<sup>64</sup>These searched among their ancestral registration, but it could not be located; therefore they were considered unclean and disqualified from the priesthood.

<sup>65</sup>And the governor said to them that they were not to eat from the most holy things until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim.

Total of People and Gifts

<sup>67</sup>besides their male slaves and their female slaves, of whom there were 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.

<sup>73</sup>Now the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel were in their cities.

Nehemiah 8

Ezra Reads the Law

<sup>1</sup>And all the people gathered as one person at the public square which was in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Then Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.

<sup>3</sup>And he read from it before the public square which was in front of the Water Gate, from early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

<sup>5</sup>Then Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

<sup>6</sup>Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, “Amen, Amen!” with the raising of their hands; then they kneeled down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites explained the Law to the people while the people remained in their place.

<sup>8</sup>They read from the book, from the Law of God, translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

This Day Is Holy

<sup>9</sup>Then Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the Law.

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “Go, eat the festival foods, drink the sweet drinks, and send portions to him who has nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your refuge.”

<sup>12</sup>Then all the people went away to eat, drink, to send portions, and to celebrate a great feast, because they understood the words which had been made known to them.

Feast of Booths Restored

<sup>13</sup>Then on the second day the heads of fathers’ households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe so that they might gain insight into the words of the Law.

<sup>14</sup>And they found written in the Law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the sons of Israel were to live in booths during the feast of the seventh month.

<sup>15</sup>And that they were to proclaim and circulate a proclamation in all their cities and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the hills, and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of other trees with thick branches, to make booths, as it is written.”

<sup>16</sup>So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courtyards and in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the public square at the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

<sup>17</sup>The entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in the booths. Indeed, the sons of Israel had not done so since the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day. And there was very great rejoicing.

<sup>18</sup>He read from the Book of the Law of God daily, from the first day to the last day. And they celebrated the feast seven days, and on the eighth day there was a festive assembly in accordance with the ordinance.

Nehemiah 9

The People Confess Their Sin

<sup>4</sup>Now on the Levites' platform stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and they cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah said, "Arise, bless the LORD your God forever and ever! May Your glorious name be blessed And exalted above all blessing and praise!

<sup>6</sup>"You alone are the LORD. You have made the heavens, The heaven of heavens with all their lights, The earth and everything that is on it, The seas and everything that is in them. You give life to all of them, And the heavenly lights bow down before You.

<sup>7</sup>"You are the LORD God, Who chose Abram And brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees, And gave him the name Abraham.

<sup>8</sup>"You found his heart faithful before You, And made a covenant with him To give him the land of the Canaanite, Of the Hittite and the Amorite, Of the Perizzite, the Jebusite, and the Gishgashite— To give it to his descendants.

And You have fulfilled Your promise, Because You are righteous.

<sup>10</sup>“Then You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, Against all his servants and all the people of his land; For You knew that they acted arrogantly toward them, And You made a name for Yourself as it is this day.

<sup>11</sup>“You divided the sea before them, So they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground; And You hurled their pursuers into the depths, Like a stone into raging waters.

<sup>12</sup>“And with a pillar of cloud You led them by day, And with a pillar of fire by night To light for them the way In which they were to go.

<sup>13</sup>“Then You came down on Mount Sinai, And spoke with them from heaven; You gave them just ordinances and true laws, Good statutes and commandments.

<sup>14</sup>“So You made known to them Your holy Sabbath, And gave them commandments, statutes, and law, Through Your servant Moses.

<sup>15</sup>“You provided bread from heaven for them for their hunger, You brought out water from a rock for them for their thirst, And You told them to enter in order to take possession of The land which You swore to give them.

<sup>17</sup>“They refused to listen, And did not remember Your wondrous deeds which You performed among them; So they became stubborn and appointed a leader to return to their slavery in Egypt. But You are a God of forgiveness, Gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger and abounding in mercy; And You did not abandon them.

<sup>18</sup>“Even when they made for themselves A calf of cast metal And said, ‘This is your god Who brought you up from Egypt,’ And committed great blasphemies, <sup>19</sup>You, in Your great compassion, Did not abandon them in the wilderness; The pillar of cloud did not leave them by day, To guide them on their way, Nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way in which they were to go.

<sup>20</sup>“Instead, You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them, You did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, And You gave them water for their thirst.

<sup>21</sup>“Indeed, for forty years You provided for them in the wilderness and they were not lacking; Their clothes did not wear out, nor did their feet swell up.

<sup>22</sup>“You also gave them kingdoms and peoples, And allotted them to them as a boundary. They took possession of the land of Sihon the king of Heshbon And the land of Og the king of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup>“You made their sons as numerous as the stars of heaven, And You brought them into the land Which You had told their fathers to enter and possess.

<sup>24</sup>“So their sons entered and took possession of the land. And You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, And You handed them over to them, with their kings and the peoples of the land, To do with them as they desired.

<sup>25</sup>“They captured fortified cities and a fertile land. They took possession of houses full of every good thing, Carved out cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, Fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled and put on fat, And lived luxuriously in Your great goodness.

<sup>26</sup>“But they became rebellious and revolted against You, And threw Your Law behind their backs And killed Your prophets who had admonished them In order to bring them back to You, And they committed great blasphemies.

<sup>27</sup>“Therefore You handed them over to their enemies who oppressed them, But when they cried out to You in the time of their distress, You heard from heaven, and according to Your great compassion You gave them people who saved them from the hand of their enemies.

<sup>28</sup>“But as soon as they had rest, they did evil again before You; Therefore You abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them. When they cried out again to You, You heard from heaven, And many times You rescued them according to Your compassion,

<sup>29</sup>And admonished them in order to turn them back to Your Law. Yet they acted arrogantly and did not listen to Your commandments but sinned against Your ordinances, Which, if a person follows them, then he will live by them. And they turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen.

<sup>30</sup>“However, You remained patient with them for many years, And admonished them by Your Spirit through Your prophets, Yet they would not listen. Therefore You handed them over to the peoples of the lands.

<sup>31</sup>“Nevertheless, in Your great compassion You did not make an end of them or abandon them, For You are a gracious and compassionate God.

<sup>32</sup>“Now then, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps His covenant and faithfulness, Do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before You, Which has happened to us, our kings, our leaders, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and to all Your people, From the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.

<sup>33</sup>“However, You are righteous in everything that has happened to us; For You have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.

<sup>34</sup>“For our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our fathers have not kept Your Law Or paid attention to Your commandments and Your admonitions with which You have admonished them.

<sup>35</sup>“But they, in their own kingdom, With Your great goodness which You gave them, With the broad and rich land which You placed before them, Did not serve You or turn from their evil deeds.

<sup>36</sup>“Behold, we are slaves today, And as for the land which You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its bounty, Behold, we are slaves on it.

<sup>37</sup>“And its abundant produce is for the kings Whom You have set over us because of our sins; They also rule over our bodies And over our cattle as they please, So we are in great distress.

A Covenant Results

<sup>38</sup>“Now because of all this We are making an agreement in writing; And on the sealed document are the names of our leaders, our Levites, and our priests.”

Nehemiah 10

Signers of the Document

- <sup>14</sup>The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

Obligations of the Document

- <sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all those who had knowledge and understanding,
<sup>29</sup>are joining with their kinsmen, their nobles, and are taking on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given through Moses, God's servant, and to keep and to comply with all the commandments of GOD our Lord, and His ordinances and statutes;
<sup>30</sup>and that we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.

<sup>31</sup>As for the peoples of the land who bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day; and we will forgo the crops of the seventh year and every debt.

<sup>32</sup>We also imposed on ourselves the obligation to contribute yearly a third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

<sup>33</sup>for the showbread, for the continual grain offering, for the continual burnt offering, the Sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

<sup>34</sup>Likewise we cast lots for the supply of wood among the priests, the Levites, and the people so that they could bring it to the house of our God, according to our fathers' households, at set times annually, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law;

<sup>35</sup>and so that they could bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all the fruit of every tree to the house of the LORD annually,

<sup>36</sup>and bring to the house of our God the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks as it is written in the Law, for the priests who are ministering in the house of our God.

<sup>37</sup>We will also bring the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine, and the oil to the priests at the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites are they who receive the tithes in all the rural towns.

<sup>38</sup>And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse.

<sup>39</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the chambers; the utensils of the sanctuary, the priests who are ministering, the gatekeepers, and the singers are there. So we will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah 11

Time Passes; Heads of Provinces

<sup>1</sup>Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine-tenths remained in the other cities.

<sup>3</sup>Now these are the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah each lived on his own property in their cities—the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon’s servants.

<sup>4</sup>Some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

<sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

<sup>7</sup>Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah;

<sup>11</sup>Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the overseer of the house of God,

<sup>12</sup>and their kinsmen who did the work of the temple, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

<sup>16</sup>and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God;

<sup>17</sup>and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader in beginning the thanksgiving at prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his kinsmen; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Outside Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>But the temple servants were living in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants.

<sup>22</sup>Now the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph, who were the singers for the service of the house of God.

<sup>23</sup>For there was a commandment from the king concerning them and a royal command for the singers day by day.

<sup>24</sup>And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's representative for every matter concerning the people.

<sup>25</sup>Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived in Kiriath-arba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,

<sup>28</sup>and in Ziklag, in Meconah and in its towns,

<sup>30</sup>Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they camped from Beersheba as far as the Valley of Hinnom.

Nehemiah 12

Priests and Levites Who Returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel

The Chief Levites

<sup>24</sup>And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers opposite them, to praise and give thanks, as prescribed by David the man of God, division corresponding to division.

<sup>26</sup>These men served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and scribe.

Dedication of the Wall

<sup>27</sup>Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem so that they could celebrate the dedication with joy, with songs of thanksgiving and with songs to the accompaniment of cymbals, harps, and lyres.

<sup>29</sup>from Beth-gilgal and from their fields in Geba and Azmaveth, because the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>The priests and the Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Procedures for the Temple

<sup>35</sup>and some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; and Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

<sup>40</sup>Then the two choirs took their positions in the house of God. So did I and half of the officials with me;

<sup>43</sup>and on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great joy, and the women and children rejoiced as well, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

<sup>44</sup>On that day men were also appointed over the chambers for the supplies, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who served.

<sup>45</sup>For they performed the worship of their God and the service of purification, together with the singers and the gatekeepers in accordance with the command of David and of his son Solomon.

<sup>46</sup>For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, there were leaders of the singers, songs of praise and songs of thanksgiving to God.

<sup>47</sup>So all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the portions due the singers and the gatekeepers as each day required, and they set apart the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13

Foreigners Excluded

<sup>1</sup>On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud as the people listened; and there was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite was ever to enter the assembly of God,

<sup>2</sup>because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.

<sup>3</sup>So when they heard the Law, they excluded all foreigners from Israel.

Tobiah Expelled and the Temple Cleansed

<sup>4</sup>Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being related to Tobiah,

<sup>5</sup>had prepared a large room for him, where previously they used to put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils and the tithes of grain, wine, and oil prescribed for the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

<sup>6</sup>But during all this time I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had come to the king. After some time, however, I requested a leave of absence from the king, <sup>7</sup>and I came to Jerusalem and learned about the evil that Eliashib had committed for Tobiah, by preparing a room for him in the courtyards of the house of God.

<sup>8</sup>It was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household articles out of the room.

<sup>9</sup>Then I gave an order, and they cleansed the rooms; and I returned the utensils of the house of God there with the grain offering and the frankincense.

Tithes Restored

<sup>10</sup>I also discovered that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them, so the Levites and the singers who performed the service had gone away, each to his own field.

<sup>11</sup>So I reprimanded the officials and said, "Why has the house of God been neglected?" Then I gathered them together and stationed them at their posts.

<sup>13</sup>To be in charge of the storehouses, I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites, and in addition to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered reliable, and it was their task to distribute to their kinsmen.

<sup>14</sup>Remember me for this, my God, and do not wipe out my loyal deeds which I have performed for the house of my God and its services.

Sabbath Restored

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw in Judah people who were treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sacks of grain and loading them on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs, and every kind of load, and they were bringing them into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I admonished them on the day they sold food.

<sup>16</sup>Also people of Tyre were living there who imported fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold them to the sons of Judah on the Sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup>Then I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing, by profaning the Sabbath day?

<sup>18</sup>Did your fathers not do the same, so that our God brought on us and on this city all this trouble? Yet you are adding to the wrath against Israel by profaning the Sabbath.”

<sup>19</sup>And it came about that just as it became dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered that the doors be shut, and that they were not to open them until after the Sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates so that no load would enter on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup>Once or twice the traders and merchants of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>Then I warned them and said to them, “Why do you spend the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will use force against you.” From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.

<sup>22</sup>And I ordered the Levites that they were to purify themselves and come as gatekeepers to sanctify the Sabbath day. For this also remember me, my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Your mercy.

Mixed Marriages Forbidden

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also saw that the Jews had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

<sup>24</sup>As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them knew how to speak the language of Judah, but only the language of his own people.

<sup>25</sup>So I quarreled with them and cursed them, and struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, “You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take any of their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

<sup>26</sup>Did Solomon the king of Israel not sin regarding these things? Yet among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; yet the foreign women caused even him to sin.

<sup>27</sup>Has it not then been reported about you that you have committed all this great evil by acting unfaithfully against our God, by marrying foreign women?”

<sup>28</sup>Even one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, became a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, so I chased him away from me.

Esther 1

The Banquets of the King

<sup>7</sup>Drinks were served in golden vessels of various kinds, and the royal wine was plentiful in proportion to the king's bounty.

<sup>8</sup>But the drinking was done according to the royal law; there was no compulsion, for so the king had given orders to each official of his household, that he was to do as each person pleased.

Queen Vashti's Refusal

<sup>10</sup>On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was cheerful with wine, he ordered Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus,

<sup>12</sup>But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's order delivered by the eunuchs. So the king became very angry, and his wrath burned within him.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times—for it was the custom of the king to speak this way before all who knew Persian law and justice

<sup>14</sup>and were close to him, namely, Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and sat in the first place in the kingdom—

<sup>15</sup>“According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, since she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the eunuchs?”

<sup>16</sup>And in the presence of the king and the other officials, Memucan said, “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the officials and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

<sup>17</sup>For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women so as to make their own husbands despicable in their sight, when they say, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded that Queen Vashti be brought in to his presence, but she did not come.’

<sup>18</sup>And this day the wives of the officials of Persia and Media who have heard about the queen's conduct will talk about it to all the king's officials, and there will be plenty of contempt and anger.

<sup>19</sup>If it pleases the king, let a royal edict be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed, that Vashti may not come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to another who is more worthy than she.

<sup>20</sup>When the king's edict which he will make is heard throughout his kingdom, great as it is, then all women will give honor to their husbands, great and small."

<sup>22</sup>So he sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province according to its script and to every people according to their language, that every man was to be the ruler in his own house and the one who speaks in the language of his own people.

Esther 2

Vashti's Successor Sought

<sup>2</sup>Then the king's attendants, who served him, said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

<sup>3</sup>And may the king appoint overseers in all the provinces of his kingdom, and have them bring every beautiful young virgin to the citadel of Susa, to the harem, into the custody of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let their cosmetics be given to them.

<sup>4</sup>Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen in place of Vashti." And the suggestion pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

<sup>5</sup>There was a Jew at the citadel in Susa whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite, <sup>6</sup>who had been taken from Jerusalem with the exiles who had been deported with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had deported.

<sup>7</sup>He was the guardian to Hadassah, that is Esther, his uncle's daughter, for she had no father or mother. Now the young woman was beautiful of form and face, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

Esther Finds Favor

<sup>8</sup>So it came about, when the command and decree of the king were heard and many young ladies were gathered to the citadel of Susa into the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken to the king's palace into the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

<sup>11</sup>And every day Mordecai walked back and forth in front of the courtyard of the harem to learn how Esther was and what was happening to her.

<sup>12</sup>Now when the turn came for each young woman to go in to King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women—for the days of their beauty treatment were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with balsam oil and the cosmetics for women—

<sup>14</sup>In the evening she would enter and in the morning she would return to the second harem, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not go in to the king again, unless the king delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, came to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the women, advised. And Esther was finding favor in the eyes of all who saw her.

<sup>16</sup>So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus in his royal palace in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther Becomes Queen

<sup>17</sup>The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the virgins, so that he set the royal turban on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king held a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his officials and his servants; he also made a holiday for the provinces and gave gifts in proportion to the king's bounty.

<sup>20</sup>Esther still had not revealed her relatives or her people, just as Mordecai had instructed her; for Esther did what Mordecai told her just as she had when under his care.

Mordecai Saves the King

<sup>22</sup>But the plot became known to Mordecai and he informed Queen Esther, and Esther told the king in Mordecai's name.

<sup>23</sup>Then when the plot was investigated and found to be so, they were both hanged on a wooden gallows; and it was written in the Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence.

Esther 3

Haman's Plot against the Jews

<sup>3</sup>Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you violating the king's command?"

<sup>4</sup>Now it was when they had spoken daily to him and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

<sup>6</sup>But he considered it beneath his dignity to kill Mordecai alone, for they had told him who the people of Mordecai were; so Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were found throughout the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

<sup>7</sup>In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Pur, that is the lot, was cast before Haman from day to day and from month to month, until the twelfth month, that is the month Adar.

<sup>8</sup>Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of all other people and they do not comply with the king's laws, so it is not in the king's interest to let them remain.

<sup>9</sup>If it is pleasing to the king, let it be decreed that they be eliminated, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out the king's business, to put into the king's treasuries."

<sup>11</sup>And the king said to Haman, "The silver is yours, and the people also, to do with them as you please."

<sup>12</sup>Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written just as Haman commanded to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province and to the officials of each people, each province according to its script, each people according to its language, being written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.

<sup>13</sup>Letters were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces to annihilate, kill, and destroy all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to seize their possessions as plunder.

<sup>14</sup>A copy of the edict to be issued as law in every province was published to all the peoples so that they would be ready for this day.

<sup>15</sup>The couriers went out, speeded by the king's order while the decree was issued at the citadel in Susa; and while the king and Haman sat down to drink, the city of Susa was agitated.

Esther 4

Esther Learns of Haman's Plot

<sup>1</sup>When Mordecai learned of everything that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city and wailed loudly and bitterly.

<sup>2</sup>And he came as far as the king's gate, for no one was to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

<sup>3</sup>In each and every province where the command and decree of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and mourning rites; and many had sackcloth and ashes spread out as a bed.

<sup>4</sup>Then Esther's attendants and her eunuchs came and informed her, and the queen was seized by great fear. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai so that he would remove his sackcloth from him, but he did not accept them.

<sup>5</sup>Then Esther summoned Hathach from the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what this mourning was and why it was happening.

<sup>7</sup>Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, and the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the elimination of the Jews.

<sup>8</sup>He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict which had been issued in Susa for their annihilation, so that he might show Esther and inform her, and to order her to go in to the king to implore his favor and plead with him for her people.

<sup>11</sup>"All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who comes to the king in the inner courtyard, who is not summoned, he has only one law, that he be put to death, unless the king holds out to him the golden scepter so that he may live. And I have not been summoned to come to the king for these thirty days.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, “Do not imagine that you in the king’s palace can escape any more than all the other Jews.

<sup>14</sup>For if you keep silent at this time, liberation and rescue will arise for the Jews from another place, and you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this?”

Esther Plans to Intercede

<sup>15</sup>Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

<sup>16</sup>“Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa, and fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants also will fast in the same way. And then I will go in to the king, which is not in accordance with the law; and if I perish, I perish.”

Esther 5

Esther Plans a Banquet

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner courtyard of the king’s palace in front of the king’s rooms, and the king was sitting on his royal throne in the throne room, opposite the entrance to the palace.

<sup>2</sup>When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the courtyard, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king extended to Esther the golden scepter which was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said to her, “What is troubling you, Queen Esther? And what is your request? Up to half of the kingdom it shall be given to you.”

<sup>4</sup>Esther said, “If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther desires.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

<sup>6</sup>As they drank their wine at the banquet, the king said to Esther, “What is your request, for it shall be granted to you. And what is your wish? Up to half of the kingdom it shall be done.”

<sup>8</sup>if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my request and do what I wish, may the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king says.”

Haman's Pride

<sup>9</sup>Then Haman went out that day joyful and pleased of heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate and that he did not stand up or tremble before him, Haman was filled with anger against Mordecai.

<sup>11</sup>Then Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and his many sons, and every occasion on which the king had honored him and how he had promoted him above the officials and servants of the king.

<sup>12</sup>Haman also said, “Even Esther the queen let no one except me come with the king to the banquet which she had prepared; and tomorrow also I am invited by her with the king.

<sup>14</sup>Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, “Have a wooden gallows fifty cubits high made, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it; then go joyfully with the king to the banquet.” And the advice pleased Haman, so he had the wooden gallows made.

Esther 6

The King Plans to Honor Mordecai

<sup>1</sup>During that night the king could not sleep, so he gave an order to bring the book of records, the chronicles, and they were read before the king.

<sup>2</sup>And it was found written what Mordecai had reported about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s eunuchs who were doorkeepers, that they had sought to attack King Ahasuerus.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said, “What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?” And the king’s servants who attended him said, “Nothing has been done for him.”

<sup>4</sup>So the king said, “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Haman had just entered the outer courtyard of the king’s palace in order to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the wooden gallows which he had prepared for him.

<sup>5</sup>So the king’s servants said to him, “Behold, Haman is standing in the courtyard.” And the king said, “Have him come in.”

<sup>6</sup>Haman then came in and the king said to him, “What is to be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?” And Haman said to himself, “Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?”

<sup>8</sup>have them bring a royal robe which the king has worn, and the horse on which the king has ridden, and on whose head a royal turban has been placed;

<sup>9</sup>then order them to hand the robe and the horse over to one of the king’s noble officials, and have them dress the man whom the king desires to honor, and lead him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'So it shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor.' ”

Haman Must Honor Mordecai

<sup>10</sup>Then the king said to Haman, “Quickly, take the robe and the horse just as you have said, and do so for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the king’s gate; do not fail to do anything of all that you have said.”

<sup>11</sup>So Haman took the robe and the horse, and dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, “So it shall be done for the man whom the king desires to honor.”

<sup>13</sup>And Haman informed Zeresh his wife and all his friends of everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish origin, you will not prevail over him, but will certainly fall before him.”

<sup>14</sup>While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and quickly brought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Esther 7

Esther’s Plea

<sup>2</sup>And the king said to Esther on the second day also as they drank their wine at the banquet, “What is your request, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your wish? Up to half of the kingdom it shall be done.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me as my request, and my people as my wish;

<sup>4</sup>for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, killed, and eliminated. Now if we had only been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have kept silent, because the distress would not be sufficient reason to burden the king.”

<sup>5</sup>Then King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who would presume to do such a thing?”

<sup>6</sup>And Esther said, “A foe and an enemy is this wicked Haman!” Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

Haman Is Hanged

<sup>7</sup>The king then got up in his anger from drinking wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm had been determined against him by the king.

<sup>8</sup>Now when the king returned from the palace garden into the place where they had been drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he even assault the queen with me in the house?” As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

<sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the wooden gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai, and the king’s anger subsided.

Esther 8

Mordecai Promoted

<sup>4</sup>And the king extended the golden scepter to Esther. So Esther got up and stood before the king.

<sup>5</sup>Then she said, “If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him, and the matter seems proper to the king and I am pleasing in his sight, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to eliminate the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.

<sup>6</sup>For how can I endure to see the disaster which will happen to my people, and how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?”

<sup>7</sup>So King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and they have hanged him on the wooden gallows because he had reached out with his hand against the Jews.

The King’s Decree Avenges the Jews

<sup>8</sup>Now you write to the Jews as you see fit, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s signet ring; for a decree which is written in the name of the king and sealed with the king’s signet ring may not be revoked.”

<sup>9</sup>So the king’s scribes were summoned at that time in the third month (that is, the month Sivan), on the twenty-third day; and it was written in accordance with everything that Mordecai commanded the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the officials of the provinces which extended from India to Cush, 127 provinces, to every province according to its script, and to every people according to their language, as well as to the Jews according to their script and their language.

<sup>10</sup>He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horses, riding on royal relay horses, offspring of racing mares.

<sup>11</sup>In the letters the king granted the Jews who were in each and every city the right to assemble and to defend their lives, to destroy, kill, and eliminate the entire army of any people or province which was going to attack them, including children and women, and to plunder their spoils,

<sup>13</sup>A copy of the edict to be issued as law in each and every province was published to all the peoples, so that the Jews would be ready for this day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

<sup>17</sup>In each and every province and in each and every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree arrived, there was joy and jubilation for the Jews, a feast and a holiday. And many among the peoples of the land became Jews, because the dread of the Jews had fallen on them.

Esther 9

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

<sup>1</sup>Now in the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), on the thirteenth day, when the king's command and edict were to be put into effect, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain the mastery over them, it turned out to the contrary so that the Jews themselves gained mastery over those who hated them.

<sup>3</sup>Even all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who were doing the king's business were supporting the Jews, because the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them.

<sup>4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and the news about him spread throughout the provinces; for the man Mordecai became greater and greater.

<sup>5</sup>So the Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying; and they did as they pleased to those who hated them.

<sup>11</sup>On that day the number of those who were killed at the citadel in Susa was reported to the king.

<sup>12</sup>And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and eliminated five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman at the citadel in Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your request? It shall also be granted you. And what is your further wish? It shall also be done."

<sup>13</sup>Then Esther said, “If it pleases the king, let tomorrow also be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the edict of today; and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the wooden gallows.”

<sup>14</sup>So the king commanded that it was to be done so; and an edict was issued in Susa, and Haman’s ten sons were hanged.

<sup>15</sup>The Jews who were in Susa assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

<sup>16</sup>Now the rest of the Jews who were in the king’s provinces assembled, to defend their lives and rid themselves of their enemies, and to kill seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

<sup>17</sup>This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

<sup>18</sup>But the Jews who were in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and the fourteenth of the same month, and they rested on the fifteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore the Jews of the rural areas, who live in the rural towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a holiday for rejoicing and feasting and sending portions of food to one another.

The Feast of Purim Instituted

<sup>20</sup>Then Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

<sup>21</sup>obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same month, annually,

<sup>22</sup>because on those days the Jews rid themselves of their enemies, and it was a month which was turned for them from grief into joy, and from mourning into a holiday; that they were to make them days of feasting and rejoicing, and sending portions of food to one another, and gifts to the poor.

<sup>23</sup>So the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup>For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to eliminate them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to disturb them and eliminate them.

<sup>25</sup>But when it came to the king's attention, he commanded by letter that his wicked scheme which he had devised against the Jews was to return on his own head, and that he and his sons were to be hanged on the wooden gallows.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. And because of the instructions in this letter, both what they had seen in this regard and what had happened to them,

<sup>27</sup>the Jews established and made a custom for themselves, their descendants, and for all those who allied themselves with them, so that they would not fail to celebrate these two days according to their regulation and according to their appointed time annually.

<sup>28</sup>So these days were to be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and these days of Purim were not to be neglected by the Jews, or their memory fade from their descendants.

Esther 10

Mordecai's Greatness

Job

Job 1

Job's Character and Wealth

<sup>1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and that man was blameless, upright, fearing God and turning away from evil.

<sup>5</sup>When the days of feasting had completed their cycle, Job would send word to them and consecrate them, getting up early in the morning and offering burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "Perhaps my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job did so continually.

<sup>6</sup>Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" Satan answered the LORD and said, "From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it."

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, fearing God and turning away from evil."

<sup>9</sup>Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing?"

<sup>10</sup>Have You not made a fence around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

<sup>11</sup>But reach out with Your hand now and touch all that he has; he will certainly curse You to Your face.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not reach out and put your hand on him.” So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

Satan Allowed to Test Job

<sup>13</sup>Now on the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

<sup>14</sup>a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the female donkeys feeding beside them,

<sup>15</sup>and the Sabeans attacked and took them. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>16</sup>While he was still speaking, another came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>17</sup>While he was still speaking, another came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three units and made a raid on the camels and took them, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>18</sup>While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

<sup>19</sup>and behold, a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Job got up, tore his robe, and shaved his head; then he fell to the ground and worshiped.

<sup>21</sup>He said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, And naked I shall return there. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

Job 2

Job Loses His Health

<sup>1</sup>Again, there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Then Satan answered the LORD and said, “From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man fearing God and turning away from evil. And he still holds firm to his integrity, although you incited Me against him to ruin him without cause.”

<sup>4</sup>Satan answered the LORD and said, “Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has, he will give for his life.

<sup>8</sup>And Job took a piece of pottery to scrape himself while he was sitting in the ashes.

<sup>9</sup>Then his wife said to him, “Do you still hold firm your integrity? Curse God and die!”

<sup>10</sup>But he said to her, “You are speaking as one of the foolish women speaks. Shall we actually accept good from God but not accept adversity?” Despite all this, Job did not sin with his lips.

<sup>11</sup>Now when Job's three friends heard about all this adversity that had come upon him, they came, each one from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and comfort him.

<sup>12</sup>When they looked from a distance and did not recognize him, they raised their voices and wept. And each of them tore his robe, and they threw dust over their heads toward the sky.

<sup>13</sup>Then they sat down on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights, with no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.

Job's Lament

<sup>3</sup>"May the day on which I was to be born perish, As well as the night which said, 'A boy is conceived.'

<sup>5</sup>"May darkness and black gloom claim it; May a cloud settle on it; May the blackness of the day terrify it.

<sup>6</sup>"As for that night, may darkness seize it; May it not rejoice among the days of the year; May it not come into the number of the months.

<sup>9</sup>"May the stars of its twilight be darkened; May it wait for light but have none, And may it not see the breaking dawn;

<sup>10</sup>Because it did not shut the opening of my mother's womb, Or hide trouble from my eyes.

<sup>13</sup>"For now I would have lain down and been quiet; I would have slept then, I would have been at rest,

<sup>26</sup>"I am not at ease, nor am I quiet, And I am not at rest, but turmoil comes."

Job 4

Eliphaz Says the Innocent Do Not Suffer

<sup>16</sup>“Something was standing still, but I could not recognize its appearance; A form was before my eyes; There was silence, then I heard a voice:

Job 5

God Is Just

<sup>1</sup>“Call now, is there anyone who will answer you? And to which of the holy ones will you turn?

<sup>8</sup>“But as for me, I would seek God, And I would make my plea before God,

- <sup>10</sup>“He gives rain on the earth, And sends water on the fields, <sup>11</sup>So that He sets on high those who are lowly, And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
<sup>12</sup>“He frustrates the schemes of the shrewd, So that their hands cannot attain success.
<sup>13</sup>“He captures the wise by their own cleverness, And the advice of the cunning is quickly thwarted.
<sup>16</sup>“So the helpless has hope, And injustice has shut its mouth.
<sup>17</sup>“Behold, happy is the person whom God disciplines, So do not reject the discipline of the Almighty.
<sup>18</sup>“For He inflicts pain, and gives relief; He wounds, but His hands also heal.
<sup>19</sup>“In six troubles He will save you; Even in seven, evil will not touch you.
<sup>20</sup>“In famine He will redeem you from death, And in war, from the power of the sword.
<sup>21</sup>“You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, And you will not be afraid of violence when it comes.
<sup>22</sup>“You will laugh at violence and hunger, And you will not be afraid of wild animals.
<sup>23</sup>“For you will be in league with the stones of the field, And the animals of the field will be at peace with you.
<sup>24</sup>“You will know that your tent is secure, For you will visit your home and have nothing missing.
<sup>25</sup>“You will also know that your descendants will be many, And your offspring as the grass of the earth.

<sup>26</sup>“You will come to the grave at a ripe age, Like the stacking of grain in its season.

<sup>27</sup>“Behold this; we have investigated it, and so it is. Hear it, and know for yourself.”

Job 6

Job’s Friends Are No Help

<sup>2</sup>“Oh if only my grief were actually weighed And laid in the balances together with my disaster!

<sup>3</sup>“For then it would be heavier than the sand of the seas; For that reason my words have been rash.

<sup>8</sup>“Oh, that my request might come to pass, And that God would grant my hope!

<sup>9</sup>“Oh, that God would decide to crush me, That He would let loose His hand and cut me off!

<sup>10</sup>“But it is still my comfort, And I rejoice in unsparing pain, That I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

<sup>11</sup>“What is my strength, that I should wait? And what is my end, that I should endure?

13“Is it that my help is not within me, And that a good outcome is driven away from me?

14“For the despairing man there should be kindness from his friend; So that he does not abandon the fear of the Almighty.

15“My brothers have acted deceitfully like a wadi, Like the torrents of wadis which drain away, 16Which are darkened because of ice, And into which the snow melts.

17“When they dry up, they vanish; When it is hot, they disappear from their place.

18“The paths of their course wind along, They go up into wasteland and perish.

19“The caravans of Tema looked, The travelers of Sheba hoped for them.

20“They were put to shame, for they had trusted, They came there and were humiliated.

21“Indeed, you have now become such, You see terrors and are afraid.

22“Have I said, ‘Give me something,’ Or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth,’ 23Or, ‘Save me from the hand of the enemy,’ Or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of the tyrants’?

24“Teach me, and I will be silent; And show me how I have done wrong.

25“How painful are honest words! But what does your argument prove?

26“Do you intend to rebuke my words, When the words of one in despair belong to the wind?

27““You would even cast lots for the orphans, And barter over your friend.

28“Now please look at me, And see if I am lying to your face.

29“Please turn away, let there be no injustice; Turn away, my righteousness is still in it.

<sup>30</sup>“Is there injustice on my tongue? Does my palate not discern disasters?”

Job 7

Job's Life Seems Futile

<sup>1</sup>“Is a person not forced to labor on earth, And are his days not like the days of a hired worker?”

<sup>4</sup>“When I lie down, I say, ‘When shall I arise?’ But the night continues, And I am continually tossing until dawn.

<sup>8</sup>“The eye of him who sees me will no longer look at me; Your eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.

<sup>11</sup>“Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>12</sup>“Am I the sea, or the sea monster, That You set a guard over me?”

<sup>13</sup>“If I say, ‘My couch will comfort me, My bed will ease my complaint,’

- <sup>14</sup>Then You frighten me with dreams, And terrify me by visions, <sup>15</sup>So that my soul would choose suffocation, Death rather than my pains.
<sup>16</sup>“I waste away; I will not live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are only a breath.
<sup>17</sup>“What is man that You exalt him, And that You are concerned about him, <sup>18</sup>That You examine him every morning And put him to the test every moment?
<sup>19</sup>“Will You never turn Your gaze away from me, Nor leave me alone until I swallow my spittle?
<sup>20</sup>“Have I sinned? What have I done to You, Watcher of mankind? Why have You made me Your target, So that I am a burden to myself?
<sup>21</sup>“Why then do You not forgive my wrongdoing And take away my guilt? For now I will lie down in the dust; And You will search for me, but I will no longer exist.”

Job 8

Bildad Says God Rewards the Good

- <sup>1</sup>Then Bildad the Shuhite responded,
<sup>2</sup>“How long will you say these things, And the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
<sup>4</sup>“If your sons sinned against Him, Then He turned them over to the power of their wrongdoing.
<sup>5</sup>“If you will search for God And implore the compassion of the Almighty, <sup>6</sup>If you are pure and upright, Surely now He will stir Himself for you And restore your righteous estate.

<sup>21</sup>“He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, And your lips with joyful shouting.

<sup>22</sup>“Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, And the tent of the wicked will no longer exist.”

Job 9

Job Says There Is No Arbitrator between God and Mankind

<sup>11</sup>“If He were to pass by me, I would not see Him; Were He to move past me, I would not perceive Him.

<sup>15</sup>“For though I were right, I could not answer; I would have to implore the mercy of my Judge.

16“If I called and He answered me, I could not believe that He was listening to my voice.

17“For He bruises me with a storm And multiplies my wounds without cause.

18“He will not allow me to get my breath, But He saturates me with bitterness.

19“If it is a matter of power, behold, He is the strong one! And if it is a matter of justice, who can summon Him?

20“Though I am righteous, my mouth will condemn me; Though I am guiltless, He will declare me guilty.

21“I am guiltless; I do not take notice of myself; I reject my life.

22“‘It is all one; therefore I say, ‘He destroys the guiltless and the wicked.’

23“‘If the whip kills suddenly, He mocks the despair of the innocent.

24“‘The earth is handed over to the wicked; He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not He, then who is it?

25“‘Now my days are swifter than a runner; They flee away, they see no good.

26“‘They slip by like reed boats, Like an eagle that swoops on its prey.

27“‘Though I say, ‘I will forget my complaint, I will put my face in order and be cheerful,’

28I am afraid of all my pains, I know that You will not acquit me.

29“‘I am guilty, Why then should I struggle in vain?

30“‘If I washed myself with snow, And cleansed my hands with lye, 31Then You would plunge me into the pit, And my own clothes would loathe me.

32“‘For He is not a man, as I am, that I may answer Him— That we may go to court together!

33“‘There is no arbitrator between us, Who can place his hand upon us both.

<sup>35</sup>“Then I would speak and not fear Him; But I am not like that in myself.

Job 10

Job Despairs of God's Dealings

<sup>2</sup>“I will say to God, ‘Do not condemn me; Let me know why You contend with me.

<sup>7</sup>‘According to Your knowledge I am indeed not guilty, Yet there is no one to save me from Your hand.

<sup>9</sup>‘Remember that You have made me as clay; Yet would You turn me into dust again?

<sup>12</sup>‘You have granted me life and goodness; And Your care has guarded my spirit.

<sup>13</sup>‘Yet You have concealed these things in Your heart; I know that this is within You:

<sup>14</sup>If I have sinned, You will take note of me, And will not acquit me of my guilt.

<sup>15</sup>‘If I am wicked, woe to me! But if I am righteous, I dare not lift up my head. I am full of shame, and conscious of my misery.

<sup>16</sup>‘And should my head be high, You would hunt me like a lion; And You would show Your power against me again.

<sup>17</sup>‘You renew Your witnesses against me And increase Your anger toward me; Hardship after hardship is with me.

<sup>18</sup>‘Why then did You bring me out of the womb? If only I had died and no eye had seen me!

<sup>19</sup>‘I should have been as though I had not been, Brought from womb to tomb.’

<sup>20</sup>“Would He not leave my few days alone? Withdraw from me so that I may have a little cheerfulness

<sup>22</sup>The land of utter gloom like darkness itself, Of deep shadow without order, And it shines like darkness.”

Zophar Rebukes Job

<sup>4</sup>“For you have said, ‘My teaching is pure, And I am innocent in your eyes.’

<sup>6</sup>And show you the secrets of wisdom! For sound wisdom has two sides. Know then that God forgets part of your guilt.

<sup>19</sup>“You would lie down and none would disturb you, And many would flatter you.

<sup>20</sup>“But the eyes of the wicked will fail, And there will be no escape for them; And their hope is to breathe their last.”

Job 12

Job Chides His Accusers

<sup>2</sup>“Truly then you are the people, And with you wisdom will die!

<sup>3</sup>“But I have intelligence as well as you; I am not inferior to you. And who does not know such things as these?

<sup>7</sup>“But just ask the animals, and have them teach you; And the birds of the sky, and have them tell you.

<sup>8</sup>“Or speak to the earth, and have it teach you; And have the fish of the sea tell you.

<sup>9</sup>“Who among all these does not know That the hand of the LORD has done this,

Job Speaks of the Power of God

<sup>13</sup>“Wisdom and might are with Him; Advice and understanding belong to Him.

<sup>14</sup>“Behold, He tears down, and it cannot be rebuilt; He imprisons a person, and there is no release.

- <sup>17</sup>“He makes advisers walk barefoot And makes fools of judges.
- <sup>18</sup>“He undoes the binding of kings, And ties a loincloth around their waist.
- <sup>19</sup>“He makes priests walk barefoot, And overthrows the secure ones.
- <sup>20</sup>“He deprives the trusted ones of speech, And takes away the discernment of the elders.
- <sup>21</sup>“He pours contempt on nobles, And loosens the belt of the strong.
- <sup>22</sup>“He reveals mysteries from the darkness, And brings the deep darkness into light.
- <sup>23</sup>“He makes the nations great, then destroys them; He enlarges the nations, then leads them away.
- <sup>24</sup>“He deprives the leaders of the earth’s people of intelligence And makes them wander in a pathless wasteland.
- <sup>25</sup>“They grope in darkness with no light, And He makes them stagger like a drunken person.

Job Says His Friends’ Proverbs Are Ashes

- <sup>1</sup>“Behold, my eye has seen all this, My ear has heard and understood it.
- <sup>2</sup>“What you know I also know; I am not inferior to you.
- <sup>3</sup>“But I would speak to the Almighty, And I desire to argue with God.
- <sup>4</sup>“But you smear me with lies; You are all worthless physicians.
- <sup>5</sup>“Oh that you would be completely silent, And that it would become your wisdom!
- <sup>6</sup>“Please hear my argument, And give your attention to the contentions of my lips.
- <sup>7</sup>“Will you speak what is unjust for God, And speak what is deceitful for Him?
- <sup>8</sup>“Will you show partiality for Him? Will you contend for God?

<sup>9</sup>“Will it go well when He examines you? Or will you deceive Him as one deceives a man?

Job Is Sure He Will Be Vindicated

<sup>13</sup>“Be silent before me so that I may speak; Then let come upon me what may.

<sup>14</sup>“Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, And put my life in my hands?

<sup>15</sup>“Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him.

<sup>20</sup>“Only two things I ask that You do not do to me, Then I will not hide from Your face:

<sup>21</sup>Remove Your hand from me, And may the dread of You not terrify me.

<sup>22</sup>“Then call and I will answer; Or let me speak, then reply to me.

<sup>27</sup>“You put my feet in the stocks And watch all my paths; You set a limit for the soles of my feet,

Job 14

Job Speaks of the Finality of Death

<sup>5</sup>“Since his days are determined, The number of his months is with You; And You have set his limits so that he cannot pass.

<sup>7</sup>“For there is hope for a tree, When it is cut down, that it will sprout again, And its shoots will not fail.

<sup>12</sup>So a man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens no longer exist, He will not awake nor be woken from his sleep.

<sup>13</sup>“Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, That You would conceal me until Your wrath returns to You, That You would set a limit for me and remember me!

<sup>14</sup>“If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my struggle I will wait Until my relief comes.

<sup>15</sup>“You will call, and I will answer You; You will long for the work of Your hands.

<sup>21</sup>“His sons achieve honor, but he does not know it; Or they become insignificant, and he does not perceive it.

Job 15

Eliphaz Says Job Presumes Much

<sup>7</sup>“Were you the first person to be born, Or were you brought forth before the hills?

<sup>9</sup>“What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that we do not?

<sup>11</sup>“Are the consolations of God too little for you, Or the word spoken gently to you?

<sup>13</sup>That you can turn your spirit against God And produce such words from your mouth?

<sup>14</sup>“What is man, that he would be pure, Or he who is born of a woman, that he would be righteous?

<sup>15</sup>“Behold, He has no trust in His holy ones, And the heavens are not pure in His sight;

What Eliphaz Has Seen of Life

<sup>17</sup>“I will tell you, listen to me; And what I have seen I will also declare;

<sup>29</sup>“He will not become rich, nor will his wealth endure; And his property will not stretch out on the earth.

Job Says Friends Are Miserable Comforters

<sup>4</sup>“I too could speak like you, If only I were in your place. I could compose words against you And shake my head at you.

<sup>5</sup>“Or I could strengthen you with my mouth, And the condolence of my lips could lessen your pain.

Job Says God Shattered Him

<sup>6</sup>“If I speak, my pain is not lessened, And if I refrain, what pain leaves me?

<sup>7</sup>“But now He has exhausted me; You have laid waste all my group of loved ones.

<sup>8</sup>“And You have shriveled me up, It has become a witness; And my infirmity rises up against me, It testifies to my face.

<sup>9</sup>“His anger has torn me and hunted me down, He has gnashed at me with His teeth; My enemy glares at me.

<sup>10</sup>“They have gaped at me with their mouths, They have slapped me on the cheek with contempt; They have massed themselves against me.

<sup>12</sup>“I was at ease, but He shattered me, And He has grasped me by my neck and shaken me to pieces; He has also set me up as His target.

Job 17

Job Says He Has Become a Proverb

<sup>6</sup>“But He has made me a proverb among the people, And I am one at whom people spit.

<sup>7</sup>“My eye has also become inexpressive because of grief, And all my body parts are like a shadow.

<sup>8</sup>“The upright will be appalled at this, And the innocent will stir himself up against the godless.

<sup>13</sup>“If I hope for Sheol as my home, I make my bed in the darkness;

<sup>14</sup> If I call to the grave, ‘You are my father’; To the maggot, ‘my mother and my sister’;

<sup>16</sup>“Will it go down with me to Sheol? Shall we together go down into the dust?”

Job 18

Bildad Speaks of the Wicked

- <sup>12</sup>“His strength is famished, And disaster is ready at his side.
- <sup>13</sup>“It devours parts of his skin, The firstborn of death devours his limbs.
- <sup>14</sup>“He is torn from the security of his tent, And they march him before the king of terrors.
- <sup>15</sup>“Nothing of his dwells in his tent; Brimstone is scattered on his home.
- <sup>16</sup>“His roots are dried below, And his branch withers above.
- <sup>17</sup>“The memory of him perishes from the earth, And he has no name abroad.
- <sup>18</sup>“He is driven from light into darkness, And chased from the inhabited world.
- <sup>19</sup>“He has no offspring or descendants among his people, Nor any survivor where he resided.
- <sup>20</sup>“Those in the west are appalled at his fate, And those in the east are seized with horror.
- <sup>21</sup>“Certainly these are the dwellings of the wicked, And this is the place of him who does not know God.”

Job 19

Job Feels Insulted

- <sup>1</sup>Then Job responded,
- <sup>2</sup>“How long will you torment me And crush me with words?
- <sup>3</sup>“These ten times you have insulted me; You are not ashamed to wrong me.
- <sup>4</sup>“Even if I have truly done wrong, My error stays with me.
- <sup>5</sup>“If indeed you exalt yourselves against me And prove my disgrace to me,
- <sup>6</sup>Know then that God has wronged me And has surrounded me with His net.

Everything Is Against Him

- <sup>7</sup>“Behold, I cry, ‘Violence!’ but I get no answer; I shout for help, but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup>“He has blocked my way so that I cannot pass, And He has put darkness on my paths.

<sup>10</sup>“He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone; And He has uprooted my hope like a tree.

<sup>13</sup>“He has removed my brothers far from me, And my acquaintances have completely turned away from me.

<sup>15</sup>“Those who live in my house and my servant women consider me a stranger. I am a foreigner in their sight.

<sup>16</sup>“I call to my servant, but he does not answer; I have to implore his favor with my mouth.

<sup>20</sup>“My bone clings to my skin and my flesh, And I have escaped only by the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup>“Pity me, pity me, you friends of mine, For the hand of God has struck me.

<sup>22</sup>“Why do you persecute me as God does, And are not satisfied with my flesh?

Job Says My Redeemer Lives

<sup>23</sup>“Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were recorded in a book!

<sup>25</sup>“Yet as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, And at the last, He will take His stand on the earth.

<sup>26</sup>“Even after my skin is destroyed, Yet from my flesh I will see God, <sup>27</sup>Whom I, on my part, shall behold for myself, And whom my eyes will see, and not another. My heart faints within me!

<sup>29</sup>“Then be afraid of the sword for yourselves, For wrath brings the punishment of the sword, So that you may know there is judgment.”

Job 20

Zophar Says the Rejoicing of the Wicked Is Short

<sup>19</sup>“For he has oppressed and neglected the poor; He has seized a house which he has not built.

Job 21

Job Says God Will Deal with the Wicked

14“Yet they say to God, ‘Go away from us! We do not even desire the knowledge of Your ways.

15‘Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him, And what would we gain if we plead with Him?’

16“Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand; The advice of the wicked is far from me.

17“How often is the lamp of the wicked put out, Or does their disaster fall on them? Does God apportion destruction in His anger?

18“Are they as straw before the wind, And like chaff which the storm carries away?

19“‘You say, ‘God saves up a person’s wrongdoing for his sons.’ Let God repay him so that he may know it.

20“Let his own eyes see his destruction, And let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21“For what does he care about his household after him, When the number of his months is at an end?

22“Can anyone teach God knowledge, In that He judges those on high?

23“One dies in his full strength, Being wholly undisturbed and at ease;

24His sides are filled with fat, And the marrow of his bones is wet, 25While another dies with a bitter soul, Never even tasting anything good.

26“Together they lie down in the dust, And maggots cover them.

27“Behold, I know your thoughts, And the plots you devise against me.

28“For you say, ‘Where is the house of the nobleman, And where is the tent, the dwelling places of the wicked?’

29“Have you not asked travelers, And do you not examine their evidence?

30“For the wicked person is spared a day of disaster; They are led away from a day of fury.

<sup>34</sup>“So how dare you give me empty comfort? For your answers remain nothing but falsehood!”

Job 22

Eliphaz Accuses and Exhorts Job

<sup>4</sup>“Is it because of your reverence that He punishes you, That He enters into judgment against you?

<sup>11</sup>Or darkness, so that you cannot see, And a flood of water covers you.

<sup>12</sup>“Is God not in the height of heaven? Look also at the highest stars, how high they are!

<sup>14</sup>‘Clouds are a hiding place for Him, so that He cannot see; And He walks on the vault of heaven.’

<sup>23</sup>“If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored; If you remove injustice far from your tent,

<sup>26</sup>“For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty And lift up your face to God.

<sup>27</sup>“You will pray to Him, and He will hear you; And you will pay your vows.

<sup>28</sup>“You will also decide something, and it will be established for you; And light will shine on your ways.

<sup>29</sup>“When they have brought you low, you will speak with confidence, And He will save the humble person.

<sup>30</sup>“He will rescue one who is not innocent, And he will be rescued due to the cleanness of your hands.”

Job 23

Job Says He Longs for God

<sup>8</sup>“Behold, I go forward but He is not there, And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;

<sup>10</sup>“But He knows the way I take; When He has put me to the test, I will come out as gold.

<sup>15</sup>“Therefore, I would be terrified at His presence; When I consider this, I am frightened of Him.

<sup>16</sup>“It is God who has made my heart faint, And the Almighty who has terrified me, <sup>17</sup>But I am not destroyed by darkness, Nor by deep gloom which covers me.

Job 24

Job Says God Seems to Ignore Wrongs

<sup>20</sup>“A mother will forget him; The maggot feeds sweetly until he is no longer remembered. And injustice will be broken like a tree.

<sup>25</sup>“Now if it is not so, who can prove me a liar, And make my speech worthless?”

Job 25

Bildad Says Mankind Is Inferior

Job Rebukes Bildad

<sup>2</sup>“What a help you are to the weak! You have saved the arm without strength!

The Greatness of God

<sup>14</sup>“Behold, these are the fringes of His ways; And how faint a word we hear of Him! But His mighty thunder, who can understand?”

Job 27

Job Affirms His Righteousness

<sup>3</sup>For as long as life is in me, And the breath of God is in my nostrils,

<sup>5</sup>“Far be it from me that I should declare you right; Until I die, I will not give up my integrity.

<sup>6</sup>“I have kept hold of my righteousness and will not let it go. My heart does not rebuke any of my days.

The State of the Godless

<sup>7</sup>“May my enemy be as the wicked, And my opponent as the criminal.

<sup>8</sup>“For what is the hope of the godless when he makes an end of life, When God requires his life?

<sup>10</sup>“Or will he take pleasure in the Almighty? Will he call on God at all times?

<sup>11</sup>“I will instruct you in the power of God; What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.

<sup>15</sup>“His survivors will be buried because of the plague, And their widows will not be able to weep.

<sup>17</sup>He may prepare it, but the righteous will wear it And the innocent will divide the silver.

<sup>18</sup>“He has built his house like the spider’s web, Or a hut which the watchman has made.

Job 28

Job Tells of Earth's Treasures

The Search for Wisdom Is Harder

- <sup>16</sup>“It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, In precious onyx, or sapphire.
- <sup>17</sup>“Gold or glass cannot equal it, Nor can it be exchanged for articles of pure gold.
- <sup>18</sup>“Coral and crystal are not to be mentioned; And the acquisition of wisdom is more valuable than pearls.
- <sup>19</sup>“The topaz of Cush cannot equal it, Nor can it be valued in pure gold.
- <sup>20</sup>“Where then does wisdom come from? And where is this place of understanding?
- <sup>21</sup>“It is hidden from the eyes of every living creature, And concealed from the birds of the sky.
- <sup>22</sup>“Abaddon and Death say, ‘With our ears we have heard a report of it.’
- <sup>23</sup>“God understands its way, And He knows its place.
- <sup>24</sup>“For He looks to the ends of the earth; He sees everything under the heavens.
- <sup>25</sup>“When He imparted weight to the wind, And assessed the waters by measure,
- <sup>26</sup>When He made a limit for the rain, And a course for the thunderbolt,
- <sup>27</sup>Then He saw it and declared it; He established it and also searched it out.
- <sup>28</sup>“And to mankind He said, ‘Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to turn away from evil is understanding.’”

Job 29

Job’s Past Was Glorious

- <sup>1</sup>Job again took up his discourse and said,
- <sup>2</sup>“Oh that I were as in months gone by, As in the days when God watched over me;

<sup>4</sup>Just as I was in the days of my youth, When the protection of God was over my tent;

<sup>5</sup>When the Almighty was still with me, And my children were around me;

<sup>7</sup>“When I went out to the gate of the city, When I took my seat in the public square,

<sup>13</sup>“The blessing of the one who was about to perish came upon me, And I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.

<sup>14</sup>“I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; My justice was like a robe and a headband.

<sup>16</sup>“I was a father to the poor, And I investigated the case which I did not know.

<sup>18</sup>“Then I thought, ‘I will die with my family, And I will multiply my days as the sand.

<sup>24</sup>“I smiled at them when they did not believe, And they did not look at my kindness ungraciously.

<sup>25</sup>“I chose a way for them and sat as chief, And lived as a king among the troops, As one who comforted the mourners.

Job 30

Job’s Present State Is Humiliating

<sup>11</sup>“Because He has undone my bowstring and afflicted me, They have cast off the bridle before me.

<sup>15</sup>“Sudden terrors are turned upon me; They chase away my dignity like the wind, And my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

<sup>20</sup>“I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer me; I stand up, and You turn Your attention against me.

<sup>22</sup>“You lift me up to the wind and make me ride it; And You dissolve me in a storm.

<sup>23</sup>“For I know that You will bring me to death, And to the house of meeting for all living.

<sup>31</sup>“Therefore my harp is turned to mourning, And my flute to the sound of those who weep.

Job 31

Job Asserts His Integrity

<sup>1</sup>“I have made a covenant with my eyes; How then could I look at a virgin?

<sup>7</sup>“If my step has turned from the way, Or my heart followed my eyes, Or if any spot has stuck to my hands,

<sup>9</sup>“If my heart has been enticed by a woman, Or I have lurked at my neighbor’s doorway,

<sup>13</sup>“If I have rejected the claim of my male or female slaves When they filed a complaint against me, <sup>14</sup>What then could I do when God arises? And when He calls me to account, how am I to answer Him?

<sup>15</sup>“Did He who made me in the womb not make him, And the same one create us in the womb?

<sup>16</sup>“If I have kept the poor from their desire, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

<sup>17</sup>Or have eaten my morsel alone, And the orphan has not shared it

<sup>18</sup>(But from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, And from my infancy I guided her),

<sup>19</sup>If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, Or that the needy had no covering,

<sup>20</sup>If his waist has not thanked me, And if he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep,

<sup>21</sup>If I have lifted up my hand against the orphan, Because I saw I had support in the gate,

<sup>25</sup>If I have gloated because my wealth was great, And because my hand had obtained so much;

<sup>27</sup>And my heart was secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth,

<sup>31</sup>“Have the people of my tent not said, ‘Who can find one who has not been satisfied with his meat’?

<sup>32</sup>“The stranger has not spent the night outside, For I have opened my doors to the traveler.

<sup>33</sup>“Have I covered my wrongdoings like a man, By hiding my guilt in my shirt pocket, <sup>34</sup>Because I feared the great multitude And the contempt of families terrified me, And I kept silent and did not go out of doors?

<sup>35</sup>“Oh that I had one to hear me! Here is my signature; Let the Almighty answer me! And the indictment which my adversary has written,

<sup>37</sup>“I would declare to Him the number of my steps; Like a prince, I would approach Him.

<sup>39</sup>If I have eaten its fruit without money, Or have caused its owners to lose their lives, <sup>40</sup>May the thorn-bush grow instead of wheat, And stinkweed instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

Job 32

Elihu Rebukes Job in Anger

<sup>1</sup>Then these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

<sup>5</sup>But when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, his anger burned.

<sup>6</sup>So Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite spoke out and said, “I am young in years and you are old; Therefore I was shy and afraid to tell you what I think.

<sup>8</sup>“But it is a spirit that is in mankind, And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

<sup>12</sup>“I also paid close attention to you; But indeed, there was no one who refuted Job, Not one of you who answered his words.

<sup>13</sup>“So do not say, ‘We have found wisdom: God will defeat him, not man.’

<sup>14</sup>“But he has not presented his words against me, Nor will I reply to him with your arguments.

Job 33

Elihu Claims to Speak for God

<sup>1</sup>“However, please hear my speech, Job, And listen to all my words.

<sup>7</sup>“Behold, no fear of me should terrify you, Nor should my pressure weigh heavily on you.

<sup>8</sup>“You have in fact spoken while I listened, And I heard the sound of your words:

<sup>17</sup>So that He may turn a person away from bad conduct, And keep a man from pride;

<sup>26</sup> Then he will pray to God, and He will accept him, So that he may see His face with joy, And He will restore His righteousness to that person.

<sup>27</sup>“He will sing to people and say, ‘I have sinned and perverted what is right, And it is not proper for me.

<sup>28</sup>‘He has redeemed my soul from going to the pit, And my life will see the light.’

<sup>30</sup>To bring back his soul from the pit, So that he may be enlightened with the light of life.

<sup>32</sup>“Then if you have anything to say, answer me; Speak, for I would take pleasure in justifying you.

<sup>33</sup>“If not, listen to me; Keep silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34

Elihu Vindicates God’s Justice

<sup>5</sup>“For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, But God has taken away my right;

<sup>10</sup>“Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding. Far be it from God to do evil, And from the Almighty to do wrong.

<sup>14</sup>“If He were to determine to do so, If He were to gather His spirit and His breath to Himself,

And the powerful are taken away without a hand.

hide themselves.

before God in judgment.

their place.

And they are crushed.

of His ways,

<sup>28</sup>So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him, And that He would hear the cry of the afflicted—

<sup>29</sup>When He keeps quiet, who can condemn? And when He hides His face, who then can look at Him, That is, regarding both nation and a person?—

<sup>30</sup>“So that godless people would not rule, Nor be snares for the people.

<sup>31</sup>“For has anyone said to God, ‘I have endured punishment; I will not offend anymore;

<sup>32</sup>Teach me what I do not see; If I have done wrong, I will not do it again’?

<sup>33</sup>“Shall God repay on your terms, because you have rejected His? For you must choose, and not I; Therefore declare what you know.

Job 35

Elihu Sharply Rebukes Job

<sup>3</sup>“For you say, ‘What advantage will it be to You? What benefit will I have, more than if I had sinned?’

Job 36

Elihu Speaks of God’s Dealings with Mankind

<sup>8</sup>“And if they are bound in shackles, And are caught in the snares of misery,

12“But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword, And die without knowledge.

13“But the godless in heart nurture anger; They do not call for help when He binds them.

14“They die in youth, And their life perishes among the cult prostitutes.

15“He rescues the afflicted in their misery, And opens their ears in time of oppression.

16“Then indeed, He induced you away from the mouth of distress, And instead of it, a broad place with no constraint; And your table was full of rich food.

17“But you were full of judgment on the wicked; Judgment and justice take hold of you.

18“Beware that wrath does not entice you to mockery; And do not let the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.

19“Will your cry for help keep you from distress, Or all the exertions of your strength?

20“Do not long for the night, When people vanish in their places.

21“Be careful, do not turn to evil, For you preferred this to misery.

22“Behold, God is exalted in His power; Who is a teacher like Him?

23“Who has appointed Him His way, And who has said, ‘You have done wrong’?

24“Remember that you are to exalt His work, Of which people have sung.

25“All people have seen it; Mankind looks at it from afar.

26“Behold, God is exalted, and we do not know Him; The number of His years is unsearchable.

27“For He draws up the drops of water; They distill rain from its celestial stream,

Job 37

Elihu Says God Has Authority over the Storm

10“From the breath of God ice is made, And the expanse of the waters is frozen.

11“He also loads the clouds with moisture; He disperses the cloud of His lightning.

12“It changes direction, turning around by His guidance, That it may do whatever He commands it On the face of the inhabited earth.

13“Whether for correction, or for His earth, Or for goodness, He causes it to happen.

14“Listen to this, Job; Stand and consider the wonders of God.

15“Do you know how God establishes them, And makes the lightning of His clouds to shine?

16“Do you know about the hovering of the clouds, The wonders of One who is perfect in knowledge, 17You whose garments are hot When the land is still because of the south wind?

18“Can you, with Him, spread out the skies, Strong as a cast metal mirror?

19“Teach us what we are to say to Him; We cannot present our case because of darkness.

20“Shall it be told Him that I would speak? Or should a man say that he would be swallowed up?

21“Now people do not see the light which is bright in the skies; But the wind has passed and cleared them.

22“From the north comes golden splendor; Around God is awesome majesty.

23“‘The Almighty—we cannot find Him; He is exalted in power And He will not violate justice and abundant righteousness.

24“‘Therefore people fear Him; He does not regard any who are wise of heart.’”

Job 38

God Speaks Now to Job

- <sup>1</sup>Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind and said,
- <sup>2</sup>“Who is this who darkens the divine plan By words without knowledge?
- <sup>3</sup>“Now tighten the belt on your waist like a man, And I shall ask you, and you inform Me!
- <sup>4</sup>“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding,
- <sup>5</sup>Who set its measurements? Since you know. Or who stretched the measuring line over it?
- <sup>6</sup>“On what were its bases sunk? Or who laid its cornerstone,
- <sup>7</sup>When the morning stars sang together And all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- <sup>8</sup>“Or who enclosed the sea with doors When it went out from the womb, bursting forth;
- <sup>9</sup>When I made a cloud its garment, And thick darkness its swaddling bands,
- <sup>10</sup>And I placed boundaries on it And set a bolt and doors,
- <sup>11</sup>And I said, ‘As far as this point you shall come, but no farther; And here your proud waves shall stop’?

God’s Mighty Power

- <sup>12</sup>“Have you ever in your life commanded the morning, And made the dawn know its place,
- <sup>13</sup>So that it would take hold of the ends of the earth, And the wicked would be shaken off from it?
- <sup>14</sup>“It is changed like clay under the seal; And they stand out like a garment.
- <sup>15</sup>“Their light is withheld from the wicked, And the uplifted arm is broken.
- <sup>16</sup>“Have you entered the springs of the sea, And walked in the depth of the ocean?

17“Have the gates of death been revealed to you, And have you seen the gates of deep darkness?

18“Have you understood the expanse of the earth? Tell Me, if you know all this.

19“Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And darkness, where is its place, 20That you would take it to its territory, And discern the paths to its home?

21“You know, for you were born then, And the number of your days is great!

22“Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, And have you seen the storehouses of the hail, 23Which I have reserved for a time of distress, For a day of war and battle?

24“Where is the way that the light is divided, And the east wind scattered on the earth?

25“Who has split open a channel for the flood, And a way for the thunderbolt,

26To bring rain on a land without people, On a desert without a person in it,

27To satisfy the waste and desolate land, And to make the seeds of grass to sprout?

28“Does the rain have a father? Or who has fathered the drops of dew?

29“From whose womb has come the ice? And the frost of heaven, who has given it birth?

30“Water becomes hard like stone, And the surface of the deep is imprisoned.

31“Can you tie up the chains of the Pleiades, Or untie the cords of Orion?

32“Can you bring out a constellation in its season, And guide the Bear with her satellites?

33“Do you know the ordinances of the heavens, Or do you establish their rule over the earth?

<sup>34</sup>“Can you raise your voice to the clouds, So that an abundance of water will cover you?

<sup>35</sup>“Can you send flashes of lightning, so that they may go And say to you, ‘Here we are’?

Job 39

God Speaks of Nature and Its Beings

<sup>10</sup>“Can you tie down the wild bull in a furrow with ropes, Or will he plow the valleys after you?

<sup>12</sup>“Will you have faith in him that he will return your grain And gather it from your threshing floor?

<sup>25</sup>“As often as the trumpet sounds he says, ‘Aha!’ And he senses the battle from afar, And the thunder of the captains and the war cry.

Job 40

Job Says What Can I Say?

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Job,

<sup>3</sup>Then Job answered the LORD and said,

<sup>4</sup>“Behold, I am insignificant; what can I say in response to You? I put my hand on my mouth.

<sup>5</sup>“I have spoken once, and I will not reply; Or twice, and I will add nothing more.”

God Questions Job

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind and said,

<sup>7</sup>“Now tighten the belt on your waist like a man; I will ask you, and you instruct Me.

<sup>8</sup>“Will you really nullify My judgment? Will you condemn Me so that you may be justified?

God’s Power Shown in Creatures

Job 41

<sup>3</sup>“Will he make many pleas to you, Or will he speak to you gentle words?

<sup>6</sup>“Will the traders bargain for him? Will they divide him among the merchants?

<sup>10</sup>“No one is so reckless that he dares to stir him; Who then is he who opposes Me?

<sup>11</sup>“Who has been first to give to Me, that I should repay him? Whatever is under the entire heaven is Mine.

12“I will not be silent about his limbs, Or his mighty strength, or his graceful frame.

13“Who can strip off his outer covering? Who can pierce his double armor?

14“Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth there is terror.

15“His strong scales are his pride, Locked as with a tight seal.

16“One is so close to another That no air can come between them.

17“They are joined one to another; They clasp each other and cannot be separated.

18“His sneezes flash forth light, And his eyes are like the eye of dawn.

19“From his mouth go burning torches; Sparks of fire leap forth.

20“From his nostrils smoke goes out As from a boiling pot and burning reeds.

21“His breath sets coals aglow, And a flame goes forth from his mouth.

22“In his neck dwells strength, And dismay leaps before him.

23“The folds of his flesh are joined together, Firm and immovable on him.

24“His heart is as firm as a stone, And as firm as a lower millstone.

25“When he rises up, the mighty are afraid; Because of the crashing they are bewildered.

26“The sword that reaches him cannot prevail, Nor the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

27“He regards iron as straw, Bronze as rotten wood.

28“The arrow cannot make him flee; Slingstones are turned into stubble for him.

29“Clubs are regarded as stubble; He laughs at the rattling of the javelin.

30“His underparts are like sharp pieces of pottery; He spreads out like a threshing sledge on the mud.

Job 42

Job’s Confession

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered the LORD and said,

<sup>2</sup>“I know that You can do all things, And that no plan is impossible for You.

<sup>3</sup>“Who is this who conceals advice without knowledge?’ Therefore I have declared that which I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, which I do not know.

<sup>4</sup>“Please listen, and I will speak; I will ask You, and You instruct me.’

<sup>5</sup>“I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear; But now my eye sees You;

God Is Displeased with Job’s Friends

<sup>7</sup>It came about after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken of Me what is trustworthy, as My servant Job has.

<sup>8</sup>Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves, and My servant Job will pray for you. For I will accept him so as not to do with you as your foolishness deserves, because you have not spoken of Me what is trustworthy, as My servant Job has.”

<sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job.

God Restores Job's Fortunes

<sup>10</sup>The LORD also restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD increased double all that Job had.

<sup>11</sup>Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all who had known him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house; and they sympathized with him and comforted him for all the adversities that the LORD had brought on him. And each one gave him a piece of money, and each a ring of gold.

Psalms

BOOK 1

The Righteous and the Wicked Contrasted.

<sup>3</sup>He will be like a tree planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season, And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers.

Psalms 2

The Reign of the LORD's Anointed.

<sup>7</sup>“I will announce the decree of the LORD: He said to Me, ‘You are My Son, Today I have fathered You.

<sup>8</sup>‘Ask it of Me, and I will certainly give the nations as Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth as Your possession.

<sup>12</sup> Kiss the Son, that He not be angry and you perish on the way, For His wrath may be kindled quickly. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!

Psalms 3

Morning Prayer of Trust in God.
A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

<sup>4</sup>I was crying out to the LORD with my voice, And He answered me from His holy mountain.Selah

<sup>6</sup>I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people Who have set themselves against me all around.

<sup>7</sup>Arise, LORD; save me, my God! For You have struck all my enemies on the cheek; You have shattered the teeth of the wicked.

<sup>8</sup> Salvation belongs to the LORD; May Your blessing be upon Your people!Selah

Psalms 4

Evening Prayer of Trust in God.
For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness! You have relieved me in my distress; Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>You sons of man, how long will my honor be treated as an insult? How long will you love what is worthless and strive for a lie?Selah

<sup>3</sup>But know that the LORD has set apart the godly person for Himself; The LORD hears when I call to Him.

<sup>8</sup>In peace I will both lie down and sleep, For You alone, LORD, have me dwell in safety.

Psalms 5

Prayer for Protection from the Wicked.

For the music director; for flute accompaniment. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>In the morning, LORD, You will hear my voice; In the morning I will present my prayer to You and be on the watch.

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, by Your abundant graciousness I will enter Your house, At Your holy temple I will bow in reverence for You.

<sup>10</sup>Make them pay, God; Have them fall by their own schemes! Scatter them in the multitude of their wrongdoings, For they are rebellious against You.

<sup>11</sup>But rejoice, all who take refuge in You, Sing for joy forever! And may You shelter them, That those who love Your name may rejoice in You.

Psalms 6

Prayer for Mercy in Time of Trouble.

For the music director; with stringed instruments, upon an eight-string lyre. A Psalm of David.

<sup>6</sup>I am weary with my sighing; Every night I make my bed swim, I flood my couch with my tears.

<sup>8</sup>Leave me, all you who practice injustice, For the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD has heard my pleading, The LORD receives my prayer.

<sup>10</sup>All my enemies will be put to shame and greatly horrified; They shall turn back, they will suddenly be put to shame.

Psalms 7

The LORD Implored to Defend the Psalmist against the Wicked.
A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjaminite.

<sup>1</sup>O LORD my God, in You I have taken refuge; Save me from all those who pursue me, and rescue me, <sup>2</sup>Or he will tear my soul like a lion, Dragging me away, while there is no one to rescue me.

<sup>3</sup>O LORD my God, if I have done this, If there is injustice in my hands,

<sup>4</sup>If I have done evil to my friend, Or have plundered my enemy for no reason,

<sup>5</sup>Let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake it; And let him trample my life to the ground And lay my glory in the dust.Selah

<sup>8</sup>The LORD judges the peoples; Vindicate me, LORD, according to my righteousness and my integrity that is in me.

<sup>9</sup>Please let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; For the righteous God puts hearts and minds to the test.

<sup>15</sup>He has dug a pit and hollowed it out, And has fallen into the hole which he made.

<sup>17</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD according to His righteousness And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalms 8

The LORD's Glory and Mankind's Dignity.
For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup>From the mouths of infants and nursing babies You have established strength Because of Your enemies, To do away with the enemy and the revengeful.

<sup>3</sup>When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have set in place;

<sup>4</sup>What is man that You think of him, And a son of man that You are concerned about him?

<sup>5</sup>Yet You have made him a little lower than God, And You crown him with glory and majesty!

Psalms 9

Thanksgiving for God's Justice.

For the music director; on Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders.

<sup>5</sup>You have rebuked the nations, You have eliminated the wicked; You have wiped out their name forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>The enemy has come to an end in everlasting ruins, And You have uprooted the cities; The very memory of them has perished.

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD sits as King forever; He has established His throne for judgment, <sup>8</sup>And He will judge the world in righteousness; He will execute judgment for the peoples fairly.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD will also be a stronghold for the oppressed, A stronghold in times of trouble;

<sup>10</sup>And those who know Your name will put their trust in You, For You, LORD, have not abandoned those who seek You.

<sup>13</sup>Be gracious to me, LORD; See my oppression from those who hate me, You who lift me up from the gates of death, <sup>14</sup>So that I may tell of all Your praises, That in the gates of the daughter of Zion I may rejoice in Your salvation.

Psalms 10

A Prayer for the Overthrow of the Wicked.

<sup>6</sup>He says to himself, "I will not be moved; Throughout the generations I will not be in adversity."

<sup>13</sup>Why has the wicked treated God disrespectfully? He has said to himself, "You will not require an account."

<sup>14</sup>You have seen it, for You have looked at harm and provocation to take it into Your hand. The unfortunate commits himself to You; You have been the helper of the orphan.

<sup>17</sup>LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble; You will strengthen their heart, You will make Your ear attentive

<sup>18</sup>To vindicate the orphan and the oppressed, So that mankind, which is of the earth, will no longer cause terror.

Psalms 11

The LORD, a Refuge and Defense.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>In the LORD I take refuge; How can you say to my soul, “Flee as a bird to your mountain?”

<sup>6</sup>He will rain coals of fire upon the wicked, And brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup.

Psalms 12

God, a Helper against the Treacherous.
For the music director; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

<sup>4</sup>Who have said, “With our tongue we will prevail; Our lips are our own; who is lord over us?”

<sup>5</sup>“Because of the devastation of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy, Now I will arise,” says the LORD; “I will put him in the safety for which he longs.”

Psalms 13

Prayer for Help in Trouble.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>How long, LORD? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

<sup>2</sup>How long am I to feel anxious in my soul, With grief in my heart all the day? How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

<sup>3</sup>Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; Enlighten my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death, <sup>4</sup>And my enemy will say, “I have overcome him,” And my adversaries will rejoice when I am shaken.

<sup>6</sup>I will sing to the LORD, Because He has looked after me.

Psalms 14

Foolishness and Wickedness of People.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt, they have committed detestable acts; There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD has looked down from heaven upon the sons of mankind To see if there are any who understand, Who seek God.

<sup>3</sup>They have all turned aside, together they are corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one.

<sup>7</sup>Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of His people, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

Psalms 15

Description of a Citizen of Zion. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, who may reside in Your tent? Who may settle on Your holy hill?

<sup>4</sup>A despicable person is despised in his eyes, But he honors those who fear the LORD; He takes an oath to his own detriment, and does not change;

<sup>5</sup>He does not lend his money at interest, Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. One who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalms 16

The LORD, the Psalmist’s Portion in Life and Salvation in Death. A Mikhtam of David.

<sup>3</sup>As for the saints who are on the earth, They are the majestic ones; all my delight is in them.

<sup>4</sup>The pains of those who have acquired another god will be multiplied; I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, Nor will I take their names upon my lips.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and my cup; You support my lot.

<sup>7</sup>I will bless the LORD who has advised me; Indeed, my mind instructs me in the night.

<sup>8</sup>I have set the LORD continually before me; Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore my heart is glad and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will dwell securely.

<sup>10</sup>For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol; You will not allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.

<sup>11</sup>You will make known to me the way of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; In Your right hand there are pleasures forever.

Psalms 17

Prayer for Protection against Oppressors. A Prayer of David.

<sup>3</sup>You have put my heart to the test; You have visited me by night; You have sifted me and You find nothing; My intent is that my mouth will not offend.

<sup>4</sup>As for the works of mankind, by the word of Your lips I have kept from the ways of the violent.

<sup>6</sup>I have called upon You, for You will answer me, God; Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.

<sup>11</sup>They have now surrounded us in our steps; They set their eyes to cast us down to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>As for me, I shall behold Your face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied with Your likeness when I awake.

Psalms 18

The LORD Praised for Rescuing David.

For the music director. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said,

<sup>2</sup>The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my savior, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

<sup>3</sup>I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies.

<sup>6</sup>In my distress I called upon the LORD, And cried to my God for help; He heard my voice from His temple, And my cry for help before Him came into His ears.

<sup>7</sup>Then the earth shook and quaked; And the foundations of the mountains were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry.

<sup>17</sup>He saved me from my strong enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.

<sup>18</sup>They confronted me in the day of my disaster, But the LORD was my support.

<sup>19</sup>He also brought me out into an open place; He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me.

<sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD, And have not acted wickedly against my God.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore the LORD has repaid me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

<sup>29</sup>For by You I can run at a troop of warriors; And by my God I can leap over a wall.

<sup>30</sup>As for God, His way is blameless; The word of the LORD is refined; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

<sup>31</sup>For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God,

<sup>33</sup>He makes my feet like deer's feet, And sets me up on my high places.

<sup>37</sup>I pursued my enemies and overtook them, And I did not turn back until they were consumed.

<sup>38</sup>I shattered them, so that they were not able to rise; They fell under my feet.

<sup>39</sup>For You have encircled me with strength for battle; You have forced those who rose up against me to bow down under me.

<sup>40</sup>You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, And I destroyed those who hated me.

<sup>41</sup>They cried for help, but there was no one to save, They cried to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

<sup>42</sup>Then I beat them fine like the dust before the wind; I emptied them out like the mud of the streets.

<sup>43</sup>You have rescued me from the contentions of the people; You have placed me as head of the nations; A people whom I have not known serve me.

<sup>49</sup>Therefore I will give thanks to You among the nations, LORD, And I will sing praises to Your name.

Psalms 19

The Works and the Word of God.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>4</sup>Their line has gone out into all the earth, And their words to the end of the world. In them He has placed a tent for the sun,

<sup>13</sup>Also keep Your servant back from presumptuous sins; Let them not rule over me; Then I will be innocent, And I will be blameless of great wrongdoing.

<sup>14</sup>May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in Your sight, LORD, my rock and my Redeemer.

Psalms 20

Prayer for Victory over Enemies.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>May the LORD answer you on a day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you!

<sup>5</sup>We will sing for joy over your victory, And in the name of our God we will set up our banners. May the LORD fulfill all your desires.

Psalms 21

Praise for Salvation.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, in Your strength the king will be glad, And in Your salvation how greatly he will rejoice!

<sup>9</sup>You will make them as a fiery oven in the time of your anger; The LORD will swallow them up in His wrath, And fire will devour them.

<sup>12</sup>For You will make them turn their back; You will take aim at their faces with Your bowstrings.

Psalms 22

A Cry of Anguish and a Song of Praise.

For the music director; upon Aijelesh Hashshahar. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Far from my help are the words of my groaning.

<sup>8</sup>“Turn him over to the LORD; let Him save him; Let Him rescue him, because He delights in him.”

<sup>9</sup>Yet You are He who brought me forth from the womb; You made me trust when upon my mother’s breasts.

<sup>10</sup>I was cast upon You from birth; You have been my God from my mother’s womb.

<sup>14</sup>I am poured out like water, And all my bones are out of joint; My heart is like wax; It is melted within me.

<sup>16</sup>For dogs have surrounded me; A band of evildoers has encompassed me; They pierced my hands and my feet.

<sup>19</sup>But You, LORD, do not be far away; You who are my help, hurry to my assistance.

<sup>22</sup>I will proclaim Your name to my brothers; In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.

<sup>23</sup>You who fear the LORD, praise Him; All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him, And stand in awe of Him, all you descendants of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>For He has not despised nor scorned the suffering of the afflicted; Nor has He hidden His face from him; But when he cried to Him for help, He heard.

<sup>25</sup>From You comes my praise in the great assembly; I shall pay my vows before those who fear Him.

<sup>26</sup>The afflicted will eat and be satisfied; Those who seek Him will praise the LORD. May your heart live forever!

<sup>27</sup>All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, And all the families of the nations will worship before You.

<sup>29</sup>All the prosperous of the earth will eat and worship, All those who go down to the dust will kneel before Him, Even he who cannot keep his soul alive.

<sup>30</sup>A posterity will serve Him; It will be told of the Lord to the coming generation.

<sup>31</sup>They will come and will declare His righteousness To a people who will be born, that He has performed it.

Psalms 23

The LORD, the Psalmist's Shepherd.
A Psalm of David.

<sup>4</sup>Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows.

<sup>6</sup>Certainly goodness and faithfulness will follow me all the days of my life, And my dwelling will be in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalms 24

The King of Glory Entering Zion.
A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The earth is the LORD's, and all it contains, The world, and those who live in it.

<sup>3</sup>Who may ascend onto the hill of the LORD? And who may stand in His holy place?

<sup>4</sup>One who has clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not lifted up his soul to deceit And has not sworn deceitfully.

<sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates, And be lifted up, you ancient doors, That the King of glory may come in!

<sup>8</sup>Who is the King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, The LORD mighty in battle.

<sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates, And lift them up, you ancient doors, That the King of glory may come in!

<sup>10</sup>Who is this King of glory? The LORD of armies, He is the King of glory.Selah

Psalms 25

Prayer for Protection, Guidance, and Pardon. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, none of those who wait for You will be ashamed; Those who deal treacherously without cause will be ashamed.

<sup>5</sup>Lead me in Your truth and teach me, For You are the God of my salvation; For You I wait all the day.

<sup>7</sup>Do not remember the sins of my youth or my wrongdoings; Remember me according to Your faithfulness, For Your goodness' sake, LORD.

<sup>14</sup>The secret of the LORD is for those who fear Him, And He will make them know His covenant.

<sup>20</sup>Guard my soul and save me; Do not let me be ashamed, for I take refuge in You.

Psalms 26

Protestation of Integrity and Prayer for Protection. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, And I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

<sup>6</sup> I will wash my hands in innocence, And I will go around Your altar, LORD,

<sup>9</sup> Do not take my soul away along with sinners, Nor my life with men of bloodshed,

<sup>11</sup> But as for me, I will walk in my integrity; Redeem me, and be gracious to me.

<sup>12</sup> My foot stands on level ground; In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalms 27

A Psalm of Fearless Trust in God. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my light and my salvation; Whom should I fear? The LORD is the defense of my life; Whom should I dread?

<sup>2</sup> When evildoers came upon me to devour my flesh, My adversaries and my enemies, they stumbled and fell.

<sup>3</sup> If an army encamps against me, My heart will not fear; If war arises against me, In spite of this I am confident.

<sup>4</sup>One thing I have asked from the LORD, that I shall seek: That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, To behold the beauty of the LORD And to meditate in His temple.

<sup>5</sup>For on the day of trouble He will conceal me in His tabernacle; He will hide me in the secret place of His tent; He will lift me up on a rock.

<sup>6</sup>And now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me, And I will offer sacrifices in His tent with shouts of joy; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Hear, LORD, when I cry with my voice, And be gracious to me and answer me.

<sup>8</sup>When You said, “Seek My face,” my heart said to You, “I shall seek Your face, LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>Do not hide Your face from me, Do not turn Your servant away in anger; You have been my help; Do not abandon me nor forsake me, God of my salvation!

<sup>10</sup>For my father and my mother have forsaken me, But the LORD will take me up.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me Your way, LORD, And lead me on a level path Because of my enemies.

<sup>13</sup>I certainly believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD In the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>Wait for the LORD; Be strong and let your heart take courage; Yes, wait for the LORD.

Psalms 28

A Prayer for Help, and Praise for Its Answer.
A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To You, LORD, I call; My rock, do not be deaf to me, For if You are silent to me, I will become like those who go down to the pit.

<sup>2</sup>Hear the sound of my pleadings when I cry to You for help, When I raise my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.

<sup>4</sup>Give back to them according to their work and according to the evil of their practices; Give back to them according to the work of their hands; Repay them what is due them.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD, Because He has heard the sound of my pleading.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is my strength and my shield; My heart trusts in Him, and I am helped; Therefore my heart triumphs, And with my song I shall thank Him.

<sup>9</sup>Save Your people and bless Your inheritance; Be their shepherd also, and carry them forever.

Psalms 29

The Voice of the LORD in the Storm. A Psalm of David.

Psalms 30

Thanksgiving for Rescue from Death.

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will exalt You, LORD, for You have lifted me up, And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

<sup>2</sup>LORD my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed me.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, You have brought up my soul from Sheol; You have kept me alive, that I would not go down to the pit.

<sup>7</sup>LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain to stand strong; You hid Your face, I was dismayed.

<sup>8</sup>To You, LORD, I called, And to the Lord I pleaded for compassion:

<sup>9</sup>“What gain is there in my blood, if I go down to the pit? Will the dust praise You? Will it declare Your faithfulness?

<sup>11</sup>You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; You have untied my sackcloth and encircled me with joy, <sup>12</sup>That my soul may sing praise to You and not be silent. LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalms 31

A Psalm of Complaint and of Praise.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>In You, LORD, I have taken refuge; Let me never be put to shame; In Your righteousness rescue me.

<sup>2</sup>Incline Your ear to me, rescue me quickly; Be a rock of strength for me, A stronghold to save me.

<sup>3</sup>For You are my rock and my fortress; For the sake of Your name You will lead me and guide me.

<sup>4</sup>You will pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me, For You are my strength.

<sup>5</sup>Into Your hand I entrust my spirit; You have redeemed me, LORD, God of truth.

<sup>6</sup>I hate those who devote themselves to worthless idols, But I trust in the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>I will rejoice and be glad in Your faithfulness, Because You have seen my misery; You have known the troubles of my soul, <sup>8</sup>And You have not handed me over to the enemy; You have set my feet in a large place.

<sup>9</sup>Be gracious to me, LORD, for I am in distress; My eye is wasted away from grief, my soul and my body too.

<sup>10</sup>For my life is spent with sorrow And my years with sighing; My strength has failed because of my guilt, And my body has wasted away.

<sup>11</sup>Because of all my adversaries, I have become a disgrace, Especially to my neighbors, And an object of dread to my acquaintances; Those who see me in the street flee from me.

<sup>14</sup>But as for me, I trust in You, LORD, I say, “You are my God.”

<sup>19</sup>How great is Your goodness, Which You have stored up for those who fear You, Which You have performed for those who take refuge in You, Before the sons of mankind!

<sup>21</sup>Blessed be the LORD, For He has shown His marvelous faithfulness to me in a besieged city.

<sup>22</sup>As for me, I said in my alarm, “I am cut off from Your eyes”; Nevertheless You heard the sound of my pleadings When I called to You for help.

Psalms 32

Blessedness of Forgiveness and of Trust in God. A Psalm of David. A Maskil.

And in whose spirit there is no deceit!

<sup>3</sup>When I kept silent about my sin, my body wasted away Through my groaning all day long.

<sup>4</sup>For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; My vitality failed as with the dry heat of summer.Selah

<sup>5</sup>I acknowledged my sin to You, And I did not hide my guilt; I said, "I will confess my wrongdoings to the LORD"; And You forgave the guilt of my sin.Selah

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found; Certainly in a flood of great waters, they will not reach him.

<sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place; You keep me from trouble; You surround me with songs of deliverance.Selah

<sup>8</sup>I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go; I will advise you with My eye upon you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be like the horse or like the mule, which have no understanding, Whose trappings include bit and bridle to hold them in check, Otherwise they will not come near to you.

<sup>10</sup>The sorrows of the wicked are many, But the one who trusts in the LORD, goodness will surround him.

<sup>11</sup>Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous ones; And shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalms 33

Praise to the Creator and Protector.

<sup>22</sup>Let Your favor, LORD, be upon us, Just as we have waited for You.

Psalms 34

The LORD, a Provider and the One Who Rescues Me.

A Psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

<sup>9</sup>Fear the LORD, you His saints; For to those who fear Him there is no lack of anything.

<sup>10</sup>The young lions do without and suffer hunger; But they who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.

<sup>21</sup>Evil will bring death to the wicked, And those who hate the righteous will suffer for their guilt.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD redeems the souls of His servants, And none of those who take refuge in Him will suffer for their guilt.

Psalms 35

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies.
A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>Draw also the spear and the battle-axe to meet those who pursue me; Say to my soul, "I am your salvation."

<sup>8</sup>Let destruction come upon him when he is unaware, And let the net which he hid catch him; Let him fall into that very destruction.

<sup>10</sup>All my bones will say, "LORD, who is like You, Who rescues the afflicted from one who is too strong for him, And the afflicted and the poor from one who robs him?"

<sup>13</sup>But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth; I humbled my soul with fasting, But my prayer kept returning to me.

<sup>14</sup>I went about as though it were my friend or brother; I bowed down in mourning, like one who mourns for a mother.

The afflicted people whom I did not know gathered together against me,
They slandered me without ceasing.

only life from the lions.

<sup>18</sup>I will give You thanks in the great congregation; I will praise You among a mighty people.

<sup>19</sup>Do not let those who are wrongfully my enemies rejoice over me; Nor let those who hate me for no reason wink maliciously.

<sup>20</sup>For they do not speak peace, But they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.

<sup>21</sup>They opened their mouth wide against me; They said, “Aha, aha! Our eyes have seen it!”

<sup>23</sup>Stir Yourself, and awake to my right And to my cause, my God and my Lord.

<sup>24</sup>Judge me, LORD my God, according to Your righteousness, And do not let them rejoice over me.

“We have swallowed him up!”

<sup>26</sup>May those be ashamed and altogether humiliated who rejoice at my distress; May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor.

<sup>27</sup>May those shout for joy and rejoice, who take delight in my vindication;
And may they say continually, “The LORD be exalted, Who delights in the prosperity of His servant.”

Psalms 36

Wickedness of Humanity and Goodness of God.
For the music director. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>May the foot of pride not come upon me, And may the hand of the wicked not drive me away.

<sup>12</sup>Those who do injustice have fallen there; They have been thrust down and cannot rise.

Psalms 37

Security of Those Who Trust in the LORD, and Insecurity of the Wicked. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup>Do not get upset because of evildoers, Do not be envious of wrongdoers.
- <sup>2</sup>For they will wither quickly like the grass, And decay like the green plants.
- <sup>3</sup>Trust in the LORD and do good; Live in the land and cultivate faithfulness.
- <sup>4</sup>Delight yourself in the LORD; And He will give you the desires of your heart.
- <sup>5</sup>Commit your way to the LORD, Trust also in Him, and He will do it.
- <sup>6</sup>He will bring out your righteousness as the light, And your judgment as the noonday.
- <sup>7</sup>Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; Do not get upset because of one who is successful in his way, Because of the person who carries out wicked schemes.
- <sup>8</sup>Cease from anger and abandon wrath; Do not get upset; it leads only to evildoing.
- <sup>9</sup>For evildoers will be eliminated, But those who wait for the LORD, they will inherit the land.
- <sup>10</sup>Yet a little while and the wicked person will be no more; And you will look carefully for his place and he will not be there.
- <sup>11</sup>But the humble will inherit the land And will delight themselves in abundant prosperity.
- <sup>12</sup>The wicked plots against the righteous, And gnashes at him with his teeth.
- <sup>13</sup>The Lord laughs at him, For He sees that his day is coming.
- <sup>14</sup>The wicked have drawn the sword and bent their bow To take down the afflicted and the needy, To kill off those who are upright in conduct.
- <sup>15</sup>Their sword will enter their own heart, And their bows will be broken.
- <sup>16</sup>Better is the little of the righteous Than the abundance of many wicked.

<sup>19</sup>They will not be ashamed in the time of evil, And in the days of famine they will have plenty.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked will perish; And the enemies of the LORD will be like the glory of the pastures, They vanish—like smoke they vanish away.

<sup>22</sup>For those blessed by Him will inherit the land, But those cursed by Him will be eliminated.

<sup>34</sup>Wait for the LORD and keep His way, And He will exalt you to inherit the land; When the wicked are eliminated, you will see it.

<sup>36</sup>Then he passed away, and behold, he was no more; I searched for him, but he could not be found.

<sup>38</sup>But wrongdoers will altogether be destroyed; The future of the wicked will be eliminated.

<sup>39</sup>But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; He is their strength in time of trouble.

<sup>40</sup>The LORD helps them and rescues them; He rescues them from the wicked and saves them, Because they take refuge in Him.

Psalms 38

Prayer of a Suffering Penitent. A Psalm of David, for a memorial.

<sup>3</sup>There is no healthy part in my flesh because of Your indignation; There is no health in my bones because of my sin.

<sup>8</sup>I feel faint and badly crushed; I groan because of the agitation of my heart.

<sup>10</sup>My heart throbs, my strength fails me; And the light of my eyes, even that has gone from me.

<sup>12</sup>Those who seek my life lay snares for me; And those who seek to injure me have threatened destruction, And they plot deception all day long.

<sup>13</sup>But I, like a person who is deaf, do not hear; And I am like a person who cannot speak, who does not open his mouth.

<sup>14</sup>Yes, I am like a person who does not hear, And in whose mouth are no arguments.

<sup>15</sup>For I wait for You, LORD; You will answer, Lord my God.

<sup>16</sup>For I said, "May they not rejoice over me, Who, when my foot slips, would exalt themselves over me."

Psalms 39

The Futility of Life.

For the music director, for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I said, "I will keep watch over my ways So that I do not sin with my tongue; I will keep watch over my mouth as with a muzzle While the wicked are in my presence."

<sup>2</sup>I was mute and silent, I refused to say even something good, And my pain was stirred up.

<sup>3</sup>My heart was hot within me, While I was musing the fire burned; Then I spoke with my tongue:

<sup>4</sup>"LORD, let me know my end, And what is the extent of my days; Let me know how transient I am.

<sup>7</sup>"And now, Lord, for what do I wait? My hope is in You.

<sup>12</sup>"Hear my prayer, LORD, and listen to my cry for help; Do not be silent to my tears; For I am a stranger with You, One who lives abroad, like all my fathers.

<sup>13</sup>“Turn Your eyes away from me, that I may become cheerful again Before I depart and am no more.”

Psalms 40

God Sustains His Servant.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for the LORD; And He reached down to me and heard my cry.

<sup>2</sup>He brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the mud; And He set my feet on a rock, making my footsteps firm.

<sup>3</sup>He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; Many will see and fear And will trust in the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>How blessed is the man who has made the LORD his trust, And has not turned to the proud, nor to those who become involved in falsehood.

<sup>5</sup>Many, LORD my God, are the wonders which You have done, And Your thoughts toward us; There is no one to compare with You. If I would declare and speak of them, They would be too numerous to count.

<sup>6</sup>You have not desired sacrifice and meal offering; You have opened my ears; You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.

<sup>8</sup>“I delight to do Your will, my God; Your Law is within my heart.”

<sup>10</sup>I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have spoken of Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your mercy and Your truth from the great congregation.

<sup>11</sup>You, LORD, will not withhold Your compassion from me; Your mercy and Your truth will continually watch over me.

<sup>12</sup>For evils beyond number have surrounded me; My guilty deeds have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see; They are more numerous than the hairs of my head, And my heart has failed me.

<sup>14</sup>May those be ashamed and humiliated together Who seek my life to destroy it; May those be turned back and dishonored Who delight in my hurt.

<sup>16</sup>May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; May those who love Your salvation continually say, “The LORD be exalted!”

<sup>17</sup>But I am afflicted and needy; May the Lord be mindful of me. You are my help and my savior; Do not delay, my God.

Psalms 41

The Psalmist in Sickness Complains of Enemies and False Friends.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD will protect him and keep him alive, And he will be called blessed upon the earth; And do not turn him over to the desire of his enemies.

<sup>4</sup>As for me, I said, “LORD, be gracious to me; Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You.”

<sup>6</sup>And when he comes to see me, he speaks empty words; His heart gathers wickedness to itself; When he goes outside, he tells it.

<sup>8</sup>“A wicked thing is poured out upon him, So that when he lies down, he will not get up again.”

<sup>9</sup>Even my close friend in whom I trusted, Who ate my bread, Has lifted up his heel against me.

<sup>10</sup>But You, LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up, That I may repay them.

<sup>11</sup>By this I know that You are pleased with me, Because my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup>As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, And You place me in Your presence forever.

BOOK 2

Thirsting for God in Trouble and Exile.

For the music director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

<sup>2</sup>My soul thirsts for God, for the living God; When shall I come and appear before God?

<sup>3</sup>My tears have been my food day and night, While they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

<sup>4</sup>I remember these things and pour out my soul within me. For I used to go over with the multitude and walk them to the house of God, With a voice of joy and thanksgiving, a multitude celebrating a festival.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul? And why are you restless within me? Wait for God, for I will again praise Him For the help of His presence, my God.

<sup>7</sup>Deep calls to deep at the sound of Your waterfalls; All Your breakers and Your waves have passed over me.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will send His goodness in the daytime; And His song will be with me in the night, A prayer to the God of my life.

<sup>9</sup>I will say to God my rock, “Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”

<sup>10</sup>As a shattering of my bones, my adversaries taunt me, While they say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

<sup>11</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul? And why are you restless within me? Wait for God, for I will again praise Him For the help of His presence, my God.

Psalms 43

Prayer for Help.

<sup>1</sup>Vindicate me, God, and plead my case against an ungodly nation; Save me from the deceitful and unjust person!

<sup>2</sup>For You are the God of my strength; why have You rejected me? Why do I go about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

<sup>3</sup>Send out Your light and Your truth, they shall lead me; They shall bring me to Your holy hill And to Your dwelling places.

<sup>4</sup>Then I will go to the altar of God, To God my exceeding joy; And I will praise You on the lyre, God, my God.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul? And why are you restless within me? Wait for God, for I will again praise Him For the help of His presence, my God.

Psalms 44

Former Times of Help and Present Troubles.

For the music director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>God, we have heard with our ears, Our fathers have told us The work that You did in their days, In the days of old.

<sup>3</sup>For by their own sword they did not possess the land, And their own arm did not save them, But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence, For You favored them.

<sup>5</sup>Through You we will push back our adversaries; Through Your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.

<sup>6</sup>For I will not trust in my bow, Nor will my sword save me.

<sup>7</sup>But You have saved us from our adversaries, And You have put to shame those who hate us.

<sup>8</sup>In God we have boasted all day long, And we will give thanks to Your name forever.Selah

<sup>9</sup>Yet You have rejected us and brought us to dishonor, And do not go out with our armies.

<sup>10</sup>You cause us to turn back from the enemy; And those who hate us have taken spoils for themselves.

<sup>13</sup>You make us an object of reproach to our neighbors, Of scoffing and ridicule to those around us.

<sup>16</sup>Because of the voice of one who taunts and reviles, Because of the presence of the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>17</sup>All this has come upon us, but we have not forgotten You, And we have not dealt falsely with Your covenant.

<sup>18</sup>Our heart has not turned back, And our steps have not deviated from Your way,

<sup>20</sup>If we had forgotten the name of our God Or extended our hands to a strange god,

<sup>22</sup>But for Your sake we are killed all day long; We are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.

Psalms 45

A Song Celebrating the King's Marriage.

For the music director; according to the Shoshannim. A Maskil of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is moved with a good theme; I address my verses to the King; My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

<sup>12</sup>The daughter of Tyre will come with a gift; The wealthy among the people will seek your favor.

<sup>14</sup>She will be brought to the King in colorful garments; The virgins, her companions who follow her, Will be brought to You.

<sup>16</sup>In place of your fathers will be your sons; You shall make them princes in all the earth.

<sup>17</sup>I will make Your name known among all generations; Therefore the peoples will praise You forever and ever.

Psalms 46

God, the Refuge of His People.

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah, set to Alamoth. A Song.

<sup>9</sup>He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariots with fire.

<sup>10</sup>“Stop striving and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD of armies is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold.Selah

Psalms 47

God, the King of the Earth.

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>2</sup>For the LORD Most High is to be feared, A great King over all the earth.
- <sup>3</sup>He subdues peoples under us And nations under our feet.
- <sup>4</sup>He chooses our inheritance for us, The pride of Jacob whom He loves.Selah
- <sup>5</sup>God has ascended with a shout, The LORD, with the sound of a trumpet.
- <sup>6</sup>Sing praises to God, sing praises; Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
- <sup>7</sup>For God is the King of all the earth; Sing praises with a psalm of wisdom.
- <sup>8</sup>God reigns over the nations, God sits on His holy throne.
- <sup>9</sup>The princes of the people have assembled as the people of the God of Abraham, For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is highly exalted.

Psalms 48

The Beauty and Glory of Zion. A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup>Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised In the city of our God, His holy mountain.
- <sup>2</sup>Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, Is Mount Zion in the far north, The city of the great King.
- <sup>3</sup>In its palaces, God has made Himself known as a stronghold.
- <sup>4</sup>For, behold, the kings arrived, They passed by together.
- <sup>5</sup>They saw it, then they were amazed; They were terrified, they fled in a hurry.
- <sup>6</sup>Panic seized them there, Anguish, as that of a woman in childbirth.
- <sup>7</sup>With the east wind You smash the ships of Tarshish.
- <sup>8</sup>Just as we have heard, so have we seen In the city of the LORD of armies, in the city of our God; God will establish her forever.Selah
- <sup>9</sup>We have thought over Your goodness, God, In the midst of Your temple.

<sup>14</sup>For such is God, Our God forever and ever; He will lead us until death.

Psalms 49

The Foolishness of Trusting in Riches.
For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>3</sup>My mouth will speak wisdom, And the meditation of my heart will be understanding.

<sup>4</sup>I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will express my riddle on the harp.

<sup>5</sup>Why should I fear in days of adversity, When the injustice of those who betray me surrounds me,

<sup>13</sup>This is the way of those who are foolish, And of those after them who approve their words.Selah

<sup>14</sup>Like sheep they sink down to Sheol; Death will be their shepherd; And the upright will rule over them in the morning, And their form shall be for Sheol to consume So that they have no lofty home.

<sup>15</sup>But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, For He will receive me.Selah

Psalms 50

God, the Judge of the Righteous and the Wicked. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>7</sup>“Hear, My people, and I will speak; Israel, I will testify against you; I am God, your God.

<sup>15</sup>Call upon Me on the day of trouble; I will rescue you, and you will honor Me.”

<sup>16</sup>But to the wicked God says, “What right do you have to tell of My statutes And to take My covenant in your mouth?

<sup>21</sup>“These things you have done and I kept silent; You thought that I was just like you; I will rebuke you and present the case before your eyes.

<sup>22</sup>“Now consider this, you who forget God, Or I will tear you in pieces, and there will be no one to save you.

<sup>23</sup>“He who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving honors Me; And to him who sets his way properly I will show the salvation of God.”

Psalms 51

A Contrite Sinner's Prayer for Pardon.

For the music director. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

<sup>4</sup>Against You, You only, I have sinned And done what is evil in Your sight, So that You are justified when You speak And blameless when You judge.

<sup>5</sup>Behold, I was brought forth in guilt, And in sin my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup>Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, And in secret You will make wisdom known to me.

<sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean; Cleanse me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>13</sup> Then I will teach wrongdoers Your ways, And sinners will be converted to You.

<sup>14</sup> Save me from the guilt of bloodshed, God, the God of my salvation; Then my tongue will joyfully sing of Your righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices, In burnt offering and whole burnt offering; Then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Psalms 52

Futility of Boastful Wickedness.

For the music director. A Maskil of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

<sup>5</sup> But God will break you down forever; He will snatch you up and tear you away from your tent, And uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

<sup>7</sup> "Behold, the man who would not make God his refuge, But trusted in the abundance of his riches And was strong in his evil desire."

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the faithfulness of God forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup>I will praise You forever, because You have done it, And I will wait on Your name, for it is good, in the presence of Your godly ones.

Psalms 53

Foolishness and Wickedness of People.
For the music director; according to Mahalath. A Maskil of David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and have committed abominable injustice; There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup>God has looked down from heaven upon the sons of mankind To see if there is anyone who understands, Who seeks after God.

<sup>3</sup>Every one of them has turned aside; together they have become corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one.

<sup>4</sup>Have the workers of injustice no knowledge, Who eat up My people like they ate bread, And have not called upon God?

<sup>5</sup>They were in great fear there, where no fear had been; For God scattered the bones of him who encamped against you; You put them to shame, because God had rejected them.

<sup>6</sup>Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion! When God restores the fortunes of His people, Jacob shall rejoice, Israel shall be glad.

Psalms 54

Prayer for Defense against Enemies.
For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Is David not keeping himself hidden among us?"

<sup>3</sup>For strangers have risen against me And violent men have sought my life; They have not set God before them. Selah

- <sup>4</sup>Behold, God is my helper; The Lord is the sustainer of my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> He will pay back the evil to my enemies; Destroy them in Your faithfulness.
- <sup>6</sup>Willingly I will sacrifice to You; I will praise Your name, LORD, for it is good.
- <sup>7</sup>For He has saved me from all trouble, And my eye has looked with satisfaction upon my enemies.

Psalms 55

Prayer for the Destruction of the Treacherous.
For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

- <sup>1</sup>Listen to my prayer, God; And do not hide Yourself from my pleading.
- <sup>2</sup>Give Your attention to me and answer me; I am restless in my complaint and severely distracted,
- <sup>3</sup>Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the pressure of the wicked; For they bring down trouble upon me And in anger they hold a grudge against me.
- <sup>4</sup>My heart is in anguish within me, And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
- <sup>5</sup>Fear and trembling come upon me, And horror has overwhelmed me.
- <sup>6</sup>I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest.
- <sup>7</sup>"Behold, I would flee far away, I would spend my nights in the wilderness.Selah
- <sup>8</sup>"I would hurry to my place of refuge From the stormy wind and heavy gale."
- <sup>9</sup>Confuse them, Lord, divide their tongues, For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
- <sup>10</sup>Day and night they go around her upon her walls, And evil and harm are in her midst.
- <sup>11</sup>Destruction is in her midst; Oppression and deceit do not depart from her streets.

<sup>12</sup>For it is not an enemy who taunts me, Then I could endure it; Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself against me, Then I could hide myself from him.

<sup>13</sup>But it is you, a man my equal, My companion and my confidant;

<sup>15</sup> May death come deceitfully upon them; May they go down alive to Sheol, For evil is in their dwelling, in their midst.

<sup>16</sup>As for me, I shall call upon God, And the LORD will save me.

<sup>17</sup>Evening and morning and at noon, I will complain and moan, And He will hear my voice.

<sup>18</sup>He will redeem my soul in peace from the battle which is against me, For they are many who are aggressive toward me.

<sup>19</sup>God will hear and humiliate them— Even the one who sits enthroned from ancient times—Selah With whom there is no change, And who do not fear God.

<sup>21</sup>His speech was smoother than butter, But his heart was war; His words were softer than oil, Yet they were drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup>Cast your burden upon the LORD and He will sustain you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

<sup>23</sup>But You, God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; Men of bloodshed and deceit will not live out half their days. But I will trust in You.

Psalms 56

Pleading for Help and Grateful Trust in God.

For the music director; according to Jonath elem rehokim. A Mikhtam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup>Be gracious to me, God, for a man has trampled upon me; Fighting all day long he oppresses me.

<sup>2</sup>My enemies have trampled upon me all day long, For they are many who fight proudly against me.

<sup>3</sup> When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You.

<sup>4</sup>In God, whose word I praise, In God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?

<sup>7</sup>Because of their wickedness, will there be an escape for them? In anger make the peoples fall down, God!

<sup>8</sup>You have taken account of my miseries; Put my tears in Your bottle. Are they not in Your book?

<sup>9</sup>Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call; This I know, that God is for me.

<sup>10</sup>In God, whose word I praise, In the LORD, whose word I praise, <sup>11</sup>In God I have put my trust, I shall not be afraid. What can mankind do to me?

<sup>12</sup>Your vows are binding upon me, God; I will render thanksgiving offerings to You.

<sup>13</sup>For You have saved my soul from death, Indeed my feet from stumbling, So that I may walk before God In the light of the living.

Psalms 57

Prayer for Rescue from Persecutors.

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>Be gracious to me, God, be gracious to me, For my soul takes refuge in You;
And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge Until destruction passes by.

<sup>2</sup>I will cry to God Most High, To God who accomplishes all things for me.

<sup>3</sup>He will send from heaven and save me; He rebukes the one who tramples upon me. Selah God will send His favor and His truth.

<sup>4</sup>My soul is among lions; I must lie among those who devour, Among sons of mankind whose teeth are spears and arrows, And their tongue is a sharp sword.

<sup>6</sup>They have prepared a net for my steps; My soul is bowed down; They dug a pit before me; They themselves have fallen into the midst of it. Selah

<sup>7</sup>My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises!

<sup>8</sup>Awake, my glory! Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

<sup>9</sup>I will praise You, Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to You among the nations.

Psalms 58

Prayer for the Punishment of the Wicked.

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David.

<sup>1</sup>Do you indeed speak righteousness, you gods? Do you judge fairly, you sons of mankind?

<sup>2</sup>No, in heart you practice injustice; On earth you clear a way for the violence of your hands.

<sup>8</sup> May they be like a snail which goes along in slime, Like the miscarriage of a woman that never sees the sun.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous will rejoice when he sees vengeance; He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>And people will say, “There certainly is a reward for the righteous; There certainly is a God who judges on the earth!”

Psalms 59

Prayer for Rescue from Enemies.

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when Saul sent men and they watched the house in order to kill him.

<sup>1</sup>Rescue me from my enemies, my God; Set me securely on high away from those who rise up against me.

<sup>3</sup>For behold, they have set an ambush for my life; Fierce men attack me, Not for my wrongdoing nor for my sin, LORD,

<sup>5</sup> You, LORD God of armies, the God of Israel, Awake to punish all the nations; Do not be gracious to any who deal treacherously in wrongdoing. Selah

<sup>10</sup> My God in His faithfulness will meet me; God will let me look triumphantly upon my enemies.

<sup>11</sup> Do not kill them, or my people will forget; Scatter them by Your power and bring them down, Lord, our shield.

<sup>12</sup> On account of the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips, May they even be caught in their pride, And on account of curses and lies which they tell.

<sup>13</sup> Destroy them in wrath, destroy them so that they will no longer exist; So that people may know that God rules in Jacob, To the ends of the earth. Selah

<sup>16</sup> But as for me, I will sing of Your strength; Yes, I will joyfully sing of Your faithfulness in the morning, For You have been my refuge And a place of refuge on the day of my distress.

<sup>17</sup> My strength, I will sing praises to You; For God is my refuge, the God who shows me favor.

Psalms 60

Grieving over Defeat in Battle, and Prayer for Help.

For the music director; according to Shushan Eduth. A Mikhtam of David, to teach; when he fought with Aram-naharaim and Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>God, You have rejected us. You have broken us; You have been angry; restore us!

<sup>3</sup>You have made Your people experience hardship; You have given us wine to drink that makes us stagger.

<sup>4</sup>You have given a banner to those who fear You, That it may be displayed because of the truth.Selah

<sup>6</sup>God has spoken in His holiness: "I will triumph, I will divide up Shechem, and measure out the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>7</sup>"Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My scepter.

<sup>8</sup>"Moab is My washbowl; I will throw My sandal over Edom; Shout loud, Philistia, because of Me!"

<sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the besieged city? Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup>Have You Yourself not rejected us, God? And will You not go out with our armies, God?

<sup>12</sup> Through God we will do valiantly, And it is He who will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 61

Confidence in God's Protection.

For the music director; on a stringed instrument. A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup>From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart is faint; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

<sup>4</sup>Let me dwell in Your tent forever; Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings.Selah <sup>5</sup>For You have heard my vows, God; You have given me the inheritance of those who fear Your name.

<sup>7</sup>He will sit enthroned before God forever; Appoint faithfulness and truth that they may watch over him.

<sup>8</sup>So I will sing praise to Your name forever, That I may pay my vows day by day.

Psalms 62

God Alone a Refuge from Treachery and Oppression.
For the music director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

<sup>2</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation, My stronghold; I will not be greatly shaken.

<sup>3</sup>How long will you attack a man, That you may murder him, all of you, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

<sup>5</sup>My soul, wait in silence for God alone, For my hope is from Him.

<sup>6</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation, My refuge; I will not be shaken.

<sup>7</sup>My salvation and my glory rest on God; The rock of my strength, my refuge is in God.

<sup>8</sup>Trust in Him at all times, you people; Pour out your hearts before Him; God is a refuge for us.Selah

<sup>11</sup>God has spoken once; Twice I have heard this: That power belongs to God;

<sup>12</sup>And faithfulness is Yours, Lord, For You reward a person according to his work.

Psalms 63

The Thirsting Soul Satisfied in God.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>God, You are my God; I shall be watching for You; My soul thirsts for You, my flesh yearns for You, In a dry and exhausted land where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup>So have I seen You in the sanctuary, To see Your power and glory.

<sup>4</sup>So I will bless You as long as I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name.

<sup>5</sup>My soul is satisfied as with fat and fatness, And my mouth offers praises with joyful lips.

<sup>7</sup>For You have been my help, And in the shadow of Your wings I sing for joy.

<sup>9</sup>But those who seek my life to destroy it, Will go into the depths of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> They will be turned over to the power of the sword; They will be a prey for foxes.

<sup>11</sup>But the king will rejoice in God; Everyone who swears by Him will boast,
For the mouths of those who speak lies will be stopped.

Psalms 64

Prayer for Rescue from Secret Enemies.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my voice, God, in my complaint; Protect my life from dread of the enemy.

<sup>8</sup>So they will make him stumble; Their own tongue is against them; All who see them will shake their heads.

<sup>9</sup>Then all people will fear, And they will declare the work of God, And will consider what He has done.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous person will be glad in the LORD and take refuge in Him; And all the upright in heart will boast.

Psalms 65

God's Abundant Favor to Earth and Mankind.
For the music director. A Psalm of David. A Song.

<sup>1</sup>There will be silence before You, and praise in Zion, God, And the vow will be fulfilled for You.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the one You choose and allow to approach You; He will dwell in Your courtyards. We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, Your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup>By awesome deeds You answer us in righteousness, God of our salvation, You who are the trust of all the ends of the earth and the farthest sea;

<sup>8</sup>They who dwell at the ends of the earth stand in awe of Your signs; You make the sunrise and the sunset shout for joy.

<sup>9</sup>You visit the earth and cause it to overflow; You greatly enrich it; The stream of God is full of water; You prepare their grain, for so You prepare the earth.

<sup>10</sup>You water its furrows abundantly, You settle its ridges, You soften it with showers, You bless its growth.

<sup>13</sup>The meadows are clothed with flocks And the valleys are covered with grain; They shout for joy, yes, they sing.

Psalms 66

Praise for God's Mighty Deeds and for His Answer to Prayer.
For the music director. A Song. A Psalm.

- <sup>1</sup>Shout joyfully to God, all the earth;
- <sup>2</sup>Sing the glory of His name; Make His praise glorious.
- <sup>3</sup>Say to God, "How awesome are Your works! Because of the greatness of Your power Your enemies will pretend to obey You.
- <sup>4</sup>"All the earth will worship You, And will sing praises to You; They will sing praises to Your name."Selah
- <sup>5</sup>Come and see the works of God, Who is awesome in His deeds toward the sons of mankind.
- <sup>6</sup>He turned the sea into dry land; They passed through the river on foot; Let's rejoice there, in Him!
- <sup>7</sup>He rules by His might forever; His eyes keep watch on the nations; The rebellious shall not exalt themselves!Selah
- <sup>8</sup>Bless our God, you peoples, And sound His praise abroad,
- <sup>9</sup>Who keeps us in life, And does not allow our feet to slip.
- <sup>10</sup>For You have put us to the test, God; You have refined us as silver is refined.
- <sup>11</sup>You brought us into the net; You laid an oppressive burden upon us.
- <sup>12</sup>You made men ride over our heads; We went through fire and through water. Yet You brought us out into a place of abundance.
- <sup>13</sup>I shall come into Your house with burnt offerings; I shall pay You my vows,
- <sup>14</sup>Which my lips uttered And my mouth spoke when I was in distress.
- <sup>15</sup>I shall offer to You burnt offerings of fat animals, With the smoke of rams; I shall make an offering of bulls with male goats.Selah
- <sup>16</sup>Come and hear, all who fear God, And I will tell of what He has done for my soul.
- <sup>17</sup>I cried to Him with my mouth, And He was exalted with my tongue.

<sup>18</sup>If I regard wickedness in my heart, The Lord will not hear;
<sup>19</sup>But God has heard; He has given attention to the sound of my prayer.
<sup>20</sup>Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer Nor His favor from me.

Psalms 67

The Nations Exhorted to Praise God.
 For the music director; with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

 Selah
<sup>2</sup>That Your way may be known on the earth, Your salvation among all nations.
<sup>3</sup>May the peoples praise You, God; May all the peoples praise You.
<sup>4</sup>May the nations be glad and sing for joy; For You will judge the peoples with fairness And guide the nations on the earth.Selah
<sup>5</sup>May the peoples praise You, God; May all the peoples praise You.
<sup>6</sup>The earth has yielded its produce; God, our God, blesses us.
<sup>7</sup>God blesses us, So that all the ends of the earth may fear Him.

Psalms 68

The God of Sinai and of the Sanctuary.
 For the music director. A Psalm of David. A Song.

<sup>1</sup> May God arise, may His enemies be scattered, And may those who hate Him flee from His presence.
<sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away, so drive them away; As wax melts before a fire, So the wicked will perish before God.
<sup>3</sup>But the righteous will be joyful; they will rejoice before God; Yes, they will rejoice with gladness.

<sup>6</sup>God makes a home for the lonely; He leads out the prisoners into prosperity, Only the rebellious live in parched lands.

<sup>8</sup>The earth quaked; The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God; Sinai itself quaked at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>The chariots of God are myriads, thousands upon thousands; The Lord is among them as at Sinai, in holiness.

<sup>18</sup>You have ascended on high, You have led captive Your captives; You have received gifts among people, Even among the rebellious as well, that the LORD God may dwell there.

<sup>20</sup>God is to us a God of salvation; And to GOD the Lord belong ways of escape from death.

<sup>21</sup>God certainly will shatter the heads of His enemies, The hairy head of one who goes about in his guilt.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan. I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, <sup>23</sup>So that your foot may shatter them in blood, And the tongue of your dogs may have its portion from your enemies."

<sup>29</sup> Because of Your temple at Jerusalem Kings will bring gifts to You.

<sup>35</sup> God, You are awesome from Your sanctuary. The God of Israel Himself gives strength and power to the people. Blessed be God!

Psalms 69

A Cry of Distress and a Curse on Adversaries.

For the music director; according to Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup> I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched; My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

<sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head; Those who would destroy me are powerful, those who oppose me with lies; What I did not steal, I then have to restore.

<sup>5</sup> God, You know my foolishness, And my guilt is not hidden from You.

<sup>6</sup> May those who wait for You not be ashamed because of me, Lord GOD of armies; May those who seek You not be dishonored because of me, God of Israel,

<sup>8</sup>I have become estranged from my brothers, And a stranger to my mother's sons.

<sup>9</sup>For zeal for Your house has consumed me, And the taunts of those who taunt You have fallen on me.

<sup>12</sup>Those who sit in the gate talk about me, And songs of mockery by those habitually drunk are about me.

<sup>13</sup>But as for me, my prayer is to You, LORD, at an acceptable time; God, in the greatness of Your mercy, Answer me with Your saving truth.

<sup>14</sup>Rescue me from the mud and do not let me sink; May I be rescued from those who hate me, and from the depths of water.

<sup>15</sup>May the flood of water not overflow me Nor the deep swallow me up, Nor the pit close its mouth on me.

<sup>16</sup>Answer me, LORD, for Your mercy is good; According to the greatness of Your compassion, turn to me, <sup>17</sup>And do not hide Your face from Your servant, For I am in distress; answer me quickly.

<sup>18</sup>Come near to my soul and redeem it; Ransom me because of my enemies!

<sup>19</sup>You know my disgrace, my shame, and my dishonor; All my enemies are known to You.

<sup>20</sup>Disgrace has broken my heart, and I am so sick. And I waited for sympathy, but there was none; And for comforters, but I found none.

<sup>21</sup>They also gave me a bitter herb in my food, And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

<sup>26</sup>For they have persecuted him whom You Yourself struck, And they tell of the pain of those whom You have wounded.

<sup>28</sup>May they be wiped out of the book of life, And may they not be recorded with the righteous.

<sup>29</sup>But I am afflicted and in pain; May Your salvation, God, set me safely on high.

<sup>30</sup>I will praise the name of God with song, And exalt Him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup>And it will please the LORD better than an ox Or bull with horns and hoofs.

<sup>35</sup>For God will save Zion and build the cities of Judah, So that they may live there and possess it.

<sup>36</sup>The descendants of His servants will inherit it, And those who love His name will live in it.

Psalms 70

Prayer for Help against Persecutors.
For the music director. A Psalm of David; for a memorial.

- <sup>1</sup>God, hurry to save me; LORD, hurry to help me!
- <sup>2</sup>May those who seek my life Be put to shame and humiliated; May those who delight in my harm Be turned back and dishonored.
- <sup>3</sup>May those who say, “Aha, aha!” be turned back Because of their shame.
- <sup>4</sup>May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; And may those who love Your salvation say continually, “May God be exalted!”
- <sup>5</sup>But I am afflicted and needy; Hurry to me, God! You are my help and my savior; LORD, do not delay.

Psalms 71

Prayer of an Old Man for Rescue.

- <sup>1</sup>In You, LORD, I have taken refuge; Let me never be put to shame.
- <sup>2</sup>In Your righteousness rescue me and save me; Extend Your ear to me and help me.
- <sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock of dwelling to which I may continually come; You have given the commandment to save me, For You are my rock and my fortress.
- <sup>4</sup>Save me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, From the grasp of the wrongdoer and the ruthless,
- <sup>5</sup>For You are my hope; Lord GOD, You are my confidence from my youth.
- <sup>6</sup>I have leaned on You since my birth; You are He who took me from my mother’s womb; My praise is continually of You.
- <sup>7</sup>I have become a marvel to many, For You are my strong refuge.
- <sup>8</sup>My mouth is filled with Your praise And with Your glory all day long.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not cast me away at the time of my old age; Do not abandon me when my strength fails.

<sup>10</sup>For my enemies have spoken against me; And those who watch for my life have consulted together,

<sup>11</sup>Saying, “God has abandoned him; Pursue and seize him, for there is no one to save him.”

<sup>13</sup>May those who are enemies of my soul be put to shame and consumed; May they be covered with disgrace and dishonor, who seek to injure me.

<sup>14</sup>But as for me, I will wait continually, And will praise You yet more and more.

<sup>15</sup>My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness And of Your salvation all day long; For I do not know the art of writing.

<sup>16</sup>I will come with the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD; I will make mention of Your righteousness, Yours alone.

<sup>17</sup>God, You have taught me from my youth, And I still declare Your wondrous deeds.

<sup>18</sup>And even when I am old and gray, God, do not abandon me, Until I declare Your strength to this generation, Your power to all who are to come.

<sup>19</sup>For Your righteousness, God, reaches to the heavens, You who have done great things; God, who is like You?

<sup>20</sup>You who have shown me many troubles and distresses Will revive me again, And will bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

<sup>22</sup>I will also praise You with a harp, And Your truth, my God; I will sing praises to You with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You; And my soul, which You have redeemed.

<sup>24</sup>My tongue also will tell of Your righteousness all day long; For they are put to shame, for they are humiliated who seek my harm.

Psalms 72

The Reign of the Righteous King. A Psalm of Solomon.

<sup>5</sup>May they fear You while the sun shines, And as long as the moon shines, throughout all generations.

<sup>6</sup> May he come down like rain upon the mown grass, Like showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup> May the righteous flourish in his days, As well as an abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.

<sup>8</sup>May he also rule from sea to sea, And from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands bring gifts; May the kings of Sheba and Seba offer tributes.

<sup>12</sup>For he will save the needy when he cries for help, The afflicted also, and him who has no helper.

<sup>13</sup>He will have compassion on the poor and needy, And he will save the lives of the needy.

<sup>14</sup>He will rescue their life from oppression and violence, And their blood will be precious in his sight;

<sup>15</sup>So may he live, and may the gold of Sheba be given to him; And they are to pray for him continually; They are to bless him all day long.

<sup>16</sup>May there be abundance of grain on the earth on top of the mountains; Its fruit will wave like the cedars of Lebanon; And may those from the city flourish like the vegetation of the earth.

<sup>17</sup>May his name endure forever; May his name produce descendants as long as the sun shines; And may people wish blessings on themselves by him; May all nations call him blessed.

BOOK 3

The End of the Wicked Contrasted with That of the Righteous. A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>7</sup>Their eye bulges from fatness; The imaginations of their heart overflow.
- <sup>8</sup>They mock and wickedly speak of oppression; They speak from on high.
- <sup>9</sup>They have set their mouth against the heavens, And their tongue parades through the earth.
- <sup>10</sup>Therefore his people return here, And abundant waters are drunk by them.
- <sup>11</sup>They say, “How does God know? And is there knowledge with the Most High?”
- <sup>12</sup>Behold, these are the wicked; And always at ease, they have increased in wealth.
- <sup>13</sup>Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure And washed my hands in innocence;
- <sup>14</sup>For I have been stricken all day long, And punished every morning.
- <sup>15</sup>If I had said, “I will speak this way,” Behold, I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.
- <sup>16</sup>When I thought of understanding this, It was troublesome in my sight
- <sup>17</sup>Until I entered the sanctuary of God; Then I perceived their end.
- <sup>18</sup>You indeed put them on slippery ground; You dropped them into ruin.
- <sup>19</sup>How they are destroyed in a moment! They are utterly swept away by sudden terrors!
- <sup>20</sup>Like a dream when one awakes, Lord, when stirred, You will despise their image.
- <sup>21</sup>When my heart was embittered And I was pierced within,
- <sup>22</sup>Then I was stupid and ignorant; I was like an animal before You.
- <sup>23</sup>Nevertheless I am continually with You; You have taken hold of my right hand.
- <sup>24</sup>You will guide me with Your plan, And afterward receive me to glory.

<sup>25</sup>Whom do I have in heaven but You? And with You, I desire nothing on earth.

<sup>26</sup>My flesh and my heart may fail, But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

<sup>27</sup>For, behold, those who are far from You will perish; You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to You.

<sup>28</sup>But as for me, the nearness of God is good for me; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, So that I may tell of all Your works.

Psalms 74

An Appeal against the Devastation of the Land by the Enemy. A Maskil of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

<sup>8</sup>They said in their heart, "Let's completely subdue them." They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

<sup>9</sup>We do not see our signs; There is no longer any prophet, Nor is there anyone among us who knows how long.

<sup>10</sup>How long, God, will the enemy taunt You? Shall the enemy treat Your name disrespectfully forever?

<sup>12</sup>Yet God is my King from long ago, Who performs acts of salvation in the midst of the earth.

<sup>14</sup>You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

Psalms 75

God humbles the Proud, but Exalts the Righteous.
For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

<sup>1</sup>We give thanks to You, God, we give thanks, For Your name is near; People declare Your wondrous works.

<sup>3</sup>“The earth and all who inhabit it are unsteady; It is I who have firmly set its pillars.Selah

<sup>8</sup>For a cup is in the hand of the LORD, and the wine foams; It is well mixed, and He pours out of this; Certainly all the wicked of the earth must drain and drink its dregs.

<sup>9</sup>But as for me, I will declare it forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup>And He will cut off all the horns of the wicked, But the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Psalms 76

The Victorious Power of the God of Jacob.
For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

- <sup>4</sup>You are resplendent, More majestic than the mountains of prey.
- <sup>5</sup>The stouthearted were plundered, They sank into sleep; And none of the warriors could use his hands.
- <sup>6</sup>At Your rebuke, God of Jacob, Both rider and horse were cast into a dead sleep.
- <sup>7</sup>You, You indeed are to be feared, And who may stand in Your presence, once You are angry?
- <sup>8</sup>You caused judgment to be heard from heaven; The earth feared and was still
- <sup>9</sup>When God arose to judgment, To save all the humble of the earth.Selah
- <sup>10</sup>For the wrath of mankind shall praise You; You will encircle Yourself with a remnant of wrath.
- <sup>11</sup>Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfill them; All who are around Him are to bring gifts to Him who is to be feared.
- <sup>12</sup>He will cut off the spirit of princes; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalms 77

Comfort in Trouble from Recalling God's Mighty Deeds.
For the music director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>My voice rises to God, and I will cry aloud; My voice rises to God, and He will listen to me.
- <sup>2</sup>In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; In the night my hand was stretched out and did not grow weary; My soul refused to be comforted.
- <sup>3</sup> When I remember God, then I am restless; When I sigh, then my spirit feels weak.Selah
- <sup>4</sup>You have held my eyelids open; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
- <sup>5</sup>I have considered the days of old, The years of long ago.

<sup>6</sup>I will remember my song in the night; I will meditate with my heart, And my spirit ponders:

<sup>7</sup>Will the Lord reject forever? And will He never be favorable again?

<sup>8</sup>Has His favor ceased forever? Has His promise come to an end forever?

<sup>9</sup>Has God forgotten to be gracious, Or has He in anger withdrawn His compassion?Selah

<sup>10</sup>Then I said, “It is my grief, That the right hand of the Most High has changed.”

<sup>12</sup>I will meditate on all Your work, And on Your deeds with thanksgiving.

<sup>13</sup>Your way, God, is holy; What god is great like our God?

<sup>14</sup>You are the God who works wonders; You have made known Your strength among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup>By Your power You have redeemed Your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph.Selah

Psalms 78

God’s Guidance of His People in Spite of Their Unfaithfulness.

A Maskil of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Listen, my people, to my instruction; Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

<sup>4</sup>We will not conceal them from their children, But we will tell the generation to come the praises of the LORD, And His power and His wondrous works that He has done.

<sup>5</sup>For He established a testimony in Jacob, And appointed a law in Israel, Which He commanded our fathers That they were to teach them to their children,

<sup>6</sup>So that the generation to come would know, the children yet to be born, That they would arise and tell them to their children,

<sup>7</sup>So that they would put their confidence in God And not forget the works of God, But comply with His commandments, <sup>8</sup>And not be like their fathers, A stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that did not prepare its heart And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

<sup>9</sup>The sons of Ephraim were archers equipped with bows, Yet they turned back on the day of battle.

<sup>19</sup>Then they spoke against God; They said, “Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?

<sup>20</sup>“Behold, He struck the rock so that waters gushed out, And streams were overflowing; Can He also provide bread? Will He prepare meat for His people?”

<sup>33</sup> So He brought their days to an end in futility, And their years to an end in sudden terror.

<sup>34</sup> When He killed them, then they sought Him, And they returned and searched diligently for God;

<sup>54</sup>So He brought them to His holy land, To this hill country which His right hand had gained.

<sup>60</sup>So that He abandoned the dwelling place at Shiloh, The tent which He had pitched among people,

<sup>72</sup>So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart, And guided them with his skillful hands.

Psalms 79

Grieving over the Destruction of Jerusalem, and Prayer for Help. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>2</sup>They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to the birds of the sky as food, The flesh of Your godly ones to the animals of the earth.

<sup>3</sup>They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem; And there was no one to bury them.

<sup>4</sup>We have become a disgrace before our neighbors, An object of derision and ridicule to those around us.

<sup>5</sup>How long, LORD? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

<sup>8</sup>Do not hold us responsible for the guilty deeds of our forefathers; Let Your compassion come quickly to meet us, For we have become very low.

<sup>9</sup>Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; And save us and forgive our sins for the sake of Your name.

<sup>12</sup>And return to our neighbors seven times as much into their lap Their taunts with which they have taunted You, Lord.

<sup>13</sup>So we Your people and the sheep of Your pasture Will give thanks to You forever; To all generations we will tell of Your praise.

Psalms 80

God Implored to Rescue His People from Their Calamities.

For the music director; set to El Shoshannim; Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>4</sup>LORD God of armies, How long will You be angry with the prayer of Your people?

<sup>5</sup>You have fed them with the bread of tears, And You have made them drink tears in large measure.

<sup>12</sup>Why have You broken down its hedges, So that all who pass that way pick its fruit?

<sup>14</sup>God of armies, do turn back; Look down from heaven and see, and take care of this vine,

<sup>15</sup>The shoot which Your right hand has planted, And of the son whom You have strengthened for Yourself.

<sup>17</sup>Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand, Upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.

<sup>18</sup>Then we will not turn back from You; Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

<sup>19</sup>LORD God of armies, restore us; Make Your face shine upon us, and we will be saved.

Psalms 81

God's Goodness and Israel's Waywardness.
For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>5</sup>He established it as a testimony in Joseph When he went throughout the land of Egypt. I heard a language I did not know:

<sup>7</sup>"You called in trouble and I rescued you; I answered you in the hiding place of thunder; I put you to the test at the waters of Meribah.Selah <sup>8</sup>“Hear, My people, and I will admonish you; Israel, if you would listen to Me!

<sup>9</sup>“There shall be no strange god among you; Nor shall you worship a foreign god.

<sup>10</sup>“I, the LORD, am your God, Who brought you up from the land of Egypt; Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

<sup>11</sup>“But My people did not listen to My voice, And Israel did not obey Me.

<sup>15</sup>“Those who hate the LORD would pretend to obey Him, And their time of punishment would be forever.

<sup>16</sup>“But I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalms 82

Unjust Judgments Rebuked. A Psalm of Asaph.

Psalms 83

God Implored to Confound His Enemies. A Song, a Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>4</sup>They have said, “Come, and let’s wipe them out as a nation, So that the name of Israel will no longer be remembered.”

<sup>17</sup>May they be ashamed and dismayed forever, And may they be humiliated and perish, <sup>18</sup>So that they will know that You alone, whose name is the LORD, Are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalms 84

Longing for the Temple Worship.

For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>2</sup>My soul longed and even yearned for the courtyards of the LORD; My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.

<sup>3</sup>The bird also has found a house, And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may put her young: Your altars, LORD of armies, My King and my God.

Every one of them appears before God in Zion.

<sup>8</sup>LORD God of armies, hear my prayer; Listen, God of Jacob! Selah

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is a sun and shield; The LORD gives grace and glory; He withholds no good thing from those who walk with integrity.

Psalms 85

Prayer for God's Mercy upon the Nation.
For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>5</sup>Will You be angry with us forever? Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?

<sup>6</sup>Will You not revive us again, So that Your people may rejoice in You?

<sup>7</sup>Show us Your mercy, LORD, And grant us Your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will hear what God the LORD will say; For He will speak peace to His people, to His godly ones; And may they not turn back to foolishness.

<sup>9</sup>Certainly His salvation is near to those who fear Him, That glory may dwell in our land.

<sup>13</sup>Righteousness will go before Him And will make His footsteps into a way.

Psalms 86

Pleading and Trust.
A Prayer of David.

<sup>2</sup>Protect my soul, for I am godly; You my God, save Your servant who trusts in You.

<sup>4</sup>Make the soul of Your servant joyful, For to You, Lord, I lift up my soul.

<sup>5</sup>For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, And abundant in mercy to all who call upon You.

<sup>7</sup>On the day of my trouble I will call upon You, For You will answer me.

<sup>8</sup>There is no one like You among the gods, Lord, Nor are there any works like Yours.

<sup>9</sup>All nations whom You have made will come and worship before You, Lord, And they will glorify Your name.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me Your way, LORD; I will walk in Your truth; Unite my heart to fear Your name.

<sup>12</sup>I will give thanks to You, Lord my God, with all my heart, And I will glorify Your name forever.

<sup>13</sup>For Your graciousness toward me is great, And You have saved my soul from the depths of Sheol.

<sup>14</sup>God, arrogant men have risen up against me, And a gang of violent men have sought my life, And they have not set You before them.

<sup>15</sup>But You, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, Slow to anger and abundant in mercy and truth.

<sup>16</sup>Turn to me, and be gracious to me; Grant Your strength to Your servant, And save the son of Your maidservant.

<sup>17</sup>Show me a sign of good, That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, Because You, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalms 87

The Privileges of Citizenship in Zion.
A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

<sup>4</sup>"I shall mention Rahab and Babylon among those who know Me; Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Cush: 'This one was born there.' "

<sup>5</sup>But of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one were born in her"; And the Most High Himself will establish her.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD will count when He registers the peoples, "This one was born there."Selah

<sup>7</sup>Then those who sing as well as those who play the flutes will say, "All my springs of joy are in you."

Psalms 88

A Petition to Be Saved from Death.
A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. For the music director; according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, the God of my salvation, I have cried out by day and in the night before You.

<sup>4</sup>I am counted among those who go down to the pit; I have become like a man without strength, <sup>5</sup> Abandoned among the dead, Like the slain who lie in the grave, Whom You no longer remember, And they are cut off from Your hand.

<sup>6</sup> You have put me in the lowest pit, In dark places, in the depths.

<sup>7</sup> Your wrath has rested upon me, And You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah <sup>8</sup> You have removed my acquaintances far from me; You have made me an object of loathing to them; I am shut up and cannot go out.

<sup>9</sup> My eye grows dim from misery; I have called upon You every day, LORD; I have spread out my hands to You.

<sup>10</sup> Will You perform wonders for the dead? Or will the departed spirits rise and praise You? Selah

<sup>12</sup> Will Your wonders be made known in the darkness? And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

<sup>13</sup> But I, LORD, have cried out to You for help, And in the morning my prayer comes before You.

<sup>14</sup> LORD, why do You reject my soul? Why do You hide Your face from me?

<sup>15</sup> I was miserable and about to die from my youth on; I suffer Your terrors; I grow weary.

<sup>16</sup> Your burning anger has passed over me; Your terrors have destroyed me.

<sup>17</sup> They have surrounded me like water all day long; They have encircled me altogether.

<sup>18</sup> You have removed lover and friend far from me; My acquaintances are in a hiding place.

Psalms 89

The LORD's Covenant with David and Israel's Afflictions.
A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

<sup>2</sup>For I have said, “Graciousness will be built up forever; In the heavens You will establish Your faithfulness.”

<sup>4</sup>I will establish your descendants forever And build up your throne to all generations.”Selah

<sup>5</sup>The heavens will praise Your wonders, LORD; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

<sup>6</sup>For who in the skies is comparable to the LORD? Who among the sons of the mighty is like the LORD, <sup>7</sup>A God greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, And awesome above all those who are around Him?

<sup>8</sup>LORD God of armies, who is like You, mighty LORD? Your faithfulness also surrounds You.

<sup>11</sup>The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; The world and all it contains, You have established them.

<sup>12</sup>The north and the south, You have created them; Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.

<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! LORD, they walk in the light of Your face.

<sup>18</sup>For our shield belongs to the LORD, And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Once You spoke in vision to Your godly ones, And said, "I have given help to one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen from the people.

<sup>20</sup>"I have found My servant David; With My holy oil I have anointed him, <sup>21</sup>With whom My hand will be established; My arm also will strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup>"The enemy will not deceive him, Nor will the son of wickedness afflict him.

<sup>24</sup>"My faithfulness and My favor will be with him, And in My name his horn will be exalted.

<sup>25</sup>"I will also place his hand on the sea, And his right hand on the rivers.

<sup>26</sup>"He will call to Me, 'You are my Father, My God, and the rock of my salvation.'

<sup>27</sup>"I will also make him My firstborn, The highest of the kings of the earth.

<sup>28</sup>"I will maintain My favor for him forever, And My covenant shall be confirmed to him.

<sup>29</sup>"So I will establish his descendants forever, And his throne as the days of heaven.

<sup>33</sup>“But I will not withhold My favor from him, Nor deal falsely in My faithfulness.

<sup>34</sup>“I will not violate My covenant, Nor will I alter the utterance of My lips.

<sup>39</sup>You have repudiated the covenant of Your servant; You have profaned his crown in the dust.

<sup>51</sup>With which Your enemies have taunted, LORD, With which they have taunted the footsteps of Your anointed.

BOOK 4

God's Eternity and the Brevity of Human Life. A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

<sup>5</sup>You have swept them away like a flood, they fall asleep; In the morning they are like grass that sprouts anew.

<sup>7</sup>For we have been consumed by Your anger, And we have been terrified by Your wrath.

<sup>8</sup>You have placed our guilty deeds before You, Our hidden sins in the light of Your presence.

<sup>9</sup>For all our days have dwindled away in Your fury; We have finished our years like a sigh.

<sup>10</sup>As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is only trouble and tragedy; For it quickly passes, and we disappear.

<sup>11</sup>Who understands the power of Your anger And Your fury, according to the fear that is due You?

<sup>12</sup>So teach us to number our days, That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

<sup>13</sup>Do return, LORD; how long will it be? And be sorry for Your servants.

<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us in the morning with Your graciousness, That we may sing for joy and rejoice all our days.

<sup>15</sup>Make us glad according to the days You have afflicted us, And the years we have seen evil.

<sup>17</sup>May the kindness of the Lord our God be upon us; And confirm for us the work of our hands; Yes, confirm the work of our hands.

Psalms 91

Security of One Who Trusts in the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust!”

<sup>7</sup>A thousand may fall at your side And ten thousand at your right hand, But it shall not approach you.

<sup>9</sup>For you have made the LORD, my refuge, The Most High, your dwelling place.

<sup>10</sup>No evil will happen to you, Nor will any plague come near your tent.

<sup>11</sup>For He will give His angels orders concerning you, To protect you in all your ways.

<sup>12</sup>On their hands they will lift you up, So that you do not strike your foot against a stone.

<sup>13</sup>You will walk upon the lion and cobra, You will trample the young lion and the serpent.

<sup>14</sup>“Because he has loved Me, I will save him; I will set him securely on high, because he has known My name.

<sup>15</sup>“He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.

<sup>16</sup>“I will satisfy him with a long life, And show him My salvation.”

Psalms 92

Praise for the LORD's Goodness.
A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup>It is good to give thanks to the LORD And to sing praises to Your name, Most High;

- <sup>2</sup>To declare Your goodness in the morning And Your faithfulness by night,
- <sup>4</sup>For You, LORD, have made me joyful by what You have done, I will sing for joy over the works of Your hands.
- <sup>5</sup>How great are Your works, LORD! Your thoughts are very deep.
- <sup>6</sup>A stupid person has no knowledge, Nor does a foolish person understand this:
- <sup>7</sup>When the wicked sprouted up like grass And all who did injustice flourished, It was only that they might be destroyed forevermore.
- <sup>8</sup>But You, LORD, are on high forever.
- <sup>9</sup>For, behold, Your enemies, LORD, For, behold, Your enemies will perish; All who do injustice will be scattered.
- <sup>10</sup>But You have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox; I have been anointed with fresh oil.
- <sup>11</sup>And my eye has looked at my enemies, My ears hear of the evildoers who rise up against me.
- <sup>12</sup>The righteous person will flourish like the palm tree, He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
- <sup>13</sup>Planted in the house of the LORD, They will flourish in the courtyards of our God.
- <sup>14</sup>They will still yield fruit in advanced age; They will be full of sap and very green,
- <sup>15</sup>To declare that the LORD is just; He is my rock, and there is no malice in Him.

Psalms 93

The Majesty of the LORD.

Psalms 94

The LORD Implored to Avenge His People.

<sup>7</sup>They have said, “The LORD does not see, Nor does the God of Jacob perceive.”

<sup>8</sup>Pay attention, you stupid ones among the people; And when will you understand, foolish ones?

<sup>9</sup>He who planted the ear, does He not hear? Or He who formed the eye, does He not see?

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man whom You discipline, LORD, And whom You teach from Your Law, <sup>13</sup>So that You may grant him relief from the days of adversity, Until a pit is dug for the wicked.

<sup>14</sup>For the LORD will not abandon His people, Nor will He abandon His inheritance.

<sup>16</sup>Who will stand up for me against evildoers? Who will take his stand for me against those who do injustice?

<sup>17</sup>If the LORD had not been my help, My soul would soon have dwelt in the land of silence.

<sup>18</sup>If I should say, "My foot has slipped," Your faithfulness, LORD, will support me.

<sup>22</sup>But the LORD has been my refuge, And my God the rock of my refuge.

<sup>23</sup>He has brought back their injustice upon them, And He will destroy them in their evil; The LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalms 95

Praise to the LORD and Warning against Unbelief.

<sup>7</sup>For He is our God, And we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand. Today, if you will hear His voice,

<sup>8</sup>Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, As on the day of Massah in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup>"When your fathers put Me to the test, They tested Me, though they had seen My work.

<sup>10</sup>"For forty years I was disgusted with that generation, And said they are a people who err in their heart, And they do not know My ways.

<sup>11</sup>"Therefore I swore in My anger, They certainly shall not enter My rest."

Psalms 96

A Call to Worship the LORD the Righteous Judge.

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name; Bring an offering and come into His courtyards.

<sup>10</sup>Say among the nations, “The LORD reigns; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved; He will judge the peoples fairly.”

<sup>11</sup>May the heavens be joyful, and may the earth rejoice; May the sea roar, and all it contains;

<sup>12</sup>May the field be jubilant, and all that is in it. Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy

<sup>13</sup>Before the LORD, for He is coming, For He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, And the peoples in His faithfulness.

Psalms 97

The LORD's Power and Dominion.

<sup>8</sup>Zion heard this and was joyful, And the daughters of Judah have rejoiced Because of Your judgments, LORD.

<sup>9</sup>For You are the LORD Most High over all the earth; You are exalted far above all gods.

Psalms 98

A Call to Praise the LORD for His Righteousness. A Psalm.

<sup>1</sup>Sing a new song to the LORD, For He has done wonderful things, His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him.

<sup>3</sup>He has remembered His graciousness and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

<sup>9</sup>Before the LORD, for He is coming to judge the earth; He will judge the world with righteousness And the peoples with fairness.

Psalms 99

Praise to the LORD for His Faithfulness to Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among His priests, And Samuel was among those who called on His name; They called upon the LORD and He answered them.

<sup>7</sup>He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud; They kept His testimonies And the statute that He gave them.

<sup>8</sup>LORD our God, You answered them; You were a forgiving God to them, And yet an avenger of their evil deeds.

<sup>9</sup>Exalt the LORD our God And worship at His holy hill, For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalms 100

All People Exhorted to Praise God. A Psalm for Thanksgiving.

<sup>3</sup>Know that the LORD Himself is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Psalms 101

The Psalmist's Profession of Uprightness. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of mercy and justice; To You, LORD, I will sing praises.

<sup>2</sup>I will carefully attend to the blameless way. When will You come to me? I will walk within my house in the integrity of my heart.

<sup>3</sup>I will set no worthless thing before my eyes; I hate the work of those who fall away; It shall not cling to me.

<sup>5</sup>Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor, him I will destroy; I will not endure one who has a haughty look and an arrogant heart.

<sup>6</sup>My eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; One who walks in a blameless way is one who will serve me.

<sup>7</sup>One who practices deceit shall not dwell within my house; One who speaks lies shall not maintain his position before me.

<sup>8</sup>Every morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land, So as to eliminate from the city of the LORD all those who do injustice.

Psalms 102

Prayer of an Afflicted Man for Mercy on Himself and on Zion. A Prayer of the afflicted when he is weak and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD! And let my cry for help come to You.

<sup>2</sup>Do not hide Your face from me on the day of my distress; Incline Your ear to me; On the day when I call answer me quickly.

<sup>3</sup>For my days have ended in smoke, And my bones have been scorched like a hearth.

<sup>4</sup>My heart has been struck like grass and has withered, Indeed, I forget to eat my bread.

<sup>8</sup>My enemies have taunted me all day long; Those who deride me have used my name as a curse.

<sup>10</sup>Because of Your indignation and Your wrath; For You have lifted me up and thrown me away.

<sup>13</sup>You will arise and have compassion on Zion; For it is time to be gracious to her, For the appointed time has come.

<sup>15</sup>So the nations will fear the name of the LORD, And all the kings of the earth, Your glory.

<sup>16</sup>For the LORD has built up Zion; He has appeared in His glory.

<sup>17</sup>He has turned His attention to the prayer of the destitute And has not despised their prayer.

<sup>18</sup>This will be written for the generation to come, That a people yet to be created may praise the LORD:

<sup>19</sup>For He looked down from His holy height; From heaven the LORD looked upon the earth,

<sup>20</sup>To hear the groaning of the prisoner, To set free those who were doomed to death,

<sup>21</sup>So that people may tell of the name of the LORD in Zion, And His praise in Jerusalem,

<sup>23</sup>He has broken my strength in the way; He has shortened my days.

<sup>24</sup>I say, "My God, do not take me away in the middle of my days, Your years are throughout all generations.

<sup>25</sup>"In time of old You founded the earth, And the heavens are the work of Your hands.

<sup>26</sup>"Even they will perish, but You endure; All of them will wear out like a garment; Like clothing You will change them and they will pass away.

<sup>27</sup>"But You are the same, And Your years will not come to an end.

<sup>28</sup>"The children of Your servants will continue, And their descendants will be established before You."

Psalms 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Bless the LORD, my soul, And all that is within me, bless His holy name.

<sup>10</sup>He has not dealt with us according to our sins, Nor rewarded us according to our guilty deeds.

<sup>11</sup>For as high as the heavens are above the earth, So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him.

<sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west, So far has He removed our wrongdoings from us.

<sup>13</sup>Just as a father has compassion on his children, So the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him.

<sup>14</sup>For He Himself knows our form; He is mindful that we are nothing but dust.

<sup>15</sup>As for man, his days are like grass; Like a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

<sup>16</sup>When the wind has passed over it, it is no more, And its place no longer knows about it.

<sup>21</sup>Bless the LORD, all you His angels, You who serve Him, doing His will.

<sup>22</sup>Bless the LORD, all you works of His, In all places of His dominion; Bless the LORD, my soul!

Psalms 104

The LORD's Care over All His Works.

<sup>1</sup>Bless the LORD, my soul! LORD my God, You are very great; You are clothed with splendor and majesty,

<sup>5</sup>He established the earth upon its foundations, So that it will not totter forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup>You set a boundary so that they will not pass over, So that they will not return to cover the earth.

<sup>14</sup>He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, And vegetation for the labor of mankind, So that they may produce food from the earth,

<sup>24</sup>LORD, how many are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all; The earth is full of Your possessions.

<sup>25</sup> There is the sea, great and broad, In which are swarms without number,
Animals both small and great.

<sup>26</sup> The ships move along there, And Leviathan, which You have formed to have fun in it.

<sup>28</sup> You give to them, they gather it up; You open Your hand, they are satisfied with good.

<sup>29</sup> You hide Your face, they are terrified; You take away their breath, they perish And return to their dust.

<sup>30</sup> You send forth Your Spirit, they are created; And You renew the face of the ground.

<sup>31</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure forever; May the LORD rejoice in His works;

<sup>32</sup> He looks at the earth, and it trembles; He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

<sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while
I have my being.

<sup>34</sup> May my praise be pleasing to Him; As for me, I shall rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>35</sup> May sinners be removed from the earth And may the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, my soul. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 105

The LORD's Wonderful Works in Behalf of Israel.

<sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name; Make His deeds known among

<sup>10</sup>Then He confirmed it to Jacob as a statute, To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

<sup>11</sup>Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan As the portion of your inheritance,"

<sup>12</sup>When they were only a few people in number, Very few, and strangers in it.

Praise the LORD!

Psalms 106

Israel's Rebelliousness and the LORD's Help.

<sup>4</sup>Remember me, LORD, in Your favor toward Your people. Visit me with Your salvation, <sup>5</sup>So that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones, That I may rejoice in the joy of Your nation, That I may boast with Your inheritance.

<sup>6</sup>We have sinned like our fathers, We have gone astray, we have behaved wickedly.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore He swore to them That He would have them fall in the wilderness, <sup>27</sup>And that He would bring down their descendants among the nations, And scatter them in the lands.

<sup>28</sup>They also followed Baal-peor, And ate sacrifices offered to the dead.

<sup>30</sup>Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, And so the plague was brought to a halt.

<sup>32</sup>They also provoked Him to wrath at the waters of Meribah, So that it went badly for Moses on their account.

<sup>47</sup>Save us, LORD our God, And gather us from the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name And glory in Your praise.

<sup>48</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting. And all the people shall say, "Amen." Praise the LORD!

Psalms 107

BOOK 5

The LORD Rescues People from Many Troubles.

<sup>8</sup>They shall give thanks to the LORD for His mercy, And for His wonders to the sons of mankind!

<sup>9</sup>For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, And He has filled the hungry soul with what is good.

<sup>10</sup>There were those who lived in darkness and in the shadow of death, Prisoners in misery and chains, <sup>11</sup>Because they had rebelled against the words of God And rejected the plan of the Most High.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore He humbled their heart with labor; They stumbled and there was no one to help.

<sup>28</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, And He brought them out of their distresses.

<sup>29</sup>He caused the storm to be still, So that the waves of the sea were hushed.

<sup>30</sup>Then they were glad because they were quiet, So He guided them to their desired harbor.

<sup>32</sup>They shall also exalt Him in the congregation of the people, And praise Him at the seat of the elders.

<sup>33</sup>He turns rivers into a wilderness, And springs of water into a thirsty ground;

<sup>34</sup>And a fruitful land into a salt waste, Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.

<sup>35</sup>He turns a wilderness into a pool of water, And a dry land into springs of water;

<sup>36</sup>And He has the hungry live there, So that they may establish an inhabited city,

<sup>43</sup>Who is wise? He is to pay attention to these things, And consider the mercy of the LORD.

Psalms 108

God Praised and Pleas to Give Victory. A Song, a Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is steadfast, God; I will sing, I will sing praises also with my soul.

<sup>3</sup>I will give thanks to You, LORD, among the peoples, And I will sing praises to You among the nations.

<sup>7</sup>God has spoken in His holiness: "I will triumph, I will divide up Shechem, And measure out the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>8</sup>“Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My scepter.

<sup>9</sup>“Moab is My washbowl; I will throw My sandal over Edom; I will shout aloud over Philistia.”

<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>11</sup>God, have You Yourself not rejected us? And will You not go forth with our armies, God?

<sup>13</sup>Through God we will do valiantly, And it is He who will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 109

Vengeance Invoked upon Adversaries.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, And have fought against me without cause.

<sup>4</sup>In return for my love they act as my accusers; But I am in prayer.

<sup>11</sup>May the creditor seize everything that he has, And may strangers plunder the product of his labor.

<sup>12</sup>May there be none to extend kindness to him, Nor any to be gracious to his fatherless children.

<sup>13</sup>May his descendants be eliminated; May their name be wiped out in a following generation.

<sup>14</sup>May the guilt of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, And do not let the sin of his mother be wiped out.

<sup>15</sup>May they be before the LORD continually, So that He may eliminate their memory from the earth;

<sup>16</sup>Because he did not remember to show mercy, But persecuted the afflicted and needy person, And the despondent in heart, to put them to death.

<sup>17</sup>He also loved cursing, so it came to him; And he did not delight in blessing, so it was far from him.

<sup>18</sup>But he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, And it entered his body like water, And like oil into his bones.

<sup>19</sup>May it be to him as a garment with which he covers himself, And as a belt which he constantly wears around himself.

<sup>20</sup>May this be the reward of my accusers from the LORD, And of those who speak evil against my soul.

<sup>21</sup>But You, GOD, the Lord, deal kindly with me for the sake of Your name; Because Your mercy is good, rescue me;

<sup>22</sup>For I am afflicted and needy, And my heart is wounded within me.

<sup>23</sup>I am passing like a shadow when it lengthens; I am shaken off like the locust.

<sup>25</sup>I also have become a disgrace to them; When they see me, they shake their head.

<sup>26</sup>Help me, LORD my God; Save me according to Your mercy.

<sup>27</sup>And may they know that this is Your hand; You, LORD, have done it.

<sup>28</sup>They will curse, but You bless; When they arise, they will be ashamed, But Your servant will be glad.

<sup>29</sup>May my accusers be clothed with dishonor, And may they cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

<sup>30</sup>With my mouth I will give thanks abundantly to the LORD; And I will praise Him in the midst of many.

<sup>31</sup>For He stands at the right hand of the needy, To save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalms 110

The LORD Gives Dominion to the King. A Psalm of David.

<sup>3</sup>Your people will volunteer freely on the day of Your power; In holy splendor, from the womb of the dawn, Your youth are to You as the dew.

<sup>6</sup>He will judge among the nations, He will fill them with corpses, He will shatter the chief men over a broad country.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink from the brook by the wayside; Therefore He will lift up His head.

Psalms 111

The LORD Praised for His Goodness.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart, In the company of the upright and in the assembly.

<sup>9</sup>He has sent redemption to His people; He has ordained His covenant forever; Holy and awesome is His name.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; All those who follow His commandments have a good understanding; His praise endures forever.

Psalms 112

Prosperity of One Who Fears the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> His heart is firm, he will not fear, But will look with satisfaction on his enemies.

<sup>9</sup> He has given freely to the poor, His righteousness endures forever; His horn will be exalted in honor.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked will see it and be vexed, He will gnash his teeth and melt away; The desire of the wicked will perish.

Psalms 113

The LORD Exalts the Humble.

<sup>9</sup>He has the infertile woman live in the house As a joyful mother of children.
Praise the LORD!

Psalms 114

God's Rescue of Israel from Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Who turned the rock into a pool of water, The flint into a fountain of water.

Psalms 115

Heathen Idols Contrasted with the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, LORD, not to us, But to Your name give glory, Because of Your mercy, because of Your truth.

<sup>5</sup>They have mouths, but they cannot speak; They have eyes, but they cannot see;

<sup>6</sup>They have ears, but they cannot hear; They have noses, but they cannot smell;

<sup>7</sup> They have hands, but they cannot feel; They have feet, but they cannot walk; They cannot make a sound with their throat.

<sup>8</sup>Those who make them will become like them, Everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD has been mindful of us; He will bless us. He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron.

<sup>14</sup>May the LORD increase you, You and your children.

<sup>15</sup>May you be blessed of the LORD, Maker of heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>The heavens are the heavens of the LORD, But the earth He has given to the sons of mankind.

<sup>17</sup>The dead do not praise the LORD, Nor do any who go down into silence;

<sup>18</sup>But as for us, we will bless the LORD From this time and forever. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 116

Thanksgiving for Rescue from Death.

<sup>2</sup>Because He has inclined His ear to me, Therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>The snares of death encompassed me And the terrors of Sheol came upon me; I found distress and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup>Then I called upon the name of the LORD: "Please, LORD, save my life!"

- <sup>5</sup>Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; Yes, our God is compassionate.
- <sup>6</sup>The LORD watches over the simple; I was brought low, and He saved me.
- <sup>7</sup>Return to your rest, my soul, For the LORD has dealt generously with you.
- <sup>8</sup>For You have rescued my soul from death, My eyes from tears, And my feet from stumbling.
- <sup>9</sup>I shall walk before the LORD In the land of the living.
- <sup>10</sup>I believed when I said, "I am greatly afflicted."
- <sup>11</sup>I said in my alarm, "All people are liars."
- <sup>12</sup>What shall I repay to the LORD For all His benefits to me?
- <sup>13</sup>I will lift up the cup of salvation, And call upon the name of the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD; May it be in the presence of all His people!
- <sup>15</sup>Precious in the sight of the LORD Is the death of His godly ones.
- <sup>16</sup>O LORD, I surely am Your slave, I am Your slave, the son of Your female slave, You have unfastened my restraints.
- <sup>17</sup>I will offer You a sacrifice of thanksgiving, And call upon the name of the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD, May it be in the presence of all His people,
- <sup>19</sup>In the courtyards of the LORD's house, In the midst of you, Jerusalem!
Praise the LORD!

Psalms 117

A Psalm of Praise.

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, all nations; Sing His praises, all peoples!
- <sup>2</sup>For His mercy toward us is great, And the truth of the LORD is everlasting.
Praise the LORD!

Psalms 118

Thanksgiving for the LORD's Saving Goodness.

<sup>5</sup>From my distress I called upon the LORD; The LORD answered me and put me in an open space.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD is for me; I will not fear; What can man do to me?

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is for me among those who help me; Therefore I will look with satisfaction on those who hate me.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD Than to trust in people.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD Than to trust in noblemen.

<sup>11</sup>They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me; In the name of the LORD I will certainly fend them off.

<sup>12</sup>They surrounded me like bees; They were extinguished like a fire of thorn bushes; In the name of the LORD I will certainly fend them off.

<sup>13</sup>You pushed me violently so that I was falling, But the LORD helped me.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation.

<sup>17</sup>I will not die, but live, And tell of the works of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD has disciplined me severely, But He has not turned me over to death.

<sup>19</sup>Open the gates of righteousness to me; I will enter through them, I will give thanks to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>This is the gate of the LORD; The righteous will enter through it.

<sup>21</sup>I will give thanks to You, for You have answered me, And You have become my salvation.

<sup>26</sup>Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD; We have blessed you from the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD is God, and He has given us light; Bind the festival sacrifice to the horns of the altar with cords.

<sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I give thanks to You; You are my God, I exalt You.

<sup>29</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His mercy is everlasting.

Psalms 119

Meditations and Prayers Relating to the Law of God.

Aleph

<sup>6</sup>Then I will not be ashamed When I look at all Your commandments.

<sup>7</sup>I will give thanks to You with uprightness of heart, When I learn Your righteous judgments.

<sup>8</sup>I will keep Your statutes; Do not utterly abandon me!

Beth

<sup>9</sup>How can a young man keep his way pure? By keeping it according to Your word.

<sup>10</sup>With all my heart I have sought You; Do not let me wander from Your commandments.

<sup>11</sup>I have treasured Your word in my heart, So that I may not sin against You.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed are You, LORD; Teach me Your statutes.

Gimel

<sup>17</sup>Deal generously with Your servant, That I may live and keep Your word.

<sup>18</sup>Open my eyes, that I may behold Wonderful things from Your Law.

Daleth

<sup>25</sup>My soul clings to the dust; Revive me according to Your word.

<sup>26</sup>I have told of my ways, and You have answered me; Teach me Your statutes.

<sup>27</sup>Make me understand the way of Your precepts, And I will meditate on Your wonders.

<sup>28</sup>My soul weeps because of grief; Strengthen me according to Your word.

<sup>31</sup>I cling to Your testimonies; LORD, do not put me to shame!

<sup>32</sup>I shall run the way of Your commandments, For You will enlarge my heart.

He

<sup>33</sup>Teach me, the way of Your statutes, LORD, And I shall comply with it to the end.

<sup>34</sup>Give me understanding, so that I may comply with Your Law And keep it with all my heart.

<sup>37</sup>Turn my eyes away from looking at what is worthless, And revive me in Your ways.

<sup>38</sup>Establish Your word to Your servant As that which produces reverence for You.

Vav

<sup>41</sup>May Your favor also come to me, LORD, Your salvation according to Your word;

<sup>42</sup>So that I will have an answer for one who taunts me, For I trust in Your word.

<sup>43</sup>And do not take the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, For I wait for Your judgments.

<sup>45</sup>And I will walk at liberty, For I seek Your precepts.

<sup>48</sup>And I shall lift up my hands to Your commandments, Which I love; And I will meditate on Your statutes.

Zayin

<sup>49</sup>Remember the word to Your servant, In which You have made me hope.

<sup>50</sup>This is my comfort in my misery, That Your word has revived me.

Heth

<sup>57</sup>The LORD is my portion; I have promised to keep Your words.

<sup>58</sup>I sought Your favor with all my heart; Be gracious to me according to Your word.

<sup>59</sup>I considered my ways And turned my feet to Your testimonies.

<sup>62</sup>At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You Because of Your righteous judgments.

<sup>63</sup>I am a companion to all those who fear You, And to those who keep Your precepts.

Teth

<sup>65</sup>You have treated Your servant well, LORD, according to Your word.

<sup>69</sup>The arrogant have forged a lie against me; With all my heart I will comply with Your precepts.

<sup>71</sup>It is good for me that I was afflicted, So that I may learn Your statutes.

<sup>72</sup>The Law of Your mouth is better to me Than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Yodh

<sup>73</sup>Your hands made me and fashioned me; Give me understanding, so that I may learn Your commandments.

<sup>74</sup>May those who fear You see me and be glad, Because I wait for Your word.

<sup>75</sup>I know, LORD, that Your judgments are righteous, And that You have afflicted me in faithfulness.

<sup>76</sup>May Your favor comfort me, According to Your word to Your servant.

<sup>77</sup>May Your compassion come to me so that I may live, For Your Law is my delight.

<sup>78</sup>May the arrogant be put to shame, because they lead me astray with a lie; But I shall meditate on Your precepts.

<sup>79</sup>May those who fear You turn to me, And those who know Your testimonies.

<sup>80</sup>May my heart be blameless in Your statutes, So that I will not be ashamed.

Kaph

<sup>82</sup>My eyes fail with longing for Your word, While I say, “When will You comfort me?”

<sup>84</sup>How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me?

<sup>86</sup>All Your commandments are faithful; They have persecuted me with a lie; help me!

<sup>87</sup>They almost destroyed me on earth, But as for me, I did not abandon Your precepts.

<sup>88</sup>Revive me according to Your faithfulness, So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

Lamedh

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness continues throughout generations; You established the earth, and it stands.

<sup>92</sup>If Your Law had not been my delight, Then I would have perished in my misery.

<sup>94</sup>I am Yours, save me; For I have sought Your precepts.

Mem

<sup>97</sup>How I love Your Law! It is my meditation all the day.

<sup>101</sup>I have restrained my feet from every evil way, So that I may keep Your word.

<sup>102</sup>I have not turned aside from Your judgments, For You Yourself have taught me.

<sup>103</sup>How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Nun

<sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path.

<sup>106</sup>I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous judgments.

<sup>107</sup>I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, LORD, according to Your word.

<sup>111</sup>I have inherited Your testimonies forever, For they are the joy of my heart.

<sup>112</sup>I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end.

Samekh

<sup>113</sup>I hate those who are double-minded, But I love Your Law.

<sup>114</sup>You are my hiding place and my shield; I wait for Your word.

<sup>115</sup>Leave me, you evildoers, So that I may comply with the commandments of my God.

<sup>116</sup>Sustain me according to Your word, that I may live; And do not let me be ashamed of my hope.

<sup>117</sup>Sustain me so that I may be safe, That I may have regard for Your statutes continually.

<sup>118</sup>You have rejected all those who stray from Your statutes, For their deceitfulness is useless.

<sup>120</sup>My flesh trembles from the fear of You, And I am afraid of Your judgments.

Ayin

<sup>121</sup>I have done justice and righteousness; Do not leave me to my oppressors.

<sup>124</sup>Deal with Your servant according to Your graciousness, And teach me Your statutes.

<sup>125</sup>I am Your servant; give me understanding, So that I may know Your testimonies.

Pe

<sup>133</sup>Establish my footsteps in Your word, And do not let any wrongdoing have power over me.

Tsadhe

Qoph

<sup>145</sup>I cried out with all my heart; answer me, LORD! I will comply with Your statutes.

<sup>146</sup>I cried to You; save me And I shall keep Your testimonies.

<sup>148</sup>My eyes anticipate the night watches, So that I may meditate on Your word.

<sup>149</sup>Hear my voice according to Your faithfulness; Revive me, LORD, according to Your judgments.

Resh

156 Great are Your mercies, LORD; Revive me according to Your judgments.

157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies, Yet I do not turn aside from Your testimonies.

158 I see the treacherous and loathe them, Because they do not keep Your word.

159 Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, LORD, according to Your faithfulness.

160 The sum of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments is everlasting.

Shin

161 Rulers persecute me without cause, But my heart stands in awe of Your words.

162 I rejoice at Your word, Like one who finds great plunder.

163 I hate and loathe falsehood, But I love Your Law.

164 Seven times a day I praise You Because of Your righteous judgments.

165 Those who love Your Law have great peace, And nothing causes them to stumble.

166 I hope for Your salvation, LORD, And do Your commandments.

167 My soul keeps Your testimonies, And I love them exceedingly.

168 I keep Your precepts and Your testimonies, For all my ways are before You.

Tav

169 Let my cry come before You, LORD; Give me understanding according to Your word.

170 Let my pleading come before You; Save me according to Your word.

171 Let my lips pour out praise, For You teach me Your statutes.

<sup>175</sup>Let my soul live that it may praise You, And let Your ordinances help me.

<sup>176</sup>I have wandered about like a lost sheep; search for Your servant, For I do not forget Your commandments.

Psalms 120

Prayer for Rescue from the Treacherous. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>I cried to the LORD in my trouble, And He answered me.

<sup>3</sup>What will He give to you, and what more will He do to you, You deceitful tongue?

<sup>5</sup>Woe to me, for I reside in Meshech, For I have settled among the tents of Kedar!

<sup>6</sup>Too long has my soul had its dwelling With those who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup>I am for peace, but when I speak, They are for war.

Psalms 121

The LORD, the Keeper of Israel. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>I will raise my eyes to the mountains; From where will my help come?

<sup>2</sup>My help comes from the LORD, Who made heaven and earth.

<sup>3</sup>He will not allow your foot to slip; He who watches over you will not slumber.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD will protect you from all evil; He will keep your soul.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will guard your going out and your coming in From this time and forever.

Psalms 122

Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem. A Song of Ascents, of David.

<sup>1</sup>I was glad when they said to me, “Let’s go to the house of the LORD.”

<sup>4</sup>To which the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD— An ordinance for Israel—
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>For thrones were set there for judgment, The thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup>Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: “May they prosper who love you.

<sup>7</sup>“May peace be within your walls, And prosperity within your palaces.”

<sup>8</sup>For the sake of my brothers and my friends, I will now say, “May peace be within you.”

<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Psalms 123

Prayer for the LORD’s Help. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>To You I have raised my eyes, You who are enthroned in the heavens!

<sup>2</sup>Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, As the eyes of a female servant to the hand of her mistress, So our eyes look to the LORD our God, Until He is gracious to us.

<sup>3</sup>Be gracious to us, LORD, be gracious to us, For we have had much more than enough of contempt.

<sup>4</sup>Our soul has had much more than enough Of the scoffing of those who are at ease, And with the contempt of the proud.

Psalms 124

Praise for Rescue from Enemies. A Song of Ascents, of David.

<sup>1</sup>“Had it not been the LORD who was on our side,” Let Israel say,

<sup>2</sup>“Had it not been the LORD who was on our side When people rose up against us,

<sup>3</sup>Then they would have swallowed us alive, When their anger was kindled against us;

<sup>4</sup>Then the waters would have flooded over us, The stream would have swept over our souls;

<sup>7</sup>Our souls have escaped like a bird from the trapper’s snare; The snare is broken and we have escaped.

