORD your God brings you into the land where you are entering to possess it, that you shall place the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

<sup>30</sup>Are they not across the Jordan, west of the road toward the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?

<sup>31</sup>For you are about to cross the Jordan to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and live in it,

<sup>32</sup>and you shall be careful to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am placing before you today.

Deuteronomy 12

Laws of the Sanctuary

<sup>1</sup>“These are the statutes and the judgments which you shall carefully follow in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess as long as you live on the earth.

<sup>4</sup>You shall not act this way toward the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup>But you shall seek the LORD at the place which the LORD your God will choose from all your tribes, to establish His name there for His dwelling, and you shall come there.

<sup>6</sup>You shall bring there your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contribution of your hand, your vowed offerings, your voluntary offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock.

<sup>7</sup>There you and your households shall eat before the LORD your God, and rejoice in all your undertakings in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup>“You shall not do at all what we are doing here today, everyone doing whatever is right in his own eyes;

<sup>9</sup>for you have not as yet come to the resting place and the inheritance which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>10</sup>When you cross the Jordan and live in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and He gives you rest from all your enemies around you so that you live in security,

<sup>11</sup>then it shall come about that the place in which the LORD your God will choose for His name to dwell, there you shall bring everything that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the contribution of your hand, and all your choice vowed offerings which you will vow to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levite who is within your gates, since he has no portion or inheritance with you.

<sup>13</sup>“Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in any cultic place that you see,

<sup>14</sup>but only in the place which the LORD chooses in one of your tribes: there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do everything that I command you.

<sup>15</sup>“However, you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your gates, whatever you desire, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, as the gazelle and the deer.

<sup>16</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup>You are not allowed to eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, new wine, or oil, or the firstborn of your herd or flock, or any of your vowed offerings which you vow, or your voluntary offerings, or the contribution of your hand.

<sup>18</sup>But you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God will choose, you and your son and daughter, and your male and female slaves, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all your undertakings.

<sup>19</sup>Be careful that you do not abandon the Levite as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20</sup>“When the LORD your God extends your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘I will eat meat,’ because you desire to eat meat, then you may eat meat, whatever you desire.

<sup>21</sup>If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter animals from your herd and flock which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates whatever you desire.

<sup>22</sup>Just as a gazelle or a deer is eaten, so you may eat it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it.

<sup>23</sup>Only be sure not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.

<sup>25</sup>You shall not eat it, so that it may go well for you and your sons after you, since you will be doing what is right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>Only your holy things which you may have and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses.

<sup>27</sup>And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the flesh.

<sup>28</sup>“Be careful and listen to all these words which I am commanding you, so that it may go well for you and your sons after you forever, for you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

<sup>29</sup>“When the LORD your God cuts off from you the nations which you are going in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and live in their land,

<sup>30</sup>be careful that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from your presence, and that you do not inquire about their gods, saying, ‘How do these nations serve their gods, that I also may do likewise?’

<sup>31</sup>You shall not behave this way toward the LORD your God, because every abominable act which the LORD hates, they have done for their gods; for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire for their gods.

<sup>32</sup>“Whatever I command you, you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to nor take anything away from it.

Deuteronomy 13

Reject Idolatry

<sup>1</sup>“If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder,

<sup>2</sup>and the sign or the wonder comes true, of which he spoke to you, saying, ‘Let’s follow other gods (whom you have not known) and let’s serve them,’

<sup>3</sup>you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

<sup>4</sup>You shall follow the LORD your God and fear Him; and you shall keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and cling to Him.

<sup>5</sup>But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken falsely against the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to drive you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall eliminate the evil from among you.

<sup>6</sup>“If your brother, your mother’s son, or your son or daughter, or the wife you cherish, or your friend who is like your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods’ (whom neither you nor your fathers have known,

<sup>7</sup>of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near you, or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other end),

<sup>8</sup>you shall not consent to him or listen to him; and your eye shall not pity him, nor shall you spare or conceal him.

<sup>9</sup>Instead, you shall most certainly kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

<sup>10</sup>So you shall stone him to death, because he has attempted to drive you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

<sup>11</sup>Then all Israel will hear about it and be afraid, and will not do such a wicked thing among you again.

<sup>12</sup>“If you hear in one of your cities, which the LORD your God is giving you to live in, anyone saying that

<sup>13</sup>some worthless men have gone out from among you and have seduced the inhabitants of their city, saying, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods’ (whom you have not known),

<sup>14</sup>then you shall investigate, search out, and inquire thoroughly. And if it is true and the matter is certain that this abomination has been committed among you,

<sup>15</sup>you shall most certainly strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword. Utterly destroy it and all who are in it and its cattle, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>16</sup>Then you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of its public square, and burn the city and all its plunder with fire as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God; and it shall be a ruin forever. It shall never be rebuilt.

<sup>17</sup>Nothing at all from what is designated for destruction is to cling to your hand, in order that the LORD may turn from His burning anger and show mercy to you, and have compassion on you and make you increase, just as He has sworn to your fathers, <sup>18</sup>if you will listen to the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all His commandments which I am commanding you today, and doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14

Clean and Unclean Animals

<sup>1</sup>“You are sons of the LORD your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor shave a bald spot above your forehead for the dead.

<sup>2</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for His personal possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

<sup>4</sup>These are the animals that you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, <sup>5</sup>the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

<sup>6</sup>And any animal that has a divided hoof and has its hoofs split in two, and chews the cud, among the animals, that animal you may eat.

<sup>7</sup>However, you are not to eat these among the ones that chew the cud, or among those that have the hoof divided in two: the camel, the rabbit, and the rock hyrax, for though they chew the cud, they do not have a divided hoof; they are unclean to you.

<sup>8</sup>And the pig, because it has a divided hoof but does not chew the cud, it is unclean for you. You shall not eat any of their flesh, nor touch their carcasses.

<sup>9</sup>“These you may eat of everything that is in the water: anything that has fins and scales you may eat, <sup>10</sup>but anything that does not have fins and scales, you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

<sup>12</sup>But these are the ones that you shall not eat: the eagle and the vulture and the buzzard,

<sup>13</sup>and the red kite, the falcon, and the kite in their kinds,

<sup>14</sup>and every raven in its kind,

<sup>15</sup>and the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, and the hawk in their kinds,

<sup>18</sup>the stork, and the heron in their kinds, and the hoopoe and the bat.

<sup>21</sup>“You shall not eat anything which dies of itself. You may give it to the stranger who is in your town, so that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a stranger; for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

<sup>22</sup>“You shall certainly tithe all the produce from what you sow, which comes from the field every year.

<sup>23</sup>You shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God, at the place where He chooses to establish His name, the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock, so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

<sup>24</sup>But if the distance is so great for you that you are not able to bring the tithe, since the place where the LORD your God chooses to set His name is too far away from you when the LORD your God blesses you,

<sup>25</sup>then you shall exchange it for money, and bind the money in your hand and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

<sup>26</sup>And you may spend the money on whatever your heart desires: on oxen, sheep, wine, other strong drink, or whatever your heart desires; and there you shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice, you and your household.

<sup>27</sup>Also you shall not neglect the Levite who is in your town, for he has no portion or inheritance among you.

<sup>28</sup>“At the end of every third year you shall bring out all the tithe of your produce in that year, and you shall deposit it in your town.

<sup>29</sup>And the Levite, because he has no portion or inheritance among you, and the stranger, the orphan, and the widow who are in your town, shall come and eat and be satisfied, in order that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

Deuteronomy 15

The Sabbatical Year

<sup>2</sup>And this is the regulation for the release of debts: every creditor is to forgive what he has loaned to his neighbor; he shall not require it of his neighbor and his brother, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed.

<sup>3</sup>From a foreigner you may require it, but your hand shall forgive whatever of yours is with your brother.

<sup>4</sup>However, there will be no poor among you, since the LORD will certainly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess,

<sup>5</sup>if only you listen obediently to the voice of the LORD your God, to follow carefully all this commandment which I am commanding you today.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD your God will have blessed you just as He has promised you, and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; and you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

<sup>7</sup>"If there is a poor person among you, one of your brothers, in any of your towns in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart, nor close your hand from your poor brother;

<sup>8</sup>but you shall fully open your hand to him, and generously lend him enough for his need in whatever he lacks.

<sup>9</sup>Be careful that there is no mean-spirited thought in your heart, such as, 'The seventh year, the year of release of debts, is near,' and your eye is malicious toward your poor brother, and you give him nothing; then he may cry out to the LORD against you, and it will be a sin in you.

<sup>10</sup>You shall generously give to him, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your work, and in all your undertakings.

<sup>11</sup>For the poor will not cease to exist in the land; therefore I am commanding you, saying, 'You shall fully open your hand to your brother, to your needy and poor in your land.'

<sup>12</sup>“If your fellow countryman, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, then he shall serve you for six years, but in the seventh year you shall set him free.

<sup>13</sup>And when you set him free, you shall not send him away empty-handed.

<sup>14</sup>You shall give generously to him from your flock, your threshing floor, and from your wine vat; you shall give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.

<sup>15</sup>And you are to remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I am commanding this of you today.

<sup>16</sup>But it shall come about, if he says to you, ‘I will not leave you,’ because he loves you and your household, since he is doing well with you,

<sup>17</sup>then you shall take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he shall be your servant permanently. You shall also do the same to your female slave.

<sup>18</sup>“It shall not seem difficult for you when you set him free, because he has given you six years with double the service of a hired worker; so the LORD your God will bless you in whatever you do.

<sup>19</sup>“You shall consecrate to the LORD your God all the firstborn males that are born in your herd and in your flock; you shall not work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.

<sup>20</sup>You and your household shall eat it every year before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses.

<sup>21</sup>But if it has any impairment, such as a limp, or blindness, or any serious impairment, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

<sup>22</sup>You shall eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, as a gazelle or a deer.

<sup>23</sup>Only you shall not eat its blood; you are to pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16

The Feasts of Passover, of Weeks, and of Booths

<sup>1</sup>“Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

<sup>2</sup>You shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God from the flock and the herd, in the place where the LORD chooses to establish His name.

<sup>3</sup>You shall not eat leavened bread with it; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in a hurry), so that you will remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.

<sup>5</sup>You are not allowed to sacrifice the Passover in any of your towns which the LORD your God is giving you;

<sup>6</sup>but only at the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name, you shall sacrifice the Passover in the evening at sunset, at the time that you came out of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>You shall cook and eat it in the place which the LORD your God chooses. In the morning you are to return to your tents.

<sup>8</sup>For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a festive assembly to the LORD your God; you shall do no work on it.

<sup>9</sup>“You shall count seven weeks for yourself; you shall begin to count seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.

<sup>10</sup>Then you shall celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with a voluntary offering of your hand in a proportional amount, which you shall give just as the LORD your God blesses you;

<sup>11</sup>and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your son and your daughter, and your male and female slaves, and the Levite who is in your town, and the stranger, the orphan, and the widow who are in your midst, at the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name.

<sup>12</sup>You shall also remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall be careful and comply with these statutes.

<sup>13</sup>“You shall celebrate the Feast of Booths for seven days when you have gathered in from your threshing floor and your wine vat;

<sup>14</sup>and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, your son and your daughter, and your male and female slaves, and the Levite, the stranger, the orphan, and the widow who are in your towns.

<sup>15</sup>For seven days you shall celebrate a feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.

<sup>16</sup>“Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths; and they are not to appear before the LORD empty-handed.

<sup>17</sup>Everyone shall give as he is able, in accordance with the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

<sup>18</sup>“You shall appoint for yourself judges and officers in all your towns which the LORD your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

<sup>19</sup>You shall not distort justice, you shall not show partiality; and you shall not accept a bribe, because a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and distorts the words of the righteous.

<sup>20</sup>Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue, so that you may live and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup>“You shall not plant for yourself an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make for yourself.

<sup>22</sup>And you shall not set up for yourself a memorial stone, which the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17

Administration of Justice

<sup>1</sup>“You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep which has a blemish or any defect, for that is a detestable thing to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>“If there is found in your midst, in any of your towns which the LORD your God is giving you, a man or a woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, by violating His covenant,

<sup>3</sup>and that person has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, or the sun, the moon, or any of the heavenly lights, which I have commanded not to do,

<sup>4</sup>and if it is reported to you and you have heard about it, then you shall investigate thoroughly. And if it is true and the report is trustworthy that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,

<sup>5</sup>then you are to bring out to your gates that man or woman who has done this evil deed, that is, the man or the woman, and you shall stone them to death.

<sup>6</sup>On the testimony of two witnesses or three witnesses, the condemned shall be put to death; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

<sup>7</sup>The hands of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall eliminate the evil from your midst.

<sup>8</sup>“If a case is too difficult for you to decide, between one kind of homicide or another, between one kind of lawsuit or another, and between one kind of assault or another, that are cases of dispute in your courts, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God chooses.

<sup>9</sup>So you shall come to the Levitical priests or the judge who is in office in those days, and you shall inquire of them and they will declare to you the verdict.

<sup>10</sup>Then you shall act in accordance with the terms of the verdict which they declare to you from that place which the LORD chooses; and you shall be careful to act in accordance with everything that they instruct you to do.

<sup>11</sup>In accordance with the terms of the law about which they instruct you, and in accordance with the verdict which they tell you, you shall act; you shall not turn aside from the word which they declare to you, to the right or the left.

<sup>12</sup>But the person who acts insolently by not listening to the priest who stands there to serve the LORD your God, nor to the judge, that person shall die; so you shall eliminate the evil from Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act insolently again.

<sup>14</sup>“When you enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you take possession of it and live in it, and you say, ‘I will appoint a king over me like all the nations who are around me,’

<sup>15</sup>you shall in fact appoint a king over you whom the LORD your God chooses. One from among your countrymen you shall appoint as king over yourselves; you may not put a foreigner over yourselves, anyone who is not your countryman.

<sup>16</sup>In any case, he is not to acquire many horses for himself, nor shall he make the people return to Egypt in order to acquire many horses, since the LORD has said to you, ‘You shall never again return that way.’

<sup>17</sup>And he shall not acquire many wives for himself, so that his heart does not turn away; nor shall he greatly increase silver and gold for himself.

<sup>18</sup>“Now it shall come about, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this Law on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, so that he will learn to fear the LORD his God, by carefully following all the words of this Law and these statutes, <sup>20</sup>so that his heart will not be haughty toward his countrymen, and that he will not turn away from the commandment to the right or the left, so that he and his sons may live long in his kingdom in the midst of Israel.

Deuteronomy 18

Portion for the Levites

<sup>2</sup>They shall not have an inheritance among their countrymen; the LORD is their inheritance, as He promised them.

<sup>3</sup>“Now this shall be the priests’ portion from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, either an ox or a sheep: they shall give the priest the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the stomach.

<sup>4</sup>You shall give him the first fruits of your grain, your new wine, and your oil, and the first fleece of your sheep.

<sup>5</sup>For the LORD your God has chosen him and his sons from all your tribes, to stand to serve in the name of the LORD always.

<sup>6</sup>“Now if a Levite comes from any of your towns throughout Israel where he resides, and he comes whenever he desires to the place which the LORD chooses, <sup>7</sup>then he shall serve in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow Levites who stand there before the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>They shall eat equal portions, except for what they receive from the sale of their fathers' estates.

Spiritism Forbidden

<sup>9</sup>“When you enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to imitate the detestable things of those nations.

<sup>10</sup>There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, one who uses divination, a soothsayer, one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer,

<sup>11</sup>or one who casts a spell, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who consults the dead.

<sup>12</sup>For whoever does these things is detestable to the LORD; and because of these detestable things the LORD your God is going to drive them out before you.

<sup>13</sup>You are to be blameless before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup>For these nations, which you are going to dispossess, listen to soothsayers and diviners, but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you to do so.

<sup>15</sup>“The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your countrymen; to him you shall listen.

<sup>16</sup>This is in accordance with everything that you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Do not let me hear the voice of the LORD my God again, and do not let me see this great fire anymore, or I will die!’

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD said to me, ‘They have spoken well.

<sup>18</sup>I will raise up for them a prophet from among their countrymen like you, and I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them everything that I command him.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall come about that whoever does not listen to My words which he speaks in My name, I Myself will require it of him.

<sup>20</sup>But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in My name, a word which I have not commanded him to speak, or which he speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.'

<sup>21</sup>And if you say in your heart, 'How will we recognize the word which the LORD has not spoken?'

<sup>22</sup>When the prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, and the thing does not happen or come true, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you are not to be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19

Cities of Refuge

<sup>1</sup>"When the LORD your God cuts off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and settle in their cities and in their houses,

<sup>2</sup>you shall set aside for yourself three cities in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

<sup>3</sup>You shall prepare the roads for yourself, and divide into three regions the territory of your land which the LORD your God will give you as an inheritance, so that anyone who commits manslaughter may flee there.

<sup>4</sup>"Now this is the case of the one who commits manslaughter, who may flee there and live: when he kills his friend unintentionally, not hating him previously—

<sup>5</sup>as when a person goes into the forest with his friend to cut wood, and his hand swings the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron head slips off the handle and strikes his friend so that he dies—he may flee to one of these cities and live.

<sup>6</sup>Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue him in the heat of his anger, and overtake him because the way is long, and take his life, though he was not sentenced to death since he had not hated him previously.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore I command you, saying, ‘You shall set aside for yourself three cities.’

<sup>8</sup>“And if the LORD your God enlarges your territory, just as He has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land that He promised to give your fathers—

<sup>9</sup>if you carefully follow all of this commandment which I am commanding you today, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in His ways always—then you shall add three more cities for yourself, besides these three.

<sup>10</sup>So innocent blood will not be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and guilt for bloodshed will not be on you.

<sup>11</sup>“But if there is a person who hates his neighbor, and waits in ambush for him and rises up against him and strikes him so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,

<sup>12</sup>then the elders of his city shall send men and take him from there, and hand him over to the avenger of blood, so that he may die.

<sup>13</sup>You shall not pity him, but you shall eliminate the guilt for the bloodshed of the innocent from Israel, so that it may go well for you.

Laws of Landmark and Testimony

<sup>14</sup>“You shall not displace your neighbor’s boundary marker, which the ancestors have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

<sup>15</sup>“A single witness shall not rise up against a person regarding any wrongdoing or any sin that he commits; on the testimony of two or three witnesses a matter shall be confirmed.

<sup>16</sup>If a malicious witness rises up against a person to testify against him of wrongdoing,

<sup>17</sup>then both people who have the dispute shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who will be in office in those days.

<sup>18</sup>And the judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is a false witness and he has testified against his brother falsely,

<sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him just as he had planned to do to his brother. So you shall eliminate the evil from among you.

<sup>20</sup>And the rest of the people will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such an evil thing among you.

<sup>21</sup>So you shall not show pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, and foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20

Laws of Warfare

<sup>1</sup>“When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses, chariots, and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you.

<sup>2</sup>When you are approaching the battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people.

<sup>3</sup>He shall say to them, ‘Hear, Israel, you are approaching the battle against your enemies today. Do not be fainthearted. Do not be afraid, or panic, or be terrified by them,

<sup>4</sup>for the LORD your God is the One who is going with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

<sup>5</sup>The officers also shall speak to the people, saying, ‘Who is the man that has built a new house but has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would dedicate it.

<sup>6</sup>And who is the man that has planted a vineyard but has not put it to use? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would put it to use.

<sup>7</sup>And who is the man that is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would marry her.'

<sup>8</sup>Then the officers shall speak further to the people and say, 'Who is the man that is afraid and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, so that he does not make his brothers' hearts melt like his heart!'

<sup>10</sup>"When you approach a city to fight against it, you shall offer it terms of peace.

<sup>11</sup>And if it agrees to make peace with you and opens to you, then all the people who are found in it shall become your forced labor and serve you.

<sup>12</sup>However, if it does not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it.

<sup>13</sup>When the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall strike all the men in it with the edge of the sword.

<sup>14</sup>However, the women, the children, the animals, and everything that is in the city, all of its spoils, you shall take as plunder for yourself; and you shall use the spoils of your enemies which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>15</sup>This is what you shall do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations nearby.

<sup>16</sup>Only in the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not leave anything that breathes alive.

<sup>17</sup>Instead, you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you,

<sup>18</sup>so that they will not teach you to do all the same detestable practices of theirs which they have done for their gods, by which you would sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“When you besiege a city for a long time, to make war against it in order to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by swinging an axe against them; for you may eat from them, so you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a human, that it should be besieged by you?

<sup>20</sup>Only the trees that you know are not fruit trees you shall destroy and cut down, so that you may construct siegeworks against the city that is making war against you until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21

Expiation of a Crime

<sup>1</sup>“If a person who has been killed by someone is found lying in the open country in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who struck him, <sup>2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance to the cities which are around the one who was killed.

<sup>3</sup>And it shall be that the city which is nearest to the person killed, that is, that the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd that has not been worked and has not pulled in a yoke;

<sup>4</sup>and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which has not been plowed or sown, and they shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley.

<sup>5</sup>Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, because the LORD your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; and every dispute and violent crime shall be settled by them.

<sup>6</sup>And all the elders of that city which is nearest to the person killed shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;

<sup>7</sup>and they shall respond and say, 'Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see who did.

<sup>8</sup>Forgive Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, LORD, and do not place the guilt for innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel.' And the guilt for bloodshed shall be forgiven them.

<sup>9</sup>So you shall remove the guilt for innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Domestic Relations

<sup>10</sup>"When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them away captive,

<sup>11</sup>and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and are strongly attracted to her and would take her as a wife for yourself,

<sup>12</sup>then you shall bring her into your home, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.

<sup>13</sup>She shall also remove the clothes of her captivity and shall remain in your house, and weep for her father and mother a full month; and after that you may have relations with her and become her husband and she shall be your wife.

<sup>14</sup>But it shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you shall let her go wherever she wishes; and you certainly shall not sell her for money, you shall not treat her as merchandise, since you have humiliated her.

<sup>15</sup>“If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and the unloved have borne him sons, and the firstborn son belongs to the unloved,

<sup>16</sup>then it shall be on the day that he wills what he owns as an inheritance to his sons, he is not allowed to treat the son of the loved wife as the firstborn, at the expense of the son of the unloved, who actually is the firstborn son.

<sup>17</sup>On the contrary, he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved wife, by giving him a double portion of everything that he owns, for he was the beginning of his strength; to him belongs the right of the firstborn.

<sup>18</sup>“If any person has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father or his mother, and when they discipline him, he does not listen to them,

<sup>19</sup>then his father and mother shall seize him, and bring him out to the elders of his city at the gateway of his hometown.

<sup>20</sup>And they shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he does not obey us, he is thoughtless and given to drinking.’

<sup>21</sup>Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death; so you shall eliminate the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear about it and fear.

<sup>22</sup>“Now if a person has committed a sin carrying a sentence of death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree,

<sup>23</sup>his body is not to be left overnight on the tree, but you shall certainly bury him on the same day (for he who is hanged is cursed of God), so that you do not defile your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 22

Various Laws

<sup>1</sup>“You shall not see your countryman’s ox or his sheep straying away, and avoid them; you shall certainly bring them back to your countryman.

<sup>2</sup>And if your countryman is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your house, and it shall remain with you until your countryman looks for it; then you shall restore it to him.

<sup>3</sup>You shall also do this with his donkey, and you shall do the same with his garment, and you shall do likewise with any lost property of your countryman, which has been lost by him and you have found. You are not allowed to avoid them.

<sup>5</sup>“A woman shall not wear a man’s clothing, nor shall a man put on a woman’s clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>6</sup>“If you happen to come upon a bird’s nest along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs in it, and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young;

<sup>7</sup>you shall certainly let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself, in order that it may go well for you and that you may prolong your days.

<sup>8</sup>“When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof, so that you will not bring guilt for bloodshed on your house if anyone falls from it.

<sup>9</sup>“You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, otherwise all the produce of the seed which you have sown and the yield of the vineyard will be forfeited to the sanctuary.

Laws on Morality

<sup>13</sup>“If any man takes a wife and goes in to her and then turns against her,

<sup>14</sup>and he charges her with shameful behavior and publicly defames her, and says, ‘I took this woman, but when I came near her, I did not find her to have evidence of virginity,’

<sup>15</sup>then the girl’s father and her mother shall take and bring out the evidence of the girl’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

<sup>16</sup>And the girl’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, but he turned against her;

<sup>17</sup>and behold, he has charged her with shameful behavior, saying, “I did not find your daughter to have evidence of virginity.” But this is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread out the garment before the elders of the city.

<sup>18</sup>Then the elders of that city shall take the man and rebuke him,

<sup>19</sup>and they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give it to the girl’s father, because he publicly defamed a virgin of Israel. And she shall remain his wife; he is not allowed to divorce her all his days.

<sup>20</sup>“But if this charge is true, and they did not find the girl to have evidence of virginity,

<sup>21</sup>then they shall bring the girl out to the doorway of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death, because she has committed a disgraceful sin in Israel by playing the prostitute in her father’s house; so you shall eliminate the evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup>“If a man is found sleeping with a married woman, then both of them shall die, the man who slept with the woman, and the woman; so you shall eliminate the evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup>“If there is a girl who is a virgin betrothed to a man, and another man finds her in the city and sleeps with her,

<sup>24</sup>then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and you shall stone them to death: the girl, because she did not cry out for help though she was in the city, and the man, because he has violated his neighbor’s wife. So you shall eliminate the evil from among you.

<sup>25</sup>“But if the man finds the girl who is betrothed in the field, and the man seizes her and rapes her, then only the man who raped her shall die.

<sup>26</sup>And you are not to do anything to the girl; there is no sin in the girl worthy of death, for just as a man rises against his neighbor and murders him, so is this case.

<sup>27</sup>When he found her in the field, the betrothed girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.

<sup>28</sup>“If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, who is not betrothed, and he seizes her and has sexual relations with her, and they are discovered, <sup>29</sup>then the man who had sexual relations with her shall give the girl’s father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall become his wife, because he has violated her; he is not allowed to divorce her all his days.

<sup>30</sup>“A man shall not take his father’s wife in marriage, so that he does not uncover his father’s garment.

Deuteronomy 23

Persons Excluded from the Assembly

<sup>1</sup>“No one who is emasculated or has his male organ cut off may enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>No one of illegitimate birth may enter the assembly of the LORD; none of his descendants, even to the tenth generation, may enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>No Ammonite or Moabite may enter the assembly of the LORD; none of their descendants, even to the tenth generation, may ever enter the assembly of the LORD,

<sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with food and water on the way when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

<sup>5</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD your God was unwilling to listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you.

<sup>7</sup>“You shall not loathe an Edomite, for he is your brother; you shall not loathe an Egyptian, because you were a stranger in his land.

<sup>8</sup>The sons of the third generation who are born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“When you go out as an army against your enemies, you shall be on guard against every evil thing.

<sup>10</sup>“If there is among you any man who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he must go outside the camp; he may not reenter the camp.

<sup>11</sup>But when evening approaches, he shall bathe himself with water, and at sundown he may reenter the camp.

<sup>12</sup>“You shall also have a place allocated outside the camp, so that you may go out there to relieve yourself,

<sup>13</sup>and you shall have a spade among your tools, and it shall be when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and shall turn and cover up your excrement.

<sup>14</sup>Since the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp to save you and to defeat your enemies before you, your camp must be holy; so He must not see anything indecent among you or He will turn away from you.

<sup>15</sup>“You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you.

<sup>16</sup>He shall live with you in your midst, in the place that he chooses in one of your towns where it pleases him; you shall not mistreat him.

<sup>17</sup>“None of the daughters of Israel shall be a cult prostitute, nor shall any of the sons of Israel be a cult prostitute.

<sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the earnings of a prostitute or the money for a dog into the house of the LORD your God as payment for any vowed offering, because both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>“You are not to charge interest to your countrymen: interest on money, food, or anything that may be loaned on interest.

<sup>20</sup>You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your countrymen you shall not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you undertake in the land which you are about to enter to possess.

<sup>21</sup>“When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it, for the LORD your God will certainly require it of you, and it will be a sin for you.

<sup>22</sup>However, if you refrain from making vows, it will not be a sin for you.

<sup>23</sup>You shall be careful and perform what goes out of your lips, since in fact you have vowed a voluntary offering to the LORD your God, whatever you have promised.

<sup>24</sup>“When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat grapes until you are satisfied; but you are not to put any in your basket.

<sup>25</sup>“When you enter your neighbor’s standing grain, you may pluck the heads of grain with your hand, but you are not to use a sickle on your neighbor’s standing grain.

Deuteronomy 24

Law of Divorce

<sup>1</sup>“When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens, if she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, that he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her away from his house,

<sup>3</sup>and the latter husband turns against her, writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand, and sends her away from his house, or if the latter husband who took her to be his wife dies,

<sup>4</sup>then her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her again to be his wife, after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>5</sup>“When a man takes a new wife, he is not to go out with the army, nor be assigned any duty; he shall be free at home for one year and shall make his wife whom he has taken happy.

Various Laws

<sup>6</sup>“No one shall seize a handmill or an upper millstone as a pledge for a loan, since he would be seizing the debtor’s means of life as a pledge.

<sup>7</sup>“If someone is caught kidnapping any of his countrymen of the sons of Israel, and he treats him as merchandise and sells him, then that thief shall die; so you shall eliminate the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>“Be careful about an infestation of leprosy, that you are very attentive and act in accordance with everything that the Levitical priests teach you; just as I have commanded them, you shall be careful to act.

<sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way as you came out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>“When you make your neighbor a loan of any kind, you shall not enter his house to take his pledge.

<sup>11</sup>You shall stand outside, and the person to whom you are making the loan shall bring the pledge outside to you.

<sup>13</sup>When the sun goes down you shall certainly return the pledge to him, so that he may sleep in his cloak and bless you; and it will be righteousness for you before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup>“You shall not exploit a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your countrymen or one of your strangers who are in your land in your towns.

<sup>15</sup>You shall give him his wages on his day before the sun sets—for he is poor and sets his heart on it—so that he does not cry out against you to the LORD, and it becomes a sin in you.

<sup>17</sup>“You shall not pervert the justice due a stranger or an orphan, nor seize a widow’s garment as a pledge.

<sup>18</sup>But you are to remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and that the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

<sup>19</sup>“When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you are not to go back to get it; it shall belong to the stranger, the orphan, and to the widow, in order that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

<sup>22</sup>And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

Deuteronomy 25

Various Laws

<sup>1</sup>“If there is a dispute between people and they go to court, and the judges decide their case, and they declare the righteous innocent and pronounce the wicked guilty,

<sup>2</sup>then it shall be if the wicked person deserves to be beaten, the judge shall then make him lie down and have him beaten in his presence with the number of lashes according to his wrongful act.

<sup>3</sup>He may have him beaten forty times, but not more, so that he does not have him beaten with many more lashes than these, and that your brother does not become contemptible in your eyes.

<sup>5</sup>“When brothers live together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the deceased shall not be married outside the family to a strange man. Her husband’s brother shall have relations with her and take her to himself as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her.

<sup>6</sup>It shall then be that the firstborn to whom she gives birth shall assume the name of his father’s deceased brother, so that his name will not be wiped out from Israel.

<sup>7</sup>But if the man does not desire to take his brother’s widow, then his brother’s widow shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to establish a name for his brother in Israel; he is not willing to perform the duty of a husband’s brother to me.’

<sup>8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall summon him and speak to him. And if he persists and says, ‘I do not desire to take her,’

<sup>9</sup>then his brother's widow shall come up to him in the sight of the elders, and pull his sandal off his foot and spit in his face; and she shall declare, 'This is what is done to the man who does not build up his brother's house!'

<sup>10</sup>And in Israel his family shall be called by the name, 'The house of him whose sandal was removed.'

<sup>11</sup>"If two men, a man and his countryman, have a fight with each other, and the wife of one comes up to save her husband from the hand of the one who is hitting him, and she reaches out with her hand and grasps that man's genitals,

<sup>15</sup>You shall have a correct and honest weight; you shall have a correct and honest measure, so that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>16</sup>For everyone who does these things, everyone who acts unjustly is an abomination to the LORD your God.

<sup>17</sup>"Remember what Amalek did to you on the way when you came out of Egypt,

<sup>18</sup>how he confronted you on the way and attacked among you all the stragglers at your rear when you were tired and weary; and he did not fear God.

<sup>19</sup>So it shall come about, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies in the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, that you shall wipe out the mention of the name Amalek from under heaven; you must not forget.

Deuteronomy 26

Offering First Fruits

- <sup>1</sup>“Then it shall be, when you enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you take possession of it and live in it,
- <sup>2</sup>that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground which you bring in from your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name.
- <sup>3</sup>And you shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, ‘I declare today to the LORD my God that I have entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’
- <sup>4</sup>Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it before the altar of the LORD your God.
- <sup>5</sup>And you shall respond and say before the LORD your God, ‘My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt and resided there, few in number; but there he became a great, mighty, and populous nation.
- <sup>6</sup>And the Egyptians treated us badly and oppressed us, and imposed hard labor on us.
- <sup>7</sup>Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our wretched condition, our trouble, and our oppression;
- <sup>8</sup>and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs and wonders;
- <sup>9</sup>and He has brought us to this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- <sup>10</sup>And now behold, I have brought the first of the produce of the ground which You, LORD have given me.’ Then you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God;
- <sup>11</sup>and you, the Levite, and the stranger who is among you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given you and your household.

<sup>12</sup>“When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the orphan, and to the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.

<sup>13</sup>And you shall say before the LORD your God, ‘I have removed the sacred portion from my house, and have also given it to the Levite, the stranger, the orphan, and the widow, in accordance with all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not violated or forgotten any of Your commandments.

<sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it while mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor offered any of it to the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have acted in accordance with everything that You have commanded me.

<sup>15</sup>Look down from Your holy dwelling place, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the ground which You have given us, a land flowing with milk and honey just as You swore to our fathers.’

<sup>16</sup>“This day the LORD your God commands you to perform these statutes and ordinances. Therefore you shall be careful to perform them with all your heart and with all your soul.

<sup>17</sup>Today you have declared the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His ordinances, and listen to His voice.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD has today declared you to be His people, His personal possession, just as He promised you, and that you are to keep all His commandments;

<sup>19</sup>and that He will put you high above all the nations which He has made, for glory, fame, and honor; and that you shall be a consecrated people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.”

Deuteronomy 27

The Curses at Mount Ebal

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, “Keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today.

<sup>2</sup>So it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones and coat them with lime

<sup>3</sup>and write on them all the words of this Law, when you cross over, so that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

<sup>4</sup>So it shall be when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I am commanding you today, and you shall coat them with lime.

<sup>5</sup>Moreover, you shall build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not wield an iron tool on them.

<sup>6</sup>You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of uncut stones, and you shall offer on it burnt offerings to the LORD your God;

<sup>7</sup>and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God.

<sup>8</sup>You shall write on the stones all the words of this Law very clearly.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and listen, Israel! This day you have become a people for the LORD your God.

<sup>10</sup>So you shall obey the LORD your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today.”

<sup>11</sup>Moses also commanded the people on that day, saying,

<sup>14</sup>The Levites shall then respond and say to all the people of Israel with a loud voice,

<sup>15</sup>‘Cursed is the person who makes a carved image or cast metal image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’ And all the people shall reply and say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>16</sup>‘Cursed is one who treats his father or mother contemptuously.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>17</sup>‘Cursed is one who displaces his neighbor’s boundary marker.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>18</sup>‘Cursed is one who misleads a person who is blind on the road.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>21</sup>‘Cursed is one who has sexual intercourse with any animal.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>23</sup>‘Cursed is he who sleeps with his mother-in-law.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>24</sup>‘Cursed is he who attacks his neighbor in secret.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>25</sup>‘Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to attack an innocent person.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

<sup>26</sup>‘Cursed is anyone who does not fulfill the words of this Law by doing them.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy 28

The Blessings at Mount Gerizim

<sup>1</sup>“Now it shall be, if you diligently obey the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments which I am commanding you today, that the LORD your God will put you high above all the nations of the earth.

<sup>2</sup>And all these blessings will come to you and reach you if you obey the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup>“Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the country.

<sup>4</sup>“Blessed will be the children of your womb, the produce of your ground, and the offspring of your animals: the newborn of your herd and the young of your flock.

<sup>5</sup>“Blessed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.

<sup>6</sup>“Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be defeated by you; they will go out against you one way and will flee at your presence seven ways.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will command the blessing for you in your barns and in everything that you put your hand to, and He will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways.

<sup>10</sup>So all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will be afraid of you.

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD will give you more than enough prosperity, in the children of your womb, in the offspring of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD will open for you His good storehouse, the heavens, to give rain to your land in its season and to bless every work of your hand; and you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail, and you will only be above, and not be underneath, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God which I am commanding you today, to follow them carefully, <sup>14</sup>and do not turn aside from any of the words which I am commanding you today, to the right or the left, to pursue other gods to serve them.

Consequences of Disobedience

<sup>15</sup>“But it shall come about, if you do not obey the LORD your God, to be careful to follow all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

<sup>16</sup>“Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the country.

<sup>17</sup>“Cursed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.

<sup>18</sup>“Cursed will be the children of your womb, the produce of your ground, the newborn of your herd, and the offspring of your flock.

<sup>19</sup>“Cursed will you be when you come in, and cursed will you be when you go out.

<sup>20</sup>“The LORD will send against you curses, panic, and rebuke, in everything you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds, because you have abandoned Me.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He has eliminated you from the land where you are entering to take possession of it.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD will strike you with consumption, inflammation, fever, feverish heat, and with the sword, with blight, and with mildew, and they will pursue you until you perish.

<sup>23</sup>The heaven which is over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you, iron.

<sup>24</sup>The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup>“The LORD will cause you to be defeated by your enemies; you will go out one way against them, but you will flee seven ways from their presence, and you will be an example of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>26</sup>Your dead bodies will serve as food for all birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.

<sup>27</sup>“The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors, the festering rash, and with scabies, from which you cannot be healed.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD will strike you with insanity, blindness, and with confusion of mind;

<sup>29</sup>and you will be groping about at noon, just as a person who is blind gropes in the darkness, and you will not be successful in your ways; but you will only be oppressed and robbed all the time, with no one to save you.

<sup>30</sup>You will betroth a woman, but another man will violate her; you will build a house, but you will not live in it; you will plant a vineyard, but you will not make use of its fruit.

<sup>31</sup>Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat of it; your donkey will be snatched away from you, and will not be restored to you; your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to save you.

<sup>32</sup>Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people, while your eyes look on and long for them constantly; but there will be nothing you can do.

<sup>33</sup>A people whom you do not know will eat the produce of your ground and every product of your labor, and you will never be anything but oppressed and mistreated continually.

<sup>34</sup>You will also be driven insane by the sight of what you see.

<sup>35</sup>The LORD will strike you on the knees and thighs with severe boils from which you cannot be healed, and strike you from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

<sup>36</sup>The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you appoint over you, to a nation that neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods, made of wood and stone.

<sup>37</sup>And you will become an object of horror, a song of mockery, and an object of taunting among all the peoples where the LORD drives you.

<sup>38</sup>"You will bring out a great amount of seed to the field, but you will gather in little, because the locust will devour it.

<sup>39</sup>You will plant and cultivate vineyards, but you will neither drink of the wine nor bring in the harvest, because the worm will eat it.

<sup>40</sup>You will have olive trees throughout your territory but you will not anoint yourself with the oil, because your olives will drop off prematurely.

<sup>41</sup>You will father sons and daughters but they will not remain yours, because they will go into captivity.

<sup>42</sup>The cricket will take possession of all your trees and the produce of your ground.

<sup>43</sup>The stranger who is among you will rise above you higher and higher, and you will go down lower and lower.

<sup>44</sup>He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will be the head, and you will be the tail.

<sup>45</sup>“So all these curses shall come upon you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you would not obey the LORD your God by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you.

<sup>46</sup>And they will become a sign and a wonder against you and your descendants forever.

<sup>47</sup>“Since you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and a cheerful heart, in gratitude for the abundance of all things, <sup>48</sup>you will serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, thirst, nakedness, and devoid of all things; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

<sup>49</sup>“The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, as the eagle swoops down; a nation whose language you will not understand, <sup>50</sup>a nation with a defiant attitude, who will have no respect for the old, nor show favor to the young.

<sup>51</sup>Furthermore, it will eat the offspring of your herd and the produce of your ground until you are destroyed; a nation that will leave you no grain, new wine, or oil, nor the newborn of your cattle or the young of your flock, until they have eliminated you.

<sup>52</sup>And it will besiege you in all your towns until your high and fortified walls in which you trusted come down throughout your land, and it will besiege you in all your towns throughout your land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>53</sup>Then you will eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, during the siege and the hardship by which your enemy will oppress you.

<sup>54</sup>The man who is refined and very delicate among you will be hostile toward his brother, toward the wife he cherishes, and toward the rest of his children who are left,

<sup>55</sup>so that he will not give even one of them any of the flesh of his children which he will eat, since he has nothing else left, during the siege and the hardship by which your enemy will oppress you in all your towns.

<sup>56</sup>The refined and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and tenderness, will be hostile toward the husband she cherishes and toward her son and daughter,

<sup>57</sup>and toward her afterbirth that comes from between her legs, and toward her children to whom she gives birth, because she will eat them secretly for lack of anything else, during the siege and the hardship with which your enemy will oppress you in your towns.

<sup>58</sup>“If you are not careful to follow all the words of this Law that are written in this book, to fear this honored and awesome name, the LORD your God, <sup>59</sup>then the LORD will bring extraordinary plagues on you and your descendants, severe and lasting plagues, and miserable and chronic sicknesses.

<sup>60</sup>And He will bring back on you every disease of Egypt of which you were afraid, and they will cling to you.

<sup>61</sup>Also every sickness and every plague, which are not written in the book of this Law, the LORD will bring on you until you are destroyed.

<sup>62</sup>Then you will be left few in number, whereas you were as numerous as the stars of heaven, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

<sup>63</sup>And it will come about that, just as the LORD rejoiced over you to be good to you, and make you numerous, so will the LORD rejoice over you to wipe you out and destroy you; and you will be torn away from the land which you are entering to possess.

<sup>64</sup>Furthermore, the LORD will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you will serve other gods, made of wood and stone, which you and your fathers have not known.

<sup>65</sup>Among those nations you will find no peace, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing of eyes, and despair of soul.

<sup>66</sup>So your lives will be hanging in doubt before you; and you will be terrified night and day, and have no assurance of your life.

<sup>67</sup>In the morning you will say, ‘If only it were evening!’ And at evening you will say, ‘If only it were morning!’ because of the terror of your heart which you fear, and the sight of your eyes which you will see.

<sup>68</sup>And the LORD will bring you back to Egypt in ships, by the way about which I said to you, ‘You will never see it again!’ And there you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.”

Deuteronomy 29

The Covenant in Moab

<sup>1</sup> These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He had made with them at Horeb.

<sup>2</sup> And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and all his servants, and to all his land;

<sup>3</sup> the great trials which your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders.

<sup>4</sup> Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear.

<sup>5</sup>And I have led you in the wilderness for forty years; your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandal has not worn out on your foot.

<sup>6</sup>You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or other strong drink, in order that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

<sup>7</sup>When you reached this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us for battle, but we defeated them;

<sup>8</sup>and we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites.

<sup>9</sup>So you will keep the words of this covenant and do them, in order that you may be successful in everything that you do.

<sup>10</sup>“You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God: your heads, your tribes, your elders and your officers, that is, all the men of Israel,

<sup>11</sup>your little ones, your wives, and the stranger who is within your camps, from the one who gathers your firewood to the one who draws your water,

<sup>12</sup>so that you may enter into the covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath which the LORD your God is making with you today,

<sup>13</sup>in order that He may establish you today as His people, and that He may be your God, just as He spoke to you and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>14</sup>“Now it is not with you alone that I am making this covenant and this oath,

<sup>15</sup>but both with those who stand here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God, and with those who are not with us here today

<sup>16</sup>(for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the midst of the nations through which you passed;

<sup>17</sup>moreover, you have seen their abominations and their idols made of wood and stone, silver and gold, which they had with them);

<sup>18</sup>so that there will not be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; that there will not be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will consider himself fortunate in his heart, saying, ‘I will do well though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to destroy the watered land along with the dry.’

<sup>20</sup>The LORD will not be willing to forgive him, but rather the anger of the LORD and His wrath will burn against that person, and every curse that is written in this book will lie upon him, and the LORD will wipe out his name from under heaven.

<sup>21</sup>Then the LORD will single him out for disaster from all the tribes of Israel, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant which is written in this Book of the Law.

<sup>22</sup>“Now the future generation, your sons who rise up after you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, when they see the plagues of that land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it, will say,

<sup>23</sup>‘All its land is brimstone and salt, burned debris, unsown and unproductive, and no grass grows on it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and in His wrath.’

<sup>24</sup>All the nations will say, ‘Why has the LORD done all this to this land? Why this great outburst of anger?’

<sup>25</sup>Then people will say, ‘It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup>And they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they have not known and whom He had not assigned to them.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, the anger of the LORD burned against that land, to bring upon it every curse which is written in this book;

<sup>28</sup>and the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, fury, and in great wrath, and hurled them into another land, as it is this day.’

<sup>29</sup>“The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, so that we may follow all the words of this Law.

Deuteronomy 30

Restoration Promised

<sup>1</sup>“So it will be when all of these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have placed before you, and you call them to mind in all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you,

<sup>2</sup>and you return to the LORD your God and obey Him with all your heart and soul in accordance with everything that I am commanding you today, you and your sons,

<sup>3</sup>then the LORD your God will restore you from captivity, and have compassion on you, and will gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you.

<sup>4</sup>If any of your scattered countrymen are at the ends of the earth, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you back.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and He will be good to you and make you more numerous than your fathers.

<sup>6</sup>“Moreover, the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and all your soul, so that you may live.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.

<sup>8</sup>And you will again obey the LORD, and follow all His commandments which I am commanding you today.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD your God will prosper you abundantly in every work of your hand, in the children of your womb, the offspring of your cattle, and in the produce of your ground, for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers;

<sup>10</sup>if you obey the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and soul.

<sup>11</sup>“For this commandment which I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it far away.

<sup>12</sup>It is not in heaven, that you could say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us and get it for us, and proclaim it to us, so that we may follow it?’

<sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, that you could say, ‘Who will cross the sea for us and get it for us and proclaim it to us, so that we may follow it?’

<sup>14</sup>On the contrary, the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may follow it.

Choose Life

<sup>15</sup>“See, I have placed before you today life and happiness, and death and adversity,

<sup>16</sup>in that I am commanding you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, so that you may live and become numerous, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land where you are entering to take possession of it.

<sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away and you will not obey, but allow yourself to be led astray and you worship other gods and serve them,

<sup>18</sup>I declare to you today that you will certainly perish. You will not prolong your days in the land where you are crossing the Jordan to enter and take possession of it.

<sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have placed before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. So choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendants,

<sup>20</sup>by loving the LORD your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding close to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, so that you may live in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy 31

Moses' Last Counsel

<sup>2</sup>And he said to them, “I am 120 years old today; I am no longer able to go out and come in, and the LORD has told me, ‘You shall not cross this Jordan.’

<sup>3</sup>It is the LORD your God who is going to cross ahead of you; He Himself will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua is the one who is going to cross ahead of you, just as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD will turn them over to you, and you will do to them in accordance with all the commandments which I have commanded you.

<sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or in dread of them, for the LORD your God is the One who is going with you. He will not desert you or abandon you.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you will give it to them as an inheritance.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD is the one who is going ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not desert you or abandon you. Do not fear and do not be dismayed.”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses wrote this Law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses commanded them, saying, “At the end of every seven years, at the time of the year of the release of debts, at the Feast of Booths, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place which He will choose, you shall read this Law before all Israel so that they hear it.

<sup>12</sup>Assemble the people, the men, the women, the children, and the stranger who is in your town, so that they may hear and learn and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to follow all the words of this Law.

<sup>13</sup>And their children, who have not known, will hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live on the land which you are about to cross the Jordan to possess.”

Israel Will Fall Away

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, the time for you to die is near; call Joshua and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, and I will commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the entrance of the tent.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, you are about to lie down with your fathers; and this people will arise and play the prostitute with the foreign gods of the land into the midst of which they are going, and they will abandon Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.

<sup>17</sup>Then My anger will be kindled against them on that day, and I will abandon them and hide My face from them, and they will be consumed, and many evils and troubles will find them; so they will say on that day, ‘Is it not because our God is not among us that these evils have found us?’

<sup>18</sup>But I will assuredly hide My face on that day because of all the evil that they will have done, for they will have turned away to other gods.

<sup>19</sup>“Now then, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it on their lips, so that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>For when I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers, and they eat and are satisfied and become prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and spurn Me and break My covenant.

<sup>21</sup>Then it will come about, when many evils and troubles find them, that this song will testify before them as a witness (for it shall not be forgotten from the mouth of their descendants); for I know their inclination which they are developing today, before I bring them into the land which I swore.”

<sup>22</sup>So Moses wrote down this song on the same day, and taught it to the sons of Israel.

Joshua Is Commissioned

<sup>23</sup>Then He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup>It came about, when Moses finished writing the words of this Law in a book until they were complete,

<sup>25</sup>that Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

<sup>26</sup>“Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, so that it may remain there as a witness against you.

<sup>27</sup>For I know your rebellion and your stubbornness; behold, as long as I have been alive with you until today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more, then, after my death?

<sup>28</sup>Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against them.

<sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will behave very corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will confront you in the latter days, because you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands.”

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete:

Deuteronomy 32

The Song of Moses

<sup>1</sup>“Listen, you heavens, and I will speak; And let the earth hear the words of my mouth!

<sup>2</sup>“May my teaching drip as the rain, My speech trickle as the dew, As droplets on the fresh grass, And as the showers on the vegetation.

<sup>3</sup>“For I proclaim the name of the LORD; Ascribe greatness to our God!

<sup>4</sup>“The Rock! His work is perfect, For all His ways are just; A God of faithfulness and without injustice, Righteous and just is He.

<sup>5</sup>“They have acted corruptly against Him, They are not His children, because of their defect; But are a perverse and crooked generation.

<sup>6</sup>“Is this what you do to the LORD, You foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father who has purchased you? He has made you and established you.

<sup>7</sup>“Remember the days of old, Consider the years of all generations. Ask your father and he will inform you, Your elders, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup>“When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, When He separated the sons of mankind, He set the boundaries of the peoples According to the number of the sons of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>“He found him in a desert land, And in the howling wasteland of a wilderness; He encircled him, He cared for him, He guarded him as the apple of His eye.

<sup>12</sup>“The LORD alone guided him, And there was no foreign god with him.

<sup>13</sup>“He had him ride on the high places of the earth, And he ate the produce of the field; And He had him suck honey from the rock, And oil from the flinty rock, <sup>14</sup>Curds of the herd, and milk of the flock, With fat of lambs And rams, the breed of Bashan, and of goats, With the best of the wheat; And you drank wine of the blood of grapes.

<sup>15</sup>“But Jeshurun became fat and kicked— You have become fat, thick, and obstinate— Then he abandoned God who made him, And rejected the Rock of his salvation.

<sup>16</sup>“They made Him jealous with strange gods; With abominations they provoked Him to anger.

<sup>17</sup>“They sacrificed to demons, who were not God, To gods whom they have not known, New gods who came lately, Whom your fathers did not know.

<sup>18</sup>“You forgot the Rock who fathered you, And forgot the God who gave you birth.

<sup>19</sup>“The LORD saw this, and spurned them Because of the provocation by His sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>“Then He said, ‘I will hide My face from them, I will see what their end will be; For they are a perverse generation, Sons in whom there is no faithfulness.

<sup>21</sup>“They have made Me jealous with what is not God; They have provoked Me to anger with their idols. So I will make them jealous with those who are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation, <sup>22</sup>For a fire has flared in My anger, And it burns to the lowest part of Sheol, And devours the earth with its yield, And sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

<sup>23</sup>“I will add misfortunes to them; I will use up My arrows on them.

<sup>24</sup>“They will be wasted by famine, and emaciated by plague And a bitter epidemic; And the teeth of beasts I will send against them, With the venom of crawling things of the dust.

<sup>25</sup>“Outside the sword will make them childless, And inside, terror— Both young man and virgin, The nursing child with the man of gray hair.

<sup>26</sup>“I would have said, “I will wipe them out, I will remove the mention of their name from humanity,”

<sup>27</sup>Had I not feared the provocation by the enemy, That their adversaries would misjudge, That they would say, “Our hand is triumphant, And the LORD has not performed all this.” ’

<sup>28</sup>“For they are a nation destitute of counsel, And there is no understanding in them.

<sup>29</sup>“If only they were wise and they understood this; If only they would discern their future!

<sup>35</sup>‘Vengeance is Mine, and retribution; In due time their foot will slip. For the day of their disaster is near, And the impending things are hurrying to them.’

<sup>36</sup>“For the LORD will vindicate His people, And will have compassion on His servants, When He sees that their strength is gone, And there is none remaining, bond or free.

<sup>37</sup>“And He will say, ‘Where are their gods, The rock in which they took refuge?

<sup>38</sup>‘Those who ate the fat of their sacrifices, And drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help you, Let them be your protection!

<sup>39</sup>‘See now that I, I am He, And there is no god besides Me; It is I who put to death and give life. I have wounded and it is I who heal, And there is no one who can save anyone from My hand.

<sup>40</sup>‘Indeed, I raise My hand to heaven, And say, as I live forever,

<sup>41</sup>If I have sharpened My flashing sword, And My hand has taken hold of justice, I will return vengeance on My adversaries, And I will repay those who hate Me.

<sup>42</sup>‘I will make My arrows drunk with blood, And My sword will devour flesh, With the blood of the slain and the captives, From the long-haired leaders of the enemy.’

<sup>44</sup>Then Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he, with Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>45</sup>When Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

<sup>46</sup>he said to them, “Take to your heart all the words with which I am warning you today, which you will command your sons to follow carefully, all the words of this Law.

<sup>47</sup>For it is not a trivial matter for you; indeed it is your life. And by this word you will prolong your days in the land, which you are about to cross the Jordan to possess.”

<sup>48</sup>Now the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying,

<sup>49</sup>“Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho, and look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession.

<sup>50</sup>Then you are to die on the mountain where you ascend, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people,

<sup>51</sup>because you broke faith with Me in the midst of the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not treat Me as holy in the midst of the sons of Israel.

<sup>52</sup>For you will see the land at a distance but you will not go there, into the land which I am giving the sons of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33

The Blessing by Moses

<sup>1</sup>Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death.

<sup>2</sup>He said, “The LORD came from Sinai, And dawned on them from Seir; He shone from Mount Paran, And He came from the midst of myriads of holy ones; At His right hand there was flashing lightning for them.

<sup>3</sup>“Indeed, He loves the people; All Your holy ones are in Your hand, And they followed in Your steps; Everyone takes of Your words.

<sup>5</sup>“And He was king in Jeshurun, When the heads of the people gathered, The tribes of Israel together.

<sup>7</sup>And this was regarding Judah; so he said: “Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, And bring him to his people. With his hands he contended for them, And may You be a help against his adversaries.”

<sup>8</sup>Of Levi he said, “Let Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to Your godly man, Whom You tested at Massah, With whom You contended at the waters of Meribah;

<sup>9</sup>Who said of his father and his mother, ‘I did not consider them’; And he did not acknowledge his brothers, Nor did he regard his own sons, For they kept Your word, And complied with Your covenant.

<sup>10</sup>“They will teach Your ordinances to Jacob, And Your Law to Israel. They shall put incense before You, And whole burnt offerings on Your altar.

<sup>11</sup>“LORD, bless his strength, And accept the work of his hands; Smash the hips of those who rise up against him, And those who hate him, so that they do not rise again.”

<sup>12</sup>Of Benjamin he said, “May the beloved of the LORD live in security beside Him Who shields him all the day long, And he lives between His shoulders.”

<sup>13</sup>Of Joseph he said, “Blessed of the LORD be his land, With the choice things of heaven, with the dew, And from the deep waters lying beneath,

<sup>14</sup>And with the choice yield of the sun, And the choice produce of the months;

<sup>15</sup>And with the best things of the ancient mountains, With the choice things of the everlasting hills,

<sup>16</sup>And with the choice things of the earth and its fullness, And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let it come to the head of Joseph, And to the top of the head of the one who was prince among his brothers.

<sup>17</sup>“As the firstborn of his ox, majesty is his, And his horns are the horns of the wild ox; With them he will gore the peoples All at once, to the ends of the earth. And those are the ten thousands of Ephraim, And those are the thousands of Manasseh.”

<sup>18</sup>Of Zebulun he said, “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, And, Issachar, in your tents.

<sup>19</sup>“They will call peoples to the mountain; There they will offer righteous sacrifices; For they will draw out the abundance of the seas, And the hidden treasures of the sand.”

<sup>20</sup>Of Gad he said, “Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad; He lies down as a lion, And tears the arm, also the crown of the head.

<sup>21</sup>“Then he selected the choicest part for himself, For there the ruler’s portion was reserved; And he came with the leaders of the people; He executed the justice of the LORD, And His ordinances with Israel.”

<sup>23</sup>Of Naphtali he said, “Naphtali, satisfied with favor, And full of the blessing of the LORD, Take possession of the sea and the south.”

<sup>24</sup>Of Asher he said, “More blessed than sons is Asher; May he be favored by his brothers, And may he dip his foot in olive oil.

<sup>25</sup>“Your bars will be iron and bronze, And as your days, so will your strength be.

<sup>26</sup>“There is no one like the God of Jeshurun, Who rides the heavens to your help, And the clouds in His majesty.

<sup>27</sup>“The eternal God is a hiding place, And underneath are the everlasting arms; And He drove out the enemy from you, And said, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>28</sup>“So Israel lives in security, The fountain of Jacob secluded, In a land of grain and new wine; His heavens also drip down dew.

<sup>29</sup>“Blessed are you, Israel; Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, The shield of your help, And He who is the sword of your majesty! So your enemies will cringe before you, And you will trample on their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34

The Death of Moses

<sup>1</sup>Now Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land, Gilead as far as Dan,

<sup>2</sup>and all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah as far as the western sea, <sup>3</sup>and the Negev and the territory in the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not go over there.”

<sup>5</sup>So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, in accordance with the word of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>So the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end.

<sup>9</sup>Now Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>Since that time no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

<sup>11</sup>for all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all his land—

<sup>12</sup>and for all the mighty power and all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

Joshua 1

God's Orders to Joshua

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Moses My servant is dead; so now arise, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Every place on which the sole of your foot steps, I have given it to you, just as I spoke to Moses.

<sup>4</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun will be your territory.

<sup>5</sup>No one will be able to oppose you all the days of your life. Just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; I will not desert you nor abandon you.

<sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous, for you shall give this people possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

<sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to do according to all the Law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may achieve success wherever you go.

<sup>8</sup>This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will achieve success.

<sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not be terrified nor dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua Assumes Command

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you are going to cross this Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving you, to possess it.’”

<sup>12</sup>But to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

<sup>13</sup>“Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is giving you rest, and will give you this land.’

<sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you shall cross ahead of your brothers in battle formation, all your valiant warriors, and shall help them,

<sup>15</sup>until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He is giving you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you may return to your own land, and take possession of that which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.”

<sup>16</sup>They answered Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

<sup>17</sup>Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses.

<sup>18</sup>Anyone who rebels against your command and does not obey your words in all that you command him, shall be put to death; only be strong and courageous.”

Joshua 2

Rahab Shelters Spies

<sup>1</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from Shittim, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and rested there.

<sup>2</sup>But it was told to the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men from the sons of Israel have come here tonight to spy out the land.”

<sup>3</sup>And the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to spy out all the land.”

<sup>4</sup>But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them, and she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

<sup>5</sup>It came about, when it was time to shut the gate at dark, that the men went out; I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them.”

<sup>6</sup>But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them in the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof.

<sup>7</sup>So the men pursued them on the road to the Jordan, to the crossing places; and as soon as those who were pursuing them had gone out, they shut the gate.

<sup>8</sup>Now before the spies lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

<sup>9</sup>and said to the men, “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have despaired because of you.

<sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>When we heard these reports, our hearts melted and no courage remained in anyone any longer because of you; for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth below.

<sup>12</sup>Now then, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's household, and give me a pledge of truth,

<sup>13</sup>and spare my father and my mother, and my brothers and my sisters, and all who belong to them, and save our lives from death."

<sup>14</sup>So the men said to her, "Our life for yours if you do not tell this business of ours; and it shall come about when the LORD gives us the land that we will deal kindly and faithfully with you."

The Promise to Rahab

<sup>15</sup>Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall, so that she was living on the wall.

<sup>16</sup>And she said to them, "Go to the hill country, so that the pursuers will not encounter you, and hide yourselves there for three days until the pursuers return. Then afterward you may go on your way."

<sup>17</sup>And the men said to her, "We shall be exempt from this oath to you which you have made us swear,

<sup>18</sup>unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and gather into your house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall come about that anyone who goes out of the doors of your house outside will have his blood on his own head, and we will be innocent; but anyone who is with you in the house, his blood will be on our head if a hand is laid on him.

<sup>20</sup>But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be exempt from the oath which you have made us swear."

<sup>21</sup>She then said, "According to your words, so be it." So she sent them away, and they departed; and she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup>So they departed and came to the hill country, and remained there for three days, until the pursuers returned. Now the pursuers had searched for them all along the road, but had not found them.

<sup>23</sup>Then the two men returned and came down from the hill country, and they crossed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun. Then they reported to him all that had happened to them.

<sup>24</sup>And they said to Joshua, “The LORD has indeed handed over to us all the land; furthermore, all the inhabitants of the land have despaired because of us.”

Joshua 3

Israel Crosses the Jordan

<sup>1</sup>Then Joshua got up early in the morning; and he and all the sons of Israel set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan, and they spent the night there before they crossed.

<sup>2</sup>Then at the end of three days the officers went through the midst of the camp;

<sup>3</sup>and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levitical priests carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.

<sup>4</sup>However, there shall be a distance between you and it of about two thousand cubits by measurement. Do not come near it, so that you may know the way by which you shall go, for you have not passed this way before.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do miracles among you.”

<sup>6</sup>And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over ahead of the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup>Now the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they will know that just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you.

<sup>8</sup>So you shall command the priests who are carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

<sup>10</sup>And Joshua said, “By this you will know that the living God is among you, and that He will assuredly drive out from you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>12</sup>Now then, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.

<sup>13</sup>And it will come about when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, that is, the waters which are flowing down from above; and they will stand in one heap.”

<sup>14</sup>So when the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan, with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people,

<sup>15</sup>and when those who were carrying the ark came up to the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the ark stepped down into the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest),

<sup>16</sup>then the waters which were flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those which were flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed opposite Jericho.

Joshua 4

Memorial Stones from the Jordan

<sup>1</sup>Now when the entire nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

<sup>3</sup>and command them, saying, ‘Take up for yourselves twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet are standing firmly, and carry them over with you and lay them down in the encampment where you will spend the night.’”

<sup>4</sup>So Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe;

<sup>5</sup>and Joshua said to them, “Cross again to the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>This shall be a sign among you; when your children ask later, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’

<sup>7</sup>then you shall say to them, ‘That the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.’ So these stones shall become a memorial to the sons of Israel forever.”

<sup>8</sup>So the sons of Israel did exactly as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the encampment and put them down there.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing, and they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup>For the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed;

<sup>11</sup>and when all the people had finished crossing, then the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed in front of the people.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle formation before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them;

<sup>13</sup>about forty thousand equipped for war, crossed for battle before the LORD to the desert plains of Jericho.

<sup>14</sup>On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, so that they revered him, just as they had revered Moses all the days of his life.

<sup>15</sup>Now the LORD said to Joshua,

<sup>18</sup>It came about when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests’ feet were lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks as before.

<sup>20</sup>As for those twelve stones which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set them up at Gilgal.

<sup>21</sup>And he said to the sons of Israel, “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What are these stones?’

<sup>22</sup>then you shall inform your children, saying, ‘Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.’

<sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed, just as the LORD your God had done to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed;

<sup>24</sup>so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, so that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

Joshua 5

Israel Is Circumcised

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about when all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel until they had crossed, that their hearts melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the sons of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua made himself flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.

<sup>4</sup>This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness along the way after they came out of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>For all the people who came out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised.

<sup>6</sup>For the sons of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, perished because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD had sworn that He would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>7</sup>So their children whom He raised up in their place, Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them along the way.

<sup>8</sup>Now when they had finished circumcising all the nation, they remained in their places in the camp until they recovered.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the shame of Egypt from you.” So the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.

<sup>10</sup>While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho.

<sup>11</sup>Then on the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and roasted grain.

<sup>12</sup>And the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the sons of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan during that year.

<sup>13</sup>Now it came about when Joshua was by Jericho, he raised his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand, and Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you for us or for our enemies?”

<sup>14</sup>He said, “No; rather I have come now as captain of the army of the LORD.” And Joshua fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down, and said to him, “What has my lord to say to his servant?”

<sup>15</sup>And the captain of the LORD’S army said to Joshua, “Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6

The Conquest of Jericho

<sup>1</sup>Now Jericho was tightly shut because of the sons of Israel; no one went out and no one came in.

<sup>2</sup>But the LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have handed Jericho over to you, with its king and the valiant warriors.

<sup>3</sup>And you shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do so for six days.

<sup>4</sup>Also seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark; then on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

<sup>5</sup>It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, everyone straight ahead.”

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and have seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to the people, “Go forward and march around the city, and the armed men shall go on ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

<sup>8</sup>And it was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD went forward and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

<sup>9</sup>And the armed men went ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

<sup>10</sup>But Joshua commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let a word proceed from your mouth, until the day I tell you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout!”

<sup>11</sup>So he had the ark of the LORD taken around the city, circling it once; then they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp.

<sup>12</sup>Now Joshua got up early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Then the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew the trumpets; and the armed men went ahead of them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

<sup>14</sup>So the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp; they did the same for six days.

<sup>15</sup>Then on the seventh day they got up early at the dawning of the day and marched around the city in the same way seven times; only on that day did they march around the city seven times.

<sup>16</sup>And at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city.

<sup>17</sup>But the city shall be designated for destruction, it and everything that is in it belongs to the LORD; only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in the house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.

<sup>18</sup>But as for you, only keep yourselves from the things designated for destruction, so that you do not covet them and take some of the designated things, and turn the camp of Israel into something designated for destruction and bring disaster on it.

<sup>19</sup>But all the silver and gold, and articles of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.”

<sup>20</sup>So the people shouted, and the priests blew the trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, everyone straight ahead, and they took the city.

<sup>21</sup>They utterly destroyed everything in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house and bring the woman and all she has out of there, just as you have sworn to her.”

<sup>23</sup>So the young men who were spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives, and placed them outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Then they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and gold, and the articles of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>However, Rahab the prostitute and her father’s household and all she had, Joshua spared; and she has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>26</sup>Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, “Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city Jericho; with the loss of his firstborn he will lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he will set up its gates.”

<sup>27</sup>So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

Joshua 7

Israel Is Defeated at Ai

<sup>1</sup>But the sons of Israel acted unfaithfully regarding the things designated for destruction, for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of the designated things; therefore the anger of the LORD burned against the sons of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “Go up and spy out the land.” So the men went up and spied out Ai.

<sup>3</sup>Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, “Do not have all the people go up; have only about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai; do not trouble all the people there, for they are few.”

<sup>4</sup>So about three thousand men from the people went up there, but they fled from the men of Ai.

<sup>5</sup>And the men of Ai struck and killed about thirty-six of their men, and pursued them from the gate as far as Shebarim and struck them on the mountainside; and the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the ground on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, both he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

<sup>7</sup>And Joshua said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Why did You ever bring this people across the Jordan, only to hand us over to the Amorites, to eliminate us? If only we had been willing to live beyond the Jordan!

<sup>8</sup>O Lord, what can I say since Israel has turned their back before their enemies?

<sup>9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear about it, and they will surround us and eliminate our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name?”

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD said to Joshua, “Stand up! Why is it that you have fallen on your face?

<sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have also violated My covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken some of the things designated for destruction, and have both stolen and kept it a secret. Furthermore, they have also put them among their own things.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel cannot stand against their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become designated for destruction. I will not be with you anymore unless you eliminate from your midst the things designated for destruction.

<sup>13</sup>Stand up! Consecrate the people and say, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because the LORD, the God of Israel, has said this: “There are things designated for destruction in your midst, Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you have removed the designated things from your midst.”

<sup>14</sup>So in the morning you shall come forward by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD selects by lot shall come forward by families, and the family which the LORD selects shall come forward by households, and the household which the LORD selects shall come forward man by man.