<sup>8</sup>Our help is in the name of the LORD, Who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 125

The LORD Surrounds His People. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>Those who trust in the LORD Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but remains forever.

<sup>3</sup>For the scepter of wickedness will not rest upon the land of the righteous, So that the righteous will not extend their hands to do wrong.

<sup>5</sup>But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, The LORD will lead them away with those who practice injustice. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalms 126

Thanksgiving for Return from Captivity. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, We were like those who dream.

<sup>2</sup>Then our mouth was filled with laughter And our tongue with joyful shouting; Then they said among the nations, “The LORD has done great things for them.”

<sup>6</sup>One who goes here and there weeping, carrying his bag of seed, Shall indeed come again with a shout of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Psalms 127

Prosperity Comes from the LORD. A Song of Ascents, of Solomon.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them; They will not be ashamed When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalms 128

Blessedness of the Fear of the LORD. A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, Who walks in His ways.
- <sup>2</sup>When you eat the fruit of the labor of your hands, You will be happy and it will go well for you.
- <sup>3</sup>Your wife will be like a fruitful vine Within your house, Your children like olive plants Around your table.
- <sup>4</sup>Behold, for so shall a man Who fears the LORD be blessed.
- <sup>5</sup>The LORD bless you from Zion, And may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
- <sup>6</sup>Indeed, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel!

Psalms 129

Prayer for the Overthrow of Zion's Enemies. A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>"Many times they have attacked me from my youth up," Let Israel say,
- <sup>2</sup>"Many times they have attacked me from my youth up; Yet they have not prevailed against me.
- <sup>3</sup>"The plowers plowed upon my back; They lengthened their furrows."
- <sup>4</sup>The LORD is righteous; He has cut up the ropes of the wicked.
- <sup>5</sup>May all who hate Zion Be put to shame and turned backward;
- <sup>6</sup>May they be like grass upon the housetops, Which withers before it grows up;
- <sup>7</sup>With which the harvester does not fill his hand, Or the binder of sheaves his arms;
- <sup>8</sup>Nor do those who pass by say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you; We bless you in the name of the LORD."

Psalms 130

Hope in the LORD's Forgiving Love. A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Out of the depths I have cried to You, LORD.
- <sup>2</sup>Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive To the sound of my pleadings.
- <sup>3</sup>If You, LORD, were to keep account of guilty deeds, Lord, who could stand?
- <sup>4</sup>But there is forgiveness with You, So that You may be revered.
- <sup>5</sup>I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, And I wait for His word.
- <sup>6</sup>My soul waits in hope for the Lord More than the watchmen for the morning; Yes, more than the watchmen for the morning.
- <sup>7</sup>Israel, wait for the LORD; For with the LORD there is mercy, And with Him is abundant redemption.
- <sup>8</sup>And He will redeem Israel From all his guilty deeds.

Psalms 131

Childlike Trust in the LORD. A Song of Ascents, of David.

- <sup>1</sup>LORD, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes arrogant; Nor do I involve myself in great matters, Or in things too difficult for me.
- <sup>2</sup>I have certainly soothed and quieted my soul; Like a weaned child resting against his mother, My soul within me is like a weaned child.
- <sup>3</sup>Israel, wait for the LORD From this time on and forever.

Psalms 132

Prayer for the LORD's Blessing upon the Sanctuary. A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Remember, LORD, in David's behalf, All his affliction;
- <sup>2</sup>How he swore to the LORD And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob,

- <sup>3</sup>“I certainly will not enter my house, Nor lie on my bed;
<sup>4</sup>I will not give sleep to my eyes Or slumber to my eyelids,
- <sup>6</sup>Behold, we heard about it in Ephrathah, We found it in the field of Jaar.
<sup>8</sup>Arise, LORD, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength.
<sup>9</sup>May Your priests be clothed with righteousness, And may Your godly ones sing for joy.
- <sup>10</sup>For the sake of Your servant David, Do not turn away the face of Your anointed.
- <sup>11</sup>The LORD has sworn to David A truth from which He will not turn back: “I will set upon your throne one from the fruit of your body.
- <sup>12</sup>“If your sons will keep My covenant And My testimony which I will teach them, Their sons also will sit upon your throne forever.”
- <sup>13</sup>For the LORD has chosen Zion; He has desired it as His dwelling place.
<sup>14</sup>“This is My resting place forever; Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
<sup>15</sup>“I will abundantly bless her food; I will satisfy her needy with bread.
<sup>16</sup>“I will also clothe her priests with salvation, And her godly ones will sing aloud for joy.
<sup>17</sup>“I will make the horn of David spring forth there; I have prepared a lamp for My anointed.
<sup>18</sup>“I will clothe his enemies with shame, But upon himself his crown will gleam.”

Psalms 133

The Excellency of Brotherly Unity.
 A Song of Ascents, of David.

<sup>2</sup>It is like the precious oil on the head, Running down upon the beard, As on Aaron's beard, The oil which ran down upon the edge of his robes.

<sup>3</sup>It is like the dew of Hermon Coming down upon the mountains of Zion; For the LORD commanded the blessing there—life forever.

Psalms 134

Greetings of Night Watchers. A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>Behold, bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, Who serve by night in the house of the LORD!

<sup>3</sup>May the LORD bless you from Zion, He who made heaven and earth.

Psalms 135

Praise the LORD's Wonderful Works. Futility of Idols.

<sup>6</sup>Whatever the LORD pleases, He does, In heaven and on earth, in the seas and in all the ocean depths.

- <sup>8</sup>He struck the firstborn of Egypt, Both human firstborn and animal.
- <sup>9</sup> He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.
- <sup>10</sup> He struck many nations And brought death to mighty kings,
- <sup>11</sup> Sihon, king of the Amorites, Og, king of Bashan, And all the kingdoms of Canaan;
- <sup>12</sup> And He gave their land as an inheritance, An inheritance to His people Israel.
- <sup>13</sup> Your name, LORD, is everlasting, The mention of You, LORD, is throughout all generations.
- <sup>14</sup> For the LORD will judge His people And will have compassion on His servants.
- <sup>15</sup> The idols of the nations are nothing but silver and gold, The work of human hands.
- <sup>16</sup> They have mouths, but they do not speak; They have eyes, but they do not see;
- <sup>17</sup> They have ears, but they do not hear, Nor is there any breath at all in their mouths.
- <sup>18</sup> Those who make them will become like them, Yes, everyone who trusts in them.
- <sup>19</sup> House of Israel, bless the LORD; House of Aaron, bless the LORD;
- <sup>20</sup> House of Levi, bless the LORD; You who revere the LORD, bless the LORD.
- <sup>21</sup> Blessed be the LORD from Zion, Who dwells in Jerusalem. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 136

Thanks for the LORD's Goodness to Israel.

- <sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, For His faithfulness is everlasting.

- <sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the God of gods, For His faithfulness is everlasting.
- <sup>3</sup>Give thanks to the Lord of lords, For His faithfulness is everlasting.
- <sup>4</sup>To Him who alone does great wonders, For His faithfulness is everlasting;
- <sup>5</sup>To Him who made the heavens with skill, For His faithfulness is everlasting;
- <sup>6</sup>To Him who spread out the earth above the waters, For His faithfulness is everlasting;
- <sup>7</sup>To Him who made the great lights, For His faithfulness is everlasting:
- <sup>8</sup>The sun to rule by day, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>9</sup>The moon and stars to rule by night, For His faithfulness is everlasting.
- <sup>10</sup>To Him who struck the Egyptians, that is, their firstborn, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>11</sup>And brought Israel out from their midst, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>12</sup>With a strong hand and an outstretched arm, For His faithfulness is everlasting.
- <sup>13</sup>To Him who divided the Red Sea in parts, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>14</sup>And allowed Israel to pass through the midst of it, For His faithfulness is everlasting;
- <sup>15</sup>But He overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea, For His faithfulness is everlasting.
- <sup>16</sup>To Him who led His people through the wilderness, For His faithfulness is everlasting;
- <sup>17</sup>To Him who struck great kings, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>18</sup>And brought death to mighty kings, For His faithfulness is everlasting:
- <sup>19</sup>Sihon, king of the Amorites, For His faithfulness is everlasting,
- <sup>20</sup>And Og, king of Bashan, For His faithfulness is everlasting,

- <sup>21</sup>And gave their land as an inheritance, For His faithfulness is everlasting,

Psalms 137

An Experience of the Captivity.

- <sup>1</sup>By the rivers of Babylon, There we sat down and wept, When we remembered Zion.
<sup>3</sup>For there our captors demanded of us songs, And our tormentors, jubilation, saying, “Sing for us one of the songs of Zion!”
<sup>4</sup>How can we sing the LORD’s song In a foreign land?
<sup>6</sup>May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth If I do not remember you, If I do not exalt Jerusalem Above my chief joy.
<sup>7</sup>Remember, LORD, against the sons of Edom The day of Jerusalem, Those who said, “Lay it bare, lay it bare To its foundation!”
<sup>8</sup>Daughter of Babylon, you devastated one, Blessed will be one who repays you With the retribution with which you have repaid us.
<sup>9</sup>Blessed will be one who seizes and dashes your children Against the rock.

Psalms 138

Thanksgiving for the LORD’s Favor. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will give You thanks with all my heart; I will sing Your praises before the gods.

<sup>2</sup>I will bow down toward Your holy temple And give thanks to Your name for Your mercy and Your truth; For You have made Your word great according to all Your name.

<sup>3</sup>On the day I called, You answered me; You made me bold with strength in my soul.

<sup>4</sup>All the kings of the earth will give thanks to You, LORD, When they have heard the words of Your mouth.

<sup>5</sup>And they will sing of the ways of the LORD, For great is the glory of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD is exalted, Yet He looks after the lowly, But He knows the haughty from afar.

<sup>7</sup>Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will reach out with Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, And Your right hand will save me.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will accomplish what concerns me; Your faithfulness, LORD, is everlasting; Do not abandon the works of Your hands.

Psalms 139

God's Omnipresence and Omniscience.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, You have searched me and known me.

<sup>2</sup>You know when I sit down and when I get up; You understand my thought from far away.

<sup>3</sup>You scrutinize my path and my lying down, And are acquainted with all my ways.

<sup>4</sup> Even before there is a word on my tongue, Behold, LORD, You know it all.

<sup>5</sup>You have encircled me behind and in front, And placed Your hand upon me.

<sup>6</sup> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is too high, I cannot comprehend it.

<sup>7</sup>Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence?

<sup>8</sup>If I ascend to heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there.

<sup>9</sup> If I take up the wings of the dawn, If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, <sup>10</sup>Even there Your hand will lead me, And Your right hand will take hold of me.

<sup>11</sup> If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me, And the light around me will be night,"

<sup>12</sup>Even darkness is not dark to You, And the night is as bright as the day. Darkness and light are alike to You.

<sup>13</sup>For You created my innermost parts; You wove me in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup>I will give thanks to You, because I am awesomely and wonderfully made; Wonderful are Your works, And my soul knows it very well.

<sup>15</sup>My frame was not hidden from You When I was made in secret, And skillfully formed in the depths of the earth;

<sup>16</sup>Your eyes have seen my formless substance; And in Your book were written All the days that were ordained for me, When as yet there was not one of them.

<sup>17</sup>How precious also are Your thoughts for me, God! How vast is the sum of them!

<sup>18</sup>Were I to count them, they would outnumber the sand. When I awake, I am still with You.

<sup>19</sup>If only You would put the wicked to death, God; Leave me, you men of bloodshed.

<sup>21</sup>Do I not hate those who hate You, LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?

<sup>22</sup>I hate them with the utmost hatred; They have become my enemies.

<sup>23</sup>Search me, God, and know my heart; Put me to the test and know my anxious thoughts;

<sup>24</sup>And see if there is any hurtful way in me, And lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalms 140

Prayer for Protection against the Wicked.
For the music director. A Psalm of David.

<sup>5</sup>The proud have hidden a trap for me, and snares; They have spread a net at the wayside; They have set snares for me.Selah <sup>6</sup>I said to the LORD, “You are my God; Listen, LORD, to the sound of my pleadings.

<sup>7</sup>“GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head on the day of battle.

<sup>8</sup>“Do not grant, LORD, the desires of the wicked; Do not bring about his evil planning, so that they are not exalted.Selah <sup>9</sup>“As for the head of those who surround me, May the harm of their lips cover them.

<sup>10</sup>“May burning coals fall upon them; May they be cast into the fire, Into bottomless pits from which they cannot rise.

<sup>11</sup>“May a slanderer not endure on the earth; May evil hunt a violent person violently.”

<sup>12</sup>I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, And justice for the poor.

<sup>13</sup>Certainly the righteous will give thanks to Your name; The upright will dwell in Your presence.

Psalms 141

An Evening Prayer for Sanctification and Protection. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, I call upon You; hurry to me! Listen to my voice when I call to You!

<sup>2</sup>May my prayer be counted as incense before You; The raising of my hands as the evening offering.

<sup>3</sup>Set a guard, LORD, over my mouth; Keep watch over the door of my lips.

<sup>4</sup>Do not incline my heart to any evil thing, To practice deeds of wickedness With people who do wrong; And may I not taste their delicacies.

<sup>5</sup>May the righteous strike me with mercy and discipline me; It is oil for the head; My head shall not refuse it, For my prayer is still against their evil deeds.

<sup>6</sup>Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock, And they hear my words, for they are pleasant.

<sup>8</sup>For my eyes are toward You, GOD, the Lord; In You I take refuge; do not leave me defenseless.

<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the jaws of the trap which they have set for me, And from the snares of those who do wrong.

<sup>10</sup>May the wicked fall into their own nets, While I pass by safely.

Psalms 142

Prayer for Help in Trouble.
Maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

<sup>3</sup>When my spirit felt weak within me, You knew my path. In the way where I walk They have hidden a trap for me.

<sup>4</sup>Look to the right and see; For there is no one who regards me favorably; There is no escape for me; No one cares for my soul.

<sup>5</sup>I cried out to You, LORD; I said, “You are my refuge, My portion in the land of the living.

<sup>6</sup>“Give Your attention to my cry, For I have been brought very low; Rescue me from my persecutors, For they are too strong for me.

<sup>7</sup>“Bring my soul out of prison, So that I may give thanks to Your name; The righteous will surround me, For You will look after me.”

Psalms 143

Prayer for Help and Guidance.
A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD, Listen to my pleadings! Answer me in Your faithfulness, in Your righteousness!

<sup>3</sup>For the enemy has persecuted my soul; He has crushed my life to the ground; He has made me dwell in dark places, like those who have long been dead.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore my spirit feels weak within me; My heart is appalled within me.

<sup>5</sup>I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your accomplishments; I reflect on the work of Your hands.

<sup>6</sup>I spread out my hands to You; My soul longs for You, like a weary land. Selah <sup>7</sup>Answer me quickly, LORD, my spirit fails; Do not hide Your face from me, Or I will be the same as those who go down to the pit.

<sup>8</sup>Let me hear Your faithfulness in the morning, For I trust in You; Teach me the way in which I should walk; For to You I lift up my soul.

<sup>9</sup>Save me, LORD, from my enemies; I take refuge in You.

<sup>10</sup>Teach me to do Your will, For You are my God; Let Your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

<sup>11</sup>For the sake of Your name, LORD, revive me. In Your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

<sup>12</sup>And in Your faithfulness, destroy my enemies, And eliminate all those who attack my soul, For I am Your servant.

Psalms 144

Prayer for Rescue and Prosperity. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed be the LORD, my rock, Who trains my hands for war, And my fingers for battle;

<sup>2</sup>My faithfulness and my fortress, My stronghold and my savior, My shield and He in whom I take refuge, Who subdues my people under me.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, what is man, that You look after him? Or a son of man, that You think of him?

<sup>9</sup>God, I will sing a new song to You; On a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,

<sup>12</sup>When our sons in their youth are like growing plants, And our daughters like corner pillars fashioned for a palace,

<sup>13</sup>Our granaries are full, providing every kind of produce, And our flocks deliver thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

<sup>14</sup>May our cattle be bred Without mishap and without loss, May there be no outcry in our streets!

<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who are so situated; Blessed are the people whose God is the LORD!

Psalms 145

The LORD Exalted for His Goodness. A Psalm of Praise, of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will exalt You, my God, the King, And I will bless Your name forever and ever.

<sup>2</sup>Every day I will bless You, And I will praise Your name forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>People will speak of the power of Your awesome acts, And I will tell of Your greatness.

<sup>7</sup>They will burst forth in speaking of Your abundant goodness, And will shout joyfully of Your righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>All Your works will give thanks to You, LORD, And Your godly ones will bless You.

<sup>11</sup>They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, And talk of Your might,

<sup>12</sup>To make known to the sons of mankind Your mighty acts, And the glory of the majesty of Your kingdom.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD is near to all who call on Him, To all who call on Him in truth.

<sup>19</sup>He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He will also hear their cry for help and save them.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD watches over all who love Him, But He will destroy all the wicked.

<sup>21</sup>My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, And all flesh will bless His holy name forever and ever.

Psalms 146

The LORD, an Abundant Helper.

<sup>2</sup>I will praise the LORD while I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

<sup>3</sup>Do not trust in noblemen, In mortal man, in whom there is no salvation.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, Whose hope is in the LORD his God,

<sup>6</sup>Who made heaven and earth, The sea and everything that is in them; Who keeps faith forever;

<sup>7</sup>Who executes justice for the oppressed; Who gives food to the hungry. The LORD frees the prisoners.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD opens the eyes of those who are blind; The LORD raises up those who are bowed down; The LORD loves the righteous.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD watches over strangers; He supports the fatherless and the widow, But He thwarts the way of the wicked.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD will reign forever, Your God, Zion, to all generations. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 147

Praise for Jerusalem's Restoration and Prosperity.

- <sup>3</sup>He heals the brokenhearted And binds up their wounds.
- <sup>4</sup>He counts the number of the stars; He gives names to all of them.
- <sup>5</sup>Great is our Lord and abundant in strength; His understanding is infinite.
- <sup>6</sup>The LORD supports the afflicted; He brings the wicked down to the ground.
- <sup>7</sup>Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; Sing praises to our God on the lyre;
- <sup>8</sup>It is He who covers the heavens with clouds, Who provides rain for the earth, Who makes grass sprout on the mountains.
- <sup>9</sup>It is He who gives an animal its food, And feeds young ravens that cry.
- <sup>10</sup>He does not delight in the strength of the horse; He does not take pleasure in the legs of a man.
- <sup>11</sup>The LORD favors those who fear Him, Those who wait for His faithfulness.
- <sup>12</sup>Praise the LORD, Jerusalem! Praise your God, Zion!
- <sup>13</sup>For He has strengthened the bars of your gates; He has blessed your sons among you.
- <sup>14</sup>He makes peace in your borders; He satisfies you with the finest of the wheat.
- <sup>15</sup>He sends His command to the earth; His word runs very swiftly.
- <sup>16</sup>He showers snow like wool; He scatters the frost like ashes.
- <sup>17</sup>He hurls His ice as fragments; Who can stand before His cold?
- <sup>18</sup>He sends His word and makes them melt; He makes His wind blow, and the waters flow.
- <sup>19</sup>He declares His words to Jacob, His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
- <sup>20</sup>He has not dealt this way with any other nation; And as for His judgments, they have not known them. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 148

The Whole Creation Invoked to Praise the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> They are to praise the name of the LORD, For He commanded and they were created.

<sup>6</sup> He has also established them forever and ever; He has made a decree, and it will not pass away.

<sup>14</sup> And He has lifted up a horn for His people, Praise for all His godly ones, For the sons of Israel, a people near to Him. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 149

Israel Invoked to Praise the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>To execute against them the judgment written. This is an honor for all His godly ones. Praise the LORD!

Psalms 150

A Psalm of Praise.

Proverbs

Proverbs 1

The Usefulness of Proverbs

- <sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:
- <sup>2</sup>To know wisdom and instruction, To discern the sayings of understanding,
- <sup>3</sup>To receive instruction in wise behavior, Righteousness, justice, and integrity;
- <sup>4</sup>To give prudence to the naive, To the youth knowledge and discretion,
- <sup>5</sup>A wise person will hear and increase in learning, And a person of understanding will acquire wise counsel,
- <sup>6</sup>To understand a proverb and a saying, The words of the wise and their riddles.
- <sup>7</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; Fools despise wisdom and instruction.

The Enticement of Sinners

- <sup>8</sup>Listen, my son, to your father's instruction, And do not ignore your mother's teaching;
- <sup>9</sup>For they are a graceful wreath for your head And necklaces for your neck.
- <sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners entice you, Do not consent.
- <sup>11</sup>If they say, "Come with us, Let's lie in wait for blood, Let's ambush the innocent without cause;
- <sup>12</sup>Let's swallow them alive like Sheol, Even whole, like those who go down to the pit;
- <sup>13</sup>We will find all kinds of precious wealth, We will fill our houses with plunder;
- <sup>14</sup>Throw in your lot with us; We will all have one money bag,"
- <sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk on the way with them. Keep your feet from their path,

Wisdom Warns

<sup>22</sup>“How long, you naive ones, will you love simplistic thinking? And how long will scoffers delight themselves in scoffing And fools hate knowledge?

<sup>23</sup>“Turn to my rebuke, Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you; I will make my words known to you.

<sup>24</sup>“Because I called and you refused, I stretched out my hand and no one paid attention;

<sup>25</sup>And you neglected all my advice And did not want my rebuke;

<sup>26</sup>I will also laugh at your disaster; I will mock when your dread comes,

<sup>27</sup>When your dread comes like a storm And your disaster comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you.

<sup>28</sup>“Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; They will seek me diligently but will not find me,

<sup>32</sup>“For the faithlessness of the naive will kill them, And the complacency of fools will destroy them.

<sup>33</sup>“But whoever listens to me will live securely And will be at ease from the dread of evil.”

Proverbs 2

The Pursuit of Wisdom Brings Security

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you will receive my words And treasure my commandments within you,

<sup>2</sup>Make your ear attentive to wisdom; Incline your heart to understanding.

<sup>5</sup>Then you will understand the fear of the LORD, And discover the knowledge of God.

<sup>7</sup>He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to those who walk in integrity,

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter your heart, And knowledge will be delightful to your soul;

<sup>11</sup>Discretion will watch over you, Understanding will guard you,

<sup>12</sup>To rescue you from the way of evil, From a person who speaks perverse things;

<sup>19</sup> None who go to her return, Nor do they reach the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup> So you will walk in the way of good people And keep to the paths of the righteous.

<sup>21</sup> For the upright will live in the land, And the blameless will remain in it;

<sup>22</sup> But the wicked will be eliminated from the land, And the treacherous will be torn away from it.

Proverbs 3

The Rewards of Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> My son, do not forget my teaching, But have your heart comply with my commandments;

<sup>2</sup> For length of days and years of life And peace they will add to you.

<sup>3</sup> Do not let kindness and truth leave you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart.

<sup>6</sup> In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your paths straight.

- <sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
- <sup>8</sup>It will be healing to your body And refreshment to your bones.
- <sup>9</sup>Honor the LORD from your wealth, And from the first of all your produce;
- <sup>10</sup>Then your barns will be filled with plenty, And your vats will overflow with new wine.
- <sup>11</sup>My son, do not reject the discipline of the LORD Or loathe His rebuke,
- <sup>12</sup>For whom the LORD loves He disciplines, Just as a father disciplines the son in whom he delights.
- <sup>13</sup>Blessed is a person who finds wisdom, And one who obtains understanding.
- <sup>14</sup>For her profit is better than the profit of silver, And her produce better than gold.
- <sup>15</sup>She is more precious than jewels, And nothing you desire compares with her.
- <sup>16</sup>Long life is in her right hand; In her left hand are riches and honor.
- <sup>17</sup>Her ways are pleasant ways, And all her paths are peace.
- <sup>18</sup>She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, And happy are those who hold on to her.
- <sup>19</sup>The LORD founded the earth by wisdom, He established the heavens by understanding.
- <sup>20</sup>By His knowledge the ocean depths were burst open, And the clouds drip with dew.
- <sup>21</sup>My son, see that they do not escape from your sight; Comply with sound wisdom and discretion,
- <sup>22</sup>And they will be life to your soul And adornment to your neck.
- <sup>23</sup>Then you will walk in your way securely, And your foot will not stumble.

<sup>24</sup>When you lie down, you will not be afraid; When you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

<sup>25</sup>Do not be afraid of sudden danger, Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;

<sup>27</sup>Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, When it is in your power to do it.

<sup>28</sup>Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come back, And tomorrow I will give it to you,” When you have it with you.

<sup>30</sup>Do not contend with a person for no reason, If he has done you no harm.

Proverbs 4

A Father's Instruction

<sup>1</sup>Listen, my sons, to the instruction of a father, And pay attention so that you may gain understanding,

<sup>3</sup>When I was a son to my father, Tender and the only son in the sight of my mother,

<sup>4</sup>He taught me and said to me, “Let your heart take hold of my words; Keep my commandments and live;

<sup>5</sup>Acquire wisdom! Acquire understanding! Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

<sup>6</sup>“Do not abandon her, and she will guard you; Love her, and she will watch over you.

<sup>7</sup>“The beginning of wisdom is: Acquire wisdom; And with all your possessions, acquire understanding.

<sup>8</sup>“Prize her, and she will exalt you; She will honor you if you embrace her.

<sup>9</sup>“She will place on your head a garland of grace; She will present you with a crown of beauty.”

<sup>10</sup>Listen, my son, and accept my sayings, And the years of your life will be many.

<sup>11</sup>I have instructed you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in upright paths.

<sup>12</sup>When you walk, your steps will not be hampered; And if you run, you will not stumble.

<sup>16</sup>For they cannot sleep unless they do evil; And they are robbed of sleep unless they make someone stumble.

<sup>26</sup> Watch the path of your feet, And all your ways will be established.

Proverbs 5

Pitfalls of Immorality

<sup>1</sup>My son, pay attention to my wisdom, Incline your ear to my understanding,

<sup>2</sup>So that you may maintain discretion And your lips may comply with knowledge.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, my sons, listen to me And do not turn away from the words of my mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Keep your way far from her, And do not go near the door of her house,

<sup>9</sup>Otherwise you will give your vigor to others, And your years to the cruel one;

<sup>10</sup>And strangers will be filled with your strength, And your hard-earned possessions will go to the house of a foreigner;

<sup>11</sup>And you will groan in the end, When your flesh and your body are consumed;

<sup>12</sup>And you say, “How I hated instruction! And my heart disdainfully rejected rebuke!

<sup>20</sup>For why should you, my son, be exhilarated with an adulteress, And embrace the breasts of a foreigner?

<sup>21</sup>For the ways of everyone are before the eyes of the LORD, And He observes all his paths.

<sup>22</sup>His own wrongdoings will trap the wicked, And he will be held by the ropes of his sin.

<sup>23</sup>He will die for lack of instruction, And in the greatness of his foolishness he will go astray.

Proverbs 6

Parental Counsel

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you have become a guarantor for your neighbor, Or have given a handshake for a stranger,

<sup>2</sup> If you have been ensnared by the words of your mouth, Or caught by the words of your mouth,

<sup>3</sup>Then do this, my son, and save yourself: Since you have come into the hand of your neighbor, Go, humble yourself, and be urgent with your neighbor to free yourself.

<sup>4</sup>Give no sleep to your eyes, Nor slumber to your eyelids;

<sup>9</sup>How long will you lie down, you lazy one? When will you arise from your sleep?

<sup>15</sup>Therefore his disaster will come suddenly; Instantly he will be broken and there will be no healing.

<sup>16</sup>There are six things that the LORD hates, Seven that are an abomination to Him:

<sup>18</sup>A heart that devises wicked plans, Feet that run rapidly to evil,

<sup>20</sup>My son, comply with the commandment of your father, And do not ignore the teaching of your mother;

<sup>22</sup>When you walk, they will guide you; When you sleep, they will watch over you; And when you awake, they will talk to you.

<sup>23</sup>For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching is light; And rebukes for discipline are the way of life

<sup>29</sup>So is the one who goes in to his neighbor's wife; Whoever touches her will not go unpunished.

<sup>30</sup>People do not despise a thief if he steals To satisfy himself when he is hungry;

<sup>32</sup>One who commits adultery with a woman is lacking sense; He who would destroy himself commits it.

<sup>34</sup>For jealousy enrages a man, And he will not have compassion on the day of vengeance.

<sup>35</sup>He will not accept any settlement, Nor will he be satisfied though you make it a large gift.

Proverbs 7

The Lures of the Prostitute

<sup>1</sup>My son, keep my words And treasure my commandments within you.

<sup>2</sup>Keep my commandments and live, And my teaching as the apple of your eye.

<sup>4</sup>Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," And call understanding your intimate friend, <sup>5</sup>So that they may keep you from an adulteress, From the foreigner who flatters with her words.

<sup>6</sup>For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice,

<sup>7</sup>And I saw among the naive, And discerned among the youths A young man lacking sense,

<sup>8</sup>Passing through the street near her corner; And he walks along the way to her house,

<sup>9</sup>In the twilight, in the evening, In the middle of the night and the darkness.

<sup>10</sup>And behold, a woman comes to meet him, Dressed as a prostitute and cunning of heart.

<sup>13</sup> So she seizes him and kisses him, And with a brazen face she says to him:

<sup>14</sup> “I was due to offer peace offerings; Today I have paid my vows.

<sup>15</sup> “Therefore I have come out to meet you, To seek your presence diligently, and I have found you.

<sup>23</sup> Until an arrow pierces through his liver; As a bird hurries to the snare, So he does not know that it will cost him his life.

<sup>24</sup> Now therefore, my sons, listen to me, And pay attention to the words of my mouth.

<sup>26</sup> For many are the victims she has brought to ruin, And numerous are all those slaughtered by her.

Proverbs 8

The Commendation of Wisdom

- <sup>1</sup>Does not wisdom call, And understanding raise her voice?
- <sup>2</sup>On top of the heights beside the way, Where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
- <sup>3</sup>Beside the gates, at the opening to the city, At the entrance of the doors, she cries out:
- <sup>4</sup>“To you, people, I call, And my voice is to mankind.
- <sup>5</sup>“You naive ones, understand prudence; And, you fools, understand wisdom!
- <sup>6</sup>“Listen, for I will speak noble things; And the opening of my lips will reveal right things.
- <sup>7</sup>“For my mouth will proclaim truth; And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
- <sup>8</sup>“All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; There is nothing crooked or perverted in them.
- <sup>9</sup>“They are all straightforward to him who understands, And right to those who find knowledge.
- <sup>10</sup>“Accept my instruction and not silver, And knowledge rather than choice gold.
- <sup>11</sup>“For wisdom is better than jewels; And all desirable things cannot compare with her.
- <sup>12</sup>“I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, And I find knowledge and discretion.
- <sup>13</sup>“The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; Pride, arrogance, the evil way, And the perverted mouth, I hate.
- <sup>14</sup>“Advice is mine and sound wisdom; I am understanding, power is mine.
- <sup>15</sup>“By me kings reign, And rulers decree justice.
- <sup>16</sup>“By me princes rule, and nobles, All who judge rightly.
- <sup>17</sup>“I love those who love me; And those who diligently seek me will find me.

18“Riches and honor are with me, Enduring wealth and righteousness.

19“My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold; And my yield better than choice silver.

20“I walk in the way of righteousness, In the midst of the paths of justice, 21To endow those who love me with wealth, That I may fill their treasuries.

22“The LORD created me at the beginning of His way, Before His works of old.

23“From eternity I was established, From the beginning, from the earliest times of the earth.

24“When there were no ocean depths, I was born, When there were no springs abounding with water.

25“Before the mountains were settled, Before the hills, I was born;

26While He had not yet made the earth and the fields, Nor the first dust of the world.

27“When He established the heavens, I was there; When He inscribed a circle on the face of the deep,

28When He made firm the skies above, When the springs of the deep became fixed,

29When He set a boundary for the sea So that the water would not violate His command, When He marked out the foundations of the earth;

30Then I was beside Him, as a master workman; And I was His delight daily, Rejoicing always before Him, 31 Rejoicing in the world, His earth, And having my delight in the sons of mankind.

32“Now then, sons, listen to me, For blessed are those who keep my ways.

33“Listen to instruction and be wise, And do not neglect it.

34“Blessed is the person who listens to me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at my doorposts.

<sup>35</sup>“For one who finds me finds life, And obtains favor from the LORD.

Proverbs 9

Wisdom’s Invitation

<sup>2</sup>She has prepared her food, she has mixed her wine; She has also set her table;

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her attendants, she calls out From the tops of the heights of the city:

<sup>4</sup>“Whoever is naive, let him turn in here!” To him who lacks understanding she says,

<sup>8</sup>Do not rebuke a scoffer, or he will hate you; Rebuke a wise person and he will love you.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

<sup>11</sup>For by me your days will be multiplied, And years of life will be added to you.

<sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, And if you scoff, you alone will suffer from it.

<sup>13</sup>A woman of foolishness is boisterous, She has a lack of understanding and knows nothing.

<sup>14</sup>She sits at the doorway of her house, On a seat by the high places of the city,

<sup>15</sup>Calling to those who pass by, Who are going straight on their paths:

<sup>16</sup>“Whoever is naive, let him turn in here,” And to him who lacks understanding she says,

<sup>18</sup>But he does not know that the dead are there, That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Proverbs 10

Contrast of the Righteous and the Wicked

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will not allow the righteous to hunger, But He will reject the craving of the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>He who gathers in summer is a son who acts wisely, But he who sleeps in harvest is a son who acts shamefully.

<sup>9</sup>One who walks in integrity walks securely, But one who perverts his ways will be found out.

<sup>10</sup>He who winks the eye causes trouble, And a babbling fool will come to ruin.

<sup>22</sup>It is the blessing of the LORD that makes rich, And He adds no sorrow to it.

<sup>23</sup>Doing wickedness is like sport to a fool, And so is wisdom to a person of understanding.

<sup>24</sup>What the wicked fears will come upon him, But the desire of the righteous will be granted.

<sup>25</sup>When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more, But the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

<sup>26</sup>Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, So is the lazy one to those who send him.

<sup>27</sup>The fear of the LORD prolongs life, But the years of the wicked will be shortened.

<sup>30</sup>The righteous will never be shaken, But the wicked will not live in the land.

<sup>31</sup>The mouth of the righteous flows with wisdom, But the perverted tongue will be cut out.

<sup>32</sup>The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, But the mouth of the wicked, what is perverted.

Proverbs 11

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>3</sup>The integrity of the upright will guide them, But the perversity of the treacherous will destroy them.

<sup>5</sup>The righteousness of the blameless will smooth his way, But the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

<sup>6</sup>The righteousness of the upright will rescue them, But the treacherous will be caught by their own greed.

<sup>11</sup>By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, But by the mouth of the wicked, it is torn down.

<sup>13</sup>One who goes about as a slanderer reveals secrets, But one who is trustworthy conceals a matter.

<sup>14</sup>Where there is no guidance the people fall, But in an abundance of counselors there is victory.

<sup>21</sup> Be assured, the evil person will not go unpunished, But the descendants of the righteous will be rescued.

<sup>22</sup> As a ring of gold in a pig's snout So is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.

<sup>24</sup>There is one who scatters, and yet increases all the more, And there is one who withholds what is justly due, and yet it results only in poverty.

<sup>25</sup>A generous person will be prosperous, And one who gives others plenty of water will himself be given plenty.

<sup>26</sup>One who withholds grain, the people will curse him, But blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

<sup>27</sup>One who diligently seeks good seeks favor, But one who seeks evil, evil will come to him.

<sup>28</sup>One who trusts in his riches will fall, But the righteous will flourish like the green leaf.

<sup>29</sup>One who troubles his own house will inherit wind, And the foolish will be servant to the wise-hearted.

<sup>30</sup>The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, And one who is wise gains souls.

<sup>31</sup>If the righteous will be repaid on the earth, How much more the wicked and the sinner!

Proverbs 12

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>2</sup>A good person will obtain favor from the LORD, But He will condemn a person who devises evil.

<sup>3</sup>A person will not be established by wickedness, But the root of the righteous will not be moved.

<sup>4</sup>An excellent wife is the crown of her husband, But she who shames him is like rottenness in his bones.

<sup>6</sup>The words of the wicked wait in ambush for blood, But the mouth of the upright will rescue them.

<sup>7</sup>The wicked are overthrown and are no more, But the house of the righteous will stand.

<sup>8</sup>A person will be praised according to his insight, But one of perverse mind will be despised.

<sup>9</sup>Better is one who is lightly esteemed and has a servant, Than one who honors himself and lacks bread.

<sup>10</sup>A righteous person has regard for the life of his animal, But even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.

<sup>11</sup>One who works his land will have plenty of bread, But one who pursues worthless things lacks sense.

<sup>12</sup>The wicked person desires the plunder of evil people, But the root of the righteous yields fruit.

<sup>13</sup>An evil person is ensnared by the offense of his lips, But the righteous will escape from trouble.

<sup>15</sup>The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, But a person who listens to advice is wise.

<sup>24</sup>The hand of the diligent will rule, But the lazy hand will be put to forced labor.

<sup>27</sup>A lazy person does not roast his prey, But the precious possession of a person is diligence.

<sup>28</sup>In the way of righteousness there is life, And in its pathway there is no death.

Proverbs 13

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>7</sup>There is one who pretends to be rich but has nothing; Another pretends to be poor, but has great wealth.

<sup>13</sup>One who despises the word will do badly, But one who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

<sup>19</sup>Desire realized is sweet to the soul, But it is an abomination to fools to turn away from evil.

<sup>25</sup>The righteous has enough to satisfy his appetite, But the stomach of the wicked is in need.

Proverbs 14

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>4</sup>Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean; But much revenue comes by the strength of the ox.

<sup>7</sup>Leave the presence of a fool, Or you will not discern words of knowledge.

<sup>8</sup>The wisdom of the sensible is to understand his way, But the foolishness of fools is deceit.

<sup>11</sup>The house of the wicked will be destroyed, But the tent of the upright will flourish.

<sup>12</sup>There is a way which seems right to a person, But its end is the way of death.

<sup>13</sup>Even in laughter the heart may be in pain, And the end of joy may be grief.

<sup>22</sup>Will they who devise evil not go astray? But kindness and truth will be to those who devise good.

<sup>29</sup>One who is slow to anger has great understanding; But one who is quick-tempered exalts foolishness.

<sup>31</sup>One who oppresses the poor taunts his Maker, But one who is gracious to the needy honors Him.

<sup>32</sup>The wicked is thrust down by his own wrongdoing, But the righteous has a refuge when he dies.

<sup>33</sup>Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding, But among fools it is made known.

Proverbs 15

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>8</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, But the prayer of the upright is His delight.

<sup>9</sup>The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, But He loves the one who pursues righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>There is severe punishment for one who abandons the way; One who hates a rebuke will die.

<sup>16</sup>Better is a little with the fear of the LORD Than great treasure, and turmoil with the treasure.

<sup>17</sup>Better is a portion of vegetables where there is love, Than a fattened ox served with hatred.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD will tear down the house of the proud, But He will set the boundary of the widow.

<sup>27</sup>He who profits illicitly troubles his own house, But he who hates bribes will live.

Proverbs 16

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has made everything for its own purpose, Even the wicked for the day of evil.

<sup>5</sup>Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD; Be assured, he will not go unpunished.

<sup>6</sup>By mercy and truth atonement is made for wrongdoing, And by the fear of the LORD one keeps away from evil.

<sup>30</sup>He who winks his eyes does so to devise perverse things; He who compresses his lips brings evil to pass.

Proverbs 17

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>16</sup>Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, When he has no sense?

<sup>24</sup>Wisdom is in the presence of one who has understanding, But the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

<sup>25</sup>A foolish son is a grief to his father, And bitterness to her who gave birth to him.

<sup>26</sup>It is also not good to fine the righteous, Nor to strike the noble for their uprightness.

<sup>27</sup>One who withholds his words has knowledge, And one who has a cool spirit is a person of understanding.

<sup>28</sup>Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is considered wise; When he closes his lips, he is considered prudent.

Proverbs 18

Contrast of the Upright and the Wicked

<sup>21</sup>Death and life are in the power of the tongue, And those who love it will eat its fruit.

Proverbs 19

On Life and Conduct

<sup>1</sup>Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity Than a person who is perverse in speech and is a fool.

<sup>2</sup>Also it is not good for a person to be without knowledge, And one who hurries his footsteps errs.

<sup>6</sup>Many will seek the favor of a generous person, And every person is a friend to him who gives gifts.

<sup>16</sup>One who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, But one who is careless of conduct will die.

<sup>17</sup>One who is gracious to a poor person lends to the LORD, And He will repay him for his good deed.

<sup>18</sup>Discipline your son while there is hope, And do not desire his death.

<sup>19</sup>A person of great anger will suffer the penalty, For if you rescue him, you will only have to do it again.

<sup>20</sup>Listen to advice and accept discipline, So that you may be wise the rest of your days.

<sup>21</sup>Many plans are in a person's heart, But the advice of the LORD will stand.

<sup>22</sup>What is desirable in a person is his kindness, And it is better to be a poor person than a liar.

<sup>23</sup>The fear of the LORD leads to life, So that one may sleep satisfied, untouched by evil.

<sup>25</sup>Strike a scoffer and the naive may become clever, But rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

<sup>27</sup>Stop listening, my son, to discipline, And you will stray from the words of knowledge.

Proverbs 20

On Life and Conduct

<sup>5</sup>A plan in the heart of a person is like deep water, But a person of understanding draws it out.

<sup>12</sup>The hearing ear and the seeing eye, The LORD has made both of them.

<sup>13</sup>Do not love sleep, or you will become poor; Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with food.

<sup>14</sup>“Bad, bad,” says the buyer, But when he goes his way, then he boasts.

<sup>15</sup>There is gold, and an abundance of jewels; But lips of knowledge are a more precious thing.

<sup>16</sup>Take his garment when he becomes guarantor for a stranger; And for foreigners, seize a pledge from him.

Proverbs 21

On Life and Conduct

<sup>13</sup>One who shuts his ear to the outcry of the poor Will also call out himself, and not be answered.

<sup>16</sup>A person who wanders from the way of understanding Will rest in the assembly of the dead.

<sup>17</sup>One who loves pleasure will become a poor person; One who loves wine and oil will not become rich.

<sup>18</sup>The wicked is a ransom for the righteous, And the treacherous is in the place of the upright.

<sup>20</sup>There is precious treasure and oil in the home of the wise, But a foolish person swallows it up.

Proverbs 22

On Life and Conduct

<sup>2</sup>The rich and the poor have a common bond, The LORD is the Maker of them all.

<sup>5</sup>Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; One who guards himself will be far from them.

<sup>6</sup>Train up a child in the way he should go, Even when he grows older he will not abandon it.

<sup>10</sup>Drive out the scoffer, and strife will leave, Even quarreling and dishonor will cease.

<sup>13</sup>The lazy one says, "There is a lion outside; I will be killed in the streets!"

<sup>14</sup>The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit; He who is cursed of the LORD will fall into it.

<sup>15</sup>Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child; The rod of discipline will remove it far from him.

<sup>16</sup>One who oppresses the poor to make more for himself, Or gives to the rich, will only come to poverty.

<sup>17</sup>Extend your ear and hear the words of the wise, And apply your mind to my knowledge;

<sup>18</sup>For it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, So that they may be ready on your lips.

<sup>19</sup>So that your trust may be in the LORD, I have taught you today, you indeed.

<sup>20</sup>Have I not written to you excellent things Of counsels and knowledge, <sup>21</sup>To make you know the certainty of the words of truth, So that you may correctly answer him who sent you?

<sup>27</sup>If you have nothing with which to repay, Why should he take your bed from under you?

Proverbs 23

On Life and Conduct

- <sup>1</sup>When you sit down to dine with a ruler, Consider carefully what is before you,
- <sup>2</sup>And put a knife to your throat If you are a person of great appetite.
- <sup>3</sup>Do not desire his delicacies, For it is deceptive food.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not weary yourself to gain wealth; Stop dwelling on it.
- <sup>5</sup> When you set your eyes on it, it is gone. For wealth certainly makes itself wings Like an eagle that flies toward the heavens.
- <sup>6</sup>Do not eat the bread of a selfish person; Or desire his delicacies;
- <sup>7</sup>For as he thinks within himself, so he is. He says to you, “Eat and drink!” But his heart is not with you.
- <sup>8</sup>You will vomit up the morsel you have eaten And waste your compliments.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not speak to be heard by a fool, For he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- <sup>10</sup>Do not move the ancient boundary Or go into the fields of the fatherless,
- <sup>11</sup>For their Redeemer is strong; He will plead their case against you.
- <sup>12</sup>Apply your heart to discipline, And your ears to words of knowledge.
- <sup>13</sup>Do not withhold discipline from a child; Though you strike him with the rod, he will not die.
- <sup>14</sup>You shall strike him with the rod And rescue his soul from Sheol.
- <sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart is wise, My own heart also will be glad,
- <sup>16</sup>And my innermost being will rejoice When your lips speak what is right.
- <sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart envy sinners, But live in the fear of the LORD always.
- <sup>18</sup>Certainly there is a future, And your hope will not be cut off.
- <sup>19</sup>Listen, my son, and be wise, And direct your heart in the way.

<sup>21</sup>For the heavy drinker and the glutton will come to poverty, And drowsiness will clothe one with rags.

<sup>22</sup>Listen to your father, who fathered you, And do not despise your mother when she is old.

<sup>24</sup>The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice, And he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him.

<sup>25</sup>Let your father and your mother be glad, And let her rejoice who gave birth to you.

<sup>26</sup>Give me your heart, my son, And let your eyes delight in my ways.

<sup>29</sup>Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions? Who has complaining? Who has wounds without cause? Who has red eyes?

<sup>31</sup>Do not look at wine when it is red, When it sparkles in the cup, When it goes down smoothly;

<sup>34</sup>And you will be like one who lies down in the middle of the sea, Or like one who lies down on the top of a mast.

<sup>35</sup>“They struck me, but I did not become ill; They beat me, but I did not know it. When will I awake? I will seek another drink.”

Proverbs 24

Precepts and Warnings

- <sup>1</sup>Do not be envious of evil people, Nor desire to be with them;
<sup>6</sup>For by wise guidance you will wage war, And in an abundance of counselors there is victory.
<sup>9</sup>The devising of foolishness is sin, And the scoffer is an abomination to humanity.
<sup>10</sup>If you show yourself lacking courage on the day of distress, Your strength is meager.
<sup>11</sup>Rescue those who are being taken away to death, And those who are staggering to the slaughter, Oh hold them back!
<sup>12</sup>If you say, "See, we did not know this," Does He who weighs the hearts not consider it? And does He who watches over your soul not know it? And will He not repay a person according to his work?
<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey, for it is good; Yes, the honey from the comb is sweet to your taste;
<sup>14</sup>Know that wisdom is the same for your soul; If you find it, then there will be a future, And your hope will not be cut off.
<sup>15</sup>Do not lie in ambush, you wicked person, against the home of the righteous; Do not destroy his resting place;
<sup>16</sup>For a righteous person falls seven times and rises again, But the wicked stumble in time of disaster.

<sup>17</sup>Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, And do not let your heart rejoice when he stumbles,

<sup>20</sup>For there will be no future for the evil person; The lamp of the wicked will be put out.

<sup>21</sup>My son, fear the LORD and the king; Do not get involved with those of high rank, <sup>22</sup>For their disaster will rise suddenly, And who knows the ruin that can come from both of them?

<sup>24</sup>One who says to the wicked, "You are righteous," Peoples will curse him, nations will scold him;

<sup>25</sup>But for those who rebuke the wicked there will be delight, And a good blessing will come upon them.

<sup>29</sup>Do not say, "I shall do the same to him as he has done to me; I will repay the person according to his work."

<sup>30</sup>I passed by the field of a lazy one, And by the vineyard of a person lacking sense, <sup>31</sup>And behold, it was completely overgrown with weeds; Its surface was covered with weeds, And its stone wall was broken down.

Proverbs 25

Similitudes and Instructions

<sup>2</sup>It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

<sup>3</sup> As the heavens for height and the earth for depth, So the heart of kings is unsearchable.

<sup>4</sup>Take away the impurities from the silver, And there comes out a vessel for the smith;

<sup>6</sup>Do not boast in the presence of the king, And do not stand in the same place as great people;

<sup>7</sup>For it is better that it be said to you, “Come up here,” Than for you to be placed lower in the presence of the prince, Whom your eyes have seen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not go out hastily to argue your case; Otherwise, what will you do in the end, When your neighbor humiliates you?

<sup>10</sup>Or one who hears it will put you to shame, And the evil report about you will not pass away.

<sup>16</sup>Have you found honey? Eat only what you need, So that you do not have it in excess and vomit it.

<sup>17</sup>Let your foot rarely be in your neighbor's house, Or he will become weary of you and hate you.

<sup>21</sup>If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

<sup>22</sup>For you will heap burning coals on his head, And the LORD will reward you.

<sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat much honey, Nor is it glory to search out one's own glory.

<sup>28</sup> Like a city that is broken into and without walls So is a person who has no self-control over his spirit.

Proverbs 26

Similitudes and Instructions

<sup>5</sup> Answer a fool as his foolishness deserves, So that he will not be wise in his own eyes.

<sup>6</sup> One who sends a message by the hand of a fool Chops off his own feet and drinks violence.

<sup>8</sup> Like one who binds a stone in a sling, So is one who gives honor to a fool.

<sup>9</sup> Like a thorn that sticks in the hand of a heavy drinker, So is a proverb in the mouths of fools.

<sup>10</sup> Like an archer who wounds everyone, So is one who hires a fool or hires those who pass by.

<sup>12</sup> Do you see a person wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

<sup>13</sup> A lazy one says, "There is a lion on the road! A lion is in the public square!"

<sup>17</sup> Like one who takes a dog by the ears, So is one who passes by and meddles with strife not belonging to him.

<sup>19</sup> So is a person who deceives his neighbor, And says, "Was I not joking?"

<sup>21</sup> Like charcoal to hot embers and wood to fire, So is a contentious person to kindle strife.

<sup>27</sup> One who digs a pit will fall into it, And one who rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

Proverbs 27

Warnings and Instructions

<sup>9</sup> Oil and perfume make the heart glad, And a person's advice is sweet to his friend.

<sup>10</sup> Do not abandon your friend or your father's friend, And do not go to your brother's house on the day of your disaster; Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far away.

<sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, So that I may reply to one who taunts me.

<sup>12</sup>A prudent person sees evil and hides himself; But the naive proceed, and pay the penalty.

<sup>13</sup>Take his garment when he becomes a guarantor for a stranger; And for a foreign woman seize a pledge from him.

<sup>21</sup>The crucible is for silver and the furnace for gold, And each is tested by the praise accorded him.

<sup>26</sup>The lambs will be for your clothing, And the goats will bring the price of a field, <sup>27</sup>And there will be enough goats' milk for your food, For the food of your household, And sustenance for your attendants.

Proverbs 28

Warnings and Instructions

<sup>6</sup>Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity, Than a person who is crooked, though he is rich.

<sup>7</sup>He who keeps the Law is a discerning son, But he who is a companion of gluttons humiliates his father.

<sup>8</sup>One who increases his wealth by interest of any kind, Collects it for one who is gracious to the poor.

<sup>9</sup>One who turns his ear away from listening to the Law, Even his prayer is an abomination.

<sup>10</sup>One who leads the upright astray in an evil way Will himself fall into his own pit, But the blameless will inherit good.

<sup>11</sup>The rich person is wise in his own eyes, But the poor who has understanding sees through him.

<sup>12</sup>When the righteous triumph, there is great glory, But when the wicked rise, people hide themselves.

<sup>13</sup>One who conceals his wrongdoings will not prosper, But one who confesses and abandons them will find compassion.

<sup>14</sup>How blessed is the person who fears always, But one who hardens his heart will fall into disaster.

<sup>17</sup>A person who is burdened with the guilt of human blood Will be a fugitive until death; no one is to support him!

<sup>18</sup>One who walks blamelessly will receive help, But one who is crooked will fall all at once.

<sup>19</sup>One who works his land will have plenty of food, But one who follows empty pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

<sup>20</sup>A faithful person will abound with blessings, But one who hurries to be rich will not go unpunished.

<sup>21</sup>To show partiality is not good, Because for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.

<sup>22</sup>A person with an evil eye hurries after wealth And does not know that poverty will come upon him.

<sup>23</sup>One who rebukes a person will afterward find more favor Than one who flatters with the tongue.

<sup>25</sup>An arrogant person stirs up strife, But one who trusts in the LORD will prosper.

<sup>27</sup>One who gives to the poor will never lack anything, But one who shuts his eyes will have many curses.

<sup>28</sup>When the wicked rise, people hide themselves; But when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 29

Warnings and Instructions

<sup>2</sup>When the righteous increase, the people rejoice, But when a wicked person rules, people groan.

- <sup>12</sup>If a ruler pays attention to falsehood, All his ministers become wicked.
- <sup>13</sup>The poor person and the oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.
- <sup>14</sup>If a king judges the poor with truth, His throne will be established forever.
- <sup>15</sup>The rod and a rebuke give wisdom, But a child who gets his own way brings shame to his mother.
- <sup>16</sup>When the wicked increase, wrongdoing increases; But the righteous will see their downfall.
- <sup>17</sup>Correct your son, and he will give you comfort; He will also delight your soul.
- <sup>18</sup>Where there is no vision, the people are unrestrained, But happy is one who keeps the Law.
- <sup>19</sup>A slave will not be instructed by words alone; For though he understands, there will be no response.
- <sup>20</sup>Do you see a person who is hasty with his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- <sup>21</sup>One who pampers his slave from childhood Will in the end find him to be rebellious.
- <sup>22</sup>An angry person stirs up strife, And a hot-tempered person abounds in wrongdoing.
- <sup>23</sup>A person's pride will bring him low, But a humble spirit will obtain honor.
- <sup>24</sup>One who is a partner with a thief hates his own life; He hears the oath but tells nothing.
- <sup>25</sup>The fear of man brings a snare, But one who trusts in the LORD will be protected.
- <sup>26</sup>Many seek the ruler's favor, But justice for mankind comes from the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>An unjust person is an abomination to the righteous, And one who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Proverbs 30

The Words of Agur

<sup>1</sup>The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the pronouncement. The man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:

<sup>2</sup>I am certainly more stupid than any man, And I do not have the understanding of a man;

<sup>3</sup>Nor have I learned wisdom, Nor do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup>Who has ascended into heaven and descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has wrapped the waters in His garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name or His Son's name? Surely you know!

<sup>5</sup>Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

<sup>6</sup>Do not add to His words Or He will rebuke you, and you will be proved a liar.

<sup>7</sup>Two things I have asked of You; Do not refuse me before I die:

<sup>8</sup>Keep deception and lies far from me, Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is my portion,

<sup>9</sup>So that I will not be full and deny You and say, "Who is the LORD?" And that I will not become impoverished and steal, And profane the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup>Do not slander a slave to his master, Or he will curse you and you will be found guilty.

<sup>11</sup>There is a kind of person who curses his father And does not bless his mother.

<sup>12</sup>There is a kind who is pure in his own eyes, Yet is not washed from his filthiness.

<sup>13</sup>There is a kind—oh how lofty are his eyes! And his eyelids are raised in arrogance.

<sup>14</sup>There is a kind of person whose teeth are like swords And his jaw teeth like knives, To devour the poor from the earth And the needy from among mankind.

<sup>15</sup>The leech has two daughters: “Give” and “Give.” There are three things that will not be satisfied, Four that will not say, “Enough”:

<sup>17</sup>The eye that mocks a father And scorns a mother, The ravens of the valley will pick it out, And the young eagles will eat it.

<sup>18</sup>There are three things which are too wonderful for me, Four which I do not understand:

<sup>23</sup>Under an unloved woman when she gets a husband, And a female servant when she dispossesses her mistress.

<sup>29</sup>There are three things which are stately in their march, Even four which are stately when they walk:

<sup>32</sup>If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, Or if you have plotted evil, put your hand on your mouth.

<sup>33</sup>For the churning of milk produces butter, And pressing the nose produces blood; So the churning of anger produces strife.

Proverbs 31

The Words of Lemuel

<sup>2</sup>What, my son? And what, son of my womb? And what, son of my vows?

<sup>3</sup>Do not give your strength to women, Or your ways to that which destroys kings.

<sup>4</sup>It is not for kings, Lemuel, It is not for kings to drink wine, Or for rulers to desire intoxicating drink, <sup>5</sup>Otherwise they will drink and forget what is decreed, And pervert the rights of all the needy.

Description of a Worthy Woman

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes 1

The Futility of All Endeavors

- <sup>1</sup>The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
- <sup>2</sup>“Futility of futilities,” says the Preacher, “Futility of futilities! All is futility.”
- <sup>3</sup>What advantage does a person have in all his work Which he does under the sun?
- <sup>4</sup>A generation goes and a generation comes, But the earth remains forever.
- <sup>5</sup>Also, the sun rises and the sun sets; And hurrying to its place it rises there again.
- <sup>6</sup>Blowing toward the south, Then turning toward the north, The wind continues swirling along; And on its circular courses the wind returns.
- <sup>7</sup>All the rivers flow into the sea, Yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, There they flow again.
- <sup>8</sup>All things are wearisome; No one can tell it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, Nor is the ear filled with hearing.
- <sup>9</sup>What has been, it is what will be, And what has been done, it is what will be done. So there is nothing new under the sun.
- <sup>10</sup>Is there anything of which one might say, “See this, it is new”? It has already existed for ages Which were before us.
- <sup>11</sup>There is no remembrance of the earlier things, And of the later things as well, which will occur, There will be no remembrance of them Among those who will come later still.

The Futility of Wisdom

- <sup>12</sup>I, the Preacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>And I set my mind to seek and explore by wisdom about everything that has been done under heaven. It is a sorry task with which God has given the sons of mankind to be troubled.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, "Behold, I have magnified and increased wisdom more than all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my mind has observed a wealth of wisdom and knowledge."

<sup>17</sup>And I applied my mind to know wisdom and to know insanity and foolishness; I realized that this also is striving after wind.

<sup>18</sup>Because in much wisdom there is much grief; and increasing knowledge results in increasing pain.

Ecclesiastes 2

The Futility of Pleasure and Possessions

<sup>1</sup>I said to myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure. So enjoy yourself." And behold, it too was futility.

<sup>2</sup>I said of laughter, "It is senseless," and of pleasure, "What does this accomplish?"

<sup>3</sup>I explored with my mind how to refresh my body with wine while my mind was guiding me wisely; and how to seize foolishness, until I could see what good there is for the sons of mankind to do under heaven for the few years of their lives.

<sup>4</sup>I enlarged my works: I built houses for myself, I planted vineyards for myself;

<sup>5</sup>I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted in them all kinds of fruit trees;

<sup>6</sup>I made ponds of water for myself from which to irrigate a forest of growing trees.

<sup>7</sup>I bought male and female slaves, and I had slaves born at home. I also possessed flocks and herds larger than all who preceded me in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>I also amassed for myself silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I provided for myself male and female singers, and the pleasures of the sons of mankind: many concubines.

<sup>9</sup>Then I became great and increased more than all who preceded me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also stood by me.

<sup>10</sup>All that my eyes desired, I did not refuse them. I did not restrain my heart from any pleasure, for my heart was pleased because of all my labor; and this was my reward for all my labor.

<sup>11</sup>So I considered all my activities which my hands had done and the labor which I had exerted, and behold, all was futility and striving after wind, and there was no benefit under the sun.

Wisdom Surpasses Foolishness

<sup>12</sup>So I turned to consider wisdom, insanity, and foolishness; for what will the man do who will come after the king, except what has already been done?

<sup>13</sup>Then I saw that wisdom surpasses foolishness as light surpasses darkness.

<sup>14</sup>The wise person's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And yet I know that one and the same fate happens to both of them.

<sup>15</sup>Then I said to myself, "As is the fate of the fool, it will also happen to me. Why then have I been extremely wise?" So I said to myself, "This too is futility."

<sup>16</sup>For there is no lasting remembrance of the wise, along with the fool, since in the coming days everything will soon be forgotten. And how the wise and the fool alike die!

<sup>17</sup>So I hated life, for the work which had been done under the sun was unhappy to me; because everything is futility and striving after wind.

The Futility of Labor

<sup>18</sup>So I hated all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who will come after me.

<sup>19</sup>And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will have control over all the fruit of my labor for which I have labored by acting wisely under the sun. This too is futility.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore I completely despaired over all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun.

<sup>21</sup>When there is a person who has labored with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and then gives his legacy to one who has not labored for it; this too is futility and a great evil.

<sup>22</sup>For what does a person get in all his labor and in his striving with which he labors under the sun?

<sup>26</sup>For to a person who is good in His sight, He has given wisdom and knowledge and joy, while to the sinner He has given the task of gathering and collecting so that he may give to one who is good in God's sight. This too is futility and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

A Time for Everything

<sup>1</sup>There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every matter under heaven—

<sup>2</sup>A time to give birth and a time to die; A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted.

<sup>3</sup>A time to kill and a time to heal; A time to tear down and a time to build up.

<sup>4</sup>A time to weep and a time to laugh; A time to mourn and a time to dance.

<sup>5</sup>A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones; A time to embrace and a time to shun embracing.

<sup>6</sup>A time to search and a time to give up as lost; A time to keep and a time to throw away.

<sup>7</sup>A time to tear apart and a time to sew together; A time to be silent and a time to speak.

<sup>8</sup>A time to love and a time to hate; A time for war and a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup>What benefit is there for the worker from that in which he labors?

<sup>10</sup>I have seen the task which God has given the sons of mankind with which to occupy themselves.

God Set Eternity in the Heart of Mankind

<sup>11</sup>He has made everything appropriate in its time. He has also set eternity in their heart, without the possibility that mankind will find out the work which God has done from the beginning even to the end.

<sup>12</sup>I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good in one's lifetime;

<sup>13</sup>moreover, that every person who eats and drinks sees good in all his labor—this is the gift of God.

<sup>14</sup>I know that everything God does will remain forever; there is nothing to add to it and there is nothing to take from it. And God has so worked, that people will fear Him.

<sup>15</sup>That which is, is what has already been, and that which will be has already been; and God seeks what has passed by.

<sup>16</sup>Furthermore, I have seen under the sun that in the place of justice there is wickedness and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness.

<sup>17</sup>I said to myself, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked," for a time for every matter and for every deed is there.

<sup>18</sup>I said to myself regarding the sons of mankind, "God is testing them in order for them to see that they are as animals, they to themselves."

<sup>19</sup>For the fate of the sons of mankind and the fate of animals is the same. As one dies, so dies the other; indeed, they all have the same breath, and there is no advantage for mankind over animals, for all is futility.

<sup>20</sup>All go to the same place. All came from the dust and all return to the dust.

<sup>21</sup>Who knows that the spirit of the sons of mankind ascends upward and the spirit of the animal descends downward to the earth?

<sup>22</sup>I have seen that nothing is better than when a person is happy in his activities, for that is his lot. For who will bring him to see what will occur after him?

Ecclesiastes 4

The Evils of Oppression

<sup>1</sup>Then I looked again at all the acts of oppression which were being done under the sun. And behold, I saw the tears of the oppressed and that they had no one to comfort them; and power was on the side of their oppressors, but they had no one to comfort them.

<sup>2</sup>So I congratulated the dead who are already dead, more than the living who are still living.

<sup>3</sup>But better off than both of them is the one who has never existed, who has never seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

<sup>8</sup>There was a man without a dependent, having neither a son nor a brother, yet there was no end to all his labor. Indeed, his eyes were not satisfied with riches, and he never asked, “And for whom do I labor and deprive myself of pleasure?” This too is futility, and it is an unhappy task.

<sup>9</sup>Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor;

<sup>10</sup>for if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up!

<sup>11</sup>Furthermore, if two lie down together they keep warm, but how can one be warm alone?

<sup>13</sup>A poor yet wise youth is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to receive instruction—

<sup>14</sup>for he has come out of prison to become king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom.

<sup>15</sup>I have seen all those living under the sun move to the side of the second youth who replaces him.

<sup>16</sup>There is no end to all the people, to all who were before them. Even the ones who will come later will not be happy with him; for this too is futility and striving after wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

Your Attitude toward God

<sup>1</sup> Guard your steps as you go to the house of God, and approach to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools; for they do not know that they are doing evil.

<sup>2</sup>Do not be quick with your mouth or impulsive in thought to bring up a matter in the presence of God. For God is in heaven and you are on the earth; therefore let your words be few.

<sup>4</sup>When you make a vow to God, do not be late in paying it; for He takes no delight in fools. Pay what you vow!

<sup>5</sup>It is better that you not vow, than vow and not pay.

<sup>6</sup>Do not let your speech cause you to sin, and do not say in the presence of the messenger of God that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry on account of your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?

<sup>7</sup>For in many dreams and in many words there is futility. Rather, fear God.

<sup>8</sup>If you see oppression of the poor and denial of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the sight; for one official watches over another official, and there are higher officials over them.

<sup>9</sup>After all, a king who cultivates the field is beneficial to the land.

The Foolishness of Riches

<sup>10</sup>One who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor one who loves abundance with its income. This too is futility.

<sup>11</sup>When good things increase, those who consume them increase. So what is the advantage to their owners except to look at them?

<sup>12</sup>The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the full stomach of the rich person does not allow him to sleep.

<sup>13</sup>There is a sickening evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth being hoarded by its owner to his detriment.

<sup>14</sup>When that wealth was lost through bad business and he had fathered a son, then there was nothing to support him.

<sup>15</sup>As he came naked from his mother's womb, so he will return as he came. He will take nothing from the fruit of his labor that he can carry in his hand.

<sup>16</sup>This also is a sickening evil: exactly as a person is born, so will he die. What then is the advantage for him who labors for the wind?

<sup>17</sup>All his life he also eats in darkness with great irritation, sickness, and anger.

<sup>18</sup>Here is what I have seen to be good and fitting: to eat, to drink, and enjoy oneself in all one's labor in which he labors under the sun during the few years of his life which God has given him; for this is his reward.

<sup>19</sup>Furthermore, as for every person to whom God has given riches and wealth, He has also given him the opportunity to enjoy them and to receive his reward and rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of God.

<sup>20</sup>For he will not often call to mind the years of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

Ecclesiastes 6

The Futility of Life

<sup>1</sup>There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is widespread among mankind:

<sup>2</sup>a person to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that his soul lacks nothing of all that he desires, yet God has not given him the opportunity to enjoy these things, but a foreigner enjoys them. This is futility and a severe affliction.

<sup>3</sup>If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, however many they may be, but his soul is not satisfied with good things and he does not even have a proper burial, then I say, “Better the miscarriage than he,
<sup>4</sup>for a miscarriage comes in futility and goes into darkness; and its name is covered in darkness.

<sup>5</sup>It has not even seen the sun nor does it know it; yet it is better off than that man.

<sup>6</sup>Even if the man lives a thousand years twice, but does not see good things—do not all go to one and the same place?”

<sup>9</sup>What the eyes see is better than what the soul desires. This too is futility and striving after wind.

<sup>10</sup>Whatever exists has already been named, and it is known what man is; for he cannot dispute with the one who is mightier than he is.

<sup>11</sup>For there are many words which increase futility. What then is the advantage to a person?

<sup>12</sup>For who knows what is good for a person during his lifetime, during the few years of his futile life? He will spend them like a shadow. For who can tell a person what will happen after him under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 7

Wisdom and Foolishness Contrasted

<sup>2</sup>It is better to go to a house of mourning Than to go to a house of feasting,
Because that is the end of every person, And the living takes it to heart.

<sup>3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter, For when a face is sad a heart may be happy.

<sup>4</sup>The mind of the wise is in the house of mourning, While the mind of fools is in the house of pleasure.

<sup>5</sup>It is better to listen to the rebuke of a wise person Than for one to listen to the song of fools.

<sup>6</sup>For as the crackling of thorn bushes under a pot, So is the laughter of the fool; And this too is futility.

<sup>7</sup>For oppression makes a wise person look foolish, And a bribe corrupts the heart.

<sup>8</sup>The end of a matter is better than its beginning; Patience of spirit is better than arrogance of spirit.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be eager in your spirit to be angry, For anger resides in the heart of fools.

<sup>10</sup>Do not say, "Why is it that the former days were better than these?" For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom along with an inheritance is good, And an advantage to those who see the sun.

<sup>12</sup>For wisdom is protection just as money is protection, But the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom keeps its possessors alive.

<sup>13</sup>Consider the work of God, For who is able to straighten what He has bent?

<sup>14</sup>On the day of prosperity be happy, But on the day of adversity consider:
God has made the one as well as the other So that a person will not discover anything that will come after him.

<sup>15</sup>I have seen everything during my lifetime of futility; there is a righteous person who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked person who prolongs his life in his wickedness.

<sup>16</sup>Do not be excessively righteous, and do not be overly wise. Why should you ruin yourself?

<sup>17</sup>Do not be excessively wicked, and do not be foolish. Why should you die before your time?

<sup>18</sup>It is good that you grasp one thing while not letting go of the other; for one who fears God comes out with both of them.

<sup>20</sup>Indeed, there is not a righteous person on earth who always does good and does not ever sin.

<sup>21</sup>Also, do not take seriously all the words which are spoken, so that you do not hear your servant cursing you,

<sup>22</sup>for you know that even you have cursed others many times as well.

<sup>23</sup>I tested all this with wisdom, and I said, “I will be wise,” but wisdom was far from me.

<sup>24</sup>What has been is remote and very mysterious. Who can discover it?

<sup>25</sup>I directed my mind to know and to investigate, and to seek wisdom and an explanation, and to know the evil of foolishness and the foolishness of insanity.

<sup>26</sup>And I discovered as more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are chains. One who is pleasing to God will escape from her, but the sinner will be captured by her.

<sup>27</sup>“Behold, I have discovered this,” says the Preacher, “by adding one thing to another to find an explanation, <sup>28</sup>which I am still seeking but have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all these.

<sup>29</sup>Behold, I have found only this, that God made people upright, but they have sought out many schemes.”

Ecclesiastes 8

Obey Rulers

<sup>1</sup>Who is like the wise person and who knows the meaning of a matter? A person’s wisdom illuminates his face and makes his stern face brighten up.

<sup>5</sup>One who keeps a royal command experiences no trouble, for a wise heart knows the proper time and procedure.

<sup>6</sup>For there is a proper time and procedure for every delight, though a person’s trouble is heavy upon him.

<sup>7</sup>If no one knows what will happen, who can tell him when it will happen?

<sup>8</sup>No one has authority over the wind to restrain the wind, nor authority over the day of death; and there is no military discharge in the time of war, and evil will not save those who practice it.

<sup>9</sup>All this I have seen, and have applied my mind to every deed that has been done under the sun at a time when one person has exercised authority over another person to his detriment.

<sup>10</sup>So then, I have seen the wicked buried, those who used to go in and out of the holy place, and they are soon forgotten in the city where they did such things. This too is futility.

<sup>11</sup>Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed quickly, therefore the hearts of the sons of mankind among them are fully given to do evil.

<sup>12</sup>Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and may lengthen his life, still I know that it will go well for those who fear God, who fear Him openly.

<sup>13</sup>But it will not go well for the evil person and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

<sup>14</sup>There is futility which is done on the earth, that is, there are righteous people to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked. On the other hand, there are evil people to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I say that this too is futility.

<sup>15</sup>So I commended pleasure, for there is nothing good for a person under the sun except to eat, drink, and be joyful, and this will stand by him in his labor throughout the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup>When I devoted my mind to know wisdom and to see the business which has been done on the earth (even though one should never sleep day or night),

<sup>17</sup>and I saw every work of God, I concluded that one cannot discover the work which has been done under the sun. Even though a person laboriously seeks, he will not discover; and even if the wise person claims to know, he cannot discover.

Ecclesiastes 9

People Are in the Hand of God

<sup>1</sup>For I have taken all this to my heart, even to examine it all, that righteous people, wise people, and their deeds are in the hand of God. People do not know whether it will be love or hatred; anything awaits them.

<sup>2</sup>It is the same for all. There is one fate for the righteous and for the wicked; for the good, for the clean and the unclean; for the person who offers a sacrifice and for the one who does not sacrifice. As the good person is, so is the sinner; the one who swears an oath is just as the one who is afraid to swear an oath.

<sup>3</sup>This is an evil in everything that is done under the sun, that there is one fate for everyone. Furthermore, the hearts of the sons of mankind are full of evil, and insanity is in their hearts throughout their lives. Afterward they go to the dead.

<sup>4</sup>For whoever is joined to all the living, there is hope; for better a live dog, than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup>For the living know that they will die; but the dead do not know anything, nor do they have a reward any longer, for their memory is forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>Indeed their love, their hate, and their zeal have already perished, and they will no longer have a share in all that is done under the sun.

<sup>7</sup>Go then, eat your bread in happiness, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart; for God has already approved your works.

<sup>8</sup>See that your clothes are white all the time, and that there is no lack of oil on your head.

<sup>9</sup>Enjoy life with the wife whom you love all the days of your futile life which He has given you under the sun, all the days of your futility; for this is your reward in life and in your work which you have labored under the sun.

Whatever Your Hand Finds to Do

<sup>10</sup>Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might; for there is no activity, planning, knowledge, or wisdom in Sheol where you are going.

<sup>11</sup>I again saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift and the battle is not to the warriors, and neither is bread to the wise nor wealth to the discerning, nor favor to the skillful; for time and chance overtake them all.

<sup>12</sup>For indeed, a person does not know his time: like fish that are caught in a treacherous net and birds caught in a snare, so the sons of mankind are ensnared at an evil time when it suddenly falls on them.

- <sup>13</sup>This too I saw as wisdom under the sun, and it impressed me:
- <sup>14</sup>there was a small city with few men in it, and a great king came to it, surrounded it, and constructed large siegeworks against it.
- <sup>15</sup>But there was found in it a poor wise man, and he saved the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man.
- <sup>16</sup>So I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are ignored.
- <sup>17</sup>The words of the wise heard in calm are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools.
- <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Ecclesiastes 10

A Little Foolishness

- <sup>1</sup>Dead flies turn a perfumer’s oil rancid, so a little foolishness is more potent than wisdom and honor.
- <sup>2</sup>A wise person’s heart directs him toward the right, but the foolish person’s heart directs him toward the left.
- <sup>3</sup>Even when the fool walks along the road, his sense is lacking, and he demonstrates to everyone that he is a fool.
- <sup>4</sup>If the ruler’s temper rises against you, do not abandon your place, because composure puts great offenses to rest.
- <sup>5</sup>There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like a mistake that proceeds from the ruler:
- <sup>6</sup>foolishness is set in many exalted places while the rich sit in humble places.
- <sup>7</sup>I have seen slaves riding on horses and princes walking like slaves on the land.
- <sup>8</sup>One who digs a pit may fall into it, and a serpent may bite one who breaks through a wall.

<sup>9</sup>One who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and one who splits logs may be endangered by them.

<sup>10</sup>If the axe is dull and he does not sharpen its edge, then he must exert more strength. Wisdom has the advantage of bringing success.

<sup>11</sup>If the serpent bites before being charmed, there is no benefit for the charmer.

<sup>12</sup>Words from the mouth of a wise person are gracious, while the lips of a fool consume him;

<sup>13</sup>the beginning of his talking is foolishness, and the end of it is evil insanity.

<sup>14</sup>Yet the fool multiplies words. No person knows what will happen, and who can tell him what will come after him?

<sup>15</sup>The labor of a fool makes him so weary that he does not even know how to go to a city.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, land whose king is a boy, and whose princes feast in the morning.

<sup>19</sup>People prepare a meal for enjoyment, wine makes life joyful, and money is the answer to everything.

<sup>20</sup>Furthermore, in your bedroom do not curse a king, and in your sleeping rooms do not curse a rich person; for a bird of the sky will bring the sound, and the winged one will make your word known.

Ecclesiastes 11

Cast Your Bread on the Waters

<sup>2</sup>Divide your portion to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what misfortune may occur on the earth.

<sup>3</sup>If the clouds are full, they pour out rain on the earth; and whether a tree falls toward the south or toward the north, wherever the tree falls, there it lies.

<sup>4</sup>One who watches the wind will not sow and one who looks at the clouds will not harvest.

<sup>5</sup>Just as you do not know the path of the wind, and how bones are formed in the womb of the pregnant woman, so you do not know the activity of God who makes everything.

<sup>6</sup>Sow your seed in the morning and do not be idle in the evening, for you do not know whether one or the other will succeed, or whether both of them alike will be good.

<sup>7</sup>The light is pleasant, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>8</sup>Indeed, if a person lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. Everything that is to come will be futility.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice, young man, during your childhood, and let your heart be pleasant during the days of young manhood. And follow the impulses of your heart and the desires of your eyes. Yet know that God will bring you to judgment for all these things.

<sup>10</sup>So remove sorrow from your heart and keep pain away from your body, because childhood and the prime of life are fleeting.

Ecclesiastes 12

Remember God in Your Youth

<sup>1</sup>Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years approach when you will say, “I have no pleasure in them”;

<sup>2</sup>before the sun and the light, the moon and the stars are darkened, and clouds return after the rain;

<sup>3</sup>on the day that the watchmen of the house tremble, and strong men are bent over, the grinders stop working because they are few, and those who look through windows grow dim;

<sup>4</sup>and the doors on the street are shut as the sound of the grinding mill is low, and one will arise at the sound of the bird, and all the daughters of song will sing softly.

<sup>7</sup>then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

<sup>8</sup>“Futility of futilities,” says the Preacher, “all is futility!”

Purpose of the Preacher

<sup>9</sup>In addition to being wise, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge; and he pondered, searched out, and arranged many proverbs.

<sup>10</sup>The Preacher sought to find delightful words and to write words of truth correctly.

<sup>12</sup>But beyond this, my son, be warned: the writing of many books is endless, and excessive study is wearying to the body.

<sup>13</sup>The conclusion, when everything has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person.

<sup>14</sup>For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

Song of Songs

Song of Songs 1

The Young Shulammite Bride and Jerusalem's Daughters

<sup>1</sup>The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

The Bride

<sup>2</sup>"May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your love is sweeter than wine.

<sup>3</sup>"Your oils have a pleasing fragrance, Your name is like purified oil; Therefore the young women love you.

<sup>4</sup>"Draw me after you and let's run together! The king has brought me into his chambers."

The Chorus

"We will rejoice in you and be joyful; We will praise your love more than wine. Rightly do they love you."

The Bride

<sup>5</sup>"I am black and beautiful, You daughters of Jerusalem, Like the tents of Kedar, Like the curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup>"Do not stare at me because I am dark, For the sun has tanned me. My mother's sons were angry with me; They made me caretaker of the vineyards, But I have not taken care of my own vineyard.

<sup>7</sup>"Tell me, you whom my soul loves, Where do you pasture your flock, Where do you have it lie down at noon? For why should I be like one who veils herself Beside the flocks of your companions?"

Solomon, the Lover, Speaks

<sup>9</sup>"To me, my darling, you are like My mare among the chariots of Pharaoh.

The Chorus

11“We will make for you jewelry of gold With beads of silver.”

The Bride

12“While the king was at his table, My perfume gave forth its fragrance.

13“My beloved is to me a pouch of myrrh Which lies all night between my breasts.

14“My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms In the vineyards of Engedi.”

The Groom

15“How beautiful you are, my darling, How beautiful you are! Your eyes are like doves.”

The Bride

16“How handsome you are, my beloved, And so delightful! Indeed, our bed is luxuriant!

17“The beams of our house are cedars, Our rafters, junipers.

Song of Songs 2

The Bride's Admiration

1“I am the rose of Sharon, The lily of the valleys.”

The Groom

2“Like a lily among the thorns, So is my darling among the young women.”

The Bride

3“Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, So is my beloved among the young men. In his shade I took great delight and sat down, And his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4“He has brought me to his banquet hall, And his banner over me is love.

5“Refresh me with raisin cakes, Sustain me with apples, Because I am lovesick.

6“His left hand is under my head, And his right hand embraces me.”

The Groom

<sup>7</sup>“Swear to me, you daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field, That you will not disturb or awaken my love Until she pleases.”

The Bride

<sup>8</sup>“Listen! My beloved! Behold, he is coming, Leaping on the mountains, Jumping on the hills!

<sup>9</sup>“My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Behold, he is standing behind our wall, He is looking through the windows, He is peering through the lattice.

<sup>10</sup>“My beloved responded and said to me, ‘Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along.

<sup>12</sup>“The blossoms have already appeared in the land; The time has arrived for pruning the vines, And the voice of the turtledove has been heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup>“The fig tree has ripened its fruit, And the vines in blossom have given forth their fragrance. Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along!’ ”

The Groom

<sup>14</sup>“My dove, in the clefts of the rock, In the hiding place of the mountain pathway, Let me see how you look, Let me hear your voice; For your voice is pleasant, And you look delightful.”

The Chorus

<sup>15</sup>“Catch the foxes for us, The little foxes that are ruining the vineyards, While our vineyards are in blossom.”

The Bride

<sup>16</sup>“My beloved is mine, and I am his; He pastures his flock among the lilies.

<sup>17</sup>“Until the cool of the day, when the shadows flee, Turn, my beloved, and be like a gazelle Or a young stag on the mountains of Bether.”

Song of Songs 3

The Bride’s Troubled Dream

<sup>1</sup>“On my bed night after night I sought him Whom my soul loves; I sought him but did not find him.

<sup>2</sup>‘I must arise now and go around in the city; In the streets and in the public squares I must seek him whom my soul loves.’ I sought him but did not find him.

<sup>3</sup>“The watchmen who make the rounds in the city found me, And I said, ‘Have you seen him whom my soul loves?’

<sup>4</sup>“Hardly had I left them When I found him whom my soul loves; I held on to him and would not let him go Until I had brought him to my mother’s house, And into the room of her who conceived me.”

The Groom

<sup>5</sup>“Swear to me, you daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field, That you will not disturb or awaken my love Until she pleases.”

Solomon’s Wedding Day

The Bride

<sup>6</sup>“What is this coming up from the wilderness Like columns of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, With all the scented powders of the merchant?

The Chorus

<sup>7</sup>“Behold, it is the traveling couch of Solomon; Sixty warriors around it, Of the warriors of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>“He made its posts of silver, Its back of gold And its seat of purple fabric, With its interior lovingly inlaid By the daughters of Jerusalem.

With which his mother has crowned him On the day of his wedding, And on the day of the joy of his heart.”

Song of Songs 4

Solomon's Love Expressed

<sup>1</sup>“How beautiful you are, my darling, How beautiful you are! Your eyes are like doves behind your veil; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Mount Gilead.

<sup>2</sup>“Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep Which have come up from their watering place, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young.

<sup>3</sup>“Your lips are like a scarlet thread, And your mouth is beautiful. Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate Behind your veil.

<sup>4</sup>“Your neck is like the tower of David, Built with layers of stones On which are hung a thousand shields, All the round shields of the warriors.

<sup>5</sup>“Your two breasts are like two fawns, Twins of a gazelle That graze among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup>“Until the cool of the day When the shadows flee, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh And to the hill of frankincense.

<sup>7</sup>“You are altogether beautiful, my darling, And there is no blemish on you.

<sup>8</sup>“Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, You shall come with me from Lebanon. You shall come down from the summit of Amana, From the summit of Senir and Hermon, From the dens of lions, From the mountains of leopards.

<sup>9</sup>“You have enchanted my heart, my sister, my bride; You have enchanted my heart with a single glance of your eyes, With a single strand of your necklace.

10“How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much sweeter is your love than wine, And the fragrance of your oils Than that of all kinds of balsam oils!

11“Your lips drip honey, my bride; Honey and milk are under your tongue, And the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

12“A locked garden is my sister, my bride, A locked spring, a sealed fountain.

13“Your branches are an orchard of pomegranates With delicious fruits, henna with nard plants,

14Nard and saffron, spice reed and cinnamon, With all the trees of frankincense, Myrrh, and aloes, along with all the finest balsam oils.

15“You are a garden spring, A well of fresh water, And flowing streams from Lebanon.”

The Bride

16“Awake, north wind, And come, wind of the south; Make my garden breathe out fragrance, May its balsam oils flow. May my beloved come into his garden And eat its delicious fruits!”

Song of Songs 5

The Torment of Separation

The Groom

1“I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, friends; Drink and drink deeply, lovers.”

The Bride

2“I was asleep but my heart was awake. A voice! My beloved was knocking: ‘Open to me, my sister, my darling, My dove, my perfect one! For my head is drenched with dew, My locks with the dew drops of the night.’

3“I have taken off my dress, How can I put it on again? I have washed my feet, How can I dirty them again?

<sup>4</sup>“My beloved extended his hand through the opening, And my feelings were stirred for him.

<sup>5</sup>“I arose to open to my beloved; And my hands dripped with myrrh, And my fingers with drops of myrrh, On the handles of the bolt.

<sup>6</sup>“I opened to my beloved, But my beloved had turned away and had gone! My heart went out to him as he spoke. I searched for him but I did not find him; I called him but he did not answer me.

<sup>7</sup>“The watchmen who make the rounds in the city found me, They struck me and wounded me; The guards of the walls took my shawl away from me.

<sup>8</sup>“Swear to me, you daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, As to what you will tell him: For I am lovesick.”

The Chorus

<sup>9</sup>“What kind of beloved is your beloved, O most beautiful among women? What kind of beloved is your beloved, That you make us swear in this way?”

Admiration by the Bride

The Bride

<sup>10</sup>“My beloved is dazzling and reddish, Outstanding among ten thousand.

<sup>16</sup>“His mouth is full of sweetness. And he is wholly desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, You daughters of Jerusalem.”

Song of Songs 6

Mutual Delight in Each Other

The Chorus

<sup>1</sup>“Where has your beloved gone, O most beautiful among women? Where has your beloved turned, That we may seek him with you?”

The Bride

<sup>2</sup>“My beloved has gone down to his garden, To the beds of balsam, To pasture his flock in the gardens And gather lilies.

<sup>3</sup>“I am my beloved’s and my beloved is mine, He who pastures his flock among the lilies.”

The Groom

<sup>4</sup>“You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, As lovely as Jerusalem, As awesome as an army with banners.

<sup>5</sup>“Turn your eyes away from me, For they have confused me; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>“Your teeth are like a flock of ewes That have come up from their watering place, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young.

<sup>8</sup>“There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, And young women without number;

<sup>9</sup> But my dove, my perfect one, is unique: She is her mother’s only daughter; She is the pure child of the one who gave birth to her. The young women saw her and called her blessed, The queens and the concubines also, and they praised her, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“Who is this who looks down like the dawn, As beautiful as the full moon, As pure as the sun, As awesome as an army with banners?”

<sup>11</sup>“I went down to the orchard of nut trees To see the plants of the valley, To see whether the vine had grown Or the pomegranates had bloomed.

<sup>12</sup>“Before I was aware, my soul set me Over the chariots of my noble people.”

The Chorus

<sup>13</sup>“Come back, come back, O Shulammite; Come back, come back, so that we may look at you!”

The Groom

“Why should you look at the Shulammite, As at the dance of the two armies?

Song of Songs 7

Admiration by the Groom

<sup>5</sup>“Your head crowns you like Carmel, And the flowing hair of your head is like purple threads; The king is captivated by your tresses.

<sup>6</sup>“How beautiful and how delightful you are,
My love, with all your delights!

<sup>7</sup>“Your stature is like a palm tree, And your breasts are like its clusters.

<sup>8</sup>“I said, ‘I will climb the palm tree, I will grasp its fruit stalks.’ Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, And the fragrance of your breath like apples, <sup>9</sup>And your mouth like the best wine!”

The Bride

“It goes down smoothly for my beloved, Flowing gently through the lips of those who are asleep.

The Union of Love

<sup>12</sup>“Let’s rise early and go to the vineyards; Let’s see whether the vine has grown And its buds have opened, And whether the pomegranates have bloomed. There I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup>“The mandrakes have given forth fragrance; And over our doors are all delicious fruits, New as well as old, Which I have saved for you, my beloved.

Song of Songs 8

The Lovers Speak

<sup>1</sup>“Oh that you were like a brother to me Who nursed at my mother’s breasts. If I found you outdoors, I would kiss you; No one would despise me, either.

<sup>2</sup>“I would lead you and bring you Into the house of my mother, who used to instruct me; I would give you spiced wine to drink from the juice of my pomegranates.

<sup>3</sup>“Let his left hand be under my head, And his right hand embrace me.”

The Groom

<sup>4</sup>“Swear to me, you daughters of Jerusalem: Do not disturb or awaken my love Until she pleases.”

The Chorus

<sup>5</sup>“Who is this coming up from the wilderness, Leaning on her beloved?”

The Bride

“Beneath the apple tree I awakened you; There your mother went into labor with you, There she was in labor and gave birth to you.

<sup>6</sup>“Put me like a seal over your heart, Like a seal on your arm. For love is as strong as death, Jealousy is as severe as Sheol; Its flames are flames of fire, The flame of the LORD.

The Chorus

<sup>8</sup>“We have a little sister, And she has no breasts; What shall we do for our sister On the day when she is spoken for?

<sup>9</sup>“If she is a wall, We will build on her a battlement of silver; But if she is a door, We will barricade her with planks of cedar.”

The Bride

<sup>10</sup>“I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; Then I became in his eyes as one who finds peace.

<sup>11</sup>“Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers. Each one was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.

<sup>12</sup>“My very own vineyard is at my disposal; The thousand shekels are for you, Solomon, And two hundred are for those who take care of its fruit.”

The Groom

<sup>13</sup>“You who sit in the gardens: My companions are listening for your voice— Let me hear it!”

The Bride

<sup>14</sup>“Hurry, my beloved, And be like a gazelle or a young stag On the mountains of balsam trees!”

Isaiah

Isaiah 1

Rebellion of God's People

<sup>2</sup>Listen, heavens, and hear, earth; For the LORD has spoken: "Sons I have raised and brought up, But they have revolted against Me.

<sup>3</sup>"An ox knows its owner, And a donkey its master's manger, But Israel does not know, My people do not understand."

<sup>4</sup>Oh, sinful nation, People weighed down with guilt, Offspring of evildoers, Sons who act corruptly! They have abandoned the LORD, They have despised the Holy One of Israel, They have turned away from Him.

<sup>5</sup>Where will you be stricken again, As you continue in your rebellion? The entire head is sick And the entire heart is faint.

<sup>9</sup>If the LORD of armies Had not left us a few survivors, We would be like Sodom, We would be like Gomorrah.

God Has Had Enough

<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, You rulers of Sodom; Listen to the instruction of our God, You people of Gomorrah!

11“What are your many sacrifices to Me?” Says the LORD. “I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams And the fat of fattened cattle; And I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats.

12“When you come to appear before Me, Who requires of you this trampling of My courtyards?

13“Do not go on bringing your worthless offerings, Incense is an abomination to Me. New moon and Sabbath, the proclamation of an assembly— I cannot endure wrongdoing and the festive assembly.

14“I hate your new moon festivals and your appointed feasts, They have become a burden to Me; I am tired of bearing them.

15“So when you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide My eyes from you; Yes, even though you offer many prayers, I will not be listening. Your hands are covered with blood.

16“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; Remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Stop doing evil,

17Learn to do good; Seek justice, Rebuke the oppressor, Obtain justice for the orphan, Plead for the widow’s case.

Invitation to Debate

18“Come now, and let us debate your case,” Says the LORD, “Though your sins are as scarlet, They shall become as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They shall be like wool.

19“If you are willing and obedient, You will eat the best of the land;

20But if you refuse and rebel, You will be devoured by the sword.” For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Zion Corrupted; Will Be Redeemed

21How the faithful city has become a prostitute, She who was full of justice! Righteousness once dwelt in her, But now murderers.

22Your silver has become waste matter, Your drink diluted with water.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore the Lord GOD of armies, The Mighty One of Israel, declares, "Ah, I will have satisfaction against My adversaries, And avenge Myself on My enemies.

<sup>25</sup>"I will also turn My hand against you, And smelt away your impurities as with lye; And I will remove all your slag.

<sup>26</sup>"Then I will restore your judges as at first, And your counselors as at the beginning; After that you will be called the city of righteousness, A faithful city."

<sup>28</sup>But wrongdoers and sinners together will be broken, And those who abandon the LORD will come to an end.

<sup>29</sup>You certainly will be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, And you will be embarrassed by the gardens which you have chosen.

<sup>30</sup>For you will be like an oak whose leaf withers away, Or like a garden that has no water.

<sup>31</sup>The strong man will become like flax fiber, And his work a spark. So they shall both burn together And there will be no one to extinguish them.

Isaiah 2

God's Universal Reign

<sup>2</sup>Now it will come about that In the last days The mountain of the house of the LORD Will be established as the chief of the mountains, And will be raised above the hills; And all the nations will stream to it.

<sup>3</sup>And many peoples will come and say, “Come, let’s go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; So that He may teach us about His ways, And that we may walk in His paths.” For the law will go out from Zion And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>And He will judge between the nations, And will mediate for many peoples; And they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning knives. Nation will not lift up a sword against nation, And never again will they learn war.

<sup>5</sup>Come, house of Jacob, and let’s walk in the light of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>For You have abandoned Your people, the house of Jacob, Because they are filled with influences from the east, And they are soothsayers like the Philistines. They also strike bargains with the children of foreigners.

<sup>7</sup>Their land has also been filled with silver and gold And there is no end to their treasures; Their land has also been filled with horses, And there is no end to their chariots.

<sup>8</sup>Their land has also been filled with idols; They worship the work of their hands, That which their fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup>So the common person has been humbled And the person of importance has been brought low, But do not forgive them.

<sup>10</sup>Enter the rocky place and hide in the dust From the terror of the LORD and from the splendor of His majesty.

<sup>11</sup>The proud look of humanity will be brought low, And the arrogance of people will be humbled; And the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.

A Day of Reckoning Coming

<sup>12</sup>For the LORD of armies will have a day of reckoning Against everyone who is arrogant and haughty, And against everyone who is lifted up, That he may be brought low.

<sup>13</sup>And it will be against all the cedars of Lebanon that are lofty and lifted up, Against all the oaks of Bashan,

will be brought low; And the LORD alone will be exalted on that day, <sup>18</sup>And the idols will completely vanish.

<sup>19</sup> People will go into caves of the rocks And into holes in the ground Away from the terror of the LORD And the splendor of His majesty, When He arises to terrify the earth.

<sup>20</sup>On that day people will throw away to the moles and the bats Their idols of silver and their idols of gold, Which they made for themselves to worship,

<sup>21</sup>In order to go into the clefts of the rocks and the crannies of the cliffs Before the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty, When He arises to terrify the earth.

<sup>22</sup> Take no account of man, whose breath of life is in his nostrils; For why should he be esteemed?

Isaiah 3

God Will Remove the Leaders

<sup>1</sup>For behold, the Lord GOD of armies is going to remove from Jerusalem and Judah Both supply and support, the entire supply of bread And the entire supply of water;

<sup>2</sup>The mighty man and the warrior, The judge and the prophet, The diviner and the elder,

<sup>3</sup>The captain of fifty and the esteemed person, The counselor and the expert artisan, And the skillful enchanter.

<sup>4</sup>And I will make mere boys their leaders, And mischievous children will rule over them,

<sup>5</sup>And the people will be oppressed, Each one by another, and each one by his neighbor; The youth will assault the elder, And the contemptible person will assault the one honored.

<sup>6</sup>When a man lays hold of his brother in his father's house, saying, "You have a cloak, you shall be our ruler! And these ruins will be under your authority,"

<sup>7</sup>He will protest on that day, saying, "I will not be your healer, For in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; You should not appoint me ruler of the people."

<sup>8</sup>For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen, Because their speech and their actions are against the LORD, To rebel against His glorious presence.

<sup>10</sup>Say to the righteous that it will go well for them, For they will eat the fruit of their actions.

<sup>11</sup>Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, For what he deserves will be done to him.

<sup>12</sup>My people! Their oppressors treat them violently, And women rule over them. My people! Those who guide you lead you astray And confuse the direction of your paths.

God Will Judge

<sup>13</sup>The LORD arises to contend, And stands to judge the people.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and leaders of His people, "It is you who have devoured the vineyard; The goods stolen from the poor are in your houses.

<sup>15</sup>“What do you mean by crushing My people And oppressing the face of the poor?” Declares the Lord GOD of armies.

Judah's Women Denounced

<sup>16</sup>Moreover, the LORD said, “Because the daughters of Zion are haughty And walk with heads held high and seductive eyes, And go along with mincing steps And jingle the anklets on their feet,

<sup>18</sup>On that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, headbands, crescent ornaments,

<sup>19</sup>dangling earrings, bracelets, veils,

<sup>24</sup>Now it will come about that instead of balsam oil there will be a stench; Instead of a belt, a rope; Instead of well-set hair, a plucked-out scalp; Instead of fine clothes, a robe of sackcloth; And branding instead of beauty.

<sup>26</sup>And her gates will lament and mourn, And she will sit deserted on the ground.

Isaiah 4

A Remnant Prepared

<sup>1</sup>For seven women will take hold of one man on that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name; take away our disgrace!”

<sup>2</sup>On that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth will be the pride and the beauty of the survivors of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>And it will come about that the one who is left in Zion and remains behind in Jerusalem will be called holy—everyone who is recorded for life in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and purged the bloodshed of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning,

<sup>5</sup>then the LORD will create over the entire area of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, and smoke, and the brightness of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy.

<sup>6</sup>And there will be a shelter to give shade from the heat by day, and refuge and protection from the storm and the rain.

Isaiah 5

Parable of the Vineyard

<sup>1</sup>Let me sing now for my beloved A song of my beloved about His vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup>He dug it all around, cleared it of stones, And planted it with the choicest vine. And He built a tower in the middle of it, And also carved out a wine vat in it; Then He expected it to produce good grapes, But it produced only worthless ones.

<sup>3</sup>“And now, you inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, Judge between Me and My vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>“What more was there to do for My vineyard that I have not done in it? Why, when I expected it to produce good grapes did it produce worthless ones?

<sup>5</sup>“So now let Me tell you what I am going to do to My vineyard: I will remove its hedge and it will be consumed; I will break down its wall and it will become trampled ground.

<sup>6</sup>“I will lay it waste; It will not be pruned nor hoed, But briars and thorns will come up. I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.”

<sup>7</sup>For the vineyard of the LORD of armies is the house of Israel, And the people of Judah are His delightful plant. So He waited for justice, but behold, there was bloodshed; For righteousness, but behold, a cry for help.

Woes for the Wicked

<sup>8</sup>Woe to those who attach house to house and join field to field, Until there is no more room, And you alone are a landowner in the midst of the land!

<sup>10</sup>“For ten acres of vineyard will yield only one bath of wine, And a homer of seed will yield only an ephah of grain.”

<sup>11</sup>Woe to those who rise early in the morning so that they may pursue intoxicating drink, Who stay up late in the evening so that wine may inflame them!

<sup>13</sup>Therefore My people go into exile for their lack of knowledge; And their nobles are famished, And their multitude is parched with thirst.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore Sheol has enlarged its throat and opened its mouth beyond measure; And Jerusalem’s splendor, her multitude, her noise of revelry, and the jubilant within her, descend into it.

<sup>15</sup>So the common people will be humbled and the person of importance brought low, The eyes of the haughty also will be brought low.

<sup>16</sup>But the LORD of armies will be exalted in judgment, And the holy God will show Himself holy in righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, And strangers will eat in the ruins of the wealthy.

<sup>18</sup>Woe to those who drag wrongdoing with the cords of deceit, And sin as if with cart ropes;

<sup>19</sup>Who say, "Let Him hurry, let Him do His work quickly, so that we may see it; And let the plan of the Holy One of Israel approach And come to pass, so that we may know it!"

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes stubble, And dry grass collapses in the flame, So their root will become like rot, and their blossom blow away like dust; For they have rejected the Law of the LORD of armies, And discarded the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>For this reason the anger of the LORD has burned against His people, And He has stretched out His hand against them and struck them. And the mountains quaked, and their corpses lay like refuse in the middle of the streets. Despite all this, His anger is not spent, But His hand is still stretched out.

<sup>26</sup>He will also lift up a flag to the distant nation, And whistle for it from the ends of the earth; And behold, it will come with speed swiftly.

<sup>27</sup>No one in it is tired or stumbles, No one slumbers or sleeps; Nor is the undergarment at his waist loosened, Nor his sandal strap broken.

<sup>29</sup>Its roaring is like a lioness, and it roars like young lions; It growls as it seizes the prey And carries it off with no one to save it.

<sup>30</sup>And it will roar against it on that day like the roaring of the sea. If one looks across to the land, behold, there is darkness and distress; Even the light is darkened by its clouds.

Isaiah 6

Isaiah's Vision

<sup>1</sup>In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, lofty and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple.

<sup>2</sup>Seraphim were standing above Him, each having six wings: with two each covered his face, and with two each covered his feet, and with two each flew.

<sup>3</sup>And one called out to another and said, "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the LORD of armies. The whole earth is full of His glory."

<sup>4</sup>And the foundations of the thresholds trembled at the voice of him who called out, while the temple was filling with smoke.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Woe to me, for I am ruined! Because I am a man of unclean lips, And I live among a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of armies."

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with tongs.

<sup>7</sup>He touched my mouth with it and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your guilt is taken away and atonement is made for your sin."

Isaiah's Commission

<sup>8</sup>Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

<sup>9</sup>And He said, “Go, and tell this people: ‘Keep on listening, but do not understand; And keep on looking, but do not gain knowledge.’

<sup>10</sup>“Make the hearts of this people insensitive, Their ears dull, And their eyes blind, So that they will not see with their eyes, Hear with their ears, Understand with their hearts, And return and be healed.”

<sup>11</sup>Then I said, “Lord, how long?” And He answered, “Until cities are devastated and without inhabitant, Houses are without people And the land is utterly desolate, <sup>12</sup>The LORD has completely removed people, And there are many forsaken places in the midst of the land.

<sup>13</sup>“Yet there will still be a tenth portion in it, And it will again be subject to burning, Like a terebinth or an oak Whose stump remains when it is cut down. The holy seed is its stump.”

Isaiah 7

War against Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the days of Ahaz, the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but could not conquer it.

<sup>2</sup>When it was reported to the house of David, saying, “The Arameans have taken a stand by Ephraim,” his heart and the hearts of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake from the wind.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the road to the fuller’s field, <sup>4</sup>and say to him, ‘Take care and be calm, have no fear and do not be fainthearted because of these two stumps of smoldering logs, on account of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah.

<sup>5</sup>Because Aram, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has planned evil against you, saying,

<sup>7</sup>this is what the Lord GOD says: “It shall not stand nor shall it come to pass.

<sup>8</sup>For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin (now within another sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken to pieces, so that it is no longer a people),

<sup>9</sup>and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you will not believe, you certainly shall not last.” ’ ’

The Child Immanuel

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Ask for a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; make it deep as Sheol or high as heaven.”

<sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I put the LORD to the test!”

<sup>13</sup>Then he said, “Listen now, house of David! Is it too trivial a thing for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God as well?

<sup>14</sup>Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and she will name Him Immanuel.

<sup>15</sup>He will eat curds and honey at the time He knows enough to refuse evil and choose good.

<sup>16</sup>For before the boy knows enough to refuse evil and choose good, the land whose two kings you dread will be abandoned.

Trials to Come for Judah

<sup>17</sup>The LORD will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim separated from Judah—the days of the king of Assyria.”

<sup>18</sup>On that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the remotest part of the canals of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>They will all come and settle on the steep ravines, on the ledges of the cliffs, on all the thorn bushes, and on all the watering places.

<sup>20</sup>On that day the Lord will shave with a razor, hired from regions beyond the Euphrates River (that is, with the king of Assyria), the head and the hair of the legs; and it will also remove the beard.

<sup>21</sup>Now on that day a person may keep alive only a heifer and a pair of sheep;

<sup>22</sup>and because of the abundance of the milk produced he will eat curds, for everyone who is left within the land will eat curds and honey.

<sup>23</sup>And it will come about on that day, that every place where there used to be a thousand vines, valued at a thousand shekels of silver, will become briars and thorns.

<sup>24</sup>People will come there with bows and arrows, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

<sup>25</sup>As for all the hills which used to be cultivated with the plow, you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place for pasturing oxen and for sheep to trample.

Isaiah 8

Damascus and Samaria Fall

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Take for yourself a large tablet and write on it in ordinary letters: Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

<sup>2</sup>And I will take to Myself faithful witnesses for testimony, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

<sup>3</sup>So I approached the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. Then the LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz;

<sup>4</sup>for before the boy knows how to cry out ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria.”

<sup>5</sup>Again the LORD spoke to me further, saying,

<sup>6</sup>“Inasmuch as these people have rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah And rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, behold, the Lord is about to bring on them the strong and abundant waters of the Euphrates River, That is, the king of Assyria and all his glory; And it will rise over all its channels and go over all its banks.

<sup>8</sup>“Then it will sweep on into Judah, it will overflow and pass through, It will reach as far as the neck; And the spread of its wings will fill the expanse of your land, Immanuel.

A Believing Remnant

<sup>9</sup>“Be broken, you peoples, and be shattered; And listen, all remote places of the earth. Get ready, yet be shattered; Get ready, yet be shattered.

<sup>10</sup>“Devise a plan, but it will fail; State a proposal, but it will not stand, For God is with us.”

<sup>11</sup>For so the LORD spoke to me with mighty power and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“You are not to say, ‘It is a conspiracy!’ Regarding everything that this people call a conspiracy, And you are not to fear what they fear or be in dread of it.

<sup>13</sup>“It is the LORD of armies whom you are to regard as holy. And He shall be your fear, And He shall be your dread.

<sup>14</sup>“Then He will become a sanctuary; But to both houses of Israel, He will be a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, And a snare and a trap for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>“Many will stumble over them, Then they will fall and be broken; They will be snared and caught.”

<sup>17</sup>And I will wait for the LORD who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob; I will wait eagerly for Him.

<sup>18</sup>Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of armies, who dwells on Mount Zion.

<sup>19</sup>When they say to you, “Consult the mediums and the spiritists who whisper and mutter,” should a people not consult their God? Should they consult the dead in behalf of the living?

<sup>20</sup>To the Law and to the testimony! If they do not speak in accordance with this word, it is because they have no dawn.

<sup>21</sup>They will pass through the land dejected and hungry, and it will turn out that when they are hungry, they will become enraged and curse their king and their God as they face upward.

<sup>22</sup>Then they will look to the earth, and behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be driven away into darkness.

Isaiah 9

Birth and Reign of the Prince of Peace

<sup>1</sup> But there will be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In earlier times He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but later on He will make it glorious, by the way of the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

<sup>2</sup> The people who walk in darkness Will see a great light; Those who live in a dark land, The light will shine on them.

<sup>3</sup>You will multiply the nation, You will increase their joy; They will rejoice in Your presence As with the joy of harvest, As people rejoice when they divide the spoils.

<sup>4</sup>For You will break the yoke of their burden and the staff on their shoulders, The rod of their oppressor, as at the battle of Midian.

<sup>5</sup>For every boot of the marching warrior in the roar of battle, And cloak rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup>For a Child will be born to us, a Son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace On the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness From then on and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of armies will accomplish this.

God's Anger with Israel's Arrogance

<sup>8</sup>The Lord sends a message against Jacob, And it falls on Israel.

<sup>9</sup>And all the people know it, That is, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, Asserting in pride and in arrogance of heart:

<sup>10</sup>“The bricks have fallen down, But we will rebuild with smooth stones; The sycamores have been cut down, But we will replace them with cedars.”

<sup>13</sup>Yet the people do not turn back to Him who struck them, Nor do they seek the LORD of armies.

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD cuts off head and tail from Israel, Both palm branch and bulrush in a single day.

<sup>15</sup>The head is the elder and esteemed man, And the prophet who teaches falsehood is the tail.

<sup>16</sup>For those who guide this people are leading them astray; And those who are guided by them are confused.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over their young men, Nor does He have compassion on their orphans or their widows; For every one of them is godless and an evildoer, And every mouth is speaking foolishness. In spite of all this, His anger does not turn away, And His hand is still stretched out.

<sup>18</sup>For wickedness burns like a fire; It consumes briars and thorns; It also sets the thickets of the forest aflame And they roll upward in a column of smoke.

<sup>21</sup>Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, And together they are against Judah. In spite of all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 10

Assyria Is God's Instrument

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who enact unjust statutes And to those who constantly record harmful decisions,

<sup>2</sup>So as to deprive the needy of justice And rob the poor among My people of their rights, So that widows may be their spoil And that they may plunder the orphans.

<sup>3</sup>Now what will you do in the day of punishment, And in the devastation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your wealth?

<sup>4</sup>Nothing remains but to crouch among the captives Or fall among those killed. In spite of all this, His anger does not turn away And His hand is still stretched out.

<sup>5</sup>Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger And the staff in whose hands is My indignation, <sup>6</sup>I send it against a godless nation And commission it against the people of My fury To capture spoils and to seize plunder, And to trample them down like mud in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>Yet it does not so intend, Nor does it plan so in its heart, But rather it is its purpose to destroy And to eliminate many nations.

<sup>8</sup>For it says, “Are not my officers all kings?

<sup>9</sup>“Is not Calno like Carchemish, Or Hamath like Arpad, Or Samaria like Damascus?

<sup>10</sup>“As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols, Whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria, <sup>11</sup>Shall I not do the same to Jerusalem and her images Just as I have done to Samaria and her idols?”

<sup>12</sup>So it will be that when the Lord has completed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will say, “I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the arrogant pride of his eyes.”

<sup>13</sup>For he has said, “By the power of my hand and by my wisdom I did this, Because I have understanding; And I removed the boundaries of the peoples And plundered their treasures, And like a powerful man I brought down their inhabitants,

<sup>14</sup>And my hand reached to the riches of the peoples like a nest, And as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth; And there was not one that flapped its wing, opened its beak, or chirped.”

<sup>15</sup>Is the axe to boast itself over the one who chops with it? Is the saw to exalt itself over the one who wields it? That would be like a club wielding those who lift it, Or like a rod lifting the one who is not wood.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore the Lord, the GOD of armies, will send a wasting disease among his stout warriors; And under his glory a fire will be kindled like a burning flame.

<sup>17</sup>And the Light of Israel will become a fire and Israel’s Holy One a flame, And it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in a single day.

<sup>18</sup>And He will destroy the glory of his forest and of his fruitful garden, both soul and body, And it will be as when a sick person wastes away.

<sup>19</sup>And the rest of the trees of his forest will be so small in number That a child could write them down.

A Remnant Will Return

<sup>20</sup>Now on that day the remnant of Israel, and those of the house of Jacob who have escaped, will no longer rely on the one who struck them, but will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

<sup>22</sup>For though your people, Israel, may be like the sand of the sea, Only a remnant within them will return; A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.

<sup>23</sup>For a complete destruction, one that is determined, the Lord GOD of armies will execute in the midst of the whole land.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD of armies says: “My people, you who dwell in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian who strikes you with the rod, and lifts up his staff against you the way Egypt did.

<sup>25</sup>For in a very little while My indignation against you will be ended and My anger will be directed toward their destruction.”

<sup>26</sup>The LORD of armies will wield a whip against him like the defeat of Midian at the rock of Oreb; and His staff will be over the sea, and He will lift it up the way He did in Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>So it will be on that day, that his burden will be removed from your shoulders, and his yoke from your neck; and the yoke will be broken because of fatness.

<sup>28</sup>He has come against Aiath, He has passed through Migron; At Michmash he deposited his baggage.

<sup>29</sup>They have gone through the pass, saying, “Geba will be our encampment for the night.” Ramah is terrified, and Gibeah of Saul has fled.

<sup>33</sup>Behold, the Lord, the GOD of armies, will lop off the branches with terrifying power; Those also who are tall in stature will be cut down, And those who are lofty will be brought low.

<sup>34</sup>He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an iron axe, And Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

Isaiah 11

Righteous Reign of the Branch

<sup>1</sup>Then a shoot will spring from the stem of Jesse, And a Branch from his roots will bear fruit.

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding, The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>And He will delight in the fear of the LORD, And He will not judge by what His eyes see, Nor make decisions by what His ears hear;

<sup>4</sup>But with righteousness He will judge the poor, And decide with fairness for the humble of the earth; And He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, And with the breath of His lips He will slay the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>Also righteousness will be the belt around His hips, And faithfulness the belt around His waist.

<sup>6</sup>And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, And the leopard will lie down with the young goat, And the calf and the young lion and the fattened steer will be together; And a little boy will lead them.

<sup>7</sup>Also the cow and the bear will graze, Their young will lie down together, And the lion will eat straw like the ox.

<sup>8</sup>The nursing child will play by the hole of the cobra, And the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.

<sup>9</sup>They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD As the waters cover the sea.

<sup>10</sup>Then on that day The nations will resort to the root of Jesse, Who will stand as a signal flag for the peoples; And His resting place will be glorious.

The Restored Remnant

<sup>11</sup>Then it will happen on that day that the Lord Will again recover with His hand the second time The remnant of His people who will remain, From Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, And from the islands of the sea.

<sup>12</sup>And He will lift up a flag for the nations And assemble the banished ones of Israel, And will gather the dispersed of Judah From the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup>Then the jealousy of Ephraim will depart, And those who harass Judah will be eliminated; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, And Judah will not harass Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup>They will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines on the west; Together they will plunder the people of the east; They will possess Edom and Moab, And the sons of Ammon will be subject to them.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD will utterly destroy The tongue of the Sea of Egypt; And He will wave His hand over the Euphrates River With His scorching wind; And He will strike it into seven streams And make people walk over in dry sandals.

<sup>16</sup>And there will be a highway from Assyria For the remnant of His people who will be left, Just as there was for Israel On the day that they came up out of the land of Egypt.

Isaiah 12

Thanksgiving Expressed

<sup>1</sup>Then you will say on that day, “I will give thanks to You, LORD; For although You were angry with me, Your anger is turned away, And You comfort me.

<sup>2</sup>“Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust and not be afraid; For the LORD GOD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation.”

<sup>5</sup>Praise the LORD in song, for He has done glorious things; Let this be known throughout the earth.

<sup>6</sup>Rejoice and shout for joy, you inhabitant of Zion, For great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 13

Prophecies about Babylon

<sup>2</sup>Lift up a flag on the bare hill, Raise your voice to them, Wave the hand that they may enter the doors of the nobles.

<sup>3</sup>I have commanded My consecrated ones, I have also called for My warriors Who boast in My eminence, To execute My anger.

<sup>5</sup>They are coming from a distant country, From the farthest horizons, The LORD and the weapons of His indignation, To destroy the whole land.

Judgment on the Day of the LORD

<sup>6</sup>Wail, for the day of the LORD is near! It will come as destruction from the Almighty.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore all hands will fall limp, And every human heart will melt.

<sup>8</sup>They will be terrified, Pains and anguish will take hold of them; They will writhe like a woman in labor, They will look at one another in astonishment, Their faces aflame.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, the day of the LORD is coming, Cruel, with fury and burning anger, To make the land a desolation; And He will exterminate its sinners from it.

<sup>10</sup>For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not flash their light; The sun will be dark when it rises And the moon will not shed its light.

<sup>11</sup>So I will punish the world for its evil And the wicked for their wrongdoing;
I will also put an end to the audacity of the proud And humiliate the arrogance of the tyrants.

<sup>12</sup>I will make mortal man scarcer than pure gold And mankind than the gold of Ophir.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, And the earth will be shaken from its place At the fury of the LORD of armies In the day of His burning anger.

<sup>14</sup>And it will be that, like a hunted gazelle, Or like sheep with no one to gather them, Each of them will turn to his own people, And each of them will flee to his own land.

<sup>15</sup>Anyone who is found will be thrust through, And anyone who is captured will fall by the sword.

<sup>16</sup>Their little ones also will be dashed to pieces Before their eyes; Their houses will be plundered And their wives raped.

Babylon Will Fall to the Medes

<sup>17</sup>Behold, I am going to stir up the Medes against them, Who will not value silver or take pleasure in gold.

<sup>18</sup>And their bows will mow down the young men, They will not even have compassion on the fruit of the womb, Nor will their eye pity children.

<sup>19</sup>And Babylon, the beauty of kingdoms, the glory of the Chaldeans' pride,
Will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>20</sup>It will never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation; Nor will the Arab pitch his tent there, Nor will shepherds allow their flocks to lie down there.

<sup>21</sup>But desert creatures will lie down there, And their houses will be full of owls; Ostriches also will live there, and shaggy goats will frolic there.

<sup>22</sup> Hyenas will howl in their fortified towers And jackals in their luxurious palaces. Her fateful time also will soon come, And her days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14

Israel's Taunt against Babylon

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD has compassion on Jacob and again chooses Israel, and settles them on their own land, then strangers will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>The peoples will take them along and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will make them their own possession in the land of the LORD as male and female servants; and they will take their captors captive and will rule over their oppressors.

<sup>3</sup>And it will be on the day when the LORD gives you rest from your hardship, your turmoil, and from the harsh service in which you have been enslaved, <sup>4</sup>that you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased, And how the onslaught has ceased!

<sup>6</sup>Which used to strike the peoples in fury with unceasing strokes, Which subdued the nations in anger with unrestrained persecution.

<sup>8</sup>"Even the juniper trees rejoice over you, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, 'Since you have been laid low, no tree cutter comes up against us.'

<sup>9</sup>"Sheol below is excited about you, to meet you when you come; It stirs the spirits of the dead for you, all the leaders of the earth; It raises all the kings of the nations from their thrones.

<sup>10</sup>"They will all respond and say to you, 'Even you have become weak as we, You have become like us.'

<sup>11</sup>‘Your pride and the music of your harps Have been brought down to Sheol; Maggots are spread out as your bed beneath you And worms are your covering.’

<sup>12</sup>“How you have fallen from heaven, You star of the morning, son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the earth, You who defeated the nations!

<sup>13</sup>“But you said in your heart, ‘I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, And I will sit on the mount of assembly In the recesses of the north.

<sup>14</sup>‘I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.’

<sup>15</sup>“Nevertheless you will be brought down to Sheol, To the recesses of the pit.

<sup>16</sup>“Those who see you will stare at you, They will closely examine you, saying, ‘Is this the man who made the earth tremble, Who shook kingdoms,

<sup>17</sup>Who made the world like a wilderness And overthrew its cities, Who did not allow his prisoners to go home?’

<sup>19</sup>“But you have been hurled out of your tomb Like a rejected branch, Clothed with those killed who have been pierced with a sword, Who go down to the stones of the pit Like a trampled corpse.

<sup>20</sup>“You will not be united with them in burial, Because you have ruined your country, You have killed your people. May the descendants of evildoers never be mentioned.

<sup>22</sup>“I will rise up against them,” declares the LORD of armies, “and eliminate from Babylon name and survivors, offspring and descendants,” declares the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>“I will also make it the property of the hedgehog and swamps of water, and I will sweep it away with the broom of destruction,” declares the LORD of armies.

Judgment on Assyria

<sup>24</sup>The LORD of armies has sworn, saying, “Certainly, just as I have intended, so it has happened, and just as I have planned, so it will stand,

<sup>25</sup>to break Assyria in My land, and I will trample him on My mountains. Then his yoke will be removed from them, and his burden removed from their shoulders.

<sup>26</sup>This is the plan devised against the entire earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out against all the nations.

<sup>27</sup>For the LORD of armies has planned, and who can frustrate it? And as for His stretched-out hand, who can turn it back?”

Judgment on Philistia

<sup>29</sup>“Do not rejoice, Philistia, all of you, Because the rod that struck you is broken; For from the serpent’s root a viper will come out, And its fruit will be a winged serpent.

<sup>30</sup>“Those who are most helpless will eat, And the poor will lie down in security; I will kill your root with famine, And it will kill your survivors.

<sup>31</sup>“Wail, you gate; cry, you city; Melt away, Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes from the north, And there is no straggler in his ranks.

<sup>32</sup>“What answer will one give the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, And the poor of His people will take refuge in it.”

Isaiah 15

Judgment on Moab

<sup>6</sup>For the waters of Nimrim are desolate. Indeed, the grass is withered, the new growth has died, There is no greenery.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore the abundance which they have acquired and stored up, They carry it off over the brook of Arabim.

<sup>9</sup>For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; I will certainly bring added woes upon Dimon, A lion upon the fugitives of Moab and the remnant of the land.

Isaiah 16

Prophecy of Moab's Devastation

<sup>4</sup>“Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you; Be a hiding place to them from the destroyer.” For the oppressor has come to an end, destruction has ceased, Oppressors have been removed from the land.

<sup>5</sup>A throne will be established in faithfulness, And a judge will sit on it in trustworthiness in the tent of David; Moreover, he will seek justice, And be prompt in righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab, an excessive pride; Even of his arrogance, pride, and fury; His idle boasts are false.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore Moab will wail; everyone of Moab will wail. You will moan for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth As those who are utterly stricken.

<sup>8</sup>For the fields of Heshbon have withered, the vines of Sibmah as well; The lords of the nations have trampled down its choice clusters Which reached as far as Jazer and wandered to the deserts; Its tendrils spread themselves out and passed over the sea.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore I will weep bitterly for Jazer, for the vine of Sibmah; I will drench you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh; For the shouting over your summer fruits and your harvest has fallen away.

<sup>10</sup>Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field; In the vineyards also there will be no cries of joy or jubilant shouting, No treader treads out wine in the presses, For I have made the shouting to cease.

<sup>12</sup>So it will come about when Moab presents himself, When he tires himself upon his high place And comes to his sanctuary to pray, That he will not prevail.

<sup>14</sup>But now the LORD has spoken, saying, “Within three years, as a hired worker would count them, the glory of Moab will become contemptible along with all his great population, and his remnant will be very small and impotent.”

Isaiah 17

Prophecy about Damascus

<sup>2</sup>“The cities of Aroer are abandoned; They will be for herds to lie down in, And there will be no one to frighten them.

<sup>3</sup>“The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, And sovereignty from Damascus And the remnant of Aram; They will be like the glory of the sons of Israel,” Declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>4</sup>Now on that day the glory of Jacob will fade, And the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

<sup>5</sup>It will be like the reaper gathering the standing grain, As his arm harvests the ears, Or it will be like one gleaning ears of grain In the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>6</sup>Yet gleanings will be left in it like the shaking of an olive tree, Two or three olives on the topmost branch, Four or five on the branches of a fruitful tree, Declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>On that day man will look to his Maker And his eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>And he will not look to the altars, the work of his hands, Nor will he look to that which his fingers have made, Even the Asherim and incense altars.

<sup>9</sup>On that day their strong cities will be like abandoned places in the forest,
Or like branches which they abandoned before the sons of Israel; And the land will be a desolation.

<sup>10</sup>For you have forgotten the God of your salvation And have not remembered the rock of your refuge. Therefore you plant delightful plants
And set them with vine shoots of a strange god.

<sup>11</sup>On the day that you plant it you carefully fence it in, And in the morning you bring your seed to blossom; But the harvest will flee On a day of illness and incurable pain.

<sup>12</sup>Oh, the uproar of many peoples Who roar like the roaring of the seas, And the rumbling of nations Who rush on like the rumbling of mighty waters!

<sup>13</sup>The nations rumble on like the rumbling of many waters, But He will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, And be chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind, Or like whirling dust before a gale.

<sup>14</sup>At evening time, behold, there is terror! Before morning they are gone.
This will be the fate of those who plunder us And the lot of those who pillage us.

Isaiah 18

Message to Ethiopia

<sup>2</sup>Which sends messengers by the sea, Even in papyrus vessels on the surface of the waters. Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, To a people feared far and wide, A powerful and oppressive nation Whose land the rivers divide.

<sup>3</sup>All you who inhabit the world, and live on earth, As soon as a flag is raised on the mountains, you will see it, And as soon as the trumpet is blown, you will hear it.

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD has told me: “I will quietly look from My dwelling place Like dazzling heat in the sunshine, Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

<sup>5</sup>For before the harvest, as soon as the bud blossoms And the flower becomes a ripening grape, He will cut off the shoots with pruning knives, And remove and tear away the spreading branches.

<sup>6</sup>They will be left together for mountain birds of prey, And for the animals of the earth; And the birds of prey will spend the summer feeding on them, And all the animals of the earth will spend harvest time on them.

<sup>7</sup>At that time a gift of tribute will be brought to the LORD of armies From a people tall and smooth, From a people feared far and wide, A powerful and oppressive nation, Whose land the rivers divide— To the place of the name of the LORD of armies, to Mount Zion.

Isaiah 19

Message to Egypt

<sup>2</sup>“So I will incite Egyptians against Egyptians; And they will fight, each against his brother and each against his neighbor, City against city and kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>“Then the spirit of the Egyptians will be demoralized within them; And I will confuse their strategy, So that they will resort to idols and ghosts of the dead, And to mediums and spiritists.

<sup>4</sup>“Furthermore, I will hand the Egyptians over to a cruel master, And a mighty king will rule over them,” declares the Lord GOD of armies.

<sup>5</sup>The waters from the sea will dry up, And the river will be parched and dry.

<sup>6</sup>The canals will emit a stench, The streams of Egypt will thin out and dry up; The reeds and rushes will rot away.

<sup>7</sup>The bulrushes by the Nile, by the edge of the Nile And all the sown fields by the Nile Will become dry, be driven away, and be no more.

<sup>8</sup>And the fishermen will grieve, And all those who cast a line into the Nile will mourn, And those who spread nets on the waters will dwindle away.

<sup>9</sup>Moreover, the manufacturers of linen made from combed flax And the weavers of white cloth will be utterly dejected.

<sup>10</sup>And the pillars of Egypt will be crushed; All the hired laborers will be grieved in soul.

<sup>11</sup>The officials of Zoan are mere fools; The advice of Pharaoh's wisest advisers has become stupid. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings"?

<sup>12</sup>Well then, where are your wise men? Please let them tell you, And let them understand what the LORD of armies Has planned against Egypt.

<sup>13</sup>The officials of Zoan have turned out to be fools, The officials of Memphis are deluded; Those who are the cornerstone of her tribes Have led Egypt astray.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD has mixed within her a spirit of distortion; They have led Egypt astray in all that it does, As a drunken person staggers in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup>There will be no work for Egypt Which its head or tail, its palm branch or bulrush, may do.

<sup>16</sup>On that day the Egyptians will become like women, and they will tremble and be in great fear because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of armies, which He is going to wave over them.

<sup>17</sup>The land of Judah will become a cause of shame to Egypt; everyone to whom it is mentioned will be in great fear because of the plan of the LORD of armies which He is making against them.

<sup>18</sup>On that day five cities in the land of Egypt will be speaking the language of Canaan and swearing allegiance to the LORD of armies; one will be called the City of Destruction.

<sup>19</sup>On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a memorial stone to the LORD beside its border.

<sup>20</sup>And it will become a sign and a witness to the LORD of armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry out to the LORD because of oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Champion, and He will save them.

<sup>21</sup>So the LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD on that day. They will even worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make a vow to the LORD and perform it.

<sup>22</sup>And the LORD will strike Egypt, striking but healing; so they will return to the LORD, and He will respond to their pleas and heal them.

<sup>23</sup>On that day there will be a road from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

<sup>24</sup>On that day Israel will be the third party to Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth,

<sup>25</sup>whom the LORD of armies has blessed, saying, “Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.”

Isaiah 20

Prophecy about Egypt and Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup>In the year that the commander came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him and he fought against Ashdod and captured it,

<sup>2</sup>at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, “Go and loosen the sackcloth from your hips and take your sandals off your feet.” And he did so, going naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, “Even as My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and symbol against Egypt and Cush, <sup>4</sup>so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Then they will be terrified and ashamed because of Cush their hope and Egypt their pride.

<sup>6</sup>So the inhabitants of this coastland will say on that day, ‘Behold, such is our hope, where we fled for help to be saved from the king of Assyria; and how are we ourselves to escape?’ ”

Isaiah 21

God Commands That Babylon Be Taken

<sup>1</sup>The pronouncement concerning the wilderness of the sea: As windstorms in the Negev come in turns, It comes from the wilderness, from a terrifying land.

<sup>2</sup>A harsh vision has been shown to me; The treacherous one still deals treacherously, and the destroyer still destroys. Go up, Elam, lay siege, Media; I have put an end to all the groaning she has caused.

<sup>3</sup>For this reason my loins are full of anguish; Pains have seized me like the pains of a woman in labor. I am so bewildered I cannot hear, so terrified I cannot see.

<sup>4</sup>My mind reels, horror overwhelms me; The twilight I longed for has been turned into trembling for me.

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the Lord says to me: “Go, station the lookout, have him report what he sees.

<sup>9</sup>“Now behold, here comes a troop of riders, horsemen in pairs.” And one said, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon; And all the images of her gods are shattered on the ground.”

<sup>10</sup>My downtrodden people, and my afflicted of the threshing floor! What I have heard from the LORD of armies, The God of Israel, I make known to you.

Pronouncements about Edom and Arabia

<sup>11</sup>The pronouncement concerning Edom: One keeps calling to me from Seir, “Watchman, how far gone is the night? Watchman, how far gone is the night?”

<sup>12</sup>The watchman says, “Morning comes but also night. If you would inquire, inquire; Come back again.”

<sup>13</sup>The pronouncement about Arabia: In the thickets of Arabia you must spend the night, You caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup>Bring water for the thirsty, You inhabitants of the land of Tema; Meet the fugitive with bread.

<sup>15</sup>For they have fled from the swords, From the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, And from the press of battle.

<sup>16</sup>For this is what the Lord said to me: “In a year, as a hired worker would count it, all the splendor of Kedar will come to an end;

<sup>17</sup>and the remainder of the number of bowmen, the warriors of the sons of Kedar, will be few; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken.”

Isaiah 22

The Valley of Vision

<sup>1</sup>The pronouncement concerning the valley of vision: What is the matter with you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops?

<sup>2</sup>You who were full of noise, You tumultuous town, you jubilant city; Your dead were not killed with the sword, Nor did they die in battle.

<sup>3</sup>All your rulers have fled together, And have been captured without the bow; All of you who were found were taken captive together, Though they had fled far away.

<sup>8</sup>And He removed the defense of Judah. On that day you depended on the weapons of the house of the forest,

<sup>10</sup>Then you counted the houses of Jerusalem And tore down houses to fortify the wall.

<sup>11</sup>And you made a reservoir between the two walls For the waters of the old pool. But you did not depend on Him who made it, Nor did you take into consideration Him who planned it long ago.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore on that day the Lord GOD of armies called you to weeping, to wailing, To shaving the head, and to wearing sackcloth.

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD of armies revealed Himself to me: “Certainly this wrongdoing will not be forgiven you Until you die,” says the Lord GOD of armies.

<sup>17</sup>‘Behold, the LORD is about to hurl you violently, you strong man. And He is about to grasp you firmly

<sup>18</sup> And wrap you up tightly like a ball, To be driven into a vast country; There you will die, And there your splendid chariots will be, You shame of your master’s house!’

<sup>19</sup>“I will depose you from your office, And I will pull you down from your position.

<sup>20</sup>“Then it will come about on that day, That I will summon My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, <sup>21</sup>And I will clothe him with your tunic And tie your sash securely around him. I will hand your authority over to him, And he will become a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

<sup>22</sup>“Then I will put the key of the house of David on his shoulder; When he opens, no one will shut, When he shuts, no one will open.

<sup>23</sup>“I will drive him like a peg in a firm place, And he will become a throne of glory to his father’s house.

<sup>24</sup>So they will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and the descendants, all the least of vessels, from bowls to all the jars.

<sup>25</sup>On that day,” declares the LORD of armies, “the peg driven into a firm place will give way; it will even break off and fall, and the load that is hanging on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 23

The Fall of Tyre

<sup>2</sup>Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland, You merchants of Sidon; Your messengers crossed the sea

<sup>3</sup>And were on many waters. The grain of the Nile, the harvest of the River was her revenue; And she was the market of nations.

<sup>7</sup>Is this your jubilant city, Whose origin is from antiquity, Whose feet used to bring her to colonize distant places?

<sup>8</sup>Who has planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, Whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

<sup>9</sup>The LORD of armies has planned it, to defile the pride of all beauty, To despise all the honored of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Overflow your land like the Nile, you daughter of Tarshish, There is no more restraint.

<sup>11</sup>He has stretched His hand out over the sea, He has made the kingdoms tremble; The LORD has given a command concerning Canaan to demolish its strongholds.

<sup>12</sup>He has said, “You shall not be jubilant anymore, you crushed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Cyprus; even there you will find no rest.”

<sup>13</sup>Behold, the land of the Chaldeans—this is the people that did not exist; Assyria allocated it for desert creatures—they erected their siege towers, they stripped its palaces, they made it a ruin.

<sup>15</sup>Now on that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

<sup>16</sup>Take your harp, wander around the city, You forgotten prostitute; Pluck the strings skillfully, sing many songs, That you may be remembered.

<sup>17</sup>It will come about at the end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre. Then she will go back to her prostitute’s wages and commit prostitution with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth.

<sup>18</sup>Her profit and her prostitute’s wages will be sacred to the LORD; it will not be stored up or hoarded, but her profit will become sufficient food and magnificent attire for those who dwell in the presence of the LORD.

Isaiah 24

Judgment on the Earth

<sup>3</sup>The earth will be completely laid waste and completely plundered, for the LORD has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup>The earth dries up and crumbles away, the mainland dries out and crumbles away, the exalted of the people of the earth dwindle.

<sup>13</sup>For so it will be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, As the shaking of an olive tree, As the gleanings when the grape harvest is over.

<sup>16</sup>From the ends of the earth we hear songs: “Glory to the Righteous One,”
But I say, “I am finished! I am finished! Woe to me! The treacherous deal treacherously, And the treacherous deal very treacherously.”

<sup>17</sup>Terror and pit and snare Confront you, you inhabitant of the earth.

<sup>18</sup>Then it will be that the one who flees the sound of terror will fall into the pit, And the one who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare; For the windows above are opened, and the foundations of the earth shake.

<sup>19</sup>The earth is broken apart, The earth is split through, The earth is shaken violently.

<sup>20</sup>The earth trembles like a heavy drinker And sways like a hut, For its wrongdoing is heavy upon it, And it will fall, never to rise again.

<sup>21</sup>So it will happen on that day, That the LORD will punish the rebellious angels of heaven on high, And the kings of the earth on earth.

<sup>22</sup>They will be gathered together Like prisoners in the dungeon, And will be confined in prison; And after many days they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup>Then the moon will be ashamed and the sun be put to shame, For the LORD of armies will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, And His glory will be before His elders.

Isaiah 25

Song of Praise for God's Favor

<sup>1</sup>LORD, You are my God; I will exalt You, I will give thanks to Your name; For
You have worked wonders, Plans formed long ago, with perfect faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>For You have turned a city into a heap, A fortified city into a ruin; A palace of strangers is no longer a city, It will never be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore a strong people will glorify You; Cities of ruthless nations will revere You.

<sup>5</sup>Like heat in a dry land, You subdue the uproar of foreigners; Like heat by the shadow of a cloud, the song of the ruthless is silenced.

<sup>7</sup>And on this mountain He will destroy the covering which is over all peoples, The veil which is stretched over all nations.

<sup>8</sup>He will swallow up death for all time, And the Lord GOD will wipe tears away from all faces, And He will remove the disgrace of His people from all the earth; For the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup>And it will be said on that day, “Behold, this is our God for whom we have waited that He might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; Let’s rejoice and be glad in His salvation.”

<sup>10</sup>For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain, And Moab will be trampled down in his place As straw is trampled down in the water of a manure pile.

<sup>11</sup>And he will spread out his hands in the middle of it As a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim, But the Lord will lay low his pride together with the trickery of his hands.

<sup>12</sup>The unassailable fortifications of your walls He will bring down, Lay low, and throw to the ground, to the dust.

Isaiah 26

Song of Trust in God’s Protection

<sup>1</sup>On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city; He sets up walls and ramparts for security.

<sup>4</sup>“Trust in the LORD forever, For in GOD the LORD, we have an everlasting Rock.

<sup>5</sup>“For He has brought low those who dwell on high, the unassailable city; He lays it low, He lays it low to the ground, He casts it to the dust.

<sup>8</sup>Indeed, while following the way of Your judgments, LORD, We have waited for You eagerly; Your name, and remembering You, is the desire of our souls.

<sup>9</sup>At night my soul longs for You, Indeed, my spirit within me seeks You diligently; For when the earth experiences Your judgments, The inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

<sup>11</sup>LORD, Your hand is lifted up, yet they do not see it. They see Your zeal for the people and are put to shame; Indeed, fire will devour Your enemies.

<sup>12</sup>LORD, You will establish peace for us, Since You have also performed for us all our works.

<sup>13</sup>LORD, our God, other masters besides You have ruled us; But through You alone we confess Your name.

<sup>14</sup>The dead will not live, the departed spirits will not rise; Therefore You have punished and destroyed them, And You have eliminated all remembrance of them.

<sup>15</sup>You have increased the nation, LORD, You have increased the nation, You are glorified; You have extended all the borders of the land.

<sup>16</sup>LORD, they sought You in distress; They could only whisper a prayer, Your discipline was upon them.

<sup>17</sup>As the pregnant woman approaches the time to give birth, She writhes and cries out in her labor pains; This is how we were before You, LORD.

<sup>18</sup>We were pregnant, we writhed in labor, We gave birth, as it seems, only to wind. We could not accomplish deliverance for the earth, Nor were inhabitants of the world born.

<sup>19</sup>Your dead will live; Their corpses will rise. You who lie in the dust, awake and shout for joy, For your dew is as the dew of the dawn, And the earth will give birth to the departed spirits.

<sup>20</sup>Come, my people, enter your rooms And close your doors behind you; Hide for a little while Until indignation runs its course.

<sup>21</sup>For behold, the LORD is about to come out from His place To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their wrongdoing; And the earth will reveal her bloodshed And will no longer cover her slain.

Isaiah 27

God's Blessings for Israel

<sup>3</sup>"I, the LORD, am its keeper; I water it every moment. So that no one will damage it, I guard it night and day.

<sup>4</sup>"I have no wrath. Should someone give Me briars and thorns in battle, Then I would step on them, I would burn them completely.

<sup>5</sup>“Or let him rely on My protection, Let him make peace with Me, Let him make peace with Me.”

<sup>6</sup> In the days to come Jacob will take root, Israel will blossom and sprout, And they will fill the whole world with fruit.

<sup>7</sup>Like the striking of Him who has struck them, has He struck them? Or like the slaughter of His slain, have they been slain?

<sup>8</sup>You contended with them by banishing them, by driving them away. With His fierce wind He has expelled them on the day of the east wind.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore through this Jacob’s wrongdoing will be forgiven; And this will be the full price of the pardoning of his sin: When he makes all the altar stones like pulverized chalk stones; When Asherim and incense altars will not stand.

<sup>10</sup>For the fortified city is isolated, A homestead deserted and abandoned like the desert; There the calf will graze, And there it will lie down and feed on its branches.

<sup>11</sup>When its limbs are dry, they are broken off; Women come and make a fire with them, For they are not a people of discernment, Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them. And their Creator will not be gracious to them.

<sup>12</sup>On that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates River to the brook of Egypt, and you will be gathered up one by one, you sons of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>It will come about also on that day that a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were perishing in the land of Assyria and who were scattered in the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28

Ephraim’s Captivity Predicted

<sup>2</sup>Behold, the Lord has a strong and mighty agent; As a storm of hail, a tempest of destruction, Like a storm of mighty overflowing waters, He has thrown it down to the earth with His hand.

<sup>4</sup>And the fading flower of its glorious beauty, Which is at the head of the fertile valley, Will be like the first-ripe fig prior to the summer, Which one sees, And as soon as it is in his hand, He swallows it.

<sup>8</sup>For all the tables are full of filthy vomit, without a single clean place.

<sup>9</sup>“To whom would He teach knowledge, And to whom would He interpret the message? Those just weaned from milk? Those just taken from the breast?

<sup>10</sup>“For He says, ‘Order on order, order on order, Line on line, line on line, A little here, a little there.’ ”

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, He will speak to this people Through stammering lips and a foreign tongue, <sup>12</sup>He who said to them, “This is the place of quiet, give rest to the weary,” And, “This is the resting place,” but they would not listen.

<sup>13</sup>So the word of the LORD to them will be, “Order on order, order on order, Line on line, line on line, A little here, a little there,” That they may go and stumble backward, be broken, snared, and taken captive.

Judah Is Warned

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers, Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem,

<sup>15</sup>Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death, And with Sheol we have made a pact. The gushing flood will not reach us when it passes by, Because we have made falsehood our refuge and we have concealed ourselves with deception.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a tested stone, A precious cornerstone for the foundation, firmly placed. The one who believes in it will not be disturbed.

<sup>17</sup>“I will make justice the measuring line And righteousness the level; Then hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, And the waters will overflow the secret place.

<sup>18</sup>“Your covenant with death will be canceled, And your pact with Sheol will not stand; When the gushing flood passes through, Then you will become its trampling ground.

<sup>19</sup>“As often as it passes through, it will seize you; For morning after morning it will pass through, anytime during the day or night, And it will be sheer terror to understand what it means.”

<sup>20</sup>The bed is too short on which to stretch out, And the blanket is too small to wrap oneself in.

<sup>21</sup>For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim, He will be stirred up as in the Valley of Gibeon, To do His task, His unusual task, And to work His work, His extraordinary work.

<sup>22</sup>And now do not carry on as scoffers, Or your shackles will be made stronger; For I have heard from the Lord GOD of armies Of decisive destruction on all the earth.

<sup>29</sup>This also comes from the LORD of armies, Who has made His counsel wonderful and His wisdom great.

Isaiah 29

Jerusalem Is Warned

<sup>2</sup>I will bring distress to Ariel, And she will be a city of grieving and mourning; And she will be like an Ariel to me.

<sup>3</sup>I will camp against you encircling you, And I will set up siegeworks against you, And I will raise up battle towers against you.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will be brought low; From the earth you will speak, And from the dust where you are prostrate Your words will come. Your voice will also be like that of a spirit from the ground, And your speech will whisper from the dust.

<sup>5</sup>But the multitude of your enemies will become like fine dust, And the multitude of the ruthless ones like the chaff which blows away; And it will happen instantly, suddenly.

<sup>6</sup>From the LORD of armies you will be punished with thunder and earthquake and loud noise, With whirlwind and tempest and the flame of a consuming fire.

<sup>7</sup>And the multitude of all the nations who wage war against Ariel, Even all who wage war against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, Will be like a dream, a vision of the night.

<sup>8</sup>It will be as when a hungry person dreams— And behold, he is eating; But when he awakens, his hunger is not satisfied, Or as when a thirsty person dreams— And behold, he is drinking, But when he awakens, behold, he is faint And his thirst is not quenched. So will the multitude of all the nations be Who wage war against Mount Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Be delayed and horrified, Blind yourselves and be blind; They become drunk, but not with wine, They stagger, but not with intoxicating drink.

<sup>10</sup>For the LORD has poured over you a spirit of deep sleep, He has shut your eyes—the prophets; And He has covered your heads—the seers.

<sup>11</sup>The entire vision will be to you like the words of a sealed book, which, when they give it to the one who is literate, saying, “Please read this,” he will say, “I cannot, because it is sealed.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the book will be given to the one who is illiterate, saying, “Please read this.” And he will say, “I cannot read.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said, “Because this people approaches Me with their words And honors Me with their lips, But their heart is far away from Me, And their reverence for Me consists of the commandment of men that is taught;

<sup>14</sup>Therefore behold, I will once again deal marvelously with this people, wondrously marvelous; And the wisdom of their wise men will perish, And the understanding of their men who have understanding will be concealed.”

<sup>15</sup>Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from the LORD, And whose deeds are done in a dark place, And they say, “Who sees us?” or “Who knows us?”

<sup>16</sup>You turn things around! Shall the potter be considered as equal with the clay, That what is made would say to its maker, “He did not make me”; Or what is formed say to him who formed it, “He has no understanding”?

Blessing after Discipline

<sup>17</sup>Is it not yet just a little while Before Lebanon will be turned into a fertile field, And the fertile field will be considered as a forest?

<sup>18</sup>On that day those who are deaf will hear words of a book, And out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of those who are blind will see.

<sup>19</sup>The afflicted also will increase their joy in the LORD, And the needy of mankind will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>For the ruthless will come to an end and the scorner will be finished, Indeed all who are intent on doing evil will be eliminated,

<sup>22</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: “Jacob will not be ashamed now, nor will his face turn pale now;

<sup>23</sup>But when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst, They will sanctify My name; Indeed, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, And will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>“Those who err in mind will know the truth, And those who criticize will accept instruction.

Isaiah 30

Judah Warned against Egyptian Alliance

<sup>1</sup>“Woe to the rebellious children,” declares the LORD, “Who execute a plan, but not Mine, And make an alliance, but not of My Spirit, In order to add sin to sin;

<sup>2</sup>Who proceed down to Egypt Without consulting Me, To take refuge in the safety of Pharaoh, And to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt!

<sup>3</sup>“Therefore the safety of Pharaoh will be your shame, And the shelter in the shadow of Egypt, your humiliation.

<sup>5</sup>“Everyone will be ashamed because of a people who do not benefit them, Who are not a help or benefit, but a source of shame and also disgrace.”

<sup>7</sup>Even Egypt, whose help is vain and empty. Therefore, I have called her “Rahab who has been exterminated.”

<sup>8</sup>Now go, write it on a tablet in their presence And inscribe it on a scroll, That it may serve in the time to come As a witness forever.

<sup>9</sup>For this is a rebellious people, false sons, Sons who refuse to listen To the instruction of the LORD;

<sup>10</sup>Who say to the seers, “You must not see visions”; And to the prophets, “You must not prophesy the truth to us. Speak to us pleasant words, Prophecy illusions.

<sup>11</sup>“Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, Stop speaking before us about the Holy One of Israel!”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says: “Since you have rejected this word And have put your trust in oppression and crookedness, and have relied on them,

<sup>13</sup>Therefore this wrongdoing will be to you Like a breach about to fall, A bulge in a high wall, Whose collapse comes suddenly in an instant,

<sup>14</sup>Whose collapse is like the smashing of a potter’s jar, So ruthlessly shattered That a shard will not be found among its pieces To take fire from a hearth Or to scoop water from a cistern.”

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said: “In repentance and rest you will be saved, In quietness and trust is your strength.” But you were not willing,

<sup>16</sup>And you said, “No, for we will flee on horses!” Therefore you shall flee! “And we will ride on swift horses!” Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift.

<sup>17</sup>One thousand will flee at the threat of one man; You will flee at the threat of five, Until you are left like a signal post on a mountain top, And like a flag on a hill.

God Is Gracious and Just

<sup>18</sup>Therefore the LORD longs to be gracious to you, And therefore He waits on high to have compassion on you. For the LORD is a God of justice; How blessed are all those who long for Him.

<sup>19</sup>For, you people in Zion, inhabitant in Jerusalem, you will weep no longer. He will certainly be gracious to you at the sound of your cry; when He hears it, He will answer you.

<sup>20</sup>Although the Lord has given you bread of deprivation and water of oppression, He, your Teacher, will no longer hide Himself, but your eyes will see your Teacher.

<sup>21</sup>Your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, “This is the way, walk in it,” whenever you turn to the right or to the left.

<sup>22</sup>And you will desecrate your carved images plated with silver, and your cast metal images plated with gold. You will scatter them as a filthy thing, and say to them, “Be gone!”

<sup>23</sup>Then He will give you rain for your seed which you will sow in the ground, and bread from the yield of the ground, and it will be rich and plentiful; on that day your livestock will graze in a wide pasture.

<sup>24</sup>Also the oxen and the donkeys that work the ground will eat seasoned feed, which has been winnowed with shovel and pitchfork.

<sup>25</sup>And on every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be streams running with water on the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

<sup>26</sup>And the light of the full moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, on the day the LORD binds up the fracture of His people and heals the wound He has inflicted.

<sup>28</sup>His breath is like an overflowing river, Which reaches to the neck, To shake the nations back and forth in a sieve, And to put in the jaws of the peoples the bridle which leads astray.

<sup>29</sup>You will have songs as in the night when you keep the festival, And gladness of heart as when one marches to the sound of the flute, To go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>For at the voice of the LORD Assyria will be terrified, When He strikes with the rod.

<sup>32</sup>And every blow of the rod of punishment, Which the LORD will lay on him, Will be with the music of tambourines and lyres; And in battles, brandishing weapons, He will fight them.

<sup>33</sup>For Topheth has long been ready, Indeed, it has been prepared for the king. He has made it deep and large, A pyre of fire with plenty of wood; The breath of the LORD, like a torrent of brimstone, sets it afire.

Isaiah 31

Help Not in Egypt but in God

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help And rely on horses, And trust in chariots because they are many And in horsemen because they are very strong, But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek the LORD!

<sup>2</sup>Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster, And does not retract His words, But will arise against the house of evildoers, And against the help of the workers of injustice.

<sup>3</sup>Now the Egyptians are human and not God, And their horses are flesh and not spirit; So the LORD will stretch out His hand, And any helper will stumble, And one who is helped will fall. And all of them will come to an end together.

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD says to me: “As the lion or the young lion growls over his prey, Against which a band of shepherds is called out, And he will not be terrified at their voice nor disturbed at their noise, So will the LORD of armies come down to wage war on Mount Zion and on its hill.”

<sup>5</sup>Like flying birds so the LORD of armies will protect Jerusalem. He will protect and save it; He will pass over and rescue it.

<sup>6</sup>Return to Him against whom you have been profoundly obstinate, you sons of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>For on that day every person will reject his silver idols and his gold idols, which your hands have made for you as a sin.

<sup>8</sup>And the Assyrian will fall by a sword not wielded by a man, And a sword not of man will devour him. So he will not escape the sword, And his young men will become forced laborers.

<sup>9</sup>“His rock will pass away because of panic, And his officers will be terrified by the flag,” Declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

The Glorious Future

<sup>2</sup>Each will be like a refuge from the wind And a shelter from the storm, Like streams of water in a dry country, Like the shade of a huge rock in an exhausted land.

<sup>3</sup>Then the eyes of those who see will not be blinded, And the ears of those who hear will listen.

<sup>4</sup>The mind of the rash will discern the truth, And the tongue of the stammerers will hurry to speak clearly.

<sup>6</sup>For a fool speaks nonsense, And his heart inclines toward wickedness: To practice ungodliness and to speak error against the LORD, To keep the hungry person unsatisfied And to withhold drink from the thirsty.

<sup>9</sup>Rise up, you women who are at ease, And hear my voice; Listen to my word, You complacent daughters.

<sup>10</sup>Within a year and a few days You will be troubled, you complacent daughters; For the vintage is ended, And the fruit gathering will not come.

<sup>11</sup>Tremble, you women who are at ease; Be troubled, you complacent daughters; Strip, undress, and put sackcloth on your waist,

<sup>13</sup>For the land of my people in which thorns and briars will come up; Indeed, for all the joyful houses and for the jubilant city.

<sup>15</sup>Until the Spirit is poured out upon us from on high, And the wilderness becomes a fertile field, And the fertile field is considered as a forest.

<sup>16</sup>Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, And righteousness will remain in the fertile field.

<sup>17</sup>And the work of righteousness will be peace, And the service of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

<sup>18</sup>Then my people will live in a peaceful settlement, In secure dwellings, and in undisturbed resting places;

<sup>19</sup>And it will hail when the forest comes down, And the city will be utterly laid low.

<sup>20</sup>How blessed will you be, you who sow beside all waters, Who let the ox and the donkey out freely.

Isaiah 33

The Judgment of God

<sup>1</sup>Woe to you, destroyer, While you were not destroyed; And he who is treacherous, while others did not deal treacherously with him. As soon as you finish destroying, you will be destroyed; As soon as you cease to deal treacherously, others will deal treacherously with you.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

<sup>8</sup>The highways are desolate, the traveler has ceased, He has broken the covenant, he has despised the cities, He has no regard for mankind.

<sup>9</sup>The land mourns and wastes away, Lebanon is shamed and withers; Sharon is like a desert plain, And Bashan and Carmel lose their foliage.

<sup>10</sup>“Now I will arise,” says the LORD, “Now I will be exalted, now I will be lifted up.

<sup>11</sup>“You have conceived chaff, you will give birth to stubble; My breath will consume you like a fire.

<sup>12</sup>“The peoples will be burned to lime, Like cut thorns which are burned in the fire.

<sup>13</sup>“You who are far away, hear what I have done; And you who are near, acknowledge My might.”

<sup>14</sup>Sinners in Zion are terrified; Trembling has seized the godless. “Who among us can live with the consuming fire? Who among us can live with everlasting burning?”

<sup>15</sup>One who walks righteously and speaks with integrity, One who rejects unjust gain And shakes his hands so that they hold no bribe; One who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed And shuts his eyes from looking at evil;

<sup>16</sup>He will dwell on the heights, His refuge will be the impregnable rock; His bread will be given him, His water will be sure.

<sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the King in His beauty; They will see a distant land.

<sup>18</sup>Your heart will meditate on terror: “Where is one who counts? Where is one who weighs? Where is one who counts the towers?”

<sup>19</sup>You will no longer see a fierce people, A people of unintelligible speech which no one comprehends, Of a stammering tongue which no one understands.

<sup>20</sup>Look at Zion, the city of our appointed feasts; Your eyes will see Jerusalem, an undisturbed settlement, A tent which will not be folded; Its stakes will never be pulled up, Nor any of its ropes be torn apart.

<sup>21</sup>But there the majestic One, the LORD, will be for us A place of rivers and wide canals On which no boat with oars will go, And on which no mighty ship will pass—

<sup>22</sup>For the LORD is our judge, The LORD is our lawgiver, The LORD is our king; He will save us—

<sup>23</sup>Your ship’s tackle hangs slack; It cannot hold the base of its mast firmly, Nor spread out the sail. Then the prey of an abundant spoil will be divided; Those who limp will take the plunder.

<sup>24</sup>And no resident will say, “I am sick”; The people who live there will be forgiven their wrongdoing.

Isaiah 34

God's Wrath against Nations

<sup>1</sup>Come near, you nations, to hear; and listen, you peoples! Let the earth and all it contains hear, and the world and all that springs from it.

<sup>2</sup>For the LORD's anger is against all the nations, And His wrath against all their armies. He has utterly destroyed them, He has turned them over to slaughter.

<sup>3</sup>So their slain will be thrown out, And their corpses will give off their stench, And the mountains will be drenched with their blood.

<sup>4</sup>And all the heavenly lights will wear away, And the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; All its lights will also wither away As a leaf withers from the vine, Or as one withers from the fig tree.

<sup>5</sup>For My sword has drunk its fill in heaven; Behold it shall descend for judgment upon Edom, And upon the people whom I have designated for destruction.

<sup>7</sup>Wild oxen will also fall with them And young bulls with strong ones; So their land will be soaked with blood, And their dust become greasy with fat.

<sup>8</sup>For the LORD has a day of vengeance, A year of retribution for the cause of Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Its streams will be turned into pitch, And its loose earth into brimstone, And its land will become burning pitch.

<sup>10</sup>It will not be extinguished night or day; Its smoke will go up forever. From generation to generation it will be desolate; None will pass through it forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>But pelican and hedgehog will possess it, And owl and raven will dwell in it; And He will stretch over it the line of desolation And the plumb line of emptiness.

<sup>12</sup>Its nobles—there is no one there Whom they may proclaim king— And all its officials will be nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Thorns will come up in its fortified towers, Weeds and thistles in its fortified cities; It will also be a haunt of jackals And a habitat of ostriches.

<sup>14</sup>The desert creatures will meet with the wolves, The goat also will cry to its kind. Yes, the night-bird will settle there And will find herself a resting place.

<sup>15</sup>The tree snake will make its nest and lay eggs there, And it will hatch and gather them under its protection. Yes, the hawks will be gathered there, Every one with its kind.

<sup>16</sup>Seek from the book of the LORD, and read: Not one of these will be missing; None will lack its mate. For His mouth has commanded, And His Spirit has gathered them.

<sup>17</sup>He has cast the lot for them, And His hand has divided it to them by the measuring line. They shall possess it forever; From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

Isaiah 35

Zion's Happy Future

<sup>1</sup>The wilderness and the desert will rejoice, And the desert will shout for joy and blossom; Like the crocus

<sup>2</sup>It will blossom profusely And rejoice with joy and jubilation. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, The majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They will see the glory of the LORD, The majesty of our God.

<sup>4</sup>Say to those with anxious heart, “Take courage, fear not. Behold, your God will come with vengeance; The retribution of God will come, But He will save you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the eyes of those who are blind will be opened, And the ears of those who are deaf will be unstopped.

<sup>6</sup>Then those who limp will leap like a deer, And the tongue of those who cannot speak will shout for joy. For waters will burst forth in the wilderness, And streams in the desert.

<sup>7</sup>The scorched land will become a pool And the thirsty ground springs of water; In the haunt of jackals, its resting place, Grass becomes reeds and rushes.

<sup>8</sup>A highway will be there, a roadway, And it will be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean will not travel on it, But it will be for the one who walks that way, And fools will not wander on it.

<sup>9</sup>No lion will be there, Nor will any vicious animal go up on it; They will not be found there. But the redeemed will walk there,

<sup>10</sup>And the redeemed of the LORD will return And come to Zion with joyful shouting, And everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, And sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Isaiah 36

Sennacherib Invades Judah

<sup>3</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the secretary, went out to him.

<sup>4</sup>And Rabshakeh said to them, “Say now to Hezekiah, ‘This is what the great king, the king of Assyria says: “What is this confidence that you have?

<sup>5</sup>I say, ‘Your plan and strength for the war are only empty words.’ Now on whom have you relied, that you have revolted against me?

<sup>6</sup>Behold, you have relied on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

<sup>7</sup>But if you say to me, ‘We trust in the LORD our God,’ is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before this altar’?

<sup>8</sup>Now then, come make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

<sup>9</sup>How then can you drive back even one official of the least of my master’s servants and rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

<sup>10</sup>And have I now come up without the LORD’s approval against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, ‘Go up against this land and destroy it.’ ” ”

<sup>11</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Judean so that the people who are on the wall hear you.”

<sup>12</sup>But Rabshakeh said, “Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?”

<sup>14</sup>This is what the king says: ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to save you;

<sup>15</sup>and do not let Hezekiah lead you to rely on the LORD, saying, “The LORD will certainly save us. This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria!”

<sup>17</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

<sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they saved Samaria from my hand?

<sup>20</sup>Who among all the gods of these lands have saved their land from my hand, that the LORD would save Jerusalem from my hand?’ ”

<sup>21</sup>But they were silent and did not answer him so much as a word; for the king’s command was, “Do not answer him.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the secretary, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of Rabshakeh.

Isaiah 37

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah’s Help

<sup>1</sup>Now when King Hezekiah heard the report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and entered the house of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the household, with Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup>And they said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says: ‘This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and humiliation; for children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.

<sup>4</sup>Perhaps the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to taunt the living God, and will avenge the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the remnant that is left.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>And Isaiah said to them, “This is what you shall say to your master: ‘This is what the LORD says: “Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, I am going to put a spirit in him so that he will hear news and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.” ’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

<sup>9</sup>Now he heard them say regarding Tirhakah king of Cush, “He has come out to fight against you,” and when he heard it he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“This is what you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah: ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying, “Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.”

<sup>11</sup>Behold, you yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be saved?

<sup>12</sup>Did the gods of the nations which my fathers destroyed save them: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar?

<sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and of Hena and Ivvah?’ ”

Hezekiah’s Prayer in the Temple

<sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“LORD of armies, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim, You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made heaven and earth.

<sup>17</sup>Incline Your ear, LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, LORD, and see; and listen to all the words of Sennacherib, who sent them to taunt the living God.

<sup>18</sup>Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries and their lands, <sup>19</sup>and have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but only the work of human hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them.

<sup>20</sup>But now LORD, our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, LORD, are God.”

God Answers through Isaiah

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup>this is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: “She has shown contempt for you and derided you, The virgin daughter of Zion; The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head behind you!

<sup>23</sup>“Whom have you taunted and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice And haughtily raised your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup>“Through your servants you have taunted the Lord, And you have said, ‘With my many chariots I came up to the heights of the mountains, To the remotest parts of Lebanon; And I cut down its tall cedars and its choice junipers. And I will come to its highest peak, its thickest forest.

<sup>25</sup>‘I dug wells and drank waters, And with the sole of my feet I dried up All the canals of Egypt.’

<sup>26</sup>“Have you not heard? Long ago I did it, From ancient times I planned it. Now I have brought it about That you would turn fortified cities into ruined heaps.

<sup>27</sup>“Therefore their inhabitants were powerless, They were shattered and put to shame; They were like the vegetation of the field and the green grass, Like grass on the housetops that is scorched before it has grown.

<sup>28</sup>“But I know your sitting down, Your going out, your coming in, And your raging against Me.

<sup>29</sup>“Because of your raging against Me And because your complacency has come up to My ears, I will put My hook in your nose And My bridle in your lips, And I will turn you back by the way that you came.

<sup>30</sup>“Then this shall be the sign for you: you will eat this year what grows of itself, in the second year what grows from the same, and in the third year sow, harvest, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

<sup>32</sup>For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go, and out of Mount Zion survivors. The zeal of the LORD of armies will perform this.”’

<sup>33</sup>“Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: ‘He will not come to this city nor shoot an arrow there; and he will not come before it with a shield, nor heap up an assault ramp against it.

<sup>34</sup>By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he will not come to this city,’ declares the LORD.

<sup>35</sup>‘For I will protect this city to save it for My own sake, and for My servant David’s sake.’ ”

Assyrians Destroyed

<sup>36</sup>Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when the rest got up early in the morning, behold, all of the 185,000 were dead.

<sup>37</sup>So Sennacherib the king of Assyria departed and returned home and lived in Nineveh.

<sup>38</sup>Then it came about, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword; and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon became king in his place.

Isaiah 38

Hezekiah Healed

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Set your house in order, for you are going to die and not live.’ ”

<sup>3</sup>and said, “Please, LORD, just remember how I have walked before You wholeheartedly and in truth, and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept profusely.

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Go and say to Hezekiah, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your father David says: “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will add fifteen years to your life.

<sup>6</sup>And I will save you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will protect this city.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>“And this shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will perform this word that He has spoken:

<sup>8</sup>Behold, I will make the shadow on the stairway, which has gone down with the sun on the stairway of Ahaz, go back ten steps.” So the sun’s shadow went back ten steps on the stairway on which it had gone down.

<sup>10</sup>I said, “In the middle of my life I am to enter the gates of Sheol; I have been deprived of the rest of my years.”

<sup>11</sup>I said, “I will not see the LORD, The LORD in the land of the living; I will no longer look on mankind among the inhabitants of the world.

<sup>12</sup>“Like a shepherd’s tent my dwelling is pulled up and removed from me; As a weaver I rolled up my life. He cuts me off from the loom; From day until night You make an end of me.

<sup>13</sup>“I composed my soul until morning. Like a lion—so He breaks all my bones, From day until night You make an end of me.

<sup>14</sup>“Like a swallow, like a crane, so I twitter; I moan like a dove; My eyes look wistfully to the heights; Lord, I am oppressed, be my security.

<sup>15</sup>“What shall I say? For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it; I will walk quietly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>16</sup>“Lord, by these things people live, And in all these is the life of my spirit; Restore me to health and let me live!

<sup>17</sup>“Behold, for my own welfare I had great bitterness; But You have kept my soul from the pit of nothingness, For You have hurled all my sins behind Your back.

<sup>18</sup>“For Sheol cannot thank You, Death cannot praise You; Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.

<sup>19</sup>“It is the living who give thanks to You, as I do today; A father tells his sons about Your faithfulness.

<sup>20</sup>“The LORD is certain to save me; So we will play my songs on stringed instruments All the days of our life at the house of the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup>Now Isaiah had said, “Have them take a cake of figs and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Hezekiah had said, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?”

Isaiah 39

Hezekiah Shows His Treasures

<sup>1</sup>At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was pleased, and let them see all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the balsam oil, the excellent olive oil, his entire armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house nor in all his realm that Hezekiah did not let them see.

<sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They came to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

<sup>4</sup>Then he said, “What have they seen in your house?” So Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasuries that I have not let them see.”

<sup>5</sup>Isaiah then said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of armies, <sup>6</sup>‘Behold, the days are coming when everything that is in your house, and what your fathers have stored up to this day, will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>‘And some of your sons who will come from you, whom you will father, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “For there will be peace and truth in my days.”

Isaiah 40

The Greatness of God

<sup>2</sup>“Speak kindly to Jerusalem; And call out to her, that her warfare has ended, That her guilt has been removed, That she has received of the LORD’S hand Double for all her sins.”

<sup>4</sup>“Let every valley be lifted up, And every mountain and hill be made low; And let the uneven ground become a plain, And the rugged terrain a broad valley;

<sup>5</sup> Then the glory of the LORD will be revealed, And all flesh will see it together; For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

<sup>6</sup>A voice says, “Call out.” Then he answered, “What shall I call out?” All flesh is grass, and all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.

<sup>7</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades, When the breath of the LORD blows upon it; The people are indeed grass!

<sup>8</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades, But the word of our God stands forever.

<sup>10</sup>Behold, the Lord GOD will come with might, With His arm ruling for Him. Behold, His compensation is with Him, And His reward before Him.

<sup>11</sup>Like a shepherd He will tend His flock, In His arm He will gather the lambs And carry them in the fold of His robe; He will gently lead the nursing ewes.

<sup>12</sup>Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, And measured the heavens with a span, And calculated the dust of the earth with a measure, And weighed the mountains in a balance And the hills in a pair of scales?

<sup>13</sup>Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, Or as His counselor has informed Him?

<sup>14</sup>With whom did He consult and who gave Him understanding? And who taught Him in the path of justice and taught Him knowledge, And informed Him of the way of understanding?

<sup>18</sup>To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare with Him?

<sup>20</sup>He who is too impoverished for such an offering Selects a tree that does not rot; He seeks out for himself a skillful craftsman To prepare an idol that will not totter.

<sup>21</sup>Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been declared to you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

<sup>23</sup> It is He who reduces rulers to nothing, Who makes the judges of the earth meaningless.

<sup>24</sup> Scarcely have they been planted, Scarcely have they been sown, Scarcely has their stock taken root in the earth, But He merely blows on them, and they wither, And the storm carries them away like stubble.

<sup>25</sup> “To whom then will you compare Me That I would be his equal?” says the Holy One.

<sup>26</sup> Raise your eyes on high And see who has created these stars, The One who brings out their multitude by number, He calls them all by name; Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of His power, Not one of them is missing.

<sup>27</sup> Why do you say, Jacob, and you assert, Israel, “My way is hidden from the LORD, And the justice due me escapes the notice of my God”?

<sup>28</sup> Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth Does not become weary or tired. His understanding is unsearchable.

<sup>29</sup> He gives strength to the weary, And to the one who lacks might He increases power.

<sup>30</sup> Though youths grow weary and tired, And vigorous young men stumble badly, <sup>31</sup> Yet those who wait for the LORD Will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary.

Isaiah 41

Israel Encouraged

<sup>1</sup> “Listen to Me in silence, you coastlands, And let the peoples gain new strength; Let them come forward, then let them speak; Let’s come together for judgment.

<sup>3</sup>“He pursues them, passing on in safety, By a way he had not been traversing with his feet.

<sup>4</sup>“Who has performed and accomplished it, Summoning the generations from the beginning? ‘I, the LORD, am the first, and with the last. I am He.’”

<sup>5</sup>The coastlands have seen and are afraid; The ends of the earth tremble; They have approached and have come.

<sup>7</sup>So the craftsman encourages the smelter, And he who smooths metal with the hammer encourages him who beats the anvil, Saying of the soldering, “It is good”; And he fastens it with nails, So that it will not totter.

<sup>8</sup>“But you, Israel, My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, Descendant of Abraham My friend, <sup>9</sup>You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth And called from its remotest parts, And said to you, ‘You are My servant, I have chosen you and have not rejected you.

<sup>10</sup>‘Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not be afraid, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will also help you, I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.’

<sup>11</sup>“Behold, all those who are angered at you will be shamed and dishonored; Those who contend with you will be as nothing and will perish.

<sup>12</sup>“You will seek those who quarrel with you, but will not find them, Those who war with you will be as nothing and non-existent.

<sup>13</sup>“For I am the LORD your God who takes hold of your right hand, Who says to you, ‘Do not fear, I will help you.’

<sup>14</sup>“Do not fear, you worm Jacob, you people of Israel; I will help you,” declares the LORD, “and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>“Behold, I turned you into a new, sharp threshing sledge with double edges; You will thresh the mountains and pulverize them, And make the hills like chaff.

<sup>16</sup>“You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, And the storm will scatter them; But you will rejoice in the LORD, You will boast in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>“The poor and needy are seeking water, but there is none, And their tongues are parched with thirst. I, the LORD, will answer them Myself; As the God of Israel I will not abandon them.

<sup>18</sup>“I will open rivers on the bare heights, And springs in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, And the dry land fountains of water.

<sup>19</sup>“I will put the cedar in the wilderness, The acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree; I will place the juniper in the desert, Together with the elm tree and the cypress, <sup>20</sup>So that they may see and recognize, And consider and gain insight as well, That the hand of the LORD has done this, And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

<sup>21</sup>“Present your case,” the LORD says. “Bring forward your evidence,” The King of Jacob says.