<sup>15</sup>And it shall be that the one who is selected with the things designated for destruction shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has violated the covenant of the LORD, and because he has committed a disgraceful thing in Israel.’ ”

The Sin of Achan

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua got up early in the morning and brought Israel forward by tribes, and the tribe of Judah was selected.

<sup>17</sup>So he brought the family of Judah forward, and he selected the family of the Zerahites; then he brought the family of the Zerahites forward man by man, and Zabdi was selected.

<sup>18</sup>And he brought his household forward man by man; and Achan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was selected.

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I implore you, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him; and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.”

<sup>20</sup>So Achan answered Joshua and said, “Truly, I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and this is what I did:

<sup>21</sup>when I saw among the spoils a beautiful robe from Shinar, two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold fifty shekels in weight, then I wanted them and took them; and behold, they are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent with the silver underneath it.

<sup>23</sup>So they took them from inside the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel; and they laid them out before the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that belonged to him; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.

<sup>25</sup>And Joshua said, “Why have you brought disaster on us? The LORD will bring disaster on you this day.” And all Israel stoned them with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

<sup>26</sup>Then they erected over him a large heap of stones that stands to this day, and the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor to this day.

Joshua 8

The Conquest of Ai

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear or be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you. Arise, go up to Ai; see, I have handed over to you the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

<sup>2</sup>You shall do to Ai and its king just as you did to Jericho and its king; you shall take only its spoils and its cattle as plunder for yourselves. Set an ambush for the city behind it.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua rose up with all the people of war to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand men, valiant warriors, and sent them out at night.

<sup>4</sup>He commanded them, saying, “See, you are going to ambush the city from behind it. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.

<sup>5</sup>Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. And when they come out to meet us as they did the first time, we will flee before them.

<sup>6</sup>They will come out after us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing before us just as they did the first time.’ So we will flee before them.

<sup>7</sup>Then you shall rise from your ambush and take possession of the city, for the LORD your God will hand it over to you.

<sup>8</sup>Then it will be when you have seized the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do it in accordance with the word of the LORD. See, I have commanded you.”

<sup>9</sup>So Joshua sent them away, and they went to the place of ambush and remained between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people.

<sup>10</sup>Now Joshua got up early in the morning and mustered the people, and he went up with the elders of Israel before the people to Ai.

<sup>11</sup>Then all the people of war who were with him went up and approached, and arrived in front of the city; and they camped on the north side of Ai. And there was a valley between him and Ai.

<sup>12</sup>Then he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

<sup>13</sup>So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north side of the city, and its rear guard on the west side of the city, and Joshua spent that night in the midst of the valley.

<sup>14</sup>And it came about, when the king of Ai saw them, that the men of the city hurried and got up early, and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed place before the desert plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

<sup>15</sup>Then Joshua and all Israel pretended to be defeated before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

<sup>16</sup>And all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away from the city.

<sup>17</sup>So not a man was left in Ai or Bethel, but they had all gone out after Israel, and they left the city unguarded and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Reach out with the sword that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will hand it over to you." So Joshua reached out with the sword that was in his hand toward the city.

<sup>19</sup>Then the men in ambush rose quickly from their place, and when he had reached out with his hand, they ran and entered the city and captured it, and they quickly set the city on fire.

<sup>20</sup>When the men of Ai turned back and looked, behold, the smoke of the city ascended to the sky, and they had no place to flee this way or that, for the people who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned against the pursuers.

<sup>21</sup>When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and killed the men of Ai.

<sup>22</sup>The others came out from the city to confront them, so that they were trapped in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side; and they killed them until there was not one left who escaped or survived.

<sup>24</sup>Now when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and all of them had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

<sup>25</sup>So all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.

<sup>26</sup>For Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he reached out with the sword until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

<sup>27</sup>Israel took only the cattle and the spoils of that city as plunder for themselves, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

<sup>28</sup>So Joshua burned Ai and made it a refuse heap forever, a desolation until this day.

<sup>29</sup>And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; but at sunset Joshua gave the command and they took his body down from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the city gate, and erected over it a large heap of stones that stands to this day.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal,

<sup>31</sup>just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no one had wielded an iron tool; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

<sup>32</sup>And he wrote there on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which he had written, in the presence of the sons of Israel.

<sup>33</sup>And all Israel with their elders, officers, and their judges were standing on both sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as the native. Half of them stood in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at first to bless the people of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>Then afterward he read all the words of the Law, the blessing and the curse, according to everything that is written in the Book of the Law.

<sup>35</sup>There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

Joshua 9

Deception by the Gibeonites

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country, the lowland, and on all the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard about it,

<sup>4</sup>but they on their part acted craftily and went and took provisions for a journey, and took worn-out sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins that were worn out, split open, and patched,

<sup>5</sup>and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbled.

<sup>6</sup>And they went to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; now then, make a covenant with us.”

<sup>7</sup>But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you are living within our land; how then are we to make a covenant with you?”

<sup>8</sup>So they said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” Then Joshua said to them, “Who are you and where do you come from?”

<sup>9</sup>They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the fame of the LORD your God; for we have heard the report about Him and all that He did in Egypt,

<sup>10</sup>and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan who was in Ashtaroth.

<sup>11</sup>So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; now then, make a covenant with us.”’

<sup>12</sup>This bread of ours was hot when we took it for our provisions from our houses on the day that we left to come to you; but now behold, it is dry and has become crumbled.

<sup>13</sup>And these wineskins which we filled were new, and behold, they are split open; and these clothes of ours and our sandals are worn out from the very long journey.”

<sup>14</sup>So the men of Israel took some of their provisions, and did not ask for the counsel of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.

<sup>16</sup>However, it came about at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were neighbors and that they were living within their land.

<sup>17</sup>Then the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.

<sup>18</sup>But the sons of Israel did not attack them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. And the whole congregation grumbled against the leaders.

<sup>19</sup>But all the leaders said to the whole congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them.

<sup>20</sup>This we will do to them, even let them live, so that wrath will not be on us because of the oath which we swore to them.”

<sup>21</sup>So the leaders said to them, “Let them live.” And they became gatherers of firewood and labor to draw water for the whole congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you are living within our land?

<sup>23</sup>Now therefore, you are cursed, and you will never cease to be slaves, both gatherers of firewood and labor to draw water for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup>So they answered Joshua and said, “Since your servants were fully informed that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you, we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and did this thing.

<sup>25</sup>And now behold, we are in your hands; do to us as it seems good and right in your sight to do.”

<sup>26</sup>This he did to them, and saved them from the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.

<sup>27</sup>But on that day Joshua made them gatherers of firewood and labor to draw water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose.

Joshua 10

Five Kings Attack Gibeon

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had utterly destroyed it (just as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were within their land,

<sup>2</sup>that he feared greatly because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Come up to me and help me, and let’s attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel.”

<sup>5</sup>So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they with all their armies, and camped by Gibeon and fought against it.

<sup>6</sup>Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites that live in the hill country have assembled against us.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the valiant warriors.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of them will stand against you.”

<sup>10</sup>And the LORD brought them into confusion before Israel, and He struck them down in a great defeat at Gibeon, and pursued them by the way of the ascent to Beth-horon and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

<sup>11</sup>And as they fled from Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth-horon, the LORD hurled large stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD on the day when the LORD turned the Amorites over to the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, “Sun, stand still at Gibeon, And moon, at the Valley of Aijalon!”

<sup>13</sup>So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, Until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies. Is it not written in the Book of Jashar? And the sun stopped in the middle of the sky and did not hurry to go down for about a whole day.

<sup>14</sup>There was no day like that before it or after it, when the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

Victory at Makkedah

<sup>16</sup>Now these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

<sup>17</sup>And it was told to Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

<sup>18</sup>So Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and post men by it to guard them,

<sup>19</sup>but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies and attack them from behind. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has handed them over to you.”

<sup>20</sup>It came about when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished striking them down in a very great defeat, until they were destroyed, and the survivors of them who escaped had entered the fortified cities,

<sup>21</sup>that all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. No one uttered a word against any of the sons of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring these five kings out to me from the cave.”

<sup>23</sup>They did so, and brought these five kings out to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup>When they brought these kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the leaders of the men of war who had gone with him, “Come forward, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came forward and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>25</sup>Joshua then said to them, “Do not fear or be dismayed! Be strong and courageous, for the LORD will do this to all your enemies with whom you fight.”

<sup>26</sup>So afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he hanged them on five trees; and they were hung on the trees until evening.

<sup>27</sup>Then it came about at sunset that Joshua gave the command, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and put large stones over the mouth of the cave, to this very day.

<sup>28</sup>Now Joshua captured Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed it and every person who was in it. He left no survivor. So he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua’s Conquest of Southern Canaan

<sup>29</sup>Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

<sup>30</sup>And the LORD also handed it over to Israel, with its king, and he struck it and every person who was in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor in it. So he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>And Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, and they camped by it and fought against it.

<sup>32</sup>And the LORD handed Lachish over to Israel; and he captured it on the second day, and struck it and every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

<sup>33</sup>Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish, and Joshua defeated him and his people until he had left him no survivor.

<sup>34</sup>And Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon, and they camped by it and fought against it.

<sup>35</sup>They captured it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; and he utterly destroyed on that day every person who was in it, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it.

<sup>37</sup>And they captured it and struck it and its king and all its cities and all the persons who were in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor, according to all that he had done to Eglon. And he utterly destroyed it and every person who was in it.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to Debir, and they fought against it.

<sup>39</sup>He captured it and its king and all its cities, and they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person who was in it. He left no survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had also done to Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup>So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country and the Negev and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings. He left no survivor, but he utterly destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.

<sup>42</sup>Joshua captured all these kings and their lands at one time, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Joshua 11

Northern Canaan Taken

<sup>1</sup>Then it came about, when Jabin king of Hazor heard about it, that he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,

<sup>2</sup>and to the kings who were of the north in the hill country, and in the Arabah—south of Chinneroth and in the lowland, and on the heights of Dor on the west—

<sup>3</sup>to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.

<sup>4</sup>Then they came out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

<sup>5</sup>So all of these kings gathered together, and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Yet the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow at this time I am going to turn all of them over to Israel as good as dead; you shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua and all the people of war with him came upon them suddenly at the waters of Merom, and attacked them.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD handed them over to Israel, so that they defeated them, and pursued them as far as Great Sidon, and Misrephoth-maim, and the Valley of Mizpeh to the east; and they struck them until no survivor was left to them.

<sup>9</sup>And Joshua did to them just as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua turned back at that time and captured Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor previously was the head of all these kingdoms.

<sup>11</sup>They struck every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed. And he burned Hazor with fire.

<sup>12</sup>Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings; and he struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed them, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

<sup>13</sup>However, Israel did not burn any cities that stood on their mounds, except Hazor alone, which Joshua burned.

<sup>15</sup>Just as the LORD had commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua took all that land: the hill country and all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowland

<sup>19</sup>There was not a city which made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites living in Gibeon; they took them all in battle.

<sup>20</sup>For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, to meet Israel in battle in order that he might utterly destroy them, that they might receive no mercy, but that he might destroy them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>23</sup>So Joshua took the whole land, in accordance with everything that the LORD had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. So the land was at rest from war.

Joshua 12

Kings Defeated by Israel

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel defeated, and they took possession of their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the Valley of the Arnon as far as Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah to the east:

<sup>2</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, both the middle of the valley and half of Gilead, even as far as the brook Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

<sup>3</sup>and the Arabah as far as the Sea of Chinneroth toward the east, and as far as the Sea of the Arabah, that is, the Salt Sea, eastward toward Beth-jeshimoth, and on the south, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;

<sup>5</sup>and ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half of Gilead, as far as the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup>Moses the servant of the LORD and the sons of Israel defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh as a possession.

<sup>7</sup>Now these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel defeated beyond the Jordan toward the west, from Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon even as far as Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir; and Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

<sup>8</sup>in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, on the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negev; the Hittite, the Amorite and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

- <sup>17</sup>the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hephher, one;
<sup>23</sup>the king of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the king of Goiim in Gilgal, one;

Joshua 13

Canaan Divided among the Tribes

- <sup>1</sup>Now Joshua was old and advanced in years when the LORD said to him, “You are old and advanced in years, and a very large amount of the land remains to be possessed.
- <sup>2</sup>This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and all those of the Geshurites;
- <sup>3</sup>from the Shihor which is east of Egypt, even as far as the border of Ekron to the north (it is counted as Canaanite); the five governors of the Philistines: the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, the Ekronite; and the Avvite
- <sup>4</sup>to the south, all the land of the Canaanite, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorite;
- <sup>5</sup>and the land of the Gebalite, and all of Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon as far as Lebo-hamath.
- <sup>6</sup>All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon as far as Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians, I will drive out from the sons of Israel; only allot it to Israel as an inheritance as I have commanded you.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, apportion this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

<sup>8</sup>With the other half-tribe, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which Moses gave them beyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the servant of the LORD gave to them;

<sup>9</sup>from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, with the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba, as far as Dibon;

<sup>10</sup>and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the sons of Ammon;

<sup>11</sup>and Gilead, and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah;

<sup>12</sup>all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses struck them and drove them out.

<sup>13</sup>But the sons of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; instead, Geshur and Maacath live among Israel to this day.

<sup>14</sup>Only to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as He spoke to him.

<sup>15</sup>So Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their families.

- <sup>20</sup>Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth-jeshimoth,
- <sup>21</sup>even all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the leaders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the leaders of Sihon, who lived in the land.
- <sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword among the rest of their dead.
- <sup>23</sup>The border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.
- <sup>24</sup>Moses also gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad according to their families.
- <sup>25</sup>Their territory was Jazer and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, as far as Aroer which is opposite Rabbah;
- <sup>26</sup>and from Heshbon as far as Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim as far as the border of Debir;
- <sup>27</sup>and in the valley, Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as a border, as far as the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan to the east.
- <sup>28</sup>This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.
- <sup>29</sup>Moses also gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their families.
- <sup>30</sup>Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;
- <sup>31</sup>also half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Machir according to their families.

<sup>32</sup>These are the territories which Moses apportioned as an inheritance in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho to the east.

<sup>33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi, Moses did not give an inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He had promised to them.

Joshua 14

Caleb's Request

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the territories which the sons of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' households of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned to them as inheritances,

<sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but he did not give an inheritance to the Levites among them.

<sup>4</sup>For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property.

<sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

<sup>6</sup>Then the sons of Judah approached Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the word which the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God on account of you and me in Kadesh-barnea.

<sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought word back to him as it was in my heart.

<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt with fear; but I followed the LORD my God fully.

<sup>9</sup>So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘The land on which your foot has walked shall certainly be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have followed the LORD my God fully.’

<sup>10</sup>And now behold, the LORD has let me live, just as He spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness; and now behold, I am eighty-five years old today.

<sup>11</sup>I am still as strong today as I was on the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for war and for going out and coming in.

<sup>12</sup>Now then, give me this hill country about which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day that Anakim were there, with great fortified cities; perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I will drive them out just as the LORD has spoken.”

<sup>13</sup>So Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he followed the LORD God of Israel fully.

<sup>15</sup>Now the name of Hebron was previously Kiriath-arba; for Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. Then the land was at rest from war.

Joshua 15

Territory of Judah

<sup>2</sup>Their southern border was from the lower end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that turns to the south.

<sup>3</sup>Then it proceeded southward to the ascent of Akrabbim and continued to Zin, then went up by the south of Kadesh-barnea and continued to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned to Karka.

<sup>4</sup>It continued to Azmon and proceeded to the brook of Egypt, and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

<sup>6</sup>Then the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and continued on the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

<sup>12</sup>The western border was at the Great Sea, even its coastline. This is the border around the sons of Judah according to their families.

<sup>13</sup>Now he gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion among the sons of Judah, in accordance with the command of the LORD to Joshua, namely, Kiriath-arba, Arba being the father of Anak (that is, Hebron).

<sup>16</sup>And Caleb said, “The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will give him Achsah my daughter as a wife.”

<sup>17</sup>Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter as a wife.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened that when she came to him, she incited him to ask her father for a field. So she dismounted from the donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?”

<sup>19</sup>Then she said, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land of the Negev, give me springs of water also.” So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>20</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families.

<sup>24</sup>Ziph, Telem, and Bealoth,

- <sup>25</sup>Hazor-hadattah, Keriath-hezron (that is, Hazor),
- <sup>26</sup>Amam, Shema, and Moladah,
- <sup>27</sup>Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, and Beth-pelet,
- <sup>28</sup>Hazar-shual, Beersheba, and Biziothiah,
- <sup>29</sup>Baalath, Iim, and Ezem,
- <sup>30</sup>Eltolad, Chesil, and Hormah,
- <sup>31</sup>Ziklag, Madmannah, and Sansannah,
- <sup>32</sup>Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon; in all, twenty-nine cities with their villages.
- <sup>33</sup>In the lowland: Eshtaol, Zorah, and Ashnah,
- <sup>34</sup>Zanoah, En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,
- <sup>35</sup>Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,
- <sup>36</sup>Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.
- <sup>37</sup>Zenan, Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,
- <sup>38</sup>Dilean, Mizpeh, and Joktheel,
- <sup>39</sup>Lachish, Bozkath, and Eglon,
- <sup>40</sup>Cabbon, Lahmas, and Chitlish,
- <sup>41</sup>Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages.
- <sup>42</sup>Libnah, Ether, and Ashan,
- <sup>43</sup>Iphtah, Ashnah, and Nezib,
- <sup>44</sup>Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages.
- <sup>45</sup>Ekron, with its towns and its villages;

<sup>47</sup>Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages, as far as the brook of Egypt and the Great Sea, even its coastline.

<sup>63</sup>Now as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not drive them out; so the Jebusites live with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16

Territory of Ephraim

<sup>7</sup>Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, then reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan.

<sup>9</sup>together with the cities which were set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

<sup>10</sup>But they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites live in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and they became forced laborers.

Joshua 17

Territory of Manasseh

<sup>1</sup>Now this was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war.

<sup>2</sup>So the lot was made for the rest of the sons of Manasseh according to their families: for the sons of Abiezer, the sons of Helek, the sons of Asriel, the sons of Shechem, the sons of Hephher, and the sons of Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

<sup>3</sup>However, Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>4</sup>They approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the leaders, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So in accordance with the command of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers.

<sup>5</sup>So ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan,

<sup>8</sup>The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim.

<sup>9</sup>And the border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook (these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh), and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and it ended at the sea.

<sup>10</sup>The south side belonged to Ephraim and the north side to Manasseh, and the sea was their border; and they reached to Asher on the north and to Issachar on the east.

<sup>11</sup>In Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its towns and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; the third is Napheth.

<sup>12</sup>But the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of these cities, because the Canaanites persisted in living in this land.

<sup>13</sup>And it came about when the sons of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

<sup>14</sup>Then the sons of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given me only one lot and one portion as an inheritance, though I am a numerous people whom the LORD has blessed up to this point?”

<sup>15</sup>And Joshua said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.”

<sup>16</sup>The sons of Joseph then said, “The hill country is not enough for us, but all the Canaanites who live in the valley land have iron chariots, both those who are in Beth-shean and its towns and those who are in the Valley of Jezreel.”

<sup>17</sup>But Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, saying, “You are a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have one lot only,

<sup>18</sup>but the hill country shall be yours. For though it is a forest, you shall clear it, and to its farthest borders it shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and though they are strong.”

Joshua 18

Rest of the Land Divided

<sup>2</sup>But there remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “How long will you put off entering to take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

<sup>4</sup>Provide for yourselves three men from each tribe so that I may send them, and that they may arise and walk through the land and write a description of it according to their inheritance; then they shall return to me.

<sup>5</sup>And they shall divide it into seven portions; Judah shall stay in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay in their territory on the north.

<sup>6</sup>And you shall write a description of the land in seven divisions, and bring the description here to me. Then I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

<sup>7</sup>For the Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh also have received their inheritance eastward beyond the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the men arose and went, and Joshua commanded those who went to write a description of the land, saying, “Go and walk through the land and write a description of it, and return to me; then I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

<sup>9</sup>So the men went and passed through the land, and wrote a description of it by cities in seven divisions in a book; and they came to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.

<sup>10</sup>Joshua then cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land for the sons of Israel according to their divisions.

The Territory of Benjamin

<sup>11</sup>Now the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot lay between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.

<sup>12</sup>Their border on the north side was from the Jordan, then the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward, and it ended at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

<sup>13</sup>Then from there the border continued to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Bethel) southward; and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, near the hill which lies on the south of lower Beth-horon.

<sup>15</sup>Then the south side was from the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went westward and went to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah.

<sup>16</sup>Then the border went down to the edge of the hill which is in the Valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the Valley of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the Valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En-rogel.

<sup>17</sup>Then it turned northward and went to En-shemesh, and went to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

<sup>18</sup>And it continued to the side in front of the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah.

<sup>20</sup>Moreover, the Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their families, and according to its borders all around.

Joshua 19

Territory of Simeon

<sup>1</sup>Then the second lot went to Simeon, to the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families; and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>and all the villages which were around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negev. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families.

<sup>9</sup>The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was taken from the portion of the sons of Judah, because the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them; so the sons of Simeon received an inheritance in the midst of Judah's inheritance.

Territory of Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>Now the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families. And the territory of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

<sup>11</sup>Then their border went up to the west and to Maralah, and it reached Dabbesheth and reached to the brook that is opposite Jokneam.

<sup>12</sup>Then it turned from Sarid to the east toward the sunrise as far as the border of Chisloth-tabor, and it proceeded to Daberath and up to Japhia.

<sup>16</sup>This was the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Territory of Issachar

<sup>17</sup>The fourth lot went to Issachar, to the sons of Issachar according to their families.

Territory of Asher

<sup>24</sup>Now the fifth lot went to the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families.

<sup>27</sup>It turned toward the east to Beth-dagon and reached Zebulun, and to the Valley of Iphtahel northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; then it proceeded on north to Cabul,

<sup>30</sup>Included also were Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob; twenty-two cities with their villages.

<sup>31</sup>This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Territory of Naphtali

<sup>32</sup>The sixth lot went to the sons of Naphtali; to the sons of Naphtali according to their families.

<sup>33</sup>Their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and it ended at the Jordan.

<sup>39</sup>This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

Territory of Dan

<sup>40</sup>The seventh lot went to the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families.

<sup>47</sup>The territory of the sons of Dan proceeded beyond them; for the sons of Dan went up and fought with Leshem and captured it. Then they struck it with the edge of the sword and took possession of it and settled in it; and they named Leshem Dan after the name of their father Dan.

<sup>48</sup>This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>49</sup>When they finished apportioning the land for inheritance by its borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>50</sup>In accordance with the command of the LORD, they gave him the city for which he asked, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. So he built the city and settled in it.

<sup>51</sup>These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' households of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned by lot in Shiloh before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20

Six Cities of Refuge

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Designate the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

<sup>3</sup>so that one who commits manslaughter by killing a person unintentionally, without premeditation, may flee there, and they shall become your refuge from the avenger of blood.

<sup>4</sup>Then he shall flee to one of these cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and state his case in the presence of the elders of that city; and they shall receive him into the city to them and give him a place, so that he may remain among them.

<sup>5</sup>Now if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they are not to hand the one who committed manslaughter over to him, since he struck his neighbor without premeditation and did not hate him previously.

<sup>6</sup>And he shall remain in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then he shall return to his own city and to his own house, to the city from which he fled.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they designated Bezer in the wilderness on the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup>These were the designated cities for all the sons of Israel and for the stranger who resides among them, so that whoever kills a person unintentionally may flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the congregation.

Joshua 21

Forty-eight Cities of the Levites

<sup>2</sup>And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to live in, with their pasture lands for our cattle."

<sup>3</sup>So the sons of Israel gave the Levites from their inheritance these cities with their pasture lands, in accordance with the command of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Then the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And to the sons of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, thirteen cities were given by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of the Simeonites, and from the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>5</sup>And to the rest of the sons of Kohath ten cities were given by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup>And to the sons of Gershon thirteen cities were given by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup>To the sons of Merari according to their families twelve cities were given from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup>Now the sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>10</sup>and they were for the sons of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, because the lot was theirs first.

<sup>11</sup>So they gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is, Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with its surrounding pasture lands.

<sup>12</sup>But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

<sup>13</sup>So to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the one who commits manslaughter, with its pasture lands, Libnah with its pasture lands,

<sup>20</sup>Then the cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, that is, to the rest of the sons of Kohath.

<sup>28</sup>And from the tribe of Issachar they gave Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

<sup>33</sup>All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

<sup>34</sup>And to the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, they gave from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands,

<sup>40</sup>All these were the cities of the sons of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

<sup>41</sup>All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.

<sup>44</sup>And the LORD gave them rest on every side, in accordance with everything that He had sworn to their fathers, and no one of all their enemies stood before them; the LORD handed all their enemies over to them.

<sup>45</sup>Not one of the good promises which the LORD had made to the house of Israel failed; everything came to pass.

Joshua 22

Tribes beyond Jordan Return

<sup>1</sup>Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

<sup>2</sup>and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you.

<sup>3</sup>You have not abandoned your brothers these many days to this day, but have fulfilled the obligation of the commandment of the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup>And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them; therefore turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan.

<sup>5</sup>Only be very careful to follow the commandment and the Law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God and walk in all His ways, and keep His commandments and cling to Him, and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

<sup>7</sup>Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua gave a possession among their brothers westward beyond the Jordan. So when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he also blessed them,

<sup>8</sup>and said to them, “Return to your tents with great riches and with very many livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and with very many clothes; divide the spoils of your enemies with your brothers.”

<sup>9</sup>So the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, leaving the sons of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession in which they had settled, in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

The Offensive Altar

<sup>10</sup>When they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, a large altar in appearance.

<sup>11</sup>But the sons of Israel heard a report: “Behold, the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side belonging to the sons of Israel.”

<sup>12</sup>And when the sons of Israel heard about it, the entire congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go up against them in battle.

<sup>13</sup>Then the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben, to the sons of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

<sup>14</sup>and with him ten leaders, one leader for each father’s household from each of the tribes of Israel; and each one of them was the head of his father’s household among the thousands of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>They came to the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“This is what the whole congregation of the LORD says: ‘What is this unfaithful act which you have committed against the God of Israel, turning away from following the LORD this day, by building yourselves an altar, to rebel against the LORD this day?

<sup>17</sup>Is the wrongdoing of Peor not enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although a plague came on the congregation of the LORD,

<sup>18</sup>that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, He will be angry with the entire congregation of Israel tomorrow.

<sup>19</sup>If, however, the land of your possession is unclean, then cross into the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD'S tabernacle stands, and settle among us. Only do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us, by building an altar for yourselves besides the altar of the LORD our God.

<sup>20</sup>Did Achan the son of Zerah not act unfaithfully in the things designated for destruction, and wrath fall on the entire congregation of Israel? So that man did not perish alone in his guilt.' ”

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke to the heads of the families of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>“The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel itself know. If it was in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD, do not save us this day!

<sup>23</sup>If we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if to offer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself demand it.

<sup>24</sup>But truly we have done this out of concern, for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your sons may say to our sons, “What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

<sup>25</sup>For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no portion in the LORD.” So your sons may make our sons stop fearing the LORD.’

<sup>26</sup>“Therefore we said, ‘Let’s build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice;

<sup>27</sup>rather, it shall be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, that we are to perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings, so that your sons will not say to our sons in time to come, “You have no portion in the LORD.”’

<sup>28</sup>Therefore we said, ‘It shall also come about if they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, then we shall say, “See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; rather, it is a witness between us and you.”’

<sup>29</sup>Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from following the LORD this day, by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle.”

<sup>30</sup>So when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation, that is, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words which the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

<sup>31</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is in our midst, because you have not committed this unfaithful act against the LORD; now you have saved the sons of Israel from the hand of the LORD.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and from the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought back word to them.

<sup>33</sup>The word pleased the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God; and they did not speak of going up against them in battle to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living.

<sup>34</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar Witness; “For,” they said, “it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua 23

Joshua’s Farewell Address

<sup>2</sup>that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, their heads, their judges, and their officers, and said to them, “I am old, advanced in years.

<sup>3</sup>And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has been fighting for you.

<sup>4</sup>See, I have apportioned to you these nations which remain as an inheritance for your tribes, with all the nations which I have eliminated, from the Jordan even to the Great Sea toward the west.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD your God, He will thrust them away from you and drive them from you; and you will take possession of their land, just as the LORD your God promised you.

<sup>6</sup>Be very determined, then, to keep and do everything that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, so that you will not turn aside from it to the right or to the left,

<sup>7</sup>so that you will not associate with these nations, these which remain with you, or mention the name of their gods, or make anyone swear by them, or serve them, or bow down to them.

<sup>8</sup>But you are to cling to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

<sup>9</sup>For the LORD has driven out great and mighty nations from before you; and as for you, no one has stood against you to this day.

<sup>10</sup>One of your men puts to flight a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, just as He promised you.

<sup>11</sup>So take great care for yourselves that you love the LORD your God.

<sup>12</sup>For if you ever go back and cling to the rest of these nations, these which remain with you, and intermarry with them, so that you associate with them and they with you,

<sup>13</sup>know with certainty that the LORD your God will not continue to drive these nations out from before you; but they will be a snare and a trap to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>14</sup>“Now behold, today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one word of all the good words which the LORD your God spoke concerning you has failed; they all have been fulfilled for you, not one of them has failed.

<sup>15</sup>But it will come about that just as all the good words which the LORD your God spoke to you have come upon you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the warnings, until He has eliminated you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>16</sup>When you violate the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you will perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

Joshua 24

Joshua Reviews Israel's History

<sup>1</sup>Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, their heads, their judges, and their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

<sup>2</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘From ancient times your fathers lived beyond the Euphrates River, namely, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods.

<sup>3</sup>Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the Euphrates River and led him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

<sup>4</sup>To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave Mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out.

<sup>6</sup>So I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and Egypt pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

<sup>7</sup>But when they cried out to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

<sup>8</sup>Then I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who lived beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you; but I handed them over to you, and you took possession of their land when I eliminated them before you.

<sup>9</sup>Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose up and fought against Israel, and he sent messengers and summoned Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

<sup>10</sup>But I was not willing to listen to Balaam. So he had to bless you, and I saved you from his hand.

<sup>11</sup>You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the citizens of Jericho fought against you, and the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. Therefore I handed them over to you.

<sup>12</sup>Then I sent the hornet before you and it drove out the two kings of the Amorites from you—not by your sword nor your bow.

<sup>13</sup>And I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you have lived in them; you are eating of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’

“We Will Serve the LORD”

<sup>14</sup>“Now, therefore, fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and truth; and do away with the gods which your fathers served beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>But if it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served, which were beyond the Euphrates River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup>The people answered and said, “Far be it from us that we would abandon the LORD to serve other gods;

<sup>17</sup>for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves, and did these great signs in our sight and watched over us through all the way in which we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, “You will not be able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your wrongdoing or your sins.

<sup>20</sup>If you abandon the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and destroy you after He has done good to you.”

<sup>21</sup>And the people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves the LORD, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>23</sup>“Now then, do away with the foreign gods which are in your midst, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup>And the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God and obey His voice.”

<sup>25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

<sup>26</sup>And Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God; and he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>Then Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us, because it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us; so it shall be a witness against you, so that you do not deny your God.”

Joshua’s Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup>Now it came about after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being 110 years old.

<sup>30</sup>And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who survived Joshua, and had known every deed of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup>Now they buried the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel brought up from Egypt, at Shechem, in the plot of land which Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; and they became the inheritance of Joseph's sons.

<sup>33</sup>And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of his son Phinehas, which was given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

Judges 1

Jerusalem Is Captured

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after the death of Joshua that the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD, saying, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?”

<sup>3</sup>Then Judah said to his brother Simeon, “Go up with me into the territory allotted me, and let’s fight the Canaanites; and I in turn will go with you into the territory allotted you.” So Simeon went with him.

<sup>5</sup>They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek and fought against him, and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

<sup>6</sup>But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

<sup>7</sup>And Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to gather up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” So they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>Then the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

<sup>9</sup>Afterward, the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, and in the Negev, and in the lowland.

<sup>10</sup>So Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron was previously Kiriath-arba); and they struck Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

Capture of Other Cities

<sup>11</sup>Then from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir was previously Kiriath-sepher).

<sup>12</sup>And Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will give him my daughter Achsah as a wife.”

<sup>13</sup>Now Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife.

<sup>14</sup>Then it happened that when she came to him, she incited him to ask her father for a field. Then later, she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, “What do you want?”

<sup>15</sup>She said to him, “Give me a blessing: since you have given me the land of the Negev, give me springs of water also.” So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>Now the descendants of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up from the city of palms with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people.

<sup>17</sup>Then Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

<sup>20</sup>Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had promised; and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak.

<sup>21</sup>But the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

<sup>22</sup>Likewise the house of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

<sup>23</sup>The house of Joseph had men spy out Bethel (the name of the city previously was Luz).

<sup>24</sup>And the spies saw a man coming out of the city, and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will treat you kindly."

<sup>25</sup>So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free.

<sup>26</sup>Then the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and named it Luz, which is its name to this day.

Places Not Conquered

<sup>27</sup>But Manasseh did not take possession of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; so the Canaanites persisted in living in this land.

<sup>28</sup>And it came about, when Israel became strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor; but they did not drive them out completely.

<sup>29</sup>And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer; so the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.

<sup>30</sup>Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor.

<sup>31</sup>Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or of Rehob.

<sup>32</sup>So the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

<sup>33</sup>Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became forced labor for them.

<sup>34</sup>Then the Amorites forced the sons of Dan into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the valley;

<sup>35</sup>yet the Amorites persisted in living on Mount Heres, in Aijalon and Shaalbim; but when the power of the house of Joseph grew strong, they became forced labor.

Judges 2

Israel Rebuked

<sup>1</sup>Now the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, “I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land which I have sworn to your fathers; and I said, ‘I will never break My covenant with you,

<sup>2</sup>and as for you, you shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.’ But you have not obeyed Me; what is this thing that you have done?

<sup>3</sup>Therefore I also said, ‘I will not drive them out from you; but they will become like thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>Now when the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people raised their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup>So they named that place Bochim; and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

Joshua Dies

<sup>6</sup>When Joshua had dismissed the people, the sons of Israel went, each one to his inheritance, to take possession of the land.

<sup>7</sup>The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who survived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of 110.

<sup>9</sup>And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>10</sup>All that generation also were gathered to their fathers; and another generation rose up after them who did not know the LORD, nor even the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel Serves the Baals

<sup>11</sup>Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals,

<sup>12</sup>and they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they followed other gods from the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed down to them; so they provoked the LORD to anger.

<sup>13</sup>They abandoned the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.

<sup>14</sup>Then the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He handed them over to plunderers, and they plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand against their enemies.

<sup>15</sup>Wherever they went, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken and just as the LORD had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed.

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD raised up judges who saved them from the hands of those who plundered them.

<sup>17</sup>Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they committed infidelity with other gods and bowed down to them. They turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do the same as their fathers.

<sup>18</sup>And when the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who tormented and oppressed them.

<sup>19</sup>But it came about, when the judge died, that they would turn back and act more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not abandon their practices or their obstinate ways.

<sup>20</sup>So the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, “Because this nation has violated My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice,

<sup>21</sup>I in turn will no longer drive out from them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

<sup>22</sup>in order to test Israel by them, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it as their fathers did, or not.”

<sup>23</sup>So the LORD allowed those nations to remain, not driving them out quickly; and He did not hand them over to Joshua.

Judges 3

Idolatry Leads to Servitude

<sup>2</sup>only in order that the generations of the sons of Israel might be taught war, those who had not experienced it previously).

<sup>6</sup>and they took their daughters for themselves as wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

<sup>7</sup>So the sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and they forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asheroth.

<sup>8</sup>Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, so that He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia; and the sons of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim for eight years.

The First Judge Frees Israel

<sup>9</sup>But the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up a deliverer for the sons of Israel to set them free, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

<sup>10</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. When he went to war, the LORD handed over to him Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia, so that he prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

<sup>11</sup>Then the land was at rest for forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

<sup>12</sup>Now the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And he gathered to himself the sons of Ammon and Amalek; and he went and defeated Israel, and they took possession of the city of the palm trees.

<sup>14</sup>And the sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab for eighteen years.

Ehud Kills Eglon

<sup>15</sup>But when the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. And the sons of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.

<sup>16</sup>Now Ehud made himself a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length, and he strapped it on his right thigh under his cloak.

<sup>17</sup>Then he presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

<sup>18</sup>And it came about, when he had finished presenting the tribute, that Ehud sent away the people who had carried the tribute.

<sup>19</sup>But he himself turned back from the idols which were at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." And the king said, "Silence!" And all who were attending him left him.

<sup>20</sup>Then Ehud came to him while he was sitting in his cool roof chamber alone. And Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." And he got up from his seat.

<sup>22</sup>The hilt of the sword also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade because he did not pull the sword out of his belly; and the refuse came out.

<sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and shut the doors of the roof chamber behind him, and locked them.

<sup>24</sup>When he had left, the king's servants came and looked, and behold, the doors of the roof chamber were locked; and they said, "Undoubtedly he is relieving himself in the cool room."

<sup>25</sup>So they waited until it would have been shameful to wait longer; but behold, he did not open the doors of the roof chamber. So they took the key and opened them, and behold, their master had fallen to the floor dead.

<sup>26</sup>Now Ehud escaped while they were hesitating, and he passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

<sup>27</sup>And when he arrived, he blew the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he was leading them.

<sup>28</sup>Then he said to them, “Pursue them, for the LORD has handed your enemies the Moabites over to you.” So they went down after him and took control of the crossing places of the Jordan opposite Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross.

<sup>29</sup>They struck and killed about ten thousand Moabites at that time, all robust and valiant men; and no one escaped.

<sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land was at rest for eighty years.

Shamgar Saves Israel

<sup>31</sup>Now after him came Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck and killed six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad; and he also saved Israel.

Judges 4

Deborah and Barak

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Israel cried out to the LORD; for he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed the sons of Israel severely for twenty years.

<sup>5</sup>She used to sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went up to her for judgment.

<sup>6</sup>Now she sent word and summoned Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, has indeed commanded, ‘Go and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun.

<sup>7</sup>I will draw out to you Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his many troops to the river Kishon, and I will hand him over to you.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.”

<sup>9</sup>She said, “I will certainly go with you; however, the fame shall not be yours on the journey that you are about to take, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup>Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up with him; Deborah also went up with him.

<sup>11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the oak in Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup>Then they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

<sup>13</sup>Sisera summoned all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the river Kishon.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, “Arise! For this is the day on which the LORD has handed Sisera over to you; behold, the LORD has gone out before you.” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

<sup>17</sup>Now Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

<sup>18</sup>And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my master, turn aside to me! Do not be afraid.” So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

<sup>19</sup>And he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty.” So she opened a leather bottle of milk and gave him a drink; then she covered him.

<sup>20</sup>And he said to her, “Stand in the doorway of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there anyone here?’ that you shall say, ‘No.’ ”

<sup>21</sup>But Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand, and went secretly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went through into the ground; for he was sound asleep and exhausted. So he died.

<sup>22</sup>And behold, while Barak was pursuing Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” So he entered with her, and behold, Sisera was lying dead with the tent peg in his temple.

<sup>23</sup>So God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan on that day before the sons of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>And the hand of the sons of Israel pressed harder and harder upon Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had eliminated Jabin the king of Canaan.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah and Barak

<sup>1</sup>Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“For the leaders leading in Israel, For the people volunteering, Bless the LORD!

<sup>3</sup>“Hear, you kings; listen, you dignitaries! I myself—to the LORD, I myself will sing, I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel!

<sup>4</sup>“LORD, when You went out from Seir, When You marched from the field of Edom, The earth quaked, the heavens also dripped, The clouds also dripped water.

<sup>5</sup>“The mountains flowed with water at the presence of the LORD, This Sinai, at the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>“In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, In the days of Jael, the roads were deserted, And travelers went by roundabout ways.

<sup>7</sup>“The peasantry came to an end, they came to an end in Israel, Until I, Deborah, arose, Until I arose, a mother in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>“New gods were chosen; Then war was in the gates. Not a shield or a spear was seen Among forty thousand in Israel.

<sup>9</sup>“My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel, The volunteers among the people; Bless the LORD!

<sup>10</sup>“You who ride on white donkeys, You who sit on rich carpets, And you who travel on the road—shout in praise!

<sup>11</sup>“At the sound of those who distribute water among the watering places, There they will recount the righteous deeds of the LORD, The righteous deeds for His peasantry in Israel. Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup>“Awake, awake, Deborah; Awake, awake, sing a song! Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, son of Abinoam.

13“Then survivors came down to the nobles; The people of the LORD came down to me as warriors.

14“From Ephraim those whose root is in Amalek came down, Following you, Benjamin, with your peoples; From Machir commanders came down, And from Zebulun those who wield the staff of office.

15“And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; As was Issachar, so was Barak; Into the valley they rushed at his heels; Among the divisions of Reuben There were great determinations of heart.

16“Why did you sit among the sheepfolds, To hear the piping for the flocks? Among the divisions of Reuben There were great searchings of heart.

17“Gilead remained across the Jordan; And why did Dan stay on ships? Asher sat at the seashore, And remained by its landings.

18“Zebulun was a people who risked their lives, And Naphtali too, on the high places of the field.

19“‘The kings came and fought; Then the kings of Canaan fought At Taanach near the waters of Megiddo; They took no plunder in silver.

20“‘The stars fought from heaven, From their paths they fought against Sisera.

21“‘The torrent of Kishon swept them away, The ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon. My soul, march on with strength!

22“‘Then the horses’ hoofs beat From the galloping, the galloping of his mighty stallions.

23“‘Curse Meroz,’ said the angel of the LORD, ‘Utterly curse its inhabitants, Because they did not come to the help of the LORD, To the help of the LORD against the warriors.’

24“‘Most blessed of women is Jael, The wife of Heber the Kenite; Most blessed is she of women in the tent.

25“‘He asked for water, she gave him milk; In a magnificent bowl she brought him curds.

<sup>27</sup>“Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay; Between her feet he bowed, he fell; Where he bowed, there he fell dead.

<sup>30</sup>“Are they not finding, are they not dividing the spoils? A concubine, two concubines for every warrior; To Sisera a spoil of dyed cloth, A spoil of dyed cloth embroidered, Dyed cloth of double embroidery on the neck of the plunderer?’

<sup>31</sup>“May all Your enemies perish in this way, LORD; But may those who love Him be like the rising of the sun in its might.” And the land was at rest for forty years.

Judges 6

Israel Oppressed by Midian

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD handed them over to Midian for seven years.

<sup>2</sup>The power of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens which were in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds.

<sup>3</sup>For whenever Israel had sown, the Midianites would come up with the Amalekites and the people of the east and march against them.

<sup>4</sup>So they would camp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, nor a sheep, ox, or donkey.

<sup>5</sup>For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, they would come in like locusts in number, and both they and their camels were innumerable; and they came into the land to ruin it.

<sup>6</sup>So Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Now it came about, when the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD on account of Midian, <sup>8</sup>that the LORD sent a prophet to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘It was I who brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of slavery.

<sup>9</sup>And I rescued you from the hands of the Egyptians, and from the hands of all your oppressors, and I drove them out from you and gave you their land,

<sup>10</sup>and I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live.” But you have not obeyed Me.’ ”

Gideon Is Visited

<sup>11</sup>Then the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press in order to save it from the Midianites.

<sup>12</sup>And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, “The LORD is with you, valiant warrior.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon said to him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did the LORD not bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and handed us over to Midian.”

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD looked at him and said, “Go in this strength of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?”

<sup>15</sup>But he said to Him, “O Lord, how am I to save Israel? Behold, my family is the least in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father’s house.”

<sup>16</sup>Yet the LORD said to him, “I will certainly be with you, and you will defeat Midian as one man.”

<sup>17</sup>So Gideon said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then perform for me a sign that it is You speaking with me.

<sup>18</sup>Please do not depart from here until I come back to You, and bring out my offering and lay it before You.” And He said, “I will remain until you return.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Gideon went in and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour; he put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, and brought them out to him under the oak and presented them.

<sup>20</sup>And the angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

<sup>21</sup>Then the angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire came up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

<sup>22</sup>When Gideon perceived that he was the angel of the LORD, he said, “Oh, Lord GOD! For I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

<sup>23</sup>But the LORD said to him, “Peace to you, do not be afraid; you shall not die.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and named it The LORD is Peace. To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup>Now on the same night the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s bull and a second bull seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it;

<sup>26</sup>and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold in an orderly way, and take a second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Gideon took ten men from his servants and did as the LORD had spoken to him; and because he was too afraid of his father's household and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night.

The Altar of Baal Destroyed

<sup>28</sup>When the people of the city got up early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal had been torn down, and the Asherah which had been beside it had been cut down, and the second bull had been offered on the altar which had been built.

<sup>29</sup>So they said to one another, "Who did this thing?" And when they searched and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash did this thing."

<sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has torn down the altar of Baal, and indeed, he has cut down the Asherah which was beside it."

<sup>31</sup>But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal, or will you save him? Whoever will contend for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, since someone has torn down his altar!"

<sup>32</sup>Therefore on that day he named Gideon Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he had torn down his altar.

<sup>33</sup>Then all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the people of the east assembled together; and they crossed over and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

<sup>34</sup>So the Spirit of the LORD covered Gideon like clothing; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together to follow him.

<sup>35</sup>And he sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they also were called together to follow him; and he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

Sign of the Fleece

<sup>36</sup>Then Gideon said to God, “If You are going to save Israel through me, as You have spoken,

<sup>37</sup>behold, I am putting a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I will know that You will save Israel through me, as You have spoken.”

<sup>38</sup>And it was so. When he got up early the next morning and wrung out the fleece, he wrung the dew from the fleece, a bowl full of water.

<sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let Your anger burn against me, so that I may speak only one more time; please let me put You to the test only one more time with the fleece: let it now be dry only on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the ground.”

<sup>40</sup>And God did so that night; for it was dry only on the fleece, and dew was on all the ground.

Judges 7

Gideon’s Three Hundred Chosen Men

<sup>1</sup>Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him got up early, and camped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for Me to hand Midian over to them, otherwise Israel would become boastful, saying, ‘My own power has saved me.’

<sup>3</sup>Now therefore come, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is afraid and worried, is to return and leave Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand from the people returned, but ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Gideon, “The people are still too many; bring them down to the water and I will test them for you there. So it shall be that he of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go with you; but everyone of whom I say to you, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

<sup>5</sup>So he brought the people down to the water. Then the LORD said to Gideon, “You shall put everyone who laps the water with his tongue as a dog laps in one group, and everyone who kneels down to drink in another.”

<sup>6</sup>Now the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people kneeled down to drink water.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon, “I will save you with the three hundred men who lapped, and will hand the Midianites over to you; so have all the other people go, each man to his home.”

<sup>8</sup>So the three hundred men took the people’s provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And Gideon dismissed all the other men of Israel, each to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>Now on the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have handed it over to you.

<sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp, <sup>11</sup>so that you will hear what they say; and afterward you will have the courage to go down against the camp.” So he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the army that was in the camp.

<sup>12</sup>Now the Midianites, the Amalekites, and all the people of the east were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

<sup>13</sup>When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, “Behold, I had a dream; a loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down so that the tent collapsed.”

<sup>14</sup>And his friend replied, “This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has handed over to him Midian and all the camp.”

<sup>15</sup>When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. Then he returned to the camp of Israel and said, “Arise, for the LORD has handed over to you the camp of Midian!”

<sup>16</sup>And he divided the three hundred men into three units, and he put trumpets and empty pitchers into the hands of all of them, with torches inside the pitchers.

<sup>17</sup>Then he said to them, “Look at me and do likewise. And behold, when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.

<sup>18</sup>When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet, then you also blow the trumpets around the entire camp and say, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’ ”

Confusion of the Enemy

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle night watch, when they had just posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands.

<sup>21</sup>And each stood in his place around the camp; and all the army ran, crying out as they fled.

<sup>22</sup>And when they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set the sword of one against another even throughout the entire army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the edge of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.

<sup>23</sup>And the men of Israel were summoned from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and they pursued Midian.

<sup>24</sup>Then Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against Midian and take control of the waters ahead of them, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.” So all the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they took control of the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.

<sup>25</sup>And they captured the two leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine press of Zeeb, while they pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from across the Jordan.

Judges 8

Zebah and Zalmunna Routed

<sup>1</sup>Then the men of Ephraim said to Gideon, “What is this thing that you have done to us, not calling upon us when you went to fight against Midian?” And they quarreled with him vehemently.

<sup>2</sup>But he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim not better than the vintage of Abiezer?

<sup>3</sup>God has handed over to you the leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger toward him subsided when he said that.

<sup>4</sup>Then Gideon and the three hundred men who were with him came to the Jordan and crossed over, exhausted yet still pursuing.

<sup>5</sup>And he said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who are following me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

<sup>6</sup>But the leaders of Succoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?”

<sup>7</sup>So Gideon said, “For this answer, when the LORD has handed over to me Zebah and Zalmunna, I will thrash your bodies with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.”

<sup>8</sup>Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke similarly to them; and the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered.

<sup>9</sup>So he said also to the men of Penuel, “When I return safely, I will tear down this tower.”

<sup>10</sup>Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of the entire army of the people of the east; for the fallen were 120,000 swordsmen.

<sup>11</sup>Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents to the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and he attacked the camp when the camp was unsuspecting.

<sup>12</sup>When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the entire army.

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.

<sup>14</sup>And he captured a youth from Succoth and questioned him. Then the youth wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

<sup>15</sup>And he came to the men of Succoth and said, “Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, ‘Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?’ ”

<sup>17</sup>And he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup>Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “Where were the men whom you killed at Tabor?” But they said, “You and they were alike, each one resembling the son of a king.”

<sup>19</sup>And he said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if only you had let them live, I would not kill you.”

<sup>20</sup>So he said to Jether his firstborn, “Rise, kill them.” But the youth did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

<sup>21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Rise up yourself, and attack us; for as the man, so is his strength.” So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent amulets which were on their camels’ necks.

<sup>22</sup>Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, both you and your son, your son’s son as well, for you have saved us from the hand of Midian!”

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you.”

<sup>24</sup>Yet Gideon said to them, “I would request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his plunder.” (For they had gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

<sup>25</sup>And they said, “We will certainly give them to you.” So they spread out a garment, and every one of them tossed an earring there from his plunder.

<sup>26</sup>The weight of the gold earrings that he requested was 1,700 shekels of gold, apart from the crescent amulets, the ear pendants, and the purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and apart from the neck chains that were on their camels’ necks.

<sup>27</sup>Gideon made it into an ephod, and placed it in his city, Ophrah; but all Israel committed infidelity with it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

Forty Years of Peace

<sup>28</sup>So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads anymore. And the land was undisturbed for forty years in the days of Gideon.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

<sup>30</sup>Now Gideon had seventy sons who were his direct descendants, for he had many wives.

<sup>31</sup>And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

<sup>32</sup>And Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup>Then it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the sons of Israel again committed infidelity with the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god.

<sup>34</sup>So the sons of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had saved them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

<sup>35</sup>nor did they show kindness to the household of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in accordance with all the good that he had done for Israel.

Judges 9

Abimelech's Conspiracy

<sup>1</sup>Now Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's relatives, and spoke to them and to the entire family of the household of his mother's father, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Speak, now, in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem, 'Which is better for you: for seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, to rule over you, or for one man to rule over you?' Also, remember that I am your bone and your flesh."

<sup>3</sup>So his mother's relatives spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem; and they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our relative."

<sup>4</sup>And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men, and they followed him.

<sup>5</sup>Then he went to his father's house in Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.

<sup>6</sup>All the leaders of Shechem and all Beth-millo assembled together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the memorial stone which was in Shechem.

<sup>7</sup>Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and raised his voice and called out. And he said to them, "Listen to me, you leaders of Shechem, that God may listen to you.

<sup>8</sup>Once the trees went to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'

<sup>9</sup>But the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my fatness with which God and mankind are honored, and go to wave over the trees?'

<sup>10</sup>Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You, come, reign over us!'

<sup>11</sup>But the fig tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to wave over the trees?'

<sup>12</sup>Then the trees said to the vine, 'You, come, reign over us!'

<sup>13</sup>But the vine said to them, 'Shall I give up my new wine, which cheers God and mankind, and go to wave over the trees?'

<sup>14</sup>Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'You, come, reign over us!'

<sup>15</sup>And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If you really are anointing me as king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, may fire come out of the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon.’

<sup>16</sup>“Now then, if you have acted with honesty and integrity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have dealt with him as he deserved—

<sup>17</sup>for my father fought for you, and risked his life and saved you from the hand of Midian;

<sup>18</sup>but in fact you have risen against my father’s house today and have killed his sons, seventy men, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his female slave, king over the leaders of Shechem, because he is your relative—

<sup>19</sup>so if you have acted with honesty and integrity toward Jerubbaal and his house this day, be joyful about Abimelech, and may he also be joyful about you.

<sup>20</sup>But if not, may fire come out of Abimelech and consume the leaders of Shechem and Beth-millo; and may fire come out of the leaders of Shechem and from Beth-millo, and consume Abimelech.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jotham escaped and fled, and went to Beer; and he stayed there because of his brother Abimelech.

Shechem and Abimelech Fall

<sup>23</sup>Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem; and the leaders of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,

<sup>24</sup>so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal would come, and the responsibility for their blood would be placed on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the leaders of Shechem, who encouraged him to kill his brothers.

<sup>25</sup>The leaders of Shechem set up men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed everyone who would pass by them on the road; and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup>Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his relatives, and crossed over into Shechem; and the leaders of Shechem trusted him.

<sup>27</sup>So they went out to the field and gathered the grapes of their vineyards and trampled them, and held a festival; and they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank and cursed Abimelech.

<sup>28</sup>Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is Zebul not his governor? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?

<sup>29</sup>If only this people were under my authority! Then I would do away with Abimelech.” And he said to Abimelech, “Enlarge your army and come out!”

<sup>30</sup>When Zebul the leader of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned.

<sup>31</sup>So using deception, he successfully sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, “Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his relatives have come to Shechem; and behold, they are stirring up the city against you.

<sup>32</sup>So now, arise by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

<sup>33</sup>Then in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early and attack the city; and behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you shall do to them whatever you can.”

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all the people who were with him got up at night, and lay in wait against Shechem, in four units.

<sup>35</sup>Now Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate; and Abimelech and the people who were with him arose from the ambush.

<sup>36</sup>When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains.” But Zebul said to him, “You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as if they were people.”

<sup>37</sup>And Gaal spoke yet again and said, “Look, people are coming down from the highest part of the land, and one unit is coming by way of the diviners’ oak.”

<sup>38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, “Where then is your boasting with which you said, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Is this not the people whom you rejected? Go out now and fight them!”

<sup>40</sup>But Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded up to the entrance of the gate.

<sup>41</sup>Then Abimelech stayed in Arumah, but Zebul drove out Gaal and his relatives so that they could not stay in Shechem.

<sup>42</sup>Now it came about the next day, that the people went out to the field, and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>43</sup>So he took his people and divided them into three units, and lay in wait in the field; when he looked and saw the people coming out from the city, he attacked them and killed them.

<sup>44</sup>Then Abimelech and the company who was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the city gate; the other two companies then attacked all who were in the field and killed them.

<sup>45</sup>Abimelech fought against the city that whole day, and he captured the city and killed the people who were in it; then he tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

<sup>46</sup>When all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard about it, they entered the inner chamber of the temple of El-berith.

<sup>47</sup>And it was reported to Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

<sup>48</sup>So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees, and lifted it and put it on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who were with him, “What you saw me do, hurry and do likewise.”

<sup>49</sup>So all the people also cut down, each one, his branch and followed Abimelech, and put them on top of the inner chamber and set the inner chamber on fire over those inside, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he camped against Thebez and captured it.

<sup>51</sup>But there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the leaders of the city fled there and shut themselves in; and they went up on the roof of the tower.

<sup>54</sup>Then he called quickly to the young man, his armor bearer, and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, so that it will not be said of me, ‘A woman killed him.’” So the young man pierced him through, and he died.

<sup>56</sup>So God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father in killing his seventy brothers.

<sup>57</sup>God also returned all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

Judges 10

Oppression by Philistines and Ammonites

<sup>1</sup>Now after Abimelech died, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, rose up to save Israel; and he lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

<sup>2</sup>He judged Israel for twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup>After him, Jair the Gileadite rose up and judged Israel for twenty-two years.

<sup>4</sup>And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty cities in the land of Gilead that are called Havvoth-jair to this day.

<sup>6</sup>Then the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they served the Baals and the Ashtaroth, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; so they abandoned the LORD and did not serve Him.

<sup>7</sup>And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>8</sup>And they afflicted and oppressed the sons of Israel that year; for eighteen years they oppressed all the sons of Israel who were beyond the Jordan, in Gilead in the land of the Amorites.

<sup>9</sup>And the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight also against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was in great difficulty.

<sup>10</sup>Then the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against You, for indeed, we have abandoned our God and served the Baals.”

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to the sons of Israel, “Did I not save you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the sons of Ammon, and the Philistines?

<sup>12</sup>And when the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites oppressed you, you cried out to Me, and I saved you from their hands.

<sup>13</sup>Yet you abandoned Me and served other gods; therefore I will no longer save you.

<sup>14</sup>Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the sons of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned, do to us whatever seems good to You; only please save us this day.”

<sup>16</sup>So they removed the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and He could no longer endure the misery of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Then the sons of Ammon were summoned, and they camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel gathered together and camped in Mizpah.

<sup>18</sup>And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, “Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11

Jephthah, the Ninth Judge

<sup>1</sup>Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a valiant warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute. And Gilead had fathered Jephthah.

<sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You shall not have an inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman."

<sup>4</sup>Now it came about, after a while, that the sons of Ammon fought against Israel.

<sup>5</sup>When the sons of Ammon fought against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob;

<sup>6</sup>and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our leader, that we may fight against the sons of Ammon."

<sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me from my father's house? So why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?"

<sup>8</sup>The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "For this reason we have now returned to you, that you may go with us and fight the sons of Ammon, and become our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>9</sup>So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me back to fight against the sons of Ammon and the LORD gives them up to me, will I become your head?"

<sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD is witness between us; be assured we will do as you have said."

<sup>11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and leader over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup>So Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, "What conflict do you and I have, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"

<sup>13</sup>And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, “It is because Israel took my land when they came up from Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok and the Jordan; so return them peaceably now.”

<sup>14</sup>But Jephthah sent messengers once again to the king of the sons of Ammon, <sup>15</sup>and they said to him, “This is what Jephthah says: ‘Israel did not take the land of Moab nor the land of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>16</sup>For when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh,

<sup>17</sup>then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please let us pass through your land”; but the king of Edom would not listen. And they also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went through the wilderness and around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came to the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped beyond the Arnon; but they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.

<sup>19</sup>And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, “Please let us pass through your land to our place.”

<sup>20</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people and camped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD, the God of Israel, handed Sihon and all his people over to Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

<sup>22</sup>So they possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>And now the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven out the Amorites from His people Israel; so should you possess it?

<sup>24</sup>Do you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God has dispossessed before us, we will possess it.

<sup>25</sup>Now then, are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend with Israel, or did he ever fight against them?

<sup>26</sup>While Israel was living in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

<sup>27</sup>So I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war against me. May the LORD, the Judge, judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.’ ”

<sup>28</sup>But the king of the sons of Ammon disregarded the message which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah's Tragic Vow

<sup>29</sup>Now the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh; then he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he went on to the sons of Ammon.

<sup>30</sup>And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, “If You will indeed hand over to me the sons of Ammon,

<sup>31</sup>then whatever comes out the doors of my house to meet me when I return safely from the sons of Ammon, it shall be the LORD’S, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

<sup>32</sup>So Jephthah crossed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD handed them over to him.

<sup>33</sup>He inflicted a very great defeat on them from Aroer to the entrance of Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the sons of Ammon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>But Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, and behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. And she was his one and only child; besides her he had no son or daughter.

<sup>35</sup>So when he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, “Oh, my daughter! You have brought me disaster, and you are among those who trouble me; for I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot take it back.”

<sup>36</sup>So she said to him, “My father, you have given your word to the LORD; do to me just as you have said, since the LORD has brought you vengeance on your enemies, the sons of Ammon.”

<sup>37</sup>And she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me; allow me two months, so that I may go to the mountains and weep because of my virginity, I and my friends.”

<sup>38</sup>Then he said, “Go.” So he let her go for two months; and she left with her friends, and wept on the mountains because of her virginity.

<sup>39</sup>And at the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her what he had vowed; and she had no relations with a man. And it became a custom in Israel,

<sup>40</sup>that the daughters of Israel went annually to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite for four days in the year.

Judges 12

Jephthah and His Successors

<sup>1</sup>Now the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they crossed to Zaphon; and they said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the sons of Ammon without calling us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you!”

<sup>2</sup>So Jephthah said to them, “I and my people were in a major dispute with the sons of Ammon; and I did call you, but you did not save me from their hand.

<sup>3</sup>When I saw that you were no deliverer, I took my life in my hands and crossed over against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD handed them over to me. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?"

<sup>4</sup>Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim; and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You are survivors of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim and in the midst of Manasseh."

<sup>5</sup>And the Gileadites took control of the crossing places of the Jordan opposite Ephraim. And it happened whenever any of the survivors of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," that the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

<sup>6</sup>then they would say to him, "Just say, 'Shibboleth.'" But he said, "Sibboleth," for he was not prepared to pronounce it correctly. Then they seized him and slaughtered him at the crossing places of the Jordan. So at that time forty-two thousand from Ephraim fell.

<sup>9</sup>He had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he gave in marriage outside the family, and he brought in thirty daughters from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel for seven years.

<sup>12</sup>Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

<sup>14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys; and he judged Israel for eight years.

<sup>15</sup>Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

Philistines Oppress Again

<sup>1</sup>Now the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD handed them over to the Philistines for forty years.

<sup>2</sup>And there was a man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was infertile and had not given birth to any children.

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Behold now, you are infertile and have not given birth; but you will conceive and give birth to a son.

<sup>4</sup>And now, be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing.

<sup>5</sup>For behold, you will conceive and give birth to a son, and no razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he will begin to save Israel from the hands of the Philistines.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. So I did not ask him where he came from, nor did he tell me his name.

<sup>7</sup>But he said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and now you shall not drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah pleaded with the LORD and said, “Lord, please let the man of God whom You have sent come to us again so that he may teach us what we are to do for the boy who is to be born.”

<sup>9</sup>And God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

<sup>10</sup>So the woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, “Behold, the man who came the other day has appeared to me!”

<sup>11</sup>So Manoah got up and followed his wife, and when he came to the man he said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to the woman?” And he said, “I am.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Manoah said, “Now when your words are fulfilled, what shall be the boy’s way of life and his vocation?”

<sup>13</sup>And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “The woman shall pay attention to all that I said.

<sup>15</sup>Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain you so that we may prepare a young goat for you.”

<sup>16</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain me, I will not eat your food, but if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD.” For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>And Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that when your words are fulfilled, we may honor you?”

<sup>18</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name, for it is wonderful?”

<sup>19</sup>So Manoah took the young goat along with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD; and He performed wonders while Manoah and his wife looked on.

<sup>20</sup>For it came about when the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell on their faces to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>Now the angel of the LORD did not appear to Manoah or his wife again. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So Manoah said to his wife, “We will certainly die, for we have seen God.”

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have let us hear things like this at this time.”

<sup>24</sup>So the woman gave birth to a son, and named him Samson; and the child grew up and the LORD blessed him.

<sup>25</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him when he was in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14

Samson's Marriage

<sup>1</sup>Then Samson went down to Timnah, and he saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines.

<sup>2</sup>So he came back and told his father and mother, “I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines; so now, get her for me as a wife.”

<sup>3</sup>But his father and his mother said to him, “Is there no woman among the daughters of your relatives, or among all our people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” Yet Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, because she is right for me.”

<sup>4</sup>However, his father and mother did not know that this was of the LORD, for He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. And at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came as far as the vineyards of Timnah; and behold, a young lion came roaring toward him.

<sup>6</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, so that he tore it apart as one tears apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

<sup>7</sup>So he went down and talked to the woman; and she looked pleasing to Samson.

<sup>8</sup>When he returned later to take her, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion; and behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the body of the lion.

<sup>9</sup>So he took out the honey on his hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them and they ate it; but he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.

<sup>10</sup>Then his father went down to the woman; and Samson held a feast there, for the young men customarily did this.

<sup>11</sup>When they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Samson's Riddle

<sup>12</sup>Then Samson said to them, "Let me now propose a riddle for you; if you actually tell me the answer within the seven days of the feast, and solve it, then I will give you thirty linen wraps and thirty outfits of clothes.

<sup>13</sup>But if you are unable to tell me, then you shall give me thirty linen wraps and thirty outfits of clothes." And they said to him, "Propose your riddle, so that we may hear it."

<sup>14</sup>So he said to them, “Out of the eater came something to eat, And out of the strong came something sweet.” But they could not tell the answer to the riddle in three days.

<sup>15</sup>Then it came about on the fourth day that they said to Samson’s wife, “Entice your husband, so that he will tell us the riddle, or we will burn you and your father’s house with fire. Have you invited us to impoverish us? Is this not so?”

<sup>16</sup>So Samson’s wife wept in front of him and said, “You only hate me, and you do not love me; you have proposed a riddle to the sons of my people, and have not told it to me.” And he said to her, “Behold, I have not told it to my father or mother; so should I tell you?”

<sup>17</sup>However she wept before him for seven days while their feast lasted. And on the seventh day he told her because she pressed him so hard. She then told the riddle to the sons of her people.

<sup>18</sup>So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, “What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion?” And he said to them, “If you had not plowed with my heifer, You would not have found out my riddle.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty men of them and took what they were wearing and gave the outfits of clothes to those who told the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to his father’s house.

<sup>20</sup>But Samson’s wife was given to his companion who had been his friend.

Judges 15

Samson Burns Philistine Crops

<sup>1</sup>But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a young goat, and said, “I will go in to my wife in her room.” But her father did not let him enter.

<sup>2</sup>Her father said, “I really thought that you hated her intensely; so I gave her to your companion. Is her younger sister not more beautiful than she? Please let her be yours instead.”

<sup>3</sup>Samson then said to them, “This time I will have been blameless regarding the Philistines when I do them harm.”

<sup>4</sup>And Samson went and caught three hundred jackals, and took torches, and turned the jackals tail to tail and put one torch in the middle between two tails.

<sup>5</sup>When he had set fire to the torches, he released the jackals into the standing grain of the Philistines and set fire to both the bundled heaps and the standing grain, along with the vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Philistines said, “Who did this?” And some said, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father to death with fire.

<sup>7</sup>Then Samson said to them, “If this is how you act, I will certainly take revenge on you, and only after that will I stop.”

<sup>8</sup>So he struck them ruthlessly with a great slaughter; and afterward he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Philistines went up and camped in Judah, and spread out in Lehi.

<sup>10</sup>So the men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” And they said, “We have come up to bind Samson in order to do to him as he did to us.”

<sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?” And he said to them, “Just as they did to me, so I have done to them.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they said to him, “We have come down to bind you so that we may hand you over to the Philistines.” And Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me.”

<sup>13</sup>So they said to him, “No, but we will bind you tightly and give you into their hands; but we certainly will not kill you.” Then they bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him. And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him so that the ropes that were on his arms were like flax that has burned with fire, and his restraints dropped from his hands.

<sup>15</sup>Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, so he reached out with his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

<sup>17</sup>When he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand; and he named that place Ramath-lehi.

<sup>18</sup>Then he became very thirsty, and he called to the LORD and said, “You have handed this great victory over to Your servant, and now am I to die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

<sup>19</sup>But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi so that water came out of it. When he drank, his strength returned and he revived. Therefore he named it En-hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

<sup>20</sup>So he judged Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Judges 16

Samson’s Weakness

<sup>2</sup>When it was reported to the Gazites, saying, “Samson has come here,” they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. And they kept silent all night, saying, “Let’s wait until the morning light, then we will kill him.”

<sup>3</sup>Now Samson lay asleep until midnight, and at midnight he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two doorposts, and pulled them up along with the bars; then he put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain which is opposite Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>After this it came about that he was in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

<sup>5</sup>So the governors of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Entice him, and see where his great strength lies and how we can overpower him so that we may bind him to humble him. Then we will each give you 1,100 pieces of silver.”

<sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength lies, and how you can be bound to humble you.”

<sup>7</sup>And Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh animal tendons that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the governors of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh animal tendons that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

<sup>9</sup>Now she had men prepared for an ambush in an inner room. And she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he tore the tendons to pieces just like a thread of flax is torn apart when it comes too close to fire. So his strength was not discovered.