<sup>22</sup>Let them bring them forward and declare to us what is going to take place; As for the former events, declare what they were, So that we may consider them and know their outcome. Or announce to us what is coming;

<sup>23</sup>Declare the things that are going to come afterward, So that we may know that you are gods; Indeed, do good or evil, that we may be afraid and fear together.

<sup>24</sup>Behold, you are less than nothing, And your work is less than nothing! He who chooses you is an abomination.

<sup>25</sup>“I have put one from the north into motion, and he has come; From the rising of the sun he will call on My name; And he will come upon rulers as upon mortar, As the potter treads on clay.”

<sup>26</sup>Who has declared this from the beginning, that we might know? Or from former times, that we may say, “He is right!”? There was no one at all who declared, There was no one at all who proclaimed, There was no one at all who heard your words.

<sup>27</sup>“Previously I said to Zion, ‘Behold, here they are.’ And to Jerusalem, ‘I will give a messenger of good news.’

<sup>28</sup>“But when I look, there is no one, And there is no counselor among them Who, if I ask, can give an answer.

<sup>29</sup>“Behold, all of them are false; Their works are nothing, Their cast metal images are wind and emptiness.

Isaiah 42

God’s Promise concerning His Servant

<sup>3</sup>“A bent reed He will not break off And a dimly burning wick He will not extinguish; He will faithfully bring forth justice.

<sup>4</sup>“He will not be disheartened or crushed Until He has established justice on the earth; And the coastlands will wait expectantly for His law.”

<sup>5</sup>This is what God the LORD says, Who created the heavens and stretched them out, Who spread out the earth and its offspring, Who gives breath to the people on it And spirit to those who walk in it:

<sup>6</sup>“I am the LORD, I have called You in righteousness, I will also hold You by the hand and watch over You, And I will appoint You as a covenant to the people, As a light to the nations, <sup>7</sup>To open blind eyes, To bring out prisoners from the dungeon And those who dwell in darkness from the prison.

<sup>8</sup>“I am the LORD, that is My name; I will not give My glory to another, Nor My praise to idols.

<sup>9</sup>“Behold, the former things have come to pass, Now I declare new things; Before they sprout I proclaim them to you.”

<sup>10</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song, Sing His praise from the end of the earth! You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it; You islands, and those who live on them.

<sup>12</sup>Let them give glory to the LORD And declare His praise in the coastlands.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD will go out like a warrior, He will stir His zeal like a man of war. He will shout, indeed, He will raise a war cry. He will prevail against His enemies.

The Blindness of the People

<sup>14</sup>“I have kept silent for a long time, I have kept still and restrained Myself. Now like a woman in labor I will groan, I will both gasp and pant.

<sup>15</sup>“I will lay waste the mountains and hills And wither all their vegetation; I will turn the rivers into coastlands And dry up the ponds.

<sup>16</sup>“I will lead those who are blind by a way they have not known, In paths they have not known I will guide them. I will turn darkness into light before them And uneven land into plains. These are the things I will do, And I will not leave them undone.”

<sup>17</sup>They will be turned back and be utterly put to shame, Who trust in idols, Who say to cast metal images, “You are our gods.”

<sup>18</sup>Hear, you who are deaf! And look, you who are blind, so that you may see.

<sup>19</sup>Who is blind but My servant, Or so deaf as My messenger whom I send? Who is so blind as one who is at peace with Me, Or so blind as the servant of the LORD?

<sup>20</sup>You have seen many things, but you do not retain them; Your ears are open, but no one hears.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD was pleased for His righteousness’ sake To make the Law great and glorious.

<sup>23</sup>Who among you will listen to this? Who will pay attention and listen in the time to come?

<sup>24</sup>Who gave Jacob up for spoils, and Israel to plunderers? Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned, And in whose ways they were not willing to walk, And whose Law they did not obey?

<sup>25</sup>So He poured out on him the heat of His anger And the fierceness of battle; And it set him aflame all around, Yet he did not recognize it; And it burned him, but he paid no attention.

Isaiah 43

Israel Redeemed

<sup>1</sup>But now, this is what the LORD says, He who is your Creator, Jacob, And He who formed you, Israel: “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name; you are Mine!

<sup>2</sup>“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, Nor will the flame burn you.

<sup>3</sup>“For I am the LORD your God, The Holy One of Israel, your Savior; I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

<sup>4</sup>“Since you are precious in My sight, Since you are honored and I love you, I will give other people in your place and other nations in exchange for your life.

<sup>5</sup>“Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, And gather you from the west.

<sup>6</sup>“I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’ And to the south, ‘Do not hold them back.’ Bring My sons from afar And My daughters from the ends of the earth, <sup>7</sup>Everyone who is called by My name, And whom I have created for My glory, Whom I have formed, even whom I have made.”

Israel Is God’s Witness

<sup>8</sup>Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, And those who are deaf, even though they have ears.

<sup>9</sup>All the nations have gathered together So that the peoples may be assembled. Who among them can declare this And proclaim to us the former things? Let them present their witnesses so that they may be justified, Or let them hear and say, “It is true.”

<sup>10</sup>“You are My witnesses,” declares the LORD, “And My servant whom I have chosen, So that you may know and believe Me And understand that I am He. Before Me there was no God formed, And there will be none after Me.

11“I, only I, am the LORD, And there is no savior besides Me.

12“It is I who have declared and saved and proclaimed, And there was no strange god among you; So you are My witnesses,” declares the LORD, “And I am God.

13“Even from eternity I am He, And there is no one who can rescue from My hand; I act, and who can reverse it?”

Babylon to Be Destroyed

14This is what the LORD your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: “For your sake I have sent to Babylon, And will bring them all down as fugitives, Even the Chaldeans, into the ships over which they rejoice.

15“I am the LORD, your Holy One, The Creator of Israel, your King.”

16This is what the LORD says, He who makes a way through the sea And a path through the mighty waters,

17Who brings out the chariot and the horse, The army and the mighty man (They will lie down together and not rise again; They have been extinguished, and have gone out like a wick):

18“Do not call to mind the former things, Or consider things of the past.

19“Behold, I am going to do something new, Now it will spring up; Will you not be aware of it? I will even make a roadway in the wilderness, Rivers in the desert.

20“The animals of the field will glorify Me, The jackals and the ostriches, Because I have given waters in the wilderness And rivers in the desert, To give drink to My chosen people.

21“The people whom I formed for Myself Will declare My praise.

The Shortcomings of Israel

22“Yet you have not called on Me, Jacob; But you have become weary of Me, Israel.

<sup>23</sup>“You have not brought to Me the sheep of your burnt offerings, Nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, Nor wearied you with incense.

<sup>24</sup>“You have not bought Me sweet cane with money, Nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices; Rather, you have burdened Me with your sins, You have wearied Me with your wrongdoings.

<sup>25</sup>“I, I alone, am the one who wipes out your wrongdoings for My own sake, And I will not remember your sins.

<sup>26</sup>“Meet Me in court, let’s argue our case together; State your cause, so that you may be proved right.

<sup>28</sup>“So I will profane the officials of the sanctuary, And I will turn Jacob over to destruction and Israel to abuse.

Isaiah 44

The Blessings of Israel

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says, He who made you And formed you from the womb, who will help you: ‘Do not fear, Jacob My servant, And Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

<sup>3</sup>‘For I will pour water on the thirsty land And streams on the dry ground; I will pour out My Spirit on your offspring, And My blessing on your descendants;

<sup>4</sup>And they will spring up among the grass Like poplars by streams of water.’

<sup>5</sup>“This one will say, ‘I am the LORD’S’; And that one will call on the name of Jacob; And another will write on his hand, ‘Belonging to the LORD,’ And will give himself Israel’s name with honor.

<sup>6</sup>“This is what the LORD says, He who is the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of armies: ‘I am the first and I am the last, And there is no God besides Me.

<sup>7</sup>‘Who is like Me? Let him proclaim and declare it; And, let him confront Me Beginning with My establishing of the ancient nation. Then let them declare to them the things that are coming And the events that are going to take place.

<sup>8</sup>‘Do not tremble and do not be afraid; Have I not long since announced it to you and declared it? And you are My witnesses. Is there any God besides Me, Or is there any other Rock? I know of none.’ ”

The Foolishness of Idolatry

<sup>9</sup>Those who fashion an idol are all futile, and their treasured things are of no benefit; even their own witnesses fail to see or know, so that they will be put to shame.

<sup>10</sup>Who has fashioned a god or cast an idol to no benefit?

<sup>12</sup>The craftsman of iron shapes a cutting tool and does his work over the coals, fashioning it with hammers and working it with his strong arm. He also gets hungry and his strength fails; he drinks no water and becomes weary.

<sup>13</sup>The craftsman of wood extends a measuring line; he outlines it with a marker. He works it with carving knives and outlines it with a compass, and makes it like the form of a man, like the beauty of mankind, so that it may sit in a house.

<sup>14</sup>He will cut cedars for himself, and he takes a holm-oak or another oak and lets it grow strong for himself among the trees of the forest. He plants a laurel tree, and the rain makes it grow.

<sup>15</sup>Then it becomes something for a person to burn, so he takes one of them and gets warm; he also makes a fire and bakes bread. He also makes a god and worships it; he makes it a carved image and bows down before it.

<sup>16</sup>Half of it he burns in the fire; over this half he eats meat, he roasts a roast, and is satisfied. He also warms himself and says, “Aha! I am warm, I have seen the fire.”

<sup>17</sup>Yet the rest of it he makes into a god, his carved image. He bows down before it and worships; he also prays to it and says, “Save me, for you are my god.”

<sup>18</sup>They do not know, nor do they understand, for He has smeared over their eyes so that they cannot see, and their hearts so that they cannot comprehend.

<sup>19</sup>No one remembers, nor is there knowledge or understanding to say, “I have burned half of it in the fire and also have baked bread over its coals. I roast meat and eat it. Then I make the rest of it into an abomination, I bow down before a block of wood!”

<sup>20</sup>He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has misled him. And he cannot save himself, nor say, “Is there not a lie in my right hand?”

God Forgives and Redeems

<sup>21</sup>“Remember these things, Jacob, And Israel, for you are My servant; I have formed you, you are My servant, Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me.

<sup>22</sup>“I have wiped out your wrongdoings like a thick cloud And your sins like a heavy mist. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.”

<sup>23</sup>Shout for joy, you heavens, for the LORD has done it! Shout joyfully, you lower parts of the earth; Break into a shout of jubilation, you mountains, Forest, and every tree in it; For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, And in Israel He shows His glory.

<sup>24</sup>This is what the LORD says, He who is your Redeemer, and the One who formed you from the womb: “I, the LORD, am the Maker of all things, Stretching out the heavens by Myself And spreading out the earth alone,

<sup>25</sup>Causing the omens of diviners to fail, Making fools of fortune-tellers; Causing wise men to turn back And making their knowledge ridiculous,

<sup>26</sup>Confirming the word of His servant And carrying out the purpose of His messengers. It is I who says of Jerusalem, ‘She shall be inhabited!’ And of the cities of Judah, ‘They shall be built.’ And I will raise her ruins again.

<sup>27</sup>“I am the One who says to the depth of the sea, ‘Dry up!’ And I will make your rivers dry up.

<sup>28</sup>“It is I who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd, And he will carry out all My desire.’ And he says of Jerusalem, ‘She will be built,’ And of the temple, ‘Your foundation will be laid.’ ”

Isaiah 45

God Uses Cyrus

<sup>2</sup>“I will go before you and make the rough places smooth; I will shatter the doors of bronze and cut through their iron bars.

<sup>3</sup>“I will give you the treasures of darkness And hidden wealth of secret places, So that you may know that it is I, The LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name.

<sup>4</sup>“For the sake of Jacob My servant, And Israel My chosen one, I have also called you by your name; I have given you a title of honor Though you have not known Me.

<sup>5</sup>“I am the LORD, and there is no one else; There is no God except Me. I will arm you, though you have not known Me,

<sup>6</sup>So that people may know from the rising to the setting of the sun That there is no one besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no one else, <sup>7</sup>The One forming light and creating darkness, Causing well-being and creating disaster; I am the LORD who does all these things.

God's Supreme Power

<sup>8</sup>“Drip down, heavens, from above, And let the clouds pour down righteousness; Let the earth open up and salvation bear fruit, And righteousness sprout with it. I, the LORD, have created it.

<sup>9</sup>“Woe to the one who quarrels with his Maker— A piece of pottery among the other earthenware pottery pieces! Will the clay say to the potter, ‘What are you doing?’ Or the thing you are making say, ‘He has no hands’?

<sup>10</sup>“Woe to him who says to a father, ‘What are you fathering?’ Or to a woman, ‘To what are you giving birth?’ ”

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says, the Holy One of Israel and his Maker: “Ask Me about the things to come concerning My sons, And you shall commit to Me the work of My hands.

<sup>12</sup>“It is I who made the earth, and created mankind upon it. I stretched out the heavens with My hands, And I ordained all their lights.

<sup>13</sup>“I have stirred him in righteousness, And I will make all his ways smooth. He will build My city and let My exiles go free, Without any payment or reward,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>14</sup>This is what the LORD says: “The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush And the Sabeans, men of stature, Will come over to you and will be yours; They will walk behind you, they will come over in chains And will bow down to you; They will plead with you: ‘God certainly is with you, and there is no one else, No other God.’ ”

- <sup>15</sup> Truly, You are a God who hides Himself, God of Israel, Savior!
- <sup>16</sup> They will be put to shame and even humiliated, all of them; The manufacturers of idols will go away together in humiliation.
- <sup>17</sup> Israel has been saved by the LORD With an everlasting salvation; You will not be put to shame or humiliated To all eternity.
- <sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says, He who created the heavens (He is the God who formed the earth and made it, He established it and did not create it as a waste place, but formed it to be inhabited): “I am the LORD, and there is no one else.
- <sup>19</sup> “I have not spoken in secret, In some dark land; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, ‘Seek Me in a wasteland’; I, the LORD, speak righteousness, Declaring things that are right.
- <sup>20</sup> “Gather yourselves and come; Come together, you survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge, Who carry around their wooden idol And pray to a god who cannot save.
- <sup>21</sup> “Declare and present your case; Indeed, let them consult together. Who has announced this long ago? Who has long since declared it? Is it not I, the LORD? And there is no other God besides Me, A righteous God and a Savior; There is none except Me.
- <sup>22</sup> “Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; For I am God, and there is no other.
- <sup>23</sup> “I have sworn by Myself; The word has gone out from My mouth in righteousness And will not turn back, That to Me every knee will bow, every tongue will swear allegiance.
- <sup>24</sup> “They will say of Me, ‘Only in the LORD are righteousness and strength.’ People will come to Him, And all who were angry at Him will be put to shame.
- <sup>25</sup> “In the LORD all the offspring of Israel Will be justified and will boast.”

Isaiah 46

Babylon's Idols and the True God

<sup>1</sup>Bel has bowed down, Nebo stoops over; Their idols have become loads for the animals and the cattle. The things that you carry are burdensome, A load for the weary animal.

<sup>2</sup>They stooped over, they have bowed down together; They could not rescue the burden, But have themselves gone into captivity.

<sup>3</sup>“Listen to Me, house of Jacob, And all the remnant of the house of Israel, You who have been carried by Me from birth And have been carried from the womb;

<sup>4</sup>Even to your old age I will be the same, And even to your graying years I will carry you! I have done it, and I will bear you; And I will carry you and I will save you.

<sup>5</sup>“To whom would you liken Me And make Me equal, and compare Me, That we would be alike?

<sup>6</sup>“Those who lavish gold from the bag And weigh silver on the scale, Hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god; They bow down, indeed they worship it.

<sup>7</sup>“They lift it on the shoulder, carry it, And set it in its place, and it stands there. It does not move from its place. Though one may shout to it, it cannot answer; It cannot save him from his distress.

<sup>8</sup>“Remember this, and be assured; Recall it to mind, you wrongdoers.

<sup>9</sup>“Remember the former things long past, For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like Me,

<sup>10</sup>Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things which have not been done, Saying, ‘My plan will be established, And I will accomplish all My good pleasure’;

<sup>11</sup>Calling a bird of prey from the east, The man of My purpose from a distant country. Truly I have spoken; truly I will bring it to pass. I have planned it, I will certainly do it.

<sup>13</sup>“I bring near My righteousness, it is not far off; And My salvation will not delay. And I will grant salvation in Zion, And My glory for Israel.

Isaiah 47

Mourning for Babylon

<sup>3</sup>“Your nakedness will be uncovered, Your shame will also be exposed; I will take vengeance and will not spare anyone.”

<sup>5</sup>“Sit silently, and go into darkness, Daughter of the Chaldeans; For you will no longer be called The queen of kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup>“I was angry with My people, I profaned My heritage And handed them over to you. You did not show mercy to them, On the aged you made your yoke very heavy.

<sup>7</sup>“Yet you said, ‘I will be a queen forever.’ These things you did not consider Nor remember the outcome of them.

<sup>8</sup>“Now, then, hear this, you luxuriant one, Who lives securely, Who says in her heart, ‘I am, and there is no one besides me. I will not sit as a widow, Nor know the loss of children.’

<sup>9</sup>“But these two things will come on you suddenly in one day: Loss of children and widowhood. They will come on you in full measure In spite of your many sorceries, In spite of the great power of your spells.

<sup>10</sup>“You felt secure in your wickedness and said, ‘No one sees me,’ Your wisdom and your knowledge, they have led you astray; For you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no one besides me.’

<sup>11</sup>“But evil will come on you Which you will not know how to charm away; And disaster will fall on you For which you cannot atone; And destruction about which you do not know Will come on you suddenly.

<sup>12</sup>“Persist now in your spells And in your many sorceries With which you have labored from your youth; Perhaps you will be able to benefit, Perhaps you may cause trembling.

<sup>13</sup>“You are wearied with your many counsels; Let now the astrologers, Those who prophesy by the stars, Those who predict by the new moons, Stand up and save you from what will come upon you.

<sup>14</sup>“Behold, they have become like stubble, Fire burns them; They cannot save themselves from the power of the flame; There will be no coal to warm by Nor a fire to sit before!

<sup>15</sup>“So have those become to you with whom you have labored, Those who have done business with you from your youth; Each has wandered in his own way; There is no one to save you.

Isaiah 48

Israel's Obstinacy

<sup>1</sup>“Hear this, house of Jacob, who are named Israel And who came from the waters of Judah, Who swear by the name of the LORD And invoke the God of Israel, But not in truth nor in righteousness.

<sup>2</sup>“For they name themselves after the holy city, And lean on the God of Israel; The LORD of armies is His name.

<sup>3</sup>“I declared the former things long ago, And they went out of My mouth, and I proclaimed them. Suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.

<sup>4</sup>“Because I know that you are obstinate, And your neck is an iron tendon And your forehead bronze,

<sup>5</sup>Therefore I declared them to you long ago, Before they took place I proclaimed them to you, So that you would not say, ‘My idol has done them, And my carved image and my cast metal image have commanded them.’

<sup>6</sup>“You have heard; look at all this. And you, will you not declare it? I proclaim to you new things from this time, Hidden things which you have not known.

<sup>7</sup>“They are created now and not long ago; And before today you have not heard them, So that you will not say, ‘Behold, I knew them.’

<sup>8</sup>“You have not heard, you have not known. Even from long ago your ear has not been open, Because I knew that you would deal very treacherously; And you have been called a rebel from birth.

<sup>9</sup>“For the sake of My name I delay My wrath, And for My praise I restrain it for you, In order not to cut you off.

<sup>10</sup>“Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup>“For My own sake, for My own sake, I will act; For how can My name be profaned? And I will not give My glory to another.

Rescue Promised

<sup>12</sup>“Listen to Me, Jacob, Israel whom I called; I am He, I am the first, I am also the last.

<sup>13</sup>“Assuredly My hand founded the earth, And My right hand spread out the heavens; When I call to them, they stand together.

<sup>14</sup>“Assemble, all of you, and listen! Who among them has declared these things? The LORD loves him; he will carry out His good pleasure against Babylon, And His arm will be against the Chaldeans.

<sup>15</sup>“I, yes I, have spoken; indeed I have called him, I have brought him, and He will make his ways successful.

<sup>16</sup>“Come near to Me, listen to this: From the beginning I have not spoken in secret, From the time it took place, I was there. And now the Lord GOD has sent Me, and His Spirit.”

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD says, He who is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to benefit, Who leads you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup>“If only you had paid attention to My commandments! Then your well-being would have been like a river, And your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

<sup>21</sup>They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts. He made the water flow out of the rock for them; He split the rock and the water gushed out.

<sup>22</sup>“There is no peace for the wicked,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 49

Salvation Reaches to the Ends of the Earth

<sup>1</sup>Listen to Me, you islands, And pay attention, you peoples from afar. The LORD called Me from the womb; From the body of My mother He named Me.

<sup>2</sup>He has made My mouth like a sharp sword, In the shadow of His hand He has concealed Me; And He has also made Me a sharpened arrow, He has hidden Me in His quiver.

<sup>3</sup>He said to Me, “You are My Servant, Israel, In whom I will show My glory.”

<sup>4</sup>But I said, “I have labored in vain, I have spent My strength for nothing and futility; Nevertheless, the justice due to Me is with the LORD, And My reward is with My God.”

<sup>5</sup>And now says the LORD, who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, To bring Jacob back to Him, so that Israel might be gathered to Him (For I am honored in the sight of the LORD, And My God is My strength),

<sup>6</sup>He says, “It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant To raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the protected ones of Israel; I will also make You a light of the nations So that My salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

<sup>7</sup>This is what the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and its Holy One, Says to the despised One, To the One abhorred by the nation, To the Servant of rulers: “Kings will see and arise, Princes will also bow down, Because of the LORD who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel who has chosen You.”

<sup>8</sup>This is what the LORD says: “At a favorable time I answered You, And on a day of salvation I helped You; And I will watch over You and make You a covenant of the people, To restore the land, to give as inheritances the deserted hereditary lands;

<sup>9</sup>Saying to those who are bound, ‘Go free,’ To those who are in darkness, ‘Show yourselves.’ They will feed along the roads, And their pasture will be on all bare heights.

<sup>10</sup>“They will not hunger or thirst, Nor will the scorching heat or sun strike them down; For He who has compassion on them will lead them, And He will guide them to springs of water.

<sup>11</sup>“I will make all My mountains a road, And My highways will be raised up.

<sup>12</sup>“Behold, these will come from afar; And behold, these will come from the north and from the west, And these from the land of Aswan.”

<sup>13</sup>Shout for joy, you heavens! And rejoice, you earth! Break forth into joyful shouting, mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people And will have compassion on His afflicted.

Promise to Zion

<sup>14</sup>But Zion said, “The LORD has abandoned me, And the Lord has forgotten me.”

<sup>15</sup>“Can a woman forget her nursing child And have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, but I will not forget you.

<sup>16</sup>“Behold, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me.

<sup>18</sup>“Raise your eyes and look around; All of them gather together, they come to you. As I live,” declares the LORD, “You will certainly put them all on as jewelry and bind them on as a bride.

<sup>19</sup>“For your ruins and deserted places and your destroyed land— Now you will certainly be too cramped for the inhabitants, And those who swallowed you will be far away.

<sup>20</sup>“The children you lost will yet say in your ears, ‘The place is too cramped for me; Make room for me that I may live here.’

<sup>21</sup>“Then you will say in your heart, ‘Who has fathered these for me, Since I have been bereaved of my children And cannot conceive, and I am an exile, and a wanderer? And who has raised these? Behold, I was left alone; Where are these from?’ ”

<sup>22</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations And set up My flag to the peoples; And they will bring your sons in their arms, And your daughters will be carried on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup>“Kings will be your guardians, And their princesses your nurses. They will bow down to you with their faces to the ground And lick the dust from your feet; And you will know that I am the LORD; Those who hopefully wait for Me will not be put to shame.

<sup>25</sup>Indeed, this is what the LORD says: “Even the captives of the mighty man will be taken away, And the prey of a tyrant will be rescued; For I will contend with the one who contends with you, And I will save your sons.

<sup>26</sup>“I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh, And they will become drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine; And humanity will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 50

God Helps His Servant

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Where is the certificate of divorce By which I have sent your mother away? Or to whom of My creditors did I sell you? Behold, you were sold for your wrongdoings, And for your wrongful acts your mother was sent away.

<sup>2</sup>“Why was there no one when I came? When I called, why was there no one to answer? Is My hand so short that it cannot redeem? Or do I have no power to rescue? Behold, I dry up the sea with My rebuke, I turn rivers into a wilderness; Their fish stink for lack of water, And die of thirst.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of disciples, So that I may know how to sustain the weary one with a word. He awakens Me morning by morning, He awakens My ear to listen as a disciple.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord GOD has opened My ear, And I was not disobedient, Nor did I turn back.

<sup>6</sup>I gave My back to those who strike Me, And My cheeks to those who pull out My beard; I did not hide My face from insults and spitting.

<sup>7</sup>For the Lord GOD helps Me, Therefore, I am not disgraced; Therefore, I have made My face like flint, And I know that I will not be ashamed.

<sup>8</sup>He who vindicates Me is near; Who will contend with Me? Let us stand up to each other. Who has a case against Me? Let him approach Me.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, the Lord GOD helps Me; Who is he who condemns Me? Behold, they will all wear out like a garment; A moth will eat them.

<sup>10</sup>Who is among you who fears the LORD, Who obeys the voice of His servant, Who walks in darkness and has no light? Let him trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.

<sup>11</sup>Behold, all you who kindle a fire, Who encircle yourselves with flaming arrows, Walk in the light of your fire And among the flaming arrows you have set ablaze. This you will have from My hand: You will lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51

Israel Exhorted

<sup>1</sup>“Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness, Who seek the LORD: Look to the rock from which you were cut, And to the quarry from which you were dug.

<sup>2</sup>“Look to Abraham your father And to Sarah who gave birth to you in pain; When he was only one I called him, Then I blessed him and multiplied him.”

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, the LORD will comfort Zion; He will comfort all her ruins. And He will make her wilderness like Eden, And her desert like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness will be found in her, Thanksgiving and the sound of a melody.

<sup>4</sup>“Pay attention to Me, My people, And listen to Me, My nation; For a law will go out from Me, And I will bring My justice as a light of the peoples.

<sup>5</sup>“My righteousness is near, My salvation has gone forth, And My arms will judge the peoples; The coastlands will wait for Me, And they will wait expectantly for My arm.

<sup>6</sup>“Raise your eyes to the sky, Then look to the earth beneath; For the sky will vanish like smoke, And the earth will wear out like a garment And its inhabitants will die in the same way. But My salvation will be forever, And My righteousness will not fail.

<sup>7</sup>“Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, A people in whose heart is My Law; Do not fear the taunting of people, Nor be terrified of their abuses.

<sup>8</sup>“For the moth will eat them like a garment; Yes, the moth will eat them like wool. But My righteousness will be forever, And My salvation to all generations.”

<sup>9</sup>Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; Awake as in the days of old, the generations of long ago. Was it not You who cut Rahab in pieces, Who pierced the dragon?

<sup>10</sup>Was it not You who dried up the sea, The waters of the great deep; Who made the depths of the sea a pathway For the redeemed to cross over?

<sup>11</sup>And the redeemed of the LORD will return And come to Zion with joyful shouting, And everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, And sorrow and sighing will flee away.

<sup>12</sup>“I, I Myself, am He who comforts you. Who are you that you are afraid of mortal man, And of a son of man who is made like grass, <sup>13</sup>That you have forgotten the LORD your Maker, Who stretched out the heavens And laid the foundations of the earth, That you fear continually all day long because of the fury of the oppressor, As he makes ready to destroy? And where is the rage of the oppressor?

<sup>14</sup>The exile will soon be set free, and will not die in the dungeon, nor will his bread be lacking.

<sup>15</sup>For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar (the LORD of armies is His name).

<sup>16</sup>And I have put My words in your mouth and have covered you with the shadow of My hand, to establish the heavens, to found the earth, and to say to Zion, ‘You are My people.’”

<sup>17</sup>Pull yourself up! Pull yourself up! Arise, Jerusalem! You who have drunk from the LORD’s hand the cup of His anger; The chalice of staggering you have drunk to the dregs.

<sup>18</sup>There is no one to guide her among all the sons to whom she has given birth, Nor is there anyone to take her by the hand among all the sons she has raised.

<sup>19</sup>These two things have happened to you; Who will mourn for you? The devastation and destruction, famine and sword; How shall I comfort you?

<sup>22</sup>This is what your Lord, the LORD, your God Who contends for His people says: “Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering, The chalice of My anger; You will never drink it again.

<sup>23</sup>“I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, Who have said to you, ‘Lie down so that we may walk over you.’ You have also made your back like the ground, And like the street for those who walk over it.”

Isaiah 52

Cheer for Prostrate Zion

<sup>3</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: “My people went down to Egypt first to reside there; then the Assyrian oppressed them without reason.

<sup>5</sup>And now, what do I have here,” declares the LORD, “seeing that My people have been taken away without reason?” Again the LORD declares, “Those who rule over them howl, and My name is continually reviled all day long.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, My people shall know My name; therefore on that day I am the one who is speaking, ‘Here I am.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Be cheerful, shout joyfully together, You ruins of Jerusalem; For the LORD has comforted His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has bared His holy arm In the sight of all the nations, So that all the ends of the earth may see The salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup>Depart, depart, go out from there, Do not touch what is unclean; Go out of the midst of her, purify yourselves, You who carry the vessels of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>But you will not go out in a hurry, Nor will you go as fugitives; For the LORD will go before you, And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Exalted Servant

<sup>13</sup>Behold, My Servant will prosper, He will be high and lifted up and greatly exalted.

<sup>14</sup>Just as many were appalled at you, My people, So His appearance was marred beyond that of a man, And His form beyond the sons of mankind.

<sup>15</sup>So He will sprinkle many nations, Kings will shut their mouths on account of Him; For what they had not been told, they will see, And what they had not heard, they will understand.

Isaiah 53

The Suffering Servant

<sup>1</sup>Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

<sup>2</sup>For He grew up before Him like a tender shoot, And like a root out of dry ground; He has no stately form or majesty That we would look at Him, Nor an appearance that we would take pleasure in Him.

<sup>3</sup>He was despised and abandoned by men, A man of great pain and familiar with sickness; And like one from whom people hide their faces, He was despised, and we had no regard for Him.

<sup>4</sup>However, it was our sicknesses that He Himself bore, And our pains that He carried; Yet we ourselves assumed that He had been afflicted, Struck down by God, and humiliated.

<sup>5</sup>But He was pierced for our offenses, He was crushed for our wrongdoings; The punishment for our well-being was laid upon Him, And by His wounds we are healed.

<sup>6</sup>All of us, like sheep, have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way; But the LORD has caused the wrongdoing of us all To fall on Him.

<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed and afflicted, Yet He did not open His mouth; Like a lamb that is led to slaughter, And like a sheep that is silent before its shearers, So He did not open His mouth.

<sup>8</sup>By oppression and judgment He was taken away; And as for His generation, who considered That He was cut off from the land of the living For the wrongdoing of my people, to whom the blow was due?

<sup>9</sup>And His grave was assigned with wicked men, Yet He was with a rich man in His death, Because He had done no violence, Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD desired To crush Him, causing Him grief; If He renders Himself as a guilt offering, He will see His offspring, He will prolong His days, And the good pleasure of the LORD will prosper in His hand.

<sup>11</sup>As a result of the anguish of His soul, He will see it and be satisfied; By His knowledge the Righteous One, My Servant, will justify the many, For He will bear their wrongdoings.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, And He will divide the plunder with the strong, Because He poured out His life unto death, And was counted with wrongdoers; Yet He Himself bore the sin of many, And interceded for the wrongdoers.

Isaiah 54

The Fertility of Zion

<sup>1</sup>“Shout for joy, infertile one, you who have not given birth to any child; Break forth into joyful shouting and cry aloud, you who have not been in labor; For the sons of the desolate one will be more numerous Than the sons of the married woman,” says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“For you will spread out to the right and to the left. And your descendants will possess nations And will resettle the desolate cities.

<sup>4</sup>“Fear not, for you will not be put to shame; And do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disgraced; But you will forget the shame of your youth, And no longer remember the disgrace of your widowhood.

<sup>5</sup>“For your husband is your Maker, Whose name is the LORD of armies; And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel, Who is called the God of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>“For the LORD has called you, Like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, Even like a wife of one’s youth when she is rejected,” Says your God.

<sup>7</sup>“For a brief moment I abandoned you, But with great compassion I will gather you.

<sup>8</sup>“In an outburst of anger I hid My face from you for a moment, But with everlasting favor I will have compassion on you,” Says the LORD your Redeemer.

<sup>9</sup>“For this is like the days of Noah to Me, When I swore that the waters of Noah Would not flood the earth again; So I have sworn that I will not be angry with you Nor rebuke you.

<sup>10</sup>“For the mountains may be removed and the hills may shake, But My favor will not be removed from you, Nor will My covenant of peace be shaken,” Says the LORD who has compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup>“Afflicted one, storm-tossed, and not comforted, Behold, I will set your stones in antimony, And I will lay your foundations with sapphires.

<sup>12</sup>“Moreover, I will make your battlements of rubies, And your gates of crystal, And your entire wall of precious stones.

<sup>13</sup>“All your sons will be taught by the LORD; And the well-being of your sons will be great.

<sup>14</sup>“In righteousness you will be established; You will be far from oppression, for you will not fear; And from terror, for it will not come near you.

<sup>15</sup>“If anyone fiercely attacks you, it will not be from Me. Whoever attacks you will fall because of you.

<sup>16</sup>“Behold, I Myself have created the smith who blows on the fire of coals And produces a weapon for its work; And I have created the destroyer to inflict ruin.

<sup>17</sup>“No weapon that is formed against you will succeed; And you will condemn every tongue that accuses you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, And their vindication is from Me,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 55

The Free Offer of Mercy

<sup>1</sup>“You there! Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; And you who have no money come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk Without money and without cost.

<sup>2</sup>“Why do you spend money for what is not bread, And your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, And delight yourself in abundance.

<sup>3</sup>“Incline your ear and come to Me. Listen, that you may live; And I will make an everlasting covenant with you, According to the faithful mercies shown to David.

<sup>4</sup>“Behold, I have made him a witness to the peoples, A leader and commander for the peoples.

<sup>5</sup>“Behold, you will call a nation you do not know, And a nation which does not know you will run to you, Because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel; For He has glorified you.”

<sup>6</sup>Seek the LORD while He may be found; Call upon Him while He is near.

<sup>7</sup>Let the wicked abandon his way, And the unrighteous person his thoughts; And let him return to the LORD, And He will have compassion on him, And to our God, For He will abundantly pardon.

<sup>8</sup>“For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways,” declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“For as the heavens are higher than the earth, So are My ways higher than your ways And My thoughts than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup>“For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, And do not return there without watering the earth And making it produce and sprout, And providing seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

<sup>11</sup>So will My word be which goes out of My mouth; It will not return to Me empty, Without accomplishing what I desire, And without succeeding in the purpose for which I sent it.

<sup>12</sup>“For you will go out with joy And be led in peace; The mountains and the hills will break into shouts of joy before you, And all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup>“Instead of the thorn bush, the juniper will come up, And instead of the stinging nettle, the myrtle will come up; And it will be a memorial to the LORD, An everlasting sign which will not be eliminated.”

Isaiah 56

Rewards for Obedience to God

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Guard justice and do righteousness, For My salvation is about to come And My righteousness to be revealed.

<sup>2</sup>“Blessed is a man who does this, And a son of man who takes hold of it; Who keeps from profaning the Sabbath, And keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

<sup>3</sup>Let not the foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD say, “The LORD will certainly separate me from His people.” Nor let the eunuch say, “Behold, I am a dry tree.”

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, And choose what pleases Me, And hold firmly to My covenant,

<sup>5</sup>To them I will give in My house and within My walls a memorial, And a name better than that of sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name which will not be eliminated.

<sup>6</sup>“Also the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, To attend to His service and to love the name of the LORD, To be His servants, every one who keeps the Sabbath so as not to profane it, And holds firmly to My covenant;

<sup>7</sup>Even those I will bring to My holy mountain, And make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on My altar; For My house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

<sup>10</sup>His watchmen are blind, All of them know nothing. All of them are mute dogs unable to bark, Dreamers lying down, who love to slumber;

<sup>11</sup>And the dogs are greedy, they are never satisfied. And they are shepherds who have no understanding; They have all turned to their own way, Each one to his unjust gain, without exception.

<sup>12</sup>“Come,” they say, “let’s get wine, and let’s drink heavily of intoxicating drink; And tomorrow will be like today, only more so.”

Isaiah 57

Evil Leaders Rebuked

<sup>5</sup>Who inflame yourselves among the oaks, Under every luxuriant tree, Who slaughter the children in the ravines, Under the clefts of the rocks?

<sup>6</sup>“Among the smooth stones of the ravine Is your portion, they are your lot; Even to them you have poured out a drink offering, You have made a grain offering. Should I relent of these things?

<sup>7</sup>“On a high and lofty mountain You have made your bed. You also went up there to offer sacrifice.

<sup>8</sup>“Behind the door and the doorpost You have set up your sign; Indeed, far removed from Me, you have uncovered yourself, And have gone up and made your bed wide. And you have made an agreement for yourself with them, You have loved their bed, You have looked at their manhood.

<sup>9</sup>“You have journeyed to the king with oil And increased your perfumes; You have sent your messengers a great distance And made them go down to Sheol.

<sup>10</sup>“You were tired out by the length of your road, Yet you did not say, ‘It is hopeless!’ You found renewed strength, Therefore you did not faint.

<sup>11</sup>“Of whom were you worried and fearful When you lied, and did not remember Me Nor give Me a thought? Was I not silent, even for a long time, So you do not fear Me?

<sup>12</sup>“I will declare your righteousness and your deeds, And they will not benefit you.

<sup>13</sup>“When you cry out, let your collection of idols save you. But the wind will carry them all up, And a breath will take them away. But the one who takes refuge in Me will inherit the land And possess My holy mountain.”

<sup>14</sup>And it will be said, “Build up, build up, prepare the way, Remove every obstacle from the way of My people.”

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the high and exalted One Who lives forever, whose name is Holy, says: “I dwell in a high and holy place, And also with the contrite and lowly of spirit In order to revive the spirit of the lowly And to revive the heart of the contrite.

<sup>16</sup>“For I will not contend forever, Nor will I always be angry; For the spirit would grow faint before Me, And the breath of those whom I have made.

<sup>17</sup>“Because of the wrongful act of his unjust gain I was angry and struck him; I hid My face and was angry, And he went on turning away, in the way of his heart.

<sup>18</sup>“I have seen his ways, but I will heal him; I will lead him and restore comfort to him and to his mourners, <sup>19</sup>Creating the praise of the lips. Peace, peace to him who is far away and to him who is near,” Says the LORD, “and I will heal him.”

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked are like the tossing sea, For it cannot be quiet, And its waters toss up refuse and mud.

<sup>21</sup>“There is no peace,” says my God, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 58

Observances of Fasts

<sup>1</sup>“Cry loudly, do not hold back; Raise your voice like a trumpet, And declare to My people their wrongdoing, And to the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>2</sup>“Yet they seek Me day by day and delight to know My ways, As a nation that has done righteousness And has not forsaken the ordinance of their God. They ask Me for just decisions, They delight in the nearness of God.

<sup>3</sup>“Why have we fasted and You do not see? Why have we humbled ourselves and You do not notice?’ Behold, on the day of your fast you find your desire, And oppress all your workers.

<sup>4</sup>“Behold, you fast for contention and strife, and to strike with a wicked fist. You do not fast like you have done today to make your voice heard on high!

<sup>5</sup>“Is it a fast like this that I choose, a day for a person to humble himself? Is it for bowing one’s head like a reed And for spreading out sackcloth and ashes as a bed? Will you call this a fast, even an acceptable day to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup>“Is this not the fast that I choose: To release the bonds of wickedness, To undo the ropes of the yoke, And to let the oppressed go free, And break every yoke?

<sup>7</sup>“Is it not to break your bread with the hungry And bring the homeless poor into the house; When you see the naked, to cover him; And not to hide yourself from your own flesh?

<sup>8</sup>“Then your light will break out like the dawn, And your recovery will spring up quickly; And your righteousness will go before you; The glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

<sup>9</sup>“Then you will call, and the LORD will answer; You will cry for help, and He will say, ‘Here I am.’ If you remove the yoke from your midst, The pointing of the finger and speaking wickedness, <sup>10</sup>And if you offer yourself to the hungry And satisfy the need of the afflicted, Then your light will rise in darkness, And your gloom will become like midday.

<sup>11</sup>“And the LORD will continually guide you, And satisfy your desire in scorched places, And give strength to your bones; And you will be like a watered garden, And like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.

<sup>12</sup>“Those from among you will rebuild the ancient ruins; You will raise up the age-old foundations; And you will be called the repairer of the breach, The restorer of the streets in which to dwell.

Keeping the Sabbath

<sup>13</sup>“If, because of the Sabbath, you restrain your foot From doing as you wish on My holy day, And call the Sabbath a pleasure, and the holy day of the LORD honorable, And honor it, desisting from your own ways, From seeking your own pleasure And speaking your own word,

<sup>14</sup>Then you will take delight in the LORD, And I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; And I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 59

Separation from God

<sup>1</sup>Behold, the LORD’s hand is not so short That it cannot save; Nor is His ear so dull That it cannot hear.

<sup>2</sup>But your wrongdoings have caused a separation between you and your God, And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.

<sup>3</sup>For your hands are defiled with blood, And your fingers with wrongdoing; Your lips have spoken deceit, Your tongue mutters wickedness.

<sup>8</sup>They do not know the way of peace, And there is no justice in their tracks;
They have made their paths crooked, Whoever walks on them does not know peace.

A Confession of Wickedness

<sup>9</sup>Therefore justice is far from us, And righteousness does not reach us; We hope for light, but there is darkness, For brightness, but we walk in gloom.

<sup>10</sup>We grope for the wall like people who are blind, We grope like those who have no eyes. We stumble at midday as in the twilight; Among those who are healthy we are like the dead.

<sup>11</sup>All of us growl like bears, And moan sadly like doves; We hope for justice, but there is none; For salvation, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup>For our wrongful acts have multiplied before You, And our sins have testified against us; For our wrongful acts are with us, And we know our wrongdoings:

<sup>13</sup>Offending and denying the LORD, And turning away from our God, Speaking oppression and revolt, Conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart.

<sup>14</sup>Justice is turned back, And righteousness stands far away; For truth has stumbled in the street, And uprightness cannot enter.

<sup>15</sup>Truth is lacking, And one who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey.
Now the LORD saw, And it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice.

<sup>16</sup>And He saw that there was no one, And was amazed that there was not one to intercede; Then His own arm brought salvation to Him, And His righteousness upheld Him.

<sup>17</sup>He put on righteousness like a breastplate, And a helmet of salvation on His head; And He put on garments of vengeance for clothing And wrapped Himself with zeal as a cloak.

<sup>18</sup>According to their deeds, so will He repay: Wrath to His adversaries, retribution to His enemies; To the coastlands He will deal retribution.

<sup>19</sup>So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west And His glory from the rising of the sun, For He will come like a rushing stream Which the wind of the LORD drives.

<sup>20</sup>“A Redeemer will come to Zion, And to those in Jacob who turn from wrongdoing,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“As for Me, this is My covenant with them,” says the LORD: “My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your offspring, nor from the mouth of your offspring’s offspring,” says the LORD, “from now and forever.”

Isaiah 60

A Glorified Zion

<sup>1</sup>“Arise, shine; for your light has come, And the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

<sup>2</sup>“For behold, darkness will cover the earth And deep darkness the peoples; But the LORD will rise upon you And His glory will appear upon you.

<sup>3</sup>“Nations will come to your light, And kings to the brightness of your rising.

<sup>4</sup>“Raise your eyes all around and see; They all gather together, they come to you. Your sons will come from afar, And your daughters will be carried on the hip.

<sup>5</sup>“Then you will see and be radiant, And your heart will thrill and rejoice; Because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you, The wealth of the nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup>“A multitude of camels will cover you, The young camels of Midian and Ephah; All those from Sheba will come; They will bring gold and frankincense, And proclaim good news of the praises of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you, The rams of Nebaioth will serve you; They will go up on My altar with acceptance, And I will glorify My glorious house.

<sup>8</sup>“Who are these who fly like a cloud And like the doves to their windows?

<sup>9</sup>“Certainly the coastlands will wait for Me; And the ships of Tarshish will come first, To bring your sons from afar, Their silver and their gold with them, For the name of the LORD your God, And for the Holy One of Israel because He has glorified you.

<sup>10</sup>“Foreigners will build up your walls, And their kings will serve you; For in My wrath I struck you, And in My favor I have had compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup>“Your gates will be open continually; They will not be closed day or night, So that people may bring you the wealth of the nations, With their kings led in procession.

<sup>12</sup>“For the nation and the kingdom which will not serve you will perish, And the nations will be utterly ruined.

<sup>13</sup>“The glory of Lebanon will come to you, The juniper, the elm tree and the cedar together, To beautify the place of My sanctuary; And I will make the place of My feet glorious.

<sup>14</sup>“The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you, And all those who despised you will bow down at the soles of your feet; And they will call you the city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>“Whereas you have been forsaken and hated With no one passing through, I will make you an object of pride forever, A joy from generation to generation.

<sup>16</sup>“You will also suck the milk of nations, And suck the breast of kings; Then you will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup>17</sup>“Instead of bronze I will bring gold, And instead of iron I will bring silver, And instead of wood, bronze, And instead of stones, iron. And I will make peace your administrators, And righteousness your overseers.

<sup>18</sup>“Violence will not be heard again in your land, Nor devastation or destruction within your borders; But you will call your walls salvation, and your gates praise.

<sup>19</sup>“No longer will you have the sun for light by day, Nor will the moon give you light for brightness; But you will have the LORD as an everlasting light, And your God as your glory.

<sup>20</sup>“Your sun will no longer set, Nor will your moon wane; For you will have the LORD as an everlasting light, And the days of your mourning will be over.

<sup>21</sup>“Then all your people will be righteous; They will possess the land forever, The branch of My planting, The work of My hands, That I may be glorified.

<sup>22</sup>“The smallest one will become a thousand, And the least one a mighty nation. I, the LORD, will bring it about quickly in its time.”

Isaiah 61

Exaltation of the Afflicted

<sup>1</sup>The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, Because the LORD anointed me To bring good news to the humble; He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, To proclaim release to captives And freedom to prisoners;

<sup>2</sup>To proclaim the favorable year of the LORD And the day of vengeance of our God; To comfort all who mourn,

<sup>3</sup>To grant those who mourn in Zion, Giving them a garland instead of ashes, The oil of gladness instead of mourning, The cloak of praise instead of a disheartened spirit. So they will be called oaks of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.

<sup>4</sup>Then they will rebuild the ancient ruins, They will raise up the former devastations; And they will repair the ruined cities, The desolations of many generations.

<sup>5</sup>Strangers will stand and pasture your flocks, And foreigners will be your farmers and your vinedressers.

<sup>6</sup>But you will be called the priests of the LORD; You will be spoken of as ministers of our God. You will eat the wealth of nations, And you will boast in their riches.

<sup>7</sup>Instead of your shame you will have a double portion, And instead of humiliation they will shout for joy over their portion. Therefore they will possess a double portion in their land, Everlasting joy will be theirs.

<sup>8</sup>For I, the LORD, love justice, I hate robbery in the burnt offering; And I will faithfully give them their reward, And make an everlasting covenant with them.

<sup>9</sup>Then their offspring will be known among the nations, And their descendants in the midst of the peoples. All who see them will recognize them Because they are the offspring whom the LORD has blessed.

<sup>10</sup>I will rejoice greatly in the LORD, My soul will be joyful in my God; For He has clothed me with garments of salvation, He has wrapped me with a robe of righteousness, As a groom puts on a turban, And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup>For as the earth produces its sprouts, And as a garden causes the things sown in it to spring up, So the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise To spring up before all the nations.

Isaiah 62

Zion's Glory and New Name

<sup>1</sup>For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, And for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep quiet, Until her righteousness goes forth like brightness, And her salvation like a torch that is burning.

<sup>2</sup>The nations will see your righteousness, And all kings your glory; And you will be called by a new name Which the mouth of the LORD will designate.

<sup>3</sup>You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, And a royal headband in the hand of your God.

<sup>4</sup>It will no longer be said to you, "Forsaken," Nor to your land will it any longer be said, "Desolate"; But you will be called, "My delight is in her," And your land, "Married"; For the LORD delights in you, And to Him your land will be married.

<sup>5</sup>For as a young man marries a virgin, So your sons will marry you; And as the groom rejoices over the bride, So your God will rejoice over you.

<sup>6</sup>On your walls, Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen; All day and all night they will never keep silent. You who profess the LORD, take no rest for yourselves;

<sup>7</sup>And give Him no rest until He establishes And makes Jerusalem an object of praise on the earth.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm: "I will never again give your grain as food for your enemies, Nor will foreigners drink your new wine for which you have labored."

<sup>12</sup>And they will call them, “The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD”; And you will be called, “Sought Out, A City Not Abandoned.”

Isaiah 63

God’s Vengeance on the Nations

<sup>3</sup>“I have trodden the wine trough alone, And from the peoples there was no one with Me. I also trod them in My anger And trampled them in My wrath; And their lifeblood is sprinkled on My garments, And I stained all My clothes.

<sup>4</sup>“For the day of vengeance was in My heart, And My year of redemption has come.

<sup>5</sup>“I looked, but there was no one to help, And I was astonished and there was no one to uphold; So My own arm brought salvation to Me, And My wrath upheld Me.

<sup>6</sup>“I trampled down the peoples in My anger And made them drunk with My wrath, And I poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

God’s Ancient Mercies Recalled

<sup>7</sup>I will make mention of the mercies of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, According to all that the LORD has granted us, And the great goodness toward the house of Israel, Which He has granted them according to His compassion And according to the abundance of His mercies.

<sup>8</sup>For He said, “Certainly they are My people, Sons who will not deal falsely.” So He became their Savior.

<sup>9</sup>In all their distress He was distressed, And the angel of His presence saved them; In His love and in His mercy He redeemed them, And He lifted them and carried them all the days of old.

<sup>11</sup>Then His people remembered the days of old, of Moses. Where is He who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of His flock? Where is He who put His Holy Spirit in the midst of them,

<sup>13</sup>Who led them through the depths? Like the horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble;

<sup>14</sup>Like the cattle which go down into the valley, The Spirit of the LORD gave them rest. So You led Your people, To make for Yourself a glorious name.

You Are Our Father

<sup>15</sup>Look down from heaven and see from Your holy and glorious lofty habitation; Where are Your zeal and Your mighty deeds? The stirrings of Your heart and Your compassion are restrained toward me.

<sup>16</sup>For You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us And Israel does not recognize us. You, LORD, are our Father, Our Redeemer from ancient times is Your name.

<sup>17</sup>Why, LORD, do You cause us to stray from Your ways And harden our heart from fearing You? Return for the sake of Your servants, the tribes of Your heritage.

<sup>18</sup>Your holy people possessed Your sanctuary for a little while, Our adversaries have trampled it down.

<sup>19</sup>We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, Like those who were not called by Your name.

Isaiah 64

Prayer for Mercy and Help

<sup>1</sup> Oh, that You would tear open the heavens and come down, That the mountains would quake at Your presence—

<sup>2</sup> As fire kindles brushwood, as fire causes water to boil— To make Your name known to Your adversaries, That the nations may tremble at Your presence!

<sup>3</sup> When You did awesome things which we did not expect, You came down, the mountains quaked at Your presence.

<sup>4</sup> For from days of old they have not heard or perceived by ear, Nor has the eye seen a God besides You, Who acts in behalf of one who waits for Him.

<sup>5</sup> You meet him who rejoices in doing righteousness, Who remembers You in Your ways. Behold, You were angry, for we sinned, We continued in our sins for a long time; Yet shall we be saved?

<sup>6</sup> For all of us have become like one who is unclean, And all our righteous deeds are like a filthy garment; And all of us wither like a leaf, And our wrongdoings, like the wind, take us away.

<sup>7</sup> There is no one who calls on Your name, Who stirs himself to take hold of You; For You have hidden Your face from us And have surrendered us to the power of our wrongdoings.

<sup>8</sup> But now, LORD, You are our Father; We are the clay, and You our potter, And all of us are the work of Your hand.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be angry beyond measure, LORD, Nor remember wrongdoing forever. Behold, please look, all of us are Your people.

<sup>10</sup> Your holy cities have become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

<sup>11</sup>Our holy and beautiful house, Where our fathers praised You, Has been burned by fire; And all our precious things have become a ruin.

<sup>12</sup>Will You restrain Yourself at these things, LORD? Will You keep silent and afflict us beyond measure?

Isaiah 65

A Rebellious People

<sup>1</sup>“I permitted Myself to be sought by those who did not ask for Me; I permitted Myself to be found by those who did not seek Me. I said, ‘Here am I, here am I,’ To a nation which did not call on My name.

<sup>3</sup>A people who continually provoke Me to My face, Offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on bricks;

<sup>4</sup>Who sit among graves and spend the night in secret places; Who eat pig’s flesh, And the broth of unclean meat is in their pots.

<sup>5</sup>“Who say, ‘Keep to yourself, do not come near me, For I am holier than you!’ These are smoke in My nostrils, A fire that burns all the day.

<sup>6</sup>“Behold, it is written before Me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will even repay into their laps, <sup>7</sup>Both your own wrongdoings and the wrongdoings of your fathers together,” says the LORD. “Because they have burned incense on the mountains And scorned Me on the hills, Therefore I will measure their former work into their laps.”

<sup>8</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Just as the new wine is found in the cluster, And one says, ‘Do not destroy it, for there is benefit in it,’ So I will act in behalf of My servants In order not to destroy all of them.

<sup>9</sup>“I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, And an heir of My mountains from Judah; My chosen ones shall inherit it, And My servants will live there.

<sup>10</sup>“Sharon will be a pasture land for flocks, And the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, For My people who seek Me.

<sup>11</sup>“But as for you who abandon the LORD, Who forget My holy mountain, Who set a table for Fortune, And fill a jug of mixed wine for Destiny, <sup>12</sup>I will destine you for the sword, And all of you will bow down to the slaughter. Because I called, but you did not answer; I spoke, but you did not listen. Instead, you did evil in My sight And chose that in which I did not delight.”

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, My servants will eat, but you will be hungry. Behold, My servants will drink, but you will be thirsty. Behold, My servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

<sup>14</sup>“Behold, My servants will shout joyfully with a glad heart, But you will cry out from a painful heart, And you will wail from a broken spirit.

<sup>15</sup>“You will leave your name as a curse to My chosen ones, And the Lord GOD will put you to death. But My servants will be called by another name.

<sup>16</sup>“Because the one who is blessed on the earth Will be blessed by the God of truth; And the one who swears an oath on the earth Will swear by the God of truth; Because the former troubles are forgotten, And because they are hidden from My sight!

New Heavens and a New Earth

<sup>17</sup>“For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; And the former things will not be remembered or come to mind.

<sup>18</sup>“But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; For behold, I create Jerusalem for rejoicing And her people for gladness.

<sup>19</sup>“I will also rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in My people; And there will no longer be heard in her The voice of weeping and the sound of crying.

<sup>20</sup>“No longer will there be in it an infant who lives only a few days, Or an old person who does not live out his days; For the youth will die at the age of a hundred, And the one who does not reach the age of a hundred Will be thought accursed.

<sup>21</sup>“They will build houses and inhabit them; They will also plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup>“They will not build and another inhabit, They will not plant and another eat; For as the lifetime of a tree, so will be the days of My people, And My chosen ones will fully enjoy the work of their hands.

<sup>23</sup>“They will not labor in vain, Or give birth to children for disaster; For they are the descendants of those blessed by the LORD, And their descendants with them.

<sup>24</sup>It will also come to pass that before they call, I will answer; while they are still speaking, I will listen.

<sup>25</sup>The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox; and dust will be the serpent’s food. They will do no evil or harm on all My holy mountain,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 66

Heaven Is God’s Throne

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Heaven is My throne and the earth is the footstool for My feet. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest?

<sup>2</sup>“For My hand made all these things, So all these things came into being,” declares the LORD. “But I will look to this one, At one who is humble and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at My word.

Hypocrisy Rebuked

<sup>3</sup>“But the one who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a person; The one who sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog’s neck; One who offers a grain offering is like one who offers pig’s blood; One who burns incense is like one who blesses an idol. As they have chosen their own ways, And their souls delight in their abominations,

<sup>4</sup>So I will choose their punishments And bring on them what they dread. Because I called, but no one answered; I spoke, but they did not listen. Instead, they did evil in My sight And chose that in which I did not delight.”

<sup>5</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at His word: “Your brothers who hate you, who exclude you on account of My name, Have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified, so that we may see your joy.’ But they will be put to shame.

<sup>6</sup>“A sound of uproar from the city, a voice from the temple, The voice of the LORD who is dealing retribution to His enemies.

<sup>7</sup>“Before she was in labor, she delivered; Before her pain came, she gave birth to a boy.

<sup>8</sup>“Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Can a land be born in one day? Can a nation be given birth all at once? As soon as Zion was in labor, she also delivered her sons.

<sup>9</sup>“Shall I bring to the point of birth but not give delivery?” says the LORD. “Or shall I who gives delivery shut the womb?” says your God.

Joy in Jerusalem’s Future

<sup>10</sup>“Be joyful with Jerusalem and rejoice for her, all you who love her; Be exceedingly glad with her, all you who mourn over her,

<sup>11</sup>So that you may nurse and be satisfied with her comforting breasts, So that you may drink fully and be delighted with her bountiful breasts.”

<sup>12</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I extend peace to her like a river, And the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; And you will be nursed, you will be carried on the hip and rocked back and forth on the knees.

<sup>13</sup>“As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; And you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

<sup>14</sup>Then you will see this, and your heart will be glad, And your bones will flourish like the new grass; And the hand of the LORD will be made known to His servants, But He will be indignant toward His enemies.

<sup>15</sup>For behold, the LORD will come in fire, And His chariots like the whirlwind, To render His anger with fury, And His rebuke with flames of fire.

<sup>16</sup>For the LORD will execute judgment by fire And by His sword on humanity, And those put to death by the LORD will be many.

<sup>18</sup>“For I know their works and their thoughts; the time is coming to gather all the nations and tongues. And they shall come and see My glory.

<sup>19</sup>And I will put a sign among them and send survivors from them to the nations: Tarshish, Put, Lud, Meshech, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have neither heard of My fame nor seen My glory. And they will declare My glory among the nations.

<sup>20</sup>Then they shall bring all your countrymen from all the nations as a grain offering to the LORD, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “just as the sons of Israel bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>I will also take some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>“For just as the new heavens and the new earth, Which I make, will endure before Me,” declares the LORD, “So will your descendants and your name endure.

<sup>23</sup>“And it shall be from new moon to new moon And from Sabbath to Sabbath, All mankind will come to bow down before Me,” says the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>“Then they will go out and look At the corpses of the people Who have rebelled against Me. For their worm will not die And their fire will not be extinguished; And they will be an abhorrence to all mankind.”

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

Jeremiah's Call and Commission

<sup>1</sup>The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,

<sup>2</sup>to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

<sup>3</sup>It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the exile of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

<sup>4</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, And before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”

<sup>6</sup>Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, Because I am a youth.”

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am a youth,’ Because everywhere I send you, you shall go, And all that I command you, you shall speak.

<sup>8</sup>“Do not be afraid of them, For I am with you to save you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD stretched out His hand and touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me, “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup>“See, I have appointed you this day over the nations and over the kingdoms, To root out and to tear down, To destroy and to overthrow, To build and to plant.”

The Almond Branch and Boiling Pot

<sup>11</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am watching over My word to perform it.”

<sup>13</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, facing away from the north.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Out of the north the evil will be unleashed on all the inhabitants of the land.

<sup>15</sup>For, behold, I am calling all the families of the kingdoms of the north,” declares the LORD; “and they will come and place, each one of them, his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls around, and against all the cities of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>And I will pronounce My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, since they have abandoned Me and have offered sacrifices to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup>Now, belt your garment around your waist and arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed before them, or I will make you dismayed before them.

<sup>18</sup>Now behold, I have made you today like a fortified city and like a pillar of iron and walls of bronze against the whole land, to the kings of Judah, to its leaders, to its priests, and to the people of the land.

<sup>19</sup>And they will fight against you but they will not overcome you, for I am with you to save you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2

Judah’s Apostasy

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says: “I remember regarding you the devotion of your youth, Your love when you were a bride, Your following after Me in the wilderness, Through a land not sown.

<sup>3</sup>“Israel was holy to the LORD, The first of His harvest. All who ate of it became guilty; Evil came upon them,” declares the LORD.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says: “What injustice did your fathers find in Me, That they went far from Me, And walked after emptiness and became empty?

<sup>6</sup>“They did not say, ‘Where is the LORD Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, Who led us through the wilderness, Through a land of deserts and of pits, Through a land of drought and of deep darkness, Through a land that no one crossed And where no person lived?’

<sup>7</sup>“I brought you into the fruitful land To eat its fruit and its good things. But you came and defiled My land, And you made My inheritance an abomination.

<sup>8</sup>“The priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’ And those who handle the Law did not know Me; The rulers also revolted against Me, And the prophets prophesied by Baal And walked after things that were of no benefit.

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore I will still contend with you,” declares the LORD, “And I will contend with your sons’ sons.

<sup>10</sup>“For cross to the coastlands of Kittim and see, And send to Kedar and observe closely, And see if there has been anything like this!

<sup>11</sup>“Has a nation changed gods, When they were not gods? But My people have exchanged their glory For that which is of no benefit.

<sup>12</sup>“Be appalled at this, you heavens, And shudder, be very desolate,” declares the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“For My people have committed two evils: They have abandoned Me, The fountain of living waters, To carve out for themselves cisterns, Broken cisterns That do not hold water.

14“Is Israel a slave? Or is he a servant born in the home? Why has he become plunder?

15“The young lions have roared at him, They have roared loudly. And they have made his land a waste; His cities have been destroyed, without inhabitant.

16“Also the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes Have shaved your head.

17“Have you not done this to yourself By your abandoning the LORD your God When He led you in the way?

18“But now what are you doing on the road to Egypt, Except to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what are you doing on the road to Assyria, Except to drink the waters of the Euphrates River?

19“Your own wickedness will correct you, And your apostasies will punish you; Know therefore and see that it is evil and bitter For you to abandon the LORD your God, And the fear of Me is not in you,” declares the Lord GOD of armies.

20“For long ago I broke your yoke And tore off your restraints; But you said, ‘I will not serve!’ For on every high hill And under every leafy tree You have lain down as a prostitute.

21“Yet I planted you as a choice vine, A completely faithful seed. How then have you turned yourself before Me Into the degenerate shoots of a foreign vine?

22“Although you wash yourself with lye And use much soap, The stain of your guilt is before Me,” declares the Lord GOD.

23“How can you say, ‘I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baals’? Look at your way in the valley! Know what you have done! You are a swift young camel running about senselessly on her ways,

<sup>24</sup>A wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness, That sniffs the wind in her passion. Who can turn her away in her mating season? None who seek her will grow weary; In her month they will find her.

<sup>25</sup>“Keep your feet from being bare, And your throat from thirst; But you said, ‘It is hopeless! No! For I have loved strangers, And I will walk after them.’

<sup>26</sup>“Like the shame of a thief when he is discovered, So the house of Israel is shamed; They, their kings, their leaders, Their priests, and their prophets,

<sup>27</sup>Who say to a tree, ‘You are my father,’ And to a stone, ‘You gave me birth.’ For they have turned their backs to Me, And not their faces; But in the time of their trouble they will say, ‘Arise and save us!’

<sup>28</sup>“But where are your gods Which you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you In the time of your trouble! For as many as the number of your cities Are your gods, Judah.

<sup>29</sup>“Why do you contend with Me? You have all revolted against Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>30</sup>“In vain I have struck your sons; They did not accept discipline. Your sword has devoured your prophets Like a destroying lion.

<sup>31</sup>“You generation, look to the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel, Or a land of thick darkness? Why do My people say, ‘We are free to roam; We will no longer come to You’?

<sup>33</sup>“How well you prepare your way To seek love! Therefore even to the wicked women You have taught your ways.

<sup>34</sup>“Also on your skirts is found The lifeblood of the innocent poor; You did not find them breaking in. But in spite of all these things,

<sup>35</sup>You said, ‘I am innocent; Surely His anger is turned away from me.’ Behold, I will enter into judgment with you Because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’

<sup>36</sup>“Why do you go around so much Changing your way? Also, you will be put to shame by Egypt, Just as you were put to shame by Assyria.

<sup>37</sup>“From this place as well you will go out With your hands on your head; For the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, And you will not prosper with them.”

Jeremiah 3

The Defiled Land

<sup>1</sup> God says, “If a husband divorces his wife And she leaves him And becomes another man’s wife, Will he return to her again? Would that land not be completely defiled? But you are a prostitute with many lovers; Yet you turn to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>“Raise your eyes to the bare heights and see; Where have you not been violated? You have sat for them by the roads Like an Arab in the desert, And you have defiled a land With your prostitution and your wickedness.

<sup>3</sup>“Therefore the showers have been withheld, And there has been no spring rain. Yet you had a prostitute’s forehead; You refused to be ashamed.

<sup>4</sup>“Have you not just now called to Me, ‘My Father, You are the friend of my youth?

<sup>5</sup>‘Will He be angry forever, Or keep His anger to the end?’ Behold, you have spoken And have done evil things, And you have had your own way.”

Faithless Israel

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to me in the days of King Josiah, “Have you seen what faithless Israel did? She went up on every high hill and under every leafy tree, and she prostituted herself there.

<sup>7</sup>Yet I thought, ‘After she has done all these things she will return to Me’; but she did not return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

<sup>8</sup>And I saw that for all the adulteries of faithless Israel, I had sent her away and given her a certificate of divorce, yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear; but she went and prostituted herself also.

<sup>9</sup>And because of the thoughtlessness of her prostitution, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees.

<sup>10</sup>Yet in spite of all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to Me with all her heart, but rather in deception,” declares the LORD.

God Invites Repentance

<sup>11</sup>And the LORD said to me, “Faithless Israel has proved herself to be more righteous than treacherous Judah.

<sup>12</sup>Go and proclaim these words toward the north and say, ‘Return, faithless Israel,’ declares the LORD; ‘I will not look at you in anger. For I am gracious,’ declares the LORD; ‘I will not be angry forever.

<sup>13</sup>‘Only acknowledge your wrongdoing, That you have revolted against the LORD your God, And have scattered your favors to the strangers under every leafy tree, And you have not obeyed My voice,’ declares the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>‘Return, you faithless sons,’ declares the LORD; ‘For I am a master to you, And I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, And bring you to Zion.’

<sup>15</sup>“Then I will give you shepherds after My own heart, who will feed you knowledge and understanding.

<sup>16</sup>And it shall be in those days when you become numerous and are fruitful in the land,” declares the LORD, “they will no longer say, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ And it will not come to mind, nor will they remember it, nor miss it, nor will it be made again.

<sup>17</sup>At that time they will call Jerusalem ‘The Throne of the LORD,’ and all the nations will assemble at it, at Jerusalem, for the name of the LORD; and they will no longer follow the stubbornness of their evil heart.

<sup>18</sup>In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your fathers as an inheritance.

<sup>19</sup>“Then I said, ‘How I would set you among My sons And give you a pleasant land, The most beautiful inheritance of the nations!’ And I said, ‘You shall call Me, My Father, And not turn away from following Me.’

<sup>20</sup>“However, as a woman treacherously leaves her lover, So you have dealt treacherously with Me, House of Israel,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>A voice is heard on the bare heights, The weeping, the pleading of the sons of Israel. Because they have perverted their way, They have forgotten the LORD their God.

<sup>22</sup>“Return, you faithless sons, I will heal your faithlessness.” “Behold, we come to You; For You are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup>“Certainly the hills are a deception, Commotion on the mountains. Certainly in the LORD our God Is the salvation of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>“But the shame has consumed the product of our fathers’ labor since our youth—their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

<sup>25</sup>Let us lie down in our shame, and let our humiliation cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. And we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 4

Judah Threatened with Invasion

<sup>1</sup>“If you will return, Israel,” declares the LORD, “Then you should return to Me. And if you will put away your detestable things from My presence, And will not waver,

<sup>2</sup>And if you will swear, ‘As the LORD lives,’ In truth, in justice, and in righteousness; Then the nations will bless themselves in Him, And in Him they will boast.”

<sup>3</sup>For this is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: “Break up your uncultivated ground, And do not sow among thorns.

<sup>4</sup>“Circumcise yourselves to the LORD And remove the foreskins of your hearts, Men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, Or else My wrath will spread like fire And burn with no one to quench it, Because of the evil of your deeds.”

<sup>7</sup>“A lion has gone up from his thicket, And a destroyer of nations has set out; He has gone out from his place To make your land a waste. Your cities will be ruins, Without an inhabitant.

<sup>8</sup>“For this, put on sackcloth, Mourn and wail; For the fierce anger of the LORD Has not turned away from us.”

<sup>9</sup>“And it shall come about on that day,” declares the LORD, “that the heart of the king and the hearts of the leaders will fail; and the priests will tremble, and the prophets will be astonished.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Surely You have utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You will have peace’; yet a sword touches the throat.”

<sup>11</sup>At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A scorching wind from the bare heights in the wilderness, in the direction of the daughter of My people—not to winnow and not to cleanse,

<sup>12</sup>a wind too strong for this—will come at My command; now I will also pronounce judgments against them.”

<sup>14</sup>Wash your heart from evil, Jerusalem, So that you may be saved. How long will your wicked thoughts lodge within you?

<sup>17</sup>‘Like watchmen of a field they are against her all around, Because she has rebelled against Me,’ declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“Your ways and your deeds Have brought these things upon you. This is your evil. How bitter! How it has touched your heart!”

Grief over Judah’s Devastation

<sup>19</sup>My soul, my soul! I am in anguish! Oh, my heart! My heart is pounding in me; I cannot keep silent, Because, my soul, you have heard The sound of the trumpet, The alarm of war.

<sup>21</sup>How long must I see the flag And hear the sound of the trumpet?

<sup>23</sup>I looked at the earth, and behold, it was a formless and desolate emptiness; And to the heavens, and they had no light.

<sup>24</sup>I looked on the mountains, and behold, they were quaking, And all the hills jolted back and forth.

<sup>25</sup>I looked, and behold, there was no human, And all the birds of the sky had fled.

<sup>26</sup>I looked, and behold, the fruitful land was a wilderness, And all its cities were pulled down Before the LORD, before His fierce anger.

<sup>27</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “The whole land shall be a desolation, Yet I will not execute a complete destruction.

<sup>28</sup>“For this the earth will mourn, And the heavens above will become dark, Because I have spoken, I have purposed, And I have not changed My mind, nor will I turn from it.”

<sup>29</sup>At the sound of the horseman and archer every city flees; They go into the thickets and climb among the rocks; Every city is abandoned, And no one lives in them.

<sup>30</sup>And you, desolate one, what will you do? Although you dress in scarlet, Although you adorn yourself with jewelry of gold, Although you enlarge your eyes with makeup, In vain you make yourself beautiful. Your lovers despise you; They seek your life.

<sup>31</sup>For I heard a voice cry as of a woman in labor, The anguish as of one giving birth to her first child. The voice of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath, Stretching out her hands, saying, “Ah, woe to me, for I faint before murderers.”

Jeremiah 5

Jerusalem's Godlessness

<sup>1</sup>“Roam about through the streets of Jerusalem, And look and take notice. And seek in her public squares, If you can find a person, If there is one who does justice, who seeks honesty, Then I will forgive her.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, do Your eyes not look for honesty? You have struck them, But they did not weaken; You have consumed them, But they refused to accept discipline. They have made their faces harder than rock; They have refused to repent.

<sup>4</sup>Then I said, “They are only the poor, They are foolish; For they do not know the way of the LORD Or the judgment of their God.

<sup>5</sup>“I will go to the great And speak to them, For they know the way of the LORD And the judgment of their God.” But together they too have broken the yoke And burst the restraints.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore a lion from the forest will kill them, A wolf of the deserts will destroy them, A leopard is watching their cities. Everyone who goes out of them will be torn in pieces, Because their wrongdoings are many, Their apostasies are numerous.

<sup>7</sup>“Why should I forgive you? Your sons have forsaken Me And sworn by those who are not gods. When I had fed them to the full, They committed adultery And stayed at the prostitute’s house.

<sup>9</sup>“Shall I not punish them for these things?” declares the LORD, “And shall I not avenge Myself On a nation such as this?

<sup>11</sup>“For the house of Israel and the house of Judah Have dealt very treacherously with Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>They have lied about the LORD And said, “Not He; Misfortune will not come upon us, Nor will we see sword or famine.

<sup>13</sup>“The prophets are as wind, And the word is not in them. So it will be done to them!”

Judgment Proclaimed

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of armies says: “Because you have spoken this word, Behold, I am making My words fire in your mouth, And this people wood, and it will consume them.

<sup>15</sup>“Behold, I am bringing a nation against you from far away, you house of Israel,” declares the LORD. “It is an enduring nation, It is an ancient nation,

A nation whose language you do not know, Nor can you understand what they say.

<sup>17</sup>“They will devour your harvest and your food; They will devour your sons and your daughters; They will devour your flocks and your herds; They will devour your vines and your fig trees; They will demolish your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

<sup>18</sup>“Yet even in those days,” declares the LORD, “I will not make a complete destruction of you.

<sup>19</sup>And it shall come about when they say, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?’ then you shall say to them, ‘Just as you have abandoned Me and served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’

<sup>20</sup>“Declare this in the house of Jacob And proclaim it in Judah, saying,

<sup>21</sup>‘Now hear this, you foolish and senseless people, Who have eyes but do not see, Who have ears but do not hear.

<sup>22</sup>‘Do you not fear Me?’ declares the LORD. ‘Do you not tremble in My presence? For I have placed the sand as a boundary for the sea, An eternal limit, and it will not cross over it. Though the waves toss, they cannot prevail; Though they roar, they will not cross over it.

<sup>23</sup>‘But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; They have turned aside and departed.

<sup>24</sup>‘They do not say in their heart, “Let us now fear the LORD our God, Who gives rain in its season, Both the autumn rain and the spring rain, Who keeps for us The appointed weeks of the harvest.”

<sup>26</sup>‘For wicked people are found among My people, They watch like fowlers lying in wait; They set a trap, They catch people.

<sup>27</sup>‘Like a cage full of birds, So their houses are full of deceit; Therefore they have become great and rich.

<sup>28</sup>‘They are fat, they are sleek, They also excel in deeds of wickedness; They do not plead the cause, The cause of the orphan, so that they may be successful; And they do not defend the rights of the poor.

<sup>29</sup>‘Shall I not punish them for these things?’ declares the LORD, ‘Or shall I not avenge Myself On a nation such as this?’

<sup>30</sup>“An appalling and horrible thing Has happened in the land:

<sup>31</sup>The prophets prophesy falsely, And the priests rule on their own authority; And My people love it this way! But what will you do when the end comes?

Jeremiah 6

The Coming Destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup>“Be warned, Jerusalem, Or I shall be alienated from you, And make you a desolation, An uninhabited land.”

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: “They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like the vine; Pass your hand over the branches again Like a grape gatherer.”

<sup>10</sup>To whom shall I speak and give warning, That they may hear? Behold, their ears are closed And they cannot listen. Behold, the word of the LORD has become for them a rebuke; They take no delight in it.

<sup>12</sup>“Their houses shall be turned over to others, Their fields and their wives together; For I will stretch out My hand Against the inhabitants of the land,” declares the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“For from the least of them to the greatest of them, Everyone is greedy for gain, And from the prophet to the priest Everyone deals falsely.

<sup>14</sup>“They have healed the brokenness of My people superficially, Saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ But there is no peace.

<sup>15</sup>“Were they ashamed because of the abomination they had done? They were not ashamed at all, Nor did they know even how to be ashamed. Therefore they will fall among those who fall; At the time that I punish them, They will collapse,” says the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Stand by the ways and see and ask for the ancient paths, Where the good way is, and walk in it; Then you will find a resting place for your souls. But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’

<sup>17</sup>“And I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet!’ But they said, ‘We will not listen.’

<sup>18</sup>“Therefore hear, you nations, And know, you congregation, what is among them.

<sup>19</sup>“Hear, earth: behold, I am bringing disaster on this people, The fruit of their plans, Because they have not listened to My words, And as for My Law, they have rejected it also.

<sup>20</sup>“For what purpose does frankincense come to Me from Sheba, And the sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable And your sacrifices are not pleasing to Me.”

The Enemy from the North

<sup>23</sup>“They seize bow and spear; They are cruel and have no mercy; Their voice roars like the sea, And they ride on horses, Lined up as a man for the battle Against you, daughter of Zion!”

<sup>24</sup>We have heard the report of it; Our hands are limp. Anguish has seized us, Pain like that of a woman in childbirth.

<sup>25</sup>Do not go out into the field, And do not walk on the road; For the enemy has a sword, Terror is on every side.

<sup>26</sup>Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth And roll in ashes; Mourn as for an only son, A most bitter mourning. For suddenly the destroyer Will come against us.

<sup>27</sup>“I have made you an assayer and an examiner among My people, So that you may know and put their way to the test.”

<sup>28</sup>All of them are stubbornly rebellious, Going about as a slanderer; They are bronze and iron. They are, all of them, corrupt.

<sup>30</sup>They call them rejected silver, Because the LORD has rejected them.

Jeremiah 7

Message at the Temple Gate

<sup>2</sup>“Stand at the gate of the LORD’S house and proclaim there this word, and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter by these gates to worship the LORD!’ ”

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you live in this place.

<sup>4</sup>Do not trust in deceptive words, saying, ‘This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.’

<sup>6</sup>if you do not oppress the stranger, the orphan, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, nor follow other gods to your own ruin,

<sup>7</sup>then I will let you live in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup>Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, offer sacrifices to Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known,

<sup>10</sup>then come and stand before Me in this house which is called by My name, and say, ‘We are saved!’—so that you may do all these abominations?

<sup>11</sup>Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your sight? Behold, I Myself have seen it,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I made My name dwell at the beginning, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.

<sup>13</sup>And now, because you have done all these things,” declares the LORD, “and I spoke to you, speaking again and again, but you did not listen, and I called you but you did not answer,

<sup>14</sup>therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave you and your fathers, just as I did to Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup>I will hurl you out of My sight, just as I have hurled out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup>“As for you, do not pray for this people, and do not lift up a cry or prayer for them, and do not plead with Me; for I am not listening to you.

<sup>17</sup>Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>20</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, My anger and My wrath will be poured out on this place, on human and animal life, and on the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and not be quenched.”

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat flesh.

<sup>22</sup>For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them on the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices.

<sup>23</sup>But this is what I commanded them, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you will be My people; and you shall walk entirely in the way which I command you, so that it may go well for you.’

<sup>24</sup>Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked by their own advice and in the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and they went backward and not forward.

<sup>25</sup>Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent you all My servants the prophets, sending them daily, again and again.

<sup>26</sup>Yet they did not listen to Me or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck; they did more evil than their fathers.

<sup>27</sup>“So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you; and you shall call to them, but they will not answer you.

<sup>28</sup>And you shall say to them, ‘This is the nation that did not obey the voice of the LORD their God or accept discipline; trustworthiness has perished and has been eliminated from their mouth.

<sup>29</sup>‘Cut off your hair and throw it away, And take up a song of mourning on the bare heights; For the LORD has rejected and forsaken The generation of His wrath.’

<sup>30</sup>For the sons of Judah have done that which is evil in My sight,” declares the LORD. “They have put their detestable things in the house which is called by My name, to defile it.

<sup>31</sup>They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben-hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, and it did not come into My mind.

<sup>32</sup>“Therefore, behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will no longer be called Topheth, or the Valley of Ben-hinnom, but the Valley of the Slaughter; for they will bury in Topheth because there is no other place.

<sup>33</sup>The dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth; and no one will frighten them away.

<sup>34</sup>Then I will eliminate from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride; for the land will become a site of ruins.

Jeremiah 8

The Sin and Treachery of Judah

<sup>2</sup>They will spread them out to the sun, the moon, and to all the heavenly lights, which they have loved, which they have served, which they have followed, which they have sought, and which they have worshiped. They will not be gathered nor buried; they will be like dung on the face of the ground.

<sup>3</sup>And death will be chosen rather than life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family, that remains in all the places to which I have driven them,” declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>4</sup>“You shall say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Do people fall and not get up? Does one turn away and not repent?”

<sup>5</sup>“Why has this people, Jerusalem, Turned away in continual apostasy? They hold on to deceit, They refuse to return.

<sup>6</sup>“I have listened and heard, They have spoken what is not right; No one repented of his wickedness, Saying, ‘What have I done?’ Everyone turned to his own course, Like a horse charging into the battle.

<sup>7</sup>“Even the stork in the sky Knows her seasons; And the turtledove, the swallow, and the crane Keep to the time of their migration; But My people do not know The judgment of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>“How can you say, ‘We are wise, And the Law of the LORD is with us’? But behold, the lying pen of the scribes Has made it into a lie.

<sup>9</sup>“The wise men are put to shame, They are dismayed and caught; Behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD, So what kind of wisdom do they have?

<sup>10</sup>“Therefore I will give their wives to others, Their fields to new owners; Because from the least even to the greatest Everyone is greedy for gain; From the prophet even to the priest, Everyone practices deceit.

<sup>11</sup>“They have healed the brokenness of the daughter of My people superficially, Saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ But there is no peace.

<sup>12</sup>“Were they ashamed because of the abomination they had done? They were not ashamed at all, And they did not know how to be ashamed; Therefore they will fall among those who fall; At the time of their punishment they will collapse,” Says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“I will certainly snatch them away,” declares the LORD. “There will be no grapes on the vine And no figs on the fig tree, And the leaf will wither; And what I have given them will pass away.” ’ ’

<sup>14</sup>Why are we sitting still? Assemble yourselves, and let’s go into the fortified cities And perish there, For the LORD our God has doomed us And given us poisoned water to drink, Because we have sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> We waited for peace, but no good came; For a time of healing, but behold, terror!

<sup>16</sup>From Dan there is heard the snorting of his horses; At the sound of the neighing of his stallions The whole land quakes; For they come and devour the land and its fullness, The city and its inhabitants.

<sup>17</sup>“For behold, I am sending serpents among you, Vipers for which there is no charm; And they will bite you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>My sorrow is beyond healing, My heart is faint within me!

<sup>21</sup>I am broken over the brokenness of the daughter of my people. I mourn, dismay has taken hold of me.

<sup>22</sup>Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has not the health of the daughter of my people been restored?

Jeremiah 9

Grief over Zion

<sup>1</sup> Oh, that my head were waters And my eyes a fountain of tears, That I might weep day and night For those slain of the daughter of my people!

<sup>2</sup> Oh that I had in the desert A travelers’ lodging place; So that I might leave my people And go away from them! For all of them are adulterers, An assembly of treacherous people.

<sup>3</sup>“They bend their tongues like their bows; Lies and not truth prevail in the land; For they proceed from evil to evil, And they do not know Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“Everyone deceives his neighbor And does not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies; They weary themselves committing wrongdoing.

<sup>6</sup>“Your dwelling is in the midst of deceit; Through deceit they refuse to know Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD of armies says: “Behold, I will refine them and put them to the test; For what else can I do, because of the daughter of My people?

<sup>8</sup>“Their tongue is a deadly arrow; It speaks deceit; With his mouth one speaks peace to his neighbor, But inwardly he sets an ambush for him.

<sup>9</sup>“Shall I not punish them for these things?” declares the LORD. “Shall I not avenge Myself On a nation such as this?

<sup>10</sup>“I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains, And for the pastures of the wilderness a song of mourning, Because they are laid waste so that no one passes through, And the sound of the livestock is not heard; Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled; they are gone.

<sup>11</sup>“I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, A haunt of jackals; And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.”

<sup>12</sup>Who is the wise person who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land destroyed, laid waste like the desert, so that no one passes through?

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said, “Because they have abandoned My Law which I put before them, and have not obeyed My voice nor walked according to it,

<sup>14</sup>but have followed the stubbornness of their heart and the Baals, as their fathers taught them,” <sup>15</sup>therefore this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I will feed this people wormwood; and I will give them poisoned water to drink.

<sup>16</sup>I will also scatter them among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them until I have put an end to them.”

<sup>17</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: “Consider and call for the mourning women, that they may come; And send for the skillful women, that they may come!

<sup>18</sup>“Have them hurry and take up a wailing for us, So that our eyes may shed tears, And our eyelids flow with water.

<sup>19</sup>“For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion: ‘How devastated we are! We are put to great shame, For we have abandoned the land Because they have torn down our homes.’ ”

<sup>21</sup>For death has come up through our windows; It has entered our palaces To eliminate the children from the streets, The young men from the public squares.

<sup>24</sup>but let the one who boasts boast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises mercy, justice, and righteousness on the earth; for I delight in these things,” declares the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“Behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “that I will punish all who are circumcised and yet uncircumcised—

<sup>26</sup>Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all those inhabiting the desert who trim the hair on their temples; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised of heart.”

Jeremiah 10

A Satire on Idolatry

<sup>4</sup>“They decorate the idol with silver and gold; They fasten it with nails and hammers So that it will not totter.

<sup>6</sup>There is none like You, LORD; You are great, and Your name is great in might.

<sup>7</sup>Who would not fear You, O King of the nations? For it is Your due! For among all the wise men of the nations And in all their kingdoms, There is none like You.

<sup>8</sup>But they are altogether stupid and foolish; The instruction from idols is nothing but wood!

<sup>9</sup>Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, And gold from Uphaz, The work of a craftsman and of the hands of a goldsmith; Their clothing is of violet and purple; They are all the work of skilled people.

<sup>10</sup>But the LORD is the true God; He is the living God and the everlasting King. The earth quakes at His wrath, And the nations cannot endure His indignation.

<sup>11</sup>This is what you shall say to them: “The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

<sup>12</sup>It is He who made the earth by His power, Who established the world by His wisdom; And by His understanding He has stretched out the heavens.

<sup>17</sup>Pick up your bundle from the ground, You who live under siege!

<sup>18</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am slinging out the inhabitants of the land At this time, And I will cause them distress, So that they may be found.”

<sup>19</sup>Woe to me, because of my injury! My wound is incurable. But I said, “This certainly is a sickness, And I must endure it.”

<sup>20</sup>My tent is destroyed, And all my ropes are broken. My sons have gone from me and are no more. There is no one to stretch out my tent again Or to set up my curtains.

<sup>21</sup>For the shepherds have become stupid And have not sought the LORD.
Therefore they have not prospered, And all their flock is scattered.

<sup>22</sup>The sound of a report! Behold, it is coming— A great roar from the land of the north— To make the cities of Judah A desolation, a haunt of jackals.

<sup>23</sup>I know, LORD, that a person's way is not in himself, Nor is it in a person who walks to direct his steps.

<sup>24</sup>Correct me, LORD, but with justice; Not with Your anger, or You will bring me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup>Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You, And on the families who do not call upon Your name; For they have devoured Jacob;
They have devoured him and consumed him, And have laid waste his settlement.

Jeremiah 11

The Broken Covenant

<sup>2</sup>“Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

<sup>3</sup>and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: “Cursed is the one who does not obey the words of this covenant

<sup>4</sup>which I commanded your forefathers on the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, ‘Listen to My voice, and do according to all that I command you; so you shall be My people, and I will be your God,’

<sup>5</sup>in order to confirm the oath which I swore to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day.”’” Then I replied,
“Amen, LORD.”

<sup>6</sup>And the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

<sup>7</sup>For I solemnly warned your fathers on the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt, even to this day, warning them persistently, saying, “Listen to My voice.”

<sup>8</sup>Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in the stubbornness of their evil heart, each one of them; therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do, but they did not.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>They have turned back to the wrongdoings of their ancestors who refused to hear My words, and they have followed other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.”

<sup>11</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am bringing disaster on them which they will not be able to escape; though they will cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.

<sup>12</sup>Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they certainly will not save them in the time of their disaster.

<sup>13</sup>For your gods are as many as your cities, Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to the shameful thing, altars for burning incense to Baal.

<sup>14</sup>“So as for you, do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not listen when they call to Me because of their disaster.

<sup>15</sup>“What right has My beloved in My house When she has carried out many evil schemes? Can the sacrificial flesh take away from you your disaster, So that you can rejoice?”

<sup>16</sup>The LORD named you “A green olive tree, beautiful in fruit and form”; With the noise of a great tumult He has set fire to it, And its branches are worthless.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD of armies, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you because of the evil of the house of Israel and the house of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me by offering sacrifices to Baal.

Plots against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>Moreover, the LORD made it known to me and I knew it; Then You showed me their deeds.

<sup>19</sup>But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; And I did not know that they had devised plots against me, saying, “Let’s destroy the tree with its fruit, And let’s cut him off from the land of the living, So that his name will no longer be remembered.”

<sup>20</sup>But, LORD of armies, who judges righteously, Who puts the feelings and the heart to the test, Let me see Your vengeance on them, For to You I have committed my cause.

<sup>22</sup>therefore, this is what the LORD of armies says: “Behold, I am going to punish them! The young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters will die by famine;

<sup>23</sup>and a remnant will not be left to them, because I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth—the year of their punishment.”

Jeremiah 12

Jeremiah’s Prayer

<sup>1</sup>Righteous are You, LORD, when I plead my case with You; Nevertheless I would discuss matters of justice with You: Why has the way of the wicked prospered? Why are all those who deal in treachery at ease?

<sup>2</sup>You have planted them, they have also taken root; They grow, they have also produced fruit. You are near to their lips But far from their mind.

<sup>3</sup>But You know me, LORD; You see me And examine my heart's attitude toward You. Drag them off like sheep for the slaughter, And set them apart for a day of slaughter!

<sup>4</sup>How long is the land to mourn, And the vegetation of the countryside to dry up? Due to the wickedness of those who live in it, Animals and birds have been snatched away, Because people have said, "He will not see our final end."

<sup>5</sup>"If you have run with infantrymen and they have tired you out, How can you compete with horses? If you fall down in a land of peace, How will you do in the thicket by the Jordan?

<sup>6</sup>"For even your brothers and the household of your father, Even they have dealt treacherously with you, Even they have called aloud after you. Do not believe them, though they say nice things to you."

God's Answer

<sup>7</sup>"I have forsaken My house, I have abandoned My inheritance; I have handed the beloved of My soul Over to her enemies.

<sup>8</sup>"My inheritance has become to Me Like a lion in the forest; She has roared against Me; Therefore I have come to hate her.

<sup>9</sup>"Is My inheritance like a speckled bird of prey to Me? Are the birds of prey against her on every side? Go, gather all the animals of the field, Bring them to devour!

<sup>10</sup>"Many shepherds have ruined My vineyard, They have trampled down My field; They have made My pleasant field A desolate wilderness.

<sup>11</sup>“It has been made a desolation; Desolate, it mourns before Me; The whole land has been made desolate, Because no one takes it to heart.

<sup>12</sup>“On all the bare heights in the wilderness Destroyers have come, For the sword of the LORD is devouring From one end of the land even to the other; There is no peace for anyone.

<sup>13</sup>“They have sown wheat but have harvested thorns, They have strained themselves to no profit. So be ashamed of your produce Because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>This is what the LORD says concerning all My wicked neighbors who do harm to the inheritance with which I have endowed My people Israel: “Behold, I am going to drive them out of their land, and I will drive the house of Judah out from among them.

<sup>15</sup>And it will come about that after I have driven them out, I will again have compassion on them; and I will bring them back, each one to his inheritance and each one to his land.

<sup>16</sup>Then, if they will really learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, ‘As the LORD lives,’ just as they taught My people to swear by Baal, they will be built up in the midst of My people.

<sup>17</sup>But if they do not listen, then I will drive out that nation, drive it out and destroy it,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 13

The Ruined Undergarment

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy yourself a linen undergarment and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water.”

<sup>2</sup>So I bought the undergarment in accordance with the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.

<sup>3</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Take the undergarment that you bought, which is around your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates and hide it there in a crevice of the rock.”

<sup>5</sup>So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD had commanded me.

<sup>6</sup>After many days the LORD said to me, “Arise, go to the Euphrates and take from there the undergarment which I commanded you to hide there.”

<sup>7</sup>Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the undergarment from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the undergarment was ruined, it was completely useless.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘To the same extent I will destroy the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>This wicked people, who refuse to listen to My words, who walk in the stubbornness of their hearts and have followed other gods to serve them and to bow down to them, let them be just like this undergarment which is completely useless.

<sup>11</sup>For as the undergarment clings to the waist of a man, so I made the entire household of Israel and the entire household of Judah cling to Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘so that they might be My people, for renown, for praise, and for glory; but they did not listen.’

Captivity Threatened

<sup>12</sup>“Therefore you are to speak this word to them. ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: “Every jug is to be filled with wine.”’ And when they say to you, ‘Do we not very well know that every jug is to be filled with wine?’

<sup>13</sup>then say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am going to fill all the inhabitants of this land—the kings who sit for David on his throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness!

<sup>14</sup>Then I will smash them against each other, both the fathers and the sons together,” declares the LORD. “I will not have compassion nor be troubled nor take pity so as to keep from destroying them.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>16</sup>Give glory to the LORD your God Before He brings darkness And before your feet stumble On the mountains in the dark, And while you are hoping for light He makes it into gloom, And turns it into thick darkness.

<sup>17</sup>But if you do not listen to it, My soul will weep in secret for such pride; And my eyes will shed And stream down tears, Because the flock of the LORD has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup>Say to the king and the queen mother, “Take a lowly seat, For your beautiful crown Has come down from your head.”

<sup>20</sup>“Raise your eyes and see Those coming from the north. Where is the flock that was given you, Your beautiful sheep?

<sup>21</sup>“What will you say when He appoints over you— And you yourself had taught them— Former companions to be head over you? Will sharp pains not take hold of you Like a woman in childbirth?

<sup>22</sup>“If you say in your heart, ‘Why have these things happened to me?’ Because of the magnitude of your wrongdoing Your skirts have been removed And your heels have suffered violence.

<sup>25</sup>“This is your lot, the portion measured to you From Me,” declares the LORD, “Because you have forgotten Me And trusted in falsehood.

<sup>26</sup>“So I Myself have stripped your skirts off over your face, So that your shame will be seen.

<sup>27</sup>“As for your adulteries and your lustful neighings, The outrageous sin of your prostitution On the hills in the field, I have seen your abominations. Woe to you, Jerusalem! How long will you remain unclean?”

Jeremiah 14

Drought and a Prayer for Mercy

<sup>1</sup>That which came as the word of the LORD to Jeremiah regarding the drought:

<sup>2</sup>“Judah mourns And her gates languish; Her people sit on the ground in mourning garments, And the cry of Jerusalem has ascended.

<sup>3</sup>“Their nobles have sent their servants for water; They have come to the cisterns and found no water. They have returned with their containers empty; They have been put to shame and humiliated, And they cover their heads, <sup>4</sup>Because the ground is cracked, For there has been no rain on the land. The farmers have been put to shame, They have covered their heads.

<sup>5</sup>“For even the doe in the field has given birth only to abandon her young, Because there is no grass.

<sup>6</sup>“The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights; They pant for air like jackals, Their eyes fail Because there is no vegetation.

<sup>7</sup>“Though our wrongdoings testify against us, LORD, act for the sake of Your name! Our apostasies have indeed been many, We have sinned against You.

<sup>8</sup>“Hope of Israel, Its Savior in time of distress, Why are You like a stranger in the land, Or like a traveler who has pitched his tent for the night?

<sup>9</sup>“Why are You like a confused person, Like a warrior who cannot save? Yet You are in our midst, LORD, And we are called by Your name; Do not leave us!”

<sup>10</sup>This is what the LORD says to this people: “So much they have loved to wander; they have not restrained their feet. Therefore the LORD does not accept them; now He will remember their wrongdoing and call their sins to account.”

<sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for a good outcome on behalf of this people.

<sup>12</sup>When they fast, I am not going to listen to their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I am not going to accept them. Rather, I am going to put an end to them by the sword, famine, and plague.”

False Prophets

<sup>13</sup>But I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets are telling them, ‘You will not see a sword, nor will you have famine; on the contrary, I will give you lasting peace in this place.’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “The prophets are prophesying falsehood in My name. I have neither sent them nor commanded them, nor spoken to them; they are prophesying to you a false vision, divination, futility, and the deception of their own minds.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who are prophesying in My name, although it was not I who sent them—yet they keep saying: ‘There will be no sword or famine in this land’—by sword and famine those prophets shall meet their end!

<sup>16</sup>And the people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and there will be no one to bury them—neither them, nor their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. For I will pour out their own wickedness upon them.

<sup>17</sup>“You will say this word to them, ‘Let my eyes stream down tears night and day, And let them not cease; For the virgin daughter of my people has been crushed with a mighty blow, With a sorely infected wound.

<sup>18</sup>‘If I go out to the country, There are those killed by the sword! Or if I enter the city, There are diseases from famine! For both prophet and priest Have wandered around in the land that they do not know.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Have You completely rejected Judah? Or have You loathed Zion? Why have You stricken us so that we are beyond healing? We waited for peace, but nothing good came; And for a time of healing, but behold, terror!

<sup>20</sup>We know our wickedness, LORD, The wrongdoing of our fathers, for we have sinned against You.

<sup>21</sup>Do not despise us, for the sake of Your own name; Do not disgrace the throne of Your glory. Remember and do not annul Your covenant with us.

<sup>22</sup>Are there any among the idols of the nations who give rain? Or can the heavens grant showers? Is it not You, LORD our God? Therefore we wait for You, For You are the one who has done all these things.

Jeremiah 15

Judgment Must Come

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before Me, My heart would not be with this people. Send them away from My presence and have them go!

<sup>2</sup>And it shall be that when they say to you, ‘Where should we go?’ then you are to tell them, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Those destined for death, to death; And those destined for the sword, to the sword; And those destined for famine, to famine; And those destined for captivity, to captivity.” ’

<sup>3</sup>And I will appoint over them four kinds of doom,” declares the LORD: “the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the animals of the earth to devour and destroy.

<sup>4</sup>I will make them an object of terror among all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>“Indeed, who will have pity on you, Jerusalem, Or who will mourn for you, Or who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

<sup>6</sup>“You who have forsaken Me,” declares the LORD, “You keep going backward. So I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you; I am tired of relenting!

<sup>7</sup>“I will winnow them with a winnowing fork At the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy My people; They did not repent of their ways.

<sup>8</sup>“Their widows will be more numerous before Me Than the sand of the seas; I will bring against them, against the mother of a young man, A destroyer at noon; I will suddenly bring down on her Shock and horror.

<sup>9</sup>“She who gave birth to seven sons withers away; Her breathing is labored. Her sun has set while it was still day; She has been shamed and humiliated. So I will turn over their survivors to the sword Before their enemies,” declares the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Woe to me, my mother, that you have given birth to me As a man of strife and a man of contention to all the land! I have not lent, nor have people lent money to me, Yet everyone curses me.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said, “I will certainly set you free for purposes of good; I will certainly make the enemy plead with you In a time of disaster and a time of distress.

<sup>13</sup>“I will give your wealth and your treasures As plunder without cost, For all your sins And within all your borders.

<sup>14</sup>“Then I will make your enemies bring your possessions Into a land that you do not know; For a fire has been kindled in My anger, And it will burn upon you.”

Jeremiah's Prayer and God's Answer

<sup>15</sup>You know, LORD; Remember me, take notice of me, And take vengeance for me on my persecutors. Do not, in view of Your patience, take me away; Know that for Your sake I endure reproach.

<sup>16</sup>Your words were found and I ate them, And Your words became a joy to me and the delight of my heart; For I have been called by Your name, LORD God of armies.

<sup>17</sup>I did not sit in a circle of revelers and celebrate. Because of Your hand upon me I sat alone, For You filled me with indignation.

<sup>18</sup>Why has my pain been endless And my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will You indeed be to me like a deceptive stream With water that is unreliable?

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: “If you return, then I will restore you— You will stand before Me; And if you extract the precious from the worthless, You will become My spokesman. They, for their part, may turn to you, But as for you, you are not to turn to them.

<sup>20</sup>“Then I will make you to this people A fortified wall of bronze; And though they fight against you, They will not prevail over you; For I am with you to save you And rescue you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“So I will rescue you from the hand of the wicked, And I will redeem you from the grasp of the violent.”

Jeremiah 16

Distresses Foretold

<sup>4</sup>“They will die of deadly diseases, they will not be mourned or buried; they will be like dung on the surface of the ground. And they will perish by sword and famine, and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth.”

<sup>5</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “Do not enter a house of mourning, or go to mourn or to console them; for I have withdrawn My peace from this people,” declares the LORD, “and My favor and compassion.

<sup>6</sup>Both great people and small will die in this land; they will not be buried, people will not mourn for them, nor will anyone make cuts on himself or have his head shaved for them.

<sup>7</sup>People will not break bread in mourning for them, to comfort anyone for the dead, nor give them a cup of consolation to drink for anyone’s father or mother.

<sup>8</sup>Moreover, you shall not go into a house of feasting to sit with them to eat and drink.”

<sup>9</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I am going to eliminate from this place, before your eyes and in your time, the voice of rejoicing and the voice of joy, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride.

<sup>10</sup>“Now it will happen that, when you tell this people all these words, they will say to you, ‘For what reason has the LORD declared all this great disaster against us? And what is our wrongdoing, or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’

<sup>11</sup>Then you are to say to them, ‘It is because your forefathers have abandoned Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and have followed other gods, and served and worshiped them; but they have abandoned Me and have not kept My Law.

<sup>12</sup>You too have done evil, even more than your forefathers; for behold, each one of you is following the stubbornness of his own evil heart, without listening to Me.

<sup>13</sup>So I will hurl you off this land to the land which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you will serve other gods day and night, because I will show you no compassion.’

God Will Restore Them

<sup>14</sup>“Therefore behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’

<sup>15</sup>but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had banished them.’ For I will restore them to their own land which I gave to their fathers.

<sup>16</sup>“Behold, I am going to send for many fishermen,” declares the LORD, “and they will fish for them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and every hill and from the clefts of the rocks.

<sup>17</sup>For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their wrongdoing concealed from My eyes.

<sup>18</sup>I will first repay them double for their wrongdoing and their sin, because they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable idols and their abominations.”

<sup>19</sup>LORD, my strength and my stronghold, And my refuge in the day of distress, To You the nations will come From the ends of the earth and say, “Our fathers have inherited nothing but falsehood, Futility, and things of no benefit.”

<sup>21</sup>“Therefore behold, I am going to make them know— This time I will make them know My power and My might; And they will know that My name is the LORD.”

Jeremiah 17

The Deceitful Heart

<sup>3</sup>Mountain of Mine in the countryside, I will turn over your wealth and all your treasures as plunder, Your high places for sin throughout your borders.

<sup>4</sup>And you will, even of yourself, let go of your inheritance That I gave you; And I will make you serve your enemies In the land which you do not know; For you have kindled a fire in My anger Which will burn forever.

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind And makes flesh his strength, And whose heart turns away from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“For he will be like a bush in the desert, And will not see when prosperity comes, But will live in stony wastes in the wilderness, A land of salt that is not inhabited.

<sup>7</sup>“Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, And whose trust is the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>“For he will be like a tree planted by the water That extends its roots by a stream, And does not fear when the heat comes; But its leaves will be green, And it will not be anxious in a year of drought, Nor cease to yield fruit.

<sup>9</sup>“The heart is more deceitful than all else And is desperately sick; Who can understand it?

<sup>10</sup>“I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, To give to each person according to his ways, According to the results of his deeds.

<sup>11</sup>“As a partridge that hatches eggs which it has not laid, So is a person who makes a fortune, but unjustly; In the middle of his days it will abandon him, And in the end he will be a fool.”

<sup>12</sup>A glorious throne on high from the beginning Is the place of our sanctuary.

<sup>13</sup>LORD, the hope of Israel, All who abandon You will be put to shame. Those who turn away on earth will be written down, Because they have forsaken the fountain of living water, that is the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed; Save me and I will be saved, For You are my praise.

<sup>15</sup>Look, they keep saying to me, “Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now!”

<sup>16</sup>But as for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd following after You, Nor have I longed for the disastrous day; You Yourself know that the utterance of my lips Was in Your presence.

<sup>17</sup>Do not be a terror to me; You are my refuge in a day of disaster.

<sup>18</sup>Let those who persecute me be put to shame, but as for me, let me not be put to shame; Let them be dismayed, but let me not be dismayed. Bring on them a day of disaster, And crush them with double destruction!

The Sabbath Must Be Kept

<sup>19</sup>This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and stand at the public gate, through which the kings of Judah come in and go out, as well as at all the gates of Jerusalem;

<sup>20</sup>and say to them, ‘Listen to the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all inhabitants of Jerusalem who come in through these gates.

<sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Take care for yourselves, and do not carry any load on the Sabbath day or bring anything in through the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup>You shall not bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, just as I commanded your forefathers.

<sup>23</sup>Yet they did not listen or incline their ears, but stiffened their necks so as not to listen or accept discipline.

<sup>24</sup>“But it will come about, if you give your attention to Me,” declares the LORD, “to bring no load in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to keep the Sabbath day holy by doing no work on it,

<sup>25</sup>then there will come in through the gates of this city kings and officials sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever.

<sup>26</sup>They will come in from the cities of Judah and from the areas surrounding Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>But if you do not listen to Me, to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying a load and coming in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will set fire to its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem and not go out.” ’ ’ ”

Jeremiah 18

The Potter and the Clay

<sup>2</sup>“Arise and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will announce My words to you.”

<sup>3</sup>So I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was, making something on the wheel.

<sup>4</sup>But the vessel that he was making of clay was spoiled in the hand of the potter; so he remade it into another vessel, as it pleased the potter to make.

<sup>5</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>6</sup>“Am I not able, house of Israel, to deal with you as this potter does?” declares the LORD. “Behold, like the clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>At one moment I might speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom to uproot it, to tear it down, or to destroy it;

<sup>8</sup>if that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I planned to bring on it.

<sup>9</sup>Or at another moment I might speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom to build up or to plant it;

<sup>10</sup>if it does evil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will relent of the good with which I said that I would bless it.

<sup>11</sup>So now, speak to the men of Judah and against the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am forming a disaster against you and devising a plan against you. Now turn back, each of you from his evil way, and correct your ways and your deeds!”’

<sup>12</sup>But they will say, ‘It’s hopeless! For we are going to follow our own plans, and each of us will persist in the stubbornness of his evil heart.’

<sup>13</sup>“Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘Just ask among the nations, Who ever heard anything like this? The virgin of Israel Has done a most appalling thing.

<sup>14</sup>“Does the snow of Lebanon leave the rock of the open country alone? Or is the cold flowing water from a foreign land ever dried up?

<sup>15</sup>“For My people have forgotten Me, They burn incense to worthless gods. And they have stumbled in their ways, In the ancient roads, To walk on paths, Not on a highway, <sup>16</sup>To make their land a desolation, An object of perpetual hissing; Everyone who passes by it will be astonished And shake his head.

<sup>17</sup>‘Like an east wind I will scatter them Before the enemy; I will show them My back and not My face In the day of their disaster.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then they said, “Come and let’s devise plans against Jeremiah. Certainly the Law is not going to be lost by the priest, nor advice by the wise, nor the divine word by the prophet! Come, and let’s strike at him with our tongue, and let’s pay no attention to any of his words.”

<sup>19</sup>Give Your attention to me, LORD, And listen to what my opponents are saying!

<sup>20</sup>Should good be repaid with evil? For they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before You To speak good in their behalf, So as to turn Your wrath away from them.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore, give their children over to famine And turn them over to the power of the sword; And let their wives become childless and widowed. Let their men also be slaughtered to death, Their young men struck and killed by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup>May a cry be heard from their houses When You suddenly bring raiders upon them; For they have dug a pit to capture me And hidden snares for my feet.

<sup>23</sup>But You, LORD, know All their deadly schemes against me; Do not forgive their wrongdoing Or wipe out their sin from Your sight. But may they be overthrown before You; Deal with them in the time of Your anger!

Jeremiah 19

The Broken Jar

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Go and buy a potter’s earthenware jar, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests.

<sup>2</sup>Then go out to the Valley of Ben-hinnom, which is by the entrance of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I tell you,

<sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold I am going to bring a disaster upon this place, at which the ears of everyone that hears of it will tingle.

<sup>4</sup>Since they have abandoned Me and have made this place foreign, and have burned sacrifices in it to other gods that neither they nor their forefathers nor the kings of Judah had ever known, and since they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent

<sup>5</sup>and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, a thing which I did not command nor speak of, nor did it ever enter My mind;

<sup>6</sup>therefore, behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben-hinnom, but rather the Valley of Slaughter.

<sup>7</sup>And I will frustrate the planning of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those who seek their life; and I will make their carcasses food for the birds of the sky and the animals of the earth.

<sup>8</sup>I will also turn this city into an object of horror and hissing; everyone who passes by it will be appalled and hiss because of all its disasters.

<sup>9</sup>And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they will eat one another’s flesh during the siege and in the hardship with which their enemies and those who seek their life will torment them.” ’

<sup>10</sup>“Then you are to break the jar in the sight of the men who accompany you,

<sup>11</sup>and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “To the same extent I will break this people and this city, just as one breaks a potter’s vessel, which cannot again be repaired; and they will bury their dead in Topheth, because there is no other place for burial.

<sup>12</sup>This is how I will treat this place and its inhabitants,” declares the LORD, “so as to make this city like Topheth.

<sup>13</sup>The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like the place Topheth, because of all the houses on whose rooftops they burned sacrifices to all the heavenly lights and poured out drink offerings to other gods.” ’ ”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the courtyard of the LORD’s house and said to all the people,

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Behold, I am going to bring on this city and all its towns the entire disaster that I have declared against it, because they have stiffened their necks so as not to listen to My words.’ ”

Jeremiah 20

Pashhur Persecutes Jeremiah

<sup>1</sup>When Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer, who was chief overseer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, <sup>2</sup>Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put him in the stocks that were at the upper Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then on the next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, “Pashhur is not the name the LORD has called you, but rather Magor-missabib.

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am going to make you a horror to yourself and to all your friends; and while your eyes look on, they will fall by the sword of their enemies. So I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, and he will take them away as exiles to Babylon and will kill them with the sword.

<sup>5</sup>I will also give all the wealth of this city, all its produce and all its valuable things—even all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will hand over to their enemies, and they will plunder them, take them away, and bring them to Babylon.

<sup>6</sup>And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity; and you will enter Babylon, and there you will die and there you will be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have falsely prophesied.’ ”

Jeremiah's Complaint

<sup>7</sup>LORD, You persuaded me and I let myself be persuaded; You have overcome me and prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; Everyone mocks me.

<sup>8</sup>For each time I speak, I cry aloud; I proclaim violence and destruction, Because for me the word of the LORD has resulted In taunting and derision all day long.

<sup>9</sup>But if I say, “I will not remember Him Nor speak anymore in His name,” Then in my heart it becomes like a burning fire Shut up in my bones; And I am tired of holding it in, And I cannot endure it.

<sup>10</sup>For I have heard the whispering of many, “Terror on every side! Denounce him; let’s denounce him!” All my trusted friends, Watching for my fall, say: “Perhaps he will be persuaded, so that we may prevail against him And take our revenge on him.”

<sup>11</sup>But the LORD is with me like a powerful champion; Therefore my persecutors will stumble and not prevail. They will be put to great shame because they have failed, An everlasting disgrace that will not be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup>Yet, LORD of armies, who tests the righteous, Who sees the mind and the heart; Let me see Your vengeance on them, For to You I have disclosed my cause.

<sup>13</sup>Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD! For He has saved the soul of the needy one From the hand of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup>Cursed be the day when I was born; May the day when my mother gave birth to me not be blessed!

<sup>15</sup>Cursed be the man who brought the news To my father, saying, “A boy has been born to you!” And made him very happy.

<sup>16</sup>But may that man be like the cities Which the LORD overthrew without relenting, And may he hear an outcry in the morning And an alarm for war at noon;

<sup>17</sup>Because he did not kill me before birth, So that my mother would have been my grave, And her womb forever pregnant.

<sup>18</sup>Why did I ever come out of the womb To look at trouble and sorrow, So that my days have been spent in shame?

Jeremiah 21

Jeremiah's Message for Zedekiah

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Please inquire of the LORD in our behalf, because Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war against us; perhaps the LORD will deal with us in accordance with all His wonderful acts, so that the enemy will withdraw from us.”

<sup>3</sup>But Jeremiah said to them, “You shall say to Zedekiah as follows:

<sup>4</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I am going to turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you are making war against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the wall; and I will gather them into the middle of this city.

<sup>5</sup>And I Myself will make war against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, and in anger, wrath, and great indignation.

<sup>6</sup>I will also strike the inhabitants of this city, both the people and the animals; they will die of a great plague.

<sup>7</sup>Then afterward,” declares the LORD, “I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, and the people, that is, those who survive in this city from the plague, the sword, and the famine, over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to their enemies, and to those who seek their lives; and he will strike and kill them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them nor have pity nor compassion.” ’

<sup>8</sup>“You shall also say to this people, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death.

<sup>9</sup>Anyone who stays in this city will die by the sword, by famine, or by plague; but anyone who leaves and goes over to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live, and he will have his own life as plunder.

<sup>10</sup>For I have set My face against this city for harm and not for good,” declares the LORD. “It will be handed over to the king of Babylon and he will burn it with fire.” ’

<sup>11</sup>“Then say to the household of the king of Judah, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, <sup>12</sup>house of David, this is what the LORD says: “Administer justice every morning; And save the person who has been robbed from the power of his oppressor, So that My wrath will not spread like fire And burn, with no one to extinguish it, Because of the evil of their deeds.

<sup>13</sup>“Behold, I am against you, you inhabitant of the valley, You rocky plain,” declares the LORD, “You who say, ‘Who will come down against us? Or who will enter our dwellings?’

<sup>14</sup>“But I will punish you according to the results of your deeds,” declares the LORD, “And I will kindle a fire in its forest So that it may devour all its surroundings.” ’ ’ ”

Jeremiah 22

Warning of Jerusalem’s Fall

<sup>2</sup>and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits on David’s throne, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates.

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Do justice and righteousness, and save one who has been robbed from the power of his oppressor. And do not mistreat or do violence to the stranger, the orphan, or the widow; and do not shed innocent blood in this place.

<sup>4</sup>For if you will indeed perform this instruction, then kings will enter the gates of this house, sitting in David’s place on his throne, riding in chariots and on horses, the king himself, his servants, and his people.

<sup>5</sup>But if you will not obey these words, I swear by Myself,” declares the LORD, “that this house will become a place of ruins.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the LORD says concerning the house of the king of Judah: “You are like Gilead to Me, Like the summit of Lebanon; Yet most assuredly I will make you a wilderness, Cities that are not inhabited.

<sup>7</sup>“For I will set apart destroyers against you, Each with his weapons; And they will cut down your choicest cedars And throw them on the fire.

<sup>8</sup>“Many nations will pass by this city; and they will say to one another, ‘Why has the LORD done this to this great city?’

<sup>9</sup>Then they will answer, ‘Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD their God and bowed down to other gods and served them.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>Do not weep for the dead or mourn for him, But weep deeply for the one who goes away; For he will never return Or see his native land.

<sup>11</sup>For this is what the LORD says regarding Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who became king in the place of his father Josiah, who went out from this place: “He will never return there;

<sup>12</sup>but in the place where they took him into exile, there he will die and he will not see this land again.

Messages about the Kings

<sup>13</sup>“Woe to him who builds his house without righteousness, And his upstairs rooms without justice, Who uses his neighbor’s services without pay And does not give him his wages,

<sup>14</sup>Who says, ‘I will build myself a large house With spacious upstairs rooms, And cut out its windows, Paneling it with cedar and painting it bright red.’

<sup>15</sup>“Do you become a king because you are competing in cedar? Did your father not eat and drink And do justice and righteousness? Then it was well for him.

<sup>16</sup>“He pled the cause of the afflicted and the poor, Then it was well. Is that not what it means to know Me?” Declares the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“But your eyes and your heart Are intent only upon your own dishonest gain, And on shedding innocent blood, And on practicing oppression and extortion.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says regarding Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: “They will not mourn for him: ‘Oh, my brother!’ or, ‘Oh, sister!’ They will not mourn for him: ‘Oh, for the master!’ or, ‘Oh, for his splendor!’

<sup>19</sup>“He will be buried with a donkey’s burial, Dragged off and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>“Go up to Lebanon and cry out, And raise your voice in Bashan; Cry out also from Abarim, For all your lovers have been crushed.

<sup>21</sup>“I spoke to you in your prosperity; But you said, ‘I will not listen!’ This has been your way from your youth, That you have not obeyed My voice.

<sup>22</sup>“The wind will sweep away all your shepherds, And your lovers will go into captivity; Then you will certainly be ashamed and humiliated Because of all your wickedness.

<sup>23</sup>“You who live in Lebanon, Nested in the cedars, How you will groan when sharp pains come on you, Pain like a woman in childbirth!

<sup>24</sup>“As I live,” declares the LORD, “even if Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were a signet ring on My right hand, yet I would pull you off;

<sup>25</sup>and I will hand you over to those who are seeking your life, yes, to those of whom you are frightened, that is, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans.

<sup>26</sup>I will hurl you and your mother who gave birth to you into another country where you were not born, and there you will die.

<sup>27</sup>But as for the land to which they long to return, they will not return to it.

<sup>28</sup>“Is this man Coniah a despised, shattered jar? Or is he an undesirable vessel? Why have he and his descendants been hurled out And cast into a land that they had not known?

<sup>30</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘Write this man down as childless, A man who will not prosper in his days; For no man among his descendants will prosper Sitting on the throne of David Or ruling again in Judah.’ ”

Jeremiah 23

The Coming Messiah: the Righteous Branch

<sup>1</sup>“Woe to the shepherds who are causing the sheep of My pasture to perish and are scattering them!” declares the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says concerning the shepherds who are tending My people: “You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not been concerned about them; behold, I am going to call you to account for the evil of your deeds,” declares the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“Then I Myself will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their pasture, and they will be fruitful and multiply.

<sup>4</sup>I will also raise up shepherds over them and they will tend them; and they will not be afraid any longer, nor be terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“Behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “When I will raise up for David a righteous Branch; And He will reign as king and act wisely And do justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6</sup>“In His days Judah will be saved, And Israel will live securely; And this is His name by which He will be called, ‘The LORD Our Righteousness.’

<sup>7</sup>“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when they will no longer say, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought the sons of Israel up from the land of Egypt,’ <sup>8</sup>but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up and led the descendants of the household of Israel back from the north land and from all the countries where I had driven them.’ Then they will live on their own soil.”

False Prophets Denounced

<sup>9</sup>As for the prophets: My heart is broken within me, All my bones tremble; I have become like a drunken man, And like a man overcome by wine, Because of the LORD And because of His holy words.

<sup>11</sup>“For both prophet and priest are defiled; Even in My house I have found their wickedness,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“Therefore their way will be like slippery paths to them, They will be driven away into the gloom and fall down in it; For I will bring disaster upon them, The year of their punishment,” declares the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“Moreover, among the prophets of Samaria I saw an offensive thing: They prophesied by Baal and led My people Israel astray.

<sup>14</sup>“Also among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: The committing of adultery and walking in deceit; And they strengthen the hands of evildoers, So that no one has turned back from his wickedness. All of them have become to Me like Sodom, And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD of armies says concerning the prophets: ‘Behold, I am going to feed them wormwood And make them drink poisonous water, For from the prophets of Jerusalem Ungodliness has spread into all the land.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to you. They are leading you into futility; They tell a vision of their own imagination, Not from the mouth of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“They keep saying to those who despise Me, ‘The LORD has said, “You will have peace” ’; And as for everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart, They say, ‘Disaster will not come on you.’

<sup>18</sup>“But who has stood in the council of the LORD, That he should see and hear His word? Who has paid attention to His word and listened?

<sup>19</sup>“Behold, the storm of the LORD has gone forth in wrath, Even a whirling tempest; It will swirl down on the head of the wicked.

<sup>20</sup>“The anger of the LORD will not turn back Until He has performed and carried out the purposes of His heart; In the last days you will clearly understand it.

<sup>21</sup>“I did not send these prophets, But they ran. I did not speak to them, But they prophesied.

<sup>22</sup>“But if they had stood in My council, Then they would have announced My words to My people, And would have turned them back from their evil way And from the evil of their deeds.

<sup>23</sup>“Am I a God who is near,” declares the LORD, “And not a God far off?

<sup>24</sup>“Can a person hide himself in hiding places So that I do not see him?” declares the LORD. “Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?” declares the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy falsely in My name, saying, ‘I had a dream, I had a dream!’

<sup>26</sup>How long? Is there anything in the hearts of the prophets who prophesy falsehood, these prophets of the deceitfulness of their own heart,

<sup>27</sup>who intend to make My people forget My name by their dreams which they report to one another, just as their fathers forgot My name because of Baal?

<sup>28</sup>The prophet who has a dream may report his dream, but let him who has My word speak My word truthfully. What does straw have in common with grain?” declares the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“Is My word not like fire?” declares the LORD, “and like a hammer which shatters a rock?

<sup>30</sup>Therefore behold, I am against the prophets,” declares the LORD, “who steal My words from each other.

<sup>31</sup>Behold, I am against the prophets,” declares the LORD, “who use their tongues and declare, ‘The Lord declares!’

<sup>32</sup>Behold, I am against those who have prophesied false dreams,” declares the LORD, “and reported them and led My people astray by their lies and reckless boasting; yet I did not send them nor command them, nor do they provide this people the slightest benefit,” declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“Now when this people or the prophet or a priest asks you, saying, ‘What is the pronouncement of the LORD?’ then you shall say to them, ‘What pronouncement?’ The LORD declares, ‘I will abandon you.’

<sup>34</sup>Then as for the prophet or the priest or the people who say, ‘The pronouncement of the LORD,’ I will bring punishment upon that person and his household.

<sup>35</sup>This is what each one of you will say to his neighbor and to his brother: ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

<sup>36</sup>For you will no longer remember the pronouncement of the LORD, because every person’s own word will become the pronouncement, and you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of armies, our God.

<sup>37</sup>This is what you will say to that prophet: ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ and, ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

<sup>38</sup>And if you say, ‘The pronouncement of the LORD!’ for that reason the LORD says this: ‘Because you said this word, “The pronouncement of the LORD!” I have also sent word to you, saying, “You shall not say, “The pronouncement of the LORD!” ” ’

<sup>39</sup>Therefore behold, I will certainly forget you and thrust you away from My presence, along with the city which I gave you and your fathers.

<sup>40</sup>I will put an everlasting disgrace on you and an everlasting humiliation which will not be forgotten.”

Jeremiah 24

Baskets of Figs and the Returnees

<sup>1</sup>After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken into exile Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah with the craftsmen and metalworkers from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me: behold, two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, and the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten due to rottenness.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” And I said, “Figs: the good figs are very good, and the bad ones, very bad, which cannot be eaten due to rottenness.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans.

<sup>6</sup>For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land; and I will build them up and not overthrow them, and I will plant them and not uproot them.

<sup>7</sup>I will also give them a heart to know Me, for I am the LORD; and they will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me wholeheartedly.

<sup>8</sup>‘But like the bad figs which cannot be eaten due to rottenness,’ indeed, this is what the LORD says, ‘so will I give up Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and the ones who live in the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>I will make them an object of terror and an evil for all the kingdoms of the earth, as a disgrace and a proverb, a taunt and a curse in all the places where I will scatter them.

<sup>10</sup>And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague upon them until they are eliminated from the land which I gave to them and their forefathers.’ ”

Jeremiah 25

Prophecy of the Captivity

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon),

<sup>2</sup>the word which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets again and again, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear,

<sup>5</sup>saying, ‘Turn now, everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your deeds, and live on the land which the LORD has given to you and your forefathers forever and ever;

<sup>6</sup>and do not follow other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the work of your hands, then I will do you no harm.’

<sup>7</sup>Yet you have not listened to Me,” declares the LORD, “in order to provoke Me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore this is what the LORD of armies says: ‘Because you have not obeyed My words,

<sup>9</sup>behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land and against its inhabitants and against all these surrounding nations; and I will completely destroy them and make them an object of horror and hissing, and an everlasting place of ruins.

<sup>10</sup>Moreover, I will eliminate from them the voice of jubilation and the voice of joy, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

<sup>11</sup>This entire land will be a place of ruins and an object of horror, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

Babylon Will Be Judged

<sup>12</sup>“Then it will be when seventy years are completed I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation,” declares the LORD, “for their wrongdoing, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it an everlasting desolation.

<sup>13</sup>I will bring upon that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.

<sup>14</sup>(For many nations and great kings will make slaves of them, even them; and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the work of their hands.)’ ”

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from My hand and give it to all the nations to whom I send you, to drink from it.

<sup>16</sup>Then they will drink and loudly vomit and act insanely because of the sword that I am going to send among them.”

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup from the LORD’S hand and gave it to all the nations to whom the LORD sent me, to drink from it:

<sup>18</sup>To Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, and its kings and its officials, to make them places of ruins, objects of horror, hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;

<sup>20</sup>and to all the foreign people, all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines (that is, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod);

<sup>23</sup>and to Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who trim the corners of their hair;

<sup>24</sup>and to all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert;

<sup>25</sup>and to all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

<sup>26</sup>and to all the kings of the north, near and far, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the earth which are on the face of the ground; and the king of Sheshach shall drink it after them.

<sup>27</sup>“And you shall say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Drink, be drunk, vomit, fall down, and do not get up, because of the sword which I am sending among you.” ’

<sup>28</sup>And if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “You shall certainly drink!

<sup>29</sup>For behold, I am beginning to inflict disaster on this city which is called by My name, so should you be completely free from punishment? You will not be free from punishment, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth,” declares the LORD of armies.’

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore you shall prophesy against them all these words, and you shall say to them, ‘The LORD will roar from on high And raise His voice from His holy dwelling; He will roar forcefully against His fold. He will shout like those who tread the grapes, Against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup>‘A clamor has come to the end of the earth, Because the LORD has a controversy with the nations. He is entering into judgment with humanity; As for the wicked, He has turned them over to the sword,’ declares the LORD.”

<sup>33</sup>“Those put to death by the LORD on that day will be from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried; they will be like dung on the face of the ground.

<sup>34</sup>“Wail, you shepherds, and cry out; Wallow in the dust, you masters of the flock; For the days of your slaughter and your dispersions have come, And you will fall like a precious vessel.

Jeremiah 26

Cities of Judah Warned

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Stand in the courtyard of the LORD’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah who have come to worship in the LORD'S house all the words that I have commanded you to speak to them. Do not omit a word!

<sup>3</sup>Perhaps they will listen and everyone will turn from his evil way, and I will relent of the disaster which I am planning to inflict on them because of the evil of their deeds.'

<sup>4</sup>And you shall say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: "If you do not listen to Me, to walk in My Law which I have set before you,

<sup>5</sup>to listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have been sending to you again and again, but you have not listened;

<sup>6</sup>then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.' ' ' "

A Plot to Murder Jeremiah

<sup>7</sup>The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>Yet when Jeremiah finished speaking everything that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You must die!

<sup>9</sup>Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, "This house will be like Shiloh and this city will be in ruins, without inhabitant?" And all the people gathered to Jeremiah at the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD'S house.

<sup>11</sup>Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people, saying, "A death sentence for this man! For he has prophesied against this city, just as you have heard with your own ears!"

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.

<sup>13</sup>Now then, reform your ways and your deeds and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will relent of the disaster which He has pronounced against you.

<sup>14</sup>But as for me, behold, I am in your hands; do with me as is good and right in your sight.

<sup>15</sup>Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city and its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words so that you hear them.”

Jeremiah Is Spared

<sup>16</sup>Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “No death sentence for this man! For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.”

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Micah of Moresheth used to prophesy in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘This is what the LORD of armies has said: “Zion will be plowed like a field, And Jerusalem will become heaps of ruins, And the mountain of the house like the high places of a forest.”’

<sup>19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah actually put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and plead for the favor of the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which He had pronounced against them? But we are committing a great evil against our own lives!”

<sup>20</sup>Indeed, there was also a man who used to prophesy in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land words similar to all those of Jeremiah.

<sup>21</sup>When King Jehoiakim and all his warriors and all the officials heard his words, then the king sought to put him to death; but Uriah heard about it, and he was afraid, so he fled and went to Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>Then King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor and certain men with him, to Egypt.

<sup>23</sup>And they brought Uriah from Egypt and led him to King Jehoiakim, who killed him with a sword and threw his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

<sup>24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that he was not handed over to the people to put him to death.

Jeremiah 27

The Nations to Submit to Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying—

<sup>2</sup>this is what the LORD has said to me: “Make for yourself restraints and yokes and put them on your neck,

<sup>4</sup>Order them to go to their masters, saying, “This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “This is what you shall say to your masters:

<sup>5</sup>“I have made the earth, mankind, and the animals which are on the face of the earth by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and I will give it to the one who is pleasing in My sight.

<sup>6</sup>And now I have handed all these lands over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and I have also given him the animals of the field to serve him.

<sup>7</sup>All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings will make him their servant.

<sup>8</sup>‘And it will be that the nation or the kingdom which will not serve him, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with plague,’ declares the LORD, ‘until I have eliminated it by his hand.

<sup>9</sup>And as for you, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers who talk to you, saying, “You will not serve the king of Babylon.”

<sup>10</sup>For they are prophesying a lie to you in order to remove you far from your land; and I will drive you away and you will perish.

<sup>11</sup>But the nation that will bring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let remain on its land,’ declares the LORD, ‘and they will cultivate it and live in it.’ ” ” ”

<sup>12</sup>I spoke words like all these to Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and live!

<sup>13</sup>Why should you die, you and your people, by the sword, famine, and plague, as the LORD has spoken to the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

<sup>14</sup>So do not listen to the words of the prophets who talk to you, saying, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying a lie to you;

<sup>15</sup>for I have not sent them,” declares the LORD, “but they are prophesying falsely in My name, so that I will drive you away and that you will perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you.”

<sup>16</sup> Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying: “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, “Behold, the vessels of the LORD’s house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon”; for they are prophesying a lie to you.

<sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live! Why should this city become a place of ruins?

<sup>18</sup>But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, have them now plead with the LORD of armies that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD and the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem do not go to Babylon.

<sup>20</sup>which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he led into exile Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

<sup>21</sup>Yes, this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem:

<sup>22</sup>“They will be brought to Babylon and will be there until the day I visit them,” declares the LORD. “Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.” ’ ’ ’

Jeremiah 28

Hananiah’s False Prophecy

<sup>1</sup>Now in the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the prophet the son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me at the house of the LORD in the sight of the priests and all the people, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

<sup>3</sup>Within two years I am going to bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from this place and brought to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>I am also going to bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' ”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the sight of the priests and in the sight of all the people who were standing at the house of the LORD,

<sup>6</sup>and Jeremiah the prophet said, “Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house and all the exiles, from Babylon to this place.

<sup>7</sup>Yet hear now this word which I am going to speak so that you and all the people can hear it!

<sup>8</sup>The prophets who were before me and before you from ancient times also prophesied against many lands and against great kingdoms regarding war, disaster, and plague.

<sup>9</sup>As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, then that prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it.

<sup>11</sup>Hananiah spoke in the sight of all the people, saying, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Even so within two full years I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations.’ ” Then Jeremiah the prophet went his way.

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“Go and speak to Hananiah, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says: “You have broken the yokes of wood, but in their place you have made yokes of iron.”

<sup>14</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him. And I have also given him the animals of the field.” ’ ”

<sup>15</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen now, Hananiah: the LORD has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in a lie.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am going to remove you from the face of the earth. This year you are going to die, because you spoke falsely against the LORD.’ ”

<sup>17</sup>So Hananiah the prophet died in the same year, in the seventh month.

Jeremiah 29

Message to the Exiles

<sup>1</sup>Now these are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exile, the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup>(This was after King Jeconiah and the queen mother, the high officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metalworkers had departed from Jerusalem.)

<sup>3</sup>The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

<sup>6</sup>Take wives and father sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may give birth to sons and daughters; and grow in numbers there and do not decrease.

<sup>7</sup>Seek the prosperity of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD in its behalf; for in its prosperity will be your prosperity.’

<sup>8</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Do not let your prophets who are in your midst or your diviners deceive you, and do not listen to their interpretations of your dreams which you dream.

<sup>9</sup>For they prophesy falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them,’ declares the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“For this is what the LORD says: ‘When seventy years have been completed for Babylon, I will visit you and fulfill My good word to you, to bring you back to this place.

<sup>11</sup>For I know the plans that I have for you,’ declares the LORD, ‘plans for prosperity and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you.

<sup>13</sup>And you will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

<sup>14</sup>I will let Myself be found by you,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will bring you back to the place from where I sent you into exile.’

<sup>15</sup>“Because you have said, ‘The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon’—

<sup>16</sup>for this is what the LORD says concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who live in this city, your brothers who did not go with you into exile—

<sup>17</sup>this is what the LORD of armies says: ‘Behold, I am sending upon them the sword, famine, and plague; and I will make them like rotten figs that cannot be eaten due to rottenness.

<sup>18</sup>I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with plague; and I will make them an object of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse and an object of horror and hissing, and a disgrace among all the nations where I have driven them,

<sup>19</sup>because they have not listened to My words,’ declares the LORD, ‘which I sent to them again and again by My servants the prophets; but you did not listen,’ declares the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>‘You, therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

<sup>21</sup>‘This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying to you falsely in My name: “Behold, I am going to hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will kill them before your eyes.

<sup>22</sup>Because of them a curse will be used by all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon, saying, ‘May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,’

<sup>23</sup>because they acted foolishly in Israel, and committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and falsely spoke words in My name which I did not command them. I am He who knows, and a witness,” declares the LORD.’”

<sup>25</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to the priest Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying, <sup>26</sup>“The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, to be the overseer of the house of the LORD for every insane person who prophesies, to put him in the stocks and in the iron collar.

<sup>27</sup>So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who prophesies to you,

<sup>28</sup>seeing that he has sent word to us in Babylon, saying, ‘The exile will be long; build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their produce’?” ’ ”

<sup>29</sup>Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter to Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>30</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>31</sup>“Send word to all the exiles, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, although I did not send him, and he has made you trust in a lie,”

<sup>32</sup>therefore this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am going to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants; he will not have anyone living among this people, and he will not see the good that I am going to do for My people,” declares the LORD, “because he has spoken falsely against the LORD.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 30

Liberation from Captivity Promised

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Write all the words which I have spoken to you in a book.

<sup>3</sup>For behold, days are coming,’ declares the LORD, ‘when I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel and Judah.’ The LORD says, ‘I will also bring them back to the land that I gave to their forefathers, and they shall take possession of it.’ ”

<sup>4</sup>Now these are the words which the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

<sup>5</sup>“For this is what the LORD says: ‘I have heard a sound of terror, Of fear, and there is no peace.

<sup>6</sup>‘Ask now, and see If a male can give birth. Why do I see every man With his hands on his waist, as a woman in childbirth? And why have all faces turned pale?

<sup>7</sup>‘Woe, for that day is great, There is none like it; And it is the time of Jacob’s distress, Yet he will be saved from it.

<sup>8</sup>‘It shall come about on that day,’ declares the LORD of armies, ‘that I will break his yoke from their necks and will tear to pieces their restraints; and strangers will no longer make them their slaves.

<sup>9</sup>But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

<sup>10</sup>‘And do not fear, Jacob My servant,’ declares the LORD, ‘And do not be dismayed, Israel; For behold, I am going to save you from far away, And your descendants from the land of their captivity. And Jacob will return and be at peace, without anxiety, And no one will make him afraid.

<sup>11</sup>‘For I am with you,’ declares the LORD, ‘to save you; For I will completely destroy all the nations where I have scattered you, Only I will not destroy you completely. But I will discipline you fairly And will by no means leave you unpunished.’

<sup>12</sup>“For this is what the LORD says: ‘Your broken limb is irreparable, And your wound is incurable.

<sup>13</sup>‘There is no one to plead your cause; No healing for your sore, No recovery for you.

<sup>14</sup>‘All your lovers have forgotten you, They do not seek you; For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, With the punishment of a cruel one, Because your wrongdoing is great, And your sins are numerous.

<sup>15</sup>“Why do you cry out over your injury? Your pain is incurable. Because your wrongdoing is great And your sins are numerous, I have done these things to you.

<sup>16</sup>“Therefore all who devour you will be devoured; And all your adversaries, every one of them, will go into captivity; And those who plunder you will become plunder, And all who plunder you I will turn into plunder.

<sup>17</sup>“For I will restore you to health And I will heal you of your wounds,’ declares the LORD, ‘Because they have called you an outcast, saying: “It is Zion; no one cares for her.”’

Restoration of Jacob

<sup>18</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob And have compassion on his dwellings; And the city will be rebuilt on its ruins, And the palace will stand on its rightful place.

<sup>19</sup>“From them will come a song of thanksgiving And the voices of those who celebrate; And I will multiply them and they will not decrease; I will honor them and they will not be insignificant.

<sup>20</sup>“Their children also will be as before, And their congregation will be established before Me; And I will punish all their oppressors.

<sup>21</sup>“Their leader shall be one of them, And their ruler will come out from their midst; And I will bring him near and he shall approach Me; For who would dare to risk his life to approach Me?’ declares the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>“You shall be My people, And I will be your God.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>Behold, the tempest of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, A sweeping tempest; It will whirl upon the head of the wicked.

<sup>24</sup>The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back Until He has performed and accomplished The intent of His heart. In the latter days you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31

Israel's Mourning Turned to Joy

<sup>1</sup>“At that time,” declares the LORD, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people.”

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says: “The people who survived the sword Found grace in the wilderness— Israel, when it went to find its rest.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD appeared to him long ago, saying, “I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore I have drawn you out with kindness.

<sup>4</sup>“I will build you again and you will be rebuilt, Virgin of Israel! You will take up your tambourines again, And go out to the dances of the revelers.

<sup>5</sup>“Again you will plant vineyards On the hills of Samaria; The planters will plant And will enjoy the fruit.

<sup>6</sup>“For there will be a day when watchmen On the hills of Ephraim call out, ‘Arise, and let’s go up to Zion, To the LORD our God.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “Sing aloud with joy for Jacob, And be joyful with the chief of the nations; Proclaim, give praise, and say, ‘LORD, save Your people, The remnant of Israel!’

<sup>8</sup>“Behold, I am bringing them from the north country, And I will gather them from the remote parts of the earth, Among them those who are blind and those who limp, The pregnant woman and she who is in labor, together; They will return here as a great assembly.

<sup>9</sup>“They will come with weeping, And by pleading I will bring them; I will lead them by streams of waters, On a straight path on which they will not stumble; For I am a father to Israel, And Ephraim is My firstborn.”

<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you nations, And declare it in the coastlands far away, And say, “He who scattered Israel will gather him, And He will keep him as a shepherd keeps his flock.”

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD has ransomed Jacob And redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.

<sup>12</sup>“They will come and shout for joy on the height of Zion, And they will be radiant over the bounty of the LORD— Over the grain, the new wine, the oil, And over the young of the flock and the herd. And their life will be like a watered garden, And they will never languish again.

<sup>13</sup>“Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance, And the young men and the old together; For I will turn their mourning into joy And comfort them, and give them joy for their sorrow.

<sup>14</sup>“I will refresh the soul of the priests with abundance, And My people will be satisfied with My goodness,” declares the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Restrain your voice from weeping And your eyes from tears; For your work will be rewarded,” declares the LORD, “And they will return from the land of the enemy.

<sup>17</sup>“There is hope for your future,” declares the LORD, “And your children will return to their own territory.

<sup>18</sup>“I have certainly heard Ephraim grieving, ‘You have disciplined me, and I was corrected, Like an untrained calf; Bring me back that I may be restored, For You are the LORD my God.

<sup>19</sup>‘For after I turned back, I repented; And after I was instructed, I slapped my thigh; I was ashamed and also humiliated Because I bore the shame of my youth.’

<sup>20</sup>“Is Ephraim My dear son? Is he a delightful child? Indeed, as often as I have spoken against him, I certainly still remember him; Therefore My heart yearns for him; I will certainly have mercy on him,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“Set up roadmarks for yourself, Place guideposts for yourself; Direct your mind to the highway, The way by which you went. Return, O virgin of Israel, Return to these your cities.

<sup>22</sup>“How long will you waver, You rebellious daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth: A woman will shelter a man.”

<sup>23</sup>This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Once again they will speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities when I restore their fortunes, ‘The LORD bless you, O place of righteousness, O holy hill!’

<sup>24</sup>Judah and all its cities will live together in it, the farmers and those who travel with flocks.

<sup>26</sup>At this I awoke and looked, and my sleep had been pleasant to me.

A New Covenant

<sup>27</sup>“Behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of mankind and the seed of animals.

<sup>28</sup>And just as I have watched over them to uproot them, tear them down, ruin, destroy, and bring disaster on them, so I will watch over them to build and to plant them,” declares the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“In those days they will no longer say, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, But it is the children’s teeth that have become blunt.’

<sup>30</sup>But everyone will die for his own wrongdoing; each person who eats the sour grapes, his own teeth will become blunt.

<sup>31</sup>“Behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, <sup>32</sup>not like the covenant which I made with their fathers on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, although I was a husband to them,” declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“For this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” declares the LORD: “I will put My law within them and write it on their heart; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

<sup>34</sup>They will not teach again, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them,” declares the LORD, “for I will forgive their wrongdoing, and their sin I will no longer remember.”

<sup>35</sup>This is what the LORD says, He who gives the sun for light by day And the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, Who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— The LORD of armies is His name:

<sup>36</sup>“If this fixed order departs From Me,” declares the LORD, “Then the descendants of Israel also will cease To be a nation before Me forever.”

<sup>37</sup>This is what the LORD says: “If the heavens above can be measured And the foundations of the earth searched out below, Then I will also reject all the descendants of Israel For everything that they have done,” declares the LORD.

<sup>38</sup>“Behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when the city will be rebuilt for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

<sup>39</sup>The measuring line will go out farther straight ahead, to the hill Gareb; then it will turn to Goah.

<sup>40</sup>And the entire valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields as far as the brook Kidron to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD; it will not be uprooted or overthrown ever again.”

Jeremiah 32

Jeremiah Imprisoned

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>2</sup>Now at that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard, which was at the house of the king of Judah,

<sup>3</sup>because Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, “Why do you prophesy, saying, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will take it;

<sup>4</sup>and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but he will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye.

<sup>5</sup>Then he will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will be there until I visit him,” declares the LORD. “If you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed” ’?”

<sup>6</sup>And Jeremiah said, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>7</sup>“Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you, saying, “Buy for yourself my field which is at Anathoth, for you have the right of redemption to buy it.” ’

<sup>8</sup>Then my uncle’s son Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard in accordance with the word of the LORD and said to me, ‘Buy my field, please, that is at Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for you have the right of possession and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“So I bought the field which was in Anathoth from Hanamel my uncle’s son, and I weighed out the silver for him, seventeen shekels of silver.

<sup>10</sup>And I signed and sealed the deed, and called in witnesses, and weighed out the silver on the scales.

<sup>11</sup>Then I took the deeds of purchase, both the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions and the open copy;

<sup>12</sup>and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the sight of Hanamel my uncle's son and in the sight of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, in the sight of all the Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>14</sup>"This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: "Take these deeds, this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, so that they may last a long time."

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: "Houses and fields and vineyards will again be purchased in this land." '

Jeremiah Prays and God Explains

<sup>16</sup>"After giving the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying,

<sup>17</sup>"Oh, Lord GOD! Behold, You Yourself have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm! Nothing is too difficult for You,

<sup>18</sup>who shows mercy to thousands, but repays the wrongdoing of fathers into the laps of their children after them, great and mighty God. The LORD of armies is His name;

<sup>19</sup>great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of mankind, giving to everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds;

<sup>20</sup>who has accomplished signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and even to this day both in Israel and among mankind; and You have made a name for Yourself, as at this day.

<sup>21</sup>You brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders, and with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror;

<sup>22</sup>and You gave them this land, which You swore to their forefathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>23</sup>They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey Your voice or walk in Your Law; they did not do anything that You commanded them to do; therefore You have made all this disaster happen to them.

<sup>24</sup>Behold, the assault ramps have reached the city to take it; and the city has been handed over to the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, the famine, and the plague; and what You have spoken has come to pass; and behold, You see it.

<sup>25</sup>Yet You have said to me, Lord GOD, “Buy for yourself the field with money and call in witnesses”—although the city has been handed over to the Chaldeans.’ ”

<sup>26</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>27</sup>“Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too difficult for Me?”

<sup>28</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am going to hand this city over to the Chaldeans and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it.

<sup>29</sup>And the Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will enter and set this city on fire and burn it, with the houses where people have offered incense to Baal on their roofs and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger.

<sup>30</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have been doing only evil in My sight since their youth; for the sons of Israel have been only provoking Me to anger by the work of their hands,” declares the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“Indeed this city has been to Me a provocation of My anger and My wrath since the day that they built it, even to this day, so that it should be removed from My sight,

<sup>32</sup>because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah which they have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their leaders, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup>They have turned their back to Me and not their face; though I taught them, teaching again and again, they would not listen to accept discipline.

<sup>34</sup>But they put their detestable things in the house which is called by My name, to defile it.

<sup>35</sup>They built the high places of Baal that are in the Valley of Ben-hinnom to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire to Molech, which I had not commanded them, nor had it entered My mind that they should do this abomination, to mislead Judah to sin.

<sup>36</sup>“Now therefore the LORD God of Israel says the following concerning this city of which you say, ‘It has been handed over to the king of Babylon by sword, by famine, and by plague’:

<sup>37</sup>Behold, I am going to gather them out of all the lands to which I have driven them in My anger, in My wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them back to this place and have them live in safety.

<sup>38</sup>They shall be My people, and I will be their God;

<sup>39</sup>and I will give them one heart and one way, so that they will fear Me always, for their own good and for the good of their children after them.

<sup>40</sup>I will make an everlasting covenant with them that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; and I will put the fear of Me in their hearts, so that they will not turn away from Me.

<sup>41</sup>I will rejoice over them to do them good and will faithfully plant them in this land with all My heart and all My soul.

<sup>42</sup>For this is what the LORD says: ‘Just as I brought all this great disaster on this people, so I am going to bring on them all the good that I am promising them.

<sup>43</sup>And fields will be purchased in this land of which you say, “It is a desolation, without man or animal; it has been handed over to the Chaldeans.”

<sup>44</sup>People will buy fields for money, sign and seal deeds, and call in witnesses in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev; for I will restore their fortunes,’ declares the LORD.”

Jeremiah 33

Restoration Promised

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says, He who made the earth, the LORD who formed it to create it, He whose name is the LORD:

<sup>3</sup>‘Call to Me and I will answer you, and I will tell you great and mighty things, which you do not know.’

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel says concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah which have been torn down to make a defense against the assault ramps and the sword:

<sup>5</sup>‘While they are coming to fight the Chaldeans and to fill their houses with the bodies of people whom I have struck down in My anger and My wrath, and I have hidden My face from this city because of all their wickedness:

<sup>6</sup>Behold, I am going to bring to it healing and a remedy, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth.

<sup>7</sup>And I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and will rebuild them as they were at first.

<sup>8</sup>And I will cleanse them from all their wrongdoing by which they have sinned against Me, and I will forgive all their wrongdoings by which they have sinned against Me and revolted against Me.

<sup>9</sup>It will be to Me a name of joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, which will hear of all the good that I do for them, and they will be frightened and tremble because of all the good and all the peace that I make for it.'

<sup>10</sup>"This is what the LORD says: 'Yet again there will be heard in this place, of which you say, "It is a waste, without man and without animal," that is, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, without man and without inhabitant and without animal,

<sup>11</sup>the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, "Give thanks to the LORD of armies, For the LORD is good, For His mercy is everlasting," as they bring a thanksgiving offering into the house of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were at first,' says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>"This is what the LORD of armies says: 'There will again be in this place which is waste, without man or animal, and in all its cities, a pasture for shepherds who rest their flocks.

<sup>13</sup>In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the Negev, in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them,' says the LORD.

The Davidic Kingdom

<sup>14</sup>'Behold, days are coming,' declares the LORD, 'when I will fulfill the good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>15</sup>In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch of David sprout; and He shall execute justice and righteousness on the earth.

<sup>16</sup>In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety; and this is the name by which it will be called: the LORD is our righteousness.’

<sup>17</sup>For this is what the LORD says: ‘David shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel;

<sup>18</sup>and the Levitical priests shall not lack a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to prepare sacrifices continually.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>20</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘If you can break My covenant for the day and My covenant for the night, so that day and night do not occur at their proper time,

<sup>21</sup>then My covenant with David My servant may also be broken, so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levitical priests, My ministers.

<sup>22</sup>As the heavenly lights cannot be counted, and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of My servant David and the Levites who serve Me.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“Have you not observed what these people have asserted, saying, ‘The two families which the LORD chose, He has rejected them’? So they despise My people as no longer being a nation in their sight.

<sup>25</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘If My covenant for day and night does not continue, and I have not established the fixed patterns of heaven and earth,

<sup>26</sup>then I would reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, so as not to take from his descendants rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But I will restore their fortunes and have mercy on them.’ ”

Jeremiah 34

A Prophecy against Zedekiah

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, with all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his control and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am handing this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

<sup>3</sup>And as for you, you will not escape from his hand, for you will assuredly be caught and handed over to him; and you will see the king of Babylon eye to eye, and he will speak with you face to face, and you will go to Babylon.’”

<sup>4</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, Zedekiah king of Judah! This is what the LORD says concerning you: ‘You will not die by the sword.

<sup>5</sup>You will die in peace; and as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will burn spices for you; and they will mourn for you, crying, “Oh, my lord!”’ For I have spoken the word,” declares the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem

<sup>7</sup>when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and all the remaining cities of Judah, that is, Lachish and Azekah, for they alone remained as fortified cities among the cities of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem, to proclaim release to them:

<sup>9</sup>that each person was to set his male servant free and each his female servant, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, so that no one would keep them, his Jewish brother or sister, in bondage.

<sup>10</sup>And all the officials and all the people obeyed who had entered into the covenant that each person was to set his male servant free and each his female servant, so that no one would keep them in bondage any longer; they obeyed, and set them free.

<sup>11</sup>But afterward they turned around and took back the male servants and the female servants whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male servants and as female servants.

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: ‘I made a covenant with your forefathers on the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, saying,

<sup>14</sup>“At the end of seven years each of you shall set free his Hebrew brother who has been sold to you and has served you for six years, and you shall send him out free from you.” But your forefathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear to Me.

<sup>15</sup>Although recently you had turned and done what is right in My sight, each one proclaiming release to his neighbor, and you had made a covenant before Me in the house which is called by My name.

<sup>16</sup>Yet you turned and profaned My name, and each person took back his male servant and each his female servant whom you had set free according to their desire, and you brought them into subjection to be your male and female servants.’

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming release, each one to his brother and each to his neighbor. Behold, I am proclaiming a release to you,’ declares the LORD, ‘to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine; and I will make you a terror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>18</sup>I will give the people who have violated My covenant, who have not fulfilled the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts—

<sup>19</sup>the officials of Judah and the officials of Jerusalem, the high officials and the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf—

<sup>20</sup>I will hand them over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives. And their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the animals of the earth.

<sup>21</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials I will also hand over to their enemies and to those who seek their lives, and to the army of the king of Babylon which has withdrawn from you.

<sup>22</sup>Behold, I am going to give a command,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will bring them back to this city, and they will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.’ ”

Jeremiah 35

The Rechabites' Obedience

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Go to the house of the Rechabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.”

<sup>3</sup>So I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons, and all the household of the Rechabites,

<sup>4</sup>and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was next to the chamber of the officials, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the doorkeeper.

<sup>5</sup>Then I set before the men of the house of the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, “Drink wine!”

<sup>6</sup>But they said, “We will not drink wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, ‘You shall not drink wine, you or your sons, forever.

<sup>7</sup>You shall not build a house, and you shall not sow seed nor plant a vineyard, nor own one; but you shall live in tents all your days, so that you may live many days in the land where you live as strangers.’

<sup>8</sup>And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, not to drink wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters, <sup>9</sup>nor to build ourselves houses to live in; and we do not have a vineyard, a field, or seed.

<sup>10</sup>But we have lived only in tents, and have obeyed and have done according to all that our father Jonadab commanded us.

<sup>11</sup>However, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against the land, we said, ‘Come, and let’s go to Jerusalem away from the army of the Chaldeans and the army of the Arameans.’ So we have lived in Jerusalem.”

Judah Rebuked

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Go and say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not accept instruction by listening to My words?” declares the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab have been followed, which he commanded his sons: not to drink wine. And they do not drink wine to this day, for they have obeyed their father's command. But I have spoken to you again and again, yet you have not listened to Me.

<sup>15</sup>Also I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, sending them again and again, saying: 'Turn now every person from his evil way and amend your deeds, and do not follow other gods to worship them. Then you will live in the land which I have given to you and to your forefathers; but you have not inclined your ear or listened to Me.

<sup>16</sup>Indeed, the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have followed the command of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to Me.' ” ’

<sup>17</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says, the God of armies, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I am bringing on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I spoke to them but they did not listen, and I have called them but they did not answer.' ”

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: 'Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, kept all his commands, and done according to all that he commanded you,

<sup>19</sup>therefore this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: "Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before Me always." ’ ”

Jeremiah 36

Jeremiah's Scroll Read in the Temple

<sup>1</sup>In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Take a scroll and write on it all the words which I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations, from the day I first spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day.

<sup>3</sup>Perhaps the house of Judah will listen to all the disaster which I plan to carry out against them, so that every person will turn from his evil way; then I will forgive their wrongdoing and their sin.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him.

<sup>5</sup>Jeremiah then commanded Baruch, saying, “I am restricted; I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>So you go and read from the scroll, which you have written at my dictation, the words of the LORD to the people at the LORD’S house on a day of fasting. And you shall also read them to all the people of Judah who come from their cities.

<sup>7</sup>Perhaps their pleading will come before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people.”

<sup>8</sup>So Baruch the son of Neriah acted in accordance with all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD’S house.

<sup>9</sup>Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>Then Baruch read to all the people from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD’S house.

<sup>11</sup>Now when Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard all the words of the LORD from the book,

<sup>12</sup>he went down to the king’s house, into the scribe’s chamber. And behold, all the officials were sitting there—Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.

<sup>13</sup>And Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read from the book to the people.

<sup>14</sup>Then all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, who was the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, “Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read to the people and come.” So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

<sup>15</sup>And they said to him, “Sit down, please, and read it to us.” So Baruch read it to them.

<sup>16</sup>When they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one to another. And they said to Baruch, “We will certainly report all these words to the king.”

<sup>17</sup>Then they asked Baruch, saying, “Tell us, please, how did you write all these words? Was it at Jeremiah’s dictation?”

<sup>18</sup>And Baruch said to them, “He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the book.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the officials said to Baruch, “Go, hide yourself, you and Jeremiah, and do not let anyone know where you are.”

The Scroll Is Burned

<sup>20</sup>So they came to the king in the courtyard, but they had deposited the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they reported all the words to the king.

<sup>21</sup>Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it to the king as well as to all the officials who were standing beside the king.

<sup>22</sup>Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning in the brazier before him.

<sup>23</sup>And when Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king cut it with a scribe's knife and threw it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all of the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.

<sup>24</sup>Yet the king and all his servants who heard all these words did not tremble in fear, nor did they tear their garments.

<sup>25</sup>Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

<sup>26</sup>And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

The Scroll Is Replaced

<sup>27</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the scroll and the words which Baruch had written at the dictation of Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>28</sup>“Take again another scroll and write on it all the previous words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah burned.

<sup>29</sup>And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, “This is what the LORD says: “You have burned this scroll, saying, ‘Why have you written on it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will make mankind and animals disappear from it?’ ”

<sup>30</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: “He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be thrown out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night.

<sup>31</sup>I will also punish him, his descendants, and his servants for their wrongdoing, and I will bring on them and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the people of Judah all the disaster that I have declared to them—but they did not listen.” ’ ’

<sup>32</sup>Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch the son of Neriah, and he wrote on it at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah 37

Jeremiah Warns against Trust in Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup>Now Zedekiah the son of Josiah whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made king in the land of Judah, reigned as king in place of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim.

<sup>2</sup>But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD which He spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup>Yet King Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and the priest Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “Please pray to the LORD our God in our behalf.”

<sup>4</sup>Now Jeremiah was still coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison.

<sup>5</sup>Meanwhile, Pharaoh’s army had set out from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who had been besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, <sup>7</sup>“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel says: “This is what you are to say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: “Behold, Pharaoh’s army, which has come out to help you, is going to return to its own land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Chaldeans will return and fight against this city, and they will capture it and burn it with fire.”’

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not deceive yourselves, saying, “The Chaldeans will certainly go away from us,” for they will not go.

<sup>10</sup>For even if you had defeated the entire army of Chaldeans who were fighting against you, and there were only wounded men left among them, each man in his tent, they would rise up and burn this city with fire.’ ”

Jeremiah Imprisoned

<sup>11</sup>Now it happened when the army of the Chaldeans had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army,

<sup>12</sup>that Jeremiah left Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin in order to take possession of some property there among the people.

<sup>13</sup>While he was at the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah the son of Hananiah was there; and he arrested Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are deserting to the Chaldeans!”

<sup>14</sup>But Jeremiah said, “A lie! I am not deserting to the Chaldeans”; yet he would not listen to him. So Irijah arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

<sup>15</sup>Then the officials were angry at Jeremiah and they beat him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had made it into the prison.

<sup>16</sup>For Jeremiah had come into the dungeon, that is, the vaulted cell; and Jeremiah stayed there many days.

<sup>17</sup>Now King Zedekiah sent men and took him out; and in his palace the king secretly asked him and said, “Is there a word from the LORD?” And Jeremiah said, “There is!” Then he said, “You will be handed over to the king of Babylon!”

<sup>18</sup>Moreover, Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “In what way have I sinned against you, or your servants, or this people, that you have put me in prison?

<sup>19</sup>And where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land’?”

<sup>20</sup>But now, please listen, my lord the king; please let my plea come before you and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, so that I will not die there.”

<sup>21</sup>Then King Zedekiah gave a command, and they placed Jeremiah in custody in the courtyard of the guardhouse, and gave him a loaf of bread daily from the bakers’ street, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

Jeremiah 38

Jeremiah Thrown into the Cistern

<sup>1</sup>Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah heard the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Anyone who stays in this city will die by the sword, by famine, or by plague; but anyone who surrenders to the Chaldeans will live and have his own life as plunder, and stay alive.’

<sup>3</sup>This is what the LORD says: “This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon and he will capture it.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the officials said to the king, “Please have this man put to death, since he is discouraging the men of war who are left in this city and all the people, by speaking words like these to them; for this man is not seeking the well-being of this people, but rather their harm.”

<sup>6</sup>So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchijah the king’s son, which was in the courtyard of the guardhouse; and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water but only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

<sup>8</sup>and Ebed-melech went out from the king's palace and spoke to the king, saying,

<sup>9</sup>"My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet whom they have thrown into the cistern; and he will die right where he is because of the famine, for there is no more bread in the city."

<sup>11</sup>So Ebed-melech took the men under his authority and went into the king's palace to a place beneath the storeroom, and took from there worn-out clothes and worn-out rags, and let them down by ropes into the cistern to Jeremiah.

<sup>12</sup>Then Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Now put these worn-out clothes and rags under your armpits under the ropes"; and Jeremiah did so.

<sup>13</sup>So they pulled Jeremiah out with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern, and Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

Zedekiah Seeks an Answer from God

<sup>14</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent word and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance that is in the house of the LORD; and the king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something; do not hide anything from me."

<sup>15</sup>And Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? Besides, if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

<sup>16</sup>But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in secret, saying, “As the LORD lives, who made this life for us, I certainly will not put you to death, nor will I hand you over to these men who are seeking your life.”

<sup>17</sup>So Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD God of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘If you will indeed surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then you will live, this city will not be burned with fire, and you and your household will survive.

<sup>18</sup>But if you do not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans; and they will burn it with fire, and you yourself will not escape from their hands.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Then King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am in fear of the Jews who have deserted to the Chaldeans, for they may hand me over to them, and they will abuse me.”

<sup>20</sup>But Jeremiah said, “They will not turn you over. Please obey the LORD in what I am saying to you, so that it may go well for you and you may live.

<sup>21</sup>But if you keep refusing to surrender, this is the word which the LORD has shown me:

<sup>22</sup>‘Behold, all of the women who have been left in the palace of the king of Judah are going to be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon; and those women will say, “Your close friends Have misled and overpowered you; While your feet were sunk in the mire, They turned back.”

<sup>23</sup>They are also going to bring out all your wives and your sons to the Chaldeans, and you yourself will not escape from their hand, but will be seized by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned with fire.’ ”

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Let no one know about these words, and you will not die.

<sup>25</sup>But if the officials hear that I have talked with you and come to you and say to you, ‘Tell us now what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us and we will not put you to death,’

<sup>26</sup>then you are to say to them, ‘I was presenting my plea before the king, not to make me return to the house of Jonathan to die there.’ ”

<sup>27</sup>Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him. So he reported to them in accordance with all these words which the king had commanded; and they stopped speaking with him, since the conversation had not been overheard.

<sup>28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39

Jerusalem Captured

<sup>1</sup> Now when Jerusalem was captured in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came to Jerusalem and laid siege to it;

<sup>2</sup>in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the city wall was breached.

<sup>4</sup>And when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, they fled and left the city at night by way of the king’s garden through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah.

<sup>5</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and they took him and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

<sup>6</sup>Then the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes at Riblah; the king of Babylon also slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.

<sup>7</sup>He then blinded Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in shackles of bronze to bring him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>The Chaldeans also burned the king's palace and the houses of the people with fire, and they tore down the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>And as for the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had deserted to him and the rest of the people who remained, Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard took them into exile in Babylon.

Jeremiah Spared

<sup>11</sup>Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave orders regarding Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, saying,

<sup>12</sup>"Take him and look after him, and do not do anything harmful to him, but rather deal with him just as he tells you."

<sup>14</sup>they even sent word and took Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the guardhouse and entrusted him to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him home. So he stayed among the people.

<sup>15</sup>Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was confined in the courtyard of the guardhouse, saying,

<sup>16</sup>"Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: "Behold, I am going to bring My words on this city for disaster and not for prosperity; and they will take place before you on that day.

<sup>17</sup>But I will save you on that day,” declares the LORD, “and you will not be handed over to the men of whom you are afraid.

<sup>18</sup>For I will assuredly rescue you, and you will not fall by the sword; but you will have your own life as plunder, because you have trusted in Me,” declares the LORD.’ ”

Jeremiah 40

Jeremiah Remains in Judah

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan captain of the bodyguard had released him from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup>Now the captain of the bodyguard had taken Jeremiah and said to him, “The LORD your God promised this disaster against this place;

<sup>3</sup>and the LORD has brought it and done just as He promised. Because you people sinned against the LORD and did not listen to His voice, this thing has happened to you.

<sup>4</sup>But now, behold, I am setting you free today from the chains that are on your hands. If you would prefer to come with me to Babylon, come along, and I will look after you; but if you would prefer not to come with me to Babylon, do not come. Look, the whole land is before you; go wherever it seems good and right for you to go.”

<sup>5</sup>As Jeremiah was still not going back, he said, “Go on back then to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or else go anywhere it seems right for you to go.” So the captain of the bodyguard gave him a ration and a gift, and let him go.

<sup>6</sup>Then Jeremiah went to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Now all the commanders of the forces that were in the field, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam over the land, and that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been exiled to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup>So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, along with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, both they and their men.

<sup>9</sup>Then Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, “Do not be afraid of serving the Chaldeans; stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, so that it may go well for you.

<sup>10</sup>Now as for me, behold, I am going to stay in Mizpah to stand for you before the Chaldeans who come to us; but as for you, gather wine, summer fruit, and oil, and put them in your storage vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken over.”

<sup>11</sup>Likewise, also all the Jews who were in Moab and among the sons of Ammon and in Edom, and who were in all the other countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant for Judah, and that he had appointed over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan.

<sup>12</sup>Then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been scattered and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

<sup>13</sup>Now Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, <sup>14</sup>and said to him, “Are you well aware that Baalis the king of the sons of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

<sup>15</sup>Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, “Let me go and kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know! Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered and the remnant of Judah would perish?”

<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “Do not do this thing, for you are telling a lie about Ishmael.”

Jeremiah 41

Gedaliah Is Murdered

<sup>1</sup>Now in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, along with ten men, came to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. While they were eating bread together there in Mizpah,

<sup>2</sup>Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him rose up, and struck and killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword and put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

<sup>3</sup>Ishmael also struck and killed all the Jews who were with him, that is with Gedaliah in Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

<sup>4</sup>Now it happened on the next day after the killing of Gedaliah, when no one knew about it,

<sup>6</sup>Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah left Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went; and as he met them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!”

<sup>7</sup>Yet it turned out that as soon as they came inside the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them into the cistern.

<sup>8</sup>But ten men who were found among them said to Ishmael, “Do not put us to death, for we have supplies of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the field.” So he refrained and did not put them to death along with their companions.

<sup>9</sup>Now as for the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men whom he had struck and killed because of Gedaliah, it was the one that King Asa had constructed on account of Baasha, king of Israel; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.

<sup>10</sup>Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had put in the custody of Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and proceeded to cross over to the sons of Ammon.

Johanan Rescues the People

<sup>11</sup>But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him heard about all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done.

<sup>12</sup>So they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and they found him by the large pool that is in Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup>Now as soon as all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him, they were joyful.

<sup>14</sup>So all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

<sup>15</sup>But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the sons of Ammon.

<sup>16</sup>Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, after he had struck and killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, that is, the men who were soldiers, the women, the children, and the high officials, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

<sup>17</sup>And they went and stayed in Geruth Chimham, which is beside Bethlehem, in order to proceed into Egypt

<sup>18</sup>because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, since Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had struck and killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

Jeremiah 42

Warning against Going to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Then all the commanders of the forces, Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the small to the great approached

<sup>2</sup>and said to Jeremiah the prophet, “Please let our pleading come before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God for all this remnant—since we have been left only a few out of many, just as your own eyes now see us—

<sup>3</sup>that the LORD your God will tell us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard you. Behold, I am going to pray to the LORD your God in accordance with your words; and I will tell you the whole message which the LORD gives you as an answer. I will not withhold a word from you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with the whole message with which the LORD your God will send you to us.

<sup>6</sup>Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will listen to the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well for us when we listen to the voice of the LORD our God.”

<sup>8</sup>Then he called for Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him, and for all the people from the small to the great,

<sup>9</sup>and said to them, “This is what the LORD says, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your plea before Him:

<sup>10</sup>‘If you will indeed stay in this land, then I will build you up and not tear you down, and I will plant you and not uproot you; for I will relent of the disaster that I have inflicted on you.

<sup>11</sup>Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you are now fearing; do not be afraid of him,’ declares the LORD, ‘for I am with you to save you and rescue you from his hand.

<sup>12</sup>I will also show you compassion, so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your own soil.

<sup>13</sup>But if you are going to say, “We will not stay in this land,” so as not to listen to the voice of the LORD your God,

<sup>14</sup>saying, “No, but we will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see war, or hear the sound of a trumpet, or hunger for bread, and we will stay there”;

<sup>15</sup>then in that case listen to the word of the LORD, you remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “If you really set your minds to enter Egypt and go in to reside there,

<sup>16</sup>then the sword, of which you are afraid, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are anxious, will follow closely after you there in Egypt, and you will die there.

<sup>17</sup>So all the people who set their minds to go to Egypt to reside there will die by the sword, by famine, or by plague; and they will have no refugees or survivors from the disaster that I am going to bring on them.” ’ ’

<sup>18</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “As My anger and wrath have gushed out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so My wrath will gush out on you when you enter Egypt. And you will become a curse, an object of horror, an imprecation, and a disgrace; and you will not see this place again.”

<sup>19</sup>The LORD has spoken to you, you remnant of Judah, “Do not go to Egypt!” You know for certain that I have admonished you today.

<sup>20</sup>For you have only deceived yourselves; for it is you who sent me to the LORD your God, saying, “Pray for us to the LORD our God; and whatever the LORD our God says, tell us so, and we will do it.”

<sup>21</sup>So I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the LORD your God in whatever He has sent me to tell you.

<sup>22</sup>And now you shall know for certain that you will die by the sword, by famine, or by plague in the place where you desire to go to reside.

Jeremiah 43

In Egypt Jeremiah Warns of Judgment

<sup>1</sup>But as soon as Jeremiah, whom the LORD their God had sent to them, had finished telling all the people all the words of the LORD their God—that is, all these words—

<sup>2</sup>Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are telling a lie! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You are not to enter Egypt to reside there’;

<sup>3</sup>but Baruch the son of Neriah is inciting you against us in order to hand us over to the Chaldeans, so they will put us to death or exile us to Babylon!”

<sup>4</sup>So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD to stay in the land of Judah.

<sup>5</sup>Instead, Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took the entire remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations to which they had been scattered, in order to reside in the land of Judah—

<sup>7</sup>and they entered the land of Egypt (for they did not obey the voice of the LORD) and went in as far as Tahpanhes.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

<sup>10</sup>and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I am going to send men and get My servant Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and I am going to set his throne over these stones that I have hidden; and he will spread his canopy over them.