<sup>10</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, “Behold, you have toyed with me and told me lies; now please tell me how you may be bound.”

<sup>11</sup>Then he said to her, “If they bind me tightly with new ropes which have not been used, then I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” For the men in the ambush were waiting in the inner room. But he tore the ropes from his arms like thread.

<sup>13</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, “Up to now you have toyed with me and told me lies; tell me how you may be bound.” And he said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my hair with the web [and fasten it with the pin, then I will be weak like any other man.”

<sup>14</sup>So while he slept, Delilah wove the seven locks of his hair with the web]. And she fastened it with the pin and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin of the loom and the web.

Delilah Extracts His Secret

<sup>15</sup>Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have toyed with me these three times and have not told me where your great strength is.”

<sup>16</sup>And it came about, when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death.

<sup>17</sup>So he told her all that was in his heart and said to her, “A razor has never come on my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will leave me and I will become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup>When Delilah saw that he had told her all that was in his heart, she sent word and called the governors of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all that is in his heart.” Then the governors of the Philistines came up to her and brought up the money in their hands.

<sup>19</sup>And she made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to humble him, and his strength left him.

<sup>20</sup>She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and said, “I will go out as at other times and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and restrained him with bronze chains, and he became a grinder in the prison.

<sup>22</sup>However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it was shaved off.

<sup>23</sup>Now the governors of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to celebrate, for they said, “Our god has handed Samson our enemy over to us.”

<sup>24</sup>When the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said, “Our god has handed our enemy over to us, Even the destroyer of our country, Who has killed many of us.”

<sup>25</sup>It so happened when they were in high spirits, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may amuse us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars.

<sup>26</sup>Then Samson said to the boy who was holding his hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, so that I may lean against them.”

<sup>27</sup>Now the house was full of men and women, and all the governors of the Philistines were there. And about three thousand men and women were on the roof looking on while Samson was entertaining them.

Samson Is Avenged

<sup>28</sup>Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “Lord GOD, please remember me and please strengthen me just this time, O God, that I may at once take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and braced himself against them, the one with his right hand and the other with his left.

<sup>30</sup>And Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he pushed outwards powerfully, so that the house fell on the governors and all the people who were in it. And the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he killed during his lifetime.

<sup>31</sup>Then his brothers and all his father’s household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. So he had judged Israel for twenty years.

Judges 17

Micah’s Idolatry

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man of the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah.

<sup>2</sup>And he said to his mother, “The 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse and also spoke it in my hearing, behold, the silver is with me; I took it.” And his mother said, “Blessed be my son by the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>He then returned the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, “I wholly consecrate the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son to make a carved image and a cast metal image; so now I will return them to you.”

<sup>4</sup>So when he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith, who made them into a carved image and a cast metal image, and they were in the house of Micah.

<sup>5</sup>And the man Micah had a shrine and he made an ephod and household idols, and consecrated one of his sons, so that he might become his priest.

<sup>6</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

<sup>7</sup>Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he was staying there.

<sup>8</sup>Then the man left the city, Bethlehem in Judah, to stay wherever he would find a place; and as he made his journey, he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah.

<sup>9</sup>Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?” And he said to him, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to stay wherever I may find a place.”

<sup>10</sup>Micah then said to him, “Stay with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, a supply of clothing, and your sustenance.” So the Levite went in.

<sup>11</sup>The Levite agreed to live with the man, and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

<sup>12</sup>So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah.

<sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because I have a Levite as a priest.”

Judges 18

Danites Seek Territory

<sup>1</sup>In those days there was no king of Israel; and in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for themselves to live in, for until that day an inheritance had not been allotted to them as a possession among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>So the sons of Dan sent from their family five men out of their whole number, valiant men from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, “Go, explore the land.” And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and stayed overnight there.

<sup>3</sup>When they were near the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite; and they turned aside there and said to him, “Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what do you have here?”

<sup>4</sup>He said to them, “Micah has done this and that for me, and he has hired me and I have become his priest.”

<sup>5</sup>Then they said to him, “Inquire of God, please, that we may know whether our way on which we are going will be successful.”

<sup>6</sup>And the priest said to them, “Go in peace; your way in which you are going has the LORD’S approval.”

<sup>7</sup>So the five men departed and came to Laish, and saw the people who were in it living in security, in the way of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting; for there was no oppressive ruler humiliating them for anything in the land, and they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.

<sup>8</sup>When they came back to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers said to them, “What do you say?”

<sup>9</sup>And they said, “Arise, and let’s go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. And will you sit still? Do not hesitate to go, to enter, to take possession of the land.

<sup>10</sup>When you enter, you will come to an unsuspecting people with a spacious land; for God has handed it over to you, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then from the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men armed with weapons of war set out.

<sup>12</sup>They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan to this day; behold, it is west of Kiriath-jearim.

<sup>13</sup>And they passed from there to the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

Danites Take Micah's Idols

<sup>14</sup>Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish said to their kinsmen, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod and household idols, and a carved image and a cast metal image? Now then, consider what you should do."

<sup>15</sup>So they turned aside there and came to the house of the young man, the Levite, to the house of Micah, and asked him how he was doing.

<sup>16</sup>Meanwhile, the six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the sons of Dan, were positioned at the entrance of the gate.

<sup>17</sup>Now the five men who went to spy out the land went up and entered there; they took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the cast metal image, while the priest was standing at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

<sup>18</sup>When these men entered Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, household idols, and the cast metal image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup>And they said to him, "Be silent, put your hand over your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"

<sup>22</sup>When they had distanced themselves from Micah's house, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house assembled by command and overtook the sons of Dan.

<sup>23</sup>Then they called out to the sons of Dan, who turned around and said to Micah, “What is the matter with you, that you have assembled together?”

<sup>24</sup>And he said, “You have taken my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away; what more do I have? So how can you say to me, ‘What is the matter with you?’ ”

<sup>25</sup>Then the sons of Dan said to him, “Do not let your voice be heard among us, or else fierce men will attack you, and you will lose your life and the lives of your household.”

<sup>26</sup>So the sons of Dan went on their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

<sup>27</sup>Then they took what Micah had made and the priest who had belonged to him, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burned the city with fire.

<sup>28</sup>And there was no one to save them, because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley which is near Beth-rehob. So they rebuilt the city and lived in it.

<sup>29</sup>And they named the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father who was born to Israel; however, the name of the city was previously Laish.

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.

<sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves Micah’s carved image which he had made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19

A Levite’s Concubine Raped and Killed

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah.

<sup>2</sup>But his concubine found him repugnant, and she left him and went to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah, and remained there for a period of four months.

<sup>3</sup>Then her husband set out and went after her to speak gently to her in order to bring her back, taking with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. And she brought him into her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he was glad to meet him.

<sup>4</sup>His father-in-law, the girl's father, prevailed upon him, and he remained with him for three days. So they ate and drank and stayed there.

<sup>5</sup>Now on the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to go; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen yourself with a piece of bread, and afterward you may go."

<sup>6</sup>So both of them sat down and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Please be so kind as to spend the night, and let your heart be cheerful."

<sup>7</sup>However, the man got up to go; but his father-in-law urged him, and he spent the night there again.

<sup>8</sup>Now on the fifth day he got up to go early in the morning, but the girl's father said, "Please strengthen yourself, and wait until late afternoon"; so both of them ate.

<sup>9</sup>When the man got up to go, along with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day has drawn to a close; please spend the night. Behold, the day is coming to an end; spend the night here so that your heart may be cheerful. Then tomorrow you may arise early for your journey and go home."

<sup>10</sup>But the man was unwilling to spend the night, so he got up and left, and came to a place opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). And with him was a pair of saddled donkeys; his concubine also was with him.

<sup>11</sup>When they were near Jebus, the day was almost gone; and the servant said to his master, "Please come, and let's turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."

<sup>12</sup>However, his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners who are not of the sons of Israel; instead, we will go on as far as Gibeah."

<sup>13</sup>And he said to his servant, "Come, and let's approach one of these places; and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."

<sup>14</sup>So they passed along and went their way, and the sun set on them near Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

<sup>15</sup>They turned aside there to enter and spend the night in Gibeah. When they entered, they sat down in the public square of the city, for no one took them into his house to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup>Then behold, an old man was coming out of the field from his work at evening. Now the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was staying in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benjaminites.

<sup>17</sup>And he raised his eyes and saw the traveler in the public square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

<sup>18</sup>And he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, for I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah. But I am now going to my house, and no one will take me into his house.

<sup>19</sup>Yet there is both straw and feed for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, and your female slave, and the young man who is with your servants; there is no lack of anything."

<sup>20</sup>Then the old man said, "Peace to you. Only let me take care of all your needs; however, do not spend the night in the public square."

<sup>21</sup>So he took him into his house and fed the donkeys, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

<sup>22</sup>While they were celebrating, behold, the men of the city, certain worthless men, surrounded the house, pushing one another at the door; and they spoke to the owner of the house, the old man, saying, “Bring out the man who entered your house that we may have relations with him.”

<sup>23</sup>Then the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, please do not act so wickedly. Since this man has come into my house, do not commit this vile sin.

<sup>25</sup>But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and brought her outside to them; and they raped her and abused her all night until morning, then let her go at the approach of dawn.

<sup>26</sup>As the day began to dawn, the woman came and fell down at the doorway of the man’s house where her master was, until full daylight.

<sup>28</sup>And he said to her, “Get up and let’s go,” but there was no answer. Then he put her on the donkey; and the man set out and went to his home.

<sup>29</sup>When he entered his house, he took a knife and seized his concubine, and cut her in twelve pieces, limb by limb. Then he sent her throughout the territory of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>All who saw it said, “Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen from the day when the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Consider it, make a plan, and speak up!”

Judges 20

Resolve to Punish the Guilty

<sup>2</sup>And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, took their stand in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword.

<sup>3</sup>(Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the sons of Israel said, “Tell us, how did this wickedness take place?”

<sup>4</sup>So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “I came with my concubine to spend the night at Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

<sup>5</sup>But the citizens of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night, threatening me. They intended to kill me; instead, they raped my concubine so that she died.

<sup>6</sup>And I took hold of my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout the land of Israel’s inheritance; for they have committed an outrageous sin and vile act in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Then all the people rose up as one person, saying, “Not one of us will go to his tent, nor will any of us go home.

<sup>9</sup>But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up against it by lot.

<sup>10</sup>And we will take ten men out of a hundred throughout the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand to supply provisions for the people, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may punish them for all the vile sin that they have committed in Israel.”

<sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united as one man.

<sup>12</sup>Then the tribes of Israel sent men through the entire tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has taken place among you?”

<sup>13</sup>Now then, turn over the men, the worthless men who are in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death and remove this wickedness from Israel.” But the sons of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Instead, the sons of Benjamin gathered from the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the sons of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>From the cities on that day the sons of Benjamin were counted, twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah who were counted, seven hundred choice men.

<sup>16</sup>Out of all these people seven hundred choice men were left-handed; each one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

<sup>17</sup>Then the men of Israel besides Benjamin were counted, four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.

Civil War, Benjamin Defeated

<sup>18</sup>Now the sons of Israel set out, went up to Bethel, and inquired of God and said, “Who shall go up first for us to battle against the sons of Benjamin?” Then the LORD said, “Judah shall go up first.”

<sup>19</sup>So the sons of Israel got up in the morning and camped against Gibeah.

<sup>20</sup>The men of Israel went to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel lined up for battle against them at Gibeah.

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Benjamin came out of Gibeah and struck to the ground on that day twenty-two thousand men of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>But the people, the men of Israel, showed themselves courageous and lined up for battle again in the place where they had lined themselves up on the first day.

<sup>23</sup>And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall we again advance for battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin?” And the LORD said, “Go up against him.”

<sup>24</sup>So the sons of Israel came against the sons of Benjamin on the second day.

<sup>25</sup>And Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah the second day and struck to the ground again eighteen thousand men of the sons of Israel; all of these drew the sword.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel, and they wept and remained there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>And the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, Aaron’s son, stood before it to minister in those days), saying, “Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I stop?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>30</sup>And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and lined up against Gibeah as at other times.

<sup>31</sup>When the sons of Benjamin went out against the people, they were lured away from the city, and they began to strike and kill some of the people as at other times, on the roads (one of which goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah), and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>And the sons of Benjamin said, “They are defeated before us, like the first time.” But the sons of Israel said, “Let’s flee, so that we may draw them away from the city to the roads.”

<sup>34</sup>When ten thousand choice men from all Israel came against Gibeah, the battle became fierce; but Benjamin did not know that disaster was close to them.

<sup>35</sup>And the LORD struck Benjamin before Israel, so that the sons of Israel destroyed 25,100 men of Benjamin that day, all who drew the sword.

<sup>36</sup>So the sons of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. When the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah,

<sup>38</sup>Now the agreed sign between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise from the city.

<sup>39</sup>Then the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill about thirty men of Israel, for they said, “Undoubtedly they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.”

<sup>40</sup>But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, Benjamin looked behind them; and behold, the entire city was going up in smoke to heaven.

<sup>41</sup>Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that disaster was close to them.

<sup>42</sup>Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel to flee in the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them while those who attacked from the cities were annihilating them in the midst of them.

<sup>43</sup>They surrounded Benjamin, pursued them without rest, and trampled them down opposite Gibeah toward the east.

<sup>44</sup>So eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all of these were valiant men.

<sup>45</sup>The rest turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, but they caught five thousand of them on the roads and overtook them at Gidom, and killed two thousand of them.

<sup>46</sup>So all those of Benjamin who fell that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were valiant men.

<sup>47</sup>But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; and they remained at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

<sup>48</sup>The men of Israel then turned back against the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city with the cattle and all that they found; they also set on fire all the cities which they found.

Judges 21

Mourning a Lost Tribe

<sup>2</sup>So the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, and raised their voices and wept profusely.

<sup>3</sup>And they said, “Why, LORD, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that one tribe is missing today from Israel?”

<sup>4</sup>And it came about the next day that the people got up early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

<sup>5</sup>Then the sons of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not go up to the LORD in the assembly?” For they had taken a solemn oath concerning anyone who did not go up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, “He shall certainly be put to death.”

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel were sorry for their brother Benjamin, and said, “Today one tribe is cut off from Israel!

<sup>7</sup>What are we to do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives?”

Provision for Their Survival

<sup>8</sup>And they said, “What one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not go up to the LORD at Mizpah?” And behold, no one had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

<sup>9</sup>For when the people were counted, behold, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.

<sup>10</sup>And the congregation sent twelve thousand of the valiant warriors there, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, along with the women and the children.

<sup>11</sup>And this is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has slept with a male.”

<sup>12</sup>And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man by sleeping with him; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>Then the whole congregation sent word and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

<sup>14</sup>And the tribe of Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had allowed to live from the women of Jabesh-gilead; but they were not enough for them.

<sup>15</sup>And the people were sorry for Benjamin, because the LORD had created a gap in the tribes of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, “What are we to do for wives for those who are left, since the women have been eliminated from Benjamin?”

<sup>17</sup>And they said, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel.

<sup>18</sup>But we cannot give them wives from our daughters.” For the sons of Israel had sworn, saying, “Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin!”

<sup>19</sup>So they said, “Behold, there is a feast of the LORD from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south side of Lebonah.”

<sup>20</sup>And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,

<sup>21</sup>and watch; and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to take part in the dances, then you shall come out of the vineyards, and each of you shall seize his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

<sup>22</sup>And when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we shall say to them, ‘Give them to us voluntarily, because we did not take for each man of Benjamin a wife in battle, nor did you give them to them, otherwise you would now be guilty.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Benjamin did so, and took wives according to their number from those who danced, whom they seized. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and rebuilt the cities and lived in them.

<sup>24</sup>And the sons of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family, and each one departed from there to his inheritance.

<sup>25</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

Ruth 1

Naomi Widowed

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the days when the judges governed, that there was a famine in the land. And a man of Bethlehem in Judah went to reside in the land of Moab with his wife and his two sons.

<sup>2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi; and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem in Judah. So they entered the land of Moab and remained there.

<sup>4</sup>And they took for themselves Moabite women as wives; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other, Ruth. And they lived there about ten years.

<sup>5</sup>Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died, and the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

<sup>6</sup>Then she arose with her daughters-in-law to return from the land of Moab, because she had heard in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited His people by giving them food.

<sup>7</sup>So she departed from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to your mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

<sup>9</sup>May the LORD grant that you may find a place of rest, each one in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they raised their voices and wept.

<sup>10</sup>However, they said to her, "No, but we will return with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, “Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?”

<sup>12</sup>Return, my daughters! Go, for I am too old to have a husband. If I said I have hope, if I were even to have a husband tonight and also give birth to sons,

<sup>13</sup>would you therefore wait until they were grown? Would you therefore refrain from marrying? No, my daughters; for it is much more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has come out against me.”

Ruth's Loyalty

<sup>14</sup>And they raised their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

<sup>15</sup>Then she said, “Behold, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and her gods; return after your sister-in-law.”

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said, “Do not plead with me to leave you or to turn back from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you sleep, I will sleep. Your people shall be my people, and your God, my God.

<sup>17</sup>Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD do so to me, and worse, if anything but death separates me from you.”

<sup>18</sup>When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her about it.

<sup>19</sup>So they both went on until they came to Bethlehem. And when they had come to Bethlehem, all the city was stirred because of them, and the women said, “Is this Naomi?”

<sup>20</sup>But she said to them, “Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

<sup>21</sup>I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me and the Almighty has afflicted me?”

Ruth 2

Ruth Gleans in Boaz's Field

<sup>2</sup>And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain following one in whose eyes I may find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

<sup>3</sup>So she left and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup>Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, "May the LORD be with you." And they said to him, "May the LORD bless you."

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

<sup>6</sup>And the servant in charge of the reapers replied, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab."

<sup>7</sup>And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has remained from the morning until now; she has been sitting in the house for a little while."

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field; furthermore, do not go on from this one, but join my young women here."

<sup>9</sup>Keep your eyes on the field which they reap, and go after them. Indeed, I have ordered the servants not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go to the water jars and drink from what the servants draw."

<sup>10</sup>Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your sight that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?”

<sup>11</sup>Boaz replied to her, “All that you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband has been fully reported to me, and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people that you did not previously know.

<sup>12</sup>May the LORD reward your work, and may your wages be full from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

<sup>13</sup>Then she said, “I have found favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and indeed have spoken kindly to your servant, though I am not like one of your female servants.”

<sup>14</sup>And at mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come here, that you may eat of the bread and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers; and he served her roasted grain, and she ate and was satisfied and had some left.

<sup>15</sup>When she got up to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not insult her.

<sup>16</sup>Also you are to purposely slip out for her some grain from the bundles and leave it so that she may glean, and do not rebuke her.”

<sup>17</sup>So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

<sup>18</sup>And she picked it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She also took some out and gave Naomi what she had left after she was satisfied.

<sup>19</sup>Her mother-in-law then said to her, “Where did you glean today and where did you work? May he who took notice of you be blessed.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.”

<sup>20</sup>Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed of the LORD who has not withdrawn His kindness from the living and from the dead.” Again Naomi said to her, “The man is our relative; he is one of our redeemers.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Ruth the Moabite said, “Furthermore, he said to me, ‘You are to stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.’”

<sup>22</sup>And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, so that others do not assault you in another field.”

<sup>23</sup>So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz in order to glean until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

Boaz Will Redeem Ruth

<sup>1</sup>Then her mother-in-law Naomi said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek security for you, that it may go well for you?”

<sup>2</sup>Now then, is Boaz not our relative, with whose young women you were? Behold, he is winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight.

<sup>3</sup>Wash yourself therefore, and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes, and go down to the threshing floor; but do not reveal yourself to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

<sup>4</sup>And it shall be when he lies down, that you shall take notice of the place where he lies, and you shall go and uncover his feet and lie down; then he will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>5</sup>And she said to her, “All that you say I will do.”

<sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her.

<sup>7</sup>When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came secretly, and uncovered his feet and lay down.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and bent forward; and behold, a woman was lying at his feet.

<sup>9</sup>So he said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth your slave. Now spread your garment over your slave, for you are a redeemer.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, “May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown your last kindness to be better than the first, by not going after young men, whether poor or rich.

<sup>11</sup>So now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you whatever you say, for all my people in the city know that you are a woman of excellence.

<sup>12</sup>But now, although it is true that I am a redeemer, yet there is also a redeemer more closely related than I.

<sup>13</sup>Remain this night, and when morning comes, if he will redeem you, good; let him redeem you. But if he does not wish to redeem you, then I will redeem you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until morning.”

<sup>14</sup>So she lay at his feet until morning, and got up before one person could recognize another; and he said, “Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”

<sup>15</sup>Again he said, “Give me the shawl that is on you and hold it.” So she held it, and he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

<sup>16</sup>When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “How did it go, my daughter?” And she told her all that the man had done for her.

<sup>17</sup>She also said, “These six measures of barley he gave to me, for he said, ‘Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then she said, “Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter turns out; for the man will not rest until he has settled it today.”

Ruth 4

The Marriage of Ruth

<sup>1</sup>Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there, and behold, the redeemer of whom Boaz spoke was passing by, so he said, “Come over here, friend, sit down here.” And he came over and sat down.

<sup>2</sup>Then he took ten men of the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

<sup>3</sup>And he said to the redeemer, “Naomi, who has returned from the land of Moab, has to sell the plot of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup>So I thought that I would inform you, saying, ‘Buy it before those who are sitting here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if not, tell me so that I may know; for there is no one except you to redeem it, and I am after you.’” And he said, “I will redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the redeemer said, “I cannot redeem it for myself, otherwise I would jeopardize my own inheritance. Redeem it for yourself; you may have my right of redemption, since I cannot redeem it.”

<sup>7</sup>Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning the redemption and the exchange of land to confirm any matter: a man removed his sandal and gave it to another; and this was the way of confirmation in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>So the redeemer said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” And he removed his sandal.

<sup>9</sup>Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon.

<sup>10</sup>Furthermore, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be eliminated from his brothers or from the court of his birth place; you are witnesses today.”

<sup>11</sup>And all the people who were in the court, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, both of whom built the house of Israel; and may you achieve wealth in Ephrathah and become famous in Bethlehem.

<sup>12</sup>Moreover, may your house be like the house of Perez whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the descendants whom the LORD will give you by this young woman.”

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he had relations with her. And the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

<sup>14</sup>Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed is the LORD who has not left you without a redeemer today, and may his name become famous in Israel.

<sup>15</sup>May he also be to you one who restores life and sustains your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

The Line of David

<sup>16</sup>Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her lap, and became his nurse.

<sup>17</sup>And the neighbor women gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi!” So they named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel 1

Elkanah and His Wives

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man from Ramathaim-zophim from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

<sup>2</sup>And he had two wives: the name of one was Hannah and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

<sup>3</sup>Now this man would go up from his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of armies in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to the LORD there.

<sup>4</sup>When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters;

<sup>5</sup>but to Hannah he would give a double portion, because he loved Hannah, but the LORD had closed her womb.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened year after year, as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, that she would provoke her; so she wept and would not eat.

<sup>8</sup>Then Elkanah her husband would say to her, “Hannah, why do you weep, and why do you not eat, and why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

<sup>10</sup>She, greatly distressed, prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly.

<sup>11</sup>And she made a vow and said, “LORD of armies, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your bond-servant and remember me, and not forget Your bond-servant, but will give Your bond-servant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and a razor shall never come on his head.”

<sup>13</sup>As for Hannah, she was speaking in her heart, only her lips were quivering, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought that she was drunk.

<sup>14</sup>Then Eli said to her, “How long will you behave like a drunk? Get rid of your wine!”

<sup>15</sup>But Hannah answered and said, “No, my lord, I am a woman despairing in spirit; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Do not consider your bond-servant a useless woman, for I have spoken until now out of my great concern and provocation.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your request that you have asked of Him.”

<sup>18</sup>She said, “Let your bond-servant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went on her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

Samuel Is Born to Hannah

<sup>19</sup>Then they got up early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned again to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah had relations with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

<sup>20</sup>It came about in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; and she named him Samuel, saying, “Because I have asked for him of the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup>Then the man Elkanah went up with all his household to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and to pay his vow.

<sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “I will not go until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, so that he may appear before the LORD and stay there for life.”

<sup>23</sup>Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best to you. Stay until you have weaned him; only may the LORD confirm His word.” So the woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him.

<sup>26</sup>And she said, “Pardon me, my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>For this boy I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my request which I asked of Him.

<sup>28</sup>So I have also dedicated him to the LORD; as long as he lives he is dedicated to the LORD.” And he worshiped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2

Hannah’s Song of Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup>Then Hannah prayed and said, “My heart rejoices in the LORD; My horn is exalted in the LORD, My mouth speaks boldly against my enemies, Because I rejoice in Your salvation.

<sup>2</sup>“There is no one holy like the LORD, Indeed, there is no one besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup>“Do not go on boasting so very proudly, Do not let arrogance come out of your mouth; For the LORD is a God of knowledge, And with Him actions are weighed.

<sup>4</sup>“The bows of the mighty are broken to pieces, But those who have stumbled strap on strength.

<sup>5</sup>“Those who were full hire themselves out for bread, But those who were hungry cease to be hungry. Even the infertile woman gives birth to seven, But she who has many children languishes.

<sup>6</sup>“The LORD puts to death and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol and brings up.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD makes poor and rich; He humbles, He also exalts.

<sup>8</sup>“He raises the poor from the dust, He lifts the needy from the garbage heap To seat them with nobles, And He gives them a seat of honor as an inheritance; For the pillars of the earth are the LORD’S, And He set the world on them.

<sup>9</sup>“He watches over the feet of His godly ones, But the wicked ones are silenced in darkness; For not by might shall a person prevail.

<sup>10</sup>“Those who contend with the LORD will be terrified; Against them He will thunder in the heavens, The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; And He will give strength to His king, And will exalt the horn of His anointed.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Elkanah went to his home at Ramah. But the boy continued to attend to the service of the LORD before Eli the priest.

The Sin of Eli’s Sons

<sup>12</sup>Now the sons of Eli were useless men; they did not know the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>And this was the custom of the priests with the people: when anyone was offering a sacrifice, the priest’s servant would come while the meat was cooking, with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

<sup>14</sup>And he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; everything that the fork brought up, the priest would take for himself. They did so in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

<sup>15</sup>Also, before they burned the fat, the priest’s servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the priest meat for roasting, as he will not take cooked meat from you, only raw.”

<sup>16</sup>And if the man said to him, “They must burn the fat first, then take as much as you desire,” then he would say, “No, but you must give it to me now; and if not, I am taking it by force!”

<sup>17</sup>And so the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD disrespectfully.

Samuel before the LORD as a Boy

<sup>19</sup>And his mother would make for him a little robe and bring it up to him from year to year when she would come up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

<sup>20</sup>Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, “May the LORD give you children from this woman in place of the one she requested of the LORD.” And they went to their own home.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD indeed visited Hannah, and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up before the LORD.

Eli Rebukes His Sons

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old; and he heard about everything that his sons were doing to all Israel, and that they slept with the women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

<sup>23</sup>So he said to them, “Why are you doing such things as these, the evil things that I hear from all these people?”

<sup>24</sup>No, my sons; for the report is not good which I hear the LORD’s people circulating.

<sup>25</sup>If one person sins against another, God will mediate for him; but if a person sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?” But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for the LORD desired to put them to death.

<sup>26</sup>Now the boy Samuel was continuing to grow and to be in favor both with the LORD and with people.

<sup>27</sup>Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Did I not indeed reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house?’

<sup>28</sup>Did I not choose them from all the tribes of Israel to be My priests, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to carry an ephod before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel?

<sup>29</sup>Why are you showing contempt for My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded for My dwelling, and why are you honoring your sons above Me, by making yourselves fat with the choicest of every offering of My people Israel?’

<sup>30</sup>Therefore the LORD God of Israel declares, ‘I did indeed say that your house and the house of your father was to walk before Me forever’; but now the LORD declares, ‘Far be it from Me—for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me will be insignificant.

<sup>31</sup>Behold, the days are coming when I will eliminate your strength and the strength of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

<sup>32</sup>And you will look at the distress of My dwelling, in spite of all the good that I do for Israel; and there will never be an old man in your house.

<sup>33</sup>Yet I will not cut off every man of yours from My altar, so that your eyes will fail from weeping and your soul grieve, and all the increase of your house will die in the prime of life.

<sup>34</sup>And this will be the sign to you which will come in regard to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: on the same day both of them will die.

<sup>35</sup>But I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in My heart and My soul; and I will build him an enduring house, and he will walk before My anointed always.

<sup>36</sup>And everyone who is left in your house will come to bow down to him for a silver coin or a loaf of bread and say, “Please assign me to one of the priest’s offices so that I may eat a piece of bread.” ’ ’ ”

1 Samuel 3

The Prophetic Call to Samuel

<sup>2</sup>But it happened at that time as Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyesight had begun to be poor and he could not see well),

<sup>3</sup>and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was,

<sup>4</sup>that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>5</sup>Then he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, go back and lie down.” So he went and lay down.

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD called yet again, “Samuel!” So Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son, go back and lie down.”

<sup>7</sup>Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor had the word of the LORD yet been revealed to him.

<sup>8</sup>So the LORD called Samuel again for the third time. And he got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup>And Eli said to Samuel, “Go lie down, and it shall be if He calls you, that you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD came and stood, and called as at the other times: “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for Your servant is listening.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Samuel, “Behold, I am going to do a thing in Israel, and both ears of everyone who hears about it will ring.

<sup>12</sup>On that day I will carry out against Eli everything that I have spoken in regard to his house, from beginning to end.

<sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I am going to judge his house forever for the wrongdoing that he knew, because his sons were bringing a curse on themselves and he did not rebuke them.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the wrongdoing of Eli’s house shall never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.”

<sup>15</sup>So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. But Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

<sup>16</sup>Then Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” And he said, “Here I am.”

<sup>17</sup>He said, “What is the word that He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do the same to you, and more so, if you hide a single word from me of all the words that He spoke to you!”

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, “He is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him.”

<sup>19</sup>Now Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and He let none of his words fail.

<sup>20</sup>And all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, because the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

1 Samuel 4

Philistines Take the Ark in Victory

<sup>1</sup>So the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle, and they camped beside Ebenezer, while the Philistines camped in Aphek.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines drew up in battle formation to meet Israel. When the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield.

<sup>3</sup>When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let’s take the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh, so that He may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies.”

<sup>4</sup>So the people sent men to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD of armies who is enthroned above the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup>And as the ark of the covenant of the LORD was coming into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resounded.

<sup>6</sup>And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

<sup>7</sup>So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp!” And they said, “Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before.

<sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who will save us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup>Take courage and be men, Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been slaves to you; so be men and fight!”

<sup>10</sup>So the Philistines fought and Israel was defeated, and every man fled to his tent; and the defeat was very great, for thirty thousand foot soldiers of Israel fell.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover, the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

<sup>12</sup>Now a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn, and dust on his head.

<sup>13</sup>When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road keeping watch, because his heart was anxious about the ark of God. And the man came to give a report in the city, and all the city cried out.

<sup>14</sup>When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, “What does the noise of this commotion mean?” Then the man came hurriedly and told Eli.

<sup>15</sup>Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were fixed and he could not see.

<sup>16</sup>The man said to Eli, “I am the one who came from the battle line. Indeed, I escaped from the battle line today.” And he said, “How are things, my son?”

<sup>17</sup>Then the one who brought the news replied, “Israel has fled before the Philistines and there has also been a great defeat among the people, and your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas are also dead; and the ark of God has been taken.”

<sup>18</sup>When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell off the seat backward beside the gate, and his neck was broken and he died, for he was old and heavy. And so he judged Israel for forty years.

<sup>19</sup>Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was pregnant and about to give birth; and when she heard the news that the ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she knelt down and gave birth, because her pains came upon her.

<sup>20</sup>And about the time of her death the women who were standing by her said to her, “Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son.” But she did not answer or pay attention.

<sup>21</sup>And she named the boy Ichabod, saying, “The glory has departed from Israel,” because the ark of God had been taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

<sup>22</sup>So she said, “The glory has departed from Israel, because the ark of God has been taken.”

1 Samuel 5

Capture of the Ark Provokes God

<sup>2</sup>Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon, and placed it beside Dagon.

<sup>3</sup>When the Ashdodites got up early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set him back in his place.

<sup>5</sup>For that reason neither the priests of Dagon nor any who enter Dagon’s house step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

<sup>6</sup>Now the hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and He made them feel devastated and struck them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territories.

<sup>7</sup>When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, “The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, because His hand is severe on us and on Dagon our god.”

<sup>8</sup>So they sent word and gathered all the governors of the Philistines to them, and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?” And they said, “Have the ark of the God of Israel brought to Gath.” So they took the ark of the God of Israel away.

<sup>9</sup>After they had taken it away, the hand of the LORD was against the city, creating a very great panic; and He struck the people of the city, from the young to the old, so that tumors broke out on them.

<sup>10</sup>So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, “They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!”

<sup>11</sup>Therefore they sent word and gathered all the governors of the Philistines, and said, “Send away the ark of the God of Israel and let it return to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people!” For there was a deadly panic throughout the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

<sup>12</sup>And the people who did not die were struck with tumors, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

The Ark Returned to Israel

<sup>2</sup>And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What are we to do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we may send it to its place.”

<sup>3</sup>And they said, “If you are going to send the ark of the God of Israel away, do not send it empty; but you shall certainly return to Him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be revealed to you why His hand does not leave you.”

<sup>4</sup>Then they said, “What is to be the guilt offering that we shall return to Him?” And they said, “Five gold tumors and five gold mice corresponding to the number of the governors of the Philistines, since one plague was on all of you and on your governors.

<sup>5</sup>So you shall make likenesses of your tumors and likenesses of your mice that are ruining the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand from you, your gods, and your land.

<sup>6</sup>Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them, did they not let the people go, and they left?

<sup>7</sup>Now then, take and prepare a new cart and two milk cows on which there has never been a yoke; and hitch the cows to the cart and take their calves back home, away from them.

<sup>8</sup>Then take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you return to Him as a guilt offering in a saddlebag by its side. Then send it away that it may go.

<sup>9</sup>But watch: if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth-shemesh, then He has done this great evil to us. But if not, then we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the men did so: they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut in their calves at home.

<sup>11</sup>And they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the saddlebag with the gold mice and the likenesses of their tumors.

<sup>12</sup>Now the cows went straight in the direction of Beth-shemesh; they went on the same road, bellowing as they went, and did not turn off to the right or to the left. And the governors of the Philistines followed them to the border of Beth-shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>Now the people of Beth-shemesh were gathering in their wheat harvest in the valley, and they raised their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced at seeing it.

<sup>14</sup>And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite and stopped there where there was a large stone; and they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the saddlebag that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>When the five governors of the Philistines saw it, they returned to Ekron that day.

<sup>17</sup>Now these are the gold tumors which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, and one for Ekron;

<sup>18</sup>and the gold mice, corresponding to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five governors, both of fortified cities and of country villages. The large stone on which they placed the ark of the LORD is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

<sup>19</sup>Now He fatally struck some of the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck 50,070 men among the people, and the people mourned because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

<sup>20</sup>And the men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom will He go up from us?”

<sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up to yourselves.”

1 Samuel 7

Israel Saved from the Philistines

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took the ark of the LORD and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and they consecrated his son Eleazar to watch over the ark of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>From the day that the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim, the time was long, for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel mourned after the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, “If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to the LORD and serve Him alone; and He will save you from the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>4</sup>So the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served the LORD alone.

<sup>5</sup>Then Samuel said, “Gather all Israel to Mizpah and I will pray to the LORD for you.”

<sup>6</sup>So they gathered to Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day and said there, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the governors of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the sons of Israel heard about it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup>So the sons of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, that He will save us from the hand of the Philistines!”

<sup>9</sup>Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup>Now Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, and the Philistines advanced to battle Israel. But the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day against the Philistines and confused them, so that they were struck down before Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And the men of Israel came out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and killed them as far as below Beth-car.

<sup>12</sup>Then Samuel took a stone and placed it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Ebenezer, saying, “So far the LORD has helped us.”

<sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not come anymore within the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

<sup>14</sup>The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel recovered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. So there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

Samuel’s Ministry

<sup>16</sup>And he used to go annually on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places.

<sup>17</sup>Then he would make his return to Ramah, because his house was there, and there he also judged Israel; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8

Israel Demands a King

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about, when Samuel was old, that he appointed his sons as judges over Israel.

<sup>2</sup>The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judging in Beersheba.

<sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah;

<sup>5</sup>and they said to him, “Behold, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

<sup>6</sup>But the matter was displeasing in the sight of Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” And Samuel prayed to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people regarding all that they say to you, because they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from being King over them.

<sup>8</sup>Like all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up from Egypt even to this day—in that they have abandoned Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you as well.

<sup>9</sup>Now then, listen to their voice; however, you shall warn them strongly and tell them of the practice of the king who will reign over them.”

Warning concerning a King

<sup>10</sup>So Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to the people who had asked him for a king.

<sup>11</sup>And he said, “This will be the practice of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and put them in his chariots for himself and among his horsemen, and they will run before his chariots.

<sup>12</sup>He will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to do his plowing and to gather in his harvest, and to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

<sup>13</sup>He will also take your daughters and use them as perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

<sup>14</sup>He will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.

<sup>15</sup>And he will take a tenth of your seed and your vineyards and give it to his high officials and his servants.

<sup>16</sup>He will also take your male servants and your female servants, and your best young men, and your donkeys, and use them for his work.

<sup>17</sup>He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his servants.

<sup>18</sup>Then you will cry out on that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you on that day.”

<sup>19</sup>Yet the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, “No, but there shall be a king over us, <sup>20</sup>so that we also may be like all the nations, and our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

<sup>21</sup>Now after Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the LORD’S hearing.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and appoint a king for them.” So Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go, every man to his city.”

1 Samuel 9

Saul’s Search

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, son of a Benjaminite, a valiant mighty man.

<sup>2</sup>He had a son whose name was Saul, a young and handsome man, and there was not a more handsome man than he among the sons of Israel; from his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup>Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul’s father, had wandered off. So Kish said to his son Saul, “Now take with you one of the servants and arise, go search for the donkeys.”

<sup>4</sup>So he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjaminites, but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup>When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, “Come, and let’s return, or else my father will stop being concerned about the donkeys and will become anxious about us.”

<sup>6</sup>But he said to him, “Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and the man is held in honor; everything that he says definitely comes true. Now let’s go there, perhaps he can tell us about our journey on which we have set out.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is gone from our sacks and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What do we have?”

<sup>8</sup>The servant answered Saul again and said, “Look, I have in my hand a fourth of a shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God and he will tell us our way.”

<sup>9</sup>(Previously in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he used to say, “Come, and let’s go to the seer”; for he who is called a prophet now was previously called a seer.)

<sup>10</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, “Good idea; come, let’s go.” So they went to the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup>As they went up the slope to the city, they found young women going out to draw water, and they said to them, “Is the seer here?”

<sup>12</sup>They answered them and said, “He is; see, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come into the city today, because the people have a sacrifice on the high place today.

<sup>13</sup>As soon as you enter the city you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now then, go up, for you will find him about this time.”

<sup>14</sup>So they went up to the city. As they came into the city, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

God’s Choice for King

<sup>15</sup>Now a day before Saul's coming, the LORD had revealed this to Samuel, saying,

<sup>16</sup>"About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as ruler over My people Israel; and he will save My people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have considered My people, because their outcry has come to Me."

<sup>17</sup>When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! This one shall rule over My people."

<sup>18</sup>Then Saul approached Samuel at the gateway and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

<sup>19</sup>And Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you everything that is on your mind.

<sup>20</sup>And as for your donkeys that wandered off three days ago, do not be concerned about them, for they have been found. And for whom is everything that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's household?"

<sup>21</sup>Saul replied, "Am I not a Benjaminite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me in this way?"

<sup>22</sup>Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those who were invited, who were about thirty men.

<sup>23</sup>And Samuel said to the cook, "Serve the portion that I gave you about which I said to you, 'Set it aside.'"

<sup>24</sup>Then the cook took up the leg with what was on it and placed it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Here is what has been reserved! Place it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you until the appointed time, since I said I have invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup>When they came down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof.

<sup>26</sup>And they got up early; and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, “Get up, so that I may send you on your way.” So Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

<sup>27</sup>As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Speak to the servant and have him go on ahead of us and pass by; but you stand here now, so that I may proclaim the word of God to you.”

1 Samuel 10

Saul among the Prophets

<sup>1</sup>Then Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it on Saul’s head, kissed him, and said, “Has the LORD not anointed you as ruler over His inheritance?

<sup>2</sup>When you leave me today, then you will find two men close to Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. Now behold, your father has stopped talking about the donkeys and is anxious about you, saying, “What am I to do about my son?”’

<sup>3</sup>Then you will go on farther from there, and you will come as far as the oak of Tabor, and there three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you: one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a jug of wine.

<sup>4</sup>And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from their hand.

<sup>5</sup>Afterward you will come to the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is; and it shall be as soon as you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and a lyre in front of them, and they will be prophesying.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD will rush upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be changed into a different man.

<sup>7</sup>And it shall be when these signs come to you, do for yourself what the occasion requires, because God is with you.

<sup>8</sup>And you shall go down ahead of me to Gilgal; and behold, I will be coming down to you to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings. You shall wait seven days until I come to you and inform you of what you should do.”

<sup>9</sup>Then it happened, when he turned his back to leave Samuel, that God changed his heart; and all those signs came about on that day.

<sup>10</sup>When they came there to the hill, behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God rushed upon him, so that he prophesied among them.

<sup>11</sup>And it came about, when all who previously knew him saw that he was indeed prophesying with the prophets, that the people said to one another, “What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

<sup>12</sup>And a man from there responded and said, “And who is their father?” Therefore it became a saying: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

<sup>13</sup>When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

<sup>14</sup>Now Saul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” And he said, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel.”

<sup>15</sup>Saul’s uncle said, “Please tell me what Samuel said to you.”

<sup>16</sup>So Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom which Samuel had mentioned.

Saul Publicly Chosen King

- <sup>17</sup>Now Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah;
- <sup>18</sup>and he said to the sons of Israel, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘I brought Israel up from Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’
- <sup>19</sup>But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your catastrophes and your distresses; yet you have said, ‘No, but put a king over us!’ Now then, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your groups of thousands.”
- <sup>20</sup>So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel forward; and the tribe of Benjamin was selected by lot.
- <sup>21</sup>Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin forward by its families, and the Matrite family was selected by lot. And Saul the son of Kish was selected by lot; but when they looked for him, he could not be found.
- <sup>22</sup>Therefore they inquired further of the LORD: “Has the man come here yet?” And the LORD said, “Behold, he is hiding himself among the baggage.”
- <sup>23</sup>So they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.
- <sup>24</sup>Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? Surely there is no one like him among all the people.” So all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!”
- <sup>25</sup>Then Samuel told the people the ordinances of the kingdom, and wrote them in the book, and placed it before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house.
- <sup>26</sup>Saul also went to his house in Gibeah; and the valiant men whose hearts God had touched went with him.
- <sup>27</sup>But certain useless men said, “How can this one save us?” And they despised him and did not bring him a gift. But he kept silent about it.

1 Samuel 11

Saul Defeats the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup>Now Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us and we will serve you.”

<sup>2</sup>But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “I will make it with you on this condition, that I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you, and thereby I will inflict a disgrace on all Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>So the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Allow us seven days to send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, and all the people raised their voices and wept.

<sup>5</sup>Now behold, Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, and Saul said, “What is the matter with the people that they weep?” So they reported to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of God rushed upon Saul when he heard these words, and he became very angry.

<sup>7</sup>He then took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, the same shall be done to his oxen.” Then the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one person.

<sup>8</sup>He counted them in Bezek; and the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah, thirty thousand.

<sup>9</sup>They said to the messengers who had come, “This is what you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will be saved.’” So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh; and they rejoiced.

<sup>10</sup>Then the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you.”

<sup>11</sup>The next morning Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp at the morning watch, and struck and killed the Ammonites until the heat of the day. And those who survived scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, “Who is he that said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, so that we may put them to death!”

<sup>13</sup>But Saul said, “Not a single person shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has brought about victory in Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.”

<sup>15</sup>So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they also offered sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

1 Samuel 12

Samuel Addresses Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then Samuel said to all Israel, “Behold, I have listened to your voice for all that you said to me, and I have appointed a king over you.

<sup>2</sup>Now, here is the king walking before you, but as for me, I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you. And I have walked before you since my youth to this day.

<sup>3</sup>Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and His anointed. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I exploited? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to close my eyes with it? I will return it to you.”

<sup>4</sup>And they said, “You have not exploited us or oppressed us, or taken anything from anyone’s hand.”

<sup>5</sup>So he said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day that you have found nothing in my hand.” And they said, “He is witness.”

<sup>6</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, take your stand, so that I may enter into judgment with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD that He did for you and your fathers.

<sup>8</sup>When Jacob went into Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

<sup>9</sup>But they forgot the LORD their God, so He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

<sup>10</sup>They cried out to the LORD and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have abandoned the LORD and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now save us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve You.’

<sup>11</sup>Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and saved you from the hands of your enemies all around, so that you lived in security.

The King Confirmed

<sup>12</sup>But when you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon was coming against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us!’ Yet the LORD your God was your king.

<sup>13</sup>And now, behold, the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for, and behold, the LORD has put a king over you.

<sup>14</sup>If you will fear the LORD and serve Him, and listen to His voice and not rebel against the command of the LORD, then both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God.

<sup>15</sup>But if you do not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the command of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, even as it was against your fathers.

<sup>16</sup>Even now, take your stand and see this great thing which the LORD is going to do before your eyes.

<sup>17</sup>Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, that He will send thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that your wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of the LORD, by asking for yourselves a king.”

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup>Then all the people said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so that we do not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, by asking for ourselves a king.”

<sup>20</sup>Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have committed all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

<sup>21</sup>Indeed, you must not turn aside, for then you would go after useless things which cannot benefit or save, because they are useless.

<sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not abandon His people on account of His great name, because the LORD has been pleased to make you a people for Himself.

<sup>23</sup>Furthermore, as for me, far be it from me that I would sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and right way.

<sup>24</sup>Only fear the LORD and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you.

<sup>25</sup>But if you still do evil, both you and your king will be swept away.”

1 Samuel 13

War with the Philistines

<sup>1</sup>Saul was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty-two years over Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Now Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel, of whom two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin. But he sent the rest of the people away, each to his tent.

<sup>3</sup>And Jonathan attacked the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!”

<sup>4</sup>And all Israel heard the news that Saul had attacked the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become repulsive to the Philistines. Then the people were summoned to Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>Now the Philistines assembled to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people like the sand which is on the seashore in abundance; and they came up and camped in Michmash, east of Beth-aven.

<sup>6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble (for the people were hard-pressed), then the people kept themselves hidden in caves, in crevices, in cliffs, in crypts, and in pits.

<sup>7</sup>And some of the Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. But as for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling.

<sup>8</sup>Now he waited for seven days, until the appointed time that Samuel had set, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattering from him.

<sup>9</sup>So Saul said, “Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings.” And he offered the burnt offering.

<sup>10</sup>But as soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him and to greet him.

<sup>11</sup>But Samuel said, “What have you done?” And Saul said, “Since I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come at the appointed time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>I thought, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not asked the favor of the LORD.’ So I worked up the courage and offered the burnt offering.”

<sup>13</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly! You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, for the LORD would now have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

<sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not endure. The LORD has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has appointed him ruler over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Samuel set out and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul counted the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

<sup>16</sup>Now Saul, his son Jonathan, and the people who were present with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

<sup>17</sup>Then raiders came from the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual, <sup>18</sup>and another company turned toward Beth-horon, and another company turned toward the border that overlooks the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup>Now no blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, because the Philistines said, “Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears.”

<sup>20</sup>So all Israel went down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, and his hoe.

<sup>21</sup>The charge was two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to fix the cattle goads.

<sup>22</sup>So it came about on the day of battle that neither sword nor spear was found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan, but they were found with Saul and his son Jonathan.

<sup>23</sup>And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the gorge of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14

Jonathan's Victory

<sup>1</sup>Now the day came that Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man who was carrying his armor, “Come, and let's cross over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

<sup>2</sup>Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is in Migron. And the people who were with him numbered about six hundred men;

<sup>3</sup>and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD at Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

<sup>4</sup>Now between the gorges by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the Philistines' garrison there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other, Seneh.

<sup>5</sup>The one crag rose on the north opposite Michmash, and the other on the south opposite Geba.

<sup>6</sup>Then Jonathan said to the young man who was carrying his armor, “Come, and let’s cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men; perhaps the LORD will work for us, because the LORD is not limited to saving by many or by few!”

<sup>7</sup>His armor bearer said to him, “Do everything that is in your heart; turn yourself to it, and here I am with you, as your heart desires.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Jonathan said, “Behold, we are going to cross over to the men and reveal ourselves to them.

<sup>9</sup>If they say to us, ‘Wait until we come to you’; then we will stand in our place and not go up to them.

<sup>10</sup>But if they say, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up, for the LORD has handed them over to us; and this shall be the sign to us.”

<sup>11</sup>When the two of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, “Behold, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have kept themselves hidden.”

<sup>12</sup>So the men of the garrison responded to Jonathan and his armor bearer and said, “Come up to us and we will inform you of something.” And Jonathan said to his armor bearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has handed them over to Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>Now that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer inflicted was about twenty men within about half a furrow in an acre of land.

<sup>15</sup>And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even the garrison and the raiders trembled, and the earth quaked so that it became a great trembling.

<sup>16</sup>Now Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude dissolved; they went here and there.

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to the people who were with him, "Look carefully now and see who has left us." And when they had looked, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

<sup>18</sup>Then Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For at that time the ark of God was with the sons of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>While Saul talked to the priest, the commotion in the camp of the Philistines continued and increased; so Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and came to the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow Philistine, and there was very great confusion.

<sup>21</sup>Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines previously, who went up with them all around in the camp, even they also returned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

<sup>22</sup>When all the men of Israel who had kept themselves hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, they also closely pursued them in the battle.

<sup>23</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle spread beyond Beth-aven.

Saul's Foolish Order

<sup>24</sup>Now the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day, for Saul had put the people under oath, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food before evening, and before I have avenged myself on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

<sup>25</sup>All the people of the land entered the forest, and there was honey on the ground.

<sup>26</sup>When the people entered the forest, behold, there was honey dripping; but no man put his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath.

<sup>27</sup>However, Jonathan had not heard it when his father put the people under oath; so he put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

<sup>28</sup>Then one of the people responded and said, “Your father strictly put the people under oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the man who eats food today.’” And the people were weary.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. See now that my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

<sup>30</sup>How much more, if only the people had freely eaten today of the spoils of their enemies which they found! For now the defeat among the Philistines has not been great.”

<sup>31</sup>They attacked the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. But the people were very tired.

<sup>32</sup>So the people loudly rushed upon the spoils, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

<sup>33</sup>Then observers informed Saul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating meat with the blood.” And he said, “You have acted treacherously; roll a large rock to me today.”

<sup>34</sup>Then Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, ‘Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and slaughter it here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating it with the blood.’” So all the people brought them that night, each one his ox with him, and they slaughtered them there.

<sup>35</sup>And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Then Saul said, “Let’s go down after the Philistines by night and take plunder among them until the morning light, and let’s not leave a man among them alive.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” So the priest said, “Let’s approach God here.”

<sup>37</sup>So Saul inquired of God: “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You hand them over to Israel?” But He did not answer him on that day.

<sup>38</sup>Then Saul said, “Come here, all you leaders of the people, and investigate and see how this sin has happened today.

<sup>39</sup>For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, even if it is in my son Jonathan, he shall assuredly die!” But not one of all the people answered him.

<sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, “You shall be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side.” And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>41</sup>Therefore, Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.” And Jonathan and Saul were selected by lot, but the people were exonerated.

<sup>42</sup>Then Saul said, “Cast lots between me and my son Jonathan.” And Jonathan was selected by lot.

<sup>43</sup>So Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” And Jonathan told him, and said, “I did indeed taste a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am, I must die!”

<sup>44</sup>And Saul said, “May God do the same to me and more also, for you shall certainly die, Jonathan!”

<sup>45</sup>But the people said to Saul, “Must Jonathan die, he who has brought about this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not even a hair of his head shall fall to the ground, because he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan and he did not die.

<sup>46</sup>Then Saul went up from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

Constant Warfare

<sup>47</sup>Now when Saul had taken control of the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, the sons of Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment.

<sup>48</sup>And he acted valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, and saved Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.

<sup>49</sup>Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchi-shua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal.

<sup>50</sup>And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

<sup>51</sup>Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup>Now the war against the Philistines was severe all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any warrior or any valiant man, he attached him to his staff.

1 Samuel 15

Saul's Disobedience

<sup>1</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel; now therefore, listen to the words of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: 'I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, in that he obstructed him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Now go and strike Amalek and completely destroy everything that he has, and do not spare him; but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.' "

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul summoned the people and counted them in Telaim: two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah.

<sup>5</sup>And Saul came to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the wadi.

<sup>6</sup>But Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, get away, go down from among the Amalekites, so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the sons of Israel when they went up from Egypt.” So the Kenites got away from among the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah going toward Shur, which is east of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>He captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

<sup>9</sup>But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the more valuable animals, the lambs, and everything that was good, and were unwilling to destroy them completely; but everything despicable and weak, that they completely destroyed.

Samuel Rebukes Saul

<sup>10</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“I regret that I have made Saul king, because he has turned back from following Me and has not carried out My commands.” And Samuel was furious and cried out to the LORD all night.

<sup>12</sup>Samuel got up early in the morning to meet Saul; and it was reported to Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, then turned and proceeded on down to Gilgal.”

<sup>13</sup>So Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you of the LORD! I have carried out the command of the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the bellowing of the oxen which I hear?”

<sup>15</sup>Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have completely destroyed.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop, and let me inform you of what the LORD said to me last night.” And he said to him, “Speak!”

<sup>17</sup>So Samuel said, “Is it not true, though you were insignificant in your own eyes, that you became the head of the tribes of Israel? For the LORD anointed you as king over Israel.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go and completely destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are eliminated.’

<sup>19</sup>Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Instead, you loudly rushed upon the spoils and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD!”

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, “I did obey the voice of the LORD, for I went on the mission on which the LORD sent me; and I have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have completely destroyed the Amalekites.

<sup>21</sup>But the people took some of the spoils, sheep and oxen, the choicest of the things designated for destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup>Samuel said, “Does the LORD have as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices As in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than a sacrifice, And to pay attention is better than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup>“For rebellion is as reprehensible as the sin of divination, And insubordination is as reprehensible as false religion and idolatry. Since you have rejected the word of the LORD, He has also rejected you from being king.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I have violated the command of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice.

<sup>25</sup>Now then, please pardon my sin and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Samuel turned to go, but Saul grasped the edge of his robe, and it tore off.

<sup>28</sup>So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor, who is better than you.

<sup>29</sup>Also the Glory of Israel will not lie nor change His mind; for He is not a man, that He would change His mind.”

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul said, “I have sinned; but please honor me now before the elders of my people and before all Israel, and go back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God.”

<sup>32</sup>Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites.” And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death is gone!”

<sup>33</sup>But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel cut Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul.

<sup>35</sup>And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, though Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

<sup>1</sup>Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long are you going to mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, because I have chosen a king for Myself among his sons.”

<sup>2</sup>But Samuel said, “How can I go? When Saul hears about it, he will kill me.” But the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’”

<sup>3</sup>And you shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what you shall do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I designate to you.”

<sup>4</sup>So Samuel did what the LORD told him, and he came to Bethlehem. Then the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, “Do you come in peace?”

<sup>5</sup>And he said, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup>When they entered, he looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is standing before Him.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass before Samuel. But he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one, either.”

<sup>9</sup>Next Jesse had Shammah pass by. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one, either.”

<sup>10</sup>So Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all the boys?” And he said, “The youngest is still left, but behold, he is tending the sheep.” So Samuel said to Jesse, “Send word and bring him; for we will not take our places at the table until he comes here.”

David Anointed

<sup>12</sup>So he sent word and brought him in. Now he was reddish, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.”

<sup>13</sup>So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon David from that day forward. And Samuel set out and went to Ramah.

<sup>15</sup>Saul’s servants then said to him, “Behold now, an evil spirit from God is terrifying you.

<sup>16</sup>May our lord now command your servants who are before you. Have them search for a man who is a skillful musician on the harp; and it shall come about whenever the evil spirit from God is upon you, that he shall play the harp with his hand, and you will become well.”

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, “Now select for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me.”

<sup>19</sup>So Saul sent messengers to Jesse to say, “Send me your son David, who is with the flock.”

<sup>21</sup>Then David came to Saul and attended him; and Saul greatly loved him, and he became his armor bearer.

<sup>22</sup>So Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, “Let David now be my attendant for he has found favor in my sight.”

<sup>23</sup>So it came about whenever the evil spirit from God came to Saul, David would take the harp and play it with his hand; and Saul would feel relieved and become well, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1 Samuel 17

Goliath's Challenge

<sup>2</sup>Saul and the men of Israel were assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah, and they drew up in battle formation to confront the Philistines.

<sup>3</sup>The Philistines were standing on the mountain on one side, while Israel was standing on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

<sup>4</sup>Then a champion came forward from the army encampment of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath. His height was six cubits and a span.

<sup>5</sup>And he had a bronze helmet on his head, and he wore scale-armor which weighed five thousand shekels of bronze.

<sup>8</sup>He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel and said to them, "Why do you come out to draw up in battle formation? Am I not the Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose a man as your representative and have him come down to me.

<sup>9</sup>If he is able to fight me and kill me, then we will become your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us."

<sup>10</sup>Then the Philistine said, “I have defied the ranks of Israel this day! Give me a man, so that we may fight together.”

<sup>11</sup>When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and very fearful.

<sup>12</sup>Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, the man whose name was Jesse, and he had eight sons. And Jesse was old in the days of Saul, advanced in years among men.

<sup>13</sup>The three older sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons who had gone into the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and second to him, Abinadab, and the third, Shammah.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesse said to his son David, “Take now for your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers.

<sup>18</sup>Bring also these ten slices of cheese to the commander of their thousand, and look into the well-being of your brothers and bring back confirmation from them.

<sup>19</sup>For Saul and they and all the men of Israel are in the Valley of Elah, fighting the Philistines.”

David Accepts the Challenge

<sup>20</sup>So David got up early in the morning and left the flock with a keeper, and took the supplies and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the entrenchment encircling the camp while the army was going out in battle formation, shouting the war cry.

<sup>21</sup>Israel and the Philistines drew up in battle formation, army against army.

<sup>23</sup>As he was speaking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the army of the Philistines, and he spoke these same words; and David heard him.

<sup>24</sup>When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him and were very fearful.

<sup>25</sup>And the men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. And it will be that the king will make the man who kills him wealthy with great riches, and will give him his daughter and make his father’s house free in Israel.”

<sup>26</sup>Then David said to the men who were standing by him, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and rids Israel of the disgrace? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has dared to defy the armies of the living God?”

<sup>27</sup>The people answered him in agreement with this statement, saying, “This is what will be done for the man who kills him.”

<sup>28</sup>Now Eliab his oldest brother heard him when he spoke to the men; and Eliab’s anger burned against David and he said, “Why is it that you have come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I myself know your insolence and the wickedness of your heart; for you have come down in order to see the battle.”

<sup>29</sup>But David said, “What have I done now? Was it not just a question?”

<sup>30</sup>Then he turned away from him to another and said the same thing; and the people replied with the same words as before.

David Kills Goliath

<sup>31</sup>When the words that David spoke were heard, they informed Saul, and he sent for him.

<sup>32</sup>And David said to Saul, “May no one’s heart fail on account of him; your servant will go and fight this Philistine!”

<sup>33</sup>But Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight him; for you are only a youth, while he has been a warrior since his youth.”

<sup>34</sup>But David said to Saul, “Your servant was tending his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a sheep from the flock, <sup>35</sup>I went out after it and attacked it, and rescued the sheep from its mouth; and when it rose up against me, I grabbed it by its mane and struck it and killed it.

<sup>36</sup>Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.”

<sup>37</sup>And David said, “The LORD who saved me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear, He will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you.”

<sup>39</sup>And David strapped on his sword over his military attire and struggled at walking, for he had not trained with the armor. So David said to Saul, “I cannot go with these, because I have not trained with them.” And David took them off.

<sup>40</sup>Then he took his staff in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the shepherd’s bag which he had, that is, in his shepherd’s pouch, and his sling was in his hand; and he approached the Philistine.

<sup>42</sup>When the Philistine looked and saw David, he was contemptuous of him; for he was only a youth, and reddish, with a handsome appearance.

<sup>43</sup>So the Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

<sup>44</sup>The Philistine also said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the wild animals.”

<sup>45</sup>But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a saber, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of armies, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

<sup>46</sup>This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I will strike you and remove your head from you. Then I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,

<sup>47</sup>and that this entire assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword or by spear; for the battle is the LORD’S, and He will hand you over to us!”

<sup>48</sup>Then it happened, when the Philistine came closer to meet David, that David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

<sup>50</sup>So David prevailed over the Philistine with the sling and the stone: he struck the Philistine and killed him, and there was no sword in David’s hand.

<sup>51</sup>Then David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and finished him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

<sup>52</sup>Then the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted, and they pursued the Philistines as far as the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the Philistine dead lay along the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and Ekron.

<sup>53</sup>Then the sons of Israel returned from their close pursuit of the Philistines, and plundered their camps.

<sup>54</sup>And David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his tent.

<sup>56</sup>And the king said, "You then, ask whose son the youth is."

<sup>57</sup>So when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand.

<sup>58</sup>Then Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1 Samuel 18

Jonathan and David

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about, when he had finished speaking to Saul, that Jonathan committed himself to David, and Jonathan loved him as himself.

<sup>2</sup>And Saul took him that day and did not let him return to his father's house.

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his military gear, including his sword, his bow, and his belt.

<sup>5</sup>And David went into battle wherever Saul sent him, and always achieved success; so Saul put him in charge of the men of war. And it was pleasing in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

<sup>6</sup>Now it happened as they were coming, when David returned from killing the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy and with other musical instruments.

<sup>7</sup>The women sang as they played, and said, “Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul became very angry, for this lyric displeased him; and he said, “They have given David credit for ten thousands, but to me they have given credit for only thousands! Now what more can he have but the kingdom?”

Saul Turns against David

<sup>10</sup>Now it came about on the next day that an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved in the midst of the house while David was playing the harp with his hand, as usual; and a spear was in Saul’s hand.

<sup>13</sup>So Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him as his commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

<sup>15</sup>When Saul saw that he was very successful, he was afraid of him.

<sup>16</sup>But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he would go out to battle and return before them.

<sup>17</sup>Then Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife, only be a valiant man for me and fight the LORD’s battles.”

For Saul thought, “My hand shall not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.”

<sup>18</sup>But David said to Saul, “Who am I, and who is my family, or my father’s family in Israel, that I should be the king’s son-in-law?”

<sup>19</sup>So it came about at the time that Merab, Saul’s daughter, was to be given to David, that she was given instead to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

David Marries Saul’s Daughter

<sup>20</sup>Now Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved David. When they informed Saul, the thing was pleasing to him.

<sup>21</sup>For Saul thought, “I will give her to him so that she may become a trap for him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David, “For a second time you may become my son-in-law, today.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Saul commanded his servants, “Speak to David in secret, saying, ‘Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king’s son-in-law.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>So Saul’s servants spoke these words to David. But David said, “Is it trivial in your sight to become the king’s son-in-law, since I am only a poor man and insignificant?”

<sup>25</sup>Saul then said, “This is what you shall say to David: ‘The king does not desire any dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king’s enemies.’ ” But Saul plotted to have David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

<sup>26</sup>When his servants told David these words, it pleased David to become the king’s son-in-law. So before the time had expired,

<sup>27</sup>David set out and went, he and his men, and fatally struck two hundred men among the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins, and they presented all two hundred of them to the king, so that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife.

<sup>28</sup>When Saul saw and realized that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him, <sup>29</sup>then Saul was even more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy continually.

<sup>30</sup>Then the commanders of the Philistines went to battle, and it happened as often as they went out, that David was more successful than all the servants of Saul. So his name was held in high esteem.

1 Samuel 19

David Protected from Saul

<sup>1</sup>Now Saul told his son Jonathan and all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David.

<sup>2</sup>So Jonathan informed David, saying, "My father Saul is seeking to put you to death. Now then, please be on your guard in the morning, and stay in a hiding place and conceal yourself.

<sup>3</sup>And as for me, I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are hiding, and I will speak with my father about you; and whatever I find out, I will tell you."

<sup>4</sup>Then Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul and said to him, "May the king not sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds have been very beneficial to you.

<sup>5</sup>For he took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel; you saw it and rejoiced. Why then would you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death for no reason?"

<sup>7</sup>Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

<sup>8</sup>When there was war again, David went out and fought the Philistines and defeated them with great slaughter, so that they fled from him.

<sup>9</sup>Now there was an evil spirit from the LORD on Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was playing the harp with his hand.

<sup>10</sup>And Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he escaped from Saul's presence, so that he stuck the spear into the wall. And David fled and escaped that night.

<sup>11</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, in order to put him to death in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, informed him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death!"

<sup>12</sup>So Michal let David down through a window, and he went and fled, and escaped.

<sup>14</sup>When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

<sup>15</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on his bed, so that I may put him to death."

<sup>16</sup>When the messengers entered, behold, the household idol was on the bed with the quilt of goats' hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to Michal, "Why have you betrayed me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I put you to death?'"

<sup>18</sup>So David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah; and he informed him of everything that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to take David, but when they saw the company of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing and presiding over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul; and they also prophesied.

<sup>21</sup>When Saul was informed of this, he sent other messengers, but they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again the third time, yet they prophesied.

<sup>22</sup>Then he went to Ramah himself and came as far as the large well that is in Secu; and he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” And someone said, “Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.”

<sup>23</sup>So he proceeded there to Naioth in Ramah; but the Spirit of God came upon him also, so that he went along prophesying continually until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

<sup>24</sup>He also stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel and lay down naked all that day and all night. Therefore they say, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 20

David and Jonathan's Covenant

<sup>1</sup>Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and he came and said to Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?”

<sup>2</sup>He said to him, “Far from it, you shall not die! Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without informing me. So why would my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!”

<sup>3</sup>Yet David vowed again, saying, “Your father is well aware that I have found favor in your sight, and he has said, ‘Jonathan is not to know this, otherwise he will be worried.’ But indeed as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is just a step between me and death.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”

<sup>5</sup>So David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I am obligated to sit down to eat with the king. But let me go so that I may hide myself in the field until the third evening.

<sup>6</sup>If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly requested leave of me to run to Bethlehem, his city, because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.’

<sup>7</sup>If he says, ‘That is good,’ your servant will be safe; but if he is very angry, be aware that he has decided on evil.

<sup>8</sup>So deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if I am guilty of wrongdoing, kill me yourself; for why then should you bring me to your father?”

<sup>9</sup>Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I in fact learn that my father has decided to inflict harm on you, would I not inform you?”

<sup>10</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will inform me if your father answers you harshly?”

<sup>11</sup>Jonathan said to David, “Come, and let’s go out to the field.” So both of them went out to the field.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “The LORD, the God of Israel, is my witness! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, behold, if he has a good feeling toward you, shall I not then send word to you and inform you?

<sup>13</sup>If it pleases my father to do you harm, may the LORD do so to me and more so, if I fail to inform you and send you away, so that you may go in safety. And may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.

<sup>14</sup>And if I am still alive, will you not show me the faithfulness of the LORD, so that I do not die?

<sup>17</sup>And Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, because he loved him as he loved his own life.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed since your seat will be empty.

<sup>19</sup>When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day, and you shall remain beside the stone Ezel.

<sup>20</sup>And I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target.

<sup>21</sup>Then behold, I will send the boy, telling him, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I specifically say to the boy, ‘Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, get them,’ then come, because it is safe for you and there is nothing to harm you, as the LORD lives.

<sup>22</sup>But if I say to the youth, ‘Behold, the arrows are beyond you,’ go, because the LORD has sent you away.

<sup>23</sup>As for the agreement of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me forever.”

<sup>24</sup>So David hid himself in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.

<sup>25</sup>Now the king sat on his seat as usual, the seat by the wall; then Jonathan stood up and Abner sat down by Saul’s side; but David’s place was empty.

<sup>26</sup>Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, because he thought, “It must have been an accident; he is not clean, undoubtedly he is not clean.”

<sup>27</sup>But it came about the next day, the second day of the new moon, that David's place was empty again; so Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

<sup>29</sup>He said, 'Please let me go, because our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has ordered me to attend. So now, if I have found favor in your sight, please let me slip away so that I may see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

Saul Is Angry with Jonathan

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul's anger burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

<sup>31</sup>For, as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now then, send men and bring him to me, for he is doomed to die!"