<sup>11</sup>He will also come and strike the land of Egypt; those who are meant for death will be given over to death, and those for captivity to captivity, and those for the sword to the sword.

<sup>12</sup>And I shall set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn them and take them captive. So he will wrap himself with the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself with his garment, and he will depart from there safely.

<sup>13</sup>He will also smash to pieces the obelisks of Heliopolis, which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire.” ’ ”

Jeremiah 44

Conquest of Egypt Predicted

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt, those who were living in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and the land of Pathros, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘You yourselves have seen all the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are in ruins and no one lives in them,

<sup>3</sup>because of their wickedness which they committed to provoke Me to anger by continuing to burn sacrifices and to serve other gods whom they had not known, neither they, you, nor your fathers.

<sup>4</sup>Yet I sent you all My servants the prophets again and again, saying, “Oh, do not do this abominable thing which I hate.”

<sup>5</sup>But they did not listen or incline their ears to turn from their wickedness, so as not to burn sacrifices to other gods.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore My wrath and My anger gushed out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, so they have become ruins and a desolation as it is this day.

<sup>7</sup>Now then, this is what the LORD God of armies, the God of Israel says: “Why are you doing great harm to yourselves, to eliminate from yourselves man and woman, child and infant from among Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant,

<sup>8</sup>provoking Me to anger with the works of your hands, burning sacrifices to other gods in the land of Egypt where you are entering to reside, so that you may be eliminated and become a curse and a disgrace among all the nations of the earth?

<sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah and the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>10</sup>Yet they have not become contrite even to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in My Law or My statutes, which I placed before you and before your fathers.”’

<sup>11</sup>“Therefore this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Behold, I am going to set My face against you for a disaster, even to eliminate all Judah.

<sup>12</sup>And I will take away the remnant of Judah who have set their minds on entering the land of Egypt to reside there, and they will all meet their end in the land of Egypt; they will fall by the sword or meet their end by famine. From the small to the great, they will die by the sword and famine; and they will become a curse, an object of horror, an imprecation, and a disgrace.

<sup>13</sup>And I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, just as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, with famine, and with plague.

<sup>14</sup>So there will be no survivor or refugee for the remnant of Judah who have entered the land of Egypt to reside there and then to return to the land of Judah, to which they are longing to return to live; for none will return except a few refugees.’”

<sup>15</sup>Then all the men who were aware that their wives were burning sacrifices to other gods, along with all the women who were standing by, as a large assembly, including all the people who were living in Pathros in the land of Egypt, responded to Jeremiah, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“As for the message that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you!

<sup>17</sup>But we will certainly carry out every word that has proceeded from our mouths, by burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, just as we ourselves, our forefathers, our kings, and our leaders did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then we had plenty of food and were well off and saw no misfortune.

<sup>18</sup>But since we stopped burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything, and have met our end by the sword and by famine.”

<sup>19</sup>“And,” said the women, “when we were burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, was it without our husbands that we made for her sacrificial cakes in her image, and poured out drink offerings to her?”

Disaster for the Jews

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and women—even to all the people who were giving him such an answer—saying,

<sup>21</sup>“As for the smoking sacrifices that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your forefathers, your kings and your leaders, and the people of the land, did the LORD not remember them, and did all of this not come into His mind?

<sup>22</sup>So the LORD was no longer able to endure it, because of the evil of your deeds, because of the abominations which you have committed; so your land has become a place of ruins, an object of horror, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as it is this day.

<sup>23</sup>Since you have burned sacrifices and have sinned against the LORD and not obeyed the voice of the LORD nor walked in His Law, His statutes, or His testimonies, therefore this disaster has happened to you, as it has this day.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!

<sup>25</sup>This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘As for you and your wives, you have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled it with your hands, saying, “We will certainly perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.” By all means fulfill your vows, and be sure to perform your vows!’

<sup>26</sup>In return, hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are living in the land of Egypt: ‘Behold, I have sworn by My great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that My name shall never be invoked again by the mouth of anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord GOD lives.”

<sup>27</sup>Behold, I am watching over them for harm and not for good, and all the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will meet their end by the sword or by famine until they are completely gone.

<sup>28</sup>Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah few in number. Then all the remnant of Judah who have gone to the land of Egypt to reside there will know whose word will stand, Mine or theirs.

<sup>29</sup>And this will be the sign to you,’ declares the LORD, ‘that I am going to punish you in this place, so that you may know that My words will assuredly stand against you for harm.’

<sup>30</sup>This is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am going to hand Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies, to those who seek his life, just as I handed Zedekiah king of Judah over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and was seeking his life.’ ”

Jeremiah 45

Message to Baruch

<sup>1</sup> This is the message which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at Jeremiah's dictation, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying:

<sup>3</sup> "You said, "Oh, woe to me! For the LORD has added grief to my pain; I am weary with my groaning and have found no rest." "

<sup>4</sup> This is what you are to say to him: "This is what the LORD says: "Behold, what I have built I am going to tear down, and what I have planted I am going to uproot, that is, all the people of the land."

<sup>5</sup> But as for you, are you seeking great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I am going to bring disaster on all flesh,' declares the LORD, 'but I will give your life to you as plunder in all the places where you may go.' "

Jeremiah 46

Defeat of Pharaoh Foretold

<sup>8</sup>Egypt rises like the Nile, And like the rivers whose waters surge; And He has said, "I will rise and cover that land; I will destroy the city and its inhabitants."

<sup>9</sup>Go up, you horses, and drive wildly, you chariots, So that the warriors may march forward: Cush and Put, who handle the shield, And the Lydians, who handle and bend the bow.

<sup>10</sup>For that day belongs to the Lord GOD of armies, A day of vengeance, so as to avenge Himself on His foes; And the sword will devour and be satisfied, And drink its fill of their blood; For there will be a slaughter for the Lord GOD of armies, In the land of the north at the river Euphrates.

<sup>11</sup>Go up to Gilead and obtain balm, Virgin daughter of Egypt! You have used many remedies in vain; There is no healing for you.

<sup>12</sup>The nations have heard of your shame, And the earth is full of your cry of distress; For one warrior has stumbled over another, And both of them have fallen down together.

<sup>13</sup> This is the message which the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to strike the land of Egypt:

<sup>14</sup>"Declare in Egypt and proclaim in Migdol, Proclaim also in Memphis and Tahpanhes; Say, 'Take your stand and get yourself ready, For the sword has devoured those around you.'

<sup>15</sup>"Why have your powerful ones been cut down? They do not stand because the LORD has thrust them away.

<sup>16</sup>"They have repeatedly stumbled; Indeed, they have fallen, one against another. Then they said, 'Get up, and let's go back To our own people and our native land, Away from the sword of the oppressor!'

<sup>18</sup>“As I live,” declares the King, Whose name is the LORD of armies, “One certainly shall come who is like Tabor among the mountains, Or like Carmel by the sea.

<sup>19</sup>“Make your baggage ready for exile, Daughter living in Egypt, For Memphis will become a desolation; It will be destroyed and deprived of inhabitants.

<sup>21</sup>“Also her mercenaries in her midst Are like fattened calves, For they too have turned away and have fled together; They did not stand their ground. For the day of their disaster has come upon them, The time of their punishment.

<sup>22</sup>“Its sound moves along like a serpent; For they move on like an army And come to her as woodcutters with axes.

<sup>23</sup>“They have cut down her forest,” declares the LORD; “Certainly it will no longer be found, Even though they are more numerous than locusts And are without number.

<sup>24</sup>“The daughter of Egypt has been put to shame, Turned over to the power of the people of the north.”

<sup>25</sup>The LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Behold, I am going to punish Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt along with her gods and her kings, indeed, Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

<sup>26</sup>I shall hand them over to those who are seeking their lives, that is, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to his officers. Afterward, however, it will be inhabited as in the days of old,” declares the LORD.

<sup>27</sup>“But as for you, Jacob My servant, do not fear, Nor be dismayed, Israel! For, see, I am going to save you from far away, And your descendants from the land of their captivity; And Jacob will return and be undisturbed And secure, with no one making him afraid.

<sup>28</sup>“Jacob My servant, do not fear,” declares the LORD, “For I am with you. For I will make a complete destruction of all the nations Where I have driven you, Yet I will not make a complete destruction of you; But I will correct you properly And by no means leave you unpunished.”

Jeremiah 47

Prophecy against Philistia

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Behold, waters are going to rise from the north And become an overflowing torrent, And overflow the land and everything that is in it, The city and those who live in it; And the people will cry out, And every inhabitant of the land will wail.

<sup>5</sup>“Baldness has come upon Gaza; Ashkelon has been destroyed. Remnant of their valley, How long will you gash yourself?

<sup>6</sup>“Ah, sword of the LORD, How long will you not be quiet? Withdraw into your sheath; Rest and stay still.

<sup>7</sup>“How can it be quiet, When the LORD has given it an order? Against Ashkelon and against the sea shore— There He has summoned it.”

Jeremiah 48

Prophecy against Moab

<sup>1</sup>Concerning Moab. This is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “Woe to Nebo, for it has been destroyed; Kiriathaim has been put to shame, it has been captured; The high stronghold has been put to shame and shattered.

<sup>2</sup>“There is no longer praise for Moab; In Heshbon they have devised disaster against her: ‘Come and let’s cut her off from being a nation!’ You too, Madmen, will be silenced; The sword will follow you.

<sup>6</sup>“Flee, save yourselves, So that you may be like a juniper in the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup>“For because of your trust in your own achievements and treasures, You yourself will also be captured; And Chemosh will go off into exile Together with his priests and his leaders.

<sup>8</sup>“A destroyer will come to every city, So that no city will escape; The valley also will be ruined And the plateau will be destroyed, As the LORD has said.

<sup>9</sup>“Give wings to Moab, For she will flee away; And her cities will become a desolation, Without inhabitants in them.

<sup>10</sup>“Cursed is the one who does the LORD’s work negligently, And cursed is the one who restrains his sword from blood.

<sup>11</sup>“Moab has been at ease since his youth; He has also been peaceful, like wine on its dregs, And he has not been poured from vessel to vessel, Nor has he gone into exile. Therefore he retains his flavor, And his aroma has not changed.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will send to him those who tip vessels, and they will tip him over, and they will pour out his vessels and smash his jars.

<sup>13</sup>And Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.

<sup>15</sup>“Moab has been destroyed and men have gone up to his cities; His choicest young men have also gone down to the slaughter,” Declares the King, whose name is the LORD of armies.

<sup>16</sup>“The disaster of Moab will soon come, And his catastrophe has hurried quickly.

<sup>17</sup>“Mourn for him, all you who live around him, And all of you who know his name; Say, ‘How the mighty scepter has been broken, A staff of splendor!’

<sup>18</sup>“Come down from your glory And sit on the parched ground, O daughter living in Dibon, For the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, He has ruined your strongholds.

<sup>19</sup>“Stand by the road and keep watch, You inhabitant of Aroer; Ask him who flees and her who escapes And say, ‘What has happened?’

<sup>20</sup>“Moab has been put to shame, for it has been shattered. Wail and cry out; Declare by the Arnon That Moab has been destroyed.

<sup>26</sup>“Make him drunk, for he has become arrogant toward the LORD; so Moab will vomit, and he also will become a laughingstock.

<sup>27</sup>Now was Israel not a laughingstock to you? Or was he caught among thieves? For whenever you speak about him you shake your head in scorn.

<sup>28</sup>“Leave the cities and live among the rocky cliffs, You inhabitants of Moab, And be like a dove that nests Beyond the mouth of the chasm.

<sup>30</sup>“I know his fury,” declares the LORD, “But it is futile; His idle boasts have accomplished nothing.

<sup>31</sup>“Therefore I will wail for Moab, For all of Moab I will cry out; I will moan for the men of Kir-heres.

<sup>32</sup>“More than the weeping for Jazer I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah! Your tendrils stretched across the sea, They reached to the sea of Jazer; Upon your summer fruits and your grape harvest The destroyer has fallen.

<sup>33</sup>“So joy and rejoicing are removed From the fruitful field, and from the land of Moab. And I have eliminated the wine from the wine presses; No one will tread them with shouting, The shouting will not be shouts of joy.

<sup>34</sup>From the outcry at Heshbon to Elealeh, to Jahaz they have raised their voice, from Zoar to Horonaim, and to Eglath-shelishiyah; for even the waters of Nimrim will become desolate.

<sup>35</sup>And I will put an end to Moab,” declares the LORD, “the one who offers sacrifice on the high place and the one who burns incense to his gods.

<sup>37</sup>For every head is shaved bald, and every beard cut short; there are gashes on all the hands, and sackcloth around the waists.

<sup>38</sup>On all the housetops of Moab and in its public squares there is mourning everywhere; for I have broken Moab like an undesirable vessel,” declares the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>“How shattered it is! How they have wailed! How Moab has turned his back—he is ashamed! So Moab will become a laughingstock and an object of terror to all around him.”

<sup>41</sup>“Kerioth has been captured And the strongholds have been seized, So the hearts of the warriors of Moab on that day Will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

<sup>42</sup>“Moab will be destroyed from being a people Because he has become arrogant toward the LORD.

<sup>44</sup>“The one who flees from the terror Will fall into the pit, And the one who climbs up out of the pit Will be caught in the snare; For I will bring upon her, upon Moab, The year of their punishment,” declares the LORD.

<sup>45</sup>“In the shadow of Heshbon The fugitives stand without strength; For a fire has spread out from Heshbon And a flame from the midst of Sihon, And it has devoured the forehead of Moab And the scalps of the loud revelers.

<sup>46</sup>“Woe to you, Moab! The people of Chemosh have perished; For your sons have been taken away captive, And your daughters into captivity.

<sup>47</sup>“Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab In the latter days,” declares the LORD. This is the extent of the judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah 49

Prophecy against Ammon

<sup>1</sup>Concerning the sons of Ammon. This is what the LORD says: “Does Israel have no sons? Or has he no heirs? Why then has Malcam taken possession of Gad, And his people settled in its cities?

<sup>2</sup>“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “When I will cause an alarm of war to be heard Against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon; And it will become a desolate heap, And her towns will be set on fire. Then Israel will take possession of his possessors,” Says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“How you boast about the valleys! Your valley is flowing away, You backsliding daughter Who trusts in her treasures, saying, ‘Who can come against me?’

<sup>5</sup>“Behold, I am going to bring terror upon you,” Declares the Lord GOD of armies, “From all directions around you; And you will be driven away one after another, With no one to gather the fugitives together.

<sup>6</sup>“But afterward I will restore The fortunes of the sons of Ammon,” Declares the LORD.

Prophecy against Edom

<sup>7</sup>Concerning Edom. This is what the LORD of armies says: “Is there no longer any wisdom in Teman? Has good advice been lost by the prudent? Has their wisdom decayed?

<sup>8</sup>“Flee away, turn back, dwell in the depths, You inhabitants of Dedan, For I will bring the disaster of Esau upon him At the time I punish him.

<sup>9</sup>“If grape pickers came to you, Would they not leave gleanings? If thieves came by night, They would destroy only what was sufficient for them.

<sup>10</sup>“But I have stripped Esau bare, I have uncovered his hiding places So that he will not be able to conceal himself; His offspring have been destroyed along with his brothers And his neighbors, and he no longer exists.

<sup>11</sup>“Leave your orphans behind, I will keep them alive; And let your widows trust in Me.”

<sup>12</sup>For this is what the LORD says: “Behold, those who were not sentenced to drink the cup will certainly drink it, so are you the one who will be held completely blameless? You will not be held blameless, but you will certainly drink it.

<sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by Myself,” declares the LORD, “that Bozrah will become an object of horror, a disgrace, a wasteland, and a curse; and all its cities will become permanent ruins.”

<sup>16</sup>“As for the terror you cause, The arrogance of your heart has deceived you, You who live in the clefts of the rock, Who occupy the height of the hill. Though you make your nest as high as an eagle’s, I will bring you down from there,” declares the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>“Edom will become an object of horror; everyone who passes by it will be appalled and will hiss at all its wounds.

<sup>18</sup>Like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah with its neighbors,” says the LORD, “no one will live there, nor will anyone of mankind reside in it.

<sup>19</sup>Behold, one will come up like a lion from the thicket of the Jordan to a perennially watered pasture; for in an instant I will chase him away from it, and I will appoint over it whoever is chosen. For who is like Me, and who will summon Me into court? And who then is the shepherd who can stand against Me?”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has planned against Edom, and His purposes which He has in mind against the inhabitants of Teman: they will certainly drag them off, even the little ones of the flock; He will certainly make their pasture desolate because of them.

<sup>21</sup>The earth has quaked at the noise of their downfall. There is an outcry! The noise of it has been heard at the Red Sea.

<sup>22</sup>Behold, He will mount up and swoop like an eagle, and spread out His wings against Bozrah; and the hearts of the warriors of Edom on that day will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Prophecy against Damascus

<sup>23</sup>Concerning Damascus: “Hamath and Arpad are put to shame, For they have heard bad news; They despair. There is anxiety at the sea, It cannot be calmed.

<sup>24</sup>“Damascus has become helpless; She has turned away to flee, And panic has gripped her; Distress and labor pains have seized her Like a woman in childbirth.

<sup>25</sup>“How the city of praise has not been deserted, The town of My joy!

<sup>26</sup>“Therefore, her young men will fall in her streets, And all the men of war will perish on that day,” declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>27</sup>“I will set fire to the wall of Damascus, And it will devour the fortified palace of Ben-hadad.”

Prophecy against Kedar and Hazor

<sup>29</sup>“They will take away their tents and their flocks; They will carry off for themselves Their tent curtains, all their goods and their camels, And they will call out to one another, ‘Horror on every side!’

<sup>30</sup>“Run away, flee! Dwell in the depths, You inhabitants of Hazor,” declares the LORD; “For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has formed a plan against you And devised a scheme against you.

<sup>31</sup>“Arise, go up against a nation which is at ease, Which lives securely,” declares the LORD. “It has no gates or bars; They dwell alone.

<sup>32</sup>“Their camels will become plunder, And their many livestock for spoils, And I will scatter to all the winds those who cut the corners of their hair; And I will bring their disaster from every side,” declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>“Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, A desolation forever; No one will live there, Nor will anyone of mankind reside in it.”

Prophecy against Elam

<sup>34</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying:

<sup>35</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies says: ‘Behold, I am going to break the bow of Elam, The finest of their might.

<sup>36</sup>‘I will bring upon Elam the four winds From the four ends of heaven, And will scatter them to all these winds; And there will be no nation To which the outcasts of Elam will not go.

<sup>37</sup>‘So I will shatter Elam before their enemies And before those who seek their lives; And I will bring disaster upon them, Even My fierce anger,’ declares the LORD, ‘And I will send the sword after them Until I have consumed them.

<sup>38</sup>‘Then I will set My throne in Elam, And eliminate from there the king and officials,’ Declares the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>‘But it will come about in the last days That I will restore the fortunes of Elam,’ ” Declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 50

Prophecy against Babylon

<sup>2</sup>“Declare and proclaim among the nations. Proclaim it and lift up a flag, Do not conceal it. Say, ‘Babylon has been captured, Bel has been put to shame, Marduk has been shattered; Her idols have been put to shame, her images have been shattered.’

<sup>3</sup>For a nation has come up against her from the north; it will make her land an object of horror, and there will be no inhabitant in it. Whether people or animals, they have wandered off, they have gone!

<sup>4</sup>“In those days and at that time,” declares the LORD, “the sons of Israel will come, they and the sons of Judah as well; they will go along weeping as they go, and it will be the LORD their God whom they will seek.

<sup>5</sup>They will ask for the way to Zion, turning their faces in its direction; they will come so that they may join themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>“My people have become lost sheep; Their shepherds have led them astray. They have made them turn aside on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill, They have forgotten their resting place.

<sup>7</sup>“All who found them have devoured them; And their adversaries have said, ‘We are not guilty, Since they have sinned against the LORD who is the habitation of righteousness, The LORD, the hope of their fathers.’

<sup>8</sup>“Wander away from the midst of Babylon And go out from the land of the Chaldeans; Be like male goats at the head of the flock.

<sup>9</sup>“For behold, I am going to rouse and bring up against Babylon A contingent of great nations from the land of the north, And they will draw up their battle lines against her; From there she will be taken captive. Their arrows will be like an expert warrior Who does not return empty-handed.

<sup>10</sup>“Chaldea will become plunder; All who plunder her will have enough,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“Because you are glad, because you are jubilant, You who pillage My heritage, Because you skip about like a threshing heifer And neigh like stallions, <sup>12</sup>Your mother will be greatly ashamed, She who gave you birth will be humiliated. Behold, she will be the least of the nations, A wilderness, a dry land and a desert.

<sup>13</sup>“Because of the wrath of the LORD she will not be inhabited, But she will be completely desolate; Everyone who passes by Babylon will be horrified And will hiss because of all her wounds.

<sup>14</sup>“Draw up your battle lines against Babylon on every side, All of you who bend the bow; Shoot at her, do not spare your arrows, For she has sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>“Raise your battle cry against her on every side! She has given herself up, her towers have fallen, Her walls have been torn down. For this is the vengeance of the LORD: Take vengeance on her; As she has done to others, so do to her.

<sup>16</sup>“Eliminate the sower from Babylon And the one who wields the sickle at the time of harvest; From the sword of the oppressor Each of them will turn back to his own people And each of them will flee to his own land.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: ‘Behold, I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land, just as I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>And I will bring Israel back to his pasture and he will graze on Carmel and Bashan, and his desire will be satisfied in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>In those days and at that time,’ declares the LORD, ‘search will be made for the wrongdoing of Israel, but there will be none; and for the sins of Judah, but they will not be found; for I will forgive those whom I leave as a remnant.’

<sup>21</sup>“Against the land of Merathaim, go up against it, And against the inhabitants of Pekod. Kill and completely destroy them,” declares the LORD, “And do according to everything that I have commanded you.

<sup>23</sup>“How the hammer of the whole earth Has been cut off and broken! How Babylon has become An object of horror among the nations!

<sup>24</sup>“I set a trap for you and you were also caught, Babylon, While you yourself were not aware; You have been found and also seized Because you have engaged in conflict with the LORD.”

<sup>25</sup>The LORD has opened His armory And has brought out the weapons of His indignation, For it is a work of the Lord GOD of armies In the land of the Chaldeans.

<sup>28</sup>There is a sound of fugitives and refugees from the land of Babylon, To declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, Vengeance for His temple.

<sup>29</sup>“Summon many against Babylon, All those who bend the bow: Encamp against her on every side, Let there be no escape. Repay her according to her work; According to all that she has done, so do to her; For she has become arrogant against the LORD, Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, And all her men of war will perish on that day,” declares the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“Behold, I am against you, arrogant one,” Declares the Lord GOD of armies, “For your day has come, The time when I will punish you.

<sup>32</sup>“The arrogant one will stumble and fall With no one to raise him up; And I will set fire to his cities, And it will devour all his surroundings.”

<sup>33</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: “The sons of Israel are oppressed, And the sons of Judah as well; And all who took them captive have held them firmly, They have refused to let them go.

<sup>34</sup>“Their Redeemer is strong, the LORD of armies is His name; He will vigorously plead their case So that He may bring rest to their land, But turmoil to the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>35</sup>“A sword against the Chaldeans,” declares the LORD, “And against the inhabitants of Babylon And against her leaders and her wise men!

<sup>38</sup>“A drought on her waters, and they will be dried up! For it is a land of idols, And they go insane at frightful images.

<sup>39</sup>“Therefore the desert creatures will live there with the jackals; The ostriches also will live in it. It will never again be inhabited Nor lived in from generation to generation.

<sup>40</sup>“As when God overthrew Sodom And Gomorrah with its neighbors,” declares the LORD, “No one will live there, Nor will anyone of mankind reside in it.

<sup>41</sup>“Behold, a people is coming from the north, And a great nation and many kings Will be roused from the remote parts of the earth.

<sup>43</sup>“The king of Babylon has heard the report about them, And his hands hang limp; Distress has gripped him, Agony like a woman in childbirth.

<sup>44</sup>“Behold, one will come up like a lion from the thicket of the Jordan to a perennially watered pasture; for in an instant I will chase them away from it, and I will appoint over it whoever is chosen. For who is like Me, and who will summon Me into court? And who then is the shepherd who can stand against Me?”

<sup>45</sup>Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has planned against Babylon, and His purposes which He has in mind against the land of the Chaldeans: they will certainly drag them off, even the little ones of the flock; He will certainly make their pasture desolate because of them.

<sup>46</sup>At the shout, “Babylon has been conquered!” the earth quakes, and an outcry is heard among the nations.

Jeremiah 51

Babylon Judged for Sins against Israel

<sup>2</sup>“I will send foreigners to Babylon so that they may winnow her And devastate her land; For they will be opposed to her on every side On the day of her disaster.

<sup>4</sup>“They will fall down dead in the land of the Chaldeans, And pierced through in their streets.”

<sup>7</sup>Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of the LORD, Intoxicating all the earth. The nations have drunk of her wine; Therefore the nations are going insane.

<sup>8</sup>Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been broken; Wail over her! Bring balm for her pain; Perhaps she may be healed.

<sup>9</sup>We applied healing to Babylon, but she was not healed; Abandon her and let’s each go to his own country, For her judgment has reached to heaven And it rises to the clouds.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD has brought about our vindication; Come and let’s recount in Zion The work of the LORD our God!

<sup>12</sup>Lift up a signal flag against the walls of Babylon; Post a strong guard, Station sentries, Set up an ambush! For the LORD has both planned and performed What He spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>You who live by many waters, Abundant in treasures, Your end has come, The measure of your end.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD of armies has sworn by Himself: “I will certainly fill you with a population like locusts, And they will cry out with shouts of victory over you.”

<sup>15</sup>It is He who made the earth by His power, Who established the world by His wisdom, And by His understanding He stretched out the heavens.

<sup>19</sup>The portion of Jacob is not like these; For He is the Maker of everything, And of the tribe of His inheritance; The LORD of armies is His name.

<sup>20</sup>He says, “You are My war-club, My weapon of war; And with you I shatter nations, And with you I destroy kingdoms.

<sup>21</sup>“With you I shatter the horse and his rider, And with you I shatter the chariot and its rider,

<sup>22</sup>And with you I shatter man and woman, And with you I shatter the old man and youth, And with you I shatter the young man and virgin, <sup>23</sup>And with you I shatter the shepherd and his flock, And with you I shatter the farmer and his team, And with you I shatter governors and officials.

<sup>24</sup>“But I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all their evil that they have done in Zion before your eyes,” declares the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>“Behold, I am against you, mountain of destruction That destroys the whole earth,” declares the LORD, “And I will stretch out My hand against you, And roll you down from the rocky cliffs, And I will make you a burnt out mountain.

<sup>26</sup>“They will not take from you even a stone for a corner Nor a stone for foundations, But you will be desolate forever,” declares the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>So the land quakes and writhes, For the plans of the LORD against Babylon stand, To make the land of Babylon A desolation without inhabitants.

<sup>30</sup>The warriors of Babylon have ceased fighting, They stay in the strongholds; Their strength is exhausted, They are becoming like women; Their homes are set on fire, The bars of her gates are broken.

<sup>31</sup>One courier runs to meet another, And one messenger to meet another, To tell the king of Babylon That his city has been captured from end to end;

<sup>32</sup>The river crossing places have been seized, And they have burned the marshes with fire, And the men of war are terrified.

<sup>33</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies, the God of Israel says: “The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor At the time that it is tread down; In just a little while the time of harvest will come for her.”

<sup>34</sup>“Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, He has set me down like an empty vessel; He has swallowed me like a monster, He has filled his stomach with my delicacies; He has washed me away.

<sup>35</sup>“May the violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon,”
The inhabitant of Zion will say; And, “May my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea,” Jerusalem will say.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am going to plead your case And take vengeance for you; And I will dry up her sea And make her fountain dry.

<sup>37</sup>“Babylon will become a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals, An object of horror and hissing, without inhabitants.

<sup>39</sup>“When they become heated up, I will serve them their banquet And make them drunk, so that they may rejoice in triumph, And may sleep a perpetual sleep And not wake up,” declares the LORD.

<sup>40</sup>“I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, Like rams together with male goats.

<sup>41</sup>“How Sheshak has been captured, And the praise of the whole earth has been seized! How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations!

<sup>42</sup>“The sea has come up over Babylon; She has been engulfed by its roaring waves.

<sup>43</sup>“Her cities have become an object of horror, A dry land and a desert, A land in which no one lives And through which no one of mankind passes.

<sup>44</sup>“I will punish Bel in Babylon, And I will make what he has swallowed come out of his mouth; And the nations will no longer stream toward him. Even the wall of Babylon has fallen down!

<sup>45</sup>“Come out from her midst, My people, And each of you save yourselves
From the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>46</sup>“Now, so that your heart does not grow faint, And you are not afraid at the report that will be heard in the land— For the report will come in one year,

And after that another report in another year, And violence will be in the land With ruler against ruler—

<sup>47</sup>Therefore behold, days are coming When I will punish the idols of Babylon; And her whole land will be put to shame. And all her slain will fall in her midst.

<sup>48</sup>“Then heaven and earth and everything that is in them Will shout for joy over Babylon, Because the destroyers will come to her from the north,” Declares the LORD.

<sup>49</sup>Indeed, Babylon is to fall for the slain of Israel, As the slain of all the earth have also fallen for Babylon.

<sup>50</sup>You who have escaped the sword, Go! Do not stay! Remember the LORD from far away, And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

<sup>51</sup>We are ashamed because we have heard rebuke; Disgrace has covered our faces, Because strangers have entered The holy places of the LORD’S house.

<sup>52</sup>“Therefore behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “When I will punish her idols, And the mortally wounded will groan throughout her land.

<sup>56</sup>For the destroyer is coming against her, against Babylon, And her warriors will be captured, Their bows shattered; For the LORD is a God of retribution, He will fully repay.

<sup>57</sup>“I will make her leaders and her wise men drunk, Her governors, her officials, and her warriors, So that they will sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake up,” Declares the King, whose name is the LORD of armies.

<sup>58</sup>This is what the LORD of armies says: “The broad wall of Babylon will be completely demolished, And her high gates will be set on fire; So the peoples will labor for nothing, And the nations become exhausted only for fire.”

<sup>60</sup>Jeremiah wrote on a single scroll all the disaster which would come against Babylon, that is, all these words which have been written concerning Babylon.

<sup>61</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “As soon as you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud,

<sup>62</sup>and say, ‘You, LORD, have promised concerning this place to cut it off, so that there will be nothing living in it, whether man or animal; but it will be a permanent desolation.’

<sup>63</sup>And as soon as you finish reading this scroll, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates,

<sup>64</sup>and say, ‘Just so shall Babylon sink down and not rise again, because of the disaster that I am going to bring upon her; and they will become exhausted.’” To this point are the words of Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 52

The Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that Jehoiakim had done.

<sup>3</sup>For because of the anger of the LORD this came about in Jerusalem and Judah, until He drove them out from His presence. And Zedekiah revolted against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>Now it came about in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it, and built a bulwark all around it.

<sup>5</sup>So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

<sup>6</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup>Then the city was breached, and all the warriors fled and left the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls which was by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah.

<sup>8</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the desert plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

<sup>9</sup>Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

<sup>10</sup>And the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also slaughtered all the commanders of Judah in Riblah.

<sup>11</sup>Then he blinded the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him with bronze shackles and brought him to Babylon and put him in prison until the day of his death.

<sup>12</sup>Now on the tenth day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, who was in the service of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>And he burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every large house he burned with fire.

<sup>14</sup>So the entire army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard tore down all the walls around Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup>Now the bronze pillars which belonged to the house of the LORD and the stands and the bronze sea, which were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans smashed to pieces and carried all their bronze to Babylon.

<sup>18</sup>They also took the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the pans, and all the bronze vessels which were used in temple service.

<sup>19</sup>The captain of the guard also took the bowls, the firepans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the pans, and the drink offering bowls, whatever was fine gold, and whatever was fine silver.

<sup>20</sup>The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the sea, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

<sup>21</sup>As for the pillars, the height of each pillar was eighteen cubits, and it was twelve cubits in circumference and four fingers in thickness, and hollow.

<sup>22</sup>Also, a capital of bronze was on top of it; and the height of each capital was five cubits, with latticework and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these, including pomegranates.

<sup>23</sup>There were ninety-six exposed pomegranates; all the pomegranates numbered a hundred on the latticework all around.

<sup>24</sup>Then the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest, with the three officers of the temple.

<sup>25</sup>He also took from the city one official who was overseer of the warriors, seven of the king's advisers who were found in the city, the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men from the people of the land who were found inside the city.

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was led into exile from its land.

<sup>28</sup>These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar took into exile: in the seventh year 3,023 Jews;

<sup>30</sup>in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile 745 Jewish people; there were 4,600 people in all.

<sup>31</sup>Now it came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, showed favor to Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.

<sup>33</sup>So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and had his meals in the king's presence regularly all the days of his life.

<sup>34</sup>And as his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day, all the days of his life until the day of his death.

Lamentations

Lamentations 1

The Sorrows of Zion

<sup>1</sup>How lonely sits the city That once had many people! She has become like a widow Who was once great among the nations! She who was a princess among the provinces Has become a forced laborer!

<sup>3</sup>Judah has gone into exile out of affliction And harsh servitude; She lives among the nations, But she has not found a resting place; All those who pursued her have overtaken her In the midst of distress.

<sup>6</sup>All of her splendor Is gone from the daughter of Zion; Her leaders have become like deer That have found no pasture, And they have fled without strength From the pursuer.

<sup>7</sup>In the days of her affliction and homelessness Jerusalem remembers all her treasures That were hers since the days of old, When her people fell into the hand of the adversary And no one helped her. The adversaries saw her, They laughed at her ruin.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem sinned greatly, Therefore she has become an object of ridicule. All who honored her despise her Because they have seen her nakedness; Even she herself groans and turns away.

<sup>9</sup>Her uncleanness was in her garment's seams; She did not think of her future. So she has fallen in an astonishing way; She has no comforter. "See, LORD, my affliction, For the enemy has honored himself!"

<sup>10</sup>The adversary has stretched out his hand Over all her precious things, For she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, The ones whom You commanded That they were not to enter Your congregation.

<sup>11</sup>All her people groan, seeking bread; They have given their treasures for food To restore their lives. "See, LORD, and look, For I am despised."

<sup>12</sup>"Is it nothing to all you who pass this way? Look and see if there is any pain like my pain Which was inflicted on me, With which the LORD tormented me on the day of His fierce anger.

<sup>13</sup>"From the height He sent fire into my bones, And it dominated them. He has spread a net for my feet; He has turned me back; He has made me desolate, Faint all day long.

<sup>14</sup>"The yoke of my wrongdoings is bound; By His hand they are woven together. They have come upon my neck; He has made my strength fail. The Lord has handed me over To those against whom I am not able to stand.

<sup>15</sup>"The Lord has thrown away all my strong men In my midst; He has called an appointed time against me To crush my young men; The Lord has trodden as in a wine press The virgin daughter of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>"For these things I weep; My eyes run down with water; Because far from me is a comforter, One to restore my soul. My children are desolate Because the enemy has prevailed."

<sup>18</sup>“The LORD is righteous, For I have rebelled against His command; Hear now, all peoples, And see my pain; My virgins and my young men Have gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup>“I called to my lovers, but they deserted me; My priests and my elders perished in the city While they sought food to restore their strength themselves.

<sup>20</sup>“See, LORD, for I am in distress; My spirit is greatly troubled; My heart is overturned within me, For I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword has made women childless; In the house it is like death.

<sup>21</sup>“They have heard that I groan; There is no one to comfort me, All my enemies have heard of my disaster; They are joyful that You have done it. Oh, that You would bring the day which You have proclaimed, So that they will become like me.

<sup>22</sup>“May all their wickedness come before You; And deal with them just as You have dealt with me For all my wrongdoings. For my groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Lamentations 2

God's Anger over Israel

<sup>1</sup>How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion With a cloud in His anger! He has hurled The glory of Israel from heaven to earth, And has not remembered His footstool In the day of His anger.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord has destroyed; He has not spared All the settlements of Jacob. In His wrath He has overthrown The strongholds of the daughter of Judah, He has hurled them down to the ground; He has profaned the kingdom and its leaders.

<sup>3</sup>In fierce anger He has cut off All the strength of Israel; He has pulled back His right hand From the enemy. And He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire Consuming on all sides.

<sup>4</sup>He has bent His bow like an enemy; His right hand is positioned like an adversary, And He has killed everything that was pleasant to the eye. In the tent of the daughter of Zion He has poured out His wrath like fire.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord has become like an enemy. He has engulfed Israel; He has engulfed all its palaces, He has destroyed its strongholds And caused great mourning and grieving in the daughter of Judah.

<sup>6</sup>And He has treated His tabernacle violently, like a despised garden; He has destroyed His appointed meeting place. The LORD has caused The appointed feast and Sabbath in Zion to be forgotten, And He has despised king and priest In the indignation of His anger.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord has rejected His altar, He has repudiated His sanctuary; He has handed over The walls of her palaces to the enemy. They have made a noise in the house of the LORD As on the day of an appointed feast.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD determined to destroy The wall of the daughter of Zion. He has stretched out a line, He has not restrained His hand from destroying, And He has caused rampart and wall to mourn; They have languished together.

<sup>9</sup>Her gates have sunk into the ground, He has destroyed and broken her bars. Her king and her leaders are among the nations; The Law is gone. Her prophets, too, find No vision from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>The elders of the daughter of Zion Sit on the ground and are silent. They have thrown dust on their heads; They have put on sackcloth. The virgins of Jerusalem Have bowed their heads to the ground.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes fail because of tears, My spirit is greatly troubled; My heart is poured out on the earth Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, When little ones and infants languish In the streets of the city.

<sup>12</sup>They say to their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" As they faint like a wounded person In the streets of the city, As their lives are poured out In their mothers' arms.

<sup>13</sup>How shall I admonish you? What shall I compare to you, Daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I liken to you as I comfort you, Virgin daughter of Zion? For your collapse is as vast as the sea; Who can heal you?

<sup>14</sup>Your prophets have seen for you Worthless and deceptive visions; And they have not exposed your wrongdoing So as to restore you from captivity, But they have seen for you worthless and misleading pronouncements.

<sup>15</sup>All who pass along the way Clap their hands in ridicule at you; They hiss and shake their heads At the daughter of Jerusalem: “Is this the city of which they said, ‘Perfect in beauty, A joy to all the earth’?”

<sup>16</sup>All your enemies Have opened their mouths wide against you; They hiss and gnash their teeth. They say, “We have engulfed her! This certainly is the day which we awaited; We have reached it, we have seen it!”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD has done what He determined; He has accomplished His word Which He commanded from days of old. He has torn down without sparing, And He has helped the enemy to rejoice over you; He has exalted the might of your adversaries.

<sup>20</sup>“See, LORD, and look! With whom have You dealt this way? Should women really eat their children, The little ones who were born healthy? Should priest and prophet really be killed In the sanctuary of the Lord?

<sup>21</sup>“On the ground in the streets Lie young and old; My virgins and my young men Have fallen by the sword. You have put them to death on the day of Your anger, You have slaughtered, without sparing.

<sup>22</sup>“You called as on the day of an appointed feast My terrors on every side;
And there was no one who survived or escaped On the day of the LORD’s anger. As for those whom I brought forth healthy and whom I raised,
My enemy annihilated them.”

Lamentations 3

Jeremiah Shares Israel’s Misery

- <sup>1</sup>I am the man who has seen misery Because of the rod of His wrath.
<sup>2</sup>He has driven me and made me walk In darkness and not in light.
<sup>3</sup>Indeed, He has turned His hand against me Repeatedly all the day.
<sup>4</sup>He has consumed my flesh and my skin, He has broken my bones.
<sup>5</sup>He has besieged and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
<sup>6</sup>He has made me live in dark places, Like those who have long been dead.
<sup>7</sup>He has walled me in so that I cannot go out; He has made my chain heavy.
<sup>8</sup>Even when I cry out and call for help, He shuts out my prayer.
<sup>9</sup>He has blocked my ways with cut stone; He has twisted my paths.
<sup>10</sup>He is to me like a bear lying in wait, Like a lion in secret places.
<sup>11</sup>He has made my ways deviate, and torn me to pieces; He has made me desolate.
<sup>12</sup>He bent His bow And took aim at me as a target for the arrow.
<sup>14</sup>I have become a laughingstock to all my people, Their song of ridicule all the day.
<sup>15</sup>He has filled me with bitterness, He has made me drink plenty of wormwood.
<sup>16</sup>He has also made my teeth grind with gravel; He has made me cower in the dust.

<sup>17</sup>My soul has been excluded from peace; I have forgotten happiness.

<sup>18</sup>So I say, “My strength has failed, And so has my hope from the LORD.”

Hope of Relief in God’s Mercy

<sup>19</sup>Remember my misery and my homelessness, the wormwood and bitterness.

<sup>26</sup>It is good that he waits silently For the salvation of the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>For if He causes grief, Then He will have compassion In proportion to His abundant mercy.

<sup>37</sup>Who is there who speaks and it comes to pass, Unless the Lord has commanded it?

<sup>38</sup>Is it not from the mouth of the Most High That both adversity and good proceed?

<sup>42</sup>We have done wrong and rebelled; You have not pardoned.

<sup>43</sup>You have covered Yourself with anger And pursued us; You have slain and have not spared.

<sup>54</sup>Waters flowed over my head; I said, "I am cut off!"

<sup>55</sup>I called on Your name, LORD, Out of the lowest pit.

<sup>56</sup>You have heard my voice, "Do not cover Your ear from my plea for relief, From my cry for help."

<sup>57</sup>You came near on the day I called to You; You said, "Do not fear!"

<sup>58</sup>Lord, You have pleaded my soul's cause; You have redeemed my life.

Lamentations 4

Distress of the Siege Described

<sup>5</sup>Those who used to eat delicacies Are made to tremble in the streets; Those who were raised in crimson clothing Embrace garbage heaps.

<sup>6</sup>For the wrongdoing of the daughter of my people Is greater than the sin of Sodom, Which was overthrown as in a moment, And no hands were turned toward her.

<sup>8</sup>Their appearance is darker than soot, They are not recognized in the streets; Their skin is shriveled on their bones, It is dry, it has become like wood.

<sup>9</sup>Better off are those killed by the sword Than those killed by hunger; For they waste away, stricken By the lack of the produce of the field.

<sup>10</sup>The hands of compassionate women Boiled their own children; They became food for them Due to the destruction of the daughter of my people.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD has expended His wrath, He has poured out His fierce anger; And He has kindled a fire in Zion, And it has consumed its foundations.

<sup>12</sup>The kings of the earth did not believe, Nor did any of the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy Would enter the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>They wandered, blind, in the streets; They were defiled with blood, Such that no one could touch their garments.

<sup>15</sup>“Keep away! Unclean!” they cried out of themselves. “Keep away, keep away, do not touch!” For they distanced themselves as well as wandered; People among the nations said, “They shall not continue to reside with us.”

<sup>16</sup>The presence of the LORD has scattered them, He will not continue to look at them; They did not honor the priests, They did not favor the elders.

<sup>17</sup>Yet our eyes failed, Looking for help was useless; At our observation point we have watched For a nation that could not save.

<sup>18</sup>They hunted our steps So that we could not walk in our streets; Our end drew near, Our days were finished For our end had come.

<sup>20</sup>The breath of our nostrils, the LORD's anointed, Was captured in their pits,
Of whom we had said, "In his shadow We shall live among the nations."

<sup>21</sup>Rejoice and be joyful, daughter of Edom, Who lives in the land of Uz;
But the cup will pass to you as well, You will become drunk and expose yourself.

<sup>22</sup> The punishment of your wrongdoing has been completed, daughter of Zion; He will no longer exile you. But He will punish your wrongdoing, daughter of Edom; He will expose your sins!

Lamentations 5

A Prayer for Mercy

<sup>7</sup>Our fathers sinned, and are gone; It is we who have been burdened with the punishment for their wrongdoings.

<sup>8</sup>Slaves rule over us; There is no one to rescue us from their hand.

<sup>9</sup>We get our bread at the risk of our lives Because of the sword in the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup>Our skin has become as hot as an oven, Because of the ravages of hunger.

under loads of wood.

<sup>15</sup>The joy of our hearts has ended; Our dancing has been turned into mourning.

<sup>16</sup>The crown has fallen from our head; Woe to us, for we have sinned!

<sup>21</sup>Restore us to You, LORD, so that we may be restored; Renew our days as of old, <sup>22</sup>Unless You have utterly rejected us And are exceedingly angry with us.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel 1

The Vision of Four Figures

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was by the river Chebar among the exiles, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

<sup>2</sup>(On the fifth of the month in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile, <sup>3</sup>the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and there the hand of the LORD came upon him.)

<sup>7</sup>Their legs were straight and their feet were like a calf's hoof, and they sparkled like polished bronze.

<sup>8</sup>Under their wings on their four sides were human hands. As for the faces and wings of the four of them,

<sup>9</sup>their wings touched one another; their faces did not turn when they moved, each went straight forward.

<sup>11</sup>Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above; each had two touching another being, and two covering their bodies.

<sup>12</sup>And each went straight forward; wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go, without turning as they went.

<sup>13</sup>In the midst of the living beings there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving among the living beings. The fire was bright, and lightning was flashing from the fire.

<sup>14</sup>And the living beings ran back and forth like bolts of lightning.

<sup>15</sup>Now as I looked at the living beings, behold, there was one wheel on the ground beside the living beings, for each of the four of them.

<sup>16</sup>The appearance of the wheels and their workmanship was like sparkling topaz, and all four of them had the same form, their appearance and workmanship being as if one wheel were within another.

<sup>17</sup>Whenever they moved, they moved in any of their four directions without turning as they moved.

<sup>18</sup>As for their rims, they were high and awesome, and the rims of all four of them were covered with eyes all around.

<sup>19</sup>Whenever the living beings moved, the wheels moved with them. And whenever the living beings rose from the earth, the wheels rose also.

<sup>20</sup>Wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go in that direction. And the wheels rose just as they did; for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

<sup>21</sup>Whenever those went, they went; and whenever those stopped, they stopped. And whenever those rose from the earth, the wheels rose just as they did; for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

Vision of Divine Glory

<sup>22</sup>Now over the heads of the living beings there was something like an expanse, like the awesome gleam of crystal, spread out over their heads.

<sup>23</sup>Under the expanse their wings were stretched out straight, one toward the other; each one also had two wings covering its body on the one side and on the other.

<sup>24</sup>And I also heard the sound of their wings, like the sound of abundant waters as they went, like the voice of the Almighty, a sound of a crowd like the sound of an army camp; whenever they stopped, they let down their wings.

<sup>25</sup>And a voice came from above the expanse that was over their heads; whenever they stood still, they let down their wings.

<sup>26</sup>Now above the expanse that was over their heads there was something resembling a throne, like lapis lazuli in appearance; and on that which resembled a throne, high up, was a figure with the appearance of a man.

<sup>27</sup>Then I noticed from the appearance of His waist and upward something like gleaming metal that looked like fire all around within it, and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw something like fire; and there was a radiance around Him.

<sup>28</sup>Like the appearance of the rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the surrounding radiance. Such was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell on my face and heard a voice speaking.

Ezekiel 2

The Prophet's Call

<sup>1</sup>Then He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you."

<sup>2</sup>And as He spoke to me the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet; and I heard Him speaking to me.

<sup>3</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to a rebellious people who have rebelled against Me; they and their fathers have revolted against Me to this very day.

<sup>4</sup>So I am sending you to those who are impudent and obstinate children, and you shall say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:’

<sup>5</sup>As for them, whether they listen or not—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

<sup>6</sup>And as for you, son of man, you are not to fear them nor fear their words, though thistles and thorns are with you and you sit on scorpions; you are not to fear their words nor be dismayed at their presence, since they are a rebellious house.

<sup>7</sup>But you shall speak My words to them whether they listen or not, for they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup>“Now you, son of man, listen to what I am speaking to you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth wide and eat what I am giving you.”

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked, and behold, a hand was extended to me; and behold, a scroll was in it.

<sup>10</sup>When He spread it out before me, it was written on the front and back, and written on it were songs of mourning, sighing, and woe.

Ezekiel 3

Ezekiel’s Commission

<sup>1</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>And He said to me, “Son of man, feed your stomach and fill your body with this scroll which I am giving you.” Then I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them.

<sup>5</sup>For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel,

<sup>6</sup>nor to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. But I have sent you to the people who understand you;

<sup>7</sup>yet the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, since they are not willing to listen to Me. The entire house of Israel certainly is stubborn and obstinate.

<sup>8</sup>Behold, I have made your face just as hard as their faces, and your forehead just as hard as their foreheads.

<sup>9</sup>Like emery harder than flint I have made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them or be dismayed before them, since they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup>Moreover, He said to me, “Son of man, take into your heart all My words which I will speak to you and listen closely.

<sup>11</sup>Go to the exiles, to the sons of your people, and speak to them and tell them, whether they listen or not, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says.’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me: “Blessed be the glory of the LORD from His place!”

<sup>13</sup>And I heard the sound of the wings of the living beings touching one another and the sound of the wheels beside them, even a great rumbling sound.

<sup>14</sup>So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away; and I went embittered in the rage of my spirit, and the hand of the LORD was strong on me.

<sup>15</sup>Then I came to the exiles who lived beside the river Chebar at Tel-abib, and I sat there for seven days where they were living, causing consternation among them.

<sup>16</sup>Now at the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from My mouth, warn them from Me.

<sup>18</sup>When I say to the wicked, ‘You will certainly die,’ and you do not warn him or speak out to warn the wicked from his wicked way so that he may live, that wicked person shall die for wrongdoing, but his blood I will require from your hand.

<sup>19</sup>However if you have warned the wicked and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he shall die for wrongdoing, but you have saved yourself.

<sup>20</sup>Again, when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits sin, and I place an obstacle before him, he will die; since you have not warned him, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require from your hand.

<sup>21</sup>However, if you have warned the righteous person that the righteous is not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall certainly live because he took warning; and you have saved yourself.”

<sup>22</sup>Now the hand of the LORD was on me there, and He said to me, “Get up, go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you.”

<sup>23</sup>So I got up and went out to the plain; and behold, the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory that I saw by the river Chebar, and I fell on my face.

<sup>24</sup>But the Spirit entered me and set me up on my feet; and He spoke with me and said to me, “Go, shut yourself inside your house.

<sup>25</sup>And as for you, son of man, they will put ropes around you and bind you with them so that you do not go out among them.

<sup>26</sup>Moreover, I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be unable to speak and will not be a man who reprimands them, since they are a rebellious house.

<sup>27</sup>But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:’ The one who hears, let him hear; and the one who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 4

Siege of Jerusalem Predicted

<sup>1</sup>“Now you, son of man, get yourself a brick, place it before you, and inscribe a city on it—Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Then lay siege against it, build a siege wall, pile up an assault ramp, set up camps, and place battering rams against it all around.

<sup>3</sup>Then get yourself an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city, and direct your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>“Then you are to lie down on your left side and put the wrongdoing of the house of Israel on it; you shall bear their wrongdoing for the number of days that you lie on it.

<sup>5</sup>For I have assigned you a number of days corresponding to the years of their wrongdoing, 390 days; so you shall bear the wrongdoing of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>When you have completed these days, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the wrongdoing of the house of Judah; I have assigned it to you for forty days, a day for each year.

<sup>7</sup>Then you shall direct your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it.

<sup>8</sup>Now behold, I will put ropes around you so that you cannot turn from your one side to your other until you have completed the days of your siege.

Defiled Bread

<sup>9</sup>“But as for you, take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel and make them into bread for yourself; you shall eat it according to the number of the days that you lie on your side, 390 days.

<sup>10</sup>Your food which you eat shall be twenty shekels a day by weight; you shall eat it from time to time.

<sup>11</sup>The water you drink shall be a sixth of a hin by measure; you shall drink it from time to time.

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said, “In this way the sons of Israel will eat their bread unclean among the nations where I will scatter them.”

<sup>14</sup>But I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Behold, I have never been defiled; for from my youth until now I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by animals, nor has any unclean meat ever entered my mouth!”

<sup>15</sup>Then He said to me, “See, I will give you cow’s dung in place of human dung, so that you may prepare your bread over it.”

<sup>16</sup>Moreover, He said to me, “Son of man, behold, I am going to break the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and drink water by measure and in horror, <sup>17</sup>because bread and water will be scarce; and they will tremble with one another and waste away in their guilt.

Ezekiel 5

Jerusalem’s Desolation Foretold

<sup>1</sup>“As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword; take and use it as a barber’s razor on your head and beard. Then take scales for weighing and divide the hair.

<sup>2</sup>A third you shall burn in the fire at the center of the city, when the days of the siege are completed. Then you shall take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city, and a third you shall scatter to the wind; for I will unsheathe a sword behind them.

<sup>4</sup>Take again some of them and throw them into the fire and burn them in the fire; from it a fire will spread to all the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>But she has rebelled against My ordinances more wickedly than the nations, and against My statutes more than the lands which surround her; for they have rejected My ordinances and have not walked in My statutes.’

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because you have more turmoil than the nations that surround you and have not walked in My statutes, nor executed My ordinances, nor acted in accordance with the ordinances of the nations around you,’

<sup>8</sup>therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I, even I, am against you, and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations.

<sup>9</sup>And because of all your abominations I will do among you what I have not done, and the like of which I will never do again.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, fathers will eat their sons among you, and sons will eat their fathers; for I will execute judgments on you and scatter all your remnant to every wind.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore as I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘Because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable idols and with all your abominations, I definitely will also withdraw and My eye will have no pity, and I also will not spare.

<sup>12</sup>A third of you will die by plague or perish by famine among you, a third will fall by the sword around you, and a third I will scatter to every wind, and I will unsheathe a sword behind them.

<sup>13</sup>“Then My anger will be spent and I will satisfy My wrath on them, and I will be appeased; then they will know that I, the LORD, have spoken in My zeal, when I have spent My wrath upon them.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, I will make you a site of ruins and a disgrace among the nations that surround you, in the sight of everyone who passes by.

<sup>15</sup>So it will be a disgrace, an object of abuse, a warning, and an object of horror to the nations that surround you when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and raging reprimands. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>16</sup>When I send against them the deadly arrows of famine which were for the destruction of those whom I will send to destroy you, then I will also intensify the famine upon you and break off your provision of bread.

<sup>17</sup>I will send on you famine and vicious animals, and they will bereave you of children; plague and bloodshed also will pass through you, and I will bring the sword on you. I, the LORD, have spoken.’ ”

Ezekiel 6

Idolatrous Worship Denounced

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them

<sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains, the hills, the ravines, and the valleys: “Behold, I Myself am going to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

<sup>4</sup>So your altars will become deserted and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will make your slain fall in front of your idols.

<sup>5</sup>I will also lay the dead bodies of the sons of Israel in front of their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

<sup>6</sup>Everywhere you live, cities will be in ruins and the high places will be deserted, so that your altars will be in ruins and deserted, your idols will be broken and brought to an end, your incense altars will be cut down, and your works wiped out.

<sup>7</sup>The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>“However, I will leave a remnant, in that you will have those who escaped the sword among the nations when you are scattered among the countries.

<sup>9</sup>Then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations to which they will be taken captive, how I have been hurt by their adulterous hearts which turned away from Me, and by their eyes which committed infidelity with their idols; and they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed, for all their abominations.

<sup>10</sup>Then they will know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would inflict this disaster on them.”

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Clap your hands, stamp your foot and say, “Woe, because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, which will fall by the sword, famine, and plague!

<sup>12</sup>Anyone who is far away will die by the plague, anyone who is near will fall by the sword, and anyone who remains and is spared from these will die by the famine. So I will expend My wrath on them.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD, when their dead are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every leafy tree and under every massive oak with thick branches—the places where they offered a soothing aroma to all their idols.

<sup>14</sup>So through all their dwelling places I will stretch out My hand against them and make the land more desolate and waste than the wilderness toward Diblah; so they will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 7

Punishment for Wickedness Foretold

<sup>2</sup>“And you, son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says to the land of Israel: ‘An end! The end is coming on the four corners of the land.

<sup>3</sup>Now the end is upon you, for I will send My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.

<sup>4</sup>And My eye will have no pity on you, nor will I spare you, but I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be among you; then you will know that I am the LORD!’

<sup>6</sup>An end is coming; the end has come! It has awakened against you; behold, it has come!

<sup>7</sup>Your doom has come to you, you inhabitant of the land. The time has come, the day is near—panic rather than joyful shouting on the mountains.

<sup>8</sup>Now I will shortly pour out My wrath on you and expend My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways and bring on you all your abominations.

<sup>9</sup>My eye will have no pity nor will I spare you. I will repay you according to your ways, while your abominations are in your midst; then you will know that I, the LORD, am striking.

<sup>10</sup>‘Behold, the day! Behold, it is coming! Your doom has gone forth; the rod has budded, arrogance has blossomed.

<sup>11</sup>Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, none of their people, none of their wealth, nor anything eminent among them.

<sup>12</sup>The time has come, the day has arrived. Let neither the buyer rejoice nor the seller mourn; for wrath is against all their multitude.

<sup>13</sup>Indeed, the seller will not regain what he sold as long as they both live; for the vision regarding all their multitude will not be averted, nor will any of them maintain his life by his wrongdoing.

<sup>14</sup>‘They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but no one is going to the battle, for My wrath is against all their multitude.

<sup>15</sup>The sword is outside the city and the plague and the famine are within. Anyone who is in the field will die by the sword, while famine and the plague will consume those in the city.

<sup>17</sup>All hands will hang limp, and all knees will drip with water.

<sup>18</sup>They will put on sackcloth and shuddering will overwhelm them; and shame will be on all faces, and a bald patch on all their heads.

<sup>19</sup>They will fling their silver into the streets, and their gold will become an abhorrent thing; their silver and their gold will not be able to save them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. They cannot satisfy their appetite, nor can they fill their stomachs, because their wrongdoing has become a cause of stumbling.

The Temple Profaned

<sup>20</sup>Moreover, they transformed the splendor of His jewels into pride, and they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things with it; therefore I will make it an abhorrent thing to them.

<sup>21</sup>And I will hand it over to the foreigners as plunder, and to the wicked of the earth as spoils; and they will profane it.

<sup>22</sup>I will also turn My face away from them, and they will profane My treasure; then robbers will enter and profane it.

<sup>23</sup>'Make the chain, for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will take possession of their houses. I will also put an end to the pride of the strong ones, and their holy places will be profaned.

<sup>25</sup>When anguish comes, they will seek peace, but there will be none.

<sup>26</sup>Disaster will come upon disaster and rumor will be added to rumor; then they will seek a vision from a prophet, but the Law will be lost from the priest, and counsel from the elders.

<sup>27</sup>The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed in horror, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them because of their conduct, and by their judgments I will judge them. And they will know that I am the LORD.' "

Ezekiel 8

Vision of Abominations in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now it came about in the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, as I was sitting in my house with the elders of Judah sitting before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.

<sup>2</sup>Then I looked, and behold, something like the appearance of a man; from His waist and downward there was the appearance of fire, and from His waist and upward like the appearance of a glow, like gleaming metal.

<sup>3</sup>And He extended the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner courtyard, where the seat of the idol of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy, was located.

<sup>4</sup>And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the appearance which I saw in the plain.

<sup>5</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, raise your eyes now toward the north.” So I raised my eyes toward the north, and behold, to the north of the altar gate was this idol of jealousy at the entrance.

<sup>6</sup>And He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations which the house of Israel are committing here, so that I would be far from My sanctuary? But yet you will see still greater abominations!”

<sup>7</sup>Then He brought me to the entrance of the courtyard, and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup>And He said to me, “Son of man, now dig through the wall.” So I dug through the wall, and behold, an entrance.

<sup>9</sup>Then He said to me, “Go in and see the wicked abominations that they are committing here.”

<sup>10</sup>So I entered and looked, and behold, every form of crawling things and animals and detestable things, with all the idols of the house of Israel, were carved on the wall all around.

<sup>11</sup>And standing in front of them were seventy elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan standing among them, each man with his censer in his hand; and the fragrance of the cloud of incense was rising.

<sup>12</sup>Then He said to me, “Do you see, son of man, what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each man in the rooms of his carved images? For they say, ‘The LORD does not see us; the LORD has abandoned the land.’”

<sup>13</sup>And He said to me, “Yet you will see still greater abominations which they are committing!”

<sup>14</sup>Then He brought me to the entrance of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and behold, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

<sup>15</sup>And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Yet you will see still greater abominations than these!"

<sup>16</sup>Then He brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORD's house. And behold, at the entrance to the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of the LORD while their faces were toward the east; and they were prostrating themselves eastward toward the sun.

<sup>17</sup>And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it a trivial thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they have committed here, that they have filled the land with violence and provoked Me to anger repeatedly? Yet behold, they are putting the twig to their nose!

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, I indeed will deal in wrath. My eye will have no pity nor will I spare; and though they cry out in My ears with a loud voice, yet I will not listen to them."

Ezekiel 9

The Vision of Slaughter

<sup>1</sup>Then He cried out in my presence with a loud voice, saying, "Come forward, you executioners of the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand."

<sup>2</sup>And behold, six men came from the direction of the upper gate which faces north, each with his smashing weapon in his hand; and among them was one man clothed in linen with a scribe's kit at his waist. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then the glory of the God of Israel ascended from the cherub on which it had been, to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed in linen at whose waist was the scribe's kit.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to him, “Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and make a mark on the foreheads of the people who groan and sigh over all the abominations which are being committed in its midst.”

<sup>5</sup>But to the others He said in my presence, “Go through the city after him and strike; do not let your eye have pity and do not spare.

<sup>6</sup>Utterly kill old men, young men, female virgins, little children, and women, but do not touch any person on whom is the mark; and you shall start from My sanctuary.” So they started with the elders who were before the temple.

<sup>7</sup>He also said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courtyards with the dead. Go out!” So they went out and struck and killed the people in the city.

<sup>8</sup>And as they were striking the people and I alone was left, I fell on my face and cried out, saying, “Oh, Lord GOD! Are You going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel by pouring out Your wrath on Jerusalem?”

<sup>9</sup>Then He said to me, “The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is very, very great, and the land is filled with blood, and the city is full of perversion; for they say, ‘The LORD has abandoned the land, and the LORD does not see!’

<sup>10</sup>But as for Me, My eye will have no pity nor will I spare, but I will bring their conduct upon their heads.”

<sup>11</sup>Then behold, the man clothed in linen, at whose waist was the scribe’s kit, reported, saying, “I have done just as You have commanded me.”

Ezekiel 10

Vision of God’s Glory Departing from the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then I looked, and behold, in the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim something like a sapphire stone, in appearance resembling a throne, appeared above them.

<sup>2</sup>And He spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, “Enter between the whirling wheels under the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city.” And he entered in my sight.

<sup>3</sup>Now the cherubim were standing on the right side of the temple when the man entered, and the cloud filled the inner courtyard.

<sup>4</sup>Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub to the threshold of the temple, and the temple was filled with the cloud, and the courtyard was filled with the brightness of the glory of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Moreover, the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks.

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like the gleam of a Tarshish stone.

<sup>10</sup>And as for their appearance, all four of them had the same likeness, as if one wheel were within another wheel.

<sup>11</sup>When they moved, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went; but they followed in the direction which they faced, without turning as they went.

<sup>12</sup>And their whole body, their backs, their hands, their wings and the wheels were covered with eyes all around, the wheels belonging to all four of them.

<sup>13</sup>The wheels were called, as I heard, the whirling wheels.

<sup>14</sup>And each one had four faces. The first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a human, the third, the face of a lion, and the fourth, the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup>Then the cherubim rose up. They are the living beings that I saw by the river Chebar.

<sup>16</sup>Now when the cherubim moved, the wheels would move beside them; also when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels themselves would not turn away from beside them.

<sup>17</sup>When the cherubim stood still, the wheels would stand still; and when they rose up, the wheels would rise with them, because the spirit of the living beings was in them.

<sup>18</sup>Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim.

<sup>19</sup>When the cherubim departed, they lifted their wings and rose up from the ground in my sight with the wheels beside them; and they stood still at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel hovered over them.

<sup>20</sup>These are the living beings that I saw beneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar; so I knew that they were cherubim.

<sup>21</sup>Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and beneath their wings was the form of human hands.

<sup>22</sup>As for the likeness of their faces, they were the same faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one went straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11

Evil Rulers to Be Judged

<sup>1</sup>Now the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the LORD'S house which faced eastward. And behold, there were twenty-five men at the entrance of the gate, and among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.

<sup>2</sup>Then He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise wrongdoing and give evil advice in this city,

<sup>3</sup>who say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This city is the pot and we are the meat.'

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and He said to me, "Say, 'This is what the LORD says: "This is how you think, house of Israel, for I know your thoughts.

<sup>6</sup>You have multiplied your slain in this city, and filled its streets with them."

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: "Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of the city are the meat and this city is the pot; but I will bring you out of it.

<sup>8</sup>You have feared a sword; so I will bring a sword upon you," the Lord GOD declares.

<sup>9</sup>"And I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and hand you over to strangers, and execute judgments against you.

<sup>10</sup>You will fall by the sword. I will judge you to the border of Israel; so you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be meat in the midst of it; I will judge you to the border of Israel.

<sup>12</sup>So you will know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in My statutes, nor have you executed My ordinances, but you have acted in accordance with the ordinances of the nations around you." ' ' "

<sup>13</sup>Now it came about, as I prophesied, that Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice, and said, “Oh, Lord GOD! Will You bring the remnant of Israel to a complete destruction?”

Promise of Restoration

<sup>14</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>15</sup>“Son of man, your brothers, your relatives, your fellow exiles, and the entire house of Israel, all of them, are those to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Keep far from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.’

<sup>16</sup>Therefore say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Though I had removed them far away among the nations, and though I had scattered them among the countries, yet I was a sanctuary for them for a little while in the countries where they had gone.” ’

<sup>17</sup>Therefore say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries among which you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.” ’

<sup>18</sup>When they come there, they will remove all its detestable things and all its abominations from it.

<sup>19</sup>And I will give them one heart, and put a new spirit within them. And I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup>so that they may walk in My statutes, and keep My ordinances and do them. Then they will be My people, and I shall be their God.

<sup>21</sup>But as for those whose hearts go after their detestable things and abominations, I will bring their conduct down on their heads,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>22</sup>Then the cherubim lifted up their wings with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel hovered over them.

<sup>23</sup>The glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood over the mountain which is east of the city.

<sup>24</sup>And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen left me.

<sup>25</sup>And I told the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

Ezekiel Prepares for Exile

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, you live in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see but do not see, ears to hear but do not hear; for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>6</sup>Load the baggage on your shoulder in their sight and carry it out in the dark. You shall cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>Then I did so, just as I had been commanded. By day I brought out my baggage like the baggage of an exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands; I went out in the dark and carried the baggage on my shoulder in their sight.

<sup>8</sup>And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Son of man, has the house of Israel, the rebellious house, not said to you, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>10</sup>Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “This pronouncement concerns the prince in Jerusalem as well as all the house of Israel who are in it.” ’

<sup>11</sup>Say, ‘I am a sign to you. Just as I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity.’

<sup>12</sup>The prince who is among them will load his baggage on his shoulder in the dark and go out. They will dig a hole through the wall to bring it out through it. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land with his eyes.

<sup>13</sup>I will also spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My net. And I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there.

<sup>14</sup>And I will scatter to every wind all who are around him, his helpers and all his troops; and I will draw out a sword after them.

<sup>15</sup>So they will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries.

<sup>16</sup>But I will spare a few of them from the sword, the famine, and plague so that they may tell of all their abominations among the nations where they go, and may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup>Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with quivering and anxiety.

<sup>19</sup>Then say to the people of the land, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: “They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water with horror, because their land will be stripped of its fullness on account of the violence of all who live in it.

<sup>20</sup>The inhabited cities will be in ruins, and the land will be a desolation. So you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>21</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>22</sup>“Son of man, what is this proverb you people have about the land of Israel, saying, ‘The days are long, and every vision fails’?

<sup>23</sup>Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will put an end to this proverb so that they will no longer use it as a proverb in Israel.” But tell them, “The days are approaching as well as the fulfillment of every vision.

<sup>24</sup>For there will no longer be any false vision or deceptive divination within the house of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>For I the LORD will speak whatever word I speak, and it will be performed. It will no longer be delayed, for in your days, you rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it,” declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

<sup>26</sup>Furthermore, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>27</sup>“Son of man, behold, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies of times far off.’

<sup>28</sup>Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “None of My words will be delayed any longer. Whatever word I speak will be performed,” ’ ” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 13

False Prophets Condemned

<sup>6</sup>They see deceit and lying divination, those who are saying, ‘The LORD declares,’ when the LORD has not sent them; yet they wait for the fulfillment of their word!

<sup>7</sup>Did you not see a false vision and tell a lying divination when you said, ‘The LORD declares,’ but it is not I who have spoken?” ’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you have spoken deceit and have seen a lie, therefore behold, I am against you,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup>“So My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will have no place in the council of My people, nor will they be written down in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel, so that you may know that I am the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup>It is definitely because they have misled My people by saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace. And when anyone builds a wall, behold, they plaster it over with whitewash;

<sup>11</sup>so tell those who plaster it over with whitewash, that it will fall. A flooding rain will come, and you, hailstones, will fall, and a violent wind will break out.

<sup>12</sup>Behold, when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, ‘Where is the plaster with which you plastered it?’ ”

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “I will make a violent wind break out in My wrath. There will also be in My anger a flooding rain and hailstones to consume it in wrath.

<sup>14</sup>So I will tear down the wall which you plastered over with whitewash and hurl it down to the ground, so that its foundation is exposed; and when it falls, you will perish in its midst. And you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>So I will expend My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it over with whitewash; and I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone and those who plastered it are gone, <sup>16</sup>along with the prophets of Israel who prophesy to Jerusalem, and who see a vision of peace for her when there is no peace,’ declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>17</sup>“Now you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are talking like prophets from their own imagination. Prophecy against them

<sup>18</sup>and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Woe to the women who sew magic bands on all wrists and make veils for the heads of persons of every stature to capture souls! Will you capture the souls of My people, but keep the souls of others alive for yourselves?

<sup>19</sup>For handfuls of barley and pieces of bread, you have profaned Me to My people, to put to death some who should not die, and to keep others alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies.” ’

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against your magic bands by which you capture souls there as birds, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let them go, those souls whom you capture as birds.

<sup>21</sup>I will also tear off your veils and save My people from your hands, and they will no longer be in your hands as prey; and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Because you disheartened the righteous with falsehood when I did not cause him pain, but you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from his wicked way to keep him alive,

<sup>23</sup>therefore you women will no longer see deceitful visions or practice divination, and I will save My people from your hands. So you will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 14

Idolatrous Elders Condemned

<sup>1</sup>Then some elders of Israel came to me and sat down before me.

<sup>2</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts and have put in front of their faces the stumbling block of their wrongdoing. Should I let Myself be consulted by them at all?

<sup>4</sup>Therefore speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Anyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, puts in front of his face the stumbling block of his wrongdoing, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will let Myself answer him in the matter in view of the multitude of his idols, <sup>5</sup>in order to take hold of the hearts of the house of Israel who have turned away from Me due to all their idols.”’

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Repent and turn away from your idols, and turn your faces away from all your abominations.

<sup>7</sup>For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who reside in Israel, who deserts Me, sets up his idols in his heart, puts in front of his face the stumbling block of his wrongdoing, and then comes to the prophet to request something of Me for himself, I the LORD will let Myself answer him Myself.

<sup>8</sup>I will set My face against that person and make him a sign and a proverb, and I will eliminate him from among My people. So you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“But if the prophet is persuaded so that he speaks a word, it is I, the LORD, who have persuaded that prophet; and I will stretch out My hand against him and eliminate him from among My people Israel.

<sup>10</sup>And they will bear the punishment for their wrongdoing; as the wrongdoing of the inquirer is, so the wrongdoing of the prophet will be,

<sup>11</sup>in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me and no longer defile themselves with all their offenses. So they will be My people, and I shall be their God,” ’ declares the Lord GOD.”

The City Will Not Be Spared

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>13</sup>“Son of man, if a country sins against Me by being unfaithful, and I stretch out My hand against it, destroy its supply of bread, send famine against it, and eliminate from it both human and animal life, <sup>14</sup>even though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, by their own righteousness they could only save themselves,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup>“If I were to cause vicious animals to pass through the land and they depopulated it, and it became desolate so that no one would pass through it because of the animals,

<sup>16</sup>though these three men were in its midst, as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their sons or their daughters. They alone would be saved, but the country would be desolate.

<sup>17</sup>Or if I were to bring a sword on that country and say, ‘A sword is to pass through the country,’ and I eliminated human and animal life from it,

<sup>18</sup>even though these three men were in its midst, as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their sons or their daughters, but they alone would be saved.

<sup>19</sup>Or if I were to send a plague against that country and pour out My wrath on it in blood to eliminate man and animal from it,

<sup>20</sup>even though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “they could not save either their son or their daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness.”

<sup>21</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: “How much more when I send My four severe judgments against Jerusalem: sword, famine, vicious animals, and plague to eliminate human and animal life from it!

<sup>22</sup>Yet, behold, survivors will be left in it who will be brought out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they are going to come out to you, and you will see their conduct and actions; then you will be comforted for the disaster which I have brought against Jerusalem for everything which I have brought upon it.

<sup>23</sup>Then they will comfort you when you see their conduct and actions, for you will know that I have not done without reason whatever I did to it,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 15

Jerusalem like a Useless Vine

<sup>3</sup>Can wood be taken from it to make anything, or can even a peg be taken from it on which to hang any utensil?

<sup>4</sup>If it has been put into the fire for fuel, and the fire has consumed both of its ends and its middle part has been charred, is it then good for anything?

<sup>5</sup>Behold, while it is intact, it is not made into anything. How much less, when the fire has consumed it and it is charred, can it still be made into anything!

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘As the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so have I given up the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

<sup>7</sup>and I set My face against them. Though they have come out of the fire, yet the fire will consume them. Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them.

<sup>8</sup>So I will make the land desolate, because they have acted unfaithfully,’” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 16

God’s Grace to Unfaithful Jerusalem

<sup>3</sup>and say, “This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: “Your origin and your birth are from the land of the Canaanite; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup>As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing; you were not rubbed with salt or even wrapped in cloths.

<sup>5</sup>No eye looked with pity on you to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you. Rather you were thrown out into the open field, for you were abhorred on the day you were born.

<sup>6</sup>“When I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you while you were in your blood, ‘Live!’ Yes, I said to you while you were in your blood, ‘Live!’

<sup>7</sup>I made you very numerous, like plants of the field. Then you grew up, became tall and reached the age for fine jewelry; your breasts were formed and your hair had grown. Yet you were naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup>“Then I passed by you and saw you, and behold, you were at the time for love; so I spread My garment over you and covered your nakedness. I also swore an oath to you and entered into a covenant with you so that you became Mine,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup>I also clothed you with colorfully woven cloth and put sandals of fine leather on your feet; and I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

<sup>11</sup>I adorned you with jewelry, put bracelets on your wrists, and a necklace around your neck.

<sup>12</sup>I also put a ring in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

<sup>13</sup>So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your dress was of fine linen, silk, and colorfully woven cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil; so you were exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty.

<sup>14</sup>Then your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of My splendor which I bestowed on you,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup>“But you trusted in your beauty and became unfaithful because of your fame, and you poured out your obscene practices on every passer-by to whom it might be tempting.

<sup>16</sup>You took some of your clothes, made for yourself high places of various colors, and committed prostitution on them, which should not come about nor happen.

<sup>17</sup>You also took your beautiful jewels made of My gold and of My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images so that you might commit prostitution with them.

<sup>18</sup>Then you took your colorfully woven cloth and covered them, and offered My oil and My incense before them.

<sup>19</sup>Also My bread which I gave you, fine flour, oil, and honey with which I fed you, you would offer before them for a soothing aroma; so it happened,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup>“Furthermore, you took your sons and daughters whom you had borne to Me and sacrificed them to idols to be devoured. Were your obscene practices a trivial matter?

<sup>21</sup>You slaughtered My children and offered them to idols by making them pass through the fire.

<sup>22</sup>And besides all your abominations and obscene practices, you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare and squirming in your blood.

<sup>23</sup>“Then it came about after all your wickedness (‘Woe, woe to you!’ declares the Lord GOD), <sup>24</sup>that you built yourself a shrine and made yourself a high place in every public square.

<sup>25</sup>You built yourself a high place at the beginning of every street and made your beauty abominable, and you spread your legs to every passer-by and multiplied your obscene practice.

<sup>26</sup>You also committed prostitution with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and multiplied your obscene practice to provoke Me to anger.

<sup>27</sup>So behold, I have stretched out My hand against you and cut back your rations. And I turned you over to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your outrageous conduct.

<sup>28</sup>Moreover, you committed prostitution with the Assyrians because you were not satisfied; you committed prostitution with them and still were not satisfied.

<sup>29</sup>You also multiplied your obscene practice with the land of merchants, Chaldea; yet even with this you were not satisfied.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>30</sup>“How feverish is your heart,” declares the Lord GOD, “while you do all these things, the action of a bold prostitute!

<sup>31</sup>When you built your shrine at the beginning of every street and made your high place in every public square, in spurning a prostitute’s fee, you were not like a prostitute.

<sup>33</sup>Men give gifts to all prostitutes, but you give your gifts to all your lovers and lavish favors on them so that they will come to you from every direction for your obscene practices.

<sup>34</sup>So it is the opposite for you from those women in your obscene practices, in that you are not approached for prostitution, and in the fact that you pay a prostitute’s fee, and no fee is paid to you; so you are the opposite.”

<sup>36</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because your lewdness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered through your obscene practices with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your sons that you gave to idols,

<sup>37</sup>therefore, behold, I am going to gather all your lovers whom you pleased, all those whom you loved as well as all those whom you hated. So I will gather them against you from every direction and expose your nakedness to them so that they may see all your nakedness.

<sup>38</sup>So I will judge you as women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy.

<sup>39</sup>I will also hand you over to your lovers, and they will tear down your shrines, demolish your high places, strip you of your clothing, take away your jewels, and will leave you naked and bare.

<sup>40</sup>They will incite a crowd against you, and they will stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords.

<sup>41</sup>And they will burn your houses with fire and execute judgments against you in the sight of many women. Then I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will also no longer pay your lovers.

<sup>42</sup>So I will satisfy My fury against you and My jealousy will leave you, and I will be pacified and no longer be angry.

<sup>43</sup>Since you have not remembered the days of your youth but have caused Me unrest by all these things, behold, I in turn will bring your conduct down on your own head,” declares the Lord GOD, “so that you will not commit this outrageous sin in addition to all your other abominations.

<sup>44</sup>“Behold, everyone who quotes proverbs will quote this proverb about you, saying, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’

<sup>45</sup>You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and children. You are also the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

<sup>46</sup>Now your older sister is Samaria, who lives north of you with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lives south of you, is Sodom with her daughters.

<sup>47</sup>Yet you have not merely walked in their ways and committed their abominations; but, as if that were too little, you also acted more corruptly in all your conduct than they.

<sup>48</sup>As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “Sodom, your sister and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done!

<sup>49</sup>Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had arrogance, plenty of food, and carefree ease, but she did not help the poor and needy.

<sup>50</sup>So they were haughty and committed abominations before Me. Therefore I removed them when I saw it.

<sup>51</sup>Furthermore, Samaria did not commit half of your sins, for you have multiplied your abominations more than they. So you have made your sisters appear innocent by all your abominations which you have committed.

<sup>52</sup>Also, bear your disgrace in that you have made judgment favorable for your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. Yes, be also ashamed and bear your disgrace, in that you made your sisters appear innocent.

<sup>53</sup>“Nevertheless, I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and along with them your own fortunes, <sup>54</sup>so that you will bear your disgrace and feel ashamed for all that you have done when you become a consolation to them.

<sup>56</sup>As the name of your sister Sodom was not heard from your lips in your day of pride, <sup>57</sup>before your wickedness was uncovered, so now you have become the disgrace of the daughters of Edom and of all who are around her, of the daughters of the Philistines—those surrounding you who despise you.

<sup>58</sup>You have suffered the penalty of your outrageous sin and abominations,” the LORD declares.

<sup>59</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also do with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

The Covenant Remembered

<sup>60</sup>“Nevertheless, I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

<sup>61</sup>Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both your older and your younger; and I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant.

<sup>62</sup>So I will establish My covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, <sup>63</sup>so that you may remember and be ashamed, and not open your mouth again because of your disgrace, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done,” the Lord GOD declares.

Ezekiel 17

Parable of Two Eagles and a Vine

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, ask a riddle and present a parable to the house of Israel,

<sup>4</sup>He broke off the topmost of its young twigs and brought it to a land of merchants; he set it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup>He also took from the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil, a meadow beside abundant waters; he set it like a willow.

<sup>6</sup>Then it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine with its branches turned toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and produced shoots and sent out branches.

<sup>7</sup>“But there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage; and behold, this vine turned its roots toward him and sent out its branches toward him from the beds where it was planted, so that he might water it.

<sup>8</sup>It was planted in good soil beside abundant waters, so that it would produce branches and bear fruit, and become a splendid vine.” ’

<sup>9</sup>Say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers—so that all its sprouting shoots wither? And neither by great strength nor by many people can it be raised from its roots again.

<sup>10</sup>Behold, though it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not completely wither as soon as the east wind strikes it—wither on the beds where it grew?” ’ ”

Zedekiah’s Rebellion

<sup>11</sup>Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“Say now to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Say, ‘Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and leaders, and brought them to him in Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>Then he took one of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, <sup>14</sup>so that the kingdom would be humbled, not exalting itself, but keeping his covenant so that it might continue.

<sup>15</sup>But he revolted against him by sending his messengers to Egypt so that they might give him horses and many troops. Will he succeed? Will he who does these things escape? Can he indeed break the covenant and escape?

<sup>16</sup>As I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘In the country of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, in Babylon he shall certainly die.

<sup>18</sup>Now he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and behold, he pledged his allegiance, yet did all these things; he shall not escape.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “As I live, My oath which he despised and My covenant which he broke, I will certainly inflict on his head.

<sup>20</sup>And I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My net. Then I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there regarding the unfaithful act which he has committed against Me.

<sup>21</sup>All the choice men in all his troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to every wind; and you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>22</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and set it out; I will break off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

<sup>23</sup>On the high mountain of Israel I will plant it, so that it may bring forth branches and bear fruit, and become a stately cedar. And birds of every kind will nest under it; they will nest in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup>All the trees of the field will know that I am the LORD; I bring down the high tree, exalt the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will perform it.”

Ezekiel 18

God Deals Justly with Individuals

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“What do you people mean by using this proverb about the land of Israel, saying, ‘The fathers eat sour grapes, But it is the children’s teeth that have become blunt’?

<sup>3</sup>As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “you certainly are not going to use this proverb in Israel anymore.

<sup>5</sup>“But if a man is righteous and practices justice and righteousness,

<sup>6</sup>if he does not eat at the mountain shrines or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, or defile his neighbor's wife or approach a woman during her menstrual period—

<sup>7</sup>and if a man does not oppress anyone, but restores to the debtor his pledge, does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing,

<sup>8</sup>and if he does not lend money at interest or take interest, if he keeps his hand from injustice and executes true justice between one person and another,

<sup>9</sup>if he walks in My statutes and keeps My ordinances so as to deal faithfully—he is righteous and will certainly live,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup>“However, he may father a violent son who sheds blood, and does any one of these things to a brother

<sup>11</sup>(though he himself did not do any of these things), that is, he even eats at the mountain shrines, and defiles his neighbor's wife,

<sup>12</sup>oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not restore a pledge, but raises his eyes to the idols and commits abomination,

<sup>13</sup>lends money at interest and takes interest; will he live? He will not live! He has committed all these abominations, he shall certainly be put to death; his blood will be on himself.

<sup>14</sup>“Now behold, he has fathered a son who saw all his father's sins which he committed, but he has seen them and does not do likewise.

<sup>15</sup>He does not eat at the mountain shrines or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel; he has not defiled his neighbor's wife,

<sup>16</sup>nor oppressed anyone, nor retained a pledge, nor committed robbery; instead, he gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing,

<sup>17</sup>he keeps his hand from the poor, does not take any kind of interest on loans, but executes My ordinances, and walks in My statutes; he will not die for his father's guilt, he will certainly live.

<sup>18</sup>As for his father, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was not good among his people, behold, he will die for his guilt.

<sup>19</sup>"Yet you say, 'Why should the son not suffer the punishment for the father's guilt?' When the son has practiced justice and righteousness and has kept all My statutes and done them, he shall certainly live.

<sup>20</sup>The person who sins will die. A son will not suffer the punishment for the father's guilt, nor will a father suffer the punishment for the son's guilt; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself.

<sup>21</sup>"But if the wicked person turns from all his sins which he has committed and keeps all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.

<sup>22</sup>All his offenses which he has committed will not be remembered against him; because of his righteousness which he has practiced, he will live.

<sup>23</sup>Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked," declares the Lord GOD, "rather than that he would turn from his ways and live?

<sup>24</sup>"But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness, commits injustice and does according to all the abominations that the wicked person does, will he live? All his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered for his treachery which he has committed and his sin which he has committed; for them he will die.

<sup>26</sup>When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness, commits injustice and dies because of it, for his injustice which he has committed he dies.

<sup>27</sup>But when a wicked person turns away from his wickedness which he has committed and practices justice and righteousness, he will save his life.

<sup>28</sup>Since he understood and turned away from all his offenses which he had committed, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.

<sup>29</sup>But the house of Israel says, ‘The way of the Lord is not right.’ Are My ways not right, house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are not right?

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, each according to his conduct,” declares the Lord GOD. “Repent and turn away from all your offenses, so that wrongdoing does not become a stumbling block to you.

<sup>31</sup>Hurl away from you all your offenses which you have committed and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! For why should you die, house of Israel?

<sup>32</sup>For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies,” declares the Lord GOD. “Therefore, repent and live!”

Ezekiel 19

Song of Mourning for the Leaders of Israel

<sup>1</sup>“As for you, take up a song of mourning for the leaders of Israel

<sup>3</sup>‘When she brought up one of her cubs, He became a young lion, And he learned to tear his prey; He devoured people.

<sup>5</sup>‘When she saw, as she waited, That her hope was lost, She took another of her cubs And made him a young lion.

<sup>6</sup>‘And he walked about among the lions, He became a young lion; He learned to tear his prey; He devoured people.

<sup>7</sup>‘He destroyed their palaces And laid waste their cities; And the land and its fullness were appalled Because of the sound of his roaring.

<sup>8</sup>‘Then nations set against him On every side from their provinces, And they spread their net over him; He was caught in their trap.

<sup>9</sup>‘They put him in a wooden collar with hooks And brought him to the king of Babylon; They brought him in hunting nets So that his voice would no longer be heard On the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>‘Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, Planted by the waters; It was fruitful and thick with branches Because of abundant waters.

<sup>11</sup>‘And it had strong stems fit for scepters of rulers, And its height was raised above the clouds So that it was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.

<sup>12</sup>‘But it was uprooted in fury; It was thrown down to the ground; And the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong stem was torn out So that it withered; The fire consumed it.

<sup>13</sup>‘And now it is planted in the wilderness, In a dry and thirsty land.

<sup>14</sup>‘And fire has gone out from its stem; It has consumed its shoots and fruit, So that there is no strong stem in it, A scepter to rule.’” This is a song of mourning, and has become a song of mourning.

Ezekiel 20

God’s Dealings with Israel Rehearsed

<sup>1</sup>Now in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, men from the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and they sat before me.

<sup>2</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>3</sup>“Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Do you yourselves come to inquire of Me? As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “I certainly will not be inquired of by you.”’

<sup>4</sup>Will you judge them, will you judge them, son of man? Make known to them the abominations of their fathers;

<sup>5</sup>and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “On the day when I chose Israel and swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God,

<sup>6</sup>on that day I swore to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had selected for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all the lands.

<sup>7</sup>And I said to them, ‘Throw away, each of you, the detestable things of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>8</sup>But they rebelled against Me and were not willing to listen to Me; they did not throw away, each of them, the detestable things of their eyes, nor did they abandon the idols of Egypt. “Then I resolved to pour out My wrath on them, to use up My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>But I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be defiled in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made Myself known to them by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>So I took them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.

<sup>11</sup>I gave them My statutes and informed them of My ordinances, which, if a person follows them, then he will live by them.

<sup>12</sup>Also I gave them My Sabbaths to be a sign between Me and them, so that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes and they rejected My ordinances, which, if a person follows them, then he will live by them; and they greatly profaned My Sabbaths. Then I resolved to pour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to annihilate them.

<sup>14</sup>But I acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be defiled before the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had brought them out.

<sup>15</sup>Also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all the lands,

<sup>16</sup>because they rejected My ordinances, and as for My statutes, they did not walk in them; they also profaned My Sabbaths, because their heart continually followed their idols.

<sup>17</sup>Yet My eye spared them rather than destroying them, and I did not bring about their annihilation in the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup>I am the LORD your God; walk in My statutes and keep My ordinances and follow them.

<sup>20</sup>Sanctify My Sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>21</sup>But the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, nor were they careful to follow My ordinances which, if a person follows them, then he will live by them; they profaned My Sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out My wrath on them, to use up My anger against them in the wilderness.

<sup>22</sup>But I withdrew My hand and acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be defiled in the sight of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>23</sup>Also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands, <sup>24</sup>because they had not complied with My ordinances, but had rejected My statutes and had profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were on the idols of their fathers.

<sup>25</sup>I also gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances by which they could not live;

<sup>26</sup>and I pronounced them unclean because of their gifts, in that they made all their firstborn pass through the fire so that I might make them desolate, in order that they might know that I am the LORD.” ’

<sup>27</sup>“Therefore speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Again, in this your fathers have blasphemed Me by being disloyal to Me.

<sup>28</sup>When I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill and every tree thick with branches, and there they offered their sacrifices and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There also they made their soothing aroma and there they poured out their drink offerings.

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to them, ‘What is the high place to which you go?’ So its name is called Bamah to this day.” ’

<sup>30</sup>Therefore, say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Will you defile yourselves in the way of your fathers and adulterously pursue their detestable things?

<sup>31</sup>And when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, you are defiling yourselves with all your idols to this day. So shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “I certainly will not be inquired of by you.

<sup>32</sup>And whatever comes into your mind certainly will not come about, when you say: ‘We will be like the nations, like the families of the lands, serving wood and stone.’

God Will Restore Israel to Her Land

<sup>33</sup>“As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm and with wrath poured out, I assuredly shall be king over you.

<sup>34</sup>I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm and with wrath poured out;

<sup>35</sup>and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

<sup>36</sup>Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>37</sup>“I will make you pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant;

<sup>38</sup>and I will purge from you the rebels and those who revolt against Me; I will bring them out of the land where they reside, but they will not enter the land of Israel. So you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>“As for you, house of Israel,” this is what the Lord GOD says: “Go, serve, everyone of you his idols; but later you will certainly listen to Me, and My holy name you will no longer defile with your gifts and your idols.

<sup>40</sup>For on My holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel,” declares the Lord GOD, “there the entire house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land; there I will accept them and there I will demand your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your holy things.

<sup>41</sup>As a soothing aroma I will accept you when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands where you are scattered; and I will show Myself to be holy among you in the sight of the nations.

<sup>42</sup>And you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the land which I swore to give to your forefathers.

<sup>43</sup>And there you will remember your ways and all your deeds by which you have defiled yourselves; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for all the evil things that you have done.

<sup>44</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you in behalf of My name, not according to your evil ways or according to your corrupt deeds, house of Israel,” declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

<sup>45</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>46</sup>“Son of man, set your face toward the south, and speak prophetically against the south and prophesy against the forest land of the Negev, <sup>47</sup>and say to the forest of the Negev, ‘Hear the word of the LORD: this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to kindle a fire in you, and it will consume every green tree in you, as well as every dry tree; the blazing flame will not go out and the entire surface from south to north will be scorched by it.

<sup>48</sup>And all mankind will see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it will not go out.” ’ ”

<sup>49</sup>Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! They are saying of me, ‘Is he not just speaking in riddles?’ ”

Ezekiel 21

Parable of the Sword of the LORD

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem, and speak prophetically against the sanctuaries and prophesy against the land of Israel;

<sup>3</sup>and say to the land of Israel, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am against you; and I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.

<sup>4</sup>Because I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword will go out from its sheath against humanity from south to north.

<sup>5</sup>So humanity will know that I, the LORD, have drawn My sword from its sheath. It will not return to its sheath again.”’

<sup>6</sup>As for you, son of man, groan with a breaking heart and bitter grief; you shall groan in their sight.

<sup>7</sup>And when they say to you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ you shall say, ‘Because of the news, for it is coming; and every heart will melt, all hands will go limp, every spirit will be disheartened, and all knees will drip with water. Behold, it is coming and it will happen,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

<sup>8</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the LORD says:’ Say, ‘A sword, a sword sharpened And also polished!

<sup>10</sup>‘Sharpened to make a slaughter, Polished to flash like lightning!’ Or shall we rejoice, the rod of My son despising every tree?

<sup>11</sup>And it is given to be polished, so that it may be handled; the sword is sharpened and polished, to hand it over to the slaughterer.

<sup>12</sup>Cry out and wail, son of man; for it is against My people, it is against all the officials of Israel. They are turned over to the sword with My people, therefore slap your thigh.

<sup>13</sup>For there is a testing; and what if even the rod which despises will cease to be?” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup>“You therefore, son of man, prophesy and clap your hands; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword for the slain. It is the sword for the great one slain, which surrounds them,

<sup>15</sup>so that their hearts will waver, and many fall at all their gates. I have granted the slaughter of the sword. Oh! It is made for striking like lightning, it is sharpened in readiness for slaughter.

<sup>17</sup>I will also clap My hands, and I will satisfy My wrath; I, the LORD, have spoken.”

The Instrument of God’s Judgment

<sup>18</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>19</sup>“Now as for you, son of man, make two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them will go out of one land. And make a signpost; make it at the head of the way to the city.

<sup>20</sup>You shall mark a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and to Judah into fortified Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>And it will be to them like a false divination in their eyes; they have sworn solemn oaths. But he makes guilt known, so that they may be seized.

<sup>24</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because you have made your guilt known, in that your offenses are uncovered, so that in all your deeds your sins are seen—because you have come to mind, you will be seized by the hand.

<sup>25</sup>And you, slain, wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the punishment of the end,’

<sup>26</sup>this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Remove the turban and take off the crown; this will no longer be the same. Exalt that which is low, and humble that which is high.

<sup>27</sup>Ruins, ruins, ruins, I will make it! This also will be no longer until He comes whose right it is, and I will give it to Him.’

<sup>28</sup>“And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says concerning the sons of Ammon and their taunting,’ and say: ‘A sword, a sword is drawn, sharpened for the slaughter, to make it consume, so that it may be like lightning—

<sup>29</sup>while they see false visions for you, while they divine lies for you—to place you on the necks of the wicked who are killed, whose day has come, in the time of the punishment of the end.

<sup>30</sup>Return it to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you.

<sup>31</sup>I will pour out My indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and I will hand you over to brutal men, craftsmen of destruction.

<sup>32</sup>You will be fuel for the fire; your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, the LORD, have spoken.’ ”

Ezekiel 22

The Sins of Israel

<sup>2</sup>“And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then inform her of all her abominations.

<sup>3</sup>And you shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “A city shedding blood in her midst, so that her time is coming; and a city that makes idols, contrary to her own good, for defilement!

<sup>4</sup>You have become guilty by the blood which you have shed, and you have become defiled by your idols which you have made. So you have brought your days closer and have come to your years; therefore I have made you a disgrace to the nations, and an object of mocking to all the lands.

<sup>5</sup>Those who are near and those who are far from you will make fun of you, you of ill repute, full of turmoil.

<sup>6</sup>“Behold, the rulers of Israel, each according to his power, have been among you for the purpose of shedding blood.

<sup>7</sup>They have treated father and mother with contempt among you. They have oppressed the stranger in your midst; they have oppressed the orphan and the widow among you.

<sup>8</sup>You have despised My holy things and profaned My Sabbaths.

<sup>9</sup>Slandorous men have been among you for the purpose of shedding blood, and among you they have eaten at the mountain shrines. In your midst they have committed outrageous sin.

<sup>10</sup>Among you they have uncovered their fathers’ nakedness; among you they have abused her who was unclean in her menstruation.

<sup>12</sup>Among you they have taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest, you have injured your neighbors by oppression, and you have forgotten Me,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup>“Behold, then, I strike with My hand your profit which you have made and the bloodshed which is among you.

<sup>14</sup>Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong for the days that I will deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken and will act.

<sup>15</sup>And I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you among the lands, and I will eliminate your uncleanness from you.

<sup>16</sup>Then you will defile yourself in the sight of the nations, and you will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

<sup>17</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Son of man, the house of Israel has become waste metal to Me; all of them are bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the smelting furnace; they are the waste metal of silver.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because all of you have become waste metal, therefore, behold, I am going to gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>As they gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the smelting furnace to blow fire on it in order to melt it, so I will gather you in My anger and in My wrath, and I will place you there and melt you.

<sup>21</sup>And I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted in the midst of it.

<sup>22</sup>As silver is melted in the furnace, so you will be melted in the midst of it; and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out My wrath on you.’ ”

<sup>23</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“Son of man, say to her, ‘You are a land that is not clean or rained on in the day of indignation.’

<sup>25</sup>There is a conspiracy of her prophets in her midst like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured lives; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in the midst of her.

<sup>26</sup>Her priests have done violence to My Law and have profaned My holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, and they have not taught the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have closed their eyes from My Sabbaths, and I am defiled among them.

<sup>27</sup>Her leaders within her are like wolves tearing the prey, by shedding blood and destroying lives in order to make dishonest profit.

<sup>28</sup>And her prophets have coated with whitewash for them, seeing false visions and divining lies for them, saying, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says,’ when the LORD has not spoken.

<sup>29</sup>The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery, and they have oppressed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the stranger without justice.

<sup>30</sup>I searched for a man among them who would build up a wall and stand in the gap before Me for the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found no one.

<sup>31</sup>So I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; I have brought their way upon their heads,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 23

Oholah and Oholibah’s Sin and Its Consequences

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother;

<sup>3</sup>and they prostituted themselves in Egypt. They prostituted themselves in their youth; there their breasts were squeezed and there their virgin breasts were handled.

<sup>5</sup>“Oholah prostituted herself while she was Mine; and she lusted after her lovers, after the Assyrians, her neighbors, <sup>6</sup>who were clothed in purple, governors and officials, all of them handsome young men, horsemen riding on horses.

<sup>7</sup>She bestowed her obscene practices on them, all of whom were the choicest men of Assyria; and with all whom she lusted after, with all their idols she defiled herself.

<sup>12</sup>She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and officials, the ones near, opulently dressed, horsemen riding on horses, all of them handsome young men.

<sup>13</sup>And I saw that she had defiled herself; they both took the same way.

<sup>17</sup>And the Babylonians came to her to the bed of love and defiled her with their obscene practice. And when she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust.

<sup>19</sup>Yet she multiplied her obscene practices, remembering the days of her youth, when she prostituted herself in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>She lusted after their lovers, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys and whose discharge is like the discharge of horses.

<sup>21</sup>So you longed for the outrageous sin of your youth, when the Egyptians handled your breasts because of the breasts of your youth.

<sup>22</sup>“Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold I am going to incite your lovers against you, from whom you turned away in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side:

<sup>23</sup>the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; handsome young men, governors and officials all of them, officers and men of renown, all of them riding on horses.

<sup>24</sup>And they will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a contingent of peoples. They will attack you on every side with shield, buckler, and helmet; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their customs.

<sup>25</sup>I will set My jealousy against you, so that they may deal with you in wrath. They will remove your nose and your ears; and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and your survivors will be consumed by the fire.

<sup>26</sup>They will also strip you of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewelry.

<sup>27</sup>So I will remove from you your outrageous sin and your prostitution that you brought from the land of Egypt, so that you will not raise your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.'

<sup>28</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Behold, I am going to hand you over to those whom you hate, to those from whom you turned away in disgust.

<sup>29</sup>They will deal with you in hatred, take all your property, and leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your prostitution will be exposed, both your outrageous sin and your obscene practices.

<sup>30</sup>These things will be done to you because you have adulterously pursued the nations, because you have defiled yourself with their idols.

<sup>31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will put her cup in your hand.'

<sup>32</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: 'You will drink your sister's cup, Which is deep and wide. You will be laughed at and held in derision; Because it contains much.

<sup>33</sup>'You will be filled with drunkenness and grief, A cup of horror and desolation, The cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup>'And you will drink it and drain it. Then you will gnaw on its fragments And tear your breasts; for I have spoken,' declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Because you have forgotten Me and discarded Me behind your back, suffer on your own part the punishment for your outrageous sin and your obscene practices.' "

<sup>36</sup>Moreover, the LORD said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations.

<sup>37</sup>For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. So they have committed adultery with their idols, and even made their sons, whom they bore to Me, pass through the fire to them as food.

<sup>38</sup>Again, they have done this to Me: they have defiled My sanctuary on the same day, and have profaned My Sabbaths.

<sup>39</sup>For when they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary on the same day to profane it; and behold, this is what they did within My house.

<sup>40</sup>“Furthermore, they have even sent for men who come from a great distance, to whom a messenger was sent; and behold, they came—for whom you bathed, put makeup on your eyes, and adorned yourselves with jewelry;

<sup>41</sup>and you sat on a splendid couch with a table arranged in front of it on which you had set My incense and My oil.

<sup>43</sup>“Then I said concerning her who was worn out by adulteries, ‘Will they now commit adultery with her when she is like this?’

<sup>44</sup>But they went in to her as they would go in to a prostitute. This is how they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women.

<sup>45</sup>But they, righteous people, will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses and with the judgment of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

<sup>46</sup>“For this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Bring up a contingent against them and turn them over to terror and plunder.

<sup>47</sup>The contingent will stone them with stones and cut them down with their swords; they will kill their sons and their daughters and burn their houses with fire.

<sup>48</sup>So I will eliminate outrageous conduct from the land, so that all women will take warning and not commit outrageous sin as you have done.

<sup>49</sup>Your outrageous conduct will be repaid to you, and you will bear the guilt for your idols; so you will know that I am the Lord GOD.’ ”

Ezekiel 24

Parable of the Boiling Pot

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, write the name of the day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

<sup>3</sup>Present a parable to the rebellious house and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Put on the pot, put it on and also pour water into it;

<sup>5</sup>“Take the choicest of the flock, And also stack wood under the pot. Make it boil vigorously. Also boil its bones in it.”

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Woe to the bloody city, To the pot in which there is rust And whose rust has not gone out of it! Take out of it piece after piece, Without making a choice.

<sup>7</sup>“For her blood is in her midst; She placed it on the bare rock; She did not pour it on the ground To cover it with dust.

<sup>8</sup>“So that it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have put her blood on the bare rock, So that it will not be covered.”

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the wood pile great.

<sup>10</sup>“Heap on the wood, kindle the fire, Cook the meat thoroughly And mix in the spices, And let the bones be burned up.

<sup>11</sup>“Then set it empty on its burning coals So that it may be hot And its bronze may glow, And its filthiness may be melted in it, Its rust eliminated.

<sup>12</sup>“She has wearied Me with work, Yet her great rust has not gone from her; Let her rust be in the fire!

<sup>13</sup>“In your filthiness is outrageous sin. Because I would have cleansed you, Yet you are not clean, You will not be cleansed from your filthiness again Until I have expended My wrath on you.

<sup>14</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken; it is coming and I will act. I will not overlook, I will not pity, and I will not be sorry; according to your ways and according to your deeds I will judge you,” declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

Death of Ezekiel's Wife Is a Sign

<sup>15</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“Son of man, behold, I am about to take from you what is precious to your eyes with a fatal blow; but you shall not mourn and you shall not weep, and your tears shall not come.

<sup>17</sup>Groan silently; do no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban and put your sandals on your feet, and do not cover your mustache, and do not eat the bread of other people.”

<sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And in the morning I did as I was commanded.

<sup>19</sup>And the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are doing?”

<sup>20</sup>Then I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>‘Speak to the house of Israel, “This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I am about to profane My sanctuary, the pride of your power, that which is precious in your eyes and the longing of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.

<sup>22</sup>And you will do just as I have done; you will not cover your mustache, and you will not eat the bread of other people.

<sup>23</sup>Your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn and you will not weep; but you will rot away in your guilty deeds, and you will groan to one another.

<sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel will be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When it comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.’ ”

<sup>25</sup>‘As for you, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their stronghold, the joy of their splendor, that which is precious in their eyes and their heart’s longing, their sons and their daughters, <sup>26</sup>that on that day the one who escapes will come to you with information for your ears?

<sup>27</sup>On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escaped, and you will speak and no longer be silenced. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 25

Judgment on Gentile Nations—Ammon

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them,

<sup>3</sup>and say to the sons of Ammon, ‘Hear the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you said, ‘Aha!’ against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup>therefore, behold, I am going to give you to the people of the east as a possession, and they will set up their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup>I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels, and the sons of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and have rejoiced with all the malice in your soul against the land of Israel, <sup>7</sup>therefore, behold, I have reached out with My hand against you and I will give you as plunder to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples and eliminate you from the lands. I will exterminate you. So you will know that I am the LORD.”

Moab

<sup>8</sup>“The Lord GOD says this: “Because Moab and Seir say, ‘Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations,’

<sup>9</sup>therefore, behold, I am going to deprive the flank of Moab of its cities, of its cities which are on its frontiers, the glory of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim;

<sup>10</sup>and I will give it as a possession along with the sons of Ammon to the people of the east, so that the sons of Ammon will not be remembered among the nations.

<sup>11</sup>So I will execute judgments on Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Edom

<sup>12</sup>“The Lord GOD says this: “Because Edom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has incurred great guilt, and avenged themselves upon them,” <sup>13</sup>therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also reach out with My hand against Edom and eliminate human and animal life from it. And I will turn it into ruins; from Teman even to Dedan they will fall by the sword.

<sup>14</sup>And I will inflict My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. Therefore, they will act in Edom in accordance with My anger and My wrath; so they will know My vengeance,” declares the Lord GOD.

Philistia

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because the Philistines have acted in revenge, and have taken vengeance with malice in their souls to destroy with everlasting hostility,”

<sup>16</sup>therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to reach out with My hand against the Philistines and eliminate the Cherethites; and I will destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

<sup>17</sup>I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they will know that I am the LORD, when I inflict My vengeance on them.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 26

Judgment on Tyre

<sup>1</sup>Now in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, because Tyre has said in regard to Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gateway of the peoples is broken; it has opened to me. I shall be filled, now that she is laid waste,’

<sup>3</sup>therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves.

<sup>4</sup>They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers; and I will sweep her debris away from her and make her a bare rock.

<sup>5</sup>She will become a dry place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,’ declares the Lord GOD; ‘and she will become plunder for the nations.

<sup>6</sup>Also her daughters who are on the mainland will be killed by the sword, and they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>For the Lord GOD says this: “Behold, I am going to bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a great army.

<sup>8</sup>He will kill your daughters on the mainland with the sword; and he will make siege walls against you, pile up an assault ramp against you, and raise up a large shield against you.

<sup>9</sup>And he will direct the blow of his battering rams against your walls, and he will tear down your towers with his axes.

<sup>10</sup>Because of the multitude of his horses, the dust raised by them will cover you; your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots when he enters your gates as warriors enter a city that is breached.

<sup>11</sup>With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will go down to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>Also they will take your riches as spoils and plunder your merchandise, tear down your walls and destroy your delightful houses, and throw your stones, your timbers, and your debris into the water.

<sup>13</sup>So I will put an end to the sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps will no longer be heard.

<sup>14</sup>I will turn you into a bare rock; you will become a dry place for the spreading of nets. You will not be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken," declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord GOD says this to Tyre: "Will the coastlands not shake from the sound of your downfall when the wounded groan, when the slaughter takes place in your midst?

<sup>16</sup>Then all the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their colorfully woven garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble again and again, and be appalled at you.

<sup>17</sup>And they will take up a song of mourning over you and say to you, 'How you have perished, you inhabited one, From the seas, you famous city, Which was mighty on the sea, She and her inhabitants, Who imposed her terror On all her inhabitants!

<sup>18</sup>‘Now the coastlands will tremble On the day of your downfall; Yes, the coastlands which are by the sea Will be horrified at your passing.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>For this is what the Lord GOD says: “When I make you a desolate city, like the cities which are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep over you and the great waters cover you,

<sup>20</sup>then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of old, and I will make you remain in the lower parts of the earth, like the ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, so that you will not be inhabited; but I will put glory in the land of the living.

<sup>21</sup>I will cause you sudden terrors and you will no longer exist; though you will be sought, you will never be found again,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 27

Grief over Tyre

<sup>1</sup>Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>3</sup>and say to Tyre, who sits at the entrance to the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coastlands, “This is what the Lord GOD says: “Tyre, you have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’

<sup>5</sup>“They have made all your planks of juniper trees from Senir; They have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

<sup>7</sup>“Your sail was of colorfully embroidered linen from Egypt So that it became your flag; Your awning was violet and purple from the coastlands of Elishah.

<sup>8</sup>“The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; Your wise men, Tyre, were aboard; they were your sailors.

<sup>9</sup>“The elders of Gebal and her wise men were with you repairing your leaks; All the ships of the sea and their sailors were with you in order to deal in your merchandise.

<sup>10</sup>“Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, your men of war. They hung up shield and helmet on you; they presented your splendor.

<sup>11</sup>The sons of Arvad and your army were on your walls, all around, and the Gammadim were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around; they perfected your beauty.

<sup>12</sup>“Tarshish was your customer because of the abundance of all kinds of wealth; with silver, iron, tin, and lead they paid for your merchandise.

<sup>17</sup>Judah and the land of Israel, they were your traders; with the wheat of Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balsam they paid for your merchandise.

<sup>18</sup>Damascus was your customer because of the abundance of your goods, because of the abundance of all kinds of wealth, because of the wine of Helbon and white wool.

<sup>19</sup>Vedan and Javan paid for your merchandise from Uzal; wrought iron, cassia, and spice reed were among your merchandise.

<sup>22</sup>The traders of Sheba and Raamah, they traded with you; they paid for your merchandise with the best of all balsam oil, and with all kinds of precious stones, and gold.

<sup>24</sup>They traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of violet and colorfully woven cloth, and in blankets of two colors, and tightly wound cords, which were among your merchandise.

<sup>25</sup>The ships of Tarshish were the carriers for your merchandise. And you were filled and were very glorious In the heart of the seas.

<sup>26</sup>“Your rowers have brought you Into great waters; The east wind has broken you In the heart of the seas.

<sup>27</sup>“Your wealth, your wares, your merchandise, Your seamen and your sailors, Your repairers of leaks, your dealers in merchandise, And all your men of war who are in you, With all your contingent that is in your midst, Will fall into the heart of the seas On the day of your overthrow.

<sup>29</sup>“All who handle the oar, The seamen and all the sailors of the sea Will come down from their ships; They will stand on the land, <sup>30</sup>And they will make their voice heard over you And cry out bitterly. They will throw dust on their heads, They will wallow in ashes.

<sup>31</sup>“Also they will shave themselves bald for you And put on sackcloth; And they will weep for you in bitterness of soul With bitter mourning.

<sup>32</sup>“Moreover, in their wailing they will take up a song of mourning for you And sing a song of mourning over you: ‘Who is like Tyre, Like her who is silent in the midst of the sea?

<sup>33</sup>“When your merchandise went out from the seas, You satisfied many peoples; With the abundance of your wealth and your merchandise You enriched the kings of the earth.

<sup>34</sup>“Now that you are broken by the seas In the depths of the waters, Your merchandise and all your company Have fallen in the midst of you.

<sup>35</sup>“All the inhabitants of the coastlands Are appalled at you, And their kings are horribly afraid; They have a troubled look.

<sup>36</sup>“The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; You have become terrified
And you will cease to be forever.’ ” ” ”

Ezekiel 28

Tyre’s King Overthrown

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, ‘The Lord GOD says this: “Because your heart is haughty And you have said, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods
In the heart of the seas’; Yet you are a mortal and not God, Although you make your heart like the heart of God—

<sup>3</sup>Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; There is no secret that is a match for you!

<sup>4</sup>“By your wisdom and understanding You have acquired riches for yourself
And have acquired gold and silver for your treasuries.

<sup>5</sup>“By your great wisdom, by your trade You have increased your riches, And your heart is haughty because of your riches—

<sup>6</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because you have made your heart Like the heart of God,

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, behold, I am going to bring strangers against you, The most ruthless of the nations. And they will draw their swords Against the beauty of your wisdom And profane your splendor.

<sup>8</sup>They will bring you down to the pit, And you will die the death of those who are killed In the heart of the seas.

<sup>9</sup>Will you still say, “I am a god,” In the presence of one who kills you, Though you are a mortal and not God, In the hands of those who wound you?

<sup>10</sup>“You will die the death of the uncircumcised By the hand of strangers, For I have spoken!’ declares the Lord GOD!” ’ ”

<sup>11</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>12</sup>“Son of man, take up a song of mourning over the king of Tyre and say to him, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “You had the seal of perfection, Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

<sup>13</sup>“You were in Eden, the garden of God; Every precious stone was your covering: The ruby, the topaz and the diamond; The beryl, the onyx and the jasper; The lapis lazuli, the turquoise and the emerald; And the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets, Was in you. On the day that you were created They were prepared.

<sup>14</sup>“You were the anointed cherub who covers, And I placed you there. You were on the holy mountain of God; You walked in the midst of the stones of fire.

<sup>15</sup>“You were blameless in your ways From the day you were created Until unrighteousness was found in you.

<sup>16</sup>“By the abundance of your trade You were internally filled with violence, And you sinned; Therefore I have cast you as profane From the mountain of God. And I have destroyed you, you covering cherub, From the midst of the stones of fire.

<sup>17</sup>“Your heart was haughty because of your beauty; You corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor. I threw you to the ground; I put you before kings, That they may see you.

<sup>18</sup>“By the multitude of your wrongdoings, In the unrighteousness of your trade You profaned your sanctuaries. Therefore I have brought fire from the midst of you; It has consumed you, And I have turned you to ashes on the earth In the eyes of all who see you.

<sup>19</sup>“All who know you among the peoples Are appalled at you; You have become terrified And you will cease to be forever.” ’ ’ ”

Judgment of Sidon

<sup>20</sup>And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>22</sup>and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against you, Sidon, And I will appear in My glory in your midst. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I execute judgments against her, And I will reveal Myself as holy in her.

<sup>23</sup>“For I will send a plague to her And blood to her streets, And the wounded will fall in her midst By the sword upon her on every side; Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>And there will no longer be for the house of Israel a painful thorn or a hurtful thorn bush from any surrounding them who despised them; then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Israel Regathered

<sup>25</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and show Myself holy among them in the sight of the nations, then they will live on their land which I gave to My servant Jacob.

<sup>26</sup>They will live on it securely; and they will build houses, plant vineyards, and live securely when I execute judgments upon all around them who despise them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.” ’ ’ ”

Ezekiel 29

Judgment of Egypt

<sup>1</sup>In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Speak and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, The great monster that lies in the midst of his canals, That has said, ‘My Nile is mine, and I myself have made it.’

<sup>4</sup>“I will put hooks in your jaws And make the fish of your canals cling to your scales. And I will bring you up out of the midst of your canals, And all the fish of your canals will cling to your scales.

<sup>5</sup>“I will abandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your canals; You will fall on the open field; you will not be brought together or gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.

<sup>6</sup>“Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, Because they have been only a staff made of reed to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>“When they took hold of you with the hand, You broke and tore all their hands; And when they leaned on you, You broke and made all their hips shake.”

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore the Lord GOD says this: “Behold, I am going to bring upon you a sword, and I will cut off from you human and animal life.

<sup>9</sup>The land of Egypt will become a desolation and place of ruins. Then they will know that I am the LORD. “Because you said, ‘The Nile is mine, and I have made it,’

<sup>10</sup>therefore, behold, I am against you and against your canals, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene and as far as the border of Cush.

<sup>11</sup>A human foot will not pass through it, nor will the foot of an animal pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years.

<sup>12</sup>So I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of deserted lands. And her cities, in the midst of cities that are laid waste, will be desolate for forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.”

<sup>13</sup>‘For this is what the Lord GOD says: “At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered.

<sup>14</sup>And I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom.

<sup>15</sup>It will be the lowest of the kingdoms, and it will not raise itself above the nations again. And I will make them small so that they will not rule over the nations.

<sup>16</sup>And it will no longer be a kingdom on which the house of Israel relies, bringing to mind the guilt of their having turned to Egypt. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>17</sup>Now in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labor hard against Tyre; every head had a bald spot and every shoulder was rubbed raw. But he and his army acquired no wages from Tyre for the labor that he had performed against it.”

<sup>19</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And he will carry off her wealth and capture her spoils and seize her plunder; and it will be wages for his army.

<sup>20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor which he performed, because they acted for Me,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup>“On that day I will make a horn sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30

Grief over Egypt

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, prophesy and say, “This is what the Lord GOD says: “Wail, ‘Woe for the day!’

<sup>3</sup>“For the day is near, Indeed, the day of the LORD is near; It will be a day of clouds, A time of doom for the nations.

<sup>4</sup>“A sword will come upon Egypt, And there will be trembling in Cush; When the slain fall in Egypt, They will take away her wealth, And her foundations will be torn down.

<sup>5</sup> Cush, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya and the people of the land that is in league will fall with them by the sword.”

<sup>6</sup>“This is what the LORD says: “Indeed, those who support Egypt will fall And the pride of her power will come down; From Migdol to Syene They will fall within her by the sword,” Declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup>“They will be desolate In the midst of the desolated lands; And her cities will be In the midst of the devastated cities.

<sup>8</sup>“And they will know that I am the LORD, When I set a fire in Egypt And all her helpers are broken.

<sup>9</sup>On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to frighten carefree Cush; and trembling will come on them as on the day of Egypt; for behold, it is coming!”

<sup>10</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also make the hordes of Egypt cease By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>11</sup>“He and his people with him, The most ruthless of the nations, Will be brought in to destroy the land; And they will draw their swords against Egypt And fill the land with the slain.

<sup>12</sup>“Moreover, I will make the Nile canals dry And sell the land into the hands of evil men. And I will make the land desolate And all that is in it, By the hand of strangers; I the LORD have spoken.”

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also destroy the idols And make the images cease from Memphis. And there will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt; And I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>“I will make Pathros desolate, Set a fire in Zoan And execute judgments on Thebes.

<sup>15</sup>“I will pour out My wrath on Sin, The stronghold of Egypt; I will also eliminate the hordes of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup>“I will set a fire in Egypt; Sin will writhe in anguish, Thebes will be breached And Memphis will have distresses daily.

<sup>17</sup>“The young men of On and of Pi-beseth Will fall by the sword, And the women will go into captivity.

<sup>18</sup>“In Tehaphnehes the day will be dark When I break there the yoke bars of Egypt. Then the pride of her power will cease in her; A cloud will cover her, And her daughters will go into captivity.

<sup>19</sup>“So I will execute judgments on Egypt, And they will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ’

Victory for Babylon

<sup>20</sup>In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>21</sup>“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, behold, it has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage, so that it may be strong to wield the sword.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and I will break his arms, both the strong and the broken; and I will make the sword fall from his hand.

<sup>23</sup>And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands.

<sup>24</sup>For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; and I will break the arms of Pharaoh, so that he will groan before him with the groans of a wounded man.

<sup>25</sup>So I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fail. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he reaches out with it against the land of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup>When I scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands, then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Ezekiel 31

Pharaoh Warned of Assyria's Fate

<sup>1</sup>In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes, ‘Whom are you like in your greatness?

<sup>4</sup>The waters made it grow, the deep made it high. With its rivers it continually extended all around its planting place, And sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore its height was loftier than all the trees of the field And its boughs became many and its branches long Because of many waters as it spread them out.

<sup>7</sup>So it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; For its roots extended to many waters.

<sup>8</sup>The cedars in God's garden could not match it; The junipers could not compare with its branches, And the plane trees could not match its branches. No tree in God's garden could compare with it in its beauty.

<sup>9</sup>I made it beautiful with the multitude of its branches, And all the trees of Eden, which were in the garden of God, were jealous of it.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "Because it is tall in stature and has put its top among the clouds, and its heart is haughty in its loftiness, <sup>11</sup>I will hand it over to a ruler of the nations; he will thoroughly deal with it. In accordance with its wickedness I have driven it out.

<sup>12</sup>Foreign tyrants of the nations have cut it down and left it; on the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its branches have been broken in all the ravines of the land. And all the peoples of the earth have gone down from its shade and left it.

<sup>13</sup>All the birds of the sky will nest on its fallen trunk, and all the animals of the field will rest on its fallen branches,

<sup>14</sup>so that all the trees by the waters will not be exalted in their stature, nor put their tops among the clouds, nor will any of their well-watered mighty ones stand straight in their height. For they have all been turned over to death, to the earth beneath, among mankind, with those who go down to the pit.”

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “On the day when it went down to Sheol I caused mourning; I closed the deep over it and held back its rivers. And its many waters were stopped up, and I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted away on account of it.

<sup>16</sup>I made the nations quake from the sound of its fall when I made it go down to Sheol with those who go down to the pit; and all the well-watered trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the earth beneath.

<sup>17</sup>They also went down with it to Sheol to those who were slain by the sword; and those who were its strength lived in its shade among the nations.

<sup>18</sup>“To which among the trees of Eden are you so alike in glory and greatness? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth beneath; you will lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who were killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes!” ’ declares the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel 32

Grief over Pharaoh and Egypt

<sup>1</sup>In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, take up a song of mourning over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, ‘You compared yourself to a young lion of the nations, Yet you are like the monster in the seas; And you burst forth in your rivers And muddied the waters with your feet And fouled their rivers.’ ”

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “Now I will spread My net over you With a contingent of many peoples, And they will lift you up in My net.

<sup>4</sup>“I will leave you on the land; I will hurl you on the open field. And I will cause all the birds of the sky to nest on you, And I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you.

<sup>5</sup>“I will lay your flesh on the mountains And fill the valleys with your refuse.

<sup>6</sup>“I will also make the land drink the discharge of your blood As far as the mountains, And the ravines will be full of you.

<sup>7</sup>“And when I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars; I will cover the sun with a cloud And the moon will not give its light.

<sup>8</sup>“All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you And will set darkness on your land,” Declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup>“I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring your destruction among the nations, into lands which you have not known.

<sup>10</sup>And I will make many peoples appalled at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and they will tremble again and again, every person for his own life, on the day of your fall.”

<sup>11</sup>For the Lord GOD says this: “The sword of the king of Babylon will attack you.

<sup>12</sup>By the swords of the warriors I will make your multitude fall; all of them are tyrants of the nations, And they will devastate the pride of Egypt, And all its multitude will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup>“I will also eliminate all its cattle from beside many waters; And a human foot will not muddy them anymore, And the hoofs of animals will not muddy them.

<sup>14</sup>“Then I will make their waters settle, And make their rivers run like oil,” Declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup>“When I make the land of Egypt a desolation, And the land is destitute of that which filled it, When I strike all those who live in it, Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>18</sup>"Son of man, lament for the hordes of Egypt and bring it down, her and the daughters of the mighty nations, to the netherworld, with those who go down to the pit;

<sup>19</sup>'Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down and make your bed with the uncircumcised.'

<sup>20</sup>They shall fall in the midst of those who are killed by the sword. She is turned over to the sword; they have dragged her and all her hordes away.

<sup>21</sup>The strong among the mighty ones shall speak of him and his helpers from the midst of Sheol: 'They have gone down, they lie still, the uncircumcised, killed by the sword.'

<sup>22</sup>"Assyria is there and all her company; her graves are all around her. All of them killed, fallen by the sword,

<sup>24</sup>"Elam is there and all her hordes around her grave; all of them killed, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, who inflicted their terror on the land of the living, and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>25</sup>They have made a bed for her among the slain with all her hordes. Her graves are around it, they are all uncircumcised, killed by the sword (although their terror was inflicted on the land of the living), and they bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit; they were put in the midst of the slain.

<sup>26</sup>“Meshech, Tubal, and all their hordes are there; their graves surround them. All of them were killed by the sword uncircumcised, though they inflicted their terror on the land of the living.

<sup>27</sup>Nor do they lie beside the fallen heroes of the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war and whose swords were placed under their heads; but the punishment for their wrongdoing rested on their bones, though the terror of these heroes was once in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup>But in the midst of the uncircumcised you will be broken and lie with those killed by the sword.

<sup>29</sup>“There also is Edom, its kings and all its princes, who despite all their might are laid with those killed by the sword; they will lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup>“There also are the chiefs of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who in spite of the terror resulting from their might, in shame went down with the slain. So they lay down uncircumcised with those killed by the sword and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>31</sup>“These Pharaoh will see, and he will find consolation regarding all his hordes killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his army,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>32</sup>“Though I inflicted the terror of him on the land of the living, yet he will be laid to rest among the uncircumcised along with those killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his hordes,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 33

The Watchman's Duty

<sup>1</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them, ‘If I bring a sword upon a land, and the people of the land take one man from among them and make him their watchman,

<sup>3</sup>and he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the horn and warns the people,

<sup>4</sup>then someone who hears the sound of the horn but does not take warning, and a sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.

<sup>5</sup>He heard the sound of the horn but did not take warning; his blood will be on himself. But had he taken warning, he would have saved his life.

<sup>6</sup>But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the horn and the people are not warned, and a sword comes and takes a person from them, he is taken away for his wrongdoing; but I will require his blood from the watchman’s hand.’

<sup>7</sup>“Now as for you, son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel; so you will hear a message from My mouth and give them a warning from Me.

<sup>8</sup>When I say to the wicked, ‘You wicked person, you will certainly die,’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked about his way, that wicked person shall die for his wrongdoing, but I will require his blood from your hand.

<sup>9</sup>But if you on your part warn a wicked person to turn from his way and he does not turn from his way, he will die for his wrongdoing, but you have saved your life.

<sup>10</sup>“Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what you have said: “Surely our offenses and our sins are upon us, and we are rotting away in them; how then can we survive?”’

<sup>11</sup>Say to them, ‘As I live!’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘I take no pleasure at all in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why then should you die, house of Israel?’

<sup>12</sup>And you, son of man, say to your fellow citizens, ‘The righteousness of a righteous one will not save him on the day of his offense, and as for the wickedness of a wicked one, he will not stumble because of it on the day when he turns from his wickedness; whereas a righteous one will not be able to live by his righteousness on the day when he commits sin.’

<sup>13</sup>When I say to the righteous that he will certainly live, and he so trusts in his righteousness that he commits injustice, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but for that same injustice of his which he has committed he will die.

<sup>14</sup>But when I say to the wicked, ‘You will certainly die,’ and he turns from his sin and practices justice and righteousness,

<sup>15</sup>if a wicked person returns a pledge, pays back what he has taken by robbery, walks by the statutes which ensure life without committing injustice, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.

<sup>16</sup>None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has practiced justice and righteousness; he shall certainly live.

<sup>17</sup>“Yet your fellow citizens say, ‘The way of the Lord is not right,’ when it is their own way that is not right.

<sup>18</sup>When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits injustice, then he shall die in it.

<sup>19</sup>But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and practices justice and righteousness, he will live by them.

<sup>20</sup>Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not right.’ I will judge each of you according to his ways, house of Israel.”

Word of Jerusalem’s Capture

<sup>21</sup>Now in the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth of the tenth month, the survivor from Jerusalem came to me, saying, “The city has been taken.”

<sup>22</sup>Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, before the survivors came. And He opened my mouth at the time they came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened and I was no longer speechless.

<sup>23</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>24</sup>“Son of man, they who live in these ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one, yet he possessed the land; so to us who are many the land has been given as a possession.’

<sup>25</sup>Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “You eat meat with the blood in it, raise your eyes to your idols as you shed blood. Should you then possess the land?

<sup>26</sup>You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you then possess the land?”’

<sup>27</sup>You shall say this to them: ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “As I live, those who are in the places of ruins certainly will fall by the sword, and whoever is in the open field I will give to the animals to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of plague.

<sup>28</sup>And I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and the pride of her power will be brought to an end; and the mountains of Israel will be deserted so that no one will pass through.

<sup>29</sup>Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have committed.”’

<sup>30</sup>“But as for you, son of man, your fellow citizens who talk with one another about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses, speak one with another, each with his brother, saying, ‘Come now and hear what the message is that comes from the LORD.’

<sup>31</sup>And they come to you as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words, but they do not do them; for they do the lustful desires expressed by their mouth, and their heart follows their unlawful gain.

<sup>32</sup>And behold, you are to them like a love song by one who has a beautiful voice and plays well on an instrument; for they hear your words but they do not practice them.

<sup>33</sup>So when it comes—as it certainly will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34

Prophecy against the Shepherds of Israel

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Woe, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding themselves! Should the shepherds not feed the flock?

<sup>3</sup>You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fat sheep without feeding the flock.

<sup>4</sup>Those who are sickly you have not strengthened, the diseased you have not healed, the broken you have not bound up, the scattered you have not brought back, nor have you searched for the lost; but with force and with violence you have dominated them.

<sup>5</sup>They scattered for lack of a shepherd, and they became food for every animal of the field and scattered.

<sup>6</sup>My flock strayed through all the mountains and on every high hill; My flock was scattered over all the surface of the earth, and there was no one to search or seek for them.” ’ ’

<sup>8</sup>“As I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “certainly, because My flock has become plunder, and My flock has become food for all the animals of the field for lack of a shepherd, and My shepherds did not search for My flock, but rather the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock,

<sup>10</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand My sheep from them and make them stop tending sheep. So the shepherds will not feed themselves anymore, but I will save My sheep from their mouth, so that they will not be food for them.” ’ ”

The Restoration of Israel

<sup>11</sup>For the Lord GOD says this: “Behold, I Myself will search for My sheep and look after them.

<sup>12</sup>As a shepherd cares for his flock on a day when he is among his scattered sheep, so I will care for My sheep and will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and gloomy day.

<sup>13</sup>I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries and bring them to their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

<sup>14</sup>I will feed them in a good pasture, and their grazing place will be on the mountain heights of Israel. There they will lie down in a good grazing place and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>I Myself will feed My flock and I Myself will lead them to rest,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup>“I will seek the lost, bring back the scattered, bind up the broken, and strengthen the sick; but the fat and the strong I will eliminate. I will feed them with judgment.

<sup>17</sup>“As for you, My flock, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I am going to judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the male goats.

<sup>18</sup>Is it too little a thing for you to feed in the good pasture, that you must trample with your feet the rest of your pastures? Or too little for you to drink the clear waters, that you must muddy the rest with your feet?

<sup>19</sup>But as for My flock, they must eat what you trample with your feet, and drink what you muddy with your feet!’ ”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says to them: “Behold, I, I Myself will also judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

<sup>21</sup>Since you push away with your side and shoulder, and gore all the weak with your horns until you have scattered them abroad,

<sup>22</sup>therefore, I will save My flock, and they will no longer be plunder; and I will judge between one sheep and another.

<sup>23</sup>“Then I will appoint over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will feed them; he will feed them himself and be their shepherd.

<sup>24</sup>And I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David will be prince among them; I the LORD have spoken.

<sup>25</sup>“And I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate harmful animals from the land, so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

<sup>26</sup>I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. And I will make showers fall in their season; they will be showers of blessing.

<sup>27</sup>Also the tree of the field will yield its fruit and the earth will yield its produce, and they will be secure on their land. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have saved them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

<sup>28</sup>They will no longer be plunder to the nations, and the animals of the earth will not devour them; but they will live securely, and no one will make them afraid.

<sup>29</sup>I will establish for them a renowned planting place, and they will not again be victims of famine in the land, and they will not endure the insults of the nations anymore.

<sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>31</sup>“As for you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are mankind, and I am your God,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 35

Prophecy against Mount Seir

<sup>3</sup>and say to it, “This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, And I will reach out with My hand against you And make you a desolation and a waste.

<sup>4</sup>“I will turn your cities to ruins, And you will become a desolation. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Since you have had everlasting hostility and have turned over the sons of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their disaster, at the time of the punishment of the end,

<sup>6</sup>therefore as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “I will certainly doom you to bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you; since you have not hated bloodshed, therefore bloodshed will pursue you.

<sup>7</sup>I will make Mount Seir a waste and a desolation and I will eliminate from it one who passes through and returns.

<sup>8</sup>I will fill its mountains with its slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines.

<sup>9</sup>I will make you a permanent desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“Since you have said, ‘These two nations and these two lands will be mine, and we will possess them,’ although the LORD was there,

<sup>11</sup>therefore as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “I will deal with you according to your anger and according to your envy which you displayed because of your hatred for them; so I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

<sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel saying, ‘They are desolate; they have been given to us as food.’

<sup>13</sup>And you have spoken arrogantly against Me and have multiplied your words against Me; I Myself have heard it.”

<sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “As all the earth rejoices, I will make you a desolation.

<sup>15</sup>As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be a desolation, Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the LORD.” ’

Ezekiel 36

The Mountains of Israel to Be Blessed

<sup>1</sup>“Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “Since the enemy has spoken against you, ‘Aha!’ and, ‘The everlasting heights have become our possession,’

<sup>3</sup>therefore prophesy and say, “This is what the Lord GOD says: “For good reason they have made you desolate and harassed you from every side, so that you would become a possession of the rest of the nations; and you have been taken up in the talk and the rumor of the people.” ’ ”

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, to the desolate ruins and to the abandoned cities which have become plunder and an object of ridicule to the rest of the nations which are all around—

<sup>5</sup>therefore the Lord GOD says this: “Certainly in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who appropriated My land for themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and with contempt of soul, in order to make its pastureland plunder.”

<sup>6</sup>Therefore prophesy in regard to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the ravines and to the valleys, “This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and in My wrath because you have endured the insults of the nations.’

<sup>7</sup>Therefore the Lord GOD says this: ‘I have sworn that the nations that are around you will certainly endure their insults themselves.

<sup>8</sup>But as for you, mountains of Israel, you will grow your branches and bear fruit for My people Israel; for they are about to come.

<sup>9</sup>For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be cultivated and sown.

<sup>10</sup>And I will multiply people on you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities will be inhabited and the ruins will be rebuilt.

<sup>11</sup>I will multiply on you people and animals, and they will increase and be fruitful; and I will populate you as you were previously, and treat you better than at the beginning. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, I will have people—My people Israel—walk on you and possess you, so that you will become their inheritance and never again bereave them of children.’

<sup>13</sup>“The Lord GOD says this: ‘Since they say to you, “You are a devourer of people and have bereaved your nation of children,”

<sup>14</sup>for that reason you will no longer devour people and no longer bereave your nation of children,’ declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup>I will not let you hear insults from the nations anymore, nor will you suffer disgrace from the peoples any longer, nor will you make your nation stumble any longer,” declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>17</sup>“Son of man, when the house of Israel was living on their own land, they defiled it by their ways and their deeds; their way before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore I poured out My wrath on them for the blood which they had shed on the land, because they had defiled it with their idols.

<sup>19</sup>I also scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the lands. According to their ways and their deeds I judged them.

<sup>20</sup>When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned My holy name, because it was said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, yet they have left His land.’

<sup>21</sup>But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

Israel to Be Renewed for His Name’s Sake

<sup>22</sup>“Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “It is not for your sake, house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for My holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you went.

<sup>23</sup>And I will vindicate the holiness of My great name which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD,” declares the Lord GOD, “when I show Myself holy among you in their sight.

<sup>24</sup>For I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the lands; and I will bring you into your own land.

<sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols.

<sup>26</sup>Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

<sup>27</sup>And I will put My Spirit within you and bring it about that you walk in My statutes, and are careful and follow My ordinances.

<sup>28</sup>And you will live in the land that I gave to your forefathers; so you will be My people, and I will be your God.

<sup>29</sup>Moreover, I will save you from all your uncleanness; and I will call for the grain and multiply it, and I will not bring a famine on you.

<sup>30</sup>Instead, I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will not receive again the disgrace of famine among the nations.

<sup>31</sup>Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your wrongdoings and your abominations.

<sup>32</sup>I am not doing this for your sake,” declares the Lord GOD; “let that be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated for your ways, house of Israel!”

<sup>33</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “On the day that I cleanse you from all your wrongdoings, I will populate the cities, and the places of ruins will be rebuilt.

<sup>34</sup>The desolated land will be cultivated instead of being a desolation in the sight of everyone who passes by.

<sup>35</sup>And they will say, ‘This desolated land has become like the Garden of Eden; and the waste, desolated and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.’

<sup>36</sup>Then the nations around you that are left will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted that which was desolated; I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.”

<sup>37</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “This too I will let the house of Israel ask Me to do for them: I will increase their people like a flock.

<sup>38</sup>Like the flock for sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so will the waste cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 37

Vision of the Valley of Dry Bones

<sup>1</sup>The hand of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones.

<sup>2</sup>He had me pass among them all around, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley; and behold, they were very dry.

<sup>3</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” And I answered, “Lord GOD, You Yourself know.”

<sup>4</sup>Again He said to me, “Prophecy over these bones and say to them, ‘You dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.’

<sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says to these bones: ‘Behold, I am going to make breath enter you so that you may come to life.

<sup>6</sup>And I will attach tendons to you, make flesh grow back on you, cover you with skin, and put breath in you so that you may come to life; and you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a loud noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

<sup>8</sup>And I looked, and behold, tendons were on them, and flesh grew and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then He said to me, “Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, ‘The Lord GOD says this: “Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, so that they come to life.” ’ ”

<sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

The Vision Explained

<sup>11</sup>Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the entire house of Israel; behold, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up and our hope has perished. We are completely cut off.’

<sup>12</sup>Therefore prophecy and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to open your graves and cause you to come up out of your graves, My people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves and caused you to come up out of your graves, My people.

<sup>14</sup>And I will put My Spirit within you and you will come to life, and I will place you on your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken and done it,” declares the LORD.’ ”

Reunion of Judah and Israel

<sup>15</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

<sup>16</sup>“Now you, son of man, take for yourself one stick and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the sons of Israel, his companions’; then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel, his companions.’

<sup>17</sup>Then put them together for yourself one to another into one stick, so that they may become one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup>And when the sons of your people speak to you, saying, ‘Will you not declare to us what you mean by these?’

<sup>19</sup>say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand.”’

<sup>20</sup>The sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.

<sup>21</sup>And say to them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am going to take the sons of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;

<sup>22</sup>and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king will be king for all of them; and they will no longer be two nations, and no longer be divided into two kingdoms.

<sup>23</sup>They will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their offenses; but I will rescue them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. And they will be My people, and I will be their God.

The Davidic Kingdom

<sup>24</sup>“And My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd; and they will walk in My ordinances, and keep My statutes and follow them.

<sup>25</sup>And they will live on the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, in which your fathers lived; and they will live on it, they, and their sons and their sons’ sons, forever; and My servant David will be their leader forever.

<sup>26</sup>And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and set My sanctuary in their midst forever.

<sup>27</sup>My dwelling place also will be among them; and I will be their God, and they will be My people.

<sup>28</sup>And the nations will know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forever.” ’ ”

Ezekiel 38

Prophecy about Gog and Future Invasion of Israel

<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face toward Gog of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

<sup>4</sup>So I will turn you around and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them magnificently dressed, a great contingent with shield and buckler, all of them wielding swords;

<sup>7</sup>“Be ready, and be prepared, you and all your contingents that are assembled around you, and be a guard for them.

<sup>8</sup>After many days you will be summoned; in the latter years you will come into the land that is restored from the sword, whose inhabitants have been gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel which had been a continual place of ruins; but its people were brought out from the nations, and they are living securely, all of them.

<sup>9</sup>And you will go up, you will come like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you.”

<sup>10</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “It will come about on that day, that thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil plan,

<sup>11</sup>and you will say, ‘I will go up against the land of unwallled villages. I will go against those who are at rest, who live securely, all of them living without walls and having no bars or gates,

<sup>12</sup>to capture spoils and to seize plunder, to turn your hand against the ruins that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who live at the center of the world.’

<sup>13</sup>Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its villages will say to you, ‘Have you come to capture spoils? Have you assembled your contingent to seize plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to capture great spoils?’ ”

<sup>14</sup>“Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: “On that day when My people Israel are living securely, will you not know it?

<sup>15</sup>You will come from your place out of the remote parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding horses, a large assembly and a mighty army;

<sup>16</sup>and you will come up against My people Israel like a cloud to cover the land. It shall come about in the last days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me when I show Myself holy through you before their eyes, Gog.”

<sup>17</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “Are you the one of whom I spoke in former days through My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?

<sup>18</sup>It will come about on that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” declares the Lord GOD, “that My fury will mount up in My anger.

<sup>19</sup>In My zeal and in My blazing wrath I declare that on that day there will certainly be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, all the crawling things that crawl on the earth, and all mankind who are on the face of the earth will shake at My presence; and the mountains will be thrown down, the steep pathways will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>And I will call for a sword against him on all My mountains,” declares the Lord GOD. “Every man’s sword will be against his brother.

<sup>22</sup>With plague and with blood I will enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him and on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, a torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

<sup>23</sup>So I will prove Myself great, show Myself holy, and make Myself known in the sight of many nations; and they will know that I am the LORD.” ’

Ezekiel 39

Prophecy against Gog—Invaders Destroyed

<sup>2</sup>and I will turn you around, lead you on a rope, take you up from the remotest parts of the north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows fall from your right hand.

<sup>4</sup>You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops, and the peoples who are with you; I will give you as food to every kind of predatory bird and animal of the field.

<sup>5</sup>You will fall on the open field; for it is I who have spoken,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup>“And I will send fire upon Magog and those who inhabit the coastlands in safety; and they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“And I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel; and I will not allow My holy name to be profaned anymore. But the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>Behold, it is coming and it shall be done,” declares the Lord GOD. “That is the day of which I have spoken.

<sup>9</sup>“Then those who inhabit the cities of Israel will go out and make fires with the weapons and burn them, both bucklers and shields, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears, and for seven years they will make fires of them.

<sup>10</sup>They will not take wood from the field or gather firewood from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; and they will take the spoils of those who plundered them and seize the plunder of those who plundered them,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup>“On that day I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea, and it will block the way of those who would pass by. So they will bury Gog there with all his horde, and they will call it the Valley of Hamon-gog.

<sup>12</sup>For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land.

<sup>13</sup>And all the people of the land will bury them; and it will be to their renown on the day that I appear in My glory,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup>“They will also select men who will constantly pass through the land, burying those who were passing through, those left on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will conduct a search.

<sup>15</sup>As those who pass through the land pass through and anyone sees a human bone, then he will set up a marker by it until the burial detail has buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog.

<sup>16</sup>And even the name of the city will be Hamonah. So they will cleanse the land.” ’

<sup>17</sup>“Now as for you, son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Say to every kind of bird and to every animal of the field: “Assemble and come, gather from every direction to My sacrifice, which I am going to sacrifice for you as a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel; and you will eat flesh and drink blood.

<sup>18</sup>You will eat the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the leaders of the earth, as though they were rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fattened livestock of Bashan.

<sup>19</sup>So you will eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, from My sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

<sup>20</sup>You will eat your fill at My table with horses and charioteers, with warriors and all the men of war,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup>“And I will place My glory among the nations; and all the nations will see My judgment which I have executed, and My hand which I have laid on them.

<sup>22</sup>And the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God, from that day onward.

<sup>23</sup>The nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their wrongdoing, because they were disloyal to Me, and I hid My face from them; so I handed them over to their adversaries, and all of them fell by the sword.

<sup>24</sup>In accordance with their uncleanness and their offenses I dealt with them, and I hid My face from them.” ’ ’

Israel Restored

<sup>25</sup>Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: “Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have mercy on all the house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name.

<sup>26</sup>They will forget their disgrace and all their treachery which they perpetrated against Me, when they live securely on their own land with no one to make them afraid.

<sup>27</sup>When I bring them back from the peoples and gather them from the lands of their enemies, then I shall show Myself holy through them in the sight of the many nations.

<sup>28</sup>Then they will know that I am the LORD their God because I made them go into exile among the nations, and then I gathered them again to their own land; and I will leave none of them there any longer.

<sup>29</sup>I will not hide My face from them any longer, for I will have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 40

Vision of the Man with a Measuring Rod

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was taken, on this very day the hand of the LORD was upon me and He brought me there.

<sup>2</sup>In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, and on it to the south there was something like a structure of a city.

<sup>3</sup>So He brought me there; and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a thread of flax and a measuring rod in his hand; and he was standing in the gateway.

<sup>4</sup>And the man said to me, “Son of man, see with your eyes, hear with your ears, and pay attention to all that I am going to show you; for you have been brought here in order to show it to you. Declare to the house of Israel all that you see.”

Measurements Relating to the Temple

<sup>5</sup>And behold, there was a wall on the outside of the temple all around, and in the man’s hand was a measuring rod of six cubits, each of which was a cubit and a hand width. So he measured the thickness of the wall, one rod; and the height, one rod.

<sup>6</sup>Then he went to the gate which faced east, went up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one rod in width; and the other threshold was one rod in width.

<sup>7</sup>The guardroom was one rod long and one rod wide; and there were five cubits between the guardrooms. And the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate facing inward was one rod.

<sup>9</sup>And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its side pillars, two cubits. And the porch of the gate was faced inward.

<sup>10</sup>The guardrooms of the gate toward the east numbered three on each side; the three of them had the same measurement. The side pillars also had the same measurement on each side.

<sup>11</sup>And he measured the width of the gateway, ten cubits, and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

<sup>12</sup>There was a barrier wall one cubit wide in front of the guardrooms on each side; and the guardrooms were six cubits square on each side.

<sup>16</sup>And there were shuttered windows looking toward the guardrooms, and toward their side pillars within the gate all around, and likewise for the porches. And there were windows all around inside; and on each side pillar were palm tree decorations.

<sup>17</sup>Then he brought me into the outer courtyard, and behold, there were chambers and a stone pavement made for the courtyard all around; thirty chambers faced the pavement.

<sup>20</sup>And as for the gate of the outer courtyard which faced north, he measured its length and its width.

<sup>21</sup>It had three guardrooms on each side; and its side pillars and its porches had the same measurement as the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits.

<sup>22</sup>Its windows, its porches, and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as the gate which faced east; and it was reached by seven steps, and its porch was in front of them.

<sup>23</sup>The inner courtyard had a gate opposite the gate on the north as well as the gate on the east; and he measured a hundred cubits from gate to gate.

<sup>24</sup>Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south; and he measured its side pillars and its porches according to those same measurements.

<sup>25</sup>The gate and its porches had windows all around like those other windows; the length was fifty cubits and the width, twenty-five cubits.

<sup>26</sup>There were seven steps going up to it, and its porches were in front of them; and it had palm tree decorations on its side pillars, one on each side.

<sup>27</sup>The inner courtyard had a gate toward the south; and he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

<sup>28</sup>Then he brought me to the inner courtyard by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to those same measurements.

<sup>29</sup>Its guardrooms also, its side pillars, and its porches were according to those same measurements. And the gate and its porches had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

<sup>30</sup>There were porches all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.

<sup>31</sup>And its porches were toward the outer courtyard; and palm tree decorations were on its side pillars, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup>Then he brought me into the inner courtyard toward the east. And he measured the gate according to those same measurements.

<sup>33</sup>Its guardrooms also, its side pillars, and its porches were according to those same measurements. And the gate and its porches had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

<sup>34</sup>Its porches were toward the outer courtyard; and palm tree decorations were on its side pillars, on each side, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup>Then he brought me to the north gate; and he measured it according to those same measurements,

<sup>36</sup>with its guardrooms, its side pillars, and its porches. And the gate had windows all around; the length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits.

<sup>37</sup>And its side pillars were toward the outer courtyard; and palm tree decorations were on its side pillars, on each side, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>38</sup>A chamber with its doorway was by the side pillars at the gates; there they rinse the burnt offering.

<sup>39</sup>And in the porch of the gate were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering.

<sup>40</sup>On the outer side, as one went up to the gateway toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.

<sup>41</sup>Four tables were on each side next to the gate; eight tables on which they slaughter sacrifices.

<sup>42</sup>For the burnt offering there were four tables of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high, on which they set the utensils with which they slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

<sup>43</sup>And the double hooks, one hand width in length, were installed in the house all around; and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

<sup>45</sup>Then he said to me, "This is the chamber which faces south, intended for the priests who are responsible for the temple;

<sup>46</sup>but the chamber which faces north is for the priests who are responsible for the altar. They are the sons of Zadok, who from the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to serve Him."

<sup>47</sup>He measured the courtyard, a perfect square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide; and the altar was in front of the temple.

<sup>48</sup>Then he brought me to the porch of the temple and measured each side pillar of the porch, five cubits on each side; and the width of the gate was three cubits on each side.

<sup>49</sup>The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and at the stairway by which it was ascended were columns belonging to the side pillars, one on each side.

Ezekiel 41

The Inner Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then he brought me to the sanctuary, and he measured the side pillars: six cubits wide on each side was the width of the side pillar.

<sup>2</sup>The width of the entrance was ten cubits and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on each side. He also measured the length of the sanctuary, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.

<sup>3</sup>Then he went inside and measured each side pillar of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway, six cubits high; and the width of the doorway, seven cubits.

<sup>4</sup>And he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the sanctuary; and he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup>Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits; and the width of the side chambers, four cubits, all around the house on every side.

<sup>6</sup>The side chambers were in three stories, one above another, and thirty in each story; and the side chambers extended to the wall which stood on their inward side all around, so that they could be attached, but not be attached to the wall of the temple itself.

<sup>7</sup>And the side chambers surrounding the temple were wider at each successive story. Because the structure surrounding the temple went upward by stages on all sides of the temple, for that reason the width of the temple increased as it went higher; and so one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the second story.

<sup>8</sup>I saw also that the house had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of six long cubits in height.

<sup>10</sup>and the outer chambers was twenty cubits in width around the temple on every side.

<sup>11</sup>The doorways of the side chambers toward the free space consisted of one doorway toward the north, and another doorway toward the south; and the width of the free space was five cubits all around.

<sup>12</sup>The building that was in front of the separate area at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.

<sup>13</sup>Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; the separate area with the building and its walls were also a hundred cubits long.

<sup>14</sup>Also the width of the front of the temple and that of the separate areas along the east side totaled a hundred cubits.

<sup>15</sup>And he measured the length of the building along the front of the separate area behind it, with a gallery on each side, a hundred cubits; he also measured the inner sanctuary and the porches of the courtyard.

<sup>16</sup>The thresholds, the latticed windows, and the galleries all around their three stories, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, and from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered),

<sup>17</sup>over the entrance, and to the inner house, and on the outside, and on all the wall all around inside and outside, by measurement.

<sup>18</sup>It was carved with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces:

<sup>19</sup>a human face toward the palm tree on one side and a young lion's face toward the palm tree on the other side; they were carved on all the house all around.

<sup>20</sup>From the ground to above the entrance cherubim and palm trees were carved, as well as on the wall of the sanctuary.

<sup>21</sup>The doorposts of the sanctuary were square; as for the front of the inner sanctuary, the appearance of one doorpost was like that of the other.

<sup>22</sup>The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; its corners, its base, and its sides were of wood. And he said to me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.”

<sup>23</sup>The sanctuary and the inner sanctuary each had a double door.

<sup>24</sup>Each of the doors had two leaves, two swinging leaves; two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other.

<sup>25</sup>Also there were carved on them, on the doors of the main room, cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the front of the porch outside.

<sup>26</sup>And there were latticed windows and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch; the same were on the side chambers of the house and the thresholds.

Ezekiel 42

Chambers of the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then he brought me out into the outer courtyard, the way toward the north; and he brought me to the chamber which was opposite the separate area and opposite the building toward the north.

<sup>2</sup>Along the length, which was a hundred cubits, was the north door; the width was fifty cubits.

<sup>4</sup>In front of the chambers was an inner passage ten cubits wide, a way of one hundred cubits; and their openings were on the north.

<sup>5</sup>Now the upper chambers were smaller because the galleries took more space away from them than from the lower and middle ones in the building.

<sup>6</sup>For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards; for that reason the upper chambers were set back from the ground upward, more than the lower and middle ones.

<sup>7</sup>As for the outer wall by the side of the chambers, toward the outer courtyard facing the chambers, its length was fifty cubits.

<sup>8</sup>For the length of the chambers which were in the outer courtyard was fifty cubits; and behold, the length of those facing the main room was a hundred cubits.

<sup>9</sup>And below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

<sup>10</sup>In the thickness of the wall of the courtyard toward the east, facing the separate area and facing the building, there were chambers.

<sup>11</sup>And the way in front of them was like the appearance of the chambers which were on the north; according to their length, so was their width, and all their exits were according to their building plans and openings.

<sup>12</sup>Corresponding to the openings of the chambers which were toward the south was an opening at the head of the way, the way in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters them.

<sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separate area, they are the holy chambers where the priests who are near to the LORD shall eat the most holy things. There they shall set the most holy things, the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; for the place is holy.

<sup>14</sup>When the priests enter, they shall not go out into the outer courtyard from the sanctuary without laying their garments there in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they shall approach that which is for the people.”

<sup>15</sup>Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by way of the gate which faced east, and measured it all around.

<sup>20</sup>He measured it on the four sides; it had a wall all around, the length five hundred rods and the width five hundred, to divide between the holy and the common.

Ezekiel 43

Vision of the Glory of God Filling the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then he led me to the gate, the gate facing east;

<sup>2</sup>and behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the way of the east. And His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone from His glory.

<sup>3</sup>And it was like the appearance of the vision which I saw, like the vision which I saw when He came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

<sup>4</sup>And the glory of the LORD entered the house by way of the gate facing east.

<sup>5</sup>And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner courtyard; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

<sup>6</sup>Then I heard Him speaking to me from the house, while a man was standing beside me.

<sup>7</sup>And He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the sons of Israel forever. And the house of Israel will not again defile My holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their prostitution and by the corpses of their kings when they die, <sup>8</sup>by putting their threshold by My threshold, and their door post beside My door post, with only the wall between Me and them. And they have defiled My holy name by their abominations which they have committed. So I have consumed them in My anger.

<sup>9</sup>Now let them remove their prostitution and the corpses of their kings far from Me, and I will dwell among them forever.

<sup>10</sup>“As for you, son of man, inform the house of Israel of the temple, so that they will be ashamed of their wrongdoings; and have them measure the plan.

<sup>11</sup>And if they are ashamed of everything that they have done, make known to them the plan of the house, its layout, its exits, its entrances, all its plans, all its statutes, and all its laws. And write it in their sight, so that they may observe its entire plan and all its statutes and execute them.

<sup>12</sup>This is the law of the house: its entire area on the top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

The Altar of Sacrifice

<sup>13</sup>“And these are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit being a cubit and a hand width): the base shall be a cubit and the width a cubit, and its border on its edge all around one span; and this shall be the height of the base of the altar.

<sup>14</sup>And from the base on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits, and the width one cubit.

<sup>15</sup>The altar hearth shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth shall extend upward four horns.

<sup>16</sup>Now the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides.

<sup>17</sup>And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides, the border around it shall be half a cubit, and its base shall be a cubit all around; and its steps shall face east.”

The Offerings

<sup>18</sup>And He said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: “These are the statutes for the altar on the day it is built, to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it.

<sup>19</sup>You shall give to the Levitical priests who are from the descendants of Zadok, who come near to Me to serve Me,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘a bull as a sin offering.

<sup>20</sup>And you shall take some of its blood and put it on its four horns and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around; so you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.

<sup>21</sup>You shall also take the bull as the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary.

<sup>22</sup>‘And on the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish as a sin offering, and they shall cleanse the altar from sin as they cleansed it with the bull.

<sup>23</sup>When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a bull without blemish and a ram without blemish from the flock.

<sup>24</sup>You shall offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall throw salt on them, and they shall offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>For seven days you shall prepare a goat as a sin offering daily; also a bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish, shall be prepared.

<sup>26</sup>For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it.

<sup>27</sup>When they have completed the days, it shall be that on the eighth day and onward, the priests shall offer your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you,' declares the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel 44

Gate for the Prince

<sup>1</sup>Then He brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut.

<sup>3</sup>As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the porch of the gate and shall go out by the same way."

<sup>4</sup>Then He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell on my face.

<sup>5</sup>And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay attention, see with your eyes and hear with your ears everything that I say to you concerning all the statutes of the house of the LORD and all its laws; and pay attention to the entrance of the house, with all the exits of the sanctuary.

<sup>6</sup>You shall say to the rebellious ones, to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord GOD says: "Enough of all your abominations, house of Israel, <sup>7</sup>when you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to profane it, My house, when you offered My food, the fat, and the blood and they broke My covenant—this in addition to all your abominations.

<sup>8</sup>And you have not taken responsibility for My holy things yourselves, but you have appointed foreigners to take responsibility for My sanctuary.”

<sup>9</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup>But the Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me following their idols, shall suffer the punishment for their wrongdoing.

<sup>11</sup>Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house and ministering in the house; they shall slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.

<sup>12</sup>Since they ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of wrongdoing to the house of Israel, for that reason I have sworn against them,” declares the Lord GOD, “that they shall suffer the punishment for their wrongdoing.

<sup>13</sup>And they shall not approach Me to serve as priests for Me, nor approach any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed.

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless I will appoint them to take responsibility for the house, of all its service and of everything that shall be done in it.

Ordinances for the Levites

<sup>15</sup>“But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who took responsibility for My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to serve Me; and they shall stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>17</sup>And it shall be that when they enter at the gates of the inner courtyard, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and wool shall not be worn by them while they are ministering in the gates of the inner courtyard or in the house.

<sup>18</sup>Linen turbans shall be on their heads and linen undergarments shall be around their waists; they shall not put on anything that makes them sweat.

<sup>19</sup>And when they go out into the outer courtyard, into the outer courtyard to the people, they shall take off their garments in which they have been ministering and lay them in the holy chambers; then they shall put on other garments, so that they will not transfer holiness to the people with their garments.

<sup>22</sup>And they shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman, but shall take virgins from the descendants of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest.

<sup>23</sup>Moreover, they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the common, and teach them to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

<sup>24</sup>In a dispute they shall take their stand to judge; they shall judge it according to My ordinances. They shall also keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed feasts, and sanctify My Sabbaths.

<sup>25</sup>They shall not go to a dead person to defile themselves; however, for father, for mother, for son, for daughter, for brother, or for a sister who has not had a husband, they may defile themselves.

<sup>27</sup>On the day that he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner courtyard to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>28</sup>“And it shall be regarding an inheritance for them, that I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no property in Israel—I am their property.

<sup>29</sup>They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and everything banned from secular use in Israel shall be theirs.

<sup>30</sup>And the first of all the first fruits of every kind and every contribution of every kind, from all your contributions, shall be for the priests; you shall also give to the priest the first of your dough, to make a blessing rest on your house.

<sup>31</sup>The priests shall not eat any bird or animal that has died a natural death or has been torn to pieces by animals.

Ezekiel 45

The LORD's Portion of the Land

<sup>1</sup>“Now when you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you shall offer an allotment to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be a length of twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width shall be twenty thousand. It shall be holy within its entire surrounding boundary.

<sup>2</sup>Out of this there shall be for the sanctuary a square encompassing five hundred by five hundred cubits, and fifty cubits for its open space round about.

<sup>3</sup>From this area you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand cubits and a width of ten thousand cubits; and in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

<sup>4</sup>It shall be the holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to serve the LORD, and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

<sup>5</sup>An area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, and for their possession cities in which to live.

<sup>6</sup>“And you shall give the city possession of an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long, alongside the allotment of the holy portion; it shall be for the entire house of Israel.

Portion for the Prince

<sup>7</sup>“And the prince shall have land on either side of the holy allotment and the property of the city, adjacent to the holy allotment and the property of the city, on the west side toward the west and on the east side toward the east, and in length comparable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.

<sup>8</sup>This shall be his land as a possession in Israel; so My princes shall no longer oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

<sup>10</sup>“You shall have accurate balances, an accurate ephah, and an accurate bath.

<sup>11</sup>The ephah and the bath shall be the same quantity, so that the bath will contain a tenth of a homer, and the ephah a tenth of a homer; their standard shall be according to the homer.

<sup>12</sup>And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

<sup>13</sup>“This is the offering that you shall offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat; a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley;

<sup>14</sup>and the prescribed portion of oil (namely, the bath of oil), a tenth of a bath from each kor (which is ten baths or a homer, for ten baths are a homer);

<sup>15</sup>and one sheep from each flock of two hundred from the watering places of Israel—for a grain offering, for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup>“All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel.

<sup>17</sup>And it shall be the prince’s part to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings, at the feasts, on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel; he shall provide the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

<sup>18</sup>“This is what the Lord GOD says: “In the first month, on the first of the month, you shall take a bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary from sin.

<sup>19</sup>And the priest shall take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the door posts of the house, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner courtyard.

<sup>20</sup>And you shall do this on the seventh day of the month for everyone who does wrong inadvertently or is naive; so you shall make atonement for the house.

<sup>21</sup>“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

<sup>22</sup>On that day the prince shall provide for himself and all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering.

<sup>23</sup>And during the seven days of the feast he shall provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven bulls and seven rams without blemish on every day of the seven days, and a male goat daily as a sin offering.

<sup>24</sup>And he shall provide as a grain offering an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

<sup>25</sup>In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he shall provide like these, seven days for the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil.”

Ezekiel 46

The Prince's Offerings

<sup>2</sup>The prince shall enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside and stand by the post of the gate. Then the priests shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate and then go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

<sup>3</sup>The people of the land shall also worship at the doorway of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

<sup>4</sup>The burnt offering which the prince shall offer to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;

<sup>5</sup>and the grain offering shall be an ephah with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs as much as he is able to give, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

<sup>6</sup>On the day of the new moon he shall offer a bull without blemish, and six lambs and a ram, which shall be without blemish.

<sup>7</sup>And he shall provide a grain offering, an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he is able, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

<sup>8</sup>When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the porch of the gate, and go out by the same way.

<sup>9</sup>But when the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, one who enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate. And one who enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. No one shall return by way of the gate by which he entered, but shall go straight out.

<sup>10</sup>And when they go in, the prince shall go in among them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

<sup>11</sup>“At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering shall be an ephah with a bull and an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one is able to give, and a hin of oil with an ephah.

<sup>12</sup>And when the prince provides a voluntary offering, a burnt offering, or peace offerings as a voluntary offering to the LORD, the gate facing east shall be opened for him. And he shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and the gate shall be shut after he goes out.

<sup>13</sup>“And you shall provide a lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD daily; morning by morning you shall provide it.

<sup>14</sup>You shall also provide a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour, a grain offering to the LORD continually by a permanent ordinance.

<sup>15</sup>So they shall provide the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, morning by morning, as a continual burnt offering.”

<sup>17</sup>But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until the year of release; then it shall return to the prince. His inheritance shall be only his sons’; it shall belong to them.

<sup>18</sup>And the prince shall not take from the people’s inheritance, depriving them of their property; he shall give his sons inheritance from his own property, so that My people will not be scattered, anyone from his property.” ’ ’ ”

The Boiling Places

<sup>19</sup>Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which faced north; and behold, a place was there at the extreme rear toward the west.

<sup>20</sup>And he said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer courtyard and transfer holiness to the people.”

<sup>21</sup>Then he brought me out into the outer courtyard and led me across to the four corners of the courtyard; and behold, in every corner of the courtyard there was a small courtyard.

<sup>22</sup>In the four corners of the courtyard there were enclosed courtyards, forty cubits long and thirty wide; these four in the corners were the same size.

<sup>23</sup>And there was a row of masonry all around in them, around the four of them, and cooking hearths were made under the rows all around.

<sup>24</sup>Then he said to me, “These are the cooking places where the ministers of the house shall cook the sacrifices of the people.”

Ezekiel 47

Water from the Temple

<sup>1</sup>Then he brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, water was flowing from under the threshold of the house toward the east, for the house faced east. And the water was flowing down from under, from the right side of the house, from south of the altar.

<sup>2</sup>And he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around on the outside to the outer gate, by the way facing east. And behold, water was spurting out from the south side.

<sup>3</sup>When the man went out toward the east with a line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he led me through the water, water reaching the ankles.

<sup>4</sup>Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the knees. Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the hips.

<sup>5</sup>Again he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not wade across, because the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a river that could not be crossed by wading.

<sup>6</sup>And he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me back to the bank of the river.

<sup>7</sup>Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river there were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

<sup>8</sup>Then he said to me, "These waters go out toward the eastern region and go down into the Arabah; then they go toward the sea, being made to flow into the sea, and the waters of the sea become fresh.

<sup>9</sup>And it will come about that every living creature which swarms in every place where the river goes, will live. And there will be very many fish, for these waters go there and the others become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes.

<sup>10</sup>And it will come about that fishermen will stand beside it; from Engedi to Eneglaim there will be a place for the spreading of nets. Their fish will be according to their kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea, very many.

<sup>11</sup>But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

<sup>12</sup>And by the river on its bank, on one side and on the other, will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month because their water flows from the sanctuary, and their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing.”

Boundaries and Division of the Land

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says: “This shall be the boundary by which you shall divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall have two portions.

<sup>14</sup>And you shall divide it for an inheritance, each one equally with the other; for I swore to give it to your forefathers, and this land shall fall to you as an inheritance.

<sup>18</sup>“The east side, from between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the eastern sea you shall measure. This is the east side.

<sup>19</sup>“The south side toward the south shall extend from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt and to the Great Sea. This is the south side toward the south.

<sup>22</sup>You shall divide it by lot for an inheritance among yourselves and among the strangers who stay in your midst, who bring forth sons in your midst. And they shall be to you as the native-born among the sons of Israel; they shall be allotted an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>And in the tribe with which the stranger resides, there you shall give him his inheritance,” declares the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel 48

Division of the Land

<sup>8</sup>“And beside the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the allotment which you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and in length like one of the portions, from the east side to the west side; and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it.

<sup>9</sup>The allotment that you shall set apart to the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width.

Portion for the Priests

<sup>10</sup>The holy allotment shall be for these, namely for the priests, toward the north twenty-five thousand cubits in length, toward the west ten thousand in width, toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length; and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in its midst.

<sup>11</sup>It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have taken the responsibility I gave them, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray as the Levites went astray.

<sup>12</sup>It shall be an allotment to them from the allotment of the land, a most holy reserve, by the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>And alongside the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width. The entire length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width ten thousand.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, they shall not sell or exchange any of it, or allow this choice portion of land to pass to others; for it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>“The remainder, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, shall be for common use for the city, for homes and for open spaces; and the city shall be in its midst.

<sup>16</sup>And these shall be its measurements: the north side, 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side, 4,500 cubits.

<sup>17</sup>The city shall have open spaces: on the north 250 cubits, on the south 250 cubits, on the east 250 cubits, and on the west 250 cubits.

<sup>18</sup>The remainder of the length alongside the holy allotment shall be ten thousand cubits toward the east and ten thousand toward the west; and it shall be alongside the holy allotment. And its produce shall be food for the workers of the city.

<sup>19</sup>And the workers of the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it.

<sup>20</sup>The whole allotment shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand cubits; you shall set apart the holy allotment, a square, with the property of the city.

Portion for the Prince

<sup>21</sup>“The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy allotment and of the property of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand cubits of the allotment toward the east border and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, alongside the portions, it shall be for the prince. And the holy allotment and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it.

<sup>22</sup>And exclusive of the property of the Levites and the property of the city, which are in the middle of that which belongs to the prince, everything between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall belong to the prince.

Portion for Other Tribes

<sup>29</sup>This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for an inheritance, and these are their several portions,” declares the Lord GOD.

The City Gates

<sup>30</sup>“Now these are the exits of the city: on the north side, 4,500 cubits by measurement,

<sup>34</sup>On the west side, 4,500 cubits, shall be three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; and the gate of Naphtali, one.

<sup>35</sup>The city shall be eighteen thousand cubits all around; and the name of the city from that day shall be, ‘The LORD is there.’ ”

Daniel

Daniel 1

The Choice Young Men

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

<sup>2</sup>And the Lord handed Jehoiakim king of Judah over to him, along with some of the vessels of the house of God; and he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and he brought the vessels into the treasury of his god.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king told Ashpenaz, the chief of his officials, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, including some of the royal family and of the nobles,

<sup>4</sup>youths in whom there was no impairment, who were good-looking, suitable for instruction in every kind of expertise, endowed with understanding and discerning knowledge, and who had ability to serve in the king's court; and he ordered Ashpenaz to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

<sup>5</sup>The king also allotted for them a daily ration from the king's choice food and from the wine which he drank, and ordered that they be educated for three years, at the end of which they were to enter the king's personal service.

<sup>7</sup>Then the commander of the officials assigned new names to them; and to Daniel he assigned the name Belteshazzar, to Hananiah Shadrach, to Mishael Meshach, and to Azariah Abed-nego.

Daniel's Resolve

<sup>8</sup>But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's choice food or with the wine which he drank; so he sought permission from the commander of the officials that he might not defile himself.

<sup>9</sup>Now God granted Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the commander of the officials.

<sup>10</sup>The commander of the officials said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has allotted your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking gaunt in comparison to the youths who are your own age? Then you would make me forfeit my head to the king."

<sup>11</sup>But Daniel said to the overseer whom the commander of the officials had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, <sup>12</sup>"Please put your servants to the test for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink.

<sup>13</sup>Then let our appearance be examined in your presence and the appearance of the youths who are eating the king's choice food; and deal with your servants according to what you see."

<sup>14</sup>So he listened to them in this matter, and put them to the test for ten days.

<sup>15</sup>And at the end of ten days their appearance seemed better, and they were fatter than all the youths who had been eating the king's choice food.

<sup>16</sup>So the overseer continued to withhold their choice food and the wine they were to drink, and kept giving them vegetables.

<sup>17</sup>And as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and intelligence in every kind of literature and expertise; Daniel even understood all kinds of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup>Then at the end of the days which the king had specified for presenting them, the commander of the officials presented them before Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>19</sup>And the king talked with them, and out of them all not one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; so they entered the king's personal service.

<sup>20</sup>As for every matter of expertise and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the soothsayer priests and conjurers who were in all his realm.

Daniel 2

The King's Dream

<sup>2</sup>Then the king gave orders to call in the soothsayer priests, the conjurers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

<sup>3</sup>The king said to them, "I had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream."

<sup>4</sup>Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic: "O king, live forever! Tell the dream to your servants, and we will declare the interpretation."

<sup>5</sup>The king replied to the Chaldeans, "The command from me is firm: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses will be turned into a rubbish heap.

<sup>6</sup>But if you declare the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and a reward and great honor; therefore declare to me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>7</sup>They answered a second time and said, "Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will declare the interpretation."

<sup>8</sup>The king replied, “I know for certain that you are trying to buy time, because you have perceived that the command from me is firm,

<sup>9</sup>that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is only one decree for you. For you have agreed together to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the situation is changed; therefore tell me the dream, so that I may know that you can declare to me its interpretation.”

<sup>10</sup>The Chaldeans answered the king and said, “There is no person on earth who could declare the matter to the king, because no great king or ruler has ever asked anything like this of any soothsayer priest, sorcerer, or Chaldean.

<sup>12</sup>Because of this, the king became angry and extremely furious, and he gave orders to kill all the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>So the decree was issued that the wise men be killed; and they looked for Daniel and his friends, to kill them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Daniel replied with discretion and discernment to Arioch, the captain of the king’s bodyguard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon;

<sup>15</sup>he said to Arioch, the king’s officer, “For what reason is the decree from the king so harsh?” Then Arioch informed Daniel of the matter.

<sup>16</sup>So Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him a grace period, so that he might declare the interpretation to the king.

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, about the matter, <sup>18</sup>so that they might request compassion from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The Secret Is Revealed to Daniel

<sup>19</sup>Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven;

<sup>20</sup>Daniel said, “May the name of God be blessed forever and ever, For wisdom and power belong to Him.

<sup>21</sup>“It is He who changes the times and the periods; He removes kings and appoints kings; He gives wisdom to wise men, And knowledge to people of understanding.

<sup>22</sup>“It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, And the light dwells with Him.

<sup>23</sup>“To You, God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, For You have given me wisdom and power; Even now You have made known to me what we requested of You, For You have made known to us the king’s matter.”

<sup>24</sup>Thereupon, Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to kill the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: “Do not kill the wise men of Babylon! Take me into the king’s presence, and I will declare the interpretation to the king.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Arioch hurriedly brought Daniel into the king’s presence and spoke to him as follows: “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can make the interpretation known to the king!”

<sup>26</sup>The king said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen and its interpretation?”

<sup>27</sup>Daniel answered before the king and said, “As for the secret about which the king has inquired, neither wise men, sorcerers, soothsayer priests, nor diviners are able to declare it to the king.

<sup>28</sup>However, there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will take place in the latter days. This was your dream and the visions in your mind while on your bed.

<sup>29</sup>As for you, O king, while on your bed your thoughts turned to what would take place in the future; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will take place.

<sup>30</sup>But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me for any wisdom residing in me more than in any other living person, but for the purpose of making the interpretation known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

The King's Dream

<sup>31</sup>"You, O king, were watching and behold, there was a single great statue; that statue, which was large and of extraordinary radiance, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was awesome.

<sup>32</sup>The head of that statue was made of fine gold, its chest and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, <sup>33</sup>its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

<sup>34</sup>You continued watching until a stone was broken off without hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and crushed them.

<sup>35</sup>Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed to pieces all at the same time, and they were like chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the entire earth.

The Interpretation—Babylon the First Kingdom

<sup>36</sup>"This was the dream; and now we will tell its interpretation before the king.

<sup>37</sup>You, O king, are the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the honor;

<sup>38</sup>and wherever the sons of mankind live, or the animals of the field, or the birds of the sky, He has handed them over to you and has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

Medo-Persia and Greece

<sup>39</sup>And after you another kingdom will arise inferior to you, then another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

Rome

<sup>40</sup>Then there will be a fourth kingdom as strong as iron; just as iron smashes and crushes everything, so, like iron that crushes, it will smash and crush all these things.

<sup>41</sup>And in that you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but it will have within it some of the toughness of iron, since you saw the iron mixed with common clay.

<sup>42</sup>And just as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of pottery, so some of the kingdom will be strong, and part of it will be fragile.

<sup>43</sup>In that you saw the iron mixed with common clay, they will combine with one another in their descendants; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not combine with pottery.

The Divine Kingdom

<sup>44</sup>And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, and that kingdom will not be left for another people; it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, but it will itself endure forever.

<sup>45</sup>Just as you saw that a stone was broken off from the mountain without hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what will take place in the future; so the dream is certain and its interpretation is trustworthy."

Daniel Promoted

<sup>46</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid humble respect to Daniel, and gave orders to present to him an offering and incense.

<sup>47</sup>The king responded to Daniel and said, “Your God truly is a God of gods and a Lord of kings and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret.”

<sup>48</sup>Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon, and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 3

The King’s Golden Image

<sup>1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king made a statue of gold, the height of which was sixty cubits, and its width six cubits; he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king also sent word to assemble the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the chief treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the administrators of the provinces to come to the dedication of the statue that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

<sup>3</sup>Then the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the chief treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the administrators of the provinces were assembled for the dedication of the statue that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>6</sup>But whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be thrown into the middle of a furnace of blazing fire.”

<sup>7</sup>Therefore as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of musical instruments, all the peoples, nations, and populations of all languages fell down and worshiped the golden statue that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

Worship of the Image Refused

<sup>8</sup>For this reason at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and brought charges against the Jews.

<sup>9</sup>They began to speak and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king: “O king, live forever!

<sup>10</sup>You, O king, have made a decree that every person who hears the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of musical instruments, is to fall down and worship the golden statue.

<sup>11</sup>But whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into the middle of a furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>12</sup>There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon, namely Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. These men, O king, have disregarded you; they do not serve your gods, nor do they worship the golden statue which you have set up.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and anger gave orders to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; then these men were brought before the king.

<sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar began speaking and said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that you do not serve my gods, nor worship the golden statue that I have set up?

<sup>15</sup>Now if you are ready, at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, psaltery and bagpipe, and all kinds of musical instruments, to fall down and worship the statue that I have made, very well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire; and what god is there who can rescue you from my hands?”

<sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego replied to the king, “Nebuchadnezzar, we are not in need of an answer to give you concerning this matter.

<sup>17</sup>If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire; and He will rescue us from your hand, O king.

<sup>18</sup>But even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we are not going to serve your gods nor worship the golden statue that you have set up.”

Daniel's Friends Protected

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with wrath, and his facial expression was changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. He answered by giving orders to heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.

<sup>20</sup>And he ordered certain valiant warriors who were in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in order to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>22</sup>For this reason, because the king's command was harsh and the furnace had been made extremely hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

<sup>23</sup>But these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire still tied up.

<sup>24</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astounded and stood up quickly; he said to his counselors, “Was it not three men that we threw bound into the middle of the fire?” They replied to the king, “Absolutely, O king.”

<sup>25</sup>He responded, “Look! I see four men untied and walking about in the middle of the fire unharmed, and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods!”

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the furnace of blazing fire; he said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, come out, you servants of the Most High God, and come here!” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came out of the middle of the fire.

<sup>27</sup>The satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king’s counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men, nor was the hair of their heads singed, nor were their trousers damaged, nor had even the smell of fire touched them.

<sup>28</sup>Nebuchadnezzar responded and said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who has sent His angel and rescued His servants who put their trust in Him, violating the king’s command, and surrendered their bodies rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

<sup>29</sup>Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or population of any language that speaks anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego shall be torn limb from limb and their houses made a rubbish heap, because there is no other god who is able to save in this way.”

<sup>30</sup>Then the king made Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego prosperous in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4

The King Acknowledges God

<sup>1</sup> Nebuchadnezzar the king to all the peoples, nations, and populations of all languages who live in all the earth: “May your peace be great!

<sup>2</sup>I am pleased to declare the signs and miracles that the Most High God has done for me.

<sup>3</sup>“How great are His signs And how mighty are His miracles! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And His dominion is from generation to generation.

The Vision of a Great Tree

<sup>4</sup>“I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and happy in my palace.

<sup>5</sup>I saw a dream and it startled me; and these appearances as I lay on my bed and the visions in my mind kept alarming me.

<sup>6</sup>So I gave orders to bring into my presence all the wise men of Babylon, so that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

<sup>7</sup>Then the soothsayer priests, the sorcerers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners came in and I related the dream to them, but they could not make its interpretation known to me.

<sup>8</sup>But finally Daniel came in before me, whose name is Belteshazzar according to the name of my god, and in whom is a spirit of the holy gods; and I related the dream to him, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“Belteshazzar, chief of the soothsayer priests, since I know that a spirit of the holy gods is in you and no secret baffles you, tell me the visions of my dream which I have seen, along with its interpretation.

<sup>10</sup>“Now these were the visions in my mind as I lay on my bed: I was looking, and behold, there was a tree in the middle of the earth and its height was great.

<sup>11</sup>“The tree grew large and became strong And its height reached to the sky, And it was visible to the end of the whole earth.

<sup>12</sup>“Its foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, And in it was food for all. The animals of the field found shade under it, And the birds of the sky lived in its branches, And all living creatures fed from it.

<sup>13</sup>“I was looking in the visions in my mind as I lay on my bed, and behold, an angelic watcher, a holy one, descended from heaven.

<sup>14</sup>“He shouted out and spoke as follows: “Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, Shake off its foliage and scatter its fruit; Let the animals flee from under it And the birds from its branches.

<sup>15</sup>“Yet leave the stump with its roots in the ground, But with a band of iron and bronze around it In the new grass of the field; And let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, And let him share with the animals in the grass of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>“Let his mind change from that of a human And let an animal’s mind be given to him, And let seven periods of time pass over him.

<sup>17</sup>“This sentence is by the decree of the angelic watchers, And the decision is a command of the holy ones, In order that the living may know That the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind, And He grants it to whomever He wishes And sets over it the lowliest of people.”

<sup>18</sup>This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its interpretation, since none of the wise men of my kingdom is able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, because a spirit of the holy gods is in you.’

Daniel Interprets the Vision

<sup>19</sup>“Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was appalled for a while as his thoughts alarmed him. The king responded and said, ‘Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.’ Belteshazzar replied, ‘My lord, if only the dream applied to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries!

<sup>20</sup>The tree that you saw, which became large and grew strong, whose height reached to the sky and was visible to all the earth,

<sup>21</sup>and whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all, under which the animals of the field lived and in whose branches the birds of the sky settled—

<sup>22</sup>it is you, O king; for you have become great and grown strong, and your majesty has become great and reached to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>And in that the king saw an angelic watcher, a holy one, descending from heaven and saying, “Chop down the tree and destroy it; yet leave the stump with its roots in the ground, but with a band of iron and bronze around it in the new grass of the field, let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him share with the animals of the field until seven periods of time pass over him,”

<sup>24</sup>this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

<sup>25</sup>that you be driven away from mankind and your dwelling place be with the animals of the field, and you be given grass to eat like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven; and seven periods of time will pass over you, until you recognize that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind and bestows it on whomever He wishes.

<sup>26</sup>And in that it was commanded to leave the stump with the roots of the tree, your kingdom will remain as yours after you recognize that it is Heaven that rules.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, O king, may my advice be pleasing to you: wipe away your sin by doing righteousness, and your wrongdoings by showing mercy to the poor, in case there may be a prolonging of your prosperity.’

The Vision Fulfilled

<sup>29</sup>Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon.

<sup>30</sup>The king began speaking and was saying, ‘Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the honor of my majesty?’

<sup>31</sup>While the word was still in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven, saying, 'King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: sovereignty has been removed from you,

<sup>32</sup>and you will be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling place will be with the animals of the field. You will be given grass to eat like cattle, and seven periods of time will pass over you until you recognize that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind and bestows it on whomever He wishes.'

<sup>33</sup>Immediately the word concerning Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled; and he was driven away from mankind and began eating grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

<sup>34</sup>"But at the end of that period, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High and praised and honored Him who lives forever; For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, And His kingdom endures from generation to generation.

<sup>35</sup>"All the inhabitants of the earth are of no account, But He does according to His will among the army of heaven And among the inhabitants of earth; And no one can fend off His hand Or say to Him, 'What have You done?'

<sup>36</sup>At that time my reason returned to me. And my majesty and splendor were restored to me for the honor of my kingdom, and my state counselors and my nobles began seeking me out; so I was reestablished in my sovereignty, and surpassing greatness was added to me.

<sup>37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and His ways just; and He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Daniel 5

Belshazzar's Feast

<sup>1</sup>Belshazzar the king held a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he was drinking wine in the presence of the thousand.

<sup>2</sup>While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines could drink out of them.

<sup>3</sup>Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God which was in Jerusalem; and the king and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines drank out of them.

<sup>4</sup>They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>6</sup>Then the king's face became pale and his thoughts alarmed him, and his hip joints loosened and his knees began knocking together.

<sup>7</sup>The king called aloud to bring in the sorcerers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king began speaking and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Anyone who can read this inscription and explain its interpretation to me shall be clothed with purple and have a necklace of gold around his neck, and have authority as third ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>8</sup>Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription or make known its interpretation to the king.

<sup>9</sup>Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, his face grew even more pale, and his nobles were perplexed.

<sup>10</sup>The queen entered the banquet hall because of the words of the king and his nobles; the queen began to speak and said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you or your face be pale."

<sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom in whom is a spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father, illumination, insight, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him. And King Nebuchadnezzar, your father—your father the king—appointed him chief of the soothsayer priests, sorcerers, Chaldeans, and diviners.

<sup>12</sup>This was because an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and insight, interpretation of dreams, explanation of riddles, and solving of difficult problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Let Daniel now be summoned and he will declare the interpretation.”

Daniel Interprets the Handwriting on the Wall

<sup>13</sup>Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king began speaking and said to Daniel, “Are you that Daniel who is one of the exiles from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?

<sup>14</sup>Now I have heard about you that a spirit of the gods is in you, and that illumination, insight, and extraordinary wisdom have been found in you.

<sup>15</sup>Just now the wise men and the sorcerers were brought in before me to read this inscription and make its interpretation known to me, but they could not declare the interpretation of the message.

<sup>16</sup>But I personally have heard about you, that you are able to give interpretations and solve difficult problems. Now if you are able to read the inscription and make its interpretation known to me, you will be clothed with purple and wear a necklace of gold around your neck, and you will have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel replied and said before the king, “Keep your gifts for yourself or give your rewards to someone else; however, I will read the inscription to the king and make the interpretation known to him.

<sup>18</sup>O king, the Most High God granted sovereignty, greatness, honor, and majesty to Nebuchadnezzar your father.

<sup>19</sup>Now because of the greatness which He granted him, all the peoples, nations, and populations of all languages trembled and feared in his presence; whomever he wished, he killed, and whomever he wished, he spared alive; and whomever he wished he elevated, and whomever he wished he humbled.

<sup>20</sup>But when his heart was arrogant and his spirit became so overbearing that he behaved presumptuously, he was deposed from his royal throne, and his dignity was taken away from him.

<sup>21</sup>He was also driven away from mankind, and his heart was made like that of animals, and his dwelling place was with the wild donkeys. He was given grass to eat like cattle, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he recognized that the Most High God is ruler over the realm of mankind, and that He sets over it whomever He wishes.

<sup>22</sup>Yet you, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this,

<sup>23</sup>but you have risen up against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines have been drinking wine out of them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor understand. But the God in whose hand are your life-breath and all your ways, you have not glorified.

<sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar gave orders, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a necklace of gold around his neck, and issued a proclamation concerning him that he now had authority as the third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>31</sup>So Darius the Mede received the kingdom at about the age of sixty-two.

Daniel 6

Daniel Serves Darius

<sup>1</sup> It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps over the kingdom, to be in charge of the whole kingdom,

<sup>2</sup>and over them, three commissioners (of whom Daniel was one), so that these satraps would be accountable to them, and that the king would not suffer loss.

<sup>3</sup>Then this Daniel began distinguishing himself among the commissioners and satraps because he possessed an extraordinary spirit, and the king intended to appoint him over the entire kingdom.

<sup>4</sup>Then the commissioners and satraps began trying to find a ground of accusation against Daniel regarding government affairs; but they could find no ground of accusation or evidence of corruption, because he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was to be found in him.

<sup>5</sup>Then these men said, “We will not find any ground of accusation against this Daniel unless we find it against him regarding the law of his God.”

<sup>6</sup>Then these commissioners and satraps came by agreement to the king and spoke to him as follows: “King Darius, live forever!

<sup>7</sup>All the commissioners of the kingdom, the prefects and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together that the king should establish a statute and enforce an injunction that anyone who offers a prayer to any god or person besides you, O king, for thirty days, shall be thrown into the lions' den.

<sup>8</sup>Now, O king, establish the injunction and sign the document so that it will not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

<sup>10</sup>Now when Daniel learned that the document was signed, he entered his house (and in his roof chamber he had windows open toward Jerusalem); and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and offering praise before his God, just as he had been doing previously.

<sup>11</sup>Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel offering a prayer and imploring favor before his God.

<sup>12</sup>Then they approached and spoke before the king about the king's injunction: "Did you not sign an injunction that any person who offers a prayer to any god or person besides you, O king, for thirty days, is to be thrown into the lions' den?" The king replied, "The statement is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

<sup>13</sup>Then they responded and spoke before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the injunction which you signed, but keeps offering his prayer three times a day."

<sup>14</sup>Then, as soon as the king heard this statement, he was deeply distressed, and set his mind on rescuing Daniel; and until sunset he kept exerting himself to save him.

<sup>15</sup>Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Recognize, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

Daniel in the Lions' Den

<sup>16</sup>Then the king gave orders, and Daniel was brought in and thrown into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "Your God whom you continually serve will Himself rescue you."

<sup>18</sup>Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting, and no entertainment was brought before him; and his sleep fled from him.

<sup>20</sup>And when he had come near the den to Daniel, he cried out with a troubled voice. The king began speaking and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you continually serve, been able to rescue you from the lions?"

<sup>22</sup>My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, since I was found innocent before Him; and also toward you, O king, I have committed no crime."

<sup>23</sup>Then the king was very glad and gave orders for Daniel to be lifted up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>The king then gave orders, and they brought those men who had maliciously accused Daniel, and they threw them, their children, and their wives into the lions' den; and they had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

<sup>25</sup>Then Darius the king wrote to all the peoples, nations, and populations of all languages who were living in all the land: "May your peace be great!

<sup>26</sup>I issue a decree that in all the realm of my kingdom people are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; For He is the living God and enduring forever, And His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed, And His dominion will be forever.

<sup>27</sup>“He rescues, saves, and performs signs and miracles In heaven and on earth, He who has also rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

<sup>28</sup>So this Daniel enjoyed success in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7

Vision of the Four Beasts

<sup>3</sup>And four great beasts were coming up from the sea, different from one another.

<sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion but had the wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and set up on two feet like a man; a human mind also was given to it.

<sup>5</sup>And behold, another beast, a second one, resembling a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and they said this to it: ‘Arise, devour much meat!’

<sup>6</sup>After this I kept looking, and behold, another one, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.

<sup>7</sup>After this I kept looking in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and extremely strong; and it had large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and trampled down the remainder with its feet; and it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>While I was thinking about the horns, behold, another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the previous horns were plucked out before it; and behold, this horn possessed eyes like human eyes, and a mouth uttering great boasts.

The Ancient of Days Reigns

<sup>9</sup>"I kept looking Until thrones were set up, And the Ancient of Days took His seat; His garment was white as snow, And the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne was ablaze with flames, Its wheels were a burning fire.

<sup>10</sup>"A river of fire was flowing And coming out from before Him; Thousands upon thousands were serving Him, And myriads upon myriads were standing before Him; The court convened, And the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>Then I kept looking because of the sound of the boastful words which the horn was speaking; I kept looking until the beast was killed, and its body was destroyed and given to the burning fire.

<sup>12</sup>As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but an extension of life was granted to them for an appointed period of time.

The Son of Man Presented

<sup>13</sup>"I kept looking in the night visions, And behold, with the clouds of heaven One like a son of man was coming, And He came up to the Ancient of Days And was presented before Him.

<sup>14</sup>"And to Him was given dominion, Honor, and a kingdom, So that all the peoples, nations, and populations of all languages Might serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion Which will not pass away; And His kingdom is one Which will not be destroyed.

The Vision Interpreted

<sup>15</sup>"As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed within me, and the visions in my mind kept alarming me.

<sup>16</sup>I approached one of those who were standing by and began requesting of him the exact meaning of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things:

<sup>17</sup>“These great beasts, which are four in number, are four kings who will arise from the earth.

<sup>18</sup>But the saints of the Highest One will receive the kingdom and take possession of the kingdom forever, for all ages to come.’

<sup>19</sup>“Then I desired to know the exact meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its claws of bronze, and which devoured, crushed, and trampled down the remainder with its feet,

<sup>20</sup>and the meaning of the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three of the horns fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth uttering great boasts, and which was larger in appearance than its associates.

<sup>21</sup>I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and prevailing against them,

<sup>22</sup>until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>“This is what he said: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth which will be different from all the other kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth and trample it down and crush it.

<sup>24</sup>As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise; and another will arise after them, and he will be different from the previous ones and will humble three kings.

<sup>25</sup>And he will speak against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup>But the court will convene for judgment, and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever.

<sup>27</sup>Then the sovereignty, the dominion, and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the empires will serve and obey Him.'

<sup>28</sup>"At this point the revelation ended. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts were greatly alarming me and my face became pale, but I kept the matter to myself."

Daniel 8

Vision of the Ram and Goat

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of Belshazzar the king, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, subsequent to the one which appeared to me previously.

<sup>2</sup>I looked in the vision, and while I was looking, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam; and I looked in the vision, and I myself was beside the Ulai Canal.

<sup>3</sup>Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, a ram which had two horns was standing in front of the canal. Now the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, with the longer one coming up last.

<sup>4</sup>I saw the ram butting westward, northward, and southward, and no other beasts could stand against him nor was there anyone to rescue from his power, but he did as he pleased and made himself great.

<sup>5</sup>While I was observing, behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground; and the goat had a prominent horn between his eyes.

<sup>6</sup>He came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the canal, and rushed at him in his mighty wrath.

<sup>7</sup>And I saw him come up beside the ram, and he was enraged at him; and he struck the ram and smashed his two horns, and the ram had no strength to withstand him. So he hurled him to the ground and trampled on him, and there was no one to rescue the ram from his power.

<sup>8</sup>Then the male goat made himself exceedingly great. But once he became powerful, the large horn was broken; and in its place four prominent horns came up toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

<sup>9</sup>And out of one of them came a rather small horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Beautiful Land.

<sup>10</sup>It grew up to the heavenly lights, and some of the lights, that is, some of the stars it threw down to the earth, and it trampled them.

<sup>11</sup>It even exalted itself to be equal with the Commander of the army; and it removed the regular sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was overthrown.

<sup>12</sup>And because of an offense the army will be given to the horn along with the regular sacrifice; and it will hurl truth to the ground and do as it pleases and be successful.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, "How long will the vision about the regular sacrifice apply, while the offense causes horror, so as to allow both the sanctuary and the army to be trampled?"

<sup>14</sup>And he said to me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be properly restored."

Interpretation of the Vision

<sup>15</sup>When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; and behold, standing before me was one who looked like a man.

<sup>16</sup>And I heard the voice of a man between the banks of Ulai, and he called out and said, “Gabriel, explain the vision to this man.”

<sup>17</sup>So he came near to where I was standing, and when he came I was frightened and fell on my face; and he said to me, “Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the time of the end.”

<sup>18</sup>Now while he was talking with me, I was dazed with my face to the ground; but he touched me and made me stand at my place.

<sup>19</sup>And he said, “Behold, I am going to inform you of what will occur at the final period of the indignation, because it pertains to the appointed time of the end.

The Ram’s Identity

<sup>20</sup>The ram which you saw with the two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia.

The Goat

<sup>21</sup>The shaggy goat represents the kingdom of Greece, and the large horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

<sup>22</sup>The broken horn and the four horns that came up in its place represent four kingdoms which will arise from his nation, although not with his power.

<sup>23</sup>“And in the latter period of their dominion, When the wrongdoers have run their course, A king will arise, Insolent and skilled in intrigue.

<sup>24</sup>“And his power will be mighty, but not by his own power, And he will destroy to an extraordinary degree And be successful and do as he pleases; He will destroy mighty men and the holy people.

<sup>25</sup>“And through his shrewdness He will make deceit a success by his influence; And he will make himself great in his own mind, And he will destroy many while they are at ease. He will even oppose the Prince of princes, But he will be broken without human agency.

<sup>26</sup>“And the vision of the evenings and mornings Which has been told is true; But as for you, keep the vision secret, Because it pertains to many days in the future.”

<sup>27</sup>Then I, Daniel, was exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up and carried on the king’s business; but I was astounded at the vision, and there was no one to explain it.

Daniel 9

Daniel’s Prayer for His People

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans—

<sup>2</sup>in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which was revealed as the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

<sup>3</sup>So I gave my attention to the Lord God, to seek Him by prayer and pleading, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

<sup>4</sup>I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed, and said, “Oh, Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and faithfulness for those who love Him and keep His commandments, <sup>5</sup>we have sinned, we have done wrong, and acted wickedly and rebelled, even turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances.

<sup>6</sup>Moreover, we have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our leaders, our fathers, and all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup>“Righteousness belongs to You, Lord, but to us open shame, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are nearby and those who are far away in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds which they have committed against You.

<sup>8</sup>Open shame belongs to us, LORD, to our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

<sup>9</sup>To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, because we have rebelled against Him;

<sup>10</sup>and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His teachings which He set before us through His servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, all Israel has violated Your Law and turned aside, not obeying Your voice; so the curse has gushed forth on us, along with the oath which is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him.

<sup>12</sup>So He has confirmed His words which He had spoken against us and against our rulers who ruled us, to bring on us great disaster; for under the entire heaven there has not been done anything like what was done in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us; yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our wrongdoing and giving attention to Your truth.

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD has kept the disaster in store and brought it on us; for the LORD our God is righteous with respect to all His deeds which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.

<sup>15</sup>“And now, Lord, our God, You who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made a name for Yourself, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have been wicked.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, in accordance with all Your righteous acts, let now Your anger and Your wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the wrongdoings of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of taunting to all those around us.

<sup>17</sup>So now, our God, listen to the prayer of Your servant and to his pleas, and for Your sake, Lord, let Your face shine on Your desolate sanctuary.

<sup>18</sup>My God, incline Your ear and hear! Open Your eyes and see our desolations and the city which is called by Your name; for we are not presenting our pleas before You based on any merits of our own, but based on Your great compassion.

<sup>19</sup>Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and take action! For Your own sake, my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people are called by Your name.”

Gabriel Brings an Answer

<sup>20</sup>While I was still speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my plea before the LORD my God in behalf of the holy mountain of my God,

<sup>21</sup>while I was still speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision previously, came to me in my extreme weariness about the time of the evening offering.

<sup>22</sup>And he instructed me and talked with me and said, “Daniel, I have come now to give you insight with understanding.

<sup>23</sup>At the beginning of your pleas the command was issued, and I have come to tell you, because you are highly esteemed; so pay attention to the message and gain understanding of the vision.

Seventy Weeks and the Messiah

<sup>24</sup>“Seventy weeks have been decreed for your people and your holy city, to finish the wrongdoing, to make an end of sin, to make atonement for guilt, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.

<sup>25</sup>So you are to know and understand that from the issuing of a decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem, until Messiah the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; it will be built again, with streets and moat, even in times of distress.

<sup>26</sup>Then after the sixty-two weeks, the Messiah will be cut off and have nothing, and the people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. And its end will come with a flood; even to the end there will be war; desolations are determined.

<sup>27</sup>And he will confirm a covenant with the many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put a stop to sacrifice and grain offering; and on the wing of abominations will come the one who makes desolate, until a complete destruction, one that is decreed, gushes forth on the one who makes desolate.”

Daniel 10

Daniel Is Terrified by a Vision

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar; and the message was true and it concerned great conflict, but he understood the message and had an understanding of the vision.

<sup>2</sup>In those days, I, Daniel, had been mourning for three entire weeks.

<sup>3</sup>I did not eat any tasty food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I use any ointment at all until the entire three weeks were completed.

<sup>4</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was by the bank of the great river, that is, the Tigris, <sup>5</sup>I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man dressed in linen, whose waist had a belt of pure gold of Uphaz.

<sup>6</sup>His body also was like topaz, his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude.

<sup>7</sup>Now I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great fear fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.

<sup>8</sup>So I was left alone and saw this great vision; yet no strength was left in me, for my complexion turned to a deathly pallor, and I retained no strength.

<sup>9</sup>But I heard the sound of his words; and as soon as I heard the sound of his words, I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Daniel Comforted

<sup>10</sup>Then behold, a hand touched me and shook me on my hands and knees.

<sup>11</sup>And he said to me, “Daniel, you who are treasured, understand the words that I am about to tell you and stand at your place, for I have now been sent to you.” And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart on understanding this and on humbling yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to your words.

<sup>13</sup>But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was standing in my way for twenty-one days; then behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.

<sup>14</sup>Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the latter days, because the vision pertains to the days still future.”

<sup>15</sup>When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, one who resembled a human was touching my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who was standing before me, “My lord, due to the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have retained no strength.

<sup>19</sup>And he said, “You who are treasured, do not be afraid. Peace be to you; take courage and be courageous!” Now as soon as he spoke to me, I felt strengthened and said, “May my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

<sup>20</sup>Then he said, “Do you understand why I came to you? But I shall now return to fight against the prince of Persia; so I am leaving, and behold, the prince of Greece is about to come.

<sup>21</sup>However, I will tell you what is recorded in the writing of truth. Yet there is no one who stands firmly with me against these forces except Michael your prince.

Daniel 11

Conflicts to Come

<sup>1</sup>“In the first year of Darius the Mede, I arose to be of assistance and a protection for him.

<sup>2</sup>And now I will tell you the truth. Behold, three more kings are going to arise in Persia. Then a fourth will gain far more riches than all of them; as soon as he becomes strong through his riches, he will stir up the entire empire against the realm of Greece.

<sup>3</sup>And a mighty king will arise, and he will rule with great authority and do as he pleases.

<sup>4</sup>But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and parceled out toward the four points of the compass, though not to his own descendants, nor according to his authority which he wielded, because his sovereignty will be removed and given to others besides them.

<sup>5</sup>“Then the king of the South will grow strong, along with one of his princes who will gain ascendancy over him and rule; his domain will be a great realm indeed.

<sup>6</sup>And after some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to reach an agreement. But she will not keep her position of power, nor will he remain with his power, but she will be given up, along with those who brought her in and the one who fathered her as well as he who supported her in those times.

<sup>7</sup>But one of the descendants of her line will arise in his place, and he will come against their army and enter the fortress of the king of the North, and he will deal with them and prevail.

<sup>9</sup>Then the latter will enter the realm of the king of the South, but will return to his own land.

<sup>10</sup>“And his sons will mobilize and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one of them will keep on coming and overflow and pass through, so that he may again wage war up to his fortress.

<sup>11</sup>And the king of the South will be enraged and go out and fight with the king of the North. Then the latter will raise a great multitude, but that multitude will be handed over to the former.

<sup>12</sup>When the multitude is carried away, his heart will be haughty, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall; yet he will not prevail.

<sup>13</sup>For the king of the North will again raise a greater multitude than the former, and after an interval of some years he will press on with a great army and much equipment.

<sup>14</sup>“Now in those times many will rise up against the king of the South; the violent ones among your people will also raise themselves up to fulfill the vision, but they will fall down.

<sup>15</sup>Then the king of the North will come, pile up an assault ramp, and capture a well-fortified city; and the forces of the South will not stand their ground, not even their choicest troops, for there will be no strength to make a stand.

<sup>16</sup>But he who comes against him will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand him; he will also stay for a time in the Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand.

<sup>17</sup>And he will set his mind on coming with the power of his entire kingdom, bringing with him a proposal of peace which he will put into effect; he will also give him the daughter of women to ruin it. But she will not take a stand for him or be on his side.

<sup>18</sup>Then he will turn his face to the coastlands and capture many. But a commander will put a stop to his taunting against him; moreover, he will repay him for his taunting.

<sup>19</sup>So he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall and not be found.

<sup>20</sup>“Then in his place one will arise who will allow an oppressor to pass through the Jewel of his kingdom; yet within a few days he will be broken, though not in anger nor in battle.

<sup>21</sup>And in his place a despicable person will arise, on whom the majesty of kingship has not been conferred; but he will come in a time of tranquility and seize the kingdom by intrigue.

<sup>22</sup>And the overflowing forces will be flooded away from him and smashed, and also the prince of the covenant.

<sup>23</sup>After an alliance is made with him he will practice deception, and he will go up and gain power with a small force of people.

<sup>24</sup>In a time of tranquility he will enter the richest parts of the realm, and he will accomplish what his fathers did not, nor his ancestors; he will distribute plunder, spoils, and possessions among them, and he will devise his schemes against strongholds, but only for a time.

<sup>25</sup>And he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South with a large army; so the king of the South will mobilize an extremely large and mighty army for war; but he will not stand, because schemes will be devised against him.

<sup>26</sup>Those who eat his choice food will destroy him, and his army will overflow, but many will fall down slain.

<sup>27</sup>As for both kings, their hearts will be intent on evil, and they will speak lies to each other at the same table; but it will not succeed, because the end is still to come at the appointed time.

<sup>28</sup>Then he will return to his land with much plunder; but his heart will be set against the holy covenant, and he will take action and then return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup>“At the appointed time he will return and come into the South, but this last time it will not turn out the way it did before.

<sup>30</sup>For ships of Kittim will come against him; therefore he will withdraw in fear and will return and curse the holy covenant and take action; so he will come back and pay attention to those who abandon the holy covenant.

<sup>31</sup>Forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation.

<sup>32</sup>And by smooth words he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and take action.

<sup>33</sup>And those who have insight among the people will give understanding to the many; yet they will fall by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for many days.

<sup>34</sup>Now when they fall they will be granted a little help, and many will join with them in hypocrisy.

<sup>35</sup>And some of those who have insight will fall, to refine, purge, and cleanse them until the end time; because it is still to come at the appointed time.

<sup>36</sup>“Then the king will do as he pleases, and he will exalt himself and boast against every god and will speak dreadful things against the God of gods; and he will be successful until the indignation is finished, because that which is determined will be done.

<sup>37</sup>And he will show no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the desire of women, nor will he show regard for any other god; for he will boast against them all.

<sup>38</sup>But instead he will honor a god of fortresses, a god whom his fathers did not know; he will honor him with gold, silver, precious stones, and treasures.

<sup>39</sup>And he will take action against the strongest of fortresses with the help of a foreign god; he will give great honor to those who acknowledge him and will make them rulers over the many, and will parcel out land for a price.

<sup>40</sup>“And at the end time the king of the South will wage war with him, and the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, horsemen, and with many ships; and he will enter countries, overflow them, and pass through.

<sup>41</sup>He will also enter the Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall; but these will be rescued out of his hand: Edom, Moab, and the foremost of the sons of Ammon.

<sup>42</sup>Then he will reach out with his hand against other countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape.

<sup>43</sup>But he will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and Libyans and Ethiopians will follow at his heels.

<sup>44</sup>But rumors from the East and from the North will terrify him, and he will go out with great wrath to eliminate and annihilate many.

<sup>45</sup>And he will pitch the tents of his royal pavilion between the seas and the beautiful Holy Mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

Daniel 12

The Time of the End

<sup>1</sup>“Now at that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; and at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the book, will be rescued.

<sup>2</sup>And many of those who sleep in the dust of the ground will awake, these to everlasting life, but the others to disgrace and everlasting contempt.

<sup>3</sup>And those who have insight will shine like the glow of the expanse of heaven, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

<sup>4</sup>But as for you, Daniel, keep these words secret and seal up the book until the end of time; many will roam about, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the stream and the other on that bank of the stream.

<sup>6</sup>And someone said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, “How long will it be until the end of these wonders?”

<sup>7</sup>And I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, as he raised his right hand and his left toward heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and half a time; and as soon as they finish smashing the power of the holy people, all these events will be completed.

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I heard but did not understand; so I said, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these events?”

<sup>9</sup>And he said, “Go your way, Daniel, for these words will be kept secret and sealed up until the end time.

<sup>10</sup>Many will be purged, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand.

<sup>11</sup>And from the time that the regular sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

<sup>13</sup>But as for you, go your way to the end; then you will rest and rise for your allotted portion at the end of the age.”

Hosea

Hosea 1

Hosea's Wife and Children

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD which came to Hosea the son of Beeri, during the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup>And the LORD said to him, “Name him Jezreel; for in just a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.”

<sup>6</sup>Then she conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And the LORD said to him, “Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer take pity on the house of Israel, that I would ever forgive them.

<sup>7</sup>But I will take pity on the house of Judah and save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.”

<sup>8</sup>When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and gave birth to a son.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD said, “Name him Lo-ammi, because you are not My people, and I am not your God.”

<sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the sons of Israel Will be like the sand of the sea, Which cannot be measured or counted; And in the place Where it is said to them, “You are not My people,” It will be said to them, “You are the sons of the living God.”

<sup>11</sup>And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, And they will appoint for themselves one leader, And they will go up from the land, For the day of Jezreel will be great.

Hosea 2

Israel's Unfaithfulness Condemned

<sup>3</sup>Otherwise, I will strip her naked And expose her as on the day she was born. I will also make her like a wilderness, Make her like desert land, And put her to death with thirst.

<sup>4</sup>"Also, I will take no pity on her children, Because they are children of infidelity.

<sup>5</sup>"For their mother has committed prostitution; She who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, 'I will go after my lovers, Who give me my bread and my water, My wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

<sup>6</sup>"Therefore, behold, I will obstruct her way with thorns, And I will build a stone wall against her so that she cannot find her paths.

<sup>7</sup>"And she will pursue her lovers, but she will not reach them; And she will seek them, but will not find them. Then she will say, 'I will go back to my first husband, Because it was better for me then than now!'

<sup>8</sup>"Yet she does not know that it was I myself who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, And lavished on her silver and gold, Which they used for Baal.

<sup>9</sup>"Therefore, I will take back My grain at harvest time And My new wine in its season. I will also take away My wool and My flax That I gave to cover her nakedness.

10“So now I will uncover her lewdness Before the eyes of her lovers, And no one will rescue her from My hand.

11“I will also put an end to all her joy, Her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, And all her festivals.

12“And I will destroy her vines and fig trees, Of which she said, ‘They are my wages for prostitution Which my lovers have given me.’ And I will turn them into a forest, And the animals of the field will devour them.

13“I will punish her for the days of the Baals When she used to offer sacrifices to them And adorn herself with her nose ring and jewelry, And follow her lovers, so that she forgot Me,” declares the LORD.

Restoration of Israel

14“Therefore, behold, I am going to persuade her, Bring her into the wilderness, And speak kindly to her.

15“Then I will give her her vineyards from there, And the Valley of Achor as a door of hope. And she will respond there as in the days of her youth, As in the day when she went up from the land of Egypt.

16“And it will come about on that day,” declares the LORD, “That you will call Me my husband And no longer call Me my Baal.

17“For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, So that they will no longer be mentioned by their names.

18“On that day I will also make a covenant for them With the animals of the field, The birds of the sky, And the crawling things of the ground. And I will eliminate the bow, the sword, and war from the land, And will let them lie down in safety.

19“I will betroth you to Me forever; Yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and in justice, In favor and in compassion,

20And I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness. Then you will know the LORD.

<sup>21</sup>“And it will come about on that day that I will respond,” declares the LORD.
“I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth,

<sup>22</sup>And the earth will respond to the grain, to the new wine, and to the oil,
And they will respond to Jezreel.

<sup>23</sup>“I will sow her for Myself in the land. I will also have compassion on her who had not obtained compassion, And I will say to those who were not My people, ‘You are My people!’ And they will say, ‘You are my God!’ ”

Hosea 3

Hosea’s Redemption of Gomer

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Go again, love a woman who is loved by her husband, yet is committing adultery, as the LORD loves the sons of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes.”

<sup>2</sup>So I purchased her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and a homer and a lethech of barley.

<sup>3</sup>Then I said to her, “You shall live with me for many days. You shall not play the prostitute, nor shall you have another man; so I will also be toward you.”

<sup>4</sup>For the sons of Israel will live for many days without a king or leader, without sacrifice or memorial stone, and without ephod or household idols.

<sup>5</sup>Afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king; and they will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

Hosea 4

God’s Controversy with Israel

<sup>1</sup>Listen to the word of the LORD, you sons of Israel, Because the LORD has a case against the inhabitants of the land, For there is no faithfulness, nor loyalty, Nor knowledge of God in the land.

<sup>2</sup> There is oath-taking, denial, murder, stealing, and adultery. They employ violence, so that bloodshed follows bloodshed.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore the land mourns, And everyone who lives in it languishes Along with the animals of the field and the birds of the sky, And even the fish of the sea disappear.

<sup>4</sup>Yet let no one find fault, and let no one rebuke; For your people are like those who contend with a priest.

<sup>5</sup>So you will stumble by day, And the prophet also will stumble with you by night; And I will destroy your mother.

<sup>6</sup>My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Since you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being My priest. Since you have forgotten the Law of your God, I also will forget your children.

<sup>7</sup>The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against Me; I will change their glory into shame.

<sup>8</sup>They feed on the sin of My people, And long for their wrongdoing.

<sup>9</sup>And it will be, like people, like priest; So I will punish them for their ways And repay them for their deeds.

<sup>10</sup>They will eat, but not have enough; They will play the prostitute, but not increase, Because they gave up devoting themselves to the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>They offer sacrifices on the tops of the mountains And burn incense on the hills, Under oak, poplar, and terebinth, Because their shade is pleasant. Therefore your daughters play the prostitute, And your brides commit adultery.

<sup>14</sup>I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, Or your brides when they commit adultery, Because the men themselves slip away with the prostitutes And offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes; So the people without understanding are ruined.

<sup>15</sup>Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, Judah must not become guilty; Also you are not to go to Gilgal, Nor go up to Beth-aven And take the oath: “As the LORD lives!”

<sup>16</sup>Since Israel is stubborn Like a stubborn cow, Will the LORD now pasture them Like a lamb in a large field?

Hosea 5

The People's Apostasy Rebuked

<sup>2</sup>And the rebels have gone deep in depravity, But I will discipline all of them.

<sup>3</sup>I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me; Because now, Ephraim, you have been unfaithful, Israel has defiled itself.

<sup>4</sup>Their deeds will not allow them To return to their God. For a spirit of infidelity is within them, And they do not know the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>Moreover, the pride of Israel testifies against him, And Israel and Ephraim stumble in their wrongdoing; Judah also has stumbled with them.

<sup>6</sup>They will go with their flocks and herds To seek the LORD, but they will not find Him; He has withdrawn from them.

<sup>7</sup>They have dealt treacherously with the LORD, For they have given birth to illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their land.

<sup>8</sup>Blow the horn in Gibeah, And the trumpet in Ramah. Sound an alarm at Beth-aven: “Behind you, Benjamin!”

<sup>10</sup>The leaders of Judah have become like those who displace a boundary marker; On them I will pour out My anger like water.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is oppressed, broken by judgment, Because he was determined to follow man’s command.

<sup>13</sup>When Ephraim saw his sickness, And Judah his sore, Ephraim then went to Assyria And sent word to King Jareb. But he is unable to heal you, Or to cure you of your sore.

<sup>14</sup>For I will be like a lion to Ephraim And like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, yes I, will tear to pieces and go away, I will carry away, and there will be no one to rescue.

<sup>15</sup>I will go away and return to My place Until they acknowledge their guilt and seek My face; In their distress they will search for Me.

Hosea 6

The Response to God’s Rebuke

<sup>1</sup>“Come, let’s return to the LORD. For He has torn us, but He will heal us; He has wounded us, but He will bandage us.

<sup>2</sup>“He will revive us after two days; He will raise us up on the third day, That we may live before Him.

<sup>3</sup>“So let’s learn, let’s press on to know the LORD. His appearance is as sure as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, As the spring rain waters the earth.”

<sup>4</sup>What shall I do with you, Ephraim? What shall I do with you, Judah? For your loyalty is like a morning cloud, And like the dew which goes away early.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore I have cut them in pieces by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth; And the judgments on you are like the light that shines.

<sup>7</sup>But like Adam they have violated the covenant; There they have dealt treacherously with Me.

<sup>9</sup>And as a band of robbers lie in wait for a person, So a band of priests murder on the way to Shechem; Certainly they have committed an act of infamy.

<sup>10</sup>In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim’s infidelity is there, Israel has defiled itself.

<sup>11</sup>Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, When I restore the fortunes of My people.

Hosea 7

Ephraim’s Wrongdoing

<sup>1</sup>When I would heal Israel, The wrongdoing of Ephraim is uncovered, And the evil deeds of Samaria, For they practice deception; The thief enters, A band of robbers attack outside,

<sup>7</sup>All of them are hot like an oven, And they consume their rulers; All their kings have fallen. None of them calls on Me.

<sup>8</sup>Ephraim is himself thrown about with the nations; Ephraim has become a round loaf not turned over.

<sup>9</sup>Strangers devour his strength, Yet he does not know it; Gray hairs also are sprinkled on him, Yet he does not know it.

<sup>10</sup>Though the pride of Israel testifies against him, Yet they have not returned to the LORD their God, Nor have they sought Him, despite all this.

<sup>11</sup>So Ephraim has become like a gullible dove, without sense; They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

<sup>12</sup>When they go, I will spread My net over them; I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will discipline them in accordance with the proclamation to their assembly.

<sup>13</sup>Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me! Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me! I would redeem them, but they have spoken lies against Me.

<sup>14</sup>And they do not cry to Me from their heart When they wail on their beds; For the sake of grain and new wine they assemble themselves, They turn against Me.

<sup>16</sup>They turn, but not upward, They are like a loose bow; Their officials will fall by the sword Because of the insolence of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8

Israel Reaps the Whirlwind

<sup>1</sup> Put the trumpet to your lips! Like an eagle the enemy comes against the house of the LORD, Because they have violated My covenant And rebelled against My Law.

<sup>2</sup>They cry out to Me, “My God, we of Israel know You!”

<sup>3</sup>Israel has rejected the good; The enemy will pursue him.

<sup>4</sup>They have set up kings, but not by Me; They have appointed officials, but I did not know it. With their silver and gold they have made idols for themselves, So that they will be eliminated.

<sup>5</sup> He has rejected your calf, Samaria, saying, “My anger burns against them!” How long will they be incapable of innocence?

<sup>6</sup>For from Israel comes even this! A craftsman made it, so it is not God; Assuredly, the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>For they sow wind And they harvest a storm. The standing grain has no kernels; It yields no grain. If it were to yield, strangers would swallow it.

<sup>8</sup>Israel has been swallowed up; They are now among the nations Like a vessel in which no one delights.

<sup>9</sup>For they have gone up to Assyria, Like a wild donkey all alone; Ephraim has paid fees for lovers.

<sup>10</sup>Even though they pay for allies among the nations, I will gather them up now; And they will begin to diminish Because of the burden of the king of officials.

<sup>11</sup>Since Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin, They have become altars of sinning for him.

<sup>12</sup>Though I wrote for him ten thousand precepts of My Law, They are regarded as a strange thing.

<sup>13</sup>As for My sacrificial gifts, They sacrifice the flesh and eat it, But the LORD has taken no delight in them. Now He will remember their guilt, And punish them for their sins; They will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; And Judah has multiplied fortified cities, But I will send a fire on its cities, and it will consume its palatial buildings.

Hosea 9

Ephraim Punished

<sup>2</sup>Threshing floor and wine press will not feed them, And the new wine will fail them.

<sup>3</sup>They will not remain in the LORD's land, But Ephraim will return to Egypt, And in Assyria they will eat unclean food.

<sup>4</sup>They will not pour out drink offerings of wine to the LORD, Nor will their sacrifices please Him. Their bread will be to them like mourners' bread; All who eat it will be defiled, Because their bread will be for themselves alone; It will not enter the house of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>What will you do on the day of the appointed festival And on the day of the feast of the LORD?

<sup>6</sup>For behold, they will be gone because of destruction; Egypt will gather them together, Memphis will bury them. Weeds will take possession of their treasures of silver; Thorns will be in their tents.

<sup>7</sup>The days of punishment have come, The days of retribution have come; Let Israel know this! The prophet is a fool, The inspired person is insane, Because of the grossness of your wrongdoing, And because your hostility is so great.

<sup>8</sup>Ephraim was a watchman with my God, a prophet; Yet the snare of a bird catcher is in all his ways, And there is only hostility in the house of his God.

<sup>9</sup>They are deeply depraved As in the days of Gibeah; He will remember their guilt, He will punish their sins.

<sup>10</sup>I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your forefathers as the earliest fruit on the fig tree in its first season. But they came to Baal-peor and devoted themselves to shame, And they became as detestable as that which they loved.

<sup>11</sup>As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird— No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!

<sup>14</sup>Give to them, LORD—what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dried-up breasts.

<sup>15</sup>All their evil is at Gilgal; Indeed, I came to hate them there! Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of My house! I will no longer love them; All their leaders are rebels.

<sup>16</sup>Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up, They will produce no fruit. Even though they give birth to children, I will put to death the precious ones of their womb.

<sup>17</sup>My God will reject them Because they have not listened to Him; And they will be wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10

Retribution for Israel's Sin

<sup>1</sup>Israel is a luxuriant vine; He produces fruit for himself. The more his fruit, The more altars he made; The richer his land, The better he made the memorial stones.

<sup>2</sup>Their heart is deceitful; Now they must suffer for their guilt. The LORD will break down their altars And destroy their memorial stones.

<sup>3</sup>Certainly now they will say, "We have no king, For we do not revere the LORD. As for the king, what can he do for us?"

<sup>4</sup>They speak mere words, With worthless oaths they make covenants; And judgment sprouts like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

<sup>5</sup>The inhabitants of Samaria will fear For the calf of Beth-aven. Indeed, its people will mourn for it, And its idolatrous priests will cry out over it, Over its glory, since it has left it.

<sup>6</sup>The thing itself will be brought to Assyria As a gift of tribute to King Jareb; Ephraim will be seized with shame, And Israel will be ashamed of its own plan.

<sup>8</sup>Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed; Thorns and thistles will grow on their altars; Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

<sup>9</sup>Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, Israel; There they stand! Will the battle against the sons of injustice not overtake them in Gibeah?

<sup>10</sup>When it is My desire, I will discipline them; And the peoples will be gathered against them When they are bound for their double guilt.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, And I passed over her lovely neck; I will harness Ephraim, Judah will plow, Jacob will harrow for himself.

<sup>12</sup>Sow for yourselves, with a view to righteousness; Harvest in accordance with kindness. Break up your uncultivated ground, For it is time to seek the LORD Until He comes and rains righteousness on you.

<sup>13</sup>You have plowed wickedness, you have harvested injustice, You have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your way, in your many warriors, <sup>14</sup>An uproar will arise among your people, And all your fortresses will be destroyed, As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle, When mothers were slaughtered with their children.

<sup>15</sup>So it will be done to you at Bethel because of your great wickedness. At dawn the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Hosea 11

God Yearns over His People

<sup>1</sup>When Israel was a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son.

<sup>2</sup>The more they called them, The more they went away from them; They kept sacrificing to the Baals And burning incense to idols.

<sup>3</sup>Yet it is I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them in My arms; But they did not know that I healed them.

<sup>4</sup>I pulled them along with cords of a man, with ropes of love, And I became to them as one who lifts the yoke from their jaws; And I bent down and fed them.

<sup>5</sup>They will not return to the land of Egypt; But Assyria—he will be their king
Because they refused to return to Me.

<sup>6</sup>And the sword will whirl against their cities, And will destroy their oracle priests And consume them, because of their counsels.

<sup>7</sup>So My people are determined to turn from Me. Though they call them to the One on high, None at all exalts Him.

<sup>8</sup>How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I surrender you, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned over within Me, All My compassions are kindled.

<sup>9</sup>I will not carry out My fierce anger; I will not destroy Ephraim again. For I am God and not a man, the Holy One in your midst, And I will not come in wrath.

<sup>10</sup>They will walk after the LORD, He will roar like a lion; Indeed He will roar,
And His sons will come trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup>They will come trembling like birds from Egypt, And like doves from the land of Assyria; And I will settle them in their houses, declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>Ephraim surrounds Me with lies And the house of Israel with deceit; Judah is still unruly against God, Even against the Holy One who is faithful.

Hosea 12

Ephraim Reminded

<sup>1</sup> Ephraim feeds on wind, And pursues the east wind continually; He multiplies lies and violence. Moreover, he makes a covenant with Assyria, And oil is brought to Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD also has a case against Judah, And will punish Jacob according to his ways; He will repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>3</sup>In the womb he took his brother by the heel, And in his mature strength he contended with God.

<sup>4</sup>Yes, he wrestled with the angel and prevailed; He wept and implored His favor. He found Him at Bethel, And there He spoke with us, <sup>5</sup>And the LORD, the God of armies, The LORD is His name.

<sup>6</sup>So as for you, return to your God, Maintain kindness and justice, And wait for your God continually.

<sup>8</sup>And Ephraim said, "I have certainly become rich, I have found wealth for myself; In all my labors they will find in me No wrongdoing, which would be sin."

<sup>9</sup>But I have been the LORD your God since the land of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, As in the days of the appointed festival.

<sup>10</sup>I have also spoken to the prophets, And I provided many visions, And through the prophets I spoke in parables.

<sup>12</sup>Now Jacob fled to the land of Aram, And Israel worked for a wife, And for a wife he kept sheep.

<sup>13</sup>But by a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, And by a prophet he was protected.

<sup>14</sup>Ephraim has provoked God to bitter anger; So his Lord will leave his guilt for bloodshed on him And bring his disgrace back to him.

Hosea 13

Ephraim's Idolatry

<sup>1</sup>When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Israel, But through Baal he incurred guilt and died.

<sup>2</sup>And now they sin more and more, And make for themselves cast metal images, Idols skillfully made from their silver, All of them the work of craftsmen. They say of them, “Let the people who sacrifice kiss the calves!”

<sup>3</sup>Therefore they will be like the morning cloud And like dew which soon disappears, Like chaff which is blown away from the threshing floor, And like smoke from a chimney.

<sup>4</sup>Yet I have been the LORD your God Since the land of Egypt; And you were not to know any god except Me, For there is no savior besides Me.

<sup>5</sup>I cared for you in the wilderness, In the land of drought.

<sup>6</sup>As they had their pasture, they became satisfied, And as they became satisfied, their heart became proud; Therefore they forgot Me.

<sup>7</sup>So I will be like a lion to them; Like a leopard I will lie in wait by the wayside.

<sup>8</sup>I will confront them like a bear deprived of her cubs, And I will tear open their chests; I will also devour them there like a lioness, As a wild animal would tear them to pieces.

<sup>9</sup>It is to your own destruction, Israel, That you are against Me, against your help.

<sup>10</sup>Where then is your king, That he might save you in all your cities; And your judges, to whom you said, “Give me a king and princes”?

<sup>11</sup>I gave you a king in My anger, And took him away in My wrath.

<sup>13</sup>The pains of childbirth come on him; He is not a wise son, For it is not the time that he should delay at the opening of the womb.

<sup>14</sup>Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from death? Death, where are your thorns? Sheol, where is your sting? Compassion will be hidden from My sight.

<sup>15</sup>Though he flourishes among the reeds, An east wind will come, The wind of the LORD coming up from the wilderness; And his fountain will become dry And his spring will dry up; It will plunder his treasury of every precious article.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will pay the penalty for her guilt, Because she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, Their children will be slaughtered, And their pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea 14

Israel's Future Blessing

<sup>1</sup> Return, Israel, to the LORD your God, For you have stumbled because of your wrongdoing.

<sup>2</sup> Take words with you and return to the LORD. Say to Him, "Take away all guilt And receive us graciously, So that we may present the fruit of our lips.

<sup>3</sup> "Assyria will not save us, We will not ride on horses; Nor will we say again, 'Our god' To the work of our hands; For in You the orphan finds mercy."

<sup>4</sup> I will heal their apostasy, I will love them freely, Because My anger has turned away from them.

<sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel; He will blossom like the lily, And he will take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> His shoots will sprout, His majesty will be like the olive tree, And his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup> Those who live in his shadow Will again raise grain, And they will blossom like the vine. His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols? It is I who answer and look after you. I am like a luxuriant juniper; From Me comes your fruit.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; Whoever is discerning, let him know them. For the ways of the LORD are right, And the righteous will walk in them, But wrongdoers will stumble in them.

Joel

Joel 1

The Devastation by Locusts

<sup>3</sup>Tell your sons about it, And have your sons tell their sons, And their sons the next generation.

<sup>5</sup>Awake, you heavy drinkers, and weep; And wail, all you wine drinkers, Because of the sweet wine, For it has been eliminated from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup>For a nation has invaded my land, Mighty and without number; Its teeth are the teeth of a lion, And it has the jaws of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup>It has made my vine a waste And my fig tree a stump. It has stripped them bare and hurled them away; Their branches have become white.

<sup>11</sup>Be ashamed, you farm workers, Wail, you vinedressers, For the wheat and the barley; Because the harvest of the field is destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>The vine has dried up And the fig tree has withered; The pomegranate, the palm also, and the apple tree, All the trees of the field have dried up. Indeed, joy has dried up From the sons of mankind.

<sup>13</sup>Put on sackcloth And mourn, you priests; Wail, you ministers of the altar!
Come, spend the night in sackcloth, You ministers of my God, For the grain offering and the drink offering Have been withheld from the house of your God.

Starvation and Drought

<sup>14</sup>Consecrate a fast, Proclaim a solemn assembly; Gather the elders And all the inhabitants of the land To the house of the LORD your God, And cry out to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Woe for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, And it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

<sup>16</sup>Has food not been cut off before our eyes, and Joy and rejoicing from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup>The seeds have dried up under their shovels; The storehouses have become desolate, The grain silos are ruined, Because the grain has dried up.

<sup>18</sup>How the animals have groaned! The herds of cattle have wandered aimlessly Because there is no pasture for them; Even the flocks of sheep have suffered.

<sup>19</sup>To You, LORD, I cry out; For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, And the flame has burned up all the trees of the field.

<sup>20</sup>Even the animals of the field pant for You; For the stream beds of water are dried up, And fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel 2

The Terrible Visitation

<sup>1</sup>Blow a trumpet in Zion, And sound an alarm on My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, For the day of the LORD is coming;
Indeed, it is near,

<sup>2</sup>A day of darkness and gloom, A day of clouds and thick darkness. As dawn is spread over the mountains, So there is a great and mighty people; There has never been anything like it, Nor will there be again after it To the years of many generations.

<sup>8</sup>They do not crowd each other, Every warrior of them marches in his path; When they burst through the defenses, They do not break ranks.

<sup>12</sup>“Yet even now,” declares the LORD, “Return to Me with all your heart, And with fasting, weeping, and mourning; <sup>13</sup>And tear your heart and not merely your garments.” Now return to the LORD your God, For He is gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger, abounding in mercy And relenting of catastrophe.

<sup>14</sup>Who knows, He might turn and relent, And leave a blessing behind Him, Resulting in a grain offering and a drink offering For the LORD your God.

the children and the nursing infants. Have the groom come out of his room
And the bride out of her bridal chamber.

<sup>17</sup>Let the priests, the LORD's ministers, Weep between the porch and the altar,
And let them say, "Spare Your people, LORD, And do not make Your inheritance a disgrace, With the nations jeering at them. Why should those among the peoples say, 'Where is their God?'"

Deliverance Promised

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD will be zealous for His land, And will have compassion for His people.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD will answer and say to His people, "Behold, I am going to send you grain, new wine, and oil, And you will be satisfied in full with them; And I will never again make you a disgrace among the nations.

<sup>20</sup>"But I will remove the northern army far from you, And I will drive it into a dry and desolate land, Its advance guard into the eastern sea, And its rear guard into the western sea. And its stench will ascend and its odor of decay will come up, Because it has done great things."

<sup>21</sup>Do not fear, land; shout for joy and rejoice, For the LORD has done great things.

<sup>22</sup>Do not fear, animals of the field, For the pastures of the wilderness have turned green, For the tree has produced its fruit, The fig tree and the vine have yielded in full.

<sup>23</sup>So shout for joy, you sons of Zion, And rejoice in the LORD your God; For
He has given you the early rain for your vindication. And He has brought down for you the rain, The early and latter rain as before.

<sup>24</sup>The threshing floors will be full of grain, And the vats will overflow with the new wine and oil.

<sup>25</sup>“Then I will compensate you for the years That the swarming locust has eaten, The creeping locust, the stripping locust, and the gnawing locust— My great army which I sent among you.

<sup>26</sup>“You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied, And you will praise the name of the LORD your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you; Then My people will never be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup>“So you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, And that I am the LORD your God And there is no other; And My people will never be put to shame.

The Promise of the Spirit

<sup>28</sup>“It will come about after this That I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind; And your sons and your daughters will prophesy, Your old men will have dreams, Your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>“And even on the male and female servants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

The Day of the LORD

<sup>30</sup>“I will display wonders in the sky and on the earth, Blood, fire, and columns of smoke.

<sup>31</sup>“The sun will be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes.

<sup>32</sup>“And it will come about that everyone who calls on the name of the LORD Will be saved; For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem There will be those who escape, Just as the LORD has said, Even among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

Joel 3

The Nations Will Be Judged

<sup>1</sup>“For behold, in those days and at that time, When I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

<sup>2</sup>I will gather all the nations And bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. Then I will enter into judgment with them there On behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel, Whom they have scattered among the nations; And they have divided up My land.

<sup>3</sup>“They have also cast lots for My people, Traded a boy for a prostitute, And sold a girl for wine so that they may drink.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover, what are you to Me, Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you repaying Me with retribution? But if you are showing Me retribution, swiftly and speedily I will return your retribution on your head!

<sup>5</sup>Since you have taken My silver and My gold, brought My precious treasures to your temples,

<sup>6</sup>and sold the sons of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their territory, <sup>7</sup>behold, I am going to stir them up from the place where you have sold them, and return your retribution on your head.

<sup>8</sup>I will also sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a distant nation,” for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare for holy war; stir up the warriors! Have all the soldiers come forward, have them come up!

<sup>10</sup>Beat your plowshares into swords, And your pruning hooks into spears; Let the weak man say, “I am a warrior.”

<sup>12</sup>Let the nations be awakened And come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat,
For there I will sit to judge All the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup>Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread the grapes, for the wine press is full; The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.

<sup>14</sup>Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

<sup>15</sup>The sun and moon have become dark, And the stars have lost their brightness.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD roars from Zion And utters His voice from Jerusalem, And the heavens and the earth quake. But the LORD is a refuge for His people, And a stronghold for the sons of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, Dwelling on Zion, My holy mountain. So Jerusalem will be holy, And strangers will no longer pass through it.

Judah Will Be Blessed

<sup>18</sup>And on that day The mountains will drip with sweet wine, And the hills will flow with milk, And all the brooks of Judah will flow with water; And a spring will go out from the house of the LORD And water the Valley of Shittim.

<sup>19</sup>Egypt will become a wasteland, And Edom will become a desolate wilderness, Because of the violence done to the sons of Judah, In whose land they have shed innocent blood.

<sup>21</sup>And I will avenge their blood which I have not avenged, For the LORD dwells in Zion.

Amos

Amos 1

Judgment on Neighbor Nations

<sup>1</sup>The words of Amos, who was among the shepherders from Tekoa, which he saw in visions concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup>And he said, “The LORD roars from Zion, And from Jerusalem He utters His voice; And the shepherds’ pasture grounds mourn, And the summit of Carmel dries up.”

<sup>4</sup>“So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael, And it will consume the citadels of Ben-hadad.

<sup>5</sup>“I will also break the gate bar of Damascus, And eliminate every inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, As well as him who holds the scepter, from Beth-eden; So the people of Aram will be exiled to Kir,” Says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they led into exile an entire population To turn them over to Edom.

<sup>7</sup>“So I will send fire on the wall of Gaza And it will consume her citadels.

<sup>8</sup>“I will also eliminate every inhabitant from Ashdod, As well as him who holds the scepter, from Ashkelon; And I will direct My power against Ekron, And the remnant of the Philistines will perish,” Says the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they turned an entire population over to Edom And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

<sup>10</sup>“So I will send fire on the wall of Tyre, And it will consume her citadels.”

<sup>11</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because he pursued his brother with the sword And stifled his compassion; His anger also tore continually, And he maintained his fury forever.

<sup>12</sup>“So I will send fire upon Teman And it will consume the citadels of Bozrah.”

<sup>13</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of the sons of Ammon, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead In order to enlarge their borders.

<sup>14</sup>“So I will kindle a fire on the wall of Rabbah, And it will consume her citadels Amid war cries on the day of battle, And amid a storm on the day of tempest.

<sup>15</sup>“Their king will go into exile, He and his princes together,” says the LORD.

Amos 2

Judgment on Moab

<sup>1</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.

<sup>2</sup>“So I will send fire upon Moab And it will consume the citadels of Kerioth; And Moab will die amid the panic of battle, Amid war cries and the sound of a trumpet.

<sup>3</sup>“I will also eliminate the judge from her midst And slay all her leaders with him,” says the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they rejected the Law of the LORD And have not kept His statutes; Their lies also have led them astray, Those which their fathers followed.

<sup>5</sup>“So I will send fire upon Judah, And it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem.”

Judgment on Israel

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD says: “For three offenses of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they sell the righteous for money, And the needy for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup>“These who trample the head of the helpless to the dust of the earth Also divert the way of the humble; And a man and his father resort to the same girl So as to profane My holy name.

<sup>8</sup>“And on garments seized as pledges they stretch out beside every altar, And in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

<sup>9</sup>“Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them, Though his height was like the height of cedars And he was as strong as the oaks; I also destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.

<sup>10</sup>“And it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt, And led you in the wilderness for forty years So that you might take possession of the land of the Amorite.

<sup>11</sup>“Then I raised up some of your sons to be prophets, And some of your young men to be Nazirites. Is this not so, you sons of Israel?” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“But you made the Nazirites drink wine, And you commanded the prophets, saying, ‘You shall not prophesy!’

<sup>13</sup>“Behold, I am making a rut in the ground beneath you, Just as a wagon makes a rut when filled with sheaves.

<sup>14</sup>“Refuge will be lost from the swift, And the strong will not strengthen his power, Nor the warrior save his life.

<sup>15</sup>“The one who grasps the bow will not stand his ground, The swift of foot will not escape, Nor will the one who rides the horse save his life.

<sup>16</sup>“Even the bravest among the warriors will flee naked on that day,” declares the LORD.

Amos 3

All the Tribes Are Guilty

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word which the LORD has spoken against you, sons of Israel, against the entire family which He brought up from the land of Egypt:

<sup>2</sup>“You only have I known among all the families of the earth; Therefore I will punish you for all your wrongdoing.”

<sup>3</sup>Do two people walk together unless they have agreed to meet?

<sup>4</sup>Does a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey? Does a young lion growl from his den unless he has captured something?

<sup>5</sup>Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground when there is no device in it? Does a trap spring up from the earth when it captures nothing at all?

<sup>6</sup>If a trumpet is blown in a city, will the people not tremble? If a disaster occurs in a city, has the LORD not brought it about?

<sup>8</sup>A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken! Who can do anything but prophesy?

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “An enemy, one surrounding the land, Will take down your fortifications from you, And your citadels will be looted.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Just as the shepherd snatches from the lion’s mouth a couple of legs or a piece of an ear, So will the sons of Israel living in Samaria be snatched away— With the corner of a bed and the cover of a couch!

<sup>13</sup>“Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,” Declares the Lord GOD, the God of armies.

<sup>14</sup>“For on the day that I punish Israel’s offenses, I will also punish the altars of Bethel; The horns of the altar will be cut off, And will fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>“I will also strike the winter house together with the summer house; The houses of ivory will also perish, And the great houses will come to an end,” Declares the LORD.

Amos 4

“Yet You Have Not Returned to Me”

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word, you cows of Bashan who are on the mountain of Samaria, Who exploit the poor, who oppress the needy, And say to their husbands, “Bring now, that we may drink!”

<sup>2</sup>The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness, “For behold, the days are coming upon you When they will take you away with meat hooks, And the last of you with fish hooks.

<sup>3</sup>“You will go out through holes in the walls, One in front of the other, And you will be hurled to Harmon,” declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“Enter Bethel and do wrong; In Gilgal multiply wrongdoing! Bring your sacrifices every morning, Your tithes every three days.

<sup>5</sup>“Offer a thanksgiving offering also from that which is leavened, And proclaim voluntary offerings, make them known. For so you love to do, you sons of Israel,” Declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup>“But I gave you also cleanness of teeth in all your cities, And lack of bread in all your places; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“Furthermore, I withheld the rain from you While there were still three months until harvest. Then I would send rain on one city, But on another city I would not send rain; One part would be rained on, While the part not rained on would dry up.

<sup>8</sup>“So the people of two or three cities would stagger to another city to drink water, But would not be satisfied; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“I struck you with scorching wind and mildew; The caterpillar was devouring Your many gardens and vineyards, fig trees and olive trees; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“I sent a plague among you as in Egypt; I killed your young men with the sword, along with your captured horses, And I made the stench of your camp rise up in your nostrils; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“I overthrew you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, And you were like a log snatched from a fire; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“Therefore so I will do to you, Israel; Because I will do this to you, Prepare to meet your God, Israel.”

<sup>13</sup>For behold, He who forms mountains and creates the wind, And declares to a person what are His thoughts, He who makes dawn into darkness And treads on the high places of the earth, The LORD God of armies is His name.

Amos 5

“Seek Me So That You May Live”

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word which I am taking up for you as a song of mourning, house of Israel:

<sup>2</sup>She has fallen, she will not rise again— The virgin Israel. She lies unnoticed on her land; There is no one to raise her up.

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the LORD says to the house of Israel: “Seek Me so that you may live.

<sup>5</sup>“But do not resort to Bethel And do not come to Gilgal, Nor cross over to Beersheba; For Gilgal will certainly go into captivity And Bethel will come to nothing.

<sup>6</sup>“Seek the LORD so that you may live, Or He will break through like a fire, house of Joseph, And it will consume with no one to extinguish it for Bethel, <sup>7</sup> For those who turn justice into wormwood, And throw righteousness to the earth.”

<sup>8</sup>He who made the Pleiades and Orion, And changes deep darkness into morning, Who also darkens day into night, Who calls for the waters of the sea And pours them out on the surface of the earth, The LORD is His name.

<sup>9</sup> It is He who makes destruction flash upon the strong, So that destruction comes upon the fortress.

<sup>10</sup>They hate him who rebukes in the gate, And they despise him who speaks with integrity.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore because you impose heavy rent on the poor And take a tribute of grain from them, Though you have built houses of cut stone, Yet you will not live in them; You have planted beautiful vineyards, yet you will not drink their wine.

<sup>12</sup>For I know your offenses are many and your sins are great, You who are hostile to the righteous and accept bribes, And turn away the poor from justice at the gate.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore at such a time the prudent person keeps quiet, because it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup>Seek good and not evil, so that you may live; And so may the LORD God of armies be with you, Just as you have said!

<sup>15</sup>Hate evil, love good, And establish justice in the gate! Perhaps the LORD God of armies Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore this is what the LORD God of armies, the Lord says: “There is mourning in all the public squares, And in all the streets they say, ‘Oh no! Oh no!’ They also call the farmer to mourning And professional mourners to mourning rites.

<sup>17</sup>“And in all the vineyards there is mourning, Because I will pass through the midst of you,” says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>Woe to you who are longing for the day of the LORD, For what purpose will the day of the LORD be to you? It will be darkness and not light;

<sup>20</sup>Will the day of the LORD not be darkness instead of light, Even gloom with no brightness in it?

<sup>21</sup>“I hate, I reject your festivals, Nor do I delight in your festive assemblies.

<sup>22</sup>“Even though you offer up to Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I will not accept them; And I will not even look at the peace offerings of your fattened oxen.

<sup>23</sup>“Take away from Me the noise of your songs; I will not even listen to the sound of your harps.

<sup>25</sup>“Did you present Me with sacrifices and grain offerings in the wilderness for forty years, house of Israel?

<sup>26</sup>You also carried along Sikkuth your king and Kiyyun, your images, the star of your gods which you made for yourselves.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore I will make you go into exile beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of armies.

Amos 6

“Carefree in Zion”

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who are carefree in Zion, And to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, The dignitaries of the foremost of nations, To whom the house of Israel comes.

<sup>3</sup>Are you postponing the day of disaster, And would you bring near the seat of violence?

<sup>5</sup>Who improvise to the sound of the harp, And like David have composed songs for themselves,

<sup>6</sup>Who drink wine from sacred bowls While they anoint themselves with the finest of oils— Yet they have not grieved over the collapse of Joseph.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, they will now go into exile at the head of the exiles, And the revelry of those who lounge around will come to an end.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself, the LORD God of armies has declared: “I loathe the arrogance of Jacob, And detest his citadels; Therefore I will give up the city and all it contains.”

<sup>9</sup>And it will be, if ten men are left in one house, they will die.

<sup>10</sup>Then one’s uncle, or his undertaker, will lift him up to carry out his bones from the house, and he will say to the one who is in the innermost part of the house, “Is anyone else with you?” And that one will say, “No one.” Then he will answer, “Keep quiet! For the name of the LORD is not to be mentioned.”

<sup>12</sup>Do horses run on rocks? Or does one plow them with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison, And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,

<sup>13</sup>You who rejoice in Lodebar, And say, “Have we not by our own strength taken Karnaim for ourselves?”

<sup>14</sup>“For behold, I am going to raise up a nation against you, House of Israel,” declares the LORD God of armies, “And they will torment you from the entrance of Hamath To the brook of the Arabah.”

Amos 7

Warning through Visions

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord GOD showed me, and behold, He was forming a swarm of locusts when the spring crop began to sprout. And behold, the spring crop was after the king’s mowing.

<sup>2</sup>And it came about, when it had finished eating the vegetation of the land, that I said, “Lord GOD, please pardon! How can Jacob stand? For he is small.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD relented of this. “It shall not be,” said the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>So the Lord GOD showed me, and behold, the Lord GOD was calling to contend with them by fire, and it consumed the great deep and began to consume the farmland.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, “Lord GOD, please stop! How can Jacob stand? For he is small.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD relented of this. “This too shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup>So He showed me, and behold, the Lord was standing by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Amos?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, “Behold I am about to put a plumb line In the midst of My people Israel. I will not spare them any longer.

<sup>9</sup>“The high places of Isaac will become deserted, And the sanctuaries of Israel will be in ruins. Then I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

Amos Accused; Gives an Answer

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is unable to endure all his words.

<sup>11</sup>For this is what Amos says: ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will certainly go from its land into exile.’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Go, you seer, flee to the land of Judah; and eat bread there and do your prophesying there!

<sup>13</sup>But do not prophesy at Bethel any longer, for it is a sanctuary of the king and a royal residence.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos replied to Amaziah, “I am not a prophet, nor am I the son of a prophet; for I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs.

<sup>15</sup>But the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, ‘Go prophesy to My people Israel.’

<sup>16</sup>So now hear the word of the LORD: you are saying, ‘You shall not prophesy against Israel nor shall you prophesy against the house of Isaac.’

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword, your land will be parceled up by a measuring line, and you yourself will die upon unclean soil. Furthermore Israel will certainly go from its land into exile.’ ”

Amos 8

Basket of Fruit and Israel’s Captivity

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord GOD showed me, and behold, there was a basket of summer fruit.

<sup>2</sup>And He said, “What do you see, Amos?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then the LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel. I will not spare them any longer.

<sup>3</sup>The songs of the palace will turn to wailing on that day,” declares the Lord GOD. “The corpses will be many; in every place they will throw them out. Hush!”

<sup>4</sup>Hear this, you who trample the needy, to put an end to the humble of the land,

<sup>5</sup>saying, “When will the new moon be over, So that we may sell grain; And the Sabbath, so that we may open the wheat market, To make the ephah smaller and the shekel bigger, And to cheat with dishonest scales,

<sup>6</sup>So as to buy the helpless for money, And the needy for a pair of sandals, And that we may sell the refuse of the wheat?”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob, “Indeed, I will never forget any of their deeds.

<sup>8</sup>“Because of this will the land not quake, And everyone who lives in it mourn? Indeed, all of it will rise up like the Nile, And it will be tossed about And subside like the Nile of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>“And it will come about on that day,” declares the Lord GOD, “That I will make the sun go down at noon, And make the earth dark in broad daylight.

<sup>10</sup>“Then I will turn your festivals into mourning, And all your songs into songs of mourning; And I will put sackcloth around everyone’s waist, And baldness on every head. And I will make it like a time of mourning for an only son, And the end of it will be like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup>“Behold, days are coming,” declares the Lord GOD, “When I will send a famine on the land, Not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, But rather for hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>“People will stagger from sea to sea And from the north even to the east; They will roam about to seek the word of the LORD, But they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup>“On that day the beautiful virgins And the young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup>“As for those who swear by the guilt of Samaria, And say, ‘As your god lives, Dan,’ And, ‘As the way of Beersheba lives,’ They will fall and not rise again.”

Amos 9

God’s Judgment Unavoidable

<sup>1</sup>I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said, “Strike the pillar capitals so that the thresholds will shake, And break them on the heads of them all! Then I will put to death the rest of them with the sword; They will not have a fugitive who will flee, Nor a survivor who will escape.

<sup>2</sup>“Though they dig into Sheol, From there My hand will take them; And though they ascend to heaven, From there I will bring them down.

<sup>3</sup>“And though they hide on the summit of Carmel, I will track them down and take them from there; And though they hide themselves from My sight on the bottom of the sea, I will command the serpent from there, and it will bite them.

<sup>4</sup>“And though they go into captivity before their enemies, From there I will command the sword and it will kill them, And I will set My eyes against them for harm and not for good.”

<sup>5</sup>The Lord GOD of armies, The One who touches the land so that it quakes, And all those who live in it mourn, And all of it rises up like the Nile And subsides like the Nile of Egypt;

<sup>6</sup>The One who builds His upper chambers in the heavens And has founded His vaulted dome over the earth, He who calls for the waters of the sea And pours them out on the face of the earth, The LORD is His name.

<sup>7</sup>“Are you not as the sons of Ethiopia to Me, You sons of Israel?” declares the LORD. “Have I not brought up Israel from the land of Egypt, And the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir?

<sup>8</sup>“Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom, And I will eliminate it from the face of the earth; Nevertheless, I will not totally eliminate the house of Jacob,” Declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“For behold, I am commanding, And I will shake the house of Israel among all nations As grain is shaken in a sieve, But not a pebble will fall to the ground.

<sup>10</sup>“All the sinners of My people will die by the sword, Those who say, ‘The catastrophe will not overtake or confront us.’

The Restoration of Israel

<sup>11</sup>“On that day I will raise up the fallen shelter of David, And wall up its gaps; I will also raise up its ruins And rebuild it as in the days of old;

<sup>12</sup>So that they may possess the remnant of Edom And all the nations who are called by My name,” Declares the LORD who does this.

<sup>13</sup>“Behold, days are coming,” declares the LORD, “When the plowman will overtake the reaper, And the one who treads grapes will overtake him who sows the seed; When the mountains will drip grape juice, And all the hills will come apart.

<sup>14</sup>“I will also restore the fortunes of My people Israel, And they will rebuild the desolated cities and live in them; They will also plant vineyards and drink their wine, And make gardens and eat their fruit.

<sup>15</sup>“I will also plant them on their land, And they will not be uprooted again from their land Which I have given them,” Says the LORD your God.

Abadiah

Abadiah 1

Edom Will Be Humbled

<sup>2</sup>“Behold, I will make you small among the nations; You are greatly despised.

<sup>3</sup>“The arrogance of your heart has deceived you, The one who lives in the clefts of the rock, On the height of his dwelling place, Who says in his heart, ‘Who will bring me down to earth?’

<sup>4</sup>“Though you make your home high like the eagle, Though you set your nest among the stars, From there I will bring you down,” declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“If thieves came to you, If robbers by night— Oh how you will be ruined!— Would they not steal only until they had enough? If grape-pickers came to you, Would they not leave some gleanings?

<sup>7</sup>“All the people allied with you Will send you to the border, And the people at peace with you Will deceive you and overpower you. They who eat your bread Will set an ambush for you. (There is no understanding in him.)

<sup>8</sup>“Will I not on that day,” declares the LORD, “Eliminate wise men from Edom, And understanding from the mountain of Esau?

<sup>9</sup>“Then your warriors will be filled with terror, Teman, So that everyone will be eliminated from the mountain of Esau by murder.

<sup>10</sup>“Because of violence to your brother Jacob, Shame will cover you, And you will be eliminated forever.

<sup>14</sup>“Do not stand at the crossroads To eliminate their survivors; And do not hand over their refugees On the day of their distress.

The Day of the LORD and the Future

<sup>15</sup>“For the day of the LORD is near for all the nations. Just as you have done, it will be done to you. Your dealings will return on your own head.

<sup>16</sup>“For just as you drank on My holy mountain, All the nations will drink continually. They will drink to the last drop, And become as if they had never existed.

<sup>17</sup>“But on Mount Zion there will be those who escape, And it will be holy. And the house of Jacob will possess their property.

<sup>18</sup>“Then the house of Jacob will be a fire, And the house of Joseph a flame; But the house of Esau will be like stubble. And they will set them on fire and consume them, So that there will be no survivor of the house of Esau,” For the LORD has spoken.

<sup>19</sup>Then those of the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, And those of the Shephelah the Philistine plain; Also, they will possess the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria, And Benjamin the territory of Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>And the exiles of this army of the sons of Israel, Who are among the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, And the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad, Will possess the cities of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup> The deliverers will ascend Mount Zion To judge the mountain of Esau, And the kingdom will be the LORD’S.

Jonah

Jonah 1

Jonah's Disobedience

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. So he went down to Joppa, found a ship that was going to Tarshish, paid the fare, and boarded it to go with them to Tarshish away from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>However, the LORD hurled a great wind on the sea and there was a great storm on the sea, so that the ship was about to break up.

<sup>5</sup>Then the sailors became afraid and every man cried out to his god, and they hurled the cargo which was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone below into the stern of the ship, had lain down, and fallen sound asleep.

<sup>6</sup>So the captain approached him and said, “How is it that you are sleeping? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps your god will be concerned about us so that we will not perish.”

<sup>7</sup>And each man said to his mate, “Come, let’s cast lots so that we may find out on whose account this catastrophe has struck us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

<sup>8</sup>Then they said to him, “Tell us, now! On whose account has this catastrophe struck us? What is your occupation, and where do you come from? What is your country, and from what people are you?”

<sup>9</sup>So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD God of heaven who made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the men became extremely afraid, and they said to him, “How could you do this?” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup>So they said to him, “What should we do to you so that the sea will become calm for us?”—for the sea was becoming increasingly stormy.

<sup>12</sup>And he said to them, “Pick me up and hurl me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm for you, because I know that on account of me this great storm has come upon you.”

<sup>13</sup>However, the men rowed desperately to return to land, but they could not, because the sea was becoming even stormier against them.

<sup>14</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD and said, “We earnestly pray, O LORD, do not let us perish on account of this man’s life, and do not put innocent blood on us; for You, LORD, have done as You pleased.”

<sup>15</sup>So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging.

<sup>16</sup>Then the men became extremely afraid of the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

<sup>17</sup> And the LORD designated a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

Jonah’s Prayer

<sup>2</sup>and he said, “I called out of my distress to the LORD, And He answered me. I called for help from the depth of Sheol; You heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>“For You threw me into the deep, Into the heart of the seas, And the current flowed around me. All Your breakers and waves passed over me.

<sup>4</sup>“So I said, ‘I have been cast out of Your sight. Nevertheless I will look again toward Your holy temple.’

<sup>5</sup>“Water encompassed me to the point of death. The deep flowed around me, Seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>“I descended to the base of the mountains. The earth with its bars was around me forever, But You have brought up my life from the pit, LORD my God.

<sup>7</sup>“While I was fainting away, I remembered the LORD, And my prayer came to You, Into Your holy temple.

<sup>9</sup>But I will sacrifice to You With a voice of thanksgiving. That which I have vowed I will pay. Salvation is from the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah up onto the dry land.

Jonah 3

Nineveh Repents

<sup>2</sup>“Arise, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim to it the proclamation which I am going to tell you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days’ walk.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jonah began to go through the city one day’s walk; and he cried out and said, “Forty more days, and Nineveh will be overthrown.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the people of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

<sup>6</sup>When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, removed his robe from himself, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat on the dust.

<sup>7</sup>And he issued a proclamation, and it said, “In Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles: No person, animal, herd, or flock is to taste anything. They are not to eat, or drink water.

<sup>8</sup>But every person and animal must be covered with sackcloth; and people are to call on God vehemently, and they are to turn, each one from his evil way, and from the violence which is in their hands.

<sup>9</sup>Who knows, God may turn and relent, and turn from His burning anger so that we will not perish.”

<sup>10</sup>When God saw their deeds, that they turned from their evil way, then God relented of the disaster which He had declared He would bring on them. So He did not do it.

Jonah 4

Jonah’s Displeasure Rebuked

<sup>2</sup>Then he prayed to the LORD and said, “Please LORD, was this not what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore in anticipation of this I fled to Tarshish, since I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abundant in mercy, and One who relents of disaster.

<sup>3</sup>So now, LORD, please take my life from me, for death is better to me than life.”

<sup>4</sup>But the LORD said, “Do you have a good reason to be angry?”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. There he made a shelter for himself and sat under it in the shade, until he could see what would happen in the city.

<sup>6</sup>So the LORD God designated a plant, and it grew up over Jonah to be a shade over his head, to relieve him of his discomfort. And Jonah was overjoyed about the plant.

<sup>7</sup>But God designated a worm when dawn came the next day, and it attacked the plant and it withered.

<sup>8</sup>And when the sun came up God designated a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he became faint, and he begged with all his soul to die, saying, "Death is better to me than life!"

<sup>9</sup>But God said to Jonah, "Do you have a good reason to be angry about the plant?" And he said, "I have good reason to be angry, even to the point of death!"

<sup>10</sup>Then the LORD said, "You had compassion on the plant, for which you did not work and which you did not cause to grow, which came up overnight and perished overnight.

<sup>11</sup>Should I not also have compassion on Nineveh, the great city in which there are more than 120,000 people, who do not know the difference between their right hand and their left, as well as many animals?"

Micah

Micah 1

Destruction in Israel and Judah

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD which came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and which he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, you peoples, all of you; Listen carefully, earth and all it contains, And may the Lord GOD be a witness against you, The Lord from His holy temple.

<sup>3</sup>For behold, the LORD is coming forth from His place. He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains will melt under Him And the valleys will be split, Like wax before the fire, Like water poured down a steep place.

<sup>5</sup>All this is due to the wrongdoing of Jacob And the sins of the house of Israel. What is the wrongdoing of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? What is the high place of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

<sup>6</sup>For I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the open country, Planting places for a vineyard. I will hurl her stones down into the valley, And lay bare her foundations.

<sup>7</sup>All of her idols will be crushed, All of her earnings will be burned with fire, And all of her images I will make desolate; For she collected them from a prostitute's earnings, And to the earnings of a prostitute they will return.

<sup>8</sup>Because of this I must mourn and wail, I must go barefoot and naked; I must do mourning like the jackals, And a mourning like the ostriches.

<sup>9</sup>For her wound is incurable, For it has come to Judah; It has reached the gate of my people, Even to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Do not tell it in Gath, Do not weep at all. At Beth-le-aphrah roll yourself in the dust in mourning.

<sup>11</sup> Go on your way, inhabitant of Shaphir, in shameful nakedness. The inhabitant of Zaanan does not escape. The mourning of Beth-ezel: “He will take from you its support.”

<sup>13</sup> Harness the chariot to the team of horses, You inhabitant of Lachish— She was the beginning of sin To the daughter of Zion— Because in you were found The rebellious acts of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore you will give parting gifts In behalf of Moresheth-gath; The houses of Achzib will become a deception To the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, I will bring on you The one who takes possession, You inhabitant of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will enter Adullam.

Micah 2

Woe to Oppressors

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who devise wrongdoing, Who practice evil on their beds! When morning comes, they do it, Because it is in the power of their hands.

<sup>2</sup> They covet fields, so they seize them; And houses, so they take them. They exploit a man and his house, A person and his inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am planning against this family a catastrophe From which you cannot remove your necks; And you will not walk haughtily, For it will be an evil time.

<sup>4</sup> “On that day they will take up against you a song of mocking And utter a song of mourning and say, ‘We are completely destroyed! He exchanges the share of my people; How He removes it from me! To the apostate He apportions our fields.’

<sup>5</sup>“Therefore you will have no one applying a measuring line For you by lot in the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“Is it being said, house of Jacob: ‘Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient? Are these His works?’ Do My words not do good For the one walking rightly?

<sup>8</sup>“Recently My people have arisen as an enemy— You strip the robe off the garment From unsuspecting passers-by, From those returned from war.

<sup>9</sup>“You evict the women of My people, Each one from her pleasant house. From her children you take My splendor forever.

<sup>10</sup>“Arise and go, For this is no place of rest Because of the uncleanness that brings on destruction, A painful destruction.

<sup>11</sup>“If someone walking after wind and falsehood Had lied and said, ‘I will prophesy to you about wine and liquor,’ He would become a prophet to this people.

<sup>12</sup>“I will certainly assemble all of you, Jacob, I will certainly gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like sheep in the fold; Like a flock in the midst of its pasture They will be noisy with people.

Micah 3

Rulers Denounced

<sup>1</sup>And I said, “Hear now, you leaders of Jacob And rulers of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know justice?

<sup>3</sup>Who eat the flesh of my people, Strip off their skin from them, Smash their bones, And chop them up as for the pot, And as meat in a cauldron!”

<sup>4</sup>Then they will cry out to the LORD, But He will not answer them. Instead, He will hide His face from them at that time Because they have practiced evil deeds.

<sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray: When they have something to bite with their teeth, They cry out, “Peace!” But against him who puts nothing in their mouths They declare holy war.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore it will be night for you—without vision, And darkness for you—without divination. The sun will go down on the prophets, And the day will become dark over them.

<sup>7</sup>The seers will be put to shame, And the diviners will be ashamed. Indeed, they will all cover their lips Because there is no answer from God.

<sup>8</sup>On the other hand, I am filled with power— With the Spirit of the LORD— And with justice and courage To make known to Jacob his rebellious act, And to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup>Now hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob And rulers of the house of Israel, Who despise justice And twist everything that is straight,

<sup>11</sup>Her leaders pronounce judgment for a bribe, Her priests teach for pay, And her prophets divine for money. Yet they lean on the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD not in our midst? Catastrophe will not come upon us.”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore on account of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, And the mountain of the temple will become high places of a forest.

Micah 4

Peaceful Latter Days

<sup>1</sup>And it will come about in the last days That the mountain of the house of the LORD Will be established as the chief of the mountains. It will be raised above the hills, And the peoples will stream to it.

<sup>2</sup>Many nations will come and say, “Come and let’s go up to the mountain of the LORD And to the house of the God of Jacob, So that He may teach us about His ways, And that we may walk in His paths.” For from Zion will go forth the law, And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And He will judge between many peoples And render decisions for mighty, distant nations. Then they will beat their swords into plowshares, And their spears into pruning hooks; Nation will not lift a sword against nation, And never again will they train for war.

<sup>4</sup>Instead, each of them will sit under his vine And under his fig tree, With no one to make them afraid, Because the mouth of the LORD of armies has spoken.

<sup>5</sup>Though all the peoples walk, Each in the name of his god, As for us, we will walk In the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>“On that day,” declares the LORD, “I will assemble those who limp And gather the scattered, Those whom I have afflicted.

<sup>7</sup>“I will make those who limp a remnant, And those who have strayed a mighty nation, And the LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion From now on and forever.

<sup>8</sup>“As for you, tower of the flock, Hill of the daughter of Zion, To you it will come— Yes, the former dominion will come, The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>“Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, Or has your counselor perished, That agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth?

<sup>10</sup>“Writhe and scream, Daughter of Zion, Like a woman in childbirth; For now you will go out of the city, Live in the field, And go to Babylon. There you will be rescued, There the LORD will redeem you From the hand of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>“And now many nations have been assembled against you Who say, ‘Let her be defiled, And let our eyes gloat over Zion!’

<sup>12</sup>“But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, And they do not understand His plan; For He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup>“Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, For I will make your horn iron, And I will make your hoofs bronze, So that you may pulverize many peoples, And dedicate to the LORD their unjust profit, And their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Micah 5

Birth of the King in Bethlehem

<sup>1</sup>“Now muster yourselves in troops, daughter of troops; They have laid siege against us; With a rod they will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek.

<sup>2</sup>“But as for you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, Too little to be among the clans of Judah, From you One will come forth for Me to be ruler in Israel. His times of coming forth are from long ago, From the days of eternity.”

<sup>3</sup>Therefore He will give them up until the time When she who is in labor has given birth. Then the remainder of His kinsmen Will return to the sons of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And He will arise and shepherd His flock In the strength of the LORD, In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God. And they will remain, Because at that time He will be great To the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>This One will be our peace. When the Assyrian invades our land, When he tramples on our citadels, Then we will raise against him Seven shepherds and eight leaders of people.

<sup>6</sup>They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, The land of Nimrod at its entrances; And He will rescue us from the Assyrian When he invades our land, And when he tramples our territory.

<sup>7</sup>Then the remnant of Jacob Will be among many peoples Like dew from the LORD, Like showers on vegetation That do not wait for man, Or delay for mankind.

<sup>8</sup>The remnant of Jacob Will be among the nations, Among many peoples Like a lion among the animals of the forest, Like a young lion among flocks of sheep, Which, if he passes through, Tramples and tears, And there is no one who can rescue.

<sup>9</sup>Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries, And all your enemies will be eliminated.

<sup>10</sup>“And it will be on that day,” declares the LORD, “That I will eliminate your horses from among you, And destroy your chariots.

<sup>11</sup>“I will also eliminate the cities of your land, And tear down all your fortifications.

<sup>12</sup>“I will eliminate sorceries from your hand, And you will have no fortune-tellers.

<sup>13</sup>“I will eliminate your carved images And your memorial stones from among you, So that you will no longer bow down To the work of your hands.

<sup>14</sup>“I will uproot your Asherim from among you, And destroy your cities.

<sup>15</sup>“And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath On the nations which have not obeyed.”

Micah 6

God's Indictment of His People

<sup>2</sup>“Listen, you mountains, to the indictment by the LORD, And you enduring foundations of the earth, Because the LORD has a case against His people; And He will dispute with Israel.

<sup>3</sup>“My people, what have I done to you, And how have I wearied you? Answer Me.

<sup>4</sup>“Indeed, I brought you up from the land of Egypt, I redeemed you from the house of slavery, And I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

<sup>5</sup>“My people, remember now What Balak king of Moab planned And what Balaam son of Beor answered him, And what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, So that you might know the righteous acts of the LORD.”

What God Requires of Mankind

<sup>6</sup>With what shall I come to the LORD And bow myself before the God on high? Shall I come to Him with burnt offerings, With yearling calves?

<sup>7</sup>Does the LORD take pleasure in thousands of rams, In ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give Him my firstborn for my wrongdoings, The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

<sup>8</sup>He has told you, mortal one, what is good; And what does the LORD require of you But to do justice, to love kindness, And to walk humbly with your God?

<sup>9</sup>The voice of the LORD will call to the city— And it is sound wisdom to fear Your name: “Hear, you tribe. Who has designated its time?

<sup>10</sup>“Is there still a person in the wicked house, Along with treasures of wickedness, And a short measure that is cursed?

<sup>12</sup>“For the rich people of the city are full of violence, Her residents speak lies, And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

<sup>13</sup>“So also I will make you sick, striking you down, Making you desolate because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup>“You will eat, but you will not be satisfied, And your filth will be in your midst. You will try to remove valuables for safekeeping, But you will not save it all, And what you do save I will turn over to the sword.

<sup>15</sup>“You will sow but you will not harvest. You will tread the olive press but will not anoint yourself with oil; And tread out sweet wine, but you will not drink any wine.

<sup>16</sup>“The statutes of Omri And every work of the house of Ahab are maintained, And you walk by their plans. Therefore I will give you up for destruction, And your inhabitants for derision, And you will suffer the taunting of My people.”

Micah 7

The Prophet Acknowledges Injustice

<sup>2</sup>The godly person has perished from the land, And there is no upright person among mankind. All of them lie in wait for bloodshed; Each of them hunts the other with a net.

<sup>3</sup>As for evil, both hands do it well. The leader asks for a bribe, also the judge, And the great one speaks the capricious desire of his soul; So they plot it together.

<sup>5</sup>Do not trust in a neighbor; Do not have confidence in a close friend. Guard your lips From her who lies in your arms.

<sup>6</sup>For son disavows father, Daughter rises up against her mother, Daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; A person's enemies are the people of his own household.

God Is the Source of Salvation and Light

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, I will be on the watch for the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

<sup>8</sup>Do not rejoice over me, enemy of mine. Though I fall I will rise; Though I live in darkness, the LORD is a light for me.

<sup>9</sup>I will endure the rage of the LORD Because I have sinned against Him, Until He pleads my case and executes justice for me. He will bring me out to the light, And I will look at His righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>Then my enemy will see, And shame will cover her who said to me, “Where is the LORD your God?” My eyes will look at her; At that time she will be trampled down Like mud of the streets.

<sup>11</sup>It will be a day for building your walls. On that day your boundary will be extended.

<sup>12</sup>It will be a day when they will come to you From Assyria and the cities of Egypt, From Egypt even to the Euphrates River, Even from sea to sea and mountain to mountain.

<sup>13</sup>And the earth will become a wasteland because of her inhabitants, On account of the fruit of their deeds.

<sup>15</sup>“As in the days when you went out from the land of Egypt, I will show you miracles.”

<sup>16</sup>Nations will see and be ashamed Of all their might. They will put their hand on their mouth, Their ears will be deaf.

<sup>17</sup>They will lick up dust like a snake, Like reptiles of the earth. They will come trembling out of their fortresses; To the LORD our God they will come in trepidation, And they will be afraid of You.

<sup>18</sup>Who is a God like You, who pardons wrongdoing And passes over a rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, Because He delights in mercy.

<sup>19</sup>He will again take pity on us; He will trample on our wrongdoings. Yes, You will cast all their sins Into the depths of the sea.

<sup>20</sup>You will give truth to Jacob And favor to Abraham, Which You swore to our forefathers From the days of old.

Nahum

Nahum 1

God Is Awesome

<sup>2</sup>A jealous and avenging God is the LORD; The LORD is avenging and wrathful. The LORD takes vengeance on His adversaries, And He reserves wrath for His enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, And the LORD will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. In the gale and the storm is His way, And clouds are the dust beneath His feet.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is good, A stronghold in the day of trouble, And He knows those who take refuge in Him.

<sup>9</sup>Whatever you devise against the LORD, He will make a complete end of it. Distress will not rise up twice.

<sup>10</sup>Like tangled thorns, And like those who are drunken with their drink, They are consumed Like stubble completely dried up.

<sup>12</sup>This is what the LORD says: “Though they are at full strength and so they are many, So also they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no longer.

<sup>13</sup>“So now, I will break his yoke from upon you, And I will tear your shackles to pieces.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD has issued a command concerning you: “Your name will no longer be perpetuated. I will eliminate the carved image and the cast metal image From the house of your gods. I will prepare your grave, For you are contemptible.”

<sup>15</sup>Behold, on the mountains, the feet of him who brings good news, Who announces peace! Celebrate your feasts, Judah, Pay your vows. For never again will the wicked one pass through you; He is eliminated completely.

Nahum 2

The Overthrow of Nineveh

<sup>1</sup> The one who scatters has come up against you. Keep watch over the fortress, watch the road; Bind up your waist, summon all your strength.

<sup>2</sup>For the LORD will restore the splendor of Jacob Like the splendor of Israel, Even though destroyers have laid waste to them And ruined their vines.

<sup>9</sup>Plunder the silver, Plunder the gold! For there is no end to the treasure— Wealth from every kind of desirable object.

<sup>10</sup>She is emptied! Yes, she is desolate and waste! Hearts are melting and knees wobbling! Also trembling is in the entire body, And all their faces have become pale!

<sup>13</sup>“Behold, I am against you,” declares the LORD of armies. “I will burn up her chariots in smoke, and a sword will devour your young lions; I will eliminate your prey from the land, and no longer will the voice of your messengers be heard.”

Nahum 3

Nineveh’s Complete Ruin

<sup>5</sup> “Behold, I am against you,” declares the LORD of armies; “And I will lift up your skirts over your face, And show the nations your nakedness, And the kingdoms your shame.

<sup>6</sup> “I will throw filth on you And declare you worthless, And set you up as a spectacle.

<sup>7</sup> “And it will come about that all who see you Will shrink from you and say, ‘Nineveh is devastated! Who will have sympathy for her?’ Where shall I seek comforters for you?”

<sup>8</sup> Are you better than No-amon, Which was situated by the canals of the Nile, With water surrounding her, Whose rampart was the sea, Whose wall consisted of the sea?

<sup>9</sup> Ethiopia was her might, Egypt too, without limits. Put and Lubim were among her helpers.

<sup>11</sup> You too will become drunk, You will be hidden. You too will search for a refuge from the enemy.

<sup>12</sup> All your fortifications are fig trees with ripe fruit— When shaken, they fall into the eater’s mouth.

<sup>14</sup> Draw for yourself water for a siege! Strengthen your fortifications! Go into the clay and tread the mortar! Take hold of the brick mold!

<sup>15</sup>There fire will consume you, The sword will cut you down; It will consume you as the creeping locust consumes a crop. Multiply yourself like the creeping locust, Multiply yourself like the migratory locust.

<sup>16</sup>You have made your traders more numerous than the stars of heaven— The creeping locust sheds its skin and flies away.

<sup>17</sup>Your courtiers are like the migratory locust. Your officials are like a swarm of locusts Settling in the stone shelters on a cold day. The sun rises and they flee, And the place where they are is not known.

<sup>18</sup>Your shepherds are sleeping, O king of Assyria; Your officers are lying down. Your people are scattered on the mountains And there is no one to gather them.

<sup>19</sup>There is no relief for your collapse, Your wound is incurable. All who hear about you Will clap their hands over you, For upon whom has your evil not come continually?

Habakkuk

Habakkuk 1

Chaldeans Used to Punish Judah

<sup>3</sup>Why do You make me see disaster, And make me look at destitution? Yes, devastation and violence are before me; Strife exists and contention arises.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore the Law is ignored, And justice is never upheld. For the wicked surround the righteous; Therefore justice comes out confused.

<sup>5</sup>“Look among the nations! Watch! Be horrified! Be frightened speechless! For I am accomplishing a work in your days— You would not believe it even if you were told!

<sup>6</sup>“For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans, That grim and impetuous people Who march throughout the earth, To take possession of dwelling places that are not theirs.

<sup>9</sup>“All of them come for violence. Their horde of faces moves forward. They gather captives like sand.

<sup>10</sup>“They make fun of kings, And dignitaries are an object of laughter to them. They laugh at every fortress, Then heap up dirt and capture it.

<sup>11</sup>“Then they fly along like the wind and pass on. But they will be held guilty, They whose strength is their god.”

<sup>12</sup>Are You not from time everlasting, LORD, my God, my Holy One? We will not die. You, LORD, have appointed them to deliver judgment; And You, O Rock, have destined them to punish.

<sup>13</sup>Your eyes are too pure to look at evil, And You cannot look at harm favorably. Why do You look favorably At those who deal treacherously? Why are You silent when the wicked swallow up Those more righteous than they?

<sup>14</sup>Why have You made people like the fish of the sea, Like crawling things that have no ruler over them?

Habakkuk 2

God Answers the Prophet

<sup>1</sup>I will stand at my guard post And station myself on the watchtower; And I will keep watch to see what He will say to me, And how I may reply when I am reprimanded.

<sup>2</sup>Then the LORD answered me and said, “Write down the vision And inscribe it clearly on tablets, So that one who reads it may run.

<sup>3</sup>“For the vision is yet for the appointed time; It hurries toward the goal and it will not fail. Though it delays, wait for it; For it will certainly come, it will not delay long.

<sup>4</sup>“Behold, as for the impudent one, His soul is not right within him; But the righteous one will live by his faith.

<sup>5</sup>“Furthermore, wine betrays an arrogant man, So that he does not achieve his objective. He enlarges his appetite like Sheol, And he is like death, never satisfied. He also gathers to himself all the nations And collects to himself all the peoples.

<sup>6</sup>“Will all of these not take up a song of ridicule against him, Even a saying and insinuations against him And say, ‘Woe to him who increases what is not his— For how long— And makes himself rich with debts!’

<sup>7</sup>“Will your creditors not rise up suddenly, And those who collect from you awaken? Indeed, you will become plunder for them.

<sup>8</sup>“Since you have looted many nations, All the rest of the peoples will loot you— Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants.

<sup>9</sup>“Woe to him who makes evil profit for his household, To put his nest on high, To be saved from the hand of catastrophe!

<sup>10</sup>“You have planned a shameful thing for your house By bringing many peoples to an end; So you are sinning against yourself.

<sup>11</sup>“For the stone will cry out from the wall, And the rafter will answer it from the framework.

<sup>13</sup>“Is it not indeed from the LORD of armies That peoples labor merely for fire, And nations become weary for nothing?

<sup>14</sup>“For the earth will be filled With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, As the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup>“Woe to him who makes his neighbor drink; To you who mix in your venom even to make your neighbors drunk, So as to look at their genitalia!

<sup>16</sup>“You will be filled with disgrace rather than honor. Drink, you yourself, and expose your own foreskin! The cup in the LORD’s right hand will come around to you, And utter disgrace will come upon your glory.

<sup>17</sup>“For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, And the devastation of its animals by which you terrified them, Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants.

<sup>19</sup>“Woe to him who says to a piece of wood, ‘Awake!’ To a mute stone, ‘Arise!’ That is your teacher? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, Yet there is no breath at all inside it.

Habakkuk 3

God’s People Saved

<sup>2</sup>LORD, I have heard the report about You, and I was afraid. LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known. In anger remember mercy.

<sup>6</sup>He stood and caused the earth to shudder; He looked and caused the nations to jump. Yes, the everlasting mountains were shattered, The ancient hills collapsed. His paths are everlasting.

<sup>7</sup>I saw the tents of Cushan under distress, The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.

<sup>8</sup>Did the LORD rage against the rivers, Or was Your anger against the rivers, Or was Your rage against the sea, That You rode on Your horses, On Your chariots of salvation?

<sup>13</sup>You went forth for the salvation of Your people, For the salvation of Your anointed. You smashed the head of the house of evil To uncover him from foot to neck. Selah

<sup>15</sup>You trampled on the sea with Your horses, On the foam of many waters.

<sup>16</sup>I heard, and my inner parts trembled; At the sound, my lips quivered. Decay enters my bones, And in my place I tremble; Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress, For the people to arise who will attack us.

<sup>17</sup>Even if the fig tree does not blossom, And there is no fruit on the vines, If the yield of the olive fails, And the fields produce no food, Even if the flock disappears from the fold, And there are no cattle in the stalls, <sup>18</sup>Yet I will triumph in the LORD, I will rejoice in the God of my salvation.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord GOD is my strength, And He has made my feet like deer's feet,
And has me walk on my high places. For the choir director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah 1

Day of Judgment on Judah

<sup>1</sup>The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah:

<sup>2</sup>“I will completely remove all things From the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“I will remove human and animal life; I will remove the birds of the sky And the fish of the sea, And the ruins along with the wicked; And I will eliminate mankind from the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“So I will stretch out My hand against Judah And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And I will eliminate the remnant of Baal from this place, And the names of the idolatrous priests along with the other priests.

<sup>5</sup>“And those who bow down on the housetops to the heavenly lights, And those who bow down and swear to the LORD, but also swear by Milcom, <sup>6</sup>And those who have turned back from following the LORD, And those who have not sought the LORD nor inquired of Him.”

<sup>7</sup>Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is near, Because the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, He has consecrated His guests.

<sup>8</sup>“Then it will come about on the day of the LORD’s sacrifice That I will punish the princes, the king’s sons, And all who clothe themselves with foreign garments.

<sup>9</sup>“And on that day I will punish all who leap on the temple threshold, Who fill the house of their lord with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup>“And on that day,” declares the LORD, “There will be the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate, Wailing from the Second Quarter, And a loud crash from the hills.

<sup>11</sup>“Wail, you inhabitants of the Mortar, Because all the people of Canaan will be destroyed; All who weigh out silver will be eliminated.

<sup>12</sup>“And it will come about at that time That I will search Jerusalem with lamps, And I will punish the people Who are stagnant in spirit, Who say in their hearts, ‘The LORD will not do good nor harm!’

<sup>17</sup>I will bring distress on mankind So that they will walk like those who are blind, Because they have sinned against the LORD; And their blood will be poured out like dust, And their flesh like dung.

<sup>18</sup>Neither their silver nor their gold Will be able to save them On the day of the LORD’S anger; And all the earth will be devoured By the fire of His jealousy, For He will make a complete end, Indeed a horrifying one, Of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Zephaniah 2

Judgments on Judah’s Enemies

<sup>3</sup>Seek the LORD, All you humble of the earth Who have practiced His ordinances; Seek righteousness, seek humility. Perhaps you will remain hidden On the day of the LORD's anger.

<sup>4</sup>For Gaza will be abandoned, And Ashkelon will become a desolation; The inhabitants of Ashdod will be driven out at noon, And Ekron will be uprooted.

<sup>5</sup>Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, The nation of the Cherethites! The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines; And I will eliminate you So that there will be no inhabitant.

<sup>6</sup>So the seacoast will become grazing places, With pastures for shepherds and folds for flocks.

<sup>7</sup>And the coast will be For the remnant of the house of Judah, They will drive sheep to pasture on it. In the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down at evening; For the LORD their God will care for them And restore their fortunes.

<sup>8</sup>"I have heard the taunting of Moab And the abusive speech of the sons of Ammon, With which they have taunted My people And boasted against their territory.

<sup>9</sup>"Therefore, as I live," declares the LORD of armies, The God of Israel, "Moab will assuredly be like Sodom, And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah—Ground overgrown with weeds and full of salt mines, And a permanent desolation. The remnant of My people will plunder them, And the remainder of My nation will inherit them."

<sup>10</sup>This they will have in return for their arrogance, because they have taunted and boasted against the people of the LORD of armies.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD will be terrifying to them, for He will starve all the gods of the earth; and all the coastlands of the nations will bow down to Him, everyone from his own place.

<sup>12</sup>"You also, Ethiopians, will be slain by My sword."

<sup>13</sup>And He will stretch out His hand against the north And eliminate Assyria,
And He will make Nineveh a desolation, Parched like the wilderness.

<sup>14</sup>Flocks will lie down in her midst, All animals that range in herds; Both the pelican and the hedgehog Will spend their nights in the tops of her pillars; Birds will sing in the window, Devastation will be on the threshold;
For He has uncovered the cedar work.

<sup>15</sup>This is the presumptuous city That dwells securely, Who says in her heart,
“I am, and there is no one besides me.” How she has become a desolation, A resting place for animals! Everyone who passes by her will hiss And wave his hand in contempt.

Zephaniah 3

Woe to Jerusalem and the Nations

LORD, She did not approach her God.

They have no bones to gnaw in the morning.

sanctuary. They have done violence to the Law.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is righteous within her; He will do no injustice. Every morning He brings His justice to light; He does not fail. But the criminal knows no shame.

waste their streets, With no one passing by; Their cities have been laid waste,
Without a person, without an inhabitant.

<sup>7</sup>“I said, ‘You will certainly revere Me, You will accept discipline.’ So her dwelling will not be eliminated In accordance with everything that I have stipulated for her. Instead, they were eager to corrupt all their deeds.

<sup>8</sup>“Therefore wait for Me,” declares the LORD, “For the day when I rise up as a witness. Indeed, My decision is to gather nations, To assemble kingdoms, To pour out on them My indignation, All My burning anger; For all the earth will be devoured By the fire of My zeal.

<sup>9</sup>“For then I will restore to the peoples pure lips, So that all of them may call on the name of the LORD, To serve Him shoulder to shoulder.

<sup>10</sup>“From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshipers, My dispersed ones, Will bring My offerings.

<sup>11</sup>“On that day you will feel no shame Because of all your deeds By which you have rebelled against Me; For then I will remove from your midst Your proud, arrogant ones, And you will never again be haughty On My holy mountain.

A Remnant of Israel

<sup>12</sup>“But I will leave among you A humble and lowly people, And they will take refuge in the name of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Shout for joy, daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, Israel! Rejoice and triumph with all your heart, Daughter of Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup>The LORD has taken away His judgments against you, He has cleared away your enemies. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; You will no longer fear disaster.

<sup>16</sup>On that day it will be said to Jerusalem: “Do not be afraid, Zion; Do not let your hands fall limp.

<sup>17</sup>“The LORD your God is in your midst, A victorious warrior. He will rejoice over you with joy, He will be quiet in His love, He will rejoice over you with shouts of joy.

<sup>18</sup>“I will gather those who are worried about the appointed feasts—
They came from you, Zion; The disgrace of exile is a burden on them.

<sup>19</sup>“Behold, I am going to deal at that time With all your oppressors; I will save those who limp And gather the scattered, And I will turn their shame into praise and fame In all the earth.

<sup>20</sup>“At that time I will bring you in, Even at the time when I gather you together; Indeed, I will make you famous and praiseworthy Among all the peoples of the earth, When I restore your fortunes before your eyes,” Says the LORD.

Haggai

Haggai 1

Haggai Begins Temple Building

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Darius the king, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of armies says: ‘This people says, “The time has not come, the time for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt.” ’ ”

<sup>3</sup>Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>4</sup>“Is it time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses while this house remains desolate?”

<sup>6</sup>You have sown much, only to harvest little; you eat, but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink, but there is not enough to become drunk; you put on clothing, but there is not enough for anyone to get warm; and the one who earns, earns wages to put into a money bag full of holes.”

<sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountains, bring wood, and rebuild the temple, that I may be pleased with it and be honored,” says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“You start an ambitious project, but behold, it comes to little; when you bring it home, I blow it away. Why?” declares the LORD of armies. “It is because of My house which remains desolate, while each of you runs to his own house.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, because of you the sky has withheld its dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

<sup>11</sup>And I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what the ground produces, on mankind, on cattle, and on all the products of the labor of your hands.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, just as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people showed reverence for the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke by the commission of the LORD to the people, saying, “‘I am with you,’ declares the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of armies, their God,

Haggai 2

The Builders Encouraged

<sup>1</sup>On the twenty-first of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

<sup>3</sup>‘Who is left among you who saw this temple in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Does it not seem to you like nothing in comparison?

<sup>4</sup>But now take courage, Zerubbabel,’ declares the LORD, ‘take courage also, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all you people of the land take courage,’ declares the LORD, ‘and work; for I am with you,’ declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>5</sup>‘As for the promise which I made you when you came out of Egypt, My Spirit remains in your midst; do not fear!’

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the LORD of armies says: ‘Once more in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea also and the dry land.

<sup>7</sup>I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory,’ says the LORD of armies.

<sup>8</sup>‘The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,’ declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>9</sup>‘The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,’ says the LORD of armies, ‘and in this place I will give peace,’ declares the LORD of armies.”

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“The LORD of armies says this: ‘Now ask the priests for a ruling:

<sup>12</sup>If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and touches bread with this fold, or touches cooked food, wine, oil, or any other food, will it become holy?’ ” And the priests answered, “No.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, “If one who is unclean from a corpse touches any of these things, will the latter become unclean?” And the priests answered, “It will become unclean.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai responded and said, “ ‘So is this people. And so is this nation before Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

<sup>15</sup>But now, do consider from this day onward: before one stone was placed on another in the temple of the LORD, <sup>16</sup>from that time when one came to a grain heap of twenty measures, there would be only ten; and when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there would be only twenty.

<sup>17</sup>I struck you and every work of your hands with scorching wind, mildew, and hail; yet you did not come back to Me,' declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>'Do consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month; from the day when the temple of the LORD was founded, consider:

<sup>19</sup>Is the seed still in the barn? Even including the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree, it has not produced fruit. Yet from this day on I will bless you.' "

<sup>20</sup>Then the word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah, saying, 'I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

<sup>22</sup>And I will overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots and their riders, and the horses and their riders will go down, every one by the sword of another.'

<sup>23</sup>'On that day,' declares the LORD of armies, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, My servant,' declares the LORD, 'and I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you,' " declares the LORD of armies.

Zechariah

Zechariah 1

A Call to Repentance

<sup>3</sup>Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “Return to Me,” declares the LORD of armies, “that I may return to you,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>4</sup>“Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “Return now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.”’ But they did not listen or pay attention to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>But did My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, ‘Just as the LORD of armies planned to do to us in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so He has dealt with us.’ ” ’ ”

Patrol of the Earth

<sup>7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, that is, the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

<sup>8</sup>I saw at night, and behold, a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees which were in the ravine, with red, sorrel, and white horses behind him.

<sup>9</sup>Then I said, “What are these, my lord?” And the angel who was speaking with me said to me, “I will show you what these are.”

<sup>10</sup>And the man who was standing among the myrtle trees responded and said, “These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>So they responded to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees and said, “We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth is still and quiet.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the angel of the LORD said, “LORD of armies, how long will You take no pity on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which You have been indignant for these seventy years?”

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD responded to the angel who was speaking with me with gracious words, comforting words.

<sup>14</sup>So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, “Proclaim, saying, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and Zion.

<sup>15</sup>But I am very angry with the nations who are carefree; for while I was only a little angry, they furthered the disaster.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore the LORD says this: “I will return to Jerusalem with compassion; My house will be built in it,” declares the LORD of armies, “and a measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem.” ’

<sup>17</sup>Again, proclaim, saying, ‘This is what the LORD of armies says: “My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.” ’ ’

<sup>18</sup>Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, there were four horns.

<sup>19</sup>So I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these?” And he said to me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

<sup>21</sup>And I said, “What are these coming to do?” And he said, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah so that no one lifts up his head; but these craftsmen have come to frighten them, to throw down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it.”

Zechariah 2

God's Favor to Zion

<sup>1</sup> Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man with a measuring line in his hand.

<sup>2</sup> So I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is.”

<sup>3</sup> And behold, the angel who had been speaking with me was going out, and another angel was going out to meet him.

<sup>4</sup> And he said to him, “Run, speak to that young man there, saying, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited as open country because of the multitude of people and cattle within it.

<sup>5</sup> But I,’ declares the LORD, ‘will be a wall of fire to her on all sides, and I will be the glory in her midst.’”

<sup>6</sup> “You there! Flee from the land of the north,” declares the LORD, “because I have spread you out like the four winds of the heavens,” declares the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> For the LORD of armies says this: “After glory He has sent me against the nations that plunder you, for the one who touches you, touches the apple of His eye.

<sup>9</sup> For behold, I am going to wave My hand over them so that they will be plunder for their slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of armies has sent Me.

<sup>10</sup> Shout for joy and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for behold I am coming and I will dwell in your midst,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>“And many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day and will become My people. Then I will dwell in your midst, and you will know that the LORD of armies has sent Me to you.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD will possess Judah as His portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zechariah 3

Joshua, the High Priest

<sup>1</sup>Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right to accuse him.

<sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Indeed, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a log snatched from the fire?”

<sup>4</sup>And he responded and said to those who were standing before him, saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” Again he said to him, “See, I have taken your guilt away from you and will clothe you with festive robes.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, “Have them put a clean headband on his head.” So they put the clean headband on his head and clothed him with garments, while the angel of the LORD was standing by.

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD of armies says this: ‘If you walk in My ways and perform My service, then you will both govern My house and be in charge of My courtyards, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing here.

The Branch

<sup>8</sup>Now listen, Joshua, you high priest, you and your friends who are sitting in front of you—indeed they are men who are a sign: for behold, I am going to bring in My servant the Branch.

<sup>9</sup>For behold, the stone that I have put before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I am going to engrave an inscription on it,’ declares the LORD of armies, ‘and I will remove the guilt of that land in one day.

<sup>10</sup>On that day,’ declares the LORD of armies, ‘every one of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree.’ ”

Zechariah 4

The Golden Lampstand and the Olive Trees

<sup>1</sup>Then the angel who had been speaking with me returned and woke me, like a person who is awakened from his sleep.

<sup>2</sup>And he said to me, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it;

<sup>4</sup>Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me, saying, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>5</sup>So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he said to me, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, ‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of armies.

<sup>7</sup>“What are you, you great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring out the top stone with shouts of “Grace, grace to it!” ’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

<sup>9</sup>“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of armies has sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup>For who has shown contempt for the day of small things? But these seven will rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel—they are the eyes of the LORD roaming throughout the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>And I responded the second time and said to him, “What are the two olive branches which are beside the two golden pipes, which empty the golden oil from themselves?”

<sup>13</sup>So he answered me, saying, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones, who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Zechariah 5

The Flying Scroll

<sup>1</sup>Then I raised my eyes again and looked, and behold, there was a flying scroll.

<sup>2</sup>And he said to me, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits.”

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, “This is the curse that is going forth over the face of the entire land; everyone who steals certainly will be purged away according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears falsely will be purged away according to the writing on the other side.

<sup>4</sup>I will make it go forth,” declares the LORD of armies, “and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night within that house and destroy it with its timber and stones.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who had been speaking with me went out and said to me, “Now raise your eyes and see what this is that is going forth.”

<sup>6</sup>And I said, “What is it?” Then he said, “This is the ephah going forth.” Again he said, “This is their appearance in all the land.

<sup>8</sup>Then he said, “This is Wickedness!” And he thrust her into the middle of the ephah and threw the lead weight on its opening.

<sup>9</sup>Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there two women were coming out with the wind in their wings; and they had wings like the wings of the stork, and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

<sup>10</sup>So I said to the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the ephah?”

<sup>11</sup>Then he said to me, “To build a temple for her in the land of Shinar; and when it is prepared, she will be set there on her own pedestal.”

Zechariah 6

The Four Chariots

<sup>1</sup>Now I raised my eyes again and looked, and behold, four chariots were going out from between the two mountains; and the mountains were bronze mountains.

<sup>3</sup>with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot strong spotted horses.

<sup>4</sup>So I responded and said to the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>6</sup>with one of which the black horses are going out to the north country; and the white ones are to go out after them, while the spotted ones are to go out to the south country.”

<sup>7</sup>When the strong ones went out, they were eager to go to patrol the earth. And He said, “Go, patrol the earth.” So they patrolled the earth.

<sup>8</sup>Then He called out to me and spoke to me, saying, “See, those who are going to the land of the north have appeased My wrath in the land of the north.”

<sup>9</sup>The word of the LORD also came to me, saying,

<sup>10</sup>“Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah; and you shall go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have arrived from Babylon.

The Symbolic Crowns

<sup>11</sup>Also take silver and gold, make an ornate crown, and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

<sup>12</sup>Then say to him, “The LORD of armies says this: “Behold, there is a Man whose name is Branch, for He will branch out from where He is; and He will build the temple of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Yes, it is He who will build the temple of the LORD, and He who will bear the majesty and sit and rule on His throne. So He will be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace will be between the two offices.”’

<sup>14</sup>Now the crown will become a reminder in the temple of the LORD to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

<sup>15</sup>Those who are far away will come and build the temple of the LORD.” Then you will know that the LORD of armies has sent me to you. And it will take place if you completely obey the LORD your God.

Zechariah 7

<sup>1</sup>In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.

<sup>2</sup>Now the town of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech and their men to seek the favor of the LORD,

<sup>3</sup>speaking to the priests who belong to the house of the LORD of armies, and to the prophets, saying, “Shall I weep in the fifth month and fast, as I have done these many years?”

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of the LORD of armies came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup>“Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these seventy years, was it actually for Me that you fasted?

<sup>6</sup>And when you eat and drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves?

<sup>7</sup>Are these not the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and carefree along with its cities around it, and the Negev and the foothills were inhabited?’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,

<sup>10</sup>and do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the stranger or the poor; and do not devise evil in your hearts against one another.’

<sup>11</sup>But they refused to pay attention, and turned a stubborn shoulder and plugged their ears from hearing.

<sup>12</sup>They also made their hearts as hard as a diamond so that they could not hear the Law and the words which the LORD of armies had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets; therefore great wrath came from the LORD of armies.

<sup>13</sup>And just as He called and they would not listen, so they called and I would not listen,” says the LORD of armies;

<sup>14</sup>“but I scattered them with a storm wind among all the nations whom they did not know. So the land was desolated behind them so that no one went back and forth, since they made the pleasant land desolate.”

Zechariah 8

The Coming Peace and Prosperity of Zion

<sup>2</sup>“The LORD of armies says this: ‘I am exceedingly jealous for Zion, yes, with great wrath I am jealous for her.’

<sup>3</sup>The LORD says this: ‘I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of armies will be called the Holy Mountain.’

<sup>5</sup>And the public squares of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its squares.’

<sup>6</sup>The LORD of armies says this: ‘If it is too difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be too difficult in My sight?’ declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD of armies says this: ‘Behold, I am going to save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west;

<sup>8</sup>and I will bring them back and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God in truth and righteousness.’

<sup>9</sup>“The LORD of armies says this: ‘Let your hands be strong, you who are listening in these days to these words from the mouth of the prophets, those who spoke in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of armies was laid, so that the temple might be built.

<sup>10</sup>For before those days there was no wage for man nor any wage for animal; and for him who went out or came in there was no peace because of his enemies, and I sent all the people against one another.

<sup>11</sup>But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' declares the LORD of armies.

<sup>12</sup>'For there will be the seed of peace: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the heavens will provide their dew; and I will give to the remnant of this people all these things as an inheritance.

<sup>13</sup>And it will come about that just as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you that you may become a blessing. Do not fear; let your hands be strong.'

<sup>14</sup>"For this is what the LORD of armies says: 'Just as I determined to do harm to you when your fathers provoked Me to anger,' says the LORD of armies, 'and I have not relented, <sup>15</sup>so I have again determined in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

<sup>16</sup>These are the things which you shall do: speak the truth to one another; judge with truth and judgment for peace at your gates.

<sup>17</sup>Also let none of you devise evil in your heart against another, and do not love perjury; for all these things are what I hate,' declares the LORD."

<sup>18</sup>Then the word of the LORD of armies came to me, saying,

<sup>19</sup>"The LORD of armies says this: 'The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth months will become joy, jubilation, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah; so love truth and peace.'

<sup>22</sup>So many peoples and mighty nations will come to seek the LORD of armies in Jerusalem, and to plead for the favor of the LORD.’

<sup>23</sup>The LORD of armies says this: ‘In those days ten people from all the nations will grasp the garment of a Jew, saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.” ’ ”

Zechariah 9

Prophecies against Neighboring Nations

<sup>2</sup>And Hamath also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

<sup>3</sup>For Tyre built herself a fortress, And piled up silver like dust, And gold like the mud of the streets.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, the Lord will dispossess her And throw her wealth into the sea; And she will be consumed with fire.

<sup>5</sup>Ashkelon will see it and be afraid. Gaza too will writhe in great pain; Also Ekron, because her hope has been ruined. Moreover, the king will perish from Gaza, And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

<sup>6</sup>And a people of mixed origins will live in Ashdod, And I will eliminate the pride of the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup>And I will remove their blood from their mouth And their detestable things from between their teeth. Then they also will be a remnant for our God, And be like a clan in Judah, And Ekron will be like a Jebusite.

<sup>8</sup>But I will camp around My house because of an army, Because of him who passes by and returns; And no oppressor will pass over them anymore, For now I have seen with My eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; He is righteous and endowed with salvation, Humble, and mounted on a donkey, Even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup>And I will eliminate the chariot from Ephraim And the horse from Jerusalem; And the bow of war will be eliminated. And He will speak peace to the nations; And His dominion will be from sea to sea, And from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

Restoration of Judah and Ephraim

<sup>11</sup>As for you also, because of the blood of My covenant with you, I have set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

<sup>12</sup>Return to the stronghold, you prisoners who have the hope; This very day I am declaring that I will restore double to you.

<sup>13</sup>For I will bend Judah as My bow, I will fill the bow with Ephraim. And I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece; And I will make you like a warrior's sword.

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD will appear over them, And His arrow will go forth like lightning; And the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet, And march in the storm winds of the south.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD of armies will protect them. And they will devour and trample on the slingstones; And they will drink and be boisterous as with wine; And they will be filled like a sacrificial basin, Drenched like the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD their God will save them on that day As the flock of His people; For they are like the precious stones of a crown, Sparkling on His land.

<sup>17</sup>For how great will their loveliness and beauty be! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine, the virgins.

Zechariah 10

God Will Bless Judah and Ephraim

<sup>1</sup>Ask for rain from the LORD at the time of the spring rain— The LORD who makes the storm winds; And He will give them showers of rain, vegetation in the field to each person.

<sup>2</sup>For the household idols speak deception, And the diviners see an illusion And tell deceitful dreams; They comfort in vain. Therefore the people wander like sheep, They are wretched because there is no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>“My anger is kindled against the shepherds, And I will punish the male goats; For the LORD of armies has visited His flock, the house of Judah, And will make them like His majestic horse in battle.

<sup>4</sup>“From them will come the cornerstone, From them the tent peg, From them the bow of battle, From them every tyrant, all of them together.

<sup>5</sup>“And they will be like warriors, Trampling down the enemy in the mud of the streets in battle; And they will fight, because the LORD will be with them; And the riders on horses will be put to shame.

<sup>6</sup>“And I will strengthen the house of Judah, And I will save the house of Joseph, And I will bring them back, Because I have had compassion on them; And they will be as though I had not rejected them, For I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

<sup>7</sup>“Ephraim will be like a warrior, And their heart will be joyful as if from wine; Indeed, their children will see it and be joyful, Their heart will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup>“I will whistle for them and gather them together, For I have redeemed them; And they will be as numerous as they were before.

<sup>9</sup>“When I scatter them among the peoples, They will remember Me in distant countries, And they with their children will live and come back.

<sup>10</sup>“I will bring them back from the land of Egypt And gather them from Assyria; And I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon Until no room can be found for them.

<sup>11</sup>“And they will pass through the sea of distress And He will strike the waves in the sea, So that all the depths of the Nile will dry up; And the pride of Assyria will be brought down, And the scepter of Egypt will depart.

<sup>12</sup>“And I will strengthen them in the LORD, And in His name they will walk,” declares the LORD.

Zechariah 11

The Doomed Flock

<sup>2</sup>Wail, juniper, because the cedar has fallen, For the magnificent trees have been destroyed; Wail, oaks of Bashan, Because the impenetrable forest has come down.

<sup>5</sup>Those who buy them slaughter them and go unpunished, and each of those who sell them says, ‘Blessed be the LORD, for I have become rich!’ And their own shepherds have no compassion for them.

<sup>6</sup>For I will no longer have compassion for the inhabitants of the land,” declares the LORD; “but behold, I will let the people fall, each into another’s power and into the power of his king; and they will crush the land, and I will not rescue them from their power.”

<sup>7</sup>So I pastured the flock doomed to slaughter, therefore also the afflicted of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Favor, and the other I called Union; so I pastured the flock.

<sup>8</sup>Then I did away with the three shepherds in one month, for my soul was impatient with them, and their soul also was tired of me.

<sup>9</sup>Then I said, "I will not pasture you. What is to die, let it die, and what is to perish, let it perish; and let those who are left eat one another's flesh."

<sup>10</sup>And I took my staff Favor and cut it in pieces, to break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

<sup>11</sup>So it was broken on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>And I said to them, "If it is good in your sight, give me my wages; but if not, never mind!" So they weighed out thirty shekels of silver as my wages.

<sup>13</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, that magnificent price at which I was valued by them." So I took the thirty shekels of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Then I cut in pieces my second staff Union, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD said to me, "Take again for yourself the equipment of a foolish shepherd.

<sup>16</sup>For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the perishing, seek the scattered, heal the broken, or provide for the one who is exhausted, but will devour the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hoofs.

Zechariah 12

Jerusalem to Be Attacked

<sup>1</sup>The pronouncement of the word of the LORD concerning Israel: The LORD who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of a person within him, declares:

<sup>2</sup>“Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that causes staggering to all the peoples around; and when the siege is against Jerusalem, it will also be against Judah.

<sup>3</sup>It will come about on that day that I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it will injure themselves severely. And all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it.

<sup>4</sup>On that day,” declares the LORD, “I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with insanity. But I will watch over the house of Judah, while I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

<sup>5</sup>Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are a strong support for us through the LORD of armies, their God.’

<sup>6</sup>“On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot among pieces of wood and a flaming torch among sheaves, so they will consume on the right and on the left all the surrounding peoples, while the inhabitants of Jerusalem again live on their own sites in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be greater than Judah.

<sup>8</sup>On that day the LORD will protect the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the one who is feeble among them on that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them.

<sup>9</sup>And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“And I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and of pleading, so that they will look at Me whom they pierced; and they will mourn for Him, like one mourning for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him like the bitter weeping over a firstborn.

<sup>11</sup>On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be great, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup>The land will mourn, every family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself and their wives by themselves;

<sup>13</sup>the family of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shimeites by itself and their wives by themselves;

<sup>14</sup>all the families that are left, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zechariah 13

False Prophets Ashamed

<sup>1</sup>“On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for defilement.

<sup>2</sup>“And it will come about on that day,” declares the LORD of armies, “that I will eliminate the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered; and I will also remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

<sup>3</sup>And if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who gave birth to him will say to him, ‘You shall not live, because you have spoken falsely in the name of the LORD’; and his father and mother who gave birth to him shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

<sup>4</sup>Also it will come about on that day that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies, and they will not put on a hairy robe in order to deceive;

<sup>5</sup>but he will say, ‘I am not a prophet; I am a cultivator of the ground, because a man sold me as a slave in my youth.’

<sup>6</sup>And someone will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ Then he will say, ‘Those with which I was wounded at the house of my friends.’

<sup>7</sup>“Awake, sword, against My Shepherd, And against the Man, My Associate,” Declares the LORD of armies. “Strike the Shepherd and the sheep will be scattered; And I will turn My hand against the little ones.

<sup>8</sup>“And it will come about in all the land,” Declares the LORD, “That two parts in it will be cut off and perish; But the third will be left in it.

<sup>9</sup>“And I will bring the third part through the fire, Refine them as silver is refined, And test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, And I will answer them; I will say, ‘They are My people,’ And they will say, ‘The LORD is my God.’”

Zechariah 14

God Will Battle Jerusalem’s Enemies

<sup>1</sup>Behold, a day is coming for the LORD when the spoils taken from you will be divided among you.

<sup>2</sup>For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be taken, the houses plundered, the women raped, and half of the city exiled, but the rest of the people will not be eliminated from the city.

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle.

<sup>4</sup>On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is in front of Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in its middle from east to west forming a very large valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and the other half toward the south.

<sup>5</sup>And you will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; yes, you will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD, my God, will come, and all the holy ones with Him!

<sup>6</sup>On that day there will be no light; the luminaries will die out.

<sup>7</sup>For it will be a unique day which is known to the LORD, neither day nor night, but it will come about that at the time of evening there will be light.

<sup>8</sup>And on that day living waters will flow out of Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea and the other half toward the western sea; it will be in summer as well as in winter.

God Will Be King over All

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD will be King over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be the only one, and His name the only one.

<sup>10</sup>All the land will change into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; but Jerusalem will rise and remain on its site from Benjamin's Gate as far as the place of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

<sup>11</sup>People will live in it, and there will no longer be a curse, for Jerusalem will live in security.

<sup>12</sup>Now this will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have gone to war against Jerusalem; their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongue will rot in their mouth.

<sup>13</sup>And it will come about on that day that a great panic from the LORD will fall on them; and they will seize one another's hand, and the hand of one will be raised against the hand of another.

<sup>14</sup>Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

<sup>15</sup>And just like this plague, there will be a plague on the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey, and all the cattle that will be in those camps.

<sup>16</sup>Then it will come about that any who are left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of armies, and to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

<sup>17</sup>And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of armies, there will be no rain on them.

<sup>18</sup>And if the family of Egypt does not go up or enter, then no rain will fall on them; it will be the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

<sup>19</sup>This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

<sup>20</sup>On that day there will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD." And the cooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar.

<sup>21</sup>Every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of armies; and all who sacrifice will come and take of them and boil in them. And there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of armies on that day.

Malachi

Malachi 1

God's Love for Jacob

<sup>2</sup>"I have loved you," says the LORD. But you say, "How have You loved us?" "Was Esau not Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob;

<sup>3</sup>but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a desolation and given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness."

<sup>4</sup>Though Edom says, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins"; this is what the LORD of armies says: "They may build, but I will tear down; and people will call them the territory of wickedness, and the people with whom the LORD is indignant forever."

<sup>5</sup>And your eyes will see this, and you will say, "The LORD be exalted beyond the border of Israel!"

Sin of the Priests

<sup>6</sup>" 'A son honors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My respect?' says the LORD of armies to you, the priests who despise My name! But you say, 'How have we despised Your name?'

<sup>7</sup>You are presenting defiled food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled You?' In that you say, 'The table of the LORD is to be despised.'

<sup>8</sup>And when you present a blind animal for sacrifice, is it not evil? Or when you present a lame or sick animal, is it not evil? So offer it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or would he receive you kindly?" says the LORD of armies.

<sup>9</sup>"But now, do indeed plead for God's favor, so that He will be gracious to us. With such an offering on your part, will He receive any of you kindly?" says the LORD of armies.

<sup>10</sup>“If only there were one among you who would shut the gates, so that you would not kindle fire on My altar for nothing! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD of armies, “nor will I accept an offering from your hand.

<sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun even to its setting, My name shall be great among the nations, and in every place frankincense is going to be offered to My name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My name shall be great among the nations,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>12</sup>“But you are profaning it by your saying, ‘The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is to be despised.’

<sup>13</sup>You also say, ‘See, how tiresome it is!’ And you view it as trivial,” says the LORD of armies, “and you bring what was taken by robbery and what is lame or sick; so you bring the offering! Should I accept it from your hand?” says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“But cursed be the swindler who has a male in his flock and vows it, but sacrifices a blemished animal to the Lord, for I am a great King,” says the LORD of armies, “and My name is feared among the nations.”

Malachi 2

Priests to Be Disciplined

<sup>2</sup>If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to give honor to My name,” says the LORD of armies, “then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings; and indeed, I have cursed them already, because you are not taking it to heart.

<sup>3</sup>Behold, I am going to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, so that My covenant may continue with Levi,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>5</sup>“My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them to him as an object of reverence; so he revered Me and was in awe of My name.

<sup>6</sup>True instruction was in his mouth and injustice was not found on his lips; he walked with Me in peace and justice, and he turned many back from wrongdoing.

<sup>7</sup>For the lips of a priest should maintain knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of armies.

<sup>8</sup>But as for you, you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by the instruction; you have ruined the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>9</sup>“So I also have made you despised and of low reputation in the view of all the people, since you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality in the instruction.”

Sin in the Family

<sup>10</sup>Do we not all have one Father? Is it not one God who has created us? Why do we deal treacherously, each against his brother so as to profane the covenant of our fathers?

<sup>11</sup>Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

<sup>12</sup>As for the man who does this, may the LORD eliminate from the tents of Jacob everyone who is awake and answers, or who presents an offering to the LORD of armies.

<sup>13</sup>And this is another thing you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and sighing, because He no longer gives attention to the offering or accepts it with favor from your hand.

<sup>14</sup>Yet you say, “For what reason?” Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your marriage companion and your wife by covenant.

<sup>15</sup>But not one has done so who has a remnant of the Spirit. And why the one? He was seeking a godly offspring. Be careful then about your spirit, and see that none of you deals treacherously against the wife of your youth.

<sup>16</sup>“For I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “and him who covers his garment with violence,” says the LORD of armies. “So be careful about your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously.”

<sup>17</sup>You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them,” or, “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3

The Purifier

<sup>1</sup>“Behold, I am sending My messenger, and he will clear a way before Me. And the Lord, whom you are seeking, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>2</sup>“But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire, and like launderer’s soap.

<sup>3</sup>And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present to the LORD offerings in righteousness.

<sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old, and as in former years.

<sup>5</sup>“Then I will come near to you for judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, those who oppress the wage earner in his wages or the widow or the orphan, and those who turn away the stranger from justice and do not fear Me,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>6</sup>“For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, the sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

<sup>7</sup>“From the days of your fathers you have turned away from My statutes and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of armies. “But you say, ‘How shall we return?’

You Have Robbed God

<sup>8</sup>“Would anyone rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, ‘How have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings.

<sup>9</sup>You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, the entire nation of you!

<sup>10</sup>Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and put Me to the test now in this,” says the LORD of armies, “if I do not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.

<sup>11</sup>Then I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not destroy the fruit of your ground; nor will the vine in the field prove fruitless to you,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>12</sup>“All the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>13</sup>“Your words have been arrogant against Me,” says the LORD. “Yet you say, ‘What have we spoken against You?’

<sup>14</sup>You have said, ‘It is pointless to serve God; and what benefit is it for us that we have done what He required, and that we have walked in mourning before the LORD of armies?

<sup>15</sup>So now we call the arrogant blessed; not only are the doers of wickedness built up, but they also put God to the test and escape punishment.’ ”

The Book of Remembrance

<sup>16</sup>Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD listened attentively and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and esteem His name.

<sup>17</sup>“And they will be Mine,” says the LORD of armies, “on the day that I prepare My own possession, and I will have compassion for them just as a man has compassion for his own son who serves him.”

<sup>18</sup>So you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

Malachi 4

Final Admonition

<sup>1</sup>“For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze,” says the LORD of armies, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branches.

<sup>2</sup>But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will go forth and frolic like calves from the stall.

<sup>3</sup>And you will crush the wicked underfoot, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I am preparing,” says the LORD of armies.

<sup>4</sup>“Remember the Law of Moses My servant, the statutes and ordinances which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel.

<sup>5</sup>“Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>He will turn the hearts of the fathers back to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I will not come and strike the land with complete destruction.”

Matthew

Matthew 1

The Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah

Conception and Birth of Jesus

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah was as follows: when His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>19</sup>And her husband Joseph, since he was a righteous man and did not want to disgrace her, planned to send her away secretly.

<sup>20</sup>But when he had thought this over, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>21</sup>She will give birth to a Son; and you shall name Him Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.”

<sup>22</sup>Now all this took place so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled:

<sup>23</sup>“BEHOLD, THE VIRGIN WILL CONCEIVE AND GIVE BIRTH TO A SON, AND THEY SHALL NAME HIM IMMANUEL,” which translated means, “GOD WITH US.”

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took Mary as his wife, <sup>25</sup>but kept her a virgin until she gave birth to a Son; and he named Him Jesus.

Matthew 2

The Visit of the Magi

<sup>1</sup>Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him.”

<sup>3</sup>When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>4</sup>And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.

<sup>5</sup>They said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for this is what has been written by the prophet:

<sup>6</sup>‘AND YOU, BETHLEHEM, LAND OF JUDAH, ARE BY NO MEANS LEAST AMONG THE LEADERS OF JUDAH; FOR FROM YOU WILL COME FORTH A RULER WHO WILL SHEPHERD MY PEOPLE ISRAEL.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod secretly called for the magi and determined from them the exact time the star appeared.

<sup>8</sup>And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him.”

<sup>9</sup>After hearing the king, they went on their way; and behold, the star, which they had seen in the east, went on ahead of them until it came to a stop over the place where the Child was to be found.

<sup>11</sup>And after they came into the house, they saw the Child with His mother Mary; and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then they opened their treasures and presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

<sup>12</sup>And after being warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>13</sup>Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of the Lord *appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to kill Him.”

<sup>14</sup>So Joseph got up and took the Child and His mother while it was still night, and left for Egypt.

<sup>15</sup>He stayed there until the death of Herod; this happened so that what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled: “OUT OF EGYPT I CALLED MY SON.”

Herod Slaughters Babies

<sup>16</sup>Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became very enraged, and sent men and killed all the boys who were in Bethlehem and all its vicinity who were two years old or under, according to the time which he had determined from the magi.

<sup>17</sup>Then what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

<sup>18</sup>“A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH, WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING, RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN; AND SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED, BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE.”

<sup>19</sup>But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord *appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, and said,

<sup>21</sup>So Joseph got up, took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Then after being warned by God in a dream, he left for the regions of Galilee,

<sup>23</sup>and came and settled in a city called Nazareth. This happened so that what was spoken through the prophets would be fulfilled: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3

The Preaching of John the Baptist

<sup>5</sup>At that time Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea and all the region around the Jordan;

<sup>6</sup>and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins.

<sup>7</sup>But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

<sup>9</sup>and do not assume that you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father’; for I tell you that God is able, from these stones, to raise up children for Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>And the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; therefore, every tree that does not bear good fruit is being cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup>“As for me, I baptize you with water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not fit to remove His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus *arrived from Galilee at the Jordan, coming to John to be baptized by him.

<sup>14</sup>But John tried to prevent Him, saying, “I have the need to be baptized by You, and yet You are coming to me?”

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus, answering, said to him, “Allow it at this time; for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he *allowed Him.

<sup>16</sup>After He was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove and settling on Him,

<sup>17</sup>and behold, a voice from the heavens said, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 4

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

<sup>2</sup>And after He had fasted for forty days and forty nights, He then became hungry.

<sup>3</sup>And the tempter came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

<sup>4</sup>But He answered and said, “It is written: ‘MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE, BUT ON EVERY WORD THAT COMES OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD.’ ”

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil *took Him along into the holy city and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple,

<sup>6</sup>and he *said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written: ‘HE WILL GIVE HIS ANGELS ORDERS CONCERNING YOU’; and ‘ON THEIR HANDS THEY WILL LIFT YOU UP, SO THAT YOU DO NOT STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, “On the other hand, it is written: ‘YOU SHALL NOT PUT THE LORD YOUR GOD TO THE TEST.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>Again, the devil *took Him along to a very high mountain and *showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory;

<sup>9</sup>and he said to Him, “All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus *said to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written: ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND SERVE HIM ONLY.’ ”

<sup>11</sup>Then the devil *left Him; and behold, angels came and began to serve Him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

<sup>12</sup>Now when Jesus heard that John had been taken into custody, He withdrew into Galilee;

<sup>14</sup>This happened so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled:

<sup>15</sup>“THE LAND OF ZEBULUN AND THE LAND OF NAPHTALI, BY THE WAY OF THE SEA, ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE JORDAN, GALILEE OF THE GENTILES—

<sup>16</sup>THE PEOPLE WHO WERE SITTING IN DARKNESS SAW A GREAT LIGHT, AND THOSE WHO WERE SITTING IN THE LAND AND SHADOW OF DEATH, UPON THEM A LIGHT DAWNED.”

<sup>17</sup>From that time Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

The First Disciples

<sup>18</sup>Now as Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

<sup>19</sup>And He *said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of people.”

Ministry in Galilee

<sup>23</sup>Jesus was going about in all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.

<sup>24</sup>And the news about Him spread throughout Syria; and they brought to Him all who were ill, those suffering with various diseases and severe pain, demon-possessed, people with epilepsy, and people who were paralyzed; and He healed them.

<sup>25</sup>Large crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Matthew 5

The Sermon on the Mount; The Beatitudes

<sup>1</sup>Now when Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him.

<sup>9</sup> “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

<sup>10</sup> “Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me.

<sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in this same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Disciples and the World

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has become tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by people.

<sup>14</sup> “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden;

<sup>15</sup>nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house.

<sup>16</sup>Your light must shine before people in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>17</sup> “Do not presume that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill.

<sup>18</sup>For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke of a letter shall pass from the Law, until all is accomplished!

<sup>20</sup> “For I say to you that unless your righteousness far surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Personal Relationships

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that the ancients were told, ‘YOU SHALL NOT MURDER,’ and ‘Whoever commits murder shall be answerable to the court.’

<sup>22</sup>But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be answerable to the court; and whoever says to his brother, ‘You good-for-nothing,’ shall be answerable to the supreme court; and whoever says, ‘You fool,’ shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore, if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there you remember that your brother has something against you,

<sup>24</sup>leave your offering there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

<sup>25</sup>Come to good terms with your accuser quickly, while you are with him on the way to court, so that your accuser will not hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will not be thrown into prison.

<sup>26</sup>Truly I say to you, you will not come out of there until you have paid up the last quadrans.

<sup>27</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY’;

<sup>28</sup>but I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

<sup>29</sup>Now if your right eye is causing you to sin, tear it out and throw it away from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

<sup>30</sup>And if your right hand is causing you to sin, cut it off and throw it away from you; for it is better for you to lose one of the parts of your body, than for your whole body to go into hell.

<sup>31</sup> “Now it was said, ‘WHOEVER SENDS HIS WIFE AWAY IS TO GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE’;

<sup>32</sup>but I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the reason of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup> “Again, you have heard that the ancients were told, ‘ YOU SHALL NOT MAKE FALSE VOWS, BUT SHALL FULFILL YOUR VOWS TO THE LORD.’

<sup>34</sup>But I say to you, take no oath at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God,

<sup>36</sup>Nor shall you take an oath by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black.

<sup>37</sup>But make sure your statement is, ‘Yes, yes’ or ‘No, no’; anything beyond these is of evil origin.

<sup>38</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘EYE FOR EYE, and TOOTH FOR TOOTH.’

<sup>39</sup>But I say to you, do not show opposition against an evil person; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other toward him also.

<sup>40</sup>And if anyone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak also.

<sup>42</sup>Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR and hate your enemy.’

<sup>44</sup>But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

<sup>45</sup>so that you may prove yourselves to be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

<sup>46</sup>For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors, do they not do the same?

<sup>47</sup>And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Even the Gentiles, do they not do the same?

Matthew 6

Charitable Giving to the Poor and Prayer

<sup>1</sup> “Take care not to practice your righteousness in the sight of people, to be noticed by them; otherwise you have no reward with your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> “So when you give to the poor, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, so that they will be praised by people. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full.

<sup>4</sup>so that your charitable giving will be in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.

<sup>5</sup> “And when you pray, you are not to be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners so that they will be seen by people. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full.

<sup>6</sup>But as for you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.

<sup>7</sup> “And when you are praying, do not use thoughtless repetition as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

<sup>8</sup>So do not be like them; for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

The LORD's Prayer

<sup>9</sup> “Pray, then, in this way: ‘Our Father, who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name.

<sup>10</sup> ‘ Your kingdom come. Your will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup> ‘Give us this day our daily bread.

<sup>12</sup> ‘And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

<sup>13</sup> ‘And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. ’

<sup>14</sup> For if you forgive other people for their offenses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

<sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive other people, then your Father will not forgive your offenses.

Fasting; The True Treasure; Wealth

<sup>16</sup> “Now whenever you fast, do not make a gloomy face as the hypocrites do, for they distort their faces so that they will be noticed by people when they are fasting. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full.

<sup>17</sup>But as for you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,

<sup>18</sup>so that your fasting will not be noticed by people but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.

<sup>19</sup> “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

<sup>20</sup>But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal;

<sup>21</sup>for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>22</sup> “The eye is the lamp of the body; so then, if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light.

<sup>23</sup>But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>24</sup> “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

The Cure for Anxiety

<sup>25</sup> “For this reason I say to you, do not be worried about your life, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor for your body, as to what you will put on. Is life not more than food, and the body more than clothing?

<sup>27</sup>And which of you by worrying can add a single day to his life's span?

<sup>28</sup>And why are you worried about clothing? Notice how the lilies of the field grow; they do not labor nor do they spin thread for cloth, <sup>29</sup>yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.

<sup>30</sup>But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!

<sup>31</sup>Do not worry then, saying, 'What are we to eat?' or 'What are we to drink?' or 'What are we to wear for clothing?'

<sup>33</sup>But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided to you.

<sup>34</sup>"So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 7

Judging Others

<sup>1</sup> "Do not judge, so that you will not be judged.

<sup>2</sup>For in the way you judge, you will be judged; and by your standard of measure, it will be measured to you.

<sup>4</sup>Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ and look, the log is in your own eye?

<sup>5</sup>You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye!

<sup>6</sup> “Do not give what is holy to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Prayer and the Golden Rule

<sup>7</sup> “ Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

<sup>8</sup>For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

<sup>9</sup>Or what person is there among you who, when his son asks for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone?

<sup>10</sup>Or if he asks for a fish, he will not give him a snake, will he?

<sup>11</sup>So if you, despite being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

<sup>12</sup> “In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow and Wide Gates

<sup>13</sup> “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it.

<sup>14</sup>For the gate is narrow and the way is constricted that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>15</sup> “Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

<sup>16</sup>You will know them by their fruits. Grapes are not gathered from thorn bushes, nor figs from thistles, are they?

<sup>17</sup>So every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit.

<sup>21</sup>“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter.

<sup>22</sup>Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?’

<sup>23</sup>And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; LEAVE ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.’

The Two Foundations

<sup>24</sup>“Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine, and acts on them, will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

<sup>25</sup>And the rain fell and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and yet it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock.

<sup>26</sup>And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does not act on them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.

<sup>27</sup>And the rain fell and the floods came, and the winds blew and slammed against that house; and it fell—and its collapse was great.”

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus had finished these words, the crowds were amazed at His teaching;

<sup>29</sup>for He was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

Matthew 8

Jesus Cleanses a Man with Leprosy

<sup>3</sup>Jesus reached out with His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus *said to him, “See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

The Centurion’s Faith

<sup>5</sup>And when Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, begging Him,

<sup>7</sup>Jesus *said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

<sup>8</sup>But the centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy for You to come under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

<sup>9</sup>For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

<sup>10</sup>Now when Jesus heard this, He was amazed and said to those who were following, “Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith with anyone in Israel.

<sup>11</sup>And I say to you that many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven;

<sup>12</sup>but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

<sup>13</sup>And Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; it shall be done for you as you have believed.” And the servant was healed at that very moment.

Peter’s Mother-in-law and Many Others Healed

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus came into Peter’s home, He saw his mother-in-law lying sick in bed with a fever.

<sup>16</sup>Now when evening came, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were ill.

<sup>17</sup>This happened so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled: “HE HIMSELF TOOK OUR ILLNESSES AND CARRIED AWAY OUR DISEASES.”

Discipleship Tested

<sup>18</sup>Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to depart to the other side of the sea.

<sup>19</sup>Then a scribe came and said to Him, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

<sup>20</sup>And Jesus *said to him, “The foxes have holes and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

<sup>21</sup>And another of the disciples said to Him, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus *said to him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

<sup>24</sup>And behold, a violent storm developed on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; but Jesus Himself was asleep.

<sup>25</sup>And they came to Him and woke Him, saying, “Save us, Lord; we are perishing!”

<sup>26</sup>He *said to them, “Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm.

<sup>27</sup>The men were amazed, and said, “What kind of a man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

Jesus Sends Demons into Pigs

<sup>28</sup>And when He came to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men confronted Him as they were coming out of the tombs. They were so extremely violent that no one could pass by that way.

<sup>29</sup>And they cried out, saying, “What business do You have with us, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?”

<sup>30</sup>Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding at a distance from them.

<sup>31</sup>And the demons begged Him, saying, “If You are going to cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

<sup>32</sup>And He said to them, “Go!” And they came out and went into the pigs; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the waters.

<sup>33</sup>And the herdsmen ran away, and went to the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.

<sup>34</sup>And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they pleaded with Him to leave their region.

Matthew 9

A Paralyzed Man Healed

<sup>1</sup>Getting into a boat, Jesus crossed over the Sea of Galilee and came to His own city.

<sup>2</sup>And they brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a stretcher. And seeing their faith, Jesus said to the man who was paralyzed, “Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>3</sup>And some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man is blaspheming!”

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, said, “Why are you thinking evil in your hearts?

<sup>6</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—then He *said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, pick up your stretcher and go home.”

<sup>7</sup>And he got up and went home.

<sup>8</sup>But when the crowds saw this, they were awestruck, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

Matthew Called

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man called Matthew sitting in the tax collector’s office; and He *said to him, “Follow Me!” And he got up and followed Him.

<sup>10</sup>Then it happened that as Jesus was reclining at the table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and began dining with Jesus and His disciples.

<sup>11</sup>And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, “Why is your Teacher eating with the tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>12</sup>But when Jesus heard this, He said, “It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick.

<sup>13</sup>Now go and learn what this means: ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION, RATHER THAN SACRIFICE,’ for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

The Question about Fasting

<sup>14</sup>Then the disciples of John *came to Him, asking, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”

<sup>15</sup>And Jesus said to them, “The attendants of the groom cannot mourn as long as the groom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the groom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>16</sup>But no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results.

Miracles of Healing

<sup>18</sup>While He was saying these things to them, behold, a synagogue official came and bowed down before Him, and said, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will become alive again.”

<sup>21</sup>for she was saying to herself, “If I only touch His cloak, I will get well.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus, turning and seeing her, said, “Daughter, take courage; your faith has made you well.” And at once the woman was made well.

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus came into the official’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd in noisy disorder, <sup>24</sup>He said, “Leave; for the girl has not died, but is asleep.” And they began laughing at Him.

<sup>25</sup>But when the crowd had been sent out, He entered and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

<sup>26</sup>And this news spread throughout that land.

<sup>27</sup>As Jesus went on from there, two men who were blind followed Him, crying out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

<sup>28</sup>And after He entered the house, the men who were blind came up to Him, and Jesus *said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They *said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”

<sup>29</sup>Then He touched their eyes, saying, “It shall be done for you according to your faith.”

<sup>30</sup>And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, “See that no one knows about this!”

<sup>31</sup>But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout that land.

<sup>32</sup>And as they were going out, behold, a demon-possessed man who was unable to speak was brought to Him.

<sup>33</sup>And after the demon was cast out, the man who was previously unable to speak talked; and the crowds were amazed, and were saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness.

<sup>37</sup>Then He *said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

Matthew 10

The Twelve Disciples; Instructions for Service

<sup>1</sup> Jesus summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness.

<sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

<sup>5</sup> These twelve Jesus sent out after instructing them, saying, “Do not go on a road to Gentiles, and do not enter a city of Samaritans;

<sup>7</sup> And as you go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’

<sup>8</sup> Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those with leprosy, cast out demons. Freely you received, freely give.

<sup>9</sup> Do not acquire gold, or silver, or copper for your money belts, <sup>10</sup> or a bag for your journey, or even two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker is deserving of his support.

<sup>11</sup> And whatever city or village you enter, inquire who is worthy in it, and stay at his house until you leave that city.

<sup>12</sup> As you enter the house, give it your greeting.

<sup>13</sup> If the house is worthy, see that your blessing of peace comes upon it. But if it is not worthy, take back your blessing of peace.

<sup>14</sup> And whoever does not receive you nor listen to your words, as you leave that house or city, shake the dust off your feet.

<sup>15</sup> Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment, than for that city.

A Hard Road Ahead of Them

<sup>16</sup> “Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be as wary as serpents, and as innocent as doves.

<sup>17</sup> But be on guard against people, for they will hand you over to the courts and flog you in their synagogues;

<sup>18</sup> and you will even be brought before governors and kings on My account, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup> But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given you in that hour.

<sup>20</sup> For it is not you who are speaking, but it is the Spirit of your Father who is speaking in you.

<sup>21</sup> “Now brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.

<sup>22</sup> And you will be hated by all because of My name, but it is the one who has endured to the end who will be saved.

<sup>23</sup> “But whenever they persecute you in one city, flee to the next; for truly I say to you, you will not finish going through the cities of Israel until the Son of Man comes.

The Meaning of Discipleship

<sup>25</sup> It is enough for the disciple that he may become like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they have called the head of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they insult the members of his household!

<sup>26</sup> “So do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.

<sup>27</sup> What I tell you in the darkness, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim on the housetops.

<sup>28</sup>And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul; but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

<sup>29</sup>Are two sparrows not sold for an assarion? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father.

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore, everyone who confesses Me before people, I will also confess him before My Father who is in heaven.

<sup>33</sup>But whoever denies Me before people, I will also deny him before My Father who is in heaven.

<sup>34</sup> “Do not think that I came to bring peace on the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

<sup>35</sup>For I came to TURN A MAN AGAINST HIS FATHER, AND A DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER, AND A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER MOTHER-IN-LAW;

<sup>37</sup> “The one who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and the one who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

<sup>38</sup>And the one who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.

<sup>39</sup>The one who has found his life will lose it, and the one who has lost his life on My account will find it.

The Reward for Service

<sup>40</sup> “The one who receives you receives Me, and the one who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

<sup>42</sup>And whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward.”

Matthew 11

John's Questions

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

<sup>2</sup>Now while in prison, John heard about the works of Christ, and he sent word by his disciples,

<sup>3</sup>and said to Him, “Are You the Coming One, or are we to look for someone else?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Go and report to John what you hear and see:

<sup>5</sup>those who are BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT and those who limp walk, those with leprosy are cleansed and those who are deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the POOR HAVE THE GOSPEL PREACHED TO THEM.

<sup>6</sup>And blessed is any person who does not take offense at Me.”

Jesus' Tribute to John

<sup>7</sup>As these disciples of John were going away, Jesus began speaking to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>8</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Those who wear soft clothing are in kings' palaces!

<sup>9</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one who is more than a prophet.

<sup>10</sup>This is the one about whom it is written: ‘BEHOLD, I AM SENDING MY MESSENGER AHEAD OF YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU.’

<sup>11</sup> Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptist! Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

<sup>14</sup> And if you are willing to accept it, John himself is Elijah who was to come.

<sup>15</sup> The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.

<sup>16</sup> “But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call out to the other children,

<sup>17</sup> and say, ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a song of mourning, and you did not mourn.’

<sup>18</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’

<sup>19</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a heavy drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ And yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

The Unrepenting Cities

<sup>20</sup> Then He began to reprimand the cities in which most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent.

<sup>21</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that occurred in you had occurred in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.

<sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Hades! For if the miracles that occurred in you had occurred in Sodom, it would have remained to this day.

<sup>24</sup>Nevertheless I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment, than for you.”

Come to Me

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to infants.

<sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, for this way was well pleasing in Your sight.

<sup>27</sup>All things have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son determines to reveal Him.

<sup>28</sup>“Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

<sup>29</sup>Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and YOU WILL FIND REST FOR YOUR SOULS.

Matthew 12

Sabbath Questions

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples became hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and eat.

<sup>2</sup>Now when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on a Sabbath!”

<sup>3</sup>But He said to them, “Have you not read what David did when he became hungry, he and his companions—

<sup>4</sup>how he entered the house of God, and they ate the consecrated bread, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, but for the priests alone?

<sup>5</sup>Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath, and yet are innocent?

<sup>6</sup>But I say to you that something greater than the temple is here.

<sup>7</sup>But if you had known what this means: ‘I DESIRE COMPASSION, RATHER THAN SACRIFICE,’ you would not have condemned the innocent.

LORD of the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup>And a man was there whose hand was withered. And they questioned Jesus, asking, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”—so that they might bring charges against Him.

<sup>11</sup>But He said to them, “What man is there among you who has a sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it and lift it out?

<sup>12</sup>How much more valuable then is a person than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup>Then He *said to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” He stretched it out, and it was restored to normal, like the other.

<sup>14</sup>But the Pharisees went out and conspired against Him, as to how they might destroy Him.

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. Many followed Him, and He healed them all, <sup>16</sup>and warned them not to tell who He was.

<sup>17</sup>This happened so that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled:

<sup>18</sup>“BEHOLD, MY SERVANT WHOM I HAVE CHOSEN; MY BELOVED IN WHOM MY SOUL DELIGHTS; I WILL PUT MY SPIRIT UPON HIM, AND HE WILL PROCLAIM JUSTICE TO THE GENTILES.

<sup>20</sup>“A BENT REED HE WILL NOT BREAK OFF, AND A DIMLY BURNING WICK HE WILL NOT EXTINGUISH, UNTIL HE LEADS JUSTICE TO VICTORY.

The Pharisees Rebuked

<sup>22</sup>Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and unable to speak was brought to Jesus, and He healed him so that the man who was unable to speak talked and could see.

<sup>23</sup>And all the crowds were amazed and were saying, “This man cannot be the Son of David, can he?”

<sup>25</sup>And knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste; and no city or house divided against itself will stand.

<sup>26</sup>And if Satan is casting out Satan, he has become divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

<sup>27</sup>And if by Beelzebul I cast out the demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they will be your judges.

<sup>28</sup>But if I cast out the demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

<sup>29</sup>Or, how can anyone enter the strong man’s house and carry off his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

The Unpardonable Sin

<sup>30</sup> The one who is not with Me is against Me; and the one who does not gather with Me scatters.

<sup>31</sup> “Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

Words Reveal Character

<sup>33</sup>“Either assume the tree to be good as well as its fruit good, or assume the tree to be bad as well as its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit.

<sup>35</sup>The good person brings out of his good treasure good things; and the evil person brings out of his evil treasure evil things.

<sup>36</sup>But I tell you that for every careless word that people speak, they will give an account of it on the day of judgment.

<sup>37</sup>For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

The Desire for Signs

<sup>38</sup>Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

<sup>39</sup>But He answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation craves a sign; and so no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet;

<sup>40</sup>for just as JONAH WAS IN THE STOMACH OF THE SEA MONSTER FOR THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

<sup>42</sup>The Queen of the South will rise up with this generation at the judgment and will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

<sup>43</sup> “Now when the unclean spirit comes out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and does not find it.

<sup>44</sup> Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came’; and when it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and put in order.

<sup>45</sup> Then it goes and brings along with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they come in and live there; and the last condition of that person becomes worse than the first. That is the way it will also be with this evil generation.”

Changed Relationships

<sup>46</sup> While He was still speaking to the crowds, behold, His mother and brothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him.

<sup>47</sup> [Someone said to Him, “Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak to You.”]

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus replied to the one who was telling Him and said, “Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?”

<sup>49</sup> And extending His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold: My mother and My brothers!

<sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven, he is My brother, and sister, and mother.”

Matthew 13

Jesus Teaches in Parables

<sup>1</sup> On that day Jesus had gone out of the house and was sitting by the sea.

<sup>2</sup> And large crowds gathered to Him, so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd was standing on the beach.

<sup>3</sup> And He told them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, the sower went out to sow; <sup>4</sup>and as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate them up.

<sup>5</sup>Others fell on the rocky places, where they did not have much soil; and they sprang up immediately, because they had no depth of soil.

<sup>6</sup>But after the sun rose, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

<sup>7</sup>Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them out.

<sup>8</sup>But others fell on the good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times as much.

<sup>9</sup>The one who has ears, let him hear.”

An Explanation for Parables

<sup>10</sup>And the disciples came up and said to Him, “Why do You speak to them in parables?”

<sup>11</sup>And Jesus answered them, “To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted.

<sup>12</sup>For whoever has, to him more shall be given, and he will have an abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables; because while seeing they do not see, and while hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

<sup>14</sup>And in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,
‘ YOU SHALL KEEP ON LISTENING, BUT SHALL NOT UNDERSTAND; AND YOU SHALL KEEP ON LOOKING, BUT SHALL NOT PERCEIVE;

<sup>15</sup> FOR THE HEART OF THIS PEOPLE HAS BECOME DULL, WITH THEIR EARS THEY SCARCELY HEAR, AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES, OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT SEE WITH THEIR EYES, HEAR WITH THEIR EARS, UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART, AND RETURN, AND I WOULD HEAL THEM.’

<sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear.

<sup>17</sup> For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

The Sower Explained

<sup>20</sup> The one sown with seed on the rocky places, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy;

<sup>21</sup> yet he has no firm root in himself, but is only temporary, and when affliction or persecution occurs because of the word, immediately he falls away.

<sup>22</sup> And the one sown with seed among the thorns, this is the one who hears the word, and the anxiety of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

<sup>23</sup> But the one sown with seed on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces, some a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times as much.”

Weeds among Wheat

<sup>24</sup> Jesus presented another parable to them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.

<sup>26</sup> And when the wheat sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also became evident.

<sup>27</sup>And the slaves of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?’

<sup>28</sup>And he said to them, ‘An enemy has done this!’ The slaves *said to him, ‘Do you want us, then, to go and gather them up?’

<sup>29</sup>But he *said, ‘No; while you are gathering up the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them.