<sup>32</sup>But Jonathan replied to his father Saul and said to him, "Why must he be put to death? What has he done?"

<sup>33</sup>Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike and kill him; so Jonathan knew that his father had decided to put David to death.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jonathan got up from the table in the heat of anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, because he was worried about David since his father had insulted him.

<sup>35</sup>Now it came about in the morning that Jonathan went out to the field at the time agreed upon with David, and a little boy was with him.

<sup>36</sup>He said to his boy, "Run, find now the arrows which I am about to shoot." The boy ran, and he shot an arrow past him.

<sup>37</sup>When the boy reached the location of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the boy and said, “Is the arrow not beyond you?”

<sup>39</sup>But the boy was not aware of anything; only Jonathan and David knew about the matter.

<sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy and said to him, “Go, bring them to the city.”

<sup>41</sup>When the boy was gone, David got up from the south side, then he fell on his face to the ground and bowed three times. And they kissed each other and wept together, until David wept immeasurably.

<sup>42</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in safety, since we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.’” So David set out and went on his way, while Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel 21

David Takes Consecrated Bread

<sup>1</sup>Then David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came trembling to meet David and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one with you?”

<sup>2</sup>David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commissioned me with a matter and has said to me, ‘No one is to know anything about the matter on which I am sending you and with which I have commissioned you; and I have directed the young men to a certain place.’

<sup>3</sup>Now then, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found.”

<sup>4</sup>The priest answered David and said, “There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread, if only the young men have kept themselves from women.”

<sup>5</sup>David answered the priest and said to him, “Be assured, women have been denied to us as previously when I left and the bodies of the young men were consecrated, though it was an ordinary journey; how much more then will their bodies be consecrated today?”

<sup>6</sup>So the priest gave him consecrated bread; for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence which was removed from its place before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day it was taken away.

<sup>7</sup>Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s shepherds.

<sup>8</sup>David said to Ahimelech, “Now is there no spear or sword on hand? For I brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s matter was urgent.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you would take it for yourself, take it. For there is no other except it here.” And David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then David set out and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath.

<sup>11</sup>But the servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David, the king of the land? Did they not sing of this one as they danced, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>13</sup>So he disguised his sanity while in their sight and acted insanely in their custody, and he scribbled on the doors of the gate, and drooled on his beard.

<sup>14</sup>Then Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see the man is behaving like an insane person. Why do you bring him to me?”

<sup>15</sup>Do I lack insane people, that you have brought this one to behave like an insane person in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?”

1 Samuel 22

Priests Killed at Nob

<sup>1</sup>So David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father’s household heard about it, they went down there to him.

<sup>2</sup>Then everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Now there were about four hundred men with him.

<sup>3</sup>And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and my mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me.”

<sup>5</sup>But Gad the prophet said to David, “Do not stay in the stronghold; leave, and go into the land of Judah.” So David left and went into the forest of Hereth.

<sup>6</sup>Then Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under the tamarisk tree on the height with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing in front of him.

<sup>7</sup>Saul said to his servants who were standing in front of him, “Hear now, you Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse really give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?”

<sup>8</sup>For all of you have conspired against me so that there is no one who informs me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who cares about me or informs me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush, as it is this day.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing in front of the servants of Saul, responded and said, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

<sup>10</sup>And he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the king sent a messenger to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father’s household, the priests who were in Nob; and all of them came to the king.

<sup>12</sup>Saul said, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.” And he replied, “Here I am, my lord.”

<sup>13</sup>Saul then said to him, “Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, so that he would rise up against me by lying in ambush as it is this day?”

<sup>14</sup>Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, “And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, the king’s own son-in-law, who is commander over your bodyguard, and is honored in your house?

<sup>15</sup>Did I just begin to inquire of God for him today? Far be it from me! Do not let the king impute anything against his servant or against any of the household of my father, because your servant knows nothing at all of this whole affair.”

<sup>16</sup>But the king said, “You shall certainly die, Ahimelech, you and all your father’s household!”

<sup>17</sup>And the king said to the guards who were attending him, “Turn around and put the priests of the LORD to death, because their hand also is with David and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not inform me.” But the servants of the king were unwilling to reach out with their hands to attack the priests of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king said to Doeg, “You, turn around and attack the priests!” And Doeg the Edomite turned around and attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

<sup>19</sup>He also struck Nob the city of the priests with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and infants; he also struck oxen, donkeys, and sheep with the edge of the sword.

<sup>20</sup>But one son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled to David.

<sup>22</sup>Then David said to Abiathar, “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would certainly tell Saul. I myself have turned against every person in your father’s household.

<sup>23</sup>Stay with me; do not be afraid, even though he who is seeking my life is seeking your life. For you are safe with me.”

1 Samuel 23

David Saves Keilah

<sup>2</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” And the LORD said to David, “Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah.”

<sup>3</sup>But David’s men said to him, “Behold, we are fearful here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?”

<sup>4</sup>So David inquired of the LORD once more. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I am going to hand the Philistines over to you.”

<sup>6</sup>Now it came about, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

<sup>7</sup>When it was reported to Saul that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, “God has handed him over to me, for he shut himself in by entering a city with double gates and bars.”

<sup>8</sup>So Saul summoned all the people for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>But David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; so he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.”

<sup>10</sup>Then David said, “LORD God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to destroy the city on my account.

<sup>11</sup>Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? LORD God of Israel, please, tell Your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.”

<sup>12</sup>Then David said, “Will the citizens of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will hand you over.”

<sup>13</sup>Then David and his men, about six hundred, rose up and departed from Keilah, and they went wherever they could go. When it was reported to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the pursuit.

<sup>14</sup>David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul searched for him every day, but God did not hand him over to him.

Saul Pursues David

<sup>15</sup>Now David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph, at Horesh.

<sup>16</sup>And Jonathan, Saul's son, set out and went to David at Horesh, and encouraged him in God.

<sup>17</sup>He said to him, "Do not be afraid, because the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you will be king over Israel, and I will be second in command to you; and Saul my father knows that as well."

<sup>18</sup>So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; and David stayed at Horesh, while Jonathan went to his house.

<sup>19</sup>Then Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not keeping himself hidden with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?"

<sup>20</sup>Now then, O king, come down, since you fully desire to do so; and our part shall be to hand him over to the king."

<sup>21</sup>Saul said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, since you have had compassion on me.

<sup>22</sup>Go now, be more persistent, and investigate and see his place where he is hiding, and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning.

<sup>23</sup>So look, and learn about all the hiding places where he keeps himself hidden, and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah."

<sup>24</sup>So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

<sup>25</sup>When Saul and his men went to seek him, they informed David, and he came down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard about it, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.

<sup>27</sup>But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have launched an attack against the land!”

<sup>28</sup>So Saul returned from pursuing David and went to confront the Philistines; therefore they called that place the Rock of Division.

<sup>29</sup>And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of Engedi.

1 Samuel 24

David Spares Saul’s Life

<sup>3</sup>And he came to the sheepfolds on the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the inner recesses of the cave.

<sup>4</sup>Then David’s men said to him, “Behold, this is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Behold; I am about to hand your enemy over to you, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.’ ” Then David got up and cut off the edge of Saul’s robe secretly.

<sup>5</sup>But it came about afterward that David’s conscience bothered him because he had cut off the edge of Saul’s robe.

<sup>6</sup>So he said to his men, “Far be it from me because of the LORD that I would do this thing to my lord, the LORD’S anointed, to reach out with my hand against him, since he is the LORD’S anointed.”

<sup>7</sup>And David rebuked his men with these words and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul got up, left the cave, and went on his way.

<sup>8</sup>Afterward, however, David got up and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

<sup>9</sup>And David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Behold, David is seeking to harm you’?

<sup>10</sup>Behold, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD had handed you over to me today in the cave, and someone said to kill you, but I spared you; and I said, ‘I will not reach out with my hand against my lord, because he is the LORD’s anointed.’

<sup>11</sup>So, my father, look! Indeed, look at the edge of your robe in my hand! For by the fact that I cut off the edge of your robe but did not kill you, know and understand that there is no evil or rebellion in my hands, and I have not sinned against you, though you are lying in wait for my life, to take it.

<sup>12</sup>May the LORD judge between you and me, and may the LORD take vengeance on you for me; but my hand shall not be against you.

<sup>13</sup>As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes wickedness’; but my hand shall not be against you.

<sup>14</sup>After whom has the king of Israel gone out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog, a single flea?

<sup>15</sup>May the LORD therefore be judge and decide between you and me; and may He see and plead my cause and save me from your hand.”

<sup>16</sup>When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Then Saul raised his voice and wept.

<sup>17</sup>And he said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have dealt well with me, while I have dealt maliciously with you.

<sup>18</sup>You have declared today that you have done good to me, that the LORD handed me over to you and yet you did not kill me.

<sup>19</sup>Though if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away unharmed? May the LORD therefore reward you with good in return for what you have done to me this day.

<sup>20</sup>Now, behold, I know that you will certainly be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.

<sup>21</sup>So now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not eliminate my name from my father's household."

<sup>22</sup>And David swore an oath to Saul. Then Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25

Samuel's Death

<sup>1</sup>Then Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and they buried him at his house in Ramah. And David set out and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

Nabal and Abigail

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel; and the man was very rich, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And it came about while he was shearing his sheep in Carmel

<sup>3</sup>(now the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. And the woman was intelligent and beautiful in appearance, but the man was harsh and evil in his dealings, and he was a Calebite),

<sup>5</sup>So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel and visit Nabal, and greet him in my name;

<sup>6</sup>and this is what you shall say: 'Have a long life, peace to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!'

<sup>7</sup>Now then, I have heard that you have shearers. Now, your shepherds have been with us; we have not harmed them, nor has anything of theirs gone missing all the days they were in Carmel.

<sup>8</sup>Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a festive day. Please give whatever you find at hand to your servants and to your son David.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>When David’s young men came, they spoke to Nabal in accordance with all these words in David’s name; then they waited.

<sup>10</sup>But Nabal answered David’s servants and said, “Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are each breaking away from his master.

<sup>11</sup>Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men whose origin I do not know?”

<sup>12</sup>So David’s young men made their way back and returned; and they came and informed him in accordance with all these words.

<sup>15</sup>Yet the men were very good to us, and we were not harmed, nor did anything go missing as long as we went with them, while we were in the fields.

<sup>16</sup>They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the time we were with them tending the sheep.

<sup>17</sup>Now then, be aware and consider what you should do, because harm is plotted against our master and against all his household; and he is such a worthless man that no one can speak to him.”

Abigail Intercedes

<sup>18</sup>Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread and two jugs of wine, and five sheep already prepared and five measures of roasted grain, and a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and she loaded them on donkeys.

<sup>19</sup>Then she said to her young men, “Go on ahead of me; behold, I am coming after you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup>And it happened as she was riding on her donkey and coming down by the hidden part of the mountain, that behold, David and his men were coming down toward her; so she met them.

<sup>21</sup>Now David had said, “It is certainly for nothing that I have guarded everything that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing has gone missing of all that belonged to him! For he has returned me evil for good.

<sup>22</sup>May God do so to the enemies of David, and more so, if by morning I leave alive as much as one male of any who belong to him.”

<sup>23</sup>When Abigail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from her donkey, and fell on her face in front of David and bowed herself to the ground.

<sup>24</sup>She fell at his feet and said, “On me alone, my lord, be the blame. And please let your slave speak to you, and listen to the words of your slave.

<sup>25</sup>Please do not let my lord pay attention to this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and stupidity is with him; but I your slave did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

<sup>26</sup>“Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, since the LORD has restrained you from shedding blood, and from avenging yourself by your own hand, now then, may your enemies and those who seek evil against my lord, be like Nabal.

<sup>27</sup>And now let this gift which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who accompany my lord.

<sup>28</sup>Please forgive the offense of your slave; for the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil will not be found in you all your days.

<sup>29</sup>Should anyone rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies He will sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

<sup>30</sup>And when the LORD does for my lord in accordance with all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and appoints you ruler over Israel,

<sup>31</sup>this will not become an obstacle to you, or a troubled heart to my lord, both by having shed blood without cause and by my lord's having avenged himself. When the LORD deals well with my lord, then remember your slave."

<sup>32</sup>Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me, <sup>33</sup>and blessed be your discernment, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodshed and from avenging myself by my own hand.

<sup>34</sup>Nevertheless, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, there certainly would not have been left to Nabal until the morning light as much as one male."

<sup>35</sup>So David accepted from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, "Go up to your house in peace. See, I have listened to you and granted your request."

<sup>36</sup>Then Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he was having a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was cheerful within him, for he was very drunk; so she did not tell him anything at all until the morning light.

<sup>37</sup>But in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him so that he became like a stone.

<sup>38</sup>About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

David Marries Abigail

<sup>39</sup>When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of the shame inflicted on me by the hand of Nabal, and has kept back His servant from evil. The LORD has also returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head.” Then David sent a proposal to Abigail, to take her as his wife.

<sup>40</sup>When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, “David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife.”

<sup>44</sup>But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26

David Again Spares Saul

<sup>1</sup>Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not keeping himself hidden on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon?”

<sup>2</sup>So Saul set out and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, taking with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

<sup>3</sup>And Saul camped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, beside the road, and David was staying in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness, <sup>4</sup>David sent out spies, and he learned that Saul was definitely coming.

<sup>5</sup>David then set out and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying in the circle of the camp, and the people were camped around him.

<sup>6</sup>Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

<sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping inside the circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him.

<sup>8</sup>Then Abishai said to David, "Today God has handed your enemy over to you; now then, please let me pin him with the spear to the ground with one thrust, and I will not do it to him a second time."

<sup>9</sup>But David said to Abishai, "Do not kill him, for who can reach out with his hand against the LORD's anointed and remain innocent?"

<sup>10</sup>David also said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD certainly will strike him, or his day will come that he dies, or he will go down in battle and perish.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD forbid that I would reach out with my hand against the LORD's anointed! But now please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let's go."

<sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and the jug of water that were at Saul's head, and they left; and no one saw or knew about it, nor did anyone awaken, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

<sup>13</sup>Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance with a large area between them.

<sup>14</sup>And David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, “Will you not answer, Abner?” Then Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?”

<sup>15</sup>So David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came to kill the king your lord!

<sup>16</sup>This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, all of you undoubtedly must die, because you did not guard your lord, the LORD’s anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is and the jug of water that was at his head!”

<sup>17</sup>Then Saul recognized David’s voice and said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And David said, “It is my voice, my lord the king.”

<sup>18</sup>He also said, “Why then is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?

<sup>19</sup>Now then, please let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If the LORD has incited you against me, may He accept an offering; but if it is people, cursed are they before the LORD, because they have driven me out today so that I would have no share in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’

<sup>20</sup>Now then, do not let my blood fall to the ground far from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, just as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again since my life was precious in your sight this day. Behold, I have played the fool and have made a very great mistake.”

<sup>22</sup>David replied, “Behold, the spear of the king! Now have one of the young men come over and take it.

<sup>23</sup>And the LORD will repay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD handed you over to me today, but I refused to reach out with my hand against the LORD’S anointed.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore behold, just as your life was highly valued in my sight this day, so may my life be highly valued in the sight of the LORD, and may He rescue me from all distress.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, “Blessed are you, my son David; you will both accomplish much and assuredly prevail.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27

David Flees to the Philistines

<sup>1</sup>Then David said to himself, “Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to safely escape into the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will despair of searching for me anymore in all the territory of Israel, and I will escape from his hand.”

<sup>2</sup>So David set out and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

<sup>4</sup>Now it was reported to Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer searched for him.

<sup>5</sup>Then David said to Achish, “If now I have found favor in your sight, have them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, so that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

<sup>6</sup>So Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

<sup>7</sup>The number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup>Now David and his men went up and attacked the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for they were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to Shur even as far as the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>David attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, and he took the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish.

<sup>10</sup>Now Achish said, “Where did you carry out an attack today?” And David said, “Against the Negev of Judah, against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites, and against the Negev of the Kenites.”

<sup>11</sup>And David did not leave a man or a woman alive to bring to Gath, saying, “Otherwise they will tell about us, saying, ‘This is what David has done, and this has been his practice all the time that he has lived in the country of the Philistines.’”

<sup>12</sup>So Achish believed David, saying, “He has undoubtedly made himself repulsive among his people Israel; therefore he will become my servant forever.”

1 Samuel 28

Saul and the Spirit Medium

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armed camps for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, “Know for certain that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men.”

<sup>2</sup>David said to Achish, “Very well, you will learn what your servant can do.” So Achish said to David, “Then I will assuredly make you my bodyguard for life!”

<sup>3</sup>Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land.

<sup>6</sup>So Saul inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him, either in dreams, or by the Urim, or by the prophets.

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servants, "Find for me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, there is a woman who is a medium at En-dor."

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, "Consult the spirit for me, please, and bring up for me the one whom I shall name for you."

<sup>9</sup>But the woman said to him, "Behold, you know what Saul has done, that he has eliminated the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why are you then setting a trap for my life, to bring about my death?"

<sup>10</sup>So Saul swore an oath to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

<sup>11</sup>Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

<sup>12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!"

<sup>13</sup>But the king said to her, "Do not be afraid; but what do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a divine being coming up from the earth."

<sup>14</sup>He said to her, “How does he appear?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped in a robe.” Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid homage.

<sup>15</sup>And Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” Saul replied, “I am very distressed, for the Philistines are waging war against me, and God has abandoned me and no longer answers me, either through prophets or in dreams; therefore I have called you, so that you may let me know what I should do.”

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said, “But why ask me, since the LORD has abandoned you and has become your enemy?

<sup>17</sup>And the LORD has done just as He spoke through me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom from your hand and given it to your neighbor, to David.

<sup>18</sup>Just as you did not obey the LORD and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

<sup>19</sup>Furthermore, the LORD will also hand Israel along with you over to the Philistines; so tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Indeed, the LORD will hand the army of Israel over to the Philistines!”

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul immediately fell full length to the ground and was very afraid because of Samuel’s words; there was no strength in him either, because he had eaten no food all day and all night.

<sup>21</sup>The woman came to Saul and saw that he was utterly horrified, and she said to him, “Behold, your servant has obeyed you, and I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.

<sup>22</sup>So now you too, please listen to the voice of your servant, and let me serve you a piece of bread, and eat it, so that you will have strength when you go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup>But he refused and said, “I will not eat.” However, his servants together with the woman urged him, and he listened to them. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.

<sup>24</sup>Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it; then she took flour, kneaded it and baked unleavened bread from it.

<sup>25</sup>She then served it to Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they got up and left that night.

1 Samuel 29

The Philistines Mistrust David

<sup>2</sup>And the governors of the Philistines were proceeding on, leading hundreds and thousands, and David and his men were proceeding in the back with Achish.

<sup>3</sup>Then the commanders of the Philistines said, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found nothing at all suspicious in him since the day he deserted to me to this day?”

<sup>4</sup>But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man go back, so that he will return to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, or in the battle he may become an adversary to us. For how could this man find favor with his lord? Would it not be with the heads of these men?”

<sup>5</sup>Is this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>6</sup>Then Achish called David and said to him, “As the LORD lives, you have indeed been honest, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army are pleasing in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, you are not pleasing in the sight of the governors.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, return and go in peace, so that you will not do anything wrong in the sight of the governors of the Philistines.”

<sup>8</sup>However, David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant since the day that I came before you, to this day, that I cannot go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

<sup>9</sup>But Achish replied to David, “I know that you are pleasing in my sight, like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He must not go up with us into the battle.’

<sup>10</sup>Now then, rise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you, and as soon as you have risen early in the morning and have light, leave.”

<sup>11</sup>So David got up early, he and his men, to leave in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

David’s Victory over the Amalekites

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had carried out an attack on the Negev and on Ziklag, and had overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire;

<sup>2</sup>and they took captive the women and all who were in it, from the small to the great, without killing anyone, and drove them off and went their way.

<sup>3</sup>When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.

<sup>4</sup>Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept until there was no strength in them to weep.

<sup>5</sup>Now David's two wives had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

<sup>6</sup>Also, David was in great distress because the people spoke of stoning him, for all the people were embittered, each one because of his sons and his daughters. But David felt strengthened in the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

<sup>8</sup>And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this band of raiders? Will I overtake them?" And He said to him, "Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will certainly rescue everyone."

<sup>10</sup>But David pursued, he and four hundred men, for two hundred who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor stayed behind.

<sup>11</sup>Now they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David, and gave him bread and he ate, and they provided him water to drink.

<sup>12</sup>They also gave him a slice of fig cake and two cakes of raisins, and he ate; then his spirit revived. For he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man of Egypt, a servant of an Amalekite; and my master abandoned me when I became sick three days ago.

<sup>14</sup>We carried out an attack on the Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire."

<sup>15</sup>Then David said to him, “Will you bring me down to this band of raiders?” And he said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will bring you down to this band.”

<sup>16</sup>Now when he had brought him down, behold, they were dispersed over all the land, eating and drinking and celebrating because of all the great plunder that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and rescued his two wives.

<sup>19</sup>And nothing of theirs was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, plunder, or anything that they had taken for themselves; David brought it all back.

<sup>20</sup>So David had captured all the sheep and the cattle which the people drove ahead of the other livestock, and they said, “This is David’s plunder.”

The Plunder Is Divided

<sup>21</sup>When David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow David and had been left behind at the brook Besor, and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him, then David approached the people and greeted them.

<sup>22</sup>Then all the wicked and worthless men among those who went with David said, “Since they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoils that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, so that they may lead them away and leave.”

<sup>23</sup>But David said, “You must not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us, for He has protected us and handed over to us the band of raiders that came against us.

<sup>24</sup>And who will listen to you in this matter? For as is the share of the one who goes down into the battle, so shall be the share of the one who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.”

<sup>25</sup>So it has been from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

<sup>26</sup>Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoils to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “Behold, a gift for you from the spoils of the enemies of the LORD:

<sup>27</sup>to those who were in Bethel, to those who were in Ramoth of the Negev, to those who were in Jattir,

<sup>28</sup>to those who were in Aroer, to those who were in Siphmoth, to those who were in Eshtemoa,

<sup>29</sup>to those who were in Racal, to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, to those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

<sup>30</sup>to those who were in Hormah, to those who were in Bor-ashan, to those who were in Athach,

<sup>31</sup>to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men walked.”

1 Samuel 31

Saul and His Sons Killed in Battle

<sup>1</sup>Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from the Philistines but fell fatally wounded on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>3</sup>The battle went heavily against Saul, and the archers found him; and he was gravely wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised Philistines will come and pierce me through, and abuse me.” But his armor bearer was unwilling, because he was very fearful. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him.

<sup>6</sup>So Saul died with his three sons, his armor bearer, and all his men on that day together.

<sup>7</sup>Now when the people of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, with those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the Philistines came and settled in them.

<sup>8</sup>It came about on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip those killed, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>10</sup>They put his weapons in the temple of Ashtaroth, and they nailed his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

<sup>12</sup>all the valiant men got up and walked all night, and they took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

<sup>13</sup>And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

2 Samuel

2 Samuel 1

David Learns of Saul's Death

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David stayed two days in Ziklag.

<sup>2</sup>And on the third day, behold, a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dust on his head. And it happened when he came to David, he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

<sup>3</sup>Then David said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>David said to him, "How did things go? Please tell me." And he said, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

<sup>5</sup>Then David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup>The young man who told him said, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And behold, the chariots and the horsemen had overtaken him.

<sup>7</sup>When he looked behind himself, he saw me, and called to me. And I said, 'Here I am.'

<sup>8</sup>Then he said to me, 'Who are you?' And I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

<sup>9</sup>And he said to me, 'Please stand next to me and finish me off, for agony has seized me because my life still lingers in me.'

<sup>10</sup>So I stood next to him and finished him off, because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown which was on his head and the band which was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>11</sup>Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and so also did all the men who were with him.

<sup>12</sup>And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the people of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to the young man who informed him, “Where are you from?” And he answered, “I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.”

<sup>14</sup>And David said to him, “How is it you were not afraid to reach out with your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

<sup>15</sup>Then David called one of the young men and said, “Come forward, put him to death.” So he struck him and he died.

<sup>16</sup>And David said to him, “Your blood is on your head, because your own mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have finished off the LORD’s anointed.’”

David’s Song of Mourning for Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup>Then David sang this song of mourning over Saul and his son Jonathan,

<sup>19</sup>“Your beauty, Israel, is slaughtered on your high places! How the mighty have fallen!

<sup>20</sup>“Tell it not in Gath, Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, Or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, The daughters of the uncircumcised will celebrate.

<sup>22</sup>“From the blood of those slaughtered, from the fat of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan did not turn back, And the sword of Saul did not return unstained.

<sup>23</sup>“Saul and Jonathan, beloved and delightful in life, And in their deaths they were not separated; They were swifter than eagles, They were mightier than lions.

<sup>24</sup>“Daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you in scarlet, with jewelry, Who put gold jewelry on your apparel.

<sup>25</sup>“How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slaughtered on your high places.

<sup>26</sup>“I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; You have been a close friend to me. Your love for me was more wonderful Than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup>“How the mighty have fallen, And the weapons of war have perished!”

2 Samuel 2

David Made King over Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then it came about afterward that David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?” And the LORD said to him, “Go up.” So David said, “Where shall I go up?” And He said, “To Hebron.”

<sup>3</sup>And David brought up his men who were with him, each with his household; and they settled in the cities of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, “It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul.”

<sup>5</sup>So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, “May you be blessed of the LORD because you have shown this kindness to Saul your lord, and have buried him.

<sup>6</sup>And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you; and I also will show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, let your hands be strong and be valiant, since Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

Ish-bosheth Made King over Israel

<sup>8</sup>But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

<sup>9</sup>And he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, even over all Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he was king for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

<sup>11</sup>And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

Civil War

<sup>12</sup>Now Abner the son of Ner, went from Mahanaim to Gibeon with the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul.

<sup>13</sup>And Joab the son of Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, Abner’s men on the one side of the pool and Joab’s men on the other side of the pool.

<sup>14</sup>Then Abner said to Joab, “Now have the young men arise and hold a martial skills match in our presence.” And Joab said, “Have them arise!”

<sup>15</sup>So they got up and went over by count, twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

<sup>17</sup>That day the battle was very severe, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by the servants of David.

<sup>18</sup>Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel was as swift-footed as one of the gazelles that is in the field.

<sup>20</sup>Then Abner looked behind himself and said, “Is that you, Asahel?” And he said, “It is I!”

<sup>21</sup>So Abner said to him, “Turn aside for your own good to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his equipment.” But Asahel was unwilling to turn aside from following him.

<sup>22</sup>Then Abner repeated again to Asahel, “Turn aside for your own good from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I show my face to your brother Joab?”

<sup>23</sup>However, he refused to turn aside; so Abner struck him in the belly with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out at his back. And he fell there and died on the spot. And it happened that all who came thereafter to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, stood still.

<sup>24</sup>But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and when the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is opposite Giah by way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

<sup>25</sup>And the sons of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one troop, and they stood on the top of a hill.

<sup>26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab and said, “Should the sword devour forever? Do you not realize that it will be bitter in the end? So how long will you refrain from telling the people to turn back from pursuing their kinsmen?”

<sup>27</sup>Joab said, “As God lives, if you had not spoken, then the people of Judah certainly would have withdrawn in the morning, each from pursuing his brother.”

<sup>28</sup>So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people halted and no longer pursued Israel, nor did they continue to fight anymore.

<sup>29</sup>Abner and his men then went through the Arabah all that night; so they crossed the Jordan, walked all morning, and came to Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner; but he gathered all the people together, and nineteen of David’s servants were missing, besides Asahel.

<sup>31</sup>However, the servants of David had struck and killed many of Benjamin and Abner’s men; 360 men were dead.

<sup>32</sup>And they carried Asahel away and buried him in his father’s tomb, which was in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men traveled all night until the day dawned at Hebron.

2 Samuel 3

The House of David Strengthened

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David became steadily stronger, while the house of Saul became steadily weaker.

<sup>2</sup>Sons were born to David in Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

<sup>3</sup>and his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;

<sup>4</sup>and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

<sup>5</sup>and the sixth, Ithream, by David’s wife Eglah. These sons were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins David

<sup>6</sup>Now it happened that while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was strengthening himself in the house of Saul.

<sup>7</sup>And Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, “Why have you gone in to my father’s concubine?”

<sup>8</sup>Then Abner became very angry over Ish-bosheth’s question and said, “Am I a dog’s head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and to his friends, and have not let you fall into the hands of David; yet today you call me to account for wrongdoing with that woman?”

<sup>9</sup>May God do so to me, and more so, if as the LORD has sworn to David, I do not accomplish this for him:

<sup>10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba!”

<sup>11</sup>And Ish-bosheth could no longer say a word in response to Abner, because he was afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers to David at his place, saying, “Whose is the land? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel over to you.”

<sup>13</sup>And he said, “Good! I will make a covenant with you, only I require one thing of you, namely, that you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see me.”

<sup>16</sup>And her husband went with her, weeping as he went, following her as far as Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, “Go, return.” So he returned.

<sup>17</sup>Now Abner had a consultation with the elders of Israel, saying, “In times past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

<sup>18</sup>Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken regarding David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines, and from the hands of all their enemies.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Abner also spoke to Benjamin; and in addition Abner went to speak to David in Hebron everything that seemed good to Israel and to the entire house of Benjamin.

<sup>20</sup>Then Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David held a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

<sup>21</sup>Abner said to David, “Let me set out and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may be king over all that your soul desires.” So David let Abner go, and he went in peace.

<sup>22</sup>And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought a large amount of plunder with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron, since he had let him go, and he had gone in peace.

<sup>23</sup>When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they informed Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has let him go on his way, and he has gone in peace.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why then have you let him go, so that he is already gone?

<sup>25</sup>You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to gain your confidence, and to learn of your going out and coming in and to find out everything that you are doing.”

Joab Murders Abner

<sup>26</sup>When Joab left David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know about it.

<sup>27</sup>So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he struck him in the belly, so that he died on account of the blood of his brother Asahel.

<sup>28</sup>Afterward, when David heard about this, he said, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

<sup>29</sup>May it turn upon the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and may there not be eliminated from the house of Joab someone who suffers a discharge, or has leprosy, or holds the spindle, or falls by the sword, or lacks bread."

<sup>30</sup>So Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon.

David Mourns Abner

<sup>31</sup>Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David walked behind the bier.

<sup>32</sup>And they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king raised his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

<sup>33</sup>And the king sang a song of mourning for Abner and said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies?

<sup>34</sup>"Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in bronze shackles; As one falls before the wicked, you have fallen." And all the people wept over him again.

<sup>35</sup>Then all the people came to provide food for David in his distress while it was still day; but David vowed, saying, "May God do so to me, and more so, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down."

<sup>36</sup>Now all the people took note of David's vow, and it pleased them, just as everything that the king did pleased all the people.

<sup>37</sup>So all the people and all Israel understood on that day that it had not been the desire of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death.

<sup>38</sup>Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a leader and a great man has fallen in Israel this day?"

<sup>39</sup>And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too difficult for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer in proportion to his evil."

2 Samuel 4

Ish-bosheth Murdered

<sup>1</sup>Now when Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was horrified.

<sup>2</sup>And Saul's son had two men who were commanders of troops: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin, <sup>3</sup>and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have lived there as strangers until this day).

<sup>4</sup>Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was disabled in both feet. He was five years old when the news of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse picked him up and fled. But it happened that in her hurry to flee, he fell and could no longer walk. And his name was Mephibosheth.

<sup>5</sup>So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, departed and came to the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day, while he was taking his midday rest.

<sup>6</sup>And they came to the interior of the house as if to get wheat, and they struck him in the belly; and Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped.

<sup>7</sup>Now when they had come into the house, as he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him and killed him, and they beheaded him. And they took his head and traveled by way of the Arabah all night.

<sup>8</sup>Then they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, “Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; so the LORD has given my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and his descendants.”

<sup>9</sup>But David replied to Rechab and his brother Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress,

<sup>10</sup>when the one who informed me, saying, ‘Behold, Saul is dead,’ also viewed himself as the bearer of good news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news.

<sup>11</sup>How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood from your hands and eliminate you both from the earth?”

<sup>12</sup>Then David commanded the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and feet, and hung them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

2 Samuel 5

David King over All Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

<sup>2</sup>Previously, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and in. And the LORD said to you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be a leader over Israel.’ ”

<sup>3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before the LORD in Hebron; then they anointed David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years.

<sup>5</sup>At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

<sup>6</sup>Now the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land; and they said to David, “You shall not come in here, but even those who are blind and those who limp will turn you away,” thinking, “David cannot enter here.”

<sup>8</sup>And David said on that day, “Whoever strikes the Jebusites is to reach those who limp and those who are blind, who are hated by David’s soul, through the water tunnel.” For that reason they say, “People who are blind and people who limp shall not come into the house.”

<sup>10</sup>David became greater and greater, for the LORD God of armies was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, carpenters, and stonemasons; and they built a house for David.

<sup>12</sup>And David realized that the LORD had appointed him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Meanwhile David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

<sup>14</sup>Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

War with the Philistines

<sup>17</sup>Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek out David; and when David heard about it, he went down to the stronghold.

<sup>19</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You hand them over to me?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will certainly hand the Philistines over to you.”

<sup>20</sup>Then David came to Baal-perazim and defeated them there; and he said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore he named that place Baal-perazim.

<sup>21</sup>And the Philistines abandoned their idols there, so David and his men carried them away.

<sup>23</sup>So David inquired of the LORD, but He said, “You shall not go directly up; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the baka-shrubs.

<sup>24</sup>And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baka-shrubs, then you shall act promptly, for then the LORD will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>25</sup>Then David did so, just as the LORD had commanded him; he struck and killed the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

2 Samuel 6

Peril in Moving the Ark

<sup>2</sup>And David departed from Baale-judah, with all the people who were with him, to bring up from there the ark of God which is called by the Name, the very name of the LORD of armies who is enthroned above the cherubim.

<sup>3</sup>They had mounted the ark of God on a new cart and moved it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.

<sup>4</sup>So they brought it with the ark of God from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking ahead of the ark.

<sup>6</sup>But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward the ark of God and took hold of it, because the oxen nearly overturned it.

<sup>7</sup>And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down there for his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God.

<sup>8</sup>Then David became angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah; and that place has been called Perez-uzzah to this day.

<sup>9</sup>So David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

<sup>10</sup>And David was unwilling to move the ark of the LORD into the city of David with him; but David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom, the Gittite.

<sup>11</sup>The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

The Ark Is Brought to Jerusalem

<sup>12</sup>Now it was reported to King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, on account of the ark of God.” So David went and brought the ark of God up from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with joy.

<sup>13</sup>And so it was, that when those carrying the ark of the LORD marched six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened steer.

<sup>14</sup>And David was dancing before the LORD with all his strength, and David was wearing a linen ephod.

<sup>15</sup>So David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with joyful shouting and the sound of the trumpet.

<sup>16</sup>Then it happened, as the ark of the LORD was coming into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she was contemptuous of him in her heart.

<sup>17</sup>Now they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of armies.

<sup>19</sup>Further, he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a cake of bread, one of dates, and one of raisins to each one. Then all the people left, each to his house.

<sup>20</sup>But when David returned to bless his own household, Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, “How the king of Israel dignified himself today! For he exposed himself today in the sight of his servants’ female slaves, as one of the rabble shamelessly exposes himself!”

<sup>21</sup>But David said to Michal, “I was before the LORD, who preferred me to your father and to all his house, to appoint me as ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. So I will celebrate before the LORD!

<sup>22</sup>And I might demean myself even more than this and be lowly in my own sight, but with the female slaves of whom you have spoken, with them I am to be held in honor!”

<sup>23</sup>And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7

David Plans to Build a Temple

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about, when the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies,

<sup>2</sup>that the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of God remains within the tent.”

<sup>3</sup>Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your mind, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup>But in the same night, the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Go and say to My servant David, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Should you build Me a house for My dwelling?

<sup>6</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the sons of Israel from Egypt, even to this day; rather, I have been moving about in a tent, that is, in a dwelling place.

<sup>7</sup>Wherever I have gone with all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’

God’s Covenant with David

<sup>8</sup>Now then, this is what you shall say to My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “I Myself took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel.

<sup>9</sup>And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have eliminated all your enemies from you; I will also make a great name for you, like the names of the great men who are on the earth.

<sup>10</sup>And I will establish a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will malicious people oppress them anymore as previously, <sup>11</sup>even from the day that I appointed judges over My people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also declares to you that the LORD will make a house for you.

<sup>12</sup>When your days are finished and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your descendant after you, who will come from you, and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

<sup>14</sup>I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me; when he does wrong, I will discipline him with a rod of men and with strokes of sons of mankind,

<sup>15</sup>but My favor shall not depart from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from you.

<sup>16</sup>Your house and your kingdom shall endure before Me forever; your throne shall be established forever.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>17</sup>In accordance with all these words and all of this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Prayer

<sup>18</sup>Then David the king came in and sat before the LORD, and he said, “Who am I, Lord GOD, and who are the members of my household, that You have brought me this far?

<sup>19</sup>And yet this was insignificant in Your eyes, Lord GOD, for You have spoken also of the house of Your servant regarding the distant future. And this is the custom of mankind, Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup>Again what more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, Lord GOD!

<sup>21</sup>For the sake of Your word, and according to Your heart, You have done all this greatness, to let Your servant know.

<sup>22</sup>For this reason You are great, Lord GOD; for there is no one like You, and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

<sup>23</sup>And what one nation on the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, and to make a name for Himself, and to do a great thing for You and awesome things for Your land, because of Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, from other nations and their gods?

<sup>24</sup>For You have established for Yourself Your people Israel as Your own people forever, and You, LORD, have become their God.

<sup>25</sup>Now then, LORD God, the word that You have spoken about Your servant and his house, confirm it forever, and do just as You have spoken,

<sup>26</sup>so that Your name may be great forever, by saying, ‘The LORD of armies is God over Israel’; and may the house of Your servant David be established before You.

<sup>27</sup>For You, LORD of armies, God of Israel, have given a revelation to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house’; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to You.

<sup>28</sup>Now then, Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are truth; and You have promised this good thing to Your servant.

<sup>29</sup>And now, may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You. For You, Lord GOD, have spoken; and with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel 8

David's Triumphs

<sup>2</sup>And He defeated Moab, and measured them with the line, making them lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and a full line to keep alive. And the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

<sup>7</sup>David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Toi sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and bless him, because he had fought Hadadezer and defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, gold, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David also consecrated these gifts to the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had consecrated from all the nations which he had subdued:

<sup>12</sup>from Aram, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoils of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup>So David made a name for himself when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Arameans in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>14</sup>He also put garrisons in Edom. In all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

<sup>15</sup>So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

<sup>16</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was commander over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was secretary.

<sup>17</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Seraiah was scribe.

<sup>18</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

2 Samuel 9

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

<sup>1</sup>Then David said, "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul, so that I could show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

<sup>2</sup>Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they summoned him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "I am your servant."

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, "Is there no one remaining of the house of Saul to whom I could show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, one who is disabled in both feet."

<sup>4</sup>So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar."

<sup>5</sup>Then King David sent messengers who brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

<sup>6</sup>Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David and fell on his face and prostrated himself. And David said, “Mephibosheth.” And he said, “Here is your servant!”

<sup>7</sup>Then David said to him, “Do not be afraid, for I will assuredly show kindness to you for the sake of your father Jonathan, and I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you yourself shall eat at my table regularly.”

<sup>8</sup>Again he prostrated himself, and said, “What is your servant, that you should be concerned about a dead dog like me?”

<sup>9</sup>Then the king summoned Saul’s servant Ziba and said to him, “Everything that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master’s grandson.

<sup>10</sup>You and your sons and your servants shall cultivate the land for him, and you shall bring in the produce so that your master’s grandson will have food to eat; nevertheless Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, shall eat at my table regularly.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

<sup>11</sup>Then Ziba said to the king, “In accordance with everything that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do.” So Mephibosheth ate at David’s table as one of the king’s sons.

<sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.

<sup>13</sup>So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he ate at the king’s table regularly. And he was disabled in his two feet.

2 Samuel 10

Ammon and Aram Defeated

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent some of his servants to console him about his father. But when David’s servants came to the land of the Ammonites,

<sup>3</sup>the commanders of the Ammonites said to their lord Hanun, “Do you think that David is simply honoring your father since he has sent you servants to console you? Has David not sent his servants to you in order to explore the city, to spy it out and overthrow it?”

<sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David’s servants and shaved off half of their beards, and cut off their robes in the middle as far as their buttocks, and sent them away.

<sup>5</sup>When messengers informed David, he sent servants to meet them, because the men were extremely humiliated. And the king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back, and then you shall return.”

<sup>6</sup>Now when the sons of Ammon saw that they had become repulsive to David, the sons of Ammon sent messengers and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men.

<sup>7</sup>When David heard about this, he sent Joab and all the army, the warriors.

<sup>8</sup>And the sons of Ammon came out and lined up for battle at the entrance of the city, while the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were stationed by themselves in the field.

<sup>10</sup>But the remainder of the people he placed under the command of his brother Abishai, and he lined them up against the sons of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>And he said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come to help you.

<sup>12</sup>Be strong, and let’s show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

<sup>13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled from him.

<sup>14</sup>When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they assembled together.

<sup>16</sup>And Hadadezer sent word and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam; and Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer led them.

<sup>17</sup>Now when it was reported to David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Arameans lined up against David and fought him.

<sup>18</sup>But the Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed seven hundred charioteers of the Arameans and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

<sup>19</sup>When all the kings, servants of Hadadezer, saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

2 Samuel 11

Bathsheba, David’s Great Sin

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him and all Israel, and they brought destruction on the sons of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Now at evening time David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the king's house, and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful in appearance.

<sup>3</sup>So David sent servants and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

<sup>4</sup>Then David sent messengers and had her brought, and when she came to him, he slept with her; and when she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house.

<sup>5</sup>But the woman conceived; so she sent word and informed David, and said, "I am pregnant."

<sup>6</sup>Then David sent word to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David.

<sup>7</sup>When Uriah came to him, David asked about Joab's well-being and that of the people, and the condition of the war.

<sup>8</sup>Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." So Uriah left the king's house, and a gift from the king was sent after him.

<sup>9</sup>But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

<sup>10</sup>Now when they informed David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup>And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Should I then go to my house to eat and drink and to sleep with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing.”

<sup>12</sup>Then David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go back.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the day after.

<sup>13</sup>Now David summoned Uriah, and he ate and drank in his presence, and he made Uriah drunk; and in the evening Uriah went out to lie on his bed with his lord’s servants, and he still did not go down to his house.

<sup>14</sup>So in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

<sup>15</sup>He had written in the letter the following: “Station Uriah on the front line of the fiercest battle and pull back from him, so that he may be struck and killed.”

<sup>16</sup>So it was as Joab kept watch on the city, that he stationed Uriah at the place where he knew there were valiant men.

<sup>17</sup>And the men of the city went out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among David’s servants fell; and Uriah the Hittite also died.

<sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent a messenger and reported to David all the events of the war.

<sup>19</sup>He ordered the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling all the events of the war to the king,

<sup>20</sup>then it shall be that if the king’s wrath rises and he says to you, ‘Why did you move against the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

<sup>21</sup>Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did a woman not throw an upper millstone on him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you move against the wall?’—then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite also died.’ ”

<sup>22</sup>So the messenger departed and came and reported to David everything that Joab had sent him to tell.

<sup>23</sup>The messenger said to David, “The men prevailed against us and came out against us in the field, but we pressed them as far as the entrance of the gate.

<sup>24</sup>Also, the archers shot at your servants from the wall; so some of the king’s servants died, and your servant Uriah the Hittite also died.”

<sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, “This is what you shall say to Joab: ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; fight with determination against the city and overthrow it; and thereby encourage him.’”

<sup>26</sup>Now when Uriah’s wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

<sup>27</sup>When the time of mourning was over, David sent servants and had her brought to his house and she became his wife; then she bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the sight of the LORD.

2 Samuel 12

Nathan Rebukes David

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said, “There were two men in a city, the one wealthy and the other poor.

<sup>3</sup>“But the poor man had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb Which he bought and nurtured; And it grew up together with him and his children. It would eat scraps from him and drink from his cup and lie in his lap, And was like a daughter to him.

<sup>4</sup>“Now a visitor came to the wealthy man, And he could not bring himself to take any animal from his own flock or his own herd, To prepare for the traveler who had come to him; So he took the poor man’s ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”

<sup>5</sup>Then David's anger burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this certainly deserves to die!

<sup>6</sup>So he must make restitution for the lamb four times over, since he did this thing and had no compassion."

<sup>7</sup>Nathan then said to David, "You yourself are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: 'It is I who anointed you as king over Israel, and it is I who rescued you from the hand of Saul.

<sup>8</sup>I also gave you your master's house and put your master's wives into your care, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added to you many more things like these!

<sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the word of the LORD, by doing evil in His sight? You have struck and killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, you have taken his wife as your wife, and you have slaughtered him with the sword of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>10</sup>Now then, the sword shall never leave your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says: 'Behold, I am going to raise up evil against you from your own household; I will even take your wives before your eyes and give them to your companion, and he will sleep with your wives in broad daylight.

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and in open daylight.' "

<sup>13</sup>Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has allowed your sin to pass; you shall not die.

<sup>14</sup>However, since by this deed you have shown utter disrespect for the LORD, the child himself who is born to you shall certainly die."

<sup>15</sup>Then Nathan went to his house.

Loss of a Child

Later the LORD struck the child that Uriah's widow bore to David, so that he was very sick.

<sup>16</sup>David therefore pleaded with God for the child; and David fasted and went and lay all night on the ground.

<sup>17</sup>The elders of his household stood beside him in order to help him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them.

<sup>18</sup>Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. And David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he did not listen to us. How then can we tell him that the child is dead, since he might do himself harm?"

<sup>19</sup>But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; so David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

<sup>20</sup>So David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and when he asked, they served him food, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup>Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive; but when the child died, you got up and ate food."

<sup>22</sup>And he said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows, the LORD may be gracious to me, and the child may live.'

<sup>23</sup>But now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I am going to him, but he will not return to me."

Solomon Born

<sup>24</sup>Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and went in to her and slept with her; and she gave birth to a son, and he named him Solomon. Now the LORD loved him, <sup>25</sup>and sent word through Nathan the prophet, and he named him Jedidiah for the LORD'S sake.

War Again

<sup>27</sup>Then Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, I have even captured the city of waters.

<sup>28</sup>Now then, gather the rest of the people and camp opposite the city and capture it, or I will capture the city myself and it will be named after me."

<sup>29</sup>So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, and he fought against it and captured it.

<sup>30</sup>Then he took the crown of their king from his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and it had a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the plunder of the city in great amounts.

<sup>31</sup>He also brought out the people who were in it, and put some to work at saws, iron picks, and iron axes, and made others serve at the brick works. And he did the same to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

Amnon and Tamar

<sup>1</sup>Now it was after this that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the son of David was in love with her.

<sup>2</sup>But Amnon was so frustrated on account of his sister Tamar that he made himself ill, for she was a virgin, and it seemed too difficult to Amnon to do anything to her.

<sup>3</sup>But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very clever man.

<sup>4</sup>And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" So Amnon said to him, "I am in love with Tamar, the sister of my brother Absalom."

<sup>5</sup>Jonadab then said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill; when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please have my sister Tamar come and give me food to eat, and have her prepare the food in my sight, so that I may see it and eat from her hand.' "

<sup>6</sup>So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please have my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of pastries in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand."

<sup>7</sup>Then David sent a messenger to the house for Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

<sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, and he was lying in bed. And she took dough, kneaded it, made pastries in his sight, and baked the pastries.

<sup>9</sup>Then she took the tray and served them to him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Have everyone leave me." So everyone left him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, so that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the pastries which she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon.

<sup>11</sup>When she brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, sleep with me, my sister."

<sup>12</sup>But she said to him, "No, my brother, do not violate me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this disgraceful sin!

<sup>13</sup>As for me, where could I get rid of my shame? And as for you, you will be like one of the fools in Israel. Now then, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.”

<sup>14</sup>However, he would not listen to her; since he was stronger than she, he violated her and slept with her.

<sup>15</sup>Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred; indeed, the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Get up, go away!”

<sup>16</sup>But she said to him, “No, because this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done to me!” Yet he would not listen to her.

<sup>17</sup>Then he called his young man who attended him and said, “Now throw this woman out of my presence, and lock the door behind her!”

<sup>19</sup>Tamar took ashes and put them on her head, and tore her long-sleeved garment which was on her; and she put her hand on her head and went on her way, crying out as she went.

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now keep silent, my sister, he is your brother; do not take this matter to heart.” So Tamar remained and was isolated in her brother Absalom’s house.

<sup>22</sup>But Absalom did not speak with Amnon either good or bad; for Absalom hated Amnon because he had violated his sister Tamar.

<sup>23</sup>Now it came about after two full years that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons to celebrate.

Absalom Avenges Tamar

<sup>24</sup>And Absalom came to the king and said, “Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers; may the king and his servants please go with your servant.”

<sup>25</sup>But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, we should not all go, so that we will not be a burden to you.” Though he urged him, he would not go; but he blessed him.

<sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, “If not, please have my brother Amnon go with us.” But the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

<sup>27</sup>Nevertheless Absalom urged him, so he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup>Then Absalom commanded his servants, saying, “See now, when Amnon’s heart is cheerful with wine, and I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then put him to death. Do not fear; have I not commanded you myself? Be courageous and be valiant.”

<sup>29</sup>And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons got up and each mounted his mule and fled.

<sup>31</sup>Then the king stood up, tore his clothes, and lay on the ground; and all his servants were standing by with clothes torn.

<sup>32</sup>And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David’s brother, responded, “Let my lord not assume that they have put to death all the young men, the king’s sons, for only Amnon is dead; because this has been set up by the intent of Absalom since the day that he violated his sister Tamar.

<sup>33</sup>So now, may my lord the king not take the report to heart, claiming, ‘all the king’s sons are dead’; but only Amnon is dead.”

<sup>35</sup>And Jonadab said to the king, “Behold, the king’s sons have come; so it has happened according to your servant’s word.”

<sup>36</sup>As soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king’s sons came and raised their voices and wept; and the king and all his servants also wept very profusely.

<sup>38</sup>So Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur, and was there for three years.

<sup>39</sup>And the heart of King David longed to go out to Absalom; for he was comforted regarding Amnon, since he was dead.

2 Samuel 14

The Woman of Tekoa

<sup>1</sup>Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king’s heart was drawn toward Absalom.

<sup>2</sup>So Joab sent a messenger to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there, and said to her, “Please follow mourning rites, and put on mourning garments now, and do not anoint yourself with oil but be like a woman who has been mourning for the dead for many days.

<sup>3</sup>Then go to the king and speak to him in this way.” So Joab put the words in her mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Now when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, “Help, O king!”

<sup>5</sup>And the king said to her, “What is troubling you?” And she answered, “Truly I am a widow, for my husband is dead.

<sup>6</sup>And your servant had two sons, but the two of them fought in the field, and there was no one to save them from each other, so one struck the other and killed him.

<sup>7</sup>Now behold, the entire family has risen against your servant, and they have said, ‘Hand over the one who struck his brother, so that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, and eliminate the heir as well.’ So they will extinguish my coal which is left, so as to leave my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the king said to the woman, “Go to your home, and I will issue orders concerning you.”

<sup>9</sup>The woman of Tekoa said to the king, “My lord, the king, the guilt is on me and my father’s house, but the king and his throne are guiltless.”

<sup>10</sup>So the king said, “Whoever speaks to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore.”

<sup>11</sup>Then she said, “May the king please remember the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not continue to destroy, otherwise they will destroy my son.” And he said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the woman said, “Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king.” And he said, “Speak.”

<sup>13</sup>The woman said, “Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is like one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring back his banished one.

<sup>14</sup>For we will surely die and are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up. Yet God does not take away life, but makes plans so that the banished one will not be cast out from Him.

<sup>15</sup>Now then, the reason I have come to speak this word to my lord the king is that the people have made me afraid; so your servant said, ‘Let me now speak to the king, perhaps the king will perform the request of his slave.

<sup>16</sup>For the king will listen, to save his slave from the hand of the man who would eliminate both me and my son from the inheritance of God.’

<sup>17</sup>Then your servant said, ‘Please let the word of my lord the king be comforting, for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide anything from me that I am about to ask you.” And the woman said, “Let my lord the king please speak.”

<sup>19</sup>So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman replied, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. Indeed, it was your servant Joab who commanded me, and it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your servant.

<sup>20</sup>In order to change the appearance of things your servant Joab has done this thing. But my lord is wise, like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is on the earth.”

Absalom Returns

<sup>21</sup>Then the king said to Joab, “Behold now, I will certainly do this thing; go then, bring back the young man Absalom.”

<sup>22</sup>And Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself, and blessed the king; then Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.”

<sup>23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup>However, the king said, “He shall return to his own house, but he shall not see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house and did not see the king’s face.

<sup>25</sup>Now in all Israel there was no one as handsome as Absalom, so highly praised; from the sole of his foot to the top of his head there was no impairment in him.

<sup>26</sup>And when he cut the hair of his head (and it was at the end of every year that he cut it, because it was heavy on him, so he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels by the king’s weight.

<sup>27</sup>And to Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

<sup>28</sup>Now Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, yet he did not see the king’s face.

<sup>29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. So he sent word again a second time, but he would not come.

<sup>30</sup>Therefore he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s plot is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the plot on fire.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab got up, came to Absalom at his house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my plot on fire?”

<sup>32</sup>Absalom answered Joab, “Behold, I sent for you, saying, ‘Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me still to be there.”’ Now then, let me see the king’s face, and if there is guilt in me, he can have me executed.”

<sup>33</sup>So when Joab came to the king and told him, he summoned Absalom. Then Absalom came to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15

Absalom's Conspiracy

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after this that Absalom provided for himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run ahead of him.

<sup>2</sup>And Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the road to the gate; and when any man who had a lawsuit was to come before the king for judgment, Absalom would call out to him and say, "From what city are you?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>Moreover, Absalom would say, "Oh that someone would appoint me judge in the land, then every man who has a lawsuit or claim could come to me, and I would give him justice!"

<sup>5</sup>And whenever a man approached to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him.

<sup>6</sup>Absalom dealt this way with all Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole the hearts of the people of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Now it came about at the end of four years that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow which I have made to the LORD, in Hebron.

<sup>8</sup>For your servant made a vow while I was living in Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' "

<sup>9</sup>The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he got up and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup>But Absalom sent spies throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup>Then two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, who were invited and went innocently, for they did not know anything.

<sup>12</sup>And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for the people continually increased with Absalom.

David Flees Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup>Then a messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the people of Israel are with Absalom."

<sup>14</sup>So David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Arise and let's flee, for otherwise none of us will escape from Absalom. Go quickly, or he will hurry and overtake us, and bring disaster on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

<sup>18</sup>Now all of his servants passed by beside him, and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had come with him from Gath, passed by before the king.

<sup>19</sup>Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you go with us too? Return and stay with your king, since you are a foreigner and an exile as well; return to your own place.

<sup>20</sup>You came only yesterday, so should I make you wander with us today, while I go wherever I go? Return and take your brothers back; mercy and truth be with you."

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there assuredly shall your servant be!"

<sup>22</sup>Then David said to Ittai, “Go and cross over the brook Kidron.” So Ittai the Gittite crossed over with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

<sup>23</sup>While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people were crossing over. The king was also crossing over the brook Kidron, and all the people were crossing over toward the way of the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup>Now behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar came up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.

<sup>25</sup>And the king said to Zadok, “Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the sight of the LORD, then He will bring me back and show me both it and His habitation.

<sup>26</sup>But if He says this: ‘I have no delight in you,’ then here I am, let Him do to me as seems good to Him.”

<sup>27</sup>The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

<sup>28</sup>See, I am going to wait at the river crossing places of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

<sup>29</sup>So Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem and remained there.

<sup>30</sup>And David was going up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, and his head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. Then all the people who were with him each covered his own head, and they were going up, weeping as they went.

<sup>31</sup>Now someone informed David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “LORD, please make the advice of Ahithophel foolish.”

<sup>33</sup>And David said to him, “If you go over with me, then you will become a burden to me.

<sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; even as I was your father’s servant in time past, so now I will also be your servant,’ then you can foil the advice of Ahithophel for me.

<sup>35</sup>Are Zadok and Abiathar the priests not with you there? So it shall be that whatever you hear from the king’s house, you shall report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

<sup>36</sup>Behold their two sons are there with them, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send me everything that you hear.”

<sup>37</sup>So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 16

Ziba, a False Servant

<sup>1</sup>Now when David had gone on a little beyond the summit, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a team of saddled donkeys, and on them were two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a jug of wine.

<sup>2</sup>And the king said to Ziba, “Why do you have these?” And Ziba said, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine, for whoever is weary in the wilderness to drink.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, “And where is your master’s son?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>So the king said to Ziba, “Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours.” And Ziba said, “I prostrate myself; may I find favor in your sight, my lord, the king!”

David Is Cursed

<sup>5</sup>When King David came to Bahurim, behold, a man was coming out from there from the family of the house of Saul, and his name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he was coming out, cursing as he came.

<sup>7</sup>This is what Shimei said when he cursed: “Go away, go away, you man of bloodshed and worthless man!

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has brought back upon you all the bloodshed of the house of Saul, in whose place you have become king; and the LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. And behold, you are caught in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!”

<sup>9</sup>Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Now let me go over and cut off his head.”

<sup>10</sup>But the king said, “What business of mine is yours, you sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and if the LORD has told him, ‘Curse David,’ then who should say, ‘Why have you done so?’ ”

<sup>11</sup>Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “Behold, my son who came out of my own body seeks my life; how much more now this Benjaminite? Leave him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has told him.

<sup>12</sup>Perhaps the LORD will look on my misery and return good to me instead of his cursing this day.”

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men went on the road; and Shimei kept going on the hillside close beside him, and as he went he cursed and threw stones and dirt at him.

<sup>14</sup>And the king and all the people who were with him arrived exhausted, and he refreshed himself there.

Absalom Enters Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>Then Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

<sup>16</sup>Now it came about, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup>But Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup>So Hushai said to Absalom, "No! For whomever the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I shall be, and with him I shall remain.

<sup>19</sup>Besides, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? Just as I have served in your father's presence, so I shall be in your presence."

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your advice. What should we do?"

<sup>21</sup>Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Have relations with your father's concubines, whom he has left behind to take care of the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself repulsive to your father. The hands of all who are with you will also be strengthened."

<sup>22</sup>So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom had relations with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup>Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was taken as though one inquired of the word of God; so was all the advice of Ahithophel regarded by both David and Absalom.

2 Samuel 17

Hushai's Counsel

<sup>1</sup>Furthermore, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Please let me choose twelve thousand men and let me set out and pursue David tonight.

<sup>2</sup>And I will attack him while he is weary and exhausted and startle him, so that all the people who are with him will flee. Then I will strike and kill the king when he is alone,

<sup>3</sup>and I will bring all the people back to you. The return of everyone depends on the man whom you are seeking; then all the people will be at peace."

<sup>4</sup>And the plan pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Nevertheless, Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let's hear what he has to say."

<sup>6</sup>When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Ahithophel has proposed this plan. Should we carry out his plan? If not, say so yourself."

<sup>7</sup>So Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the advice that Ahithophel has given is not good."

<sup>8</sup>Then Hushai said, "You yourself know your father and his men, that they are warriors and they are fierce, like a bear deprived of her cubs in the field. And your father is an expert in warfare, and he will not spend the night with the people.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, he has now hidden himself in one of the ravines, or in another place; and it will be that when he falls on them at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, "There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom!"

<sup>10</sup>And even the one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely despair; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

<sup>11</sup>But I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea in abundance; and that you personally go into battle.

<sup>12</sup>Then we will come to him in one of the places where he can be found, and we will fall on him just as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him, not even one will be left.

<sup>13</sup>And if he withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the valley until not even a pebble is found there.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had ordained to foil the good advice of Ahithophel, in order for the LORD to bring disaster on Absalom.

Hushai's Warning Saves David

<sup>15</sup>Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, “This is what Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do, and this is what I have advised.

<sup>16</sup>Now then, send a messenger quickly and tell David, saying, ‘Do not spend the night at the river crossing places of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, or else the king and all the people who are with him will be destroyed.’ ”

<sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, and a female servant would go and inform them, and they would go and inform King David, for they could not allow themselves to be seen entering the city.

<sup>18</sup>But a boy did see them, and he told Absalom; so the two of them left quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it.

<sup>19</sup>And the woman took a cover and spread it over the well's mouth and scattered barley meal on it, so that nothing was known.

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman said to them, "They have crossed the brook of water." And when they searched and did not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>It came about after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and reported to King David; and they said to David, "Set out and cross over the water quickly, because this is what Ahithophel has advised against you."

<sup>22</sup>Then David and all the people who were with him set out and crossed the Jordan; by dawn not even one remained who had not crossed the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out and went to his home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; so he died and was buried in his father's grave.

<sup>24</sup>Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

<sup>27</sup>Now when David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

<sup>28</sup>brought beds, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, roasted seeds,

<sup>29</sup>honey, curds, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him, to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and exhausted and thirsty in the wilderness."

2 Samuel 18

Absalom Killed

<sup>1</sup>Then David took a count of the people who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

<sup>2</sup>And David sent the people out, a third under the command of Joab, a third under the command of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I myself will certainly go out with you also."

<sup>3</sup>But the people said, "You should not go out; for if in fact we flee, they will not care about us; and if half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; so now it is better that you will be ready to help us from the city."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and thousands.

<sup>5</sup>But the king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently with the young man Absalom for my sake." And all the people heard when the king commanded all the commanders regarding Absalom.

<sup>6</sup>Then the people went out to the field against Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there that day was great, twenty thousand men.

<sup>8</sup>For the battle there was spread over the whole countryside, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

<sup>10</sup>When a certain man saw him, he informed Joab and said, “Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Joab said to the man who had informed him, “So behold, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? And it would have been my duty to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt.”

<sup>12</sup>But the man said to Joab, “Even if I were to receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not put out my hand against the king’s son; for in our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, ‘Protect the young man Absalom for me!’

<sup>13</sup>Otherwise, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have avoided me.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Joab said, “I will not waste time here with you.” So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the midst of the oak.

<sup>15</sup>And ten young men who carried Joab’s armor gathered around and struck Absalom and killed him.

<sup>16</sup>Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the people.

<sup>17</sup>And they took Absalom and threw him into a deep pit in the forest, and erected over him a very large pile of stones. And all Israel fled, each to his own tent.

<sup>18</sup>Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a memorial stone, which is in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son to continue my name.” So he named the memorial stone after his own name, and it is called Absalom’s Monument to this day.

David Is Grief-stricken

<sup>19</sup>Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Please let me run and bring the king news that the LORD has freed him from the hand of his enemies!”

<sup>20</sup>But Joab said to him, “You are not the man to bring news this day, but you shall bring news another day; however, you shall bring no news this day, because the king’s son is dead.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” So the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran.

<sup>22</sup>However, Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said once more to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” And Joab said, “Why would you run, my son, since you will have no messenger’s reward for going?”

<sup>23</sup>“But whatever happens,” he said, “I will run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and passed by the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup>Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went to the roof of the gate by the wall, and raised his eyes and looked; and behold, a man was running by himself.

<sup>25</sup>So the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, “If he is by himself there is good news in his mouth.” And he came nearer and nearer.

<sup>26</sup>Then the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, “Behold, another man is running by himself.” And the king said, “This one also is bringing good news.”

<sup>27</sup>The watchman said, “I think the running form of the first one is like the running form of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “This is a good man, and he is coming with good news.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, “All is well.” And he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. And he said, “Blessed is the LORD your God, who has turned over the men who raised their hands against my lord the king.”

<sup>29</sup>But the king said, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent the king’s servant, and your servant, I saw a great commotion, but I did not know what it was.”

<sup>30</sup>Then the king said, “Turn aside and stand here.” So he turned aside and stood still.

<sup>31</sup>Then behold, the Cushite arrived, and the Cushite said, “Let my lord the king receive good news, for the LORD has freed you this day from the hand of all those who rose up against you.”

<sup>32</sup>Then the king said to the Cushite, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And the Cushite answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be like that young man!”

<sup>33</sup> Then the king trembled and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And this is what he said as he walked: “My son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19

Joab Disapproves of David’s Mourning

<sup>2</sup>So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people, because the people heard it said that day, “The king is in mourning over his son.”

<sup>4</sup>And the king covered his face and cried out with a loud voice, “My son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, “Today you have shamed all your servants, who have saved your life today and the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines,

<sup>6</sup>by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you. For you have revealed today that commanders and servants are nothing to you; for I know today that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then it would be right as far as you are concerned.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to your servants, for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, no man will stay the night with you, and this will be worse for you than all the misfortune that has happened to you from your youth until now!”

David Restored as King

<sup>8</sup>So the king got up and sat at the gate. When they told all the people, saying, “Behold, the king is sitting at the gate,” then all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled, each to his tent.

<sup>9</sup>And all the people were quarreling throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king rescued us from the hands of our enemies and saved us from the hands of the Philistines, but now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.

<sup>10</sup>However, Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now then, why are you silent about bringing the king back?”

<sup>11</sup>Then King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, even to his house?’”

<sup>12</sup>You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?”

<sup>13</sup>And say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me, and more so, if you will not be commander of the army for me continually, in place of Joab.’”

<sup>14</sup>So he turned the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent word to the king, saying, “Return, you and all your servants.”

<sup>15</sup>The king then returned and came as far as the Jordan. And the men of Judah came to Gilgal in order to go to meet the king, to escort the king across the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup>Then Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

<sup>17</sup>And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they rushed to the Jordan before the king.

<sup>18</sup>Then they crossed the shallow places repeatedly to bring over the king's household, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan.

<sup>19</sup>And he said to the king, "May my lord not consider me guilty, nor call to mind what your servant did wrong on the day when my lord the king went out from Jerusalem, so that the king would take it to heart.

<sup>20</sup>For your servant knows that I have sinned; so behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>21</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah responded, "Should Shimei not be put to death for this, the fact that he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

<sup>22</sup>David then said, "What is there between you and me, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be an adversary to me today? Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today?"

<sup>23</sup>So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." The king also swore to him.

<sup>24</sup>Then Mephibosheth the grandson of Saul came down to meet the king; but he had neither tended to his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes since the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace.

<sup>25</sup>And it was when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

<sup>26</sup>So he said, “My lord the king, my servant betrayed me; for your servant said, ‘I will saddle the donkey for myself so that I may ride on it and go with the king,’ since your servant cannot walk.

<sup>27</sup>Furthermore, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is like the angel of God, therefore do what is good in your sight.

<sup>28</sup>For all my father’s household was only people worthy of death to my lord the king; yet you placed your servant among those who ate at your own table. So what right do I still have, that I should complain anymore to the king?”

<sup>29</sup>So the king said to him, “Why do you still speak of your affairs? I have decided, ‘You and Ziba shall divide the land.’”

<sup>30</sup>And Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him even take it all, since my lord the king has come safely to his own house.”

<sup>31</sup>Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; and he went on to the Jordan with the king to escort him over the Jordan.

<sup>32</sup>Barzillai was very old: eighty years old; and he had provided the king food while he stayed in Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.

<sup>33</sup>So the king said to Barzillai, “You cross over with me, and I will provide you food in Jerusalem with me.”

<sup>34</sup>But Barzillai said to the king, “How long do I still have to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?”

<sup>35</sup>I am now eighty years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Or can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Or can I still hear the voice of men and women singing? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

<sup>36</sup>Your servant would merely cross over the Jordan with the king. So why should the king compensate me with this reward?

<sup>37</sup>Please let your servant return, so that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. However, here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your sight.”

<sup>38</sup>And the king answered, “Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your sight; and whatever you require of me, I will do for you.”

<sup>39</sup>All the people crossed over the Jordan and the king crossed too. The king then kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his place.

<sup>40</sup>Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah and also half the people of Israel accompanied the king.

<sup>41</sup>And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, “Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, abducted you and brought the king and his household and all David’s men with him, over the Jordan?”

<sup>42</sup>Then all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s expense, or has anything been taken for us?”

<sup>43</sup>But the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, “We have ten parts in the king, therefore we also have more claim on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt? Was it not our advice first to bring back our king?” Yet the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20

Sheba’s Revolt

<sup>1</sup>Now a worthless man happened to be there whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; and he blew the trumpet and said, “We have no share in David, Nor do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse; Every man to his tents, Israel!”

<sup>2</sup>So all the men of Israel withdrew from following David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah remained loyal to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Then David came to his house in Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left behind to take care of the house, and put them in custody and provided them with food, but did not have relations with them. So they were locked up until the day of their death, living as widows.