<sup>30</sup>Allow both to grow together until the harvest; and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather up the weeds and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.” ’ ”

The Mustard Seed

<sup>31</sup>He presented another parable to them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a person took and sowed in his field;

<sup>32</sup>and this is smaller than all the other seeds, but when it is fully grown, it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that THE BIRDS OF THE SKY come and NEST IN ITS BRANCHES.”

The Leaven

<sup>33</sup>He spoke another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three sata of flour until it was all leavened.”

<sup>34</sup>All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak anything to them without a parable.

<sup>35</sup>This was so that what was spoken through the prophet would be fulfilled: “I WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES; I WILL PROCLAIM THINGS HIDDEN SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD.”

The Weeds Explained

<sup>36</sup>Then He left the crowds and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”

<sup>37</sup>And He said, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man,

<sup>38</sup>and the field is the world; and as for the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil one;

<sup>39</sup>and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age; and the reapers are angels.

<sup>40</sup>So just as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age.

<sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness,

<sup>42</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>43</sup>Then THE RIGHTEOUS WILL SHINE FORTH LIKE THE SUN in the kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears, let him hear.

Hidden Treasure

<sup>44</sup> “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid again; and from joy over it he goes and sells everything that he has, and buys that field.

A Costly Pearl

<sup>46</sup>and upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold everything that he had and bought it.

A Dragnet

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and gathered fish of every kind;

<sup>48</sup>and when it was filled, they pulled it up on the beach; and they sat down and gathered the good fish into containers, but the bad they threw away.

<sup>49</sup>So it will be at the end of the age: the angels will come forth and remove the wicked from among the righteous,

<sup>50</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>51</sup>“Have you understood all these things?” They *said to Him, “Yes.”

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure new things and old.”

Jesus Revisits Nazareth

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

<sup>54</sup>And He came to His hometown and began teaching them in their synagogue, with the result that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this man acquire this wisdom and these miraculous powers?

<sup>55</sup>Is this not the carpenter’s son? Is His mother not called Mary, and His brothers, James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas?

<sup>56</sup>And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man acquire all these things?”

<sup>58</sup>And He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14

John the Baptist Beheaded

<sup>2</sup>and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he himself has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him.”

<sup>8</sup>And after being prompted by her mother, she *said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter."

<sup>11</sup>And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

<sup>12</sup>John's disciples came and took away the body and buried it; and they went and reported to Jesus.

Five Thousand Men Fed

<sup>13</sup>Now when Jesus heard about John, He withdrew from there in a boat to a secluded place by Himself; and when the people heard about this, they followed Him on foot from the cities.

<sup>14</sup>When He came ashore, He saw a large crowd, and felt compassion for them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup>Now when it was evening, the disciples came to Him and said, "This place is secluded and the hour is already past to eat; send the crowds away, so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

<sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go; you give them something to eat!"

<sup>17</sup>They *said to Him, "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish."

<sup>18</sup>And He said, "Bring them here to Me."

<sup>19</sup>And ordering the crowds to sit down on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looked up toward heaven. He blessed the food and breaking the loaves, He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

<sup>21</sup>There were about five thousand men who ate, besides women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>22</sup>Immediately afterward He compelled the disciples to get into the boat and to go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away.

<sup>23</sup>After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray; and when it was evening, He was there alone.

<sup>24</sup>But the boat was already a long distance from the land, battered by the waves; for the wind was contrary.

<sup>25</sup>And in the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea.

<sup>26</sup>When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear.

<sup>27</sup>But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

<sup>28</sup>Peter responded and said to Him, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

<sup>29</sup>And He said, "Come!" And Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water, and came toward Jesus.

<sup>30</sup>But seeing the wind, he became frightened, and when he began to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup>Immediately Jesus reached out with His hand and took hold of him, and *said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

<sup>32</sup>When they got into the boat, the wind stopped.

<sup>33</sup>And those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, “You are truly God’s Son!”

<sup>35</sup>And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent word into all that surrounding region and brought to Him all who were sick;

<sup>36</sup>and they pleaded with Him that they might just touch the border of His cloak; and all who touched it were cured.

Matthew 15

Tradition and Commandment

<sup>3</sup>And He answered and said to them, “Why do you yourselves also break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?

<sup>4</sup>For God said, ‘HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER,’ and, ‘THE ONE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER IS TO BE PUT TO DEATH.’

<sup>5</sup>But you say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother, “Whatever I have that would help you has been given to God,”

<sup>6</sup>he is not to honor his father or mother.’ And by this you have invalidated the word of God for the sake of your tradition.

<sup>8</sup> ‘THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

<sup>9</sup> ‘AND IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS DOCTRINES THE COMMANDMENTS OF MEN.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>After Jesus called the crowd to Him, He said to them, “Hear and understand!

<sup>11</sup>It is not what enters the mouth that defiles the person, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles the person.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the disciples came and *said to Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement?”

<sup>13</sup>But He answered and said, “Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

<sup>14</sup>Leave them alone; they are blind guides of blind people. And if a person who is blind guides another who is blind, both will fall into a pit.”

The Heart of Mankind

<sup>15</sup>Peter said to Him, “Explain the parable to us.”

<sup>17</sup>Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated?

<sup>18</sup>But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and those things defile the person.

The Faith of a Canaanite Woman

<sup>21</sup>Jesus went away from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon.

<sup>22</sup>And a Canaanite woman from that region came out and began to cry out, saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely demon-possessed.”

<sup>23</sup>But He did not answer her with even a word. And His disciples came up and urged Him, saying, “Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us!”

<sup>24</sup>But He answered and said, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

<sup>25</sup>But she came and began to bow down before Him, saying, “Lord, help me!”

<sup>26</sup>Yet He answered and said, “It is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>27</sup>And she said, “Yes, Lord; but please help, for even the dogs feed on the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to her, “O woman, your faith is great; it shall be done for you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed at once.

Healing Crowds

<sup>29</sup>Departing from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and after going up on the mountain, He was sitting there.

<sup>30</sup>And large crowds came to Him bringing with them those who were limping, had impaired limbs, were blind, or were unable to speak, and many others, and they laid them down at His feet; and He healed them.

<sup>31</sup>So the crowd was astonished as they saw those who were unable to speak talking, those with impaired limbs restored, those who were limping walking around, and those who were blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

Four Thousand Men Fed

<sup>32</sup>Now Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, “I feel compassion for the people, because they have remained with Me now for three days and have nothing to eat; and I do not want to send them away hungry, for they might faint on the way.”

<sup>33</sup>The disciples *said to Him, “Where would we get so many loaves in this desolate place to satisfy such a large crowd?”

<sup>34</sup>And Jesus *said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup>And He directed the people to sit down on the ground;

<sup>36</sup>and He took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks, He broke them and started giving them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

<sup>39</sup>And sending away the crowds, Jesus got into the boat and came to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16

Pharisees and Sadducees Test Jesus

<sup>1</sup>The Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and putting Jesus to the test, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup>But He replied to them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

<sup>3</sup>And in the morning, ‘There will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but are you unable to discern the signs of the times?

<sup>4</sup>An evil and adulterous generation wants a sign; and so a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah.” And He left them and went away.

<sup>5</sup>And the disciples came to the other side of the sea, but they had forgotten to bring any bread.

<sup>6</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>7</sup>They began to discuss this among themselves, saying, “He said that because we did not bring any bread.”

<sup>8</sup>But Jesus, aware of this, said, “You men of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves the fact that you have no bread?

<sup>9</sup>Do you not yet understand nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you picked up?

<sup>10</sup>Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many large baskets you picked up?

<sup>11</sup>How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter’s Confession of Christ

<sup>13</sup>Now when Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He was asking His disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”

<sup>14</sup>And they said, “Some say John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah, or one of the other prophets.”

<sup>15</sup>He *said to them, “But who do you yourselves say that I am?”

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon Barjona, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.

<sup>18</sup>And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it.

<sup>19</sup>I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup>Then He gave the disciples strict orders that they were to tell no one that He was the Christ.

Jesus Foretells His Death

<sup>21</sup>From that time Jesus began to point out to His disciples that it was necessary for Him to go to Jerusalem and to suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised up on the third day.

<sup>22</sup>And yet Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This shall never happen to You!”

<sup>23</sup>But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God’s purposes, but men’s.”

Discipleship Is Costly

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.

<sup>25</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

<sup>26</sup>For what good will it do a person if he gains the whole world, but forfeits his soul? Or what will a person give in exchange for his soul?

<sup>27</sup>For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and WILL THEN REPAY EVERY PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS.

<sup>28</sup>“Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

Matthew 17

The Transfiguration

<sup>2</sup>And He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light.

<sup>4</sup>Peter responded and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If You want, I will make three tabernacles here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup>While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud said, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him!”

<sup>6</sup>When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground and were terrified.

<sup>7</sup>And Jesus came to them and touched them and said, “Get up, and do not be afraid.”

<sup>9</sup>When they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, “Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.”

<sup>11</sup>And He answered and said, “Elijah is coming and will restore all things;

<sup>12</sup>but I say to you that Elijah already came, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

The Demon-possessed Boy

<sup>14</sup>When they came to the crowd, a man came up to Jesus, falling on his knees before Him and saying,

<sup>15</sup>“Lord, have mercy on my son, because he has seizures and suffers terribly; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

<sup>16</sup>And I brought him to Your disciples, and they could not cure him.”

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus answered and said, “You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.”

<sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed at once.

<sup>19</sup>Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it out?”

<sup>20</sup>And He *said to them, “Because of your meager faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

<sup>22</sup>And while they were gathering together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men; <sup>23</sup>and they will kill Him, and He will be raised on the third day.” And they were deeply grieved.

The Temple Tax

<sup>24</sup>Now when they came to Capernaum, those who collected the two-drachma tax came to Peter and said, “Does your teacher not pay the two-drachma tax?”

<sup>25</sup>He *said, “Yes.” And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs or poll-tax, from their sons or from strangers?”

<sup>26</sup>When Peter said, “From strangers,” Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are exempt.

<sup>27</sup>However, so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a stater. Take that and give it to them for you and Me.”

Matthew 18

Rank in the Kingdom

<sup>1</sup>At that time the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

<sup>2</sup>And He called a child to Himself and set him among them,

<sup>3</sup>and said, “Truly I say to you, unless you change and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup>So whoever will humble himself like this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>6</sup>but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it is better for him that a heavy millstone be hung around his neck, and that he be drowned in the depths of the sea.

Stumbling Blocks

<sup>7</sup> “Woe to the world because of its stumbling blocks! For it is inevitable that stumbling blocks come; but woe to the person through whom the stumbling block comes!

<sup>8</sup> “And if your hand or your foot is causing you to sin, cut it off and throw it away from you; it is better for you to enter life maimed or without a foot, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire.

<sup>9</sup>And if your eye is causing you to sin, tear it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fiery hell.

<sup>10</sup> “See that you do not look down on one of these little ones; for I say to you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father who is in heaven.

Ninety-nine Plus One

<sup>12</sup> “What do you think? If any man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, and go and search for the one that is lost?

<sup>13</sup> And if it turns out that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that have not gone astray.

<sup>14</sup> So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven for one of these little ones to perish.

Discipline and Prayer

<sup>15</sup> “Now if your brother sins , go and show him his fault in private; if he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

<sup>16</sup> But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that ON THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY MATTER MAY BE CONFIRMED.

<sup>17</sup> And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, he is to be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup> Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven.

<sup>19</sup> “Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven.

<sup>20</sup> For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst.”

Forgiveness

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came up and said to Him, “Lord, how many times shall my brother sin against me and I still forgive him? Up to seven times?”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus *said to him, “I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy-seven times.

<sup>23</sup>“For this reason the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves.

<sup>24</sup>And when he had begun to settle them, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him.

<sup>25</sup>But since he did not have the means to repay, his master commanded that he be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and repayment be made.

<sup>26</sup>So the slave fell to the ground and prostrated himself before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.’

<sup>27</sup>And the master of that slave felt compassion, and he released him and forgave him the debt.

<sup>28</sup>But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe!’

<sup>29</sup>So his fellow slave fell to the ground and began to plead with him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you.’

<sup>30</sup>But he was unwilling, and went and threw him in prison until he would pay back what was owed.

<sup>31</sup>So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their master all that had happened.

<sup>32</sup>Then summoning him, his master *said to him, ‘You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.

<sup>33</sup>Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow slave, in the same way that I had mercy on you?’

<sup>34</sup>And his master, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he would repay all that was owed him.

<sup>35</sup>My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.”

Matthew 19

Concerning Divorce

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees came to Jesus, testing Him and asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?”

<sup>4</sup>And He answered and said, “Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE,

<sup>5</sup>and said, ‘FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND HIS MOTHER AND BE JOINED TO HIS WIFE, AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH’?

<sup>6</sup>So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, no person is to separate.”

<sup>7</sup>They *said to Him, “Why, then, did Moses command to GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE AND SEND HER AWAY?”

<sup>8</sup>He *said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way.

<sup>9</sup>And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery.”

<sup>11</sup>But He said to them, “Not all men can accept this statement, but only those to whom it has been given.

<sup>12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by people; and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who is able to accept this, let him accept it.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>13</sup>Then some children were brought to Him so that He would lay His hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them.

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, “Leave the children alone, and do not forbid them to come to Me; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>16</sup>And someone came to Him and said, “Teacher, what good thing shall I do so that I may obtain eternal life?”

<sup>17</sup>And He said to him, “Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is only One who is good; but if you want to enter life, keep the commandments.”

<sup>18</sup>Then he *said to Him, “Which ones?” And Jesus said, “YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT MURDER; YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY; YOU SHALL NOT STEAL; YOU SHALL NOT GIVE FALSE TESTIMONY;

<sup>19</sup>HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER; and YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.”

<sup>20</sup>The young man *said to Him, “All these I have kept; what am I still lacking?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, “If you want to be complete, go and sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

<sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving; for he was one who owned much property.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus said to His disciples, “Truly I say to you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>24</sup>And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>25</sup>When the disciples heard this, they were very astonished and said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>26</sup>And looking at them, Jesus said to them, “With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

The Disciples’ Reward

<sup>27</sup>Then Peter responded and said to Him, “Behold, we have left everything and followed You; what then will there be for us?”

<sup>28</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Truly I say to you, that you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on His glorious throne, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms on account of My name, will receive many times as much, and will inherit eternal life.

<sup>30</sup>But many who are first will be last; and the last, first.

Matthew 20

Laborers in the Vineyard

<sup>2</sup>When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard.

<sup>3</sup>And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace;

<sup>4</sup>and to those he said, ‘You go into the vineyard also, and whatever is right, I will give you.’ And so they went.

<sup>5</sup>Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did the same thing.

<sup>6</sup>And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing around; and he *said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day long?’

<sup>7</sup>They *said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He *said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard too.’

<sup>8</sup>“Now when evening came, the owner of the vineyard *said to his foreman, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, starting with the last group to the first.’

<sup>9</sup>When those hired about the eleventh hour came, each one received a denarius.

<sup>10</sup>And so when those hired first came, they thought that they would receive more; but each of them also received a denarius.

<sup>12</sup>saying, ‘These who were hired last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day’s work and the scorching heat.’

<sup>13</sup>But he answered and said to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius?’

<sup>14</sup>Take what is yours and go; but I want to give to this last person the same as to you.

<sup>15</sup>Is it not lawful for me to do what I want with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?’

<sup>16</sup>So the last shall be first, and the first, last.”

Death, Resurrection Foretold

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and on the road He said to them,

<sup>18</sup>“Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn Him to death,

<sup>19</sup>and they will hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock and flog and crucify, and on the third day He will be raised up.”

Request for Preferred Treatment

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons, bowing down and making a request of Him.

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus replied, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They *said to Him, “We are able.”

<sup>23</sup>He *said to them, “My cup you shall drink; but to sit at My right and at My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.”

<sup>24</sup>And after hearing this, the other ten disciples became indignant with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup>But Jesus called them to Himself and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles domineer over them, and those in high position exercise authority over them.

<sup>26</sup>It is not this way among you, but whoever wants to become prominent among you shall be your servant,

<sup>27</sup>and whoever desires to be first among you shall be your slave;

<sup>28</sup>just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Sight for Those Who Are Blind

<sup>29</sup>As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him.

<sup>30</sup>And two people who were blind, sitting by the road, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

<sup>31</sup>But the crowd sternly warned them to be quiet; yet they cried out all the more, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>32</sup>And Jesus stopped and called them, and said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>They *said to Him, “Lord, we want our eyes to be opened.”

<sup>34</sup>Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes; and immediately they regained their sight and followed Him.

Matthew 21

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>1</sup>When they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus then sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with it. Untie them and bring them to Me.

<sup>3</sup>And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them on immediately.”

<sup>5</sup>“SAY TO THE DAUGHTER OF ZION, ‘BEHOLD YOUR KING IS COMING TO YOU, HUMBLE, AND MOUNTED ON A DONKEY, EVEN ON A COLT, THE FOAL OF A DONKEY.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>The disciples went and did just as Jesus had instructed them,

<sup>7</sup>and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their cloaks on them; and He sat on the cloaks.

<sup>8</sup>Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road.

<sup>9</sup>Now the crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David; BLESSED IS THE ONE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD; Hosanna in the highest!”

<sup>11</sup>And the crowds were saying, “This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all those who were selling and buying on the temple grounds, and He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves.

<sup>13</sup>And He *said to them, “It is written: ‘MY HOUSE WILL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER’; but you are making it a DEN OF ROBBERS.”

<sup>14</sup>And those who were blind and those who limped came to Him in the temple area, and He healed them.

<sup>15</sup>But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He had done, and the children who were shouting in the temple area, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they became indignant,

<sup>16</sup>and they said to Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?” And Jesus *said to them, “Yes. Have you never read, ‘FROM THE MOUTHS OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABIES YOU HAVE PREPARED PRAISE FOR YOURSELF’?”

<sup>17</sup>And He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

The Barren Fig Tree

<sup>18</sup>Now in the early morning, when He was returning to the city, He became hungry.

<sup>19</sup>And seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it except leaves alone; and He *said to it, “No longer shall there ever be any fruit from you.” And at once the fig tree withered.

<sup>20</sup>Seeing this, the disciples were amazed and asked, “How did the fig tree wither all at once?”

<sup>21</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, “Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it will happen.

<sup>22</sup>And whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive it all.”

Authority Challenged

<sup>23</sup>When He entered the temple area, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, and said, “By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>But Jesus responded and said to them, “I will also ask you one question, which, if you tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>25</sup>The baptism of John was from what source: from heaven or from men?” And they began considering the implications among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

<sup>26</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the people; for they all regard John as a prophet.”

<sup>27</sup>And answering Jesus, they said, “We do not know.” He also said to them, “Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.

Parable of Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> “But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, ‘ Son, go work today in the vineyard.’

<sup>29</sup>But he replied, ‘I do not want to.’ Yet afterward he regretted it and went.

<sup>30</sup>And the man came to his second son and said the same thing; and he replied, ‘I will, sir’; and yet he did not go.

<sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of his father?” They *said, “The first.” Jesus *said to them, “Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you.

<sup>32</sup>For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even have second thoughts afterward so as to believe him.

Parable of the Landowner

<sup>33</sup> “Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who PLANTED A VINEYARD AND PUT A FENCE AROUND IT, AND DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT, AND BUILT A TOWER, and he leased it to vine-growers and went on a journey.

<sup>34</sup>And when the harvest time approached, he sent his slaves to the vine-growers to receive his fruit.

<sup>36</sup>Again, he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they did the same things to them.

<sup>37</sup>But afterward he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

<sup>38</sup>But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let’s kill him and take possession of his inheritance!’

<sup>39</sup>And they took him and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

<sup>40</sup>Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-growers?”

<sup>41</sup>They *said to Him, “He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other vine-growers, who will pay him the fruit in the proper seasons.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus *said to them, “Did you never read in the Scriptures, ‘A STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE; THIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE LORD, AND IT IS MARVELOUS IN OUR EYES’?”

<sup>43</sup>Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruit.

<sup>44</sup>And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”

<sup>46</sup>And although they sought to arrest Him, they feared the crowds, since they considered Him to be a prophet.

Matthew 22

Parable of the Marriage Feast

<sup>3</sup>And he sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they were unwilling to come.

<sup>4</sup>Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited, “Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened cattle are all butchered and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!”’

<sup>5</sup>But they paid no attention and went their separate ways, one to his own farm, another to his business, <sup>6</sup>and the rest seized his slaves and treated them abusively, and then killed them.

<sup>7</sup>Now the king was angry, and he sent his armies and destroyed those murderers and set their city on fire.

<sup>8</sup>Then he *said to his slaves, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

<sup>9</sup>So go to the main roads, and invite whomever you find there to the wedding feast.’

<sup>10</sup>Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good; and the wedding hall was filled with dinner guests.

<sup>11</sup> “But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in wedding clothes,

<sup>12</sup>and he *said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ And the man was speechless.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the servants, ‘Tie his hands and feet, and throw him into the outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place.’

Poll-tax to Caesar

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees went and plotted together how they might trap Him in what He said.

<sup>16</sup>And they *sent their disciples to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and do not care what anyone thinks; for You are not partial to anyone.

<sup>17</sup>Tell us then, what do You think? Is it permissible to pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus perceived their malice, and said, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?

<sup>19</sup>Show Me the coin used for the poll-tax.” And they brought Him a denarius.

<sup>21</sup>They *said to Him, “Caesar’s.” Then He *said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s; and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>22</sup>And hearing this, they were amazed; and they left Him and went away.

Jesus Answers the Sadducees

<sup>23</sup>On that day some Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Jesus and questioned Him,

<sup>25</sup>Now there were seven brothers among us; and the first married and died, and having no children, he left his wife to his brother.

<sup>26</sup>It was the same also with the second brother, and the third, down to the seventh.

<sup>28</sup>In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her in marriage.”

<sup>29</sup>But Jesus answered and said to them, “You are mistaken, since you do not understand the Scriptures nor the power of God.

<sup>30</sup>For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup>But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God:

<sup>32</sup>‘I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB’? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

<sup>34</sup>But when the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.

<sup>37</sup>And He said to him, “‘YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND.’

<sup>42</sup>“What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He?” They *said to Him, “The son of David.”

<sup>43</sup>He *said to them, “Then how does David in the Spirit call Him ‘Lord,’ saying,

<sup>44</sup> ‘THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, UNTIL I PUT YOUR ENEMIES UNDER YOUR FEET” ’?

<sup>45</sup>Therefore, if David calls Him ‘Lord,’ how is He his son?”

<sup>46</sup>No one was able to offer Him a word in answer, nor did anyone dare from that day on to ask Him any more questions.

Matthew 23

Hypocrisy Exposed

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples,

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, whatever they tell you, do and comply with it all, but do not do as they do; for they say things and do not do them.

<sup>4</sup>And they tie up heavy burdens and lay them on people’s shoulders, but they themselves are unwilling to move them with so much as their finger.

<sup>5</sup>And they do all their deeds to be noticed by other people; for they broaden their phylacteries and lengthen the tassels of their garments.

<sup>6</sup>And they love the place of honor at banquets, and the seats of honor in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup>and personal greetings in the marketplaces, and being called Rabbi by the people.

<sup>8</sup>But as for you, do not be called Rabbi; for only One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers and sisters.

<sup>9</sup>And do not call anyone on earth your father; for only One is your Father, He who is in heaven.

Eight Woes

<sup>13</sup> “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut the kingdom of heaven in front of people; for you do not enter it yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

<sup>15</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel around on sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves.

<sup>16</sup> “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple is obligated.’

<sup>17</sup>You fools and blind men! Which is more important, the gold or the temple that sanctified the gold?

<sup>18</sup>And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the offering that is on it is obligated.’

<sup>19</sup>You blind men, which is more important, the offering or the altar that sanctifies the offering?

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, the one who swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and by everything on it.

<sup>21</sup>And the one who swears by the temple, swears both by the temple and by Him who dwells in it.

<sup>22</sup>And the one who swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.

<sup>23</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the Law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence.

<sup>26</sup>You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the dish, so that the outside of it may also become clean.

<sup>27</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness.

<sup>28</sup>So you too, outwardly appear righteous to people, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous,

<sup>30</sup>and you say, ‘If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

<sup>31</sup>So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

<sup>32</sup>Fill up, then, the measure of the guilt of your fathers.

<sup>33</sup>You snakes, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the sentence of hell?

<sup>34</sup> “Therefore, behold, I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will flog in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city,

<sup>35</sup>so that upon you will fall the guilt of all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

<sup>36</sup>Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Grieving over Jerusalem

<sup>39</sup>For I say to you, from now on you will not see Me until you say, ‘BLESSED IS THE ONE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!’ ”

Matthew 24

Signs of Christ's Return

<sup>2</sup>But He responded and said to them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down.”

<sup>3</sup>And as He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, “See to it that no one misleads you.

<sup>5</sup>For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and they will mislead many people.

<sup>6</sup>And you will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end.

<sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

<sup>9</sup> “Then they will hand you over to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name.

<sup>10</sup>And at that time many will fall away, and they will betray one another and hate one another.

<sup>13</sup>But the one who endures to the end is the one who will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Perilous Times

<sup>15</sup> “Therefore when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place— let the reader understand—

<sup>16</sup>then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains.

<sup>20</sup>Moreover, pray that when you flee, it will not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath.

<sup>21</sup>For then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will again.

<sup>22</sup>And if those days had not been cut short, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

<sup>23</sup>Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or 'He is over here,' do not believe him.

<sup>24</sup>For false christs and false prophets will arise and will provide great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect.

<sup>26</sup>So if they say to you, 'Behold, He is in the wilderness,' do not go out; or, 'Behold, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe them.

<sup>27</sup>For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be.

<sup>28</sup>Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

The Glorious Return

<sup>29</sup> "But immediately after the tribulation of those days THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, AND THE STARS WILL FALL from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>30</sup>And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory.

<sup>31</sup>And He will send forth His angels with A GREAT TRUMPET BLAST, and THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>32</sup> “Now learn the parable from the fig tree: as soon as its branch has become tender and sprouts its leaves, you know that summer is near;

<sup>33</sup>so you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door.

<sup>34</sup>Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>35</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

<sup>36</sup> “But about that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

<sup>37</sup>For the coming of the Son of Man will be just like the days of Noah.

<sup>38</sup>For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark,

<sup>39</sup>and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away; so will the coming of the Son of Man be.

<sup>40</sup>At that time there will be two men in the field; one will be taken and one will be left.

<sup>41</sup>Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one will be left.

Be Ready for His Coming

<sup>42</sup> “Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming.

<sup>43</sup>But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.

<sup>44</sup>For this reason you must be ready as well; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will.

<sup>47</sup>Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

<sup>48</sup>But if that evil slave says in his heart, ‘My master is not coming for a long time,’

<sup>49</sup>and he begins to beat his fellow slaves, and he eats and drinks with those habitually drunk;

<sup>50</sup>then the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect, and at an hour that he does not know, <sup>51</sup>and he will cut him in two and assign him a place with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 25

Parable of Ten Virgins

<sup>1</sup> “Then the kingdom of heaven will be comparable to ten virgins, who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom.

<sup>6</sup>But at midnight there finally was a shout: ‘Behold, the groom! Come out to meet him.’

<sup>7</sup>Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps.

<sup>8</sup>But the foolish virgins said to the prudent ones, ‘Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’

<sup>9</sup>However, the prudent ones answered, ‘No, there most certainly would not be enough for us and you too; go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup>But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the groom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast; and the door was shut.

<sup>11</sup>Yet later, the other virgins also came, saying, ‘Lord, lord, open up for us.’

<sup>12</sup>But he answered, ‘Truly I say to you, I do not know you.’

<sup>13</sup>Be on the alert then, because you do not know the day nor the hour.

Parable of the Talents

<sup>14</sup> “For it is just like a man about to go on a journey, who called his own slaves and entrusted his possessions to them.

<sup>15</sup>To one he gave five talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and he went on his journey.

<sup>16</sup>The one who had received the five talents immediately went and did business with them, and earned five more talents.

<sup>17</sup>In the same way the one who had received the two talents earned two more.

<sup>18</sup>But he who received the one talent went away and dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master’s money.

<sup>19</sup> “Now after a long time the master of those slaves *came and *settled accounts with them.

<sup>20</sup>The one who had received the five talents came up and brought five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted five talents to me. See, I have earned five more talents.’

<sup>21</sup>His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter the joy of your master.’

<sup>22</sup>“Also the one who had received the two talents came up and said, ‘Master, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have earned two more talents.’

<sup>23</sup>His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter the joy of your master.’

<sup>24</sup>“Now the one who had received the one talent also came up and said, ‘Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed.

<sup>25</sup>And I was afraid, so I went away and hid your talent in the ground. See, you still have what is yours.’

<sup>26</sup>“But his master answered and said to him, ‘You worthless, lazy slave! Did you know that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter seed?

<sup>27</sup>Then you ought to have put my money in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore: take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.’

<sup>29</sup>“For to everyone who has, more shall be given, and he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away.

<sup>30</sup>And throw the worthless slave into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Judgment

<sup>31</sup> “But when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne.

<sup>32</sup> And all the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats;

<sup>34</sup> “Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in;

<sup>36</sup> naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.’

<sup>37</sup> Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink?

<sup>38</sup> And when did we see You as a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You?

<sup>39</sup> And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?’

<sup>40</sup> And the King will answer and say to them, ‘Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it for one of the least of these brothers or sisters of Mine, you did it for Me.’

<sup>41</sup> “Then He will also say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, you accursed people, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels;

<sup>42</sup> for I was hungry, and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me nothing to drink;

<sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and you did not invite Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me.’

<sup>44</sup>Then they themselves also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or as a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not take care of You?’

<sup>45</sup>Then He will answer them, ‘Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do it for Me, either.’

<sup>46</sup>These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Matthew 26

The Plot to Kill Jesus

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished all these words, He said to His disciples,

<sup>2</sup>“You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man is to be handed over for crucifixion.”

<sup>4</sup>and they plotted together to arrest Jesus covertly and kill Him.

The Precious Ointment

<sup>7</sup>a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very expensive perfume, and she poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table.

<sup>8</sup>But the disciples were indignant when they saw this, and said, “Why this waste?

<sup>9</sup>For this perfume could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup>But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why are you bothering the woman? For she has done a good deed for Me.

<sup>11</sup>For you always have the poor with you; but you do not always have Me.

<sup>12</sup>For when she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

<sup>13</sup>Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Judas’ Bargain

<sup>14</sup>Then one of the twelve, named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

<sup>15</sup>and said, “What are you willing to give me to betray Him to you?” And they set out for him thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>16</sup>And from then on he looked for a good opportunity to betray Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

<sup>18</sup>And He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is near; I am keeping the Passover at your house with My disciples.”’”

<sup>19</sup>The disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

The Last Passover

<sup>20</sup>Now when evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the twelve.

<sup>21</sup>And as they were eating, He said, “Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me.”

<sup>23</sup>And He answered, “He who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl is the one who will betray Me.

<sup>24</sup>The Son of Man is going away just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.”

<sup>25</sup>And Judas, who was betraying Him, said, “Surely it is not I, Rabbi?” Jesus *said to him, “You have said it yourself.”

The LORD’s Supper Instituted

<sup>26</sup>Now while they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is My body.”

<sup>27</sup>And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you;

<sup>28</sup>for this is My blood of the covenant, which is being poured out for many for forgiveness of sins.

<sup>29</sup>But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it with you, new, in My Father’s kingdom.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus *said to them, “You will all fall away because of Me this night, for it is written: ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK WILL BE SCATTERED.’

<sup>32</sup>But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

<sup>33</sup>But Peter replied to Him, “Even if they all fall away because of You, I will never fall away!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, “Truly I say to you that this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>35</sup>Peter *said to Him, “Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” All the disciples said the same thing as well.

The Garden of Gethsemane

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus *came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and *told His disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

<sup>37</sup>And He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with Him, and began to be grieved and distressed.

<sup>38</sup>Then He *said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch with Me.”

<sup>39</sup>And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will.”

<sup>40</sup>And He *came to the disciples and *found them sleeping, and He *said to Peter, “So, you men could not keep watch with Me for one hour?

<sup>41</sup>Keep watching and praying, so that you do not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>42</sup>He went away again a second time and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink from it, Your will be done.”

<sup>43</sup>Again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

<sup>44</sup>And He left them again, and went away and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more.

<sup>45</sup>Then He *came to the disciples and *said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Jesus’ Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>48</sup>Now he who was betraying Him gave them a sign previously, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; arrest Him.”

<sup>49</sup>And immediately Judas went up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Friend, do what you have come for.” Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested Him.

<sup>51</sup>And behold, one of those who were with Jesus reached and drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus *said to him, “Put your sword back into its place; for all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword.

<sup>53</sup>Or do you think that I cannot appeal to My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels?

<sup>54</sup>How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that it must happen this way?”

<sup>55</sup>At that time Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would against a man inciting a revolt? Every day I used to sit within the temple grounds teaching, and you did not arrest Me.

<sup>56</sup>But all this has taken place so that the Scriptures of the prophets will be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

Jesus before Caiaphas

<sup>57</sup>Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

<sup>58</sup>But Peter was following Him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and he came inside and sat down with the officers to see the outcome.

<sup>59</sup>Now the chief priests and the entire Council kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus, so that they might put Him to death.

<sup>60</sup>They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later on two came forward,

<sup>61</sup>and said, “This man stated, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days.’ ”

<sup>62</sup>The high priest stood up and said to Him, “Do You offer no answer for what these men are testifying against You?”

<sup>63</sup>But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, “I place You under oath by the living God, to tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.”

<sup>64</sup>Jesus *said to him, “You have said it yourself. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his robes and said, “He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? See, you have now heard the blasphemy;

<sup>68</sup>and said, “Prophecy to us, You Christ; who is the one who hit You?”

Peter’s Denials

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a slave woman came to him and said, “You too were with Jesus the Galilean.”

<sup>70</sup>But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about.”

<sup>71</sup>When he had gone out to the gateway, another slave woman saw him and *said to those who were there, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>72</sup>And again he denied it, with an oath: “I do not know the man.”

<sup>73</sup>A little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “You really are one of them as well, since even the way you talk gives you away.”

<sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse and swear, “I do not know the Man!” And immediately a rooster crowed.

<sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered the statement that Jesus had made: “Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27

Judas' Remorse

<sup>2</sup>and they bound Him and led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate the governor.

<sup>3</sup>Then when Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

<sup>4</sup>saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You shall see to it yourself!"

<sup>5</sup>And he threw the pieces of silver into the temple sanctuary and left; and he went away and hanged himself.

<sup>7</sup>And they conferred together and with the money bought the Potter's Field as a burial place for strangers.

<sup>8</sup>For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

<sup>9</sup>Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "AND THEY TOOK THE THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER, THE PRICE OF THE ONE WHOSE PRICE HAD BEEN SET by the sons of Israel;

<sup>10</sup>AND THEY GAVE THEM FOR THE POTTER'S FIELD, JUST AS THE LORD DIRECTED ME."

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>11</sup>Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, "So You are the King of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "It is as you say."

<sup>12</sup>And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He did not offer any answer.

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate *said to Him, “Do You not hear how many things they are testifying against You?”

<sup>14</sup>And still He did not answer him in regard to even a single charge, so the governor was greatly amazed.

<sup>16</sup>And at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.

<sup>17</sup>So when the people gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?”

<sup>18</sup>For he knew that it was because of envy that they had handed Him over.

<sup>19</sup>And while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, “See that you have nothing to do with that righteous Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him.”

<sup>20</sup>But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas, and to put Jesus to death.

<sup>21</sup>And the governor said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

<sup>22</sup>Pilate *said to them, “Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?” They all *said, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>23</sup>But he said, “Why, what evil has He done?” Yet they kept shouting all the more, saying, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>25</sup>And all the people replied, “His blood shall be on us and on our children!”

<sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas for them; but after having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

<sup>27</sup>Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole Roman cohort to Him.

<sup>31</sup>And after they had mocked Him, they took the cloak off Him and put His own garments back on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

<sup>32</sup>As they were coming out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon, whom they compelled to carry His cross.

The Crucifixion

<sup>33</sup>And when they came to a place called Golgotha, which means Place of a Skull,

<sup>34</sup>they gave Him wine mixed with bile to drink; and after tasting it, He was unwilling to drink it.

<sup>35</sup>And when they had crucified Him, they divided His garments among themselves by casting lots.

<sup>40</sup>and saying, “You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross.”

<sup>41</sup>In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking Him and saying,

<sup>42</sup>“He saved others; He cannot save Himself! He is the King of Israel; let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe in Him.

<sup>43</sup>HE HAS TRUSTED IN GOD; LET GOD RESCUE Him now, IF HE TAKES PLEASURE IN HIM; for He said, ‘I am the Son of God.’ ”

<sup>44</sup>And the rebels who had been crucified with Him were also insulting Him in the same way.

<sup>45</sup>Now from the sixth hour darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour.

<sup>46</sup>And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “ELI, ELI, LEMA SABAKTANEI?” that is, “MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME?”

<sup>47</sup>And some of those who were standing there, when they heard it, said, “This man is calling for Elijah.”

<sup>49</sup>But the rest of them said, “Let us see if Elijah comes to save Him.”

<sup>51</sup>And behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth shook and the rocks were split.

<sup>52</sup>Also the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;

<sup>53</sup>and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered the holy city and appeared to many.

<sup>54</sup>Now as for the centurion and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the other things that were happening, they became extremely frightened and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

<sup>56</sup>Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>57</sup>Now when it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea came, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

<sup>58</sup>This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him.

<sup>59</sup>And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup>and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away.

<sup>61</sup>And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

<sup>62</sup>Now on the next day, that is, the day which is after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together with Pilate,

<sup>63</sup>and they said, “Sir, we remember that when that deceiver was still alive, He said, ‘After three days I am rising.’

<sup>64</sup>Therefore, give orders for the tomb to be made secure until the third day; otherwise, His disciples may come and steal Him, and say to the people, ‘He has risen from the dead,’ and the last deception will be worse than the first.”

<sup>65</sup>Pilate said to them, “You have a guard; go, make it as secure as you know how.”

<sup>66</sup>And they went and made the tomb secure with the guard, sealing the stone.

Matthew 28

Jesus Is Risen!

<sup>1</sup>Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>And behold, a severe earthquake had occurred, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

<sup>3</sup>And his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.

<sup>5</sup>And the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified.

<sup>6</sup>He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He was lying.

<sup>7</sup>And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see Him; behold, I have told you.”

<sup>8</sup>And they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to report to His disciples.

<sup>9</sup>And behold, Jesus met them and said, “Rejoice!” And they came up and took hold of His feet, and worshiped Him.

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus *said to them, “Do not be afraid; go, bring word to My brothers to leave for Galilee, and there they will see Me.”

<sup>11</sup>Now while they were on their way, some of the men from the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened.

<sup>12</sup>And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers,

<sup>13</sup>and said, “You are to say, ‘His disciples came at night and stole Him while we were asleep.’

<sup>14</sup>And if this comes to the governor’s ears, we will appease him and keep you out of trouble.”

<sup>15</sup>And they took the money and did as they had been instructed; and this story was widely spread among the Jews and is to this day.

The Great Commission

<sup>16</sup>But the eleven disciples proceeded to Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had designated to them.

<sup>17</sup>And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some were doubtful.

<sup>18</sup>And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.

<sup>19</sup>Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit,

<sup>20</sup>teaching them to follow all that I commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Mark

Mark 1

Preaching of John the Baptist

- <sup>1</sup>The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God,
- <sup>2</sup>just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: “BEHOLD, I AM SENDING MY MESSENGER BEFORE YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY;
- <sup>3</sup>THE VOICE OF ONE CALLING OUT IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD, MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT!’ ”
- <sup>4</sup>John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
- <sup>5</sup>And all the country of Judea was going out to him, and all the people of Jerusalem; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.
- <sup>6</sup>John was clothed with camel’s hair and wore a leather belt around his waist, and his diet was locusts and wild honey.
- <sup>7</sup>And he was preaching, saying, “After me One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to bend down and untie the straps of His sandals.
- <sup>8</sup>I baptized you with water; but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

The Baptism of Jesus

- <sup>9</sup>In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
- <sup>10</sup>And immediately coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens opening, and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon Him;
- <sup>11</sup>and a voice came from the heavens: “You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.”
- <sup>12</sup>And immediately the Spirit *brought Him out into the wilderness.

<sup>13</sup>And He was in the wilderness for forty days, being tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving Him.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

<sup>14</sup>Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God,

<sup>15</sup>and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent and believe in the gospel.”

<sup>16</sup>As He was going along the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Follow Me, and I will have you become fishers of people.”

<sup>20</sup>Immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and went away to follow Him.

<sup>21</sup>They *went into Capernaum; and immediately on the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and began to teach.

<sup>22</sup>And they were amazed at His teaching; for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

<sup>23</sup>Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

<sup>24</sup>saying, “What business do You have with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are: the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!”

<sup>26</sup>After throwing him into convulsions and crying out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit came out of him.

<sup>27</sup>And they were all amazed, so they debated among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him.”

<sup>28</sup>Immediately the news about Him spread everywhere into all the surrounding region of Galilee.

Crowds Healed

<sup>30</sup>Now Simon’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and they immediately *spoke to Jesus about her.

<sup>31</sup>And He came to her and raised her up, taking her by the hand, and the fever left her, and she served them.

<sup>32</sup>Now when evening came, after the sun had set, they began bringing to Him all who were ill and those who were demon-possessed.

<sup>34</sup>And He healed many who were ill with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and He would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

<sup>38</sup>He *said to them, “Let’s go somewhere else to the towns nearby, so that I may also preach there; for this is why I came.”

<sup>39</sup>And He went into their synagogues preaching throughout Galilee, and casting out the demons.

<sup>40</sup>And a man with leprosy *came to Jesus, imploring Him and kneeling down, and saying to Him, “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>41</sup>Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out with His hand and touched him, and *said to him, “I am willing; be cleansed.”

<sup>44</sup>and He *said to him, “See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

<sup>45</sup>But he went out and began to proclaim it freely and to spread the news around, to such an extent that Jesus could no longer publicly enter a city, but stayed out in unpopulated areas; and they were coming to Him from everywhere.

Mark 2

The Paralyzed Man Healed

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus came back to Capernaum a few days later, it was heard that He was at home.

<sup>2</sup>And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer space, not even near the door; and He was speaking the word to them.

<sup>3</sup>And some people *came, bringing to Him a man who was paralyzed, carried by four men.

<sup>4</sup>And when they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Him; and after digging an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralyzed man was lying.

<sup>5</sup>And Jesus, seeing their faith, *said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>6</sup>But some of the scribes were sitting there and thinking it over in their hearts,

<sup>7</sup>“Why does this man speak that way? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins except God alone?”

<sup>8</sup>Immediately Jesus, aware in His spirit that they were thinking that way within themselves, *said to them, “Why are you thinking about these things in your hearts?”

<sup>9</sup>Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven’; or to say, ‘Get up, and pick up your pallet and walk’?

<sup>10</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He *said to the paralyzed man,

<sup>12</sup>And he got up and immediately picked up the pallet and went out in the sight of everyone, so that they were all amazed and were glorifying God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

<sup>13</sup>And He went out again by the seashore; and all the people were coming to Him, and He was teaching them.

Levi (Matthew) Called

<sup>14</sup>As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting in the tax office, and He *said to him, “Follow Me!” And he got up and followed Him.

<sup>15</sup>And it *happened that He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many of them, and they were following Him.

<sup>16</sup>When the scribes of the Pharisees saw that He was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, they said to His disciples, “Why is He eating with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>17</sup>And hearing this, Jesus *said to them, “It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

<sup>18</sup>John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and they *came and *said to Him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to them, "While the groom is with them, the attendants of the groom cannot fast, can they? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast.

<sup>20</sup>But the days will come when the groom is taken away from them, and then they will fast, on that day.

Question of the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup>And it happened that He was passing through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples began to make their way along while picking the heads of grain.

<sup>24</sup>The Pharisees were saying to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

<sup>25</sup>And He *said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and he and his companions became hungry;

<sup>26</sup>how he entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the consecrated bread, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests, and he also gave it to those who were with him?"

<sup>27</sup>Jesus said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

Mark 3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup>He entered a synagogue again; and a man was there whose hand was withered.

<sup>2</sup>And they were watching Him closely to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him.

<sup>3</sup>He *said to the man with the withered hand, “Get up and come forward!”

<sup>4</sup>And He *said to them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do harm, to save a life or to kill?” But they kept silent.

<sup>6</sup>The Pharisees went out and immediately began conspiring with the Herodians against Him, as to how they might put Him to death.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples; and a large multitude from Galilee followed, and also from Judea, <sup>8</sup>and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon, a great number of people heard about everything that He was doing and came to Him.

<sup>9</sup>And He told His disciples to see that a boat would be ready for Him because of the masses, so that they would not crowd Him;

<sup>10</sup>for He had healed many, with the result that all those who had diseases pushed in around Him in order to touch Him.

<sup>11</sup>And whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they would fall down before Him and shout, “You are the Son of God!”

<sup>12</sup>And He strongly warned them not to reveal who He was.

The Twelve Are Chosen

<sup>13</sup>And He *went up on the mountain and *summoned those whom He Himself wanted, and they came to Him.

<sup>14</sup>And He appointed twelve, so that they would be with Him and that He could send them out to preach,

<sup>17</sup>James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to them He gave the name Boanerges, which means, “Sons of Thunder”);

<sup>18</sup>and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot;

<sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

<sup>20</sup>And He *came home, and the crowd *gathered again, to such an extent that they could not even eat a meal.

<sup>21</sup>And when His own people heard about this, they came out to take custody of Him; for they were saying, “He has lost His senses.”

<sup>23</sup>And so He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables: “How can Satan cast out Satan?

<sup>26</sup>And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but he is finished!

<sup>27</sup>But no one can enter the strong man’s house and plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.

<sup>28</sup> “Truly I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons and daughters of men, and whatever blasphemies they commit;

<sup>29</sup>but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”—

<sup>30</sup>because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

<sup>32</sup>And a crowd was sitting around Him, and they *said to Him, “Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are outside looking for You.”

<sup>34</sup>And looking around at those who were sitting around Him, He *said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

<sup>35</sup>For whoever does the will of God, this is My brother, and sister, and mother.”

Mark 4

Parable of the Sower and Soils

<sup>1</sup>Again He began to teach by the sea. And such a very large crowd gathered to Him that He got into a boat on the sea and sat down; and the whole crowd was by the sea on the land.

<sup>2</sup>And He was teaching them many things in parables, and was saying to them in His teaching,

<sup>4</sup>as he was sowing, some seed fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate it up.

<sup>5</sup>Other seed fell on the rocky ground where it did not have much soil; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of soil.

<sup>6</sup>And when the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

<sup>7</sup>Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no crop.

<sup>8</sup>Other seeds fell into the good soil, and as they grew up and increased, they yielded a crop and produced thirty, sixty, and a hundred times as much.”

<sup>9</sup>And He was saying, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

<sup>10</sup>As soon as He was alone, His followers, along with the twelve disciples, began asking Him about the parables.

<sup>11</sup>And He was saying to them, “To you has been given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but for those who are outside, everything comes in parables, <sup>12</sup>so that WHILE SEEING THEY MAY SEE, AND NOT PERCEIVE, AND WHILE HEARING, THEY MAY HEAR, AND NOT UNDERSTAND, OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT RETURN AND IT WOULD BE FORGIVEN THEM.”

Explanation of the Parable

<sup>13</sup>And He *said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How will you understand all the parables?

<sup>15</sup>These are the ones who are beside the road where the word is sown; and when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word which has been sown in them.

<sup>16</sup>And in a similar way these are the ones sown with seed on the rocky places, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy;

<sup>17</sup>and yet they have no firm root in themselves, but are only temporary; then, when affliction or persecution occurs because of the word, immediately they fall away.

<sup>18</sup>And others are the ones sown with seed among the thorns; these are the ones who have heard the word, <sup>19</sup>but the worries of the world, and the deceitfulness of wealth, and the desires for other things enter and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

<sup>20</sup>And those are the ones sown with seed on the good soil; and they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty, sixty, and a hundred times as much.”

<sup>21</sup>And He was saying to them, “A lamp is not brought to be put under a basket, or under a bed, is it? Is it not brought to be put on the lampstand?

<sup>22</sup>For nothing is hidden, except to be revealed; nor has anything been secret, but that it would come to light.

<sup>24</sup>And He was saying to them, “Take care what you listen to. By your standard of measure it will be measured to you; and more will be given you besides.

<sup>25</sup>For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

Parable of the Seed

<sup>26</sup>And He was saying, “The kingdom of God is like a man who casts seed upon the soil;

<sup>27</sup>and he goes to bed at night and gets up daily, and the seed sprouts and grows—how, he himself does not know.

<sup>28</sup>The soil produces crops by itself; first the stalk, then the head, then the mature grain in the head.

<sup>29</sup>Now when the crop permits, he immediately puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup>And He was saying, “How shall we picture the kingdom of God, or by what parable shall we present it?

<sup>31</sup>It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the soil, though it is the smallest of all the seeds that are upon the soil,

<sup>32</sup>yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants, and forms large branches, with the result that THE BIRDS OF THE SKY can NEST UNDER its shade.”

<sup>33</sup>And with many such parables He was speaking the word to them, so far as they were able to understand it;

<sup>34</sup>and He did not speak to them without a parable; but He was explaining everything privately to His own disciples.

Jesus Stills the Sea

<sup>35</sup>On that day, when evening came, He *said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side.”

<sup>36</sup>After dismissing the crowd, they *took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him.

<sup>37</sup>And a fierce gale of wind *developed, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling with water.

<sup>38</sup>And yet Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they *woke Him and *said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?”

<sup>39</sup>And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Hush, be still.” And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm.

<sup>40</sup>And He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

<sup>41</sup>They became very much afraid and said to one another, “Who, then, is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

Mark 5

The Demon-possessed Man Cured

<sup>1</sup>They came to the other side of the sea, into the region of the Gerasenes.

<sup>3</sup>He lived among the tombs; and no one was able to bind him anymore, not even with a chain, <sup>4</sup>because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles broken in pieces; and no one was strong enough to subdue him.

<sup>5</sup>Constantly, night and day, he was screaming among the tombs and in the mountains, and cutting himself with stones.

<sup>6</sup>Seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him;

<sup>7</sup>and shouting with a loud voice, he *said, “What business do You have with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!”

<sup>8</sup>For He had already been saying to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

<sup>9</sup>And He was asking him, “What is your name?” And he *said to Him, “My name is Legion, for we are many.”

<sup>10</sup>And he begged Him earnestly not to send them out of the region.

<sup>11</sup>Now there was a large herd of pigs feeding nearby on the mountain.

<sup>12</sup>And the demons begged Him, saying, “Send us into the pigs so that we may enter them.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus gave them permission. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered the pigs; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they were drowned in the sea.

<sup>14</sup>Their herdsmen ran away and reported it in the city and in the countryside. And the people came to see what it was that had happened.

<sup>15</sup>And then they *came to Jesus and *saw the man who had been demon-possessed sitting down, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had previously had the “legion”; and they became frightened.

<sup>16</sup>Those who had seen it described to them how it had happened to the demon-possessed man, and all about the pigs.

<sup>17</sup>And they began to beg Him to leave their region.

<sup>18</sup>And as He was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed was begging Him that he might accompany Him.

<sup>19</sup>And He did not let him, but He *said to him, “Go home to your people and report to them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He had mercy on you.”

<sup>20</sup>And he went away and began to proclaim in Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Miracles and Healing

<sup>22</sup>And one of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, *came, and upon seeing Him, *fell at His feet

<sup>23</sup>and *pleaded with Him earnestly, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will get well and live.”

<sup>24</sup>And He went off with him; and a large crowd was following Him and pressing in on Him.

<sup>25</sup>A woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years,

<sup>26</sup>and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but instead had become worse—

<sup>27</sup>after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak.

<sup>28</sup>For she had been saying to herself, “If I just touch His garments, I will get well.”

<sup>29</sup>And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

<sup>30</sup>And immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that power from Him had gone out, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?”

<sup>31</sup>And His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’ ”

<sup>32</sup>And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.

<sup>33</sup>But the woman, fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup>And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be cured of your disease.”

<sup>35</sup>While He was still speaking, people *came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, “Your daughter has died; why bother the Teacher further?”

<sup>36</sup>But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, *said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid, only believe.”

<sup>37</sup>And He allowed no one to accompany Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

<sup>38</sup>They *came to the house of the synagogue official, and He *saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing.

<sup>39</sup>And after entering, He *said to them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child has not died, but is asleep.”

<sup>40</sup>And they began laughing at Him. But putting them all outside, He *took along the child’s father and mother and His own companions, and *entered the room where the child was in bed.

<sup>41</sup>And taking the child by the hand, He *said to her, “Talitha, kum!” (which translated means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).

<sup>42</sup>And immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astonished.

<sup>43</sup>And He gave them strict orders that no one was to know about this, and He told them to have something given her to eat.

Mark 6

Teaching at Nazareth

<sup>2</sup>And when the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue; and the many listeners were astonished, saying, “Where did this Man learn these things, and what is this wisdom that has been given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by His hands?”

<sup>5</sup>And He could not do any miracle there except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.

<sup>6</sup>And He was amazed at their unbelief. And He was going around the villages, teaching.

The Twelve Sent Out

<sup>7</sup>And He *summoned the twelve and began to send them out in pairs, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits;

<sup>8</sup>and He instructed them that they were to take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belt—

<sup>9</sup>but to wear sandals; and He added, “Do not wear two tunics.”

<sup>10</sup>And He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave town.

<sup>11</sup>Any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you go out from there, shake the dust off the soles of your feet as a testimony against them.”

<sup>12</sup>And they went out and preached that people are to repent.

<sup>13</sup>And they were casting out many demons and were anointing with oil many sick people and healing them.

John’s Fate Recalled

<sup>14</sup>And King Herod heard about it, for His name had become well known; and people were saying, “John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him.”

<sup>16</sup>But when Herod heard about it, he kept saying, “John, whom I beheaded, has risen!”

<sup>17</sup>For Herod himself had sent men and had John arrested and bound in prison on account of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he had married her.

<sup>18</sup>For John had been saying to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”

<sup>19</sup>And Herodias held a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death, and could not do so;

<sup>20</sup>for Herod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he had been protecting him. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed; and yet he used to enjoy listening to him.

<sup>21</sup>An opportune day came when Herod, on his birthday, held a banquet for his nobles and military commanders, and the leading people of Galilee;

<sup>22</sup>and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests; and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you.”

<sup>23</sup>And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my kingdom.”

<sup>24</sup>And she went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask for?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptist.”

<sup>26</sup>And although the king was very sorry, because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he was unwilling to refuse her.

<sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded him to bring back his head. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, <sup>28</sup>and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup>When his disciples heard about this, they came and carried away his body, and laid it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>The apostles *gathered together with Jesus; and they reported to Him all that they had done and taught.

<sup>31</sup>And He *said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while.” (For there were many people coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.)

<sup>32</sup>And they went away in the boat to a secluded place by themselves.

Five Thousand Men Fed

<sup>33</sup> The people saw them going, and many recognized them and ran there together on foot from all the cities, and got there ahead of them.

<sup>34</sup>When Jesus went ashore, He saw a large crowd, and He felt compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup>And when it was already late, His disciples came up to Him and said, “This place is secluded and it is already late;

<sup>36</sup>send them away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

<sup>37</sup>But He answered them, “You give them something to eat!” And they *said to Him, “Shall we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread, and give it to them to eat?”

<sup>38</sup>But He *said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go look!” And when they found out, they *said, “Five, and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>And He ordered them all to recline by groups on the green grass.

<sup>41</sup>And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He blessed the food and broke the loaves and He gave them to the disciples again and again to set before them; and He divided the two fish among them all.

<sup>42</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied;

<sup>43</sup>and they picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces of bread, and of the fish.

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>45</sup>And immediately Jesus had His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He Himself *dismissed the crowd.

<sup>47</sup>When it was evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land.

<sup>48</sup>Seeing them straining at the oars—for the wind was against them—at about the fourth watch of the night, He *came to them, walking on the sea; and He intended to pass by them.

<sup>49</sup>But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought that it was a ghost, and they cried out;

<sup>50</sup>for they all saw Him and were terrified. But immediately He spoke with them and *said to them, “Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid.”

<sup>51</sup>Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were utterly astonished,

<sup>52</sup>for they had not gained any insight from the incident of the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Healing at Gennesaret

<sup>53</sup>When they had crossed over they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored at the shore.

<sup>54</sup>And when they got out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him,

<sup>55</sup>and ran about that entire country and began carrying here and there on their pallets those who were sick, to wherever they heard He was.

<sup>56</sup>And wherever He entered villages, or cities, or a countryside, they were laying the sick in the marketplaces and imploring Him that they might just touch the fringe of His cloak; and all who touched it were being healed.

Mark 7

Followers of Tradition

<sup>2</sup>and saw that some of His disciples were eating their bread with unholy hands, that is, unwashed.

<sup>3</sup>(For the Pharisees and all the other Jews do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, thereby holding firmly to the tradition of the elders;

<sup>4</sup>and when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they completely cleanse themselves; and there are many other things which they have received as traditions to firmly hold, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, and copper pots.)

<sup>5</sup>And the Pharisees and the scribes *asked Him, “Why do Your disciples not walk in accordance with the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unholy hands?”

<sup>6</sup>But He said to them, “Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: ‘THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

<sup>7</sup>‘AND IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS DOCTRINES THE COMMANDMENTS OF MEN.’

<sup>9</sup>He was also saying to them, “You are experts at setting aside the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition.

<sup>10</sup>For Moses said, ‘HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER’; and, ‘THE ONE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER, IS CERTAINLY TO BE PUT TO DEATH’;

<sup>11</sup>but you say, ‘If a person says to his father or his mother, whatever I have that would help you is Corban (that is, given to God),’

<sup>12</sup>you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother;

<sup>13</sup>thereby invalidating the word of God by your tradition which you have handed down; and you do many things such as that.”

The Heart of Mankind

<sup>14</sup>After He called the crowd to Him again, He began saying to them, “Listen to Me, all of you, and understand:

<sup>15</sup>there is nothing outside the person which can defile him if it goes into him; but the things which come out of the person are what defile the person.”

<sup>17</sup>And when He later entered a house, away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him about the parable.

<sup>18</sup>And He *said to them, “Are you so lacking in understanding as well? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the person from outside cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not go into his heart, but into his stomach, and is eliminated?” (Thereby He declared all foods clean.)

<sup>21</sup>For from within, out of the hearts of people, come the evil thoughts, acts of sexual immorality, thefts, murders, acts of adultery,

The Syrophoenician Woman

<sup>24</sup>Now Jesus got up and went from there to the region of Tyre. And when He had entered a house, He wanted no one to know about it; and yet He could not escape notice.

<sup>25</sup>But after hearing about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately came and fell at His feet.

<sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician descent. And she repeatedly asked Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

<sup>27</sup>And He was saying to her, “Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>28</sup>But she answered and *said to Him, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table feed on the children’s crumbs.”

<sup>29</sup>And He said to her, “Because of this answer, go; the demon has gone out of your daughter.”

<sup>30</sup>And after going back to her home, she found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

<sup>32</sup>And they *brought to Him one who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they *begged Him to lay His hand on him.

<sup>33</sup>And Jesus took him aside from the crowd, by himself, and put His fingers in his ears, and after spitting, He touched his tongue with the saliva;

<sup>34</sup>and looking up to heaven with a deep sigh, He *said to him, “Ephphatha!” that is, “Be opened!”

<sup>35</sup>And his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was removed, and he began speaking plainly.

<sup>36</sup>And He gave them orders not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they continued to proclaim it.

<sup>37</sup>And they were utterly astonished, saying, “He has done all things well; He makes even those who are deaf hear, and those who are unable to talk, speak.”

Mark 8

Four Thousand Men Fed

<sup>1</sup>In those days, when there was again a large crowd and they had nothing to eat, Jesus summoned His disciples and *said to them,

<sup>2</sup>“I feel compassion for the people because they have remained with Me for three days already and have nothing to eat.

<sup>3</sup>And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way; and some of them have come from a great distance.”

<sup>4</sup>And His disciples replied to Him, “Where will anyone be able to find enough bread here in this desolate place to satisfy these people?”

<sup>5</sup>And He was asking them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven.”

<sup>6</sup>And He *directed the people to recline on the ground; and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them, and started giving them to His disciples to serve, and they served them to the people.

<sup>7</sup>They also had a few small fish; and after He had blessed them, He told the disciples to serve these as well.

<sup>8</sup>And they ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven large baskets full of what was left over of the broken pieces.

<sup>9</sup>About four thousand men were there; and He dismissed them.

<sup>10</sup>And immediately He got into the boat with His disciples and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

<sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, demanding from Him a sign from heaven, to test Him.

<sup>12</sup>Sighing deeply in His spirit, He *said, “Why does this generation demand a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation!”

<sup>13</sup>And leaving them, He again embarked and went away to the other side.

<sup>14</sup>And the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

<sup>15</sup>And He was giving orders to them, saying, “Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and the leaven of Herod.”

<sup>16</sup>And they began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread.

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus, aware of this, *said to them, “Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet comprehend or understand? Do you still have your heart hardened?

<sup>18</sup>HAVING EYES, DO YOU NOT SEE? AND HAVING EARS, DO YOU NOT HEAR? And do you not remember,

<sup>19</sup>when I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces you picked up?” They *said to Him, “Twelve.”

<sup>20</sup>“When I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?” And they *said to Him, “Seven.”

<sup>22</sup>And they *came to Bethsaida. And some people *brought a man who was blind to Jesus and *begged Him to touch him.

<sup>23</sup>Taking the man who was blind by the hand, He brought him out of the village; and after spitting in his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, “Do you see anything?”

<sup>25</sup>Then again He laid His hands on his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and began to see everything clearly.

<sup>26</sup>And He sent him to his home, saying, “Do not even enter the village.”

Peter’s Confession of Christ

<sup>27</sup>Jesus went out, along with His disciples, to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way He questioned His disciples, saying to them, “Who do people say that I am?”

<sup>29</sup>And He continued questioning them: “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered and *said to Him, “You are the Christ.”

<sup>31</sup>And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise from the dead.

<sup>32</sup>And He was stating the matter plainly. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

<sup>33</sup>But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter and *said, “Get behind Me, Satan; for you are not setting your mind on God’s purposes, but on man’s.”

<sup>34</sup>And He summoned the crowd together with His disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.

<sup>35</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel’s will save it.

<sup>36</sup>For what does it benefit a person to gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul?

<sup>38</sup>For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9

The Transfiguration

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus was saying to them, “Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God when it has come with power.”

<sup>2</sup>And six days later Jesus *took with Him Peter, James, and John, and *brought them up on a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them;

<sup>3</sup>and His garments became radiant and exceedingly white, as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

<sup>4</sup>And Elijah appeared to them along with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter responded and *said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good that we are here; let’s make three tabernacles, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>9</sup>As they were coming down from the mountain, He gave them orders not to relate to anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose from the dead.

<sup>10</sup>They seized upon that statement, discussing with one another what rising from the dead meant.

<sup>11</sup>And they asked Him, saying, “Why is it that the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

<sup>12</sup>And He said to them, “Elijah does come first and he restores all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He will suffer many things and be treated with contempt?

<sup>13</sup>But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written of him.”

All Things Possible

<sup>14</sup>And when they came back to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

<sup>15</sup>Immediately, when the entire crowd saw Him, they were amazed and began running up to greet Him.

<sup>16</sup>And He asked them, “What are you disputing with them?”

<sup>17</sup>And one person from the crowd answered Him, “Teacher, I brought You my son, because he has a spirit that makes him unable to speak;

<sup>18</sup>and whenever it seizes him, it slams him to the ground, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes stiff. And I told Your disciples so that they would cast it out, but they could not do it.”

<sup>19</sup>And He answered them and *said, “O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!”

<sup>20</sup>And they brought the boy to Him. When he saw Him, the spirit immediately threw him into convulsions, and falling to the ground, he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>And He asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood.

<sup>22</sup>It has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus said to him, “‘If You can?’ All things are possible for the one who believes.”

<sup>24</sup>Immediately the boy’s father cried out and said, “I do believe; help my unbelief!”

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and do not enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup>And after crying out and throwing him into terrible convulsions, it came out; and the boy became so much like a corpse that most of them said, “He is dead!”

<sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him, and he got up.

<sup>28</sup>When He came into the house, His disciples began asking Him privately, “Why is it that we could not cast it out?”

<sup>29</sup>And He said to them, “This kind cannot come out by anything except prayer.”

Death and Resurrection Foretold

<sup>30</sup>And from there they went out and began to go through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know about it.

<sup>31</sup>For He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is to be handed over to men, and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise three days later.”

<sup>32</sup>But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

<sup>33</sup>They came to Capernaum; and when He was in the house, He began to question them: “What were you discussing on the way?”

<sup>34</sup>But they kept silent, for on the way they had discussed with one another which of them was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup>And sitting down, He called the twelve and *said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all.”

<sup>36</sup>And He took a child and placed him among them, and taking him in His arms, He said to them,

<sup>37</sup>“Whoever receives one child like this in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me.”

Dire Warnings

<sup>38</sup>John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we tried to prevent him because he was not following us.”

<sup>39</sup>But Jesus said, “Do not hinder him, for there is no one who will perform a miracle in My name, and be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me.

<sup>40</sup>For the one who is not against us is for us.

<sup>41</sup>For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name as followers of Christ, truly I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward.

<sup>42</sup>“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it is better for him if a heavy millstone is hung around his neck and he is thrown into the sea.

<sup>43</sup>And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed, than, having your two hands, to go into hell, into the unquenchable fire.

<sup>45</sup>And if your foot is causing you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life without a foot, than, having your two feet, to be thrown into hell.

<sup>47</sup>And if your eye is causing you to sin, throw it away; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, than, having two eyes, to be thrown into hell,

<sup>50</sup>Salt is good; but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

Mark 10

Jesus' Teaching about Divorce

<sup>1</sup>Setting out from there, Jesus *went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan; crowds *gathered to Him again, and, as He was accustomed, He once more began to teach them.

<sup>2</sup>And some Pharisees came up to Jesus, testing Him, and began questioning Him whether it was lawful for a man to divorce his wife.

<sup>3</sup>And He answered and said to them, “What did Moses command you?”

<sup>4</sup>They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send his wife away.”

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.

<sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of creation, God CREATED THEM MALE AND FEMALE.

<sup>8</sup>AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH; so they are no longer two, but one flesh.

<sup>11</sup>And He *said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her;

<sup>12</sup>and if she herself divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery.”

Jesus Blesses Little Children

<sup>13</sup>And they were bringing children to Him so that He would touch them; but the disciples rebuked them.

<sup>14</sup>But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and said to them, “Allow the children to come to Me; do not forbid them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>17</sup>As He was setting out on a journey, a man ran up to Him and knelt before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do so that I may inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone.

<sup>20</sup>And he said to Him, “Teacher, I have kept all these things from my youth.”

<sup>21</sup>Looking at him, Jesus showed love to him and said to him, “One thing you lack: go and sell all you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

<sup>22</sup>But he was deeply dismayed by these words, and he went away grieving; for he was one who owned much property.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus, looking around, *said to His disciples, “How hard it will be for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!”

<sup>24</sup>And the disciples were amazed at His words. But Jesus responded again and *said to them, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

<sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup>And they were even more astonished, and said to Him, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said, “Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for My sake and for the gospel’s sake, <sup>30</sup>but that he will receive a hundred times as much now in the present age, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and farms, along with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life.

<sup>31</sup>But many who are first will be last, and the last, first.”

Jesus’ Sufferings Foretold

<sup>32</sup>Now they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking on ahead of them; and they were amazed, and those who followed were fearful. And again He took the twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him,

<sup>33</sup>saying, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and will hand Him over to the Gentiles.

<sup>34</sup>And they will mock Him and spit on Him, and flog Him and kill Him; and three days later He will rise from the dead.”

<sup>35</sup> James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, *came up to Jesus, saying to Him, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You.”

<sup>36</sup>And He said to them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>37</sup>They said to Him, “Grant that we may sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?”

<sup>39</sup>They said to Him, “We are able.” And Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you shall drink; and you shall be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized.

<sup>42</sup>Calling them to Himself, Jesus *said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles domineer over them; and their people in high position exercise authority over them.

<sup>43</sup>But it is not this way among you; rather, whoever wants to become prominent among you shall be your servant;

<sup>44</sup>and whoever wants to be first among you shall be slave of all.

<sup>45</sup>For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Bartimaeus Receives His Sight

<sup>46</sup>Then they *came to Jericho. And later, as He was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, a beggar who was blind named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road.

<sup>47</sup>And when he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup>Many were sternly telling him to be quiet, but he kept crying out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup>And Jesus stopped and said, “Call him here.” So they *called the man who was blind, saying to him, “Take courage, stand up! He is calling for you.”

<sup>50</sup>And throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>And replying to him, Jesus said, “What do you want Me to do for you?” And the man who was blind said to Him, “Rabboni, I want to regain my sight!”

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he regained his sight and began following Him on the road.

Mark 11

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>1</sup>And as they *approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, He *sent two of His disciples, <sup>2</sup>and *said to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat; untie it and bring it here.

<sup>3</sup>And if anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord has need of it’; and immediately he will send it back here.”

<sup>4</sup>They went away and found a colt tied at the door, outside in the street; and they *untied it.

<sup>5</sup>And some of the bystanders were saying to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

<sup>6</sup>And they told them just as Jesus had said, and they gave them permission.

<sup>7</sup>They *brought the colt to Jesus and *put their cloaks on it; and He sat on it.

<sup>8</sup>And many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields.

<sup>9</sup>And those who went in front and those who followed were shouting: “Hosanna! BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD;

<sup>13</sup>Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if perhaps He would find anything on it; and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

<sup>14</sup>And He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” And His disciples were listening.

Jesus Drives Money Changers from the Temple

<sup>15</sup>Then they *came to Jerusalem. And He entered the temple area and began to drive out those who were selling and buying on the temple grounds, and He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who were selling doves;

<sup>16</sup>and He would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple grounds.

<sup>17</sup>And He began to teach and say to them, “Is it not written: ‘MY HOUSE WILL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL THE NATIONS’? But you have made it a DEN OF ROBBERS.”

<sup>18</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they began seeking how to put Him to death; for they were afraid of Him, because all the crowd was astonished at His teaching.

<sup>20</sup>As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up.

<sup>21</sup>And being reminded, Peter *said to Him, “Rabbi, look, the fig tree that You cursed has withered.”

<sup>22</sup>And Jesus answered and *said to them, “Have faith in God.

<sup>23</sup>Truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is going to happen, it will be granted to him.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that you have received them, and they will be granted to you.

<sup>25</sup>And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you for your offenses.

<sup>26</sup>[But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your offenses.”]

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>27</sup>And they *came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple area, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders *came to Him,

<sup>28</sup>and began saying to Him, “By what authority are You doing these things, or who gave You this authority to do these things?”

<sup>29</sup>But Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question, and you answer Me, and then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>31</sup>And they began considering the implications among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

<sup>32</sup>But should we say, ‘From men?’”—they were afraid of the people, for they all considered John to have been a real prophet.

<sup>33</sup>Answering Jesus, they *said, “We do not know.” And Jesus *said to them, “Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12

Parable of the Vine-growers

<sup>1</sup>And He began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard and put a fence around it, and dug a vat under the wine press and built a tower, and leased it to vine-growers and went on a journey.

<sup>2</sup>And at the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, in order to receive his share of the produce of the vineyard from the vine-growers.

<sup>4</sup>And again he sent them another slave, and they wounded him in the head, and treated him shamefully.

<sup>5</sup>And he sent another, and that one they killed; and so with many others, beating some and killing others.

<sup>6</sup>He had one more man to send, a beloved son; he sent him to them last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

<sup>7</sup>But those vine-growers said to one another, ‘This is the heir; come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours!’

<sup>8</sup>And they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and put the vine-growers to death, and give the vineyard to others.

<sup>10</sup>Have you not even read this Scripture: ‘A STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE;

<sup>11</sup> THIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE LORD, AND IT IS MARVELOUS IN OUR EYES’?”

<sup>12</sup>And they were seeking to seize Him, and yet they feared the people, for they understood that He told the parable against them. And so they left Him and went away.

Jesus Answers the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Scribes

<sup>13</sup>Then they *sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Him in order to trap Him in a statement.

<sup>14</sup>They came and *said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are truthful and do not care what anyone thinks; for You are not partial to anyone, but

You teach the way of God in truth. Is it permissible to pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?

<sup>15</sup>Are we to pay, or not pay?” But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius to look at.”

<sup>16</sup>And they brought one. And He *said to them, “Whose image and inscription is this?” And they said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were utterly amazed at Him.

<sup>18</sup>Some Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) *came to Jesus, and began questioning Him, saying,

<sup>20</sup>There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, and died leaving no children.

<sup>21</sup>The second one married her, and died leaving behind no children; and the third likewise;

<sup>24</sup>Jesus said to them, “Is this not the reason you are mistaken, that you do not understand the Scriptures nor the power of God?

<sup>25</sup>For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup>But regarding the fact that the dead rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB’?

<sup>27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; you are greatly mistaken.”

<sup>28</sup>One of the scribes came up and heard them arguing, and recognizing that He had answered them well, asked Him, “What commandment is the foremost of all?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “The foremost is, ‘HEAR, ISRAEL! THE LORD IS OUR GOD, THE LORD IS ONE;

<sup>30</sup>AND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH.’

<sup>31</sup>The second is this: ‘YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

<sup>32</sup>And the scribe said to Him, “Well said, Teacher; You have truly stated that HE IS ONE, AND THERE IS NO OTHER BESIDES HIM;

<sup>33</sup>and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, is much more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

<sup>34</sup>When Jesus saw that he had answered intelligently, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And then, no one dared any longer to question Him.

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus responded and began saying, as He taught in the temple area, “How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?

<sup>36</sup>David himself said in the Holy Spirit, ‘THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, UNTIL I PUT YOUR ENEMIES UNDER YOUR FEET.”’

<sup>37</sup>David himself calls Him ‘Lord’; so in what sense is He his son?” And the large crowd enjoyed listening to Him.

<sup>38</sup>And in His teaching He was saying: “Beware of the scribes who like to walk around in long robes, and like personal greetings in the marketplaces,

<sup>39</sup>and seats of honor in the synagogues, and places of honor at banquets,

<sup>40</sup>who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers. These will receive all the more condemnation."

The Widow's Coins

<sup>41</sup>And Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and began watching how the people were putting money into the treasury; and many rich people were putting in large amounts.

<sup>42</sup>And a poor widow came and put in two lepta coins, which amount to a quadrans.

<sup>43</sup>Calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the contributors to the treasury;

<sup>44</sup>for they all put in out of their surplus, but she, out of her poverty, put in all she owned, all she had to live on."

Mark 13

Things to Come

<sup>1</sup>As He was going out of the temple, one of His disciples *said to Him, "Teacher, look! What wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!"

<sup>3</sup>As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew were questioning Him privately,

<sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when will these things come about, and what will be the sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled?"

<sup>5</sup>And Jesus began to say to them, "See to it that no one misleads you.

<sup>6</sup>Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He!' and they will mislead many.

<sup>7</sup>When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; those things must take place; but that is not yet the end.

<sup>8</sup>For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will also be famines. These things are only the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>9</sup> “But be on your guard; for they will hand you over to the courts, and you will be flogged in the synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them.

<sup>10</sup>And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

<sup>11</sup>And when they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say, but say whatever is given you at that time; for you are not the ones speaking, but it is the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup>And brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.

<sup>13</sup>And you will be hated by everyone because of My name, but it is the one who has endured to the end who will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> “Now when you see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION standing where it should not be— let the reader understand—then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains.

<sup>19</sup>For those days will be such a time of tribulation as has not occurred since the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will again.

<sup>20</sup>And if the Lord had not shortened those days, no life would have been saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

<sup>21</sup>And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ’; or, ‘Look, there He is’; do not believe it;

<sup>22</sup>for false christs and false prophets will arise, and will provide signs and wonders, in order to mislead, if possible, the elect.

<sup>23</sup>But beware; I have told you everything in advance.

The Return of Christ

<sup>24</sup> “But in those days, after that tribulation, THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, <sup>25</sup>AND THE STARS WILL BE FALLING from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup>And then they will see THE SON OF MAN COMING IN CLOUDS with great power and glory.

<sup>27</sup>And then He will send forth the angels, and will gather together His elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of heaven.

<sup>29</sup>So you too, when you see these things happening, recognize that He is near, right at the door.

<sup>30</sup>Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>31</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

<sup>32</sup>But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

<sup>34</sup>It is like a man away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and putting his slaves in charge, assigning to each one his task, also commanded the doorkeeper to stay alert.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, stay alert—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning—

<sup>36</sup>so that he does not come suddenly and find you asleep.

<sup>37</sup>What I say to you I say to all: ‘Stay alert!’ ”

Mark 14

Death Plot and Anointing

<sup>1</sup>Now the Passover and Festival of Unleavened Bread were two days away; and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to arrest Him covertly and kill Him;

<sup>2</sup>for they were saying, “Not during the festival, otherwise there will be a riot of the people.”

<sup>4</sup>But there were some indignantly remarking to one another, “Why has this perfume been wasted?

<sup>5</sup>For this perfume could have been sold for over three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor.” And they were scolding her.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, “Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a good deed for Me.

<sup>7</sup>For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want, you can do good to them; but you do not always have Me.

<sup>8</sup>She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial.

<sup>9</sup>Truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the entire world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray Him to them.

<sup>11</sup>They were delighted when they heard this, and promised to give him money. And he began seeking how to betray Him at an opportune time.

The Last Passover

<sup>12</sup>On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was being sacrificed, His disciples *said to Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

<sup>13</sup>And He *sent two of His disciples and *said to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you; follow him;

<sup>14</sup>and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, “The Teacher says, “Where is My guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?” ’

<sup>15</sup>And he himself will show you a large upstairs room furnished and ready; prepare for us there.”

<sup>16</sup>The disciples left and came to the city, and found everything just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>18</sup>And as they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said, “Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me.”

<sup>19</sup>They began to be grieved and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?”

<sup>20</sup>But He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, the one who dips bread with Me in the bowl.

<sup>21</sup>For the Son of Man is going away just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.”

The LORD's Supper

<sup>22</sup>While they were eating, He took some bread, and after a blessing He broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is My body."

<sup>23</sup>And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

<sup>24</sup>And He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is being poured out for many.

<sup>25</sup>Truly I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine again, until that day when I drink it, new, in the kingdom of God."

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus *said to them, "You will all fall away, because it is written: 'I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP WILL BE SCATTERED.'

<sup>28</sup>But after I am raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee."

<sup>29</sup>But Peter said to Him, "Even if they all fall away, yet I will not!"

<sup>30</sup>And Jesus *said to him, "Truly I say to you, that this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you yourself will deny Me three times."

<sup>31</sup>But Peter repeatedly said insistently, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And they all were saying the same thing as well.

Jesus in Gethsemane

<sup>32</sup>They *came to a place named Gethsemane; and He *said to His disciples, "Sit here until I have prayed."

<sup>33</sup>And He *took with Him Peter, James, and John, and began to be very distressed and troubled.

<sup>34</sup>And He *said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch."

<sup>35</sup>And He went a little beyond them, and fell to the ground and began praying that if it were possible, the hour might pass Him by.

<sup>36</sup>And He was saying, “Abba! Father! All things are possible for You; remove this cup from Me; yet not what I will, but what You will.”

<sup>37</sup>And He *came and *found them sleeping, and *said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?

<sup>38</sup>Keep watching and praying, so that you will not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>39</sup>And again He went away and prayed, saying the same words.

<sup>40</sup>And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to say in reply to Him.

<sup>41</sup>And He *came the third time, and *said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? That is enough. The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>43</sup>And immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, *came up, accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs who were from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.

<sup>44</sup>Now he who was betraying Him had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, He is the one; arrest Him and lead Him away under guard.”

<sup>45</sup>And after coming, Judas immediately went to Him and *said, “Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

<sup>47</sup>But one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as you would against a man inciting a revolt?

<sup>49</sup>Every day I was with you within the temple grounds teaching, and you did not arrest Me; but this has taken place so that the Scriptures will be fulfilled.”

<sup>51</sup>A young man was following Him, wearing nothing but a linen sheet over his naked body; and they *seized him.

Jesus before His Accusers

<sup>53</sup>They led Jesus away to the high priest; and all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes *gathered together.

<sup>54</sup>And Peter had followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire.

<sup>55</sup>Now the chief priests and the entire Council were trying to obtain testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, and they were not finding any.

<sup>56</sup>For many people were giving false testimony against Him, and so their testimonies were not consistent.

<sup>57</sup>And then some stood up and began giving false testimony against Him, saying,

<sup>58</sup>“We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that was made by hands, and in three days I will build another, made without hands.’”

<sup>60</sup>And then the high priest stood up and came forward and questioned Jesus, saying, “Do You not offer any answer for what these men are testifying against You?”

<sup>61</sup>But He kept silent and did not offer any answer. Again the high priest was questioning Him, and *said to Him, “Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

<sup>63</sup>Tearing his clothes, the high priest *said, “What further need do we have of witnesses?”

<sup>64</sup>You have heard the blasphemy; how does it seem to you?” And they all condemned Him as deserving of death.

<sup>65</sup>And some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists and say to Him, “Prophecy!” Then the officers took custody of Him and slapped Him in the face.

Peter’s Denials

<sup>66</sup>And while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the slave women of the high priest *came,

<sup>67</sup>and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and *said, “You were with Jesus the Nazarene as well.”

<sup>69</sup>The slave woman saw him, and began once more to say to the bystanders, “This man is one of them!”

<sup>70</sup>But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders were again saying to Peter, “You really are one of them, for you are a Galilean as well.”

<sup>71</sup>But he began to curse himself and to swear, “I do not know this Man of whom you speak!”

<sup>72</sup>And immediately a rooster crowed a second time. And Peter remembered how Jesus had made the remark to him, “Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And he hurried on and began to weep.

Mark 15

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>1</sup>Early in the morning the chief priests with the elders, scribes, and the entire Council immediately held a consultation; and they bound Jesus and led Him away, and turned Him over to Pilate.

<sup>2</sup>Pilate questioned Him: “So You are the King of the Jews?” And He answered him, “It is as you say.”

<sup>6</sup>Now at the Passover Feast he used to release for them any one prisoner whom they requested.

<sup>7</sup>And the one named Barabbas had been imprisoned with the rebels who had committed murder in the revolt.

<sup>8</sup>And the crowd went up and began asking Pilate to do as he had been accustomed to do for them.

<sup>9</sup>Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?”

<sup>10</sup>For he was aware that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

<sup>11</sup>But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to ask him to release Barabbas for them instead.

<sup>12</sup>And responding again, Pilate said to them, “Then what shall I do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?”

<sup>14</sup>But Pilate said to them, “Why, what evil has He done?” But they shouted all the more, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>15</sup>Intent on satisfying the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas for them, and after having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

<sup>16</sup>Now the soldiers took Him away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium), and they *called together the whole Roman cohort.

<sup>17</sup>And they *dressed Him in purple, and after twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on Him;

<sup>19</sup>And they repeatedly beat His head with a reed and spit on Him, and kneeling, they bowed down before Him.

<sup>20</sup>And after they had mocked Him, they took the purple cloak off Him and put His own garments on Him. And they *led Him out to crucify Him.

<sup>21</sup>And they *compelled a passer-by coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), to carry His cross.

The Crucifixion

<sup>22</sup>Then they *brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull.

<sup>23</sup>And they tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh; but He did not take it.

<sup>29</sup>Those passing by were hurling abuse at Him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ha! You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days,

<sup>31</sup>In the same way the chief priests also, along with the scribes, were mocking Him among themselves and saying, “He saved others; He cannot save Himself!

<sup>32</sup>Let this Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe!” Those who were crucified with Him were also insulting Him.

<sup>33</sup>When the sixth hour came, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.

<sup>34</sup>At the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “ELOI, ELOI, LEMA SABAKTANEI?” which is translated, “MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU FORSAKEN ME?”

<sup>35</sup>And when some of the bystanders heard Him, they began saying, “Look! He is calling for Elijah!”

<sup>38</sup>And the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

<sup>39</sup>And when the centurion, who was standing right in front of Him, saw that He died in this way, he said, “Truly this Man was the Son of God!”

<sup>40</sup>Now there were also some women watching from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and Joses, and Salome.

<sup>41</sup>When He was in Galilee, they used to follow Him and serve Him; and there were many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>42</sup>When evening had already come, since it was the preparation day, that is, the day before the Sabbath,

<sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea came, a prominent member of the Council, who was himself also waiting for the kingdom of God; and he gathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup>Now Pilate wondered if He was dead by this time, and summoning the centurion, he questioned him as to whether He was already dead.

<sup>45</sup>And after learning this from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

<sup>47</sup>Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were watching to see where He was laid.

Mark 16

The Resurrection

<sup>1</sup>When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might come and anoint Him.

<sup>2</sup>And very early on the first day of the week, they *came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

<sup>3</sup>They were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb for us?”

<sup>4</sup>And looking up, they *noticed that the stone had been rolled away; for it was extremely large.

<sup>6</sup>But he *said to them, “Do not be amazed; you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen; He is not here; see, here is the place where they laid Him.

<sup>7</sup>But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see Him, just as He told you.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had gripped them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

<sup>9</sup> [[ Now after He had risen early on the first day of the week, He first appeared to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons.

<sup>10</sup>She went and reported to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping.

<sup>11</sup>And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they refused to believe it.

<sup>12</sup>Now after that, He appeared in a different form to two of them while they were walking along on their way to the country.

<sup>13</sup>And they went away and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them, either.

The Disciples Commissioned

<sup>14</sup>Later He appeared to the eleven disciples themselves as they were reclining at the table; and He reprimanded them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.

<sup>16</sup>The one who has believed and has been baptized will be saved; but the one who has not believed will be condemned.

<sup>17</sup>These signs will accompany those who have believed: in My name they will cast out demons, they will speak with new tongues;

<sup>18</sup>they will pick up serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

<sup>19</sup>So then, when the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

<sup>20</sup>And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them, and confirmed the word by the signs that followed.]] [[ And they promptly reported all these instructions to Peter and his companions. And after that, Jesus Himself also sent out through them from east to west the sacred and imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation. ]]

Luke

Luke 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>Since many have undertaken to compile an account of the things accomplished among us,

<sup>2</sup>just as they were handed down to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word,

<sup>3</sup>it seemed fitting to me as well, having investigated everything carefully from the beginning, to write it out for you in an orderly sequence, most excellent Theophilus;

<sup>4</sup>so that you may know the exact truth about the things you have been taught.

John the Baptist's Birth Foretold

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah; and he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

<sup>6</sup>They were both righteous in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>And yet they had no child, because Elizabeth was infertile, and they were both advanced in years.

<sup>8</sup>Now it happened that while he was performing his priestly service before God in the appointed order of his division,

<sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priestly office, he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

<sup>10</sup>And the whole multitude of the people were in prayer outside at the hour of the incense offering.

<sup>11</sup>Now an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense.

<sup>12</sup>Zechariah was troubled when he saw the angel, and fear gripped him.

<sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall name him John.

<sup>14</sup>You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice over his birth.

<sup>15</sup>For he will be great in the sight of the Lord; and he will drink no wine or liquor, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit while still in his mother’s womb.

<sup>16</sup>And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God.

<sup>17</sup>And it is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, TO TURN THE HEARTS OF FATHERS BACK TO THEIR CHILDREN, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

<sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in her years.”

<sup>19</sup>The angel answered and said to him, “I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

<sup>20</sup>And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at their proper time.”

<sup>21</sup>And meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and were wondering at his delay in the temple.

<sup>22</sup>But when he came out, he was unable to speak to them; and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple, and he repeatedly made signs to them, and remained speechless.

<sup>23</sup>When the days of his priestly service were concluded, he went back home.

<sup>24</sup>Now after these days his wife Elizabeth became pregnant, and she kept herself in seclusion for five months, saying,

<sup>25</sup>“This is the way the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor upon me, to take away my disgrace among people.”

Jesus' Birth Foretold

<sup>26</sup>Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee named Nazareth,

<sup>27</sup>to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the descendants of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

<sup>28</sup>And coming in, he said to her, “Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.”

<sup>29</sup>But she was very perplexed at this statement, and was pondering what kind of greeting this was.

<sup>30</sup>And the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

<sup>31</sup>And behold, you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and you shall name Him Jesus.

<sup>32</sup>He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David;

<sup>33</sup>and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and His kingdom will have no end.”

<sup>34</sup>But Mary said to the angel, “How will this be, since I am a virgin?”

<sup>35</sup>The angel answered and said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; for that reason also the holy Child will be called the Son of God.

<sup>36</sup>And behold, even your relative Elizabeth herself has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called infertile is now in her sixth month.

<sup>38</sup>And Mary said, “Behold, the Lord’s bond-servant; may it be done to me according to your word.” And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup>Now at this time Mary set out and went in a hurry to the hill country, to a city of Judah,

<sup>42</sup>And she cried out with a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

<sup>43</sup>And how has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord would come to me?

<sup>44</sup>For behold, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy.

<sup>45</sup>And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what had been spoken to her by the Lord.”

Mary’s Song: The Magnificat

<sup>46</sup>And Mary said: “My soul exalts the Lord,

<sup>47</sup>And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

<sup>48</sup>“For He has had regard for the humble state of His bond-servant; For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed.

<sup>50</sup>“And His mercy is to generation after generation Toward those who fear Him.

<sup>51</sup>“He has done mighty deeds with His arm; He has scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup>“He has brought down rulers from their thrones, And has exalted those who were humble.

John the Baptist Is Born

<sup>57</sup>Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son.

<sup>58</sup>Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had displayed His great mercy toward her; and they were rejoicing with her.

<sup>59</sup>And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him Zechariah, after his father.

<sup>60</sup>And yet his mother responded and said, “No indeed; but he shall be called John.”

<sup>61</sup>And they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”

<sup>62</sup>And they made signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called.

<sup>63</sup>And he asked for a tablet and wrote as follows, “His name is John.” And they were all amazed.

<sup>64</sup>And at once his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began speaking in praise of God.

<sup>65</sup>And fear came on all those who lived around them; and all these matters were being talked about in the entire hill country of Judea.

<sup>66</sup>All who heard them kept them in mind, saying, “What then will this child turn out to be?” For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zechariah's Prophecy

<sup>67</sup>And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying:

<sup>68</sup>“Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, For He has visited us and accomplished redemption for His people,

<sup>69</sup>And has raised up a horn of salvation for us In the house of His servant David—

<sup>74</sup>To grant us that we, being rescued from the hand of our enemies, Would serve Him without fear,

<sup>76</sup>“And you, child, also will be called the prophet of the Most High; For you will go on before the Lord to prepare His ways;

<sup>78</sup>Because of the tender mercy of our God, With which the Sunrise from on high will visit us,

<sup>79</sup>To shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, To guide our feet into the way of peace.”

<sup>80</sup>Now the child grew and was becoming strong in spirit, and he lived in the deserts until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Luke 2

Jesus' Birth in Bethlehem

<sup>4</sup>Now Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, <sup>5</sup>in order to register along with Mary, who was betrothed to him, and was pregnant.

<sup>7</sup>And she gave birth to her firstborn son; and she wrapped Him in cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

<sup>8</sup>In the same region there were some shepherds staying out in the fields and keeping watch over their flock at night.

<sup>9</sup>And an angel of the Lord suddenly stood near them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were terribly frightened.

<sup>10</sup>And so the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people;

<sup>11</sup>for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

<sup>14</sup>"Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace among people with whom He is pleased."

<sup>15</sup>When the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying to one another, “Let’s go straight to Bethlehem, then, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”

<sup>16</sup>And they came in a hurry and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the baby as He lay in the manger.

<sup>17</sup>When they had seen Him, they made known the statement which had been told them about this Child.

<sup>18</sup>And all who heard it were amazed about the things which were told them by the shepherds.

<sup>20</sup>And the shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as had been told them.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

<sup>21</sup>And when eight days were completed so that it was time for His circumcision, He was also named Jesus, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup>And when the days for their purification according to the Law of Moses were completed, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord

<sup>23</sup>(as it is written in the Law of the Lord: “EVERY FIRSTBORN MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY TO THE LORD”),

<sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to what has been stated in the Law of the Lord: “A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES OR TWO YOUNG DOVES.”

<sup>25</sup>And there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

<sup>26</sup>And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

<sup>27</sup>And he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to carry out for Him the custom of the Law,

<sup>28</sup>then he took Him in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

<sup>29</sup>"Now, Lord, You are letting Your bond-servant depart in peace, According to Your word;

<sup>30</sup>For my eyes have seen Your salvation,

<sup>31</sup>Which You have prepared in the presence of all the peoples:

<sup>32</sup>A light for revelation for the Gentiles, And the glory of Your people Israel."

<sup>33</sup>And His father and mother were amazed at the things which were being said about Him.

<sup>34</sup>And Simeon blessed them and said to His mother Mary, "Behold, this Child is appointed for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and as a sign to be opposed—

<sup>35</sup>and a sword will pierce your own soul—to the end that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed."

<sup>36</sup>And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years and had lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, <sup>37</sup>and then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She did not leave the temple grounds, serving night and day with fasts and prayers.

<sup>38</sup>And at that very moment she came up and began giving thanks to God, and continued to speak about Him to all those who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

Return to Nazareth

<sup>39</sup>And when His parents had completed everything in accordance with the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup>Now the Child continued to grow and to become strong, increasing in wisdom; and the favor of God was upon Him.

Visit to Jerusalem

<sup>42</sup>And when He was twelve years old, they went up there according to the custom of the feast;

<sup>43</sup>and as they were returning, after spending the full number of days required, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but His parents were unaware of it.

<sup>44</sup>Instead, they thought that He was somewhere in the caravan, and they went a day's journey; and then they began looking for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

<sup>45</sup>And when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for Him.

<sup>46</sup>Then, after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.

<sup>48</sup>When Joseph and Mary saw Him, they were bewildered; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, Your father and I have been anxiously looking for You!"

<sup>49</sup>And He said to them, "Why is it that you were looking for Me? Did you not know that I had to be in My Father's house?"

<sup>50</sup>And yet they on their part did not understand the statement which He had made to them.

<sup>51</sup>And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and He continued to be subject to them; and His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and people.

Luke 3

John the Baptist Preaches

<sup>3</sup>And he came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins;

<sup>4</sup>as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: “THE VOICE OF ONE CALLING OUT IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD, MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT!’

<sup>5</sup>‘EVERY RAVINE WILL BE FILLED, AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL WILL BE LOWERED; THE CROOKED WILL BECOME STRAIGHT, AND THE ROUGH ROADS SMOOTH;

<sup>6</sup>AND ALL FLESH WILL SEE THE SALVATION OF GOD!’ ”

<sup>7</sup>So he was saying to the crowds who were going out to be baptized by him, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

<sup>8</sup>Therefore produce fruits that are consistent with repentance, and do not start saying to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father,’ for I say to you that from these stones God is able to raise up children for Abraham.

<sup>9</sup>But indeed the axe is already being laid at the root of the trees; so every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>10</sup>And the crowds were questioning him, saying, “Then what are we to do?”

<sup>11</sup>And he would answer and say to them, “The one who has two tunics is to share with the one who has none; and the one who has food is to do likewise.”

<sup>12</sup>Now even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what are we to do?”

<sup>13</sup>And he said to them, “Collect no more than what you have been ordered to.”

<sup>14</sup>And soldiers also were questioning him, saying, “What are we to do, we as well?” And he said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone, nor harass anyone, and be content with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup>Now while the people were in a state of expectation and they all were thinking carefully in their hearts about John, whether he himself perhaps was the Christ,

<sup>16</sup>John responded to them all, saying, “As for me, I baptize you with water; but He is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to untie the straps of His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

<sup>19</sup>But when Herod the tetrarch was reprimanded by him regarding Herodias, his brother’s wife, and regarding all the evil things which Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>Herod also added this to them all: he locked John up in prison.

Jesus Is Baptized

<sup>21</sup>Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized, and while He was praying, heaven was opened,

<sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came from heaven: “You are My beloved Son, in You I am well pleased.”

Genealogy of Jesus

<sup>23</sup>When He began His ministry, Jesus Himself was about thirty years old, being, as was commonly held, the son of Joseph, the son of Eli,

<sup>24</sup>the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

<sup>25</sup>the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Hesli, the son of Naggai,

<sup>26</sup>the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,

<sup>27</sup>the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,

<sup>28</sup>the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,

<sup>29</sup>the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,

<sup>30</sup>the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,

<sup>31</sup>the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

<sup>32</sup>the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,

<sup>33</sup>the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,

<sup>34</sup>the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,

<sup>35</sup>the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Heber, the son of Shelah,

<sup>36</sup>the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,

<sup>37</sup>the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, <sup>38</sup>the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Luke 4

The Temptation of Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Now Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led around by the Spirit in the wilderness

<sup>2</sup>for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.

<sup>3</sup>And the devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered him, “It is written: ‘MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE.’ ”

<sup>5</sup>And he led Him up and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

<sup>6</sup>And the devil said to Him, “I will give You all this domain and its glory, for it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I want.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied to him, “It is written: ‘YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD AND SERVE HIM ONLY.’ ”

<sup>9</sup>And he brought Him into Jerusalem and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here;

<sup>10</sup>for it is written: ‘HE WILL GIVE HIS ANGELS ORDERS CONCERNING YOU, TO PROTECT YOU,’

<sup>11</sup>and, ‘ON THEIR HANDS THEY WILL LIFT YOU UP, SO THAT YOU DO NOT STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.’ ”

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus answered and said to him, “It has been stated, ‘YOU SHALL NOT PUT THE LORD YOUR GOD TO THE TEST.’ ”

<sup>13</sup>And so when the devil had finished every temptation, he left Him until an opportune time.

Jesus’ Public Ministry

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread through all the surrounding region.

<sup>15</sup>And He began teaching in their synagogues and was praised by all.

<sup>16</sup>And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and as was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath, and stood up to read.

<sup>17</sup>And the scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to Him. And He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

<sup>18</sup> “THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME, BECAUSE HE ANOINTED ME TO BRING GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR. HE HAS SENT ME TO PROCLAIM RELEASE TO CAPTIVES, AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND, TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE OPPRESSED,

<sup>20</sup>And He rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all the people in the synagogue were intently directed at Him.

<sup>21</sup>Now He began to say to them, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

<sup>22</sup>And all the people were speaking well of Him, and admiring the gracious words which were coming from His lips; and yet they were saying, “Is this not Joseph’s son?”

<sup>23</sup>And He said to them, “No doubt you will quote this proverb to Me: ‘Physician, heal yourself! All the miracles that we heard were done in Capernaum, do here in Your hometown as well.’ ”

<sup>24</sup>But He said, “Truly I say to you, no prophet is welcome in his hometown.

<sup>25</sup>But I say to you in truth, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a severe famine came over all the land;

<sup>26</sup>and yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

<sup>27</sup>And there were many with leprosy in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup>And all the people in the synagogue were filled with rage as they heard these things;

<sup>29</sup>and they got up and drove Him out of the city, and brought Him to the crest of the hill on which their city had been built, so that they could throw Him down from the cliff.

<sup>31</sup>And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee; and He was teaching them on the Sabbath;

<sup>32</sup>and they were amazed at His teaching, because His message was delivered with authority.

<sup>33</sup>In the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,

<sup>34</sup>“Leave us alone! What business do You have with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>35</sup>But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown him down in the midst of the people, it came out of him without doing him any harm.

<sup>36</sup>And amazement came upon them all, and they began talking with one another, saying, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!”

<sup>37</sup>And the news about Him was spreading into every locality of the surrounding region.

Many Are Healed

<sup>39</sup>And standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and she immediately got up and served them.

<sup>40</sup>Now while the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He was laying His hands on each one of them and healing them.

<sup>41</sup>Demons also were coming out of many, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” And yet He was rebuking them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup>Now when day came, Jesus left and went to a secluded place; and the crowds were searching for Him, and they came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them.

<sup>43</sup>But He said to them, “I must also preach the kingdom of God to the other cities, because I was sent for this purpose.”

Luke 5

The First Disciples

<sup>2</sup>and He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.

<sup>3</sup>And He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little distance from the land. And He sat down and continued teaching the crowds from the boat.

<sup>4</sup>Now when He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

<sup>5</sup>Simon responded and said, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing, but I will do as You say and let down the nets."

<sup>6</sup>And when they had done this, they caught a great quantity of fish, and their nets began to tear;

<sup>7</sup>so they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both of the boats, to the point that they were sinking.

<sup>8</sup>But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

<sup>9</sup>For amazement had seized him and all his companions because of the catch of fish which they had taken;

<sup>10</sup>and likewise also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear; from now on you will be catching people."

<sup>11</sup>When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.

A Man with Leprosy Healed

<sup>12</sup>While He was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man covered with leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

<sup>13</sup>And He reached out with His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately the leprosy left him.

<sup>14</sup>And He ordered him to tell no one, saying, “But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

<sup>15</sup>But the news about Him was spreading even farther, and large crowds were gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

<sup>16</sup>But Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray.

A Man Lowered through a Roof

<sup>17</sup> One day He was teaching, and there were some Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea, and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present for Him to perform healing.

<sup>18</sup>And some men were carrying a man on a stretcher who was paralyzed; and they were trying to bring him in and to set him down in front of Him.

<sup>19</sup>But when they did not find any way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down through the tiles with his stretcher, into the middle of the crowd, in front of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees began thinking of the implications, saying, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, except God alone?”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus, aware of their thoughts, responded and said to them, “Why are you thinking this way in your hearts?

<sup>23</sup>Which is easier, to say: ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?

<sup>24</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,” He said to the man who was paralyzed, “I say to you, get up, and pick up your stretcher, and go home.”

<sup>25</sup>And immediately he got up before them, and picked up what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God.

<sup>26</sup>And they were all struck with astonishment and began glorifying God. They were also filled with fear, saying, “We have seen remarkable things today!”

Call of Levi (Matthew)

<sup>27</sup>After that He went out and looked at a tax collector named Levi sitting in the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me.”

<sup>29</sup>And Levi gave a big reception for Him in his house; and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and other people who were reclining at the table with them.

<sup>30</sup>The Pharisees and their scribes began grumbling to His disciples, saying, “Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>31</sup>And Jesus answered and said to them, “It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick.

<sup>32</sup>I have not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.”

<sup>33</sup>And they said to Him, “The disciples of John often fast and offer prayers, the disciples of the Pharisees also do the same, but Yours eat and drink.”

<sup>34</sup>And Jesus said to them, “You cannot make the attendants of the groom fast while the groom is with them, can you?

<sup>35</sup>But the days will come; and when the groom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days.”

<sup>36</sup>And He was also telling them a parable: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and puts it on an old garment; otherwise he will both tear the new, and the patch from the new garment will not match the old.

<sup>37</sup>And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled out, and the skins will be ruined.

Luke 6

Jesus Is LORD of the Sabbath

<sup>2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?”

<sup>3</sup>And Jesus, answering them, said, “Have you not even read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him,

<sup>4</sup>how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the consecrated bread, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests alone, and gave it to his companions?”

<sup>5</sup>And He was saying to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

<sup>6</sup>On another Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught; and a man was there whose right hand was withered.

<sup>7</sup>Now the scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He healed on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse Him.

<sup>8</sup>But He knew what they were thinking, and He said to the man with the withered hand, “Get up and come forward!” And he got up and came forward.

<sup>9</sup>And Jesus said to them, “I ask you whether it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy it?”

<sup>10</sup>And after looking around at them all, He said to him, “Stretch out your hand!” And he did so; and his hand was restored.

<sup>11</sup>But they themselves were filled with senseless rage, and began discussing together what they might do to Jesus.

Choosing the Twelve

<sup>12</sup>Now it was at this time that He went off to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer with God.

<sup>13</sup>And when day came, He called His disciples to Him and chose twelve of them, whom He also named as apostles:

<sup>14</sup>Simon, whom He also named Peter, and his brother Andrew; and James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew;

<sup>15</sup>and Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot;

<sup>17</sup>And then Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place; and there was a large crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, <sup>18</sup>who had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled by unclean spirits were being cured.

<sup>19</sup>And all the people were trying to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.

The Beatitudes

<sup>20</sup>And He raised His eyes toward His disciples and began saying, “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup>Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup>Blessed are you when the people hate you, and when they exclude you, and insult you, and scorn your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man.

<sup>24</sup>But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full.

<sup>25</sup>Woe to you who are well-fed now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup>Woe to you when all the people speak well of you; for their fathers used to treat the false prophets the same way.

<sup>27</sup> “But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup>bless those who curse you, pray for those who are abusive to you.

<sup>29</sup>Whoever hits you on the cheek, offer him the other also; and whoever takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic from him either.

<sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks of you, and whoever takes away what is yours, do not demand it back.

<sup>31</sup>Treat people the same way you want them to treat you.

<sup>32</sup>If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

<sup>33</sup>And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.

<sup>34</sup>And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same amount.

<sup>35</sup>But love your enemies and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He Himself is kind to ungrateful and evil people.

<sup>37</sup>“Do not judge, and you will not be judged; and do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; pardon, and you will be pardoned.

<sup>38</sup>Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return.”

<sup>39</sup>Now He also spoke a parable to them: “A person who is blind cannot guide another who is blind, can he? Will they not both fall into a pit?

<sup>40</sup>A student is not above the teacher; but everyone, when he has been fully trained, will be like his teacher.

<sup>41</sup>Why do you look at the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye?

<sup>42</sup>How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

<sup>43</sup>For there is no good tree that bears bad fruit, nor, on the other hand, a bad tree that bears good fruit.

<sup>44</sup>For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they pick grapes from a briar bush.

<sup>45</sup>The good person out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil person out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.

The Parable of the Builders

<sup>46</sup>“Now why do you call Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say?

<sup>47</sup>Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them, I will show you whom he is like:

<sup>48</sup>he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when there was a flood, the river burst against that house and yet it could not shake it, because it had been well built.

<sup>49</sup>But the one who has heard and has not acted accordingly is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation; and the river burst against it and it immediately collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Luke 7

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Slave

<sup>1</sup>When He had completed all His teaching in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum.

<sup>3</sup>When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save the life of his slave.

<sup>4</sup>When they came to Jesus, they strongly urged Him, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this to him;

<sup>5</sup>for he loves our nation, and it was he who built us our synagogue.”

<sup>6</sup>Now Jesus started on His way with them; but already, when He was not yet far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to enter under my roof;

<sup>7</sup>for that reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You; but just say the word, and my servant shall be healed.

<sup>8</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, with soldiers under myself; and I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

<sup>9</sup>Now when Jesus heard this, He was amazed at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith.”

<sup>10</sup>And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

<sup>11</sup>Soon afterward Jesus went to a city called Nain; and His disciples were going along with Him, accompanied by a large crowd.

<sup>12</sup>Now as He approached the gate of the city, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a sizeable crowd from the city was with her.

<sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her and said to her, “Do not go on weeping.”

<sup>14</sup>And He came up and touched the coffin; and the bearers came to a halt. And He said, “Young man, I say to you, arise!”

<sup>15</sup>And the dead man sat up and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Fear gripped them all, and they began glorifying God, saying, “A great prophet has appeared among us!” and, “God has visited His people!”

<sup>17</sup>And this report about Him spread throughout Judea and in all the surrounding region.

The Messengers from John

<sup>18</sup>The disciples of John also reported to him about all these things.

<sup>19</sup>And after summoning two of his disciples, John sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are You the Coming One, or are we to look for another?”

<sup>20</sup>When the men came to Him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to You, to ask, ‘Are You the Coming One, or are we to look for another?’ ”

<sup>21</sup>At that very time He cured many people of diseases and afflictions and evil spirits; and He gave sight to many who were blind.

<sup>22</sup>And He answered and said to them, “Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: people who were blind receive sight, people who limped walk, people with leprosy are cleansed and people who were deaf hear, dead people are raised up, and people who are poor have the gospel preached to them.

<sup>24</sup>When the messengers of John had left, He began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Those who are splendidly clothed and live in luxury are found in royal palaces!

<sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one who is more than a prophet.

<sup>27</sup>This is the one about whom it is written: ‘BEHOLD, I AM SENDING MY MESSENGER AHEAD OF YOU, WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU.’

<sup>28</sup> I say to you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

<sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

<sup>31</sup>"To what then shall I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?

<sup>32</sup>They are like children who sit in the marketplace and call to one another, and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a song of mourning, and you did not weep.'

<sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!'

<sup>34</sup>The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a heavy drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

The Anointing in Galilee

<sup>36</sup>Now one of the Pharisees was requesting Him to eat with him, and He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.

<sup>37</sup>And there was a woman in the city who was a sinner; and when she learned that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume,

<sup>38</sup>and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, and began kissing His feet and anointing them with the perfume.

<sup>39</sup>Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, "If this Man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him, that she is a sinner!"

Parable of Two Debtors

<sup>40</sup>And Jesus responded and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he replied, "Say it, Teacher."

<sup>41</sup>“A moneylender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred denarii, and the other, fifty.

<sup>42</sup>When they were unable to repay, he canceled the debts of both. So which of them will love him more?”

<sup>43</sup>Simon answered and said, “I assume the one for whom he canceled the greater debt.” And He said to him, “You have judged correctly.”

<sup>44</sup>And turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup>You gave Me no kiss; but she has not stopped kissing My feet since the time I came in.

<sup>46</sup>You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with perfume.

<sup>49</sup>And then those who were reclining at the table with Him began saying to themselves, “Who is this Man who even forgives sins?”

<sup>50</sup>And He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8

Women Support Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Soon afterward, Jesus began going around from one city and village to another, proclaiming and preaching the kingdom of God. The twelve were with Him,

<sup>2</sup>and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

<sup>3</sup>and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means.

Parable of the Sower

<sup>4</sup>Now when a large crowd was coming together, and those from the various cities were journeying to Him, He spoke by way of a parable:

<sup>5</sup>"The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky ate it up.

<sup>6</sup>Other seed fell on rocky soil, and when it came up, it withered away because it had no moisture.

<sup>7</sup>Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew up with it and choked it out.

<sup>8</sup>And yet other seed fell into the good soil, and grew up, and produced a crop a hundred times as much." As He said these things, He would call out, "The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup>And He said, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest they are told in parables, so that while seeing they may not see, and while hearing they may not understand.

<sup>11</sup> "Now this is the parable: the seed is the word of God.

<sup>12</sup>And those beside the road are the ones who have heard, then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they will not believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup>Those on the rocky soil are the ones who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and yet these do not have a firm root; they believe for a while, and in a time of temptation they fall away.

<sup>14</sup>And the seed which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked by worries, riches, and pleasures of this life, and they bring no fruit to maturity.

<sup>15</sup>But the seed in the good soil, these are the ones who have heard the word with a good and virtuous heart, and hold it firmly, and produce fruit with perseverance.

Parable of the Lamp

<sup>16</sup>“Now no one lights a lamp and covers it over with a container, or puts it under a bed; but he puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in may see the light.

<sup>17</sup>For nothing is concealed that will not become evident, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light.

<sup>18</sup>So take care how you listen; for whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”

<sup>19</sup>Now His mother and brothers came to Him, and they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd.

<sup>20</sup>And it was reported to Him, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wishing to see You.”

<sup>21</sup>But He answered and said to them, “My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it.”

Jesus Stills the Sea

<sup>22</sup>Now on one of those days Jesus and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the lake.” So they launched out.

<sup>23</sup>But as they were sailing along He fell asleep; and a fierce gale of wind descended on the lake, and they began to be swamped and to be in danger.

<sup>24</sup>They came up to Jesus and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And He got up and rebuked the wind and the surging waves, and they stopped, and it became calm.

<sup>25</sup>And He said to them, “Where is your faith?” But they were fearful and amazed, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?”

The Demon-possessed Man Cured

<sup>26</sup>Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

<sup>27</sup>And when He stepped out onto the land, a man from the city met Him who was possessed with demons; and he had not put on clothing for a long time and was not living in a house, but among the tombs.

<sup>28</sup>And seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him, and said with a loud voice, “What business do You have with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!”

<sup>29</sup>For He had already commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him many times; and he was bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard, and yet he would break the restraints and be driven by the demon into the desert.

<sup>30</sup>And Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion”; because many demons had entered him.

<sup>31</sup>And they were begging Him not to command them to go away into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup>Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding there on the mountain; and the demons begged Him to permit them to enter the pigs. And He gave them permission.

<sup>33</sup>And the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

<sup>34</sup>Now when the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran away and reported everything in the city, and in the country.

<sup>35</sup>And the people came out to see what had happened; and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting down at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they became frightened.

<sup>36</sup>Those who had seen everything reported to them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been made well.

<sup>37</sup>And all the people of the territory of the Gerasenes and the surrounding region asked Him to leave them, because they were overwhelmed by great fear; and He got into a boat and returned.

<sup>38</sup>But the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging Him that he might accompany Him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

<sup>39</sup>“Return to your home and describe what great things God has done for you.” So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Miracles of Healing

<sup>40</sup>And as Jesus was returning, the people welcomed Him, for they had all been waiting for Him.

<sup>41</sup>And a man named Jairus came, and he was an official of the synagogue; and he fell at Jesus’ feet, and began urging Him to come to his house;

<sup>42</sup>for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as He went, the crowds were pressing against Him.

<sup>43</sup>And a woman who had suffered a chronic flow of blood for twelve years, and could not be healed by anyone,

<sup>44</sup>came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup>And Jesus said, “Who is the one who touched Me?” And while they were all denying it, Peter said, “Master, the people are crowding and pressing in on You.”

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, “Someone did touch Me, for I was aware that power had left Me.”

<sup>47</sup>Now when the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came trembling and fell down before Him, and admitted in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she had been immediately healed.

<sup>48</sup>And He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

<sup>49</sup>While He was still speaking, someone *came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, “Your daughter has died; do not trouble the Teacher anymore.”

<sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard this, He responded to him, “Do not be afraid any longer; only believe, and she will be made well.”

<sup>51</sup>When He came to the house, He did not allow anyone to enter with Him except Peter, John, and James, and the girl’s father and mother.

<sup>52</sup>Now they were all weeping and mourning for her; but He said, “Stop weeping, for she has not died, but is asleep.”

<sup>53</sup>And they began laughing at Him, knowing that she had died.

<sup>54</sup>He, however, took her by the hand and spoke forcefully, saying, “Child, arise!”

<sup>56</sup>Her parents were amazed; but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke 9

Ministry of the Twelve

<sup>1</sup>Now He called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons, and the power to heal diseases.

<sup>2</sup>And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to perform healing.

<sup>3</sup>And He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, neither a staff, nor a bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have two tunics.

<sup>4</sup>And whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that city.

<sup>5</sup>And as for all who do not receive you, when you leave that city, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”

<sup>6</sup>And as they were leaving, they began going throughout the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

<sup>7</sup>Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening; and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen.

<sup>9</sup>Herod said, “I myself had John beheaded; but who is this Man about whom I hear such things?” And he kept trying to see Him.

<sup>10</sup>When the apostles returned, they gave an account to Him of all that they had done. And taking them with Him, He withdrew privately to a city called Bethsaida.

<sup>11</sup>But the crowds were aware of this and followed Him; and He welcomed them and began speaking to them about the kingdom of God, and curing those who had need of healing.

Five Thousand Men Fed

<sup>12</sup>Now the day was ending, and the twelve came up and said to Him, “Dismiss the crowd, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and get something to eat; because here, we are in a secluded place.”

<sup>13</sup>But He said to them, “You give them something to eat!” But they said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people.”

<sup>14</sup>(For there were about five thousand men.) But He said to His disciples, “Have them recline to eat in groups of about fifty each.”

<sup>15</sup>They did so, and had them all recline.

<sup>16</sup>And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and, looking up to heaven, He blessed them and broke them, and gave them to the disciples again and again, to serve the crowd.

<sup>17</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied; and the broken pieces which they had left over were picked up, twelve baskets full.

Peter Says Jesus Is The Christ

<sup>18</sup>And it happened that while He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, saying, “Who do the people say that I am?”

<sup>19</sup>They answered and said, “John the Baptist, and others say Elijah; but others, that one of the prophets of old has risen.”

<sup>20</sup>And He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” And Peter answered and said, “The Christ of God.”

<sup>21</sup>But He warned them and instructed them not to tell this to anyone,

<sup>22</sup>saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed and be raised on the third day.”

<sup>23</sup>And He was saying to them all, “If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me.

<sup>24</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake, this is the one who will save it.

<sup>25</sup>For what good does it do a person if he gains the whole world, but loses or forfeits himself?

<sup>26</sup>For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the Father and the holy angels.

<sup>27</sup>But I say to you truthfully, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

The Transfiguration

<sup>28</sup>About eight days after these sayings, He took along Peter, John, and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

<sup>29</sup>And while He was praying, the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing became white and gleaming.

<sup>30</sup>And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who, appearing in glory, were speaking of His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup>Now Peter and his companions had been overcome with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who were standing with Him.

<sup>33</sup>And as these two men were leaving Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good that we are here; and let’s make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not realizing what he was saying.

<sup>34</sup>But while he was saying this, a cloud formed and began to overshadow them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

<sup>35</sup>And then a voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him!”

<sup>36</sup>And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent, and reported to no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>On the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him.

<sup>38</sup>And a man from the crowd shouted, saying, “Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, because he is my only son, <sup>39</sup>and a spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams, and it throws him into a convulsion with foaming at the mouth; and only with difficulty does it leave him, mauling him as it leaves.

<sup>40</sup>And I begged Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not.”

<sup>41</sup>And Jesus answered and said, “You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

<sup>42</sup>Now while he was still approaching, the demon slammed him to the ground and threw him into a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy and gave him back to his father.

<sup>43</sup>And they were all amazed at the greatness of God. But while everyone was astonished at all that He was doing, He said to His disciples,

<sup>44</sup>“As for you, let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of Man is going to be handed over to men.”

<sup>45</sup>But they did not understand this statement, and it was concealed from them so that they would not comprehend it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

The Test of Greatness

<sup>46</sup>Now an argument started among them as to which of them might be the greatest.

<sup>47</sup>But Jesus, knowing what they were thinking in their hearts, took a child and had him stand by His side,

<sup>48</sup>and He said to them, “Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me; for the one who is least among all of you, this is the one who is great.”

<sup>49</sup>John answered and said, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name; and we tried to prevent him, because he does not follow along with us.”

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Do not hinder him; for the one who is not against you is for you.”

<sup>51</sup>When the days were approaching for His ascension, He was determined to go to Jerusalem;

<sup>52</sup>and He sent messengers on ahead of Him, and they went and entered a village of the Samaritans to make arrangements for Him.

<sup>53</sup>And they did not receive Him, because He was traveling toward Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup>When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?”

<sup>55</sup>But He turned and rebuked them.

<sup>56</sup>And they went on to another village.

Exacting Discipleship

<sup>57</sup>As they were going on the road, someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.”

<sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, “The foxes have holes and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

<sup>59</sup>And He said to another, “Follow Me.” But he said, “Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.”

<sup>60</sup>But He said to him, “Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim everywhere the kingdom of God.”

<sup>61</sup>Another also said, “I will follow You, Lord; but first permit me to say goodbye to those at my home.”

<sup>62</sup>But Jesus said to him, “No one, after putting his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Luke 10

The Seventy-two Sent Out

<sup>1</sup>Now after this the Lord appointed seventy-two others, and sent them in pairs ahead of Him to every city and place where He Himself was going to come.

<sup>2</sup>And He was saying to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore plead with the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

<sup>6</sup>And if a man of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you.

<sup>7</sup>Stay in that house, eating and drinking what they provide; for the laborer is deserving of his wages. Do not move from house to house.

<sup>8</sup>Whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat what is served to you;

<sup>9</sup>and heal those in it who are sick, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’

<sup>10</sup>But whatever city you enter and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,

<sup>11</sup>‘Even the dust of your city which clings to our feet we wipe off in protest against you; yet be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near.’

<sup>12</sup>I say to you, it will be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that city.

<sup>13</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that occurred in you had occurred in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>14</sup>But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.

<sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum, will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Hades!

<sup>16</sup>“The one who listens to you listens to Me, and the one who rejects you rejects Me; but the one who rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me.”

The Joyful Results

<sup>17</sup>Now the seventy-two returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name!”

<sup>18</sup>And He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning.

<sup>19</sup>Behold, I have given you authority to walk on snakes and scorpions, and authority over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will injure you.

<sup>20</sup>Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven.”

<sup>21</sup>At that very time He rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for doing so was well pleasing in Your sight.

<sup>22</sup>All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son determines to reveal Him.”

<sup>23</sup>Turning to the disciples, He said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see the things you see;

<sup>24</sup>for I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see the things that you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things that you hear, and did not hear them.”

<sup>25</sup>And behold, a lawyer stood up and put Him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>26</sup>And He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How does it read to you?”

<sup>27</sup>And he answered, “YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.”

<sup>28</sup>And He said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.”

<sup>29</sup>But wanting to justify himself, he said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

The Good Samaritan

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied and said, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he encountered robbers, and they stripped him and beat him, and went away leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup>And by coincidence a priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup>Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup>But a Samaritan who was on a journey came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion, <sup>34</sup>and came to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

<sup>35</sup>On the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return, I will repay you.’

<sup>36</sup>Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers’ hands?”

<sup>37</sup>And he said, “The one who showed compassion to him.” Then Jesus said to him, “Go and do the same.”

Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup>Now as they were traveling along, He entered a village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home.

<sup>39</sup>And she had a sister called Mary, who was also seated at the Lord’s feet, and was listening to His word.

<sup>40</sup>But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him and said, “Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to do the serving by myself? Then tell her to help me.”

<sup>41</sup>But the Lord answered and said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things;

<sup>42</sup>but only one thing is necessary; for Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.”

Luke 11

Instruction about Prayer

<sup>1</sup>It happened that while Jesus was praying in a certain place, when He had finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.”

<sup>2</sup>And He said to them, “When you pray, say: ‘ Father, hallowed be Your name.

Your kingdom come.

<sup>4</sup> ‘And forgive us our sins, For we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And do not lead us into temptation.’ ”

<sup>5</sup>And He said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and goes to him at midnight and says to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves,

<sup>6</sup>because a friend of mine has come to me from a journey and I have nothing to serve him’;

<sup>7</sup>and from inside he answers and says, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been shut and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.’

<sup>8</sup>I tell you, even if he will not get up and give him anything just because he is his friend, yet because of his shamelessness he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

<sup>9</sup> “So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

<sup>10</sup>For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, it will be opened.

<sup>11</sup>Now which one of you fathers will his son ask for a fish, and instead of a fish, he will give him a snake?

<sup>12</sup>Or he will even ask for an egg, and his father will give him a scorpion?

<sup>13</sup>So if you, despite being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?”

Pharisees’ Blasphemy

<sup>14</sup>And He was casting out a mute demon; when the demon had gone out, the man who was previously unable to speak talked, and the crowds were amazed.

<sup>15</sup>But some of them said, “He casts out the demons by Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons.”

<sup>17</sup>But He knew their thoughts and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste; and a house divided against itself falls.

<sup>18</sup>And if Satan also has been divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you claim that I cast out the demons by Beelzebul.

<sup>19</sup>Yet if by Beelzebul I cast out the demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they will be your judges.

<sup>20</sup>But if I cast out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

<sup>22</sup>But when someone stronger than he attacks him and overpowers him, that man takes away his armor on which he had relied and distributes his plunder.

<sup>23</sup>The one who is not with Me is against Me; and the one who does not gather with Me scatters.

<sup>24</sup>“When the unclean spirit comes out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it then says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’

<sup>25</sup>And when it comes, it finds it swept and put in order.

<sup>26</sup>Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they come in and live there; and the last condition of that person becomes worse than the first.”

<sup>27</sup>While Jesus was saying these things, one of the women in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that carried You, and the breasts at which You nursed!”

<sup>28</sup>But He said, “On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and follow it.”

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>29</sup>Now as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, “This generation is a wicked generation; it demands a sign, and so no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

<sup>30</sup>For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will the Son of Man be to this generation.

<sup>33</sup> “No one lights a lamp and puts it away in a cellar nor under a basket, but on the lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light.

<sup>34</sup>Your eye is the lamp of your body; when your eye is clear, your whole body also is full of light; but when it is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

<sup>35</sup>So watch out that the light in you is not darkness.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore if your whole body is full of light, without any dark part, it will be wholly illuminated, as when the lamp illuminates you with its light.”

Woes upon the Pharisees

<sup>37</sup>Now when He had spoken, a Pharisee *asked Him to have lunch with him; and He went in and reclined at the table.

<sup>38</sup>When the Pharisee saw this, he was surprised that Jesus had not first ceremonially washed before the meal.

<sup>39</sup>But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish; but your inside is full of greed and wickedness.

<sup>40</sup>You foolish ones, did He who made the outside not make the inside also?

<sup>41</sup>But give that which is within as a charitable gift, and then all things are clean for you.

<sup>42</sup>“But woe to you Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mint, rue, and every kind of garden herb, and yet you ignore justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

<sup>44</sup>Woe to you! For you are like unseen tombs, and the people who walk over them are unaware of it.”

<sup>46</sup>But He said, “Woe to you lawyers as well! For you load people with burdens that are hard to bear, while you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

<sup>47</sup>Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and it was your fathers who killed them.

<sup>48</sup>So you are witnesses and you approve of the deeds of your fathers; because it was they who killed them, and you build their tombs.

<sup>49</sup>For this reason also, the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill, and some they will persecute,

<sup>50</sup>so that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation,

<sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the house of God; yes, I tell you, it shall be charged against this generation.’

<sup>52</sup>Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you yourselves did not enter, and you hindered those who were entering.”

<sup>53</sup>When He left that place, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be very hostile and to interrogate Him about many subjects,

Luke 12

God Knows and Cares

<sup>1</sup>Under these circumstances, after so many thousands of people had gathered together that they were stepping on one another, He began saying to His disciples first of all, “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

<sup>2</sup>But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

<sup>3</sup>Accordingly, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

<sup>4</sup> “Now I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

<sup>5</sup>But I will warn you whom to fear: fear the One who, after He has killed someone, has the power to throw that person into hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him!

<sup>6</sup>Are five sparrows not sold for two assaria? And yet not one of them has gone unnoticed in the sight of God.

<sup>7</sup>But even the hairs of your head are all counted. Do not fear; you are more valuable than a great number of sparrows.

<sup>8</sup> “Now I say to you, everyone who confesses Me before people, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God;

<sup>9</sup>but the one who denies Me before people will be denied before the angels of God.

<sup>10</sup>And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him.

<sup>11</sup>Now when they bring you before the synagogues and the officials and the authorities, do not worry about how or what you are to speak in your defense, or what you are to say;

<sup>12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

Greed Denounced

<sup>13</sup>Now someone in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.”

<sup>14</sup>But He said to him, “You there—who appointed Me a judge or arbitrator over the two of you?”

<sup>15</sup>But He said to them, “Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed; for not even when one is affluent does his life consist of his possessions.”

<sup>16</sup>And He told them a parable, saying, “The land of a rich man was very productive.

<sup>17</sup>And he began thinking to himself, saying, ‘What shall I do, since I have no place to store my crops?’

<sup>18</sup>And he said, ‘This is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and I will store all my grain and my goods there.

<sup>19</sup>And I will say to myself, “You have many goods stored up for many years to come; relax, eat, drink, and enjoy yourself!”’

<sup>20</sup>But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your soul is demanded of you; and as for all that you have prepared, who will own it now?’

<sup>21</sup>Such is the one who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich in relation to God.”

<sup>22</sup>And He said to His disciples, “For this reason I tell you, do not worry about your life, as to what you are to eat; nor for your body, as to what you are to wear.

<sup>23</sup>For life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

<sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap; they have no storeroom nor barn, and yet God feeds them; how much more valuable you are than the birds!

<sup>26</sup>Therefore if you cannot do even a very little thing, why do you worry about the other things?

<sup>27</sup>Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither labor nor spin; but I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.

<sup>28</sup>Now if God so clothes the grass in the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you? You of little faith!

<sup>29</sup>And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying.

<sup>31</sup>But seek His kingdom, and these things will be provided to you.

<sup>32</sup>Do not be afraid, little flock, because your Father has chosen to give you the kingdom.

<sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Be in Readiness

<sup>36</sup>You are also to be like people who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that they may immediately open the door for him when he comes and knocks.

<sup>37</sup>Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find on the alert when he comes; truly I say to you, that he will prepare himself to serve, and have them recline at the table, and he will come up and serve them.

<sup>38</sup>Whether he comes in the second watch, or even in the third, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

<sup>39</sup>“But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into.

<sup>40</sup>You too, be ready; because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not think He will.”

<sup>41</sup>Peter said, “Lord, are You telling this parable to us, or to everyone else as well?”

<sup>42</sup>And the Lord said, “Who then is the faithful and sensible steward, whom his master will put in charge of his servants, to give them their rations at the proper time?

<sup>43</sup>Blessed is that slave whom his master finds so doing when he comes.

<sup>44</sup>Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

<sup>45</sup>But if that slave says in his heart, ‘My master will take a long time to come,’ and he begins to beat the other slaves, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk;

<sup>46</sup>then the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect, and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two, and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

<sup>47</sup>And that slave who knew his master’s will and did not get ready or act in accordance with his will, will receive many blows,

<sup>48</sup>but the one who did not know it, and committed acts deserving of a beating, will receive only a few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and to whom they entrusted much, of him they will ask all the more.

Christ Divides People

<sup>49</sup> “I have come to cast fire upon the earth; and how I wish it were already kindled!

<sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!

<sup>51</sup>Do you think that I came to provide peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division;

<sup>52</sup>for from now on five members in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three.

<sup>53</sup>They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

<sup>54</sup>And He was also saying to the crowds, “Whenever you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and so it turns out.

<sup>55</sup>And whenever you feel a south wind blowing, you say, ‘It will be a hot day,’ and it turns out that way.

<sup>56</sup>You hypocrites! You know how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you do not know how to analyze this present time?

<sup>57</sup> “And why do you not even judge by yourselves what is right?

<sup>58</sup>For when you are going with your accuser to appear before the magistrate, on the way, make an effort to settle with him, so that he does not drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

<sup>59</sup>I tell you, you will not get out of there until you have paid up the very last lepton.”

Luke 13

Call to Repent

<sup>1</sup>Now on that very occasion there were some present who reported to Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

<sup>2</sup>And Jesus responded and said to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans just because they have suffered this fate?

<sup>3</sup>No, I tell you, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.

<sup>4</sup>Or do you think that those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them were worse offenders than all the other people who live in Jerusalem?

<sup>5</sup>No, I tell you, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.”

<sup>6</sup>And He began telling this parable: “A man had a fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and did not find any.

<sup>7</sup>And he said to the vineyard-keeper, ‘Look! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree without finding any. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground?’

<sup>8</sup>But he answered and said to him, ‘Sir, leave it alone for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

<sup>9</sup>and if it bears fruit next year, fine; but if not, cut it down.’ ”

Healing on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup>Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

<sup>11</sup>And there was a woman who for eighteen years had had a sickness caused by a spirit; and she was bent over double, and could not straighten up at all.

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your sickness.”

<sup>13</sup>And He laid His hands on her; and immediately she stood up straight again, and began glorifying God.

<sup>14</sup>But the synagogue leader, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the crowd in response, “There are six days during which work should be done; so come during them and get healed, and not on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>15</sup>But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites, does each of you on the Sabbath not untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to water it?

<sup>16</sup>And this woman, a daughter of Abraham as she is, whom Satan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this restraint on the Sabbath day?”

<sup>17</sup>And as He said this, all His opponents were being humiliated; and the entire crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things being done by Him.

Parables of Mustard Seed and Leaven

<sup>18</sup>So He was saying, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?

<sup>19</sup>It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his own garden; and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.”

<sup>20</sup>And again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

<sup>21</sup>It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three sata of flour until it was all leavened.”

Teaching in the Villages

<sup>22</sup>And He was passing through one city and village after another, teaching, and proceeding on His way to Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup>And someone said to Him, “Lord, are there just a few who are being saved?” And He said to them, <sup>24</sup>“Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

<sup>25</sup>Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin standing outside and knocking on the door, saying, ‘Lord, open up to us!’ and He then will answer and say to you, ‘I do not know where you are from.’

<sup>26</sup>Then you will begin saying, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets!’

<sup>27</sup>And yet He will say, ‘I do not know where you are from; LEAVE ME, ALL YOU EVILDOERS.’

<sup>28</sup>In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out.

<sup>29</sup>And they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.

<sup>30</sup>And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

<sup>32</sup>And He said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Behold, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I reach My goal.’

<sup>33</sup>Nevertheless I must go on My journey today and tomorrow and the next day; for it cannot be that a prophet would perish outside Jerusalem.

<sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who have been sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her young under her wings, and you were unwilling!

<sup>35</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate; and I say to you, you will not see Me until you say, ‘BLESSED IS THE ONE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD!’ ”

Luke 14

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>3</sup>And Jesus responded and said to the lawyers and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?”

<sup>4</sup>But they kept silent. And He took hold of him and healed him, and sent him away.

<sup>5</sup>And He said to them, “Which one of you will have a son or an ox fall into a well, and will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?”

<sup>6</sup>And they could offer no reply to this.

Parable of the Guests

<sup>7</sup>Now He began telling a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been picking out the places of honor at the table, saying to them,

<sup>8</sup>“Whenever you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for someone more distinguished than you may have been invited by him,

<sup>9</sup>and the one who invited you both will come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this person,’ and then in disgrace you will proceed to occupy the last place.

<sup>10</sup>But whenever you are invited, go and take the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; then you will have honor in the sight of all who are dining at the table with you.

<sup>11</sup>For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>12</sup>Now He also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, “Whenever you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor wealthy neighbors, otherwise they may also invite you to a meal in return, and that will be your repayment.

<sup>13</sup>But whenever you give a banquet, invite people who are poor, who have disabilities, who are limping, and people who are blind;

<sup>14</sup>and you will be blessed, since they do not have the means to repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

<sup>15</sup>Now when one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, “Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!”

Parable of the Dinner

<sup>16</sup>But He said to him, “A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many; <sup>17</sup>and at the dinner hour he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, because everything is ready now.’

<sup>18</sup>And yet they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, ‘I purchased a field and I need to go out to look at it; please consider me excused.’

<sup>19</sup>And another one said, ‘I bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.’

<sup>20</sup>And another one said, ‘I took a woman as my wife, and for that reason I cannot come.’

<sup>21</sup>And the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, ‘Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here those who are poor, those with disabilities, those who are blind, and those who are limping.’

<sup>22</sup>And later the slave said, ‘Master, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’

<sup>23</sup>And the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the roads and the hedges and press upon them to come in, so that my house will be filled.

<sup>24</sup>For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my dinner.’ ”

Discipleship Tested

<sup>25</sup>Now large crowds were going along with Him, and He turned and said to them,

<sup>26</sup>“If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple.

<sup>27</sup>Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

<sup>28</sup>For which one of you, when he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it?

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who are watching it will begin to ridicule him,

<sup>30</sup>saying, ‘This person began to build, and was not able to finish!’

<sup>32</sup>Otherwise, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and requests terms of peace.

<sup>33</sup>So then, none of you can be My disciple who does not give up all his own possessions.

<sup>34</sup> “Therefore, salt is good; but if even salt has become tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?

<sup>35</sup> It is useless either for the soil or the manure pile, so it is thrown out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 15

The Lost Sheep

<sup>1</sup> Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near Jesus to listen to Him.

<sup>2</sup> And both the Pharisees and the scribes began to complain, saying, “This Man receives sinners and eats with them.”

<sup>4</sup> “What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the other ninety-nine in the open pasture and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it?

<sup>5</sup> And when he has found it, he puts it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

<sup>6</sup> And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost!’

<sup>7</sup> I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

The Lost Coin

<sup>8</sup> “Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?

<sup>9</sup> And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found the coin which I had lost!’

<sup>10</sup> In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

The Prodigal Son

<sup>11</sup>And He said, “A man had two sons.

<sup>12</sup>The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate that is coming to me.’ And so he divided his wealth between them.

<sup>13</sup>And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey to a distant country, and there he squandered his estate in wild living.

<sup>14</sup>Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country, and he began doing without.

<sup>15</sup>So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

<sup>16</sup>And he longed to have his fill of the carob pods that the pigs were eating, and no one was giving him anything.

<sup>17</sup>But when he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired laborers have more than enough bread, but I am dying here from hunger!

<sup>18</sup>I will set out and go to my father, and will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight;

<sup>19</sup>I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired laborers.” ’

<sup>20</sup>So he set out and came to his father. But when he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion for him, and ran and embraced him and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup>And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

<sup>22</sup>But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet;

<sup>24</sup>for this son of mine was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.’ And they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup>“Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

<sup>27</sup>And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has received him back safe and sound.’

<sup>28</sup>But he became angry and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began pleading with him.

<sup>29</sup>But he answered and said to his father, ‘Look! For so many years I have been serving you and I have never neglected a command of yours; and yet you never gave me a young goat, so that I might celebrate with my friends;

<sup>30</sup>but when this son of yours came, who has devoured your wealth with prostitutes, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.’

<sup>31</sup>And he said to him, ‘Son, you have always been with me, and all that is mine is yours.

<sup>32</sup>But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has begun to live, and was lost and has been found.’ ”

Luke 16

The Unrighteous Manager

<sup>1</sup>Now He was also saying to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and this manager was reported to him as squandering his possessions.

<sup>2</sup>And he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’

<sup>3</sup>And the manager said to himself, ‘What am I to do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig; I am ashamed to beg.

<sup>4</sup>I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management people will welcome me into their homes.’

<sup>5</sup>And he summoned each one of his master’s debtors, and he began saying to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

<sup>6</sup>And he said, ‘A hundred jugs of oil.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ And he said, ‘A hundred kors of wheat.’ He *said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’

<sup>8</sup>And his master complimented the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of this age are more shrewd in relation to their own kind than the sons of light.

<sup>9</sup>And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of the wealth of unrighteousness, so that when it is all gone, they will receive you into the eternal dwellings.

<sup>10</sup> “The one who is faithful in a very little thing is also faithful in much; and the one who is unrighteous in a very little thing is also unrighteous in much.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore if you have not been faithful in the use of unrighteous wealth, who will entrust the true wealth to you?

<sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in the use of that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own?

<sup>13</sup>No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

<sup>14</sup>Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and were ridiculing Him.

<sup>15</sup>And He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of people, but God knows your hearts; because that which is highly esteemed among people is detestable in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup> “The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John came; since that time the gospel of the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.

<sup>17</sup>But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter of the Law to fail.

<sup>18</sup> “Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup> “Now there was a rich man, and he habitually dressed in purple and fine linen, enjoying himself in splendor every day.

<sup>21</sup>and longing to be fed from the scraps which fell from the rich man’s table; not only that, the dogs also were coming and licking his sores.

<sup>22</sup>Now it happened that the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to Abraham’s arms; and the rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>23</sup>And in Hades he raised his eyes, being in torment, and *saw Abraham far away and Lazarus in his arms.

<sup>24</sup>And he cried out and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, so that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool off my tongue, for I am in agony in this flame.’

<sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that during your life you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus bad things; but now he is being comforted here, and you are in agony.

<sup>26</sup>And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set, so that those who want to go over from here to you will not be able, nor will any people cross over from there to us.'

<sup>27</sup>And he said, 'Then I request of you, father, that you send him to my father's house—

<sup>28</sup>for I have five brothers—in order that he may warn them, so that they will not come to this place of torment as well.'

<sup>29</sup>But Abraham *said, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.'

<sup>30</sup>But he said, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent!'

<sup>31</sup>But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.' ”

Luke 17

Instructions

<sup>1</sup>Now He said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks come, but woe to one through whom they come!

<sup>2</sup>It is better for him if a millstone is hung around his neck and he is thrown into the sea, than that he may cause one of these little ones to sin.

<sup>3</sup>Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

<sup>4</sup>And if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

<sup>6</sup>But the Lord said, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea'; and it would obey you.

<sup>7</sup> “Now which of you, having a slave plowing or tending sheep, will say to him after he comes in from the field, ‘Come immediately and recline at the table to eat’?”

<sup>8</sup> On the contrary, will he not say to him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, and properly clothe yourself and serve me while I eat and drink; and afterward you may eat and drink’?”

<sup>9</sup> He does not thank the slave because he did the things which were commanded, does he?”

<sup>10</sup> So you too, when you do all the things which were commanded you, say, ‘We are unworthy slaves; we have done only that which we ought to have done.’ ”

Ten Men with Leprosy Healed

<sup>11</sup> While He was on the way to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> And as He entered a village, ten men with leprosy who stood at a distance met Him;

<sup>13</sup> and they raised their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

<sup>14</sup> When He saw them, He said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they were going, they were cleansed.

<sup>15</sup> Now one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice, <sup>16</sup> and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus responded and said, “Were there not ten cleansed? But the nine—where are they?”

<sup>18</sup> Was no one found who returned to give glory to God, except this foreigner?”

<sup>19</sup> And He said to him, “Stand up and go; your faith has made you well.”

Second Coming Foretold

<sup>20</sup>Now He was questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, and He answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not coming with signs that can be observed;

<sup>21</sup>nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or, ‘There it is!’ For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst.”

<sup>22</sup>And He said to the disciples, “The days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

<sup>23</sup>And they will say to you, ‘Look there,’ or, ‘Look here!’ Do not leave, and do not run after them.

<sup>24</sup>For just like the lightning, when it flashes out of one part of the sky, shines to the other part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in His day.

<sup>25</sup>But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup>And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man:

<sup>27</sup>people were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, and they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>28</sup>It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, and they were building;

<sup>29</sup>but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

<sup>30</sup>It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

<sup>34</sup>I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other will be left.

<sup>35</sup>There will be two women grinding at the same place; one will be taken and the other will be left.

<sup>36</sup>[Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left.”]

<sup>37</sup>And responding, they *said to Him, “Where, Lord?” And He said to them, “Where the body is, there also the vultures will be gathered.”

Luke 18

Parables on Prayer

<sup>1</sup>Now He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ought to pray and not become discouraged,

<sup>2</sup>saying, “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God and did not respect any person.

<sup>3</sup>Now there was a widow in that city, and she kept coming to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my opponent.’

<sup>4</sup>For a while he was unwilling; but later he said to himself, ‘Even though I do not fear God nor respect any person,

<sup>5</sup>yet because this widow is bothering me, I will give her justice; otherwise by continually coming she will wear me out.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge *said;

<sup>7</sup>now, will God not bring about justice for His elect who cry out to Him day and night, and will He delay long for them?

<sup>8</sup>I tell you that He will bring about justice for them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?”

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup>Now He also told this parable to some people who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and viewed others with contempt:

<sup>10</sup>“Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and began praying this in regard to himself: ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other people: swindlers, crooked, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

<sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.’

<sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing some distance away, was even unwilling to raise his eyes toward heaven, but was beating his chest, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, the sinner!’

<sup>14</sup>I tell you, this man went to his house justified rather than the other one; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>15</sup>Now they were bringing even their babies to Him so that He would touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they began rebuking them.

<sup>16</sup>But Jesus called for the little ones, saying, “Allow the children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

<sup>17</sup>Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it at all.”

The Rich Young Ruler

<sup>18</sup>A ruler questioned Him, saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>19</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone.

<sup>20</sup>You know the commandments, ‘DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, DO NOT MURDER, DO NOT STEAL, DO NOT GIVE FALSE TESTIMONY, HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER.’ ”

<sup>21</sup>And he said, “All these things I have kept since my youth.”

<sup>22</sup>Now when Jesus heard this, He said to him, “One thing you still lack; sell all that you possess and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

<sup>23</sup>But when he had heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely wealthy.

<sup>24</sup>And Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!

<sup>26</sup>Those who heard Him said, “And so who can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup>But He said, “The things that are impossible with people are possible with God.”

<sup>29</sup>And He said to them, “Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>who will not receive many times as much at this time, and in the age to come, eternal life.”

<sup>31</sup>Now He took the twelve aside and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that have been written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished.

<sup>32</sup>For He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and will be ridiculed, and abused, and spit upon,

<sup>33</sup>and after they have flogged Him, they will kill Him; and on the third day He will rise.”

<sup>34</sup>The disciples understood none of these things, and the meaning of this statement was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend the things that were said.

Bartimaeus Receives Sight

<sup>35</sup>Now as Jesus was approaching Jericho, a man who was blind was sitting by the road, begging.

<sup>36</sup>But when he heard a crowd going by, he began inquiring what this was.

<sup>37</sup>They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

<sup>38</sup>And he called out, saying, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup>Those who led the way were sternly telling him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup>And Jesus stopped and commanded that he be brought to Him; and when he came near, He asked him,

<sup>41</sup>“What do you want Me to do for you?” And he said, “Lord, I want to regain my sight!”

<sup>42</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Regain your sight; your faith has made you well.”

<sup>43</sup>And immediately he regained his sight and began following Him, glorifying God; and when all the people saw it, they gave praise to God.

Luke 19

Zaccheus Converted

<sup>2</sup>And there was a man called by the name of Zaccheus; he was a chief tax collector and he was rich.

<sup>3</sup>Zaccheus was trying to see who Jesus was, and he was unable due to the crowd, because he was short in stature.

<sup>4</sup>So he ran on ahead and climbed up a sycamore tree in order to see Him, because He was about to pass through that way.

<sup>5</sup>And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.”

<sup>6</sup>And he hurried and came down, and received Him joyfully.

<sup>7</sup>When the people saw this, they all began to complain, saying, “He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner!”

<sup>8</sup>But Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I am giving to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone, I am giving back four times as much.”

<sup>9</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham.

<sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

Parable of the Ten Minas

<sup>11</sup>Now while they were listening to these things, Jesus went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

<sup>12</sup>So He said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then to return.

<sup>13</sup>And he called ten of his own slaves and gave them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Do business with this money until I come back.’

<sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’

<sup>15</sup>When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these slaves, to whom he had given the money, be summoned to him so that he would learn how much they had made by the business they had done.

<sup>17</sup>And he said to him, ‘Well done, good slave; since you have been faithful in a very little thing, you are to have authority over ten cities.’

<sup>18</sup>The second one came, saying, ‘Your mina, master, has made five minas.’

<sup>19</sup>And he said to him also, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’

<sup>20</sup>And then another came, saying, ‘Master, here is your mina, which I kept tucked away in a handkerchief;

<sup>21</sup>for I was afraid of you, because you are a demanding man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.’

<sup>22</sup>He *said to him, ‘From your own lips I will judge you, you worthless slave. Did you know that I am a demanding man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow?

<sup>23</sup>And so why did you not put my money in the bank, and when I came back, I would have collected it with interest?’

<sup>24</sup>And then he said to the other slaves who were present, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.’

<sup>25</sup>And they said to him, ‘Master, he already has ten minas.’

<sup>26</sup>‘I tell you that to everyone who has, more shall be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away.

<sup>27</sup>But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them in my presence.’ ”

Triumphal Entry

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus said these things, He was going on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>When He approached Bethphage and Bethany, near the mountain that is called Olivet, He sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup>saying, “Go into the village ahead of you; there, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, on which no one yet has ever sat; untie it and bring it here.

<sup>31</sup>And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ you shall say this: ‘The Lord has need of it.’ ”

<sup>32</sup>So those who were sent left and found it just as He had told them.

<sup>33</sup>And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

<sup>34</sup>They said, “The Lord has need of it.”

<sup>35</sup>And they brought it to Jesus, and they threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it.

<sup>36</sup>Now as He was going, they were spreading their cloaks on the road.

<sup>37</sup>And as soon as He was approaching, near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles which they had seen,

<sup>38</sup>shouting: “BLESSED IS the King, THE ONE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD; Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

<sup>39</sup>And yet some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you, if these stop speaking, the stones will cry out!”

<sup>41</sup>When He approached Jerusalem, He saw the city and wept over it,

<sup>42</sup>saying, “If you had known on this day, even you, the conditions for peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup>For the days will come upon you when your enemies will put up a barricade against you, and surround you and hem you in on every side,

<sup>44</sup>and they will level you to the ground, and throw down your children within you, and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”

Traders Driven from the Temple

<sup>45</sup>And Jesus entered the temple grounds and began to drive out those who were selling,

<sup>46</sup>saying to them, “It is written: ‘AND MY HOUSE WILL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER,’ but you have made it a DEN OF ROBBERS.”

<sup>47</sup>And He was teaching daily in the temple; but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people were trying to put Him to death,

<sup>48</sup>and yet they could not find anything that they might do, for all the people were hanging on to every word He said.

Luke 20

Jesus’ Authority Questioned

<sup>1</sup>On one of the days while He was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders confronted Him,

<sup>2</sup>and they declared, saying to Him, “Tell us by what authority You are doing these things, or who is the one who gave You this authority?”

<sup>3</sup>But He replied to them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell Me:

<sup>5</sup>They discussed among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’

<sup>6</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us to death, since they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

<sup>7</sup>And so they answered that they did not know where it came from.

<sup>8</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.”

Parable of the Vine-growers

<sup>9</sup>But He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time.

<sup>10</sup>At the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, so that they would give him his share of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine-growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup>And he proceeded to send another slave; but they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup>And he proceeded to send a third; but this one too they wounded and threw out.

<sup>13</sup>Now the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What am I to do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup>But when the vine-growers saw him, they discussed with one another, saying, ‘This is the heir; let’s kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.’

<sup>15</sup>And so they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

<sup>16</sup>He will come and put these vine-growers to death, and will give the vineyard to others.” However, when they heard this, they said, “May it never happen!”

<sup>17</sup>But Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what is this statement that has been written: ‘A STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS HAS BECOME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE’?

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”

Paying Taxes to Caesar

<sup>19</sup>The scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and yet they feared the people; for they were aware that He had spoken this parable against them.

<sup>20</sup>And so they watched Him closely, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order that they might catch Him in some statement, so that they could hand Him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

<sup>21</sup>And the spies questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You are not partial to anyone, but You teach the way of God on the basis of truth.

<sup>23</sup>But He saw through their trickery and said to them,

<sup>25</sup>And He said to them, “Then pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>26</sup>And they were unable to catch Him in a statement in the presence of the people; and they were amazed at His answer, and said nothing.

Is There a Resurrection?

<sup>27</sup>Now some of the Sadducees (who maintain that there is no resurrection) came to Him,

<sup>28</sup>and they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife, and he is childless, that his brother is to marry the wife and raise up children for his brother.

<sup>29</sup>So then, there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife and died childless;

<sup>32</sup>Finally the woman also died.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, which one’s wife does the woman become? For all seven married her.”

<sup>35</sup>but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;

<sup>36</sup>for they cannot even die anymore, for they are like angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup>But as for the fact that the dead are raised, even Moses revealed this in the passage about the burning bush, where he calls the Lord THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB.

<sup>38</sup>Now He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to Him.”

<sup>40</sup>For they did not have the courage to question Him any longer about anything.

<sup>41</sup>But He said to them, “How is it that they say the Christ is David’s son?

<sup>42</sup>For David himself says in the book of Psalms, “THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

<sup>45</sup>And while all the people were listening, He said to the disciples,

Luke 21

The Widow’s Gift

<sup>3</sup>And He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of them;

<sup>4</sup>for they all contributed to the offering from their surplus; but she, from her poverty, put in all that she had to live on.”

<sup>5</sup>And while some were talking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and vowed gifts, He said,

<sup>6</sup>“As for these things which you are observing, the days will come when there will not be left one stone upon another, which will not be torn down.”

<sup>7</sup>They asked Him questions, saying, “Teacher, when therefore will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup>And He said, “See to it that you are not misled; for many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Do not go after them.

<sup>9</sup>And when you hear of wars and revolts, do not be alarmed; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.”

Things to Come

<sup>10</sup>Then He continued by saying to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom,

<sup>11</sup>and there will be massive earthquakes, and in various places plagues and famines; and there will be terrible sights and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> “But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, turning you over to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors on account of My name.

<sup>13</sup>It will lead to an opportunity for your testimony.

- <sup>14</sup>So make up your minds not to prepare beforehand to defend yourselves;
- <sup>15</sup>for I will provide you eloquence and wisdom which none of your adversaries will be able to oppose or refute.
- <sup>16</sup>But you will be betrayed even by parents, brothers and sisters, other relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death,
- <sup>17</sup>and you will be hated by all people because of My name.
- <sup>18</sup>And yet not a hair of your head will perish.
- <sup>19</sup>By your endurance you will gain your lives.
- <sup>20</sup> “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that her desolation is near.
- <sup>21</sup>Then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those who are inside the city must leave, and those who are in the country must not enter the city;
- <sup>22</sup>because these are days of punishment, so that all things which have been written will be fulfilled.
- <sup>23</sup>Woe to those women who are pregnant, and to those who are nursing babies in those days; for there will be great distress upon the land, and wrath to this people;
- <sup>24</sup>and they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Return of Christ

- <sup>25</sup> “There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress among nations, in perplexity at the roaring of the sea and the waves,
- <sup>26</sup>people fainting from fear and the expectation of the things that are coming upon the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
- <sup>27</sup>And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

<sup>28</sup>But when these things begin to take place, straighten up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

<sup>30</sup>as soon as they put forth leaves, you see for yourselves and know that summer is now near.

<sup>31</sup>So you too, when you see these things happening, recognize that the kingdom of God is near.

<sup>32</sup>Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all things take place.

<sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

<sup>34</sup> “But be on your guard, so that your hearts will not be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of life, and that this day will not come on you suddenly, like a trap;

<sup>35</sup>for it will come upon all those who live on the face of all the earth.

<sup>36</sup>But stay alert at all times, praying that you will have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup>Now during the day He was teaching in the temple, but at evening He would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet.

<sup>38</sup>And all the people would get up very early in the morning to come to Him in the temple to listen to Him.

Luke 22

Preparing the Passover

<sup>4</sup>And he left and discussed with the chief priests and officers how he was to betray Him to them.

<sup>6</sup>And so he consented, and began looking for a good opportunity to betray Him to them away from the crowd.

<sup>7</sup>Now the first day of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup>And so Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, so that we may eat it.”

<sup>9</sup>They said to Him, “Where do You want us to prepare it?”

<sup>10</sup>And He said to them, “When you have entered the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you; follow him into the house that he enters.

<sup>11</sup>And you shall say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’

<sup>12</sup>And he will show you a large, furnished upstairs room; prepare it there.”

<sup>13</sup>And they left and found everything just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

The LORD's Supper

<sup>14</sup>When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him.

<sup>15</sup>And He said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

<sup>16</sup>for I say to you, I shall not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

<sup>17</sup>And when He had taken a cup and given thanks, He said, “Take this and share it among yourselves;

<sup>18</sup>for I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes.”

<sup>19</sup>And when He had taken some bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body, which is being given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.”

<sup>20</sup>And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup, which is poured out for you, is the new covenant in My blood.

<sup>22</sup>For indeed, the Son of Man is going as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!”

<sup>23</sup>And they began to debate among themselves which one of them it was who was going to do this.

Who Is Greatest

<sup>24</sup>And a dispute also developed among them as to which one of them was regarded as being the greatest.

<sup>25</sup>And He said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles domineer over them; and those who have authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’

<sup>26</sup>But it is not this way for you; rather, the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like the servant.

<sup>28</sup> “You are the ones who have stood by Me in My trials;

<sup>29</sup>and just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, I grant you

<sup>30</sup>that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup> “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has demanded to sift you men like wheat;
<sup>32</sup>but I have prayed for you, that your faith will not fail; and you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

<sup>33</sup>But he said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death!”

<sup>34</sup>But He said, “I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me.”

<sup>35</sup>And He said to them, “When I sent you out without money belt and bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?” They said, “No, nothing.”

<sup>36</sup>And He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money belt is to take it along, likewise also a bag, and whoever has no sword is to sell his cloak and buy one.

<sup>37</sup>For I tell you that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me: ‘AND HE WAS COUNTED WITH WRONGDOERS’; for that which refers to Me has its fulfillment.”

<sup>38</sup>They said, “Lord, look, here are two swords.” And He said to them, “It is enough.”

The Garden of Gethsemane

<sup>39</sup>And He came out and went, as was His habit, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed Him.

<sup>40</sup>Now when He arrived at the place, He said to them, “Pray that you do not come into temptation.”

<sup>41</sup>And He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, and He knelt down and began to pray,

<sup>42</sup>saying, “Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me; yet not My will, but Yours be done.”

<sup>45</sup>When He rose from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them sleeping from sorrow,

<sup>46</sup>and He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you do not come into temptation.”

Jesus Betrayed by Judas

<sup>47</sup>While He was still speaking, behold, a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading the way for them; and he approached Jesus to kiss Him.

<sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup>When those who were around Him saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?”

<sup>51</sup>But Jesus responded and said, “Stop! No more of this.” And He touched his ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders who had come against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a man inciting a revolt?

<sup>53</sup>While I was with you daily in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me; but this hour and the power of darkness are yours.”

Jesus' Arrest

<sup>54</sup>Now they arrested Him and led Him away, and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

<sup>55</sup>After they kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

<sup>56</sup>And a slave woman, seeing him as he sat in the firelight, and staring at him, said, “This man was with Him as well.”

<sup>58</sup>And a little later, another person saw him and said, “You are one of them too!” But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

<sup>59</sup>And after about an hour had passed, some other man began to insist, saying, “Certainly this man also was with Him, for he, too, is a Galilean.”

<sup>60</sup>But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are talking about!” And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup>And then the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, “Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>63</sup>The men who were holding Jesus in custody began mocking Him and beating Him,

<sup>64</sup>and they blindfolded Him and repeatedly asked Him, saying, “Prophecy, who is the one who hit You?”

<sup>65</sup>And they were saying many other things against Him, blaspheming.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

<sup>66</sup>When it was day, the Council of elders of the people assembled, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away to their council chamber, saying,

<sup>67</sup>“If You are the Christ, tell us.” But He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe;

<sup>68</sup>and if I ask a question, you will not answer.

<sup>69</sup>But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

<sup>70</sup>And they all said, “So You are the Son of God?” And He said to them, “You say correctly that I am.”

<sup>71</sup>And then they said, “What further need do we have of testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!”

Luke 23

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>2</sup>And they began to bring charges against Him, saying, “We found this Man misleading our nation and forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Christ, a King.”

<sup>3</sup>Now Pilate asked Him, saying, “So You are the King of the Jews?” And He answered him and said, “It is as you say.”

<sup>4</sup>But Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no grounds for charges in the case of this Man.”

<sup>5</sup>But they kept on insisting, saying, “He is stirring up the people, teaching all over Judea, starting from Galilee, as far as this place!”

<sup>7</sup>And when he learned that He belonged to Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, since he also was in Jerusalem at this time.

Jesus before Herod

<sup>8</sup>Now Herod was overjoyed when he saw Jesus; for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had been hearing about Him and was hoping to see some sign performed by Him.

<sup>9</sup>And he questioned Him at some length; but He offered him no answer at all.

<sup>10</sup>Now the chief priests and the scribes stood there, vehemently charging Him.

<sup>11</sup>And Herod, together with his soldiers, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, dressing Him in a brightly shining robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.

<sup>12</sup>And so Herod and Pilate became friends with one another that very day; for previously, they had been enemies toward each other.

Pilate Seeks Jesus' Release

<sup>13</sup>Now Pilate summoned to himself the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,

<sup>14</sup>and he said to them, "You brought this Man to me on the ground that He is inciting the people to revolt; and behold, after examining Him before you, I have found no basis at all in the case of this Man for the charges which you are bringing against Him.

<sup>15</sup>No, nor has Herod, for he sent Him back to us; and behold, nothing deserving death has been done by Him.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore I will punish Him and release Him."

<sup>18</sup>But they cried out all together, saying, "Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas!"

<sup>19</sup>(He was one who had been thrown into prison for a revolt that took place in the city, and for murder.)

<sup>20</sup>But Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again,

<sup>22</sup>And he said to them a third time, "Why, what has this Man done wrong? I have found in His case no grounds for a sentence of death; therefore I will punish Him and release Him."

<sup>23</sup>But they were insistent, with loud voices, demanding that He be crucified. And their voices began to prevail.

<sup>25</sup>And he released the man for whom they were asking, who had been thrown into prison for a revolt and murder; but he handed Jesus over to their will.

Simon Carries the Cross

<sup>26</sup>And when they led Him away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, as he was coming in from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Now following Him was a large crowd of the people, and of women who were mourning and grieving for Him.

<sup>28</sup>But Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

<sup>29</sup>For behold, days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are those who cannot bear, and the wombs that have not given birth, and the breasts that have not nursed.’

<sup>30</sup>Then they will begin TO SAY TO THE MOUNTAINS, ‘FALL ON US,’ AND TO THE HILLS, ‘COVER US.’

<sup>31</sup>For if they do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

<sup>32</sup>Now two others, who were criminals, were also being led away to be put to death with Him.

The Crucifixion

<sup>33</sup>And when they came to the place called The Skull, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

<sup>34</sup>[But Jesus was saying, “Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.”] And they cast lots, dividing His garments among themselves.

<sup>35</sup>And the people stood by, watching. And even the rulers were sneering at Him, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if this is the Christ of God, His Chosen One.”

<sup>36</sup>The soldiers also ridiculed Him, coming up to Him, offering Him sour wine,

<sup>38</sup>Now there was also an inscription above Him, “THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

<sup>39</sup>One of the criminals who were hanged there was hurling abuse at Him, saying, “Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us!”

<sup>40</sup>But the other responded, and rebuking him, said, “Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?”

<sup>41</sup>And we indeed are suffering justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our crimes; but this Man has done nothing wrong.”

<sup>42</sup>And he was saying, “Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom!”

<sup>43</sup>And He said to him, “Truly I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.”

<sup>44</sup>It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the entire land until the ninth hour, <sup>45</sup>because the sun stopped shining; and the veil of the temple was torn in two.

<sup>46</sup>And Jesus, crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, INTO YOUR HANDS I ENTRUST MY SPIRIT.” And having said this, He died.

<sup>47</sup>Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he began praising God, saying, “This Man was in fact innocent.”

<sup>48</sup>And all the crowds who came together for this spectacle, after watching what had happened, began to return home, beating their chests.

<sup>49</sup>And all His acquaintances and the women who accompanied Him from Galilee were standing at a distance, seeing these things.

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>50</sup>And a man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council, a good and righteous man

<sup>52</sup>this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>53</sup>And he took it down and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had ever lain.

<sup>55</sup>Now the women who had come with Him from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was laid.

<sup>56</sup>And then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. And on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Luke 24

The Resurrection

<sup>4</sup>While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men suddenly stood near them in gleaming clothing;

<sup>5</sup>and as the women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why are you seeking the living One among the dead?”

<sup>6</sup>He is not here, but He has risen. Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee,

<sup>7</sup>saying that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise from the dead.”

<sup>8</sup>And they remembered His words,

<sup>9</sup>and returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.

<sup>10</sup>Now these women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to the apostles.

<sup>11</sup>But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they would not believe the women.

<sup>12</sup>Nevertheless, Peter got up and ran to the tomb; and when he stooped and looked in, he *saw the linen wrappings only; and he went away to his home, marveling at what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup>And behold, on that very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>And they were talking with each other about all these things which had taken place.

<sup>15</sup>While they were talking and discussing, Jesus Himself approached and began traveling with them.

<sup>16</sup>But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

<sup>17</sup>And He said to them, “What are these words that you are exchanging with one another as you are walking?” And they came to a stop, looking sad.

<sup>18</sup>One of them, named Cleopas, answered and said to Him, “Are You possibly the only one living near Jerusalem who does not know about the things that happened here in these days?”

<sup>19</sup>And He said to them, “What sort of things?” And they said to Him, “Those about Jesus the Nazarene, who proved to be a prophet mighty in deed and word in the sight of God and all the people,

<sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and crucified Him.

<sup>21</sup>But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.

<sup>22</sup>But also some women among us left us bewildered. When they were at the tomb early in the morning, <sup>23</sup>and did not find His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said that He was alive.

<sup>24</sup>And so some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just exactly as the women also had said; but Him they did not see.”

<sup>25</sup>And then He said to them, “You foolish men and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!

<sup>26</sup>Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to come into His glory?”

<sup>27</sup>Then beginning with Moses and with all the Prophets, He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.

<sup>28</sup>And they approached the village where they were going, and He gave the impression that He was going farther.

<sup>29</sup>And so they strongly urged Him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is getting toward evening, and the day is now nearly over.” So He went in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup>And it came about, when He had reclined at the table with them, that He took the bread and blessed it, and He broke it and began giving it to them.

<sup>31</sup>And then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

<sup>32</sup>They said to one another, “Were our hearts not burning within us when He was speaking to us on the road, while He was explaining the Scriptures to us?”

<sup>33</sup>And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them,

<sup>34</sup>saying, “The Lord has really risen and has appeared to Simon!”

<sup>35</sup>They began to relate their experiences on the road, and how He was recognized by them at the breaking of the bread.

Other Appearances

<sup>36</sup>Now while they were telling these things, Jesus Himself suddenly stood in their midst and *said to them, “Peace be to you.”

<sup>37</sup>But they were startled and frightened, and thought that they were looking at a spirit.

<sup>38</sup>And He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why are doubts arising in your hearts?

<sup>39</sup>See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself; touch Me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you plainly see that I have.”

<sup>40</sup>And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

<sup>41</sup>While they still could not believe it because of their joy and astonishment, He said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?”

<sup>44</sup>Now He said to them, “These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all the things that are written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

<sup>45</sup>Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures,

<sup>46</sup>and He said to them, “So it is written, that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day,

<sup>47</sup>and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

<sup>49</sup>And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you; but you are to stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”

The Ascension

<sup>50</sup>And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them.

<sup>51</sup>While He was blessing them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven.

<sup>53</sup>and were continually in the temple praising God.

John

John 1

The Deity of Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

<sup>3</sup>All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him not even one thing came into being that has come into being.

<sup>5</sup>And the Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not grasp it.

The Witness John the Baptist

<sup>7</sup>He came as a witness, to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through him.

<sup>8</sup>He was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light.

<sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world came into being through Him, and yet the world did not know Him.

<sup>12</sup>But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name, <sup>13</sup>who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of a man, but of God.

The Word Made Flesh

<sup>14</sup>And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us; and we saw His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup>John *testified about Him and called out, saying, “This was He of whom I said, ‘He who is coming after me has proved to be my superior, because He existed before me.’ ”

<sup>16</sup>For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace.

<sup>17</sup>For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup>No one has seen God at any time; God the only Son, who is in the arms of the Father, He has explained Him.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

<sup>19</sup>This is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

<sup>20</sup>And he confessed and did not deny; and this is what he confessed: “I am not the Christ.”

<sup>21</sup>And so they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he *said, “I am not.” “Are you the Prophet?” And he answered, “No.”

<sup>22</sup>Then they said to him, “Who are you? Tell us, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

<sup>23</sup>He said, “I am THE VOICE OF ONE CALLING OUT IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘MAKE THE WAY OF THE LORD STRAIGHT,’ as Isaiah the prophet said.”

<sup>25</sup>They asked him, and said to him, “Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

<sup>26</sup>John answered them, saying, “I baptize in water, but among you stands One whom you do not know.

<sup>27</sup>It is He who comes after me, of whom I am not worthy even to untie the strap of His sandal.”

<sup>29</sup>The next day he *saw Jesus coming to him, and *said, “Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

<sup>30</sup>This is He in behalf of whom I said, ‘After me is coming a Man who has proved to be my superior, because He existed before me.’

<sup>31</sup>And I did not recognize Him, but so that He would be revealed to Israel, I came baptizing in water.”

<sup>32</sup>And John testified, saying, “I have seen the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven, and He remained upon Him.

<sup>33</sup>And I did not recognize Him, but He who sent me to baptize in water said to me, ‘He upon whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining upon Him, this is the One who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.’

<sup>34</sup>And I myself have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

Jesus’ Public Ministry; First Converts

<sup>35</sup>Again the next day John was standing with two of his disciples,

<sup>36</sup>and he looked at Jesus as He walked, and *said, “Behold, the Lamb of God!”

<sup>37</sup>And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

<sup>38</sup>And Jesus turned and saw them following, and *said to them, “What are you seeking?” They said to Him, “Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?”

<sup>39</sup>He *said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So they came and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him that day; it was about the tenth hour.

<sup>41</sup>He first *found his own brother Simon and *said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which translated means Christ).

<sup>42</sup>He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon the son of John; you shall be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

<sup>43</sup>The next day He decided to go to Galilee, and He *found Philip. And Jesus *said to him, “Follow Me.”

<sup>45</sup>Philip *found Nathanael and *said to him, “We have found Him of whom Moses wrote in the Law, and the prophets also wrote: Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth!”

<sup>46</sup>Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good be from Nazareth?” Philip *said to him, “Come and see.”

<sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and *said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite, in whom there is no deceit!”

<sup>48</sup>Nathanael *said to Him, “How do You know me?” Jesus answered and said to him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

<sup>49</sup>Nathanael answered Him, “Rabbi, You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these.”

<sup>51</sup>And He *said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

John 2

Miracle at Cana

<sup>1</sup>On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there;

<sup>2</sup>and both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

<sup>3</sup>When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus *said to Him, “They have no wine.”

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus *said to her, “What business do you have with Me, woman? My hour has not yet come.”

<sup>6</sup>Now there were six stone waterpots standing there for the Jewish custom of purification, containing two or three measures each.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus *said to them, “Fill the waterpots with water.” So they filled them up to the brim.

<sup>8</sup>And He *said to them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.” And they took it to him.

<sup>9</sup>Now when the headwaiter tasted the water which had become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter *called the groom,

<sup>10</sup>and *said to him, “Every man serves the good wine first, and when the guests are drunk, then he serves the poorer wine; but you have kept the good wine until now.”

<sup>11</sup>This beginning of His signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

<sup>12</sup>After this He went down to Capernaum, He and His mother, and His brothers and His disciples; and they stayed there a few days.

First Passover—Cleansing the Temple

<sup>13</sup>The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>And within the temple grounds He found those who were selling oxen, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables.

<sup>15</sup>And He made a whip of cords, and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables;

<sup>16</sup>and to those who were selling the doves He said, “Take these things away from here; stop making My Father’s house a place of business!”

<sup>17</sup>His disciples remembered that it was written: “ZEAL FOR YOUR HOUSE WILL CONSUME ME.”

<sup>18</sup>The Jews then said to Him, “What sign do You show us as Your authority for doing these things?”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

<sup>20</sup>The Jews then said, “It took forty-six years to build this temple, and yet You will raise it up in three days?”

<sup>21</sup>But He was speaking about the temple of His body.

<sup>22</sup>So when He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He said this; and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

<sup>23</sup>Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name as they observed His signs which He was doing.

<sup>24</sup>But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, because He knew all people, <sup>25</sup>and because He did not need anyone to testify about mankind, for He Himself knew what was in mankind.

John 3

The New Birth

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews;

<sup>2</sup>this man came to Jesus at night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus responded and said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless someone is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>4</sup>Nicodemus *said to Him, “How can a person be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born, can he?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless someone is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

<sup>6</sup>That which has been born of the flesh is flesh, and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be amazed that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’

<sup>8</sup>The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it is coming from and where it is going; so is everyone who has been born of the Spirit.”

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “You are the teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

<sup>11</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know and testify of what we have seen, and you people do not accept our testimony.

<sup>12</sup>If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

<sup>13</sup>No one has ascended into heaven, except He who descended from heaven: the Son of Man.

<sup>14</sup>And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>so that everyone who believes will have eternal life in Him.

<sup>16</sup>“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him.

<sup>18</sup>The one who believes in Him is not judged; the one who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

<sup>19</sup>And this is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the Light; for their deeds were evil.

<sup>20</sup>For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light, so that his deeds will not be exposed.

<sup>21</sup>But the one who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds will be revealed as having been performed in God.”

John the Baptist's Last Testimony

<sup>22</sup>After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea; and there He was spending time with them and baptizing.

<sup>23</sup>Now John also was baptizing in Aenon, near Salim, because there was an abundance of water there; and people were coming and being baptized—

<sup>26</sup>And they came to John and said to him, “Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing and all the people are coming to Him.”

<sup>27</sup>John replied, “A person can receive not even one thing unless it has been given to him from heaven.

<sup>28</sup>You yourselves are my witnesses that I said, ‘I am not the Christ,’ but, ‘I have been sent ahead of Him.’

<sup>29</sup>He who has the bride is the groom; but the friend of the groom, who stands and listens to him, rejoices greatly because of the groom's voice. So this joy of mine has been made full.

<sup>30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease.

<sup>32</sup>What He has seen and heard, of this He testifies; and no one accepts His testimony.

<sup>33</sup>The one who has accepted His testimony has certified that God is true.

<sup>34</sup>For He whom God sent speaks the words of God; for He does not give the Spirit sparingly.

<sup>35</sup>The Father loves the Son and has entrusted all things to His hand.

<sup>36</sup>The one who believes in the Son has eternal life; but the one who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

John 4

Jesus Goes to Galilee

<sup>1</sup>So then, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that He was making and baptizing more disciples than John

<sup>5</sup>So He *came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the parcel of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph;

<sup>6</sup>and Jacob's well was there. So Jesus, tired from His journey, was just sitting by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

The Woman of Samaria

<sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria *came to draw water. Jesus *said to her, “Give Me a drink.”

<sup>9</sup>So the Samaritan woman *said to Him, “How is it that You, though You are a Jew, are asking me for a drink, though I am a Samaritan woman?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

<sup>11</sup>She *said to Him, “Sir, You have no bucket and the well is deep; where then do You get this living water?

<sup>12</sup>You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You, who gave us the well and drank of it himself, and his sons and his cattle?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again;

<sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never be thirsty; but the water that I will give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.”

<sup>15</sup>The woman *said to Him, “Sir, give me this water so that I will not be thirsty, nor come all the way here to draw water.”

<sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said to Him, “I have no husband.” Jesus *said to her, “You have correctly said, ‘I have no husband’;

<sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; this which you have said is true.”

<sup>19</sup>The woman *said to Him, “Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.

<sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and yet you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where one must worship.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus *said to her, “Believe Me, woman, that a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup>You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, because salvation is from the Jews.

<sup>23</sup>But a time is coming, and even now has arrived, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers.

<sup>24</sup>God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman *said to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ); when that One comes, He will declare all things to us.”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus *said to her, “I am He, the One speaking to you.”

<sup>27</sup>And at this point His disciples came, and they were amazed that He had been speaking with a woman, yet no one said, “What are You seeking?” or, “Why are You speaking with her?”

<sup>28</sup>So the woman left her waterpot and went into the city, and *said to the people,

<sup>29</sup>“Come, see a Man who told me all the things that I have done; this is not the Christ, is He?”

<sup>33</sup>So the disciples were saying to one another, “No one brought Him anything to eat, did he?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus *said to them, “My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to accomplish His work.

<sup>35</sup>Do you not say, ‘There are still four months, and then comes the harvest’? Behold, I tell you, raise your eyes and observe the fields, that they are white for harvest.

<sup>36</sup>Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that the one who sows and the one who reaps may rejoice together.

<sup>38</sup>I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have come into their labor.”

The Samaritans

<sup>39</sup>Now from that city many of the Samaritans believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, “He told me all the things that I have done.”

<sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they were asking Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

<sup>42</sup>and they were saying to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One truly is the Savior of the world.”

<sup>43</sup>And after the two days, He departed from there for Galilee.

<sup>44</sup>For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

<sup>45</sup>So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, only because they had seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.

Healing an Official's Son

<sup>46</sup>Therefore He came again to Cana of Galilee, where He had made the water into wine. And there was a royal official whose son was sick at Capernaum.

<sup>47</sup>When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and began asking Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

<sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you people see signs and wonders, you simply will not believe.”

<sup>49</sup>The royal official *said to Him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus *said to him, “Go; your son is alive.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went home.

<sup>51</sup>And as he was now going down, his slaves met him, saying that his son was alive.

<sup>52</sup>So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. Then they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.”

<sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, “Your son is alive”; and he himself believed, and his entire household.

<sup>54</sup>This is again a second sign that Jesus performed when He had come from Judea into Galilee.

John 5

The Healing at Bethesda

<sup>1</sup>After these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Now in Jerusalem, by the Sheep Gate, there is a pool which in Hebrew is called Bethesda, having five porticoes.

<sup>3</sup>In these porticoes lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, limping, or paralyzed.

<sup>5</sup>Now a man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus, upon seeing this man lying there and knowing that he had already been in that condition for a long time, *said to him, “Do you want to get well?”

<sup>7</sup>The sick man answered Him, “Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I am coming, another steps down before me.”

<sup>9</sup>Immediately the man became well, and picked up his pallet and began to walk. Now it was a Sabbath on that day.

<sup>10</sup>So the Jews were saying to the man who was cured, “It is a Sabbath, and it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet.”

<sup>11</sup>But he answered them, “He who made me well was the one who said to me, ‘Pick up your pallet and walk.’”

<sup>12</sup>They asked him, “Who is the Man who said to you, ‘Pick it up and walk’?”

<sup>13</sup>But the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away while there was a crowd in that place.

<sup>14</sup>Afterward, Jesus *found him in the temple and said to him, “Behold, you have become well; do not sin anymore, so that nothing worse happens to you.”

<sup>15</sup>The man went away, and informed the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

<sup>16</sup>For this reason the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because He was doing these things on a Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup>But He answered them, “My Father is working until now, and I Myself am working.”

Jesus' Equality with God

<sup>18</sup>For this reason therefore the Jews were seeking all the more to kill Him, because He not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore Jesus answered and was saying to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in the same way.

<sup>20</sup>For the Father loves the Son and shows Him all things that He Himself is doing; and the Father will show Him greater works than these, so that you will be amazed.

<sup>21</sup>For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son also gives life to whom He wishes.

<sup>22</sup>For not even the Father judges anyone, but He has given all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup>so that all will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

<sup>24</sup> “Truly, truly, I say to you, the one who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.

Two Resurrections

<sup>25</sup> Truly, truly, I say to you, a time is coming and even now has arrived, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

<sup>26</sup>For just as the Father has life in Himself, so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself;

<sup>27</sup>and He gave Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup>Do not be amazed at this; for a time is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear His voice, <sup>29</sup>and will come out: those who did the good deeds to a resurrection of life, those who committed the bad deeds to a resurrection of judgment.

<sup>30</sup> “I can do nothing on My own. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of Him who sent Me.

<sup>31</sup> “If I alone testify about Myself, My testimony is not true.

<sup>32</sup>There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that the testimony which He gives about Me is true.

Testimony of John the Baptist

<sup>33</sup> You have sent messengers to John, and he has testified to the truth.

<sup>34</sup>But the testimony I receive is not from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved.

<sup>35</sup>He was the lamp that was burning and shining, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

Testimony of Works

<sup>36</sup> But the testimony I have is greater than the testimony of John; for the works which the Father has given Me to accomplish—the very works that I do—testify about Me, that the Father has sent Me.

Testimony of the Father

<sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent Me, He has testified about Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form.

<sup>38</sup>Also you do not have His word remaining in you, because you do not believe Him whom He sent.

Testimony of the Scripture

<sup>39</sup> You examine the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is those very Scriptures that testify about Me;

<sup>40</sup>and yet you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life.

<sup>42</sup>but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.

<sup>43</sup>I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

<sup>44</sup>How can you believe, when you accept glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that is from the one and only God?

<sup>45</sup>Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; the one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hope.

<sup>46</sup>For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me.

<sup>47</sup>But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

John 6

Five Thousand Men Fed

<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (or Tiberias).

<sup>2</sup>A large crowd was following Him, because they were watching the signs which He was performing on those who were sick.

<sup>3</sup>But Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

<sup>5</sup>So Jesus, after raising His eyes and seeing that a large crowd was coming to Him, *said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread so that these people may eat?"

<sup>6</sup>But He was saying this only to test him, for He Himself knew what He intended to do.

<sup>7</sup>Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not enough for them, for each to receive just a little!"

- <sup>8</sup>One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, *said to Him,
- <sup>9</sup>"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are these for so many people?"
- <sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "Have the people recline to eat." Now there was plenty of grass in the place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.
- <sup>11</sup>Jesus then took the loaves, and after giving thanks He distributed them to those who were reclining; likewise also of the fish, as much as they wanted.
- <sup>12</sup>And when they had eaten their fill, He *said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing will be lost."
- <sup>13</sup>So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
- <sup>14</sup>Therefore when the people saw the sign which He had performed, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Water

- <sup>15</sup>So Jesus, aware that they intended to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountain by Himself, alone.
- <sup>16</sup>Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,
- <sup>17</sup>and after getting into a boat, they started to cross the sea to Capernaum. It had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
- <sup>18</sup>In addition, the sea began getting rough, because a strong wind was blowing.
- <sup>19</sup>Then, when they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they *saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat; and they were frightened.
- <sup>20</sup>But He *said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid."
- <sup>21</sup>So they were willing to take Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

<sup>22</sup>The next day the crowd that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small boat there except one, and that Jesus had not gotten into the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had departed alone.

<sup>23</sup>Other small boats came from Tiberias near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

<sup>24</sup>So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves got into the small boats and came to Capernaum, looking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, “Rabbi, when did You get here?”

Words to the People

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered them and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate some of the loaves and were filled.

<sup>27</sup>Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that lasts for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you, for on Him the Father, God, has set His seal.”

<sup>28</sup>Therefore they said to Him, “What are we to do, so that we may accomplish the works of God?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He has sent.”

<sup>30</sup>So they said to Him, “What then are You doing as a sign, so that we may see, and believe You? What work are You performing?

<sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written: ‘HE GAVE THEM BREAD OUT OF HEAVEN TO EAT.’ ”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus then said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.

<sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven and gives life to the world.”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; the one who comes to Me will not be hungry, and the one who believes in Me will never be thirsty.

<sup>36</sup>But I said to you that you have indeed seen Me, and yet you do not believe.

<sup>37</sup>Everything that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I certainly will not cast out.

<sup>38</sup>For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

<sup>39</sup>And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that of everything that He has given Me I will lose nothing, but will raise it up on the last day.

<sup>40</sup>For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life, and I Myself will raise him up on the last day.”

Words to the Jews

<sup>41</sup>So then the Jews were complaining about Him because He said, “I am the bread that came down out of heaven.”

<sup>42</sup>And they were saying, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does He now say, ‘I have come down out of heaven’?”

<sup>43</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Stop complaining among yourselves.

<sup>44</sup>No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day.

<sup>45</sup>It is written in the Prophets: ‘AND THEY SHALL ALL BE TAUGHT OF GOD.’ Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me.

<sup>46</sup>Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One who is from God; He has seen the Father.

<sup>47</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one who believes has eternal life.

<sup>48</sup>I am the bread of life.

<sup>50</sup>This is the bread that comes down out of heaven, so that anyone may eat from it and not die.

<sup>51</sup>I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats from this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I will give for the life of the world also is My flesh.”

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, “How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?”

<sup>53</sup>So Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.

<sup>54</sup>The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

<sup>56</sup>The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in him.

<sup>57</sup>Just as the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, the one who eats Me, he also will live because of Me.

<sup>58</sup>This is the bread that came down out of heaven, not as the fathers ate and died; the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

Words to the Disciples

<sup>59</sup>These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup>So then many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, “This statement is very unpleasant; who can listen to it?”

<sup>61</sup>But Jesus, aware that His disciples were complaining about this, said to them, “Is this offensive to you?”

<sup>62</sup>What then if you see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?

<sup>63</sup>It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh provides no benefit; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit, and are life.

<sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray Him.

<sup>65</sup>And He was saying, “For this reason I have told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father.”

Peter’s Confession of Faith

<sup>67</sup>So Jesus said to the twelve, “You do not want to leave also, do you?”

<sup>69</sup>And we have already believed and have come to know that You are the Holy One of God.”

<sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, “Did I Myself not choose you, the twelve? And yet one of you is a devil.”

<sup>71</sup>Now He meant Judas the son of Simon Iscariot; for he, one of the twelve, was going to betray Him.

John 7

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

<sup>1</sup>After these things Jesus was walking in Galilee, for He was unwilling to walk in Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him.

<sup>3</sup>So His brothers said to Him, “Move on from here and go into Judea, so that Your disciples also may see Your works which You are doing.

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus *said to them, “My time is not yet here, but your time is always ready.

<sup>7</sup>The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify about it, that its deeds are evil.

<sup>8</sup>Go up to the feast yourselves; I am not going up to this feast, because My time has not yet fully arrived.”

<sup>9</sup>Now having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>But when His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as though in secret.

<sup>11</sup>So the Jews were looking for Him at the feast and saying, “Where is He?”

<sup>12</sup>And there was a great deal of talk about Him in secret among the crowds: some were saying, “He is a good man”; others were saying, “No, on the contrary, He is misleading the people.”

<sup>14</sup>But when it was now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple area, and began to teach.

<sup>15</sup>The Jews then were astonished, saying, “How has this Man become learned, not having been educated?”

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus answered them and said, “My teaching is not My own, but His who sent Me.

<sup>17</sup>If anyone is willing to do His will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is of God, or I am speaking from Myself.

<sup>18</sup>The one who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who is seeking the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

<sup>19</sup> “Did Moses not give you the Law, and yet none of you carries out the Law? Why are you seeking to kill Me?”

<sup>20</sup>The crowd answered, “You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill You?”

<sup>22</sup>For this reason Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and even on a Sabbath you circumcise a man.

<sup>23</sup>If a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath so that the Law of Moses will not be broken, are you angry at Me because I made an entire man well on a Sabbath?

<sup>26</sup>And yet look, He is speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to Him. The rulers do not really know that this is the Christ, do they?

<sup>27</sup>However, we know where this Man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, “You both know Me and you know where I am from; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

<sup>29</sup>I do know Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me.”

<sup>30</sup>So they were seeking to arrest Him; and yet no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>But many of the crowd believed in Him; and they were saying, “When the Christ comes, He will not perform more signs than those which this man has done, will He?”

<sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest Him.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore Jesus said, “For a little while longer I am going to be with you, and then I am going to Him who sent Me.

<sup>34</sup>You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

<sup>35</sup>The Jews then said to one another, “Where does this Man intend to go that we will not find Him? He does not intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks, does He?

<sup>36</sup>What is this statement that He said, ‘You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come’?”

<sup>37</sup>Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.

<sup>38</sup>The one who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, ‘From his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.’”

<sup>39</sup>But this He said in reference to the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

People’s Division over Jesus

<sup>40</sup> Some of the people therefore, after they heard these words, were saying, “This truly is the Prophet.”

<sup>41</sup>Others were saying, “This is the Christ.” But others were saying, “Surely the Christ is not coming from Galilee, is He?

<sup>42</sup>Has the Scripture not said that the Christ comes from the descendants of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?”

<sup>45</sup>The officers then came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, “Why did you not bring Him?”

<sup>47</sup>The Pharisees then replied to them, “You have not been led astray too, have you?”

<sup>48</sup>Not one of the rulers or Pharisees has believed in Him, has he?

<sup>51</sup>“Our Law does not judge the person unless it first hears from him and knows what he is doing, does it?”

<sup>52</sup>They answered and said to him, “You are not from Galilee as well, are you? Examine the Scriptures, and see that no prophet arises out of Galilee.”

<sup>53</sup>[[And everyone went to his home.

John 8

The Adulterous Woman

<sup>2</sup>And early in the morning He came again into the temple area, and all the people were coming to Him; and He sat down and began teaching them.

<sup>3</sup>Now the scribes and the Pharisees *brought a woman caught in the act of adultery, and after placing her in the center of the courtyard, <sup>4</sup>they *said to Him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the very act of committing adultery.

<sup>5</sup>Now in the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?”

<sup>6</sup>Now they were saying this to test Him, so that they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and with His finger wrote on the ground.

<sup>7</sup>When they persisted in asking Him, He straightened up and said to them, “He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”

<sup>8</sup>And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

<sup>9</sup>Now when they heard this, they began leaving, one by one, beginning with the older ones, and He was left alone, and the woman where she was, in the center of the courtyard.

<sup>10</sup>And straightening up, Jesus said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

<sup>11</sup>She said, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said, “I do not condemn you, either. Go. From now on do not sin any longer.”]]

Jesus Is the Light of the World

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, “I am the Light of the world; the one who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life.”

<sup>13</sup>So the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about Yourself; Your testimony is not true.”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, “Even if I am testifying about Myself, My testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going.

<sup>15</sup>You judge according to the flesh; I am not judging anyone.

<sup>16</sup>But even if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone in it, but I and the Father who sent Me.

<sup>17</sup>Even in your Law it has been written that the testimony of two people is true.

<sup>18</sup>I am He who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me.”

<sup>19</sup>So they were saying to Him, “Where is Your Father?” Jesus answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father; if you knew Me, you would know My Father also.”

<sup>20</sup>These words He spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple area; and no one arrested Him, because His hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup>Then He said again to them, “I am going away, and you will look for Me, and will die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come.”

<sup>22</sup>So the Jews were saying, “Surely He will not kill Himself, will He, since He says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come’?”

<sup>23</sup>And He was saying to them, “You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am, you will die in your sins.”

<sup>25</sup>Then they were saying to Him, “Who are You?” Jesus said to them, “What have I even been saying to you from the beginning?

<sup>26</sup>I have many things to say and to judge regarding you, but He who sent Me is true; and the things which I heard from Him, these I say to the world.”

<sup>27</sup>They did not realize that He was speaking to them about the Father.

<sup>28</sup>So Jesus said, “When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am, and I do nothing on My own, but I say these things as the Father instructed Me.

<sup>30</sup>As He said these things, many came to believe in Him.

The Truth Will Set You Free

<sup>31</sup>So Jesus was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, “If you continue in My word, then you are truly My disciples;

<sup>32</sup>and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

<sup>33</sup>They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been enslaved to anyone; how is it that You say, ‘You will become free’?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin.

<sup>35</sup>Now the slave does not remain in the house forever; the son does remain forever.

<sup>36</sup>So if the Son sets you free, you really will be free.

<sup>37</sup>I know that you are Abraham’s descendants; yet you are seeking to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.

<sup>38</sup>I speak of the things which I have seen with My Father; therefore you also do the things which you heard from your father.”

<sup>39</sup>They answered and said to Him, “Abraham is our father.” Jesus *said to them, “If you are Abraham’s children, do the deeds of Abraham.

<sup>40</sup>But as it is, you are seeking to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God; this Abraham did not do.

<sup>41</sup>You are doing the deeds of your father.” They said to Him, “We were not born as a result of sexual immorality; we have one Father: God.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I came forth from God and am here; for I have not even come on My own, but He sent Me.

<sup>43</sup>Why do you not understand what I am saying? It is because you cannot listen to My word.

<sup>44</sup>You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. Whenever he tells a lie, he speaks from his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of lies.

<sup>46</sup>Which one of you convicts Me of sin? If I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?

<sup>47</sup>The one who is of God hears the words of God; for this reason you do not hear them, because you are not of God.”

<sup>48</sup>The Jews answered and said to Him, “Do we not rightly say that You are a Samaritan, and You have a demon?”

<sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon; on the contrary, I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

<sup>50</sup>But I am not seeking My glory; there is One who seeks it, and judges.

<sup>51</sup>Truly, truly I say to you, if anyone follows My word, he will never see death.”

<sup>52</sup>The Jews said to Him, “Now we know that You have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets as well; and yet You say, ‘If anyone follows My word, he will never taste of death.’

<sup>53</sup>You are not greater than our father Abraham, who died, are You? The prophets died too. Whom do You make Yourself out to be?”

<sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say, ‘He is our God’;

<sup>55</sup>and you have not come to know Him, but I know Him. And if I say that I do not know Him, I will be a liar like you; but I do know Him, and I follow His word.

<sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham was overjoyed that he would see My day, and he saw it and rejoiced.”

<sup>57</sup>So the Jews said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Abraham?”

<sup>58</sup>Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was born, I am.”

<sup>59</sup>Therefore they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself and left the temple grounds.

John 9

Healing the Man Born Blind

<sup>2</sup>And His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, “It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was so that the works of God might be displayed in him.

<sup>6</sup>When He had said this, He spit on the ground, and made mud from the saliva, and applied the mud to his eyes, <sup>7</sup>and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated, Sent). So he left and washed, and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup>So the neighbors, and those who previously saw him as a beggar, were saying, “Is this not the one who used to sit and beg?”

<sup>9</sup>Others were saying, “This is he,” still others were saying, “No, but he is like him.” The man himself kept saying, “I am the one.”

<sup>10</sup>So they were saying to him, “How then were your eyes opened?”

<sup>11</sup>He answered, “The Man who is called Jesus made mud, and spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash’; so I went away and washed, and I received sight.”

<sup>12</sup>And they said to him, “Where is He?” He *said, “I do not know.”

Controversy over the Man

<sup>14</sup>Now it was a Sabbath on the day that Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees also were asking him again how he received his sight. And he said to them, “He applied mud to my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore some of the Pharisees were saying, “This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.” But others were saying, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And there was dissension among them.

<sup>17</sup>So they *said again to the man who was blind, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?” And he said, “He is a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup>The Jews then did not believe it about him, that he had been blind and had received sight, until they called the parents of the very one who had received his sight,

<sup>19</sup>and they questioned them, saying, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup>His parents then answered and said, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

<sup>21</sup>but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself.”

<sup>22</sup>His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already reached the decision that if anyone confessed Him to be Christ, he was to be excommunicated from the synagogue.

<sup>23</sup>It was for this reason that his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

<sup>24</sup>So for a second time they summoned the man who had been blind, and said to him, “Give glory to God; we know that this Man is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup>He then answered, “Whether He is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see.”

<sup>26</sup>So they said to him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup>He answered them, “I told you already and you did not listen; why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become His disciples too, do you?”

<sup>28</sup>They spoke abusively to him and said, “You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

<sup>29</sup>We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this Man, we do not know where He is from.”

<sup>30</sup>The man answered and said to them, “Well, here is the amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes!

<sup>31</sup>We know that God does not listen to sinners; but if someone is God-fearing and does His will, He listens to him.

<sup>32</sup>Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.

<sup>34</sup>They answered him, “You were born entirely in sins, and yet you are teaching us?” So they put him out.

Jesus Affirms His Deity

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had put him out, and upon finding him, He said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

<sup>36</sup>He answered by saying, “And who is He, Sir, that I may believe in Him?”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, “You have both seen Him, and He is the One who is talking with you.”

<sup>38</sup>And he said, “I believe, Lord.” And he worshiped Him.

<sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, “For judgment I came into this world, so that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind.”

<sup>40</sup>Those who were with Him from the Pharisees heard these things and said to Him, “We are not blind too, are we?”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now that you maintain, ‘We see,’ your sin remains.

John 10

Parable of the Good Shepherd

<sup>1</sup> “Truly, truly I say to you, the one who does not enter by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbs up some other way, he is a thief and a robber.

<sup>5</sup>However, a stranger they simply will not follow, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told them this figure of speech, but they did not understand what the things which He was saying to them meant.

<sup>7</sup>So Jesus said to them again, “Truly, truly I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

<sup>8</sup>All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

<sup>9</sup>I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.

<sup>10</sup>The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came so that they would have life, and have it abundantly.

<sup>11</sup> “I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.

<sup>12</sup>He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf snatches them and scatters the flock.

<sup>13</sup>He flees because he is a hired hand and does not care about the sheep.

<sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd, and I know My own, and My own know Me, <sup>15</sup>just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep.

<sup>16</sup>And I have other sheep that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will listen to My voice; and they will become one flock, with one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life so that I may take it back.

<sup>18</sup>No one has taken it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it back. This commandment I received from My Father.”

<sup>19</sup>Dissension occurred again among the Jews because of these words.

<sup>20</sup>Many of them were saying, “He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to Him?”

<sup>21</sup>Others were saying, “These are not the words of one who is demon-possessed. A demon cannot open the eyes of those who are blind, can it?”

Jesus Asserts His Deity

<sup>22</sup>At that time the Feast of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem;

<sup>23</sup>it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple area, in the portico of Solomon.

<sup>24</sup>The Jews then surrounded Him and began saying to Him, “How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe; the works that I do in My Father’s name, these testify of Me.

<sup>26</sup>But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep.

<sup>27</sup>My sheep listen to My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me;

<sup>28</sup>and I give them eternal life, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

<sup>29</sup>My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.

<sup>32</sup>Jesus replied to them, “I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?”

<sup>33</sup>The Jews answered Him, “We are not stoning You for a good work, but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, “Has it not been written in your Law: ‘I SAID, YOU ARE GODS’?

<sup>35</sup>If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be nullified), <sup>36</sup>are you saying of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’?

<sup>37</sup>If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;

<sup>38</sup>but if I do them, even though you do not believe Me, believe the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I in the Father.”

<sup>39</sup>Therefore they were seeking again to arrest Him, and He eluded their grasp.

<sup>40</sup>And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He stayed there.

John 11

The Death and Resurrection of Lazarus

<sup>4</sup>But when Jesus heard this, He said, “This sickness is not meant for death, but is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it.”

<sup>6</sup>So when He heard that he was sick, He then stayed two days longer in the place where He was.

<sup>7</sup>Then after this He *said to the disciples, “Let’s go to Judea again.”

<sup>8</sup>The disciples *said to Him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone You, and yet You are going there again?”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

<sup>10</sup>But if anyone walks during the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

<sup>11</sup>This He said, and after this He *said to them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going so that I may awaken him from sleep.”

<sup>12</sup>The disciples then said to Him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will come out of it.”

<sup>13</sup>Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about actual sleep.

<sup>14</sup>So Jesus then said to them plainly, “Lazarus died,

<sup>15</sup>and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe; but let’s go to him.”

<sup>16</sup>Therefore Thomas, who was called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s also go, so that we may die with Him!”

<sup>17</sup>So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days.

<sup>19</sup>and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them about their brother.

<sup>20</sup>So then Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet Him, but Mary stayed in the house.

<sup>21</sup>Martha then said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup>Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus *said to her, “Your brother will rise from the dead.”

<sup>24</sup>Martha *said to Him, “I know that he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life; the one who believes in Me will live, even if he dies,

<sup>26</sup>and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>27</sup>She *said to Him, “Yes, Lord; I have come to believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, and He who comes into the world.”

<sup>28</sup>When she had said this, she left and called Mary her sister, saying secretly, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

<sup>29</sup>And when she heard this, she *got up quickly and came to Him.

<sup>30</sup>Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still at the place where Martha met Him.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Jews who were with her in the house and were consoling her, when they saw that Mary had gotten up quickly and left, they followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

<sup>32</sup>So when Mary came to the place where Jesus was, she saw Him and fell at His feet, saying to Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.”

<sup>33</sup>Therefore when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled,

<sup>34</sup>and He said, “Where have you laid him?” They *said to Him, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>37</sup>But some of them said, “Could this Man, who opened the eyes of the man who was blind, not have also kept this man from dying?”

<sup>38</sup>So Jesus, again being deeply moved within, *came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus *said, “Remove the stone.” Martha, the sister of the deceased, *said to Him, “Lord, by this time there will be a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus *said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?”

<sup>41</sup>So they removed the stone. And Jesus raised His eyes, and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

<sup>42</sup>But I knew that You always hear Me; nevertheless, because of the people standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me.”

<sup>43</sup>And when He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

<sup>45</sup>Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary, and saw what He had done, believed in Him.

<sup>46</sup>But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them the things which Jesus had done.

Conspiracy to Kill Jesus

<sup>47</sup>Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council meeting, and they were saying, “What are we doing in regard to the fact that this Man is performing many signs?

<sup>48</sup>If we let Him go on like this, all the people will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take over both our place and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all,

<sup>50</sup>nor are you taking into account that it is in your best interest that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish instead.”

<sup>51</sup>Now he did not say this on his own, but as he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation;

<sup>52</sup>and not for the nation only, but in order that He might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

<sup>53</sup>So from that day on they planned together to kill Him.

<sup>54</sup>Therefore Jesus no longer continued to walk publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the region near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim; and there He stayed with the disciples.

<sup>55</sup>Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country prior to the Passover, in order to purify themselves.

<sup>56</sup>So they were looking for Jesus, and saying to one another as they stood in the temple area, “What do you think; that He will not come to the feast at all?”

<sup>57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he was to report it, so that they might arrest Him.

John 12

Mary Anoints Jesus

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

<sup>2</sup>So they made Him a dinner there, and Martha was serving; and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him.

<sup>5</sup>“Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the proceeds given to poor people?”

<sup>6</sup>Now he said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and as he kept the money box, he used to steal from what was put into it.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore Jesus said, “Leave her alone, so that she may keep it for the day of My burial.

<sup>8</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me.”

<sup>9</sup>The large crowd of the Jews then learned that He was there; and they came, not on account of Jesus only, but so that they might also see Lazarus, whom He raised from the dead.

<sup>10</sup>But the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death also,

<sup>11</sup>because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and were believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>12</sup>On the next day, when the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

<sup>13</sup>they took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet Him, and began shouting, “Hosanna! BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, indeed, the King of Israel!”

<sup>16</sup>These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things for Him.

<sup>17</sup>So the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to testify about Him.

<sup>18</sup>For this reason also the people went to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign.

<sup>19</sup>So the Pharisees said to one another, “You see that you are not accomplishing anything; look, the world has gone after Him!”

Greeks Seek Jesus

<sup>20</sup>Now there were some Greeks among those who were going up to worship at the feast;

<sup>21</sup>these people then came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and were making a request of him, saying, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus *answered them by saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

<sup>24</sup>Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

<sup>25</sup>The one who loves his life loses it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

Jesus Foretells His Death

<sup>27</sup> “Now My soul has become troubled; and what am I to say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour’? But for this purpose I came to this hour.

<sup>28</sup>Father, glorify Your name.” Then a voice came out of heaven: “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

<sup>29</sup>So the crowd who stood by and heard it were saying that it had thundered; others were saying, “An angel has spoken to Him!”

<sup>30</sup>Jesus responded and said, “This voice has not come for My sake, but for yours.

<sup>31</sup>Now judgment is upon this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out.

<sup>32</sup>And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself.”

<sup>33</sup>Now He was saying this to indicate what kind of death He was going to die.

<sup>34</sup>The crowd then answered Him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ is to remain forever; and how is it that You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

<sup>35</sup>So Jesus said to them, “For a little while longer the Light is among you. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness will not overtake you; also, the one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

<sup>36</sup>While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become sons of Light.” These things Jesus proclaimed, and He went away and hid Himself from them.

<sup>37</sup>But though He had performed so many signs in their sight, they still were not believing in Him.

<sup>38</sup>This happened so that the word of Isaiah the prophet which he spoke would be fulfilled: “LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT? AND TO WHOM HAS THE ARM OF THE LORD BEEN REVEALED?”

<sup>39</sup>For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

<sup>40</sup>“HE HAS BLINDED THEIR EYES AND HE HARDENED THEIR HEART, SO THAT THEY WILL NOT SEE WITH THEIR EYES AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART, AND BE CONVERTED, AND SO I WILL NOT HEAL THEM.”

<sup>41</sup>These things Isaiah said because he saw His glory, and he spoke about Him.

<sup>42</sup>Nevertheless many, even of the rulers, believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, so that they would not be excommunicated from the synagogue;

<sup>43</sup>for they loved the approval of people rather than the approval of God.

<sup>44</sup>Now Jesus cried out and said, “The one who believes in Me, does not believe only in Me, but also in Him who sent Me.

<sup>45</sup>And the one who sees Me sees Him who sent Me.

<sup>46</sup>I have come as Light into the world, so that no one who believes in Me will remain in darkness.

<sup>47</sup>If anyone hears My teachings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

<sup>48</sup>The one who rejects Me and does not accept My teachings has one who judges him: the word which I spoke. That will judge him on the last day.

<sup>49</sup>For I did not speak on My own, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a commandment as to what to say and what to speak.

<sup>50</sup>And I know that His commandment is eternal life; therefore the things I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me.”

John 13

The LORD's Supper

<sup>1</sup>Now before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that His hour had come that He would depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

<sup>2</sup>And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,

<sup>3</sup>Jesus, knowing that the Father had handed all things over to Him, and that He had come forth from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup>*got up from supper and *laid His outer garments aside; and He took a towel and tied it around Himself.

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

<sup>5</sup>Then He *poured water into the basin, and began washing the disciples' feet and wiping them with the towel which He had tied around Himself.

<sup>6</sup>So He *came to Simon Peter. He *said to Him, "Lord, You are washing my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing, you do not realize right now, but you will understand later."

<sup>8</sup>Peter *said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no place with Me."

<sup>9</sup>Simon Peter *said to Him, "Lord, then wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus *said to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet; otherwise he is completely clean. And you are clean—but not all of you."

<sup>11</sup>For He knew the one who was betraying Him; it was for this reason that He said, "Not all of you are clean."

<sup>12</sup>Then, when He had washed their feet, and taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done for you?"

<sup>13</sup>You call Me 'Teacher' and 'Lord'; and you are correct, for so I am.

<sup>14</sup>So if I, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

<sup>15</sup>For I gave you an example, so that you also would do just as I did for you.

<sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

<sup>18</sup>I am not speaking about all of you. I know the ones whom I have chosen; but this is happening so that the Scripture may be fulfilled, ‘HE WHO EATS MY BREAD HAS LIFTED UP HIS HEEL AGAINST ME.’

<sup>19</sup>From now on I am telling you before it happens, so that when it does happen, you may believe that I am He.

<sup>20</sup>Truly, truly I say to you, the one who receives anyone I send, receives Me; and the one who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.”

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

<sup>21</sup>When Jesus had said these things, He became troubled in spirit, and testified and said, “Truly, truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me.”

<sup>22</sup>The disciples began looking at one another, at a loss to know of which one He was speaking.

<sup>24</sup>So Simon Peter *nodded to this disciple and *said to him, “Tell us who it is of whom He is speaking.”

<sup>25</sup>He then simply leaned back on Jesus’ chest and *said to Him, “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus then *answered, “That man is the one for whom I shall dip the piece of bread and give it to him.” So when He had dipped the piece of bread, He *took and *gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup>After this, Satan then entered him. Therefore Jesus *said to him, “What you are doing, do it quickly.”

<sup>28</sup>Now none of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose He had said this to him.

<sup>29</sup>For some were assuming, since Judas kept the money box, that Jesus was saying to him, “Buy the things we need for the feast”; or else, that he was to give something to the poor.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore when he had left, Jesus *said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in Him;

<sup>32</sup>if God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him immediately.

<sup>33</sup>Little children, I am still with you a little longer. You will look for Me; and just as I said to the Jews, now I also say to you: ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’

<sup>34</sup>I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another; just as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

<sup>35</sup>By this all people will know that you are My disciples: if you have love for one another.”

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter *said to Him, “Lord, where are You going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow later.”

<sup>37</sup>Peter *said to Him, “Lord, why can I not follow You right now? I will lay down my life for You.”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus *replied, “Will you lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly I say to you, a rooster will not crow until you deny Me three times.

John 14

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

<sup>1</sup> “Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

<sup>2</sup>In My Father’s house are many rooms; if that were not so, I would have told you, because I am going there to prepare a place for you.

<sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again and will take you to Myself, so that where I am, there you also will be.

<sup>5</sup>Thomas *said to Him, “Lord, we do not know where You are going; how do we know the way?”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus *said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father except through Me.

Oneness with the Father

<sup>7</sup> If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; from now on you know Him, and have seen Him.”

<sup>8</sup>Philip *said to Him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus *said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time, and yet you have not come to know Me, Philip? The one who has seen Me has seen the Father; how can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?”

<sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own, but the Father, as He remains in Me, does His works.

<sup>11</sup>Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me; otherwise believe because of the works themselves.

<sup>12</sup>Truly, truly I say to you, the one who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these he will do; because I am going to the Father.

<sup>13</sup>And whatever you ask in My name, this I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

<sup>14</sup>If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it.

<sup>15</sup> “If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

The Holy Spirit

<sup>16</sup> I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, so that He may be with you forever;

<sup>17</sup>the Helper is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him; but you know Him because He remains with you and will be in you.

<sup>18</sup> “I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you.

<sup>19</sup>After a little while, the world no longer is going to see Me, but you are going to see Me; because I live, you also will live.

<sup>20</sup>On that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I in you.

<sup>21</sup>The one who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me; and the one who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will reveal Myself to him.”

<sup>22</sup>Judas (not Iscariot) *said to Him, “Lord, what has happened that You are going to reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves Me, he will follow My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling with him.

<sup>24</sup>The one who does not love Me does not follow My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father’s who sent Me.

<sup>25</sup> “These things I have spoken to you while remaining with you.

<sup>26</sup>But the Helper, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all that I said to you.

<sup>27</sup>Peace I leave you, My peace I give you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, nor fearful.

<sup>28</sup>You heard that I said to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

<sup>29</sup>And now I have told you before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe.

<sup>30</sup>I will not speak much more with you, for the ruler of the world is coming, and he has nothing in regard to Me,

<sup>31</sup>but so that the world may know that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father commanded Me. Get up, let's go from here.

John 15

Jesus Is the Vine—Followers Are Branches

<sup>2</sup>Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit.

<sup>3</sup>You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

<sup>4</sup>Remain in Me, and I in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit of itself but must remain in the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in Me.

<sup>5</sup>I am the vine, you are the branches; the one who remains in Me, and I in him bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing.

<sup>6</sup>If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown away like a branch and dries up; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

<sup>7</sup>If you remain in Me, and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

<sup>8</sup>My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.

<sup>9</sup>Just as the Father has loved Me, I also have loved you; remain in My love.

<sup>10</sup>If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love; just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love.

<sup>11</sup>These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

Disciples' Relation to Each Other

<sup>12</sup> “This is My commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you.

<sup>13</sup> Greater love has no one than this, that a person will lay down his life for his friends.

<sup>14</sup> You are My friends if you do what I command you.

<sup>15</sup> No longer do I call you slaves, for the slave does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, because all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

<sup>16</sup> You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name He may give to you.

<sup>17</sup> This I command you, that you love one another.

Disciples' Relation to the World

<sup>18</sup> “If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you.

<sup>19</sup> If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, because of this the world hates you.

<sup>20</sup> Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you as well; if they followed My word, they will follow yours also.

<sup>21</sup> But all these things they will do to you on account of My name, because they do not know the One who sent Me.

<sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

<sup>23</sup> The one who hates Me hates My Father also.

<sup>24</sup>If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would not have sin; but now they have both seen and hated Me and My Father as well.

<sup>25</sup>But this has happened so that the word that is written in their Law will be fulfilled: ‘THEY HATED ME FOR NO REASON.’

<sup>26</sup>“When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, namely, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, He will testify about Me, <sup>27</sup>and you are testifying as well, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

John 16

Jesus’ Warning

<sup>1</sup> “These things I have spoken to you so that you will not be led into sin.

<sup>2</sup>They will ban you from the synagogue, yet an hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think that he is offering a service to God.

<sup>3</sup>These things they will do because they have not known the Father nor Me.

<sup>4</sup>But these things I have spoken to you, so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you of them. However, I did not say these things to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

The Holy Spirit Promised

<sup>5</sup> “But now I am going to Him who sent Me; and none of you asks Me, ‘Where are You going?’

<sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things to you, grief has filled your heart.

<sup>7</sup>But I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I am leaving; for if I do not leave, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

<sup>8</sup>And He, when He comes, will convict the world regarding sin, and righteousness, and judgment:

- <sup>9</sup>regarding sin, because they do not believe in Me;
- <sup>10</sup>and regarding righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you no longer are going to see Me;
- <sup>11</sup>and regarding judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.
- <sup>12</sup> “I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them at the present time.
- <sup>13</sup>But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.
- <sup>14</sup>He will glorify Me, for He will take from Mine and will disclose it to you.
- <sup>15</sup>All things that the Father has are Mine; this is why I said that He takes from Mine and will disclose it to you.

Jesus' Death and Resurrection Foretold

- <sup>16</sup> “A little while, and you no longer are going to see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me.”
- <sup>17</sup>So some of His disciples said to one another, “What is this that He is telling us, ‘A little while, and you are not going to see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me’; and, ‘because I am going to the Father?’”
- <sup>18</sup>So they were saying, “What is this that He says, ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is talking about.”
- <sup>19</sup>Jesus knew that they wanted to question Him, and He said to them, “Are you deliberating together about this, that I said, ‘A little while, and you are not going to see Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me’?”
- <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly I say to you that you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; you will grieve, but your grief will be turned into joy!
- <sup>21</sup>Whenever a woman is in labor she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy that a child has been born into the world.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore you too have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one is going to take your joy away from you.

Prayer Promises

<sup>23</sup> And on that day you will not question Me about anything. Truly, truly I say to you, if you ask the Father for anything in My name, He will give it to you.

<sup>24</sup>Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be made full.

<sup>25</sup> “These things I have spoken to you in figures of speech; an hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father.

<sup>26</sup>On that day you will ask in My name, and I am not saying to you that I will request of the Father on your behalf;

<sup>27</sup>for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came forth from the Father.

<sup>28</sup>I came forth from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>His disciples *said, “See, now You are speaking plainly and are not using any figure of speech.

<sup>30</sup>Now we know that You know all things, and that You have no need for anyone to question You; this is why we believe that You came forth from God.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus replied to them, “Do you now believe?

<sup>32</sup>Behold, an hour is coming, and has already come, for you to be scattered, each to his own home, and to leave Me alone; and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

<sup>33</sup>These things I have spoken to you so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation, but take courage; I have overcome the world.”

John 17

The High Priestly Prayer

<sup>1</sup>Jesus spoke these things; and raising His eyes to heaven, He said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify Your Son, so that the Son may glorify You,

<sup>2</sup>just as You gave Him authority over all mankind, so that to all whom You have given Him, He may give eternal life.

<sup>3</sup>And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.

<sup>4</sup>I glorified You on the earth by accomplishing the work which You have given Me to do.

<sup>5</sup>And now You, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world existed.

<sup>6</sup>“I have revealed Your name to the men whom You gave Me out of the world; they were Yours and You gave them to Me, and they have followed Your word.

<sup>7</sup>Now they have come to know that everything which You have given Me is from You;

<sup>8</sup>for the words which You gave Me I have given to them; and they received them and truly understood that I came forth from You, and they believed that You sent Me.

<sup>9</sup>I ask on their behalf; I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on the behalf of those whom You have given Me, because they are Yours;

<sup>10</sup>and all things that are Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them.

<sup>11</sup>I am no longer going to be in the world; and yet they themselves are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name which You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are.

<sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name, which You have given Me; and I guarded them, and not one of them perished except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

The Disciples in the World

<sup>13</sup> But now I am coming to You; and these things I speak in the world so that they may have My joy made full in themselves.

<sup>14</sup>I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

<sup>15</sup>I am not asking You to take them out of the world, but to keep them away from the evil one.

<sup>19</sup>And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, so that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

<sup>20</sup> “I am not asking on behalf of these alone, but also for those who believe in Me through their word,

<sup>21</sup>that they may all be one; just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me.

Disciples' Future Glory

<sup>22</sup> The glory which You have given Me I also have given to them, so that they may be one, just as We are one;

<sup>23</sup>I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me, and You loved them, just as You loved Me.

<sup>24</sup>Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory which You have given Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world.

<sup>25</sup>“Righteous Father, although the world has not known You, yet I have known You; and these have known that You sent Me;

<sup>26</sup>and I have made Your name known to them, and will make it known, so that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

John 18

Judas Betrays Jesus

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had spoken these words, He went away with His disciples across the ravine of the Kidron, where there was a garden which He entered with His disciples.

<sup>2</sup>Now Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with His disciples.

<sup>3</sup>So Judas, having obtained the Roman cohort and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, *came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon Him, came out into the open and *said to them, “Whom are you seeking?”

<sup>5</sup>They answered Him, “Jesus the Nazarene.” He *said to them, “I am He.” And Judas also, who was betraying Him, was standing with them.

<sup>6</sup>Now then, when He said to them, “I am He,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>He then asked them again, “Whom are you seeking?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, “I told you that I am He; so if you are seeking Me, let these men go on their way.”

<sup>9</sup>This took place so that the word which He spoke would be fulfilled: “Of those whom You have given Me I lost not one.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter, since he had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s slave, and cut off his right ear; and the slave’s name was Malchus.

<sup>11</sup>So Jesus said to Peter, “Put the sword into the sheath; the cup which the Father has given Me, am I not to drink it?”

Jesus before the Priests

<sup>12</sup>So the Roman cohort, the commander, and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him,

<sup>13</sup>and brought Him to Annas first; for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

<sup>14</sup>Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was in their best interest for one man to die in behalf of the people.

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, <sup>16</sup>but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in.

<sup>17</sup>Then the slave woman who was the doorkeeper *said to Peter, “You are not also one of this Man’s disciples, are you?” He *said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup>Now the slaves and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were warming themselves; and Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

<sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world; I always taught in synagogues and in the temple area, where all the Jews congregate; and I said nothing in secret.

<sup>21</sup>Why are you asking Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them. Look: these people know what I said.”

<sup>22</sup>But when He said this, one of the officers, who was standing nearby, struck Jesus, saying, “Is that the way You answer the high priest?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken wrongly, testify of the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?”

Peter’s Denial of Jesus

<sup>25</sup>Now Simon Peter was still standing and warming himself. So they said to him, “You are not one of His disciples as well, are you?” He denied it, and said, “I am not.”

<sup>26</sup>One of the slaves of the high priest, who was related to the one whose ear Peter cut off, *said, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?”

<sup>27</sup>Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus before Pilate

<sup>28</sup>Then they *brought Jesus from Caiaphas into the Praetorium, and it was early; and they themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

<sup>29</sup>Therefore Pilate came out to them and *said, “What accusation are you bringing against this Man?”

<sup>30</sup>They answered and said to him, “If this Man were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you.”

<sup>31</sup>So Pilate said to them, “Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law.” The Jews said to him, “We are not permitted to put anyone to death.”

<sup>32</sup>This happened so that the word of Jesus which He said, indicating what kind of death He was going to die, would be fulfilled.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore Pilate entered the Praetorium again, and summoned Jesus and said to Him, “You are the King of the Jews?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, “Are you saying this on your own, or did others tell you about Me?”

<sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed You over to me; what have You done?”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would be fighting so that I would not be handed over to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not of this realm.”

<sup>37</sup>Therefore Pilate said to Him, “So You are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say correctly that I am a king. For this purpose I have been born, and for this I have come into the world: to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice.”

<sup>38</sup>Pilate *said to Him, “What is truth?” And after saying this, he came out again to the Jews and *said to them, “I find no grounds at all for charges in His case.

<sup>39</sup>However, you have a custom that I release one prisoner for you at the Passover; therefore do you wish that I release for you the King of the Jews?”

<sup>40</sup>So they shouted again, saying, “Not this Man, but Barabbas.” Now Barabbas was a rebel.

John 19

The Crown of Thorns

<sup>2</sup>And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and placed it on His head, and put a purple cloak on Him;

<sup>3</sup>and they repeatedly came up to Him and said, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and slapped Him in the face again and again.

<sup>4</sup>And then Pilate came out again and *said to them, “See, I am bringing Him out to you so that you will know that I find no grounds at all for charges in His case.”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus then came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate *said to them, “Behold, the Man!”

<sup>6</sup>So when the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they shouted, saying, “Crucify, crucify!” Pilate *said to them, “Take Him yourselves and crucify Him; for I find no grounds for charges in His case!”

<sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and by that law He ought to die, because He made Himself out to be the Son of God!”

<sup>8</sup>Therefore when Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid;

<sup>9</sup>and he entered the Praetorium again and *said to Jesus, “Where are You from?” But Jesus gave him no answer.

<sup>10</sup>So Pilate *said to Him, “Are you not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered him, “You would have no authority over Me at all, if it had not been given to you from above; for this reason the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup>As a result of this, Pilate made efforts to release Him; but the Jews shouted, saying, “If you release this Man, you are not a friend of Caesar; everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar!”

<sup>13</sup>Therefore when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement—but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

<sup>14</sup>Now it was the day of preparation for the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. And he *said to the Jews, “Look, your King!”

<sup>15</sup>So they shouted, “Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!” Pilate *said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king except Caesar.”

The Crucifixion

<sup>16</sup>So he then handed Him over to them to be crucified.

<sup>17</sup>They took Jesus, therefore, and He went out, carrying His own cross, to the place called the Place of a Skull, which in Hebrew is called, Golgotha.

<sup>18</sup>There they crucified Him, and with Him two other men, one on either side, and Jesus in between.

<sup>19</sup>Now Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It was written: “JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

<sup>20</sup>Therefore many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and in Greek.

<sup>21</sup>So the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews’; rather, write that He said, ‘I am King of the Jews.’”

<sup>23</sup>Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer garments and made four parts: a part to each soldier, and the tunic also; but the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece.

<sup>24</sup>So they said to one another, “Let’s not tear it, but cast lots for it, to decide whose it shall be.” This happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: “THEY DIVIDED MY GARMENTS AMONG THEMSELVES, AND THEY CAST LOTS FOR MY CLOTHING.” Therefore the soldiers did these things.

<sup>26</sup>So when Jesus saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He *said to His mother, “Woman, behold, your son!”

<sup>27</sup>Then He *said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her into his own household.

<sup>28</sup>After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had already been accomplished, in order that the Scripture would be fulfilled, *said, “I am thirsty.”

<sup>29</sup>A jar full of sour wine was standing there; so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a branch of hyssop and brought it up to His mouth.

<sup>30</sup>Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!” And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

Care of the Body of Jesus

<sup>31</sup>Now then, since it was the day of preparation, to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews requested of Pilate that their legs be broken, and the bodies be taken away.

<sup>32</sup>So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man, and of the other who was crucified with Him;

<sup>33</sup>but after they came to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

<sup>35</sup>And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

<sup>36</sup>For these things took place so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: “NOT A BONE OF HIM SHALL BE BROKEN.”

<sup>38</sup>Now after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a secret one for fear of the Jews, requested of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate granted permission. So he came and took away His body.

<sup>39</sup>Nicodemus, who had first come to Him by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred litras weight.

<sup>40</sup>So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen wrappings with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.

<sup>41</sup>Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden was a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.

<sup>42</sup>Therefore because of the Jewish day of preparation, since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

John 20

The Empty Tomb

<sup>1</sup>Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene *came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and *saw the stone already removed from the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>So she *ran and *came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and *said to them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have put Him.”

<sup>4</sup>The two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead, faster than Peter, and came to the tomb first;

<sup>5</sup>and he stooped to look in, and *saw the linen wrappings lying there; however he did not go in.

<sup>6</sup>So Simon Peter also *came, following him, and he entered the tomb; and he *looked at the linen wrappings lying there,

<sup>7</sup>and the face-cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen wrappings but folded up in a place by itself.

<sup>8</sup>So the other disciple who had first come to the tomb also entered then, and he saw and believed.

<sup>9</sup>For they did not yet understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead.

<sup>10</sup>So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary was standing outside the tomb, weeping; so as she wept, she stooped to look into the tomb;

<sup>12</sup>and she **saw* two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying.

<sup>13</sup>And they **said* to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She **said* to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they put Him.”

<sup>14</sup>When she had said this, she turned around and **saw* Jesus standing there, and yet she did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus **said* to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Thinking that He was the gardener, she **said* to Him, “Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you put Him, and I will take Him away.”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus **said* to her, “Mary!” She turned and **said* to Him in Hebrew, “Rabboni!” (which means, Teacher).

<sup>17</sup>Jesus **said* to her, “Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to My brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene **came* and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and that He had said these things to her.

Jesus among His Disciples

<sup>19</sup>Now when it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were together due to fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst, and *said to them, “Peace be to you.”

<sup>20</sup>And when He had said this, He showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples then rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>So Jesus said to them again, “Peace be to you; just as the Father has sent Me, I also send you.”

<sup>22</sup>And when He had said this, He breathed on them and *said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>23</sup>If you forgive the sins of any, their sins have been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained.”

<sup>25</sup>So the other disciples were saying to him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.”

<sup>26</sup>Eight days later His disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus *came, the doors having been shut, and stood in their midst and said, “Peace be to you.”

<sup>27</sup>Then He *said to Thomas, “Place your finger here, and see My hands; and take your hand and put it into My side; and do not continue in disbelief, but be a believer.”

<sup>28</sup>Thomas answered and said to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus *said to him, “Because you have seen Me, have you now believed? Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed.”

Why This Gospel Was Written

<sup>30</sup>So then, many other signs Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

<sup>31</sup>but these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that by believing you may have life in His name.

John 21

Jesus Appears at the Sea of Galilee

<sup>2</sup>Simon Peter, Thomas who was called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

<sup>3</sup>Simon Peter *said to them, "I am going fishing." They *said to him, "We are also coming with you." They went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup>But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>So Jesus *said to them, "Children, you do not have any fish to eat, do you?" They answered Him, "No."

<sup>6</sup>And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you will find the fish." So they cast it, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great quantity of fish.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved *said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he was stripped for work), and threw himself into the sea.

<sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away, dragging the net full of fish.

<sup>9</sup>So when they got out on the land, they *saw a charcoal fire already made and fish placed on it, and bread.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus *said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have now caught."

<sup>11</sup>So Simon Peter went up and hauled the net to land, full of large fish, 153; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

Jesus Provides

<sup>12</sup>Jesus *said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples ventured to inquire of Him, “Who are You?” knowing that it was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Jesus *came and *took the bread and *gave it to them, and the fish likewise.

<sup>14</sup>This was now the third time that Jesus revealed Himself to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

The Love Question

<sup>15</sup>Now when they had finished breakfast, Jesus *said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?” He *said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You.” He *said to him, “Tend My lambs.”

<sup>16</sup>He *said to him again, a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?” He *said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You.” He *said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.”

<sup>17</sup>He *said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?” Peter was hurt because He said to him the third time, “Do you love Me?” And he said to Him, “Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You.” Jesus *said to him, “Tend My sheep.

Our Times Are in His Hand

<sup>18</sup>Truly, truly I tell you, when you were younger, you used to put on your belt and walk wherever you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will put your belt on you, and bring you where you do not want to go.”

<sup>19</sup>Now He said this, indicating by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when He had said this, He *said to him, “Follow Me!”

<sup>20</sup>Peter turned around and *saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them—the one who also had leaned back on His chest at the supper and said, “Lord, who is the one who is betraying You?”

<sup>21</sup>So Peter, upon seeing him, *said to Jesus, “Lord, and what about this man?”

<sup>22</sup>Jesus *said to him, “If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!”

<sup>23</sup>Therefore this account went out among the brothers, that that disciple would not die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but only, “If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?”

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who is testifying about these things and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup>But there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they were written in detail, I expect that even the world itself would not contain the books that would be written.

The Acts

The Acts 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>The first account I composed, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach,

<sup>2</sup>until the day when He was taken up to heaven, after He had given orders by the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen.

<sup>3</sup>To these He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of things regarding the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup>Gathering them together, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, “Which,” He said, “you heard of from Me;

<sup>5</sup>for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

<sup>6</sup>So, when they had come together, they began asking Him, saying, “Lord, is it at this time that You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?”

<sup>7</sup>But He said to them, “It is not for you to know periods of time or appointed times which the Father has set by His own authority;

<sup>8</sup>but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and Samaria, and as far as the remotest part of the earth.”

The Ascension

<sup>9</sup>And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were watching, and a cloud took Him up, out of their sight.

<sup>10</sup>And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, then behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them,

<sup>11</sup>and they said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven.”

The Upper Room

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey away.

<sup>13</sup>When they had entered the city, they went up to the upstairs room where they were staying, that is, Peter, John, James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.

<sup>14</sup>All these were continually devoting themselves with one mind to prayer, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

<sup>15</sup>At this time Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (a group of about 120 people was there together), and said,

<sup>16</sup>“Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>And it became known to all the residents of Jerusalem; as a result that field was called Hakeldama in their own language, that is, Field of Blood.)

<sup>20</sup>“For it is written in the book of Psalms: ‘MAY HIS RESIDENCE BE MADE DESOLATE, AND MAY THERE BE NONE LIVING IN IT’; and, ‘MAY ANOTHER TAKE HIS OFFICE.’

<sup>21</sup>Therefore it is necessary that of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us—

<sup>23</sup>So they put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabbas (who was also called Justus), and Matthias.

<sup>24</sup>And they prayed and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all people, show which one of these two You have chosen

<sup>26</sup>And they drew lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Acts 2

The Day of Pentecost

<sup>1</sup>When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

<sup>3</sup>And tongues that looked like fire appeared to them, distributing themselves, and a tongue rested on each one of them.

<sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with different tongues, as the Spirit was giving them the ability to speak out.

<sup>6</sup>And when this sound occurred, the crowd came together and they were bewildered, because each one of them was hearing them speak in his own language.

<sup>7</sup>They were amazed and astonished, saying, “Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?”

<sup>8</sup>And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born?

<sup>9</sup>Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

<sup>11</sup>Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty deeds of God.”

<sup>13</sup>But others were jeering and saying, “They are full of sweet wine!”

Peter’s Sermon

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, taking his stand with the other eleven, raised his voice and declared to them: “Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, know this, and pay attention to my words.

<sup>15</sup>For these people are not drunk, as you assume, since it is only the third hour of the day;

<sup>17</sup>‘AND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS,’ God says, ‘THAT I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT ON ALL MANKIND; AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS WILL PROPHECY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN WILL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN WILL HAVE DREAMS;

<sup>18</sup>AND EVEN ON MY MALE AND FEMALE SERVANTS I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT IN THOSE DAYS, And they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>‘AND I WILL DISPLAY WONDERS IN THE SKY ABOVE AND SIGNS ON THE EARTH BELOW, BLOOD, FIRE, AND VAPOR OF SMOKE.

<sup>20</sup>“THE SUN WILL BE TURNED INTO DARKNESS AND THE MOON INTO BLOOD, BEFORE THE GREAT AND GLORIOUS DAY OF THE LORD COMES.

<sup>21</sup>‘AND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERYONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED.’

<sup>22</sup>“Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a Man attested to you by God with miracles and wonders and signs which God performed through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves know—

<sup>23</sup>this Man, delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death.

<sup>24</sup>But God raised Him from the dead, putting an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in its power.

<sup>25</sup>For David says of Him, ‘I SAW THE LORD CONTINUALLY BEFORE ME, BECAUSE HE IS AT MY RIGHT HAND, SO THAT I WILL NOT BE SHAKEN.

<sup>26</sup>‘THEREFORE MY HEART WAS GLAD AND MY TONGUE WAS OVERJOYED; MOREOVER MY FLESH ALSO WILL LIVE IN HOPE;

<sup>27</sup>FOR YOU WILL NOT ABANDON MY SOUL TO HADES, NOR WILL YOU ALLOW YOUR HOLY ONE TO UNDERGO DECAY.

<sup>28</sup>‘YOU HAVE MADE KNOWN TO ME THE WAYS OF LIFE; YOU WILL MAKE ME FULL OF GLADNESS WITH YOUR PRESENCE.’

<sup>29</sup>“Brothers, I may confidently say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

<sup>30</sup>So because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat one of his descendants on his throne,

<sup>31</sup>he looked ahead and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that He was neither abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh suffer decay.

<sup>32</sup>It is this Jesus whom God raised up, a fact to which we are all witnesses.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore, since He has been exalted at the right hand of God, and has received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, He has poured out this which you both see and hear.

<sup>34</sup>For it was not David who ascended into heaven, but he himself says: ‘THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

<sup>35</sup>UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET.” ’

<sup>36</sup>Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified.”

<sup>37</sup>Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what are we to do?”

<sup>38</sup>Peter said to them, “Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>39</sup>For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far away, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself.”

<sup>40</sup>And with many other words he solemnly testified and kept on urging them, saying, “Be saved from this perverse generation!”

<sup>41</sup>So then, those who had received his word were baptized; and that day there were added about three thousand souls.

<sup>42</sup>They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

<sup>43</sup>Everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles.

<sup>44</sup>And all the believers were together and had all things in common;

<sup>45</sup>and they would sell their property and possessions and share them with all, to the extent that anyone had need.

<sup>46</sup>Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart,

<sup>47</sup>praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

The Acts 3

Healing the Beggar Who Was Unable to Walk

<sup>2</sup>And a man who had been unable to walk from birth was being carried, whom they used to set down every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, in order for him to beg for charitable gifts from those entering the temple grounds.

<sup>4</sup>But Peter, along with John, looked at him intently and said, "Look at us!"

<sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "I do not have silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk!"

<sup>7</sup>And grasping him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened.

<sup>8</sup>And leaping up, he stood and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

<sup>9</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God;

<sup>10</sup>and they recognized him as being the very one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg for charitable gifts, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter's Second Sermon

<sup>11</sup>While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at the portico named Solomon's, completely astonished.

<sup>12</sup>But when Peter saw this, he replied to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this, or why are you staring at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk?

<sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant Jesus, the one whom you handed over and disowned in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release Him.

<sup>14</sup>But you disowned the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,

<sup>15</sup>but put to death the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, a fact to which we are witnesses.

<sup>16</sup>And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup>"And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your rulers also did.

<sup>18</sup>But the things which God previously announced by the mouths of all the prophets, that His Christ would suffer, He has fulfilled in this way.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

<sup>20</sup>and that He may send Jesus, the Christ appointed for you,

<sup>21</sup>whom heaven must receive until the period of restoration of all things, about which God spoke by the mouths of His holy prophets from ancient times.

<sup>22</sup>Moses said, ‘THE LORD GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR COUNTRYMEN; TO HIM YOU SHALL LISTEN regarding everything He says to you.

<sup>23</sup>And it shall be that every soul that does not listen to that prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.’

<sup>24</sup>And likewise, all the prophets who have spoken from Samuel and his successors onward, have also announced these days.

<sup>25</sup>It is you who are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God ordained with your fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘AND IN YOUR SEED ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED.’

<sup>26</sup>God raised up His Servant for you first, and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways.”

The Acts 4

Peter and John Arrested

<sup>1</sup>As they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them,

<sup>2</sup>being greatly disturbed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them and put them in prison until the next day, for it was already evening.

<sup>4</sup>But many of those who had heard the message believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

<sup>5</sup>On the next day, their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;

<sup>6</sup>and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of high-priestly descent.

<sup>7</sup>When they had placed them in the center, they began to inquire, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

<sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of the people,

<sup>9</sup>if we are on trial today for a benefit done to a sick man, as to how this man has been made well,

<sup>10</sup>let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by this name this man stands here before you in good health.

<sup>11</sup>He is the STONE WHICH WAS REJECTED by you, THE BUILDERS, but WHICH BECAME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE.

<sup>12</sup>And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among mankind by which we must be saved.”

Threat and Release

<sup>13</sup>Now as they observed the confidence of Peter and John and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed, and began to recognize them as having been with Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in reply.

<sup>15</sup>But when they had ordered them to leave the Council, they began to confer with one another, <sup>16</sup>saying, “What are we to do with these men? For the fact that a noteworthy miracle has taken place through them is apparent to all who live in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

<sup>17</sup>But so that it will not spread any further among the people, let’s warn them not to speak any longer to any person in this name.”

<sup>18</sup>And when they had summoned them, they commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>But Peter and John answered and said to them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, make your own judgment;

<sup>20</sup>for we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

<sup>21</sup>When they had threatened them further, they let them go (finding no basis on which to punish them) on account of the people, because they were all glorifying God for what had happened;

<sup>22</sup>for the man on whom this miracle of healing had been performed was more than forty years old.

<sup>23</sup>When they had been released, they went to their own companions and reported everything that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

<sup>24</sup>And when they heard this, they raised their voices to God with one mind and said, “Lord, it is You who MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA, AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM,

<sup>25</sup>who by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father David Your servant, said, ‘WHY WERE THE NATIONS INSOLENT, AND THE PEOPLES PLOTTING IN VAIN?

<sup>26</sup>‘THE KINGS OF THE EARTH TOOK THEIR STAND, AND THE RULERS WERE GATHERED TOGETHER AGAINST THE LORD AND AGAINST HIS CHRIST.’

<sup>27</sup>For truly in this city there were gathered together against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel,

<sup>30</sup>while You extend Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus.”

<sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Sharing among Believers

<sup>32</sup>And the congregation of those who believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them claimed that anything belonging to him was his own, but all things were common property to them.

<sup>33</sup>And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all.

<sup>34</sup>For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of land or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds of the sales

<sup>35</sup>and lay them at the apostles' feet, and they would be distributed to each to the extent that any had need.

<sup>37</sup>owned a tract of land. So he sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

The Acts 5

Fate of Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>2</sup>and kept back some of the proceeds for himself, with his wife's full knowledge, and bringing a portion of it, he laid it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>3</sup>But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the proceeds of the land?

<sup>4</sup>While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God."

<sup>5</sup>And as he heard these words, Ananias collapsed and died; and great fear came over all who heard about it.

<sup>6</sup>The young men got up and covered him up, and after carrying him out, they buried him.

<sup>7</sup>Now an interval of about three hours elapsed, and his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

<sup>8</sup>And Peter responded to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for this price?" And she said, "Yes, for that price."

<sup>9</sup>Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out as well."

<sup>10</sup>And immediately she collapsed at his feet and died; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

<sup>11</sup>And great fear came over the whole church, and over all who heard about these things.

<sup>12</sup>At the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were taking place among the people; and they were all together in Solomon's portico.

<sup>13</sup>But none of the rest dared to associate with them; however, the people held them in high esteem.

<sup>14</sup>And increasingly believers in the Lord, large numbers of men and women, were being added to their number,

<sup>15</sup>to such an extent that they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and pallets, so that when Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on any of them.

<sup>16</sup>The people from the cities in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together as well, bringing people who were sick or tormented with unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

Imprisonment and Release

<sup>17</sup>But the high priest stood up, along with all his associates (that is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy.

<sup>18</sup>They laid hands on the apostles and put them in a public prison.

<sup>19</sup>But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the gates of the prison, and leading them out, he said,

<sup>20</sup>“Go, stand and speak to the people in the temple area the whole message of this Life.”

<sup>21</sup>Upon hearing this, they entered into the temple area about daybreak and began to teach. Now when the high priest and his associates came, they called the Council together, that is, all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and sent orders to the prison for them to be brought.

<sup>22</sup>But the officers who came did not find them in the prison; and they returned and reported,

<sup>23</sup>saying, “We found the prison locked quite securely and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

<sup>24</sup>Now when the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them as to what would come of this.

<sup>25</sup>But someone came and reported to them, “The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple area and teaching the people!”

<sup>26</sup>Then the captain went along with the officers and proceeded to bring them back without violence (for they were afraid of the people, that they might be stoned).

<sup>27</sup>When they had brought them, they had them stand before the Council. The high priest interrogated them,

<sup>28</sup>saying, “We gave you strict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and yet, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and intend to bring this Man’s blood upon us.”

<sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you put to death by hanging Him on a cross.

<sup>31</sup>He is the One whom God exalted to His right hand as a Prince and a Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

<sup>32</sup>And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

Gamaliel’s Counsel

<sup>33</sup>But when they heard this, they became infuriated and nearly decided to execute them.

<sup>34</sup>But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, respected by all the people, stood up in the Council and gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.

<sup>35</sup>And he said to them, “Men of Israel, be careful as to what you are about to do with these men.

<sup>36</sup>For, some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and a group of about four hundred men joined him. But he was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

<sup>37</sup>After this man, Judas of Galilee appeared in the days of the census and drew away some people after him; he also perished, and all those who followed him were scattered.

<sup>38</sup>And so in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and leave them alone, for if the source of this plan or movement is men, it will be overthrown;

<sup>39</sup>but if the source is God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found fighting against God.”

<sup>40</sup>They followed his advice; and after calling the apostles in, they flogged them and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

<sup>41</sup>So they went on their way from the presence of the Council, rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer shame for His name.

<sup>42</sup>And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not stop teaching and preaching the good news of Jesus as the Christ.

The Acts 6

Choosing of the Seven

<sup>2</sup>So the twelve summoned the congregation of the disciples and said, “It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables.

<sup>3</sup>Instead, brothers and sisters, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task.

<sup>4</sup>But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

<sup>6</sup>And they brought these men before the apostles; and after praying, they laid their hands on them.

<sup>8</sup>And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people.

<sup>9</sup>But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia, rose up and argued with Stephen.

<sup>10</sup>But they were unable to cope with his wisdom and the Spirit by whom he was speaking.

<sup>11</sup>Then they secretly induced men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.”

<sup>12</sup>And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and they came up to him and dragged him away, and brought him before the Council.

<sup>13</sup>They put forward false witnesses who said, “This man does not stop speaking against this holy place and the Law;

<sup>14</sup>for we have heard him say that this Nazarene, Jesus, will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses handed down to us.”

<sup>15</sup>And all who were sitting in the Council stared at him, and they saw his face, which was like the face of an angel.

The Acts 7

Stephen’s Defense

<sup>2</sup>And Stephen said, “Listen to me, brothers and fathers! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,

<sup>3</sup>and He said to him, ‘GO FROM YOUR COUNTRY AND YOUR RELATIVES, AND COME TO THE LAND WHICH I WILL SHOW YOU.’

<sup>4</sup>Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. And from there, after his father died, God had him move to this country in which you are now living.

<sup>5</sup>But He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot of ground, and yet, He promised that He would give it to him as a possession, and to his descendants after him, even though he had no child.

<sup>6</sup>But God spoke to this effect, that his DESCENDANTS WOULD BE STRANGERS IN A LAND THAT WAS NOT THEIRS, AND THEY WOULD ENSLAVE AND MISTREAT THEM FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS.

<sup>7</sup>‘AND WHATEVER NATION TO WHICH THEY ARE ENSLAVED I MYSELF WILL JUDGE,’ said God, ‘AND AFTER THAT THEY WILL COME OUT AND SERVE ME IN THIS PLACE.’

<sup>8</sup>And He gave him the covenant of circumcision; and so Abraham fathered Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob, the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup>“The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. Yet God was with him, <sup>10</sup>and rescued him from all his afflictions, and granted him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he made him governor over Egypt and his entire household.

<sup>11</sup>“Now a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction with it, and our fathers could find no food.

<sup>12</sup>But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.

<sup>13</sup>And on the second visit, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph’s family was revealed to Pharaoh.

<sup>14</sup>Then Joseph sent word and invited his father Jacob and all his relatives to come to him, seventy-five people in all.

<sup>15</sup>And Jacob went down to Egypt, and he and our fathers died there.

<sup>16</sup>And they were brought back from there to Shechem and laid in the tomb which Abraham had purchased for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup>“But as the time of the promise which God had assured to Abraham was approaching, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt,

<sup>19</sup>It was he who shrewdly took advantage of our nation and mistreated our fathers in order that they would abandon their infants in the Nile, so that they would not survive.

<sup>20</sup>At this time Moses was born; and he was beautiful to God. He was nurtured for three months in his father’s home.

<sup>21</sup>And after he had been put outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him away and nurtured him as her own son.

<sup>22</sup>Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was proficient in speaking and action.

<sup>23</sup>But when he was approaching the age of forty, it entered his mind to visit his countrymen, the sons of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>And when he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he defended and took vengeance for the oppressed man by fatally striking the Egyptian.

<sup>25</sup>And he thought that his brothers understood that God was granting them deliverance through him; but they did not understand.

<sup>26</sup>And on the following day he appeared to them as they were fighting each other, and he tried to reconcile them to peace, by saying, ‘Men, you are brothers, why are you injuring each other?’

<sup>27</sup>But the one who was injuring his neighbor pushed him away, saying, ‘WHO MADE YOU A RULER AND JUDGE OVER US?’

<sup>28</sup>YOU DO NOT INTEND TO KILL ME AS YOU KILLED THE EGYPTIAN YESTERDAY, DO YOU?’

<sup>29</sup>At this remark, MOSES FLED AND BECAME A STRANGER IN THE LAND OF MIDIAN, where he fathered two sons.

<sup>30</sup>“After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn bush.

<sup>31</sup>When Moses saw it, he was astonished at the sight; and as he approached to look more closely, the voice of the Lord came:

<sup>32</sup>‘I AM THE GOD OF YOUR FATHERS, THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND ISAAC, AND JACOB.’ Moses shook with fear and did not dare to look closely.

<sup>33</sup>But the LORD said to him, ‘REMOVE YOUR SANDALS FROM YOUR FEET, FOR THE PLACE ON WHICH YOU ARE STANDING IS HOLY GROUND.

<sup>34</sup>I HAVE CERTAINLY SEEN THE OPPRESSION OF MY PEOPLE WHO ARE IN EGYPT, AND HAVE HEARD THEIR GROANING, AND I HAVE COME DOWN TO RESCUE THEM; AND NOW COME, I WILL SEND YOU TO EGYPT.’

<sup>35</sup>“This Moses whom they disowned, saying, ‘WHO MADE YOU A RULER AND A JUDGE?’ is the one whom God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer with the help of the angel who appeared to him in the thorn bush.

<sup>36</sup>This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>37</sup>This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, ‘GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR COUNTRYMEN.’

<sup>38</sup>This is the one who was in the assembly in the wilderness together with the angel who spoke to him at length on Mount Sinai, and who was with our fathers; and he received living words to pass on to you.

<sup>39</sup>Our fathers were unwilling to be obedient to him; on the contrary they rejected him and turned back to Egypt in their hearts,

<sup>40</sup>saying to Aaron, ‘MAKE US A GOD WHO WILL GO BEFORE US; FOR THIS MOSES WHO LED US OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT—WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM.’

<sup>41</sup>At that time they made a calf and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands.

<sup>42</sup>But God turned away and gave them over to serve the heavenly lights; as it is written in the book of the prophets: ‘YOU DID NOT OFFER ME VICTIMS AND SACRIFICES FOR FORTY YEARS IN THE WILDERNESS, DID YOU, HOUSE OF ISRAEL?

<sup>43</sup>YOU ALSO TOOK ALONG THE TABERNACLE OF MOLOCH AND THE STAR OF YOUR GOD ROMPHA, THE IMAGES WHICH YOU MADE TO WORSHIP. I ALSO WILL DEPORT YOU BEYOND BABYLON.’

<sup>44</sup>“Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, just as He who spoke to Moses directed him to make it according to the pattern which he had seen.

<sup>45</sup>Our fathers in turn received it, and they also brought it in with Joshua upon dispossessing the nations that God drove out from our fathers, until the time of David.

<sup>46</sup>David found favor in God’s sight, and asked that he might find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob.

<sup>48</sup>However, the Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands; as the prophet says:

<sup>49</sup>‘HEAVEN IS MY THRONE, AND THE EARTH IS THE FOOTSTOOL OF MY FEET; WHAT KIND OF HOUSE WILL YOU BUILD FOR ME?’ says the Lord, ‘OR WHAT PLACE IS THERE FOR MY REST?

<sup>50</sup>‘WAS IT NOT MY HAND THAT MADE ALL THESE THINGS?’

<sup>51</sup>“You men who are stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears are always resisting the Holy Spirit; you are doing just as your fathers did.

<sup>52</sup>Which one of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who had previously announced the coming of the Righteous One, and you have now become betrayers and murderers of Him;

<sup>53</sup>you who received the Law as ordained by angels, and yet did not keep it.”

Stephen Put to Death

<sup>54</sup>Now when they heard this, they were infuriated, and they began gnashing their teeth at him.

<sup>55</sup>But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God;

<sup>56</sup>and he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

<sup>57</sup>But they shouted with loud voices, and covered their ears and rushed at him with one mind.

<sup>58</sup>When they had driven him out of the city, they began stoning him; and the witnesses laid aside their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul.

<sup>59</sup>They went on stoning Stephen as he called on the Lord and said, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!”

<sup>60</sup>Then he fell on his knees and cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” Having said this, he fell asleep.

The Acts 8

Saul Persecutes the Church

<sup>1</sup>Now Saul approved of putting Stephen to death. And on that day a great persecution began against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.

<sup>3</sup>But Saul began ravaging the church, entering house after house; and he would drag away men and women and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, those who had been scattered went through places preaching the word.

<sup>5</sup>Philip went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming the Christ to them.

<sup>6</sup>The crowds were paying attention with one mind to what was being said by Philip, as they heard and saw the signs which he was performing.

<sup>7</sup>For in the case of many who had unclean spirits, they were coming out of them shouting with a loud voice; and many who had been paralyzed or limped on crutches were healed.

<sup>8</sup>So there was much rejoicing in that city.

<sup>9</sup>Now a man named Simon had previously been practicing magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, claiming to be someone great;

<sup>10</sup>and all the people, from small to great, were paying attention to him, saying, "This man is the Power of God that is called Great."

<sup>11</sup>And they were paying attention to him because for a long time he had astounded them with his magic arts.

<sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip as he was preaching the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were being baptized.

<sup>13</sup>Now even Simon himself believed; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip, and as he observed signs and great miracles taking place, he was repeatedly amazed.

<sup>14</sup>Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent them Peter and John,

<sup>15</sup>who came down and prayed for them that they would receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>16</sup>(For He had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

<sup>17</sup>Then they began laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,

<sup>19</sup>saying, "Give this authority to me as well, so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could acquire the gift of God with money!

<sup>21</sup>You have no part or share in this matter, for your heart is not right before God.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intention of your heart will be forgiven you.

<sup>23</sup>For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of unrighteousness."

<sup>24</sup>But Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me yourselves, so that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

An Ethiopian Receives Christ

<sup>25</sup>So, when they had solemnly testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, and were preaching the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

<sup>26</sup>But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Get ready and go south to the road that descends from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert road.)

<sup>27</sup>So he got ready and went; and there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure; and he had come to Jerusalem to worship,

<sup>28</sup>and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading Isaiah the prophet.

<sup>30</sup>Philip ran up and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup>And he said, “Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup>Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this: “HE WAS LED LIKE A SHEEP TO SLAUGHTER; AND LIKE A LAMB THAT IS SILENT BEFORE ITS SHEARER, SO HE DOES NOT OPEN HIS MOUTH.

<sup>34</sup>The eunuch answered Philip and said, “Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself, or of someone else?”

<sup>35</sup>Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture he preached Jesus to him.

<sup>36</sup>As they went along the road they came to some water; and the eunuch *said, “Look! Water! What prevents me from being baptized?”

<sup>38</sup>And he ordered that the chariot stop; and they both went down into the water, Philip as well as the eunuch, and he baptized him.

<sup>39</sup>When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; and the eunuch no longer saw him, but went on his way rejoicing.

<sup>40</sup>But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he kept preaching the gospel to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

The Acts 9

The Conversion of Saul

<sup>1</sup>Now Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

<sup>2</sup>and asked for letters from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them in shackles to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Now as he was traveling, it happened that he was approaching Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him;

<sup>4</sup>and he fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

<sup>5</sup>And he said, “Who are You, Lord?” And He said, “I am Jesus whom you are persecuting, <sup>6</sup>but get up and enter the city, and it will be told to you what you must do.”

<sup>8</sup>Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; and leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus.

<sup>9</sup>And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” And he said, “Here I am, Lord.”

<sup>11</sup>And the Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying, <sup>12</sup>and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight.”

<sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many people about this man, how much harm he did to Your saints in Jerusalem;

<sup>14</sup>and here he has authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name.”

<sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel;

<sup>16</sup>for I will show him how much he must suffer in behalf of My name.”

<sup>17</sup>So Ananias departed and entered the house, and after laying his hands on him said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>18</sup>And immediately something like fish scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight, and he got up and was baptized;

<sup>19</sup>and he took food and was strengthened.

Saul Begins to Preach Christ

Now for several days he was with the disciples who were in Damascus,

<sup>20</sup>and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is the Son of God.”

<sup>21</sup>All those hearing him continued to be amazed, and were saying, “Is this not the one who in Jerusalem destroyed those who called on this name, and had come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?”

<sup>23</sup>When many days had elapsed, the Jews plotted together to do away with him,

<sup>24</sup>but their plot became known to Saul. They were also closely watching the gates day and night so that they might put him to death;

<sup>25</sup>but his disciples took him at night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a large basket.

<sup>26</sup>When he came to Jerusalem, he tried repeatedly to associate with the disciples; and yet they were all afraid of him, as they did not believe that he was a disciple.

<sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took hold of him and brought him to the apostles and described to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had talked to him, and how he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus at Damascus.

<sup>28</sup>And he was with them, moving about freely in Jerusalem, speaking out boldly in the name of the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>And he was talking and arguing with the Hellenistic Jews; but they were attempting to put him to death.

<sup>30</sup>Now when the brothers learned of it, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>So the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed peace, as it was being built up; and as it continued in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it kept increasing.

Peter's Ministry

<sup>32</sup>Now as Peter was traveling through all those regions, he also came down to the saints who lived at Lydda.

<sup>33</sup>There he found a man named Aeneas who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed.

<sup>34</sup>Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; get up and make your own bed." Immediately he got up.

<sup>35</sup>And all who lived at Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which when translated means Dorcas); this woman was excelling in acts of kindness and charity which she did habitually.

<sup>37</sup>But it happened at that time that she became sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an upstairs room.

<sup>38</sup>Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, “Do not delay in coming to us.”

<sup>39</sup>So Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him into the room upstairs; and all the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing all the tunics and garments that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

<sup>40</sup>But Peter sent them all out and knelt down and prayed, and turning to the body, he said, “Tabitha, arise.” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

<sup>41</sup>And he gave her his hand and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

The Acts 10

Cornelius' Vision

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort,

<sup>2</sup>a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and made many charitable contributions to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually.

<sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God who had just come in and said to him, “Cornelius!”

<sup>4</sup>And he looked at him intently and became terrified, and said, “What is it, lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and charitable gifts have ascended as a memorial offering before God.

<sup>5</sup>Now dispatch some men to Joppa and send for a man named Simon, who is also called Peter;

<sup>7</sup>When the angel who *spoke to him left, he summoned two of his servants and a devout soldier from his personal attendants,

<sup>9</sup>On the next day, as they were on their way and approaching the city, Peter went up on the housetop about the sixth hour to pray.

<sup>10</sup>But he became hungry and wanted to eat; but while they were making preparations, he fell into a trance;

<sup>11</sup>and he *saw the sky opened up, and an object like a great sheet coming down, lowered by four corners to the ground,

<sup>12</sup>and on it were all kinds of four-footed animals and crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the sky.

<sup>15</sup>Again a voice came to him a second time, “What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy.”

<sup>16</sup>This happened three times, and immediately the object was taken up into the sky.

<sup>17</sup>Now while Peter was greatly perplexed in mind as to what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who had been sent by

Cornelius had asked directions to Simon's house, and they appeared at the gate;

<sup>18</sup>and calling out, they were asking whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was staying there.

<sup>19</sup>While Peter was reflecting on the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you.

<sup>20</sup>But get up, go downstairs and accompany them without misgivings, for I have sent them Myself."

<sup>21</sup>Peter went down to the men and said, "Behold, I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for which you have come?"

<sup>22</sup>They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man well spoken of by the entire nation of the Jews, was divinely directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and hear a message from you."

<sup>23</sup>So he invited them in and gave them lodging.

Peter in Caesarea

Now on the next day he got ready and went away with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

<sup>24</sup>On the following day he entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

<sup>28</sup>And he said to them, "You yourselves know that it is forbidden for a Jewish man to associate with or visit a foreigner; and yet God has shown me that I am not to call any person unholy or unclean.

<sup>29</sup>That is why I came without even raising any objection when I was sent for. So I ask, for what reason did you send for me?"

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius said, “Four days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during the ninth hour; and behold, a man stood before me in shining clothing, <sup>31</sup>and he *said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your charitable gifts have been remembered before God.

<sup>32</sup>Therefore send some men to Joppa and invite Simon, who is also called Peter, to come to you; he is staying at the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.’

<sup>33</sup>So I sent men to you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here present before God to hear everything that you have been commanded by the Lord.”

Gentiles Hear Good News

<sup>34</sup>Opening his mouth, Peter said: “I most certainly understand now that God is not one to show partiality, <sup>35</sup>but in every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right is acceptable to Him.

<sup>36</sup>The word which He sent to the sons of Israel, preaching peace through Jesus Christ (He is Lord of all)—

<sup>37</sup>you yourselves know the thing that happened throughout Judea, starting from Galilee, after the baptism which John proclaimed.

<sup>38</sup>You know of Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.

<sup>39</sup>We are witnesses of all the things that He did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also put Him to death by hanging Him on a cross.

<sup>40</sup>God raised Him up on the third day and granted that He be revealed, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people, but to witnesses who had been chosen beforehand by God, that is, to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.

<sup>42</sup>And He ordered us to preach to the people, and to testify solemnly that this is the One who has been appointed by God as Judge of the living and the dead.

<sup>43</sup>All the prophets testify of Him, that through His name everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins.”

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who were listening to the message.

<sup>45</sup>All the Jewish believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had also been poured out on the Gentiles.

<sup>46</sup>For they were hearing them speaking with tongues and exalting God. Then Peter responded,

<sup>47</sup>“Surely no one can refuse the water for these to be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?”

<sup>48</sup>And he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay on for a few days.

The Acts 11

Peter Reports in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Now the apostles and the brothers and sisters who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

<sup>2</sup>And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the Jewish believers took issue with him,

<sup>5</sup>“I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object coming down like a great sheet lowered by four corners from the sky; and it came to where I was,

<sup>6</sup>and I stared at it and was thinking about it, and I saw the four-footed animals of the earth, the wild animals, the crawling creatures, and the birds of the sky.

<sup>7</sup>I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’

<sup>8</sup>But I said, ‘By no means, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

<sup>9</sup>But a voice from heaven answered a second time, ‘What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy.’

<sup>10</sup>This happened three times, and everything was drawn back up into the sky.

<sup>11</sup>And behold, at that moment three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea came up to the house where we were staying.

<sup>12</sup>And the Spirit told me to go with them without misgivings. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man’s house.

<sup>13</sup>And he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, ‘Send some men to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here;

<sup>14</sup>and he will speak words to you by which you will be saved, you and all your household.’

<sup>15</sup>And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as He did upon us at the beginning.

<sup>16</sup>And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, if God gave them the same gift as He also gave to us after believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way?"

<sup>18</sup>When they heard this, they quieted down and glorified God, saying, "Well then, God has also granted to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life."

The Church in Antioch

<sup>19</sup>So then those who were scattered because of the persecution that occurred in connection with Stephen made their way to Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews alone.

<sup>20</sup>But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks as well, preaching the good news of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a large number who believed turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>The news about them reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas off to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup>Then when he arrived and witnessed the grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with resolute heart to remain true to the Lord;

<sup>26</sup>and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And for an entire year they met with the church and taught considerable numbers of people; and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

<sup>28</sup>One of them, named Agabus, stood up and indicated by the Spirit that there would definitely be a severe famine all over the world. And this took place in the reign of Claudius.

<sup>29</sup>And to the extent that any of the disciples had means, each of them determined to send a contribution for the relief of the brothers and sisters living in Judea.

<sup>30</sup>And they did this, sending it with Barnabas and Saul to the elders.

The Acts 12

Peter's Arrest and Deliverance

<sup>1</sup>Now about that time Herod the king laid hands on some who belonged to the church, to do them harm.

<sup>3</sup>When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter as well. (Now these were the days of Unleavened Bread.)

<sup>4</sup>When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, turning him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending only after the Passover to bring him before the people.

<sup>5</sup>So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer for him was being made to God intensely by the church.

<sup>6</sup>On the very night when Herod was about to bring him forward, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards in front of the door were watching over the prison.

<sup>7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord suddenly stood near Peter, and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter's side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And his chains fell off his hands.

<sup>8</sup>And the angel said to him, "Put on your belt and strap on your sandals." And he did so. And he *said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

<sup>9</sup>And he went out and continued to follow, and yet he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

<sup>10</sup>Now when they had passed the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened for them by itself; and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup>When Peter came to himself, he said, “Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent forth His angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.”

<sup>12</sup>And when he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who was also called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying.

<sup>13</sup>When he knocked at the door of the gate, a slave woman named Rhoda came to answer.

<sup>14</sup>When she recognized Peter’s voice, because of her joy she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

<sup>15</sup>They said to her, “You are out of your mind!” But she kept insisting that it was so. They said, “It is his angel.”

<sup>16</sup>But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door, they saw him and were amazed.

<sup>17</sup>But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, “Report these things to James and the brothers.” Then he left and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup>Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers as to what could have become of Peter.

<sup>19</sup>When Herod had searched for him and had not found him, he examined the guards and ordered that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and was spending time there.

Death of Herod

<sup>20</sup>Now he was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; and with one mind they came to him, and having won over Blastus the king's chamberlain, they were asking for peace, because their country was supported with grain from the king's country.

<sup>21</sup>On an appointed day, after putting on his royal apparel, Herod took his seat on the rostrum and began delivering an address to them.

<sup>23</sup>And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>25</sup>And Barnabas and Saul returned when they had fulfilled their mission to Jerusalem, taking along with them John, who was also called Mark.

The Acts 13

First Missionary Journey

<sup>1</sup>Now there were prophets and teachers at Antioch, in the church that was there: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

<sup>2</sup>While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for Me for the work to which I have called them."

<sup>4</sup>So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

<sup>5</sup>When they reached Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews; and they also had John as their helper.

<sup>6</sup>When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a magician, a Jewish false prophet whose name was Bar-Jesus, <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.

<sup>8</sup>But Elymas the magician (for so his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

<sup>9</sup>But Saul, who was also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, stared at him, <sup>10</sup>and said, “You who are full of all deceit and fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop making crooked the straight ways of the Lord?

<sup>11</sup>Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind and not see the sun for a time.” And immediately a mist and a darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking those who would lead him by the hand.

<sup>12</sup>Then the proconsul believed when he saw what had happened, being amazed at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Now Paul and his companions put out to sea from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia; but John left them and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>But going on from Perga, they arrived at Pisidian Antioch, and on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

<sup>15</sup>After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue officials sent word to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it.”

<sup>16</sup>Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen:

<sup>17</sup>The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He led them out from it.

<sup>18</sup>For a period of about forty years He put up with them in the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup>When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He distributed their land as an inheritance—all of which took about 450 years.

<sup>21</sup>Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

<sup>22</sup>After He had removed him, He raised up David to be their king, concerning whom He also testified and said, ‘I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do all My will.’

<sup>23</sup>From the descendants of this man, according to promise, God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, <sup>24</sup>after John had proclaimed, before His coming, a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>And while John was completing his course, he kept saying, ‘What do you suppose that I am? I am not He. But behold, One is coming after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’

<sup>26</sup>“Brothers, sons of Abraham’s family, and those among you who fear God, to us the message of this salvation has been sent.

<sup>27</sup>For those who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, recognizing neither Him nor the declarations of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled these by condemning Him.

<sup>28</sup>And though they found no grounds for putting Him to death, they asked Pilate that He be executed.

<sup>29</sup>When they had carried out everything that was written concerning Him, they took Him down from the cross and laid Him in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>But God raised Him from the dead;

<sup>31</sup>and for many days He appeared to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, the very ones who are now His witnesses to the people.

<sup>32</sup>And we preach to you the good news of the promise made to the fathers,

<sup>33</sup>that God has fulfilled this promise to those of us who are the descendants by raising Jesus, as it is also written in the second Psalm: ‘YOU ARE MY SON; TODAY I HAVE FATHERED YOU.’

<sup>34</sup>As for the fact that He raised Him from the dead, never again to return to decay, He has spoken in this way: ‘I WILL GIVE YOU THE HOLY AND FAITHFUL MERCIES OF DAVID.’

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, He also says in another Psalm: ‘YOU WILL NOT ALLOW YOUR HOLY ONE TO UNDERGO DECAY.’

<sup>37</sup>but He whom God raised did not undergo decay.

<sup>38</sup>Therefore let it be known to you, brothers, that through Him forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

<sup>39</sup>and through Him everyone who believes is freed from all things, from which you could not be freed through the Law of Moses.

<sup>40</sup>Therefore, see that the thing spoken of in the Prophets does not come upon you:

<sup>41</sup>‘LOOK, YOU SCOFFERS, AND BE ASTONISHED, AND PERISH; FOR I AM ACCOMPLISHING A WORK IN YOUR DAYS, A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE, THOUGH SOMEONE SHOULD DESCRIBE IT TO YOU.’ ”

<sup>42</sup>As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people repeatedly begged to have these things spoken to them the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup>Now when the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and the God-fearing proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking to them and urging them to continue in the grace of God.

Paul Turns to the Gentiles

<sup>44</sup>The next Sabbath nearly all the city assembled to hear the word of the Lord.

<sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting the things spoken by Paul, and were blaspheming.

<sup>46</sup>Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, “It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first. Since you repudiate it and consider yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles.

<sup>47</sup>For so the Lord has commanded us, ‘I HAVE APPOINTED YOU AS A LIGHT TO THE GENTILES, THAT YOU MAY BRING SALVATION TO THE END OF THE EARTH.’ ”

<sup>48</sup>When the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord; and all who had been appointed to eternal life believed.

<sup>49</sup>And the word of the Lord was being spread through the whole region.

The Acts 14

Acceptance and Opposition

<sup>1</sup>In Iconium they entered the synagogue of the Jews together, and spoke in such a way that a large number of people believed, both of Jews and of Greeks.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore they spent a long time there speaking boldly with reliance upon the Lord, who was testifying to the word of His grace, granting that signs and wonders be performed by their hands.

<sup>4</sup>But the people of the city were divided; and some sided with the Jews, while others, with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup>And when an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and the Jews with their rulers, to treat them abusively and to stone them,

<sup>8</sup>In Lystra a man was sitting whose feet were incapacitated. He had been disabled from his mother's womb, and had never walked.

<sup>9</sup>This man was listening to Paul as he spoke. Paul looked at him intently and saw that he had faith to be made well, <sup>10</sup>and he said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" And the man leaped up and began to walk.

<sup>11</sup>When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have become like men and have come down to us!"

<sup>12</sup>And they began calling Barnabas, Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, since he was the chief speaker.

<sup>13</sup>Moreover, the priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and wanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds.

<sup>14</sup>But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about it, they tore their robes and rushed out into the crowd, crying out

<sup>15</sup>and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We are also men, of the same nature as you, preaching the gospel to you, to turn from these useless things to a living God, who MADE THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH AND THE SEA, AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN THEM.

<sup>17</sup>yet He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good and gave you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness.”

<sup>18</sup>And even by saying these things, only with difficulty did they restrain the crowds from offering sacrifices to them.

<sup>19</sup>But Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and having won over the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking that he was dead.

<sup>20</sup>But while the disciples stood around him, he got up and entered the city. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

<sup>21</sup>And after they had preached the gospel to that city and had made a good number of disciples, they returned to Lystra, to Iconium, and to Antioch,

<sup>22</sup>strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying, “It is through many tribulations that we must enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>23</sup>When they had appointed elders for them in every church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

<sup>26</sup>From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work that they had accomplished.

<sup>27</sup>When they had arrived and gathered the church together, they began to report all the things that God had done with them and how He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

<sup>28</sup>And they spent a long time with the disciples.

The Acts 15

The Council in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Some men came down from Judea and began teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

<sup>2</sup>And after Paul and Barnabas had a heated argument and debate with them, the brothers determined that Paul and Barnabas and some others of them should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders concerning this issue.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, after being sent on their way by the church, they were passing through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they were bringing great joy to all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>4</sup>When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were received by the church, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them.

<sup>5</sup>But some of the sect of the Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to direct them to keep the Law of Moses.”

<sup>7</sup>After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of the gospel and believe.

<sup>8</sup>And God, who knows the heart, testified to them giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us;

<sup>9</sup>and He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.

<sup>10</sup>Since this is the case, why are you putting God to the test by placing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke which neither our forefathers nor we have been able to bear?

<sup>11</sup>But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they also are.”

<sup>12</sup>All the people kept silent, and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were relating all the signs and wonders that God had done through them among the Gentiles.

James' Judgment

<sup>14</sup>Simeon has described how God first concerned Himself about taking a people for His name from among the Gentiles.

<sup>15</sup>The words of the Prophets agree with this, just as it is written:

<sup>16</sup>‘AFTER THESE THINGS I will return, AND I WILL REBUILD THE FALLEN TABERNACLE OF DAVID, AND I WILL REBUILD ITS RUINS, AND I WILL RESTORE IT,

<sup>17</sup>SO THAT THE REST OF MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD, AND ALL THE GENTILES WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME,’

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, it is my judgment that we do not cause trouble for those from the Gentiles who are turning to God, <sup>20</sup>but that we write to them that they abstain from things contaminated by idols, from acts of sexual immorality, from what has been strangled, and from blood.

<sup>21</sup>For from ancient generations Moses has those who preach him in every city, since he is read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

<sup>22</sup>Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas who was called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers, <sup>23</sup>and they sent this letter with them: “The apostles and the brothers who are elders, to the brothers and sisters in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia who are from the Gentiles: Greetings.

<sup>24</sup>Since we have heard that some of our number to whom we gave no instruction have confused you by their teaching, upsetting your souls,

<sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

<sup>26</sup>men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, we have sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will also report the same things by word of mouth.

<sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden than these essentials:

<sup>30</sup>So when they were sent away, they went down to Antioch; and after gathering the congregation together, they delivered the letter.

<sup>31</sup>When they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement.

<sup>32</sup>Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brothers and sisters with a lengthy message.

<sup>33</sup>After they had spent time there, they were sent away from the brothers and sisters in peace to those who had sent them out.

<sup>35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Second Missionary Journey

<sup>36</sup>After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return and visit the brothers and sisters in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are.”

<sup>37</sup>Barnabas wanted to take John, called Mark, along with them also.

<sup>38</sup>But Paul was of the opinion that they should not take along with them this man who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work.

The Acts 16

The Macedonian Vision

<sup>1</sup>Now Paul also came to Derbe and to Lystra. And a disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer, but his father was a Greek,

<sup>2</sup>and he was well spoken of by the brothers and sisters who were in Lystra and Iconium.

<sup>3</sup>Paul wanted this man to leave with him; and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup>Now while they were passing through the cities, they were delivering the ordinances for them to follow which had been determined by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>So the churches were being strengthened in the faith, and were increasing in number daily.

<sup>6</sup>They passed through the Phrygian and Galatian region, after being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia;

<sup>7</sup>and after they came to Mysia, they were trying to go into Bithynia, and the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them;

<sup>8</sup>and passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas.

<sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

<sup>10</sup>When he had seen the vision, we immediately sought to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup>So after setting sail from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and on the following day to Neapolis;

<sup>12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a Roman colony; and we were spending some days in this city.

<sup>13</sup>And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to a riverside, where we were thinking that there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had assembled.

First Convert in Europe

<sup>14</sup>A woman named Lydia was listening; she was a seller of purple fabrics from the city of Thyatira, and a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to the things spoken by Paul.

<sup>15</sup>Now when she and her household had been baptized, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay.” And she prevailed upon us.

<sup>16</sup>It happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a slave woman who had a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing great profit to her masters by fortune-telling.

<sup>17</sup>She followed Paul and us and cried out repeatedly, saying, “These men are bond-servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you a way of salvation.”

<sup>18</sup>Now she continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and he turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” And it came out at that very moment.

<sup>19</sup>But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was suddenly gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities,

<sup>20</sup>and when they had brought them to the chief magistrates, they said, “These men, Jews as they are, are causing our city trouble, <sup>21</sup>and they are proclaiming customs that are not lawful for us to accept or to practice, since we are Romans.”

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

<sup>22</sup>The crowd joined in an attack against them, and the chief magistrates tore their robes off them and proceeded to order them to be beaten with rods.

<sup>23</sup>When they had struck them with many blows, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely;

<sup>24</sup>and he, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup>Now about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

<sup>26</sup>and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were unfastened.

<sup>27</sup>When the jailer awoke and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking that the prisoners had escaped.

<sup>28</sup>But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!"

<sup>29</sup>And the jailer asked for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas;

<sup>30</sup>and after he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

The Jailer Converted

<sup>31</sup>They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."

<sup>32</sup>And they spoke the word of God to him together with all who were in his house.

<sup>33</sup>And he took them that very hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

<sup>34</sup>And he brought them into his house and set food before them, and was overjoyed, since he had become a believer in God together with his whole household.

<sup>35</sup>Now when day came, the chief magistrates sent their officers, saying, "Release those men."

<sup>36</sup>And the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief magistrates have sent word that you be released. So come out now and go in peace."

<sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, "After beating us in public without due process—men who are Romans—they threw us into prison; and now they are releasing us secretly? No indeed! On the contrary, let them come in person and lead us out.”

<sup>38</sup>The officers reported these words to the chief magistrates. And they became fearful when they heard that they were Romans, <sup>39</sup>and they came and pleaded with them, and when they had led them out, they repeatedly asked them to leave the city.

<sup>40</sup>They left the prison and entered the house of Lydia, and when they saw the brothers and sisters, they encouraged them and departed.

The Acts 17

Paul in Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup>Now when they had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

<sup>2</sup>And according to Paul’s custom, he visited them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures,

<sup>3</sup>explaining and giving evidence that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Christ.”

<sup>4</sup>And some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and a significant number of the leading women.

<sup>5</sup>But the Jews, becoming jealous and taking along some wicked men from the marketplace, formed a mob and set the city in an uproar; and they attacked the house of Jason and were seeking to bring them out to the people.

<sup>6</sup>When they did not find them, they began dragging Jason and some brothers before the city authorities, shouting, “These men who have upset the world have come here also;

<sup>7</sup>and Jason has welcomed them, and they all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus.”

<sup>8</sup>They stirred up the crowd and the city authorities who heard these things.

<sup>9</sup>And when they had received a pledge from Jason and the others, they released them.

Paul in Berea

<sup>10</sup>The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea, and when they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.

<sup>11</sup>Now these people were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, many of them believed, along with a significant number of prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup>But when the Jews of Thessalonica found out that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea also, they came there as well, agitating and stirring up the crowds.

<sup>14</sup>Then immediately the brothers sent Paul out to go as far as the sea; and Silas and Timothy remained there.

<sup>15</sup>Now those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens; and receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

Paul in Athens

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he observed that the city was full of idols.

<sup>17</sup>So he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be present.

<sup>18</sup>And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers as well were conversing with him. Some were saying, “What could this scavenger of tidbits want to say?” Others, “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange deities,”—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup>And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is which you are proclaiming?”

<sup>20</sup>For you are bringing some strange things to our ears; so we want to know what these things mean.”

<sup>21</sup>(Now all the Athenians and the strangers visiting there used to spend their time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)

Sermon on Mars Hill

<sup>22</sup>So Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, “Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in all respects.

<sup>23</sup>For while I was passing through and examining the objects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription, ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ Therefore, what you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you.

<sup>24</sup>The God who made the world and everything that is in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made by hands;

<sup>25</sup>nor is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things;

<sup>26</sup>and He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation,

<sup>27</sup>that they would seek God, if perhaps they might feel around for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;

<sup>28</sup>for in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we also are His descendants.’

<sup>29</sup>Therefore, since we are the descendants of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by human skill and thought.

<sup>30</sup>So having overlooked the times of ignorance, God is now proclaiming to mankind that all people everywhere are to repent,

<sup>31</sup>because He has set a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has appointed, having furnished proof to all people by raising Him from the dead.”

<sup>32</sup>Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some began to scoff, but others said, “We shall hear from you again concerning this.”

<sup>34</sup>But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

The Acts 18

Paul in Corinth

<sup>2</sup>And he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. He came to them, <sup>3</sup>and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them, and they worked together, for they were tent-makers by trade.

<sup>4</sup>And Paul was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath and trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

<sup>5</sup>But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul began devoting himself completely to the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.

<sup>6</sup>But when they resisted and blasphemed, he shook out his garments and said to them, “Your blood is on your own heads! I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.”

<sup>7</sup>Then he left the synagogue and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

<sup>8</sup>Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with his entire household; and many of the Corinthians, as they listened to Paul, were believing and being baptized.

<sup>9</sup>And the Lord said to Paul by a vision at night, “Do not be afraid any longer, but go on speaking and do not be silent;

<sup>10</sup>for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city.”

<sup>11</sup>And he settled there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup>But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,

<sup>13</sup>saying, “This man is inciting the people to worship God contrary to the law.”

<sup>14</sup>But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of some crime or vicious, unscrupulous act, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you;

<sup>15</sup>but if there are questions about teaching and persons and your own law, see to it yourselves; I am unwilling to be a judge of these matters.”

<sup>17</sup>But they all took hold of Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. And yet Gallio was not concerned about any of these things.

<sup>18</sup>Now Paul, when he had remained many days longer, took leave of the brothers and sisters and sailed away to Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. Paul first had his hair cut at Cenchrea, for he was keeping a vow.

<sup>19</sup>They came to Ephesus, and he left them there. Now he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

<sup>20</sup>When they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent,

<sup>21</sup>but took leave of them and said, “I will return to you again if God wills,” and he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>When he had landed in Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church, and went down to Antioch.

Third Missionary Journey

<sup>23</sup>And after spending some time there, he left and passed successively through the Galatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup>Now a Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus; and he was proficient in the Scriptures.

<sup>25</sup>This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was accurately speaking and teaching things about Jesus, being acquainted only with the baptism of John;

<sup>26</sup>and he began speaking boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God more accurately to him.

<sup>27</sup>And when he wanted to go across to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace, <sup>28</sup>for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

The Acts 19

Paul in Ephesus

<sup>1</sup>Now it happened that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus, and found some disciples.

<sup>2</sup>He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” And they said to him, “On the contrary, we have not even heard if there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>And he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” And they said, “Into John’s baptism.”

<sup>5</sup>When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup>And when Paul had laid hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they began speaking with tongues and prophesying.

<sup>7</sup>There were about twelve men in all.

<sup>8</sup>And he entered the synagogue and continued speaking out boldly for three months, having discussions and persuading them about the kingdom of God.

<sup>9</sup>But when some were becoming hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the people, he withdrew from them and took the disciples away with him, and had discussions daily in the school of Tyrannus.

<sup>10</sup>This took place for two years, so that all who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

Miracles at Ephesus

<sup>12</sup>so that handkerchiefs or aprons were even carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out.

<sup>13</sup>But also some of the Jewish exorcists, who went from place to place, attempted to use the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had the evil spirits, saying, “I order you in the name of Jesus whom Paul preaches!”

<sup>14</sup>Now there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, doing this.

<sup>15</sup>But the evil spirit responded and said to them, “I recognize Jesus, and I know of Paul, but who are you?”

<sup>16</sup>And the man in whom was the evil spirit, pounced on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup>This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks; and fear fell upon them all and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified.

<sup>18</sup>Also many of those who had believed kept coming, confessing and disclosing their practices.

<sup>20</sup>So the word of the Lord was growing and prevailing mightily.

<sup>21</sup>Now after these things were finished, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem after he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

<sup>23</sup>About that time a major disturbance occurred in regard to the Way.

<sup>24</sup>For a man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, was bringing considerable business to the craftsmen;

<sup>25</sup>he gathered these men together with the workmen of similar trades, and said, “Men, you know that our prosperity depends upon this business.

<sup>26</sup>You see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in almost all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away a considerable number of people, saying that gods made by hands are not gods at all.

<sup>27</sup>Not only is there danger that this trade of ours will fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be regarded as worthless, and that she whom all of Asia and the world worship will even be dethroned from her magnificence.”

<sup>28</sup>When they heard this and were filled with rage, they began shouting, saying, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>30</sup>And when Paul wanted to go into the assembly, the disciples would not let him.

<sup>31</sup>Also some of the Asiarchs who were friends of his sent word to him and repeatedly urged him not to venture into the theater.

<sup>32</sup>So then, some were shouting one thing and some another, for the assembly was in confusion and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together.

<sup>33</sup>Some of the crowd concluded it was Alexander, since the Jews had put him forward; and having motioned with his hand, Alexander was intending to make a defense to the assembly.

<sup>34</sup>But when they recognized that he was a Jew, a single outcry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup>After quieting the crowd, the town clerk *said, “Men of Ephesus, what person is there after all who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of the image which fell down from the sky?

<sup>36</sup>So, since these are undeniable facts, you ought to keep calm and to do nothing rash.

<sup>37</sup>For you have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

<sup>38</sup>So then, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are in session and proconsuls are available; have them bring charges against one another.

<sup>39</sup>But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful assembly.

<sup>40</sup>For indeed, we are in danger of being accused of a riot in connection with today's events, since there is no real reason for it, and in this connection we will be unable to account for this disorderly gathering."

The Acts 20

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

<sup>2</sup>When he had gone through those regions and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece.

<sup>3</sup>And there he spent three months, and when a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup>And he was accompanied by Sopater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus, and by Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.

<sup>5</sup>Now these had gone on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas.

<sup>6</sup>We sailed from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and reached them at Troas within five days; and we stayed there for seven days.

<sup>7</sup>On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul began talking to them, intending to leave the next day, and he prolonged his message until midnight.

<sup>8</sup>There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were gathered together.

<sup>9</sup>And there was a young man named Eutychus sitting on the window sill, sinking into a deep sleep; and as Paul kept on talking, Eutychus was overcome by sleep and fell down from the third floor, and was picked up dead.

<sup>10</sup>But Paul went down and fell upon him, and after embracing him, he said, “Do not be troubled, for he is still alive.”

<sup>11</sup>When Paul had gone back up and had broken the bread and eaten, he talked with them a long while until daybreak, and then left.

<sup>12</sup>They took away the boy alive, and were greatly comforted.

Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup>But we went ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending from there to take Paul on board; for that was what he had arranged, intending himself to go by land.

<sup>14</sup>And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

<sup>15</sup>Sailing from there, we arrived the following day opposite Chios; and the next day we crossed over to Samos, and on the following day we came to Miletus.

<sup>16</sup>For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he would not have to lose time in Asia; for he was hurrying, if it might be possible for him to be in Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

Farewell to Ephesus

<sup>17</sup>From Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and called to himself the elders of the church.

<sup>18</sup>And when they came to him, he said to them, “You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time,
<sup>19</sup>serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and trials which came upon me through the plots of the Jews;
<sup>20</sup>how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was beneficial, and teaching you publicly and from house to house,
<sup>21</sup>solemnly testifying to both Jews and Greeks of repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.
<sup>22</sup>And now, behold, bound by the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there,
<sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit solemnly testifies to me in every city, saying that chains and afflictions await me.
<sup>24</sup>But I do not consider my life of any account as dear to myself, so that I may finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify solemnly of the gospel of God’s grace.
<sup>25</sup>“And now behold, I know that all of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will no longer see my face.
<sup>26</sup>Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all people.
<sup>27</sup>For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.
<sup>28</sup>Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood.
<sup>29</sup>I know that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock;
<sup>30</sup>and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things to draw away the disciples after them.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish each one with tears.

<sup>32</sup>And now I entrust you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

<sup>34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands served my own needs and the men who were with me.

<sup>35</sup>In everything I showed you that by working hard in this way you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

<sup>36</sup>When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

<sup>37</sup>And they all began to weep aloud and embraced Paul, and repeatedly kissed him, <sup>38</sup>grieving especially over the word which he had spoken, that they would not see his face again. And they were accompanying him to the ship.

The Acts 21

Paul Sails from Miletus

<sup>1</sup>Now when we had parted from them and had set sail, we ran a straight course to Cos, and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara;

<sup>2</sup>and having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

<sup>3</sup>When we came in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left, we kept sailing to Syria and landed at Tyre; for the ship was to unload its cargo there.

<sup>4</sup>After looking up the disciples, we stayed there for seven days; and they kept telling Paul, through the Spirit, not to set foot in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>When our days there were ended, we left and started on our journey, while they all, with wives and children, escorted us until we were out of the city. After kneeling down on the beach and praying, we said farewell to one another.

<sup>6</sup>Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

<sup>7</sup>When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and after greeting the brothers and sisters, we stayed with them for a day.

<sup>8</sup>On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

<sup>10</sup>As we were staying there for some days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

<sup>11</sup>And he came to us and took Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.' "

<sup>12</sup>When we had heard this, we as well as the local residents began begging him not to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Then Paul replied, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>14</sup>And since he would not be persuaded, we became quiet, remarking, "The will of the Lord be done!"

Paul in Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup>After these days we got ready and started on our way up to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup>Some of the disciples from Caesarea also came with us, taking us to Mnason of Cyprus, a disciple of long standing with whom we were to stay.

<sup>17</sup>After we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters received us gladly.

<sup>18</sup>And the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present.

<sup>19</sup>After he had greeted them, he began to relate one by one the things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup>And when they heard about them, they began glorifying God; and they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law;

<sup>21</sup>and they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to abandon Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.

<sup>22</sup>So what is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore, do as we tell you: we have four men who have a vow upon themselves;

<sup>24</sup>take them along and purify yourself together with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads; and then everyone will know that there is nothing to what they have been told about you, but that you yourself also conform, keeping the Law.

<sup>25</sup>But regarding the Gentiles who have believed, we sent a letter, having decided that they should abstain from meat sacrificed to idols and from blood and what is strangled, and from sexual immorality.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Paul took along the men, and the next day, after purifying himself together with them, he went into the temple giving notice of the completion of the days of purification, until the sacrifice was offered for each one of them.

Paul Seized in the Temple

<sup>27</sup>When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from Asia, upon seeing him in the temple, began to stir up all the crowd and laid hands on him,

<sup>28</sup>crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who instructs everyone everywhere against our people and the Law and this place; and besides, he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place!”

<sup>29</sup>For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they thought that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>30</sup>Then the whole city was provoked and the people rushed together, and taking hold of Paul they dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut.

<sup>31</sup>While they were intent on killing him, a report came up to the commander of the Roman cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

<sup>32</sup>He immediately took along some soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd; and when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup>Then the commander came up and took hold of him, and ordered that he be bound with two chains; and he began asking who he was and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup>But among the crowd, some were shouting one thing and some another, and when he could not find out the facts because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks.

<sup>35</sup>When Paul got to the stairs, it came about that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob;

<sup>37</sup>As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he *said to the commander, “May I say something to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek?”

<sup>38</sup>Then you are not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?”

<sup>39</sup>But Paul said, “I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.”

<sup>40</sup>When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, motioned to the people with his hand; and when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

The Acts 22

Paul’s Defense before the Jews

<sup>2</sup>And when they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet; and he *said,

<sup>3</sup>“I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated under Gamaliel, strictly according to the Law of our fathers, being zealous for God just as you all are today.

<sup>4</sup>I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and putting both men and women into prisons,

<sup>5</sup>as also the high priest and all the Council of the elders can testify. From them I also received letters to the brothers, and started off for Damascus in order to bring even those who were there to Jerusalem as prisoners to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>“But it happened that as I was on my way, approaching Damascus at about noon, a very bright light suddenly flashed from heaven all around me,

<sup>7</sup>and I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?’

<sup>8</sup>And I answered, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.’

<sup>9</sup>And those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me.

<sup>10</sup>And I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up and go on into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that has been appointed for you to do.’

<sup>11</sup>But since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I came into Damascus being led by the hand by those who were with me.

<sup>12</sup>“Now a certain Ananias, a man who was devout by the standard of the Law and well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there,

<sup>13</sup>came to me, and standing nearby he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I looked up at him.

<sup>14</sup>And he said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear a message from His mouth.

<sup>15</sup>For you will be a witness for Him to all people of what you have seen and heard.

<sup>16</sup>Now why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins by calling on His name.’

<sup>17</sup>“It happened when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I fell into a trance,

<sup>18</sup>and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.’

<sup>19</sup>And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves understand that in one synagogue after another I used to imprison and beat those who believed in You.

<sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I also was standing nearby and approving, and watching over the cloaks of those who were killing him.’

<sup>21</sup>And He said to me, ‘Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’ ”

<sup>22</sup>They listened to him up to this statement, and then they raised their voices and said, “Away with such a man from the earth, for he should not be allowed to live!”

<sup>23</sup>And as they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and tossing dust into the air,

<sup>24</sup>the commander ordered that he be brought into the barracks, saying that he was to be interrogated by flogging so that he would find out the reason why they were shouting against him that way.

<sup>25</sup>But when they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, “Is it lawful for you to flog a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?”

<sup>26</sup>When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and told him, saying, “What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman.”

<sup>27</sup>The commander came and said to Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”

<sup>28</sup>The commander answered, “I acquired this citizenship for a large sum of money.” And Paul said, “But I was actually born a citizen.”

<sup>29</sup>Therefore, those who were about to interrogate him immediately backed away from him; and the commander also was afraid when he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had put him in chains.

<sup>30</sup>Now on the next day, wanting to know for certain why Paul had been accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Council to assemble, and he brought Paul down and placed him before them.

The Acts 23

Paul before the Council

<sup>1</sup>Now looking intently at the Council, Paul said, “Brothers, I have lived my life with an entirely good conscience before God up to this day.”

<sup>2</sup>But the high priest Ananias commanded those standing beside him to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law, order me to be struck?”

<sup>4</sup>But those present said, “Are you insulting God’s high priest?”

<sup>5</sup>And Paul said, “I was not aware, brothers, that he is high priest; for it is written: ‘YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.’ ”

<sup>6</sup>But Paul, perceiving that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, began crying out in the Council, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!”

<sup>7</sup>When he said this, a dissension occurred between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

<sup>8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

<sup>9</sup>And a great uproar occurred; and some of the scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and started arguing heatedly, saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man; suppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”

<sup>10</sup>And when a great dissension occurred, the commander was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, and he ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force, and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup>But on the following night, the Lord stood near him and said, “Be courageous! For as you have testified to the truth about Me in Jerusalem, so you must testify in Rome also.”

A Conspiracy to Kill Paul

<sup>12</sup>When it was day, the Jews formed a conspiracy and put themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

<sup>13</sup>There were more than forty who formed this plot.

<sup>14</sup>They came to the chief priests and the elders and said, “We have put ourselves under an oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

<sup>15</sup>Now therefore, you and the Council notify the commander to bring him down to you, as though you were going to investigate his case more thoroughly; and as for us, we are ready to kill him before he comes near the place.”

<sup>16</sup>But the son of Paul’s sister heard about their ambush, and he came and entered the barracks and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup>Paul called one of the centurions to himself and said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him.”

<sup>18</sup>So he took him and led him to the commander and *said, “Paul the prisoner called me over to him and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup>The commander took him by the hand, and stepping aside, began to inquire of him privately, “What is it that you have to report to me?”

<sup>20</sup>And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to the Council, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more thoroughly about him.

<sup>21</sup>So do not listen to them, for more than forty of them are in hiding to ambush him, and these men have put themselves under an oath not to eat or drink until they kill him; and now they are ready and waiting for assurance from you.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the commander let the young man go, instructing him, “Tell no one that you have notified me of these things.”

Paul Moved to Caesarea

<sup>23</sup>And he called to him two of the centurions and said, “Get two hundred soldiers ready by the third hour of the night to proceed to Caesarea, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen.”

<sup>24</sup>They were also to provide mounts to put Paul on and bring him safely to Felix the governor.

<sup>27</sup>When this man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, I came up to them with the troops and rescued him, after learning that he was a Roman.

<sup>28</sup>And wanting to ascertain the basis for the charges they were bringing against him, I brought him down to their Council;

<sup>29</sup>and I found that he was being accused regarding questions in their Law, but was not charged with anything deserving death or imprisonment.

<sup>30</sup>When I was informed that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, also instructing his accusers to bring charges against him before you.”

<sup>31</sup>So the soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

<sup>32</sup>But on the next day they let the horsemen go on with him, and they returned to the barracks.

<sup>33</sup>When these horsemen had come to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.

<sup>34</sup>Now when he had read it, he also asked from what province Paul was, and when he learned that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, “I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive as well,” giving orders for Paul to be kept in Herod’s Praetorium.

The Acts 24

Paul before Felix

<sup>1</sup>Now after five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney named Tertullus, and they brought charges against Paul to the governor.

<sup>2</sup>After Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began accusing him, saying to the governor, “Since we have attained great peace through you, and since reforms are being carried out for this nation by your foresight, <sup>3</sup>we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.

<sup>4</sup>But, that I may not weary you further, I beg you to grant us a brief hearing, by your kindness.

<sup>5</sup>For we have found this man a public menace and one who stirs up dissensions among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

<sup>6</sup>And he even tried to desecrate the temple, so indeed we arrested him.

<sup>8</sup>By interrogating him yourself concerning all these matters, you will be able to ascertain the things of which we are accusing him.”

<sup>9</sup>The Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.

<sup>10</sup>And when the governor had nodded for him to speak, Paul responded: “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I cheerfully make my defense,

<sup>11</sup>since you can take note of the fact that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

<sup>12</sup>And neither in the temple did they find me carrying on a discussion with anyone or causing a riot, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city itself.

<sup>13</sup>Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me.

<sup>14</sup>But I confess this to you, that in accordance with the Way, which they call a sect, I do serve the God of our fathers, believing everything that is in accordance with the Law and is written in the Prophets;

<sup>15</sup>having a hope in God, which these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

<sup>16</sup>In view of this I also do my best to maintain a blameless conscience both before God and before other people, always.

<sup>17</sup>Now after several years I came to bring charitable gifts to my nation and to present offerings,

<sup>18</sup>in which they found me occupied in the temple, having been purified, without any crowd or uproar. But there were some Jews from Asia—

<sup>19</sup>who ought to have been present before you and to have been bringing charges, if they should have anything against me.

<sup>20</sup>Or else have these men themselves declare what violation they discovered when I stood before the Council,

<sup>21</sup>other than in regard to this one declaration which I shouted while standing among them, ‘For the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today!’ ”

<sup>22</sup>But Felix, having quite accurate knowledge about the Way, adjourned them, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case.”

<sup>23</sup>He gave orders to the centurion for Paul to be kept in custody and yet have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from providing for his needs.

<sup>24</sup>Now some days later Felix arrived with Drusilla his wife, who was Jewish, and he sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>But as he was discussing righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and responded, “Go away for now, and when I have an opportunity, I will summon you.”

<sup>26</sup>At the same time he was also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul; therefore he also used to send for him quite often and talk with him.

<sup>27</sup>But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and Felix, wanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul imprisoned.

The Acts 25

Paul before Festus

<sup>1</sup>Festus, then, after arriving in the province, went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea three days later.

<sup>2</sup>And the chief priests and the leading men of the Jews brought charges against Paul, and they were pleading with Festus, <sup>3</sup>requesting a concession against Paul, that he might have him brought to Jerusalem (at the same time, setting an ambush to kill him on the way).

<sup>4</sup>Festus then answered that Paul was being kept in custody in Caesarea, and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

<sup>5</sup>“Therefore,” he *said, “have the influential men among you go there with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, have them bring charges against him.”

<sup>6</sup>After Festus had spent no more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered that Paul be brought.

<sup>7</sup>After Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many, and serious, charges against him which they could not prove,

<sup>8</sup>while Paul said in his own defense, “I have not done anything wrong either against the Law of the Jews, or against the temple, or against Caesar.”

<sup>9</sup>But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, replied to Paul and said, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me on these charges?”

<sup>10</sup>But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.

<sup>11</sup>If, therefore, I am in the wrong and have committed something deserving death, I am not trying to avoid execution; but if there is nothing to the accusations which these men are bringing against me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar.”

<sup>12</sup>Then when Festus had conferred with his council, he answered, “You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go.”

<sup>13</sup>Now when several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea, paying their respects to Festus.

<sup>14</sup>And while they were spending many days there, Festus presented Paul’s case to the king, saying, “There is a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix;

<sup>15</sup>and when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation against him.

<sup>16</sup>I replied to them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any person before the accused meets his accusers face to face, and has an opportunity to make his defense against the charges.

<sup>17</sup>So after they had assembled here, I did not delay, but on the next day took my seat on the tribunal and ordered that the man be brought.

<sup>18</sup>When the accusers stood up, they did not begin bringing any charges against him of crimes that I suspected,

<sup>19</sup>but they simply had some points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive.

<sup>20</sup>And being at a loss how to investigate such matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there on these matters.

<sup>21</sup>But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for the Emperor's decision, I ordered that he be kept in custody until I send him to Caesar."

<sup>22</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he *said, "you shall hear him."

Paul before Agrippa

<sup>23</sup>So, on the next day when Agrippa and Bernice came amid great pomp and entered the auditorium, accompanied by the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought before them.

<sup>24</sup>And Festus *said, "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen present with us, you see this man about whom all the people of the Jews appealed to me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.

<sup>25</sup>But I found that he had committed nothing deserving death; and since he himself appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

<sup>26</sup>Yet, I have nothing definite about him to write to my lord. Therefore, I have brought him before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I may have something to write.

<sup>27</sup>For it seems absurd to me in sending a prisoner, not to indicate the charges against him as well."

The Acts 26

Paul's Defense before Agrippa

<sup>1</sup>Now Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul extended his hand and proceeded to make his defense:

<sup>2</sup>“Regarding all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that I am about to make my defense before you today, <sup>3</sup>especially because you are an expert in all customs and questions among the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup>“So then, all Jews know my way of life since my youth, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation and in Jerusalem,

<sup>5</sup>since they have known about me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I lived as a Pharisee according to the strictest sect of our religion.

<sup>6</sup>And now I am standing trial for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers;

<sup>7</sup>the promise to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God night and day. For this hope, O king, I am being accused by Jews.

<sup>8</sup>Why is it considered incredible among you people if God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup>“So I thought to myself that I had to act in strong opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

<sup>10</sup>And this is just what I did in Jerusalem; not only did I lock up many of the saints in prisons, after receiving authority from the chief priests, but I also cast my vote against them when they were being put to death.

<sup>11</sup>And as I punished them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and since I was extremely enraged at them, I kept pursuing them even to foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup>“While so engaged, as I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, <sup>13</sup>at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who were journeying with me.

<sup>14</sup>And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew dialect, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

<sup>15</sup>And I said, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And the Lord said, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

<sup>16</sup>But get up and stand on your feet; for this purpose I have appeared to you, to appoint you as a servant and a witness not only to the things in which you have seen Me, but also to the things in which I will appear to you,

<sup>17</sup>rescuing you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you,

<sup>18</sup>to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me.’

<sup>19</sup>“For that reason, King Agrippa, I did not prove disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>20</sup>but continually proclaimed to those in Damascus first, and in Jerusalem, and then all the region of Judea, and even to the Gentiles, that they are to repent and turn to God, performing deeds consistent with repentance.

<sup>21</sup>For these reasons some Jews seized me in the temple and tried to murder me.

<sup>22</sup>So, having obtained help from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, stating nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said was going to take place,

<sup>23</sup>as to whether the Christ was to suffer, and whether, as first from the resurrection of the dead, He would proclaim light both to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles.”

<sup>25</sup>But Paul *said, “I am not insane, most excellent Festus; on the contrary, I am speaking out with truthful and rational words.

<sup>26</sup>For the king knows about these matters, and I also speak to him with confidence, since I am persuaded that none of these things escape his notice; for this has not been done in a corner.

<sup>28</sup>Agrippa replied to Paul, “In a short time you are going to persuade me to make a Christian of myself.”

<sup>29</sup>And Paul said, “I would wish to God that even in a short or long time not only you, but also all who hear me this day would become such as I myself am, except for these chains.”

<sup>30</sup>The king stood up and the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them,

<sup>31</sup>and when they had gone out, they began talking to one another, saying, “This man is not doing anything deserving death or imprisonment.”

<sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

The Acts 27

Paul Is Sent to Rome

<sup>1</sup>Now when it was decided that we would sail for Italy, they proceeded to turn Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion of the Augustan cohort, named Julius.

<sup>3</sup>The next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul with consideration and allowed him to go to his friends and receive care.

<sup>4</sup>From there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

<sup>5</sup>When we had sailed through the sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

<sup>6</sup>There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

<sup>7</sup>When we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, since the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone;

<sup>8</sup>and with difficulty sailing past it, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>When considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, since even the fast was already over, Paul started admonishing them,

<sup>10</sup>saying to them, “Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

<sup>11</sup>But the centurion was more persuaded by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was being said by Paul.

<sup>12</sup>The harbor was not suitable for wintering, so the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> When a moderate south wind came up, thinking that they had attained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began sailing along Crete, closer to shore.

Shipwreck

<sup>14</sup>But before very long a violent wind, called Euraquilo, rushed down from the land;

<sup>15</sup>and when the ship was caught in it and could not head up into the wind, we gave up and let ourselves be driven by the wind.

<sup>16</sup>Running under the shelter of a small island called Cauda, we were able to get the ship's boat under control only with difficulty.

<sup>17</sup>After they had hoisted it up, they used supporting cables in undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might run aground on the shallows of Syrtis, they let down the sea anchor and let themselves be driven along in this way.

<sup>18</sup>The next day as we were being violently tossed by the storm, they began to jettison the cargo;

<sup>19</sup>and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

<sup>20</sup>Since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was slowly abandoned.

<sup>21</sup>When many had lost their appetites, Paul then stood among them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice and not have set sail from Crete, and thereby spared yourselves this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup>And yet now I urge you to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

<sup>23</sup>For this very night an angel of the God to whom I belong, whom I also serve, came to me,

<sup>24</sup>saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has graciously granted you all those who are sailing with you.'

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, keep up your courage, men, for I believe God that it will turn out exactly as I have been told.

<sup>27</sup>But when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to suspect that they were approaching some land.

<sup>28</sup>And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

<sup>29</sup>Fearing that we might run aground somewhere on the rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and prayed for daybreak.

<sup>30</sup>But as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had let down the ship’s boat into the sea, on the pretense that they were going to lay out anchors from the bow,

<sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain on the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved.”

<sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship’s boat and let it fall away.

<sup>33</sup>Until the day was about to dawn, Paul kept encouraging them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken in nothing.

<sup>34</sup>Therefore, I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your survival, for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish.”

<sup>35</sup>Having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all, and he broke it and began to eat.

<sup>36</sup>All of them were encouraged and they themselves also took food.

<sup>37</sup>We were 276 people on the ship in all.

<sup>38</sup>When they had eaten enough, they began lightening the ship by throwing the wheat out into the sea.

<sup>39</sup>Now when day came, they could not recognize the land; but they did notice a bay with a beach, and they resolved to run the ship onto it if they could.

<sup>40</sup>And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders; and they hoisted the foresail to the wind and were heading for the beach.

<sup>41</sup>But they struck a reef where two seas met and ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck firmly and remained immovable, while the stern started to break up due to the force of the waves.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim away and escape;

<sup>43</sup>but the centurion, wanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from accomplishing their intention, and commanded that those who could swim were to jump overboard first and get to land, <sup>44</sup>and the rest were to follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And so it happened that they all were brought safely to land.

The Acts 28

Safe at Malta

<sup>1</sup>When they had been brought safely through, then we found out that the island was called Malta.

<sup>2</sup>The natives showed us extraordinary kindness, for they kindled a fire and took us all in because of the rain that had started and because of the cold.

<sup>3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand.

<sup>4</sup>When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live."

<sup>6</sup>Now they were expecting that he was going to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and began to say that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>Now in the neighboring parts of that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us warmly for three days.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened that the father of Publius was lying in bed afflicted with a recurring fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him, and after he prayed, he laid his hands on him and healed him.

<sup>9</sup>After this happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases were coming to him and being cured.

<sup>10</sup>They also showed us many honors, and when we were about to set sail, they supplied us with everything we needed.

Paul Arrives in Rome

<sup>11</sup>After three months we set sail on an Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island, and which had the Twin Brothers for its figurehead.

<sup>12</sup>After we put in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days.

<sup>13</sup>From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium, and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

<sup>14</sup>There we found some brothers and sisters, and were invited to stay with them for seven days; and that is how we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup>And from there the brothers and sisters, when they heard about us, came as far as the Market of Appius and the Three Inns to meet us; and when Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup>When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.

<sup>17</sup>After three days Paul called together those who were the leading men of the Jews, and when they came together, he began saying to them, “Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was handed over to the Romans as a prisoner from Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>And when they had examined me, they were willing to release me because there were no grounds for putting me to death.

<sup>19</sup>But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation against my nation.

<sup>20</sup>For this reason, therefore, I requested to see you and to speak with you, since I am wearing this chain for the sake of the hope of Israel.”

<sup>21</sup>They said to him, “We have neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor has any of the brothers come here and reported or spoken anything bad about you.

<sup>22</sup>But we desire to hear from you what your views are; for regarding this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere.”

<sup>23</sup>When they had set a day for Paul, people came to him at his lodging in large numbers; and he was explaining to them by solemnly testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them concerning Jesus, from both the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening.

<sup>24</sup>Some were being persuaded by the things said by Paul, but others would not believe.

<sup>25</sup>And when they disagreed with one another, they began leaving after Paul said one parting statement: “The Holy Spirit rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers,

<sup>26</sup>saying, ‘GO TO THIS PEOPLE AND SAY, “YOU WILL KEEP ON HEARING, AND WILL NOT UNDERSTAND; AND YOU WILL KEEP ON SEEING, AND WILL NOT PERCEIVE;

<sup>27</sup>FOR THE HEARTS OF THIS PEOPLE HAVE BECOME INSENSITIVE, AND WITH THEIR EARS THEY HARDLY HEAR, AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES; OTHERWISE THEY MIGHT SEE WITH THEIR EYES, AND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS, AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART AND RETURN, AND I WOULD HEAL THEM.” ’

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will also listen.”

<sup>30</sup>Now Paul stayed two full years in his own rented lodging and welcomed all who came to him, <sup>31</sup>preaching the kingdom of God and teaching things about the Lord Jesus Christ with all openness, unhindered.

Romans

Romans 1

The Gospel Exalted

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

<sup>3</sup>concerning His Son, who was born of a descendant of David according to the flesh,

<sup>4</sup>who was declared the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,

<sup>5</sup>through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles in behalf of His name,

<sup>6</sup>among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

<sup>7</sup>to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the world.

<sup>9</sup>For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how unceasingly I make mention of you,

<sup>10</sup>always in my prayers requesting if perhaps now, at last by the will of God, I will succeed in coming to you.

<sup>11</sup>For I long to see you so that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, that you may be established;

<sup>12</sup>that is, that I may be encouraged together with you while among you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup>I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that often I have planned to come to you (and have been prevented so far) so that I may obtain some fruit among you also just as among the rest of the Gentiles.

<sup>14</sup>I am under obligation both to Greeks and to the uncultured, both to the wise and to the foolish.

<sup>15</sup>So, for my part, I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

<sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

<sup>17</sup>For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written: "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS ONE WILL LIVE BY FAITH."

Unbelief and Its Consequences

<sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people who suppress the truth in unrighteousness,

<sup>19</sup>because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.

<sup>20</sup>For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, that is, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, being understood by what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

<sup>21</sup>For even though they knew God, they did not honor Him as God or give thanks, but they became futile in their reasonings, and their senseless hearts were darkened.

<sup>23</sup>and they exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible mankind, of birds, four-footed animals, and crawling creatures.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore God gave them up to vile impurity in the lusts of their hearts, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them.

<sup>25</sup>For they exchanged the truth of God for falsehood, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>For this reason God gave them over to degrading passions; for their women exchanged natural relations for that which is contrary to nature,

<sup>28</sup>And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a depraved mind, to do those things that are not proper,

<sup>30</sup>slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,

<sup>32</sup>and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

Romans 2

The Impartiality of God

<sup>1</sup>Therefore you have no excuse, you foolish person, everyone of you who passes judgment; for in that matter in which you judge someone else, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.

<sup>2</sup>And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things.

<sup>3</sup>But do you suppose this, you foolish person who passes judgment on those who practice such things, and yet does them as well, that you will escape the judgment of God?

<sup>4</sup>Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and restraint and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

<sup>5</sup>But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

<sup>6</sup>who WILL REPAY EACH PERSON ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS:

<sup>7</sup>to those who by perseverance in doing good seek glory, honor, and immortality, He will give eternal life;

<sup>8</sup>but to those who are self-serving and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, He will give wrath and indignation.

<sup>9</sup>There will be tribulation and distress for every soul of mankind who does evil, for the Jew first and also for the Greek,

<sup>10</sup>but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who does what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

<sup>11</sup>For there is no partiality with God.

<sup>12</sup>For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law;

<sup>13</sup>for it is not the hearers of the Law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the Law who will be justified.

<sup>14</sup>For when Gentiles who do not have the Law instinctively perform the requirements of the Law, these, though not having the Law, are a law to themselves,

<sup>15</sup>in that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them,

<sup>16</sup>on the day when, according to my gospel, God will judge the secrets of mankind through Christ Jesus.

The Jews under the Law

<sup>17</sup>But if you call yourself a Jew and rely upon the Law and boast in God,

<sup>18</sup>and know His will and distinguish the things that matter, being instructed from the Law,

<sup>19</sup>and are confident that you yourself are a guide to people who are blind, a light to those in darkness,

<sup>20</sup>a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, possessing in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth—

<sup>21</sup>you, therefore, who teach someone else, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that one is not to steal, do you steal?

<sup>22</sup>You who say that one is not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who loathe idols, do you rob temples?

<sup>23</sup>You who boast in the Law, through your breaking the Law, do you dishonor God?

<sup>24</sup>For “THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES BECAUSE OF YOU,” just as it is written.

<sup>25</sup>For indeed circumcision is of value if you practice the Law; but if you are a violator of the Law, your circumcision has turned into uncircumcision.

<sup>26</sup>So if the uncircumcised man keeps the requirements of the Law, will his uncircumcision not be regarded as circumcision?

<sup>27</sup>And he who is physically uncircumcised, if he keeps the Law, will he not judge you who though having the letter of the Law and circumcision are a violator of the Law?

<sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

<sup>29</sup>But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from people, but from God.

Romans 3

All the World Guilty

<sup>1</sup>Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

<sup>2</sup>Great in every respect. First, that they were entrusted with the actual words of God.

<sup>3</sup>What then? If some did not believe, their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?

<sup>4</sup>Far from it! Rather, God must prove to be true, though every person be found a liar, as it is written: “SO THAT YOU ARE JUSTIFIED IN YOUR WORDS, AND PREVAIL WHEN YOU ARE JUDGED.”

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? The God who inflicts wrath is not unrighteous, is He? (I am speaking from a human viewpoint.)

<sup>6</sup>Far from it! For otherwise, how will God judge the world?

<sup>7</sup>But if through my lie the truth of God abounded to His glory, why am I also still being judged as a sinner?

<sup>8</sup>And why not say (just as we are slanderously reported and as some claim that we say), “Let’s do evil that good may come of it”? Their condemnation is deserved.

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin;

<sup>10</sup>as it is written: “THERE IS NO RIGHTEOUS PERSON, NOT EVEN ONE;

<sup>11</sup>THERE IS NO ONE WHO UNDERSTANDS, THERE IS NO ONE WHO SEEKS OUT GOD;

<sup>12</sup>THEY HAVE ALL TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME CORRUPT; THERE IS NO ONE WHO DOES GOOD, THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE.”

“THE VENOM OF ASPS IS UNDER THEIR LIPS”;

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be closed and all the world may become accountable to God;

<sup>20</sup>because by the works of the Law none of mankind will be justified in His sight; for through the Law comes knowledge of sin.

Justification by Faith

<sup>21</sup>But now apart from the Law the righteousness of God has been revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets,

<sup>22</sup>but it is the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe; for there is no distinction,

<sup>23</sup>for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

<sup>24</sup>being justified as a gift by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus,

<sup>25</sup>whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in God’s merciful restraint He let the sins previously committed go unpunished;

<sup>26</sup>for the demonstration, that is, of His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Where then is boasting? It has been excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

<sup>28</sup>For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from works of the Law.

<sup>29</sup>Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

<sup>30</sup>since indeed God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith is one.

<sup>31</sup>Do we then nullify the Law through faith? Far from it! On the contrary, we establish the Law.

Romans 4

Abraham's Justification by Faith

<sup>1</sup>What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found?

<sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about; but not before God.

<sup>3</sup>For what does the Scripture say? "ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS."

<sup>4</sup>Now to the one who works, the wages are not credited as a favor, but as what is due.

<sup>5</sup>But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness,

<sup>7</sup>“BLESSED ARE THOSE WHOSE LAWLESS DEEDS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN, AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED.

<sup>8</sup>“BLESSED IS THE MAN WHOSE SIN THE LORD WILL NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT.”

<sup>9</sup>Is this blessing then on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say, “FAITH WAS CREDITED TO ABRAHAM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

<sup>10</sup>How then was it credited? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised;

<sup>11</sup>and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them,

<sup>12</sup>and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had while uncircumcised.

<sup>13</sup>For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would be heir of the world was not through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

<sup>14</sup>For if those who are of the Law are heirs, then faith is made void and the promise is nullified;

<sup>15</sup>for the Law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, there also is no violation.

<sup>16</sup>For this reason it is by faith, in order that it may be in accordance with grace, so that the promise will be guaranteed to all the descendants, not only to those who are of the Law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

<sup>17</sup>(as it is written: “I HAVE MADE YOU A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS”) in the presence of Him whom he believed, that is, God, who gives life to the dead and calls into being things that do not exist.

<sup>18</sup>In hope against hope he believed, so that he might become a father of many nations according to that which had been spoken, “SO SHALL YOUR DESCENDANTS BE.”

<sup>19</sup>Without becoming weak in faith he contemplated his own body, now as good as dead since he was about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah’s womb;

<sup>20</sup>yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God,

<sup>21</sup>and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore IT WAS ALSO CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

<sup>23</sup>Now not for his sake only was it written that it was credited to him,

<sup>24</sup>but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, to us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup>He who was delivered over because of our wrongdoings, and was raised because of our justification.

Romans 5

Results of Justification

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

<sup>2</sup>through whom we also have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we celebrate in hope of the glory of God.

<sup>3</sup>And not only this, but we also celebrate in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance;

<sup>5</sup>and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

<sup>6</sup>For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

<sup>7</sup>For one will hardly die for a righteous person; though perhaps for the good person someone would even dare to die.

<sup>8</sup>But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup>Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him.

<sup>10</sup>For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

<sup>11</sup>And not only this, but we also celebrate in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all mankind, because all sinned—

<sup>13</sup>for until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not counted against anyone when there is no law.

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the violation committed by Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come.

<sup>15</sup>But the gracious gift is not like the offense. For if by the offense of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many.

<sup>16</sup>The gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for on the one hand the judgment arose from one offense, resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the gracious gift arose from many offenses, resulting in justification.

<sup>17</sup>For if by the offense of the one, death reigned through the one, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup>So then, as through one offense the result was condemnation to all mankind, so also through one act of righteousness the result was justification of life to all mankind.

<sup>19</sup>For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the One the many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup>The Law came in so that the offense would increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,

<sup>21</sup>so that, as sin reigned in death, so also grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6

Believers Are Dead to Sin, Alive to God

<sup>1</sup>What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may increase?

<sup>2</sup>Far from it! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?

<sup>3</sup>Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?

<sup>4</sup>Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too may walk in newness of life.

<sup>5</sup>For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

<sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;

<sup>7</sup>for the one who has died is freed from sin.

<sup>8</sup>Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,

<sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer is master over Him.

<sup>10</sup>For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all time; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.

<sup>11</sup>So you too, consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore sin is not to reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts,

<sup>13</sup>and do not go on presenting the parts of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead, and your body's parts as instruments of righteousness for God.

<sup>14</sup>For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under the Law but under grace.

<sup>15</sup>What then? Are we to sin because we are not under the Law but under grace? Far from it!

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that the one to whom you present yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of that same one whom you obey, either of sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness?

<sup>17</sup>But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were entrusted,

<sup>18</sup>and after being freed from sin, you became slaves to righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented the parts of your body as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, resulting in further lawlessness, so now present your body's parts as slaves to righteousness, resulting in sanctification.

<sup>20</sup>For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in relation to righteousness.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore what benefit were you then deriving from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is death.

<sup>22</sup>But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life.

<sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7

Believers United to Christ

<sup>1</sup>Or do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I am speaking to those who know the Law), that the Law has jurisdiction over a person as long as he lives?

<sup>2</sup>For the married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he is alive; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband.

<sup>3</sup>So then, if while her husband is alive she gives herself to another man, she will be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress if she gives herself to another man.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also were put to death in regard to the Law through the body of Christ, so that you might belong to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God.

<sup>5</sup>For while we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were brought to light by the Law, were at work in the parts of our body to bear fruit for death.

<sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the Law, having died to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Far from it! On the contrary, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law; for I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, “YOU SHALL NOT COVET.”

<sup>8</sup>But sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind; for apart from the Law sin is dead.

<sup>9</sup>I was once alive apart from the Law; but when the commandment came, sin came to life, and I died;

<sup>10</sup>and this commandment, which was to result in life, proved to result in death for me;

<sup>11</sup>for sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it, killed me.

<sup>12</sup>So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? Far from it! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by bringing about my death through that which is good, so that through the commandment sin would become utterly sinful.

The Conflict of Serving Two Masters

<sup>14</sup>For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold into bondage to sin.

<sup>15</sup>For I do not understand what I am doing; for I am not practicing what I want to do, but I do the very thing I hate.

<sup>16</sup>However, if I do the very thing I do not want to do, I agree with the Law, that the Law is good.

<sup>17</sup>But now, no longer am I the one doing it, but sin that dwells in me.

<sup>18</sup>For I know that good does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.

<sup>19</sup>For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.

<sup>20</sup>But if I do the very thing I do not want, I am no longer the one doing it, but sin that dwells in me.

<sup>21</sup>I find then the principle that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good.

<sup>22</sup>For I joyfully agree with the law of God in the inner person, <sup>23</sup>but I see a different law in the parts of my body waging war against the law of my mind, and making me a prisoner of the law of sin, the law which is in my body's parts.

<sup>24</sup>Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from the body of this death?

<sup>25</sup>Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh the law of sin.

Romans 8

Deliverance from Bondage

<sup>1</sup>Therefore there is now no condemnation at all for those who are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

<sup>3</sup>For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>so that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>For those who are in accord with the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are in accord with the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace,

<sup>7</sup>because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so,

<sup>8</sup>and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

<sup>10</sup>If Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness.

<sup>11</sup>But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

<sup>12</sup>So then, brothers and sisters, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

<sup>13</sup>for if you are living in accord with the flesh, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

<sup>14</sup>For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons and daughters of God.

<sup>15</sup>For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons and daughters by which we cry out, “Abba! Father!”

<sup>16</sup>The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God,

<sup>17</sup>and if children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

<sup>18</sup>For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

<sup>19</sup>For the eagerly awaiting creation waits for the revealing of the sons and daughters of God.

<sup>20</sup>For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope

<sup>21</sup>that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

<sup>22</sup>For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.

<sup>23</sup>And not only that, but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons and daughters, the redemption of our body.

<sup>24</sup>For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he already sees?

<sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, through perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

Our Victory in Christ

<sup>26</sup>Now in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words;

<sup>27</sup>and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

<sup>28</sup>And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

<sup>29</sup>For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters;

<sup>30</sup>and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified.

<sup>31</sup>What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

<sup>32</sup>He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things?

<sup>33</sup>Who will bring charges against God's elect? God is the one who justifies;

<sup>34</sup>who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, but rather, was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

<sup>35</sup>Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or trouble, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

<sup>36</sup>Just as it is written: "FOR YOUR SAKE WE ARE KILLED ALL DAY LONG; WE WERE REGARDED AS SHEEP TO BE SLAUGHTERED."

<sup>37</sup>But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us.

<sup>38</sup>For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9

Deep Concern for Israel

<sup>1</sup>I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience testifies with me in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup>that I have great sorrow and unceasing grief in my heart.

<sup>3</sup>For I could wish that I myself were accursed, separated from Christ for the sake of my countrymen, my kinsmen according to the flesh,

<sup>4</sup>who are Israelites, to whom belongs the adoption as sons and daughters, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the Law, the temple service, and the promises;

<sup>5</sup>whose are the fathers, and from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel;

<sup>7</sup>nor are they all children because they are Abraham's descendants, but: "THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE NAMED."

<sup>8</sup>That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are regarded as descendants.

<sup>9</sup>For this is the word of promise: "AT THIS TIME I WILL COME, AND SARAH WILL HAVE A SON."

<sup>10</sup>And not only that, but there was also Rebekah, when she had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac;

<sup>11</sup>for though the twins were not yet born and had not done anything good or bad, so that God's purpose according to His choice would stand, not because of works but because of Him who calls,

<sup>12</sup>it was said to her, "THE OLDER WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER."

<sup>13</sup>Just as it is written: "JACOB I HAVE LOVED, BUT ESAU I HAVE HATED."

<sup>14</sup>What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? Far from it!

<sup>15</sup>For He says to Moses, "I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOMEVER I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL SHOW COMPASSION TO WHOMEVER I SHOW COMPASSION."

<sup>16</sup>So then, it does not depend on the person who wants it nor the one who runs, but on God who has mercy.

<sup>17</sup>For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “FOR THIS VERY REASON I RAISED YOU UP, IN ORDER TO DEMONSTRATE MY POWER IN YOU, AND THAT MY NAME MIGHT BE PROCLAIMED THROUGHOUT THE EARTH.”

<sup>18</sup>So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires.

<sup>19</sup>You will say to me then, “Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?”

<sup>20</sup>On the contrary, who are you, you foolish person, who answers back to God? The thing molded will not say to the molder, “Why did you make me like this,” will it?

<sup>21</sup>Or does the potter not have a right over the clay, to make from the same lump one object for honorable use, and another for common use?

<sup>22</sup>What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with great patience objects of wrath prepared for destruction?

<sup>23</sup>And He did so to make known the riches of His glory upon objects of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory,

<sup>24</sup>namely us, whom He also called, not only from among Jews, but also from among Gentiles,

<sup>25</sup>as He also says in Hosea: “I WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT MY PEOPLE, ‘MY PEOPLE,’ AND HER WHO WAS NOT BELOVED, ‘BELOVED.’ ”

<sup>26</sup>“AND IT SHALL BE THAT IN THE PLACE WHERE IT WAS SAID TO THEM, ‘YOU ARE NOT MY PEOPLE,’ THERE THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF THE LIVING GOD.”

<sup>27</sup>Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, “THOUGH THE NUMBER OF THE SONS OF ISRAEL MAY BE LIKE THE SAND OF THE SEA, ONLY THE REMNANT WILL BE SAVED;

<sup>29</sup>And just as Isaiah foretold: “IF THE LORD OF ARMIES HAD NOT LEFT US DESCENDANTS, WE WOULD HAVE BECOME LIKE SODOM, AND WOULD HAVE BEEN LIKE GOMORRAH.”

<sup>30</sup>What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness, but the righteousness that is by faith;

<sup>31</sup>however, Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not arrive at that law.

<sup>32</sup>Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as though they could by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

<sup>33</sup>just as it is written: “BEHOLD, I AM LAYING IN ZION A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE, AND THE ONE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE PUT TO SHAME.”

Romans 10

The Word of Faith Brings Salvation

<sup>1</sup>Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation.

<sup>2</sup>For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>For not knowing about God’s righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

<sup>4</sup>For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

<sup>5</sup>For Moses writes of the righteousness that is based on the Law, that the person who performs them will live by them.

<sup>6</sup>But the righteousness based on faith speaks as follows: “DO NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART, ‘WHO WILL GO UP INTO HEAVEN?’ (that is, to bring Christ down), <sup>7</sup>or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).”

<sup>8</sup>But what does it say? “THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART”—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching,

<sup>9</sup>that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved;

<sup>10</sup>for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation.

<sup>12</sup>For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

<sup>13</sup>for “EVERYONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED.”

<sup>14</sup>How then are they to call on Him in whom they have not believed? How are they to believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher?

<sup>15</sup>But how are they to preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written: “HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO BRING GOOD NEWS OF GOOD THINGS!”

<sup>16</sup>However, they did not all heed the good news; for Isaiah says, “LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?”

<sup>18</sup>But I say, surely they have never heard, have they? On the contrary: “THEIR VOICE HAS GONE OUT INTO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE ENDS OF THE WORLD.”

<sup>19</sup>But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? First Moses says, “I WILL MAKE YOU JEALOUS WITH THOSE WHO ARE NOT A NATION, WITH A FOOLISH NATION I WILL ANGER YOU.”

<sup>20</sup>And Isaiah is very bold and says, “I WAS FOUND BY THOSE WHO DID NOT SEEK ME, I REVEALED MYSELF TO THOSE WHO DID NOT ASK FOR ME.”

<sup>21</sup>But as for Israel, He says, “I HAVE SPREAD OUT MY HANDS ALL DAY LONG TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE.”

Romans 11

Israel Has Not Been Rejected

<sup>1</sup>I say then, God has not rejected His people, has He? Far from it! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup>God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

<sup>3</sup>“Lord, THEY HAVE KILLED YOUR PROPHETS, THEY HAVE TORN DOWN YOUR ALTARS, AND I ALONE AM LEFT, AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY LIFE.”

<sup>4</sup>But what is the divine response to him? “I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO BAAL.”

<sup>5</sup>In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present time a remnant according to God’s gracious choice.

<sup>6</sup>But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, since otherwise grace is no longer grace.

<sup>7</sup>What then? What Israel is seeking, it has not obtained, but those who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were hardened;

<sup>8</sup>just as it is written: “GOD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF STUPOR, EYES TO SEE NOT AND EARS TO HEAR NOT, DOWN TO THIS VERY DAY.”

<sup>9</sup>And David says, “MAY THEIR TABLE BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP, AND A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM.

<sup>11</sup>I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? Far from it! But by their wrongdoing salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.

<sup>12</sup>Now if their wrongdoing proves to be riches for the world, and their failure, riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fulfillment be!

<sup>13</sup>But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Therefore insofar as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I magnify my ministry

<sup>14</sup>if somehow I may move my own people to jealousy and save some of them.

<sup>15</sup>For if their rejection proves to be the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

<sup>16</sup>If the first piece of dough is holy, the lump is also; and if the root is holy, the branches are as well.

<sup>17</sup>But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the rich root of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup>do not be arrogant toward the branches; but if you are arrogant, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

<sup>19</sup>You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

<sup>20</sup>Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear;

<sup>21</sup>for if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you, either.

<sup>22</sup>See then the kindness and severity of God: to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; for otherwise you too will be cut off.

<sup>23</sup>And they also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again.

<sup>24</sup>For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup>For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be uninformed of this mystery—so that you will not be wise in your own estimation—that a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in;

<sup>26</sup>and so all Israel will be saved; just as it is written: “THE DELIVERER WILL COME FROM ZION, HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB.”

<sup>28</sup>In relation to the gospel they are enemies on your account, but in relation to God’s choice they are beloved on account of the fathers;

<sup>29</sup>for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

<sup>30</sup>For just as you once were disobedient to God, but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience, <sup>31</sup>so these also now have been disobedient, that because of the mercy shown to you they also may now be shown mercy.

<sup>32</sup>For God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He may show mercy to all.

<sup>33</sup>Oh, the depth of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways!

<sup>34</sup>For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, OR WHO BECAME HIS COUNSELOR?

<sup>35</sup>Or WHO HAS FIRST GIVEN TO HIM, THAT IT WOULD BE PAID BACK TO HIM?

<sup>36</sup>For from Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen.

Romans 12

Dedicated Service

<sup>1</sup>Therefore I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.

<sup>2</sup>And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

<sup>3</sup>For through the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has allotted to each a measure of faith.

<sup>4</sup>For just as we have many parts in one body and all the body's parts do not have the same function,

<sup>5</sup>so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually parts of one another.

<sup>6</sup>However, since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to use them properly: if prophecy, in proportion to one's faith;

<sup>7</sup>if service, in the act of serving; or the one who teaches, in the act of teaching;

<sup>8</sup>or the one who exhorts, in the work of exhortation; the one who gives, with generosity; the one who is in leadership, with diligence; the one who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

<sup>9</sup> Love must be free of hypocrisy. Detest what is evil; cling to what is good.

<sup>10</sup>Be devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another in honor,

<sup>18</sup>If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all people.

<sup>19</sup>Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written: "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY," says the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>"BUT IF YOUR ENEMY IS HUNGRY, FEED HIM; IF HE IS THIRSTY, GIVE HIM A DRINK; FOR IN SO DOING YOU WILL HEAP BURNING COALS ON HIS HEAD."

Romans 13

Be Subject to Government

<sup>1</sup>Every person is to be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore whoever resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.

<sup>3</sup>For rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good and you will have praise from the same;

<sup>4</sup>for it is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a servant of God, an avenger who brings wrath on the one who practices evil.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for the sake of conscience.

<sup>6</sup>For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, devoting themselves to this very thing.

<sup>7</sup>Pay to all what is due them: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor.

<sup>8</sup>Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another; for the one who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the Law.

<sup>9</sup>For this, “YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVET,” and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, “YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.”

<sup>10</sup>Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the Law.

<sup>11</sup>Do this, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now salvation is nearer to us than when we first believed.

<sup>12</sup>The night is almost gone, and the day is near. Therefore let’s rid ourselves of the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light.

<sup>13</sup>Let’s behave properly as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and debauchery, not in strife and jealousy.

<sup>14</sup>But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh in regard to its lusts.

Romans 14

Principles of Conscience

<sup>2</sup>One person has faith that he may eat all things, but the one who is weak eats only vegetables.

<sup>3</sup>The one who eats is not to regard with contempt the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat is not to judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him.

<sup>4</sup>Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

<sup>5</sup>One person values one day over another, another values every day the same. Each person must be fully convinced in his own mind.

<sup>6</sup>The one who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and the one who eats, does so with regard to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who does not eat, it is for the Lord that he does not eat, and he gives thanks to God.

<sup>7</sup>For not one of us lives for himself, and not one dies for himself;

<sup>8</sup>for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>9</sup>For to this end Christ died and lived again, that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

<sup>10</sup>But as for you, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or you as well, why do you regard your brother or sister with contempt? For we will all appear before the judgment seat of God.

<sup>11</sup>For it is written: "AS I LIVE, SAYS THE LORD, TO ME EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, AND EVERY TONGUE WILL GIVE PRAISE TO GOD."

<sup>12</sup>So then each one of us will give an account of himself to God.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore let's not judge one another anymore, but rather determine this: not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's or sister's way.

<sup>14</sup>I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but to the one who thinks something is unclean, to that person it is unclean.

<sup>15</sup>For if because of food your brother or sister is hurt, you are no longer walking in accordance with love. Do not destroy with your choice of food that person for whom Christ died.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore do not let what is for you a good thing be spoken of as evil;

<sup>17</sup>for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>For the one who serves Christ in this way is acceptable to God and approved by other people.

<sup>19</sup>So then we pursue the things which make for peace and the building up of one another.

<sup>20</sup>Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but they are evil for the person who eats and causes offense.

<sup>21</sup>It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother or sister stumbles.

<sup>22</sup>The faith which you have, have as your own conviction before God. Happy is the one who does not condemn himself in what he approves.

<sup>23</sup>But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.

Romans 15

Self-denial in behalf of Others

<sup>1</sup>Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those without strength, and not just please ourselves.

<sup>3</sup>For even Christ did not please Himself, but as it is written: "THE TAUNTS OF THOSE WHO TAUNT YOU HAVE FALLEN ON ME."

<sup>4</sup>For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

<sup>5</sup>Now may the God who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with one another, according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>so that with one purpose and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us, for the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup>For I say that Christ has become a servant to the circumcision in behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises given to the fathers,

<sup>9</sup>and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy; as it is written: "THEREFORE I WILL GIVE PRAISE TO YOU AMONG THE GENTILES, AND I WILL SING PRAISES TO YOUR NAME."

<sup>11</sup>And again, "PRAISE THE LORD ALL YOU GENTILES, AND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE HIM."

<sup>12</sup>Again Isaiah says, "THERE SHALL COME THE ROOT OF JESSE, AND HE WHO ARISES TO RULE OVER THE GENTILES, IN HIM WILL THE GENTILES HOPE."

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>And concerning you, my brothers and sisters, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able also to admonish one another.

<sup>15</sup>But I have written very boldly to you on some points so as to remind you again, because of the grace that was given to me from God,

<sup>16</sup>to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the gospel of God, so that my offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore in Christ Jesus I have found reason for boasting in things pertaining to God.

<sup>18</sup>For I will not presume to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me, resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed,

<sup>19</sup>in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit; so that from Jerusalem and all around as far as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

<sup>20</sup>And in this way I aspired to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already known by name, so that I would not build on another person's foundation;

<sup>21</sup>but just as it is written: "THEY WHO HAVE NOT BEEN TOLD ABOUT HIM WILL SEE, AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD WILL UNDERSTAND."

<sup>22</sup>For this reason I have often been prevented from coming to you;

<sup>23</sup>but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I have had for many years a longing to come to you

<sup>24</sup>whenever I go to Spain—for I hope to see you in passing, and to be helped on my way there by you, when I have first enjoyed your company for a while—

<sup>25</sup>but now, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints.

<sup>26</sup>For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>For they were pleased to do so, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are indebted to do them a service also in material things.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, when I have finished this, and have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will go on by way of you to Spain.

<sup>29</sup>I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,

<sup>31</sup>that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the saints;

<sup>32</sup>so that I may come to you in joy by the will of God and relax in your company.

<sup>33</sup>Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16

Greetings and Love Expressed

<sup>1</sup>I recommend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea,

<sup>2</sup>that you receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and that you help her in whatever matter she may have need of you; for she herself has also been a helper of many, and of myself as well.

<sup>3</sup>Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,

<sup>4</sup>who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only do I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles;

<sup>5</sup>also greet the church that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is the first convert to Christ from Asia.

<sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who has worked hard for you.

<sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junia, my kinsfolk and my fellow prisoners, who are outstanding in the view of the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

<sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

- <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.
- <sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.
- <sup>11</sup>Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.
- <sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked hard in the Lord.
- <sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, a choice man in the Lord, also his mother and mine.
- <sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters with them.
- <sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
- <sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.
- <sup>17</sup>Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, keep your eye on those who cause dissensions and hindrances contrary to the teaching which you learned, and turn away from them.
- <sup>18</sup>For such people are slaves, not of our Lord Christ but of their own appetites; and by their smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.
- <sup>19</sup>For the report of your obedience has reached everyone; therefore I am rejoicing over you, but I want you to be wise in what is good, and innocent in what is evil.
- <sup>20</sup>The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.
- <sup>21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, and so do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen.
- <sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, who have written this letter, greet you in the Lord.

<sup>23</sup>Gaius, host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you, and Quartus, the brother.

<sup>25</sup>Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret for long ages past,

<sup>26</sup>but now has been disclosed, and through the Scriptures of the prophets, in accordance with the commandment of the eternal God, has been made known to all the nations, leading to obedience of faith;

<sup>27</sup>to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory forever. Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 Corinthians 1

Appeal to Unity

<sup>1</sup>Paul, called as an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

<sup>2</sup>To the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, saints by calling, with all who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,

<sup>5</sup>that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge,

<sup>6</sup>just as the testimony concerning Christ was confirmed in you,

<sup>7</sup>so that you are not lacking in any gift, as you eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

<sup>8</sup>who will also confirm you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup>God is faithful, through whom you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be made complete in the same mind and in the same judgment.

<sup>11</sup>For I have been informed concerning you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are quarrels among you.

<sup>12</sup>Now I mean this, that each one of you is saying, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Christ."

<sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

<sup>14</sup>I am thankful that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>so that no one would say you were baptized in my name!

<sup>16</sup>But I did baptize the household of Stephanas also; beyond that, I do not know if I baptized anyone else.

<sup>17</sup>For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Christ would not be made of no effect.

The Wisdom of God

<sup>18</sup>For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

<sup>19</sup>For it is written: "I WILL DESTROY THE WISDOM OF THE WISE, AND THE UNDERSTANDING OF THOSE WHO HAVE UNDERSTANDING, I WILL CONFOUND."

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise person? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has God not made foolish the wisdom of the world?

<sup>21</sup>For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not come to know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.

<sup>22</sup>For indeed Jews ask for signs and Greeks search for wisdom;

<sup>23</sup>but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews a stumbling block, and to Gentiles foolishness,

<sup>24</sup>but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

<sup>25</sup>For the foolishness of God is wiser than mankind, and the weakness of God is stronger than mankind.

<sup>26</sup>For consider your calling, brothers and sisters, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble;

<sup>27</sup>but God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong,

<sup>28</sup>and the insignificant things of the world and the despised God has chosen, the things that are not, so that He may nullify the things that are,

<sup>29</sup>so that no human may boast before God.

<sup>30</sup>But it is due to Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption,

<sup>31</sup>so that, just as it is written: “LET THE ONE WHO BOASTS, BOAST IN THE LORD.”

1 Corinthians 2

Paul's Reliance upon the Spirit

<sup>1</sup>And when I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come as someone superior in speaking ability or wisdom, as I proclaimed to you the testimony of God.

<sup>2</sup>For I determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

<sup>3</sup>I also was with you in weakness and fear, and in great trembling,

<sup>4</sup>and my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,

<sup>5</sup>so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom of mankind, but on the power of God.

<sup>6</sup>Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are mature; a wisdom, however, not of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away;

<sup>7</sup>but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God predestined before the ages to our glory;

<sup>8</sup>the wisdom which none of the rulers of this age has understood; for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;

<sup>9</sup>but just as it is written: “THINGS WHICH EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND EAR HAS NOT HEARD, AND WHICH HAVE NOT ENTERED THE HUMAN HEART, ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM.”

<sup>10</sup> For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God.

<sup>11</sup>For who among people knows the thoughts of a person except the spirit of the person that is in him? So also the thoughts of God no one knows, except the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup>Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God.

<sup>13</sup>We also speak these things, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual thoughts with spiritual words.

<sup>14</sup>But a natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

<sup>15</sup>But the one who is spiritual discerns all things, yet he himself is discerned by no one.

<sup>16</sup>For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3

Foundations for Living

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers and sisters, could not speak to you as spiritual people, but only as fleshly, as to infants in Christ.

<sup>2</sup>I gave you milk to drink, not solid food; for you were not yet able to consume it. But even now you are not yet able,

<sup>3</sup>for you are still fleshly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking like ordinary people?

<sup>4</sup>For when one person says, “I am with Paul,” and another, “I am with Apollos,” are you not ordinary people?

<sup>5</sup>What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave opportunity to each one.

<sup>7</sup>So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who causes the growth.

<sup>8</sup>Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

<sup>9</sup>For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.

<sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God which was given to me, like a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building on it. But each person must be careful how he builds on it.

<sup>11</sup>For no one can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup>each one’s work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each one’s work.

<sup>14</sup>If anyone’s work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward.

<sup>15</sup>If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet only so as through fire.

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that you are a temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

<sup>17</sup>If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God is holy, and that is what you are.

<sup>18</sup>Take care that no one deceives himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, he must become foolish, so that he may become wise.

<sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the sight of God. For it is written: “He is THE ONE WHO CATCHES THE WISE BY THEIR CRAFTINESS”;

<sup>20</sup>and again, “THE LORD KNOWS THE THOUGHTS of the wise, THAT THEY ARE useless.”

<sup>21</sup>So then, no one is to be boasting in people. For all things belong to you,

<sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come; all things belong to you,

<sup>23</sup>and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4

Servants of Christ

<sup>1</sup>This is the way any person is to regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

<sup>3</sup>But to me it is an insignificant matter that I would be examined by you, or by any human court; in fact, I do not even examine myself.

<sup>4</sup>For I am not aware of anything against myself; however I am not vindicated by this, but the one who examines me is the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore do not go on passing judgment before the time, but wait until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of human hearts; and then praise will come to each person from God.

<sup>6</sup>Now these things, brothers and sisters, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos on your account, so that in us you may learn not to exceed what is written, so that no one of you will become arrogant in behalf of one against the other.

<sup>7</sup>For who considers you as superior? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

<sup>8</sup>You are already filled, you have already become rich, you have become kings without us; and indeed, I wish that you had become kings so that we also might reign with you!

<sup>9</sup>For I think, God has exhibited us, the apostles, last of all as men condemned to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to mankind.

<sup>10</sup>We are fools on account of Christ, but you are prudent in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are without honor!

<sup>11</sup>Up to this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed and roughly treated and homeless;

<sup>12</sup>and we labor, working with our own hands; when we are verbally abused, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it;

<sup>13</sup>when we are slandered, we reply as friends; we have become as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

<sup>14</sup>I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.

<sup>15</sup>For if you were to have countless tutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore I urge you, be imitators of me.

<sup>17</sup>For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church.

<sup>18</sup>Now some have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to you.

<sup>19</sup>But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I shall find out, not the words of those who are arrogant, but their power.

<sup>20</sup>For the kingdom of God is not in words, but in power.

<sup>21</sup>What do you desire? That I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

1 Corinthians 5

Sexual Immorality Rebuked

<sup>1</sup>It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and sexual immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, namely, that someone has his father's wife.

<sup>2</sup>You have become arrogant and have not mourned instead, so that the one who had done this deed would be removed from your midst.

<sup>3</sup>For I, on my part, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has so committed this, as though I were present.

<sup>4</sup>In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup>I have decided to turn such a person over to Satan for the destruction of his body, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough?

<sup>7</sup>Clean out the old leaven so that you may be a new lump, just as you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore let's celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people;

<sup>10</sup>I did not at all mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the greedy and swindlers, or with idolaters, for then you would have to leave the world.

<sup>11</sup>But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he is a sexually immoral person, or a greedy person, or an idolater, or is verbally abusive, or habitually drunk, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a person.

<sup>12</sup>For what business of mine is it to judge outsiders? Do you not judge those who are within the church?

<sup>13</sup>But those who are outside, God judges. REMOVE THE EVIL PERSON FROM AMONG YOURSELVES.

1 Corinthians 6

Lawsuits Discouraged

<sup>1</sup>Does any one of you, when he has a case against his neighbor, dare to go to law before the unrighteous and not before the saints?

<sup>2</sup>Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? If the world is judged by you, are you not competent to form the smallest law courts?

<sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more matters of this life?

<sup>4</sup>So if you have law courts dealing with matters of this life, do you appoint them as judges who are of no account in the church?

<sup>5</sup>I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not among you anyone wise who will be able to decide between his brothers and sisters, <sup>6</sup>but brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers?

<sup>7</sup>Actually, then, it is already a defeat for you, that you have lawsuits with one another. Why not rather suffer the wrong? Why not rather be defrauded?

<sup>8</sup>On the contrary, you yourselves do wrong and defraud. And this to your brothers and sisters!

<sup>9</sup>Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, <sup>10</sup>nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor those habitually drunk, nor verbal abusers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>11</sup>Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

The Body Is the LORD's

<sup>12</sup>All things are permitted for me, but not all things are of benefit. All things are permitted for me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

<sup>13</sup>Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, however God will do away with both of them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body.

<sup>14</sup>Now God has not only raised the Lord, but will also raise us up through His power.

<sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are parts of Christ? Shall I then take away the parts of Christ and make them parts of a prostitute? Far from it!

<sup>17</sup>But the one who joins himself to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

<sup>18</sup>Flee sexual immorality. Every other sin that a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.

<sup>19</sup>Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

<sup>20</sup>For you have been bought for a price: therefore glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 7

Teaching on Marriage

<sup>2</sup>But because of sexual immoralities, each man is to have his own wife, and each woman is to have her own husband.

<sup>3</sup>The husband must fulfill his duty to his wife, and likewise the wife also to her husband.

<sup>4</sup>The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise the husband also does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

<sup>5</sup>Stop depriving one another, except by agreement for a time so that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and come together again so that Satan will not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

<sup>7</sup>Yet I wish that all men were even as I myself am. However, each has his own gift from God, one in this way, and another in that.

<sup>8</sup>But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them if they remain even as I.

<sup>9</sup>But if they do not have self-control, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

<sup>10</sup>But to the married I give instructions, not I, but the Lord, that the wife is not to leave her husband

<sup>11</sup>(but if she does leave, she must remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband is not to divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup>But to the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her.

<sup>13</sup>And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, she must not divorce her husband.

<sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

<sup>15</sup>Yet if the unbelieving one is leaving, let him leave; the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace.

<sup>16</sup>For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

<sup>17</sup>Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, in this way let him walk. And so I direct in all the churches.

<sup>18</sup>Was any man called when he was already circumcised? He is not to become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? He is not to be circumcised.

<sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is the keeping of the commandments of God.

<sup>20</sup>Each person is to remain in that state in which he was called.

<sup>21</sup>Were you called as a slave? Do not let it concern you. But if you are also able to become free, take advantage of that.

<sup>22</sup>For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave, is the Lord's freed person; likewise the one who was called as free, is Christ's slave.

<sup>24</sup>Brothers and sisters, each one is to remain with God in that condition in which he was called.

<sup>25</sup>Now concerning virgins, I have no command of the Lord, but I am offering direction as one who by the mercy of the Lord is trustworthy.

<sup>26</sup>I think, then, that this is good in view of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is.

<sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

<sup>28</sup>But if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such people as yourselves will have trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare you.

<sup>29</sup>But this I say, brothers, the time has been shortened, so that from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none;

<sup>30</sup>and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;

<sup>31</sup>and those who use the world, as though they did not make full use of it; for the present form of this world is passing away.

<sup>32</sup>But I want you to be free from concern. One who is unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

<sup>33</sup>but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife,

<sup>34</sup>and his interests are divided. The woman who is unmarried, and the virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

<sup>35</sup>I say this for your own benefit, not to put a restraint on you, but to promote what is appropriate and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>But if anyone thinks that he is acting dishonorably toward his virgin, if she is past her youth and it ought to be so, let him do what he wishes, he is not sinning; let them marry.

<sup>37</sup>But the one who stands firm in his heart, if he is not under constraint, but has authority over his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own virgin, he will do well.

<sup>38</sup>So then, both the one who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and the one who does not give her in marriage will do better.

<sup>39</sup>A wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord.

<sup>40</sup>But in my opinion she is happier if she remains as she is; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8

Take Care with Your Liberty

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning food sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes one conceited, but love edifies people.

<sup>2</sup>If anyone thinks that he knows anything, he has not yet known as he ought to know;

<sup>3</sup>but if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore, concerning the eating of food sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing at all in the world, and that there is no God but one.

<sup>5</sup>For even if there are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,

<sup>6</sup>yet for us there is only one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

<sup>7</sup>However, not all people have this knowledge; but some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

<sup>8</sup>Now food will not bring us close to God; we are neither the worse if we do not eat, nor the better if we do eat.

<sup>9</sup>But take care that this freedom of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

<sup>10</sup>For if someone sees you, the one who has knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will his conscience, if he is weak, not be strengthened to eat things sacrificed to idols?

<sup>11</sup>For through your knowledge the one who is weak is ruined, the brother or sister for whose sake Christ died.

<sup>12</sup>And so, by sinning against the brothers and sisters and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, if food causes my brother to sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause my brother to sin.

1 Corinthians 9

Paul's Use of Freedom

<sup>1</sup>Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

<sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>My defense to those who examine me is this:

<sup>5</sup>Do we not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

<sup>7</sup>Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not consume some of the milk of the flock?

<sup>8</sup>I am not just asserting these things according to human judgment, am I? Or does the Law not say these things as well?

<sup>9</sup>For it is written in the Law of Moses: “YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE IT IS THRESHING.” God is not concerned about oxen, is He?

<sup>10</sup>Or is He speaking entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing in the crops.

<sup>11</sup>If we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

<sup>12</sup>If others share the right over you, do we not more? Nevertheless, we did not use this right, but we endure all things so that we will cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Do you not know that those who perform sacred services eat the food of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share from the altar?

<sup>14</sup>So also the Lord directed those who proclaim the gospel to get their living from the gospel.

<sup>15</sup>But I have used none of these things. And I have not written these things so that it will be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than that. No one shall make my boast an empty one!

<sup>16</sup>For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about, for I am under compulsion; for woe to me if I do not preach the gospel.

<sup>17</sup>For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have been entrusted with a commission nonetheless.

<sup>18</sup>What, then, is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may offer the gospel without charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

<sup>19</sup>For though I am free from all people, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I may gain more.

<sup>20</sup>To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the Law, I became as one under the Law, though not being under the Law myself, so that I might gain those who are under the Law;

<sup>21</sup>to those who are without the Law, I became as one without the Law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, so that I might gain those who are without the Law.

<sup>22</sup>To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; I have become all things to all people, so that I may by all means save some.

<sup>23</sup>I do all things for the sake of the gospel, so that I may become a fellow partaker of it.

<sup>24</sup>Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win.

<sup>25</sup>Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. So they do it to obtain a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore I run in such a way as not to run aimlessly; I box in such a way, as to avoid hitting air;

<sup>27</sup>but I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10

Avoid Israel's Mistakes

<sup>1</sup>For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and they all passed through the sea;

<sup>2</sup>and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

<sup>3</sup>and they all ate the same spiritual food,

<sup>4</sup>and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ.

<sup>5</sup>Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased; for their dead bodies were spread out in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup>Now these things happened as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they indeed craved them.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "THE PEOPLE SAT DOWN TO EAT AND TO DRINK, AND ROSE UP TO PLAY."

<sup>8</sup>Nor are we to commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day.

<sup>9</sup>Nor are we to put the Lord to the test, as some of them did, and were killed by the snakes.

<sup>10</sup>Nor grumble, as some of them did, and were killed by the destroyer.

<sup>11</sup>Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore let the one who thinks he stands watch out that he does not fall.

<sup>13</sup>No temptation has overtaken you except something common to mankind; and God is faithful, so He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, so that you will be able to endure it.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.

<sup>15</sup>I speak as to wise people; you then, judge what I say.

<sup>16</sup>Is the cup of blessing which we bless not a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is the bread which we break not a sharing in the body of Christ?

<sup>17</sup>Since there is one loaf, we who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf.

<sup>18</sup>Look at the people of Israel; are those who eat the sacrifices not partners in the altar?

<sup>19</sup>What do I mean then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

<sup>20</sup>No, but I say that things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not want you to become partners with demons.

<sup>21</sup>You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

<sup>22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than He, are we?

<sup>23</sup>All things are permitted, but not all things are of benefit. All things are permitted, but not all things build people up.

<sup>25</sup>Eat anything that is sold in the meat market without asking questions, for the sake of conscience;

<sup>27</sup>If one of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go, eat anything that is set before you without asking questions, for the sake of conscience.

<sup>28</sup>But if anyone says to you, "This is meat sacrificed to idols," do not eat it, for the sake of that one who informed you and for the sake of conscience;

<sup>29</sup>Now by "conscience" I do not mean your own, but the other person's; for why is my freedom judged by another's conscience?

<sup>30</sup>If I partake with thankfulness, why am I slandered about that for which I give thanks?

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all things for the glory of God.

<sup>32</sup>Do not offend Jews or Greeks, or the church of God;

<sup>33</sup>just as I also please everyone in all things, not seeking my own benefit but the benefit of the many, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11

Christian Order

<sup>1</sup>Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold firmly to the traditions, just as I handed them down to you.

<sup>3</sup>But I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of a woman, and God is the head of Christ.

<sup>5</sup>But every woman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying disgraces her head, for it is one and the same as the woman whose head is shaved.

<sup>7</sup>For a man should not have his head covered, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

<sup>8</sup>For man does not originate from woman, but woman from man;

<sup>10</sup>Therefore the woman should have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

<sup>12</sup>For as the woman originated from the man, so also the man has his birth through the woman; and all things originate from God.

<sup>13</sup>Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

<sup>14</sup>Does even nature itself not teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him,

<sup>15</sup>but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her as a covering.

<sup>16</sup>But if anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such practice, nor have the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup>Now in giving this next instruction I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better, but for the worse.

<sup>18</sup>For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that divisions exist among you; and in part I believe it.

<sup>19</sup>For there also have to be factions among you, so that those who are approved may become evident among you.

<sup>22</sup>What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who have nothing? What am I to say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

The LORD's Supper

<sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread;

<sup>24</sup>and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

<sup>25</sup>In the same way He also took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

<sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy way, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

<sup>28</sup>But a person must examine himself, and in so doing he is to eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

<sup>29</sup>For the one who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not properly recognize the body.

<sup>30</sup>For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number are asleep.

<sup>31</sup>But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged.

<sup>32</sup>But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

<sup>33</sup>So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

<sup>34</sup>If anyone is hungry, have him eat at home, so that you do not come together for judgment. As to the remaining matters, I will give instructions when I come.

1 Corinthians 12

The Use of Spiritual Gifts

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be unaware.

<sup>2</sup>You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to the mute idols, however you were led.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus is accursed”; and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>There are varieties of effects, but the same God who works all things in all persons.

<sup>7</sup>But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

<sup>8</sup>For to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit;

<sup>9</sup>to another faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

<sup>10</sup>and to another the effecting of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another the distinguishing of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, and to another the interpretation of tongues.

<sup>11</sup>But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually just as He wills.

<sup>12</sup>For just as the body is one and yet has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ.

<sup>13</sup>For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>15</sup>If the foot says, “Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body,” it is not for this reason any less a part of the body.

<sup>16</sup>And if the ear says, “Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body,” it is not for this reason any less a part of the body.

<sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

<sup>18</sup>But now God has arranged the parts, each one of them in the body, just as He desired.

<sup>19</sup>If they were all one part, where would the body be?

<sup>20</sup>But now there are many parts, but one body.

<sup>21</sup>And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again, the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

<sup>22</sup>On the contrary, it is much truer that the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary;

<sup>23</sup>and those parts of the body which we consider less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor, and our less presentable parts become much more presentable,

<sup>24</sup>whereas our more presentable parts have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that part which lacked,

<sup>25</sup>so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same care for one another.

<sup>26</sup>And if one part of the body suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if a part is honored, all the parts rejoice with it.

<sup>28</sup>And God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, and various kinds of tongues.

<sup>29</sup>All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not workers of miracles, are they?

<sup>30</sup>All do not have gifts of healings, do they? All do not speak with tongues, do they? All do not interpret, do they?

<sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And yet, I am going to show you a far better way.

1 Corinthians 13

The Excellence of Love

<sup>1</sup>If I speak with the tongues of mankind and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

<sup>2</sup>If I have the gift of prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

<sup>3</sup>And if I give away all my possessions to charity, and if I surrender my body so that I may glory, but do not have love, it does me no good.

<sup>4</sup>Love is patient, love is kind, it is not jealous; love does not brag, it is not arrogant.

<sup>5</sup>It does not act disgracefully, it does not seek its own benefit; it is not provoked, does not keep an account of a wrong suffered,

<sup>6</sup>it does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;

<sup>7</sup>it keeps every confidence, it believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

<sup>8</sup>Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away with; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away with.

<sup>9</sup>For we know in part and prophesy in part;

<sup>10</sup>but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away with.

<sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

<sup>12</sup>For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known.

<sup>13</sup>But now faith, hope, and love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14

Prophecy a Superior Gift

<sup>2</sup>For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people, but to God; for no one understands, but in his spirit he speaks mysteries.

<sup>4</sup>The one who speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but the one who prophesies edifies the church.

<sup>5</sup>Now I wish that you all spoke in tongues, but rather that you would prophesy; and greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive edification.

<sup>6</sup>But now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophecy, or of teaching?

<sup>7</sup>Yet even lifeless instruments, whether flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?

<sup>8</sup>For if the trumpet produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

<sup>9</sup>So you too, unless you produce intelligible speech by the tongue, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will just be talking to the air.

<sup>10</sup>There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of languages in the world, and none is incapable of meaning.

<sup>11</sup>So if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be unintelligible to the one who speaks, and the one who speaks will be unintelligible to me.

<sup>12</sup>So you too, since you are eager to possess spiritual gifts, strive to excel for the edification of the church.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue is to pray that he may interpret.

<sup>14</sup>For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unproductive.

<sup>15</sup>What is the outcome then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the mind also; I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the mind also.

<sup>16</sup>For otherwise, if you bless God in the spirit only, how will the one who occupies the place of the outsider know to say the “Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you are saying?

<sup>17</sup>For you are giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not edified.

<sup>18</sup>I thank God, I speak in tongues more than you all;

<sup>19</sup>nevertheless, in church I prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Instruction for the Church

<sup>20</sup>Brothers and sisters, do not be children in your thinking; yet in evil be infants, but in your thinking be mature.

<sup>21</sup>In the Law it is written: “BY MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF STRANGERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE, AND EVEN SO THEY WILL NOT LISTEN TO ME,” says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>So then, tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophecy is not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore if the whole church gathers together and all the people speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are insane?

<sup>24</sup>But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all;

<sup>25</sup>the secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so he will fall on his face and worship God, declaring that God is certainly among you.

<sup>26</sup>What is the outcome then, brothers and sisters? When you assemble, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. All things are to be done for edification.

<sup>27</sup>If anyone speaks in a tongue, it must be by two or at the most three, and each one in turn, and one is to interpret;

<sup>28</sup>but if there is no interpreter, he is to keep silent in church; and have him speak to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup>Have two or three prophets speak, and have the others pass judgment.

<sup>30</sup>But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, then the first one is to keep silent.

<sup>31</sup>For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted;

<sup>32</sup>and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets;

<sup>33</sup>for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup>the women are to keep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but are to subject themselves, just as the Law also says.

<sup>35</sup>If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to speak in church.

<sup>36</sup>Or was it from you that the word of God first went out? Or has it come to you only?

<sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks that he is a prophet or spiritual, let him recognize that the things which I write to you are the Lord's commandment.

<sup>38</sup>But if anyone does not recognize this, he is not recognized.

<sup>39</sup>Therefore, my brothers and sisters, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

<sup>40</sup>But all things must be done properly and in an orderly way.

1 Corinthians 15

The Fact of Christ's Resurrection

<sup>1</sup>Now I make known to you, brothers and sisters, the gospel which I preached to you, which you also received, in which you also stand,

<sup>2</sup>by which you also are saved, if you hold firmly to the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.

<sup>3</sup>For I handed down to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,

<sup>4</sup>and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

<sup>5</sup>and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

<sup>6</sup>After that He appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep;

<sup>7</sup>then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles;

<sup>8</sup>and last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared to me also.

<sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

<sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I labored even more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

<sup>11</sup>Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

<sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised;

<sup>14</sup>and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, your faith also is in vain.

<sup>15</sup>Moreover, we are even found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised.

<sup>16</sup>For if the dead are not raised, then not even Christ has been raised;

<sup>17</sup>and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins.

<sup>18</sup>Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

<sup>19</sup>If we have hoped in Christ only in this life, we are of all people most to be pitied.

The Order of Resurrection

<sup>20</sup>But the fact is, Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep.

<sup>21</sup>For since by a man death came, by a Man also came the resurrection of the dead.

<sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

<sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, after that those who are Christ's at His coming,

<sup>24</sup>then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to our God and Father, when He has abolished all rule and all authority and power.

<sup>25</sup>For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

<sup>26</sup>The last enemy that will be abolished is death.

<sup>27</sup>For HE HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET. But when He says, “All things are put in subjection,” it is clear that this excludes the Father who put all things in subjection to Him.

<sup>28</sup>When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subjected to the One who subjected all things to Him, so that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup>For otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

<sup>30</sup>Why are we also in danger every hour?

<sup>31</sup>I affirm, brothers and sisters, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, that I die daily.

<sup>32</sup>If from human motives I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what good is it to me? If the dead are not raised, LET’S EAT AND DRINK, FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.

<sup>34</sup>Sober up morally and stop sinning, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup>But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?”

<sup>36</sup>You fool! That which you sow does not come to life unless it dies;

<sup>37</sup>and that which you sow, you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of something else.

<sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body just as He wished, and to each of the seeds a body of its own.

<sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of mankind, another flesh of animals, another flesh of birds, and another of fish.

<sup>40</sup>There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

<sup>41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

<sup>42</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown a perishable body, it is raised an imperishable body;

<sup>43</sup>it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

<sup>44</sup>it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup>So also it is written: “The first MAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING PERSON.” The last Adam was a life-giving spirit.

<sup>48</sup>As is the earthy one, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly One, so also are those who are heavenly.

<sup>49</sup>Just as we have borne the image of the earthy, we will also bear the image of the heavenly.

The Mystery of Resurrection

<sup>50</sup>Now I say this, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

<sup>51</sup>Behold, I am telling you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

<sup>53</sup>For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.

<sup>54</sup>But when this perishable puts on the imperishable, and this mortal puts on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written: “DEATH HAS BEEN SWALLOWED UP in victory.

<sup>55</sup>WHERE, O DEATH, IS YOUR VICTORY? WHERE, O DEATH, IS YOUR STING?”

<sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Law;

<sup>57</sup>but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 16

Instructions and Greetings

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you are to do as well.

<sup>2</sup>On the first day of every week, each of you is to put aside and save as he may prosper, so that no collections need to be made when I come.

<sup>3</sup>When I arrive, whomever you approve, I will send them with letters to take your gift to Jerusalem;

<sup>4</sup>and if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me.

<sup>5</sup>But I will come to you after I go through Macedonia; for I am going through Macedonia, <sup>6</sup>and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way wherever I go.

<sup>7</sup>For I do not want to see you now just in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord permits.

<sup>8</sup>But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost;

<sup>9</sup>for a wide door for effective service has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

<sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy comes, see that he has no reason to be afraid while among you, for he is doing the Lord's work, as I also am.

<sup>11</sup>So do not look down on him, anyone. But send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup>Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now, but he will come when he has the opportunity.

<sup>14</sup>All that you do must be done in love.

<sup>15</sup>Now I urge you, brothers and sisters: you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to ministry to the saints;

<sup>16</sup>I urge that you also be subject to such as these and to everyone who helps in the work and labors.

<sup>17</sup>I rejoice over the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because they have supplied what was lacking on your part.

<sup>18</sup>For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men.

<sup>24</sup>My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Timothy, To the church of God which is at Corinth with all the saints who are throughout Achaia:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>who comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

<sup>5</sup>For just as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ.

<sup>6</sup>But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer;

<sup>7</sup>and our hope for you is firmly grounded, knowing that as you are partners in our sufferings, so also you are in our comfort.

<sup>8</sup>For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our affliction which occurred in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life.

<sup>9</sup>Indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead,

<sup>10</sup>who rescued us from so great a danger of death, and will rescue us, He on whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us, <sup>11</sup>if you also join in helping us through your prayers, so that thanks may be given by many persons in our behalf for the favor granted to us through the prayers of many.

Paul's Integrity

<sup>12</sup>For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

<sup>13</sup>For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand until the end;

<sup>14</sup>just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason to be proud as you also are ours, on the day of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>In this confidence I intended at first to come to you, so that you might twice receive a blessing;

<sup>16</sup>that is, to pass your way into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be helped on my journey to Judea.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, I was not vacillating when I intended to do this, was I? Or what I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, so that with me there will be yes, yes and no, no at the same time?

<sup>18</sup>But as God is faithful, our word to you is not yes and no.

<sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not yes and no, but has been yes in Him.

<sup>20</sup>For as many as the promises of God are, in Him they are yes; therefore through Him also is our Amen to the glory of God through us.

<sup>21</sup>Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God, <sup>22</sup>who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

<sup>23</sup>But I call God as witness to my soul, that it was to spare you that I did not come again to Corinth.

<sup>24</sup>Not that we domineer over your faith, but we are workers with you for your joy; for in your faith you are standing firm.

2 Corinthians 2

Reaffirm Your Love

<sup>1</sup>But I decided this for my own sake, that I would not come to you in sorrow again.

<sup>2</sup>For if I cause you sorrow, who then will be the one making me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

<sup>3</sup>This is the very thing I wrote you, so that when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice; having confidence in you all that my joy was the joy of you all.

<sup>4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not so that you would be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.

<sup>5</sup>But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not for me, but in some degree—not to say too much—for all of you.

<sup>6</sup>Sufficient for such a person is this punishment which was imposed by the majority, <sup>7</sup>so that on the other hand, you should rather forgive and comfort him, otherwise such a person might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup>For to this end I also wrote, so that I might put you to the test, whether you are obedient in all things.

<sup>10</sup>But one whom you forgive anything, I also forgive; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did so for your sakes in the presence of Christ,

<sup>11</sup>so that no advantage would be taken of us by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup>Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ and when a door was opened for me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup>I had no rest for my spirit, not finding Titus my brother; but saying goodbye to them, I went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us reveals the fragrance of the knowledge of Him in every place.

<sup>15</sup>For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing:

<sup>16</sup>to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is adequate for these things?

<sup>17</sup>For we are not like the many, peddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in Christ in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians 3

Ministers of a New Covenant

<sup>1</sup>Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, letters of commendation to you or from you?

<sup>2</sup>You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all people,

<sup>3</sup>revealing yourselves, that you are a letter of Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

<sup>4</sup>Such is the confidence we have toward God through Christ.

<sup>5</sup>Not that we are adequate in ourselves so as to consider anything as having come from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God,

<sup>6</sup>who also made us adequate as servants of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

<sup>7</sup>But if the ministry of death, engraved in letters on stones, came with glory so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was,

<sup>8</sup>how will the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?

<sup>9</sup>For if the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness excel in glory.

<sup>10</sup>For indeed what had glory in this case has no glory, because of the glory that surpasses it.

<sup>11</sup>For if that which fades away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, having such a hope, we use great boldness in our speech,

<sup>13</sup>and we are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not stare at the end of what was fading away.

<sup>15</sup>But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts;

<sup>17</sup>Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

<sup>18</sup>But we all, with unveiled faces, looking as in a mirror at the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4

Paul's Apostolic Ministry

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, since we have this ministry, as we received mercy, we do not lose heart,

<sup>2</sup>but we have renounced the things hidden because of shame, not walking in trickery nor distorting the word of God, but by the open proclamation of the truth commending ourselves to every person's conscience in the sight of God.

<sup>3</sup>And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing,

<sup>4</sup>in whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they will not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

<sup>5</sup>For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants on account of Jesus.

<sup>6</sup>For God, who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the Light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in earthen containers, so that the extraordinary greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves;

<sup>8</sup>we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;

<sup>9</sup>persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed;

<sup>10</sup>always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

<sup>11</sup>For we who live are constantly being handed over to death because of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal flesh.

<sup>12</sup>So death works in us, but life in you.

<sup>13</sup>But having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written: "I BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE," we also believe, therefore we also speak,

<sup>14</sup>knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus, and will present us with you.

<sup>15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, so that grace, having spread to more and more people, will cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer person is decaying, yet our inner person is being renewed day by day.

<sup>17</sup>For our momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison,

2 Corinthians 5

The Temporal and Eternal

<sup>1</sup>For we know that if our earthly tent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made by hands, eternal in the heavens.

<sup>2</sup>For indeed, in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling from heaven, <sup>3</sup>since in fact after putting it on, we will not be found naked.

<sup>4</sup>For indeed, we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal will be swallowed up by life.

<sup>5</sup>Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Spirit as a pledge.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—

<sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight—

<sup>8</sup>but we are of good courage and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore we also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him.

<sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive compensation for his deeds done through the body, in accordance with what he has done, whether good or bad.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade people, but we are well known to God; and I hope that we are also well known in your consciences.

<sup>12</sup>We are not commending ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you will have an answer for those who take pride in appearance and not in heart.

<sup>13</sup>For if we have lost our minds, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

<sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died;

<sup>15</sup>and He died for all, so that those who live would no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose on their behalf.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore from now on we recognize no one by the flesh; even though we have known Christ by the flesh, yet now we know Him in this way no longer.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore if anyone is in Christ, this person is a new creation; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.

<sup>18</sup>Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation,

<sup>19</sup>namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their wrongdoings against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

<sup>21</sup>He made Him who knew no sin to be sin in our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

2 Corinthians 6

Their Ministry Commended

<sup>1</sup>And working together with Him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain—

<sup>2</sup>for He says, “AT A FAVORABLE TIME I LISTENED TO YOU, AND ON A DAY OF SALVATION I HELPED YOU.” Behold, now is “A FAVORABLE TIME,” behold, now is “A DAY OF SALVATION”—

<sup>3</sup>giving no reason for taking offense in anything, so that the ministry will not be discredited,

<sup>4</sup>but in everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in difficulties,

<sup>6</sup>in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love,

<sup>7</sup>in the word of truth, and in the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left,

<sup>8</sup>by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; regarded as deceivers and yet true;

<sup>9</sup>as unknown and yet well known, as dying and yet behold, we are alive; as punished and yet not put to death,

<sup>10</sup>as sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>Our mouth has spoken freely to you, you Corinthians, our heart is opened wide.

<sup>12</sup>You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained in your own affections.

<sup>13</sup>Now in the same way in exchange—I am speaking as to children—open wide your hearts to us, you as well.

<sup>14</sup>Do not be mismatched with unbelievers; for what do righteousness and lawlessness share together, or what does light have in common with darkness?

<sup>15</sup>Or what harmony does Christ have with Belial, or what does a believer share with an unbeliever?

<sup>16</sup>Or what agreement does the temple of God have with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; just as God said, “I WILL DWELL AMONG THEM AND WALK AMONG THEM; AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

<sup>17</sup>“Therefore, COME OUT FROM THEIR MIDST AND BE SEPARATE,” says the Lord. “AND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN; And I will welcome you.

<sup>18</sup>“And I will be a father to you, And you shall be sons and daughters to Me,” Says the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians 7

Paul Reveals His Heart

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let's cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

<sup>2</sup>Make room for us in your hearts; we have wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

<sup>3</sup>I do not speak to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

<sup>4</sup>My confidence in you is great; my boasting in your behalf is great. I am filled with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.

<sup>5</sup>For even when we came into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were afflicted on every side: conflicts on the outside, fears inside.

<sup>6</sup>But God, who comforts the discouraged, comforted us by the arrival of Titus;

<sup>7</sup>and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted among you, as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced even more.

<sup>8</sup>For though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—

<sup>9</sup>I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.

<sup>10</sup>For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

<sup>11</sup>For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what punishment of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

<sup>12</sup>So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but that your earnestness in our behalf might be made known to you in the sight of God.

<sup>13</sup>Because of this, we have been comforted. And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

<sup>14</sup>For if I have boasted to him about you regarding anything, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus proved to be the truth.

<sup>15</sup>His affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling.

<sup>16</sup>I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8

Great Generosity

<sup>1</sup>Now, brothers and sisters, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Macedonia,

<sup>3</sup>For I testify that according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they gave voluntarily,

<sup>4</sup>begging us with much urging for the favor of participation in the support of the saints,

<sup>5</sup>and this, not as we had expected, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

<sup>6</sup>So we urged Titus that as he had previously made a beginning, so he would also complete in you this gracious work as well.

<sup>7</sup>But just as you excel in everything, in faith, speaking, knowledge, and in all earnestness and in the love we inspired in you, see that you also excel in this gracious work.

<sup>8</sup>I am not saying this as a command, but as proving, through the earnestness of others, the sincerity of your love as well.

<sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.

<sup>10</sup>I give my opinion in this matter, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.

<sup>11</sup>But now finish doing it also, so that just as there was the willingness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability.

<sup>12</sup>For if the willingness is present, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.

<sup>13</sup>For this is not for the relief of others and for your hardship, but by way of equality—

<sup>14</sup>at this present time your abundance will serve as assistance for their need, so that their abundance also may serve as assistance for your need, so that there may be equality;

<sup>15</sup>as it is written: “THE ONE WHO HAD GATHERED MUCH DID NOT HAVE TOO MUCH, AND THE ONE WHO HAD GATHERED LITTLE DID NOT HAVE TOO LITTLE.”

<sup>16</sup>But thanks be to God who puts the same earnestness in your behalf in the heart of Titus.

<sup>17</sup>For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord.

<sup>18</sup>We have sent along with him the brother whose fame in the things of the gospel has spread through all the churches;

<sup>19</sup>and not only that, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work, which is being administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our readiness,

<sup>20</sup>taking precaution so that no one will discredit us in our administration of this generous gift;

<sup>21</sup>for we have regard for what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of other people.

<sup>22</sup>We have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found diligent in many things, but now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you.

<sup>23</sup>As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, a glory to Christ.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, openly before the churches, show them the proof of your love and of our reason for boasting about you.

2 Corinthians 9

God Gives Most

<sup>1</sup>For it is superfluous for me to write to you about this ministry to the saints;

<sup>2</sup>for I know your willingness, of which I boast about you to the Macedonians, namely, that Achaia has been prepared since last year, and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

<sup>3</sup>But I have sent the brothers, in order that our boasting about you may not prove empty in this case, so that, as I was saying, you will be prepared;

<sup>4</sup>otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be put to shame by this confidence.

<sup>5</sup>So I considered it necessary to urge the brothers that they go on ahead to you and arrange in advance your previously promised generous gift, that the same would be ready as a generous gift, and not as one grudgingly given due to greediness.

<sup>6</sup>Now I say this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows generously will also reap generously.

<sup>7</sup>Each one must do just as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

<sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that, always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed;

<sup>10</sup>Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness;

<sup>11</sup>you will be enriched in everything for all liberality, which through us is producing thanksgiving to God.

<sup>12</sup>For the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing through many thanksgivings to God.

<sup>13</sup>Because of the proof given by this ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all,

<sup>14</sup>while they also, by prayer on your behalf, yearn for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

<sup>15</sup>Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

2 Corinthians 10

Paul Confronts the Corinthians

<sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, myself urge you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who am meek when face to face with you, but bold toward you when absent!

<sup>2</sup>I ask that when I am present I need not be bold with the confidence with which I intend to be courageous against some, who regard us as if we walked according to the flesh.

<sup>3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage battle according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.

<sup>5</sup>We are destroying arguments and all arrogance raised against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ, <sup>6</sup>and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.

<sup>7</sup>You are looking at things as they are outwardly. If anyone is confident in himself that he is Christ's, have him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Christ's, so too are we.

<sup>8</sup>For if I boast somewhat more about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be put to shame,

<sup>9</sup>for I do not want to seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.

<sup>10</sup>For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his personal presence is unimpressive and his speech contemptible."

<sup>11</sup>Have such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such persons we are also in deed when present.

<sup>12</sup>For we do not presume to rank or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they have no understanding.

<sup>13</sup>But we will not boast beyond our measure, but within the measure of the domain which God assigned to us as a measure, to reach even as far as you.

<sup>14</sup>For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for we were the first to come even as far as you in the gospel of Christ;

<sup>15</sup>not boasting beyond our measure, that is, in other people's labors, but with the hope that as your faith grows, we will be, within our domain, enlarged even more by you,

<sup>16</sup>so as to preach the gospel even to the regions beyond you, and not to boast in what has been accomplished in the domain of another.

<sup>17</sup>But THE ONE WHO BOASTS IS TO BOAST IN THE LORD.

<sup>18</sup>For it is not the one who commends himself that is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

2 Corinthians 11

Paul Defends His Apostleship

<sup>1</sup>I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me.

<sup>2</sup>For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

<sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his trickery, your minds will be led astray from sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

<sup>4</sup>For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, this you tolerate very well!

<sup>5</sup>For I consider myself not in the least inferior to the most eminent apostles.

<sup>6</sup>But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in knowledge; in fact, in every way we have made this evident to you in all things.

<sup>7</sup>Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without charge?

<sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches by taking wages from them to serve you;

<sup>9</sup>and when I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden to anyone; for when the brothers came from Macedonia they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and will continue to do so.

<sup>10</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.

<sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows that I do!

<sup>12</sup>But what I am doing I will also continue to do, so that I may eliminate the opportunity from those who want an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting.

<sup>13</sup>For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their deeds.

<sup>16</sup>Again I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, receive me even as foolish, so that I also may boast a little.

<sup>17</sup>What I am saying, I am not saying as the Lord would, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.

<sup>18</sup>Since many boast according to the flesh, I will boast also.

<sup>20</sup>For you tolerate it if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours you, if anyone takes advantage of you, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone hits you in the face.

<sup>21</sup>To my shame I must say that we have been weak by comparison. But in whatever respect anyone else is bold—I am speaking in foolishness—I too am bold.

<sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

<sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ?—I am speaking as if insane—I more so; in far more labors, in far more imprisonments, beaten times without number, often in danger of death.

<sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent adrift at sea.

<sup>26</sup>I have been on frequent journeys, in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my countrymen, dangers from the Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the wilderness, dangers at sea, dangers among false brothers;

<sup>27</sup>I have been in labor and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure.

<sup>28</sup>Apart from such external things, there is the daily pressure on me of concern for all the churches.

<sup>29</sup>Who is weak without my being weak? Who is led into sin without my intense concern?

<sup>30</sup>If I have to boast, I will boast of what pertains to my weakness.

<sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, He who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.

<sup>32</sup>In Damascus the ethnarch under Aretas the king was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me, <sup>33</sup>and I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and so escaped his hands.

2 Corinthians 12

Paul's Vision

<sup>1</sup>Boasting is necessary, though it is not beneficial; but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ, who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a man was caught up to the third heaven.

<sup>3</sup>And I know how such a man—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows—

<sup>4</sup>was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which a man is not permitted to speak.

<sup>5</sup>In behalf of such a man I will boast; but in my own behalf I will not boast, except regarding my weaknesses.

<sup>6</sup>For if I do wish to boast I will not be foolish, for I will be speaking the truth; but I refrain from this, so that no one will credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me.

A Thorn in the Flesh

<sup>7</sup>Because of the extraordinary greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from exalting myself!

<sup>8</sup>Concerning this I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might leave me.

<sup>9</sup>And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.” Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in difficulties, in behalf of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

<sup>11</sup>I have become foolish; you yourselves compelled me. Actually I should have been commended by you, since I was in no respect inferior to the most eminent apostles, even though I am a nobody.

<sup>12</sup>The distinguishing marks of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, by signs, wonders, and miracles.

<sup>13</sup>For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not become a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

<sup>14</sup>Here for this third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you; for children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

<sup>15</sup>I will most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

<sup>16</sup>But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself; nevertheless, devious person that I am, I took you in by deceit.

<sup>17</sup>Certainly I have not taken advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you, have I?

<sup>18</sup>I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take any advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit and walk in the same steps?

<sup>19</sup>All this time you have been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. Actually, it is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ; and all for building you up, beloved.

<sup>20</sup>For I am afraid that perhaps when I come I may find you to be not what I wish, and may be found by you to be not what you wish; that perhaps there will be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, selfishness, slanders, gossip, arrogance, disturbances;

<sup>21</sup>I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have sinned in the past and not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and indecent behavior which they have practiced.

2 Corinthians 13

Examine Yourself

<sup>1</sup>This is the third time that I am coming to you. ON THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY MATTER SHALL BE CONFIRMED.

<sup>2</sup>I have previously said when I was present the second time, and though now absent I say in advance to those who have sinned in the past and to all the rest as well, that if I come again I will not spare anyone, <sup>3</sup>since you are seeking proof of the Christ who speaks in me, who is not weak toward you, but mighty in you.

<sup>4</sup>For indeed He was crucified because of weakness, yet He lives because of the power of God. For we too are weak in Him, yet we will live with Him because of the power of God directed toward you.

<sup>5</sup>Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you fail the test?

<sup>6</sup>But I expect that you will realize that we ourselves do not fail the test.

<sup>7</sup>Now we pray to God that you do nothing wrong; not so that we ourselves may appear approved, but that you may do what is right, though we may appear unapproved.

<sup>8</sup>For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

<sup>9</sup>For we rejoice when we ourselves are weak, but you are strong; this we also pray for, that you become mature.

<sup>10</sup>For this reason I am writing these things while absent, so that when present I need not use severity, in accordance with the authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice, mend your ways, be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>14</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Galatians

Galatians 1

Introduction

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle (not sent from men nor through human agency, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead),
<sup>2</sup>and all the brothers who are with me, To the churches of Galatia:
<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
<sup>4</sup>who gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
<sup>5</sup>to whom be the glory forevermore. Amen.

Distortion of the Gospel

<sup>6</sup>I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel,
<sup>7</sup>which is not just another account; but there are some who are disturbing you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.
<sup>8</sup>But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed!
<sup>9</sup>As we have said before, even now I say again: if anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, he is to be accursed!
<sup>10</sup>For am I now seeking the favor of people, or of God? Or am I striving to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.

Paul Defends His Ministry

<sup>11</sup>For I would have you know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel which was preached by me is not of human invention.
<sup>12</sup>For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup>For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism, how I used to persecute the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it;

<sup>14</sup>and I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my ancestral traditions.

<sup>15</sup>But when He who had set me apart even from my mother's womb and called me through His grace was pleased

<sup>16</sup>to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,

<sup>17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went away to Arabia, and returned once more to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Cephas, and stayed with him for fifteen days.

<sup>20</sup>(Now in what I am writing to you, I assure you before God that I am not lying.)

<sup>22</sup>I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea which are in Christ;

<sup>23</sup>but they only kept hearing, "The man who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith which he once tried to destroy."

<sup>24</sup>And they were glorifying God because of me.

Galatians 2

The Council at Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup>Then after an interval of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along also.

<sup>2</sup>It was because of a revelation that I went up; and I submitted to them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but I did so in private to those who were of reputation, for fear that somehow I might be running, or had run, in vain.

<sup>3</sup>But not even Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

<sup>4</sup>Yet it was a concern because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who had sneaked in to spy on our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to enslave us.

<sup>5</sup>But we did not yield in subjection to them, even for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

<sup>6</sup>But from those who were of considerable repute (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no favoritism)—well, those who were of repute contributed nothing to me.

<sup>7</sup>But on the contrary, seeing that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised

<sup>8</sup>(for He who was at work for Peter in his apostleship to the circumcised was at work for me also to the Gentiles),

<sup>9</sup>and recognizing the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we might go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.

<sup>10</sup>They only asked us to remember the poor—the very thing I also was eager to do.

Peter (Cephas) Opposed by Paul

<sup>11</sup>But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

<sup>12</sup>For prior to the coming of some men from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and separate himself, fearing those from the circumcision.

<sup>13</sup>The rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in the presence of all, "If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how is it that you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?

<sup>15</sup>"We are Jews by nature and not sinners from the Gentiles;

<sup>16</sup>nevertheless, knowing that a person is not justified by works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law; since by works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

<sup>17</sup>But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have also been found sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Far from it!

<sup>18</sup>For if I rebuild what I have once destroyed, I prove myself to be a wrongdoer.

<sup>19</sup>For through the Law I died to the Law, so that I might live for God.

<sup>20</sup>I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

<sup>21</sup>I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

Galatians 3

Faith Brings Righteousness

<sup>1</sup> You foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified?

<sup>2</sup>This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did you receive the Spirit by works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?

<sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?

<sup>4</sup>Did you suffer so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

<sup>5</sup>So then, does He who provides you with the Spirit and works miracles among you, do it by works of the Law, or by hearing with faith?

<sup>6</sup>Just as Abraham BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, recognize that it is those who are of faith who are sons of Abraham.

<sup>8</sup>The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, “ALL THE NATIONS WILL BE BLESSED IN YOU.”

<sup>9</sup>So then, those who are of faith are blessed with Abraham, the believer.

<sup>10</sup>For all who are of works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written: “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THE THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO DO THEM.”

<sup>11</sup>Now, that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, “THE RIGHTEOUS ONE WILL LIVE BY FAITH.”

<sup>12</sup>However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary, “THE PERSON WHO PERFORMS THEM WILL LIVE BY THEM.”

<sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written: “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON A TREE”—

<sup>14</sup>in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham would come to the Gentiles, so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Intent of the Law

<sup>15</sup>Brothers and sisters, I speak in terms of human relations: even though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds conditions to it.

<sup>16</sup>Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as one would in referring to many, but rather as in referring to one, "And to your seed," that is, Christ.

<sup>17</sup>What I am saying is this: the Law, which came 430 years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

<sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.

<sup>19</sup>Why the Law then? It was added on account of the violations, having been ordered through angels at the hand of a mediator, until the Seed would come to whom the promise had been made.

<sup>20</sup>Now a mediator is not for one party only; but God is only one.

<sup>21</sup>Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? Far from it! For if a law had been given that was able to impart life, then righteousness would indeed have been based on law.

<sup>22</sup>But the Scripture has confined everyone under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

<sup>23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the Law, being confined for the faith that was destined to be revealed.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore the Law has become our guardian to lead us to Christ, so that we may be justified by faith.

<sup>25</sup>But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

<sup>26</sup>For you are all sons and daughters of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

<sup>28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

<sup>29</sup>And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise.

Galatians 4

Sonship in Christ

<sup>1</sup>Now I say, as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave, although he is owner of everything, <sup>2</sup>but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father.

<sup>3</sup>So we too, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elementary principles of the world.

<sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of the time came, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, <sup>5</sup>so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as sons and daughters.

<sup>6</sup>Because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba! Father!"

<sup>7</sup>Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

<sup>8</sup>However at that time, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those which by nature are not gods.

<sup>9</sup>But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles, to which you want to be enslaved all over again?

<sup>10</sup>You meticulously observe days and months and seasons and years.

<sup>11</sup>I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain.

<sup>12</sup>I beg of you, brothers and sisters, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong;

<sup>13</sup>but you know that it was because of a bodily illness that I preached the gospel to you the first time;

<sup>14</sup>and you did not despise that which was a trial to you in my bodily condition, nor express contempt, but you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus Himself.

<sup>15</sup>Where then is that sense of blessing you had? For I testify about you that, if possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.

<sup>16</sup>So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup>They eagerly seek you, not in a commendable way, but they want to shut you out so that you will seek them.

<sup>18</sup>But it is good always to be eagerly sought in a commendable way, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>19</sup>My children, with whom I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you—

<sup>20</sup>but I could wish to be present with you now and to change my tone of voice, for I am at a loss about you!

Slave and Free

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not listen to the Law?

<sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman.

<sup>23</sup>But the son by the slave woman was born according to the flesh, and the son by the free woman through the promise.

<sup>29</sup>But as at that time the son who was born according to the flesh persecuted the one who was born according to the Spirit, so it is even now.

<sup>30</sup>But what does the Scripture say? “DRIVE OUT THE SLAVE WOMAN AND HER SON, FOR THE SON OF THE SLAVE WOMAN SHALL NOT BE AN HEIR WITH THE SON OF THE FREE WOMAN.”

<sup>31</sup>So then, brothers and sisters, we are not children of a slave woman, but of the free woman.

Galatians 5

Follow the Spirit

<sup>1</sup>It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup>Look! I, Paul, tell you that if you have yourselves circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

<sup>3</sup>And I testify again to every man who has himself circumcised, that he is obligated to keep the whole Law.

<sup>4</sup>You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by the Law; you have fallen from grace.

<sup>5</sup>For we, through the Spirit, by faith, are waiting for the hope of righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but faith working through love.

<sup>7</sup>You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

<sup>8</sup>This persuasion did not come from Him who calls you.

<sup>10</sup>I have confidence in you in the Lord, that you will adopt no other view; but the one who is disturbing you will bear the punishment, whoever he is.

<sup>11</sup>But as for me, brothers and sisters, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been eliminated.

<sup>12</sup>I wish that those who are troubling you would even emasculate themselves.

<sup>13</sup>For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but serve one another through love.

<sup>14</sup>For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

<sup>15</sup>But if you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup>But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh.

<sup>17</sup>For the desire of the flesh is against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, in order to keep you from doing whatever you want.

<sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

<sup>21</sup>envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

<sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let's follow the Spirit as well.

<sup>26</sup>Let's not become boastful, challenging one another, envying one another.

Galatians 6

Bear One Another's Burdens

<sup>1</sup>Brothers and sisters, even if a person is caught in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual are to restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you are not tempted as well.

<sup>3</sup>For if anyone thinks that he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

<sup>4</sup>But each one must examine his own work, and then he will have reason for boasting, but to himself alone, and not to another.

<sup>6</sup>The one who is taught the word is to share all good things with the one who teaches him.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a person sows, this he will also reap.

<sup>8</sup>For the one who sows to his own flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>Let's not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time we will reap, if we do not become weary.

<sup>10</sup>So then, while we have opportunity, let's do good to all people, and especially to those who are of the household of the faith.

<sup>11</sup>See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand!

<sup>12</sup>All who want to make a good showing in the flesh try to compel you to be circumcised, simply so that they will not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>For those who are circumcised do not even keep the Law themselves, but they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh.

<sup>14</sup>But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

<sup>16</sup>And all who will follow this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup>From now on let no one cause trouble for me, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

Ephesians 1

The Blessings of Redemption

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are at Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,

<sup>4</sup>just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. In love

<sup>5</sup>He predestined us to adoption as sons and daughters through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will,

<sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of His grace, with which He favored us in the Beloved.

<sup>7</sup>In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our wrongdoings, according to the riches of His grace

<sup>8</sup>which He lavished on us. In all wisdom and insight

<sup>9</sup>He made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He set forth in Him,

<sup>10</sup>regarding His plan of the fullness of the times, to bring all things together in Christ, things in the heavens and things on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>In Him we also have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things in accordance with the plan of His will,

<sup>12</sup>to the end that we who were the first to hope in the Christ would be to the praise of His glory.

<sup>13</sup>In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of the promise, <sup>14</sup>who is a first installment of our inheritance, in regard to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of His glory.

<sup>15</sup>For this reason I too, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you and your love for all the saints,

<sup>16</sup>do not cease giving thanks for you, while making mention of you in my prayers;

<sup>17</sup>that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him.

<sup>18</sup>I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

<sup>19</sup>and what is the boundless greatness of His power toward us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of the strength of His might

<sup>20</sup>which He brought about in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup>far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

<sup>22</sup>And He put all things in subjection under His feet, and made Him head over all things to the church,

<sup>23</sup>which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 2

Made Alive in Christ

<sup>2</sup>in which you previously walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience.

<sup>3</sup>Among them we too all previously lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the rest.

<sup>4</sup>But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us,

<sup>5</sup>even when we were dead in our wrongdoings, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved),

<sup>6</sup>and raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

<sup>7</sup>so that in the ages to come He might show the boundless riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>For by grace you have been saved through faith; and this is not of yourselves, it is the gift of God;

<sup>9</sup>not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

<sup>10</sup>For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore remember that previously you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “Uncircumcision” by the so-called “Circumcision” which is performed in the flesh by human hands—

<sup>12</sup>remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, excluded from the people of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

<sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who previously were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>For He Himself is our peace, who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall,

<sup>15</sup>by abolishing in His flesh the hostility, which is the Law composed of commandments expressed in ordinances, so that in Himself He might make the two one new person, in this way establishing peace;

<sup>16</sup>and that He might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by it having put to death the hostility.

<sup>17</sup>And He came and preached peace to you who were far away, and peace to those who were near;

<sup>18</sup>for through Him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.

<sup>19</sup>So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and are of God's household,

<sup>20</sup>having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus Himself being the cornerstone,

<sup>21</sup>in whom the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple in the Lord,

<sup>22</sup>in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling of God in the Spirit.

Ephesians 3

Paul's Stewardship

<sup>1</sup>For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

<sup>2</sup>if indeed you have heard of the administration of God's grace which was given to me for you;

<sup>3</sup>that by revelation there was made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before briefly.

<sup>4</sup>By referring to this, when you read you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ,

<sup>5</sup>which in other generations was not made known to mankind, as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit;

<sup>6</sup>to be specific, that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel,

<sup>7</sup>of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of God's grace which was given to me according to the working of His power.

<sup>8</sup>To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ,

<sup>9</sup>and to enlighten all people as to what the plan of the mystery is which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things;

<sup>10</sup>so that the multifaceted wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places.

<sup>11</sup>This was in accordance with the eternal purpose which He carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I ask you not to become discouraged about my tribulations in your behalf, since they are your glory.

<sup>14</sup>For this reason I bend my knees before the Father,

<sup>15</sup>from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name,

<sup>16</sup>that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner self,

<sup>17</sup>so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love,

<sup>18</sup>may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and height and depth,

<sup>19</sup>and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled to all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us,

<sup>21</sup>to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4

Unity of the Spirit

<sup>1</sup>Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called,

<sup>3</sup>being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

<sup>4</sup>There is one body and one Spirit, just as you also were called in one hope of your calling;

<sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all.

<sup>7</sup>But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore it says, "WHEN HE ASCENDED ON HIGH, HE LED CAPTIVE THE CAPTIVES, AND HE GAVE GIFTS TO PEOPLE."

<sup>9</sup>(Now this expression, "He ascended," what does it mean except that He also had descended into the lower parts of the earth?

<sup>10</sup>He who descended is Himself also He who ascended far above all the heavens, so that He might fill all things.)

<sup>11</sup>And He gave some as apostles, some as prophets, some as evangelists, some as pastors and teachers,

<sup>12</sup>for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the building up of the body of Christ;

<sup>13</sup>until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of people, by craftiness in deceitful scheming;

<sup>15</sup>but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, that is, Christ,

<sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

The Christian's Walk

<sup>17</sup>So I say this, and affirm in the Lord, that you are to no longer walk just as the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their minds,

<sup>18</sup>being darkened in their understanding, excluded from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart;

<sup>19</sup>and they, having become callous, have given themselves up to indecent behavior for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

<sup>20</sup>But you did not learn Christ in this way,

<sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught in Him, just as truth is in Jesus,

<sup>22</sup>that, in reference to your former way of life, you are to rid yourselves of the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit,

<sup>23</sup>and that you are to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

<sup>24</sup>and to put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

<sup>26</sup>BE ANGRY, AND YET DO NOT SIN; do not let the sun go down on your anger,

<sup>28</sup>The one who steals must no longer steal; but rather he must labor, producing with his own hands what is good, so that he will have something to share with the one who has need.

<sup>29</sup>Let no unwholesome word come out of your mouth, but if there is any good word for edification according to the need of the moment, say that, so that it will give grace to those who hear.

<sup>30</sup>Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup>All bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and slander must be removed from you, along with all malice.

<sup>32</sup>Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Ephesians 5

Be Imitators of God

<sup>2</sup>and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma.

<sup>3</sup>But sexual immorality or any impurity or greed must not even be mentioned among you, as is proper among saints;

<sup>4</sup>and there must be no filthiness or foolish talk, or vulgar joking, which are not fitting, but rather giving of thanks.

<sup>5</sup>For this you know with certainty, that no sexually immoral or impure or greedy person, which amounts to an idolater, has an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

<sup>6</sup> See that no one deceives you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.

<sup>8</sup>for you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as children of light

<sup>9</sup>(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness, and truth),

<sup>11</sup>Do not participate in the useless deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them;

<sup>12</sup>for it is disgraceful even to speak of the things which are done by them in secret.

<sup>13</sup>But all things become visible when they are exposed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light.

<sup>14</sup>For this reason it says, “Awake, sleeper, And arise from the dead, And Christ will shine on you.”

<sup>15</sup>So then, be careful how you walk, not as unwise people but as wise, <sup>16</sup>making the most of your time, because the days are evil.

<sup>18</sup>And do not get drunk with wine, in which there is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit,

<sup>19</sup>speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your hearts to the Lord;

<sup>20</sup>always giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to our God and Father;

<sup>21</sup>and subject yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ.

Marriage like Christ and the Church

<sup>22</sup>Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord.

<sup>23</sup>For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body.

<sup>24</sup>But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her,

<sup>26</sup>so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word,

<sup>27</sup>that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless.

<sup>28</sup>So husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself;

<sup>29</sup>for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church,

<sup>32</sup>This mystery is great; but I am speaking with reference to Christ and the church.

<sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, as for you individually, each husband is to love his own wife the same as himself, and the wife must see to it that she respects her husband.

Ephesians 6

Children and Parents

<sup>3</sup>SO THAT IT MAY TURN OUT WELL FOR YOU, AND THAT YOU MAY LIVE LONG ON THE EARTH.

<sup>4</sup>Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart, as to Christ;

<sup>6</sup>not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

<sup>7</sup>With goodwill render service, as to the Lord, and not to people, <sup>8</sup>knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive this back from the Lord, whether slave or free.

<sup>9</sup>And masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with Him.

The Armor of God

<sup>10</sup>Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might.

<sup>11</sup>Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil.

<sup>12</sup>For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you will be able to resist on the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.

<sup>14</sup>Stand firm therefore, having belted your waist with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

<sup>15</sup>and having strapped on your feet the preparation of the gospel of peace;

<sup>16</sup>in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

<sup>17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup>With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be alert with all perseverance and every request for all the saints,

<sup>19</sup>and pray in my behalf, that speech may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,

<sup>20</sup>for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in proclaiming it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>21</sup>Now, so that you also may know about my circumstances as to what I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make everything known to you.

<sup>22</sup>I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know about us, and that he may comfort your hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Peace be to the brothers and sisters, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup>Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love.

Philippians

Philippians 1

Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy, bond-servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, including the overseers and deacons:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God in all my remembrance of you,

<sup>4</sup>always offering prayer with joy in my every prayer for you all,

<sup>6</sup>For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work among you will complete it by the day of Christ Jesus.

<sup>7</sup>For it is only right for me to feel this way about you all, because I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of grace with me.

<sup>8</sup>For God is my witness, how I long for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>And this I pray, that your love may overflow still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment,

<sup>10</sup>so that you may discover the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and blameless for the day of Christ;

<sup>11</sup>having been filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, for the glory and praise of God.

The Gospel Is Preached

<sup>12</sup>Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that my circumstances have turned out for the greater progress of the gospel,

<sup>13</sup>so that my imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well known throughout the praetorian guard and to everyone else,

<sup>14</sup>and that most of the brothers and sisters, trusting in the Lord because of my imprisonment, have far more courage to speak the word of God without fear.

<sup>15</sup>Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ even from envy and strife, but some also from goodwill;

<sup>16</sup>the latter do it out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel;

<sup>17</sup>the former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition rather than from pure motives, thinking that they are causing me distress in my imprisonment.

<sup>18</sup>What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. But not only that, I also will rejoice,

<sup>19</sup>for I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

<sup>20</sup>according to my eager expectation and hope, that I will not be put to shame in anything, but that with all boldness, Christ will even now, as always, be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

To Live Is Christ

<sup>21</sup>For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

<sup>22</sup>But if I am to live on in the flesh, this will mean fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which to choose.

<sup>23</sup>But I am hard-pressed from both directions, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very much better;

<sup>24</sup>yet to remain on in the flesh is more necessary for your sakes.

<sup>25</sup>Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup>so that your pride in Christ Jesus may be abundant because of me by my coming to you again.

<sup>27</sup>Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or remain absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

<sup>28</sup>and in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a sign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and this too, from God.

<sup>29</sup>For to you it has been granted for Christ’s sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on His behalf, <sup>30</sup>experiencing the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Philippians 2

Be like Christ

<sup>1</sup>Therefore if there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, <sup>2</sup>make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.

<sup>3</sup>Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility consider one another as more important than yourselves;

<sup>4</sup>do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others.

<sup>5</sup>Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus,

<sup>6</sup>who, as He already existed in the form of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

<sup>7</sup>but emptied Himself by taking the form of a bond-servant and being born in the likeness of men.

<sup>8</sup>And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death: death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>For this reason also God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name,

<sup>10</sup>so that at the name of Jesus EVERY KNEE WILL BOW, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup>and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup>So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

<sup>13</sup>for it is God who is at work in you, both to desire and to work for His good pleasure.

<sup>14</sup>Do all things without complaining or arguments;

<sup>15</sup>so that you will prove yourselves to be blameless and innocent, children of God above reproach in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you appear as lights in the world,

<sup>16</sup>holding firmly the word of life, so that on the day of Christ I can take pride because I did not run in vain nor labor in vain.

<sup>17</sup>But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all.

<sup>18</sup>You too, I urge you, rejoice in the same way and share your joy with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

<sup>19</sup>But I hope, in the Lord Jesus, to send Timothy to you shortly, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your condition.

<sup>20</sup>For I have no one else of kindred spirit who will genuinely be concerned for your welfare.

<sup>21</sup>For they all seek after their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>But you know of his proven character, that he served with me in the furtherance of the gospel like a child serving his father.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me;

<sup>24</sup>and I trust in the Lord that I myself will also be coming shortly.

<sup>25</sup>But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger and minister to my need, <sup>26</sup>because he was longing for you all and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

<sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick to the point of death, but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore I have sent him all the more eagerly, so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.

<sup>29</sup>Receive him then in the Lord with all joy, and hold people like him in high regard, <sup>30</sup>because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to compensate for your absence in your service to me.

Philippians 3

The Goal of Life

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things again is no trouble for me, and it is a safeguard for you.

<sup>2</sup>Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision;

<sup>3</sup>for we are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and take pride in Christ Jesus, and put no confidence in the flesh,

<sup>4</sup>although I myself could boast as having confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he is confident in the flesh, I have more reason:

<sup>5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the Law, a Pharisee;

<sup>6</sup>as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to the righteousness which is in the Law, found blameless.

<sup>7</sup>But whatever things were gain to me, these things I have counted as loss because of Christ.

<sup>8</sup>More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them mere rubbish, so that I may gain Christ,

<sup>9</sup>and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith,

<sup>10</sup>that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death;

<sup>11</sup>if somehow I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>12</sup>Not that I have already grasped it all or have already become perfect, but I press on if I may also take hold of that for which I was even taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Brothers and sisters, I do not regard myself as having taken hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead,

<sup>14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, all who are mature, let's have this attitude; and if in anything you have a different attitude, God will reveal that to you as well;

<sup>16</sup>however, let's keep living by that same standard to which we have attained.

<sup>17</sup>Brothers and sisters, join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.

<sup>18</sup>For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even as I weep, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ, <sup>19</sup>whose end is destruction, whose god is their appetite, and whose glory is in their shame, who have their minds on earthly things.

<sup>20</sup>For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

<sup>21</sup>who will transform the body of our lowly condition into conformity with His glorious body, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself.

Philippians 4

Think of Excellence

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, whom I long to see, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

<sup>2</sup>I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to live in harmony in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, true companion, I ask you also, help these women who have shared my struggle in the cause of the gospel, together with Clement as well as the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.

<sup>4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!

<sup>5</sup>Let your gentle spirit be known to all people. The Lord is near.

<sup>6</sup>Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and pleading with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

<sup>7</sup>And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

commendable, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

<sup>9</sup>As for the things you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

God's Provisions

<sup>10</sup>But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned before, but you lacked an opportunity to act.

<sup>11</sup>Not that I speak from need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am.

<sup>12</sup>I know how to get along with little, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need.

<sup>13</sup>I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, you have done well to share with me in my difficulty.

<sup>16</sup>for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs.

<sup>17</sup>Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek the profit which increases to your account.

<sup>18</sup>But I have received everything in full and have an abundance; I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you have sent, a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.

<sup>19</sup>And my God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

<sup>20</sup>Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>21</sup>Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you.

Colossians

Colossians 1

Thankfulness for Spiritual Attainments

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup>To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ who are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

<sup>4</sup>since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love which you have for all the saints;

<sup>5</sup>because of the hope reserved for you in heaven, of which you previously heard in the word of truth, the gospel

<sup>6</sup>which has come to you, just as in all the world also it is bearing fruit and increasing, even as it has been doing in you also since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth;

<sup>7</sup>just as you learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,

<sup>8</sup>and he also informed us of your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>For this reason we also, since the day we heard about it, have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,

<sup>10</sup>so that you will walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God;

<sup>11</sup>strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for the attaining of all perseverance and patience; joyously

<sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

The Incomparable Christ

<sup>13</sup> For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation:

<sup>16</sup>for by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him.

<sup>17</sup>He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

<sup>18</sup>He is also the head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

<sup>19</sup>For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, <sup>20</sup>and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross.

<sup>21</sup>And although you were previously alienated and hostile in attitude, engaged in evil deeds,

<sup>22</sup>yet He has now reconciled you in His body of flesh through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach—

<sup>23</sup>if indeed you continue in the faith firmly established and steadfast, and not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, was made a minister.

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am supplementing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions in behalf of His body, which is the church.

<sup>25</sup>I was made a minister of this church according to the commission from God granted to me for your benefit, so that I might fully carry out the preaching of the word of God,

<sup>26</sup>that is, the mystery which had been hidden from the past ages and generations, but now has been revealed to His saints,

<sup>27</sup>to whom God willed to make known what the wealth of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles is, the mystery that is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

<sup>28</sup>We proclaim Him, admonishing every person and teaching every person with all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete in Christ.

<sup>29</sup>For this purpose I also labor, striving according to His power which works mightily within me.

Colossians 2

You Are Built Up in Christ

<sup>1</sup>For I want you to know how great a struggle I have in your behalf and for those who are at Laodicea, and for all those who have not personally seen my face,

<sup>2</sup>that their hearts may be encouraged, having been knit together in love, and that they would attain to all the wealth that comes from the full assurance of understanding, resulting in a true knowledge of God's mystery, that is, Christ Himself,

<sup>4</sup>I say this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive arguments.

<sup>5</sup>For even though I am absent in body, I am nevertheless with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your orderly manner and the stability of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, <sup>7</sup>having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude.

<sup>8</sup>See to it that there is no one who takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception in accordance with human tradition, in accordance with the elementary principles of the world, rather than in accordance with Christ.

<sup>10</sup>and in Him you have been made complete, and He is the head over every ruler and authority;

<sup>11</sup>and in Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision performed without hands, in the removal of the body of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ,

<sup>12</sup>having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.

<sup>13</sup>And when you were dead in your wrongdoings and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our wrongdoings,

<sup>14</sup>having canceled the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

<sup>15</sup>When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public display of them, having triumphed over them through Him.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, no one is to act as your judge in regard to food and drink, or in respect to a festival or a new moon, or a Sabbath day—

<sup>17</sup>things which are only a shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ.

<sup>18</sup>Take care that no one keeps defrauding you of your prize by delighting in humility and the worship of the angels, taking his stand on visions he has seen, inflated without cause by his fleshly mind,

<sup>19</sup>and not holding firmly to the head, from whom the entire body, being supplied and held together by the joints and ligaments, grows with a growth which is from God.

<sup>20</sup>If you have died with Christ to the elementary principles of the world, why, as if you were living in the world, do you submit yourself to decrees, such as,

<sup>22</sup>(which all refer to things destined to perish with use)—in accordance with the commandments and teachings of man?

<sup>23</sup>These are matters which do have the appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and humility and severe treatment of the body, but are of no value against fleshly indulgence.

Colossians 3

Put On the New Self

<sup>2</sup>Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth.

<sup>3</sup>For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

<sup>4</sup>When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, treat the parts of your earthly body as dead to sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry.

<sup>6</sup>For it is because of these things that the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, <sup>7</sup>and in them you also once walked, when you were living in them.

<sup>8</sup>But now you also, rid yourselves of all of them: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene speech from your mouth.

<sup>9</sup>Do not lie to one another, since you stripped off the old self with its evil practices,

<sup>10</sup>and have put on the new self, which is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created it—

<sup>11</sup>a renewal in which there is no distinction between Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, and free, but Christ is all, and in all.

<sup>12</sup>So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience;

<sup>13</sup>bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so must you do also.

<sup>14</sup>In addition to all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond of unity.

<sup>15</sup>Let the peace of Christ, to which you were indeed called in one body, rule in your hearts; and be thankful.

<sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

<sup>17</sup>Whatever you do in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father.

Family Relations

<sup>18</sup>Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>Fathers, do not antagonize your children, so that they will not become discouraged.

<sup>23</sup>Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord and not for people, <sup>24</sup>knowing that it is from the Lord that you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve.

<sup>25</sup>For the one who does wrong will receive the consequences of the wrong which he has done, and that without partiality.

Colossians 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters, grant your slaves justice and fairness, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

<sup>3</sup>praying at the same time for us as well, that God will open up to us a door for the word, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I have also been imprisoned;

<sup>4</sup>that I may make it clear in the way that I ought to proclaim it.

<sup>5</sup> Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity.

<sup>6</sup> Your speech must always be with grace, as though seasoned with salt, so that you will know how you should respond to each person.

<sup>7</sup> As to all my affairs, Tychicus, our beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow bond-servant in the Lord, will bring you information.

<sup>8</sup> For I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts;

<sup>9</sup> and with him is Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of your own. They will inform you about the whole situation here.

<sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, sends you his greetings; and also Barnabas' cousin Mark (about whom you received instructions; if he comes to you, welcome him);

<sup>11</sup> and also Jesus who is called Justus; these are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are from the circumcision, and they have proved to be an encouragement to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of your own, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings, always striving earnestly for you in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.

<sup>13</sup> For I testify for him that he has a deep concern for you and for those who are in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, sends you his greetings, and Demas does also.

<sup>15</sup> Greet the brothers and sisters who are in Laodicea and also Nympha and the church that is in her house.

<sup>16</sup> When this letter is read among you, have it also read in the church of the Laodiceans; and you, for your part, read my letter that is coming from Laodicea.

<sup>17</sup>Tell Archippus, “See to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, so that you may fulfill it.”

<sup>18</sup>I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my imprisonment. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 1

Giving Thanks for These Believers

<sup>1</sup>Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

<sup>2</sup>We always give thanks to God for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers;

<sup>3</sup>constantly keeping in mind your work of faith and labor of love and perseverance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father,

<sup>4</sup>knowing, brothers and sisters, beloved by God, His choice of you;

<sup>5</sup>for our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sakes.

<sup>6</sup>You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word during great affliction with the joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup>so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia.

<sup>8</sup>For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place the news of your faith toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything.

<sup>9</sup>For they themselves report about us as to the kind of reception we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, <sup>10</sup>and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, that is, Jesus who rescues us from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians 2

Paul's Ministry

<sup>1</sup>For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our reception among you was not in vain,

<sup>2</sup>but after we had already suffered and been treated abusively in Philippi, as you know, we had the boldness in our God to speak to you the gospel of God amid much opposition.

<sup>3</sup>For our exhortation does not come from error or impurity or by way of deceit;

<sup>4</sup>but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not intending to please people, but to please God, who examines our hearts.

<sup>5</sup>For we never came with flattering speech, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is our witness—

<sup>6</sup>nor did we seek honor from people, either from you or from others, though we could have asserted our authority as apostles of Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we proved to be gentle among you. As a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children, <sup>8</sup>in the same way we had a fond affection for you and were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, because you had become very dear to us.

<sup>9</sup>For you recall, brothers and sisters, our labor and hardship: it was by working night and day so as not to be a burden to any of you, that we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

<sup>10</sup>You are witnesses, and so is God, of how devoutly and rightly and blamelessly we behaved toward you believers;

<sup>11</sup>just as you know how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you as a father would his own children,

<sup>12</sup>so that you would walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>For this reason we also constantly thank God that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of mere men, but as what it really is, the word of God, which also is at work in you who believe.

<sup>14</sup>For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews,

<sup>15</sup>who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out. They are not pleasing to God, but hostile to all people,

<sup>16</sup>hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved; with the result that they always reach the limit of their sins. But wrath has come upon them fully.

<sup>17</sup>But we, brothers and sisters, having been orphaned from you by absence for a short while—in person, not in spirit—were all the more eager with great desire to see your face.

<sup>18</sup>For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—and Satan hindered us.

<sup>19</sup>For who is our hope, or joy or crown of pride, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? Or is it not indeed you?

<sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3

Encouragement of Timothy's Visit

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it best to be left behind, alone at Athens,

<sup>2</sup>and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you for the benefit of your faith, <sup>3</sup>so that no one would be disturbed by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we have been destined for this.

<sup>4</sup>For even when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; and so it happened, as you know.

<sup>5</sup>For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I also sent to find out about your faith, for fear that the tempter might have tempted you, and our labor would be for nothing.

<sup>6</sup>But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always think kindly of us, longing to see us just as we also long to see you,

<sup>7</sup>for this reason, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith;

<sup>8</sup>for now we really live, if you stand firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>For what thanks can we give to God for you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice because of you before our God, <sup>10</sup>as we keep praying most earnestly night and day that we may see your faces, and may complete what is lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup>Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you;

<sup>12</sup>and may the Lord cause you to increase and overflow in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you;

<sup>13</sup>so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

1 Thessalonians 4

Sanctification and Love

<sup>1</sup>Finally then, brothers and sisters, we request and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received instruction from us as to how you ought to walk and please God (just as you actually do walk), that you excel even more.

<sup>2</sup>For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality;

<sup>4</sup>that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

<sup>5</sup>not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God;

<sup>6</sup>and that no one violate the rights and take advantage of his brother or sister in the matter, because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also told you previously and solemnly warned you.

<sup>7</sup>For God has not called us for impurity, but in sanctification.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup>Now as to the love of the brothers and sisters, you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another;

<sup>10</sup>for indeed you practice it toward all the brothers and sisters who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers and sisters, to excel even more,

<sup>11</sup>and to make it your ambition to lead a quiet life and attend to your own business and work with your hands, just as we instructed you,

<sup>12</sup>so that you will behave properly toward outsiders and not be in any need.

Those Who Died in Christ

<sup>13</sup>But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve as indeed the rest of mankind do, who have no hope.

<sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose from the dead, so also God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>For we say this to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will not precede those who have fallen asleep.

<sup>16</sup>For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

<sup>17</sup>Then we who are alive, who remain, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, comfort one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5

The Day of the LORD

<sup>1</sup>Now as to the periods and times, brothers and sisters, you have no need of anything to be written to you.

<sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know full well that the day of the Lord is coming just like a thief in the night.

<sup>3</sup>While they are saying, “Peace and safety!” then sudden destruction will come upon them like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

<sup>4</sup>But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, so that the day would overtake you like a thief;

<sup>5</sup>for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of darkness;

<sup>6</sup>so then, let’s not sleep as others do, but let’s be alert and sober.

<sup>7</sup>For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who are drunk, get drunk at night.

<sup>8</sup>But since we are of the day, let's be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation.

<sup>9</sup>For God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we will live together with Him.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, encourage one another and build one another up, just as you also are doing.

Christian Conduct

<sup>12</sup>But we ask you, brothers and sisters, to recognize those who diligently labor among you and are in leadership over you in the Lord, and give you instruction,

<sup>13</sup>and that you regard them very highly in love because of their work. Live in peace with one another.

<sup>14</sup>We urge you, brothers and sisters, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

<sup>15</sup>See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek what is good for one another and for all people.

<sup>18</sup>in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>Do not quench the Spirit,

<sup>20</sup>do not utterly reject prophecies,

<sup>23</sup>Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept complete, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup>Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will do it.

<sup>27</sup>I put you under oath by the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>28</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians 1

Giving Thanks for Faith and Perseverance

<sup>1</sup>Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is only fitting, because your faith is increasing abundantly, and the love of each and every one of you toward one another grows ever greater.

<sup>4</sup>As a result, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.

<sup>5</sup>This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you will be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you indeed are suffering.

<sup>6</sup>For after all it is only right for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

<sup>7</sup>and to give relief to you who are afflicted, along with us, when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels

<sup>8</sup>in flaming fire, dealing out retribution to those who do not know God, and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>These people will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, <sup>10</sup>when He comes to be glorified among His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed—because our testimony to you was believed.

<sup>11</sup>To this end also we pray for you always, that our God will consider you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire for goodness and the work of faith with power,

<sup>12</sup>so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you, and you in Him, in accordance with the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2

Man of Lawlessness

<sup>1</sup>Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, regarding the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him,

<sup>2</sup>that you not be quickly shaken from your composure or be disturbed either by a spirit, or a message, or a letter as if from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

<sup>3</sup>No one is to deceive you in any way! For it will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, <sup>4</sup>who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.

<sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that while I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

<sup>6</sup>And you know what restrains him now, so that he will be revealed in his time.

<sup>7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is removed.

<sup>8</sup>Then that lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will eliminate with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of His coming;

<sup>9</sup>that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and false signs and wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not accept the love of the truth so as to be saved.

<sup>11</sup>For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, <sup>12</sup>in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness.

Stand Firm

<sup>13</sup>But we should always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

<sup>14</sup>It was for this He called you through our gospel, that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup>So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by letter from us.

<sup>16</sup>Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us eternal comfort and good hope by grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 3

Request for Prayer

<sup>1</sup>Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it was also with you;

<sup>2</sup>and that we will be rescued from troublesome and evil people; for not all have the faith.

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.

<sup>4</sup>We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing, and will do, what we command.

<sup>5</sup>May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the perseverance of Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from every brother or sister who leads a disorderly life and not one in accordance with the tradition which you received from us.

<sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example, because we did not act in an undisciplined way among you,

<sup>8</sup>nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with labor and hardship we kept working night and day so that we would not be a burden to any of you;

<sup>9</sup>not because we do not have the right to this, but in order to offer ourselves as a role model for you, so that you would follow our example.

<sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we used to give you this order: if anyone is not willing to work, then he is not to eat, either.

<sup>11</sup>For we hear that some among you are leading an undisciplined life, doing no work at all, but acting like busybodies.

<sup>12</sup>Now we command and exhort such persons in the Lord Jesus Christ to work peacefully and eat their own bread.

<sup>13</sup>But as for you, brothers and sisters, do not grow weary of doing good.

<sup>14</sup>If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take special note of that person so as not to associate with him, so that he will be put to shame.

<sup>15</sup>And yet do not regard that person as an enemy, but admonish that one as a brother or sister.

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace Himself continually grant you peace in every circumstance. The Lord be with you all!

<sup>17</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, and this is a distinguishing mark in every letter; this is the way I write.

<sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1 Timothy 1

Correcting False Teaching

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and of Christ Jesus, who is our hope,

<sup>2</sup>To Timothy, my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Just as I urged you upon my departure for Macedonia, to remain on at Ephesus so that you would instruct certain people not to teach strange doctrines, <sup>4</sup>nor to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give rise to useless speculation rather than advance the plan of God, which is by faith, so I urge you now.

<sup>6</sup>Some people have strayed from these things and have turned aside to fruitless discussion, <sup>7</sup>wanting to be teachers of the Law, even though they do not understand either what they are saying or the matters about which they make confident assertions.

<sup>8</sup>But we know that the Law is good, if one uses it lawfully,

<sup>9</sup>realizing the fact that law is not made for a righteous person but for those who are lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and worldly, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

<sup>10</sup>for the sexually immoral, homosexuals, slave traders, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound teaching,

<sup>11</sup>according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

Paul's Testimony

<sup>12</sup>I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into service,

<sup>13</sup>even though I was previously a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent aggressor. Yet I was shown mercy because I acted ignorantly in unbelief;

<sup>14</sup>and the grace of our Lord was more than abundant, with the faith and love which are found in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost.

<sup>16</sup>Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost sinner Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you fight the good fight, <sup>19</sup>keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith.

<sup>20</sup>Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they will be taught not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy 2

A Call to Prayer

<sup>1</sup>First of all, then, I urge that requests, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made in behalf of all people, <sup>2</sup>for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

<sup>4</sup>who wants all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

<sup>5</sup>For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and mankind, the Man Christ Jesus,

<sup>7</sup>For this I was appointed as a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), as a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Instructions for Believers

<sup>8</sup>Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and dispute.

<sup>9</sup>Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves with proper clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or expensive apparel, <sup>10</sup>but rather by means of good works, as is proper for women making a claim to godliness.

<sup>12</sup>But I do not allow a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.

<sup>13</sup>For it was Adam who was first created, and then Eve.

<sup>14</sup>And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a wrongdoer.

<sup>15</sup>But women will be preserved through childbirth—if they continue in faith, love, and sanctity, with moderation.

1 Timothy 3

Overseers and Deacons

<sup>1</sup>It is a trustworthy statement: if any man aspires to the office of overseer, it is a fine work he desires to do.

<sup>2</sup>An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, skillful in teaching, <sup>3</sup>not overindulging in wine, not a bully, but gentle, not contentious, free from the love of money.

<sup>4</sup>He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity

<sup>5</sup>(but if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?), <sup>6</sup>and not a new convert, so that he will not become conceited and fall into condemnation incurred by the devil.

<sup>7</sup>And he must have a good reputation with those outside the church, so that he will not fall into disgrace and the snare of the devil.

<sup>8</sup>Deacons likewise must be men of dignity, not insincere, not prone to drink much wine, not greedy for money,

<sup>10</sup>These men must also first be tested; then have them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach.

<sup>11</sup>Women must likewise be dignified, not malicious gossips, but temperate, faithful in all things.

<sup>13</sup>For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you before long;

<sup>15</sup>but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one should act in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.

<sup>16</sup>Beyond question, great is the mystery of godliness: He who was revealed in the flesh, Was vindicated in the Spirit, Seen by angels, Proclaimed among the nations, Believed on in the world, Taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4

Abandonment of Faith

<sup>1</sup>But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons,

<sup>2</sup>by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron,

<sup>3</sup>who forbid marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be gratefully shared in by those who believe and know the truth.

<sup>4</sup>For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude;

<sup>5</sup>for it is sanctified by means of the word of God and prayer.

A Good Minister's Discipline

<sup>6</sup>In pointing out these things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, constantly nourished on the words of the faith and of the good doctrine which you have been following.

<sup>7</sup>But stay away from worthless stories that are typical of old women. Rather, discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness;

<sup>8</sup>for bodily training is just slightly beneficial, but godliness is beneficial for all things, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come.

<sup>10</sup>For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all mankind, especially of believers.

<sup>13</sup>Until I come, give your attention to the public reading, to exhortation, and teaching.

<sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, which was granted to you through words of prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.

<sup>15</sup>Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that your progress will be evident to all.

<sup>16</sup>Pay close attention to yourself and to the teaching; persevere in these things, for as you do this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

1 Timothy 5

Honor Widows

<sup>1</sup>Do not sharply rebuke an older man, but rather appeal to him as a father, and to the younger men as brothers,

<sup>2</sup>to the older women as mothers, and to the younger women as sisters, in all purity.

<sup>4</sup>but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to show proper respect for their own family and to give back compensation to their parents; for this is acceptable in the sight of God.

<sup>5</sup>Now she who is actually a widow and has been left alone has set her hope on God, and she continues in requests and prayers night and day.

<sup>6</sup>But she who indulges herself in luxury is dead, even while she lives.

<sup>8</sup>But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

<sup>9</sup>A widow is to be put on the list only if she is not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one man,

<sup>10</sup>having a reputation for good works; and if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has assisted those in distress, and if she has devoted herself to every good work.

<sup>11</sup>But refuse to register younger widows, for when they feel physical desires alienating them from Christ, they want to get married,

<sup>13</sup>At the same time they also learn to be idle, as they go around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also they become gossips and busybodies, talking about things not proper to mention.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, I want younger widows to get married, have children, manage their households, and give the enemy no opportunity for reproach;

<sup>15</sup>for some have already turned away to follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If any woman who is a believer has dependent widows, she must assist them and the church must not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are actually widows.

Concerning Elders

<sup>17</sup>The elders who lead well are to be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching.

<sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, "YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE IT IS THRESHING," and "The laborer is worthy of his wages."

<sup>19</sup>Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the basis of two or three witnesses.

<sup>20</sup>Those who continue in sin, rebuke in the presence of all, so that the rest also will be fearful of sinning.

<sup>21</sup>I solemnly exhort you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels, to maintain these principles without bias, doing nothing in a spirit of partiality.

<sup>22</sup>Do not lay hands upon anyone too quickly and thereby share responsibility for the sins of others; keep yourself free from sin.

<sup>23</sup>Do not go on drinking only water, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

<sup>25</sup>Likewise also, deeds that are good are quite evident, and those which are otherwise cannot be concealed.

1 Timothy 6

Instructions to Those Who Minister

<sup>1</sup>All who are under the yoke as slaves are to regard their own masters as worthy of all honor so that the name of God and our doctrine will not be spoken against.

<sup>2</sup>Those who have believers as their masters must not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers or sisters, but must serve them all the more, because those who partake of the benefit are believers and beloved. Teach and preach these principles.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone advocates a different doctrine and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine conforming to godliness,

<sup>4</sup>he is conceited and understands nothing; but he has a sick craving for controversial questions and disputes about words, from which come envy, strife, abusive language, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>and constant friction between people of depraved mind and deprived of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.

<sup>7</sup>For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it, either.

<sup>8</sup>If we have food and covering, with these we shall be content.

<sup>9</sup>But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap, and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge people into ruin and destruction.

<sup>10</sup>For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

<sup>11</sup>But flee from these things, you man of God, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness.

<sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

<sup>13</sup>I direct you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,

<sup>14</sup>that you keep the commandment without fault or reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

<sup>15</sup>which He will bring about at the proper time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

<sup>16</sup>who alone possesses immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy.

<sup>18</sup>Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, <sup>19</sup>storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

<sup>20</sup>Timothy, protect what has been entrusted to you, avoiding worldly, empty chatter and the opposing arguments of what is falsely called “knowledge”—

<sup>21</sup>which some have professed and thereby have gone astray from the faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

2 Timothy 1

Timothy Charged to Guard His Trust

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life in Christ Jesus,

<sup>2</sup>To Timothy, my beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day, <sup>4</sup>longing to see you, even as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

<sup>5</sup>For I am mindful of the sincere faith within you, which first dwelled in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well.

<sup>6</sup>For this reason I remind you to kindle afresh the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

<sup>7</sup>For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God,

<sup>9</sup>who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, which was granted to us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,

<sup>10</sup>but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,

<sup>11</sup>for which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher.

<sup>12</sup>For this reason I also suffer these things; but I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that He is able to protect what I have entrusted to Him until that day.

<sup>13</sup>Hold on to the example of sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>Protect, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure which has been entrusted to you.

<sup>15</sup>You are aware of the fact that all who are in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains;

<sup>17</sup>but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me—

<sup>18</sup>the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on that day—and you know very well what services he rendered at Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2

Be Strong

<sup>1</sup>You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful people who will be able to teach others also.

<sup>4</sup>No soldier in active service entangles himself in the affairs of everyday life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him.

<sup>5</sup>And if someone likewise competes as an athlete, he is not crowned as victor unless he competes according to the rules.

<sup>6</sup>The hard-working farmer ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.

<sup>7</sup>Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

<sup>8</sup>Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descendant of David, according to my gospel, <sup>9</sup>for which I suffer hardship even to imprisonment as a criminal; but the word of God is not imprisoned.

<sup>10</sup>For this reason I endure all things for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it eternal glory.

<sup>11</sup>The statement is trustworthy: For if we died with Him, we will also live with Him;

<sup>12</sup>If we endure, we will also reign with Him; If we deny Him, He will also deny us;

<sup>13</sup>If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

An Unashamed Worker

<sup>14</sup>Remind them of these things, and solemnly exhort them in the presence of God not to dispute about words, which is useless and leads to the ruin of the listeners.

<sup>15</sup>Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a worker who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.

<sup>16</sup>But avoid worldly and empty chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness,

<sup>17</sup>and their talk will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup>men who have gone astray from the truth, claiming that the resurrection has already taken place; and they are jeopardizing the faith of some.

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His;" and, "Everyone who names the name of the Lord is to keep away from wickedness."

<sup>20</sup>Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver implements, but also implements of wood and of earthenware, and some are for honor while others are for dishonor.

<sup>22</sup>Now flee from youthful lusts and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

<sup>24</sup>The Lord's bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, skillful in teaching, patient when wronged,

<sup>25</sup>with gentleness correcting those who are in opposition, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth,

<sup>26</sup>and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

2 Timothy 3

Difficult Times Will Come

<sup>2</sup>For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, slanderers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

<sup>5</sup>holding to a form of godliness although they have denied its power; avoid such people as these.

<sup>6</sup>For among them are those who slip into households and captivate weak women weighed down with sins, led on by various impulses, <sup>7</sup>always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

<sup>8</sup>Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men of depraved mind, worthless in regard to the faith.

<sup>9</sup>But they will not make further progress; for their foolishness will be obvious to all, just as was that also of Jannes and Jambres.

<sup>10</sup>Now you followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, perseverance, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, and sufferings, such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra; what persecutions I endured, and out of them all the Lord rescued me!

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, all who want to live in a godly way in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

<sup>13</sup>But evil people and impostors will proceed from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

<sup>14</sup>You, however, continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them,

<sup>15</sup>and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>16</sup>All Scripture is inspired by God and beneficial for teaching, for rebuke, for correction, for training in righteousness;

<sup>17</sup>so that the man or woman of God may be fully capable, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 4

Preach the Word

<sup>1</sup>I solemnly exhort you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom:

<sup>2</sup>preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and exhort, with great patience and instruction.

<sup>3</sup>For the time will come when they will not tolerate sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance with their own desires,

<sup>4</sup>and they will turn their ears away from the truth and will turn aside to myths.

<sup>5</sup>But as for you, use self-restraint in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

<sup>6</sup>For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come.

<sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith;

<sup>8</sup>in the future there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Personal Concerns

<sup>9</sup>Make every effort to come to me soon;

<sup>10</sup>for Demas, having loved this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take along Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service.

<sup>13</sup>When you come, bring the overcoat which I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>15</sup>Be on guard against him yourself too, for he vigorously opposed our teaching.

<sup>16</sup>At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me; may it not be counted against them.

<sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fully accomplished, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was rescued out of the lion's mouth.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed, and will bring me safely to His heavenly kingdom; to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

Titus 1

Salutation

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a bond-servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of those chosen of God and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness,

<sup>2</sup>in the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago,

<sup>3</sup>but at the proper time revealed His word in the proclamation with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior;

<sup>4</sup>To Titus, my true son in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Qualifications of Elders

<sup>5</sup>For this reason I left you in Crete, that you would set in order what remains and appoint elders in every city as I directed you,

<sup>6</sup>namely, if any man is beyond reproach, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of indecent behavior or rebellion.

<sup>7</sup>For the overseer must be beyond reproach as God's steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not overindulging in wine, not a bully, not greedy for money,

<sup>8</sup>but hospitable, loving what is good, self-controlled, righteous, holy, disciplined,

<sup>9</sup>holding firmly the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, so that he will be able both to exhort in sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict it.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup>who must be silenced because they are upsetting whole families, teaching things they should not teach for the sake of dishonest gain.

<sup>13</sup>This testimony is true. For this reason reprimand them severely so that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.

<sup>15</sup>To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

<sup>16</sup>They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

Titus 2

Proclaim Sound Doctrine

<sup>2</sup>Older men are to be temperate, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, in perseverance.

<sup>3</sup>Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good,

<sup>4</sup>so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

<sup>5</sup>to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

<sup>7</sup>in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified, <sup>8</sup>sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

<sup>9</sup> Urge slaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing, not argumentative,

<sup>10</sup>not stealing, but showing all good faith so that they will adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in every respect.

<sup>11</sup>For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people,

<sup>12</sup>instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously, and in a godly manner in the present age,

<sup>13</sup>looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus,

<sup>14</sup>who gave Himself for us to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, eager for good deeds.

<sup>15</sup>These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. No one is to disregard you.

Titus 3

Godly Living

<sup>1</sup>Remind them to be subject to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed,

<sup>2</sup>to slander no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing every consideration for all people.

<sup>3</sup>For we too were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, spending our life in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

<sup>4</sup>But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared,

<sup>5</sup>He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we did in righteousness, but in accordance with His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,

<sup>6</sup>whom He richly poured out upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup>so that being justified by His grace we would be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

<sup>8</sup>This statement is trustworthy; and concerning these things I want you to speak confidently, so that those who have believed God will be careful to engage in good deeds. These things are good and beneficial for people.

<sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about the Law, for they are useless and worthless.

<sup>11</sup>knowing that such a person has deviated from what is right and is sinning, being self-condemned.

Personal Concerns

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup>Diligently help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way so that nothing is lacking for them.

<sup>14</sup>Our people must also learn to engage in good deeds to meet pressing needs, so that they will not be unproductive.

<sup>15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Philemon 1

Salutation

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our beloved brother and fellow worker,

<sup>2</sup>and to Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

<sup>4</sup>I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,

<sup>5</sup>because I hear of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints;

<sup>6</sup>and I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of every good thing which is in you for the sake of Christ.

<sup>7</sup>For I have had great joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, though I have enough confidence in Christ to order you to do what is proper,

<sup>9</sup>yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—since I am such a person as Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—

Plea for Onesimus, a Free Man

<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, whom I fathered in my imprisonment, <sup>11</sup>who previously was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup>I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

<sup>13</sup>whom I wanted to keep with me, so that in your behalf he might be at my service in my imprisonment for the gospel;

<sup>14</sup>but I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion, but of your own free will.

<sup>15</sup>For perhaps it was for this reason that he was separated from you for a while, that you would have him back forever,

<sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>If then you regard me as a partner, accept him as you would me.

<sup>18</sup>But if he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge that to my account;

<sup>19</sup>I, Paul, have written this with my own hand, I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self as well).

<sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, let me benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

<sup>21</sup>Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, since I know that you will do even more than what I say.

<sup>22</sup>At the same time also prepare me a guest room, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given to you.

Hebrews

Hebrews 1

God's Final Word in His Son

<sup>1</sup>God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways,

<sup>2</sup>in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom He also made the world.

<sup>3</sup>And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made purification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, <sup>4</sup>having become so much better than the angels, to the extent that He has inherited a more excellent name than they.

<sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did He ever say, "YOU ARE MY SON, TODAY I HAVE FATHERED YOU"? And again, "I WILL BE A FATHER TO HIM AND HE WILL BE A SON TO ME"?

<sup>6</sup>And when He again brings the firstborn into the world, He says, "AND LET ALL THE ANGELS OF GOD WORSHIP HIM."

<sup>7</sup>And regarding the angels He says, "HE MAKES HIS ANGELS WINDS, AND HIS MINISTERS A FLAME OF FIRE."

<sup>8</sup>But regarding the Son He says, "YOUR THRONE, GOD, IS FOREVER AND EVER, AND THE SCEPTER OF RIGHTEOUSNESS IS THE SCEPTER OF HIS KINGDOM.

<sup>9</sup>"YOU HAVE LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS AND HATED LAWLESSNESS; THEREFORE GOD, YOUR GOD, HAS ANOINTED YOU WITH THE OIL OF JOY ABOVE YOUR COMPANIONS."

<sup>10</sup>And, "YOU, LORD, IN THE BEGINNING LAID THE FOUNDATION OF THE EARTH, AND THE HEAVENS ARE THE WORKS OF YOUR HANDS;

<sup>11</sup>THEY WILL PERISH, BUT YOU REMAIN; AND THEY ALL WILL WEAR OUT LIKE A GARMENT,

<sup>12</sup>AND LIKE A ROBE YOU WILL ROLL THEM UP; LIKE A GARMENT THEY WILL ALSO BE CHANGED. BUT YOU ARE THE SAME, AND YOUR YEARS WILL NOT COME TO AN END.”

<sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels has He ever said, “SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND, UNTIL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR YOUR FEET”?

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to provide service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

Hebrews 2

Pay Attention

<sup>1</sup>For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away from it.

<sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken through angels proved unalterable, and every violation and act of disobedience received a just punishment,

<sup>3</sup>how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? After it was at first spoken through the Lord, it was confirmed to us by those who heard, <sup>4</sup>God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

Earth Subject to Man

<sup>5</sup>For He did not subject to angels the world to come, about which we are speaking.

<sup>6</sup>But someone has testified somewhere, saying, “WHAT IS MAN, THAT YOU THINK OF HIM? OR A SON OF MAN, THAT YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT HIM?

<sup>7</sup>“YOU HAVE MADE HIM FOR A LITTLE WHILE LOWER THAN ANGELS; YOU HAVE CROWNED HIM WITH GLORY AND HONOR; <sup>8</sup>YOU HAVE PUT EVERYTHING IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET.” For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

Jesus Briefly Humbled

<sup>9</sup>But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of His suffering death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone.

<sup>10</sup>For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the originator of their salvation through sufferings.

<sup>11</sup>For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father; for this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

<sup>12</sup>saying, "I WILL PROCLAIM YOUR NAME TO MY BROTHERS, IN THE MIDST OF THE ASSEMBLY I WILL SING YOUR PRAISE."

<sup>13</sup>And again, "I WILL PUT MY TRUST IN HIM." And again, "BEHOLD, I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN ME."

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, so that through death He might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup>and free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.

<sup>16</sup>For clearly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendants of Abraham.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, in all things He had to be made like His brothers so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

<sup>18</sup>For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

Hebrews 3

Jesus Our High Priest

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession: Jesus;

<sup>2</sup>He was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was in all His house.

<sup>3</sup>For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.

<sup>4</sup>For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.

<sup>5</sup>Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken later;

<sup>6</sup>but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house—whose house we are, if we hold firmly to our confidence and the boast of our hope.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

<sup>8</sup>DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME, AS ON THE DAY OF TRIAL IN THE WILDERNESS, <sup>9</sup>WHERE YOUR FATHERS PUT ME to the test, AND SAW MY WORKS FOR FORTY YEARS.

<sup>10</sup>"THEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION, AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART, AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS'; <sup>11</sup>AS I SWORE IN MY ANGER, 'THEY CERTAINLY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.' "

The Danger of Unbelief

<sup>12</sup>Take care, brothers and sisters, that there will not be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from the living God.

<sup>13</sup>But encourage one another every day, as long as it is still called "today," so that none of you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

<sup>14</sup>For we have become partakers of Christ if we keep the beginning of our commitment firm until the end,

<sup>15</sup>while it is said, “TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE, DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS, AS WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME.”

<sup>16</sup>For who provoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, did not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?

<sup>17</sup>And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

<sup>18</sup>And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who were disobedient?

<sup>19</sup>And so we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4

The Believer's Rest

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, we must fear if, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you may seem to have come short of it.

<sup>2</sup>For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also did; but the word they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united with those who listened with faith.

<sup>3</sup>For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said, “AS I SWORE IN MY ANGER, THEY CERTAINLY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST,” although His works were finished from the foundation of the world.

<sup>4</sup>For He has said somewhere concerning the seventh day: “AND GOD RESTED ON THE SEVENTH DAY FROM ALL HIS WORKS”;

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, since it remains for some to enter it, and those who previously had good news preached to them failed to enter because of disobedience,

<sup>7</sup>He again sets a certain day, “Today,” saying through David after so long a time just as has been said before, “TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE, DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS.”

<sup>8</sup>For if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken of another day after that.

<sup>9</sup>Consequently, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

<sup>10</sup>For the one who has entered His rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from His.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore let's make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following the same example of disobedience.

<sup>12</sup>For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, even penetrating as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

<sup>13</sup>And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him to whom we must answer.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let's hold firmly to our confession.

<sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things just as we are, yet without sin.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore let's approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for help at the time of our need.

Hebrews 5

The Perfect High Priest

<sup>1</sup>For every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of people in things pertaining to God, in order to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins;

<sup>2</sup>he can deal gently with the ignorant and misguided, since he himself also is clothed in weakness;

<sup>3</sup>and because of it he is obligated to offer sacrifices for sins for himself, as well as for the people.

<sup>4</sup>And no one takes the honor for himself, but receives it when he is called by God, just as Aaron also was.

<sup>5</sup>So too Christ did not glorify Himself in becoming a high priest, but it was He who said to Him, “YOU ARE MY SON, TODAY I HAVE FATHERED YOU”;

<sup>6</sup>just as He also says in another passage, “YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK.”

<sup>7</sup>In the days of His humanity, He offered up both prayers and pleas with loud crying and tears to the One able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His devout behavior.

<sup>8</sup>Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered.

<sup>9</sup>And having been perfected, He became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey Him, <sup>10</sup>being designated by God as High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup>Concerning him we have much to say, and it is difficult to explain, since you have become poor listeners.

<sup>12</sup>For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you the elementary principles of the actual words of God, and you have come to need milk and not solid food.

<sup>13</sup>For everyone who partakes only of milk is unacquainted with the word of righteousness, for he is an infant.

<sup>14</sup>But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to distinguish between good and evil.

Hebrews 6

The Danger of Falling Away

<sup>1</sup>Therefore leaving the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup>of instruction about washings and laying on of hands, and about the resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.

<sup>3</sup>And this we will do, if God permits.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>5</sup>and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,

<sup>6</sup>and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.

<sup>7</sup>For ground that drinks the rain which often falls on it and produces vegetation useful to those for whose sake it is also tilled, receives a blessing from God;

<sup>8</sup>but if it yields thorns and thistles, it is worthless and close to being cursed, and it ends up being burned.

Better Things for You

<sup>9</sup>But, beloved, we are convinced of better things regarding you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we are speaking in this way.

<sup>10</sup>For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, by having served and by still serving the saints.

<sup>11</sup>And we desire that each one of you demonstrate the same diligence so as to realize the full assurance of hope until the end, <sup>12</sup>so that you will not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and endurance inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup>For when God made the promise to Abraham, since He could swear an oath by no one greater, He swore by Himself,

<sup>14</sup>saying, “INDEED I WILL GREATLY BLESS YOU AND I WILL GREATLY MULTIPLY YOU.”

<sup>15</sup>And so, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise.

<sup>16</sup>For people swear an oath by one greater than themselves, and with them an oath serving as confirmation is an end of every dispute.

<sup>17</sup>In the same way God, desiring even more to demonstrate to the heirs of the promise the fact that His purpose is unchangeable, confirmed it with an oath,

<sup>18</sup>so that by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope set before us.

<sup>19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and reliable and one which enters within the veil,

<sup>20</sup>where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

Melchizedek's Priesthood like Christ's

<sup>1</sup>For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth of all the spoils, was first of all, by the translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

<sup>3</sup>Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.

<sup>4</sup>Now observe how great this man was to whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth of the choicest spoils.

<sup>5</sup>And those indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment in the Law to collect a tenth from the people, that is, from their countrymen, although they are descended from Abraham.

<sup>6</sup>But the one whose genealogy is not traced from them collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.

<sup>7</sup>But without any dispute the lesser person is blessed by the greater.

<sup>8</sup>In this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case one receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives on.

<sup>9</sup>And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, has paid tithes, <sup>10</sup>for he was still in the loins of his forefather when Melchizedek met him.

<sup>11</sup>So if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron?

<sup>12</sup>For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also.

<sup>13</sup>For the one about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.

<sup>14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses said nothing concerning priests.

<sup>15</sup>And this is clearer still, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup>who has become a priest not on the basis of a law of physical requirement, but according to the power of an indestructible life.

<sup>17</sup>For it is attested of Him, “YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK.”

<sup>18</sup>For, on the one hand, there is the nullification of a former commandment because of its weakness and uselessness

<sup>19</sup>(for the Law made nothing perfect); on the other hand, there is the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God.

<sup>20</sup>And to the extent that it was not without an oath

<sup>21</sup>(for they indeed became priests without an oath, but He with an oath through the One who said to Him, “THE LORD HAS SWORN AND WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND, ‘YOU ARE A PRIEST FOREVER’ ”);

<sup>22</sup>by the same extent Jesus also has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

<sup>23</sup>The former priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers because they were prevented by death from continuing;

<sup>24</sup>Jesus, on the other hand, because He continues forever, holds His priesthood permanently.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore He is also able to save forever those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup>For it was fitting for us to have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens;

<sup>27</sup>who has no daily need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people, because He did this once for all time when He offered up Himself.

<sup>28</sup>For the Law appoints men as high priests who are weak, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints a Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8

A Better Ministry

<sup>1</sup>Now the main point in what has been said is this: we have such a high priest, who has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

<sup>2</sup>a minister in the sanctuary and in the true tabernacle, which the Lord set up, not man.

<sup>3</sup>For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

<sup>4</sup>Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Law;

<sup>5</sup>who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned by God when he was about to erect the tabernacle; for, “SEE,” He says, “THAT YOU MAKE all things BY THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN TO YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN.”

<sup>6</sup>But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, to the extent that He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

A New Covenant

<sup>7</sup>For if that first covenant had been free of fault, no circumstances would have been sought for a second.

<sup>8</sup>For in finding fault with the people, He says, “BEHOLD, DAYS ARE COMING, SAYS THE LORD, WHEN I WILL BRING ABOUT A NEW COVENANT WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND THE HOUSE OF JUDAH,

<sup>9</sup>NOT LIKE THE COVENANT WHICH I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS ON THE DAY I TOOK THEM BY THE HAND TO BRING THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT; FOR THEY DID NOT CONTINUE IN MY COVENANT, AND I DID NOT CARE ABOUT THEM, SAYS THE LORD.

<sup>10</sup>“FOR THIS IS THE COVENANT WHICH I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AFTER THOSE DAYS, DECLARES THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR MINDS,

AND WRITE THEM ON THEIR HEARTS. AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

<sup>11</sup>“AND THEY WILL NOT TEACH, EACH ONE HIS FELLOW CITIZEN, AND EACH ONE HIS BROTHER, SAYING, ‘KNOW THE LORD,’ FOR THEY WILL ALL KNOW ME, FROM THE LEAST TO THE GREATEST OF THEM.

<sup>12</sup>“FOR I WILL BE MERCIFUL TOWARD THEIR WRONGDOINGS, AND THEIR SINS I WILL NO LONGER REMEMBER.”

<sup>13</sup>When He said, “A new covenant,” He has made the first obsolete. But whatever is becoming obsolete and growing old is about to disappear.

Hebrews 9

The Old and the New

<sup>2</sup>For a tabernacle was equipped, the outer sanctuary, in which were the lampstand, the table, and the sacred bread; this is called the Holy Place.

<sup>3</sup>Behind the second veil there was a tabernacle which is called the Most Holy Place,

<sup>4</sup>having a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron’s staff which budded, and the tablets of the covenant;

<sup>5</sup>and above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the atoning cover; but about these things we cannot now speak in detail.

<sup>6</sup>Now when these things have been so prepared, the priests are continually entering the outer tabernacle, performing the divine worship, <sup>7</sup>but into the second, only the high priest enters once a year, not without taking blood which he offers for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance.

<sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit is signifying this, that the way into the holy place has not yet been disclosed while the outer tabernacle is still standing,

<sup>9</sup>which is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience, <sup>10</sup>since they relate only to food, drink, and various washings, regulations for the body imposed until a time of reformation.

<sup>11</sup>But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things having come, He entered through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by hands, that is, not of this creation;

<sup>12</sup>and not through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, He entered the holy place once for all time, having obtained eternal redemption.

<sup>13</sup>For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh,

<sup>14</sup>how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

<sup>15</sup>For this reason He is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, since a death has taken place for the redemption of the violations that were committed under the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

<sup>16</sup>For where there is a covenant, there must of necessity be the death of the one who made it.

<sup>17</sup>For a covenant is valid only when people are dead, for it is never in force while the one who made it lives.

<sup>19</sup>For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,

<sup>21</sup>And in the same way he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood.

<sup>22</sup>And almost all things are cleansed with blood, according to the Law, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these things, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

<sup>24</sup>For Christ did not enter a holy place made by hands, a mere copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us;

<sup>25</sup>nor was it that He would offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year by year with blood that is not his own.

<sup>26</sup>Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now once at the consummation of the ages He has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

<sup>27</sup>And just as it is destined for people to die once, and after this comes judgment, <sup>28</sup>so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him.

Hebrews 10

One Sacrifice of Christ Is Sufficient

<sup>1</sup>For the Law, since it has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the form of those things itself, can never, by the same sacrifices which they offer continually every year, make those who approach perfect.

<sup>2</sup>Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have had consciousness of sins?

<sup>3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, when He comes into the world, He says, “YOU HAVE NOT DESIRED SACRIFICE AND OFFERING, BUT YOU HAVE PREPARED A BODY FOR ME;

<sup>6</sup>YOU HAVE NOT TAKEN PLEASURE IN WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND OFFERINGS FOR SIN.

<sup>7</sup>“THEN I SAID, ‘BEHOLD, I HAVE COME (IT IS WRITTEN OF ME IN THE SCROLL OF THE BOOK) TO DO YOUR WILL, O GOD.’ ”

<sup>8</sup>After saying above, “SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND OFFERINGS FOR SIN YOU HAVE NOT DESIRED, NOR HAVE YOU TAKEN PLEASURE IN THEM” (which are offered according to the Law), <sup>9</sup>then He said, “BEHOLD, I HAVE COME TO DO YOUR WILL.” He takes away the first in order to establish the second.

<sup>10</sup>By this will, we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time.

<sup>11</sup>Every priest stands daily ministering and offering time after time the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins;

<sup>12</sup>but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, SAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD,

<sup>14</sup>For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

<sup>15</sup>And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us; for after saying,

<sup>16</sup>“THIS IS THE COVENANT WHICH I WILL MAKE WITH THEM AFTER THOSE DAYS, DECLARES THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEARTS, AND WRITE THEM ON THEIR MIND,” He then says,

<sup>17</sup>“AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR LAWLESS DEEDS I WILL NO LONGER REMEMBER.”

<sup>18</sup>Now where there is forgiveness of these things, an offering for sin is no longer required.

A New and Living Way

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

<sup>20</sup>by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, through His flesh,

<sup>21</sup>and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

<sup>22</sup>let's approach God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

<sup>23</sup>Let's hold firmly to the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful;

<sup>24</sup>and let's consider how to encourage one another in love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup>not abandoning our own meeting together, as is the habit of some people, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.

Christ or Judgment

<sup>26</sup>For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

<sup>27</sup>but a terrifying expectation of judgment and THE FURY OF A FIRE WHICH WILL CONSUME THE ADVERSARIES.

<sup>28</sup>Anyone who has ignored the Law of Moses is put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

<sup>29</sup>How much more severe punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?

<sup>30</sup>For we know Him who said, “VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY.” And again, “THE LORD WILL JUDGE HIS PEOPLE.”

<sup>31</sup>It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup>But remember the former days, when, after being enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings,

<sup>33</sup>partly by being made a public spectacle through insults and distress, and partly by becoming companions with those who were so treated.

<sup>34</sup>For you showed sympathy to the prisoners and accepted joyfully the seizure of your property, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and lasting possession.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

<sup>36</sup>For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

<sup>37</sup>FOR YET IN A VERY LITTLE WHILE, HE WHO IS COMING WILL COME, AND WILL NOT DELAY.

<sup>38</sup>BUT MY RIGHTEOUS ONE WILL LIVE BY FAITH; AND IF HE SHRINKS BACK, MY SOUL HAS NO PLEASURE IN HIM.

<sup>39</sup>But we are not among those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith for the safekeeping of the soul.

Hebrews 11

The Triumphs of Faith

<sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that the world has been created by the word of God so that what is seen has not been made out of things that are visible.

<sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was attested to be righteous, God testifying about his gifts, and through faith, though he is dead, he still speaks.

<sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was taken up so that he would not see death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD TOOK HIM UP; for before he was taken up, he was attested to have been pleasing to God.

<sup>6</sup>And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for the one who comes to God must believe that He exists, and that He proves to be One who rewards those who seek Him.

<sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, being warned by God about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world, and became an heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

<sup>8</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he left, not knowing where he was going.

<sup>9</sup>By faith he lived as a stranger in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, fellow heirs of the same promise;

<sup>10</sup>for he was looking for the city which has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

<sup>11</sup>By faith even Sarah herself received ability to conceive, even beyond the proper time of life, since she considered Him faithful who had promised.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore even from one man, and one who was as good as dead at that, there were born descendants who were just as the stars of heaven in number, and as the innumerable grains of sand along the seashore.

<sup>13</sup>All these died in faith, without receiving the promises, but having seen and welcomed them from a distance, and having confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

<sup>14</sup>For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.

<sup>15</sup>And indeed if they had been thinking of that country which they left, they would have had opportunity to return.

<sup>16</sup>But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for He has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup>By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and the one who had received the promises was offering up his only son;

<sup>18</sup>it was he to whom it was said, "THROUGH ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE NAMED."

<sup>19</sup>He considered that God is able to raise people even from the dead, from which he also received him back as a type.

<sup>20</sup>By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even regarding things to come.

<sup>21</sup>By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

<sup>22</sup>By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the exodus of the sons of Israel, and gave orders concerning his bones.

<sup>23</sup>By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

<sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

<sup>25</sup>choosing rather to endure ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the temporary pleasures of sin,

<sup>26</sup>considering the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the reward.

<sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he persevered, as though seeing Him who is unseen.

<sup>28</sup>By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them.

<sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land; and the Egyptians, when they attempted it, were drowned.

<sup>30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after the Israelites had marched around them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup>By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish along with those who were disobedient, after she had welcomed the spies in peace.

<sup>32</sup>And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets,

<sup>34</sup>quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

<sup>35</sup>Women received back their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not accepting their release, so that they might obtain a better resurrection;

<sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tempted, they were put to death with the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented

<sup>38</sup>(people of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, on mountains, and sheltering in caves and holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup>And all these, having gained approval through their faith, did not receive what was promised,

<sup>40</sup>because God had provided something better for us, so that apart from us they would not be made perfect.

Hebrews 12

Jesus, the Example

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, since we also have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let's rid ourselves of every obstacle and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let's run with endurance the race that is set before us,

<sup>2</sup>looking only at Jesus, the originator and perfecter of the faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

<sup>3</sup>For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

A Father's Discipline

<sup>4</sup>You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin;

<sup>5</sup>and you have forgotten the exhortation which is addressed to you as sons, "MY SON, DO NOT REGARD LIGHTLY THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD, NOR FAINT WHEN YOU ARE PUNISHED BY HIM;

<sup>6</sup>FOR WHOM THE LORD LOVES HE DISCIPLINES, AND HE PUNISHES EVERY SON WHOM HE ACCEPTS."

<sup>7</sup>It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

<sup>8</sup>But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

<sup>9</sup>Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits, and live?

<sup>10</sup>For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness.

<sup>11</sup>For the moment, all discipline seems not to be pleasant, but painful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble, <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is impaired may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

<sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with all people, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many become defiled;

<sup>16</sup>that there be no sexually immoral or godless person like Esau, who sold his own birthright for a single meal.

<sup>17</sup>For you know that even afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought for it with tears.

Contrast of Sinai and Zion

<sup>18</sup>For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and whirlwind,

<sup>19</sup>and to the blast of a trumpet and the sound of words, which sound was such that those who heard begged that no further word be spoken to them.

<sup>20</sup>For they could not cope with the command, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.”

<sup>21</sup>And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.”

<sup>22</sup>But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels,

<sup>23</sup>to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, <sup>24</sup>and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks better than the blood of Abel.

The Unshaken Kingdom

<sup>25</sup>See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if those did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape who turn away from Him who warns us from heaven.

<sup>26</sup>And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, “YET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH, BUT ALSO THE HEAVEN.”

<sup>27</sup>This expression, “Yet once more,” denotes the removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, since we receive a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let’s show gratitude, by which we may offer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe;

<sup>29</sup>for our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13

The Changeless Christ

- <sup>1</sup>Let love of the brothers and sisters continue.
- <sup>2</sup>Do not neglect hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it.
- <sup>3</sup>Remember the prisoners, as though in prison with them, and those who are badly treated, since you yourselves also are in the body.
- <sup>4</sup>Marriage is to be held in honor among all, and the marriage bed is to be undefiled; for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.
- <sup>5</sup>Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I WILL NEVER DESERT YOU, NOR WILL I EVER ABANDON YOU,"
- <sup>6</sup>so that we confidently say, "THE LORD IS MY HELPER, I WILL NOT BE AFRAID. WHAT WILL MAN DO TO ME?"
- <sup>7</sup>Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their way of life, imitate their faith.
- <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, and forever.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not be misled by varied and strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.
- <sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.
- <sup>11</sup>For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the Holy Place by the high priest as an offering for sin are burned outside the camp.
- <sup>12</sup>Therefore Jesus also suffered outside the gate, that He might sanctify the people through His own blood.
- <sup>13</sup>So then, let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach.
- <sup>14</sup>For here we do not have a lasting city, but we are seeking the city which is to come.

God-pleasing Sacrifices

<sup>15</sup>Through Him then, let's continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips praising His name.

<sup>16</sup>And do not neglect doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

<sup>17</sup>Obey your leaders and submit to them—for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account—so that they may do this with joy, not groaning; for this would be unhelpful for you.

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.

<sup>19</sup>And I urge you all the more to do this, so that I may be restored to you more quickly.

Benediction

<sup>20</sup>Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep through the blood of the eternal covenant, that is, Jesus our Lord,

<sup>21</sup>equip you in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>But I urge you, brothers and sisters, listen patiently to this word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

<sup>23</sup>Know that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom, if he comes soon, I will see you.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

<sup>25</sup>Grace be with you all.

James

James 1

The Testing of Your Faith

<sup>1</sup> James, a bond-servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes who are dispersed abroad: Greetings.

<sup>2</sup> Consider it all joy, my brothers and sisters, when you encounter various trials,

<sup>4</sup> And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

<sup>5</sup> But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

<sup>6</sup> But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind.

<sup>7</sup> For that person ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord,

<sup>9</sup> Now the brother or sister of humble circumstances is to glory in his high position;

<sup>10</sup> but the rich person is to glory in his humiliation, because like flowering grass he will pass away.

<sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass; and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed; so also the rich person, in the midst of his pursuits, will die out.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

<sup>13</sup>No one is to say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God”; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone.

<sup>14</sup>But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust.

<sup>15</sup>Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it has run its course, brings forth death.

<sup>18</sup>In the exercise of His will He gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would be a kind of first fruits among His creatures.

<sup>19</sup> You know this, my beloved brothers and sisters. Now everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger;

<sup>20</sup>for a man’s anger does not bring about the righteousness of God.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore, ridding yourselves of all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

<sup>23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror;

<sup>24</sup>for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

<sup>25</sup>But one who has looked intently at the perfect law, the law of freedom, and has continued in it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an active doer, this person will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>26</sup>If anyone thinks himself to be religious, yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this person's religion is worthless.

<sup>27</sup>Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

James 2

The Sin of Partiality

<sup>1</sup>My brothers and sisters, do not hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of personal favoritism.

<sup>2</sup>For if a man comes into your assembly with a gold ring and is dressed in bright clothes, and a poor man in dirty clothes also comes in,

<sup>3</sup>and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the bright clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool,"

<sup>4</sup>have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil motives?

<sup>5</sup>Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters: did God not choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

<sup>6</sup>But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and personally drag you into court?

<sup>7</sup>Do they not blaspheme the good name by which you have been called?

<sup>8</sup>If, however, you are fulfilling the royal law according to the Scripture, "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF," you are doing well.

<sup>9</sup>But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the Law as violators.

<sup>10</sup>For whoever keeps the whole Law, yet stumbles in one point, has become guilty of all.

<sup>11</sup>For He who said, “DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY,” also said, “DO NOT MURDER.” Now if you do not commit adultery, but do murder, you have become a violator of the Law.

<sup>12</sup>So speak, and so act, as those who are to be judged by the law of freedom.

<sup>13</sup>For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works

<sup>14</sup>What use is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but he has no works? Can that faith save him?

<sup>15</sup>If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food, <sup>16</sup>and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and be filled,” yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?

<sup>17</sup>In the same way, faith also, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.

<sup>18</sup>But someone may well say, “You have faith and I have works; show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith by my works.”

<sup>19</sup>You believe that God is one. You do well; the demons also believe, and shudder.

<sup>20</sup>But are you willing to acknowledge, you foolish person, that faith without works is useless?

<sup>21</sup>Was our father Abraham not justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar?

<sup>22</sup>You see that faith was working with his works, and as a result of the works, faith was perfected;

<sup>23</sup>and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “AND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS CREDITED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS,” and he was called a friend of God.

<sup>24</sup>You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

<sup>25</sup>In the same way, was Rahab the prostitute not justified by works also when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?

<sup>26</sup>For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

James 3

The Tongue Is a Fire

<sup>1</sup>Do not become teachers in large numbers, my brothers, since you know that we who are teachers will incur a stricter judgment.

<sup>2</sup>For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to rein in the whole body as well.

<sup>3</sup>Now if we put the bits into the horses' mouths so that they will obey us, we direct their whole body as well.

<sup>4</sup>Look at the ships too: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are nevertheless directed by a very small rudder wherever the inclination of the pilot determines.

<sup>5</sup>So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

<sup>6</sup>And the tongue is a fire, the very world of unrighteousness; the tongue is set among our body's parts as that which defiles the whole body and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by hell.

<sup>7</sup>For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by the human race.

<sup>8</sup>But no one among mankind can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

<sup>9</sup>With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people, who have been made in the likeness of God;

<sup>10</sup>from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be this way.

<sup>12</sup>Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, bear olives, or a vine bear figs? Nor can salt water produce fresh.

Wisdom from Above

<sup>13</sup>Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.

<sup>14</sup>But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth.

<sup>16</sup>For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

<sup>17</sup>But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, free of hypocrisy.

<sup>18</sup>And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

James 4

Things to Avoid

<sup>1</sup> What is the source of quarrels and conflicts among you? Is the source not your pleasures that wage war in your body's parts?

<sup>2</sup>You lust and do not have, so you commit murder. And you are envious and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

<sup>3</sup>You ask and do not receive, because you ask with the wrong motives, so that you may spend what you request on your pleasures.

<sup>4</sup>You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

<sup>5</sup>Or do you think that the Scripture says to no purpose, “He jealously desires the Spirit whom He has made to dwell in us”?

<sup>6</sup>But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, “GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.”

<sup>7</sup>Submit therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

<sup>8</sup>Come close to God and He will come close to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

<sup>9</sup>Be miserable, and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into gloom.

<sup>10</sup>Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

<sup>11</sup>Do not speak against one another, brothers and sisters. The one who speaks against a brother or sister, or judges his brother or sister, speaks against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge of it.

<sup>12</sup>There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy; but who are you, judging your neighbor?

<sup>13</sup>Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.”

<sup>14</sup>Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. For you are just a vapor that appears for a little while, and then vanishes away.

<sup>15</sup>Instead, you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.”

<sup>16</sup>But as it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup>So for one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, for him it is sin.

James 5

Misuse of Riches

<sup>1</sup>Come now, you rich people, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you.

<sup>3</sup>Your gold and your silver have corroded, and their corrosion will serve as a testimony against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have stored up your treasure!

<sup>4</sup>Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of armies.

<sup>5</sup>You have lived for pleasure on the earth and lived luxuriously; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

<sup>6</sup>You have condemned and put to death the righteous person; he offers you no resistance.

Exhortation

<sup>8</sup>You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

<sup>9</sup>Do not complain, brothers and sisters, against one another, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing right at the door.

<sup>10</sup>As an example, brothers and sisters, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>We count those blessed who endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

<sup>12</sup>But above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but your yes is to be yes, and your no, no, so that you do not fall under judgment.

<sup>13</sup>Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises.

<sup>14</sup>Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

<sup>15</sup>and the prayer of faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed. A prayer of a righteous person, when it is brought about, can accomplish much.

<sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months.

<sup>18</sup>Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.

<sup>19</sup>My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you strays from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that the one who has turned a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1 Peter 1

A Living Hope and a Sure Salvation

<sup>1</sup>Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who reside as strangers, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who are chosen

<sup>2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

<sup>4</sup>to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you,

<sup>5</sup>who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

<sup>6</sup>In this you greatly rejoice, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials,

<sup>7</sup>so that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which perishes though tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

<sup>8</sup>and though you have not seen Him, you love Him, and though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, <sup>9</sup>obtaining as the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup>As to this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you made careful searches and inquiries,

<sup>11</sup>seeking to know what person or time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow.

<sup>12</sup>It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, in these things which now have been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things into which angels long to look.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, prepare your minds for action, keep sober in spirit, set your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup>As obedient children, do not be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your ignorance,

<sup>15</sup>but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior;

<sup>16</sup>because it is written: “YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY.”

<sup>17</sup>If you address as Father the One who impartially judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your stay on earth;

<sup>18</sup>knowing that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your forefathers,

<sup>19</sup>but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.

<sup>20</sup>For He was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but has appeared in these last times for the sake of you

<sup>21</sup>who through Him are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

<sup>22</sup>Since you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth for a sincere love of the brothers and sisters, fervently love one another from the heart,

<sup>23</sup>for you have been born again not of seed which is perishable, but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God.

<sup>24</sup>For, “ALL FLESH IS LIKE GRASS, AND ALL ITS GLORY IS LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS. THE GRASS WITHERS, AND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF, <sup>25</sup>BUT THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER.” And this is the word which was preached to you.

1 Peter 2

As Newborn Babies

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander,

<sup>2</sup>and like newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may grow in respect to salvation,

<sup>3</sup>if you have tasted the kindness of the Lord.

As Living Stones

<sup>4</sup>And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by people, but is choice and precious in the sight of God,

<sup>5</sup>you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

<sup>6</sup>For this is contained in Scripture: “BEHOLD, I AM LAYING IN ZION A CHOICE STONE, A PRECIOUS CORNERSTONE, AND THE ONE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE PUT TO SHAME.”

<sup>7</sup>This precious value, then, is for you who believe; but for unbelievers, “A STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS BECAME THE CHIEF CORNERSTONE,”

<sup>8</sup>and, “A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE”; for they stumble because they are disobedient to the word, and to this they were also appointed.

<sup>9</sup>But you are A CHOSEN PEOPLE, A royal PRIESTHOOD, A HOLY NATION, A PEOPLE FOR GOD’S own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;

<sup>10</sup>for you once were NOT A PEOPLE, but now you are THE PEOPLE OF GOD; you had NOT RECEIVED MERCY, but now you have RECEIVED MERCY.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, I urge you as foreigners and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts, which wage war against the soul.

<sup>12</sup>Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may because of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God on the day of visitation.

Honor Authority

<sup>13</sup>Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority, <sup>14</sup>or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right.

<sup>15</sup>For such is the will of God, that by doing right you silence the ignorance of foolish people.

<sup>16</sup>Act as free people, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as bond-servants of God.

<sup>17</sup>Honor all people, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.

<sup>18</sup>Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh.

<sup>19</sup>For this finds favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a person endures grief when suffering unjustly.

<sup>20</sup>For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.

Christ Is Our Example

<sup>21</sup>For you have been called for this purpose, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you would follow in His steps,

<sup>22</sup>HE who committed no sin, NOR WAS ANY DECEIT found IN HIS MOUTH;

<sup>23</sup>and while being abusively insulted, He did not insult in return; while suffering, He did not threaten, but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges righteously;

<sup>24</sup>and He Himself brought our sins in His body up on the cross, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness; by His wounds you were healed.

<sup>25</sup>For you were continually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3

Godly Living

<sup>1</sup>In the same way, you wives, be subject to your own husbands so that even if any of them are disobedient to the word, they may be won over without a word by the behavior of their wives,

<sup>3</sup>Your adornment must not be merely the external—braiding the hair, wearing gold jewelry, or putting on apparel;

<sup>4</sup>but it should be the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

<sup>5</sup>For in this way the holy women of former times, who hoped in God, also used to adorn themselves, being subject to their own husbands,

<sup>6</sup>just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; and you have proved to be her children if you do what is right without being frightened by any fear.

<sup>7</sup>You husbands in the same way, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with someone weaker, since she is a woman; and show her honor as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup>To sum up, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, loving, compassionate, and humble;

<sup>9</sup>not returning evil for evil or insult for insult, but giving a blessing instead; for you were called for the very purpose that you would inherit a blessing.

<sup>10</sup>For, “THE ONE WHO DESIRES LIFE, TO LOVE AND SEE GOOD DAYS, MUST KEEP HIS TONGUE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING DECEIT.

<sup>11</sup>“HE MUST TURN AWAY FROM EVIL AND DO GOOD; HE MUST SEEK PEACE AND PURSUE IT.

<sup>12</sup>“FOR THE EYES OF THE LORD ARE TOWARD THE RIGHTEOUS, AND HIS EARS ATTEND TO THEIR PRAYER, BUT THE FACE OF THE LORD IS AGAINST EVILDOERS.”

<sup>13</sup>And who is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good?

<sup>14</sup>But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. AND DO NOT FEAR THEIR INTIMIDATION, AND DO NOT BE IN DREAD,

<sup>15</sup>but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, but with gentleness and respect;

<sup>16</sup>and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who disparage your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.

<sup>17</sup>For it is better, if God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.

<sup>18</sup>For Christ also suffered for sins once for all time, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;

<sup>19</sup>in which He also went and made proclamation to the spirits in prison,

<sup>20</sup>who once were disobedient when the patience of God kept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through the water.

<sup>21</sup>Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

<sup>22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, after angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him.

1 Peter 4

Keep Fervent in Your Love

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, since Christ has suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same purpose, because the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

<sup>2</sup>so as to live the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human lusts, but for the will of God.

<sup>3</sup>For the time already past is sufficient for you to have carried out the desire of the Gentiles, having pursued a course of indecent behavior, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and wanton idolatries.

<sup>4</sup>In all this, they are surprised that you do not run with them in the same excesses of debauchery, and they slander you;

<sup>5</sup>but they will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

<sup>6</sup>For the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as people, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God.

<sup>7</sup>The end of all things is near; therefore, be of sound judgment and sober spirit for the purpose of prayer.

<sup>10</sup>As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the multifaceted grace of God.

<sup>11</sup>Whoever speaks is to do so as one who is speaking actual words of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Share the Sufferings of Christ

<sup>12</sup>Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though something strange were happening to you;

<sup>13</sup>but to the degree that you share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing, so that at the revelation of His glory you may also rejoice and be overjoyed.

<sup>14</sup>If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory, and of God, rests upon you.

<sup>15</sup>Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a troublesome meddler;

<sup>16</sup>but if anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name.

<sup>17</sup>For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

<sup>18</sup>AND IF IT IS WITH DIFFICULTY THAT THE RIGHTEOUS IS SAVED, WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE GODLESS MAN AND THE SINNER?

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, those also who suffer according to the will of God are to entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

1 Peter 5

Serve God Willingly

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, I urge elders among you, as your fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and one who is also a fellow partaker of the glory that is to be revealed:

<sup>2</sup>shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not with greed but with eagerness;

<sup>3</sup>nor yet as domineering over those assigned to your care, but by proving to be examples to the flock.

<sup>4</sup>And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

<sup>5</sup>You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT HE GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you at the proper time, <sup>7</sup>having cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares about you.

<sup>8</sup>Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

<sup>9</sup>So resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being accomplished by your brothers and sisters who are in the world.

<sup>10</sup>After you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

<sup>11</sup>To Him be dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Through Silvanus, our faithful brother (for so I regard him), I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it!

<sup>13</sup>She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son, Mark.

<sup>14</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ.

2 Peter 1

Growth in Christian Virtue

<sup>1</sup> Simon Peter, a bond-servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have received a faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,

<sup>3</sup> for His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence.

<sup>4</sup> Through these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world on account of lust.

<sup>5</sup> Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge,

<sup>6</sup> and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness,

<sup>7</sup> and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.

<sup>8</sup> For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they do not make you useless nor unproductive in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> For the one who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choice of you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble;

<sup>11</sup>for in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly supplied to you.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them and have been established in the truth which is present with you.

<sup>13</sup>I consider it right, as long as I am in this earthly dwelling, to stir you up by way of reminder, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the laying aside of my earthly dwelling is imminent, as also our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

<sup>15</sup>And I will also be diligent that at any time after my departure you will be able to call these things to mind.

Eyewitnesses

<sup>16</sup>For we did not follow cleverly devised tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

<sup>17</sup>For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such a declaration as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory: “This is My beloved Son with whom I am well pleased”—

<sup>18</sup>and we ourselves heard this declaration made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup>And so we have the prophetic word made more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts.

<sup>20</sup>But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture becomes a matter of someone’s own interpretation, <sup>21</sup>for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 Peter 2

The Appearance of False Prophets

<sup>1</sup>But false prophets also appeared among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

<sup>2</sup>Many will follow their indecent behavior, and because of them the way of the truth will be maligned;

<sup>3</sup>and in their greed they will exploit you with false words; their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

<sup>4</sup>For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, held for judgment;

<sup>5</sup>and did not spare the ancient world, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly;

<sup>6</sup>and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an example of what is coming for the ungodly;

<sup>7</sup>and if He rescued righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the perverted conduct of unscrupulous people

<sup>8</sup>(for by what he saw and heard that righteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds),

<sup>9</sup>then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment,

<sup>10</sup>and especially those who indulge the flesh in its corrupt passion, and despise authority. Reckless, self-centered, they speak abusively of angelic majesties without trembling,

<sup>11</sup>whereas angels who are greater in might and power do not bring a demeaning judgment against them before the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>But these, like unreasoning animals, born as creatures of instinct to be captured and killed, using abusive speech where they have no knowledge, will in the destruction of those creatures also be destroyed,

<sup>13</sup>suffering wrong as the wages of doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are stains and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions as they feast with you,

<sup>14</sup>having eyes full of adultery that never cease from sin, enticing unstable souls, having hearts trained in greed, accursed children;

<sup>15</sup>abandoning the right way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved the reward of unrighteousness;

<sup>16</sup>but he received a rebuke for his own offense, for a mute donkey, speaking with a human voice, restrained the insanity of the prophet.

<sup>17</sup>These are springs without water and mists driven by a storm, for whom the black darkness has been reserved.

<sup>18</sup>For, while speaking out arrogant words of no value they entice by fleshly desires, by indecent behavior, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error,

<sup>19</sup>promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what anyone is overcome, by this he is enslaved.

<sup>20</sup>For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

<sup>21</sup>For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment handed on to them.

<sup>22</sup>It has happened to them according to the true proverb, “A DOG RETURNS TO ITS OWN VOMIT,” and, “A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire.”

2 Peter 3

Purpose of This Letter

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, this is now the second letter I am writing to you in which I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of a reminder,

<sup>2</sup>to remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles.

The Coming Day of the LORD

<sup>3</sup>Know this first of all, that in the last days mockers will come with their mocking, following after their own lusts,

<sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue just as they were from the beginning of creation.”

<sup>5</sup>For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and by water, <sup>6</sup>through which the world at that time was destroyed by being flooded with water.

<sup>7</sup>But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people.

<sup>8</sup>But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not willing for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance.

A New Heaven and Earth

<sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be discovered.

<sup>11</sup>Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

<sup>12</sup>looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the elements will melt with intense heat!

<sup>13</sup>But according to His promise we are looking for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved, since you look for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by Him, at peace,

<sup>15</sup>and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; just as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given him, wrote to you,

<sup>16</sup>as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things, in which there are some things that are hard to understand, which the untaught and unstable distort, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

<sup>17</sup>You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not carried away by the error of unscrupulous people and lose your own firm commitment, <sup>18</sup>but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 John

1 John 1

The Incarnate Word

<sup>1</sup>What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of Life—

<sup>2</sup>and the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was revealed to us—

<sup>3</sup>what we have seen and heard we proclaim to you also, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>These things we write, so that our joy may be made complete.

God Is Light

<sup>5</sup>This is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

<sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth;

<sup>7</sup>but if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us.

<sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous, so that He will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

<sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

1 John 2

Christ Is Our Advocate

<sup>1</sup>My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

<sup>2</sup>and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

<sup>3</sup>By this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments.

<sup>4</sup>The one who says, "I have come to know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him;

<sup>5</sup>but whoever follows His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him:

<sup>6</sup>the one who says that he remains in Him ought, himself also, to walk just as He walked.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

<sup>8</sup>On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true Light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup>The one who says that he is in the Light and yet hates his brother or sister is in the darkness until now.

<sup>10</sup>The one who loves his brother and sister remains in the Light, and there is nothing in him to cause stumbling.

<sup>11</sup>But the one who hates his brother or sister is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup>I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you on account of His name.

<sup>13</sup>I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children, because you know the Father.

<sup>14</sup>I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

<sup>15</sup>Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

<sup>16</sup>For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

<sup>17</sup>The world is passing away and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God continues to live forever.

<sup>18</sup>Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared; from this we know that it is the last hour.

<sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not really of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, so that it would be evident that they all are not of us.

<sup>20</sup>But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.

<sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

<sup>22</sup>Who is the liar except the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

<sup>23</sup>Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.

<sup>24</sup>As for you, see that what you heard from the beginning remains in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.

The Promise Is Eternal Life

<sup>25</sup>This is the promise which He Himself made to us: eternal life.

<sup>26</sup>These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to deceive you.

<sup>27</sup>And as for you, the anointing which you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you remain in Him.

<sup>28</sup>Now, little children, remain in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not draw back from Him in shame at His coming.

<sup>29</sup>If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness also has been born of Him.

1 John 3

Children of God Love One Another

<sup>1</sup>See how great a love the Father has given us, that we would be called children of God; and in fact we are. For this reason the world does not know us: because it did not know Him.

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is.

<sup>3</sup>And everyone who has this hope set on Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness.

<sup>5</sup>You know that He appeared in order to take away sins; and in Him there is no sin.

<sup>6</sup>No one who remains in Him sins continually; no one who sins continually has seen Him or knows Him.

<sup>7</sup>Little children, make sure no one deceives you; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous;

<sup>8</sup>the one who practices sin is of the devil; for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The Son of God appeared for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil.

<sup>9</sup>No one who has been born of God practices sin, because His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin continually, because he has been born of God.

<sup>10</sup>By this the children of God and the children of the devil are obvious: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who does not love his brother and sister.

<sup>11</sup>For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we are to love one another;

<sup>12</sup>not as Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And for what reason did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil, but his brother's were righteous.

<sup>13</sup>Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers and sisters. The one who does not love remains in death.

<sup>15</sup>Everyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

<sup>16</sup>We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers and sisters.

<sup>17</sup>But whoever has worldly goods and sees his brother or sister in need, and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God remain in him?

<sup>18</sup>Little children, let's not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth.

<sup>19</sup>We will know by this that we are of the truth, and will set our heart at ease before Him,

<sup>20</sup>that if our heart condemns us, that God is greater than our heart, and He knows all things.

<sup>21</sup>Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God;

<sup>22</sup>and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight.

<sup>23</sup>This is His commandment, that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He commanded us.

<sup>24</sup>The one who keeps His commandments remains in Him, and He in him. We know by this that He remains in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

1 John 4

Testing the Spirits

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

<sup>2</sup>By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;

<sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming, and now it is already in the world.

<sup>4</sup>You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.

<sup>5</sup>They are from the world, therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.

<sup>6</sup>We are from God. The one who knows God listens to us; the one who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God Is Love

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let's love one another; for love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

<sup>8</sup>The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

<sup>9</sup>By this the love of God was revealed in us, that God has sent His only Son into the world so that we may live through Him.

<sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

<sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God remains in us, and His love is perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup>By this we know that we remain in Him and He in us, because He has given to us of His Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

<sup>15</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God.

<sup>16</sup>We have come to know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him.

<sup>17</sup>By this, love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because as He is, we also are in this world.

<sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love.

<sup>19</sup>We love, because He first loved us.

<sup>20</sup>If someone says, "I love God," and yet he hates his brother or sister, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother and sister whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen.

<sup>21</sup>And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God must also love his brother and sister.

1 John 5

Overcoming the World

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves the child born of Him.

<sup>2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and follow His commandments.

<sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.

<sup>4</sup>For whoever has been born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith.

<sup>5</sup>Who is the one who overcomes the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

<sup>6</sup>This is the One who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

<sup>7</sup>For there are three that testify:

<sup>8</sup>the Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement.

<sup>9</sup>If we receive the testimony of people, the testimony of God is greater; for the testimony of God is this, that He has testified concerning His Son.

<sup>10</sup>The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself; the one who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning His Son.

<sup>11</sup>And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.

<sup>12</sup>The one who has the Son has the life; the one who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

This Is Written That You May Know

<sup>13</sup>These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

<sup>14</sup>This is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

<sup>15</sup>And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him.

<sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother or sister committing a sin not leading to death, he shall ask and God will, for him, give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death; I am not saying that he should ask about that.

<sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that no one who has been born of God sins; but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

<sup>19</sup>We know that we are of God, and that the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup>And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

<sup>21</sup>Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

2 John

2 John 1

Walk According to His Commandments

<sup>1</sup>The elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not only I, but also all who know the truth,

<sup>2</sup>because of the truth which remains in us and will be with us forever:

<sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received a commandment to do from the Father.

<sup>5</sup>Now I ask you, lady, not as though I were writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another.

<sup>6</sup>And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you are to walk in it.

<sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

<sup>8</sup>Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

<sup>9</sup>Anyone who goes too far and does not remain in the teaching of Christ, does not have God; the one who remains in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not give him a greeting;

<sup>12</sup>Though I have many things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that your joy may be made complete.

<sup>13</sup>The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

3 John 1

A Good Report

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I pray that in all respects you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

<sup>3</sup>For I was overjoyed when brothers came and testified to your truth, that is, how you are walking in truth.

<sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the brothers and sisters, and especially when they are strangers;

<sup>6</sup>and they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore we ought to support such people, so that we may prove to be fellow workers with the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote something to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say.

<sup>10</sup>For this reason, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with malicious words; and not satisfied with this, he himself does not receive the brothers either, and he forbids those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does what is good is of God; the one who does what is evil has not seen God.

<sup>12</sup>Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself; and we testify too, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup>I had many things to write to you, but I do not want to write to you with pen and ink;

<sup>14</sup>but I hope to see you shortly, and we will speak face to face.

<sup>15</sup>Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Jude 1

The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

<sup>1</sup> Jude, a bond-servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup> Beloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our common salvation, I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you contend earnestly for the faith that was once for all time handed down to the saints.

<sup>4</sup> For certain people have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into indecent behavior and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now I want to remind you, though you know everything once and for all, that the Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

<sup>6</sup> And angels who did not keep their own domain but abandoned their proper dwelling place, these He has kept in eternal restraints under darkness for the judgment of the great day,

<sup>7</sup> just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, since they in the same way as these angels indulged in sexual perversion and went after strange flesh, are exhibited as an example in undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

<sup>8</sup> Yet in the same way these people also, dreaming, defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak abusively of angelic majesties.

<sup>9</sup> But Michael the archangel, when he disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce against him an abusive judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"

<sup>10</sup>But these people disparage all the things that they do not understand; and all the things that they know by instinct, like unreasoning animals, by these things they are destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have given themselves up to the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

<sup>12</sup>These are the ones who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, like shepherds caring only for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uprooted;

<sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea, churning up their own shameful deeds like dirty foam; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved forever.

<sup>14</sup>It was also about these people that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord has come with many thousands of His holy ones, <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.”

<sup>16</sup>These are grumblers, finding fault, following after their own lusts; they speak arrogantly, flattering people for the sake of gaining an advantage.

Keep Yourselves in the Love of God

<sup>17</sup>But you, beloved, ought to remember the words that were spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

<sup>18</sup>that they were saying to you, “In the last time there will be mockers, following after their own ungodly lusts.”

<sup>20</sup>But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, looking forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

<sup>22</sup>And have mercy on some, who are doubting;

<sup>23</sup>save others, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, hating even the garment polluted by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to Him who is able to protect you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory, blameless with great joy, <sup>25</sup>to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Revelation

Revelation 1

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup>The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show to His bond-servants, the things which must soon take place; and He sent and communicated it by His angel to His bond-servant John,

<sup>2</sup>who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, everything that he saw.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the words of the prophecy and keep the things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Message to the Seven Churches

<sup>4</sup>John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before His throne,

<sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood—

<sup>6</sup>and He made us into a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>BEHOLD, HE IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over Him. So it is to be. Amen.

<sup>8</sup>“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

The Patmos Vision

<sup>9</sup>I, John, your brother and fellow participant in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

<sup>10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet,

<sup>11</sup>saying, "Write on a scroll what you see, and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup>Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And after turning I saw seven golden lampstands;

<sup>13</sup>and in the middle of the lampstands I saw one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and wrapped around the chest with a golden sash.

<sup>14</sup>His head and His hair were white like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire.

<sup>15</sup>His feet were like burnished bronze when it has been heated to a glow in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters.

<sup>16</sup>In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

<sup>17</sup>When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. And He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last,

<sup>18</sup>and the living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after these things.

<sup>20</sup>As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Revelation 2

Message to Ephesus

<sup>1</sup> “To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says this:

<sup>2</sup> ‘I know your deeds and your labor and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil people, and you have put those who call themselves apostles to the test, and they are not, and you found them to be false;

<sup>3</sup>and you have perseverance and have endured on account of My name, and have not become weary.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, remember from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the deeds you did at first; or else I am coming to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent.

<sup>6</sup>But you have this, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

<sup>7</sup>The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will grant to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.’

Message to Smyrna

<sup>8</sup> “And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life, says this:

<sup>9</sup> ‘I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich), and the slander by those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

<sup>10</sup>Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup>The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.'

Message to Pergamum

<sup>12</sup> "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this:

<sup>13</sup> 'I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold firmly to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

<sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against you, because you have some there who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.

<sup>15</sup> So you too, have some who in the same way hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will wage war against them with the sword of My mouth.

<sup>17</sup> The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and a new name written on the stone which no one knows except the one who receives it.'

Message to Thyatira

<sup>18</sup> "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: The Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and feet like burnished bronze, says this:

<sup>19</sup> 'I know your deeds, and your love and faith, and service and perseverance, and that your deeds of late are greater than at first.

<sup>20</sup> But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray so that they commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

<sup>21</sup>I gave her time to repent, and she does not want to repent of her sexual immorality.

<sup>22</sup>Behold, I will throw her on a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds.

<sup>23</sup>And I will kill her children with plague, and all the churches will know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

<sup>24</sup>But I say to you, the rest who are in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them—I place no other burden on you.

<sup>26</sup>The one who overcomes, and the one who keeps My deeds until the end, I will give him authority over the nations;

<sup>27</sup>AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE SHATTERED, as I also have received authority from My Father;

<sup>28</sup>and I will give him the morning star.

<sup>29</sup>The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

Revelation 3

Message to Sardis

<sup>1</sup> "To the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars, says this: 'I know your deeds, that you have a name that you are alive, and yet you are dead.

<sup>2</sup>Be constantly alert, and strengthen the things that remain, which were about to die; for I have not found your deeds completed in the sight of My God.

<sup>3</sup>So remember what you have received and heard; and keep it, and repent. Then if you are not alert, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

<sup>4</sup>But you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments; and they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy.

<sup>5</sup>The one who overcomes will be clothed the same way, in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

<sup>6</sup>The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

Message to Philadelphia

<sup>7</sup> “And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this:

<sup>8</sup> ‘I know your deeds. Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have followed My word, and have not denied My name.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and make them know that I have loved you.

<sup>10</sup>Because you have kept My word of perseverance, I also will keep you from the hour of the testing, that hour which is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who live on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>I am coming quickly; hold firmly to what you have, so that no one will take your crown.

<sup>12</sup>The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will not go out from it anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name.

<sup>13</sup>The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

Message to Laodicea

<sup>14</sup> “To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: The Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Origin of the creation of God, says this:

<sup>15</sup> ‘I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish that you were cold or hot.

<sup>16</sup> So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

<sup>17</sup> Because you say, “I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have no need of anything,” and you do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked,

<sup>18</sup> I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may become rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness will not be revealed; and eye salve to apply to your eyes so that you may see.

<sup>19</sup> Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline; therefore be zealous and repent.

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me.

<sup>21</sup> The one who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat with My Father on His throne.

<sup>22</sup> The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ”

Revelation 4

Scene in Heaven

<sup>1</sup> After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven, and the first voice which I had heard, like the sound of a trumpet speaking with me, said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things.”

<sup>2</sup>Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and someone was sitting on the throne.

<sup>3</sup>And He who was sitting was like a jasper stone and a sardius in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.

<sup>4</sup>Around the throne were twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments, and golden crowns on their heads.

The Throne and Worship of the Creator

<sup>5</sup>Out from the throne *came flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God;

<sup>6</sup>and before the throne there was something like a sea of glass, like crystal; and in the center and around the throne, four living creatures full of eyes in front and behind.

<sup>7</sup>The first living creature was like a lion, the second creature like a calf, the third creature had a face like that of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

<sup>8</sup>And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and day and night they do not cease to say, “HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY, who was and who is and who is to come.”

<sup>9</sup>And when the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, to Him who lives forever and ever,

<sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders will fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and they will worship Him who lives forever and ever, and will cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created.”

Revelation 5

The Scroll with Seven Seals

<sup>2</sup>And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?”

<sup>3</sup>And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it.

<sup>4</sup>Then I began to weep greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

<sup>5</sup>And one of the elders *said to me, “Stop weeping; behold, the Lion that is from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome so as to be able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup>And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

<sup>7</sup>And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

<sup>8</sup>When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

<sup>9</sup>And they *sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are You to take the scroll and to break its seals; for You were slaughtered, and You purchased people for God with Your blood from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

<sup>10</sup>You have made them into a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign upon the earth.”

Angels Exalt the Lamb

<sup>11</sup>Then I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,

<sup>12</sup>saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power, wealth, wisdom, might, honor, glory, and blessing.”

<sup>13</sup>And I heard every created thing which is in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, or on the sea, and all the things in them, saying, “To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion forever and ever.”

<sup>14</sup>And the four living creatures were saying, “Amen.” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Revelation 6

The First Seal: Conqueror on a White Horse

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw when the Lamb broke one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, “Come!”

<sup>2</sup>I looked, and behold, a white horse, and the one who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

The Second Seal: War

<sup>3</sup>When He broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>4</sup>And another, a red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to take peace from the earth, and that people would kill one another; and a large sword was given to him.

The Third Seal: Famine

<sup>5</sup>When He broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!” I looked, and behold, a black horse, and the one who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

<sup>6</sup>And I heard something like a voice in the center of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not damage the oil and the wine.”

The Fourth Seal: Death

<sup>7</sup>When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>8</sup>I looked, and behold, an ashen horse; and the one who sat on it had the name Death, and Hades was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, and famine, and plague, and by the wild animals of the earth.

The Fifth Seal: Martyrs

<sup>9</sup>When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained;

<sup>10</sup>and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who live on the earth?”

<sup>11</sup>And a white robe was given to each of them; and they were told that they were to rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers and sisters who were to be killed even as they had been, was completed also.

The Sixth Seal: Terror

<sup>12</sup>And I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became as black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;

<sup>13</sup>and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind.

<sup>14</sup>The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

<sup>15</sup>Then the kings of the earth and the eminent people, and the commanders and the wealthy and the strong, and every slave and free person hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;

<sup>16</sup>and they *said to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the sight of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb;

<sup>17</sup>for the great day of Their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?”

Revelation 7

An Interlude

<sup>1</sup>After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.

<sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living God; and he called out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

<sup>3</sup>saying, “Do not harm the earth, or the sea, or the trees until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads.”

The 144,000

<sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000, sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

<sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

<sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

<sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, and from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

A Multitude from the Tribulation

<sup>9</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all the tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands;

<sup>10</sup>and they *cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

<sup>12</sup>saying, “Amen, blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the elders responded, saying to me, “These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?”

<sup>14</sup>I said to him, “My lord, you know.” And he said to me, “These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>For this reason they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them.

<sup>16</sup>They will no longer hunger nor thirst, nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any scorching heat;

<sup>17</sup>for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation 8

The Seventh Seal: Trumpets

<sup>1</sup>When the Lamb broke the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

<sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

<sup>3</sup>Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, so that he might add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.

<sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense ascended from the angel’s hand with the prayers of the saints before God.

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire of the altar, and hurled it to the earth; and there were peals of thunder and sounds, and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

<sup>7</sup>The first sounded, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was hurled to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

<sup>8</sup>The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was hurled into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood,

<sup>9</sup>and a third of the creatures which were in the sea and had life, died; and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters.

<sup>11</sup>The star is named Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters because they were made bitter.

<sup>12</sup>The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them would be darkened and the day would not shine for a third of it, and the night in the same way.

<sup>13</sup>Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midheaven, saying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe to those who live on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!”

Revelation 9

The Fifth Trumpet: Shaft of the Abyss

<sup>1</sup>Then the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the key to the shaft of the abyss was given to him.

<sup>2</sup>He opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke ascended out of the shaft like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the shaft.

<sup>3</sup>Then out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

<sup>4</sup>They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup>And they were not permitted to kill anyone, but to torment for five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a person.

<sup>6</sup>And in those days people will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death will flee from them!

<sup>7</sup>The appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads appeared to be crowns like gold, and their faces were like human faces.

<sup>8</sup>They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.

<sup>9</sup>They had breastplates like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to battle.

<sup>10</sup>They have tails like scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt people for five months.

<sup>11</sup>They have as king over them, the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon.

<sup>12</sup>The first woe has passed; behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

The Sixth Trumpet: Army from the East

<sup>13</sup>Then the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

<sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”

<sup>15</sup>And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released, so that they would kill a third of mankind.

<sup>16</sup>The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

<sup>17</sup>And this is how I saw in my vision the horses and those who sat on them: the riders had breastplates the color of fire, of hyacinth, and of brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths *came fire and smoke and brimstone.

<sup>18</sup>A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the fire, the smoke, and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.

<sup>19</sup>For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with them they do harm.

<sup>20</sup>The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands so as not to worship demons and the idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk;

<sup>21</sup>and they did not repent of their murders, nor of their witchcraft, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

Revelation 10

The Angel and the Little Scroll

<sup>1</sup>I saw another strong angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was on his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;

<sup>2</sup>and he had in his hand a little scroll, which was open. He placed his right foot on the sea and his left on the land;

<sup>3</sup>and he cried out with a loud voice, as when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the seven peals of thunder uttered their voices.

<sup>4</sup>When the seven peals of thunder had spoken, I was about to write; and I heard a voice from heaven, saying, “Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken, and do not write them.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven,

<sup>6</sup>and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that there will no longer be a delay,

<sup>7</sup>but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as He announced to His servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>Then the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking with me, and saying, “Go, take the scroll which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land.”

<sup>9</sup>And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he *said to me, “Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.”

<sup>10</sup>I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it, and in my mouth it was sweet as honey; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

<sup>11</sup>And they *said to me, “You must prophesy again concerning many peoples, nations, languages, and kings.”

Revelation 11

The Two Witnesses

<sup>1</sup>Then there was given to me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, “Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it.

<sup>2</sup>Leave out the courtyard which is outside the temple and do not measure it, because it has been given to the nations; and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months.

<sup>3</sup>And I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.”

<sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>And if anyone wants to harm them, fire flows out of their mouth and devours their enemies; and so if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way.

<sup>6</sup>These have the power to shut up the sky, so that rain will not fall during the days of their prophesying; and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.

<sup>7</sup>When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them and kill them.

<sup>8</sup>And their dead bodies will lie on the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

<sup>9</sup>Those from the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

<sup>10</sup>And those who live on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate; and they will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>And after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear fell upon those who were watching them.

<sup>12</sup>And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them.

<sup>13</sup>And at that time there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second woe has passed; behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet: Christ's Reign Foreseen

<sup>15</sup>Then the seventh angel sounded; and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ; and He will reign forever and ever."

<sup>16</sup>And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup>saying, “We give You thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the One who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup>And the nations were enraged, and Your wrath came, and the time came for the dead to be judged, and the time to reward Your bond-servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>And the temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple, and there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder, and an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

Revelation 12

The Woman, Israel

<sup>1</sup>A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

<sup>2</sup>and she was pregnant and she *cried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

The Red Dragon, Satan

<sup>3</sup>Then another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads were seven crowns.

<sup>4</sup>And his tail *swept away a third of the stars of heaven and hurled them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her Child.

The Male Child, Christ

<sup>5</sup>And she gave birth to a Son, a male, who is going to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her Child was caught up to God and to His throne.

<sup>6</sup>Then the woman fled into the wilderness where she *had a place prepared by God, so that there she would be nourished for 1,260 days.

The Angel, Michael

<sup>7</sup>And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels waged war, <sup>8</sup>and they did not prevail, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.

<sup>9</sup>And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

<sup>10</sup>Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown down, the one who accuses them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup>And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.

<sup>12</sup>For this reason, rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you with great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time.”

<sup>13</sup>And when the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child.

<sup>14</sup>But the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place, where she *was nourished for a time, times, and half a time, away from the presence of the serpent.

<sup>15</sup>And the serpent hurled water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood.

<sup>16</sup>But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and drank up the river which the dragon had hurled out of his mouth.

<sup>17</sup>So the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 13

The Beast from the Sea

<sup>1</sup>And the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore. Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads were blasphemous names.

<sup>2</sup>And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne, and great authority.

<sup>3</sup>I saw one of his heads as if it had been fatally wounded, and his fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast;

<sup>4</sup>they worshiped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?”

<sup>5</sup>A mouth was given to him speaking arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-two months was given to him.

<sup>6</sup>And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

<sup>7</sup>It was also given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority was given to him over every tribe, people, language, and nation.

<sup>8</sup>All who live on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written since the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been slaughtered.

<sup>9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

<sup>10</sup>If anyone is destined for captivity, to captivity he goes; if anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the perseverance and the faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.

<sup>12</sup>He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. And he makes the earth and those who live on it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

<sup>13</sup>He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the presence of people.

<sup>14</sup>And he deceives those who live on the earth because of the signs which it was given him to perform in the presence of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast who *had the wound of the sword and has come to life.

<sup>15</sup>And it was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast would even speak and cause all who do not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

<sup>16</sup>And he causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads,

<sup>17</sup>and he decrees that no one will be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

<sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for the number is that of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

Revelation 14

The Lamb and the 144,000 on Mount Zion

<sup>1</sup>Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 who had His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads.

<sup>2</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps.

<sup>3</sup>And they *sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one was able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been purchased from the earth.

<sup>4</sup>These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are celibate. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from mankind as first fruits to God and to the Lamb.

Vision of the Angel with the Gospel

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in midheaven with an eternal gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people;

<sup>7</sup>and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; worship Him who made the heaven and the earth, and sea and springs of waters."

<sup>8</sup>And another angel, a second one, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, she who has made all the nations drink of the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality.”

Doom for Worshipers of the Beast

<sup>9</sup>Then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,

<sup>10</sup>he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

<sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.”

<sup>12</sup>Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!’ ” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “so that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them.”

The Harvest

<sup>14</sup>Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one like a son of man, with a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.

<sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, calling out with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, “Put in Your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe.”

<sup>16</sup>Then He who sat on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup>And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup>Then another angel, the one who has power over fire, came out from the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe."

<sup>19</sup>So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into the great wine press of the wrath of God.

<sup>20</sup>And the wine press was trampled outside the city, and blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of 1,600 stadia.

Revelation 15

A Scene of Heaven

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels who had seven plagues, which are the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

<sup>2</sup>And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who were victorious over the beast and his image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God.

<sup>3</sup>And they *sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the nations!

<sup>4</sup>"Who will not fear You, Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; For ALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE YOU, For Your righteous acts have been revealed."

<sup>5</sup>After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened,

<sup>6</sup>and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in linen, clean and bright, and their chests wrapped with golden sashes.

<sup>7</sup>And one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

Revelation 16

The Bowls of Wrath

<sup>1</sup>Then I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God.”

<sup>2</sup>So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; and a harmful and painful sore afflicted the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.

<sup>3</sup>The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a dead man; and every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of waters; and they became blood.

<sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters saying, “Righteous are You, the One who is and who was, O Holy One, because You judged these things;

<sup>6</sup>for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it.”

<sup>7</sup>And I heard the altar saying, “Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.”

<sup>8</sup>And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun, and it was given power to scorch people with fire.

<sup>9</sup>And the people were scorched with fierce heat; and they blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues, and they did not repent so as to give Him glory.

<sup>10</sup>And the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened; and they gnawed their tongues because of pain,

<sup>11</sup>and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and their sores; and they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup>The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, so that the way would be prepared for the kings from the east.

Har-Magedon (Armageddon)

<sup>13</sup>And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs;

<sup>14</sup>for they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the entire world, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup>(“Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays awake and keeps his clothes, so that he will not walk about naked and people will not see his shame.”)

<sup>16</sup>And they gathered them together to the place which in Hebrew is called Har-Magedon.

The Seventh Bowl of Wrath

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl upon the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying, “It is done.”

<sup>18</sup>And there were flashes of lightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was a great earthquake, such as there had not been since mankind came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty.

<sup>19</sup>The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give her the cup of the wine of His fierce wrath.

<sup>21</sup>And huge hailstones, weighing about a talent each, *came down from heaven upon people; and people blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because the hailstone plague *was extremely severe.

Revelation 17

The Doom of Babylon

<sup>1</sup>Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of sexual immorality, and those who live on the earth became drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality.”

<sup>3</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>4</sup>The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls, holding in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her sexual immorality,

<sup>5</sup>and on her forehead a name was written, a mystery: “BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

<sup>6</sup>And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered greatly.

<sup>7</sup>And the angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>“The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who live on the earth, whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was, and is not, and will come.

<sup>9</sup>Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains upon which the woman sits, <sup>10</sup>and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while.

<sup>11</sup>The beast which was, and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction.

<sup>12</sup>The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

<sup>13</sup>These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

Victory for the Lamb

<sup>14</sup>These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them because He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful.”

<sup>15</sup>And he *said to me, “The waters which you saw where the prostitute sits are peoples and multitudes, and nations and languages.

<sup>16</sup>And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire.

<sup>17</sup>For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

<sup>18</sup>The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation 18

Babylon Is Fallen

<sup>1</sup>After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated from his glory.

<sup>2</sup>And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird.

<sup>3</sup>For all the nations have fallen because of the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the excessive wealth of her luxury.”

<sup>4</sup>I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive any of her plagues;

<sup>5</sup>for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her offenses.

<sup>6</sup>Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.

<sup>7</sup>To the extent that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, to the same extent give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, ‘I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning.’

<sup>8</sup>For this reason in one day her plagues will come, plague and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

Grief over Babylon

<sup>9</sup>“And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of sexual immorality and lived luxuriously with her, will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning,

<sup>10</sup>standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.’

<sup>11</sup>“And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any more—

<sup>12</sup>cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; every kind of citron wood, every article of ivory, and every article made from very valuable wood, bronze, iron, and marble;

<sup>13</sup>cinnamon, spice, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, and cargo of horses, carriages, slaves, and human lives.

<sup>14</sup>The fruit you long for has left you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and people will no longer find them.

<sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,

<sup>16</sup>saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls;

<sup>17</sup>for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!’ And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and all who make their living by the sea, stood at a distance,

<sup>18</sup>and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What city is like the great city?’

<sup>19</sup>And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich from her prosperity, for in one hour she has been laid waste!’

<sup>20</sup>Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her.”

<sup>21</sup>Then a strong angel picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, “So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will never be found again.

<sup>22</sup>And the sound of harpists, musicians, flute players, and trumpeters will never be heard in you again; and no craftsman of any craft will ever be found in you again; and the sound of a mill will never be heard in you again;

<sup>23</sup>and the light of a lamp will never shine in you again; and the voice of the groom and bride will never be heard in you again; for your merchants were the powerful people of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your witchcraft.

<sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slaughtered on the earth.”

Revelation 19

The Fourfold Hallelujah

<sup>1</sup>After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God,

<sup>3</sup>And a second time they said, “Hallelujah! HER SMOKE RISES FOREVER AND EVER.”

<sup>4</sup>And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!”

<sup>5</sup>And a voice came from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great.”

<sup>6</sup>Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

Marriage of the Lamb

<sup>7</sup>Let’s rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has prepared herself.”

<sup>8</sup>It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>9</sup>Then he *said to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.’” And he *said to me, “These are the true words of God.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he *said to me, “Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brothers and sisters who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

The Coming of Christ

<sup>11</sup>And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many crowns; and He has a name written on Him which no one knows except Himself.

<sup>13</sup>He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.

<sup>14</sup>And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses.

<sup>15</sup>From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

<sup>16</sup>And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name written: "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

<sup>17</sup>Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in midheaven, "Come, assemble for the great feast of God,

<sup>18</sup>so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, both free and slaves, and small and great."

<sup>19</sup>And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies, assembled to make war against Him who sat on the horse, and against His army.

Doom of the Beast and False Prophet

<sup>20</sup>And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire, which burns with brimstone.

<sup>21</sup>And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Revelation 20

Satan Bound

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

<sup>2</sup>And he took hold of the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years;

<sup>3</sup>and he threw him into the abyss and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must be released for a short time.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the mark on their foreheads and on their hands; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5</sup>The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him for a thousand years.

Satan Freed and Doomed

<sup>7</sup>When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison,

<sup>8</sup>and will come out to deceive the nations which are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for the war; the number of them is like the sand of the seashore.

<sup>9</sup>And they came up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, and fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

<sup>10</sup>And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are also; and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment at the Throne of God

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled, and no place was found for them.

<sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged from the things which were written in the books, according to their deeds.

<sup>13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them; and they were judged, each one of them according to their deeds.

<sup>14</sup>Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

<sup>15</sup>And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21

The New Heaven and Earth

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea.

<sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

<sup>3</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is among the people, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself will be among them,

<sup>4</sup>and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there will no longer be any death; there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."

<sup>5</sup>And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." And He *said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."

<sup>6</sup>Then He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give water to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life, without cost.

<sup>7</sup>The one who overcomes will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.

<sup>8</sup>But for the cowardly, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and sexually immoral persons, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

<sup>9</sup>Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, full of the seven last plagues, came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

The New Jerusalem

<sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

<sup>11</sup>having the glory of God. Her brilliance was like a very valuable stone, like a stone of crystal-clear jasper.

<sup>12</sup>It had a great and high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names were written on the gates, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

<sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>The one who spoke with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

<sup>16</sup>The city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as the width; and he measured the city with the rod, twelve thousand stadia; its length, width, and height are equal.

<sup>17</sup>And he measured its wall, 144 cubits, by human measurements, which are also angelic measurements.

<sup>18</sup>The material of the wall was jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

<sup>19</sup>The foundation stones of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;

<sup>20</sup>the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

<sup>21</sup>And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates was a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

<sup>22</sup>I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

<sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of the sun or of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God has illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb.

<sup>24</sup>The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

<sup>25</sup>In the daytime (for there will be no night there) its gates will never be closed;

<sup>26</sup>and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it;

<sup>27</sup>and nothing unclean, and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 22

The River and the Tree of Life

<sup>1</sup>And he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb,

<sup>2</sup>in the middle of its street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

<sup>3</sup>There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him;

<sup>4</sup>they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup>And there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illuminate them; and they will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>And he said to me, “These words are faithful and true”; and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show His bond-servants the things which must soon take place.

<sup>7</sup> “And behold, I am coming quickly. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

<sup>8</sup>I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

<sup>9</sup>And he *said to me, “Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!”

The Final Message

<sup>10</sup>And he *said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

<sup>11</sup>Let the one who does wrong still do wrong, and the one who is filthy still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous still practice righteousness, and the one who is holy still keep himself holy.”

<sup>12</sup> “Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to reward each one as his work deserves.

<sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”

<sup>14</sup>Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life, and may enter the city by the gates.

<sup>15</sup>Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral persons, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

<sup>16</sup> “I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you of these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.”

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” And let the one who hears say, “Come.” And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires, take the water of life without cost.

<sup>18</sup>I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book;

<sup>19</sup>and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city, which are written in this book.

<sup>20</sup>He who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming quickly.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Esclarecimento

Trata-se de iniciativa particular, com os seguintes objetivos: (i) colaborar para divulgação dos diversos textos bíblicos disponíveis, e, (ii) facilitar o acesso a esses textos, inclusive por meio de download.

Todo esforço em tornar a Palavra de Deus acessível a todos, em quaisquer localidades e falantes das mais diversas línguas, precisa ser um objetivo de todos os que são guiados pelo Espírito Santo. Ele inspirou o profeta Jeremias a dizer “não ensinará jamais cada um ao seu próximo, nem cada um ao seu irmão, dizendo: Conhece ao SENHOR, porque todos me conhecerão, desde o menor até ao maior deles, diz o SENHOR” (Jer. 31:34).

Jesus, também, falou assim: “e será pregado este evangelho do reino por todo o mundo, para testemunho a todas as nações” (Mat. 24:14).

Muitas organizações foram constituídas com o propósito de fazer a Bíblia disponível nas diversas línguas. Não é uma tarefa simples. Anos de trabalho, dedicação e entrega são necessários para esta tão extraordinária missão.

O texto deste trabalho está disponível na internet, em páginas eletrônicas de organizações que produzem ou divulgam bíblias, sem acréscimos de notas ou comentários. Assim, reconhecendo e respeitando os direitos que possuem sobre seus trabalhos, incumbe a todos os que amam a Palavra de Deus, o esforço em contribuir para amplificar sua divulgação.

Se possível, faça download do texto, para que sejamos, também, guardiões da Bíblia, e, com isso, preservando-a para as futuras gerações.

Divulga a Palavra de Deus, ela mostra o Caminho e permite a todos, que se conheça Sua vontade, em todos os lugares e épocas.