<sup>4</sup>Now the king said to Amasa, “Summon the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself.”

<sup>5</sup>So Amasa went to summon the men of Judah, but he was delayed longer than the set time which he had designated for him.

<sup>6</sup>And David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he does not find for himself fortified cities and escape from our sight.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the warriors; and they left Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>8</sup>When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was dressed in his military attire, and over it he had a belt with a sword in its sheath strapped on at his waist; and as he went forward, it fell out.

<sup>9</sup>And Joab said to Amasa, “Is it going well for you, my brother?” And Joab took hold of Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

Amasa Murdered

<sup>10</sup>But Amasa was not on guard against the sword which was in Joab’s hand, so he struck him in the belly with it and spilled out his intestines on the ground, and did not strike him again, and he died. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>11</sup>Now one of Joab's young men stood by him and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, follow Joab!"

<sup>12</sup>But Amasa was wallowing in his own blood in the middle of the road. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa from the road to the field and threw a garment over him when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

Revolt Put Down

<sup>13</sup>As soon as he was removed from the road, all the men went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup>Now he went on through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, that is, Beth-maacah, and all the Berites; and they assembled and went after him as well.

<sup>15</sup>And they came and besieged him in Abel Beth-maacah, and they built up an assault ramp against the city, and it stood against the outer rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were wreaking destruction in order to topple the wall.

<sup>16</sup>Then a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen, listen! Please tell Joab, 'Come here that I may speak with you.' "

<sup>17</sup>So he approached her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your slave." And he said, "I am listening."

<sup>18</sup>Then she spoke, saying, "In the past they used to say, 'They will undoubtedly ask advice at Abel,' and that is how they ended a dispute.

<sup>20</sup>Joab replied, "Far be it, far be it from me that I would consume or destroy!

<sup>21</sup>Such is not the case. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against King David. Only turn him over, and I will depart from the city.” And the woman said to Joab, “Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the woman wisely came to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, each to his tent. Joab also returned to the king at Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>Now Joab was in command of the entire army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

<sup>24</sup>and Adoram was over the forced labor, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the secretary;

<sup>25</sup>and Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

<sup>26</sup>Ira the Jairite also was a priest to David.

2 Samuel 21

Gibeonite's Revenge

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the presence of the LORD. And the LORD said, “It is because of Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

<sup>2</sup>So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel had made a covenant with them, but Saul had sought to kill them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah).

<sup>3</sup>David said to the Gibeonites, “What should I do for you? And how can I make amends, so that you will bless the inheritance of the LORD?”

<sup>4</sup>Then the Gibeonites said to him, “For us it is not a matter of silver or gold with Saul or his house, nor is it for us to put anyone to death in Israel.” Nevertheless David said, “I will do for you whatever you say.”

<sup>5</sup>So they said to the king, “The man who destroyed us and who planned to eliminate us so that we would not exist within any border of Israel—

<sup>6</sup>let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD.” And the king said, “I will give them.”

<sup>7</sup>But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Saul’s son Jonathan.

<sup>8</sup>So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Armoni and Mephibosheth whom she had borne to Saul, and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

<sup>9</sup>Then he handed them over to the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the LORD, so that the seven of them fell together; and they were put to death in the first days of harvest at the beginning of barley harvest.

<sup>10</sup>And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until it rained on them from the sky; and she allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day nor the wild animals by night.

<sup>11</sup>When it was reported to David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

<sup>12</sup>then David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day the Philistines struck and killed Saul in Gilboa.

<sup>13</sup>He brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan, and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

<sup>14</sup>Then they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the grave of his father Kish; So they did everything that the king commanded, and after that God responded to prayer for the land.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the Philistines were at war with Israel again, David went down, and his servants with him; and when they fought against the Philistines, David became weary.

<sup>16</sup>Then Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of bronze in weight, had strapped on a new sword, and he intended to kill David.

<sup>17</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, saying, "You shall not go out again with us to battle, so that you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel."

<sup>18</sup>Now it came about after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck and killed Saph, who was among the descendants of the giant.

<sup>19</sup>And there was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>20</sup>And there was war at Gath again, where there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also had been born to the giant.

<sup>21</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, struck and killed him.

<sup>22</sup>These four were born to the giant at Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

2 Samuel 22

David's Psalm of Deliverance

<sup>1</sup>Now David spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day that the LORD had saved him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

<sup>2</sup>He said, "The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

<sup>3</sup> My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge; My savior, You save me from violence.

<sup>4</sup>“I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup>“For the waves of death encompassed me; The floods of destruction terrified me;

<sup>7</sup>“In my distress I called upon the LORD, Yes, I called out to my God; And from His temple He heard my voice, And my cry for help came into His ears.

<sup>8</sup>“Then the earth shook and quaked, The foundations of heaven were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry.

<sup>9</sup>“Smoke went up out of His nostrils, And fire from His mouth was devouring; Coals were kindled by it.

<sup>10</sup>“He also bowed the heavens down low, and came down With thick darkness under His feet.

<sup>11</sup>“He rode on a cherub and flew; He appeared on the wings of the wind.

<sup>17</sup>“He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters.

18“He rescued me from my strong enemy, From those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

19“They confronted me on the day of my disaster, But the LORD was my support.

20“He also brought me out into an open place; He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

21“The LORD has treated me in accordance with my righteousness; In accordance with the cleanliness of my hands He has repaid me.

22“For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not acted wickedly against my God.

23“For all His ordinances were before me, And as for His statutes, I did not deviate from them.

24“I was also blameless toward Him, And I have kept myself from my wrongdoing.

25“So the LORD has repaid me in accordance with my righteousness, In accordance with my cleanliness before His eyes.

26“With the one who is faithful You show Yourself faithful, With the blameless one You prove Yourself blameless; 27With the one who is pure You show Yourself pure, But with the perverted You show Yourself astute.

28“And You save an afflicted people; But Your eyes are on the haughty whom You humiliate.

29“For You are my lamp, LORD; And the LORD illuminates my darkness.

30“For by You I can run at a troop of warriors; By my God I can leap over a wall.

31“As for God, His way is blameless; The word of the LORD is refined; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

- 32“For who is God, except the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?
- 33“God is my strong fortress; And He sets the blameless on His way.
- 34“He makes my feet like deer’s feet, And sets me on my high places.
- 35“He trains my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- 36““You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your help makes me great.
- 37““You enlarge my steps under me, And my feet have not slipped.
- 38““I pursued my enemies and eliminated them, And I did not turn back until they were finished off.
- 39““And I have devoured them and smashed them, so that they would not rise; And they fell under my feet.
- 40““For You have encircled me with strength for battle; You have forced those who rose up against me to bow down under me.
- 41““You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, And I destroyed those who hated me.
- 42““They looked, but there was no one to save them; Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
- 43““Then I pulverized them as the dust of the earth; I crushed and trampled them like the mud of the streets.
- 44““You have also saved me from the contentions of my people; You have kept me as head of the nations; A people I have not known serve me.
- 45““Foreigners pretend to obey me; As soon as they hear, they obey me.
- 46““Foreigners lose heart, And come trembling out of their fortresses.
- 47““The LORD lives, and blessed be my Rock; And exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation,
- 48““The God who executes vengeance for me, And brings down peoples under me,

<sup>49</sup>Who also brings me out from my enemies; You also raise me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from the violent person.

<sup>50</sup>“Therefore I will give thanks to You, LORD, among the nations, And I will sing praises to Your name.

2 Samuel 23

David's Last Song

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse declares, The man who was raised on high, The anointed of the God of Jacob And the sweet psalmist of Israel, declares, <sup>2</sup>“The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me, And His word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup>“The God of Israel said it; The Rock of Israel spoke to me: ‘He who rules over mankind righteously, Who rules in the fear of God,

<sup>4</sup>Is like the light of the morning when the sun rises, A morning without clouds, When the fresh grass springs out of the earth From sunshine after rain.’

<sup>5</sup>“Is my house not indeed so with God? For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, Properly ordered in all things, and secured; For will He not indeed make All my salvation and all my delight grow?

<sup>6</sup>“But the worthless, every one of them, are like scattered thorns, Because they cannot be taken in hand;

<sup>7</sup>Instead, the man who touches them Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear, And they will be completely burned with fire in their place.”

David's Mighty Men

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Joshebbasshebeth, a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; he was called Adino the Eznite because of eight hundred who were killed by him at one time.

<sup>9</sup>And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there to battle and the men of Israel had withdrawn.

<sup>10</sup>He rose up and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary and it clung to the sword, and the LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to plunder the dead.

<sup>11</sup>Now after him was Shammah the son of Agee, a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered into an army where there was a plot of land full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines.

<sup>12</sup>But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, defended it, and struck the Philistines; and the LORD brought about a great victory.

<sup>13</sup>Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David at harvest time to the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>14</sup>David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

<sup>15</sup>And David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!”

<sup>16</sup>So the three mighty men forced their way into the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and carried it and brought it to David. Yet he would not drink it, but poured it out as an offering to the LORD;

<sup>17</sup>and he said, “Far be it from me, LORD, that I would do this! Should I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?” So he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

<sup>18</sup>Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. And he swung his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name as well as the three.

<sup>19</sup>He was the most honored among the thirty, so he became their commander; however, he did not attain to the reputation of the three.

<sup>20</sup>Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done great deeds, killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day.

<sup>21</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, an impressive man. Now the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>22</sup>These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

<sup>23</sup>He was honored among the thirty, but he did not attain the reputation of the three. And David appointed him over his bodyguard.

<sup>24</sup>Asahel the brother of Joab was among the thirty; and there was Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

<sup>26</sup>Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

<sup>34</sup>Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

<sup>35</sup>Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

<sup>38</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

<sup>39</sup>and Uriah the Hittite; thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24

The Census Taken

<sup>1</sup>Now the anger of the LORD burned against Israel again, and He incited David against them to say, “Go, count Israel and Judah.”

<sup>2</sup>So the king said to Joab the commander of the army, who was with him, “Roam about now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and conduct a census of the people, so that I may know the number of the people.”

<sup>3</sup>But Joab said to the king, “May the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king can still see; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?”

<sup>5</sup>They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the Valley of Gad and toward Jazer.

<sup>6</sup>Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon,

<sup>7</sup>then they came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and they went out to the south of Judah, to Beersheba.

<sup>8</sup>So when they had roamed about through the whole land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

<sup>9</sup>And Joab gave the number of the census of the people to the king: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

<sup>10</sup>Now David's heart troubled him after he had counted the people. So David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, LORD, please overlook the guilt of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

<sup>11</sup>When David got up in the morning, the word of the LORD came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying,

<sup>12</sup>"Go and speak to David, 'This is what the LORD says: "I am imposing upon you three choices; choose for yourself one of them, and I will do it to you." ' "

<sup>13</sup>So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee for three months before your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

<sup>14</sup>Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us now fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are great; but do not let me fall into human hands."

Plague Sent

<sup>15</sup>So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand men of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

<sup>16</sup>When the angel extended his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented of the disaster and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now drop your hand!" And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup>Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking down the people, and said, "Behold, it is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand be against me and against my father's house!"

David Builds an Altar

<sup>18</sup>So Gad came to David that day and said to him, “Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

<sup>19</sup>Then David went up in accordance with the word of Gad, just as the LORD had commanded.

<sup>20</sup>And Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him; so Araunah went out and bowed his face to the ground before the king.

<sup>21</sup>Then Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” And David said, “To buy the threshing floor from you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be withdrawn from the people.”

<sup>23</sup>Everything, O king, Araunah gives to the king.” And Araunah said to the king, “May the LORD your God be favorable to you.”

<sup>24</sup>However, the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will certainly buy it from you for a price; for I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

<sup>25</sup>Then David built there an altar to the LORD, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the LORD responded to prayer for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

1 Kings

1 Kings 1

David in Old Age

<sup>1</sup>Now King David was old, advanced in age; and they covered him with garments, but he could not keep warm.

<sup>2</sup>So his servants said to him, “Have them search for a young virgin for my lord the king, and have her attend the king and become his nurse; and have her lie on your chest, so that my lord the king may keep warm.”

<sup>3</sup>So they searched for a beautiful girl throughout the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

<sup>4</sup>The girl was very beautiful; and she became the king’s nurse and served him, but the king did not become intimate with her.

<sup>5</sup>Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, “I will be king.” So he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, with fifty men to run before him.

<sup>6</sup>And his father had never rebuked him at any time by asking, “Why have you done so?” And he was also a very handsome man, and he was born after Absalom.

<sup>7</sup>Now he had conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and they allied themselves with Adonijah.

<sup>8</sup>But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

<sup>10</sup>But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or his brother Solomon.

Nathan and Bathsheba

<sup>11</sup>Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, “Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?

<sup>12</sup>So now come, please let me give you advice, and save your life and the life of your son Solomon.

<sup>13</sup>Go at once to King David and say to him, ‘Have you not, my lord the king, sworn to your servant, saying, “Solomon your son certainly shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne”? Why then has Adonijah become king?’

<sup>14</sup>Behold, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.”

<sup>15</sup>So Bathsheba entered to the king in the bedroom. Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.

<sup>16</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king. And the king said, “What is on your mind?”

<sup>17</sup>So she said to him, “My lord, you yourself swore to your servant by the LORD your God, saying, ‘Your son Solomon certainly shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne.’

<sup>18</sup>But now, behold, Adonijah is king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know it.

<sup>19</sup>He has sacrificed oxen and fattened steers and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

<sup>20</sup>And as for you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, to announce to them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

<sup>21</sup>Otherwise it will come about, as soon as my lord the king lies down with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered offenders.”

<sup>22</sup>And behold, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

<sup>23</sup>They informed the king, saying, “Nathan the prophet is here.” And when he came into the king’s presence, he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>24</sup>Then Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you yourself said, ‘Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne’?

<sup>25</sup>For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fattened steers and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s sons, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest, and behold, they are eating and drinking in his presence; and they say, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’

<sup>26</sup>But me, even me your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, he has not invited.

<sup>27</sup>Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not let your servants know who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

<sup>28</sup>Then King David responded and said, “Summon Bathsheba to me.” And she came into the king’s presence and stood before the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king vowed and said, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, <sup>30</sup>certainly as I vowed to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Your son Solomon certainly shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place’; I will indeed do so this day.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself before the king and said, “May my lord King David live forever.”

<sup>32</sup>Then King David said, “Summon to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” And they came into the king’s presence.

<sup>33</sup>And the king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

<sup>34</sup>And have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel, and blow the trumpet and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’

<sup>35</sup>Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say the same.

<sup>37</sup>Just as the LORD has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

Solomon Anointed King

<sup>38</sup>So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon.

<sup>39</sup>And Zadok the priest then took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, “Long live King Solomon!”

<sup>40</sup>And all the people went up after him, and the people were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth shook at their noise.

<sup>41</sup>Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard this as they finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, “Why is the city making such an uproar?”

<sup>42</sup>While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. Then Adonijah said, “Come in, for you are a valiant man and you bring good news.”

<sup>44</sup>The king has also sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have mounted him on the king’s mule.

<sup>45</sup>Furthermore, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city is going wild. This is the noise which you have heard.

<sup>47</sup>Moreover, the king’s servants came to bless our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne!’ And the king bowed himself on the bed.

<sup>48</sup>The king has also said this: ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted one to sit on my throne today while my own eyes see it.’ ”

<sup>49</sup>Then all the guests of Adonijah trembled and got up, and each went on his way.

<sup>50</sup>Adonijah also was afraid of Solomon, and he got up, and went, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>51</sup>Now it was reported to Solomon, saying, “Behold, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon, for behold, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘May King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’ ”

<sup>52</sup>And Solomon said, “If he is a worthy man, not one of his hairs will fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he will die.”

<sup>53</sup>So King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and prostrated himself before King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

1 Kings 2

David's Command to Solomon

- <sup>1</sup>As David's time to die drew near, he commanded his son Solomon, saying,
- <sup>2</sup>"I am going the way of all the earth. So be strong, and prove yourself a man.
- <sup>3</sup>Do your duty to the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and His testimonies, according to what is written in the Law of Moses, so that you may succeed in all that you do and wherever you turn,
- <sup>4</sup>so that the LORD may fulfill His promise which He spoke regarding me, saying, 'If your sons are careful about their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and all their soul, you shall not be deprived of a man to occupy the throne of Israel.'
- <sup>5</sup>"Now you yourself also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed; he also shed the blood of war in peace. And he put the blood of war on his belt that was on his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.
- <sup>6</sup>So act as your wisdom dictates, and do not let his gray hair go down to Sheol in peace.
- <sup>7</sup>However, show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for they assisted me when I fled from Absalom your brother.
- <sup>8</sup>And behold, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera the Benjaminite, of Bahurim; now it was he who cursed me with a painful curse on the day I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'
- <sup>9</sup>But now do not leave him unpunished, for you are a wise man; and you will know what to do to him, and you will bring his gray hair down to Sheol with blood."

Death of David

<sup>10</sup>Then David lay down with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David.

<sup>11</sup>Now the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: in Hebron he reigned for seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years.

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

<sup>13</sup>Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. So she said, “Do you come peacefully?” And he said, “Peacefully.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “I have something to say to you.” And she said, “Speak.”

<sup>15</sup>So he said, “You yourself know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel intended for me to be king; however, the kingdom has turned around and become my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>So now I am making one request of you; do not refuse me.” And she said to him, “Speak.”

<sup>17</sup>Then he said, “Please speak to Solomon the king—for he will not refuse you—that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife.”

<sup>18</sup>And Bathsheba said, “Very well; I will speak to the king for you.”

Adonijah Executed

<sup>19</sup>So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king stood to meet her, bowed to her, and sat on his throne; then he had a throne set up for the king’s mother, and she sat on his right.

<sup>20</sup>Then she said, “I am making one small request of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you.”

<sup>21</sup>So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as a wife.”

<sup>22</sup>But King Solomon answered and said to his mother, “And why are you requesting Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Request for him the kingdom as well—since he is my older brother—for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!”

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “May God do so to me and more so, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life!

<sup>24</sup>Now then, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and has made me a house just as He promised, Adonijah certainly shall be put to death today!”

<sup>25</sup>Then King Solomon sent the order by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him so that he died.

<sup>26</sup>Then to Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth to your own field, for you deserve to die; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything with which my father was afflicted.”

<sup>27</sup>So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, to fulfill the word of the LORD, which He had spoken regarding the house of Eli in Shiloh.

Joab Executed

<sup>28</sup>Now the news came to Joab because Joab had followed Adonijah, though he had not followed Absalom. So Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>29</sup>And it was reported to King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD, and was beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, execute him.”

<sup>30</sup>So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, “This is what the king has said: ‘Come out.’” But he said, “No, for I will die here.” So Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, “This is what Joab spoke, and so he answered me.”

<sup>31</sup>And the king said to him, “Do just as he has spoken, and execute him and bury him, so that you may remove from me and from my father’s house the blood which Joab shed without justification.

<sup>32</sup>The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he struck two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, while my father David did not know about it: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

<sup>34</sup>Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him and put him to death, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness.

<sup>35</sup>And the king appointed Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king appointed Zadok the priest in place of Abiathar.

Shimei Executed

<sup>36</sup>Now the king sent men and summoned Shimei, and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not leave there for any other place.

<sup>37</sup>For on the day you leave and cross the brook Kidron, you will know for certain that you will assuredly die; your blood will be on your own head.”

<sup>38</sup>Shimei then said to the king, “The word is good. Just as my lord the king has spoken, so your servant shall do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for many days.

<sup>39</sup>But it came about at the end of three years, that two of Shimei’s servants ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And others told Shimei, saying, “Behold, your servants are in Gath.”

<sup>40</sup>Then Shimei got up and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to search for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

<sup>41</sup>And it was reported to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

<sup>42</sup>So the king sent men and summoned Shimei, and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘Know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere, you shall assuredly die’? And you said to me, ‘The word I have heard is good.’

<sup>43</sup>Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the command which I imposed on you?”

<sup>44</sup>The king also said to Shimei, “You yourself know all the evil that you acknowledge in your heart, which you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will return your evil on your own head.

<sup>45</sup>But King Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before the LORD forever.”

<sup>46</sup>So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him so that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hands of Solomon.

1 Kings 3

Solomon’s Rule Consolidated

<sup>2</sup>The people were still sacrificing on the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

<sup>3</sup>Now Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he was sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

<sup>4</sup>And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, because that was the great high place; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

<sup>5</sup>In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, “Ask what you wish Me to give you.”

Solomon's Prayer

<sup>6</sup>Then Solomon said, "You have shown great faithfulness to Your servant David my father, according as he walked before You in truth, righteousness, and uprightness of heart toward You; and You have reserved for him this great faithfulness, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

<sup>7</sup>And now, LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of my father David, yet I am like a little boy; I do not know how to go out or come in.

<sup>8</sup>And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people who are too many to be numbered or counted.

<sup>9</sup>So give Your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, to discern between good and evil. For who is capable of judging this great people of Yours?"

God's Answer

<sup>10</sup>Now it was pleasing in the sight of the Lord that Solomon had asked this thing.

<sup>11</sup>And God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself a long life, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the lives of your enemies, but have asked for yourself discernment to understand justice,

<sup>12</sup>behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given you a wise and discerning heart, so that there has been no one like you before you, nor shall one like you arise after you.

<sup>13</sup>I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you all your days.

<sup>14</sup>And if you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and commandments, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days."

<sup>15</sup>Then Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and held a feast for all his servants.

Solomon Wisely Judges

<sup>16</sup>Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

<sup>17</sup>The one woman said, “Pardon me, my lord: this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened on the third day after I gave birth, that this woman also gave birth to a child, and we were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, only the two of us in the house.

<sup>19</sup>Then this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him.

<sup>20</sup>So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your servant was asleep, and she laid him at her breast, and laid her dead son at my breast.

<sup>21</sup>When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead! But when I examined him closely in the morning, behold, he was not my son, whom I had borne!”

<sup>22</sup>Then the other woman said, “No! For the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.” But the first woman said, “No! For the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” So they spoke before the king.

<sup>23</sup>Then the king said, “The one says, ‘This is my son who is living, and your son is the dead one’; and the other says, ‘No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’”

<sup>24</sup>And the king said, “Get me a sword.” So they brought a sword before the king.

<sup>25</sup>And the king said, “Cut the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other.”

<sup>26</sup>But the woman whose child was the living one spoke to the king, for she was deeply stirred over her son, and she said, “Pardon me, my lord! Give her the living child, and by no means kill him!” But the other woman was saying, “He shall be neither mine nor yours; cut him!”

<sup>27</sup>Then the king replied, “Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him. She is his mother.”

<sup>28</sup>When all Israel heard about the judgment which the king had handed down, they feared the king, because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

1 Kings 4

Solomon's Officials

<sup>2</sup>These were his officials: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest;

<sup>3</sup>Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha were scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the secretary;

<sup>4</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

<sup>5</sup>and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the deputies; and Zabud the son of Nathan, a priest, was the king's confidant;

<sup>6</sup>and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

<sup>12</sup>Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

<sup>19</sup>Geber the son of Uri in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only deputy who was in the land.

Solomon's Power, Wealth, and Wisdom

<sup>20</sup>Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand that is on the seashore in abundance; they were eating, drinking, and rejoicing.

<sup>22</sup>Solomon's provision for one day was thirty kors of fine flour and sixty kors of meal, <sup>23</sup>ten fat oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen, and a hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened geese.

<sup>24</sup>For he was ruling over everything west of the Euphrates River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings west of the River; and he had peace on all sides surrounding him.

<sup>27</sup>And those deputies provided food for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon's table, each in his month; they allowed nothing to be lacking.

<sup>28</sup>They also brought barley and straw for the war horses and baggage horses to the place where it was required, each deputy according to his duty.

<sup>29</sup>Now God gave Solomon wisdom and very great discernment and breadth of mind, like the sand that is on the seashore.

<sup>30</sup>Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt.

<sup>31</sup>For he was wiser than all other people, more than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was known in all the surrounding nations.

<sup>32</sup>He also told three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered 1,005.

<sup>33</sup>He told of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that grows on the wall; he told also of animals, birds, crawling things, and fish.

<sup>34</sup>People came from all the nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings 5

Alliance with King Hiram

<sup>3</sup> “You know that David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

<sup>4</sup> But now the LORD my God has secured me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune.

<sup>5</sup> So behold, I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, just as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, ‘Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, he will build the house for My name.’

<sup>6</sup> Now then, issue orders that they cut cedars from Lebanon for me, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants in accordance with all that you say, for you yourself know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he greatly rejoiced; and he said, “Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.”

<sup>8</sup> So Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, “I have heard the message which you sent me; I will do everything you wish concerning the cedar and juniper timber.

<sup>9</sup> My servants will bring the timbers down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will have them made into rafts to go by sea to the place where you direct me, and I will have them broken up there, and you will carry them away. Then you shall do what I wish, by giving food to my household.”

<sup>10</sup> So Hiram gave Solomon all that he wished of the cedar and juniper timber.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon then gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of pure oil; this is what Solomon would give Hiram year by year.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as He promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.

Conscription of Laborers

<sup>13</sup>Now King Solomon conscripted forced laborers from all Israel; and the forced laborers numbered thirty thousand men.

<sup>14</sup>Then he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts; they were in Lebanon for a month, and two months at home. And Adoniram was in charge of the forced laborers.

<sup>15</sup>Now Solomon had seventy thousand porters, and eighty thousand stonemasons in the mountains,

<sup>16</sup>besides Solomon's 3,300 chief deputies who were in charge of the project and ruled over the people who were doing the work.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king issued orders, and they quarried large stones, valuable stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones.

<sup>18</sup>So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites cut the stones, and they prepared the timbers and the stones to build the house.

1 Kings 6

The Building of the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, that is, the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>And the house which King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits in its length, and twenty cubits in its width, and its height was thirty cubits.

<sup>5</sup>Against the wall of the house he built stories encompassing the walls of the house around both the main room and the inner sanctuary; so he made side chambers all around.

<sup>6</sup>The lowest story was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around so that the beams would not be inserted into the walls of the house.

<sup>9</sup>So he built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar.

<sup>10</sup>He also built the stories against the whole house, each five cubits high; and they were attached to the house with timbers of cedar.

<sup>12</sup>“As for this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and execute My ordinances and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will fulfill My word with you which I spoke to David your father.

<sup>13</sup>And I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will not abandon My people Israel.”

<sup>15</sup>He built the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the ceiling he paneled the walls on the inside with wood, and he paneled the floor of the house with boards of juniper.

<sup>16</sup>He also built twenty cubits on the rear part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling; he built them for it on the inside as an inner sanctuary, as the Most Holy Place.

<sup>17</sup>The house, that is, the main room in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long.

<sup>18</sup>There was cedar inside the house, carved in the shape of gourds and open flowers; everything was cedar, there was no stone visible.

<sup>19</sup>Then he prepared an inner sanctuary inside the house in order to place there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height; and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also paneled the altar with cedar.

<sup>21</sup>So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. And he extended chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold.

<sup>22</sup>He overlaid the entire house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the entire altar which was by the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

<sup>23</sup>And in the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

<sup>24</sup>The one wing of the first cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the first cherub was five cubits; from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing were ten cubits.

<sup>25</sup>The second cherub was ten cubits; both of the cherubim were of the same measurement and the same form.

<sup>26</sup>The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub.

<sup>27</sup>He placed the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and the wings of the cherubim spread out so that the wing of the one was touching the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall. And their wings were touching end to end in the center of the house.

<sup>30</sup>And he overlaid the floor of the house with gold, for the inner and outer sanctuaries.

<sup>31</sup>And for the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood, the lintel, and five-sided doorposts.

<sup>32</sup>So he made two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he overlaid the cherubim and the palm trees with gold.

<sup>33</sup>So too he made for the entrance of the main room four-sided doorposts of olive wood,

<sup>34</sup>and two doors of juniper wood; the two leaves of the one door turned on pivots, and the two leaves of the other door turned on pivots.

<sup>35</sup>He carved on it cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold plated on the carved work.

<sup>37</sup>In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

<sup>38</sup>And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, that is, the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts and in accordance with all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

1 Kings 7

Solomon's Palace

<sup>3</sup>And it was paneled with cedar above the side chambers which were on the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.

<sup>4</sup>There were artistic window frames in three rows, and window was opposite window at three intervals.

<sup>5</sup>And all the doorways and doorposts had squared artistic frames, and window was opposite window at three intervals.

<sup>6</sup>Then he made the hall of pillars; its length was fifty cubits and its width thirty cubits, and a porch was in front of them and pillars and a threshold in front of them.

<sup>7</sup>And he made the hall of the throne where he was to judge, the hall of judgment, and it was paneled with cedar from floor to floor.

<sup>8</sup>And his house where he was to live, the other courtyard inward from the hall, was of this same workmanship. He also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had married.

<sup>9</sup>All of these were made of valuable stones, of stone cut according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside; even from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside to the large courtyard.

<sup>10</sup>And the foundation was of valuable stones, large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

<sup>12</sup>So the large courtyard all around had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams as well as the inner courtyard of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house.

Hiram's Work in the Temple

<sup>14</sup>He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, an artisan in bronze; and he was filled with wisdom, skill, and knowledge for doing any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and performed all his work.

<sup>15</sup>He fashioned the two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits was the height of each pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of both.

<sup>16</sup>He also made two capitals of cast bronze to put on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

<sup>17</sup>There were lattices of latticework and wreaths of chainwork for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital.

<sup>18</sup>So he made the pillars, and two rows around on the one lattice to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and so he did for the other capital.

<sup>19</sup>The capitals which were on the tops of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, four cubits.

<sup>20</sup>So there were capitals on the two pillars, also above and close to the rounded projection which was beside the lattice; and the pomegranates totaled two hundred in rows around both capitals.

<sup>22</sup>On the top of the pillars was the lily design. So the work of the pillars was finished.

<sup>23</sup>He also made the Sea of cast metal ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in shape, and its height was five cubits, and it was thirty cubits in circumference.

<sup>24</sup>Under its brim gourds went around encircling it ten to a cubit, completely surrounding the Sea; the gourds were in two rows, cast with the rest.

<sup>25</sup>It was standing on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them, and all their rear parts turned inward.

<sup>26</sup>And it was a hand width thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom; it could hold two thousand baths.

<sup>27</sup>Then he made the ten stands of bronze; the length of each stand was four cubits, its width four cubits, and its height was three cubits.

<sup>28</sup>This was the design of the stands: they had borders, that is, borders between the crossbars,

<sup>29</sup>and on the borders which were between the crossbars were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the crossbars there was a pedestal above, and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.

<sup>30</sup>Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports; beneath the basin were cast supports with wreaths at each side.

<sup>31</sup>And its opening inside the crown at the top was a cubit, and its opening was round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and on its opening also there were engravings, and their borders were square, not round.

<sup>32</sup>The four wheels were underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels were on the stand. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

<sup>33</sup>The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.

<sup>34</sup>Now there were four supports at the four corners of each stand; its supports were part of the stand itself.

<sup>35</sup>And on the top of the stand there was a circular form half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its borders were part of it.

<sup>36</sup>And he engraved on the plates of its stays and on its borders cherubim, lions, and palm trees, as there was clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

<sup>37</sup>He made the ten stands like this: all of them had the same casting, same measure, and same form.

<sup>38</sup>And he made ten basins of bronze, each holding forty baths; each basin was four cubits, and on each of the ten stands was one basin.

<sup>39</sup>Then he placed the stands, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and he set the Sea of cast metal on the right side of the house eastward toward the south.

<sup>40</sup>Now Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of the LORD:

<sup>41</sup>the two pillars and the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two lattices to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars;

<sup>42</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattices, two rows of pomegranates for each lattice to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the tops of the pillars;

<sup>43</sup>and the ten stands with the ten basins on the stands;

<sup>44</sup>and the one Sea and the twelve oxen under the Sea;

<sup>45</sup>and the buckets, the shovels, and the bowls; indeed, all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of the LORD were of polished bronze.

<sup>48</sup>Solomon also made all the furniture that was in the house of the LORD: the golden altar and the golden table on which was set the bread of the Presence;

<sup>49</sup>and the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary; and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

<sup>50</sup>also the cups, the shears, the bowls, the ladles, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges both for the doors of the inner house, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the house, that is, for the main room, of gold.

<sup>51</sup>So all the work that King Solomon performed in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the offerings vowed by his father David, the silver and the gold and the utensils, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 8

The Ark Brought into the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon

in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, that is, Zion.

<sup>3</sup>Then all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

<sup>4</sup>And they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy utensils which were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

<sup>5</sup>And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were gathered together to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

<sup>6</sup>Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>7</sup>For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its carrying poles from above.

<sup>8</sup>But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; they are there to this day.

<sup>9</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>And it happened that when the priests came from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

<sup>11</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

Solomon Addresses the People

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness.

<sup>13</sup>“I have truly built You a lofty house, A place for Your dwelling forever.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

<sup>15</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and fulfilled it with His hands, saying,

<sup>16</sup>‘Since the day that I brought My people Israel from Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My name would be there, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.’

<sup>17</sup>Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he will build the house for My name.’

<sup>20</sup>Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>And there I have set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

The Prayer of Dedication

<sup>22</sup>Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and he spread out his hands toward heaven.

<sup>23</sup>And he said, “LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping the covenant and showing faithfulness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart,

<sup>24</sup>You who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You promised him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>25</sup>Now then, LORD, God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not be deprived of a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful about their way, to walk before Me as you have walked.’

<sup>26</sup>Now then, God of Israel, let Your words, please, be confirmed, which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David.

<sup>27</sup>“But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built!

<sup>28</sup>Nevertheless, turn Your attention to the prayer of Your servant and to his plea, LORD, my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today,

<sup>29</sup>so that Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, ‘My name shall be there,’ to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place.

<sup>30</sup>And listen to the plea of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear in heaven Your dwelling place; hear and forgive!

<sup>31</sup>“If a person sins against his neighbor and is compelled to take an oath of innocence, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house, <sup>32</sup>then hear in heaven and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and acquitting the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

<sup>33</sup>“When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, if they turn to You again and confess Your name and pray and implore Your favor in this house, <sup>34</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave their fathers.

<sup>35</sup>“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and praise Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them,

<sup>36</sup>then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel; indeed, teach them the good way in which they are to walk. And provide rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup>“If there is a famine in the land, if there is a plague, if there is blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, if their enemy harasses them in the land of their cities, whatever plague, whatever sickness there is,

<sup>38</sup>whatever prayer or plea is offered by any person or by all Your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart, and spreading his hands toward this house;

<sup>39</sup>then hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive and act, and give to each in accordance with all his ways, whose heart You know—for You alone know the hearts of all mankind—

<sup>40</sup>so that they will fear You all the days that they live on the land which You have given to our fathers.

<sup>41</sup>“Also regarding the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel, when he comes from a far country on account of Your name

<sup>42</sup>(for they will hear of Your great name and Your mighty hand, and of Your outstretched arm); when he comes and prays toward this house,

<sup>43</sup>hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and act in accordance with all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>44</sup>“When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name, <sup>45</sup>then hear in heaven their prayer and their pleading, and maintain their cause.

<sup>46</sup>“When they sin against You (for there is no person who does not sin) and You are angry with them and turn them over to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to the land of the enemy, distant or near;

<sup>47</sup>if they take it to heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and repent and implore Your favor in the land of those who have taken them captive, saying, ‘We have sinned and done wrong, we have acted wickedly’;

<sup>48</sup>if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name;

<sup>49</sup>then hear their prayer and their pleading in heaven, Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause,

<sup>50</sup>and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their wrongdoings which they have committed against You, and make them objects of compassion before those who have taken them captive, so that they will have compassion on them

<sup>51</sup>(for they are Your people and Your inheritance which You have brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace),

<sup>52</sup>so that Your eyes may be open to the pleading of Your servant and to the pleading of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.

<sup>53</sup>For You have singled them out from all the peoples of the earth as Your inheritance, just as You spoke through Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord GOD.”

Solomon’s Benediction

<sup>55</sup>And he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:

<sup>56</sup>“Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel in accordance with everything that He promised; not one word has failed of all His good promise, which He promised through Moses His servant.

<sup>57</sup>May the LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers; may He not leave us nor forsake us, <sup>58</sup>so that He may guide our hearts toward Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers.

<sup>59</sup>And may these words of mine, with which I have implored the favor of the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, so that He will maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day requires,

<sup>60</sup>so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no one else.

<sup>61</sup>Your hearts therefore shall be wholly devoted to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as at this day.”

Dedicatory Sacrifices

<sup>62</sup>Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the LORD.

<sup>63</sup>And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

<sup>64</sup>On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house of the LORD, because there he offered the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings; for the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.

<sup>65</sup>So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, for seven days and seven more days, that is, fourteen days.

<sup>66</sup>On the eighth day he dismissed the people, and they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents joyful and with happy hearts for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David His servant, and to Israel His people.

1 Kings 9

God's Promise and Warning

<sup>2</sup>that the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup>And the LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your plea which you have offered before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built, by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there always.

<sup>4</sup>As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and honesty, acting in accordance with everything that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My ordinances,

<sup>5</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, just as I promised to your father David, saying, ‘You shall not be deprived of a man on the throne of Israel.’

<sup>6</sup>“But if you or your sons indeed turn away from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have placed before you, but you go and serve other gods and worship them,

<sup>7</sup>then I will cut Israel off from the land which I have given them, and the house which I have consecrated for My name, I will expel from My sight. So Israel will become a saying and an object of derision among all peoples.

<sup>8</sup>And this house will become a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by it will be appalled and hiss and say, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and this house?’

<sup>9</sup>And they will say, ‘Because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshiped and served them, for that reason the LORD has brought all this adversity on them.’”

Cities Given to Hiram

<sup>10</sup>Now it came about at the end of twenty years in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king’s house

<sup>12</sup>So Hiram left Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they did not please him.

<sup>13</sup>And he said, “What are these cities which you have given me, my brother?” So they have been called the land of Cabul to this day.

<sup>16</sup>For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and overthrown Gezer and burned it with fire, and killed the Canaanites who lived in the city; and he had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

<sup>18</sup>and Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

<sup>19</sup>and all the storage cities which Solomon had, that is, the cities for his chariots and the cities for his horsemen, and everything that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

<sup>20</sup>As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel,

<sup>23</sup>These were the chief officers who were in charge of Solomon's work, 550, who ruled over the people doing the work.

<sup>24</sup>As soon as Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her, he then built the Millo.

<sup>25</sup>Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, burning incense with them on the altar which was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

<sup>27</sup>And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with the servants of Solomon.

<sup>28</sup>And they went to Ophir and received 420 talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10

The Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup>Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon in relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with riddles.

<sup>2</sup>So she came to Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels carrying balsam oil and a very large quantity of gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke to him about everything that was in her heart.

<sup>3</sup>And Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was concealed from the king which he did not explain to her.

<sup>4</sup>When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

<sup>5</sup>and the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he offered at the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

<sup>6</sup>Then she said to the king, “It was a true story that I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

<sup>7</sup>But I did not believe the stories until I came and my own eyes saw it all. And behold, the half of it was not reported to me. You have exceeded in wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard.

<sup>8</sup>Blessed are your men, and blessed are these servants of yours who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom!

<sup>9</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to put you on the throne of Israel; because the LORD loves Israel forever, He made you king, to do justice and righteousness.”

<sup>10</sup>Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, and a very large amount of balsam oil and precious stones. Never again did such a large quantity of balsam oil come in as that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>And the ships of Hiram as well, which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a very great number of almug trees and precious stones.

<sup>12</sup>The king made from the almug trees supports for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, and lyres and harps for the singers; such almug trees have not come in again, nor have they been seen to this day.

<sup>13</sup>And King Solomon granted the queen of Sheba everything she desired, whatever she requested, besides what he gave her in proportion to his royal bounty. Then she departed and went to her own land together with her servants.

Wealth, Splendor, and Wisdom

<sup>14</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

<sup>15</sup>besides that from the traders, and the wares of the merchants and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the country.

<sup>16</sup>King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold, using six hundred shekels of gold on each large shield.

<sup>17</sup>And he made three hundred small shields of beaten gold, using three minas of gold on each shield; and the king put them in the house of the timber of Lebanon.

<sup>19</sup>There were six steps to the throne and a round top to the throne at its back, and armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests.

<sup>20</sup>Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom.

<sup>21</sup>Now all King Solomon's drinking utensils were of gold, and all the utensils of the house of the timber of Lebanon were of pure gold. None was of silver; it was not considered as amounting to anything in the days of Solomon.

<sup>23</sup>So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.

<sup>24</sup>And all the earth was seeking the attention of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

<sup>25</sup>And they were bringing, everyone, a gift: articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, balsam oil, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

<sup>26</sup>Now Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had 1,400 chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>And the king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the lowland.

<sup>28</sup>Also Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's merchants acquired them from Kue for a price.

<sup>29</sup>A chariot was imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for 150; and by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of the Arameans.

1 Kings 11

Solomon Turns from God

<sup>2</sup>from the nations of which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel, “You shall not associate with them, nor shall they associate with you; they will certainly turn your heart away to follow their gods.” Solomon clung to these in love.

<sup>3</sup>He had seven hundred wives, who were princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned his heart away.

<sup>6</sup>So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not follow the LORD fully, as his father David had done.

<sup>7</sup>Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abhorrent idol of Moab, on the mountain that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abhorrent idol of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>8</sup>He also did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>Now the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup>and had commanded him regarding this thing, that he was not to follow other gods; but he did not comply with what the LORD had commanded.

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to Solomon, “Since you have done this, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will certainly tear the kingdom away from you, and will give it to your servant.

<sup>12</sup>However, I will not do it in your days, only for the sake of your father David; but I will tear it away from the hand of your son.

<sup>13</sup>Yet I will not tear away all the kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen.”

God Raises Adversaries

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal line in Edom.

<sup>15</sup>For it came about, when David was in Edom and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury those killed in battle, and had struck and killed every male in Edom

<sup>16</sup>(for Joab and all Israel stayed there for six months, until he had eliminated every male in Edom),

<sup>17</sup>that Hadad fled to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father’s servants with him, while Hadad was a young boy.

<sup>18</sup>They set out from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and assigned him food and gave him land.

<sup>19</sup>Now Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

<sup>20</sup>And the sister of Tahpenes gave birth to his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh’s house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh’s house among the sons of Pharaoh.

<sup>21</sup>But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David lay down with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, “Let me go, so that I may go to my own country.”

<sup>22</sup>However, Pharaoh said to him, “But what have you lacked with me that you are here, requesting to go to your own country?” And he answered, “Nothing; nevertheless you must let me go.”

<sup>23</sup>God also raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master Hadadezer, king of Zobah.

<sup>24</sup>And he gathered men to himself and became leader of a marauding band, after David killed those of Zobah; and they went to Damascus and stayed there, and reigned in Damascus.

<sup>25</sup>So he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the harm that Hadad inflicted; and he felt disgust for Israel and reigned over Aram.

<sup>26</sup>Then Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

<sup>27</sup>Now this was the reason why he rebelled against the king: Solomon built the Millo, and closed up the breach of the city of his father David.

<sup>28</sup>Now the man Jeroboam was a valiant warrior, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he appointed him over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup>And it came about at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had clothed himself with a new cloak; and both of them were alone in the field.

<sup>30</sup>Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak which was on him and tore it into twelve pieces.

<sup>31</sup>And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces; for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: 'Behold, I am going to tear the kingdom away from the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes

<sup>32</sup>(but he shall have one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel),

<sup>33</sup>because they have abandoned Me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and they have not walked in My ways, doing what is right in My sight and keeping My statutes and My ordinances, as his father David did.

<sup>34</sup>Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, who kept My commandments and My statutes;

<sup>35</sup>but I will take the kingdom from his son's hand and give it to you; that is, ten tribes.

<sup>36</sup>But to his son I will give one tribe, so that My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen for Myself to put My name.

<sup>37</sup>However I will take you, and you shall reign over all that you desire, and you shall be king over Israel.

<sup>38</sup>Then it shall be, that if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight by keeping My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build you an enduring house as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.

<sup>39</sup>So I will oppress the descendants of David for this, but not always.' ”

<sup>40</sup>Solomon sought therefore to put Jeroboam to death; but Jeroboam set out and fled to Egypt to Shishak king of Egypt, and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

The Death of Solomon

<sup>41</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon and whatever he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon?

<sup>42</sup>So the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

<sup>43</sup>Then Solomon lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

1 Kings 12

King Rehoboam Acts Foolishly

<sup>1</sup>Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>2</sup>Now when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about this, he was living in Egypt (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon).

<sup>3</sup>Then they sent word and summoned him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Your father made our yoke hard; but now, lighten the hard labor imposed by your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, “Depart for three days, then return to me.” So the people departed.

<sup>6</sup>And King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

<sup>7</sup>Then they spoke to him, saying, “If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and grant them their request, and speak pleasant words to them, then they will be your servants always.”

<sup>8</sup>But he ignored the advice of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and served him.

<sup>9</sup>He said to them, “What advice do you give, so that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

<sup>10</sup>And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “This is what you should say to this people who spoke to you, saying: ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us!’ You should speak this way to them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!

<sup>11</sup>Now then, my father loaded you with a heavy yoke; yet I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions!’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

<sup>13</sup>And the king answered the people harshly, for he ignored the advice of the elders which they had given him,

<sup>14</sup>and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions!”

<sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people; because it was a turn of events from the LORD, in order to establish His word which the LORD spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

The Kingdom Divided; Jeroboam Rules Israel

<sup>16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people replied to the king, saying, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; To your tents, Israel! Now look after your own house, David!” So Israel went away to their tents.

<sup>17</sup>But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

<sup>18</sup>Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>So Israel has broken with the house of David to this day.

<sup>20</sup>And it came about, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent word and called him to the assembly, and made him king over all Israel. None except the tribe of Judah alone followed the house of David.

<sup>21</sup>Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors, to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

<sup>22</sup>But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

<sup>23</sup>“Tell Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“This is what the LORD says: “You shall not go up nor fight against your relatives the sons of Israel; return, every man to his house, for this thing has come from Me.” ’ ’ ” So they listened to the word of the LORD, and returned to go their way in accordance with the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Idolatry

<sup>25</sup>Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived there. And he went out from there and built Penuel.

<sup>26</sup>And Jeroboam said in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.

<sup>27</sup>If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will return to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.”

<sup>28</sup>So the king consulted, and he made two golden calves; and he said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; behold your gods, Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt.”

<sup>29</sup>And he set up one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.

<sup>30</sup>Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

<sup>31</sup>And he made houses on high places, and appointed priests from all the people who were not of the sons of Levi.

<sup>32</sup>Jeroboam also instituted a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar. So he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

<sup>33</sup>Then he went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, the month that he had devised in his own heart; and he instituted a feast for the sons of Israel and went up to the altar to burn incense.

1 Kings 13

Jeroboam Warned, Stricken

<sup>1</sup>Now behold, a man of God came from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, while Jeroboam was standing at the altar to burn incense.

<sup>2</sup>And he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD and said, “Altar, altar, this is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall burn on you.’”

<sup>3</sup>Then he gave a sign on the same day, saying, “This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: ‘Behold, the altar shall be torn to pieces and the ashes which are on it shall be poured out.’”

<sup>4</sup>Now when the king heard the statement of the man of God which he cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him!” But his hand which he had stretched out toward him dried up, and he could not draw it back to himself.

<sup>5</sup>The altar also was torn to pieces and the ashes were poured out from the altar, in accordance with the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And the king responded and said to the man of God, “Please appease the LORD your God and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God appeased the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored to him, and it became as it was before.

<sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a gift.”

<sup>8</sup>But the man of God said to the king, “If you were to give me half your house, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place.

<sup>9</sup>For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘You shall not eat bread nor drink water, nor return by the way that you came.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>So he went another way and did not return by the way that he had come to Bethel.

The Disobedient Prophet

<sup>11</sup>Now an old prophet was living in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the deeds which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words which he had spoken to the king, these also they reported to their father.

<sup>12</sup>And their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” Now his sons had seen the way that the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

<sup>13</sup>Then he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it.

<sup>14</sup>So he went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” And he said, “I am.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.”

<sup>16</sup>But he said, “I cannot return with you, nor come with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

<sup>17</sup>For a command came to me by the word of the LORD: ‘You shall not eat bread, nor drink water there; do not return by going the way that you came.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then he said to him, “I too am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” But he lied to him.

<sup>19</sup>So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house and drank water.

<sup>20</sup>Now it came about, as they were sitting down at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

<sup>21</sup>and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because you have disobeyed the command of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

<sup>22</sup>but have returned and eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, “You are not to eat bread nor drink water”; your dead body will not come to the grave of your fathers.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>It came about after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

<sup>24</sup>Now when he had gone, a lion met him on the way and killed him, and his body was thrown on the road, with the donkey standing beside it; the lion also was standing beside the body.

<sup>25</sup>And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown on the road, and the lion standing beside the body; so they came and told about it in the city where the old prophet had lived.

<sup>26</sup>Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard about it, he said, “It is the man of God, who disobeyed the command of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to him.”

<sup>27</sup>Then he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled it.

<sup>28</sup>Then he went and found his body thrown on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body; the lion had not eaten the body nor harmed the donkey.

<sup>29</sup>So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back; and he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him.

<sup>30</sup>He laid his body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, “Oh, my brother!”

<sup>31</sup>And after he had buried him, he talked to his sons, saying, “When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

<sup>32</sup>For the thing will certainly come to pass which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar that is in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria.”

<sup>33</sup>After this event, Jeroboam did not abandon his evil way, but he again appointed priests of the high places from all the people; anyone who wanted, he ordained, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

<sup>34</sup>This event also became a sin of the house of Jeroboam, even to wipe it out and eliminate it from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14

Ahijah Prophecies against the King

<sup>2</sup>And Jeroboam said to his wife, “Now arise and disguise yourself so that they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who said regarding me that I would be king over this people.

<sup>3</sup>Take ten loaves with you, some pastries, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>4</sup>And Jeroboam’s wife did so, and set out and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see because his eyes were glossy from his old age.

<sup>5</sup>Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, “Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you about her son, because he is sick. You shall say such and such to her, for it will be when she arrives, that she is going to make herself unrecognizable.”

<sup>6</sup>So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in the doorway, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam; why do you make yourself unrecognizable? Nevertheless, I am sent to you with a harsh message.

<sup>7</sup>Go, say to Jeroboam, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: “Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel,

<sup>8</sup>and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you—yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My sight;

<sup>9</sup>you also have done more evil than all who were before you, and you have gone and made for yourself other gods and cast metal images to provoke Me to anger, and have thrown Me behind your back—

<sup>10</sup>therefore behold, I am bringing disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and I will eliminate from Jeroboam every male person, both bond and free in Israel, and I will make a clean sweep of the house of Jeroboam, just as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone.

<sup>11</sup>Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city, the dogs will eat. And anyone who dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat; for the LORD has spoken it.”’

<sup>12</sup>Now you, arise, go to your house. When your feet enter the city the child will die.

<sup>13</sup>Then all Israel will mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam’s family will come to the grave, because in him something good was found toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will eliminate the house of Jeroboam this day and from now on.

<sup>15</sup>“For the LORD will strike Israel, just as a reed sways in the water; and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger.

<sup>16</sup>He will give up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he committed and with which he misled Israel into sin.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeroboam’s wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she was entering the threshold of the house, the child died.

<sup>18</sup>Then all Israel buried him and mourned for him, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

<sup>19</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>And the time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; and he lay down with his fathers, and his son Nadab reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Misleads Judah

<sup>21</sup>Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

<sup>22</sup>And the people of Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

<sup>23</sup>For they, too, built for themselves high places, memorial stones, and Asherim on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree.

<sup>24</sup>There were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They committed all the same abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>Now it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak the king of Egypt marched against Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he took everything; he even took all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

<sup>27</sup>So King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place, and entrusted them to the care of the commanders of the guard who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

<sup>28</sup>And it happened as often as the king entered the house of the LORD, that the guards would carry them and would bring them back into the guards' room.

<sup>29</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

1 Kings 15

Abijam Reigns over Judah

<sup>2</sup>He reigned for three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

<sup>3</sup>He walked in all the sins of his father which he had committed before him; and his heart was not wholly devoted to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David.

<sup>4</sup>But for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem,

<sup>6</sup>And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

<sup>7</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

Asa Succeeds Abijam

<sup>8</sup>And Abijam lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and his son Asa became king in his place.

<sup>9</sup>So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king of Judah.

<sup>10</sup>He reigned for forty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

<sup>12</sup>He also removed the male cult prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols which his fathers had made.

<sup>13</sup>And even his mother Maacah, he also removed her from the position of queen mother, because she had made an abominable image as an Asherah; and Asa cut down her abominable image and burned it at the brook Kidron.

<sup>14</sup>But the high places were not eliminated; nevertheless Asa's heart was wholly devoted to the LORD all his days.

<sup>15</sup>And he brought into the house of the LORD the holy gifts of his father and his own holy gifts: silver, gold, and valuable utensils.

<sup>16</sup>Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>17</sup>Baasha king of Israel marched against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and handed it over to his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

<sup>19</sup>"Let's make a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

<sup>21</sup>When Baasha heard about it, he stopped fortifying Ramah and remained in Tirzah.

<sup>22</sup>Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—no one was exempt—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built fortifications. And King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa

<sup>23</sup>Now as for the rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might, and all that he did and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

<sup>24</sup>And Asa lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David; and his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place.

Nadab and Then Baasha Rule over Israel

<sup>25</sup>Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

<sup>26</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in his sin into which he misled Israel.

<sup>27</sup>Then Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha struck and killed him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

<sup>28</sup>So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>And as soon as he was king, he struck and killed all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave Jeroboam any persons alive, but kept killing until he had eliminated them, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite,

<sup>30</sup>and because of the sins of Jeroboam which he committed, and into which he misled Israel, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

<sup>31</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

War with Judah

<sup>32</sup>And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel at Tirzah, and he reigned for twenty-four years.

<sup>34</sup>And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin into which he misled Israel.

1 Kings 16

Prophecy against Baasha

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Since I exalted you from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have misled My people Israel into sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins,

<sup>3</sup>behold, I am going to burn Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>4</sup>Anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and anyone belonging to him who dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat.”

<sup>5</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

The Israelite Kings

<sup>6</sup>And Baasha lay down with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah became king in his place.

<sup>7</sup>Moreover, the word of the LORD through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came against Baasha and his household, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, by being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck it.

<sup>8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel at Tirzah, and reigned for two years.

<sup>9</sup>And his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now Elah was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the household in Tirzah.

<sup>10</sup>Then Zimri came in and struck him and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and he became king in his place.

<sup>11</sup>And when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave a single male alive, either of his relatives or of his friends.

<sup>12</sup>So Zimri eliminated all the household of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah, which they committed and into which they misled Israel, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

<sup>14</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned for seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

<sup>16</sup>And the people who were camped heard it being said, “Zimri has conspired and has also struck and killed the king!” Therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

<sup>17</sup>Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah.

<sup>18</sup>When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king’s house and burned the king’s house over himself with fire, and died,

<sup>19</sup>because of his sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he committed, misleading Israel into sin.

<sup>20</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy which he carried out, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>21</sup>Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; the other half followed Omri.

<sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri became king.

<sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel and reigned for twelve years; he reigned for six years at Tirzah.

<sup>24</sup>And he purchased the hill Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and named the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

<sup>25</sup>Now Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, and acted more wickedly than all who were before him.

<sup>26</sup>For he walked entirely in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sins into which he misled Israel, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

<sup>27</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Omri which he did and his might which he displayed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>28</sup>And Omri lay down with his fathers and was buried in Samaria; and his son Ahab became king in his place.

<sup>29</sup>Now Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria for twenty-two years.

<sup>30</sup>Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all who were before him.

<sup>31</sup>And as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him.

<sup>32</sup>So he erected an altar for Baal at the house of Baal, which he built in Samaria.

<sup>33</sup>Ahab also made the Asherah. So Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>34</sup>In his days Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho; he laid its foundations with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Kings 17

Elijah Predicts Drought

<sup>1</sup>Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall certainly be neither dew nor rain during these years, except by my word.”

<sup>2</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

<sup>4</sup>And it shall be that you will drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide food for you there.”

<sup>5</sup>So he went and did everything according to the word of the LORD, for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan.

<sup>6</sup>And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he would drink from the brook.

<sup>7</sup>But it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide food for you.”

<sup>10</sup>So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the entrance of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, “Please get me a little water in a cup, so that I may drink.”

<sup>11</sup>As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

<sup>12</sup>But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have no food, only a handful of flour in the bowl and a little oil in the jar; and behold, I am gathering a few sticks so that I may go in and prepare it for me and my son, so that we may eat it and die.”

<sup>13</sup>However, Elijah said to her, “Do not fear; go, do as you have said. Just make me a little bread loaf from it first and bring it out to me, and afterward you may make one for yourself and for your son.

<sup>14</sup>For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘The bowl of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil become empty, until the day that the LORD provides rain on the face of the earth.’ ”

<sup>15</sup>So she went and did everything in accordance with the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for many days.

<sup>16</sup>The bowl of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil become empty, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke through Elijah.

Elijah Raises the Widow’s Son

<sup>17</sup>Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his condition became very grave, until at the end he was no longer breathing.

<sup>18</sup>So she said to Elijah, “Why is my business any of yours, you man of God? Yet you have come to me to bring my wrongdoing to remembrance, and to put my son to death!”

<sup>19</sup>But he said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her arms and carried him up to the upstairs room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed.

<sup>20</sup>And he called to the LORD and said, “LORD, my God, have You also brought catastrophe upon the widow with whom I am staying, by causing her son to die?”

<sup>21</sup>Then he stretched himself out over the boy three times, and called to the LORD and said, “LORD, my God, please, let this boy’s life return to him.”

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD listened to the voice of Elijah, and the life of the boy returned to him and he revived.

<sup>23</sup>Elijah then took the boy and brought him down from the upstairs room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.”

<sup>24</sup>Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.”

1 Kings 18

Obadiah Meets Elijah

<sup>1</sup>Now it happened after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, “Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will provide rain on the face of the earth.”

<sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria.

<sup>3</sup>Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the household. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly;

<sup>4</sup>for when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water.)

<sup>5</sup>Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the river valleys; perhaps we will find grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not have to kill some of the cattle.”

<sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them to survey it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup>Now as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him, and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Is it you, Elijah my master?”

<sup>8</sup>And he said to him, “It is I. Go, say to your master, ‘Behold, Elijah is here.’”

<sup>9</sup>But he said, “What sin have I committed, that you are handing your servant over to Ahab, to put me to death?

<sup>10</sup>As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom to which my master has not sent word to search for you; and whenever they say, ‘He is not here,’ he makes the kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you.

<sup>12</sup>And it will come about when I leave you that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to where I do not know; so when I come and inform Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, though I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth.

<sup>13</sup>Has it not been reported to my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, that I hid a hundred prophets of the LORD by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water?

<sup>14</sup>Yet now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, “Behold, Elijah is here”’; he will then kill me!”

<sup>15</sup>Then Elijah said, “As surely as the LORD of armies lives, before whom I stand, I will certainly present myself to him today.”

<sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and informed him; then Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is this you, the cause of disaster to Israel?”

<sup>18</sup>He said, “I have not brought disaster to Israel, but you and your father’s house have, because you have abandoned the commandments of the LORD and you have followed the Baals.

God or Baal on Mount Carmel

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab sent orders among all the sons of Israel and brought the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

<sup>21</sup>Then Elijah approached all the people and said, “How long are you going to struggle with the two choices? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him.” But the people did not answer him so much as a word.

<sup>22</sup>Then Elijah said to the people, “I alone am left as a prophet of the LORD, while Baal’s prophets are 450 men.

<sup>23</sup>Now have them give us two oxen; and have them choose the one ox for themselves and cut it up, and place it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put a fire under it.

<sup>24</sup>Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, He is God.” And all the people replied, “That is a good idea.”

<sup>25</sup>So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose the one ox for yourselves and prepare it first, since there are many of you, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under the ox.”

<sup>26</sup>Then they took the ox which was given them and they prepared it, and they called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, “O Baal, answer us!” But there was no voice and no one answered. And they limped about the altar which they had made.

<sup>27</sup>And at noon Elijah ridiculed them and said, “Call out with a loud voice, since he is a god; undoubtedly he is attending to business, or is on the way, or is on a journey. Perhaps he is asleep, and will awaken.”

<sup>28</sup>So they cried out with a loud voice, and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until blood gushed out on them.

<sup>29</sup>When midday was past, they raved until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice, no one answered, and no one paid attention.

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come forward to me.” So all the people came forward to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.

<sup>31</sup>Then Elijah took twelve stones, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Israel shall be your name.”

<sup>32</sup>And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two measures of seed.

<sup>33</sup>Then he laid out the wood, and he cut the ox in pieces and placed it on the wood.

<sup>34</sup>And he said, “Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.” And he said, “Do it a second time,” so they did it a second time. Then he said, “Do it a third time,” so they did it a third time.

<sup>35</sup>The water flowed around the altar, and he also filled the trench with water.

Elijah's Prayer

<sup>36</sup>Then at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet approached and said, “LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word.

<sup>37</sup>Answer me, LORD, answer me, so that this people may know that You, LORD, are God, and that You have turned their heart back.”

<sup>38</sup>Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood, and the stones and the dust; and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

<sup>39</sup>When all the people saw this, they fell on their faces; and they said, “The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God!”

<sup>40</sup>Then Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape.” So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slaughtered them there.

<sup>41</sup>Now Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of the roar of a heavy shower.”

<sup>42</sup>So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bent down to the earth and put his face between his knees.

<sup>43</sup>And he said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” So he went up and looked, but he said, “There is nothing.” Yet Elijah said, “Go back” seven times.

<sup>44</sup>And when he returned the seventh time, he said, “Behold, a cloud as small as a person’s hand is coming up from the sea.” And Elijah said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘Harness your chariot horses and go down, so that the heavy shower does not stop you.’”

<sup>45</sup>Meanwhile the sky became dark with clouds and wind came up, and there was a heavy shower. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel.

<sup>46</sup>Then the hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and he belted his cloak around his waist and outran Ahab to Jezreel.

1 Kings 19

Elijah Flees from Jezebel

<sup>1</sup>Now Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

<sup>2</sup>Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me and more so, if by about this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them.”

<sup>3</sup>And he was afraid, and got up and ran for his life and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah; and he left his servant there.

<sup>4</sup>But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree; and he asked for himself to die, and said, “Enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.”

<sup>5</sup>Then he lay down and fell asleep under a broom tree; but behold, there was an angel touching him, and he said to him, “Arise, eat!”

<sup>6</sup>And he looked, and behold, there was at his head a round loaf of bread baked on hot coals, and a pitcher of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.

<sup>7</sup>But the angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him, and said, “Arise, eat; because the journey is too long for you.”

<sup>8</sup>So he arose and ate and drank, and he journeyed in the strength of that food for forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Elijah at Horeb

<sup>9</sup>Then he came there to a cave and spent the night there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>10</sup>And he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they have sought to take my life.”

<sup>11</sup>So He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD.” And behold, the LORD was passing by! And a great and powerful wind was tearing out the mountains and breaking the rocks in pieces before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

<sup>12</sup>And after the earthquake, a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire, a sound of a gentle blowing.

<sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they have sought to take my life.”

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when you have arrived, you shall anoint Hazael king over Aram.

<sup>16</sup>You shall also anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place.

<sup>17</sup>And it shall come about that the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall put to death, and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall put to death.

<sup>18</sup>Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

<sup>19</sup>So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat while he was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen in front of him, and he with the twelfth. And Elijah came over to him and threw his cloak on him.

<sup>20</sup>Then he left the oxen behind and ran after Elijah, and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go back, for what have I done to you?”

<sup>21</sup>So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them, and cooked their meat with the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people and they ate. Then he got up and followed Elijah and served him.

1 Kings 20

War with Aram

<sup>1</sup>Now Ben-hadad, king of Aram, gathered all his army, and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent messengers to the city to Ahab, king of Israel, and said to him, “This is what Ben-hadad says:

<sup>3</sup>‘Your silver and your gold are mine; your most beautiful wives and children are also mine.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>And the king of Israel replied, “As you say, my lord, O king; I am yours, as well as all that I have.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the messengers returned and said, “Ben-hadad says this: ‘I did indeed send word to you, saying, “You shall give me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children”;

<sup>6</sup>but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and they will take in their hands everything that is pleasing to your eyes, and take it all away.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, “Please be aware and see that this man is looking for trouble; for he sent me his demand for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him.”

<sup>8</sup>Then all the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen nor consent.”

<sup>9</sup>So he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, “Tell my lord the king, ‘Everything that you sent as a demand to your servant at the first, I will do; but this thing I cannot do.’” Then the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

<sup>10</sup>Ben-hadad sent word to him and said, “May the gods do so to me and more so, if the dust of Samaria will be enough for handfuls for all the people who follow me.”

<sup>11</sup>Then the king of Israel replied, “Tell him, ‘He who straps on his weapons had better not boast like one who takes them off.’”

<sup>12</sup>And when Ben-hadad heard this message, while he was drinking with the kings in the temporary shelters, he said to his servants, “Take your positions.” So they took their positions against the city.

Ahab Victorious

<sup>13</sup>Now behold, a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel, and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I am going to hand them over to you today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>14</sup>But Ahab said, “By whom?” So he said, “The LORD says this: ‘By the young men of the leaders of the provinces.’” Then he said, “Who will begin the battle?” And he said, “You will.”

<sup>15</sup>So he mustered the young men of the leaders of the provinces, and there were 232; and after them he mustered all the people, all the sons of Israel: seven thousand.

<sup>16</sup>They went out at noon, while Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the temporary shelters with the thirty-two kings who were helping him.

<sup>17</sup>The young men of the leaders of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out scouts, and they reported to him, saying, “Men have come out from Samaria.”

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive as well.”

<sup>19</sup>So these men went out from the city, the young men of the leaders of the provinces, and the army which followed them.

<sup>20</sup>And they killed, each one, his man; and the Arameans fled and Israel pursued them, and Ben-hadad the king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen.

<sup>21</sup>The king of Israel also went out and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Arameans in a great slaughter.

<sup>22</sup>Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Go, show yourself courageous and be aware and see what you have to do; for at the turn of the year the king of Aram will march against you.”

<sup>23</sup>Now the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the mountains; for that reason they were stronger than we. But let us fight them in the plain, and we will certainly be stronger than they.

<sup>24</sup>Carry out this plan: remove the kings, each from his place, and put governors in their place, <sup>25</sup>and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain, and we will certainly be stronger than they.” And he listened to their voice and did so.

Another Aramean War

<sup>26</sup>So at the turn of the year Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

<sup>27</sup>And the sons of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went to meet them; and the sons of Israel camped opposite them like two little flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the country.

<sup>28</sup>Then a man of God approached and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Since the Arameans have said, “The LORD is a god of mountains, but He is not a god of valleys,” therefore I will hand over to you all this great multitude, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>29</sup>So they camped, one opposite the other, for seven days. And on the seventh day the battle was joined, and the sons of Israel killed of the Arameans a hundred thousand foot soldiers in a single day.

<sup>30</sup>But the rest fled to Aphek into the city, and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city, going from one inner room to another.

<sup>31</sup>But his servants said to him, “Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let’s put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will let you live.”

<sup>32</sup>So they put sackcloth around their waists and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’” And Ahab said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

<sup>33</sup>Now the men took this as a good omen, and quickly accepting it from him, they said, “Your brother Ben-hadad.” Then he said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben-hadad came out to him, and he had him mount the chariot.

<sup>34</sup>And Ben-hadad said to him, “The cities which my father took from your father I will restore, and you can make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria.” Ahab said, “And I will let you go with this covenant.” So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

<sup>35</sup>Now a man from the sons of the prophets said to another by the word of the LORD, “Please strike me.” But the man refused to strike him.

<sup>36</sup>Then he said to him, “Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you.” And as soon as he left him a lion found him and killed him.

<sup>37</sup>Then he found another man and said, “Please strike me.” And the man struck him, injuring him.

<sup>38</sup>So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

<sup>39</sup>And as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, “Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man; if for any reason he goes missing, then your life shall be forfeited in place of his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’

<sup>40</sup>Now while your servant was busy here and there, he disappeared.” And the king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be; you yourself determined it.”

<sup>41</sup>Then he quickly took the bandage away from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him, that he was one of the prophets.

<sup>42</sup>And the prophet said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Since you have let go from your hand the man I had designated for destruction, your life shall be forfeited in place of his life, and your people in place of his people.’”

<sup>43</sup>So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and furious, and came to Samaria.

1 Kings 21

Ahab Covets Naboth's Vineyard

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel beside the palace of Ahab, the king of Samaria.

<sup>2</sup>And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, “Give me your vineyard so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is close beside my house, and I will give you a better vineyard in place of it; if you prefer, I will give you what it is worth in money.”

<sup>3</sup>But Naboth said to Ahab, “The LORD forbid me that I would give you the inheritance of my fathers!”

<sup>4</sup>So Ahab entered his house sullen and furious because of the answer that Naboth the Jezreelite had given to him, since he said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers.” And he lay down on his bed and turned his face away, and ate no food.

<sup>5</sup>But Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, “How is it that your spirit is so sullen that you are not eating food?”

<sup>6</sup>So he said to her, “It is because I was speaking to Naboth the Jezreelite and saying to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you a vineyard in place of it.’ But he said, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’”

<sup>7</sup>Jezebel his wife said to him, “Do you now reign over Israel? Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be joyful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

<sup>8</sup>So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were living with Naboth in his city.

<sup>9</sup>Now she had written in the letters, saying, “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people;

<sup>10</sup>and seat two worthless men opposite him, and have them testify against him, saying, ‘You cursed God and the king.’ Then take him out and stone him to death.”

Jezebel’s Plot

<sup>11</sup>So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did just as Jezebel had sent word to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent them.

<sup>13</sup>Then the two worthless men came in and sat opposite him; and the worthless men testified against him, against Naboth, before the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death with stones.

<sup>14</sup>Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

<sup>15</sup>And when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

<sup>16</sup>When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

<sup>17</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

<sup>18</sup>"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

<sup>19</sup>And you shall speak to him, saying, 'This is what the LORD says: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?"' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'The LORD says this: "In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick up your blood, yours as well."'

<sup>20</sup>Then Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, enemy of mine?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have given yourself over to do evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>Behold, I am bringing disaster upon you, and I will utterly sweep you away, and will eliminate from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel;

<sup>22</sup>and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and because you have misled Israel into sin.

<sup>23</sup>The LORD has also spoken of Jezebel, saying, ‘The dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel.’

<sup>25</sup>There certainly was no one like Ahab who gave himself over to do evil in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife incited him.

<sup>26</sup>He also acted very despicably in following idols, conforming to everything that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD drove out from the sons of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>Yet it came about, when Ahab heard these words, that he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and fasted, and he lay in sackcloth and went about despondently.

<sup>28</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

<sup>29</sup>“Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; I will bring the disaster upon his house in his son’s days.”

1 Kings 22

Ahab’s Third Campaign against Aram

<sup>2</sup>In the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Now the king of Israel said to his servants, “Are you aware that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, yet we are hesitant to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?”

<sup>4</sup>So he said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go to battle with me at Ramoth-gilead?” And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Consider me yours, my people yours, and my horses yours!”

<sup>5</sup>However, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please request the word of the LORD first.”

<sup>6</sup>So the king of Israel assembled the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Should I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead or should I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for the Lord will hand it over to the king.”

<sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of him?”

<sup>8</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy anything good regarding me, but only bad. He is Micaiah the son of Imlah.” But Jehoshaphat said, “May the king not say so.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed!’ ”

<sup>12</sup>All the prophets were prophesying this as well, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

Micaiah Predicts Defeat

<sup>13</sup>Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Behold now, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”

<sup>14</sup>But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, I shall speak it.”

<sup>15</sup>When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, should we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or should we refrain?” And he said, “Go up and succeed, for the LORD will hand it over to the king!”

<sup>16</sup>Then the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>17</sup>So he said, “I saw all Israel Scattered on the mountains, Like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Each of them is to return to his house in peace.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything good regarding me, but only bad?”

<sup>20</sup>And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one spirit said this, while another said that.

<sup>21</sup>Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will entice him.’

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD said to him, ‘How?’ And he said, ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ Then He said, ‘You shall entice him, and you will also prevail. Go and do so.’

<sup>23</sup>Now then, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours; and the LORD has declared disaster against you.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah approached and struck Micaiah on the cheek; and he said, “How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?”

<sup>25</sup>And Micaiah said, “Behold, you are going to see how on that day when you go from one inner room to another trying to hide yourself.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son;

<sup>27</sup>and say, ‘This is what the king says: “Put this man in prison, and feed him enough bread and water to survive until I return safely.” ’ ”

<sup>28</sup>But Micaiah said, “If you actually return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Listen, all you people!”

Defeat and Death of Ahab

<sup>29</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>30</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

<sup>31</sup>Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two commanders of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with the small or great, but only with the king of Israel.”

<sup>32</sup>So when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely he is the king of Israel!” And they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

<sup>33</sup>Then, when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>35</sup>The battle raged on that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot in front of the Arameans, and he died at evening, and the blood from the wound ran into the bottom of the chariot.

<sup>36</sup>Then the word passed throughout the army close to sunset, saying, “Every man to his city, and every man to his country!”

<sup>37</sup>So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

<sup>38</sup>They washed out the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood (it was there that the prostitutes bathed themselves) in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had spoken.

<sup>39</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Ahab and everything that he did, and the ivory house which he built and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>40</sup>So Ahab lay down with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

The New Rulers

<sup>41</sup>Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

<sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>43</sup>He walked entirely in the way of his father Asa; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

<sup>45</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed and how he made war, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>46</sup>And the remnant of the cult prostitutes who remained in the days of his father Asa, he eliminated from the land.

<sup>47</sup>Now there was no king in Edom; a governor served as king.

<sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat built ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, because the ships were destroyed at Ezion-geber.

<sup>49</sup>Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat was not willing.

<sup>50</sup>And Jehoshaphat lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and his son Jehoram became king in his place.

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

<sup>52</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who misled Israel into sin.

<sup>53</sup>So he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2 Kings 1

Ahaziah's Messengers Meet Elijah

<sup>2</sup>And Ahaziah fell through the window lattice in his upper chamber which was in Samaria, and became ill. So he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this sickness."

<sup>3</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?'

<sup>4</sup>Now therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'You will not get down from the bed upon which you have lain, but you shall certainly die.'" Then Elijah departed.

<sup>5</sup>When the messengers returned to Ahaziah, he said to them, "Why have you returned?"

<sup>6</sup>They said to him, "A man came up to meet us and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you and say to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not get down from the bed upon which you have lain, but you shall certainly die.' " " " " "

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to them, "What did the man look like, who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?"

<sup>8</sup>And they said to him, "He was a hairy man with a leather belt worn around his waist." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

<sup>9</sup>Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he went up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he said to him, “You man of God, the king says, ‘Come down.’”

<sup>10</sup>But Elijah replied to the captain of fifty, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

<sup>11</sup>So the king again sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he said to him, “You man of God, this is what the king says: ‘Come down quickly!’”

<sup>12</sup>But Elijah replied to them, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

<sup>13</sup>So the king again sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty men. When the third captain of fifty went up, he came and bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and begged him and said to him, “You man of God, please let my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, fire came down from heaven and consumed the first two captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight.”

<sup>15</sup>And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Since you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron—is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you will not get down from the bed upon which you have lain, but you shall certainly die.’”

Jehoram Reigns over Israel

<sup>17</sup>So Ahaziah died in accordance with the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And since he had no son, Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2

Elijah Taken to Heaven

<sup>2</sup>And Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here please, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup>Then the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel went out to Elisha and said to him, “Are you aware that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” And he said, “Yes, I am aware; say nothing about it.”

<sup>4</sup>And Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As surely as the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup>Then the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?” And he answered, “Yes, I know; say nothing about it.”

<sup>6</sup>And Elijah said to him, “Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As surely as the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on.

<sup>7</sup>Now fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup>And Elijah took his coat, folded it, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask me what I should do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.”

<sup>11</sup>And as they were walking along and talking, behold, a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and they separated the two of them. Then Elijah went up by a whirlwind to heaven.

<sup>12</sup>And Elisha was watching it and he was crying out, “My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!” And he did not see Elijah again. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

<sup>13</sup>He also took up the coat of Elijah that had fallen from him, and he went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

<sup>14</sup>Then he took the coat of Elijah that had fallen from him and struck the waters, and said, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” And when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha crossed over.

Elisha Succeeds Elijah

<sup>15</sup>Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho opposite him saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah has settled on Elisha.” And they came to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him.

<sup>16</sup>Then they said to him, “Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men; please let them go and search for your master, in case the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or into some valley.” But he said, “You shall not send anyone.”

<sup>17</sup>Yet when they urged him until he was ashamed to refuse, he said, “Send them.” So they sent fifty men; and they searched for three days, but did not find him.

<sup>18</sup>They returned to him while he was staying in Jericho; and he said to them, “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not go’?”

<sup>19</sup>Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Behold now, the site of the city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad and the land is unfruitful.”

<sup>20</sup>And he said, “Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

<sup>21</sup>Then he went out to the spring of water and threw salt in it and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘I have purified these waters; there shall not come from there death or unfruitfulness any longer.’ ”

<sup>22</sup>So the waters have been purified to this day, in accordance with the word of Elisha which he spoke.

<sup>23</sup>Now he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the road, some young boys came out from the city and ridiculed him and said to him, “Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead!”

<sup>24</sup>When he looked behind him and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two of the boys.

<sup>25</sup>He then went on from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3

Jehoram Meets Moabite Rebellion

<sup>1</sup>Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned for twelve years.

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and his mother; for he removed the memorial stone of Baal which his father had made.

<sup>3</sup>Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel; he did not abandon them.

<sup>7</sup>Then he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has broken away from me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” And he said, “I will go up. Consider me yours, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

<sup>8</sup>Then he said, “Which way shall we go up?” And he answered, “The way of the wilderness of Edom.”

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they made a circuit of seven days’ journey. But there was no water for the army or for the cattle that followed them.

<sup>10</sup>Then the king of Israel said, “It is hopeless! For the LORD has called these three kings to hand them over to Moab!”

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?” And one of the king of Israel’s servants answered and said, “Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.”

<sup>12</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>13</sup>Now Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What business do you have with me? Go to your father’s prophets and your mother’s prophets.” But the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to hand them over to Moab.”

<sup>14</sup>Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD of armies lives, before whom I stand, if I did not respect Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you.

<sup>15</sup>But now bring me a musician.” And it came about, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

<sup>16</sup>And he said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Make this valley full of trenches.’

<sup>17</sup>For the LORD says this: ‘You will not see wind, nor will you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you will drink, you, your livestock, and your other animals.

<sup>18</sup>And this is an insignificant thing in the sight of the LORD; He will also give the Moabites into your hand.

<sup>19</sup>Then you shall strike every fortified city and every choice city, and cut down every good tree and stop up all the springs of water, and spoil every good plot of land with stones.’ ”

<sup>20</sup>And it happened in the morning about the time of offering the sacrifice, that behold, water came from the direction of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup>Now all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And all who were able to put on armor and older were summoned and they took their positions on the border.

<sup>22</sup>Then they got up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.

<sup>23</sup>So they said, “This is blood; the kings must have fought each other, and they have killed one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoils!”

<sup>24</sup>But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled from them; and the Israelites invaded the land, killing the Moabites.

<sup>25</sup>So they destroyed the cities; and each one threw a stone on every plot of good land and filled it. So they stopped up every spring of water and cut down every good tree, until in Kir-hareseth only they left its stones; however, the rock slingers surrounded it and struck it.

<sup>26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Moab took his oldest son who was to reign in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And great anger came upon Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4

The Widow's Oil

<sup>1</sup>Now a woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD; and the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves."

<sup>2</sup>So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil."

<sup>3</sup>Then he said, "Go, borrow containers elsewhere for yourself, empty containers from all your neighbors—do not get too few.

<sup>4</sup>Then you shall come in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour into all these containers; and you shall set aside what is full."

<sup>5</sup>So she left him and shut the door behind her and her sons; they began bringing the containers to her, and she poured the oil.

<sup>6</sup>When the containers were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container." But he said to her, "There are no more containers." Then the oil stopped.

<sup>7</sup>So she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on the rest."

The Shunammite Woman

<sup>8</sup>Now a day came when Elisha went over to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman, and she urged him to eat food. And so it was, as often as he passed by, that he turned in there to eat food.

<sup>9</sup>And she said to her husband, “Behold now, I am aware that this is a holy man of God passing by us repeatedly.

<sup>10</sup>Please, let’s make a little walled upper room, and let’s set up a bed for him there, and a table, a chair, and a lampstand; then it shall be, when he comes to us, that he can turn in there.”

<sup>11</sup>Now one day he came there, and turned in to the upper room and rested.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said to his servant Gehazi, “Call this Shunammite.” And when he had called her, she stood before him.

<sup>13</sup>And he said to him, “Say now to her, ‘Behold, you have taken trouble for us with all this care; what can I do for you? Would you like me to speak for you to the king or to the commander of the army?’” But she answered, “I live among my own people.”

<sup>14</sup>So he said, “What then is to be done for her?” And Gehazi answered, “It is a fact that she has no son, and her husband is old.”

<sup>15</sup>He then said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said, “At this season next year, you are going to embrace a son.” And she said, “No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your servant.”

<sup>17</sup>Now the woman conceived and gave birth to a son at that season the next year, as Elisha had told her.

The Shunammite’s Son

<sup>18</sup>When the child was grown, the day came that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

<sup>19</sup>And he said to his father, “My head, my head!” And his father said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

<sup>20</sup>When he had carried him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

<sup>21</sup>And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door behind him and left.

<sup>22</sup>Then she called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may run to the man of God and return.”

<sup>23</sup>But he said, “Why are you going to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath.” So she just said, “It will be fine.”

<sup>24</sup>Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Drive the donkey and go on; do not slow down the pace for me unless I tell you.”

<sup>25</sup>So she went on and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Behold, that person there is the Shunammite.

<sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her and say to her, ‘Is it going well for you? Is it going well for your husband? Is it going well for the child?’” Then she answered, “It is going well.”

<sup>27</sup>But she came to the man of God at the hill and took hold of his feet. And Gehazi came up to push her away, but the man of God said, “Leave her alone, for her soul is troubled within her; and the LORD has concealed it from me and has not informed me.”

<sup>28</sup>Then she said, “Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not give me false hope?’”

<sup>29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, “Get ready and take my staff in your hand, and go; if you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not reply to him. And lay my staff on the boy’s face.”

<sup>30</sup>The mother of the boy said, “As surely as the LORD lives and you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So he got up and followed her.

<sup>31</sup>Then Gehazi went on ahead of them and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So he returned to meet him and informed him, saying, "The boy has not awakened."

<sup>32</sup>When Elisha entered the house, behold the boy was dead, laid on his bed.

<sup>33</sup>So he entered and shut the door behind them both, and he prayed to the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>Then he got up on the bed and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, his hands on his hands, and he bent down on him; and the flesh of the child became warm.

<sup>35</sup>Then he returned and walked in the house back and forth once, and went up and bent down on him; and the boy sneezed seven times, then the boy opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup>And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she came to him, he said, "Pick up your son."

<sup>37</sup>Then she came in and fell at his feet and bowed down to the ground, and she picked up her son and left.

The Poisonous Stew

<sup>38</sup>When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting in front of him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

<sup>39</sup>Then one went out into the field to gather mallow, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds; and he came and sliced them into the pot of stew, because they did not know what they were.

<sup>40</sup>So they poured it out for the men to eat. But as they were eating the stew, they cried out and said, "You man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they were unable to eat.

<sup>41</sup>Then he said, “Bring flour.” And he threw it into the pot, and said, “Pour it out for the people that they may eat.” Then there was nothing harmful in the pot.

<sup>42</sup>Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh grain in his sack. And Elisha said, “Give them to the people that they may eat.”

<sup>43</sup>But his attendant said, “How am I to serve this to a hundred men?” Nevertheless he said, “Give them to the people that they may eat, for this is what the LORD says: ‘They shall eat and have some left over.’”

<sup>44</sup>So he served it to them, and they ate and had some left over, in accordance with the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5

Naaman Is Healed

<sup>1</sup>Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man in the view of his master, and eminent, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was also a valiant warrior, but afflicted with leprosy.

<sup>2</sup>Now the Arameans had gone out in bands and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel; and she waited on Naaman’s wife.

<sup>3</sup>And she said to her mistress, “If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy.”

<sup>4</sup>And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, “The girl who is from the land of Israel spoke such and such.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Aram said, “Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” So he departed and took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothes.

<sup>6</sup>And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said, “And now as this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, so that you may cure him of his leprosy.”

<sup>7</sup>But when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, “Am I God, to kill and to keep alive, that this man is sending word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? But consider now, and see how he is seeking a quarrel against me.”

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent word to the king, saying, “Why did you tear your clothes? Just have him come to me, and he shall learn that there is a prophet in Israel.”

<sup>10</sup>And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, “Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored to you and you will be clean.”

<sup>11</sup>But Naaman was furious and went away, and he said, “Behold, I thought, ‘He will certainly come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the site and cure the leprosy.’

<sup>12</sup>Are Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, not better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup>Then his servants approached and spoke to him, saying, “My father, had the prophet told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean’?”

<sup>14</sup>So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, in accordance with the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

Gehazi’s Greed

<sup>15</sup>Then he returned to the man of God with all his company, and came and stood before him. And he said, “Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; so please accept a gift from your servant now.”

<sup>16</sup>But he said, “As surely as the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will accept nothing.” And he urged him to accept it, but he refused.

<sup>17</sup>Then Naaman said, “If not, please let your servant be given two mules’ load of earth; for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering nor a sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Regarding this matter may the LORD forgive your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD please forgive your servant in this matter.”

<sup>19</sup>He said to him, “Go in peace.” So he went some distance from him.

<sup>20</sup>But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, “Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean, by not accepting from his hand what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him.”

<sup>21</sup>So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him and said, “Is everything well?”

<sup>22</sup>And he said, “Everything is well. My master has sent me, saying, ‘Behold, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>Naaman said, “Be sure to take two talents.” And he urged him, and tied up two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes, and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them before him.

<sup>24</sup>When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house, and he sent the men away, and they departed.

<sup>25</sup>But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, “Where have you been, Gehazi?” And he said, “Your servant went nowhere.”

<sup>26</sup>Then he said to him, “Did my heart not go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept money and to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, sheep, oxen, and male and female slaves?

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever.” So he went out from his presence afflicted with leprosy, as white as snow.

2 Kings 6

The Axe Head Recovered

<sup>1</sup>Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Behold now, the place before you where we are living is too cramped for us.

<sup>2</sup>Please let us go to the Jordan, and let us each take from there a beam, and let us construct a place there for ourselves, to live there.” So he said, “Go.”

<sup>3</sup>Then one of them said, “Please agree and go with your servants.” And he said, “I will go.”

<sup>4</sup>So he went with them; and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

<sup>5</sup>But it happened that as one of them was cutting down a beam, the axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, “Oh, my master! It was borrowed!”

<sup>6</sup>Then the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” And when he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

<sup>7</sup>Then he said, “Pick it up for yourself.” So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Arameans Plot to Capture Elisha

<sup>8</sup>Now the king of Aram was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, “In such and such a place shall be my camp.”

<sup>9</sup>But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, saying, “Be careful that you do not pass this place, because the Arameans are coming down there.”

<sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel sent scouts to the place about which the man of God had told him; so he warned him, so that he was on his guard there, more than once or twice.

<sup>11</sup>Now the heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this matter; and he called his servants and said to them, “Will you not tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?”

<sup>12</sup>One of his servants said, “No, my lord, the king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.”

<sup>13</sup>So he said, “Go and see where he is, so that I may send men and take him.” And it was told to him, saying, “Behold, he is in Dothan.”

<sup>14</sup>So he sent horses and chariots and a substantial army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the attendant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was circling the city. And his servant said to him, “This is hopeless, my master! What are we to do?”

<sup>16</sup>And he said, “Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are greater than those who are with them.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed and said, “LORD, please, open his eyes so that he may see.” And the LORD opened the servant’s eyes, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

<sup>18</sup>And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, “Please strike this people with blindness.” So He struck them with blindness in accordance with the word of Elisha.

<sup>19</sup>Then Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, nor is this the city; follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek.” And he brought them to Samaria.

<sup>20</sup>When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men, so that they may see.” So the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Israel when he saw them, said to Elisha, “My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?”

<sup>22</sup>But he answered, “You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Set bread and water before them, so that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.”

<sup>23</sup>So he provided a large feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the marauding bands of Arameans did not come again into the land of Israel.

The Siege of Samaria—Cannibalism

<sup>24</sup>Now it came about after this, that Ben-hadad the king of Aram gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>So there was a severe famine in Samaria; and behold, they kept besieging it until a donkey’s head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a fourth of a kab of dove’s dung for five shekels of silver.

<sup>26</sup>And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, “Help, my lord the king!”

<sup>27</sup>But he said, “If the LORD does not help you, from where am I to help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?”

<sup>28</sup>Then the king said to her, “What is on your mind?” And she said, “This woman said to me, ‘Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’”

<sup>29</sup>So we cooked my son and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, ‘Give your son, so that we may eat him’; but she has hidden her son.”

<sup>30</sup>When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his clothes—and he was passing by on the wall—and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth underneath on his body.

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, “May God do so to me and more so, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today.”

<sup>32</sup>Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man from his presence; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, “Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent a man to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold the door shut against him. Is the sound of his master’s feet not behind him?”

<sup>33</sup>While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him and he said, “Behold, this evil is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?”

2 Kings 7

Elisha Promises Food

<sup>1</sup>Then Elisha said, “Listen to the word of the LORD; this is what the LORD says: ‘About this time tomorrow a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.’”

<sup>2</sup>The royal officer on whose hand the king was leaning responded to the man of God and said, “Even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this thing happen?” Then he said, “Behold, you are going to see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it.”

Four Men with Leprosy Report Arameans’ Flight

<sup>3</sup>Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, “Why are we sitting here until we die?

<sup>4</sup>If we say, ‘We will enter the city,’ then the famine is in the city and we will die there; but if we sit here, we will also die. Now then come, and let’s go over to the camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we will live; and if they kill us, then we will die.”

<sup>5</sup>So they got up at twilight to go to the camp of the Arameans; when they came to the outskirts of the camp of the Arameans, behold, there was no one there.

<sup>6</sup>For the Lord had made the army of the Arameans hear a sound of chariots, a sound of horses, that is, the sound of a great army; and they said to one another, “Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians against us, to attack us!”

<sup>7</sup>So they got up and fled at twilight, and abandoned their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—indeed the camp itself, just as it was; and they fled for their lives.

<sup>8</sup>When these men with leprosy came to the outskirts of the camp, they entered one tent and ate and drank, and carried from there silver, gold, and clothes, and they went and hid them; then they returned and entered another tent, and carried valuables from there also, and went and hid them.

<sup>9</sup>Then they said to one another, “We are not doing the right thing. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping silent about it; if we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now then come, let’s go and inform the king’s household.”

<sup>10</sup>So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, “We came to the camp of the Arameans, and behold, there was no one there, nor a human voice; only the horses tied and the donkeys tied, and the tents just as they were.”

<sup>11</sup>And the gatekeepers called and announced it inside the king’s house.

<sup>12</sup>Then the king got up in the night and said to his servants, “I will now tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry; so they have left the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and get into the city.’ ”

<sup>13</sup>One of his servants responded and said, “Please, have some men take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they will be in any case like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they will be like all the multitude of Israel who have already perished, so let us send them and see.”

<sup>14</sup>Therefore they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the army of the Arameans, saying, “Go and see.”

The Promise Fulfilled

<sup>15</sup>They went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the way was full of clothes and equipment which the Arameans had thrown away when they fled in a hurry. Then the messengers returned and informed the king.

<sup>16</sup>So the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. Then a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in accordance with the word of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Now the king appointed the royal officer on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate; but the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.

<sup>18</sup>So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, “Two measures of barley for a shekel and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, will be sold about this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria.”

<sup>19</sup>At that time the royal officer had responded to the man of God and said, “Now even if the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could such a thing as this happen?” And he had said, “Behold, you are going to see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it.”

<sup>20</sup>And this is what happened to him, for the people trampled on him at the gate and he died.

2 Kings 8

Jehoram Restores the Shunammite's Land

<sup>1</sup>Now Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go with your household, and live wherever you can live; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will indeed come on the land for seven years."

<sup>2</sup>So the woman arose and acted in accordance with the word of the man of God: she went with her household and resided in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

<sup>3</sup>Then at the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to appeal to the king for her house and for her field.

<sup>4</sup>Now the king was speaking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please report to me all the great things that Elisha has done."

<sup>5</sup>And as he was reporting to the king how he had restored to life the one who was dead, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, "My lord the king, this is the woman and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>6</sup>When the king asked the woman, she told everything to him. So the king appointed an officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers and all the produce of the field from the day that she left the land even until now."

Elisha Predicts Evil from Hazael

<sup>7</sup>Then Elisha came to Damascus. Now Ben-hadad, the king of Aram, was sick, and it was told to him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8</sup>And the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every kind of good thing of Damascus, forty camels' loads; and he came and stood before him and said, “Your son Ben-hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’ ”

<sup>10</sup>Then Elisha said to him, “Go, say to him, ‘You will certainly recover’; but the LORD has shown me that he will certainly die.”

<sup>11</sup>And he stared steadily at him until Hazael was embarrassed, and then the man of God wept.

<sup>12</sup>And Hazael said, “Why is my lord weeping?” And he answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel: you will set their fortified cities on fire, you will kill their young men with the sword, their little ones you will smash to pieces, and you will rip up their pregnant women.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Hazael said, “But what is your servant—a lowly dog—that he could do this great thing?” And Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram.”

<sup>14</sup>So he left Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, “What did Elisha say to you?” And he answered, “He told me that you would certainly recover.”

<sup>15</sup>But on the following day, he took the cover and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face, so that he died. And Hazael became king in his place.

Another Jehoram Reigns in Judah

<sup>16</sup>Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king.

<sup>17</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab’s daughter was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>However, the LORD did not want to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, since He had promised him to give him a lamp through his sons always.

<sup>20</sup>In his days Edom broke away from the rule of Judah, and appointed a king over themselves.

<sup>21</sup>Then Joram crossed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him. And he got up at night and struck the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; but his army fled to their tents.

<sup>22</sup>So Edom has broken away from Judah to this day. Then Libnah broke away at the same time.

<sup>23</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Joram and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Ahaziah Succeeds Jehoram in Judah

<sup>24</sup>So Joram lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

<sup>25</sup>In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

<sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, because he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

<sup>28</sup>Then he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram.

<sup>29</sup>So King Joram returned to have himself healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.

2 Kings 9

Jehu Reigns over Israel

<sup>1</sup>Now Elisha the prophet summoned one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, “Get ready and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>2</sup>When you arrive there, then look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and have him get up from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room.

<sup>3</sup>Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head, and say, ‘This is what the LORD says: “I have anointed you king over Israel.”’ Then open the door and flee, and do not wait.”

<sup>4</sup>So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>5</sup>When he arrived, behold, the commanders of the army were sitting, and he said, “I have a word for you, commander.” And Jehu said, “For which one of us?” And he said, “For you, commander.”

<sup>6</sup>He then got up and went into the house, and the prophet’s servant poured the oil on his head and said to him, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And you shall strike the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

<sup>8</sup>For the entire house of Ahab shall perish, and I will eliminate from Ahab every male person both slave and free in Israel.

<sup>9</sup>I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

<sup>10</sup>The dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and no one will bury her.’ ” Then he opened the door and fled.

<sup>11</sup>Now Jehu went out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, “Is everything well? Why did this crazy fellow come to you?” And he said to them, “You know very well the man and his talk.”

<sup>12</sup>And they said, “It is a lie; tell us now.” And he said, “Such and such he said to me, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says: “I have anointed you king over Israel.” ’ ”

<sup>13</sup>Then they hurried, and each man took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps, and blew the trumpet, saying, “Jehu is king!”

Jehu Assassinates Jehoram (Joram)

<sup>14</sup>So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram with all Israel was defending Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Aram,

<sup>15</sup>but King Joram had returned to Jezreel to have himself healed of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said to the other men, “If this is your intent, then let no one escape from the city to go tell about it in Jezreel.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, since Joram was lying there recovering. And Ahaziah the king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

<sup>17</sup>Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and he said, “I see a company.” And Joram said, “Take a horseman and send him to meet them and have him ask, ‘Is your intention peace?’ ”

<sup>18</sup>So a horseman went to meet him and said, “This is what the king says: ‘Is your intention peace?’ ” But Jehu said, “How is peace any business of yours? Turn and follow me.” And the watchman reported, “The messenger came to them, but he did not return.”

<sup>19</sup>Then he sent a second horseman, and he came to them and said, “This is what the king says: ‘Is your intention peace?’ ” And Jehu answered, “How is peace any business of yours? Turn and follow me.”

<sup>20</sup>And the watchman reported, “He came up to them, but he did not return; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Joram said, “Get ready.” And they made his chariot ready. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu and found him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>22</sup>When Joram saw Jehu, he said, “Is your intention peace, Jehu?” And he answered, “What ‘peace,’ so long as your mother Jezebel’s acts of prostitution and witchcraft are so many?”

<sup>23</sup>So Joram turned back and fled, and he said to Ahaziah, “There is treachery, Ahaziah!”

<sup>25</sup>And Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, “Pick him up and throw him on the property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together after his father Ahab, that the LORD brought this pronouncement against him:

<sup>26</sup>‘I have certainly seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will repay you on this property,’ declares the LORD. Now then, pick him up and throw him on the property, in accordance with the word of the LORD.”

Jehu Assassinates Ahaziah

<sup>27</sup>When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by way of the garden house. But Jehu pursued him and said, “Shoot him too, in the chariot.” So they shot him at the ascent of Gur, which is at Ibleam. But he fled to Megiddo and died there.

<sup>28</sup>Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

<sup>30</sup>When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it, and she put makeup on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked down through the window.

<sup>31</sup>As Jehu entered the gate, she said, “Is your intention peace, Zimri, his master’s murderer?”

<sup>32</sup>Then he raised his face toward the window and said, “Who is with me, who?” And two or three officials looked down at him.

Jezebel Is Killed

<sup>33</sup>Then he said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her underfoot.

<sup>34</sup>When he came in, he ate and drank; and he said, “See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king’s daughter.”

<sup>35</sup>So they went to bury her, but they found nothing of her except the skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore they returned and informed him. And he said, “This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ‘On the property of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

<sup>37</sup>and the corpse of Jezebel will be like dung on the face of the field in the property of Jezreel, so they cannot say, “This is Jezebel.” ’ ”

2 Kings 10

Judgment upon Ahab’s House

<sup>1</sup>Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the officials of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of the children of Ahab, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“And now, when this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons are with you, as well as the chariots and horses, and a fortified city and the weapons,

<sup>3</sup>select the best and most capable of your master’s sons and seat him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house.”

<sup>4</sup>But they feared greatly and said, “Behold, the two kings did not stand firm before him; how then can we stand?”

<sup>5</sup>And the one who was in charge of the household, and the one who was in charge of the city, and the elders, and the guardians of the children, sent word to Jehu, saying, “We are your servants, and everything that you tell us we will do. We will not appoint any man king; do what is good in your sight.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he wrote them a letter a second time, saying, “If you are on my side, and will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master’s sons, and come to me at Jezreel about this time tomorrow.” Now the king’s sons, seventy men, were with the great people of the city, who were raising them.

<sup>7</sup>When the letter came to them, they took the king’s sons and slaughtered them, seventy men, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup>When the messenger came and informed him, saying, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons,” he said, “Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning.”

<sup>9</sup>Now in the morning he went out and stood and said to all the people, “You are innocent; behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?”

<sup>10</sup>Know then that nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, shall fall to the earth, for the LORD has done what He spoke through His servant Elijah.”

<sup>11</sup>So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, his acquaintances, and his priests, until he left him without a survivor.

<sup>12</sup>Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way while he was at Beth-eked of the shepherds,

<sup>13</sup>Jehu encountered the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah, and he said, “Who are you?” And they answered, “We are the relatives of Ahaziah; and we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “Take them alive.” So they took them alive, and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

<sup>15</sup>Now when he had gone from there, he encountered Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, “Is your heart right, just as my heart is with your heart?” And Jehonadab answered, “It is.” Jehu said, “If it is, give me your hand.” And he gave him his hand, and he pulled him up to him into the chariot.

<sup>16</sup>Then he said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” So he had him ride in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup>When he came to Samaria, he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had eliminated them, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah.

Jehu Destroys Baal Worshipers

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

<sup>19</sup>Now, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests; let no one go missing, because I have a great sacrifice for Baal;

whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu did it in deception, in order to eliminate the worshipers of Baal.

<sup>20</sup>And Jehu said, “Proclaim a holy assembly for Baal.” And they proclaimed it.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jehu sent word throughout Israel, and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a person left who did not come. And when they entered the house of Baal, the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.

<sup>22</sup>And he said to the one who was in charge of the wardrobe, “Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Baal.” So he brought out the garments for them.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jehu entered the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search carefully and see to it that there is here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshipers of Baal.”

<sup>24</sup>Then they entered to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside, and he had said, “The one who allows any of the men whom I bring into your hands to escape shall give up his life in exchange.”

<sup>25</sup>Then it came about, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the royal officers, “Go in, kill them; let none come out.” So they killed them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the royal officers threw them out, and went to the sanctuary of the house of Baal.

<sup>27</sup>They also tore down the memorial stone of Baal and tore down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine as it is to this day.

<sup>29</sup>However, as for the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel, from these Jehu did not desist, including the golden calves that were at Bethel and at Dan.

<sup>30</sup>Yet the LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in performing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab in accordance with everything that was in My heart, your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup>But Jehu was not careful to walk in the Law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not desist from the sins of Jeroboam, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>32</sup>In those days the LORD began to cut off pieces from Israel; and Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

<sup>33</sup>from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites; from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan.

Jehoahaz Succeeds Jehu

<sup>34</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jehu and everything that he did and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>35</sup>And Jehu lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Jehoahaz became king in his place.

<sup>36</sup>So the time which Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11

Athaliah Queen of Judah

<sup>1</sup>When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and eliminated all the royal children.

<sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and abducted him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.

<sup>3</sup>So he was kept hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the land.

<sup>4</sup>Now in the seventh year Jehoiada sent orders and brought the captains of hundreds of the Carites and of the guards, and brought them to himself at the house of the LORD. Then he made a covenant with them and put them under oath at the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

<sup>5</sup>And he commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: a third of you, who come in on the Sabbath and keep watch over the king's house

<sup>6</sup>(a third also shall be at the gate Sur, and a third at the gate behind the guards), shall keep watch over the house for defense.

<sup>7</sup>And two parts of you, all who go out on the Sabbath, shall also keep watch over the house of the LORD for the king.

<sup>8</sup>Then you shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And you are to be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

<sup>9</sup>So the captains of hundreds acted in accordance with everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, along with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and they came to Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>10</sup>Then the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Then he brought the king's son out, and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the guards and of the people, she came to the people at the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>And she looked, and behold, the king was standing by the pillar according to the custom, with the captains and the trumpeters beside the king; and all the people of the land were joyful and were blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"

<sup>15</sup>And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks, and whoever follows her, put to death with the sword!" For the priest said, "She is not to be put to death at the house of the LORD."

<sup>16</sup>So they seized her, and when they brought her to the horses' entrance of the king's house, she was put to death there.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they would be the LORD's people, and between the king and the people.

<sup>18</sup>And all the people of the land came to the house of Baal and tore it down; they thoroughly smashed his altars and his images in pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. Then the priest appointed sentries over the house of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>And he took the captains of hundreds and the Carites, and the guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came by way of the gate of the guards to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

<sup>20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was peaceful. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.

<sup>21</sup> Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.

2 Kings 12

Jehoash (Joash) Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup>In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king, and he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

<sup>3</sup>Only the high places did not end; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

The Temple to Be Repaired

<sup>4</sup>Then Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the sacred offerings which is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, both the money of each man's assessment and all the money which anyone's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD,

<sup>5</sup>the priests are to take it for themselves, each from his acquaintance; and they shall repair damage to the house wherever any damage is found."

<sup>6</sup>But it came about that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not repaired any damage to the house.

<sup>7</sup>So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, "Why do you not repair damage to the house? Now then, you are not to take any more money from your acquaintances, but give it up for the damage to the house."

<sup>8</sup>The priests then agreed that they would not take any more money from the people, nor would they repair damage to the house.

<sup>9</sup>Instead, Jehoiada the priest took a chest and drilled a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>When they saw that there was a great amount of money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest went up and tied it up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>And they handed the money which was assessed over to those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD;

<sup>12</sup>and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the damage to the house of the LORD, and for everything that was laid out for the house to repair it.

<sup>13</sup>However there were not made for the house of the LORD silver cups, shears, bowls, trumpets, any receptacles of gold, or receptacles of silver from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD;

<sup>14</sup>for they gave that to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hands they gave the money to pay to those who did the work, because they acted faithfully.

<sup>16</sup>The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

<sup>17</sup>Then Hazael the king of Aram went up and fought against Gath and captured it, and Hazael was intent on going up against Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>So Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred offerings that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had consecrated, and his own sacred offerings, and all the gold that was found among the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then he withdrew from Jerusalem.

Joash (Jehoash) Succeeded by Amaziah in Judah

<sup>19</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Joash and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>20</sup>And his servants rose up and formed a conspiracy; and they struck and killed Joash at the house of Millo as he was going down to Silla.

<sup>21</sup>For Jozacar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Amaziah became king in his place.

2 Kings 13

Kings of Israel: Jehoahaz and Jehoash

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel at Samaria, and he reigned for seventeen years.

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel; he did not turn from them.

<sup>3</sup>So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He continually handed them over to Hazael king of Aram, and to Ben-hadad, the son of Hazael.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jehoahaz appeased the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans; and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as previously.

<sup>6</sup>Nevertheless they did not abandon the sins of the house of Jeroboam, into which he misled Israel; rather, they walked in them; and the Asherah also remained standing in Samaria.

<sup>7</sup>For he left to Jehoahaz no more of the army than fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand infantry, because the king of Aram had eliminated them and made them like the dust at threshing.

<sup>8</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>9</sup>And Jehoahaz lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and his son Joash became king in his place.

<sup>10</sup>In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel; rather, he walked in them.

<sup>12</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>13</sup>So Joash lay down with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

<sup>14</sup>When Elisha became sick with the illness of which he was to die, Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him and said, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!”

<sup>15</sup>And Elisha said to him, “Take a bow and arrows.” So he took a bow and arrows.

<sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Lay your hand on the bow.” And he laid his hand on it, then Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

<sup>17</sup>And he said, “Open the window toward the east,” and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot!” So he shot. And he said, “The LORD’S arrow of victory, and the arrow of victory over Aram; for you will defeat the Arameans at Aphek until you have put an end to them.”

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground,” and he struck it three times and stopped.

<sup>19</sup>Then the man of God became angry at him and said, “You should have struck five or six times, then you would have struck Aram until you put an end to it. But now you shall strike Aram only three times.”

<sup>20</sup>And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the marauding bands of the Moabites would invade the land in the spring of the year.

<sup>21</sup>And as they were burying a man, behold, they saw a marauding band; and they threw the man into the grave of Elisha. And when the man touched the bones of Elisha he revived and stood up on his feet.

<sup>23</sup>But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned to them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and He was unwilling to eliminate them or cast them away from His presence until now.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz again took from the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken in war from the hand of his father Jehoahaz. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

2 Kings 14

Amaziah Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah became king.

<sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he acted in accordance with everything that his father Joash had done.

<sup>4</sup>Only the high places were not eliminated; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup>Now it came about, as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his hand, that he killed his servants who had killed the king, his father.

<sup>6</sup>But he did not put the sons of the murderers to death, in obedience to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, “The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, nor the sons be put to death for the fathers; but each shall be put to death for his own sin.”

<sup>7</sup>He killed ten thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, and named it Joktheel, as it is to this day.

<sup>8</sup>Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let’s face each other in combat.”

<sup>9</sup>But Jehoash king of Israel sent messengers to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thorn bush that was in Lebanon sent word to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush.

<sup>10</sup>You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart is elated. Enjoy the glory and stay home; for why should you get involved in trouble so that you would fall, you and Judah with you?”

<sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and they faced each other, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

<sup>12</sup>And Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled, every man to his tent.

<sup>13</sup>Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

<sup>14</sup>And he took all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house, the hostages as well, and returned to Samaria.

Jeroboam II Succeeds Jehoash (Joash) in Israel

<sup>15</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jehoash that he did, and his might and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>16</sup>So Jehoash lay down with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and his son Jeroboam became king in his place.

Azariah (Uzziah) Succeeds Amaziah in Judah

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>19</sup>They formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent men to Lachish after him and they killed him there.

<sup>20</sup>Then they carried him on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

<sup>21</sup>And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

<sup>23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and reigned for forty-one years.

<sup>24</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not abandon all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>25</sup>He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which He spoke through His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-hepher.

<sup>26</sup>For the LORD saw the misery of Israel, which was very bitter; for there was neither bond nor free spared, nor was there any helper for Israel.

<sup>27</sup>Yet the LORD did not say that He would wipe out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

Zechariah Reigns over Israel

<sup>28</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did and his might, how he fought and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

<sup>29</sup>And Jeroboam lay down with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah became king in his place.

2 Kings 15

Series of Kings: Azariah (Uzziah) over Judah

<sup>2</sup>He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>4</sup>Only the high places were not eliminated; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD afflicted the king, so that he had leprosy to the day of his death. And he lived in a separate house, while Jotham the king's son was in charge of the household, judging the people of the land.

<sup>6</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>7</sup>And Azariah lay down with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Jotham became king in his place.

Zechariah over Israel

<sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria for six months.

<sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his fathers had done; he did not desist from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him in the presence of the people and killed him, and reigned in his place.

<sup>11</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>This is the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." And so it was.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned for one month in Samaria.

<sup>14</sup>Then Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him and became king in his place.

<sup>15</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Shallum and his conspiracy which he formed, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then Menahem attacked Tiphsah and all who were in it and its borders from Tirzah, because they did not open up to him; so he attacked it and ripped up all its women who were pregnant.

Menahem over Israel

<sup>17</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel and reigned for ten years in Samaria.

<sup>18</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; for all his days he did not desist from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Pul, the king of Assyria, came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to strengthen the kingdom under his rule.

<sup>20</sup>Then Menahem collected the money from Israel, from all the mighty men of wealth, from each man fifty shekels of silver to pay the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned and did not stay there in the land.

<sup>21</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

Pekahiah over Israel

<sup>23</sup>In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned for two years.

<sup>24</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not desist from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>25</sup>Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites, and he killed him and became king in his place.

<sup>26</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Pekahiah and everything that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Pekah over Israel

<sup>27</sup>In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years.

<sup>28</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not desist from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, into which he misled Israel.

<sup>29</sup>In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he led their populations into exile to Assyria.

<sup>30</sup>And Hoshea the son of Elah formed a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him and put him to death, and he became king in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Jotham over Judah

<sup>32</sup>In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah became king.

<sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>34</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he acted in accordance with everything that his father Uzziah had done.

<sup>35</sup>Only the high places were not eliminated; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Jotham which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

<sup>38</sup>And Jotham lay down with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David; and his son Ahaz became king in his place.

2 Kings 16

Ahaz Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup>In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king.

<sup>2</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

<sup>3</sup>But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and he even made his son pass through the fire, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>Then Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem for war; and they besieged Ahaz, but were not capable of fighting him.

<sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Aram restored Elath to Aram, and drove the Judeans away from Elath; and the Arameans came to Elath and have lived there to this day.

Ahaz Seeks Help of Assyria

<sup>7</sup>So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son; come up and save me from the hand of the king of Aram, and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me.”

<sup>8</sup>And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king’s house, and sent a gift to the king of Assyria.

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and captured it, and led the people of it into exile to Kir, and put Rezin to death.

Damascus Falls

<sup>10</sup>Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and he saw the altar which was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the pattern of the altar and its model, according to all its workmanship.

<sup>11</sup>So Urijah the priest built an altar; according to everything that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, in that way Urijah the priest made it, before the coming of King Ahaz from Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; then the king approached the altar and went up to it,

<sup>13</sup>and burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured out his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup>And the bronze altar, which was before the LORD, he brought from the front of the house, from between his altar and the house of the LORD, and he put it on the north side of his altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, “Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, the evening meal offering, the king’s burnt offering and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. But the bronze altar shall be for me, for making inquiries.”

<sup>16</sup>So Urijah the priest acted in accordance with everything that King Ahaz commanded.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Ahaz cut off the borders of the stands, and removed the wash basin from them; he also took down the Sea from the bronze oxen which were under it and put it on a pavement of stone.

<sup>18</sup>And the covered way for the Sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entry of the king, he removed from the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria.

Hezekiah Reigns over Judah

<sup>19</sup>Now as for the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>20</sup>So Ahaz lay down with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

2 Kings 17

Hoshea Reigns over Israel

<sup>1</sup>In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned for nine years.

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not as the kings of Israel who preceded him.

<sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser the king of Assyria marched against him, and Hoshea became his servant and paid him tribute.

<sup>4</sup>But the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea, who had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and had then brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; so the king of Assyria arrested him and confined him in prison.

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Assyria invaded the entire land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.

Israel Captive

<sup>6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and led the people of Israel into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and Habor, on the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

Why Israel Fell

<sup>7</sup>Now this came about because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and they had feared other gods.

<sup>8</sup>They also followed the customs of the nations whom the LORD had driven out from the sons of Israel, and in the customs of the kings of Israel which they had introduced.

<sup>9</sup>And the sons of Israel did things secretly against the LORD their God which were not right. Moreover, they built for themselves high places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city.

<sup>10</sup>And they set up for themselves memorial stones and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree, <sup>11</sup>and there they burned incense on all the high places as the nations did that the LORD had taken into exile before them; and they did evil things, provoking the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>They served idols, concerning which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”

<sup>13</sup>Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through all His prophets and every seer, saying, “Turn back from your evil ways and keep My commandments and My statutes in accordance with all the Law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets.”

<sup>14</sup>However, they did not listen, but stiffened their neck like their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

<sup>15</sup>They rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers, and His warnings which He gave them. And they followed idols and became empty, and followed the nations that surrounded them, about which the LORD had commanded them not to do as they did.

<sup>16</sup>And they abandoned all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves cast metal images: two calves. And they made an Asherah, and worshiped all the heavenly lights, and served Baal.

<sup>17</sup>Then they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and they practiced divination and interpreting omens, and gave themselves over to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him.

<sup>18</sup>So the LORD was very angry with Israel, and He removed them from His sight; no one was left except the tribe of Judah.

<sup>19</sup>Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God either, but they followed the customs which Israel had introduced.

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel and afflicted them and handed them over to plunderers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

<sup>21</sup>When He had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD and misled them into a great sin.

<sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he committed; they did not desist from them

<sup>23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel from His sight, just as He had spoken through all His servants the prophets. So Israel went into exile from their own land to Assyria until this day.

Cities of Israel Filled with Strangers

<sup>24</sup>Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel. So they took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities.

<sup>25</sup>And at the beginning of their living there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them that were killing some of them.

<sup>26</sup>So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, “The nations whom you have taken into exile and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the God of the land; so He has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them because they do not know the custom of the God of the land.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Assyria issued commands, saying, “Take one of the priests there whom you led into exile, and have him go and live there; and have him teach them the custom of the God of the land.”

<sup>28</sup>So one of the priests whom they had led into exile from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they were to fear the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>But every nation was still making gods of its own, and they put them in the houses of the high places which the people of Samaria had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.

<sup>30</sup>The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup>and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites were burning their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

<sup>32</sup>They also feared the LORD and appointed from their entire population priests of the high places, who acted for them in the houses of the high places.

<sup>33</sup>They feared the LORD, yet they were serving their own gods in accordance with the custom of the nations from among whom they had been taken into exile.

<sup>34</sup>To this day they act in accordance with the earlier customs: they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes, their ordinances, the Law, or the commandments which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel.

<sup>35</sup>The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, saying, “You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them.

<sup>36</sup>But the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow down, and to Him you shall sacrifice.

<sup>37</sup>And the statutes, the ordinances, the Law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall take care to do always; and you shall not fear other gods.

<sup>38</sup>The covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.

<sup>39</sup>But you shall fear the LORD your God; and He will save you from the hand of all your enemies.”

<sup>40</sup>However, they did not listen, but they kept acting in accordance with their earlier custom.

<sup>41</sup>So while these nations feared the LORD, they also served their idols; their children likewise and their grandchildren, just as their fathers did, they do to this day.

2 Kings 18

Hezekiah Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the third year of Hoshea, the son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah became king.

<sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother’s name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father David had done.

<sup>4</sup>He removed the high places and smashed the memorial stones to pieces, and cut down the Asherah. He also crushed to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel had been burning incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan.

<sup>5</sup>He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; and after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who came before him.

<sup>6</sup>For he clung to the LORD; he did not desist from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

Hezekiah Victorious

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD was with him; wherever he went he was successful. And he revolted against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

<sup>8</sup>He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

<sup>9</sup>Now in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and besieged it.

<sup>10</sup>And at the end of three years they captured it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was captured.

<sup>11</sup>Then the king of Assyria led Israel into exile to Assyria, and put them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

<sup>12</sup>This happened because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but violated His covenant, all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; they would neither listen nor do it.

Invasion of Judah

<sup>13</sup>Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria marched against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent messengers to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will endure.” So the king of Assyria imposed on Hezekiah king of Judah the payment of three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

<sup>15</sup>Hezekiah then gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king’s house.

<sup>16</sup>At that time Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts, which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and he gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Assyria sent Tartan, Rab-saris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a large army to Jerusalem. So they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they went up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the road of the fuller’s field.

<sup>18</sup>Then they called to the king, and Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the secretary, went out to them.

<sup>19</sup>And Rabshakeh said to them, “Say now to Hezekiah, ‘This is what the great king, the king of Assyria says: “What is this confidence that you have?

<sup>20</sup>You say—but they are only empty words—‘I have a plan and strength for the war.’ Now on whom have you relied, that you have revolted against me?

<sup>21</sup>Now behold, you have relied on the support of this broken reed, on Egypt; on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. That is how Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who rely on him.

<sup>22</sup>However, if you say to me, ‘We have trusted in the LORD our God,’ is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem’?

<sup>23</sup>Now then, come make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

<sup>24</sup>How then can you drive back even one official of the least of my master's servants, and rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>25</sup>Have I now come up without the LORD's approval against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.' ” ” ”

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, because we understand it; and do not speak with us in Judean so that the people who are on the wall hear you."

<sup>27</sup>But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not also sent me to the men who sit on the wall, doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

<sup>28</sup>Then Rabshakeh stood up and shouted with a loud voice in Judean, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

<sup>29</sup>This is what the king says: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to save you from my hand.

<sup>30</sup>And do not let Hezekiah lead you to trust in the LORD by saying, "The LORD will certainly save us, and this city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria."

<sup>31</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: "Make your peace with me and come out to me, and eat, each one, from his vine and each from his fig tree, and drink, each one, the waters of his own cistern, <sup>32</sup>until I come and take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees producing oil, and of honey, so that you will live and not die." But do not listen to Hezekiah, because he misleads you by saying, "The LORD will save us."

<sup>33</sup>Has any of the gods of the nations actually saved his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

<sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they saved Samaria from my hand?

<sup>35</sup>Who among all the gods of the lands are there who have saved their land from my hand, that the LORD would save Jerusalem from my hand?’ ”

<sup>36</sup>But the people were silent and did not answer him with even a word, because it was the king’s command: “Do not answer him.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph, the secretary, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and they reported to him the words of Rabshakeh.

2 Kings 19

Isaiah Encourages Hezekiah

<sup>1</sup>Now when King Hezekiah heard the report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and entered the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the household, with Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup>And they said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says: “This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and humiliation; for children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.

<sup>4</sup>Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to taunt the living God, and will avenge the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the remnant that is left.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>And Isaiah said to them, “This is what you shall say to your master: ‘The LORD says this: “Do not be fearful because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, I am going to put a spirit in him so that he will hear news and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.” ’ ’ ”

Sennacherib Defies God

<sup>8</sup>Then Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

<sup>9</sup>When he heard them say about Tirhakah king of Cush, “Behold, he has come out to fight you,” he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“This is what you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah: ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.”

<sup>11</sup>Behold, you yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be saved?

<sup>12</sup>Did the gods of the nations which my fathers destroyed save them: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar?

<sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and of Hena and Ivvah?’ ’ ”

Hezekiah’s Prayer

<sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, “LORD, God of Israel, enthroned above the cherubim, You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>Incline Your ear, LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, LORD, and see; and listen to the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to taunt the living God.

<sup>17</sup>It is true, LORD; the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup>and have hurled their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but only the work of human hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them.

<sup>19</sup>But now, LORD our God, please, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, LORD, are God.”

God’s Answer through Isaiah

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you.’

<sup>21</sup>This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: ‘She, the virgin daughter of Zion, has shown contempt for you and mocked you; She, the daughter of Jerusalem, has shaken her head behind you!

<sup>22</sup>‘Whom have you taunted and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice, And haughtily raised your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup>‘Through your messengers you have taunted the Lord, And you have said, “With my many chariots I went up to the heights of the mountains, To the remotest parts of Lebanon; And I cut down its tall cedars and its choicest junipers. And I entered its farthest resting place, its thickest forest.

<sup>24</sup>“I dug wells and drank foreign waters, And with the soles of my feet I dried up All the streams of Egypt.”

<sup>25</sup>‘Have you not heard? Long ago I did it; From ancient times I planned it. Now I have brought it about, That you would turn fortified cities into ruined heaps.

<sup>26</sup>‘Therefore their inhabitants were powerless, They were shattered and put to shame. They were like the vegetation of the field and the green grass, Like grass on the housetops that is scorched before it has grown.

<sup>27</sup>‘But I know your sitting down, Your going out, your coming in, And your raging against Me.

<sup>28</sup>‘Because of your raging against Me, And because your complacency has come up to My ears, I will put My hook in your nose, And My bridle in your lips, And I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

<sup>29</sup>‘Then this shall be the sign for you: you will eat this year what grows of itself, in the second year what grows by itself, and in the third year sow, harvest, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup>For out of Jerusalem will go a remnant, and survivors out of Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD will perform this.

<sup>32</sup>‘Therefore this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: “He will not come to this city nor shoot an arrow there; and he will not come before it with a shield nor heap up an assault ramp against it.

<sup>33</sup>By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he shall not come to this city,” ’ declares the LORD.

<sup>34</sup>‘For I will protect this city to save it for My own sake, and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”

<sup>35</sup>Then it happened that night that the angel of the LORD went out and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when the rest got up early in the morning, behold, all of the 185,000 were dead.

<sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib the king of Assyria departed and returned home, and lived at Nineveh.

<sup>37</sup>Then it came about, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword; and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon became king in his place.

2 Kings 20

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Set your house in order, for you are going to die and not live.’ ”

<sup>2</sup>Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“Please, LORD, just remember how I have walked before You wholeheartedly and in truth, and have done what is good in Your sight!” And Hezekiah wept profusely.

<sup>4</sup>And even before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard, the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Return and say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your father David says: “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I am going to heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And I will add fifteen years to your life, and I will save you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will protect this city for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.” ’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, “Take a cake of figs.” And they took it and placed it on the inflamed spot, and he recovered.

<sup>8</sup>Now Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I will go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?”

<sup>9</sup>Isaiah said, “This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will perform the word that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?”

<sup>10</sup>So Hezekiah said, “It is easy for the shadow to decline ten steps; no, but have the shadow turn backward ten steps.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet called out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow on the stairway back ten steps by which it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

Hezekiah Shows Babylon His Treasures

<sup>12</sup>At that time Berodach-baladan, a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, because he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

<sup>13</sup>And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the balsam oil, the scented oil, the house of his armor, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house nor in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say, and from where have they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They have come from a far country, from Babylon.”

<sup>15</sup>Isaiah said, “What have they seen in your house?” So Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasuries that I have not shown them.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD:

<sup>17</sup>‘Behold, the days are coming when everything that is in your house, and what your fathers have stored up to this day, will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>‘And some of your sons who will come from you, whom you will father, will be taken away; and they will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “Is it not good, if there will be peace and security in my days?”

<sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he constructed the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>21</sup>So Hezekiah lay down with his fathers, and his son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 Kings 21

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hephzibah.

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>For he rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had destroyed; and he erected altars for Baal and made an Asherah, just as Ahab king of Israel had done, and he worshiped all the heavenly lights and served them.

<sup>4</sup>And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name."

<sup>5</sup>He built altars for all the heavenly lights in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>And he made his son pass through the fire, interpreted signs, practiced divination, and used mediums and spiritists. He did great evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

<sup>7</sup>Then he put the carved image of Asherah that he had made in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.

<sup>8</sup>And I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will take care to act in accordance with everything that I have commanded them, and with all the Law that My servant Moses commanded them."

<sup>9</sup>But they did not listen, and Manasseh encouraged them to do evil, more than the nations whom the LORD eliminated from the presence of the sons of Israel.

The King's Idolatries Rebuked

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Since Manasseh king of Judah has committed these abominations, having done more evil than all that the Amorites did who were before him, and has also misled Judah into sin with his idols,

<sup>12</sup>therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Behold, I am bringing such a disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears about it, both of his ears will ring.

<sup>13</sup>I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem clean just as one wipes a bowl, wiping it and turning it upside down.

<sup>14</sup>And I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and hand them over to their enemies, and they will become as plunder and spoils to all their enemies,

<sup>15</sup>because they have done evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger since the day their fathers came from Egypt, even to this day.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>Furthermore, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin into which he misled Judah, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did, and his sin which he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>18</sup>And Manasseh lay down with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza, and his son Amon became king in his place.

Amon Succeeds Manasseh

<sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

<sup>20</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done.

<sup>21</sup>For he walked entirely in the way that his father had walked, and served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them.

<sup>22</sup>So he abandoned the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>And the servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house.

<sup>24</sup>Then the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

<sup>26</sup>He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah became king in his place.

2 Kings 22

Josiah Succeeds Amon

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.

<sup>3</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and have him count all the money brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

<sup>5</sup>And have them hand it over to the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD, and have them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD to repair the damage to the house:

<sup>6</sup>to the carpenters, the builders, the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house.

<sup>7</sup>However, no accounting shall be made with them for the money handed over to them, because they deal honestly.”

The Lost Book

<sup>8</sup>Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, who read it.

<sup>9</sup>Then Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said, “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have handed it over to the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Moreover, Shaphan the scribe informed the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it in the presence of the king.

<sup>11</sup>When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.

<sup>12</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor the son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for the people and all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for the wrath of the LORD that burns against us is great, because our fathers did not listen to the words of this book, to act in accordance with everything that is written regarding us.”

Huldah Predicts

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (and she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her.

<sup>15</sup>Then she said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Tell the man who sent you to Me, <sup>16</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am going to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.

<sup>17</sup>Since they have abandoned Me and have burned incense to other gods so that they may provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, My wrath burns against this place, and it shall not be quenched.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, this is what you shall say to him: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Regarding the words which you have heard,

<sup>19</sup>since your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become an object of horror and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I have indeed heard you,’ declares the LORD.”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, behold, I am going to gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not look at all the devastation that I am going to bring on this place.’ ” So they brought back word to the king.

2 Kings 23

Josiah's Covenant

<sup>1</sup>Then the king sent messengers, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>And the king went up to the house of the LORD and every man of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, the prophets, and all the people, from the small to the great; and he read in their presence all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>And the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments, His provisions, and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people entered into the covenant.

Reforms under Josiah

<sup>4</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the utensils that had been made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the heavenly lights; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

<sup>5</sup>Then he did away with the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the surrounding area of Jerusalem, as well as those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to all the remaining heavenly lights.

<sup>6</sup>He also brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ground it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people.

<sup>7</sup>And he tore down the cubicles of the male cult prostitutes which were in the house of the LORD, where the women were weaving hangings for the Asherah.

<sup>8</sup>Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he tore down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the city gate.

<sup>9</sup>Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

<sup>10</sup>He also defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, so that no one would make his son or his daughter pass through the fire for Molech.

<sup>11</sup>And he did away with the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which was at the covered courtyard; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

<sup>12</sup>The king also tore down the altars that were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD; and he smashed them there and threw their dust into the brook Kidron.

<sup>13</sup>And the king defiled the high places that were opposite Jerusalem, which were on the right of the mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>14</sup>He also smashed to pieces the memorial stones and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with human bones.

<sup>15</sup>Furthermore, the altar that was at Bethel and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who misled Israel into sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he tore down. Then he burned the high place, ground the remains to dust, and burned the Asherah.

<sup>16</sup>Now when Josiah turned, he saw the graves that were there on the mountain, and he sent men and took the bones from the graves, and burned them on the altar and defiled it in accordance with the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, the one who proclaimed these things.

<sup>17</sup>Then he said, “What is this gravestone there that I see?” And the men of the city told him, “It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel.”

<sup>18</sup>And he said, “Leave him alone; no one is to disturb his bones.” So they left his bones undisturbed with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

<sup>19</sup>Then Josiah also removed all the houses of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had constructed, provoking the LORD to anger; and he did to them just as he had done in Bethel.

<sup>20</sup>And he slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there on the altars, and burned human bones on them; then he returned to Jerusalem.

Passover Re instituted

<sup>21</sup>Then the king commanded all the people, saying, “Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God as it is written in this Book of the Covenant.”

<sup>22</sup>Truly such a Passover had not been celebrated since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.

<sup>23</sup>But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup>Moreover, Josiah removed the mediums, the spiritists, the household idols, the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he might fulfill the words of the Law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his heart, all his soul, and all his might, in conformity to all the Law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

<sup>26</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

<sup>27</sup>And the LORD said, “I will also remove Judah from My sight, just as I have removed Israel. And I will reject this city which I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the temple of which I said, ‘My name shall be there!’ ”

Jehoahaz Succeeds Josiah

<sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>29</sup>In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria at the river Euphrates. And King Josiah went to meet him, and when Pharaoh Neco saw him he killed him at Megiddo.

<sup>30</sup>His servants carried his body in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem; and his mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

<sup>32</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that his forefathers had done.

<sup>33</sup>And Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he would not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

Jehoiakim Made King by Pharaoh

<sup>34</sup>Then Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of his father Josiah, and he changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt, and he died there.

<sup>35</sup>So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he assessed the land in order to give the money at the command of Pharaoh. He collected the silver and gold from the people of the land, each according to his assessment, to give to Pharaoh Neco.

<sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

<sup>37</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that his forefathers had done.

2 Kings 24

Babylon Controls Jehoiakim

<sup>1</sup>In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and revolted against him.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Arameans, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. He sent them against Judah to destroy it, in accordance with the word of the LORD which He had spoken through His servants the prophets.

<sup>3</sup>It indeed came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them from His sight due to the sins of Manasseh, in accordance with everything that he had done, <sup>4</sup>and also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the LORD was unwilling to forgive.

<sup>5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Jehoiachin Reigns

<sup>7</sup>Now the king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, because the king of Babylon had taken everything that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that his father had done.

Deportation to Babylon

<sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

<sup>11</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his commanders, and his officials. And the king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

<sup>13</sup>He also brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and he smashed all the articles of gold that Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, just as the LORD had said.

<sup>14</sup>Then he led into exile all the people of Jerusalem and all the commanders and all the valiant warriors, ten thousand exiles, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. None were left except the poorest people of the land.

<sup>15</sup>So he led Jehoiachin into exile to Babylon; also the king's mother, the king's wives, and his officials and the leading men of the land, he led into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>16</sup>And all the valiant men, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, a thousand, all strong and fit for war, these too the king of Babylon brought into exile to Babylon.

Zedekiah Made King

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Babylon made his uncle Mattaniah king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

<sup>19</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that Jehoiakim had done.

<sup>20</sup>For it was due to the anger of the LORD that this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He cast them out of His presence. And Zedekiah revolted against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25

Nebuchadnezzar Besieges Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it, and built a siege wall all around it.

<sup>2</sup>So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

<sup>3</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

<sup>4</sup>Then the city was broken into, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls that were beside the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah.

<sup>5</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

<sup>6</sup>Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and he passed sentence on him.

<sup>7</sup>And they slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze shackles, and brought him to Babylon.

Jerusalem Burned and Plundered

<sup>8</sup>Now on the seventh day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguards, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>And he burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every great house he burned with fire.

<sup>10</sup>So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the bodyguards tore down the walls around Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguards, led into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the people.

<sup>12</sup>But the captain of the bodyguards left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.

<sup>13</sup>Now the Chaldeans smashed to pieces the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze Sea which were in the house of the LORD, and carried the bronze to Babylon.

<sup>14</sup>And they took away the pots, the shovels, the shears, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils which were used in temple service.

<sup>15</sup>The captain of the bodyguards also took away the firepans and the basins, what was fine gold and what was fine silver.

<sup>16</sup>The two pillars, the one Sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these articles was too heavy to weigh.

<sup>17</sup>The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a bronze capital was on it; the height of the capital was three cubits, with latticework and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these, same features with latticework.

<sup>18</sup>Then the captain of the bodyguards took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest, with the three doorkeepers.

<sup>19</sup>And from the city he took one official who was overseer of the men of war, and five of the king's advisers who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

<sup>20</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguards took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile from its land.

Gedaliah Made Governor

<sup>22</sup>Now as for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan over them.

<sup>23</sup>When all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

<sup>24</sup>And Gedaliah swore to them and their men and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you."

<sup>25</sup>But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck Gedaliah down so that he died along with the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the people, from the small to the great, and the captains of the forces set out and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

<sup>27</sup>Now it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison;

<sup>28</sup>and he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

<sup>29</sup>So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and had his meals in the king's presence regularly all the days of his life;

<sup>30</sup>and as his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

Genealogy from Adam

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, and Sabteca; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>10</sup>Cush fathered Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

<sup>15</sup>the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,

<sup>19</sup>Two sons were born to Eber: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

- <sup>20</sup>Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,
<sup>21</sup>Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
<sup>22</sup>Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,
<sup>23</sup>Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.
<sup>24</sup>Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah,
<sup>25</sup>Eber, Peleg, Reu,
<sup>27</sup>and Abram, that is Abraham.

Descendants of Abraham

- <sup>28</sup>The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.
<sup>29</sup>These are their genealogies: the firstborn of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
<sup>32</sup>The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine, to whom she gave birth, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.
<sup>33</sup>The sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephher, Hanoah, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah.
<sup>34</sup>Abraham fathered Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.
<sup>36</sup>The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, and Amalek.

<sup>40</sup>The sons of Shobal were Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah.

<sup>41</sup>The son of Anah was Dishon. And the sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

<sup>42</sup>The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

<sup>43</sup>Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king from the sons of Israel reigned. Bela was the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

<sup>44</sup>When Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah became king in his place.

<sup>46</sup>When Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the field of Moab, became king in his place; and the name of his city was Avith.

<sup>50</sup>When Baal-hanan died, Hadad became king in his place; and the name of his city was Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

1 Cronicles 2

Genealogy: Twelve Sons of Israel (Jacob)

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, and Shelah; these three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanitess. But Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the sight of the LORD, so He put him to death.

<sup>4</sup>His daughter-in-law Tamar bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

<sup>7</sup>The son of Carmi was Achar, the one who brought disaster on Israel by violating the ban.

<sup>8</sup>The son of Ethan was Azariah.

Genealogy of David

<sup>9</sup>Now the sons of Hezron who were born to him were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

<sup>10</sup>Ram fathered Amminadab, and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, leader of the sons of Judah;

<sup>16</sup>Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. And the three sons of Zeruiah were Abshai, Joab, and Asahel.

<sup>18</sup>Now Caleb the son of Hezron had sons by Azubah his wife, and by Jerioth; and these were her sons: Jeshur, Shobab, and Ardon.

<sup>21</sup>Later, Hezron had relations with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore to him Segub.

<sup>22</sup>Segub fathered Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

<sup>23</sup>But Geshur and Aram took the villages of Jair from them, with Kenath and its villages, sixty settlements. All of these were the sons of Machir, the father of Gilead.

<sup>24</sup>After the death of Hezron in Caleb-ephrathah, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore to him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

<sup>25</sup>Now the sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

<sup>26</sup>Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

<sup>27</sup>The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

<sup>28</sup>The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. And the sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

<sup>29</sup>The name of Abishur's wife was Abihail, and she bore to him Ahban and Molid.

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim, and Seled died without sons.

<sup>31</sup>The son of Appaim was Ishi. And the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and the son of Sheshan, Ahlai.

<sup>32</sup>The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai were Jether and Jonathan, and Jether died without sons.

<sup>34</sup>Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. Sheshan also had an Egyptian servant, whose name was Jarha.

<sup>35</sup>Sheshan gave his daughter to his servant Jarha in marriage, and she bore to him Attai.

<sup>42</sup>Now the sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and his son was Mareshah, the father of Hebron.

<sup>49</sup>She also gave birth to Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena and the father of Gibeah; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

<sup>50</sup>These were the sons of Caleb. The sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim,

<sup>52</sup>Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim had sons: Haroeh, half of the Manahathites, <sup>53</sup>and the families of Kiriath-jearim: the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; from these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

<sup>54</sup>The sons of Salma were Bethlehem and the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites.

<sup>55</sup>The families of scribes who lived at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. Those are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

1 Chronicles 3

Family of David

<sup>1</sup>Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second was Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelitess;

<sup>2</sup>the third was Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth was Adonijah the son of Haggith;

<sup>4</sup>Six were born to him in Hebron, and he reigned there for seven years and six months. And in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years.

<sup>5</sup>These were the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, four by Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel;

<sup>9</sup>All of these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

<sup>10</sup>Now Solomon's son was Rehoboam, then Abijah was his son, Asa, his son, Jehoshaphat, his son,

<sup>11</sup>Joram, his son, Ahaziah, his son, Joash, his son,

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Josiah were Johanan, the firstborn, the second was Jehoiakim, the third, Zedekiah, and the fourth, Shallum.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. And the sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam and Hananiah, and Shelomith was their sister;

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah.

<sup>22</sup>The descendants of Shecaniah were Shemaiah, and the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat, six.

1 Cronicles 4

Descendants of Judah

<sup>2</sup>Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

<sup>3</sup>These were the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazzelelponi.

<sup>4</sup>Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

<sup>8</sup>Koz fathered Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup>Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother named him Jabez, saying, "Because I gave birth to him in pain."

<sup>10</sup>Now Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, "Oh that You would greatly bless me and extend my border, and that Your hand might be with me, and that You would keep me from harm so that it would not hurt me!" And God brought about what he requested.

<sup>12</sup>Eshton fathered Beth-rapha and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These are the men of Recah.

<sup>13</sup>Now the sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. And the sons of Othniel were Hathath and Meonothai.

<sup>14</sup>Meonothai fathered Ophrah, and Seraiah fathered Joab the father of Ge-harashim, for they were craftsmen.

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam; and the son of Elah was Kenaz.

<sup>17</sup>The sons of Ezraah were Jether, Mered, Ephher, and Jalon. And Mered's wife conceived and gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

<sup>18</sup>(His Jewish wife gave birth to Jered, the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the sons of Bithia the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered married.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

<sup>20</sup>The sons of Shimon were Amnon and Rinnah, and Benhanan and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers at Beth-ashbea;

<sup>22</sup>and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash, Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And the records are ancient.

<sup>23</sup>These were the potters and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah; they lived there with the king for his work.

Descendants of Simeon

<sup>24</sup>The sons of Simeon were Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul;

<sup>27</sup>Now Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many sons, nor did all their family increase like the sons of Judah.

<sup>31</sup>Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

<sup>32</sup>Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, five cities,

<sup>33</sup>and all their settlements that were around the same cities as far as Baal. These were their dwellings, and they have their genealogy.

<sup>35</sup>Joel, Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,

<sup>37</sup>and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—

<sup>38</sup>these mentioned by name were leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses spread out greatly.

<sup>39</sup>They went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

<sup>40</sup>They found pasture that was rich and good, and the land was spread out on both sides, and peaceful and undisturbed; for those who lived there previously were Hamites.

<sup>41</sup>These people, recorded by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and they attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them to this day; and they lived in their place, because there was pasture there for their flocks.

<sup>42</sup>From them, from the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders.

<sup>43</sup>They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5

Genealogy from Reuben

<sup>1</sup>Now the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel; so he is not enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright.

<sup>2</sup>Though Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came the leader, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph), <sup>3</sup>the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, and Hezron and Carmi.

<sup>4</sup>The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

<sup>6</sup>and Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria took into exile; he was leader of the Reubenites.

<sup>7</sup>His relatives by their families, in the genealogy of their generations, were Jeiel the chief, then Zechariah

<sup>8</sup>and Bela, the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal-meon.

<sup>9</sup>Toward the east he settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their livestock had increased in the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup>In the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand, so that they occupied their tents throughout the land east of Gilead.

<sup>11</sup>Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan, as far as Salecah.

<sup>12</sup>Joel was the head and Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

<sup>14</sup>These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

<sup>15</sup>Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their fathers' households.

<sup>16</sup>They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and in its towns, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, as far as their borders.

<sup>17</sup>All of these were enrolled in the genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, consisting of valiant men, men who carried shield and sword and shot with a bow and were skillful in battle, totaled 44,760 who went to war.

<sup>20</sup>They were helped against them, and the Hagarites and all who were with them were handed over to them; for they cried out to God in the battle, and He answered their prayers because they trusted in Him.

<sup>22</sup>For many fell mortally wounded, because the war was of God. And they settled in their place until the exile.

<sup>25</sup>But they were untrue to the God of their fathers and prostituted themselves with the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

<sup>26</sup>So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, king of Assyria, that is, the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he took them into exile, namely the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

1 Chronicles 6

Genealogy: The Priestly Line

<sup>10</sup>Johanan fathered Azariah (it was he who served as the priest in the house which Solomon built in Jerusalem),

- <sup>11</sup>Azariah fathered Amariah, Amariah fathered Ahitub,
<sup>12</sup>Ahitub fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Shallum,
<sup>15</sup>Jehozadak went along when the LORD led Judah and Jerusalem into exile by Nebuchadnezzar.
<sup>19</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.
<sup>20</sup>Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,
<sup>22</sup>The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son,
<sup>23</sup>Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,
<sup>26</sup>As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah were Zophai his son, Nahath his son,
<sup>28</sup>The sons of Samuel were Joel, the firstborn, and Abijah, the second.
<sup>29</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son,
<sup>31</sup>Now these are the ones whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark rested there.

<sup>32</sup>They were ministering in song in front of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting until Solomon's building of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem; and they served in their office according to their order.

<sup>33</sup>These are the ones who served with their sons: From the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

<sup>34</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

<sup>35</sup>the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,

<sup>36</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

<sup>37</sup>the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>38</sup>the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

<sup>40</sup>the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,

<sup>41</sup>the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

<sup>42</sup>the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,

<sup>43</sup>the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

<sup>44</sup>On the left hand were their kinsmen the sons of Merari: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

<sup>45</sup>the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,

<sup>46</sup>the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer,

<sup>47</sup>the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

<sup>48</sup>Their kinsmen the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

<sup>49</sup>But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, in accordance with everything that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

<sup>50</sup>These are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

<sup>54</sup>Now these are their settlements according to their camps within their borders. To the sons of Aaron of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the first lot),

<sup>55</sup>to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah and its pasture lands around it;

<sup>56</sup>but they gave the fields of the city and its settlements to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

<sup>57</sup>To the sons of Aaron they gave the following cities of refuge: Hebron, Libnah together with its pasture lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

<sup>61</sup>Then to the rest of the sons of Kohath were given by lot, from the family of the tribe, from the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.

<sup>62</sup>To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, were given from the tribe of Issachar, the tribe of Asher, the tribe of Naphtali, and the tribe of Manasseh, thirteen cities in Bashan.

<sup>63</sup>To the sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

<sup>65</sup>They gave by lot from the tribe of the sons of Judah, the tribe of the sons of Simeon, and the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.

<sup>66</sup>Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>72</sup>and from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

<sup>76</sup>and from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, Hammon with its pasture lands, and Kiriathaim with its pasture lands.

<sup>80</sup>and from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, Mahanaim with its pasture lands, <sup>81</sup>Heshbon with its pasture lands, and Jazer with its pasture lands.

1 Chronicles 7

Genealogy from Issachar

<sup>3</sup>The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. And the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isshiah; all five of them were chief men.

<sup>4</sup>And with them by their generations according to their fathers' households were thirty-six thousand troops of the army for war; for they had many wives and sons.

<sup>5</sup>Their relatives among all the families of Issachar were valiant warriors, registered by genealogy, eighty-seven thousand in all.

Descendants of Benjamin

<sup>7</sup>The sons of Bela were five: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. They were heads of fathers' households, valiant warriors, 22,034 registered by genealogy.

<sup>9</sup>They were registered by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' households, 20,200 valiant warriors.

<sup>10</sup>The son of Jediahel was Bilhan. And the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar.

<sup>11</sup>All these were sons of Jediahel, according to the heads of their fathers' households, 17,200 valiant warriors who were ready to go out with the army to war.

<sup>12</sup>Shuppim and Huppim were the sons of Ir; Hushim was the son of Aher.

Sons of Naphtali

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

Descendants of Manasseh

<sup>14</sup>The sons of Manasseh were Asriel, to whom his Aramean concubine gave birth; she also gave birth to Machir, the father of Gilead.

<sup>15</sup>Machir took a wife from Huppim and Shuppim, whose name was Maacah. And the name of the second was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.

<sup>16</sup>Maacah the wife of Machir gave birth to a son, and she named him Peresh; the name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

<sup>17</sup>The son of Ulam was Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

Descendants of Ephraim

<sup>20</sup>The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah and Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son,

<sup>21</sup>Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead, whom the men of Gath who were born in the land killed, because they came down to take their livestock.

<sup>22</sup>Their father Ephraim mourned for many days, and his relatives came to comfort him.

<sup>23</sup>Then he went in to his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to a son, and he named him Beriah, because misfortune had come upon his house.

<sup>24</sup>His daughter was Sheerah, who built lower and upper Beth-horon, as well as Uzzen-sheerah.

<sup>28</sup>Their possessions and dwelling places were Bethel with its towns, and to the east, Naaran, and to the west, Gezer with its towns, and Shechem with its towns, as far as Ayyah with its towns, <sup>29</sup>and along the borders of the sons of Manasseh, Beth-shean with its towns, Taanach with its towns, Megiddo with its towns, and Dor with its towns. In these regions lived the sons of Joseph the son of Israel.

Descendants of Asher

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah, and Serah was their sister.

<sup>40</sup>All these were the sons of Asher, heads of the fathers' houses, choice, valiant mighty men, and heads of the leaders. And the number of them registered by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

1 Chronicles 8

Genealogy from Benjamin

<sup>7</sup>namely, Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera—he exiled them; and he fathered Uzza and Ahihud.

<sup>8</sup>Shaharaim fathered children in the country of Moab after he had sent his wives Hushim and Baara away.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with its towns;

<sup>13</sup>and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who put the inhabitants of Gath to flight;

<sup>24</sup>Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah,

Genealogy from King Saul

<sup>38</sup>Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

<sup>39</sup>The sons of his brother Eshek were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

<sup>40</sup>The sons of Ulam were valiant mighty men, archers, and they had many sons and grandsons, 150 of them. All these were among the sons of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9

People of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>So all Israel was enrolled in genealogies; and behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah was taken into exile to Babylon for their infidelity.

<sup>2</sup>Now the first inhabitants who lived on their own property in their cities were people of Israel, including the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants.

<sup>3</sup>Some of the sons of Judah, some of the sons of Benjamin, and some of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh lived in Jerusalem:

<sup>4</sup>Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the sons of Perez the son of Judah.

<sup>7</sup>From the sons of Benjamin were Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah,

<sup>8</sup>and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

<sup>9</sup>and their relatives according to their generations, 956. All these men were heads of fathers' households according to their fathers' houses.

<sup>11</sup>and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the chief officer of the house of God;

<sup>12</sup>and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

<sup>13</sup>and their relatives, heads of their fathers' households, 1,760 competent men for the work of the service of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Of the Levites, there were Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

<sup>15</sup>and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal; and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph,

<sup>16</sup>and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the settlements of the Netophathites.

<sup>17</sup>Now the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives (Shallum the chief <sup>18</sup>being stationed until now at the king's gate to the east). These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the sons of Levi.

<sup>19</sup>Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives of his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, doorkeepers of the tent; and their fathers had been in charge of the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

<sup>20</sup>Phinehas the son of Eleazar was supervisor over them previously, and the LORD was with him.

<sup>21</sup>Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>22</sup>Those who were chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds were 212 in all. They were registered by genealogy in their settlements, those whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their official capacity.

<sup>23</sup>So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tent, in their divisions of service.

<sup>24</sup>The gatekeepers were on the four sides, to the east, west, north, and south.

<sup>25</sup>Their relatives in their settlements were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them;

<sup>26</sup>for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, served in an official capacity, and were in charge of the chambers and in charge of the treasuries in the house of God.

<sup>27</sup>They spent the night around the house of God, because the watch was committed to them; and they were in charge of opening it morning by morning.

<sup>28</sup>Now some of them were in charge of the utensils of the service, for they counted them when they brought them in and when they took them out.

<sup>29</sup>Some of them also were appointed over the furniture and over all the utensils of the sanctuary, and over the finely milled flour, the wine, the olive oil, the frankincense, and the balsam oil.

<sup>31</sup>Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the responsibility for the baking of cakes in pans.

<sup>32</sup>Some of their relatives of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of the showbread to prepare it every Sabbath.

<sup>33</sup>Now these are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the chambers of the temple free of other duties; for they were engaged in their work day and night.

<sup>34</sup>These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites according to their generations, chief men who lived in Jerusalem.

Ancestry and Descendants of Saul

<sup>35</sup>Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived in Gibeon, and his wife's name was Maacah,

<sup>44</sup>Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

Defeat and Death of Saul and His Sons

<sup>2</sup>And the Philistines also overtook Saul and his sons, and the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

<sup>3</sup>The battle became severe against Saul, and the archers found him; and he was wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised Philistines will come and abuse me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was very afraid. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died.

<sup>6</sup>So Saul died with his three sons, and all those of his house died together.

<sup>7</sup>When all the people of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup>It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip those killed, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>9</sup>So they stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

<sup>10</sup>They put his armor in the house of their gods and impaled his head in the house of Dagon.

Jabesh-gilead’s Tribute to Saul

<sup>11</sup>When all Jabesh-gilead heard everything that the Philistines had done to Saul,

<sup>12</sup>all the valiant men got up and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh; and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

<sup>13</sup>So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of a medium, making inquiry of her,

<sup>14</sup>and did not inquire of the LORD. Therefore He killed him and turned the kingdom over to David, the son of Jesse.

1 Cronicles 11

David Made King over All Israel

<sup>1</sup>Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

<sup>2</sup>In times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be leader over My people Israel.’ ”

<sup>3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, in accordance with the word of the LORD through Samuel.

Jerusalem Is the Capital City

<sup>4</sup>Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there.

<sup>5</sup>The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not enter here.” Nevertheless David took the mountain stronghold of Zion (that is, the city of David).

<sup>6</sup>Now David had said, “Whoever is first to kill a Jebusite shall be chief and commander.” Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

<sup>7</sup>Then David lived in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David.

<sup>8</sup>He built the city all around, from the Millo to the surrounding area; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

<sup>9</sup>And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of armies was with him.

David's Mighty Men

<sup>10</sup>Now these are the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who remained faithful to him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, in accordance with the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

<sup>11</sup>These constitute the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he wielded his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.

<sup>12</sup>After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

<sup>13</sup>He was with David at Pas-dammim when the Philistines were gathered together there to battle, and there was a plot of land full of barley; and the people fled from the Philistines.

<sup>14</sup>But they took their stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and defeated the Philistines; and the LORD saved them with a great victory.

<sup>15</sup>Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>16</sup>David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

<sup>17</sup>And David had a craving and said, "Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>18</sup>So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David; however, David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD;

<sup>19</sup>and he said, "Far be it from me before my God that I would do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives? For they brought it at the risk of their lives." Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>20</sup>As for Abshai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the thirty, and he wielded his spear against three hundred and killed them; and he had a name as well as the thirty.

<sup>21</sup>Of the three in the second rank he was the most honored, and he became their commander; however, he did not attain the reputation of the first three.

<sup>22</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a warrior of Kabzeel, mighty in deeds, struck and killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and struck and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day.

<sup>23</sup>And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature five cubits tall. Now in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam, but he went down to him with a club and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>24</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

<sup>25</sup>Behold, he was honored among the thirty, but he did not attain the reputation of the first three; and David appointed him over his bodyguard.

<sup>26</sup>Now the mighty men of the armies were Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

<sup>27</sup>Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

<sup>31</sup>Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

<sup>32</sup>Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

- <sup>34</sup>the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite,
<sup>35</sup>Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur,
<sup>37</sup>Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,
<sup>39</sup>Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,
<sup>40</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
<sup>42</sup>Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
<sup>43</sup>Hanan the son of Maacah and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
<sup>44</sup>Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,
<sup>45</sup>Jediael the son of Shimri and his brother Joha the Tizite,
<sup>46</sup>Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, <sup>47</sup>Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12

David's Supporters in Ziklag

- <sup>1</sup>Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him in war.
<sup>2</sup>They were equipped with bows, using both the right hand and the left to sling stones and shoot arrows with the bow; they were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin.

<sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite,

<sup>4</sup>and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and in charge of the thirty. Then Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

<sup>8</sup>From the Gadites valiant mighty men went over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness, men trained for war who could handle a large shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains.

<sup>9</sup>Ezer was the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

<sup>10</sup>Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

<sup>11</sup>Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

<sup>14</sup>These men from the sons of Gad were captains of the army; the one who was least was equal to a hundred, and the greatest, to a thousand.

<sup>15</sup>These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

<sup>16</sup>Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.

<sup>17</sup>David went out to meet them, and said to them, "If you come peacefully to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look on it and decide.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit covered Amasai like clothing, the chief of the thirty; and he said, “We are yours, David, And are with you, son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, And peace to him who helps you; Indeed, your God helps you!” Then David received them and made them captains of the troops.

<sup>19</sup>From Manasseh some also defected to David when he was about to go to battle with the Philistines against Saul. But they did not help them, because the governors of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, “At the cost of our heads he might defect to his master Saul.”

<sup>20</sup>As he was going to Ziklag, men from Manasseh defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all valiant mighty men, and were captains in the army.

<sup>22</sup>For day by day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army like the army of God.

Supporters Gathered at Hebron

<sup>23</sup>Now these are the numbers of the divisions equipped for war, who came to David at Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>The sons of Judah who carried shield and spear numbered 6,800, equipped for war.

<sup>27</sup>Now Jehoiada was the leader of the house of Aaron, and with him were 3,700,

<sup>28</sup>also Zadok, a young valiant mighty man, and from his father's house, twenty-two captains.

<sup>31</sup>From the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

<sup>32</sup>From the sons of Issachar, men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their kinsmen were at their command.

<sup>33</sup>From Zebulun, there were fifty thousand who went out in the army, who could draw up in battle formation with all kinds of weapons of war and helped David with an undivided heart.

<sup>34</sup>From Naphtali there were a thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear.

<sup>35</sup>From the Danites who could draw up in battle formation, there were 28,600.

<sup>36</sup>From Asher there were forty thousand who went out in the army to draw up in battle formation.

<sup>37</sup>From the other side of the Jordan, from the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, there were 120,000 with all kinds of weapons of war for the battle.

<sup>38</sup>All of these, being men of war who helped in battle formation, came to Hebron with a perfect heart to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel also were of one mind to make David king.

<sup>39</sup>They were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had prepared for them.

<sup>40</sup>Moreover, those who were near to them, as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and on oxen, great quantities of flour cakes, fig cakes and bunches of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep. There was joy indeed in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13

Peril in Transporting the Ark

<sup>2</sup>David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us send word everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, and to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they meet with us;

<sup>3</sup>and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, since we did not seek it in the days of Saul.”

<sup>4</sup>Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for this was right in the eyes of all the people.

<sup>5</sup>So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

<sup>6</sup>David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD who is enthroned above the cherubim, where His name is called.

<sup>7</sup>And they carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

<sup>8</sup>David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their might, with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

<sup>9</sup>When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, because the oxen nearly overturned it.

<sup>10</sup>But the anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, so He struck him because he had put out his hand toward the ark; and he died there before God.

<sup>11</sup>Then David became angry because of the LORD's outburst against Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza as it is to this day.

<sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God home to me?"

<sup>13</sup>So David did not take the ark with him to the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

<sup>14</sup>And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house for three months; and the LORD blessed the family of Obed-edom and all that he had.

1 Chronicles 14

David's Family Enlarged

<sup>1</sup>Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons, and carpenters, to build a house for him.

<sup>2</sup>And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly exalted, for the sake of His people Israel.

Philistines Defeated

<sup>8</sup>When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard about it and went out against them.

<sup>9</sup>Now the Philistines had come and carried out a raid in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>10</sup>David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You hand them over to me?” Then the LORD said to him, “Go up, for I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>11</sup>So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there; and David said, “God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

<sup>12</sup>They abandoned their gods there; so David gave the order and they were burned with fire.

<sup>14</sup>David inquired again of God, and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the baka-shrubs.

<sup>15</sup>When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baka-shrubs, then you shall go out to battle, for God will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>16</sup>David did just as God had commanded him, and they defeated the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even as far as Gezer.

<sup>17</sup>Then the fame of David spread in all the lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him on all the nations.

1 Chronicles 15

Plans to Move the Ark to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now David built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, “No one is to carry the ark of God except the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to serve Him forever.”

<sup>3</sup>And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place which he had prepared for it.

<sup>5</sup>of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his relatives;

<sup>6</sup>of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and 220 of his relatives;

<sup>11</sup>Then David called for the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab;

<sup>12</sup>and he said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves, you and your relatives, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it.

<sup>13</sup>Because you did not carry it at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst against us, since we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.”

<sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>The sons of the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles on them, just as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Then David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their relatives as the singers, with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, playing to raise sounds of joy.

<sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah,

<sup>19</sup>So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound aloud cymbals of bronze;

<sup>21</sup>and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to lead with lyres tuned to the sheminith.

<sup>22</sup>Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was in charge of the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he was skillful.

<sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also were gatekeepers for the ark.

<sup>25</sup>So it was David, with the elders of Israel and the captains of thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with joy.

<sup>26</sup>Because God was helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup>Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen with all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the leader of the singing with the singers. David also wore an ephod of linen.

<sup>29</sup>When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David dancing and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16

A Tent for the Ark

<sup>1</sup>And they brought in the ark of God and placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

<sup>2</sup>When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both men and women, to everyone a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a raisin cake.

<sup>4</sup>He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with musical instruments, harps, and lyres; also Asaph played loud-sounding cymbals, <sup>6</sup>and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel blew trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>7</sup>Then on that day David first assigned Asaph and his relatives to give thanks to the LORD.

Psalm of Thanksgiving

<sup>8</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; Make His deeds known among the peoples.

<sup>10</sup>Boast in His holy name; Let the heart of those who seek the LORD be joyful.

<sup>12</sup>Remember His wonderful deeds which He has done, His marvels and the judgments from His mouth,

<sup>17</sup>He also confirmed it to Jacob as a statute, To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

<sup>18</sup>Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, As the portion of your inheritance."

<sup>19</sup>When they were only a few in number, Very few, and strangers in it,

<sup>20</sup>And they wandered from nation to nation, And from one kingdom to another people,

<sup>21</sup>He allowed no one to oppress them, And He rebuked kings for their sakes, saying,

<sup>25</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; He also is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols, But the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>28</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples, Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

<sup>29</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him; Worship the LORD in holy attire.

<sup>30</sup>Tremble before Him, all the earth; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved.

<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth rejoice; And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

<sup>32</sup>Let the sea roar, and everything it contains; Let the field rejoice, and everything that is in it.

<sup>33</sup>Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy in the presence of the LORD; For He is coming to judge the earth.

<sup>35</sup>Then say, "Save us, God of our salvation, And gather us and save us from the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name, And glory in Your praise."

<sup>36</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting! Then all the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD.

Worship before the Ark

<sup>38</sup>and Obed-edom with his sixty-eight relatives; Obed-edom, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah as gatekeepers.

<sup>39</sup>He left Zadok the priest and his relatives the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place which was at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup>to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to everything that is written in the Law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel.

<sup>41</sup>With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His kindness is everlasting.

<sup>42</sup>And with them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who were to play them, and with instruments for the songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate.

<sup>43</sup>Then all the people departed, each to his house; and David returned to bless his household.

1 Chronicles 17

God's Covenant with David

<sup>1</sup>And it came about, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains.”

<sup>2</sup>Then Nathan said to David, “Do whatever is in your heart, for God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup>But it happened that same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Go and tell David My servant, ‘This is what the LORD says: “You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in;

<sup>5</sup>for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another.

<sup>6</sup>In all places where I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’

<sup>7</sup>Now, therefore, this is what you shall say to My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel.

<sup>8</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have eliminated all your enemies from you; and I will make for you a name like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.

<sup>9</sup>And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them there, so that they may live in their own place and not tremble with anxiety again; and the wicked will not make them waste away anymore as they did previously, <sup>10</sup>even from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I tell you that the LORD will build a house for you.

<sup>11</sup>When your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, then I will set up one of your descendants after you, who will be from your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>12</sup>He shall build for Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

<sup>13</sup>I will be his father and he shall be My son; and I will not take My favor away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

<sup>14</sup>But I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.” ’ ’

<sup>15</sup>According to all these words and according to all of this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David’s Prayer in Response

<sup>16</sup>Then King David came in and sat before the LORD, and said, “Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far?

<sup>17</sup>This was a small thing in Your eyes, God; but You have spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have viewed me according to the standard of a person of high degree, LORD God.

<sup>18</sup>What more can David still say to You concerning the honor bestowed on Your servant? For You know Your servant.

<sup>19</sup>LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have accomplished all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

<sup>20</sup>LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to everything that we have heard with our ears.

<sup>21</sup>And what one nation on the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for You a name by great and awesome things, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt?

<sup>22</sup>For You have made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, LORD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup>“Now, LORD, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do just as You have spoken.

<sup>24</sup>Let Your name be established and be great forever, saying, “The LORD of armies is the God of Israel, a God to Israel; and the house of Your servant David is established before You.’

<sup>25</sup>For You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You.

<sup>26</sup>Now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this good thing to Your servant.

<sup>27</sup>And now You have decided to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles 18

David's Kingdom Strengthened

<sup>6</sup>Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

<sup>7</sup>And David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>Also from Tibhath and Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze Sea and the pillars and the bronze utensils.

<sup>9</sup>Now when Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

<sup>10</sup>he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. And Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

<sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and the gold which he had carried away from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, and from Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Moreover, Abishai the son of Zeruiah defeated eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>13</sup>Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

<sup>14</sup>So David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

<sup>15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was secretary;

<sup>16</sup>and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was secretary;

<sup>17</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chiefs at the king's side.

1 Cronicles 19

David's Messengers Abused

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son became king in his place.

<sup>2</sup>Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to console him.

<sup>3</sup>But the commanders among the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David is honoring your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have his servants not come to you to search, to demolish, and to spy out the land?”

<sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David’s servants and shaved them, and cut off their robes in the middle as far as their buttocks, and sent them away.

<sup>5</sup>Then certain people went and told David about the men. And he sent messengers to meet them, because the men were very humiliated. And the king said, “Stay at Jericho until your beards grow back, then return.”

<sup>6</sup>When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, Aramaacah, and Zobah.

<sup>7</sup>So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped opposite Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to the battle.

<sup>8</sup>When David heard about it, he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

Ammon and Aram Defeated

<sup>10</sup>Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him at the front and at the rear, he selected warriors from all the choice men in Israel and lined them up against the Arameans.

<sup>11</sup>But the remainder of the people he placed under the command of Abshai his brother; and they lined up against the sons of Ammon.

<sup>12</sup>He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

<sup>13</sup>Be strong, and let’s show ourselves courageous for the benefit of our people and the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.”

<sup>14</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to battle against the Arameans, and they fled from him.

<sup>15</sup>When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from his brother Abshai and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them.

<sup>17</sup>When it was reported to David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and drew up in formation against them. And when David drew up in battle formation against the Arameans, they fought against him.

<sup>18</sup>And the Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed of the Arameans seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers; and he put Shophach the commander of the army to death.

<sup>19</sup>So when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

1 Chronicles 20

War with Philistine Giants

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the army and ravaged the land of the sons of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it.

<sup>2</sup>David took the crown of their king from his head, and he found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there was a precious stone in it; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoils of the city, a very great amount.

<sup>3</sup>He brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work at saws, iron picks, and axes. And David did the same to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>Now it came about after this, that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and they were subdued.

<sup>5</sup>And there was war with the Philistines again, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

<sup>6</sup>Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot; and he also was descended from the giants.

<sup>7</sup>When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

<sup>8</sup>These were descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1 Chronicles 21

Census Brings Plague

<sup>2</sup>So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me word so that I may know their number."

<sup>3</sup>But Joab said, "May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! My lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why does my lord seek this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

<sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore, Joab departed and went throughout Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Joab gave the number of the census of the people to David. Israel was 1,100,000 men in all who drew the sword; and Judah was 470,000 men who drew the sword.

<sup>6</sup>But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, because the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.

<sup>7</sup>Now God was displeased with this thing, so He struck Israel.

<sup>8</sup>David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, by doing this thing. But now, please overlook Your servant's guilt, for I have behaved very foolishly."

<sup>9</sup>The LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

<sup>10</sup>"Go and speak to David, saying, 'This is what the LORD says: "I extend to you three choices; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you." ' "

<sup>11</sup>So Gad came to David and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Take for yourself

<sup>12</sup>three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your foes while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD: a plague in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout the territory of Israel.' Now, therefore, consider what answer I shall bring back to Him who sent me."

<sup>13</sup>David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into human hands."

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sent a plague on Israel; seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

<sup>15</sup>And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to destroy it, the LORD saw and was sorry about the catastrophe, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now relax your hand." And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup>Then David raised his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, covered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

<sup>17</sup>And David said to God, “Is it not I who commanded to count the people? Indeed, I am the one who has sinned and acted very wickedly, but these sheep, what have they done? LORD, my God, just let Your hand be against me and my father’s household, and not against Your people as a plague.”

David’s Altar

<sup>18</sup>Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David was to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>19</sup>So David went up at the word of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Now Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat.

<sup>21</sup>As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself to David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup>Then David said to Ornan, “Give me the site of this threshing floor, so that I may build on it an altar to the LORD; you shall give it to me for the full price, so that the plague may be brought to a halt from the people.”

<sup>23</sup>But Ornan said to David, “Take it for yourself, and may my lord the king do what is good in his sight. See, I am giving the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing sledges for wood and the wheat for the grain offering; I am giving it all.”

<sup>24</sup>Nevertheless, King David said to Ornan, “No, but I will certainly buy it for the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering which costs me nothing.”

<sup>26</sup>Then David built an altar there to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called to the LORD, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

<sup>28</sup>At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

<sup>29</sup>For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were on the high place at Gibeon at that time.

<sup>30</sup>But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

David Prepares for Temple Building

<sup>1</sup>Then David said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

<sup>2</sup>So David gave orders to gather the strangers who were in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to cut out stones to build the house of God.

<sup>3</sup>And David prepared large quantities of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed;

<sup>4</sup>and timbers of cedar beyond number, for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought large quantities of cedar timber to David.

<sup>5</sup>David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD shall be exceedingly magnificent, famous, and glorious throughout the lands. Therefore I now will make preparations for it.” So David made ample preparations before his death.

Solomon Commanded to Build the Temple

<sup>6</sup>Then he called for his son Solomon, and commanded him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>David said to Solomon, “My son, I had intended to build a house for the name of the LORD my God.

<sup>8</sup>But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to My name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth before Me.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, a son will be born to you, who shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for his name will be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

<sup>10</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

<sup>11</sup>Now, my son, the LORD be with you that you may be successful, and build the house of the LORD your God just as He has spoken concerning you.

<sup>12</sup>Only the LORD give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel, so that you may keep the Law of the LORD your God.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will prosper, if you are careful to follow the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous, do not fear nor be dismayed.

<sup>14</sup>Now behold, with great pains I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold and a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for they are in great quantity; I have also prepared timber and stone, and you may add to that.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover there are many workmen with you, stonecutters, masons of stone, and carpenters; and all of them are skillful in every kind of work.

<sup>16</sup>Of the gold, silver, bronze, and iron there is no limit. Arise and work, and may the LORD be with you.”

<sup>17</sup>David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Is the LORD your God not with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has handed over to me the inhabitants of the land, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.

<sup>19</sup>Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; then arise, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 23

Solomon Reigns

<sup>2</sup>And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.

Offices of the Levites

<sup>3</sup>Now the Levites were counted from thirty years old and upward, and their number by head count of men was thirty-eight thousand.

<sup>4</sup>Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges, <sup>5</sup>and four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand were praising the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise.

<sup>6</sup>David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Gershonites

<sup>8</sup>The sons of Ladan were Jehiel the first, and Zetham and Joel, three.

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Shimei were Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

<sup>10</sup>The sons of Shimei were Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

<sup>11</sup>Jahath was the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one group for duty.

Kohathites

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Kohath were four in number: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart to sanctify him as most holy, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to serve Him and bless in His name forever.

<sup>14</sup>But as for Moses, the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

<sup>17</sup>The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Hebron were Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

Merarites

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

<sup>22</sup>Eleazar died and had no sons, but only daughters; so their relatives, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Mushi were three: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth.

Duties Revised

<sup>24</sup>These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' households, the heads of the fathers' households of those among them who were counted, in the number of names by their head count, doing the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward.

<sup>25</sup>For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever.

<sup>26</sup>Also, the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service."

<sup>27</sup>For by the last words of David, the sons of Levi were counted from twenty years old and upward.

<sup>28</sup>For their office is to assist the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the LORD, in the courtyards and in the chambers, and in the purification of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God,

<sup>29</sup>and with the showbread, and the fine flour for a grain offering, and unleavened wafers, or what is baked in the pan or what is well-mixed, and all measures of volume and size.

<sup>30</sup>They are to stand every morning to thank and to praise the LORD, and likewise at evening,

<sup>31</sup>and to offer all burnt offerings to the LORD, on the Sabbaths, the new moons and the appointed festivals, in the number determined by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>So they are to perform the duties of the tent of meeting, the holy place, and of assisting the sons of Aaron their relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD.

1 Cronicles 24

Divisions of the Levites

<sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

<sup>3</sup>David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices for their ministry.

<sup>4</sup>Since more chief men were found from the descendants of Eleazar than the descendants of Ithamar, they divided them this way: there were sixteen heads of fathers' households of the descendants of Eleazar, and eight of the descendants of Ithamar according to their fathers' households.

<sup>5</sup>So they were divided by lot, the one as the other; for they were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God, both from the descendants of Eleazar and the descendants of Ithamar.

<sup>6</sup>Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and the Levites; one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup>Now the first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,

<sup>8</sup>the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,

<sup>9</sup>the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,

<sup>10</sup>the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah,

<sup>12</sup>the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim,

<sup>19</sup>These were their offices for their ministry when they entered the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given to them through their father Aaron, just as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup>The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

<sup>31</sup>These also cast lots just as their relatives, the sons of Aaron did in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites—the head of fathers' households as well as those of his younger brother.

1 Chronicles 25

Number and Services of Musicians

<sup>1</sup>Moreover, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals; and the number of those who performed this service was:

<sup>2</sup>Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king.

<sup>3</sup>Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six in all, under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

<sup>5</sup>All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer to exalt him according to the words of God, for God gave fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.

<sup>6</sup>All of these were under the direction of their father to sing in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the direction of the king.

<sup>7</sup>Their number who were trained in singing to the LORD, with their relatives, all who were skillful, was 288.

Divisions of the Musicians

<sup>8</sup>They cast lots for their duties, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the pupil.

<sup>9</sup>Now the first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph, the second for Gedaliah, he with his relatives and sons were twelve;

<sup>10</sup>the third to Zaccur, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

<sup>12</sup>the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

<sup>14</sup>the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

<sup>15</sup>the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

- <sup>16</sup>the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>17</sup>the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>18</sup>the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>19</sup>the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>20</sup>for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>21</sup>for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>22</sup>for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>23</sup>for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>24</sup>for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>25</sup>for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>26</sup>for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>27</sup>for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>28</sup>for the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>29</sup>for the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>30</sup>for the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his relatives, twelve;
- <sup>31</sup>for the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his relatives, twelve.

1 Chronicles 26

Divisions of the Gatekeepers

- <sup>1</sup>For the divisions of the gatekeepers there were of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.
- <sup>2</sup>Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,
- <sup>3</sup>Elam the fifth, Johanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh.
- <sup>4</sup>Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, <sup>5</sup>Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth; God had indeed blessed him.

<sup>6</sup>Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who ruled over the house of their father, for they were valiant mighty men.

<sup>7</sup>The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, were valiant men.

<sup>8</sup>All these were of the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and relatives were able men with strength for the service, sixty-two from Obed-edom.

<sup>9</sup>Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, eighteen valiant men.

<sup>10</sup>Also Hosah, one of the sons of Merari had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him first),

<sup>11</sup>Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth; the sons and relatives of Hosah were thirteen in all.

<sup>12</sup>To these divisions of the gatekeepers, to the chief men, were given duties like their relatives, to serve in the house of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>For Obed-edom it fell to the south, and to his sons went the storehouse.

<sup>16</sup>For Shuppim and Hosah it was to the west, by the gate of Shallecheth, on the ascending highway. Guard corresponded to guard.

<sup>17</sup>On the east there were six Levites, on the north four daily, on the south four daily, and at the storehouse two by two.

<sup>19</sup>These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and of the sons of Merari.

Keepers of the Treasure

<sup>20</sup>The Levites, their relatives, were in charge of the treasures of the house of God and of the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, namely, the Jehielites, were the heads of the fathers' households, belonging to Ladan the Gershonite.

<sup>22</sup>The sons of Jehieli, Zetham, and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasures of the house of the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>As for the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites, <sup>24</sup>Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was officer over the treasures.

<sup>25</sup>His relatives by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son.

<sup>26</sup>This Shelomoth and his relatives were in charge of all the treasures of the dedicated gifts which King David and the heads of the fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated.

<sup>27</sup>They dedicated part of the spoils won in battles to repair the house of the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>And all that Samuel the seer had dedicated, and Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everyone who had dedicated anything, all of this was under the care of Shelomoth and his relatives.

Outside Duties

<sup>29</sup>As for the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were assigned to outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.

<sup>30</sup>As for the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, were responsible for the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

<sup>31</sup>As for the Hebronites, Jerijah the chief (these Hebronites were sought out according to their genealogies and fathers' households, in the fortieth year of David's reign, and men of outstanding capability were found among them at Jazer of Gilead)

<sup>32</sup>and his relatives, capable men, numbered 2,700, heads of fathers' households. And King David appointed them as overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites concerning all the affairs of God and of the king.

1 Chronicles 27

Commanders of the Army

<sup>1</sup>Now this is the number of the sons of Israel, the heads of fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all the affairs of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout the months of the year, each division numbering twenty-four thousand:

<sup>2</sup>Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>3</sup>He was from the sons of Perez, and was chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

<sup>4</sup>Dodai the Ahohite and his division was in charge of the division for the second month, Mikloth being the chief officer; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>5</sup>The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, as chief; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>6</sup>This Benaiah was the mighty man of the thirty, and was in charge of thirty; and over his division was his son Ammizabad.

<sup>7</sup>The fourth, for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>8</sup>The fifth, for the fifth month was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>9</sup>The sixth, for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>10</sup>The seventh, for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>11</sup>The eighth, for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>12</sup>The ninth, for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite of the Benjaminites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>13</sup>The tenth, for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>14</sup>The eleventh, for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

<sup>15</sup>The twelfth, for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Chief Officers of the Tribes

<sup>16</sup>Now in charge of the tribes of Israel: chief officer for the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

<sup>20</sup>for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

<sup>21</sup>for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

<sup>22</sup>for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

<sup>24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah had begun to count them, but did not finish; and because of this, wrath came upon Israel, and the number was not included in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Various Overseers

<sup>25</sup>Now Azmaveth the son of Adiel was responsible for the king's storehouses. And Jonathan the son of Uzziah was responsible for the storehouses in the country, the cities, the villages, and the towers.

<sup>26</sup>Ezri the son of Chelub was responsible for the agricultural workers who tilled the soil.

<sup>27</sup>Shimei the Ramathite was responsible for the vineyards; and Zabdi the Shiphmite was responsible for the produce of the vineyards stored in the wine cellars.

<sup>28</sup>Baal-hanan the Gederite was responsible for the olive and sycamore trees in the Shephelah; and Joash was responsible for the stores of oil.

<sup>29</sup>Shitrai the Sharonite was responsible for the cattle which were grazing in Sharon; and Shaphat the son of Adlai was responsible for the cattle in the valleys.

<sup>30</sup>Obil the Ishmaelite was responsible for the camels; and Jehdeiah the Meronothite was responsible for the donkeys.

<sup>31</sup>Jaziz the Hagrite was responsible for the flocks. All these were overseers of the property which belonged to King David.

Counselors

<sup>32</sup>Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.

<sup>33</sup>Ahithophel was counselor to the king; and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.

<sup>34</sup>Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel; and Joab was the commander of the king's army.

1 Chronicles 28

David's Address about the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the leaders of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with the officials and the mighty men, all the valiant warriors.

<sup>2</sup>Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people; I had intended to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and for the footstool of our God. So I had made preparations to build it.

<sup>3</sup>But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name, because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

<sup>4</sup>Yet, the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from all the household of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be a leader; and in the house of Judah, my father's house, and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

<sup>6</sup>He said to me, ‘Your son Solomon is the one who shall build My house and My courtyards; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a Father to him.

<sup>7</sup>I will establish his kingdom forever if he resolutely performs My commandments and My ordinances, as is done now.’

<sup>8</sup>So now, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the presence of our God, keep and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God so that you may possess the good land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

<sup>9</sup>“As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him wholeheartedly and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.

<sup>10</sup>Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be courageous and act.”

<sup>11</sup>Then David gave to his son Solomon the plan of the porch of the temple, its buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and the room for the atoning cover;

<sup>12</sup>and the plan of all that he had in mind, for the courtyards of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the house of God and for the storehouses of the dedicated things;

<sup>13</sup>also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD and for all the utensils of service in the house of the LORD;

<sup>14</sup>for the golden utensils, by weight of gold for all utensils for every service; for all the silver utensils, by weight of silver for all utensils for every service;

<sup>15</sup>and the weight of gold for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

<sup>16</sup>and the gold by weight for the tables of the showbread, for each table; and silver for the silver tables;

<sup>17</sup>and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold; and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

<sup>18</sup>and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot, and the cherubim that spread out their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>“All this,” said David, “the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the details of this pattern.”

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and act; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

<sup>21</sup>Now behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and every willing man of any skill will be with you in all the work for all kinds of service. The officials also and all the people will be entirely at your command.”

1 Chronicles 29

Offerings for the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then King David said to the entire assembly, “My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is still young and inexperienced, and the work is great; for the temple is not for mankind, but for the LORD God.

<sup>2</sup>Now with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, wood for the things of wood, onyx stones and inlaid stones, stones of antimony and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones and alabaster in abundance.

<sup>3</sup>In addition, in my delight in the house of my God, the treasure I have of gold and silver, I give to the house of my God, over and above all that I have already provided for the holy temple,

<sup>4</sup>namely, three thousand talents of gold, from the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;

<sup>5</sup>gold for the things of gold and silver for the things of silver, that is, for all the work done by the craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?”

<sup>6</sup>Then the rulers of the fathers’ households, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and hundreds, with the supervisors of the king’s work, offered willingly;

<sup>7</sup>and for the service of the house of God they gave five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of brass, and a hundred thousand talents of iron.

<sup>8</sup>Whoever possessed precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

<sup>9</sup>Then the people rejoiced because they had offered so willingly, for they made their offering to the LORD wholeheartedly, and King David also rejoiced greatly.

David’s Prayer

<sup>10</sup>So David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly; and David said, “Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>Yours, LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty, indeed everything that is in the heavens and on the earth; Yours is the dominion, LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head over all.

<sup>12</sup>Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all, and in Your hand is power and might; and it lies in Your hand to make great and to strengthen everyone.

<sup>13</sup>Now therefore, our God, we thank You, and praise Your glorious name.

<sup>14</sup>“But who am I and who are my people that we should be able to offer as generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your hand we have given to You.

<sup>15</sup>For we are strangers before You, and temporary residents, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope.

<sup>16</sup>LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build You a house for Your holy name, it is from Your hand, and everything is Yours.

<sup>17</sup>Since I know, my God, that You put the heart to the test and delight in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these things; so now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here, make their offerings willingly to You.

<sup>18</sup>LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intentions of the hearts of Your people, and direct their hearts to You;

<sup>19</sup>and give my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do them all, and to build the temple for which I have made provision.”

<sup>20</sup>Then David said to all the assembly, “Now bless the LORD your God.” And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down and paid homage to the LORD and the king.

Sacrifices

<sup>21</sup>On the next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD, a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

<sup>22</sup>So they ate and drank that day before the LORD with great gladness.

Solomon Again Made King

And they made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and they anointed him as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as priest.

<sup>23</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of his father David; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

<sup>24</sup>And all the officials, the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David pledged allegiance to King Solomon.

<sup>27</sup>The period which he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

Death of David

<sup>28</sup>Then he died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and his son Solomon reigned in his place.

<sup>29</sup>Now the acts of King David, from the first to the last, are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer, <sup>30</sup>with all of his reign, his power, and the circumstances which came upon him, Israel, and all the kingdoms of the lands.

2 Cronicles

2 Cronicles 1

Solomon Worships at Gibeon

<sup>1</sup>Now Solomon the son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and exalted him greatly.

<sup>2</sup>And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands, of hundreds, and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households.

<sup>3</sup>Then Solomon and all the assembly with him went to the high place which was at Gibeon, because God's tent of meeting was there which Moses, the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

<sup>4</sup>However, David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Now the bronze altar which Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.

<sup>6</sup>And Solomon went up there before the LORD to the bronze altar which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

<sup>7</sup>In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."

Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom

<sup>8</sup>And Solomon said to God, "You have dealt with my father David with great faithfulness, and have made me king in his place.

<sup>9</sup>Now, LORD God, Your promise to my father David is fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Now give me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this great people of Yours?"

<sup>11</sup>Then God said to Solomon, “Because this was in your heart, and you did not ask for riches, wealth, or honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor did you even ask for long life, but you asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge so that you may rule My people over whom I have made you king,

<sup>12</sup>wisdom and knowledge have been granted to you. I will also give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you has possessed, nor will those who will come after you.”

<sup>13</sup>So Solomon went from the high place which was at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup>Solomon amassed chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.

<sup>16</sup>Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders acquired them from Kue for a price.

<sup>17</sup>They imported chariots from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver apiece, horses for 150 apiece, and by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Chronicles 2

Solomon Will Build a Temple and a Palace

<sup>2</sup> So Solomon assigned seventy thousand men to carry loads, eighty thousand men to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 to supervise them.

<sup>3</sup>Then Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, “As you dealt with my father David and sent him cedars to build him a house to live in, do it for me.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, dedicating it to Him, to burn fragrant incense before Him and to set out the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths, on new moons, and on the appointed feasts of the LORD our God. This is to be done in Israel forever.

<sup>5</sup>The house which I am about to build will be great, for our God is greater than all the gods.

<sup>6</sup>But who is able to build a house for Him, since the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him? And who am I, that I should build a house for Him, except to burn incense before Him?

<sup>7</sup>Now send me a skilled man to work in gold, silver, brass, iron, and in purple, crimson, and violet fabrics, one who knows how to make engravings, to work with the skilled workers whom I have in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.

<sup>8</sup>Send me also cedar, juniper, and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber of Lebanon; and indeed my servants will work with your servants,

<sup>9</sup>to prepare timber in abundance for me, for the house which I am about to build will be great and wonderful.

<sup>10</sup>Now behold, I will give your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand kors of crushed wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.”

Hiram to Assist

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram, king of Tyre, answered in a letter sent to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Hiram continued, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

<sup>13</sup>“Now then, I am sending Hiram-abi, a skilled man, endowed with understanding,

<sup>14</sup>the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father, who knows how to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and in purple, violet, linen, and crimson fabrics, and who knows how to make all kinds of engravings and to execute any design which is assigned to him, to work with your skilled workers and with those of my lord, your father David.

<sup>15</sup>Now then, let my lord send his servants wheat and barley, oil and wine, of which he has spoken.

<sup>16</sup>We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you as rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may carry it up to Jerusalem.”

<sup>17</sup>Solomon counted all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, following the census which his father David had taken; and 153,600 were found.

<sup>18</sup>He appointed seventy thousand of them to carry loads and eighty thousand to quarry stones in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to make the people work.

2 Cronicles 3

The Temple Construction in Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup>He began to build on the second day in the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

Dimensions and Materials of the Temple

<sup>3</sup>Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for building the house of God. The length in cubits, according to the old standard, was sixty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.

<sup>4</sup>The porch which was in front of the house was as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits, and the height twenty; and inside he overlaid it with pure gold.

<sup>5</sup>He overlaid the main room with juniper wood and overlaid it with fine gold; and he ornamented it with palm trees and chains.

<sup>6</sup>Further, he overlaid the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

<sup>7</sup>He also overlaid the house with gold—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls and doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

<sup>8</sup>Then he made the room of the Most Holy Place: its length across the width of the house was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

<sup>9</sup>The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

<sup>10</sup>Then he made two sculptured cherubim in the room of the Most Holy Place and overlaid them with gold.

<sup>11</sup>The wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits; the wing of one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

<sup>12</sup>The wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and its other wing, of five cubits, was attached to the wing of the first cherub.

<sup>13</sup>The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet facing the main room.

<sup>14</sup>He made the veil of violet, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and he worked cherubim into it.

<sup>15</sup>He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each was five cubits.

<sup>16</sup>He made chains in the inner sanctuary and placed them on the tops of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates and placed them on the chains.

<sup>17</sup>He erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4

Furnishings of the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then he made a bronze altar, twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and ten cubits in height.

<sup>2</sup>He also made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits and its circumference thirty cubits.

<sup>3</sup>Now figures like oxen were under it and all around it, ten cubits, entirely encircling the Sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast in one piece.

<sup>4</sup>It was standing on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them and all their hindquarters turned inward.

<sup>5</sup>It was a hand width thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom; it could hold three thousand baths.

<sup>6</sup>He also made ten basins in which to wash, and he set five on the right side and five on the left to rinse things for the burnt offering; but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

<sup>7</sup>Then he made the ten golden lampstands in the way prescribed for them, and he set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

<sup>8</sup>He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made a hundred golden bowls.

<sup>9</sup>Then he made the courtyard of the priests and the great courtyard, and doors for the courtyard, and overlaid their doors with bronze.

<sup>10</sup>He put the Sea on the right side of the house toward the southeast.

<sup>11</sup>Huram also made the pails, the shovels, and the bowls. So Hiram finished the work that he did for King Solomon in the house of God:

<sup>12</sup>the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on top of the pillars, and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars, <sup>13</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the pillars.

<sup>14</sup>He also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands,

<sup>16</sup>The pails, the shovels, the forks, and all its utensils, Hiram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon, for the house of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>On the plain of the Jordan the king cast them in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

<sup>18</sup>So Solomon made all these utensils in great quantities, for the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon also made all the things that were in the house of God: the golden altar, the tables with the bread of the Presence on them,

<sup>21</sup>the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, that is, of purest gold;

<sup>22</sup>and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons, and the firepans of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the Most Holy Place and the doors of the house, that is, of the main room, of gold.

2 Chronicles 5

The Ark Is Brought into the Temple

<sup>1</sup>So all the work that Solomon performed for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and all the utensils, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>2</sup>Then Solomon assembled at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, and the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the city of David, which is Zion.

<sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites picked up the ark.

<sup>5</sup>They brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and all the holy utensils that were in the tent. The Levitical priests brought them up.

<sup>6</sup>And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who had assembled with him before the ark were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

<sup>7</sup>Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>8</sup>For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles.

<sup>9</sup>The poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; and they are there to this day.

<sup>10</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

The Glory of God Fills the Temple

<sup>11</sup>When the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to divisions),

<sup>12</sup>and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and kinsmen, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, standing east of the altar, and with them 120 priests blowing trumpets

<sup>13</sup>in unison when the trumpeters and the singers were to make themselves heard with one voice to praise and to glorify the LORD, and when they raised their voices accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and other musical instruments, and when they praised the LORD saying, “He indeed is good for His kindness is everlasting,” then the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud, <sup>14</sup>so that the priests could not rise to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

2 Chronicles 6

Solomon’s Dedication of the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

<sup>4</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and fulfilled it with His hands, saying,

<sup>5</sup>‘Since the day that I brought My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, so that My name might be there, nor did I choose a man to be the leader over My people Israel;

<sup>6</sup>but I have chosen Jerusalem so that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

<sup>7</sup>Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

<sup>9</sup>Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who will be born to you, he shall build the house for My name.’

<sup>10</sup>Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>There I have placed the ark in which is the covenant of the LORD, which He made with the sons of Israel.”

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

<sup>12</sup>Then he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

<sup>13</sup>For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the courtyard; and he stood on it, knelt on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.

<sup>14</sup>He said, “LORD, God of Israel, there is no god like You in heaven or on earth, keeping Your covenant and Your faithfulness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

<sup>15</sup>You who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You promised him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>16</sup>Now then, LORD, God of Israel, keep to Your servant David, my father, that which You promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay attention to their way, to walk in My Law as you have walked before Me.’

<sup>17</sup>Now then, LORD, God of Israel, let Your word be confirmed which You have spoken to Your servant David.

<sup>18</sup>“But will God really dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built!

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, turn Your attention to the prayer of Your servant and to his plea, LORD, my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You;

<sup>20</sup>that Your eye will be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have said that You would put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

<sup>21</sup>Listen to the pleadings of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place; hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; hear and forgive.

<sup>22</sup>“If someone sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house,

<sup>23</sup>then hear from heaven and take action and judge Your servants, punishing the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by repaying him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup>“If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return to You and praise Your name, and pray and plead before You in this house,

<sup>25</sup>then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You have given to them and to their fathers.

<sup>26</sup>“When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and praise Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them,

<sup>27</sup>then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel; indeed, teach them the good way in which they are to walk. And provide rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup>“If there is a famine in the land, if there is a plague, if there is blight or mildew, if there is locust or grasshopper, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or whatever sickness there is,

<sup>29</sup>whatever prayer or plea is made by anyone or by all Your people Israel, each knowing his own affliction and his own pain, and spreading his hands toward this house,

<sup>30</sup>then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know—for You alone know the hearts of the sons of mankind—

<sup>31</sup>so that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup>“Also concerning the foreigner who is not from Your people Israel, when he comes from a far country on account of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house,

<sup>33</sup>then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and fear You as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

<sup>34</sup>“When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name,

<sup>36</sup>“When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You are angry with them and turn them over to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far off or near,

<sup>37</sup>if they take it to heart in the land where they are taken captive, and repent and plead to You in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done wrong and have acted wickedly’;

<sup>38</sup>if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been taken captive, and pray toward their land which You have given to their fathers and the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name,

<sup>39</sup>then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and pleadings, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

<sup>40</sup>“Now, my God, please, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

<sup>41</sup>“Now then arise, LORD God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your might; let Your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your godly ones rejoice in what is good.

<sup>42</sup>“LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember Your faithfulness to Your servant David.”

2 Cronicles 7

The Shekinah Glory

<sup>1</sup>Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

<sup>2</sup>And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’S house.

<sup>3</sup>All the sons of Israel, seeing the fire come down and the glory of the LORD upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave praise to the LORD, saying, “Certainly He is good, certainly His faithfulness is everlasting.”

Sacrifices Offered

<sup>4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

<sup>6</sup>The priests stood at their posts, and the Levites also, with the musical instruments for the LORD, which King David had made for giving praise to the LORD—“for His faithfulness is everlasting”—whenever David gave praise through their ministry; the priests on the other side blew trumpets and all Israel was standing.

<sup>7</sup>Then Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of the LORD, for he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings there, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat.

The Feast of Dedication

<sup>8</sup>So Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly that came from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>And on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, because they held the dedication of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days.

<sup>10</sup>Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy in heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, to Solomon, and to His people Israel.

God's Promise and Warning

<sup>11</sup>So Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and successfully completed everything that he had planned on doing in the house of the LORD and in his palace.

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

<sup>13</sup>If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send a plague among My people,

<sup>14</sup>and My people who are called by My name humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

<sup>15</sup>Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

<sup>16</sup>For now I have chosen and consecrated this house so that My name may be there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there always.

<sup>17</sup>As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, to do according to everything that I have commanded you, and keep My statutes and My ordinances,

<sup>18</sup>then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.’

<sup>19</sup>“But if you turn away and abandon My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

<sup>20</sup>then I will uproot you from My land which I have given you, and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out of My sight; and I will make it a proverb and an object of scorn among all peoples.

<sup>21</sup>As for this house, which was exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, ‘Why has the LORD done these things to this land and to this house?’

<sup>22</sup>And they will say, ‘Because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them from the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods, and worshiped and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity on them.’ ”

2 Chronicles 8

Solomon’s Activities and Accomplishments

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,

<sup>2</sup>that he built the cities which Hiram had given him, and settled the sons of Israel there.

<sup>4</sup>He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities which he had built in Hamath.

<sup>5</sup>He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, which were fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars;

<sup>6</sup>and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen, and everything that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and all the land under his rule.

<sup>7</sup>All of the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel,

<sup>8</sup>that is, from their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not destroyed, Solomon raised them as forced laborers to this day.

<sup>11</sup>Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built in front of the porch;

<sup>13</sup>and he did so according to the daily rule, offering them up according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.

<sup>14</sup>Now according to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering before the priests according to the daily rule, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for this is what David, the man of God, had commanded.

<sup>15</sup>And they did not deviate from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any matter or regarding the storehouses.

<sup>16</sup>So all the work of Solomon was carried out from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the seashore in the land of Edom.

<sup>18</sup>And by his servants Hiram sent him ships and servants who knew the sea; and they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir and took from there 450 talents of gold, and brought it to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9

Visit of the Queen of Sheba

<sup>1</sup>Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with riddles. She had a very large entourage, with camels carrying balsam oil and a large amount of gold and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about everything that was on her heart.

<sup>3</sup>When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house which he had built,

<sup>4</sup>the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

<sup>5</sup>Then she said to the king, "It was a true story that I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

<sup>6</sup>But I did not believe their stories until I came and my own eyes saw it all. And behold, not even half of the greatness of your wisdom was reported to me. You have surpassed the report that I heard.

<sup>7</sup>How blessed are your men, how blessed are these servants of yours, who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom!

<sup>8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, He made you king over them, to carry out justice and righteousness.”

<sup>9</sup>Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold and a very great amount of balsam oil and precious stones; there had never been balsam oil like that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup>The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum trees and precious stones.

<sup>12</sup>King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba her every desire, whatever she requested, besides gifts equal to what she had brought to the king. Then she turned and went to her own land with her servants.

Solomon’s Wealth and Power

<sup>13</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

<sup>14</sup>besides what the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup>King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold, using six hundred shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

<sup>16</sup>He made three hundred shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield; and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup>Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

<sup>18</sup>There were six steps to the throne and a footstool in gold attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.

<sup>19</sup>Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup>All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

<sup>21</sup>For the king had ships which went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

<sup>22</sup>So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.

<sup>23</sup>And all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

<sup>24</sup>They were bringing, each of them his gift: articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, balsam oil, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

<sup>25</sup>Now Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>He was ruler over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>And the king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the lowland.

<sup>28</sup>And they were bringing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

<sup>29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

Death of Solomon

<sup>31</sup>And Solomon lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 10

Rehoboam's Reign of Foolishness

<sup>1</sup>Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>2</sup>When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about it (he was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>So they sent word and summoned him. When Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Your father made our yoke hard; but now, lighten the hard labor imposed by your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.”

<sup>5</sup>He said to them, “Return to me again in three days.” So the people departed.

<sup>6</sup>And then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

<sup>7</sup>They spoke to him, saying, “If you are kind to this people and please them and speak pleasant words to them, then they will be your servants always.”

<sup>8</sup>But he ignored the advice of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and served him.

<sup>9</sup>He said to them, “What advice do you give, so that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us’?”

<sup>10</sup>The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “This is what you should say to the people who spoke to you, saying: ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us!’ You should speak this way to them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!’

<sup>11</sup>Now then, my father loaded you with a heavy yoke; yet I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions!’ ”

<sup>12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.”

<sup>14</sup>He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.”

<sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people, because it was a turn of events from God so that the LORD might establish His word, which He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people replied to the king, saying, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Everyone to your tents, Israel! Now look after your own house, David!” So all Israel went away to their tents.

<sup>17</sup>But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

<sup>18</sup>Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the forced labor, and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11

Rehoboam Reigns over Judah and Builds Cities

<sup>1</sup>Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors, to fight against Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

<sup>2</sup>But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“Tell Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“This is what the LORD says: “You shall not go up nor fight against your relatives; return, every man, to his house, for this event is from Me.”’” So they listened to the words of the LORD and returned from going against Jeroboam.

<sup>10</sup>Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>11</sup>He also strengthened the fortresses and put officers in them and supplies of food, oil, and wine.

<sup>12</sup>He put shields and spears in every city and strengthened them greatly. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>13</sup>Moreover, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel also stood with him from all their districts.

Jeroboam Appoints False Priests

<sup>14</sup>For the Levites left their pasture lands and their property and went to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>He set up priests of his own for the high places, for the satyrs and the calves which he had made.

<sup>16</sup>Those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>17</sup>They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

Rehoboam's Family

<sup>18</sup>Then Rehoboam married Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse,

<sup>20</sup>After her he married Maacah the daughter of Absalom, and she bore to him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

<sup>21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines. For he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as head and leader among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.

<sup>23</sup>He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons through all the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities, and he gave them plenty of provisions. And he sought many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

Shishak of Egypt Invades Judah

<sup>1</sup>When the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the Law of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>And it came about in King Rehoboam's fifth year, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

<sup>3</sup>with 1,200 chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people who came with him from Egypt were innumerable: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.

<sup>4</sup>And he captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have abandoned Me, so I also have abandoned you to Shishak.' "

<sup>6</sup>So the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

<sup>7</sup>When the LORD saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves, so I will not destroy them; and I will grant them a little deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak.

<sup>8</sup>But they will become his slaves, so that they may learn the difference between My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

Plunder Impoverishes Judah

<sup>9</sup>So Shishak king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem, and he took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's palace. He took everything; he even took the gold shields which Solomon had made.

<sup>10</sup>Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and committed them to the care of the commanders of the guards who guarded the entrance of the king's house.

<sup>11</sup>As often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards came and carried them and then brought them back into the guards' room.

<sup>12</sup>And when he humbled himself, the anger of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and conditions were also good in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>So King Rehoboam became powerful in Jerusalem and reigned there. For Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

<sup>14</sup>But he did evil because he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Now the acts of Rehoboam, from the first to the last, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

<sup>16</sup>And Rehoboam lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of David; and his son Abijah became king in his place.

2 Cronicles 13

Abijah Succeeds Rehoboam

<sup>2</sup>He reigned in Jerusalem for three years; and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Civil War

<sup>4</sup>Then Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

<sup>5</sup>Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the rule over Israel forever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?

<sup>6</sup>Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master, <sup>7</sup>and worthless men gathered to him, wicked men, who proved too strong for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when he was young and timid and could not hold his own against them.

<sup>8</sup>"So now you intend to assert yourselves against the kingdom of the LORD through the sons of David, being a great multitude and having with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made for you as gods.

<sup>9</sup>Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of things that are not gods.

<sup>10</sup>But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned Him; and the sons of Aaron are ministering to the LORD as priests, and the Levites attend to their work.

<sup>11</sup>Every morning and evening they burn to the LORD burnt offerings and fragrant incense, and the showbread is set on the clean table, and the golden lampstand with its lamps is ready to light every evening; for we perform our duty to the LORD our God, but you have abandoned Him.

<sup>12</sup>Now behold, God is with us at our head, and His priests with the signal trumpets to sound the war cry against you. Sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.”

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam had set an ambush to come from behind, so that Israel was in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them.

<sup>14</sup>When Judah turned around, behold, they were attacked both from front and rear; so they cried out to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

<sup>15</sup>Then the men of Judah raised a war cry, and when the men of Judah raised the war cry, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

<sup>16</sup>When the sons of Israel fled from Judah, God handed them over to them.

<sup>17</sup>Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, so that five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell slain.

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Israel were subdued at that time, and the sons of Judah conquered because they trusted in the LORD, the God of their fathers.

<sup>19</sup>Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured from him several cities, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.

Death of Jeroboam

<sup>20</sup>Jeroboam did not again recover strength in the days of Abijah; and the LORD struck him and he died.

<sup>21</sup>But Abijah became powerful, and he took fourteen wives for himself, and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

<sup>22</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his words are written in the treatise of Iddo the prophet.

2 Chronicles 14

Asa Succeeds Abijah in Judah

<sup>3</sup>for he removed the foreign altars and high places, tore down the memorial stones, cut down the Asherim,

<sup>4</sup>and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers and to comply with the Law and the commandment.

<sup>5</sup>He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. And the kingdom was undisturbed under him.

<sup>6</sup>He built fortified cities in Judah, since the land was undisturbed, and there was no one at war with him during those years, because the LORD had given him rest.

<sup>7</sup>For he said to Judah, “Let’s build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

<sup>8</sup>Now Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah, carrying large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, carrying shields and wielding bows; all of them were valiant warriors.

<sup>9</sup>Now Zerah the Ethiopian went out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

<sup>10</sup>So Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up in battle formation in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup>Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, “LORD, there is no one besides You to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; help us, LORD our God, for we trust in You, and in Your name have come against this multitude. LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You.”

<sup>12</sup>So the LORD routed the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

<sup>13</sup>Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that they could not recover, for they were shattered before the LORD and before His army. And they carried away a very large amount of plunder.

<sup>14</sup>They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the dread of the LORD had fallen on them; and they pillaged all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

<sup>15</sup>They also fatally struck those who owned livestock, and they led away large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

Azariah the Prophet Warns Asa

<sup>1</sup>Now the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded,

<sup>2</sup>and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the LORD is with you when you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you abandon Him, He will abandon you.

<sup>3</sup>For many days Israel was without the true God and without a teaching priest and without the Law.

<sup>4</sup>But in their distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He let them find Him.

<sup>5</sup>In those times there was no peace for him who went out or him who came in, because many disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

<sup>6</sup>Nation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress.

<sup>7</sup>But you, be strong and do not lose courage, for there is a reward for your work.”

Asa's Reforms

<sup>8</sup>Now when Asa heard these words and the prophecy which Azariah the son of Oded the prophet spoke, he took courage and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and from the cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He then restored the altar of the LORD which was in front of the porch of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who resided with them, for many defected to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

<sup>10</sup>So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

<sup>11</sup>They sacrificed to the LORD on that day seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep from the spoils they had brought.

<sup>12</sup>They entered into the covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

<sup>13</sup>and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, they made an oath to the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting, trumpets, and with horns.

<sup>15</sup>All Judah rejoiced concerning the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought Him earnestly, and He let them find Him. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

<sup>16</sup>He also removed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from the position of queen mother, because she had made an abominable image as an Asherah, and Asa cut down her abominable image, crushed it, and burned it at the brook Kidron.

<sup>17</sup>But the high places were not removed from Israel; nevertheless Asa's heart was blameless all his days.

<sup>18</sup>He brought into the house of God the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver, gold, and utensils.

<sup>19</sup>And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16

Asa Wars against Baasha

<sup>1</sup>In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the king's house, and sent it to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

<sup>3</sup>"A treaty must be made between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

<sup>5</sup>When Baasha heard about it, he stopped fortifying Ramah and put an end to his work.

<sup>6</sup>Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with it he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

Asa Imprisons the Prophet

<sup>7</sup>At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the LORD your God, for that reason the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand.

<sup>8</sup>Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim an immense army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, He handed them over to you.

<sup>9</sup>For the eyes of the LORD roam throughout the earth, so that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will have wars.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him for this. And Asa mistreated some of the people at the same time.

<sup>11</sup>Now, the acts of Asa from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>12</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa became diseased in his feet. His disease was severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

<sup>13</sup>So Asa lay down with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign.

<sup>14</sup>They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and they laid him in the resting place which he had filled with spices of various kinds blended by the perfumers’ art; and they made a very great fire for him.

2 Chronicles 17

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa

<sup>1</sup>His son Jehoshaphat then became king in his place, and he proved himself strong over Israel.

<sup>2</sup>He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and placed garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured.

His Good Reign

<sup>3</sup>And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father David's earlier days and did not seek the Baals,

<sup>4</sup>but sought the God of his father, followed His commandments, and did not act as Israel did.

<sup>5</sup>So the LORD established the kingdom in his control, and all Judah gave tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.

<sup>6</sup>He took great pride in the ways of the LORD, and again removed the high places and the Asherim from Judah.

<sup>7</sup>Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

<sup>8</sup>and with them the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

<sup>9</sup>They taught in Judah, having the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; and they went throughout the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

<sup>10</sup>Now the dread of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands which were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks, 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

<sup>12</sup>So Jehoshaphat grew greater and greater, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

<sup>13</sup>He had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and warriors, valiant mighty men, in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>This was their muster according to their fathers' households: of Judah, commanders of thousands, Adnah was the commander, and with him three hundred thousand valiant warriors;

- <sup>15</sup>and next to him was Johanan the commander, and with him 280,000;
- <sup>16</sup>and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered for the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand valiant warriors;
- <sup>17</sup>and of Benjamin, Eliada, a valiant warrior, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield;
- <sup>18</sup>and next to him Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 equipped for war.
- <sup>19</sup>These are the ones who served the king, apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2 Chronicles 18

Jehoshaphat Allies with Ahab

- <sup>1</sup>Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor; and he allied himself by marriage to Ahab.
- <sup>2</sup>Some years later he went down to visit Ahab at Samaria, and Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him. And he incited him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.
- <sup>3</sup>Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth-gilead?" And he said to him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people, and we will be with you in the battle."
- <sup>4</sup>However, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please request the word of the LORD first."
- <sup>5</sup>So the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, "Should we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or should I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will hand it over to the king."
- <sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no longer a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of him?"
- <sup>7</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, for he never prophecies anything good regarding me, but always bad. He is Micaiah the son of Imlah.” But Jehoshaphat said, “May the king not say so.”

Ahab's False Prophets Assure Victory

<sup>8</sup>Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly.”

<sup>9</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, dressed in their robes, and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

<sup>10</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed!’ ”

<sup>11</sup>All the prophets were prophesying this as well, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and be successful, for the LORD will hand it over to the king.”

Micaiah Brings Word from God

<sup>12</sup>Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Behold, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them, and speak favorably.”

<sup>13</sup>But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, I will speak it.”

<sup>14</sup>When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, should we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or should I refrain?” He said, “Go up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you!”

<sup>15</sup>Then the king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>16</sup>So he said, “I saw all Israel Scattered on the mountains, Like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, ‘These people have no master. Each of them is to return to his house in peace.’ ”

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything good regarding me, but only bad?”

<sup>19</sup>And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one spirit said this, while another said that.

<sup>20</sup>Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’ And the LORD said to him, ‘How?’

<sup>21</sup>He said, ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ Then He said, ‘You shall entice him, and you will also prevail. Go out and do so.’

<sup>22</sup>Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours, for the LORD has declared disaster against you.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah approached and struck Micaiah on the cheek; and he said, “How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?”

<sup>24</sup>And Micaiah said, “Behold, you are going to see how on that day when you go from one inner room to another trying to hide yourself.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son;

<sup>26</sup>and say, ‘This is what the king says: “Put this man in prison, and feed him enough bread and water to survive until I return safely.” ’ ”

<sup>27</sup>But Micaiah said, “If you actually return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Listen, all you people!”

Ahab’s Defeat and Death

<sup>28</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

<sup>29</sup>And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

<sup>30</sup>Now the king of Aram had commanded the commanders of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with the small or great, but only with the king of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup>So when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “He is the king of Israel!” And they turned aside to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

<sup>32</sup>When the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34</sup>The battle raged on that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans until the evening; and at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19

Jehu Rebukes Jehoshaphat

<sup>2</sup>And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD, and by doing so bring wrath on yourself from the LORD?”

<sup>3</sup>But there is some good in you, for you have removed the Asheroth from the land and you have set your heart to seek God.”

<sup>4</sup>So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem and went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Reforms Instituted

<sup>5</sup>He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

<sup>6</sup>He said to the judges, “Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for mankind but for the LORD who is with you when you render judgment.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; be careful about what you do, for the LORD our God will have no part in injustice or partiality, or in the taking of a bribe.”

<sup>8</sup>In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat also appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the heads of the fathers’ households of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>Then he commanded them, saying, “This is what you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.

<sup>10</sup>Whenever any dispute comes to you from your countrymen who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them so that they will not be guilty before the LORD, and wrath will not come on you and your countrymen. This you shall do and you will not be guilty.

<sup>11</sup>Behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in every matter that pertains to the LORD, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all that pertains to the king. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Act resolutely, and may the LORD be with the upright.”

2 Chronicles 20

Judah Invaded

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about after this, that the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, together with some of the Meunites, came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat was afraid and turned his attention to seek the LORD; and he proclaimed a period of fasting throughout Judah.

<sup>4</sup>So Judah gathered together to seek help from the LORD; they even came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD.

Jehoshaphat's Prayer

<sup>5</sup>Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD in front of the new courtyard;

<sup>6</sup>and he said, “LORD, God of our fathers, are You not God in the heavens? And are You not ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand so that no one can stand against You.

<sup>7</sup>Did You not, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land from Your people Israel, and give it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham forever?

<sup>8</sup>They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying,

<sup>9</sup>‘If disaster comes upon us, the sword, or judgment, or plague, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for Your name is in this house), and cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear and save us.’

<sup>10</sup>Now behold, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whom You did not allow Israel to invade when they came out of the land of Egypt (for they turned aside from them and did not destroy them),

<sup>11</sup>see how they are rewarding us by coming to drive us out from Your possession which You have given us as an inheritance.

<sup>12</sup>Our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless before this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are on You.”

<sup>13</sup>All Judah was standing before the LORD, with their infants, their wives, and their children.

Jahaziel Answers the Prayer

<sup>14</sup>Then in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite of the sons of Asaph;

<sup>15</sup>and he said, “Listen, all you of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: This is what the LORD says to you: ‘Do not fear or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God’s.

<sup>16</sup>Tomorrow, go down against them. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel.

<sup>17</sup>You need not fight in this battle; take your position, stand and watch the salvation of the LORD in your behalf, Judah and Jerusalem.’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow, go out to face them, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>18</sup>Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>The Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and from the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

Enemies Destroy Themselves

<sup>20</sup>They rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Put your trust in the LORD your God and you will endure. Put your trust in His prophets, and succeed.”

<sup>21</sup>When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised Him in holy attire, as they went out before the army and said, “Give thanks to the LORD, for His faithfulness is everlasting.”

<sup>22</sup>When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were struck down.

<sup>23</sup>For the sons of Ammon and Moab rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, completely destroying them; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

<sup>24</sup>When Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they turned toward the multitude, and behold, they were corpses lying on the ground, and there was no survivor.

<sup>25</sup>When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoils, they found much among them, including goods, garments, and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry. And they were taking the spoils for three days because there was so much.

Triumphant Return to Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup>Then on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for they blessed the LORD there. Therefore they have named that place “The Valley of Beracah” until today.

<sup>27</sup>Every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had helped them to rejoice over their enemies.

<sup>28</sup>They came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>And the dread of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God gave him rest on all sides.

<sup>31</sup>Now Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>32</sup>He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not deviate from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>The high places, however, were not removed; the people had not yet directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

<sup>34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first to last, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

Alliance Displeases God

<sup>35</sup>After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. He acted wickedly in so doing.

<sup>36</sup>So he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

<sup>37</sup>Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." So the ships were wrecked and could not go to Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 21

Jehoram Succeeds Jehoshaphat in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then Jehoshaphat lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Jehoram became king in his place.

<sup>2</sup>He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold, and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

<sup>4</sup>Now when Jehoram had taken over the kingdom of his father and gathered courage, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and some of the leaders of Israel as well.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Yet the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant which He had made with David, and because He had promised to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

Revolt against Judah

<sup>8</sup>In his days Edom broke away from the rule of Judah, and appointed a king over themselves.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots with him. And he got up at night and struck and killed the Edomites who were surrounding him, and the commanders of the chariots.

<sup>10</sup>So Edom revolted against Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time against his rule because he had abandoned the LORD God of his fathers.

<sup>11</sup>Furthermore, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful, and led Judah astray.

<sup>12</sup>Then a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "This is what the LORD, the God of your father David says: 'Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat and the ways of Asa king of Judah,

<sup>13</sup>but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to be unfaithful as the house of Ahab was unfaithful, and you have also killed your brothers, your own family, who were better than you,

<sup>14</sup>behold, the LORD is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a great plague;

<sup>15</sup>and you will suffer severe sickness, a disease of your bowels, until your bowels come out because of the sickness, day by day.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>Then the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians;

<sup>18</sup>So after all this the LORD struck him in his intestines with an incurable sickness.

<sup>19</sup>Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels came out because of his sickness, and he died in great pain. And his people did not make a funeral fire for him like the fire for his fathers.

<sup>20</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years; and he departed with no one’s regret, and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22

Ahaziah Succeeds Jehoram in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

<sup>2</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

<sup>3</sup>He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor to act wickedly.

<sup>4</sup>So he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his own destruction.

Ahaziah Allies with Jehoram of Israel

<sup>5</sup>He also walked by their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. But the Arameans wounded Joram.

<sup>6</sup>So he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

<sup>7</sup>Now the destruction of Ahaziah was from God, in that he went to Joram. For when he arrived, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to eliminate the house of Ahab.

Jehu Murders Princes of Judah

<sup>8</sup>And it came about, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers attending to Ahaziah, and killed them.

<sup>9</sup>He also searched for Ahaziah, and they caught him while he was hiding in Samaria; they brought him to Jehu, put him to death, and buried him. For they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.

<sup>10</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and eliminated all the royal children of the house of Judah.

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshabeath the king's daughter took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she would not put him to death.

<sup>12</sup>He kept himself hidden with them in the house of God for six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

Jehoiada Sets Joash on the Throne of Judah

<sup>1</sup>Now in the seventh year, Jehoiada gathered his courage, and took captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, and they entered into a covenant with him.

<sup>2</sup>And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has spoken concerning the sons of David.

<sup>4</sup>This is the thing which you shall do: a third of you, of the priests and Levites who come in on the Sabbath, shall be gatekeepers,

<sup>5</sup>and a third shall be at the king's house, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courtyards of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>But no one is to enter the house of the LORD except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy. And all the people are to keep the command of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>The Levites will surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house is to be put to death. Therefore be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”

<sup>8</sup>The Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss any of the divisions.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and the shields and quivers which had been King David’s, which were in the house of God.

<sup>10</sup>He stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

<sup>11</sup>Then they brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, “Long live the king!”

Athaliah Murdered

<sup>12</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to the people.

<sup>13</sup>She looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters were beside the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets, the singers with their musical instruments leading the praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and said, “Conspiracy! Conspiracy!”

<sup>14</sup>And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army, and said to them, “Bring her out between the ranks, and whoever follows her is to be put to death with the sword.” For the priest said, “You shall not put her to death in the house of the LORD.”

<sup>15</sup>So they seized her, and when she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house, they put her to death there.

Reforms Carried Out

<sup>16</sup>Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they would be the LORD's people.

<sup>17</sup>And all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they broke in pieces his altars and his images, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

<sup>18</sup>Moreover, Jehoiada placed the offices of the house of the LORD under the authority of the Levitical priests, whom David had assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Law of Moses—with rejoicing and singing according to the order of David.

<sup>19</sup>He stationed the gatekeepers of the house of the LORD, so that no one would enter who was in any way unclean.

<sup>20</sup>He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went through the upper gate to the king's house. And they seated the king upon the royal throne.

<sup>21</sup>So all of the people of the land rejoiced and the city was at rest. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24

Young Joash Influenced by Jehoiada

<sup>1</sup>Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah from Beersheba.

<sup>3</sup>Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he fathered sons and daughters.

Faithless Priests

<sup>4</sup>Now it came about after this that Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>He gathered the priests and Levites and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God annually, and you shall do the work quickly.” But the Levites did not act quickly.

<sup>6</sup>So the king summoned Jehoiada, the chief priest, and said to him, “Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the contribution of Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the testimony?”

<sup>7</sup>For the sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken into the house of God, and even used the holy things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

Temple Repaired

<sup>8</sup>So the king commanded, and they made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>And they made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD the contribution commanded by Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup>All the officers and all the people rejoiced, and they brought in their contribution and dropped it into the chest until they had finished.

<sup>11</sup>It happened that whenever the chest was brought to the king’s officer by the Levites, and they saw that the money was substantial, the king’s scribe and the chief priest’s officer would come and empty the chest, and pick it up and return it to its place. They did this daily and collected a large amount of money.

<sup>12</sup>The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands, and they restored the house of God according to its specifications and strengthened it.

<sup>14</sup>When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and it was made into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and the burnt offerings, and pans and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually, all the days of Jehoiada.

<sup>15</sup>Now Jehoiada reached a good old age and he died; he was 130 years old at his death.

<sup>16</sup>And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he had done well in Israel and for God and His house.

<sup>17</sup>But after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them.

<sup>18</sup>And they abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols; so wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.

<sup>19</sup>Yet He sent prophets to them to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

Joash Murders Son of Jehoiada

<sup>20</sup>Then the Spirit of God covered Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the priest like clothing; and he stood above the people and said to them, “This is what God has said, ‘Why do you break the commandments of the LORD and do not prosper? Because you have abandoned the LORD, He has also abandoned you.’”

<sup>21</sup>So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the house of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Zechariah's father Jehoiada had shown him, but he murdered his son. And as Zechariah died he said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"

Aram Invades and Defeats Judah

<sup>23</sup>Now it happened at the turn of the year that the army of the Arameans came up against Joash; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, destroyed all the officials of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoils to the king of Damascus.

<sup>24</sup>Indeed, the army of the Arameans came with a small number of men; yet the LORD handed a very great army over to them, because Judah and Joash had abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash.

<sup>25</sup>When they left him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>26</sup>Now these are the men who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabite.

<sup>27</sup>As to his sons and the many pronouncements against him and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the treatise of the Book of the Kings. Then his son Amaziah became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 25

Amaziah Succeeds Joash in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Now it came about, as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, that he killed his servants who had killed his father the king.

<sup>4</sup>However, he did not put their children to death, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, which the LORD commanded, saying, “Fathers shall not be put to death for sons, nor sons be put to death for fathers; but each shall be put to death for his own sin.”

Amaziah Defeats Edomites

<sup>5</sup>Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah and appointed them according to their fathers’ households under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he took a census of those from twenty years old and upward and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war and handle spear and shield.

<sup>6</sup>He also hired a hundred thousand valiant warriors from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

<sup>7</sup>But a man of God came to him saying, “O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you, for the LORD is not with Israel nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

<sup>8</sup>But if you do go, do it, be strong for the battle; yet God will bring you down before the enemy, for God has the power to help and to bring down.”

<sup>9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, “But what are we to do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?” And the man of God answered, “The LORD has much more to give you than this.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah dismissed the troops which came to him from Ephraim, to go home; so their anger burned against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.

<sup>11</sup>Now Amaziah gathered his courage and led his people out, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck and killed ten thousand of the sons of Seir.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Judah also captured ten thousand alive and brought them to the top of the cliff, and threw them down from the top of the cliff so that they were all dashed to pieces.

<sup>13</sup>But the troops whom Amaziah sent back, those not going with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck and killed three thousand of them, and plundered a large amount of spoils.

Amaziah Rebuked for Idolatry

<sup>14</sup>Now after Amaziah came from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir and set them up as his gods. Then he bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

<sup>15</sup>So the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you sought the gods of the people who have not saved their own people from your hand?”

<sup>16</sup>As he was talking with him, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you to be a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that God has planned to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

Amaziah Defeated by Joash of Israel

<sup>17</sup>Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, “Come, let’s face each other.”

<sup>18</sup>But Joash the king of Israel sent a reply to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thorn bush that was in Lebanon sent word to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son in marriage.’ But a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush.

<sup>19</sup>You said, ‘Behold, you have defeated Edom.’ And your heart has lifted you up in boasting. Now stay home; why should you provoke trouble so that you, would fall, you and Judah with you?”

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, so that He might hand them over to Joash, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

<sup>21</sup>So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

<sup>22</sup>And Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled, every man to his tent.

<sup>23</sup>Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

<sup>24</sup>He took all the gold and silver and all the utensils which were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages too, and returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup>And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from the first to the last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

<sup>27</sup>From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent men after him to Lachish, and they killed him there.

<sup>28</sup>Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

2 Chronicles 26

Uzziah Succeeds Amaziah in Judah

<sup>3</sup>Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>5</sup>He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the vision of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him successful.

Uzziah Succeeds in War

<sup>6</sup>Now he went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup>God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

<sup>8</sup>The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah, and his fame extended to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

<sup>9</sup>Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress, and he fortified them.

<sup>10</sup>He also built towers in the wilderness and carved out many cisterns, for he had much livestock, both in the lowland and in the plain. He also had plowmen and vinedressers in the hill country and the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

<sup>12</sup>The total number of the heads of the households, of valiant warriors, was 2,600.

<sup>13</sup>Under their direction was an army of 307,500, who could wage war with great power, to help the king against the enemy.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, Uzziah prepared for all the army shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slingstones.

<sup>15</sup>In Jerusalem he made machines of war invented by skillful workmen to be on the towers and the corners, for the purpose of shooting arrows and great stones. So his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

Pride Is Uzziah's Undoing

<sup>16</sup>But when he became strong, his heart was so proud that he acted corruptly, and he was untrue to the LORD his God, for he entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

<sup>17</sup>Then Azariah the priest entered after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, valiant men.

<sup>18</sup>They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been untrue and will have no honor from the LORD God."

<sup>19</sup>But Uzziah, with a censer in his hand for burning incense, was enraged; and while he was enraged with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead in the presence of the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense.

<sup>20</sup>Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he was leprous on his forehead; and they quickly removed him from there, and he himself also hurried to get out because the LORD had stricken him.

<sup>21</sup>King Uzziah had leprosy to the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, afflicted as he was with leprosy, for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And his son Jotham was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

<sup>22</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, the first to the last, the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, has written.

<sup>23</sup>So Uzziah lay down with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the grave which belonged to the kings, for they said, “He had leprosy.” And his son Jotham became king in his place.

2 Cronicles 27

Jotham Succeeds Uzziah in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; however he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued acting corruptly.

<sup>3</sup>He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and he built the wall of Ophel extensively.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and he built fortresses and towers on the wooded hills.

<sup>5</sup>He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them so that during that year the Ammonites gave him a hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites also paid him this amount in the second year and in the third.

<sup>6</sup>So Jotham became powerful because he directed his ways before the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

<sup>8</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years.

<sup>9</sup>And Jotham lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and his son Ahaz became king in his place.

2 Cronicles 28

Ahaz Succeeds Jotham in Judah

<sup>2</sup>But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; he also made cast metal images for the Baals.

<sup>3</sup>Furthermore, he burned incense in the Valley of Ben-hinnom, and burned his sons in fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out from the sons of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Judah Is Invaded

<sup>5</sup>Therefore the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram; and they defeated him and carried from him a great number of captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also handed over to the king of Israel, who struck him with heavy casualties.

<sup>6</sup>For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had abandoned the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>7</sup>And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah the second to the king.

<sup>8</sup>The sons of Israel led away captive two hundred thousand of their relatives, women, sons, and daughters; and they also took a great deal of spoils from them, and brought the spoils to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army which came to Samaria and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has handed them over to you, and you have killed them in a rage which has even reached heaven.

<sup>10</sup>Now you are proposing to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves for yourselves. Are you not, however guilty yourselves of offenses against the LORD your God?

<sup>11</sup>Now then, listen to me and return the captives whom you captured from your brothers, for the burning anger of the LORD is against you.”

<sup>12</sup>Then some of the leading men of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—rose up against those who were coming from the battle,

<sup>13</sup>and said to them, “You must not bring the captives in here, for you are proposing to bring guilt upon us before the LORD, adding to our sins and our guilt; for our guilt is great, and His burning anger is against Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>So the armed men left the captives and the spoils before the officers and all the assembly.

<sup>15</sup>Then the men who were designated by name got up, took the captives, and they clothed all their naked people from the spoils; they gave them clothes and sandals, fed them and gave them drink, anointed them with oil, led all their feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers; then they returned to Samaria.

Compromise with Assyria

<sup>17</sup>For the Edomites had come again and attacked Judah, and led away captives.

<sup>18</sup>The Philistines had also invaded the cities of the lowland and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederath, and Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they had settled there.

<sup>19</sup>For the LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had brought about a lack of restraint in Judah and was very unfaithful to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>So Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him.

<sup>21</sup>Although Ahaz took a portion out of the house of the LORD and out of the palace of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

<sup>22</sup>Now during the time of his distress, this same King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him, and said, “Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me.” But they became the downfall of him and all Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Moreover, when Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God, he cut the utensils of the house of God in pieces; and he closed the doors of the house of the LORD, and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup>In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup>So Ahaz lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Israel; and his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

2 Chronicles 29

Hezekiah Succeeds Ahaz in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup>In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

<sup>4</sup>He brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them into the public square on the east.

Reforms Begun

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites. Consecrate yourselves now, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry the uncleanness out of the holy place.

<sup>6</sup>For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and they have abandoned Him and turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have turned their backs.

<sup>7</sup>They have also shut the doors of the porch and extinguished the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the wrath of the LORD was against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

<sup>9</sup>For behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity because of this.

<sup>10</sup>Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, so that His burning anger may turn away from us.

<sup>11</sup>My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and burn incense.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

<sup>13</sup>and from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

<sup>14</sup>and from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup>They assembled their brothers, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the LORD, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>So the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and they brought every unclean thing which they found in the temple of the LORD out to the courtyard of the house of the LORD. Then the Levites received it to carry out to the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup>Now they began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the porch of the LORD. Then they consecrated the house of the LORD in eight days, and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

<sup>18</sup>Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed the whole house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table of the showbread with all of its utensils.

<sup>19</sup>Moreover, all the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness, we have prepared and consecrated; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.”

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

<sup>20</sup>Then King Hezekiah got up early and assembled the princes of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. And he ordered the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; they slaughtered the lambs as well, and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

<sup>23</sup>Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

<sup>24</sup>The priests slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood to atone for all Israel, because the king ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

<sup>25</sup>He then stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the command of David and of Gad, the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets.

<sup>26</sup>The Levites stood with the musical instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

<sup>27</sup>Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD also began with the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel.

<sup>28</sup>While the whole assembly worshiped, the singers also sang and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

<sup>29</sup>Now at the completion of the burnt offerings, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>30</sup>Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup>Then Hezekiah said, “Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come forward and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the house of the LORD.” So the assembly brought sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and everyone who was willing brought burnt offerings.

<sup>32</sup>The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all of these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>The consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

<sup>34</sup>But the priests were too few, so that they were unable to skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was finished and the other priests had consecrated themselves. For the Levites were more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests.

<sup>35</sup>There were also many burnt offerings with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. So the service of the house of the LORD was established again.

<sup>36</sup>Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, because the thing came about suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30

All Israel Invited to the Passover

<sup>1</sup>Now Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>For the king and his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month, <sup>3</sup>since they could not celebrate it at that time, because the priests had not consecrated themselves in sufficient numbers, nor had the people been gathered to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>So they established a decree to circulate a proclamation throughout Israel from Beersheba to Dan, that they are to come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel in Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as was written.

<sup>6</sup>The couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, even according to the command of the king, saying, “Sons of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that He may return to those of you who escaped and are left from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were untrue to the LORD God of their fathers, so that He made them an object of horror, just as you see.

<sup>8</sup>Now do not stiffen your neck like your fathers, but yield to the LORD and enter His sanctuary which He has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, that His burning anger may turn away from you.

<sup>9</sup>For if you return to the LORD, your brothers and your sons will find compassion in the presence of those who led them captive, and will return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.”

<sup>10</sup>So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed at them with scorn and mocked them.

<sup>12</sup>The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

Passover Reinstituted

<sup>13</sup>Now many people were gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very large assembly.

<sup>14</sup>They got up and removed the altars which were in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and threw them into the brook Kidron.

<sup>15</sup>Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and Levites were ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>They stood at their stations following their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites.

<sup>17</sup>For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves; therefore, the Levites were in charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was unclean, in order to consecrate them to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, and Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon

<sup>19</sup>everyone who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary."

<sup>20</sup>So the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Israel present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests were praising the LORD day after day with loud instruments to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good insight in the things of the LORD. So they ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers.

<sup>23</sup>Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate the feast another seven days, so they celebrated the seven days with joy.

<sup>24</sup>For Hezekiah king of Judah had contributed to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the princes had contributed to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a large number of priests consecrated themselves.

<sup>25</sup>All the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites and all the assembly that came from Israel, both the strangers who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah.

<sup>26</sup>So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because there was nothing like this in Jerusalem since the days of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>Then the Levitical priests stood and blessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer came to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

2 Chronicles 31

Idols Are Destroyed

<sup>1</sup>Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, broke the memorial stones in pieces, cut down the Asherim and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his possession.

<sup>2</sup>And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to serve and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

Reforms Continued

<sup>3</sup> He also appointed the king's portion of his property for the burnt offerings, namely, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and for the new moons and for the appointed festivals, as it is written in the Law of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Also he told the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> As soon as the order spread, the sons of Israel abundantly provided the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of sacred gifts which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed them in heaps.

<sup>7</sup> In the third month they began to make the heaps, and they finished them by the seventh month.

<sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

<sup>11</sup> Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

<sup>12</sup> They faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the consecrated things; and Conaniah the Levite was the officer in charge of them, and his brother Shimei was second.

<sup>13</sup>Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the authority of Conaniah and his brother Shimei by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah was the chief officer of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the eastern gate, was in charge of the voluntary offerings for God, to distribute the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

<sup>15</sup>Under his authority were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, to distribute their portions faithfully to their brothers by divisions, whether great or small,

<sup>16</sup>without regard to their genealogical enrollment, to the males from thirty years old and upward—everyone who entered the house of the LORD for his daily obligations—for their work in their duties according to their divisions;

<sup>17</sup>as well as the priests who were enrolled genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, by their duties and their divisions.

<sup>18</sup>The genealogical enrollment included all their little children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, for the whole assembly, for they consecrated themselves faithfully in holiness.

<sup>19</sup>Also for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the pasture lands of their cities, or in each and every city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically enrolled among the Levites.

<sup>20</sup>Hezekiah did this throughout Judah; and he did what was good, right, and true before the LORD his God.

<sup>21</sup>Every work which he began in the service of the house of God in the Law and in the commandment, seeking his God, he did with all his heart and prospered.

2 Cronicles 32

Sennacherib Invades Judah

<sup>1</sup>After these acts of faithfulness Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and besieged the fortified cities, and intended to break into them for himself.

<sup>2</sup>Now when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to wage war against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup>he decided with his officers and his warriors to cut off the supply of water from the springs which were outside the city, and they helped him.

<sup>4</sup>So many people assembled and stopped up all the springs and the stream which flowed through the region, saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find abundant water?”

<sup>5</sup>And he resolutely set to work and rebuilt all of the wall that had been broken down and erected towers on it, and built another outside wall and strengthened the Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in great numbers.

<sup>6</sup>He appointed military officers over the people and gathered them to him in the public square at the city gate, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

<sup>7</sup>“Be strong and courageous, do not fear or be dismayed because of the king of Assyria nor because of all the horde that is with him; for the One with us is greater than the one with him.

<sup>8</sup>With him is only an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Sennacherib Undermines Hezekiah

<sup>9</sup>After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem while he was besieging Lachish with all his forces with him, against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all of Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: ‘On what are you trusting that you are staying in Jerusalem under siege?

<sup>11</sup>Is Hezekiah not misleading you to give yourselves over to die by hunger and by thirst, saying, “The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria”?

<sup>12</sup>Is it not the same Hezekiah who removed His high places and His altars, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, “You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense”?

<sup>13</sup>Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to save their land from my hand?

<sup>14</sup>Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed who could save his people from my hand, that your God would be able to save you from my hand?

<sup>15</sup>Now then, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to save his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God save you from my hand?”

<sup>17</sup>He also wrote letters to insult the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the lands have not saved their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not save His people from my hand.”

<sup>18</sup>They called this out with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city.

<sup>19</sup>They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as they did against the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of human hands.

Hezekiah's Prayer Is Answered

<sup>20</sup>But King Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and called out to heaven for help.

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every warrior, commander, and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in shame to his own land. And when he had entered the temple of his god, some of his own sons killed him there with the sword.

<sup>22</sup>So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

<sup>23</sup>And many were bringing gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and valuable presents to Hezekiah king of Judah; so thereafter he rose in the sight of all nations.

<sup>24</sup>In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and the LORD spoke to him and gave him a sign.

<sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah did nothing in return for the benefit he received, because his heart was proud; therefore wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup>However, Hezekiah humbled the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

<sup>27</sup>Now Hezekiah had immense riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of valuable articles, <sup>28</sup>also storehouses for the produce of grain, wine, and oil; stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks.

<sup>29</sup>He made cities for himself and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, because God had given him very great wealth.

<sup>30</sup>It was Hezekiah who stopped the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah was successful in everything that he did.

<sup>31</sup>Even in the matter of the messengers of the rulers of Babylon, who were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land; God left him alone only to test him, so that He might know everything that was in his heart.

<sup>32</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of devotion, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>33</sup>So Hezekiah lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

2 Chronicles 33

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>For he rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had torn down; he also set up altars for the Baals and made Asherim, and he worshiped all the heavenly lights and served them.

<sup>4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD of which the LORD had said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever."

<sup>5</sup>He built altars for all the heavenly lights in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>He also made his sons pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, practiced sorcery, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

<sup>7</sup>Then he put the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and his son Solomon, “In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

<sup>8</sup>and I will not remove the foot of Israel again from the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will take care to do everything that I have commanded them according to all the Law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses.”

<sup>9</sup>So Manasseh encouraged Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

Manasseh's Idolatry Rebuked

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze chains, and led him to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup>When he was in distress, he appeased the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

<sup>13</sup>When he prayed to Him, He was moved by him and heard his pleading, and brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD alone is God.

<sup>14</sup>Now after this he built the outer wall of the city of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, up to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel with it and made it very high. Then he put army commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

<sup>15</sup>He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city.

<sup>16</sup>He set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thanksgiving offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>However, the people still sacrificed on the high places, although only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>His prayer also and how God was moved by him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of Hozai.

<sup>20</sup>So Manasseh lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And his son Amon became king in his place.

Amon Becomes King in Judah

<sup>21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Manasseh had done, and Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

<sup>23</sup>Furthermore, he did not humble himself before the LORD as his father Manasseh had done, but Amon multiplied his guilt.

<sup>24</sup>Finally, his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house.

<sup>25</sup>But the people of the land killed all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34

Josiah Succeeds Amon in Judah

<sup>1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>For in the eighth year of his reign while he was still a youth, he began to seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, the carved images, and the cast metal images.

<sup>4</sup>They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and he chopped down the incense altars that were high above them; also he broke in pieces the Asherim, the carved images, and the cast metal images, and ground them to powder, and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

<sup>5</sup>Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding spaces, <sup>7</sup>he also tore down the altars and crushed the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah Repairs the Temple

<sup>8</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah an official of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the secretary, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

<sup>9</sup>They came to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the doorkeepers, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Then they handed it over to the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD used it to restore and repair the house.

<sup>11</sup>They in turn gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

<sup>12</sup>The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and the Levites, all who were skillful with musical instruments.

<sup>13</sup>They were also in charge of the burden bearers, and supervised all the workmen from job to job; and some of the Levites were scribes, and officials, and gatekeepers.

Hilkiah Discovers the Lost Book of the Law

<sup>14</sup>When they were bringing out the money which had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses.

<sup>15</sup>Hilkiah responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup>Then Shaphan brought the book to the king and reported further word to the king, saying, “Everything that was entrusted to your servants, they are doing.

<sup>17</sup>They have also emptied out the money which was found in the house of the LORD, and have handed it over to the supervisors and the workmen.”

<sup>19</sup>When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.

<sup>20</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant, saying,

<sup>21</sup>“Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book which has been found; for the wrath of the LORD which has poured out on us is great, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to act in accordance with everything that is written in this book.”

Huldah, the Prophetess, Speaks

<sup>22</sup>So Hilkiah and those whom the king had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her regarding this.

<sup>23</sup>Then she said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Tell the man who sent you to Me, <sup>24</sup>this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

<sup>25</sup>Since they have abandoned Me and have burned incense to other gods, so that they may provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands, My wrath will be poured out on this place and it will not be quenched.”’

<sup>26</sup>But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, this is what you shall say to him: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: In regard to the words which you have heard,

<sup>27</sup>“Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I have indeed heard you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>28</sup>“Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, so your eyes will not see all the evil which I am bringing on this place and its inhabitants.”’” And they brought back word to the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king sent word and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read in their presence all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

Josiah's Good Reign

<sup>31</sup>Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that are written in this book.

<sup>32</sup>Furthermore, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand with him. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

<sup>33</sup>Josiah removed all the abominations from all the lands belonging to the sons of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers.

2 Cronicles 35

The Passover Held Again

<sup>1</sup>Then Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover animals on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>2</sup>He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>He also said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, “Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; it will not be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Prepare yourselves by your fathers’ households in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and according to the writing of his son Solomon.

<sup>5</sup>Furthermore, stand in the holy place according to the sections of the fathers’ households of your countrymen, the lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of a father’s household.

<sup>6</sup>Now slaughter the Passover animals, keep one another consecrated, and prepare for your countrymen to act in accordance with the word of the LORD by Moses.”

<sup>7</sup>Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who were present, flocks of lambs and young goats, all for the Passover offerings, numbering thirty thousand, plus three thousand bulls; these were from the king’s property.

<sup>8</sup>His officers also contributed a voluntary offering to the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials of the house of God, gave the priests 2,600 from the flocks and three hundred bulls, for the Passover offerings.

<sup>9</sup>Conaniah also, and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the officers of the Levites, contributed five thousand from the flocks and five hundred bulls to the Levites for the Passover offerings.

<sup>10</sup>So the service was prepared, and the priests stood at their positions and the Levites by their divisions according to the king’s command.

<sup>12</sup>Then they removed the burnt offerings so that they might give them to the sections of the fathers' households of the lay people to present to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did this with the bulls as well.

<sup>13</sup>So they roasted the Passover animals on the fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy things in pots, in kettles, and in pans and carried them quickly to all the lay people.

<sup>14</sup>Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

<sup>15</sup>The singers, the sons of Asaph, were also at their positions according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their service, because their kinsmen the Levites prepared for them.

<sup>16</sup>So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD according to the command of King Josiah.

<sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

<sup>18</sup>There had not been a Passover celebrated like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign this Passover was celebrated.

Josiah Dies in Battle

<sup>20</sup>After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt came up to wage war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to engage him.

<sup>21</sup>But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, “What business do you have with me, King of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am at war, and God has told me to hurry. For your own sake, stop interfering with God who is with me, so that He does not destroy you.”

<sup>22</sup>However, Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight against him; nor did he listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but he came to wage war on the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>23</sup>The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am badly wounded.”

<sup>24</sup>So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him on the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jeremiah chanted a song of mourning for Josiah. And all the male and female singers speak about Josiah in their songs of mourning to this day. And they made them an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are also written in the Lamentations.

<sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the Law of the LORD,

<sup>27</sup>and his acts, the first to the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

Joahaz, Jehoiakim, Then Jehoiachin Rule

<sup>1</sup>Then the people of the land took Joahaz the son of Josiah and made him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem, and imposed a fine on the land of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

<sup>4</sup>The king of Egypt made Joahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took his brother Joahaz and brought him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

<sup>6</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

<sup>7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and he put them in his temple in Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the abominations which he committed, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

<sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of the LORD.

Captivity in Babylon Begun

<sup>10</sup>At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent men and had him brought to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD; and he made his relative Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Rules in Judah

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke for the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear allegiance by God. But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Furthermore, all the officials of the priests and the people were very unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>Yet the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place;

<sup>16</sup>but they continually mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD rose against His people, until there was no remedy.

<sup>17</sup>So He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or frail; He handed them all over to him.

<sup>18</sup>He brought all the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and his officers, to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>Then they burned the house of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its fortified buildings with fire and destroyed all its valuable articles.

<sup>20</sup>He took into exile those who had escaped from the sword to Babylon; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia,

<sup>21</sup>to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. All the days of its desolation it kept the Sabbath until seventy years were complete.

Cyrus Permits Return

<sup>22</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia—in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah—the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

<sup>23</sup>“This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him; go up then!’ ”

Ezra

Ezra 1

Cyrus' Proclamation

<sup>1</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying:

<sup>2</sup>“This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to rebuild for Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

<sup>3</sup>Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; He is the God who is in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>And every survivor, at whatever place he may live, the people of that place are to support him with silver and gold, with equipment and cattle, together with a voluntary offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.’ ”

Holy Vessels Restored

<sup>5</sup>Then the heads of fathers' households of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, everyone whose spirit God had stirred to go up to rebuild the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>And all of those around them encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with equipment, cattle, and with valuables, aside from everything that was given as a voluntary offering.

<sup>7</sup>Also King Cyrus brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and put in the house of his gods;

<sup>8</sup>and Cyrus, king of Persia, had them brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the leader of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>Now this was their number: thirty gold dishes, a thousand silver dishes, twenty nine duplicates;

<sup>10</sup>thirty gold bowls, 410 silver bowls of a second kind, and a thousand other articles.

<sup>11</sup>All the articles of gold and silver totaled 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought them all up with the exiles who went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2

Number of Those Returning

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken into exile to Babylon, and they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city.

<sup>3</sup>the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

<sup>4</sup>the sons of Shephatiah, 372;

<sup>5</sup>the sons of Arah, 775;

<sup>6</sup>the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,812;

<sup>7</sup>the sons of Elam, 1,254;

<sup>9</sup>the sons of Zaccai, 760;

<sup>10</sup>the sons of Bani, 642;

<sup>14</sup>the sons of Bigvai, 2,056;

- <sup>15</sup>the sons of Adin, 454;
- <sup>16</sup>the sons of Ater, of Hezekiah, 98;
- <sup>17</sup>the sons of Bezai, 323;
- <sup>18</sup>the sons of Jorah, 112;
- <sup>19</sup>the sons of Hashum, 223;
- <sup>20</sup>the sons of Gibbar, 95;
- <sup>21</sup>the men of Bethlehem, 123;
- <sup>22</sup>the men of Netophah, 56;
- <sup>23</sup>the men of Anathoth, 128;
- <sup>24</sup>the sons of Azmaveth, 42;
- <sup>25</sup>the sons of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743;
- <sup>26</sup>the sons of Ramah and Geba, 621;
- <sup>27</sup>the men of Michmas, 122;
- <sup>28</sup>the men of Bethel and Ai, 223;
- <sup>29</sup>the sons of Nebo, 52;
- <sup>30</sup>the sons of Magbish, 156;
- <sup>31</sup>the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;
- <sup>32</sup>the sons of Harim, 320;
- <sup>33</sup>the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 725;
- <sup>34</sup>the men of Jericho, 345;
- <sup>35</sup>the sons of Senaah, 3,630.

Priests Returning

- <sup>36</sup>The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;
- <sup>37</sup>the sons of Immer, 1,052;
- <sup>38</sup>the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;

<sup>39</sup>the sons of Harim, 1,017.

Levites Returning

<sup>40</sup>The Levites: the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah, 74.

<sup>42</sup>The sons of the gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, 139 in all.

<sup>43</sup>The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

<sup>44</sup>the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon,

<sup>53</sup>the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,

<sup>55</sup>The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda,

<sup>57</sup>the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.

<sup>58</sup>All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants totaled 392.

<sup>59</sup>Now these were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to provide evidence of their fathers' households and their descendants, whether they were of Israel:

<sup>60</sup>the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, 652.

Priests Removed

<sup>61</sup>Of the sons of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was called by their name.

<sup>62</sup>These searched among their genealogical registration but they could not be located; so they were considered defiled and excluded from the priesthood.

<sup>63</sup>The governor said to them that they were not to eat from the most holy things until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim.

<sup>65</sup>besides their male and female slaves who totaled 7,337; and they had two hundred singing men and women.

<sup>69</sup>According to their ability they gave to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand silver minas, and a hundred priestly garments.

<sup>70</sup>Now the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezra 3

Altar and Sacrifices Restored

<sup>1</sup>Now when the seventh month came, and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one person to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, rose up and built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses, the man of God.

<sup>3</sup>So they set up the altar on its foundation, because they were terrified of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening.

<sup>4</sup>They also celebrated the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and offered the prescribed number of burnt offerings daily, according to the ordinance, as each day required;

<sup>5</sup>and afterward there was a continual burnt offering, also for the new moons and for all the appointed festivals of the LORD that were consecrated, and from everyone who offered a voluntary offering to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

<sup>7</sup>Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and the Tyrians to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the permission they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

Temple Restoration Begun

<sup>8</sup>Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all who came from the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and appointed the Levites who were twenty years old and upward to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers stood united with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah and the sons of Henadad with their sons and brothers the Levites, to oversee the workmen in the temple of God.

<sup>10</sup>Now when the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD according to the directions of King David of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And they sang, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying, “For He is good, for His favor is upon Israel forever.” And all the people shouted with a great shout of joy when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

<sup>12</sup>Yet many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers’ households, the old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy, <sup>13</sup>so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, because the people were shouting with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4

Enemies Hinder the Work

<sup>1</sup>Now when the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people of the exile were building a temple to the LORD God of Israel,

<sup>2</sup>they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers’ households, and said to them, “Let us build with you, for like you, we seek your God; and we have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here.”

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers’ households of Israel said to them, “You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build for the LORD God of Israel, just as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them from building,

<sup>5</sup>and bribed advisers against them to frustrate their advice all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

<sup>6</sup>Now in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the text of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated from Aramaic.

The Letter to King Artaxerxes

<sup>8</sup>Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, as follows—

<sup>9</sup>Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites,

<sup>10</sup>and the rest of the nations which the great and honorable Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region beyond the Euphrates River. And now

<sup>11</sup>this is a copy of the letter which they sent to him: “To King Artaxerxes: Your servants, the men of the region beyond the Euphrates River; and now

<sup>12</sup>let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are rebuilding the rebellious and evil city and are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

<sup>13</sup>Now let it be known to the king, that if that city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, custom tax, or toll, and it will be detrimental to the revenue of the kings.

<sup>14</sup>Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not fitting for us to see the king's shame, for this reason we have sent word and informed the king,

<sup>15</sup>so that a search may be conducted in the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books and learn that that city is a rebellious city and detrimental to kings and provinces, and that they have revolted within it in past days; for this reason that city was laid waste.

<sup>16</sup>We are informing the king that if that city is rebuilt and the walls finished, then as a result of this you will have no possession in the province beyond the Euphrates River.”

The King Replies and Work Stops

<sup>17</sup> Then the king sent a response to Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of the provinces beyond the Euphrates River: “Peace. And now, <sup>18</sup>the document which you sent to us has been translated and read before me.

<sup>19</sup>And a decree has been issued by me, and a search has been conducted and it has been discovered that that city has risen up against the kings in past days, and that rebellion and revolt have been perpetrated in it,

<sup>20</sup>that mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem, governing all the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and that tribute, custom tax, and toll were paid to them.

<sup>21</sup>Now issue a decree to make those men stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until a decree is issued by me.

<sup>22</sup>And beware of being negligent in carrying out this matter; why should there be great damage, to the detriment of the kings?”

<sup>23</sup>Then as soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes' decree was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their colleagues, they went in a hurry to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by military force.

<sup>24</sup>Then work on the house of God in Jerusalem was discontinued, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 5

Temple Work Resumed

<sup>1</sup>When the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them,

<sup>2</sup>then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

<sup>3</sup>At that time Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and spoke to them as follows: “Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?”

<sup>4</sup>Then we told them accordingly what the names of the men were who were reconstructing this building.

<sup>5</sup>But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report could reach Darius, and then the decree concerning it could be sent back.

Enemies Write to Darius

<sup>6</sup>This is the copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River, and Shethar-bozenai and his colleagues the officials, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

<sup>7</sup>They sent the report to him in which it was written as follows: “To Darius the king, all peace.

<sup>8</sup>May it be known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God which is being built with large stones, and beams are being laid in the walls; and this work is being performed with great care and is succeeding in their hands.

<sup>9</sup>Then we asked those elders and said to them as follows: ‘Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?’

<sup>10</sup>We also asked them their names so as to inform you, in order that we might write down the names of the men who were in charge.

<sup>11</sup>So they answered us as follows, saying, ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

<sup>12</sup>But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Also the gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought them to the temple of Babylon, King Cyrus took them from the temple of Babylon and they were given to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

<sup>15</sup>And he said to him, “Take these utensils, go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and have the house of God rebuilt in its place.”

<sup>16</sup>Then that Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been under construction and it is not yet completed.’

<sup>17</sup>And now, if it pleases the king, let a search be conducted in the king’s treasure house, which is there in Babylon, as to whether a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem; and let the king send to us his decision concerning this matter.”

Ezra 6

Darius Finds Cyrus' Decree

<sup>2</sup>And in Ecbatana, in the fortress which is in the province of Media, a scroll was found; and the following was written in it: “Memorandum—

<sup>3</sup>In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: ‘Concerning the house of God in Jerusalem, let the temple, the place where sacrifices are offered, be rebuilt, and let its foundations be repaired, its height being sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,

<sup>4</sup>with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. And the cost is to be paid from the royal treasury.

<sup>5</sup>Also the gold and silver utensils of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned and brought to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put them in the house of God.’

<sup>6</sup>“Now as for you, Tattenai, governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and your colleagues, the officials of the provinces beyond the River, stay away from there.

<sup>7</sup>Leave that work on the house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild that house of God on its site.

<sup>8</sup>Furthermore, I issue a decree concerning what you are to do for these elders of Judah in the rebuilding of that house of God: the full cost is to be paid to those people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and that without interruption.

<sup>9</sup>And whatever is needed, bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine, and anointing oil, as the priests in Jerusalem order, it is to be given to them daily without fail,

<sup>10</sup>so that they may offer acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the lives of the king and his sons.

<sup>11</sup>And I issued a decree that any person who violates this decree, a timber shall be pulled out of his house and he shall be impaled on it; and his house shall be turned into a refuse heap on account of this.

<sup>12</sup>May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who attempts to change it, so as to destroy that house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued this decree; it is to be carried out with all diligence!”

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

<sup>13</sup>Then Tattenai, the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues carried out the decree with all diligence, just as King Darius had ordered.

<sup>14</sup>And the elders of the Jews were successful in building through the prophecy of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they finished building following the command of the God of Israel and the decree of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

<sup>15</sup>Now this temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar; it was the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

<sup>17</sup>They offered for the dedication of this temple of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Then they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Levites in their sections for the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Held

<sup>19</sup>The exiles held the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month.

<sup>20</sup>For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure. Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the exiles, both for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

<sup>21</sup>And the sons of Israel who returned from exile and all those who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to join them, to seek the LORD God of Israel, ate the Passover.

<sup>22</sup>And they held the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, because the LORD had made them happy, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them to encourage them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7

Ezra Journeys from Babylon to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra went up to Jerusalem; Ezra was the son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

<sup>2</sup>son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

<sup>5</sup>son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest.

<sup>6</sup>So this Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a scribe skilled in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all he requested because the hand of the LORD his God was upon him.

<sup>7</sup>Some of the sons of Israel and some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

<sup>8</sup>And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

<sup>9</sup>For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, because the good hand of his God was upon him.

<sup>10</sup>For Ezra had firmly resolved to study the Law of the LORD and to practice it, and to teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

King's Decree on Behalf of Ezra

<sup>11</sup>Now this is the copy of the letter which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:

<sup>12</sup>“Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, perfect peace. And now

<sup>13</sup>I have issued a decree that any of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

<sup>14</sup>Since you are sent on the part of the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem according to the Law of your God which is in your hand,

<sup>15</sup>and to bring the silver and gold, which the king and his advisers have voluntarily given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

<sup>16</sup>with all the silver and gold which you find in the entire province of Babylon, along with the voluntary offering of the people and of the priests, who offered willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem;

<sup>17</sup>with this money, therefore, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>And whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do according to the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup>Also the utensils which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>And the rest of the needs of the house of your God, for which it may be incumbent upon you to provide, provide for them from the royal treasury.

<sup>21</sup>“I myself, King Artaxerxes, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, it shall be done diligently, <sup>22</sup>up to a hundred talents of silver, a hundred kors of wheat, a hundred baths of wine, a hundred baths of anointing oil, and salt as needed.

<sup>23</sup>Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, it shall be done with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, so that there will not be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons.

<sup>24</sup>We also inform you that it is not allowed to impose tax, tribute, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges so that they may judge all the people who are in the province beyond the Euphrates River, that is, all those who know the laws of your God; and you may teach anyone who is ignorant of them.

<sup>26</sup>And whoever does not comply with the Law of your God and the law of the king, judgment is to be executed upon him strictly, whether for death or for banishment, or for confiscation of property or for imprisonment.”

The King's Kindness

<sup>27</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to glorify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,

<sup>28</sup>and has extended favor to me before the king and his counselors and before all the king's mighty officials. So I was strengthened according to the hand of the LORD my God that was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8

People Who Went with Ezra

<sup>3</sup>of the sons of Shecaniah who was of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him 150 males who were in the genealogical list;

<sup>4</sup>of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah and two hundred males with him;

<sup>5</sup>of the sons of Zattu, Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel and three hundred males with him;

<sup>6</sup>and of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan and fifty males with him;

<sup>7</sup>and of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah and seventy males with him;

<sup>8</sup>and of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael and eighty males with him;

<sup>9</sup>of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 218 males with him;

<sup>10</sup>and of the sons of Bani, Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

<sup>11</sup>and of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai and twenty-eight males with him;

<sup>12</sup>and of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;

<sup>13</sup>and of the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, these being their names: Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and sixty males with them;

<sup>14</sup>and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and seventy males with them.

Ezra Sends for Levites

<sup>15</sup>Now I assembled them at the river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days; and when I paid close attention to the people and the priests, I did not find any Levites there.

<sup>16</sup>So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, teachers.

<sup>17</sup>And I sent them to Iddo the leading man at the place called Casiphia; and I told them what to say to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants at the place Casiphia, that is, to bring ministers to us for the house of our God.

<sup>18</sup>And as the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us a man of insight from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, and his sons and brothers, eighteen men;

<sup>19</sup>and Hashabiah and Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, twenty men;

<sup>20</sup>and 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the officials had provided for the service of the Levites, all of them designated by name.

Protection of God Invoked

<sup>21</sup>Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him a safe journey for us, our little ones, and all our possessions.

<sup>22</sup>For I was ashamed to request from the king troops and horsemen to protect us from the enemy on the way, because we had said to the king, "The hand of our God is favorably disposed to all who seek Him, but His power and His anger are against all those who abandon Him."

<sup>23</sup>So we fasted and sought our God concerning this matter, and He listened to our pleading.

<sup>24</sup>Then I selected twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers;

<sup>25</sup>and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king, his counselors, his officials, and all Israel who were present there had contributed.

<sup>26</sup>So I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils worth a hundred talents, and a hundred gold talents, <sup>27</sup>and twenty gold bowls worth a thousand darics, and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

<sup>28</sup>Then I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the utensils are holy; and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

<sup>29</sup>Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leading priests, the Levites, and the leaders of the fathers' households of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."

<sup>30</sup>So the priests and the Levites accepted the weight of silver and gold and the utensils, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

<sup>31</sup>Then we journeyed from the river Ahava on the twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and He rescued us from the hand of the enemy and the ambushes by the road.

<sup>32</sup>So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days.

Treasure Placed in the Temple

<sup>33</sup>And on the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the utensils were weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

<sup>34</sup>A notation was made for everything by number and weight, and all the weight was recorded at that time.

<sup>35</sup>The exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve male goats for a sin offering, all as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Then they delivered the king's edicts to the king's satraps and the governors in the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and they supported the people and the house of God.

Ezra 9

Mixed Marriages

<sup>1</sup>Now when these things had been completed, the officials approached me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, as to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

<sup>2</sup>For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy line has intermingled with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hands of the officials and the leaders have taken the lead in this unfaithfulness."

<sup>3</sup>When I heard about this matter, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled out some of the hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled.

<sup>4</sup>Then everyone who was frightened by the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me, and I sat appalled until the evening offering.

Prayer of Confession

<sup>5</sup>But at the evening offering I stood up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn, and I bowed down on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God;

<sup>6</sup>and I said, “My God, I am ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God, for our wrongful deeds have risen above our heads, and our guilt has grown even to the heavens.

<sup>7</sup>Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt, and because of our wrongful deeds we, our kings, and our priests have been handed over to the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to open shame, as it is this day.

<sup>8</sup>But now for a brief moment grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us an escaped remnant and to give us a peg in His holy place, so that our God may enlighten our eyes and grant us a little reviving in our bondage.

<sup>9</sup>For we are slaves; yet in our bondage our God has not abandoned us, but has extended favor to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us reviving to erect the house of our God, to restore its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“And now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have abandoned Your commandments,

<sup>11</sup>which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from end to end, and with their impurity.

<sup>12</sup>So now do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons, and never seek their peace or their prosperity, so that you may be strong and may eat the good things of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your sons forever.’

<sup>13</sup>And after everything that has come upon us for our evil deeds and our great guilt, since You our God have spared us by inflicting less than our wrongdoing deserves, and have given us such an escaped remnant as this,

<sup>14</sup>shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who commit these abominations? Would You not be angry with us to the point of destruction, until there would be no remnant nor any who would escape?

<sup>15</sup>LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we have been left an escaped remnant, as it is this day; behold, we are before You in our guilt, for no one can stand before You because of this.”

Ezra 10

Reconciliation with God

<sup>1</sup>Now while Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and prostrating himself before the house of God, a very large assembly, men, women, and children, gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept greatly.

<sup>2</sup>Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

<sup>3</sup>So now let’s make a covenant with our God to send away all the wives and their children, following the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Law.

<sup>4</sup>Arise! For this matter is your responsibility, but we will be with you; be courageous and act.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Ezra stood and made the leading priests, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath that they would do according to this proposal; so they took the oath.

<sup>6</sup>Then Ezra rose from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. Although he went there, he did not eat bread nor drink water, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

<sup>7</sup>So they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the exiles, that they were to assemble at Jerusalem,

<sup>8</sup>and that whoever did not come within three days, in accordance with the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his property would be forfeited, and he himself would be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup>So all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month on the twentieth of the month, and all the people sat in the public square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and the heavy rain.

<sup>10</sup>Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful and have married foreign wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Now therefore, make confession to the LORD God of your fathers and do His will; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.”

<sup>12</sup>Then all the assembly replied with a loud voice, “It is our duty to do exactly as you have said!

<sup>13</sup>However, there are many people, it is the rainy season, and we are not able to stand in the open. Nor can the task be done in one or two days, because we have done a great wrong in this matter.

<sup>14</sup>Please let our leaders represent all the assembly and have all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the fierce anger of our God on account of this matter is turned away from us.”

<sup>15</sup>Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

<sup>16</sup>But the exiles did so. And Ezra the priest selected men who were the heads of fathers' households for each of their father's households, all of them by name. So they convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

<sup>17</sup>And they finished investigating all the men who had married foreign wives by the first day of the first month.

List of Offenders

<sup>18</sup>Now among the sons of the priests who had married foreign wives were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

<sup>19</sup>They pledged to send away their wives, and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

<sup>25</sup>Of Israel, of the sons of Parosh there were Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah;

<sup>30</sup>and of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh;

<sup>36</sup>Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

<sup>37</sup>Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu,

<sup>38</sup>Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

<sup>39</sup>Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

<sup>43</sup>Of the sons of Nebo there were Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

<sup>44</sup>All of these men had married foreign wives, and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah 1

Nehemiah's Grief for the Exiles

<sup>1</sup>The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in Susa the capitol, <sup>2</sup>that Hanani, one of my brothers, and some men from Judah came; and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped and had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And they said to me, "The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity are in great distress and disgrace, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates have been burned with fire."

<sup>4</sup>Now when I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup>I said, "Please, LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps the covenant and faithfulness for those who love Him and keep His commandments:

<sup>6</sup>let Your ear now be attentive and Your eyes open, to hear the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You now, day and night, on behalf of the sons of Israel Your servants, confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have committed against You; I and my father's house have sinned.

<sup>7</sup>We have acted very corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup>Remember, please, the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;

<sup>9</sup>but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered were in the most remote part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place where I have chosen to have My name dwell.’

<sup>10</sup>They are Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand.

<sup>11</sup>Please, Lord, may Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight to revere Your name, and please make Your servant successful today and grant him mercy before this man.” Now I was the cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah’s Prayer Answered

<sup>1</sup>And it came about in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, that wine was before him, and I picked up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence.

<sup>2</sup>So the king said to me, “Why is your face sad, though you are not ill? This is nothing but sadness of heart.” Then I was very much afraid.

<sup>3</sup>And I said to the king, “May the king live forever. Why should my face not be sad when the city, the site of my fathers’ tombs, is desolate and its gates have been consumed by fire?”

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to me, “What would you request?” So I prayed to the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor before you, I request that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the king said to me, with the queen sitting beside him, “How long will your journey be, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time.

<sup>7</sup>And I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given me for the governors of the provinces beyond the River, so that they will allow me to pass through until I come to Judah, <sup>8</sup>and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which is by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house to which I will go.” And the king granted them to me because the good hand of my God was on me.

<sup>9</sup>Then I came to the governors of the provinces beyond the Euphrates River and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

<sup>10</sup>And when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about it, it was very displeasing to them that someone had come to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem’s Walls

<sup>11</sup>So I came to Jerusalem and was there for three days.

<sup>12</sup>And I got up in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God was putting into my mind to do for Jerusalem, and there was no animal with me except the animal on which I was riding.

<sup>13</sup>So I went out at night by the Valley Gate in the direction of the Dragon’s Spring and on to the Dung Gate, and I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which had been consumed by fire.

<sup>14</sup>Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was no place for my mount to pass.

<sup>15</sup>So I was going up at night by the ravine and inspecting the wall. Then I entered the Valley Gate again and returned.

<sup>16</sup>However, the officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing; nor had I as yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the rest who were doing the work.

<sup>17</sup>Then I said to them, “You see the bad situation we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burned by fire. Come, let’s rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a disgrace.”

<sup>18</sup>And I told them how the hand of my God had been favorable to me and also about the king’s words which he had spoken to me. Then they said, “Let’s arise and build.” So they put their hands to the good work.

<sup>19</sup>But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked us and despised us, and said, “What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

<sup>20</sup>So I answered them and said to them, “The God of heaven will make us successful; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no part, right, or memorial in Jerusalem.”

Nehemiah 3

Builders of the Walls

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and installed its doors. They consecrated the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

<sup>2</sup>And next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

<sup>3</sup>Now the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and installed its doors with its bolts and bars.

<sup>4</sup>Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

<sup>5</sup>Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.

<sup>6</sup>Now Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Ancient Gate; they laid its beams and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars.

<sup>7</sup>Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates River.

<sup>8</sup>Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

<sup>9</sup>And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

<sup>10</sup>Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

<sup>11</sup>Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of Furnaces.

<sup>12</sup>Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

<sup>13</sup>Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Dung Gate.

<sup>14</sup>And Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars.

<sup>15</sup>Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the official of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, made a roof for it, and installed its doors with its bolts and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah at the king's garden as far as the steps that descend from the city of David.

<sup>16</sup>After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as a point opposite the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the house of the mighty men.

<sup>17</sup>After him the Levites carried out repairs under Rehum the son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, the official of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

<sup>18</sup>After him their brothers carried out repairs under Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of the other half of the district of Keilah.

<sup>19</sup>And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the official of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the ascent of the armory at the Angle.

<sup>20</sup>After him Baruch the son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the Angle to the doorway of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

<sup>21</sup>After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the doorway of Eliashib's house even as far as the end of his house.

<sup>24</sup>After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah as far as the Angle and as far as the corner.

<sup>25</sup>Palal the son of Uzai made repairs in front of the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king, which is by the courtyard of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

<sup>30</sup>After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah carried out repairs in front of his own quarters.

<sup>31</sup>After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, carried out repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room of the corner.

<sup>32</sup>And between the upper room of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants carried out repairs.

Nehemiah 4

Work Is Ridiculed

<sup>1</sup> Now it came about that when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and very angry, and he mocked the Jews.

<sup>2</sup> And he spoke in the presence of his brothers and the wealthy people of Samaria and said, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Are they going to restore the temple for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish it in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of rubble, even the burned ones?”

<sup>3</sup> Now Tobiah the Ammonite was near him, and he said, “Even what they are building—if a fox were to jump on it, it would break their stone wall down!”

<sup>4</sup> Hear, O our God, how we are an object of contempt! Return their taunting on their own heads, and turn them into plunder in a land of captivity.

<sup>5</sup> Do not forgive their guilt and do not let their sin be wiped out before You, for they have demoralized the builders.

<sup>6</sup>So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

<sup>7</sup>Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that the breaches began to be closed, they were very angry.

<sup>8</sup>So all of them conspired together to come to fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.

Discouragement Overcome

<sup>9</sup>But we prayed to our God, and because of them we set up a guard against them day and night.

<sup>10</sup>And so in Judah it was said: “The strength of the burden bearers is failing, Yet there is much rubble; And we ourselves are unable To rebuild the wall.”

<sup>11</sup>And our enemies said, “They will not know or see until we come among them, kill them, and put a stop to the work.”

<sup>12</sup>When the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times, “They will come up against us from every place where you may turn,”

<sup>13</sup>then I stationed men in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, the exposed places, and I stationed the people in families with their swords, spears, and bows.

<sup>14</sup>When I saw their fear, I stood and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid of them; remember the Lord who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

<sup>15</sup>Now when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had frustrated their plan, then all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work.

<sup>16</sup>And from that day on, half of my servants carried on the work while half of them kept hold of the spears, the shields, the bows, and the coats of mail; and the captains were behind all the house of Judah.

<sup>17</sup>Those who were rebuilding the wall and those who carried burdens carried with one hand doing the work, and the other keeping hold of a weapon.

<sup>18</sup>As for the builders, each wore his sword strapped to his waist as he built, while the trumpeter stood near me.

<sup>19</sup>And I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall far from one another.

<sup>20</sup>At whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, assemble to us there. Our God will fight for us.”

<sup>21</sup>So we carried on the work with half of them holding spears from dawn until the stars appeared.

<sup>22</sup>At that time I also said to the people, “Each man with his servant shall spend the night within Jerusalem, so that they may be a guard for us by night and a laborer by day.”

<sup>23</sup>So neither I, my brothers, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me—none of us removed our clothes; each took his weapon even to the water.

Nehemiah 5

Charging Interest Abolished

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish brothers.

<sup>2</sup>For there were those who said, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let’s get grain so that we may eat and live.”

<sup>3</sup>And there were others who said, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses so that we might get grain because of the famine.”

<sup>4</sup>There also were those who said, “We have borrowed money for the king’s tax on our fields and our vineyards.

<sup>5</sup>And now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. Yet behold, we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are forced into bondage already, and we are helpless because our fields and vineyards belong to others.”

<sup>6</sup>Then I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

<sup>7</sup>So I thought it over and contended with the nobles and the leading people, and said to them, “You are lending at interest, each to his brother!” Therefore, I held a great assembly against them.

<sup>8</sup>And I said to them, “We, according to our ability, have redeemed our Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations; now would you even sell your brothers that they may be sold to us?” Then they were silent and could not find a word to say.

<sup>9</sup>So I said, “The thing which you are doing is not good; should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the taunting of the nations, our enemies?

<sup>10</sup>And likewise I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Please, let’s do without this interest.

<sup>11</sup>Please, give back to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, as well as the hundredth part of the money and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are charging as interest from them.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they said, “We will give it back and will require nothing from them; we will do exactly as you say.” So I called the priests and made them take an oath to act in accordance with this promise.

<sup>13</sup>I also shook out the front of my garment and said, “So may God shake out every person from his house and from his possessions who does not keep this promise; just so may he be shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amen!” And they praised the LORD. Then the people acted in accordance with this promise.

Nehemiah’s Example

<sup>14</sup>Furthermore, since the day that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King

Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my kinsmen have eaten the governor's food allowance.

<sup>15</sup>But the previous governors who were before me laid burdens on the people and took from them bread and wine besides forty shekels of silver; even their servants domineered the people. But I did not do so because of my fear of God.

<sup>16</sup>I also applied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

<sup>17</sup>Moreover, there were at my table 150 Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that were around us.

<sup>18</sup>Now that which was prepared for each day was one ox and six choice sheep; also birds were prepared for me, and every ten days all sorts of wine were provided in abundance. Yet for all this I did not request the governor's food allowance, because the forced labor was heavy on this people.

<sup>19</sup>Remember me, my God, for good, in return for all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah 6

The Enemy's Plot

<sup>1</sup>Now when it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall, and that no breach was left in it, although at that time I had not installed the doors in the gates,

<sup>2</sup>Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, saying, "Come, let's meet together at Chephirim in the plain of Ono." But they were plotting to harm me.

<sup>3</sup>So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work and am unable to come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

<sup>4</sup>Then they sent messages to me four times worded in this way, and I answered them with the same wording.

<sup>5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way a fifth time with an open letter in his hand.

<sup>6</sup>In it was written: "It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says, that you and the Jews intend to rebel; for that reason you are rebuilding the wall. And you are to be their king, according to these reports.

<sup>7</sup>You have also appointed prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning you, 'A king is in Judah!' And now it will be reported to the king according to these reports. So come now, let's consult together."

<sup>8</sup>Then I sent a message to him saying, "Nothing like these things that you are saying has been done, but you are inventing them in your own mind."

<sup>9</sup>For all of them were trying to frighten us, thinking, "They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done." But now, God, strengthen my hands.

<sup>10</sup>When I entered the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home, he said, "Let's meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let's close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you, and they are coming to kill you at night."

<sup>11</sup>But I said, "Should a man like me flee? And who is there like me who would go into the temple to save his own life? I will not go in."

<sup>12</sup>Then I realized that God certainly had not sent him, but he uttered his prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

<sup>13</sup>He was hired for this reason, that I would become frightened and act accordingly and sin, so that they might have an evil report in order that they could taunt me.

<sup>14</sup>Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat in accordance with these works of theirs, and also Noadiah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets, who were trying to frighten me.

The Wall Is Finished

<sup>15</sup>So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

<sup>16</sup>When all our enemies heard about it, and all the nations surrounding us saw it, they lost their confidence; for they realized that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

<sup>17</sup>Also in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.

<sup>18</sup>For many in Judah were bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

<sup>19</sup>Moreover, they were speaking about his good deeds in my presence, and were reporting my words to him. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Nehemiah 7

Census of First Returned Exiles

<sup>1</sup>Now when the wall was rebuilt and I had installed the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites were appointed,

<sup>2</sup>then I put Hanani my brother, and Hananiah the commander of the citadel, in charge of Jerusalem, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many.

<sup>3</sup>Then I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot, and while they are standing guard, the gatekeepers are to keep the doors shut and bolted. Also appoint guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each at his post, and each in front of his own house."

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses were not built.

<sup>5</sup>Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the other people to be enrolled by genealogies. Then I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up first, in which I found the following record:

<sup>6</sup>These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken into exile, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city,

<sup>7</sup>who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The number of men of the people of Israel:

<sup>22</sup>the sons of Hashum, 328;

- <sup>23</sup>the sons of Bezai, 324;
- <sup>24</sup>the sons of Hariph, 112;
- <sup>25</sup>the sons of Gibeon, 95;
- <sup>26</sup>the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188;
- <sup>27</sup>the men of Anathoth, 128;
- <sup>28</sup>the men of Beth-azmaveth, 42;
- <sup>29</sup>the men of Kiriath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743;
- <sup>30</sup>the men of Ramah and Geba, 621;
- <sup>31</sup>the men of Michmas, 122;
- <sup>32</sup>the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;
- <sup>33</sup>the men of the other Nebo, 52;
- <sup>34</sup>the sons of the other Elam, 1,254;
- <sup>35</sup>the sons of Harim, 320;
- <sup>36</sup>the men of Jericho, 345;
- <sup>37</sup>the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 721;
- <sup>38</sup>the sons of Senaah, 3,930.
- <sup>39</sup>The priests: the sons of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua, 973;
- <sup>40</sup>the sons of Immer, 1,052;
- <sup>41</sup>the sons of Pashhur, 1,247;
- <sup>42</sup>the sons of Harim, 1,017.
- <sup>43</sup>The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodevah, 74.
- <sup>44</sup>The singers: the sons of Asaph, 148.
- <sup>45</sup>The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, 138.

<sup>46</sup>The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

<sup>47</sup>the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,

<sup>48</sup>the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmal,

<sup>49</sup>the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,

<sup>52</sup>the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephushesim,

<sup>54</sup>the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,

<sup>55</sup>the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah,

<sup>57</sup>The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida,

<sup>59</sup>the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Amon.

<sup>60</sup>All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants totaled 392.

<sup>61</sup>These were the ones who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not provide evidence for their fathers' households or their descendants, whether they were of Israel:

<sup>63</sup>And of the priests: the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai, the Gileadite, and was named after them.
